WORD LIST FOR LEVELS
B1–C2
This publication has made use of the English Vocabulary Profile. This resource is based on extensive research using the Cambridge Learner Corpus and is part of the English Profile programme, which aims to provide evidence about language use that helps to produce better language teaching materials. See http://www.englishprofile.org/ for more information.

Compiled electronically by Efthimios Mavrogeorgiadis.
http://www.toe.gr/
Abbreviations

I Culturally Sensitive Word

+ two objects
A verb that has two objects.

C
Countable noun: a noun that has both singular and plural forms.

C usually no plural or U
Countable noun which usually has no plural or uncountable noun.

I
Intransitive verb: a verb that has no object.

T
Transitive verb: a verb that has an object.

U
Uncountable noun: noun with no plural form. Cannot be used with 'a', 'an', or 'one'.

UK
British English

US American English

abbreviation
A short form of a word or phrase.

adjective
A word that describes a noun or pronoun.
adverb
A word that describes or gives more information about a verb, adjective or other adverb.

approving
Used in a positive way, to show that you have a good opinion of someone or something.

auxiliary verb
The verbs 'be', 'have' and 'do' when combined with other verbs to make different forms.

before noun
An adjective that always comes before a noun.

conjunction
A word used to join parts of a phrase or sentence.

determiner
Word used before noun or adj to show which person or thing is being referred to.

disapproving
Used in a negative way, to show that you have a bad opinion of someone or something.

exclamation
A word or phrase that you say loudly or suddenly to express strong feelings.

formal
Used in serious writing, or for communicating with people in a serious or polite way.

Informal
Used in relaxed situations, for example with friends and family. Used more in speech.

literary
Used in books and poems, and not in ordinary conversation.
modal verb
Verb such as can, might, must. With another verb, shows an idea such as possibility.

noun
A word that refers to a person, place, idea, event or thing.

often passive
In a passive verb/sentence, the subject does not do the action but is affected by it.

often plural
Refers to more than one person or thing.

phrasal verb
Verb with an adverb or preposition, with meaning different from meaning of its parts.

plural
Refers to more than one person or thing.

preposition
Word used before noun, pronoun or -ing form of verb to show place, direction, etc.

pronoun
A word used instead of a noun, which has usually already been talked about.

specialized
Used in connection with a particular area of work or study.

symbol
A sign, shape or object used to represent something else.

verb
A word that describes an action, condition or experience.

written abbreviation
A short form of a word or phrase only used in writing abandon /əˈbæn.dən/

Word family:
Verbs: abandon
Adjectives: abandoned

VERB [T]

LEAVE
[B2] to leave someone or something somewhere, sometimes not returning to get them

Dictionary examples:
- They were forced to abandon the car.
- As a baby, he'd been abandoned by his mother.
- We were sinking fast, and the captain gave the order to abandon ship.

Learner example:
I lived with my mother and brother but my father was never there. I knew that he had abandoned us for another woman.

STOP DOING
[C1] to stop doing something before it is finished, or to stop following a plan, idea, etc.

Dictionary example:
The match was abandoned because of rain.

Learner example:
How would you feel if you establish[ed] a long-time plan for your career and then you ha[d] to abandon it?

---

abandoned /əˈbæn.dənd/

Word family:
Verbs: abandon Adjectives: abandoned
ADJECTIVE

EMPTY
[B2] left empty or not working

Dictionary example:
an abandoned factory/village

Learner example:
Arriving [at] an altitude of 2000m, people can visit the abandoned salt-mines.

LEFT SOMEWHERE
[B2] having been left somewhere, intentionally

Dictionary example:
An abandoned baby was found in a box on the hospital steps.

Learner example:
Please, just have a look [at] your wife Margaret and her eyes will tell you that she is this abandoned princess of your childhood fairy-tale.

ability /əˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: ability, disability, inability
Verbs: enable Adjectives: able, disabled, unable

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] the physical or mental skill or qualities that you need to do something

Dictionary examples:
She had the ability to explain things clearly.
athletic/academic ability

Learner example:
The protagonist had been bitten by a strange spider and some days later, he noticed [he had] some strange powers, such as the ability to create spider[s’] webs.

able /ˈeɪ.bl/
ADJECTIVE

CLEVER

[C2] clever or good at doing something

Dictionary example:
She’s a very able student.

Learner example:
They contend that this will lead to better grades, better results in key stage test[s], and a more able work force.

abnormal /æbˈnɔːməl/

Word family:
Nouns: norm, normality
Adjectives: normal, abnormal
Adverbs: normally

ADJECTIVE

[C1] different from what is normal or usual, in a way which is strange or dangerous

Dictionary examples:
abnormal behaviour/weather
They found abnormal levels of lead in the water.

Learner example:
The cost of it for the Chinese population is an abnormal level of pollution, that causes many deaths every year.

aboard /əˈbɔːrd/

ADVERB; PREPOSITION

[C1] on or onto a plane, ship, bus, or train

Dictionary example:
Welcome aboard flight BA109 to Paris.

Learner example:
Competition entry “Welcome aboard on the flight to ancient Rome...” Please fasten your seatbelts...
abolish /əˈbɒl.ɪʃ/

VERB [T]
[B2] to officially end something, especially a law or system

Dictionary examples:
I think bullfighting should be abolished.
National Service was abolished in Britain in 1962.

Learner example:
Therefore, I suggest you should not change or abolish any event for any reason.

abortion /əˈbɔː.ʃən/

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a medical operation to end a pregnancy when the baby is still too small to live

Dictionary example:
She had an abortion.

Learner example:
Some of these problems are serious and should be eliminated, such as abortion and domestic violence.

about /əˈbaʊt/

PREPOSITION
How/What about ...?
[B1] used to ask for someone's opinion on a particular subject

Dictionary examples:
What about Ava – is she nice?
So the town was nice – how about the food?

Learner example:
I also enjoy shopping for shoes, what about you?

ADVERB

DIRECTION
[B2] to or in different parts of a place, often without purpose or order

Dictionary example:
They heard someone moving/walking about outside.
ADJECTIVE

be (just) about to do sth

[B1] to be going to do something very soon

Dictionary example:
I was about to leave when Mark arrived.

Learner example:
When I was just about to cross the road, I realised that I was going to faint [at] any moment.

above /əˈbʌv/

ADVERB; PREPOSITION

above all

[B1] most importantly

Dictionary examples:
Above all, I'd like to thank my family.
He is known above all for his film roles.

Learner example:
She is a very nice person and above all, she is really cheerful.

TOO IMPORTANT

[C2] too good or important for something

Dictionary example:
No one is above suspicion in this matter.

ADVERB; ADJECTIVE

[B1] higher on the page

Dictionary examples:
the above diagram
Match these words with the pictures above.
Please send the articles to the address given/shown above.

Learner example:
I can be contacted at the above address and I would be free to attend an interview at any time from Monday to Saturday.

abroad /əˈbrɔːd/

ADVERB [ALWAYS AFTER VERB]

[B1] in or to a foreign country
Dictionary examples:
He's currently abroad on business.
We always go abroad in the summer.

Learner example:
I have never been abroad.

abrupt /əˈbrʌpt/

Word family:
Adjectives: abrupt
Adverbs: abruptly

ADJECTIVE

SUDDEN
[C2] sudden and not expected

Dictionary example:
Our conversation came to an abrupt end.

Learner example:
Their income came from the revenues obtained by selling milk, fruit, jelly and other perishable goods, but they had to pay John, or their happy lifestyle would come to an abrupt end.

RUDE
[C2] dealing with people in a quick way that is unfriendly or rude

Dictionary example:
She has a rather abrupt manner.

Learner example:
I was poorly received and the general tone of the person assisting me was rude and abrupt.

abruptly /əˈbrʌp.tli/

Word family:
Adjectives: abrupt
Adverbs: abruptly

ADVERB

[C2] suddenly and quickly

Dictionary examples:
They abruptly left the party.
His speech ended abruptly and he left the stage.

Learner example:
When she became an adolescent, her perspective changed abruptly.
absence /ˈæb.sənts/

Word family:
Nouns: absence
Adjectives: absent

NOUN

NOT PRESENT
[B2] [c or u] when someone is not where they are usually expected to be

Dictionary examples:
A new manager was appointed during/in her absence.
She has had repeated absences from work this year.

Learner example:
Thank you very much for letting me stay in your flat during your absence on holiday.

NOT EXISTING
[B2] [u] when something does not exist

Dictionary example:
He drew attention to the absence of concrete evidence against the defendant.

Learner example:
The biggest difference the absence of TV made in my life was that I actually started living.

absent /ˈæb.sənt/

Word family:
Nouns: absence
Adjectives: absent

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not in the place where you are expected to be, especially at school or work

Dictionary example:
John has been absent from school/work for three days now.

Learner example:
I would like to apologise, because I’m missing tomorrow’s class. I’m going to be absent because my grandmother is ill and I have to take care of her.

absolute /ˈæb.sə.luːt/

Word family:
Adjectives: absolute
Adverbs: absolutely
ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] complete and definite

Dictionary examples:
absolute control
He’s an absolute idiot!
That’s absolute rubbish!

Learner example:
I have no experience [of] surfing – I am an absolute beginner with high motivation.

absolutely /ˈæb.sə.luːt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: absolute
Adverbs: absolutely

ADVERB

[1] completely

Dictionary examples:
The food was absolutely delicious.
It's absolutely ridiculous.
I have absolutely no idea what she's talking about.
We've achieved absolutely nothing today.
I absolutely hate it.

Learner example:
I've heard the film is absolutely fantastic.

Absolutely!

[C1] used to strongly agree with someone

Dictionary examples:
"Do you think it helped his career?" "Absolutely."
"It was an excellent film, though." "Absolutely!"

Learner example:
So have the Swedish grandparents got funkier? Absolutely!

Absolutely not.

[C2] used to strongly disagree with someone or to agree with something negative

Dictionary example:
"Are you suggesting that we should just ignore the problem?" "No, absolutely not."
Learner example:
Does it mean the parents will allow them to eat anything they please? Absolutely not. You have to give the children some options, instead of imposing things on them.

absorb  /əbˈzɔːb/

VERB [T]

TAKE IN
[B2] to take something in, especially gradually

Dictionary examples:
Plants absorb carbon dioxide.
The drug is quickly absorbed into the bloodstream.

Learner example:
Everything is getting intermingled and absorbed into the system, making life terribly efficient, quick and easy.

be absorbed in sth
[B2] to give all your attention to something that you are doing

Dictionary example:
Simon was so absorbed in his computer game that he didn't notice me come in.

Learner example:
We hadn't noticed them at first because we were absorbed in [listening to the] birds singing.

remember
[C1] to understand and remember facts that you read or hear

Dictionary example:
It's hard to absorb so much information.

Learner example:
You will have only three school [subjects] and that'll make it easier to absorb the new knowledge.

abstract  /ˈæb.strækt/

ADJECTIVE

IDEAS
[B2] relating to ideas and not real things

Dictionary examples:
abstract ideas
Truth and beauty are abstract concepts.
Learner example:
Reading improve[s] your ability to imagine and your abstract thinking skills.

ART

[B2] Abstract art involves shapes and colours and not images of real things or people.

Dictionary example:
abstract paintings/sculpture

Learner example:
What kind of material will you use for this painting? Will it be a realistic picture or an abstract one?

---

absurd /əˈbɜːd/
ADJECTIVE
[B2] very silly

Dictionary examples:
What an absurd explanation!
Don't be so absurd! Of course I want you to come.
It's an absurd situation – neither of them will talk to the other.

Learner example:
[In your article,] some performers are called 'second-rate', which, in my view, is absurd when talking about such famous groups as 'Snakes' and 'KGB'.

---

abuse /əˈbjuːs/
Word family:
Nouns: abuse
Adjectives: abusive

NOUN
BAD TREATMENT
[B2] / [k or ʃ] bad or cruel treatment of people or animals

Dictionary examples:
sexual/psychological/mental abuse
The rescued dogs had been victims of physical abuse.

Learner example:
The one side opposes this treatment as an abuse of living creatures while the other side denies any suffering and points at the values of zoos for people.
WRONG USE

[B2] ! [c or u] the use of a substance in an unsuitable and harmful way or for the wrong purpose

Dictionary examples:
Drug and alcohol abuse contributed to his early death.
This program tries to address problems that lead to substance abuse.

Learner example:
Get information about the [effect]s of drug abuse and make your generation a better one.

WRONG ACTION

[C1] ! [c or u] an action or activity that is morally wrong or not allowed

Dictionary example:
The politician’s behaviour was an abuse of power.

Learner example:
It is a vast resource of information, but the abuse of it may have detrimental consequences.

LANGUAGE

[C2] ! [u] rude and offensive words said to another person

Dictionary example:
Rival fans shouted abuse at each other.

Learner example:
I went all the way back cycling on the wrong side of the road, and anyone who said something about it could expect a stream of abuse.

Word family:
Nouns: abuse
Adjectives: abusive

ADJECTIVE

[C2] saying rude and offensive words to someone

Dictionary example:
an abusive phone call

Learner example:
This is partly true, because even [a] slightly abusive expression might result in discord or [rupture] between seemingly close friends.
academic /ˌæk.əˈdem.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE

EDUCATION
[B2] relating to schools, colleges and universities, or to subjects which involve thinking and studying and not technical or practical skills

Dictionary examples:
- academic subjects/qualifications/books
- academic standards

Learner example:
As a member of our academic community, I'm very glad to hear that our college will have a surplus in its annual budget.

CLEVER
[C2] clever and good at studying

Dictionary example:
He's not very academic.

accelerate /əkˈsel.ə.rət/

VERB

HAPPEN
[C1] [I or T] to start to happen more quickly, or to make something start to happen more quickly

Dictionary example:
Inflation is likely to accelerate this year.

Learner example:
Fashion has always been changing but I think this process accelerated after the Second World War.

VEHICLE
[C2] [I] to move or cause yourself or a vehicle to move faster

Dictionary example:
The car in front accelerated and left us behind.

Learner example:
When I ride my bike and start accelerating, I feel that I move with the speed of the wind.
accent /ˈæk.sənt/

NOUN [C]

PRONUNCIATION

[B1] the way in which people in a particular area, country or social group pronounce words

Dictionary examples:
an American accent
He speaks with a broad/heavy/strong Yorkshire accent.

Learner example:
Our teacher is a middle-aged lady with a kind smile and [a] British accent.

MARK

[B2] a mark written or printed over a letter to show you how to pronounce it

Dictionary example:
There's an acute accent on the 'e' of 'café'.

accept /əkˈsept/

Word family:
Nouns: acceptance
Verbs: accept
Adjectives: acceptable, unacceptable, accepted

VERB

AGREE TO TAKE

[B1] [I or T] to agree to take something that is offered to you

Dictionary examples:
to accept an apology/invitation/offer
I've been invited to their wedding, but I haven't decided whether to accept.
She won't accept advice from anyone.

Learner example:
I hope that you accept my apology.

ADMIT

[B2] [T] to admit that something is true, often something unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
He refuses to accept that he's made a mistake.
I can't accept that there's nothing we can do.
Learner example:
David told her that the reason [for] his failure was her, because she used to press him a lot and she couldn’t accept that he wanted to be an actor.

ALLOW TO JOIN
[B2] [t] to allow someone to join an organization or become part of a group

Dictionary examples:
She’s been accepted by two universities.
He was accepted as a full member of the society.
His fellow workers refused to accept him.

Learner example:
When I returned home I check[ed] my mail and I ha[d] a new message from my uncle, saying that the university have accepted me.

accept responsibility/blame
[B2] to admit that you caused something bad that happened

Dictionary example:
I accept full responsibility for the failure of the plan.

acceptable /əkˈsep.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: acceptance
Verbs: accept
Adjectives: acceptable, unacceptable, accepted

GOOD ENOUGH
[B1] good enough

Dictionary examples:
work of an acceptable standard
Clearly we need to come to an arrangement that is acceptable to both parties.
This kind of attitude is simply not acceptable.
So what is an acceptable level of radiation?

Learner example:
I am sure that finally I will succeed in [us]ing English in an acceptable way!

ALLOWED
[C1] allowed or approved of

Dictionary example:
Smoking is less and less socially acceptable.
Learner example:
They should teach them what is right [and] wrong, and what is morally and socially acceptable.

acceptance /əkˈsep.tənts/

Word family:
Nouns: acceptance
Verbs: accept
Adjectives: acceptable, unacceptable, accepted

NOUN [c or u]
[C1] when you accept something

Dictionary examples:
His acceptance of the award was controversial.
There is a growing public acceptance of alternative medicine.

Learner example:
The main reason for the “fast-food” groceries winning acceptance in Swedish culture is lack of time.

accepted /əkˈsep.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: acceptance
Verbs: accept
Adjectives: acceptable, unacceptable, accepted

ADJECTIVE
[C1] agreed or approved by most people

Dictionary example:
an accepted spelling

Learner example:
Competition can also be an accepted form of expression of one’s aggression.

access /ˈæk.ses/
NOUN [u]

RIGHT/OPPORTUNITY

[B1] the right or opportunity to use or look at something

Dictionary examples:
Internet access
The system has been designed to give the user quick and easy access to the required information.

Learner example:
I would suggest free Internet access as an extra facility in our library.

METHOD

[B1] the way in which you can enter a place or get to a place

Dictionary examples:
disabled access
The only access to the village is by boat.

Learner example:
I think it would be better if you stayed in a small village which has easy access to the city centre.

VERB [t]

[B2] to find or see information, especially using a computer

Dictionary example:
You can access the files over the Internet.

Learner example:
We have more time to stay together at home, because we can access [the] internet at home.

accessible /ˌækˈsesə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: access Verbs: access Adjectives: accessible

ADJECTIVE

REACH

[B2] able to be reached or easily got

Dictionary example:
The resort is easily accessible by road, rail and air.

Learner example:
It is very accessible because it is situated in the centre.
UNDERSTAND

[C2] easy to understand

Dictionary example:
They are attempting to make opera accessible to a wider audience.

Learner example:
Jacques Prevert, the French poet, changed our way [of seeing] the world by making poetry accessible to everyone.

accessory /əkˈses.ə.r.i/

NOUN [c]

[C1] something extra which is not necessary but is attractive or useful

Dictionary examples:
bathroom accessories computer accessories

Learner example:
They find pleasure in looking at different clothes, shoes, accessories, gadgets and home furnishings.

accident /ˈæk.si.dənt/

Word family:
Nouns: accident
Adjectives: accidental
Adverbs: accidentally

NOUN [c]

by accident

[B1] without being intended

Dictionary example:
I deleted the file by accident.

Learner example:
I was dancing and someone [kicked me] by accident and my glasses fell [off].
accidental

/ˌæk.sɪˈdɛn.təl/

Word family:
- Nouns: accident
- Adjectives: accidental
- Adverbs: accidentally

ADJECTIVE

[B2] happening by chance

Dictionary examples:
- accidental damage

  The archeological site was located after the accidental discovery of bones in a field.

accidentally

/ˌæk.sɪˈdɛn.tə.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: accident
- Adjectives: accidental
- Adverbs: accidentally

ADVERB

[B2] by chance or by mistake

Dictionary example:

She accidentally knocked over a glass of water.

Learner example:

I accidentally broke one of your vases – the most beautiful one.

acclaimed

/əˈklermd/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] praised by a lot of people

Dictionary example:

the acclaimed singer and songwriter

Learner example:

In order to avoid such an embarrassing inconsistency in the next meeting, I suggest inviting Colin Briggs, the acclaimed footballer, to talk to his fans.
accommodation /əˌkɒm.əˈdeɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [u]
[B1] a place where you live or stay

Dictionary examples:
rented accommodation
The price includes flights, all meals and accommodation. There's a shortage of cheap accommodation.

Learner example:
You can find cheap accommodation in a student room because they are usually free in July and August.

accompany /əˈkʌm.pə.ni/

VERB [t]

GO WITH
[B1] to go somewhere with someone

Dictionary examples:
We accompanied her back to her hotel. Children under 10 must be accompanied by an adult.

Learner example:
I asked my cousin to accompany me because she knew the way to the temple.

HAPPEN TOGETHER
[B1] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to happen or exist at the same time as something else

Dictionary examples:
The course books are accompanied by four CDs. The salmon was accompanied by a fresh green salad.

Learner example:
The weather was very hot and a shining sun accompanied us during our trip.

MUSIC
[C2] to play music to support someone else who is playing or singing

Dictionary example:
He accompanied me on the piano.

Learner example:
Last year, for instance, the concert became a recital: two singers performed Lieder by Schubert accompanied by the piano and by the sweet sound of Arimany’s golden flute.
accomplish /əˈkʌmplɪʃ/

VERB

[C1] to succeed in doing something good

Dictionary example:
I feel as if I've accomplished nothing all day.

Learner example:
To accomplish this, schools should try to respect the individuality of each child, give them chances to think more freely.

accord /əˈkɔːd/

Word family:

Nouns: accord, accordance

NOUN

of your own accord

[C2] If you do something of your own accord, you choose to do it and no one else forces you.

Dictionary example:
She left of her own accord.

Learner example:
She would go alone, but it was something that was chosen of her own accord.

accordance /əˈkɔː.dənts/

Word family:

Nouns: accord, accordance

NOUN FORMAL

in accordance with sth

[C1] in the way described by a rule, law, or wish

Dictionary example:
Both companies have insisted that they were acting in accordance with the law.

Learner example:
Although they do not earn much money in this profession, they try to do their best and judge in accordance with the law which they also have to interpret.
according to /əˈkɔː.dɪŋˌtuː/

PREPOSITION

OPINION

[B1] as said by someone or shown by something

Dictionary examples:
According to Sarah, they’re not getting on very well at the moment.
According to our records, you owe us £45.

Learner example:
According to the guide, it was a famous culture in ancient times.

METHOD

[B2] in a way that agrees with

Dictionary example:
Students are all put in different groups according to their ability.

Learner example:
The job included organizing suitable activities according to their age, capability and wishes.

account /əˈkaʊnt/

Word family:

Nouns: account, accountant

NOUN

BANK

[B1] [c] an arrangement with a bank to keep your money there and to allow you to take it out when you need to

Dictionary examples:
I’ve opened an account with another bank.
I paid the money into my account this morning.

Learner example:
The man, whose name I can’t remember, wrote a serious looking message in which he [talked about] a money transfer to a Swiss bank account.

REPORT

[B2] [c] a written or spoken description of something that has happened

Dictionary examples:
She gave a thrilling account of her life in the jungle.
The documents provide a detailed account of the town’s early history.
Learner example:
I would be very interested [in participating] and [writing] the accounts of our journeys.

take account of sth
[B2] to consider something when judging a situation

Dictionary example:
A good architect takes account of the building's surroundings.

Learner example:
I hope you will take account of our request.

take into account sth
[B2] to consider something when judging a situation

Dictionary example:
I think you have to take into account the fact that he's a good deal younger than the rest of us.

Learner example:
Taking into account all these arguments, I also think, like many people, that keeping animals in zoos is cruel and unnecessary.

on account of sth
[B2] because of something

Dictionary example:
He doesn't eat any dairy products on account of the diet he is following.

Learner example:
On account of its location, it is always busy.

by all accounts
[C1] as said by a lot of people

Dictionary example:
The party was, by all accounts, a great success.

Learner example:
I have known Michael Van Cleef for over two decades now, and he is, by all accounts, an exemplary worker.

on no account; not on any account
[C2] not for any reason or in any situation

Dictionary example:
On no account must these records be changed.

Learner example:
Mary did not want Martin to leave on any account, let alone move to a foreign country.
account for sth PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to be the reason for something, or to explain the reason for something

Dictionary examples:
Can you account for your absence last Friday?
He'd had an argument with Caroline, which accounts for his bad mood this morning.
She was asked to account for the missing money.

Learner example:
I was at a loss for words when I tried to account for her behaviour, but I never ceased to consider her a very valuable friend.

accountable /əˈkaʊn.tə.bl/

Word family:
Verbs: account
Adjectives: accountable

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] responsible for what you do and having to be able to explain your actions

Dictionary examples:
Hospitals must be held accountable for their mistakes.
Politicians should be accountable to the public that elects them.

Learner example:
Finally, there should be a person who should be held accountable and [is] accessible to our complaints.

accountant /əˈkaʊn.tənt/

Word family:
Nouns: account, accountant

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone whose job is to keep or examine the financial records of a person or organization

Dictionary example:
a firm of accountants

Learner example:
I am working as an accountant at Deloitte & Touche.
accumulate /əˈkjuː.mə.lɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: accumulation
Verbs: accumulate

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to increase in amount over a period of time, or to make something increase over a period of time

Dictionary example:
The chemicals accumulate in your body.

Learner example:
Rain water then accumulates in the reservoir.

accumulation /əˌkjuː.məˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: accumulation
Verbs: accumulate

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] an amount of something that has been collected

Dictionary example:
Despite this accumulation of evidence, the government did nothing.

Learner example:
What is success? For some it is the accumulation of positions, for others it's fame, health, love.

accuracy /ˈæk.jʊ.rə.si/

Word family:
Nouns: accuracy, inaccuracy
Adjectives: accurate, inaccurate
Adverbs: accurately

NOUN [U]
[B2] how correct or exact something is

Dictionary example:
We can predict changes with a surprising degree of accuracy.

Learner example:
I was very disappointed to observe your lack of accuracy in the description of this wonderful event.
accurate /ˈæk.jʊ.rət/

Word family:
- Nouns: accuracy, inaccuracy
- Adjectives: accurate, inaccurate
- Adverbs: accurately

ADJECTIVE

[B1] correct, exact and without any mistakes

Dictionary examples:
- accurate information/measurements
- She was able to give the police a fairly accurate description of the man.
- Her novel is an accurate reflection of life in post-war Spain.
- We hope to become more accurate in predicting earthquakes.

Learner example:
Some information in the Guidebook was not very accurate.

accurately /ˈæk.jʊ.rət.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: accuracy, inaccuracy
- Adjectives: accurate, inaccurate
- Adverbs: accurately

ADVERB

[B1] in an accurate way

Dictionary example:
The plans should be drawn as accurately as possible, showing all the measurements.

Learner example:
It’s necessary to consider a lot of aspects to answer this question accurately, but in general I would prefer to go to work by bicycle.

accusation /ˌæk.jʊˈzeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: accusation
- Verbs: accuse

NOUN [c]

[C1] when you say that someone has done something bad

Dictionary example:
He made a number of accusations against his former colleagues.
Learner example:
I have enclosed the Distribution Chart in order to prevent you from [making] further accusations.

accuse /əˈkjuːz/

Word family:
Nouns: accusation
Verbs: accuse

VERB [T]
[B2] to say that someone has done something bad

Dictionary examples:
He's been accused of robbery/murder.
Are you accusing me of lying?

Learner example:
They were accused of vandalism.

accustomed /əˈkʌstəmd/

ADJECTIVE

accustomed to sth/doing sth
[C1] If you are accustomed to something, you have experienced it often enough for it to seem normal to you.

Dictionary examples:
I've worked nights for years now so I've grown accustomed to it.
She isn't accustomed to dealing with so much media attention.

Learner example:
I am quite accustomed to being with many kinds of people of different ages.

ache /eɪk/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a feeling of pain over an area of your body which continues for a long time

Dictionary examples:
As you get older, you have all sorts of aches and pains.
I've got an ache in my lower back.

Learner example:
Since then, I have [had] a[n] ache in my left leg.
VERB [i]
[B2] to have a continuous pain that is unpleasant but not strong

Dictionary examples:
My head/tooth/back aches.
I ache/I'm aching all over.

Learner example:
After a[n] hour of horseback riding your muscles can really ache.

achieve /əˈtʃiːv/

Word family:
Nouns: achievement
Verbs: achieve

VERB [r]
[B1] to succeed in doing something good, usually by working hard

Dictionary examples:
She finally achieved her ambition to visit South America.
The government's training policy, he claimed, was achieving its objectives.

Learner example:
My father is a person who has achieved a lot of great things in his life.

achievement /əˈtʃiːv.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: achievement
Verbs: achieve

NOUN [c or u]
[B1] something very good and difficult that you have succeeded in doing

Dictionary examples:
An Olympic silver medal is a remarkable achievement for such a young athlete.
It gives you a sense of achievement if you actually make it to the end of a very long book.

Learner example:
I think this is an achievement because he is now a lawyer.
acid  /ˈæs.id/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a liquid substance which can react chemically with and sometimes dissolve other materials

Dictionary examples:
hydrochloric/fatty acid
Vinegar is an acid.

Learner example:
We saw a little black dragon with scales like iron charging [at] us and spitting acid.

acknowledge  /əkˈnɒl.idʒ/

VERB [T]
ACCEPT
[C1] to accept that something is true or exists

Dictionary example:
He acknowledged that there was a problem.

Learner example:
They fully acknowledge the need to keep fit as a part of being a healthy and well-educated person.

SAY RECEIVED
[C1] FORMAL to tell someone, usually in writing, that you have received something they sent you

Dictionary example:
He sent a letter acknowledging receipt of her application.

Learner example:
Re: Follow-up job as interpreter, I acknowledge receipt of your recent correspondence.

acquaintance  /əˈkwɛrn.tənts/

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who you know but do not know well

Dictionary example:
He’s just a business acquaintance.
Learner example:
Should you not give us a printed apology, I would seriously consider recommending all my friends and acquaintances not to trust your future articles.

acquire  /əˈkwaɪər/

VERB [T]
GET
[B2] FORMAL to get something

Dictionary examples:
He acquired the firm in 1978.
I seem to have acquired two copies of this book.

Learner example:
I would like to join the club because I will be able to acquire more stamps for my collection.

LEARN
[B2] to learn something

Dictionary example:
to acquire knowledge/skills

Learner example:
I have already acquired experience in the Tourism Field, working as a guard in a summer camp in Florida in 1997.

acre  /ˈeɪ.kər/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a unit for measuring area, equal to 4047 square metres

Dictionary example:
He's got 400 acres of land in Wales.

Learner example:
We have to admit that, not only because of the financial weakness but also because of the badly organized plans, we failed to achieve the planting of 10,000 trees per acre.
across /əˈkrɒs/

ADVERB; PREPOSITION

across the board
[C2] happening or having an effect on people at every level and in every area

Dictionary example:
The improvement has been across the board, with all divisions reporting increased profits.

Learner example:
Children in separate schools get on with things regardless of it being work for boys or girls, which can be quite positive especially in today's lifestyles where chores are done across the board.

act /ækt/

Word family:
Nouns: act, action, actor
Verbs: act

VERB

PERFORM
[B1] [ɪ or ə] to perform in a film, play, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Have you ever acted in a play before?
Andrew Pike was chosen to act the part of the lawyer in the film.

Learner example:
We are taught how to act in both comic and serious parts.

BEHAVE
[B1] [ɪ] to behave in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
He acted as if he'd never met me before.
Don't be so silly – you're acting like a child!

Learner example:
I always care about how much money I have and I always act sensibly.

DO SOMETHING
[B2] [ɪ] to do something, especially in order to solve a problem

Dictionary examples:
She acted without thinking.
We have to act now to stop the spread of this disease.
Learner example:
We can make the village much more attractive than it has ever been. If we act together as a group, things will be easier.

NOUN

THEATRE

[B1] [c] one of the parts a play is divided into

Dictionary example:
Her character doesn't appear until Act 2.

Learner example:
Everything was going all right, until we reached the "balcony act".

THING DONE

[B2] [c] something that someone does

Dictionary examples:
an act of aggression/kindness/terrorism a kind/thoughtless/selfish act
The simple act of telling someone about a problem can help.

Learner example:
I think that reading is a[n] act of intel[l]igence because animals can't read, while watching T.V. is only an act of having fun!!!

FALSE BEHAVIOUR

[C2] [ NO PLURAL] behaviour which hides your real feelings or intentions

Dictionary example:
Was she really upset or was that just an act?

Learner example:
Sometimes what is put on display for the tourists is all an act and gives you a different impression and opinion of the country and people, so it would be advisable to meet some local people like the butcher or baker and have a talk with them.

get your act together INFORMAL

[C2] to organize your activities so that you can make progress

Dictionary example:
She's so disorganized – I wish she'd get her act together.

Learner example:
He was determined to get his act together and try to find a solution to his problem.
action /ˈækʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: act, action, actor
Verbs: act

NOUN

ACTIVITY
[B1] [u] things which are happening, especially exciting or important things

Dictionary examples:
I like films with a lot of action.
In her last novel, the action moves between Greece and southern Spain.

Learner example:
I really like science fiction films and this film has lots of action and special effects.

DO
[B2] [C or u] something that you do

Dictionary examples:
We must take action before the problem gets worse.
She has to accept the consequences of her actions.
What do you think is the best course of action?

Learner example:
I decided to take action on my own.

legal action
[C1] a legal process in a court

Dictionary example:
They are planning to take legal action against the company.

Learner example:
If we do not get a satisfactory answer to this letter, apologising and offering the compensation that the students deserve, we will have no other option but to take legal action.

out of action
[C1] damaged or hurt and not able to operate or play sports

Dictionary examples:
I'm afraid my car's out of action.
They've got three players out of action.

Learner example:
The air-conditioning in my room was out of action and the hotel manager didn't care.

course of action
[C1] something that you can do in a particular situation
Dictionary example:
I think the best course of action would be to write to him.

Learner example:
However, I believe that the best course of action in this case is to give our student a refund.

FIGHTING
[C2] [u] fighting in a war

Dictionary example:
He was killed in action.

Learner example:
It was a shock when she got to know that her husband had been killed in action.

PROCESS
[C2] [NO PLURAL] a movement or natural process

Dictionary example:
The rocks are smoothed by the action of water.

Learner example:
The area of Sayago – in the Spanish province of Zamora – and Tras-os-Montes, in Portugal, are joined by a natural border: the river Duero and the rocky canyon that has been eroded for millions of years by the action of the water.

active /ˈæk.trɪv/

Word family:

Nouns: activity

Adjectives: active

Adverbs: actively

ADJECTIVE

BUSY
[B1] doing a lot of things, or moving around a lot

Dictionary examples:
physically/mentally active
You've got to try to keep active as you grow older.

Learner example:
Nico is a very active guy and I enjoyed going out with him very much.

GRAMMAR
[B1] An active verb or sentence is one in which the subject is the person or thing doing the action.
Dictionary example:
'Catrin told me' is an active sentence, and 'I was told by Catrin' is passive.

INVOLVED

[B2] very involved in an organization or planned activity

Dictionary examples:
He played an active role in the campaign.
Both of his parents were politically active.
Enemy forces remain active in the mountainous areas around the city.

Learner example:
I have always been very active in different organizations, sports as well as charity.

VOLCANO

[C1] An active volcano could throw out rocks, fire, etc. at any time.

Dictionary example:
Mount Etna in Sicily is one of the world's most active volcanoes.

Learner example:
The beautiful, crystal-blue sea and the small white houses, the bright orange of the sky during the evening and the unidentified colour of the volcanic rocks around the great, active volcano are just a few of the colours that paint the natural beauty of Thera.

actively /ˈæk.tɪv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: activity
Adjectives: active
Adverbs: actively

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that involves positive action

Dictionary examples:
He's very actively involved in the local Labour Party.
I've been actively looking for a job for six months.

Learner example:
There's statistic[al] evidence that maths can train a brain to study actively.

activity /ˈæk.tɪv.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: activity
Adjectives: active
Adverbs: actively

40
WORK
[B2] [c or u] the work of a group or organization to achieve an aim

Dictionary examples:
He was found guilty of terrorist activity.
criminal activities

Learner example:
But Rollo was also a good man, so when a policeman, called Calloway, informed him about [Harry's] illegal activity, he turned against him.

MOVEMENT
[B2] [u] when a lot of things are happening or people are moving around

Dictionary examples:
Ministers are concerned by the low level of economic activity.
There was a lot of activity the other side of the room.

Learner example:
Technical progress and industrial activity are causing a lot of problems.

actual /ˈæk.tʃu.əl/
Word family:
Adjectives: actual Adverbs: actually

REAL [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] real, not guessed or imagined

Dictionary examples:
We had estimated about 300 visitors, but the actual number was much higher.
The exams are in July, but the actual results don't appear until September.

Learner example:
In my opinion, Burgers' Bush, Safari & Zoo in Arnhem has found the perfect solution. The actual zoo is rather small but each animal has a lot of space for running or wandering around.

in actual fact
[B2] used to emphasize what is really true, or to give more information

Dictionary example:
I thought she was Portuguese, but in actual fact she's Brazilian.
Learner example:
Nowadays almost all people own a car and in actual fact more and more people have been facing death as a consequence of careless driving.

actually /ˈæk.tʃu.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: actual Adverbs: actually

ADVERB

SURPRISE
[B1] used when you are emphasizing something surprising

Dictionary examples:
A friend of mine from university was actually at the same concert – I hadn't seen her for years!
Don't tell me he actually paid for you? You are honoured!

Learner example:
It was so cool, man! They had actually built a good skate park with a pool, a halfpipe, a funbox, several rails and of course many ramps.

OPPOSITE
[B2] used when you are correcting someone, disagreeing with someone, or saying no to a request

Dictionary examples:
Actually, Gavin, it was Tuesday of last week, not Wednesday.
"You didn't tell me about needing the car." "Actually, I did."
"Do you mind if I smoke?" "Actually, I'd rather you didn't."

Learner example:
Actually, TORRENTS was [the] second group [at the festival]. I think you probably missed the first performance [in] which KING CUP sang.

ad /æd/

NOUN [C] (also advert)
[B1] an advertisement

Dictionary example:
I saw an ad for a part–time job that you might like.

Learner example:
The ad mentions this is a temporary job, up to 6 months and part–time or full–time.
adapt  /əˈdæpt/

Word family:
Nouns: adaptation
Verbs: adapt

VERB

CHANGE BEHAVIOUR
[B2] [i] to change your behaviour so that it is suitable for a new situation

Dictionary example:
It takes time to adapt to a new working environment.

Learner example:
I and my parents easily adapted to London, [and] to English people.

CHANGE SOMETHING
[B2] [t] to change something so that it is suitable for a different use or situation

Dictionary examples:
Many software companies have adapted popular programs to the new operating system.
Davies is busy adapting Brinkworth’s latest novel for television.

Learner example:
In my opinion, as the town is not so big it will be enough to adapt the two areas outside the town walls and to use them for car parking.

adaptation  /ˌæd.əpˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: adaptation
Verbs: adapt

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] the process or act of changing to suit a new situation

Dictionary example:
Evolution occurs as a result of adaptation to new environments.

Learner example:
This varies from one person to another, it depends on everyone’s priorities and degree of adaptation [to] their new communities.
add /æd/

Word family:

Nouns: addition

Verbs: add

Adjectives: additional

Adverbs: additionally

VERB

SAY MORE

[B1] [ɪ] to say another thing

Dictionary example:
She was sad, she said, but added that she felt she had made the right decision.

Learner example:
The guide told us they called it Swan Lake because there are lots of swans and added that the swans come from all over the country.

add insult to injury

[C2] to make someone’s bad situation worse by doing something else to upset them

Dictionary example:
To add insult to injury, we had to pay for the damage!

Learner example:
To add insult to injury, such an approach often turns out to be counterproductive.

addict /ˈæd.ɪkt/

Word family:

Nouns: addict, addiction

Adjectives: addicted, addictive

NOUN [C]

[B2] a person who cannot stop doing or using something, especially something harmful

Dictionary examples:
a drug/heroin addict
a gambling addict
I’m a chocolate/shopping addict.

Learner example:
I like TV, I watch it but fortunately I haven’t become a TV addict yet.
addicted /ə′dɪk.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: addict, addiction
Adjectives: addicted, addictive

ADJECTIVE

DRUGS

[B2] not able to stop taking a drug

Dictionary example:
He later became addicted to heroin.

Learner example:
One day my uncle called and told me a story of a boy who was addicted to drugs.

LIKING

[B2] liking something very much

Dictionary example:
He’s addicted to chocolate/football.

Learner example:
However, I believe that some people are addicted to computer games and that is not good.

addiction /əˈdɪk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: addict, addiction
Adjectives: addicted, addictive

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] ! when you cannot stop doing or taking something because you are addicted to it

Dictionary examples:
drug addiction an addiction to alcohol
His addiction to computer games means he is spending far too much time indoors.

Learner example:
Sending text messages is an addiction which every teenager is obsessed with.
addictive /əˈdɪk.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: addict, addiction
Adjectives: addicted, addictive

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If something is addictive, it makes you want more of it so that you become addicted.

Dictionary examples:
Tobacco is highly addictive.
The problem with computer games is that they're addictive.

Learner example:
Serial dramas are addictive – it is not unknown for whole countries to come to a standstill because an important revelation will be made on television.

addition /əˈdɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: addition
Verbs: add
Adjectives: additional Adverbs: additionally

NOUN
in addition (to)
[B1] as well (as)

Dictionary example:
In addition to his flat in London, he has a villa in Italy and a castle in Scotland.

Learner example:
In addition, I saw a wonderful programme about Aborigines.

NEW THING
[B2] [c] a new or extra thing which is added to something

Dictionary example:
Defender Matt Smith is the latest addition to the team.

Learner example:
There is only one more thing missing: it would be great if there was popcorn provided. I am sure that would be a good addition for everyone.

NUMBERS/AMOUNTS
[B2] [u] the process of adding numbers or amounts together in order to get a total

46
Dictionary example:
Twice a week the children are tested in basic mathematical skills such as addition and subtraction.

additional /əˈdɪʃ.ənl/

Word family:
Nouns: addition
Verbs: add
Adjectives: additional Adverbs: additionally

ADJECTIVE
[B2] extra

Dictionary examples:
additional costs/problems
There will be an extra charge for any additional passengers.

Learner example:
I do have some additional questions for you.

additionally /əˈdɪʃ.ənl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: addition
Verbs: add
Adjectives: additional Adverbs: additionally

ADVERB
[B2] in addition

Dictionary example:
Additionally, we request a deposit of $200 in advance.

Learner example:
Additionally, I am very interested in helping an organization that’s trying to protect [the] environment.

address /əˈdres/

VERB [T]
DEAL WITH
[C1] to deal with a problem
Dictionary example:
We have to address the issue/problem before it gets worse.

Learner example:
On balance, I would say that increasing the price of petrol to solve traffic and pollution problems is certainly a viable, although maybe not the best, way to address the issue.

SPEAK

[C2] FORMAL to speak to someone, or to give a speech to an audience

Dictionary example:
Today she will be addressing a major conference in London.

Learner example:
He inhaled deeply before addressing the group again.

BUILDING DETAILS

[C2] to write a name and address on an envelope or parcel

Dictionary example:
A parcel arrived addressed to Emma.

Learner example:
The envelope was addressed to Kathleen.

adequate /ˈæd.ə.kwət/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: adequate, inadequate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: adequately</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

ENOUGH

[B2] ENOUGH

Dictionary examples:
I didn’t have adequate time to prepare.
Will future oil supplies be adequate to meet world needs?

Learner example:
I hope the information I gave is adequate.

GOOD ENOUGH

[B2] GOOD ENOUGH

Dictionary examples:
The sound quality isn’t brilliant but it’s adequate for everyday use.
The council’s provision for the elderly is barely adequate.
Learner example:
In my opinion, animals should only be kept in a zoo that provide[s] adequate living conditions and sufficient room.

adequately /ˈæd.ə.kwət.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: adequate, inadequate
Adverbs: adequately

ADVERB

[B2] in an adequate way

Dictionary example:
While some patients can be adequately cared for at home, others are best served by care in a hospital.

adjacent /əˈdʒeɪ.sənt/

ADJECTIVE FORMAL

[C2] If two things are adjacent, they are next to each other.

Dictionary examples:
The fire started in an adjacent building.
They live in a house adjacent to the railway.

Learner example:
Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to you with regard to the recent proposal of the City Council to build a supermarket on land that is currently a local park, namely Cranleigh Gardens, adjacent to the Cranleigh housing estate, where I live.

adjust /əˈdʒʌst/

Word family:
Nouns: adjustment
Verbs: adjust, readjust

VERB

CHANGE

[B2] [t] to change something slightly so that it works better, fits better, or is more suitable
Dictionary examples:
If the chair is too high you can adjust it to suit you.
As a teacher you have to adjust your methods to suit the needs of different children.

Learner example:
I had to clean the lenses, prepare the tapes, and adjust the sound.

CHANGE BEHAVIOUR
[B2] [i] to change the way you behave or think in order to suit a new situation

Dictionary example:
They found it hard to adjust to life in a new country.

Learner example:
People will be able to adjust and change with the times.

adjustment /əˈdʒʌst.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: adjustment
Verbs: adjust, readjust

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a small change that you make to something so that it works better, fits better, or is more suitable

Dictionary examples:
We’ve made a few adjustments to the schedule.
I have a few minor adjustments to make.

Learner example:
I have some questions and a minor adjustment to make.

administration /ədˌmɪn.ɪˈstreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: administration, administrator
Adjectives: administrative

NOUN [U]
[C1] the work of organizing and arranging the operation of something, such as a company

Dictionary example:
The job involves a lot of administration.

Learner example:
For schools, it is much easier in terms of administration.
administrative /ədˈmɪn.ɪ.strə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: administration, administrator
Adjectives: administrative

ADJECTIVE
[C1] relating to the organization and management of something

Dictionary example:
The work is largely administrative.

Learner example:
The engineers and administrative staff must be able to work in both English and French whereas German would be an asset.

administrator /ədˈmɪn.ɪ.streɪ.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: administration, administrator
Adjectives: administrative

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone who helps to manage an organization

Dictionary example:
She is an administrator at the hospital.

Learner example:
As a[n] ex-army officer and an administrator in an international firm, I am learning to work as a member of a team.

admiration /ˌæd.məˈreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: admiration
Verbs: admire

NOUN [u]
[B2] when you admire someone or something

Dictionary examples:
My admiration for that woman grows daily.
She gazed in admiration at his broad, muscular shoulders.

Learner example:
All over the world there are so many people who deserve admiration.
admire /ədˈmaɪər/
Word family:
Nouns: admiration
Verbs: admire

VERB [T]

LOOK AT
[B1] to find someone or something attractive and pleasant to look at

Dictionary examples:
I was just admiring your jacket, Delia.
We stood for a few moments, admiring the view.

Learner example:
It was a sunny day, luckily, so I was able to admire the lake and the Marmolada, the highest mountain in [the] Dolomites.

RESPECT
[B2] to respect or approve of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I admired him for his determination.
I really admire people who can work in such difficult conditions.

Learner example:
The person I admire most, however, is my father.

admission /ədˈmɪʃən/
NOUN

MONEY
[B1] [u] the money that you pay to enter a place or an event

Dictionary examples:
Art exhibition – free admission.
They are charging more for admission to the festival this year.

Learner example:
We believe that [this] is a great opportunity because [it] is one of the best shows of the year, and the best part is that the admission is free for students.

PERMISSION
[B2] [c or u] when someone is given permission to enter somewhere or to become a member of a club, university, etc.
Dictionary example:
She's applied for admission to law school.

Learner example:
I was wondering whether you could send me some information [about] the rules of admission to the club.

admit /ədˈmɪt/ (−tt−)

Word family:
Verbs: admit
Adverbs: admittedly

VERB
[B1] [I or T] to agree that something is true, especially unwillingly

Dictionary examples:
He admitted his guilt/mistake.
She admitted (that) she had made a mistake.
I wasn't entirely honest with him, I admit, but I didn't actually tell him any lies.

Learner example:
I have to admit I love lions, but while I was watching the programme, I was afraid.

admittedly /ədˈmɪt.id.li/

Word family:
Verbs: admit
Adverbs: admittedly

ADVERB
[B2] used when you are agreeing that something is true although you do not want to

Dictionary example:
Admittedly, I could have tried harder but I still don't think all this criticism is fair.

Learner example:
Admittedly, using your car is more convenient and easier [than] using public transport but in my opinion, the advantages of using public transport outweigh the disadvantages it can cause.

adolescent /ˌæd.əˈle.sənt/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a young person who is between being a child and an adult
Dictionary example:
Many adolescents are secretive.

Learner example:
Children become adolescents with more freedom and yet more responsibilities.

adopt /əˈdɒpt/

Word family:
Nouns: adoption
Verbs: adopt
Adjectives: adopted

VERB

take child
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to legally become the parents of someone else's child

Dictionary examples:
They've adopted a baby girl.
She had the child adopted.

Learner example:
She isn't my biological mother, she adopted me when I was a baby.

start
[B2] [t] to accept or start to use something new

Dictionary examples:
We've adopted a new approach to the problem.
The new tax would force companies to adopt energy-saving measures.
He's adopted a remarkably light-hearted attitude towards the situation.

Learner example:
I believe that we must continue to adopt his ideas.

adopted /əˈdɒptɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: adoption
Verbs: adopt
Adjectives: adopted

ADJECTIVE
[B2] legally taken by another family to be looked after as their own child

Dictionary example:
They've got two adopted children and one of their own.
adoption /əˈdɒp.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: adoption
- Verbs: adopt
- Adjectives: adopted

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] the process of legally becoming the parents of someone else's child

Dictionary example:
She couldn't have children, so they were considering adoption.

adult /ˈæd.ʌlt/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

NOT A CHILD

[C1] having finished growing

Dictionary example:
an adult male rat

Learner example:
Tony Soprano is the bad kid [in] every adult male.

advance /ədˈvaːnts/

Word family:
- Nouns: advance
- Adjectives: advanced

NOUN

in advance

[B1] before a particular time, or before doing a particular thing

Dictionary example:
If you're going to come, please let me know in advance.

Learner example:
Don't forget to book in advance because as you can imagine, everyone goes away from the city during the summer holiday!

PROGRESS

[B2] [C or U] new discoveries and inventions
Dictionary examples:
- technological/scientific advances
- Our lives have been improved by the many recent advances in computer technology.
- the advance of modern medicine

Learner example:
I guess science is about solving our daily problems with technological advances.

---

advanced /ədˈvaːnst/

Word family:
- Nouns: advance
- Adjectives: advanced

ADJECTIVE

- MODERN
  - [B1] modern and well developed

Dictionary examples:
- advanced technology
  - This is the most advanced type of engine available.

Learner example:
We are living in the 21st century where everybody is surrounded by advanced technological methods.

---

advantage /ədˈvaːntɪdʒ/

Word family:
- Nouns: advantage, disadvantage
- Adjectives: disadvantaged

NOUN

- USEFUL THING
  - [B1] [c or u] something good about a situation that helps you

Dictionary examples:
- The advantage of booking tickets in advance is that you get better seats.
  - For a goalkeeper, it's a great advantage to have big hands.

Learner example:
The main advantage is that there are so many places to visit like museums, old streets in the city centre, churches and cathedrals.

take advantage of sth

- [B1] to use something good in a situation to help you
Dictionary example:
I thought I’d take advantage of the sports facilities while I’m here.

Learner example:
If you take advantage of this opportunity, in the future you’ll thank me.

take advantage of sb/sth

[B2] to treat someone or something badly in order to get what you want

Dictionary example:
I think she takes advantage of his good nature.

Learner example:
There will always be the threat of those men who take advantage of animals’ inferior status.

SUCCESS

[B2] [c or u] something that will help you to succeed

Dictionary example:
These new routes will give the airline the advantage over its competitors.

---

adventurous  /ədˈven.tʃərəs/

Word family:
Nouns: adventure
Adjectives: adventurous

ADJECTIVE

[B2] willing to try new and often difficult or dangerous things

Dictionary examples:
I’m trying to be more adventurous with my cooking.
She led an adventurous life.

Learner example:
I think it's better for us to sleep in tents because it'll be more adventurous than staying in rooms.

---

adverse  /ˈæd.ɜːs/

ADJECTIVE  FORMAL

adverse conditions/effect(s)/impact

[C2] things that cause problems or danger

Dictionary examples:
adverse weather conditions
Pollution levels like these will certainly have an adverse effect on health.
The price rise had an adverse impact on sales.
Learner example:
However, we should bear in mind that tourism could have an adverse effect on the local environment.

advert /ˈæd.vɜːt/

NOUN [C] (ALSO ad)
[B1] an advertisement

Dictionary example:
an advert for the local radio station

Learner example:
I read an advert in the newspaper about that new club called "Click".

advertise /ˈæd.və.taɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: advertisement, advertising
Verbs: advertise

VERB

TRY TO SELL
[B1] [I or T] to tell people about a product or service in newspapers, on television, on the Internet, etc.

Dictionary example:
Companies are not allowed to advertise cigarettes on television any more.

Learner example:
On this bus we can advertise [the] village's best products.

ASK FOR
[B1] [I] to put information in a newspaper, on the Internet, etc. asking for someone or something that you need

Dictionary example:
The university is advertising for catering staff.

Learner example:
Dear Sir/Madam, I wish to apply for the post of helper which was advertised on the college noticeboard last Monday.
advertising /ˈæd.və.taɪ.zɪŋ/

Word family:

Nouns: advertisement, advertising
Verbs: advertise

NOUN [u]

[B2] the business of trying to persuade people to buy products or services

Dictionary examples:
- Fiona works in advertising.
- the advertising industry

Learner example:
- Some weeks ago, she was hired by a famous advertising company, widely known for its ironic ads.

advise /ədˈvaɪz/

Word family:

Nouns: advice, adviser
Verbs: advise

VERB

[B1] I or T to make a suggestion about what you think someone should do or how they should do something

Dictionary examples:
- I think I'd advise him to leave the company.
- I'd strongly advise against making a sudden decision.
- They're advising that children be kept out of the sun altogether.
- I'd advise waiting until tomorrow.
- She advised us when to come.

Learner example:
- I advise you to go there and have a good time.

adviser /ədˈvaɪ.zər/

Word family:

Nouns: advice, adviser
Verbs: advise

NOUN [c] (also advisor)

[C1] someone whose job is to give advice about a subject

Dictionary example:
- a financial adviser
Learner example:
Some of our financial advisers could provide your students [with] the latest methods used in Accounting and in developing new business projects.

advocate

VERB [v] /ˈæd.və.keɪt/
[C2] to express support for a particular idea or way of doing things

Dictionary example:
I certainly wouldn't advocate the use of violence.

Learner example:
Just like Mahatma Gandhi, who advocated non-violent methods of struggle, Picasso struggled against fascism [by] peaceful means, namely with his art.

NOUN [c] /ˈæd.və.kət/
[C2] someone who supports a particular idea or way of doing things

Dictionary example:
He has always been an advocate of space exploration.

Learner example:
Advocates of international tourism subscribe to the view that mass tourism offer[s] benefits to the whole community.

affair /əˈfeər/

NOUN

RELATIONSHIP
[B2] [c] a sexual relationship, especially a secret one

Dictionary examples:
She's having an affair with a married man.
The book doesn't make any mention of his love affairs.

Learner example:
I met a very handsome man and my husband had a little love affair with a very pretty girl there, but we forgave each other.

SITUATION
[B2] [c] a situation or set of related events, especially bad ones

Dictionary examples:
The government's handling of the affair has been widely criticized.
He refused to discuss his financial affairs.
Learner example:
To make matters worse, people gossiped about me and tried to find out more and more about my private affairs, which made me feel embarrassed.

affect /əˈfekt/

Word family:
Verbs: affect Adjectives: unaffected

VERB [T]

CAUSE CHANGE
[B2] to have an influence on someone or something, or to cause them to change

Dictionary examples:
The divorce affected every aspect of her life.
Both buildings were badly affected by the fire.

Learner example:
The telephone is a very important invention, which has affected our lives.

CAUSE EMOTION
[B2] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to cause a strong emotion, especially sadness

Dictionary example:
I was deeply affected by the film.

Learner example:
When the fo[u]rth song, 'Rebel[l]ion' started, I was deeply affected by the r[h]ythm.

affection /əˈfekʃn/

Word family:
Nouns: affection
Adjectives: affectionate

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a feeling of liking or loving a person or place

Dictionary examples:
He had a deep affection for his aunt.
She felt no affection for the child.

Learner example:
In addition she loves me very much and she offers a lot of affection to me when I face a difficult situation with my job.
affectionate /əˈfek.ʃən.ət/

Word family:
Nouns: affection
Adjectives: affectionate

ADJECTIVE
[C2] showing that you like or love someone

Dictionary examples:
an affectionate child
He's very affectionate.

Learner example:
She is attentive and affectionate, but most of all she is a sweet mother.

affluent /ˈæf.lu.ənt/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] having a lot of money

Dictionary example:
affluent families/nations/neighbourhoods

Learner example:
Children who come from poor families are more mature and responsible than those children coming from affluent families.

afford /əˈfɔːd/

Word family:
Verbs: afford
Adjectives: unaffordable

VERB
can afford
[B1] to be able to buy or do something because you have enough money or time

Dictionary examples:
I don't know how he can afford a new car on his salary.
Few people are able to afford cars like that.
I'd love to go away for a few days but I can't afford the time.
I can't afford to buy a house.
Learner example:
Unfortunately, I can't afford it now, but Christmas is coming, so I can ask my parents for a stereo for Christmas, but I'm not sure if they will agree or not.

cannot afford
[C2] If you cannot afford to do something, it is impossible for you to do it without causing problems.

Dictionary example:
We can't afford to take that risk.

Learner example:
We cannot afford to lose our national and global identity.

affordable /əˈfɔː.də.bl/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] cheap enough for most people to be able to buy

Dictionary example:
We need more affordable housing in this area.

Learner example:
They are very pleased with the affordable fares, however they are more inclined to comfort.

afraid /əˈfrɛrd/
ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS AFTER VERB]
WORRIED
[B1] worried that something bad might happen

Dictionary examples:
Many people are afraid (that) they might lose their jobs.
She's afraid of upsetting Clare.

Learner example:
If I go shopping [for] clothes as a gift for children, I'm usually afraid of buying [the wrong] size.
after /ˈɑːf.tə/

PREPOSITION

FOLLOWING

[B1] following someone or something

Dictionary example:
We ran after him but he escaped.

Learner example:
I ran after the bus and shouted to her 'hurry up!'

after all

[B1] used to add information that shows that what you have just said is true

Dictionary example:
You can't expect to be perfect – after all, it was only your first lesson.

Learner example:
I stopped talking with my friends, but not [for long] – after all, we are friends. Anyway, I'm planning nice things for the next April 1st.

day after day/year after year, etc.

[B1] happening every day/year, etc. over a long period

Dictionary example:
We went to the same part of France for our holidays year after year.

Learner example:
And there she was, day after day, walking in the rain...

BECAUSE OF

[B2] because of something that happened

Dictionary example:
I'll never trust her again after what she did to me.

Learner example:
I really needed those days after what I've been through this spring.

DESPITE

[C1] despite

Dictionary example:
I can't believe he was so rude to you after all the help you've given him!

Learner example:
But, even after earning more in 2001, the women still do not earn as much [as] men on average earned (£20,363) in 1997.
after all
[C1] used to say that something happened or was true although you did not expect it to happen or be true

Dictionary example:
Helen couldn't come to the party after all.

Learner example:
Cars still enter the city so there will be pollution after all.

NAMED FOR
[C2] used when giving someone or something the same name as another person or thing

Dictionary example:
It was called the Biko building, after the famous South African.

Learner example:
I called her Lena after my sister.

CONJUNCTION
[B1] at a later time than something else happens

Dictionary examples:
Soon/shortly after we joined the motorway, the car started to make a strange noise.
I went to the post office straight/immediately after I left you.

Learner example:
I hope we will meet soon after I come back home.

again /əˈgeɪn/

ADVERB

again and again
[B1] many times

Dictionary example:
He played the same song again and again.

Learner example:
I read it again and again and was more and more surprised.

once again
[B1] again

Dictionary example:
Once again I'm left with all the washing-up!
Learner example:
Once again I'm sorry.

all over again
[B2] repeated from the beginning

Dictionary example:
We had to start all over again.

Learner example:
After that I went back to my home in Ribeirao Preto to begin my routine all over again.

yet again
[B2] again after something has happened or been done many times before

Dictionary example:
The bus was late yet again.

Learner example:
Tom, thank you so much yet again for your interest. This talk is very important to me and to count on you is an honour for our college.

then/there again
[C2] used when adding a fact to something you have just said

Dictionary example:
I failed my history test – but then again, I didn't do much studying for it.

Learner example:
The fact that people live longer nowadays does have some advantages, but then again it also causes a lot of problems.

against  /əˈgentst/

PREPOSITION

OPPOSITE DIRECTION
[B1] in the opposite direction to

Dictionary example:
Commuting is not so bad when you are travelling against the traffic.

Learner example:
We had to fight against the wind and the rain.

NOT AGREE
[B2] disagreeing with a plan or activity
Dictionary examples:
She spoke against the decision to close the college.
Are you for or against the proposal?

Learner example:
It is very hard to keep [a] dog because it makes too much noise and so my Mum is against it.

against the law
[B2] forbidden by a law

Dictionary example:
It's against the law to leave a young child alone in the house.

Learner example:
Until that moment, Mary thought [he]r uncle and his friends were smugglers and were doing things against the law.

have sth against sb/sth
[C1] to have a reason not to like someone or something

Dictionary example:
I've got nothing against him personally, I just don't think he's the right man for the job.

Learner example:
If you have nothing against taking public transport, I suggest taking a bus.

against sb's advice/wishes, etc.
[C2] If you do something against someone's advice, wishes, etc., you do it although they have said you should not or must not.

Dictionary examples:
He flew there against his doctor's advice.
She sold the house even though it was against his wishes.

Learner example:
He was a very ambitious student who wasn't afraid to develop ideas in unconventional ways and pursue his research even against the advice of his supervisors.

against all (the) odds
[C2] If you do or achieve something against all the odds, you succeed although you were not likely to.

Dictionary example:
We won the game against all odds.

Learner example:
The stormy waters and heavy winds were a great challenge, and almost deemed it impossible for me to succeed, but against all odds I managed to defeat my fears.
age  /ɛɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: age, ages
Adjectives: aged

NOUN

PERIOD
[B1] [c] a particular period of history

Dictionary examples:
the modern age
the nuclear age

Learner example:
I'm going to see "Ice age", it's a good comedy.

OLD
[C2] [u] the state of being old or becoming old

Dictionary examples:
He is starting to show his age.
Some wines improve with age.

Learner example:
Usually, as the saying goes, we grow wiser with age.

at the tender age of 8/17/25, etc. LITERARY [C2] at the young age of 8/17/25, etc

Dictionary example:
She first appeared on stage at the tender age of 14.

Learner example:
She met my father at the tender age of 14, and she soon knew that this was the man she wanted to stay with for the rest of her life.

agency  /ˈeɪ.dʒənt.ʃi/
Learner example:
As you know I am employed in a travel agency and last week I started my new English class.

ORGANIZATION

[C1] an international organization or government department

Dictionary example:
an international development agency

Learner example:
Television conveys the weather forecasts and any warnings issued by the government agencies, such as flood alerts.

agenda /əˈdʒen.deɪ/

NOUN [C]

MEETING

[C1] a list of subjects that people will discuss at a meeting

Dictionary example:
There are several items on the agenda.

Learner example:
Your memo was one of the points on the agenda for last week’s meeting.

IMPORTANT SUBJECTS

[C2] important subjects that have to be dealt with

Dictionary example:
The issue of rail safety is back on the political agenda.

Learner example:
Postponing the age of retirement is not a realistic solution either, in view of the fact that there are more than 20 million unemployed people in the European Union. The matter has only recently been put on the agenda, and nobody seems to know what to do.

agent /ˈeɪ.dʒənt/

Word family:
Nouns: agency, agent

NOUN [C]

BUSINESS

[B2] someone whose job is to deal with business for someone else
Dictionary example:
Please contact our agent in Spain for further information.

Learner example:
I hope the agent will sell it soon.

SECRET INFORMATION

[B2] someone who tries to find out secret information, especially about another country

Dictionary example:
a secret agent

Learner example:
She interrupted and told the man that she was a secret agent.

ages /ˈeɪdʒ.ɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: age, ages
Adjectives: aged

NOUN [PLURAL]

[B1] informal a very long time

Dictionary example:
I've been waiting here for ages.

Learner example:
I feel like I've been here for ages.

aggression /əˈgreʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: aggression
Adjectives: aggressive
Adverbs: aggressively

NOUN [u]

[C1] angry or violent behaviour towards someone

Dictionary example:
an act of aggression

Learner example:
However, it can turn into a terrible form of violence and aggression, where the very sense of competition is forgotten and only wild instincts prevail.
aggressive /əˈgres.ɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: aggression
Adjectives: aggressive
Adverbs: aggressively

ADJECTIVE

VIOLENT
[B2] behaving in an angry and violent way towards another person

Dictionary examples:
aggressive behaviour
If I criticize him, he gets aggressive and starts shouting.

Learner example:
At such moments he became angry and aggressive.

DETERMINED
[C1] using forceful methods and determined to succeed

Dictionary example:
an aggressive marketing campaign

Learner example:
Our competitors pursue a more aggressive marketing strategy, despite the fact [that] they offer inferior products.

aggressively /əˈgres.ɪv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: aggression
Adjectives: aggressive
Adverbs: aggressively

ADVERB
[B2] in an aggressive way

Dictionary examples:
Small children often behave aggressively.
They played more aggressively in the second half.
ago /əˈgəʊ/

ADVERB

long ago

[C1] If something happened long ago, it happened a great amount of time ago.

Dictionary examples:
I think we met once, long ago.
It was not long ago that I last saw him.

Learner example:
Not so long ago, you could ring each Dutch doorbell of your choice at 6 pm and you'd find the whole family gathered around the kitchen table, having their supper.

agree /əˈɡriː/

Word family:

Nouns: agreement, disagreement

Verbs: agree, disagree

VERB

DECIDE

[B1] [I or T] to decide something with someone

Dictionary examples:
We agreed to meet on Sunday.
We couldn't agree on what to buy.

Learner example:
I met him when I travelled to Greece last year and we agreed to meet this year in Switzerland.

SAY YES

[B2] [I] to say you will do something that someone asks you to

Dictionary examples:
She agreed to help him.
The bank has agreed to lend me £5000.

Learner example:
When I came home, I told my mother everything and she agreed to put him up.

BE THE SAME

[C1] [I] If two descriptions, statements, etc. agree, they are the same.

Dictionary examples:
Her notes do not agree with what I remember happening.
Does the information in the two reports agree?
Learner example:
This does not agree with the intentions of our Programme.

agreement /əˈɡriː.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: agreement, disagreement
Verbs: agree, disagree

NOUN

DECISION
[B2] [c] a promise or decision made between two or more groups or people

Dictionary examples:
an agreement with the company an agreement between both parties
It was difficult to reach an agreement.
The government has signed an international agreement on climate change.
They have broken the agreement on human rights.

Learner example:
There was an attempt to cut down on using and producing sprays which destroy the ozon[e] layer [and] an international agreement was signed.

SAME OPINION
[B2] [u] when people have the same opinion or have made the same decision

Dictionary examples:
Are we all in agreement?
There was broad agreement about/on what to do.

Learner example:
With your agreement we could change the programme.

agriculture /ˈæg.rɪ.kʌl.tʃə/ahead /əˈhed/

ADVERB

IN FRONT

[B1] in front

Dictionary example:
Turn left at the traffic lights, and you'll see the hospital straight ahead.

Learner example:
Behind our school there was a beautiful forest and if you walked 200 meters straight ahead you would reach a clearing.

FUTURE

[B1] in the future

Dictionary example:
She has a difficult time ahead of her.

Learner example:
Even if you're satisfied with your life now, take a look 10 or 20 years ahead.

MORE POINTS

[B2] having more points than someone else in a competition

Dictionary example:
Barcelona was ahead after ten minutes.

ADJECTIVE

ahead of time/schedule

[C1] before the time that was planned

Dictionary example:
We finished the project ahead of schedule.

Learner example:
However, a bonus will be given if the project finishes ahead of schedule.

MORE PROGRESS

[C2] making more progress than someone or something else

Dictionary example:
Sue is ahead of everyone else in French.

Learner example:
I have always been a couple of steps ahead of my schoolmates and peers, not only in terms of scholastic pursuits, but in my opinions and desires as well.
aid /eɪd/

NOUN

HELP
[C1] [u] money, food, or equipment that is given to help a country or group of people

Dictionary examples:
Emergency aid was sent to the flood victims.
aid workers

Learner example:
Many people in poorer nations die without proper medical aid.

in aid of sb/sth
[C1] in order to collect money for a group of people who need it

Dictionary example:
a concert in aid of famine relief

Learner example:
It w[ould] be an honour for us students at the centre if you could attend our sport[s] function in aid of stress[ed] out kids and present the pri[z]es.

with the aid of sth
[C1] using something to help you

Dictionary example:
She can walk with the aid of a stick.

Learner example:
The newest computer can handle data that human brains cannot and therefore all scientific research [is] carried out with the aid of computers.

EQUIPMENT
[C1] [c] a piece of equipment that helps you to do something

Dictionary example:
teaching aids such as books and videos

Learner example:
Also, it would be an excellent aid if a new laser printer was bought, so as to make more copies in less time.

VERB FORMAL
[C1] [t] to help someone

Dictionary examples:
The project is designed to aid the homeless.
He was aided in his research by his knowledge of Greek.
Learner example:
Some people believe that it is essential for both poorer and rich countries [that] the rich countries aid the poorer ones, and this is my opinion, for [a] number of plausible reasons.

aim /eɪm/

NOUN
[B1] [c] the purpose of doing something, and what you hope to achieve

Dictionary examples:
He went to Paris with the aim of improving his French.
My main aim is to make people laugh.

Learner example:
The aim was to get a picture of each person.

VERB

aim to do sth
[B1] to intend to achieve something

Dictionary example:
I aim to be a millionaire by the time I'm 35.

Learner example:
Our English Club aims to help students with their English.

be aimed at sb
[B2] to be intended to influence or affect a particular person or group

Dictionary example:
These advertisements are specifically aimed at young people.

Learner example:
PIAZZA is too modern and is aimed at the young.

be aimed at doing sth
[C2] to be intended to achieve a particular thing

Dictionary example:
a plan aimed at reducing traffic

Learner example:
Working within projects aimed at improving local agricultural output, I stayed 3 years in South America.
air /air/

NOUN

the air

[B2] the space above and around things

Dictionary example:
He kicked the ball high in the air.

Learner example:
It was an old painting. In it, a man was holding his axe up in the air and was ready to hit a tree.

on air

[C1] on television or radio

Dictionary example:
The radio station is on air from 6.00 a.m.

Learner example:
It is on air at 8.30 p.m. every Thursday and Saturday.

QUALITY

[C2] [NO PLURAL] a particular appearance or quality

Dictionary example:
He has an air of authority.

Learner example:
The service is excellent and the atmosphere is quite nice, with an air of elegance.

clear the air

[C2] If an argument or discussion clears the air, people feel less angry or upset after it.

Dictionary example:
It was an unpleasant argument, but at least it cleared the air.

Learner example:
I rushed into the room [to] cheer them up and clear the air, although I knew it was too late.

disappear/vanish into thin air

[C2] to suddenly disappear in a mysterious way

Dictionary example:
He was on the path ahead of me and then vanished into thin air.

Learner example:
Sitting on a couch and squeezed between my elderly aunts, I sincerely wished I could vanish into thin air.
a breath of fresh air
[C2] someone or something that is new, different, and exciting

Dictionary example:
Having Eve around has been a breath of fresh air.

Learner example:
The final suggestion is focused on building a leisure centre. Should this be everything the Town Council has promised, it will bring a breath of fresh air.

---

air conditioning /ˈeə.kənˌdɪʃ.ən.ɪŋ/

NOUN [U]
[B1] the system used for keeping the air in a building or vehicle cool

Dictionary example:
I wish my car had air conditioning.

Learner example:
The rooms are big and there’s cable TV and air conditioning.

---

aircraft /ˈeəкраːft/ (plural aircraft)

NOUN [C]
[B2] any vehicle, with or without an engine, which can fly, such as a plane or helicopter

Dictionary example:
military/commercial aircraft

Learner example:
They have all [the] Swedish aircraft that have ever been built.

---

air force /ˈeəˌfɔːs/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the part of a country’s military organization that uses aircraft to fight wars

Dictionary example:
an air force pilot

Learner example:
During the day you can visit all of our museums or schools or even the air force base, which is open from 9.00 until 18.00.
airline /ˈeə.laɪn/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a company that provides regular flights to places

Dictionary example:
What airline did you fly?

Learner example:
She explained the situation to the authorities and because there was no flight back to London, the airline had no choice but to pay [for] her stay.

alarm /əˈlɑːm/

Word family:
Nouns: alarm
Verbs: alarm
Adjectives: alarming

NOUN

WARNING
[B1] [c] a loud noise that warns you of danger

Dictionary examples:
a burglar/car/fire/smoke alarm to set off an alarm

Learner example:
It turned out that the fire alarm had gone off and they had to evacuate the building.

WAKING
[B1] [c] a clock or device in a watch, mobile phone, etc. that makes a noise to wake you

Dictionary example:
The alarm went off at 5.30 and she got up immediately.

Learner example:
Suddenly the alarm started to ring and I woke up to go to school.

WORRY
[C2] [u] a sudden feeling of fear or worry that something bad might happen

Dictionary example:
There's no need for alarm – it is completely safe.

Learner example:
Fortunately, her soothing voice damped down any sense of alarm.
raise the alarm

[C2] to warn someone of a dangerous situation

Dictionary examples:
Her parents raised the alarm when she failed to return home.
A local doctor was the first to raise the alarm about this latest virus.

Learner example:
For them, raising the alarm because of five percent unemployment is an example of so-called 'loony-left thinking'.

VERB [T]

[C1] to make someone worried or frightened

Dictionary example:
I don't want to alarm you but he really should be here by now.

Learner example:
What alarmed us the most was the daring use of speculation by the author.

---

alarming /əˈlɑː.mɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: alarm
Verbs: alarm
Adjectives: alarming

---

ADJECTIVE

[C1] causing worry or fear

Dictionary examples:
alarm
Crime has been increasing at an alarming rate.

Learner example:
Moreover, the alarming frequency of heart attacks in Poland [has] made people stop eating too much fat.

---

albeit /ɔːlˈbiː.ɪt/

CONJUNCTION

[C2] although

Dictionary example:
He tried, albeit without success.
Learner example:
If and when homework, household chores and social duties had been dealt with, we were free to pursue our own designs, albeit usually hampered by a younger child tagging along.

alcoholic /ˈæl.kəˈhol.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: alcohol
Adjectives: alcoholic

ADJECTIVE

DRINK
[B1] ! containing alcohol

Dictionary example:
alcoholic drinks

Learner example:
I'm only 15 years old and not allowed to drink alcoholic drinks.

PERSON
[C2] ! [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] regularly drinking too much alcohol and unable to stop the habit

Dictionary example:
She lived with her alcoholic father.

Learner example:
Numerous examples of divorced couples, alcoholic parents, orphans, [and] children without principles, should stay in our minds.

NOUN [c]
[C2] ! someone who regularly drinks too much alcohol and cannot stop the habit

Dictionary example:
He became an alcoholic when his wife left him.

Learner example:
The quality of the orchestra was poor – it only consisted of amateurs – and the conductor was drunk – he was an alcoholic.

alert /əˈlɜːt/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] quick to notice and react to things around you
Dictionary examples:
A young dog should be alert and playful.
Teachers need to be alert to sudden changes in students' behaviour.

Learner example:
A little bit of tension is alright – I guess it keeps you alert while driving.

VERB [T]
[C2] to warn someone of a possibly dangerous situation

Dictionary example:
Six hours later she still wasn't home so they alerted the police.

Learner example:
Karl Marx alerted us all to the fact that work can cause alienation, and that repetitive tasks, or tasks which do not involve a great deal of interaction with other human beings, can make us feel estranged.

NOUN
[C1] a warning about a possibly dangerous situation

Dictionary example:
a bomb alert

Learner example:
Don't forget to take care of your personal belongings – it won't cause a bomb alert like at Victoria but may get lost!

alike  /əˈlaɪk/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS AFTER VERB]
[B1] similar

Dictionary example:
The children all look very alike.

Learner example:
First of all, Jem and Joss Merlyn look alike physically.

ADVERB

SIMILAR
[B2] in a similar way

Dictionary examples:
We think alike.
My father treated us all alike.
BOTH

[B2] used after referring to two groups of people or things to show that both groups are included

Dictionary example:
Friends and family alike were shocked by the news of her death.

Learner example:
It was indeed a great treat for old and young alike.

---

alive /əˈlaɪv/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

LIVING

[B1] living, not dead

Dictionary examples:
He must be ninety if he's still alive.
It was a bad fall – she's lucky to be alive.

Learner example:
I was very happy that my father was still alive.

be alive and kicking/well

[C2] to continue to live or exist and be full of energy, or to be popular or successful

Dictionary examples:
She said she'd seen him last week and he was alive and kicking.
Despite rumours to the contrary, feminism is alive and well.

Learner example:
He was a farmer who had been working in the fields for more than sixty years, but was still alive and kicking.

PLACE

[C2] full of activity and excitement

Dictionary examples:
The bar was alive with the sound of laughter.
The city comes alive at night.

Learner example:
Normally you would pass by without noticing it, but once a year Roskilde comes alive.

CONTINUING

[C2] continuing to exist
Dictionary example:
Local people are fighting to keep the language alive.

Learner example:
Thirdly, it keeps the village alive, since many people from other villages come to celebrate with them, and our national heritage (traditional songs, dances, costumes) is kept alive too.

det: all /ɔːl/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ONLY THING</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[B1] the only thing</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
All I remember is waking up in hospital.
All you can do is hope he'll get better.

Learner example:
Actually, I lost my job last week. All I can do is buy a computer and get [on] the internet to find [another] job.

at all
[B1] used for emphasis in questions or negative statements, to mean in any way or of any type

Dictionary examples:
Can I help at all?
He hasn't changed at all.

Learner example:
The sun was shining and there were no clouds at all, so we could see the light blue sky.

above all
[B1] most importantly

Dictionary examples:
Above all, I'd like to thank my family.
He is known above all for his film roles.

Learner example:
She is a very nice person and above all, she is really cheerful.

after all
[B1] used to add information that shows that what you have just said is true

Dictionary example:
You can't expect to be perfect – after all, it was only your first lesson.
Learner example:
I stopped talking with my friends, but not [for long] – after all, we are friends. Anyway, I'm planning nice things for the next April 1st.

all is well
[B1] everything is in a good or acceptable state

Dictionary example:
I hope all is well with Jack.

Learner example:
I hope all's well.

and all that
[B1] used for saying that other similar things are included or that the whole of a situation is considered

Dictionary examples:
He told us about his school and all that.
We decided to stay in bed, with it being a holiday and all that.

Learner example:
I really enjoy shopping for clothes, but not only for clothes, also for things like earrings and all that!

in all
[B2] used to show the total amount of something

Dictionary example:
Some of the children came, so there were 15 of us in all.

Learner example:
Secondly, even though most people like[d] [the] group RADIANT, they [only] played for 35 minutes in all.

all of a sudden [B2] suddenly and unexpectedly

Dictionary example:
All of a sudden, he came bursting in through the door.

Learner example:
All of a sudden, a weird creature popped into his dream.

all over again
[B2] repeated from the beginning

Dictionary example:
We had to start all over again.

Learner example:
After that I went back to my home in Ribeirao Preto to begin my routine all over again.
after all
[C1] used to say that something happened or was true although you did not expect it to happen or be true

Dictionary example:
Helen couldn't come to the party after all.

Learner example:
Cars still enter the city so there will be pollution after all.

all things considered
[C1] used for saying that something is true in general if you think about all its aspects

Dictionary example:
The show was a great success, all things considered.

Learner example:
All things considered, it seems like "Kavanagh Catering Services" would be most suitable for the students.

all hours
[C1] very late at night, until early morning, or almost all the time

Dictionary example:
Our neighbours are up till all hours every night, playing loud music.

Learner example:
This causes traffic jams at all hours of the day.

for all [C2] despite

Dictionary example:
For all her qualifications, she's useless at the job.

Learner example:
For all of his desire to be strong, Okonkwo is haunted [by] fear.

all shapes and sizes
[C2] many different types of people or things

Dictionary example:
We saw people there of all shapes and sizes.

Learner example:
Personal Challenges come in all shapes and sizes.
ADVERB

2/5/8, etc. all
[B1] used to say that two players or teams have the same number of points in a game

Dictionary example:
It was 3 all at half time.

all along
[B2] from the beginning of a period of time

Dictionary example:
I knew all along that it was a mistake.

Learner example:
In the future the key word for fashion will be comfort as this is basically what everyone has been wanting all along.

all in all [B2] considering everything

Dictionary example:
All in all, it was a great holiday.

Learner example:
All in all, nobody cares about air pollution and the environment in general.

all over the place
[B2] in or to many different places

Dictionary example:
There were dirty dishes all over the place.

Learner example:
I am thinking of dog–dirt on the pavements, cans all over the place, [and] a lot of disgusting paintings on the walls in the public toilets, the underground and so on.

all at once
[C1] suddenly

Dictionary example:
All at once he stood up and walked out of the room.

Learner example:
All at once, everything started to work again.

be all very well
[C1] used to show that you do not agree with something or that you are annoyed about something
Dictionary example:
It's all very well for her to say everything's fine, she doesn't have to live here.

Learner example:
That's all very well for most of the people but according to my desires it's not enough. I envisage a more sophisticated flat.

be all set

[C1] to be ready

Dictionary example:
We were all set to go when the phone rang.

Learner example:
So, there you go. I'm all set!

all the better/easier/more exciting, etc.

[C2] much better, easier, more exciting, etc.

Dictionary example:
The journey was all the more dangerous because of the bad weather.

Learner example:
He had to overcome great obstacles in his professional and private lives, which makes his achievements all the more remarkable.

all but

[C2] almost

Dictionary example:
The film was all but over by the time we arrived.

Learner example:
He could all but hear their stomachs rumble.

---

allegation /ˌæl.iˈgeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: allegation

Verbs: allege

Adjectives: alleged

Adverbs: allegedly

NOUN [c]

[C1] when you say that someone has done something wrong or illegal, without proof that this is true
Dictionary examples:
allegations of corruption
Several of her patients have made allegations of professional misconduct against her.
He denied allegations that he had cheated.

Learner example:
Contrary to Mrs Jones’ allegation, the exam results of our college are first-class and, moreover, there is an extremely varied social programme organised.

allege /əˈledʒ/
Word family:
Nouns: allegation
Verbs: allege
Adjectives: alleged Adverbs: allegedly

VERB [T]
[C2] to say that something is true or state something as a fact without giving proof

Dictionary examples:
The teacher is alleged to have hit a student.
He alleges that Bates attacked him.

Learner example:
Advocates of perpetual economic growth allege that the world in which we live is a better place compared to what it was a long time ago.

alleged /əˈledʒd/
Word family:
Nouns: allegation
Verbs: allege
Adjectives: alleged Adverbs: allegedly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] believed to be true, but not proved

Dictionary example:
an alleged attack

Learner example:
Besides, as far as the alleged "downpour of rain" is concerned, there was, in reality, only a small April shower which lasted not more than 10 minutes.
allegedly /əˈledʒ.ɪd.li/

Word family:
Nouns: allegation
Verbs: allege
Adjectives: alleged Adverbs: allegedly

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that is believed to be true, but is not proved

Dictionary example:
That's where he allegedly killed his wife.

Learner example:
[When] he was at his peak, he allegedly [got] involved in drugs and heroin.

alliance /əˈlaɪ.ənts/

Word family:
Nouns: alliance, ally
Adjectives: allied

NOUN [c]
[C2] an agreement between countries or political parties to work together to achieve something

Dictionary example:
Egbert extended his control over Cornwall, defeating an alliance between the Vikings and the Britons at Hingston Down in 838.

Learner example:
Arthur died and both the Spanish Hapsburgs and the Tudors wanted to continue their alliance.

allied /ˈæl.ərd/

Word family:
Nouns: alliance, ally
Adjectives: allied

ADJECTIVE
[C2] joined by a formal agreement

Dictionary example:
the allied powers
Learner example:
During the Second World War, he joined the US Navy and was then sent on a mission to Brazil with the aim of patrolling the coasts to avoid a German bombing [of] allied ships.

---

allocate /ˈælə.keɪt/

VERB [T]
[C1] to give some time, money, space, etc. to be used for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
The government has promised to allocate extra money for health care.
More police time should be allocated to crime prevention.

Learner example:
We also think that the gym is under-[us]ed because of the lack of equipment, thus we would ask for some funding to be allocated to the purchase of more equipment.

---

allocation /ˌæləˈkeɪ.ʃən/

NOUN

SHARE
[C2] [c] an amount of money, time, space, etc. that is allocated

Dictionary example:
They have had their allocation of fuel.

Learner example:
It is approximately equal [to] the US in government allocations to child support, but it is still behind Germany (0.25% vs. 2%).

PROCESS
[C2] [u] when money, time, space, etc. is allocated

Dictionary example:
the allocation of funds/resources

Learner example:
However, the latter countries do differ in their allocation of money to services, with the US spending 0.3 per cent of the GDP and Spain spending only 0.1 per cent.
allow /əˈlaʊ/

Word family:
Nouns: allowance
Verbs: allow

VERB

GIVE PERMISSION
[B1] [ɪ] to give someone permission for something

Dictionary examples:
You’re not allowed to talk during the exam.
Pets aren’t allowed in this hotel.
The referee decided to allow the goal.

Learner example:
I have very strict teachers and they won’t allow me to enter the classroom if I’m late.

TIME/MONEY
[C1] [ɪ] to plan to use a particular amount of money, time, etc. for something

Dictionary example:
Allow three hours for the whole journey.

Learner example:
Please allow more free time in the afternoon for shopping and change the free evening which is on Day 1 in your High Life Programme to another evening.

MAKE POSSIBLE
[C1] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to make it possible for someone to do something

Dictionary example:
The extra money will allow me to upgrade my computer.

Learner example:
These activities allow people to forget about their problems, to enjoy themselves and also to communicate with others.

NOT PREVENT
[C2] [ɪ] to not prevent something from happening

Dictionary example:
They have allowed the problem to get worse.

Learner example:
A unanimous effort has to be made in order to improve the situation in education instead of allowing it to deteriorate.
allowance /əˈlaʊ.ənts/

Word family:
Nouns: allowance
Verbs: allow

NOUN [C]

MONEY
[C1] money that you are given regularly, especially to pay for a particular thing

Dictionary example:
a clothing allowance

Learner example:
She spends most of her allowance quickly and is then without money for the rest of the month.

make allowances for sb/sth
[C2] to remember that someone has a disadvantage which is not their fault when you are judging their behaviour or work

Dictionary example:
They made allowances for the fact that he was ill.

Learner example:
I would say Mr Stevens is a victim of his sense of duty, which makes him think of marriage as a traitor's act, but I don't know to what extent we should make allowances for his strong convictions.

all right /ɔːlˈraɪt/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]; ADVERB (ALSO alright)

GOOD ENOUGH
[B1] good enough, although not very good

Dictionary example:
"What did you think of the film?" "It was all right. Nothing special."

Learner example:
We arrived by ship and the trip was all right except my friend Tim was ill.

ally /ˈæ.laɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: alliance, ally
Adjectives: allied
NOUN [C]

PERSON
[C1] someone who supports you, especially when other people are against you

Dictionary example:
He is generally considered to be the Prime Minister’s closest political ally.

Learner example:
The participants are under pressure and they have to find allies and make decisions.

COUNTRY
[C2] a country that has agreed to help another country, especially in a war

Dictionary example:
During World War One, Turkey and Germany were allies.

Learner example:
So the allies didn’t exclude the Germanies from the world community, including organizations like NATO, the Warsaw Pact or the UN.

alone /əˈləʊn/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

leave sb alone
[B2] to stop talking to someone or annoying them

Dictionary example:
Leave him alone, he’s tired.

Learner example:
"Leave me alone, you monster," I said in panic.

let alone
[C1] used to emphasize that something is more impossible than another thing

Dictionary example:
You couldn’t trust her to look after your dog, let alone your child.

Learner example:
We are surrounded by amazing pieces of technology which we do not fully understand, let alone use to their full capacity.

ONLY ONE
[C2] [ALWAYS AFTER NOUN] used to emphasize that only one person or thing is involved

Dictionary examples:
Last year alone the company made a million dollars.
You alone know how you feel.
Learner example:
The decision was hers and hers alone.

along /əˈlɒŋ/

PREPOSITION

NEXT TO

[B1] in a line next to or beside something long

Dictionary examples:
a row of houses along the river
Cars were parked all along the road.

Learner example:
To my surprise, there was a charming beach along the cycle route.

PARTICULAR PLACE

[B2] at a particular place on a road, river, etc.

Dictionary example:
Somewhere along this road there’s a garage.

Learner example:
She told me [that] along the road there are several places to visit, like a castle which is open [to the] public.

along the lines of *sth

[C2] based on and similar to something

Dictionary example:
He gave a talk along the lines of the one he gave in Oxford.

Learner example:
Imagine one is encouraged by friends and institutions for their 'different' artistic or other activities, even if their works are not along the lines of 'acceptable' norms and tradition.

ADVERB

FORWARD

[B1] moving forward

Dictionary example:
We were just walking along, chatting.

WITH YOU

[B1] with you
Dictionary examples:
Why don't you take him along with you when you go?
I'll bring some food along and we can have a picnic.

Learner example:
My boyfriend came along with me.

all along
[B2] from the beginning of a period of time

Dictionary example:
I knew all along that it was a mistake.

Learner example:
In the future the key word for fashion will be comfort as this is basically what everyone has been wanting all along.

along with sb/sth
[B2] in addition to someone or something else

Dictionary example:
California along with Florida is probably the most popular American holiday destination.

Learner example:
I speak foreign languages (English, French and Italian) along with Greek.

alongside /əˈlɒŋˈsaɪd/

ADVERB; PREPOSITION

NEXT TO
[C1] next to someone or something

Dictionary example:
A car pulled up alongside ours.

Learner example:
The skyline [is] filled with huge chimneys displacing tons of gases into the air; millions of vehicles [are] moving on a highway alongside a dead river, where life flourished a few decades ago.

WITH
[C1] together with someone

Dictionary example:
She enjoyed working alongside such famous actors.

Learner example:
Also he worked alongside me at another travel agency for 6 months.
aloud  /əˈlaʊd/

Word family:
Adjectives: loud
Adverbs: aloud, loud, loudly

ADVERB

[B1] in a way that other people can hear

Dictionary examples:
He read her letter aloud to the rest of the family.
I laughed aloud at some of his comments.
I was just thinking aloud.

Learner example:
Thinking aloud is an old habit of mine.

alphabet  /ˈæl.əˌbet/

Word family:
Nouns: alphabet
Adjectives: alphabetical

NOUN [c]

[B1] a set of letters arranged in a fixed order which is used for writing a language

Dictionary example:
the Cyrillic alphabet

Learner example:
The first evening, we learnt how to spell the alphabet.

alphabetical  /ˌæl.əˈbet.ɪkəl/

Word family:
Nouns: alphabet
Adjectives: alphabetical

ADJECTIVE

[B2] arranged in the same order as the letters of the alphabet

Dictionary examples:
an alphabetical list
The names are published in alphabetical order.

Learner example:
She looked again at the strange words and then she understood. Each letter ha[d] been replaced by the next one in the alphabetical order.
already /əˈlɛrd.i/

ADVERB

EARLY

[B1] used to say that something has happened earlier than you expected

Dictionary examples:
Are you buying Christmas cards already? It's only September!
I've only eaten one course and I'm already full.

Learner example:
Since I have already reserved a room for myself, I am now sitting on the balcony, watching the beautiful views of the beach and tall pine trees.

already /əˈlɛr.ti/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]; ADVERB (ALSO all right)

GOOD ENOUGH

[B1] good enough, although not very good

Dictionary examples:
"What did you think of the film?" "It was alright. Nothing special."
Did your exam go alright?

Learner example:
I hope the weather will be alright.

alter /ˈɔl.tə/

Word family:
Nouns: alteration
Verbs: alter

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to change, or to make someone or something change

Dictionary examples:
We've had to alter some of our plans.
Giving up our car has altered our lifestyle a lot.

Learner example:
To go to the show, we need to alter the programme.
alteration /ˌɔːl.təˈreɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: alteration
Verbs: alter

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a change, or the process of changing something

Dictionary example:
We've made a few alterations to the kitchen.

Learner example:
I hope that my alterations don't give you too much trouble, but I really think that these changes are necessary for full satisfaction among our members.

alternate

Word family:
Nouns: alternative
Verbs: alternate
Adjectives: alternative
Adverbs: alternatively

ADJECTIVE /ɔːlˈteɪnət/ alternate days/weeks/years, etc.
[C1] one out of every two days, weeks, years, etc.

Dictionary example:
I work alternate Saturdays.

Learner example:
I had to go to a travel agency on alternate weekends in order to translate some programmes into English.

VERB /ˈɔːl.tə.net/ alternate between [the] menu.

[C1] If two things alternate, one thing happens, then the other thing happens, then the first thing happens again, etc.

Dictionary example:
She alternates between cheerfulness and deep despair.

Learner example:
Xanadu Express promises to serve us food from all over the world and to alternate [the] menu.
alternative

/ɔːlˈtɜː.nə.tɪv/

Nouns: alternative

Verbs: alternate

Adjectives: alternative

Adverbs: alternatively

NOUN [C]

[B2] one of two or more things that you can choose between

Dictionary examples:
- It's a low-fat alternative to butter.
- I'm afraid I have no alternative but to ask you to leave.

Learner example:
- Another alternative is to go up the mountain by chairlifts or funicular-railway.

ADJECTIVE

DIFFERENT PLAN

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] An alternative plan, method, etc. is one that you can use if you do not want to use another one.

Dictionary example:
- We can make alternative arrangements if necessary.

Learner example:
- [The new direct coach service] is an alternative way [of getting to Lampton].

NOT USUAL

[B2] different to what is usual or traditional

Dictionary example:
- an alternative lifestyle

Learner example:
- I wonder if you've ever heard of “alternative music”?

alternatively

/ɔːlˈtɜː.nə.tɪv.li/

Nouns: alternative

Verbs: alternate

Adjectives: alternative

Adverbs: alternatively

ADVERB

[B2] used to suggest another possibility
Dictionary example:
We could go to the Indian restaurant, or alternatively, we could try that new Italian place.

Learner example:
Alternatively, I suggest that you should invite a famous writer.

although /əˈləʊθəl/CONJUNCTION

BUT

[B1] but

Dictionary examples:
He's coming to see us this evening, although I don't know exactly when.
He's rather shy, although he's not as bad as he used to be.

Learner example:
I liked the food although my friends didn't like it.

DESPITE

[B1] despite the fact that

Dictionary example:
She walked home by herself, although she knew that it was dangerous.

Learner example:
There were no taxis on the street so, although it was raining, I started walking in the rain.

altogether /ˈɔːl.əˈtʃeɪ.tə/
ADVERB

TOTAL

[B1] in total

Dictionary examples:
There were twenty people there altogether.
That'll be £52.50 altogether, please.

Learner example:
They cost 1700 baht altogether.

COMPLETELY

[B2] completely
Dictionary examples:
She wrote less and less often, and eventually she stopped altogether. I'm not altogether sure about the idea.

Learner example:
I don't altogether agree with this fact.

GENERALLY
[B2] when you consider everything

Dictionary example:
Altogether, I'd say the party was a great success.

Learner example:
Altogether, I believe that the most cruel creature on earth is the human being.

aluminium /ˌæl.ˈjuːmɪn.i.əm/

NOUN [u]
[B2] a light, silver-coloured metal used for making containers, cooking equipment and aircraft parts

Dictionary examples:
Cover the fish with aluminium foil and cook over a low heat. We take all our aluminium cans for recycling.

Learner example:
[In the future,] jewellery will be made of metals which [occur] naturally and [which are] cheap now but will be extremely expensive 100 years from now, such as aluminium and zinc.

always /ˈɔːl.wɛriz/

ADVERB

can/could always do sth
[B1] used to suggest something

Dictionary example:
You can always stay with us if you miss your train.

Learner example:
Watching them painting is better than seeing their art in any museum, and you can always do some sightseeing through our historical ruins, our mountains or villages.

MANY TIMES
[B2] again and again, often in an annoying way
Dictionary example:
He's always losing his keys.

Learner example:
I am always trying to convince my friend Maria of these dangers.

amateur /ˈæm.ə.tər/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] doing something as a hobby and not as your job

Dictionary example:
an amateur photographer

Learner example:
Finally I would like to mention that I feel very confident in front of cameras, since I am an amateur actor.

NOUN [c]

HOBBY
[C1] someone who does something as a hobby and not as their job

Dictionary example:
This tennis tournament is open to both amateurs and professionals.

Learner example:
What I want to explain is that if an amateur sees a professional swimmer winning while wearing our equipment, he is surely going to think that our products helped him succeed, so the amateur is going to buy our equipment too.

NO SKILL
[C1] someone who is not good at what they do

Dictionary example:
I won't be giving them any more work – they're a bunch of amateurs.

Learner example:
I admit that I was an amateur, [which] is why I did not try to do any special "tricks" to impress all those who were watching me.

amazed /əˈmeɪzd/

Word family:
Nouns: amazement
Adjectives: amazed, amazing
Adverbs: amazingly
ADJECTIVE

[B1] extremely surprised

Dictionary examples:
She was amazed at how calm she felt after the accident.
I was absolutely amazed when I heard the news.
I was amazed to hear that Chris had won first prize.
I'm amazed that she didn't complain.

Learner example:
Dear David Beckham, How are you? I was amazed to find your letter in my mail box.

amazement /əˈmeɪ.zə.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: amazement
Adjectives: amazed, amazing
Adverbs: amazingly

NOUN [u]

[B2] extreme surprise

Dictionary examples:
She stared in amazement.
To my amazement, he ate the whole lot.

Learner example:
Then, to her amazement, she saw him with another girl.

amazing /əˈmeɪ.zɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: amazement
Adjectives: amazed, amazing
Adverbs: amazingly

ADJECTIVE

SURPRISING

[B1] extremely surprising

Dictionary examples:
It's amazing to think that the managing director is only 23.
It's amazing that no one else has applied for the job.
The amazing thing is that it was kept secret for so long.

Learner example:
Dear Richard, It's amazing you didn't forget my birthday.
amazingly /əˈmeɪ.zɪŋ.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: amazement
Adjectives: amazed, amazing
Adverbs: amazingly

ADVERB
[B1] in an amazing way

Dictionary examples:
The food was amazingly good.
Amazingly enough, no one else has applied for the job.

Learner example:
Amazingly, he didn't come back until midnight.

ambassador /æmˈbæs.ə.dər/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the main official sent by a government of a country to represent it in another country

Dictionary examples:
Britain's ambassador in Moscow has refused to comment.
She's a former ambassador to the United States.

Learner example:
On the first floor [is] the "star" of the museum: a splendid grand piano built in 1893, which was offered by the Queen to the French ambassador in 1895.

ambiguity /ˌæm.bruˈɡjuə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: ambiguity
Adjectives: ambiguous

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when something has more than one possible meaning

Dictionary example:
Legal documents must be free of ambiguity.

Learner example:
Lastly, there is the ambiguity of her final decision.
ambiguous /æmˈbɪg.ju.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: ambiguity
Adjectives: ambiguous

ADJECTIVE
[C2] having more than one possible meaning

Dictionary example:
an ambiguous statement

Learner example:
It is hard to choose the right option as the advice given [often] seems ambiguous.

ambition /æmˈbɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: ambition
Adjectives: ambitious

NOUN

HOPE
[B1] [c] something you want to achieve

Dictionary examples:
His ambition is to run his own business.
He has already achieved his main ambition in life – to become wealthy.

Learner example:
Learning English is one of my ambition[s].

STRONG FEELING
[B2] [u] a strong feeling that you want to be successful or powerful

Dictionary example:
My sister always had more ambition than I did.

Learner example:
Love, hate, ambition and fear [of] losing are the main subjects for Orson Welles and Tim Burton, the directors [of these two films].

ambitious /æmˈbɪʃ.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: ambition
Adjectives: ambitious
ADJECTIVE

PERSON
[B2] wanting to be successful or powerful

Dictionary examples:
an ambitious young lawyer
He’s very ambitious for his children.

Learner example:
I chose Omar because I find him very talented and ambitious.

PLAN
[B2] If a plan or idea is ambitious, it will need a lot of work and will be difficult to achieve.

Dictionary examples:
This is our most ambitious project so far.
She has some ambitious plans for her business.

Learner example:
If we accomplish these ambitious plans, we can even run for the 2006 Winter Olympic Games.

amend /əˈmend/

Word family:
Nouns: amendment
Verbs: amend

VERB [T]
[C2] to slightly change the words of a document

Dictionary example:
The contract has now been amended.

Learner example:
The text could be amended.

amendment /əˈmend.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: amendment
Verbs: amend

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a change in the words of a document, or the process of doing this Dictionary example:

to make an amendment to the human rights law

Learner example:

In view of the need to clarify all these errors and wrong information, I would urge you to print another report apologising and providing readers with the right figures and possible amendments.

amid /əˈmɪd/

PREPOSITION (also amidst)

WHILE

[C1] while something else is happening

Dictionary example:

Security was increased amid fears of further terrorist attacks.

Learner example:

They are involved so much with their occupation that they will respond to an emergency call even when they are amid sweet dreams or having a joyful time with their love[d] ones.

AMONG

[C2] among

Dictionary example:

a village set amid rolling hills

Learner example:

So we are mere fading stars [i]n a huge sky, unsubjected to the elapse of time and instead of following the ancient saying "carpe diem", we get lost amid other stars.

among /əˈmʌŋ/ (also amongst)

PREPOSITION

IN THE MIDDLE

[B1] in the middle of something

Dictionary examples:

I saw a few familiar faces among the crowd.
Rescue teams searched among the ruins for survivors.

Learner example:

If you love nature, you can eat under trees and among flowers.
among other things
[B2] used to say that there are other details or examples in addition to the ones you are mentioning

Dictionary example:
It's worth visiting the museum while you're here. There's an exhibition about Darwin and a good collection of paintings, among other things.

Learner example:
To go by tram or bus is a waste of time and traveling by car is – among other things – a waste of money.

among the best/worst/biggest, etc.
[B2] one of the most extreme examples of a particular type

Dictionary example:
He is among the top five tennis players in the country.

Learner example:
It was among the worst zoos I have ever seen.

DIVIDE
[C1] to each one in a group

Dictionary example:
She divided the cake among the children.

Learner example:
Although Brazil is the eighth biggest economy in the world and one of the richest countries regarding natural resources, that wealth is not shared equally among the population.

amongst /əˈmʌŋst/

PREPOSITION FORMAL [B2] among

Dictionary example:
There is a need to raise skill levels both amongst those in work and those seeking work.

Learner example:
He was no longer a man amongst others but a man with a free soul...

amount /əˈmaʊnt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] how much there is of something
Dictionary examples:
They didn't deliver the right amount of sand.
Small amounts of land were used for keeping animals.
I didn't expect the bill to come to this amount.
You wouldn't believe the amount of trouble I've had with this car.

Learner example:
You'll also be able to go out to pubs or night clubs, and you'll spend a very small amount of money.

ample /ˈæm.pəl/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] enough, or more than enough

Dictionary example:
She's had ample time to get the work done.

Learner example:
There will be three coffee machines on each floor which should provide ample coffee for everyone.

amuse /əˈmjuːz/
Word family:
Nouns: amusement
Verbs: amuse
Adjectives: amused, amusing

VERB [T]

MAKE LAUGH
[B2] to make someone laugh or smile

Dictionary examples:
The video clips on that website always amuse me.
I think it amuses him to see people make fools of themselves.

Learner example:
"The Blind Owl" – his masterpiece – is a surrealistic novella which has amused critics and ordinary readers for years.

KEEP INTERESTED
[B2] to keep someone interested and help them to have an enjoyable time

Dictionary example:
I bought a book of crosswords to amuse myself while I was on the train.
Learner example:
Another idea is to call a well-known band to amuse all the young people.

amused /əˈmjuːzd/

Word family:
Nouns: amusement
Verbs: amuse
Adjectives: amused, amusing

ADJECTIVE

FUNNY
[B2] showing that you think something is funny

Dictionary examples:
an amused smile
She was very amused by/at your comments.

Learner example:
When the taxi arrived, he was so amused about the news that an old woman took it.

keep sb amused
[B2] to keep someone interested and help them to have an enjoyable time

Dictionary example:
How do you keep an 8-year-old boy amused?

Learner example:
I could keep them amused with my funny stories.

amusement /əˈmjuːz.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: amusement
Verbs: amuse
Adjectives: amused, amusing

NOUN

FEELING
[B2] [u] the feeling that you have when something makes you smile or laugh

Dictionary examples:
She looked at him with great amusement.
Carl came last in the race, much to my amusement.
Learner example:
Each ma[de] the other one laugh. We had great fun. [It was] a day with so much amusement, with my best friend John.

ENTERTAINMENT
[B2] [c or u] an enjoyable way of spending your time

Dictionary example:
I play the piano, but just for my own amusement.

Learner example:
In particular, computer games are a kind of amusement, for them and for everyone.

| amusing | /əˈmjuː.zɪŋ/ |
| Word family: |
| Nouns: amusement |
| Verbs: amuse |
| Adjectives: amused, amusing |

ADJECTIVE
[B1] funny or entertaining

Dictionary example:
an amusing story/person/situation

Learner example:
Our teacher is really amusing, [he] makes people laugh all the time.

| analogous | /əˈnæl.ə.gəs/ |
| Word family: |
| Nouns: analogy |
| Adjectives: analogous |

ADJECTIVE
[C2] similar in some ways

Dictionary example:
It's often said that life is analogous to a journey.

Learner example:
Raising the price of petroleum will be analogous to providing hurdles for better communication and thus the progress.
analogy /əˈnæl.ə.dʒi/

Word family:
Nouns: analogy
Adjectives: analogous

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a comparison that shows how two things are similar

Dictionary example:
She draws an analogy between life's events and a game of chance.

Learner example:
The analogy bears striking similarities to the relationship of dependency between humans and their construct, the machines.

analyse /ˈæn.əˌlaɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: analysis, analyst
Verbs: analyse
Adjectives: analytical

VERB [T]
[B2] to examine the details of something carefully, in order to understand or explain it

Dictionary examples:
Researchers analysed the purchases of 6300 households.
Water samples taken from streams were analysed for contamination by chemicals.

Learner example:
He told me how we can analyse movies.

analysis /əˈnæl.ə.sɪs/ (PLURAL analyses)

Word family:
Nouns: analysis, analyst
Verbs: analyse
Adjectives: analytical

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the process of analysing something

Dictionary examples:
Chemical analysis revealed a high content of copper.
I was interested in Clare's analysis of the situation.
Learner example:
I would not do my school projects without using a computer, because I have to do some statistical analysis.

analyst /ˈæn.əlist/

Word family:
Nouns: analysis, analyst
Verbs: analyse
Adjectives: analytical

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone whose job is to study or examine something in detail

Dictionary example:
a financial/political/systems analyst

Learner example:
As you know I got promotion as a project analyst recently.

analytical /ˌæn.əˈlɪt.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: analysis, analyst
Verbs: analyse
Adjectives: analytical

ADJECTIVE (also analytic)
[C1] examining the details of something carefully, in order to understand or explain it

Dictionary examples:
analytical skills
an analytical mind

Learner example:
Moreover, employers nowadays are seeking the team-working, problem-solving and analytical skills [needed] for their company.

ancestor /ˈænˌses.tər/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a relative who lived a long time ago
Dictionary example:
My ancestors came from Ireland.

Learner example:
We are living in a technologically advanced world where we are surrounded by all sorts of devices, which would seem fantastic to our ancestors.

anchor /ˈæŋ.kə/

NOUN [C]

BOAT
[C2] a heavy, metal object that is dropped into water to stop a boat from moving

Dictionary example:
We dropped anchor in a quiet bay and swam.

Learner example:
Meanwhile, the captain had set the anchor.

SUPPORT
[C2] someone or something that gives support when needed

Dictionary example:
She was my anchor when things were difficult for me.

Learner example:
Yet she had still been fond of his picture, he was her anchor.

VERB

BOAT
[C2] to stop a boat from moving by dropping a heavy metal object into the water

Learner example:
Every night we used to anchor in different bays to spend the night.

FASTEN
[C2] to make something or someone stay in one position by fastening them firmly

Dictionary example:
We anchored ourselves to the rocks with a rope.

Learner example:
It was stronger, much more intense than text or video footage could ever be, for this unmoving image, having been anchored in space and time, solidified its content so as to have an almost physical impact on the viewer.
ancient /ˈɛn.tʃənt/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] from a long time ago

Dictionary examples:
ancient Greece/Rome/Egypt ancient monuments/ruins
People have lived in this valley since ancient times.

Learner example:
I would recommend you to visit Rome, because you shouldn’t miss [seeing] the huge monuments, the ancient Roman ruins and the Vatican.

and /ænd/

CONJUNCTION

EMPHASIZE

[B1] used between two words which are the same to make their meaning stronger

Dictionary examples:
She spends hours and hours on the telephone.
The sound grew louder and louder.
We laughed and laughed.

Learner example:
The situation became harder and harder.

angel /ˈeɪn.dʒəl/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a spiritual creature in stories or some religions, usually represented as a human with wings

Dictionary example:
According to the Bible, an angel told Mary that she would have God’s son, Jesus.

Learner example:
I like to wear a top with a picture of an angel that my mother bought for me as my birthday present.
anger /ˈæŋ.gər/

Word family:

Nouns: anger

Adjectives: angry

Adverbs: angrily

NOUN [u]

[B2] a strong feeling against someone who has behaved badly, making you want to shout at them or hurt them

Dictionary examples:
I think he feels a lot of anger towards his father who treated him very badly as a child.
The people showed no surprise or anger at their treatment.

Learner example:
Trisha, who had invited us there, looked like she was about to explode with anger or burst into tears.

angle /ˈæŋ.gl/

NOUN [c]

SPACE

[C1] the space between two lines or surfaces at the point at which they touch each other, measured in degrees

Dictionary examples:
an angle of 90 degrees
The interior angles of a square are right angles.

Learner example:
Carriers are to be requested to stick to the regulations which set the approach and takeoff angles at no less than 45 degrees.

at an angle

[C1] not horizontal or vertical, but sloping

Dictionary examples:
He wore his hat at an angle.
The boat settled into the mud at a 35 degree angle.

Learner example:
After purchasing the G5X–1 food processor from your shop last month I discovered, upon connecting it to the mains socket and switching it on, that I needed to tilt the unit at an angle for it to work.
DIRECTION
[C1] the direction from which you look at something

Dictionary example:
This is the same building photographed from different angles.

Learner example:
It is possible to see all the paintings from different angles. You can also zoom in and out.

WAY OF THINKING
[C1] the way you think about a situation

Dictionary example:
Try looking at the problem from another angle.

Learner example:
To be a child is to see the world from a different angle.

angrily /ˈæŋ.gə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: anger
Adjectives: angry
Adverbs: angrily

ADVERB
[B1] in an angry way

Dictionary examples:
"Don't do that!" she shouted angrily.
Demonstrators protested angrily following the jury's verdict.
The Prime Minister reacted angrily to claims that he had lied to the House of Commons.

Learner example:
"How dare she do that [to] me?" I thought, angrily.

animal /ˈæn.i.məl/

NOUN [C]

NOT A PLANT
[B2] anything that lives and moves, including people, birds, etc.

Dictionary example:
Are humans the only animals to use language?

Learner example:
I think the human is [an] animal that want[s] to [do] amusing things.
animated /ˈæn.i.mətɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: animation
Adjectives: animated

ADJECTIVE

FILM
[B1] An animated film is one in which drawings and models seem to move.

Dictionary example:
He makes animated films.

Learner example:
It's a funny animated film about a superhero family.

EXCITEMENT
[C2] showing a lot of interest and excitement

Dictionary example:
an animated conversation

Learner example:
They watched as their fellow travellers appeared to have an animated discussion with the driver of the car.

animation /ˌæn.i.ˈmeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: animation
Adjectives: animated

NOUN
[B1] [c or u] an animated film, or the process of making animated films

Dictionary example:
a course in computer animation

Learner example:
It's a comedy animation about penguins.

ankle /ˈæŋ.kl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the joint between the foot and the leg, or the thin part of the leg just above the foot
Dictionary example:
I fell over and sprained/twisted my ankle.

Learner example:
I have broken my ankle and I need to stay in bed during the day.

anniversary /ˈæn.iˈvɜːs.ər.i/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the day on which an important event happened in a previous year

Dictionary examples:
We always celebrate our wedding anniversary with dinner in an expensive restaurant. Tomorrow is the fiftieth anniversary of the revolution.

Learner example:
She and her husband are touring Europe for a second honeymoon, [on the] 10th anniversary of their marriage.

announce /əˈnaʊnt.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: announcement
Verbs: announce

VERB [T]
[B1] to tell people about something officially or with force or confidence

Dictionary examples:
The Prime Minister has just announced that public spending will be increased next year. The company has announced plans to open six new stores. After dinner, they announced the winner of the competition.

Learner example:
[The] TV has just announced a bus-drivers strike for tomorrow morning.

announcement /əˈnaʊnt.smənt/

Word family:
Nouns: announcement
Verbs: announce

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] something that someone says officially, giving information about something
Dictionary example:
The President made an unexpected announcement this morning.

Learner example:
I heard about this club in [a] radio announcement.

annoy /əˈnɔɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: annoyance
Verbs: annoy
Adjectives: annoyed, annoying

VERB [T]
[B1] to make someone angry

Dictionary examples:
Tim really annoyed me in the meeting this morning.
I’m sorry – is my cough annoying you?
It annoys me that she just expects us to help.
It really annoys me when people expect me to tip as well as pay a service charge in a restaurant.

Learner example:
My bed makes a loud noise when I lie down on it. It annoys me.

annoyance /əˈnɔɪ.əns/

Word family:
Nouns: annoyance
Verbs: annoy
Adjectives: annoyed, annoying

NOUN [U]
[C1] the feeling of being annoyed

Dictionary example:
He kept losing his keys, much to the annoyance of his wife.

Learner example:
This caused a lot of annoyance, so I suggest next year you make some kind of arrangement [for] booking the places [o]n the computer room in advance.
annoyed /əˈnɔɪd/

Word family:
- Nouns: annoyance
- Verbs: annoy
- Adjectives: annoyed, annoying

ADJECTIVE

[B1] angry

Dictionary examples:
I was so annoyed with him for turning up late.
He was annoyed at the way she tried to take over the whole meeting.
My parents were rather annoyed (that) I hadn't told them about the accident.
She was annoyed to discover that her husband had taken her car keys.

Learner example:
I was a bit annoyed when I [found out], but it's all right.

---

annoying /əˈnɔɪ.ɪŋ/

Word family:
- Nouns: annoyance
- Verbs: annoy
- Adjectives: annoyed, annoying

ADJECTIVE

[B1] making you feel annoyed

Dictionary examples:
It's really annoying when a train is late and there's no explanation.
He's got a really annoying laugh.

Learner example:
Do you like going shopping with your mom? They are sometimes annoying, aren't they?

---

annual /ˈæn.ju.əl/

Word family:
- Adjectives: annual
- Adverbs: annually

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B1] happening once every year, or relating to a period of one year
Dictionary examples:
an annual event/visit/holiday annual income/salary

Learner example:
I never miss the annual sale at the department store near my place.

annually  /ˈæn.ju.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: annual Adverbs: annually

ADVERB
[B2] once every year

Dictionary example:
Your starting salary is £28,000 per year and will be reviewed annually.

Learner example:
Dear Mr Benson, I am writing with regard to your letter, in which you asked me to give you some pieces of advice for the special events which take place in the College annually.

anonymous  /əˈnɒn.i.məs/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not giving a name

Dictionary examples:
an anonymous phone call/letter
The winner has asked to remain anonymous.

Learner example:
Because the internet does provide the possibility of staying anonymous, it is very hard to find the people who use it for illegal or criminal actions.

another  /əˈnʌð.ər/

DETERMINER; PRONOUN

one another
[B1] each other

Dictionary example:
How can they reach an agreement if they won't talk to one another?
Learner example:
We know one another from Poland.

at one time or another
[C2] used to talk about an occasion in the past without saying exactly which occasion it was

Dictionary example:
Most of us have made a similar mistake at one time or another.

Learner example:
Haven't we all at one time or another come home from a holiday feeling healthy and strong with a smile on our face thinking, this is what life is about.

answer /ˈɑːnt.ər/

NOUN

SOLUTION
[B1] [c] a way of solving a problem

Dictionary examples:
It's a difficult situation and I don't know what the answer is.
So what's the answer to the problem?
There's no easy answer to the problem.

Learner example:
Should wild animals be kept in cages, and denied their freedom so that we can have the pleasure of watching them in zoos? Well, there's no simple answer to that question.

VERB

TEST
[B1] [t] to write or say something as a reply to a question in a test, exercise, competition, etc.

Dictionary example:
I couldn't answer the last three questions.

Learner example:
That was to be my first interview, and I had never before answered a test of personality so I felt insecure.
ant  /ænt/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a small, black or red insect that lives in groups on the ground

Dictionary example:
There were ants crawling all over the ground.

Learner example:
I [have] know[n] Larry since I was five years old and he couldn’t hurt an ant, I am sure about it.

antibiotic  /ˌæn.tɪ.baiˈɔtɪk/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a medicine which cures infections by destroying harmful bacteria

Dictionary example:
He is on antibiotics for an ear infection.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, for all the side effects they may have, for all the unpleas[a]ntness of having a needle stuck in your arm or a spoonful of foul-tasting liquid stuck in your mouth, antibiotics and vaccines remain the greatest discovery in the history of the world.

anticipate  /ænˈtɪs.ɪ.peɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: anticipation

Verbs: anticipate

VERB [T]

[C1] to expect something, or to prepare for something before it happens

Dictionary examples:
- to anticipate a problem
- We anticipate that prices will fall next year.

Learner example:
Moreover, it is anticipated that the percentage of the group will rise further in 2010.

anticipation  /ænˌtɪ.sɪˈpeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: anticipation

Verbs: anticipate
NOUN [u]

WAITING
[C2] when you are waiting for something to happen, usually with excitement

Dictionary example:
The children were breathless with anticipation.

Learner example:
Yet, what I remember and think is going to stay with me for the rest of my life is that wonderful atmosphere of [a] fairy tale which has come true, that feeling of excitement and anticipation of something marvelous [about] to happen.

in anticipation (of)
[C2] expecting something to happen or in preparation for something happening

Dictionary example:
She's even decorated the spare room in anticipation of your visit.

Learner example:
This has sometimes resulted in the comic phenomenon of people travelling to a distant country, in anticipation of encountering strange and original lifestyles, only to come across situations not very different [from] the one they have left in their own countries.

antique /ænˈtiːk/

NOUN [c]
[B1] an object that is old, and often rare or beautiful

Dictionary examples:
an antique shop
My mother collects antiques.

Learner example:
First we drove to the old city where there were lots of different shops [selling] clothes, shoes, antiques, and jewellery.

ADJECTIVE
[B1] old and often rare or beautiful

Dictionary examples:
antique furniture
antique silver/jewellery

Learner example:
There's a nice, cosy lobby, with antique furniture and a fireplace.
anti-social /ˌæn.tɪˈsəʊ.əl/

Word family:
- Nouns: society, socialism, socialist
- Verbs: socialize
- Adjectives: sociable, social, anti-social

ADJECTIVE

BEHAVIOUR

[C1] Anti-social behaviour harms or upsets the people around you.

Dictionary example:
Increasingly, smoking is regarded as an anti-social habit.

Learner example:
It cannot be denied that nowadays children and young people are showing many problems, such as anti-social behaviour.

PERSON

[C1] An anti-social person does not like being with other people.

Dictionary example:
I hope they won't think I'm anti-social if I don't go to the party.

Learner example:
Technology has developed so much that [it] has made us very anti-social.

anxiety /æŋˈzaɪ.ə.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: anxiety
- Adjectives: anxious
- Adverbs: anxiously

NOUN [u]

[B2] the feeling of being very worried

Dictionary examples:
Children normally feel a lot of anxiety about their first day at school.
That explains his anxiety over his health.

Learner example:
On the other hand, if we consider this statement in general, we could infer that [the] teenage years are quite a good time in a person's life, as there is no stress or anxiety that is usually encountered later on in life.
anxious /ˈæŋk.ʃəs/

Word family:
Nouns: anxiety
Adjectives: anxious Adverbs: anxiously

ADJECTIVE

WORRIED
[B1] worried and nervous

Dictionary examples:
He's very anxious about his exams.
My mother always gets a bit anxious if we're late.
I saw my sister's anxious face at the window.

Learner example:
I am a bit anxious about my mum's reaction, but I am sure she'll enjoy this party.

EAGER
[B2] wanting to do something or wanting something to happen

Dictionary examples:
I'm anxious to hear her news.
I'm anxious that we get there on time because I don't think there'll be many seats left.

Learner example:
I am very anxious [for you] to tell me what type of competition you managed to win.

anxiously /ˈæŋk.ʃəs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: anxiety
Adjectives: anxious Adverbs: anxiously

ADVERB

[B2] in an anxious way

Dictionary example:
We waited anxiously by the phone.

Learner example:
I am waiting for your reply anxiously.
any /ˈen.i/

ADVERB

[B1] used in questions and negatives to emphasize a comparative adjective or adverb

Dictionary examples:
Do you feel any better?
I can’t walk any faster.
Those trousers don’t look any different from the others.
Houses in this area used to be a real bargain, but they’re not cheap any more.
This radio isn’t any good – I’ll have to buy another.
She couldn’t wait any longer.

Learner example:
I couldn’t wait any longer – I had to see Sami.

anybody /ˈen.iˌbɒd.i/

PRONOUN

ANY PERSON

[B1] any person or any people

Dictionary examples:
Anybody can join the club and the membership is free.
The competition is open to anybody under the age of 16.

Learner example:
Anybody [could] understand it!

anyhow /ˈeni.ə.hau/

ADVERB

DESPITE

[B2] despite that

Dictionary example:
He hates carrots but he ate them anyhow.

Learner example:
It wasn’t a great support, but anyhow I consider my choice to be the best I could have [made].
EARLIER SUBJECT

[B2] used when you are returning to an earlier subject

Dictionary example:
Anyhow, as I said, I'll be away next week.

Learner example:
After that we drove for about one hour before we had to take a lunch break. It was still very hot when we continued our trip and we had to stop once more. Anyhow, we [got] to Munich the same day, where we stayed for two days.

MORE IMPORTANTLY

[B2] used to give a more important reason for something that you are saying

Dictionary example:
I don't need a car and I can't afford one anyhow.

Learner example:
We both thought that it was a good idea to have that stop-over at your place as it was on our route to Norway anyhow.

CHANGING STATEMENT

[C1] used when you want to slightly change something that you have just said

Dictionary example:
Boys aren't horrible - not all of them anyhow!

---

anyone /ˈen.i.wʌn/ (also anybody)

PRONOUN

ANY PERSON

[B1] any person or any people

Dictionary examples:
Anyone can go – you don’t have to be invited.
Anyone could dress well with all that money.

Learner example:
The third programme was a joke competition. Anyone could come there and tell his joke.

---

anything /ˈen.i.θɪŋ/

PRONOUN

or anything

[B2] used to talk or ask about things of a similar type
Dictionary examples:
Do you want a drink or anything?
Did you do any sightseeing or anything?

anything like
[B2] used in questions and negatives to mean 'at all similar to'

Dictionary example:
Does he look anything like his brother?

Learner example:
Even in my dreams I haven’t seen anything like it.

anyway /ˈen.i.weɪ/

ADVERB

MORE IMPORTANTLY
[B1] used to give a more important reason for something that you are saying

Dictionary examples:
I don’t have time to go and anyway it’s too expensive.
Of course I don’t mind taking you home – I’m going that way anyway.

Learner example:
I’m going to buy a new bed, because the old one has broken, [and] anyway it wasn’t very comfortable.

anywhere /ˈen.i.weər/

ADVERB

not/never get anywhere
[B2] INFORMAL to not make any progress

Dictionary example:
I tried discussing the problem with her but I didn’t get anywhere.

Learner example:
If we think about making an effort and changing our daily routine at once, we will never get anywhere because a drastic change usually does not last.

anywhere near sth
[C1] used in questions and negatives to mean 'close to being or doing something'

Dictionary example:
The house isn’t anywhere near ready.
Learner example:
We could not have gone anywhere near 5000 miles because all our minibuses were broken down – we even stayed in one place for 8 days.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>apart  /əˈpɑːt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

ADVERB

apart from

B1 except for or in addition to

Dictionary examples:
Apart from the low salary, it's a great job!
He works until nine o'clock every evening, and that's quite apart from the work he does over the weekend.

Learner example:
So, when he started to speak, I couldn't understand anything apart from "thanks".

SEPARATE

B1 separated by a space, distance or period of time

Dictionary examples:
Stand with your feet wide apart.
How far apart should the speakers be?
We were asked to stand in two lines three metres apart.
I forget the exact age difference between Mark and his brother – they're two or three years apart.

Learner example:
They are situated on the same street, only a hundred metres apart, on each side of the street.

RELATIONSHIP

B2 If two people are apart, they are not in the same place together.

Dictionary example:
By this time my parents were living apart.

Learner example:
I'll always remember those two days which we spent together after such a long time living apart.

INTO PIECES

B2 into separate, smaller pieces

Dictionary examples:
I took the motor apart to see how it worked.
My jacket is so old, it's coming apart.

be poles apart

C2 to be complete opposites

132
Dictionary example:
They are poles apart in their attitudes to religion.

Learner example:
Soho at night seemed to be the nicest place on Earth, poles apart from my home town.

apologetic /əˌpɒl.əˈdʒe.tɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: apology
Verbs: apologise
Adjectives: apologetic

ADJECTIVE
[C2] showing or saying that you are sorry about something

Dictionary examples:
an apologetic smile
She was very apologetic about missing the meeting.

Learner example:
I am deeply apologetic if my letter troubled anybody or was too boring to read, but I had to say my opinion out loud.

apologise /əˈpɒl.ə.dʒaɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: apology
Verbs: apologise
Adjectives: apologetic

VERB [I]
[B1] to tell someone that you are sorry about something you have done

Dictionary examples:
I must apologise to Isobel for my behaviour.
Trains may be subject to delay – we apologise for any inconvenience caused.
She apologised for having to leave early.

Learner example:
I'm writing to apologise because I won't be at tomorrow[w]'s class.
apology /əˈpɒl.ə.dʒi/

Word family:
Nouns: apology
Verbs: apologise
Adjectives: apologetic

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] something you say or write to say that you are sorry about something you have done

Dictionary examples:
I have an apology to make to you – I'm afraid I opened your letter by mistake.
I owe you an apology, Chris.
"Was he at all sorry for what he'd done?" "Oh he was full of apologies."

Learner example:
Hi Zita, Please accept my apology for this belated letter which you're holding in your hands.

apostrophe /əˈpɒs.trə.fi/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the punctuation mark ' that shows when a letter or a number has been left out, or is used before or after 's' to show possession

Dictionary examples:
I'm Ian.
She was born in '65.
Helen's laugh
Charles' cooking a baby's hand babies' hands appalling /əˈpɔː.lɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

BAD
[C1] very bad

Dictionary examples:
appalling behaviour/weather
The film was absolutely appalling!
Learner example:
Also, they believe that their ability to watch videos is handicapped by the fact that some of the equipment is in [an] appalling condition.

SHOCKING
[C2] shocking and very unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
appalling brutality/injuries
Prisoners were kept in the most appalling conditions.

Learner example:
Susan Hill's 'I'm the King of The Castle' is a psychological book about the appalling cruelty and emotions between two pubescent boys.

apparent /əˈpær.ənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: apparent
Adverbs: apparently

ADJECTIVE

OBVIOUS
[B2] obvious or easy to notice

Dictionary examples:
Her unhappiness was apparent to everyone.
It was becoming increasingly apparent that he could no longer look after himself.
I was on the metro this morning when for no apparent reason the man opposite suddenly screamed.

Learner example:
This was my Dad, always doing weird things for no apparent reason.

SEEMS TRUE
[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] seeming to exist or be true

Dictionary example:
I was a little surprised by her apparent lack of interest.

Learner example:
In conclusion, our research [show]s the residents' apparent unwillingness to transform Greendale Park into a car park.
appeal /əˈpiːl/

NOUN

QUALITY

[B2] [u] the quality in someone or something that makes them attractive or interesting

Dictionary examples:

sex appeal
Spielberg films have a wide appeal.
Parties on river-boats have lost their appeal since one sank last year.

Learner example:
In my opinion, computer games are so popular because the games have developed their graphics and they have more appeal to youngsters.
REQUEST
[C1] [c] when a lot of people are asked to give money, information or help urgently

Dictionary examples:
They’re launching an appeal to raise money for famine victims.
The police have issued an appeal to the public to stay away from the centre of town at the weekend.

Learner example:
I would suggest that the local authorities with the support of the community and companies start an appeal, to raise money to keep St. Mary’s running.

VERB [i]

ATTRACT
[B2] to attract or interest someone

Dictionary examples:
Cycling has never really appealed to me.
It’s a programme designed to appeal mainly to 16 to 25 year-olds.

Learner example:
In addition, books appeal to our imagination.

REQUEST
[C1] to make a serious or formal request, especially to the public, for money or help

Dictionary examples:
They’re appealing for clothes and blankets to send to the devastated region.
The police are appealing to the public for any information about the missing girl.

FORMALLY ASK
[C2] to formally ask someone to change an official or legal decision

Dictionary example:
He is appealing against a ten-year prison sentence.

appear /əˈpiə/ Word family:
Nouns: appearance, disappearance
Verbs: appear, disappear

VERB [i]

BE SEEN
[B1] to start to be seen
Dictionary examples:
He suddenly appeared in the doorway.
Then a bright light appeared in the sky.

Learner example:
Suddenly the singer of the band appeared.

appear in/at/on, etc.
[B1] to perform in a film, play, etc.

Dictionary example:
She appears briefly in the new Bond film.

Learner example:
What I like the most is that I'm going to appear on T.V.

SEEM [B1] to seem

Dictionary examples:
He appeared calm and relaxed.
There appears to be some mistake.

Learner example:
But, [the] reality is, that life appears very short to me.

it appears (that) [B2] used to say that something seems to be true

Dictionary example:
It appears that she left the party alone.

Learner example:
It appears that people are more aware about clothes and also work.

BECOME AVAILABLE
[B2] to start to exist or become available

Dictionary examples:
Laptop computers first appeared in the 1980s.
The story appeared in all the major newspapers.

Learner example:
In almost every city fast-food restaurants [have] appear[ed], which have a big group of fans.

it would appear (that)
[C1] used to say that something seems to be true

Dictionary example:
It would appear that nobody on board the aircraft actually had a licence to fly it.

Learner example:
It would appear that students are not satisfied with the hours and days offered by the Club.
appearance  /əˈpɪə.rən(t)/

Word family:
Nouns: appearance, disappearance
Verbs: appear, disappear

NOUN

WAY YOU LOOK

[B1] [NO PLURAL] the way a person or thing looks to other people

Dictionary examples:
The buildings are very similar in appearance. You can alter/change the whole appearance of a room just by lighting it in a certain way. She gives the appearance of being very efficient.

Learner example:
I usually buy fashionable clothes, because I think [your] appearance is really important.

IN PUBLIC

[B2] [c] when someone appears in public, on television, in a film, etc.

Dictionary examples:
It was his first appearance on television/television appearance as president. She made two appearances during her visit. She will be making a public appearance, signing copies of her latest novel.

Learner example:
You probably know him, because he [made] an appearance in the film "Bad Boys."

BECOMING AVAILABLE

[B2] [NO PLURAL] when something starts to exist or becomes available

Dictionary example:
The appearance of new products on the market has increased competition.

Learner example:
The appearance of the car has facilitated our lives.

appetite  /ˈæp.ə.tait/

NOUN [C or U]

FOOD

[C1] the feeling that makes you want to eat

Dictionary examples:
All that walking has given me an appetite. I won't have any chocolate, thanks – it'll spoil my appetite.
Learner example:
The tasteless food spoiled our appetite.

an appetite for something [C2] when you want something very much

Dictionary example:
He has a real appetite for adventure.

Learner example:
It does not occur to him that Jack has degenerated into blood–lust and is driven by hatred and an appetite for power.

applaud /əˈplɔːd/

Word family:
Nouns: applause
Verbs: applaud

VERB

CLAP
[C1] [I or T] to clap your hands to show that you have enjoyed a performance, talk, etc.

Dictionary example:
The audience applauded loudly.

Learner example:
Secondly, owing to a sudden shower, there was a short break during the dance display and the horse show, but eventually, we finished the display and the show successfully and people applauded.

PRAISE
[C2] [T] FORMAL to approve of or admire something

Dictionary example:
Most people will surely applaud the decision.

Learner example:
I admire and applaud Stevens’ integrity and dignity.

applause /əˈplɔːz/

Word family:
Nouns: applause
Verbs: applaud
NOUN [u]
[C1] when people make a noise by clapping their hands to show they have enjoyed or approve of something

Dictionary example:
There was loud applause at the end of her speech.

Learner example:
Still the audience was very pleased, because they gave massive applause at the end.

round of applause
[C2] when people clap

Dictionary example:
The crowd gave him a huge round of applause.

Learner example:
It was unbelievable, there was a round of applause and some people couldn't help crying.

appliances

NOUN [c]
[C1] a piece of electrical equipment with a particular purpose in the home

Dictionary example:
fridges, radios, and other electrical appliances

Learner example:
The fair was well organized and structured into specific sections from clothing and sportswear to household appliances and electronic [goods].

application

Word family:
Nouns: application
Verbs: apply

NOUN
REQUEST
[B1] [c] an official request for something, usually in writing

Dictionary examples:
a letter of application
I've sent off applications for four different jobs.
Have you filled in the application form for your passport yet?
Learner example:
After having filled [in] the application form, the master pilot took us on a short trip around the hangars showing the planes used for training.

COMPUTER SOFTWARE

[B2] [c] a piece of computer software designed for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
Typical examples of software applications are spreadsheets, media players and database applications.

Learner example:
I am [an] exp[er]ienced user of [the] Internet and know all application programs for Windows '95 (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, PinPoint etc.).

USE

[C2] [c or u] a way in which something can be used for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
This technology has many practical applications.

Learner example:
We have been working [on] the growing of cells in zero–gravity environments, having in mind its possible application in outer space colonies, such as the International Space Station.

---

apply /əˈplaɪ/

Word family:

Nouns: application

Verbs: apply

VERB

REQUEST

[B1] [i] to request something, usually officially, especially by writing or sending in a form

Dictionary examples:
By the time I saw the job advertised it was already too late to apply.
I've applied for a job there.
Please apply in writing to the address below.

Learner example:
I applied for this course and went to my first lesson last week.

AFFECT

[B2] [i] to relate to a particular person or situation
Dictionary examples:
That bit of the form is for UK citizens – it doesn't apply to you.
He seems to think that the normal rules of behaviour don't apply to him.
Those were old regulations – they don't apply any more.

Learner example:
The same doesn't apply to a teenager who lives in illness and poverty and whose family and friends constantly mistreat him.

USE
[C1] [ɪ] to use something in a particular situation

Dictionary example:
The same method can be applied to other situations.

Learner example:
Moreover, he can explain how theory is being applied in the field.

apply yourself
[C2] to work hard

Dictionary example:
If he doesn't apply himself, he'll never pass his exams.

Learner example:
Moreover, he can explain how theory is being applied in the field.

appoint /əˈpɔɪnt/

Word family:
Nouns: appointment
Verbs: appoint

VERB [ɪ]
[C1] to officially choose someone for a job

Dictionary example:
He was appointed as company director last year.

Learner example:
Moreover, with the liberation of Greece, he was appointed as the First Governor of the new state.

appointment /əˈpɔɪnt.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: appointment
Verbs: appoint
NOUN

JOB
[C2] [c or u] when you officially choose someone for an important job, or the job itself

Dictionary examples:
the appointment of three new teachers a temporary appointment appreciate /əˈpriː.ʃi.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: appreciation
Verbs: appreciate

VERB [T]

VALUE
[B2] to understand how good something or someone is and be able to enjoy them

Dictionary examples:
There's no point buying him expensive wines – he doesn't appreciate them.
I don't think you appreciate how much time I spent preparing this meal.

Learner example:
It's like wine, it's impossible to drink a glass of wine quickly, you can't appreciate it.

would appreciate
[B2] used when you are politely requesting something

Dictionary example:
I would appreciate it if you could let me know in advance whether or not you will be coming.

Learner example:
I would really appreciate a positive answer from your side.

I/We appreciate...
[B2] used when you are thanking someone or showing that you are grateful

Dictionary examples:
Thanks for all the help you gave us last weekend. We really appreciate it.
I appreciate your making the effort to come.

Learner example:
Thanks for your congratulations. I really appreciate it.

UNDERSTAND
[C2] to understand something about a situation, especially that it is complicated or difficult
Dictionary example:
I appreciate that it is a difficult decision for you to make.

Learner example:
Given the size of the house and the rather delicate nature of some of the furniture pieces, I appreciate that it may have been somewhat of a challenge.

appreciation /əˌpriː.ʃiˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: appreciation
Verbs: appreciate

NOUN [U]
[B2] when you understand how good something or someone is and are able to enjoy them

Dictionary examples:
You've done so much to help us so, to show our appreciation, we've bought you a little gift.
The crowd cheered in appreciation.
Children rarely show any appreciation of/for what their parents do for them.
My appreciation of art has increased as I've got older.

Learner example:
To show our appreciation, we would also like to invite you to dinner afterwards at the Red Baron.

approach /əˈprəʊtʃ/
Learner example:
This is the right way to approach the issue.

NOUN

METHOD
[B2] [c] a way of doing something

Dictionary examples:
In Sweden they have a different approach to the problem.
I thought we'd adopt/take a new approach.

Learner example:
This will show the contrast in teaching methods, different approaches to students and techniques used by different teachers.

COMING CLOSER
[B2] [u] when something or someone gets nearer in distance or time

Dictionary examples:
The siren signalled the approach of an ambulance.
Please fasten your seat belts, the plane is now making its final approach (in)to Heathrow Airport.

appropriate /əˈprəʊ.pri.ət/

Word family:
Adjectives: appropriate, inappropriate
Adverbs: appropriately, inappropriately

ADJECTIVE
[B2] suitable or right for a particular situation or occasion

Dictionary examples:
Is this film appropriate for small children?
I didn't think his comments were very appropriate at the time.

Learner example:
I will explain why I am an appropriate person for this job.

appropriately /əˈprəʊ.pri.ət.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: appropriate, inappropriate
Adverbs: appropriately, inappropriately

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is appropriate
Dictionary example:
She didn't think we were appropriately dressed for a wedding.

Learner example:
I enjoyed reading it and I think it appropriately describes the atmosphere of that lovely town.

approval /əˈpruːv/

Word family:
Nouns: approval, disapproval
Verbs: approve, disapprove

NOUN [U]
GOOD OPINION
[B2] when you have a positive opinion of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
He showed his approval by smiling broadly.
Sam always tried hard to win his father's approval.
Does the wine meet with your approval?

Learner example:
I hope this meets [with] your approval and I am looking forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

PERMISSION
[B2] official permission

Dictionary examples:
The project has now received approval from the government.
The teacher gave the student a nod of approval.

Learner example:
Besides the questionable approval given by governmental authorities, the situation might be useful to us.

approve /əˈpruːv/

Word family:
Nouns: approval, disapproval
Verbs: approve, disapprove

VERB AGREE
[B1] [ɪ] to allow or officially agree to something
Dictionary examples:
The council has approved plans for a new shopping centre.
The court approved the sale of the property.

Learner example:
"Congratulation[s], your scholarship to [the] UK is approved."

GOOD OPINION
[B2] [I] to think that something is good or right

Dictionary examples:
She doesn't approve of my friends.
He doesn't approve of smoking.
The head of department seems to approve of what I am doing.

Learner example:
Woods didn't approve of the government's attitude to them.

approximate /əˈprɒk.ə.mæt/

Word family:
Adjectives: approximate
Adverbs: approximately

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not completely accurate but close

Dictionary examples:
The train's approximate time of arrival is 10.30.
Can you give me an approximate idea of the numbers involved?

Learner example:
The approximate figure is about 5000 people.

approximately /əˈprɒk.ə.mæt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: approximate
Adverbs: approximately

ADVERB
[B1] close to a particular number or time although not exactly that number or time

Dictionary examples:
The job will take approximately two weeks, and cost around £1000.
The college has approximately 700 students.
Learner example:
From the airport of Larnaka you need approximately forty-five minutes by taxi, to Agia Napa.

arbitrary /ˈɑː.bɪ.trər.i/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not based on a system or principles and often seeming unfair

Dictionary example:
an arbitrary decision

Learner example:
As the conflict progresses, the influence of civilisation and democratic conduct fades away, being replaced and forced out by Jack’s savagery and absolute and arbitrary rule.

arch /ɑː.tʃ/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a curved structure that usually supports something, for example a bridge or wall

Dictionary example:
Passing through the arch, you enter an open courtyard.

Learner example:
She could have taken a short cut, but she chose this long and rather uncomfortable way deliberately, as it was leading past the old arch where a strange man used to play a violin.

VERB [I or T]
[C2] to be a curved shape or make something become a curved shape

Dictionary example:
The bridge arched over the river.

Learner example:
Suddenly a flash arched across the sky, followed by an echoing rumble.

archaeologist /ˌɑː.kiˈɒl.ə.dʒɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: archaeologist, archaeology

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who studies ancient cultures by looking for and examining their buildings, tools, and other objects
Dictionary example:
Archaeologists believe the remains date back to the 5th century.

Learner example:
It includes articles from prominent journalists, scientists, archaeologists and other experts on Greek civilisation.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| archaeology | /ˌɑː.kiˈɒl.ə.dʒi/ | NOUN [u]
[C1] the study of ancient cultures by looking for and examining their buildings, tools, and other objects |

Dictionary example:
He did archaeology at university.

Learner example:
But I have to admit that there could be more presentations to cover areas like archaeology, language, etc.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| architect | /ˈɑː.kɪ.tekt/ | NOUN [c]
[B1] someone whose job is to design buildings |

Dictionary example:
He trained as an architect in Edinburgh and then moved to London to find work.

Learner example:
He kn[e]w that I wanted to be an architect.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| architecture | /ˈɑː.kɪ.tek.tʃər/ | NOUN [u]
[B1] the design and style of buildings |

Word family:
Nouns: archaeologist, archaeology

Word family:
Nouns: architect, architecture

Word family:
Nouns: architect, architecture
Dictionary examples:
Roman architecture
modern architecture

Learner example:
There are beautiful places like Merarejonban, which is outstanding in its architecture.

SUBJECT
[B1] the skill of designing buildings

Dictionary example:
He studied architecture.

Learner example:
I want to study architecture in the U.K. but English is a problem, so I need spend a lot of time learn[ing] it.

area /ˈeə.ri.ə/

NOUN [C]

PART
[B1] a part of a building or piece of land used for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
a play/picnic area

Learner example:
I'm staying in a very big hotel; it ha[s] a swimming pool, a golf area, gardens, and also a children['s] area.

SUBJECT
[B2] a part of a subject or activity

Dictionary examples:
Marketing is Paul's area.
Software is not really my area of expertise.

Learner example:
I am a 30-year-old Swedish male with a diploma in gardening. I have 6 years experience of the area since I have been employed by a Swedish fruit supplier.

argue /ˈɑːg.juː/

Word family:
Nouns: argument
Verbs: argue
VERB

DISAGREE

[B1] [I] to speak angrily to someone, telling them that you disagree with them

Dictionary examples:
My parents are always arguing.
Kids, will you stop arguing with each other?
They were arguing over/about which film to go and see.

Learner example:
Peter told her his parents had argued and he came with his mother to London.

GIVE REASONS

[B2] [I or T] to give reasons to support or oppose an idea, action, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The minister argued for/in favour of making cuts in military spending.
She argued against tax cuts.
The minister argued that cuts in military spending were needed.

Learner example:
It is often argued that family life is not important.

---

argument /ˈɑːɡ.jʊ.mənt/

Word family:

Nouns: argument
Verbs: argue

NOUN [C]

DISAGREEMENT

[B1] an angry discussion with someone in which you both disagree

Dictionary examples:
The children had an argument about/over what game to play.
He got into an argument with a man in the pub last night.

Learner example:
I wrote a song last week. It’s about my boyfriend and an argument he had with his parents about our relationship.

REASON

[B2] a reason or reasons why you support or oppose an idea, action, etc.

Dictionary examples:
There are many arguments for and against nuclear energy.
I don’t think that’s a very strong/powerful argument.
Learner example:
An argument in favour of this statement is that shopping is very tiring.

arid /ˈær.id/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] very dry and without enough rain for plants

Dictionary example:
an arid region/climate

Learner example:
It's like being taken from our 'arid desert' routine to a truly refreshing and invigorating oasis.

arise /əˈraɪz/

VERB [i] (arose, arisen)
[C1] If a problem arises, it starts to happen.

Dictionary example:
The whole problem arose from a lack of communication.

Learner example:
Although the place was very good, a number of problems arose during our visit.

arm /ɑːm/

NOUN [C]

CHAIR
[C2] the part of a chair where your arm rests

Dictionary example:
The chair didn't have any arms.

Learner example:
It appears to me that the leather covering the left arm of the sofa has been pierced with some sharp object.

arm in arm
[C2] with your arm gently supporting or being supported by someone else's arm

Dictionary example:
They walked through the park, arm in arm.
Learner example:
We often walked around the playground arm in arm.

(keep sb) at arm's length
[C2] to not allow someone to become too friendly with you

Dictionary example:
I always had the feeling she was keeping me at arm’s length.

Learner example:
At first she keeps them at arm’s length, but Mr Emerson is direct and advises Lucy to behave in a more natural way instead of doing what some old ladies say.

armed /ˈɑːmd/

ADJECTIVE

WEAPONS
[B2] ! using or carrying weapons

Dictionary examples:
an armed robbery
armed conflict
armed guards/police

Learner example:
I could clearly understand that the two armed men would catch us within [a] few minutes.

armed with sth
[C2] carrying or knowing something that will be useful

Dictionary example:
I like to go to a meeting armed with the relevant facts.

Learner example:
We set off armed with all our cameras, lenses, travelling gadgets and equipment.

army /ˈɑː.mi/

NOUN

the army [+ SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
[B1] ! a particular country’s fighting force
Dictionary examples:
When did you join the army?
He has decided on a career in the army.
The army was called out to enforce the curfew.

Learner example:
I work in the army and I need to know how and what I should do if I am in [a] war.

ORGANIZED GROUP
[C2] a group of people that is organized to do the same job

Dictionary example:
an army of cleaners/helpers

Learner example:
There, you are surrounded by an army of waiters: one for the home-baked bread, one for the water, one for the wine, one for the food.

---

around /əˈraʊnd/

ADVERB

IN A CIRCLE/CIRCULAR MOVEMENT
[B1] in a circle or with circular movement

Dictionary examples:
She passed a plate of biscuits around.
This switch makes the wheels go around.

Learner example:
Hello, everybody. Please gather around.

OPPOSITE DIRECTION
[B1] to the opposite direction

Dictionary examples:
Jonny turned around and looked at her.
The pianist spun around on the stool and faced his audience.

Learner example:
As the concert finished, I heard someone call my name. I turned around.

be around
[B2] If someone is around, they are present in a place.

Dictionary examples:
Will you be around next week?
Roger isn’t around at the moment – can I help instead?
Learner example:
It was dark and not a soul was around.

EXISTING
[C2] present or available

Dictionary example:
Mobile phones have been around for years now.

Learner example:
Major sporting competitions have been around for the better part of 2500 years, ever since the original Olympic Games were held in ancient Greece.

arouse /əˈraʊz/

VERB [ɪ]

[C2] to make someone have a particular feeling or reaction

Dictionary example:
It's a subject which has aroused a lot of interest.

Learner example:
There was something about her that had aroused my interest.

arrange /əˈreɪndʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: arrangement
Verbs: arrange, rearrange

VERB

PLAN
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to make the necessary plans and preparations for something to happen

Dictionary examples:
The meeting has been arranged for Wednesday.
They arranged to have dinner the following month.
I've already arranged with him where to meet.
She's arranged for her son to have swimming lessons.
I'd arranged that they should arrive at the same time.

Learner example:
Dear Friends, It's a fantastic idea to come to my country in the holidays; we could arrange to meet somewhere.
PUT IN POSITION
[B2] [ɪ] to put objects in a particular order or position

Dictionary examples:
She arranged her birthday cards along the shelf.
Who arranged these flowers so beautifully?
His books are neatly arranged in alphabetical order.

Learner example:
Before the pop concert [started], I arranged the seats and carried some musical instruments.

arrangement /əˈreɪndʒ.mənt/
Word family:
Nouns: arrangement
Verbs: arrange, rearrange

NOUN

PLANS
[B1] [c usually plural] plans for how something will happen

Dictionary examples:
They’d made all the arrangements for the party.
Arrangements were made to move the prisoners to another jail.
What are your current childcare arrangements?

Learner example:
I’ll make all [the] arrangements.

AGREEMENT
[B2] [c or u] an agreement between two people or groups

Dictionary examples:
We had an arrangement that he would clean the house and I would cook.
I’m sure we can come to an arrangement.
You can only withdraw money from this account by (prior) arrangement with the bank.

Learner example:
I didn’t know if you would be in the house or not so you need to contact him for a new arrangement [on] this telephone number 333–30.30.

POSITION
[B2] [c] a group of objects in a particular order or position

Dictionary example:
a flower arrangement
Learner example:
Dear Mrs. Anderson, I have learned from a friend that your club gives advanced courses in flower arrangement.

arrest /əˈrest/

VERB [T]
[B1] If the police arrest someone, they take them away to ask them about a crime which they might have committed.

Dictionary examples:
She was arrested for drinking and driving.
He was arrested when customs officers found drugs in his bag.

Learner example:
To my horror, they arrested me.

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when the police take someone away to ask them about a crime which they might have committed

Dictionary examples:
Police made twenty arrests at yesterday’s demonstration.
She was stopped outside the shop and placed/put under arrest.

Learner example:
When I came around, Mr Smith was under arrest and fortunately, thing[s] finished well for me.

arrival /əˈraɪ.vəl/

Word family:
Nouns: arrival
Verbs: arrive

NOUN
[B1] [U] when someone or something arrives somewhere

Dictionary examples:
Hundreds gathered to await the boxer’s arrival at the airport.
On arrival at the police station, they were taken to an interview room.
We regret the late arrival of Flight 237.

Learner example:
Can you confirm your arrival time next week?

NEW PERSON/THING
[C1] [C] a new thing or person that has arrived
Dictionary example:
Two teachers were there to greet the new arrivals.

Learner example:
Secondly, a barbecue would be a good thing to do on the 1st of September, to welcome the new arrivals.

BECOME AVAILABLE
[C2] [u] when something new is discovered or created or becomes available

Dictionary example:
The town grew rapidly with the arrival of the railway.

Learner example:
With the arrival of capitalism, the mass-production of garments inherent to this system has raised the issue of whether what people wear reflects their personality.

arrive /əˈraɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: arrival
Verbs: arrive

VERB [I]

arrive at an answer/conclusion/decision, etc.
[C2] to find an answer to a problem or make a decision after a lot of discussion

Dictionary example:
We didn't arrive at any firm conclusions.

Learner example:
This is something very important which should be discussed... we may arrive at a conclusion.

arrogant /ˈær.ə.gənt/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] believing that you are better or more important than other people

Dictionary example:
I found him arrogant and rude.

Learner example:
Chubby, arrogant and filthy were the words that described him best. Every time they met, a bitter feeling of hatred bloomed in her throat.
arrow /ˈær.əʊ/

NOUN [C]

SYMBOL
[B2] a symbol used on a sign, on a computer, etc. to show direction

Dictionary example:
I followed the arrows to the car park.

Learner example:
I followed its arrow and believe it or not I found mum!

WEAPON
[B2] a weapon that is like a long thin stick with a sharp point at one end and often feathers at the other, shot from a bow

Dictionary example:
Robin Hood asked to be buried where his arrow landed.

Learner example:
The museum has many old axes, crossbows, bows and arrows.

---

art /ɑːt/

Word family:
Nouns: art, artist
Adjectives: artistic

NOUN

arts
[B2] creative areas including painting, drama, dance, music, etc.

Dictionary examples:
fine/decorative arts
She’s doing a course in the performing arts.

Learner example:
You can enjoy both traditional and contemporary performing arts in Osaka.

arts
[C1] subjects, such as history, languages and philosophy, that are not scientific subjects

Dictionary examples:
an arts subject
the Arts Faculty an arts graduate/degree
Learner example:
The same percentage of graduates from arts and social science and science areas became unemployed after finishing university.

SKILL
[C1] [c or u] a skill in a particular activity

Dictionary example:
the art of conversation

Learner example:
In my opinion, spoken English is the best course at the school and it really gives one good practice in the art of negotiation.

article  /ˈɑː.tɪ.kl/

NOUN [c]

NEWSPAPER
[B1] a piece of writing on a particular subject in a newspaper or magazine

Dictionary example:
There was an interesting article on climate change in the paper yesterday.

Learner example:
I read an article about this zoo in the newspaper.

GRAMMAR
[B1] in grammar, used to mean the words 'a', 'an' and 'the'

Dictionary example:
There's a definite article missing before the noun.

artificial  /ˌɑː.tɪˈfɪʃ.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: artificial Adverbs: artificially

ADJECTIVE

NOT NATURAL
[B2] not natural, but made by people

Dictionary examples:
an artificial flower/lake artificial flavourings
Learner example:
First, most shopping centres use artificial illumination, which is bad for our health.

Dictionary example:
Their cheerfulness seemed rather strained and artificial.

Learner example:
Miss Bartlett probably comes from the poorer part of the family and that is why she always tries to show her unselfishness to Lucy but this is done in a very artificial and annoying way.

---

artificial intelligence /ˈɑː.tɪˌfɪʃ.əl.ɪnˈtel.ɪ.ˈdʒəˌnɪ.təs/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the use of computer technology to do jobs that previously needed human intelligence

Dictionary example:
This is a clearly written, but extremely superficial, introduction to the field of artificial intelligence (AI).

Learner example:
True artificial intelligence, one of the most terrifying dreams of man, is yet to be discovered, but we must handle it with great care if we don't want to suffer the consequences of a world in which machines start to think for us, this making our existence completely pointless.

artificially /ˈɑː.tɪˈfɪʃ.ə.l.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: artificial
Adverbs: artificially

ADVERB
[B2] in an artificial way

Dictionary example:
Most mushrooms sold in supermarkets have been grown artificially in manure.

Learner example:
Zoos are part of nature, despite the fact that they are created artificially.
artistic /ɑːˈtɪstɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: art, artist
Adjectives: artistic

ADJECTIVE

CREATIVE ABILITY
[B2] showing skill and imagination in creating things, especially in painting, drawing, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Both children are very artistic.
artistic talent

Learner example:
If the museum is a place were they can say how they feel, or express it in an abstract or artistic way, they will start to like it.

RELATING TO ART
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] relating to any form of art, including painting, literature, theatre, music, etc.

Dictionary examples:
the artistic director of the theatre a work of artistic merit

Learner example:
That would be perfect to improve the artistic and cultural life of Turin.

as /æz/

ADVERB; PREPOSITION

BEING OR APPEARING
[B1] being or appearing to be a particular thing

Dictionary examples:
He was dressed as a pirate.
As a young man, he was very lonely.

Learner example:
She was there, standing in front of me, still dressed as a bride, with tears in her eyes.

as soon as [B1] at the same time or a very short time after
Dictionary example:
As soon as I saw her, I knew there was something wrong.

Learner example:
As soon as the rain stopped, I called my friend and we all continued walking in the park, and we all enjoyed ourselves.

as long as
[B1] used to say that something must happen before something else can happen

Dictionary examples:
I can come as long as I can leave by 4.00.
Bring your friends by all means – just as long as I know how many are coming.

Learner example:
The colo[u]rs I wear are not important, as long as I don't wear any pink clothes. I really dislike that colo[u]r.

as for [B2] used at the beginning of a sentence to introduce a slightly different subject, but one that is connected in some way

Dictionary example:
I was pleased about the news. As for Emily, well, who cares what she thinks?

Learner example:
As for Chris, he agreed with me to do fifty kilometres on Saturday and stay at the Lakeside Inn.

as a result of sth
[B2] because of something

Dictionary example:
Unemployment has risen as a result of the credit crunch.

Learner example:
[O]n more than one oc[c]asion I missed the new releases or arrived late, as a result of trusting the [cinema’s] website.

as a whole
[B2] when considered as a group and not in parts

Dictionary example:
The population as a whole is getting healthier.

Learner example:
To sum up, I can say that the greatest ever invention is the invention of computers, that has affected both indivi[d]uals and society as a whole.

as a matter of fact
[B2] used to give more information, or to correct something that has been said
Dictionary examples:
John plays golf professionally. As a matter of fact, he has just won a big competition.
"So you're from Cambridge?" "No, as a matter of fact, I'm from Bristol."

Learner example:
I think it would be better to choose somewhere outdoors. As a matter of fact, I prefer the open air and the sunlight!

as follows
[B2] used to introduce a list or description

Dictionary example:
The main reasons are as follows.

Learner example:
The summary of relevant points and recommendations are as follows: 1. Both of them are located in the centre of town.

as if/as though
[B2] used to describe how a situation seems to be

Dictionary examples:
It looks as if it might rain.
It was as though we had known each other for years.

Learner example:
Everything was so familiar, as though he [had] never left the place.

as far as sb is concerned
[B2] used to show what someone thinks about something

Dictionary examples:
As far as I'm concerned, feng shui is a load of rubbish.
As far as our customers are concerned, price is the main consideration.

Learner example:
As far as Laura was concerned, he was the most disgusting man in the world.

as far as sth is concerned
[B2] used to tell someone what you are talking about

Dictionary example:
As far as money is concerned, we're doing very well.

Learner example:
First of all, I think the Majestic Hotel would be the right location, but I have doubts as far as the costs are concerned.

as far as I know
[B2] used to say that you think something is true, but cannot be sure

Dictionary example:
As far as I know, he's never been in trouble with the police.
Learner example:
As far as I know, accommodation at Camp California is in tents or log cabins.

as it happens
[C1] something that you say in order to introduce a surprising fact

Dictionary example:
As it happens, her birthday is the day after mine.

Learner example:
As it happens, I am currently looking for a computer course for myself and I would like to join one of your courses.

as many as
[C1] used before a number or amount to show that the number or amount is large

Dictionary example:
As many as 6,000 people may have been infected with the disease.

Learner example:
As many as 90% of them went to [the] cinema on a regular basis in 1990, with the peak of [a] 95% attendance rate taking place in 1996.

as yet
[C1] FORMAL until and including this time

Dictionary examples:
We haven't needed extra staff as yet, but may do in the future.
No ambulances had as yet managed to get across the river.

Learner example:
I would like to do something about it, but as I can't imagine building anything near my beautiful house (because I'm afraid it would destroy its wonderful harmony), I have no idea as yet how to solve this problem.

as opposed to
[C2] used to say that two things are very different

Dictionary example:
I'm talking about English football, as opposed to European football.

Learner example:
Love is accepting people as they are, being tolerant and giving freedom, as opposed to possessive love, which is what is often – if not always – understood by love.

do sth as you see/think fit
[C2] to do something that you feel is the right thing to do, although other people might disapprove

Dictionary example:
You must spend the money as you see fit.
Learner example:
Do as you think fit!

as the/its name implies

[C2] used to show that the name of something tells you something about it

Dictionary example:
The Long Room, as its name implies, runs the entire length of the house.

Learner example:
Sour Sweet, as the name implies, is originally a Chinese restaurant.

as it stands

[C2] as something is now, without changes in it

Dictionary example:
The law as it stands is very unclear.

Learner example:
In my opinion, this debate is rooted in a deeper questioning of society's foundations: some people see society as it stands today as inherently flawed, an amorphous group of people who follow and worship anyone that gives them pleasure.

CONJUNCTION

WHILE

[B1] while or during the time that

Dictionary examples:
I saw him as I was coming into the building.
He gets more attractive as he gets older.

Learner example:
After spending two hours searching for her I started to feel desperate, but just as I was ready to give up, the sky got normal again and I found myself [at] my own wedding and she was my wife!

LIKE

[B1] in the same way

Dictionary examples:
He got divorced, (just) as his parents had done years before.
This year, as in previous years, tickets sold very quickly.
As with his earlier movies, the special effects in his latest film are brilliant.

Learner example:
As we expected, we are going to see a movie tonight.
ashamed /əˈʃeɪmd/

Word family:

Nouns: shame

Adjectives: ashamed, shameful

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

EMBARRASSED

[B1] feeling guilty or embarrassed about something you have done

Dictionary examples:
You’ve got nothing to be ashamed of.
She ought to be ashamed of herself – talking to her mother like that!
He was ashamed to admit to his mistake.
I was ashamed that I’d made so little effort.
I felt so ashamed of myself for making such a fuss.

Learner example:
He felt very ashamed and didn't know what to do.

be ashamed of sb

[B2] to be angry and disappointed with a family member or friend because they have behaved badly

Dictionary example:
My brother was so rude to Jane – I was ashamed of him.

Learner example:
I was very ashamed of them. [They] came from [my] own country.

aside /əˈsaɪd/

ADVERB

MOVE TO SIDE

[B2] on or to one side

Dictionary examples:
Stand aside, please, and let these people pass.
He pulled the curtain aside.
I gave her a plate of food but she pushed it aside.
She took me aside to tell me the news.

Learner example:
I saw an old man slowly pull it aside and peep out, looking [at] the street with his eyes wide open.
SAVE

[B2] If you put or set something aside, you do not use it now, but keep it to use later.

Dictionary example:
We've put some money aside for the holiday.

Learner example:
I had put some money aside for a month, thinking about the discount.

aside from *sth

[B2] except for

Dictionary example:
This document needs finishing, but aside from that I think everything is done.

Learner example:
Secondly, it is unfair to say the other performers were second-rate aside from the 'Torrents', since they all sang and played very well.

ask /ɑːsk/

VERB

REQUEST

[B1] [ɪ or ə] to say something to someone because you want them to do something

Dictionary example:
They've asked me to look after their dog while they're away.

Learner example:
I want to apologize for not going to your class tomorrow, it's not that I don't want to go but my mother asked me to take care of my sister because she is sick and my parents have to work.

WANT SOMETHING

[B1] [ɪ or ə] to say something to someone because you want them to give you something

Dictionary examples:
He's asked for a bike for his birthday.
He's asked us for a new bike.

Learner example:
I can ask my parents for a stereo for Christmas, but I'm not sure if they will agree or not.

WANT PERMISSION

[B1] [ɪ or ə] to say something to someone because you want to know if you can do something
Dictionary example:
Bruce asked if he could stay with us for a few days.

Learner example:
I am going to travel with my girlfriend Anna, so I am writing you this email to ask if you can lend me your bicycle for a week.

Don’t ask!
[B2] INFORMAL said when someone asks you about an experience that was very bad

Dictionary example:
“How was the meeting?” “Don’t ask!”

Learner example:
Don’t ask me how the concert was!

Don’t ask me
[B2] INFORMAL used to tell someone that you do not know the answer to a question and that you are surprised they have asked you

Dictionary example:
“So why would she leave such a good job?” “Don’t ask me!”

if you ask me
[C2] said when giving your opinion on something

Dictionary example:
If you ask me, he doesn’t really care about his friends.

Learner example:
If you ask me, the things that matter in a job are the people [you] work with and feeling happy about the work you are doing.

ask yourself sth
[C2] to think about something carefully

Dictionary example:
You’ve got to ask yourself whether it’s what you really want.

Learner example:
You have to ask yourself what life is worth in these situations.

asleep /əˈsliːp/

Word family:
Nouns: sleep
Verbs: sleep
Adjectives: asleep, sleepy, sleepless
ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

[B1] sleeping or not awake

Dictionary examples:
The children are asleep.
I fell asleep as soon as my head hit the pillow.
I'm surprised to see you awake – ten minutes ago you were fast/sound asleep.
I've only just got up and I'm still half asleep.

Learner example:
I fell asleep, and when I woke up, I realised that I had lost it.

fast asleep

[C2] completely asleep

Dictionary example:
I looked into her room but she was still fast asleep.

Learner example:
Karen's grandson walks into the room to find her fast asleep on her favourite chair.

aspect /ˈæs.pekt/

NOUN [C]

[B2] one part of a situation, problem, subject, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Which aspects of the job do you most enjoy?
That's the most worrying aspect of the situation.

Learner example:
Every aspect of our daily life is influenced by technology.

aspiration /ˌæs.pəˈreɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: aspiration
Verbs: aspire
Adjectives: aspiring

NOUN [C USUALLY PLURAL]

[C2] something that you hope to achieve

Dictionary example:
I've never had any political aspirations.

Learner example:
A career should reflect a person's beliefs and aspirations, not their bank account.
aspire  /əˈspaɪə/

Word family:
Nouns: aspiration
Verbs: aspire
Adjectives: aspiring

VERB

aspire to sth; aspire to do sth
[C2] to hope to achieve something

Dictionary example:
He has never aspired to a position of power.

Learner example:
[The] younger generation often see some of these people as role-models and aspire to a similar career and easy fame, but although I can understand their interest, I do not see this as a positive thing.

aspirin  /ˈæs.prɪn/

NOUN [C or U] (PLURAL aspirin or aspirins)
[B1] a common drug used to reduce pain and fever

Dictionary example:
I took a couple of aspirin.

Learner example:
I took an aspirin quickly.

aspiring  /əˈspaɪə.rɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: aspiration
Verbs: aspire
Adjectives: aspiring

ADJECTIVE

an aspiring actor/politician/writer, etc.
[C2] someone who is trying to become a successful actor/politician/writer, etc.

Dictionary example:
If you are an aspiring artist, you will enjoy the special painting and sketching week they hold three times a year.
Learner example:
Mary Peterson was a young woman who was an aspiring journalist.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>assault</th>
<th>/əˈsɔːlt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C or U]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] an attack</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>an assault on a police officer</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sexual assault</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rapes, assaults, murders, burglaries, [and] robberies have been so frequent that a lot of technological progress has been made in order to prevent these from happening.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>assess</th>
<th>/əˈsem.bl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: assembly</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: assemble</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VERB</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[C2] to join other people somewhere to make a group, or to bring people together into a group</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They assembled in the meeting room after lunch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Soon a rescue team was assembled by experienced skiers and climbers, and started com[b]ing the mountain looking for the missing snowboarder.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>assess</th>
<th>/əˈsem.bl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>BUILD</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] to build something by joining parts together</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Dictionary example:
Their furniture is easy to assemble.

Learner example:
[As well as] relaxing while assembling model aircraft or boats and meeting new friends, the course-takers could learn a fact or two about history as well.

assembly /əˈsem.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: assembly
Verbs: assemble

NOUN

GROUP
[C2] [c] a group of people, such as a government, who meet to make decisions, laws, etc.

Dictionary examples:
the national assembly
the United Nations General Assembly

Learner example:
I hope that it won’t be necessary to talk to our local Assembly [representative], because that would only make this process longer.

BUILD
[C2] [u] when you build something by joining parts together

Dictionary example:
The frame needs to be strong enough to support the engine assembly.

Learner example:
Major factories the world over incorporate automated robots into their assembly lines.

assert /əˈsɜːt/

Word family:
Verbs: assert
Adjectives: assertive

VERB
[C1] [t] FORMAL to say that something is certainly true

Dictionary example:
He asserts that she stole money from him.
Learner example:
Our department have already consulted [the] local Marketing Training Centre, which asserted that these employees are eligible to take the course.

assert yourself
[C2] to behave or speak in a strong, confident way

Dictionary example:
She has to learn to assert herself.

Learner example:
Such an attitude may also be the result of little pangs of homesickness or of our need to assert ourselves, to feel superior in a foreign country.

assert your authority/control/independence, etc.
[C2] to do something to show other people that you have power

Dictionary example:
She soon asserted her authority as leader.

Learner example:
He can assert his authority over all the boys who are there.

assertive /əˈsɜː.tɪv/

Word family:
Verbs: assert
Adjectives: assertive

ADJECTIVE
[C2] behaving or speaking in a strong, confident way

Dictionary example:
You need to be much more assertive.

Learner example:
I want to learn how to be more assertive, find emotional independence, fulfil my dreams, be more tolerant, less sarcastic and, most importantly, be given the precious gift of patience.

assess /əˈses/

Word family:
Nouns: assessment
Verbs: assess

VERB [T]
[B2] to make a judgement about the quality, size or value, etc. of something
Dictionary examples:
Examinations are a way of assessing a student’s ability.
They assessed the cost of the flood damage at £1500.
We need to assess whether the project is worth doing.

Learner example:
The aim of this report is to compare and assess the architecture, food and service of two restaurants in my area.

assessment /əˈses.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: assessment
Verbs: assess

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when you make a judgement about the quality, size or value, etc. of something

Dictionary example:
That's a fair assessment of the situation.

Learner example:
Secondly, I was a little bit upset about your assessment of [the] other performers because they showed us their great musical talents.

asset /ˈæ.set/

NOUN

USEFUL
[C1] [c] a person, skill or quality which is useful or helps you to succeed

Dictionary example:
He'll be a great asset to the team.

Learner example:
I am sure that you will be more than satisfied with him and that he is going to be an asset to your hotel.

WORTH MONEY
[C1] [C USUALLY PLURAL] something which a person or company owns which has a value

Dictionary example:
The company has $70 billion in assets.

Learner example:
Somehow, all his assets were frozen by the bank and the family became poor overnight.
assign /əˈsaɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: assignment
Verbs: assign

VERB [T]
[C1] to give someone a particular job or responsibility

Dictionary examples:
UN forces were assigned the task of rebuilding the hospital.
The case has been assigned to our most senior officer.

Learner example:
Some of the work they were assigned was quite boring for them.

assignment /əˈsaɪn.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: assignment
Verbs: assign

NOUN [C]
[C1] a piece of work given to someone, especially as part of their studies or job

Dictionary examples:
a freelance/photo assignment
The assignment is due on Friday.

Learner example:
As you know, I must do the group assignment for Project Management.

assist /əˈsɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: assistance, assistant
Verbs: assist

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to help

Dictionary examples:
The army arrived to assist in the search.
You will be expected to assist the editor with the selection of illustrations for the book.

Learner example:
However, I used to assist my brother, who is a photographer.
assistance  /əˈsɪst.ənts/

Word family:
Nouns: assistance, assistant
Verbs: assist

NOUN [u]
[B2] help

Dictionary examples:
Can I be of any assistance, madam?
Teachers can't give pupils any assistance in exams.

Learner example:
Thank you for your assistance.

---

assistant  /əˈsɪst.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: assistance, assistant
Verbs: assist

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone whose job is to help a person who has a more important job

Dictionary examples:
an administrative assistant an assistant editor/manager

Learner example:
He went to take the bag from his assistant.

---

associate  /əˈsəʊ.si.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: association
Verbs: associate

VERB

be associated with sth
[B2] to be related to something or caused by something

Dictionary example:
There are many risks associated with smoking.
Learner example:
Undoubtedly there are both positive and negative points associated with this topic.

TWO THINGS/PEOPLE

[C1] [ɪ] to connect someone or something in your mind with someone or something else

Dictionary example:
Most people associate this brand with good quality.

Learner example:
Nowadays we tend to associate computer games or television with young people.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>association /əˌsəʊ.siˈeɪ.ʃən/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: association

Verbs: associate

NOUN

[B2] [c] an organization of people with the same interests or with a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
The Football Association

Learner example:
I am a member of the local Kung-Fu Association.

in association with

[C1] working together with

Dictionary example:
The event was organized in association with the Sports Council.

Learner example:
This service, which will be provided in association with Foster Loft, will be available at the end of 2005.

CONNECTION

[C2] [ɔr ʌ] a connection or relationship between two things or people

Dictionary example:
There is no association between the two groups.

Learner example:
The second example is people who wear clothes such as black le[a]ther suits and black or purple lip-stick, showing their association with a particular genre of music.
assumption /əˈsʌmpʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: assumption
Verbs: assume

VERB [T]
[B2] to think that something is true, without question or proof

Dictionary examples:
I assumed (that) you knew each other because you went to the same school.
I invited her just assuming she would want to come.

Learner example:
The police assumed he was lying so they put him [in] jail.

assume control/power/responsibility, etc.
[C2] to take a position of control/power/responsibility, etc.

Dictionary example:
He has assumed the role of spokesman for the group.

Learner example:
She got involved in the marketing business there and assumed responsibility very soon – she became the marketing director for continental Europe.

---

assumption /əˈsampʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: assumption
Verbs: assume

NOUN
[C1] [c] something that you think is true without having any proof

Dictionary examples:
People tend to make assumptions about you when you have a disability.
These calculations are based on the assumption that prices will continue to rise.

Learner example:
But if this assumption is right, and if you consider how much fashion has changed over the last 60 years, does this mean that we are so very different from our grandparents?
assurance /əˈʃʊə.rənts/

Word family:
Nouns: assurance, reassurance, self-assurance
Verbs: assure, reassure
Adjectives: reassuring, self-assured

NOUN

PROMISE

[C1] [c] a promise

Dictionary example:
He gave us an assurance that it would not happen again.

Learner example:
Again, may I give my assurances that the above two requests [for] equipment acquisition would be money well spent for our company.

CONFIDENCE

[C2] [u] confidence

Dictionary example:
He spoke with calm assurance.

Learner example:
'I urge you to stay calm and wait for the rescue team,' said Mark with assurance.

assure /əˈʃʊər/

Word family:
Nouns: assurance, reassurance, self-assurance
Verbs: assure, reassure
Adjectives: reassuring, self-assured

VERB [T]

SAY WITH CERTAINTY

[B2] to tell someone confidently that something is true, especially so that they do not worry

Dictionary example:
She assured him (that) the car would be ready the next day.

Learner example:
If you decide to live in the capital, I can assure you there are plenty of sports facilities here, such as tennis courts, basketball courts, football fields, swimming centres and many more.
MAKE CERTAIN
[C1] to make something certain to happen

Dictionary example:
This loan should assure the company's future.

Learner example:
The PT is guaranteed to assure higher test results or your money back!

astonished /əˈston.ɪʃt/

Word family:
Nouns: astonishment
Adjectives: astonished, astonishing

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very surprised

Dictionary examples:
I was astonished to see Miriam there.
They looked astonished when I announced I was pregnant.
The doctors were astonished at the speed of her recovery.

Learner example:
She was astonished when she saw what was in front of her.

astonishing /əˈston.ɪ.ʃɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: astonishment
Adjectives: astonished, astonishing

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very surprising

Dictionary examples:
Her first novel enjoyed an astonishing level of success.
It's astonishing to think that only a few years ago Communism dominated eastern Europe.

Learner example:
The colour of the sea was astonishing and the mountains were so magical!
astonishment /əˈstɒn.ɪʃ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: astonishment
Adjectives: astonished, astonishing

NOUN [u]
[B2] very great surprise

Dictionary examples:
To my astonishment, she started laughing.
She gasped in astonishment.

Learner example:
To our astonishment, we were in front of a small house which seemed to have been built centuries ago.

astronomy /əˈstrɒn.ə.mi/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the scientific study of stars and planets

Dictionary example:
This is the biggest step forward in astronomy since Galileo’s first telescope over four hundred years ago.

Learner example:
Her father was famous for his vast knowledge of astronomy and books he wrote on this subject.

at /æt/

PREPOSITION

ABILITY
[B1] used after an adjective to show a person's ability to do something

Dictionary examples:
I'm not very good at skiing.
He's very talented at maths.

Learner example:
She is really good at tennis.

at all
[B1] used for emphasis in questions or negative statements, to mean in any way or of any type
Dictionary examples:
Can I help at all?
He hasn't changed at all.

Learner example:
The sun was shining and there were no clouds at all, so we could see the light blue sky.

at his/its, etc. best
[B1] at the highest level of achievement or quality

Dictionary example:
The article is an example of journalism at its best.

Learner example:
I enjoyed this trip because we got to stay in the countryside and [see] nature at its very best.

at (long) last
[B1] finally

Dictionary example:
At last, I've found a pair of jeans that actually fit.

Learner example:
At last, all of us agreed on "Cinema Farhang".

at least
[B1] even if nothing else happens or is true

Dictionary example:
If you can't manage to clean the whole house, at least make sure the kitchen is clean.

Learner example:
We could go shopping or at least go and have an ice-cream somewhere.

at least
[B1] something that you say when you are telling someone about an advantage in a bad situation

Dictionary example:
It's a small house but at least there's a garden.

Learner example:
It is not impressive but at least it has some things that I like.

at first
[B1] at the beginning of a situation or period of time

Dictionary example:
At first I thought she was unfriendly, but actually she's just shy.

Learner example:
At first, when I arrived I was very nervous because I didn't know anyone, but then a girl started talking to me and I felt better.
at the same time
[B1] If two things happen at the same time, they happen together.

Dictionary example:
We arrived at the same time.

Learner example:
The kind of clothes I most like are casual but fashionable at the same time.

at once
[B1] immediately

Dictionary example:
I knew at once that I'd like it here.

Learner example:
She called for an ambulance which came at once.

at present
[B1] now

Dictionary example:
At present she's working abroad.

Learner example:
Firstly, I have to tell you that at present, I am studying journalism and I have a good knowledge of computers.

at least
[B2] used to reduce the effect of a statement

Dictionary example:
I've met the President – at least, he shook my hand once.

Learner example:
But after years of developing my slalom, I wanted to learn something new, so, I started Hot-Dogging. Hot-Dog is great fun. At least, people say so.

AMOUNT
[B2] used to show a price, temperature, rate, speed, etc.

Dictionary example:
He was driving at 120 mph when the police spotted him.

at all costs
[B2] If something must be done at all costs, it is very important that it is done.

Dictionary example:
We have to succeed at all costs.

Learner example:
One thing was sure: he was convinced he had to save Anne's life at all costs.
at sb’s disposal
[B2] available for you to use at any time

Dictionary example:
We will have a car at our disposal for the whole trip.

Learner example:
But on Wednesday morning I'm at your disposal.

at fault
[B2] responsible for something bad that has happened

Dictionary example:
I was at fault and I would like to apologize.

Learner example:
I really felt at fault.

at risk
[B2] being in a situation where something bad is likely to happen

Dictionary examples:
All houses within 100 metres of the seas are at risk of flooding.
Releasing these prisoners puts the public at risk.

Learner example:
Lives are at risk!

at an angle
[C1] not horizontal or vertical, but sloping

Dictionary examples:
He wore his hat at an angle.
The boat settled into the mud at a 35 degree angle.

Learner example:
After purchasing the GSX–1 food processor from your shop last month I discovered, upon connecting it to the mains socket and switching it on, that I needed to tilt the unit at an angle for it to work.

at the expense of sth
[C1] If you do one thing at the expense of another, doing the first thing harms the second thing.

Dictionary example:
He spent a lot of time at work, at the expense of his marriage.

Learner example:
Unfortunately one is usually done at the expense of the other.
at face value
[C1] If you accept something at face value because of the way it first looks or seems, you do so without thinking carefully about it.

Dictionary examples:
You can’t just accept everything you read in the newspapers at face value.
These results should not be taken at face value – careful analysis is required to assess their full implications.

Learner example:
People are assessed at face value [by] the type of cars they drive.

at a glance
[C1] If you see something at a glance, you see it very quickly or immediately.

Dictionary example:
He could tell at a glance that something was wrong.

Learner example:
You could tell at a glance that Peter was a loner.

at hand
[C1] near in time or space

Dictionary example:
Teachers are always close at hand to give help to any child who needs it.

Learner example:
I haven’t had any lectures in English, but now and then there are lectures in English at the University so you need to understand the spoken language with no dictionary at hand.

at the very least
[C1] not less than, and probably much more than

Dictionary examples:
At the very least, you should apologize.
We should earn £500 at the very least.

Learner example:
Thus, I trust you will agree that at the very least I deserve a letter of explanation from you and a substantial refund of my money.

at short notice uk
[C1] only a short time before something happens

Dictionary example:
I had to give a speech at very short notice.

Learner example:
The fact that the speech by the famous actor was cancelled at short notice was disappointing.
at once
[C1] at the same time

Dictionary example:
They all started talking at once.

Learner example:
The study centre is really small and all the students talk at once.

all at once
[C1] suddenly

Dictionary example:
All at once he stood up and walked out of the room.

Learner example:
All at once, everything started to work again.

at random
[C1] chosen by chance

Dictionary example:
Winners will be chosen at random.

Learner example:
The rooms suggested to be [filmed] have not been chosen at random.

at times
[C1] sometimes

Dictionary example:
At times, I wish I didn't have to go to school.

Learner example:
STUDYING METHODS All teachers at the college are high[ly]-skilled professionals and can be very demanding at times, but this is [in] your best interest[s].

at best
[C2] used to show that the most positive way of considering something is still not good

Dictionary example:
At best, only 50 per cent of babies born at 24 weeks will survive.

Learner example:
Then, due to the social standards, the old find themselves being abandoned and helpless. At best, such people are hospitalized.

at the best of times
[C2] used to show that something is not good when it is the best it can be

Dictionary example:
He's not exactly patient at the best of times.
Learner example:
They knew that even at the best of times he looked unpleasant but now he was of [a] completely different [appearance].

at a disadvantage
[C2] having problems that other people do not have

Dictionary example:
Being shy puts him at a disadvantage.

Learner example:
There would otherwise be no option for such children who would then be at a disadvantage and possibly engage in destructive behaviour.

be at odds with sb/sth
[C2] to not agree with someone or something

Dictionary example:
His remark was at odds with our report.

Learner example:
Young people are inexperienced as far as the world is concerned and thus they are frequently at odds with their family.

at the latest
[C2] If you tell someone to do something by a particular time at the latest, you mean they must do it before that time.

Dictionary example:
She said to be there by 8 o’clock at the latest.

at length
[C2] If you talk about something at length, you talk for a long time.

Dictionary example:
We discussed both topics at length.

Learner example:
Since we have already arranged for your family to come to stay in my home and discussed the arrangements at length and in detail, I will no longer bother you with terms of payment and other information that, judging by your letter, seems to be quite irrelevant.

be at liberty to do sth FORMAL [C2] to be allowed to do something

Dictionary example:
I'm not at liberty to discuss the matter at present.

Learner example:
On [the] one hand the child is at liberty to do whatever it pleases to do but on the other hand it was never taught the responsibilities implicitly tied to such actions.
at a loss
[C2] not knowing what to do

Dictionary example:
I'm at a loss to explain his disappearance.

Learner example:
And now I am competely at a loss what to write next.

at a loss for words
[C2] not knowing what to say

Dictionary example:
The question was unexpected and she was temporarily at a loss for words.

Learner example:
If it was James I would be at a loss for words, I didn't know what to tell him.

be at the mercy of sb/sth
[C2] to not be able to protect yourself from something or someone that you cannot control

Dictionary example:
Farmers are often at the mercy of the weather.

Learner example:
I couldn't believe I'd been careless enough to let them be at the mercy of Joanna's careless, boisterous friends, and I felt very lonely now, looking for them.

at the earliest
[C2] used after a time or date to show that something will not happen before then

Dictionary example:
Building will not begin until July at the earliest.

at sb's expense
[C2] in order to make someone look stupid

Dictionary example:
Stop making jokes at my expense.

Learner example:
But despite his intellectual superiority, Piggy was subject to derision because of his physical outward appearance and the group of boys played jokes at his expense.

at your fingertips
[C2] If you have something at your fingertips, you can get it and use it very easily.

Dictionary example:
He had all the information needed at his fingertips.

Learner example:
An Internet connection literally means having the world at your fingertips.
at the hands of sb
[C2] If you suffer at the hands of someone, they hurt you or treat you badly.

Dictionary example:
She suffered terribly at the hands of her classmates.

Learner example:
She felt abandoned and the loss of Mark’s friends at the hands of their old nemesis in the local election had left him with fewer activities for the municipality.

at heart
[C2] used to say what someone is really like

Dictionary example:
I’m just a kid at heart.

Learner example:
I also thought that she was brave at heart.

at issue
[C2] most important in what is being discussed

Dictionary example:
The point at issue is what is best for the child.

Learner example:
I wouldn’t like to fall into the trap of generalizing the matter at issue, but I believe there are two ways of travelling.

be at a premium
[C2] If something useful is at a premium, there is not enough of it.

Dictionary example:
Time is at a premium just before the start of exams.

Learner example:
Honesty and accuracy are very good virtues to strive [for], but having friendship [and a] fair and caring relationship to your friend or partner have to be rated at a premium as well.

at any price
[C2] If you want something at any price, you will do anything to get it.

Dictionary example:
She wanted the job at any price.

Learner example:
They wanted to be parents at any price.

at this rate
[C2] used before saying what will happen if a situation continues in the same way

Dictionary example:
At this rate we’re not going to be there till midnight.
at any rate
[C2] used before saying one fact that is certain in a situation that you are generally not certain about

Dictionary example:
Well, at any rate we need her to be there.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, at any rate, we would like to see a society with [a] full and strong workforce working towards stronger economic power.

at your own risk
[C2] If you do something at your own risk, you are completely responsible for anything bad that might happen because of it.

Dictionary example:
Customers may leave vehicles here at their own risk.

Learner example:
However, when a young man decides to go on a dangerous expedition, he should do so at his own risk and should not rely on help from anyone.

be at stake
[C2] If something is at stake, it is in a situation where it might be lost or damaged.

Dictionary example:
We have to act quickly – people's lives are at stake.

Learner example:
The whole human race's future is at stake.

at the tender age of 8/17/25, etc. LITERARY [C2] at the young age of 8/17/25, etc

Dictionary example:
She first appeared on stage at the tender age of 14.

Learner example:
She met my father at the tender age of 14, and she soon knew that this was the man she wanted to stay with for the rest of her life.

at one time or another
[C2] used to talk about an occasion in the past without saying exactly which occasion it was

Dictionary example:
Most of us have made a similar mistake at one time or another.

Learner example:
Haven't we all at one time or another come home from a holiday feeling healthy and strong with a smile on our face thinking, this is what life is about.
athlete /ˈæθ.lɪ.t/

Word family:
Nouns: athlete, athletics
Adjectives: athletic

NOUN [c]
[B1] a person who is very good at sports or physical exercise, especially one who competes in organized events

Dictionary example:
He became a professional athlete at the age of 16.

Learner example:
It's amazing what the athletes can do, don't you think?

---

athletic /æθˈlet.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: athlete, athletics
Adjectives: athletic

ADJECTIVE
[B2] strong, healthy and good at sports

Dictionary example:
She looks very athletic.

Learner example:
Furthermore, I am not only very athletic, but also really sociable and outgoing.

---

athletics /æθˈlet.ɪks/

Word family:
Nouns: athlete, athletics
Adjectives: athletic

NOUN [u]
[B1] the sports which include running, jumping and throwing

Dictionary example:
an athletics team/club/meeting

Learner example:
You know I love doing sports, especially athletics, so I joined that club.
atmosphere /ˈæt.mə.sfɪə/

NOUN

FEELING

[B1] [NO PLURAL] the feeling which exists in a place or situation

Dictionary examples:
There's a very relaxed atmosphere in our office.
There has been an atmosphere of gloom in the factory since it was announced that it would be closing.

Learner example:
You'll also love the friendly atmosphere here.

the atmosphere

[B2] the mixture of gases around the Earth

Dictionary example:
These factories are releasing toxic gases into the atmosphere.

Learner example:
I'm against cars because their CO2 emissions destroy the atmosphere.

AIR INSIDE

[B2] [NO PLURAL] the air inside a room or other place

Dictionary example:
The atmosphere in the room was so stuffy I could hardly breathe.

Learner example:
The atmosphere in the halls also became hot and humid, thus making the whole experience rather unpleasant.

atom /ˈæt.əm/

Word family:

Nouns: atom

Adjectives: atomic

NOUN [C]

[B2] the smallest unit that an element can be divided into

Dictionary example:
A molecule of carbon dioxide (CO2) has one carbon atom and two oxygen atoms.

Learner example:
Anyway, the manager of that center called me in order to inform me that I would [be doing] research on nuclear power and atoms.
atomic /əˈtɒm.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: atom
Adjectives: atomic

ADJECTIVE
[B2] using the energy that is created when an atom is divided Dictionary example: atomic energy/power

Learner example: There are lots more dangerous things in the world, like radioactive pollution or atomic bombs.

attach /əˈtætʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: attachment
Verbs: attach
Adjectives: attached

VERB [T]

CONNECT
[B1] to join or fix one thing to another

Dictionary examples: I attached a photo to my application form. Use this cable to attach the printer to the computer.

Learner example: I attach my C.V. and I look forward to discussing it with you.

COMPUTING
[B1] to join a file, such as a document, picture or computer program, to an email Learner example: I’m going to send you some information about hotels attached to this mail.

attach importance/value, etc. to sb/sth
[C2] to think that someone or something has importance/value, etc.

Dictionary example: You attach too much importance to money.

Learner example: My father knew exactly when he had to attach importance to feelings or emotions.
INCLUDE
[C2] to include something as part of something else

Dictionary example:
There were too many conditions attached to the deal.

Learner example:
Furthermore, the aid provided to these countries is not always innocent and might have strings attached.

attached /əˈtætʃt/

Word family:
Nouns: attachment
Verbs: attach
Adjectives: attached

ADJECTIVE CONNECTED TO [B2] joined or connected to another thing

Dictionary example:
Please fill out the attached form.

Learner example:
As I am an athletic swimmer and a good surfer too, my choice from your attached list is naturally swimming and surfing.

attached to sb/sth
[C1] feeling emotionally close to someone or something

Dictionary example:
The children are very attached to their grandparents.

Learner example:
My only concern is that she is a bit shy and very attached to her family, but I really don't think it would be a problem since she travels a lot and has already spent two months abroad.

attachment /əˈtæʃmənt/

Word family:
Nouns: attachment
Verbs: attach
Adjectives: attached
NOUN

EQUIPMENT
[B2] [c] an extra piece of equipment that can be added to a machine

Dictionary example:
This food processor has a special attachment for grinding coffee.

COMPUTING
[B2] [c] a computer file which is sent together with an email message

Dictionary examples:
I'll email my report to you as an attachment.
I wasn't able to open that attachment.

FEELING
[C2] [c or u] a feeling of love or strong connection to someone or something

Dictionary example:
I wasn't aware of any romantic attachments.

Learner example:
Despite this impression she rejected her growing attachment to George in order to fulfil her family's expectation[s].

attack /əˈtæk/

VERB

TRY TO HURT
[B1] [I or T] to try to hurt or defeat using violence

Dictionary examples:
He was attacked and seriously injured by a gang of youths.
Most wild animals won't attack unless they are provoked.

Learner example:
At least he didn't attack me, and he even lent me his cell phone, he was such a gentle criminal.

CRITICIZE
[C1] [ɪ] to strongly criticize someone or something

Dictionary example:
She attacked the government’s new education policy.

Learner example:
I hope he was indeed misinformed, because attacking a charity organization like this on purpose, is truly an act of a cruel man.
DISEASE
[C2] [ɪ] If a disease, chemical, etc. attacks someone or something, it damages them.

Dictionary example:
The virus attacks the central nervous system.

Learner example:
There is a myriad of diseases that attack the less protected.

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a violent act intended to hurt or damage someone or something

Dictionary examples:
a racist attack
a terrorist attack on the capital
The town was once again under attack.

Learner example:
I have planned to see "The attack of the super mutant aliens".

SPORT
[B1] in games such as football, the part of a team which tries to score points

Dictionary example:
The team has a strong attack, but the defence is weak.

CRITICISM
[C2] when you say something to strongly criticize someone or something

Dictionary example:
a scathing attack on the president

Learner example:
Young people often insist on doing everything on their own and consider advice almost an attack on their personal opinion.

attain /əˈteɪn/

Word family:
Verbs: attain
Adjectives: attainable, unattainable

VERB [ɪ]
[C1] to achieve something, especially after a lot of work

Dictionary example:
She’s attained a high level of fitness.
Learner example:
Alternatively, an English speaker from a non-English-speaking country may be of help only if he/she has attained a level higher than yours.

attainable /əˈteɪ.nə.bl/

Word family:
Verbs: attain
Adjectives: attainable, unattainable

ADJECTIVE
[C2] possible to achieve

Dictionary example:
We must ensure that we do not set ourselves goals that are not attainable.

Learner example:
As electronic media sources have become more affordable and attainable, more people have access to local and international news and events.

attempt /əˈtempt/

VERB [T]
[B1] to try to do something, especially something difficult

Dictionary examples:
He attempted to escape through a window.
There’s no point in even attempting an explanation – he’ll never listen.

Learner example:
Carrying a candle, I attempted to phone my neighbour but I looked out of the window and there were no lights.

NOUN [C]
[B2] when you try to do something

Dictionary examples:
This is my second attempt at the exam.
They closed the road in an attempt to reduce traffic in the city.
He made no attempt to be sociable.

Learner example:
I made several attempts to make him change his mind, but I failed.
attend /əˈtend/

Word family:
- Nouns: attendance
- Verbs: attend

VERB

BE PRESENT

[B1] [I or T] to go to an event, place, etc.

Dictionary examples:
- Over two hundred people attended the funeral.
- The meeting is on the fifth and we're hoping everyone will attend.

Learner example:
I attend one of these activities, it was cricket, it was for the whole day.

attend a church/college/school, etc.

[B1] to go regularly to a place, such as a particular school

Dictionary example:
Which school does your daughter attend?

Learner example:
I attend Northampton College, which is quite far away from [my] house.

attendance /əˈten.dəns/

Word family:
- Nouns: attendance
- Verbs: attend

NOUN [C or U]

NUMBER

[C1] the number of people who go to an event, meeting, etc.

Dictionary example:
falling attendance

Learner example:
Also in May, we had the swimming gala, which had a very high attendance from students as there were races for all abilities.

REGULARLY

[C1] when you go somewhere such as a church, school, etc. regularly

Dictionary example:
His attendance at school is very poor.
Learner example:
Consequently, I would make attendance more flexible for the members.

in attendance FORMAL
[C2] present at an event

Dictionary example:
They have doctors in attendance at every match.

Learner example:
Professional coach[e]s are in attendance and the members can have proper lessons.

attention /əˈten.tʃən/ NOUN [U]

NOTICE
[B1] when you watch, listen to, or think about something carefully or with interest

Dictionary examples:
Ladies and gentlemen, could I have your attention, please?
Wait a moment and I'll give you my full attention.
After an hour, my attention started to wander.

Learner example:
Thank you for your attention.

pay attention (to sth)
[B1] to watch, listen to, or think about something carefully

Dictionary example:
You weren't paying attention to what I was saying.

Learner example:
Larry is a very distracted boy. Everybody says that he should pay attention to what he is doing.

attract/get (sb's) attention [B2] to make someone notice you

Dictionary example:
I waved at her to get her attention.

Learner example:
The bank is near the school, so the lady was trying to get people's attention while the others [robbed] the bank.

draw (sb's) attention to sth/sb
[B2] to make someone notice something or someone
Dictionary examples:
If I could just draw your attention to the second paragraph.
She’s always drawing attention to herself.

Learner example:
The purpose of his report is to draw attention to videos in English.

be the centre of attention
[C2] to receive more attention than anyone or anything else

Dictionary example:
She loves to be the centre of attention.

Learner example:
To sum it up, most celebrities love being the centre of attention and sometimes even ask for it.

attitude /ˈæt.i.tjuːd/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] how you think or feel about something, and how this makes you behave

Dictionary examples:
He has a very bad attitude to/towards work.
That boy has a real attitude problem.
She has a very positive attitude generally.

Learner example:
The waiters had a very good attitude toward the customers and the food was really wonderful.

attract /əˈtrakt/

Word family:
Nouns: attraction
Verbs: attract
Adjectives: attractive, unattractive

VERB

ENCOURAGE INTEREST
[B1] [T] to make people come to a place or do a particular thing by being interesting, enjoyable, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The castle attracts more than 300,000 visitors a year.
The circus is attracting huge crowds/audiences.
We need to attract more science graduates to teaching.
Learner example:
Although it was the first time that I came to this new class, it attracted me deeply.

attract attention/interest, etc.
[B1] to cause people to pay attention/be interested, etc.

Dictionary example:
Her ideas have attracted a lot of attention in the scientific community.

Learner example:
When I go out with my friends I actually like wearing clothes that attract people’s attention.

be attracted to sb
[B2] to like someone, often sexually, because of the way they look or behave

Dictionary example:
I was attracted to him straight away.

Learner example:
She was really attracted to him.

attraction  /aˈtræk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: attraction
Verbs: attract
Adjectives: attractive, unattractive

NOUN

THING TO SEE OR DO
[B1] [c] something that makes people come to a place or do a particular thing

Dictionary examples:
tourist attractions
The opportunity to travel is one of the main attractions of this job.

Learner example:
At first I only wanted to see the many attractions in Balboa Park.

FEELING
[C2] [u] when you like someone, especially sexually, because of the way they look or behave

Dictionary example:
physical attraction

Learner example:
Ever since the beginning, since the day when Olivia met the Nawab for the first time, she felt an inexplicable attraction towards him.
attractive  /əˈtræk.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: attraction
Verbs: attract
Adjectives: attractive, unattractive

[ADJECTIVE]

INTERESTING
[B2] interesting or useful

Dictionary examples:
an attractive offer/idea
We want to make the club attractive to a wider range of people.

Learner example:
In fact, all of my work–mates make fun of me when I talk about my collection of stamps. I want to demonstrate [to] them that it is a very attractive hobby.

attribute

[VERB]  /əˈtriːb.juːt/attribute sth to sth PHRASAL VERB

[C2] to say that something is caused by something else

Dictionary example:
He attributes his success to hard work.

Learner example:
On the other hand, it might be attributed to the laziness of the people.

NOUN [C]  /ˈæt.rə.bjuːt/

[C2] a quality or characteristic that someone or something has

Dictionary example:
Her hair is her best attribute.

Learner example:
What are the attributes of a successful person, then?

aubergine  /ˈəʊ.bə.ʒiːn/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] an oval, purple vegetable that is white inside
Dictionary example:
The dish is made with aubergines and cheese.

auction /ˈɔː.kʃən/

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a sale in which things are sold to the person who offers the most money

Dictionary example:
The furniture was sold at auction.

Learner example:
And funds could be raised for the changes by [hold]ing auctions, runs, parties, raffles, contests etc.

audience /ˈɔː.di.əntz/

NOUN

GROUP
[B1] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] the people who sit and watch a performance at a theatre, cinema, etc.

Dictionary examples:
There were a lot of children in the audience.
The audience was/were clearly delighted with the performance.

Learner example:
All the [people in the] audience looked at me, I was very excited. The band called me, so I went to the stage and they started to play a very popular song.

TYPE
[B2] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] the type of people who watch a particular TV show, read a particular book, etc.

Dictionary example:
This magazine is aimed at a teenage/young audience.

Learner example:
The above-mentioned restaurants are totally different from each other and suit completely different customers. Pasta+, to begin with, is best suited [to a] younger audience.
audition /ˈɔː.dɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [c]
[C1] when someone does a short performance to try to get a job as an actor, singer, etc.

Dictionary example:
She’s got an audition for the show.

Learner example:
Many [un]talented pe[ople] think they can sing and attend the auditions, but others laugh at them.

authentic /ˈθen.tɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If something is authentic, it is real, true, or what people say it is.

Dictionary example:
authentic Italian food

Learner example:
I am also nostalgic for authentic Thai culture which has subtly and gradually been replaced by American and European culture.

author /ˈɔː.θər/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the writer of a book, article, play, etc.

Dictionary example:
He is the author of two books on French history.

Learner example:
During [the] Easter holiday, I read a very good thriller by an Italian author, Andrea Camilleri.

authority /ˈɔːθə.rə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: authority
Verbs: authorize
POWER

[B2] [u] the power to make decisions or to control other people

Dictionary examples:
The United Nations has used its authority to restore peace in the area.
We need to get the support of someone in authority.
They have the authority to examine the company’s records.
The problem is that teachers feel they no longer have authority over their pupils.

Learner example:
Their parents have lost almost all their authority.

OFFICIAL GROUP

[C1] [c] an official group or government department with power to control particular public services

Dictionary example:
the local housing authority

Learner example:
The local authority are worried about the fact that many fathers stopped financial support for their ex–wives and dependent children.

an authority on sth

[C2] someone who has a lot of knowledge about a particular subject

Dictionary example:
She is an authority on seventeenth–century English literature.

Learner example:
I read the book more than six times and I became an authority on [the] Roman Empire.

authorize /ˈɔːr.ər.i.z/

Word family:
Nouns: authority
Verbs: authorize

VERB [T] (also UK authorise)

[C1] to give official permission for something

Dictionary example:
His manager had authorized the expenditure.

Learner example:
Most of [the] rooms are airconditioned and our prices are competitive and authorized by the Greek Tourist Organisation.
be authorized to do sth
[C1] to be officially allowed to do something

Dictionary example:
Only managers are authorized to sign expense forms.

Learner example:
In my capacity as the secretary of the Social Club, I am authorized to express students’ dissatisfaction with the facilities of the museum and to urge you to take remedial action towards improving the situation.

---

automatic /ˌɔː.təˈmæt.ɪk/

Word family:

Adjectives: automatic

Adverbs: automatically

ADJECTIVE

MACHINE

[B2] An automatic machine works by itself or with little human control.

Dictionary example:
automatic doors

Learner example:
It has both manual and automatic functions so it has a lot of possibilities.

PERSON

[C2] done as a natural reaction, without thinking

Dictionary example:
My automatic response was to pull my hand away.

Learner example:
Her gesture was almost automatic.

CERTAIN

[C2] certain to happen as part of the normal process or system

Dictionary example:
You get an automatic promotion after two years.

---

automatically /ˌɔː.təˈmæt.ɪkli/

Word family:

Adjectives: automatic

Adverbs: automatically
If a machine does something automatically, it does it independently, without human control.

Dictionary example:
The camera adjusts the shutter speed automatically.

Learner example:
[The] television will be automatically switched on in time for [the] breakfast news.

If you do something automatically, you do it without thinking about it.

Dictionary example:
I automatically put my hand out to catch it.

Learner example:
There was a strange envelope between the others, so automatically, she picked it up and [looked at] the stamp. The letter came from Australia.

availability /əˈveɪ.əl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: availability
Adjectives: available, unavailable

NOUN [u]

[B2] when something or someone is available

Dictionary example:
I checked the availability of flights online and there's plenty of choice.

Learner example:
Therefore, it is essential that you take account of my availability when booking the trip.

avenue /ˈæv.ə.nju: /

NOUN [c]

ROAD
[C1] a wide road in a town or city, often with trees along it

Dictionary example:
a tree-lined avenue
POSSIBILITY

[C2] a possible way of doing or achieving something

Dictionary example:
We have exhausted all other avenues of treatment.

---

average /ˈæv.ər.i.dʒ/

ADJECTIVE

AMOUNT

[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] An average number is the number you get by adding two or more amounts together and dividing the total by the number of amounts.

Dictionary example:
an average age/temperature

Learner example:
The weather on this mountain is fantastic, with an average temperature of 17°C.

USUAL

[B2] typical and usual

Dictionary examples:
The average person in the street is a lot better off than they were forty years ago.
a student of average ability

Learner example:
This makes people believe that a lot of the food we eat is fast-food, but it's not true at all, in fact it's a very small part of our average diet.

NOT EXCELLENT

[C1] not particularly good

Dictionary example:
The meal was pretty average.

Learner example:
I didn't get the high standard [of] service that you had offered me, and the food was pretty average.

NOUN

AMOUNT

[B1] [C] the result you get by adding two or more amounts together and dividing the total by the number of amounts
Dictionary example:
Prices have risen by an average of 4% over the past year.

Learner example:
On the table was my mark sheet with the average as 90%.

USUAL/TYPICAL
[B1] [c or u] the usual or typical amount

Dictionary examples:
An 8-hour working day is about the average.
The audience figures were lower than average for this sort of film.
The quality of candidates was below/above average.
I expect to spend an average of £20 on a meal in a restaurant.

Learner example:
I [don’t] have much time to watch TV and I only spend an average of two to five hours [a] week.

on average
[B2] usually, or based on an average

Dictionary example:
Female workers earn, on average, a third less than men.

Learner example:
On average, our pupils are 16 years old and they join actively in all the events we organise.

avoid /əˈvɔɪd/

Word family:
Verbs: avoid Adjectives: unavoidable
Adverbs: unavoidably

VERB [T]

STAY AWAY FROM
[B1] to stay away from a person, place, situation, etc.

Dictionary examples:
I try to avoid the city centre at the weekend.
Do you think Tim’s avoiding me? I haven’t seen him all day.

Learner example:
People despise and avoid her because she is ugly.

PREVENT
[B2] to prevent something from happening
Dictionary examples:
I left the pub to avoid a fight.
Unnecessary paperwork should be avoided at all costs.
The plane narrowly avoided disaster when one of the engines failed on take-off.

Learner example:
I think that all these problems could have been avoided and that asking [for] my money back is the best way of forgetting that evening.

avoid doing sth
[B2] to intentionally not do something

Dictionary example:
She managed to avoid answering my question.

Learner example:
The writer avoided d[e]scribing personal thoughts.

awake /əˈweɪk/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] not sleeping

Dictionary examples:
I find it so difficult to stay awake during history lessons.
I drink a lot of coffee to keep me awake.
I lay awake half the night worrying.

Learner example:
She felt so nervous that it kept her awake at night.

be wide awake
[C2] to be completely awake

Dictionary example:
"Is Oliver awake yet?" "Yes, he's wide awake and running around his bedroom."

Learner example:
Sometimes, when I have put my children to bed, half an hour later an aircraft flies over and my two-year old daughter is wide awake again.

award /əˈwɔːd/

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[B2] to give money or a prize following an official decision
Dictionary examples:
He was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics.
The university has awarded her a $500 travel grant.

Learner example:
As you will see, I was awarded a grade A.

NOUN [c]

PRIZE
[B2] a prize given to someone for something they have achieved

Dictionary examples:
the Academy Award for Best Director
Both films have received/won several awards.

Learner example:
He became world-famous when he won the Oscar award for best song last year.

---

aware /əˈweə/

Word family:
Nouns: awareness, self-awareness
Adjectives: aware

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] knowing that something exists, or having knowledge or experience of a particular thing

Dictionary examples:
Were you aware of the risks at the time?
I wasn't even aware that he was ill.
She was well aware that he was married.
I suddenly became aware of him looking at me.

Learner example:
First of all, we aren't aware of the necessity of learning such things as biology or maths.

---

awareness /əˈweə.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: awareness, self-awareness
Adjectives: aware

NOUN [u]
[C1] when you know about something

---

213
Dictionary example:
Environmental awareness is increasing all the time.

Learner example:
Thirdly, I have a strong awareness of issues which are important to my local community.

away /əˈweɪ/

ADVERB

INTO PLACE
[B1] in or into the usual or a suitable place, especially one that can be closed

Dictionary examples:
Could you put the ice-cream away in the freezer?
My grandparents had £800 hidden away in an old shoe box.

Learner example:
I put away my mobile phone.

two weeks/five hours, etc. away
[B1] at a particular time in the future

Dictionary example:
My English exam's only a week away and I haven't even started to prepare.

Learner example:
Christmas is just a few months away, and I do not intend to spend it all alone like in the past few years, so I am writing to invite you to my real Christmas party without my parents.

GRADUALLY
[B2] gradually disappearing until mostly or completely gone

Dictionary examples:
All the snow had melted away.
The music faded away as the procession moved slowly up the street.

Learner example:
I always feel so fatigued at the end of the day but after a mile, the aches of the day seem to fade away.

SPORT
[C1] If a sports team is playing away, the game is at the place where the other team usually plays.

Dictionary example:
They were playing away.
CONTINUOUS ACTION
[C2] used after a verb to mean 'continuously or repeatedly'

Dictionary example:
Chris was hammering away in the garden all day.

Learner example:
They chatted away for a while as Malcolm had to wait for the airport taxi.

awe /ɑː/

Word family:
Nouns: awe
Adjectives: awesome

NOUN [u]
[C2] a feeling of great respect and sometimes fear

Dictionary example:
I was filled with awe at the sheer size of the building.

Learner example:
As a child growing up, the presence of my grandmother filled me with awe.

be in awe of sb
[C2] to feel great respect for and sometimes fear of someone

Dictionary example:
As children we were rather in awe of our grandfather.

Learner example:
As I was the eldest of [the] siblings, they used to respect all my orders and [even] now, they are a bit in awe of me.

awesome /ˈɔː.əm/

Word family:
Nouns: awe
Adjectives: awesome

ADJECTIVE
SPECIAL
[C2] great or special and causing deep feelings of admiration, respect, or sometimes fear Dictionary examples:
an awesome achievement
The scenery was truly awesome.

Learner example:
Italy is crowded by groups sheepishly following their guide[s] in an awesome silence and respect.

awful /ˈɔː.fəl/
ADJECTIVE
BAD
[B1] very bad, of low quality, or unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
The weather was awful.
She's got an awful boss.
It's an awful place.
She'd been ill and she looked awful.

Learner example:
We wanted to go shopping in Oxford Street but everything is too expensive and the weather was awful.

an awful lot (of sth)
[B2] informal a very large amount

Dictionary example:
It cost an awful lot of money.

Learner example:
First of all, I want to highlight that we see an awful lot of mobile phone[s] in our daily life.

awkward /ˈɔː.kwəd/
ADJECTIVE
DIFFICULT
[B2] difficult or causing problems or embarrassment

Dictionary examples:
an awkward customer
Some of the questions were rather awkward.
My car's quite awkward to drive.
They'd chosen an awkward time to call as I'd just got into the bath.
She's put me in quite an awkward position/situation.
There was an awkward silence.
Learner example:
Not a movement, not a voice, just an awkward silence.

NOT ATTRACTIVE
[C2] not relaxed or confident

Dictionary example:
His movements were slow and awkward.

Learner example:
Piggy's "value" is not apparent to the boys because it is concealed by the sight of his awkward self: he is plump, he wears thick spectacles, he is not gifted with good health.
babysit /ˈbeɪ.bi.sɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: babysitter
Verbs: babysit

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to look after someone's child in their home while they are not there

Dictionary example:
I babysit for Jane on Tuesday evenings.

Learner example:
As you know I am [an] au pair in London and I sometimes [have] to babysit [i]n the evening.

babysitter /ˈbeɪ.biˌsɪt.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: babysitter
Verbs: babysit

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who takes care of your child while you are out

Dictionary example:
I promised the babysitter that we'd be home by midnight.

Learner example:
Write me an e-mail and I will send you the address of the family who needs a babysitter.

back /bæk/

Word family:
Nouns: backing
Verbs: back

ADVERB

BEHIND
[B1] in a direction behind you
Dictionary examples:
He sat back on the sofa.
Anna stepped back.

Learner example:
I cried [out], stepping back and falling down.

STATE
[B2] to the state something or someone was in before

Dictionary examples:
It's not badly broken – I'm sure we can put it back together again.
Hopefully things will get back to normal soon.
I was woken by a thunderstorm, and I couldn't get back to sleep.

Learner example:
My life was back to normal.

EARLIER
[B2] at or to an earlier time

Dictionary examples:
We first met back in 1971.
This tradition dates back to the 16th century.

Learner example:
All in all, it is difficult to get bored in Moscow, where you can see buildings which date back to centuries ago.

AWAY FROM
[B2] in a direction away from something

Dictionary examples:
He pulled back the curtain.
The house is set back from the road.

Learner example:
The action of the book takes place in a lonely inn standing back from the road.

back and forth
[C2] in one direction, then the opposite way, then in the original direction again many times

Dictionary example:
He has to travel back and forth between London and Paris every week.

Learner example:
Finally, after much walking back and forth, we found a road which we followed till we got to the town.
NOUN [C]

back to front
[C2] with the back part of something where the front should be

Dictionary example:
You've got your trousers on back to front.

Learner example:
Therefore, the government needs to cut expenditure and as a result of this, health faciliti[es] will only be accessible for rich people. Then we are back to front.

behind sb's back
[C2] If you do something behind someone's back, you do it without them knowing, often in an unfair way.

Dictionary example:
Have they been saying things about me behind my back?

Learner example:
The food must be perfect, too, or else her mother-in-law and my father's sisters will think that she's not a proper wife, and will probably say insulting things about her behind her back.

turn your back on sb/sth
[C2] to decide to stop having contact with someone or something, or to refuse to help someone

Dictionary example:
She turned her back on Hollywood and went to live in Florida.

Learner example:
She gets to learn that Olivia turned her back on her past and merged totally with India through her attraction to and sympathy for the Nawab.

be (like) water off a duck's back
[C2] If criticisms, insults, etc. are like water off a duck's back to you, they do not affect you at all.

Dictionary example:
She calls him lazy and useless, but it's like water off a duck's back.

Learner example:
The main lesson I have learned is by looking at some people who have lived alone for most of their life and faced with neither contradiction nor argument, they stay in their ivory tower, so sure of their opinions that whatever you say is like water off a duck's back.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

back road/street
[C1] a very small road or street that goes behind or between buildings
Dictionary example:
We wandered through the back streets, looking for Tommy.

Learner example:
From the museum you have to walk across a pedestrian street, through an unspoiled district, where a jumble of narrow back streets retain old-world characters.

VERB

back (sth) away/into/out, etc.
[C2] to move backwards or drive backwards

Dictionary examples:
She saw he had a gun and backed away.
He backed into a wall when he was trying to park.

Learner example:
When he backed out of the [car park] he almost crashed into another car.

SUPPORT
[C2] [T] to give support or help to a person, plan, or idea

Dictionary examples:
He backed Mr Clark in the recent election.
Parents backed the idea by more than two to one.

Learner example:
Of course, without [the] people wh[o] are backing the leader in his fight, he could not achieve his success.

backache /ˈbæk.ərk/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] pain in your back

Dictionary example:
I had terrible backache last week.

Learner example:
I had a backache.

background /ˈbæk.graʊnd/

NOUN

EXPERIENCE
[B1] [C] a person's education, family and experience of life
Dictionary examples:
The school has pupils from many different ethnic/cultural/religious backgrounds. They come from a wealthy background.

Learner example:
You can learn a lot about our cultural background.

SOUND

[B2] [No plural] sounds that you can hear that are not the main sounds that you are listening to

Dictionary examples:
background music/noise
If you listen carefully to this piece of music, you can hear a flute in the background.

Learner example:
The exotic food together with oriental music in the background makes you dream of exotic places.

PICTURE

[B2] [C or u] the things that can be seen behind the main things or people in a picture

Dictionary examples:
gold stars on a black background
The artist himself did not paint the backgrounds to his pictures – they were done by his pupils. He has photographed her against lots of different backgrounds.

Learner example:
I think it would make the background of the picture colourful and interesting.

SITUATION

[B2] [U no plural] the situation that an event happens in, or things which have happened in the past which affect it

Dictionary examples:
These decisions have had to be taken against a background of high unemployment. Can you give me some background on the situation?

Learner example:
The background of the story is life in a small town in one of the southern states of the USA in the early 1930s.

in the background

[C2] If a person stays in the background, they try not to be noticed.

Dictionary example:
His father hovered in the background.

Learner example:
But Piggy plays this role in the background because he knows that he won't be accepted.
backing  /ˈbæk.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: backing
Verbs: back

NOUN [u]

[C2] support, especially money, for a person or plan

Dictionary examples:
financial backing
The proposal has the full backing of the government.

Learner example:
Take some examples throughout history, such as Napoleon, who was very intelligent, and Hitler who, despite being dangerous and evil, had the backing of his country when he spoke to the people.

backpack  /ˈbæk.pæk/

Word family:
Nouns: backpack, backpacker, backpacking

NOUN [c]

[B1] a bag that you carry on your back

Dictionary example:
I couldn't fit anything else in my backpack.

Learner example:
Travelling with a backpack is very handy.

backpacker  /ˈbæk.pæk.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: backpack, backpacker, backpacking

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone, especially a young person, who travels around an area without spending much money, carrying a backpack

Dictionary example:
The hostel is used mainly by backpackers.

Learner example:
There is a special offer for backpackers.
backpacking /ˈbæk.pæk.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: backpack, backpacker, backpacking

NOUN [u]
[B1] when you travel around an area without spending much money, carrying a backpack

Dictionary example:
I went backpacking when I was a student.

Learner example:
Until now I mainly spent my holidays backpacking through Europe.

backup (also back-up) /ˈbæk.ʌp/

NOUN

EXTRA HELP
[B2] [c or u] extra help, support or equipment which is available if you need it

Dictionary example:
Medical staff are on call to provide backup in case of an emergency.

Learner example:
I'm sure that most business people have battery back-up and a very good knowledge of when the laptop battery needs to recharge.

COPY
[B2] [c] a copy of information that is held on a computer, which is stored separately from the computer

Dictionary examples:
Before we leave work each day, we make a backup of all the records we have entered into the computer that day.
The department's backup disks are all stored in a different building.

Learner example:
Seems he had made a copy in a special file in a back-up memory.

backward /ˈbæk.əd/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] less developed or slower to develop than normal
Dictionary example:
a backward country

Learner example:
No longer a remote, backward, unimportant country, it became a force to be reckoned with in Europe.

backwards /ˈbæk.wadz/
ADVERB
[B1] towards the direction behind you

Dictionary examples:
I walked backwards towards the door.
He took a step backwards to allow her to pass.

Learner example:
Very often, for example on Friday afternoon or Saturday, there are so many people in a shopping centre that you can’t move forwards or backwards.

bacon /ˈbeɪ.kən/
NOUN [U]
[B1] meat from a pig cut into long thin slices

Dictionary examples:
a bacon sandwich
a slice of bacon bacon and eggs

Learner example:
I like bacon very much but I ever eat it.

bacteria /bækˈtra.ri.a/
NOUN [PLURAL]
[C1] very small living things that sometimes cause disease

Dictionary example:
The infection was caused by bacteria in the lung.

Learner example:
We were just lucky that during that period, the weather was cold and low temperatures prevented bacteria from spreading.
bad /bæd/

Word family:
- Adjectives: bad
- Adverbs: badly

ADJECTIVE (worse, worst)

SEVERE

[B1] very serious or severe

Dictionary examples:
- a bad injury
- the worst flooding for years

Learner example:
I can't go because I have to go to the hospital to see my grandmother who is in very bad health.

NOT LUCKY

[B1] not lucky, or not happening how you would like

Dictionary examples:
- It was just bad luck that she heard us.
- I'll call you later if this is a bad time for you.

Learner example:
Actually he had bad luck in his exam this time but he can try to do his best next time, can't he?

feel bad about sth/doing sth

[B1] to feel guilty or sorry about something that has happened

Dictionary example:
- I felt bad about letting her down.

Learner example:
- I don't have anything else which was yours, and I feel so bad about it.

too bad

[B1] used to say that you are sorry about a situation

Dictionary example:
- "He didn't get the job." "Oh, that's too bad."

Learner example:
- Too bad you couldn't be here.

EVIL

[B1] (of people or actions) evil or morally unacceptable

Dictionary examples:
- There are a lot of bad people in the world.
- He's got his faults but he's not a bad person.
Learner example:
On this day our God Ram killed a bad man Ravan who took Ram’s wife Sita.

NOT FRESH

[B2] Bad food is not fresh and cannot be eaten.

Dictionary example:
I think this milk is bad.

Learner example:
My surprise was when I opened the fridge and all the food smelt bad, so I couldn't eat [anything].

PAINFUL

[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] If you have a bad arm, leg, heart, etc., there is something wrong with it and it is painful.

Dictionary example:
I've got a bad shoulder.

Learner example:
I'm lugging [my laptop] with me everywhere, with a bad back as a result.

too bad

[C1] used to say that nothing can be done to change a situation

Dictionary example:
I know you don't want to go but it's too bad, we have to.

Learner example:
Human beings have to make their own liv[es] as good as possible, and if they [do] not succeed, the cynical approach is just: too bad!

---

badge /ˈbædʒ/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a piece of metal, plastic, etc., with words or a picture on it which you wear on your clothes

Dictionary example:
Everyone at the conference wore a badge with their name on.

Learner example:
Then I saw the badge he was wearing.
badly /ˈbæd.li/

Word family:

Adjectives: bad

Adverbs: badly

ADVERB (worse, worst)

UNPLEASANT

[B2] in an unpleasant way

Dictionary example:
I thought he was treated very badly.

Learner example:
In the past, zoos treated animals quite badly.

bad-tempered /ˌbædˈtemp.əd/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] describes a person who becomes angry and annoyed easily

Dictionary example:
She's very bad-tempered in the mornings!

Learner example:
It would be possible too that you lost your temper and became a bad-tempered man.

baggage /ˈbæg.ɪdʒ/

NOUN [u]

CASES

[B1] all the cases and bags that you take with you when you travel

Dictionary examples:
How many pieces of baggage do you have?
We had to pay extra for our excess baggage.

Learner example:
I [didn't have] much baggage, only one green suitcase.

FEELINGS

[C2] feelings and experiences from the past that influence how you think and behave now
Dictionary example: emotional baggage

Learner example:
Moreover they need to spend it to the best of their abilities trying to bring up a happy person whose behaviour will be in harmony with his thoughts and feelings and who will be unencumbered with emotional baggage resulting from lack of love.

baker /ˈbeɪ.kə/

Word family:
Nouns: baker, bakery
Verbs: bake

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who makes and sells bread, cakes, etc. A shop that sells bread and cakes is usually called a baker's.

Learner example:
My aunt, who is a baker, can certainly make a big delicious birthday cake for Anna.

bakery /ˈbeɪ.kə.ri/

Word family:
Nouns: baker, bakery
Verbs: bake

NOUN [C]
[B2] a place where bread, cakes, etc. are made or sold

Dictionary example:
I buy all our bread in the local bakery.

Learner example:
The best bakery was [on] the other side of town.

balance /ˈbæl.ˈnts/

Word family:
Nouns: balance
Verbs: balance
Adjectives: balanced, unbalanced
WEIGHT
[B2] [u] when the weight of someone or something is spread in such a way that they do not fall over

Dictionary examples:
I lost my balance and fell off the bike.
She had to hold onto the railings to keep her balance.

Learner example:
I began to go downstairs to the kitchen, [with] two hands on the wall to keep my balance.

EQUAL IMPORTANCE
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] when the correct amount of importance is given to each thing so that a situation is successful

Dictionary examples:
We must try to get a balance between police powers and the protection of citizens.
He was concerned that taking on three more men could upset the gender balance in the department.

Learner example:
It is not easy to find [the] right balance in our lives.

MONEY
[B2] [c] the amount of money that you still have to pay, or that you have left to use

Dictionary example:
I always pay off the balance on my credit card.

Learner example:
Sometimes you [are] surprise[d] when you check the balance of your bank account and then need to cut down your expenses for 2 months.

ON BALANCE
[B2] used to give your opinion after you have considered all the facts about something

Dictionary example:
On balance, I'd prefer to come straight home.

Learner example:
On balance, no matter how important or useful computers may be, they will never replace the pleasure of re-reading familiar pages of your favourite books.

STRIKE A BALANCE
[C1] to give two things the same amount of attention

Dictionary example:
It's important to strike a balance between spending and saving.
Learner example:
Everything has good and bad sides, the most important thing is to strike a balance.

be/hang in the balance
[C2] If something is or hangs in the balance, nobody knows if it will continue to exist in the future or what will happen to it.

Dictionary example:
After a bad year, Judd's career hung in the balance.

Learner example:
And because of him it was really very much in the balance if she would accept this job or not.

VERB

NOT FALLING
[B2] [I or T] to be in a position where you will not fall to either side, or to put something in this position

Dictionary examples:
She was trying to balance a book on her head.
The flamingoes balanced gracefully on one leg.

Learner example:
If you have to take many things with you, it will be better to carry them in your car, [rather] than balancing them on your bicycle.

EQUAL IMPORTANCE
[B2] [T] to give several things equal amounts of importance, time or money so that a situation is successful

Dictionary example:
I struggle to balance work and family commitments.

Learner example:
In life we need to balance all the areas included in human behavior.

balanced /ˈbæl.ənts/
Dictionary example:
If you have a balanced diet, you are getting all the vitamins you need.

Learner example:
It is very important to have a balanced diet.

FAIR
[B2] considering all the facts in a fair way

Dictionary example:
The news programme prided itself on its balanced reporting.

Learner example:
Your report contained several mistakes and it did not [give a] balanced view.

balcony /ˈbæl.kə.ni/

NOUN [C]

HOUSE ETC.
[B1] a small area joined to the wall outside an upper room where you can stand or sit

Dictionary example:
We had a drink out on the balcony and watched the sunset.

Learner example:
It’s got a balcony, too, from where I can see the river.

THEATRE
[C2] the seats in an upper area of a theatre

Dictionary example:
We had seats in the balcony.

Learner example:
The balcony seats reserved for students and young tourists felt like [they were] located on [a steep] cliff, looking down [on] all the heads in the better seats rather than [at] the stage.

bald /ˈbɔːld/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] with little or no hair on the head

Dictionary examples:
At twenty he was already going bald.
He has a bald patch.
Learner example:
Police Officers jumped out from the bushes and subdued the bald man, Lew Juan Yee.

ball /boːl/

NOUN [C] be on the ball INFORMAL
[C1] to be quick to understand and react to things

Dictionary example:
She’s over ninety, but she’s still on the ball.

Learner example:
When you’re at Sants station, you’ll need to be on the ball to find the tube.

set/start the ball rolling [C2] to begin an activity that involves a group of people

Dictionary example:
I’ve started the ball rolling by setting up a series of meetings.

ballet /ˈbæl.ər/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] (a theatrical work with) a type of dancing where carefully organized movements tell a story or express an idea

Dictionary examples:
a ballet dancer
Both children do ballet.

Learner example:
She is always making me laugh, and she likes ballet too!

ban /bæn/

VERB [T USUALLY PASSIVE] (−nn−)
[B2] to forbid something, especially officially

Dictionary examples:
The film was banned in several countries.
She was banned from driving for two years.
Learner example:
Personally, I think that driving private cars in the main parts of cities should be banned.

NOUN [C]
[B2] an official order that prevents something from happening

Dictionary example:
There should be a ban on talking loudly in cinemas.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>band</th>
<th>/bænd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

CIRCLE
[C2] [c] a piece of material put around something

Dictionary example:
an elastic band

Learner example:
The instructor took them up to the bridge and neatly tied them up to the enormous elastic band.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>bandage</th>
<th>/ˈbæn.dɪdʒ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a long piece of soft cloth that you tie around an injured part of the body

Dictionary example:
She had a bandage around her wrist.

Learner example:
The doctor said that in one week he would take off my bandage and as soon as possible I'll come to visit you.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>bandwagon</th>
<th>/ˈbændˌwæg.ən/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN

get/jump on the bandwagon
[C2] to become involved in an activity which is successful so that you can get the advantages of it yourself

Dictionary example:
Publishers are rushing to get on the digital downloads bandwagon.
Learner example:
Jane and Tiffany decided to jump on the bandwagon and started to take off their clothes.

bang /bæŋ/

VERB
[B2] [I or T] to make a sudden loud noise or to cause something to do this

Dictionary examples:
She banged her fist angrily on the table.
Outside a door was banging in the wind.
He could hear someone banging at the door.

Learner example:
One Friday afternoon I was putting away clothes and shoes in the little room which is under the stairs, when my little son, Tom (who was just eighteen months old) banged the door [shut] behind me.

NOUN [C]
[B2] a sudden loud noise

Dictionary example:
The window slammed shut with a loud bang.

Learner example:
I was reading when I suddenly heard a big bang.

bank /bæŋk/

Word family:
Nouns: bank, banker, banking

NOUN [C]

RIVER
[B2] sloping raised land, especially along the sides of a river

Dictionary examples:
By the time we reached the opposite bank, the boat was sinking fast.
These flowers generally grow on river banks and near streams.

Learner example:
One bank of the river is stony, the other is sandy.
bank account /ˈbæŋkəˌkaʊnt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] an arrangement with a bank to keep your money there and to allow you to take it out when you need to

Dictionary examples:
I've opened a bank account with a building society.
I paid the money into my bank account this morning.

Learner example:
The man, whose name I can’t remember, wrote a serious-looking message in which he [talked about] a money transfer to a Swiss bank account.

banker /ˈbæŋ.kər/

Word family:
Nouns: bank, banker, banking

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone with an important position in a bank

Dictionary example:
She was a successful banker by the time she was forty.

banking /ˈbæŋ.kɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: bank, banker, banking

NOUN [u]
[B2] the business of operating a bank

Dictionary example:
international banking

Learner example:
I want to specialize in finance and banking.

bankrupt /ˈbæŋk.rʌpt/
Dictionary example:
He went bankrupt after only a year in business.

Learner example:
But the greed for easy money is likely to diminish as many businesses have gone bankrupt these last few months.

bar /ˈbɑːr/
NOUN [C]

 BLOCK
[B1] a substance that has been made into a solid, rectangular shape

Dictionary examples:
a bar of soap
a chocolate bar

Learner example:
I think I've got the right present for your cousins. What do you think about a bar of chocolate from Switzerland?

 LONG PIECE
[B2] a straight stick made of metal

Dictionary example:
The gorilla rattled the bars of its cage.

Learner example:
When they looked into the lake, they saw a long bar of gold.

behind bars
[B2] in prison

Dictionary example:
He will spend the rest of his life behind bars.

Learner example:
In the darkness, Lew Kuan Yee had sworn revenge against Michael, the detective who had sent him behind bars.

 PREVENTING SUCCESS
[C2] something that prevents you doing something or having something

Dictionary example:
Lack of money should not be a bar to a good education.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, fashion could be felt as a bar to our own liberty since the maga[z]ines impose their views on the customers.
barbecue /ˈbaː.beri.kjuː/

VERB [r]

[B1] to cook food on a barbecue

Dictionary example:
Their traditional sausages are delicious grilled or barbecued.

---

barber /ˈbaː.ber/

NOUN [C]

[B1] someone whose job is to cut men's hair. The place where a barber works is usually called the barber's.

Dictionary example:
Dad goes to the barber's once a month.

Learner example:
My mother told me to go to the barber because I had my hair very long.

---

bare /beə/

ADJECTIVE

NO CLOTHES

[B2] not covered by clothes

Dictionary examples:
a bare chest
bare arms/feet/legs

Learner example:
Most people had more essential needs to satisfy than their looks, but there were also women who painted tight-patterns on their bare legs to create a bit of post-war glamour.

NOT COVERED

[B2] not covered by anything

Dictionary example:
There's no carpet in the room, just bare floorboards.

Learner example:
Mary must move to an unattractive site on the bare and wild moorland, called Jamaica Inn.
BASIC

[C2] ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN including only the smallest amount that you need of something

Dictionary examples:
The report just gave us the barest facts about the accident.
Tony's salary only covers the bare essentials for the family.
Staffing levels will be kept to a bare minimum this year.

Learner example:
Having passed the "prime" of their lives, many of them would be satisfied with the bare minimum as far as material things are concerned.

EMPTY

[C2] empty

Dictionary examples:
a bare room
The cupboard was bare.

Learner example:
Olivia decorates her "nest" with pictures, plugs and pale yellow sofas, according to the fashion in Europe, whereas the grand[daughter] is fully satisfied with a bare room.

with your bare hands

[C2] without using any type of tool or weapon when doing something that requires a lot of strength

Dictionary example:
He wrestled the lion to the ground with his bare hands.

Learner example:
You could tell your grand-children about the good old days when you hunted for mammoths and skinned them with your bare hands, just a few million years back (sigh: "seems like yesterday").

barely /ˈbeə.li/

ADVERB

[B2] only just

Dictionary examples:
They have barely enough to pay the rent this month.
She was barely fifteen when she won her first championship.

Learner example:
His father replied in a voice barely above a whisper.
bargain  /ˈbɑː.gɪn/

NOUN [C]

CHEAP
[B2] something that is on sale for less than its usual price or its real value

Dictionary examples:
This coat was half-price - a real bargain.
The airline regularly offers last-minute bookings at bargain prices.

Learner example:
And it was a real bargain.

into the bargain
[C2] as well as everything else

Dictionary example:
Caffeine has no good effects on health and is mildly addictive into the bargain.

Learner example:
The Open Air Museum is unique, with vast numbers of old houses; you can roam there for days and receive history lessons into the bargain.

bark  /bɑːk/

VERB

DOG
[B2] [I] If a dog barks, it makes loud, short sounds.

Dictionary example:
They heard a dog barking outside.

Learner example:
He barks whenever there is a stranger in our house.

SHOUT
[C2] [I or T] to say something loudly and quickly

Dictionary example:
I'm sorry, I had no right to bark at you like that.

Learner example:
She knew at once that Daniel, the boss, had returned. [...] As the day wore on and from her office she heard Daniel barking at everyone and anyone, she became more and more annoyed.
NOUN [u]

TREE

[C2] the hard, outside part of a tree

Dictionary example:
The bark of the birch tree is white.

Learner example:
By hitting the bark of trees or hollow pieces of wood rhythmically, prehistoric humans tended to communicate or entertain themselves.

barman /ˈbɑː.mən/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a man who serves drinks in a bar

Dictionary example:
I asked the barman for some ice in my drink.

Learner example:
I have seen an advertisement for a barman.

barn /bɑːn/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a large building on a farm where crops or animals can be kept

Dictionary example:
The machinery was kept in an old barn.

Learner example:
When she came to she was in a sort of barn, and to her horror she realised that her feet were encased in a lump of cement and her hands were firmly tied behind her back.

barrier /ˈbær.iər/
Learner example:
Only these people can open the barrier with their keys.

PREVENTING
[B2] something that prevents people from doing what they want to do

Dictionary examples:
Despite the language barrier, they soon became good friends.
Shyness is one of the biggest barriers to making friends.
We have to work at breaking down barriers between the two communities.

Learner example:
I think I could be good at this job because I could plan safety programmes in case of an emergency and the language barrier would not be a problem if a spectator or a sportsman ask[ed] me [for] information.

base /beɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: base, basics, basis
Adjectives: basic
Adverbs: basically

NOUN [C]

BOTTOM
[B2] the bottom part of something, or the part something rests on

Dictionary examples:
a crystal glass with a heavy base
At the base of the cliff was a rocky beach.

MILITARY
[B2] a place where people in the armed forces live

Dictionary examples:
an American Air Force base an old army/naval/military base

Learner example:
During the day you can visit all of our museums or schools or even the air force base, which is open from 9 o’clock.

MAIN PLACE
[C2] the main place where a person lives and works, or from where they do things

Dictionary examples:
I spend a lot of time in Dallas, but Chicago is still my base.
Nice is an excellent base for exploring the French Riviera.
Learner example:
It also has a function as a base for the fishing industry. Being located on the coast, our town’s key industry is fishing.

MAIN PART
[C2] the most important part of something, from which other things can develop

Dictionary example:
a solid economic base

Learner example:
Other organisations have assured us regular funds so that our project stands on a firm financial base.

VERB
be based at/in/etc.
[B2] to have a particular town or area, etc. as the main place where you live and work, or where you do business from

Dictionary example:
He was based in Birmingham during the war.

Learner example:
The shop is based in London.

basement /ˈbeɪs.mənt/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a room or set of rooms that is below ground level in a building

Dictionary example:
a basement flat

Learner example:
There is also a swimming pool in the basement.

basic /ˈbeɪ.sɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: base, basics, basis
Adjectives: basic Adverbs: basically
ADJECTIVE

MAIN
[B1] being the main or most important part of something

Dictionary examples:
basic ideas/principles
The basic problem is that they don't talk to each other enough.

Learner example:
He started to teach me the basic knowledge of nuclear physics.

NECESSARY
[B1] including or providing only the things that are most necessary

Dictionary examples:
basic services/skills/training
He only has a basic command of English.
The crisis has led to price rises in basic foodstuffs, such as meat, cheese and sugar.

Learner example:
You must take a pencil, rubber, ruler, pen... the basic things.

SIMPLE
[B1] very simple, with nothing special added

Dictionary example:
It's the most basic model.

Learner example:
The decoration was basic, but homely.

basically /ˈbeɪ.sɪk.li/

Word family:
Nouns: base, basics, basis
Adjectives: basic Adverbs: basically

ADVERB

SIMPLY
[B2] used to introduce a short explanation about something

Dictionary example:
Basically, what he's saying is that we need more time.

Learner example:
Basically, we spend half our leisure time being stuck to a screen and leading a so-called couch potato lifestyle.
MOSTLY
[C1] in the most important ways

Dictionary examples:
These two machines are basically the same, but you get a few extra features in the more expensive one.
The car's basically sound, but the paintwork needs a bit of attention.

Learner example:
Although they will offer some hot meals at any time, most of the food provided is basically fast food and snacks.

basics  /ˈbeɪ.sɪks/

Word family:
Nouns: base, basics, basis
Adjectives: basic
Adverbs: basically

NOUN [PLURAL]

the basics
[B2] the most important facts, skills, or needs

Dictionary example:
I really must learn the basics of first aid.

Learner example:
Last year, I chose to take groups on sailing and diving trips because I already knew the basics of sailing and diving.

basin  /ˈbeɪ.sən/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the bowl that is fixed to the wall in a bathroom, where you wash your hands and face

Dictionary example:
I've cleaned the basin and scrubbed the bath.

Learner example:
I think I forgot it upstairs in the bathroom on the basin.
basis /ˈbeɪ.sɪs/ (PLURAL bases)

Word family:
Nouns: base, basics, basis
Adjectives: basic
Adverbs: basically

NOUN [C]

on a daily/monthly/regular, etc. basis
[B2] how often something happens or is done

Dictionary example:
Meetings are held on a weekly basis.

Learner example:
In order for the transport facilities such as bus stops or underground stations to improve, policemen should be assigned to guard them and cleaners should be assigned to clean them on a daily basis.

METHOD
[B2] a way or method of doing something

Dictionary examples:
Most of our staff work for us on a voluntary basis.
I'm hoping she'll join us on a permanent basis.

Learner example:
On the other hand, the job advert is not very precise about the salary you can earn on a full-time basis.

REASON
[C1] the reason for something

Dictionary example:
There is no scientific basis for these claims.

Learner example:
I cannot imagine on what basis you estimated the figure.

on the basis of sth
[C1] having something as a reason

Dictionary example:
Marks are awarded on the basis of progress and performance.

Learner example:
On the basis of the points mentioned above, it is a foregone conclusion that young people do not face any severe problems.

DEVELOPMENT
[C1] a situation, fact, or idea from which something can develop
Dictionary example:
Dani’s essay can serve as a basis for our discussion.

Learner example:
As a basis for my proposals, I’ll use the programme you sent to me.

basket /ˈbɑː.skɪt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a container, usually with a handle, that is made of thin pieces of wood, wire, plastic, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a shopping/picnic basket
a laundry/clothes basket

Learner example:
As I approach[ed] the sound, I saw something that [wa]s moving inside a basket. It was a baby, crying [with] hunger.

bat /bæt/

NOUN [C]

ANIMAL
[B1] a small animal like a mouse with wings that flies at night

Dictionary example:
Bats were swooping through the night air.

Learner example:
A bat flew close to my left ear and far away I heard some strange sounds.

battery /ˈbæt.ə.r.i/

NOUN [C]

recharge your batteries
[C2] to have a period of rest and relaxation so that you feel energetic again

Dictionary example:
She took a trip to the south of France to recharge her batteries.
Learner example:
It is [a] very effective way in which we could rejuvenate ourselves and recharge our batteries in order to face the difficulties [o]f the daily routine.

battle /ˈbæt.ə/

NOUN

WAR

[B1] [C or U] a fight between armed forces in a war

Dictionary examples:
the Battle of the Somme
He was killed in battle.

Learner example:
But he died in a battle, so nobody knew where the treasure [was] hidden!

PROBLEMS / ILLNESS

[B2] [C] a fight against something that is very difficult, or that is hurting or destroying you

Dictionary example:
a long battle against cancer

Learner example:
His life was a hard battle, trying to break through.

ARGUMENT

[C2] [C] when two people or groups compete against each other or have an argument about something

Dictionary example:
a battle for control in the boardroom

Learner example:
A very important point is that there must always be a discussion between children and parents, which allows everyone to understand the different points of view and avoids a constant battle between the family members.

VERB [I or T]

[C2] to try very hard to do something difficult or to fight against someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Throughout the campaign, Johnson was battling against health problems.
They spent all of last year battling with housing officials.
Learner example:
Many countries are battling with environmental problems and certain tourists feel that it is perfectly acceptable to leave their litter behind them on beaches and other public places, after all in two or three weeks they can leave it all behind them.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>bay</th>
<th>/beɪ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN</td>
<td>[C]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>COAST</td>
<td>[B1] an area of coast where the land curves in</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dublin Bay</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>the Bay of Naples</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>It's also possible to hire a small yacht there and have a trip round the bay.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

keep/hold sth at bay
[C2] to prevent something unpleasant from coming near you or from happening

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>keep/hold sth at bay</th>
<th>/biːk/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN</td>
<td>[C]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] the hard part of a bird’s mouth</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>It carried a huge stick in its beak.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>It is an elegant bird, about 2 ft tall, with grey feathers, a black tail and a yellow beak.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>beam</th>
<th>/biːm/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN</td>
<td>[C]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] a line of light shining from something</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Dictionary example:
a laser beam

Learner example:
I was beginning to feel rather impa[t]ient when a door opened letting a beam of light come into the dark room.

bear /bɛə/

Word family:
Verbs: bear
Adjectives: unbearable

VERB (bore, borne)

ACCEPT
[B2] [ɪ] to accept someone or something unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
I like her but I can't bear her friends.
I can't bear being bored.
He couldn't bear to see the dog in pain.
How can you bear to talk to him?

Learner example:
And I'd like to stay in a log cabin because I can't bear sleeping in a tent.

bear (sb/sth) in mind
[B2] to remember to consider someone or something that may be useful in the future

Dictionary example:
Thank you for your advice, I'll bear it in mind.

Learner example:
It would be a great opportunity, bearing in mind that we are majoring in fashion journalism.

NAME
[C1] to have or show a particular name, picture, or symbol

Dictionary example:
The shop bore his family name.

Learner example:
He founded at least 17 cities bearing his name, as centres of art and culture.

bear left/right
[C1] to turn left or right
Dictionary example:
Bear right at the next set of traffic lights.

Learner example:
The taxi has to bear left at the fork and then you can see my house, 200 yards on the right side, it's a white house with the number 53.

bear a/no resemblance/relation, etc. to sb/sth
[C2] to be similar to someone or something

Dictionary example:
He bears a striking resemblance to his father.

Learner example:
The concert bore no resemblance to any other I have been to, firstly due to the location, and secondly thanks to the spontaneity, yet impressive precision of the performance – the two factors which created the unique atmosphere of the event.

bear a grudge
[C2] to continue to have a bad feeling towards someone

Dictionary example:
They were rude to her in the past, but she's not the kind of woman who bears grudges.

Learner example:
They take everything for granted and this leaves them completely unprepared for the harsh reality of life – not to mention that they are likely to bear a grudge.

HAVE CHILD
[C2] formal to give birth to a child

Dictionary example:
She has been told that she will never bear children.

Learner example:
Women can still bear children at the age of 30. In the past this was not possible because either the mother or the baby would have died.

bear fruit
[C2] If something that someone does bears fruit, it produces successful results.

Dictionary example:
Our decision is just beginning to bear fruit.

Learner example:
Although a new hotel and conference centre would greatly improve the image of our town, I consider it a costly investment that might not bear fruit.

grin and bear it
[C2] to accept an unpleasant or difficult situation because there is nothing you can do to improve it
Dictionary example:
I hate my job, but I'm just going to have to grin and bear it for a while.

Learner example:
As I couldn't simply get up and go away, I just had to grin and bear it for a little while longer.

beat /biːt/

VERB (beat, beaten)

DEFEAT
[B1] [ɪ] to defeat or do better than

Dictionary examples:
Simon always beats me at tennis.
Holland beat Belgium (by) 3–1.
The nationalists were narrowly beaten in the local election.
She has beaten her own record of three minutes ten seconds.

Learner example:
Sebastian beat me 6–2.

HEART
[B1] [aː] When your heart beats, it makes regular movements and sounds.

Dictionary example:
By the time the doctor had arrived, his heart had stopped beating.

Learner example:
My heart was beating like a bell and I was really excit[ed].

HIT
[B2] [ɪt] to hit a person or animal repeatedly

Dictionary examples:
They saw him beating his dog with a stick.
She was beaten to death.

Learner example:
He began to drink, and when he was drunk, he beat Kelly.

BETTER THAN
[C1] [ˈbetər] to be better than something

Dictionary example:
Being at the youth club beats sitting at home.

Learner example:
The sight of a child cured from an immobilizing disease running around laughing and dancing is pure happiness, nothing beats it.
FOOD
[C1] [ɪ] to mix food using hard, quick movements

Dictionary example:
Beat the egg whites until they are stiff.

beat about/around the bush
[C1] to avoid talking about something difficult or embarrassing

Dictionary example:
I decided to stop beating around the bush and told him exactly what I thought of him.

Learner example:
Well, let’s stop beating about the bush and get to the point.

SOUND
[C2] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to hit against something hard, making a continuous or regular sound

Dictionary examples:
soldiers beating drums
We could hear the pigeons beating their wings.
Rain beat against the windows.

Learner example:
The sound of the pelting rain beating against the slat[es] made the minutes last longer than ever and my cosy sofa looked so cold and small.

you can't beat sth
[C2] used to emphasize that something is best

Dictionary example:
You can't beat Pedro's for a great pizza.

Learner example:
You can't beat their "French cuisine" she usually said, when asked why didn't she change [the] place.

NOUN [C]

REGULAR SOUND
[B2] a regular movement or sound, especially that made by your heart

Dictionary examples:
I put my head on his chest but I could feel no heart beat.
My heart missed a beat when she said, "Yes, I'll marry you".

Learner example:
She started to exhale after a moment, counting the beats of her heart.

MUSIC
[B2] the main rhythm of a piece of music
Dictionary examples:
The guitar comes in on the third beat.
He tapped his foot to the beat of the music.

Learner example:
They play rock with a very good beat.

beautifully /ˈbjuː.tɪ.fəli/

Word family:
Nouns: beauty
Adjectives: beautiful
Adverbs: beautifully

ADVERB
[B1] in a way that is beautiful

Dictionary examples:
She dresses beautifully.
Their house is beautifully decorated.

Learner example:
My room is big and beautifully decor[ated].

beauty /ˈbjuː.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: beauty
Adjectives: beautiful
Adverbs: beautifully

NOUN [U]

BEING BEAUTIFUL
[B1] the quality of being beautiful

Dictionary example:
This is an area of outstanding natural beauty.

Learner example:
It's a very nice place and I wanted to record its beauty.

the beauty of sth
[C2] the quality that makes something especially good or attractive

Dictionary example:
The beauty of the plan is that it won't cost anything.
because of /bɪˈkɒz.əv/

PREPOSITION

[B1] as a result of

Dictionary example:
The train was delayed because of bad weather.

Learner example:
He always had row[s] with his parents because of his school results.

become /bɪˈkʌm/

VERB (became, become) what/whatever became of sb/sth

[C2] something you say when you want to know what has happened to someone

Dictionary example:
Whatever became of your friend Harry?

Learner example:
You might ask yourself: who is this girl in the room and what became of that friend of hers?

bed /bed/

NOUN

BOTTOM

[C2] [c] the ground at the bottom of the sea, a river, etc.

Dictionary example:
the sea bed

Learner example:
They landed upside down on a river bed and almost everyone was killed during the fall.

GROUND

[C2] [c] a piece of ground that is used for growing plants, especially flowers

Dictionary example:
a flower bed

Learner example:
Having lived in a small town in a cosy detached house with [a] flower bed in front and [an] enormous garden at the back, I was [as] happy as [I'd] ever [been].
bee /biː/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a yellow and black flying insect which makes honey and can sting you

Dictionary examples:
A swarm of bees flew into the garden.
I was stung by a bee.

Learner example:
Did you know that bees are endangered?

---

beef /biːf/

NOUN [u]

[B1] the meat of a cow

Dictionary example:
roast beef

Learner example:
They like eating beef, lamb and salad.

---

before /bɪˈfoː/

PREPOSITION

IN FRONT OF

[B1] in a position in front of someone or something

Dictionary example:
I've never performed this before an audience.

IN ORDER

[B1] in front of someone or something in an order or a list

Dictionary example:
The letter K comes before L in the English alphabet.

IMPORTANCE

[C2] treated as more important than someone or something

Dictionary example:
They always put the children's needs before their own.
Learner example:
She puts people with their needs before her own comfort, that is why she is successful.

CONJUNCTION

TO AVOID SOMETHING

[B1] in order to avoid something bad happening

Dictionary example:
Put that stick down before you hurt someone!

UNTIL

[B1] until (the event mentioned)

Dictionary example:
It took a few moments before I realized that he was joking.

before you know it

[C1] very soon

Dictionary example:
We'll be there before you know it.

Learner example:
It is a bit dark inside and especially in winter, it is dark before you know it.

ADVERB

long before

[C2] a long period of time before something

Dictionary example:
I was a vegetarian long before I met Sally.

Learner example:
The cups belonged to my family long before I was born and the fact they are [a] part of my family tradition makes them valuable in my eyes.

---

beg /beg/ (-gg-)

VERB [I or T]

STRONG REQUEST

[B2] to make a very strong and urgent request

Dictionary examples:
They begged for mercy.
"Please, please forgive me!" she begged (him).
He begged her to stay.
Learner example:
But before she left I begged her not to tell anybody.

VERY POOR
[B2] to ask someone for food or money, because you do not have any

Dictionary examples:
There are more and more homeless people begging on the streets these days.
She had to beg for money and food for her children.

Learner example:
He had [a] shabby coat, old shoes and he was begging for money.

\begin{center}
\textbf{begin} /\textipa{bɪˈgɪn}/
\end{center}

Word family:
Nouns: beginner, beginning
Verbs: begin

\textbf{VERB (beginning, began, begun)}

\textbf{begin with} \textit{sth}
[B1] to have something at the start

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
The word 'cat' begins with the letter 'c'.

\textbf{to begin with}
[B1] at the start of a situation

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
To begin with, the two girls got on well.

\textbf{Learner example:}
It wasn’t stunningly beautiful, but a bed and a bathroom is really all we need[ed] to begin with!

\textbf{to begin with}
[B2] used to give the first important reason for something

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
To begin with, we can’t afford to move.

\textbf{Learner example:}
To begin with, it doesn’t pollute and I think it's time we started thinking about [the] environment.
behalf /bɪˈhaːf/

NOUN

on behalf of sb or on sb's behalf

[B2] If you do something on behalf of someone, you do it for them or instead of them.

Dictionary examples:
On behalf of the entire company, I would like to thank you for all your work.
Unfortunately, George cannot be with us today so I am pleased to accept this award on his behalf.

Learner example:
I am writing on behalf of our college English club members to welcome you [to] our city.

behave /bɪˈheɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: behaviour
Verbs: behave, misbehave

VERB

IN A PARTICULAR WAY

[B1] [i] to do or say things in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
She always behaves badly at bedtime.
He's been behaving very strangely recently.
You behaved like an idiot!

Learner example:
As always, I'll behave like a gentleman.

BE POLITE

[B1] [i or ɪ] to be polite and not make a situation difficult

Dictionary example:
Did the children behave (themselves)?

Learner example:
Team sports can also help children to behave themselves.
behaviour /ˈbeɪ.hər.vjeɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: behaviour
Verbs: behave, misbehave

NOUN [u]
[B1] the way that you behave

Dictionary examples:
bad/good behaviour
Her behaviour was appalling.
Did you notice anything strange about his behaviour?

Learner example:
I was on the beach when my mobile phone rang. It was my boyfriend apologizing for his bad behaviour at the party we had had the night before.

behind /bəˈhaɪnd/

PREPOSITION

SLOWER
[B1] slower or less successful than someone or something

Dictionary examples:
The project is already behind schedule.
Arsenal are six points behind Manchester United with three matches still to play.

Learner example:
Secondly, the show did not start until 20:15 pm. That was almost one hour behind schedule.

SUPPORTING
[B1] giving your help or support to someone

Dictionary example:
The group is 100 percent behind her.

Learner example:
He is very nice because if you have problems he is always behind you to help you.

behind bars
[B2] in prison

Dictionary example:
He will spend the rest of his life behind bars.
Learner example:
In the darkness, Lew Kuan Yee had sworn revenge against Michael, the detective who had sent him behind bars.

CAUSING

[C1] causing something, or responsible for something

Dictionary example:
What was the reason behind her decision to leave?

Learner example:
Another reason behind this kind of thinking is that some boys feel awkward when they see girls and they think they are being ignored in the class.

NOT AFFECTING

[C2] If a bad experience or your own bad behaviour is behind you, it does not exist or affect your life now.

Dictionary example:
He’s put his criminal past behind him.

Learner example:
We have got to put the past behind us.

behind sb's back

[C2] If you do something behind someone's back, you do it without them knowing, often in an unfair way.

Dictionary example:
Have they been saying things about me behind my back?

Learner example:
The food must be perfect, too, or else her mother-in-law and my father’s sisters will think that she’s not a proper wife, and will probably say insulting things about her behind her back.

behind closed doors

[C2] privately and not in public

Dictionary example:
Most of the deals were done behind closed doors.

Learner example:
Decisions which affect the whole world are made behind closed doors and are top secret.

behind the scenes

[C2] If something happens behind the scenes, it happens secretly.

Dictionary example:
A lot of hard work has been going on behind the scenes.
Learner example:
Ms. Bolam knew a lot of things going on behind the scenes, [which were] not [known to] the patients.

ADVERB

BACK

[B1] at or to the back of someone or something

Dictionary example:
Somebody grabbed me from behind.

Learner example:
An old man appeared from behind wearing the same clothes [as] the owner of the phone and asked [her] for it.

PLACE

[B1] in the place where someone or something was before

Dictionary examples:
I was annoyed to discover that I'd left my bag behind.
After the party a few people stayed behind to help clear up.

Learner example:
The bus driver told him that a suitcase was left behind because nobody claimed it.

SLOWER

[C1] slower or later than someone else, or than you should be

Dictionary example:
She's behind with the rent.

Learner example:
Those children who do not get this at home are the ones who are behind in their schoolwork.

behind the times

[C1] not fashionable or modern

Dictionary example:
Dad's a bit behind the times.

Learner example:
We [should] improve our equipment. Otherwise we will be behind the times.

being ˈbiː.ɪŋ/

NOUN

come into being

[C2] to start to exist
Dictionary example:
The new law comes into being next month.

Learner example:
Only with knowledge of the written word were villages able to organise themselves in larger forms of government, leading from local to regional to national levels, [and] finally leading to transnational structures as they came into being mostly during the last 100 years.

belief /brˈliːf/

Word family:
Nouns: belief
Verbs: believe
Adjectives: unbelievable

NOUN

TRUE
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] when you believe that something is true or real

Dictionary examples:
a common/popular/widely-held belief
He called at her house in the belief that she would lend him the money.
It is my firm/strong belief that the public have a right to know.
She took this medicine in the mistaken belief that it would cure her.

Learner example:
At this time, tango was considered an immoral type of music; but Carlos Gardel changed this belief, [and] people from all over the world loved him.

IDEA
[B2] [C or U] an idea that you are certain is true

Dictionary example:
All non-violent religious and political beliefs should be respected equally.

Learner example:
We get to know the beliefs, superstitions or the principles of other religious denominations.

EFFECTIVE
[C2] [U NO PLURAL] the feeling that someone or something is effective or right

Dictionary example:
a belief in social justice

Learner example:
I'll try to give my children a feeling of security within themselves and a belief in themselves, so that they will be able to stand up [to] danger in society.
beyond belief
[C2] too bad, good, difficult, etc. to be real

Dictionary example:
The evil of this man is beyond belief.

Learner example:
I completely agree with the idea that homelessness in the third world is increasing to rates beyond belief.

believe /bɪˈliːv/

Word family:
Nouns: belief
Verbs: believe
Adjectives: unbelievable

VERB [T]
not believe your eyes/ears
[B1] to be very surprised when you see someone or something, or when you hear what someone says

Dictionary example:
I couldn't believe my ears when Dan said they were getting married.

Learner example:
Well, this church was extremely simple [o]n the outside, but when I got inside it, I couldn't believe my eyes.

believe it or not
[B1] used to say that something is true although it seems surprising

Dictionary example:
He even remembered my birthday, believe it or not.

Learner example:
First I visited the "Roman Bath" which is more than 2000 years old and, believe it or not, it still works!

bell /bel/

NOUN [C]
ELECTRICAL OBJECT
[B1] an electrical object that makes a ringing sound when you press a button
Dictionary example:
Please ring the bell for attention.

Learner example:
I was relaxing at home when suddenly the bell rang.

METAL OBJECT

[B2] a hollow, metal object, shaped like a cup, that makes a ringing sound when you hit it

Dictionary example:
the sound of church bells ringing

Learner example:
At the beginning I was very excited, living in an old house, not too far from the city (you could still hear the church bells chiming) but far enough away to live your own life without nosy neighbours.

ring a bell

[C2] If a word, especially a name, rings a bell, you think you have heard it before.

Dictionary example:
Shane Watson? That name rings a bell.

Learner example:
Its name is Laser – I suppose it rings a bell?

---

belong /bɪˈlɒŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: belongings
Verbs: belong

VERB [v]

RIGHT PLACE

[B2] If something belongs somewhere, that is the place it should be in.

Dictionary examples:
This table belongs in the sitting room.
These papers belong with the others.

Learner example:
I can understand people who say that animals belong in nature.

HAPPY SOMEWHERE

[B2] to feel happy or comfortable in a situation

Dictionary example:
I spent two years in Oxford but I never felt that I belonged there.
belongings /ˈbɪðəŋɪnz/

Word family:
Nouns: belongings
Verbs: belong

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B2] the things that a person owns, especially those which can be carried

Dictionary example:
I put a few personal belongings in a bag and left the house for the last time.

Learner example:
Five different kings have lived there with their families and it is possible to see several of their personal belongings.

below /ˈbɪələʊ/

ADVERB; PREPOSITION

LESS
[B1] less than a particular amount or level

Dictionary examples:
His marks in English have been below average for some time now.
The temperature has fallen below zero/freezing recently.

Learner example:
We have to learn that [it] is not natural for a lion [to be] living in a country where, in winter, [the] temperature can fall below zero.

RANK
[C2] lower in rank

Dictionary example:
Monica is a grade below me.

Learner example:
[With] him being only 37 years old and [having] been promoted to the second level below the board of directors of a well-known international company, he seems like a good example [of] a successful person, at least in this area of success.
belt /belt/

NOUN [c]

tighten your belt

[C2] to try to spend less money

Dictionary example:
Since I lost my job we've all had to tighten our belts.

Learner example:
All this costs money and where do we get this extra money from but from the tax payers, who once again have to tighten their belts.

bench /bentʃ/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a long seat for two or more people, usually made of wood or metal

Dictionary example:
a park bench

Learner example:
At 1 p.m. Paul was sitting on a bench and waiting for Julia.

bend /bend/

VERB [I or T] (bent, bent)

BODY

[B2] to move your body or part of your body so that it is not straight

Dictionary examples:
Bend your knees when lifting heavy objects.
She bent down to pick up the pen.
Now, bend forwards/over and touch your toes!

Learner example:
My friend was bending over the table laughing hysterically.

CURVE

[B2] to (cause to) curve

Dictionary examples:
The road bends to the left after the first set of traffic lights.
The trees were bending in the wind.

267
Learner example:
I saw fir trees bending in half and 500-year-old oaks shedding their leaves.

NOUN [C]

CURVED PART
[B2] a curved part of something

Dictionary examples:
There's a bend in the pipe so you can’t see from one end to the other.
There's a sharp bend in the road.

Learner example:
The other car disappeared around a sharp bend and when we came round it, we saw that the car had stopped in the middle of the road.

drive/send sb round the bend INFORMAL [C2] to make someone very angry, especially by continuing to do something annoying

Dictionary example:
This computer is driving me round the bend.

Learner example:
I could not work with a beginner as it would drive me round the bend if I was interrupted every few minutes and asked to elucidate to him/her something as easy as pie.

beneath /'bɛnið/ PREPOSITION

UNDER
[B2] under something, or in a lower position than something

Dictionary examples:
Jeremy hid the letter beneath a pile of papers.
After weeks at sea, it was wonderful to feel firm ground beneath our feet once more.

Learner example:
She could feel the train coming because the ground beneath her feet was moving.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH
[C2] If someone or something is beneath you, you think you are too important or from too high a social class to spend time on them.

Dictionary example:
He thinks housework is beneath him.
Learner example:
He hadn't realised how much he would miss the high-life until he was forced to watch all the rich and famous people come into the restaurant and look down [on] everything and everyone who was beneath them.

beneath your dignity
[C2] If it is beneath your dignity to do something, you think you are too important or from too high a class to do it.

Dictionary example:
She felt that it was beneath her dignity to wear a name badge.

Learner example:
He thought it was beneath his dignity to talk about his master's decisions and ideas.

beneficial /ˌben.əˈfɪʃ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: benefit
Verbs: benefit
Adjectives: beneficial

ADJECTIVE
[B2] helpful, useful or good

Dictionary examples:
The improvement in sales figures had a beneficial effect on the company as a whole.
Exercise is beneficial to almost everyone.

Learner example:
To sum up, team sports are beneficial to children so if the schools they attend do not have any, they should take up [something].

benefit /ˈben.ɪ.fɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: benefit
Verbs: benefit
Adjectives: beneficial

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] something that helps you or gives you an advantage

Dictionary examples:
The discovery of oil brought many benefits to the town.
One of the many benefits of foreign travel is learning how to cope with the unexpected.
He's had the benefit of an expensive education and yet he continues to work as a waiter.
Learner example:
Taking everything [into] account, the drawbacks far outweigh its benefits.

give sb the benefit of the doubt [C2] to choose to believe what someone tells you even though it may be wrong or a lie

Dictionary example:
She says her train was late, so I suppose we'd better give her the benefit of the doubt.

Learner example:
Every time our parents tell us ".. have you thought about it, are you sure you are not making a mistake?" we just answer "sure I have, no problem." Next time they do, let's give them the benefit of the doubt and let's think twice about the subject.

for sb's benefit
[C2] in order to help someone

Dictionary example:
We bought the piano for the children's benefit.

Learner example:
Needless to say, I hope you take [all this] into consideration not only for Gustavo's benefit, but also for the benefit of the astronaut training programme and the world.

VERB (−t−)
[B2] [I or T] to be helped by something or to help someone

Dictionary examples:
I feel that I have benefited greatly from her experience.
How can we benefit those who most need our help?

Learner example:
I am sure that the café would benefit a great deal from a non-smoking-area.

berry /ˈber.ɪ/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a small round fruit on particular plants and trees

Dictionary example:
I usually scatter a few berries on my muesli.

Learner example:
Every day we were swimming, fishing, picking mushroom[s] and berries, hunting and making fires to prepare food.
beside /ˈbɪˌsaɪd/

PREPOSITION

be beside yourself (with sth)
[C2] to experience a powerful emotion

Dictionary example:
He was beside himself with rage.

Learner example:
Spending one's spare time being beside oneself with anger scarcely ever makes holidays [enjoy]able.

beside the point
[C2] not important or not connected with what you are talking about

Dictionary example:
The fact that he doesn't want to come is beside the point – he should have been invited.

besides /ˈbɪˌsaɪdz/

PREPOSITION

[B1] in addition to something or someone

Dictionary example:
Do you play any other sports besides football and basketball?

Learner example:
It's a Chinese food buffet but besides Chinese food they also have Italian food like pizza.

ADVERB

EXTRA REASON
[B1] used to give another reason for something

Dictionary example:
She won't mind your being late – besides, it's hardly your fault.

Learner example:
I think that I'm going to buy "Troy" because it looks to me [to be] a great movie – besides, it reminds me of your vacations in Mexico.

IN ADDITION TO
[B1] in addition to

Dictionary example:
Besides looking after the children, she runs a successful business.
Learner example:
But besides playing, you can also sit in the "club lounge", where you can drink something with your friends or just play cards.

best /best/

ADJECTIVE

the next best thing
[C1] the thing that is best, if you cannot have or do the thing you really want

Dictionary example:
Coaching football is the next best thing to playing.

Learner example:
For many working people, there is hardly time to cook and prepare your dinner, so the next best thing is to rush into a Macdonalds' or Burger King.

your best bet
[C2] Someone’s best bet is the action most likely to be successful.

Dictionary example:
If you want to get to the theater on time, your best bet is to get a cab.

Learner example:
The international cuisine chef can whip up some delicious creations from time to time; but your best bet is to go for one of the delicious steaks served.

ADVERB

MOST SUITABLE
[B1] (superlative of well) in the most suitable or satisfactory way

Dictionary examples:
I sleep best with the window open.
The Grand Canyon is best seen at sunset when it seems to change colour.

Learner example:
It would be best if you came on Wednesday 27th.

know best
[C2] to be the most suitable person to have responsibility and make important decisions

Dictionary example:
When it comes to dealing with my own son, I think I know best.

Learner example:
How true is that expression "Father knows best". If my father [was alive] today he would probably be laughing his head off.
the best
[B1] someone or something that is better than any other

Dictionary examples:
I like all of Hitchcock's films, but I think 'Notorious' is the best.
Chris and I are the best of friends.

Learner example:
The trip was the best I have ever been [on] in my life.

at his/its, etc. best
[B1] at the highest level of achievement or quality

Dictionary example:
The article is an example of journalism at its best.

Learner example:
I enjoyed this trip because we got to stay in the countryside and [see] nature at its very best.

do/try your best
[B1] to make the greatest effort possible

Dictionary example:
I did my best to persuade him.

Learner example:
And the police said that they will try their best.

make the best of sth
[B2] to try to be positive about a situation you do not like but cannot change

Dictionary example:
Our hotel room is rather small, but we'll just have to make the best of it.

Learner example:
Unfortunately I don't have very much spare time so we will have to arrange it carefully in order to make the best of your time in London.

(have) the best of both worlds
[C1] to have the advantages of two different situations

Dictionary example:
Living in the country and working in the city you have the best of both worlds.

Learner example:
Only those that can afford to live in the suburban areas can combine the best of both worlds and they tend to be rather affluent.

at best
[C2] used to show that the most positive way of considering something is still not good
Dictionary example:
At best, only 50 per cent of babies born at 24 weeks will survive.

Learner example:
Then, due to the social standards, the old find themselves being abandoned and helpless. At best, such people are hospitalized.

for the best
[C2] If something is for the best, it seems unpleasant now, but will improve a situation in the future.

Dictionary example:
Divorce is always painful, but it really was for the best.

Learner example:
It’s a kind of sad thing to think about but maybe it’s for the best.

bring out the best in sb
[C2] to cause someone’s best qualities to show

Dictionary example:
This chance to work with young people has really brought out the best in him.

Learner example:
TV can be a baby-sitter, but such a relationship is not going to bring out the best in a child.

at the best of times
[C2] used to show that something is not good when it is the best it can be

Dictionary example:
He’s not exactly patient at the best of times.

Learner example:
They knew that even at the best of times he looked unpleasant but now he was of [a] completely different [appearance].

bestseller /ˌbestˈsel.ər/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a very popular book that many people have bought

Dictionary example:
His latest book is likely to be another bestseller.

Learner example:
Maybe your parents could bring me one of the newest bestsellers, which haven’t been translated [in]to Polish yet.
bet /bet/

VERB [I or T]

I bet (you)

[B1] INFORMAL something that you say to show that you believe that something is true or will happen

Dictionary examples:
I bet you she’s missed the bus.
I bet that he won’t come.

Learner example:
The movie is amazing. I bet you’ll see it soon.

[C1] I to risk money on the result of a game, competition, etc.

Dictionary examples:
He lost all his money betting on horses.
I bet him a dollar that I was right.

Learner example:
The game lost its innocence long before 1985 when players were betting on the result of their own game.

NOUN [C]

RISK

[C2] I when you risk money on the result of a game, competition, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She won her bet.
He put a bet on Manchester United winning on Saturday.

Learner example:
A couple of betting shops attract many people, mostly men, who often come in a hurry to place a bet, some of them in their working uniform with a large apron.

your best bet

[C2] the best decision or choice

Dictionary example:
Your best bet in terms of value would be the Regent Hotel.

Learner example:
The international cuisine chef can whip up some delicious creations from time to time; but your best bet is to go for one of the delicious steaks served [there].

a safe bet

[C2] something that you are certain will happen
Dictionary example:
Wheeler is a safe bet for a place on the team.

Learner example:
Automatically, we think that black is a safe bet for any occasion.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>betray /brˈtreɪ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>V E R B [T]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] to behave in a dishonest or cruel way to someone who trusts you</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
She felt betrayed by her mother’s lack of support.
He promised never to betray her.

Learner example:
He couldn't believe that his best friend had betrayed him.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>better /ˈbet.ər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A D V E R B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>know better</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] to have enough experience not to do something stupid or something that will not achieve anything</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
I thought she'd listen to me – I should have known better.

Learner example:
Surely two grown-ups should have known better than to shout at each other at the top of their lungs.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>between /brˈtwiːn/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>P R E P O S I T I O N</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SHARE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] among two or more people or things</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
We drank two bottles of wine between four of us.

Learner example:
I think you’ll have to discuss the ideas between you.
ADVERB

SPACE
[C1] in the space that separates two people, places, or things

Dictionary example:
The wood is in neat piles with newspaper placed between.

Learner example:
There is a shuttle bus from the airport straight to the main station with only one stop in between.

TIME
[C1] in the period of time that separates two events or times

Dictionary example:
There's a train at 6.15 and one at 10.30 but nothing in between.

Learner example:
Besides, there is research that prove[s] that people cannot work for more than two hours [at a time]. They can't concentrate that long [and] they need to rest their minds for short periods in between.

beware /biˈweər/

VERB [i]
[C1] used in order to warn someone to be careful

Dictionary examples:
Beware of the dog.
You should beware of spending too long in the sun.

Learner example:
Although it's fun to surf, beware of the danger...

beyond /biˈjɒnd/

PREPOSITION

DISTANCE
[B2] on the other side of something

Dictionary example:
In the distance, beyond the river, was a small town.

Learner example:
Suddenly she recognized something red, beyond a tree and covered with some leaves.
TIME
[B2] continuing after a particular time or date

Dictionary examples:
Few people live beyond the age of a hundred.
We cannot allow the work to continue beyond the end of the year.

Learner example:
You should take a [break] every two hours because, beyond two hours, your mind cannot record what you are learning.

beyond my/our, etc. control
[B2] not able to be changed by me/us, etc.

Dictionary example:
Tonight's performance has been cancelled due to circumstances beyond our control.

Learner example:
This is a story about an event that turned out to be beyond my control.

ININVOLVING OTHERS
[C1] involving or affecting other things or people than the ones you have talked about

Dictionary example:
You should try to develop interests beyond the family.

Learner example:
Of course, the process of women['s] liberation isn't viewed with enthusiasm by husbands who would have to wash up and cook if their wives wanted to develop women interests beyond their family circle.

NOT UNDERSTAND
[C1] informal If something is beyond you, you cannot understand it.

Dictionary examples:
Computer studies is completely beyond me.
It's beyond me why anyone would want to buy that house.

Learner example:
Lastly, touching upon the subject of the money, how you get the figure of 60% is beyond me, as I have a clear chart of the charity day results.

beyond belief
[C2] too bad, good, difficult, etc. to be real

Dictionary example:
The evil of this man is beyond belief.

Learner example:
It was a piece of luck beyond belief that we could swap our apartments for the six months to come.
beyond dispute
[C2] certain or certainly

Dictionary examples:
Her skill is beyond dispute.
He is beyond dispute the finest actor in Hollywood today.

Learner example:
It is beyond dispute that we owe a lot to the wise scientists who discovered 'electro-magnetism'.

beyond your wildest dreams
[C2] bigger or better than anything you could imagine or hope for

Dictionary example:
The house was beyond my wildest dreams.

Learner example:
[It] was beyond my wildest dreams.

beyond (sb's) reach [C2] not possible for someone to have

Dictionary example:
With all this money we can buy things previously beyond our reach.

Learner example:
She was always yearning for things beyond her reach.

ADVERB

PLACE
[C1] past a place

Dictionary example:
From the top of the hill we could see our house and the woods beyond.

Learner example:
The airport–bus will take you to the centre of Ostersund where I live and even beyond.

TIME
[C2] continuing after a particular time or date

Dictionary example:
The strike looks set to continue into March and beyond.

Learner example:
The fact of living longer allow[s] people to share part of their lives with their children, their grandchildren and sometimes even one generation beyond.
bias /ˈbaɪ.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: bias
Adjectives: biased, unbiased

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when you support or oppose someone or something in an unfair way because you are influenced by your personal opinions

Dictionary examples:
a bias towards/against private education
The news channel has been accused of bias in favour of the government.

Learner example:
It is necessary to get rid of all our previous bias when we go to a foreign country, to achieve a better understanding of the local culture.

biased /ˈbaɪ.əst/

Word family:
Nouns: bias
Adjectives: biased, unbiased

ADJECTIVE
[C1] showing unfair support for or opposition to someone or something because of your personal opinions

Dictionary example:
to be biased against/towards younger workers

Learner example:
Maybe it is not an original idea, but I must admit my choice was a little bit biased, since I am reading a book about this era at the moment.

bid /bid/

NOUN [c]

OFFER
[C1] an offer to do something when you are competing with other people to do it

Dictionary examples:
We put in a bid for the stadium contract.
London made a successful bid to host the Olympic Games.
Learner example:
I do not believe Beijing would have won the bid for [the] 2008 Olympic Games.

ATTEMPT

[C2] an attempt to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
a successful bid for re-election
The council has banned cars from the city centre in a bid to reduce pollution.

Learner example:
In a bid to conceal my bewilderment, I greeted her and set about cleaning the house.

BUY

[C2] an offer to pay a particular amount of money for something

Dictionary example:
I made a bid of $150 for the painting.

VERB (bidding, bid)

[C2] to offer to pay an amount of money for something

Dictionary example:
They bid $500 million for the company.

Learner example:
As a Tea Company chairman, he buys his tea in Calcutta or Colombo, and generally bids at the right price.

---

big /bɪg/

ADJECTIVE (bigger, biggest)

SUCCESSFUL

[C1] INFORMAL successful or popular

Dictionary example:
The programme's been a big hit with young children.

Learner example:
Of course, the many traditional craft stalls were a big hit also, and there were hardly any [things] left!

in a big way INFORMAL

[C2] used to say that someone or something does something to a large degree

Dictionary example:
They celebrate birthdays in a big way.
Learner example:
Tourism helps Greece's national economy – which is not at its best – in a big way.

bike /bɪk/
NOUN [C]
MOTORCYCLE
[B1] INFORMAL a motorcycle

Dictionary example:
He came on his bike.

bikini /bɪˈkiː.ni/
NOUN [C]
[B2] a piece of clothing with two parts that women wear for swimming

Dictionary example:
I packed my bikini for the beach.

Learner example:
Thelma was right: her bikini was really too big for her.

bilingual /baɪˈlɪŋ.wɪl/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] using or able to speak two languages

Dictionary examples:
a bilingual dictionary
She's bilingual.

Learner example:
The staff also seem reluctant to help travellers with their children and it would help if the staff were bilingual.

billion /ˈbɪl.jən/
NOUN [C]
[B2] the number 1 000 000 000
Dictionary example:
Cosmetics is a billion dollar industry.

Learner example:
There she was, 70m above the sea with a crazy man with a gun behind her and billions of thoughts in her head.

bin  /bin/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a container for waste

Dictionary examples:
a litter bin
a rubbish bin
The supermarket has installed recycling bins for old newspapers, bottles and cans.
Do you want this or shall I throw it in the bin?

Learner example:
On the other hand more bins ought to be put in the centre and people [should be] encouraged to separate their rubbish more carefully.

bind  /baɪnd/

VERB [T] (bound)

TIE
[C2] to tie something together with string, rope, etc.

Dictionary example:
His hands were bound behind his back.

Learner example:
Take this rope and bind yourselves together, so as not to lose someone.

UNITE
[C2] to unite people

Dictionary example:
Culture and language bind people together.

Learner example:
And even if people mostly cheer for athletes from their own country, it can be seen as a safe outlet for nationalist feelings, that bind a country together without turning to racism, for example.
biography /ˈbaɪ.əˌɡrə.fɪ/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the life story of a person written by someone else

Dictionary example:
He wrote a biography of Winston Churchill.

Learner example:
I found Orwell's biography so I bought it.

biological /ˌbaɪ.əˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: biology
Adjectives: biological

ADJECTIVE
[B2] connected with the natural processes of living things

Dictionary example:
the biological sciences

Learner example:
Paul always knew that the Watsons weren't his biological parents.

birth /bɜːθ/

NOUN

BABY
[B1] [ɔr u] the time when a baby is born

Dictionary examples:
He weighed four kilos at birth.
What's your date of birth?
The application form will ask for your place of birth.

Learner example:
It begins with the birth of his sister Margana and ends with his death.

give birth
[B2] When a woman or an animal gives birth, she produces a baby from her body.

Dictionary example:
She gave birth to twins.
Learner example:
The most important person in my life is the person who gave birth to me, my mother.

American/Italian, etc. by birth
[B2] born in a particular place or having parents with a particular nationality

Dictionary example:
I grew up in Paris, but I'm Italian by birth.

Learner example:
I am an eighteen year old college student and I am Portuguese by birth.

BEGINNING
[C1] [u] LITERARY the beginning of something

Dictionary example:
the birth of modern science

Learner example:
Pericles was the man who achieved the birth of democracy.

bit /bɪt/

NOUN [c]

quite a bit
[B1] INFORMAL a lot

Dictionary examples:
He does quite a bit of travelling.
She's quite a bit older than him.

Learner example:
We spent quite a bit of time [going] along the beach.

a bit
[B2] INFORMAL a short period of time

Dictionary examples:
I'll see you in a bit.
I'm just going out for a bit. See you later.

Learner example:
I had my breakfast, I went to buy the newspaper and then I came back to my house to rest [for] a bit.

a bit of a change/fool/problem, etc.
[C1] a change, fool, problem, etc., but not an important or serious one
Dictionary examples:
I am a bit of a romantic.
It was a bit of a shock.

Learner example:
I'm a bit of a computer maniac, so I've always wanted to experience the making of computer programmes.

bit by bit
[C1] gradually

Dictionary example:
She saved up the money, bit by bit.

Learner example:
This film is full of tension as the truth is only revealed bit by bit.

bits and pieces
[C2] small things or jobs which are not connected or not very important

Dictionary example:
We've packed most of it up now, there are just a few bits and pieces left.

Learner example:
So, it's memories that make us keep odd bits and pieces.

bite /baɪt/

VERB (bit, bitten)
[B1] [I or T] to cut something using your teeth

Dictionary examples:
He bit into the apple.
I was bitten on the leg by a dog.

Learner example:
A snake bit me [o]n my leg, but that's ok.

NOUN [C]

FOOD
[B2] a piece taken from food when you bite it

Dictionary example:
She took a bite from her pizza.

Learner example:
When Alice [took] a bite out of the cake, something hard touched her teeth.
INJURY
[B2] an injury caused when an animal or insect bites you

Dictionary example:
mosquito bites

Learner example:
As far as your question about our sleeping is concerned, I wouldn’t mind either staying in rooms or tents, but since you ask me to express my preference, I would suggest staying in rooms, in order to avoid insect bites.

a bite (to eat)
[C2] a small meal

Dictionary examples:
I just want to grab a bite to eat.
I had a bite at Laura's house.

Learner example:
It all went smoothly until 2 o'clock when they stopped for a break and a bite to eat.

bitter /ˈbɪtər/ ADJECTIVE

TASTE
[B1] with an unpleasantly sharp taste

Dictionary example:
a bitter flavour/taste

Learner example:
And due to these bizarre situations I went through as a little boy, everything related to shopping seems like a bitter liquid which I'm forced to drink.

ANGRY
[B2] angry and upset because of something bad that has happened that you cannot forget

Dictionary examples:
I feel very bitter about my childhood and the way I was treated.
She'd suffered terribly over the years but it hadn't made her bitter.

Learner example:
What can be more real that when your lover is gone or taken away your own soul is also alone, bitter and dark and there is nothing else than feelings of revenge, anger, frustration and sadness?
HATE
[B2] full of hate or anger

Dictionary example:
a bitter argument/dispute

Learner example:
Every time they met, a bitter feeling of hate[d] bloomed in her throat.

DISAPPOINTED
[B2] making you feel very disappointed

Dictionary examples:
Failing the final exams was a bitter disappointment for me.
She learnt through bitter experience that he was not to be trusted.

Learner example:
Now, I've already recovered from this bitter experience.

COLD
[B2] extremely cold

Dictionary example:
a bitter wind

to/till/until the bitter end
[C2] If you do something to/till/until the bitter end, you continue it until it is finished, although it is difficult and takes a long time.

Dictionary example:
I was determined to go on until the bitter end.

Learner example:
We are willing to talk and find alternatives to the situation, but we are also ready to fight till the bitter end to stand for our rights.

bizarre /ˈbɪzər/ ADJECTIVE
[B2] very strange and unusual

Dictionary examples:
a bizarre situation
bizarre behaviour

Learner example:
Things are sometimes quite bizarre, aren't they?
blackmail  /ˈblæk.meɪl/

NOUN [u]

[C2] when someone forces you to do something or to pay them money, by saying they will tell another person something that you want to keep secret

Dictionary example:
She was charged with blackmail.

Learner example:
She knows exactly how to handle him, seducing him, accusing him of ingratitude or using emotional blackmail.

VERB [T]

[C2] to force someone to do something by using blackmail

Dictionary example:
They used the photographs to blackmail her into spying for them.

Learner example:
It's all over, but she is blackmailing me.

blade  /bleɪd/

NOUN [c]

[B2] the flat part on a knife or similar tool or weapon, with a very thin edge used for cutting

Dictionary example:
a sword with a steel blade

Learner example:
Suddenly she felt the blade on her neck and she screamed in panic.

blame  /bleɪm/

VERB [T]

[RB1] to say or think that someone or something is responsible for something bad which has happened
Dictionary examples:
Don't blame me if you miss the bus!
Many people blame him for Tony's death.
Hugh blames his lack of confidence on his mother.
You can't really blame Helen for not wanting to get involved.

Learner example:
She thought that I would blame her so she decided to write me a letter.

be to blame
[C1] to be responsible for something bad which has happened

Dictionary example:
Poor housing is to blame for many of their health problems.

I don't blame him/them/you, etc.
[C2] used to say that you understand and accept the reason for what someone is doing

Dictionary example:
"I think I'll go home early." "I don't blame you – you look really tired."

NOUN [u]
[B2] when people say or think that someone or something is responsible for something bad

Dictionary examples:
The manager should take the blame for the team's defeat.
They put the blame on faulty equipment.
His employers have accepted blame for the accident.

Learner example:
She thought that I would blame her so she decided to write me a letter.

bland /blænd/

ADJECTIVE

NO TASTE
[C2] If food is bland, it does not have much taste.

Dictionary example:
The soup was a bit bland.

Learner example:
In the evenings they usually attended boring dinner parties, where bland, soggy food was served, and the other guests were at least 20 years older than her and rather snobbish and stiff.
BORING
[C2] not interesting or exciting

Dictionary example:
bland statements

Learner example:
Peeping through the viewer she focused her gaze on the bland face of the man outside.

blank /blæŋk/

ADJECTIVE

EMPTY
[B1] empty or clear, or containing no information or mark

Dictionary examples:
a blank sheet of paper
a blank page
a blank tape/computer screen
Sign your name in the blank space at the bottom of the form.

Learner example:
We must bring a pencil and blank paper.

go blank
[B2] If your mind goes blank, you suddenly cannot remember or think of something.

Dictionary example:
When she asked me his name, my mind just went blank.

Learner example:
My mind went blank, I couldn’t utter a word.

NO FEELING
[C2] showing no feeling or understanding

Dictionary example:
a blank expression

Learner example:
The old woman froze, her blank gaze staring in Leila’s direction.
blanket  /ˈblæŋ.kɪt/

NOUN [C]

LAYER

[C2] a thick layer of something

Dictionary example:
a blanket of cloud/snow

Learner example:
I do remember it rained heavily and the sky was covered with a blanket of grey.

---

bleak  /bliːk/

ADJECTIVE

NO HOPE

[C2] If a situation is bleak, there is little or no hope for the future.

Dictionary example:
The future is looking bleak for small businesses struggling with debts.

Learner example:
This may seem like a very bleak future for many young people today.

COLD

[C2] If a place is bleak, it is cold, empty and not attractive.

Dictionary example:
a bleak landscape

Learner example:
They lack basic training and experience and thus often get lost or hurt in bleak and isolated areas, giving the mountain rescue teams a hard time.

---

bleed  /bliːd/

Word family:
Nouns: blood
Verbs: bleed
Adjectives: bloody

VERB [i] (bled, bled)

[B1] to lose blood
Dictionary examples:
Your arm is bleeding.
He was bleeding heavily.

Learner example:
When I arrived, he was on the ground bleeding and with his arm broke[n].

blend /blend/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a combination of two or more things

Dictionary example:
Their music is a blend of jazz and African rhythms.

Learner example:
I suppose this is a blend of entertainment and the darker sides of human nature, like envy or curiosity.

blind /blaɪnd/

Word family:
Nouns: blindness
Adjectives: blind

ADJECTIVE

NO SIGHT
[B1] not able to see

Dictionary examples:
She's been blind since birth.
He started to go blind in his sixties.

Learner example:
She told him she was blind and she couldn't find her dog.

turn a blind eye (to sth)
[C1] to choose to ignore something that you know is wrong or illegal

Dictionary example:
Restaurant staff often took food home, and their boss turned a blind eye.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, we can't turn a blind eye to this reality.

be blind to sth
[C2] to not notice something, or not want to notice something
Dictionary example:
Drivers who speed are often blind to the risks they cause.

Learner example:
Not only is she completely oblivious of his inner feelings and thoughts, but she also seems to be blind to what is going on around her.

NOUN

the blind
[C1] people who are blind

Dictionary example:
He went to a school for the blind.

Learner example:
I write from 'Helpers', an Uruguayan Enterprise specialized in selling products for both the blind and the mute, and whose offerings your Company in Britain is interested in selling.

blindness  /ˈblaɪnd.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: blindness
Adjectives: blind

NOUN [u]

NOT SEEING
[C1] the state of being blind

Dictionary example:
In its later stages the disease causes blindness.

Learner example:
Apart from his blindness, his health has worsened in general.

NOT NOTICING
[C2] the state of not noticing something, or not wanting to notice or understand it

Dictionary example:
My blindness to what was happening led me to make a bad decision.

Learner example:
His mother and Mister Hooper, with their blindness and insensitivity, do not see what is going on between the two boys.
blink  /ˈblɪŋk/

VERB

EYES

[B2] [I or T] to open and close both of your eyes quickly

Dictionary example:
You've got something in your eye – try blinking a few times.

Learner example:
Her eyes were blinking as she was looking at the bright sunlight outside the window.

NOUN

in the blink of an eye

[C2] extremely quickly

Dictionary example:
In the blink of an eye, he was gone.

Learner example:
And for all those who keep nagging about losing their favourite regular programmes during such an event, be patient: TV routine will be back into your living rooms in the blink of an eye.

blist er  /ˈblɪstər/

NOUN [C]

[C2] a painful, raised area of skin with liquid inside, that you get if your skin has been rubbed or burned, or a similar area on a painted surface

Dictionary example:
I've got a blister on my toe.

Learner example:
Some people weren't really walking any more. The blisters and aching muscles gave them too much stress.

block  /blɒk/

NOUN [C]

BUILDING

[B1] a large building containing many apartments or offices
Dictionary example:
a block of flats

Learner example:
I drove to a block of flats.

DISTANCE
[B1] the distance along a street from where one road crosses it to the place where the next road crosses it, or one part of a street like this, especially in a town or city

Dictionary examples:
The museum is just six blocks away.
My friend and I live on the same block.

Learner example:
I’d have liked to go to the one which is four blocks away but the other guys didn’t want to.

PIECE
[B2] a solid piece of hard material, usually in the shape of a square or rectangle

Dictionary example:
a block of ice/stone/wood

Learner example:
It is like an enormous block of stone!

STOP PROGRESS
[C2] something that makes it difficult to move or make progress

Dictionary examples:
His personality is a major block to reaching an agreement.
Lack of money has been the main stumbling block.

Learner example:
Very often students are asked to present a certain subject, but the main stumbling block is that they are not given the knowledge of how to do it properly.

VERB [T]

PREVENT MOVEMENT
[B2] to prevent movement through something

Dictionary example:
A fallen tree is blocking the road.

Learner example:
It took over three hours because there was a car accident and the street was blocked for two hours.
CANNOT SEE
[C1] to be between someone and the thing they are looking at, so that they cannot see

Dictionary example:
A pillar was blocking my view.

Learner example:
You cannot have a panoramic view [of] the mountains [any more] because buildings block it and [the] people in the nearby village think only of profit.

STOP PROGRESS
[C2] to stop something from happening or making progress

Dictionary example:
The council has blocked plans for a new supermarket.

---

blog /ˈblɒɡ/

Word family:
Nouns: blog, blogger
Verbs: blog

NOUN [c]
[B1] a record of your activities or opinions that you put on the Internet for other people to read and that you change regularly

Dictionary example:
There are two or three blogs that I read on a daily basis.

VERB [I]
[B1] to write or add material to a blog

Dictionary example:
He blogs about living with the disease.

---

blogger /ˈblɒɡ.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: blog, blogger
Verbs: blog

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who writes a blog

Dictionary example:
Bloggers everywhere are commenting on the issue.
blood /blʌd/

Word family:

Nouns: blood

Verbs: bleed

Adjectives: bloody

Noun [u]

new blood

[C1] new people in an organization who will provide new ideas and energy

Dictionary example:
We need some new blood in the organization.

Learner example:
It will give new opportunities to new generations and thus will [provide] new blood in the different organisations.

in cold blood

[C2] in a cruel way, without showing any emotion

Dictionary example:
He shot three policemen in cold blood.

Learner example:
Returning to the story, when I arrived, I went directly to Hillton Avenue where I should have met 005, but when I arrived at the meeting point I found him lying on the floor with two shots in his back; he had been murdered in cold blood.

FAMILY ORIGIN

[C2] the family or place that you come from

Dictionary example:
I've got some Spanish blood in me.

Learner example:
I have a background in my blood which, I believe, explains my way of thinking: my mother is Dutch and my father is half from Alsace, half from Hungary.

make your blood run cold

[C2] If something makes your blood run cold, it frightens you very much.

Dictionary example:
I heard a tapping on the window which made my blood run cold.

Learner example:
This thought scared me and made my blood run cold.

make your blood boil

[C2] to make you extremely angry
Dictionary example:
The way they have treated those people makes my blood boil.

Learner example:
Paul said something repulsive, with a cold light in his eyes, and it made her blood boil.

your own flesh and blood
[C2] a member of your family

Dictionary example:
I can’t hate him – he’s my own flesh and blood.

Learner example:
On the other hand, another problem old people have to face is a feeling of [not] being useful to society and what proves this is that they are put into old people's homes even by their own flesh and blood.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>bloody /ˈblʌd.i/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: blood
Verbs: bleed
Adjectives: bloody

ADJECTIVE

COVERED IN BLOOD
[B2] covered in blood

Dictionary example:
a bloody nose

Learner example:
The police found a bloody knife [under] his pillow.

VIOLENT
[C1] violent and involving a lot of blood and injuries

Dictionary example:
a bloody war

Learner example:
About 50,000 Romans died during this bloody battle, including the famous Roman Commander Varus.

ANGER
[C2] I used to express anger or to emphasize what you are saying in a slightly rude way
Dictionary example:
I can't find my bloody keys!

Learner example:
'Rachel? Start the car!' the trench coat ordered. 'What?' 'Start the bloody car!'

blow /bləʊ/

VERB (blew, blown)

WIND
[B1] [ɪ] If the wind blows, it moves and makes currents of air.

Dictionary example:
The wind was blowing harder every minute.

Learner example:
Sometimes a cool wind blows, [and] Bodrum is like heaven with many handsome boys, different kinds of shops, fresh air and clear sea.

PERSON
[B1] [ɪ] to force air out through your mouth

Dictionary example:
She blew on her coffee before taking a sip.

blow your nose
[B1] to clear your nose by forcing air through it into a piece of paper or cloth

Dictionary example:
He blew his nose loudly.

SOUND
[C2] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to make a sound by forcing air out of your mouth and through an instrument

Dictionary examples:
Ann blew a few notes on the trumpet.
We were all waiting for the referee to blow his whistle.

Learner example:
I had never played an instrument before, but when I put the flute to my mouth and blew, it was as though I had played it all my life and that it had always been mine.

blow it/your chance(s) INFORMAL
[C2] If you blow it or blow your chance, you lose an opportunity to do something by doing or saying the wrong thing.
Dictionary examples:
I blew it when I criticized the way she ran the office.
Tom blew his chances of getting the job by arriving late for the interview.

Learner example:
I'm giving you one last chance. If you blow it, you'll be sent to an Institution which treats people like you.

blow your mind informal [C2] If something blows your mind, you are very excited or surprised by it.

Dictionary example:
There was one scene in the film that really blew my mind.

Learner example:
'MOMO', written by Michael Ende, is a book that blew my mind as a child and as an adult, I have read it many times, but the last time has been a while now.

NOUN [C]

hit
[C2] a hard hit with a hand or a weapon

Dictionary example:
They think his death was caused by a blow to the head with an iron bar.

Learner example:
He was really starting to panic when he felt a hard blow to his head.

bad event
[C2] an unexpected event that has a damaging effect on someone or something

Dictionary example:
Losing his job was a severe blow to his confidence.

Learner example:
Douglas, due to his callousness or because it had been too great a blow for him, was unable to understand or assimilate the fact, so he just went on, doing his duty to his country and his people as before.

blue /bluː/

ADJECTIVE

sad
[C2] informal sad

Dictionary example:
I was feeling blue.
Learner example:
Do you feel the need to dress, behave and consume the same products as your friends? Are you the kind of person who go(es) shopping when you feel blue or a little morose?

NOUN [C or U]

out of the blue
[C1] If something happens out of the blue, it is completely unexpected.

Dictionary example:
One day, out of the blue, she announced that she was leaving.

Learner example:
Dear Kim, I was extremely happy when I received your letter out of the blue.

blunt /blʌnt/

ADJECTIVE

NOT SHARP
[C2] not sharp

Dictionary example:
a blunt knife

Learner example:
Standing in front of me was a huge man whose skin was roughened by blunt razor blades.

RUDE
[C2] saying exactly what you think without caring about people’s feelings

Dictionary example:
a blunt letter

Learner example:
She knows what kind of questions the viewers want answered and asks them without being rude or blunt.

blush /blʌʃ/

VERB [i]

[B2] to become pink in the face, usually from embarrassment

Dictionary examples:
He blushes every time she speaks to him.
I blush to think what a fool I made of myself.
Learner example:
But there is one special "embarrassing moment" that even today I blush when I think about it.

board /boːd/

NOUN

on board
[B1] on a boat, train, aircraft, etc.

Dictionary example:
There were 230 people on board the plane.

Learner example:
After I checked in, I was on board.

SURFACE
[B2] [c] a flat piece of wood, plastic, etc. used for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
Cut the vegetables on a chopping board.
an ironing board
There was a 'For Sale' board outside the house.

MEALS
[B2] [u] meals that are provided when you stay in a hotel

Dictionary example:
How much is a single room with full/half board?

Learner example:
You are likely to have full board accommodation and a single room.

ORGANIZATION
[C1] [c + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] a group of people who officially control a company or organization, or a particular type of business activity

Dictionary examples:
the Tourist Board
The board approved the sales plan.

Learner example:
We will try to get a subsidy during the next Board of Directors [meeting].

take sth on board
[C1] to understand or accept an idea or a piece of information

Dictionary example:
Banks need to take on board the views of their customers.
Learner example:
The students feel that if the above suggestions were taken on board, the study centre could be an excellent support for them in their studies.

across the board
[C2] happening or having an effect on people at every level and in every area

Dictionary example:
The improvement has been across the board, with all divisions reporting increased profits.

Learner example:
Children in separate schools get on with things regardless of it being work for boys or girls, which can be quite positive especially in today's lifestyles where chores are done across the board.

VERB
[B1] [I or T] to get onto or allow people to get onto a boat, train or aircraft

Dictionary examples:
At London airport she boarded a plane to Australia.
Will passengers waiting to board please go to the ticket counter?

Learner example:
We all boarded the train.

boast /bəʊst/

VERB

PRIDE
[B2] [I or T] to talk with too much pride about what you have done or what you own

Dictionary examples:
He didn't talk about his exam results in case people thought he was boasting.
Parents enjoy boasting about their children's achievements.
They boasted that they had never lost a single game.

Learner example:
Later that evening I went home boasting about my success.

HAVE
[C2] [T] If a place boasts something good, it has it.

Dictionary example:New York boasts some of the best museums in the world.

Learner example:
The park boasts a picturesque lake with swans and ducks and a walled formal garden.
boat /ˈbɒt/

NOUN [C]

rock the boat
[C2] to do or say something that changes a situation in a way that causes problems

Dictionary example:
They seemed very happy and I didn't want to rock the boat.

Learner example:
But let's not rock the boat. Our preposterous cravings and wishes might become our [down]fall.

be in the same boat
[C2] to be in the same unpleasant situation as other people

Dictionary example:
She complains that she doesn't have enough money, but we're all in the same boat.

Learner example:
Unemployment and its consequences is still a major problem. Now we are in the same boat.

miss the boat
[C2] to be too late to get what you want

Dictionary example:
I'm afraid you've missed the boat. All the concert tickets have been sold.

Learner example:
What if she never had another chance? What if she missed the boat? Overcome by the anxiety and the lack of sleep, the first thing she did in the morning was to pick up two of her best poems [and] put them in an envelope.

body /ˈbɒd.i/

NOUN [C]

NOT ARMS/LEGS
[B1] the main part of a person's or animal's body, without the head, arms and legs

Dictionary example:
The dog had a thin body and short legs.

Learner example:
There was a black spider with long legs and a fat round body near my head.

GROUP
[C2] [+ SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] an official group of people who work together
Dictionary example:
the sport’s regulatory body

Learner example:
This progress is also facilitated by companies and organisations that are represented in many countries, institutions that tend to be controlled by centrally defined policies or a single governing body.

keep body and soul together
[C2] to be able to pay for your food, clothing and somewhere to live

Dictionary example:
His wages are barely enough to keep body and soul together.

Learner example:
Not only does he keep body and soul together, but he is [o]n good terms with his wife.

body and soul
[C2] used to emphasize that someone does something with all their effort and energy

Dictionary example:
They entered into the relationship body and soul.

Learner example:
If nowadays women are, for [the] vast majority, working, it occurs to me that some of them are not willing to devote themselves body and soul to their work.

boil /boɪl/

Word family:
Verbs: boil
Adjectives: boiled, boiling

VERB

CONTAINER
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] If a container of liquid boils, or if you boil it, it reaches the temperature where bubbles rise up in it and it produces steam.

Dictionary examples:
Could you boil the kettle for me?
The pan’s boiling.

COOK
[B1] [ɪ] to cook food in water that is boiling

Dictionary example:
Boil the potatoes until soft.
Learner example:
I teach them how to swim, how to boil rice without electrical equipment [and] so on.

make your blood boil
[C2] to make you extremely angry

Dictionary example:
The way they have treated those people makes my blood boil.

Learner example:
Paul said something repulsive, with a cold light in his eyes, and it made her blood boil.

boiling /ˈboɪ.lɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: boil
Adjectives: boiled, boiling

ADJECTIVE INFORMAL
[B2] very hot

Dictionary examples:
It's boiling in this room!
It's boiling hot outside.

Learner example:
I wouldn't like a job like that, especially in the summer, when it's boiling hot.

bold /bəʊld/

Word family:
Adjectives: bold
Adverbs: boldly

ADJECTIVE

EASY TO NOTICE
[B1] strong in colour or shape and therefore easy to notice

Dictionary example:
bold colours/letters

Learner example:
It had some advertisements and I could read something written in bold words.

BRAVE
[B2] not frightened of taking risks
Dictionary examples:
She was a bold and fearless climber.
It was a bold decision to go and live abroad.
The newspaper made the bold move/took the bold step of publishing the names of the men involved.

Learner example:
That was the punishment for being bold!

boldly /ˈbəʊld.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: bold
Adverbs: boldly

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is brave or very confident

Dictionary example:
The President had already boldly declared victory.

Learner example:
One boldly ventures where none of their family members have been before in search of a better lifestyle, good weather...

bomb /bɒm/

Word family:
Nouns: bomb, bomber, bombing
Verbs: bomb

NOUN [C]
[B1] a weapon that explodes and causes damage

Dictionary examples:
The bomb exploded/went off near a busy market.
a nuclear bomb
a car bomb

Learner example:
A bomb had exploded and that boy rescued me from the accident.

VERB [T]
[B1] to attack a place using bombs

Dictionary example:
This pub was bombed a few years ago.
Learner example:
Houses had been bombed during the war and nothing was reconstructed.

bomber  /ˈbɒm.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: bomb, bomber, bombing
Verbs: bomb

NOUN [C]

PERSON

[B2] a person who uses bombs

Dictionary example:
Rajiv Gandhi is believed to have been killed by a suicide bomber.

AIRCRAFT

[C2] an aircraft that drops bombs

Dictionary example:
He flew bombers in the war.

Learner example:
During the war... the terror of the German bombers, the sound of destruction all around, bombs exploding, people crying and dying.

bombing  /ˈbɒm.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: bomb, bomber, bombing
Verbs: bomb

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] an attack or several attacks using bombs

Dictionary example:
The city came under heavy bombing.

Learner example:
In fact, despite the number of plane accidents and bombing attempts on aeroplanes, it is the safe[st] way to travel.
bond /bɔnd/

NOUN [C]

[B2] an interest, experience, or feeling that makes people feel connected

Dictionary examples:
the bond between the mother and baby
There is a close/strong bond between the brothers.
We formed a strong bond in this difficult period.
A love of opera created a bond between them.

Learner example:
The strong bond among the family members makes them feel secure and confident.

VERB

[C2] [i] to develop a strong relationship with someone

Dictionary example:
Physical contact helps a mother bond with her baby.

Learner example:
Another aspect is the fact that it is far more easier to just spend money on your children than to actually bond with them.

bone /bəʊn/

NOUN [C or U]

IN BODY

[B1] one of the hard pieces that make the structure inside a human or animal

Dictionary examples:
human/animal bones
There's still a lot of meat left on the bone – shall I slice some off for you?

Learner example:
I saw things like dinosaur bones, mummies, etc.

a bone of contention

[C2] something that people argue about

Dictionary example:
Housework is a major bone of contention in our house.

Learner example:
Another bone of contention over the issue is that of pension schemes for it can't be denied that solutions have to be found to raise funds.
bonus /ˈbəʊ.nəs/

NOUN [c]

EXTRA THING
[B2] another pleasant thing in addition to something you were expecting

Dictionary example:
I love the job, and it's an added bonus that it's so close to home.

Learner example:
Think about this: we will be practising English every day and as a bonus we'll have staff discounts on books an[d] CDs.

EXTRA MONEY
[B2] an extra amount of money that you are given, especially because you have worked hard

Dictionary example:
a Christmas bonus

Learner example:
My employer said if I pass my exam, he will give me a bonus of fifty pounds.

---

book /bʊk/

Word family:
Nouns: booking
Verbs: book

NOUN [C]

FOR WRITING
[B1] a set of pages fastened together in a cover and used for writing on

Dictionary example:
an address book

Learner example:
I lost my address book last week.

do sth by the book
[C2] to do something exactly as the rules tell you

Dictionary example:
If you want to get permission for the building, you'll need to do everything by the book.
Learner example:
The upper-class people always do things by the book, follow the rules and the conventions and therefore are stand-offish and cold.

be in sb's good/bad books
[C2] If you are in someone's good books, they are pleased with you, and if you are in their bad books, they are angry with you.

Dictionary example:
I'm in Mum's good books at the moment for passing my exams.

Learner example:
She always admired him so much and wanted to be in his good books.

a book of stamps/tickets, etc.
[C2] a set of stamps, tickets, etc. that are fastened together inside a cover

Dictionary examples:
I bought a book of stamps.
You can get a book of ten tickets for the ferry.

VERB [I or T]

book sb in or book sb into sth PHRASAL VERB
[B1] to arrange for someone to stay at a hotel

Dictionary example:
She booked me into a hotel in the town centre.

Learner example:
You have been booked into the "Palace Hotel" which is one of the most comfortable [hotels] in town.

booking /ˈbʊ.ɪŋ/booklet /ˈbʊk.let/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a small, thin book that contains information

Dictionary example:
The tourist office has booklets about the area.

Learner example:
I [would] really appreciate it if you could send me a booklet describing all outdoor and indoor activities.

bookmark /ˈbʊk.mɑːk/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a way of marking an Internet website so that you can find it easily

Dictionary example:
Add this website to your bookmarks.

VERB [t]
[B2] to mark an Internet website on your computer so that you can find it easily

Dictionary example:
I've bookmarked the page.

boost /buːst/

NOUN [c USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[B2] something that makes you feel more confident and happy, or that helps something increase or improve

Dictionary examples:
Passing my driving test was such a boost to my confidence.
The lowering of interest rates will give a much-needed boost to the economy.

Learner example:
It really gave us a boost!

VERB [t]
[B2] to improve or increase something
Dictionary examples:
The theatre managed to boost its audiences by cutting ticket prices. Share prices were boosted by reports of the President’s recovery. Getting the job had really boosted her confidence.

Learner example:
It would not only boost my self-confidence but also look very good on my CV.

boot  /buːt/

NOUN [c]

CAR
[B1] a closed space at the back of a car for putting things in

Dictionary example:
I’ll put your luggage in the boot.

Learner example:
If you need to, you can carry lots of heavy or large things easily in the boot of your car.

border  /ˈbɔː.dər/

NOUN [c]

[B1] the line that divides one country from another

Dictionary examples:
Were you stopped at the border?  The train crosses the border between France and Spain.

Learner example:
We could visit the mountains near the Czech and German border.

born  /bɔːn/

VERB

be born
[C2] If an idea is born, it starts to exist.

Dictionary example:
The idea for the business was born during a holiday in France.

Learner example:
The idea was born while he was having a bath!
borrow /ˈbɒrəʊ/

VERB

MONEY
[C1] [I or T] to get money from a bank or financial organization and pay it back over a period of time

Dictionary example:
We had to borrow heavily to set up the business.

Learner example:
Some even borrow from loan sharks just to satisfy impulse shopping needs, which may eventually lead to building up debts to an individual or his family.

bossy /ˈbɒs.i/

Word family:
Nouns: boss
Adjectives: bossy

ADJECTIVE
[B2] always telling other people what to do

Dictionary example:
a bossy older sister

Learner example:
Granny is the problem – she’s a bit bossy!

both /bəʊθ/

DETERMINER; PRONOUN

(have) the best of both worlds
[C1] to have the advantages of two different situations

Dictionary example:
Living in the country and working in the city you have the best of both worlds.

Learner example:
Only those that can afford to live in the suburban areas can combine the best of both worlds and they tend to be rather affluent.
bother /ˈbɒð.ər/

Word family:
Verbs: bother
Adjectives: bothered

VERB

WORRY
[B2] [ɪ] to make someone feel worried or upset

Dictionary examples:
Does it bother you that he's out so much of the time?
It bothers me that he doesn't seem to notice.
Living on my own has never bothered me.
I don't care if he doesn't come – it doesn't bother me.

Learner example:
Then I want to mention that there is one thing that bothers me a lot.

MAKE AN EFFORT
[B2] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to make the effort to do something

Dictionary examples:
He hasn't even bothered to write.
Don't bother making the bed – I'll do it later.
You'd have found it if you'd bothered looking.
You won't get any credit for doing it, so why bother?

Learner example:
TV is entertaining, and it's all digested for you: you don't need to bother thinking after a long day's work.

can't be bothered INFORMAL [B2] If you can't be bothered to do something, you are too lazy or tired to do it.

Dictionary example:
I can't be bothered to iron my clothes.

Learner example:
It woke me up but I didn't answer it, [I] couldn't be bothered.

bothered /ˈbɒð.əd/

Word family:
Verbs: bother
Adjectives: bothered
If you are bothered about something, it is important to you and you are worried about it.

Dictionary examples:
He’s very bothered about what people think of him.
They were an hour late and she didn’t seem at all bothered.

Learner example:
I’m also bothered about what’s going on around me.

bottom /ˈbɒt.əm/

NOUN

SEA/RIVER/LAKE

[B1] [NO PLURAL] the ground under a river, lake, or sea

Dictionary example:
The ship had sunk to the bottom of the sea.

Learner example:
It gives me great pleasure to go and see all the beautiful kinds of fish in the modern aquarium, which shows you the wonderful world that exists at the bottom of the ocean.

FURTHEST PART

[B1] [NO PLURAL] the part of a road or area of land that is furthest from where you are

Dictionary examples:
They live at the bottom of our street.
The apple tree at the bottom of the garden has lots of fruit.

Learner example:
She could hear a sort of sad cat's voice from the bottom of the garden.

BODY PART

[B1] [C] the part of your body that you sit on

Dictionary example:
She slipped and fell on her bottom.

Learner example:
[There were two people holding] my arms and the third one on the ladder below me [holding] my bottom.

the bottom line

[C2] the most important fact in a situation
Dictionary example:
The bottom line is that people's health is at risk if they smoke.

Learner example:
The bottom line is that the adults of today have to stop for a second and think about what they are doing.

from top to bottom
[C2] completely

Dictionary example:
I've searched the house from top to bottom and still can't find it.

Learner example:
Very often we can see someone in black, from top to bottom, or in white.

---

bounce /baʊnts/

VERB

MOVE UP
[B2] [i or ɪ] to (cause to) move up or away after hitting a surface

Dictionary examples:
The ball bounced off the post and into the net.
She bounced the ball quickly.

bounce along/around/into, etc.
[B2] to move somewhere in a happy and energetic way

Dictionary example:
Sarah bounced into the room with a big smile on her face.

Learner example:
Would you like to wear balloon clothes and bounce around the world?

---

bound /baʊnd/

ADJECTIVE

bound to do sth
[B2] certain to do something, or certain to happen

Dictionary examples:
You're bound to feel nervous before your driving test.
If you're stressed for a long period, it's bound to affect your health.

318
Learner example:
I'm bound to feel nervous.

DIRECTION

[C1] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] travelling towards a particular place

Dictionary example:
He was on a train bound for Berlin.

Learner example:
The only risk you run is getting on a bus bound for Boras, so take care you avoid this one.

bound up with sth

[C2] closely connected with something

Dictionary example:
A country's culture is bound up with its language and history.

Learner example:
It's just the way of the world, I will have to say, and convince myself that I am not as inextricably bound up with that particular diary.

---

boundary /ˈbaʊn.dəri/

NOUN [C]

LINE

[C1] a line that divides two areas or forms an edge around an area

Dictionary example:
The mountains mark the boundary between the two countries.

Learner example:
This gives youngsters the opportunity to exchange opinions with people all over the world, and so the boundaries of the countries or the continents have less meaning.

LIMIT

[C1] a limit

Dictionary example:
Such violence is beyond the boundaries of civilized conduct.

Learner example:
This is a movie that reminds us that a man's soul cannot be measured with a measuring tape, that passion knows no boundaries, and that love accepts no defeat.
bow /ˈbəʊ/

NOUN [c]

KNOT
[B2] a knot with two curved parts and two loose ends, that is used to tie shoes or as decoration

Dictionary example:
The present was wrapped in gold paper and tied with a big red bow.

Learner example:
He saw a big black bow [o]n the handle of the door.

WEAPON
[B2] a piece of curved wood with string fixed to both ends, used for shooting arrows

Dictionary example:
a bow and arrows

Learner example:
The bow was very beautiful and there were some letters on [it]: Artemis. He could not believe it, he had the bow of Artemis.

MUSIC
[C2] a long, thin piece of wood with hair stretched between the ends, used to play some musical instruments

Dictionary example:
a violin bow

Learner example:
The feeling was, moreover, enhanced by his unique style, as for instance [with] the guitar solo on "Dazed and confused", played with a violin bow.

boxing /ˈbɑk.sɪŋ/

NOUN [u]
[B1] a sport in which two competitors fight by hitting each other with their hands

Dictionary examples:
Many doctors believe that boxing is too dangerous and should be banned.
He's a former world heavyweight boxing champion.

Learner example:
You can do gym, boxing, squash, [and] tennis.
bra /bra:/

NOUN [c]
- [B2] a piece of women's underwear that supports the breasts

  Learner example:
  She knew that I had bought my first bra without having asked her for advice.

---

bracelet /ˈbreɪ.sət/

NOUN [c]
- [B1] a piece of jewellery that you wear around your wrist

  Dictionary example:
  a gold/silver/diamond bracelet

  Learner example:
  Actually I was very sad as the bracelet was particularly valuable to me.

---

bracket /ˈbræk.ɪt/

NOUN

SYMBOL
- [B2] [c usually plural] either of two symbols put around a word, phrase or sentence in a piece of writing to show that what is between them should be considered as separate from the main part

  Dictionary examples:
  square/round brackets
  Biographical information is included in brackets.

GROUP
- [C1] [c] a group of people whose ages, taxes, etc. are between two limits

  Dictionary example:
  Most heart attack victims are in the 45–65 age bracket.

  Learner example:
  The 35–49 age bracket remained constant in terms of cinema attendance and [the] same also with the 50+ age bracket. brain  /breɪn/

NOUN [c]

INTELLIGENCE
[C1] used to refer to intelligence

Dictionary examples:
That can't possibly be the right way to do it – use your brain!
He's got brains but he's too lazy to use them.

Learner example:
The whole [of] Western society already seems to be founded on computers and relying on chips, which to a certain extent has taken away our own abilities of using our brains.

brake  /breɪk/

NOUN [c]

[B1] the part of a vehicle that makes it stop or move more slowly

Dictionary example:
She had no brakes on her bicycle.

Learner example:
It has 24 active gears and multilink kevlor brakes.

VERB [i]
[B2] to make a vehicle stop or move more slowly

Dictionary example:
I tried to brake but it was too late.

Learner example:
The motorcyclist cut in dangerously, so we had to brake.

branch  /bræntʃ/

NOUN [c]

TREE
[B1] one of the many parts of a tree that grows out from its trunk

Dictionary example:
Birds often make nests in the top branches of the tree.
Learner example:
She slowly climbed the tree and sat on one of the biggest branches.

BUSINESS
[B1] one of several shops, offices, etc. that are part of a company or organization

Dictionary examples:
I used to work in the local branch of a large bank.
She’s a branch manager.

Learner example:
He has come from our branch office in New York, where he worked as [an] assistant.

SUBJECT
[B2] a part of a subject

Dictionary example:
Immunology is a branch of biological science.

Learner example:
As a matter of fact, innovations have taken place quite frequently in every branch of science.

brand /brænd/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a type of product made by a particular company

Dictionary examples:
a best-selling/popular brand of toothpaste
This isn’t my usual brand of deodorant.

Learner example:
My computer brand is Acer.

brand new /ˌbrændˈnjuː/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] completely new

Dictionary example:
The washing machine is brand new.

Learner example:
Well, I’ve decided to buy a new TV set and a brand new sofa!
brass /braːs/

NOUN [u]

METAL
[C1] a shiny yellow metal

Dictionary example:
a door with a brass handle

Learner example:
The dark marble is easy to keep clean and the solid brass handles look luxur[ious].

MUSIC
[C2] the group of musical instruments made from brass

Dictionary example:
a brass band

Learner example:
I liked it so much that I decided to become a brass band musician myself.

brave /breɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: bravery
Adjectives: brave
Adverbs: bravely

ADJECTIVE
[B1] showing no fear of dangerous or difficult situations

Dictionary examples:
a brave soldier
It was a brave decision to leave her job and start her own business.
She was very brave to learn to ski at fifty.
Of the three organizations criticized, only one was brave to face the press.
Richards has made a brave attempt to answer his critics.

Learner example:
They all laughed at me, but I was brave enough to mount the horse again.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>/ˈbreɪv.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>bravery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>brave</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs:</td>
<td>bravely</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADVERB</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] in a brave way</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>She faced the consequences bravely.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>/ˈbrɛrv.ə.ri/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>bravery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>brave</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs:</td>
<td>bravely</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [u]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] when someone is brave</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>He was awarded a medal for his bravery in battle.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>Of course my bravery disappeared and I felt my heart beating faster and faster.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>/bretθ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>breadth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>broaden</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>broad</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs:</td>
<td>broadly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [u NO PLURAL]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sb's breadth of experience/knowledge/interest, etc.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] the great number of different things that someone has done, knows, is interested in, etc.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>Her novels show her huge breadth of knowledge.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
In my opinion, it is irresponsible to base our knowledge only on our experience and to overlook the example of all those who, with their breadth of learning, made amazing innovations and helped society.

the length and breadth of sth
[C2] in every part of a place

Dictionary example:
They travelled the length and breadth of Scotland together.

Learner example:
It is the reason that we can easily see the foreigners wandering the length and breadth of the museum being unaware of the origin of items they look at.

---

break /breɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: break, outbreak
Verbs: break
Adjectives: breakable, broken

VERB (broke, broken)

INTERRUPT
[B1] [i or t] to stop doing something for a short time

Dictionary examples:
Let's break for lunch.
If you sit at a desk all day, try to break your routine with a walk or a swim.

Learner example:
I think the most important aim of a holiday is to break your daily routine.

END
[B2] [i or t] to come to an end or make something come to an end

Dictionary examples:
Eventually someone spoke, breaking the silence.
The factory brought in outside workers in an attempt to break the strike.

Learner example:
George was looking outside when something broke the silence.

break a record
[B2] to do something better, faster, etc. than anyone else

Dictionary example:
Usain Bolt broke the world record for the 200 metres.
Learner example:
I personally think that nobody will ever break his record of being champion seven times.

break an agreement/promise, etc.

[B2] to not do what you should do

Dictionary example:
She agreed not to tell anyone but she has broken her promise.

Learner example:
I am very surprised that such a reputable theatre [as] yours has been able to break all [the] promises that appeared in the advertisement.

break the law

[B2] to do something illegal

Dictionary example:
He didn't know he was breaking the law by smoking inside the building.

Learner example:
Jem, the youngest brother, is a horse-thief, so he breaks the law as well, but his crime is a minor one.

break the ice

[B2] to make people feel more relaxed in a social situation

Dictionary example:
I told everyone a joke, which helped to break the ice.

Learner example:
And, of course, don't forget that a warm smile is one of the best ways to break the ice.

break sb's heart

[B2] to make someone feel extremely sad

Dictionary examples:
She really broke his heart when she left.
It breaks my heart when I hear the terrible things that have been said about him.

Learner example:
I thought that the hamster would live forever but I was wrong and that mistake broke my heart.

break even

[C1] to not make money but also not lose money

Dictionary example:
The company only managed to break even this year.

Learner example:
Company C does not seem to be doing well. In the year 2000, it just seems to be breaking even.
BECOME KNOWN
[C2] If news or a story breaks, or if someone breaks it, it becomes known by the public for the first time.

Dictionary example:
News of the scandal broke just before the election.

break the news to sb
[C2] to tell someone about something unpleasant that has happened

Dictionary example:
Who's going to break the news to his wife?

Learner example:
She broke the news to his wife Helen.

break free
[C2] to suddenly escape or become separate from something

Dictionary example:
The prisoner broke free while the guards weren't looking.

break free
[C2] to escape from someone or something that is controlling you

Dictionary example:
She tried to break free from the social conditioning of her upbringing.

Learner example:
I would like to revisit there one day as it's firmly connected to my adolescence, when I struggled to break free from my peers, [and] tried to establish my own identity.

STORM
[C2] If a storm breaks, it starts suddenly.

Dictionary example:
The storm broke just as we reached home.

Learner example:
Suddenly the moon disappeared behind the clouds and, in a few moments, a violent storm broke.

WEATHER
[C2] If the weather breaks, it changes suddenly, and usually becomes worse.

Dictionary example:
The weather is due to break at the weekend.

break new ground
[C2] to do something that is different to anything that has been done before

Dictionary example:
Their research is really breaking new ground.
Learner example:
Paul decided to break new ground in music no matter how long it took.

Noun [C]

Holiday

[B1] a holiday or period of time away from work, school, etc.

Dictionary example:
a weekend break to Paris

Learner example:
He had a break for the weekend, and he called me: "I am in London, so, if you want to see me, it's the time!"

Damage

[C1] where something has separated in an accident

Dictionary example:
a break in the bone

Opportunity

[C2] a lucky opportunity

Dictionary examples:
His big break came when he was offered a part in a TV series.
Meeting Tom was my lucky break.

breakable  /ˈbreɪkə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: break, outbreak
Verbs: break
Adjectives: breakable, broken

Adjective

[B2] easy to break

Dictionary example:
That vase is breakable so be careful.
breakdown /ˈbrɛrk.daʊn/

NOUN [c]

ILLNESS
[B2] a short period of mental illness when people are too ill to continue with their normal lives

Dictionary examples:
Later that year she had a breakdown.
a nervous breakdown

Learner example:
Instead of that I almost ended up in hospital suffering a nervous breakdown.

NOT WORKING
[B2] when a vehicle or machine stops working for a period of time

Dictionary example:
I had a breakdown in the middle of the road.

Learner example:
On Friday we went to Scotland but unfortunately we had a breakdown. By chance a very nice farmer fixed our car and as it was late he suggested we should spend the night on his farm.

FAILURE
[C1] when something such as communication or a relationship fails or ends

Dictionary example:
a breakdown in the peace talks

Learner example:
Eventually, society may be affected by the breakdown of these relationships.

EXPLANATION
[C2] a short explanation of the details of something

Dictionary example:
I need a breakdown of the costs involved.

Learner example:
The pie charts showing the breakdown of annual spending of the school take into account money spent on insurance, teachers’ salaries, furniture and equipment, resources (such as books), and other workers’ salaries.
breakthrough /ˈbreɪk.θruː/

NOUN [c]
[B2] an important discovery or event that helps to improve a situation or provide an answer to a problem

Dictionary examples:
Scientists are hoping for a breakthrough in the search for a cure for cancer.
A major breakthrough in negotiations has been achieved.

Learner example:
For me the main technology breakthrough has been in computers.

breast /brest/

NOUN [c]
[B1] either of the two soft, rounded parts of a woman's chest that produce milk after she has a baby

Dictionary examples:
When a woman becomes pregnant her breasts tend to grow larger.
breast cancer

Learner example:
This person is so special to me because [after I was] born I was drinking milk from her breast.

breath /breθ/

Word family:
Nouns: breath
Verbs: breathe

NOUN [u]

AIR
[B1] the air that goes into and out of your lungs

Dictionary example:
Her breath smelled of garlic.

Learner example:
Then I felt someone's breath on my shoulder...

be out of breath
[B2] to be breathing quickly because you have been running, walking fast, etc.
Dictionary example:
He burst into the room, red-faced and out of breath.

Learner example:
I find that shopping is very good exercise too! By the time you have completed the whole High Street, you will be out of breath.

hold your breath

[B2] to keep air in your lungs and not let it out

Dictionary example:
How long can you hold your breath under water?

Learner example:
My heart was beating fast. I was holding my breath.

take your breath away

[B2] If something takes your breath away, you feel surprise and admiration because it is so beautiful or exciting.

Dictionary example:
The view from the window took my breath away.

Learner example:
The landscape just takes your breath away sometimes.

take a deep breath

[B2] to fill your lungs with air

Dictionary example:
Take a deep breath and relax.

Learner example:
But if you took a deep breath after reading the question, don't worry.

catch your breath; get your breath back

[C1] to rest for a short time until you can breathe regularly again

Dictionary example:
Let's stop here and catch our breath.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, the rooms we stayed in were on the 4th floor. The older people couldn't catch their breath when they finally arrived there!

under your breath

[C2] If you say something under your breath, you say it very quietly so that other people cannot hear it.

Dictionary example:
He was muttering curses under his breath.
Learner example:
"We must have taken a wrong turn somewhere..." he kept muttering under his breath.

with bated breath
[C2] in an excited or anxious way

Dictionary example:
I waited with bated breath as the results were read out.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, a huge number of scientists carrying out very useful research, [and] composers, actors, [and] artists making us watch their creations with bated breath, do not earn [as much] money as a lot of outstanding sportsmen do.

a breath of fresh air
[C2] someone or something that is new, different, and exciting

Dictionary example:
Having Eve around has been a breath of fresh air.

Learner example:
The final suggestion is focused on building a leisure centre. Should this be everything the Town Council has promised, it will bring a breath of fresh air.

hold your breath
[C2] to wait for something to happen, often feeling anxious

Dictionary example:
While the leaders negotiated, the world held its breath.

Learner example:
They, the critics, the fans and friends and his wife, held their breath and crossed their fingers, hoping to once again hear his enchanting voice.

breathe  /briːð/

Word family:
Nouns: breath
Verbs: breathe

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to take air into and out of your lungs

Dictionary examples:
It's so airless in here – I can hardly breathe.
Breathe in and now breathe out.
Keep breathing deeply.

Learner example:
The air you will breathe is cleaner than the air in the city.
breathtaking /ˈbreθˌteɪ.kɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] very beautiful or surprising

Dictionary example: breathtaking scenery/views

Learner example:
For me it is a very beautiful country, with amazing and breathtaking scenery.

breed /briːd/

VERB (bred, bred)

KEEP ANIMALS

[B2] [ɪ] to keep animals for the purpose of producing young animals

Dictionary example:
His main income comes from breeding cattle.

Learner example:
We can keep animals, breed them, observe, and protect [them].

breed contempt/ignorance, etc.

[C2] to cause something to develop, especially something bad

Dictionary example:
He believes that movies like this breed violence.

Learner example:
The question arises: who is right – those who love and cherish history or those for whom the above-mentioned familiarity breeds contempt?

NOUN [c]

[B2] a type of dog, sheep, etc.

Dictionary examples:
This rare breed of sheep is particularly good for wool.
What’s your favourite breed of dog/dog breed?

Learner example:
After she had seen pictures of the show animals, she de[c]ided to buy a small male kitten of the Cornish rex breed.
breeze /'briːz/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a light and pleasant wind

Dictionary examples:
a cool breeze
She let the gentle breeze cool her face.

Learner example:
It was not that hot and we had a cool breeze as we cycled downhill.

bribe /ˈbraɪb/

Word family:
Nouns: bribe, bribery
Verbs: bribe

NOUN [C]
[C1] money or a present given to someone so that they will do something for you, usually something dishonest

Dictionary example:
The politician was accused of accepting bribes from businessmen.

Learner example:
Because we don't like to wait, it is very common to jump in the queues or give bribes to people in charge.

VERB [T]
[C1] to try to make someone do something for you by giving them money, presents or something else they want

Dictionary example:
He bribed immigration officials and entered the country illegally.

Learner example:
She considers presents to be a means of bribing her in order to love you.

bribery /ˈbraɪ.bɪr.i/

Word family:
Nouns: bribe, bribery
Verbs: bribe bribery

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone is offered money or a present so that they will do something, usually something dishonest

Dictionary example:
bribery and corruption

Learner example:
They treat bribery as something natural – as it was in the last political system.

brick /brɪk/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a small, hard, rectangular block used for building walls and houses

Dictionary example:
a brick wall

Learner example:
Future homes might not be built out of bricks at all!

bride /braɪd/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a woman who is getting married

Dictionary examples:
He returned from New York with his lovely new bride.
The bride and groom posed for pictures outside the church.

Learner example:
The day of the wedding, I took lots of pictures of the bride and the groom.

bridge /brɪdʒ/

NOUN [c]
CONNECTION
[C2] something that connects two groups, organizations, etc. and improves the relationship between them

Dictionary example:
After the war they tried to build bridges with neighbouring countries.
Learner example:
It is difficult to prevent this but we must do our best to build bridges between countries.

brief /briːf/

Word family:
Adjectives: brief
Adverbs: briefly

ADJECTIVE
SHORT
[B1] lasting only a short time or using only a few words

Dictionary examples:
His acceptance speech was very brief.
I had a brief look at her report before the meeting.
It'll only be a brief visit because we really haven't much time.
The company issued a brief statement about yesterday's accident.

Learner example:
Turning to the website, I could not find all the information about the films, just a brief comment about the director, which is not useful for me.

in brief
[B2] using only a few words

Dictionary example:
world news in brief

Learner example:
In brief, I have had a marvellous week.

briefly /ˈbriː.fli/

Word family:
Adjectives: brief
Adverbs: briefly

ADVERB
[B1] for a short time

Dictionary example:
We chatted briefly about the weather.

Learner example:
In this essay, I shall briefly look at the advantages and disadvantages of owning a car.
bright /brət/

Word family:

Adjectives: bright
Adverbs: brightly

ADJECTIVE

LIGHT

[B1] full of light, shining

Dictionary examples:
bright sunshine
The rooms were bright and airy.
The lights are too bright in here – they're hurting my eyes.

Learner example:
It was bright and sunny.

INTELLIGENT

[B2] clever

Dictionary examples:
They were bright children, always asking questions.
She was enthusiastic and full of bright ideas and suggestions.

Learner example:
Rony had the bright idea of calling the firemen.

HAPPY

[B2] happy or full of hope

Dictionary examples:
You're very bright and cheerful this morning!
She's an excellent student with a bright future.

Learner example:
I think I'm a very bright kind of person, friendly with lots of energy.

look on the bright side

[C1] to find good things in a bad situation

Dictionary example:
Look on the bright side – no one was badly hurt.

Learner example:
I am quite self-confident and I usually look on the bright side, as I am not keen on pessimistic thoughts.
brightly /ˈbraɪt.li/

Word family:
- Adjectives: bright
- Adverbs: brightly

ADVERB

[B2] with a lot of strong colour or light

Dictionary examples:
- brightly coloured clothes
- a brightly lit room

Learner example:
The sun was shining brightly over the white mountain tops.

brilliant /ˈbrɪl.i.ənt/

Word family:
- Adjectives: brilliant
- Adverbs: brilliantly

ADJECTIVE

VERY INTELLIGENT

[B1] extremely clever

Dictionary example:
a brilliant mathematician

Learner example:
He is [an] engineering student and he is brilliant in his stud[ies].

VERY BRIGHT

[B1] full of light or colour

Dictionary example:
The sky was a brilliant blue.

Learner example:
It was 11:15 so I thought "they won't come" but suddenly a brilliant light bath[ed] me.

brilliantly /ˈbrɪl.i.ənt.li/

Word family:
- Adjectives: brilliant
- Adverbs: brilliantly
ADVERB
[B2] in a very skillful way

Dictionary example:
He seems to do everything brilliantly – piano playing, skiing, sailing.

Learner example:
Although they are not very famous like JULIE BLOOM, they sang brilliantly.

bring /brɪŋ/

VERB [T] (brought, brought) bring (sb) happiness/luck/peace, etc.

[B1] to cause happiness/luck/peace, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She's brought us so much happiness over the years.
Their attempts to bring peace to the region have so far proved futile.

Learner example:
She thought that the painting brought her bad luck but she thought that she was just talking nonsense and that it wouldn't happen again.

bring sth to an end
[C1] to make something finish

Dictionary example:
The stories in the newspaper brought her career to a sudden end.

Learner example:
At the end of the year 2002 a great construction was brought to an end.

bring out the best in sb
[C2] to cause someone's best qualities to show

Dictionary example:
This chance to work with young people has really brought out the best in him.

Learner example:
TV can be a baby-sitter, but such a relationship is not going to bring out the best in a child.

bring sth to light
[C2] If information about something bad is brought to light, it is discovered.

Dictionary example:
The trial brought to light numerous contradictions in his story.
Learner example:
The evening investigation which was carried out by [the] mysterious Inspector brought all these facts to light.

bring a lump to your throat
[C2] to make you feel such strong emotion that you want to cry

Dictionary example:
It was a very moving speech, and it brought a lump to my throat.

Learner example:
This devastating image brought a lump to John’s throat.

brink  /brɪŋk/
NOUN

be on the brink of sth
[C2] to be in a situation where something bad is going to happen very soon

Dictionary example:
The two countries are on the brink of war.

Learner example:
By the end of the 21st century, Earth was on the brink of destruction. The atmosphere was polluted, the seas were poisoned, the animals were just a distant memory.

broad  /brɔːd/
Word family:
Nouns: breadth
Verbs: broaden
Adjectives: broad
Adverbs: broadly
ADJECTIVE

wide [B1] wide

Dictionary examples:
We walked down a broad avenue lined with trees.
He has very broad shoulders.
a broad smile

Learner example:
Joss Merlyn was seven feet high, with broad, immense shoulders.
a broad range/variety, etc.
[B1] a group that includes many different things or people

Dictionary example:
The magazine covers a broad range of subjects, from sewing to psychology.

Learner example:
My last employer asked me to work again this summer. [H]owever, I would like to have a broad experience in different camps.

broadband /ˈbroːd.bænd/

NOUN [U]
[B2] a type of Internet connection that allows large amounts of information to be sent or received very quickly

Dictionary example:
We've got broadband at home.

broadcast /ˈbroːd.kɑːst/

VERB [I or T] (broadcast, broadcast)
[B2] to send out a programme on television, radio or the Internet

Dictionary examples:
Radio Caroline used to broadcast from a boat in the North Sea.
The tennis championship is broadcast live to several different countries.

Learner example:
Unfortunately most of the programmes that channels broadcast are not quality programmes.

broaden /ˈbroː.dən/

Word family:
Nouns: breadth
Verbs: broaden
Adjectives: broad
Adverbs: broadly

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to increase or make something increase and include more things or people
Dictionary examples:
We need to broaden the range of services that we offer.
Travel broadens your mind.

Learner example:
I mentioned the fact that such a presentation would broaden his mind and help him to strengthen his position in the company.

broadly /ˈbrɔːdl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: breadth
Verbs: broaden
Adjectives: broad
Adverbs: broadly

ADVERB
[C1] in a general way and not including everything or everyone

Dictionary examples:
The plans have been broadly accepted.
Broadly speaking, don't you think women make better drivers than men?

Learner example:
The car is a marvellous means of transport as far as mobility, freedom, speed and comfort are concerned but it is now broadly acknowledged that it is inappropriate for the [short journeys] in our big cities.

broadminded /ˌbrɔːdˈmaɪn.dɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] willing to accept other people’s behaviour and beliefs, especially sexual behaviour

Dictionary example:
At seventy she was surprisingly broadminded.

Learner example:
My father is not as broadminded as my mother but I love him with all my heart.

broccoli /ˈbrɒk.əl.i/

NOUN [u]
[B1] a green vegetable with a thick stem
Dictionary example:
I had pasta with broccoli and tomatoes.

brochure /ˈbrəʊ.ʃə/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a thin book with pictures and information, usually advertising something

Dictionary example:
We looked at some holiday brochures last night.

Learner example:
I will send you some brochures of Switzerland, so you can choose some destinations.

broken /ˈbrəʊ.kən/

Word family:
Nouns: break, outbreak
Verbs: break
Adjectives: breakable, broken

ADJECTIVE

a broken heart

[B2] when you are very sad because of the end of a relationship

Dictionary example:
They said she died of a broken heart.

Learner example:
He will split up with you and [you] will get a broken heart!

broken English/Spanish, etc.

[C1] English/Spanish, etc. that is spoken slowly and has a lot of mistakes in it

Dictionary example:
I managed to make myself understood in broken French.

Learner example:
A non–English speaker may be [able] to talk in broken English to a native English speaker, but has only [a vague] idea as to what he's uttering.

a broken home

[C2] a family in which the parents do not now live together

Dictionary example:
Many of these children come from broken homes.
Learner example:
The development of the modern society has brought with it a growing number of broken homes, divorces and economic problems which have directly affected the parent–child relationship.

bronze  /bɹɒzn/

NOUN

PRIZE
[C1] a bronze medal

Dictionary example:
He won a bronze in the 200m.

Learner example:
I have won two bronze medals and one gold for swimming 50m.

METAL
[C2] a shiny orange–brown metal

Dictionary example:
a statue made from bronze

Learner example:
Each single station in the centre is worth seeing: mosaics, massive statues made of bronze, huge framed paintings.

ADJECTIVE

METAL
[C2] made of bronze

Dictionary example:
a bronze statue

Learner example:
The water flowed from the mouth of a bronze dolphin to the small pond full of lily–pads and reeds.

COLOUR
[C2] being the colour of bronze

Dictionary example:
bronze skin

Learner example:
The world was drenched in colours. It looked as if the autumn had taken all [the] colours of spring and softly blended them in richly intense shades of amber, bronze and purple.
brother-in-law /ˈbrʌðər.ɪn.lɔː/

NOUN [C] (plural brothers-in-law)
[B2] the man married to your sister or the brother of your husband or wife

Dictionary example:
It's my brother-in-law's birthday today.

browse /braʊz/

Word family:
Nouns: browser
Verbs: browse

VERB

LOOK
[B2] [i] to look through a book or magazine without reading everything, or to walk around a shop looking at several things without intending to buy any of them

Dictionary examples:
I was just browsing through some fashion magazines.
"Are you looking for anything in particular, Madam?" "No, I'm just browsing."

Learner example:
If I want to buy a nice pair of shoe[s], I'll have to go into [the] city centre and browse around from shop to shop until I find the shoes I like.

COMPUTING
[B2] [i or t] to look at information on the Internet

Dictionary example:
It's a good site to browse.

Learner example:
Furthermore people read when they browse on the internet, whether for entertainment or educational and business affairs.

browser /ˈbraʊ.zə/

Word family:
Nouns: browser
Verbs: browse
NOUN [c]
[B2] a computer program that makes it possible for you to read information on the Internet

Dictionary example:
a Web browser

Learner example:
It is important to install an Internet browser, that could be Internet Explorer, as well as the free Mozilla Firefox.

bruise /bruːz/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a dark area on your skin where you have been hurt

Dictionary examples:
His arms and back were covered in bruises.
She had a few cuts and bruises but nothing serious.

Learner example:
I entered the room and saw him, covered in bruises, but I couldn’t see his face because he was sleeping turned to the other side.

brush /brʌʃ/

NOUN

ACTION
[B2] [NO PLURAL] the action of using a brush

Dictionary example:
I need to give my hair a quick brush.

VERB

TOUCH
[B2] [I or T] to lightly touch someone or something as you move past

Dictionary examples:
Charlotte brushed against him as she left the room.
His lips gently brushed her cheek and he was gone.

Learner example:
A soft, cool breeze brushed my skin.
brush sth away/off, etc.

[C1] to move something somewhere using a brush or your hand

Dictionary examples:
Jackie brushed the hair out of her eyes.
He brushed away a tear.

Learner example:
She picked the diary up, brushed off the dust, and immediately started to read it.

---

brutal /ˈbruː.təl/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] very violent or cruel

Dictionary example:
a brutal murder

Learner example:
Can you remember the days when soccer was peaceful, harmless and all about joy? It has nothing to do with contemporary soccer, [which] is brutal, aggressive, [and] emotional.

---

bubble /ˈbʌb.l/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a ball of air or gas with liquid around it

Dictionary example:
an air bubble

Learner example:
As a consequence the sea became polluted, and its deep blue colour turned into a dirty green, covered with bubbles!

VERB [I]

bubble (over) with confidence/enthusiasm, etc.

[C1] to be full of a positive emotion or quality

Dictionary example:
The children were bubbling over with excitement.

Learner example:
However taking into account that students often leave class bubbling over with excitement and go straight to the canteen, the noise is a little bit loud there [so] I do not think this would be a good place to film.
LIQUID

[C2] If a liquid bubbles, balls of air or gas rise to its surface.

Dictionary example:
The soup was bubbling on the stove.

bucket /ˈbʌk.ɪt/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a container with an open top and a handle, often used for carrying liquids

Dictionary examples:
Armed with a bucket and a mop, I started washing the floor.
I took my two-year old nephew down to the beach with his bucket and spade.

Learner example:
I screamed and ran out the door, when a bucket of ice cold water fell on my head!

budget /ˈbʌdʒ.ɪt/

NOUN [c]

AMOUNT

[B2] the amount of money a person or organization has available to spend

Dictionary examples:
an annual budget of £40 million
They are over/under/on/within budget.
They have a very tight budget.

Learner example:
Finally, as I am a student on a very tight budget I would prefer a cheap B and B or a family rather than a local campsite.

ADJECTIVE

[B2] very cheap

Dictionary example:
a budget airline bug /bʌɡ/

NOUN [c]

INSECT
[B1] a very small insect

Dictionary example:
He'd found a bug in his bed.

Learner example:
Maybe you’re thinking that he’s a loving man who talks only about bugs and insects, but it's not true.

ILLNESS
[B2] a bacteria or a virus causing an illness that is usually not serious

Dictionary examples:
I had a tummy/stomach bug last week.
There's a bug going around.

COMPUTER
[B2] a mistake or problem in a computer program

Dictionary example:
A bug had caused the company's computer system to crash.

Learner example:
For instance, the millennium bug [might] make all computers confuse[d], and banks will lose money.

build /bɪld/

Word family:
Nouns: builder, building
Verbs: build, rebuild

VERB [I or T] (built, built) build (sth) up or build up (sth) PHRASAL VERB

[C1] to increase or develop, or to make something increase or develop

Dictionary examples:
This will help to build up his confidence.
Traffic usually builds up in the late afternoon.

Learner example:
What might take a long time to build up could be ruined in a very short time.
builder /ˈbɪldr/
Word family:
Nouns: builder, building
Verbs: build, rebuild

NOUN [c]
[B1] a person whose job it is to make buildings

Learner example:
Currently he’s working in a hotel but in his own country he’s a builder.

---

bulb /bʌlb/
Word family:
Nouns: bulb
Adjectives: bulky

NOUN
[B2] a glass object which produces light from electricity

Dictionary example:
an energy-saving light bulb

Learner example:
We use the bulb everywhere and [for] almost everything.

---

bulk /bʌlk/
Word family:
Nouns: bulk
Adjectives: bulky

NOUN
[C1] in large amounts

Dictionary example:
to buy in bulk

Learner example:
I suggest that you buy food in bulk so that you not only save money but also save time.

the bulk of sth
[C1] the largest part or most of something

Dictionary example:
He spends the bulk of his money on rent.
Learner example:
I have noticed that the bulk of the commit[t]ee are people over forty years old.

bulky /ˈbʌl.ki/

Word family:
Nouns: bulk
Adjectives: bulky

ADJECTIVE
[C1] too big and taking up too much space

Dictionary example:
bulky equipment

Learner example:
The problem is actually that to get access to this kind of program, one needs to buy special equipment, which is [still] quite expensive and bulky.

bull /bʊl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a male cow, or the male of particular animals such as the elephant or the whale

Dictionary example:
They did not see the sign by the gate saying 'Beware of the bull'.

bullet /ˈbʊl.ɪt/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a small, metal object that is shot from a gun

Dictionary example:
A bullet had lodged in the boy’s leg.

Learner example:
After this, she [was] working for the FBI until she received a bullet in [the] shoulder.

bully /ˈbʊl.i/

VERB [t]
[C1] to intentionally frighten someone who is smaller or weaker than you
Dictionary examples:
He was bullied at school by some older boys.
She was bullied into leaving.

Learner example:
Nowadays, due to active bullying prevention by the schools, the children are exposed to the bad effects of bullying and how to stand up if anybody tries to bully them.

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone who intentionally frightens a person who is smaller or weaker than them

Dictionary example:
He’s just a bully.

Learner example:
One day you accidentally kill the bully of the village with a sword you found, and you are cast out of the village.

bump /bʌmp/

VERB
HURT
[B2] [t] to hurt part of your body by hitting it against something hard

Dictionary example:
I bumped my head on the shelf as I stood up.

bump against/into sth
[B2] to hit something with force

Dictionary example:
She bumped into his tray, knocking the food onto his lap.

Learner example:
A young man ran after the ball and bumped into her.

NOUN
BODY
[C1] a raised area on your body where it has been hurt by hitting something hard

Dictionary example:
a nasty bump on the head

SURFACE
[C1] a round, raised area on a surface
Dictionary example:
My bike hit a bump in the road.

Learner example:
When people don't feel safe on the streets anymore due to [the] lack of speed limit signs or speed bumps on the roads, or simply traffic lights!

bumper /ˈbʌm.ər/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a bar fixed along the front or the back of a vehicle to protect it in an accident

Dictionary example:
a front/rear bumper

Learner example:
The cars were bumper to bumper.

bun /bʌn/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a small, round cake or piece of bread

Dictionary examples:
an iced bun
a hamburger bun

Learner example:
I was selling sweet buns and coffee in the coffee shop.

bunch /bʌntʃ/

NOUN

THINGS
[B1] [c] a number of things of the same type which are joined or held together

Dictionary example:
a bunch of flowers/grapes/bananas/keys

Learner example:
He gave me a bunch of roses.

PEOPLE
[B1] [NO PLURAL] INFORMAL a group of people
Dictionary example:
His friends are a nice bunch.

Learner example:
I met a bunch of guys there, [and] they were all good to me.

---

bundle /ˈbʌn.dl/

NOUN

TIED GROUP

[C2] a number of things that are tied together

Dictionary example:
a bundle of letters/clothes

Learner example:
It was a bundle of papers hanging out of a hole in the ceiling.

a bundle of energy/nerves INFORMAL

[C2] a very energetic/nervous person

Dictionary example:
I was a bundle of nerves before the speech.

Learner example:
When he began to be a bundle of nerves, he understood that he had to ask her [for] the truth.

---

burden /ˈbɜː.dən/

NOUN [C]

[C1] something difficult or unpleasant that you have to deal with or worry about

Dictionary examples:
the burden of responsibility
I’d hate to be a burden to you when I’m older.

Learner example:
With the heavy burden of paying the high school fees already on our shoulders, why not take into consideration the idea of opening the centre to the public?
bureaucracy /ˈbjuərəkrəsi/

NOUN

RULES

[C2] [u] complicated rules and processes used by an organization, especially when they do not seem necessary

Dictionary example:
government bureaucracy

Learner example:
It was difficult because the bureaucracy proved to be extremely slow and I was all on my own suddenly.

GOVERNMENT

[C2] [c or u] a government or organization in which there are a lot of officials in a lot of departments

Dictionary example:
The country has a powerful bureaucracy.

Learner example:
In any case, the Government and bureaucracy must play a leading role in the performance of the economy.

---

burglar /ˈbɜːglə/

Word family:

Nouns: burglar, burglary

Verbs: burgle

NOUN [C]

[B2] a person who illegally enters buildings and steals things

Dictionary example:
I saw someone climbing in through a window and assumed it must be a burglar.

Learner example:
Was it possible that a burglar was trying to break into the house?

---

burglary /ˈbɜːglər.i/

Word family:

Nouns: burglar, burglary

Verbs: burgle
NOUN [C or U]

[B2] the crime of illegally entering a building and stealing things

Dictionary example:
He was charged with burglary.

Learner example:
It makes the shops more secure against burglary and vandalism.

---

burgle /ˈbɜː.gl/

Word family:
Nouns: burglar, burglary
Verbs: burgle

VERB [T]

[B2] to get into a building illegally and steal things

Dictionary example:
They’ve been burgled twice recently.

Learner example:
One night she burgled my friend’s home and stole the painting.

---

burial /ˈber.i.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: burial
Verbs: bury

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] when a dead body is put into the ground

Dictionary example:
The burial took place on Monday.

Learner example:
After his burial, I would receive a book where all kinds of items were made explicit to me.

---

burn /bɜː:n/

Word family:
Verbs: burn
Adjectives: burning
VERB (burnt or burned, burnt or burned)

DESTROY
[B1] [I or T] to (cause something to) be damaged or destroyed by fire or extreme heat

Dictionary examples:
The factory burned to the ground.
She burnt his old love letters.
He dropped his cigarette and burnt a hole in his jacket.

Learner example:
That day, I left her on the stairs, I came back home and burnt the letter.

PRODUCE FLAMES
[B1] [I] to be on fire, or to produce flames

Dictionary examples:
The wood was wet and would not burn.
A fire was burning brightly in the fireplace.

Learner example:
After a while I found matches and firewood, and soon a nice warm fire was burning in the fireplace.

COOK TOO LONG
[B1] [I or T] If you burn something that you are cooking, you cook it too much and if something you are cooking burns, it cooks too much.

Dictionary example:
Check the pizza – I think it's burning!

Learner example:
He burned the chicken, so we had only sala[d] and bread.

HURT BODY
[B1] [T] to hurt a part of the body with fire or heat

Dictionary example:
I burnt my hand on the iron.

Learner example:
If I go to the beach I like to wear a swimming suit that cover[s] all of my body because I don't want to burn my skin.

COPY
[B2] [T] to copy music, information or images onto a CD

Dictionary example:
He's burnt all his favourite records onto a CD.
Learner example:
Microsoft Vista is [such a] complex system that there is no need for the additional programs for viewing websites, watching movies, listening [to] music or burning your own CDs or DVDs.

ENERGY

[B2] ‟t (ALSO burn up) to use fuel to produce heat or energy

Dictionary example: to burn calories/fuel

Learner example:
In this way, our organism is provided with oxygen which is essential in order to burn fat and produce the energy we need every day.

burn the midnight oil

[C2] to work late into the night

Dictionary example:
I had to burn the midnight oil to get the essay finished.

Learner example:
My examinations were nearing and I was always burning the midnight oil.

b<\u00a0urning ˈbɜː.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: burn
Adjectives: burning

ADJECTIVE

ON FIRE

[B1] on fire

Dictionary example:
A man staggered from the burning car.

Learner example:
I saw a burning car.

a burning issue/question

[C1] a subject or question that must be dealt with or answered quickly

Dictionary example:
Climate change is the burning issue of the day.

Learner example:
Dear David Gold, I am writing this letter to discuss and give my opinion on the two proposals for solving the traffic problem in Castlecross, which is widely recognised as arguably the most burning issue nowadays.
burning ambition/desire, etc.
[C1] a very strong need to do something

Dictionary example:
I have no burning desire to go diving.

Learner example:
By travelling back to Germany in 1933 I might be able to find out where Hitler’s burning ambition to rule the world stemmed from in the first place.

burst /bɜːst/

VERB [I or T] (burst, burst)

BREAK APART
[B2] to break open or apart suddenly, or to make something do this

Dictionary examples:
The balloon burst and frightened the children.
Suddenly the door burst open and police officers carrying guns rushed in.
If I eat any more cake I’ll burst!

Learner example:
We had a lovely lunch there and ate so much that we nearly burst.

be bursting with confidence/joy, etc.
[C2] to be full of an emotion or quality

Dictionary example:
She was bursting with pride.

Learner example:
And after, they feel as fit as a fiddle, bursting with energy to go back to work.

burst into flames
[C2] to suddenly start burning

Dictionary example:
The car plunged down a hill and burst into flames.

Learner example:
When we turned it on, it burst into flames and before we could extinguish it, the fire destroyed my desk.
bury /ˈber.i/

Word family:

Nouns: burial

Verbs: bury

VERB [T]

DEAD BODY

[B1] I to put a dead body into the ground

Dictionary example:
His father was buried in the churchyard.

Learner example:
Apparently, no human being was walking outside and she could not even hear anything but a distant bell, certainly that of the church where they had buried poor aunt Charlotte.

HIDE

[B2] to put something into a hole in the ground and cover it

Dictionary examples:
The dog trotted off to bury its bone.
buried treasure

Learner example:
I was really frightened, so I decided to bury the money in the back garden.

bury yourself in sth

[C2] to give all your attention to something

Dictionary example:
He buried himself in his work.

Learner example:
Miss Kenton is clearly attracted to the butler but he is equally clearly terrified of intimacy and buries himself in his work.

bury your face/head in sth

[C2] to move your face/head somewhere where it is hidden

Dictionary example:
She buried her face in her hands.

Learner example:
A seemingly courageous young man, who had stayed perfectly calm until that moment, dropped to his knees, then buried his face in the scorching sand.
bush /bʊʃ/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a short, thick plant with a lot of branches

Dictionary example:
a rose bush

Learner example:
There were so many flowers and bushes, [and] the water of the lake was so fresh.

beat about/around the bush
[C1] to avoid talking about something difficult or embarrassing

Dictionary example:
I decided to stop beating around the bush and told him exactly what I thought of him.

Learner example:
Well, let's stop beating about the bush and get to the point.

the bush
[C2] wild parts of Australia or Africa where very few people live

Dictionary example:
He spent weeks wandering in the bush.

Learner example:
For the first three days we were walking through different types of bush that changed like in a [kaleido]scope; the swampy, the dry, the barren.

business /ˈbɪz.nɪs/

NOUN

WORK
[B1] [u] the work that you do to earn money

Dictionary example:
I'm in Baltimore on business.

Learner example:
I was there on business.

be none of sb's business
[B2] If something is none of someone's business, they do not need to know about it, although they want to, because it does not affect them.

Dictionary example:
I'm certainly not going to tell Lara how much money I've spent – it's none of her business!
Learner example:
You might think it’s none of my business, but I simply have to say this.

mind your own business
[C2] used to tell someone in a rude way that you do not want them to ask about something private

Dictionary example:
I wish you’d just mind your own business.

Learner example:
Despite knowing that he was only doing what he thought was best for me, I couldn't stand him, and I often told him to mind his own business.

but /bʌt/

CONJUNCTION

EXPLAINING WHY
[B1] used before you say why something did not happen or is not true

Dictionary example:
I was going to go to his party, but I was ill.

Learner example:
I’m really sorry I haven’t written for so long, but I was very busy last week.

PREPOSITION

[B1] except

Dictionary examples:
Everyone but Andrew knows.
This car has been nothing but trouble – it's always breaking down!

Learner example:
I'm free all days of the week but Monday and Wednesday.

butcher /ˈbʊtʃə/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a person who sells meat in a shop. A shop that sells meat is usually called a butcher’s.

Learner example:
He start[ed] to work as a butcher.
butt /bʌt/

VERB

butt in PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to interrupt or join in a conversation or activity when the other people do not want you to

Dictionary example:
The interviewer kept butting in and wouldn't let me answer the question.

Learner example:
"Was it a big one, Granny?", the little girl butt[ed] in.

butterfly /ˈbʌt.ə.flaɪ/

NOUN [C]
[B1] an insect with large, patterned wings

Dictionary example:
A butterfly landed on her sleeve for a moment.

Learner example:
There were lot[s] of wild flowers and we saw some beautiful birds and butterflies.

button /ˈbʌt.ən/

NOUN [C]

ON MACHINE
[B1] a switch that you press to control a piece of equipment

Dictionary example:
He inserted the DVD and pressed the 'play' button.

Learner example:
I could have written a letter in a bottle but waiting for the answer would take a decade, now [with email] it's just a click of a button.

ON CLOTHING
[B1] a small, round object used to fasten something, for example a shirt or coat

Dictionary example:
I did up/undid the buttons on my blouse.
Learner example:
It was a long dress with some square buttons on the front of it.

buyer /ˈbaɪər/

Word family:
Nouns: buyer
Verbs: buy

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who buys something expensive such as a house

Dictionary example:
He's still looking for a buyer for his house.

Learner example:
She had already found a buyer for the famous painting.

buzz /bʌz/

NOUN

EXCITEMENT
[C2] [NO PLURAL] a feeling of excitement, energy, or pleasure

Dictionary example:
He gets a real buzz from going to the gym.

Learner example:
The reading groups will then create a real buzz in the community in regard to reading.

SOUND
[C2] [C] a continuous sound like a bee makes

Dictionary example:
I could hear the buzz of a fly near my ear.

Learner example:
I was working when I started hearing a kind of buzz, that was getting louder and louder.

VERB [I]

SOUND
[C2] to make a continuous noise like a bee

Dictionary example:
I can hear something buzzing.
Learner example:
They are now sitting quietly at their desks in a classroom where you can hear the flies buzz.

ENERGY
[C2] to be full of activity and excitement

Dictionary example:
The crowd was buzzing with excitement.

Learner example:
Summer was getting into full swing and the city was buzzing with activity.

by /baɪ/

PREPOSITION

NEAR
[B1] near or next to something or someone

Dictionary examples:
A small child stood by her side.
I'll meet you by the post office.

Learner example:
We'll meet by the cinema at 7.00 pm.

by accident/mistake, etc.
[B1] as a result of an accident, mistake, etc.

Dictionary example:
I went to the wrong room by mistake.

Learner example:
I was putting my shopping bags on the table and I pushed it by mistake.

by hand
[B1] done or made by a person instead of a machine

Dictionary example:
This sweater has to be washed by hand.

HOLDING
[B2] holding a particular part of someone or something

Dictionary example:
She grabbed me by the arm.

by far
[B2] by a great amount
Dictionary example:
They are by far the best students in the class.

Learner example:
I have travelled to many countries, but New Zealand is by far the best.

by heart
[B2] so that you can remember all of something

Dictionary example:
We had to learn the whole poem off by heart.

Learner example:
I know all his songs by heart and I was singing all the time.

day by day/little by little/one by one, etc.
[B2] used in particular phrases to mean 'gradually' or 'in units of'

Dictionary example:
Day by day he grew stronger.

Learner example:
The weather gets warmer and warmer day by day and noone miss[es] the rain and the severe cold of winter.

AMOUNT
[B2] used to show measurements or amounts

Dictionary examples:
twelve by ten metres of floor space
Interest rates have been increased by 0.25%.
I'm paid by the hour.
Copies have sold by the million.

Learner example:
Therefore you will see that this festival attracts people by the truckload.

by all accounts
[C1] as said by a lot of people

Dictionary example:
The party was, by all accounts, a great success.

Learner example:
I have known Michael Van Cleef for over two decades now, and he is, by all accounts, an exemplary worker.

by and large
[C1] in general

Dictionary example:
By and large, people have welcomed the changes.
Learner example:
By and large, it is clear that we all enjoy some kind of sport.

by law
[C1] If you have to do something by law, it is illegal not to do it.

Dictionary example:
They have to provide a contract by law.

Learner example:
Swedish organisations and [companies] are forced by law to put forward programmes for employing more women and improving their conditions.

by way of sth
[C1] as a type of something

Dictionary example:
He sent me some flowers by way of apology.

Learner example:
The Academy however provided nothing whatsoever by way of entertainment, though with a group of interesting young people and a little imagination this should not be a problem.

do sth by the book
[C2] to do something exactly as the rules tell you

Dictionary example:
If you want to get permission for the building, you'll need to do everything by the book.

Learner example:
The upper-class people always do things by the book, follow the rules and the conventions and therefore are stand-offish and cold.

by any chance
[C2] used to ask in a polite way whether something is possible or true

Dictionary example:
You're not Spanish by any chance, are you?

Learner example:
I pick up the phone "Hello, Nick have you by any chance got, or seen, my diary?"

by virtue of sth FORMAL [C2] because of something

Dictionary example:
She succeeded by virtue of hard work rather than talent.

Learner example:
However, you should take into consideration the expenses, which might be exorbitant by virtue of the fact that you intended to create places with a beautiful ambience and a wide range of comforts offered that will facilitate residents' lives.
by all means
[C2] something that you say when you are agreeing to let someone do something

Dictionary example:
I have a copy of the report on my desk. By all means have a look at it.

Learner example:
The kitchen utensils stay next to the sink. You can make use of them by all means.

by the same token [C2] in a similar way

Dictionary example:
You have to let people know your plans in good time and, by the same token, they should give you some advance warning.

Learner example:
Our college will only benefit from this event as long as it give[s] a nice and memorable impression. By the same token, we should all be well prepared and visualise beforehand possible manoeuvres that could appear, so that we can control the situation.
Cab

/NOUN [C]/

[B1] a taxi

Dictionary example:
We took a cab to the theatre.

Learner example:
I packed my things and I took a cab home.

---

Cabbage

/NOUN [C or U]/

[B1] a large round vegetable with green, white or purple leaves, which can be eaten cooked or raw

Dictionary examples:
a savoy cabbage
red/white cabbage

Learner example:
Sarma is made [with] meat and cabbage.

---

Cabin

/NOUN [C]/

[AIRCRAFT]

[B1] the area where passengers sit on an aircraft

Dictionary example:
cabin crew

Learner example:
She is [a] cabin attendant now, and she had a flight to London from Japan.
HOUSE
[C1] a small, simple house made of wood

Dictionary example:
a log cabin

Learner example:
For many years, the visitor could only stay in one of the few cabins near the lake, enjoying a breathtaking view.

SHIP
[C2] a small room to sleep in on a ship

Dictionary example:
We had a cabin on the top deck.

Learner example:
I went to my cabin to have a little nap.

cabinet ˈkæb.ɪ.nət/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a cupboard with shelves or drawers to store or show things in

Dictionary examples:
a bathroom/medicine cabinet
a glass-fronted cabinet

Learner example:
By the way I found your watch in the bathroom cabinet, so you don’t have to worry about it.

cable ˈkeɪ.bl/

NOUN

TELEVISION/TELEPHONE
[B1] [u] the system of sending signals carrying information for television, telephone, or Internet along wires

Dictionary examples:
cable TV/television
This channel is only available on cable.

Learner example:
The rooms are big and [have] cable TV and air conditioning.
WIRE
[B2] [C or u] a set of wires, covered by plastic, that carries electricity, telephone signals, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The road had been dug up in order to lay cables.
overhead power cables

Learner example:
A mouse had eaten the cable so that there was no contact any more.

cage /keɪdʒ/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a container made of wire or metal bars used for keeping birds or animals

Dictionary example:
It took about 10 minutes to get the mouse into her cage.

Learner example:
There is a wonderful garden, in which you can find a lot of flowers and parrots in [a] cage.

cake /keɪk/

NOUN [C or U]

be a piece of cake
[B2] informal to be very easy

Dictionary example:
The exam itself was a piece of cake.

Learner example:
The article was a piece of cake though I didn't expect to win.

sell like hot cakes
[C2] to be bought quickly and in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Their new game is selling like hot cakes.

Learner example:
Books about how to remain young are selling like hot cakes.
calculate /ˈkæl.kjʊ.leɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: calculation, calculator
Verbs: calculate

VERB [T]

MATHS

[B2] to discover an amount or number using mathematics

Dictionary examples:
Have you calculated the cost of the project?
He's calculated that it would take him two years to save up enough for a car.
At some stage we need to calculate when the project will be finished.

Learner example:
First of all, you say that we must do 80 kilometres on Saturday, but I have calculated the distance and [it is] only 50 kilometres.

be calculated to do sth

[C2] to be intended to have a particular effect

Dictionary example:
His comments were calculated to embarrass the prime minister.

Learner example:
Had he known that his Majesty would be vexed, he would have never written such comical rhymes, hardly calculated to endear himself to the King.

---

calculation /ˌkæl.kjʊˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: calculation, calculator
Verbs: calculate

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when you use mathematics to discover an amount or number

Dictionary example:
I did some quick calculations to see if we could afford it.

Learner example:
Just a simple calculation: the living space an elephant has got in a zoo is about 500m².
calculator /ˈkæl.kjʊˌleɪ.tə/

Word family:

Nouns: calculation, calculator
Verbs: calculate

NOUN [c]
[B1] an electronic device that you use to do mathematical calculations

Dictionary example:
a pocket calculator

Learner example:
I use the calculator and the computer every day, so modern technology has become a big part of my life.

calf /kɑːf/

NOUN [c] (plural calves)

ANIMAL
[B1] a young cow

Dictionary example:
There were some calves in the field.

Learner example:
That reminded me [of] the time when I milked the cows and fed the ewes and the calves.

LEG
[C2] the back of your leg below your knee

Dictionary example:
I pulled a muscle in my calf.

call /kɔːl/

VERB

NAME
[B1] [t] to give someone or something a particular name

Dictionary examples:
They’ve called the twins Katherine and Thomas.
His real name is Jonathan, but they’ve always called him ‘Johnny’.
Learner example:
Two months later, the baby girl was born and [she] called her 'Mary'.

SHOUT
[B1] I or τ to say something in a loud voice, especially in order to attract someone's attention

Dictionary examples:
Did you call?
I thought I heard someone call my name.
Someone in the crowd called (out) his name.
"Hey, come over here!" she called.

Learner example:
I ignored the voice, but again someone called me.

DESCRIBE
[B2] τ to describe someone or something in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
Are you calling me a liar?
He called it a disgrace.

Learner example:
You work too hard and you could be called a workaholic.

call in sick
[B2] to telephone the place where you work and report that you are sick and unable to work

Dictionary example:
Three people called in sick this morning.

Learner example:
A few minutes after the concert began, a backstage assistant called in sick who was responsible for checking whether everything is going well according to the timetable.

ASK TO COME
[C1] I or τ to ask someone to come somewhere

Dictionary examples:
She called me into her office.
He called me over to where he was sitting.
I keep the bedroom door open in case the children call for me in the night.

Learner example:
Next door there’s an elderly neighbour who I have always helped. [...] Remember to call him over [sometimes] and together watch television or play cards.

call an election/meeting, etc.
[C1] to arrange for an election/meeting, etc. to happen
Dictionary example:
The chairman has called an emergency meeting.

Learner example:
We hope you will call a meeting to discuss this matter in detail.

call it a day
[C2] informal to stop doing something, especially working

Dictionary example:
It's almost midnight – let's call it a day.

Learner example:
She decided to call it a day, so Meredith mustered all her courage and wrote a letter to him: "You are not good enough for me," she told him.

call sb names
[C2] to use impolite or unpleasant words to describe someone

Dictionary example:
He said the other children were calling him names.

Learner example:
He had never called me names or told me off.

NOUN [C]

SHOUT
[B1] when someone shouts something

Dictionary examples:
She could hear calls for help from inside the burning building.
I'll be in the next room, so give me a call if you need any help.

Learner example:
I continued on towards Kingsley Road where the call for help had been made.

sb's call informal
[B1] when someone can decide something

Dictionary example:
I don't mind what we do – it's your call.

Learner example:
This is my opinion, but it is your call, talk to your parents.

a call for sth
[C1] a demand for something to happen

Dictionary example:
a call for action/peace
Learner example:
Their demands included an all-out call for vital reforms in education – not, as one might expect, a call for higher salaries.

VISIT
[C1] a short visit

Dictionary example:
I thought I'd pay Gary a call.

Learner example:
During our stay in Dublin we [took] a half-day trip by bus throughout the city, which was an unforgettable experience, and paid a call to the National Museum as well.

calm  /kɑːm/

Word family:
Verbs: calm
Adjectives: calm
Adverbs: calmly

ADJECTIVE

PERSON
[B1] relaxed and not worried, frightened, or excited

Dictionary examples:
Try to stay calm – the doctor will be here soon.
Now keep calm everyone, the police are on their way.
He has a very calm manner/voice.

Learner example:
He is calm, friendly and helpful.

SEA/WEATHER
[B1] describes weather which is not windy, or the sea or a lake when it is still and has no waves

Dictionary examples:
calm seas
The weather was calmer the next morning so we set sail.
There was no rain that day and the sea was calm.

Learner example:
The sea is calm with almost no waves, so we could relax in the water.

VERB [T]

calm down (sb) or calm (sb) down PHRASAL VERB [B2] to stop feeling upset, angry, or excited, or to stop someone feeling this way
Dictionary examples:
Calm down, Lily, and tell me what's wrong.
She was angry at first but we managed to calm her down.
She sat down and took a few deep breaths to calm herself down.

Learner example:
When I got in my car, I told myself to calm down and take a deep breath.

calmly /ˈkɑː.m.ə.li/

Word family:
Verbs: calm
Adjectives: calm
Adverbs: calmly

ADVERB
[B2] in a quiet or relaxed way

Dictionary example:
She reacted surprisingly calmly to the news of his death.

Learner example:
Very calmly, I closed my book and put it on the table which was on my left.

camel /ˈkæm.əl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large animal that lives in the desert and has one or two raised parts on its back

Dictionary example:
Have you ever ridden a camel?

Learner example:
You can enjoy watching camels and goats passing, once in the morning and [again] in the evening.

camp /ˈkæmp/

Word family:
Nouns: camp, camping
Verbs: camp
NOUN

TENTS/BUILDINGS
[B1] [c or u] a place where people stay in tents or other temporary structures

Dictionary example:
We pitched/set up camp by the lakeside.

Learner example:
The camp was a peaceful place with flowers, trees, and a [cycle track].

an army/prison/refugee, etc. camp
[B2] an area containing temporary buildings or tents used for soldiers/prisoners/refugees

Dictionary example:

Learner example:
This year I think I’d rather go to a refugee camp to organise a program for children.

campaign /ˈkæmˌpɛɪn/

NOUN [c]

ACTIVITIES
[C1] a series of organized activities or events intended to achieve a result

Dictionary example:
an advertising/election campaign

Learner example:
In order to solve problems caused by traffic congestion, perhaps the City Co[u]ncil should consider launching a publicity campaign to show people in Baden the alternative means of transport and the advantages of using them.

WAR
[C1] a series of military attacks

Dictionary example:
a bombing campaign

Learner example:
Another example is the campaign of Alexander the Great.

VERB [i]
[C1] to organize a series of activities to try to achieve something

Dictionary example:
to campaign against/for something
Learner example:
Instead of campaigning against tourism, people should [look for] ways of making it better and safer.

campsite /ˈkæmp.sæt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] an area where people can stay in tents for a holiday

Dictionary example:
The campsite was very near the beach.

Learner example:
I really enjoyed the scenery because near our tent there was a tiny waterfall; in front of our campsite there was a forest.

campus /ˈkæm.pəs/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the buildings of a college or university and the land that surrounds them

Dictionary example:
There's accommodation for about five hundred students on campus.

Learner example:
You [should] visit Kamakura City, which is 30 minutes from our campus by train.

can² /kæn/

MODAL VERB

SURPRISE
[B1] used to show surprise or lack of belief

Dictionary examples:
You can't possibly be hungry already!
Can you believe it?

Learner example:
In fact, the highest tree there is almost 30 metres tall! Can you believe that?

TYPICAL
[B2] used to talk about how someone often behaves or what something is often like
Dictionary example:
She can be really rude at times.

Learner example:
When you choose to travel by car there can be a lot of traffic.

SOMETIMES HAPPENING

[B2] used to say that something sometimes happens or is true

Dictionary examples:
Smoking can cause cancer.
The nights can be very cold.

Learner example:
But overworking is also bad. It has lots of disadvantages, and can cause lots of problems, including health problems.

---

canal /kəˈnæl/

NOUN [c]

[B1] an artificial river built for boats to travel along or to take water from one area to another

Dictionary example:
The Panama Canal provides a crucial shipping link between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

Learner example:
And if you don’t like jazz, you could visit Tivoli or take a canal tour.

---

cancel /ˈkæn.təl/ (-ll- or US USUALLY -l-)

Word family:
Nouns: cancellation
Verbs: cancel

VERB [r]

[B1] to decide that an organized event will not now happen, or to stop an order for goods or services that you no longer want

Dictionary examples:
They’ve had to cancel tomorrow’s football match because of the bad weather.
The 7:10 train to London’s Kings Cross has been cancelled.
I’ve cancelled the order.

Learner example:
I had nothing to do because my previous plans had been cancelled.
cancellation /ˌkæn.ˈsəl.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: cancellation

Verbs: cancel

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] when someone decides that an event will not now happen or stops an order for something

Dictionary example:
a last-minute cancellation

Learner example:
To begin with, there was a general disappointment due to the cancellation of the opening speech.

cancer /ˈkænt.ər/

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] ! a serious disease that is caused when cells in the body grow in a way that is uncontrolled and not normal

Dictionary examples:
breast/lung cancer
He died of liver cancer.
cancer of the stomach
a cancer patient

Learner example:
The doctors told my parents that my aunt was suffering from cancer.

candidate /ˈkænd.i.dət/

NOUN [C]

EXAMINATION

[B1] someone who is taking an exam

Dictionary example:
Write your name and candidate number in the spaces at the top of this page.

Learner example:
It is [the] name [of] [an]other candidate who passed the examination.

JOB/ELECTION

[B2] a person who is competing to get a job or elected position
Dictionary example:
There are three candidates standing in the election.

Learner example:
I am the appropriate candidate for this job.

candle  /ˈkæn.dəl/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a stick of wax with string going through it which produces light as it burns

Dictionary example:
Shall I light a candle?

Learner example:
I like shopping for clothes but also for other things like candles and so on.

canned  /kænd/

Word family:
Nouns: can Adjectives: canned

ADJECTIVE
[B2] used to describe food or drink that has been put into metal containers in a factory

Dictionary example:
canned tomatoes

Learner example:
A new way of of eating has sprung [up] – fast food and canned vegetables are all around us.

canteen  /kænˈtiːn/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a restaurant in a school, college, factory, office, etc.

Dictionary example:
a school/college canteen

Learner example:
I went to [the] canteen to buy something.
cap /kæp/

VERB [r]

LIMIT
[C1] to put a limit on an amount of money that can be borrowed, charged, etc.

Dictionary example:
The interest rate has been capped at 5%.

Learner example:
The cost should also be delinked from the international petrol prices and capped at certain fixed rates for a fixed term.

to cap it all
[C1] used when you mention something in addition to all the other bad or disappointing things that have happened

Dictionary example:
It's been a terrible week and now, to cap it all, the car's broken down.

Learner example:
To cap it all, there was often not enough to eat.

capability /ˌkeɪ.pəˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: capability
Adjectives: capable, incapable

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] the ability or power to do something

Dictionary examples:
Both players have the capability to win this match.
With the new machines we finally have the capability to do the job properly.

Learner example:
The most important part of this job is to be able to work as a member of a team and manage to use everyone's skills and capabilities.

capable /ˈkeɪ.pə.bl/
ADJECTIVE

GOOD AT DOING THINGS

[B2] able to do things effectively and achieve results

Dictionary examples:
She's a very capable young woman.
He's very capable.

Learner example:
I had a little farm when I was in Italy so I think I'm quite capable and have more experience than others.

capable of sth/doing sth

[B2] having the ability, power or qualities to be able to do something

Dictionary examples:
She is certainly capable of running the business.
She was capable of great cruelty.

Learner example:
And although I've never had to cook [for] myself, I suppose I would be capable of cooking if needed.

capacity /ˈkæpəsəti/

NOUN

AMOUNT

[B2] [c or u] the largest amount or number that a container, building, etc. can hold

Dictionary examples:
a restaurant with a capacity of 200
The new stadium has a seating capacity of 50 000.
The ground was filled to capacity.

Learner example:
I would recommend the use of the state stadium next year for the concerts, in order to support the capacity of the crowd.

ABILITY

[B2] [c] the ability to do, experience, or understand something

Dictionary examples:
She has a great capacity for hard work. What impresses me is his capacity to absorb information.

Learner example:
On the other hand, I think [films] reduce your capacity [for] imagination.
JOB
[C1] [c] a position or job

Dictionary example:
He attended over 100 events last year in his capacity as mayor.

Learner example:
I’m writing in my capacity as secretary of the Social Club of the language school to complain about the services provided to us during our visit to the Science and Technology museum.

capitalism /ˈkæp.ɪ.təl.ɪzm/

Word family:
Nouns: capitalism
Adjectives: capitalist

NOUN [u]
[C2] a political and economic system in which industry is owned privately for profit and not by the state

Dictionary example:
Modern capitalism has shaped the global economy.

Learner example:
Although living in the former DDR was almost like living in prison, the film shows the problem of unemployment and the negative results of capitalism.

capitalist /ˈkæp.ɪ.təl.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: capitalism
Adjectives: capitalist

ADJECTIVE
[C2] relating to capitalism

Dictionary example:
a capitalist society

Learner example:
There will be important insights to have in examining the ways Japan maintains its social solidarity while prospering as a capitalist society.
captain /ˈkæp.tɪn/

NOUN [C]

SPORTS

[B1] the leader of a sports team

Dictionary example:
It's unusual to have a goalkeeper as (the) captain of a football team.

Learner example:
Now I am the captain of the football team.

SHIP/AIRCRAFT

[B2] the person in charge of a ship or an aircraft

Dictionary example:
This is your captain speaking. We expect to be landing at London Heathrow in an hour's time.

Learner example:
At his third attempt the captain succeeded in landing the plane on the air-strip.

capture /ˈkæp.tʃər/

VERB [T]

CATCH

[B2] to catch someone and make them your prisoner, or to take something into your possession, especially by force

Dictionary examples:
Two of the soldiers were killed and the rest were captured.
Rebel forces captured the city after a week-long battle.

Learner example:
Joe, the serial killer, was captured.

DESCRIBE

[B2] to show or describe something successfully using words or pictures

Dictionary example:
His book really captures the spirit of the place.

Learner example:
Firstly, let me tell you that your report is really good. I think you capture in a few lines the whole expression of a Mexican town's life.

capture sb/sth on camera/film, etc.

[B2] to record someone or something on camera/film, etc.
Dictionary example:
He was captured on film swearing at the referee.

Learner example:
Another event that should absolutely be captured on film is the preparation of the meals in the canteen.

capture sb's attention/ imagination/ interest
[C1] to make someone interested in or excited about something

Dictionary example:
The Moon landing captured the attention of the whole world.

Learner example:
I am sure this program would capture the interest of other students in this college, as those who participated would be telling their friends all about their adventurous trip.

NOUN [u]
[C1] when a person or animal is caught and made a prisoner

Dictionary example:
He shot himself to avoid capture.

Learner example:
The best example is Operation Takedown which is based on the capture of Kevin Mitnick, who illegally hacked into computers and stole information, but in the movie he is presented [as] a hero.

| carbon | /ˈkaːbən/ |

NOUN [u]
[B2] a chemical element present in all animals and plants and in coal and oil

Dictionary example:
Diamonds are formed from carbon.

| carbon dioxide | /ˌkaːn.ˈdɑɪ.əkˈsaɪd/ |

NOUN [u]
[B2] the gas formed when carbon is burned, or when people or animals breathe out

Dictionary example:
carbon dioxide emissions

Learner example:
If we use up carbon dioxide with balloon clothes there will be less carbon dioxide on Earth, so there is no worry about [the] Ozone.
carbon footprint /ˌkɑː.bənˈfʊt.prɪnt/

NOUN [c]
[B2] the amount of energy that a person or organization uses in order to exist or operate

Dictionary example:
Many of us could reduce our carbon footprint by taking fewer flights and insulating our homes better.

Learner example:
I also included some possible precautions to reduce our carbon footprints.

carbon monoxide /ˌkɑː.bən.məˈnɒk.sɑɪd/

NOUN [u]
[B2] a poisonous gas that is produced by burning some types of fuel, especially petrol

Dictionary example:
The cause of death was given as carbon monoxide poisoning.

Learner example:
Cars also emit carbon monoxide and make the air unfit to breath.

card /kɑːd/

NOUN [c]

INFORMATION
[B1] a small piece of stiff paper or plastic that has information printed on it

Dictionary examples:
a library card
He gave me his business card.

Learner example:
It is important because my student card is in there.

COMPUTER
[B1] a part inside a computer which controls how the computer operates

Dictionary example:
a graphics/sound card
Learner example:
Obviously, I complete[d] the configuration with a sound card and the connection by modem to [the] internet, creating a powerful multimedia work station.

be on the cards
[C2] to be likely to happen

Dictionary example:
Do you think marriage is on the cards?

cardboard  /ˈkɑːd.bɔːd/

NOUN [U]
[B2] material like very thick stiff paper, usually pale brown in colour, which is used especially for making boxes

Dictionary example:
a cardboard box

cardigan  /ˈkɑː.dɪ.gən/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a piece of clothing often made from wool, which covers the upper part of the body and fastens at the front

Dictionary example:
My worst present ever was an orange and green knitted cardigan from my aunt.

Learner example:
I lost my favourite pink cardigan.

care  /keər/

Word family:
Nouns: care, carelessness
Verbs: care
Adjectives: careful, careless, caring
Adverbs: carefully, carelessly

NOUN

take care of sb/sth
[B1] to look after someone or something 390

Dictionary examples:
Take good care of your sister, Patrick.
Don’t worry about me, I can take care of myself.
My parents will take care of the house while we’re away.

Learner example:
My dad had to go to Canada for a meeting, so he asked me to take care of her.

ATTENTION
[B1] [u] when you give a lot of attention to something so that you do not make a mistake or damage anything

Dictionary examples:
The roads are icy, so drive with care.
Take care that you don’t fall.
You need to take a bit more care with your spelling.
The parcel had a label on it saying 'Handle with care'.

Learner example:
I will return your bicycle tomorrow or the day after and I promise that I will handle it with care.

PROTECTION
[B2] [u] the process of protecting and looking after someone or something

Dictionary examples:
The standard of care at our local hospital is excellent.
Nurseries are responsible for the children in their care.

Learner example:
In zoos, there are many people who look after them, of course, and so many people think that this care is enough.

take care of sth/doing sth
[C1] to be responsible for dealing with something

Dictionary example:
I did the cooking while Guy took care of the washing up.

Learner example:
As for special requirements, one man and one woman are vegetarians and the woman is allergic to cats. I hope you are able to take care of that.

WORRY
[C2] [c] a feeling of worry

Dictionary example:
He was sixteen years old and didn’t have a care in the world.

Learner example:
The world is your oyster and you do not have a care in the world.
WORRY

[B1] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to think that something is important and to feel interested in it or worried about it

Dictionary examples:
She’s never cared very much about her appearance.
I really don’t care whether we go out or not.
I don’t care how much it costs, just buy it.

Learner example:
He gave us some paperwork and didn’t care if we understood what to do.

LOVE

[B1] [ɪ] to love someone

Dictionary examples:
Your parents are only doing this because they care about you.
I knew that Amy still cared for me.

Learner example:
He never cared about you.

Who cares?

[B2] informal used to emphasize that you do not think something is important

Dictionary example:
“Chelsea should have reached the final!” “Who cares?”

Learner example:
“Who cares?” he answered.

I/he, etc. couldn’t care less informal

[C1] used to emphasize that someone is not interested in or worried about something or someone

Dictionary example:
I couldn’t care less what people think.

Learner example:
There was hunger, there was poverty and the king couldn’t care less about his people’s well-being.
career /ˈkɛərɪə/

NOUN [C]

JOB

[B1] the job or series of jobs that you do during your working life, especially if you continue to get better jobs and earn more money

Dictionary examples:
He hasn't yet chosen a career.
a successful career in marketing
What are the career prospects?

Learner example:
I think it's important to learn English for my career in the future.

TIME

[C2] the time that you spend doing a particular job

Dictionary example:
She began her acting career in TV commercials.

Learner example:
His tennis career was only a small introduction to his business career.

carefree /ˈkeə.fri:/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] without any worries or problems

Dictionary example:
a carefree childhood

Learner example:
It reminded her of their far-away, carefree youth when they were energetic, healthy and full of hope.

careless /ˈkeə.ləs/

Word family:

Nouns: care, carelessness
Verbs: care
Adjectives: careful, careless, caring
Adverbs: carefully, carelessly
ADJECTIVE
[B1] not giving enough attention to what you are doing

Dictionary examples:
careless driving/drivers
My son's teacher says that his work is often rather careless.
He made a careless remark about her appearance that really upset her.

Learner example:
In short, we have to realise the danger of careless driving, in order to avoid or at least to reduce the high rate of car accidents.

carelessly ˈkeə.ləs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: care, carelessness
Verbs: care
Adjectives: careful, careless, caring
Adverbs: carefully, carelessly

ADVERB
[B2] in a careless way

Dictionary example:
He told me off for driving carelessly.

Learner example:
I broke your beautiful vase carelessly while I ran to answer the door.

carelessness ˈkeə.ləs.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: care, carelessness
Verbs: care
Adjectives: careful, careless, caring
Adverbs: carefully, carelessly

NOUN [u]
[B2] the state of being careless

Dictionary example:
It's the carelessness with which he just throws stuff on the floor that annoys me.

Learner example:
Please forgive my carelessness. I'd like to bring a new one like yours when I come to you next time.
cargo /ˈkɑː.gə/

NOUN [c or u] (cargoes)
[C2] goods that are carried in a vehicle

Dictionary examples:
a cargo of oil
a cargo ship/plane

Learner example:
The ships that pass through the Schelde usually carry cargo such as oil, and different vitally important foods from abroad.

caring /ˈkeə.rɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: care, carelessness
Verbs: care
Adjectives: careful, careless, caring
Adverbs: carefully, carelessly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] describes someone who is kind and gives emotional support to others

Dictionary example:
I've always thought of Jo as a very caring person.

Learner example:
Of course I enjoyed staying with you. It was really a remarkable experience being able to live with a caring family like yours.

carnival /ˈkɑr.nɪ.vəl/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a public celebration where people wear special clothes and dance and play music in the streets

Dictionary example:
I took the kids to the local carnival.

Learner example:
Of course it is not as good as the carnival of Rio!
carriage  /ˈkær.i.dʒ/

NOUN [C]

TRAIN
[C1] one of the separate parts of a train where the passengers sit

Dictionary example:
The front carriage of the train is for first-class passengers only.

Learner example:
You may also buy a ticket in a sleeping carriage and spend the whole night comfortably sleeping.

WITH HORSE
[C2] a vehicle with wheels that is pulled by a horse

Dictionary example:
a horse and carriage

Learner example:
James Brown, the most brilliant detective of all time, was driving in a horse-drawn carriage through the foggy London streets to his flat in Oxford Street.

carrot  /ˈkær.ət/

NOUN

REWARD
[C2] [c] INFORMAL something that is offered to someone in order to encourage them to do something

Dictionary example:
The carrot is the extra payment they will get if they finish the work on time.

Learner example:
Weiss'[s] policy of dangling the carrot proved useful – he managed, literally, to hit two birds with one stone.

carry  /ˈkær.i/

VERB [T]

HAVE WITH YOU
[B1] to have something with you all the time
Dictionary examples:
She still carries his photo in her purse.
Police officers in Britain do not usually carry guns.

Learner example:
I carried all of my holiday money inside it!

TRANSPORT
[B2] to move someone or something from one place to another

Dictionary examples:
The plane was carrying 300 passengers.
The bus was carrying children to school.
Underground cables carry electricity to all parts of the city.
Police think that the body was carried down the river.
Rubbish left on the beach during the day is carried away at night by the tide.

Learner example:
Jay's swimming trunks got carried away by that huge wave.

DISEASE
[C1] to have a disease that you might give to someone else

Dictionary example:
Mosquitoes carry malaria and other infectious diseases.

HAVE
[C2] to have something as a part, quality, or result of something

Dictionary examples:
All cigarette advertising must carry a government health warning.
Murder still carries the death penalty there.

Learner example:
It is not something flashy or expensive but to me it is an object that carries great sentimental value.

SUPPORT
[C2] to support the weight of something

Dictionary example:
Is the ice thick enough to carry my weight?

Learner example:
My legs hardly managed to carry my weight as we began to enter.

carry weight
[C2] to be considered important and effective in influencing someone

Dictionary example:
His opinions carry a lot of weight with the scientific community.
Learner example:
It has become increasingly important to strive for near perfection in every move they make, the pursuit of excellence therefore carrying more weight than ever and leading to strenuous training programs.

carve /kɑːv/

VERB [I or T]
[C2] to make an object, a shape, or a pattern by cutting wood, stone, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The statue was carved out of stone.
They had carved their initials into the tree.

Learner example:
Odd symbols have been carved on both sides of its square handle.

case /keɪs/

NOUN

SITUATION
[B1] [C] a particular situation or example of something

Dictionary examples:
Over fifty people were injured, in several cases seriously.
I wouldn't normally agree but I'll make an exception in this case.
The number of new cases of flu has risen.
We have lots of applications from people who want to study here and in each case we consider the candidate very carefully.
She was suffering from an extreme case of sunburn.

Learner example:
In this case, I suggest that you need to gather your friends and go to ask for it together.

in case of sth
[B1] when something happens, or in preparation for when something happens

Dictionary example:
We keep a bucket of water backstage, in case of fire.

Learner example:
It is about how to rescue people in case of an accident or a natural disaster.

(just) in case
[B1] because of a possibility of something happening, being needed, etc.
Dictionary examples:
I don’t think I’ll need any money but I’ll bring some just in case.
Bring a map in case you get lost.

Learner example:
I have my mobile with me just in case.

be the case
[B2] to be true

Dictionary examples:
Bad diet can cause tiredness, but I don’t think that’s the case here.
I take it that the booking includes breakfast – if that isn’t the case, please let us know.

Learner example:
Could you also please let me know if you’re coming back in time for dinner because if that’s the case I’ll make a sp[endid] dinner for us.

in any case
[B2] used to give another reason for something you are saying, or that you have done

Dictionary example:
I don’t want to go and in any case, I haven’t been invited.

Learner example:
I suggest that you should in any case leave your car at home and take buses or other public means of transport.

in that case
[B2] because of the mentioned situation

Dictionary example:
There’s no coffee left? In that case I’ll have tea.

Learner example:
You could try [k]ayaking. In that case, of course, you need to pay for the equipment.

CRIME
[B2] [c] a crime that police are trying to solve

Dictionary examples:
a murder case
Police in the town have investigated 50 cases of burglary in the past month.
The detective on the case has been suspended from duty.

Learner example:
They succeeded in solving a case too difficult even for the police.

COURT OF LAW
[B2] [c] a matter to be decided by a judge in a court of law
Dictionary examples:
The case will go before the European Court next month.
She accused her employer of unlawful dismissal and \textit{won/lost} her case.

Learner example:
To summarize, we lost the case on the ground that he had [a] criminal background and that the girl's testimony wasn't reliable because she was in love with the man, as she confessed herself in court.

ILLNESS

[C2] [c] an illness, or somebody with an illness

Dictionary example:
4,000 new cases of the disease are diagnosed every year.

Learner example:
Two years ago, Mr Slovac contacted us and told us that John had died of a severe case of malaria.

ARGUMENT

[C2] [c] arguments, facts, or reasons that prove a particular opinion

Dictionary examples:
There is a strong case \textit{for/against} bringing in the new legislation.
He put the case \textit{for} more funding very convincingly.
She was given the opportunity to \textit{state} her case.

Learner example:
But there are other reasons which help make a case for tourism.

\textbf{cash} \ /ˈkæʃ/ \

\underline{NOUN [u]}

\textbf{MONEY}

[B1] INFORMAL money in any form

Dictionary example:
I'm a bit \textit{short of} cash at the moment.

Learner example:
There are a lot of hotels, but if you don't want to spend [any] cash you can stay at my place.

\textbf{cashpoint} \ /ˈkæʃ.ˈpɔɪnt/ \

\underline{NOUN [c]}

[B1] a machine, usually in a wall outside a bank, that you can get money from using a plastic card
Dictionary example:
I got some money out from the cashpoint.

Learner example:
I went to the nearest cashpoint and got £400.

casserole /ˈkæs.ərəl/

NOUN

FOOD

[C2] [c or u] a mixture of meat or beans with liquid and vegetables cooked for a long time in the oven

Dictionary example:
a beef casserole

Learner example:
The "Quaint and Cosy", which faces our town's main square, is a classy place with a hint of irony: the atmosphere, quiet and relaxing, is what you need to taste a very special salmon en croute, and a pork and orange casserole that eventually became the restaurant's second name.

CONTAINER

[C2] [c] (also casserole dish) a large, heavy container with a lid, that is used for cooking casseroles

Dictionary example:
Bake the mixture in a casserole.

Learner example:
I remember going around the kitchen, looking for old used pans, casseroles and all kind of utensils which could call the attention of the people passing by.

cast /kaːst/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]

[B2] all the actors in a film, play or show

Dictionary examples:
After the final performance, the director threw a party for the cast.
Part of the film’s success lies in the strength of the supporting cast.

Learner example:
Unfortunately as soon as I came to the theatre I was told that there had been a change in the cast and Danny Brook was not part of it anymore.
VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

ACTORS
[C2] to choose an actor for a particular part in a film or play

Dictionary example:
Why is he always cast as a criminal?

Learner example:
And this "universal force" of this book made [it] possible to already have two cinematographic versions; the first, really similar to the book, casts Colin Firth as the main character, the second, an American version of the book, changed the football passion [to] a baseball madness, showing well how universal this story could be.

cast a/your vote
[C2] to vote

Dictionary example:
Many people cast their votes for the opposition.

Learner example:
When the day of the General Elections came, no woman cast her vote [for] James and he lost his seat to a man from a minority party, not even the man representing the Labour Party.

cast your mind back [C2] to try to remember

Dictionary example:
If you cast your mind back, you might recall that I never promised to go.

Learner example:
Thus, when I pick one of these stones, I cast my mind back to the specific place where I found it, the person I was, the particular moment.

cast a spell on sb
[C2] to seem to use magic to attract someone

Dictionary example:
The city had cast a spell on me and I never wanted to leave.

Learner example:
Even objects that came indirectly into our possession may cast an emotional spell on us.

cast a spell on sb
[C2] to use magic to make something happen to someone

Dictionary example:
The witch cast a spell on her.
Learner example:
The good fairy, taking pity upon Laura, prevented her from going on living without her prince – which would have been too painful for her – by casting a spell upon the castle that put every one of its inhabitants into a deep, dreamless sleep.

cast doubt on sb/sth
[C2] to make people feel uncertain about someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Witnesses have cast doubt on the suspect’s innocence.
A leading scientist has cast doubts on government claims that the drug is safe.

Learner example:
Wars lead to suffering, tears and [the] death of many people. They cast doubt on our humanity and values, especially in countries where the right to live is the principal one.

LIGHT
[C2] LITERARY to send light or shadow in a particular direction

Dictionary example:
The moon cast a white light into the room.

Learner example:
The first blush of the morning was casting a yellow soft light over the landscape.

casual /ˈkæʒ.u.əl/

ADJECTIVE

CLOTHES
[B1] Casual clothes are comfortable but not smart and not suitable for formal occasions.

Dictionary example:
casual clothes

Learner example:
I mostly wear casual things, jumpers and jeans for example.

NOT PLANNED
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] not planned, or without particular meaning or importance

Dictionary example:
a casual meeting/remark

Learner example:
It was last summer, when I had a casual meeting with someone.
WORK
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] Casual work is not regular or fixed.

Dictionary example:
casual labour/workers

Learner example:
I am a registered nurse by profession and am a casual worker at Bankstown Hospital.

casually /ˈkæʒu.li/

ADVERB
[B2] in a casual way

Dictionary example:
She was dressed casually in shorts and a T-shirt.

Learner example:
I suggest that you and your group go dressed casually.

casualty /ˈkæʒu.əl.ti/

NOUN INJURED
[C2] someone who is injured or killed in an accident or war

Dictionary example:
Both sides in the conflict have promised to try to avoid civilian casualties.

Learner example:
As films, books and documentaries show, it was a real disaster, not only because the ship sank, but also due to the high number of casualties.

HOSPITAL
[C2] the part of a hospital where people go when they have been injured or have urgent illnesses so that they can be treated immediately – the official name for this is Accident and Emergency (A&E)

Dictionary example:
Mark has been taken to casualty.

Learner example:
It was so bad that I needed to be taken to casualty for my blood tests and X-rays.
catalogue /ˈkæt.ə.lɒg/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a book with a list of items, such as pictures on display or goods that you can buy from a business

Dictionary example:
a mail-order catalogue

Learner example:
I would be very grateful if you [could] send me the catalogue for the next auction.

catastrophe /kəˈtæs.trə.fi/

NOUN [c or u]
[C2] an extremely bad event that causes a lot of suffering or destruction

Dictionary example:
After the drought, the country is facing environmental catastrophe.

Learner example:
In Asian and African societies, where time is seen as a circle, rather than a straight line with [a] definite beginning and end, the legacy of past generations is regarded with due respect as the main source of wisdom and deliverance from natural catastrophes as well as everyday difficulties.

catch /kætʃ/

VERB (caught, caught)

STOP ESCAPING
[B1] [t] to find and stop a person or animal that is trying to escape

Dictionary examples:
Did they ever catch the terrorists?
They caught a lot of fish that day.

Learner example:
He gave me some good tips on how to catch some really large fish.

catch fire
[B1] to start burning

Dictionary example:
The factory caught fire late yesterday evening.
Learner example:
One of the new machines that I had brought from Germany had caught fire.

catch sb’s attention, interest, etc.
[B2] to make someone notice something and feel interested

Dictionary example:
A ship out at sea caught his attention.

Learner example:
The first thing that caught my attention in the advert was "... eight people from different countries...".

DISCOVER
[B2] [ɪ] to discover someone who is doing something wrong or something secret

Dictionary examples:
He caught her reading his old love letters.
She was caught cheating in the exam.

Learner example:
I [learnt] a good lesson when I was caught cheating on a test at school last year.

CRIMINAL
[B2] [ɪ] If the police catch a criminal, they find them and take them away.

Dictionary example:
These terrorists must be caught.

Learner example:
The issue had been forgotten and the burglar was never caught.

be/get caught
[C2] to be unable to avoid something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
I got caught in the rain.

Learner example:
I must apologise for my lateness as I was caught in the bad weather.

STICK
[C2] [ɪ or ɪ] to stick somewhere, or to make something stick somewhere

Dictionary example:
My dress caught on the door handle as I was leaving.

Learner example:
No sooner did I start bicycling before my slacks got caught in the chain and with a curse coming from my lips I fell right into the neighbour’s well trimmed shrubbery.

catch sight of sth
[C2] to see something suddenly, often only for a short time
Dictionary example:
He caught sight of himself in the mirror.

Learner example:
All we could see were people bursting into tears when they caught sight of his coffin.

catch sb’s eye
[C2] to get someone’s attention by looking at them

Dictionary example:
I tried to catch her eye, but she had already turned away.

Learner example:
All of a sudden she caught my eye and smiled in a sad way.

catch sb’s eye
[C2] to be attractive or different enough to be noticed by people

Dictionary example:
It was the colour of his jacket that caught my eye.

Learner example:
Dear Sir, I am writing regarding your newly published article about nutrition, which immediately caught my eye as I was reading your magazine.

catch sb off guard
[C2] to surprise someone by doing something when they are not ready to deal with it

Dictionary example:
The journalist caught him off guard and he admitted to lying.

Learner example:
It caught me off guard. This grotesque image shattered the comfort of a languid Sunday afternoon and for a few seconds hurled me into a world of pain.

category /ˈkæt.ər.i/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a group of people or things of the same type

Dictionary example:
There are three categories of accommodation – standard, executive and deluxe.

Learner example:
I belong to the category of people who think that society needs zoos.
cater /ˈkeɪ.tə/

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to provide and often serve food and drinks for a particular event

Dictionary example:
How many are we catering for at the wedding reception?

Learner example:
I can understand why you shortlisted these three proposals as all of them seem good enough to cater for our canteen.

catering /ˈkeɪ.tə.rɪŋ/

NOUN [U]
[B2] providing food and drinks for people

Dictionary examples:
Who did the catering for the party?
a high-class catering company

Learner example:
All food, appetizers and refreshments will be provided by a catering company.

cattle /ˈkæt.l/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B1] male and female cows kept on a farm for their milk or meat

Dictionary example:
beef/dairy cattle

Learner example:
He was born in Australia, where his father has a big cattle station.

cause /kɔːz/

NOUN
REASON WHY
[B2] [c] the reason why something, especially something bad, happens
Dictionary examples:
The police are still trying to establish the cause of the fire.
She had died of natural causes.

Learner example:
Overworking can be a cause of many problems.

PRINCIPLE
[C1] [c] a principle or aim that a group of people support or fight for

Dictionary examples:
The money will all go to a good cause.
He fought for the Republican cause in the war.

Learner example:
It would be a shame if people got the wrong impression, that it is not worth working and making an effort for charity and good causes and I would certainly not like to believe that your paper contributed to giving that impression??

REASON FOR
[C2] [u] a reason to feel something or to behave in a particular way

Dictionary example:
He's never given me any cause for concern.

Learner example:
Nowadays, the world is filled with fast food restaurants, making diseases like obesity a cause for concern everywhere.

VERB [ɪ]
[B2] to make something happen, especially something bad

Dictionary examples:
The difficult driving conditions caused several accidents.
Most heart attacks are caused by blood clots.
The bright light caused her to look away.

Learner example:
Admittedly, using your car is more convenient and easier than using public transport but, in my opinion, the advantages of using public transport outweigh the disadvantages it can cause.

caution  /ˈkɔːʃn/

Word family:
Nouns: caution
Verbs: caution
Adjectives: cautious
NOUN

CARE

[C1] [u] great care and attention not to take risks or get into danger

Dictionary examples:
Travellers have been advised to exercise great caution when passing through the region.
I would treat anything he says with extreme caution.

Learner example:
Extreme caution has to be taken during push–back and engine start.

throw caution to the wind

[C2] to take a risk

Dictionary example:
I decided to throw caution to the wind and book a ticket to India.

Learner example:
They just threw caution to the wind, and did what they wanted.

VERB

[C2] [I or T] FORMAL to warn someone of something

Dictionary example:
They were cautioned against buying shares in the company.

Learner example:
This is a totally unnecessary situation to be in and if possible, people should be cautioned about getting into such a habit.

cautious /ˈkɔː.ʃəs/

Word family:
Nouns: caution
Verbs: caution
Adjectives: cautious

ADJECTIVE

[B2] taking care to avoid risks or danger

Dictionary examples:
He’s a very cautious driver.
We take a more cautious approach.
She is cautious about lending money to anyone.

Learner example:
You should be cautious and sensible.
cave /kɛiv/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large hole in the side of a hill, cliff or mountain, or one that is underground

Dictionary example:
The area is also home to one of the largest underground cave and lake systems in Latin America.

Learner example:
The next day I went to see a cave with a blue lake inside it.

CD-ROM /ˌsiː.dɪˈrɒm/

NOUN [c or u]
[B1] ABBREVIATION FOR compact disc read-only memory: a disc that holds large amounts of information that can be read by a computer but cannot be changed

Dictionary example:
Cambridge dictionaries are available on CD-ROM.

cease /siːs/

VERB [i or T] FORMAL
[B2] to stop

Dictionary examples:
He ordered his men to cease firing.
The company has decided to cease all UK operations after this year.
She never ceases to amaze me.

Learner example:
I thought the ring was just inside my head, in the dream. But it didn’t cease, making me realize it was something else, from outside the room.

ceiling /ˈsiː.лин/

NOUN [c]

AMOUNT
[C2] a limit on the amount that can be paid for something

Dictionary example:
They have set a ceiling on pay rises.
celebrate /ˈsel.ə.breɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: celebration

Verbs: celebrate

VERB [I or T]

[B1] to do something enjoyable because it is a special day, or because something good has happened

Dictionary examples:
We always celebrate our wedding anniversary by going out to dinner. We'd just finished our exams so we were having a party to celebrate.

Learner example:
We are going to celebrate my husband's birthday at home with some friends, so I'm preparing everything for the party.

celebration /ˌsel.əˈbreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: celebration

Verbs: celebrate

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a special social event, such as a party, when you celebrate something, or the act of celebrating something

Dictionary examples:
There were lively New Year celebrations all over town. Such good news calls for a celebration!

Learner example:
He told me that he decided to marry and he invited me [to] the celebration in Paris in November.

celebrity /səˈle.breɪ.ti/

NOUN [C]

[B1] someone who is famous, especially in the entertainment business

Dictionary example:
It's a celebrity gossip magazine.

Learner example:
The walls are painted blue and hung with posters of my favourite celebrities.
cell /ˈsel/

NOUN [c]

ORGANISM

[B2] the smallest basic unit of a plant or animal

Dictionary examples:
brain/blood cells
cancer cells

Learner example:
[...] such as, us[ing] gamma rays to damage the cancer cell or to treat people's short sight and so on.

ROOM

[B2] a small room in a prison or police station where a prisoner is kept

Dictionary example:
He was kept in a prison cell for four months.

Learner example:
That's why six years after this I'm writing the story in my cold wet cell.

cellar /ˈsel.ər/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a room under the ground floor of a building, usually used for storage

Dictionary example:
He keeps his wine in the cellar.

Learner example:
We were in the cellar of the old castle without a candle or even matches.

cello /ˈtʃel.əʊ/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a large, wooden musical instrument with four strings that you hold between your knees to play

Dictionary example:
She plays the cello.

Learner example:
It was Beethoven, the 9th symphony. The cellos [and] violins, followed by the timpani... cemetery /ˈsem.ə.tri/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a place where dead people are buried

Dictionary example:
She went to the cemetery where her grandfather was buried.

Learner example:
It was Halloween night and almost midnight, and Steve had the idea of going out to the nearest cemetery to catch some ghosts or vampires.

centigrade /ˈsen.trɪ.greɪd/

NOUN [u]
[B2] a measurement of temperature in which water freezes at 0° and boils at 100°

Dictionary example:
Water boils at 100° centigrade.

Learner example:
The last few days I prefer[red] to go swimming, because the temperature was above thirty degrees centigrade.

central /ˈsen.trəl/

Word family:
Nouns: centre
Adjectives: central

ADJECTIVE

NEAR CENTRE
[B1] in or near the centre of a place or object

Dictionary examples:
central Europe/London
Of course, you pay more for premises with a central location.

Learner example:
We could go for a walk to the park in the central area of my town.

CITY
[C1] in the main part of a town or city

Dictionary example:
Our offices are very central.
Learner example:
The house location is very central, it is in South Kensington and it is within walking distance of Gloucester Road Underground station.

ORGANIZATION

[C1] ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN controlled or organized in one main place

Dictionary examples: central authorities/government the US central bank central control/planning

Learner example:
The contribution of the central government seems to be inevitable to complete the project.

IMPORTANT

[C2] main or most important

Dictionary examples:
a central character/figure the central argument of the book
Her role is central to the film.

Learner example:
As a central character, Piggy works both as a real boy and a symbol.

---

central heating /ˈsen.trəlˈhiːt.ɪŋ/

NOUN [u]

[B1] a system of heating a building by warming air or water in one place and carrying it to different rooms in pipes

Dictionary example:
The house had no central heating so in winter it was freezing.

Learner example:
I like this restaurant because it’s cheap, big and tidy, [and] at the same time it has central heating and air conditioning.

---

centre /ˈsen.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: centre
Adjectives: central be the centre of attention
[C2] to receive more attention than anyone or anything else

Dictionary example:
She loves to be the centre of attention.

Learner example:
To sum it up, most celebrities love being the centre of attention and sometimes even ask for it.

POLITICAL
[C2] [NO PLURAL] (also the centre) a political position with opinions that are not extreme

Dictionary example:
His political views are left of centre.

century /ˈsen.tʃəri/

NOUN [C]
the turn of the century
[C2] the start of a new century

Dictionary example:
He was born at the turn of the century.

cereal /ˈsɪəriəl/

NOUN [C or U]
PLANT
[C1] a plant that is grown to produce grain for food

Dictionary example:
cereal crops

Learner example:
During this part you can see cereal crops, mainly wheat.

ceremony /ˈser.aˌmaˌni/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a formal event that is performed on important social or religious occasions
Dictionary example:
a wedding/graduation ceremony

Learner example:
In July I’m going to [get] married to my girl friend, and the wedding ceremony is on 7th of July.

certain /ˈsɜː.tn/

Word family:
Nouns: certainty, uncertainty
Adjectives: certain, uncertain
Adverbs: certainly

ADJECTIVE

NO DOUBT
[B1] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] completely sure of something, or knowing without doubt that something is true

Dictionary examples:
I feel certain (that) you’re doing the right thing.
Are you absolutely certain (that) you gave them the right number?
I’m not certain how much it will cost.
He was quite certain about/of his attacker’s identity.

Learner example:
I’m certain that in your country weddings are as wonderful as in Brazil.

SURE TO HAPPEN
[B1] sure to happen, to do something, or to be true

Dictionary examples:
It now looks certain that she will resign.
One thing is certain: she’s not coming to my party.
How can we make certain that she sees the note?

Learner example:
If I were you I’d choose the large school because it’s certain that you’ll find people [there] that think like you.

PARTICULAR
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to refer to a particular person or thing without naming or describing them

Dictionary example:
The museum is only open at certain times of the day.
Learner example:
The last one I saw was called ‘Spelling’ and it was a kind of quiz where the competitors had to spell difficult words fast and finish at a certain time.

a certain
[B2] used before a noun when it is difficult to describe something exactly or give its exact amount

Dictionary example:
He's got a certain charm.

Learner example:
There was still that gleam and a certain kind of pride which let me assume once she must have been a strong lady.

know/say for certain
[C1] to know something without doubt

Dictionary example:
We don't know for certain whether she's coming.

Learner example:
The rules may be considered a bit too strict, the teaching methods too "old-fashioned", but I know for certain that this course gives very good preparation in [Busi]ness English.

certainly /ˈsɜː.tən.li/

Word family:
Nouns: certainty, uncertainty
Adjectives: certain, uncertain
Adverbs: certainly

ADVERB

certainly not
[C1] used after an adverb in short, negative replies

Dictionary examples:
"She's not exactly poor, is she?" "Certainly not."
"Will you be taking her there?" "Certainly not!"

Learner example:
Are all young people lazy and unable to participate in any form of sport? Certainly not!!! certainty /ˈsɜː.tən.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: certainty, uncertainty
- Adjectives: certain, uncertain
- Adverbs: certainly

NOUN

BEING SURE
- [B2] [u] when you are completely sure about something

Dictionary example:
I'm unable to answer that question with any certainty.

Learner example:
I can say with certainty that this town is just a treasure of Polish culture.

SURE THING
- [C2] [c] something that is very likely to happen or cannot be doubted

Dictionary example:
There are no absolute certainties in life.

Learner example:
The Book is a Hitchcockian sequence of chases, shaken certainties, mistaken identities, masquerades and escapes.

certificate /səˈtɪf.ɪ.kət/

NOUN [c]
- [B1] an official document that gives details to show that something is true

Dictionary examples:
a birth/marriage/death certificate an examination certificate a doctor's/medical certificate

Learner example:
You must have the PET certificate and you should speak another language. chain /ˈtʃeɪn/

NOUN

BUSINESS
[B1] [c] a number of similar shops, restaurants, etc. owned by the same company

Dictionary examples:
a chain of hotels/shops/supermarkets a fast-food chain

Learner example:
These days children [have] grown up with McDonalds and other fast-food chains.

EVENTS
[B2] [c] a series of things that happen one after the other

Dictionary examples:
a chain reaction
His arrival set off a surprising chain of events.

Learner example:
The problem began to increase because all her friends knew her secret. It was like a "chain reaction".

challenge /ˈtʃæl.ɪndʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: challenge
Verbs: challenge
Adjectives: challenging

NOUN

DIFFICULT
[B1] [c or u] something that is difficult and that tests someone's ability or determination

Dictionary examples:
Finding a solution to this problem is one of the greatest challenges faced by scientists today.
You know me – I like a challenge.
It's going to be a difficult job but I'm sure she'll rise to the challenge.

Learner example:
I went with two friends from school, we had a big adventure there and we had to face many challenges.
DISAGREEMENT
[C2] [c] an expression of disagreement with ideas, rules, or someone's authority

Dictionary example:
A challenge to the authority of the President

Learner example:
The one occasion in which Jack seems childish is when his challenge to Ralph's leadership fails and he weeps with humiliation.

VERB [T]
[B2] to express disagreement with ideas, rules, or someone's authority

Dictionary example:
Children challenge their parents' authority far more nowadays than they did in the past.

Learner example:
His daughter had just challenged him and he was struggling for a decision.

challenging /ˈtʃæl.in.dʒɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: challenge
Verbs: challenge
Adjectives: challenging

ADJECTIVE
[B1] difficult, in a way that tests your ability or determination

Dictionary example:
This has been a challenging time for us all.

Learner example:
Like cavaliers we ride across the country looking for adventures and challenging activities.

champion /ˈtʃæm.pi.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: champion, championship

NOUN [C]

WINNER
[B1] a person, animal, or team that wins a competition
Dictionary examples:
an Olympic champion
She is the world champion for the third year in succession.
The defending champion will play his first match of the tournament tomorrow.
Who are the European football champions?

Learner example:
Last week I played with a person who was the world chess champion!

SUPPORT

[C2] someone who supports, defends, or fights for a person, belief, or principle

Dictionary example:
a champion of human rights

Learner example:
What this argument attempts to show is that too much emphasis on them, perhaps accelerated by commercial interests, has let them act as if they were the champions of personal virtues.

championship /ˈtʃæm.pi.ən.ʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: champion, championship

NOUN [C]

[B1] a competition to find the best team or player in a particular game or sport

Dictionary examples:
the British Diving Championship
The world championships will be held in Scotland next year.
He has been playing championship tennis for three years now.

Learner example:
I have a sailing championship, in which I must participate.

chance /tʃɑːn.tʃ/
Dictionary examples:
There's a chance (that) he'll still be there.
Does she have any chance of winning?
You'd have a better chance of passing your exams if you worked a bit harder.
There's a good chance (that) I'll have this essay finished by tomorrow.
What are the chances of getting tickets for the Olympics?

Learner example:
Is [there] any chance [of] borrow[ing] your bicycle?

OPPORTUNITY
[B1] [c] the opportunity to do something

Dictionary examples:
I didn't get/have a chance to speak to her.
If you give me a chance to speak, I'll explain.
This trip is the chance of a lifetime.
He left and I missed my chance to say goodbye to him.

Learner example:
If you get a chance to learn to dance, you must do this because it [is] fun.

LUCK
[B1] [u] when something happens because of luck, or without being planned

Dictionary example:
I saw her by chance in the shop.

Learner example:
By chance it was my camera.

RISK
[B2] [c] a risk

Dictionary examples:
I'm delivering my work by hand. I'm not taking any chances.
There's a chance of injury in almost any sport.

Learner example:

(the) chances are [C2] it is likely

Dictionary examples:
Chances are that he'll refuse.
If we plan a picnic, the chances are that it'll rain.

Learner example:
This was the case in London this summer, and with England's failing electricity system, chances are that this winter we will experience a similar situation.
stand a chance
[C2] to have a chance of success or of achieving something

Dictionary examples:
He stands a good chance of winning the election.
These kids don't stand a chance of getting an education.

Learner example:
If this measure were taken, the outcome would be of fundamental importance for the currently unemployed because they will stand a chance of finding a job and making a living.

by any chance
[C2] used to ask in a polite way whether something is possible or true

Dictionary example:
You’re not Spanish by any chance, are you?

Learner example:
I pick up the phone "Hello, Nick have you by any chance got, or seen, my diary?

No chance!/ Not a chance!
[C2] used to emphasize that there is no possibility of something happening

Dictionary example:
"Do you think she’d go out with me?" "No chance!"

blow it/your chance(s) INFORMAL
[C2] If you blow it or blow your chance, you lose an opportunity to do something by doing or saying the wrong thing.

Dictionary examples:
I blew it when I criticized the way she ran the office.
Tom blew his chances of getting the job by arriving late for the interview.

Learner example:
I’m giving you one last chance. If you blow it, you’ll be sent to an Institution which treats people like you.

chancellor /ˈtʃænələr/

NOUN [c]

GOVERNMENT
[C2] the leader of the government in some countries

Dictionary example:
the German chancellor
Learner example:
Besides the point that our current government has become very much immovable during the last decade, Chancellor Kohl ought to know very well about Germany's historical development since he had passed his exam in history.

MONEY

[C2] the person in the British government who makes decisions about taxes and government spending

Dictionary example:
He became chancellor in 2010.

Learner example:
[He] soon rose to be the First Secretary in the Department of Finance, directly under the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>change /tʃeɪndʒ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: unchanged, changeable</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VERB

IN SHOP

[B1] [ɪ] to take something you have bought back to a shop and exchange it for something else

Dictionary example:
I had to change those trousers I bought for a bigger pair.

change your mind

[B1] to change a decision or opinion

Dictionary examples:
If you change your mind about coming tonight, just give me a call.
When I first met him I didn't like him but I've changed my mind.

Learner example:
After the first lesson, I changed my mind.

change the subject

[B2] to start talking about a different subject

Dictionary example:
I'd tried to explain the situation, but he just changed the subject.
Learner example:
Well, changing the subject, I accidentally broke your beautiful vase. I'm really sorry, I'll try to find [another] vase that looks similar.

NOUN

MONEY

[B1] [u] the money which is returned to someone who has paid for something which costs less than the amount that they gave

Dictionary example:
I think you've given me the wrong change.

Learner example:
First of all, I helped selling tickets and drinks and there I realized how bad my maths is – I took such a long time to give back the change!

COINS

[B1] [u] money which is coins rather than notes

Dictionary examples:
She gave me £5 in change.
My dad always used to carry a lot of loose/small change in his pocket.

Learner example:
He asked me if I had any change.

NEW EXPERIENCE

[B1] [USUALLY NO PLURAL] something which is pleasant or interesting because it is unusual or new

Dictionary examples:
It's nice to see her smile for a change.
"Shall we eat in the garden?" "Why not – it'll make a change."
We've always had a red car – it's time we had a change!

Learner example:
Last year the college had a sports day so this year we should have a party in a disco for a change.

a change of heart

[C2] If you have a change of heart, you change your opinion or feelings about something.

Dictionary example:
At first he said he wouldn't help us, but he seems to have had a change of heart.

Learner example:
The narrator didn't tell her big secret to Inder Lal and after a change of heart she decides to keep the baby.
changeable  /ˈtʃeɪn.dʒə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: change
Verbs: change
Adjectives: unchanged, changeable

ADJECTIVE
[C1] often changing, or likely to change

Dictionary example:
The weather was very changeable last summer.

Learner example:
I must say that summers here are a bit mild and changeable.

channel  /ˈtʃæn.əl/

NOUN [C]

COMMUNICATION
[C2] a way of communicating with people or getting something done

Dictionary examples:
a channel of communication
Please make your request through the proper channels.

VERB
[C2] to use money or energy for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
We've channelled all our resources into this project.

Learner example:
In the same way that it shouldn't take the place of more important matters, there shouldn't be so much money channelled into it, especially when we want to see it as sport rather than business, and when there are so many other much fairer ends for that money.

chaos  /ˈkeɪ.ɒs/

Word family:
Nouns: chaos
Adjectives: chaotic

NOUN [U]
[B2] a state of total confusion with no order
Dictionary examples:
Snow and ice have caused chaos on the roads.
Ever since our secretary walked out, the office has been in a state of total chaos.

Learner example:
There was chaos at the school.

chaotic /keɪˈɒt.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: chaos
Adjectives: chaotic

ADJECTIVE
[C1] in a state of chaos

Dictionary example:
a chaotic situation

Learner example:
Consequently, in order to improve the chaotic traffic situation it is advisable to choose other means of transport as mentioned above.

chapel /ˈtʃæp.əl/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a small church, or a room used as a church in a building

Dictionary example:
There is a small chapel in the grounds of the house.

Learner example:
On [one] occasion we were taken to a small chapel that was in such a state of dilapidation that it was not worth climb[ing] the stairs.

chapter /ˈtʃæp.tər/

NOUN [C]
[B1] one of the parts that a book is divided into

Dictionary example:
Read Chapter 3 before class tomorrow.

Learner example:
I promise you that I will read chapter 10 of the book, and I will make a resume for you.
character /ˈkær.ɪk.tə/

Word family:
Nouns: character, characteristic
Adjectives: characteristic

NOUN

IN A STORY

[B1] [c] a person represented in a film, play or story

Dictionary examples:
The film revolves around three main characters.
She had Mickey Mouse or some other cartoon/Disney character on her sweater.
He made his name as a character actor.

Learner example:
My favourite character was Gandalf but Lucie preferred Morween, the young elf maiden.

QUALITIES/PERSOALITY

[B1] [c or u] the combination of qualities and personality that makes a person different from others

Dictionary examples:
Politeness is traditionally part of the British character.
It would be very out of character of her to lie.
One of the joys of being a parent is watching the child’s character develop.
It’s not in his character to be jealous.

Learner example:
Mary had a strong character and faced her uncle with great courage.

INTERESTING QUALITIES

[B2] qualities that are interesting or unusual

Dictionary example:
a hotel of character

Learner example:
There [are] many very old house[s] with a lot of character and charm, [which are] just perfect for a photographer.

INTERESTING PERSON

[C1] [c] an interesting or funny person whose behaviour is different from most people's

Dictionary example:
Your granny's a real character.

Learner example:
Mr Brown is a great character.
WRITING

[C1] [c] a letter, sign, or number that you use when you are writing or printing

Dictionary example:
Chinese characters

Learner example:
However, [the] poems are written in old Japanese characters which are difficult to understand.

PERSON

[C2] [c] INFORMAL a particular kind of person

Dictionary example:
an unpleasant character

Learner example:
John was a gentle character, [rather] shy, but full of joy and happiness.

characteristic /ˌkær.ɪk.təˈrɪs.tɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: character, characteristic
Adjectives: characteristic

NOUN [c]

[B2] a typical or noticeable quality of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Unfortunately a big nose is a family characteristic.
Sentimentality seems a characteristic of all the writers of that period.
The male bird displays several characteristics which distinguish him from the female.

Learner example:
Orwell gives the animals human characteristics and we can identify with them.

ADJECTIVE

[C2] typical of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Grey stone is characteristic of buildings in that area.
With characteristic generosity, she offered to pay for us all.

Learner example:
But to be honest, food is the only feature which will stay as a characteristic aspect of a country.
charge /tʃɑːdʒ/

VERB

MONEY

[B1] [I or T] to ask an amount of money for something, especially a service or activity

Dictionary examples:
How much/What do you charge for delivery?
The bank charged commission to change my traveller’s cheques.
They charge you $20 just to get into the nightclub.
The local museum doesn’t charge for admission.

Learner example:
Be careful while you are in Brazil because sometimes people charge really high prices for everything just because you are a tourist.

ACCUSE

[B2] [T OFTEN PASSIVE] If the police charge someone, they accuse them officially of a crime.

Dictionary example:
She’s been charged with murder.

Learner example:
While Jem is accused of a minor crime, Joss is charged with smuggling.

ATTACK

[B2] [I or T] to attack someone or something by moving forward quickly

Dictionary examples:
The bull lowered its horns and charged.
The violence began when the police charged at a crowd of demonstrators.

Learner example:
They had water bombs and water pistols at the ready. They started charging down the field towards the fire and once in range everyone threw their balloon as far as they could.

ELECTRICITY

[B2] [I or T] to put electricity into something

Dictionary example:
My mobile needs charging.

NOUN

MONEY

[B1] [C or U] the amount of money that you have to pay for something, especially for an activity or service
Dictionary examples:
There's no charge for children under ten.
There's an admission charge of £5.
They fixed my watch free of charge.

Learner example:
It is free of charge and will give me an idea of this sport.

be in charge

[B1] to be the person who has control of or is responsible for someone or something

Dictionary examples:
She's in charge of a team of 20 people.
Who's in charge of organizing the music for the party.

Learner example:
I talk[ed] to the man who was in charge and [he] convince[d] me that it was safe, so I did it.

take charge

[B2] to take control of or make yourself responsible for something

Dictionary example:
I was happy to let her take charge of the holiday arrangements.

Learner example:
I am 21 years old which means that I can take charge of school children.

crime

[C1] [c] a formal police statement saying that someone is accused of a crime

Dictionary examples:
The 19-year-old will be appearing in court on Thursday where she will face criminal charges.
He has been arrested on a charge of murder.
The police brought a charge of theft against him.

Learner example:
He decided on the spot that if Paul was to return all the money he wouldn't press charges so he called his parents and asked them to find out where he was.

press charges

[C2] to complain officially about someone in a court of law

Dictionary example:
The family decided not to press charges against him.

Learner example:
He decided on the spot that if Paul was to return all the money he wouldn't press charges so he called his parents and asked them to find out where he was.
charisma /ˈkərɪz.mə/

Word family:

Nouns: charisma

Adjectives: charismatic

NOUN [u]

[C2] a natural power which some people have to influence or attract people

Dictionary example:
He is a respected politician but he lacks charisma.

Learner example:
I admire people with heart and soul, with that real charisma which can only blossom in highly intelligent and spiritual people – this is what we call `intense personality'.

charismatic /ˌkær.ɪzˈmæt.ɪk/

Word family:

Nouns: charisma

Adjectives: charismatic

ADJECTIVE

[C2] having a natural power to influence and attract people

Dictionary example:
Her mother was a very charismatic woman.

Learner example:
Some charismatic people have a great influence on others, and they are highly respected or praised.

charity /ˈtʃær.ə.ti/

NOUN

ORGANIZATION

[B1] [c or u] an official organization that gives money, food, or help to people who need it, or money, food, or help that is given to people who need it

Dictionary examples:
UNICEF is an international charity.
She does a lot of work for charity.
She does a lot of charity work.
People tend to give to charity at Christmas time.
Money from the sale of these cards will go to local charities.
Learner example:
In the club, we do some charity work, helping people.

KINDNESS

[C2] [u] kindness towards other people

Dictionary example:
an act of charity

Learner example:
It is undeniable that nowadays the whole world is suffering [from] the lack of good personalit[y] models to follow. Models that [ar]e able to show the importance of charity, humility and other qualities so old-fashioned in our age.

charm /tʃɑːm/

Word family:
Nouns: charm
Adjectives: charming

NOUN

QUALITY

[B2] [c or u] a quality which makes you like or feel attracted to someone or something

Dictionary examples:
a woman of great charm
The building has a certain charm.
I had to use all my charms to get them to lend us the hall.

Learner example:
It’s an extremely severe and rugged sort of landscape with its own very special charm.

LUCKY

[C2] [c] an object that you keep or wear because you believe that it is lucky

Dictionary example:
a lucky charm

Learner example:
Consequently, “the treasures” I took there were nothing but all the little gifts and lucky charms I had received from my boyfriend and friends.

VERB

[C2] to attract someone or persuade someone to do something because of your charm
Dictionary example:
We were charmed by his boyish manner.

Learner example:
She arrived in time for the ball held that night, and everybody was charmed by her looks and manners.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>charming</th>
<th>/ˈtʃɑː.mɪŋ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: charm
Adjectives: charming

ADJECTIVE
[B1] pleasant and attractive

Dictionary examples:
He's very charming.
It's a charming little village.

Learner example:
He's charming, but he's too talkative and not romantic enough.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>chart</th>
<th>/tʃaːt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN

DRAWING
[B2] [c] a drawing which shows information in a simple way, often using lines and curves to show amounts

Dictionary example:
a sales chart

Learner example:
Now I can create special charts at home.

the charts
[B2] an official list of the most popular songs each week

Dictionary example:
They're currently at the top of the charts with their single 'Enough'.

Learner example:
She gets to the people's hearts by music and she is now at the top of the charts with the song "Love me".
chase  /tʃeɪʃ/

VERB

RUN AFTER

[B2] [I or T] to run after someone or something in order to catch them

Dictionary examples:
The dog was chasing a rabbit.
She was chasing after her two-year-old son.

Learner example:
I could feel that the man was chasing after me.

chase sb/sth away/off/out, etc.

[B2] to run after a person or animal to make them leave a place

Dictionary example:
I chased the cat away.

Learner example:
But one day, Napoleon said that his rival Snowball was a spy of the farmers and chased him away.

TRY

[C2] [ɪ] to try very hard to get something

Dictionary example:
There are hundreds of graduates chasing very few jobs.

Learner example:
I was tired and for the first time I started to take notice [of] the smirks on peoples faces as I walked past them, the silent laughter and I saw myself through their eyes; I was an old fool, chasing a r[i]dic[u]lous, flimsy dream.

chat  /tʃæt/

Word family:
Nouns: chat
Verbs: chat
Adjectives: chatty

VERB [ɪ] (−tt−)

chat sb up or chat up sb PHRASAL VERB

[B2] to talk to someone in a way that shows them that you are sexually attracted to them

Dictionary example:
He spends hours in cafés, chatting up the waitresses.
Learner example:
Then he started to chat her up.

chat show /ˈtʃætˌʃəʊ/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a television or radio programme where people are asked questions about themselves

Dictionary example:
I saw her on a chat show last week.

Learner example:
But I'm very interested in politics, so I really enjoy political and chat shows.

chatty /ˈtʃæt.i/

Word family:
Nouns: chat
Verbs: chat
Adjectives: chatty

ADJECTIVE

PERSON
[C1] liking to talk

Dictionary example:
My sister is very chatty.

Learner example:
Both Mr Brown and Peter are chatty and not afraid of [the] camcorder.

WRITING
[C1] A piece of writing that is chatty has a friendly and informal style.

Dictionary example:
a chatty letter/style

Learner example:
To be more specific, the articles will include events taken from our college life, written in a humorous, chatty way in order to help them see life in its positive aspect.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>cheap /tʃiːp/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LOW QUALITY</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] low in price and quality</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I bought some cheap wine to cook with.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[The] &quot;luxury hotel&quot; from the advertisement happened to be a dirty, cheap hotel with no lift (notice that all the rooms were located on the 4th floor) and no service.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>cheat /tʃiːt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>VERB [I or T]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] to behave in a dishonest way in order to get what you want</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anyone caught cheating will be immediately disqualified from the exam.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She was caught cheating in her French exam.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>He cheats at cards.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She also didn't want to cheat during the exam because it wouldn't be fair to anyone.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>check /tʃek/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>VERB</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FIND OUT</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] [I or T] to find out about something</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I rang them yesterday to check when they were arriving.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you're near the garage, could you check whether the car's ready?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I called the company to check whether I really had won the jackpot.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ASK</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] [I] to ask someone for permission to do something</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I'd like to stay overnight, but I need to check with my parents.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
I'll be there at 4.00 the next day which will be the 5th. Would you check with your neighbours again, please?

NOUN [c]
[B1] an examination of something in order to make certain that it is correct or the way it should be

Dictionary examples:
The soldiers gave their equipment a final check before setting off.
We do safety checks on all our electrical equipment.
Security checks have become really strict at the airport.

Learner example:
I have to do some medical checks on my dog because I think it is very sick and may have a problem with its throat.

check-in (counter) /ˈtʃek.ɪnˌkaʊn.tə/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the place at an airport where you show your ticket so that you can be told where you will be sitting

Dictionary examples:
A representative from the tour operator will meet you at the check-in.
I'll meet you by the check-in counter.

Learner example:
After we had finished having coffee, we went to the check-in.

check-in (desk) /ˈtʃek.ɪnˌdesk/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the place at an airport where you show your ticket so that you can be told where you will be sitting

Dictionary examples:
A representative from the tour company will meet you at the check-in.
I'll meet you at the check-in desk.

Learner example:
After we had finished having coffee, we went to the check-in.
checkout /ˈtʃek.aʊt/

NOUN [c]

SHOP

[B1] the place in a shop, especially a large food shop, where you pay for your goods

Dictionary examples:
Your fruit and vegetables will be weighed at the checkout.
She works on the checkout at the local supermarket.

Learner example:
Your visit to the shop concludes in a long queue to the checkout (where you can easily spend another 30 minutes), where they will suck out some money from your account.

WEBSITE

[B1] the place on a website where you order and pay for goods

Dictionary example:
After you’ve chosen what you want, click here to proceed to checkout.

cheek /tʃiːk/

NOUN

[B1] [c] the soft part of your face which is below your eye and between your mouth and ear

Dictionary examples:
rosy cheeks
The tears ran down her cheeks.
He kissed her on both cheeks.

Learner example:
I kissed him on the cheek and I left him.

cheeky /ˈtʃiː.ki/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] slightly rude or showing no respect, but often in a funny way

Dictionary examples:
She’s got such a cheeky grin.
Don’t be so cheeky!
Learner example:
Don’t get angry, but I think your husband is a very cheeky man!

cheer /ˈtʃɪər/.

Word family:
Nouns: cheerfulness
Verbs: cheer
Adjectives: cheerful
Adverbs: cheerfully

VERB [i]
[B2] to give a loud shout of approval or encouragement

Dictionary examples:
Everyone cheered as the winners received their medals.
He was cheering for the other side.

Learner example:
When she had finished, she felt satisfied and so did the audience who cheered for Louise.

NOUN
[C2] a shout of approval or encouragement

Dictionary example:
His speech was drowned out by cheers.

Learner example:
They were welcomed onto the stage in their home town by deafening cheers from their fans.

cheerful /ˈtʃɪə.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: cheerfulness
Verbs: cheer
Adjectives: cheerful
Adverbs: cheerfully

ADJECTIVE

HAPPY
[B1] happy and positive

Dictionary examples:
He's usually fairly cheerful.
You're in a cheerful mood this morning.
She manages to stay cheerful despite everything.
Learner example:
Her fiancé is very kind and cheerful.

MAKING YOU FEEL HAPPY
[B2] describes a place or thing that is bright and pleasant and makes you feel positive and happy

Dictionary example:
The doctor's waiting room was bright and cheerful with yellow walls and curtains.

Learner example:
We can have [a] mixed colour[ed] carpet to make the reception area more cheerful.

cheerfully /ˈtʃɪə.fəli/

Word family:
Nouns: cheerfulness
Verbs: cheer
Adjectives: cheerful
Adverbs: cheerfully

ADVERB
[B2] in a cheerful way

Dictionary example:
She walked down the road, whistling cheerfully.

Learner example:
But Mr Robertson recognised Jane and greeted her very cheerfully.

cheerfulness /ˈtʃɪə.fəlnəs/

Word family:
Nouns: cheerfulness
Verbs: cheer
Adjectives: cheerful
Adverbs: cheerfully

NOUN [u]
[C2] the state of being happy or bright and pleasant to look at

Dictionary example:
His cheerfulness made us all feel better.

Learner example:
Bright colours are identified with cheerfulness and happiness and dark colours with sadness or feeling down.
Cheers! /tʃɪəz/

EXCLAMATION

BEFORE DRINK
[B1] a friendly expression said just before you drink an alcoholic drink

Dictionary example:
Cheers! To your good health.

GOODBYE
[B1] used to mean 'goodbye'

Dictionary example:
"Bye." "Cheers, see you next week."

Learner example:
See you later, cheers.

THANK YOU
[B2] used to mean 'thank you'

Dictionary example:
"I've bought you a drink." "Cheers, mate."

chemical /ˈkem.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: chemical, chemist, chemistry
Adjectives: chemical

NOUN [C]
[B2] a basic substance that is used in chemistry or produced by chemistry

Dictionary examples:
The government has pledged to reduce the amount of chemicals used in food production. Each year, factories release millions of tonnes of toxic chemicals into the atmosphere.

Learner example:
There are a lot of chemicals and sewage in the river Dollmitz and the lakes, too.

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to chemicals

Dictionary examples:
a chemical reaction
chemical weapons
The chemical industry produces such things as petrochemicals, drugs, paint and rubber.
Learner example:
In the latter many chemical reactions may be reproduced to show the students the final compounds generated.

chemist /ˈkem.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: chemical, chemist, chemistry
Adjectives: chemical

NOUN [c]

SCIENCE
[B1] a person who studies chemistry, or a scientist who works with chemicals or studies their reactions

Dictionary example:
Is he a chemist or a physicist?

Learner example:
I ha[d] been working in a factory because I am [a] chemist, but one day I decided to change my work [and] my life.

cherry /ˈtʃer.i/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a small, round, soft red or black fruit with a single hard seed in the middle

Dictionary example:
cherry trees

Learner example:
There was a big cherry tree, and there, on the top, was Trouble [the cat]!

chest /tʃest/

NOUN [c]

BODY
[B2] the front part of your body, between your neck and your waist, containing your heart and your lungs
Dictionary examples:
He was shot in the chest.
Peter has a very hairy chest.
She went to the doctor complaining of chest pains.

Learner example:
She tried to get her weapon, but then a bullet hit her chest like a hammer.

get sth off your chest INFORMAL
[C2] to tell someone about something that you have been worried or angry about for a long time

Dictionary example:
Tell me what's wrong – you'll feel better if you get it off your chest.

Learner example:
Chris is always caring and lends you his ear if there's something you need to get off your chest.

BOX
[C2] a strong, usually wooden, container with a lid, used for keeping things in

Dictionary example:
a treasure chest

Learner example:
The woman opened a heavy wooden chest and produced the book, after trying to sweep off a little of the dirt.

cHEST OF DRAWERS /ˌtʃest.əvˈdrɔːz/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a piece of furniture for keeping clothes in

Dictionary example:
We need a chest of drawers for Oliver's bedroom.

Learner example:
I bought a chest of drawers and put it next to the door.

cHEW /tʃuː/

VERB [I or T]

EAT
[B2] to crush food into smaller, softer pieces with the teeth so that it can be swallowed
Dictionary examples:
This meat is difficult to chew.
You don’t chew your food enough – that’s why you get indigestion.

Learner example:
Next, when you eat something, please chew [it] for a long time.

BITE
[B2] to repeatedly bite something without swallowing it

Dictionary examples:
She was chewing gum.
Our dog loves a bone to chew (on).
She sat in the dentist's waiting room, nervously chewing (at) her nails.

Learner example:
Students couldn’t chew bubble-gum, smoke or eat swe[e]ties in school, but they do now.

chewing gum /ˈtʃuː.ɪŋˌɡʌm/

NOUN [U]
[B1] a sweet that you chew but do not swallow

Dictionary example:
Would you like a piece/stick of chewing gum?

Learner example:
Some visitors [to the zoo] feed them with forbidden things like sugar or they give them chewing gum.

chief /tʃiːf/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
MOST IMPORTANT
[B2] most important or main

Dictionary examples:
The chief problem we have in the area now is the spread of disease.
The weather was our chief reason for coming here.

Learner example:
This is the chief argument of those who do not agree with zoos.

HIGHEST IN RANK
[B2] highest in rank
Dictionary example:
He is the chief economic adviser to the government.

Learner example:
Bob Wilson, the chief accountant, had resigned.

NOUN [C]
[B2] the person in charge of a group or organization

Dictionary examples:
a police chief
A new chief of the security forces has just been appointed.

Learner example:
I saw her one day, and she [told] me that she had been promoted to chief of section.

---

childhood /ˈtʃaɪld.hʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: child, childhood
Adjectives: childish

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] the time when someone is a child

Dictionary examples:
She had an unhappy childhood.
Childhood is not always a happy time.

Learner example:
The e-mail was from somebody who I haven't heard about since my childhood.

---

childish /ˈtʃaɪl.dɪʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: child, childhood
Adjectives: childish

ADJECTIVE

SILLY
[B2] Childish behaviour is silly, like that of a small child.

Dictionary example:
Don't be so childish!

Learner example:
In comparison with other countries' tourists, they seem to be a little childish, just like a group of duckling[s] or chickens.
OF A CHILD
[B2] typical of a child

Dictionary example:
childish handwriting

Learner example:
I heard a childish voice saying to me "Take my hand."

chill  /tʃɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: chill
Adjectives: chilly

VERB [I or T]

chill out PHRASAL VERB INFORMAL
[B2] to relax completely, or not allow things to upset you

Dictionary example:
Chill out, Dad – if we miss this train there's always another one.

Learner example:
I just can't wait to get there, grab some Coke and chill out!

NOUN

COLD
[C2] [NO PLURAL] a cold feeling

Dictionary example:
There's a definite chill in the air.

FEAR
[C2] [c] a sudden frightened feeling

Dictionary example:
The scream sent a chill down my spine.

Learner example:
A chill went down my spine.

chilly  /'tʃɪl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: chill
Adjectives: chilly
ADJECTIVE

[C1] unpleasantly cold

Dictionary example:
a chilly evening

Learner example:
Apart from everything mentioned, the worst thing was the fact that our coach broke down in the middle of nowhere on a chilly rainy day.

chimney /ˈtʃɪm.nɪ/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a hollow structure that allows the smoke from a fire inside a building to escape to the air outside

Dictionary example:
Factory chimneys belched dense white smoke into the sky.

Learner example:
The reason is half for my own health and fitness and half for the health of my town, which is polluted by lead, the smoke from chimneys and other artificial poisons.

chin /tʃɪn/

NOUN [C]

[B1] the bottom part of a person’s face, below their mouth

Dictionary examples:
Fasten the strap beneath your chin.
She sat behind the table, her chin resting in her hands.

Learner example:
I’m just about 20cm taller and I’ve grown whiskers on my chin, which is quite an uncommon look.

chip /tʃɪp/

NOUN [C]

COMPUTER PART

[B2] a very small part of a computer that stores information

Dictionary example:
a silicon chip
Learner example:
Even in cars and wash[ing] machines there're computer chips.

have a chip on your shoulder INFORMAL
[C2] to blame other people for something bad that has happened to you and continue to feel angry about it

Dictionary example:
She’s always had a real chip on her shoulder because she didn’t go to university.

Learner example:
I suppose that I have a chip on my shoulder!

VERB

chip in PHRASAL VERB
[C2] INFORMAL If several people chip in, they each give money to pay for something together.

Dictionary example:
We all chipped in to buy our teacher a present.

Learner example:
If you say it's on you they will offer to chip in and you can always say politely: "Sure, why not."

---

choice /tʃɔɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: choice
Verbs: choose

NOUN

RIGHT
[B1] [C U OR NO PLURAL] when you can choose between two or more things, or the decision to choose one thing or person and not someone or something else

Dictionary examples:
If I had a choice, I'd give up work.
I had to go – I had no choice.
It's a difficult choice to make.
It's your choice/The choice is yours.
It was a choice between black or brown.
Given the choice, I'd stay at home.
I'd prefer not to work Saturdays but I don't have much choice.
I'm single by choice.

Learner example:
I'm very sorry that I can't [make] the choice for you.
VARIETY

[B1] [U OR NO PLURAL] the range of different things from which you can choose

Dictionary examples:
The evening menu offers a wide choice of dishes.
The dress is available in a choice of colours.

Learner example:
There is a very wide choice of activities!

PERSON/THING

[B1] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] a person or thing that has been chosen or that can be chosen

Dictionary examples:
Harvard was not his first choice.
This type of nursery care may well be the best choice for your child.

Learner example:
For me, the best choice is to come to the city.

choir /ˈkwaɪər/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]

[B2] a group of people who sing together, often in a church or a school

Dictionary examples:
He sings in the church choir.
choir practice

Learner example:
I have sung in the church’s choir for three years, and I have had singing classes at school since first grade.

cholesterol /ˈkəʊ.əls.tər.ɒl/

NOUN [U]

[C1] a type of fat in your body that can cause heart disease if you have too much

Dictionary example:
The doctor said I had high cholesterol.
Learner example:
Hong Kong people have become fatter and fatter due to the adoption of Western food which is rich in fat and cholesterol.

choose /tʃuːz/ (chose, chosen)

Word family:
Nouns: choice
Verbs: choose

VERB [I or T]

choose to do sth
[B1] to decide to do something

Dictionary example:
Manuela chose to take a job in Paris.

chop /tʃɒp/

VERB [T] (−pp−)
[B2] to cut something into pieces with an axe, knife, or other sharp instrument

Dictionary examples:
He was chopping wood in the yard.
Add some fresh parsley, finely chopped.
Chop (up) the onions and carrots roughly.

Learner example:
You would use them to chop vegetable[s].

chore /tʃɔr/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a boring job that you must do

Dictionary example:
I find cooking a real chore.

Learner example:
The speed of "modern" life has increased and we do not have enough time to do the chores like ironing any more.
chronic /ˈkrɒn.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] A chronic illness or problem continues for a long time.

Dictionary examples:
- a chronic shortage of nurses
- chronic back pain

Learner example:
The daily and nightly disturbance of our lives causes chronic fatigue and high levels of irritation among the people, thus creating a most unwanted situation which should be ended as soon as possible.

cinema /ˈsɪn.ə.mə/

NOUN

ART

[C1] [u] the art or business of making films

Dictionary example:
an article about French cinema

Learner example:
In my opinion, this is a really fascinating film, not only for nature and wildlife lovers, but for everybody who likes good cinema.

circle /ˈsɜː.kl̩/

Word family:
Nouns: circle, circulation
Verbs: circle
Adjectives: circular

NOUN [C]

GROUP

[B2] a group of people with family, work or social connections

Dictionary examples:
- She's not one of my close circle of friends.
- It's a technical term used in medical circles.
Learner example:
His name is Omar Naber and he has quite a big circle of fans in Slovenia, although most of them are kids.

VERB

DRAW

[B1] [ɪ] to draw a circle around something

Dictionary example:
Circle the answer you think is correct.

MOVE

[C2] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to move in a circle, often around something

Dictionary example:
Birds circled above the trees.

Learner example:
Huge waves from the Atlantic were smash[ing] into the cliffs with a de[a]fening roar, while birds circled the sky high above us.

---

circuit /ˈsɜː.kɪt/

NOUN [C]

TRACK

[C2] a path, route, or sports track that is shaped like a circle

Dictionary example:
There is a fitness circuit in the woods.

Learner example:
And so it was no wonder that I went to the Suzuka circuit where the F-1 Grand Prix was held, which had already become one of the biggest events at that time.

ELECTRIC

[C2] a complete circle that an electric current travels around

Dictionary example:
an electrical circuit

Learner example:
Apparently there was a short circuit to the elevator circuit, as we were to learn later from the store supervisor.

EVENTS

[C2] a regular series of places or events that people involved in a particular activity go to Dictionary example:
the tennis circuit

Learner example:
Soon after, while he attended high school, he was already playing the New Jersey Club circuit, already showing traces of his persist[ence].

circular /ˈsəː.kjə.ˈlər/

Word family:
Nouns: circle, circulation
Verbs: circle
Adjectives: circular

ADJECTIVE

SHAPE
[B2] shaped like a circle
Dictionary example:
a circular rug
Learner example:
People who congratulate the marrying [couple] take a circular sweet.

ARGUMENT
[C2] used to describe an argument which keeps returning to the same points and is not effective Dictionary example:
a circular argument/theory circulation /ˌsəː.kjəˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: circle, circulation
Verbs: circle
Adjectives: circular

NOUN

BLOOD
[C2] the movement of blood around your body
Dictionary example:
Exercise improves your circulation.
Learner example:
This is a very unhealthy habit, because we could have some problems with our circulation and also we could suffer from pains in the joints.

NEWSPAPERS
[C2] the number of copies of a newspaper or magazine that are sold each day, week, etc.

Dictionary example:
The paper's circulation has fallen recently.

Learner example:
Being on top of the media world is something that has required hard work and competence and in a business where newspaper circulation depends on the political profile of the paper, he is not afraid of making a comment on current affairs.

circumstance /ˈsɜː.kəm.stɑːnts/

NOUN [C USUALLY PLURAL]
[B2] a fact or event that makes a situation the way it is

Dictionary examples:
I think she coped very well under the circumstances.
She died in suspicious circumstances.
We oppose capital punishment in/under any circumstances.
Under no circumstances should you approach the man.
The meeting has been cancelled due to circumstances beyond our control.

Learner example:
This party is being organised by my class for your husband's birthday, but there is something you should know, this party is a surprise so under no circumstances should you inform your husband about this.

circus /ˈsɜː.kəs/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a show in which a group of people and animals perform in a large tent

Dictionary examples:
a circus ring
The children loved being taken to the circus.

Learner example:
In the afternoon you can just go walking if you are not in a mood to do something exciting, but if are, you can go to the circus.
citizen /ˈsɪt.i.zən/

NOUN [c]

TOWN/CITY

[B2] someone who lives in a particular town or city

Dictionary example:
The citizens of Moscow woke up this morning to find they had a new government.

Learner example:
I think that it is a really good idea to make a film about our town and its citizens.

LEGAL RIGHT

[B2] someone who has a legal right to live in a particular country

Dictionary example:
He applied to become an American citizen.

Learner example:
I’m an American citizen because my mother comes from Queens, New York.

civil /ˈsɪv.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: civilization, civilian
Adjectives: civil

ADJECTIVE

[C1] relating to the ordinary people or things in a country and not to military or religious organizations

Dictionary example:
They married in a civil ceremony.

Learner example:
The wedding will occur first in the church, and then in front of the Mayor, who will personally come [to] the castle for the civil wedding.

civilian /siˈvɪl.i.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: civilization, civilian Adjectives: civil

NOUN [c]

[C2] someone who is not a member of a military organization or the police
Dictionary example:
Several civilians were killed in the attack.

Learner example:
Twenty peple were killed in an ambush on a UN convoy transfer[r]ing injured civilians to the country's central hospital.

civilization (also civilisation) /ˌsɪv.əl.aɪˈzɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: civilization, civilian Adjectives: civil

NOUN

SOCIETY
[B2] [c or u] human society with its well developed social organizations, or the culture and way of life of a society or country at a particular period in time

Dictionary examples:
Some people think that nuclear war would mean the end of civilization.
Cuzco was the centre of one of the world's most famous civilizations, that of the Incas. ancient civilizations

Learner example:
Since the beginning of civilization, man has been looking for co[m]fort and better ways to do things.

WAY OF LIFE
[C1] [u] when people have an advanced and comfortable way of life

Dictionary example:
modern civilization

Learner example:
Even if this idea is idealistic, some think that they will take advantage of all the benefits of modern civilization.

claim /kleɪm/

VERB

SAY
[B2] [r] to say that something is true or is a fact, although you cannot prove it and other people might not believe it
Dictionary examples:
The company claims (that) it is not responsible for the pollution in the river. He claims to have met the President, but I don't believe him. An unknown terrorist group has claimed responsibility for this morning's bomb attack. All parties have claimed success in yesterday's elections.

Learner example:
Bicycle supporters claim that it is silent and keeps owners fit.

DEMAND
[B2] [I or T] to ask for something because it belongs to you or you think you have the right to have it

Dictionary examples:
She claimed £1,500 in expenses. Don't forget to claim (for) your travelling expenses after the interview. The number of people claiming unemployment benefit has risen sharply this month. If the shop won't give me a replacement TV, I'll claim my money back.

Learner example:
I also would like to claim [a] refund for the evening.

claim credit/responsibility/success, etc.
[C2] to say that you have done or achieved something

Dictionary example:
No one has claimed responsibility for yesterday's bomb attack.

NOUN [C]

DEMAND
[B2] a written request asking an organization to pay you a sum of money which you believe they owe you

Dictionary examples:
an insurance claim a claim for compensation I've made a claim on my insurance.

Learner example:
This wasn't "my perfect evening out", and I [would like to] make a claim for half the money back.

STATEMENT
[C1] a statement that something is true or is a fact, although other people might not believe it

Dictionary examples:
She rejected claims that she had lied. Can you give any evidence to support your claim? He made wild claims about being able to cure cancer.
Learner example:
To correct your claims about our target figure and the result of the day, I enclose a sheet displaying an income pie [chart].

clap /klæp/

VERB [I or T] (−pp−)
[B1] to hit your hands together, often repeatedly, especially in order to show you enjoyed a performance

Dictionary examples:
The audience clapped and cheered for more.
"When I clap my hands, you must stand still," said the teacher.

Learner example:
Every[thing] was nice till I clapped my hands to call the waiter to [get] the bill.

NOUN

a clap of thunder
[C2] a sudden, loud sound that is made by thunder

Dictionary example:
We heard a clap of thunder.

Learner example:
Suddenly, I heard a loud clap of thunder.

clarification /ˌklær.iˌfrˈkrɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: clarification, clarity
Verbs: clarify

NOUN [C or U] FORMAL
[C1] an explanation which makes something clearer or easier to understand

Dictionary examples:
Please contact this office again if you require further clarification.
Our lawyer has advised us to seek clarification on the matter.

Learner example:
If any tricky questions come up you simply stay calm and ask for a clarification.
clarify /ˈklær.i.fai/

Word family:
Nouns: clarification, clarity
Verbs: clarify

VERB [T]
[C1] to make something easier to understand by explaining it

Dictionary example:
The law aims to clarify building regulations.

Learner example:
Could you clarify this situation for me, please?

clarity /ˈklær.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: clarification, clarity
Verbs: clarify

NOUN [U]
[C2] the quality of being clear and easy to understand

Dictionary example:
She described the process with great clarity.

Learner example:
Jonathon, the eldest, is like his mother (and for that matter, like his father too!) a verbally very gifted person who already expresses himself with great clarity and a lot of understanding and afterthought as well as creativity.

clash /klæʃ/

VERB

FIGHT
[C2] [] to fight or argue

Dictionary examples:
Government troops clashed with rebel soldiers.
Many young people clash with their parents over what time they must be home at night.

Learner example:
From the very beginning their two characters clashed and the relationship had only been deteriorating.
COLOUR
[C2] [i] If colours or styles clash, they do not look good together.

Dictionary example:
You can't wear pink lipstick – it clashes with your dress.

Learner example:
She wore lemon green trousers and a pink top and she didn't seem to mind that those colours clashed.

EVENT
[C2] [i] If two events clash, they happen at the same time so that you cannot go to them both.

Dictionary example:
Emma's party clashes with my brother's wedding.

NOUN [c]

FIGHT
[C2] a fight or argument

Dictionary example:
There were violent clashes between the police and demonstrators.

Learner example:
Firstly, it has to be considered that Things fall apart is set in [the] 1890s and it portrays the clash between white colonialists and the indigenous Igbo people.

DIFFERENCE
[C2] when ideas or qualities are very different, and this causes problems

Dictionary example:
a cliff of personalities

Learner example:
Since people's material interests are similar, having competitiveness as the only measurement for personal virtue only creates an endless competition that eventually will lead to a clash of interests.

class /klaːs/

NOUN

ECONOMIC GROUP
[B2] [c or u] a group of people within society who have the same economic and social position
Dictionary examples:
The Labour Party has lost a lot of support among the working class.
We live in a middle class neighbourhood.
She belonged to the rich American upper class.

Learner example:
The second film is called "Upper class first" and it describes how rich people live.

VERB

class sb/sth as sth
[C1] to put someone or something in a particular group according to their qualities

Dictionary example:
The tower is classed as a historic monument.

Learner example:
All things considered, the Day could be classed as a success.

---

classic /ˈklæs.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] A classic book, film, etc. is one that has been popular for a long time and is considered to be of a high quality.

Dictionary example:
a classic film/novel/story

Learner example:
I am fond of reading different books, especially classic literature.

NOUN
[B2] a piece of writing, a musical recording or a film which has been popular for a long time and is considered to be of a high quality

Dictionary examples:
Jane Austen's 'Pride and Prejudice' is a classic of English literature.
Many of the Rolling Stones' records have become rock classics.

Learner example:
Wuthering Heights [is] a classic, which everybody knows about.
classical /ˈklæs.ɪ.kəl/

ADJECTIVE

TRADITIONAL
[C2] traditional in style

Dictionary example:
classical and modern dance

Learner example:
Marie discovered South Indian classical dance at the age of 30, which is quite late.

classification /ˌklæs.ɪ.fɪˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: classification

Verbs: classify

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] the process of putting people or things into groups by their type, size, etc., or one of these groups

Dictionary example:
the classification of plants

Learner example:
Cinema attendance between 1990 and the present, with projections to 2010, is reported with the classification of four age groups: (i) 14–24 years old (ii) 25–34 years old (iii) 35–49 years old (iv) over 50 years old respectively.

classify /ˈklæs.ɪ.fai/

Word family:

Nouns: classification

Verbs: classify

VERB [T]
[C1] to put people or things into groups by their type, size, etc.

Dictionary examples:
A third of the population has been classified as poor.
The books are classified by subject.

Learner example:
The paintings will be classified according to their subject and our guests will have the chance to see them and talk with the creators.
clause /kləːz/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a group of words containing a subject and a verb, that is usually only part of a sentence

Dictionary examples:
- In the sentence 'I can't cook very well but I make quite good omelettes', both 'I can't cook very well' and 'I make quite good omelettes' are main clauses.
- In the sentence 'I'll get you some stamps if I go to town', 'if I go to town' is a subordinate clause.

---

clean /kliːn/

Word family:

Nouns: cleaner

Adjectives: clean

ADJECTIVE

NO CRIME

[C2] showing that you have not done anything illegal

Dictionary example:
- a clean driving licence

Learner example:
- Of course, it is a strain to portray a clean image and avoid scandals.

VERB [T]

clean sth out or clean out sth PHRASAL VERB

[C2] to take everything out of a room, car, container, etc. and clean the inside of it

Dictionary example:
- I cleaned out the fridge this morning.

Learner example:
- The owner, an almost illiterate woman, claimed to have come across the diary as she was cleaning out the attic.

clean (sth/sb) up PHRASAL VERB

MAKE CLEAN

[C1] to make a person or place clean and tidy

Dictionary example:
- We have to clean up before we leave.
Learner example:
During our accommodation there, nobody came to clean up the room and the staff was not very friendly.

REMOVE POLLUTION
[C1] to remove pollution from somewhere

Dictionary example:
They are developing processes to clean up polluted rivers.

Learner example:
I can also help by distributing leaflets which contain information on how to start cleaning up the environment.

cleaner /ˈkliː.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: cleaner
Adjectives: clean

NOUN [C]
the cleaner’s
[C1] a shop where clothes are cleaned with chemicals

Dictionary example:
I took my dress to the cleaner’s.

clear /klɪər/

Word family:
Verbs: clear
Adjectives: clear, unclear
Adverbs: clearly

ADJECTIVE
WITHOUT CLOUDS
[B1] A clear sky does not have any clouds.

Dictionary example:
clear blue skies

Learner example:
When we went to San Martin de los Andes, we could see seven lakes and different kinds of trees and the sky [was] always clear.
CERTAIN
[B1] certain or obvious

Dictionary examples:
Are you clear about how to get there?
It’s clear that she’s not interested.
I’m still not clear what I’m supposed to do.

Learner example:
Are you clear about the questions?

NOT BLOCKED
[C1] not covered or blocked by anything

Dictionary examples:
a clear road
a clear desk

Learner example:
While banning the private cars brings with it less congestion, less air pollution and clear roads, it also carries major concerns for people’s travelling needs. Should there not be a proper transport infrastructure in place in the city?

crystal clear
[C1] extremely clear

Dictionary example:
crystal clear water

Learner example:
You will be amazed by the crystal clear water of the shallow sea and the multitude of colourful fish which you will see as you are exploring the bottom of the sea.

crystal clear
[C2] very easy to understand

Dictionary example:
She made it crystal clear that she was in charge.

Learner example:
They do learn something of course, but it is crystal clear that they need some help from you to develop their ability, creativity, sensitivity and so on.

VERB
[B1] [v] to remove all the objects or people from a place

Dictionary examples:
It took several hours to clear the road after the accident.
I’ll make the coffee if you’ll clear the table.
I cleared the snow from the path.
Could you clear your things off the sofa?
Learner example:
I cleared the stage before the concert, but you can't imagine how it looked after it?!!! Full of flowers, hats, underwear, etc.

clear the air
[C2] If an argument or discussion clears the air, people feel less angry or upset after it.

Dictionary example:
It was an unpleasant argument, but at least it cleared the air.

Learner example:
I rushed into the room [to] cheer them up and clear the air, although I knew it was too late.

NOUN

in the clear
[C2] not in a difficult situation or having problems any more

Dictionary example:
We have had money problems but we should be in the clear by next year.

Learner example:
“You’re in the clear, you don’t have to be afraid any more”, it said.

ADVERB

steer clear of sb/sth
[C2] to avoid someone or something because they are unpleasant or dangerous

Dictionary example:
Steer clear of Tony this morning – he's in a bad mood.

Learner example:
Eating healthily doesn't mean starving, eating plants or steering clear of meat.

clearly /ˈklɪə.li/

Word family:
Verbs: clear
Adjectives: clear, unclear
Adverbs: clearly

ADVERB

CERTAIN
[B1] used to show that you think something is obvious or certain

Dictionary examples:
The accident was clearly the lorry driver's fault.
Clearly, he's very talented.
Learner example:
It was clearly not for me, because it came from a girl called Carol who wanted to talk to some guy named John.

clever /ˈklevər/

ADJECTIVE

EFFECTIVE

[B1] effective and showing intelligence

Dictionary examples:
a clever idea
I've got a clever little gadget for opening jars.

Learner example:
My friend told me that he saw [a] really nice loft bed. I think it's [a] clever idea.

cliché /ˈkliːʃeɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: cliché
Adjectives: clichéd

NOUN [C]

[C2] something that is said or done too often, so that it becomes boring or without meaning

Dictionary example:
Her writing is full of clichés.

Learner example:
Prejudices and clichés are part of our state of mind, they travel with us [and] we won’t avoid them by going abroad.

clichéd /ˈkliːʃeɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: cliché
Adjectives: clichéd

ADJECTIVE

[C2] said or done too often and therefore boring or without real meaning
Dictionary example:
He made some clichéd remark about the birth of his first child completely changing his life.

Learner example:
Well, I do agree with this clichéd wording.

click  /ˈkliːk/

VERB

IDEA
[C2] [i] INFORMAL to suddenly understand something

Dictionary example:
Suddenly everything clicked and I realized where I’d met him.

Learner example:
Now it all clicked into place... Those flimsy excuses he gave her: "No, this Saturday I can't make it."

SOUND
[C2] [i or t] to make a short, sharp sound, or to use something to make this sound

Dictionary example:
The door clicked shut behind him.

Learner example:
The back-door key clicked when I unlocked the door.

PEOPLE
[C2] [i] INFORMAL If two people click, they like each other immediately.

Dictionary example:
We met at college and we just clicked.

Learner example:
She went to a house party and they met there. They clicked immediately and the next day they were calling each other or at least that's what my mum said to me.

client  /ˈklɛɪnt/

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who pays someone else for services or advice

Dictionary example:
We're losing a lot of our clients.
Learner example:
The motto of the staff there is: "the client is always right."

cliff /klɪf/
NOUN [c]
[B1] a high area of rock with a very steep side, often on a coast

Dictionary examples:
Keep well away from the edge of the cliff.
the cliff edge

Learner example:
This hotel is [on] a cliff, and has good [views].

climate /ˈklær.mət/
NOUN
WEATHER
[B1] [c or u] the weather conditions that an area usually has

Dictionary examples:
a hot/dry/cold/wet climate
The Mediterranean climate is good for growing citrus fruits and grapes.

Learner example:
The climate of Brazil is typically tropical so the weather is gorgeous.

SITUATION
[C2] [c] the situation, feelings, and opinions that exist at a particular time

Dictionary examples:
the political/social climate
Terrorism creates a climate of fear.

Learner example:
Hence the Narrator lives in a more peaceful period than Olivia’s and only in this context could Olivia’s experiences be regarded as more stimulating because they are inevitably involved with the unstable political climate.
climate change  /ˈklaɪ.mɪtˌtʃeɪndʒ/

NOUN [u]
[B2] the way the Earth's weather is changing

Dictionary example:
Climate change is the greatest environmental challenge facing the world today.

climb  /klarm/

Word family:
Nouns: climbing
Verbs: climb

VERB

climb into/out of/through, etc.
[B2] to move into or out of a small space, often with difficulty or effort

Dictionary examples:
The baby had managed to climb out of his cot.
They climbed into the truck and drove away.

Learner example:
I went to my car, climbed into it and wanted to drive, but nothing happened.

MOVE HIGHER
[B2] [i] to go up, or to go towards the top of something

Dictionary examples:
The plane climbed quickly to a height of 30 000 feet.
As it leaves the village, the road climbs steeply up the mountain.
The sun climbed higher in the sky.

cling  /kliŋ/

VERB [i] (clung)

HOLD TIGHT
[C2] to hold someone or something tightly, especially because you are frightened

Dictionary examples:
She was found clinging to the ledge.
I clung on to his hand in the dark.
Learner example:
I [had] clung to my father ever since I was born.

clinic /ˈklin.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: clinic
Adjectives: clinical

NOUN [c]
[B1] a building, often part of a hospital, where people go for medical treatment or advice

Dictionary examples:
Bring your baby to the clinic and we'll take a look at her.
Antenatal clinics provide care for pregnant women.

Learner example:
Ahmed [was] travelling to attend a fair of medical equipment, to get what he [needed] for his clinic.

clinical /ˈklin.ɪk.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: clinic
Adjectives: clinical

ADJECTIVE
[Cl] relating to medical treatment and tests

Dictionary example:
clinical trials/research

Learner example:
Doctors, for example, travel to get better qualifications, new medical skills and clinical experience.

NO EMOTION
[C2] only considering facts and not influenced by feelings or emotions

Dictionary example:
a clinical approach/attitude

Learner example:
Nowadays in Sweden nurser[ie]s ("dagis") are common, but in the 1950s they were a new invention. "Kindergarten" was the somewhat clinical name. And clinical they were.
clock  /klɒk/

NOUN [C]

around/round the clock
[C1] all day and all night

Dictionary example:
Rescue teams are working round the clock to search for survivors of the earthquake.

Learner example:
It is undeniable that people are working around the clock in order to earn a living.

close

Word family:
Nouns: closure
Verbs: close
Adjectives: closed

VERB  /kləʊz/

STOP OPERATING
[B2] [I or T] If a business or organization closes, or if someone or something closes it, it stops operating.

Dictionary examples:
The factory closed over ten years ago.
A lot of restaurants/shops are closing because they can’t afford to pay the rent.

Learner example:
In addition, I would like you to know that the Hotel Astrid closed last year.

END
[C2] to end, or to end something

Dictionary example:
She closed the meeting with a short speech.

Learner example:
That’s how you should close the exhibition: with a question. How much further can Arnold go?

ADJECTIVE  /kləʊs/

RELATIVE
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] A close relative is someone who is directly related to you, for example, your mother, father or brother.
Dictionary example:
There weren't many people at the funeral – just close family/relatives.

Learner example:
Tomson has a close family, his son lives with them, and his company makes a good profit.

RELATIONSHIP
[b2] seeing or communicating with someone a lot

Dictionary examples:
I'm still in close contact with my school friends.
Our school has close links with a school in China.

Learner example:
Being in close touch with me for such a long time, you should have known everything about the band.

SIMILAR
[c1] having only a small difference

Dictionary examples:
The election results were so close they had to vote again.
He came second in the race, but it was very close.
The youngest boys are so close in age they look like twins.

Learner example:
The over-grazing, the deforestation and the over-cultivation seem to be the main causes of the degradation of the agricultural land, the percentages being quite close in value.

be/come close to doing sth
[c1] to almost achieve or do something

Dictionary example:
We are close to reaching an agreement.

Learner example:
We were very close to reaching our objective.

be close to sth
[c1] If someone or something is close to a particular state, they are almost in that state.

Dictionary example:
She was close to tears.

Learner example:
'Do you love me?' 'Of course I do. I've always loved you.' Adrian answered. He was close to tears.

CAREFUL
[c2] [always before noun] looking at or listening to someone or something very carefully
Dictionary examples:
On close inspection, you could see that the painting was a fake.
Keep a close watch on the children.

Learner example:
If the parents keep a close watch on their children’s activities and friends and advise them what is right or wrong, this will prevent them from indulging in bad activities.

ADV /ˈklaʊs/
[B1] near in distance

Dictionary examples:
Come a bit closer.
He stayed close to his mother.
There’s a great beach close by.

Learner example:
Aunty told me that there is a Hindu temple close by.

closed /ˈklaʊzd/

Word family:
Nouns: closure
Verbs: close
Adjectives: closed

ADJECTIVE

NOT ACCEPTING IDEAS
[C2] not wanting to accept new ideas, people, customs, etc.

Dictionary example:
a closed mind

Learner example:
But if we travel with a closed mind, we will be contrasting everything, always having in mind that our things are the best.

behind closed doors
[C2] privately and not in public

Dictionary example:
Most of the deals were done behind closed doors.

Learner example:
Decisions which affect the whole world are made behind closed doors and are top secret.
closely /ˈkləʊ.sli/

Word family:
Adjectives: close
Adverbs: closely

ADVERB

CONNECTED
[B2] in a way that is directly connected or has a strong relationship

Dictionary examples:
English and German are closely related.
Both politicians have been closely associated with the movement for some time.
We are working closely with the police.

Learner example:
The main reason I am applying for this job is that this job would be very rewarding on a personal level and would give me useful experience closely related to my field of study.

VERY NEAR
[C1] in a way that is very near in distance, time, or position

Dictionary example:
Elke came into the room, closely followed by her children.

Learner example:
According to statistical figures, Germany is better off as compared to [the] USA and closely followed by Spain in the management of Government spending.

CAREFULLY
[C1] carefully and paying attention to details

Dictionary examples:
Pollution levels are closely monitored.
If you look closely, you can see where he painted over his signature.

Learner example:
I think that working for High Travel as its inter[pre]ter would be a great experience if the company decides to look closely at the conditions of its employees and of its travellers.

closeness /ˈkleəs.nəs/

NOUN [u]

NEAR
[C1] the state of being close in distance, time, or position
Dictionary example:
We bought the house because of its closeness to my office.

Learner example:
To resize and relocate the coffee bar and the sauna are excellent ideas – a larger coffee bar provides us with a better relaxing area and the closeness of the sauna to the swimming pool saves us from walking a long way from the pool when we are all wet and cold.

RELATIONSHIP
[C1] the quality of knowing someone very well and liking them a lot

Dictionary example:
A special closeness is said to exist between twins.

Learner example:
Fred resented the closeness of the sisters, he wanted Susan for himself.

closure  /ˈkləʊ.zər/

Word family:
Nouns: closure
Verbs: close
Adjectives: closed

NOUN
[C2] when a business, organization, etc. stops operating

Dictionary examples:
factory closures
The company announced the closure of its Paris office.

Learner example:
A supermarket with a multi-stor[e]y car park would lead to the closure of other smaller supermarkets and shops like the greengrocer's and consequently many people would lose their jobs.

cloth  /klɒθ/

NOUN

MATERIAL
[B2] [u] material made from cotton, wool, etc. and used, for example, to make clothes or curtains

Dictionary example:
a piece/length of cloth
Learner example:
We [will] probably be wearing dresses made of synthetic cloth in 2100.

FOR CLEANING
[B2] [c] a small piece of material used for cleaning or drying things

Dictionary example:
a washing-up cloth

clothing /ˈkləʊ.ðɪŋ/

NOUN [U]
[B2] clothes, especially of a particular type

Dictionary examples:
Protective clothing must be worn at all times.
You can only take three articles/items of clothing into the changing room.

Learner example:
Nowadays the aim in clothing is not just for covering and protecting ourselves.

cloud /klaʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: cloud
Verbs: cloud
Adjectives: cloudy

NOUN

SMOKE/DUST
[B2] [c] a mass of something such as dust or smoke that looks like a cloud

Dictionary example:
A huge cloud of smoke from burning oil tanks stretched across the sky.

Learner example:
Some of them leave behind a large cloud of smoke and it damage[s] our health.

be on cloud nine INFORMAL [C2] to be extremely happy and excited

Dictionary example:
After I heard I'd got the job, I was on cloud nine!

Learner example:
But now, after the promise in which both said "yes", she was on cloud nine.
VERB
[C2] [ɪ] to make someone confused, or make something harder to understand

Dictionary example:
to cloud someone's judgment/vision

Learner example:
Having their judgment somewhat clouded by hormones should not take precedence over all other concerns.

c t/klʌb/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]

TEAM
[B1] a team of sports players

Dictionary examples:
Stockport County Football Club
The Orioles are an exciting club this year.

Learner example:
The club is Juventus and as you know, [it] is my favo[u]rite football team.

DANCE
[B1] a place open late at night where people can dance

Dictionary example:
After the show, we went to a club.

Learner example:
As regards the food, you can ask for any kind of food and after midnight it turns into a club where you can dance [to] any kind of music.

c t/kluː/

NOUN [C]

SIGN
[B2] a sign or some information that helps you to solve a problem or answer a question

Dictionary examples:
Police are searching the area for clues to the murder.
Police are still looking for clues in their search for the missing girl.
I'm never going to guess the answer if you don't give me a clue.
Learner example:
They found it and they started looking for more clues.

not have a clue
[B2] INFORMAL to be completely unable to guess, understand, or deal with something

Dictionary example:
I haven't a clue what you're talking about.

Learner example:
I haven't a clue about it.

cumsiness /ˈklʌm.zi.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: clumsiness
Adjectives: clumsy

NOUN [u]
[C2] the quality of being clumsy

Dictionary example:
The accident was caused by her clumsiness.

Learner example:
Then I wanted to skip with her and the girls but my clumsiness made me flush and I left the rope and returned to my boys' games.

cumsy /ˈklʌm.zi/

Word family:
Nouns: clumsiness
Adjectives: clumsy

ADJECTIVE
[B2] Clumsy people move in a way that is not controlled or careful enough, and often knock or damage things.

Dictionary example:
That's the third glass you've smashed this week – you're so clumsy!

Learner example:
I was cleaning the house, and as you know, I'm very clumsy, so I was dusting the table, and, accidentally, I dropped the vase.
clutch /klʌtʃ/

VERB [v]

[C2] to hold something tightly

Dictionary example:
She clutched a coin.

Learner example:
It doesn't matter if you want to be an author, an actress clutching an Oscar or a farmer with a lot of chickens.

NOUN

ENGINE

[C1] [c] the part of a car or truck that you press with your foot when you change gear

Dictionary example:
I put my foot on the clutch.

Learner example:
I can remember very well when my father explained to me how to release the clutch and to press the accelerator very slowly and carefully: easy to say but...

sb's/sth's clutches

[C2] If you are in someone or something’s clutches, they control you, often in an evil way.

Dictionary example:
Keep your children out of his clutches.

Learner example:
However one must admit that living longer and evading the clutches of death has always been one of man's dreams.

---

coach /kəʊtʃ/

Word family:

Nouns: coach, coaching

Verbs: coach

NOUN [c]

PERSON

[B1] someone whose job is to teach people to improve at a sport, skill, or school subject
Dictionary example:
a tennis/maths coach

Learner example:
Then the coach wanted to know some facts about me.

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to teach someone so they improve at a sport, skill, or in a school subject

Dictionary example:
She coaches students in French, usually for exams.

Learner example:
I have also been coaching a girls team for 3 years.

coaching /ˈkəʊtʃ.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: coach, coaching
Verbs: coach

NOUN [u]
[B2] additional teaching of a sport, a skill or a school subject

Dictionary example:
She has extra coaching in maths.

Learner example:
In Poland basketball is getting more and more popular and we feel the lack of coaching.

coal /kəʊl/

NOUN

FUEL
[C1] [u] a hard, black substance that is dug from under the ground and burnt as fuel

Dictionary example:
a lump of coal

Learner example:
Mining for gold, coal or oil is an option [for] our economy.
coast /ˈkoʊst/

Word family:
Nouns: coast
Adjectives: coastal

NOUN [c]

NEAR SEA

[B1] the land next to or close to the sea

Dictionary examples:
Rimini is a thriving holiday resort on the east coast of Italy.
The accident happened three miles off the coast.
We spent a week by/on the coast.

Learner example:
I think it's best to spend your time visiting our coast in the North East of Brazil.

coastal /ˈkəʊ.stəl/

Word family:
Nouns: coast
Adjectives: coastal

ADJECTIVE

[B2] situated on, or relating to the coast

Dictionary example:
a coastal town

Learner example:
I love to spend time at the beach and that is the reason why I live in a coastal area.

costline /ˈkoʊst.lain/

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] the part of the land along the edge of the sea

Dictionary example:
a rocky coastline

Learner example:
These buildings, which haven't been looked after and maintained for many years, give the coastline around Land's End an almost ghostlike atmosphere.
coconut  /ˈkəʊ.kə.nʌt/

NOUN [C or u]
[B1] a very large nut with a hard, hairy shell, a white part that you eat, and liquid in the centre

Dictionary example:
Thai food uses a lot of coconut.

Learner example:
I forgot to tell you that they have a special dessert with coconut and ice cream.

cod  /kɒd/

NOUN [C or u] (PLURAL cod)
[B1] a large sea fish that can be eaten

Dictionary example:
I’ll have cod and chips, please.

Learner example:
I suggest 'batatas com bacalhau', which is cooked cod served with boiled potatoes.

code  /kəʊd/

NOUN

SECRET MESSAGE
[B2] [c or u] a system of words, letters or signs which is used to represent a message in secret form

Dictionary examples:
The message was written in code.
She managed to break/crack the code.

Learner example:
Everyone had already heard of me getting the secret access code for the 'Secret Society' organisation.

RULES
[C1] [c] a set of rules on how to behave or how to do things

Dictionary examples:
a code of conduct/practice
The club has a strict dress code.
Learner example:
Most of their manners, dress code, personal conduct and their general well-being is taught at school.

coherence /ˈkəʊr̩hɪərənts/

Word family:
Nouns: coherence
Adjectives: coherent

NOUN [U]

CLEAR
[C2] the state of being clear and easy to understand

Dictionary example:
Her argument lacks any coherence.

SHARED BELIEFS/PURPOSE
[C2] the feeling that you share the beliefs or purpose of others in a group

Dictionary example:
There is no sense of coherence within the group.

Learner example:
Family gatherings can offer the individual a sense of warmth, of belonging and of coherence.

coherent /ˈkəʊr̩hɪərənt/

Word family:
Nouns: coherence
Adjectives: coherent

ADJECTIVE

CAREFUL THOUGHT
[C2] A coherent argument, plan, etc. is clear, and each part of it has been carefully considered.

Dictionary example:
We need to put forward a coherent plan.

Learner example:
In addition to the achievement of high academic status and [a] coherent identity, young people have to make friends, have love affairs and abide by social rules.

UNDERSTAND
[C2] If someone is coherent, you can understand what they say.
Dictionary example:
She was so upset, she was barely coherent.

Learner example:
Once she was fairly calm, Anne tried to get a coherent story out of Louise, but Louise simply burst into tears afresh.

---

coin /kɔɪn/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a small, flat, usually round piece of metal used as money

Dictionary examples:
a 10p/ten pence coin
a pound coin a ten-cent coin gold coins
I asked for ten pounds in 20p coins.
The machine doesn’t take 50p coins.

Learner example:
It was an old coin that my granny gave me three years ago.

VERB

[C2] to be the first person who uses a new word or phrase

Dictionary example:
The Czech playwright, Capek, coined the word ‘robot’.

Learner example:
S. Czernick coined a term for such type of poetry – authenticism.

---

coincide /ˌkəʊ.ɪnˈsaɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: coincidence
Verbs: coincide

VERB [i]

HAPPEN TOGETHER

[C2] to happen at the same time as something else

Dictionary example:
The band’s American tour coincided with the release of their second album.
Learner example:
This moment is of great significance for both characters and it coincides with the event which happens in the house.

BE THE SAME
[C2] When people's opinions or ideas coincide, they are the same.

Dictionary example:
Luckily, our views coincided.

Learner example:
I have become curious to know more about different cultures, I have learnt to respect opinions which may not coincide with mine.

coincidence  /kəuˈɪn.t.sɪ.dənt/

Word family:
Nouns: coincidence
Verbs: coincide

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when two very similar things happen at the same time but there is no reason for it

Dictionary examples:
You chose exactly the same wallpaper as us – what a coincidence!
Just by coincidence, I met my old school-mate again fifty years later.
It was pure coincidence that we met.

Learner example:
What a coincidence, don’t you think so?

cold  /kəʊld/

Word family:
Nouns: cold, coldness
Adjectives: cold

ADJECTIVE

UNFRIENDLY
[B1] unfriendly or showing no emotion

Dictionary examples:
She became quite cold and distant with me.
a cold stare/voice
Learner example:
Suddenly, I heard the same, cold voice behind me again.

in cold blood
[C2] in a cruel way, without showing any emotion

Dictionary example:
He shot three policemen in cold blood.

Learner example:
Returning to the story, when I arrived, I went directly to Hillton Avenue where I should have met 005, but when I arrived at the meeting point I found him lying on the floor with two shots in his back; he had been murdered in cold blood.

NOUN

the cold
[B1] cold weather or temperatures

Dictionary example:
Don't stand out there in the cold – come in!

Learner example:
Because of the cold, some days I had to use gloves.

make your blood run cold
[C2] If something makes your blood run cold, it frightens you very much.

Dictionary example:
I heard a tapping on the window which made my blood run cold.

Learner example:
This thought scared me and made my blood run cold.

coldness /ˈkəʊld.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: cold, coldness
Adjectives: cold

NOUN [U]

TEMPERATURE
[C2] the state of having a low temperature

Dictionary example:
I was distracted by the coldness of my feet.
Learner example:
Firstly, there was an atmosphere of calm and happiness round: the ground was covered with snow, so that it made your steps quiet and the whole town seemed asleep under its white coat; besides it was so cold that you could actually smell the coldness in the air and it made you feel strong...

CHARACTER
[C2] when someone is unfriendly or does not show their feelings

Dictionary example:
I was shocked by his father’s coldness.

Learner example:
Contrary to this experience, I had experienced my mother’s coldness through the other episode.

collaborate /kəˈlæb.ə.rət/

Word family:
Nouns: collaboration
Verbs: collaborate

VERB [i]
[C1] When two or more people collaborate, they work together to create or achieve the same thing.

Dictionary example:
Didn’t you collaborate with him on one of your books?

Learner example:
Even if the staff they collaborated with were quite friendly and cheerful, all of them would prefer the jobs related with computers and new technolog[y].

collaboration /kəˌlæb.əˈreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: collaboration
Verbs: collaborate

NOUN
[C1] [c or u] when two or more people work together to create or achieve the same thing, or a product of this

Dictionary example:
The show was a result of collaboration between several museums.

Learner example:
On the other hand, we encourage competition on the basis of team collaboration, to optimize the HR resources in the group, and maximize [the] individual’s potential.
collapse /kəˈlæps/

VERB [v]

OBJECT

[B2] to fall down suddenly because of pressure or having no strength or support

Dictionary examples:
Thousands of buildings collapsed in the earthquake.
The chair collapsed under her weight.

Learner example:
Then a sudden wave of fire made their heads explode and many buildings collapsed instantly.

PERSON

[B2] If someone collapses, they fall down, usually because they are ill or weak.

Dictionary example:
He collapsed and died of a heart attack.

Learner example:
He desperately tried to keep the stalking sharks at bay, but he couldn't succeed, for the long fight exhausted him and he collapsed.

FAIL

[C2] to fail to work or succeed

Dictionary example:
The peace talks have collapsed.

Learner example:
So, in the long run, the whole social system may collapse due to people's longer life.

NOUN [c or u]

[B2] the sudden failure of a system, organization, business, etc.

Dictionary examples:
A poor economy has caused the collapse of thousands of small businesses.
Negotiations between the two countries are on the brink/verge of collapse.
He suffered a mental collapse after ten years' teaching.

Learner example:
After your nervous collapse last year I really worry about you.
collar  /ˈkɒl.ər/

NOUN [c]

PART OF CLOTHES

[B1] the part of a shirt, coat, etc. that is usually folded over and goes round your neck

Dictionary examples:
- a shirt collar
- a fur collar

Learner example:
- It's a new, fashionable one with [a] high collar and short sleeves.

ON AN ANIMAL

[B2] a strap made of leather or other strong material which is put around the neck of an animal, especially a dog or cat

Dictionary examples:
- a dog collar
- I grabbed the dog by its collar and dragged it out of the room.

collect  /kəˈlekt/

Word family:

Nouns: collection, collector

Verbs: collect

Verb

BRING TOGETHER

[B1] [ɪ] to get things from different places and bring them together

Dictionary examples:
- Police collected a good deal of information during the investigation.
- I collected up twenty bottles from various parts of the house.

Learner example:
- The majority of people collect their own rubbish separately in their home, but they d[о] not separate the paper and the cardboard.

MONEY

[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to ask people to give you money for something, for example a charity

Dictionary examples:
- I'm collecting on behalf of Oxfam.
- We're collecting (money) for the homeless.
Learner example:
And I think it’s a perfect way to collect money for our poor people.

collect yourself/your thoughts
[C2] to get control over your feelings and thoughts

Dictionary example:
I’ll give you a moment to collect your thoughts.

Learner example:
I had [...] about 20 minutes so it would be plenty of time to collect my thoughts and calm down.

collection /kəˈlekJən/

Word family:
Nouns: collection, collector
Verbs: collect

NOUN

OBJECTS
[B1] [c] a group of objects of one type that have been collected by one person or in one place

Dictionary examples:
a private art collection
a valuable stamp collection

Learner example:
I’m going to buy the DVD named "Lord of the Rings" because I like it very much and want to have it in my DVD collection.

GROUP
[B1] [c] a group of things or people

Dictionary example:
There’s quite a collection of toothbrushes in the bathroom.

Learner example:
I [wear] long t-shirts and I have a collection of sweaters.

TAKING AWAY
[B2] [u] when something is taken away from a place

Dictionary example:
rubbish collection

Learner example:
We need a different organisation for the waste collection.
collector /kəˈlek.tə/

Word family:
Nouns: collection, collector
Verbs: collect

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who collects objects because they are interesting or beautiful

Dictionary examples:
a collector of modern art
a stamp collector

Learner example:
Anne has been a collector for many years and she knows almost everything about Swedish stamps.

collocation /ˌkɒ.ləˈkeɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a word or phrase that sounds natural or correct when it is used with another word or phrase, or the combination formed when two or more words are frequently used together in a way that sounds natural

Dictionary example:
'Heavy traffic' is a collocation.

colon /ˈkəʊ.lən/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a mark (:) used before a list, an example, an explanation, etc.

Dictionary example:
There's a colon missing in that sentence.

colour /ˈkʌl.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: colour
Adjectives: colourful with flying colours
[C1] with a very high score or with great success

Dictionary example:
He passed the entrance exam with flying colours.

Learner example:
I worked intens[ive]ly on the course and I passed with flying colours.

INTEREST
[C2] [u] interesting or exciting qualities or parts

Dictionary example:
We added your story for a bit of local colour.

Learner example:
For an uncomplicated meal and a spot of local colour, choose the Lion's Arms at 15, Heather Lane.

SKIN
[C2] [u] the colour of a person's skin, which shows their race

Dictionary example:
I don't care what colour her boyfriend is.

Learner example:
Since coming to England, I have been fortunate enough to meet so many people from all over the world. At first you try to see [someone] as a typical example of the country she is from, but as you get to know her better, you do not think about her race or colour any longer: it is her personality and human qualities that you are attracted to.

VERB [T]

AFFECT
[C2] to affect what someone does, says, or feels

Dictionary example:
Her views are coloured by her own bad experiences.

colourful /ˈkʌlər.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: colour
Adjectives: colourful

ADJECTIVE

BRIGHT
[B1] having bright colours
Dictionary example:
a colourful painting

Learner example:
She wears colourful clothes.

UNUSUAL
[B2] interesting and unusual

Dictionary example:
a colourful character

Learner example:
Computers make our modern life more colourful.

column /ˈkɒlm/

NOUN [C]

PRINTING
[B2] one of the blocks of print into which a page of a newspaper, magazine, or dictionary is divided

Dictionary example:
I didn't have time to read the whole article – just the first column.

Learner example:
To the editor, I am puzzled by the report which appeared on yesterday's page 2, second column, concerning the Westfield Music Festival.

BUILDING
[B2] a tall, solid, usually stone post which is often used to support a roof or as decoration in a building

Dictionary examples:
The roof of the temple was held up by a row of thick stone columns.
Nelson's Column in Trafalgar Square

Learner example:
There are a lot [of] columns outside and inside the restaurant, in Doric [style].

NUMBERS/WORDS
[C1] any block of numbers or words written one under the other

Dictionary examples:
the left-hand/right-hand column
Choose an adjective from Column A to use with a noun in Column B.
Put your expenditure in column B.
Learner example:
At the end of the course I had to complete a student questionnaire in which we had to tick in three columns, and the points were: good, adequate, needs improvement.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>comb</th>
<th>/kəʊm/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

verb [t]

[B1] to tidy your hair using a comb

Dictionary examples:
- She combed her hair and put on some lipstick.
- I've been trying to comb out the knots in her hair.

Learner example:
I want to buy [a] mirror for my room because I need to see myself while I'm combing my hair.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>combat</th>
<th>/ˈkɒm.bæt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

noun [c or u]

[C2] a fight, especially during a war

Dictionary example:
The aircraft was shot down in combat.

Learner example:
Gaza is accessible only by car and because of the terrorists setting ambushes against any car, it is very difficult to supply the villages round the combat zone with food and medication.

verb [t] (combatting, combatted, combating, combated)

[C2] to try to stop something unpleasant or harmful from happening or increasing

Dictionary example:
new measures to combat the rise in crime

Learner example:
Another way of combating the problem is to create recreational centres in which unemployed people can spend their time.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>combination</th>
<th>/ˌkɒm.bɪˈneɪ.ʃən/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: combination

Verbs: combine
NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the mixture you get when two or more things are combined

Dictionary examples:
Strawberries and cream – a perfect combination.
A combination of tiredness and boredom caused me to fall asleep.
This drug can be safely used in combination with other medicines.
Her experience and energy are a winning combination in business.

Learner example:
It has the winning combination of adventure in strange, far-off places, scientific discovery and humour.

combine /kəmˈbain/

Word family:
Nouns: combination
Verbs: combine

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to become mixed or joined, or to mix or join things together

Dictionary examples:
My wages combined with your savings should just about pay for it.
The band combines jazz rhythms and romantic lyrics.

Learner example:
Boys wear jeans or longer shorts than girls, combined with patterned, cotton shirts.

come /kʌm/

VERB [I] (came, come) come after/first/last, etc.

[B1] to have or achieve a particular position in a race, competition, list, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She came second in the 100m race.
Z comes after Y in the alphabet.
Which king came after Edward?
April comes before May.

come true
[B1] If a dream or hope comes true, it really happens.
Dictionary examples:
I’d always dreamt of owning my own house, but I never thought it would come true.
After all the problems I’d had, Oliver’s birth was a dream come true.

Learner example:
I had been dreaming of going to London since I started learning English, and now that my dream had come true, I was overhelmed by joy and feeling very lucky.

Happen
[B2] to happen

Dictionary examples:
Spring has come early.
The worst problems are still/yet to come.
The announcement came at a bad time.

Learner example:
But worse was yet to come!

come easily/easy/naturally
[C1] to be very easy for someone

Dictionary example:
Singing came naturally to Louise.

Learner example:
After a while, it came naturally: I could use words I had never seen written, just because I had picked them up in a conversation or watching a video programme.

come first
[C1] to be the most important person or thing

Dictionary example:
Her career always comes first.

Learner example:
They do not take the time to sit down and enjoy being with their family. The work comes first, and the family next.

come to mind
[C1] If an idea comes to mind, you think of it.

Dictionary example:
I was thinking about who might be suitable for this job, and your name came to mind.

Learner example:
Positives did come from that crisis – more efficient engines, lighter vehicles and lead-free petrol are just some of the examples that come to mind.

when it comes to sth/doing sth
[C1] used to introduce a new idea that you want to say something about
Dictionary example:
When it comes to baking cakes, she's an expert.

Learner example:
But when it comes to computers, they just impose some knowledge on students, without any interaction.

how come  INFORMAL
[C1] used to ask why or how something has happened

Dictionary example:
How come you didn’t go to the party?

Learner example:
Off the record: How come that your reporter can print such lies when knowing they are perhaps hurting certain people in this important matter?

come to think of it
[C2] used to say that you have just thought of something

Dictionary example:
Come to think of it, I've got two batteries that you can have upstairs.

Learner example:
Come to think of it, it really is quite difficult to say.

come to do sth
[C2] to start to do something or to reach a state after a period of time

Dictionary examples:
I have come to rely on acupuncture.
This place has come to be known as ‘Pheasant Corner’.

Learner example:
All the things she had been believing in until then had come to mean [no]thing, as gold turns into coal.

come apart/off, etc.
[C2] to become separated or removed from something

Dictionary examples:
The book came apart in my hands.
The handle came off.
My shoelaces have come undone.
The door came open.

come into being
[C2] to start to exist

Dictionary example:
The new law comes into being next month.
Learner example:
Only with knowledge of the written word were villages able to organise themselves in larger forms of government, leading from local to regional to national levels, [and] finally leading to transnational structures as they came into being mostly during the last 100 years.

come to light
[C2] If information about something bad comes to light, it is discovered.

Dictionary example:
She knew that the fraud would eventually come to light.

Learner example:
Eventually, their "liaison" comes to light and Leo blames himself for the disastrous outcome of the events throughout his life.

come under fire
[C2] to be criticized

Dictionary example:
The government has come under fire for closing the hospital.

come to the/ sb's rescue
[C2] to help someone who is in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I forgot my purse but Anna came to the rescue and lent me some money.

take sth as it comes [C2] to deal with something as it happens, without planning for it

Dictionary example:
With an illness like this you just have to take every day as it comes.

Learner example:
We should, for once, put our [jealousy aside, start to appreciate what we have and take life as it comes.

come to terms with sth
[C2] to accept a sad situation

Dictionary example:
He still hasn't come to terms with his brother's death.

Learner example:
She had, at last, come to terms with her loss and although she still, deep in her heart, grieved for Michael she now knew that she could move on.
comeback /ˈkʌm.bæk/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a successful attempt to become powerful, important, or famous again

Dictionary example:
She's made a comeback with her first new album for twenty years.

Learner example:
He made a comeback and what a comeback!

comedian /kəˈmiːd.iː.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: comedian, comedy

NOUN
[B2] someone who entertains people by telling jokes

Dictionary example:

Learner example:
Then, he went to London to become a comedian and now he is one of the [most] famous stars [in] that field.

comedy /ˈkɒm.ə.di/

Word family:
Nouns: comedian, comedy

NOUN [c or u]
[B1] entertainment such as a film, play, etc. which is funny

Dictionary examples:
His latest film is described as a romantic comedy.
I prefer Shakespeare's comedies to his tragedies.

Learner example:
Everybody agreed to see that comedy with Jim Carrey and I know that you would like it.
comfort /ˈkʌm.fət/

Word family:
Nouns: comfort, discomfort
Verbs: comfort
Adjectives: comfortable, uncomfortable, comforting
Adverbs: comfortably, uncomfortably

NOUN

NO PAIN

[B2] [u] a pleasant feeling of being relaxed and free from pain

Dictionary examples:
She evidently dresses for comfort.
It's a little too hot for comfort.
Now you can watch the latest films in the comfort of your own room.

Learner example:
When the weather is bad, I need the comfort of my car.

PLEASANT THING

[C1] [c] something that makes your life easy and pleasant

Dictionary examples:
home comforts
Good chocolate is one of life's little comforts.

Learner example:
Have you ever thought how our grandparents lived in their villages without extra home comforts?

ENOUGH MONEY

[C2] [u] when you have a pleasant life with enough money for everything that you need

Dictionary example:
He can afford to retire and live in comfort for the rest of his life.

Learner example:
Even when people sympathise with them, they always bear in mind that they are often rich children, who live in comfort.

FOR SADNESS

[C2] [u] when you feel better after being worried or sad

Dictionary example:
What she said brought me great comfort.

Learner example:
If I had been a "bad boy" and rec[ei]ved a spanking I would seek comfort in my brothers or sister and they would do the same.
VERB [T]
[C2] to make someone feel better when they are anxious or sad

Dictionary example:
The family of the dead are being comforted by friends.

Learner example:
He kept close to Sandra and comforted her, saying this was the only choice they had and that things would be fine.

comfortable /ˈkʌmfəbl/
Word family:
Nouns: comfort, discomfort
Verbs: comfort
Adjectives: comfortable, uncomfortable, comforting
Adverbs: comfortably, uncomfortably

ADJECTIVE
PERSON
[B1] relaxed and free from pain

Dictionary examples:
Are you comfortable perched on that seat?
I don't feel comfortable in high heels.
Do sit down and make yourself comfortable.

Learner example:
But when she started the lesson, everybody was comfortable and relaxed.

WITHOUT WORRIES
[B2] If you are comfortable in a situation, you do not have any worries about it.

Dictionary example:
I don't feel comfortable about leaving the children here alone.

Learner example:
Those children maybe they don't feel comfortable away from home.

MONEY
[C2] having enough money for everything that you need

Dictionary example:
a comfortable retirement

Learner example:
Certainly, there are part-time jobs, but they are mostly not [so] well-paid that it would be enough for somebody to lead a comfortable life.
comfortably /ˈkʌmpf.tə.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: comfort, discomfort
Verbs: comfort
Adjectives: comfortable, uncomfortable, comforting
Adverbs: comfortably, uncomfortably

ADVERB
[B2] in a comfortable way

Dictionary example:
We slept very comfortably that night.

Learner example:
I was sitting comfortably on the couch watching TV when suddenly all the lights went out, [and] everything became silent.

comforting /ˈkʌmp.f.ə.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: comfort, discomfort
Verbs: comfort
Adjectives: comfortable, uncomfortable, comforting
Adverbs: comfortably, uncomfortably

ADJECTIVE
[C2] making you feel better when you are anxious or sad

Dictionary example:
He said a few comforting words.

Learner example:
Furthermore, it is always very comforting to know that someone has the same or even worse problems than we do.

comic /ˈkɒm.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] funny

Dictionary example:
a comic actor/performance

Learner example:
I think it's a bit long for a comic film (3 hours!!) but it's very [funny]: you must see it.
comma /ˈkɒm.ə/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a mark (,) used to separate parts of a sentence, or to separate the items in a list

Dictionary example:
Put a comma before his name.

command /kəˈmɑːnd/

Word family:

Nouns: command, commander

NOUN ORDER

[B2] [c] an order to do something, especially one given by a soldier

Dictionary examples:
He hated being in the army because he had to obey commands.
When I give the command, fire!

Learner example:
Under the red lights of his command room, the first question that the captain wanted to ask was to know if the boat was safe.

KNOWLEDGE

[B2] [u] knowledge of a subject, especially a language

Dictionary example:
She had a good command of Italian.

Learner example:
Besides, I have a good command of French and I speak English fluently, which might be useful during the voyage around the world.

COMPUTER

[C1] [c] an instruction to a computer

Dictionary example:
It's worth learning the shortcuts for some of these commands.

Learner example:
Program list. 1. System commands MAIN console programs. 2. Review of LINUX Sys. console 3. Server commands. 4. ADD ONs for LINUX OS. 5. LINUX INTERFACE. 6. USER PROFILE.
CONTROL
[C2] [u] control over someone or something and responsibility for them

Dictionary examples:
The soldiers were under the command of a tough sergeant-major.
Jones was in command.

Learner example:
Suddenly, [there] comes an insurrection of armed militia with generals in command.

commander /kəˈmɑːn.dər/

Word family:
Nouns: command, commander

NOUN [c]

[C2] an officer who is in charge of a military operation, or an officer of middle rank in the navy

Dictionary example:
He was a naval commander.

Learner example:
The best part is when the commander forces the troops to kill themselves to prove their loyalty.

commemorate /kəˈmem.əˈreɪt/

VERB [t]

[C2] to do something to show you remember an important person or event in the past with respect

Dictionary example:
a ceremony to commemorate the battle

Learner example:
As requested I am submitting the following proposal in order to recommend Melina Merkouri as a famous person whose achievements should be commemorated.

commence /kəˈmens/

VERB [i or t] FORMAL

[C2] to begin something
Dictionary examples:
Building work will commence in the autumn.
Shall we let the meeting commence?

Learner example:
The sitting commenced and after just a quarter of an hour – as the members of the council were familiar with the subject – a decision was made and with a solemn countenance the chairman announced: "Let's give these eager young people the possibility [of] making their dreams come true!"

comment /ˈkɒm.ənt/

NOUN [C]

THING SAID
[B1] something that you say or write that expresses your opinion

Dictionary examples:
I don't want any comments on/about my new haircut, thank you!
Tell us what you think – go to our web page and post/leave/add a comment.
He made negative comments to the press.

Learner example:
Write me a comment.

No comment.
[C2] used to say that you do not want to answer someone's question

Dictionary example:
'Will you be standing for leader?' 'No comment.'

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to make a comment

Dictionary examples:
My mum always comments on what I'm wearing.
He commented that the two essays were rather similar.
The official refused to comment on the matter.

Learner example:
I will only comment on some points, the others may be viewed as agreed upon.

commerce /ˈkɒm.ɜːs/

Word family:
Nouns: commerce, commercial
Adjectives: commercial
NOUN [u]
[B2] the activities involved in buying and selling things

Dictionary example:
the world of commerce and industry

Learner example:
In the old days, when the only means of transport were horses, there were many difficulties in communication between people, in commerce, and in life generally.

commercial /kəˈmɜː.ʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: commerce, commercial
Adjectives: commercial

NOUN [c]
[B2] an advertisement on the radio, on television, etc.

Dictionary example:
I tend to switch off during the commercials.

Learner example:
Nearly every one of us has to confess that on some days it is simply relaxing to sit in front of the TV just watching without using the brain at all, but we have to wonder if television is also able to educate us, especially regarding the senseless commercials.

ADJECTIVE

BUYING AND SELLING
[B2] related to buying and selling things

Dictionary examples:
a commercial organization/success
The commercial future of the company looks very promising.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, as long as their private life is interesting for ordinary people and it brings commercial gain to publishers, journalists and photographers, famous people will just have to get used to this living "under a microscope".

FOR PROFIT
[C2] making money from advertising

Dictionary example:
commercial television

Learner example:
These days, in all commercial television, they show advertisement[s] in every hour of the day.
commit \(\text{commit} \quad /\text{kəˈmit/ \text{(tt-)}}\)

Word family:
Nouns: commitment
Verbs: commit
Adjectives: committed

VERB \([t]\)

DO

[B2] to do something that is considered wrong, or that is illegal

Dictionary examples:
He was sent to prison for a crime that he didn't commit.
to commit suicide to commit a crime/an offence/murder

Learner example:
She is willing to be [a] witness for the prosecution and states that her husband [was] not with her at the time the crime was committed.

DECISION

[C2] to make a firm decision that you will do something

Dictionary example:
He committed himself to helping others.

Learner example:
Doctor Gregorio Alvarez was born in Buenos Aires, Argentina in the early 1910s and graduated as a doctor at an early age. [...] He worked his entire life [in] the public hospital in Neuquen, which was the most developed city at that time, but he committed himself to exploration on a permanent basis.

commitment \(\text{commitment} \quad /\text{kəˈmit.mənt/}\)

Word family:
Nouns: commitment
Verbs: commit
Adjectives: committed

NOUN

LOYALTY

[B2] [C or u] when you are willing to give your time and energy to something that you believe in, or a promise or firm decision to do something

Dictionary examples:
She is known chiefly for her commitment to human rights.
I'd like to thank the staff for having shown such commitment.
Learner example:
I really admire your stamina, your commitment and your eagerness to pursue a career as one of the youngest vice presidents ever in the company (and the only female I guess), but is it really worth it?

ACTIVITY
[B2] [c] something that you must do or deal with that takes your time

Dictionary examples:
family/work commitments
I've got too many commitments at the moment to do an evening class.

Learner example:
Please tell me also the terms of [the] possible job so I can plan my future work commitments.

committed /kəˈmɪt.id/
Word family:
Nouns: commitment
Verbs: commit
Adjectives: committed

ADJECTIVE
[C2] loyal and willing to give your time and energy to something that you believe in

Dictionary examples:
a committed Christian
She's committed to the job.

Learner example:
All in all, Mr Schmidt is a very committed and hard-working person.

committee /kəˈmɪt.i/
NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
[B2] a small group of people chosen to represent a larger organization and either make decisions or collect information for it

Dictionary examples:
She is on the school's development committee.
The local council have just set up a committee to study recycling.

Learner example:
I'm pleased to help and to present these films to the club committee.
commodity /ˈkɒmɒd.ə.ti/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a product that you can buy or sell

Dictionary example:
The country's most valuable commodities include tin and diamonds.

Learner example:
Not just that, it will have a domino effect on prime commodities as well.

common /ˈkɒm.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: common
Adjectives: common, uncommon
Adverbs: commonly

ADJECTIVE

USUAL
[B1] happening often or existing in large numbers

Dictionary examples:
It's quite common to see couples who dress alike.
The surname 'Smith' is very common in Britain.

Learner example:
The city is so noisy and it's possible that you [will] get lost, it's very common.

SHARED
[B1] belonging to or shared by two or more people or things

Dictionary examples:
a common goal/interest
English has some features common to many languages.

Learner example:
I invited her to dinner for all her trouble and we found out that we have a lot of common interests.

common knowledge
[B2] something that a lot of people know

Dictionary example:
It's common knowledge that he spent time in jail.

Learner example:
It is common knowledge that such attention [in the mass-media] inevitably tells on relationships in the family.
ORDINARY
[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] not special in any way

Dictionary example:
The herbs all have common names and Latin names.

Learner example:
The fashion of the common people and the average worker had to be practical and had to be worn for longer than just half a year.

find common ground
[C2] to find shared beliefs, interests or ideas

Dictionary example:
It's difficult for me to find any common ground with my dad.

Learner example:
The bottom line is we have to find some common ground and some balance between development and nature...

NOUN

have sth in common
[B1] to share, interests, experiences, or other characteristics with someone or something

Dictionary example:
Sue and I don't have much in common.

Learner example:
We both like to read fantasy books so we have a lot in common.

in common with sb/sth
[C1] in the same way as someone or something

Dictionary example:
In common with many working mothers, she feels guilty about leaving her children.

Learner example:
In common with many city dwellers, I do not think this is a wise decision and it could have negative effects on the city residents' daily lives.

commonly /ˈkɒm.ən.li/
ADVERB

[C1] often or usually

Dictionary example:
These caterpillars are commonly found on nettles.

Learner example:
It is commonly acknowledged that, these days, mobile phones have become an important accessory.

common sense /
ˌkɒm.ənˈsɛnts/

NOUN [u]

[B1] the natural ability to be practical and to make good decisions

Dictionary example:
The children shouldn’t be in any danger as long as they use their common sense.

Learner example:
In fact she is very nice, funny, [and] full of common sense.

communicate /kəˈmjuː.nɪ.keɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: communication
Verbs: communicate
Adjectives: communicative

VERB

SHARE INFORMATION

[B1] [I or T] to share information with others by speaking, writing, moving your body or using other signals

Dictionary examples:
We can now communicate instantly with people on the other side of the world.
Has the news been communicated to the staff yet?
Unable to speak a word of the language, he communicated with his hands.

Learner example:
Finally, I decided to join a new English class in order to improve my English because [a] few weeks ago I met someone who is really interesting, so I would like to be able to communicate properly with him.
BE UNDERSTOOD

[B2] [i] to be understood by someone when you tell them about your feelings and thoughts

Dictionary example:
He can't communicate with his parents.

Learner example:
I think I can communicate with children and make them happy.

communication /kəˌmjuː.nɪˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: communication
Verbs: communicate
Adjectives: communicative

NOUN [u]
[B1] the act of communicating with people

Dictionary examples:
Television is an increasingly important means of communication.
We are in direct communication with Moscow.
With an hour's walk to the nearest telephone, communication is difficult.
There's very little communication between mother and daughter.
a course on communication skills

Learner example:
Communication [by] e-mail is very fast and very cheap.

communicative /kəˈmjuː.nɪ.kə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: communication
Verbs: communicate
Adjectives: communicative

ADJECTIVE
[B2] open and willing to talk to people

Dictionary example:
She's never very communicative in the morning.

Learner example:
First of all, I would like to say I am a very communicative person and I enjoy being surrounded by many people.
community /kəˈmjuː.nə.ti/

NOUN [c]

IN ONE AREA

[B2] the people living in one particular area

Dictionary examples:
a rural/small community
He's well-known in the local community.
Drug trafficking is a matter of considerable concern for the entire international community.

Learner example:
He supported some projects in our community.

GROUP OF PEOPLE

[B2] [+ SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] a group of people with the same interests, way of life, nationality, job, etc.

Dictionary examples:
the black/white/Chinese/Jewish community
the business community

Learner example:
As a member of our academic community, and a representative of [the] student's senate, I'm very glad to hear that our college will have a surplus in its annual budget.

commute /kəˈmjuː.t/

VERB [i]

[C1] to regularly travel between work and home

Dictionary example:
He commutes to London every day.

Learner example:
People who work in the centre will have to commute from the suburbs which will be a waste of time for them.

companion /kəmˈpæn.ʒən/

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone you spend a lot of time with or go somewhere with Dictionary examples:
a travelling companion
Dan has been her constant companion these past ten years.

Learner example:
Jane and her companion felt absolutely foolish and muttered something about a wrong address.

company /ˈkʌm.pə.ni/

NOUN

OTHER PEOPLE
[B2] [u] when you are with a person or people, or the person or people you are with

Dictionary examples:
I just enjoy his company.
Do you want company or would you rather go on your own?
I didn't realize you had company.
Margot came to stay for a week as company for my mother while I was away.

Learner example:
Fortunately a friend of mine came with me for company.

keep sb company
[B2] to stay with someone so that they are not alone

Dictionary example:
Come and keep me company, Isabel.

Learner example:
Usually I went with him to keep him company and because I liked it.

be good company
[C1] to be a pleasant or interesting person to spend time with

Dictionary example:
Ann and Charles are always good company.

Learner example:
He is a bit narrow-minded and at first he'll drive you crazy, but once you get to know him he'll be good company.
comparable /ˈkɒm.pərə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: comparative, comparison
Verbs: compare
Adjectives: comparable, comparative
Adverbs: comparatively

ADJECTIVE
[C1] similar in size, amount, or quality to something else

Dictionary examples:
Our prices are comparable to those in other shops.
The two experiences are not comparable.

Learner example:
Recent surveys revealed that the gap in salary between men and women doing comparable jobs increased within the last years.

comparative /kəmˈpær.ətɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: comparative, comparison
Verbs: compare
Adjectives: comparable, comparative Adverbs: comparatively

ADJECTIVE
[C1] comparing similar things

Dictionary example:
a comparative study of two poems

Learner example:
In a comparative study we see [the] work force is increasing in Japan, whereas it is declining in U.S.

comparative comfort/freedom/silence, etc.
[C2] a situation which is comfortable/free/silent, etc. when compared to another situation or to what is usual

Dictionary example:
I enjoyed the comparative calm of his flat after the busy office.

Learner example:
Uruguay has exploited its comparative advantages orienting its economy towards tourism, whereas Argentina has made use of the river to promote the export of domestic products.
comparatively /kəmˈpær.ə.tɪv.i/

Word family:
Nouns: comparative, comparison
Verbs: compare
Adjectives: comparable, comparative
Adverbs: comparatively

ADVERB

comparatively cheap/easy/little, etc.
[C1] cheap/easy/little, etc. when compared to something else or to what is usual

Dictionary example:
The climb was comparatively easy.

Learner example:
Although I am not a professional interpreter, please notice that my earnings are comparatively low.

compare /kəmˈpeər/

Word family:
Nouns: comparative, comparison
Verbs: compare
Adjectives: comparable, comparative
Adverbs: comparatively

VERB

EXAMINE DIFFERENCES
[B1]
[I or T] to examine the ways in which two people or things are different

Dictionary examples:
If you compare house prices in the two areas, it's quite amazing how different they are.
That seems expensive – have you compared prices in other shops?
Compare some recent work with your older stuff and you'll see how much you've improved.
Teachers always used to compare me with my sister.

Learner example:
Our lives are so different, it's interesting to compare.

compared to/with sb/sth
[B2] used when saying how one person or thing is different from another

Dictionary examples:
This road is quite busy compared to ours.
Children seem to learn more interesting things compared with when we were at school.
Learner example:
To my surprise it was very cheap compared with other restaurants.

calculate notes
[C1] If two people compare notes, they tell each other what they think about something that they have both done.

Dictionary example:
We compared notes about our experiences in China.

Learner example:
In conclusion, regular meetings between parents and school teachers [...] help both parties to compare notes, acting in the best interest[s] of the children.

comparison /kəmˈpær.ɪ.sən/

Word family:

- Nouns: comparable, comparison
- Verbs: compare
- Adjectives: comparable, comparative
- Adverbs: comparatively

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when two or more people or things are compared

Dictionary examples:
- They made a comparison of different countries’ eating habits.
- By/in comparison with the French, the British eat far less fish.
- I always drink fresh coffee, not instant. There’s no comparison.

Learner example:
Nowadays we can see a very different world from the one our grandparents were living in. Whereas they used to talk about how their daily life had changed in comparison with previous generations’, we remain astonished [at] how our lives are changing frenetically.

compatible /kəmˈpæt.ə.bl/

ADJECTIVE

- EQUIPMENT

[C1] compatible equipment can be used together

Dictionary example:
This keyboard is compatible with all of our computers.
Learner example:
Actually it is compatible with the newest 3DFX technology, which gives [an] extremely realistic [look] and the possibility to interact with the game.

PEOPLE
[C2] If people are compatible, they like each other and are happy to spend time together.

Dictionary examples:
After they got married, they soon found out that they weren’t compatible.
My new job’s going well, and my colleagues seem to be compatible.

Learner example:
The personalities of my parents were very different but at the same time they were a very compatible couple.

IDEAS
[C2] compatible ideas or situations can exist together

Dictionary example:
Such policies are not compatible with democratic government.

Learner example:
My aim here is not to criticize this point of view but to show it is hardly compatible with the idea of giving work less importance.

compel /kəmˈpel/

VERB FORMAL (compelling, compelled)

feel compelled to do sth
[C1] to feel that you should do something

Dictionary example:
He felt compelled to resign from his job.

Learner example:
As a member of the International Student's Sports Club, I felt compelled to write this article in answer to the previous article about how today's youth is putting sports and healthy activities aside.
compensate /ˈkɒm.pən.seɪt/

VERB

MONEY

[C1] [ɪ] to pay someone money because you are responsible for injuring them or damaging something

Dictionary example:
Victims of the crash will be compensated for their injuries.

Learner example:
I would like to be compensated for the extra work I have done to please the guests from the last stay.

MAKE BETTER

[C2] [ɪ] or [r] to reduce the bad effect of something, or make something bad become something good

Dictionary example:
Nothing will ever compensate for his lost childhood.

Learner example:
Yet, it seems obvious that money cannot compensate for [a] lack of affection.

compete /kəmˈpiːt/

Word family:

-Nouns: competition, competitor
-Verbs: compete
-Adjectives: competitive

VERB [ɪ]

SPORT

[B1] to take part in a race or competition

Dictionary examples:
She's competing for a place in next year's Olympics.
Are you competing in the 100 metres?

Learner example:
There's gonna be a competition and I want to compete, but you know that my bicycle is a mess and very old.

SUCCESS

[B2] to try to be more successful than someone or something else
Dictionary examples:
It's difficult for a small supermarket to compete against/with the big supermarkets. Both girls compete for their father's attention.

Learner example:
Most small cities like ours think that we have to compete with big cities by building new houses and shopping centres.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>competence</th>
<th>/'kɒm.pɪ.tənts/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: competence
Adjectives: competent

NOUN [u]
[C1] the ability to do something well

Dictionary example:
Her competence as a teacher is unquestionable.

Learner example:
This report aims to outline the present state of our library's archives as well as to recommend another book or newspaper for those interested in improving their competence in Greek.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>competent</th>
<th>/'kɒm.pr.tənt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: competence
Adjectives: competent

ADJECTIVE
[C1] able to do something well

Dictionary examples:
a competent teacher/swimmer
I wouldn't say he was brilliant but he is competent at his job.

Learner example:
As the game develops, the creatures and tasks get more and more complicated and by the end of the game, you will be expected to become a competent shooter.
competition /ˌkɒm.pəˈtɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: competition, competitor
Verbs: compete
Adjectives: competitive

NOUN

BUSINESS/JOBS
[B2] [u] when someone, or a company, is trying to win something or be more successful than someone else

Dictionary examples:
Competition for jobs is intense.
There’s a lot of competition between computer companies.
The two companies are in competition with each other.

Learner example:
Different opening times mean[s] competition between the shops.

competitive /kəmˈpet.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: competition, competitor
Verbs: compete
Adjectives: competitive

ADJECTIVE

SITUATION
[B2] involving competition

Dictionary examples:
competitive sports
a highly competitive industry

Learner example:
Nowadays people live in [a] very competitive society.

PERSON
[B2] wanting very much to win or be more successful than other people

Dictionary example:
She’s very competitive.

Learner example:
I think that I am a very competitive player.
PRICES/SERVICES
[B2] as good as or better than other prices, services, etc.

Dictionary example:
They offer good quality goods at competitive prices.

Learner example:
I stayed at Riverside Hotel which is great value because of the food and the competitive prices they offer.

competitor /kəˈpet.ɪr/
Word family:
Nouns: competition, competitor
Verbs: compete
Adjectives: competitive

NOUN [C]
[B1] a person, team or company that is competing against others

Dictionary examples:
How many competitors took part in the race?
Their prices are better than any of their competitors.

Learner example:
The last one I saw was called 'Spelling' and it was a kind of quiz where the competitors had to spell difficult words fast and finish at a certain time.

compile /kəmˈpaɪl/
VERB [T]
[C1] to collect information and arrange it in a book, report, list, etc.

Dictionary example:
We're compiling some facts and figures for a documentary on climate change.

Learner example:
The aim of this report is to compile the findings and thereby outline the main reasons why our branch did not get the contract, in order to prevent future failures.

complain /kəmˈpleɪn/
Word family:
Nouns: complaint
Verbs: complain
VERB [i]
[B1] to say that something is wrong or that you are annoyed about something

Dictionary examples:
Lots of people have complained about the noise.
He's always complaining!
He complained that she never listened to him.
If the service was so bad why didn't you complain to the manager?

Learner example:
If we are bad, they complain to our manager or they tell the head office.

complaint /kəmˈpleɪnt/

Word family:
Nouns: complaint
Verbs: complain

NOUN

SOMETHING WRONG
[B1] [c or u] when someone says that something is wrong or not satisfactory

Dictionary examples:
We've received a complaint from one of our listeners about offensive language.
I've made a complaint to the police about the noise.
We've had complaints that you've been playing your radio too loud.

Learner example:
I hope you give my complaint serious consideration and I would be very pleased if you would print a correction in the next issue of your magazine.

ANNOYING THING
[C1] [c] something that makes you complain

Dictionary example:
My only complaint was the lack of refreshments.

Learner example:
My only complaint about the teaching staff is that they did not allow enough time for individual tuition and help when needed.
complete /kəmˈpliːt/

Word family:
Nouns: completion
Verbs: complete
Adjectives: complete
Adverbs: completely

---

ADJECTIVE
TOTAL
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] very great or to the largest degree possible

Dictionary examples:
It was a complete waste of time.
He’s a complete idiot!
I made a complete and utter mess of it!

Learner example:
It was a complete disaster!

WHOLE
[B1] with all the parts

Dictionary examples:
the complete works of Oscar Wilde
The report comes complete with diagrams and colour photographs.
Sun, sand and romance – her holiday was complete.

Learner example:
I can send you [a] complete map.

---

completely /kəmˈpliːt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: completion
Verbs: complete
Adjectives: complete
Adverbs: completely

---

ADVERB
[B1] in every way or as much as possible

Dictionary examples:
I completely forgot I’d said I would call him.
He’d completely changed and I didn’t recognize him.
I agree with you completely.
She’s completely mad.
Learner example:
In the middle of the journey there was one of [those] summer rain [showers] and we got completely wet.
Dictionary example:
a sports/housing complex

Learner example:
A visit to any local shopping complex suggest[s] people between 14 to 35 years of age are the [most] frequent shoppers.

MENTAL
[C2] a mental problem which makes someone anxious or frightened about something

Dictionary example:
an inferiority complex

Learner example:
He began to feel like that character in "Psycho", afraid that the hotel manager would turn out to be some kind of maniac with an Oedipus complex.

complexion /kəmˈplek.ʃən/

NOUN [c]
[C2] the colour and appearance of the skin on someone's face

Dictionary example:
a clear complexion

Learner example:
She had a fair complexion framed with red hair which reminded me of a witch.

complexity /kəmˈplek.sə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: complexity
Adjectives: complex

NOUN [u]
[C2] when something is complex

Dictionary example:
a problem of great complexity

Learner example:
Will this system of planting and exploiting new values, styles and icons actually collapse under its own weight and complexity?
complicate /ˈkɒm.plɪ.keɪt/

Word family:
- Nouns: complication
- Verbs: complicate
- Adjectives: complicated

VERB [T]
[C1] to make something more difficult to deal with or understand

Dictionary example:
These new regulations just complicate matters further.

Learner example:
My friend, I hope I didn’t complicate things for you with my appraisal of the situation.

complicated /ˈkɒm.plɪ.keɪ.tɪd/

Word family:
- Nouns: complication
- Verbs: complicate
- Adjectives: complicated

ADJECTIVE [B1]
involving a lot of different parts, in a way that is difficult to understand

Dictionary examples:
- complicated instructions
  I had to fill in this really complicated form.
  The rules are rather complicated to follow.
  The relationship is a bit complicated. He’s my mother’s cousin’s daughter’s child.

Learner example:
Life is getting easier but more complicated – I could have written a letter in a bottle but waiting for the answer would take a decade, now it’s just a click of a button.

complication /ˌkɒm.plɪˈkeɪʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: complication
- Verbs: complicate
- Adjectives: complicated

NOUN [C]

DIFFICULTY
[C1] something which makes a situation more difficult
Dictionary example:
We want to sign the contract, but there are several complications.

Learner example:
As you have already correctly mentioned in your memorandum, we indeed face some complications in our resort.

MEDICAL PROBLEM
[C2] a new medical problem that develops when you are already ill

Dictionary example:
Eye problems can be a complication of diabetes.

Learner example:
Disregarding recommendations given by nutrition experts can pose a great threat to our longevity, namely because of cardio-vascular complications.

compliment

Word family:
Nouns: compliment
Verbs: compliment
Adjectives: complimentary

NOUN /ˈkɒm.plɪ.mənt/

PRAISE
[C2] [c] something that you say or do to show praise or admiration for someone

Dictionary example:
My colleague told me I had a firm manner and I took it as a compliment.

Learner example:
I take that as a compliment, giving me hope to excel as well as he did.

pay sb a compliment
[C2] to tell someone that you admire something about them

Dictionary example:
He paid her several compliments about her painting.

Learner example:
His companions always pay him compliments on his [piano] playing.

with the compliments of sb FORMAL [C2] used by someone to express good wishes when they give you something free, for example in a restaurant

Dictionary example:
Please accept this champagne with the compliments of the manager.
Learner example:
The guest can also choose from a selection of wonderful desserts such as mousse au chocolat with fresh raspberries before finishing his/her meal with a rose liqueur – with the compliments of the house (and the bill).

VERB [ɪ] /ˈkɒm.plɪ.ment/
[C1] to praise or express admiration for someone

Dictionary example:
He complimented me on my writing.

Learner example:
Firstly, I must compliment you on lowering your prices and adding new destinations to choose from.

complimentary /ˌkɒm.plɪˈmen.təri/

Word family:
Nouns: compliment
Verbs: compliment
Adjectives: complimentary

ADJECTIVE

PRAISING
[C2] praising or expressing admiration for someone

Dictionary example:
a complimentary report

FREE
[C2] given free, especially by a business

Dictionary example:
a complimentary glass of wine

Learner example:
It may be easy to obtain complimentary copies from publishers without any cost to the library.

comply /kəmˈplaɪ/

VERB [ɪ]
[C1] to obey an order, rule, or request

Dictionary example:
The pilot complied with instructions to descend.
Learner example:
To comply with even the highest security standards, WEB–DMS features cutting-edge encryption and access control technologies.

component /kəmˈpəʊ.nənt/

NOUN [C]

MACHINE
[C1] one of the parts of a machine or piece of equipment

Dictionary example:
Our company makes components for aircraft engines.

Learner example:
Since both the hardware and software components used by the employees of this department are not in a good state, there is a need for brand new and more powerful computers and of updated software.

FEATURE
[C1] one of the parts or characteristics of something or someone

Dictionary example:
The course has four distinct components.

Learner example:
These components are present in everyone, whether you are rich or poor, thus it is wrong to be biased with one kind of people purely based on beliefs not supported by solid evidence.

compose /kəmˈpəʊz/

Word family:

Nouns: composer, composition
Verbs: compose

Verb

BE MADE OF
[B2] (T OFTEN PASSIVE) to be the parts that something consists of

Dictionary example:
The committee was composed of elected leaders and citizens.

Learner example:
It is composed of more than 50 members and they have various tastes in film: old and modern, comedy, action and so on.
MUSIC
[B2] [I or T] to write a piece of music

Dictionary example:
Who composed the music for the film?

Learner example:
I've been composing music on a computer for over five years and I have a lot of knowledge when it comes to hardware.

composer /ˈkəmpəzarər/
Word family:
Nouns: composer, composition
Verbs: compose

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who writes music

Dictionary example:
a famous composer

Learner example:
I also met a lot of famous composers, singers and even my favourite violin player, Ann Sophie Mutter, because I had to interview them.

composition /ˌkɒmpəˈzɪʃən/
Word family:
Nouns: composer, composition
Verbs: compose

NOUN
WRITING
[B1] [C] a short piece of writing about a particular subject, done by a student

Dictionary example:
a 500-word composition

Learner example:
I have [to] do a composition in English to cover the work I missed.

MUSIC
[B2] [C] a piece of music that someone has written

Dictionary example:
This concerto is one of her later compositions.
Learner example:
He sang Schubert's "Die Winterreise" although it's already Spring – this composition [can be heard in] every season.

PARTS
[C2] [u] the parts, substances, etc. that something consists of

Dictionary example:
the composition of the atmosphere

Learner example:
The eating procedure takes approx. 3 hrs, as each course is introduced by a detailed description of its preparation and composition.

ARRANGEMENT
[C2] [u] the way that people or things are arranged in a painting or photograph

Dictionary example:
The composition of the painting was perfect.

Learner example:
The study of acting, directing, and generally speaking of the scene has always demanded a certain degree of visual composition, a sense of image and of that which is immediately seen (or not seen).

WRITING MUSIC
[C2] [u] the process or skill of writing music

Dictionary example:
He taught composition at Yale.

Learner example:
He finished music composition at the University in Cracow, [and] he soon became the professor of composition at the same school of music.

comprehensive /ˌkɒmp.rɪˈhen.sɪv/

Word family:

Adjectives: comprehensive

Adverbs: comprehensively

ADJECTIVE
[C1] including everything

Dictionary example:
a comprehensive study of the subject

Learner example:
Presentations on making a career in media, finance and IT could have been more comprehensive.
comprehensively /ˌkɒm.prɪˈhen.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: comprehensive
Adverbs: comprehensively

ADVERB
[C1] completely

Dictionary example:
We were comprehensively beaten in the final.

Learner example:
However enjoyable and relaxing, driving needs [your] full attention. Therefore, it should be learnt comprehensively and being experienced shouldn't be relied on.

comprise /kəmˈpraɪz/

VERB [T] FORMAL

CONSIST
[C1] to consist of particular parts or members

Dictionary example:
The orchestra was comprised of amateur and professional musicians.

Learner example:
It comprises only twelve single and six double bedrooms, which will provide the intimacy we need.

FORM
[C1] to form part of something, especially a larger group

Dictionary example:
Women comprise 15% of the police force.

Learner example:
According to [a] survey carried out in 1997, the urban population comprises 71% of the total population in Pakistan.

compromise /ˈkɒm.pre.ˌmaɪz/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when you agree to something which is not exactly what you want
Dictionary examples:
It is hoped that a compromise will be reached in today's talks.
You've both got to be willing to make compromises.
In a compromise between management and unions, a 4% pay rise was agreed in return for an increase in productivity.

Learner example:
I hope that we'll find a compromise.

VERB

AGREE

[B2] [i] to agree to something that is not exactly what you want

Dictionary examples:
In a relationship, both people have to compromise.
I'm not going to compromise on quality.

Learner example:
The famous stars and the journalists should compromise and respect each other's rights.

HARM

[C2] [r] formal to have a harmful effect on something

Dictionary example:
The trial has been seriously compromised by sensational media coverage.

Learner example:
Sportsmen are usually under an enormous amount of pressure, because the slightest failure could compromise their career.

compulsive /kəmˈpʌlsɪv/

ADJECTIVE

HABIT

[C2] A compulsive habit is something that you do a lot because you want to so much that you cannot control yourself.

Dictionary example:
a compulsive eating disorder

Learner example:
However, the centre has a potential to affect shoppers, rendering them more compulsive.

INTERESTING

[C2] so interesting or exciting that you cannot stop reading, playing, or watching it
Dictionary example:
This documentary about life in prison makes compulsive viewing.

compulsory /kəmˈpʌl.sər.i/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] If something is compulsory, you must do it because of a rule or law.

Dictionary examples:
Wearing seat belts in cars is compulsory by law.
Swimming was compulsory at my school.

Learner example:
We have asked participants to wear a typical traditional dress/suit from their country – of course, this is not compulsory but everyone is warmly invited to do so.

conceal /kənˈsiːl/

VERB
[C2] to hide something

Dictionary examples:
The listening device was concealed in a pen.
She could barely conceal her irritation.

Learner example:
She had managed to conceal her dark secret from everybody.

concede /kənˈsiːd/

Word family:
Nouns: concession
Verbs: concede

VERB
ADMIT
[C2] to admit that something is true, even though you do not want to

Dictionary example:
Even the company chairman concedes that the results are disappointing.

Learner example:
As a frequent user of the town library, I had to concede that the article was telling the truth.
GIVE
[C2] to allow someone to have something, even though you do not want to

Dictionary example:
The government will not concede to rebel demands.

Learner example:
"It's wonderful, isn't it, how you always get what you pray for." This quote, Milly's reaction when her father concedes to buying her a horse, is a good illustration of her general attitude towards religion and life.

conceited /kənˈsiːtɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] too proud of yourself and your actions

Dictionary example:
I find him very conceited.

Learner example:
This is not to say that the successful person must be smug, conceited or bumptious; but he has to be convinced of his own skills and abilities.

conceive /kənˈsiːv/

Word family:
Nouns: concept, conception
Verbs: conceive
Adjectives: inconceivable

VERB

IDEA
[C2] to think of an idea or plan

Dictionary example:
The original idea for the novel was conceived in Rome.

Learner example:
I wonder what kind of person conceived this terrible and ignorant idea.

IMAGINE
[C2] to be able to imagine something

Dictionary example:
I cannot conceive of anything more horrible.
Learner example:
You cannot conceive of any other way of existence than the one you know.

BABY
[C2] [i or ĭ] to become pregnant

Dictionary example:
She had been trying for years, but never managed to conceive.

Learner example:
By then she had everything she could ask for but for some reason she did not conceive for 2 years. [T]hen she conceived but had two miscarriages.

concentrate /ˈkɒnt.sən.treɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: concentration Verbs: concentrate

VERB [i]

THINK CAREFULLY
[B1] to think very carefully about something you are doing and nothing else

Dictionary examples:
Come on, concentrate! We haven’t got all day to do this.
I can’t concentrate on my work with all that noise.
I’m going to concentrate on my writing for a while.

Learner example:
I can’t concentrate on studying.

(be) concentrated around/in/on, etc.
[C1] to be present in large numbers or amounts in a particular area

Dictionary example:
Most of the fighting was concentrated in the mountains.

Learner example:
However it might imply a shift from large stores, concentrated in a few areas within or outside the city, to more local services.

concentration /ˌkɒnt.sənˈtreɪtʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: concentration Verbs: concentrate NOUN

THOUGHT
[B2] [u] the ability to think carefully about something you are doing and nothing else

Dictionary examples:
The noise outside made concentration difficult.
There was a look of intense concentration on her face.
I find that yoga improves my powers of concentration.
I found it hard to follow what the teacher was saying, and eventually I lost concentration.

Learner example:
First of all, in my opinion, watching a film is more relaxing, because you don't have to concentrate to[o] much on it. You only have to watch the screen, while books require more concentration.

LARGE AMOUNT
[C2] [c or u] a large number or amount of something in the same place

Dictionary example:
high concentrations of minerals

Learner example:
Again, we may need to think about [the] implementation of more strict regulations related to the concentration of toxic chemicals in exhausts.

concept /ˈkɒn.sept/

Word family:
Nouns: concept, conception
Verbs: conceive
Adjectives: inconceivable

NOUN [c]
[B2] a principle or idea

Dictionary examples:
the concept of free speech
I failed to grasp the film's central concept.

Learner example:
I had been trying very hard to get the point of the concept.
conception /kənˈsepʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: concept, conception
Verbs: conceive
Adjectives: inconceivable

NOUN
[C2] [c or u] an idea about what something is like or a way of understanding something

Dictionary example:
They have no conception of how ordinary people live.

Learner example:
Therefore, unless we stretch the conception of personality to cover conformity with practice and social norms, economic decisions, and the choice of identities we aspire [to], the clothes that people wear may not reflect their personality, as [this] can be conditioned by many contingencies.

concern /kənˈsərn/

Word family:
Nouns: concern
Verbs: concern
Adjectives: concerned

VERB [T]

INVOLVE
[B2] to be important to someone or to involve someone directly

Dictionary examples:
Matters of pollution and the environment concern us all.
There are one or two other matters that don't concern you.

Learner example:
Fitness and health are two important issues in life which concern all of us.

BE ABOUT
[B2] to be about a particular subject

Dictionary example:
The next item on the agenda concerns staffing levels.

Learner example:
Your other question concerns clothes.

WORRY
[C1] to worry or upset someone
Dictionary example:
What really concerns me is her lack of experience.

Learner example:
The fact that the coach only had broken safety belts concerned me a great deal.

NOUN [C or U]

WORRY
[B2] when you feel worried or nervous about something, or something that makes you feel worried

Dictionary examples:
Concern for the safety of the two missing teenagers is growing.
There's a lot of public concern about/over dangerous toxins recently found in food.
The situation has been causing concern for some time now.
My concern is that you're not getting enough work done.
There's a matter of some concern that I have to discuss with you.

Learner example:
All those days I put aside all my concerns about my studies.

IMPORTANT THING
[B2] something that is important to you, or when something is important

Dictionary example:
Our primary concern is safety.

Learner example:
My concern is what present to buy for Mr Brown.

concerned /kənˈsɜːnd/

Word family:
Nouns: concern
Verbs: concern
Adjectives: concerned

ADJECTIVE

WORRIED
[B2] worried

Dictionary examples:
He's very concerned about her health.
I'm concerned that sales figures haven't improved
Concerned parents have complained about the dangerous playground.

Learner example:
We are getting more and more concerned about our health and how to get and keep fit nowadays.
as far as \textit{sb} is concerned
[B2] used to say what someone's opinion is \textbf{Dictionary examples:}

As far as I'm concerned, feng shui is a load of rubbish.
As far as our customers are concerned, price is the main consideration.

\textbf{Learner example:}
As far as Laura was concerned, he was the most disgusting man in the world.

\textbf{as far as \textit{sth} is concerned}
[B2] used to say what you are talking about

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
As far as money is concerned, we're doing very well.

\textbf{Learner example:}
First of all, I think the Majestic Hotel would be the right location, but I have doubts as far as the costs are concerned.

\textbf{be concerned with \textit{sth}}
[C1] to be about a particular subject

\textbf{Dictionary examples:}
The programme was more concerned with politics than the history of the place.
This field of linguistics is concerned with language acquisition.

\textbf{Learner example:}
This report is concerned with finding the best accommodation for the three-day trip in north-west England.

\textbf{AFFECTED}
[C2] [\textit{NEVER BEFORE NOUN}] involved in something or affected by it

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
A letter will be sent out to everyone concerned.

\textbf{Learner example:}
The amount of refund is to be negotiated with everyone concerned separately.

\textbf{concerning} /kənˈsɜː.nɪŋ/

\textbf{PREPOSITION FORMAL} [B2] about

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
I've had a letter from the tax authorities concerning my tax payments.
Learner example:
I am writing in reply to your letter concerning the prize I won in your competition, which is two weeks at Camp California in the U.S.A.

concession /kənˈseʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: concession
Verbs: concede

NOUN [c]

AGREEMENT
[C2] something that you agree to do or give to someone in order to end an argument

Dictionary example:
Both sides will have to make concessions.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, I still have the impression that some concessions have to be made and from personal experience, I can say it is very different to base your choice on a single criterion.

LOW PRICE
[C2] a reduction in the price of a ticket for a particular group of people such as students, people without a job, or old people

Dictionary example:
We offer concessions to students.

Learner example:
At the moment, people are not very motivated to use the public transport and only children, students and pensioners get a concession card.

conclude /kənˈkluːd/

Word family:
Nouns: conclusion
Verbs: conclude
Adjectives: conclusive
Adverbs: conclusively

VERB

DECIDE
[C1] [T] to decide something after studying all the information about it very carefully
Dictionary example:
The report concluded that the drug was safe.

Learner example:
It is because of this apparent pattern that we can conclude that as people grow older, they tend to visit the cinema less frequent[ly].

END

[C1] [ɪ or ɪ] FORMAL to end something such as a meeting, speech, or piece of writing by doing or saying one last thing

Dictionary examples:
The concert concluded with a firework display.
I would like to conclude by thanking you all for attending.

Learner example:
To conclude, I would like to underline one more time how crucial the setting up of a library would be for our college.

| conclusion /kənˈkluː.ʒən/ |

Word family:
Nouns: conclusion
Verbs: conclude
Adjectives: conclusive
Adverbs: conclusively

NOUN

JUDGMENT

[B1] [c] the opinion you have after considering all the information about something

Dictionary example:
At first I thought he was a bit rude but I've come to/reached the conclusion that he's just shy.

Learner example:
Dear Jack and Ben: I've been thinking about your last letter for quite a long time and I came to the following conclusion.

In conclusion

[B2] used to introduce the last part of a speech or a piece of writing

Dictionary examples:
In conclusion, I would like to thank our guest speaker for her fascinating talk.
In conclusion, swimming is an enjoyable form of exercise and an excellent way to keep fit.

Learner example:
In conclusion, music, TV and clothes are very important in a young person's life and can reflect each person's character.
jump to conclusions
[C2] to guess the facts about a situation without having enough information

Dictionary example:
He saw them talking together and jumped to conclusions.

Learner example:
I think, before jumping to conclusions, we should first try to anal[ys]e the situation.

[C2] [c] the final part of something

Dictionary examples:
the dramatic conclusion of the film
The case should finally be brought to a conclusion this week.

Learner example:
When it comes to the crunch, he is patient and persistent enough to carry a project to a successful conclusion.

lead sb to a conclusion
[C2] to cause you to think that something is probably true

Dictionary example:
So you thought I was leaving, did you? What led you to that conclusion?

Learner example:
These results lead us to the conclusion that only people with "minds tough enough" will survive.

conclusive /kənˈkluː.sɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: conclusion
Verbs: conclude
Adjectives: conclusive
Adverbs: conclusively

ADJECTIVE
[C2] proving that something is true

Dictionary example:
conclusive evidence/proof

Learner example:
Although there is no conclusive evidence of the influence of food on people's behaviour, we can observe certain patterns of beh[a]viour depending on what kind of food people eat.
conclusively  /ˈkənˈkluːs.ɪv.lɪ/

Word family:

- Nouns: conclusion
- Verbs: conclude
- Adjectives: conclusive
- Adverbs: conclusively

ADVERB

[C2] in a way that proves that something is true

Dictionary example:
It is possible to prove conclusively that he was at home at the time.

Learner example:
This undeniable fact implies advantages that were unthinkable in the past, yet we cannot prove conclusively that the gains outweigh the losses.

concrete  /ˈkɒŋ.kriːt/

NOUN [U]

[B2] a very hard building material made by mixing together cement, sand, small stones and water

Dictionary examples:
reinforced concrete a concrete floor/path a grey concrete building

Learner example:
Some of our children, brought up in modern cities, in a world of concrete, cars, motorways and supermarkets, when asked: "What is a fish?" are only able to answer: "a square piece of white flesh we take from the freezer".

ADJECTIVE

CERTAIN

[C1] certain or based on facts

Dictionary examples:
They think she killed her husband, but they have no concrete evidence/proof.
We've got a general idea of what we want, but nothing concrete at the moment.

Learner example:
Another piece of concrete evidence to suggest that children from a poorer background cannot cope with social problems properly compared to the other group is the fact that they are more inclined to be the troublemakers themselves.
REAL
[C2] existing in a real form that can be seen or felt

Dictionary examples:
concrete achievements/actions concrete objects

Learner example:
In order to turn it into a feasible concept, this process of learning should be applied to concrete situations.

condemn /kənˈdem/

VERB [T]
[C2] to say very strongly that you think something is wrong or very bad

Dictionary example:
The Prime Minister was quick to condemn the terrorists.

Learner example:
At first these needs were satisfied by different religions, but as we are living in a material world that does not care about spiritual things any more, we created our own idols whom we can look at, judge, admire or condemn – celebrities.

condition /kənˈdɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: condition
Verbs: condition
Adjectives: unconditional

NOUN
STATE
[B1] [U NO PLURAL] the particular state that something or someone is in

Dictionary examples:
My bike’s a few years old, but it’s in really good condition.
They left the flat in a terrible condition – there was mess everywhere.
He’s in no condition to drive home.

Learner example:
It’s very beautiful and in good condition.

conditions
[B1] the physical situation that someone or something is in and affected by Dictionary examples:
The prisoners were kept in the most appalling conditions.
Severe weather conditions are making driving difficult.
What are their living/working conditions like?
Under what conditions do plants grow best?

Learner example:
Although I had fun the weather conditions were horrible – it was raining all the time and the road was too wet to ride on.

ILLNESS

[B2] [c] an illness

Dictionary examples:
a medical condition
He suffers from a rare heart condition.

Learner example:
Besides, all the fats we eat every day plus the accumulated stress of a job, makes us the perfect candidates for a heart condition.

on condition that

[B2] only if

Dictionary example:
I'll come with you on condition that we're back before midnight.

Learner example:
I would like to do this on condition that you will not mention my name on the website.

AGREEMENT

[C1] [c] something that must happen or be agreed before something else can happen

Dictionary example:
One of the conditions of the contract is that we can't keep pets.

Learner example:
Now I want you to pay for that as it was agreed between us and according to the terms and conditions of the contract.

VERB

[C2] to make a person or animal behave in a particular way by influencing the way they think

Dictionary example:
The boys were conditioned to be aggressive.

Learner example:
We are then conditioned, somehow, to choose among a restricted range of offers and products, the ones they place before our very eyes on the telly.
conduct /kənˈdʌkt/

Word family:
Nouns: conductor
Verbs: conduct

VERB

ORGANIZE

[B2] [ɪ] to organize and perform a particular activity

Dictionary examples:
We are conducting a survey to find out what our customers think of their local bus service. The experiments were conducted by scientists in New York.

Learner example:
This is based on a questionair[e] conducted in the school and our English department's investigation.

MUSIC

[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to stand in front of a group of musicians and control their performance

Dictionary example:
The orchestra was conducted by Charles Miller.

Learner example:
The orchestra conducted by Mr Miller was just superb.

conduct yourself

[C2] to behave in a particular way

Dictionary example:
She conducted herself with great dignity.

Learner example:
The qualities I admire most in other people are, first of all, the ability to hide your own feelings – being a little reserved – and at the same time the ability to conduct yourself in such a way so that other people are influenced by you.

---

conductor /kənˈdʌk.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: conductor
Verbs: conduct

NOUN [C]

[B2] someone who stands in front of a group of musicians or singers and controls their performance
Dictionary example:
a famous conductor

Learner example:
I am fifty five years old and have experience [as] a conductor of a choir.

conference /ˈkɒn.fər.nts/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a large, formal meeting, often lasting a few days, where people discuss their work, politics, subjects they are studying, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a conference on women’s rights
the annual sales conference
They frequently hold conferences at the hotel.
I’m speaking at/attending a conference next week.

Learner example:
As you know, I went to Canada in order to take part in an environmental conference.

confess /kənˈfes/

Word family:
Nouns: confession
Verbs: confess

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to admit that you have done something wrong or something that you feel guilty or bad about

Dictionary examples:
She confessed to her husband that she had sold her wedding ring.
He has confessed to the murder.
He confessed to sleeping through most of the film.
I have to confess, I was a little confused at first.
I found it all very confusing, I must confess.

Learner example:
I must confess I’ve put on four kilos in the last three months and the bicycle will help me to become fitter.
confession /kənˈfeʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: confession
Verbs: confess

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when you admit that you have done something wrong or illegal

Dictionary examples:
He made a full confession to the police.
I have a confession to make – I've lost that book you lent me.

Learner example:
I also have a confession to make.

---

confidence /ˈkɒn.fɪ.dənts/

Word family:
Nouns: confidence
Adjectives: confidential

NOUN [U]

CERTAIN

[B2] when you are certain of your ability to do things well

Dictionary examples:
He's got the confidence to walk into a room of strangers and immediately start a conversation.
The training has given me the confidence to deal with any situation that arises.
She has ability but she lacks confidence.
I have every/completely confidence in her. She'll be perfect for the job.

Learner example:
As a result of such a bad appearance he lacks confidence.

TRUST

[C2] trusting someone's ability or believing that something will produce good results

Dictionary example:
Kate's new to the job, but I've got every confidence in her.

Learner example:
I have every confidence in your ability to reach a compromise.

in confidence

[C2] If you tell something to someone in confidence, you do not want them to tell anyone else.
Dictionary example:
I'm sorry, she told me that in confidence.

Learner example:
His real name isn't Piggy but he told Ralph in confidence that they called him that in school because of his appearance.

confident /ˈkɒnfɪdənt/

Word family:
Nouns: confidence, self-confidence
Adjectives: confident, self-confident
Adverbs: confidently

ABILITY

[B1] certain about your ability to do things well

Dictionary examples:
Be a bit more confident in yourself!
It was a confident performance.
He feels confident of winning.

Learner example:
But I soon felt more confident, as I saw what activities they were doing: some people were playing tennis, others were sunbathing in the garden.

CERTAIN

[B2] being certain that something will happen

Dictionary examples:
Are you confident that enough people will attend the event?
They don't sound confident about the future of the industry.

Learner example:
All in all, I'm confident that a solution will be found and our town will soon regain its former attractive look.

confidential /ˌkɒnfɪˈden.təl/

Word family:
Nouns: confidence
Adjectives: confidential

ADJECTIVE

[C1] secret, especially in an official situation
Dictionary example:
These documents are strictly confidential.

Learner example:
Remember, you are under no obligation to do anything and of course we will treat the confidential information you give us with discretion and respect.

---

confidently  /ˈkɒn.fɪ.dənt.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: confidence, self-confidence
- Adjectives: confident, self-confident
- Adverbs: confidently

ADVERB
---

[B2] with confidence or in a confident way

Dictionary example:
Try to act confidently, even if you feel nervous.

Learner example:
I am quite [a] hard worker and I can confidently say that I am quite [a] reliable person.

---

confine  /kənˈfaɪn/

VERB
---

[C2] to prevent someone from leaving a place or to prevent something from spreading

Dictionary example:
He was confined to a prison cell for several days.

Learner example:
Being Portuguese, I was confined to this small rectangle until I was a 15–year–old boy.

---

confirm  /kənˈfɜːm/

Word family:
- Nouns: confirmation
- Verbs: confirm
MAKE ARRANGEMENT CERTAIN

[B1] [ɪ or ɪː] to make an arrangement or meeting certain, often by telephone or in writing

Dictionary examples:
Six people have confirmed that they will be attending and ten haven't replied yet. Flights should be confirmed 48 hours before departure. I've accepted the job over the phone, but I haven't confirmed in writing yet.

Learner example:
I just want to confirm that we're going to the ABC cinema tonight.

PROVE TRUE

[B2] [ɪ] to say or show that something is true

Dictionary examples:
His wife confirmed that he had left the house that morning. The leader's speech was impressive and confirmed her faith in the party.

Learner example:
Besides, it was confirmed by scientists that consumerism may develop into a compulsion.

confirmation /ˌkɒn.fəˈmeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: confirmation
Verbs: confirm

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] a statement, often written, that an arrangement or meeting is certain

Dictionary examples:
a letter of confirmation
We've only had five confirmations for the conference so far. We will send you written confirmation of our offer shortly.

Learner example:
I look forward to receiving your confirmation.

conflict /ˈkɒn.fɪk.t/
Dictionary examples:
There was a lot of conflict between the two parties.
The Government was in conflict with the unions over pay.
It was an unpopular policy and caused a number of conflicts within the party.

Learner example:
As you know I was in conflict with myself, should I buy a computer or a bicycle?

FIGHTING
[B2] fighting between two or more groups of people or countries

Dictionary example:
armed conflict

Learner example:
In these years, Europe was in conflict with China, which meant war.

a conflict of interest
[C2] a situation where someone cannot make fair decisions because they are influenced by something

Dictionary example:
She resigned from the committee because of a conflict of interest.

Learner example:
It could become a conflict of interest, but he never lets it.

confront /kənˈfrʌnt/

Word family:
Nouns: confrontation
Verbs: confront

VERB [T]

ACCUSE
[C2] to tell someone something, or show them something to try to make them admit they have done something wrong

Dictionary example:
Confronted with the evidence, she broke down and confessed.

Learner example:
We had bills coming in our door, old ones which w[ere]n't paid and whenever I confronted him, he told me he would take care of it.

be confronted by/with sth
[C2] to be in a difficult situation, or to be shown something which may cause difficulties
Dictionary example:
We are confronted by the possibility of war.

Learner example:
Youth are confronted with a lot of difficulties and dangers and are often bound to collapse psychologically from the hard pressure on them.

DEAL WITH

[C2] to see that a problem exists and try to deal with it

Dictionary example:
First, they must confront their feelings of anger.

Learner example:
His inability to confront Ethan’s death, as well as his being too methodical, cause[s] his wife Sarah to reconsider their marriage.

confrontation /ˌkɒnfrəntəʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: confrontation
Verbs: confront

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] a fight or argument

Dictionary example:
She witnessed a confrontation between the two men.

Learner example:
There, he finds himself in a direct confrontation with Captain Beatty, the head of the fire station, who represents everything that’s evil, as he knows about books but still willingly destroys them.

confuse /kənˈfjuːz/

Word family:
Nouns: confusion
Verbs: confuse
Adjectives: confused, confusing

VERB [T]

NOT THINK CLEARLY

[B2] to make someone unable to think clearly, or to make something difficult to understand
Dictionary examples:
You're confusing him! Tell him slowly and one thing at a time.
Stop confusing the issue!

Learner example:
When the corpse was found he – successfully – tried to confuse Mrs. Marple, Scotland Yard and the members of the family where he was the doctor.

THINK ONE IS ANOTHER
[B2] to think that one person or thing is another person or thing

Dictionary examples:
I think you're confusing me with my sister – we look quite similar.
It's easy to confuse his films, because he tends to use the same actors.

Learner example:
I had confused the two words, "uvas", which means grapes, and "huevos", which means eggs and said "huevas", which unfortunately means testicles, instead...

confused /kənˈfjuːzd/

Word family:
Nouns: confusion
Verbs: confuse
Adjectives: confused, confusing

ADJECTIVE

NOT UNDERSTAND
[B1] unable to think clearly or to understand something

Dictionary examples:
People keep telling me different things and I'm getting very confused.
Sorry, I'm a bit confused – are we meeting here or in town?
She seemed a bit confused about the arrangements.

Learner example:
At first I felt very confused.

NOT CLEAR
[B2] not clear

Dictionary example:
The witnesses gave confused accounts of what happened.

Learner example:
What can a child [think], hearing such confused explanations about animals that don't live where they s[h]ould live, that don't live how they should live.

559
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>confusion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>confuse</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>confused, confusing</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[B1] difficult to understand

Dictionary example:
I found the instructions very confusing.

Learner example:
As a secret agent I was prepared [for] this sort of thing but it was surprising and confusing.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>confusion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>confuse</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>confused, confusing</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN

NOT UNDERSTAND

[B2] [c or u] when people do not understand what is happening, what they should do or who someone or something is

Dictionary example:
There seems to be some confusion about/over who is actually giving the talk.

Learner example:
This caused some confusion because the courses were not completely prepared.

SITUATION

[B2] [u] a situation, often with a lot of activity and noise, in which people do not know what to do

Dictionary example:
In the confusion after the bomb blast, I lost my bag.

Learner example:
In the confusion someone pushed her against the wall and she hurt her shoulder.

THOUGHT

[B2] [u] a feeling of not being able to think clearly
Dictionary example:
He could see the confusion on Marion’s face.

Learner example:
Then I thought he recognised my confusion; therefore, he opened the box, picking up something from [it].

---

congestion /kənˈdʒes.tʃən/

NOUN [u]

[C1] when something is full or blocked, especially with traffic

Dictionary example:
traffic congestion

Learner example:
The traffic congestion in Belo Horizonte is an issue that can’t be ignored.

---

congratulate /kənˈɡræt.ʒu.leɪt/

VERB [T]

[B2] to tell someone that you are happy because they have done something good or something good has happened to them

Dictionary example:
I was just congratulating Ceri on winning her race.

Learner example:
Needless to say, everybody congratulated her and she spent all evening answering questions such as: "Why did you choose water jumping?" or "Isn't it difficult for a teenager to train five hours a day and to study?"

---

conjunction /kənˈdʒʌŋk.ʃən/

NOUN [c]

GRAMMAR

[B2] a word such as 'and', 'but', 'while' or 'although' that connects words, phrases and clauses in a sentence in conjunction with sth/sb

[C2] working, used, or happening with something or someone else
Dictionary example:
Our librarians use their knowledge in conjunction with the computer network.

Learner example:
Therefore if the banning of private cars takes place in conjunction with development in the public transport system in that city, this whole development will [have] more advantages despite some slight difficulties at the start.

connect  /kəˈnekt/

Word family:
Nouns: connection
Verbs: connect

VERB
JOIN
[B1] I or T to join or be joined with something else

Dictionary examples:
Can I connect my printer to your computer?
Where does the cooker connect to the electricity?
Has the water/electricity/gas/telephone been connected in your new place yet?

Learner example:
I want to buy [a] computer to play games and connect to [the] Internet as well as listen to music in my free time.

INVOLVE
[C2] T to see or show that two or more people or things are involved with each other

Dictionary example:
There is no evidence to connect him with the crime.

Learner example:
Happiness should not be defined as material access, it should be connected with one of the most basic human needs, love.

connection  /kəˈnek.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: connection
Verbs: connect
NOUN

JOINING THINGS

[B1] [c or u] something that joins things together

Dictionary example:
Many companies now offer free connection to the Internet.

Learner example:
Moreover, some portable phones have a connection to the web, so it is easy to read newspapers if one hasn't enough money to buy [them].

INVolVEMENT

[B2] [c or u] when someone or something is involved with or related to someone or something else

Dictionary examples:
The connection between smoking and heart disease is well known.
He has denied having any connection with the terrorists.
They're sisters, are they? I knew their surname was the same, but I never made the connection.

Learner example:
If you are aware of the connection between food and health you can start changing your eating habits.

in connection with sth

[B2] used to say what something is about

Dictionary examples:
I am writing in connection with the above job advertised in The Daily Press on Monday 12th February.
A man has been arrested in connection with last month's murder.

Learner example:
Dear Mrs Brown, I am writing in connection with a surprise birthday party for your husband, Mr Brown.

TRAVEL

[B2] [c] a train, bus or aircraft that leaves a short time after another arrives, so people can continue their journey

Dictionary example:
The train was half an hour late and I missed my connection.

Learner example:
Because of bad bus connections it's not easy to get there.
conquer /ˈkɒŋ.kər/

VERB
[C1] [I or T] to take control of a country or to defeat people by war

Dictionary example:
The English were conquered by the Normans in 1066.

Learner example:
However, following imper[i]alist politics, the Persian King Darios wanted to expand his Kingdom in Europe, so he had to conquer Greece.

---

conscience /ˈkɒn.ʃəns/

Word family:
Nouns: conscience
Adjectives: conscientious

NOUN
[C2] [C or U] the part of you that makes you feel guilty when you have behaved badly

Dictionary examples:
a guilty conscience
My conscience is clear because I've done nothing wrong.

Learner example:
Young people have pangs of conscience and are invariably hit by pestering anxiety but they adamantly [refuse] to admit it.

---

conscientious /ˌkɒn.ʃiˈen.ʃəs/

Word family:
Nouns: conscience
Adjectives: conscientious

ADJECTIVE
[C1] always doing your work with a lot of care

Dictionary example:
a conscientious student

Learner example:
She is conscientious and hardworking.
conscious /ˈkɒn.tʃəs/

Word family:
Nouns: consciousness
Adjectives: conscious, unconscious, self-conscious
Adverbs: subconsciously, unconsciously

ADJECTIVE

be conscious of/that [B2] to know that something is present or that something is happening

Dictionary examples:
The tooth doesn't exactly hurt, but I'm conscious of it all the time.
I think she's very conscious of being the only person in the office who didn't have a university education.
I'm very conscious of the fact that a lot of people disagree with me.

Learner example:
We have to be conscious that we are destroying the world where we are living.

AWAKE

[C1] awake and able to think and notice things

Dictionary example:
He's still conscious but he's very badly injured.

a conscious decision/choice/effort, etc.
[C2] a decision/choice/effort, etc. that you make intentionally

Dictionary example:
Did you make a conscious decision to lose weight?

Learner example:
The fairly recent possibilities of birth control allow you to make a conscious decision about having children and you can postpone that decision until well after 30.

consciousness /ˈkɒn.tʃə.snəs/

Word family:
Nouns: consciousness
Adjectives: conscious, unconscious, self-conscious
Adverbs: subconsciously, unconsciously

NOUN

AWAKE

[B2] [U] when someone is awake and can think and notice things
Dictionary examples:
He lost consciousness for several minutes.
He never regained consciousness after the accident.

Learner example:
He lost consciousness and lay there on the floor just in front of me.

AWARE

[C1] NO PLURAL when someone knows about something

Dictionary example:
There's a growing consciousness about environmental issues among young people.

Learner example:
It also springs up out of a pleasure of playing the game and a consciousness that their health matters and being fit is an important element of it.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>consecutive /kənˈsek.jʊ.tɪv/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] Consecutive events, numbers, or periods of time come one after the other.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
the third consecutive day of rain

Learner example:
Complaints from students have been increasing for the second consecutive year, tape players are repeatedly reported not functioning.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>consensus /kənˈsen.səs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [U NO PLURAL]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] when all the people in a group agree about something</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
to reach a consensus
The general consensus is that we should wait and see what happens.

Learner example:
In addition, as the general consensus is that young people enjoy communicating through radio programmes, I suggest there is a time when messages sent by listeners are read.
consent  /kənˈsent/

NOUN [u]

[C1] permission for someone to do something

Dictionary example:
You can't come without your parents' consent.

Learner example:
The role of the council is to organise things [well] and to do so with the consent of people living in the city.

VERB [i]

[C2] to agree to do something, or to allow someone to do something

Dictionary example:
They eventually consented to let us enter.

Learner example:
Fascism is regarded as one of the worst manifestations of human nature, for it was not only a man or even a larger group of men who committed the crimes against mankind that will long remain in our minds, but a whole nation who consented in silence.

consequence  /ˈkɒn.t.sɪ.kwənts/

Word family:
Nouns: consequence
Adverbs: consequently

NOUN [c]

RESULT
[B2] the result of a particular action or situation, especially a bad result

Dictionary examples:
The ship sank with disastrous consequences.
Excessive drinking can have serious consequences for a person's health.
If you neglect your relationships like that, you'll suffer the consequences.

Learner example:
My work was the best because I drew a big drawing about [the] consequences of us not caring [for the] environment.

as a consequence  FORMAL
[C1] used to talk about one thing that is the result of another

Dictionary example:
A lot of birds died as a consequence of the oil spill.
Learner example:
The influence from Italy is very strong and, as a consequence, pasta with different s[a]uces is common in Slovenia, especially among students.

of little/no consequence FORMAL [C1] not important

Dictionary example:
The money was of little consequence to Tony.

Learner example:
Second, the downpour of rain which was mentioned was in fact nothing more than a small shower, of no significant consequence for the dance display and horse show.

consequently /ˈkɒnt.sɪ.kwənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: consequence
Adverbs: consequently

ADVERB
[B2] as a result

Dictionary example:
I spent most of my money in the first week and consequently had very little to eat by the end of the holiday.

Learner example:
Because of their job or school, people are much more stress[ed]. Consequently, they don’t take [the] time to eat correctly.

conservation /ˌkɒn.səˈveɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [u]

NATURE
[B2] the protection of nature

Dictionary examples:
wildlife conservation conservation groups

Learner example:
I think that trying to save the wildlife in your area is a great aim because you don’t have conservation areas and people can easily go hunting without telling anyone and in that way they destroy the wildlife.
NOT WASTE

[C1] when you are careful not to waste energy, water, etc.

Dictionary example:
Our top priority is conservation of water.

Learner example:
As the issue of energy conservation is becoming more and more important, our company has decided to start doing something about it, as well.

conservative /kənˈsər.və.tɪv/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not trusting sudden changes or new ideas

Dictionary example:
Older people tend to be very conservative.

Learner example:
However, some people, especially some youngsters, would say that she's too conservative – I heard lots of people describing her as a 'fuddy-duddy lady'.

consider /kənˈsɪdər/

Word family:
Nouns: consideration
Verbs: consider, reconsider
Adjectives: considerate, inconsiderate

VERB

THINK CAREFULLY

[B1] [I or T] to think carefully about something, often before you decide what to do

Dictionary examples:
Have you considered what you'll do if you don't get the job?
We're considering selling the house.
She's being considered for the job.
I'd like some time to consider before I make a decision.

Learner example:
I must say thanks to you for your birthday money for me to buy a DVD. After considering [what to buy], I decided to buy 'The Legend of Narnias'.

consider sb/sth (to be) sth

[B2] to have a particular opinion about someone or something
Dictionary example:
I don't consider myself to be a great athlete.

Learner example:
I consider myself to be punctual, hard-working, reliable and responsible.

FACTS

[C1] [ɪ] to give attention to a particular subject or fact when making a decision or judging something else

Dictionary examples:
You've got to consider the time element when planning the whole project.
If you consider how long he's been learning the piano, he's not very good.
If you buy an old house, you have to consider the cost of repairs.

Learner example:
The only point we have to consider will be the price of food.

MAY BE TRUE

[C1] to think that something may exist or be true

Dictionary example:
Have you considered the possibility that he might be lying?

Learner example:
Many students this year refuse even to consider the possibility of going to one.

all things considered

[C1] used for saying that something is true in general if you think about all its aspects

Dictionary example:
The show was a great success, all things considered.

Learner example:
All things considered, it seems like "Kavanagh Catering Services" would be most suitable for the students.

THINK OF OTHERS

[C2] to care about or respect other people or their feelings or wishes

Dictionary example:
She never considers anyone but herself.

Learner example:
Firstly you should always consider other people in your group once you start working together in a group.
considerable /kənˈsɪdərə.bl/

Word family:
Adjectives: considerable
Adverbs: considerably

ADJECTIVE
[B2] large or important enough to be noticed

Dictionary examples:
It's a considerable sum of money.
The effect on the region has been considerable.

Learner example:
I have considerable experience as a worker on [a] farm, having worked on my father’s farm from 1956 to 1986.

considerably /kənˈsɪdərə.bli/

Word family:
Adjectives: considerable Adverbs: considerably

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is large or important enough to be noticed

Dictionary examples:
Rates of pay vary considerably.
He’s considerably fatter than he was when I knew him.

Learner example:
The departures are at 8 am. and 10 a.m. daily, but I suggest that your group be there at the time of the first departure because it is considerably less crowded.

considerate /kənˈsɪd.ər.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: consideration
Verbs: consider, reconsider
Adjectives: considerate, inconsiderate

ADJECTIVE
[C1] showing concern for other people and their feelings

Dictionary example:
He is always a kind and considerate host.
Learner example:
As a colleague, I always found him thoughtful and considerate.

consideration  /ˈkɔnˌsidərəˈreɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: consideration
Verbs: consider, reconsider
Adjectives: considerate, inconsiderate

NOUN

CAREFUL THOUGHT
[B2] [u] when you think about something very carefully

Dictionary examples:
After careful consideration, we decided to offer her the job.
The whole matter needs to be given careful consideration.

Learner example:
Please give this your careful consideration.

take sth into consideration
[B2] when you think about a particular fact or detail and let it influence your decision

Dictionary example:
It may be cheap to buy, but you've got to take into consideration the money you'll spend on repairs.

Learner example:
For the reasons I have stated and taking into consideration that I am an ambitious and sociable person, I think I am suitable for the job.

IMPORTANT FACT
[B2] [c] something that you have to think about when you make decisions or plans

Dictionary examples:
Safety is our main consideration.
Cost, of course, is another consideration.

Learner example:
The next consideration is the activities.

KINDNESS
[C2] [u] when you are kind to people or think about their feelings

Dictionary example:
They always treated me with consideration.
Learner example:
He is very friendly and sympathetic towards those who, like Ralph and the twins, treat him with consideration, accepting him as he is, in spite of his deficiencies as to his manual or hunting abilities.

considering /kənˈsid.ər.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: consideration
Verbs: consider, reconsider
Adjectives: considerate, inconsiderate

PREPOSITION; CONJUNCTION
[B2] used for saying that you have a particular opinion about something, because of a particular fact about it

Dictionary examples:
She did really well, considering how little experience she'd had.
Considering the weather, we got here quite quickly.

Learner example:
Considering all the above, I think that your article was completely misleading.

consist /kənˈsɪst/

VERB

consist of sth PHRASAL VERB
[B1] to be made of or formed from something

Dictionary examples:
The team consists of four Europeans and two Americans.
It's a simple dish to prepare, consisting mainly of rice and vegetables.

Learner example:
Our team consists of 15 girls, who are all between 16 and 18.

consistent /kənˈsɪst.tənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: consistent
Adverbs: consistently
ADJECTIVE

NOT CHANGING
[C2] always behaving or happening in a similar, usually positive, way

Dictionary example:
consistent effort/improvement

Learner example:
If you make a consistent effort you will improve your work at a very brisk pace.

consistent with sth FORMAL [C2] having the same principles as something else, or agreeing with other facts

Dictionary example:
His account of events is entirely consistent with the video evidence.

Learner example:
An accurate selection of these categories of people should be made by the producers so [as] to offer to viewers the best possible models in a way which has to be consistent with the programme's title.

consistently /kənˈsɪst.ənt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: consistent
Adverbs: consistently

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that does not change, often a positive way

Dictionary examples:
He has consistently denied the rumours.
She performed consistently throughout the whole tournament.

Learner example:
It seems that international sports competitions have always tended to attract a great amount of interest on the part of the media and have consistently been popular with sports fans the world over.

consonant /ˈkɒn.sə.nənt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] one of the speech sounds or letters of the alphabet which is not a vowel constant /ˈkɒnt.stənt/

Word family:

Adjectives: constant

Adverbs: constantly

ADJECTIVE

A LOT

[B2] happening a lot or all the time

Dictionary examples:
He's in constant trouble with the police.
These machines are in constant use.

Learner example:
As for me, constant practice in [the] English language is quite important, it is the essence of my life.

SAME LEVEL

[C2] staying at the same level

Dictionary example:
The temperature remained constant.

Learner example:
Spain had the highest average number of children (2.2) in 1980. [T]his figure took a dip downward to 1.6 in 1985, decreased steadily to 1.2 average number of children in 1995 and remained relatively constant afterwards.

constantly /ˈkɒnt.stənt.li/

Word family:

Adjectives: constant

Adverbs: constantly

ADVERB

[B2] all the time or often

Dictionary examples:
He's constantly changing his mind.
She has the television on constantly.

Learner example:
I stood up and walked around the house, constantly bumping into things!
constitute /ˈkɒn.stɪ.tjuːt/

Word family:
- Nouns: constitution
- Verbs: constitute
- Adjectives: constitutional

VERB [T]
[C1] to be or form something

Dictionary example:
This defeat constitutes a real setback for their championship hopes.

Learner example:
Women constitute nearly half (48%) of the university students, and in some departments (educational colleges, medicine schools) they are clearly the majority.

---

constitution /ˌkɒn.strɪˈtjuːʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: constitution
- Verbs: constitute
- Adjectives: constitutional

NOUN [C]

LAWS
[C1] the set of laws and principles that a country's government must obey

Dictionary example:
the US Constitution

Learner example:
This is to be seen as progress, although this development seems to start rather late as already in 1949, the German constitution indicated that men and women have equal rights.

HEALTH
[C2] the state of someone's health

Dictionary example:
a strong/weak constitution

Learner example:
Another obvious feature of his character is his physical constitution: he is rather weak and needs glasses because he is short-sighted.
constitutional /ˌkɒn.stɪˈtjuː.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: constitution
Verbs: constitute
Adjectives: constitutional

ADJECTIVE
[C2] relating to the constitution of a country

Dictionary example:
a constitutional crisis

Learner example:
Holidays should be a constitutional right of every worker, student and housewife in order to achieve a healthy, balanced life.

---

constrain /kənˈstreɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: constraint
Verbs: constrain

VERB [T]
[C2] to control something by limiting it

Dictionary examples:
regulations that constrain industry
I'm constrained by decisions made in the past.

Learner example:
It must be acknowledged that he is a man constrained by an imposed marriage, which is going to leave him without an heir.

---

constraint /kənˈstreɪnt/

Word family:
Nouns: constraint
Verbs: constrain

NOUN [C]
[C2] something that limits what you can do

Dictionary examples:
budget/financial constraints
There are constraints on the medicines doctors can prescribe.
Learner example:
Of course there are different preferences and priorities as well as constraints.

construct /kənˈstrʌkt/

Word family:
Nouns: construction, reconstruction
Verbs: construct, reconstruct
Adjectives: constructive

VERB [ɪ]

[B2] to build something from several parts

Dictionary examples:
The building was constructed in 1930.
The walls are constructed of concrete.
You need this information to construct a basic sentence.

Learner example:
Using some wood, we constructed small seats and tables.

construction /kənˈstræk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: construction, reconstruction
Verbs: construct, reconstruct
Adjectives: constructive

NOUN

BUILDING WORK

[B2] [u] the work of building something, especially houses, offices, bridges, etc.

Dictionary examples:
the construction industry
The next decade saw the construction of many more office blocks.
She works in construction.
This website is currently under construction.

Learner example:
It is worth mentioning that a huge gym is under construction.

LARGE BUILDING

[B2] [c] something that is built

Dictionary example: a large steel construction
Learner example:
It would be a pity to build a modern construction there.

WORDS

[B2] [c] The construction of a sentence or phrase is the way the words are arranged.

Dictionary example:
Pay attention to sentence construction and check word order.

---

constructive /'kən'strʌktɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: construction, reconstruction
Verbs: construct, reconstruct
Adjectives: constructive

ADJECTIVE

[C1] helpful or useful

Dictionary example:
constructive advice/criticism

Learner example:
Moreover, I have quite often [asked] for the opinion of Mr. Walker on the making of our marketing plan and his comments were always very helpful and constructive.

---

consult /'kən'sʌlt/

Word family:
Nouns: consultant, consultation
Verbs: consult

VERB [T]

GET INFORMATION

[C1] to go to a particular person or book to get information or advice

Dictionary example:
For more information, consult your travel agent.

Learner example:
Even if I think I know what to write, I usually consult an interpreter and/or a lawyer.

DISCUSS

[C1] to discuss something with someone before you make a decision

Dictionary example:
Why didn't you consult me about this?
Learner example:
As it is just after Christmas I had to consult my wife – that is why it took some time to write this reply.

consultant  /ˌkɒnˈsʌlt.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: consultant, consultation
Verbs: consult

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who advises people on a particular subject

Dictionary examples:
a management/financial consultant a firm of public relations consultants

Learner example:
I work in a bank as a consultant.

consultation  /ˌkɒn.səˈlə.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: consultant, consultation
Verbs: consult

NOUN

DISCUSSING
[C2] [u] when you discuss something with someone in order to get their advice or opinion about it

Dictionary example:
After consultation with his lawyers, he decided to abandon the case.

Learner example:
After full consideration and consultation of the three groups of people mentioned above, we come to the result that charity workers should have the opportunity to present the work they are doing on TV.

MEETING
[C2] [c] a meeting to discuss something or to get advice

Dictionary example:
a medical consultation
Learner example:
We also plan to employ 2 graduate students from the psychology department in giving free consultations to the children to help them cope with their concerns and worries.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th>consume /kənˈsjuːm/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>consumer, consumption</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>consume</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VERB [ɪ]

EAT OR DRINK

[B2] FORMAL to eat or drink something

Dictionary example:
People generally consume far too much sugar.

Learner example:
People who eat fresh vegetables and meat tend to have good digestion and tend to consume less salt.

USE RESOURCE

[C1] to use fuel, energy or time, especially in large amounts

Dictionary example:
Our high living standards cause our present population to consume 25 percent of the world's oil.

Learner example:
It did consume a lot of time, but it was very rewarding.

be consumed by/with sth

[C2] to have so much of a feeling that it affects everything you do

Dictionary examples:
a dancer consumed by ambition
He was consumed with jealousy.

Learner example:
Therefore, we find ourselves unable to enjoy a pleasant meal without being consumed by the deepest guilt.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th>consumer /kənˈsjuː.ˈmər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>consumer, consumption</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>consume</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
NOUN [C]
[B2] a person who buys goods or services for their own use

Dictionary examples:
The new telephone rates will affect all consumers including businesses.
consumer rights/advice

Learner example:
Some people might argue that this system is convenient for consumers as they can go shopping whenever they would like to, and it makes the shops more secure against burglary and vandalism since the shops are packed with people inside.

consumption /kənˈsʌmpʃn/

Word family:
Nouns: consumer, consumption
Verbs: consume

NOUN [U]
[C1] the amount of something that someone uses, eats, or drinks

Dictionary examples:
We need to reduce our energy consumption.
fuel/water consumption

Learner example:
One less obvious aspect of pollution is the surge in energy consumption caused by technological development.

contact /ˈkɒn.tækt/

NOUN

COMMUNICATION
[B1] [u] communication with someone, especially by speaking or writing to them regularly

Dictionary examples:
Do you still keep in contact with Peter?
I'm still in contact with Sarah – we write a couple of times a year.
There isn't enough contact between teachers and parents.
I'd hate to lose contact with my old school friends.
If you manage to make contact with her, do let me know.
The school likes to have a contact number for parents during school hours.
Learner example:
Well, we'll [be] in contact in one week's time.

TOUCH
[C1] [u] when two people or things are touching each other

Dictionary examples:
She dislikes any kind of physical contact.
Wash your hands if they come into contact with chemicals.

Learner example:
I might even have become afraid of physical contact and of being face to face with others.

EYE
[C2] [c] (also contact lens) a small piece of plastic that you put on your eye to make you see more clearly

Dictionary example:
I wear contacts.

Learner example:
"Thank you," Jason said with delight, "You must know I am almost blind without my contacts."

eye contact
[C2] when people look at each other, for instance when they are talking to each other

Dictionary example:
There was very little eye contact between them.

Learner example:
I tried to avoid having eye contact with people just because of this humility.

contain /kənˈteɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: container
Verbs: contain

VERB [ɪ]

INSIDE
[B1] If one thing contains another, it has it inside it.

Dictionary examples:
a box containing a diamond ring
How much liquid do you think this bottle contains?
I've lost a file containing a lot of important documents.
Learner example:
So he asks the man if that suitcase is his, [and] the man runs to get it but the security guards don't let him until he shouts: "It contains my daughter's wedding dress!"

PART
[B2] to have something as a part

Dictionary examples:
Does this drink contain alcohol?
Try to avoid foods which contain a lot of fat.
The allegations contained in this report are very serious.

Learner example:
[The] food was not wonderful, but it was healthy and contained a lot of vitamins.

EMOTION
[C2] to control your emotions

Dictionary examples:
He could barely contain his anger.
I could not contain myself any longer.

Learner example:
Without being able to contain himself and helped by the alcohol in his blood, he shouted and danced and kissed everyone around him, acting in an exceptional way.

container /ˈkɒn.tər.nə/

Word family:
Nouns: container
Verbs: contain

NOUN [c]
[B2] an object such as a box or a bottle that is used for holding something

Dictionary examples:
an airtight container
a plastic drinks container

Learner example:
As a result, a mountain of plastic containers and harmful chemical fluid is [ruin]ing mother earth.

contemplate /ˈkɒn.təm.plɛt/

VERB [T]
[C2] to think about something for a long time or in a serious way
Dictionary examples:
I’m contemplating changing my name.
He even contemplated suicide.

Learner example:
While the popular girl gets very drunk at parties, the other one sits alone in her room, contemplating suicide.

contemporary /kənˈtem.pəˈr.i/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] existing or happening now

Dictionary examples:
contemporary music/literature/art/fashion
Although it was written hundreds of years ago, it still has a contemporary feel to it.

Learner example:
I always read a lot of different magazines and know a lot about contemporary writers.

contempt /kənˈtempt/

NOUN
[C2] a strong feeling that you do not respect someone or something

Dictionary example:
He has utter contempt for anyone with power.

Learner example:
Being a compulsory subject at school, history inevitably arouses contempt, as anything mandatory [does].

content

Word family:
Nouns: discontent
Adjectives: content

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] /kənˈtent/[B2] pleased with your situation and not hoping for change or improvement

Dictionary examples:
He seems fairly content with life.
They're content to socialize with a very small circle of people.
Learner example:
He looked really content and happy.

NOUN [NO PLURAL] /ˈkɒn.tent/

IDEAS
[B2] the ideas that are contained in a piece of writing, a speech or a film

Dictionary examples:
the content of the article
It's a very stylish and beautiful film, but it rather lacks content.
We've discussed the unusual form of the book – now, what about the content?

Learner example:
I suggest explaining the content of the film.

AMOUNT
[C2] the amount of a particular substance that something contains

Dictionary example:
Most soft drinks have a high sugar content.

Learner example:
To sum up, I think to eat what is and has been considered healthy for ages, to focus on variety rather than fat content and to do a lot of exercise is the best option.

contents /ˈkɒn.tents/

NOUN [PLURAL]

THINGS INSIDE
[B1] everything that is contained within something

Dictionary examples:
The contents of his bag spilled all over the floor.
He hardly needed to open the letter because he already knew the contents.

Learner example:
He looked for the owner and gave him the suitcase. He also asked about its contents.

INFORMATION
[B1] the information or ideas that are written in a book, letter, document, etc.

Dictionary example:
the contents of his will

Learner example:
In the first lesson the teacher explain[d] the rules and [the] contents of the course, and finally we d[id] a group activity.
BOOK
[B2] a list in a book that tells you what different parts the book contains

Dictionary example:
a table of contents contest /ˈkɒn.test/

Word family:
Nouns: contest, contestant

NOUN [C]
[B1] a competition to do better than other people, usually in which prizes are given

Dictionary examples:
a dance/sports contest
She's won a lot of beauty contests.

Learner example:
Next week there will be a "Freestyle Battle", a rap contest, where [a] rapper can mess with others.

contestant /kənˈtes.tənt/

Word family:
Nouns: contest, contestant

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who competes in a contest

Dictionary example:
All the contestants are ready to begin.

Learner example:
The contestants have to sing in front of an audience and the jury.

context /ˈkɒn.tekst/

NOUN [C or U]

FACTS
[B2] all the facts, opinions, etc. relating to a particular thing or event

Dictionary examples:
This small battle is very important in the context of Scottish history.
It is important to see all the fighting and bloodshed in his plays in historical context.
Learner example:
It is interesting to see wild animals in their natural surroundings but for a number of reasons this is mostly impossible. In this context, I think a zoo is a good alternative.

LANGUAGE

[C1] other words that were said or written at the same time as the word or words you are talking about

Dictionary examples:
In this exercise, a word is blanked out and you have to guess what it is by looking at the context. Taken out of context, her remark sounded like an insult.

Learner example:
It's not like studying new words from [a] textbook as you hear or use the words [in] real situations and [an] appropriate context.

---

continent /ˈkɒn.tɪ.nənt/

Word family:

Nouns: continent

Adjectives: continental

NOUN [C]

[B1] one of the seven main areas of land on the Earth, such as Africa, Asia, Europe or South America

Dictionary examples:
the North American continent
Asia and Africa are the two biggest continents.

Learner example:
Brazil is a large country, almost as big as a continent.

---

continental /ˌkɒn.tɪˈnen.təl/

Word family:

Nouns: continent

Adjectives: continental

ADJECTIVE

[C2] relating to a continent

Dictionary example:
the continental US

Learner example:
To us from continental Europe it comes as a surprise if we see people on the streets with naked shoulders and naked legs at a temperature of 16 degrees celsius!
continual /kənˈtɪn.ju.əl/

Word family:
- Nouns: continuity
- Verbs: continue
- Adjectives: continuous, continual
- Adverbs: continuously, continually

ADJECTIVE

[C1] happening again and again over a long period of time or happening without stopping

Dictionary example:
I can't work with these continual interruptions.

Learner example:
But, if you are seeking [a] developed city, Buenos Aires is your answer, as it is considered to be a city in continual improvement.

continually /kənˈtɪn.ju.ə.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: continuity
- Verbs: continue
- Adjectives: continuous, continual
- Adverbs: continuously, continually

ADVERB

[C1] again and again or without stopping

Dictionary examples:
Dad continually complains about money.
House prices have been rising continually for the last five years.

Learner example:
First of all I would like to mention that new blood is required in the club, as the membership is continually falling.

continue /kənˈtɪn.juː/

Word family:
- Nouns: continuity
- Verbs: continue
- Adjectives: continuous, continual
- Adverbs: continuously, continually
VERB [I or T]

NEVER STOP
[B1] to keep happening, existing or doing something

Dictionary examples:
It continued to snow heavily for two days.
If the rain continues, we'll have to cancel tonight's plans.
The article continues on page ten.
I'll continue working until the end of June.
Shall I continue with this task?
Sally Palmer will be continuing as chairperson this autumn.

Learner example:
I thought that he wasn't calling me, so I continued walking to the car.

BEGIN AGAIN
[B1] to start doing or saying something again, after stopping for a short period

Dictionary examples:
We'll have to continue this discussion tomorrow.
It's getting late – why don't we continue tomorrow?
After stopping for a quick snack, they continued on their way.
He paused for a moment to listen and then continued eating.

Learner example:
We continued our journey early in the morning.

continuity /ˌkɒn.tɪˈnjuː.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: continuity
Verbs: continue
Adjectives: continuous, continual
Adverbs: continuously, continually

NOUN [u]

[C2] the state of continuing for a long period of time without being changed or stopped

Dictionary example:
We are trying to provide continuity of care for these children.

Learner example:
It is the young who demonstrate that there is a sense of continuity in a family, and that was what I was looking for.
Continuous /kənˈtɪn.ju.əs/

Word family:
- Nouns: continuity
- Verbs: continue
- Adjectives: continuous, continual
- Adverbs: continuously, continually

Grammar

[B2] being the form of a verb used to show that an action is continuing to happen

Dictionary example:
the present/past continuous

Learner example:
The lesson was about the present continuous form.

Without Stopping

[B2] happening or existing without stopping

Dictionary examples:
- continuous pain
- My computer makes a continuous low buzzing noise.
- A continuous white line in the middle of the road means no overtaking.

Learner example:
Since the development of nuclear weapons, the Earth's fate has been in continuous danger.

Continuously /kənˈtɪn.ju.əs.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: continuity
- Verbs: continue
- Adjectives: continuous, continual
- Adverbs: continuously, continually

Adverb

[B2] without stopping

Dictionary example:
You can't work continuously for six hours without a break!

Learner example:
They continuously claim that [the] destruction of the environment is totally all human beings' responsibility.
contraception /ˌkɒn.trəˈsep.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: contraception, contraceptive

NOUN [u]

[C2] methods that prevent a woman from becoming pregnant

Dictionary example:
What form of contraception do you use?

Learner example:
Should the Church have taken a more pro-active role in educating its followers on matters related to health care such as contraception, pregnancy and basic self care – perhaps we would not see such ap[...]lling numbers of [i]mpoverished large families living in [s]hanty towns.

contraceptive /ˌkɒn.trəˈsep.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: contraception, contraceptive

NOUN [c]

[C2] a drug or object that prevents a woman from becoming pregnant

Dictionary example:
They were not using contraceptives.

Learner example:
The lack of contraceptives in her village (due to the religious pressure) in addition to the poor availability of information result in Maria’s almost inevitable pregnancy.

contract

NOUN [c] /ˈkɒn.trækt/

[B1] a legal agreement between two people, two organizations or a person and an organization

Dictionary examples:
a contract of employment
a temporary/permanent contract
My solicitor is drawing up a contract.
Don’t sign/enter into any contract before examining its conditions carefully.

Learner example:
He went to the 1994 World Cup in the USA and Brazil’s victory helped him to sign a contract to play in Holland.
VERB /kənˈtrækt/

AGREEMENT
[C2] [I or T] to make a legal agreement with someone to do work or to have work done for you

Dictionary example:
He’s been contracted to perform in five shows.

Learner example:
We have contracted a famous lawyer who is ready to take the case to court if our demands are not met by the end of the year.

DISEASE
[C2] [T] FORMAL to get a serious disease

Dictionary example:
She contracted malaria while living abroad.

Learner example:
We should be proud of ourselves that we are in a position to help and cure people who have contracted very complex diseases.

contradict /ˌkɒn.trəˈdɪkt/

Word family:
Nouns: contradiction
Verbs: contradict
Adjectives: contradictory

VERB

SAY SOMEONE IS WRONG
[C1] [I or T] to say that what someone has just said is wrong

Dictionary example:
Nobody dared to contradict her.

Learner example:
Jane: Be patient with her, she is a lovely lady, although she doesn’t like people to contradict her.

DIFFERENT
[C2] [T] If two things that are said or written about something contradict each other, they are so different that they cannot both be true.

Dictionary example:
His account of the accident contradicts the official government report.
Learner example:
Although I strongly agree with you that people should enjoy their food I also think that you contradict yourself within your last statement.

contradiction /ˌkɒn.trəˈdɪk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: contradiction
Verbs: contradict
Adjectives: contradictory

NOUN
[C2] [c] a big difference between two things that are said or written about the same subject, or between what someone says and what they do

Dictionary example:
There is a clear contradiction between what she says and what she does.

Learner example:
More often than not, however, such events will also give rise to all sorts of contradictions.

contradictory /ˌkɒn.trəˈdɪk.tər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: contradiction
Verbs: contradict
Adjectives: contradictory

ADJECTIVE
[C2] If two statements about the same subject or two actions by the same person are contradictory, they are very different.

Dictionary example:
The witness statements were contradictory.

Learner example:
So parents need to be good role models and not behave in a contradictory way to what is being taught at school.

contrary /ˈkɒn.trər.i/

NOUN

on the contrary
[B2] used to show that the opposite of what has just been said is true
Dictionary example:
"You're a vegetarian, aren't you?" "On the contrary, I love meat."

Learner example:
As a result, it was not a perfect evening as the advertisement suggested – on the contrary, it turned out to be a miserable one.

to the contrary
[C1] saying or showing the opposite

Dictionary example:
She claimed she hadn't been involved, despite evidence to the contrary.

Learner example:
Despite claims to the contrary, young people [are] get[ting] more involved in sport[s] activities.

ADJECTIVE

counter to sth
[C1] opposite to what someone said or thought

Dictionary example:
Contrary to popular belief, bottled water is not always better than tap water.

Learner example:
Contrary to Mrs Jones' allegation, the exam results of our college are first-class and moreover, there is an extremely varied social programme.

OPPOSITE
[C2] opposite or very different

Dictionary example:
a contrary opinion/view

Learner example:
It took them a week to conclude that, apparently, and as long as nobody came out with a contrary theory to theirs, they were right.

contrast

NOUN [C or U] /ˈkɒn.trɑːst/

DIFFERENCE
[B2] an obvious difference between two or more things

Dictionary examples:
The contrast between their lifestyles couldn't be greater.
The busy north coast of the island is in sharp contrast to the peaceful south.
Learner example:
The contrast between the wild mountains and the crowded but charming beach on the ocean shore would have pleased you.

by/in contrast
[B2] used to show that someone or something is completely different

Dictionary examples:
Their economy has expanded enormously, while ours, by contrast, has declined. She's quite short, in contrast to her tall sister.

Learner example:
TV, by contrast, is a more passive activity.

VERB /kənˈtrɔːst/

DIFFERENCE
[C2] If one thing contrasts with another, it is very different from it.

Dictionary example:
The sharpness of the lemons contrasts with the sweetness of the honey.

Learner example:
Her pale expression contrasted with her long, dark hair that hung down beyond her shoulders.

COMPARE
[C2] To compare two people or things in order to show the differences between them

Dictionary example:
If you contrast his early novels with his later work, you can see how his writing has developed.

Learner example:
Ruth Jhabvala's "Heat and Dust" describes the growing attraction of two British women to India in two parallel stories skilfully interwoven to contrast two periods of time fifty years apart.

contribute /kənˈtrɪb.juːt/

Word family:
Nouns: contribution
Verbs: contribute

VERB [I or T]

GIVE
[B2] to give something, especially money, in order to provide or achieve something together with other people
Dictionary examples:
Are you going to contribute towards Jack’s leaving present?
Her family have contributed £50,000 to the fund.
Do come to the meeting if you feel you have something to contribute.

Learner example:
Furthermore, it is unfair to judge other performers as second-rate, as they did their best to contribute.

WRITE
[C1] to write articles for a newspaper, magazine, or book

Dictionary example:
She contributes to several magazines.

Learner example:
After a lot of thinking and discussing with our members and with people who would like to contribute to our magazine, I decided to suggest our well thought-out ideas.

contribution /ˌkɒn.trɪˈbjuː.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: contribution
Verbs: contribute

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] something that you do or give to help produce or achieve something, or to help make something successful

Dictionary examples:
This invention made a major contribution to road safety.
She didn’t make much of a contribution at today’s meeting, did she?
All contributions, no matter how small, will be much appreciated.
a generous contribution to charity

Learner example:
I am willing to make a significant contribution to the club.

control /kənˈtrəʊl/

VERB [r] (-ll-)

HAVE POWER OVER
[B1] to make someone or something do what you want
Dictionary examples:
If you can’t control your dog, put it on a lead!
This switch controls the temperature.

Learner example:
The movie was about a ring which [was] found in the river and used to control the world.

STAY CALM

[B1] to stop yourself expressing strong emotions or behaving in a silly way

Dictionary example:
You’re going to have to learn to control your temper.

Learner example:
I tried to control myself and started to speak politely and in a friendly way.

LIMIT

[B2] to limit the number, amount or increase of something

Dictionary examples:
Fire crews struggled to control the blaze.
No attempt was made to control the spread of the disease.

Learner example:
We have to control the [number of] cars, we can’t allow as many car[s] as we drive [now].

RULE

[B2] to rule or govern an area

Dictionary example:
The whole area is controlled by rebel forces.

Learner example:
BRAVE NEW WORLD The part of the book I have read and I remember best is when John, the savage, comes into the New World [State] controlled by several World Controllers from the savage reservation.

NOUN

POWER

[B2] [c or u] when you make someone or something do what you want, or the power to do this

Dictionary examples:
She’s got no control over that child.
He lost control of the vehicle.
The police are in control of the situation.

Learner example:
Ap[p]arently he lost control of the wheel, so the car crashed into a tree.
beyond your/out of control
[B2] If something or someone is beyond control or out of control, you cannot influence, limit or direct them.

Dictionary examples:
The car skidded and went out of control, crashing into an oncoming truck.
There's nothing we can do – the situation is beyond our control.

Learner example:
I had just driven through Piazza Duomo, when another car came round a corner much too fast, skidded, and went out of control.

under control
[B2] being dealt with successfully

Dictionary example:
Don't worry – everything's under control.

Learner example:
"Everything is under control," said the captain.

EQUIPMENT
[B2] [c] a switch or other device used to operate a machine such as a vehicle

Dictionary examples:
Where's the volume control on your stereo?
The main instruments are in the centre of the control panel.
The captain sat at the controls of the aircraft.

Learner example:
He touched a switch on the control panel and heard that characteristic hiss.

take control
[B2] to start to rule or govern an area

Dictionary example:
The dictator took control of the country in 1933.

Learner example:
In the first part of the story animals take control of a farm in England.

LAW
[B2] [c] a rule or law that limits something

Dictionary example:
He wants the government to impose strict controls on dog ownership.

Learner example:
[It is important] to find a way to regulate the information show[n] [o]n the internet, because right now there is no control over the information.
OFFICIAL PLACE
[B2] [c or u] a place where something official, usually a document, is checked

Dictionary example:
passport/immigration control

Learner example:
I kissed my parents and went to passport control.

CALM
[C1] [u] the ability to be calm

Dictionary example:
It took a lot of control to stop myself hitting him.

Learner example:
If you think you [are doing] something wrong during your test you shouldn't [start] panic[k]ing and losing your control.

controversial /ˌkɒn.trəˈvɜː.ʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: controversy
Adjectives: controversial

ADJECTIVE
[B2] causing disagreement or discussion

Dictionary examples:
a controversial issue/decision/speech/figure
The book was very controversial.

Learner example:
From my point of view it is a very controversial issue.

controversy /ˈkɒn.trəˈvɜː.sə/

Word family:
Nouns: controversy
Adjectives: controversial

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a lot of disagreement and argument about something

Dictionary example:
There is a lot of controversy over mobile phone towers.
Learner example:
Travelling abroad to work has been a matter of controversy.

convenience /ˈkənˈviː.nəns/

Word family:
Nouns: convenience
Adjectives: convenient, inconvenient
Adverbs: conveniently

NOUN

BEING EASY

[B2] [u] the quality of being convenient

Dictionary examples:
the convenience of credit cards
I like the convenience of living so close to the shops.

Learner example:
I think the first reason is its convenience. [...] Just by sitting in front of it, you can enjoy TV programs.

at your convenience FORMAL

[B2] at a time that is convenient to you

Dictionary example:
We can meet at your convenience.

Learner example:
I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

HELPFUL THING

[C1] [c] something that makes life easier

Dictionary example:
Fortunately, the house has every modern convenience.

Learner example:
Thus, we have many facilities and conveniences in comparison with the past.

convenient /ˈkənˈviː.nənt/

Word family:
Nouns: convenience
Adjectives: convenient, inconvenient
Adverbs: conveniently
ADJECTIVE

EASY/SUITABLE

[B1] easy to use or suit ing your plans well

Dictionary examples:
We could meet at either place – whichever is more convenient for you.
A bike’s a very convenient way of getting around.
I find it more convenient to be able to do my banking by phone.
What would be a convenient time for me to come round?

Learner example:
If it would be possible for you, I can attend another class at any time which is convenient for you.

NEAR

[B1] near or easy to get to

Dictionary example:
My new house is more convenient for the station.

Learner example:
It is near the train station [so] it is very convenient to get there.

conveniently /kanˈviː.nənt.i/

Word family:
Nouns: convenience
Adjectives: convenient, inconvenient
Adverbs: conveniently

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that is convenient

Dictionary example:
The house is conveniently situated near the station and the shops.

Learner example:
First of all, your group has been booked into the Palace Hotel, which is conveniently situated in the centre of Nymegen.

convention /kanˈvent.fən/

Word family:
Nouns: convention
Adjectives: conventional, unconventional
NOUN

MEETING

[C1] [c] a large formal meeting of people who do a particular job or have a similar interest, or a large meeting for a political party

Dictionary examples:
the national Democratic convention
Where are they holding their party convention?

Learner example:
Conference facilities: Being completely renovated, the historic building of Edessa's Cultural Association is the ideal place for a modern scientific convention.

CUSTOM

[C1] [c or u] a usual and accepted way of behaving or doing something

Dictionary example:
In many countries it is the convention to wear black at funerals.

Learner example:
Nowadays, people tend to avoid traditions and conventions.

conventional /ˈkɒnvəntʃən/ noun

Word family:
Nouns: convention
Adjectives: conventional, unconventional

ADJECTIVE

TRADITIONAL

[B2] traditional and ordinary

Dictionary examples:
conventional behaviour/attitudes/clothes conventional medicine/farming
I find his art rather dull and conventional.

Learner example:
The accommodation wasn't bad, however our rooms were quite small and conventional.

conventional wisdom

[C1] what most people believe

Dictionary example:
These ideas about childcare go against conventional wisdom on the subject.
Learner example:
Thus, against conventional wisdom, I think that while a lot of adult problems are caused by money or the lack of it, it is really the ability to deal with money and to see money as a means rather than an end.

conversation /ˌkɒn.vaˈseɪ.ʃən/

noun [C or U]

hold a conversation

[C1] to have a conversation

Dictionary example:
I can just about hold a conversation in Italian.

Learner example:
I know the grammar and many different expressions, and I can hold a conversation with other people.

conversion /kənˈvɜː.zən/

word family:

nouns: conversion

verbs: convert

noun [C or U]

[C2] when the appearance, form, or purpose of something is changed

Dictionary examples:
the country's conversion to democracy
Solar power is the conversion of the sun's energy into heat and electricity.

Learner example:
This 'magic' conversion of energy can be performed in several ways, which result in different degrees of 'dignity' or 'cleanliness' for the resulting electrons, freely running through our cables.

convert /kənˈvɜːt/

word family:

nouns: conversion

verbs: convert
VERB [I or T]

CHANGE

[B2] to change the appearance, form, or purpose of something

Dictionary examples:
Could we convert the small bedroom into a second bathroom?
What's the formula for converting pounds into kilos?

Learner example:
Even some medieval castles have been converted into museums.

RELIGION

[C2] I to change to a new religion, belief, etc., or to make someone do this

Dictionary example:
When did he convert to Islam?

Learner example:
Frederica converted to Catholicism and devoted her life to mentally ill children.

convey /kənˈver/

VERB [T]

[C1] to communicate information, feelings, or images to someone

Dictionary example:
She always conveys a sense of enthusiasm for her work.

Learner example:
Being an Ambassador for Youth bears lot of responsibility, not only because the person must be an outstanding character and widely well-known, but also because they must behave accordingly and be able to convey a positive message.

convict /kənˈvɪkt/

Word family:
Nouns: conviction
Verbs: convict

VERB [T]

[C2] to decide officially in a court of law that someone is guilty of a particular crime

Dictionary example:
He was convicted of murder.

Learner example:
Consequently he was convicted of robbery and murder and was sentenced to 20 years in prison.
conviction  /kənˈvɪk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: conviction
Verbs: convict

NOUN [C or U]

CRIME

[C2] when someone is officially found to be guilty of a particular crime

Dictionary examples:
He already had two convictions for burglary.
The conviction of all three protesters caused anger in the local community.

Learner example:
Besides, she had no previous convictions so nobody believed that such a pretty, intelligent and polite woman could do any harm to anybody.

BELIEF

[C2] a strong opinion or belief

Dictionary examples:
religious/moral convictions
a deep/strong conviction

Learner example:
In spite of the fact that I respect their convictions, I totally disagree with this viewpoint.

---

convince  /kənˈvɪnts/

Word family:
Verbs: convince
Adjectives: convinced, convincing

VERB [T]

[B1] to persuade someone or make them certain

Dictionary examples:
She tried to convince me that I needed a new car.
I hope this will convince you to change your mind.
He managed to convince the jury of his innocence.

Learner example:
She was the one who convinced me to go, and I am glad she did.
convincing /kənˈvɪns.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: convince
Adjectives: convinced, convincing

ADJECTIVE
[C1] able to make you believe that something is true or right

Dictionary examples:
a convincing argument/explanation
I didn't find the ending of the film very convincing.

Learner example:
The school didn't give us a real and convincing explanation for this.

cookie /ˈkʊk.i/

Noun [C]
[C2] a piece of information stored on your computer which contains information about all the Internet documents you have looked at

Dictionary example:
You need to enable cookies to use this website.
cool /ˈkuːl/

Word family:
- Nouns: cool, coolness
- Verbs: cool
- Adjectives: cool

ADJECTIVE

SLIGHTLY COLD
- [B1] slightly cold, but not too cold

Dictionary examples:
- cool water
- a nice cool breeze

Learner example:
- Sometimes a cool wind blows [in Bodrum].

CALM
- [C1] calm and not emotional

Dictionary example:
- She seemed cool and confident.

Learner example:
- I remember saying to myself that "this little boy will survive" and after that I felt totally cool and calm and did what had to be done.

UNFRIENDLY
- [C2] unfriendly

Dictionary example:
- She was very cool towards us.

Learner example:
- I encouraged him to tell me what was going on and I could hardly believe [it] when he explained the reason why he had been treating me in a cool manner.

keep a cool head
- [C2] to remain calm in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
- To be successful in business, you need to keep a cool head in negotiations.

Learner example:
- Kevin managed to keep a cool head and took over the navigation.

VERB [I or T]
- [B2] to become less hot, or to make something become less hot
Dictionary example:
Allow the bread to cool before slicing it.

Learner example:
In the summer many people were delighted by fountains which cooled the air.

NOUN

keep your cool
[C1] to remain calm

Dictionary example:
You did well to keep your cool in all that panic.

Learner example:
Whatever the problem is, keep your cool, don't panic.

lose your cool
[C2] to suddenly become very angry

Dictionary example:
She lost her cool and started shouting.

coolness /ˈkuːl.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: cool, coolness
Verbs: cool
Adjectives: cool

NOUN [u]

COLD
[C1] the quality of being cold

Dictionary example:
the coolness of the breeze

Learner example:
The coolness of the coach made me ill.

CALM
[C2] the quality of being calm

Dictionary example:
He was admired for his coolness under pressure.
Learner example:
Finally, a successful person should have [their] own style and opinion to distinguish from other people, enough patience to wait for important opportunities, a certain coolness to "survive" critical situations, and last but not least, a good deal of luck, which often decides whether you are successful or not.

UNFRIENDLY
[C2] the quality of being unfriendly

Dictionary example:
He was a little insulted by her coolness towards him.

Learner example:
James eyed her with a mixture of contempt and admiration for her coolness.

cooperate (also co-operate) /kəʊˈɒp.ər.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: cooperation
Verbs: cooperate
Adjectives: cooperative

VERB [I]

WORK TOGETHER
[B2] to work together with someone in order to achieve the same aim

Dictionary examples:
The Spanish authorities cooperated with the British police in finding the terrorists. Several companies are cooperating in the relief effort.

Learner example:
Lime has become a sort of monster, with no consideration for life any more, and Martins decides to cooperate with the police to catch and kill him.

HELP
[B2] to help someone or do what they ask

Dictionary example:
I find it very hard to dress my two-year-old when she refuses to cooperate.

Learner example:
Moreover, I am in favour of rules at school because it is very important for children to learn how to cooperate with others.
cooperation (also co-operation) /kəʊˌpər.əˈreɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: cooperation
Verbs: cooperate
Adjectives: cooperative

NOUN [U]
[B2] when you work together with someone or do what they ask you

Dictionary examples:
This documentary was made with the cooperation of Rails UK.
There's very little cooperation between the two countries.
We thank you in advance for your cooperation.
The clubs work in close cooperation with the Football Association.

Learner example:
Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this respect.

coop er ative /kəʊˈpər.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: cooperation
Verbs: cooperate
Adjectives: cooperative

ADJECTIVE
[B2] willing to help or do what people ask

Dictionary example:
I found them very cooperative.

Learner example:
You can rely on me – I love children and I am energetic and cooperative.

cope /kəʊp/

VERB [i]
[B2] to deal successfully with a difficult situation

Dictionary examples:
How does she cope with three small children and a job?
It was too stressful and eventually he just couldn’t cope.
Tyres generally don’t cope well on wet roads.

Learner example:
Moreover she can't cope with life.
copper  /ˈkɒp.ər/

NOUN [u]

[B2] a reddish-brown metal used especially for making wire and coins, or the reddish brown colour of this metal

Dictionary examples:
copper wire/pipes
Rosie’s hair shone like copper in the sunlight.

Learner example:
Its domes are made of pure copper, inside there’s a big bell called “Zygmunt”.

copy  /ˈkɒp.i/

VERB

CHEAT

[B2] [I or T] to cheat by looking at and using someone else’s work

Dictionary example:
He was always copying from/off other children, but never got caught.

Learner example:
I’m certain she thought we had copied in the test.

BEHAVE

[B2] [T] to behave like someone else

Dictionary example:
He tends to copy his brother in the way he dresses.

Learner example:
He has to eat salads now, in [the] hope [that] the kids’ll copy his attitudes and eat fresh and healthy food instead of sweets and unhealthy st[u]ff.

NOUN [C]

MADE THE SAME

[B1] something that has been made to be exactly like something else

Dictionary examples:
This painting is only a copy – the original hangs in the Louvre.
I always keep a copy of any official or important letters that I send off.
Could you make a copy of this for tomorrow’s meeting, please?
Learner example:
For covering the work I missed, I will ask May on Thursday if I can borrow her exercise book and make a copy.

SINGLE ONE
[B2] a single book, newspaper, etc. of which many have been produced

Dictionary example:
Over a million copies of the book have been sold.

Learner example:
The single with her new song sold more than 15 million copies, now she was a powerful star.

coral /ˈkɒrəl/

NOUN [u]
[C2] a hard, usually pink or white substance produced by a type of very small sea animal

Dictionary example:
a coral reef

Learner example:
The main [attraction] of the place is scuba diving, due to the excellent visibility of the water and the impressive coral reefs which surround the island.

core /kɔːr/

NOUN

IMPORTANT PART
[C2] [no plural] the most important part of a system or principle

Dictionary examples:
core values
Better health care was at the core of the senator's campaign.

Learner example:
The aim of this paper is to respond to a call for proposals [from] a TV company which is planning to launch a programme called “Making the World a Better Place” and to select the group of people which represents the core idea of this programme.

FRUIT
[C2] [c] the hard, central part of certain fruits, such as apples, which contains the seeds
Dictionary example:
Peel the apples and remove the cores.

Learner example:
So there it was, hidden in nature, occasionally trampled by a stray dog with no other companion than old cans and apple cores.

corn  /kɔːn/

NOUN [u]
[B1] a crop of grain, or the seed from this crop used to make flour or feed animals

Dictionary example:
fields of corn

Learner example:
[My sister] is a farmer and we have to plant yams, corn, beans and other crops.

corner  /ˈkɔː.nər/

NOUN [c]

around/round the corner
[C2] going to happen soon

Dictionary example:
Christmas is round the corner and I still haven't bought any presents.

Learner example:
With the FIFA World Cup just around the corner, there certainly is a lot of excitement buzzing in the air.

PLACE
[C2] a part of a larger area, often somewhere quiet or far away

Dictionary example:
He lives in a beautiful corner of northern California.

Learner example:
Special buses and trams were allocated to give people a lift to the shopping centre practically from any corner of the city.

a tight corner
[C2] a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
She had been in a tight corner before and had always managed to cope.
Learner example:
It is a great pressure, requiring a lot of effort and sense of humour but does work in most cases, helping to find the best way out of a tight corner.

corporate /ˈkɔː.pəˌreɪ.t/
Word family:
Nouns: corporation
Adjectives: corporate

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] relating to a large company or group

Dictionary example:
corporate finance

Learner example:
This proposal highlights advisable amendments to the ABC Company's management structure, namely the marketing department, in view of unforeseen corporate losses.

corporation /ˌkɔː.pəˈreɪʃən/
Word family:
Nouns: corporation
Adjectives: corporate

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
[B2] a large company or group of companies that is controlled together as a single organization

Dictionary examples:
a multinational corporation
the British Broadcasting Corporation
She didn’t want to work for a big corporation where everything was so impersonal.

Learner example:
Since I was a child, I’ve always dreamed about being a car designer in a large and powerful corporation like Ferrari, Porsche, Mercedes-Benz, etc.

corpse /kɔː.ps/
NOUN [C]
[C2] a dead person’s body
Dictionary example:
There were several corpses in the building.

Learner example:
Evian and I just stood there and gazed at the corpse for a few hours.

correct  /kəˈrekt/

Word family:
Nouns: correction
Adjectives: correct, incorrect
Adverbs: correctly

ADJECTIVE

SUITABLE
[B1] suitable for a particular situation

Dictionary example:
correct behaviour

Learner example:
I think that is the correct option because I really like this [kind of] film!

VERB

SHOW MISTAKE
[B2] to show someone the mistakes in something they have said or written

Dictionary example:
Our teacher normally corrects our pronunciation.

Learner example:
Until now, I have never had someone really teaching me and correcting my mistakes.

MAKE RIGHT
[B2] to make a mistake or problem right or better

Dictionary example:
The new software finds and corrects any errors on the hard disk.

Learner example:
For example if I have to write a formal letter or something like this, I use my 'PC' because the paper looks nicer and [the] computer corrects my mistakes.
correction /ˈkəˌrek.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: correction
Adjectives: correct, incorrect
Adverbs: correctly

NOUN [C or U]
B1 a change made to something in order to correct or improve it, or when you make such a change

Dictionary examples:
I made some corrections before handing in my essay.
She was disappointed to see her essay returned with a mass of corrections in red ink.

Learner example:
My new teacher is friendlier and he is more careful [with his] correction [of] the work and exams we do.

correctly /ˈkəˈrekt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: correction
Adjectives: correct, incorrect
Adverbs: correctly

ADVERB
B1 in a correct way

Dictionary example:
Have I pronounced your name correctly?

Learner example:
I don’t speak English correctly.

correspond /ˌkɔr.iˈspɒnd/

Word family:
Verbs: correspond Adjectives: corresponding

VERB [I]

BE SIMILAR
B2 to be the same or very similar
Dictionary examples:
The money I've saved corresponds roughly to the amount I need for my course.
The American FBI corresponds to the British MI5.
His story of what happened that night didn't correspond with the witness's version.

Learner example:
Therefore, I would like to ask you for my entrance fee, as this evening did not correspond to your advertisement.

WRITE
[B2] to communicate with someone by writing letters

Dictionary example:
They had corresponded ever since the war.

Learner example:
Dear Tom It would be wonderful to see you because we've been corresponding for a long time but I've never had [the] pleasure [of meeting] you.

corresponding  /ˌkɒr.ɪˈspɒn.dɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: correspond
Adjectives: corresponding

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] similar or related

Dictionary example:
Draw a line between the words with corresponding meanings.

Learner example:
In terms of the consequences for society as a whole, an increase in life expectancy might pose problems if the percentage of old people increases without being accompanied by a corresponding increase in the birth rate.

corridor  /ˈkɒr.i.dər/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a long passage in a building or train

Dictionary example:
Her office is at the end of the corridor.

Learner example:
The invigilator left the room and walked down the corridor looking for some help.
corrupt /kəˈrʌpt/

Word family:
- Nouns: corruption
- Verbs: corrupt
- Adjectives: corrupt

ADJECTIVE
[C1] dishonest or illegal

Dictionary example:
a corrupt government

Learner example:
I am not saying he is corrupt – I don't believe that – but he com[m]ands many corrupt people.

VERB [T]
[C1] to make someone or something become dishonest or immoral

Dictionary example:
He became corrupted by power and money.

Learner example:
Maybe wealth can corrupt people's mind[s] and make people weak.

corruption /kəˈrʌp.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: corruption
- Verbs: corrupt
- Adjectives: corrupt

NOUN [U]

BAD BEHAVIOUR
[C1] dishonest or immoral behaviour, usually by people in positions of power

Dictionary example:
He was arrested for corruption and bribery.

Learner example:
I think that both have lost respect because of corruption.

MAKE DISHONEST
[C1] when you cause someone or something to become dishonest or immoral

Dictionary example:
the corruption of innocent young children
Learner example:
The contrast between those two groups was getting bigger and bigger and it ended up [in] a destructive war, destructive doesn’t refer only to deaths and city damage but also to the corruption of morals.

cosmopolitan /ˌkɒz.məˈpɒl.ɪ.tən/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] consisting of people and things from many different countries

Dictionary example:
London is a very cosmopolitan city.

Learner example:
I chose London because it’s a cosmopolitan city, and very near to the other European countries.

cost /kɒst/

NOUN

THING GIVEN
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] something that you give or lose, in order to get or achieve something else

Dictionary examples:
He rescued four people at the cost of his own life.
She finally got the job she wanted, but at great personal cost.
It’s not worth getting into an argument with Tim, as I learned to my cost.

Learner example:
We wanted to travel by car and, to my cost, my friend began to drive the car.

at all costs
[B2] If something must be done at all costs, it is very important that it is done.

Dictionary example:
We have to succeed at all costs.

Learner example:
One thing was sure: he was convinced [he had] to save Anne’s life at all costs.

VERB [T] (cost, cost)

LOSE
[B2] to cause someone to lose or destroy something valuable
Dictionary examples:
Drinking and driving costs lives.
His affairs cost him his marriage.

Learner example:
However, many people are talking about car accidents which cost human lives.

costume /ˈkɒs.tjuːm/

NOUN [C or U]

PARTY/FILM/PLAY
[B2] a set of clothes worn in order to look like someone else, especially for a party or a film or play

Dictionary examples:
actors in costume
a clown costume
The children were dressed in Halloween costumes.

Learner example:
Everything becomes alive with music and dancing, and everybody wears amazing costumes.

TYPICAL OF COUNTRY
[B2] the set of clothes typical of a particular country or period of history

Dictionary example:
Japanese national costume

Learner example:
You also can take some terrific [ph]otographs of national costumes, hear music and take part in dances.

cosy /ˈkəʊ zi/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] comfortable and warm

Dictionary examples:
This room is nice and cosy in the winter.
He showed me into a cosy little room.

Learner example:
I have a very tiny but cosy bedroom.
cottage /ˈkɒt.idʒ/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a small house, usually in the countryside

Dictionary example:
They live in a country cottage, with roses round the door.

Learner example:
I live in a typical Norwegian cottage with a huge fireplace, and everything is natural and simple.

cotton /ˈkɒt.ən/

NOUN [u]
[B1] cloth or thread made from the fibres of the cotton plant

Dictionary examples:
a shirt made of pure cotton a simple cotton dress a reel of cotton

Learner example:
Normally, I would prefer my blouses to be made of cotton or silk as these materials make me [feel] comfortable.

cough /kɒf/

VERB [v]
[B1] to force air out of your lungs through your throat with a short loud sound

Dictionary examples:
The smoke made me cough.
I coughed all night long.

Learner example:
I kept coughing, my nose kept running!

NOUN [c]
[B1] when you cough or an illness that makes you cough

Dictionary examples:
a dry cough
Emily has a nasty cough.
Learner example:
Because of swimming so much I got a terrible cough and so I had to be sent back to school so that I could be treated properly.

could /kʊd/

MODAL VERB

SUGGESTION

[B1] used for making a suggestion

Dictionary examples:
We could go for a drink after work tomorrow, if you like.
You could always call Susie and see if she might babysit.

Learner example:
I could take you to a nice hotel.

POSSIBLY HAPPEN

[B1] used to talk about what will possibly happen or is possibly true

Dictionary examples:
She could arrive any time now.
A lot of crime could be prevented.
This new drug could be an important step in the fight against cancer.

Learner example:
This could be a big advantage but on the other hand, books contain more details and sometimes some parts of the book are cut out in the film.

ASK PERMISSION

[B1] used as a more polite form of 'can' when asking for permission

Dictionary examples:
Could I speak to Mr Davis, please?
Excuse me, could I just say something here?

Learner example:
Could I bring you the missing work to the next class?

could have

[B2] used to talk about things that possibly happened in the past or might possibly have happened by some time in the future

Dictionary examples:
She could have been killed.
Let’s go to the coast anyway – the rain could have stopped by the time we get there.
Learner example:
Then they thought about the situation and tried to [develop] a theor[y] about what could have happened with the dead body and who could be the murderer.

couldn't have [B2] used to express certainty that something in the past was impossible or didn't happen

Dictionary examples:
He couldn't have damaged your bike – he was with me all evening.
That book couldn't have been on sale last week – it's only come out today!

Learner example:
The blood froze in our veins, and we were all sure that it couldn't have been anything but a ghost!

I/he, etc. couldn't care less INFORMAL
[C1] used to emphasize that someone is not interested in or worried about something or someone

Dictionary example:
I couldn't care less what people think.

Learner example:
There was hunger, there was poverty and the king couldn't care less about his people[s] well-being.

council /ˈkaʊnt.səl/  NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] [B2] the group of people elected to govern a particular area, town or city, and organize services for it

Dictionary examples:
Edinburgh City Council
The local council has/have decided not to allocate funds for the project.
The town/city council is/are responsible for keeping the streets clean.

Learner example:
Rubbish collecting needs to be arranged more regularly by the city council.

counselling /ˈkaʊn.səl.ɪŋ/  Word family:
Nouns: counselling, counsellor
NOUN [u]
[C2] the job or process of listening to someone and giving them advice about their problems

Dictionary example:
a counselling service

Learner example:
As well as providing [a] spec[a]list counselling service by experienced social work[er]s, each member of the society needs to create [a] warm welcoming atmosphere for those who once were [rejected by] the society.

counsellor /ˈkoʊn.sələr/

Word family:
Nouns: counselling, counsellor

NOUN [c]
[C2] someone whose job is to listen to people and give them advice about their problems

Dictionary example:
I saw a counsellor to help me with my anxiety.

Learner example:
It is a burden to society, which has to find a way to create jobs, to employ counsellors to help problem unemployed and to watch out for the safety of the society.

count /ˈkaʊnt/

Word family:
Verbs: count
Adjectives: countless

VERB

SEE HOW MANY
[B1] [r] to see how many people or things there are

Dictionary examples:
The teachers counted the students as they got on to the coach.
Count your money carefully to make sure it's all there.
We're still waiting for the votes to be counted (up).

Learner example:
I counted them and there were 5 suitcases.
SAY NUMBERS
[B1] [i] to say numbers in their correct order

Dictionary example:
Can you count to ten in French?

Learner example:
What he told me is "If you have any wishes, count 1 to 100 every Sunday for one month".

BE IMPORTANT
[B2] [i] to be important

Dictionary examples:
I've always believed that happiness counts more than money.
My opinion doesn't count for anything around here.

Learner example:
It wasn't romantic, there were no flowers but Carla knew [that] what counts is in the heart.

CONSIDER
[C2] [i] to think of someone or something in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
She counted Tim as her closest friend.
You should count yourself lucky you weren't hurt.

Learner example:
In a way, I think I should count myself very lucky.

BE ACCEPTED
[C2] [i] to be accepted or allowed as part of something

Dictionary example:
I've been to sixteen different countries, but I only spent half an hour in Luxembourg, so that doesn't really count.

INCLUDE
[C2] [i] to include something or someone in a calculation

Dictionary example:
There are 1500 people at my school, counting teachers.

Learner example:
It was not until I married Paul that I began to receive a bunch of telephone calls from my closest relatives, not counting my mother because she had already become a part of our house.

NOUN lose count
[C2] to forget how many of something there is
Dictionary example:
I've lost count of the number of times she's arrived late.

Learner example:
I lost count of how often I heard this sentence when I used to work for a drug company.

NUMBER
[C2] [c] when you count something, or the total number you get after counting

Dictionary example:
At the last count there were 410 club members.

Learner example:
[At the] last count they still had 5 thousand dollars and one night to spend it.

counter /ˈkaʊntər/

NOUN [c]

SURFACE
[B2] a long flat narrow surface or table in a shop, bank, restaurant, etc. at which people are served

Dictionary example:
There was nobody at/behind the counter when I went into the bank, and I had to wait to be served.

Learner example:
When I was at the counter, I put down my bags and paid for the serviettes.

DISC
[C2] a small disc used in some games that are played on a board

Dictionary example:
Move the counter forwards two squares.

ADVERB

be/run counter to sth
[C2] to have the opposite effect to something else

Dictionary example:
The new road plans run counter to the government's aim of reducing pollution.

Learner example:
The saying goes "money can't buy happiness". However, he seems to run counter to these tenets since he leads quite a pleasant life.
counterpart /ˈkaʊntə.pɑːt/

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone or something that has the same job or position as someone or something in a different place or organization

Dictionary example:
I had a meeting with my counterpart in our other branch.

Learner example:
I feel much more confident at work in terms of both my English and the ability to negotiate with my counterparts.

countless /ˈkaʊnt.ləs/

Word family:
Verbs: count
Adjectives: countless

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] very many

Dictionary example:
The song has been played countless times on the radio.

Learner example:
We had to spend countless hours in the cold coach waiting for a bus that could take us to the hotel in Edinburgh.

count noun /ˈkaʊnt.naʊn/ (also countable noun)

NOUN [C]
[B1] a noun that can be used in the singular and the plural

Dictionary example:
Count nouns are shown here with [C]. country /ˈkʌn.tri/

NOUN
the country
[C2] the people who live in a country
Dictionary example:
The country was shocked by the President’s decision.

Learner example:
The country was partying for two weeks.

county  /ˈkaʊn.ti/

NOUN [c]

[B2] the largest political division of a state or country

Dictionary examples:
County Antrim
Westchester County
A county usually consists of several cities and towns and the rural areas surrounding them.
Rutland used to be the smallest county in England, but in 1974 it became part of Leicestershire.
Texas is divided into 254 counties.

Learner example:
Since my family originates from the county of Dalarna, where "Dal" paintings are both very popular and common, I have started to paint a little on my own.

coup  /kuː/

NOUN [c]

[C2] I when a group of people suddenly takes control of a country using force

Dictionary example:
a military coup

Learner example:
The government of the country was formed three years ago after a military coup and is constituted primarily by the nephews of General Tomba, who headed the rebellious troops during the coup.

couple  /ˈkʌp.əl/

NOUN

SOME

[B1] [no plural] two or a few
Dictionary examples:
He'll be better in a couple of days.
I'm going away with a couple of friends.
We'll have to wait another couple of hours for the paint to dry.
She'll be retiring in a couple more years.
The weather's been terrible for the last couple of days.
Many economists expect unemployment to fall over the next couple of months.
I've been so busy over the past couple of weeks.

Learner example:
I went there a couple of times and I would love to go once more.

TWO PEOPLE
[B1] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] two people who are married or in a romantic or sexual relationship, or two people who are together for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
a married couple
A young couple walked into the bar.
The couple skated well throughout the competition.

Learner example:
The couple can say what they want to eat on their [wedding] day.

courage /ˈkær.i.dʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: courage
Adjectives: courageous

NOUN [U]

BRAVE
[B2] the ability to deal with a dangerous or difficult situation without being frightened

Dictionary examples:
I wanted to talk to him, but I didn't have the courage.
People should have the courage to stand up for their beliefs.

Learner example:
He [had] wanted to do it for a long time but never had the courage.

pluck up (the) courage (to do sth)
[C2] to decide to do something that you were too frightened to do before

Dictionary example:
Gerhard finally plucked up the courage to ask Nicole for a date.
Learner example:
Although she had tried a lot she wasn't able to make any changes and it was that day she plucked up courage and left home.

courageous  /kəˈreɪ.dʒəs/

Word family:
Nouns: courage
Adjectives: courageous

ADJECTIVE
(C1) brave

Dictionary example:
a courageous decision

Learner example:
The people were very courageous and showed an extraordinary sense of calm.

courgette  /kɔːˈʒet/

NOUN [C or U]
(B1) a long green vegetable that is white inside

Dictionary example:
We had fried courgettes and onions.

Learner example:
I really like hot and spicy chicken with courgette.

course  /kɔː:s/

NOUN

of course
(B1) used to show that what you are saying is obvious or already known

Dictionary example:
Of course, the Olympics are not just about money.

Learner example:
Of course, I met many new people.

SPORTS AREA
(B1) [c] an area of land or water used for a sports event
Dictionary example:
a golf course

Learner example:
It is a very nice club, it has 20 tennis courts, 2 soccer fields and an 18-hole golf course.

in due course
[B2] at a suitable time in the future

Dictionary example:
The results will be sent to you in due course.

Learner example:
I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

course of action
[C1] something that you can do in a particular situation

Dictionary example:
I think the best course of action would be to write to him.

Learner example:
However, I believe that the best course of action in this case is to give our student a refund.

during/in/over the course of sth
[C1] during a particular time or activity

Dictionary example:
In the course of the interview she mentioned her previous experience.

Learner example:
During the course of my studies and internship, I worked not only with people suffering from certain disorders, but also with people who faced problems in interpersonal relationships.

a matter of course
[C1] If something happens as a matter of course, it always happens as part of the normal process or system.

Dictionary example:
Babies were tested for the disease as a matter of course.

Learner example:
The transform[ation] has succeeded so far and caused enormous changes in ordinary life as a matter of course, including eating habits.

DEVELOPMENT
[C2] [NO PLURAL] the way something develops, usually over a long time

Dictionary example:
Nuclear weapons have changed the course of modern history.
Learner example:
Civilizations have appeared changing the course of history and they have also disappeared, but they have all left something as a heritage or a legacy.

court /kɔːt/

NOUN

SPORT
[B1] [c] an area drawn out on the ground which is used for playing sports such as tennis and basketball

Dictionary examples:
a tennis/basketball/squash court
They were penalized for having too many players on the court.

Learner example:
I stayed in a hotel with a swimming pool, tennis court and private beach.

LAW
[B2] [c or u] the place where a judge decides whether someone is guilty of a crime

Dictionary examples:
He's due to appear in court again on Monday.
Please describe to the court exactly what you saw.
the European Court of Human Rights
The lack of evidence means that the case is unlikely to go to court.

Learner example:
Two days after, I went to the law court as a witness.

courteous /ˈkɜː.ti.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: courtesy
Adjectives: courteous

ADJECTIVE
[C2] polite and showing respect

Dictionary example:
We received a very courteous reply.

Learner example:
The library staff deserve congratulations: they are all very courteous and helpful.
courtesy /ˈkɜː.tə.si/

Word family:
Nouns: courtesy
Adjectives: courteous

NOUN [u]
[B2] polite behaviour

Dictionary examples:
Hotel staff must at all times treat guests with courtesy.
He could at least have had the courtesy to say sorry.

Learner example:
On balance, I think McDonalds should improve the courtesy of members of staff, as well as keeping up the speedy service.

cover /ˈkʌv.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: cover, coverage
Verbs: cover, uncover

VERB [t]

LAYER
[B1] to form a layer on the surface of something

Dictionary examples:
Snow covered the hillsides.
Cover the pasta with a layer of sauce.
The bandages were covered with/in blood.

Learner example:
The hills are covered by the snow.

DEAL WITH
[B1] to deal with or include a subject or piece of information

Dictionary examples:
This leaflet covers what we've just discussed in more detail.
The book covers European history from 1789–1914.

Learner example:
Dear Teacher, I'm sorry but I won't be able to go to the English class tomorrow. But I can go another day to cover the work I've missed.

DISTANCE
[B2] to travel a particular distance
Dictionary example:
We covered 700 km in four days.

Learner example:
Secondly, travelling by car is a very effective way of saving time – for instance you cannot cover long distances with your bicycle.

AREA
[B2] to be a particular size or area

Dictionary example:
The town covers an area of 15 square kilometres.

Learner example:
The other suggestion is the flower market, which is very famous for tourists because it covers 2 acres and there are plenty of flowers to buy.

REPORT
[C1] to report the news about a particular important event

Dictionary example:
She's covering the American election for BBC television.

Learner example:
Should you have your company's channel cover the event, your profits from the advertisements will be innumerable.

FINANCIAL PROTECTION
[C1] to provide financial protection if something bad happens

Dictionary example:
travel insurance that covers accident and injury

MONEY
[C1] to be enough money to pay for something

Dictionary example:
£100 should cover the cost of the repairs.

Learner example:
This means that only 15% was allocated to cover the cost of entertainment and administration costs.

NOUN

BOOK
[B1] [c] the outer part of a book, magazine, etc., that protects the pages

Dictionary example:
Her picture is on the cover of several magazines.
Learner example:
I received it for Christmas [in] 1991, and I immediately decided to write [my name and my address on] the cover.

PROTECTION
[B1] [c] something you put over something else, usually to protect it

Dictionary examples:
I keep my computer printer under a protective plastic cover.
an ironing board cover

FINANCIAL
[C1] [u] financial protection so that you get money if something bad happens

Dictionary example:
The policy provides £50,000 accidental damage cover.

Learner example:
A mere 2% went on insurance cover.

FROM WEATHER/ATTACK
[C1] [u] protection from bad weather or an attack

Dictionary example:
They took cover under some trees until the rain stopped.

Learner example:
The bodyguards immediately reacted, shooting at the window through which Paul had fired, while the judge took cover under a near car.

coverage /ˈkʌv.ər.i.dʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: cover, coverage
Verbs: cover, uncover

NOUN [U]

REPORT
[C1] the way a newspaper, television programme, etc. reports an event or subject

Dictionary example:
There is live coverage of the game on cable TV.

Learner example:
Jos is very well known among people who love Formula 2 autoracing and I know there are a lot of them all over the world because of the intense media coverage.
coward  /ˈkaʊ.əd/  DISAPPROVING

Word family:
Nouns: coward
Adjectives: cowardly

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who is not brave and tries to avoid dangerous or difficult situations

Dictionary example:
You didn’t talk to her? You coward!

Learner example:
Instead of behaving like a wise grown-up, I behaved like a coward.

cowardly  /ˈkaʊ.əd.li/

Word family:
Nouns: coward
Adjectives: cowardly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] behaving in a way that shows you are not brave

Dictionary example:
This was a particularly brutal and cowardly attack.

Learner example:
Bernard was usually weak, depressed, cowardly and pessimistic, but, on the other hand, when he became popular and famous by taking advantage of John, he was so boastful.

crab  /kræb/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a sea creature with ten legs and a round, flat body covered by a shell, or the meat from this animal

Dictionary example:
crab salad

Learner example:
Children can look at live fis[h], crabs and lobsters.
crack  /kræk/

VERB [I or T]

BREAK
[B2] to break something so that very thin lines appear on its surface but it does not separate, or to become broken in this way

Dictionary examples:
A stone hit the window and cracked the glass.
I cracked my tooth when I fell.
The walls cracked and the roof collapsed in the earthquake.

Learner example:
The bottom tank cracked and the sea-water poured into the tank and further into the engine-room.

crack a joke
[C1] to tell a joke

Dictionary example:
He seemed very relaxed, laughing and cracking jokes.

Learner example:
Many members will get the chance to show their talent and we will get to crack some jokes too!

NOUN

LINE
[C2] [c] a line on the surface of something that is damaged

Dictionary example:
Several cups had cracks in them.

Learner example:
Behind the glass doors you could see a Chinese tea-set totally unsuitable for tea drinking as all the cups had cracks but I wasn’t allowed to throw [it] away because it had been presented by some relative and that was enough to turn it into an everlasting treasure.

the crack of dawn
[C2] very early in the morning

Dictionary example:
He gets up at the crack of dawn.

Learner example:
From the crack of dawn until bed time citizens have to breathe all kinds of gas coming out of cars, bikes or [factor]ies.
crackdown /ˈkræk.daʊn/

NOUN [c]

[C2] when bad or illegal behaviour is dealt with in a very severe way, in order to stop it happening

Dictionary example:
The police are having a crackdown on speeding.

craft /kraːft/

NOUN [c or u]

[B2] an activity in which you make something using a lot of skill, especially with your hands

Dictionary examples:
the craft of furniture–making/boat–building rural/ancient/traditional crafts

Learner example:
You will find some interesting Swedish craft work [there] and get the best shots of the local people.

crash /kræʃ/

VERB

VEHICLE

[B1] [i or T] to have an accident in a vehicle

Dictionary examples:
He skidded on the ice and crashed into another car.
The plane crashed into a field.
Her brother borrowed her motorbike and crashed it.

Learner example:
I crashed my car and here in my city the bus is terrib[le].

COMPUTER

[B2] [i] If a computer or computer system crashes, it suddenly stops working.

Dictionary example:
My computer keeps crashing.
Learner example:
Will the computers crash after New Year?

MONEY
[C1] [I] If a financial market crashes, prices suddenly fall by a large amount.

Dictionary example:
They lost all their savings when the market crashed.

NOUN [C]

VEHICLE
[B1] an accident in which a vehicle hits something

Dictionary examples:
a car/plane crash
They had a crash on the way to work.
She died in a car crash.

Learner example:
Hi, as you know I had a car crash and my car is damaged.

LOUD NOISE
[B2] a sudden, loud noise made when something falls or breaks

Dictionary example:
I heard a crash and hurried into the kitchen.

Learner example:
A loud crash disturbed the silence of the night.

BUSINESS
[C1] when the value of a country's businesses suddenly falls by a large amount

Dictionary example:
He lost a lot of money in the stock market crash of 1929.

Learner example:
Regarding the economy of the globe, this intensive trading may lead to a worldwide crash.

crave /krɛrv/

Word family:
Nouns: craving
Verbs: crave

VERB [T]
[C2] to want something very much

Dictionary example:
a child who craves affection
Learner example:
These people tend to forget the essence of man's heart, which craves only for love, and kindness, and friendship, and loyalty.

craving  /ˈkreɪ.vɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: craving
Verbs: crave

NOUN [c]
[C2] a strong feeling that you want or need something

Dictionary example:
She had a craving for chocolate.

Learner example:
It's a well-known fact that many women of all ages sometimes have a craving for chocolate.

crawl  /krɔːl/

VERB [i]

HANSDS AND KNEES
[B2] to move on your hands and knees

Dictionary examples:
The child crawled across the floor.
The injured soldier crawled to safety.

Learner example:
I crawled out from under the bed and stood [u]p.

INSECT
[C2] If an insect crawls, it uses its legs to move.

Dictionary example:
There's an ant crawling up your leg.

Learner example:
She is sort of dusting off her legs and skirt. We can't actually see what is happening. We get there to find out that tens of big red ants are crawling on to her.

be crawling with sb/sth
[C2] to be full of insects or people in a way that is unpleasant

Dictionary example:
The kitchen's crawling with ants.
NOUN

SPEED

[C1] [NO PLURAL] a very slow speed

Dictionary example:
Traffic slowed to a crawl.

Learner example:
Every morning traffic was reduced to a crawl.

SWIMMING

[C1] [u] a style of swimming in which you move your arms over your head and kick with straight legs

Dictionary example: front/back crawl

Learner example:
I can already swim breaststroke and crawl but I am unable to swim backstroke and the dolphin-like style.

craziness /ˈkreɪ.zi.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: craziness
Adjectives: crazy

NOUN [u]

[C2] the state of being crazy

Dictionary example:
I couldn't stand the craziness of their household.

Learner example:
My home might, for an outsider, give the feeling of complete disorder, not to say craziness but I can assure you that it was not true at all.

crazy /ˈkreɪ.zi/

Word family:
Nouns: craziness
Adjectives: crazy

ADJECTIVE

go crazy

[B1] to become very excited about something
Dictionary example:
When he came on stage the audience went crazy.

Learner example:
So when our teachers told us yesterday that a TV company would come and film this project and do interviews with us, everybody went crazy.

ANGRY

[B2] annoyed or angry

Dictionary examples:
The constant noise drove me crazy.
Dad went crazy when I told him what had happened.

Learner example:
Be careful because you know computers drive me crazy.

like crazy INFORMAL

[C1] doing something a lot or in a fast way

Dictionary example:
We worked like crazy to get everything finished.

Learner example:
My heart was beating like crazy and when the ski-boat started its journey along the blue waves of the sea...

cream /kriːm/

NOUN

FOR SKIN

[B1] [C or U] a soft substance that you rub into your skin

Dictionary examples: face/hand cream
moisturizing cream
Put some sun cream on to protect your face.

Learner example:
I think that we'll get a good suntan and I didn't forget the sun-cream.

the cream of sth

[C1] the best people or things in a particular group

Dictionary example:
the cream of Milan's designers
Last but not least, many Japanese style hotels and restaurants now have square holes in tatami (straw mat) rooms so that foreign visitors can comfortably stretch their legs under the low table without having to be seated on folded legs like Zen monks! Thus you will find it easier to enjoy the cream of Japanese hospitality without tears.

create /kriˈeɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: creation, creativity
Verbs: create
Adjectives: creative
Adverbs: creatively

VERB [t]
[B1] to make something happen or exist

Dictionary examples:
The project will create more than 500 jobs.
Charles Schulz created the characters 'Snoopy' and 'Charlie Brown'.
He created a wonderful meal from very few ingredients.
It's important to create a good impression when you meet a new client.

Learner example:
We had to create a new website for the club, and everybody seemed to have great fun.

creation /kriˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: creation, creativity
Verbs: create
Adjectives: creative
Adverbs: creatively

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the act of creating something, or the thing that is created

Dictionary examples:
the creation of a new political party
Their policies are all towards the creation of wealth.
This 25-foot-high sculpture is her latest creation.
The fashion magazines were full of the latest Paris creations.

Learner example:
First of all, since the creation of the virtual world internet, computers [have been] used to communicate very quickly from [one] computer to another.
creative /'kriːə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: creation, creativity
Verbs: create
Adjectives: creative
Adverbs: creatively

ADJECTIVE
[B1] producing or using original and unusual ideas

Dictionary examples:
She's very creative.
creative talents/powers/abilities creative thinking
Her book is full of creative ways to decorate the home.

Learner example:
I love to be creative.

---

creatively /'kriːə.trɪv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: creation, creativity
Verbs: create
Adjectives: creative
Adverbs: creatively

ADVERB
[B2] in a creative way

Dictionary example:
We have to think creatively about this problem.

Learner example:
I think that our college should have some of this kind of activities, so that students can spend their time creatively.

---

creativity /ˌkriːəˈtrɪv.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: creation, creativity
Verbs: create
Adjectives: creative
Adverbs: creatively
NOUN [u]
[B2] the ability to produce new ideas or things using skill and imagination

Dictionary example:
I admire her creativity.

Learner example:
Realistic stories thus, develop our imagination and creativity, which are essential in our lives.

creat üre /ˈkriː.tʃə/

NOUN [c]
[B1] anything that lives but is not a plant

Dictionary examples:
Rain forests are filled with amazing creatures.
Don't all living creatures have certain rights?
Blue whales are the largest living creatures.

Learner example:
There are some sea creatures (some are poisonous) that you have to avoid.

credibility /ˌkred.əˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: credibility
Adjectives: incredible
Adverbs: incredibly

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone can be believed and trusted

Dictionary example:
This decision has damaged the President's credibility.

Learner example:
The media source and its credibility play a major role in determining the objectivity and realistic portrayal although there have been cases where even mainstream publications have participated in manipulative alterations.
credit /ˈkred.ɪt/

NOUN

MONEY
[B1] [c or u] money in your bank account or on your mobile phone

Dictionary example:
I was relieved to see from my statement that my account was in credit.

Learner example:
I will talk to you on the phone [in a] week’s time as I [don't have] enough credit.

PAYMENT
[B1] [u] a method of paying for goods or services at a later time, usually paying interest as well as the original money

Dictionary examples:
They decided to buy the car on credit.
The shop was offering six months’ interest-free credit on electrical goods.

Learner example:
My father spent lots of money without [having the] cash. Unfortunately a credit loan company helped him.

PRAISE
[B2] [u] praise, approval or honour

Dictionary examples:
I did all the work and Amy got the credit for it!
I suppose I should give him credit for his honesty.
I can’t take full credit for this meal – Sam did quite a bit too

Learner example:
I took part in this event and I think that you haven't given it enough credit.

COURSE
[B2] [c] a unit that shows you have completed part of a college course

Dictionary example:
I got three credits for the course.

Learner example:
“How could you get such a result?” her father barked, after seeing her report card which stated only two credits.

to sb’s credit
[C2] If something is to someone's credit, they deserve praise for it.

Dictionary example:
To his credit, Bill never blamed her for the incident.
Learner example:
He also has good sportsmanship, to his credit.

creep /kriːp/

VERB (crept)

creep along/down/in/out, etc.
[C2] to move very quietly and carefully

Dictionary example:
I crept out of the room.

Learner example:
It was Sunday, and everybody else was still sleeping: she crept down the stairs to check the kitchen (could she have forgotten it on the shelf among the cookbooks?).

NOUN [C]

UNPLEASANT
[C2] someone who you think is unpleasant

Dictionary example:
Her boss is a real creep.

Learner example:
I had no doubt that she was capable (and likely) to have done such a nasty thing. What a creep!

crew /kruː/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]

SHIP/AIRCRAFT
[B1] the people who work together on a ship, aircraft or train

Dictionary examples: cabin crew
a crew member

Learner example:
When I was going back I saw the crew from my plane.

TEAM
[B2] a team of people with special skills who work together
Learner example:
I recommend that you and your film crew visit Zurich during August, because it's very cold and the weather is mostly bad in January.

cricket  /ˈkrɪk.ɪt/

NOUN

INSECT

[C2] [c] an insect that jumps and makes a noise by rubbing its wings together

Dictionary example:
We could hear the crickets in the grass.

Learner example:
The distant chirping of crickets was music to my ears.

crime  /ˈkraɪm/

Word family:
Nouns: crime, criminal
Adjectives: criminal

NOUN

ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

[B1] [u] illegal activities

Dictionary examples:
crime prevention serious/violent crime
We need tough new measures to fight crime. a life of crime

Learner example:
The problem is the pollution and the crime.

ILLEGAL ACT

[B1] [c] an illegal act
Dictionary examples:
He has admitted committing several crimes, including two murders.
The defendant is accused of/charged with a range of crimes, from theft to murder.
A knife was found at the scene of the crime.
Bombing civilians is a crime against humanity.

Learner example:
It's about the police [in] Los Angeles, I think, trying to discover how the criminals did the crimes.

criminal /ˈkrɪm.ɪ.nəl/

Word family:
Nouns: crime, criminal
Adjectives: criminal

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who commits a crime

Dictionary example:
a dangerous/violent criminal

Learner example:
At least he didn't attack me, and he even lent me his cell phone, he was such a gentle criminal.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

CRIME
[B2] relating to crime

Dictionary examples:
criminal activity
a criminal act/offence a criminal investigation
I didn't know he had a criminal record.

Learner example:
In spite of his criminal background I came to believe that man and also like him.

crisis /ˈkraɪ.sɪs/ (PLURAL crises)

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a situation or time that is extremely dangerous or difficult

Dictionary examples:
an economic/financial crisis
The country's leadership is in crisis.
We had a family crisis at the time.
Learner example:
It is a crisis not only for animals but also for the planet.

crisp /krɪsp/

ADJECTIVE
MATERIAL
[C2] Crisp cloth or paper money is clean and looks new, with no folds.

Dictionary example:
a crisp linen shirt

Learner example:
The first impression is that of quiet elegance with white table cloths, crisp napkins, lovely pastel flowers on the tables and thick carpeting on the floors.

WEATHER
[C2] Crisp weather is pleasantly cold and dry.

Dictionary example:
a crisp autumn day

Learner example:
It was one of these beautiful crisp September days when the woods are adorned in autumnal browns and golds.

criterion /krɪˈtɪəri.ən/

NOUN [C] (criteria)
[C1] a fact or level of quality that you use when making a choice or decision

Dictionary example:
We have strict criteria for deciding which students will receive a grant.

Learner example:
This is because one of the key criteria for being an international commercial centre would be the extensive transport options.
critic /ˈkrɪt.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: critic, criticism
Verbs: criticize
Adjectives: critical
Adverbs: critically

NOUN [C]

ARTS

[B2] someone whose job is to give their opinion about something, especially films, books, music, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She’s a film/theatre critic for the ‘Irish Times’.
The play has been well received by the critics.

Learner example:
Finally, I would like to ask for some of the extra budget [to be allocated] to inviting well-known critics or film staff to our local cinema.

NOT APPROVE

[C1] someone who says that they do not approve of someone or something

Dictionary example:
an outspoken critic of the government

Learner example:
I am not a critic of modern technology and I am not among those people who have pessimistic id[e]as about it.

critical /ˈkrɪt.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: critic, criticism
Verbs: criticize
Adjectives: critical
Adverbs: critically

ADJECTIVE

NOT PLEASED

[B2] saying that someone or something is bad or wrong

Dictionary examples:
a critical report
The report is highly critical of safety standards at the factory.
Learner example:
Some of them are very critical [of] their food.

IMPORTANT
[B2] of the greatest importance to the way things might happen

Dictionary examples:
The President's support is critical to this project.
a critical decision

Learner example:
It was a critical moment. Tom realized that we have to do something or [the] problems would be worse.

SERIOUS
[B2] extremely serious or dangerous

Dictionary example:
The doctors said her condition was critical and she might not survive.

Learner example:
The doctor only said she was critical, not dead!

OPINIONS
[C2] giving careful judgments and opinions on something

Dictionary example:
a critical study of Tennyson’s work

Learner example:
In fact, teachers and professors give us the opportunity to broaden our knowledge, sharpen our critical thought and in general to cultivate our mind and soul.

critically /ˈkrɪt.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: critic, criticism
Verbs: criticize
Adjectives: critical
Adverbs: critically

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is critical

Dictionary example:
They were both critically injured in the crash.

Learner example:
Cars are even more important for emergency situations such as [a] fire in a house or if somebody is critically ill.
criticism /ˈkrɪt.i.zəm/

Word family:
- Nouns: critic, criticism
- Verbs: criticize
- Adjectives: critical
- Adverbs: critically

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when you say that something or someone is bad

Dictionary example:
The designs for the new building have attracted widespread criticism.

Learner example:
Another criticism is that there were not enough plays and films.

criticize (also UK criticise) /ˈkrɪt.i.saɪz/

Word family:
- Nouns: critic, criticism
- Verbs: criticize
- Adjectives: critical
- Adverbs: critically

VERB [I T OFTEN PASSIVE]

[B2] to say that someone or something is bad

Dictionary examples:
The government is being widely criticized in the press for failing to limit air pollution.
The film was criticized for being too violent.

Learner example:
I had a very good relationship with him. He was always there when I needed him, [he] advised me, and never criticised me. He just talked with me and made me understand my mistakes.

crocodile /ˈkrɒk.ə.dail/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a large reptile with a long mouth and sharp teeth, that lives in lakes and rivers

Dictionary example:
a crocodile–infested swamp

Learner example:
My friend started to walk into the water when suddenly a crocodile grabbed her leg.
crop /krɒp/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a plant such as a grain, fruit or vegetable that is grown in large amounts, or the amount of plants of a particular type that are produced at one time

Dictionary examples:
The main crops grown for export are coffee and rice.
We had a bumper potato crop this year.

Learner example:
You can do lots of things that you can't do in the city, such as plant crops.

cross /krɒs/

Word family:
Nouns: crossing
Verbs: cross

VERB

cross your mind
[B2] If an idea crosses your mind, you think about it for a short time.

Dictionary example:
It never crossed my mind that she might be married.

Learner example:
The first thought that crossed his mind was to call the police immediately and that was what he actually did.

LINE/BORDER
[C2] [I or T] to travel over a border or line into a different area, country, etc.

Dictionary example:
They crossed from Albania into Greece.

Learner example:
It was when I was about to cross the U.S. border that I faced my greatest challenge.

keep your fingers crossed/ cross your fingers INFORMAL [C2] to hope that things will happen in the way that you want them to

Dictionary examples:
Let's keep our fingers crossed that she gets the job.
We're crossing our fingers and hoping that the weather stays fine.

Learner example:
Wish me luck, Winnie," she sighed "keep your fingers crossed, please".
cross sb's path
[C2] to meet someone, especially by accident

Dictionary example:
Mike has moved away and I doubt he'll ever cross my path again.

Learner example:
We are all socialised by our peers, family and other people who cross our path at one time or another.

NOUN [C]

RELIGION
[B1] two pieces of wood that cross each other, on which people were left to die in the past as a punishment, or an object in this shape, used as a symbol of the Christian religion

Dictionary example:
She wears a gold cross round her neck.

Learner example:
That's the reason why this little cross is so important to me.

crossing /ˈkrɒs.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: crossing
Verbs: cross

NOUN [C]

WHERE PEOPLE CROSS
[B1] a place where people can go across a road, river, etc.

Dictionary example:
a pedestrian crossing

Learner example:
The taxi driver shouted at every pedestrian crossing.

TRIP BY WATER
[C1] a trip across water

Dictionary example:
regular ferry crossings from Tenerife to Gran Canaria

Learner example:
On the ferry there are restaurants and a Tax-Free Shop. The crossing takes about 50 minutes.
crossroads /ˈkrɒs.rəʊdz/

NOUN [C] (plural crossroads)
[B2] a place where two roads cross each other

Dictionary example:
Turn left at the crossroads.

Learner example:
When you go out of the hotel, turn right [and] at the first crossroads turn right again.

crowd /ˈkraʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: crowd
Adjectives: crowded, overcrowded

VERB
[C1] to stand together in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Protesters crowded the streets.

Learner example:
However, this is not the case in big cities, since inhabitants from all over the world crowd their streets.

crucial /ˈkruː.ʃəl/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] extremely important or necessary

Dictionary examples:
a crucial decision/question
Her work has been crucial to the project's success.
It is crucial that the problem is tackled immediately.

Learner example:
Clothes [play] a crucial part in our everyday lives.
crude /kruːd/

ADJECTIVE

WITHOUT SKILL
[C2] made or done in a simple way and without much skill

Dictionary example:
a crude device/weapon

Learner example:
Glancing at the crude plan of the building I realised I had no choice but to search every room in order to find the required documents.

RUDE
[C2] rude and offensive

Dictionary example:
a crude comment/remark

Learner example:
A necessary condition, of course, is a ban on crude words or meanings, as, funnier though such word may make programmes of this sort, they also render them inappropriate for younger listeners.

---

cruel /ˈkruː.əl/ (crueller, cruellest or crueler, cruellest)

Word family:
Nouns: cruelty
Adjectives: cruel
Adverbs: cruelly

ADJECTIVE
[B1] extremely unkind and unpleasant and causing pain to people or animals intentionally

Dictionary examples:
Don't tease him about his weight – it's cruel.
Children can be very cruel to each other.

Learner example:
The terrorists [in the film] are very cruel and also have an atomic weapon.
cruelly /ˈkruː.əl.i/

Word family:
- Nouns: cruelty
- Adjectives: cruel
- Adverbs: cruelly

ADVERB

[B2] in a cruel way

Dictionary example:
She had been very cruelly treated.

Learner example:
Many young people and children go and look at various kinds of animals cruelly [held] behind the bars.

---

cruelty /ˈkruː.əl.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: cruelty
- Adjectives: cruel
- Adverbs: cruelly

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] cruel behaviour or a cruel action

Dictionary example:
The farmer was accused of cruelty to animals.

Learner example:
The methods he used to become the farm leader, the way he ignored the seven commandments, make him cruel – a cruelty he took to the extreme, causing damage to everyone living [on] the farm except to himself.

---

cruise /kruːz/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a holiday on a large ship, sailing from place to place

Dictionary example:
My parents are going on a cruise this summer.

Learner example:
Luca gave it to me last year, during our romantic cruise.
VERB [i]

[B2] to go on a cruise or boat trip

Dictionary example:
They're currently cruising around the Caribbean.

Learner example:
The end-of-conference party will take place on a boat cruising on the lake.

---

crumble /ˈkrʌm.bl/

VERB

[C2] [i or t] to break into small pieces, or to make something break into small pieces

Dictionary example:
Buildings crumbled as the earthquake struck.

Learner example:
It's completely impossible to sleep under those circumstances: a horrible howling that is so loud you can't even hear yourself think; a house that trembles so fiercely you think it's going to crumble any second in front of your very bulging eyes.

---

crush /krʌʃ/

VERB [t]

[C2] to press something so hard that it is made flat or broken into pieces

Dictionary example:
Her car was crushed by a falling tree.

Learner example:
Thus, in the last chapters, one notices that Ralph and Piggy have become inseparable friends, a friendship which is abruptly terminated by that huge rock that also crushes the conch.

---

NOUN

CROWD

[C2] [no plural] a crowd of people forced to stand close together because there is not enough room

Dictionary example:
Many people fell over in the crush.

---

LOVE

[C2] [c] informal a strong temporary feeling of love for someone
Dictionary example:
Tim has a crush on Jennifer.

Learner example:
He told me that one of his friends had a crush on me and wanted to know if I liked him.

cry /kraɪ/

VERB
SHOUT
[B1] [I or T] to say something loudly

Dictionary example:
"Look out!" she cried.

Learner example:
I cried out his name.

cry your eyes out
[C2] If someone cries their eyes out, they cry a lot about a problem or situation.

Dictionary example:
She cried her eyes out when he left her for another girl.

Learner example:
It wasn’t an easy decision to make. Melanie spent many nights crying her eyes out in bed and trying to convince herself that she wasn’t doing the right thing.

a shoulder to cry on [C2] someone who gives you sympathy when you are upset

Dictionary example:
I always had a shoulder to cry on.

Learner example:
I am always there for her and I know I will always have a shoulder to cry on.

NOUN [C]
[B1] a shout, especially one that shows someone is frightened, hurt, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a cry of pain
I could hear the cries of children playing in the street.

Learner example:
As the concert finished, I heard someone call my name. The cry came from the VIP-entrance.

be a far cry from sth
[C1] to be very different from something
Dictionary example:
Her luxury mansion is a far cry from the house she grew up in.

Learner example:
The museum was a far cry from what we expected. Not only were the machines really old and should have been replaced a long time ago, but they were boring as well.

ANIMAL/BIRD

[C2] a sound that a particular animal or bird makes

Dictionary example:
an eagle's cry

Learner example:
Then one could carefully pick one's way through a lot of shallow ponds, which had been concealed by the salty water before, and, accompanied by cries of seagulls, climb Castle Rock.

---

crystal /ˈkrɪ.stəl/

NOUN

crystal clear

[C1] extremely clear

Dictionary example:
crystal clear water

Learner example:
You will be amazed by the crystal clear water of the shallow sea and the multitude of colourful fish which you will see as you are exploring the bottom of the sea.

GLASS

[C2] a type of high quality glass

Dictionary example:
a crystal vase

Learner example:
The crystal vase is a gift from one of my mother's friends.

crystal clear

[C2] very easy to understand

Dictionary example:
She made it crystal clear that she was in charge.

Learner example:
They do learn something of course, but it is crystal clear that they need some help from you to develop their ability, creativity, sensitivity and so on.
cucumber /ˈkjuː.kʌm.bə/

NOUN [C or u]
[B1] a long, green vegetable that you eat raw in salads

Dictionary example:
sliced cucumber

Learner example:
We ask[ed] for three burgers with cucumbers.

cultivate /ˈkʌl.trɪ.vet/

Word family:
Nouns: cultivation
Verbs: cultivate

VERB [T]

GROW
[C1] to prepare land and grow crops on it

Dictionary example:
This shrub is cultivated in Europe as a culinary herb.

Learner example:
We're cutting down our forests to cultivate the plants which give us nourishing food.

DEVELOP
[C2] to try to develop or improve something

Dictionary example:
She has cultivated an image as a tough negotiator.

Learner example:
Moreover, students are not usually encouraged to attend art or drama classes and cultivate their talents.

cultivation /ˌkʌl.trɪˈveɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: cultivation
Verbs: cultivate

NOUN [u]
[C1] the process of preparing land and growing crops
Dictionary example:
The area was drained so that cultivation could begin.

Learner example:
The basic thing is that people should [be] provided [with] better facilities for their cultivation of crops and farming, so they can earn their bread and butter in their own environment.

cultural /ˈkʌl.tʃər.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: culture
Adjectives: cultural Adverbs: culturally

ADJECTIVE
WAY OF LIFE
[B1] relating to the habits, traditions and beliefs of a society

Dictionary examples:
cultural diversity/differences/identity cultural heritage

Learner example:
If you are interested in visiting historic building[s], Palermo is wonderful concerning [its] cultural and artistic heritage.

ARTS
[B1] relating to music, art, theatre, literature, etc.

Dictionary examples:
cultural activities/events
a cultural centre

Learner example:
There are lots of cultural attractions, [and] nightly discos.

culturally /ˈkʌl.tʃər.əli/

Word family:
Nouns: culture
Adjectives: cultural Adverbs: culturally

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that relates to culture
Dictionary example:
It's a culturally diverse society.

Learner example:
What I think is that Rome has to become a cultural pole, and becoming culturally vital, it will gradually look better.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>culture /ˈkʌl.tʃə/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: culture
Adjectives: cultural Adverbs: culturally

NOUN

SOCIETY

[B1] [c or u] the way of life, especially the habits, traditions and beliefs, of a particular group of people at a particular time

Dictionary examples:
- youth culture
- She’s studying modern Japanese language and culture.

Learner example:
I will tell you about Korean culture when you come here.

ARTS

[B1] [u] music, art, theatre, literature, etc.

Dictionary examples:
- popular culture
- If you’re looking for culture, this may not be the place for you.

Learner example:
I would suggest you to come to visit me here in Genoa, because this is a very unusual city and this year, it is also the capital of culture.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>cunning /ˈkʌn.ɪŋ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[C2] clever at getting what you want, especially by tricking people

Dictionary example:
- a cunning plan
Learner example:
It was a result of a cunning plan they had la[i]d months ago.

cup /kʌp/

NOUN [C]
SPORT
[B1] a specially designed cup, usually with two handles and often made of silver, which is given as a prize in a sports competition, or a game or match in which the winner receives such a cup

Dictionary examples:
Anna won this cup in the school squash championship.
The Davis Cup is an important championship.

Learner example:
This weekend we worked hard to win the ten[n]is cup.

curb /kɜːb/

VERB [T]
[C2] to limit or control something

Dictionary example:
to curb crime/inflation

Learner example:
"If I become Prime Minister, the first issues on my political agenda will be to curb government spending on armaments, to reorganise the bureaucratic system, to reduce the rate of unemployment," he told me the last time I saw him.

cure /kjʊər/
Learner example:
Harry and the other racketeers had watered down the medicine, so it was useless for curing the meningitis.

PROBLEM
[C1] to solve a problem

Dictionary example:
the fight to cure social inequality

Learner example:
I found out that this problem can be cured in only one way and that is not going to English courses.

NOUN [C]
[B2] something that makes someone with an illness healthy again

Dictionary example:
They are trying to find a cure for cancer.

Learner example:
He was only an intelligent scient[i]st who looked into an AIDS cure. Laura thought he must have found something very special.

-curiosity|ˈkjʊər.i:ˈɒs.e.ti/|

Word family:
Nouns: curiosity
Adjectives: curious
Adverbs: curiously

NOUN
[B2] [U] the feeling of wanting to know or learn about something

Dictionary examples:
My curiosity got the better of me and I opened the envelope.
Just out of curiosity, how did you get my address?

Learner example:
When the warrior had left, [he] explored the cave out of curiosity and [to] his big surprise [he] found the treasure.

-curious|ˈkjʊə.r.i.əs/|

Word family:
Nouns: curiosity
Adjectives: curious
Adverbs: curiously
ADJECTIVE

[B1] wanting to know or learn about something

Dictionary examples:
I was curious to know what would happen next.
Babies are curious about everything around them.
"Why did you ask?" "I was just curious."

Learner example:
I was curious about it, so I picked it up.

curiously /ˈkjʊə.rɪəs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: curiosity
Adjectives: curious
Adverbs: curiously

ADVERB

WANTING TO KNOW

[B1] showing that you want to know or learn more

Dictionary example:
She looked at him curiously.

Learner example:
Everyone around looked at me curiously.

STRANGELY

[B2] strangely

Dictionary example:
Curiously, there didn't seem to be a bank in the town.

Learner example:
Curiously, a few days before the murder Emma received a letter from a French girl named Martine saying she wanted to visit them.

curly /ˈkɜː.li/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] shaped like a curl, or with many curls

Dictionary example:
curly hair
Learner example:
He has got long fair curly hair and big blue eyes.

currency /ˈkʌr.ənt.si/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] the money that is used in a particular country at a particular time

Dictionary example:
foreign currency

Learner example:
Take local currency in case you want to buy something.

current /ˈkʌr.ənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: current Adverbs: currently

ADJECTIVE
[B2] happening or existing now

Dictionary examples:
Is that your current address?
Have you seen the current issue of Vogue magazine?
The word 'thou' is no longer in current use.

Learner example:
Dear Mr Thomas, I was interested in [y]our advertisement in the current edition of "Spotlight" and I would like to apply for a job in one of your campsites.

currently /ˈkʌr.ənt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: current Adverbs: currently

ADVERB
[B2] at the present time

Dictionary examples:
The company currently employs around 750 people.
The Director is currently having talks in the USA.
Learner example:
I am 22 years old and I am currently studying trade and tourism.

curriculum /kəˈriːk.ju.ˈləm/ (plural curricula or curriculums)

NOUN [c]

[B1] the group of subjects studied in a school, college, etc.

Dictionary example:
the school curriculum

Learner example:
Introducing [in] schools the system of learning only the things one enjoys would make the curriculum impossible to create.

cursor /ˈkɜːsər/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a symbol on a computer screen which shows the place where you are working

Dictionary example:
Put the cursor over the word you want to look up.

Learner example:
The black space reserved for the answer appeared and the text cursor started to blink.

curve /kɜːv/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a line which bends round, like part of a circle

Dictionary examples:
a curve in the road
the curve of a graph

Learner example:
The other person was slimmer and she [had] womanly curves.
cushion /ˈkʊʃ.ən/

NOUN [C]

CLOTH BAG

[B1] a cloth bag filled with something soft which you sit on or lean against to make you comfortable

Dictionary example:
She sank back against/into the cushions.

Learner example:
I'll go to buy a nice wardrobe, an armchair and a lot of cushions.

PROTECTION

[C2] something which protects you from possible problems

Dictionary example:
Overseas savings provide a cushion against tax rises at home.

Learner example:
The only answer for the Spanish situation is that families are acting as a cushion, by giving the youngest in working age accommodation and help.

custody /ˈkas.tə.di/

NOUN [U]

CHILD

[C2] the legal right to look after a child, especially when parents separate

Dictionary example:
When they divorced, it was Nicola who won custody of their two children.

Learner example:
My parents were fighting a long and tiring battle in court, over the custody of us children.

PRISON

[C2] when someone is kept in prison, usually while they are waiting for a trial in court

Dictionary examples:
He is being held in custody in Los Angeles charged with assault.
He was taken into custody by Mexican authorities.

Learner example:
Not only was he badly injured during the following years, but he was [also] kept in custody by the Russians for about two years.
custom /ˈkʌstəm/

Word family:
Nouns: custom
Adjectives: customary

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a way of behaving or a belief which has been established for a long time

Dictionary examples:
local/ancient customs
In my country, it's the custom to get married in white.

Learner example:
It is a custom that [the] bride wears [a] white wedding dress and she [carries a] bouquet of flowers in her hands.

---

customary /ˈkʌstəm.r.i/

Word family:
Nouns: custom
Adjectives: customary

ADJECTIVE
[C1] normal or expected for a particular person, situation, or society

Dictionary example:
It is customary for the chairman to make the opening speech.

Learner example:
So it is customary that teachers have longer holidays.

---

customs /ˈkʌstəms/

NOUN [U]
[B1] the place where your bags are examined when you are going into a country, to make sure you are not carrying anything illegal

Dictionary examples:
customs officials to go through customs

Learner example:
I work as [a] customs officer and I meet a lot of foreign people every day.
cut /kʌt/

VERB (cutting, cut, cut)

INJURE
[B1] [ɪ] to injure yourself on a sharp object which makes you bleed

Dictionary examples:
She cut her finger on some broken glass.
Careful or you'll cut yourself with that knife.

Learner example:
The robot had cut its hand.

REDUCE
[B2] [ɪ] to reduce the size or amount of something

Dictionary examples:
to cut prices/costs
The company is cutting 300 jobs.

Learner example:
The third thing is Internet [business]. This way is very good for both consumer and company, to cut the cost.

FILM/WRITING
[B2] [ɪ] to remove part of a film or piece of writing

Dictionary example:
Several scenes had been cut from the English version of the film.

Learner example:
You'll see how the film is cut to [fit] the story into two hours, more or less.

to cut a long story short
[C1] to mention only the final result or point of something without going into other details

Dictionary example:
To cut a long story short, he never played baseball again.

Learner example:
Well, to cut a long story short, let's say tuition yes, facilities no.

cut sth short or cut short sth
[C2] to have to stop doing something before it is finished

Dictionary example:
They had to cut the holiday short when her mother was taken ill.
NOUN [C]

INJURY
[B1] an injury made when the skin is cut with something sharp

Dictionary example:
He suffered cuts and bruises in the accident.

Learner example:
I have got a broken knee, but apart from that and a few cuts and bruises, I'm all right.

STOP IN SUPPLY
[B2] when the supply of something is stopped

Dictionary example:
a power cut

Learner example:
Those zeros indicate that your household has been affected by a power cut.

REDUCTION
[C1] a reduction in the number or amount of something

Dictionary example:
tax/job cuts

Learner example:
Unfortunately, due to government spending cuts he has lost his employment.

cutback ˈkʌt.باك/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a reduction of something, usually to save money

Dictionary example:
The company has made cutbacks and closed one of its factories.

Learner example:
There have been enormous cutbacks in the budget and children and teenagers are the ones who have suffered the most.

cutlery ˈkʌt.lər.i/

NOUN [U]

[C2] knives, forks, and spoons
Dictionary example:
Do we have enough cutlery for twelve people?

Learner example:
There is no need to bring your own plates, cups or cutlery as you can use the ones you will find in the kitchen.

cutting-edge /ˌkʌt.inˈeɪdʒ/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] very modern and with all the newest developments

Dictionary example:
cutting-edge design/technology

Learner example:
On the other hand, in the past our previous generation could not enjoy such cutting-edge technology as it was not developed well before 1970.

CV /ˌsiːˈviː/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a document which describes your education, qualifications and the jobs you have done, which you send to an employer that you want to work for

Dictionary example:
Send me your CV.

Learner example:
These students are the same as me, they want [to] pass their exams next year and put the degree on their CV.

cycle /ˈsaɪ.kl/

Word family:
Nouns: cycle, cycling, cyclist
Verbs: cycle

NOUN [C]

SERIES OF EVENTS
[B2] a series of events which happen in a particular order and are often repeated

Dictionary example:
the life cycle of a moth
Learner example:
So, the main disadvantage of zoos is that they put animals away from something which belongs to the natural cycle of life.

BICYCLE

[B2] a bicycle

Dictionary example:
cycle paths/routes

Learner example:
I am writing about our cycle routes.

VERB [i]
[B1] to ride a bicycle

Dictionary example:
I usually cycle to work.

Learner example:
We cycled around Hungary.

cyclist /ˈsɑː.klɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: cycle, cycling, cyclist
Verbs: cycle

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who rides a bike

Dictionary example:
He drove into a cyclist.

Learner example:
[There] was me, my friend and a group of ten people guided by a professional cyclist.

cynical /ˈsɪn.ɪk.əl/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] believing that people are only interested in themselves and are not sincere

Dictionary example:
Many people have become cynical about politicians.

Learner example:
Consequently, we had better not jump to such cynical conclusions and enjoy the competition.

676 daily /ˈdeɪ.li/

Word family:
Nouns: day, midday
Adjectives: daily
Adverbs: daily

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

daily life
[B1] the usual things that happen to you every day

Dictionary example:
I try to keep exercise a part of my daily life.

Learner example:
Mr. Bean often does funny things in his daily life.

dairy /ˈdeə.ri/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to milk or products made using milk

Dictionary example:
dairy products

Learner example:
Meat, poultry, vegetables and dairy products are excellent for your health.

damage /ˈdæm.i.dʒ/
Dictionary examples:
Strong winds had caused serious damage to the roof.
storm/flood/fire/bomb damage
He suffered brain damage in the car crash.

Learner example:
I read in the paper last week that overworking may cause serious damage to your health.

VERB [r]
[B1] to harm, break or spoil something

Dictionary examples:
Many buildings were badly damaged during the war.
Smoking can seriously damage your health.

Learner example:
They may be using chemicals that could damage the ozone layer.

damaged  /ˈdæm.ɪdʒd/

Word family:
Nouns: damage
Verbs: damage
Adjectives: damaged

ADJECTIVE
[B1] harmed or spoilt

Dictionary examples:
They're selling off damaged goods at reduced prices.
Both the cars involved in the accident looked badly damaged.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, my father died [from] a fractured skull and a damaged brain.

damn  /dæm/ (also damn it)

EXCLAMATION INFORMAL
[B1] I used to express anger or disappointment

Dictionary example:
Damn! I've forgotten the tickets.

Learner example:
It was just a joke, damn it.
damp /dæmp/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] slightly wet, especially in a way that is not pleasant or comfortable

Dictionary examples:
The grass is still damp.
This shirt still feels a bit damp.
It was a damp, misty morning.

Learner example:
I have recently noticed that they are stored in dark, damp rooms because the library has no money to restore these places.

dance /dɑːnts/

Word family:
Nouns: dance, dancer, dancing
Verbs: dance

NOUN

STEPS
[B1] [c] a particular series of movements which you perform to music or the type of music which is connected with it

Dictionary example:
The band played a slow dance.

Learner example:
There will be music and traditional dances from the countries involved in the meeting.

danger /ˈdeɪn.dʒər/dangerously /ˈdeɪn.dʒərəslɪ/

Word family:
- Nouns: danger
- Adjectives: dangerous, endangered
- Adverbs: dangerously

ADVERB
[B1] in a way that is dangerous

Dictionary examples:
She drives dangerously.
He likes to live dangerously.

Learner example:
[A driver] could lose his or her life by driving dangerously.

dare /deər/

VERB

dare (to) do sth
[B2] to be brave enough to do something

Dictionary examples:
I'd never dare to talk to my mother the way Ben talks to his.
I didn't dare tell Dad that I'd scratched his car.
I wouldn't dare have a party in my flat in case the neighbours complained.
I daren't/don't dare think how much it's going to cost.

Learner example:
Carla didn't dare to look at the door. She just sat there and waited for things to happen.

dare sb to do sth
[C1] to try to make someone do something dangerous

Dictionary example:
She dared her friend to climb onto the roof.
Learner example:
The idea was to hang like that for a while, then push strongly and start sliding on the rope until you got to the other end. My friends dared me to tr[y] it.

How dare she/you, etc.
[C1] used to express anger about something someone has done

Dictionary example:
How dare you talk to me like that!

Learner example:
How dare you call that high standards?!

Don’t you dare
[C2] informal used to tell someone strongly not to do something

Dictionary example:
Don’t you dare hit your sister!

Learner example:
He had been standing on the exact spot when his friends had made him promise: "Don’t you dare forget me, I want letters from you promptly, understand!"

I dare say
[C2] (also I daresay) used when you think that something is probably true or will probably happen

Dictionary example:
I dare say she’ll change her mind.

Learner example:
Invent machines that are beneficial, not harmful, and I dare say life will only get better.

dark /dɑːk/

Word family:
Nouns: dark, darkness
Adjectives: dark

ADJECTIVE

BAD
[C1] frightening or unpleasant

Dictionary example:
a dark period in human history

Learner example:
They cannot cope with such matters as finances and studies, so they have to turn to the dark side of society.
NOUN

the dark

[B1] when there is no light somewhere

Dictionary examples:
Cats can see in the dark.
I've always been afraid of the dark.

Learner example:
As I was walking alone in the dark, I got really scared.

before/after dark

[B1] before/after the sun has gone down

Dictionary examples:
It isn't safe to leave the house after dark.
I want to be home before dark.

Learner example:
Yesterday, soon after dark, I was [in] the kitchen and I was making my din[n]er.

in the dark

[C2] not knowing about something because other people are not telling you

Dictionary example:
They kept us in the dark about their plans.

Learner example:
Peter had always kept her in the dark about the reason for their fight.

darkness  /ˈdɑːk.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: dark, darkness
Adjectives: dark

noun [u]

[B2] when there is little or no light

Dictionary example:
There was a power cut and the house was in darkness.

Learner example:
Too frightened to start crying, I just stood up and stared into the darkness.
darling /ˈdɑː.lɪŋ/

NOUN [c]

[B2] used when you speak to someone you love or like

Dictionary example:
Would you like a drink, darling?

Learner example:
Don't worry, darling.

dash /dæʃ/

VERB [i]

[B2] to go somewhere quickly

Dictionary examples:
I've been dashing around all day.
I must dash – I've got to be home by seven.

Learner example:
I must dash now, [as] I have got to go to college.

NOUN

QUICK MOVEMENT

[B2] [NO PLURAL] when you run somewhere very quickly

Dictionary examples:
I made a dash for the toilets.
There was a mad dash for the exit.

Learner example:
I made a dash to catch the plane.

PUNCTUATION

[B2] [c] a mark (–) that can be used to separate parts of a sentence

AMOUNT

[C2] [c] a small amount of something, often food

Dictionary example:
Add a dash of milk to the sauce.

Learner example:
The beginners should add a dash of blackcurrant to the beer and taste the difference.
data /ˈdeɪ.tə/

NOUN [u]

FACTS
[B2] information or facts about something (in scientific English, this can be followed by a plural verb, where the singular form is 'datum')

Dictionary examples:
The data was collected by various researchers.
Isotope data are corrected to the appropriate age for each sample.

Learner example:
I collected lots of data on different air, noise, water, sea and land pollution.

COMPUTER
[B2] information in the form of text, numbers or symbols that can be used by or stored in a computer

Dictionary example:
Now the data is being transferred from magnetic tape to hard disk.

Learner example:
Save your data on the hard disk [bit] by [bit] – do not wait until the whole article is ready.

database /ˈdeɪ.tə.beɪs/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a large amount of information stored in a computer system in such a way that it can be easily looked at or changed

Dictionary example:
We're linked to the online database at our head office.

Learner example:
So, we decide[d] to access our school database and change our test results.

date /deɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: date
Verbs: date
Adjectives: dated
ARRANGED TIME
[B1] a time when something has been arranged to happen

Dictionary examples:
Let’s make a date to have lunch.
I’d like to fix a date for our next meeting.
We’ve agreed to meet again at a later date.

Learner example:
We made a date for [our] next meeting in the "Mamboo".

GOING OUT
[B1] a romantic meeting when two people go out somewhere, such as to a restaurant or to see a film

Dictionary examples:
He’s asked her out on a date.
She has a hot date tonight.

Learner example:
I’m going on a date with Prisella and my bicycle is broken.

out of date
[B1] old and no longer useful, correct or fashionable

Dictionary example:
These unemployment figures are out of date.

Learner example:
The library has got very poor staff and most of it is out of date.

up to date
[B1] modern, recent or containing the latest information

Dictionary example:
Great care is taken to keep our database up to date.

Learner example:
Furthermore, the website is not always up to date.

to date
[B2] formal up to the present time

Dictionary example:
This is her best work to date.

Learner example:
I enclose a copy of my curriculum vitae, which will give you further details about my career to date.
FRUIT
[C1] a sticky brown fruit with a long seed inside

Dictionary example:
I bought a box of dates.

VERB

WRITE DATE ON
[B1] ['t] to write or print the day’s date on something

Dictionary example:
Thank you for your letter dated August 30th.

Learner example:
Dear Sir, I refer to the advertisement published in the 'Daily Post' dated 5th December.

dated  /ˈdeɪ.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: date
Verbs: date
Adjectives: dated

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not modern

Dictionary example:
This film seems a bit dated today.

Learner example:
The books are so old and dated that it is no longer possible to use them in the classroom.

daughter-in-law  /ˈdɔː.tər.in.ˈlɔː/

NOUN [c] (plural daughters-in-law)
[B2] your son’s wife

Dictionary example:
I get on well with my daughter-in-law.

Learner example:
And do you know what, we met your daughter-in-law.
dawn /dɔːn/

NOUN

START OF DAY

[B2] [c or u] the early morning when light first appears in the sky

Dictionary examples:
We woke at dawn.
We left as dawn was breaking.
We left at the break of dawn.

Learner example:
The other ones will work from dawn till dusk.

the dawn of sth

[C1] LITERARY the time when something began

Dictionary example:
the dawn of civilization

Learner example:
Since the dawn of time, people of all religions have considered that there is a higher power that dictates their destiny.

the crack of dawn

[C2] very early in the morning

Dictionary example:
He gets up at the crack of dawn.

Learner example:
From the crack of dawn until bed time citizens have to breathe all kinds of gas coming out of cars, bikes or [factor]ies.

VERB

dawn on sb PHRASAL VERB

[C2] If a fact dawns on you, you become aware of it after a period of not being aware of it.

Dictionary example:
It suddenly dawed on them that Mary had been lying.

Learner example:
Suddenly it dawed on him that the rumours about a malaria infestation spreading like wildfire in this area must be true.
day  /deɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: day, midday
Adjectives: daily
Adverbs: daily

NOUN

the other day
[B1] a few days ago

Dictionary example:
Didn’t I see you in the post office the other day?

Learner example:
For example, the other day I stayed in my house all day watching television in bed.

one day/some day/one of these days
[B1] at some time in the future

Dictionary example:
One of these days I’ll tell her what really happened.

Learner example:
I hope one day you will come with me.

for days
[B1] for a long time

Dictionary example:
They haven’t been seen for days.

Learner example:
I had to wait for days while the car was being repaired.

in those days
[B2] used to talk about a period in the past

Dictionary example:
In those days, boys used to wear short trousers.

Learner example:
In those days, life was much harder than now.

days
[C1] used to talk about a particular period of time when something happened or existed

Dictionary examples:
in my younger days
This book was written before the days of computers.
Learner example:
Before the days of television, we had the radio.

the old days
[C1] a period in the past

Dictionary example:
This place isn't as good as it was in the old days!

Learner example:
In the old days, a scholar could spend years of his life in search of specific information, which now can be easily found at the click of a button!

call it a day
[C2] informal to stop doing something, especially working

Dictionary example:
It's almost midnight – let's call it a day.

Learner example:
She decided to call it a day, so Meredith mustered all her courage and wrote a letter to him: "You are not good enough for me," she told him.

make sb's day
[C2] to make someone very happy

Dictionary example:
Go on, ask him to dance – it'll make his day!

Learner example:
Thank you for returning a lost diary; you have made my day!

daycare  /ˈdeɪ.keə/

NOUN [u]
[C1] care provided during the day for people who cannot look after themselves, especially young children or old people

Dictionary example:
a daycare centre

Learner example:
They simply didn't quit after they had a baby, but continued working as before and put their children in daycare.
daydream /ˈdeɪ.driːm/

VERB [v]
[C1] to have pleasant thoughts about something you like or would like to happen

Dictionary example:
She just sits in class daydreaming about her horses.

Learner example:
When we are young, we daydream about becoming famous.

daylight /ˈdeɪ.laɪt/

NOUN [u]
[B2] the natural light from the sun

Dictionary example:
The colours look much better in daylight.

Learner example:
At the same time, we could change the curtains for lighter ones because we need the daylight.

daytime /ˈdeɪ.taim/

NOUN [u]
[B2] the period of the day when there is light from the sun, or the period when most people are at work

Dictionary examples:
I tend to sleep in/during the daytime and study at night.
a regular daytime job a daytime telephone number daytime television

Learner example:
There are different places to visit in the daytime.

day-to-day /ˌdeɪ.təˈdeɪ/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] happening every day as a regular part of your job or your life
Dictionary example:
the usual day-to-day problems

Learner example:
Unfortunately modern life is very stressful; the day-to-day office routine make[s] people feel very stressed and upset with their lives.

dazed /deɪzd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not able to think clearly because you are shocked or have hit your head

Dictionary example:
a dazed expression

Learner example:
I looked at him with a dazed expression.

dazzle /ˈdæzl/ [T]

Word family:
Verbs: dazzle
Adjectives: dazzling

VERB [T]

EXTREMELY GOOD
[C2] If you are dazzled by someone or something, you think they are extremely good or exciting

Dictionary example:
I was dazzled by his intelligence and good looks.

Learner example:
The unique, marvellous, awe-inspiring scene can only fill you with admiration and leave you feeling stunned, dazzled by the wonders of nature.

LIGHT
[C2] If light dazzles someone, it makes them unable to see for a short time.

Dictionary example:
He was dazzled by the car’s headlights.

Learner example:
Since it was the first live musical event I had been to, I was impressed by how loud the music was being played and dazzled by the lights.
dazzling /ˈdæz.lɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: dazzle
Adjectives: dazzling

ADJECTIVE

EXCITING

[C2] extremely good and exciting

Dictionary example:
da dazzling display/performance

Learner example:
The lights, the people, the atmosphere all created a dazzling spectacle where everyone was having fun and singing together, even if they didn't really know the words.

BRIGHT

[C2] A dazzling light is so bright that you cannot see for a short time after looking at it.

Dictionary example:
a dazzling white light

Learner example:
Blinded by the dazzling lights of the interior of Luton Airport, I tried very hard not to panic.

dead /ded/

Word family:
Nouns: death
Adjectives: dead, deadly
Adverbs: dead, deadly

ADJECTIVE

EQUIPMENT

[B2] If a piece of equipment is dead, it is not working.

Dictionary examples:
a dead battery
The phone suddenly went dead.

Learner example:
I tried to phone my sister, but the phone was dead.
QUIET
[C2 INFORMAL] If a place is dead, it is too quiet and nothing interesting is happening there.

Dictionary example:
The town centre is dead after eight o’clock at night.

Learner example:
Jane was walking through the empty streets of New York. [...] The city was absolutely dead.

COMPLETE
[C2 [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]] complete

Dictionary example:
We waited in dead silence as the votes were counted.

Learner example:
When I finally [got] inside a terror took hold of me as there was only dead silence.

BODY
[C2] If part of your body is dead, you cannot feel it.

Dictionary example:
My arm’s gone dead.

drop dead
[C2 INFORMAL] to die very suddenly

Dictionary example:
He just dropped dead in the middle of the show.

Learner example:
We can enjoy our longer lives because we don’t have to work until we drop dead.

ADVERB
EXTREMELY
[C1 INFORMAL] extremely or completely

Dictionary example:
The exam was dead easy.

Learner example:
The teaching is dead boring; it really takes you more than one hour per day just to gain the basics and if you want to get in contact with the teachers, you have to spend a fortune.

be dead (set) against sth/doing sth
[C1] to oppose something strongly

Dictionary examples:
My parents were dead set against us getting married.
They were dead against the proposed new road.
Learner example:
Some others are dead set against the council's decision and provide some alternative ideas about building a car park in another area.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>deadline</th>
<th>/ˈded.laɪn/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [C]

[B2] a time or day by which something must be done

Dictionary examples:
There's no way I can meet that deadline.
We're working to a tight deadline.
I'm afraid you've missed the deadline – the deadline for applications was May 30th.

Learner example:
My last question is about the deadline of your offer.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>deadly</th>
<th>/ˈded.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: death
Adjectives: dead, deadly
Adverbs: dead, deadly

ADJECTIVE

[B2] likely to cause death

Dictionary examples:
a deadly virus
a deadly weapon

Learner example:
Caught without cover, they were quickly eliminated by a burst of Bull's deadly machine gun.

ADVERB

deadly dull/serious, etc.

[C1] extremely dull/serious, etc.

Dictionary example:
His speech was deadly dull.

Learner example:
Sports don't have to be boring and deadly serious.
deaf /def/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] unable to hear, either completely or partly

Dictionary example:
He's been totally/partially deaf since birth.

Learner example:
She should take care of her family, especially her deaf three-year-old daughter.

fall on deaf ears

[C2] If advice or a request falls on deaf ears, people ignore it.

Dictionary example:
Our pleas for help fell on deaf ears.

Learner example:
His cry for help and for a more meaningful relationship between himself and Mildred invariably fell on deaf ears.

deal /dɪəl/

Word family:

Nouns: deal, dealer

NOUN

AGREEMENT

[B2] [c] an agreement or an arrangement, especially in business

Dictionary examples:
a business deal
I'll make/do a deal with you – you wash the car and I'll let you use it tonight.

Learner example:
"I want to make a deal with you," he went on.

a good/great deal

[B2] a lot

Dictionary examples:
She spends a good deal of her time in Glasgow.
A great deal of effort has gone into making the software reliable.
They still need a great deal more money to finish the project.

Learner example:
There will be lots of events which you could see and take a great deal of pictures [of].
a good deal
[C1] an agreement, arrangement, or situation that benefits you

Dictionary example:
I think we got a really good deal on our new car.

Learner example:
The possibility [of] get[ting] the needed staff from our own departments is absolutely a good deal for the company.

VERB (dealt, dealt) deal with sth PHRASAL VERB

[B1] to take action in order to achieve something or in order to solve a problem

Dictionary examples:
How do you intend to deal with this problem?
General enquiries are dealt with by our head office.

Learner example:
Sorry about such [a] late reply, but I've had some problems to deal with.

deal with sb PHRASAL VERB

[B2] to talk to someone or meet someone, especially as part of your job

Dictionary example:
She's used to dealing with difficult customers.

Learner example:
In my previous job, I used to deal with many, many people.

dealer /ˈdiː.lər/

Word family:
Nouns: deal, dealer

NOUN [c]

[B2] a person who trades in something

Dictionary examples:
a second-hand car dealer an antiques dealer drug dealers

Learner example:
The computer dealer in our street offered me a special combination package.
dear /dɪə/

ADJECTIVE

LIKED

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] liked very much

Dictionary examples:
She was a very dear friend.
He's one of my dearest friends.
My dear Gina – how lovely to see you!

Learner example:
I decided to go to my dear friend Mary's house after writing a letter saying where I was and why.

dear to sb/sb’s heart

[C2] If something is dear to someone or dear to their heart, it is very important to them.

Dictionary example:
The charity was very dear to his heart.

Learner example:
Among all the places I enjoyed visiting, the city of Singapore is especially dear to my heart.

dead /deθ/

Word family:
Nouns: death
Adjectives: dead, deadly
Adverbs: dead, deadly

NOUN [C or U]

[END OF LIFE]

[B1] the end of life

Dictionary examples:
The disease causes thousands of deaths a year.
Do you believe in life after death?
He never got over the death of his daughter.
death threats

Learner example:
After his father's death, he didn’t want to study.

bored/frightened/scared, etc. to death

[B2] extremely bored, frightened, scared, etc.
Dictionary example:
She's scared to death of dogs.

Learner example:
Preparing a surprise party, her parents had almost scared her to death.

to death
[C2] until you die

Dictionary example:
He was beaten to death by a gang of youths.

Learner example:
She would have been trampled to death as the stampede of furious fans came over her.

put sb to death
[C2] to kill someone as a punishment

Dictionary example:
She was put to death for her beliefs.

Learner example:
He has become dangerous for Jack and must thus be eliminated, put to death.

a matter of life and/or death
[C2] a serious situation where people could die

Dictionary example:
Getting water to these people is a matter of life and death.

Learner example:
I told him it was a matter of life and death.

debate /ˈdɪˈbeɪt/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] (a) discussion or argument about a subject in which many people take part

Dictionary examples:
Education is the current focus of public debate.
How we proceed from here is a matter for debate.
Over the year we have had several debates about future policy.

Learner example:
Public debates are shown on television and television is the best way for politicians to explain their actions and projects.

VERB
[C2] [I or T] to discuss a subject in a formal way
Dictionary example:
These issues need to be debated openly.

Learner example:
Homelessness is a worrying issue that is being debated by most of the developed countries’ governments.

debit /ˈdeb.ɪt/

NOUN [c]
[B2] money taken out of a bank account, or a record of this

Dictionary example:
The statement shows your most recent debits.

VERB [T]
[B2] to take money out of a bank account

Dictionary example:
£20 has been debited from my account.

debit card /ˈdeb.ɪtˌkɑːd/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a plastic card used to pay for things directly from your bank account

Dictionary example:
I can use my debit card in most of the local shops.

debt /det/

NOUN

AMOUNT OWING
[B2] [c] an amount of money that you owe someone

Dictionary examples:
He managed to pay off his debts in two years.
The firm ran up huge debts.

Learner example:
She thought of getting a loan but she already had huge debts.
STATE OF OWING
[B2] [u] when you owe money to someone

Dictionary examples:
They are in debt to the bank.
He ran/got into debt after he lost his job.
The company is deep in debt.

Learner example:
The consequence is that I'm in debt.

debut /ˈdeɪ.bjuː/

NOUN [c]
[C1] when someone performs or presents something to the public for the first time

Dictionary examples:
She made her debut as a pianist in 1975.
This is the band's debut album.

Learner example:
Pavarotti's grand debut took place in the Royal Theatre of Reggio Emilia.

decade /ˈdek.eɪd/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a period of ten years, especially a period such as 1860 to 1869, or 1990 to 1999

Dictionary example:
The building was due to be knocked down decades ago.

Learner example:
Life has centred around fast food chains during the last decade and continues to do so.

decaffeinated /diːˈkæf.ɪˌneɪ.tɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Decaffeinated tea or coffee is made by removing the caffeine.

Dictionary example:
Could I have a decaffeinated coffee, please?
decay  /dɪˈkeɪ/

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to become gradually damaged or to cause something to become gradually damaged

Dictionary examples:
Sugar makes your teeth decay.
Pollution has decayed the surface of the stonework on the front of the cathedral.

Learner example:
The historic buildings are starting to decay.

deceased  /dɪˈsiːst/

ADJECTIVE FORMAL

DEAD
[C2] dead

Dictionary example:
the deceased man’s belongings

Learner example:
A picture of a deceased family member brings back lots of memor[ies].

NOUN [u]

the deceased
[C2] someone who has died

Dictionary example:
The police have not yet informed the family of the deceased.

Learner example:
The deceased was a 19–year–old girl who had run away from home some months ago.
deceive  /drˈsiːv/

Word family:
Nouns: deception
Verbs: deceive
Adjectives: deceptive

VERB [T]
[B2] to make someone believe something that is not true

Dictionary examples:
The company deceived customers by selling old computers as new ones.
The sound of the door closing deceived me into thinking they had gone out.

Learner example:
So if you don't want to feel deceived or offended, think twice before you decide to go shopping.

decent  /ˈdiː.sənt/

ADJECTIVE

SATISFACTORY
[B2] of a satisfactory quality or level

Dictionary examples:
He earns a decent salary.
I haven't had a decent cup of coffee since I've been here.

Learner example:
I think it's a decent place for us to stay for a night.

HONEST
[B2] honest and morally good

Dictionary examples:
Decent people have had their lives ruined by his behaviour.
She should do the decent thing and apologize.

Learner example:
In fact, it had such [a] bad reputation that nobody "decent" went there any longer.

description  /drˈsepʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: deception
Verbs: deceive
Adjectives: deceptive

702
NOUN  [C or U]
[C2] when you make someone believe something that is not true

Dictionary example:
He was found guilty of obtaining money by deception.

Learner example:
On the other hand, his deception means that he betrayed his own nation.

deceptive  /dɪˈsep.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: deception
Verbs: deceive
Adjectives: deceptive

ADJECTIVE
[C2] If something is deceptive, it makes you believe something that is not true.

Dictionary example:
Appearances can be deceptive.

Learner example:
One should also remember another common, albeit wise phrase: appearances can be deceptive.

decide  /dɪˈsaɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: decision
Verbs: decide
Adjectives: decisive
Adverbs: decisively

VERB
RESULT
[C2] [T] to be the reason or situation that makes a particular result happen

Dictionary example:
This match will decide the tournament.

Learner example:
At any rate, science will decide whether it is better to live longer.

deciding factor
[C2] the thing that helps to make the final decision
Dictionary example:
Cost was the deciding factor in choosing these builders.

Learner example:
Personally, I think the quality of teachers, school reputation and facilities should be the deciding factor for parents [for] which schools their children should be educated in.

decision  /diˈsɪʒ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: decision
Verbs: decide
Adjectives: decisive
Adverbs: decisively

NOUN [C]
[B1] a choice that you make about something after thinking about several possibilities

Dictionary examples:
She has had to make some very difficult decisions.
The company will reach/come to/make a decision shortly.
Let me have a/your decision by next week.
It was his decision to leave.
We need to take a lot of factors into account in our decision–making.

Learner example:
Tell me your decision soon.

decisive  /drˈsər.iiv/

Word family:
Nouns: decision
Verbs: decide
Adjectives: decisive
Adverbs: decisively

ADJECTIVE

MAKING DECISIONS
[B2] able to make decisions quickly and confidently, or showing this quality

Dictionary examples:
You need to be more decisive.
a decisive reply
Learner example:
They were attractive, handsome, brave and decisive men.

AFFECTING
[C1] strongly affecting how a situation will progress or end

Dictionary examples:
a decisive goal/victory
Seeing that advertisement was a decisive moment in my life.

Learner example:
Recently, our Board of Executives has taken a decisive step: from now on, our clothes will also be available for purchase on the Internet!

decisively /dɪˈsaɪ.sɪv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: decision
Verbs: decide
Adjectives: decisive
Adverbs: decisively

ADVERB
[C2] in a decisive way

Dictionary example:
We need to act decisively.

Learner example:
Putting your foot down quickly and decisively before things really get out of hand seems sensible.

dock /dek/

NOUN [c]
[B2] the flat area of a ship or boat that is not covered

Dictionary example:
We sat on deck until it was dark.

Learner example:
When I woke up and went on the deck, I saw the skipper who [was coming] back from the village in the small boat.
declaration /ˌdek.əˈreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: declaration
Verbs: declare

NOUN [c]
[C1] an announcement, often one that is written and official

Dictionary example:
a declaration of independence

Learner example:
Indochina is a French film that deals with the colonial period in Indochina from the Second World War to the country['s] declaration of independence.

---

declare /dɪˈkleər/

Word family:
Nouns: declaration
Verbs: declare

VERB [T]

STATE VALUE/AMOUNT
[B1] to officially tell someone the value of goods you have bought, or the amount of money you have earned, because you might have to pay tax

Dictionary example:
Have you got anything to declare?

EXPRESS
[B2] to announce something publicly or officially

Dictionary examples:
They declared their support for the proposal.
America declared on Japan in 1941.
The country declared independence in 1952.

Learner example:
We should declare [the city centre] a pedestrian zone.
decline /dɪˈklaɪn/

VERB

GET LESS
[B2] [ɪ] to gradually become less or worse

Dictionary examples:
His interest in the project declined after his wife died.
The party’s popularity has declined in the opinion polls.

Learner example:
It had slightly declined to about 88 per cent in 1992.

REFUSE
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to refuse politely

Dictionary examples:
I invited him to the meeting but he declined.
He declined my offer.

Learner example:
We thank you for your offer of accommodation, but we decline it.

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when something becomes less in amount, importance, quality or strength

Dictionary examples:
industrial decline
Home cooking seems to be on the/in decline.
a sharp decline in sales
She seemed to be recovering and then she went into a decline.

Learner example:
For the 25–34 age group, a decline can be seen from 2006 to 2010.

decorate /ˈdek.ə.reɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: decoration
Verbs: decorate
Adjectives: decorative

VERB

MAKE ATTRACTIVE
[B1] [ɪ] to add attractive things to an object or place, often for a special day or period
Dictionary example:
They decorated the wedding car with ribbons and flowers.

Learner example:
The church always is decorated with beautiful flowers and other things.

PAINT ROOM

[B1] [ɪ or ə] to put paint or paper on the walls or other surfaces of a room

Dictionary examples:
We're going to decorate the kitchen next week.
I hate the smell of paint when I'm decorating.

Learner example:
It is all decorated in blue.

| decoration | /ˌdek.əˈreɪ.ʃən/ |
| Noun family: | |
| Nouns: | decoration |
| Verbs: | decorate |
| Adjectives: | decorative |

MAKE ATTRACTIVE

[B2] [k or u] something that you put on something to make it look attractive or special, or the activity of putting things on something to make it look more attractive or special

Dictionary examples:
Christmas/party/table/cake decorations
He's good at cake decoration.

Learner example:
In November I joined a day course to learn how to make Christmas decorations.

PAINT

[B2] [u] when the walls or other surfaces of rooms or buildings are covered with paint or paper

Dictionary example:
This place is badly in need of decoration.

Learner example:
I will start with the new decoration [of] my bedroom next week.
decorative  /ˌdek.rə.rətɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: decoration
Verbs: decorate
Adjectives: decorative

ADJECTIVE

[B2] made to look attractive

Dictionary examples:
a decorative display of plants and flowers a mirror in a decorative frame

Learner example:
It seems that the decorative role of clothes will have disappeared by the year 2050.

decrease

VERB [i or T]  /dɪˈkriːs/

[B1] to become less, or to make something become less

Dictionary example:
During the summer months, rainfall decreases.

Learner example:
The aim to satisfy different interests should not [allow] the quality [to] decrease.

NOUN [C or U]  /ˈdiː.kriːs/

[B1] a reduction

Dictionary example:
There has been a steady decrease in the number of visitors.

Learner example:
Their yellow and black stripe has a mysterious beauty (which is the main reason for the huge decrease [in the] tiger population).

dedicate  /ˈded.i.kət/

Word family:
Nouns: dedication
Verbs: dedicate
Adjectives: dedicated dedicate your life/yourself to sth

[C1] to give most of your energy and time to something

Dictionary example:
She has dedicated her life to helping others.

Learner example:
I have been interested in these matters but due to my lack of time, I haven't been able to dedicate myself to this investigation.

dedicate sth to sb

[C2] to say that something you have made or done is to show your love or respect for someone

Dictionary example:
This book is dedicated to my daughter.

Learner example:
This story is dedicated to my sister to whom I can only feel deep admiration.

dedicated /ˈded.i.keɪ.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: dedication
Verbs: dedicate
Adjectives: dedicated

ADJECTIVE

GIVING TIME/ENERGY

[C1] believing that something is very important and giving a lot of time and energy to it

Dictionary example:
a dedicated teacher

Learner example:
I myself am a totally dedicated sports fan and I believe that basketball is the greatest sport on this earth.

FOR PURPOSE

[C2] designed to be used for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
a dedicated news channel

Learner example:
I require a 2 bedroomed flat with a dedicated parking space.
dedication /ˌded.ɪˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: dedication
- Verbs: dedicate
- Adjectives: dedicated

NOUN [u]

[C1] when you are willing to give a lot of time and energy to something because you believe it is very important

Dictionary example:
She thanked the staff for their dedication and enthusiasm.

Learner example:
Sacrifice and self-denial are cornerstones, together with dedication and commitment to a good cause.

deduce /dɪˈdjuːs/

Word family:
- Nouns: deduction
- Verbs: deduce

VERB [t]

[C2] to decide that something is true using the available information

Dictionary example:
From the contents of his shopping basket, I deduced that he was single.

Learner example:
Two important results are deduced from these figures: living standards in the U.K. have improved dramatically over the last century, and women can be expected to live longer than men.

deduction /dɪˈdʌk.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: deduction
- Verbs: deduce

NOUN [C or U]

AMOUNT

[C1] when an amount or a part of something is taken away from a total, or the amount that is taken Dictionary example:
tax deductions

Learner example:
After the deduction of 5% administration expense and 10% entertainment cost, we contributed the remaining 85% of the surplus to the local hospital.

FACT
[C2] when you decide something using the available information

Dictionary example:
I worked out the facts by a process of deduction.

Learner example:
My deductions obviously went further, and I found relie[f in] thinking that neither [was] the story real nor [had] the lost diary even existed.

deem /diːm/

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C2] to judge or consider something in a particular way

Dictionary example:
The book was deemed to be unsuitable for children.

Learner example:
Were it not for the fact that we regard our job as adequately paid and providing sufficient free time, it could not be deemed a satisfactory one.

deep /diːp/

Word family:
Nouns: depth
Verbs: deepen
Adjectives: deep
Adverbs: deeply

ADJECTIVE

COLOUR
[B1] A deep colour is strong and dark.

Dictionary example:
deep purple

Learner example:
He is tall and has got black hair and beautiful deep brown eyes.
STRONGLY FELT

[B2] A deep feeling or experience is very strong.

Dictionary examples:
deep regret
Their son has been a deep disappointment to them.

Learner example:
I fell into a deep depression, and took an extremely long time to recover.

SOUND

Dictionary example:
a wonderfully deep voice

Learner example:
"I'm not Gary," a strange and deep voice answered, "I'm someone who wants to warn you that tomorrow, you are going to die."

take a deep breath

[B2] to fill your lungs with air

Dictionary example:
Take a deep breath and relax.

Learner example:
But if you took a deep breath after reading the question, don't worry.

one metre/6 ft, etc. deep

[B2] one metre/6 ft, etc. from the top to the bottom, or from the front to the back

Dictionary example:
This end of the pool is two metres deep.

Learner example:
Her father's friend, who is a professional scuba-diver, invited her to do her first immersion on the reefs, 15 metres deep.

a deep sleep

[B2] when someone is sleeping in a way that makes it difficult to wake them up

Dictionary example:
He fell into a deep sleep.

Learner example:
And then, he fell to a deep sleep, putting his sack next to him.

SERIOUS

[C2] serious and difficult for most people to understand

Dictionary example:
a deep and meaningful conversation
Learner example:
I think we really need to go back to the classics to receive something from the deep thinkers.

deep in thought/conversation
[C2] giving all of your attention to what you are thinking or talking about, and not noticing anything else

Dictionary example:
I noticed that Ali and Ben were deep in conversation.

Learner example:
He was deep in thought, chewing on something brown and rectangular.

throw sb in at the deep end
[C2] to make someone start a new and difficult job or activity without helping them or preparing them for it

Dictionary example:
My first job was to organise a huge conference – they really threw me in at the deep end!

Learner example:
Sometimes we can be thrown in at the deep end and have qualms about making a decision.

ADVERB

LONG WAY INTO
[B1] a long way into something from the top or outside

Dictionary examples:
They travelled deep into the forest.
He thrust his hands deep into his pockets.

Learner example:
I just fall deep into the story, into the writer's own world.

deep down
[B2] If you know or feel something deep down, you are certain that it is true, or you feel it strongly although you do not admit it or show it.

Dictionary example:
Deep down, I knew that I was right.

Learner example:
No, because I feel deep down that it's wrong to put animals behind bars.

go/run deep
[C2] If a feeling or a problem goes deep, it is very strong or serious and has existed for a long time.

Dictionary example:
Hostility between the two nations runs deep.
deepen /ˈdiː.pən/

Word family:
Nouns: depth
Verbs: deepen
Adjectives: deep
Adverbs: deeply

VERB [I or T]

KNOWLEDGE
[C1] if someone's knowledge or understanding deepens, it increases.

Dictionary example:
It certainly helped to deepen my understanding of the situation.

Learner example:
Furthermore, not only can travelling give you an opportunity to make a lot of friends, but your knowledge about this world could be broadened and deepened by travelling.

WORSE/STRONGER
[C2] to become worse or stronger, or to make something become worse or stronger

Dictionary example:
The economic crisis has deepened.

Learner example:
My frustration was deepened by the fact that the day before I had written in the diary some libellous remarks concerning my parents.

deply /ˈdiː.pli/

Word family:
Nouns: depth
Verbs: deepen
Adjectives: deep
Adverbs: deeply

ADVERB
[B2] extremely or strongly

Dictionary examples:
I'm deeply grateful to you.
He found her comments deeply irritating/annoying/offensive.
We don't want to get too deeply involved with these people.
After 20 years of marriage, they're still deeply in love.
Learner example:
I was deeply impressed by the long-term cooperation between the zoo and the school.

deer /dɪər/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL deer)
[B2] a large, wild animal that is sometimes hunted for food and has antlers (= long horns) if it is male

Dictionary example:
a deer park

Learner example:
It would be even nicer if there would be some wildlife in the par[k], like deer, walking free all over.

defeat /dɪˈfiːt/

VERB [T] WIN
[B1] to win a victory over someone in a fight, war or competition

Dictionary examples:
Napoleon was defeated by the Duke of Wellington at the battle of Waterloo.
If we can defeat the Italian team, we'll be through to the final.

Learner example:
I still remember when Marcelo became [number] 1 in 1998 after he defeated Andre Agassi in the final of the "fifth Grand Slam".

CAUSE TO FAIL
[B2] to cause someone or something to fail

Dictionary examples:
The proposal to change the rules was narrowly defeated by 201 votes to 196.
I'm afraid anything that involves language learning has always defeated me.

Learner example:
But it was useless, Tina's friends had defeated their plan, and her.

NOUN

LOSING
[B1] [C] when someone loses against someone else in a fight, war or competition
Dictionary examples:
After their defeat in battle, the soldiers surrendered.
Norwich City have suffered their worst defeat of the season.

Learner example:
The whole team will face serious problems, which may lead to big defeats.

FAILING

[B2] [U NO PLURAL] when someone or something is made to fail

Dictionary examples:
At the last General Election, they suffered a massive defeat.
The company was not ready to admit defeat.

Learner example:
After long negotiations with the police, Linda admitted defeat and gave up.

defect /ˈdiː.fekt/

Word family:
Nouns: defect
Adjectives: defective

NOUN [C]
[C1] a fault or problem with someone or something

Dictionary examples:
genetic defects
A mechanical defect caused the plane to crash.

Learner example:
There are also people that are overweight and it is not their own fault, because they suffer from genetic defects.

defective /diˈfektɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: defect
Adjectives: defective

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not in good condition or not working correctly

Dictionary example:
defective goods
Learner example:
The electric installations are defective, some locks are broken, and the ceiling leaks. Under these conditions, it’s no wonder the library has no visitors.

defence /drˈfents/

Word family:
Nouns: defence, defender
Verbs: defend
Adjectives: defensive

NOUN

SPORT
[B1] [c or u] the part of a sports team which tries to prevent the other team from scoring points

Dictionary example:
I play best in defence.

Learner example:
I did basketball exercises for defence.

PROTECTION
[B2] [c or u] protection or support against attack, criticism or infection

Dictionary examples:
When Helen criticized me, Chris came/rushed to my defence. She argued strongly in defence of her actions. A good diet helps build the body’s natural defences.

Learner example:
Movie stars like Brigitte Bardot started strong campaigns against zoos as part of wider battles in defence of animal rights.

MILITARY
[C1] [u] the weapons and military forces that a country uses to protect itself against attack

Dictionary examples:
Government spending on defence is increasing. the defence industry

Learner example:
[The] USA spent only 2% of money on education; it spent quite a large amount of money on defence (18%).
the defence

[C2] the lawyers in a court who work in support of the person who is accused of a crime

Dictionary examples:
He was cross-examined by the defence.
a defence lawyer

Learner example:
One good turn deserves another so Anne decided to influence somehow [the] counsel for the defence.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>defend /dɪˈfend/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: defence, defender

Verbs: defend

Adjectives: defensive

VERB

PROTECT

[B1] [ɪ] to protect someone or something from being attacked, especially by fighting

Dictionary examples:
How can we defend our homeland if we don't have an army?
I'm going to karate lessons to learn how to defend myself.
White blood cells help defend the body against infection.

Learner example:
In the fourth one, you learn to defend yourself by doing Karate and in the last section, you could learn fencing.

SUPPORT

[B2] [ɪ] to support someone or something that is being criticized

Dictionary examples:
The newspaper's editor defended his decision to publish the photos.
They are fighting to defend their beliefs/interests/rights.

Learner example:
Do we know a lot of people nowadays who would be able to take the risk of being a prisoner for 10 or 20 years "just" to defend his beliefs?

LAW

[C1] [ɪ] to try to show in a court that someone is not guilty of a crime
Dictionary example:
He has hired two lawyers to defend him in court.

Learner example:
An in[n]ocent man is arrested and the court ap[p]oints an attorney to defend him.

defender  /dɪˈfendər/

Word family:
Nouns: defence, defender
Verbs: defend
Adjectives: defensive

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone in a sports team who tries to prevent the other team from scoring points, goals, etc.

Dictionary example:
The Brazilian attack put France's defenders under pressure.

Learner example:
I'm mostly a defender, so scoring a goal for the first time gave me great pleasure!

defensive  /dɪˈfɛnt.sɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: defence, defender
Verbs: defend
Adjectives: defensive

ADJECTIVE
[C2] quick to protect yourself from being criticized

Dictionary example:
He's very defensive about his weight.

Learner example:
And because the traveller’s own value system is challenged, he reacts in a defensive way.

deficiency  /dɪˈfɪʃ.ən.sɪ/
Dictionary example:
Parents are complaining of serious deficiencies in the education system.

Learner example:
By studying the effects of rain and ways to handle the expected amount of water, one can plan the laying out of the new roads and correct the deficiencies in the present ones.

NOT ENOUGH

[C2] when you do not have enough of something

Dictionary example:
a vitamin deficiency

Learner example:
Anaemia, protein deficiency and vitamin deficiency are common problem[s] in vegetarians.

deficit /ˈdef.ɪsit/

NOUN [c]
[C1] the amount by which the money that you spend is more than the money that you receive

Dictionary example:
a budget deficit

Learner example:
Unfortunately, this could not be fulfilled by the government due to a huge budget deficit.

define /dɪˈfaɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: definition
Verbs: define
Adjectives: definite, definitive
Adverbs: definitely, indefinitely

VERB [T]

GIVE MEANING
[B2] to say exactly what something means, or what someone or something is like

Dictionary examples:
In the dictionary 'reality' is defined as 'the state of things as they are, rather than as they are imagined to be'.
Your duties are clearly defined in the contract.

Learner example:
I guess you would have to define the word 'fit' to answer that question.
definite /ˈdef.i.nət/

Word family:

Nouns: definition

Verbs: define

Adjectives: definite, definitive

Adverbs: definitely, indefinitely

ADJECTIVE

[B2] certain, fixed and not likely to change

Dictionary examples:
- The date for the meeting – is that definite?
- We need a definite answer by tomorrow.

Learner example:
- I’m really excited about your definite plans to come.

---

definite article /ˌdef.i.nətˈɑː.tɪ.kl/

NOUN [C] SPECIALIZED

[B1] the grammatical name for the word 'the' in English, or the words in other languages which have a similar use

Dictionary example:
- 'The City', referring to the financial area of London, takes a definite article.

---

definitely /ˈdef.i.nə.t.li/

Word family:

Nouns: definition

Verbs: define

Adjectives: definite, definitive

Adverbs: definitely, indefinitely

ADVERB

[B1] without any doubt

Dictionary examples:
- Have you definitely decided to go to America?
- He definitely said he’d be here.

Learner example:
- So if I were you, I would definitely stay in the city.
definitely not
[C1] used after an adverb in short, negative replies

Dictionary example:
"Do you think the work will be finished by June?" "Definitely not."

Learner example:
That's nice, but do you think that money is all that matters? Definitely not!

definition /ˌdef.ɪˈnɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: definition
Verbs: define
Adjectives: definite, definitive
Adverbs: definitely, indefinitely

NOUN

MEANING
[B2] [c] an explanation of the meaning of a word or phrase

Dictionary examples:
a dictionary definition
What is the definition of 'mood'?

Learner example:
He tried to give a definition of friendship.

IMAGE
[C1] [u] how clear an image of something is in a photograph or on a screen

Dictionary examples:
high-definition TV
There is a slight loss of definition in the picture quality on transfer.

Learner example:
And, do not forget to appreciate the keyboard work from the legendary Tony Banks, and the spectacular guitar-playing from Mike Rutherford, all of them surrounded by three huge high-definition screens.

definitive /dɪˈfɪn.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: definition
Verbs: define
Adjectives: definite, definitive
Adverbs: definitely, indefinitely
ADJECTIVE
[C2] certain, clear, and not likely to change

Dictionary example:
a definitive answer

Learner example:
I know many people who offer easy and definitive answers to every question.

defy /dɪˈfar/ [T]

VERB [T]
[C2] to refuse to obey someone or something

Dictionary example:
Some of these children openly defy their teachers.

Learner example:
Jack was the only one, or the most conspic[u]ous of all, to defy him.

defy belief/description/explanation, etc.
[C2] to be impossible to believe/describe/explain, etc.

Dictionary example:
His attitude defies belief.

Learner example:
The horror of th[ose] endless days, when the whole family was as if in suspension not knowing the final diagnosis, defies any description.

degree /dɪˈɡriː/

NOUN
QUALIFICATION
[B1] [c] a qualification given for completing a university course

Dictionary examples:
"What degree did you do at York?" "Geography."
She’s got a physics degree/a degree in physics from Oxford.

Learner example:
I completed my languages degree course at U.P.N University.

AMOUNT
[B2] [c or u] an amount or level of something
Dictionary examples:
This job demands a high degree of skill.
A good society depends on the degree to which people are able to trust each other.

Learner example:
Can you imagine the degree of pollution you absorb in crossing London every morning by bicycle?

a/some degree of sth
[C2] a small level or amount of something

Dictionary examples:
There was some degree of truth in what she said.
The plan involves a degree of risk, but it is worth trying.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, some degree of freedom is obviously necessary for [the] healthy development of a young individual.

---

delay /dɪˈleɪ/

VERB

CAUSE LATENESS
[B1] [ɪ] to cause someone or something to be slow or late

Dictionary example:
I was delayed by traffic.

Learner example:
The roads were crowded with a lot of traffic, so I got really delayed.

NOUN [C or U]

without delay
[B1] immediately

Dictionary example:
This problem needs to be dealt with without delay.

Learner example:
Firstly, the programme began on time at midday without delay.

---

delegate

Word family:
Nouns: delegate, delegation
Verbs: delegate
NOUN [C]  /ˈdel.ɪɡ.ət/
[C1] someone who is sent somewhere to represent a group of people, especially at a meeting

Dictionary example:
The delegates were all given badges to wear.

Learner example:
I participated at the opening of the new Arts Centre as a delegate from my college.

VERB [I or T]  /ˈdel.ɪ.geɪt/
[C2] to give someone else part of your work or some of your responsibilities

Dictionary example:
He needs to learn to delegate or he'll never get everything done.

Learner example:
Let me call him Mr. X. His success is based on various qualities of modern leadership: he delegates as much responsibility as possible to subordinates and gives them all competence to carry out their tasks.

delegation  /ˌdel.ɪˈgeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: delegate, delegation
Verbs: delegate

NOUN [C]
[C2] a group of people who have been chosen to represent a much larger group of people

Dictionary example:
a delegation of Chinese officials

Learner example:
For instance, two weeks ago I had to go to Kiev to work as a translator with a delegation at the Ukrainian Central Bank.

deleate  /dɪˈliːt/

VERB [T]
[B1] to remove something, especially from a computer’s memory

Dictionary example:
All names have been deleted from the report.
Learner example:
I didn't take notice of [the email] and deleted it again.

deliberate /dɪˈlɪbr.ət/

Word family:
Adjectives: deliberate
Adverbs: deliberately

ADJECTIVE
[B2] done intentionally or planned

Dictionary examples:
a deliberate attack/insult/lie
This was a deliberate attempt to mislead us.

Learner example:
I'm sure that his deliberate intention with this was to make us get closer.

deliberately /dɪˈlɪbr.ət.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: deliberate
Adverbs: deliberately

ADVERB
[B2] intentionally

Dictionary example:
I'm sure he says these things deliberately to annoy me.

Learner example:
Many of them choose the bicycle deliberately, just to have at least a small amount of exercise before and after [the] hours they spend sitting at their desks.

delicate /ˈdel.i.keɪt/

ADJECTIVE
SOFT
[B2] soft, light or gentle

Dictionary examples:
a delicate flavour
a delicate shade of pink
Learner example:
She liked his delicate skin and his body’s warmth.

EASY TO DAMAGE
[B2] easy to damage or break

Dictionary examples:
delicate china
Delicate plants need to be kept in a greenhouse during the winter.

Learner example:
Although you told me I can make use of anything, I’d like to make sure that it isn’t a problem to use such delicate things as the computer and the CD player?

NEEDING CARE
[C1] needing to be handled with great care or skill

Dictionary examples:
I need to speak to you about a rather delicate matter/question.
The pay negotiations have reached a delicate point/stage.
Repairing damaged nerves is a very delicate operation/process.

Learner example:
Being aware of the two proposals our local government is considering in order to solve the apparently unavoidable matter of traffic in our beloved city, I feel compelled to offer my views on such a delicate subject.

ATTRACTIVE
[C2] having a thin, attractive shape

Dictionary example:
delicate hands

Learner example:
Suddenly a shadow moved among the trees and a surprisingly beautiful and delicate woman walked towards me.

delicious /ˈdɪliʃəs/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] having a very pleasant taste or smell

Dictionary examples:
a delicious cake
The delicious smell of freshly-made coffee came from the kitchen.
This wine is delicious.

Learner example:
I love it because they make delicious hamburgers.
delight /dɪˈlaɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: delight
Adjectives: delighted, delightful

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] (something or someone that gives) great pleasure, satisfaction or happiness

Dictionary examples:
The children screamed with delight.
My sister's little boy is a real delight.
I read your letter with great delight.
He seems to take great delight in teasing his sister.

Learner example:
At midnight fireworks covered the concert hall and I, as well as the rest of [the] spectators, felt excitement and delight.

delighted /dɪˈlaɪ.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: delight
Adjectives: delighted, delightful

ADJECTIVE
[B1] very pleased

Dictionary examples:
We're delighted with our new house.
I was delighted at/by your news.
I'm absolutely delighted that you can come.
We'd be delighted to come to dinner on Friday.

Learner example:
I've just seen your letter and I'm really delighted to have won the first prize in your competition.

delightful /dɪˈlaɪt.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: delight
Adjectives: delighted, delightful

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very pleasant, attractive, or enjoyable
Dictionary example:
We had a delightful evening.

Learner example:
A table was laid with a lot of delightful food and a beautiful cake was in the centre of it.

deliver /dɪˈlɪv.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: delivery
Verbs: deliver

VERB

TAKE
[B1] [I or T] to take things such as goods, letters and parcels to people's houses or places of work

Dictionary examples:
Mail is delivered to our office twice a day.
The shop is delivering our new bed on Thursday.

Learner example:
You have to deliver newspapers to the town centre's shops.

deliver a speech/talk, etc.
[B2] to speak formally to a group of people

Dictionary example:
The priest delivered a passionate speech against war.

Learner example:
Then, he delivered a speech to the public.

PROMISE
[C1] [I or T] to achieve or do something that you have promised to do, or that people expect you to do

Dictionary example:
The company failed to deliver the high-quality service that we expect.

Learner example:
I can also help as a team-leader to help others to deliver the right services.
delivery /drˈlɪv.ər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: delivery
Verbs: deliver

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] when things such as goods, letters, or parcels are taken to people's houses or places of work

Dictionary examples:
a delivery van
We get two deliveries of mail a day.
You can pay for the carpet on delivery.
We expect to take delivery of our new car next week.

Learner example:
I called for a delivery [from] Pizza Hut and after that went to study.

demand /drˈmɑːnd/

Word family:
Nouns: demand
Verbs: demand
Adjectives: demanding

VERB [T]
REQUEST
[B1] to ask for something in a way that shows that you do not expect to be refused

Dictionary examples:
I demanded an explanation.
I demand to see the manager.
She demanded that he return the books he borrowed from her.

Learner example:
I demand a full refund or I will be forced to take this matter further.

NEED
[B2] to need something such as time or effort

Dictionary example:
This job demands a high level of concentration.

Learner example:
I would say that driving a car demands a lot of responsibility.
REQUEST
[B1] [c] a strong request

Dictionary examples:
You can’t give in to children’s demands all the time.
The government is unlikely to agree to the rebels' demands for independence.
They received a final demand for payment.

Learner example:
Of course only when my demands are logical.

NEED
[B2] [u] a need for something to be sold or supplied

Dictionary example:
There was little demand for tickets.

Learner example:
I believe we [have] to stop the demand for ivory!

in demand
[C1] wanted or needed in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Good teachers are always in demand.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, people will always use cars and vehicles, so petrol will always be in demand.

demanding /'demændɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: demand
Verbs: demand
Adjectives: demanding

ADJECTIVE
[B2] needing a lot of time, attention or energy

Dictionary examples:
She’s a very demanding child.
a demanding job

Learner example:
Although the job was demanding I enjoyed it.
democracy /dɪˈmɒk.rə.si/

Word family:
Nouns: democracy
Adjectives: democratic

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a system of government in which people elect their leaders, or a country with this system

Dictionary example:
The early 1990s saw the spread of democracy in Eastern Europe.

Learner example:
From then on it represented democracy and freedom until Hitler took over power in January 1933.

democratic /ˌdem.əˈkræt.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: democracy
Adjectives: democratic

ADJECTIVE
[B2] based on the principles of democracy

Dictionary example:
We must accept the results of a democratic election.

Learner example:
If we regard ourselves as modern people, we must be democratic enough to release them.

demolish /dɪˈmɒl.ɪʃ/

VERB [T]

DESTROY
[B2] to completely destroy a building, especially in order to use the land for something else

Dictionary example:
A number of houses were demolished so that the supermarket could be built.

Learner example:
The building was demolished, and so was the dream of a house of our own.

PROVE WRONG
[C2] to show that an idea or argument is wrong
Dictionary example:
He completely demolished my argument.

demonstrate  /ˈdem.ən.strət/

Word family:
Nouns: demonstration
Verbs: demonstrate

VERB

PROVE
[B2] [ɪ] to show or prove that something exists or is true

Dictionary examples:
These problems demonstrate the importance of strategic planning.
These figures clearly demonstrate the size of the economic problem facing the country.
Research has demonstrated that babies can recognize their mother’s voice very soon after birth.

Learner example:
The results were amazing, the group managed to demonstrate that the learning capacity increased a lot with respect to traditional methods.

MARCH
[B2] [ɪ] to march or stand with a group of people to show that you disagree with or support someone or something

Dictionary example:
Thousands of people gathered to demonstrate against the new proposals for universities.

Learner example:
Maybe the RSPCA should demonstrate, to show that it’s not acceptable. We have to stand up for their rights! Yesterday I heard that animal rights activists have met the prime minister.

SHOW HOW
[C1] [ɪ] to show something and explain how it works

Dictionary examples:
The teacher demonstrated how to use the equipment.
He’s got a job demonstrating kitchen equipment in a department store.

Learner example:
I could demonstrate to people how to create compost pits and use kitchen waste to generate compost for their gardens.

EXPRESS
[C2] [ɪ] to express or show that you have a feeling, quality, or ability

Dictionary example:
He has demonstrated a genuine interest in the project.
Learner example:
As a result, he does not allow himself to demonstrate any emotion apart from anger.

demonstration /ˌdem.ənˈstreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: demonstration
Verbs: demonstrate

NOUN

MARCH
[B2] [c] when a group of people march or stand together to show that they disagree with or support something or someone

Dictionary examples:
The students are holding a demonstration to protest against the increase in their fees.
Protesters staged an anti-war demonstration in front of the US embassy.

Learner example:
There were many demonstrations and violence.

SHOWING
[C1] [c or u] showing how to do something, or how something works

Dictionary examples:
Let me give you a demonstration of how the camera works.
a cooking demonstration

Learner example:
Some of our workers will give you a demonstration on how they produce, step by step, some of the world's best-known rings and necklaces.

PROOF
[C1] [c or u] proof that something exists or is true

Dictionary example:
This disaster is a clear demonstration of the need for tighter controls.

Learner example:
Most women are now allowed to wear trousers and this is a demonstration of the change of women's role in society throughout the years.
denial /ˈdɪn.əl/

Word family:

Nouns: denial
Verbs: deny
Adjectives: undeniable
Adverbs: undeniably

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] when you say that something is not true

Dictionary example:
a denial of his guilt

Learner example:
Although everyone past forty claims to be rel[i]ved not to be twenty anymore, most of them miss the excitement of the days when everything was less serious, when fun was [a] top priority and responsibilities lost somewhere close to denial.

denim /ˈdɛn.ɪm/

NOUN [U]

[B2] thick, strong, cotton cloth, often blue in colour, used especially for making jeans

Dictionary example:
a denim jacket and jeans

Learner example:
If you have time to go shopping you could buy me a pair of blue denim jeans (size 30).

dense /ˈdɛnts/

Word family:

Nouns: density
Adjectives: dense Adverbs: densely

ADJECTIVE

[B2] thick and difficult to see through

Dictionary examples:
dense fog
a dense forest

Learner example:
"Don't [be afraid] and don't run" shouted someone from the dense forest.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>densely</th>
<th>/ˈdent.sli/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: density</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: dense</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: densely</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADVERB</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] with a lot of things close together</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>England was once a densely wooded country.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mexico City is one of the most densely populated cities in the world.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It’s densely populated and with that the ugliness [of] densely populated places follows.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>density</th>
<th>/ˈden.sə.ti/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: density</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: dense</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: densely</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C or U]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] the number of people or things in a place when compared with the size of the place</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The area has a high population density.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>However, the factors of population density and transport systems in some regions must not be ignored during this analysis.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>dental</th>
<th>/ˈden.təl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: dentist</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: dental</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] relating to the teeth</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>dental treatment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
In Kingsthorp you have lots of GPs and dental surgeons.

deny /dɪˈnær/

Word family:
Nouns: denial
Verbs: deny
Adjectives: undeniable
Adverbs: undeniably

VERB [T]

NOT TRUE
[B2] to say that something is not true

Dictionary examples:
Neil denies that he broke the window, but I'm sure he did.
Neil denies breaking the window.

Learner example:
We cannot deny that technology has changed our lives.

REFUSE
[B2] to not allow someone to have or do something

Dictionary examples:
Her request for time off work was denied.
No one should be denied a good education.
The goalkeeper denied him his third goal.
I was denied the opportunity of learning French at school.

Learner example:
Should wild animals be kept in cages, and denied their freedom so that we can have the pleasure of watching them at zoos?

deo|ran|t /diˈɔrənt/

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a substance that you put on your body to prevent or hide unpleasant smells

Dictionary example:
I always use deodorant.

Learner example:
On the other hand, men require regular supplies of shaving lotions, shampoo, deodorant, and many more things too.

738 depart /dɪˈpɑːt/

Word family:
Nouns: departure
Verbs: depart

VERB [i] FORMAL
[B1] to go away or leave, especially on a journey

Dictionary examples:
The plane departs at 6.00 a.m.
The train for London departs from Platform 2.

Learner example:
The boat departs from King’s Bridge.

---

departure /dɪˈpɑː.tʃər/

Word family:
Nouns: departure
Verbs: depart

NOUN [C or U]
LEAVING
[B1] when someone or something leaves a place, especially to start a journey to another place

Dictionary examples:
There are several departures for Paris every day.
Our departure was delayed because of bad weather.

Learner example:
Now I am just waiting for the day of departure.

---

depend /dɪˈpend/

Word family:
Nouns: independence, dependence
Verbs: depend
Adjectives: dependent, independent
Adverbs: independently it/that depends
[B1] used to say that you are not certain about something because other things affect your answer

Dictionary example:
"Are you coming out tonight?" "It depends where you're going."

Learner example:
It depends how you want to spend your holidays.

dependence  /dɪˈpen.dəns/

Word family:
Nouns: independence, dependence
Verbs: depend
Adjectives: dependent, independent Adverbs: independently

noun [u]
[C2] when you need someone or something all the time in order to exist or continue

Dictionary example:
Our society needs to reduce its dependence on the car.

Learner example:
The dependence on oil is a menace because oil reserves will disappear and because at this time we have no other invention to replace it.

dependent  /dɪˈpen.dənt/

Word family:
Nouns: independence, dependence
Verbs: depend
Adjectives: dependent, independent
Adverbs: independently

Adjective
NEEDING SUPPORT
[B2] needing the support of something or someone in order to continue existing or operating
Dictionary examples:
He has three dependent children.
It’s very easy to become dependent on sleeping pills.

Learner example:
If I went to school by car I would be dependent on my father.

dependent on/upon sth
[C1] influenced by or decided by something

Dictionary example:
The amount of tax you pay is dependent on how much you earn.

Learner example:
The benefits for a traveller will be dependent upon the purpose for which someone travels.

depict /dɪˈpɪkt/

VERB [T]
[C2] to represent someone or something in a picture or story

Dictionary example:
The cartoon depicts the president as a vampire.

Learner example:
A picture depicts an image that allows us different feelings, depending on the moment and the sensations we experienced while the picture was shot.

deposit /dɪˈpɒ.zɪt/

NOUN [C]

BUYING
[B1] a payment that you make immediately when you decide to buy something, as proof that you will really buy it

Dictionary example:
They've put down a deposit on a house.

Learner example:
How many days in advance do we have to make our reservation? I also wonder if there is a deposit that we have to pay.

BANK
[C1] an amount of money that you pay into a bank
Dictionary example:
to make a deposit

Learner example:
Now, you can [make a] deposit, have a record of your expenses, transfer funds from one account to another and even pay your credit card.

RENT
[C1] an amount of money that you pay when you rent something, and that is given back to you when you return it without any damage

Dictionary example:
Did you get your deposit back?

Learner example:
I told the estate agent I was interested, paid my deposit and moved in within a week.

SUBSTANCE
[C2] a layer of a substance that has developed from a natural or chemical process

Dictionary example:
deposits of iron ore

Learner example:
When these foods are taken in excess quantities, the digestive system converts the bits that are useful to the body and the rest are stored as fat deposits in different parts of the body.

VERB [T]
[C1] to put money into a bank or valuable things into a safe place

Dictionary example:
She deposited $150,000 in a Swiss bank account.

Learner example:
Now, you can deposit [money], have a record of your expenses, transfer funds from one account to another and even pay your credit card.

---

depressed  /dɪˈprest/

Word family:
Nouns: depression
Adjectives: depressed, depressing

ADJECTIVE

UNHAPPY
[B1] unhappy and without hope for the future
Dictionary examples:
He seemed a bit depressed about his work situation.
She became deeply depressed when her husband died.

Learner example:
I felt depressed and decided to go to live in another city.

ECONOMY
[C2] A depressed country, area, or economy does not have enough jobs or business activity.

Dictionary example:
an economically depressed area

Learner example:
Our area is getting closer to a depressed area rather than a peaceful and nice one.

depressing /dɪˈpres.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: depression
Adjectives: depressed, depressing

ADJECTIVE
[B2] making you feel unhappy and without hope for the future

Dictionary examples:
I find this weather so depressing.
Her letter made depressing reading.
It was very depressing watching the news on television tonight.
It's depressing to think that we've got five more years of this government!

Learner example:
It was really depressing, seeing people drinking and having fun [when] I just had to work.

depression /dɪˈprɛʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: depression
Adjectives: depressed, depressing

NOUN [C or U]

UNHAPPINESS
[B2] when you feel very unhappy, or a mental illness that makes you feel very unhappy and anxious for long periods
Dictionary example:
If you suffer from depression, it's best to get professional help.

Learner example:
My mum always worried about my sister because of her shyness and depression.

ECONOMY

[C2] a time when there is not much business activity

Dictionary example:
The stock market crash marked the start of a severe depression.

Learner example:
We are just coming out of a financial depression, and companies have had to lay off thousands of people.

depression  /ˌdep.rɪˈveɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: deprivation
Verbs: deprive
Adjectives: deprived

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] the state of not having enough of something

Dictionary example:
sleep deprivation

Learner example:
Often it has been seen that children suffering from extreme deprivation in their childhood can become deviant as they grow up.

deprive  /dɪˈpraɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: deprivation
Verbs: deprive
Adjectives: deprived

VERB [T]

[B2] to take something, especially something necessary or pleasant, away from someone

Dictionary examples:
He claimed that he had been deprived of his freedom/rights.
You can't function properly when you're deprived of sleep.
Learner example:
We shouldn’t deprive our music fans of this wonderful event, that can only enrich our city’s cultural life.

deprived /drˈpraɪvd/

Word family:
Nouns: deprivation
Verbs: deprive
Adjectives: deprived

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not having enough food, money, and the things that you need to have a normal life

Dictionary example: children from deprived backgrounds

Learner example:
It is true that possibly, because of a deprived childhood in which every purchase had to be considered carefully, a person learns to manage his finances.

depth /depθ/

Word family:
Nouns: depth
Verbs: deepen
Adjectives: deep
Adverbs: deeply

NOUN
DISTANCE DOWN
[B1] [ɔr ʌ] the distance down either from the top of something to the bottom, or to a distance below the top surface of something

Dictionary examples:
the depth of a lake/pond
There are very few fish at depths below 3000 metres.
The river froze to a depth of over a metre.

Learner example:
But suddenly Laura did not feel any fear anymore and within a second she jumped into the air and fell into the endless depth of the Grand Canyon.
SERIOUSNESS

[B2] [c or u] when you have serious qualities or the ability to think seriously about something

Dictionary examples:
Terry lacks depth – he’s a very superficial person.
Her writing shows astonishing depth.
Jo has hidden depths.

Learner example:
I think that the main reason why someone has to read this book twice is the strength and depth of the two main characters: Donald Woods and Steve Biko.

in depth

[B2] in a very detailed way

Dictionary example:
With access to the Internet, students can do their homework in greater depth.

Learner example:
I would love to learn English in more depth during the summer.

AMOUNT

[C2] [u] how much someone knows or feels about something

Dictionary example:
She was amazed at the depth of his knowledge.

Learner example:
More and more people seem to take refuge in the depth of his philosophy now.

out of your depth

[C2] not having the knowledge, experience, or skills to deal with a particular subject or situation

Dictionary example:
When they start talking about philosophy, I’m completely out of my depth.

Learner example:
It was my first day of school. What I can remember is that I really felt out of my depth: my parents were so happy that I couldn’t succeed in telling them that I was terribly frightened and that [the only] thing that I wanted was my doll.

deputy /ˈdep.jə.ti/

NOUN [c]

[C1] someone who has the second most important job in an organization
Dictionary example:
the deputy Prime Minister

Learner example:
If you would like to have [a] teacher on your side, for general questions, I would propose our deputy principal Mr Brown.

derive /dɪˈraɪv/

VERB

derive comfort/pleasure, etc. from sth
[C2] to get a positive feeling or advantage from someone or something

Dictionary example:
I derive great pleasure from gardening.

Learner example:
Last but not least, it is a fact that people derive pleasure from being in a position to have the things they desire and can afford to buy.

descend /dɪˈsend/

Word family:

Nouns: descendant

Verbs: descend

VERB [I or T] FORMAL

[B2] to go or come down

Dictionary examples:
The path descended steeply into the valley.
Jane descended the stairs.

Learner example:
Paul slowly descended to the river and sat down on the grassy bank.

descendant /dɪˈsend.ənt/

Word family:

Nouns: descendant

Verbs: descend

NOUN [C]

[C2] someone who is related to someone who lived a long time ago
Dictionary example:
She is a descendant of Queen Victoria.

Learner example:
Someone born poor in the country will never have a chance to heighten his social status, and generations later, his descendants will be poor as well.

---

description /dɪˈskrɪp.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: description
Verbs: describe

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] something that tells you what something or someone is like

Dictionary examples:
Write a description of your favourite seaside resort.
Your essay contains too much description, and not enough discussion of the issues.
She has given the police a very detailed/full description of the robber.

Learner example:
Here's a description of [my bedroom].

---

deserted /dɪˈzɜː.tɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If a place is deserted, it has no people in it.

Dictionary example:
a deserted street

Learner example:
Too often have I seen deserted city centres caused by loss of trade, centres subject to graffiti, dirt and vandalism.

---

deserve /dɪˈzɜːv/

VERB [T]
[B1] If you deserve something good or bad, it should happen to you because of the way you have behaved.
Dictionary examples:
After all that hard work, you deserve a holiday.
Chris deserves our special thanks for all his efforts.
I hope they get the punishment they deserve.
They certainly deserved to win that match.

Learner example:
I wish you happiness, you deserve it.

design /dɪˈzaɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: design, designer
Verbs: design

NOUN

PLANNING
[B1] [u] the way in which something is planned and made

Dictionary examples:
I don't like the design of this kettle.
The building was originally Victorian in design.
a serious design fault
The car has some excellent design features.

Learner example:
I was looking to find a good bicycle with a nice design.

PROCESS
[B1] [u] the art of making plans or drawings for something

Dictionary examples:
She's an expert on kitchen/software design.
He's studying design at college.

Learner example:
You know that my subject is design.

DECORATION
[B1] [c] a pattern or decoration

Dictionary example:
a floral design

Learner example:
Last year I made and sold more than 200 pairs of knitted socks and because of that I got a prize from The Swedish Handcraft Company for [the] wonderful and original design on my socks.
DRAWING
[C1] [c] a drawing which shows how an object, machine, or building will be made

Dictionary example:
Engineers are working on the new designs.

Learner example:
To finish some of your designs on time you could take them home and continue them there or you could work for longer in your office.

VERB

PLAN
[B1] [r] to draw or plan something before making it

Dictionary examples:
Who designed this building/dress/furniture?
This range of clothing is specially designed for shorter women.

Learner example:
It was built in 1570 and designed by [the] Italian architect Morando.

be designed for/to do sth
[B2] to have been planned or done for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
This dictionary is designed for advanced learners of English.
These measures are designed to reduce pollution.

Learner example:
The end-of-conference party is designed to give rough ideas about many different cultures.

designer /dɪˈzaɪ.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: design, designer
Verbs: design

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who draws and plans how something will be made

Dictionary example:
a fashion/software designer

Learner example:
After five months, she was working as a co-designer with the best Italian designer, although she was just a student.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] made by a famous or fashionable designer
Dictionary examples:
designer jeans/sunglasses
I can't afford designer labels/designer label clothes.

Learner example:
People like designer clothes like Armani, Chanel [and] so on.

desirable /dɪˈzaɪərə.bl/
Word family:
Nouns: desire
Verbs: desire
Adjectives: desirable, desired, undesirable

ADJECTIVE
[B2] worth having and wanted by most people

Dictionary examples:
Reducing class sizes in schools is a desirable aim.
It's regarded as a highly desirable job.
The house is in a very desirable area of the city.

Learner example:
It is desirable that they include showers, although a bath tub would be nice, too.

desire /dɪˈzaɪər/
Word family:
Nouns: desire
Verbs: desire
Adjectives: desirable, desired, undesirable

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a strong feeling that you want something

Dictionary examples:
I certainly have no desire to have children.
There is a strong desire for peace among the people.
She had a strong desire to go back to her home country before she died.
Several people have expressed a desire to see the report.

Learner example:
I had such a desire to go to the disco that I decided to go even without [my] parents' permission.

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C1] to want something
Dictionary example:
You can have whatever you desire.

Learner example:
Indeed, the location of this hotel will allow all of us to do whatever we desire.

desired /dɪˈzaɪəd/

Word family:
Nouns: desire
Verbs: desire
Adjectives: desirable, desired, undesirable

ADJECTIVE

the desired effect/result/shape, etc.
[C2] the effect/result/shape, etc. that is wanted

Dictionary example:
Her medicine seems to have had the desired effect.

Learner example:
The sentence had had the desired effect of calming down the clients.

desktop /ˈdesk.tɒp/

NOUN [C]

COMPUTER SCREEN
[B2] a computer screen that contains icons that represent files, programs and other features of the computer

Dictionary example:
The menu bar with its windows is one of the features of the desktop.

COMPUTER
[B2] (also desktop computer) a computer that is small enough to fit on a desk

Dictionary example:
I can download from my desktop to my mobile phone.

Learner example:
The computer I bought is a beautiful, new, white desktop.
despair  /dɪˈspeər/

Word family:
Nouns: despair, desperation
Adjectives: desperate
Adverbs: desperately

NOUN [u]
[B2] a feeling of having no hope

Dictionary examples:
a mood/sense of despair
They're the depths of despair over/about the money they've lost.

Learner example:
Almost in despair, I came out of the bathroom and tried my best to look for a candle.

desperate  /ˈdes.pər.ət/

Word family:
Nouns: despair, desperation
Adjectives: desperate
Adverbs: desperately

ADJECTIVE
WITHOUT HOPE
[B2] extremely worried or frightened and ready to do anything to change the bad situation you are in

Dictionary examples:
The doctors made one last desperate attempt/effort to save the boy's life.
They made a desperate appeal for help.

Learner example:
I was almost desperate, trying to think about any possible solution to my problem, but the more I thought, the bigger was my problem, because hours went by.

NEEDING
[B2] needing or wanting something very much

Dictionary examples:
They are desperate for help.
He was desperate to tell someone his good news.

Learner example:
She was 19 and in desperate need of a boyfriend.
SERIOUS
[C2] A desperate situation is very serious or bad.

Dictionary example:
The economy is in a really desperate situation.

Learner example:
In desperate situations one may even think that our only task in this world is to face and try to overcome everyday problems.

desperately /ˈdes.pər.ət.li/

Word family:
Nouns: despair, desperation
Adjectives: desperate
Adverbs: desperately

SERIOUSLY
[B2] extremely or very much

Dictionary examples:
He was desperately ill.
I'm not desperately keen on football.
He was desperately in love with her.
They desperately wanted a child.

Learner example:
I desperately need a bicycle as a bicycle competition is going to take place in our city.

TRYING EVERYTHING
[B2] in a way that shows you are frightened and ready to try anything to change a situation

Dictionary example:
They fought desperately for their lives.

Learner example:
He desperately tried to keep the stalking sharks at bay, but he couldn't succeed.

desperation /ˌdes.pəˈrer.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: despair, desperation
Adjectives: desperate
Adverbs: desperately
NOUN [u]
[C2] the state of being desperate

Dictionary example:
I was overcome by a sense of desperation.

Learner example:
Many are driven to desperation and turn to stealing to survive.

despite /dɪˈspært/

PREPOSITION
[B1] used to say that something happened or is true, although something else makes this seem not probable

Dictionary examples:
I still enjoyed the week despite the weather.
Despite claims that the product is safe, many people have stopped buying it.
He managed to eat a big lunch despite having eaten an enormous breakfast.

Learner example:
Despite having to share a bedroom with my three cousins, I feel very comfortable.

despite the fact that [B2] used to refer to a situation which is surprising in relation to something that is true or happens

Dictionary example:
The company has been forced to reduce its price, despite the fact that the offer has been very popular.

Learner example:
The advantages of the kind of life that people had years ago is that they could eat more fruit and vegetables than us. However, there are advantages for us too, because despite the fact that we eat more fast food, we do more exercise than they [did].

destination /ˌdes.tɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the place where someone or something is going

Dictionary examples:
We arrived at our destination tired and hungry.
His letter never reached its destination.
The Caribbean is a popular tourist/holiday destination.
Learner example:
The journey to the destination lasted about an hour.

destiny /ˈdes.tɪn.i/

NOUN

FUTURE

[C1] [c] the things that will happen to someone in the future

Dictionary example:
At last she feels in control of her own destiny.

Learner example:
It was our parents' destiny, it is our destiny and is going to be our children's destiny, too.

POWER

[C1] [u] a power that some people believe controls what will happen in the future

Dictionary example:
Nick said it was destiny that we met.

Learner example:
If anybody ever asked me if I believed in destiny, I would hesitate.

destroy /dɪˈstrɔɪ/

Word family:

Nouns: destruction

Verbs: destroy

VERB [T]

[B1] to damage something so badly that it does not exist or cannot be used

Dictionary examples:
Most of the old part of the city was destroyed by bombs during the war.
The accident seemed to have completely/totally destroyed his confidence.

Learner example:
The film described a terrible period of our history when a lot of people died and a lot of cities were destroyed.
determination /drˈstrəkʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: destruction

Verbs: destroy

NOUN [u]

[B2] when something is destroyed

Dictionary examples:
Many people are very concerned about the destruction of the rainforests.

Unusually high winds left a trail of destruction over southern Britain.

Weapons of mass destruction

Learner example:
With the ongoing industrialisation and, for example, the destruction of the rainforest, men have taken or destroyed the natural places of several hundred species all over the world.

detached /drˈtætʃt/

ADJECTIVE

BUILDING

[C1] a detached building is one that is not joined to another building

Dictionary example:
They have a detached 5-bedroom house in Surrey.

Learner example:
I live in a detached house in the countryside with my two friends, who are married.

NOT EMOTIONAL

[C2] If someone is detached, they do not feel involved with someone or emotional about something.

Dictionary example:
As a nurse, I see some very distressing things, but I try to stay detached.

Learner example:
Whereas Olivia was very much attracted by and interested in India's mysteries, Douglas had a much more detached view of India.

detail /ˈdiː.təl/

Word family:

Nouns: detail

Adjectives: detailed
FACT

[B1] [c] one of many facts or pieces of information about something

Dictionary examples:
She insisted on telling me every single detail.
We don’t know the full/precise details of the story yet.

Learner example:
Consequently we [want] to know every single detail about them and their lives.

in detail

[B1] including or considering all the information about something or every part of something

Dictionary examples:
We haven’t discussed the matter in detail yet.
The book described her sufferings in great detail.

Learner example:
I’m really sorry that I didn’t write back earlier, but to make up for this I will answer your questions in detail!

go into detail/s

[B2] to tell or include all the facts about something

Dictionary examples:
I won’t go into detail over the phone, but I’ve been having a few health problems recently.
The longer document goes into more detail about the experiments.

Learner example:
In one of his books he really goes into detail [about] how children treat other children [who] have difficulties with their “new” [language].

detailed /ˈdiː.teɪld/

Word family:
Nouns: detail
Adjectives: detailed

ADJECTIVE

[B2] giving a lot of information

Dictionary example:
A witness gave a detailed description of the man.

Learner example:
We ran until we arrived at the police station where we gave a detailed description of that man and what had happened.
detect  /dɪˈtekt/

Word family:
Nouns: detective
Verbs: detect

VERB [T]
[C1] to discover or notice something, especially something that is difficult to see, hear, smell, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Some sounds cannot be detected by the human ear.
This special camera can detect bodies by their heat.

Learner example:
The kind of contamination that can be detected and observed most easily is the air pollution.

detective  /dɪˈtek.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: detective
Verbs: detect

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone, especially a police officer, whose job is to discover information about a crime

Dictionary examples:
a private detective detective stories

Learner example:
I know that you love detective stories.

deteriorate  /dɪˈtɪə.ri.ə.rɪt/

VERB [I]
[C1] to become worse

Dictionary example:
Her condition deteriorated rapidly.

Learner example:
Otherwise, the situation will deteriorate more and more.
determination /dɪˌtɜː.mɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: determination
Verbs: determine
Adjectives: determined

NOUN [u]

[B2] when someone continues trying to do something, although it is very difficult

Dictionary example:
Andy Murray will need great determination and skill to win this match.

Learner example:
Mandela tried to better the political situation of South Africa [-] he was strong enough to fight, he had determination.

---

determine /drˈtɜː.min/

Word family:
Nouns: determination
Verbs: determine
Adjectives: determined

VERB [T]

FIND

[C1] to discover the facts or truth about something

Dictionary examples:
The doctors are still unable to determine what is wrong.
You can use a simple test to determine whether the paint contains lead.

Learner example:
Our feelings about the issue led our class to direct a survey among local residents in Fordham, in order to determine statistically how often the latter use Greendale Park.

DECIDE

[C1] to decide what will happen

Dictionary examples:
Her exam results will determine which university she goes to.
The army's response was determined by a combination of political and social factors.

Learner example:
It considers the reasons for these developments and highlights the trends which will determine the future of the job market.
determined /dɪˈtɜː.mɪnd/

Word family:

Nouns: determination

Verbs: determine

Adjectives: determined

ADJECTIVE

[B2] wanting to do something very much, and not letting anyone stop you

Dictionary examples:
I'm determined to get this piece of work finished today.
She's sure to get the job she wants – she's a very determined person.

Learner example:
I am determined to study computer engineering and pursue my education overseas.

determiner /dɪˈtɜː.mɪ.nər/

NOUN [C] SPECIALIZED

[B2] in grammar, a word which is used before a noun to show which particular example of the noun you are referring to

Dictionary example:
In the phrases 'my first boyfriend' and 'that strange woman', the words 'my' and 'that' are determiners.

deterrent /dɪˈter.ənt/

NOUN [C]

[C2] something that stops people doing something because they are afraid of what will happen if they do

Dictionary example:
They've installed a security camera as a deterrent to thieves.

Learner example:
I also think that the assistance that the state provides acts as a deterrent in the sense that, in Britain for example, the income support or family credit can actually be higher than what some people can earn in a week of hard work: so, what is the point of working?
detrimental /ˌdet.riˈmen.təl/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] harmful or damaging

Dictionary example:

a detrimental effect

Learner example:

The truth is that the situation [in] which we now find ourselves due to the industrialisation of countries has reached crisis point and will probably have a detrimental effect on the environment in the years to come.

devastated /ˈdev.ə.steɪ.tɪd/

Word family:

Nouns: devastation

Adjectives: devastated, devastating

ADJECTIVE

[C1] very shocked and upset

Dictionary examples:

She was devastated when her husband died.

They were devastated by the terrible news.

Learner example:

To begin with, everyone was devastated [at] how long we had to wait at the airport, as the flight to Dublin was late.

devastating /ˈdev.ə.steɪ.tɪŋ/

Word family:

Nouns: devastation

Adjectives: devastated, devastating

ADJECTIVE

SHOCKING

[C1] making someone very shocked and upset

Dictionary example:

Despite the devastating news, no one is giving up hope.

Learner example:

It can be really devastating for such [a] person to experience it.
DESTROYING
[C2] causing a lot of damage or destruction

Dictionary example:
The fire has had a devastating effect on the local wildlife.

Learner example:
We are all aware of the devastating impact that factories have on the environment, not to mention the cars whose numbers multiply day-by-day.

devastation /ˌdev.əˈsteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: devastation
Adjectives: devastated, devastating

NOUN [U]
[C2] serious damage caused by a violent event

Dictionary example:
The tornado has already left a trail of devastation through four states from Nebraska to Missouri.

Learner example:
As you might know, this is one of the few green areas that has survived the devastation suffered by our town during the past five years.

develop /dɪˈvel.əp/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelop
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

VERB
CHANGE
[B1] [I or T] to (cause something to) grow or change and become more advanced

Dictionary examples:
The baby develops inside the mother for nine months.
Over time, their acquaintance developed into a lasting friendship.
This exercise is designed to develop the shoulder and back muscles.
I'm looking for a job which will enable me to develop my skills/talents.

Learner example:
Therefore it's an important tool that is used to develop new friendships.
MAKE
[B1] [ɪ] to make something new such as a product

Dictionary examples:
Scientists are developing new drugs all the time.
The company is spending $650 million on developing new products/technology.

Learner example:
With more free time we can develop new technology, learn more about ourselves and the world that surrounds us.

ILLNESS
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] If you develop an illness or problem, or if it develops, you start to suffer from it.

Dictionary examples:
The study showed that one in twelve women is likely to develop breast cancer.
She’s developed some very strange habits lately.

Learner example:
They often developed the same symptoms as can be seen among mentally disturbed human beings.

HAPPEN
[C2] [ɪ] to start to happen or exist

Dictionary example:
Further problems may develop if you do not deal with this now.

Learner example:
But it’s not only financial problems which can develop as a result of more people living longer in a society.

developed /dɪˈvel.əpt/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelop
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

ADJECTIVE
[B2] describes a country or region of the world with an advanced level of technology, industry, etc.

Dictionary example:
a developed country/nation
Learner example:
To conclude I would like to say that the governments of all developed countries wouldn't have been so concerned about the so-called "problem 2000" if the computer had not been so important for modern society.

developer /dɪˈvelə.pər/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelop
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

NOUN [C]

PRODUCTS
[C1] someone whose job is to create new products, especially computer products such as software

Dictionary example:
We mostly use developers based in India.

Learner example:
For example, we may have the top website developers in China, but quite often the[ir] skills are [restrict]ed by poor IT infrastructures.

LAND
[C2] someone who buys land or buildings to improve them and sell them for more money

Dictionary example:
All the land was bought up by developers.

Learner example:
In some cities these days, a lot of building developers bought spaces above some shops to either develop [them] as a business or develop them as flats.

developing /dɪˈvel.ə.pɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelop
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

ADJECTIVE
[B2] describes a country or region of the world which is poor and has few industries
Dictionary example:
the developing world/countries/nations

Learner example:
Nowadays, both developed and developing countries spend a lot of money on computerization.

development /drˈvel.əp.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelop
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

NOUN

CHANGE
[B1] [u] when someone or something grows or changes and becomes more advanced

Dictionary examples:
healthy growth and development
The programme traced the development of popular music through the ages.
a development project in Pakistan

Learner example:
There are some machines which have helped in my development, and others which help to make my life easier.

PROCESS
[B1] [u] the process of developing something new

Dictionary examples:
the development of new drugs
Mr Berkowitz is in charge of product development.

Learner example:
Owing to the great speed of technological development, people need to lead a faster life.

EVENT
[B2] [c] something new that happens and changes a situation

Dictionary examples:
an important development in the fuel crisis
Phone me if there are any new developments.

Learner example:
There have been impressive developments in technology lately.

START
[C2] [u] when something starts to happen or exist
Dictionary example:
Smoking encourages the development of cancer.

Learner example:
The aims taken into account in the establishment of the "Health fund" are varied and cover different areas such as the education of the general public on the issues of health itself, [and] the threat posed by the development of cancer and Aids, etc.

device
/ˈdɪˈvaɪs/

NOUN [c]

EQUIPMENT
[B2] a piece of equipment that is used for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
an electronic device
Rescuers used a special device for finding people trapped in collapsed buildings.

Learner example:
I have much more time for many other things during the day thanks to [the] devices modern technology offers us.

leave someone to their own devices
[C2] to leave someone to do what they want to do

Dictionary example:
With both parents out at work, the kids were often left to their own devices.

Learner example:
The moment teenagers leave school, they are left to their own devices.

devil
/ˈdev.əl/

NOUN [c]

EVIL BEING
[B2] an evil being, often represented in human form but with a tail and horns

Learner example:
This film is about a devil who meets a priest.

BADLY-BEHAVED PERSON
[C2] INFORMAL someone who behaves badly

Dictionary example:
He's an absolute devil!
It must be with my younger brother, that little devil, Diana thought, so she went to his room and opened every drawer, but she could find nothing.

devise /dɪˈvaɪz/

VERB [\ Ty]

[C2] to design or invent something such as a system, plan, or piece of equipment

Dictionary example:
She devised a plan to make money.

Learner example:
We need to devise an interactive internet language programme by reinforcing our computer facility and replenishing necessary items.

devote /dɪˈvəʊt/

Word family:
Verbs: devote Adjectives: devoted

VERB

devote sth to sb/sth PHRASAL VERB

USE TIME

[B2] to use time, energy, etc. for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
He resigned from his job to devote more time to his family.

Learner example:
At that time, everyone should have devoted their life to the nation.

USE SPACE

[B2] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to use a space or area for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
Most of the magazine was devoted to celebrity gossip.

Learner example:
And we ha[ve] come [up with] the idea of building a drama theatre at our college and a new department for our library devoted to music.

devote yourself to sth PHRASAL VERB

[C1] to spend all your time or energy doing something that you think is important
Dictionary example:
He retired in 1814 to devote himself to social reforms.

Learner example:
Bosses do not like women of such marital status, because there is a threat that they will have not enough time to devote themselves to their professional work.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>devoted</th>
<th>/dɪˈvəʊ.tɪd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Verbs: devote

Adjectives: devoted

ADJECTIVE

[B2] extremely loving or caring very much about someone or something

Dictionary examples:
a devoted fan/husband/wife
Lucy is devoted to her cats.

Learner example:
I am devoted to reading and I can say this book is wonderful.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>diagnose</th>
<th>/ˈdaɪ.əɡ.nəʊz/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: diagnosis

Verbs: diagnose

VERB [T]

[C2] to say what is wrong with someone who is ill

Dictionary example:
She was diagnosed with/as having cancer last year.

Learner example:
I wasn't prepared at all when my parents sat me down to tell me that my mother had been diagnosed with cancer.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>diagnosis</th>
<th>/ˌdaɪ.əɡˈnəʊ.sɪs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: diagnosis

Verbs: diagnose
NOUN [C or U] (diagnoses)

[C2] when a doctor says what is wrong with someone who is ill

Dictionary example:
What’s the diagnosis?

Learner example:
Lung cancer was the diagnosis.

diagram /ˈdaɪ.ə.græm/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a simple picture showing what something looks like or explaining something

Dictionary example:
The teacher drew a diagram showing how the blood flows through the heart.

Learner example:
The first diagram tells us that the number of Japanese tourist[s] travelling abroad increased dramatically from about 5 million in 1985 to about 11 million in 1990.

dial /ˈdaɪ.əl/

VERB [I or T] (dial)

[B1] to make a telephone call to a particular number

Dictionary examples:
Can I dial this number direct, or do I have to go through the operator?
Dial 0 for the switchboard.

Learner example:
So he picked up the phone and dialled the number written in the letter.

dialect /ˈdaɪ.ə.lekt/

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] a form of a language that people speak in a particular part of a country

Dictionary example:
They’re speaking a local dialect.

Learner example:
Mrs Haefele, the owner and cook of this inn, serves the meals personally and if you are lucky, you [may] understand a bit of her Swabian dialect.
dialogue /ˈdaɪ.ə.lɒɡ/

NOUN [C or U]

IN BOOK, ETC.

[B2] (a) conversation which is written for a book, play or film

Dictionary examples:
The play contained some very funny dialogue.
Act Two begins with a short dialogue between father and son.

Learner example:
However, she shows her courage during her first dialogue with Joss.

DISCUSSION

[C2] a formal discussion between countries or groups of people

Dictionary example:
We need to enter into a dialogue with these people.

Learner example:
The way I see it, history has proven that authority without dialogue leads to rebellion, and I do not see rebellion as a way to improvement, but as a symbol of failure.

diamond /ˈdaɪə.mənd/

NOUN

STONE

[B2] [C or U] an extremely hard valuable stone which is used in jewellery, and in industry for cutting hard things

Dictionary examples:
a diamond ring/necklace
He had worked in the diamond mines of South Africa.

Learner example:
She found a gorgeous diamond ring on her finger.

SHAPE

[B2] [C] a shape with four straight sides of equal length, forming two opposite angles which are wide and two which are narrow

Dictionary example:
Joe's socks had diamond patterns on them.
diarrhoea /ˌdaɪəˈrɪə/

NOUN [u]
[C2] an illness in which your solid waste is more liquid than usual, and comes out of your body more often

Dictionary example:
She has got diarrhoea.

Learner example:
He is completely different from Ralph; he is fat, has asthma, diarrhoea, and suffers from acute shortsight[e]dness.

dice /daɪs/

NOUN [c] (dice)
[C2] a small object with six equal square sides, each with between one and six spots on it, used in games

Dictionary example:
Roll the dice to see who starts the game.

Learner example:
The dice were rolling and my luck was [in].

VERB [t]
[C2] to cut food into small, square pieces

Dictionary example:
diced onions

Learner example:
There are trays of cut lettuce, leaf lettuce, cut tomato, diced tomato, all kinds of relishes, cheese with bacon spread, barbecue, or whatever you like.

dictate /dɪkˈteɪt/

VERB
[C1] to decide or control what happens

Dictionary example:
The weather will dictate where we hold the party.

Learner example:
Since the dawn of time people of all religions have considered that there is a higher power that dictates their destiny.
die /ˈdəɪ/

VERB [i] (dying, died, died)

be dying for/to do sth

[B1] informal to be extremely eager to have or do something

Dictionary examples:
I’m dying to hear your news.
I’m dying for a cup of tea.

Learner example:
Now I have to leave you because I’m dying for a pizza!

diesel /ˈdiː.zəl/

NOUN [u]

[C1] fuel used in the engines of some vehicles, especially buses and trucks

Dictionary example:
We need to stop for some diesel.

Learner example:
Secondly, if the price of petrol is increased, people will buy cars that run on diesel.

diet /ˈdaɪ.ət/

NOUN

USUAL FOOD

[B1] [c or u] the type of food that someone usually eats

Dictionary examples:
a healthy/balanced diet
The children seem to exist on a diet of burgers and chips.

Learner example:
You can try our fresh farm food, which [is] very good for your diet.

WEIGHT LOSS

[B1] [c] when someone eats less food, or only particular types of food, because they want to become thinner or for medical reasons

Dictionary examples:
I’m going on a diet next week and hope to lose two kilos before Christmas.
The doctor put me on a low-salt diet to reduce my blood pressure.
Learner example:
I'm on a serious diet, and I have to exercise.

differ /ˈdif.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: difference, indifference
Verbs: differ, differentiate
Adjectives: different, indifferent
Adverbs: differently

VERB [i]
[B2] to be not like something or someone else, either physically or in another way

Dictionary examples:
The twins look alike, but they differ in personality.
His views differ considerably from those of his parents.
The findings of the various studies differ greatly/widely.

Learner example:
People's opinions on this matter differ widely.

difference /ˈdif.ər.ənts/

Word family:
Nouns: difference, indifference
Verbs: differ, differentiate
Adjectives: different, indifferent
Adverbs: differently

NOUN

AMOUNT
[B1] [c or u] the amount by which one thing is different from another

Dictionary examples:
a(n) age/price/temperature difference
There's a big difference in age between them.

Learner example:
This age difference was too big!

make a (big) difference
[B2] to improve a situation (a lot)

Dictionary example:
Exercise can make a big difference to your health.
Learner example:
It wouldn’t make a big difference in my life, but it would be good.

make no difference/not make any difference
[B2] to not be important or change a situation

Dictionary examples:
You can ask him again if you like, but it won’t make any difference – he’ll still say no.
It makes no difference where you put the aerial, the TV picture’s still bad.

Learner example:
Does it make any difference, some might ask?

tell the difference
[C1] to notice a difference between two things

Dictionary example:
I can’t tell the difference between an American and a Canadian accent.

Learner example:
Not only will their critical sense atrophy but also they will not be able to tell the difference between what is right and wrong.

DISAGREEMENT
[C2] a disagreement or different opinion

Dictionary example:
They must try to resolve their differences peacefully.

Learner example:
Caroline and her husband had had an argument last week, but as he was going to be away for a few days, they had finally settled their differences.

---

different  /ˈdif.ər.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: difference, indifference
Verbs: differ, differentiate
Adjectives: different, indifferent
Adverbs: differently

ADJECTIVE

SEPARATE
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to talk about separate things or people of the same type

Dictionary example:
I had to go to three different shops to find the book she wanted.
Learner example:
I have three different teachers for three different things, one for the grammar, [an]other for the listening and finally [one] for my writing.

differentiate /ˌdɪf.əˈrɛn.ti.i/

Word family:
Nouns: difference, indifference
Verbs: differ, differentiate
Adjectives: different, indifferent
Adverbs: differently

SEE DIFFERENCE
[C1] [t or η] to understand or notice how two things or people are different from each other

Dictionary example:
He can't differentiate between blue and green.

Learner example:
The person would learn how to differentiate his needs from his wants and would value hard work.

MAKE DIFFERENT
[C2] [v] to make someone or something different

Dictionary example:
We need to differentiate ourselves from the competition.

Learner example:
Consumerism is reflected through this need, leading to a non-stop purchasing of products and services which will differentiate us from the mass.

differently /ˈdɪf.ər.ənt.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: difference, indifference
Verbs: differ, differentiate
Adjectives: different, indifferent
Adverbs: differently

ADVERB
[B1] in a different way
Dictionary examples:
We want to do things differently.
Are girls treated differently?

Learner example:
I had always pictured it quite differently.

difficult /ˈdɪf.i.kəlt/

Word family:
Nouns: difficulty
Adjectives: difficult

ADJECTIVE

NOT FRIENDLY
[B1] not friendly or easy to deal with

Dictionary examples:
The manager is difficult to deal with/a difficult person to deal with.
His wife is a very difficult person.
Please children, don't be so difficult!

Learner example:
I'm not a difficult person and I can cook very well.

put sb in a difficult position
[C1] to cause someone to be in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
When two of your best friends argue it puts you in a very difficult position.

Learner example:
I know that I will put you in a difficult position with my absence but I must leave.

difficulty /ˈdɪf.i.kəl.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: difficulty
Adjectives: difficult

NOUN

NOT EASY
[B1] [u] when something is not easy to do or understand
Dictionary examples:
We finished the job, but only with great difficulty.
The difficulty of the task excited them.
She had great difficulty finding a job.

Learner example:
They would have difficulty in sleeping outdoors.

PROBLEM
[B2] [c] something that is not easy to deal with

Dictionary examples:
- financial difficulties
- to have/experience difficulties
- children with learning difficulties

Learner example:
As you know my family has financial difficulties and we can’t afford this.

---

dig /dɪg/

VERB (digging, dug, dug)

MOVE SOIL
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to break up and move soil using a tool, a machine or your hands

Dictionary example:
Digging (in) the garden is good exercise.

Learner example:
I started digging, but it was useless.

dig a hole/tunnel
[B2] to form a hole by moving soil

Dictionary examples:
The tunnel was dug with the aid of heavy machinery.
The dog was digging a hole to hide its bone in.

Learner example:
I was ready to dig a hole and jump into it, because when you are at that age and your best friend’s father sees you kissing your boyfriend in the dark, [it is] just the most embarrassing thing which can happen to you.
digest /daɪˈdʒest/

Word family:
Nouns: digestion
Verbs: digest

VERB [T]

FOOD
[C1] to change food in your stomach into substances that your body can use

Dictionary example:
I need some time to digest my dinner.

Learner example:
Most families are also trying to eat a bit less meat, because meat is very hard to digest.

INFORMATION
[C1] to think about new information carefully in order to understand it

Dictionary example:
You need to give me time to digest this report.

Learner example:
Also I found the lectures about how to write CVs very useful although if the groups were smaller, it would have made the information easier to digest.

---

digestion /daɪˈdʒest.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: digestion
Verbs: digest

NOUN [U]
[C1] when your body changes food in your stomach into substances that it can use

Dictionary example:
He has problems with his digestion.

Learner example:
Afterwards, I had some serious digestion problems, and no medical care was available.
digital /ˈdɪdʒ.ɪ.təl/

ADJECTIVE

DISPLAY

[B1] showing information in the form of an electronic image

Dictionary examples:
- a digital clock/display
- a digital watch

Learner example:
The alarm clock was flashing with the annoying digital zeros.

dignified /ˈdɪɡ.nɪ.fəd/

Word family:
Nouns: dignity
Adjectives: dignified

ADJECTIVE

[C2] calm, serious, and behaving in a way that makes people respect you

Dictionary example:
a quiet, dignified woman

Learner example:
In the book "The remains of the day" we get to know the very dignified butler, Stevens, and his relationship with Miss Kenton.

dignity /ˈdɪɡ.nə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: dignity
Adjectives: dignified

NOUN [u]

[C2] calm and serious behaviour that makes people respect you

Dictionary example:
He behaved with great dignity and courage.

Learner example:
This includes a feeling of self satisfaction, happiness, honour, respect and dignity.
beneath your dignity
[C2] If it is beneath your dignity to do something, you think you are too important or from too high a class to do it.

Dictionary example:
She felt that it was beneath her dignity to wear a name badge.

Learner example:
He thought it was beneath his dignity to talk about his master’s decisions and ideas.

dilemma /dɪˈlem.a/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a situation in which a difficult choice has to be made between two different things you could do

Dictionary examples:
The President is clearly in a dilemma about/over how to tackle the crisis. She faces the dilemma of disobeying her father or losing the man she loves. a moral/ethical dilemma

Learner example:
Actually I think it’s a typical female dilemma: we try to do many things by ourselves and at the same time!

dim /dɪm/

ADJECTIVE
NOT BRIGHT
[C2] not bright or clear

Dictionary example:
He could hardly see her in the dim light.

Learner example:
As well as such drawbacks, the lighting is too dim to browse around and some light tubes are permanently off.

a dim memory/recollection, etc.
[C2] when you can remember something slightly, but not very well

Dictionary example:
I have a dim memory of meeting her at a party.

Learner example:
I really regret having lost it for now I have only dim recollections of my past.
VERB [ɪ or ɪː] (ˈmɪm–)

[C2] to become less bright, or to make something become less bright

Dictionary example:
He dimmed the lights and turned up the music.

Learner example:
The light was carefully dimmed by the waiter as they order[ed] their food: they both chose their special enchiladas.

dimension /ˌdɪm.əˈʃən/

NOUN [C]

ASPECT
[B2] a particular part of a situation, especially something that affects how you think or feel

Dictionary example:
Music has added a new dimension to my life.

Learner example:
I had never felt this way before, it was like being part of another life, another dimension!

MEASUREMENT
[B2] a measurement of the length, width, or height of something

Dictionary example:
The dimensions of the photo should be no larger than 30cm by 20cm.

Learner example:
Also I [want to] take a big mirror, the dimensions are 0.70 x 1.20 m.

diminish /dɪˈmɪn.əʃ/
dip /dɪp/

VERB (−pp−)

PUT INTO LIQUID

[B2] [ɪ] to put something into a liquid for a short time

Dictionary examples:
Dip the fish in the batter, then drop it into the hot oil.
She dipped her toe into the pool to see how cold it was.

Learner example:
I recommend little sandwiches, chips and other things to dip [into sauces].

BECOME LOWER

[B2] [ɪ] to become lower in level or amount

Dictionary example:
The number of students taking sciences has dipped sharply.

Learner example:
Cinema attendance in this age group dipped to 88%.

---

diplomacy /dɪˈploʊ.mə.si/

Word family:

Nouns: diplomat, diplomacy
Adjectives: diplomatic
Adverbs: diplomatically

NOUN [u]

COUNTRIES
[C2] dealing with the relationships between governments

Dictionary example:
international diplomacy

Learner example:
I studied International Relations and Diplomacy.

PEOPLE
[C2] skill in dealing with people well and not upsetting them

Dictionary example:
She showed great tact and diplomacy in the meeting.
Learner example:
And if a dispute arose, he managed to solve it with great diplomacy and with the result that nobody in the end felt offended.

diplomat /ˈdrɪp.ə.mæt/

Word family:
Nouns: diplomat, diplomacy
Adjectives: diplomatic
Adverbs: diplomatically

NOUN [C]

[B2] an official whose job is to represent one country in another, and who usually works in an embassy

Dictionary example:
a Spanish/British diplomat

Learner example:
The owner of the restaurant was a diplomat, and he invited the refugees to eat at the restaurant.

diplomatic /ˌdrɪp.əˈmæt.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: diplomat, diplomacy
Adjectives: diplomatic
Adverbs: diplomatically

ADJECTIVE

GOVERNMENTS
[C1] relating to diplomacy or diplomats

Dictionary example:
diplomatic relations

Learner example:
The price has been arranged by the Argentine an[d] English Governments, that have now entered diplomatic relations.

PEOPLE
[C2] good at dealing with people without upsetting them

Dictionary example:
That's a very diplomatic answer.

Learner example:
We may have to be diplomatic and tactful, but we also must be honest and firm.
diplomatically /ˌdɪp.ləˈmæt.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: diplomat, diplomacy
Adjectives: diplomatic Adverbs: diplomatically

ADVERB

[C2] in a way that deals well with people without upsetting them

Dictionary example:
He phrased his question very diplomatically.

Learner example:
Even though this issue is usually settled diplomatically, there still remains [a] considerable amount of criticism to be faced.

direct /daɪˈrekt/

Word family:
Nouns: direction, directions, director
Verbs: direct
Adjectives: direct, indirect
Adverbs: directly, indirectly

ADJECTIVE

STRAIGHT

[B1] going straight from one place to another without stopping or changing direction

Dictionary examples:
a direct route/line
Is there a direct train to Edinburgh?

Learner example:
I’m looking for a direct flight from Zurich to Botswana.

NOTHING BETWEEN

[B2] with no other person or thing involved or between

Dictionary examples:
She decided to take direct control of the project.
Have you any direct experience of this kind of work?
He left as a direct result/consequence of what she said.
There is a direct link/connection between smoking and lung cancer.
Learner example:
I think that there are huge dangers today such as war, violence, crime, pollution, etc. that have a direct influence on our lives.

CLEAR
[C1] saying clearly and honestly what you think

Dictionary example:
a direct answer

Learner example:
He preferred to give me [a] hint rather than a direct answer.

VERB

FILM/PLAY
[B1] [I or T] to tell the actors in a film or play what to do

Dictionary examples:
He wanted to give up acting and start directing (his own films).
'Jaws' was directed by Steven Spielberg.

Learner example:
We plan to see an action film which was directed by Tarantino.

ROUTE
[B1] [T] to show or tell someone how to get to a place

Dictionary example:
Can you direct me to the manager’s office please?

Learner example:
He directed me to a room where other guests were waiting.

direct sth against/at/towards, etc. sb/sth
[C1] to aim something at someone or something

Dictionary example:
The demonstrators’ anger was directed at the police.

Learner example:
In these circumstances it is important, however, that alternative options are provided (e.g. efficient and affordable train services) and that economic measures (such as increased prices) are directed at those who really cause the most environmental costs.

ORGANIZE
[C1] [I] to organize and control the way something is done

Dictionary example:
He directed the building of the new art gallery.
Learner example:
Obviously they will work in the commercial department, under the supervision of Lorenzo Soboli, the person who is in charge of directing that section.

direction /dəˈrekʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: direction, directions, director
Verbs: direct
Adjectives: direct, indirect
Adverbs: directly, indirectly

WAY
[B1] [c] the way that someone or something is moving or facing

Dictionary examples:
"No, go that way," I said, pointing in the opposite direction. He was going in the direction of the bedroom. They drove away in opposite directions.

Learner example:
I walked for hours in the same direction I [had] walked before.

in sb’s direction
[B2] towards someone

Dictionary example:
She keeps looking in my direction.

Learner example:
I didn’t know why she was talking to me but suddenly she walked in my direction and told me: "I need to know your name".

CONTROL
[C1] [u] control or instructions

Dictionary example:
Under his direction the company has doubled its profits.

Learner example:
I am writing to you on behalf of the Social Club of our language school to express some complaints that we had from several students concerning our recent visit to the Science and Technology Museum which is under your direction.

DEVELOPMENT
[C2] [c] the way that someone or something changes or develops
Dictionary example:
Our careers have gone in very different directions.

Learner example:
At school and at home young people are supposed to take responsibility for their actions and choose a direction for their life.

directly /daɪˈrekt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: direction, directions, director
Verbs: direct
Adjectives: direct, indirect
Adverbs: directly, indirectly

ADVERB
NOTHING BETWEEN
[B1] with no other person or thing involved or in between

Dictionary examples:
Our hotel room was directly above a building site.
The disease is directly linked to poor drainage systems.
The sun shone directly in my eyes.

Learner example:
The Youth Hostel was directly beside the sea.

CLEARLY
[B2] clearly and honestly

Dictionary example:
Let me answer that question directly.

Learner example:
While being interviewed, try to answer the questions directly and look into [the] interviewer’s eyes.

director /daɪˈrekt.tə/MANAGER
[B1] an important manager in an organization or company

Dictionary examples:
the board of directors
She has become the director of the new information centre.

Learner example:
It was from my school teacher and she was saying the most horrible things about the school, the director and other teachers.

FILM/PLAY
[B1] someone who tells the actors in a film or play what to do

Dictionary example:
a famous film/movie director

Learner example:
We want to see the latest film by our favourite director – Oliver Stone.

directory /dɪˈrekt.ər.i/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a book or list of names, numbers, or other facts

Dictionary example:
I looked in the telephone directory.

Learner example:
If you’d like to know more, look at the phone book (directory); you’ll find 3 or 4 pages about how to phone, how to dial, how to get numbers etc. in English.

dirt /dɜːt/

Word family:
Nouns: dirt
Adjectives: dirty

NOUN [u]
[B1] dust, soil or any substance that makes a surface not clean

Dictionary example:
His coat was covered with dirt.

Learner example:
Maybe in the future they’ll find a new fabric which protects you from dirt and dangerous sunshine.
disability /ˌdɪs.əˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:

Nouns: ability, disability, inability

Verbs: enable

Adjectives: able, disabled, unable

Noun [c or u]

[B2] an illness, injury or condition that makes it difficult for someone to do the things that other people do

Dictionary examples:

a physical/learning disability

Trying to change attitudes to disability is a real struggle.

Learner example:

Such [problems] as cancer, heart attack, [or] mental disability are very likely to bother you in the future.

---

disabled /dɪˈseɪ.bl d/

Word family:

Nouns: ability, disability, inability

Verbs: enable

Adjectives: able, disabled, unable

Adjective

[B1] having an illness, injury or condition that makes it difficult to do the things that most people do

Dictionary examples:

The accident left him severely disabled.

The library does not have disabled access.

Learner example:

I have done a lot of work looking after disabled people in the local area.

---

disadvantage /ˌdɪs.ədˈvaːn.tɪdʒ/

Word family:

Nouns: advantage, disadvantage

Adjectives: disadvantaged
NOUN [C]

MAKING DIFFICULT
[B1] something which makes a situation more difficult, or makes you less likely to succeed

Dictionary examples:
One disadvantage of living in the town is the lack of safe places for the children to play. We need to consider whether the disadvantages of the plan outweigh the advantages.

Learner example:
After that we discussed the advantages and disadvantages of public transport.

at a disadvantage
[C2] having problems that other people do not have

Dictionary example:
Being shy puts him at a disadvantage.

Learner example:
There would otherwise be no option for such children who would then be at a disadvantage and possibly engage in destructive behaviour.

disadvantaged /ˌdɪs.ədˈvɑːntɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: advantage, disadvantage
Adjectives: disadvantaged

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Disadvantaged people are poor and do not have many opportunities.

Dictionary example:
economically disadvantaged children

Learner example:
Therefore, there are several ways in which these people are becoming more and more disadvantaged.

disagree /ˌdɪs.əˈɡriː/

Word family:
Nouns: agreement, disagreement
Verbs: agree, disagree

VERB [i]
[B1] to have a different opinion from someone else about something
Dictionary examples:
I disagree with most of what he said.
Experts disagree about / on the causes of the disease.
Few people would disagree that something should be done to reduce the level of crime in the area.
I strongly disagree with the decision that has been taken.

Learner example:
We saw "Harry Potter" [and] the film was good but I think the book is better. Carlos disagreed with me.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>disagreement /ˌdɪs.əˈgriː.mənt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: agreement, disagreement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: agree, disagree</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when people have a different opinion about something or have an argument

Dictionary examples:
They had a disagreement about/over money.
There was some disagreement with this view.
Literary critics were in total disagreement about the book.

Learner example:
I am writing to express my disagreement with your article "Failure of Festival", as I attended the festival last weekend.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>disappear /ˌdɪs.əˈpiər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: appearance, disappearance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: appear, disappear</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VERB [i]

NOT SEE
[B1] to become impossible to see

Dictionary examples:
The sun disappeared behind a cloud.
We looked for her but she had disappeared into the crowd.

Learner example:
They saw my mother's shadow [on] the stairs and disappeared.
NOT FIND
[B1] to become impossible to find

Dictionary examples:
She disappeared from her home over a month ago.
I can't find my keys anywhere – they've completely disappeared.

Learner example:
I noticed that my wallet had disappeared.

STOP EXISTING
[B2] to no longer exist

Dictionary examples:
These flowers are disappearing from our countryside.
This is a way of life that is fast disappearing.

Learner example:
It seems that the decorative role of clothes will have disappeared by the year 2050.

disappearance /ˌdɪs.əˈpɪə.rənts/

Word family:
Nouns: appearance, disappearance
Verbs: appear, disappear

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when someone or something disappears

Dictionary example:
A man was being questioned in connection with her disappearance.

Learner example:
After his disappearance lots of people were looking for him and [in] the end they tracked him down!

disappoint /ˌdɪs.əˈpɔɪnt/

Word family:
Nouns: disappointment
Verbs: disappoint
Adjectives: disappointed, disappointing

VERB [T]
[B1] to make someone feel unhappy because someone or something was not as good as they had expected
Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry to disappoint you, but I'm afraid I can't come after all.
We don't want to disappoint the fans.

Learner example:
I've always got along very well with little kids and I'm sure I won't disappoint you.

disappointed /ˌdɪs.əˈpɔɪn.tɪd/
Word family:
Nouns: disappointment
Verbs: disappoint
Adjectives: disappointed, disappointing

ADJECTIVE
[B1] unhappy because someone or something was not as good as you hoped or expected, or because something did not happen

Dictionary examples:
She was disappointed (that) they hadn't phoned.
We were deeply disappointed at/about the result.
His parents were bitterly disappointed in/with him.
He was disappointed to find they'd already gone.

Learner example:
I feel so disappointed.

disappointing /ˌdɪs.əˈpɔɪn.tɪŋ/
Word family:
Nouns: disappointment
Verbs: disappoint
Adjectives: disappointed, disappointing

ADJECTIVE
[B1] making you feel disappointed

Dictionary examples:
What a disappointing performance/result!
The response to our advertisement has been very disappointing.

Learner example:
I started my new English class last week, which was [a] really disappointing experience since the teacher was not a native speaker.
disappointment /ˌdɪs.əˈpɔɪnt.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: disappointment
Verbs: disappoint
Adjectives: disappointed, disappointing

NOUN

FEELING

[B1] [u] the feeling of being disappointed

Dictionary examples:
Book early to avoid disappointment.
To my (great) disappointment, he decided to leave.

Learner example:
However, to my disappointment, the restaurant was closed because it was being redecorated.

PERSON/THING

[B1] [c] something or someone that disappoints you

Dictionary examples:
The party turned out to be a big / huge / great disappointment.
I'm afraid I've been rather a disappointment to my parents.

Learner example:
It was all a big disappointment!

disapproval /ˌdɪs.əˈpruː.vəl/

Word family:
Nouns: approval, disapproval
Verbs: approve, disapprove

NOUN [u]

[C1] when you think that someone or something is bad or wrong

Dictionary example:
I could sense their disapproval.

Learner example:
I am writing to express my disapproval of the deplorable service experienced in your museum.
disapprove ˌdɪs.əˈpruːv/

Word family:
- Nouns: approval, disapproval
- Verbs: approve, disapprove

VERB [i]
- [B2] to feel that something or someone is bad or wrong

Dictionary examples:
The survey showed that 32% of respondents approve, 54% disapprove and the rest are undecided. I strongly disapprove of under-age drinking.

Learner example:
Since the system has more disadvantages than advantages, I disapprove of [the] "open 24 hours a day, seven days a week" system.

disaster ˌdɪ.zəˈstər/

Word family:
- Nouns: disaster
- Adjectives: disastrous

NOUN [C or U]
- DAMAGE
  - [B2] something that causes great harm or damage

Dictionary examples:
An inquiry was ordered into the recent rail disaster. This is one of the worst natural disasters ever to hit the area. Everything was going smoothly until suddenly disaster struck.

Learner example:
Secondly, we have to save our planet from disaster.

- FAILURE
  - [B2] something that is a failure or has a negative result

Dictionary examples:
His idea was a total disaster. Inviting James and Ivan to dinner on the same evening was a recipe for disaster – they always argue with each other.

Learner example:
For very shy people who have trouble communicating even in everyday situations it would be a disaster to become famous, watched by curious fans and recognised while walking in the streets.
disastrous /dɪˈzɑːs.trəs/

Word family:
Nouns: disaster
Adjectives: disastrous

ADJECTIVE
[C1] extremely bad

Dictionary examples:
disastrous consequences
a disastrous week

Learner example:
Let’s hope that people involved – politicians and trade union leaders – will be able to sort things out soon in order to put an end to these disastrous conditions.

disc /dɪsk/

NOUN [C]

RECORDING
[B1] a CD

Dictionary example:
Both songs are on their latest disc.

Learner example:
Then after the movie, we went to a CD shop and I bought the new Foo Fighters’ disc.

SHAPE
[B2] a flat, round shape or object

Dictionary example:
The dog had a small, metal disc attached to its collar.

BACK
[C2] a piece of cartilage between the bones in your back

Dictionary example:
a slipped disc

Learner example:
As a matter of fact, living off sports is rather precarious, as you cannot predict when, due to a torn ligament or a slipped disc, you will be doomed to sink in[to] oblivion.
discipline /ˈdɪs.ə.plɪn/

NOUN

RULES

[B2] [u] when people's behaviour is controlled using rules and punishments

Dictionary examples:
parental/military/school discipline
There should be better discipline in schools.

Learner example:
I don't know if that is because of their age, but whatever it is, I think teachers should change the methods of discipline they use.

SELF CONTROL

[C1] [u] when you can control your own behaviour carefully

Dictionary example:
I don't have enough discipline to save money.

Learner example:
He's an example to be followed not only as an athlete, but also as a person who is [a] symbol of discipline, maturity, humility.

KNOWLEDGE

[C2] [c] FORMAL a particular subject of study

Dictionary example:
the scientific disciplines

Learner example:
Amongst the newly employed, people with a background in education score the highest with 79%, almost 20% more than the other two disciplines.

disc jockey /ˈdɪsk.dʒɒk.i/ (also DJ)

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone who plays music on the radio or at live events

Dictionary example:
a radio 2 disc jockey

Learner example:
I found out that there would be a special event with disc jockeys like DJ Quicksilver.
disclose /dɪsˈkləʊz/

VERB [T] FORMAL

[C2] to give new or secret information to someone

Dictionary example:
He refused to disclose details of the report.

Learner example:
Had not the memory of my friend Sherlock Holmes been spoilt by so many people since his death, in 1917, I would never have disclosed the following events.

---

discomfort /drɪˈskʌm.fət/

Word family:
Nouns: comfort, discomfort
Verbs: comfort
Adjectives: comfortable, uncomfortable, comforting
Adverbs: comfortably, uncomfortably

NOUN

SITUATION
[C1] [c or u] a physically uncomfortable situation

Dictionary example:
They travelled in great discomfort.

Learner example:
First of all, the coach was not suitable for adults, as we had very little leg room [and] the seat belts were broken, which meant discomfort and insecurity.

PAIN
[C2] [u] slight pain

Dictionary example:
You may feel some discomfort for a few days.

Learner example:
As we live longer, the natural weakening of our bodies causes us increasing discomfort and pain, restricting our abilities.

MENTAL FEELING
[C2] [u] when you feel slightly embarrassed or anxious

Dictionary example:
I could see that the talk of divorce was causing her some discomfort.
Learner example:
A feeling of discomfort is emerging in society, where the homeless feel upset and the rich feel guilty for spending their money on luxurious things.

discontent /ˌdɪs.kənˈtent/

Word family:
Nouns: discontent
Adjectives: content

NOUN [u]
[C1] unhappiness about a situation

Dictionary example:
There is growing discontent with this government.

Learner example:
You must know that this is a delicate moment for [the] Italian economy, because of the recession and unemployment problems, and the discontent with government policy has pushed many workers to go on strike.

discourage /dɪˈskʌr.ɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: encouragement
Verbs: discourage, encourage Adjectives: encouraging

VERB [T]

MAKE LESS CONFIDENT
[B2] to make someone less confident or enthusiastic about something

Dictionary example:
The thought of how much work she had to do discouraged her.

Learner example:
It should include the prices of the tickets. If not, it will discourage people.

discourage sb from doing sth
[B2] to try to persuade someone not to do something

Dictionary example:
Her parents tried to discourage her from seeing him.

Learner example:
Yet there are also disadvantage[s] which might discourage you from buying a mobile phone.
PREVENT
[C2] to try to prevent something from happening

Dictionary example:
a campaign to discourage smoking

Learner example:
The truth their argument holds is overshadowed by the deteriorating conditions of living in the cities where frequent police patrols or stricter laws don't seem to discourage thefts.

discover /dɪˈskʌv.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: discovery
Verbs: discover

VERB [T]
[B1] to find out something or to find a place or an object, especially for the first time

Dictionary examples:
Who discovered America?
Scientists have discovered how to predict an earthquake.
We searched all morning for the missing papers and finally discovered them in a drawer.
She discovered (that) her husband was having an affair.

Learner example:
I have discovered that horses are wonderful animals.

discovery /dɪˈskʌv.ər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: discovery
Verbs: discover

noun

FINDING
[B2] [C or U] when someone discovers something

Dictionary examples:
the discovery of electricity
Leonardo made many scientific discoveries.
a journey/voyage of discovery
The discovery of a body in the woods started a murder enquiry.
Learner example:
How will this affect our lifestyles and homes in the future if scientists go on making new discoveries?

THING/PERS
[C1] [c] something or someone that is discovered

Dictionary example:
I've made a great discovery!

Learner example:
My second discovery is a more serious one. After thirty years since its premier[e], "Macbeth" sees its first release on video.

discreet /drˈskri:t/

Word family:
Nouns: discretion
Adjectives: discreet

ADJECTIVE
[C2] careful not to cause embarrassment or attract too much attention

Dictionary example:
Can I trust you to be discreet?

Learner example:
Though he seems to keep an eye on us, he is very discreet and never impinges on our privacy.

discretion /drˈskreʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: discretion
Adjectives: discreet

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone is careful not to cause embarrassment or attract too much attention, especially by keeping something secret

Dictionary example:
You can rely on my discretion.

Learner example:
Don't you realise that Stevens is the personification of dignity and duty and discretion?
discriminate /dɪˈskrɪm.i.net/

Word family:
- Nouns: discrimination
- Verbs: discriminate

VERB [i]

TREAT UNFAIRLY

[C1] to treat someone unfairly because of their sex, race, religion, etc.

Dictionary example:
The company was accused of discriminating against people on the basis of age.

Learner example:
Firstly, the disadvantage of this policy is that it discriminates against the poor.

NOTICE

[C2] to notice a difference between two things

Dictionary example:
Police dogs are very good at discriminating between different smells.

Learner example:
Needless to say, it is essential to discriminate between the freedom of choice the child is given and lack of control on the part of the youngster's parents; the latter, for obvious reasons, should be penalised and avoided at all costs.

---

discrimination /dɪˌskrɪm.ɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: discrimination
- Verbs: discriminate

NOUN [u]

[C1] when someone is treated unfairly because of their sex, race, religion, etc.

Dictionary examples:
- racial/sex/sexual discrimination
- discrimination against older workers

Learner example:
But we must not forget that there is still sexual discrimination when women apply for jobs higher up in [a] hierarchy.
discussion /dɪˈskʌʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: discussion
Verbs: discuss

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] when people talk about something and tell each other their ideas or opinions

Dictionary examples:
They were having a discussion about football.
I can say nothing — the matter is still under discussion.
Management are holding/having discussions with the union about possible redundancies.

Learner example:
Jane told us something about the Civil War and after that we had a discussion about the rights of black people in those days.

disease /dɪˈziːz/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] (an) illness caused by infection or by a failure of health rather than by an accident

Dictionary examples:
heart disease
a common/rare disease
They reported a sudden outbreak of the disease in the south of the country.
The first symptom of the disease is a very high temperature.
Starvation and disease have killed thousands of refugees.

Learner example:
I was worried about her incurable disease.

disgrace /dɪsˈgreɪs/

NOUN

LOSS OF RESPECT
[B2] [u] when someone does something very bad that makes people stop respecting them or their family, team, etc.

Dictionary examples:
They were sent home in disgrace.
He brought disgrace on the whole team.
Learner example:
When we came back, it felt like we were sinking into a miserable life, full of disgrace.

be a disgrace

[B2] to be very bad

Dictionary example:
It's a disgrace that money is being wasted like this.

Learner example:
The park is really a disgrace.

be a disgrace to sb/sth

[C2] to be so bad or unacceptable that you make people stop respecting a particular group, activity, etc.

Dictionary example:
You are a disgrace to your profession.

Learner example:
It's a disgrace to mankind!

disguise  /dɪsˈɡaɪz/

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] clothes and other things that you wear to change the way you look so that people cannot recognize you

Dictionary example:
She usually goes out in disguise to avoid being bothered by the public.

Learner example:
There will be a big parade in the first week of the month with people in disguise.

VERB [T]

DIFFERENT APPEARANCE

[B2] to give a new appearance to a person or thing, especially in order to hide its true form

Dictionary examples:
He disguised himself by shaving his head and wearing a false beard.
Minor skin imperfections can usually be disguised with make-up.
We tried to disguise the fact that it was just a school hall by putting up coloured lights and balloons.
Learner example:
This writer that we are going to welcome is a brilliant woman, because she had the courage to disguise herself as an [im]migrant to see and to feel how those poor and miserable Turkish [im]migrants live in Germany.

[C2] to hide something such as a feeling or opinion

Dictionary example:
She couldn’t disguise her disappointment.

Learner example:
She started as [a] secretary, carefully disguising her talent and energy, just to land the job.

disgust /dɪsˈgʌst/

Word family:
Nouns: disgust
Adjectives: disgusting, disgusted

NOUN [u]
[C2] a very strong feeling of dislike or disapproval

Dictionary example:
She walked out in disgust.

Learner example:
But even real game lovers regularly express their disgust about the lack of interest with which many heavily overpaid players hang around [o]n the field during a match.

disgusted /dɪsˈgʌstɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: disgust
Adjectives: disgusting, disgusted

ADJECTIVE
[C1] feeling extreme dislike or disapproval of something

Dictionary example:
I’m totally disgusted with your behaviour.

Learner example:
As you realise, I am thoroughly disgusted with the tour which you provided.
disgusting /dɪsˈɡʌstɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: disgust
Adjectives: disgusting, disgusted

ADJECTIVE

[B1] extremely unpleasant or unacceptable

Dictionary examples:
It's disgusting that there are no schools or hospitals for these people.
Passengers were kept for hours in a disgusting waiting room.

Learner example:
Personally I don't like the special food that they do sometimes, because it's disgusting.

---

dishonest /dɪˈsɒn.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: dishonesty, honesty
Adjectives: dishonest, honest
Adverbs: honestly, dishonestly

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not honest and likely to lie or do something illegal

Dictionary examples:
a dishonest lawyer
a dishonest way of making money
He's been dishonest in his dealings with us/about his past.

Learner example:
Both of them are dishonest men: Joss organizes the smuggling, and Jem is a horse-thief.

---

dishonestly /dɪˈsɒn.ɪst.li/

Word family:
Nouns: dishonesty, honesty
Adjectives: dishonest, honest
Adverbs: honestly, dishonestly

ADVERB

[C1] in a dishonest way

Dictionary example:
She acted dishonestly.
Learner example:
The prize is valueless if achieved dishonestly.

dishonesty /dɪsˈɒn.sti/

Word family:
Nouns: dishonesty, honesty
Adjectives: dishonest, honest
Adverbs: honestly, dishonestly

NOUN [u]
[B2] when someone is not honest

Dictionary example:
Her dishonesty landed her in prison.

Learner example:
He is so open in his dishonesty that Mary can't be angry with him.

dishwasher /ˈdɪʃ.ˈwɒʃ.ə/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a machine that washes dirty plates, cups, forks, etc.

Dictionary example:
I was just loading the dishwasher.

Learner example:
Finally, modern technology has changed my way of spending the free time that is provided by household appliances [such] as the dishwasher [and] the washing machine.

disillusioned /ˌdɪs.ɪˈlu.ʒənd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] feeling disappointed because something is not as good as you thought it was

Dictionary example:
She says she's disillusioned with the music business.

Learner example:
They were disappointed and disillusioned. disk /dɪsk/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a piece of computer equipment that records and stores information electronically

Dictionary examples:
the hard disk
How much disk space is there?

Learner example:
I bought a brand new, state of the art computer which is equipped with a 300 Mhz PENTIUM Processor, a 300 GB hard disk, a 17" monitor and so on.

dislike /dɪˈslæɪk/

Word family:

Verbs: dislike, like

VERB [r]

[B1] to not like someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Why do you dislike her so much?
I dislike walking and I hate the countryside.

Learner example:
I generally prefer reading newspapers, but I don't dislike books.

NOUN

likes and dislikes

[B1] things that you do and do not like

Dictionary example:
What are your top five likes and dislikes?

Learner example:
The teacher asked about our families, friends, [and] likes and dislikes and [then] the lesson finished.

NOT LIKING

[B2] [U NO PLURAL] when you do not like someone or something

Dictionary example:
a dislike of cold weather

Learner example:
The main reason for my dislike is that it's so unnatural.
disloyal /ˌdɪˈslɔɪ.əl/

Word family:
- Nouns: loyalty
- Adjectives: loyal, disloyal

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not loyal or not supporting someone who you should support

Dictionary example:
I don't want to be disloyal to my friend.

Learner example:
These stories always have a happy ending: those who are faithful and reliable are rewarded but those who cause pain or are disloyal are punished.

dismay /drˈsmɛr/

NOUN [u]

[C2] a feeling of unhappiness and disappointment

Dictionary example:
To our dismay, it started raining.

Learner example:
Much to our dismay, we could not find either his mother or his father.

dismiss /drˈsmɪs/

Word family:
- Nouns: dismissal
- Verbs: dismiss

VERB [T]

NOT CONSIDER

[C1] to refuse to consider an idea or opinion

Dictionary example:
The committee dismissed the idea as rubbish.

Learner example:
That is why I would dismiss this facility: there is already a small video room in our school which is hardly ever used.

MAKE LEAVE

[C1] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to officially make someone leave their job
Dictionary example:
Anyone who breaks company rules will be dismissed.

Learner example:
What's more, every day hundreds of workmen are dismissed and thereby the ratio of unemployment still increases.

dismissal /dɪˈsmɪs.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: dismissal
Verbs: dismiss

NOUN
IDEA
[C1] [u] when someone refuses to consider an idea or opinion

Dictionary example:
I was angered by his dismissal of my worries.

Learner example:
Their dismissal of our proposal was essentially because of our lack of worldwid[e] investments; as everybody knows, we fundamentally concentrate our assets inside the European Union boundaries.

JOB
[C1] [c or u] when an employer officially makes someone leave their job

Dictionary examples:
a letter of dismissal
She accused her employers of unfair dismissal.

Learner example:
Another episod[e] of this sort is when Miss K. threatens to leave Darlington Hall because of the dismissal of the two Jewish maids.

disorder /dɪˈsɔː.dər/

Word family:
Nouns: order, disorder

NOUN
ILLNESS
[C1] [c] an illness or medical condition
Dictionary example:
a blood disorder

Learner example:
We should react at an early stage of an eating disorder by watching ourselves, consulting a doctor and going to the fitness centre.

BAD BEHAVIOUR

[C1] [u] uncontrolled, bad behaviour, especially by large groups of people

Dictionary examples:
crime and disorder
public/civil disorder

Learner example:
Although the transport facilities are good, the neighborhood has become increasingly dangerous, with numerous incidents of attacks and public disorder.

NOT ORGANIZED

[C2] [u] when things are untidy or confused and not organized

Dictionary example:
His financial affairs are in complete disorder.

Learner example:
My home might, to an outsider, give the feeling of complete disorder, not to say craziness, but I can assure you that it was not true at all.

disorganized (also UK disorganised) /dɪˈsɔː.gə.naɪzd/

Word family:
Nouns: organization, organizer
Verbs: organize
Adjectives: disorganized, organized

ADJECTIVE

OF SOMETHING

[B2] not planned or organized well

Dictionary example:
The whole conference was totally disorganized – nobody knew what they were supposed to be doing.

Learner example:
Even though it was rather disorganized, most of the audience seemed to be pleased with it.

OF SOMEONE

[B2] not good at planning or organizing things
Dictionary example:
He's impossible to work for – he's so disorganized.

Learner example:
Apart from that, I am a disaster working in offices and I am very disorganised.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>displace /drˈspleɪs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: place, replacement, displacement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: place, replace, displace, misplace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VERB [T]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] to take the place of someone or something</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Many of these workers will be displaced by modern technology.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mexico was traditionally the land of the tortilla and the beans, but every day, this seems to be changing ever more rapidly, displaced by the heavy advertising campaigns and Americanised habits.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>displacement /drˈspleɪs.mənt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: place, replacement, displacement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: place, replace, displace, misplace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [U]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] the act of displacing something</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Widespread flooding has led to the displacement of thousands of people.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apart from the fact that population growth is also playing its role, the reason for the enormous[ly] increased size of cities is [the] displacement of people from rural areas to the cities.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>display /drˈsplɛr/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ARRANGEMENT</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] [c] a collection of objects or pictures arranged for people to look at</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Dictionary example:
a display of children’s paintings

Learner example:
I decided to visit a museum which has a special display on Friday.

on display
[B1] If something is on display, it is there for people to look at.

Dictionary example:
Many old aircraft are on display at the museum at the moment.

Learner example:
There were some new musical instruments on display.

ON SCREEN
[B1] [c or u] when something is shown electronically such as on a computer screen

Dictionary example:
The display problems might be due to a shortage of disk space.

Learner example:
The phone has many facilities like games and color display.

SHOW
[B2] [c] a performance or show for people to watch

Dictionary example:
a firework display

Learner example:
One of the high points of our exciting and well organised event was the fireworks display.

a display of affection/anger, etc.
[C2] when someone behaves in a way that shows they have a particular feeling or attitude

Dictionary example:
The politicians shook hands in a display of unity for the media.

Learner example:
That is the reason why Charles is annoyed by her occasional urgent displays of affection.

VERB

ARRANGE
[B1] [T] to arrange something somewhere so that people can see it

Dictionary example:
Family photographs were displayed on the wall.
Learner example:
The problem with some museums is that the way in which the pieces of art are displayed is not right.

ON SCREEN
[B2] [t or ɹ] to show something electronically such as on a computer screen

Dictionary example:
The text can be displayed and edited on screen.

Learner example:
The timetable is hidden somewhere in a submenu which, I think, should be displayed on the main page.

FEELING
[C2] [t] to show how you feel by your expression or behaviour

Dictionary example:
He never displayed any interest in girls.

Learner example:
The above feeling demonstrates about Okonkwo his constant anxiety to demonstrate – he and his son – constant manliness and [t]o not display any feeling of love, gentle[ne]ss and support even to his own children.

disposable /dɪˈspəʊ.zə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: disposal
Verbs: dispose
Adjectives: disposable

ADJECTIVE
[C2] intended to be used only once and then thrown away

Dictionary example:
a disposable camera/razor

Learner example:
One drawback is the usage of disposable knives, forks and plates, which shouldn’t be used nowadays.

disposable income /dɪˌspəʊ.zə.blˈɪŋ.kʌm/

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] the amount of money that you have available to spend after tax, rent and other basic things that you must pay
Dictionary example:
Most of our customers have a large disposable income.

Learner example:
It's true that people have more disposable income than ever, but surprisingly, people also have more debts.

disposal  /dɪˈspəʊ.zəl/

Word family:
Nouns: disposal
Verbs: dispose Adjectives: disposable

NOUN [u]

REMOVAL
[B2] when you get rid of something, especially by throwing it away

Dictionary examples:
waste disposal
the disposal of hazardous substances

Learner example:
Nowadays waste disposal and environmental protection has become one of the most important questions of our life in a world with environmental catastrophes.

at sb’s disposal
[B2] available for you to use at any time

Dictionary example:
We will have a car at our disposal for the whole trip.

Learner example:
But on Wednesday morning I'm at your disposal.

dispose  /dɪˈspəʊz/

Word family:
Nouns: disposal
Verbs: dispose Adjectives: disposable

VERB

dispose of sth PHRASAL VERB
[C1] to get rid of something, especially by throwing it away
Dictionary example:
I need to dispose of these old clothes.

Learner example:
Naturally there are abuses and in large cities, some people continue to dispose of their rubbish in the street.

disposed /dɪˈspəʊzd/

ADJECTIVE FORMAL

be disposed to do sth
[C2] to be willing or likely to do something

Dictionary example:
I tried to tell her but she didn’t seem disposed to listen.

Learner example:
In my opinion, it is very important to make young children respect rules strictly, but, on the other hand, I would always be disposed to explain the rules of society to my children as they grow older.

disposition /ˌdɪs.peˈzɪʃ.ən/

NOUN [c]
[C2] the type of character someone has

Dictionary example:
a cheerful/nervous disposition

Learner example:
She is a really special girl with personal values and a really sweet disposition.

dispute

Word family:
Nouns: dispute
Verbs: dispute
Adjectives: indisputable

NOUN [C or U] /ˈdɪ.spjuːt/
Dictionary examples:
A man stabbed his neighbour in a dispute over noise.
The unions are in dispute with management over pay.

Learner example:
In former times these territorial and religious disputes resulted in a decrease in population.

beyond dispute
[C2] certain or certainly

Dictionary examples:
Her skill is beyond dispute.
He is beyond dispute the finest actor in Hollywood today.

Learner example:
It is beyond dispute that we owe a lot to the wise scientists who discovered 'electro-magnetism'.

VERB [T]
/disˈpjuːt/
[C2] to disagree with something someone says

Dictionary example:
I'm not disputing that the drug has benefits.

Learner example:
Nobody disputes nowadays the importance of learning another language and the advantages that this knowledge provides in adult life.

disqualify /dɪˈskwɒl.ɪ.fai/

Word family:
Nouns: qualification
Verbs: qualify, disqualify
Adjectives: qualified, unqualified

VERB [T]
[C2] to stop someone from being in a competition or doing some other activity because they have done something wrong

Dictionary example:
She was disqualified from the race after a drugs test.

Learner example:
Also a member who is not paying the contributions to the SOE club will be disqualified from it.
disrespect /ˌdɪs.rɪˈspekt/

Word family:
Nouns: respect, disrespect
Verbs: respect
Adjectives: respectable, respected, disrespectful, respectful
Adverbs: respectfully

NOUN [U]
[C1] when someone does not show any respect or behave politely towards someone or something

Dictionary example:
a disrespect for authority

Learner example:
This report is not only bad publicity for the charity organisation, it also shows a great deal of disrespect towards the people working with these events.

disrespectful /ˌdɪs.rɪˈspekt.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: respect, disrespect
Verbs: respect
Adjectives: respectable, respected, disrespectful, respectful
Adverbs: respectfully

ADJECTIVE
[C2] being rude and not showing any respect

Dictionary example:
Don't be disrespectful to your mother.

Learner example:
She really missed him despite his disrespectful behaviour.

disrupt /dɪsˈrʌpt/

Word family:
Nouns: disruption
Verbs: disrupt
Adjectives: disruptive

VERB [T]
[B2] to interrupt something and stop it continuing as it should
Dictionary examples:
A heavy fall of snow had disrupted the city's transport system.
The meeting was disrupted by a group of protesters who shouted and threw fruit at the speaker.

Learner example:
On the other hand the beep on your mobile phone sometimes disrupts the most romantic moment or the best scene in the cinema.

disruption  /ˌdɪsˈrʌp.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: disruption
Verbs: disrupt
Adjectives: disruptive

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when something is stopped from happening as it should

Dictionary example:
a disruption of services

Learner example:
Please also advise if there are evening or weekend courses, so I can attend them without any disruption to my main work.

disruptive  /dɪsˈrʌp.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: disruption
Verbs: disrupt
Adjectives: disruptive

ADJECTIVE
[C2] causing problems that interrupt something and stop it continuing as it should

Dictionary example:
disruptive behaviour

Learner example:
Also, frequent conflicts in their family environment or complacency and indifference towards their parents are severe enough reasons, which lead them to drug or alcohol abuse and disruptive or even rebellious behaviour.
dissatisfaction  /ˌdɪs.æt.ɪsˈfæk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

NOUN [U]
[B2] when someone is dissatisfied

Dictionary example:
At the moment she's experiencing a lot of dissatisfaction with her job.

Learner example:
I expect a full refund plus compensation for my dissatisfaction and discomfort which I suffered.

dissatisfied  /ˌdɪsˈsæt.ɪs.faid/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not pleased or happy with something

Dictionary example:
If you're dissatisfied with the service, why don't you complain to the hotel manager?

Learner example:
However, I must say that museums are really useful, to understand the history of the world, and that's why people keep going there even though they're sometimes dissatisfied.

dissertation  /ˌdɪs.əˈteɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a very long piece of writing done as part of a course of study

Dictionary example:
She's writing a dissertation on American poetry.

Learner example:
I have completed my dissertation work on antifungal studies.
dissolve /dɪˈzɒlv/

VERB

[C1] [T OFTEN PASSIVE] to end an organization or official arrangement

Dictionary example:
They decided to dissolve the partnership.

Learner example:
Now, the Parliament is dissolved and we are waiting for new elections.

BECOME LIQUID

[C2] [I or T] If a solid dissolves, it becomes part of a liquid, and if you dissolve it, you make it become part of a liquid.

Dictionary example:
Dissolve two teaspoons of yeast in warm water.

distance /ˈdɪs.tənts/

Word family:
Nouns: distance
Adjectives: distant

NOUN

LENGTH

[B1] [C or U] the amount of space between two places

Dictionary examples:
What’s the distance between Madrid and Barcelona/from Madrid to Barcelona?
He travels quite a distance to work every day.
Does she live walking distance of her parents?

Learner example:
There are also caves to explore a short distance away.

PLACE

[B2] [NO PLURAL] somewhere that is far away, but close enough for you to see or hear the things that are there

Dictionary examples:
I could see Mary in the distance.
From a distance, it sounded like a bell ringing.
Learner example:
Far in the distance they spotted another ship.

---

distant /ˈdɪstənt/

Word family:
Nouns: distance
Adjectives: distant

ADJECTIVE

FAR AWAY
[B2] far away

Dictionary examples:
- a distant country
- She could hear the distant sound of fireworks exploding.

Learner example:
A distant rumbling could be heard through the thick layers of rock that she was under.

NOT FRIENDLY
[C1] not friendly

Dictionary example:
She seemed cold and distant.

Learner example:
I like the idea of joining a lively team; being a gregarious person I need a change from the cold and distant treatment which is usual in the big department stores.

RELATIVE
[C2] A distant relative is not very closely related to you.

Dictionary example:
a distant cousin

Learner example:
Sometimes it's difficult to welcome a distant cousin who we've never heard of before, even though our mother remembers him perfectly.

---

distinct /drˈstɪŋkt/

Word family:
Nouns: distinction
Adjectives: distinct, distinctive
ADJECTIVE

DIFFERENT
[C1] different and separate

Dictionary example:
This word has three distinct meanings.

Learner example:
However, two distinct groups of employees, namely the molecular dynamics simulation group and the Drawing Section, are indeed hampered in their daily work due to old equipment.

CLEAR
[C1] clear and certain

Dictionary example:
There's been a distinct improvement in your work.

Learner example:
So, getting married, either in [your] thirties or when younger, has distinct advantages.

HEAR/SEE
[C2] easy to hear, see, or smell

Dictionary example:
The voices gradually became louder and more distinct.

Learner example:
On these occasions it is quite possible to distinguish a distinct smell of kerosene.

distinction /dɪˈstɪŋkʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: distinction
Adjectives: distinct, distinctive

NOUN

DIFFERENCE
[B2] [c or u] a difference between two similar things

Dictionary examples:
the distinction between spoken and written language
There's a clear distinction between the dialects spoken in the two regions.
This company makes no distinction between the sexes.

Learner example:
You must be able to make [a] distinction between wild and ferocious species and small animals.
QUALITY
[C2] [u] a quality or fact that makes someone or something special or different

Dictionary examples:
- wines of distinction
- He has the distinction of being the youngest player in the World Cup finals.

Learner example:
- In the car park of one of those fiercely emerging companies, cars are not only a way of moving [around], but a sign of distinction.

distinctive /dɪˈstɪŋk.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: distinction
Adjectives: distinct, distinctive

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Something that is distinctive is easy to recognize because it is different from other things.

Dictionary example:
- a distinctive style of writing

Learner example:
- But their most distinctive feature is their carefree manner of walking, taking their time and actually looking at the buildings, the people, the landscapes.

distinguish /dɪˈstɪŋgwɪʃ/

VERB

RECOGNIZE DIFFERENCES
[B2] [i or ɪ] to recognize the differences between two people, ideas or things

Dictionary examples:
- He's colour-blind and can't distinguish (the difference) between red and green easily.
- I sometimes have difficulty distinguishing Spanish from Portuguese.
- It's important to distinguish between business and pleasure.
- It's not the beauty so much as the range of his voice that distinguishes him from other tenors.

Learner example:
- This is the scene where in a card game between pig Napoleon and human Pilkington, the other animals, who secretly [watch] the game through the window, find it impossible to distinguish between pigs and humans.
SHOW DIFFERENCES

[B2] [ɪ] to make one person or thing seem different from another

Dictionary example:
His great skill distinguishes him from the rest of the team.

Learner example:
A person distinguishes [himself] from others by different tastes, manners, characters or behaviour.

SEE/HEAR

[B2] [ɪ] to be able to see, hear or understand something

Dictionary example:
I couldn't distinguish anything in the darkness.

Learner example:
I could distinguish nothing in the darkness and was [scar]ed to death.

distinguished /dɪˈstɪŋ.wɜːt/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] famous, praised, or admired

Dictionary example:
a distinguished writer

Learner example:
One of HuXin Ting's most distinguished visitors in recent times was Queen Elizabeth II, whose tour of Shanghai included a stop here and a cup of tea.

distort /dɪˈstɔːt/

VERB [ɪ]

[C1] to change information so that it is not true or realistic

Dictionary example:
Newspapers distorted the truth about their marriage.

Learner example:
The report distorted this figure to "less than 60%".
distract /dɪˈstrækt/

Word family:
Nouns: distraction
Verbs: distract

VERB [T]
[B2] to make someone stop giving their attention to something

Dictionary examples:
Don't distract her from her studies.
He tried to distract from his own illegal activities.

Learner example:
Television is not always useful because it distracts our mind from other thing[s].

distraction /dɪˈstrækʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: distraction
Verbs: distract

NOUN

NO ATTENTION
[C1] [c or u] something that makes you stop giving your attention to something else

Dictionary example:
The phone calls were a constant distraction.

Learner example:
Some of them have really unacceptable behaviour and cause distractions even in class.

FUN
[C1] [c] an activity you can do for fun or entertainment

Dictionary example:
He is studying too much and needs some distractions.

Learner example:
Swiss people are workaholics; they sacrifice their free time to earn money, although [occasionally] they need some kind of distraction.

distress /dɪˈstres/

Word family:
Nouns: distress
Adjectives: distressing, distressed
NOUN [u]

UPSET
[C1] the feeling of being extremely upset or worried

Dictionary example:
The newspaper reports caused her a great deal of distress.

Learner example:
I am constantly praised for the quality of my work and I get personal satisfaction helping people in emotional distress.

DANGER
[C2] when someone or something is in danger and needs help

Dictionary example:
a ship in distress

Learner example:
Let’s start this process by helping and caring [for] the people in distress and providing them [with] what we can.

distressed /dɪˈstrest/
Word family:
Nouns: distress
Adjectives: distressing, distressed

ADJECTIVE
[C1] extremely upset or worried

Dictionary example:
They were very distressed to learn of her death.

Learner example:
I was distressed to discover that your advertisement was inaccurate.

distressing /dɪˈstres.ɪŋ/
Word family:
Nouns: distress
Adjectives: distressing, distressed

ADJECTIVE
[B2] making you feel extremely worried or upset
Dictionary examples:
distressing news
a distressing experience

Learner example:
If you confront a distressing situation try to compensate [for] it with a relaxing activity.

distribute /dɪˈstrɪb.juːt/

Word family:
Nouns: distribution
Verbs: distribute, redistribute

VERB [T]

GIVE OUT
[B2] to give something out to several people

Dictionary examples:
The books will be distributed free to local schools.
Several people were arrested for distributing racist leaflets to the spectators.

Learner example:
I also had to distribute the flyers [at the concert].

SUPPLY
[C1] to supply goods to shops and companies

Dictionary example:
The company manufactures and distributes computer equipment worldwide.

Learner example:
Our company imports all the merchandise from [the] Far East and then distribute[s] those products in high quantities to different customers.

distribution /ˌdɪs.trɪˈbjuː.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: distribution
Verbs: distribute, redistribute

NOUN

SUPPLYING
[C1] [u] when something is supplied or given out to people or places

Dictionary example:
the sale and distribution of electrical goods
Learner example:
During the economic slowdown throughout the 1980s, the use of rail roads for goods transport dropped significantly (about 50%) while terrestrial and water transport provided cheaper and mo[re] effective means of distribution.

SHARING
[C1] [u NO PLURAL] the way something is divided and shared in a group or area

Dictionary example:
the distribution of wealth

Learner example:
Poverty, domestic problems and [an] uneven distribution of wealth in the community make such children bitter and instead of working hard, they become reb[ell]ious and try to look for short cut[s] to gain money and comfort.

district /ˈdɪs.trɪkt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a part of a city or country, either an official area or one that is known for having a particular feature or characteristic

Dictionary examples:
South Cambridgeshire District Council the financial/business district the Lake District/the Peak District

Learner example:
I recommend you go from one district to another by public transport.

disturb /dɪˈstɜːb/

Word family:
Nouns: disturbance
Verbs: disturb
Adjectives: disturbed, disturbing

VERB [T]

INTERRUPT
[B2] to interrupt what someone is doing by making noise or annoying them

Dictionary examples:
Please don’t disturb Georgina – she’s trying to do her homework.
I’m sorry to disturb you so late, but my car’s broken down and I was wondering if I could use your phone.
Learner example:
If we go outdoors we won't disturb my parents.

UPSET

[C2] to make someone feel anxious or upset

Dictionary example:
Some scenes are violent and may disturb younger viewers.

Learner example:
Listening to the radio yesterday whilst cleaning, I happened to hear a few statements made by people my age concerning their attitude to work. What disturbed me, and made me stop cleaning all together, was when one of them said, quote: "I want to earn lots of money – that's all I care about," end quote.

disturbance  /dɪˈstɜː.bənts/

Word family:
Nouns: disturbance
Verbs: disturb
Adjectives: disturbed, disturbing

NOUN

INTERRUPTION

[C1] [c or u] something that interrupts what you are doing, especially something loud or annoying

Dictionary example:
I don't want any disturbances this morning.

Learner example:
On the other hand, I think I represent each and every student when I apologise for the disturbance of the residents who live near the College.

FIGHTING

[C2] [c] when people fight or shout

Dictionary example:
A man was shot during a disturbance in King Street.

Learner example:
Social disturbances are also a result of unemployment.
disturbed /dɪˈstɜːbd/

Word family:
- Nouns: disturbance
- Verbs: disturb
- Adjectives: disturbed, disturbing

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not thinking or behaving normally because of mental or emotional problems

- Dictionary example:
  He is a very disturbed child.

- Learner example:
  James tore at his neatly trimmed hair, revealing how disturbed he was.

disturbing /dɪˈstɜː.berɪŋ/

Word family:
- Nouns: disturbance
- Verbs: disturb
- Adjectives: disturbed, disturbing

ADJECTIVE

[C2] unpleasant in a way that makes people feel anxious or upset

- Dictionary example:
  disturbing images

- Learner example:
  Still, I find Edmund’s character disturbing and I do not believe that his background alone could have created such an evil human being.

dive /daɪv/

Word family:
- Nouns: diver, diving
- Verbs: dive

VERB

[<I>] ENTER WATER

[B1] If you dive into water, you enter it head-first with your arms held out above your head.
Dictionary examples:
They ran to the pool, dived in, and swam to the other side.
Look at those children diving for oysters over there!
Mark dived off the bridge into the river.

Learner example:
I dived from high rocks into the water.

SWIM UNDER WATER
[B1] to swim under water, usually with breathing equipment

Dictionary example:
I like to go somewhere on holiday where I can dive.

Learner example:
Now, she dives regularly [and] spends all her holidays at a place where there is a Diving Centre.

NOUN [C]

ENTRY INTO WATER
[B2] when you enter water head-first with your arms held out above your head

Dictionary example:
He entered the pool with a neat dive.

SWIMMING UNDER WATER
[B2] when you spend some time swimming under water

Dictionary example:
The centre also offers night dives, which are highly recommended.

Learner example:
It will start with a medical test, a few hours of theory, some training dives in a swimming pool and, at last, two dives on the reef.

diver /ˈdaɪ.və/

Word family:
Nouns: diver, diving
Verbs: dive

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who swims under water, usually with breathing equipment

Dictionary example:
a deep-sea diver

Learner example:
I've got [the qualification] of "open water diver".
diverse /dərˈvɜːs/

Word family:
Nouns: diversity
Adjectives: diverse

ADJECTIVE
[B2] varied or different

Dictionary examples:
Students from countries as diverse as Colombia and Lithuania use Cambridge textbooks.
New York is a very culturally/ethnically diverse city.

Learner example:
I am a sociable person who has been exposed to diverse social circumstances.

---

diversity /dərˈvɜːs.ɪ.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: diversity
Adjectives: diverse

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C1] when many different types of things or people are included in something

Dictionary examples:
Does television adequately reflect the ethnic and cultural diversity of the country?
There is a wide diversity of opinion on the issue.

Learner example:
On the other hand, the fact that all the people buy the same goods and live in similar ways may threaten the cultural diversity.

---

divert /dərˈvɜːt/

VERB [T]

divert sb's attention/thoughts, etc.
[C1] to take someone's attention away from something

Dictionary example:
A movement outside the window diverted my attention.

Learner example:
For example, when I feel sad or depressed, shopping can help [me] temporarily forget those negative feelings by diverting my attention to something which I really love doing.
CHANGE ROUTE
[C2] to send someone or something somewhere different from where they were expecting to go

Dictionary examples:
The plane was diverted to Stansted because of engine trouble.
The police were diverting traffic away from the town.

Learner example:
There are certainly easy solutions to this problem, e.g., the night traffic could be diverted to the airport in Vennes as there are no houses nearby.

divide /drˈvaɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: division, divide
Verbs: divide
Adjectives: divided

VERB

SEPARATE
[B1] [i or ð] to separate into parts or groups or to make people or things do this

Dictionary examples:
At the end of the lecture, I'd like all the students to divide into small discussion groups.
After World War Two, Germany was divided into two separate countries.

Learner example:
The class was divided into two groups.

PLACE
[B2] [ð] to separate a place into two areas

Dictionary example:
There's a narrow alley which divides our house from the one next door.

Learner example:
The city is divided into two parts by the River Danube: Buda and Pest.

divide sth (up) among/between sb
[C1] to separate something into parts and give a part to each person in a group

Dictionary example:
The prize money will be divided equally among the winners.

Learner example:
As women start to work out of the home more, the housework has to be divided among all the family members.
NUMBERS
[C1] [T] to calculate how many times a number can go into another number

Dictionary example:
12 divided by 6 equals 2.

DISAGREE
[C1] [T OFTEN PASSIVE] to cause people to disagree about something

Dictionary example:
Council members were divided over plans to build a new stadium.

Learner example:
It is certainly clear to all that cars cannot continue to [enter the city] as they are currently doing, but this is a polemic subject and citizens are bound to be divided.

NOUN [C]
[C1] a difference or separation

Dictionary example:
Because of debt repayments, the divide between rich and poor countries is continuing to grow.

Learner example:
Increasing petrol prices may make the divide between the rich and poor more obvious.

divided /drɪˈvaɪ.dɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: division, divide
Verbs: divide
Adjectives: divided

ADJECTIVE
[B2] If a group, organization or country is divided, there are disagreements among the people in it.

Dictionary example:
Board members are divided over the plans for the new stadium.

Learner example:
Opinions are divided.

diving /ˈdaɪv.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: diver, diving
Verbs: dive
NOUN [u]

[B1] the activity of swimming under water, usually with breathing equipment

 Dictionary example:
 I want to go diving in Malta.

 Learner example:
 We can go fishing, diving or windsurfing, it depends on how [you] would like to spend your time.

 division  /dɪˈvɪʒ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: division, divide
Verbs: divide
Adjectives: divided

PART

[B2] [u] when something is separated into parts or groups, or the way that it is separated

 Dictionary example:
 the equal division of labour between workers

 Learner example:
 Suddenly all the atomic missiles of the defensive system rose up in the sky, and so did the Russian ones, not turned off after the division of the ex-USSR.

 ORGANIZATION

[B2] [c] one of the groups in a business or organization

 Dictionary example:
 the sales division

 Learner example:
 Being a lucky guy, I had the chance to work at the Disneyland Hotel, which is a division of the famous Walt Disney Company.

 SPORT

[B2] [c] one of the groups of football teams in a league

 Dictionary example:
 the Second Division

 Learner example:
 I've been playing football for an Italian second division team, by the way.
divorce /dɪˈvɔːs/

Word family:
- Nouns: divorce
- Verbs: divorce
- Adjectives: divorced

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] when two people officially stop being married

Dictionary examples:
The last I heard they were getting a divorce.
Divorce is on the increase.
Ellie wants a divorce.
What are the chances of a marriage ending in divorce?

Learner example:
After her divorce, she had two boyfriends.

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to end a marriage by an official or legal process

Dictionary example:
She’s divorcing her husband.

Learner example:
I asked Vina, "If I divorce my wife, will you marry me?"

divorced /dɪˈvɔːst/

Word family:
- Nouns: divorce
- Verbs: divorce
- Adjectives: divorced

ADJECTIVE

[B1] married in the past but not now married

Dictionary examples:
She’s divorced.
They got divorced after only six months of marriage.

Learner example:
My best friend Petra is getting divorced.
dizzy  /ˈdɪz.i/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] feeling as if everything is turning round, so that you feel ill or as if you might fall

Dictionary examples:
Going without sleep for a long time makes me feel dizzy and light-headed.
I felt quite dizzy with excitement as I went up to collect the award.

Learner example:
She felt a little bit dizzy.

---

DJ  /ˈdiːˌdʒeɪ/ (also disc jockey)

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who plays music on the radio or at live events

Dictionary example:
He’s a DJ on Radio 1.

Learner example:
I found out that there would be a special event with disc jockeys like DJ Quicksilver.

---

DNA  /ˌdiː.enˈeɪ/

NOUN [U]
[C2] ABBREVIATION for deoxyribonucleic acid; a chemical in the cells of living things which contains genetic information

Dictionary example:
DNA evidence led to her arrest.

Learner example:
In the end the DNA test showed that they weren't blood related and therefore they could get married and have children without having the whole neighbourhood gossiping about them.

---

do  /duː/

Word family:
Verbs: do, overdo
AUXILIARY VERB (did, done)

do badly/well
[B1] to be unsuccessful/successful

Dictionary example:
Sam did very well in her exams.

Learner example:
I had done badly in my last exam and my teacher said she would talk to my mother.

AVOID REPEATING
[B1] used to avoid repeating a verb that has just been used

Dictionary examples:
She runs much faster than he does.
Maria looks much healthier than she did.
"I hate that song!" "So do I."
"I don't like the heat." "Nor/Neither do I."
"May I join you?" "Please do!"

Learner example:
I like Brad Pitt a lot, and so does she.

FOR EMPHASIS
[B2] used to give extra force to the main verb

Dictionary examples:
Do let me know if you need anything.
He does like you – he's just shy.

Learner example:
I really do love to be a volunteer, to help people as much as I can.

VERB (did, done) do your hair/make-up, etc.

[B1] to make your hair/make-up, etc. look nice

Dictionary example:
It takes him half an hour to do his hair in the morning.

Learner example:
I was the assistant of the person responsible for the clothes and make-up of the pop-group, [and] I was asked to do their make-up on my own.

do your best
[B1] to make the greatest effort possible

Dictionary example:
I did my best to persuade him.
Learner example:
I'll do my best to cover the work.

do sb good
[B2] to have a good effect on someone

Dictionary example:
A break from this would do us all good.

Learner example:
I must admit that my stay in your nice home did me good.

do damage/harm, etc.
[B2] to cause damage/harm, etc.

Dictionary example:
The fire did a lot of structural damage to the building.

Learner example:
I promise not to do any damage!

be/have to do with sth
[B2] to be related to something

Dictionary example:
She lacks confidence and I think that has to do with her childhood.

Learner example:
I think that is nothing to do with my accident.

will do
[C1] will be satisfactory

Dictionary example:
You don’t have to pay now, next week will do.

Learner example:
You need a telephone card. They can cost from 100zT to 1000zT. One of 100zT will do.

do your utmost
[C1] to try as hard as you can to do something

Dictionary example:
We did our utmost to finish the project on time.

Learner example:
In addition, we [l]ive in a materialistic society where we all do our utmost in order to make ends meet, but we are never satisfied.

do the job
[C2] If something does the job, it is suitable for a particular purpose.
Dictionary example:
Here, this knife should do the job.

Learner example:
Allow them to bring home friends and therefore develop social skills. In my opinion, that should do the job.

do sb/sth justice; do justice to sb/sth
[C2] to show the best or real qualities of something or someone

Dictionary example:
This postcard doesn’t do justice to the wonderful scenery.

Learner example:
No words can do justice to the indignation that I feel.

can’t/couldn’t very well do sth
[C2] used to say that something is not a suitable or practical thing to do

Dictionary example:
I couldn’t very well tell her while he was there.

Learner example:
I couldn’t very well tell her that without my diaries, I’d be lost and not know who I was.

make do (with)
[C2] to accept something that is less good than you would like

Dictionary example:
If we can’t get a bigger room we’ll have to make do with this.

Learner example:
Very calmly, he said "I am not going to put up with this. You might say that I am being too emotional, overreacting, whatever. But I will not come back until my piano has been returned. And let me make very clear that I will not make do with another instrument."

do the trick
[C2] If something does the trick, it solves a problem or has the result you want.

Dictionary example:
If I’ve got a headache, a couple of aspirins usually do the trick.

Learner example:
Using aromatherapy oil and scented candles always did the trick when she wanted to relax.

dock  /dɒk/

NOUN [c]
[C1] the place where ships stop and goods are taken off or put on
Dictionary example:
The ship is in dock.

Learner example:
I would like to take them with me to a very typical restaurant near the docks: Mummie's House 25 Harbour Street 2 Tel. 070 321 26 33.

document /ˈdɒk.jə.mənt/

NOUN [C]

ON COMPUTER
[B1] a piece of text produced electronically on a computer

Dictionary example:
I'll send you the document by email.

Learner example:
That document was a "virus" and erased all my documents on my computer.

documentary /ˌdɒk.jʊˈmen.tər.i/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a film, television or radio programme that gives facts and information about a subject

Dictionary examples:
The documentary took a fresh look at the life of Darwin.
They showed a documentary on animal communication.

Learner example:
It's supposed to be a documentary about a man who lives with his wife and dogs in The Rockies, in Canada.

dole /dəʊl/

VERB

dole sth out PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to give something, especially money, to several people or in large amounts

Dictionary example:
I've had to dole out nearly $500 this month.
Learner example:
But still, doling out money does not make the people that receive it happy.

dolphin /ˈdɒl.fin/

NOUN [C]
[B1] an intelligent animal that lives in the sea, breathes air and looks like a large, smooth, grey fish

Dictionary example:
They swam with dolphins on holiday.

Learner example:
I saw a dolphin jumping in the air.

domain /dəˈmeɪn/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a particular area, activity, or subject that someone controls or deals with

Dictionary examples:
The garden is his domain.
This information should be in the public domain.

Learner example:
In the late 70s, a profitable domain to work in was the petrol and oil business and, as large reserves of that natural resource were located in Alaska, the Americans and certain other companies moved their "base-camp" over there.

domestic /daˈmes.tɪk/

ADJECTIVE

HOME
[B2] belonging or relating to the home, house or family

Dictionary example:
domestic chores/duties/arrangements

Learner example:
All domestic appliances such as showers, kettles, lights, TV and curtains may be voice activated.

COUNTRY
[B2] relating to a person's own country
Dictionary examples:
domestic airlines/flights
Domestic opinion had turned against the war.

Learner example:
We should advertise all [the] good points of our city in [the] domestic and foreign mass-media.

dominance  /ˈdɒm.ɪ.nəns/

Word family:
Nouns: dominance, domination
Verbs: dominate
Adjectives: dominant, predominant
Adverbs: predominantly

NOUN [u]
[C2] power, influence, and control

Dictionary example:
the company’s dominance in the software industry

Learner example:
In conclusion, the choice of favourite leisure activities has undergone significant changes for 17 to 25 year olds in Europe over a 20 year period, with the new dominance of an emerging computer games-playing generation at the expense of outdoor activities.

dominant  /ˈdɒm.ɪ.nənt/

Word family:
Nouns: dominance, domination
Verbs: dominate
Adjectives: dominant, predominant
Adverbs: predominantly

ADJECTIVE

IMPORTANT
[C1] main or most important

Dictionary example:
Unemployment will be a dominant issue at the next election.

Learner example:
Looking back on the ongoing discussion about women’s role in modern German society, there is one dominant impression: women have to enlarge, improve, intensify, etc.... they have to enlarge their horizon, to improve their professional skills, to intensify their involvement in politics and so on ....
STRONG
[C2] strongest and wanting to take control

Dictionary example:
a dominant older brother

Learner example:
He was a very dominant boy and I was afraid of him.

dominate  /ˈdɒm.ɪ.net/

Word family:
Nouns: dominance, domination
Verbs: dominate
Adjectives: dominant, predominant
Adverbs: predominantly

VERB [I or T]

HAVE CONTROL
[B2] to have control over a place or a person

Dictionary examples:
He refuses to let others speak and dominates every meeting.
They work as a group – no one person is allowed to dominate.

Learner example:
For instance, in bank[s], school[s], hospital[s], [and] airport[s] we are absolutely dominated by computers, aren't we?

BE IMPORTANT
[C1] to be the largest, most important, or most noticeable part of something

Dictionary examples:
The subject of pay dominated their discussions.
The cathedral dominates the skyline.

Learner example:
The religious values that dominated every aspect of life are slowly being replaced by new ones and the outcome of this metamorphosis has yet to be examined.

domination  /dɒm.ɪ.ˈnetʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: dominance, domination
Verbs: dominate
Adjectives: dominant, predominant Adverbs: predominantly
NOUN [u]
[C1] great power and control over someone or something else

Dictionary example:
world domination

Learner example:
[A] more serious argument is that [the] domination of huge multinationals suppresses local creativity and forces the local traditions to fade away.

donate /dəˈneɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: donation, donor
Verbs: donate

VERB [I or T]

GIVE MONEY
[B2] to give money or goods to help a person or organization

Dictionary examples:
An anonymous businesswoman donated one million dollars to the charity.
Please donate generously.

Learner example:
You don't have to pay for [it] but you can donate some money if you wish.

BLOOD/ORGANS
[C1] to allow some of your blood or part of your body to be used for medical purposes

Dictionary example:
He donated a kidney to his sister.

Learner example:
For example, he once saved my life, putting his in danger by donating a large quantity of blood.

donation /dəˈneiʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: donation, donor
Verbs: donate

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when money or goods are given to help a person or organization
Dictionary examples:
donations of food and money
I'd like to make a small donation in my mother's name.

Learner example:
First of all, I would [like to] say that I and my friends are very happy because of Mr Maitland's donation.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>donkey /ˈdɒŋ.ki/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [c]

[B1] an animal like a small horse with long ears

Dictionary example:
The donkey struggled with its heavy burden.

Learner example:
You can use animals like donkeys for transportation.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>donor /ˈdəʊ.nər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: donation, donor
Verbs: donate

NOUN [c]

BLOOD/ORGANS

[C2] someone who gives some of their blood or part of their body to be used for medical purposes

Dictionary example:
She is a regular blood donor.

Learner example:
In this group we can include responsible authorities, sympathetic doctors, organ donors, good teachers and many other unknown people who devote their lives to a generous cause.

MONEY/GOODS

[C2] someone who gives money or goods to a person or organization that needs help

Dictionary example:
Ten thousand dollars was given by an anonymous donor.

Learner example:
Private donors raised some funds to prevent the hospital from closure.
doom /duːm/

NOUN [u]

[C2] death, destruction, and other unpleasant events that cannot be avoided

Dictionary example:
a horrible sense of doom

Learner example:
Men were not only humans but warriors who represented the army of immortals whose fate was to defend the Earth from the evil spirits of doom.

doom and gloom

[C2] unhappiness and feeling no hope for the future

Dictionary example:
Life's not all doom and gloom, you know.

Learner example:
To sum up, experts can stop their doom and gloom statements about our uncertain future and the possible global crisis.

door /dɔːr/

NOUN [c]

behind closed doors

[C2] privately and not in public

Dictionary example:
Most of the deals were done behind closed doors.

Learner example:
Decisions which affect the whole world are made behind closed doors and are top secret.

doorway /ˈdɔː.wi/

NOUN [c]

[C2] an entrance to a building or room through a door

Dictionary example:
She waited in the doorway while I ran back inside.

Learner example:
They sleep in doorways and beg in the street.
dose /dəʊs/

NOUN [c]

MEDICINE
[B2] a measured amount of something such as medicine

Dictionary examples:
a high/low dose
a dose of penicillin

Learner example:
It is important to me because I have asthma and cannot miss even one dose of it.

a dose of sth
[B2] an amount of something, often something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
a dose of bad news

Learner example:
You ought to plan your work and mainly learn in the morning when your brain is ready to accept a great dose of knowledge.

dot /dɒt/

NOUN

INTERNET
[B1] [u] the spoken form of a full stop in an Internet or email address, or some computer files

Dictionary example:
"What's the web address?" "www dot cambridge dot org".

MARK
[B2] [c] a very small round mark

Dictionary examples:
The full stop at the end of this sentence is a dot.
Her skirt was blue with white dots.

Learner example:
On the map we have marked a black dot on the place where you will find the hotel.

on the dot
[C2] at that exact time
Dictionary example:
We have to leave at 7.30 on the dot.

Learner example:
He gave him an address and told him to be there at six on the dot.

double  /ˈdʌbl/

DETERMINER
[B1] twice as much or as many

Dictionary examples:
Our new house is double the size of the old one.
It’ll cost you double that now.

Learner example:
[There] has been an increase of 15% in the [number of] old people that live alone, and in the case of living in a care home, the percentage is double (50%) [that of] 1976.

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to become twice the original size or amount, or to make something do this

Dictionary examples:
The government aims to double the number of students in higher education within 25 years.
Company profits have doubled since the introduction of new technology.

Learner example:
Taxes have doubled, and the price for petrol shows an increase of more than 50% within the last 3 months.

doubt  /daʊt/

Word family:
Nouns: doubt
Verbs: doubt
Adjectives: doubtful, undoubted
Adverbs: undoubtedly

NOUN [C or U]

NOT CERTAIN
[B1] when you are not certain about something, or do not trust someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I’m having doubts about his ability to do the job.
If there’s any doubt about the rocket’s engines, we ought to cancel the launch.
Learner example:
If you have any doubt, send me an e-mail.

have no doubt
[B1] to be certain

Dictionary examples:
I have no doubt (that) I made the right decision.
I never had any doubt (that) you would win.

Learner example:
Maria went with me, and I have no doubt she loved the lake like I did.

there's no doubt
[B1] it is certain

Dictionary example:
There is no doubt (that) he's a good player.

Learner example:
However, there is no doubt that it is a nice one.

be in doubt
[B2] to not be certain

Dictionary example:
The future of the project is in doubt.

Learner example:
If you don't know the difference, or if you are in doubt, keep on reading.

without (a) doubt
[B2] certainly

Dictionary example:
She is without doubt a great writer.

Learner example:
Without a doubt we all are influenced by fashion in a number of ways.

no doubt
[C1] used to say that something is very likely

Dictionary example:
No doubt she'll spend the money on new clothes.

Learner example:
No doubt I will find the skills acquired [on] the course, especially speaking skills, most useful in my future contacts with clients from English–speaking countries.

cast doubt on sth
[C2] to make something seem uncertain
Dictionary example:
Witnesses have cast doubt on the suspect’s innocence.

Learner example:
Wars lead to suffering, tears and [the] death of many people. They cast doubt on our humanity and values, especially in countries where the right to live is the principal one.

beyond/without a/the shadow of a doubt [C2] If something is true beyond a shadow of a doubt, it is certainly true.

Dictionary example:
He stole the money, without a shadow of a doubt.

Learner example:
It is beyond the shadow of a doubt that Douglas does not offer her this kind of life.

VERB [T]

FEEL UNCERTAIN
[B2] to feel uncertain about something or to think that something is not probable

Dictionary examples:
I doubt whether/if I can finish the work on time.
I doubt (that) I’ll get the job.
He may come back tomorrow with the money, but I very much doubt it.

Learner example:
She doubted if she could manage it at all.

NOT BELIEVE
[C1] to not believe someone or something

Dictionary example:
Do you have any reason to doubt her?

Learner example:
I urge you to act fast and promptly in order to avoid serious consequences: to apologise to the hospital, note the mistakes in your newspaper and to doubt the reliability of your source.

doubtful /ˈdaʊt.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: doubt
Verbs: doubt
Adjectives: doubtful, undoubted Adverbs: undoubtedly
ADJECTIVE

NOT PROBABLE
[B2] not probable

Dictionary examples:
It is doubtful whether/if he'll be able to come.
It was doubtful that the money would ever be found again.

Learner example:
It is certainly doubtful to say that the characteristics we are born with have much more influence on our personality than any experiences we may have in our life.

NOT CERTAIN
[B2] not feeling certain about something

Dictionary example:
The teacher is doubtful about having parents working as classroom assistants.

Learner example:
I am very doubtful [about whether] you were there when it was held.

down /daʊn/

ADVERB

IN WRITING
[B1] in writing or on paper

Dictionary examples:
Do you have it down in writing/on paper, or was it just a verbal agreement?
I've put you down for three tickets each.

Learner example:
You have to bring a pen and paper to write down the teacher's notes.

FAR
[B1] used, especially with prepositions, to emphasize that a place is far from you or from somewhere considered to be central

Dictionary examples:
I'll meet you down at the club after work.
He has a house down by the harbour.
I'm going down to the shop to buy some milk.

Learner example:
As soon as we drove down from the hills, I heard the noise from the town and I didn't like that.
down to earth
[C1] People or ideas that are down to earth are practical and work well.

Dictionary example:
David’s a bit of a dreamer but Ruth’s much more down to earth.

Learner example:
He has much practical knowledge, he is down to earth.

be down to sb
[C2] to be someone’s responsibility or decision

Dictionary example:
I’ve done all I can now, the rest is down to you.

Learner example:
It is down to us to prevent homelessness.

down under [C2] Australia, or in Australia

Dictionary example:
She was born in Scotland, but she’s been living down under for 22 years.

Learner example:
Last year a good friend of mine and I went to Australia. After a couple of days of doing some sightseeing and sunbathing on beautiful sandy beaches, we decided that we need[ed] to get something more out of our stay down under.

PREPOSITION

down the drain INFORMAL
[C2] If money or work goes down the drain, it is wasted.

Dictionary example:
If you leave the course now, all your hard work will go down the drain.

Learner example:
All those evening conversations and the investment of 100,000 yen went down the drain, I thought.

ADJECTIVE

UNHAPPY
[B2] unhappy or unable to feel excited or energetic about anything

Dictionary examples:
She’s been really down since her husband died.
I’ve been (feeling) a bit down this week.

Learner example:
If you are feeling down or depressed, what are you doing?
NOT WORKING
[C1] If a computer or machine is down, it is temporarily not working.

Dictionary example:
The network was down all morning.

Learner example:
If other departments use the online system, it seems to be down for a while.

down and out
[C2] having no money, no luck and no opportunities

Dictionary example:
Nobody loves you when you're down and out.

Learner example:
The neglect of social security as a vital point in state policies leaves homeless people down and out, with little chance for improving their bleak prospects.

be down in the dumps INFORMAL
[C2] to be unhappy

Dictionary example:
He looks a bit down in the dumps.

Learner example:
She felt happy when I was down in the dumps or in a fix and kept on being jealous of me concerning trivial matters.

downhill /ˌdaʊnˈhɪl/

ADVERB

TOWARDS BOTTOM
[C2] towards the bottom of a hill or slope

Dictionary example:
It's so much easier cycling downhill.

Learner example:
Skiing downhill in deep snow is the most rewarding experience.

go downhill
[C2] to gradually become worse

Dictionary example:
After his wife died, his health started to go downhill.

Learner example:
He had been going downhill in the last few days and so his death came as no surprise.
download

NOUN [C] ˈdaʊn.ləʊd/
[B1] a computer program, music or other information that has been or can be downloaded

Dictionary example:
a free download downside ˈdaʊn.sɑːrd/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[C1] the disadvantage of a situation

Dictionary example:
The downside of living in a city is all the pollution.

Learner example:
However, there is a downside to it as more and more products are exported/imported, domestic economies lose a lot trying – and usually failing – to face the competition that is coming from other countries.

downstairs

ADJECTIVE ˈdaʊn.steez/
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] on or at a lower floor of a building, especially the ground floor

Dictionary example:
The burglars had got in through a downstairs window.

Learner example:
Every year when winter com[es], our heating [doe]sn’t work very well. [The] upstairs rooms [are] ok, but [the] downstairs rooms are cold.

down-to-earth ˌdaʊn.tuˈɜːθ/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Down-to-earth people or ideas are practical and work well.

Dictionary example:
I like your down-to-earth approach to problem-solving.
Learner example:
His huge popularity mainly lies in his down-to-earth attitude.

downward  /ˈdaʊn.wəd/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] moving towards a lower position

Dictionary example:
a downward trend

Learner example:
Company B's profit marks a downward tendency from 1990 to 2000, going from [a] 2 million dollar profit to the extrem[e] result of no profit at all.

a downward spiral
[C2] a situation which is getting worse very quickly, and which is difficult to control

Dictionary example:
After his death, the family went into a downward spiral.

Learner example:
Unemployment is one of the major problems of our society. It is the first step of a downward spiral.

downwards  /ˈdaʊn.wədz/

ADVERB
[C1] towards a lower place or level

Dictionary example:
The road slopes downwards to the river.

Learner example:
Water runs downwards into [the] turbine when the valve is open.

dozen  /ˈdʌz.ən/

NOUN [C]; DETERMINER
[B1] twelve

Dictionary examples:
a dozen eggs
This recipe makes three dozen cookies.
Could you get me half a dozen eggs when you go to the shop?
Learner example:
We were a dozen people.

dozens
[C1] informal a lot

Dictionary example:
She's got dozens of friends.

Learner example:
There are, as well, dozens of robots able to handle any kind of work in our homes.

draft /draːft/

noun [c]
[B2] a piece of writing or a plan that is not yet in its finished form

Dictionary examples:
This is only a rough draft – the finished article will have pictures as well.
She asked me to check the first draft of her proposal.

Learner example:
Now I can use my computer for making monthly reports at home [and] making different kinds of project drafts.

verb [t]
[C1] to produce a piece of writing or a plan that you intend to change later

Dictionary example: to draft a letter

Learner example:
I hope all these statements will help you to draft the new programme, good luck!

drag /dræg/verb (-gg-)

computer
[B1] to move something on a computer screen using a mouse

Dictionary example:
Drag the icon to the new window.

drag and drop
[B1] to move something on a computer screen using a mouse and place it where you want it to be Dictionary example:
drag and drop exercises

PULL
[B2] [f] to pull someone or something along the ground, usually with difficulty

Dictionary examples:
Pick the chair up instead of dragging it behind you!
She dragged the canoe down to the water.

Learner example:
Another man approached the agent, both watching as officers dragged the man to a nearby car.

drag sb along/out/to, etc.
[C2] to make someone go somewhere they do not want to go

Dictionary examples:
She dragged me to the shops to look at shoes.
I have to drag myself out of bed every morning.

Learner example:
When she first saw him, speaking his radical views at some sort of political meeting she had been dragged along to by a friend, she was at first scared but later enchanted.

TIME
[C2] [ʊ] to continue for too much time in a boring way

Dictionary examples:
The afternoon really seemed to drag.
The negotiations dragged on for months.

Learner example:
The afternoon dragged on interminably, and I suddenly felt like going out.

drain /drɛɪn/

VERB

REMOVE LIQUID
[C2] [r] to remove the liquid from something, usually by pouring it away or allowing it to flow away

Dictionary examples:
Drain the pasta and add the sauce.
We drained the pond and filled it with fresh water.

Learner example:
Peter the Great ordered the swampy lands to be drained.
FLOW AWAY
[C2] [i] If something drains, liquid flows away or out of it.

Dictionary example:
Don’t bother drying the pans – just leave them to drain.

Learner example:
The sink doesn’t drain, which is a major problem for me.

REDUCE
[C2] [i or ɪ] to reduce or cause something to reduce

Dictionary example:
The long war had drained the resources of both countries.

Learner example:
These people drain government funds that can be used to deal with unemployment.

MAKE TIRED
[C2] [ɪ] to make someone very tired

Dictionary example:
The long journey drained him.

Learner example:
Especially when you’ve had a hard day at work, when the constant high temperature drains the energy from you, or when you’re not feeling well because of any other reason, you need that comforting phone call from your best friend more than ever.

NOUN [C]

FOR WATER
[C2] a pipe or hole that takes away waste liquids or water

Dictionary example:
She poured the dirty water down the drain.

Learner example:
I wish to put forward some ideas, which I think can help: checking the area and surroundings, making sure there is no garbage lying around; cleaning the fallen leaves etc. from the drains.

a drain on sth
[C2] something that uses or wastes a lot of money or energy

Dictionary example:
Keeping these people in prison is a huge drain on government finances.

Learner example:
This need results in an ever-increasing drain on [the] country’s resources.

down the drain INFORMAL
[C2] If money or work goes down the drain, it is wasted.
Dictionary example:
If you leave the course now, all your hard work will go down the drain.

Learner example:
All those evening conversations and the investment of 100,000 yen went down the drain, I thought.

drama /ˈdrɑː.mə/

Word family:
Nouns: drama
Adjectives: dramatic Adverbs: dramatically

NOUN [C or U]

THEATRE
[B1] a play in a theatre or on television or radio, or plays and acting generally

Dictionary examples:
She's been in several television dramas.
He's the drama critic for the Times.
She studied English and drama at college.

Learner example:
It was a drama club.

EXCITEMENT
[B1] an event or situation, especially an unexpected one, in which there is worry or excitement and usually a lot of action

Dictionary examples:
We had a little drama last night when the oil in the pan caught fire.
There was a lot of drama in the courtroom.

Learner example:
Fortunately he found [my ring]. How happy I was! The drama was over!

dramatic /drəˈmæt.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: drama
Adjectives: dramatic Adverbs: dramatically

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very sudden or noticeable, or full of action and excitement
Dictionary examples:

a dramatic change/improvement
We watched scenes of the dramatic rescue on the news.

Learner example:
His suicide at the end of the book was the most dramatic event in this story and has touched me deeply.

dramatically /drəˈmæt.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: drama
Adjectives: dramatic Adverbs: dramatically

ADVERB

[B2] suddenly or obviously

Dictionary example:
Your life changes dramatically when you have a baby.

Learner example:
She fell dramatically to the floor.

drastic /ˈdræs.tɪk/

Word family:
Adjectives: drastic
Adverbs: drastically

ADJECTIVE

[C1] severe and sudden or having very noticeable effects

Dictionary example:
drastic measures

Learner example:
If within 30 days I don't receive any kind of compensation (preferably money), I may have to take drastic measures.

drastically /ˈdræs.tɪk.ɪlɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: drastic
Adverbs: drastically

863
ADVERB
[C1] in a drastic way

Dictionary example:
The number of bees has drastically declined due to a combination of factors.

Learner example:
Conditions have changed drastically after the reunification.

draught /draːft/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a current of cold air in a room

Dictionary example:
There’s a terrible draught coming from under the door.

Learner example:
When it is windy we can feel a draught.

draw /drɔː/

Word family:
Nouns: drawing
Verbs: draw

VERB (drew, drawn) draw into/out/away, etc.

[B2] to move in a particular direction, especially in a vehicle

Dictionary examples:
The train slowly drew into the station/drew in.
As we drew alongside the black car, I suddenly recognized my ex-boyfriend at the wheel.
Montgomery drew level with Greene in the 100 metres final, but never passed him.

Learner example:
I drew up at the gate of the house; the inside was in darkness and nobody seemed to be there.

ATTRACT
[B2] [ɪ] to attract someone to a place or person

Dictionary example:
He’s an excellent speaker who always draws a crowd.

Learner example:
In the darkness, dark figures moved and twisted, [and] I felt drawn toward those evil chanting hordes, they seemed to mesmerise me, was all this for real or just a kind of Hell?
draw (sb’s) attention to sth/sb

[B2] to make someone notice something or someone

Dictionary examples:
Could I draw your attention to item number three on the agenda?
Does he wear those ridiculous clothes to draw attention to himself?

Learner example:
Thank you very much for drawing attention to this letter.

draw a conclusion

[B2] to consider the facts of a situation and make a decision about what is true, correct, likely to happen, etc.

Dictionary example:
I’d seen them together so often I drew the logical conclusion that they were husband and wife.

Learner example:
Since nobody ever heard from them again, we all drew the sad conclusion that they must be dead.

draw near/close

[B2] to become nearer in space or time

Dictionary example:
Her birthday's drawing nearer every day.

Learner example:
I would appreciate [it] very much if you could reply as soon as possible, as the school holiday is drawing near.

SPORT

[C1] [I or T] to finish a game or competition with each team or player having the same score

Dictionary example:
England drew 2–2 against Italy.

draw sth/sb across/back/over, etc.

[C2] to pull something or someone gently in a particular direction

Dictionary example:
He took her hand and drew her towards him.

Learner example:
As she drew me into the house she would tell me a story about Dari’s absence and [the] newly-born puppies of Dari’s, almost whispering into my ears as my eyes welled up with tears.

draw to a close/end

[C2] to be almost ended

Dictionary example:
At last the concert drew to a close.
Learner example:
As the dinner drew to an end, our weariness became all too clear.

draw a comparison/distinction
[C2] to say that there is a similarity or difference between two things

Dictionary example:
We need to draw a distinction between criticism and insults.

Learner example:
A country sh[ould] not be visited only to enable the tourist to draw a comparison between his country and the foreign one.

draw the line (at sth)
[C2] If someone says they know where to draw the line, they are talking about knowing at what point an activity or situation becomes unacceptable because it is wrong or too extreme

Dictionary example:
I swear a lot but even I draw the line at certain words.

Learner example:
A mistake is a mistake, people say. But in my opinion rape is not the same as shoplifting. So where do you draw the line?

drawback /ˈdrɔ:bæk/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a problem or disadvantage

Dictionary examples:
The only drawback with this camera is the price.
One of the main drawbacks of the program is the amount of memory required.

Learner example:
Both perspectives are important, but, overall, the advantages of proper in–house teaching outweigh the drawbacks.

dread /dred/

Word family:
Verbs: dread
Adjectives: dreadful

VERB [T]
[C2] to feel worried or frightened about something that has not happened yet
Dictionary examples:
I’m dreading the first day at my new school.
I dread seeing him again.

Learner example:
You could go through life regretting the past and dreading the future, and become a grumpy old man, or you could take it all as it comes, and enjoy every single moment.

I dread to think
[C2] used to say that you do not want to think about something because it is too worrying

Dictionary example:
I dread to think what could have happened if we hadn’t been wearing seat belts.

Learner example:
I dread to think what has happened to it since the day my younger brother left it in a park.

dreadful /ˈdred.fəl/

Word family:
Verbs: dread
Adjectives: dreadful

ADJECTIVE
[B2] extremely bad or unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
The food was bad and the service was dreadful.
I was beginning to think I’d made a dreadful mistake.
The news report was so dreadful that I just had to switch it off.

Learner example:
What a dreadful nightmare!

dream /driːm/

NOUN [c]

HOPE
[B1] something that you want to happen very much but that is not very likely

Dictionary examples:
It’s always been my dream to have flying lessons.
Winning all that money was a dream come true.

Learner example:
My dream was to become a professional singer.
be in a dream
[B2] to not notice things that are around you because you are thinking about something else

Dictionary example:

Learner example:
The first time I [saw a fashion] show, I was 10 years old and I [was] in a dream during the [whole] show.

beyond your wildest dreams
[C2] bigger or better than anything you could imagine or hope for

Dictionary example:
The house was beyond my wildest dreams.

Learner example:
[It] was beyond my wildest dreams.

not/never in your wildest dreams
[C2] used to say that something is better than anything you could imagine or hope for

Dictionary example:
Never in my wildest dreams had I thought I would be offered a starring role in Hollywood.

Learner example:
Not even in my wildest dreams could I have imagined that finding a diary was to have such fortunate consequences for me.

VERB [I or T] (dreamed or dreamt, dreamed or dreamt)

IMAGINE
[B1] to imagine something that you would like to happen

Dictionary example:
He never dreamed that one day he would become President.

Learner example:
I have always dreamed [of] becom[ing] a famous tennis [player].

wouldn't dream of doing sth
[C2] used to say that you would not do something because you think it is wrong or silly

Dictionary example:
I wouldn't dream of asking him for money.

Learner example:
Many people wouldn't dream of spending hours in a kitchen preparing a complex meal.
dress  /dres/

Word family:
Nouns: dress
Verbs: dress, undress
Adjectives: dressed, undressed

NOUN

STYLE
[B2] [U] a particular style of clothes

Dictionary example:
casual/formal dress

Learner example:
You had better put on formal dress.

VERB

WEAR PARTICULAR CLOTHES
[B1] [I] to wear a particular type of clothes

Dictionary examples:
I have to dress quite smartly for work.
Patricia always dresses in black.

Learner example:
The waiters dress in national clothes and are very kind.

dressed  /drest/

Word family:
Nouns: dress
Verbs: dress, undress
Adjectives: dressed, undressed

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

PARTICULAR CLOTHES
[B1] wearing clothing of a particular type

Dictionary example:
a well-dressed/casually dressed man

Learner example:
Last Saturday, there was a big party and everyone was well dressed.
drift /drɪft/

VERB [I]

drift across/down/towards, etc.

[C2] to be moved slowly somewhere by currents of wind or water

Dictionary example:
Smoke drifted across the rooftops.

Learner example:
As the clouds drifted past it, the light slowly returned.

SITUATION

[C2] to get into a situation or job without having any particular plan

Dictionary example:
He drifted into acting after university.

Learner example:
But once Stevens had noticed their working relationship was slowly drifting into a kind of love affair, he proposed to stop these evening meetings on account of their being not useful in a professional sense any more.

---

drive /draɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: drive, driver
Verbs: drive

VERB (drove, driven) drive sb mad/crazy, etc. INFORMAL

[B2] to make someone extremely annoyed

Dictionary examples:
My mother-in-law has been staying with us this past week and she's driving me crazy.
He leaves dirty clothes all over the floor and it's driving me mad.

Learner example:
It drove me crazy.

drive sb to sth; drive sb to do sth

[C1] to make someone have a bad feeling or do something bad

Dictionary example:
The arguments and violence drove her to leave home.
Learner example:
She would discover all about her affair with Lorraine's husband and the real cause that drove him to commit suicide.

MAKE WORK
[C2] [ɪ] to provide the power or energy that makes someone or something work

Dictionary example:
She was driven by greed and ambition.

Learner example:
On the other hand, we are reassured by large international corporations that everything is under control, but it is common knowledge that these capitalistic monsters are [so] driven by greed for money and power that they would say anything to calm down the public.

NOUN

JOURNEY
[B1] [c] a journey in a car

Dictionary example:
The drive from Boston to New York took four hours.

Learner example:
This restaurant is about [a] 1 hour drive from my home.

COMPUTER
[B1] [c] a part of a computer that can read or store information

Dictionary example:
Save your work on the C: drive.

Learner example:
Then we learned how to install components like a Soundboard or a CD-Rom drive.

ENERGY
[C1] [ʌ] energy and determination to achieve things

Dictionary example:
She has drive and ambition.

Learner example:
They definitely have the drive and motivation to succeed.

---

drop /drɒp/

VERB (—pp—)

FALL
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to fall or to allow something to fall
Dictionary examples:
She dropped her keys.
I'm always dropping things.
Amanda dropped her sunglasses in/into the fountain.
The book dropped from/off the shelf.
Don't drop it!/Don't let it drop!

Learner example:
Maybe this is the reason why I dropped my cup of tea.

drag and drop

[B1] to move something on a computer screen using a mouse and place it where you want it to be

Dictionary example:
drag and drop exercises

Learner example:
With simple mouse-clicks and by means of the well-known "drag-and-drop" method, this programme will enable you to select a fabric from the catalogue and "drop" it on a chair or couch, to see what they look like.

LOWER

[B2] [i or t] to move to a lower level, or cause something to move to a lower level

Dictionary examples:
The water level in the flooded region has finally begun to drop.
The land drops (away) sharply behind the house.
We've had to drop our prices because of the recession.

Learner example:
Especially if you imagine that the number of heart-attacks was about 40% per year and for [the] last 3 years dropped down to 23%.

STOP ACTIVITY

[B2] [t] to stop doing or planning something, especially an activity

Dictionary examples:
I'm going to drop yoga and do aerobics instead.
Can you drop what you're doing and help me with this report?

Learner example:
I think you shouldn't drop sports but on the other hand, if you drop sports and do music, it [would be] quite good as well.

TAKE

[C1] [t] (also drop off) to take someone or something to a place, usually by car as you travel somewhere else

Dictionary example:
I can drop you at the station on my way to work.
Learner example:
You [had] better hire a car or get to know somebody who can drop you there.

drop it/the subject
[C2] to stop talking about something, especially because it is annoying or upsetting someone

Dictionary example:
I don’t want to talk about it any more – let’s drop the subject.

drop dead
[C2] INFORMAL to die very suddenly

Dictionary example:
He just dropped dead in the middle of the show.

Learner example:
We can enjoy our longer lives because we don’t have to work until we drop dead.

NOUN

LIQUID
[B1] [c] a small round–shaped amount of liquid

Dictionary examples:
I thought I felt a drop of rain.
There were little drops of paint on the kitchen floor.

Learner example:
I could only hear the drops against the window–pane.

REDUCTION
[B2] [NO PLURAL] a reduction in the amount or level of something

Dictionary examples:
a drop in crime
The recent drop in magazine subscriptions is causing some concern.

Learner example:
It maintained the same level between 1998 and 2008 after a drop from 1996 to 1998.

DISTANCE
[C1] [NO PLURAL] a vertical distance down from somewhere to the ground

Dictionary example:
It’s a drop of about 50 metres from the top of the cliff.

a drop in the ocean
[C2] a very small amount compared to the amount needed

Dictionary example:
My letter of protest was just a drop in the ocean.
Learner example:
Naturally it is a drop in the ocean, but we can hope that the others will imitate our behaviour.

drought /draʊt/

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a long period when there is no rain and people do not have enough water

Dictionary example:
A severe drought ruined the crops.

Learner example:
We have wars, revolutions, political unrest, famine, drought, pollution, etc. Some of our problems are difficult to solve.

drown /draʊn/

VERB

DIE
[B2] I to die because you are under water and cannot breathe, or to kill someone in this way

Dictionary example:
Two people drowned in a boating accident yesterday.

Learner example:
Those days we spent in Brazil were full of excitement and I certainly wouldn’t mind doing it again – well, except for the episode in which you almost drowned when we went water-skiing.

COVER
[C2] If a loud noise drowns the sound of something else, it prevents that sound from being heard.

Dictionary example:
His voice was drowned out by the traffic.

Learner example:
It is furthermore impossible to listen to music as it is drowned by the noise.
drug /drʌɡ/

NOUN [c]

MEDICINE
[B2] any natural or artificially made chemical which is used as a medicine

Dictionary examples:
anti-cancer/fertility/pain-killing drugs
a prescription drug
He takes several drugs for his condition.

Learner example:
A great many drug companies all over the world have reduced input of dangerous chemicals into rivers, lakes and seas.

ILLEGAL SUBSTANCE
[B2] any natural or artificially made chemical which is taken for pleasure, to improve someone's performance of an activity, or because a person cannot stop using it

Dictionary examples:
illegal drugs
a drug addict drug addiction/abuse
She began to suspect that her son was on/taking/doing drugs.

Learner example:
Of course, I have never taken drugs.

drunk /drʌŋk/

Word family:
Nouns: drink
Verbs: drink
Adjectives: drunk

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] unable to behave or speak normally because of having had too much alcohol

Dictionary examples:
He got very drunk at my sister's wedding.
I'd had a glass of wine but I certainly wasn't drunk.
He came home last night blind drunk.

Learner example:
So, I just sat down watching Julie and her monstrous friends drinking and acting like animals – they were all blind drunk!
dry /draz/

ADJECTIVE (drier, driest or dryer, dryest)

WINE
[C1] Dry wine is not sweet.

Dictionary example:
I'd like a glass of dry white wine.

Learner example:
The only wine sold – a dry white wine of a very good quality – is the one made by the owners of the restaurant and I can assure you that it's worth trying it.

HAIR/SKIN
[C1] Dry skin or hair does not feel soft or smooth.

Dictionary example:
My lips feel really dry.

Learner example:
She looked old, her skin was dry and her eyes so lucid... .

BORING
[C2] If a book, talk, or subject is dry, it is not interesting.

Dictionary example:
His writing is always so dry and dull.

Learner example:
Facts and dates are dry and empty if teachers are not able to bring them to life.

VERB [I or T]

dry up PHRASAL VERB
[C2] If a supply of something dries up, it ends.

Dictionary example:
The work dried up and he went out of business.

Learner example:
Nevertheless we must consider that a society with many [people] over sixty has its problems, such as retirement funds which [have] dried up.

dual /ˈdjuː.əl/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] having two parts, or having two of something Dictionary examples:
dual nationality
She's got a bit of a dual personality.

Learner example:
I have dual nationality.

dubious /ˈdjuː.bi.əs/

ADJECTIVE

NOT TRUE
[C2] thought not to be completely true, honest, or legal

Dictionary examples:
dubious evidence a man with a dubious reputation

Learner example:
He was blackmailed, his children were twice kidnapped and his wife was badly injured in mysterious and dubious circumstances.

Doubting
[C2] not certain that something is good or true

Dictionary example:
He’s dubious about the benefits of acupuncture.

Learner example:
As far as entertainers are concerned, I am rather dubious about their contribution to a better world.

duck /dʌk/

NOUN [C]

be (like) water off a duck's back
[C2] If criticisms, insults, etc. are like water off a duck's back to you, they do not affect you at all.

Dictionary example:
She calls him lazy and useless, but it's like water off a duck's back.

Learner example:
The main lesson I have learned is by looking at some people who have lived alone for most of their life and faced with neither contradiction nor argument, they stay in their ivory tower, so sure of their opinions that whatever you say is like water off a duck's back.
due /djuː/

ADJECTIVE

EXPECTED
[B1] expected to happen, arrive, etc. at a particular time

Dictionary examples:
What time is the next bus due?
The next meeting is due to be held in three months' time.
Their first baby is due in January.

Learner example:
It is my science assignment which is due on Tuesday, so I have no time to research and write it again.

due to [B1] because of

Dictionary examples:
A lot of her unhappiness is due to boredom.
Due to wet leaves on the line, this train will arrive an hour late.

Learner example:
First of all, I want to say that France is the best place to cycle, due to its mountains and fantastic forests.

in due course
[B2] at a suitable time in the future

Dictionary example:
The results will be sent to you in due course.

Learner example:
I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

be due for sth
[C1] If you are due for something, it should happen very soon.

Dictionary example:
I'm due for a check-up at the dentist's.

Learner example:
The facilities and canteen are due for improvement too.

DESERVE
[C2] Something that is due to you is something that is owed to you or something you deserve.

Dictionary example:
He didn't get the praise and recognition that was due to him.
Learner example:
Slowly she walked into the living room, knowing that a big apology was due [to her].

BEHAVIOUR
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] FORMAL correct and suitable

Dictionary example:
He was fined for driving without due care and attention.

Learner example:
However, we should take due care not to make wrong assumptions and be prejudicial to others as a consequence.

dull /dʌl/

ADJECTIVE
BORING
[B1] not interesting or exciting in any way; boring

Dictionary examples:
She wrote dull, respectable articles for the local newspaper.
He's pleasant enough, but deadly dull.

Learner example:
In my opinion the film was very boring because the story was poor and dull.

NOT BRIGHT
[C1] not bright

Dictionary examples:
dull colours
dull weather

Learner example:
Confronted with her childrens' styles she changed from old-fashioned skirts in dull colours to comfortable jeans and colourful shirts.

dumb /dʌm/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] physically unable to talk

Dictionary example:
The child is deaf and dumb.
Learner example:
The first one is "Lessons of Piano". It is the story of a dumb woman who uses a piano to express her feelings and moods.

dump  /dʌmp/

VERB

GET RID OF
[C1] [r] to put something somewhere to get rid of it, especially in a place where you should not put it

Dictionary example:
The company was fined for illegally dumping toxic chemicals.

Learner example:
I can pick up all the bottles and other rubbish that are dumped on the street where I live.

dump sth on/in/down, etc.
[C2] to put something somewhere quickly and carelessly

Dictionary example:
Henri dumped his bag on the table and went upstairs.

Learner example:
Annabel dumped her school bag on the floor and threw herself onto her bed.

END RELATIONSHIP
[C2] INFORMAL to suddenly end a romantic relationship

Dictionary example:
If he's so awful, why don't you just dump him?

Learner example:
I had just been dumped by a guy I thought I was in love with.

NOUN [C] (ALSO UK tip)

WASTE
[C1] a place where people take things that they do not want

Dictionary example:
We took our old mattress to the dump.

Learner example:
Thankfully, with the help of the government, a recycling centre was built nearby and so the rubbish littering the streets, as well as that being taken to the dump, was cut down by 60%.

UNTIDY PLACE
[C2] INFORMAL a place that is dirty and untidy
Dictionary example:
His room is a dump.

be down in the dumps INFORMAL
[C2] to be unhappy

Dictionary example:
He looks a bit down in the dumps.

Learner example:
She felt happy when I was down in the dumps or in a fix and kept on being jealous of me concerning trivial matters.

duration /djuəˈreɪʃən/

NOUN [U] FORMAL
[C1] the amount of time that something lasts

Dictionary example:
The singer remained in the hotel for the duration of his stay in the UK.

Learner example:
If you are between 18 and 30 years old, we offer you a wide range of jobs with a duration varying from two weeks to three months.

dust /dʌst/

Word family:
Nouns: dust
Adjectives: dusty

NOUN [U]
[B1] dry dirt in the form of powder that covers surfaces inside a building, or very small dry pieces of soil, sand or other substances

Dictionary examples:
The furniture was covered in dust.
A cloud of dust rose in the air as the car roared past.
coal dust

Learner example:
Also, in the countryside there are more bugs and dust than in the city.
dustbin /ˈdʌst.bin/ (UK also bin)

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large container for rubbish from a house or other building, usually made of strong plastic or metal and kept outside

Dictionary example:
I threw his old clothes in the dustbin.

Learner example:
Finally, I will put this horrible yellowed carpet in the dustbin!

dusty /ˈdʌs.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: dust
Adjectives: dusty

ADJECTIVE
[B1] covered with dust

Dictionary example:
a dusty old chair

Learner example:
Not a sound could be heard in the dusty street except for the contin[u]ous roar of my almost useless pick-up.

duty /ˈdjuː.ti/

NOUN

RIGHT THING TO DO
[B1] [c or u] something that you have to do because it is part of your job, or something that you feel is the right thing to do

Dictionary examples:
I felt it was my duty to tell them the truth.
He only went to see her out of duty.

Learner example:
It is not enjoyable if you look at it as a duty.

JOB
[B2] [c or u] something you do as part of your job or because of your position
Dictionary example:
professional/official duties

Learner example:
And it is the most important duty of the local police to keep an eye on hooligans.

on/off duty
[B2] If someone such as a doctor or a soldier is on duty, they are working, and if they are off duty, they are not working.

Dictionary example:
What time are you off/on duty tomorrow?

Learner example:
I was on duty in front of the major’s house with another soldier.

---

duty-free /ˌdjuː tiˈfriː/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] Duty-free goods are things you can buy and bring into a country without paying tax.

Dictionary example:
I bought some duty-free perfume at the airport.

Learner example:
We went to get some alcohol in a duty-free shop.

---

duvet /ˈduː.vət/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a cover filled with feathers or warm material that you sleep under

Dictionary example:
She snuggled down under the duvet.

Learner example:
So I'm thinking [of] buy[ing] a feather duvet, a real one!
dwell /dwel/

VERB

dwell on/upon sth PHRASAL VERB
[C1] to keep thinking or talking about something, especially something bad or unpleasant

Dictionary example:
I don't want to dwell on the past.

Learner example:
Considering this astonishing technical feature, I do not wish to dwell too long upon the subject.

dynamic /daɪˈnæm.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE

ACTIVE
[B2] full of ideas, energy and enthusiasm

Dictionary example:
She's young and dynamic and will be a great addition to the team.

Learner example:
I am a cheerful, dynamic and hardworking person.

CHANGING
[C2] continuously changing or moving

Dictionary example:
a dynamic economy

Learner example:
Consequently, the country has a less dynamic economy.
eager /ˈiː.gər/

Word family:
- Nouns: eagerness
- Adjectives: eager
- Adverbs: eagerly

ADJECTIVE
- [B2] wanting to do or have something very much

Dictionary examples:
She sounded very eager to meet you.
They crowded round the spokesperson, eager for any news.

Learner example:
We are six Italian teenagers eager to meet new people.

eagerly /ˈiː.gə.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: eagerness
- Adjectives: eager
- Adverbs: eagerly

ADVERB
- [B2] in an eager way

Dictionary example:
an eagerly awaited announcement

Learner example:
I'm eagerly waiting for your reply.

eagerness /ˈiː.gə.nəs/

Word family:
- Nouns: eagerness
- Adjectives: eager
- Adverbs: eagerly

885
NOUN [u]
[B2] when you are eager to do something

Dictionary example:
In their eagerness to find a solution, they have overlooked certain difficulties.

Learner example:
I really admire your stamina, your commitment and your eagerness to pursue a career as one of the youngest vice presidents ever in the company, but is it really worth it?

eagle  /ˈiː.gl/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a large, strong bird with a curved beak that hunts smaller animals

Learner example:
For many animals zoos are the only hope for survival: for example the Chinese panda or white eagle.

ear  /ɪə/

NOUN [c]
not believe your ears
[B2] to be very surprised when you hear what someone says

Dictionary example:
I couldn't believe my ears when Dan said they were getting married.

Learner example:
I couldn't believe my ears. All my wishes had come true.

have an ear for sth
[C1] to be good at hearing, repeating, or understanding a particular type of sound

Dictionary example:
He has no ear for music.

Learner example:
In terms of communication I believe that I have an ear for languages.

play sth by ear
[C2] to play a piece of music by remembering the notes

Dictionary example:
She plays all the songs by ear.
Learner example:
As the years went by, she found it hard to cope with her slow headway in classical piano and her endlessly unfinished songs played by ear.

play it by ear
[C2] to decide how to deal with a situation as it develops

Dictionary example:
I'm not sure what to tell Dad – I'll just have to play it by ear.

Learner example:
On the way to Cambridge, I had made up my mind to play it by ear.

fall on deaf ears
[C2] If advice or a request falls on deaf ears, people ignore it.

Dictionary example:
Our pleas for help fell on deaf ears.

Learner example:
His cry for help and for a more meaningful relationship between himself and Mildred invariably fell on deaf ears.

---

earache  /ˈɪər.eɪk/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] pain in your ear

Dictionary example:
He was suffering from earache.

Learner example:
I feel ill and I've got earache.

---

early  /ˈɜː.li/ (earlier, earliest)

ADJECTIVE

BEFORE
[B1] before the usual time or the time that was arranged

Dictionary examples:
I'm going to have an early night.
She took early retirement.

Learner example:
I have been thinking about early retirement.
early on [C2] in the first stage or part of something

Dictionary example:
I lost interest quite early on in the book.

Learner example:
What luck that I found such a yardstick early on in my childhood.

at the earliest
[C2] used after a time or date to show that something will not happen before then

Dictionary example:
Building will not begin until July at the earliest.

earn /ɜːn/

Word family:
Nouns: earnings
Verbs: earn

VERB

earn a/your living
[B2] to work to get money for the things you need

Dictionary example:
You can't expect to earn a living from your painting.

Learner example:
We work to earn a living.

DESERVE
[C2] [ɪ] to get something that you deserve because of your work, qualities, etc.

Dictionary example:
As a teacher you have to earn the respect of your students.

Learner example:
Okonkwu was totally different. He was very disciplined and focussed. [...] He wanted to earn the respect of his society.

earnings /ˈɜː.nɪŋz/

Word family:
Nouns: earnings
Verbs: earn
NOUN [PLURAL]
[B2] money that you get for working

Dictionary example:
Average earnings for skilled workers are rising.

Learner example:
Finally, I think that publishers are so worried about their earnings that they don't pay attention to new writers.

earth /ɜːθ/

NOUN

PLANET
[B1] [NO PLURAL] (ALSO Earth) the planet that we live on

Dictionary examples:
The Earth takes approximately 365 days to go round the Sun.
Swimming in a pool is the best place on Earth to be on a hot day like this.

Learner example:
I like it because it is the best football on Earth!

SUBSTANCE
[B2] [u] soil or ground

Dictionary example:
The ploughed earth looked rich and dark.

Learner example:
At the same time, the two sisters began to throw earth and stones.

how/what/why, etc. on earth? INFORMAL
[C1] used when you are extremely surprised, confused, or angry about something

Dictionary example:
Why on earth didn't you tell me before?

Learner example:
How on earth can you have a coach without a toilet?

down to earth
[C1] People or ideas that are down to earth are practical and work well.

Dictionary example:
David's a bit of a dreamer but Ruth's much more down to earth.

Learner example:
He has much practical knowledge, he is down to earth.
earthquake /ˈɜːθ.kweɪk/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a sudden movement of the Earth's surface, often causing severe damage

Dictionary example:
A powerful earthquake struck eastern Turkey last night.

Learner example:
Human beings are afraid of dangers such as [a] tornado or earthquake.

ease /iːz/

Word family:
Nouns: ease
Adjectives: easy, uneasy
Adverbs: easily, easy

NOUN [u]

NOT DIFFICULT
[B2] If you do something with ease, it is easy for you to do it.

Dictionary examples:
She won the 400m race with ease.
I was amazed at the ease with which she learnt the language.

Learner example:
She finally left the small village in the pursuit of her goal, which she achieved with relative ease.

at ease
[B2] feeling relaxed and comfortable

Dictionary example:
I felt completely at ease with him.

Learner example:
I really felt at ease: your house is very comfortable and the neighbours are nice people.

ill at ease
[C2] not relaxed and feeling anxious

Dictionary example:
I always felt very ill at ease in his company.

Learner example:
I was a bit annoyed, or rather, ill at ease at first; but his kindness soon made me feel relaxed in his company.
easily /ˈiː.zi.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: ease
- Adjectives: easy, uneasy
- Adverbs: easily, easy

ADVERB

LIKELY

[C1] used to emphasize that something is likely

Dictionary example:
A comment like that could easily be misunderstood.

Learner example:
Considering the results of our research and the available alternatives, we came to the conclusion that there is no valid reason for replacing a valuable park with a car park that could easily be located somewhere else.

easily the best/worst/biggest, etc.

[C2] certainly the best/worst/biggest, etc.

Dictionary example:
It was easily the biggest dog I have ever seen.

Learner example:
In conclusion, the percentage of newly employed make up easily the biggest proportion of UK university students [that] graduated in 2001.

---

east (also East) /iːst/

Word family:
- Nouns: east
- Adjectives: east, eastern

NOUN [u]

the East

[B2] the countries of Asia

Dictionary example:
She spent her childhood in the East – mostly in China and Japan.
eastern (also Eastern) /ˈiː.stən/

Word family:
Nouns: east
Adjectives: east, eastern

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

EAST PART
[B1] in or from the east part of an area

Dictionary example:
The eastern part of the country is very mountainous.

Learner example:
After that you can catch a train which takes you to the eastern part of Switzerland.

ASIA
[B2] in or from the countries of Asia

Dictionary example:
Buddhism and other Eastern religions fascinate me.

Learner example:
I would like to know if the restaurant [has] Eastern or Asian [food]?

easy /ˈiː.zi/

Word family:
Nouns: ease
Adjectives: easy, uneasy
Adverbs: easily, easy

ADJECTIVE

(take) the easy way out
[C1] to do what is easiest in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I know you don't approve of his working methods, but why not take the easy way out this time and agree to his request?

Learner example:
On the other hand you cannot survive without your pay-check and to be able to both make a car[ee]r and have the time to be green, sometimes you just have to take the easy way out.

ADVERB

take it/things easy
[B1] to relax and not use too much energy
Dictionary example:
After his heart attack, he had to take things easy for a while.

Learner example:
Take it easy and see you soon.

easier said than done
[C1] used to say that something seems like a good idea but it would be difficult to do

Dictionary example:
I want to ask her out, but it's easier said than done.

Learner example:
I know it's easier said than done but you have to try.

easygoing (easy-going) /ˌIː.ziːˈgəʊ.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] usually relaxed and calm, not worried or upset

Dictionary example:
My brother is easygoing, but I'm the excitable type.

Learner example:
She was friendly, easygoing and sociable, [and] I enjoyed my free time with her.

eat /iːt/ (ate, eaten)

VERB

eat out PHRASAL VERB
[B1] to eat in a restaurant

Dictionary example:
When I lived in Spain, I used to eat out all the time.

Learner example:
If you don't have any plans next weekend, I want to eat out with you.

eat up (sth) or eat (sth) up PHRASAL VERB [B2] to eat all the food you have been given

Dictionary example:
Be a good boy and eat up your dinner.

Learner example:
There wasn't any more time after eating it up.
eccentric /ɪkˈsen.trɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] behaving in a strange and unusual way

Dictionary examples:
an eccentric professor eccentric behaviour

Learner example:
Celebrities become eccentric to the point of godlike insanity.

echo /ˈe.kəʊ/

VERB (echoing, echoed)

SOUND
[C2] [ɪ] If a sound echoes, or a place echoes with a sound, you hear the sound again because you are in a large, empty space.

Dictionary example:
Their voices echoed around the room.

Learner example:
Our cheer of delight united with the neighing of the horses and the din of the hens still echoes in my ears.

REPEAT
[C2] [rɪ] to repeat something that someone else has said because you agree with it or to express similar ideas or feelings to someone else

Dictionary examples:
This report echoes some of the earlier research I've read.
Her feelings are echoed by other parents in the same situation.

Learner example:
I find myself echoing many of the points you have raised.

NOUN [C] (echoes)

SOUND
[C2] a sound that you hear more than once because you are in a big, empty space

Dictionary example:
I could hear the echo of the bell.

Learner example:
You can always hear the echo of a bell.
ecological  /ˌiː.kəˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: ecology
Adjectives: ecological Adverbs: ecologically

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to ecology or the environment

Dictionary example:
The destruction of the rain forests is an ecological disaster.

Learner example:
There are ecological, technical, and social problems.

ecologically  /ˌiː.kəˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: ecology
Adjectives: ecological Adverbs: ecologically

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that relates to ecology or the environment

Dictionary example:
It's an ecologically friendly/sound means of transport.

ecology  /ɪˈkɒl.ə.dʒi/

Word family:
Nouns: ecology
Adjectives: ecological Adverbs: ecologically

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C1] the relationship between living things and the environment, or the scientific study of this

Dictionary example:
The oil spill caused terrible damage to the fragile ecology of the coast.

Learner example:
This solution supports business – well, then it's up to the residents to choose either business or ecology.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>economic /ˌiː.kəˈnɒm.ɪk/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: economics, economist, economy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: economic, economical</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] relating to trade, industry and money</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>We have seen ten years of economic growth.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The government's economic policies have led us into the worst recession for years.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nowadays there are economic problems in many countries.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>economical /ˌiː.kəˈnɒm.ɪ.kəl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: economics, economist, economy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: economic, economical</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] not using a lot of money, fuel, etc.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What's the most economical way of heating this building?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>There's increasing demand for cars which are more economical on fuel.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moreover a bike is a very economical means of transport because it does not need any fuel.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>economics /ˌiː.kəˈnɒm.ɪks/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: economics, economist, economy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: economic, economical</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [U]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] the study of the way in which trade, industry and money are organized</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She's in her third year of economics at York University.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I am 20 years old and I am studying economics at university in Berlin.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table> economist /ɪˈkɒn.ə.mɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: economics, economist, economy
Adjectives: economic, economical

NOUN [c]

[B2] a person who studies or has a special knowledge of economics

Learner example:
I discovered that one of the examiners was a very famous economist.

---

economy /ɪˈkɒn.ə.mi/

Word family:
Nouns: economics, economist, economy
Adjectives: economic, economical

NOUN [c]

[B2] the system by which a country produces and uses goods and money

Dictionary examples:
the German/US economy
the global economy
a weak/strong economy

The economy has been growing at a rapid rate these past five years.
Tourism contributes millions of pounds to the country’s economy.

Learner example:
As China’s economy is growing fast, we will run low [on] resources soon.

---

edge /ˈedʒ/

NOUN [c]

OUTER POINT

[B1] the part of something that is furthest from the centre

Dictionary examples:
He’d piped fresh cream around the edge of the cake.
They built the church on the edge of the village.
I caught my leg on the edge of the table as I walked past.
A man was standing at the water’s edge with a small boy.

Learner example:
Finally, I managed to move my right foot closer to the edge.
BLADE

[B2] the part of a blade of a knife or tool that cuts, or any sharp part of an object which could cut

Dictionary example:
Careful with that open tin – it’s got a very sharp edge.

Learner example:
When I sat down, I didn’t notice that the seat in front of me was broken on the side, and when it was time for me to get off the bus, I cut my hand on the sharp edge.

have the edge on/over sb/sth

[C2] to be slightly better than someone or something else

Dictionary example:
When it comes to food, I think France still has the edge over most countries.

Learner example:
The majority of people tend to believe that those who live in big cities have the edge over the others.

be on edge

[C2] to be nervous or worried

Dictionary example:
Sorry for shouting – I’m a bit on edge today.

Learner example:
I was consequently on edge all the time and was not able to have fun as much as the others did.

edible /ˈed.ə.bl/

Word family:
Adjectives: edible, inedible

ADJECTIVE

[C1] safe to eat and not harmful

Dictionary example:
edible berries

Learner example:
Part of your journey can be made through the forests where you can pick up some edible berries and wild mushrooms but be careful, you may need the local guide to help you with decisions there.
edit /ˈed.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: edition, editor
Verbs: edit

VERB [T]
[B2] to prepare text, film, etc. by deciding what to include and by correcting mistakes

Dictionary examples:
Janet edited books for a variety of publishers.
The film's 129 minutes were edited down from 150 hours of footage.

Learner example:
If you can edit these errors, I [would] appreciate [it].

edition /ɪˈdɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: edition, editor
Verbs: edit

NOUN [C]
[B2] a book, newspaper, etc. that is one of several that are the same and were produced at the same time

Dictionary examples:
a new edition
the paperback/hardback edition of the dictionary
The local/regional editions of the paper contain specific information for that area.

Learner example:

editor /ˈed.ɪ.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: edition, editor
Verbs: edit

NOUN [C]
[B2] a person who corrects or changes text, film, etc., or a person who is in charge of a newspaper or magazine
Dictionary examples:
She's a senior editor in the reference department of a publishing company.
Who is the current editor of the Times?

Learner example:
It seems to me that you don’t take your job as serious[ly] as every reader expects from an objective and informative newspaper editor.

educate /ˈed.ju.kət/
Word family:
Nouns: education
Verbs: educate
Adjectives: educated, educational

VERB [T]
TEACH
[B2] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to teach someone at a school, college or university

Dictionary examples:
She was educated at Crown Woods secondary school.
How much does it cost to educate a child privately?

Learner example:
Occasionally, students are not being educated equally. I strongly believe that students have to have the right to choose their subjects.

GIVE INFORMATION
[B2] to give people information about something so that they understand it better

Dictionary example:
The government say they are trying to do more to educate the public about the consequences of drug abuse.

Learner example:
Therefore, in my opinion, if people ha[d] been educated to love and respect nature, zoos would have already been abolished.

educated /ˈed.ju.kə.tɪd/
Word family:
Nouns: education
Verbs: educate
Adjectives: educated, educational
ADJECTIVE

[B2] Someone who is educated has learned a lot at school or in college and has a good level of knowledge.

Dictionary example:
These are all educated, professional people.

Learner example:
I'm going to buy a computer because I think it is [a] very useful and important thing for every educated [person].

an educated guess

[C2] a guess that is probably correct because you have enough knowledge about something

Dictionary example:
I know you don't have the exact figures with you, but make an educated guess.

Learner example:
If we make an educated guess, we will probably suppose that this tendency will continue [for] the next few years and that there will be a time when we won't be able to do anything without medicines.

education /ˌed.ʒəˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: education
Verbs: educate
Adjectives: educated, educational

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]

[B1] the process of teaching or learning in a school or college, or the knowledge that you get from this

Dictionary examples:
primary/secondary/adult/university/higher education
As a child he received most of his education at home.
It's a country which places great importance on education.
It's important for children to get a good education.

Learner example:
During my education I realised that it is very important for my career to speak English very well.
educational /ˌed.jʊˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: education
Verbs: educate
Adjectives: educated, educational

ADJECTIVE
[B2] providing education or relating to education

Dictionary examples:
educational toys
Reducing the size of classes may improve educational standards.

Learner example:
I want to ask you if the cinema could provide some extra services to the community, such as showing educational films for free.

effect /ɪˈfekt/

Word family:
Nouns: effect, effectiveness
Adjectives: effective
Adverbs: effectively

NOUN
RESULT
[B1] [c or u] the result of a particular influence

Dictionary examples:
The accident had a huge effect on her life.
We don’t know the long-term effects of this drug.

Learner example:
The next day, my teacher asked me to stand in front of all the students and then she told my classmates that being honest could always bring us a gift or have a fantastic effect on our life.

a sound/special/visual effect
[B1] a sound, image, etc. that is created artificially

Dictionary example:
It’s got to be thirty seconds long, and we can use whatever sound effects we like.

Learner example:
The film was amazing, with excellent special effects and good actors.

have little/no effect
[C1] make little/no difference
Dictionary example:
The new measures have had little effect on ordinary people’s lives.

Learner example:
As for the weather, it was only a five-minute shower that soon went over and therefore had no effect on the show.

take effect
[C1] to start to produce results or changes

Dictionary example:
They had to wait ten minutes for the anaesthetic to take effect.

Learner example:
Some factories tried to organize the transport for the employees, but it took effect in small towns only, where people live with shorter distances.

in effect
[C2] used to say what the real situation is

Dictionary example:
This means, in effect, that the plan has been scrapped.

Learner example:
However, if the government increases the amount of money they pay to the unemployed, that in effect means higher taxes for the citizens which will cause strikes and various other problems.

come/go into effect
[C2] to start being used

Dictionary example:
New food safety rules come into effect on Monday.

Learner example:
For a case in point consider London – ask any Londoner who lived in this city before this ban came into effect.

effective /ɪˈfɛk.tɪv/

Word family:
- Nouns: effect, effectiveness
- Adjectives: effective
- Adverbs: effectively

ADJECTIVE
[B2] successful or achieving the results that you want
Dictionary examples:
effective management
It's an extremely effective cure for a headache.
The lighting for the production made a very effective use of shadow.
She's a very effective teacher.

Learner example:
To be honest, I don't think it's very effective, but we have to do something against fat.

effectively /ɪˈfek.tɪv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: effect, effectiveness
Adjectives: effective
Adverbs: effectively

ADVERB

SUCCESS

[B2] in a way that is successful and achieves what you want

Dictionary examples:
Teachers need to be able to communicate ideas effectively.
The tablets work more effectively if you take a hot drink after them.

Learner example:
As well as learning English, we should be aware of the cultures of many countries in order to be able to communicate more effectively.

REALLY

[C2] used when you describe what the real result of a situation is

Dictionary example:
His illness effectively ended his career.

Learner example:
We have to remember that the Spanish language is becoming increasingly important, especially in countries like [the] US, where it is effectively THE second language of communication.

effectiveness /ɪˈfek.tɪv.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: effect, effectiveness
Adjectives: effective
Adverbs: effectively

NOUN [U]

[C1] the degree to which something achieves its intended result
Dictionary example:
There are doubts about the effectiveness of the drug.

Learner example:
If this is done, the effectiveness of the lessons will no doubt be increased.

efficiency  /ɪˈfɪʃ.ənt.i/
Word family:
Nouns: efficiency
Adjectives: efficient, inefficient
Adverbs: efficiently

NOUN [U]
[B2] when someone or something uses time and energy well, without wasting any

Dictionary examples:
What is so impressive about their society is the efficiency of the public services.
energy/fuel efficiency

Learner example:
Finally, I think modern technology makes me do my business faster, with much more efficiency.

efficient  /ɪˈfɪʃ.ənt/
Word family:
Nouns: efficiency
Adjectives: efficient, inefficient
Adverbs: efficiently

ADJECTIVE
[B1] working or operating quickly and effectively in an organized way

Dictionary examples:
The city’s transport system is one of the most efficient in Europe.
We need someone really efficient who can organize the office and make it run smoothly.

Learner example:
The staff were so court[e]ous and efficient, and the a[t]mosphere was intimate and relaxing.

efficiently  /ɪˈfɪʃ.ənt.li/
Word family:
Nouns: efficiency
Adjectives: efficient, inefficient
Adverbs: efficiently
ADVERB
[B2] quickly and effectively in an organized way

Dictionary example:
She runs the business very efficiently.

Learner example:
Needless to say, the computer plays a [key] role [in making] us use a library efficiently.

effort /ˈef.ərt/

NOUN ATTEMPT
[B1] [c or u] an attempt to do something

Dictionary examples:
If we could all make an effort to keep this office tidier it would help.
In their efforts to reduce crime the government have expanded the police force.
He's jogging round the park every morning in an effort to get fit for the football season.

Learner example:
So they planned everything and they didn't have to make an effort as the stupid "kidnapper" was walking my dog round the park before the meeting so they arrested him and I got my dog back.

ENERGY
[B1] [u] the energy that you need to do something

Dictionary examples:
They've put a lot of effort into getting the design of the magazine right.
It takes a long time to prepare the dish but the results are so good that it's worth the effort.
It would take too much effort to tidy his bedroom.

Learner example:
We climb[ed] a mountain and it was so hard, but the effort [was] worth it because the view was beautiful.

be an effort
[C2] to be difficult, tiring or boring to do

Dictionary examples:
After his accident, walking was an effort.
Sometimes, just getting out of bed in the morning is an effort.

Learner example:
It was a bit of an effort but actually such a small thing for him to do.
egg /ˈeɡ/

NOUN

BABY

[B2] [c] an oval object with a hard shell that contains a baby bird, insect or other creature

Dictionary examples:
The cuckoo lays her egg in another bird’s nest.
After fourteen days the eggs hatch.

Learner example:
The only thing they can do is to lay eggs.

a nest egg

[C2] a sum of money that has been saved or kept for a specific purpose

Dictionary example:
She used her nest egg to buy a really good piano.

Learner example:
She was the only heir of a rich family and her husband, who died ten years ago, le[f]t her a sizeable nest egg.

eighty /ˈeɪ.ti/

NUMBER

(be) in your eighties

[B2] to be aged between 80 and 89

Dictionary example:
Many of the residents are in their eighties.

the eighties

Dictionary example:
They moved to Britain in the eighties.

Learner example:
He is a normal man with no special education but he became famous during the eighties as a musician.
either /'aɪ.ðər/

CONJUNCTION

either... or
[B1] used when you are giving a choice between two or more things

Dictionary example:
Either you leave now or I call the police!

Learner example:
I thought: "Either I talk to her now or I won't be able to talk to her [at all]!"

ADVERB

[B1] used in negative sentences to mean that something else is true

Dictionary examples:
I don't eat meat and my husband doesn't either.
"I've never been to the States." "I haven't either."
The menu is boring at that restaurant and it's not cheap either.

Learner example:
It's so quick and not too expensive either.

PRONOUN; DETERMINER

ONE OF TWO
[B1] one of two people or things when it is not important which

Dictionary examples:
Either candidate would be ideal for the job.
"Would you like the metal or plastic one?" "Either will do."

Learner example:
But, either option, call me [at] my house before coming.

either way
[B1] used to talk about two possibilities where the result will be the same

Dictionary examples:
You can get there by train or bus – either way it'll take an hour.
He might have to resign or he might be given a desk job, but either way, his career is effectively over.

Learner example:
If that doesn't work, you can ask them to talk to your friends' parents so you could all go together. Either way, I know you will have lots of fun this summer.

either side/end, etc.
[B2] each of two sides, ends, etc.
Dictionary examples:
Unfortunately I was sitting at the table with smokers on either side of me. There are two entrances, one at either end of the campsite.

Learner example:
You can watch it while it’s eating: standing up on its back legs and holding the nut with its front legs, then putting all of it into one [of] its two "sacks" on either side of its mouth.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>elaborate /ɪˈlæb.ə.tə/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] complicated, detailed, or made carefully from many parts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>an elaborate system/scheme</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>an elaborate design</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A nurse was standing nearby, adjusting an intravenous vial suspended by an elaborate array of tubes.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>elapse /ɪˈlæps/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>VERB [I] FORMAL</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] If time elapses, it passes.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two years have elapsed since the attack.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two weeks elapsed and, not receiving any message from the music shop, I had to confess to my mother my new expenses, because I was starting my classes and the postman could arrive at any moment.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>elated /ɪˈleɪ.tɪd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] extremely happy and excited</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>We were elated by/at the news.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
When the show was over and I staggered from the scene I found myself in some kind of rose-tinted daze, elated by the sheer joy that, at least for me, only music can bring.

elbow /ˈel.bəʊ/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the part in the middle of your arm where it bends

Dictionary example:
Her arm was bandaged from the elbow to the fingers.

Learner example:
I was sure I would have a beautiful bru[i]se on my elbow.

elder /ˈel.dər/

ADJECTIVE

elder sister/brother/son/daughter
[B1] a sister/brother/son/daughter who is older than the other sister(s), brother(s), etc.

Dictionary example:
My elder sister is getting married.

Learner example:
My elder brother visited me [in] Berlin as you know.

NOUN

the elder
[B2] the older person of two people

Dictionary example:
Of the two brothers, Harvey is the elder.

Learner example:
The most interesting characters of "Jamaica Inn" are the Merlyn brothers. We first meet Joss, the elder, when Mary, the heroine of the story, arrived at the inn.

your elders
[C2] people older than you

Dictionary example:
I was taught to respect my elders.
Learner example:
Little can our elders do to enlighten us if they are chained to a machine to keep on breathing.

elderly  /ˈel.dəli/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] a more polite word for 'old', used to describe people

Dictionary example:
elderly relatives/parents

Learner example:
This short story is about a man who is accused of having murdered a rich elderly widow.

NOUN

the elderly
[C1] people who are elderly

Dictionary example:
The elderly are given help with fuel bills.

Learner example:
I also heard complaints from the elderly, fearing the city streets due to the traffic, something that would not be resolved by a central parking lot, and certainly the elderly would be the ones [worst] affected by increased pollution, with their less effective immune systems.

eldest  /ˈel.dɪst/

ADJECTIVE

eldest child/brother/daughter, etc.
[B1] the oldest of three or more children, brothers, etc., especially within a family

Dictionary example:
Her eldest child is nearly 14.

Learner example:
And guess who I met: Jack Hawk, Tony Hawk's eldest son.

NOUN

the eldest [B2] a person who is the oldest of three or more people

Dictionary example:
He was the eldest of four kids.
Learner example:
She's the eldest – 98 years old – and knows the whole history of our town.

elect /ɪˈlekt/

Word family:
Nouns: election
Verbs: elect

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[B2] to choose someone for a particular job or position by voting

Dictionary examples:
He was elected president in 1997.
She was elected to the US Senate in 2004.
We elected him as our representative.

Learner example:
In 1987 a young girl, Cecilia Bolocco, was elected Miss Chile.

election /ɪˈle.kʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: election
Verbs: elect

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a time when people vote in order to choose someone for a political or official job

Dictionary examples:
a presidential election
Who do you think will win the election?
Local government elections will take place in May.
The first election results have started to come in.

Learner example:
The film shows very different things about the American election.

electric /ɪˈlek.trɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: electrician, electricity
Adjectives: electric, electrical
ADJECTIVE

SUPPLY

[B1] supplying electricity

Dictionary example:
an electric socket

Learner example:
The weight of the snow broke the branches of the trees and some branches fell on electric cables, breaking them.

EXCITING

[C2] full of excitement and emotion

Dictionary example:
The atmosphere backstage was electric.

electrical /ɪˈlek.trɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: electrician, electricity
Adjectives: electric, electrical

ADJECTIVE

USING ELECTRICITY

[B1] related to or working using electricity

Dictionary examples:
electrical appliances/equipment/goods an electrical fault

Learner example:
Japan is famous for electrical things, [and] you can buy them cheaper than you do [in] other countries.

SUPPLY

[C1] relating to the production and supply of electricity

Dictionary example:
an electrical engineer

Learner example:
As an electrical engineer, computer training is very important to me in several ways.
electrician /ˌe.lekˈtrɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: electrician, electricity
Adjectives: electric, electrical

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone whose job is to put in, check or repair electrical wires and equipment

Dictionary example:
We have an electrician coming round to put some new sockets in.

Learner example:
I rang up an electrician and told him about the problem.

---

electronic /eˌlekˈtrɒn.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: electronics
Adjectives: electronic
Adverbs: electronically

ADJECTIVE

EQUIPMENT
[B1] Electronic equipment consists of things such as computers, televisions, and radios.

Dictionary example:
electronic components/devices

Learner example:
I like buying clothes, but I prefer buying some other stuff like electronic devices or that sort of thing.

TECHNOLOGY
[B1] done by computers

Dictionary example:
electronic communication

Learner example:
On the other hand, many people argue about the security [of an] electronic transaction and also that not many people have Internet access.
electronically /ˌlekˈtrɒn.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: electronics
Adjectives: electronic Adverbs: electronically

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that uses electronic equipment, especially a computer

Dictionary examples:
electronically generated graphics electronically stored information

Learner example:
I hope that you can subscribe to [the] Internet as well so that we can communicate electronically.

electronics /ˌlekˈtrɒn.ɪks/

Word family:
Nouns: electronics
Adjectives: electronic Adverbs: electronically

NOUN [U]
[B2] the scientific study of electric current and the technology that uses it

Dictionary examples:
a degree in electronics
the electronics industry

Learner example:
I am still studying electronics and computer science.

elegance /ˈel.ɪ.gən.təs/

Word family:
Nouns: elegance
Adjectives: elegant Adverbs: elegantly

NOUN [U]
[C1] when someone or something is stylish or attractive in their appearance or behaviour

Dictionary example:
We were impressed by the elegance of his clothes.
Learner example:
As with the sport I mentioned before, it also has the grace and elegance of a dancer and the technique, of course, of a skater.

elegant  /ˈel.i.gənt/

Word family:
Nouns: elegance
Adjectives: elegant Adverbs: elegantly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] stylish and attractive

Dictionary examples:
She's a very elegant woman.
Tara looked very elegant in a simple black dress.
He led me to an elegant dining room.

Learner example:
The building itself looks grand and elegant.

elegantly  /ˈel.i.gənt.i/
Dictionary examples:
List the elements which make up a perfect dinner party.
The film had all the elements of a good thriller.

Learner example:
The main element of a novel is, of course, the story itself.

SIMPLE SUBSTANCE
[B2] a simple substance that cannot be reduced to smaller chemical parts, for example hydrogen

Dictionary example:
Iron is one of the elements of the Earth’s crust.

Learner example:
Cars produce CO2 and this combining of chemical elements pollutes our environment and promotes the Greenhouse effect.

an element of sth
[C2] a small amount of an emotion or quality

Dictionary example:
There’s an element of truth in what she says.

Learner example:
I think the reason why I loved Marseille so much was because it brought an element of insecurity and danger into my life.

elementary /ˌel.əˈmen.tri/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] basic or relating to the early stages of studying a subject

Dictionary example:
students at elementary level

Learner example:
This book can be used by English students [at] [an] elementary level.

eligible /ˈel.i.dʒə.bl/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If you are eligible to do something, you can do it because you are in the right situation.
Dictionary examples:
Only people over 18 are eligible to vote.
You might be eligible for a grant for your studies.

Learner example:
I am a member of ACCA Council, am I eligible for any discount on this Course, as I have information from AAA College that they can charge discounted fees for ACCA students?

eliminate  /ɪˈlɪm.i.nət/

Word family:
Nouns: elimination
Verbs: eliminate

VERB [T]

GET RID OF
[C1] to remove something from something, or get rid of something

Dictionary example:
The doctor advised me to eliminate salt from my diet.

Learner example:
The parents should spend enough time with their offspring and teach them the good things and eliminate the bad things.

COMPETITION
[C1] to defeat someone so that they cannot go any further in a competition

Dictionary example:
She was eliminated after the first round of the tournament.

elimination  /ɪˌlɪm.iˈneɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: elimination
Verbs: eliminate

NOUN [u]
[C2] when you eliminate someone or something

Dictionary examples:
the elimination of disease/pain their elimination from the competition

Learner example:
Investments, education, birth control, political stability, jobs – all of these factors will contribute to [the] elimination of homelessness.
elite /ɪˈliːt/

NOUN [GROUP]

[C1] the richest, most powerful, or best educated group in a society

Dictionary examples:
- a member of the elite
- an elite group

Learner example:
But before you decide to become one of the elite, you should think about all the freedom you would be giving up and all the freedom you would get.

else /els/

ADVERB

or else

[B2] used to say what will happen if another thing does not happen

Dictionary example:
We must be there by six, or else we'll miss the beginning.

Learner example:
[He] told me to hurry up, or else I would miss my bus.

or else

[C2] used to compare two different things or situations

Dictionary example:
He talks to her all the time, or else he completely ignores her.

Learner example:
Naturally Olivia's leaving affects Douglas, though not as strongly as one could have expected or else he simply does not show it.

elsewhere /elsˈweər/

ADVERB

[B2] in or to another place

Dictionary examples:
The report looks at economic growth in Europe and elsewhere.
They couldn't find what they wanted and decided to look elsewhere.
Learner example:
As for communication with our relatives in Sweden or elsewhere, the fax–machine turned out to be an excellent invention.

elusive /ɪˈluː.sɪv/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] difficult to describe, find, achieve, or remember

Dictionary example:
The answers to these questions remain as elusive as ever.

Learner example:
Nowadays, the picture of a clean environment seems to be an elusive goal moving ever further from us.

embarrass /ɪmˈbær.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: embarrassment
Verbs: embarrass
Adjectives: embarrassed, embarrassing

VERB [T]
[C2] to make someone feel ashamed or shy

Dictionary example:
My dad’s always embarrassing me in front of my friends.

Learner example:
He didn’t deliberately lie to them and he comes to the conclusion that revealing the truth would have embarrassed them.

embarrassed /ɪmˈbær.əst/

Word family:
Nouns: embarrassment
Verbs: embarrass
Adjectives: embarrassed, embarrassing

ADJECTIVE
[B1] feeling ashamed or shy
Dictionary examples:
She felt embarrassed about undressing in front of the doctor.
I was too embarrassed to admit that I was scared.

Learner example:
I went to the first lesson last week and I have to admit I felt a bit embarrassed about doing some writing at the beginning of the lesson.

embarrassing /ɪmˈbær.ə.sɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: embarrassment
Verbs: embarrass
Adjectives: embarrassed, embarrassing

ADJECTIVE
[B1] making you feel embarrassed

Dictionary examples:
an embarrassing situation
It's embarrassing to be caught telling a lie.
What has been your most embarrassing moment?

Learner example:
The first lesson was very embarrassing for me, because I went late.

embarrassment /ɪmˈbær.ə.smənt/

Word family:
Nouns: embarrassment
Verbs: embarrass
Adjectives: embarrassed, embarrassing

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when you feel embarrassed, or something or someone that makes you feel embarrassed

Dictionary examples:
She blushed with embarrassment.
My parents were such an embarrassment to me.

Learner example:
Looking at his face she could see his embarrassment.
embassy /ˈem.bə.si/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the official group of people who live in a foreign country and represent their government there, or the building where they work

Dictionary examples:
the Swedish Embassy in London
The Ambassador held a reception at the embassy.

Learner example:
He lent me his cell phone to call the embassy.

embody /ɪmˈbɒd.i/

VERB [T]
[C2] to represent an idea or quality exactly

Dictionary example:
He embodies the values of hard work and fair play.

Learner example:
The triffids, an aggressive and dangerous species, a serious threat to the existence of mankind, embody the author’s fear of what could be the result of genetic mutation.

embrace /ɪmˈbreɪs/

VERB

ACCEPT
[C1] to accept new ideas, beliefs, methods, etc. in an enthusiastic way

Dictionary example:
We are always eager to embrace the latest technology.

Learner example:
They seem to have embraced “the new deal” symbolising “freedom”.

INCLUDE
[C1] to include a number of things

Dictionary example:
The report embraces a wide range of opinions.
Learner example:
This should embrace things like examination entries (I was not able to enter for any exam [due to] time constrain[t]s), as well as "social affairs".

HOLD
[C2] If you embrace someone, you put your arms around them, and if two people embrace, they put their arms around each other.

Dictionary example:
She embraced him warmly.

Learner example:
Prior to this fulfilling statement, the elderly couple had been sitting in their GP's waiting room, nervously embracing each other.

NOUN [c]
[C2] when you put your arms around someone

Dictionary example:
a passionate embrace

Learner example:
He took the baby home, nevertheless, and tried to learn how to deal with that quiet, funny–faced girl, who didn't seem to ask for anything but kisses and embraces.

emerge /ɪˈmɜːdʒ/

VERB [i]
APPEAR
[B2] to appear from somewhere or come out from somewhere

Dictionary example:
She emerged from the sea, blue with cold.

Learner example:
The owner of these eyes emerged from a nearby door, which was shabby and old, like the rest of the street.

BECOME KNOWN
[C1] to become known

Dictionary example:
It emerged that she had lied to her employers.

Learner example:
It emerged from the students' survey conducted during the recent protest that unhealthy food and little choice were the main reasons to complain, followed by high prices, unfriendly service and limited opening hours.
emergency /ˈɪmən.tə.si/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a serious or dangerous situation that needs immediate action

Dictionary examples:
Call him – it's an emergency.
How would disabled people escape in an emergency?
Is the emergency exit suitable for wheelchairs?
The pilot of the aircraft was forced to make an emergency landing on Lake Geneva.

Learner example:
We really need you. It's an emergency.

eminent /ˈem.i.nənt/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] famous, respected, or important

Dictionary example:
an eminent historian

Learner example:
Last year I was awarded a trip abroad with one of the most eminent professors of our University.

emission /ɪˈmɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: emission
Verbs: emit

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when gas, heat, light, etc. is sent out into the air, or an amount of gas, heat, light, etc. that is sent out

Dictionary example:
Carbon dioxide emissions will be reduced by 20%.

Learner example:
One may argue from the point of linking CO2 emissions to other known pollutants, like industry, but recent studies have shown traffic to be [one of] the most important causes of air pollution.
emit /ɪˈmɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: emission

Verbs: emit

VERB [T] (emitting, emitted)

[C2] to send out gas, heat, light, etc. into the air

Dictionary example:
The machine emits a high-pitched sound when you press the button.

Learner example:
All the vehicles and factories emit fumes, which cause grave diseases such as cancer.

emotion /ɪˈməʊ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: emotion

Adjectives: emotional

Adverbs: emotionally

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] a strong feeling such as love or anger, or strong feelings in general

Dictionary examples:
Like a lot of men, he finds it hard to express/show his emotions.
My mother was overcome with emotion and burst into tears.

Learner example:
Unlike Annie Lennox, who[se] voice sound[s] so pure and full of emotion.

emotional /ɪˈməʊ.ʃənl/

Word family:

Nouns: emotion

Adjectives: emotional

Adverbs: emotionally

ADJECTIVE

EMOTIONS

[B2] relating to emotions

Dictionary examples:
a child's emotional development
My doctor said the problem was more emotional than physical.
Learner example:
Doctors have found that many health problems are linked with emotional changes in [a person]'s life.

STRONG FEELINGS

[B2] having and expressing strong feelings

Dictionary examples:
an emotional speech
I felt quite emotional during the wedding ceremony.

Learner example:
It was so big and full of people that she felt very emotional.

emotionally /ɪˈməʊ.ʃən.l.i/

Word family:
Nouns: emotion
Adjectives: emotional
Adverbs: emotionally

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that shows emotions or relates to emotions

Dictionary examples:
She spoke emotionally about her experiences as a war correspondent.
Many children have become emotionally disturbed as a result of the abuse they have suffered.

Learner example:
After two days, Laura was emotionally and physically exhausted.

empathy /ˈem.pə.thi/

NOUN [u]

[C2] the ability to imagine what it must be like to be in someone's situation

Dictionary example:
He lacks empathy.

Learner example:
I developed my intercultural skills by joining forces with foreign vice presidents to solve common problems and thus acquired skills such as empathy with other cultures, commitment to a common goal and tolerance.
emperor /ˈem.pərər/

NOUN [C]
[C1] the male ruler of an empire

Dictionary example:
Emperor Charlemagne

Learner example:
I would certainly go, because it fascinates me how more or less 2,000 years ago, the Roman emperors could build up such a big empire.

emphasize /ˈem.fə.saɪz/ (also uk emphasise) /ˈem.fə.səざ/

Word family:
Nouns: emphasis
Verbs: emphasize

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the particular importance or attention that you give to something

Dictionary examples:
There is a lot of emphasis on curing disease but too little emphasis on preventing it.
Schools here place/put great emphasis on written work and grammar.

Learner example:
In the tale "It's a good life", the author gives much more emphasis to Anthony than to anyone else in the story.

emphasize /ˈem.fə.sis/ (plural emphases)

Word family:
Nouns: emphasis
Verbs: emphasize

NOUN [C]
[C1] the male ruler of an empire

Dictionary example:
Emperor Charlemagne

Learner example:
I would certainly go, because it fascinates me how more or less 2,000 years ago, the Roman emperors could build up such a big empire.
empire /ˈem.pəri/

NOUN [C]
COUNTRIES
[C1] a group of countries that is ruled by one person or government Dictionary example:
the British Empire
Learner example:
All the Greeks can be very proud of him and have to [hope] that a general with unlimited skills like Alexander will make Greece an unstoppable and worldwide empire again.

BUSINESSES
[C1] a large group of businesses that is controlled by one person or company Dictionary example:
a publishing empire
Learner example:
This concerns products like pizzas, French fries and of course hamburgers and the empire MacDonald’s.

empirical /ɪmˈpɪr.ɪkl/

ADJECTIVE FORMAL
[C2] based on experience or scientific experiments and not only on ideas Dictionary example:
empirical evidence
Learner example:
Nevertheless, empirical evidence confirms the importance of food in a country’s culture.

employ /ɪmˈplɔɪ/
Word family:
Nouns: employee, employer, employment, unemployment, unemployed
Verbs: employ
Adjectives: unemployed

VERB [T]
JOB
[B1] to have someone work or do a job for you and pay them for it
Dictionary examples:
How many people does your company employ?
Can't we employ someone as an assistant to help with all this paperwork?
We've employed a market researcher to find out what people really want from a cable TV system.
More people are now employed in service industries than in manufacturing.

Learner example:
As you know I am employed in a travel agency and last week I started my new English class.

USE
[C1] formal to use something

Dictionary example:
Companies employ clever tactics to persuade us to buy their products.

Learner example:
A friend that I made on the course shares the same opinion and insists on the fact that the course gave us the opportunity to employ some of the techniques we practi[s]ed in the "How to Negotiate" classes.

employee /ɪmˈplɔɪᵻ/
Word family:
Nouns: employee, employer, employment, unemployment, unemployed
Verbs: employ
Adjectives: unemployed

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who is paid to work for someone else

Dictionary examples:
The number of employees in the company has trebled over the past decade.
She's a former council employee/employee of the council.

Learner example:
There is a[n] exotic atmosphere, helped [by] the pictures on the walls and the clothes of the employees.

employer /ɪmˈplɔrˌə/
Word family:
Nouns: employee, employer, employment, unemployment, unemployed
Verbs: employ
Adjectives: unemployed

NOUN [C]
[B1] a person or organization that employs people
Dictionary example:
We need a reference from your former employer.

Learner example:
I took this English course and my employer said, if I pass my exam, he will give me a bonus of fifty pounds.

employment /ɪmˈplɔɪ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: employee, employer, employment, unemployment, unemployed
Verbs: employ
Adjectives: unemployed

NOUN [u]

[B1] when someone is paid to work for a company or organization

Dictionary examples:
full-time/part-time/temporary/permanent/regular employment
Employment levels are unlikely to rise significantly before the end of next year.
It’s not easy to find employment in the countryside.

Learner example:
Furthermore, the stores need more employees to work at night, and therefore create employment.

empty /ˈemp.ti/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] having no meaning or value

Dictionary example:
an empty promise/threat

Learner example:
But on the other hand, I need to point out all the empty promises you made with your advertisements.
VERB [T]

[B2] to make someone able to do something, or to make something possible

Dictionary example:
Computerization should enable us to cut production costs by half.

Learner example:
Furthermore, computers enable us to store any amount of necessary information, which probably would take plenty of room on our bookshelves, if in written form.

enclose /ɪnˈkləʊz/

VERB [T]

SEND

[B2] to send something in the same envelope or parcel as something else

Dictionary example:
I enclose a map of the area.

Learner example:
I enclose a copy of my curriculum vitae, which will give you further details about my career to date.

BE ALL AROUND

[C1] to be all around something and separate it from other things or places

Dictionary example:
The house is enclosed by parkland.

Learner example:
You know that Aragon is a deep valley which is enclosed by two ranges of mountains.

encounter /ɪnˈkaʊn.tə/

VERB [T]

[B2] to experience something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
We encountered quite a few problems at the beginning.

Learner example:
On the other hand, we could infer that teenage life is quite a good time, as there is no stress or anxiety that is usually encountered later on in life.
encourage /ɪnˈkʌr.idʒ/

Word family:
- Nouns: encouragement
- Verbs: discourage, encourage
- Adjectives: encouraging

VERB [T]

MAKE MORE LIKELY
[B1] to make someone more likely to do something, or to make something more likely to happen

Dictionary examples:
- We were encouraged to learn foreign languages at school.
- Cutting back plants will encourage growth.

Learner example:
- I thought it would be great to go and I encouraged them to do it.

GIVE CONFIDENCE
[B1] to give someone confidence or hope

Dictionary example:
- My parents encouraged me when things weren't going well at school.

Learner example:
- We went into the ward and looked at her thinking all the happy thoughts we had with her and trying to encourage her to live.

encouragement /ɪnˈkʌr.idʒ.mənt/

Word family:
- Nouns: encouragement
- Verbs: discourage, encourage
- Adjectives: encouraging

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when someone talks or behaves in a way that gives you confidence to do something

Dictionary examples:
- Children need lots of encouragement from their parents.
- I could never have achieved this without the encouragement of my husband and family.

Learner example:
- Children need some encouragement, which parents can provide at any time.
encouraging /ɪnˈkʌr.ɪ.dʒɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: encouragement
Verbs: discourage, encourage Adjectives: encouraging

ADJECTIVE
[B2] giving you confidence or hope

Dictionary examples:
The team's performance was very encouraging.
an encouraging smile

Learner example:
She spoke about young people that want to start this kind of career: she was so encouraging!

end /end/

Word family:
Nouns: end, ending
Verbs: end
Adjectives: endless

NOUN

in the end
[B1] finally, after something has been thought about or discussed a lot

Dictionary example:
We were thinking about going to Switzerland, but in the end we went to Austria.

Learner example:
Well I can only tell you what I would do, but in the end it's your choice.

STOP
[B2] [C usually no plural] when something stops happening

Dictionary examples:
They are calling for an end to the violence.
My contract comes to an end in June.

Learner example:
My job comes to an end in two weeks, and then I will have one month free, so it will be possible for me to go [on] your next journey to Africa.

for hours/days, etc. on end
[B2] for hours/days, etc. without stopping
Dictionary example:
He waited by the telephone for hours on end.

Learner example:
You can find information on whatever issue you want, science, technology, business, arts, etc., everything is there, without mentioning the fantastic and simplified way of buying by internet or just surfing for hours on end for whatever thing you are interested in.

no end INFORMAL
[B2] a lot

Dictionary example:
I've had no end of trouble finding a hotel room.

Learner example:
I had no end of fun when we were going to the beach and the car stopped and we had to go on foot.

put an end to sth
[B2] to make something stop happening or existing

Dictionary examples:
He's determined to put an end to these rumours.
Leg injuries put an end to his athletics career.

Learner example:
Maybe because I needed someone to know, or because I wanted to put an end to that feeling, and have a normal life.

make ends meet
[C1] to have just enough money to pay for the things that you need

Dictionary example:
I've taken a second job in the evenings just to make ends meet.

Learner example:
Most students support themselves and barely make ends meet every month.

bring sth to an end
[C1] to make something finish

Dictionary example:
The stories in the newspaper brought her career to a sudden end.

Learner example:
At the end of the year 2002 a great construction was brought to an end.

not be the end of the world
[C2] If something is not the end of the world, it will not cause very serious problems.

Dictionary example:
It won't be the end of the world if I don't get the job.
be at/reach the end of your tether
[C2] to be so tired, annoyed, or worried by something that you do not feel that you can deal with it

Dictionary example:
By the time the plumber arrived, I was at the end of my tether.

Learner example:
But when eventually Charles reaches the end of his tether and opts for the final solution, thus becoming for ever free, I think he is also subconsciously telling his mother: "This is how I punish you for what you did to me and for what you allowed others to do to me: you shall have to live with my death for the rest of your life!"

throw sb in at the deep end
[C2] to make someone start a new and difficult job or activity without helping them or preparing them for it

Dictionary example:
My first job was to organise a huge conference – they really threw me in at the deep end!

Learner example:
Sometimes we can be thrown in at the deep end and have qualms about making a decision.

to/till/until the bitter end
[C2] If you do something to/till/until the bitter end, you continue it until it is finished, although it is difficult and takes a long time.

Dictionary example:
I was determined to go on until the bitter end.

Learner example:
We are willing to talk and find alternatives to the situation, but we are also ready to fight till the bitter end to stand for our rights.

odds and ends
[C2] informal a group of small objects of different types which are not valuable or important

Dictionary example:
I use this box to keep odds and ends in.

a means to an end
[C2] something that you do because it will help you to achieve something else

Dictionary example:
I didn't particularly like the job – it was just a means to an end.

Learner example:
Major international sports competitions can either be understood as a means to an end or an end in their own right.
the tail end of sth
[C2] the last part of something

Dictionary example:
the tail end of the eighties

Learner example:
Both Olivia's and the narrator's stories show India at crucial times of its history: at the tail end of the "Raj" and at the [initial] stage of a modern and independent country.

VERB [I or T] end up PHRASAL VERB

[B1] to finally be in a particular place or situation

Dictionary examples:
They're travelling across Europe by train and are planning to end up in Moscow.
Much of this meat will probably end up as dog food.
After working her way around the world, she ended up teaching English as a foreign language.

Learner example:
After the movie we went for a drink and we ended up dancing salsa.

---

endangered /ɪnˈdeɪn.dʒəd/

Word family:
Nouns: danger
Adjectives: dangerous, endangered
Adverbs: dangerously

ADJECTIVE
[B2] used of animals and plants which may soon disappear from the world because there are very few left alive

Dictionary example:
Tigers are now an endangered species.

Learner example:
Many endangered species have been saved by zoos which have been able to make them reproduce.

---

endeavour /ɪnˈdev.ə/

VERB

endeavour to do *sth FORMAL
[C1] to try very hard to do something
Dictionary example:
I endeavoured to help her, but she wouldn't let me.

Learner example:
I totally [agree] with the latter and I shall endeavour to look at both points of view.

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] an attempt to do something

Dictionary examples:
In spite of our best endeavours, it has proven impossible to contact her.
Getting to the South Pole was an amazing example of human endeavour.

Learner example:
No endeavour seems to be too great for him to achieve, no hurdle too high to overcome.

ending /ˈen.dɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: end, ending
Verbs: end
Adjectives: endless

NOUN [C]

FINAL PART
[B1] the last part of a story, film, etc.

Dictionary example:
People want love stories with happy endings.

Learner example:
This film is a typical romantic story with a happy ending.

WORD
[B1] a part added to the end of a word

Dictionary example:
To make the plural of 'dog', you add the plural ending 's'.

endless /ˈend.əls/

Word family:
Nouns: end, ending
Verbs: end
Adjectives: endless
ADJECTIVE
  [B2] never finishing, or seeming never to finish

  Dictionary examples:
  We used to have endless arguments about politics.
  He seems to think that I have an endless supply of money.
  The possibilities are endless.

  Learner example:
  But there were long, seemingly endless holidays ahead.

endorse /ɪnˈdɔːs/

VERB [T] FORMAL
  [C2] to say publicly that you support a person, product or action

  Dictionary example:
  The idea was endorsed by a majority of members.

  Learner example:
  There is a dichotomy arising: on the one hand, they have an effect on the personal and national level, whilst on the other, an impressive profit-making enterprise has been built, mainly in the media and the area of sportswear endorsed by sports heroes.

download /ɪnˈdaʊ/

VERB [T] FORMAL
  be endowed with sth
  [C2] to have a particular quality or characteristic

  Dictionary example:
  The country is richly endowed with natural resources.

  Learner example:
  That some people should have been lucky enough to have been endowed with the talent to write such music, and that some others should have had the gift of voices to sing it, truly leaves me very humble.

endurance /ɪnˈdʒʊə.rənts/

Word family:
Nouns: endurance
Verbs: endure
NOUN [u]

[C2] the ability to keep doing something difficult, unpleasant, or painful for a long time

Dictionary example:
a race to test athletes' endurance

Learner example:
What's more, athletes need endurance.

endure /ɪnˈdjuər/

Word family:
Nouns: endurance
Verbs: endure

VERB [t]

[B2] to suffer something difficult, unpleasant or painful

Dictionary examples:
We had to endure a nine-hour delay at the airport.
She's already had to endure three painful operations on her leg.

Learner example:
In addition to this, I have been doing various kinds of sports including swimming and jogging, so I could endure a long trip.

enemy /ˈen.ə.mi/

NOUN

PERSON

[B1] [c] a person who you dislike or oppose

Dictionary examples:
He's made a few enemies in this company.
political enemies

Learner example:
I have made a lot of enemies.

COUNTRY/ARMY

[B2] [c usually no plural] a country, or the armed forces of a country, which is at war with another country

939
Dictionary examples:
enemy forces/territory
The enemy had succeeded in stopping our supplies from getting through.

energetic /ˌen.əˈdʒet.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: energy
Adjectives: energetic

ADJECTIVE
[B2] having or involving a lot of energy

Dictionary examples:
an energetic young woman
I tried aerobics but it was too energetic for me.

Learner example:
I am a cheerful and energetic person.

energy /ˈen.ə.dʒi/

Word family:
Nouns: energy
Adjectives: energetic

NOUN [U]

STRENGTH
[B1] the power and ability to be very active without becoming tired

Dictionary examples:
Looking after children takes up a lot of time and energy.
I was going to go out this evening, but I just don't have the energy.
I didn't even have the energy to get out of bed.

Learner example:
In the evening, you can go to the pub to try Czech beer or if you have [enough] energy, you can go clubbing.

ELECTRICITY, GAS, ETC
[B1] the power that comes from electricity, gas, etc.

Dictionary examples:
It is important for us to save energy.
We mustn't waste energy.
nuclear/wind energy energy conservation/efficiency
Learner example:
I thought [of buying] an air-conditioning [unit], but it consumes [too] much energy, so I'm going to buy a [fan], because [it] is very hot here.

enforce /ɪnˈfɔːs/

VERB [T]
[C1] to make people obey a rule or law

Dictionary example:
It is the duty of the police to enforce the law.

Learner example:
Traffic police rarely enforce the law on public transport vehicles, which leads to a lot of chaos.

engage /ɪnˈgeɪdʒ/

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C1] to interest someone in something and keep them thinking about it

Dictionary example:
The debate about food safety has engaged the whole nation.

Learner example:
It would be great if we could employ professional entertainers to set up activities to engage people and buy fun prizes and awards.

engaged /ɪnˈgeɪdʒd/

ADJECTIVE

MARRIAGE
[B1] having formally agreed to marry

Dictionary examples:
Debbie and Chris have just got engaged.
She was engaged to some guy in the army.

Learner example:
I'm engaged [to] him.

IN USE
[B1] If a telephone or public toilet is engaged, someone is already using it.
Dictionary examples:
Every time I ring her, the number is engaged.
The sign on the toilet door said 'Engaged'.

Learner example:
I was worried and so I decided to phone him but the line was always engaged.

engineering /ˌen.dʒɪˈnɪə.rɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: engine, engineer, engineering

NOUN [U]
[B1] the work of an engineer, or the study of this work

Dictionary example:
Richard studied engineering at Manchester University.

Learner example:
His name is Marco and he is studying engineering.

engrossed /ɪnˈgrəʊst/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] giving all your attention to something

Dictionary example:
He was so engrossed in what he was doing that he didn't hear the bell.

Learner example:
Youngsters these days are so engrossed in their studies that they do not have much free time to enjoy themselves or make use of the above ways of entertainment.

enhance /ɪnˈhaːns/

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C1] to improve something

Dictionary example:
Winning that award greatly enhanced her reputation.

Learner example:
In addition, enhancing the reputation of the family might be another factor as well.
enjoy /ɪnˈdʒɔɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: enjoyment
Verbs: enjoy
Adjectives: enjoyable

VERB [T]

GOOD SITUATION
[C2] FORMAL to have or experience something good such as success

Dictionary example:
His play enjoyed great success on Broadway.

Learner example:
Before they can enjoy the flowers of success they have [to] endure [the] unbearable bitterness of failure.

enjoyable /ɪnˈdʒɔɪ.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: enjoyment
Verbs: enjoy
Adjectives: enjoyable

ADJECTIVE
[B1] An enjoyable event or experience gives you pleasure.

Dictionary examples:
We had a very enjoyable evening – thank you!
I found the whole experience very enjoyable.

Learner example:
First, thanks for the most enjoyable weekend [of] my life.

enjoyment /ɪnˈdʒɔɪ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: enjoyment
Verbs: enjoy
Adjectives: enjoyable

NOUN [u]
[B2] when you enjoy something

Dictionary example:
Knowing the ending already didn’t spoil my enjoyment of the film.
Learner example:
It is worth seeing because of the wonderful actors who play their roles with inspiration and enjoyment.

---

enormous  /ɪˈnɔːməs/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] extremely large

Dictionary examples:
- an enormous car/house
- He earns an enormous salary.
- You've been an enormous help.

Learner example:
It has two bedrooms, an enormous bathroom, a small kitchen and a nice living-room.

---

enough  /ɪˈnʌf/

DETERMINER; PRONOUN

[B2] as much as or more than is wanted

Dictionary examples:
- I've got enough work to do at the moment, without being given any more.
- Half an hour in his company is quite enough!
- Stop. You've made enough of a mess already.
- You've drunk more than enough already.

Learner example:
Now I think I'm going to stay around here, as I have had enough disappointments for one summer.

have had enough

[C1] to want something to stop because it is annoying you

Dictionary example:
I've had enough of your excuses.

Learner example:
My neighbours and I have had enough of this sudden and deafening noise, which seems to affect our pets as well.
strangely enough
[B2] although it may seem strange

Dictionary example:
Strangely enough, I was just speaking to him the other day.

Learner example:
Today, strangely enough, people out on the sea, often local fishermen, see the complete castle, like a ghost.

fair enough INFORMAL
[B2] used for saying that you can understand and accept someone's opinion or decision

Dictionary example:
"He says he'll only work on Sunday if he gets paid extra." "Fair enough."

Learner example:
Most of the streets are open [to] cars and therefore people tend to escape to a little area around the pedestrian streets. Fair enough, but it make[s] those streets terribly overcrowded.

sure enough
[C2] as expected

Dictionary example:
He said the book was on his desk, and sure enough, there it was.

Learner example:
And sure enough, these challenging problems come unsolicited most of the time.

enquire (UK also inquire) /ɪnˈkwɛəri/

Word family:
Nouns: enquiry
Verbs: enquire

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to ask someone for information about something

Dictionary examples:
I'm enquiring about dentists in the area.
"Are you staying long?" she enquired.

Learner example:
I am writing to enquire about the job you are offering.
enquiry (UK also inquiry) /ɪnˈkwaɪə.ri/

Word family:
Nouns: enquiry
Verbs: enquire

NOUN

QUESTION
[B1] [c] a question that you ask when you want more information

Dictionary example:
We receive a lot of enquiries about tax issues.

Learner example:
I also have some enquiries concerning the trip.

OFFICIAL PROCESS
[C2] [c] an official process to discover the facts about something bad that has happened

Dictionary example:
The hospital is holding an enquiry into the accident.

enrich /ɪnˈrɪtʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: riches, richness
Verbs: enrich Adjectives: rich

VERB [T]
[C1] to improve the quality of something by adding something to it

Dictionary example:
Our culture has been enriched by the many immigrants who live here.

Learner example:
It can be of great assistance especially for those who start studying the Greek language and for those who want to enrich their knowledge, too.
ensure (US FORMAL USALSO insure) /ɪnˈʃɔː/

Word family:
Verbs: ensure
Adjectives: sure, unsure Adverbs: surely

VERB [T]
[B2] to make something certain to happen

Dictionary example:
Please ensure that all examination papers have your name at the top.

Learner example:
Please ensure [the] above corrections and new information about Lampton [are included in the next edition].

enter /ˈen.tə/

Word family:
Nouns: entrance, entry
Verbs: enter

VERB

COMPETITION
[B1] [I or T] to take part in a competition, race or examination

Dictionary examples:
Are you going to enter the photography competition?
Both men have been entered for/in the 100 metres in Paris next month.

Learner example:
I [have] enter[ed] a competition and I need your bike.

INFORMATION
[B1] [T] to put information into a computer, book or document

Dictionary example:
You have to enter a password to access the database.

Learner example:
You only have to click on the product you want and enter your credit card number.

PERIOD OF TIME
[C1] [T] to begin a period of time
Dictionary example:
The violence is now entering its third week.

Learner example:
It is a family-run business which is now entering its tenth successful year.

enterprise  /ˈen.tə.praɪz/

NOUN

BUSINESS
[C1] [c] a business or organization

Dictionary example:
a state-owned enterprise

Learner example:
It is true that many state enterprises went on strike several days ago, among others transport and medical services.

QUALITY
[C1] [u] when someone is enthusiastic and willing to do something new and clever, although there are risks involved

Dictionary example:
The scheme shows imagination and enterprise.

Learner example:
I am talking about a frank and sincere young lady with enterprise.

PLAN
[C2] [c] a difficult and important plan

Dictionary example:
Putting on the concert will be a joint enterprise between the two schools.

Learner example:
She succeeded in whatever enterprises she undertook all [through] her life and even the death of her husband did not prevent her from carrying on.

entertain  /en.təˈteɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: entertainer, entertainment
Verbs: entertain
Adjectives: entertaining
VERB [I or T]

[B1] to keep a group of people interested or enjoying themselves

Dictionary examples:
We hired a magician to entertain the children.
Most children’s television programmes aim to educate and entertain at the same time.

Learner example:
You should sing in a pub to entertain people.

entertainer /en.təˈteɪ.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: entertainer, entertainment
Verbs: entertain
Adjectives: entertaining

NOUN [C]

[B2] someone whose job is to entertain people by singing, telling jokes, etc.

Dictionary example:
We’ve hired a children’s entertainer for the party.

Learner example:
You could hire some entertainers.

entertaining /en.təˈteɪ.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: entertainer, entertainment
Verbs: entertain
Adjectives: entertaining

ADJECTIVE

[B2] funny and enjoyable

Dictionary examples:
an entertaining story/film/talk
His books aren’t particularly well-written, but they’re always entertaining.

Learner example:
It is obvious that some people prefer reading books, [while] others claim that watching films is much more entertaining.
entertainment /en.təˈteɪn.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: entertainer, entertainment
Verbs: entertain
Adjectives: entertaining

NOUN [c or u]
[B1] shows, movies, television, or other performances or activities that entertain people

Dictionary examples:
There is live entertainment in the bar every night.
There's not much in the way of entertainment in this town – just the cinema and a couple of pubs.

Learner example:
You can find cinemas, discos and night clubs for entertainment.

enthusiasm /ɪnˈθjuː.zi.æz.ɪm/

Word family:
Nouns: enthusiasm
Adjectives: enthusiastic
Adverbs: enthusiastically

NOUN [u]
[B2] a feeling of energetic interest in a particular subject or activity and an eagerness to be involved in it

Dictionary examples:
One of the good things about teaching young children is their enthusiasm.
After the accident he lost his enthusiasm for the sport.

Learner example:
I am filled with enthusiasm about [spend]ing two weeks at Camp California in the U.S.A.

enthusiastic /ɪnˌθjuː.ziˈæs.tɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: enthusiasm
Adjectives: enthusiastic
Adverbs: enthusiastically

ADJECTIVE
[B2] showing enthusiasm
Dictionary example:
You don’t seem very enthusiastic about the party – don’t you want to go tonight?

Learner example:
I’ve got a lot of friends who are really enthusiastic about cycling and we often go cycling [together].

enthusiastically /ɪnˌθjuː.ziˈæstɪk.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: enthusiasm
Adjectives: enthusiastic
Adverbs: enthusiastically

ADVERB

[B2] in an enthusiastic way

Dictionary example:
She responded very enthusiastically to the idea.

Learner example:
She accepted my suggestion enthusiastically.

entire /ɪnˈtaɪər/

Word family:
Adjectives: entire
Adverbs: entirely

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] whole or complete, with nothing missing

Dictionary examples:
Between them they ate an entire cake.
He’d spent the entire journey asleep.

Learner example:
On behalf of the entire school, I would like to put forward a number of suggestions in regard to the improvement of the reception area.

entirely /ɪnˈtaɪə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: entire Adverbs: entirely
ADVERB

[B2] completely

Dictionary examples:
I admit it was entirely my fault.
I'm not entirely convinced it will work.
The company is run almost entirely by middle-aged men.

Learner example:
I would like to do something entirely different before I start to study again.

entitle /ɪnˈtaɪ.tl/

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

GIVE RIGHT

[B2] to give someone the right to do or have something

Dictionary examples:
I'm entitled to apply for citizenship.
Being unemployed entitles you to free medical treatment.

Learner example:
In conclusion, I believe that I am entitled to a partial refund.

GIVE TITLE

[C1] to give something a particular title

Dictionary example:
a lecture entitled "Language, Learning and Literacy"

Learner example:
In June, [the] club arranged a slide show and talk which was entitled 'Walking In The Black Hills'; this was very informative and the students had lots of tips for hill walking.

dictionary example

entity /ˈen.tɪ.ti/

NOUN [C]

[C2] something which exists apart from other things

Dictionary example:
They want the area recognized as a separate political entity.

Learner example:
Even if these qualities are also quite useful in team sports, where the whole team works as an entity, a spirit of co-operation and teamwork is also needed in order to achieve the effective coexistence of all the players of the team.

952 entrance /ˈen.trənts/

Word family:
Nouns: entrance, entry
Verbs: enter

NOUN

RIGHT
[B1] [u] the right to enter a place or join an organization

Dictionary example:
Entrance is free, but you have to pay for your drinks.

Learner example:
If you've [got] membership, you don't need to pay for entrance. You only pay for the drinks and the food.

COMING IN
[C2] [c] when someone comes into or goes into a place, especially in a way that makes people notice them

Dictionary example:
The whole room went quiet when he made his entrance.

Learner example:
Or, you could imagine yourself prancing about in your Ferrari, Lotus, Lamborghini, basic limousine, whatever, in the heart of the town, going to a party where everybody who is anybody is there, and the means of transportation would be by helicopter or by boat, to avoid traffic and, at the same time, to make an outstanding entrance.

entry /ˈen.tri/

Word family:
Nouns: entrance, entry
Verbs: enter

NOUN

INFORMATION
[B1] [c] a separate piece of information that is recorded in a book such as a dictionary, or on the Internet

Dictionary examples:
They've updated a lot of the entries on the website.
As his illness progressed, he made fewer entries in his diary.

Learner example:
Later I got my own entry on their Clan–home–page.
PLACE
[B1] [u] the right or ability to come into or go into a place

Dictionary examples:
She was refused entry.
A flock of sheep blocked our entry to the village.
I can't go down that street – there's a 'No entry' sign.
There's free entry to the exhibition for students after 6 pm.

JOINING OR TAKING PART
[B1] [u] when you join an organization or take part in a competition

Dictionary examples:
Are there lots of exams for entry into the legal profession?
Have you filled in your entry form yet?

Learner example:
You can do anything in this club from football to chess. If you ever come to visit, I could organise an entry form [for] you.

COMPETITION WORK
[B1] [c or u] a piece of work that you do to try to win a competition

Dictionary examples:
There have been a fantastic number of entries for this year's poetry competition.
the winning entries

| environment /ɪnˈvaɪrənmənt/ |

Word family:
Nouns: environment, environmentalist
Adjectives: environmental Adverbs: environmentally

NOUN

the environment
[B1] the air, land and water where people, animals and plants live

Dictionary examples:
We're not doing enough to protect the environment from pollution.
The new road may cause damage to the environment.

Learner example:
The first lesson was enjoyable – we had to talk about the environment.

SURROUNDINGS
[B2] [c] the conditions that you live or work in and the way that they influence how you feel or how effectively you can work
Dictionary examples:
The office is quite bright and airy – it’s a pleasant working environment.
As a parent you try to create a stable home environment.

Learner example:
They need to live in a friendly environment with their relatives and their friends.

---

environmental  /ɪnˌvaɪ.ən.rəˈmen.təl/

Word family:
Nouns: environment, environmentalist
Adjectives: environmental Adverbs: environmentally

ADJECTIVE
[B1] relating to the environment

Dictionary example:
People are becoming far more aware of environmental issues.

Learner example:
As you know, I went to Canada in order to take part in an environmental conference.

---

environmentalist  /ɪnˌvaɪə.rəˈmen.təlist/

Word family:
Nouns: environment, environmentalist
Adjectives: environmental Adverbs: environmentally

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who tries to protect the natural environment from being damaged

Dictionary example:
She is a well–known environmentalist.

Learner example:
Others also, especially environmentalists, suggest that we should turn to electric–powered engines which are environmentally friendly, as these air pollutants bring about the thinning of the ozone layer.
environmentally /ɪnˌvaɪən.ɪ.mənt.i/

Word family:
Nouns: environment, environmentalist
Adjectives: environmental Adverbs: environmentally

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is related to the environment

Dictionary examples:
environmentally damaging chemicals
We need our industries to work in an environmentally responsible way.

Learner example:
All these [things] were made possible because we have the world's most dedicated and environmentally adaptable government, spearheaded by Lee Kuan Yew decades ago.

environmentally friendly /ɪnˌvaɪən.ɪ.mən.təl.iˈfrend.i/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not harmful to the environment

Dictionary example:
environmentally–friendly washing powder

Learner example:
A lot was said about creating more environmentally–friendly products.

envisage /ɪnˈviz.idʒ/

VERB [T]
[C1] to imagine something happening, or think that something is likely to happen

Dictionary example:
The police don't envisage any trouble at the festival.

Learner example:
We envisage the size of the branch to be around 50 people to start with and expect to grow circa 20% a year.
envision /ɪnˈvɪʒ.ən/

VERB [T]
[C1] to imagine something happening, or think that something is likely to happen

Dictionary example:
He envisioned a partnership between business and government.

Learner example:
From the childhood, when you are only a kid, you envision you[r]self getting married and quite naturally it is a great feeling when you do get married.

envy /ˈen.vi/

VERB [T]
[B2] to wish that you had something that someone else has

Dictionary examples:
I envy her ability to talk to people she's never met before.
I don't envy you the job of cooking for all those people.

Learner example:
I really envy you, Pete.

NOUN [U]

FEELING OF WANTING
[B2] the feeling that you wish you had something that someone else has

Dictionary example:
I watched with envy as she set off for the airport.

Learner example:
Sam, your last letter has filled me with envy.

be the envy of sb
[C2] to be liked and wanted by someone

Dictionary example:
Her new office was the envy of the whole company.

Learner example:
I enjoy being the envy of my friends as I take it out of its case and show it off.

(be) green with envy
[C2] to wish very much that you had something that another person has

Dictionary example:
Sam's got a job in the south of France and we're all green with envy!
Learner example:
The more successful players’ salary makes the others green with envy.

episode /ˈep.i.seɪd/

NOUN [C]

EVENT

[B2] a single event or group of related events

Dictionary examples:
This latest episode in the fraud scandal has shocked a lot of people.
The drugs, the divorce and the depression – it's an episode in his life that he wants to forget.

Learner example:
This little episode happened when I was seven years old.

PART OF STORY

[B2] one of the single parts into which a story is divided, especially when it is broadcast on the television or radio

Dictionary example:
I missed the first episode.

Learner example:
I watch[ed] the news and one episode of "Friends".

equal /ˈiː.kwəl/

Word family:

Nouns: equality, inequality

Adjectives: equal

Adverbs: equally

ADJECTIVE

SAME AMOUNT/NUMBER, ETC.

[B1] the same in amount, number or size

Dictionary examples:
The sides are of equal length.
One litre is equal to 1.76 imperial pints.

Learner example:
We are a well-mixed class with equal numbers of boys and girls, all about 20 years old.
AS IMPORTANT
[B2] the same in importance and deserving the same treatment

Dictionary examples:
All people are equal, deserving the same rights as each other.
They’ve got a long way to go before they achieve equal pay/opportunities for men and women.

Learner example:
Then Napoleon did whatever he wanted to do under the motto of "all animals are equal", which was false.

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone or something that has the same importance as someone or something else and deserves the same treatment

Dictionary example:
The good thing about having her as a boss is that she treats us all as equals.

Learner example:
We must respect and treat them as our equals.

equality /ɪˈkwɒl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: equality, inequality
Adjectives: equal
Adverbs: equally

NOUN [U]
[B2] the right of different groups of people to have a similar social position and receive the same treatment

Dictionary examples:
equality between the sexes racial/sexual equality

Learner example:
That's why I think people who fight to defend equality are amazing, especially Nelson Mandela because he spent part of his life in jail for that.

equally /ˈiː.kwə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: equality, inequality
Adjectives: equal
Adverbs: equally
ADVERB

SAME WAY
[B2] fairly and in the same way

Dictionary example:
Everyone should be treated equally.

Learner example:
In [the] festival, all the performers were treated equally.

SAME AMOUNTS
[C1] into amounts or parts that are the same size

Dictionary example:
She shared the money equally between the four children.

Learner example:
The obligations should be divided equally between the members of the group.

SAME DEGREE
[C1] to the same degree or level

Dictionary examples:
an equally important question
She did equally well in the competition last year.

Learner example:
I think the choice of a good organization, which can provide good facilities and social conditions, along with good teaching, is equally important.

equate /ɪˈkwɛt/

Word family:
Nouns: equation
Verbs: equate

VERB [T]
[C2] to consider one thing to be the same as or equal to another thing

Dictionary example:
Many people equate wealth with happiness.

Learner example:
Because we live in a capitalist world where the notions of good life and happiness are largely, if not solely, equated with material prosperity, to achieve them requires the above listed qualities.
equation /ɪˈkweɪ.ʒən/

Word family:
Nouns: equation
Verbs: equate

NOUN [c]
[C1] when you show that two amounts are equal using mathematical symbols

Dictionary example:
In this equation, x = 6.

Learner example:
I would like to address the issue [using] a very simple equation of economics: Demand = supply.

equip /ɪˈkwɪp/ (-pp-)

Word family:
Nouns: equipment
Verbs: equip

VERB [T]
[B2] to provide someone or something with what is needed for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
They’re raising money to equip the hospital.
The new trains are equipped with all the latest technology.

Learner example:
We were equipped with crampons, ropes, ice axes, gloves, sunglasses[s] and so on.

equipment /ɪˈkwɪp.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: equipment
Verbs: equip

NOUN [u]
[B1] the set of necessary tools, clothing, etc. for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples: office/camping/kitchen equipment electrical equipment
This is a really useful piece of equipment.

Learner example:
You can rent equipment or take your own.
equivalent /ɪˈkwɪv.əl.ənt/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] equal in amount, value, importance, or meaning

Dictionary example:
The UK’s Brit Awards are roughly equivalent to the Oscars.

Learner example:
They go to the same school and I daresay that the same percentage of girls does the Abitur (equivalent to the English GCE A level).

NOUN [c]
[C1] something that has the same value, importance, size, or meaning as something else

Dictionary example:
She won the equivalent of $5 million.

Learner example:
As well as this I have passed the Cambridge First Certificate exam and another exam in Spain which is the equivalent of FCE.

era /ˈɪə.rə/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a period of time in history that is special for a particular reason

Dictionary examples:
the Clinton era
the post-war era
They had worked for peace during the long era of conflict.
The fall of the Berlin wall marked the end of an era.

Learner example:
The world is paddling through the era of technology.

eradicate /ɪˈræd.ə.kət/

VERB [t] FORMAL
[C2] to destroy or completely get rid of something such as a social problem or a disease

Dictionary example:
The government claims to be doing all it can to eradicate corruption.
Learner example:
Homelessness is not going to be eradicated unless we acknowledge that it is not anything else but a symptom of the imperfection of the society in which we live.

erode /ɪˈrəʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: erosion
Verbs: erode

VERB

REMOVE
[C2] [I or T] If soil, stone, etc. erodes or is eroded, it is gradually damaged and removed by the sea, rain, or wind.

Dictionary example:
The coastline is slowly being eroded by the sea.

Learner example:
The areas of Sayago – in the Spanish province of Zamora – and Tras-os-Montes, in Portugal, are joined by a natural border: the river Duero and the rocky canyon that has been eroded for millions of years by the action of the water.

DESTROY
[C2] [T] FORMAL to gradually destroy a good quality or situation

Dictionary example:
Reports of corruption have eroded people's confidence in the police.

Learner example:
Competition can erode a child's confidence.

erosion /ɪˈrəʊ.ʒən/

Word family:
Nouns: erosion
Verbs: erode

NOUN [U]

PHYSICAL DAMAGE
[C1] when soil, stone, etc. is gradually damaged and removed by the sea, rain, or wind

Dictionary example: soil/coastal erosion
Learner example:
Deforestation changes the climate and natural ability to stop soil erosion also plays a role here.

NEGATIVE EFFECT
[C2] when a good quality or situation is gradually destroyed

Dictionary example:
There has been a gradual erosion of confidence in the government.

Learner example:
For one [thing], shopping can cause an erosion in family values. Children now tend to give more importance to material things.

error /ˈer.ər/ NOUN [C or U] [B2] a mistake

Dictionary examples:
He admitted that he'd made an error.
The letter contained a number of typing errors.
Human error has been blamed for the air crash.
The document was destroyed in error by the police.

Learner example:
There are a lot [of] factual errors in this article.

margin of error
[C2] the amount by which a calculation can be wrong but still produce a good result

Dictionary example:
a margin of error of 5 percent

Learner example:
It might be true that what is considered to be healthy or unhealthy changes over time, however, as science progresses the margin of error becomes smaller, and experts are then able to have a more accurate and precise say on all matters, including health.

trial and error
[C2] a way of learning the best way to do something by trying different methods

Dictionary example:
There aren't any instructions with it – it's just a matter of trial and error.

Learner example:
If you don't know the past, you're liable to live through it again as instead of deriving the lessons from someone else's experiences, you'll have to learn them the hard way, by trial and error.
erupt /ɪˈrʌpt/

VERB [i]
[C2] If a volcano erupts, it suddenly throws out smoke, fire, and melted rocks.

Dictionary example:
The volcano erupted last year.

Learner example:
Earth can easily be seen as a volcano which can suddenly erupt.

escalator /ˈes.kə.leɪ.tər/

NOUN [C]
[B2] moving stairs that take people from one level of a building to another

Dictionary examples:
I'll meet you by the up/down escalator on the second floor.
Shall we use the lift or take the escalator?

Learner example:
The newly decorated section is fairly modern [in] style with escalators and touch-screen ticket machine[s].

escape /ɪˈskɛrp/

VERB

GET AWAY
[B1] [i] to succeed in getting away from a place where you do not want to be

Dictionary examples:
The two prisoners escaped from prison last night.
There were reports that a lion had escaped from its cage at a nearby zoo.

Learner example:
You also get to meet people there, interesting people – for example, I met a really weird guy who claims to have escaped from an asylum, twice!

AVOID
[B2] [i or ɪ] to avoid a dangerous or unpleasant situation

Dictionary examples:
She was lucky to escape serious injury.
Chelsea only just escaped defeat in the second round of the cup.
Learner example:
Happily they were found by some hunters and escaped with minor injuries.

FORGET
[C2] [r] If something such as a name escapes you, you cannot remember it.

Dictionary example:
The name of her book escapes me at the moment.

Learner example:
My first teacher was an elderly woman (her name escapes me now), who had worked in that school for many years.

NOT NOTICE
[C2] [r] If something escapes your notice or attention, you do not notice or see it.

Dictionary example:
Nothing that goes on in this office escapes her attention.

Learner example:
It has hardly escaped the attention of anyone that the football World Cup is coming up, and it seems that virtually everybody has something to say about this event or about international sports competitions in general.

NOUN

FORGETTING PROBLEMS
[B2] [u no plural] something that helps you to forget about your usual life or problems

Dictionary example:
I love old movies – they’re such an escape from the real world.

Learner example:
Going on holiday is a great idea and I think it’s the best way to relax and have fun, but it would also be an escape from the daily routine and a break from your tiring job.

GETTING OUT
[C1] [c or u] when someone succeeds in getting out of a place or a dangerous or bad situation

Dictionary examples:
He made his escape on the back of a motorbike.
an escape route

Learner example:
Being impatient in the jail, Tom planned for his escape.

a narrow escape
[C2] If you have a narrow escape, you only just avoid danger.
Dictionary example:
He had a narrow escape when a falling tree crushed his car.

Learner example:
Ralph will have a narrow escape: he is saved by the arrival of a ship which has at last come to rescue them all.

especially /ɪˈspeʃ.əl.i/

ADVERB

ONLY
[B2] for one particular person, purpose, or reason

Dictionary example:
I cooked this meal especially for you.

Learner example:
I remember the taste of the pineapple cake that you baked especially for me and your home-made goos[e]berry wine.

essay /ˈes.eɪ/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a short piece of writing about a particular subject, especially one done by students

Dictionary example:
For homework I want you to write an essay on endangered species.

Learner example:
I could write an extra essay.

essence /ˈes.əns/

Word family:
Nouns: essence
Adjectives: essential
Adverbs: essentially

NOUN

BASIC QUALITY
[C2] the basic or most important idea or quality of something
Dictionary example:
The essence of his argument is that we should not eat meat.

Learner example:
But growth is in the essence of every living being, and it is a part of the educational process, as the child grows older, that parents learn to "let go".

In essence
[C2] used to emphasize the most important idea or quality of something

Dictionary example:
In essence, its purpose is to contain information.

Learner example:
In essence, homelessness means that you don't have a home and because of this you are living on the streets.

essential /ɪˈsen.tʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: essence
Adjectives: essential
Adverbs: essentially

Adjective
NECESSARY
[B1] very important and necessary

Dictionary examples:
Government support will be essential if the project is to succeed.
Computers are an essential part of our lives.
Water is essential for/to living things.
It is essential that our prices remain competitive.
For the experiment to be valid, it is essential to record the data accurately.

Learner example:
Well, thirdly, rest is essential!

BASIC
[C2] the most basic and important

Dictionary example:
There's one essential point I think you've forgotten.

Learner example:
There is an essential difference between Germans from Germany and native Germans from abroad.
essentially  /ɪˈsen.tʃəl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: essence
Adjectives: essential
Adverbs: essentially

ADVERB
[B2] relating to the most important characteristics or ideas of something

Dictionary examples:
It's essentially a dictionary but it differs in one or two respects.
What he's saying is essentially true.

Learner example:
Although we are essentially a rock band, we integrate elements of traditional Indian music (such as sitar).

establish  /ɪˈstæb.lɪʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: establishment
Verbs: establish

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

START
[B2] to start a company or organization that is likely to continue for a long time

Dictionary example:
The brewery was established in 1822.

Learner example:
The first restaurant, which was established 10 years ago, is called Paris.

establish communication/relations, etc.
[C1] to start having a relationship or communicating with another person, company, country, or organization

Dictionary example:
The two countries have only recently established diplomatic relations.

Learner example:
[As] everyone knows, English is called "the universal language", which is used in all the airports of the world, to establish communication between the airports and the planes that arrive from all over the world.

establish sb/sth as sth
[C1] to put someone or something into a successful and lasting position
Dictionary example:
He quickly established himself as a talented actor.

Learner example:
In fact, after ending his career as a football player, Pele managed to establish himself as a successful businessman.

DECEIDE
[C2] to decide something

Dictionary example:
Our first step must be to establish priorities for the weeks ahead.

Learner example:
As well as this, parents have to establish clear guidelines in relation to expenditure.

DISCOVER
[C2] to find out information or prove something

Dictionary example:
The police are trying to establish how he died.

Learner example:
In summary, it is difficult to establish how people choose to buy what they buy.

establishment /ɪˈstæb.lɪʃ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: establishment
Verbs: establish

NOUN

ORGANIZATION
[C1] [C] FORMAL a business or other organization, or the place where an organization operates

Dictionary example:
an educational/religious establishment

Learner example:
Even if you do not enjoy novel eating experiences, this establishment is worth a visit due to its architecture and atmosphere.

STARTING
[C1] [U] when an organization, school, business, etc. is started

Dictionary example:
the establishment of a new national bank
Learner example:
That explains the establishment of various fast-food restaurants in our countries, which spread in a(n) incredibly quick way, and have changed our eating habits in a short time.

estate /ɪˈsteɪt/

NOUN [C]

LAND
[B2] a large area of land in the country which is owned by a family or an organization and is often used for growing crops or raising animals

Dictionary example:
a country estate

Learner example:
There is a special law in Sweden which allows everyone to wander [through] any private estate unless one causes harm.

BUILDINGS
[B2] a group of houses or factories built in a planned way

Dictionary examples:
a housing estate
an industrial estate

Learner example:
I live [o]n a big housing estate.

estimate /ˈes.tɪ.mət/

Word family:
Nouns: estimate
Verbs: estimate, underestimate, overestimate
Adjectives: estimated

VERB [T]
[B2] to guess the cost, size, value, etc. of something

Dictionary examples:
Government sources estimate a long-term 50% increase in rail fares.
They estimate that the journey will take at least two weeks.
It was difficult to estimate how many trees had been destroyed.
The number of dead is estimated at over three hundred.

Learner example:
I estimate it will take only 7 minutes to walk from the conference center to the hotel.
NOUN [C] /ˈes.trɪ.mət/
[B2] a guess of what the size, value, amount, cost, etc. of something might be

Dictionary examples:
The number of people who applied for the course was 120 compared with an initial estimate of between 50 and 100.
This is only a rough estimate.

estimated /ˈes.trɪ.mə.tid/

Word family:
Nouns: estimate
Verbs: estimate, underestimate, overestimate
Adjectives: estimated

ADJECTIVE
[B2] guessed

Dictionary example:
an estimated cost/value

Learner example:
My estimated [time of] arrival [at] Heathrow airport is nine o’clock in the morning and my flight number is OK 1312.

ethic /ˈeθ.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: ethic
Adjectives: ethical, unethical

NOUN ethics
[C2] ideas and beliefs about what type of behaviour is morally right and wrong

Dictionary examples:
a code of ethics
the ethics of genetic engineering

Learner example:
By experiencing difficult situations in life, they become wiser and they never forget their values and ethics.

[C2] [NO PLURAL] a belief or idea that influences the way you think or behave

Dictionary example:
He has a very strong work ethic.
Learner example:
Though I am no longer a believer, I agree with the whole religious ethic, and I shall transmit it to my children.

ethical /ˈeθ.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: ethic
Adjectives: ethical, unethical

ADJECTIVE

RIGHT/WRONG
[C2] relating to what is right or wrong

Dictionary example:
The book raises some serious ethical questions.

Learner example:
In spite of this, I am not in favour of euthanasia and I even think that mercy killing holds severe ethical problems.

GOOD
[C2] morally correct and good

Dictionary example:
He dealt with this case in a completely professional and ethical manner.

Learner example:
It's not so much a problem of funds now, for I and my husband earn our living easily, but the question of how to bring across those moral and ethical values I believe in, namely reliability, honesty, self-confidence, to a certain degree endurance and discipline, paired with friendly and polite manners.

ethnic /ˈeθ.nɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] relating to a particular race of people

Dictionary example:
ethnic minorities

Learner example:
Over 98% of the population are ethnic Chinese.
evaluate /ɪˈvæl.ju.ɪt/
Word family:
Nouns: evaluation
Verbs: evaluate
VERB [T] FORMAL
[C1] to consider or study something carefully and decide how good or bad it is
Dictionary example:
We need time to evaluate the proposal.
Learner example:
The aim of this report is to evaluate and describe how successful our College Film Club has been so far.

evaluation /ɪˌvæl.juˈeɪ.ʃən/
Word family:
Nouns: evaluation
Verbs: evaluate
NOUN [C or U]
[C1] the act of considering something carefully and deciding how good or bad it is
Dictionary examples:
There was no evaluation of the risks involved.
She carried out an evaluation of their services.
Learner example:
And that is what counts in the evaluation of job candidates.

even /ˈIː.vən/
ADVERB
EMPHASIS
[B1] used to emphasize a comparison
Dictionary examples:
Her last film was even better.
The next 36 hours will be even colder, with snow showers just about everywhere.
I think Alex is going to be even taller than his father.
It’s even more difficult to find work.

Learner example:
When I saw her getting off the train I really was close to break[ing] down because she looked even more beautiful.

not even

[B1] used to emphasize the fact that something does not happen or is not true

Dictionary examples:
"I never cry." "Not even when you hurt yourself really badly?"
Nobody spoke, not even the children.

Learner example:
We tried to fish, but didn't catch a thing, not even a shoe!

even if

[B2] whether or not

Dictionary example:
Even if you take a taxi, you'll still miss your train.

Learner example:
I often go to parks, with or without the children, even if the weather is not good.

even though

[B2] although

Dictionary examples:
Even though he left school at 16, he still managed to become a millionaire.
He still smokes even though he's got asthma.

Learner example:
They didn't give up hope even though they were tired and wet to the bone.

even so

[C1] used to emphasize that something surprising is true despite what you have just said

Dictionary example:
Car prices have gone down a lot, but even so, we couldn't afford to buy one.

Learner example:
I'm sure many of [these things] happened due to bad luck, but even so, there are some arrangements that, I believe, can easily be improved.

break even

[C1] to not make money but also not lose money

Dictionary example:
The company only managed to break even this year.

Learner example:
Company C does not seem to be doing well. In the year 2000, it just seems to be breaking even.
event /ɪˈvent/

Word family:
Nouns: event
Adjectives: eventful, uneventful

NOUN [c]

HAPPENING
[B1] something that happens, especially something important or unusual

Dictionary examples:
Local people have been shocked by recent events in the town.
The police are trying to determine the series of events that led up to the murder.

Learner example:
I like this book because I like the description of historical events.

RACE
[B1] a race, party, competition, etc. that has been organized for a particular time

Dictionary examples:
Over two thousand people took part in the event.
They stage big sporting events here.
They organize a lot of social events.

Learner example:
When there are parties or important social events, I usually choose a dress to wear.

in the event of sth FORMAL
[C1] if something happens

Dictionary example:
An airbag could save your life in the event of an accident.

Learner example:
In the event of bad weather, it would be wise to plan an alternative to the boat trip, for example a visit of Buckingham Palace or the Houses of Parliament.

in any event
[C1] whatever happens

Dictionary example:
I'm not sure if I'm coming on Friday, but in any event, I'll see you next week.

Learner example:
In any event, it is incumbent upon all of us to carefully plan our travel matters, so as to take advantage of their several benefits.

turn of events
[C2] the way in which a situation develops, especially a sudden or unexpected change eventful /ɪˈvent.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: event
Adjectives: eventful, uneventful

ADJECTIVE
[C2] full of interesting or important events

Dictionary example:
a very eventful day/journey

Learner example:
She informed me of her exciting and eventful life in London in her letters, which made me decide to follow suit in order to study English.

eventual /ɪˈven.tʃu.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: eventual
Adverbs: eventually

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] happening or existing at the end of a process or period of time

Dictionary example:
the eventual winner of the competition

Learner example:
Finally, the most important consequence – and in some way quite a perverse one – is that setting the island on fire leads to the boys’ eventual rescue; so, pure destruction here means [c]atharsis (speaking in terms of drama).

eventually /ɪˈven.tju.əli/

Word family:
Adjectives: eventual
Adverbs: eventually
ADVERB
[B2] in the end, especially after a long time

Dictionary examples:
Eventually they reached an agreement.
He eventually got round to fixing the bike.

Learner example:
Anyway Pat eventually apologized to me.

ever /ˈev.ər/

ADVERB

hardly ever [B1] almost never

Dictionary example:
We hardly ever go out these days.

Learner example:
My bedroom hardly ever looks tidy.

ever since
[B1] continuously since that time

Dictionary examples:
We met at school and have been friends ever since.
He's been depressed ever since he got divorced.

Learner example:
The pen was given [to me] by my father on my birthday and I have treasured it ever since.

for ever
[B1] always in the future

Dictionary example:
I'm not going to live here for ever.

Learner example:
My friend was leaving the city for ever and [going] to a city in another country.

ever so [B2] very

Dictionary example:
It was ever so kind of you to meet us at the airport.
Learner example:
It was ever so kind of you to take the trouble and make room for us although we arrived quite unexpectedly.

better/faster/happier, etc. than ever
[C1] better/faster/happier, etc. than at any time before

Dictionary example:
She is running faster than ever.

Learner example:
First of all, I would like to thank you for your invitation to the new opening of Longridge Arts Centre, the centre looks better than ever and I enjoyed the arts exhibition that is on now.

ever such a [C2] a very

Dictionary example:
She’s ever such a good dancer.

Learner example:
The psychiatrist was a very nice young girl that helped me ever such a lot.

ever–changing/growing/increasing, etc.
[C2] always changing/growing/increasing, etc.

Dictionary example:
We live in an ever–changing world.

Learner example:
In our ever–changing society, in the affluent cities of the Western world, life moves at such a fast pace that parents are the reflection and the result of our times, the cogs of a large, rather uncontrollable wheel.

every  /ˈev.ri/

DETERMINER

POSSIBLE
[B2] as much as is possible

Dictionary examples:
I’d like to wish you every success in your new job.
She has every reason to be unhappy after losing her job and her home.
You had every opportunity to make a complaint.
Every effort is being made to minimise civilian casualties.
She has every right to be proud of her tremendous achievements.
Learner example:
The man realized that people should take every opportunity that life offers them, because all we are is dust in the wind.

every now and then
[C1] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
We still meet up every now and then.

Learner example:
Each day choose 10 new words and learn them by heart. In a week you will have learned 70 new words, and in a year 3640, a lot of words. Please, do not forget to repeat them every now and then.

every so often
[C2] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
He went into town every so often to buy supplies.

Learner example:
Elizabeth and others visited her every so often until [one] day she left them.

every other day/week, etc.
[C2] happening one day/week, etc. but not the next

Dictionary example:
Alice goes to the gym every other day.

Learner example:
The rubbish is collected every other day, which is quite often.

everything /ˈev.ri.θɪŋ/

PRONOUN

be/mean everything
[B2] to be the most important part of someone's life

Dictionary examples:
His children mean everything to him.
Money isn't everything.

Learner example:
I think that every person has a different opinion, but for me, money and fame isn't everything in life.
do everything in your power to do sth
[C1] to do everything that you are able and allowed to do in order to achieve something

Dictionary example:
I've done everything in my power to help him.

Learner example:
I think of myself as an open-minded and cheerful person and if I get the job I will do everything in my power to make sure your visitors will have a great time at the theme park.

---

evidence /ˈev.i.dənts/

Word family:
- Nouns: evidence
- Adjectives: evident
- Adverbs: evidently

NOUN [u]

PROOF
[B2] something that makes you believe that something is true or exists

Dictionary examples:
evidence of global warming
There is no evidence that the theory is true.
New evidence suggests/shows this argument is flawed.
There is scientific evidence that the drug is addictive.
All the evidence points to a substantial rise in traffic over the next few years.
There is growing/increasing evidence that people whose diets are rich in vitamins are less likely to develop some types of cancer.

Learner example:
David started looking for evidence, but he found nothing.

LAW
[C2] information that is given or objects that are shown in a court of law to help to prove if someone has committed a crime

Dictionary example:
He was arrested despite the lack of evidence against him.

Learner example:
My new neighbour murdered his wife and although the circumstan[t][a][l] evidence against him was enormous, the case was dismissed because of the lack of some clinching piece of evidence.
evident /ˈev.ɪ.dənt/ FORMAL

Word family:
Nouns: evidence
Adjectives: evident
Adverbs: evidently

ADJECTIVE

[B2] obvious to everyone and easy to see or understand

Dictionary examples:
The full extent of the damage only became evident the following morning.
From the smell it was evident that the drains had been blocked for several days.

Learner example:
In conclusion, it is evident that it is better to do shopping in big supermarkets or shopping centres than small local shops in terms of time, money, working hours and family life.

evidently /ˈev.ɪ.dənt.li/ FORMAL

Word family:
Nouns: evidence
Adjectives: evident
Adverbs: evidently

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that is easy to see

Dictionary example:
He evidently likes her.

Learner example:
There are, evidently, points in favour and points against.

evil /ˈiː.vəl/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] very cruel, bad or harmful

Dictionary examples:
an evil monster
These people are just evil.

Learner example:
She is a very dark and evil person who can't forget the first Mrs. de Winter.
NOUN [C or U]

[B2] something that is very bad and harmful

Dictionary examples:
Drug-addiction is one of today's great social evils.
The theme of the play is the battle between good and evil.

Learner example:
It is not simply [the] confronting of good and evil.

---

evolution /ˌiː.vəˈluː.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: evolution
Verbs: evolve

---

NOUN [U]

NATURAL WORLD

[B2] the way in which living things change and develop over millions of years

Dictionary example:
Darwin's theory of evolution

Learner example:
I think it is good to have zoos, but we shouldn't try to control natural evolution as we have done until now.

GRADUAL CHANGE

[B2] a gradual process of change and development

Dictionary example:
The evolution of language

Learner example:
[Leonardo's] studies and projects on mechanics puzzle us and foresee the future evolution of science and technology.

---

evolve /ɪˈvɔlv/

Word family:
Nouns: evolution
Verbs: evolve

VERB

[C1] to develop or make something develop, usually gradually
Dictionary example:
rapidly evolving technology

Learner example:
This device has evolved from being a large machine into the size of a notebook.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>exact /ɪgˈzækt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Adjectives: exact
Adverbs: exactly

ADJECTIVE

[B1] completely correct in every detail

Dictionary examples:
The exact distance is 1.838 metres.
I'm afraid I can't give you exact details.
The exact location of the factory has yet to be decided.
They've lived here a long time – 25 years to be exact.

Learner example:
I am looking forward to your next letter to know the exact time of your [arrival].

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>exactly /ɪgˈzæk.tɪli/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Adjectives: exact
Adverbs: exactly

ADVERB

EMPHASIS

[B1] used to emphasize what you are saying

Dictionary examples:
I've found some shoes that are exactly the same colour as that dress.
Do exactly what I tell you and no-one will get hurt!
That's exactly why I didn't go.

Learner example:
That is exactly one of the reasons [why] I decided to join a new English class.

AGREEMENT

[B2] something you say when you agree completely with someone

Dictionary example:
"Surely they should have told us about this problem sooner?" "Exactly!"
not exactly

[B2] used to say that something is not completely true

Dictionary example:
“So you gave her your book?” “Not exactly, I lent it to her.”

not exactly easy/new/rich, etc. INFORMAL

[C1] used to emphasize that someone or something does not have a particular quality

Dictionary example:
Let’s face it, we’re not exactly rich, are we?

Learner example:
The Hotel Royal was not exactly luxurious.

---

exaggerate /ɪgˈzædʒ.ə.reɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: exaggeration
Verbs: exaggerate

VERB [I or T]

[C1] to make something seem larger, better, worse, etc. than it really is

Dictionary example:
Don’t exaggerate – it didn’t cost that much!

Learner example:
Without exaggerating, I would like to mention that she is dependable and trustworthy but also tactful and supportive.

---

exaggeration /ɪgˌzædʒ.ərˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: exaggeration
Verbs: exaggerate

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] when you describe something as larger, better, worse, etc. than it really is

Dictionary example:
a slight/gross exaggeration of the facts

Learner example:
You wrote about "a sudden downpour of rain" which was a huge exaggeration.
examination /ɪɡˈzæm.iˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: exam, examination, examiner
Verbs: examine

NOUN

CAREFUL LOOK
[B2] [c or u] when someone looks at or considers something carefully in order to discover something

Dictionary examples:
a medical examination
I had to have a medical examination when I started my new job.
The evidence is still under examination.
I thought it was paint at first, but on closer examination I realised it was dried blood.

Learner example:
Finally we went to the hospital for a medical examination and fortunately we were all right.

examine /ɪɡˈzæm.ɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: exam, examination, examiner
Verbs: examine

VERB [T]

LOOK AT
[B2] to look at or consider a person or thing carefully and in detail in order to discover something about them

Dictionary examples:
She picked up the knife and examined it closely.
He was examined by a doctor as soon as he arrived.
Experts are examining the wreckage for clues about the cause of the explosion.

Learner example:
I examined both of them and finally I discovered [that it] was a virus changed genetically in order to kill people.

TEST
[C2] FORMAL to test someone to see how much they know or how well they can do something

Dictionary example:
You’ll be examined in three main areas: speaking, listening, and reading comprehension.
Learner example:
Be prepared, not only in the [areas] you will be examined in.

examiner /ɪɡˈzæm.ɪn.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: exam, examination, examiner
Verbs: examine

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who tests how much you know about something, or how well you can do something

Dictionary example:
The writing paper is marked by trained examiners.

Learner example:
When the examiner said that I had passed, I could not believe it.

example /ɪɡˈzɑːmpl/

Word family:
Nouns: example
Verbs: exemplify

NOUN [c]

set an example
[B2] to do something in a good way so that other people might try to copy you

Dictionary example:
Try to set a good example to the children.

Learner example:
It sets a good example for other museums.

VERY GOOD
[B2] someone or something that is very good and should be copied

Dictionary example:
He is a very good example to the rest of the class.

Learner example:
You are a shining example for you[r] colle[a]gues.

a/the prime example
[C2] a very good example of something
Dictionary example:
This is a prime example of what happens when communication is poor.

Learner example:
In this context in the analyses of Piggy's character, it strikes me as a first spontaneous impression that he personifies the typical proper schoolboy who will later on undoubtedly grow up to be the prime example of a good and responsible citizen.

exceed  /ɪkˈsiːd/

Word family:
Nouns: excess
Verbs: exceed
Adjectives: excess, excessive

VERB [T]

BE MORE
[C1] to be more than a particular number or amount

Dictionary example:
Sales have exceeded $1 million so far this year.

Learner example:
Our administration costs didn’t exceed 5%, the other 10% were the pure costs of the entertainment.

exceed sb’s expectations
[C1] to be much bigger or better than expected

Dictionary example:
The location of the apartment exceeded our expectations.

Learner example:
They might exceed our expectations with the top-quality cuisine, which is fine as long as it is value for money; we don't want an unaffordable canteen.

exceed the speed limit
[C1] to drive faster than you are allowed to according to the law

Dictionary example:
She was caught exceeding the speed limit.

Learner example:
There are three ground rules you have to follow: stop at stop-signs, don't exceed the speed limit and don't be in the way of other cars.
excel /ɪkˈsel/

Word family:
Verbs: excel
Adjectives: excellent

VERB [i] FORMAL (excelling, excelled)

BE GOOD
[C2] to be very good at something

Dictionary example:
Paula always excelled in languages at school.

Learner example:
If a school is successful, it will provide opportunities for the child to excel in other areas such as the creative arts, like music, dance, painting and drama, and also sports.

excel yourself
[C2] to do something better than you usually do

Dictionary example:
The British team have excelled themselves this year to reach the finals.

Learner example:
As far as the acting is concerned, the interaction between the lead actors is amazing while Catherine Zeta Jones excels herself in the highly demanding role of the client.

except /ɪkˈsept/

Word family:
Nouns: exception
Adjectives: exceptional
Adverbs: exceptionally

PREPOSITION; CONJUNCTION

except that
[B1] used to give a reason why something is not possible or true

Dictionary examples:
I want to go, except that I'm tired.
She would have passed the exam, except that she was ill on the day.
exception /ɪkˈsep.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: exception
Adjectives: exceptional
Adverbs: exceptionally

NOUN [C or U]

NOT INCLUDED
[B2] someone or something that is not included in a rule, group or list or that does not behave in the expected way

Dictionary examples:
There are exceptions to every rule.
I like all kinds of films with the exception of horror films.
Her books are always entertaining and this one is no exception.
You must report here every Tuesday without exception.

Learner example:
The animals looked so sad to me. So I decided to set them free, all of them, without exception.

make an exception
[C1] to not treat someone or something according to the usual rules

Dictionary example:
They don't usually take cheques, but they said they'd make an exception in my case.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, they were not flexible enough to make an exception, but on the other hand we know about the problem now and can avoid it in the future.

take exception to sth FORMAL [C2] to be annoyed or insulted by something

Dictionary example:
He took exception to being asked to sweep the floor.

Learner example:
I hope you will not take exception to my words, but I think that this course of action is rather foolish and illogical.

exceptional /ɪkˈsep.ʃən.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: exception
Adjectives: exceptional
Adverbs: exceptionally
ADJECTIVE

GOOD
[B2] extremely good

Dictionary example:
He really is an exceptional student.

Learner example:
This trip constitutes an exceptional challenge for me.

UNUSUAL
[C2] very unusual and not likely to happen very often

Dictionary example:
Visitors are only allowed in exceptional circumstances.

Learner example:
However, there are always some exceptional circumstances in which they fail to understand what is appropriate for them.

exceptionally /ɪkˈsep.ʃən.əl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: exception
Adjectives: exceptional
Adverbs: exceptionally

ADVERB
[C1] extremely

Dictionary example:
an exceptionally gifted student

Learner example:
Jacky Chan is an exceptionally hardworking person who won't let anything bring him down and he has a great sense of humour which is why most people like him.

excess

Word family:
Nouns: excess
Verbs: exceed Adjectives: excess, excessive

NOUN /ɪkˈses/
[C1] more of something than is usual or needed
Dictionary examples:
An excess of oil on the markets has caused prices to fall sharply.
He earns in excess of £60,000 a year.

Learner example:
We should change our behaviour and buy what we need and not in excess, giving the children a pattern to follow.

do sth to excess
[C2] to do something too much

Dictionary example:
He occasionally has a beer, but he never drinks to excess.

Learner example:
We eat and drink to excess only to face the consequences later on.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] /ˈek.ses/
[C1] more than is usual or allowed

Dictionary example:
We had to pay £100 for excess baggage.

Learner example:
Most students feel that they need to get rid of excess energy at the end of the day and also convey that they are hampered by the fact that not enough sports facilities are available.

excessive /ɪkˈses.ɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: excess
Verbs: exceed Adjectives: excess, excessive

ADJECTIVE
[C1] more than is necessary or wanted

Dictionary example:
They accused the police of using excessive force.

Learner example:
On the other hand the excessive use of mobile telephones ha[s given] us the excuse to decrease our face to face contact.
exchange /ɪks'tʃeɪndʒ/

NOUN

GIVING
[B1] [c or u] when you give something to someone and they give you something else

Dictionary examples:
an exchange of ideas/information
They were given food and shelter in exchange for work.

Learner example:
So, it was a very interesting exchange of ideas.

STUDENTS
[B1] [c] an arrangement by which students and teachers from one country go to stay with students and teachers in another country

Dictionary example:
Are you going on the French exchange this year?

Learner example:
His name is Rob and, [like] me, [he] applied to the student exchange program.

VERB [T]

GIVING
[B1] to give something to someone and receive something similar from them

Dictionary examples:
It’s traditional for the two teams to exchange shirts after the game.
We exchanged addresses and telephone numbers.

Learner example:
She moved to another part of town and we forgot to exchange our addresses.

SHOP
[B2] to take something back to the shop where you bought it and change it for something else

Dictionary examples:
Goods can only be exchanged on production of the original receipt.
Could I exchange this shirt for a larger size?

exchange looks, opinions, views, etc.
[B2] If two people exchange looks, opinions, views, etc., they look at each other, talk to each other, etc.

Dictionary example:
The group meets every month to exchange their views on a book they have all read.

993
Learner example:
You can exchange opinions with them as to the way of life in Japan and your country.

exchange rate /ɪksˈtʃeɪnstʃ,riːt/ (also rate of exchange)

NOUN [c]
[B1] the rate at which the money of one country can be changed for the money of another country

Dictionary example:
The Money Ready Reckoner gives the exchange rate for any country you plan to visit and shows how much currency you will get.

Learner example:
I looked around and saw a shop with the notice "Currency exchange". I decided to [go] in [to find out] the exchange rate.

excitedly /ɪkˈsaɪ.tɪd.li/

Word family:
Nouns: excitement
Adjectives: excited, exciting
Adverbs: excitedly

ADVERB
[B1] in an excited way

Dictionary example:
She ran excitedly down the hall to greet her cousins.

Learner example:
We talked excitedly about it all the way home.

excitement /ɪkˈsaɪt.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: excitement
Adjectives: excited, exciting
Adverbs: excitedly

NOUN [u]
[B1] when people feel very happy and enthusiastic
Dictionary examples:
The competition is causing a lot of excitement.
If you want excitement, you should try parachuting.

Learner example:
However, if you are looking for fun and excitement, I would go for the city.

exclaim /ɪksˈkleɪm/

VERB [ɪ or ɪ]

[C2] to say something suddenly and loudly because you are surprised, annoyed, excited, etc.

Dictionary example:
"How terrible!" she exclaimed.

Learner example:
Then he would exclaim, "What a wonderful selection," with a robust laugh.

exclamation mark /ekˈsklaːmənˌmɑːk/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a punctuation mark (!) used at the end of a sentence that expresses surprise, excitement or shock

Dictionary example:
Her emails are full of exclamation marks.

Learner example:
The day was wonderful as I got two A's with [an] exclamation mark.

exclude /ɪksˈkluːd/

Word family:
Verbs: exclude
Adjectives: exclusive
Adverbs: exclusively

VERB [ɪ]

KEEP OUT
[C1] to not allow someone or something to take part in an activity or enter a place

Dictionary example:
Women are still excluded from the club.
Learner example:
Sometimes the range of sports offered is small and they feel excluded from some sports because they are not fit enough or the sport is too violent.

NOT INCLUDE
[C1] to intentionally not include something

Dictionary example:
The insurance cover excludes particular medical conditions.

Learner example:
Thus, excluding the cost of organising the day, we were able to give 85% of what we earned to the hospital.

exclusive  /ɪkˈskluːsɪv/

Word family:
Verbs: exclude
Adjectives: exclusive
Adverbs: exclusively

ADJECTIVE

EXPENSIVE
[B2] expensive and only for people who are rich or of a high social class

Dictionary examples:
an exclusive club/hotel/shop an exclusive part of town

Learner example:
We can also discern sophisticated, exclusive shops with expensive clothes in the city centres.

NOT SHARED
[C1] not shared with another person, organization, newspaper, etc.

Dictionary example:
an exclusive interview

Learner example:
They don't have a personal life anymore because of this and photographers are following them everywhere because they want to take an exclusive picture, so they can earn a lot of money with it when a magazine wants to buy it.

exclusive of sth
[C2] not including something

Dictionary example:
The price of the meal is exclusive of drinks.
Learner example:
Preferred areas are [mainly] in North, North West, South East and South West London with a budget of £800 per month exclusive of Council Tax and Bills.

exclusively /ɪksˈkluː.sɪv.li/

Word family:
Verbs: exclude
Adjectives: exclusive
Adverbs: exclusively

ADVERB
[C1] only

Dictionary example:
an exclusively female audience

Learner example:
In addition, the reduced price mentioned refers exclusively to UK students, which caused significant problems.

excuse

VERB [T] /ɪkˈskjuːz/

FORGIVE
[B1] to forgive someone

Dictionary examples:
Please excuse me for arriving late – the bus was delayed.
Please excuse my appearance – I've been painting.

Learner example:
I hope you'll excuse me now, I have to do my homework.

EXPLAIN
[B2] to be given as a reason for someone's bad behaviour, so that it does not seem so bad

Dictionary example:
Nothing can excuse that sort of behaviour.

Learner example:
Their main goals are to save the animals and/or to show the animals to the public in order to make us take an interest in the animals and in ecology. I think that these purposes can excuse [the fact] that the animals are locked up, if they [have] enough space and [are] treated very well.
NOUN [C] /ɪkˈskjuːs/reason
[B1] a reason that you give to explain why you did something wrong

Dictionary examples:
What was his excuse for being late?
He'd better have a good excuse for not being here!
I've never known him to miss a meeting – I'm sure he'll have an excuse.
There's no excuse for that sort of behaviour.

Learner example:
I had no excuse to give [for] being late with this report.

FALSE REASON
[B1] a false reason that you give to explain why you do something

Dictionary examples:
Nick was just looking for an excuse to call her.
Any excuse for a holiday!

Learner example:
Also shopping for clothes is an excuse to go out with girls!!

execute /ˈek.sɪ.kjuːt/
verb [T]
kill
[C2] to kill someone as a legal punishment

Dictionary example:
He was executed for murder.

Learner example:
She might even have had some cruel aspects in her personality for she did not hesitate to execute traitors.

do
[C2] to do something, such as follow a plan or order

Dictionary example:
To execute a deal/plan

Learner example:
When he controls the work of the other staff members, he wants to find out [whether] they executed their duties perfectly.
executive /ɪɡˈzek.tɪv/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] relating to making decisions and managing businesses

Dictionary example:
an executive director

Learner example:
So I am now an executive director, I have a job and I know very important people in the Romanian Government.

NOUN
[C1] [c] someone who has an important job in a business

Dictionary example: a company executive

Learner example:
The main reason why I attended this conference was to learn how international companies select their employees and how I could improve my qualifications as a finance executive.

exemplify /ɪgˈzem.plɪfaɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: example
Verbs: exemplify

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C2] to be or give a typical example of something

Dictionary example:
This painting perfectly exemplifies the naturalistic style which was so popular at the time.

Learner example:
Okonkwo serves to exemplify to the reader the consequences that the Igbo people were suffering.

exercise /ˈek.səsərəs/

NOUN
MILITARY
[C2] [c] a set of actions that a group of soldiers do to practise their skills

Dictionary example:
The cadets are out on military exercises.
I am not opposed to military exercises, but such a noisy activity cannot be tolerated in a world in which environmental protection should be promoted by everybody, [including] the army.

PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

[B1] [I or T] to do physical activities to make your body strong and healthy

Dictionary examples:
She exercises most evenings, usually by running.
A work–out in the gym will exercise all the major muscle groups.

Learner example:
It’s funny how I heard about that; I was at the gym with Sarah, we were exercising when we heard Tom talking about it with John.

USE

[C2] [T] formal to use a power, right, or ability

Dictionary example:
You should always exercise your right to vote.

Learner example:
However, if you believe that nothing can be done, I have to inform you that we will exercise our legal rights and take action against you.

---

exhaust /

Word family:

Nouns: exhaustion

Verbs: exhaust

Adjectives: exhausted, exhausting, exhaustive

VERB [T]

[C1] to make someone very tired

Dictionary example:
The long journey exhausted the children.

Learner example:
I think that the students were expecting to be given a job that would actually improve their English and not just exhaust them physically.

NOUN

GAS

[C1] the waste gas from a vehicle's engine
Dictionary example:
exhaust fumes

Learner example:
Therefore, it might cause a great deal of pollution because of exhaust fumes.

PIPE

[C1] (exhaust pipe) the pipe that waste gas from a vehicle's engine flows through

Dictionary example:
The car needs a new exhaust.

Learner example:
There are traffic jams and it becomes a real hell to drive or simply to walk (because of the noise and pollution of exhaust pipes).

exhausted /ɪgˈzɔː.stɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: exhaustion
Verbs: exhaust
Adjectives: exhausted, exhausting, exhaustive

ADJECTIVE

[B1] extremely tired

Dictionary examples:
By the time they reached the summit they were exhausted.
Exhausted, they fell asleep.

Learner example:
When we got back home I was absolutely exhausted.

exhausting /ɪgˈzɔː.stɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: exhaustion
Verbs: exhaust
Adjectives: exhausted, exhausting, exhaustive

ADJECTIVE

[B2] making you feel extremely tired

Dictionary example:
I've had an exhausting day.

Learner example:
We will also have the opportunity to drink a coffee or have a snack after an exhausting day in the swimming pool!!
exhaustion /ɪgˈzɔːstʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: exhaustion
Verbs: exhaust
Adjectives: exhausted, exhausting, exhaustive

NOUN [u]
[B2] when you are extremely tired

Dictionary examples:
She felt ill with exhaustion.
The tennis star is said to be suffering from exhaustion.

Learner example:
Eighty kilometres is a pretty long distance and there is a threat that our trip would turn out to be a gruelling experience because of physical exhaustion.

exhaustive /ɪgˈzɔːstɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: exhaustion
Verbs: exhaust
Adjectives: exhausted, exhausting, exhaustive

ADJECTIVE [C1] complete and including everything

Dictionary example:
an exhaustive account of the incident

Learner example:
I think this report is exhaustive and that we can rely on this institution, should other colleagues be sent on a similar course there.

exhibit /ɪgˈzɪb.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: exhibition, exhibit
Verbs: exhibit

VERB
SHOW OBJECTS [C1] to show objects such as paintings to the public

Dictionary example:
She's exhibiting her roses at the local flower show.
Learner example:
One of the most important pictures of Van Gogh will be exhibited at the London Museum during the summer holidays.

SHOW FEELINGS
[C2] to show a feeling, quality, or ability

Dictionary example:
The crew exhibited great courage when the plane crashed.

Learner example:
I consider my father a successful man because he exhibits all the qualities I've mentioned above.

NOUN [C]
[C1] an object such as a painting that is shown to the public

Dictionary example:
a museum exhibit

Learner example:
Apart from that, there are English-speaking tourist guides in museums and historical sites, so that visitors can enjoy them and understand what the exhibits are.

exhibition  /ˌek.sɪˈbɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: exhibition, exhibit
Verbs: exhibit

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] when objects such as paintings are shown to the public

Dictionary examples:
to see/visit an exhibition
an exhibition centre
There's a new exhibition of sculpture on at the city gallery.

Learner example:
We went to the Royal Academy to see the Kandinsky exhibition.

exile  /ˈek.sai/l/

NOUN
[C2] when someone has to leave their home and live in another country, often for political reasons
Dictionary examples:
He spent the war years in exile in New York.
The King was forced into exile.

Learner example:
In the exhibition I would like to depict the years he has spent in exile in India, a neighbouring country of Tibet.

exist /ɪgˈzɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: existence
Verbs: exist
Adjectives: existing, non-existent

VERB [i]
BE REAL
[B1] to be present or real

Dictionary examples:
Poverty still exists in this country.
Ghosts don't exist anyway.

Learner example:
Buses will not exist any more and everyone will have his own car and his own computer too.

LIVE
[C1] to live in difficult conditions

Dictionary example:
You can't exist without water for more than a week.

Learner example:
It's hard to exist without water, so there were long queues to our local wells.

existence /ɪgˈzɪs.tənts/

Word family:
Nouns: existence
Verbs: exist
Adjectives: existing, non-existent

NOUN
BEING
[B2] [u] when something or someone exists
Dictionary examples:
Many people question the existence of God.
According to modern cosmology, the Universe came into existence about fifteen billion years ago.
The theatre company that they started is still in existence today.

Learner example:
The book gives explanations about all these popular beliefs about ghosts and their supposed existence among living people.

LIFE
[C1] [c] a particular way of life

Dictionary example:
We could have a much more peaceful existence in the countryside.

Learner example:
People from all over the world emigrated to the fifth continent and it was believed that they would have a better existence there.

-existing /ɪgˈzɪs.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: existence
Verbs: exist
Adjectives: existing, non-existent

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] describes something that exists now

Dictionary examples:
The existing church was built in the sixteenth century.
The existing laws are inadequate.

Learner example:
The computer upgraded most of the existing inventions, and made them more efficient, faster and [more user-friendly].

-exit /ˈek.sɪt/

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to stop using a program on a computer

Dictionary example:
Press escape to exit the game.
exotic /ɪgˈzɒt.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] unusual, interesting and often foreign

Dictionary example:
exotic flowers/fruits

Learner example:
Even if you do not have any cooking skills you can enjoy exotic meals.

expand /ɪkˈspænd/

Word family:

Nouns: expansion

Verbs: expand

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to increase in size or amount, or to make something increase in this way

Dictionary examples:
The air in the balloon expands when heated.
They expanded their retail operations during the 1980s.

Learner example:
I would like to expand my library.

expansion /ɪkˈspæn.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: expansion

Verbs: expand

NOUN [U]

[B2] when something increases in size or amount

Dictionary example:
These years saw the rapid expansion of the software industry.

Learner example:
More effective ways includ[e] the construction of bridges [in] heavy traffic areas and the expansion of METRO to even more areas of Athens.
expect /ɪkˈspekt/

Word family:

Nouns: expectation

Verbs: expect

Adjectives: expected, unexpected

Adverbs: unexpectedly

VERB

THINK

[B1] [T] to think or believe that something will happen

Dictionary examples:

We are expecting a lot of applicants for the job.

I expect (that) she'll be very angry.

He didn't expect to see me.

Learner example:

I expect that it is going to be sunny because in the hotel there is a swimming-pool.

be expecting sb/sth

[B1] to be waiting for someone or something to arrive

Dictionary example:

I'm expecting a letter from my sister.

Learner example:

I wasn't expecting any message.

BEHAVE

[B2] [T] to think that someone should behave in a particular way or do a particular thing

Dictionary example:

You will be expected to work some weekends.

Learner example:

You have to satisfy your boss [but] you do not have to do more than you are expected to.

I expect

[B2] used to show that you think something is likely to be true

Dictionary examples:

I expect Isabel's told you about me?

"Will you be coming to the party?" "I expect so."

be expecting (a baby)

[B2] to be going to have a baby
Dictionary example:
I’m expecting our first baby in May.

Learner example:
When I was nine or ten years old, my mother was expecting a baby.

expectation /ˌek.spekˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: expectation
- Verbs: expect
- Adjectives: expected, unexpected
- Adverbs: unexpectedly

NOUN
[B2] [C USUALLY PLURAL] when you expect good things to happen in the future

Dictionary examples:
The holiday lived up to all our expectations.
I have high expectations for this job.
We did so well – beyond all our expectations.

Learner example:
The talks given by writers were up to my expectations and it was a pleasure to attend all of them.

exceed sb’s expectations
[C1] to be much bigger or better than expected

Dictionary example:
The location of the apartment exceeded our expectations.

Learner example:
They might exceed our expectations with the top-quality cuisine, which is fine as long as it is value for money; we don’t want an unaffordable canteen.

expected /ɪkˈspek.tɪd/

Word family:
- Nouns: expectation
- Verbs: expect
- Adjectives: expected, unexpected
- Adverbs: unexpectedly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] thought likely to happen or be true

Dictionary example:
The expected power cuts never happened.
Learner example:
I went into the theatre on time but became a little bit angry [at having to] wait until 20:15, forty-five minutes after the expected starting time.

expedition /ˌek.spəˈdɪʃ.ən/

NOUN [C]
[B1] an organized journey, especially a long one for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
Shackleton led several expeditions in the Antarctic.

Learner example:
I was with my father on Mount Tahan [and] I had the best time of my life during this expedition.

expenditure /ɪkˈspen.dɪ.tʃər/

Word family:
Nouns: expense, expenditure, expenses
Adjectives: expensive, inexpensive

NOUN [U] FORMAL
[C2] the total amount of money that a government or person spends

Dictionary example:
The government's annual expenditure on arms has been reduced.

Learner example:
First of all, and it is the most obvious solution, government expenditure on subsidies for [the] homeless should increase.

expense /ɪkˈspents/

Word family:
Nouns: expense, expenditure, expenses
Adjectives: expensive, inexpensive

NOUN [C or U]
MONEY SPENT
[B2] the money that you spend on something
Dictionary examples:
Buying a bigger car has proved to be well worth the expense.
We’ve just had a new garage built at great expense.
It’s silly to go to the expense of buying new clothes when you don’t really need them.
You have to pay/cover your own medical expenses.

Learner example:
We couldn’t afford the expense of a new car at that time.

at the expense of sth
[C1] If you do one thing at the expense of another, doing the first thing harms the second thing.

Dictionary example:
He spent a lot of time at work, at the expense of his marriage.

Learner example:
Unfortunately one is usually done at the expense of the other.

at sb’s expense
[C2] in order to make someone look stupid

Dictionary example:
Stop making jokes at my expense.

Learner example:
But despite his intellectual superiority, Piggy was subject to derision because of his physical outward appearance and the group of boys played jokes at his expense.

expenses /ɪkˈspens.ɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: expense, expenditure, expenses
Adjectives: expensive, inexpensive

NOUN [PLURAL]
[C1] money that you spend when you are doing your job, that your employer will pay back to you

Dictionary examples:
travel expenses
They pay us two hundred pounds a week, plus expenses.

Learner example:
They actually helped me a lot with relocation and even reimbursed my travel expenses.
experience /ɪkˈspɪə.ri.nts/

Word family:
Nouns: experience
Verbs: experience
Adjectives: experienced, inexperienced

NOUN

KNOWLEDGE
[B1] [u] knowledge that you get from doing a job, or from doing, seeing, or feeling something

Dictionary examples:
She has a lot of teaching experience.
You become more confident in your work as you get more experience.
Do you have any experience of working with children?
I know from experience that you can't trust him.
In my experience, people smile back if you smile at them.

Learner example:
I believe as I get more experience, I will be converted to an international [basketball] player.

SOMETHING THAT HAPPENS TO YOU
[B1] [c] something that happens to you that affects how you feel

Dictionary examples:
I had a rather unpleasant experience at the dentist's.
My trip to Australia was an experience I shall never forget.

Learner example:
It was a great experience, we talked for 3 hours about lots of thing[s].

VERB [t]
[B1] If you experience something, it happens to you, or you feel it.

Dictionary examples:
We experienced a lot of difficulty in selling our house.
It was the worst pain I'd ever experienced.

Learner example:
We had three fantastic days [- the best] we have ever experienced.

experienced /ɪkˈspɪə.ri.nts/ APPROVING

Word family:
Nouns: experience
Verbs: experience
Adjectives: experienced, inexperienced
ADJECTIVE

[B1] having skill or knowledge because you have done something many times

Dictionary examples:
an experienced teacher
She is very experienced in marketing.

Learner example:
You can go to the nearest village, where you can [do a] mountain walk led by experienced guides.

experiment

Word family:
Nouns: experiment
Verbs: experiment
Adjectives: experimental

NOUN [C] /ɪkˈspɜːr.mənt/

[B1] a test, especially a scientific one, that you do in order to learn something or to discover whether something is true

Dictionary examples:
Some people believe that experiments on animals should be banned.
Scientists are carrying out/doing experiments to test the effectiveness of the new drug.

Learner example:
In the chemistry lab experiments are often set up.

VERB [I] /ɪkˈspɜːr.mənt/

TRY

[B2] to try something in order to discover what it is like

Dictionary example:
Did he ever experiment with drugs?

Learner example:
Last year I started to take a lot of black and white photos and I wanted to follow the process all the way through so I bought an enlarger. I was now able to experiment with all sorts of techniques.

DO [C2] to do an experiment

Dictionary example:
Experimenting on mice can give us an idea of the effect of the disease in humans.

Learner example:
Firstly, scientists are the best contributors [for a] better world around us being smarter and hard-working, gaining knowledge and experimenting in laboratories.
experimental  /ɪkˌsper.ɪˈmen.təl/

Word family:

Nouns: experiment

Verbs: experiment

Adjectives: experimental

ADJECTIVE

[C2] relating to tests, especially scientific ones

Dictionary example:
The two scientists used very different experimental methods.

Learner example:
But in my opinion this is no excuse to discard the findings of numerous well-educated nutritionist[s] and food specialists who devote long [h]ours to researching the eating habits of the people of the world, who sift through data from times gone by to find out about our predecessors’ habits and who build and test hypotheses in strictly controlled experimental conditions.

expert  /ˈek.sપːt/

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone who has a lot of skill in something or a lot of knowledge of something

Dictionary examples:
a computer/gardening/medical expert
He’s an expert on Japanese literature.

Learner example:
My “personal” trainer is Peter, he is a real expert in running.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] having or showing a lot of knowledge or skill

Dictionary examples:
The centre provides expert advice for people with financial problems.
What’s your expert opinion?

Learner example:
We’re not expert cyclists and we could [get] tired before we get to the Mountain Hostel.

expire  /ɪkˈspaɪər/

VERB [i]

[C2] If a legal document or agreement expires, you can no longer use it.
explanation /ˌek.spləˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: explanation
- Verbs: explain
- Adjectives: inexplicable

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] the details or reasons that someone gives to make something clear or easy to understand

Dictionary examples:
- What was her explanation for why she was late?
- Could you give me a quick explanation of how it works?

Learner example:
There must be some kind of explanation.

explicit /ɪkˈsplɪs.ɪt/

ADJECTIVE

CLEAR

[C2] clear and exact

Dictionary examples:
- She was very explicit about her plans.
- He made no explicit references to Tess.

Learner example:
Rules have to be explicit and well explained so that they [can] be strictly followed.

SHOWING SEX

[C2] showing or talking about sex or violence in a very detailed way

Dictionary example:
- an explicit film

Learner example:
One is not supposed to watch explicit movies under the age of 16 [nor] drink alcohol under the age of 18.
explode /ɪkˈspləʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: explosion, explosive
Verbs: explode
Adjectives: explosive

VERB [I or T]

[B1] If something such as a bomb explodes, it bursts with noise and force, and if you explode it, you make it burst with noise and force.

Dictionary examples:
A bomb exploded at one of London’s busiest railway stations this morning.
He was driving so fast that his car tyre exploded.

Learner example:
A bomb had exploded and that boy rescued me from the accident.

---

exploit /ekˈsplɔɪt/

VERB [T]

USE UNFAIRLY

[B2] to treat someone unfairly for your own advantage

Dictionary example:
Laws exist to stop companies exploiting their employees.

Learner example:
I suppose those people are often exploited and do not have real friends with whom they can share feelings and emotions. Therefore I believe being a famous person is also synon[y]mous [with] being lonely.

USE WELL

[B2] to use or develop something to your advantage

Dictionary example:
We need to make sure that we exploit our resources as fully as possible.

Learner example:
John would certainly exploit this unique opportunity and meet the interviewer’s expectations easily.
exploration /ˌek.spləˈreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: exploration
Verbs: explore

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a journey to a place to find out about something

Dictionary examples:
Livingstone was the first European to make an exploration of the Zambesi river.
She's always loved travel and exploration.

Learner example:
In the near future robots will take part in space exploration, as well as ocean exploration.

explore /ɪkˈsplɔːr/

Word family:
Nouns: exploration
Verbs: explore

VERB
LOOK AROUND
[B1] [i or ɪ] to go around a place where you have never been in order to find out what is there

Dictionary examples:
The best way to explore the countryside is on foot.
The children have gone exploring in the woods.

Learner example:
You can walk and explore in the jungle.

LOOK INTO
[B2] [ɪ] to find out more about something, often something that you might do in the future

Dictionary example:
We're exploring the possibility of buying a holiday home.

Learner example:
It is a great camera and I still have not explored all its possibilities it holds.
explosion /ɪkˈspləʊ.ʒən/

Word family:
Nouns: explosion, explosive
Verbs: explode
Adjectives: explosive

NOUN [C]

BOMB
[B2] when something such as a bomb explodes

Dictionary examples:
Forty people were killed in the explosion.
The fire was thought to have been caused by a gas explosion.

Learner example:
I was doing my homework when I heard an explosion.

INCREASE
[C1] when something increases suddenly by a large amount

Dictionary example:
the recent population explosion

Learner example:
The factors leading to this population explosion in cities of the world might vary from country to country and city to city, but there is one common denominator – the quest for a better life.

explosive /ɪkˈspləʊ.sɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: explosion, explosive
Verbs: explode
Adjectives: explosive

ADJECTIVE

EQUIPMENT
[C2] An explosive substance or piece of equipment can cause explosions.

Dictionary examples:
The explosive device was hidden in a suitcase.
an explosive mixture of oil vapour and oxygen

Learner example:
The small piece of an explosive material caused chaos in the streets of London.
SITUATION

[C2] An explosive situation or subject causes strong feelings, and may make people angry or violent.

Dictionary example:
a highly explosive political issue

Learner example:
Moreover, there are some explosive issues that give them food for thought, such as the environmental pollution, and the poverty.

NOUN [C]

[C2] a substance or piece of equipment that can cause explosions

Dictionary example:
He was caught smuggling explosives into the building.

Learner example:
It was in this background of events that Riyaz Mohammed drove a van loaded with a thousand kilos of explosives into the US embassy compound in Nairobi, Kenya, causing the deaths of hundreds of Kenyans and dozens of American citizens.

export

VERB [I or T] /ɪkˈspɔːt/

[B2] to send goods to another country for sale

Dictionary examples:
French cheeses are exported to many different countries.
Our clothes sell so well in this country that we have no need to export.

Learner example:
And of course, while Italy is exporting pizza, spaghetti and food like that, Italian people are able to try different food from foreign countries, like hamburger[s], Chinese food, or pudding.

NOUN [C or U] /ˈek.spɔːt/

[B2] a product that you sell in another country or the business of selling products in another country

Dictionary examples:
Coffee is one of Brazil’s main exports.
The export of ivory is now strictly controlled.
India grows tea for export.
We are planning to develop our export market.

Learner example:
At present I work for a Multinational company as export officer.
expose /ɪkˈspəʊz/

Word family:
Nouns: exposure
Verbs: expose

VERB [T]

MAKE PUBLIC

[B2] to make public something bad or dishonest

Dictionary examples:
The review exposed widespread corruption in the police force.
The newspaper story exposed him as a liar.

Learner example:
If I do not receive full satisfaction, I will expose your operation by writing to the newspaper.

be exposed to sth

[B2] to experience something or be affected by something because you are in a particular situation or place

Dictionary example:
It was the first time I'd been exposed to violence.

Learner example:
Also, with television, we might be exposed to violence in some films and advertisements, which does not happen [if] we read a book.

exposure /ɪkˈspəʊ.ʒər/

Word family:
Nouns: exposure
Verbs: expose

NOUN

[C1] [u] when someone experiences something or is affected by it because they are in a particular situation or place

Dictionary examples:
There is a risk of exposure to radiation.
Many young children now have exposure to computers in the home.

Learner example:
Due to exposure to low temperatures throughout the tour I developed pneumonia and had to be admitted to hospital on arrival [in] London.
express /ɪkˈspres/

Word family:
Nouns: expression
Verbs: express
Adjectives: expressive

VERB [T]
[B2] to show what you think or how you feel using words or actions

Dictionary examples:
I'm simply expressing my opinion.
I would like to express my thanks for your kindness.
I'm sorry, I'm not expressing myself very clearly.
Words can't express how happy I am.

Learner example:
Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to express my dissatisfaction about the show you presented two weeks ago at your theatre.

expression /ɪkˈspres.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: expression
Verbs: express
Adjectives: expressive

NOUN

PHRASE
[B2] [c] a word or phrase

Dictionary examples:
He uses a lot of informal expressions.
'A can of worms' is an expression which means 'a difficult situation'.

Learner example:
With th[ese] kind[s] of videos, they could learn words and expressions used every day by normal people talking to normal people.

LOOK
[B2] [c] the look on someone's face, showing what they feel or think

Dictionary examples:
facial expressions
He had such a sad expression on his face.
I could tell from her expression that something serious had happened.
Learner example:
He had a funny expression on his face.

SHOWING THOUGHTS
[B2] [c or u] when you show what you think or how you feel using words or actions

Dictionary examples:
He wrote her a poem as an expression of his love.
We've received a lot of expressions of support for our campaign.
Freedom of expression is a basic human right.
It's better to give expression to your anger, rather than hiding it.

Learner example:
It always thrilled me, the energy and expression this dance had.

---

expressive /ɪkˈspres.ɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: expression
Verbs: express
Adjectives: expressive

ADJECTIVE
[C2] showing your feelings

Dictionary examples:
expressive language
a very expressive face

Learner example:
Ann was a beautiful girl with wonderful hair and expressive brown eyes.

---

exquisite /ɪkˈskwɪz.ɪt/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] very beautiful or perfect

Dictionary example:
a garden of exquisite flowers

Learner example:
On the forefinger of my left hand they can see the most exquisite diamond ring that they ever did see.
extend /ɪkˈstend/

Word family:
Nouns: extension, extent
Verbs: extend Adjectives: extensive

VERB

MAKE BIGGER
[B2] [t] to make something bigger or longer

Dictionary examples:
We have plans to extend our house.
They've extended their range of products.

Learner example:
The existing lighting loop would be extended and [the] capacity of the illumination would be increased.

MAKE LAST
[B2] [t] to make an activity, agreement, etc. last for a longer time

Dictionary examples:
They have extended the deadline by one week.
A lot of shops have extended their opening hours.
I need to extend my visa.

Learner example:
If we decide to extend our stay for two more days, does the offer still stand?

extend from/into/over, etc.
[C2] to continue or stretch over a particular area of land or period of time

Dictionary examples:
a mountain range that extends down the Italian peninsula
Will the building work extend into next week?

extension /ɪkˈsten.tʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: extension, extent
Verbs: extend
Adjectives: extensive

NOUN [C]

EXTRA TIME
[B2] extra time that you are given to do or use something
Dictionary example:
I've applied for an extension to my visa.

TELEPHONE

[B2] a telephone that is connected to the main telephone in an office or other large building

Dictionary example:
Call me on extension 3104.

Learner example:
For further information call 990–643 extension 93.

DEVELOPMENT

[B2] something that has developed as a result of something else

Dictionary example:
The book is an extension of ideas he set out in an earlier article.

Learner example:
So we might say the computer is the extension of our brain.

extensive /ɪkˈsten.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: extension, extent
Verbs: extend Adjectives: extensive

ADJECTIVE

[B2] large in amount or size

Dictionary examples:
Fire had caused extensive damage to the building.
This is probably the most extensive modern art collection in Europe.
The school has extensive grounds.
The motorway was in need of extensive repairs.
Both events received extensive coverage in the newspapers.

Learner example:
You see, this medi[e]val city has [an] extensive collection of antique[s].

extent /ɪkˈstent/
NOUN [NO PLURAL]

SIZE

[B2] the size or importance of something

Dictionary examples:
They are just beginning to realize the full extent of the damage.
Her face was injured to such an extent that we didn’t recognize her.
Rosie’s teacher was impressed by the extent of her knowledge.
The River Nile is over 6500 kilometres in extent.

Learner example:
[For the] past couple of decades, TV has been diffused in Japan to such an extent that nowadays, one household is likely to have more than 2 TV sets that [show] a wide range of programmes nearly 24 hours [a day].

to a great/large, etc. extent

[B2] mainly

Dictionary example:
Their anger was to a large extent justified.

Learner example:
As we all know, TV, video and cinema have replaced books to an enormous extent.

to some extent/to a certain extent

[B2] in some ways

Dictionary examples:
To some extent, she was responsible for the accident.
I agree with you to a certain extent.

Learner example:
To a certain extent, this point of view seems to be very respectable.

the extent to which [C2] the degree to which something happens or is likely to happen

Dictionary example:
The research should show the extent to which these changes are being implemented.

Learner example:
Several factors determine the extent to which a person’s character may influence our own opinions and even our way of life, such as the time spent with that particular person, or the importance that figure has in our li[v]es.
exterior /ɪkˈstra.riə/

NOUN [c]
[C1] the outside part of something or someone

Dictionary example:
The exterior of the house was painted white.

Learner example:
Thus, it is best for the management to improve the look of this building as other buildings in this area have a better looking exterior than ours.

---

external /ɪkˈstɜː.nəl/

ADJECTIVE
OUTSIDE
[B2] relating to the outside part of something

Dictionary examples:
the external walls of the house
This cream is for external use only.

Learner example:
If you see all this external decoration, you will probably fall in love [with] this art.

FROM A DIFFERENT PLACE
[B2] coming from or relating to another country, group, organization, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Most news magazines have a section devoted to external affairs.
All exams are marked by an external examiner.

---

extinct /ɪkˈstɪŋkt/

Word family:
Nouns: extinction
Adjectives: extinct

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If a type of animal is extinct, it does not now exist.

Dictionary example:
These creatures could soon be extinct.
Learner example:
We are destroying the Earth by polluting it and we do not realise [this], and the thing is, we will not do so until we have made some species become extinct and we have damaged it all.

extinction /ɪkˈstɪŋk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: extinction
Adjectives: extinct

NOUN [U]
[C1] when a type of animal no longer exists

Dictionary example:
Many species of animal are threatened with extinction.

Learner example:
I wholeheartedly suggest that it should be returned to nature and to the turtles, as they face extinction after the loss of their natural home.

extra /ˈek.strə/

ADVERB
[B1] more

Dictionary example:
They pay her extra to work nights.

Learner example:
Will there be any special events that cost extra?

NOUN [C]

ANOTHER THING
[B1] something that you can get with something else if you pay a little more money

Dictionary example:
A sunroof is an optional extra on this model of the car.

Learner example:
The DVD contains many extras.

ACTOR
[C1] an actor in a film who does not have a main part and usually plays someone in a crowd

Dictionary example:
He was an extra in the crowd scene.
Learner example:
A theatre troop at the beginning of a new project is more often than not a flabbergasting rabble of actors, technicians, extras, back-stage workers and so forth.

---

extract

VERB

[B2] to remove or take out something

Dictionary examples:
The oil which is extracted from olives is used mainly for cooking.
The tooth was eventually extracted.

Learner example:
I'm really sorry, but I can't come on the day before because I need to have my teeth extracted.

NOUN

[B2] a short part of a book, poem, etc.

Dictionary example:
They published an extract from his autobiography.

Learner example:
The number of copied and read articles or book extracts has increased steadily.

---

extraordinarily

Word family:
Adjectives: extraordinary
Adverbs: extraordinarily

ADVERB

[B2] very

Dictionary example:
She is, it must be said, extraordinarily beautiful.

Learner example:
Besides, the trip will be extraordinarily helpful for my course at school.

---

extraordinary

Word family:
Adjectives: extraordinary
Adverbs: extraordinarily
ADJECTIVE

[B1] very special, unusual or strange

Dictionary examples:
He told the extraordinary story of his escape.
She was an extraordinary young woman.

Learner example:
On the next day there was an extraordinary thunderstorm!

---

extravagant /ɪkˈstræv.ə.gənt/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] costing too much, or spending a lot more money than you need to

Dictionary example:
the extravagant lifestyle of a movie star

Learner example:
In some extreme cases, young people are known to have extravagant lifestyles and wasteful spending habits.

---

extreme /ɪkˈstriːm/

Word family:
Nouns: extremist
Adjectives: extreme
Adverbs: extremely

---

ADJECTIVE

[B2] very large in amount or degree

Dictionary example:
extreme pain/danger/wealth

Learner example:
This time I promise that I will take extreme caution [with] your things.

---

SERIOUS

[B2] the most unusual or the most serious possible

Dictionary examples:
extreme weather conditions
In extreme cases, the disease can lead to blindness.
Learner example:
It seems to be an extreme case but it is a fact that modern children have no more contact with animal life.

OPINIONS
[C2] having such strong opinions or beliefs that most people cannot agree with you

Dictionary examples: extreme views
the extreme right/left

Learner example:
Consequently, I can now express my disagreement [with] both articles, mostly because of the extreme opinions they [cont]ain.

extremely /ɪkˈstriːm.li/

Word family:
Nouns: extremist
Adjectives: extreme
Adverbs: extremely

ADVERB
[B1] very, or much more than usual

Dictionary examples:
They played extremely well.
She's extremely beautiful/intelligent.

Learner example:
The film was extremely funny.

extreme sports /ɪkˈstriːmˈspɔːts/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a sport or activity that is exciting and dangerous

Dictionary example:
I love most extreme sports, such as bungee jumping and white-water rafting.

Learner example:
You can go camping, climb mountains or learn a lot of extreme sports.
extremist  /ɪkˈstriː.mɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: extremist
Adjectives: extreme
Adverbs: extremely

NOUN  [C]

[C2] someone who has such strong opinions or beliefs that most people cannot agree with them

Dictionary example:
political/religious extremists

Learner example:
Be[ar]ing in mind all these strict rules my children have to follow they seem to be bound to become anarchic extremists.

extrovert  /ˈek.strə.vɜːt/

NOUN  [C]

[C1] someone who is very confident and likes being with other people

Dictionary example:
She is an extrovert.

Learner example:
She is an extrovert, a sociable person, who loves talking to people and is always ready to sacrif[i]ce her free time to make them happy.

eye  /aɪ/

NOUN  [C]

not believe your eyes
[B1] to be very surprised when you see someone or something

Dictionary example:
I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw what he was wearing.

Learner example:
Well, this church was extremely simple [o]n the outside, but when I got inside it, I couldn't believe my eyes.

in sb’s eyes
[B2] in someone's opinion
Dictionary example:
In my parents’ eyes, I’ll always be a child.

Learner example:
To answer your question right away, the boat trip is highly recommendable in my eyes!

keep your/an eye on sb/sth
[B2] to watch or look after someone or something

Dictionary example:
Could you keep an eye on this pan of soup for a moment?

Learner example:
You have to supply [e]verything they need and keep an eye on them all the time.

can't keep/take your eyes off sb/sth
[B2] to be unable to stop looking at someone or something because they are so attractive or interesting

Dictionary example:
He couldn't take his eyes off her all night.

Learner example:
Her daughter, Lourdes Maria, is such a pretty little girl that I couldn't take my eyes off her.

have an eye for sth
[B2] to be good at noticing a particular type of thing

Dictionary example:
Your son has a very good eye for detail.

Learner example:
She’s got an eye for details but a mind like anybody else’s.

look sb in the eye/eyes
[B2] to look at someone in a direct way, without showing fear or shame

Dictionary example:
Look me in the eye and say that you didn’t steal it.

Learner example:
One day she looked me in the eyes with a sharp deep look – never have I seen such a deep look – and asked me what was happening and I told her.

keep an eye out for sb/sth
[C1] to watch carefully for someone or something to appear

Dictionary example:
Keep an eye out for the delivery van.

Learner example:
Although individually we try to deliver the best care possible for our individual patients, we do keep an ear or an eye out for the other members of the team that day.
turn a blind eye (to sth)
[C1] to choose to ignore something that you know is wrong or illegal

Dictionary example:
Restaurant staff often took food home, and their boss turned a blind eye.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, we can't turn a blind eye to this reality.

be in the public eye
[C1] to be famous and often featured in the media

Dictionary example:
Her new role means that she will be in the public eye.

Learner example:
But being famous also means that you are always in the public eye, which is a major drawback.

catch sb's eye
[C2] to get someone's attention by looking at them

Dictionary example:
I tried to catch her eye, but she had already turned away.

Learner example:
All of a sudden she caught my eye and smiled in a sad way.

catch sb's eye
[C2] to be attractive or different enough to be noticed by people

Dictionary example:
It was the colour of his jacket that caught my eye.

Learner example:
Dear Sir, I am writing regarding your newly published article about nutrition, which immediately caught my eye as I was reading your magazine.

see eye to eye (with sb) [C2] If two people see eye to eye, they agree with each other.

Dictionary example:
Our teachers don't always see eye to eye with the headmaster.

Learner example:
Although I agree with some of the statements given by the young people, I do not see eye to eye with all of their viewpoints.

keep your eyes peeled (for sb/sth)
[C2] to watch carefully for someone or something

Dictionary example:
Keep your eyes peeled, he should be here any minute.
Learner example:
Ever since, I try to keep my eyes peeled for anything similar.

cry your eyes out
[C2] If someone cries their eyes out, they cry a lot about a problem or situation.

Dictionary example:
She cried her eyes out when he left her for another girl.

Learner example:
It wasn’t an easy decision to make. Melanie spent many nights crying her eyes out in bed and trying to convince herself that she wasn’t doing the right thing.

in the blink of an eye
[C2] extremely quickly

Dictionary example:
In the blink of an eye, he was gone.

Learner example:
And for all those who keep nagging about losing their favourite regular programmes during such an event, be patient: TV routine will be back into your living rooms in the blink of an eye.

eye contact
[C2] when people look at each other, for instance when they are talking to each other

Dictionary example:
There was very little eye contact between them.

Learner example:
I tried to avoid having eye contact with people just because of this humility.

keep your eyes open (for sb/sth)
[C2] to watch carefully for someone or something

Dictionary example:
Keep your eyes open for anything unusual.

Learner example:
It has helped us identify and successfully combat many a nutritional hazard, keeping our eyes open to immoderate consumption of some substances and its effects.

the naked eye
[C2] If something can be seen by the naked eye, it is big enough to be seen without special equipment.

Dictionary example:
These bugs are so tiny you cannot see them with the naked eye.

in your mind’s eye
[C2] in your imagination or memory
Dictionary example:
In my mind’s eye, she remains a little girl of six although she's actually a grown woman.

Learner example:
He sees her in his mind’s eye, running around barefoot, laughing and squealing, wading in the water and running back out, screaming, trying to get away from the breaking waves.

roll your eyes
[C2] DISAPPROVING to move your eyes so that they are looking up, usually to show surprise or disapproval

Dictionary example:
When I asked her when she thought the building work would be finished, she just rolled her eyes.

Learner example:
This attitude is obvious when, for instance, shop assistan[ts] show no patience for the slower reaction of elder[ly] [people]; when nobody offers a seat to an older person in [an] overcrowded tube; when we roll our eyes about older people’s desire for quiet, etc.

eyebrow /ˈaɪ.braʊ/

NOUN [c]
[B2] the thin line of hair that is above each eye

Dictionary example:
He's got really bushy eyebrows.

Learner example:
He woke up and cleaned off the blood from his injured eyebrow.

eyelash /ˈaɪ.læʃ/

NOUN [C USUALLY PLURAL]
[B2] one of the short hairs which grow from the edge of your eyelids

Dictionary example:
false/long eyelashes

eyelid /ˈaɪ.lɪd/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the piece of skin that covers your eyes when you close them
Dictionary example:
His eyelids drooped with tiredness.

eyesight ˈɛɪ.sɜɪt/

NOUN [u]

[B2] the ability to see

Dictionary example:
My eyesight is getting worse.

Learner example:
I had some trouble with my eyesight, so he advised me to wear glasses and not to strain my eyes.
fabric /ˈfæb.rɪk/

NOUN

[C1] [c or u] cloth

Dictionary example:
a light/woollen fabric

Learner example:
Do small pieces of coloured fabric really have the might to change how people live their lives? (1533768; Certificate in Advanced English; Germany; C1 EFFECTIVE OPERATIONAL PROFICIENCY; 2004; German; Pass)Lifestyle-changing fashion Do small pieces of coloured fabric really have the might to change how people live their lives?

the fabric of sth

[C2] the basic way in which a society or other social group is organized

Dictionary example:
The family is part of the fabric of society.

Learner example:
You cannot infringe individual liberties and ban the purchase of cars – it would go against the very fabric of modern society.

fabulous /ˈfæb.ʒə.ləs/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] extremely good

Dictionary examples:
They've got a fabulous house.
We had an absolutely fabulous holiday.

Learner example:
Everybody admitted that the entertainment was absolutely fabulous.
make a face
[B1] to show with your face that you do not like someone or something

Dictionary example:
Joe made a face when he saw what was for lunch.

Learner example:
Making a face, I slapped my forehead.

at face value
[C1] If you accept something at face value because of the way it first looks or seems, you do so without thinking carefully about it.

Dictionary examples:
You can’t just accept everything you read in the newspapers at face value.
These results should not be taken at face value – careful analysis is required to assess their full implications.

Learner example:
People are assessed at face value [by] the type of cars they drive.

lose face
[C2] to become less respected by others because of something you did

Dictionary example:
The party has lost face with the public by abandoning their original policy on education.

Learner example:
However, many popular people like Pierce Brosnan managed to keep their lives out of the press and yet be present to meet public demand without losing face.

keep a straight face
[C2] to manage to stop yourself from smiling or laughing

Dictionary example:
I can never play jokes on people because I can’t keep a straight face.

on the face of it
[C2] used when you are describing how a situation seems on the surface

Dictionary example:
On the face of it, it seems like a bargain, but I bet there are hidden costs.
Learner example:
On the face of it, both sides have valid arguments, and it’s a difficult balancing act to manage.

in the face of sth
[C2] while having to deal with a difficult situation or problem

Dictionary example:
She refused to leave him, in the face of increasing pressure from friends and family.

Learner example:
No doubt, it was rather difficult to like Enid X. She was hardly likely to arouse sympathy in anybody even in the face of death.

fly in the face of Slightly Formal
[C2] to be the opposite of what is usual or accepted

Dictionary example:
These recommendations fly in the face of previous advice on safe limits of consumption.

Learner example:
But when we have a look outside our wonderful world, we can easily see that this argument flies in the face of the facts.

a slap in the face
[C2] something someone does that insults or upsets you

Dictionary example:
After all that hard work, losing my job was a real slap in the face.

Learner example:
My father noticed that and decided it was high time to take me down a peg or two. He used to work as a volunteer in hospital for children dying for cancer. One day, he took me there. It was like a slap in the face – suddenly I saw a different world. It was a bleak world, without smiles and happy faces.

VERB

DIRECTION
[B1] [I or T] to be or turn in a particular direction

Dictionary examples:
Our house faces north/south/east/west.
She turned to face him.
The café faces (towards) the sea.

Learner example:
There is a desk [to] the right of the room which faces my bed.

PROBLEM
[B2] [T] If you face a problem, or a problem faces you, you have to deal with it.
Dictionary examples:
This is one of the many problems faced by working mothers.
Passengers could face long delays.
You’re faced with a very difficult choice there.

Learner example:
Grandparents are experienced people and they can help their child[ren] to avoid a lot of problems which they have faced.

can’t face sb/sth/doing sth
[B2] to not want to do something or deal with someone, often because it is difficult or unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
I can’t face walking up all those steps again.
I knew someone had to tell her but I couldn’t face it.
How can I face him now that he knows what I’ve done?

Learner example:
Everybody at [the] swimming pool was laughing about me. I couldn’t face my family.

ACCEPT
[B2] [ɪ] to accept that something unpleasant is true and start to deal with the situation

Dictionary examples:
I think Phil has to face the fact that she no longer loves him.
We have to face facts here – we simply don’t have enough money.
He’s dying but he refuses to face the truth.

Learner example:
But Mary has a strong personality, she faces the facts.

face the music
[C1] to accept punishment or criticism for something bad that you have done

Dictionary example:
At the end of the day I had to go home and face the music.

Learner example:
Teenagers who live with their parents have to face the music about the long bills their parents receive monthly!

let’s face it
[C2] something that you say before you say something that is unpleasant but true

Dictionary example:
Let’s face it, none of us are getting any younger.

Learner example:
Let’s face it, a life with [no] physical and mental exercise is something none of us relishes.
face to face /ˌfeɪs.təˈfeɪs/

ADVERB

[B1] directly, meeting someone in the same place

Dictionary example:
We need to talk face to face.

Learner example:
I need to talk to her face to face.

face-to-face /ˌfeɪs.təˈfeɪs/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] involving two people who are meeting in the same place

Dictionary example:
a face-to-face meeting

facial /ˈfeɪ.ʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: face
Verbs: face
Adjectives: facial

ADJECTIVE

[C2] of or on the face

Dictionary example:
facial expressions/hair

Learner example:
I can still recall the doctor’s facial expression when he announced the exciting news [to me].

facilitate /feˈsɪl.ɪ.teɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: facilities, facility
Verbs: facilitate

VERB [T] FORMAL

[C1] to make something possible or easier
Dictionary example:
I will do everything in my power to facilitate the process.

Learner example:
I found that the presentations and talks about CVs and letters of application were really useful, but we should have been divided into smaller groups to facilitate conversation.

---

facilities /ˈfæsɪl.ɪ.tiz/

Word family:
Nouns: facilities, facility
Verbs: facilitate

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B1] the buildings, equipment and services provided for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
- childcare facilities
- sports facilities

Learner example:
The city has more facilities than the countryside.

---

facility /ˈfæsɪ.l.a.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: facilities, facility
Verbs: facilitate

NOUN [C]
[B2] a part of a system or machine which makes it possible to do something

Dictionary example:
an overdraft facility

Learner example:
I would suggest free Internet access as an extra facility in our library.

---

fact /fækt/

NOUN

in fact
[B1] used to emphasize what is really true, or to give more information
Dictionary examples:
We met Rebecca for lunch. In fact, we spent the whole afternoon with her.
I was told there were some tickets left but in fact they were sold out.

Learner example:
The club has its own small clubhouse, with many things in it. For example, there was a big pinball-game and some computers. In fact it was the best clubhouse I've ever seen.

despite the fact that [B2] used to refer to a situation which is surprising in relation to something that is true or happens

Dictionary example:
The company has been forced to reduce its price, despite the fact that the offer has been very popular.

Learner example:
The advantages of the kind of life that people had years ago is that they could eat more fruit and vegetables than us. However, there are advantages for us too, because despite the fact that we eat more fast food, we do more exercise than they did.

REAL THINGS
[B2] [u] real events and experiences, not things that are imagined

Dictionary example:
It's sometimes hard to separate fact from fiction.

in actual fact
[B2] used to emphasize what is really true, or to give more information

Dictionary example:
I thought she was Portuguese, but in actual fact she's Brazilian.

Learner example:
Nowadays almost all people own a car and in actual fact more and more people have been facing death as a consequence of careless driving.

as a matter of fact
[B2] used to give more information, or to correct something that has been said

Dictionary examples:
John plays golf professionally. As a matter of fact, he has just won a big competition.
"So you're from Cambridge?" "No, as a matter of fact, I'm from Bristol."

Learner example:
I think it would be better to choose somewhere outdoors. As a matter of fact, I prefer the open air and the sunlight!

the fact (of the matter) is [B2] used to tell someone that something is the truth
Dictionary example:
I wouldn't usually ask for your help, but the fact is I'm desperate.

Learner example:
You may find [it] unusual for a woman to play football, but the fact is I'm Brazilian and in Brazil [it] is really common.

---

factor /ˈfæk.tər/

NOUN [C]

[B2] one of the things that has an effect on a situation, decision, event, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Money was an important factor in their decision to move.
Price is an important/key/major factor in the success of any product.
economic factors

Learner example:
[Modern technology] is another important factor which affects our life.

deciding factor

[C2] the thing that helps to make the final decision

Dictionary example:
Cost was the deciding factor in choosing these builders.

Learner example:
Personally, I think the quality of teachers, school reputation and facilities should be the deciding factor for parents [for] which schools their children should be educated in.

---

faculty /ˈfæk.əl.ti/

NOUN

the English/law/science, etc. faculty

[C1] a particular department at a college or university, or the teachers in that department

Dictionary example:
He works in the law faculty.

Learner example:
I graduated from Warsaw University, where I studied [in] the faculties of applied linguistics and journalism.
fade  /feɪd/

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to become less bright, strong or clear, or to make something become less bright, strong or clear

Dictionary examples:
If you hang your clothes out in the bright sun, they will fade.
My suntan is already fading.
They arrived home just as the light was fading.
The music began to fade.
The sun had faded the blue walls.

Learner example:
Since the cottage is quite isolated, the electric power supply is not always the best. Anyway, the first night, the lights started to fade.

fail  /feɪl/

Word family:
- Nouns: failure
- Verbs: fail

VERB

fail to do sth

[B2] to not do what is necessary or expected

Dictionary examples:
He failed to turn up for football practice yesterday.
He failed to mention that we wouldn’t be paid for the work.

Learner example:
Your advertisement also failed to mention the fact that there were no discounts.

NOT SUCCEED

[B2] [I] to not be successful

Dictionary examples:
She moved to London in the hope of finding work as a model, but failed.
He failed in his attempt to break the record.
This method of growing tomatoes never fails.

Learner example:
I tried to make him give up, but all my attempts failed.

STOP WORKING

[B2] [I] to stop working normally, or to become weaker
Dictionary example:
Two of the plane's engines had failed.

Learner example:
The sound system failed.

I fail to see/understand
[C2] used to say that you do not accept something

Dictionary example:
I fail to see why you cannot work on a Sunday.

Learner example:
I fail to understand why they still refuse to use this media; it could possibly be the main solution to the present problems [in] the library.

---

failure /ˈfeɪ.ljər/

Word family:
Nouns: failure
Verbs: fail

NOUN

NO SUCCESS
[B2] [c or u] when someone or something does not succeed

Dictionary examples:
Their attempt to climb Everest ended in failure.
I'm a bit of a failure at making cakes.
I feel such a failure.

Learner example:
David told her that the reason [for] his failure was her, because she used to press him and she couldn't accept that he wanted to be an actor.

failure to do sth
[B2] when you do not do something that you are expected to do

Dictionary examples:
Failure to pay within 14 days will result in interest being charged.
It was his failure to return her phone call that told her that something was wrong.

STOP WORKING
[B2] [c or u] when something does not work, or stops working as well as it should

Dictionary examples:
All trains were delayed due to a power failure.
He died of heart/liver failure.
Learner example:
[There] has been a power failure but it will be solved in [a] few minutes.

faint /feɪnt/

ADJECTIVE

SLIGHT
[B2] slight and not easy to notice, smell, hear, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a faint sound/noise/smell
She gave me a faint smile.

Learner example:
I heard a faint sound.

feel faint
[C2] to feel very weak and as if you might fall down

Dictionary example:
Seeing all the blood made me feel faint.

Learner example:
Starting to feel faint, Fred quickly roused himself and ran out of the hotel as quickly as he could.

not have the faintest idea
[C2] used to emphasize that you do not know something

Dictionary example:
I haven't the faintest idea what you're talking about.

Learner example:
Some twenty years ago, when I left my parents' home to go and live on my own, I was [given] four mugs. By whom? I haven't the faintest idea.

VERB [I]
[B2] to suddenly become unconscious for a short time, usually falling down

Dictionary examples:
He faints at the sight of blood.
I nearly fainted in the heat.

Learner example:
The young girl was about to faint.
fair /feə/

Word family:

Nouns: fairness
Adjectives: fair, unfair
Adverbs: fairly, unfairly

ADJECTIVE

EQUAL
[B1] treating everyone in the same way, so that no one has an advantage

Dictionary examples:
That's not fair! You always go first!
It's not fair to make me do all the work.
a fair trial
I can't spend all my time with one child – it wouldn't be fair on the others.

Learner example:
Even though she thought her m[u]m wasn't being fair, she decided to go and try to have a nice day with her family.

REASONABLE
[B1] acceptable, reasonable or right

Dictionary examples:
a fair deal
He offered a fair price for the car.
That's a fair comment/question.

Learner example:
You may ask yourself: "What do you do in a club?" Well, it's a fair question!!!

fair enough INFORMAL
[B2] used for saying that you can understand and accept someone's opinion or decision

Dictionary example:
"He says he'll only work on Sunday if he gets paid extra." "Fair enough."

Learner example:
Most of the streets are open [to] cars and therefore people tend to escape to a little area around the pedestrian streets. Fair enough, but it make[s] those streets terribly overcrowded.

AVERAGE
[C1] not very good but not very bad

Dictionary example:
Her German is very good, but her knowledge of French is only fair.
Learner example:
As for grammar, listening and writing skills, they were only fair.

a fair amount/distance/size, etc.
[C2] quite a large amount, distance, size, etc.

Dictionary example:
There's still a fair bit of work to be done on the house.

Learner example:
Of course it is important to find a job we enjoy and which leaves us a fair amount of free time, but it is equally important to find a job that pays the bills, especially nowadays.

fair play
[C2] behaviour that is fair, honest, and does not take advantage of people

Dictionary example:
The public needs to feel a sense of fair play from the government.

Learner example:
He still believes in justice or just the rule of fair play.

NOUN [C]

EVENT
[B1] an event outside where you can ride large machines for pleasure and play games to win prizes

Dictionary example:
The children spent all their money on rides at the fair.

Learner example:
For example in the morning we can go to a fair, like Six Flags. I think that it will be exciting.

SHOW OF GOODS/SERVICES
[C1] an event where people show and sell goods or services relating to a particular business or hobby

Dictionary example:
a trade fair

Learner example:
Starting on 18th May 2003, the Birmingham NEC hosted the annual British trade fair.

fairly /ˈfeə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: fairness
Adjectives: fair, unfair
Adverbs: fairly, unfairly
ADVERB

QUITE
[B1] more than average, but less than very

Dictionary examples:
a fairly big family
She’s fairly tall.
We get on fairly well.
I saw her fairly recently.

Learner example:
The weather was fairly warm.

IN THE RIGHT WAY
[B2] If you do something fairly, you do it in a way which is right and reasonable and treats people equally.

Dictionary examples:
He claimed that he hadn’t been treated fairly by his employers.
Officials will ensure that the election is carried out fairly.

fairness ˈfeə.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: fairness
Adjectives: fair, unfair
Adverbs: fairly, unfairly

NOUN [u]
[C1] when you treat everyone in the same way, so that no one has an advantage

Dictionary example:
He believes in fairness and decency.

Learner example:
I think you have not treated us with fairness and truthfulness and therefor[e] I do think that an apology in the newspaper would be in order.

faith ˈfeθ/

Word family:
Nouns: faith
Adjectives: faithful
Adverbs: faithfully
NOUN

TRUST
[B2] [u] great trust or confidence in something or someone

Dictionary examples:
She has no faith in modern medicine.
You’ll be fine – I have great faith in you.
After the trial, his family said they had lost all faith in the legal system.

Learner example:
We must do our best to help [these children] to have faith in their future.

STRONG BELIEF
[B2] [u] strong belief in a god or gods

Dictionary examples:
Even in the bad times she never lost her faith.
Her faith in God was shattered when her baby died.
It’s my faith that keeps me going.

Learner example:
Your story about Christianity was very interesting and I was shocked at your deep faith in God.

RELIGION
[B2] [c] a particular religion

Dictionary examples:
the Muslim/Christian/Jewish faith a multi-faith society

Learner example:
Everybody was praying, asking for help according to their faith or religion.

faithful  /ˌfeɪθ.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: faith
Adjectives: faithful
Adverbs: faithfully

ADJECTIVE

LOYAL
[B2] loyal

Dictionary examples:
a faithful friend
They are faithful supporters of the Labour Party.
His faithful old dog accompanied him everywhere he went.
Learner example:
An ideal pet should be a faithful friend [to] people, especially [to] its owner.

RELATIONSHIP
[C2] If your husband, wife, or partner is faithful, they do not have a sexual relationship with anyone else.

Dictionary examples:
a faithful husband
They remained faithful to each other throughout their long marriage.

Learner example:
Making a commitment to be faithful to another, and to love a person for the rest of your life is no small thing.

NOT CHANGED
[C2] not changing any of the original details, facts, style, etc.

Dictionary example:
Does the film adaptation stay faithful to the novel?

Learner example:
Working with deconstruction in music, he remained faithful to his main motto: Be yourself, express yourself, never repeat or imitate.

faithfully /ˈfeɪθ.fəli/
Word family:
Nouns: faith
Adjectives: faithful
Adverbs: faithfully

ADVERB

Yours faithfully
[B2] used to end a formal letter to someone whose name you do not know

Dictionary example:
Yours faithfully, Katherine Smith

Learner example:
Yours faithfully, SAMSON LAM (READER)

fake /feɪk/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] not real, but made to look or seem real Dictionary examples: fake fur
a fake passport

Learner example:
On the walls there are paintings which are very artistic – one of them is a fake Picasso.

NOUN [C]

COPY
[C2] a copy of something that is intended to look real or valuable and deceive people

Dictionary example:
Experts say that the painting is a fake.

Learner example:
Many of the pictures taken are fakes.

PERSON
[C2] someone who pretends to have particular skills or qualities so that they can deceive people or get their admiration

Dictionary example:
He said he was a doctor, but we soon realized he was a fake.

Learner example:
So, after all he was a fake!

VERB [T]

COPY
[C2] to copy something in order to deceive people

Dictionary example:
The documents had been faked.

Learner example:
People liked it so much that another author, using the [pseudonym] of "Arellaneda", faked Cervante's novel by writing a second part.

PRETEND
[C2] to pretend that something has happened when it has not or to pretend to have a feeling that you do not have

Dictionary examples:
They faked illness to avoid having to work.
He said he was feeling sick, but he was just faking it.

Learner example:
This situation lasted about two years until Caroline had a great idea: they would fake their death and run away to live a quiet life on a secret island they would have bought under an alias.
fall /fɔːl/

VERB [] (fell, fallen)

BECOME LOWER

[B1] to become lower in size, amount or strength

Dictionary examples:
Demand for new cars has fallen recently.
The standard of his work has fallen during the year.
The temperature could fall below zero overnight.
Average temperatures fell by ten degrees.
The pound has fallen to its lowest-ever level against the dollar.
Share prices fell sharply this week.

Learner example:
It fell steadily until 1960, and remained at 3% until 1987.

fall asleep/ill

[B1] to start to sleep or become ill

Dictionary example:
I fell asleep on the sofa watching TV.

Learner example:
I planned to go with my cousin but unfortunately she fell ill, so I had to go with my friend.

fall in love

[B1] to start to love someone

Dictionary example:
I was 20 when I first fell in love.

Learner example:
I fell in love with David.

fall flat

[C1] If an event or joke falls flat, it fails to have the effect that you wanted, such as making people laugh.

Dictionary example:
All the jokes in his speech fell flat.

Learner example:
The cultural visits fell flat [in comparison] to their expectations, although the sightseeing tour of Willstown was, as the students said, "fascinating".

darkness/night falls LITERARY [C2] used to say that it is becoming dark

Dictionary example:
When darkness fell, I began to feel worried.

Learner example:
He greeted the worms and the slugs, and as darkness fell he retired to the shelter he had built for the night.

BE DEAD

Dictionary example:
In 1453 the city fell to the Turks.

Learner example:
This impressive, massive 18th-century building which accommodated the Town Hall until recently (5 years ago) has now fallen into disuse.

HANG DOWN

Dictionary example:
Her long blonde hair fell softly over her shoulders.

Learner example:
She had gorgeous black hair falling down her back, a creamy complexion and a figure models dream of.

fall on deaf ears

Dictionary example:
Our pleas for help fell on deaf ears.

Learner example:
His cry for help and for a more meaningful relationship between himself and Mildred invariably fell on deaf ears.

fall into place

Dictionary example:
When Jo told me she had a twin sister, everything fell into place.
fall prey to sth
[C2] to be hurt or deceived by something or someone bad

Dictionary example:
He fell prey to a gang of criminals pretending to be council officials.

Learner example:
As young people do not have experience in living independently in society and are not fully aware of social problems such as drugs and violence, they may easily fall prey to adults who would like to exploit them.

fall short of sth
[C2] to not reach a particular level, but only by a small amount

Dictionary example:
Sales for the first half of this year fell just short of the target.

Learner example:
Furthermore, it cannot be denied that public transport falls short of the target set during the planning process.

fall short of sth
[C2] to fail to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
His behaviour falls short of what we expect.
She just fell short of the grades she needed.

Learner example:
This routine was really wearing me out, but, I didn't want to fall short of my parents' expectations.

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]

lower amount
[B1] when the size, amount or strength of something gets lower

Dictionary examples:
The recent fall in the price of petrol a fall in the unemployment rate
We could hear the rise and fall of voices in the other room.

Learner example:
There is a fall in job vacancies.

MOVEMENT
[B2] when someone or something falls down to the ground, often without intending to or by accident

Dictionary examples:
He had a nasty fall and hurt his back.
The boulder smashed several small trees during its fall.
Learner example:
I was terrified and I heard the noise of a fall just by my side.

DEFEAT
[C1] when a city, government, leader, etc. loses power or control

Dictionary example:
the fall of communism

Learner example:
After the fall of the previous system everything changed.

false /fɔls/

ADJECTIVE

NOT CORRECT
[B1] not true or correct

Dictionary examples:
a false name
false information
The rumour later turned out to be false.
You’ll get a false impression/idea of the town if you only visit the university.

Learner example:
I must say that the advertisement for the show included a lot of false information.

NOT REAL
[B2] not real, but made to look or seem real

Dictionary examples:
false eyelashes/teeth false documents

Learner example:
Asking what made her do so she answered that she had forgotten her false teeth, without which she couldn’t have faced the fire-brigade.

NOT SINCERE
[C1] not sincere or expressing real emotions

Dictionary examples:
false promises
I hate the way he smiles at everyone. It’s so false.

Learner example:
The actor is really getting on my nerves because he is so selfish and so false.
fame /feɪm/

Word family:

Nouns: fame

Adjectives: famous

NOUN [u]

[B2] when you are known by many people because of your achievements, skills, etc.

Dictionary examples:

She first rose to fame as a singer at the age of 16.

She moved to London in search of fame and fortune.

Learner example:

It is certain that these people have fame, fortune and success, and that many of them are very rich.

familiar /fəˈmɪl.i.ər/

Word family:

Verbs: familiarize

Adjectives: familiar, unfamiliar

ADJECTIVE

EASY TO RECOGNIZE

[B1] easy to recognize because of being seen, met, heard, etc. before

Dictionary examples:

There were one or two familiar faces.

The house looked strangely familiar, though she knew she'd never been there before.

The street was familiar to me.

Learner example:

Someone started to wave and then I saw a familiar face.

be familiar with sth/sb

[B2] to know something or someone well

Dictionary example:

I'm sorry, I'm not familiar with your poetry.

Learner example:

I'm familiar with many kinds of sports activities such as ball games, recreation games, swimming and Japanese budo–karate, judo etc.
familiarize /fəˈmɪl.i.rəz/

Word family:
Verbs: familiarize
Adjectives: familiar, unfamiliar

VERB (ALSO UK familiarise)

familiarize sb/yourself with sth
[C2] to teach someone more about something new, or try to understand more about it yourself

Dictionary example:
We spent a few minutes familiarizing ourselves with the day's schedule.

Learner example:
The presenter should be acting as a teenager in order to familiarise the youth of the area with the programme immediately.

family /ˈfæm.əli/

NOUN

CHILDREN
[B1] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] the children of a family

Dictionary examples:
Single parents have to raise a family on their own.
Paul and Alison are hoping to start a family soon.

Learner example:
Some people also want to [have] a family because they want to be a father or a mother.

famine /ˈfæm.in/

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when people living in a particular area do not have enough food for a long time causing suffering and death

Dictionary example:
The floods were followed by a terrible famine.

Learner example:
Pictures of the famine in Africa or the deforestation of the Amazon raise important issues for humanity as a whole, urging us to be more active citizens.
fan /ʃæn/
noun [c]
MACHINE/OBJECT
[B1] something that is used to move the air around so that it feels cooler, such as a machine or an object that you move with your hand
Dictionary example:
There was no air conditioning, just a ceiling fan turning slowly.
Learner example:
Since it's quite hot here I brought a fan. I have to use it at night otherwise I can't get to sleep.

fanatic /fəˈnæt.ɪk/
noun [c]
[C2] someone whose interest in something or enthusiasm for something is extreme Dictionary examples:
a religious fanatic fitness/exercise fanatics
Learner example:
This can give way to fanatics, religious or politic[al], who may easily influence the frustrated masses into doing something they would under other circumstances refrain from.

fancy /ˈfænt.si/
verb [t]
WANT
[B1] to want to have or do something
Dictionary examples:
Do you fancy a drink this evening?
I didn't fancy swimming in that water.
Learner example:
Do you fancy eating at the restaurant together?
PERSON
[B2] to feel sexually attracted to someone
Dictionary example:
I fancied him the first time I saw him.
Learner example:
He had 3 very nice boys and everybody in my class knew that I fancied his youngest son Nicolai.

SURPRISE
[C2] used at the beginning of a sentence to show that you are surprised or shocked by something

Dictionary example:
Fancy seeing you here!

Learner example:
Fancy meeting a man who looked like an ancient knight!

---

fantastically /fænˈtæs.tɪk.lɪ/

Word family:
- Adjectives: fantastic
- Adverbs: fantastically

ADVERB
[B2] extremely

Dictionary examples:
They're fantastically rich.
They're doing fantastically well.

Learner example:
We spent three fantastically romantic days later.

---

fantasy /ˈfæn.tə.si/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a situation or event that you imagine, which is not real or true

Dictionary examples:
Steve's favourite fantasy was to own a big house and a flashy car.
sexual fantasies
She retreated into a fantasy world, where she could be anything she wanted.

Learner example:
Reading a book stimulates one's fantasy and imagination.
far /fɑː/

ADVERB (farther, farthest or further, furthest)

so far

[B1] until now

Dictionary example:
So far we've made thirty-two thousand pounds.

Learner example:
So far I like it here very much.

VERY MUCH

[B2] very much

Dictionary examples:
This car is far better than our old one.
It cost far more (money) than I could afford.
He loses his temper far too often.
I'd far rather/sooner go to the theatre than watch a DVD.

Learner example:
I think restaurant B is far better than restaurant A.

as far as I know

[B2] used to say that you think something is true, but cannot be sure

Dictionary example:
As far as I know, he's never been in trouble with the police.

Learner example:
As far as I know, accommodation at Camp California is in tents or log cabins.

as far as sb is concerned

[B2] used to say what someone's opinion is

Dictionary example:
It's all over as far as I'm concerned.

Learner example:
As far as I am concerned, Bernard is similar to him.

as far as sth is concerned

[B2] used to say what you are talking about

Dictionary example:
As far as sport is concerned, I like tennis and football.

Learner example:
As far as studying abroad is concerned, I totally agree with this idea.
by far
[B2] by a great amount

Dictionary example:
They are by far the best students in the class.

Learner example:
I have travelled to many countries, but New Zealand is by far the best.

far from sth
[C1] certainly not something

Dictionary example:
The situation is far from clear.

Learner example:
The quality of catering was far from ideal as well, as a meal in a hamburger restaurant can hardly be called a typical English lunch.

far from it INFORMAL
[C1] used to tell someone that something is certainly not true

Dictionary example:
He's not handsome – far from it.

Learner example:
The Hotel Royal cannot be considered as being luxury – far from it – i.e. our rooms were dirty and situated on the 4th floor without a lift.

how far
[C1] used to talk about how true something is

Dictionary example:
How far do politicians represent the views of ordinary people?

Learner example:
How far and to what extent would the characteristics we are born with influence our future development in life?

so far so good INFORMAL
[C2] used to say that something has gone well until now

Dictionary example:
It's the first time I've done any decorating, but so far so good.

Learner example:
So far so good, only no one told us they held this point of view before the actual christening took place.

far from doing sth
[C2] certainly not doing something
Dictionary example:
Far from being pleased, he was embarrassed by the praise.

Learner example:
Far from asking you to close the airport, which would be quite an irrational request, I am suggesting that you should take some action to improve the situation.

go so far as to do sth
[C2] to take the extreme action of doing something

Dictionary example:
He even went so far as to stop her using the telephone.

Learner example:
Our present course of action may go so far as to cause irreversible damage not only to our planet but also to the people living upon it.

go too far
[C2] to behave in a way that upsets or annoys other people

Dictionary example:
He's said some stupid things in the past, but this time he's gone too far.

Learner example:
Lucia let her speak and calmly said: “You really have gone too far this time.”

few and far between [C2] not happening or existing very often

Dictionary example:
Opportunities like this are few and far between.

Learner example:
Jobs in those days were few and far between and for a number of years he was alternating between temporary jobs and unemployment benefit.

be far removed from sth
[C2] to be very different from something

Dictionary example:
The princess’s world was far removed from reality.

Learner example:
It is the same problem with planned excursions to street markets in Asia, souks in Arabia or even tribes that are far removed from industrialized life in Papua New Guinea or the rainforest of Brazil.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

Distant
[B2] describes the part of something that is most distant from the centre or from you
Dictionary examples:
His office is at the far end of the corridor.
The children ran to the far side/corner of the room.

Learner example:
The dark spot at the far end of the wall seemed to be coming after her this time.

be a far cry from sth
[C1] to be very different from something

Dictionary example:
Her luxury mansion is a far cry from the house she grew up in.

Learner example:
The museum was a far cry from what we expected. Not only were the machines really old and should have been replaced a long time ago, but they were boring as well.

the far left/right
[C2] used to describe political groups whose opinions are very extreme

Dictionary example:
He belongs to a far right group.

faraway /ˌfɑːrəˈweɪ/ ADJECTIVE

LONG DISTANCE
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] LITERARY a long distance away

Dictionary example:
faraway places

Learner example:
They trans[port] me to faraway places and to a magic world.

a faraway look/expression
[C2] an expression on someone's face that shows that they are not thinking about what is happening around them

Dictionary example:
He had a faraway look in his eyes.

Learner example:
But her most noticeable feature[s] are her large [brown] eyes and her happy smile. Yet, sometimes you could see a faraway look in her eyes.
fare  /ˈfeər/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the money that you pay for a journey on a vehicle such as a bus or train

Dictionary example:
Air/Bus/Train fares are going up again.

Learner example:
In fact, there are buses (number 843 and 845) which go [to] my village but the bus fare is very expensive for me.

farming  /ˈfaː.meɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: farm, farmer, farming

NOUN [u]
[B1] the activity of working on a farm or organizing the work there

Dictionary example:
modern farming practices

Learner example:
I am interested in farming and hope to own a farm one day.

fascinate  /ˈfæs.ɪ.nɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: fascination
Verbs: fascinate
Adjectives: fascinated, fascinating

VERB [t]
[C1] to interest someone a lot

Dictionary example:
Science has always fascinated me.

Learner example:
What fascinates me about it is that this style of music allows the artist to bring in crazy new ideas such as African or Indian rhythms.
fascinated /ˈfæs.e.ner.tid/

Word family:
Nouns: fascination
Verbs: fascinate
Adjectives: fascinated, fascinating

ADJECTIVE
[B2] extremely interested

Dictionary example:
They were fascinated by his stories.

Learner example:
I am sure you will be fascinated by his work and his multi-faceted character.

fascinating /ˈfæs.i.nei.tin/

Word family:
Nouns: fascination
Verbs: fascinate
Adjectives: fascinated, fascinating

ADJECTIVE
[B2] extremely interesting

Dictionary examples:
a fascinating person/place
I found the movie fascinating.

Learner example:
You can enjoy not only Hungarian food but also fascinating Hungarian music.

fascination /ˌfæs.ɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: fascination
Verbs: fascinate
Adjectives: fascinated, fascinating

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C1] when you find someone or something fascinating

Dictionary example:
Her fascination with fashion started at an early age.
Learner example:
Anyhow, even if you can't grasp the deep meaning behind [the] words, its beautiful rhyme and rhythm will exert a fascination on you.

fashion /ˈfæʃ.n/

Word family:
Nouns: fashion
Adjectives: fashionable

NOUN

BUSINESS

[B1] [u] making and selling clothes

Dictionary examples:
the fashion industry
fashion magazines

Learner example:
When I'm tired, I like reading fashion magazines.

fashionable /ˈfæʃ.nə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: fashion
Adjectives: fashionable

ADJECTIVE

[B1] popular at a particular time

Dictionary examples:
a fashionable nightclub/restaurant fashionable clothes
It's no longer fashionable to smoke.

Learner example:
There are some fashionable cafes, restaurants and museums.

fast /fɑːst/

ADJECTIVE

a fast track (to sth)

[C2] a very quick way of achieving or dealing with something
Dictionary example:
These intensive courses claim to offer a fast track to wealth and success.

Learner example:
If I ever found a job which lives up to these expectations, I would consider myself on a fast track already.

ADVERB

FIRMLY
[C2] in a firm or tight way

Dictionary example:
He tried to get away, but she held him fast.

Learner example:
Thankfully, there are those who still cling to such age-old values as personal contentment and growth, regarding them as the anchors which hold happiness fast.

fast asleep
[C2] completely asleep

Dictionary example:
I looked into her room but she was still fast asleep.

Learner example:
Karen’s grandson walks into the room to find her fast asleep on her favourite chair.

the fast lane
[C2] the busy and exciting way of life that a successful person has

Dictionary example:
Fed up with life in the fast lane, Jack gave up his job and moved to the countryside.

Learner example:
Finally, should you ask why people are not happier than before, the answer is that nowadays they spend more hours on work than before, because modern life is mostly a life in the fast lane.

thick and fast
[C2] quickly and in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Calls were coming in thick and fast by the end of the programme.

---

fasten /ˈfɑːsən/

VERB

CLOSE/FIX
[B1] [I or T] to close or fix something together, or to become closed or fixed together
Dictionary examples:
Fasten your seat belt.
This shirt fastens at the back.

Learner example:
She fell fast asleep and only woke to the sound of the announcement: "Ladies and gent[le]men fasten your seat belts [-] in a couple of minutes we will be landing in Kingston".

fasten sth on/to/together, etc.
[B2] to fix one thing to another

Dictionary example:
He fastened the rope to a tree.

---

fat /fæt/

Word family:
Nouns: fat
Adjectives: fat, fatty

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a solid or liquid substance that is taken from animals or plants and used in cooking

Dictionary examples:
This product contains no animal fat.
I only use vegetable fats in cooking.

Learner example:
They should also consum[e] as much salad as they can, due to the fact that it does not contain fat.

fatal /ˈfeɪ.təl/

ADJECTIVE

CAUSING DEATH

Dictionary examples:
This illness is fatal in almost all cases.
the fatal shooting of an unarmed 15-year-old

Learner example:
Paul received a fatal shot in [the] head.

SERIOUS
[B2] Fatal actions have very bad effects.
Dictionary example:
He made the fatal mistake/error of believing what they told him.

Learner example:
That was a fatal mistake because that [person] was my teacher and he wasn't so pleased about my behaviour.

fate /feɪt/

NOUN

WHAT HAPPENS
[B2] [c] what happens to someone, especially something bad

Dictionary examples:
We want to decide our own fate.
His fate is now in the hands of the jury.

Learner example:
No one as powerless as him deserves this fate.

POWER
[B2] [u] a power that some people believe decides what will happen

Dictionary examples:
When we met again by chance in Cairo, I felt it must be fate.
Fate has brought us together.

Learner example:
But, little we did know what fate had in store for us.

father-in-law /ˈfɑːð.ər.ɪn.lɔː/

NOUN [c] (plural fathers-in-law)
[B2] the father of your husband or wife

Dictionary example:
My father-in-law was a banker.

Learner example:
My father-in-law, I'm pretty sure, [will] be able to answer all your questions.
fatty /ˈfæt.i/

Word family:
Nouns: fat
Adjectives: fat, fatty

ADJECTIVE

[C1] Fatty foods contain a lot of fat.

Dictionary example:
Try to cut down on eating fatty foods.

Learner example:
There is a greater reliance on fast food and fatty foods.

---

fault /fɒlt/

Word family:
Nouns: fault
Adjectives: faulty, faultless

NOUN

sb’s fault

[B1] If something bad that has happened is someone's fault, they are responsible for it.

Dictionary examples:
She believes it was the doctor’s fault that Peter died.
It's not my fault she didn't come!

Learner example:
"It's my fault" I said and he answered "Never mind, it's all ok".

at fault

[B2] responsible for something bad that has happened

Dictionary example:
I was at fault and I would like to apologize.

Learner example:
I really felt at fault.

PROBLEM

[B2] [c] something that is wrong with something

Dictionary examples:
The car has a serious design fault.
They think the fire was caused by an electrical fault.
Learner example:
I went out of the house and I saw that the other houses had not got any lights, so it was not an electrical fault.

BAD QUALITY
[B2] [c] something that is wrong with someone's character

Dictionary example:
He has many faults, but dishonesty isn't one of them.

Learner example:
He had a fault: he talked a lot.

find fault with sb/sth
[C2] to criticize someone or something, especially without good reasons

Dictionary example:
She was always finding fault with our work.

Learner example:
Sometimes I take offence at their trying to find fault with me and I am not allowed to answer back.

faultless /ˈfɔːlt.əls/

Word family:
Nouns: fault
Adjectives: faulty, faultless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] perfect, or without any mistakes

Dictionary example:
a faultless performance

Learner example:
Children also need to be taught that parents are not faultless and the best way to teach a child to apologise is by doing it oneself after having treated the child [unfairly].

faulty /ˈfɔːlt.i/

Word family:
Nouns: fault
Adjectives: faulty, faultless

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not working correctly or not in perfect condition

Dictionary example:
faulty brakes/goods
Learner example:
Big supermarkets always [give] you a complete refund if an item is of poor quality or faulty.

favour  /ˈfeɪ.vər/

Word family:
Nouns: favour, favourite
Verbs: favour
Adjectives: favourable, favourite, unfavourable

NOUN

HELP

[B1] [c] something that you do to help someone

Dictionary examples:
She rang up to ask me a favour.
Could you do me a favour – could you give this to Sean, please?

Learner example:
Could you do me a favour?

be in favour of sth

[B2] to agree with or approve of a plan or idea

Dictionary example:
Most people are in favour of reducing traffic in cities.

Learner example:
I am certainly in favour of holding the music festival next year.

in sb’s favour

[C1] If something is in your favour, it helps you to win or succeed.

Dictionary example:
Both sides have strong arguments in their favour.

Learner example:
Unfortunately the weather conditions were not in our favour, but the rain only lasted a few minutes and did not look at all like a downpour.

in favour of sb/sth

[C2] If you refuse or get rid of someone or something in favour of someone or something else, you choose them instead.

Dictionary example:
They dropped him from the team in favour of a much younger player.
Learner example:
The city council should revise the airport project [...] and change the current location of the airport in favour of a more isolated area.

VERB [V]
[C2] to choose or prefer one possibility

Dictionary example:
These are the running shoes favoured by marathon runners.

Learner example:
This development probably would not be really favoured by individuals either, as most people use their own car to do the shopping mostly and just to go on their daily business.

favourable ˈfeɪ.vər.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: favour, favourite
Verbs: favour
Adjectives: favourable, favourite, unfavourable

ADJECTIVE

LIKING
[B2] showing that you like or approve of someone or something, or making you support or approve of someone or something

Dictionary example:
She made a very favourable impression on us.

Learner example:
It is the first thing people see from our village and if their first impression is favourable, they will feel like going further into the village.

CONDITIONS
[C2] making something more likely to be successful

Dictionary example:
We had favourable weather conditions for the sailing competition.

Learner example:
As far as bringing up my own children is concerned, I would like to follow my mother in the above-mentioned aspects (I feel I had a rare opportunity to be raised in extremely favourable conditions).
favourite /ˈfeɪ.vərɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: favour, favourite
Verbs: favour
Adjectives: favourable, favourite, unfavourable

NOUN [C]

LIKED BEST
[B1] a thing that someone likes best or enjoys most

Dictionary example:
How clever of you to buy chocolate chip cookies – they’re my favourites.

Learner example:
We are going to see a thriller film, they are my favourites.

LIKELY TO WIN
[C2] the person, animal or thing that is most likely to win a competition

Dictionary examples:
The Dallas Cowboys are now favourites to win.
Her novel was the favourite to win the prize, but the judges chose differently.

fax /fæks/

VERB [ɪ]
[B1] to send a document using a fax machine

Dictionary example:
Fax me your reply/Fax your reply to me.

Learner example:
I will ask one of my classmate[s] to fax me the work you [set], and I will try to do it.

fear /fɪər/

Word family:
Nouns: fear
Verbs: fear
Adjectives: fearful, fearless
BAD FEELING

[B1] a strong, unpleasant feeling that you get when you think that something bad, dangerous, or frightening might happen

Dictionary examples:
her fear of snakes
Shaking/Trembling with fear, she handed over the money to the gunman.
There are fears that the disease will spread to other countries.
Fears for her safety are growing.
The low profit figures simply confirmed my worst fears.

Learner example:
I was afraid to eat [it] but after the first bite, I lost my fear.

for fear of sth/doing sth
[C2] because you are worried about something/doing something

Dictionary example:
I didn't want to move for fear of waking her up.

Learner example:
No one dared to turn around for fear of being bitterly disappointed.

VERB [T]

BE WORRIED

[B2] to be worried or frightened that something bad might happen or might have happened

Dictionary examples:
Police fear (that) the couple may have drowned.
It is feared (that) as many as two hundred passengers may have died in the crash.

Learner example:
Lots of changes which may occur during these next fifty years [might] make us fear that our sons’ and grandsons’ lives will not be as happy as ours.

BE FRIGHTENED OF
[B2] to be frightened of something or someone

Dictionary examples:
Most older employees fear unemployment.
What do you fear most?

Learner example:
I've always feared the dark.
fear the worst
[C2] to worry that something very bad will happen or that something very bad has happened

Dictionary example:
When there was no sign of the children, the rescuers feared the worst.

Learner example:
Her parents had been quar[re]lling constantly now for almost half [a] year, and she feared the worst.

fearful /ˈfɪə.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: fear
Verbs: fear
Adjectives: fearful, fearless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] frightened or worried

Dictionary example:
Many women are fearful of travelling alone.

Learner example:
My mother is a very fearful person and when I was playing with other children in the sea I could not stand [it] when she interrupted our game all the time with the same words: "Do not do that and do not do this, it is too dangerous."

fearless /ˈfɪə.les/

Word family:
Nouns: fear
Verbs: fear
Adjectives: fearful, fearless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not frightened of anything

Dictionary example:
a fearless fighter

Learner example:
It is something which associates [i]n my mind with extreme, fearless guys who tend to live on the edge of life, always searching for new strong feelings and a 'dose of adrenaline'.

1077 feasible /ˈfiː.zə.bəl/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] possible to do

Dictionary examples:
- a feasible plan
- It may be feasible to clone human beings, but is it ethical?

Learner example:
In the context of Singapore, where land is scarce and [the] widening or building of more roads is just not feasible, we have no choice but to choose what is best for everyone.

feast /fiːst/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a large meal, especially to celebrate something special

Dictionary example:
- a wedding feast

Learner example:
- Finally, they have a feast with a lot of food and wine.

VERB

feast on sth PHRASAL VERB

[C2] to eat a lot of food and enjoy it very much

Dictionary example:
- We feasted on fried chicken, ice cream, and chocolate cake.

Learner example:
- Some people think that travelling entails feasting on typical food and buying lots of clothes.

feat /fiːt/

NOUN [C]

[C2] an act or achievement that shows great skill or strength

Dictionary example:
- The Eiffel Tower is a remarkable feat of engineering.

Learner example:
- It can be argued that, on this level, sport is close to becoming a form of art but it is undoubtedly a feat of strength just to have qualified [in] an event of this kind.
be no mean feat
[C2] used when you want to emphasize that an act or achievement is very difficult

Dictionary example:
Learning to ski at 60 is no mean feat!

Learner example:
There was an interesting discussion about whether it was harder or easier for them to enter the world of cinema, given their famous names. Both said that it was no mean feat because people were more demanding as [to] their abilities.

feather /ˈfeð.ər/

NOUN [C]
[B2] one of the soft, light things that grow from and cover a bird's skin

Dictionary example:
I found a peacock's feather.

Learner example:
Birds were cleaning their feathers [and singing] morning songs, monkeys were jumping [at] the top of an old tree in the corner of the monastery yard.

feature /ˈfiː.tʃər/

NOUN [C]

PART
[B2] a typical quality, or an important part of something

Dictionary examples:
The town's main features are its beautiful mosque and ancient marketplace.
Our latest model of phone has several new features.

Learner example:
He explained the features of the new product to the rest of his colleagues.

FACE
[B2] Someone's features are the parts of their face that you notice when you look at them.

Dictionary example:
His eyes are his best feature.

Learner example:
They have similar figures, [and] the features of their faces are nearly the same.
NEWSPAPER
[C2] a special article in a newspaper or magazine, or a special television programme

Dictionary example:
a double-page feature on global warming

Learner example:
As a regular reader of the student magazine 'Uni', I read with particular interest last week's feature on political thrillers.

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to include someone or something as an important part

Dictionary examples:
The film features James Dean as a disaffected teenager.
This week's broadcast features a report on victims of domestic violence.

Learner example:
My favourite song is "Candy Shop", by 50 Cent, featuring Olivia.

fed up /ˌfedˈʌp/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] INFORMAL
[B2] annoyed or bored by something that you have experienced for too long

Dictionary examples:
I'm fed up with my job.
He got fed up with all the travelling he had to do.

Learner example:
I'm sure that the whole world is fed up with Mozart.

fee /fiː/

NOUN [C]
[B1] an amount of money that you pay to do something, to use something, or to get a service

Dictionary examples:
university/college fees an entrance/registration fee

Learner example:
Due to the fact that the centre is new and very big, the fee is quite high, about a hundred euros for three months.
feeble /ˈfiː.bl/

ADJECTIVE

WEAK

[C2] extremely weak

Dictionary example:
She became too feeble to get out of bed.

Learner example:
Most of the times, the owner is a decrepit and feeble old man, who can hardly hear you, but who can be a magnificent narrator.

NOT GOOD

[C2] not very good or effective

Dictionary example:
a feeble argument/excuse

Learner example:
Some of the passengers began to pray under their breath, in a feeble attempt to suppress their panic.

feed /fiːd/

VERB (fed, fed)

GIVE FOOD

[B1] [t] to give food to a person, group or animal

Dictionary examples:
I usually feed the neighbour’s cat while she's away.
Let's feed the kids first and have our dinner after.
If you feed your dog on cakes and biscuits, it's not surprising he's so fat.

Learner example:
You can also ride horses and feed animals like rabbits, birds and hamsters.

EAT FOOD

[C1] [I] If an animal or a baby feeds, it eats.

Dictionary example:
The caterpillars feed on cabbage leaves.

Learner example:
In the same way, animals killed plants and fed on them.
SUPPLY
[C1] [t] to supply something such as information to a person or a machine, especially in a regular or continuous way

Dictionary examples:
We fed them false information about our plans.
Nicola fed the pages into the photocopier.

Learner example:
For heaven’s sake, the strike lasted for three weeks not three years. [...] They feed you with lies.

feedback /ˈfiːd.bæk/

NOUN [u]
[B2] information or opinions about something, such as a new product, that provide an idea of whether it is successful or liked

Dictionary examples:
Have you had any feedback from customers about the product?
positive/negative feedback

Learner example:
I am writing to you to give you feedback about [the] social programme.

feel /fiːl/

Word family:
Nouns: feeling
Verbs: feel

VERB (felt, felt) feel like/as if

[B1] to have a feeling or idea about something that you have experienced even though it is not true

Dictionary examples:
I feel as if I’ve known you for ages.
It feels like I’ve been here forever and yet it’s only been three months.

Learner example:
I feel like I’ve been here for ages.

feel like sth/doing sth
[B1] to have a wish for something, or to want to do something, at a particular moment
Dictionary examples:
I feel like going for a swim.
I feel like a nice cool glass of lemonade.
"Are you coming to aerobics?" "No, I don't feel like it today."
He was so rude I felt like hitting him.

Learner example:
The weather is warm and I feel like swimming.

feel like sb/sth
[B1] to seem to be similar to a type of person, thing, or situation

Dictionary examples:
My feet feel like blocks of ice.
I felt like a fool when I saw what everyone else was wearing.

Learner example:
In front of these big towers, I feel like a tiny insect!

THINK/HAVE OPINION
[B1] I or T] to think something or have an opinion

Dictionary examples:
I feel (that) I should be doing more to help her.
Do you feel very strongly about this?
I feel certain I’m right.

Learner example:
The more he got close to this man, the more he felt sure it was Chris, who died in a car crash in April 1972.

feel sorry for [B1] to feel sympathy for someone because they are in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I feel so sorry for the children – it must be really hard for them.

Learner example:
Anyway, I feel sorry for her and I wonder: what would I do if I were her?

feel at home
[B1] to feel happy and confident in a place or situation

Dictionary example:
After a month she felt at home in her new job.

Learner example:
I explained: "I was in Manchester for just 10 month[s] and [during] that time the people from there made me feel at home [so] I feel proud to have the accent."

TOUCH
[B2] I or T] to touch something, especially with your hands, in order to examine it
Dictionary examples:
I felt his head and it was hot.
Just feel how cold my hands are!
I was feeling around in my bag for the keys.

Learner example:
I tried to open the heavy door; I could feel the iron bar with my almost frozen fingers.

feel different/strange, etc.
[B2] If a place, situation, etc., feels different, strange, etc., that is how it seems to you, or that describes your experience of it.

Dictionary examples:
It felt strange to see him again after so long.
The house feels empty without the children.

Learner example:
It felt strange and yet so wonderful to ski in the summer!

BE AWARE
[B2] [T] to be aware of something

Dictionary example:
I could feel them watching me.

Learner example:
I could feel the silence.

feel compelled to do sth
[C1] to feel that you should do something

Dictionary example:
He felt compelled to resign from his job.

Learner example:
As a member of the International Student's Sports Club, I felt compelled to write this article in answer to the previous article about how today's youth is putting sports and healthy activities aside.

feel faint
[C2] to feel very weak and as if you might fall down

Dictionary example:
Seeing all the blood made me feel faint.

Learner example:
Starting to feel faint, Fred quickly roused himself and ran out of the hotel as quickly as he could.
feeling /ˈfiː.lɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: feeling
Verbs: feel

NOUN

EMOTION

[B1] [c or u] emotion

Dictionary examples:
a feeling of joy/sadness
The feeling of loneliness was suddenly too much for him.
Her performance seemed to me completely lacking in feeling.

Learner example:
When I'm walking alone I can think about all my feelings, combine them into one and the name of this feeling is love.

feelings

[B1] Your feelings are your beliefs and emotions, especially those influenced by other people.

Dictionary examples:
You can't hide your feelings from me.
I didn't want to hurt his feelings, so I didn't tell him what she'd said about him.

Learner example:
I can't explain my feelings.

IDEA

[B1] [c] an idea that something is true or exists

Dictionary examples:
I had the strange feeling that we had met before.
I got the feeling that she was unhappy with the arrangement.

Learner example:
When I saw the policeman['s] face I got a bad feeling about this man. He d[id]n't look like a cop but he was [dressed] like one, so I decide[d] to stay away from this guy.

PHYSICAL SENSE

[B1] [c or u] when you feel something physical

Dictionary examples:
I've got this odd feeling in my stomach.
My toes were so cold that I'd lost all feeling in them.

Learner example:
After one hour I was home and still had the feeling of warm rain touching my skin.
AN OPINION

[B2] [C] an opinion or belief

Dictionary example:
My feeling is that we had better act quickly or it will be too late.

Learner example:
My feeling is that we should simply buy what we want to buy [and] not what we are prompted to buy.

bad/ill feeling

[C1] when people are upset or angry with each other

Dictionary example:
I don't want to cause any bad feeling between us.

Learner example:
For those who can't afford to shop, this might cause them to envy and harbor ill feeling [towards] those they can see are enjoying and splurging.

fellow /ˈfɛl.əʊ/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] describes someone who has the same job or interests as you, or is in the same situation as you

Dictionary examples:
She introduced me to some of her fellow students.
Our fellow travellers were mostly Spanish-speaking tourists.

Learner example:
In conclusion, I have to declare that [I] myself and my fellow students will be available to help [with] this short video.

female /ˈfiː.mɛl/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] belonging or relating to women, or to the sex that can produce eggs or have babies

Dictionary examples:
a female athlete/employee female cats/elephants
She was voted the best female vocalist.
Learner example:
All my female friends at school say that he is [an] attractive young man.

NOUN [C]
[B2] a female animal or person

Dictionary examples:
The kitten was actually a female, not a male.
Females represent 40% of the country's workforce.

Learner example:
We all know the problems that [are] cause[d] [by] having animals kept in a zoo: females refuse the males, or they become mad [from] the lack of freedom.

feminine /ˈfem.ə.nɪn/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] showing qualities that people generally think are typical of women

Dictionary examples:
a feminine voice feminine beauty

Learner example:
When my grandmother was a young women, it was a must for her to wear a dress or at least a skirt and a very feminine blouse.

fence /fents/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a wood, wire or metal structure which divides or goes around an area of land

Dictionary example:
a garden fence

Learner example:
I looked around to make sure that no-one saw me and jumped [over] the fence.

fend /fend/

VERB

fend for yourself PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to take care of yourself without help
Dictionary example:
When you go away to college, you have to learn to fend for yourself.

Learner example:
For such people to be able to provide for their families and fend for themselves, they have to work irrespective of how they do the job.

---

ferry /ˈfer.i/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a boat that regularly carries passengers and often vehicles across an area of water

Dictionary examples:
a car ferry
We're going across to France by/on the ferry.
We took the ferry to Calais.

Learner example:
We are planning to go to the "Red Island", which is just 15 minutes from Rovigno by ferry.

---

fertile /ˈfɜː.tər.l/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] Fertile land or soil produces a lot of healthy plants.

Dictionary example:
They settled in the fertile river valleys.

Learner example:
We had an enormous backyard with the most fertile soil where we grew all sorts of vegetables.

---

festival /ˈfes.tɪ.vəl/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a series of special events, performances, etc. that often takes place over several days

Dictionary examples:
a folk/pop/rock festival
The Aldeburgh Festival is held every year in June.
the Cannes Film Festival
Learner example:
I decided to go to that city because of the film festival that was going to happen.

CELEBRATION
[B1] a special day or period when people celebrate something, especially a religious event

Dictionary example:
the Jewish festival of Hanukkah

Learner example:
I like to dress up traditionally during festivals.

---

fetch /ˈfɛtʃ/

VERB [T]
[B1] to go to another place to get something or someone and bring them back

Dictionary examples:
Could you fetch my glasses for me from the other room, please?
I have to fetch my mother from the station.

Learner example:
I'll come and fetch you at 7 o'clock.

---

fever /ˈfiː.vər/

NOUN

ILLNESS
[B1] [C or U] when someone's body temperature rises because they are ill

Dictionary example:
He's got a headache and a high/slight fever.

Learner example:
I understood that she was alone with her brother and he has [a] fever.

EXCITEMENT
[C2] [U] when people are very excited about something

Dictionary example:
Election fever has gripped the nation.

Learner example:
It was then when they started to build enormous buildings and skyscrapers all around. The "building fever" had started.
few /fjuː/

DETERMINER, ADJECTIVE, PRONOUN

NOT MANY
[B1] a small number, not many or not enough

Dictionary examples:
He is among the few people I can trust.
Very few people can afford to pay those prices.
Few of the children can read or write yet.
We get few complaints.
According to the survey, as few as 10% of us are happy with our jobs.

Learner example:
Usually there are very few people, so it's a great place to escape from busy towns.

few and far between [C2] not happening or existing very often

Dictionary example:
Opportunities like this are few and far between.

Learner example:
Jobs in those days were few and far between and for a number of years he was alternating between temporary jobs and unemployment benefit.

fibre /ˈfaɪ.bə/

NOUN
[C1] [U] the substance in plants which cannot be digested and helps food pass through your body

Dictionary example:
Broccoli is a good source of fibre.

Learner example:
We try to eat less fat and more fibre, like oats, instead of sandwiches with butter and cheese.

fiction /ˈfɪkʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: fiction
Adjectives: fictional
NOUN

STORIES
[B1] [u] literature and stories about imaginary characters and events

Dictionary examples:
The book is a work of fiction and not intended as a historical account.
a writer of children's fiction

Learner example:
In his fiction, one can detect traces of different literary schools.

NOT TRUE
[C1] [u OR NO PLURAL] something that is not true or real

Dictionary examples:
Nobody knows whether his statement is fact or fiction.
Everything she had said turned out to be a complete fiction.

Learner example:
With regret I have to admit that [the] lively social programme was a total fiction and the only thing participants could do was to find and make friend[s] oneself, as I did.

fictional /ˈfɪk.ʃən.al/

Word family:
Nouns: fiction
Adjectives: fictional

ADJECTIVE
[C2] existing only in fiction

Dictionary example:
a fictional character

Learner example:
What he is especially known and admired [for] are his fictional but memorable characters, which became almost archetypes in literature.

field /fiːld/

NOUN

SPORTS GROUND
[B1] [c] an area of grass used for playing sport
Dictionary examples:
the school playing/sports field a football/hockey/rugby field

Learner example:
They filmed our sports fields and our classroom.

AREA OF STUDY

[B2] [c] an area of study or activity

Dictionary example:
He’s an expert in the field of biochemistry.

Learner example:
This time [it] is the case of telecommunications, tomorrow it will be the time of advances in the field of medicine.

IN RACE/BUSINESS

[C2] [NO PLURAL] the people who are competing in a race, activity, or business

Dictionary example:
We lead the field in genetic research.

Learner example:
Brian Moore leads the field with a style that can only be called immaculate.

CONTAINING SUBSTANCE

[C2] [c] an area of land covered with or containing a lot of a particular substance

Dictionary examples:

a gas/oil field
The upper part of the volcano is a vast field of black lava.
They searched for meteorites on the frozen ice fields of Antarctica.

Learner example:
Our tour took also us to see the lower fields; from where the tour bus stops [to] the end of the lava fields, which is in the sea, it takes about t[h]irty minutes walking.

---

fierce /ˈfɪəs/

ADJECTIVE

VIOLENT

[B2] violent or angry

Dictionary examples:

a fierce dog
a fierce attack/battle
Two men were shot during fierce fighting last weekend.
Learner example:
This may surprise some of you who have always thought of [the] tiger as a fierce and dangerous beast.

STRONG
[B2] very strong or powerful

Dictionary examples:
Fierce winds/storms battered the coast all weekend.
Fire fighters had to retreat from the fierce heat.

Learner example:
The need for darkness was justified by the fierce thunderstorm, which seemed likely to smash the house into pieces.

FEELING
[B2] showing strong feeling or energetic activity

Dictionary examples:
The expansion plans will face fierce opposition/resistance from environmentalists.
There is fierce competition to join the Special Branch.

Learner example:
Nowadays, family life importance is a matter that arouses fierce passions.

fifth /ˈfɪfθ/

NOUN [C]
[B1] one of five equal parts of something

Dictionary example:
One fifth is the same as 20 percent.

fifty /ˈfɪf.ti/

NUMBER

(be) in your fifties
[B2] to be aged between 50 and 59

Dictionary example:
He retired when he was still in his fifties.

Learner example:
Despite being in my fifties I am healthy and in good shape.
the fifties
[B2] the years from 1950–1959

Dictionary example:
Many new towns were built in the fifties.

Learner example:
I love bands from the fifties, sixties, seventies... and most of the radio stations seem to forget that the music has a history and it is always nice to remember past songs, because a good song will always be a good song.

fight /faɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: fight, fighting
Verbs: fight

VERB (fought, fought)

USE FORCE
[B1] I or T to use physical force to try to defeat another person or group of people

Dictionary examples:
Two men were fighting outside the park.
Sam's always fighting with his little brother.

Learner example:
She was very tired and afraid, so I decided to help her [by] going to the "Blue Forest", and I remember I fought with the wizards.

JOIN WAR
[B2] I or T to take part in a war

Dictionary example:
Millions of young men fought in World War One.

Learner example:
He fought in the Spanish Civil war and in World War II.

ARGUE
[B2] I to argue

Dictionary example:
We've got to stop fighting in front of the children.

Learner example:
Then I became angry again because although I spent my day doing nothing, I didn't buy a present for my sister, and when I went home we f[ou]ght.
TRY TO STOP
[B2] ! [i or t] to try hard to stop something bad happening

Dictionary examples:
He fought against racism.
New measures have been introduced to fight crime.

Learner example:
The other great advantage is that it is a nice way of fighting against pollution.

TRY TO ACHIEVE
[B2] ! [i] to try hard to achieve something you want or think is right

Dictionary examples:
They are fighting for their freedom.
He had to fight hard to keep his job.

Learner example:
All of them [were] fighting for their cause.

NOUN [C]

PHYSICAL FORCE
[B1] when people use physical force to hurt or attack others

Dictionary examples:
Jeff’s always getting into starting fights.
The older boys broke up the fight.
He put up a fight when the police tried to arrest him.

Learner example:
My son got into a fight on his way from the school to the house and he had a black eye.

EFFORT
[B2] when you use a lot of effort to achieve or stop something

Dictionary examples:
Join us in our fight for freedom!
We must continue the fight against homelessness.
He died last week after a long fight with cancer.
This year has brought some good news in the fight to save the whales.

Learner example:
I was sitting like every evening in my armchair, reading my favorite book “My fight for Irish freedom” and suddenly the lights went out.

ARGUMENT
[B2] an argument

Dictionary example:
I don’t want to have a fight over this.
Learner example:
I had a fight with my mother and she told me off in front of my friends.

fighting /ˈfaɪ.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: fight, fighting
Verbs: fight

NOUN [u]
[B2] when people fight, especially in a war

Dictionary example:
Fierce fighting has continued all day.

Learner example:
[Kung-fu] is not only a way of fighting, it is also a way of life.

figure /ˈfɪɡ.ər/

NOUN [c]

NUMBER
[B1] the symbol for a number or an amount expressed in numbers

Dictionary examples:
Can you read this figure? Is it a three or an eight?
Write the amount in both words and figures.
I looked quickly down the column of figures.
He earns a six-figure salary.

Learner example:
More than 5,000 were present, so I don’t understand why you mention the figure 2,000.

BODY SHAPE
[B1] the shape of someone’s body, usually an attractive shape

Dictionary example:
She’s got a good figure.

Learner example:
She has long blond hair and blue eyes. She has a good figure.

TYPE OF PERSON
[B2] a particular type of person, often someone important or famous

Dictionary example:
Lincoln was a major figure in American politics.
Learner example:
She is an important figure in Argentina.

PERSON
[B2] a person that you cannot see clearly

Dictionary example:
I could see two tall figures in the distance.

Learner example:
Suddenly a figure appeared in front of us.

AMOUNT
[C1] a number that expresses an amount, especially in official documents

Dictionary example:
Government figures show a rise in unemployment.

Learner example:
They do not have any avenues of change until they migrate to cities, which only 15% of villagers do in Pakistan according to government figures.

PICTURE
[C1] (written abbreviation fig.) a picture or drawing in a book or document, usually with a number

Dictionary example:
Look at the graph shown in Figure 2.

Learner example:
Figure 1 demonstrates the use of electricity in England in summer and winter.

single/double, etc. figures
[C2] numbers from 0 to 9/numbers from 10 to 99, etc.

Dictionary example:
I don't know exactly how many times the train has been late this month, but it's certainly in double figures.

VERB
THINK
[C2] [t] to decide something after thinking about it

Dictionary example:
I figured that it was time to tell her the truth.

Learner example:
Everything around us is constantly cutting down on budget, leaving fewer and less attractive work places, so I figure the best way to actually obtain a job is to go after something you're truly passionate about.
fill  /fɪl/

VERB

TAKE SPACE

[B1] [ɪ] If people or things fill a space, there are a lot of them in it.

Dictionary examples:
Dark clouds filled the sky.
The streets were filled with tourists.

Learner example:
Suddenly clouds filled the sky with darkness.

BE NOTICEABLE

[B1] [ɪ] If light, sound, or a smell fills a place, you can easily notice it.

Dictionary example:
The smell of smoke filled the room.

Learner example:
The class was filled with the sound of laughing.

fill sb with anger/joy/pride, etc.

[B2] to make someone feel very angry/happy/proud, etc.

Dictionary example:
The thought of losing him filled her with fear.

Learner example:
Nobody was talking and the 50 passengers were filled with terror.

JOB

[C1] [ɪ] to give a job or position to someone

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry, the job/position/post/vacancy has already been filled.
We would prefer to fill the position with a recent graduate.

Learner example:
Suppose if ten people retire from an organization, the vacancies are filled by bringing up the middle management and their previous positions will be filled be lower management.

fill a need/gap/demand

[C2] to provide something that people need or want

Dictionary example:
The new nursery is really filling a need.
Learner example:
I had nearly finished my study and had an idea to start a small software company, filling a gap in the market that was overlooked by the larger I.T. companies.

film /fɪlm/

NOUN

LAYER

[C2] [NO PLURAL] a thin layer of something on a surface

Dictionary example:
A thick film of dust covered the furniture.

Learner example:
The walls were covered with a thin film of water.

VERB [I or T]

[B1] to record moving pictures with a camera, usually to make a film

Dictionary examples:
Most of the scenes were filmed in a studio.
They filmed for a week in Spain.

Learner example:
So he had put it into his cupboard which was [just] open and the burglar hadn't noticed the camera which filmed all his actions.

film-maker (also filmmaker) /ˈfɪlm.mər.keɪ/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a film director, especially an independent one who has control over how the film is made

Dictionary example:
one of the industry’s top film-makers.

Learner example:
The plot [i]s about a film-maker and his difficulties [in] finish[ing] his last film.
filter /ˈfɪl.tər/

VERB
[C2] [ɪ] to pass a liquid or gas through a piece of equipment in order to remove solid pieces or other substances

Dictionary example:
The water was filtered to remove any impurities.

Learner example:
The sun’s rays, filtered through the black lenses, seemed harmless.

filter down/in/through, etc.
[C2] to gradually appear

Dictionary example:
The sunlight filtered through the bedroom curtains.

Learner example:
Outside, the moonlight filtered through the leaves of the roadside trees like a sheet of burnished silver.

filter down/through/out, etc.
[C2] to gradually become known

Dictionary example:
News is filtering in of an earthquake in Mexico.

Learner example:
At first I didn’t realise what Nicole was saying, because she spoke French. Then the message slowly filtered down – Pregnant.

NOUN [c]
[C2] a piece of equipment that you pass a liquid or gas through in order to remove particular substances

Dictionary example:
a coffee filter

Learner example:
Finally, the governments of all countries should implement heavy pecuniary punishments to the factory owners who do not use special filters on their chimneys or on their waste systems.
filthy /ˈfɪl.θi/

ADJECTIVE

DIRTY
[C1] extremely dirty

Dictionary example:
Wash your hands, they’re filthy!

Learner example:
Creaking, worn-out beds, dripping taps and filthy rugs have nothing in common with ‘luxury’!

OFFENSIVE
[C1] rude or offensive

Dictionary examples:
filthy language/jokes
Smoking is a filthy habit.

Learner example:
As far as books are concerned, pornography and filthy language is evident everywhere, to lure people to buy these books.

final /ˈfaɪ.nəl/

Word family:
Nouns: final
Adjectives: final
Adverbs: finally

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

NO MORE DISCUSSION
[C2] If a decision, agreement, or answer is final, it will not be changed or discussed any more.

Dictionary example:
The committee’s decision is final.

Learner example:
It was the sort of statement that you know is final, and Mr. Cameron perceived this.

NOUN [C]
[B1] the last in a series of games, races or competitions, usually the one in which the winner is chosen
Dictionary examples:
They're in the final.
Last year we got through to the final.
The men's basketball final will be on Sunday.

Learner example:
We were in the final, but we lost.

finally /ˈfai.nə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: final
Adjectives: final Adverbs: finally

ADVERB

LAST POINT
[B1] used especially at the beginning of a sentence to introduce the last point or idea

Dictionary example:
Finally, I'd like to thank everyone for coming this evening.

Learner example:
Finally, I want you to say hi [to] everybody and I am looking forward to see[ing] you.

finance /ˈfæ.nənts/

Word family:
Nouns: finance
Verbs: finance
Adjectives: financial Adverbs: financially

NOUN

CONTROL OF MONEY
[B2] [u] the control of how large amounts of money should be spent

Dictionary examples:
the finance minister
You need to speak to someone in the finance department.
The finance committee controls the school's budget.

Learner example:
Therefore we decided to invite a minist[er] of finance to explain it.
sb’s finances
[B2] the money which a person, company or country has

Dictionary examples:
We keep a tight control on the organization's finances.
She needs to sort out her finances.

Learner example:
First of all, we should budget our finances better.

VERB [v]
[B2] to provide the money needed for something to happen

Dictionary example:
The local authority has refused to finance the scheme.

Learner example:
I [am] apply[ing] for this job because I want to earn some money to finance my study.

financial /'fɛɪn.ən.tʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: finance
Verbs: finance
Adjectives: financial Adverbs: financially

ADJECTIVE
[B1] relating to money or how money is managed

Dictionary examples:
They’re having a few financial difficulties at the moment.
a financial adviser

Learner example:
The person described himself as a financial officer of a South African government and needs a contact person in Switzerland to transfer 200 m dollar[s].

financially /'fɛɪn.ən.tʃəli/

Word family:
Nouns: finance
Verbs: finance
Adjectives: financial Adverbs: financially

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that relates to money or how money is managed
Dictionary example:
He's still financially dependent on his parents.

Learner example:
They advise them or help them financially.

find /faind/

VERB [T] (found, found)

BECOME AWARE
[B1] to become aware that something exists or has happened

Dictionary examples:
We came home to find (that) the cat had had kittens.
I found (that) I could easily swim 1000 metres.

Learner example:
I found that the food inside there is very nice.

find sb/sth easy/boring/funny, etc.
[B1] to think or feel a particular way about someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Do you find Clive difficult to talk to?
She doesn't find it easy to talk about her problems.
I find living in the city quite stressful.
I found her very helpful.

Learner example:
I found it very amusing.

find the money/time, etc.
[B1] to have or get enough money/time, etc. to do something

Dictionary example:
Where do you find the money to do all these things?

Learner example:
I hope you will keep fit and find the time to do everything.

find yourself somewhere/doing sth [B2] to become aware that you have gone somewhere or done something without intending to

Dictionary example:
I suddenly found myself making lunch.
Learner example:
The most embarrassing moment of my life [was] when, during a school trip to Paris, a friend of mine and I went to the wrong room and found ourselves in front of our teacher who, having had a shower, was looking for his glasses.

be found
[B2] to exist or be present somewhere

Dictionary examples:
Many plant and animal species are found only in the rainforests.
Vitamin C is found in citrus fruit.

Learner example:
An example might be the [k]oala bear, which could be found almost everywhere in Australia not so long ago.

find sb guilty/not guilty
[B2] to judge that someone is guilty or not guilty in a law court

Dictionary example:
She was found guilty of murder.

Learner example:
To the surprise of everyone in the village, the judge found her guilty but didn't send her to jail because he thought she should take care of Linda, who had no other relatives.

find fault with sb/sth
[C2] to criticize someone or something, especially without good reasons

Dictionary example:
She was always finding fault with our work.

Learner example:
Sometimes I take offence at their trying to find fault with me and I am not allowed to answer back.

find common ground
[C2] to find shared beliefs, interests or ideas

Dictionary example:
It's difficult for me to find any common ground with my dad.

Learner example:
The bottom line is we have to find some common ground and some balance between development and nature...

fine /fain/

Word family:
Adjectives: fine
Adverbs: finely
ADJECTIVE

SUNNY

[B1] sunny and not raining

Dictionary example:
If it’s fine tomorrow, we could have a picnic.

Learner example:
Today the weather is fine and warm.

EXEMPLARY

[B2] excellent or much better than average

Dictionary examples:
fine wines
This building is the finest example of its type.

Learner example:
There [we] will be served a fine dinner.

THIN

[C2] thin or made of very small pieces

Dictionary examples:
fine, brown hair fine sand

Learner example:
They got their hands on some anthrax bacteria, grew them in petri dishes and with all her knowledge in biology managed to make anthrax spores. Her friends ground the clumps of spores into fine particles.

NOUN [C]

[B1] an amount of money that you must pay for breaking a rule or law

Dictionary examples:
She had to pay a fine.
a parking fine
The maximum penalty is a $1000 fine.
If found guilty, he faces a heavy fine.

Learner example:
She was made to pay a fine and she wasn't sent to prison.

VERB [T]

[B2] to charge someone an amount of money as a punishment for not obeying a rule or law

Dictionary examples:
Drivers who break the speed limit can expect to be fined heavily.
They fined him $100 for using threatening behaviour.
Learner example:
Besides, you can be fined by the police.

ADVERB

[B2] very well or without any problems

Dictionary examples:
"How did your exam go?" "It went fine, I think."
The car was working fine yesterday.

Learner example:
The couple was great and everything went fine.

finely /ˈfain.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: fine
Adverbs: finely

ADVERB

[B2] into small pieces

Dictionary example:
Finely chop the onion.

finger /ˈfɪŋ.gər/

NOUN [C]

keep your fingers crossed/ cross your fingers INFORMAL [C2] to hope that things will happen in the way that you want them to

Dictionary examples:
Let's keep our fingers crossed that she gets the job.
We're crossing our fingers and hoping that the weather stays fine.

Learner example:
Wish me luck, Winnie," she sighed "keep your fingers crossed, please".

put your finger on sth
[C2] to understand exactly why a situation is the way it is

Dictionary example:
Something was wrong, but I couldn't put my finger on it.

Learner example:
Something sinister about the picture, he felt, but he couldn't put his finger on what made him [think this].
have/keep your finger on the pulse [C2] to be/stay familiar with the most recent changes or improvements

Dictionary example:
The situation changes daily, so you’ve got to keep your finger on the pulse.

Learner example:
It wouldn't be clever to hire people who are completely ignorant about music and they must constantly keep their finger on the pulse of [the] music industry.

fingernail /ˈfɪŋ.gə.neɪl/ (also nail)

NOUN [C]
[B2] the hard part that covers and protects the top of the end of your finger

Dictionary examples:
dirty/long fingernails
She had bright red fingernails.

Learner example:
Half way through dinner we had discussed almost everything about him: his lips, fingernails, how he would look in swimming pants, how he would dance etc.

fingertip /ˈfɪŋ.gə.tɪp/

NOUN [C]

at your fingertips
[C2] If you have something at your fingertips, you can get it and use it very easily.

Dictionary example:
He had all the information needed at his fingertips.

Learner example:
An Internet connection literally means having the world at your fingertips.

finish /ˈfɪn.ɪʃ/

VERB

USE COMPLETELY
[B1] [t] to eat, drink or use something completely so that none remains
Dictionary examples:
He finished his coffee and left.
We finished the pie last night.

Learner example:
After Maria finished her coffee, she got the man's phone and left the cafe.

finish first/second, etc.

[B1] to be in the first/second, etc. winning position at the end of a race or competition

Dictionary example:
Her horse finished fourth.

Learner example:
I finished third; it is good even if we were only 7.

NOUN [c]

LAST PART

[B1] the end of a race, or the last part of something

Dictionary examples:
a close finish
They replayed the finish in slow motion.

Learner example:
We [had] a race and I [came] second [at] the finish.

from start to finish

[C1] from the beginning of something to its end

Dictionary example:
I enjoyed the film from start to finish.

Learner example:
I found out that the service itself should last at least one and half hour[s] from start to finish.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>finite</th>
<th>/ˈfaɪ.naɪt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Adjectives: finite, infinite

Adverbs: infinitely

ADJECTIVE

[C2] having a limit or end

Dictionary example:
We only have a finite amount of time to complete this task.
Learner example:
Some analysts suggest that the price increase is due to the facts that petrol is a finite resource which could become unavailable in the next 20–30 years.

fire /ˈfaɪər/

NOUN

catch fire
[B1] to start burning

Dictionary example:
The car crashed and caught fire.

Learner example:
One of the new machines that I had brought from Germany had caught fire.

on fire
[B1] If something is on fire, it is burning when it should not be.

Dictionary example:
If your home was on fire and you could save only one thing, what would it be?

Learner example:
A lot of bu[i]ildings were on fire.

NATURAL HEAT
[B1] [c] a small controlled fire that is used for heating or cooking

Dictionary examples:
It's very cold in here – should I light a fire?
We built a fire on the beach.
We put up our tents and made a small fire.

Learner example:
In the evenings we sat down [o]n the grass round a fire and talked to each other.

SHOOTING
[C2] [u] the shooting of guns and other weapons

Dictionary example:
The soldiers opened fire.

Learner example:
Suddenly, one of the thieves opened fire.

come under fire
[C2] to be criticized
Dictionary example:
The government has come under fire for closing the hospital.

set fire to sth; set sth on fire
[C2] to make something start burning, usually to cause damage

Dictionary example:
Enemy troops set fire to the village.

Learner example:
At this point nothing made sense anymore, so I just watched while Jake set the car on fire.

play with fire
[C2] to be involved in an activity that could be dangerous

Dictionary example:
We're playing with fire if we continue with genetic modification of our food.

Learner example:
Stop playing with fire or World War 3 might come in [the] shape of a nuclear war.

VERB

SHOOT
[B2] [I or T] to cause a weapon to shoot bullets, arrows or missiles

Dictionary examples:
He fired his gun into the air.
He fired three shots.
Someone started firing at us.
Without warning he started firing into the crowd.

Learner example:
Martins found Lime on an iron staircase and fired a last shot, killing Lime.

REMOVE FROM A JOB
[B2] [T OFTEN PASSIVE] INFORMAL to tell someone they must leave their job

Dictionary examples:
She was fired after she was caught stealing from her employer.
He was fired from his last job for poor performance.
She has just been fired as editor of the newspaper.

Learner example:
Last month I was fired from my job in a bank.

fire sb's imagination
[C2] to make someone very excited or interested in something

Dictionary example:
His paintings really fired my imagination.
Learner example:
The newspaper article on education that I read really fired my imagination and urged me to think about the points raised.

fire brigade /ˈfaɪə.brɪˌgeɪd/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]

[B2] an organization that is in charge of preventing and stopping unwanted fires

Dictionary example:
Call the fire brigade.

Learner example:
By that time the fire brigade had arrived – luckily some neighbour had phoned them.

firefighter /ˈfaɪəˌfaɪ.tər/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a person whose job is to stop fires from burning

Dictionary example:
His cousin works as a firefighter.

Learner example:
We could see firefighters and ambulances coming from all over the premises!

fireplace /ˈfaɪə.pleɪs/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a space in the wall of a room where you can have a fire, or the structure around this space

Dictionary example:
There was a large fireplace in the living room.

Learner example:
They were sitting in front of the fireplace, in a tiny cottage.

fire station /ˈfaɪəˌstɛr.ʃən/

NOUN [c]

[B1] the building where fire engines are kept and firefighters wait for emergencies
Dictionary example:
We visited our local fire station.

Learner example:
I only saw Mr. Bean from my classroom window – they were filming him running to the fire station.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>firework</th>
<th>/ˈfaɪə.wɜːk/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [C]

[B1] a small object that explodes to produce a loud noise and bright colours, often used to celebrate special events

Dictionary examples:
a firework display
When it gets dark we'll let off/set off the fireworks.
What time do the fireworks start?

Learner example:
We have spent three days [at] Disneyland, watching fireworks every night.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>firm</th>
<th>/fɜːm/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Adjectives: firm
Adverbs: firmly

ADJECTIVE

NOT SOFT

[B2] not soft, but not completely hard

Dictionary example:
A firm bed is better for your back.

FIXED

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] certain or fixed and not likely to change

Dictionary examples:
We don’t have any firm plans for the weekend yet.
I’m a firm believer in equal rights.

Learner example:
It is my firm belief that I would use all the experience I have.

STRICT

[C2] strict and making certain that people do what you want
Dictionary example:
You've got to be firm with children.

Learner example:
Being an officer, my father was rather firm with my sister and me.

STRONG

[C2] strong and tight

Dictionary example:
a firm handshake/grip

Learner example:
Of course there will be moments where you have to mark out a border to the child by a firm grip on his arm or a slap on his bottom, but it shouldn't have to happen very often.

NOUN [C]

[B1] a company or business

Dictionary examples:
He works for a law firm called Neil and Vigliano.
He's just started working for an accountancy firm/a firm of accountants in Bristol.

Learner example:
I have to improve my knowledge of English because I have the opportunity to work for an English law firm.

ADVERB

CERTAINLY

[B2] in a way that is certain or fixed

Dictionary example:
I firmly believe that we must take action on this.

Learner example:
I firmly believe that some of the things you mentioned are wrong.

STRONGLY

[B2] strongly; in a way that will not become loose

Dictionary example:
Make sure the rope is firmly attached before attempting to climb down it.
Learner example:
Slowly but firmly I grabbed the door handle, took another quick glance in the room, and turned it.

first /fɜːst/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: first</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: first</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: first, firstly</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

at first sight
[B2] when you first see or hear about something or someone

Dictionary examples:
It was love at first sight!
It may, at first sight, seem a surprising choice.

Learner example:
It was love at first sight!

in the first place
[B2] at the start of a situation

Dictionary example:
Why did you invite her in the first place?

Learner example:
In the first place, you were unknown people for me, but now you are my special foreign friends.

ADVERB

FIRST TIME
[B1] for the first time

Dictionary examples:
When did you first meet each other?
I first heard the song on the radio.

Learner example:
I first heard of it on the radio and then I saw a leaflet about it.

at first
[B1] at the beginning of a situation or period of time

Dictionary example:
At first I thought she was unfriendly, but actually she’s just shy.
Learner example:
At first, when I arrived I was very nervous because I didn't know anyone, but then a girl started talking to me and I felt better.

first and foremost
[C1] more than anything else

Dictionary example:
In spite of being elected to office, she remains first and foremost a writer.

Learner example:
First and foremost it is my longing to help others with what they cannot do for themselves.

come first
[C1] to be the most important person or thing

Dictionary example:
Her career always comes first.

Learner example:
They do not take the time to sit down and enjoy being with their family. The work comes first, and the family next.

put sb/sth first [C2] to consider someone or something to be the most important thing

Dictionary example:
Most couples put their children first when sorting out their problems.

Learner example:
On the other hand, we forget about our personality and the worth that we have as individuals; we put our wishes first, [rather] than what we really need in life.

NOUN

the first
[B1] the first person or thing to do or be something, or the first person or thing mentioned

Dictionary examples:
Tonight sees the first of three documentaries about cancer.
She was one of the first to arrive.
He is the first to admit that much of his success is due to his good looks.

Learner example:
I prefer the first because it's an exciting story of a cat that escapes from a dangerous house lived [in] by an aggressive dog.

be a first [C2] to be something that has never happened before
Dictionary example:
Man walking on the moon was a first in space history.

first-floor /ˈfɜːst.flɔː/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] on the first floor

Dictionary example:
a first-floor flat/apartment/office first language /ˌfɜːstˈlæŋ.gwɪdʒ/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the language that someone learns to speak first

Dictionary example:
Madeleine's first language is French, but she also speaks German fluently.

Learner example:
Originally I come from Germany and therefore my first language is German.

firstly /ˈfɜːst.li/

Word family:
Nouns: first
Adjectives: first Adverbs: first, firstly

ADVERB (ALSO first)
[B2] used to refer to the first thing in a list

Dictionary example:
There are two very good reasons why we can't do it. Firstly, we don't have enough money, and secondly, we don't have enough time.

Learner example:
I think it [would] suit us, firstly because it is good work experience, [and] secondly [because] we can get discounts on books and CDs.
fish /fish/

Word family:
Nouns: fish, fishing
Verbs: fish

VERB [i]
[B1] to try to catch fish

Dictionary example:
They're fishing for tuna.

Learner example:
In the countryside the air is pure and you can fish in lakes or walk in fields.

fisherman /ˈfɪʃ.ə.mən/

NOUN [c] (plural fishermen)
[B2] someone who catches fish as a job or as a hobby

Dictionary example:
Local fishermen are finding it difficult to make a living.

Learner example:
His father was a fisherman and he died working just a few days before he was born, so the child had never met him.

fist /fɪst/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a hand closed into a ball with the fingers and thumb curled tightly together

Dictionary example:
He banged his fist down angrily on the table.

Learner example:
He slammed his fists against the door and yelled out several times but to no response.

fit /fɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: fitness
Adjectives: fit
VERB (‘tt–)

CORRECT SIZE

[B1] [I or T] to be the right size or shape for someone or something

Dictionary examples:
That jacket fits you perfectly.
These jeans don't fit me any more.
I can't find a lid to fit this jar.

Learner example:
Sometimes I like the style and colour but when I wear them I see that they don't fit me.

fit (sth) in/into/through/under, etc.

[B1] If people or things fit somewhere, or if you can fit them somewhere, that place is big enough for them.

Dictionary examples:
How many people can you fit in your car?
This radio is small enough to fit into my pocket.

Learner example:
The desk has to be very small and has to fit into the corner, because there is not much space left in my bedroom.

PUT IN POSITION

[B2] [T] to put or fix something somewhere

Dictionary examples:
All the carpets we sell are fitted free.
You ought to fit a smoke alarm in the kitchen.

Learner example:
The air pollution could be reduced if car manufacturers and companies made [people] fit effective filters on car exhausts and factory chimneys.

SAME

[C1] [I or T] to be the same as or like something

Dictionary example:
She seems to fit the police description.

Learner example:
The accommodation I had during the trip didn't fit the description in the advertisement and neither did the restaurants or the cultural activities.

SUITABLE

[C1] [T] to be suitable for something

Dictionary example:
The punishment should fit the crime.
Learner example:
You ought to put on a formal dress or suit to fit the atmosphere.

ADJECTIVE (fitter, fittest)

SUITABLE
[C1] of a good enough quality or suitable type for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
Is this water fit to drink?
She’s not in a fit state to drive.

Learner example:
It has undergone restoration recently and is now fit to serve as a perfect example of a model and modern British college library.

do sth as you see/think fit
[C2] to do something that you feel is the right thing to do, although other people might disapprove

Dictionary example:
You must spend the money as you see fit.

Learner example:
Do as you think fit!

---

fitness /ˈfɪt.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: fitness
Adjectives: fit

NOUN [u]
[B1] the condition of being physically strong and healthy

Dictionary example:
I’m trying to improve my fitness by cycling to work.

Learner example:
I specially like fitness lessons.

---

fix /fɪks/

Word family:
Verbs: fix
Adjectives: fixed
VERB [T]

REPAIR
[B1] to repair something

Dictionary example:
They couldn't fix my old computer, so I bought a new one.

Learner example:
I had an accident [yesterday] and I need to fix my car.

DECIDE
[B2] to decide a certain and exact date, time, place, price, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Shall we fix a time for our next meeting?
They haven't fixed a date for the wedding yet.

Learner example:
If you are busy at that time, you can call them to fix a new date.

fix sth onto/to/under, etc.
[B2] to fasten something in position so that it cannot move

Dictionary example:
We fixed the bookcase to the wall.

Learner example:
The seat was not fixed to the flo[or] properly.

fixed /fɪkst/

Word family:
Verbs: fix
Adjectives: fixed

ADJECTIVE

ARRANGED
[B2] arranged or decided already and not able to be changed

Dictionary examples:
a fixed price
fixed interest rates

Learner example:
Usually you have a fixed time to listen [to] live music, but what if you are not able to go to the concert?
EYES
[C2] If your eyes are fixed on something, you are looking at it continuously.

Dictionary example:
I kept my eyes fixed on his face.

Learner example:
Dozens of eyes were fixed on the sun-burnt, leaden coloured face of the guide, beaming with anticipation.

flag /flæg/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a piece of cloth with a special design and colours, that is the symbol of a country or a group, or has a particular meaning

Dictionary examples:
the French flag
Flags of all twenty-seven countries are flying outside the building.
The guard waved his flag and the train pulled away from the station.

Learner example:
And about my present from the USA: I really would like to have an authentic American flag, to decorate my bedroom ceiling.

flair /fleər/

NOUN

ABILITY
[C1] [NO PLURAL] a natural ability to do something well

Dictionary example:
She has a flair for languages.

Learner example:
She’s an artist with a flair for promotion.

STYLE
[C2] [u] when you do something in an exciting and interesting way

Dictionary example:
He played with great imagination and flair.

Learner example:
If I must describe the service I should say that it is superb: the gentle waiters serve with flair as if it was a culinary cabaret.
flame /fleɪm/

NOUN [c]
[B2] hot, bright, burning gas produced by something on fire

Dictionary examples:
The flames grew larger as the fire spread.
When the fire engine arrived the house was already in flames.

Learner example:
We were standing by the window and the flames were [getting] nearer and nearer.

burst into flames
[C2] to suddenly start burning

Dictionary example:
The car plunged down a hill and burst into flames.

Learner example:
When we turned it on, it burst into flames and before we could extinguish it, the fire destroyed my desk.

flash /flæʃ/

VERB

SHINE
[B2] [I or T] to shine brightly and suddenly, or to make something shine in this way

Dictionary examples:
Stop flashing that light in my eyes!
The lightning flashed and distant thunder rolled.
You’d better slow down, that car was flashing (its lights) at you.

Learner example:
As they were driving back, a light flashed, a crash sounded, then screams.

APPEAR
[C2] [I or T] (also flash up) to appear for a short time, or to make something appear for a short time

Dictionary example:
An icon flashed up on the screen.

flash by/past/through, etc.
[C2] to move somewhere fast
Dictionary examples:
The motorcycle flashed past us and around the corner.
The image flashed across my screen.

Learner example:
But one day an idea flashed through her mind.

NOUN

BRIGHT LIGHT

[B2] [c] a sudden bright light

Dictionary example:
The bomb exploded in a flash of yellow light.

Learner example:
At the same moment, that piece of unknown stuff sent towards me a flash of very bright light!

CAMERA

[B2] [c or u] a piece of camera equipment that produces a bright light when you take a photograph in a dark place

Dictionary example:
Flash photography is not permitted anywhere in the museum.

In a flash

[C2] INFORMAL immediately, or very quickly

Dictionary example:
I'll be back in a flash.

Learner example:
He took it and, in a flash, he came up to the surface.

SUDDEN EXPERIENCE

[C2] [c] a sudden experience of something such as a feeling or idea

Dictionary examples:
a flash of anger
I had a flash of inspiration.

flashback /ˈflæʃ.bæk/

NOUN [c]

MEMORY

[C2] when you suddenly remember something that happened in the past, often something bad
Dictionary example:
She suffered from flashbacks for years after the accident.

Learner example:
Margaret started to remember, yes; a sudden flashback brought her to the twenties, when she was still her mamma's little girl, all innocence and curls.

STORY
[C2] part of a film or book that goes back in time to something that happened before the main story began

Dictionary example:
There are several flashbacks to the character's childhood.

Learner example:
Another way of increasing the reader's interest is the parallelism of both stories and the flashbacks she is always giving us to explain Olivia's experiences.

flat /flæt/

Word family:
Verbs: flatten
Adjectives: flat
Adverbs: flat

ADJECTIVE (flatter, flattest)

LEVEL
[B1] level and smooth, with no curved, high, or hollow parts

Dictionary examples:
An ice rink needs to be completely flat.
Roll out the pastry on a flat surface.
Much of the countryside in East Anglia is very flat.

Learner example:
The countryside is very flat and for this kind of holiday it's really perfect!!

LOW
[B1] Flat shoes do not raise your feet far from the ground.

Dictionary example:
Wear flat shoes – you’ll be on your feet all day.

Learner example:
In your last letter you wanted me to tell you about clothes. Well, as you know I'm tall so I always wear flat shoes in light colours like white, light green and blue.

WITHOUT AIR
[B2] If a tyre, ball, etc. is flat, it does not contain enough air.
Dictionary example:
When I got to the car, I discovered I had a flat tyre.

Learner example:
I found my bicycle with a flat tyre and realised I would be late instead of early.

WITHOUT GAS
[C2] If a drink is flat, it does not contain enough bubbles of gas.

Dictionary example:
This lemonade is flat.

ADVERB (flatter, flattest)

LEVEL
[B2] in a level position, often against another surface

Dictionary example:
Lay the cloth flat across the table.

fall flat on your face
[B2] to fall over so that your face hits the ground, often in an embarrassing way

Dictionary example:
I stepped on the ice and fell flat on my face.

Learner example:
You can guess what happened next – I fell flat on my face right in the mud and I have never felt more embarrassed in my life!

fall flat
[C1] If an event or joke falls flat, it fails to have the effect that you wanted, such as making people laugh.

Dictionary example:
All the jokes in his speech fell flat.

Learner example:
The cultural visits fell flat [in comparison] to their expectations, although the sightseeing tour of Willstown was, as the students said, "fascinating".

flatten /ˈflæt.ən/

Word family:
Verbs: flatten
Adjectives: flat
Adverbs: flat

VERB [I or T]
[C2] to become flat or to make something become flat
Dictionary example:
Roll out the dough into balls and flatten them slightly.

Learner example:
Another thing they accomplished was to stop people cutting [down] trees because they wanted to flatten [the] land.

flavour /ˈfleɪ.vər/

NOUN

TASTE
[B1] [c or u] how food or drink tastes, or a particular taste itself

Dictionary examples:
Add a little salt to bring out the flavour of the herbs.
My fish was delicious but Juan's beef had almost no flavour.
We sell 32 different flavours of ice cream.

Learner example:
The only downside of our grandparents' diet was a lack of choice: there wasn't all this variety we have today, like "zillions" of flavours of ice-cream.

QUALITY
[C2] [NO PLURAL] a particular quality or style that something has

Dictionary example:
London has a very international flavour.

Learner example:
People of different colours, smells, and cultures, musicians, funny shows on the pavement for a pound, hippies, homeless people doing hairwraps, tat[t]ooing tourists' limbs, selling earrings... there, you could live a hundred experiences without moving an inch and you could go back home with a real flavour of the Festival.

flaw /flɔː:/

Word family:
Nouns: flaw
Adjectives: flawed, flawless

NOUN [C]
[C1] a mistake or bad characteristic that stops someone or something from being perfect

Dictionary example:
There's a flaw in your reasoning.
Learner example: However, there were some minor flaws which I would like to give my view on.

flawed /flɔːd/

Word family:
Nouns: flaw
Adjectives: flawed, flawless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not perfect, or containing mistakes

Dictionary examples:
Diamonds are still valuable, even when they are flawed.
His argument is deeply flawed.

Learner example:
Some people see society as it stands today as inherently flawed, an amorphous group of people who follow and worship anyone that gives them pleasure and empty dreams of perfection.

flawless /ˈflɔː.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: flaw
Adjectives: flawed, flawless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] with no mistakes or bad characteristics

Dictionary example:
a flawless complexion

Learner example:
All in all, it is a classic comedy with memorable dialog[ue] and flawless performances.

flee /fliː/

VERB [I or T] (fleeing, fled)
[C1] to leave a place quickly because you are in danger or are afraid

Dictionary example:
Police think the suspect has now fled the country.

Learner example:
Of course most people on those boats were fleeing their country for religious or political reasons but I would have left Europe for the spirit of adventure.
fleet /fliːt/

NOUN [c]

SHIPS

[C1] a group of ships, or all of the ships in a country's navy

Dictionary example:
The entire naval fleet was used for the operation.

Learner example:
The Spartans order the people of Athens to destroy their city walls and most of their remaining fleet.

VEHICLES

[C1] a group of vehicles that are owned and controlled by one person or organization

Dictionary example:
a fleet of aircraft/cars

Learner example:
In a simplified scenario one can consider when one has a fleet of cars, some manual and other automatic, and a pool of drivers who can only drive one type of car.

flesh /fleʃ/

NOUN [u]

BODY

[C2] the soft part of a person's or animal's body between the skin and bones

Dictionary example:
Large thorns dug into my flesh.

Learner example:
It smelled of rotting flesh.

your own flesh and blood

[C2] a member of your family

Dictionary example:
I can't hate him – he's my own flesh and blood.

Learner example:
On the other hand, another problem old people have to face is a feeling of [not] being useful to society and what proves this is that they are put into old people's homes even by their own flesh and blood.
flexibility /ˌflek.siˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: flexibility
Adjectives: flexible

NOUN [u]

[B2] the ability to change or be changed easily according to the situation

Dictionary example:
The advantage of this system is its flexibility.

Learner example:
Further personal strengths are good communication skills, [being a] good team player and flexibility.

---

flexible /ˈflek.sə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: flexibility
Adjectives: flexible

ADJECTIVE

ABLE TO CHANGE
[B2] able to change or be changed easily according to the situation

Dictionary examples:
My schedule is quite flexible – I could arrange to meet with you any day next week.
I’d like a job with more flexible working hours.

Learner example:
In the advertisement it is said that you will have a lot of spare time but actually, you have flexible working hours and you never know whether you will have free time.

ABLE TO BEND
[C2] able to bend or to be bent easily

Dictionary examples:
The cover is made of flexible plastic.
Dancers and gymnasts need to be very flexible.

Learner example:
Another physical [requirement] is a flexible body. Flexibility and agility will be crucial factor[s] [in] whether you will succeed or not.
flick /flɪk/

VERB

flick through s.th. PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to look quickly at the pages of a magazine, book, etc.

Dictionary example:
I was just flicking through a magazine.

Learner example:
Last week I happened to flick through a classical music magazine and was lucky enough to see an ad [saying that] the artist, or the pianist–conductor, would be performing all Beethoven’s symphonies and piano concertos with the orchestra from next January.

flight /flaɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: flight
Verbs: fly

NOUN [C] a flight of stairs/steps

[C2] a set of stairs

Dictionary example:
The lift was broken so we had to climb six flights of stairs.

Learner example:
He still blamed himself for hit[ting] his little girl and making her fall down a flight of stairs and injuring her spine.

float /fləʊt/

VERB

NOT SINK
[B1] [I or T] to stay on the surface of a liquid and not sink, or to make something do this

Dictionary examples:
Leaves were floating on the surface.
We spent a lazy afternoon floating along/down the river.
He tossed the bottle into the waves and watched it float out to sea.
Learner example:
Finally we were floating on the sea, admiring the famous bay.

MOVE IN AIR

[B1] [i] to stay in the air, or move gently through the air

Dictionary examples:
Fluffy white clouds were floating across the sky.
The sound of piano-playing floated out through the open window.

Learner example:
Suddenly, I saw a “thing” floating by the window, making noises and like nothing human.

---

flood  /flʌd/

VERB [i or T]

COVER WITH WATER

[B1] If a place floods or is flooded, it becomes covered in water.

Dictionary examples:
The town was flooded when the river burst its banks.
Our washing machine broke down yesterday and flooded the kitchen.

Learner example:
The city was flooded and too many people were dead.

ARRIVE OR FILL

[B2] to fill or enter a place in large numbers or amounts

Dictionary examples:
She drew back the curtains and the sunlight came flooding in.
Shoppers flooded into the store on the first morning of the sale.

Learner example:
The Square is flooded with local merchants selling local food, folkloric clothing, and local wines.

NOUN [C]

WATER

[B1] a large amount of water covering an area that is usually dry

Dictionary example:
After the flood it took weeks for the water level to go down.

Learner example:
It was windy and raining with lots of floods.

AMOUNT

[C2] a large number or amount of things or people that arrive at the same time
Dictionary example:
a flood of letters/calls

Learner example:
The sea of familiar faces brought a flood of memories rushing back.

floor /flɔː/
NOUN [C]
AREA
[B1] an area where a particular activity happens

Dictionary example:
a dance floor
Learner example:
It has got a very big dance floor with a skillful jazz band.

floppy /ˈflɒp.i/
ADJECTIVE
[C2] soft and loose or hanging down loosely

Dictionary example:
a floppy hat
Learner example:
That puppy was the cutest thing: a tiny body, with floppy ears, a curious wet nose that wanted to sniff everything on its way, and huge cheerful eyes.

flour /flaʊə/
NOUN [U]
[B1] powder made from grain, especially wheat, used for making bread, cakes, pasta, pastry, etc.

Dictionary example:
Add the flour to the eggs and milk.
Learner example:
He told the family that it was arsenic in the flour.
flourish /ˈflʌr.ɪʃ/

VERB

[C2] [i] to grow or develop well

Dictionary example:
The company soon began to flourish under his expert management.

Learner example:
If parents try to understand why their children act the way they do and treat them with love and affection, then teenagers will flourish like flowers in the spring sunshine!

flow /fləʊ/

Word family:
Nouns: flow
Verbs: flow, overflow

VERB [i]

[B1] If something such as a liquid flows, it moves somewhere in a smooth, continuous way.

Dictionary examples:
The river flows from the Andes into the Pacific Ocean.
With fewer cars on the roads, traffic is flowing more smoothly than usual.

Learner example:
There are many lakes around there, all made by the melt[ed] ice that flows down the mountains.

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

MOVEMENT

[C1] when something flows in one direction

Dictionary examples:
the flow of a river
the flow of traffic

Learner example:
So, a possible solution is to build more roads and optimally design the roads and their subways, to make the flow of cars on [the] road quicker.

go with the flow INFORMAL

[C2] to do or accept what other people are doing because it is the easiest thing to do

Dictionary example:
Just relax and go with the flow!
Learner example:
At this stage of her progress towards knowing herself better she has accepted that life is a muddle and that to a certain extent one has to go with the flow.

flu /flu:/

NOUN [u]

[B1] an infectious illness which is like a very bad cold, but which causes a fever

Dictionary examples:
a flu virus
I had the flu last week.

Learner example:
I hope you’re fine and you don’t have the flu any more.

fluctuate /ˈflʌk.tʃu.eɪt/

VERB [i]

[C2] to keep changing, especially in level or amount

Dictionary example:
Oil prices have fluctuated wildly in recent weeks.

Learner example:
About 60% of people aged between 35–49 like[d] going to [the] cinema at least once a year in 1990 and the percentages grew steadily to 1996, but afterwards, it fluctuated a bit.

fluency /ˈfluː.ən.tsi/

Word family:

Nouns: fluency
Adjectives: fluent
Adverbs: fluently

NOUN [u]

[B2] when someone is fluent in a language

Dictionary example:
One of the requirements of the job is fluency in two or more African languages.

Learner example:
So it is of the utmost importance for me to go to England in [the] very near future in order to improve my fluency in English.
fluent /ˈfluː.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: fluency
Adjectives: fluent
Adverbs: fluently

ABILITY

[B2] able to use a language naturally without stopping or making mistakes

Dictionary examples:
She's fluent in French.
He's a fluent Russian speaker.

Learner example:
I am fluent in French and English.

LANGUAGE

[B2] produced or done in a smooth, natural style

Dictionary example:
He speaks fluent Chinese.

Learner example:
I speak fluent English and German.

fluently /ˈfluː.ənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: fluency
Adjectives: fluent
Adverbs: fluently

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that is fluent

Dictionary example:
I'd like to speak English fluently.

Learner example:
I can speak both English and Japanese fluently.
fluid /ˈfluː.id/

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] a liquid

Dictionary examples:
cleaning fluid
Drink plenty of fluids.

Learner example:
Healthy eating habits consist of lots of fruit and vegetables, calcium-rich products such as milk or cheese and plenty of fluid[s].

ADJECTIVE

[C2] smooth and continuous

Dictionary example:
fluid movements

Learner example:
The third-person narration is fluid and delicate and enables us to gradually discover the characters’ personalities and their reactions to the situations they are involved in.

---

flute /fluːt/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a musical instrument in the shape of a tube that is held out to the side and played by blowing across a hole at one end

Dictionary example:
Ellen started learning the flute at the age of 12.

Learner example:
Now I know [the] history of [the] violin, flute, cello, viola, oboe, etc.

---

fly /flaɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: flight
Verbs: fly

VERB (flew, flown)

CONTROL AIRCRAFT

[B2] [ɪ or ə] to control an aircraft or other vehicle in air or space
Dictionary example:
She learned to fly at the age of 18.

Learner example:
Louise, you are the only one who can fly this spaceship now.

with flying colours
[C1] with a very high score or with great success

Dictionary example:
He passed the entrance exam with flying colours.

Learner example:
I worked intens[ive]ly on the course and I passed with flying colours.

TIME
[C2] [i] If time flies, it passes very quickly.

Dictionary example:
There was plenty to do, and the time flew.

Learner example:
But you have to enjoy it because time flies, and you will be old before you know it!

TAKE/SEND
[C2] [t] to take or send people or goods somewhere by aircraft

Dictionary example:
She was flown to hospital by helicopter.

Learner example:
All supplies are flown in daily from Paris in order to ensure the highest quality available.

fly in the face of  SLIGHTLY FORMAL
[C2] to be the opposite of what is usual or accepted

Dictionary example:
These recommendations fly in the face of previous advice on safe limits of consumption.

Learner example:
But when we have a look outside our wonderful world, we can easily see that this argument flies in the face of the facts.

NOUN [c]

[B1] a small insect with two wings

Dictionary example:
There were a lot of flies around.

Learner example:
In the afternoon we were just lying like dead flies on our beds.
focus /ˈfəʊ.kəs/

NOUN

the focus of sth
[C1] the person or thing that is getting most attention in a situation or activity

Dictionary examples:
He is the focus of a police investigation.
In any family, a baby tends to be the focus of attention.

Learner example:
The focus of the human being and society is changing, such that more resources are put into building roads, controlling traffic and aiming at having the best transportation system as possible, while giving less attention to the more important areas of a society's well-being such as health and education.

[C2] [U] when you give special attention to something

Dictionary examples:
Their main focus must be on reducing crime.
The media focus on politicians’ private lives switches the attention away from the real issues.

Learner example:
The focus on their careers make[s] them forget about their co–workers, which creates a harsh and cold work environment.

VERB

focus (sth) on/upon sb/sth PHRASAL VERB [B2] to give a lot of attention to one particular person, subject or thing

Dictionary examples:
Tonight’s programme focuses on the way that homelessness affects the young.
When the kitchen is finished I’m going to focus my attention on the garden and get that sorted out.

Learner example:
As you have probably guessed already, we are mainly interested in action movies and movies that focus on brutality and aggression.

fold /fəʊld/

Word family:
Nouns: folder
Verbs: fold
VERB [I or T]

[B1] If you fold paper, cloth, etc., you bend it so that one part of it lies flat on top of another part.

Dictionary examples:
I folded the letter in half and put it in an envelope.
Will you help me to fold up the sheets?
He had a neatly folded handkerchief in his jacket pocket.

Learner example:
And the next morning, I was here again to help them folding their stuff.

folder /ˈfəʊldər/

Word family:
Nouns: folder
Verbs: fold

NOUN [C]

ON COMPUTER

[B1] a place on a computer where particular files are kept

Dictionary example:
I made a new folder on the C drive.

Learner example:
Computers are very important because we work with them, [and] we keep our secret folders and files in [them].

folk /fəʊk/

NOUN [U]

[B1] music written and played in a traditional style

Dictionary example:
There are several venues for folk and jazz in the city.

Learner example:
I can sing most kinds of songs, such as pop music, folk.

ADJECTIVE

folk art/dancing, etc.

[B1] the traditional style of art, dancing, etc. among a particular group of people
Dictionary example:
She’s studied the folk art of the region.

Learner example:
There are a lot of folk stories in Lithuania, [and] I would like to tell you one of them.

follow /ˈfɒləʊ/

Word family:
Nouns: following, follower
Verbs: follow
Adjectives: following

VERB

HAPPEN AFTER
[B1] [i or ɪ] to happen or come after something

Dictionary examples:
There was a bang, followed by a cloud of smoke.
The meal consisted of smoked salmon, followed by Welsh lamb.
We were not prepared for the events that followed.

Learner example:
In the first lesson we started with some games, followed by work activities, like role plays and presentations.

OBEY
[B1] [ɪ] to do what someone or something says you should do

Dictionary examples:
Follow the instructions on the back of the packet carefully.
I decided to follow her advice and go to bed early.
I was just following orders.

Learner example:
I think I should follow her advice, shouldn’t I?

UNDERSTAND
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to understand something

Dictionary example:
Could you repeat that? I didn’t quite follow what you said.

Learner example:
It is very hard to follow the lesson because I can’t concentrate on the vocabulary.

as follows
[B2] used to introduce a list or description
Dictionary example:
The main reasons are as follows.

Learner example:
The summary of relevant points and recommendations are as follows: 1. Both of them are located in the centre of town.

BE INTERESTED

[C1] [ɪˈnɜːst] to be interested in an event or activity and watch its progress

Dictionary example:
I followed the trial closely.

Learner example:
I was happy to know you follow our national news.

it follows that

[C2] used to say that if one thing is true, another thing will also be true

Dictionary example:
He's big, but it doesn't follow that he's strong.

Learner example:
It follows that they too do not have enough time.

follow sb's example/lead

[C2] to copy someone's behaviour or ideas

Dictionary example:
You should follow Meg's example and tidy your room.

Learner example:
Thus they are encouraged to follow their example and change their character for ever.

follow in sb's footsteps

[C2] to do the same job or the same things in your life as someone else, especially a member of your family

Dictionary example:
He followed in his father's footsteps and became an actor.

Learner example:
Her step-granddaughter gets fascinated with Olivia's story and this fascination draws her to India to follow in her footsteps.

follow suit

[C2] to do the same as someone else has just done

Dictionary example:
If other shops lower their prices, we will have to follow suit.
Learner example:
Bitten by an insurmountable curiosity she goes to India to [find out] about her and she even follows suit: she ends up [in] the Himalayas [a]s driven by a strong desire to know more.

follower /ˈfɒl.əʊ.ə/

Word family:
Nouns: following, follower
Verbs: follow
Adjectives: following

NOUN [c]
[C2] someone who believes in a particular person or set of ideas

Dictionary example:
a follower of Jesus

Learner example:
Having been a devoted follower of the GDR’s political system and having spent the collapse of this very system in a coma in hospital, once she wakes up, Christane has to be sheltered from the new developments.

following /ˈfɒl.əʊ.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: following, follower
Verbs: follow
Adjectives: following

PREPOSITION
[B2] after or as a result of

Dictionary examples:
Following the dinner, there will be a dance.
He died on October 23rd, following several years of illness.

Learner example:
Following the course in England, I worked in an office that sells computer programs and games as a secretary to earn money and with the help of this job, I gained experience in office work.

ADJECTIVE

the following day/morning, etc.
[B1] the next day/morning, etc.

Dictionary example:
We met again the following afternoon.
Learner example:
I could give it back to you the following day.

NOUN

the following
[B2] what comes next, often used to introduce a list, report, etc.

Dictionary example:
The following is an extract from her diary.

Learner example:
Regarding your questions, the following are my answers.

---

fond /fɒnd/

ADJECTIVE

be fond of sb/sth
[B1] to like someone or something

Dictionary examples:
She was very fond of horses.
I'm very fond of her.
My brother is fond of pointing out my mistakes.

Learner example:
My boyfriend is very fond of cycling.

---

HAPPY

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] expressing or causing happy feelings

Dictionary example:
Many of us have fond memories of our childhoods.

Learner example:
I will keep fond memories of the two nights I have spent with you.

---

fool /fuːl/

Word family:
Nouns: fool
Verbs: fool
Adjectives: foolish
Adverbs: foolishly
NOUN

[PERSON] [B1] [c] a stupid person

Dictionary examples:
I was a fool to trust him.
I felt a complete fool.
He's a fool if he thinks she's interested.

Learner example:
When I heard my favourite song, I jumped like a crazy fool and everybody looked at me.

make a fool (out) of sb [B2] to make someone look stupid intentionally

Dictionary example:
She was always trying to make a fool out of me in front of my friends.

Learner example:
He thought I had tried to make a fool of him but no, I was really desperate to get him as my boyfriend.

make a fool of yourself
[B2] to behave in a silly or embarrassing way

Dictionary example:
I got very excited and made a fool of myself.

Learner example:
I had to leave that shop in full embarrassment and I also made a fool of myself.

VERB [T]

[B2] to trick someone

Dictionary examples:
Don't be fooled by his appearance.
She said she was doing it to help me but I wasn't fooled.
Tim was fooled into believing that he'd won a lot of money.

Learner example:
I don't like to be fooled.

foolish /ˈfuː.lɪʃ/
ADJECTIVE

[B2] stupid and not wise

Dictionary examples:
It would be foolish to pay more.
I thought I might look foolish if I refused.

Learner example:
She looked foolish because of the mistakes she [had] made.

foolishly /ˈfuː.lɪʃ.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: fool
Verbs: fool
Adjectives: foolish
Adverbs: foolishly

ADVERB

[B2] in a foolish way, or because of being foolish

Dictionary example:
Foolishly, I didn’t write the phone number down.

Learner example:
I was fourteen and foolishly in love with a blonde girl [in] my class to whom I had only spoken twice.

foot /fʊt/ (PLURAL feet)

NOUN [C]

MEASUREMENT

[B1] a unit of measurement, equal to twelve inches or 0.3048 metres

Dictionary examples:
The man was standing only a few feet away.
She is five feet/foot three inches tall.
She is 5’ 3” tall.

Learner example:
The room is about 150 square feet, rectangular in shape, with a window opposite the door and a pair of sliding doors to the balcony at one end.

the foot of sth

[C1] the bottom of something such as stairs, a hill, a bed, or a page
Dictionary example:
Put the notes at the foot of the page.

Learner example:
Every year, expedition–groups from almost every country meet at the foot of the highest mountain in the world to conquer it.

set foot in/on sth
[C1] to go into a place or onto a piece of land

Dictionary example:
He told me never to set foot in his house again.

Learner example:
I dream of being the first one to set foot on a white sandy beach, to admire a new kind of vegetation: cranberry bushes, sweet potatoes, wild turkeys, a different climate; how scary and exciting at the same time!

put your foot down
[C2] to tell someone in a strong way that they must do something or must stop doing something

Dictionary example:
I decided to put my foot down with my staff and insist that they do not send personal emails in work time.

Learner example:
Finally, I would like to appeal to other readers of the 'Cyprus Weekly', who might even be living near my area, to put your foot down and apply any pressure you can on people who can do something about the situation.

put your foot in it [C2] to say something silly or embarrassing, without intending to

Dictionary example:
I really put my foot in it with your mum – I didn’t know she was a teacher herself.

Learner example:
I had really put my foot in it by telling Richard that it would better for him not to come to the party.

get off/start on the wrong foot
[C2] to start a relationship or activity badly

Dictionary example:
He got off on the wrong foot with my parents by arriving late.

Learner example:
One of the greatest pleasures of reading "The Remains of the Day" would be to see the gradual development of the relationship between Stevens and Miss Kenton. From the beginning, they get off on the wrong foot.
get/rise to your feet
[C2] to stand up after you have been sitting

Dictionary example:
The audience rose to their feet.

Learner example:
The capacity crowd rose to their feet to cheer Dylan and his band; since then I understood why his fans worship him like a god.

put your feet up
[C2] to relax, especially by sitting with your feet supported above the ground

Dictionary example:
Put your feet up for half an hour before the kids get home.

Learner example:
You have done your work and now you can put your feet up.

footstep /ˈfʊt.step/

NOUN
[C1] [c] the sound of a foot hitting the ground when someone walks

Dictionary example:
I heard footsteps behind me and quickly turned round.

Learner example:
In Stockholm people [walk] – the streets are [thi]ck with people and you can even hear their footsteps!

follow in sb's footsteps
[C2] to do the same job or the same things in your life as someone else, especially a member of your family

Dictionary example:
He followed in his father's footsteps and became an actor.

Learner example:
Her step-granddaughter gets fascinated with Olivia's story and this fascination draws her to India to follow in her footsteps.
for /fɔː/"}

PREPOSITION
HELP
[B1] in order to help someone

Dictionary example:
I'll carry those bags for you.

Learner example:
I'd like to do something helpful for them.

REPRESENTING
[B1] being employed by or representing a company, country, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She works for a charity.
He plays football for Cambridge United.
He used to swim for his country when he was younger.

Learner example:
He works for a company in Mexico.

for ever
[B1] always in the future

Dictionary example:
I'm not going to live here for ever.

Learner example:
My friend was leaving the city for ever and [going] to a city in another country.

for fun or for the fun of it
[B1] for pleasure and not for any other reason

Dictionary example:
I ran but just for fun.

Learner example:
Fortunately I discovered that [the email] wasn't for me. I didn't appreciate that there were people that were sending things like that just for fun.

for sure
[B1] without any doubts

Dictionary examples:
I think he's Canadian but I don't know for sure.
One thing's for sure – once the baby's born, your lives will never be the same again.

Learner example:
For sure, you'll love Brazil.
for instance
[B1] for example

Dictionary example:
In the electronics industry, for instance, 5000 jobs are being lost.

Learner example:
For instance, you can do mountain walks.

SUPPORT
[B2] in support of or in agreement with

Dictionary examples:
I voted for the Greens at the last election.
So let's hear some applause for these talented young performers.

Learner example:
There are a lot of votes for and against keeping animals in cages.

for the moment
[B2] If you do something for the moment, you are doing it now, but might do something different in the future.

Dictionary example:
Let's carry on with what we agreed for the moment.

Learner example:
For the moment I am unemployed so I have plenty of time to give [you] a hand.

for once
[B2] used to mean that something is happening that does not usually happen

Dictionary example:
For once, the bus came on time.

Learner example:
We would take lots of pictures, and play our own instruments, and if we get lucky enough, we would even touch the very stones and for once be embraced by magic itself.

for real [B2] taken seriously, not pretended

Dictionary example:
I thought it was just a practice, but apparently it was for real.

Learner example:
You know I am a Casanova, but this time I know [it] is for real.

RESPONSIBILITY
[C1] used to say whose responsibility something is

Dictionary example:
I can't tell you whether you should go or not – that's for you to decide.
Learner example:
It is for you to decide whether my colleagues should take part in this kind of course or not, but all in all I would like to recommend this course.

COMPARE
[C1] when compared to a particular fact

Dictionary example:
She’s quite tall for her age.

Learner example:
She spends all day indoors "stuffing" her craving for knowledge with books quite hard for her age.

for good
[C1] forever

Dictionary example:
When he was 20, he left home for good.

Learner example:
He was renting this property previously, but he went back to Sri Lanka for good.

for life
[C1] for the whole of someone's life

Dictionary example:
I will have to take this medicine for life.

Learner example:
A wedding opens a new life when the two parties commit to each other for life.

for long
[C1] for a long time

Dictionary example:
Have you been waiting for long?

Learner example:
There're departures every half an hour to the city centre, so you won't have to wait for long.

for the most part [C1] mostly or usually

Dictionary example:
I enjoyed it for the most part.

Learner example:
First of all, for the most part, people have to use computers in their jobs.

for the time being [C1] for now but not permanently
Dictionary examples:
I'm living with my parents for the time being.
Leave the ironing for the time being – I'll do it later.

Learner example:
I think that is all for the time being.

for a start
[C1] used when you are giving the first in a list of reasons or things

Dictionary example:
I won't be going – I've got too much homework for a start.

Learner example:
So this creates an awareness of the obligation to look after oneself for a start.

for all [C2] despite

Dictionary example:
For all her qualifications, she's useless at the job.

Learner example:
For all of his desire to be strong, Okonkwo is haunted [by] fear.

for sb's benefit
[C2] in order to help someone

Dictionary example:
We bought the piano for the children's benefit.

Learner example:
Needless to say, I hope you take [all this] into consideration not only for Gustavo's benefit, but also for the benefit of the astronaut training programme and the world.

for the best
[C2] If something is for the best, it seems unpleasant now, but will improve a situation in the future.

Dictionary example:
Divorce is always painful, but it really was for the best.

Learner example:
It's a kind of sad thing to think about but maybe it's for the best.

for fear of sth/doing sth
[C2] because you are worried about something/doing something

Dictionary example:
I didn't want to move for fear of waking her up.

Learner example:
No one dared to turn around for fear of being bitterly disappointed.
for one thing
[C2] used to give a reason for something

Dictionary example:
You can't give Amy that shirt – for one thing it's too small for her.

Learner example:
Well, for one thing, you cannot spy on your subjects 24 hours a day – they would not allow it, and it would be prohibitively expensive.

forbid /fəˈbɪd/ (forbidding, forbade, forbidden)

Word family:
Verbs: forbid
Adjectives: forbidden

VERB [T]
[B2] to order someone not to do something, or to say that something must not happen

Dictionary examples:
I forbid you to see that boy again!
The law forbids the sale of cigarettes to underage people.
He is forbidden from leaving the country.

Learner example:
But the worst effect is when someone is driving a car and [is at] the same time talking [on a] mobile phone: today, there is a law which forbids it.

forbidden /fəˈbɪ.d.ən/

Word family:
Verbs: forbid
Adjectives: forbidden

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not allowed, especially by law

Dictionary example:
Smoking is forbidden in the cinema.

Learner example:
She explained to me how this school works, what is allowed and what is forbidden.
force /foːs/

Word family:
Nouns: force
Verbs: force
Adjectives: forceful

NOUN

POWER
[B2] [u] physical strength or power

Dictionary examples:
The force of the wind had brought down a great many trees in the area. The army seized power by force. Teachers aren't allowed to use force in controlling their pupils.

Learner example:
I understood that someone had entered [my house] by force and had stolen my television.

GROUP
[B2] [c] a group of people organized to work together for a particular purpose, for example in military service

Dictionary examples:
the security forces
the work force
He joined the police force straight after school.

Learner example:
Donald Wood [was] risking his life and that of his family in the process of reporting the vile crimes of the SA. police force.

INFLUENCE
[C2] [c or u] power and influence, or a person or thing that has it

Dictionary example:
the forces of good/evil

Learner example:
Each boy is a battleground where the forces of confusion wage war on the forces of good.

a force to be reckoned with [C2] a very powerful person or organization

Dictionary example:
His Dad is a force to be reckoned with.

Learner example:
No longer a remote, backward, unimportant country, it became a force to be reckoned with in Europe.
join forces
[C2] When two people or groups join forces, they act or work together.

Dictionary example:
She joined forces with her sister-in-law to set up a restaurant.

Learner example:
The second proposal is that we join forces with Green Peace in picketing the refinery, this of course is up to the individual members.

in/into force
[C2] If a law, rule, etc. is in force, it is being used, and if it comes into force, it starts to be used.

Dictionary example:
The new law came into force in April.

Learner example:
Perhaps with the coming of the millen[n]ium, new laws would come into force and less corruption would do people a lot of good and perhaps the dream of a better and blooming future would become [a] reality with peace all over the planet.

VERB [T]

give no choice
[B2] to make someone do something that they do not want to do

Dictionary examples:
You can't force her to make a decision.
I had to force myself to finish the match.
I didn't actually want any more dessert, but Julia forced it on me.

Learner example:
By participating in such games you force yourself to do your best.

use power
[C2] to use physical strength or effort to make something move or open

Dictionary examples:
Move your leg up gently when you're doing this exercise, but don't force it.
If you force the zip, it'll break.
She forced the window open.

Learner example:
They forced the door, entered the house and found Mary under the effect of drugs and h[er] boyfriend on the floor dead.
forceful

/ˈfɔːs.fəl/

Word family:

Nouns: force

Verbs: force

Adjectives: forceful

ADJECTIVE

[C2] expressing opinions strongly and demanding attention or action

Dictionary example:

a forceful manner/personality

Learner example:

But she was a forceful woman who knew how to deal with her problems.

forecast

/ˈfɔː.kɑːst/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a report saying what the weather is likely to be like

Dictionary example:

The weather forecast said it was going to rain later today.

Learner example:

The weather forecast is not so good for the next two days: rain and wind.

forehead

/ˈfɔː.hed/

NOUN [C]

[B1] the flat part of the face, above the eyes and below the hair

Dictionary example:

She's got a high forehead.

Learner example:

Suddenly, the girl found herself in front of the man, holding a gun against her forehead.

foreign

/ˈfɔr.ən/

Word family:

Nouns: foreigner

Adjectives: foreign
ADJECTIVE

OTHER COUNTRIES
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] relating to or dealing with countries that are not your own

Dictionary examples:
foreign policy
the Foreign Minister

Learner example:
She is also extrao[r]dinary in that she graduated from Harvard University and Tokyo University and used to work for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as a senior civil servant.

be foreign to sb
[C2] to be something you know nothing about or do not understand

Dictionary example:
The concept of loyalty is completely foreign to him.

Learner example:
But, vulgarity was foreign to his nature and he seemed to be merely a shy man.

foreigner /ˈfɒr.ə.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: foreigner
Adjectives: foreign

NOUN [c]
[B1] a person who comes from another country

Dictionary example:
I was so obviously a foreigner.

Learner example:
I started my new English class last week, because I really want to master English for my dream, to teach Japanese for foreigners.

foremost /ˈfoʊ.məʊst/

ADVERB

first and foremost
[C1] more than anything else

Dictionary example:
In spite of being elected to office, she remains first and foremost a writer.
Learner example:
First and foremost it is my longing to help others with what they cannot do for themselves.

ADJECTIVE FORMAL
[C2] most important

Dictionary example:
He’s one of the country’s foremost experts on military law.

Learner example:
At the beginning of Lord of the flies we find out [about] one of the main characters, whose foremost feature is the fact that he is "different from the other boys".

foresee  /fɔːˈsiː/
Word family:
Verbs: foresee
Adjectives: foreseeable, unforeseen

VERB [T] (foreseeing, foresaw, foreseen)
[C1] to expect a future situation or event

Dictionary example:
I don’t foresee any problems in the future.

Learner example:
Our duty is to foresee any complication before it appears.

foreseeable  /fɔːˈsiː.ə.bl/
Word family:
Verbs: foresee
Adjectives: foreseeable, unforeseen

ADJECTIVE
for/in the foreseeable future
[C2] as far in the future as you can imagine

Dictionary example:
Prices will remain high for the foreseeable future.

Learner example:
But in my view these same jobs will find themselves subjected to the same pressures and thus will have the same destiny in the foreseeable future.
forever (also for ever) /fəˈre.vər/

ADVERB

IN FUTURE

[B1] for all time in the future

Dictionary example:
I'll love you forever.

Learner example:
I'll keep it forever in my memory!

A LONG TIME

[B2] for an extremely long time or too much time

Dictionary example:
We'd better walk a bit quicker – it's going to take forever if we go this slowly.

Learner example:
It would take forever.

forgery /ˈfɔː.dʒər.i/

NOUN

COPY

[C2] [c] an illegal copy of a document, painting, etc.

Dictionary example:
The passport was clearly a forgery.

CRIME

[C2] [u] the crime of making an illegal copy of something

Dictionary example:
The doctor was convicted on two charges of forgery.

Learner example:
Frank remembered his dark past, when he committed forgery.

forget /fəˈget/ (forgetting, forgot, forgotten)

Word family:
Verbs: forget
Adjectives: unforgettable
NOT DO

[B1] [I or T] to not remember to do something

Dictionary examples:
I've forgotten to phone Jan.
Dad's always forgetting to take his pills.

Learner example:
I nearly forgot to tell you that the film is going to be on TV on the 15th of August.

NOT REMEMBER

[B1] [I or T] to be unable to remember a fact, something that happened, or how to do something

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry, I've forgotten your name.
I completely forgot about Gemma's party.
I've forgotten what you do next.
I've forgotten how to operate this thing.
She's forgotten that Lucy was coming round.

Learner example:
Although I finished intermediate class last month, I really want to learn English and I wouldn't like to forget what I have just learnt.

STOP THINKING

[B1] [T] to stop thinking about someone or something

Dictionary example:
I'll never forget him for as long as I live.

Learner example:
But there are two things that I'll never forget: the taste of ostrich meat and egg, and the dolphins in the wonderful ocean.

forget it

[B2] used to tell someone not to worry about something as it is not important

Dictionary example:
"I'm sorry I missed your birthday." "Forget it, it doesn't matter."

Learner example:
The teacher finally told me: "Forget it, it doesn't matter", and I felt so stupid that I couldn't do anything save going away.

I forget

[C2] used instead of 'I have forgotten'
Dictionary example:
I forget when we last saw him.

Learner example:
At one of those family gatherings in our house – I forget what the precise occasion was, because it is quite some time ago – all of us were sitting round the big square table in our dining room and enjoying the delicious cakes that my mother had prepared the day before, while we exchanged the latest news.

forgive /fəˈgɪv/ (forgave, forgiven)

Word family:
Nouns: forgiveness
Verbs: forgive

VERB [I or T]

NOT BE ANGRY
[B1] to decide not to be angry with someone for something they have done, or not to punish them for something they have done

Dictionary examples:
She never forgave her mother for lying to her.
He had betrayed her and she never forgave him.
I'd never forgive myself if anything happened to the kids.

Learner example:
I will never forgive him.

forgive me FORMAL [B2] used before you ask or say something that might seem rude

Dictionary example:
Forgive me for asking, but how much did you pay for your bag?

Learner example:
Forgive me if I have made it seem so funny, but I'm telling you you should have seen his face.

forgiveness /fəˈgɪv.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: forgiveness
Verbs: forgive

NOUN [U]
[C2] when you forgive someone for something they have done
Dictionary example:
They begged her for forgiveness.

Learner example:
She gave me a panicked look of abashment and begged for my forgiveness.

---

form  /fɔːm/

Word family:
Nouns: form, formation, transformation
Verbs: form, transform

NOUN [c]

GRAMMAR

[B1] a way of writing or saying a word that shows if it is singular or plural, past or present, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The continuous form of 'stand' is 'standing'.
'Hers' is the possessive form of 'her'.
'Isn't' is the short form of 'is not'.

SCHOOL GROUP

[B1] a school class or group of classes for students of the same age or ability

Dictionary example:
He's in the third form.

Learner example:
I was about 11 years old and I was in the sixth and last form of elementary.

TYPE

[B2] a type of something

Dictionary examples:
Swimming is the best form of exercise.
a rare form of cancer

Learner example:
Bicycle fans say that cycling is a very good form of exercise.

in the form of sth

[C1] the particular way in which something appears or exists

Dictionary examples:
The novel is written in the form of a series of letters.
The medicine comes in the form of a liquid or pills.
Learner example:
For all this, I can only say that I want my money back immediately, or [some] compensation in the form of a real trip to a real country.

Be on (good) form
[C2] If someone is in form or on form, they are feeling or performing well, and if they are off form they are not feeling or performing well.

Dictionary example:
Harry was on good form last night.

Verb

Combine
[B1] [r] to make something by combining different parts

Dictionary example:
In English, you form the present participle by adding –ing to the verb.

Begin to exist
[B2] [I T OFTEN PASSIVE] to begin to exist or to make something begin to exist

Dictionary examples:
We are learning more about how stars are formed.
A solution began to form in her mind.

Learner example:
You [are] only [attached] to material values and your life-style is formed by earning money.

Start
[B2] [r] to start an organization or business

Dictionary example:
She formed her own company eleven years ago.

Learner example:
Many organizations were formed to protect the now endangered species, and people began to ask themselves: are zoos necessary?

Shape
[C2] [I or r] to take or to make something take a particular shape

Dictionary examples:
Hold hands and form a circle.
Form the dough into little balls.

Learner example:
The girl’s mother had baked the biggest cake the little girl had ever seen and covered it with a lot of cream and 10 candles [which] formed a heart in the middle.
form an opinion/impression, etc.
[C2] to begin to have a particular opinion or idea about something because of the information you have

Dictionary example:
I formed the opinion that I was not really welcome there any more.

Learner example:
Young people are at the mercy of several ide[o]logical spectrums that dominate them and prevent them from forming an objective opinion.

BE
[C2] [ɪ] to be the thing talked about or be part of it

Dictionary examples:
The Alps form a natural barrier between Italy and Switzerland.
Her diary forms the basis of the book.

Learner example:
Someone tried to drink the water that had formed a puddle [o]n the ground but ended up with a mouthful of moist yellow–tinted mud.

formal /ˈfoː.məl/

Word family:
Adjectives: formal, informal
Adverbs: formally, informally

ADJECTIVE

SERIOUS AND CORRECT
[B2] describes language, clothes and behaviour that are serious and correct

Dictionary example:
a formal dinner party

Learner example:
You don’t need to wear formal clothes.

STUDY
[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] Formal education, training, etc. happens through studying rather than working in a job.

Dictionary example:
Tom had little formal schooling.

Learner example:
I never had any formal training in computers but I know how to operate the system, to make files and to use [the] internet.
OFFICIAL
[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] public or official

Dictionary example:
a formal announcement/apology

Learner example:
For that reason, I have to ask you for a formal apology in print, where you could give the correct version of events and also change the bad image you gave to the readers of the people of my organisation.

formally /ˈfɔː.məl.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: formal, informal
Adverbs: formally, informally

ADVERB

OFFICIALLY
[C1] officially

Dictionary example:
The deal will be formally announced on Tuesday.

Learner example:
First of all I'll tell you a little about the ceremony. It's usually held in a church, (in our case, a Catholic one as we are Catholics); the priest reads some parts of the Bible to the bridegroom (that's usually chosen before with the couple); then they exchange rings and they'll be formally married.

POLITUely
[C1] in a polite way

Dictionary example:
They shook hands formally.

Learner example:
On New Year's Day all members in a family got together (members who lived separately came home), greeted [each other] more formally than usual, and ate the special food.

format /ˈfɔː.mæt/

noun [c]
[C1] the way something is designed, arranged, or produced
Dictionary example:
This year’s event will have a new format.

Learner example:
There is one particular format which has been consistently on air almost without any adjustments: the soap opera.

formation /fɔːˈmeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: form, formation, transformation
Verbs: form, transform

NOUN

DEVELOPMENT
[C2] the development of something into a particular thing or shape

Dictionary example:
the formation of a crystal

Learner example:
Due to the heat from the sun, the sea water evaporates and this leads to the formation of clouds as the water condenses as it gets higher.

SHAPE
[C2] when something has a particular shape or things are arranged in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
rock/cloud formations
The planes flew overhead in formation.

Learner example:
The cave had the most incredible ice formation I had ever seen.

former /ˈfɔː.mər/

Word family:
Adjectives: former
Adverbs: formerly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] happening, existing or true in the past but not now
Dictionary examples:
his former wife
a former employer
the former president of the United States

Learner example:
And in my town [there] is also a new Italian restaurant. It's own[ed] by my mother's former colleague.

PRONOUN

the former [B2] the first of two people, things or groups previously mentioned

Dictionary example:
Of the two suggestions, I prefer the former.

Learner example:
The former is a Chinese restaurant and the latter an Indian.

formerly /ˈfɔː.mə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: former Adverbs: formerly

ADVERB FORMAL

[B2] in the past

Dictionary example:
The European Union was formerly called the European Community.

Learner example:
He was a hero in Japan, formerly known as the ungifted pupil from Switzerland.

formidable /fɔːˈmɪd.ə.bl/

ADJECTIVE

POWERFUL

[C2] strong, powerful, and a bit frightening

Dictionary example:
a formidable woman

Learner example:
I suppose that this optimism supports her formidable pioneer-spirit and energy.

1167
DIFFICULT
[C2] difficult and needing a lot of effort or thought

Dictionary example:
a formidable task

Learner example:
You could feel like a fish out of water whenever you are with your colleagues or find yourself out of place and being depressed when faced with formidable tasks which are not appealing to you at all.

formula /ˈfɔː.mə.lə/

NOUN [C] (plural formulas, formulae)

METHOD
[C1] a plan or method that is used to achieve something

Dictionary example:
There's no magic formula for success.

Learner example:
Every member of his company works as a group, rather than an individual, which is the main formula for his company's success.

RULE
[C1] a set of letters, numbers, or symbols that are used to express a mathematical or scientific rule

Dictionary example:
a mathematical formula

Learner example:
[The] teacher will play a role [in] explaining new terminology to the trainees and give a clue [as to] how different scientific equations and formulae are being used.

formulate /ˈfɔː.mə.leɪt/

VERB [T]

PLAN
[C2] to develop all the details of a plan for doing something

Dictionary example:
They formulated a plan to save the company.
Learner example:
Having discussed this matter, we formulated three basic suggestions and we [e]valuated the advantages of each of them.

SAY
[C2] to say what you think or feel after thinking carefully

Dictionary example:
to formulate an answer/reply

Learner example:
Montag is now thinking by himself and realises that he is able to formulate his own opinion.

forthcoming /ˈfɔːθ.kʌm.ɪŋ/
ADJECTIVE
HAPPENING SOON
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] happening soon

Dictionary example:
We have just received the information about the forthcoming conference.

Learner example:
I am writing this letter so as to give you the information which will help you organize all the necessary details of the forthcoming holiday.

OFFERED
[C1] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] If money or help is forthcoming, it is offered or given.

Dictionary example:
He insisted that no more money would be forthcoming.

Learner example:
For all these reasons, I'm sure you realise that I deserve at the very minimum to be refunded all the money I spent on the trip and unless this is forthcoming, I shall take the matter a step further.

fortnight /ˈfɔːt.naɪt/
NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[B1] a period of two weeks

Dictionary examples:
a fortnight's holiday once a fortnight a fortnight ago
Learner example:
I need it only for a fortnight to visit my Grandfather. I'm going to return it on 23[rd] of December.

fortunate ˈfɔː.tʃə.nət/

Word family:
- Nouns: fortune, misfortune
- Adjectives: fortunate, unfortunate
- Adverbs: fortunately, unfortunately

ADJECTIVE

[B2] lucky

Dictionary examples:
You’re very fortunate to have found such a lovely house.
It was fortunate that they had left in plenty of time.
He was fortunate in his choice of assistant.

Learner example:
I was fortunate in that I had the chance to be with children on a daily basis and learn to communicate with them.

fortunately ˈfɔː.tʃən.ə.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: fortune, misfortune
- Adjectives: fortunate, unfortunate
- Adverbs: fortunately, unfortunately

ADVERB

[B1] happening because of good luck

Dictionary example:
Fortunately, we got home before it started to rain.

Learner example:
At the moment, fortunately, the weather is fine and sunny.

fortune ˈfɔː.tʃuːn/

Word family:
- Nouns: fortune, misfortune
- Adjectives: fortunate, unfortunate
- Adverbs: fortunately, unfortunately
NOUN

MONEY

[B2] [c] a lot of money

Dictionary examples:
She made a fortune selling her story to the newspapers.
He lost a fortune gambling.
His clothes cost a fortune.

Learner example:
It really made it easier for me and it would have cost me a fortune to stay in a hotel.

LUCK

[B2] [c or u] the good or bad things that happen to you

Dictionary examples:
The family’s fortunes changed almost overnight.
I had the good fortune to meet her.

Learner example:
Everyone was rejoicing over her good fortune and she even thought that the gods up above were happy for her.

forty /ˈfoʊ.ti/

NUMBER

(be) in your forties

[B2] to be aged between 40 and 49

Dictionary example:
By the time I’m in my forties, I want to be running my own business.

Learner example:
The man was in his early forties and he looked to be a very important man.

the forties

[B2] the years from 1940–1949

Dictionary example:
Most of these people were born in the forties.

Learner example:
So, I would like you to consider buying some English comedies, like those Ealing Studios [made] in the late forties and the fifties.
forward /ˈfɔːward/

ADVERB (also forwards)

DIRECTION
[B1] towards the direction that is in front of you

Dictionary example:
She leaned forward to whisper something in my ear.

Learner example:
I had to try once again to take a step forward, gently I took a step forward.

FUTURE
[B2] towards the future

Dictionary example:
I always look forward, not back.

Learner example:
I want [you to] look a bit forward, try to imagine how you will feel in one or two years’ time.

PROGRESS
[C1] used to say that something is making progress

Dictionary example:
This is a big step forward for democracy.

Learner example:
For us, this would be a big step forward and a perfect motivation for the accountants.

foul /faʊl/

ADJECTIVE

UNPLEASANT
[C1] very dirty, or with an unpleasant smell

Dictionary example:
the foul smell of rotting fish

Learner example:
Each day early in the morning, a group of twenty persons picked up the rubbish and when we went out to go to work, the streets were as clean as if there was no strike. Anyway we had to do that if we wanted to "survive" in this foul atmosphere.

foul language
[C1] very rude and offensive words
Dictionary example:
There was a lot of foul language in the movie.

Learner example:
It is the responsibility of the parents not to fight or use any foul language in front of the kids, as they may learn and use it in front of others.

BAD
[C2] very bad or unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
foul weather
She's in a foul mood.

Learner example:
It rea[p]peared only in moments of distraction and served exclusively to increase her foul mood.

NOUN [C]
[C2] something that someone does in a sport that is not allowed by the rules

Dictionary example:
He was sent off for a vicious foul on Cooper.

Learner example:
If that happen[s], the referee has the right to interrupt the game by blowing his whistle and saying that that team has committed a foul.

found /faʊnd/

Word family:
Nouns: foundation, founder
Verbs: found

VERB [T]

START
[B2] to bring something into existence

Dictionary examples:
York was founded by the Romans in the year 71 AD.
The company was founded in 1861.

Learner example:
Red Stone was founded ten years ago.

BASE
[C2] to base something on a set of ideas or beliefs

Dictionary example:
a society founded on principles of equality
While Piggy is holding the conch, the symbol of a human community, founded on discussion, agreement and rules, and speaking up to Jack, Roger sets the rock in motion which destroys Piggy and his conch.

foundation  /ˌfounˈdeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: foundation, founder
Verbs: found

NOUN

START

[C1] [u] when an organization, state, or country is established

Dictionary example:
the foundation of a new state

Learner example:
Moreover the foundation of schools and stadiums will benefit young people.

ORGANIZATION

[C1] [c] an organization that gives money for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
the Mental Health Foundation

Learner example:
A memorable event I recently attended [was] the Barbie Ball which was held at the National History Museum in London on 1st December, to benefit the Elton John Aids Foundation.

IDEA

[C2] [c] the idea or principle that something is based on

Dictionary example:
Jefferson's document formed the foundation of a new nation.

Learner example:
Love, understanding and respect will be the foundation of [the] upbringing of my children.

be without foundation; have no foundation

[C2] FORMAL If something is without foundation, there is no proof that it is true.

Dictionary example:
The allegations are completely without foundation.
founder /ˈfaʊn.dər/

Word family:
Nouns: foundation, founder
Verbs: found

NOUN [c]
[C2] someone who establishes an organization, movement, etc.

Dictionary example:
She was one of the founders of the women's movement.

Learner example:
Moreover, this widely recognised person is not only known as a founder of Microsoft, the richest man on the planet, but also as someone who decided to give almost a half of his money to a charity and this may help many people suffering from diseases.

fountain /ˈfaʊn.tɪn/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a structure that forces water up into the air as a decoration

Dictionary example:
There is a beautiful fountain in the middle of the square.

Learner example:
The place I enjoyed the most was the park, because it had a nice atmosphere with all those happy kids, and the most terrific fountain I've ever seen.

fox /fɒks/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a wild animal like a dog with red-brown fur, a pointed nose, and a long, thick tail

Dictionary example:
A fox came in the night and killed the chickens.

Learner example:
One day, the fox attacked his animals and he shouted as much as he could.
fraction /ˈfrækʃən/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a very small number or amount

Dictionary example:
a fraction of a second

Learner example:
Both of them hit the wall almost at the same time but, against Hall’s prediction, Popou was better by a fraction of a second.

fragile /ˈfrædʒ.əl/

ADJECTIVE

BREAK

[C2] easily broken, damaged, or destroyed

Dictionary examples:
a fragile china cup
a fragile economy

Learner example:
The majority of these countries still have a very fragile economy.

PERSON

[C2] physically or emotionally weak

Dictionary example:
a fragile little girl

Learner example:
She seemed to be so fragile with an everlasting smile on her face.

fragrance /ˈfrɛr.grənts/

Word family:

Nouns: fragrance

Adjectives: fragrant

NOUN [c or u]

[C2] a pleasant smell

Dictionary example:
the delicate fragrance of roses
Learner example:
We were inundated with the fresh air, an untold fragrance mixed with the warm breeze and the unique-styled buildings.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
<th>Definition</th>
<th>Examples</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| fragrant | /ˈfreɪ.grənt/ | ADJECTIVE [C2] with a pleasant smell | Dictionary example: fragrant flowers
Learner example: From his terrace you can see the marvellous sea of Dublin Bay and appreciate the fragrant odour of the beautiful flowers that embellish the place. |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
<th>Definition</th>
<th>Examples</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| frail | /frɛl/ | ADJECTIVE [C2] not strong or healthy | Dictionary example: a frail old lady
Learner example: Looking at her, she was frail and looked confused. |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
<th>Definition</th>
<th>Examples</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| frame | /freɪm/ | NOUN [C]
BORDER [B1] a border which surrounds and supports a picture, door or window | Dictionary example: a picture/window frame
Learner example: I'm going to buy picture frames to put the pictures in and I'll put them on the wall, around my table. |
STRUCTURE

[B2] the basic structure of a building, vehicle or piece of furniture that other parts are added onto

Dictionary example:
a bicycle frame

Learner example:
In my bedroom is a big bed with a wood frame and a comfortable mattress.

frame of mind

[C2] the way someone feels at a particular time

Dictionary example:
She was in a much more positive frame of mind today.

Learner example:
Naturally, these are more difficult factors to cope with for older people, but it just happens to anyone if you're not in the right frame of mind.

framework /ˈfreɪm.wɜːk/

NOUN [C]

[C2] a system of rules, ideas, or beliefs that is used to plan or decide something

Dictionary examples:
a legal framework for resolving disputes the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages

Learner example:
They were all trying to do their best in the rigid framework of the existing system (one of them even succeeded in making the difference).

frankly /ˈfræŋ.kli/

ADVERB

[B2] used when giving an honest and direct opinion, often one that might upset someone

Dictionary example:
Quite frankly, I think this whole situation is ridiculous.

Learner example:
I'm asking this because quite frankly, it's the part of the festival that my friend and I enjoyed the most.
frantic  /ˈfræn.tɪk/

ADJECTIVE

FAST
[C2] done in a fast and excited way and not calm or organized

Dictionary example:
a frantic search

Learner example:
Fred started to shiver as frantic images of the past flashed through his mind.

WORRIED
[C2] very worried or frightened

Dictionary examples:
frantic calls for help
I got home to find Joe frantic with worry.

Learner example:
Donna's mother had heard her frantic shouts, and now said soothingly: "Have you forgotten Elaine has spent the night at her friend's house?"

fraud  /frɔːd/

Word family:
Nouns: fraud
Adjectives: fraudulent

NOUN

CRIME
[C2] [u] when someone does something illegal in order to get money

Dictionary example:
credit card fraud

Learner example:
Michael was completely speechless when he realized that Claire had all the proof of the fraud he had [committed].

TRICK
[C2] [c] someone or something that deceives people by pretending to be someone or something that they are not

Dictionary example:
She claimed to be a journalist, but she was just a fraud.
Learner example:
My marriage was a fraud, a case of bigamy.

---

fraudulent  /'frɔː.dʒə.lənt/

Word family:
Nouns: fraud
Adjectives: fraudulent

ADJECTIVE

FORMAL

[C2] dishonest and illegal

Dictionary example:
fraudulent insurance claims

Learner example:
This vice increases more and more as fanatics spend more money for sport–related topics, and so, most valuable players become more expensive and then they begin to be involved in cheating and fraudulent activities.

---

free  /friː:/

Word family:
Nouns: freedom
Adjectives: free
Adverbs: freely

ADJECTIVE

NOT LIMITED

[B2] not limited or controlled

Dictionary examples:
- a free society
- Am I free to leave now?
- People should be free to say what they think.
- The agreement gives companies free access to the markets of member countries.

Learner example:
The plan was this: they would call the police, which would trap the man so the child would be free to return to his mother.

NOT A PRISONER

[B2] not in prison

Dictionary example:
He will soon be a free man again.
Learner example:
I will [regret it] for the rest of my life, because I wanted to be a free man...

set sb/sth free
[B2] to allow someone to leave prison or to allow a person or animal to escape

Dictionary example:
He opened the cage and set the birds free.

Learner example:
To sum up, animals should be set free and live as they should live in nature.

NOT USED
[B2] not being used by anyone

Dictionary example:
Is this seat free?

Learner example:
The hall was full of people and no seat was free.

free from/of sth
[C1] not containing or having anything harmful or unpleasant

Dictionary example:
a life free from pain

Learner example:
We can start to grow new plants so that our environment looks fresh and enchanting and free from pesticides and sicknesses as well.

a free hand
[C2] permission to make your own decisions about how you want to do something

Dictionary example:
The students were given a free hand as far as designing their product was concerned.

Learner example:
But unlike my parents, I wouldn't give my children a free hand in solving their problems.

ADVERB

NO LIMIT/CONTROL
[B2] in a way that is not tied, limited, or controlled

Dictionary example:
The horse broke free and ran away.

Learner example:
If animals were born free, why [do] they have to live in a prison?

break free
[C2] to suddenly escape or become separate from something
Dictionary example:
The prisoner broke free while the guards weren't looking.

break free
[C2] to escape from someone or something that is controlling you

Dictionary example:
She tried to break free from the social conditioning of her upbringing.

Learner example:
I would like to revisit there one day as it’s firmly connected to my ad[o]lescence, when I struggled to break free from my peers, [and] tried to establish my own identity.

VERB [T]
[B2] to allow someone to leave a prison or place where they have been kept

Dictionary example:
After a ten-hour siege the gunman agreed to free the hostages.

Learner example:
We were taken hostage by a bank robber but the police came and freed us.

---

freedom /ˈfriː.dəm/

Word family:
Nouns: freedom
Adjectives: free
Adverbs: freely

NOUN [C or U]

BEING ALLOWED
[B2] the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc. whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited

Dictionary examples:
Children are allowed much more freedom these days.
I felt such a sense of freedom, up in the hills alone.
At university, you have the freedom to do what you want.
Everyone should be allowed freedom of choice.

Learner example:
[The car] gives some freedom of choice: I can move quick[ly] from one place to another, I don’t waste time on public transport and in winter [it] protects me from [the] cold and rain.

freedom from sth
[C2] a situation in which you are not suffering because of something unpleasant or harmful

---

1182
Dictionary example:
freedom from fear/poverty

Learner example:
Despite our modern medicine and the progress it has made within the last century, there is no guarantee of freedom from disease or freedom from illness.

freely /ˈfriː.li/

Word family:
Nouns: freedom
Adjectives: free
Adverbs: freely

ADVERB
[B2] without being controlled or limited

Dictionary examples:
For the first time in months she could move freely.
Exotic foods are freely available in supermarkets.
She freely admits that she was partly to blame.
We encourage the victims to talk freely about their experiences.

Learner example:
We have always been able to speak freely with each other and this letter is no exception.

freeze /friːz/

Word family:
Nouns: freezer
Verbs: freeze
Adjectives: freezing, frozen

VERB (froze, frozen)

ICE
[B1] [I or T] If something freezes or is frozen, it becomes hard and solid because it is very cold.

Dictionary examples:
Water freezes at a temperature of 0°C.
The ground had frozen hard/solid.
When the lake freezes (over), we can go skating on it.

Learner example:
Sometimes the roads [ar]e frozen and the cars cannot pass.
FOOD
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to make food last a long time by making it very cold and hard

Dictionary examples:
I'll freeze any food that's left over.
Most soups freeze well.

PERSON
[B2] [ɪ] to feel very cold

Dictionary example:
Without a sleeping bag, you would freeze to death out there on the mountainside.

Learner example:
The weather is warm in the summer but when the winter comes... get ready to freeze!

NOT MOVE
[B2] [ɪ] to suddenly stop moving, especially because you are frightened

Dictionary example:
She saw someone outside the window and froze.

Learner example:
I froze with terror.

freezer /ˈfriː.zər/

Word family:
Nouns: freezer
Verbs: freeze
Adjectives: freezing, frozen

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large container operated by electricity in which food can be frozen and stored

Dictionary example:
There's some ice cream in the freezer.

Learner example:
It is about that beautiful vase you had on the freezer in the kitchen.

freezing /ˈfriː.zɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: freezer
Verbs: freeze
Adjectives: freezing, frozen
ADJECTIVE

[B1] extremely cold

Dictionary examples:
It's absolutely freezing in here – can I close the window?
They survived for four hours in the freezing water.
After walking through the snow, my feet were freezing.

Learner example:
At the moment, I am here in England and it is absolutely freezing.

---

frenzy /ˈfren.zi/

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]

[C2] when you are so excited, nervous, or anxious that you cannot control what you are doing

Dictionary example:
She hit him in a frenzy of rage.

Learner example:
For the next thirty-two hours, a frenzy took hold of the house.

---

frequent /ˈfriː.kwənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: frequent
Adverbs: frequently

ADJECTIVE

[B1] happening often

Dictionary examples:
a frequent visitor to the US
The most frequent cause of death is heart attack.

Learner example:
I am a frequent visitor to your cinema and I really like the films you show.

---

frequently /ˈfriː.kwənt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: frequent
Adverbs: frequently
ADVERB

[B1] often

Dictionary examples:
- frequently asked questions
- I see him quite frequently.
- The buses run less/more frequently at certain times.

Learner example:
I met a beautiful girl and now we are seeing each other frequently, about twice a week.

---

fresh /frel/ ADJECTIVE

DIFFERENT

[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] new or different from what was there before

Dictionary examples:
- We're looking for fresh ideas.
- We need to take a fresh look at the problem.
- They decided to move abroad and make a fresh start.

Learner example:
In fact, it was the chance of a new life, the opportunity to make a fresh start.

CLEAN/COLD

[B1] smelling clean or feeling pleasantly cool

Dictionary example:
- a fresh smell/breeze

Learner example:
The water was wonderfully fresh.

fresh air

[B1] air outside buildings or away from the city that is clean and cool

Dictionary example:
- Let's go outside and get some fresh air.

Learner example:
I think [it] would be better [to] go to the south east to the countryside and have a nice relaxing time with lots of fresh air.

RECENT

[B2] recently made, done, arrived, etc., and especially not yet changed by time
Dictionary examples:
There was a fresh fall of snow during the night.
Some people like the smell of fresh paint, but I don't.
The events of last year are still fresh in people's minds.

Learner example:
I don't know if it is the most embarrassing moment of my life, but it is still fresh in my memory and I get embarrassed every time I think of it.

NOT TIRED
[C1] having a lot of energy and not feeling tired

Dictionary example:
We got up the next day feeling fresh and relaxed.

Learner example:
Before the test, you should have your breakfast with a cup of coffee to make yourself feel fresh.

SKIN
[C2] Fresh skin looks healthy.

Dictionary example:
a fresh complexion

Learner example:
Her eyes were blue and she had a beautiful fresh complexion.

fresh water
[C2] water from lakes, rivers, etc. that has no salt in it

Dictionary example:
These fish live in fresh water.

Learner example:
You find stunning white beaches, clear, fresh water lakes, isolated tropic islands, reef, rainforests, buzzing cities, challenging mountain range, bush, outback – and the desert.

a breath of fresh air
[C2] someone or something that is new, different, and exciting

Dictionary example:
Having Eve around has been a breath of fresh air.

Learner example:
The final suggestion is focused on building a leisure centre. Should this be everything the Town Council has promised, it will bring a breath of fresh air.
friction /ˈfrɪk.ʃən/

NOUN [u]
[C1] disagreement or dislike caused by people having different opinions

Dictionary example:
There's less friction in relationships when you use teamwork.

Learner example:
Money spent on shopping can also be the cause of friction or arguments between husbands and wives.

friend /frend/

Word family:
Nouns: friend, friendliness, friendship
Adjectives: friendly, unfriendly

NOUN [c]

be friends (with sb)
[B1] to know and like someone

Dictionary example:
I've been friends with Jo for years.

Learner example:
He was really happy too, so we began to be friends.

make friends (with sb)
[B1] to begin to know and like someone

Dictionary examples:
He finds it difficult to make friends.
He's made friends with a boy in his class called Alex.

Learner example:
Although I didn't know anyone in this club, I immediately made friends with Maria and Rosaria.

friendliness /ˈfrend.li.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: friend, friendliness, friendship
Adjectives: friendly, unfriendly

NOUN [u]
[B2] the quality of being friendly
Dictionary example:
It was the friendliness of the people that struck me.

Learner example:
Your description of the people, their everyday life, their characters and their friendliness reflects that you really had an excellent time here.

---

friendly  /ˈfrend.li/

Word family:
Nouns: friend, friendliness, friendship
Adjectives: friendly, unfriendly

ADJECTIVE

be friendly with sb
[B1] to know and like someone

Dictionary example:
Her brother is quite friendly with my brother.

Learner example:
The teacher is friendly with the students, but a bit [strict] at the same time.

---

friendship  /ˈfrendʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: friend, friendliness, friendship
Adjectives: friendly, unfriendly

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] when two people are friends

Dictionary examples:
a close friendship
I value her friendship above anything else.

Learner example:
I hope our friendship will become stronger and maybe he should become my boyfriend!

---

fright  /fraɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: fright
Verbs: frighten
Adjectives: frightened, frightening
NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C1] a sudden feeling of shock and fear

Dictionary examples:
That dog gave me a terrible fright.
She screamed in fright when she saw him.

Learner example:
She suddenly realised she was being followed, so, speechless with fright, began to stride along back to her car.

---

frighten /ˈfraɪtən/

Word family:
Nouns: fright
Verbs: frighten
Adjectives: frightened, frightening

VERB [T]
[B2] to make someone feel fear

Dictionary examples:
He frightens me when he drives so fast.
The noise frightened me to death.

Learner example:
I have no interest in lizards. Whatever their characters are, their appearance always frightens me.

---

frightened /ˈfraɪtənd/

Word family:
Nouns: fright
Verbs: frighten
Adjectives: frightened, frightening

ADJECTIVE
[B1] feeling fear or worry

Dictionary examples:
Are you frightened of spiders?
I was frightened (that) you would fall.
She gets frightened when he shouts at her.
The policewoman found a frightened child in the hut.

Learner example:
We were both frightened and didn’t know what to do.
frightening /ˈfraɪ.tən.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: fright
Verbs: frighten
Adjectives: frightened, frightening

ADJECTIVE
[B1] making you feel fear

Dictionary examples:
a frightening thought a frightening film

Learner example:
I like frightening films, so I'm going to buy it.

fringe /frɪndʒ/

NOUN [C]

HAIR
[C2] hair that is cut short and straight at the top of someone's face

Dictionary example:
Her fringe was nearly in her eyes.

Learner example:
She had a long fringe over her forehead that almost covered her pale blue eyes.

EDGE
[C2] the outside edge of an area, group, or subject and not the main part

Dictionary examples:
the southern fringe of the city
the radical fringe of the party

Learner example:
He is on the fringe of society.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] not belonging to the main part of a group, activity, or subject

Dictionary example:
fringe politics/theatre

Learner example:
Unfortunately it seems to have won "new" currency in view of the latest events directed against foreigners, minorities and fringe groups.
frog  /frɒg/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a small, green animal with long back legs for jumping that lives in or near water

Dictionary example:
The frogs down at the lake were making a lot of noise.

Learner example:
That was my favourite place, because there were ducks, some frogs, and many butterflies as well as birds.

from  /frɒm/

PREPOSITION

COMPARING
[B1] used when you are saying how similar or different two things, people or places are

Dictionary examples:
University is very different from school.
His opinion could hardly be more different from mine.
The two sisters are so similar that it's almost impossible to tell one from the other.

Learner example:
His clothes are very different from everyone else's.

CAUSE
[B2] used to show the cause of something or the reason why something happens

Dictionary examples:
He was rushed to hospital but died from his injuries.
You could tell she wasn't lying from the fear in her voice.

Learner example:
Many people have died from car accidents.

CHANGE
[B2] used to show a change in the state of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Things went from bad to worse.
She has been promoted from manager to director.
Learner example:
On the other hand the number of animals living in freedom, for example the number of tigers, elephants and lions in Africa or Asia, is decreasing more and more, because their living conditions have gone from bad to worse.

POSITION
[B2] used to show the position of something in comparison with other things, or the point of view of someone when considering a matter or problem

Dictionary examples:
From the restaurant there is a beautiful view of Siena.
She was talking from her own experience of the problem.
From our point of view, we do not see how these changes will benefit the company.

Learner example:
The job was hard, but from my point of view, it was worth [it].

PREVENTING
[B2] used to show what someone is not allowed to do or know, or what has been stopped happening

Dictionary examples:
He's been banned from driving for six months.
For many years, the truth was kept from the public.

Learner example:
Wouldn't it be better if cars were banned from the Central Business District in order to avoid traffic jams and stress?

from side to side
[B2] If something moves from side to side, it moves from left to right and back again repeatedly.

Dictionary example:
swinging from side to side

Learner example:
I began to understand it when I went [to] Kenya in 1986, because I had the wonderful chance to look at the animals in their natural [surroundings], without being in a cage, walking nervously from side to side.

from time to time
[B2] sometimes but not often

Dictionary example:
From time to time I still think of her.

Learner example:
I wash the dishes from time to time (I sometimes try to avoid this unpleasant duty) and clean our house.
a week/six months/ten years, etc. from now [B2] a week/six months/ten years, etc. after the time when you are speaking

Dictionary example:
Who knows what we'll all be doing five years from now?

Learner example:
Have you ever thought about what clothes will look like in 100 years from now?

from then/that day, etc. on [C1] starting then, that day, etc. and continuing into the future

Dictionary examples:
From then on, he began to keep all her letters and cards.
They were good friends from that day on.

Learner example:
It happened like a miracle, suddenly I could speak quite well and I had lots of friends and from then on, I had a very nice time and I lived the best experience I've ever live[d] in my short life.

from start to finish
[C1] from the beginning of something to its end

Dictionary example:
I enjoyed the film from start to finish.

Learner example:
I found out that the service itself should last at least one and half hour[s] from start to finish.

from scratch
[C1] If you do something from scratch, you do it from the beginning.

Dictionary example:
We didn't have any furniture of our own so we had to start from scratch.

Learner example:
That means you don't have to start from scratch with your teacher.

from top to bottom
[C2] completely

Dictionary example:
I've searched the house from top to bottom and still can't find it.

Learner example:
Very often we can see someone in black, from top to bottom, or in white.
front /frʌnt/

NOUN

in front
[B1] further forward than someone or something else

Dictionary examples:
The car in front suddenly stopped and I went into the back of it.
She started talking to the man in front of her.

Learner example:
As the concert finished, I heard someone call my name. I believed it was my imagination or perhaps a dream because I couldn’t see anyone in front, behind or opposite me.

back to front
[C2] with the back part of something where the front should be

Dictionary example:
You’ve got your trousers on back to front.

Learner example:
Therefore, the government needs to cut expenditure and as a result of this, health faciliti[es] will only be accessible for rich people. Then we are back to front.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] in or at the front of something

Dictionary examples:
the front door/garden
the front page of the newspaper
One of his front teeth is missing.
I’d like two seats in the front row.

Learner example:
So let’s meet at the front gate, at 9:15 pm.

frontier /frʌnˈtɪər/

NOUN

BETWEEN COUNTRIES
[C2] a line or border between two countries

Dictionary example:
They placed guards on the frontier.

Learner example:
He took it and escaped towards the German frontier.
the frontiers of sth

[C2] the limits of what is known or what has been done before in an area of knowledge or activity

Dictionary example:
the frontiers of science and technology

Learner example:
Introduction: throughout history, scientists, artists and other people tried hard to push back the frontiers of knowledge, in order to succeed in making [or] creating something that all humankind will ben[e]fit from somehow.

---

frost /frɒst/

NOUN [C or u]

[B2] a thin, white layer of ice that forms on surfaces at night when it is very cold, or a time when the temperature is very cold and water freezes

Dictionary examples:
When I woke up this morning the ground was covered with frost.
There was a frost last night.
There were a lot of hard frosts that winter.

Learner example:
Thirdly, you do not have to worry about rain, wind, frost or other bad weather conditions.

---

frown /fraʊn/

VERB [i]

SHOW ANGER

[C2] to make your face show that you are annoyed or worried by moving your eyebrows

Dictionary example:
She frowned when I mentioned his name.

Learner example:
She looked at him and frowned, strange, but he smiled back.

NOUN [c]

[C2] the expression on your face when you frown

Dictionary example:
He looked at me with a puzzled frown.
Learner example:
If you are truly devoted to your health, logic thus dictates that you will be sitting at the dinner table with an empty plate – and certainly a frown on your face.

Frozen

Word family:
Nouns: freezer
Verbs: freeze
Adjectives: freezing, frozen

Food
[B1] Frozen food has been made so that it will last a long time by freezing.

Dictionary example:
We don’t have any fresh vegetables, only frozen peas.

Learner example:
Nowadays, we do not need anymore to spend hours cooking, we just put some frozen food in the microwave, and in a few minutes our meal is ready.

Water
[B1] turned into ice

Dictionary example:
They skated over the frozen lake.

Person
[B1] informal If a person, or a part of their body is frozen, they are very cold.

Dictionary examples:
Is there any heating in here? I’m frozen!
After walking through the snow, my feet were frozen stiff.

Learner example:
I was frozen, [but] after a second I had a big silly smile on my face.

Fruit

Word family:
Nouns: fruit
Adjectives: fruitful
NOUN [C or U]

bear fruit

[C2] If something that someone does bears fruit, it produces successful results.

Dictionary example:
Our decision is just beginning to bear fruit.

Learner example:
Although a new hotel and conference centre would greatly improve the image of our town, I consider it a costly investment that might not bear fruit.

the fruit(s) of sth

[C2] the good result of someone's work or actions

Dictionary example:
This book is the fruit of 15 years’ research.

Learner example:
People work very hard to obtain their salaries or wages, so after earning their salaries they need to enjoy the fruits of their hard labour and shopping is one way of doing that.

---

fruitful /ˈfruːt.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: fruit
Adjectives: fruitful

ADJECTIVE

[C1] producing good or useful results

Dictionary example:
We had a very fruitful discussion.

Learner example:
We had a fruitful talk about his previous achievements in his first job, after which he found out how creative he was.

---

frustrated /ˈfrʌst.rə.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: frustration
Adjectives: frustrated, frustrating

ADJECTIVE

[C1] annoyed because things are not happening in the way that you want, or in the way that they should
Dictionary examples:
I'm very frustrated at/with my lack of progress.
Fans are frustrated by their lack of success this season.

Learner example:
What, however, made us very frustrated was that there was no opportunity for us to take an exam at the end of this month.

frustrating  /frʌsˈtreɪ.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: frustration
Adjectives: frustrated, frustrating

ADJECTIVE
[C1] making you feel frustrated

Dictionary examples:
a frustrating situation
It's frustrating to see money going to waste like that.

Learner example:
When you are working and you are in a hurry to get to your work place on time, waiting for the bus becomes quite annoying and frustrating.

frustration  /frʌsˈtreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: frustration
Adjectives: frustrated, frustrating

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the feeling of being annoyed because things are not happening in the way that you want, or in the way that they should

Dictionary example:
I could sense his frustration at not being able to help.

Learner example:
So we had to leave hungry and with a certain feeling of frustration and disappointment.

fry  /fraɪ/

Word family:
Verbs: fry
Adjectives: fried
VERB [I or T]

[B1] to cook food in hot oil or fat, or to be cooked in hot oil or fat

Dictionary example:
Fry the mushrooms in a little butter.

Learner example:
I was frying some chicken as my wife was trying to listen to the radio news.

frying pan /ˈfraɪ.ɪŋˌpæn/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a flat, metal pan with a long handle that is used for frying food

Dictionary example:
Chop the mushrooms and put them in the frying pan.

fuel /ˈfjuː.əl/

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a substance that is burned to provide heat or power

Dictionary examples:
Wood, coal, oil, petrol and gas are all different kinds of fuel.
unleaded fuel

Learner example:
And third, if a rising number of people use a bike instead of their car, traffic density will decrease which is, again, good for [the] environment because there [will be] fewer traffic jams [and] therefore less fuel consumption and less pollution.

fulfil /fulˈfɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: fulfilment
Verbs: fulfil
Adjectives: fulfilling

VERB (fulfilling, fulfilled) fulfil a duty/promise/responsibility, etc.

[C1] to do something that you have promised to do or that you are expected to do

Dictionary example:
He has failed to fulfil his duties as a father.
Learner example:
Therefore, she fulfils her duties carefully and precisely.

fulfil an ambition/dream/goal, etc.
[C1] to do something that you really wanted to do

Dictionary example:
She has finally fulfilled her childhood ambition to swim with dolphins.

Learner example:
For numerous football fans who seek to fulfil their ambitions in the computer world I would recommend The Cup of Life.

fulfil a function/need/role, etc.
[C1] to do something that is necessary or useful

Dictionary example:
You seem to fulfil a very useful role in the organization.

Learner example:
The reason is obviously not a lack of intelligence but mainly duties with educating children, housework and fulfilling the conservative role of women.

fulfil criteria/requirements/qualifications, etc.
[C1] to have all the qualities that are wanted or needed for something

Dictionary example:
You have to fulfil certain requirements to qualify for the competition.

Learner example:
It fulfils all the criteria expressed above, and has a swimming pool too.

fulfilling /fʊlˈfɪl.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: fulfilment
Verbs: fulfil
Adjectives: fulfilling

ADJECTIVE
[C2] If something is fulfilling, it satisfies you and makes you happy.

Dictionary example:
a fulfilling job

Learner example:
But the choice of a fulfilling job is an important factor because most people spend 8 or 9 hours working every day and doing something that you don’t like for long can be a problem.
fulfilment /fʊlˈfɪl.mənt/

Word family:
- Nouns: fulfilment
- Verbs: fulfil
- Adjectives: fulfilling

NOUN [u]

PLEASURE

[C2] a feeling of pleasure because you are receiving or achieving what you want

Dictionary example:
I hope that you'll find happiness and fulfilment in your life together.

Learner example:
Personally, I firmly believe that a certain degree of compromise should be reached, and that work should combine both economical and emotional stability, and only in that way will we find true fulfilment through work.

SOMETHING DONE

[C2] when someone does something necessary or something that they have wanted or promised to do

Dictionary example:
Being here is the fulfilment of a lifelong ambition.

Learner example:
Today's human[s] travel the earth for holidays, going from exotic to esoteric vacation spots to soothe body and mind, or in fulfilment of a business need.

full /fʊl/

Word family:
- Adjectives: full
- Adverbs: fully

ADJECTIVE

GREATEST POSSIBLE

[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] the greatest possible

Dictionary examples:
James is very bright, but he doesn't make full use of his abilities.
Nobody got full marks in the spelling test.
We were driving at full speed all the way.
Learner example:
It was like paradise on earth, until an old man, armed with a shotgun, told us to leave! So we left at full speed!!!

in full
[B1] completely and with nothing missing

Dictionary example:
The bill must be paid in full by the end of the month.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, I wasn't able to read the e-mail in full, but as I understood, he wanted to apologise [for] what had happened between us many years ago.

FOOD
[B2] (also full up) informal having eaten enough food

Dictionary example:
No more cake for me, thanks, I'm full.

Learner example:
After having [a] big lunch, he was full up.

be full of yourself
[C2] to think that you are very important or clever

Dictionary example:
She's been very full of herself since she won that prize.

Learner example:
There is a thing which I consider very important for the upbringing of my own children – to "teach" them to be coherent and to think [of] the "others" because if you are full of yourself, you are blind and you can't see what is happening around you.

have your hands full [C2] to be very busy

Dictionary example:
Shelley has her hands full with three kids under 5.

Learner example:
This very fact made my father work as a slave, as he was the only breadwinner at home, my mother having her hands full with us four.

full stop /ˌfʊlˈstɒp/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a mark (.) that is put at the end of a sentence, or at the end of a word that has been shortened full-time  /ˌfʊltɪm/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

[B1] happening or working for the whole of the working week and not only part of it

Dictionary examples:
- a full-time job
  Most children in the UK remain in full-time education until they are at least 16 years old. She went back to work full time when her youngest child went to school.

Learner example:
So I decided to take [a] full-time course.

---

fully  /ˈfʊli/

Word family:
- Adjectives: full
- Adverbs: fully

ADVERB

[B1] completely

Dictionary examples:
- The restaurant was fully booked.
- Have you fully recovered from your illness?
- a fully qualified teacher

---

fumes  /fjuːmz/

NOUN [PLURAL]

[C1] strong, unpleasant, and often dangerous gas or smoke

Dictionary example:
- car exhaust fumes

Learner example:
Cars emit fumes that are very dangerous.
fun /fʌn/

NOUN [u]

for fun or for the fun of it
[B1] for pleasure and not for any other reason.

Dictionary example:
I ran but just for fun.

Learner example:
Fortunately I discovered that [the email] wasn’t for me. I didn’t appreciate that there were people that were sending things like that just for fun.

make fun of sb/sth
[B2] to make a joke about someone or something in an unkind way

Dictionary example:
The other children at school used to make fun of his hair.

Learner example:
I didn’t want to tell other people because I didn’t want them to make fun of me.

function /ˈfʌŋk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: function
Adjectives: functional

NOUN [c]

PURPOSE
[B2] the purpose of something or the particular responsibility of someone

Dictionary examples:
Each button has a different function.
I’m not quite sure what my function is within the company.

Learner example:
Apart from that, zoos have got an educational function.

EVENT
[C1] a large, formal party or ceremony

Dictionary example:
a charity function

Learner example:
Almost 600 people gathered at my main wedding function.
functional  /ˈfʌŋkʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: function
Adjectives: functional

ADJECTIVE
[B2] designed to be practical and useful

Dictionary example:
functional clothing

Learner example:
Like many other people, I used to see my camera as a very functional object without being really fond of it.

---

fund  /fænd/

Word family:
Nouns: fund, funding
Verbs: fund

NOUN
[C1] [C] an amount of money collected, saved, or provided for a purpose

Dictionary example:
a pension fund

Learner example:
A fund in her name has been made for handicapped children and the amount in this fund is growing fast.

funds
[C1] [PLURAL] money needed or available to spend on something

Dictionary example:
The charity closed down due to lack of funds.

Learner example:
Due to the limited funds available to the commit[tee] responsible for the festivities, the location was not in accordance with the expectations.

VERB [T]
[C1] to provide the money to pay for an event, activity or organization

Dictionary examples:
The company has agreed to fund my trip to Australia.
The new college is being privately funded.
Learner example:
We'd like to suggest, as an alternative, that by opening the Centre to [the] public when the Centre is less crowded, you'll be able to fund the changes.

fundamental /ˌfʌnd.əˈmen.təl/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: fundamental</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: fundamentally</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[C2] relating to the most important or main part of something

Dictionary examples:
- a fundamental change/difference
- Training is fundamental to success.

Learner example:
However I liked it a lot because music is fundamental to me.

fundamentally /ˌfʌnd.əˈmen.təl.i/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: fundamental</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: fundamentally</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADVERB

[C2] in a basic and important way

Dictionary examples:
- Nothing has fundamentally changed.
- I still believe that people are fundamentally good.

Learner example:
Japanese gardens are fundamentally different from those designed in Europe.

funding /ˈfʌnd.ɪŋ/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: fund, funding</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: fund</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [u]

[C1] money given by a government or organization for an event or activity
Dictionary example:
The company received state funding for the project.

Learner example:
I must admit that this is an important community project that has long been neglected due to lack of Council funding.

---

funeral /ˈfjuː.nər.əl/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a ceremony for burying or burning the body of a dead person

Dictionary examples:
The funeral will be held next Friday.
Over 300 people attended the funeral.

Learner example:
She was crying at his funeral.

---

funny /ˈfʌn.i/

ADJECTIVE

STRANGE
[B1] strange, surprising, unexpected or difficult to explain or understand

Dictionary examples:
He's got some funny ideas about how to bring up children.
That's funny – I'm sure I left my keys here.
A funny thing happened to me on the way here.
Do you think this jacket looks a bit funny with these trousers?

Learner example:
We often see people talking about fitness and health, [but] the funny thing for me is that everybody really looks worried about it although they don't do anything to make it better.

---

fur /fɜːr/

NOUN [u]
[B1] the thick hair that covers the bodies of some animals, like cats or rabbits

Dictionary example:
She stroked the rabbit's soft fur.
Learner example:
I find the killing of animals for fur an awful, disgusting thing.

furious /ˈfjuə.rɪ.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: fury
Adjectives: furious
Adverbs: furiously

ADJECTIVE
[B2] extremely angry

Dictionary examples:
I was late and he was furious with me.
He’s furious about/at the way he's been treated.

Learner example:
He was absolutely furious, having learned about our engagement.

furiously /ˈfjuə.rɪ.ə.sli/

Word family:
Nouns: fury
Adjectives: furious
Adverbs: furiously

ADVERB
[B2] in a very angry way

Dictionary example:
"Get out of here!" she shouted furiously.

Learner example:
"Put that light out", I shouted furiously after those sleepless nights.

furnished /ˈfɜː.nɪʃt/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If a room or building is furnished, there is furniture in it.

Dictionary example:
He’s renting a fully furnished apartment by the river.

Learner example:
The so called Student Study Centre was quite noisy and poorly furnished.
further /ˈfɜː.ðə/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

a further 10/100, etc.
[C1] additional

Dictionary example:
A further 20 stores will be opening in Europe next year.

Learner example:
As a matter of fact, only 5% of the total income was taken to pay for administration costs, and a further 10% to pay for the cost of entertainment.

ADVERB

DISTANCE
[B1] (comparative of far) at or to a place or time that is a longer distance away

Dictionary example:
Let's walk a bit further down the road.

Learner example:
When we left your place we drove on the motorway to Trier and further on to Luxembourg.

MORE
[B2] more

Dictionary examples:
He refused to discuss the matter further.
Did you get any further with your research?

Learner example:
I demand a full refund or I will be forced to take this mat[t]er further.

VERB [T]

[C2] to make something develop or become more successful

Dictionary example:
He'll do anything to further his career.

Learner example:
This could be because some of [the] Education graduates were already in [the] education field and pursuing a graduate course was a means of furthering their career or knowledge.

furthermore /ˈfɜː.ðəˈmɔː/

ADVERB
[B2] in addition to what has just been said
Dictionary examples:
Furthermore, we have a duty to defend our country. Furthermore, we found that the results varied according to what time of day the sample was taken.

Learner example:
I am 22 years of age and I have a degree in tourism. Furthermore, I have a working knowledge of English, Spanish, Catalan and Italian.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>furthest</th>
<th>/ˈfɜː.ðɪst/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADVERB</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] most distant</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
That’s the furthest I can see without glasses.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>fury</th>
<th>/ˈfjuə.ri/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: fury</td>
<td>Adjectives: furious</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: furiously</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C2] extreme anger

Dictionary example:
He could hardly control his fury.

Learner example:
Never had John felt such fury and hate before.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>fuss</th>
<th>/fʌs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: fuss</td>
<td>Adjectives: fussy</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C1] when people become excited, annoyed, or anxious about something, especially something unimportant
Dictionary examples:
What's all the fuss about?
She made such a fuss when Richard spilt a drop of coffee on her blouse!
It's all a fuss about nothing.
We tried to arrange a ceremony with as little fuss as possible.

Learner example:
The internet contains more information than any library, more easily accessible and without the fuss of library cards or the risk of losing books.

fussy /ˈfʌs.i/

Word family:
Nouns: fuss
Adjectives: fussy

ADJECTIVE

NOT LIKING
[C2] only liking particular things and very difficult to please

Dictionary example:
She's a very fussy eater.

Learner example:
When visiting a foreign country it may be difficult not to be fussy about food as well, and again, that is because of habits.

CAREFUL
[C2] too careful about unimportant details

Dictionary example:
He's very fussy about keeping his car clean.

Learner example:
And this importance of presentation and almost fussy preciseness are reflected in our tradition.

future /ˈfjuː.tʃər/

NOUN

the future
[B1] the time that is to come
Dictionary examples:
Do you worry about the future?
We need to plan for the future.
I wonder what the future holds for you and me.
I’m sure at some point in the future I’ll want to change jobs.

Learner example:
We talked about old times and about the future.

in future
[B1] beginning from now

Dictionary examples:
Could you be more careful in future?
In future, I’m going to check every single piece of work that you do!

Learner example:
I hope it’ll help me to understand many foreign people not only in my job, but everywhere I go in future.

SUCCESS
[B1] [U NO PLURAL] the chance of continuing to exist or succeed

Dictionary example:
There’s no future in this line of work.

Learner example:
After his father’s death, he didn’t want to study, so he left university, losing a good future.

in the near future
[B2] at a time that is not far away

Dictionary example:
Space travel may become very common in the near future.

Learner example:
I look forward to receiving your reply in the near future.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN
[C2] [c] what will happen to someone or something in the time that is to come

Dictionary examples:
We need to discuss the future of the company.
Torn apart by war, this country now faces a very uncertain future.

Learner example:
If there weren’t any charity workers, a lot of disabled and poor people would face a very uncertain future.

for/in the foreseeable future
[C2] as far in the future as you can imagine
Dictionary example:
Prices will remain high for the foreseeable future.

Learner example:
But in my view these same jobs will find themselves subjected to the same pressures and thus will have the same destiny in the foreseeable future.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] happening or existing in the time which is to come

Dictionary examples:
future plans
in future years
What will we leave for future generations?

Learner example:
I think that it will be very important for my future career.
gadget /ˈɡædʒ.ɪt/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a small piece of equipment that does a particular job, especially a new type

Dictionary example:
a kitchen gadget

Learner example:
I believe that robots and hi-tech gadgets will definitely invade our private and professional life.

gain /ɡeɪn/

VERB

GET

[B1] [I or T] to get something useful or positive, especially over a period of time

Dictionary examples:
After you've gained some experience teaching abroad you can come home and get a job.
What do you hope to gain from the course?
So who will gain from the venture?

Learner example:
You must explain to them that you need to gain some experience.

INCREASE

[B1] [I] to increase in something such as size, weight, or amount

Dictionary examples:
He's gained a lot of weight in the last few months.
The car gained speed going down the hill.

Learner example:
I'm sure it is one of the best ways not to gain weight.

nothing ventured, nothing gained

[C2] used to say that it is worth trying something, even if you may not succeed

Dictionary example:
It will be quite expensive ... still, nothing ventured nothing gained!
Learner example:
It was a demanding task to prepare it but nothing ventured nothing gained.

NOUN [C or U]

INCREASE
[C1] an increase in something such as size, weight, or amount

Dictionary example:
Side effects of the drugs may include tiredness, headaches or weight gain.

Learner example:
Consumption of pre-cooked meals, fast food, [and] canned food not only results in weight gain but also cause[s] health problems.

SOMETHING OBTAINED
[C2] when you get something useful or positive

Dictionary examples:
financial/personal gain
There are huge gains in terms of the number of lives saved.

Learner example:
Maybe changing the attitudes of the younger generation as to the true aim of education could help in the future, teaching them that education is desirable to broaden the mind, to make us better people, not simply a means of financial gain, [and] of acquiring status in society by means of a socially acceptable job.

gallery /ˈgæl.r.i/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a room or building which is used for showing works of art

Dictionary example:
the National Portrait Gallery

Learner example:
You should go to the national gallery too.

gamble /ˈɡæm.bl/
VERB [I or T]

RISK MONEY
[C2] I to risk money on the result of a game, race, or competition

Dictionary example:
He gambled away all of her savings.

Learner example:
In fact on the first night they almost gambled it all away, but John got lucky at the last minute and won 25 thousand dollars.

NOUN [C]
[C2] a risk that you take that something will succeed

Dictionary example:
Buying this place was a big gamble, but it seems to have paid off.

Learner example:
Racing along the corridor I took a gamble and rushed for the lord's office, where the documents were likely to be.

gambling /ˈgæm blaŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: gambling, gamble
Verbs: gamble

NOUN [U]
[B2] ! the activity of betting money, for example in a game or on a horse race

Dictionary example:
Gambling can be addictive.

Learner example:
One night we went gambling in the hotel casino.

game /geɪm/

NOUN [C]

play games
[C2] to not deal with a situation seriously or honestly

Dictionary example:
Someone's life is in danger here – we're not playing games.
Learner example:
I couldn't possibly get all that money together, and the kidnappers were not playing games.

gang  /gæŋ/

NOUN [C]

YOUNG PEOPLE
[B2] a group of young people who spend time together, usually fighting with other groups and behaving badly

Dictionary examples:
a gang member
He didn't want to join their gang.

Learner example:
It was two days ago. I wanted to [join] Joe's gang, but [first] I had to prove my courage.

CRIMINALS
[B2] a group of criminals who work together

Dictionary example:
a gang of armed robbers

Learner example:
The infamous gang had robbed twelve families of all their belongings.

FRIENDS
[C2] INFORMAL a group of young friends

Dictionary example:
I'm going camping with Holly and the rest of the gang.

Learner example:
A whole gang of us decided to go on an excursion, as we did once a month.

gap  /ɡæp/

NOUN [C]

SPACE
[B1] an empty space, hole or opening

Dictionary examples:
She has a small gap between her front teeth.
The sun was shining through a gap in the curtains.
Learner example:
I had to deliver the test without filling the answers in the gaps.

DIFFERENCE
[B2] a difference between two things

Dictionary examples:
an age gap
The gap between rich and poor is still increasing.

Learner example:
It is a general rule that there is a great gap between generations which leads to different ideas and mentalities between children and parents.

ABSSENT THING
[B2] something that is absent and stops something from being complete

Dictionary example:
There are still huge gaps in my knowledge.

Learner example:
Another huge gap in our town is the absence of a swimming pool.

TIME
[B2] a period of time spent doing something different

Dictionary example:
After a gap of five years, Jennifer decided to go back to work full-time.

Learner example:
Finally, on the last day, I suggest you could go to the market in town during the 3-hour gap.

a gap in the market
[C2] an opportunity for a product or service that does not already exist

Dictionary example:
There's a gap in the market for a good fish shop.

Learner example:
I had nearly finished my study and had an idea to start a small software company, filling a gap in the market that was overlooked by the larger I.T. companies.

garage /ˈɡær.əɡ/
NOUN [C]

BUSINESS
[B1] a business that repairs or sells cars, and sometimes also sells fuel
Dictionary example:
The car's still at the garage getting fixed.

Learner example:
I took it to the garage and they are fixing [it] now but it will take time to repair it.

garden /ˈɡɑː.dən/

Word family:
Nouns: garden, gardener, gardening

NOUN [c]

gardens
[C1] a park or large public area where plants and flowers are grown

Dictionary example:
We visited the botanic gardens.

Learner example:
After that we are going to see the "Mary's gardens", where the photo session is going to take place, and at 13.00 we will have lunch at the main restaurant.

gardener /ˈɡɑː.də.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: garden, gardener, gardening

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone who works in a garden, growing plants and making it look attractive

Dictionary example:
They employ two gardeners.

Learner example:
You can become a very good gardener and walk very long distances.

gardening /ˈɡɑː.də.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: garden, gardener, gardening

NOUN [u]

[B2] the job or activity of growing a garden and keeping it attractive

Dictionary example:
She enjoys gardening.
Learner example:
After four years [of] studying and doing the A level exam, I still don't have any qualification in gardening, but I really like flowers and plants.

garment  /ˈɡɑː.mənt/

NOUN [C] FORMAL
[C1] a piece of clothing

Dictionary example:
They were luxurious garments, made of silk and velvet.

Learner example:
Their garments consisted of four layers of robes.

gas  /ɡæs/

NOUN

SUBSTANCE
[B2] [c or u] a substance in a form like air that is neither solid nor liquid

Dictionary example:
Oxygen, hydrogen and nitrogen are all gases.

Learner example:
All people know that CO2 is a very dangerous gas for all kind[s] of animals.

gasp  /ɡɑː.sp/

VERB [i]

MAKE NOISE
[C2] to make a noise by suddenly breathing in because you are shocked or surprised

Dictionary example:
She gasped in horror as the car spun out of control.

Learner example:
I gasped with astonishment at the juggler’s dexterity.

BREATHE WITH DIFFICULTY
[C2] to breathe loudly and with difficulty trying to get more air
Dictionary example:
He clutched his heart, gasping for breath.

Learner example:
They danced until they were so tired that they fell to the ground, still laughing and gasping for air.

NOUN [c]

[C2] the noise that someone makes when they gasp

Dictionary example:
a gasp of surprise

Learner example:
His gasp startled the other sleeping tourists & they all crawled and stumbled onto their feet.

---

gate /ˈgeɪt/

NOUN [c]

AIRPORT

[B1] a part of an airport where passengers get on or off an aircraft

Dictionary example:
The flight to Dublin is now boarding at gate 8.

Learner example:
I got [to] the airport and started looking for gate 23 and there he was, my friend that had come back from London with a surprise for me.

---

gather /ˈgæð.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: gathering
Verbs: gather

VERB

COME TOGETHER

[B2] [I or T] to join other people somewhere to make a group, or to bring people together into a group

Dictionary examples:
A crowd had gathered to hear her speak.
Crowds of fans gathered at the stadium for the big match.
She gathered the children together and began to tell them a story.

Learner example:
People had gathered in front of a particular painting.
COLLECT
[B2] [t] to collect several things, often from different places or people

Dictionary example:
We gathered our things together and left quickly.

Learner example:
I have gathered over three hundred species: flowers, roots, leaves and other [thing]s.

THINK
[C1] [t] to think something is true because you have heard or seen information about it

Dictionary examples:
From what I can gather, they haven't sold their house yet.
As far as I can gather, there will only be light refreshments available.

Learner example:
From a modest survey I have made among citizens of different age groups and occupations, I can gather that both proposals have advantages and disadvantages.

gather speed/strength/support, etc.
[C1] to increase in speed/strength/support, etc.

Dictionary example:
Finally, the train began to gather speed, and we were on our way.

Learner example:
The use of railways was a bit fluctuating until around 1995, but gathered momentum after that.

| gathering | /ˈɡæð.ə.rɪŋ/ |

Word family:
Nouns: gathering
Verbs: gather

NOUN [c]
[C1] a party or a meeting when many people get together as a group

Dictionary example:
a family gathering

Learner example:
Parks, for example, can't be used for [a] barbeque or family gathering in the winter time.
gay /geɪ/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] homosexual

Dictionary examples:
gay rights
Have you told your parents you're gay yet?

Learner example:
If you are not a religious person, if you have got divorced and you want to get married again, or if you are gay, you must get married [in a] civil [ceremony].

gaze /geɪz/

VERB
gaze at/into/out of, etc.
[B2] to look for a long time at something or someone or in a particular direction

Dictionary examples:
He was gazing out of the window.
They gazed into each other's eyes.

Learner example:
He gazed at her and took her hand.

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[C2] a long look at someone or something

Dictionary example:
a steady/watchful gaze

Learner example:
For a moment, he had this empty gaze of someone who is in trouble and who has to find a solution.

gear /gɪər/

NOUN

VEHICLE PART
[B2] [C USUALLY PLURAL] a set of parts in a motor vehicle or bicycle that control how fast the wheels turn
Dictionary example:
a mountain bike with 21 gears

Learner example:
It has 24 active gears and multilink kevlor brakes.

first/second/third, etc. gear
[B2] a particular position of the gears in a motor vehicle or bicycle that controls how fast the wheels turn

Dictionary example:
The lights turned green, but I couldn’t get into first gear.

Learner example:
I wrenched the car into first gear and stormed off to the office.

EQUIPMENT
[B2] [u] the clothes and equipment used for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
fishing/camping gear

Learner example:
I’ll see you in a week and don’t forget your cycling gear.

gender /ˈdʒen.də/ NOUN [C or U]

SEX
[B2] formal the state of being male or female

Dictionary example:
Does this test show the gender of the baby?

Learner example:
There were many speakers who talked about all sorts of subject[s] such as politics, religion, gender identity, [and] art.

GRAMMAR
[B2] the division of nouns, pronouns and adjectives into masculine, feminine and neuter types

Dictionary example:
In English, nouns don’t have gender, but in French and Spanish, they do.
gene /dʒiːn/

Word family:
Nouns: genetics, gene
Adjectives: genetic

NOUN [c]
[C1] a part of a cell that is passed on from a parent to a child and that controls particular characteristics

Dictionary example:
Scientists have discovered the gene responsible for causing this disease.

Learner example:
I think it would be reasonable to include capsules with human genes and the genetic material of endangered species.

general /ˈdʒen.ər.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: general
Adverbs: generally

ADJECTIVE

NOT DETAILED
[B1] not detailed, but including the most basic or necessary information

Dictionary examples:
These leaflets contain some general information about the school.
It's a very general description.
I've got a general idea of how it works.

Learner example:
By seeing the film, we are able to understand the general idea of the story.

In general
[B1] usually, or in most situations

Dictionary examples:
In general, men are taller than women.
In general, the weather here stays sunny.

Learner example:
In general, when anybody in my country [has a] wedding, the families invite all fri[e]nds and n[eighbours] to the wedding.

MOST PEOPLE
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] involving or relating to most or all people, things or places
Dictionary examples:
There is general concern about rising crime rates.
There seems to be general agreement on this matter.

Learner example:
The decision has already been made by general agreement.

NOT LIMITED
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] including a lot of things or subjects and not limited to only one or a few

Dictionary example:
general knowledge

Learner example:
To improve the general knowledge of the students, it might be a good idea to offer more newspapers than magazines.

in general
[B2] considering the whole of someone or something, and not just a particular part of them

Dictionary example:
So, apart from the bad ankle, how are you in general?

Learner example:
I think that I, as well as people in general, would have been more depressed if we didn't have light.

generalization /ˌdʒen.əˈrəl.aɪ.zən/
NOUN [C or U] (ALSO UK generalisation)
[C1] when someone says something very basic that is often true but not always true

Dictionary example:
It's a sweeping generalization to say that girls read more than boys.

Learner example:
As the organizer of the International Student's Sports Club, I feel inclined to report from [my] own experience that such a generalisation is not appropriate.

generalize /ˈdʒen.əˈlAIR.iz/
VERB [I] (ALSO UK generalise)
[C1] to say something very basic that is often true but not always true
Dictionary example:
You can't generalize about a continent as varied as Europe.

Learner example:
Anyway, even though it's hard to generalise, it seems clear that people don't want to work, and want to enjoy themselves without working.

generally /ˈdʒen.ər.əli/

Word family:
Adjectives: general
Adverbs: generally

ADVERB

USUALLY
[B1] usually, or in most situations

Dictionary example:
I generally wake up early.

Learner example:
I generally prefer reading newspapers, but I don't dislike books.

AS A WHOLE
[B2] considering the whole of someone or something, and not just a particular part of them

Dictionary example:
My health is generally very good.

Learner example:
Generally, Athens has a lot of things to do.

BY MOST PEOPLE
[B2] by most people, or to most people

Dictionary example:
He is generally believed to be their best player.

Learner example:
It is generally acknowledged that it depends on the zoo because sometimes the animals are loved and sometimes hated.

generate /ˈdʒen.ər.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: generation
Verbs: generate
CREATE
[B2] to cause something to exist

Dictionary examples:
The new development will generate 1500 new jobs.
This film has generated a lot of interest.

Learner example:
Football generates every kind of emotion: happiness, sadness, and above all passion.

MAKE ENERGY
[B2] to produce energy

Dictionary example:
The wind farm may be able to generate enough electricity for 2000 homes.

Learner example:
In France, for instance, more than three-quarters of [all] electricity is generated from nuclear power.

generation /ˌdʒen.əˈreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: generation
Verbs: generate

PEOPLE
[B1] [c] all the people in a society or family who are approximately the same age

Dictionary examples:
the older/younger generation
This is the story of three generations of women.

Learner example:
Some people say that cell phones are a bad influence on the younger generation.

TIME
[B2] [c] a period of about 25 to 30 years, the time it takes for children to become adults and take the place of their parents in society

Dictionary examples:
Our family has lived in this village for generations.
A generation ago, home computers were almost unknown.
Learner example:
Salzburg is a beautiful medieval town – it has got a wonderful cathedral, which was built by entire generations of Italian artisans.

PRODUCT
[B2] [c] a product when it is at a particular stage of development

Dictionary example:
a new generation of computers

Learner example:
I can sum up the most important things that changed my life are the telephone, the computer, the portable phone and of course the new generation of television.

ENERGY
[B2] [u] the production of energy in a particular form

Dictionary example:
electricity generation from wind and wave power

Learner example:
[The] energy generation crisis Brazil is having to deal with is well known.

generosity /ˌdʒenəˈrɒsəti/

Word family:
Nouns: generosity
Adjectives: generous
Adverbs: generously

NOUN [U]
[B2] the quality of being generous

Dictionary example:
Her friends take advantage of her generosity.

Learner example:
Anna, thank you again for your generosity.

generous /ˈdʒenərəs/
ADJECTIVE

WILLING TO GIVE

[B1] willing to give other people money, help, kindness, etc.

Dictionary example:
She's been very generous with her time.

Learner example:
I like her because she is a generous, kindly, interesting person.

LARGE

[C1] larger than usual or than expected

Dictionary examples:
a generous discount for students a generous portion

Learner example:
To sum up, I must correct the conclusion in your article, as the event did come up to the organisers' expectations, [rais]ing a generous amount of money to donate to the hospital.

generously /ˈdʒenərəsli/

Word family:
Nouns: generosity
Adjectives: generous
Adverbs: generously

ADVERB

[B2] in a generous way

Dictionary example:
Please give generously to Children in Need.

Learner example:
I can't think of any other person who opens her house so generously as you do!

genetic /dʒəˈnet.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: genetics, gene Adjectives: genetic

ADJECTIVE

[C1] relating to genes
Dictionary examples:
a rare genetic disorder genetic research

Learner example:
Mendel thought that basically it is the genetic material which is responsible for the future development of a child.

genetically modified /dʒəˌnet.ɪ.kliˈmɒd.ɪˌfaɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] having had some of the genes changed by a scientific process

Dictionary example:
They are opposed to genetically modified food.

Learner example:
Despite the fact that the European Union prohibited genetically modified products in its countries, we are still using pesticides, causing pollution and food poisoning.

genetics /dʒəˈnet.ɪks/

Word family:
Nouns: genetics, gene
Adjectives: genetic

NOUN [u]
[B2] the scientific study of the parts of cells which control particular characteristics (genes)

Dictionary example:
Next year, I'll be studying genetics.

Learner example:
We use technology in order to save human lives and to explore strange new worlds, such as genetics.

genius /ˈdʒiː.ni.əs/

NOUN

PERSON
[C1] [c] someone who is extremely intelligent or extremely good at doing something
Dictionary example:
Einstein was a genius.

Learner example:
And what about Mozart – poor little genius!

QUALITY
[C2] [u] the quality of being extremely intelligent or extremely good at doing something

Dictionary example:
Einstein's genius

Learner example:
Nothing is more common than unrewarded genius and mis[used] talents.

gentle /ˈdʒen.tl/

Word family:
Adjectives: gentle
Adverbs: gently

ADJECTIVE

KIND
[B1] kind, calm and careful not to upset or hurt anyone

Dictionary example:
My mother was such a gentle, loving person.

Learner example:
Mani is very kind and gentle.

NOT STRONG
[B1] not violent, severe or strong

Dictionary examples:
gentle exercise
a gentle breeze

Learner example:
The weather is sunny, the gentle breeze is pure and fresh.

SLOPE
[C1] A gentle slope or climb is not steep.

Dictionary example:
It was a fairly gentle climb to the summit.
Learner example:
The TOUR Trained guides lead people across gentle slopes towards thick woods displaying a wide variety of birds and animal life.

gentleman /ˈdʒent.lə.mən/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a polite word for 'man'

Dictionary example:
Ladies and gentlemen, the show is about to begin.

Learner example:
So she walked up on the stage and started speaking steadily into the microphone: "Ladies and gentlemen...." This is how the story ended.

gently /ˈdʒent.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: gentle
Adverbs: gently

ADVERB
[B2] calmly, kindly or softly

Dictionary example:
He held the baby gently in his arms.

Learner example:
Now I am older and I speak to my mother very gently.

genuine /ˈdʒen.ju.in/

Word family:
Adjectives: genuine
Adverbs: genuinely

ADJECTIVE
REAL
[B2] If something is genuine, it is really what it seems to be.

Dictionary example:
genuine leather
Learner example:
The bicycle is a genuine Shimano bicycle.

SINCERE

[C1] If a person or their feelings are genuine, they are sincere and honest.

Dictionary example:
They showed genuine sympathy for our situation.

Learner example:
On the other hand, it is well known in environmental management that strategies that work via [the] people's purse are often the only way to motivate people who have little genuine interest in environmental problems (or just too many other concerns).

---

genuinely /ˈdʒen.ju.ɪn.li/

Word family:

Adjectives: genuine

Adverbs: genuinely

ADVERB

[B2] in a genuine or sincere way

Dictionary example:
I'm genuinely sorry for the extra work this has caused.

Learner example:
We are all genuinely interested in English literature.

---

geology /dʒiˈɒl.ə.dʒi/

NOUN [u]

[C1] the study of rocks and soil and the physical structure of the Earth

Dictionary example:
a book about geology

Learner example:
I have graduated from school and I am now studying geology at the University of Greece.
germ /dʒɜːm/

NOUN

DISEASE
[C1] a very small living thing that causes disease

Dictionary example:
Wash your hands before cooking so that you don't spread germs.

Learner example:
I am more careful with cleaning up and taking care of my baby. It was amazing the way they spoke about germs and dust.

the germ of sth
[C2] the beginning of something

Dictionary example:
the germ of a brilliant idea

Learner example:
Going back to the scene at More's home, we now understand why this is the germ of the subsequent development of the play.

gerund /ˈdʒer.ənd/

NOUN [C]
[C1] A gerund is a noun made from the form of a verb that ends with -ing, for example 'fishing' in 'John loves fishing.'

Dictionary example:
We learned about gerunds today.

gesture /ˈdʒes.tʃər/
Learner example:
Review – The Body Speaks [...] In the second part, you are taught how to read the gestures, voice, [and] hesitations, and analyse them.

ACTION
[C1] something you do to show people how you feel about a person or situation

Dictionary example:
It would be a nice gesture to invite her to dinner.

Learner example:
Dear Sir, I am the secretary of the Student Committee in Bringtown College and I am writing to thank you for your kind gesture [in] inviting me to the opening of the new Arts Centre.

VERB [i]
[C2] to point at something or express something using your hand, arm, or head

Dictionary example:
He gestured towards the window.

Learner example:
She gestured to the hall’s expensive Persian carpets and the extensive collection of French Impressionists hanging on the walls.

get /get/

VERB (getting, got, got) get cancer/flu, etc.

[B1] to become ill or develop an illness

Dictionary example:
I’m getting another cold.

Learner example:
I was angry, and I got a cold!

get cold/ill/late, etc.
[B1] to start to be cold/ill/late, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Your coffee’s getting cold.
It’s getting late.

Learner example:
It’s getting late so I should finish now.

get worse
[B1] to become more ill, unpleasant, difficult, severe, etc. than before
Dictionary examples:
My cold seems to be getting worse.
If the rain gets any worse, we'll have to stop walking.

Learner example:
I thought, it couldn't get worse.

get caught/killed/told off, etc.
[B1] to have something done to you. This is sometimes used instead of the usual passive structure.

Dictionary examples:
He got killed in the war.
She got told off in class for not paying attention.
I got bitten during the walk.

Learner example:
Two weeks ago many people at school got injured because of an explosion, so a TV company came to film what the school is like now ...

get sth wrong
[B1] to produce an answer or result that is not correct, or to say or write something that is not correct

Dictionary examples:
I got most of the answers wrong.
The newspapers got the story completely wrong.

get sth painted/repaired, etc.
[B1] [t] to do a task, or to arrange for someone to do a task for you

Dictionary examples:
Could you get the kids dressed?
I need to get my hair cut.
You must get that form sent off.

Learner example:
First I have to go to the doctor and then I have to get my teeth checked by the dentist.

get in touch
[B1] to contact someone

Dictionary example:
Please get in touch if you ever come back to Madrid.

Learner example:
Get in touch soon.

get down/into/off, etc.
[B1] to move to a different place or into a different position
Dictionary example:
I saw her getting into his car.

Learner example:
They [said] that I got into a car by myself (they thought that I had believed the story).

TELEPHONE / DOOR

[B1] [t] to deal with or answer a ringing telephone, a knock on the door, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Could you get the phone, Al?
Someone’s at the door – could you get it?

get to know sb / sth

[B1] to spend time with someone or something so that you gradually learn more about them

Dictionary examples:
The first couple of meetings are for the doctor and patient to get to know each other.
I’ll need a few weeks to get to know the system.

Learner example:
I hope you can come here and get to know him.

get rid of sth

[B1] to throw something away or give something to someone because you no longer want it

Dictionary example:
We must get rid of some of those old books.

Learner example:
Do you think I’d better get rid of the sofa and place the bookshelf [there]?

get rid of sth

[B2] to end something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
I can’t seem to get rid of this headache.

Learner example:
[The] first step is to get rid of smoking.

get sb / sth to do sth

[B2] to make something happen, or make someone or something do something

Dictionary examples:
I can’t get my computer to work!
I’ll get Ben to fix your bike.

Learner example:
We must get the councillors to change their minds.
get the feeling/idea/impression, etc.

[B2] to develop an opinion about a situation because of something that you notice

Dictionary example:
I got the feeling that she was quite angry about the situation.

Learner example:
I disagree with some points you mentioned and would like to share the impression I got from that popular holiday report during my two-week trip.

get on sb's nerves

[B2] to annoy someone, especially by doing something again and again

Dictionary example:
If we spend too much time together, we end up getting on each other's nerves.

Learner example:
Sometimes, receiving a phone call can disturb very important events in [a person's] life, but [it] also get[s] on people's nerves when you use it in a public place like a train...

get to do sth

[B2] to have the chance to do something

Dictionary example:
I never got to meet her.

Learner example:
I did get to meet a musician, a singer named Anouk.

UNDERSTAND/HEAR

[B2] [ɪ] INFORMAL to understand or hear something

Dictionary example:
That joke that he told – did you get it?

get a grip (on yourself)

[C1] to make an effort to control your emotions and behave more calmly

Dictionary example:
Stop panicking and get a grip on yourself!

Learner example:
The best thing to do was to talk to people who were not doing the test rather than building up my anxiety. However, I did not do this and it almost resulted in a disaster, but I got a grip on myself and just barely passed.

get on sb's nerves

[C1] to annoy someone, especially by doing something again and again

Dictionary example:
Please stop making that noise! It really gets on my nerves.
Learner example:
My neighbour is always quarrelling with his wife. It's getting on my nerves!

get rid of sb
[C1] to make someone leave

Dictionary example:
She was useless at her job so we had to get rid of her.

Learner example:
Improving your English on your own (or a self-guide [on] how to get rid of your English teacher!)

get sth straight
[C1] to make sure that you completely understand a situation

Dictionary example:
Let me get this straight – am I paying for this?

Learner example:
Next time you should try to get your facts straight.

get your act together INFORMAL
[C2] to organize your activities so that you can make progress

Dictionary example:
She's so disorganized – I wish she'd get her act together.

Learner example:
He was determined to get his act together and try to find a solution to his problem.

get sth off your chest INFORMAL
[C2] to tell someone about something that you have been worried or angry about for a long time

Dictionary example:
Tell me what's wrong – you'll feel better if you get it off your chest.

Learner example:
Chris is always caring and lends you his ear if there's something you need to get off your chest.

get you nowhere
[C2] If something gets you nowhere, it does not help you to succeed.

Dictionary example:
Bad manners will get you nowhere.

Learner example:
As this is a loophole in [the] law system, it's creating a conflict between house-owners and squatters and getting them nowhere.

get sth over (and done) with [C2] to do something difficult or unpleasant as soon as you can so that you do not have to worry about it any more
Dictionary example:
I got all my apologies over and done with at the beginning of the meeting.

Learner example:
Not to mention that he knew that he had to get his degree over and done with before he started making serious decisions.

get your own back (on sb)
[C2] to do something unpleasant to someone because they have done something unpleasant to you

Dictionary example:
I got my own back by putting a frog in her bed.

Learner example:
There, Kingshaw has the opportunity to get his own back by pushing Hooper down the wall, but he doesn't dare because he is not as cruel as Hooper.

Don't get me wrong INFORMAL
[C2] used when you do not want someone to think that you do not like someone or something

Dictionary example:
Don't get me wrong, I like her, but she can be very annoying.

Learner example:
Don't get me wrong, I love my aunts, I really do, but not as houseguests.

get moving INFORMAL
[C2] to hurry

Dictionary example:
We're leaving in five minutes, so get moving!

Learner example:
"Oh, look at the time, we must get moving!"

get a move on INFORMAL
[C2] to hurry

Dictionary example:
Come on, get a move on!

Learner example:
'All the lights will be switched off in 28 minut[e]s, so I have to get a move on' I said to myself, as I started to write on a new piece of paper.

get out of hand
[C2] to become difficult to control

Dictionary example:
It was the end of term and the children were getting a little out of hand.
Learner example:
A few solutions can prevent this problem from getting out of hand.

get the hang of sth
[C2] INFORMAL to learn how to do something, especially if it is not obvious or simple

Dictionary example:
I've never used one of these before. – Don't worry, you'll soon get the hang of it.

Learner example:
It was quite hard to get the hang of it, as I didn't have any knowledge of English.

get underway
[C2] to begin

Dictionary example:
The film festival gets underway on 11th July.

get the picture INFORMAL [C2] used to say that someone understands a situation

Dictionary example:
Oh right, I get the picture.

Learner example:
If you use a photograph though, you can be sure that everyone will get the picture (pun intended) and probably remember the person you're talking about next time they see him.

ghost /gəʊst/

NOUN [C]
[B1] ! the spirit of a dead person

Dictionary example:
Do you believe in ghosts?

Learner example:
We saw a horror film. It was about ghosts and vampires!

giant /ˈdʒaɪ.ənt/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] extremely large

Dictionary example:
a giant spider
Learner example:
Harry Potter fought with the giant snake and he won.

NOUN [C]

IMAGINARY MAN

[C1] an imaginary man who is much bigger and stronger than ordinary men

Dictionary example:
The story is about a friendly giant.

Learner example:
People have always seen him as a "big friendly giant", always ready to help those who are in need.

ORGANIZATION

[C2] a very large and important company or organization

Dictionary example:
a media/software giant

Learner example:
In less than 15 years Bill Gates has built up his own company from scratch and turned it into a computer giant.

gift /gift/

NOUN [C]

ABILITY

[C1] a natural ability or skill

Dictionary example:
She has a gift for design.

Learner example:
He understands the thought processes of children quite well, and has a gift for making difficult concepts understandable to youngsters, which obviously means he would be a very good supervisor.

gifted /ˈgif.tɪd/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] A gifted person has a natural ability or is extremely intelligent.

Dictionary examples:
a gifted athlete
a school for gifted children
Learner example:
Roger Federer is a young and extremely gifted tennis player.

giggle /ˈɡɪɡ.l/
VERB [I] to laugh in a nervous or silly way
Dictionary example:
She started giggling and couldn’t stop.
Learner example:
Clara, a thin woman in her late fifties, giggled and her usually so flabby lips trembled as she did so.

giraffe /dʒɪˈrɑːf/ (PLURAL giraffes)
NOUN [C]
[B1] a large African animal with a very long neck and long legs
Dictionary example:
Giraffes are the tallest land animals.
Learner example:
Animals like elephants, giraffes and exotic birds must be free. How would you feel living inside a cage?

girl /ɡɜːl/
NOUN [C]
the girls
[B1] a group of female friends
Dictionary example:
I’m going out with the girls tonight.
Learner example:
We w[ere] dancing all night at the club [and] I really enjoyed my time with the girls.
girlfriend  /ˈɡɜːl.frend/

NOUN [C] FRIEND
[B1] a female friend of a girl or woman

Dictionary example:
She's going out with her girlfriends tonight.

Learner example:
I buy clothes once a month, and I usually go shopping with my mother or my girlfriends.

give  /gɪv/

VERB [T] (gave, given)
ALLOW
[B1] [+ TWO OBJECTS] to allow someone to have a right or an opportunity

Dictionary example:
We didn't really give him a chance to explain.

Learner example:
I'll see you at seven o'clock to give you the chance to explain.

CAUSE
[B1] [+ TWO OBJECTS] to produce or cause something

Dictionary examples:
What you said has given me an idea.
The sudden noise gave me quite a shock.
This announcement will give hope to millions of sufferers.

Learner example:
I hope this [will] give you an idea of what I like.

ALLOW TIME
[B1] [+ TWO OBJECTS] to allow someone or something a particular amount of time

Dictionary example:
I'm nearly ready – just give me a few minutes.

Learner example:
Do you think you would be able to give me 2 hours more on Friday?

PAY MONEY
[B1] [+ TWO OBJECTS] to pay someone a particular amount of money for something
Dictionary example:
I gave him £20 for his old camera.

DO
[B1] to perform an action

Dictionary examples:
She gave a cry.
He gave her a kiss on the cheek.
She gave me a big hug.

Learner example:
When he saw me, he gave me a big, warm hug and a sweet kiss.

give a performance/speech, etc.
[B2] to perform or speak in public

Dictionary example:
Tony gave a great speech to open the conference.

Learner example:
We would be very happy if you [could] come to our school and give a speech.

give birth
[B2] When a woman or an animal gives birth, she produces a baby from her body.

Dictionary example:
She gave birth to twins.

Learner example:
The most important person in my life is the person who gave birth to me, my mother.

give sth a miss
[C1] to not do an activity

Dictionary example:
I think I'll give aerobics a miss this evening.

Learner example:
For this reason, I don't encourage you to buy the Spanish version of these CDs. I think you should give it a miss. Kind regards give way

[C1] to stop in order to allow other vehicles to go past before you drive onto a bigger road

Dictionary example:
You must give way at this junction.

Learner example:
Of course, you have to remember to give way to the pedestrians, to respect the signs and to push on the brake when you see a red light.
give sb your word
[C1] to promise someone something

Dictionary example:
Paolo gave me his word that he wouldn't tell anyone.

Learner example:
I give you my word that it will never happen again.

give rise to sth
[C2] to cause something

Dictionary example:
The bacteria live in the human body but do not give rise to any symptoms.

Learner example:
That visit gave rise to a fruitful discussion in which various opinions were voiced and here are some comments on them.

give vent to [C2] to express strong anger or another strong feeling

Dictionary example:
He gave vent to the frustration that had been building up inside him.

Learner example:
It's a great fallacy that giving vent to our emotion will be a solution to the problem itself and will lead to anything at all.

give way to sth
[C2] to change into something else

Dictionary example:
Her excitement quickly gave way to horror.

Learner example:
This friendship gave way to love, but it was a really difficult situation, after all she was the Managing Director's daughter.

give way
[C2] If something gives way, it falls because it is not strong enough to support the weight on top of it.

Dictionary example:
Suddenly the ground gave way under me.

Learner example:
Fred's voice trailed off as he felt his legs give way beneath him.

give sb a hard time
[C2] to criticize someone and make them feel guilty about something they have done
Dictionary example:
Ever since I missed the goal, the other players have been giving me a hard time.

Learner example:
I'm not saying that I wasn't normal or anything, I just gave my family a hard time sometimes.

glad /glæd/ (gladder, gladdest)

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

WILLING
[B2] very willing to do something

Dictionary example:
She's always glad to help.

Learner example:
I know him personally and I'm sure he'll be very glad to help you.

be glad of sth FORMAL
[C1] to be grateful for something

Dictionary example:
I was glad of a few days off before going back to work.

Learner example:
We are glad of the changes [at] the Sports Centre even if the changes do not solve all [the] problems.

glamour /ˈglæmər/

NOUN [u]
[C1] the quality of being attractive, exciting and special

Dictionary example:
the glamour of Hollywood

Learner example:
The red carpet, the glamour, the glitter, the fame are things we all dream about at one point or another [in] our lives.
glance /ˈɡlɑːnts/

VERB

glance at/around/towards, etc.
[B1] to look somewhere for a short time

Dictionary example:
He glanced at his watch.

Learner example:
From my seat [at] the café table I was glancing at this man when suddenly two men in black jackets, and wearing sunglasses ran and tackled the stranger, knocking him out.

glance at/over/through, etc.
[B2] to read something quickly

Dictionary example:
She glanced through the newspaper.

Learner example:
As you know, I always like glancing at some international newspapers.

NOUN [C]

QUICK LOOK
[B2] a quick look

Dictionary example:
She had a quick glance around the restaurant but couldn't see him.

Learner example:
Just have a glance at the enclosed menu.

at a glance
[C1] If you see something at a glance, you see it very quickly or immediately.

Dictionary example:
He could tell at a glance that something was wrong.

Learner example:
You could tell at a glance that Peter was a loner.

---

glare /ˈɡleər/

NOUN

LIGHT
[C2] [u] strong, bright light that hurts your eyes
Dictionary example:
I get a lot of glare from my computer screen.

Learner example:
As often as not, pressing the switch gave no result or yielded the glare of a naked bulb.

LOOK

[C2] [c] a long, angry look

Dictionary example:
She gave me an angry glare.

Learner example:
His glare [said] everything; she was the worst thing that had ever happened to the school.

VERB

[I] [C2] to look at someone in an angry way

Dictionary example:
She glared at him and stormed out of the room.

Learner example:
You open the door and "Surprise!!": [it's] your mother and father, who ha[ve] just arrived from the country to spend the weekend with you. You glare at your mother, imagining that.

glimpse /ˈɡlimps/

NOUN [c]

[C1] when you see something or someone for a very short time

Dictionary example:
He caught/got a glimpse of her as she got into the car.

Learner example:
If you go to Canada, like I did, you will enjoy great camping in the Rockies and might even catch a glimpse of the famous bears.

global /ˈɡloʊ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: globalization, globe
Adjectives: global
Adverbs: globally

ADJECTIVE

[B2] relating to the whole world
Dictionary examples:
a global disaster
the global problem of nuclear waste
the global economy

Learner example:
The improvement of electronics and global communications has made it possible to keep [in] close contact with friends all over the world.

globalization (also UK globalisation) /ˌɡloʊ.bəˈlɪ.zəˈeɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: globalization, globe
Adjectives: global Adverbs: globally

NOUN [u]
[C1] the process by which businesses operate in many different countries and the culture of different countries becomes more similar

Dictionary examples:
the globalization of big brands
the globalisation of fashion

Learner example:
Thanks to globalisation, fast food has arrived [in] Argentina, as almost everywhere in the world.

globally /ˈɡləʊ.bəl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: globalization, globe
Adjectives: global Adverbs: globally

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that relates to the whole world

Dictionary example:
The company has to be able to compete globally.

Learner example:
Since I went to Canada, I realized we should think about environmental pollution globally.
global warming /ˌgləʊ.bəˈlər.mɪŋ/

NOUN [u]

[B2] a gradual increase in world temperatures caused by polluting gases

Dictionary example:
Very few people now deny that global warming is caused by humankind.

Learner example:
Also, due to global warming, sea levels might rise and [the] risk of flooding will also rise.

---

globe /gləʊb/

Word family:

Nouns: globalization, globe
Adjectives: global Adverbs: globally

NOUN

the globe

[C2] the world

Dictionary example:
This event is being watched by 200 million people around the globe.

Learner example:
He has given numerous speeches around the globe, in which he always captivated the audience.

---

glory /ˈglɔː.ri/

NOUN [u]

PRAISE

[C1] when people praise and respect you for achieving something important

Dictionary example:
It was my idea, but she got all the glory.

Learner example:
This point of view states that it is more fulfilling for a single person to achieve a goal on [their] own, without having to share the glory with other people and that by doing it alone, one really feels that [one] has achieved something.

QUALITY

[C1] the quality of being very impressive or beautiful
Dictionary example:
The castle has been restored to its former glory.

Learner example:
Two years ago, the state, helped by the community of the island, gave birth to an ambitious plan to restore this beach to its former glory.

glow /gləʊ/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

LIGHT
[C2] a soft, warm light

Dictionary example:
the warm glow of the moon

Learner example:
The sun was setting, leaving a pink glow on everything it touched and the air smelled like fresh-cut grass.

SKIN
[C2] when your face feels or appears warm and healthy

Dictionary example:
Sam's face had lost its rosy glow.

Learner example:
After about three weeks of using this product by Morway Company, you will notice that your face looks softer and has a natural healthy glow.

VERB [i]
[C2] to produce a soft, warm light

Dictionary example:
toys which glow in the dark

Learner example:
You can safely invest in juggling equipment that glows in the dark, has flashing lights – or even that is set afire before starting to juggle with it.

[C2] to have a warm and healthy appearance

Dictionary example:
Her eyes were bright and her cheeks were glowing.

Learner example:
While the tourists were getting dressed, Ingrid, a tall middle-aged woman, checked the humidity of her armpits and that reminded her of the sentence: "Horses sweat, men perspire, women glow."
glow with happiness/pride, etc.

[C2] to feel very happy, proud, etc.

Dictionary example:
Glowing with pride, she showed me her painting.

Learner example:
I never use it, of course, but just knowing I possess it makes me glow with happiness.

---

glue /ɡluː/

NOUN [u]

[C2] a substance used to stick things together

Dictionary example:
Put a bit of glue on both edges and hold them together.

Learner example:
On the contrary, sometimes, with the help of our teachers, we had to fix them using "emergency" solutions and materials, such as sellotape and glue.

VERB [T] (glueing, gluing, glued)

STICK

[C2] to stick something to something else with glue

Dictionary example:
Do you think you can glue this vase back together?

Learner example:
That is why my father glued and nailed the back of it so nobody could ever open the frame.

---

go /ɡəʊ/

VERB (going, went, gone) go badly/well, etc.

[B1] to develop in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
My exams went really well.
"How did your interview go?" – "Rather badly!"
Something's gone wrong with my computer.

Learner example:
I hope everything is going well.
go wrong
[B1] to develop problems

Dictionary example:
Something's gone wrong with my computer.

Learner example:
Despite all that went wrong, there was something I really enjoyed. It was visiting the Diamond Cave.

DISAPPEAR
[B1] [i] to disappear or no longer exist

Dictionary examples:
The food had gone by the time we got to the party.
When I turned round, the man had gone.

Learner example:
When I came to take my suitcase, it had gone!

MATCH
[B1] [i] If two things go, they match each other.

Dictionary examples:
That top doesn't go with these trousers.
This jacket and skirt don't go together do they?

go bald/blind/grey, etc.
[B1] to become bald/blind/grey, etc.

Dictionary example:
He went bald in his twenties.

LEAD
[B1] [i] If a road, path, etc. goes in a particular direction, it leads there.

Dictionary example:
This road goes to Birmingham.

SONG
[B2] [i or τ] to have a particular tune or words

Dictionary example:
I can't remember how his latest song goes.

TIME
[B2] [i] If time goes, it passes.

Dictionary example:
The day went very quickly.
Learner example:
But the time went so quickly and now I am in my early sixties [with] a lot of spare time.

go into detail/s
[B2] to tell or include all the facts about something

Dictionary example:
I won't go into detail over the phone, but I've been having a few health problems recently.

Learner example:
In one of his books he really goes into detail [about] how children treat other children [who] have difficulties with their "new" [language].

go red
[B2] If someone goes red, their face becomes red because they are embarrassed or angry.

Dictionary example:
He kissed her on the cheek and she went bright red.

Learner example:
When Paul saw the girl who had got blond hair and bluish eyes, his face suddenly went red.

it goes without saying [B2] If something goes without saying, it is obvious or generally accepted.

Dictionary example:
It goes without saying that smoking is harmful to your health.

Learner example:
It goes without saying that I will participate!

go hand in hand
[C1] If two things go hand in hand, they exist together and are connected with each other.

Dictionary example:
Prosperity goes hand in hand with investment.

Learner example:
Traffic and pollution go hand in hand.

keep sb going
[C1] to provide what someone needs for a short period of time

Dictionary example:
Dinner is at eight, but I had an apple to keep me going.

Learner example:
Because of health concerns, advertisements lately show the people in Holland how important it is to have a good breakfast and that it will keep you going the whole day.
go from strength to strength
[C1] to continue to become more successful

Dictionary example:
The business is going from strength to strength.

Learner example:
To sum up, I believe that if the suggestions outlined above are put into action our magazine will go from strength to strength.

SOUND/MOVEMENT
[C2] [I or T] to make a particular sound or movement

Dictionary examples:
A cat goes 'Miaow'.
"Your dog's behaving oddly!" – "He goes like that when he wants some food."

WORKING
[C2] [I] to work in the right way

Dictionary example:
Did you get the car going?

to go
[C2] If there is a particular amount of time to go, that time remains.

Dictionary example:
There are only two weeks of term to go.

Learner example:
Right now this example is very realistic, and as I have just been told there is only 15 min to go, my stress level, I have to admit, is too high.

go downhill
[C2] to gradually become worse

Dictionary example:
After his wife died, his health started to go downhill.

Learner example:
He had been going downhill in the last few days and so his death came as no surprise.

go overboard INFORMAL
[C2] to do something too much, or to be too excited about something

Dictionary example:
I think people go overboard with presents at Christmas.

Learner example:
While no one should restrict their eating habits to the point eating is no longer a pleasure, but rather a chore, it is important not to go overboard, completely disregarding the advice of nutrition experts.
go out of your way to do sth
[C2] to try very hard to do something pleasant for someone

Dictionary example:
He went out of his way to make us feel welcome.

go through the motions
[C2] to do something because you are expected to do it and not because you want to

Dictionary example:
These days when we go out, I feel as though he's just going through the motions.

Learner example:
She went through the motions of every-day-life without enthusiasm.

go so far as to do sth
[C2] to take the extreme action of doing something

Dictionary example:
He even went so far as to stop her using the telephone.

Learner example:
Our present course of action may go so far as to cause irreversible damage not only to our planet but also to the people living upon it.

go too far
[C2] to behave in a way that upsets or annoys other people

Dictionary example:
He's said some stupid things in the past, but this time he's gone too far.

Learner example:
Lucia let her speak and calmly said: "You really have gone too far this time."

go with the flow INFORMAL
[C2] to do or accept what other people are doing because it is the easiest thing to do

Dictionary example:
Just relax and go with the flow!

Learner example:
At this stage of her progress towards knowing herself better she has accepted that life is a muddle and that to a certain extent one has to go with the flow.

go against the grain
[C2] If something goes against the grain, you would not normally do it because it would be unusual or morally wrong.

Dictionary example:
It goes against the grain to throw all this food away.
Learner example:
She tries to dodge George because she is afraid of admitting the fact that she loves him. It simply goes against the grain.

go through the roof
[C2] If the level of something, especially a price, goes through the roof, it increases very quickly.

Dictionary example:
The price of corn has gone through the roof recently.

Learner example:
Try extreme sports and feel your adrenaline levels going through the roof!

be still going strong [C2] continuing to be successful or healthy after a long time

Dictionary examples:
The club was set up in 1987, and it's still going strong.
He's 93 and still going strong!

Learner example:
I am proud of him and happy that he is still going strong.

NOUN [C] (PLURAL goes)

OPPORTUNITY
[B1] an opportunity to play in a game, or to do or use something

Dictionary examples:
It's your go, Michael.
Please can I have a go on your bike?

Learner example:
But if you are ready to get wild with your fr[ie]nds, I think you should have a go.

ATTEMPT
[B2] an attempt to do something

Dictionary example:
"This jar is impossible to open." "Here, let me have a go."

make a go of sth
[C2] to try to make something succeed, usually by working hard

Dictionary example:
They're determined to make a go of their business.

touch and go
[C2] used to describe a situation that is uncertain
Dictionary example:
The doctor says it is touch and go whether Mary will recover.

Learner example:
The idea of earning a lot certainly appeals to me but it's touch and go whether the job may bring a lot of money right from the start.

goal /gəʊl/

NOUN [C]

AIM
[B1] an aim or purpose

Dictionary examples:
Do you think I'll be able to achieve my goal of losing 5 kilos?
Andy's goal is to run in the New York Marathon.
Always set yourself realistic goals.

Learner example:
My goal for the future is to be a sail boat captain and this trip would be a good opportunity to practise my skills.

goalkeeper /ˈgəʊlˌkiː.ˈpeə/ (INFORMAL goalie)

NOUN [C]

[B1] the player who stands in the team's goal to try to stop the other team from scoring

Dictionary example:
Their goalkeeper was sent off in the 80th minute.

Learner example:
He is a very good goalkeeper.

goat /gəʊt/

NOUN [C]

[B1] an animal with horns which is kept to provide milk, meat, etc.

Dictionary example:
goat's milk/cheese
Learner example:
You can enjoy watching camels and goats passing once in the morning and [again] in the evening.

god /gɒd/

NOUN [C]

Oh my God! INFORMAL
[B1] I used to emphasize how surprised, angry, shocked, etc. you are

Dictionary example:
Oh my God! The car’s been stolen.

Learner example:
Oh my god, your sister is getting married!

thank God INFORMAL
[B1] I something you say when you are happy because something bad did not happen

Dictionary example:
Thank God nobody was hurt in the accident.

Learner example:
"Thank God my car is OK", [he] said.

SPIRIT
[B2] I a spirit, especially a male one, that people pray to and who has control over parts of the world or nature

Dictionary example:
the ancient Greek gods and goddesses

Learner example:
It was circled by a halo of light as if some gods had blessed it.

golden /ˈgəʊldən/

Word family:
Nouns: gold
Adjectives: golden

ADJECTIVE

SPECIAL
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] special, successful, or giving someone an advantage
Dictionary example:
He's got a place at university which gives him a golden opportunity to do research.

Learner example:
As you know, my uncle has some friends in the music world and it was a golden opportunity when he asked me to [help] at the Tina Turner concert!

good /gʊd/

Word family:

- Nouns: good, goodness
- Adjectives: good

ADJECTIVE (better, best)

MORALLY RIGHT

- [B1] morally right

Dictionary examples:
- He's a very good person.
- Try to set a good example to the children.

Learner example:
- Only in this way can [we] give a good example to the new generation.

it's a good thing

- [B2] If it's a good thing that something happened, it is lucky or fortunate that it happened.

Dictionary example:
- It's a good thing (that) we booked our tickets early.

Learner example:
- I think it's a good thing that your parents [are going to] come, because [...] maybe it would make it easier for you to convince them to let you spend a week here during Xmas.

Good for you!

- [B2] used to show approval for someone's success or good luck

Dictionary example:
- You passed your exam – good for you!

Learner example:
- That's great news! Good for you!

LARGE

- [C1] used to emphasize the number, amount, quality, etc. of something

Dictionary example:
- There's a good chance he'll pass the exam.
Learner example:
Your children have a good chance of getting a better education.

be good company
[C1] to be a pleasant or interesting person to spend time with

Dictionary example:
Ann and Charles are always good company.

Learner example:
He is a bit narrow-minded and at first he'll drive you crazy, but once you get to know him he'll be good company.

a good deal
[C1] an agreement, arrangement, or situation that benefits you

Dictionary example:
I think we got a really good deal on our new car.

Learner example:
The possibility [of] getting the needed staff from our own departments is absolutely a good deal for the company.

a good 20 minutes/30 miles, etc.
[C2] not less than 20 minutes/30 miles, etc. and probably a bit more

Dictionary example:
It's a good half an hour's walk to the station from here.

Learner example:
The Arts and Social science field also has a good 21% of graduates in further study.

it's a good job
[C2] If it is a good job that something happened, it is lucky that it happened.

Dictionary example:
It's a good job that Jo was there to help you.

Learner example:
It's a good job that I didn’t cry.

so far so good INFORMAL
[C2] used to say that something has gone well until now

Dictionary example:
It's the first time I've done any decorating, but so far so good.

Learner example:
So far so good, only no one told us they held this point of view before the actual christening took place.

be in good taste
[C2] to be acceptable in a way that will not upset or anger people
Dictionary example:
His speech was in good taste.

Learner example:
I therefore thought that it would be in good taste to write about two of them.

NOUN [u]

HELP
[B2] something that is an advantage or help to a person or situation

Dictionary examples:
Even a small donation can do a lot of good.
It’s hard work, but it’s for your own good.

Learner example:
Please think about this, [it] is for your own good.

be no good or be not any/much good [B2] to not be useful, helpful or valuable

Dictionary examples:
Shoes are no good if they let in water.
Food aid isn’t much good until the fighting stops.

Learner example:
When [it] is raining, you get wet and that’s no good to anyone.

do sb good
[B2] to be useful or helpful to someone

Dictionary example:
A holiday in the sun will do you good.

Learner example:
I think that living and studying in another country will do you good.

for good
[C1] forever

Dictionary example:
When he was 20, he left home for good.

Learner example:
He was renting this property previously, but he went back to Sri Lanka for good.

MORALLY RIGHT
[C2] what people think is morally right

Dictionary example:
Children don’t always understand the difference between good and bad.
Learner example:
From a symbolic point of view, the whole book features the conflict between good and evil, between reason and primary brutal passions such as savageness and lust for blood.

do sb a/the world of good  INFORMAL [C2] to make someone feel much happier or healthier

Dictionary example:
That swim has done me a world of good.

Learner example:
I feel a year abroad would do her a world of good in letting her care for children, learn to speak English properly, and see life from different aspects.

goodness  /ˈgʊd.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: good, goodness
Adjectives: good

NOUN
[C2] [u] the quality of being good

Dictionary example:
She believes in the goodness of human nature.

Learner example:
Soon after their marriage, Kinga gained a [reputation for] being [a] saint, for her virginity, modesty and goodness.

goods  /ɡʊdz/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B1] items which are made to be sold

Dictionary example:
There is a 25% discount on all electrical goods until the end of the week.

Learner example:
You can buy all goods [there] without tax.

Google  /ˈɡuː.gl/
Dictionary example:
We Googled his name and found over 2000 sites.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>gorgeous</td>
<td>/ˈɡɔː.ʤəs/</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[B1] very beautiful or pleasant

Dictionary examples:
I met this gorgeous guy at Erik’s party.
There’s a gorgeous view from the top of the hill.

Learner example:
I met this gorgeous guy Neto, [and] we are dating.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>gossip</td>
<td>/ˈɡɒs.ɪp/</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN

[B2] [u] conversation or reports about other people's private lives that might or might not be true

Dictionary examples:
an interesting piece of gossip
Have you heard the latest gossip?

Learner example:
Among them are the increasingly popular reality shows and all the daily news about gossip and scandal.

VERB [i]

[B2] to talk about other people's private lives

Dictionary examples:
Stop gossiping and get on with some work!
People have started to gossip about us.

Learner example:
First of all, I think they should accept the fact that they are well-known and they should be observed all the time, as we are curious to know what they do and we love to gossip about others.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>govern</td>
<td>/ˈgʌv.ən/</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: government

Verbs: govern
VERB [i or ɪ]
[B2] to control and direct the public business of a country, city, group of people, etc.

Dictionary example:
The country is now being governed by the Labour Party.

Learner example:
He governed this area in medi[e]val times.

government /ˈgʌv.ən.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: government
Verbs: govern

NOUN

GROUP
[B1] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] the group of people who officially control a country

Dictionary examples:
The government has/have recently cut taxes.
senior government officials

Learner example:
It [talk]ed about the anti-violence programs funded by the government.

PROCESS
[B2] [ʊ] the method or process of governing a country

Dictionary example:
a new style of government

grab /græb/

VERB (−bb−)

TAKE WITH HAND
[B1] [i or ɪ] to take hold of something or someone suddenly

Dictionary example:
A mugger grabbed her handbag as she was walking across the park.

Learner example:
I quickly hung up and grabbed clothes and my cell phone.
TAKE QUICKLY
[B2] [t] to get something quickly

Dictionary example:
Can everyone grab a handout, please?

Learner example:
We grab a burger on our way to work and a milkshake on our way back home.

grab the opportunity/chance
[C1] to take an opportunity quickly and with enthusiasm

Dictionary examples:
I'd grab the opportunity to travel.
If you get the chance to meet her, you should grab it.

Learner example:
I do admit that I could be more sociable and could grab the opportunity and meet many of my neighbours.

grab sb's attention INFORMAL [C1] to attract someone's attention

Dictionary example:
The advertisement is designed to grab people's attention.

Learner example:
We have to find the books that best grab the reader's attention.

grace /greɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: grace
Verbs: grace
Adjectives: graceful

NOUN [u]

MOVEMENT
[C1] the quality of moving in a smooth, relaxed, and attractive way

Dictionary example:
She moved with grace and elegance.

Learner example:
As with the sport I mentioned before, it also has the grace and elegance of a dancer and the technique, of course, of a skater.

POLITENESS
[C2] the quality of being pleasantly polite
Dictionary example:
He had the grace to apologize for his mistake the next day.

VERB [T]
[C2] When a person or object graces a place or thing, they make it more attractive.

Dictionary example:
Her face has graced the covers of magazines across the world.

Learner example:
The cover is graced with the flower after which it is named, an enormous, virgin white magnolia.

graceful /ˈgreɪs.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: grace
Verbs: grace
Adjectives: graceful

ADJECTIVE

MOVEMENT/SHAPE
[C1] moving in a smooth, relaxed, and attractive way, or having a smooth, attractive shape

Dictionary examples:
graceful movements
a graceful neck

Learner example:
One of the reasons for its popularity is that Hebe was a famous singer years ago, so her fans are the audience of her show. She is graceful, talented, impartial and spontaneous.

POLITE
[C2] behaving in a polite and pleasant way

Dictionary example:
She accepted his criticism in a very graceful manner.

Learner example:
I believe that people who have civil and graceful manners and who refrain from being too assertive end up being more successful and powerful than those who try to exert authority at any given moment.
grade /ˈgreɪd/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a number or letter that shows how good someone's work or performance is

Dictionary examples:
Steve never studies, but he always gets good grades.
Carla got a grade A in German.

Learner example:
I was really surprised when I read this mail. I passed with very good grades.

VERB

LEVEL
[C1] to separate people or things into different levels of quality, size, importance, etc.

Dictionary example:
The fruit is washed and then graded by size.

Learner example:
Our members graded everything on a scale from 1 to 5, with 1 being very poor, and 5 being excellent.

gradual /ˈgræd.jʊ.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: gradual Adverbs: gradually

ADJECTIVE
[B2] happening slowly over a period of time

Dictionary example:
a gradual change/improvement

Learner example:
There was a gradual rise in 1992.

gradually /ˈgræd.jə.li/
ADVERB

[B2] slowly over a period of time or a distance

Dictionary example:
Gradually, she realized that he wasn’t telling her the truth.

Learner example:
Books will gradually disappear, and instead we will read all the things we want on our computer.

---

graduate

NOUN [C] /ˈgrædʒ.u.ət/

[B2] a person who has a first degree from a university or college

Dictionary example:
a science graduate

Learner example:
He is a graduate in Ancient History and he has done post-graduate studies in Archaeology.

VERB /ˈgrædʒ.u.eɪt/

[B2] [I] to complete a first university degree successfully

Dictionary examples:
Tom has just graduated with first-class honours in psychology.
He graduated from Oxford University last year.

Learner example:
I graduated from university last year, and I am studying English now.

---

grain /ɡreɪn/

NOUN

SEED

[C2] a seed or seeds from types of grass which are eaten as food

Dictionary example:
grains of wheat/rice

Learner example:
One [solution] is [to] invent some kind of medicine, little pieces like a grain of rice, which feed a person, i.e. by just eating one piece, the person won't need to eat [any]thing else [for] the rest of the day.

PIECE

[C2] a very small piece of something
Dictionary example:
a grain of sand/sugar

Learner example:
She smiled again, absent-minded[ly], and wiped away a grain of dust from the lid of the piano.

QUALITY
[C2] a very small amount of a quality

Dictionary example:
There isn't a grain of truth in her story.

Learner example:
In my humble opinion, both these views contain a grain of truth, and at the same time they are fundamentally wrong.

go against the grain
[C2] If something goes against the grain, you would not normally do it because it would be unusual or morally wrong.

Dictionary example:
It goes against the grain to throw all this food away.

Learner example:
She tries to dodge George because she is afraid of admitting the fact that she loves him. It simply goes against the grain.

grammatical /ˈgræm.æt.ɪk.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: grammar
Adjectives: grammatical

ADJECTIVE
[C2] relating to grammar, or obeying the rules of grammar

Dictionary examples:
grammatical rules
a grammatical sentence

Learner example:
It was strange, because in the text there were some grammatical errors.

grand /grænd/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] very large and special
Dictionary examples:
- a grand hotel
- the Grand Canal

Learner example:
Do you want to live in a grand mansion, an expensive flat or even a castle?

grant  /grɑːnt/

NOUN [C]
- [B1] an amount of money provided by a government or organization for a special purpose

Dictionary example:
- a student/research grant

Learner example:
I’d like to know if I have to pay [for] my ticket (Valencia–Kent) or if [there]’s some kind of grant that I could apply for.

VERB

GIVE
- [B2] [t] formal to give or allow someone something, usually in an official way

Dictionary example:
He was granted asylum.

Learner example:
He came to the USA in 1990 and was granted a permanent resident status.

take sb/sth for granted
- [B2] to not show that you are grateful for someone or something, and forget that you are lucky to have them

Dictionary example:
Most of us take our freedom for granted.

Learner example:
So don’t take the telephone for granted, but keep in mind that our modern way of life is mainly due to its invention.

take it for granted
- [B2] to believe that something is true without checking or thinking about it

Dictionary example:
I took it for granted that we’d be invited to the wedding.

Learner example:
I have taken it for granted that you will arrive for dinner.
graph /ˈɡrɑːf/

Word family:
- Nouns: graph, graphics

NOUN [C]
- [B2] a picture with measurements marked on it as lines or curves, used to compare different things or show the development of something

Dictionary example:
This graph shows how crime has varied in relationship to unemployment over the last 20 years.

Learner example:
The graph shows the amount of carbon dioxide produced from a range of sources in the UK from 1980 to 2000.

graphics /ˈgræf.ɪks/

Word family:
- Nouns: graph, graphics

NOUN [PLURAL]
- [B1] images shown on a computer screen

Dictionary example:
computer graphics

Learner example:
The film was full of special effects created with the help of computer graphics.

grasp /ˈɡrɑːsp/

VERB [T]
- HOLD
  - [C1] to take hold of something or someone firmly

Dictionary example:
He grasped my hand enthusiastically.

Learner example:
It would take my heart away to be able to grasp his wrinkled hand and give him a kiss on the cheek of his crimson face, as I would always do when visiting him.

- UNDERSTAND
  - [C1] to understand something
Dictionary example:
I find these mathematical problems difficult to grasp.

Learner example:
Children born into wealth cannot grasp the importance of money, and when they finally leave the shelter of their parents’ home, they are completely unable to restrict their spending and save money.

grasp the nettle
[C2] to take action immediately in order to deal with an unpleasant situation

Dictionary example:
I've been putting off tackling the problem for too long and I think it's time to grasp the nettle.

Learner example:
Now we are going to grasp the nettle and we are not going to give up easily.

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

UNDERSTAND
[C2] when you understand something

Dictionary example:
He has a good grasp of English grammar.

Learner example:
Computers are an essential part of our modern lives and I am sure I would need to have a good grasp of the Microsoft tools to progress in my career.

HOLD
[C2] when you hold onto someone or something

Dictionary example:
I tried to pull him out but he slipped from my grasp.

ACHIEVE
[C2] the ability to obtain or achieve something

Dictionary example:
Victory is within our grasp.

Learner example:
Although immortality is still beyond our grasp, prolonged life is a well-known fact.

grateful /ˈgreɪt.fəl/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] feeling or showing thanks
Dictionary examples:
I’m really grateful to you for all your help.
I would be most grateful if you would send me the book immediately.

Learner example:
My grandmum cooked dinner and we were very grateful for it.

---

grave /greɪv/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a place in the ground where a dead person is buried

Dictionary example:
an unmarked grave

Learner example:
After a couple of hours they brought her from the hospital and the next day they buried her near her mother’s grave.

---

great /greɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: greatness
Adjectives: great
Adverbs: greatly

ADJECTIVE

EXTREME
[B1] extreme

Dictionary example:
He has great difficulty walking.

Learner example:
In my first lesson we talked together about our past experiences and our greatest difficulty [in studying] English and we learnt some phrasal verbs too (which we really hate)!

IMPORTANT
[B2] important or famous

Dictionary examples:
This is one of Rembrandt’s greatest paintings.
He’s probably the greatest actor alive today.

Learner example:
Ginny was a keen collector of rare paintings [by] great artists.
great big/long, etc. INFORMAL

[B2] very big/ long, etc.

Dictionary example:
I gave her a great big hug.

Learner example:
I will never forget when I was walking on the beach and all of a sudden this great big dog appears from nowhere running after me.

a great deal

[B2] a lot

Dictionary examples:
She spends a great deal of her time in Glasgow.
A great deal of effort has gone into making the software reliable.
They still need a great deal more money to finish the project.

Learner example:
There will be lots of events which you could see and take a great deal of pictures [of].

greatly /ˈgreɪt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: greatness
Adjectives: great
Adverbs: greatly

ADVERB

[B2] very much

Dictionary examples:
The higher profits were the result of greatly reduced costs.
The number of birds on the island has greatly increased in recent years.
Her piano playing has greatly improved/has improved greatly.

Learner example:
I recently went to the music festival and I greatly enjoyed it.

greatness /ˈgreɪt.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: greatness
Adjectives: great
Adverbs: greatly

NOUN [U]

[B2] skill and importance
Dictionary example:
Her greatness as a writer is unquestioned.

Learner example:
So, getting to be rich and famous is more related to achieving greatness in your own field and not necessarily gaining money and becoming the richest person in the world.

greed /griːd/

Word family:
Nouns: greed
Adjectives: greedy

NOUN [U]
[C1] when you want a lot more food, money, etc., than you need

Dictionary example:
We were shocked by their greed.

Learner example:
I hate to accept that greed and ambition are the trademarks of our society, but it seems clear to me now.

greedy /ˈɡriː.di/

Word family:
Nouns: greed
Adjectives: greedy

ADJECTIVE
[B2] wanting a lot more food, money, etc. than you need

Dictionary example:
greedy, selfish people

Learner example:
He was a greedy and cruel man.

green /griːn/

ADJECTIVE
GRASS
[B1] covered with grass or other plants
Dictionary example:
green spaces

Learner example:
If you wanted to do some outdoor activities, we could go fishing or even [go] walking through the green fields.

ENVIRONMENT
[B2] relating to nature and protecting the environment

Dictionary examples:
green issues
the Green Party

Learner example:
There is the government party, "Green party", especially [in] German[y].

(be) green with envy
[C2] to wish very much that you had something that another person has

Dictionary example:
Sam's got a job in the south of France and we're all green with envy!

Learner example:
The more successful players' salary makes the others green with envy.

greet /griːt/

Word family:
Nouns: greeting
Verbs: greet

VERB [T]

WELCOME
[B1] to welcome someone

Dictionary example:
He greeted me at the door.

Learner example:
We sat down and the teacher arrived. She greeted us and she [told] us her name.

REACT
[C2] to react to something in a particular way

Dictionary example:
His story was greeted with shrieks of laughter.

Learner example:
The return of the musician, who [was] once famous in the world, was greeted with joy.
greeting /ˈɡriː.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: greeting
Verbs: greet

NOUN [c]
[B1] something friendly or polite that you say or do when you meet or welcome someone

Dictionary example:
They exchanged greetings before starting the session.

Learner example:
Lucy asked me to pass on greetings to you.

grey /ˈgreɪ/

ADJECTIVE

WEATHER
[B2] cloudy and not bright

Dictionary example:
a cold, grey morning

Learner example:
Although we are in spring, yesterday was a grey day with clouds and rain.

BORING
[C1] not interesting or attractive

Dictionary example:
Life was grey and tedious.

Learner example:
If you join one of [the] Excel Academy language courses it will not be for the food– it was very grey and dull.

grief /ˈɡriːf/

NOUN [u]

SADNESS
[B2] great sadness, especially caused by someone's death
Dictionary example:
Newspapers should not intrude on people's private grief.

Learner example:
However, my grief was still fresh and raw then.

---

grill /grɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: grill
Adjectives: grilled

NOUN [c]

IN KITCHEN

[C1] a piece of equipment which cooks food using direct heat

Dictionary example:
Put the sausages on/under the grill.

Learner example:
I recom[m]end meat on the grill [- it is] delicious.

OVER FIRE

[C1] a flat, metal structure used to cook food over a fire

Dictionary example:
He placed a grill over the coals.

Learner example:
First you have to light the fire, then you have to put a grill above it and finally you put the meat on the grill, but it is not so easy as it looks, because you have to know when the meat is done and you have to choose the right meat.

VERB [t]

[B1] to cook food using direct heat

Dictionary example:
Grill the fish for two to three minutes on each side.

Learner example:
We were [in] the garden and [we] grilled meat.
grim /grɪm/

ADJECTIVE (grimmer, grimmest)

BAD
[C2] worrying and bad

Dictionary examples:
grim news
The future looks grim.

Learner example:
A person should realise that no matter how grim the future seems to be there is always light at the end of the tunnel.

SERIOUS
[C2] sad and serious

Dictionary example:
a grim expression

Learner example:
They gaped at it with surprise, but slowly the grim faces were replaced with smiles and laughter.

UNPLEASANT
[C2] A grim place is ugly and unpleasant.

Dictionary example:
grim industrial regions

Learner example:
This was a particularly gloomy and grim place.

grin /grɪn/

VERB [I] (grinning, grinned)

SMILE
[C2] to smile a big smile

Dictionary example:
He grinned at me from the doorway.

Learner example:
He stood up, approached me in his once corduroy trousers, grinned and poked his tongue out at me.
grin and bear it
[C2] to accept an unpleasant or difficult situation because there is nothing you can do to improve it

Dictionary example:
I hate my job, but I'm just going to have to grin and bear it for a while.

Learner example:
As I couldn't simply get up and go away, I just had to grin and bear it for a little while longer.

NOUN [c]
[C2] a big smile

Dictionary example:
She had a big grin on her face.

Learner example:
No sooner had he entered the restaurant than he was greated with broad grins and friendly hugs.

grip /grɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: grip
Verbs: grip
Adjectives: gripping

VERB [v] (-pp-)

HOLD
[B2] to hold something very tightly

Dictionary example:
The baby gripped my finger with her tiny hand.

Learner example:
I gripped the steering wheel, fixed my eyes firmly on the road, and bravely drove up to Scotland.

EMOTION
[C2] When an emotion grips you, you feel it very strongly.

Dictionary example:
He was gripped by fear.

Learner example:
But when she found out, a cold feeling of shock gripped her.

INTEREST
[C2] to keep someone's attention completely
Dictionary example:
This trial has gripped the whole nation.

Learner example:
I was gazing at the stage and was completely gripped by the music.

noun [no plural]

hold
[B2] when you hold something tightly

Dictionary example:
She tightened her grip on my arm.

Learner example:
Then suddenly I lost [my] grip on the papers and they all dropped to the floor and landed in a great heap.

get a grip (on yourself)
[C1] to make an effort to control your emotions and behave more calmly

Dictionary example:
Stop panicking and get a grip on yourself!

Learner example:
The best thing to do was to talk to people who were not doing the test rather than building up my anxiety. However, I did not do this and it almost resulted in a disaster, but I got a grip on myself and just barely passed.

come/get to grips with sth
[C2] to understand and deal with a problem or situation

Dictionary example:
It's a difficult subject to get to grips with.

Learner example:
As a result, they are daily faced with tight schedules and they have to come to grips with the demanding work they have to prepare for school.

gripping /ˈɡriːp.ɪŋ/
Dictionary example:
a gripping story

Learner example:
'I know why the caged bird sings' is the most gripping read I have ever read.

groan /grəʊn/

VERB [i]
[C2] to make a long, low sound such as when expressing pain, unhappiness, etc.

Dictionary example:
He collapsed, groaning with pain.

Learner example:
He was breathing but he was unconscious; he moaned and groaned, but he did not have any obvious signs of injuries.

NOUN [c]
[C2] a long, low sound such as one expressing pain, unhappiness, etc.

Dictionary example:
I could hear his groans from behind the door.

Learner example:
Afterwards, with a wild groan, he dropped down to the ground.

groom /ɡruːm/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a man who is getting married

Dictionary example:
The bride and groom were posing for pictures.

Learner example:
[In] my village, the bride and the groom stay [on] their first night at the groom's parents' house.

gross /ɡrəʊs/

ADJECTIVE

TOTAL
[C1] A gross amount of money has not had taxes or other costs taken from it.
Dictionary example:
gross earnings/profit

Learner example:
Considering that our business is booming, we suggest invest[ing] a certain amount of money in the above-mentioned technical devices in order to achieve the financial target, which is to increase our gross profit by 10%.

SERIOUS
[C1] very serious or unacceptable

Dictionary example:
gross misconduct

Learner example:
Secondly, in the second paragraph, two gross mistakes were made.

ground /ˈɡraʊnd/

NOUN

the ground
[B1] the surface of the Earth

Dictionary example:
I sat down on the ground.

Learner example:
The weather was really nice and the ground wasn't wet so we could run with no problem.

AREA OF LAND
[B1] [c] an area of land used for a particular purpose or activity

Dictionary example:
a football ground

Learner example:
Could we use the football ground?

SOIL
[B2] [u] the soil in an area

Dictionary examples:
soft/stony ground
The ground was frozen hard and was impossible to dig.

Learner example:
Winds sweep the grey granite coast line letting survive [a] few rare species of plants which are adapted to the dry and salty ground.
gain/lose ground
[C1] to become more/less popular and accepted

Dictionary example:
The idea is gradually gaining ground.

Learner example:
Lately, Italian food is gaining ground in Slovenia.

stand your ground
[C2] to refuse to change your opinion or move your position despite attempts to make you

Dictionary example:
They tried to make me accept a lower wage, but I stood my ground.

Learner example:
She said she would stand her ground. In fact, she hoped that after the first flush of infatuation was over, Francis would come [to] long for his former love.

break new ground
[C2] to do something that is different to anything that has been done before

Dictionary example:
Their research is really breaking new ground.

Learner example:
Paul decided to break new ground in music no matter how long it took.

find common ground
[C2] to find shared beliefs, interests or ideas

Dictionary example:
It’s difficult for me to find any common ground with my dad.

Learner example:
The bottom line is we have to find some common ground and some balance between development and nature...

grounds /graʊndz/

NOUN [PLURAL]

on the grounds of/that [C1] because of a particular reason

Dictionary examples:
You cannot discriminate on the grounds of religion.
I refused on the grounds that it was too risky.
Learner example:
I am convinced that it is better than Southside College on the grounds that a great mass of students are satisfied.

REASON
[C2] a reason, cause or argument

Dictionary example:
He resigned on medical grounds.

Learner example:
I would like to mention some of the events in the novel which prove Stevens’s loyalty and at the same time make him seem irritating especially out of a modern point of view: the dismissal of the two Jewish maids on purely racial grounds.

LAND
[C2] the land around and belonging to a particular building or organization

Dictionary example:
We strolled around the hospital grounds.

Learner example:
The visitors feel molested, since they can either not visit the famous sights without being asked for money or they are even advised not to leave the hotel grounds in order not to be robbed.

---

group /gruːp/

VERB [T]
[C1] to form a group or put people or things into a group or groups

Dictionary example:
The children are grouped according to their ability.

Learner example:
I would like to suggest that we should be grouped according to the level of our English proficiency on the first day of the semester.

grow /ɡrəʊ/

Word family:
Nouns: growth
Verbs: grow
Adjectives: growing
VERB (grew, grown)

INCREASE

[B1] [i] to increase

Dictionary example:
The number of people living alone grows each year.

Learner example:
In Rio, violence is growing very fast, so if we're planning to spend the holiday [i]n the city we'll have to take care.

HAIR

[B1] [i or t] If your hair or nails grow, or if you grow them, they get longer.

Dictionary example:
Are you growing a beard?

Learner example:
I've lost some weight and I've grown a beard.

grow tired/old/calm, etc.

[B2] to gradually become tired/old/calm, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Our bodies change as we grow older.
The music was growing louder and louder.

Learner example:
They went to the field and, relaxing on [the] grass, spoke about their life without each other. Soft blue evening came and it was growing dark.

growing /ˈɡrəʊ.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: growth
Verbs: grow
Adjectives: growing

ADJECTIVE

[B2] increasing in size or quantity

Dictionary example:
There is a growing awareness of the seriousness of this disease.

Learner example:
All my family, friends, [and] neighbours [were] first full of pride and expectations, then with slowly growing disbelief and disappointment.
grown-up

NOUN [C] /ˈgrəʊnˌʌp/
[B2] an adult, used especially when talking to children

Dictionary example:
Ask a grown-up to cut the shape out for you.

Learner example:
If I were a grown-up I would like to have a big dog.

ADJECTIVE /ˌgrəʊnˈʌp/
[B2] If you say that someone is grown-up, you mean that they are an adult or that they behave in a responsible way.

Dictionary example:
She has two grown-up children who work in the family business.

Learner example:
Now, as a grown-up person, I am trying to evaluate such [an] upbringing objectively.

growth /grəʊθ/

Word family:
Nouns: growth
Verbs: grow
Adjectives: growing

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[B2] when something grows, increases or develops

Dictionary examples:
A balanced diet is essential for healthy growth.
population growth

Learner example:
The huge growth of technology has brought lots of good aspects to my life, like the facility to be informed about everything that is happening around the world.

grumpy /ˈgrʌm.pi/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] easily annoyed and often complaining

Dictionary example:
a grumpy old man
Learner example:
Secondly, our coach driver was a grumpy, unpleasant man who was not even polite enough to answer our questions.

guarantee /ˌgær.ˈnɪti:/

VERB [v]

[B2] to promise or make sure that something is true or will happen

Dictionary examples:
Every child is guaranteed a place at a local school.
They guarantee that it will arrive on time.

Learner example:
I can guarantee you won't be disappointed if you let me do the job.

NOUN [c or u]

[B2] a written promise made by a company to repair one of its products or give you a new one if it has a fault

Dictionary examples:
a money-back guarantee
I'm afraid this camera is no longer under guarantee.

Learner example:
And you couldn't [take] it back because it is not under guarantee.

PROMISE

[C2] a promise that something will be done or will happen

Dictionary example:
There's no guarantee that it actually works.

Learner example:
They are the ones who are hit most by any economic deterioration or crisis, and there is no guarantee that they will not end up living in the streets.

guard /ɡɑːd/

NOUN

PERSON WHO PROTECTS

[B1] [c] someone whose job is to protect a person, place or thing from danger or attack, or to prevent a person such as a criminal from escaping
Dictionary examples:
a security guard prison guards
The frontier is patrolled by border guards.

Learner example:
I saw two security guards, who opened the door for me and welcomed me inside.

catch sb off guard
[C2] to surprise someone by doing something when they are not ready to deal with it

Dictionary example:
The journalist caught him off guard and he admitted to lying.

Learner example:
It caught me off guard. This grotesque image shattered the comfort of a languid Sunday afternoon and for a few seconds hurled me into a world of pain.

be on (your) guard
[C2] to be ready to deal with something difficult that might happen

Dictionary example:
Companies were warned to be on their guard for suspicious packages.

Learner example:
However, we should be on guard, so as not to let the things escape our control.

let your guard down
[C2] to relax when you should be careful or ready to deal with something

Dictionary example:
He’s worried that if he lets his guard down that his staff will start to become lazy.

Learner example:
That of course will go against anything Stevens has ever done and he never lets his guard down.

VERB [T]

PROTECT
[B2] to protect someone or something from being attacked or stolen

Dictionary example:
Soldiers guard the main doors of the embassy.

Learner example:
I guess it was that thrill that actually made me anxious to know what really was going on inside the dodgy-looking old house guarded by a man with an unfriendly hound.

WATCH
[B2] to watch someone and make certain they do not escape from a place
Dictionary example:
Five prison officers guarded the prisoners.

Learner example:
No one was guarding him.

guess  /ges/

VERB [I or T]

I guess
[B1] used when you think something is probably true or likely

Dictionary example:
I've known her for about 12 years, I guess.

Learner example:
I guess that I love her although we do not know [each other] very well.

I guess so/not
[B2] used when you agree/disagree but are not completely certain about something

Dictionary example:
"So they're still living in the same house?" "I guess so."

NOUN [C]

[B1] an attempt to give the right answer when you are not certain if you are correct

Dictionary examples:
How old do you think John is? Go on, have a guess.
Both teams made some wild guesses, none of which were right.

Learner example:
I am sure you will know her from TV – now have a guess who she might be.

an educated guess
[C2] a guess that is probably correct because you have enough knowledge about something

Dictionary example:
I know you don't have the exact figures with you, but make an educated guess.

Learner example:
If we make an educated guess, we will probably suppose that this tendency will continue [for] the next few years and that there will be a time when we won't be able to do anything without medicines.
guest /gest/

NOUN [C]

TV

[B2] a person, such as an entertainer, who has been invited to appear on a television or radio programme or in a performance

Dictionary example:
Our special guest on the programme tonight is Robert de Niro.

Learner example:
Of course a bear shouldn’t be a guest [o]n a TV show, it’s not in his nature.

guidance /ˈgaɪ.dəntz/

Word family:
Nouns: guidance, guide
Verbs: guide

NOUN [U]

[B2] help or advice

Dictionary example: careers guidance

Learner example:
I dream of being Lord Krishna’s devotee but I need professional guidance.

guide /gaɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: guidance, guide
Verbs: guide

NOUN [C]

BOOK

[B1] a book that gives information about something or tells you how to do something

Dictionary examples:
a hotel/restaurant guide
a user’s guide

Learner example:
I found that some of the current information in the guide [is] a little bit old.
VERB [r]
[B1] to help someone visit a place or go somewhere

Dictionary examples:
Someone offered to guide us through the jungle.
He gently guided her back to her seat.

Learner example:
I had to look after the members of the public and [I] guided them to their seats.

guideline /ˈɡaɪdlain/

NOUN [C USUALLY PLURAL]
[C1] advice about how to do something

Dictionary examples:
government guidelines
The EU has issued guidelines on appropriate levels of pay.

Learner example:
To avoid being injured, you must follow all the guidelines provided by your employer.

guilt /ɡɪlt/

Word family:
Nouns: guilt
Adjectives: guilty

NOUN [u]

FEELING
[B2] a feeling of shame or unhappiness when you have done something wrong

Dictionary example:
He suffered such feelings of guilt over leaving his children.

Learner example:
Her brother had hesitated before telling her the truth, but he proved that he really trusted his sister by confessing his guilt to her.

ILLEGAL
[B2] the fact of having committed a crime

Dictionary example:
Both suspects admitted their guilt to the police.
guilty /ˈɡɪlti/

Word family:
Nouns: guilt
Adjectives: guilty

ADJECTIVE

FEELING
[B1] feeling guilt

Dictionary examples:
She was so upset about what I’d said and I felt so guilty.
I felt guilty about leaving her there on her own.
I’ve got a guilty conscience.

Learner example:
I’ve got a guilty conscience because I forgot to say goodbye.

RESPONSIBLE
[B2] responsible for breaking a law

Dictionary examples:
The jury found her guilty.
The jury has to decide whether a person is guilty or innocent of a crime.

Learner example:
After the trial, where the jury found him guilty, he was sent to prison for a long time.

guitarist /ˈɡɪtɑː.r.i.st/

Word family:
Nouns: guitar, guitarist

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who plays the guitar, especially as their job

Dictionary example:
The lead guitarist in the band was excellent.

Learner example:
Not only did he want to be a doctor, but he was also a great guitarist.
gulf /gɔlf/

NOUN [c]
[C2] an important difference between the opinions or situations of two groups of people

Dictionary example:
There is a growing gulf between the rich and the poor.

Learner example:
While Mrs Kingshaw simplifies and trivialises her son's fears, she increases the gulf between them.

gum /gʌm/

NOUN

MOUTH
[B2] [c] the hard, pink part inside your mouth that your teeth grow out of

Dictionary example:
Protect your teeth and gums by visiting your dentist regularly.

gun /gʌn/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a weapon that you fire bullets out of

Dictionary example:
You could hear the noise of guns firing in the distance.

Learner example:
He went downstairs and picked up his father's gun.

guts /ɡʌts/

NOUN [PLURAL] INFORMAL

BRAVERY
[B2] the bravery and determination that is needed to do something difficult or unpleasant
Dictionary examples:
It took guts to stand up and tell the boss how she felt.
I didn't think he would have the guts to quite that awful job.

Learner example:
They did not expect that the people [in] this vicinity would actually have the guts to retaliate!

ORGANS
[C2] the organs inside a person's or animal's body

Dictionary example:
Its guts were spilled all over the road.

Learner example:
The walls were covered in blood and their guts were spilled all over the place.

guy /gaɪ/

NOUN [c]

guys
[B1] used when you are talking to or about two or more people

Dictionary example:
Come on, you guys, let's go home.

Learner example:
Hey guys! I'm just writing to thank you [for] the great times we had last weekend and to say you're aw[e]some.

gym /dʒɪm/

Word family:
Nouns: gym, gymnastics
Adjectives: gymnastic

NOUN

BUILDING
[B1] [c] a building or room with equipment for doing exercises

Dictionary example:
Nick goes to the gym three times a week.

Learner example:
We went to a gym near my house.
EXERCISES

[B1] [u] exercises done inside, especially as a school subject

Dictionary example:
We have gym on Friday afternoons.

Learner example:
You can do gym, aqua, dance, boxing, squash, [and] tennis.

gymnastic /dʒɪmˈnæs.tɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: gym, gymnastics
Adjectives: gymnastic

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] involving gymnastics

Dictionary example:
a gymnastic display

Learner example:
My friend like[s] to go swimming every morning. I prefer to [do] gymnastic exercises in a separate room every day.

gymnastics /dʒɪmˈnæs.tɪks/

Word family:
Nouns: gym, gymnastics
Adjectives: gymnastic

NOUN [u]

[B1] a sport in which you do physical exercises on the floor and on different pieces of equipment, often in competitions

Dictionary example:
Let’s watch the gymnastics on TV.

Learner example:
Every Tuesday and Thursday you can [do] sports like basketball, football or also gymnastics.
habit /ˈhæb.ɪt/

NOUN [C or U]

REGULAR ACTIVITY
[B1] something that you do often and regularly, almost without knowing that you are doing it

Dictionary examples:
healthy eating habits
I always buy the same toothpaste out of habit.
I'm trying not to get into the habit of having biscuits with my coffee.
He can't break the habit of switching on the TV when he comes home at night.
I'm not really in the habit of looking at other people's clothes, but even I noticed that awful yellow suit!

Learner example:
In your last letter you ask[ed] me about my shopping habits and my clothes.

BAD ACTIVITY
[B2] something that you often do that is bad for you or is annoying

Dictionary examples:
He has some really annoying/nasty habits.
I was taught to drive by my boyfriend and I'm afraid I've picked up some of his bad habits.

Learner example:
With more free time and more money to spend than ever, shopping is a great activity, but when this creates bad habits [such] as overspending, [it] could lead to serious problems.

habitat /ˈhæb.ɪ.tæt/

NOUN [C]
[C1] the natural environment of an animal or plant

Dictionary example:
We want to see lions in their natural habitat.
Learner example:
These snakes and wild cats are able to live in the wild, as the forests in Denmark are like their natural habitat.

hail /hɛɪl/

NOUN [u]

[C2] small hard balls of ice which fall from the sky like rain

Dictionary example:
Hail was drumming against the windows.

Learner example:
In the past, a very cold winter and hail would destroy the crops and kill hundreds of families; and, moreover, people had little protection against the attacks of wild animals.

VERB

CALL

[C2] to call or wave to someone to get their attention

Dictionary example:
She stepped into the road and hailed a taxi.

Learner example:
If you see a car or a bus or some other vehicle, just hail them and ask for help.

ICE

[C2] If it hails, small, hard pieces of frozen rain fall from the sky.

Dictionary example:
It was hailing.

hair /heə̞r/

NOUN

SINGLE PIECE

[B2] [c] one of the thin thread-like parts that grow on a person's or animal's skin

Dictionary examples:
He's starting to get a few grey hairs now.
My black skirt was covered in cat hairs.

Learner example:
Then he appeared: a [fat], middle-aged man with only a few hairs on his head.
let your hair down  INFORMAL [C2] to relax and enjoy yourself

Dictionary example:
I’d love to see Clare let her hair down for once.

Learner example:
Holidays indeed, represent the perfect and fundamental escapism from everyday life: we are free to let our hair down and savour the pure taste of idleness.

haircut  /ˈheə.kʌt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] when someone cuts your hair, or the style in which it has been cut

Dictionary examples:
to get/have a haircut
I really need a haircut.
He had a smart new haircut.

Learner example:
You two have the same haircut, the same complexion but not the same attitude, which is good.

hairdresser  /ˈheəˌdres.ər/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a person who cuts people's hair and puts it into a style. The place where this is done is called a hairdresser's.

Dictionary examples:
I'm going to change my hairdresser.
I've got a four o'clock appointment at the hairdresser's.

Learner example:
I decided to go to the hairdresser's to have my hair cut because the next day I had to go to the party.

hairdryer  /ˈheəˌdraɪ.ər/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a piece of electrical equipment for drying your hair with hot air

Dictionary example:
Did you pack a hairdryer?
Learner example:
We have microwaves that help us to [prepare] our meal quickly, we have hairdryers to dry our hair in 15 minutes, we have different things that [have] made our life easier.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>half</th>
<th>/haːf/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN; PRONOUN; DETERMINER (PLURAL halves)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>break/cut, etc. sth in half</td>
<td>[B1] to divide something into two equal parts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td>Divide the dough in half and roll it out into two circles.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Fold the piece of paper in half.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>They were very surprised when they found out [that] the gold was cut in half.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A LOT | [B2] INFORMAL a lot |
| Dictionary examples: | She invited a lot of people to the party but half of them didn't turn up. |
| | I don't even know where she is half (of) the time. |
| Learner example: | First of all, if [the] computer hadn't been invented, I wouldn't spend half of the day in front of it! |

not half as good/bad/exciting, etc. | [B2] INFORMAL to be much less good/bad/exciting, etc. than something else |
| Dictionary example: | Her new book's not half as good as the last one. |
| Learner example: | Probably they wouldn't be half as famous as they are without press photographers, journalist[s], etc. |

ADVERB | [B1] partly, but not completely |
| Dictionary examples: | half empty/full |
| Sophia is half Greek and half Spanish. |
| Learner example: | After our kiss, my face was painted half white, half black as well. |

1304 hammer /ˈhæm.ər/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a tool with a heavy, metal part at the top that you use to hit nails into something

Dictionary example:
You will need a hammer and some nails.

Learner example:
I had got a hammer to break the window.

hand /hænd/

Word family:
Nouns: hand, handful

NOUN [c]

a hand

[B1] some help, especially to do something practical

Dictionary examples:
Could you give me a hand with these suitcases?
I think Matthew might need a hand with his homework.

Learner example:
I'll give you a hand to organize your holiday!

by hand

[B1] done or made by a person instead of a machine

Dictionary example:
This sweater has to be washed by hand.

Learner example:
I used to remember my mother washing our clothes by hand, but for me it is just a matter of throwing the clothes into the washing machine and pressing a few buttons.

on the one hand ... on the other hand

[B2] used when you are comparing two different ideas or opinions

Dictionary example:
On the one hand, computer games develop many skills, but on the other, they mean kids don't get enough exercise.
Learner example:
On the one hand, I know from my experience that it’s much easier in life if you know more about everything, but on the other hand, I’d say that if someone [had given] me a chance (when I was kid) to study what I enjoy[ed], probably I’d have more possibility to develop my skills.

hand in hand
[B2] holding each other’s hand

Dictionary example:
The young couple walked hand in hand by the lake.

Learner example:
Hand in hand they got off the train and she felt that her decision to leave was the best decision she had ever [made] in her life.

go hand in hand
[C1] If two things go hand in hand, they exist together and are connected with each other.

Dictionary example:
Prosperity goes hand in hand with investment.

Learner example:
Traffic and pollution go hand in hand.

at hand
[C1] near in time or space

Dictionary example:
Teachers are always close at hand to give help to any child who needs it.

Learner example:
I haven’t had any lectures in English, but now and then there are lectures in English at the University so you need to understand the spoken language with no dictionary at hand.

be in sb’s hands
[C1] to be in someone’s control or care

Dictionary example:
The matter is now in the hands of my solicitor.

Learner example:
If we [do] not hear from you within 10 days we shall be obliged to put the matter in the hands of our solicitors which is not what we desire.

with your bare hands
[C2] without using a weapon or tool

Dictionary example:
He strangled the dog with his bare hands.

Learner example:
I learned how to milk a cow, with my bare hands.
on hand or to hand
[C2] near to someone or something, and ready to help or be used when necessary

Dictionary example:
Extra supplies will be on hand, should they be needed.

Learner example:
From their point of view, they can always have you on hand whenever they need help, which is the most important part in their formative years.

at the hands of sb
[C2] If you suffer at the hands of someone, they hurt you or treat you badly.

Dictionary example:
She suffered terribly at the hands of her classmates.

Learner example:
She felt abandoned and the loss of Mark's friends at the hands of their old nemesis in the local election had left him with fewer activities for the municipality.

get/lay your hands on sth
[C2] to find something

Dictionary example:
Do you know where I can lay my hands on a pair of scissors?

Learner example:
And as long as we remain unable to distinguish between needs and desires, amassing material possessions to gratify our fleeting caprices or alleviate our frustrations, we are bound to be trapped in the illusion that only by laying our hands on the desired goods can we obtain happiness and peace of mind.

in hand
[C2] being worked on or dealt with now

Dictionary example:
Despite the pressures we are determined to get on with the job in hand.

Learner example:
Miss Kenton keeps asking Stevens whether everything is in hand and whether her help is required.

get/gain the upper hand
[C2] to get into a stronger position than someone else so that you are controlling a situation

Dictionary example:
Government troops are gradually gaining the upper hand over the rebels.

Learner example:
He knew that Hooper had got the upper hand and that there was no escape.
get out of hand
[C2] to become difficult to control

Dictionary example:
It was the end of term and the children were getting a little out of hand.

Learner example:
A few solutions can prevent this problem from getting out of hand.

a free hand
[C2] permission to make your own decisions about how you want to do something

Dictionary example:
The students were given a free hand as far as designing their product was concerned.

Learner example:
But unlike my parents, I wouldn't give my children a free hand in solving their problems.

have your hands full [C2] to be very busy

Dictionary example:
Shelley has her hands full with three kids under 5.

Learner example:
This very fact made my father work as a slave, as he was the only breadwinner at home, my mother having her hands full with us four.

take the law into your own hands
[C2] to do something illegal in order to punish someone because you know that the law will not punish that person

Dictionary example:
The police did nothing about the thefts, so they took the law into their own hands.

Learner example:
Therefore, locals are scared to death, leading to their taking the law into their own hands.

VERB [T]

GIVE
[B1] to give someone something

Dictionary examples:
She handed me the letter.
The waiter smiled politely as he handed my bill to me.
Could you hand me that book, please?

Learner example:
Maybe you could hand me a paper with several questions I can answer, thus I [would] cover the work I miss.
you have to hand it to sb INFORMAL [C2] used when you want to show that you admire someone

Dictionary example:
You have to hand it to Mick, he's done a good job on that kitchen.

Learner example:
She had saved the bu[si]ness, and of course everybody knew it. Begrudgingly they'd had to hand it to her.

handball /ˈhænd.bɔːl/

NOUN [U]
[B1] a game in which players hit a small hard rubber ball against a wall with their hands

Dictionary example:
We played handball yesterday.

handful /ˈhænd.fʊl/

Word family:
Nouns: hand, handful

NOUN

a handful of [B2] a small number of people or things

Dictionary example:
Only a handful of people came to the meeting.

Learner example:
First of all, thank you for having invited me to this meeting on a matter which many people pretend to be expert [at] but [which], in fact, is deeply known by [only] a handful of scholars.

hand-held /ˈhænd.held/

ADJECTIVE (also handheld)
[B1] describes something that is designed to be held and used easily with one or two hands

Dictionary example:
a hand–held camera/computer/device
Learner example:
Computer technology has been improving, from [the] first machines, which were so big that they had to be placed in special buildings, to hand-held devices in only 50 years.

handkerchief /ˈhæŋ.kə.tʃiːf/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a small piece of cloth or soft paper that you use to dry your eyes or nose

Dictionary example:
She dabbed her eyes with a handkerchief.

Learner example:
We are going to see a dramatic film, Era mio padre, so don’t forget your handkerchief.

handle /ˈhæn.dəl/

VERB [T]

DEAL WITH
[B1] to deal with something

Dictionary examples:
I thought he handled the problem/situation very well.
If you can't handle the job I'll get someone else to do it.
Who handles the marketing in your company?

Learner example:
He couldn't handle it and started to run in the rain, crying, thinking.

TOUCH
[C2] to touch, hold, or pick up something

Dictionary example:
You must wash your hands before handling food.

Learner example:
In India, people tend to handle food with their hands, I have been told most people eat without cutlery.

NOUN [C]
[B2] the part of something that you use to hold it or open it

Dictionary examples:
a door handle
I can't pick the kettle up – the handle's too hot.
She turned the handle and slowly opened the door.
Learner example:
I saw my chair, my carpet... and my door handle!...

handout /ˈhænd.aʊt/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a copy of a document that is given to all the people in a class or meeting

Dictionary example:
On page two of your handout you will find a list of the books that I have referred to during the lecture.

Learner example:
During our course, I made [an] effort to follow the lectures, [and,] for instance, to check the unknown vocab[ul]ar[y] which appeared in handouts.

handsome /ˈhæn.səm/

ADJECTIVE

ATTRACTION

[B1] A handsome man is attractive.

Dictionary example:
She's hoping that she'll meet a tall, dark, handsome stranger.

Learner example:
The main actor is very handsome too.

a handsome profit/sum, etc.

[C2] a large amount of money

Dictionary example:
They made a handsome profit on the sale of their house.

Learner example:
Secondly, from an economic stand-point, it is generally believed that international sports events only serve as a means for TV companies to monopolise entertainment while turning a handsome profit.

handwriting /ˈhændˌraɪ.tɪŋ/

NOUN [u]

[B1] the way that someone forms the letters when they write with a pen or pencil
Dictionary examples:
We need to ensure that handwriting is properly taught in our primary schools.
His handwriting is impossible to read.

Learner example:
I have pretty bad handwriting as you know from my letters, and with a computer and a printer I can avoid others who read my letters [from being] put off by my handwriting.

---

handy /ˈhæn.di/

ADJECTIVE

USEFUL

[C2] useful or easy to use

Dictionary example:
a handy container/tool

Learner example:
Such a possession may be something they use all the time, like a fountain pen for a writer, or a handy camera for a photographer, and they have become "dependent" on them.

come in handy INFORMAL

[C2] to be useful at some time in the future

Dictionary example:
Don't throw those jars away – they might come in handy.

Learner example:
There's a washer and a dryer in the basement. I'm sure they'll come in handy with your new bundle of joy and the rest of your lovely bunch.

NEAR

[C2] near to a place

Dictionary example:
It's a nice house and it's handy for the station.

Learner example:
Moreover, Suita is handy for shopping and leisure, which also makes our town attractive.
hang /ˈhæŋ/

VERB

FASTEN

[B1] [i or ɪ] (hung, hung) to fasten or support something at the top leaving the other parts free to move, or to be held in this way

Dictionary examples:
A heavy gold necklace hung around her neck.
The curtains hung in thick folds.
Hang your coat and hat on the rack over there.

Learner example:
She kept it in a tiny red bag which hung around her neck like a necklace.

KILL

[B2] [ɪ] (hanged or hung, hanged or hung) to kill someone by dropping them with a rope tied around their neck, or to die in this way

Dictionary examples:
He was found guilty and hanged later that year.
The woman tried to hang herself with a sheet.

Learner example:
Their childhood was rather unhappy because their father was convicted of murder and hanged.

IN AIR

[C2] [I] to stay in the air for a long time

Dictionary example:
Thick fog hung over the town.

Learner example:
The smog hangs over the cities like a deadly cloud, resulting in many health problems like pulmonary diseases and cancer.

NOUN

get the hang of sth

[C2] informal to learn how to do something, especially if it is not obvious or simple

Dictionary example:
I've never used one of these before. – Don't worry, you'll soon get the hang of it.

Learner example:
It was quite hard to get the hang of it, as I didn't have any knowledge of English.
happen /ˈhæp.ən/

VERB [\[

happen to do sth
[C1] to do something by chance

Dictionary examples:
If you happen to see Peter, say "hi" for me.
You don't happen to know her phone number, do you?

Learner example:
I am certainly more confident and can understand whatever I happen to read in English, which is of course of the utmost importance for my work in this company.

as it happens
[C1] something that you say in order to introduce a surprising fact

Dictionary example:
As it happens, her birthday is the day after mine.

Learner example:
As it happens, I am currently looking for a computer course for myself and I would like to join one of your courses.

happily /ˈhæp.ə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: happiness, unhappiness
Adjectives: happy, unhappy
Adverbs: happily

ADVERB

HAPPY
[B1] in a happy way

Dictionary examples:
He was happily married with two young children.
The baby sucked happily on a corner of her blanket.

Learner example:
Now we are happily married and I cannot stop thinking what would have happened if I had thrown away the e-mail...?

WILLING
[B2] in a way that is very willing
Dictionary example:
I'd happily offer to help him if I thought it would make any difference.

Learner example:
I think young people would happily accept it.

LUCKY
[C1] having a good or lucky result

Dictionary example:
Happily, the operation was a complete success.

Learner example:
Happily, I had met a friend who could take me to school!

happiness  /ˈhæp.ɪ.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: happiness, unhappiness
Adjectives: happy, unhappy
Adverbs: happily

NOUN [u]
[B1] the feeling of being happy

Dictionary examples:
It was only later in life that she found happiness and peace of mind.
Will you join me in wishing the bride and groom every happiness?

Learner example:
I wish you happiness, you deserve it.

harassment  /ˈhær.əs.mənt/

NOUN [u]
[C1] behaviour that annoys or upsets someone

Dictionary example:
sexual harassment

Learner example:
However, they may be underpaid in comparison to men carrying out the same tasks, are seldom promoted – although they may be better qualified – and sometimes have to endure sexual harassment by their bosses.
harbour /ˈhaː.bər/

NOUN [c]
[B1] an area of water next to the coast, often protected from the sea by a thick wall, where ships and boats can shelter

Dictionary example:
Our hotel room overlooked a pretty little fishing harbour.

Learner example:
The weather was fine so we went on a sight-seeing tour around the harbour.

hard /haːd/

ADJECTIVE

USING EFFORT
[B1] needing or using a lot of physical or mental effort

Dictionary examples:
Go on – give it a good hard push!
It was hard work on the farm but satisfying.

Learner example:
It's the perfect place to stay and relax after a week of hard work.

be hard on sb
[B2] to criticize someone too much, or to treat them unfairly

Dictionary example:
Don't be too hard on him – he's new to the job.

Learner example:
That's why I was a little hard on you at first.

NOT KIND
[B2] not gentle or kind

Dictionary example:
She had a cold, hard look in her eyes.

Learner example:
To conclude, I'd like to apologise for being maybe a "bit too nasty" to you, but these "hard words", were due only to my hurt feelings!

UNPLEASANT
[C1] full of problems and difficult to deal with
Dictionary examples:
My grandparents had a very hard life.
The past few months must've been really hard for you.

Learner example:
It was a really hard time for all of us, but it passed and, I hope, will never come again.

do/learn sth the hard way
[C2] to do or learn something by experiencing a lot of problems or difficulty

Dictionary example:
I learned the hard way that training every single day is not the best way to get fit.

Learner example:
If you don't know the past, you're liable to live through it again as instead of deriving the lessons from someone else's experiences, you'll have to learn them the hard way, by trial and error.

be hard on sb
[C2] to make someone unhappy by causing them problems

Dictionary example:
Our divorce has been particularly hard on the children.

Learner example:
Also it was hard on our family only seeing my father late at night being tired or for a weekend, if he was not on a business-trip.

give sb a hard time
[C2] to criticize someone and make them feel guilty about something they have done

Dictionary example:
Ever since I missed the goal, the other players have been giving me a hard time.

Learner example:
I'm not saying that I wasn't normal or anything, I just gave my family a hard time sometimes.

ADVERB

WITH FORCE
[B1] with a lot of force

Dictionary examples:
It's been raining hard all day.
She kicked the ball as hard as she could.

Learner example:
It was a clo[ud]y day, the wind [was] blow[ing] hard, and the city was quiet.
hard drive /ˈhɑːdˌdraɪv/ (also hard disk)

NOUN [C]
[B2] the part inside a computer that is not removed and that stores very large amounts of information

Dictionary example:
A virus damaged my hard drive.

Learner example:
As you know, computer prices are getting lower every day and technology is growing so fast so I thought that if I waited more and began saving money, I could buy a new computer with new stuff (better chip, hard drive etc.) in six months time.

hardly /ˈhɑːd.li/

ADVERB

ALMOST NOT
[B1] almost not, or only a very small amount

Dictionary examples:
We hardly ever go to concerts.
I could hardly hear her at the back.
The party had hardly started when she left.
He ate hardly anything.

Learner example:
Well, my bedroom hardly ever looks tidy.

CERTAINLY NOT
[B2] certainly not

Dictionary examples:
You can hardly expect a pay rise when you've only been working for the company for two weeks!
Well don't be angry with me – it's hardly my fault that it's raining!

Learner example:
And then, although you [have] allowed me to use all your stuff, I hardly think I can touch your computer and the CD player.
hardship /ˈhɑːdʃɪp/

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a problem or situation that makes you suffer a lot, especially because you are very poor

Dictionary example:
They have suffered years of financial hardship.

Learner example:
However, I have to say that this plan would cause much inconvenience and hardship for our local residents.

hardware /ˈhɑːdweər/

NOUN [U]
[B1] the physical and electronic parts of a computer, rather than the programs

Dictionary example:
We need to include new hardware in our budget.

Learner example:
Computer technology keeps improving all the time and consume[r]s like me and you definitely have to pay our money to keep our personal computer up to date and able to work with new computer software that require[s] [better and better] performance of computer hardware.

hard-working /ˈhɑːdˈwɜːkɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] doing a job seriously and with a lot of effort

Dictionary example:
She's a very hard-working student.

Learner example:
I think I am suitable for the job because, apart from all [the] above, I am hard-working, well-educated and imaginative.
harm /haːm/

Word family:
Nouns: harm
Verbs: harm
Adjectives: harmful, harmless

NOUN [U]

HURT

[B2] hurt or damage

Dictionary examples:
Smoking can cause serious harm to the lungs.
Alan would never do anyone any harm.
Missing a meal once in a while never did anyone any harm.
She was frightened by the experience but she came to no harm.

Learner example:
It is true that the car does us harm.

there's no harm in doing sth

[C1] used to say that something is not a bad thing to do and could possibly have a good effect

Dictionary example:
I suppose there's no harm in trying.

Learner example:
There is no lack of good language schools and there is no harm in trying another one the next time.

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

[B2] to hurt someone or damage something

Dictionary examples:
Thankfully no one was harmed in the accident.
The government’s reputation has already been harmed by a series of scandals.

Learner example:
But in those places animals were harmed and died easily.

harmful /ˈhɑːm.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: harm
Verbs: harm
Adjectives: harmful, harmless
ADJECTIVE

causing harm

Dictionary example:
This group of chemicals is known to be harmful to people with asthma.

Learner example:
In addition, books are not harmful to our health as computers sometimes are.

harmless /ˈhɑːm.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: harm
Verbs: harm
Adjectives: harmful, harmless

ADJECTIVE

NO HARM

not able or not likely to cause harm

Dictionary example:
Taken in small doses, this drug is completely/totally harmless.

Learner example:
In conclusion, cars are not as harmless as they look so we must stop using them so much.

NOT UPSETTING

not likely to shock or upset people or to cause problems

Dictionary examples:
Their jokes seemed harmless enough.
Peter might look a bit fierce, but actually he's fairly harmless.

Learner example:
He seemed harmless enough so I decided to take a nap. Suddenly I heard a strange noise and I was terrified to hear his loud voice booming in my ear.

harmony /ˈhɑː.mə.ni/

NOUN

PEACE

when people are peaceful and agree with each other, or when different things seem right or suitable together
Dictionary example:
living together in peace and harmony

Learner example:
I would like to think my children are going to live in a lovely world where the human being [will] be able to live in peace and harmony with the environment.

MUSIC

[C2] [c or u] a pleasant sound in music, made by playing or singing a group of different notes together

Dictionary examples:
The choir sang in perfect harmony.
Their voices produced beautiful harmonies.

Learner example:
Having some singing knowledge myself, I can say their performance was excellent: the tune was maintained all through the concert, the r[h]ym was also carefully kept and they sounded in perfect harmony.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>harsh</th>
<th>/hɑːʃ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Adjectives: harsh

Adverbs: harshly

ADJECTIVE

UNPLEASANT

[C1] very cold, dangerous, or unpleasant and difficult to live in

Dictionary example:
harsh conditions

Learner example:
Furthermore, I have been trained for a year in living in harsh conditions.

CRUEL

[C1] cruel, unkind, or unpleasant in a way that seems unfair

Dictionary examples:
harsh criticism/punishment
Taking him out of the game was a bit harsh.

Learner example:
Sorry if I sounded so harsh in the letter but I felt it was important to make these points.

TOO STRONG

[C1] too strong, bright, loud, etc.
Dictionary example:
harsh chemicals/lighting

Learner example:
It only contains herbs and plant extracts so it would not be too harsh a product for the skin and will not destroy the skin's natural defences.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>harshly</th>
<th>/ˈhɑːʃ.lɪ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Adjectives: harsh
Adverbs: harshly

ADVERB
[C2] in a harsh way

Dictionary example:
I thought she'd been treated rather harshly.

Learner example:
The public television is harshly criticised for joining the commercial flow of the private stations and targeting large audiences, instead of presenting more ambitious programmes of high quality.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>harvest</th>
<th>/ˈhɑː.vɪst/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when crops are cut and collected from fields

Dictionary examples:
the grain/potato/grape harvest
We had a good/bad/poor harvest this year.

Learner example:
Well I can tell you about our annual harvest festival.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>hate</th>
<th>/heɪt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: hate, hatred
Verbs: hate

NOUN [u]
[C1] a strong dislike for someone or something

Dictionary example:
Hate and bigotry can only make our lives more difficult.
Learner example:
Feelings of hate and disgust may fill us, but we may love somebody. Many people say that love and hate go together.

hatred /ˈheɪ.trɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: hate, hatred
Verbs: hate

NOUN [U]
[C1] an extremely strong feeling of dislike

Dictionary examples:
What is very clear in these letters is Clark’s passionate hatred of his father.
The motive for this shocking attack seems to be racial hatred.

Learner example:
The producers create situations involving different feeling[s] [such] as love, hatred, anger, fear,...

haul /həːl/

VERB [T]
[C2] to pull something somewhere slowly and with difficulty

Dictionary example:
They hauled the piano into the living room.

Learner example:
"When I'm finished, you can jump whenever you like. Remember to hold on to each other, and we'll haul you up when it's all over."

NOUN

AMOUNT
[C2] an amount of something that has been stolen or that is owned illegally

Dictionary example:
a haul of arms/drugs

Learner example:
Because of the loud noise of the running engine, she wasn't aware of the man behind her grabbing the smaller bag and turning round ready to escape with his haul.
haunt /hoːnt/

VERB [T]

GHOST
[B2] If a ghost haunts a place, it appears there often.

Dictionary example:
They say that the house is haunted by the soldier's ghost.

Learner example:
[The castle] is 500 years old, and it is said to be haunted by a lady ghost.

MEMORY / FEELING
[B2] If an unpleasant memory or feeling haunts you, you think about or feel it often.

Dictionary examples:
Fighting in Vietnam was an experience that would haunt him for the rest of his life.
Thirty years after the fire he is still haunted by images of death and destruction.

Learner example:
And so John remained alone, haunted by the terrible loss.

have /hæv/ (had, had)

MODAL VERB

have (got) to do/be sth
[C2] used to say that you feel certain that something is true or will happen

Dictionary examples:
Interest rates have to come down at some point.
There's (=there has) got to be a better way of doing this.

Learner example:
There has to be a solution to this.

VERB [T]

have sth cleaned/cut/repaired, etc.
[B1] to pay someone to do something for you

Dictionary examples:
I'm having my hair cut this afternoon.
I've had my watch mended.
We're having the house painted next month.
Learner example:
My mother is having her car repaired.

have sth stolen/taken, etc.

[B1] If you have something stolen/taken, etc. someone takes something that belongs to you.

Dictionary examples:
She had her car stolen last week.
I had my bag taken.

Learner example:
He told me over the phone that he had arrived in London with his wife, but shortly after the arrival, he had had his wallet stolen in the underground station.

CAUSE

[B1] to cause something to be in a particular state

Dictionary examples:
He had dinner ready by the time we got home.
We had the tent up within ten minutes.

Learner example:
We had everything ready in case of an emergency or a chaos situation.

HOLD

[B1] used to say that someone is holding something, or that someone or something is with them

Dictionary examples:
He had a pen in his hand.
She had a little boy with her.

Learner example:
Maria had the phone in her hand.

have no idea

[B1] to not know

Dictionary example:
"Where's Serge?" "I've no idea."

Learner example:
I have no idea about how his children are.

have sb over/round/to stay, etc.

[B2] If you have someone over/round, etc. you arrange for someone to visit you in your home.

Dictionary example:
We had Justyna and Al round for dinner last week.
Learner example:
I’d like to thank you once more for having me round [to] your house.

not have a clue
[B2] informal to be completely unable to guess, understand, or deal with something

Dictionary example:
I haven’t a clue what you’re talking about.

Learner example:
I haven’t a clue about it.

have a word with sb [B2] to talk to someone for a short time

Dictionary examples:
Could I have a word (with you) about the sales figures?
Perhaps you would a quiet word with Simon about the problem.

Learner example:
The nurse sitting beside me said to me, ‘Your mother would like to have a word with you,’ then she went out.

have nothing to do with sb/sth
[B2] to have no connection or influence with someone or something

Dictionary example:
He made his own decision – I had nothing to do with it.

Learner example:
Of course, I tried to explain [to] him that I had nothing to do with the vanishing of the cake but he didn’t trust me.

have nothing to do with sb [B2] If something is or has nothing to do with you, you have no good reason to know about it or be involved with it.

Dictionary example:
I wish he wouldn’t offer advice on my marriage – it’s nothing to do with him.

Learner example:
The party was horrible: the guests were all talking about things that had nothing to do with me.

have sth against sb/sth
[C1] to have a reason not to like someone or something

Dictionary example:
I’ve got nothing against him personally, I just don’t think he’s the right man for the job.

Learner example:
If you have nothing against taking public transport, I suggest taking a bus.
have sb do sth

[C2] to arrange for someone to do something

Dictionary examples:
If you wait, I'll have someone collect it for you.
I'll have my secretary call her this afternoon.

Learner example:
I would like to request you, as a manager, to either have someone fix the problem with the microwave or simply replace it.

have it in for sb

[C2] to dislike someone and want to cause problems for them

Dictionary example:
She really has it in for me – I don’t know what I’ve done to offend her.

Learner example:
Only then did she realise that somebody had it in for her.

not have the faintest idea

[C2] used to emphasize that you do not know something

Dictionary example:
I haven’t the faintest idea what you’re talking about.

Learner example:
Some twenty years ago, when I left my parents’ home to go and live on my own, I was given four mugs. By whom? I haven’t the faintest idea.

---

hazard /ˈhæz.əd/

Word family:

Nouns: hazard
Adjectives: hazardous

NOUN

[C1] [c] something that is dangerous

Dictionary examples:
- a fire hazard
- a health hazard

Learner example:
Like all things, mobile phones have advantages and disadvantages. [...] It is said that they produce cancer and that they are a health hazard.
hazardous  /ˈhæz.ə.dəs/

Word family:
Nouns: hazard
Adjectives: hazardous

ADJECTIVE
[C2] dangerous

Dictionary example:
hazardous chemicals

Learner example:
They are faced with hazardous chemical reactions when trying to gain new knowledge and therefore people should be very grateful to them.

head  /hed/

Word family:
Nouns: head, heading
Verbs: head

NOUN [C]

ORGANIZATION/DEPARTMENT
[B1] the person who is in charge of an organization or a part of an organization

Dictionary examples:
the head of an oil company
Our head of department is leaving on Friday.
He is head chef at a large restaurant.

Learner example:
Joshua was the head of security of the international airport of New York.

MIND
[B1] the mind and mental abilities

Dictionary examples:
All these thoughts were going round in my head.
What put that into your head?

Learner example:
Then suddenly the idea came into my head and I told her: 'Why don't you move into my flat?'

lose your head
[C1] to stop being calm in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I saw the fire and I lost my head.
Learner example:
She has never lost her head in dangerous situations and she always knows what to do.

keep a cool head

[C2] to remain calm in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
To be successful in business, you need to keep a cool head in negotiations.

Learner example:
Kevin managed to keep a cool head and took over the navigation.

keep your head above water

[C2] to have just enough money to live or to continue a business

Dictionary example:
With extra income from private sponsorship, the club is just about managing to keep its head above water.

Learner example:
I also started to realise how much she had on her plate, how very little help she had and how, at times, she had to struggle just like me to keep her head above water.

laugh/shout/scream, etc. your head off

[C2] to laugh/shout/scream, etc. very much and very loudly

Dictionary example:
When she saw the gun, she started screaming her head off.

Learner example:
Other pupils were laughing their heads off as she went.

FRONT/TOP

[C2] the front or top part of something

Dictionary example:
Who is that at the head of the table?

Learner example:
There, at the head of the queue, her uncle with his two daughters waited for her.

a roof over your head

[C2] somewhere to live

Dictionary example:
He took me in when I didn't have a roof over my head.

Learner example:
As for the new homes for local people it seems to be that it will be of particular importance to homeless people, who will feel that they have a roof over their head without having to pay anything.
VERB

head back/down/towards, etc.
[B2] to move in a particular direction

Dictionary examples:
I was heading out of the room when she called me back.
We were heading towards Kumasi when our truck broke down.
He headed straight for the fridge.
I think we ought to head back/home now, before it gets too dark.

Learner example:
Then I headed for the dining room.

LEADER
[B2] [t] to be in charge of a group, organization, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She heads one of Britain's leading travel firms.
Judge Hawthorne was chosen to head the inquiry.

Learner example:
When Carlos headed the government, the country [saw] important changes, such as Free Trade among Canada, USA and Mexico; the selling of the banks; "democratic" elections.

FRONT/TOP
[C1] [t] to be at the front or top of something

Dictionary example:
Jo headed a very short list of candidates.

Learner example:
When it comes to money paid to the families, Germany headed the list with 2%, followed by Spain with 0.25% and the USA with 0.2%.

heading /ˈhed.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: head, heading
Verbs: head

NOUN [C]
[C1] words at the top of a piece of writing that tell you what it is about

Dictionary example:
You’ll find it under the heading "Information for new students".

Learner example:
As the advertisement included the heading "Come and discover the career of your dreams!", my attention was drawn to it.
headline /ˈhed.laɪn/

NOUN [C]

IN NEWSPAPER

[B1] the title of a newspaper story that is printed in large letters above it

Dictionary example:

a front-page headline

Learner example:

The headline was "FAILURE OF FESTIVAL".

the headlines

[B2] the main stories in newspapers, on television, etc.

Dictionary example:

That story made headlines all over the world.

headquarters /ˌhedˈkwɔː.təz/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] (PLURAL headquarters)

[B2] the place from where an organization is controlled

Dictionary example:

The company's headquarters is/are in Amsterdam.

Learner example:

I took my car and drove to the Police headquarters.

heal /hiːl/

VERB [I or T]

[B2] If a wound or broken bone heals, it becomes healthy again, and if something heals it, it makes it healthy again.

Dictionary example:

The wound on his head had begun to heal (up).

Learner example:

Biotechnology is providing us with the latest discoveries to heal or improve the human body.
health care /ˈhelθˌkeə/

NOUN [u] (healthcare)
[C1] the set of services provided by a country or an organization for treating people who are ill

Dictionary examples:
A large proportion of these taxes go towards providing health care.
Healthcare workers are some of the lowest paid people in the country.

Learner example:
In Britain, the NHS provides free health care for every citizen.

healthy /ˈhel.θi/

Word family:
Nouns: health
Adjectives: healthy, unhealthy

ADJECTIVE
SUCCESSFUL
[C2] successful and strong

Dictionary examples:
a healthy economy
The future for independent bookshops doesn't look very healthy.

Learner example:
Still, these investments are needed, as they are essential for a healthy economy.

heap /hiːp/

NOUN
PILE
[C2] an untidy pile of things

Dictionary example:
a heap of rubbish

Learner example:
Her mother was often out and Sue had nobody to share her thoughts with except for a[n] old red diary with a lock. She kept it in her bedroom under the heap of old toys nobody cared for any more.
heaps of sth INFORMAL

[C2] a lot of something

Dictionary example:
He's got heaps of money.

Learner example:
Apart from that, my overseas stay has made m[e] believe that children who are brought up in families that do not have heaps of money are prepared for their life as an adult in a way that people who have always had money may never understand.

---

hear /hɪə(r)/ (heard, heard)

VERB

BE TOLD

[B1] [I or T] to be told some information

Dictionary examples:
Have you heard the news?
If you haven’t heard by Friday, assume I’m not coming.
Have you heard what’s happened?
I hear (that) you’re leaving.

Learner example:
After, she told me that my mother-in-law [had] arrived [in] the city and, obviously, when I heard that, I started to cry.

---

heart /haːt/

NOUN

EMOTIONS

[B1] [c or u] someone's deepest feelings and true character

Dictionary examples:
a broken heart
She has a big/good heart.
In his heart, he knew she was right.

Learner example:
She's very nice, a person with a good heart.

the heart of sth

[B1] the centre of something or the most important part of something
Dictionary examples:
The demonstrators will march through the heart of the capital.
A disagreement about boundaries is at the heart of the dispute.

Learner example:
This restaurant is in the heart of Tepec, and it is open from 10.00am to 6.00pm except on Friday.

SHAPE

[B2] [c] a shape that is used to mean love

Dictionary example:
The card had a big heart on the front.

Learner example:
It had a red rose in its hand and a t-shirt with a big red heart saying "I love you". That was it!

with all your heart

[B2] used to say that you feel something very strongly

Dictionary example:
I thank you with all my heart.

Learner example:
With this letter, I want to thank you with all my heart for your hospitality during my visit to you.

by heart

[B2] so that you can remember all of something

Dictionary example:
We had to learn the whole poem off by heart.

Learner example:
I know all his songs by heart and I was singing all the time.

break sb's heart

[B2] to make someone feel extremely sad

Dictionary examples:
She really broke his heart when she left.
It breaks my heart when I hear the terrible things that have been said about him.

Learner example:
I saw them kissing each other. That was it – when I saw that scene, it broke my heart.

in your heart

[C1] used to say what you really think

Dictionary example:
In his heart he felt they were wrong.
Learner example:
It is all because it was followed by a big mistake, when I focussed on [the] German language and thought is was my dream. I have to admit that it was only a [sensi]ble decision, because deep in my heart I knew I want[ed] to learn English.

at heart
[C2] used to say what someone is really like

Dictionary example:
I'm just a kid at heart.

Learner example:
I also thought that she was brave at heart.

open your heart
[C2] to tell someone your secret thoughts and feelings

Dictionary example:
That night, she opened her heart to me and I think that's when I fell in love with her.

Learner example:
It is during this excessively dramatic conversation that George opening up his heart, tells her about his interpretation of her unhappiness with Cecil.

take sth to heart
[C2] If you take criticism or advice to heart, you think about it seriously, often because it upsets you

Dictionary example:
Don't take it to heart – he was only joking about your hair.

Learner example:
I hope you will take my advi[c]e to heart.

lose heart
[C2] to stop believing that you can succeed

Dictionary example:
Don't lose heart, there'll be plenty more chances for promotion.

Learner example:
In that way, we learn to deal with our problems and not to lose heart.

a change of heart
[C2] If you have a change of heart, you change your opinion or feelings about something.

Dictionary example:
At first he said he wouldn't help us, but he seems to have had a change of heart.
Learner example:
The narrator didn't tell her big secret to Inder Lal and after a change of heart she decides to keep the baby.

dear to sb/sb's heart
[C2] If something is dear to someone or dear to their heart, it is very important to them.

Dictionary example:
The charity was very dear to his heart.

Learner example:
Among all the places I enjoyed visiting, the city of Singapore is especially dear to my heart.

---

heart attack /ˈhɑːt.əˌtæk/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a serious medical condition in which the heart does not get enough blood, causing great pain and often leading to death

Dictionary example:
John had a heart attack three years ago.

Learner example:
I was really surprised when I read the e-mail, and discovered that our father had had a heart attack.

---

heat /hiːt/

Word family:
Nouns: heat, heater, heating
Verbs: heat

NOUN [u]
[B1] the quality of being hot or warm, or the temperature of something

Dictionary examples:
the heat of the sun/fire
How do you manage to work in this heat without air conditioning?
She always wore a coat, even in the heat of summer.
Cook the meat on a high/low heat.

Learner example:
The weather is magnificent, it's very hot but you can't feel the heat because if you go swimming it passes.
VERB

heat up sth or heat sth up PHRASAL VERB [B2] to make food hot so that it can be eaten

Dictionary example:
I'll just heat up the soup.

Learner example:
Do not spend your money on fast-food restaurants, and do not buy meals to heat up in your microwave.

heater /ˈhiː.tər/:

Word family:
Nouns: heat, heater, heating
Verbs: heat

NOUN [C]
[B1] a machine that heats air or water

Dictionary example:
a gas/electric heater

Learner example:
I have decided to buy a new carpet and a little heater.

heaven /ˈhev.ən/:

NOUN [U]

AFTER LIFE
[B2] ! according to some religions, the place where good people go when they die

Dictionary example:
They told us that she had gone to heaven.

Learner example:
"Now she is in heaven – don't worry she will be okay." I started crying.

SOMETHING NICE
[B2] INFORMAL something very nice that gives you great pleasure

Dictionary examples:
I just lay in the sun for a week and did nothing – it was heaven.
This cake is absolute heaven.
Learner example:
These little islands are just heaven.

heavenly /ˈhev.ən.li/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] informal very nice

Dictionary example:
a heavenly day

Learner example:
The Art Gallery was well presented and the exhibits were heavenly.

heavily /ˈhev.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: heavy
Adverbs: heavily

ADVERB
[B1] a lot or to a great degree

Dictionary examples:
It was raining heavily.
drink/smoke heavily
The terrorists are heavily armed.
She’s heavily involved in the project.

Learner example:
One day, when I was walking out in the park with my friend, it started raining heavily.

heavy /ˈhev.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: heavy
Adverbs: heavily

ADJECTIVE
A LOT
[B1] large in amount or degree
Dictionary examples:
heavy traffic heavy rain/snow a heavy smoker/drinker

Learner example:
There is fresh air, no heavy traffic and, more important for me, [it] is [a] quiet and calm place.

FORCE
[C2] using a lot of force

Dictionary examples:
a heavy blow
heavy breathing

Learner example:
Every time planes from your airport fly overhead he imagines the horrors of the war he's lived through and experiences [...] distress in [the] form of his palms sweating, heavy breathing, and increased pulse and heart beat.

hectic /ˈhek.trɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] extremely busy and full of activity

Dictionary example:
a hectic day/week

Learner example:
Alongside today's hectic life we need to adapt fashion to our lives and interests.

hedge /ˈhedʒ/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a row of bushes growing close together, often used to divide land into separate areas

Dictionary example:
She planted a hedge along the back of the garden.

Learner example:
Besides, people should be allowed to sit under the trees. At present, [the] lawn, bushes and hedges aren't open to people.
heel /hiːl/

NOUN [C]

SHOE PART
[B1] the part of a shoe that is under your heel

Dictionary example:
The boots had a very high heel.

Learner example:
I hate wearing tight clothes, or shoes with high heels.

BODY PART
[B2] the back part of your foot

Dictionary example:
The sharp stone dug into my heel.

height /haɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: height
Adjectives: high
Adverbs: highly

NOUN [C or U]

HOW TALL
[B1] how tall or high something or someone is

Dictionary examples:
She's about my height.
The sheer height of New York's skyscrapers is so impressive.
The tower measures 27.28 metres in height.

Learner example:
I would prefer not to stay in a tent because of my height, I am so tall that I could never stand up.

HOW FAR UP
[B1] how far above the ground something is

Dictionary example:
The aircraft was flying at a height of about 6000 metres.

Learner example:
All [the] pictures we took were nice, but the most beautiful one was the picture [of] Patricia and I at the top of the mountain "Kala Pattar", which is situated at a height of 5,600 metres!
the height of sth
[C2] the strongest, most important or most successful part of something

Dictionary example:
I met him when he was at the height of his fame.

Learner example:
At the height of his success, he was told [he had] cancer and he had to interrupt his career, but only to come back some years later to show off his best.

---

heir /eaɪr/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a person who will have the legal right to someone's money and possessions when they die

Dictionary example:
He is the heir to a huge fortune.

Learner example:
The new will stated that Emma was the sole heir and inheritor of the property and money of her father.

---

hell /hel/

NOUN [u]

RELIGION
[B2] ! according to some religions, the place where bad people go when they die

Dictionary example:
I'll go to hell for this.

Learner example:
We decided to enter the a[t]tic and then, [as if] coming from hell, a big, dirty, old cat ran away [through] our legs.

BAD EXPERIENCE
[B2] ! an experience that is very unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
It's been hell working with him.
Work is sheer hell at the moment.
The last few months have been absolute hell.
Learner example:
However, this apparently relaxed activity can sometimes turn into a living hell; you may only be able to go shopping at the weekend and then, if you do go, you will find yourself in the middle of a huge crowd of people, unable to get to any product or even shop and feeling dizzy by the mixture of smells that come from the people.

the hell
[B2] INFORMAL used to emphasize something in a rude or angry way

Dictionary example:
What the hell are you doing here?

Learner example:
He was yelling again: "What the hell is going on?"

a/one hell of a INFORMAL
[C2] I used to say that someone or something is very good, big, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a hell of a noise
He's one hell of a tennis player.

Learner example:
Secondly, I particularly appreciated the length of classes confined to some 5 hours a day, which offered the possibility of studying at length on your own and a hell of a lot of time to spare.

like hell INFORMAL
[C2] I very much

Dictionary example:
It's raining like hell out there.

Learner example:
Soon it will be dark, and still pouring down like hell.

helmet /ˈhel.mɪt/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a hard hat that protects your head

Dictionary examples:
a crash helmet
a cycling helmet

Learner example:
Some good advice is: first of all get yourself a good bicycle, a helmet and some protective clothes, in case the weather changes.
help /help/

Word family:
Nouns: helper
Verbs: help
Adjectives: helpful, unhelpful, helpless

VERB [I or T]

can't/couldn't help doing sth
[B1] to be unable to stop yourself doing something or to stop something happening

Dictionary examples:
I can't help laughing when I think about what happened to you both!
I couldn't help thinking about what had happened.
He couldn't help it, he slipped.

Learner example:
I got so sad that I couldn't help crying.

help yourself (to sth)
[B1] to take something, especially food or drink, without asking

Dictionary example:
Please help yourself to some coffee.

Learner example:
Some tables with sandwiches, salads and drinks are going to be available [for you] to help yourselves.

MAKE BETTER
[B2] to make something better

Dictionary examples:
When you're nervous or frightened, it helps to breathe slowly and deeply.
The medicine didn't seem to help (the pain).

Learner example:
Everybody agree[s] with the importance [of] do[ing] exercise regular[l]y, it helps to take out the toxins from the body.

NOUN

with the help of sth
[B1] using something

Dictionary example:
We managed to assemble the table with the help of the instructions.
Learner example:
The film was full of special effects created with the help of computer graphics, [and] it was very good.

THING THAT HELPS

[B2] [NO PLURAL] something or someone that helps

Dictionary examples:
Having a new computer would be a help.
He was a great help (to me) while my husband was away.

Learner example:
Two weeks ago I made a trip to Britain, and 'The Student Tourist Guidebook' was a great help when I visited Lampton.

helper /ˈhel.pə/

Word family:
Nouns: helper
Verbs: help
Adjectives: helpful, unhelpful, helpless

NOUN [C]

[B2] someone who helps another person to do something

Dictionary example:
The teachers make great use of volunteer helpers.

Learner example:
I'll be more than happy to work as a helper.

helpful /ˈhelp.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: helper
Verbs: help
Adjectives: helpful, unhelpful, helpless

ADJECTIVE

[B1] willing to help, or useful

Dictionary examples:
She's such a pleasant, helpful child!
I'm sorry, I was only trying to be helpful.
He made several helpful suggestions.

Learner example:
The teacher is wonderful, she is so kind and helpful to everyone.
helpless /ˈhelp.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: helper
Verbs: help
Adjectives: helpful, unhelpful, helpless

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not able to defend yourself or do things without help

Dictionary example:
a helpless animal/child

Learner example:
I remember one day in school how helpless I felt because I had forgotten my glasses at home.

hence /ˈhens/

ADVERB
[C1] for this reason

Dictionary examples:
He’s got an interview today, hence the suit.
Drivers have been shown to adapt their behaviour according to perceived risk. Hence, if they are wearing seat belts, they tend to take more risks with their driving.

Learner example:
Hence, the more competition there is, the more benefits are given to both people and society.

herb /ˈhɜːb/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a plant that is used in cooking to add flavour to food or is used in medicines

Dictionary examples:
dried/fresh herbs
Basil, oregano, thyme and rosemary are all herbs.
A large range of herbs and spices are used in South Asian cookery.

Learner example:
He was chattering with [his] parents and drinking warm milk with [the] smell of fresh herbs and flowers.
ADVERB

AT THIS POINT

[B2] at this point in a discussion or piece of writing

Dictionary example:
I don’t have time here to go into all the arguments.

Learner example:
My idea here is to highlight the fact that computers are going to control our lives.

here and there

[B2] in several different places or directions but without any pattern

Dictionary example:
Tall trees were growing here and there.

Learner example:
In the cinemas there were a few broken seats here and there.

heritage /

NOUN [u]

[C2] the buildings, paintings, customs, etc. which are important in a culture or society because they have existed for a long time

Dictionary example:
our architectural/cultural heritage

Learner example:
We have already created a list of possible destinations with rich cultural heritage.

hero /

NOUN [c] (plural heroes)

BRAVE PERSON

[B1] someone who does something brave or good, which people respect or admire them for Dictionary examples:
a war hero
He became a national hero for his part in the revolution.
They consider her a hero.
Graham says he'll take my parents to the airport at four o'clock in the morning – what a hero!

Learner example:
I couldn't believe it and while I was wondering if this was a dream, Mike Skinner, my hero, appeared and instantly started chatting with me as if we had been friends for years.

BOOK/FILM

[B1] the main male character in a book or film, who is usually good

Dictionary example:
the hero of her latest novel

Learner example:
The film was very exciting because it was an action film and the hero was strong.

heroic /hɪˈrəʊ.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE

BRAVE

[C1] very brave

Dictionary examples:
a heroic figure a heroic act/deed

Learner example:
I would be thrilled if I could lead thousands of warriors into heroic battles to conquer the world.

TRYING HARD

[C1] If someone makes a heroic effort to do something, they work very hard to try to do it.

Dictionary example:
In spite of England's heroic efforts, they lost the match.

Learner example:
Individually or in organised groups, those who worry about the subject are making a heroic attempt to convince others of the importance of recycling, caring about the wildlife and sparing the woods from fire or massive exploitation.
herself /hɜːˈself/

PRONOUN

EMPHASIS

[B2] used to emphasize the pronoun 'she' or the particular female person you are referring to

Dictionary example:
She herself admitted that it was wrong.

Learner example:
She herself, through her books, transfers to mature and [elderly] people too.

hesitate /ˈhez.ɪ.teɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: hesitation

Verbs: hesitate

VERB [I]

PAUSE

[B2] to pause before doing something, especially because you are nervous or not certain

Dictionary examples:
Richard hesitated before answering.
"Do you love me?" she asked. He hesitated and then said, "I'm not sure."

Learner example:
So, don't hesitate to buy that CD, it's a masterpiece and undoubte[d]ly you'll love it.

don't hesitate to do sth

[B2] used to encourage someone to do something

Dictionary example:
Please don't hesitate to get in touch if you need any more advice.

Learner example:
If you have mo[re] questions, do not hesitate to contact me.

hesitation /ˌhez.ɪˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: hesitation

Verbs: hesitate have no hesitation in doing sth

[C1] when you are very willing to do something because you know it is the right thing to do

Dictionary example:
He had no hesitation in signing for the team.

Learner example:
I think that Juan Pablo is a very well qualified applicant for this job, and I have no hesitation in supporting him wholeheartedly.

[C2] [c or u] when you pause before doing something, especially because you are nervous or not certain

Dictionary example:
After a moment's hesitation, he unlocked the door.

Learner example:
Despite being a two-dimensional character, Mrs Kingshaw's existence aids in the flow of events as she forces Charles into committing suicide without the slightest hesitation.

---

hidden /ˈhɪd.ən/

Word family:
Verbs: hide
Adjectives: hidden

ADJECTIVE

NOT EASY TO FIND

[B1] A hidden thing or place is not easy to find.

Dictionary examples:
a hidden valley
There were hidden microphones in the room to record their conversation.

Learner example:
But to her surprise the policeman laughed and said, "You are the winner of our hidden camera contest".

NOT KNOW ABOUT

[B2] If something is hidden, most people do not know about it.

Dictionary examples:
hidden costs/taxes
Harry had a hidden agenda at the meeting and was determined to get his way.
Learner example:
I think this is a hidden danger of having a mobile phone and therefore the disadvantages are not as obvious as the advantage.

hide /haid/

Word family:
Verbs: hide
Adjectives: hidden

VERB (hid, hidden)

THING
[B1] [ɪ] to put something in a place where it cannot be seen or found

Dictionary examples:
She used to hide her diary under her pillow.
The papers were hidden under the floorboards.

Learner example:
Lord Alloway hid the suitcase [to] protect it.

PERSON
[B1] [ɪ] (ALSO hide yourself) to go to a place where you cannot be seen or found

Dictionary examples:
She ran off and hid behind a tree.
They hid themselves in the wardrobe.

Learner example:
The plan is to bring him to my house, [and] everybody [will] hide in the living room. [W]hen he enter[s] the room, we [will] shout 'Surprise'.

FEELING/INFORMATION
[B1] [ɪ] to keep a feeling or information secret

Dictionary examples:
He couldn't hide his embarrassment.
There's something about her past that she's trying to hide from me.

Learner example:
I knew that you loved each other more than anything in this world, but I couldn't hide my surprise when you told me that you're getting married.
hierarchical /ˌhaɪəˈrɑː.kɪkl/
Word family:
Nouns: hierarchy
Adjectives: hierarchical

ADJECTIVE
[C2] using a system that arranges things according to their importance

Dictionary example:
The company has a very hierarchical structure.

Learner example:
On the other hand, being too submissive will not help you in going up in a hierarchical structure.

---

hierarchy /ˈhaɪə.rɑː.ki/
Word family:
Nouns: hierarchy
Adjectives: hierarchical

NOUN [C]
[C2] a system or organization in which people or things are arranged according to their importance

Dictionary example:
There is a very strict hierarchy where I work.

Learner example:
It is well known that clothes used to reflect the position that each individual had in the social hierarchy of our societies.

---

high /haɪ/
Word family:
Nouns: height
Adjectives: high
Adverbs: highly

ADJECTIVE
[A B1] a large distance above the ground or the level of the sea

Dictionary examples:
a high window
The village was high up in the mountains.
Learner example:
Look[ing] out [of] the window, I can see the birds high up on the trees.

AMOUNT/LEVEL
[B1] great in amount, size or level

Dictionary examples:
a high temperature
high prices/costs
The car sped away at high speed.

Learner example:
Be careful while you are in Brazil because sometimes people charge really high prices for everything just because you are a tourist.

VERY GOOD
[B1] very good

Dictionary examples:
high standards/quality
She got high marks in her last exam.

Learner example:
There were lots of CD players and [everything] was high quality.

IMPORTANT
[B2] important, powerful, or at the top level of something

Dictionary examples:
a high rank
Safety is our highest priority.

Learner example:
Living is definitely the highest priority [all] over the world.

high in sth
[C1] If a food is high in something, it contains a lot of it.

Dictionary example:
Avoid foods that are high in salt.

Learner example:
Since there is no time even for cooking a healthy meal, they get used to ready meals that are high in fat and salt.

DRUGS
[C2] If someone is high, they are behaving in an unusual way because they have taken an illegal drug.

Dictionary example:
The whole band seemed to be high on drugs.
Learner example:
As he was in that enormous garden covering himself with leaves lying on his back, he realised that he didn't want to watch the end of the Universe there in that place, but because he was so high on drugs he didn't even realise that he could simply stand up and go home.

ADVERB

DISTANCE
[B1] at or to a large distance above the ground

Dictionary examples:
We flew high above the city.
He threw the ball high into the air.

Learner example:
Being in the cabin high above Vienna both of them thought about killing the other.

AMOUNT/LEVEL
[C1] at or to a large amount or level

Dictionary example:
Temperatures rose as high as 40 degrees.

Learner example:
Can we expect to see the world unemployment rate reach as high as fifty percent?

highlight /ˈhaɪ.laɪt/

VERB[T]
[B2] to emphasize something or make people notice something

Dictionary examples:
to highlight a problem/danger
The report highlights the need for stricter regulations.

Learner example:
Electricity in general has been absorbed into our daily activities in such an intense way that we tend to take it for granted and it is exactly when it is not available that our dependency on it is highlighted.

NOTICE
[B2] to make something a different colour so that it is more easily noticed, especially written words

Dictionary example:
The spelling mistakes in the text had been highlighted in yellow.

NOUN[C]
[B2] the best or most important part of something
Dictionary example:
The boat trip was one of the highlights of the holiday.

Learner example:
The Festival is one of the highlights of the year for me and many others.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>highly</th>
<th>/ˈhai.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: height
Adjectives: high
Adverbs: highly

ADVERB

HIGH LEVEL

[B2] at a high level

Dictionary examples:
a highly paid job
a highly educated workforce

Learner example:
I am [a] 24-year-old highly educated Turkish boy.

VERY

[C1] very or to a large degree

Dictionary examples:
a highly effective treatment
We are highly unlikely to meet anyone here.

Learner example:
Now it features a highly effective searching system.

to speak/think highly of sb/sth

[C2] to have or express a very good opinion of someone or something

Dictionary example:
The course is very highly thought of.

Learner example:
This in itself would speak highly of the school and will attract many candidates and parents.
High-profile /ˌhaɪˈprəʊ.fəl/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] A high-profile person or event is known about by a lot of people and receives a lot of attention from television, newspapers, etc.

Dictionary example:
a high-profile campaign/case

Learner example:
This is the main significant reason [why] sportsmen and sportswomen are now considered as high-profile celebrities.

High-tech /ˌhaɪˈtek/

ADJECTIVE (also hi-tech)
[B2] using or involved with the most recent and advanced electronic machines, computers, etc.

Dictionary example:
His new car has a high-tech sound system.

Learner example:
We can build up a high-tech computer lab, and last but not least, we can provide some talented students with scholarship[s].

Hilarious /ˈhɪ.leə.rɪ.əs/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] extremely funny

Dictionary example:
They all thought the film was hilarious.

Learner example:
In addition to this, the hosts and actors of the show have very few boundaries and are not afraid to make fools out of themselves, which means that they can do things that most people find very embarrassing, and this is something that contributes to making the show hilarious.
himself /hɪmˈself/

PRONOUN

EMPHASIS

[B2] used to emphasize the pronoun 'he' or the particular male person you are referring to

Dictionary example:
Did you want to talk to the chairman himself, or could his personal assistant help you?

Learner example:
But no one would like to be behind bars himself.

hinder /ˈhɪn.dər/

VERB [T]

[C2] to make it difficult to do something or for something to develop

Dictionary example:
His performance at the Olympics was hindered by a knee injury.

Learner example:
Nothing, however, could hinder him from gaining more power and money.

hint /hɪnt/

NOUN [C]

SUGGESTION

[B2] when you say something that suggests what you think or want, but not in a direct way

Dictionary examples:
He's dropped several hints to the boss that he'll quit if he doesn't get a promotion.
Did she give you any hints about where she was going?
You can't take a hint, can you? Just go away and leave me alone!

Learner example:
He didn't take a hint. When that day had come, I timidly approached him and [gave] him my [final] words [of] warning.

ADVICE

[B2] a small piece of advice
Dictionary example:
The magazine gives lots of useful hints on how to save money.

Learner example:
I would like to make use of this offer, therefore I am writing down [some] helpful hints about Lampton.

a hint of sth
[C2] a small amount of something

Dictionary example:
There was a hint of anger in her voice.

Learner example:
The sky was leaden and overcast and there was a hint of drizzle in the air.

hip /hɪp/

NOUN [C]
[B2] one of the two parts of your body above your leg and below your waist

Dictionary examples:
She stood waiting with her hands on her hips.
This exercise is designed to trim your hips and stomach.

Learner example:
She had a fractured ankle, a dis(locat)ed collar-bone and something was also wrong with her hips.

hire /ˈhaɪər/

VERB [T]

RENT
[B1] to pay to use something for a short time

Dictionary examples:
How much would it cost to hire a car for a fortnight?
You could always hire a dress for the ball if you can't afford to buy one.

Learner example:
We hired two bicycles in Bocastle village.

EMPLOY
[B2] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to begin to to employ someone
Dictionary examples:
I was hired by the first company I applied to.
We ought to hire a public relations consultant to help improve our image.

Learner example:
The interview was OK and my friend and I were hired!

historian /hɪˈstɔːr.i.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: history, historian
Adjectives: historic, historical Adverbs: historically

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who writes about or studies history

Dictionary example:
His father was a famous historian.

Learner example:
I would be very willing to help historians solve the enigma about the origin of Thailand.

historic /hɪˈstɒr.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: history, historian
Adjectives: historic, historical Adverbs: historically

ADJECTIVE
[B1] important or likely to be important in history

Dictionary examples:
historic buildings
a historic day/moment

Learner example:
I know you and I understand that you are coming to my country to visit ancient castle[s] and historic buildings, so I recommend [you] to visit Rome: a fantastic city!
historical /ˈhɪstrɪkəl/

Word family:
Nouns: history, historian
Adjectives: historic, historical Adverbs: historically

ADJECTIVE
[B1] relating to events or people in the past, or to the study of history

Dictionary examples:
Many important historical documents were destroyed when the library was bombed.
She specializes in historical novels set in eighteenth-century England.

Learner example:
Budapest is very beautiful with a [lot] of historical buildings and churches.

historically /ˈhɪstrɪkli/

Word family:
Nouns: history, historian
Adjectives: historic, historical Adverbs: historically

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is connected to history

Dictionary examples:
The film makes no attempt to be historically accurate.
Historically, there have always been close links between France and Scotland.

Learner example:
Well, maybe this brief description of my travel in time is not historically accurate; nevertheless I hope that you have enjoyed yourself reading it as much as I did writing it, and I hope you will consider it worth[y] of publication in your magazine.

history /ˈhɪstrɪ/
NOUN

a history of sth

[C1] If you have a history of a particular problem or illness, you have already suffered from it.

Dictionary example:

A man with a history of drug addiction

Learner example:

The characteristic we are born with is to a certain level affected by genetic factors, e.g., if a mother has a history of depression her daughter or son will also have higher chance of getting depression.

VERB [T] (hitting, hit, hit)

TOUCH

[B1] to touch someone or something quickly and with force, usually causing injury or damage

Dictionary examples:

The car went out of control and hit a wall.
She hit her head on the pavement when she fell.

Learner example:

He hit a boy on the main road, but fortunately the boy was okay.

AFFECT

[B2] to affect something badly

Dictionary example:

The economy has been hit by high unemployment.

Learner example:

Penalties for parking in the wrong place can really hit you in the pocket.

REACH

[C1] to reach a place, position, or state

Dictionary example:

Our profits have already hit $1 million.

Learner example:

Having already hit the 50% boundary in 1991, we still see that the teachers’ salaries experienced a significant rise.
THINK

[C2] INFORMAL If an idea or thought hits you, you suddenly think of it.

Dictionary example:
The idea for the book hit me in the middle of the night.

Learner example:
I climbed out of the shower, staggered into my room and then it hit me! "My diary! For crying out loud, that's it!"

hit the roof INFORMAL
[C2] to become very angry and start shouting

Dictionary example:
If I'm late again he'll hit the roof.

Learner example:
Be careful, if you make too much noise he'll hit the roof.

NOUN [C]

SUCCESS
[B1] a thing or person that is very popular or successful

Dictionary examples:
The Beatles had a string of number-one hits in the 1960s.
Your cake was a real hit at the party – everyone loved it.
They've just released a CD of their greatest hits.

Learner example:
The group RADIANT played their big hits from the 1980s for an hour.

INTERNET
[B2] a request to see a document on the Internet that is then counted to calculate the number of people looking at the page

Dictionary example:
There have been over 10,000 hits on the site since Wednesday.

hitchhike /ˈhɪtʃ.haɪk/

VERB [i]
[B1] to get free rides in someone's vehicle, by standing next to the road and waiting for someone to pick you up

Dictionary example:
We hitchhiked from Paris to Milan.
Learner example:
We hitchhike[d] to the nearest city.

hi-tech /ˌhaɪˈtek/
ADJECTIVE (also high-tech)
[B2] using or involved with the most recent and advanced electronic machines, computers, etc.

Dictionary example:
This database system is an affordable, hi-tech solution.

Learner example:
With the development of science and technology, many new inventions have entered our life, especially some hi-tech products.

hold /həʊld/
VERB [T] (held, held)
KEEP IN POSITION
[B1] to keep something in a particular position

Dictionary examples:
Can you hold the door open, please?
Hold your hand up if you know the answer.
They held a gun to his head.

Learner example:
Suddenly, the girl found herself in front of the man, [who was] holding a gun against her forehead.

ORGANIZE
[B1] to organize an event

Dictionary examples:
to hold talks/an election
A music festival is held there in July.

Learner example:
Every evening the concerts are held in the open air, so you can have lots of fun.

CONTAIN
[B1] to contain or be able to contain something
Dictionary examples:
This jug holds exactly one pint.
One bag won’t hold all of the shopping – we’d better take two.
Modern computers can hold huge amounts of information.

Learner example:
Big companies which hold a huge amount of information would not be able to work without a computer.

PRISONER
[B2] to keep someone in a place so that they cannot leave

Dictionary examples:
The terrorists held him hostage for 18 months.
I was held prisoner in a tiny attic room.

Learner example:
All around the world animals are held as prisoners in zoos.

hold your breath
[B2] to keep air in your lungs and not let it out

Dictionary example:
How long can you hold your breath under water?

Learner example:
My heart was beating fast. I was holding my breath.

COMPETITION
[B2] to have a particular position in a competition

Dictionary examples:
to hold the world record
The team held the lead until the 89th minute.

Learner example:
Nowadays she is an excellent sportswoman, she holds the world record.

JOB OR QUALIFICATION
[C1] to have a particular job, position, or qualification

Dictionary example:
She held the post of treasurer.

Learner example:
In fact 90% males hold the skilled vocational diploma whereas only 10% females hold the same degree.

hold an opinion/belief/view
[C1] to believe something

Dictionary example:
They held the view that physical punishment was good for children.
Learner example:
Nowadays, some people hold the opinion that children who do not have good living conditions are better prepared to deal with the problems which they will encounter later on.

hold a conversation
[C1] to have a conversation

Dictionary example:
I can just about hold a conversation in Italian.

Learner example:
I know the grammar and many different expressions, and I can hold a conversation with other people.

hold sb's attention/interest
[C1] to keep someone interested in something

Dictionary example:
The film held my attention from beginning to end.

Learner example:
The recent protest about our canteen held my attention.

hold your breath
[C2] to wait for something to happen, often feeling anxious

Dictionary example:
While the leaders negotiated, the world held its breath.

Learner example:
They, the critics, the fans and friends and his wife, held their breath and crossed their fingers, hoping to once again hear his enchanting voice.

hold your own
[C2] to be as successful as other people or things

Dictionary example:
Alison could always hold her own in political debates.

Learner example:
An average IT company in the UK is only 30% female so it is vital to be comfortable in the company of so many men, and to be able to hold your own against them in meetings and discussions.

not hold water
[C2] If you say that an argument doesn't hold water, you mean that it can't possibly be true.

Dictionary example:
I'm sorry, but what you are suggesting just doesn't hold water!
Learner example:
It remains to us to prove that the opinions of some scientists are far-fetched and don't hold water.

NOUN

SUPPORT

[B2] [NO PLURAL] when you hold something or someone, or the way you do this

Dictionary example:
Keep a tight hold on your tickets.

Learner example:
When I got up on my feet again, I reached out my arm to get a hold on something, but there wasn’t anything to hold on to.

catch/get/grab/take hold of sth/sb

[B2] to start holding something or someone

Dictionary examples:
He took hold of one end of the carpet and tugged.
I just managed to grab hold of Lucy before she fell in the pool.

Learner example:
I’m scared!“ said Nora trembling, as she took hold of my arm.

get hold of sth/sb

[B2] to obtain something, or to manage to speak to someone

Dictionary examples:
I got hold of a copy at the local library.
I rang three times, but couldn’t get hold of her.

Learner example:
I had also forgotten to remind my friends and teachers to bring their own knife and fork to our lunch, but fortunately one of my friends managed to get hold of some spare knives and forks.

on hold

[C1] If a plan or activity is on hold, it will not be done until a later time.

Dictionary example:
The project is on hold until we get more money.

Learner example:
What’s more, it might, intentionally or not, raise awareness on issues that might have been put on hold by authorities, such as the legalization of soft drugs.

on hold

[C1] waiting to speak to someone on the telephone

Dictionary example:
His secretary put me on hold.
Learner example:
The day after, I called your office and after being put on hold, the person answering the phone was unwilling to come up with a proper reply.

a hold on/over sth/sb [C2] power or control over something or someone

Dictionary example:
Their company has a strong hold on the computer market.

Learner example:
They send the money directly to his father and now have a hold on Chen.

hole /həʊl/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a hollow space in something, or an opening in a surface

Dictionary examples:
a bullet hole
There’s a hole in the roof.
We dug a hole to plant the tree.

Learner example:
I like wearing jeans with holes in them, they look cool.

hollow /ˈhɒl.əʊ/

ADJECTIVE

NOTHING INSIDE
[C2] having a hole or empty space inside

Dictionary example:
a hollow shell/tube

Learner example:
He had taken the dark red leather-bound book to his hideout in the forest, an old oak tree with a hollow trunk, where he used to play alone.

WITHOUT MEANING
[C2] without meaning or real feeling

Dictionary examples:
a hollow victory
a hollow laugh
Learner example:
These celebrities tend to encourage a lifestyle that, at first, may be extremely appealing, specially to children and teenagers, but it is nothing [more] than pure hollow hedonism.

ring hollow
[C2] If something someone says rings hollow, it does not sound true or sincere.

Dictionary example:
He said he was pleased, but his words rang hollow.

Learner example:
Everything rang hollow to her, so she decided to follow him in order to understand what had happened and her fiancé became so friendly and understanding.

holy /ˈhəʊ.li/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] relating to a religion or a god

Dictionary example:
the holy city of Jerusalem

Learner example:
I'd like to go inside and see for myself but only the holy priests are allowed to be in there and only [on] special occasions.

home /həʊm/

Word family:
Nouns: home, homeless, homelessness
Adjectives: homeless
Adverbs: home

NOUN

feel at home
[B1] to feel happy and confident in a place or situation

Dictionary example:
After a month she felt at home in her new job.

Learner example:
I explained: "I was in Manchester for just 10 month[s] and [during] that time the people from there made me feel at home [so] I feel proud to have the accent."
the home of sth/sb

[C1] the place where you usually find something or someone, or where they come from

Dictionary example:
France, the home of good food

Learner example:
Every golfer – and those watching golf – know, that the home of golf is St. Andrews in Scotland.

make yourself at home

[C1] to behave in a relaxed way in a place, as if it was your own home

Dictionary example:
Take off your coat and make yourself at home.

Learner example:
Please relax and make yourself at home and help yourself.

CARE

[C1] [c] a place where people who need special care live

Dictionary examples:
- a children's home
  My grandmother lives in a home now.

Learner example:
However, I am also experienced with elderly people because I worked in an old people's home for about 3 months in the summer 1997.

a broken home

[C2] a family in which the parents do not now live together

Dictionary example:
Many of these children come from broken homes.

Learner example:
The development of the modern society has brought with it a growing number of broken homes, divorces and economic problems which have directly affected the parent–child relationship.

ADVERB

AT/IN PLACE

[B1] at or in the place someone lives

Dictionary example:
Will you be home tomorrow evening?

Learner example:
I'll not be home this afternoon.
homeless /ˈhəʊm.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: home, homeless, homelessness
Adjectives: homeless
Adverbs: home

ADJECTIVE
[C1] without a place to live

Dictionary example:
10,000 people were made homeless by the floods.

Learner example:
As a result, there are a lot of homeless people in our local community.

NOUN

the homeless
[C1] people who are homeless

Dictionary example:
They're opening a new shelter for the homeless.

Learner example:
The money spent on the royal family could be used for something else like building houses for the homeless.

homelessness /ˈhəʊm.ləs.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: home, homeless, homelessness
Adjectives: homeless
Adverbs: home

NOUN [u]
[C2] the state of being homeless

Dictionary example:
The government is trying to tackle homelessness.

Learner example:
Unemployment is a major problem today and it leads more and more people on to the path of poverty and homelessness.
honest  /ˈɒn.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: dishonesty, honesty
Adjectives: dishonest, honest
Adverbs: honestly, dishonestly

ADJECTIVE

TRUTH
[B1] sincere and telling the truth

Dictionary example:
If you want my honest answer/opinion, I think your hair looks awful.

Learner example:
I tell everything to my mother in order to be honest.

NOT CHEAT
[B1] not likely to lie, cheat, or steal

Dictionary examples:
an honest man
She had an honest face.

Learner example:
I know it is an illusion, but I want to think that in the world there are some honest people.

to be honest
[B1] used to express your real opinion

Dictionary examples:
To be honest, I didn't really enjoy the party.
To be honest with you, I don't think it will be possible.

Learner example:
To be honest, I do hate shopping for clothes.

honestly  /ˈɒn.ɪst.li/

Word family:
Nouns: dishonesty, honesty
Adjectives: dishonest, honest
Adverbs: honestly, dishonestly

ADVERB

EMPHASIZE
[B1] used to emphasize that you are telling the truth
Dictionary example:
Thanks, but I honestly couldn’t eat another piece of cake.

Learner example:
Honestly, I did not know what to do, I wanted to cry.

HONEST
[B2] in an honest way

Dictionary example:
They have always dealt honestly and fairly with their customers.

Learner example:
If we want to answer [this question] honestly and sincerely, we should think about [the] advantages and disadvantages that keeping animals in zoos results [in].

honesty /ˈɒn.ə.sti/

Word family:
Nouns: dishonesty, honesty
Adjectives: dishonest, honest
Adverbs: honestly, dishonestly

NOUN [u]

QUALITY
[B2] the quality of being honest

Dictionary example:
I appreciate your honesty.

Learner example:
He’s an extraordinary person and the TV viewers will love him because of his good sense of humor and his honesty.

in all honesty
[C2] used when you are saying what you really think or feel about something

Dictionary example:
In all honesty, I’d rather not go.

Learner example:
It is easy to say that government funding should be raised to make classes smaller and materials more relevant, but in all honesty, Danish schools are working very well indeed.
honeymoon /ˈhʌn.i.muːn/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a holiday taken by two people who have just got married

Dictionary example:
We went to Paris on our honeymoon.

Learner example:
Where did you spend your honeymoon?

honour /ˈɒn.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: honour
Adjectives: honoured

NOUN

RESPECT
[B2] [u] when people respect you because you have done what you believe is honest and right, or the quality of doing this

Dictionary examples:
a man of honour
We fought for the honour of our country.

Learner example:
Your health is worth much more than your honour.

in honour of sb/sth
[B2] in order to celebrate or show great respect for someone or something

Dictionary example:
a banquet in honour of the president

Learner example:
Finally we went to Corinth, where there are a lot of ancient sanctuaries which were built in honour of their gods.

PRIDE
[B2] [NO PLURAL] something which makes you feel proud and pleased

Dictionary examples:
It's an honour to be team captain.
I had the great honour of meeting the King.

Learner example:
It would be a pleasure and an honour for me.
honoured /ˈɒn.əd/

Word family:
Nouns: honour
Adjectives: honoured

ADJECTIVE
[C1] proud and pleased because you have been given respect or asked to do something special

Dictionary examples:
I am honoured to accept your invitation.
We would be honoured if you would join us for the day.

Learner example:
We would be honoured if you could present the prizes at this event.

hood /hʊd/

NOUN [C]
[B2] part of a piece of clothing which can be pulled up to cover the top and back of the head

Dictionary example:
The coat has a hood.

Learner example:
He was wearing a black hood.

hook /hʊk/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a curved piece of metal or plastic used for hanging something on, or a similar object used for catching fish

Dictionary examples:
a coat/picture hook a boat hook a fish hook

Learner example:
A few moments later she took out a rope, which had a hook on one end.

1374
VERB [t]

be/get hooked on sth

[B2] to like or start to like doing something very much and want to do it all the time

Dictionary example:
He's completely hooked on computer games.

Learner example:
It is such a great change to listen to well-known singers for those who are hooked on rock music.

hop /hɒp/

VERB [i] (hopping, hopped)

MOVE QUICKLY

[C1] to go somewhere quickly or get into or out of a vehicle quickly

Dictionary example: to hop on a plane/train

Learner example:
The next thing that happen[s] is that everyone hops in their cars and drives to the restaurant where they have dinner.

ONE FOOT

[C2] to jump on one foot or to move about in this way

Dictionary example:
He hopped across the room.

Learner example:
He was not to be able to stand still and seemed to be hopping and leaping with his violin while playing.

ANIMAL

[C2] If a small animal, bird, or insect hops, it moves by jumping on all of its feet at the same time.

Dictionary example:
Rabbits were hopping across the field.

Learner example:
I advise a quite different restaurant, in a more peaceful area; it is a pavil[i]on facing Monstsouris garden, where you can see birds hopping and flying through the tre[e]s, and swans on the lake.
hope /həʊp/

Word family:

Nouns: hope

Verbs: hope

Adjectives: hopeful, hopeless

Adverbs: hopefully, hopelessly

VERB [I or T]

hope to do sth

[B1] to intend to do something

Dictionary example:
Dad hopes to retire next year.

Learner example:
With this new class I hope to make progress.

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a positive feeling about the future, or something that you want to happen or be true

Dictionary examples:
a message full of hope
What are your hopes for the future?
Don’t give up hope – I’m sure he’ll be fine.
Young people are growing up in our cities without any hope of getting a job.

Learner example:
Ten minutes later I started to tell [them] how brave [they were] and how we fought when there was no hope.

in the hope of/that

[C1] because you want something good to happen

Dictionary examples:
She went to Paris in the hope of improving her French.
They wrote to the Prime Minister in the hope that he would help.

Learner example:
Not only would I want to travel back to understand Hitler’s incredible success, but also in the hope of thwarting his plans.

sb’s best/last/only hope

[C2] the best/last/only person or thing that can help you and make you succeed

Dictionary example:
Doctors say his only hope is a transplant.
Learner example:
My spirits sank at the same time [as] the water, our last hope of survival, did.

hopeful /ˈhəʊp.fəl/

Word family:
- Nouns: hope
- Verbs: hope
- Adjectives: hopeful, hopeless
- Adverbs: hopefully, hopelessly

ADJECTIVE

FEELING POSITIVE
[B1] feeling positive about a future event or situation

Dictionary examples:
- He was hopeful about the outcome of the meeting.
- They were hopeful of a successful agreement.
- I'm hopeful (that) we can reach a compromise.

Learner example:
I know that it is quite impossible to find it in a big town like mine, but I am [still] hopeful.

GOOD THING WILL HAPPEN
[C2] If something is hopeful, it gives you reason to believe that what you want to happen will happen.

Dictionary example:
There are hopeful signs that she will make a full recovery.

Learner example:
The hopeful atmosphere darkened somewhat.

hopefully /ˈhəʊp.fəli/

Word family:
- Nouns: hope
- Verbs: hope
- Adjectives: hopeful, hopeless
- Adverbs: hopefully, hopelessly

ADVERB

WHAT YOU WANT
[B1] used, often at the start of a sentence, to express what you would like to happen
Dictionary examples:
Hopefully it won't rain.
Hopefully we'll be in Norwich by early evening.

Learner example:
Hopefully he likes me, too.

HOPEFUL WAY
[B2] in a hopeful way

Dictionary example:
"Are there any tickets left?" she asked hopefully.

Learner example:
I'll be waiting hopefully for your letter.

hopeless /ˈhəʊ.pləs/

Word family:
Nouns: hope
Verbs: hope
Adjectives: hopeful, hopeless
Adverbs: hopefully, hopelessly

ADJECTIVE

NO HOPE
[B1] without hope

Dictionary examples:
a hopeless situation
They searched for survivors but it was hopeless.
She was depressed and felt totally hopeless about the future.

Learner example:
When my uncle heard about my new hobby, he bought me a chess-computer to train for my first real match. At the moment I'm trying to win against it but I think it is hopeless.

BAD AT SOMETHING
[B2] very bad at a particular activity

Dictionary examples:
I'm hopeless at sports.
He's a hopeless cook.
hopelessly /ˈhɔp.ləs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: hope
Verbs: hope
Adjectives: hopeful, hopeless
Adverbs: hopefully, hopelessly

ADVERB
[C2] extremely, or in a way that makes you lose hope

Dictionary examples:
- hopelessly lost
- They met at university and fell hopelessly in love.

Learner example:
- It’s never easy to be young and hopelessly in love.

horizon /həˈraɪ.zən/

Word family:
Nouns: horizon
Adjectives: horizontal

NOUN

broaden/expand/widen your horizons
[C1] to increase the number of things that you know about, have experienced, or can do

Dictionary example:
- Travelling certainly broadens your horizons.

Learner example:
- Overall, I can say the conference was a success and definitely broadened my horizons.

on the horizon
[C1] likely to happen soon

Dictionary example:
- Economic recovery is on the horizon.

Learner example:
- Often this is justified as [a] result of society being collectively afraid that a shortage of fuel is on the horizon.

[C2] [C] the line in the distance where the sky seems to touch the land or sea

Dictionary example:
- We could see a large ship on the horizon.
Learner example:
The view from here is also very beautiful and I remember that when I looked out over the sea, I could see the boats dotted around between the bay and the horizon.

horizontal /ˌhɔːr.iˈzɒn.təl/

Word family:
Nouns: horizon
Adjectives: horizontal

ADJECTIVE
[C1] level and flat, or parallel to the ground or to the bottom of a page

Dictionary example:
a horizontal line/strip

Learner example:
Years are projected along the horizontal axis.

horn /hɔːn/

NOUN [c]

SOUND
[B2] a piece of equipment used to make a loud sound as a warning or signal

Dictionary examples:
a car/fog horn
The taxi driver sounded/beeped his horn.

Learner example:
How happy I was, hearing the sound of a car horn.

ANIMAL
[C1] one of the two hard, pointed growths on the heads of cows, goats, and some other animals

Dictionary example:
These cows have curved horns.

Learner example:
Far in the south of Chile, you will find the smallest deer of the world called "Pudù". It is only 25 cm. tall, doesn't have big horns and eats fruit.

MUSIC
[C2] a curved musical instrument that you blow into to make a sound
Dictionary example:
He blew his horn.

Learner example:
At last, when the first notes came out of the orchestra, a spotlight showed the enormous figure of Ludwig van Mill strolling in the forest, blowing his horn and grinning at the trees.

horrified  /ˌhɑːr.ɪ.fɑrd/

Word family:
Nouns: horror
Adjectives: horrified, horrifying

ADJECTIVE
[C2] very shocked

Dictionary example:
When I told him all the money was gone, he was absolutely horrified.

Learner example:
When we arrived at the Riverside Lodge I was horrified to find out that there were no ramps in the building.

horrifying  /ˌhɑːr.i.fer.iŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: horror
Adjectives: horrified, horrifying

ADJECTIVE
[C2] extremely shocking

Dictionary example:
She sustained horrifying injuries in the attack.

Learner example:
Evading his unknown captors he is faced with a horrifying proposition.

horror  /ˈhɔːr.ə/

Word family:
Nouns: horror
Adjectives: horrified, horrifying
NOUN [u]

a horror film/movie/story
[B1] a film or story that entertains people by shocking or frightening them

Dictionary example:
I love reading horror stories.

Learner example:
I'll buy a DVD called "Scream", it's a horror movie – you know I love scary movies.

FEELING
[B2] a strong feeling of shock or fear

Dictionary examples:
She watched in horror as the car skidded across the road.
The thought of speaking in front of so many people fills me with horror.
I then realized to my absolute horror, that I had forgotten the present.

Learner example:
I approached the door but to my horror, it was locked.

hospitable /hɒsˈpɪtə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: hospitality
Adjectives: hospitable

ADJECTIVE
[C1] A hospitable person or place is friendly, pleasant, and welcomes visitors.

Dictionary example:
We always find them very hospitable.

Learner example:
First of all, the families you will be staying with are exceptionally hospitable, always willing to show you round in the local area.

hospitality /ˌhɒs.pɪˈtæl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: hospitality
Adjectives: hospitable

NOUN [u]
[C1] when people are friendly and welcoming to guests and visitors
Dictionary example:
The local people showed me great hospitality.

Learner example:
Our members were ever so pleased with the families and your kind hospitality.

host /həʊst/

NOUN [C]

PERSON
[B2] someone who invites people to a meal or a party, or to stay in their home

Dictionary examples:
We thanked our hosts for the lovely evening.
My host family looked after me very well during my month in London.

Learner example:
My experience [of] liv[ing] with a host family was very good, so I suggest we should look for a nice place for both of us.

a host of sth
[C1] a large number of people or things

Dictionary example:
I've got a whole host of questions to ask you.

Learner example:
In this day and age, we can buy Nike clothes, Head & Shoulders shampoos and a host of other products in the UK as well as other places in the world.

TELEVISION
[C2] someone who introduces the guests on a radio or television programme

Dictionary example:
a talk show host

Learner example:
For a lot of youngsters some television hosts are regarded as role models because they are famous and do not seem to have problems with anything at all.

VERB [T]
[C1] If a place hosts an event, people there arrange it and it happens there.

Dictionary example:
The town hosts an annual jazz festival.

Learner example:
Dear Sir/Madam, I am writing on behalf of my town which has been short–listed to host an international conference next year.
hostage /ˈhɒs.tɪdʒ/

NOUN

PERSON

[C2] [c] someone who is kept as a prisoner and may be hurt or killed in order to force other people to do something

Dictionary example:
Three hostages died in the attack.

Learner example:
The most extraordinary bond, however, develops between two of the hostages, namely Mr. Hosokawa himself and the American opera singer Roxanne Coss.

take/hold sb hostage

[C2] to catch or keep someone as a prisoner

Dictionary example:
Two tourists were held hostage by terrorists.

Learner example:
At the party, however, things take an unexpected turn when all the visitors are taken hostage by a group of terrorists.

hostel /ˈhɒs.təl/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a place like a cheap hotel, where you can live when you are away from home or have no home

Dictionary examples:
a youth hostel
a hostel for the homeless

Learner example:
We'll stay in a hostel [be]cause it's cheap and we'll use public transport.

hostile /ˈhɒs.tɪl/
ADJECTIVE

UNFRIENDLY
[C1] unfriendly and not liking or agreeing with something

Dictionary example:
Some politicians were very hostile to the idea.

Learner example:
She is not hostile or aggressive.

DIFFICULT
[C1] unpleasant or not suitable for living or growing

Dictionary examples:
a hostile climate
They live and work in very hostile conditions.

Learner example:
However, they do not realize that they have to survive in a hostile environment, living in unsafe and unhealthy slums.

hostility /hɒs'tɪ.lə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: hostility
Adjectives: hostile

NOUN
[C2] [u] unfriendly, angry behaviour that shows that you dislike someone

Dictionary example:
hostility towards outsiders

Learner example:
As Edmund’s cruelty and hostility towards Charles intensified, and Charles’ attempts to escape failed, his unhappiness increased, which led to his ultimate self-destruction.

hot /hɒt/

ADJECTIVE (hotter, hottest)

SPICY
[B1] Hot food contains strong spices which cause a burning feeling in your mouth.

Dictionary examples:
a hot curry
hot and spicy food
Learner example:
Here we have many restaurants to go [to], so it’s hard to have a favourite, but we sometimes go to [the] Delhi restaurant, which serve[s] Indian food, because we like meals [that are] hot [with] various spices.

a hot issue/topic
[C1] a subject which people discuss and have strong feelings about

Dictionary example:
The legalization of drugs is a hot topic.

Learner example:
Whether to compete or to cooperate has become a hot issue in today's society, both in public and private.

EXCITING
[C1] informal exciting or interesting

Dictionary example:
Hollywood's hottest new actress

Learner example:
That would mean that Bill Gates is the hottest celebrity on earth, but he is not.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>hour</th>
<th>/ˈaʊər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: hour
Adjectives: hourly
Adverbs: hourly

NOUN [C]

hours
[B1] informal a long time

Dictionary examples:
I spent hours doing my homework.
They kept us waiting for hours and hours.

Learner example:
We spent hours talking, but at ten o'clock he [took] me home.

all hours
[C1] very late at night, until early morning, or almost all the time

Dictionary example:
Our neighbours are up till all hours every night, playing loud music.

Learner example:
This causes traffic jams at all hours of the day.
the early/small hours
[C2] the hours between midnight and the time that the sun rises

Dictionary example:
I usually wake up in the early hours.

Learner example:
After the firework display, villagers start dancing again until the early hours.

hourly /ˈauə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: hour
Adjectives: hourly
Adverbs: hourly

ADJECTIVE

EVERY HOUR
[B2] done or happening every hour

Dictionary examples:
There's an hourly bus service into town.
A nurse checked him at hourly intervals.

PER HOUR
[B2] for each hour

Dictionary example:
an hourly rate/wage

Learner example:
I'll also call the shop and ask [about] the hourly rate and the working hours.

ADVERB
[C1] once every hour

Dictionary example:
Trains stop here hourly.

Learner example:
This train runs hourly and takes about 90 minutes to Kassel which is the second stop.

house

Word family:
Nouns: house, housing
Verbs: house
NOUN [C] /ˈhaʊs/ (PLURAL houses)

THEATRE
[C2] the people watching a performance or the area where they sit

Dictionary example:
The actors played to a full house.

VERB [T] /ˈhaʊz/

PROVIDE SPACE
[C2] to provide space for something

Dictionary example:
The museum houses a huge collection of paintings.

Learner example:
Her study houses a really huge collection of books on history, architecture, [and] geography of the places we have been to.

GIVE HOME
[C2] to give a person or animal a place to live

Dictionary example:
This development will house over 100 families.

Learner example:
In short, if more emphasis is put on social skills and benefits become easier to obtain, then homelessness could be reduced – except for the persons who cannot be housed because of their deviant behaviour.

household /ˈhaʊs.ˈhaʊld/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
[B2] a family or group of people who live together in a house

Dictionary examples:
By the 1960s, most households had a TV.
household chores household expenses

Learner example:
In Japan, for example, the vast majority of households have at least one car nowadays.
housework /ˈhaʊs.wɜːk/

NOUN [u]
[B1] the work of keeping a house clean and tidy

Dictionary example:
I hate doing housework.

Learner example:
I ran out of vegetables and cans, [and] as I was not at home the housework wasn't done, and the children almost destroy[ed] my furniture.

housing /ˈhaʊ.zɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: house, housing
Verbs: house

NOUN [u]
[C1] buildings for people to live in

Dictionary example:
a shortage of local housing

Learner example:
The problems with housing can be improved by building more council houses, which can be bought at lower prices, or giving subsidies to first [time] buyers.

how /hau/

ADVERB

EXPERIENCE
[B1] used to ask or talk about what an experience or event was like

Dictionary examples:
How was your flight?
How did you find the lecture?
How did you like the concert?

Learner example:
How was your birthday?

EMPHASIZE
[B1] used for emphasis
Dictionary examples:
I can't tell you how pleased I am that you came.
How nice to see you!
I was amazed at how quickly she finished.

Learner example:
It's quite amazing how quickly she could change my reason to learn English.

How about ...?
[B1] used to ask for someone's opinion on a particular subject

Dictionary example:
So the town was nice – how about the food?

Learner example:
I don't like shopping with my mum because she wants me to wear weird clothes. How about you?

how come INFORMAL
[C1] used to ask why or how something has happened

Dictionary example:
How come you didn't go to the party?

Learner example:
Off the record: How come that your reporter can print such lies when knowing they are perhaps hurting certain people in this important matter?

How dare she/you, etc.
[C1] used to express anger about something someone has done

Dictionary example:
How dare you talk to me like that!

Learner example:
How dare you call that high standards?!

how far
[C1] used to talk about how true something is

Dictionary example:
How far do politicians represent the views of ordinary people?

Learner example:
How far and to what extent would the characteristics we are born with influence our future development in life?

How strange/stupid/weird, etc. is that?
[C2] said to mean that something is strange/stupid, etc.

Dictionary example:
I found my keys in the fridge – how stupid is that?
Learner example:
The best thing is that my current rent is only 2/3 of the old flat and the landlord is paying the facility bills and council tax for me. How good is that?

however /ˌhaʊˈevər/

ADVERB
however cold/difficult/slowly, etc.
[B2] used to say that it does not make any difference how cold/difficult/slowly, etc.

Dictionary examples:
We're not going to get there in time, however fast we drive.
However hungry I am, I never seem to be able to finish off a whole pizza.
If Emma likes something she'll buy it however much it costs.
I'll see you after the show and give you £20 for the tickets, or however much they cost.

Learner example:
We think that we are careful and that we can avoid traffic accidents, but however careful we may be, some other people might be careless and hit us.

CONJUNCTION
[C2] in whatever way

Dictionary examples:
However you look at it, it's still a mess.
You can do it however you like, it really doesn't matter.

Learner example:
However you do it, the important part is that you relax.

hug /hʌg/

VERB [T] (-gg-)
[B1] to put your arms around someone and hold them tightly, usually because you love or like them

Dictionary examples:
They hugged each other when they met at the station.
Emily hugged her teddy bear tightly to her chest.
She sat on the floor hugging her knees.

Learner example:
We walked in the street together and spoke [to] each other [for] more than for four hours and at the end we hugged and kissed.
NOUN [C]
[B1] when you put your arms around someone and hold them tightly

Dictionary examples:
Come here and give me a big hug.
We always exchange hugs and kisses when we meet.

Learner example:
The singer of the band, "Green Day" was coming to[wards] me. [He] took my hand and then gave me a hug.

---

huge /hjuːdʒ/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] extremely large

Dictionary examples:
They live in a huge house.
The costs involved in building a spacecraft are huge.
A huge number of people attended.

Learner example:
I live in a huge old house in the suburbs with my family.

---

hum /hʌm/

VERB [I or T] (-mm-)
[C2] to sing without opening your mouth

Dictionary example:
She walked around the house, humming a song.

Learner example:
Secretly, when nobody can hear them, they hum a little tune or whistle a melody, their faces beam, and their hearts grow warm.

---

human /ˈhjuː.mən/

Word family:
Adjectives: human, inhuman

---

ADJECTIVE

PEOPLE
[B1] relating to people or their characteristics
Dictionary examples:
the human body
human behaviour
The fault was due to human error.

Learner example:
As for me, the last good programme I saw was [a] scientific episode about [the] abilities of the human brain.

be only human [C2] to not be perfect

Dictionary example:
Of course Tom makes mistakes – he's only human.

Learner example:
In theory, it is easy to say "We should learn from the mistakes of the past" but is it easy to do so in practice? Many people would say "No" to this question, as we are only human.

NOUN [C1] (also human being)
[B1] a man, woman or child

Dictionary example:
The greatest damage being done to our planet today is that being done by humans.

Learner example:
The programm[e]s I have enjoyed recently were about w[h]ales, sharks and humans.

humanitarian /hjuːˌmæn.ɪˈteə.ri.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: humanity
Adjectives: humanitarian

ADJECTIVE
[C2] connected with improving people's lives and reducing suffering

Dictionary example:
The UN is sending humanitarian aid to the refugees.

Learner example:
Indeed, the conflicts in the Balkans are so deeply rooted and complex that they can be likened to a political quagmire: once you go in, a withdrawal of humanitarian aid and military forces becomes difficult to undertake.
humanity /ˈhjuː.mæn.ə.ti/

Word family:

Nouns: humanity

Adjectives: humanitarian

NOUN [u]

ALL PEOPLE

[C1] all people

Dictionary example:
The massacre was a crime against humanity.

Learner example:
All humanity enjoys the numerous advances in modern technology and [in] our day, life [has become] more interesting and easier.

KINDNESS

[C2] kindness and sympathy towards others

Dictionary example:
Mother Teresa was famous for her compassion and humanity.

Learner example:
When he sees Faber’s intelligence and humanity, he is once more convinced of the fact that books are a good thing and that they should be preserved rather than destroyed and he decides to fight for this.

BEING HUMAN

[C2] the condition of being human

Dictionary example:
War robs these people of their humanity.

Learner example:
At last they will be back home, but they are sure that nobody could give them again that humanity that the war took away.

human rights /ˌhjuː.ˈmæn.rəitairez/

NOUN [PLURAL]

[B2] the basic rights that every person should have, such as justice and freedom to say what you think

Dictionary example:
international laws protecting human rights
Learner example:
My main interest is the way of life during the so-called French Period; that period is very important for the foundation of human rights and the way parliament ought to work.

humble /ˈhʌm.bl/

ADJECTIVE

NOT PROUD

[C2] not proud or not believing that you are important

Dictionary example:
He's very humble about his success.

Learner example:
I am aware that this may be perceived by some people as a naive point of view, as such humble values are becoming less and less popular in today's materialistic world.

POOR

[C2] poor or of a low social rank

Dictionary example:
She rose from humble beginnings to become Prime Minister.

Learner example:
As a result of it, he never forgot his humble origins in a small region of Spain.

in my humble opinion

[C2] used to give your opinion about something, often when you are sure you are right

Dictionary example:
In my humble opinion, that's the wrong decision.

Learner example:
In my humble opinion, there's no such thing as a uniform celebrity, good, bad or otherwise.

humid /ˈhjuː.mɪd/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] Humid air or weather is hot and slightly wet.

Dictionary example:
It's very humid today.

Learner example:
[The] north of Iran is wet but [the] south of Iran is humid and hot.

1395 humiliated /hjuːˈmɪl.i.eɪ.tɪd/

Word family:

Nouns: humility

Adjectives: humiliated, humiliating

ADJECTIVE

[C2] made to feel stupid or ashamed

Dictionary example:
She felt completely humiliated.

Learner example:
Never again in my life have I felt so miserable and humiliated.

humiliating /hjuːˈmɪl.i.eɪ.tɪŋ/

Word family:

Nouns: humility

Adjectives: humiliated, humiliating

ADJECTIVE

[C2] making you feel stupid or ashamed

Dictionary example:
a humiliating defeat

Learner example:
How humiliating it had been to have her parental abilities questioned.

humility /hjuːˈmɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:

Nouns: humility

Adjectives: humiliated, humiliating

NOUN [u]

[C2] the quality of not being proud or not thinking that you are better than other people

Dictionary example:
Try to show a little humility.

Learner example:
This growing shopping mania is also said to create an increasingly materialistic society; hence, our children grow up forgetting the basic values of life – simplicity, integrity, humility and plain hard work.
humorous /ˈhjuː.mərəs/

Word family:
Nouns: humour
Adjectives: humorous

ADJECTIVE
[C1] funny, or making you laugh

Dictionary example:
a humorous book

Learner example:
To be more specific, the articles will include events taken from our college life, written in a humorous, chatty way.

humour /ˈhjuː.mər/.

Word family:
Nouns: humour
Adjectives: humorous

NOUN
a sense of humour
[B1] the ability to understand funny things and to be funny yourself

Dictionary example:
Carol has a wicked sense of humour.

Learner example:
Most of them have an incredible sense of humour so we laugh a lot when we go there.

[B2] [u] the quality of being funny

Dictionary example:
There's a lot of humour in her work.

Learner example:
The film is really exciting with a bit of humour.

MOOD
[C2] formal the way you are feeling, or your mood

Dictionary example:
good humour

Learner example:
My mother was the tenderest and the most amiable mother one could have and my father was the man I mostly "loved", thanks to his good humour and his gentle manner.
hundred /ˈhʌndəd/

Hundreds informal

[B2] a lot

Dictionary example:
Hundreds of people wrote in to complain.

Learner example:
When she came back to reality she could see hundreds of people applauding.

hunger /ˈhʌŋ.gər/

Word family:

- Nouns: hunger
- Adjectives: hungry

Noun

- Need for Food

  [B1] [u] the feeling you have when you need to eat

  Dictionary examples:
  I can’t believe that that enormous meal wasn’t enough to satisfy your hunger. By about 9 o’clock she started to feel faint from/with hunger.

  Learner example:
  It [wa]s [what] I expected, a baby crying f[rom] hunger.

- Not Enough Food

  [B2] [u] when you do not have enough food

  Dictionary example:
  All over the world, people die of hunger every day.

  Learner example:
  Many changes are coming and many problems are coming too, because overpopulation, contamination, pollution, hunger, [and] poverty besides come with this technological revolution and that is something that the human being will have to solve soon.

- Wish

  [C1] [NO PLURAL] a strong wish for something

  Dictionary example:
  a hunger for success/knowledge
Learner example:
The most important factor when learning English is the hunger for knowledge, the hunger for the unknown.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>hungry /ˈhʌŋ.gri/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: hunger
Adjectives: hungry

ADJECTIVE

be hungry for sth
[C2] to have a strong wish for something

Dictionary example:
The journalists were hungry for more details of the accident.

Learner example:
I am always fascinated with people who are well-educated and do not stop being hungry for information.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>hunt /hʌnt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: hunting, hunt
Verbs: hunt

VERB [I or T]

CHASE
[B1] I to chase and kill wild animals

Dictionary examples:
Some animals hunt at night.
Cats like to hunt mice and birds.

Learner example:
As I was saying, you can also go to jungle hotels – comfortable hotels in the middle of the forest, just crossing the Amazon River, where you can keep in touch with nature, feed monkeys and even "hunt" alligators (all sizes, believe me!).

SEARCH
[B2] to search for something or someone
Dictionary examples:
I've hunted all over the place, but I can't find that book.
They are still hunting for the missing child.
I've hunted for my gloves.
Police are hunting the terrorists who planted the bomb.

Learner example:
You don't have to hunt for a place to park your car and to worry what will happen when you're out of gas.

NOUN
[C1] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] a search for something or someone

Dictionary examples:
After a long hunt we finally found a house we liked.
The hunt for the injured climber continued throughout the night.

Learner example:
What is more, it helps to face problems which could occur during the hunt for a "lifetime" job.

hunting /ˈhʌntɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: hunting, hunt
Verbs: hunt

NOUN [u]
[B2] the sport of chasing and killing animals

Dictionary examples:
deer hunting
She's very much against hunting of any sort.

Learner example:
And of course hunting won't be allowed.

hurry /ˈhʌr.i/

VERB [I or T]

hurry up PHRASAL VERB
[B1] to do something more quickly

Dictionary example:
Hurry up or we'll miss the train.

Learner example:
When I arrived, the other [basketball] club members [were] already dressed, so I had to hurry up.
hurry up sb/sth or hurry sb/sth up PHRASAL VERB [B2] to make someone do something more quickly, or to make something happen sooner

Dictionary example:
Could you hurry the children up, or their dinner will get cold?

NOUN [C NO PLURAL]
[B1] the need to move or do things more quickly than normal

Dictionary examples:
We left in such a hurry that we forgot our tickets.
"Can you wait a few minutes?" "Yes, I'm not in any hurry/I'm in no hurry."
Are you in a hurry to leave?
What's (all) the hurry (for)/Why (all) the hurry – we've got plenty of time.
"I'll let you have this back next week." "That's all right, there's no (great) hurry/there isn't any (great) hurry ."

Learner example:
I was in a hurry to get [to] class so I wore differ[er]ent colour[ed] socks.

hurt /hɜːt/

VERB (hurt, hurt)

EMOTION
[B1] [I or T] to cause emotional pain to someone

Dictionary examples:
She criticized my writing quite severely and that hurt.
He was badly hurt by the end of his marriage.
I didn't mean to hurt your feelings.

Learner example:
My heart was hurt and nobody will [be able to] repair the damage.

ADJECTIVE

IN PAIN
[B1] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] injured or in pain

Dictionary examples:
Let me help you up. Are you hurt?
Put that knife away before someone gets hurt.
Several people were seriously/badly hurt in the explosion.

Learner example:
There was an accident on the motorway but fortunately nobody was seriously hurt.
UNHAPPY
[B1] upset or unhappy

Dictionary examples:
I feel very hurt by what you said.
"That was very unkind," he said in a hurt voice.

Learner example:
I know you got very hurt when [you and] Brian broke up.

---

hut /hʌt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a small, simple building, often made of wood

Dictionary examples:
a mountain hut
a row of beach huts

Learner example:
Finally, we reached a hut near a river, where we stayed until the following day, when we returned home by bus.

---

hygiene /ˈhaɪ.dʒiːn/

Word family:
Nouns: hygiene
Adjectives: hygienic

NOUN [U]
[C1] the process of keeping things clean, especially to prevent disease

Dictionary examples:
health and hygiene regulations dental/personal hygiene

Learner example:
The ones that need medical services at home have hardly [got] anyone, and no one has helped them with personal hygiene.

---

hygienic /haɪˈdʒe.nɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: hygiene
Adjectives: hygienic
ADJECTIVE

[C2] very clean, so that bacteria cannot spread

Dictionary example:
hygienic conditions

Learner example:
That was not only extremely uncomfortable, but also inconvenient and not very hygienic.

hyphen /ˈhaɪ.fən/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a mark (−) used to join two words together, or to show that a word has been divided and continues on the next line

Dictionary example:
There should be a hyphen in 'short-sighted'.

hypocrisy /hɪˈpɒk.rə.si/

Word family:
Nouns: hypocrisy
Adjectives: hypocritical

NOUN [U]

[C2] when someone pretends to believe something that they do not really believe or that is the opposite of what they do or say at another time

Dictionary example:
I can't stand their hypocrisy – they say they care about the poor but then they go home and drink champagne.

Learner example:
I would recommend Hartley's novel to people who would like to see the world once more from the point of view of a child: a world too strange, too full of hypocrisy and egotism to be understood by a boy.

hypocritical /ˌhɪpəˈkrɪt.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: hypocrisy
Adjectives: hypocritical
ADJECTIVE
[C2] Hypocritical people pretend to believe things that they do not really believe or that are the opposite of what they do or say at another time.

Dictionary example:
Having told Tom that he should not accept any money from her, it would be rather hypocritical if I did.

Learner example:
One unique thought haunted her: go away from the environment she was living in and which she couldn’t stand: the four-hour teas, the incessant discussions about Mrs X who was pregnant and Mr X who had lost his fortune in a game, the hypocritical smiles, the narrow-minded people blinded by money... all those details which enraged Lucy.

hypothesis /haɪˈpɒθ.ə.sɪs/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL hypotheses)
[C2] a suggested explanation for something which has not yet been proved to be true

Dictionary example:
They are investigating the hypothesis that obesity may be caused by a virus.

Learner example:
The first impression that comes to my mind is that when you live longer, you gain more experience and wisdom, which you can convey to your children, therefore the society becomes more experienced, responsible etc. (unfortunately, [real life] does not back up this hypothesis).

hysterical /hɪˈster.i.kəl/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If someone is hysterical, they cannot control their feelings or behaviour because they are extremely frightened, angry, excited, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Calm down, you’re becoming/getting hysterical.
The police were accused of hysterical over-reaction.
hysterical laughter

Learner example:
The actor playing the part of Amadeus is Tom Hulce, whose hysterical laughter always seems to put him in embarrassing situations.
ice /aɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: ice
Adjectives: icy Adverbs: icily

NOUN [u]

break the ice
[B2] to make people feel more relaxed in a social situation

Dictionary example:
I told everyone a joke, which helped to break the ice.

Learner example:
And, of course, don’t forget that a warm smile is one of the best ways to break the ice.

iceberg /ˈaɪs.bɜːɡ/

NOUN [C]

ice
[C1] a very large piece of ice that floats in the sea

Dictionary example:
The ship hit an iceberg.

Learner example:
Another animal you cannot miss is the Humboldt penguin – you can see thousands of them over an iceberg.

be the tip of the iceberg
[C2] to be a small part of a very big problem

Dictionary example:
We’ve corrected a few errors, but they’re just the tip of the iceberg.

Learner example:
I’m not used to such behaviour but that was the tip of the iceberg.
ice hockey  /ˈaɪsˌhɒ.ki/

NOUN [u]
[B1] a game played on ice in which two teams try to hit a small hard object into a goal using long curved sticks

Dictionary example:
He loves ice hockey.

Learner example:
I visited Kassel with some friends, to watch an ice hockey game.

ice skating  /ˈaɪs.skət.ɪŋ/

NOUN [u]
[B1] the activity or sport of moving across ice using ice skates

Dictionary example:
We’re going ice skating.

Learner example:
Last year, I went ice-skating with some friends and it was not as easy as I thought it would be, but I liked it anyway.

icily  /ˈaɪs.ə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: ice
Adjectives: icy Adverbs: icily

ADVERB
[C2] in an unfriendly way or without showing any emotion

Dictionary example:
'I won't ask you again,' she said icily.

Learner example:
No sooner had she picked the phone up than she heard Mr Jones' voice icily asking her to go to his office.
icon /ˈaɪ.kɒn/

Noun [c]

Computer

[B2] a small picture on a computer screen that you choose in order to make the computer do something

Dictionary example:
Click on the print icon.

Learner example:
He clicked on the icon on the screen which started the operation.

Famous Person/Thing

[B2] a person or thing that is famous because it represents a particular idea or way of life

Dictionary example:
a fashion icon

Learner example:
I think he is still very famous because he is an icon and kickboxing is still very popular because of him.

icy /ˈaɪ.si/

Word family:

Nouns: ice

Adjectives: icy

Adverbs: icily

Adjective

With Ice

[B1] covered in ice

Dictionary example:
icy roads

Learner example:
She had fallen off it on an icy street and had got injured.

Cold

[B1] extremely cold

Dictionary example:
an icy wind
Learner example:
Fast as [the] wind, she was falling down and down, until her long thin finger touched the icy cold water.

WITHOUT FEELING
[B2] without showing any emotion

Dictionary example:
an icy stare

Learner example:
FOGG is the typical rich English man: cold with a[n] icy heart, uncommunicative.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>idea /aɪˈdiə/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

have no idea
[B1] to not know

Dictionary example:
"Where's Serge?" "I've no idea."

Learner example:
I have no idea about how his children are.

OPINION
[B1] [c] an opinion or belief

Dictionary examples:
We have very different ideas about the environment.
Leach puts forward the idea that it is impossible to spoil a child.
I'm not married – where did you get that idea?

Learner example:
You can talk beside the fireplace, or have a beer with your friends and share your ideas about Tolkien’s works.

THOUGHT
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] an understanding, thought or picture in your mind

Dictionary examples:
Do you have any idea of what he looks like?
Can you give me an idea of the cost?
I don't like the idea of living so far away from my family.
I've got a pretty good idea why they left early.

Learner example:
For children it's great to get an idea of how these "big" animals eat, drink and live.
AIM
[C1] [NO PLURAL] the aim or purpose of something

Dictionary example:
The idea is to give local people a chance to voice their opinions.

Learner example:
This was the idea behind this new product: although made in New Zealand, the new product would have its name, packaging, marketing and advertising support in keeping with the Russian traditions.

the idea of sth
[C2] the principle of something

Dictionary example:
We all admire the idea of dignity.

Learner example:
Many of us sit there with watery eyes, as we're moved by the idea of unification, equality and brotherhood among the different nations of the world.

not have the faintest idea
[C2] used to emphasize that you do not know something

Dictionary example:
I haven't the faintest idea what you're talking about.

Learner example:
Some twenty years ago, when I left my parents' home to go and live on my own, I was [given] four mugs. By whom? I haven't the faintest idea.

---

ideal /ˈaɪdɪəl/

Word family:

- Adjectives: ideal, idealistic
- Adverbs: ideally

ADJECTIVE

[B2] perfect, or the best possible

Dictionary examples:
the ideal employer
She's the ideal person for the job.
The television also comes in a compact 36 cm screen size, ideal for bedroom or kitchen use.
It's the ideal opportunity to meet people.
In an ideal world no one would go hungry.

Learner example:
In fact I didn't want to ask my parents for money, and going on holiday with you would be an ideal solution.
idealistic /ɪˈdɪəˈlɪstɪk/

Word family:
Adjectives: ideal, idealistic
Adverbs: ideally

ADJECTIVE
[C1] believing that it is possible to achieve very good things, even when others do not think this is likely

Dictionary example:
When I was young and idealistic, I believed it was possible to change the world.

Learner example:
Carolina has conquered the world, not only through her impressive results but through her appearance in front of the cameras, her idealistic ideas and her constantly happy mood.

Ideally /aɪˈdɪəl.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: ideal, idealistic
Adverbs: ideally

ADVERB

PERFECTLY
[B2] in a perfect way

Dictionary example:
She seemed ideally suited for the job.

Learner example:
I believe I am ideally suited for this job.

PERFECT SITUATION
[B2] used to talk about how something would be in a perfect situation

Dictionary example:
Ideally, I'd like to work at home.

Learner example:
Ideally, through this camp, I would like to teach Japanese songs and dance to them and I would also like to learn about their culture.
identical /ɪˈdɛntɪ.kəl/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] exactly the same

Dictionary examples:
I've got three identical blue suits.
The two rooms were virtually identical.
The tests are identical to those carried out last year.

Learner example:
And suddenly you notice the identical but cheaper one in the next shop.

identification /ɪˌdɛntɪˈfɪ.kən/

Word family:
Nouns: identification, identity
Verbs: identify

NOUN [U]
RECOGNIZING
[B2] when you recognize and can name someone or something

Dictionary example:
Identification of the victims of the plane crash still is not complete.

Learner example:
[In the home of the future,] we might even be using voice identification and fingerprints instead of keys.

identify /ɪˈdɛntɪˌfaɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: identification, identity
Verbs: identify

VERB [T]
RECOGNIZE
[B2] to recognize someone or something and say or prove who or what they are

Dictionary examples:
Even the smallest baby can identify its mother by her voice.
The gunman in Wednesday's attack has been identified as Lee Giggs, an unemployed truck driver.
Learner example:
After a few minutes I heard a noise which I couldn’t identify.

DISCOVER
[B2] to find a particular thing or all the things of a particular group

Dictionary examples:
You need to identify your priorities.
The research will be used to identify training needs.

Learner example:
The purpose of this report is to identify which lessons or other activities should be filmed.

Identity /aɪˈden.tə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: identification, identity
Verbs: identify

NOUN [C or U]

WHO SOMEONE IS
[B2] who someone is

Dictionary examples:
to hide/protec your identity to prove/reveal your identity
The witness was given a new identity for her protection.
The newspaper photo apparently showed him in Rome but it was a case of mistaken identity.

Learner example:
But this idea fell through when the real Martine revealed her identity.

CHARACTERISTICS
[B2] the things that make one person or group of people different from others

Dictionary examples:
cultural/national identity
I think my job gives me a sense of identity.

Learner example:
There were many people and many speakers who talked about all sorts of subject[s] such as politics, religion, gender identity, [and] art.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Pronunciation</th>
<th>Definition</th>
<th>Examples</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| identity card | /ˈɪd.en.tɪ.tiˌkɑːd/ | NOUN [C] (also ID card) a card that shows your name, photograph and information to prove who you are | Dictionary example: His identity card was stolen.
Learner example: I lost my identity card, credit card and passport and I couldn’t go to Rome. |
| idiom        | /ˈɪd.i.əm/          | NOUN [C] a group of words used together with a meaning that you cannot guess from the meanings of the separate words | Dictionary example: To “have bitten off more than you can chew” is an idiom that means you have tried to do something which is too difficult for you.
Learner example: [Greek] has many verbs, adjectives and idioms and the grammar can be very complicated. |
| idiot        | /ˈɪd.i.ət/          | NOUN [C] a stupid person or someone who is behaving in a stupid way         | Dictionary examples: Some idiot left the tap running in the bathroom and there’s water everywhere.
You stupid idiot – that’s a month’s work you’ve lost!
Learner example: Everybody was treating me like a big idiot. |
| idle         | /ˈaɪ.dl/            | ADJECTIVE LAZY lazy and not willing to work                                |                                                                         |
Dictionary example:
He knows what has to be done, he's just bone idle.

Learner example:
This last point is important because, though happy when a boy, I remember I was sometimes idle and I guess I could have [done] much more.

NOT SERIOUS

[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] not serious or having no real purpose

Dictionary examples:
idle gossip
This is no idle threat.

Learner example:
However, as soon as it became a plan of action rather than an idle thought, it began to grow on her.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>idol</th>
<th>/ˈaɪ.dəl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [c]

PERSON

[C1] someone that you admire and respect very much

Dictionary example:
a pop/sporting idol

Learner example:
As they are children's heroes, we can be pretty sure children will be demanding the same things their idols wear.

GOD

[C2] a picture or object that people pray to as part of their religion

Dictionary example:
They worshipped huge stone idols.

Learner example:
Buddha idols stand in row[s] protected by glass cases.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>if</th>
<th>/ɪf/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

CONJUNCTION

ALWAYS

[B1] used to mean always or every time
Dictionary examples:
If water is heated to 100°C it turns to steam.
If I don't get enough sleep I get a headache.

Learner example:
If there is a world cup – e.g. football – then I spend more time watching television.

MIGHT
[B1] used to talk about something that might happen

Dictionary examples:
If I won the lottery, I'd buy a boat.
What would you do if he moved away?

Learner example:
It would be great if you came to the city.

WHETHER [B1] whether

Dictionary examples:
I wonder if he'll get the job?
Mrs Kramer rang half an hour ago to ask if her cake was ready.
I don't care if he likes it or not – I'm coming!

Learner example:
But let's see if a friend can lend me his notebook, [as] that way I will c[atch] up easily.

if I were you
[B1] used when you give someone advice

Dictionary examples:
If I were you, I'd probably go.
I think I'd take the money if I were you.

Learner example:
But you enjoy clubbing and discos, so, if I were you, I would [choose the] city.

if only
[B1] used when you want to say how doing something simple would make it possible to avoid something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
If only she'd listen to what he's saying, I'm sure they could work it out.

Learner example:
If only I had been more careful.

WOULD/MIGHT/COULD HAVE [B2] used to talk about what would/might/could, etc. have happened
Dictionary examples:
If we'd had the money, we'd have bought a new car.
If you'd mentioned this earlier, it might not have been necessary to call the doctor.

if so
[B2] if this is the case

Dictionary example:
It might rain this afternoon. If so, we'll have to have the party indoors.

Learner example:
Let me know if you [can] come, and if so, [whether] you prefer the 15th or 22nd of February.

as if
[B2] used to describe how a situation seems to be

Dictionary examples:
It looks as if it might rain.
It was as if we had been friends for years.

Learner example:
The sun was up in the sky, there were no clouds and it looked as if it was going to be a wonderful day.

---

Ignorance /ˈɪg.nər.nts/

Word family:
Nouns: ignorance
Verbs: ignore
Adjectives: ignorant

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone does not have enough knowledge, understanding, or information about something

Dictionary examples:
There is widespread ignorance about how disease spreads.
I was shocked by her total ignorance of world history.

Learner example:
However, living in ignorance about the history and the origins of things that one is surrounded with is like showing disrespect to those who helped to create the modern world as it is known today.
ignorant /ˈɪg.nər.ənt/

Word family:
- Nouns: ignorance
- Verbs: ignore
- Adjectives: ignorant

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not having enough knowledge, understanding, or information about something

Dictionary example:
He was a newcomer to Formula One and ignorant of many of the circuits.

Learner example:
It is often claimed by scientists that people's modern lifestyle has resulted in this plight our world is facing and that unfortunately people are either ignorant of it or indifferent.

ignore /ɪgˈnɔːr/

Word family:
- Nouns: ignorance
- Verbs: ignore
- Adjectives: ignorant

VERB [T]

[B2] to pay no attention to something or someone

Dictionary examples:
I smiled at her but she just ignored me.
She can be really irritating but I try to ignore her.
How can the government ignore the wishes of the majority?

Learner example:
Paul ignored it at first and continued his shopping but the dog kept following him.

ill /ɪl/

Word family:
- Nouns: illness
- Adjectives: ill

ADJECTIVE

BAD

[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] FORMAL bad
Dictionary examples:
It was an ill-tempered exchange.
He suffered no ill effects from his fall.

Learner example:
Working long hours can have ill effects on the health.

illegal /ɪˈliːɡəl/

Word family:
Adjectives: illegal, legal
Adverbs: illegally, legally

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not allowed by law

Dictionary examples:
Prostitution is illegal in some countries.
It is illegal to drive a car that is not taxed and insured.
Cocaine, LSD and heroin are all illegal drugs/substances.

Learner example:
Although he has a very charming personality, he uses it to take part in illegal activities and he has been in trouble with the law several times.

illegally /ɪˈliːɡəli/

Word family:
Adjectives: illegal, legal Adverbs: illegally, legally

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is not allowed by law

Dictionary examples:
They entered the country illegally.
an illegally parked car

Learner example:
He was afraid and bought a gun illegally.

illiterate /ɪˈlɪt.ər.ət/

Word family:
Nouns: literature
Adjectives: literary, illiterate, literate
ADJECTIVE
[C2] not able to read or write

Dictionary example:
Most of the children are illiterate.

Learner example:
It is well known that many European charity workers travel to developing countries in order to educate illiterate children or to rebuild ruined villages.

illness /ˈɪlnəs/

Word family:
Nouns: illness
Adjectives: ill

NOUN

DISEASE
[B1] [c] a disease of the body or mind

Dictionary example:
He died at home after a long illness.

Learner example:
It’s because my aunt has a terrible illness and I have to go and see her.

BEING ILL
[B2] [u] when you are ill

Dictionary example:
She had five days off work due to illness.

Learner example:
There was a little paper on the door which informed us that the restaurant was closed due to illness.

illusion /ɪˈluːʒən/

NOUN

FALSE IDEA
[C2] [c or u] an idea or belief that is not true

Dictionary examples:
He had no illusions about his talents as a singer.
We are not under any illusion – we know the work is dangerous.
Learner example:
Just one detail turning out to be not as expected or not perfect is often enough to shatter their illusions and cause arguing.

DIFFERENT
[C2] [c] something that is not really what it seems to be

Dictionary example:
There is a large mirror at one end to create the illusion of more space.

Learner example:
This architectural solution creates an illusion of space, one may feel as inside a vast hall.

ILLUSTRATE /ˈɪl.ə.strɛt/

Word family:
Nouns: illustration
Verbs: illustrate

VERB [ɪ]

PICTURE
[B2] to draw pictures for a book, magazine, etc. or to put pictures, photographs, etc. in a book, magazine, etc.

Dictionary example:
The book is beautifully illustrated by the author.

Learner example:
Last year I illustrated two children's books by H.J. Simons.

DIAGRAM
[C1] to give information through diagrams, lists of numbers, etc.

Dictionary example:
This process is illustrated in the diagram below.

Learner example:
The table illustrates the employment status of graduates from [UK] universities in 2001.

EXPLAIN
[C1] to give more information or examples to explain or prove something

Dictionary examples:
The lecturer illustrated his point with a diagram on the blackboard.
This latest conflict further illustrates the weakness of the UN.
The exhibition will illustrate how life evolved from water.

1420
Learner example:
Some topics that illustrate cultural ways of thinking and that have been explored by this programme are abortion (it is illegal in Brazil), colour prejudice, sexual harassment, homosexuali[ty].

illustration /ˌɪl.əˈstreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: illustration
Verbs: illustrate

NOUN [C or U]

PICTURE
[C1] a picture in a book, magazine, etc. or the process of illustrating something

Dictionary examples:
a full-page illustration colour/black and white illustrations

Learner example:
When you read about that period of time in history books and see pictures and illustrations, you can almost "feel" the atmosphere and sense the power the Monarc[h]y possessed at the time.

EXPLAIN
[C2] an example that explains or proves something

Dictionary examples:
This delay is a perfect illustration of why we need a new computer system.
A couple of examples are included, by way of illustration.

Learner example:
This quote, Milly’s reaction when her father concedes to buying her a horse, is a good illustration of her general attitude towards religion and life.

image /ˈɪm.ɪdʒ/

NOUN

PUBLIC
[B2] [C or U] the way that other people think someone or something is

Dictionary examples:
The aim is to improve the public image of the police.
They are trying to promote a more positive image of the whole industry.
The company has made serious attempts to improve its image in recent years.
He’s terribly image-conscious.
Learner example:
In conclusion, I do not think that there are many things to do for Turin, but what I said before could really improve the image of our wonderful town.

PICTURE
[B2] [c] a picture, especially on film or television or in a mirror

Dictionary examples:
television images of starving children
This is the image you see in the mirror.

Learner example:
[Films] also provide a clear idea of how people's lives were in a particular period by showing us the visual images of that time.

IDEA
[C2] [c] a picture in your mind or an idea of how someone or something is

Dictionary examples:
I have an image in my mind of the way I want the garden to look.
Whenever I hear this song, it conjures up images of Caribbean beaches.

Learner example:
It conjures up images of brightly lit and decorated malls, big stores, little stores proudly showing off their wares.

imaginary /ɪˈmædʒ.ɪn.əri/

Word family:
Nouns: imagination
Verbs: imagine
Adjectives: imaginary, imaginative

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not real but imagined in your mind

Dictionary example:
The story takes place in an imaginary world.

Learner example:
Mickey Mouse [...] describes stories that can happen to humans whereas SpongeBob lives in an imaginary world underwater.
imagination /ɪˌmædʒ.ɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: imagination
Verbs: imagine
Adjectives: imaginary, imaginative

NOUN

PART OF MIND
[B1] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] the part of your mind that creates ideas or pictures of things that are not real or that you have not seen

Dictionary examples:
There's nothing out here – it's just your imagination.
For some reason the story captured/caught the imagination of the public.
There's a sex scene in the film which apparently leaves nothing to the imagination.

Learner example:
I thought it was my imagination, because it was very late and the concert had been so long.

ABILITY
[B1] [U] the ability to create ideas or pictures in your mind

Dictionary example:
The job needs someone with creativity and imagination.

Learner example:
Endless imagination and [the] development of technology will lead us to future fashion.

fire sb's imagination
[C2] to make someone very excited or interested in something

Dictionary example:
His paintings really fired my imagination.

Learner example:
The newspaper article on education that I read really fired my imagination and urged me to think about the points raised.

imaginative /ɪˈmædʒ.ɪn.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: imagination
Verbs: imagine
Adjectives: imaginary, imaginative
ADJECTIVE

THING

[C1] Something which is imaginative is new or clever and often unusual.

Dictionary example:
an imaginative use of colour

Learner example:
Her imaginative stories are very popular with children of all ages.

PERSON

[C1] Someone who is imaginative is able to create new and interesting ideas or things.

Dictionary example:
a highly imaginative poet

Learner example:
She is a very imaginative girl and she always invents new games for our children, so that they have never felt bored in her presence.

Imagine /ɪˈmædʒ.ɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: imagination
Verbs: imagine
Adjectives: imaginary, imaginative

VERB [T]

FORM PICTURE

[B1] to form an idea or picture of something in your mind

Dictionary examples:
Imagine Robert Redford when he was young – that’s what John looks like. Imagine (that) you’re eating an ice cream – try to feel how cold it is. She imagined herself sitting in her favourite armchair back home.

Learner example:
Just imagine the sun, the sea and all that fun on the beach.

UNDERSTAND

[B1] to have an idea of what something is like or might be like

Dictionary examples:
Can you imagine how it feels to be blind?
I can’t imagine wanting to go out if I don’t really know anyone.
Learner example:
You can't imagine how tired I am.

NOT REAL

[B1] to think that you hear or see something which does not really exist

Dictionary examples:
"Did you hear a noise?" "No, you're imagining things."
I can't hear anything – you must be imagining it.

Learner example:
I turn[ed] back but I didn't [see] anyone, so I thought that I had imagined it.

SUPPOSE

[B2] to believe that something is probably the case

Dictionary examples:
I imagine (that) he's under a lot of pressure at the moment.
I don't imagine (that) they have much money.
"Will they change it?" "I imagine so."

Learner example:
I imagine that it's a lot of money so my first suggestion would be to spend only part of [it] on a motorbike.

---

imitate /ˈɪm.i.teɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: imitation

Verbs: imitate

VERB [T]

[C1] to copy the way someone or something looks, sounds, or behaves

Dictionary example:
She tried to imitate the way the models walked.

Learner example:
We try to imitate the British way of preparing or organising championships and races, and that's the reason [for] the British influence in Spanish motorsports.

---

imitation /ˌɪm.iˈteɪʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: imitation

Verbs: imitate
NOUN
[C2] [c] a copy of something that is made to look like the real thing

Dictionary examples:
It wasn't a genuine Gucci handbag, just a cheap imitation.
imitation leather/fur

Learner example:
The word spread out so fast that the vast majority of people ended up purchasing genuine Versace jeans or even cheap imitations just to catch up with the fashion.

Immature /ˌɪm.əˈtjuər/
Word family:
Adjectives: mature, immature

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not behaving in a way which is as wise and calm as people expect from someone your age

Dictionary example:
Some of the boys are quite immature for their age.

Learner example:
You might regard me as an immature, seventeen-year-old girl for I like decorating my diary.

Immediate /ɪˈmiː.dɪ.ət/
Word family:
Adjectives: immediate Adverbs: immediately

ADJECTIVE
WITHOUT WAITING
[B2] happening or done without delay or very soon after something else

Dictionary examples:
We must make an immediate response.
The directors have demanded his immediate resignation.
Dioxin is a poison that takes immediate effect.

Learner example:
I hope you will give this matter your immediate attention.

IMPORTANT NOW
[B2] important now and needing attention
Dictionary examples:
We have no immediate plans.
Our immediate concern is getting food and water to the refugees.

Learner example:
It can't be an immediate objective, of course, but we mustn't give up.

CLOSEST
[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] closest to something or someone

Dictionary examples:
There are few facilities in the immediate area.
His immediate family have been informed.

Learner example:
In the first place, there are beautiful landscapes in the immediate vicinity of both hotels.

Immediately /iˈmiːdi.ət.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: immediate Adverbs: immediately

ADVERB

NEXT TO
[C1] next to something, or close to something in time

Dictionary examples:
Milton Street is on the left, immediately after the bank.
They moved in immediately before Christmas.
We heard a loud crash from the room immediately above us.

Learner example:
You should go on up to the end of the street, as my flat is the last on the right[-hand] side, immediately before the crossroads.

Immensely /ɪˈmens/
Dictionary examples:
immense pressure/value
Health care costs the country an immense amount of money.

Learner example:
Jobs in the computer and telecommunications industry have gained immense respect in the past ten years.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>immensely /ɪˈmens.li/</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Word family:
Adjectives: immense
Adverbs: immensely

ADVERB
[C1] extremely

Dictionary example:
immensely powerful/popular

Learner example:
People who were previously nothing more than peasants grew immensely rich, while the former aristocracy of land owners lost its dominating position.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| immigrant /ˈɪm.ɪ.grənt/ | someone who comes to live in a different country

Word family:
Nouns: immigrant, immigration

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who comes to live in a different country

Dictionary examples:
a large immigrant population
Illegal immigrants are sent back across the border if they are caught.

Learner example:
Leonardo is an Italian immigrant who has a restaurant near the primary school.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>immigration /ˌɪm.ɪˈgre.ʃən/</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: immigrant, immigration
NOUN [u]

PLACE
[B1] the place where people's official documents are checked when they enter a country at an airport, port, border, etc.

Dictionary examples:
After you've been through immigration (control), you can go and get your luggage.
immigration officers

Learner example:
The immigration officers looked at her as if she was [suspected of] doing something wrong.

COMING INTO A COUNTRY
[B2] when someone comes to live in a different country

Dictionary examples:
immigration policy
There are strict limits on immigration (into the country).

Learner example:
[T]he purpose of [the] party is to give [a] treat to my family members, as my immigration [into] New Zealand is approved.

imminent /ˈɪm.ɪ.nənt/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] coming or happening very soon

Dictionary example:
imminent danger

Learner example:
Therefore, I would kindly ask you to raise an appeal through your newspaper and draw attention to this imminent issue.

immoral /ɪˈmɔr.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: immoral, moral Adverbs: morally

ADJECTIVE
[B2] morally wrong

Dictionary example:
immoral behaviour
Learner example:
At this time – [the] early 20's –, tango was considered an immoral type of music; but Carlos Gardel changed this belief.

immortal /ɪˈmɔː.təl/

Word family:
Nouns: mortality
Adjectives: immortal

ADJECTIVE

LIFE
[C2] living or lasting forever

Dictionary example:
an immortal soul

Learner example:
Biotechnology seems to be the key to all the yet unsolved problems humans are facing. It might even make us immortal.

MEMORY
[C2] famous or remembered for a very long time

Dictionary example:
Then he uttered the immortal line – "My name is Bond".

Learner example:
In the immortal words of the bard "... if music be the food of love....... play on!"

immune /ɪˈmjjuːn/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not affected by a particular type of behaviour or emotion

Dictionary example:
He is immune to flattery.

Learner example:
Bad news on the other hand is so common that in order to cope with it, we simply ignore it – we have become immune to bad news and television, radio stations and newspapers are aware of it.
immune system /ɪˈmjuːnˌsɪs.təm/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

[C2] the cells and tissues in the body which make it able to protect itself against infection

Dictionary example:
Eating healthily will help to improve your immune system.

Learner example:
When you have lupus, your immune system produces anti–bodies against your own vital organs.

impact /ˈɪm.pækt/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL OR U]

EFFECT

[B2] the effect that a person, event or situation has on someone or something

Dictionary examples:
The anti–smoking campaign had/made quite an impact on young people.
The new proposals were intended to soften the impact of the reformed tax system.

Learner example:
I could live without watching TV, but it would make a serious impact on my life.

HITTING

[C2] the force or action of one object hitting another

Dictionary examples:
The impact of the crash reduced the car to a third of its original length.
The bullet explodes on impact.

VERB

[C1] to affect something or someone

Dictionary example:
Rising interest rates are sure to impact on the housing market.

Learner example:
Those extra calories, the fat and salt in our food and the decrease in vitamin rich food impacts on our health.
impatience /imˈpeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: patience, impatience
Adjectives: impatient, patient
Adverbs: impatiently, patiently

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone is impatient

Dictionary example:
His impatience was obvious.

Learner example:
She remained silent for a while, taking no notice of my growing impatience.

---

impatient /imˈper.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: patience, impatience
Adjectives: impatient, patient
Adverbs: impatiently, patiently

ADJECTIVE
EASILY ANNOYED

[B2] easily annoyed by someone's mistakes or because you have to wait

Dictionary examples:
He's a good teacher, but inclined to be a bit impatient with slow learners.
You'd be hopeless looking after children – you're far too impatient!

Learner example:
Hours passed and she became impatient and thought he had forgotten about their date.

WANTING SOMETHING TO HAPPEN

[B2] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] wanting something to happen as soon as possible

Dictionary examples:
He's got a lot of exciting ideas and he's impatient to get started.
People are increasingly impatient for change in this country.

Learner example:
I'm impatient to discover this country.
impatiently /ɪmˈpeɪ.ʃənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: patience, impatience
Adjectives: impatient, patient
Adverbs: impatiently, patiently

ADVERB
[B2] in an impatient way

Dictionary examples:
"Yes, you said that before," she said, impatiently.
We were waiting impatiently for the show to begin.

Learner example:
I hope you will come soon because we are all impatiently waiting for your talk.

imperative /ɪmˈper.ə.tɪv/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] the form of a verb which is usually used for giving orders

Dictionary example:
In the phrase 'Leave him alone!', the verb 'leave' is an imperative/is in the imperative.

ADJECTIVE
[C2] formal When an action or process is imperative, it is extremely important that it happens or is done.

Dictionary example:
It is imperative (that) I speak with him at once.

Learner example:
It is imperative, however, for people to alter their lifestyle and their attitudes towards the environment.

imperfect /ɪmˈpɜː.fɪkt/

Word family:
Adjectives: perfect, imperfect
Adverbs: perfectly

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not perfect and with some mistakes

Dictionary example:
an imperfect solution

1433
Learner example:
It goes without saying that native speakers are the best to talk to when learning the language (of course, if they don’t mind your practising your imperfect English on them.)

impersonal /ɪmˈpɜːsnəl/

Word family:
Nouns: person, personality
Adjectives: personal, impersonal
Adverbs: personally

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not being friendly towards people or showing any interest in them

Dictionary example:
a cold and impersonal letter

Learner example:
To sum up, the only thing we can do is to find out a way to survive in such an impersonal working environment and create a more friendly and intimate atmosphere as before.

implement /ˈɪmplɪmɛnt/

Word family:
Nouns: implementation
Verbs: implement

VERB
[B2] to make a law, system, plan, etc. start to happen or operate

Dictionary example:
The changes to the national health system will be implemented next year.

Learner example:
Rare species protection, on the other hand, can be implemented, e.g. by means of wildlife reserves and national parks.

Implementation /ˌɪmplɪmenˈteɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: implementation
Verbs: implement

NOUN
[C2] when a plan or system is put into operation
Dictionary example:
The implementation of the new computer system went smoothly.

Learner example:
I think that congestion problems should be solved by the gradual implementation of taxes and charges, promoting use of public transport rather than individual cars or taxis.

implication /ˌɪm.plɪˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: implication
Verbs: imply
Adjectives: implicit

NOUN

EFFECT
[C1] [c] a result or effect that seems likely in the future

Dictionary examples:
financial/health implications
This scheme has serious implications for the local economy.

Learner example:
Any government must be fully aware of [the] wider implications [for the] economy and [the] wellbeing of its citizens.

SUGGESTION
[C2] [c or u] when you seem to suggest something without saying it directly

Dictionary example:
The implication was that the school had to do much better or it would be closed.

Learner example:
In spite of that, the implication that famous sportsmen are worth paying more [for] than other famous people, for example well-known scientists, is an over-simplification.

INVOLVEMENT
[C2] [u] when someone is involved in something bad

Dictionary example:
His career was ruined by his implication in the scandal.

Learner example:
I even thought that the maid could have taken it off my desk and used it as fuel for the boiler, but I checked with her and she denied any implication in the disappearance of the diary.
implicit /ɪmˈplɪs.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: implication
Verbs: imply
Adjectives: implicit

ADJECTIVE
[C2] suggested but not stated directly

Dictionary examples:
an implicit threat
We interpreted his silence as implicit agreement.

Learner example:
There was an implicit social code, which influenced people's relationships.

imply /ɪmˈplaɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: implication
Verbs: imply
Adjectives: implicit

VERB [T]

NOT DIRECT
[C2] to suggest or show something, without saying it directly

Dictionary examples:
Are you implying (that) I'm fat?
I'm not implying anything about your cooking, but could we eat out tonight?
I detected an implied criticism of the way he was treated.

Learner example:
I am not implying that the other options will not be to our advantage but I think that this one is what we really need.

MUST BE TRUE
[C2] If one thing implies another, the first thing shows that the second is likely to exist or be true.

Dictionary example:
Socialism implies equality.

Learner example:
Such mergers do unfortunately imply a massive loss of jobs, not only in Europe but also all over the world.
as the/its name implies
[C2] used to show that the name of something tells you something about it

Dictionary example:
The Long Room, as its name implies, runs the entire length of the house.

Learner example:
Sour Sweet, as the name implies, is originally a Chinese restaurant.

impolite /ɪmˈpəlaɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: politeness
Adjectives: impolite, polite
Adverbs: politely

ADJECTIVE
[B2] formal not polite

Dictionary example:
It is impolite to point at people.

Learner example:
Besides, [the] serving speed was too slow and some waiters were even impolite to customers.

import

VERB [T] /ɪmˈpɔːt/

[B2] to buy or bring in products from another country

Dictionary example:
We import a large number of cars from Japan.

Learner example:
Moreover they say we must be independent of the Near East countries from whom we import oil.

NOUN /ˈɪm.pɔːt/

PRODUCT
[C1] [c] a product which is imported from another country

Dictionary examples:
Japanese/American imports cheap imports from Asia

Learner example:
Furthermore, cheap imports from the newly industrialised countries have also contributed to the increase in car ownership.
ACTIVITY

[C2] [u] when you import something into a country

Dictionary example:
a ban on the import of beef

Learner example:
One of them, which is the most important for a government, is the import of foreign money.

Importance /ɪmˈpɔː.tənts/

Word family:
Nouns: importance
Adjectives: important, unimportant
Adverbs: importantly

NOUN [u]

[B1] how important someone or something is

Dictionary examples:
Your views are of great importance to us.
The report stresses the importance of fresh food in a diet.
He emphasized the importance of following safety procedures.
The company recognizes the importance of regular staff training.

Learner example:
Now I know the importance of electricity.

Important /ɪmˈpɔː.tənt/

Word family:
Nouns: importance
Adjectives: important, unimportant
Adverbs: importantly

ADJECTIVE

POWERFUL

[B1] having a lot of power, influence or effect

Dictionary examples:
He was one of the most important writers of that period.
an important person/decision

Learner example:
Recently I've read [two] good books, "La Coscienza di Zeno" and "Uno, Nessuno e Centomila", that are written by Svevo and Pirandello, two of the most important writers of the XX century in Italy.
importantly /ɪmˈpɔː.tənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: importance
Adjectives: important, unimportant
Adverbs: importantly

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that is important

Dictionary example:
If we served more soft drinks, there would be fewer hangovers and, more importantly, fewer drink–driving incidents.

Learner example:
Lastly, and most importantly, what is the cost?

impose /ɪmˈpəʊz/

VERB [T]

RULE/TAX, ETC.

[C1] to officially force a rule, tax, punishment, etc. to be obeyed or received

Dictionary examples:
Very high taxes have recently been imposed on cigarettes.
Judges are imposing increasingly heavy fines for minor driving offences.
The council has imposed a ban on alcohol in the city parks.

Learner example:
[An]other advantage is that local governments could receive more money as they impose a fine or ask for a congestion charge.

BELIEF

[C1] to force someone to accept something, especially a belief or way of living

Dictionary examples:
I don't want them to impose their religious beliefs on my children.
We must impose some kind of order on the way this office is run.

Learner example:
Above all, never allow others to impose their ideas on you.
impossibility /ɪmˌpɒs.əˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: possibility, impossibility
- Adjectives: impossible, possible
- Adverbs: possibly

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] when something is impossible

Dictionary example:
What you're asking just can't be done – it's an impossibility.

Learner example:
Simple tasks like watching television or listening to music become an impossibility when every five minutes or so they get drowned in a sea of noise.

impossible /ɪmˈpɒs.ə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: possibility, impossibility
- Adjectives: impossible, possible
- Adverbs: possibly

ADJECTIVE

CANNOT HAPPEN

[B1] If an action or event is impossible, it cannot happen or be done.

Dictionary examples:
It was impossible to sleep because of the noise.
It seems impossible that I could have walked by without noticing her.
He made it impossible for me to say no.

Learner example:
I tried to find it but it was impossible!

DIFFICULT

[C2] very difficult to deal with

Dictionary examples:
You just can't reason with her, she's absolutely impossible.
We found ourselves in an impossible situation.

Learner example:
I couldn't help laughing at the impossible situation that had resulted from the combination of my personal musings by the side of this wishing-well, and the boy's very straightforward and impulsive character.
impress /ɪmˈpres/

Word family:
Nouns: impression
Verbs: impress
Adjectives: impressed, impressive

VERB [T]
[B2] to cause someone to admire or respect you

Dictionary example:
He tried to impress me with his extensive knowledge of wine.

Learner example:
All groups did their best to impress the public and every group played professionally.

impressed /ɪmˈprest/

Word family:
Nouns: impression
Verbs: impress
Adjectives: impressed, impressive

ADJECTIVE
[B2] feeling admiration or respect for someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I was impressed by her professionalism.
He seemed suitably impressed by our efforts.

Learner example:
I am really impressed by your offer to paint me.

impression /ɪmˈpreʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: impression
Verbs: impress
Adjectives: impressed, impressive

NOUN

OPINION
[B2] [c] an idea, feeling or opinion about something or someone
Dictionary examples:
I didn't get much of an impression of the place because it was dark when we drove through it.
What was your impression of Charlotte's husband?
I don't tend to trust first impressions.
When I first met him I got/had the impression that he was a shy sort of a guy.

Learner example:
You can look back fifty years to get an impression of what changes have happened.

EFFECT

[B2] [NO PLURAL] the way that something seems, looks or feels to a particular person

Dictionary examples:
It makes/gives/creates a very bad impression if you're late for an interview.
He likes to give the impression (that) he's terribly popular and has loads of friends.

Learner example:
I was afraid of being late or saying something wrong because I really wanted to make a good impression on this man.

be under the impression

[B2] to think or understand a particular stated thing

Dictionary examples:
I was under the impression (that) you didn't get on too well.
He was under the mistaken impression (that) you were married.

Learner example:
I am under the impression that people generally exercise a little, but if they eat the wrong food every day, it won't help.

impressive /ɪmˈpres.ɪv/

Word family:

Nouns: impression

Verbs: impress

Adjectives: impressed, impressive

ADJECTIVE

[B2] Someone or something that is impressive makes you admire and respect them.

Dictionary examples:
She's a very impressive public speaker.
That was an impressive performance from such a young tennis player.
an impressive collection of modern paintings
There are some very impressive buildings in the town.

Learner example:
I thi[n]k that the Westfield Music Festival was really impressive.
imprison /ɪmˈprɪz.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: prison, prisoner, imprisonment
Verbs: imprison

VERB [T]
[C1] to put someone in prison or keep them as a prisoner

Dictionary example:
Taylor was imprisoned in 2005 for burglary.

Learner example:
DMX was a criminal and was imprisoned.

imprisonment /ɪmˈprɪz.ən.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: prison, prisoner, imprisonment
Verbs: imprison

NOUN [U]
[C2] when someone is kept in a prison

Dictionary example:
She was sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

Learner example:
My brother, John, is just 16 years old, but was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for dealing [in] drugs.

Improved /ɪmˈpruːvd/

Word family:
Nouns: improvement
Verbs: improve
Adjectives: improved

ADJECTIVE
[B2] better than before

Dictionary examples:
improved performance/results
a new and improved recipe

Learner example:
Emergency centres like hospitals [and] clinics must have the most improved medical devices to [provide] excellent [care] for the citizens.
improvement /ɪmˈpruːv.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: improvement
Verbs: improve
Adjectives: improved

NOUN

BETTER

[B1] [c or u] when something gets better or when you make it better

Dictionary examples:
There's been a big/great/huge/major/noticeable improvement in her work this term. Sadly, Olivia’s health has shown no improvement.

Learner example:
Just twenty to thirty minutes riding every day gives you a considerable improvement in your general state of health.

CHANGE

[B1] [c] a change to something that makes it better

Dictionary example:
home improvements

Learner example:
It would be a pleasure for me to give you some tips on improvements to the cinema.

room for improvement

[C1] If there is room for improvement, something can be made better.

Dictionary example:
His work isn't bad but there's still some room for improvement.

Learner example:
She is Polish, aged 29 and can speak English pretty well, but there is still room for improvement, that's why she wants to spend a year in England, looking after children in an English–speaking family.

impulse /ˈɪmp.əls/
NOUN

FEELING

[C2] [c] a sudden feeling that you must do something, without thinking about the results

Dictionary example:
Her first impulse was to run away.

Learner example:
He is, therefore, a sort of intellectual and represents the force of reason as opposed to the violent impulses of the other boys.

on impulse

[C2] suddenly and without thinking first

Dictionary example:
I tend to act on impulse.

Learner example:
I'm seeing Milly as a capricious girl who, like most teenagers, enjoy[s] buying, although I think that she buys on impulse.

impulsive /ɪmˈpʌltɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: impulse
Adjectives: impulsive

ADJECTIVE

[C2] Impulsive people do things suddenly, without planning or thinking carefully, but because they want to.

Dictionary example:
In an impulsive gesture, he threw his arms around her.

Learner example:
Anyway, the fact is that Hara struck me as a quite silly, impulsive and excessively spontaneous girl with no serious intellectual skills and spirit.

in /ɪn/

PREPOSITION

WEARING

[B1] wearing
Dictionary examples:
Do you recognize that man in the grey suit?
She’s always dressed in red.

Learner example:
[T]he man has to be dressed in black.

in time
[B1] early or at the right time

Dictionary example:
We arrived in time to catch the train.

Learner example:
If I [don’t] come back in time you can put [a] note on my desk.

in advance
[B1] before a particular time, or before doing a particular thing

Dictionary example:
If you’re going to come, please let me know in advance.

Learner example:
I can help you if you want to book your room in advance.

in fact
[B1] used to emphasize what is really true, or to give more information

Dictionary examples:
We met Rebecca for lunch. In fact, we spent the whole afternoon with her.
I was told there were some tickets left but in fact they were sold out.

Learner example:
The club has its own small clubhouse, with many things in it. For example, there was a big pinball–game and some computers. In fact it was the best clubhouse I’ve ever seen.

in front
[B1] further forward than someone or something else

Dictionary examples:
The car in front suddenly stopped and I went into the back of it.
She started talking to the man in front of her.

Learner example:
As the concert finished, I heard someone call my name. I believed it was my imagination or perhaps a dream because I couldn’t see anyone in front, behind or opposite me.

in love
[B1] liking someone very much and having romantic or sexual feelings for them

Dictionary example:
Have you ever been in love?
Learner example:
I think I am in love with him.

EXPERIENCE

[B1] experiencing an emotion or condition

Dictionary examples:
She's in a bad/good mood this morning.
You're in great danger.
He's living in luxury in the south of France.

Learner example:
I hope you are in a good mood today, because we are planning to go to Cinepolis.

ARRANGEMENT

[B1] arranged or divided in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
We all sat down in a circle.
The desks were arranged in rows of ten.
Discounts are available to people travelling in large groups.
The books on these shelves are arranged in alphabetical order.

Learner example:
We often work in groups where we can talk in English.

in addition (to)

[B1] as well (as)

Dictionary example:
In addition to his flat in London, he has a villa in Italy and a castle in Scotland.

Learner example:
In addition, I saw a wonderful programme about Aborigines.

in the end

[B1] finally, after something has been thought about or discussed a lot

Dictionary example:
We were thinking about going to Switzerland, but in the end we went to Austria.

Learner example:
And in the end he invited me to visit him at his house in Miami!

in detail

[B1] including or considering all the information about something or every part of something

Dictionary examples:
We haven't discussed the matter in detail yet.
The book described her sufferings in great detail.
Learner example:
I'm really sorry that I didn't write back earlier, but to make up for this I will answer your questions in detail!

in full
[B1] completely and with nothing missing

Dictionary example:
The bill must be paid in full by the end of the month.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, I wasn't able to read the e-mail in full, but as I understood, he wanted to apologise [for] what had happened between us many years ago.

in future
[B1] beginning from now

Dictionary examples:
Could you be more careful in future?
In future, I'm going to check every single piece of work that you do!

Learner example:
I hope it'll help me to understand many foreign people not only in my job, but everywhere I go in future.

in general
[B1] usually, or in most situations

Dictionary examples:
In general, men are taller than women.
In general, the weather here stays sunny.

Learner example:
In general, I like wearing informal clothes, like blue jeans and T-shirts, but sometimes I like wearing formal clothes too.

in tears
[B1] crying

Dictionary example:
I found him in tears in his bedroom.

Learner example:
By the end of it, Mary Anne was nearly in tears.

in order (for sb/sth) to do sth
[B1] with the purpose of achieving something

Dictionary examples:
He came home early in order to see the children before they went to bed.
She worked all summer in order to save enough money.
Learner example:
As you certainly remember, last year I spent three months in England in order to improve my English.

EXPRESSED
[B1] expressed or written in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
They spoke in Russian the whole time.
Why not do a rough answer in pencil first?
Complete the form in (black) ink.

Learner example:
I also speak in English during the break.

in particular [B1] especially

Dictionary example:
Are you looking for anything in particular?

Learner example:
I've read a lot of books recently, and in particular I liked: "Eleven minutes" and "Veronica decides to die", written by Paulo Coelho.

INVOLVED
[B1] involved or connected with a particular subject or activity

Dictionary examples:
a degree in philosophy
advances in medical science
I never knew you worked in publishing.

Learner example:
He is my age and we have the same tastes in music and art.

(just) in case
[B1] because of a possibility of something happening, being needed, etc.

Dictionary examples:
I don't think I'll need any money but I'll bring some just in case.
Bring a map in case you get lost.

Learner example:
I have my mobile with me just in case.

in case of sth
[B1] when something happens, or in preparation for when something happens

Dictionary example:
We keep a bucket of water backstage, in case of fire.
Learner example:
It is about how to rescue people in case of an accident or a natural disaster.

in general
[B2] considering the whole of someone or something, and not just a particular part of them

Dictionary example:
So, apart from the bad ankle, how are you in general?

Learner example:
I think that I, as well as people in general, would have been more depressed if we didn't have light.

be in favour of sth
[B2] to agree with or approve of a plan or idea

Dictionary example:
Most people are in favour of reducing traffic in cities.

Learner example:
I am certainly in favour of holding the music festival next year.

in two/half
[B2] divided into two equal parts

Dictionary examples:
Cut the potatoes in two.
Divide the dough in half and roll it out into two circles.

Learner example:
They were very surprised when they found the gold was cut in half.

in actual fact
[B2] used to emphasize what is really true, or to give more information

Dictionary example:
I thought she was Portuguese, but in actual fact she's Brazilian.

Learner example:
Nowadays almost all people own a car and in actual fact more and more people have been facing death as a consequence of careless driving.

in any case
[B2] used to give another reason for something you are saying, or that you have done

Dictionary example:
I don't want to go and in any case, I haven't been invited.
Learner example:
I suggest that you should in any case leave your car at home and take buses or other public means of transport.

in that case
[B2] because of the mentioned situation

Dictionary example:
There's no coffee left? In that case I'll have tea.

Learner example:
You could try [k]ayaking. In that case, of course, you need to pay for the equipment.

in all
[B2] used to show the total amount of something

Dictionary example:
Some of the children came, so there were 15 of us in all.

Learner example:
Secondly, even though most people like[d] [the] group RADIANT, they [only] played for 35 minutes in all.

RESULT
[B2] used when referring to something that is done as a result of something else

Dictionary examples:
I'd like to do something for you in return/exchange for everything you've done for me.
The changes are in response to demand from our customers.
He refused to say anything in reply to the journalists' questions.

Learner example:
I am writing to you in response to your advertisement of 1st December in the Times.

in brief
[B2] using only a few words

Dictionary example:
world news in brief

Learner example:
In brief, I have had a marvellous week.

in sb's eyes
[B2] in someone's opinion

Dictionary example:
In my parents' eyes, I'll always be a child.

Learner example:
To answer your question right away, the boat trip is highly recommendable in my eyes!
In conclusion
[B2] used to introduce the last part of a speech or a piece of writing

Dictionary examples:
In conclusion, I would like to thank our guest speaker for her fascinating talk.
In conclusion, swimming is an enjoyable form of exercise and an excellent way to keep fit.

Learner example:
In conclusion, music, TV and clothes are very important in a young person’s life and can reflect each person's character.

in connection with *sth
[B2] used to say what something is about

Dictionary examples:
I am writing in connection with the above job advertised in The Daily Press on Monday 12th February.
A man has been arrested in connection with last month's murder.

Learner example:
Dear Mrs Brown, I am writing in connection with a surprise birthday party for your husband, Mr Brown.

in due course
[B2] at a suitable time in the future

Dictionary example:
The results will be sent to you in due course.

Learner example:
I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

in sb’s direction
[B2] towards someone

Dictionary example:
She keeps looking in my direction.

Learner example:
A player kicked the ball in my direction and I started to think about what I was going to do to catch that ball.

in other words
[B2] used to explain what something means in a different way

Dictionary example:
He said he's too busy – in other words he isn't interested.

Learner example:
They had had a great time before and had drunk too much alcohol. In other words, they were totally drunk.
in writing
[B2] An agreement that is in writing is official and is proof of that agreement.

Dictionary example:
Please confirm your reservation in writing.

Learner example:
I [am] tell[ing] you in writing that I would like to help you.

in season
[B2] if vegetables or fruit are in season, they are available and ready to eat.

Dictionary example:
Asparagus is in season at the moment.

Learner example:
They celebrate Halloween in October when pumpkins are in season, that's why in the decorations they include them very often; most of the people carve the pumpkins and put some lights inside.

in secret
[B2] without telling other people

Dictionary example:
For years they met in secret.

Learner example:
We met in secret when Mary was busy.

in good/high/low, etc. spirits
[B2] feeling good/excited/unhappy, etc.

Dictionary example:
The whole class was in good spirits that day.

Learner example:
I was in high spirits until I got my paper back.

In view of sth
[B2] FORMAL because of

Dictionary example:
In view of recent events, we have decided to cancel the meeting.

Learner example:
In view of what happened, I would advise you not to try to mislead people like this [again].

in honour of sb/sth
[B2] in order to celebrate or show great respect for someone or something

Dictionary example:
a banquet in honour of the president
Learner example:
Finally we went to Corinth, where there are a lot of ancient sanctuaries which were built in honour of their gods.

in person

[B2] If you do something in person, you go somewhere to do it yourself.

Dictionary example:
You have to collect the document in person.

Learner example:
I am looking forward [to] meeting you in person.

in place of sth

[B2] instead of something

Dictionary example:
Try adding fruit to your cereal in place of sugar.

Learner example:
In the advertisement, it [said] that Danny Brook was starring, but in place of him there was a different actor and he was really disappointment.

in the first place

[B2] at the start of a situation

Dictionary example:
Why did you invite her in the first place?

Learner example:
In the first place, you were unknown people for me, but now you are my special foreign friends.

in practice

[B2] If something is true in practice, this is the real situation.

Dictionary example:
In practice, the new laws have had little effect.

Learner example:
When you leave school, you have knowledge but you do not know how to use it in practice.

in private

[B2] in a place where nobody else can hear you or see what you are doing

Dictionary example:
The meeting was held in private.

Learner example:
I agree that this should be in private.

in progress

[B2] happening or being done now
Dictionary example:
Repair work is in progress on the south-bound lane of the motorway and will continue until June.

Learner example:
[in] the lower part of your advertisement, it also said there was a theatre restaurant, [but] in fact, it was closed because internal decoration was in progress.

in relation to sth
[B2] when compared with something

Dictionary example:
Salaries are low in relation to the cost of living.

Learner example:
I think television has several advantages but also disadvantages in relation to books.

in relation to sth
[B2] about or relating to something

Dictionary example:
I'd like to ask you something in relation to what you said earlier.

Learner example:
In relation to last month's social program, the sightseeing tour of London was [d][j]vine, although we didn't get to see the entire city.

in this respect/in many respects
[B2] in a particular way, or in many ways

Dictionary example:
The school has changed in many respects.

Learner example:
How's your friend Mike? He is in many respects better than [a] computer, isn't he? (Teasing you again, sorry).

in response to [B2] as an answer to

Dictionary example:
I'm writing in response to your letter of 14 February.

Learner example:
I am writing in response to your advertisement, which appeared in the newspaper on November the 23rd, looking for a person to work at weekends in your cafe.

in a row
[B2] one after another without a break

Dictionary example:
He's just won the tournament for the fifth year in a row.
Learner example:
Maradona was the captain of the team, and since he arrived, the team won three championships in a row.

in stock
[B2] available in a shop

Dictionary example:
Do you have the book in stock at the moment?

Learner example:
I would like to tell you that I am quite satisfied with the cinema and its customer service, but there is of course some [room] for improvement – for example referring to the cafe, which on the one hand has in stock a huge variety of groceries, but [which] on the other hand [is very] dark.

in those days
[B2] used to talk about a period in the past

Dictionary example:
In those days, boys used to wear short trousers.

Learner example:
In those days, life was much harder than now.

in turn [B2] one after another

Dictionary example:
He spoke to the three boys in turn.

in turn
[C1] as a result of something that is part of a series of events

Dictionary example:
This could result in the loss of certain species of fish and this in turn poses a serious threat to the fishing communities along the river banks.

Learner example:
This, in turn, enabled them to find jobs and become financially independent from their husbands.

in accordance with sth
[C1] in the way described by a rule, law, or wish

Dictionary example:
Both companies have insisted that they were acting in accordance with the law.

Learner example:
Although they do not earn much money in this profession, they try to do their best and judge in accordance with the law which they also have to interpret.

in aid of sb/sth
[C1] in order to collect money for a group of people who need it
Dictionary example:
a concert in aid of famine relief

Learner example:
It w[ould] be an honour for us students at the centre if you could attend our sport[s] function in aid of stress[ed] out kids and present the pri[z]es.

in association with [C1] working together with

Dictionary example:
The event was organized in association with the Sports Council.

Learner example:
This service, which will be [provided] in association with Foster Loft, will be available at the end of 2005.

in bulk
[C1] in large amounts

Dictionary example:
to buy in bulk

Learner example:
I suggest that you buy food in bulk so that you not only save money but also save time.

in common with sb/sth
[C1] in the same way as someone or something

Dictionary example:
In common with many working mothers, she feels guilty about leaving her children.

Learner example:
In common with many city d[we]llers, I do not think this is a wise decision and it could have negative effects on the city re[s]idents' daily lives.

in demand
[C1] wanted or needed in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Good teachers are always in demand.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, people will always use cars and vehicles, so petrol will always be in demand.

in the event of sth FORMAL
[C1] if something happens

Dictionary example:
An airbag could save your life in the event of an accident.
Learner example:
In the event of bad weather, it would be wise to plan an alternative to the boat trip, for example a visit of Buckingham Palace or the Houses of Parliament.

in any event
[C1] whatever happens

Dictionary example:
I'm not sure if I'm coming on Friday, but in any event, I'll see you next week.

Learner example:
In any event, it is incumbent upon all of us to carefully plan our travel matters, so as to take advantage of their several benefits.

be in the public eye
[C1] to be famous and often featured in the media

Dictionary example:
Her new role means that she will be in the public eye.

Learner example:
But being famous also means that you are always in the public eye, which is a major drawback.

in sb's favour
[C1] If something is in your favour, it helps you to win or succeed.

Dictionary example:
Both sides have strong arguments in their favour.

Learner example:
Unfortunately the weather conditions were not in our favour, but the rain only lasted a few minutes and did not look at all like a downpour.

in the form of sth
[C1] the particular way in which something appears or exists

Dictionary examples:
The novel is written in the form of a series of letters.
The medicine comes in the form of a liquid or pills.

Learner example:
For all this, I can only say that I want my money back immediately, or [some] compensation in the form of a real trip to a real country.

in your heart
[C1] used to say what you really think

Dictionary example:
In his heart he felt they were wrong.
Learner example:
It is all because it was followed by a big mistake, when I focussed on [the] German language and thought is was my dream. I have to admit that it was only a [sensi]ble decision, because deep in my heart I knew I want[ed] to learn English.

in the hope of/that
[C1] because you want something good to happen

Dictionary examples:
She went to Paris in the hope of improving her French.
They wrote to the Prime Minister in the hope that he would help.

Learner example:
Not only would I want to travel back to understand Hitler’s incredible success, but also in the hope of thwarting his plans.

be in sb’s interest(s)
[C1] to help someone and give them an advantage

Dictionary example:
It may not be in your interests to change jobs so soon.

Learner example:
It is in my interests to meet new people and I find it easy to go and talk to people I do not know.

in the light of sth
[C1] If something is done or happens in the light of facts, it is done or happens because of those facts.

Dictionary example:
The drug has been withdrawn in the light of new research.

Learner example:
In the light of this news, we took this issue as a class project and investigated it by interviewing residents.

in moderation
[C1] If you do something in moderation, you do not do it too much.

Dictionary example:
I only drink alcohol in moderation now.

Learner example:
While shopping can make one feel good and even has its positive impact on the retail economy, I think it should be done in moderation.

be in two minds
[C1] to have difficulty making a decision

Dictionary example:
I'm in two minds about accepting his offer.
Learner example:
If you are in two minds about having to share your room with someone else, there you can easily rent a studio apartment close to the college, which is situated in the centre of the city.

in a nutshell
[C1] something that you say when you are describing something using as few words as possible

Dictionary example:
The answer, in a nutshell, is yes.

Learner example:
To put it in a nutshell, they all provide good food at reasonable prices.

be in position
[C1] If someone or something is in position, they are in the place that they should be in.

Dictionary example:
The police were all in position.

Learner example:
Remember to stay calm when you are in the car with the instructor, wear your seatbelt and check that all your mirrors are in position.

in the region of sth
[C1] approximately

Dictionary example:
It probably cost somewhere in the region of £900.

Learner example:
I am willing [to] pay rent in the region of £1000 to £1200 monthly.

in respect of sth FORMAL [C1] relating to a particular thing

Dictionary example:
I include payment in respect of your invoice of May 13th.

Learner example:
Instead of that, we should have more English grammar lessons – some of our English students are very interested in them, especially in respect of their exam this year.

In reverse
[C1] in the opposite order or way

Dictionary example:
Do the same steps but this time in reverse.
Learner example:
They want to see what they are not like, how they would not react and this, in reverse, helps them [to] find themselves.

in no time
[C1] very soon

Dictionary example:
We'll be home in no time.

Learner example:
Team work is very important for us and you will make many friends in no time.

in tune
[C1] singing or playing the right notes

Dictionary example:
Try to stay in tune.

Learner example:
The public was singing in tune with Jag, hands were raised and bodies were slowly [sway]ing.

in turn
[C1] as a result of something that is part of a series of events

Dictionary example:
This could result in the loss of certain species of fish and this in turn poses a serious threat to the fishing communities along the river banks.

Learner example:
This, in turn, enabled them to find jobs and become financially independent from their husbands.

in vain
[C1] without any success

Dictionary example:
I tried in vain to start a conversation.

Learner example:
We looked in vain for the guide through three London parks.

in no way/not in any way
[C1] not at all

Dictionary example:
This is in no way your fault.

Learner example:
This magazine will be loved by students as it will help them learn English in the best way and in no way will students find it boring.

in a sense
[C1] thinking about something in a particular way
Dictionary example:
In a sense, he's right.

Learner example:
In a sense this is correct, since you have to leave your natural environment to visit a place where no human being is meant to survive.

in short

[C1] in a few words

Dictionary example:
In short, we need more staff.

Learner example:

in store

[C1] going to happen soon

Dictionary examples:
You never know what's in store for you.
There's a bit of a shock in store for him when he gets home tonight!

Learner example:
Nobody knows what the future will have in store!

CAUSE

[C2] used to show when doing one thing is the cause of another thing happening

Dictionary examples:
In refusing to work abroad, she missed an excellent job opportunity.
The government banned tobacco advertising and, in doing so, contributed greatly to the nation's health.

Learner example:
According to Montaigne's point of view, children and even "older" people ought to travel as much as possible. In doing so, they would receive an education that no school could provide them with.

in the dark

[C2] not knowing about something because other people are not telling you

Dictionary example:
They kept us in the dark about their plans.

Learner example:
Peter had always kept her in the dark about the reason for their fight.

in anticipation (of)

[C2] expecting something to happen or in preparation for something happening

Dictionary example:
She's even decorated the spare room in anticipation of your visit.
Learner example:
This has sometimes resulted in the comic phenomenon of people travelling to a distant country, in anticipation of encountering strange and original lifestyles, only to come across situations not very different [from] the one they have left in their own countries.

in attendance
[C2] present at an event

Dictionary example:
They have doctors in attendance at every match.

Learner example:
Professional coach[e]s are in attendance and the members can have proper lessons.

be in awe of sb
[C2] to feel great respect for and sometimes fear of someone

Dictionary example:
As children we were rather in awe of our grandfather.

Learner example:
As I was the eldest of [the] siblings, they used to respect all my orders and [even] now, they are a bit in awe of me.

in the blink of an eye
[C2] extremely quickly

Dictionary example:
In the blink of an eye, he was gone.

Learner example:
And for all those who keep nagging about losing their favourite regular programmes during such an event, be patient: TV routine will be back into your living rooms in the blink of an eye.

in cold blood
[C2] in a cruel way, without showing any emotion

Dictionary example:
He shot three policemen in cold blood.

Learner example:
Returning to the story, when I arrived, I went directly to Hillton Avenue where I should have met 005, but when I arrived at the meeting point I found him lying on the floor with two shots in his back; he had been murdered in cold blood.

be in the same boat
[C2] to be in the same unpleasant situation as other people

Dictionary example:
She complains that she doesn't have enough money, but we're all in the same boat.

Learner example:
Unemployment and its consequences is still a major problem. Now we are in the same boat.
in the clear
[C2] not in a difficult situation or having problems any more

Dictionary example:
We have had money problems but we should be in the clear by next year.

Learner example:
"You're in the clear, you don't have to be afraid any more", it said.

in confidence
[C2] If you tell something to someone in confidence, you do not want them to tell anyone else.

Dictionary example:
I'm sorry, she told me that in confidence.

Learner example:
His real name isn't Piggy but he told Ralph in confidence that they called him that in school because of his appearance.

in conjunction with sth/sb
[C2] working, used, or happening with something or someone else

Dictionary example:
Our librarians use their knowledge in conjunction with the computer network.

Learner example:
Therefore if the banning of private cars takes place in conjunction with development in the public transport system in that city, this whole development will [have] more advantages despite some slight difficulties at the start.

In the name of sth
[C2] If bad things are done in the name of something, they are done in order to help that thing succeed.

Dictionary example:
So much blood has been spilt in the name of religion.

Learner example:
Recently, a Swedish priest compared homosexuality to cancer, and he did it in the name of religion.

in the vicinity (of sth) FORMAL [C2] in the area near a place

Dictionary example:
A number of buildings in the vicinity of the fire were damaged.

Learner example:
This centre would provide new sports and leisure premises for our town and would certainly attract young people from other towns in the vicinity as well.
in a big way  INFORMAL
[C2] used to say that someone or something does something to a large degree

Dictionary example:
They celebrate birthdays in a big way.

Learner example:
Tourism helps Greece's national economy – which is not at its best – in a big way.

in sb's words
[C2] used when you repeat what someone said

Dictionary example:
In the manager's words, the game was 'a total disaster'.

Learner example:
In the immortal words of the bard "... if music be the food of love....... play on!"

in all likelihood [C2] almost certainly

Dictionary example:
The facilities are wasted on people who in all likelihood will not use them.

Learner example:
In all likelihood, you will have to work during the weekends, even in summer, so I firmly believe that loving your job is very important.

be in line with sth
[C2] to be similar to and suitable for something

Dictionary example:
They were offered a pay increase in line with inflation.

Learner example:
The other two courses, at 5%, are still in line with the national average.

In memory of sb
[C2] If you do something in memory of a dead person, you do it to show your respect or love for them.

Dictionary example:
They built a statue in memory of those who died in the fire.

Learner example:
You see, every year our family performs a certain gathering in memory of my brother who was killed in a plane crash in 1991 known as the C130 disaster.

in your mind's eye
[C2] in your imagination or memory

Dictionary example:
In my mind's eye, she remains a little girl of six although she's actually a grown woman.
Learner example:
He sees her in his mind's eye, running around barefoot, laughing and squealing, wading in the water and running back out, screaming, trying to get away from the breaking waves.

in miniature
[C2] If something is in miniature, it is a very small copy of something else.

Dictionary example:
a model of the ship in miniature

Learner example:
Thirdly a co-educational school is a society in miniature and it has many practical advantages.

be in the mood for sth/to do sth
[C2] to want to do or have something

Dictionary example:
I’m not really in the mood for shopping at the moment.

Learner example:
Should you be in the mood for a walk around the lake then go for it.

in effect
[C2] used to say what the real situation is

Dictionary example:
This means, in effect, that the plan has been scrapped.

Learner example:
However, if the government increases the amount of money they pay to the unemployed, that in effect means higher taxes for the citizens which will cause strikes and various other problems.

in essence
[C2] used to emphasize the most important idea or quality of something

Dictionary example:
In essence, its purpose is to contain information.

Learner example:
In essence, homelessness means that you don’t have a home and because of this you are living on the streets.

in the face of sth
[C2] while having to deal with a difficult situation or problem

Dictionary example:
She refused to leave him, in the face of increasing pressure from friends and family.

Learner example:
No doubt, it was rather difficult to like Enid X. She was hardly likely to arouse sympathy in anybody even in the face of death.
in favour of sb/sth
[C2] If you refuse or get rid of someone or something in favour of someone or something else, you choose them instead.

Dictionary example:
They dropped him from the team in favour of a much younger player.

Learner example:
The city council should revise the airport project [...] and change the current location of the airport in favour of a more isolated area.

in a flash
[C2] informal immediately, or very quickly

Dictionary example:
I'll be back in a flash.

Learner example:
He took it and, in a flash, he came up to the surface.

in hand
[C2] being worked on or dealt with now

Dictionary example:
Despite the pressures we are determined to get on with the job in hand.

Learner example:
Miss Kenton keeps asking Stevens whether everything is in hand and whether her help is required.

in all honesty
[C2] used when you are saying what you really think or feel about something

Dictionary example:
In all honesty, I'd rather not go.

Learner example:
It is easy to say that government funding should be raised to make classes smaller and materials more relevant, but in all honesty, Danish schools are working very well indeed.

in my humble opinion
[C2] used to give your opinion about something, often when you are sure you are right

Dictionary example:
In my humble opinion, that's the wrong decision.

Learner example:
In my humble opinion, there's no such thing as a uniform celebrity, good, bad or otherwise.

in its infancy
[C2] Something that is in its infancy has only just begun to develop.
Dictionary example:
In the 1950s, space travel was in its infancy.

in the interest(s) of sth
[C2] in order to achieve a particular situation or quality

Dictionary example:
In the interest of safety, passengers are advised to wear their seat belts at all times.

Learner example:
First of all, do make sure that the front door is always locked. In the interests of everybody’s security, it is essential to remember [this].

in isolation
[C2] alone, or separately from other people, places, or things

Dictionary example:
These poems cannot be considered in isolation.

Learner example:
In conclusion, it is my opinion that the problem of parking space cannot be solved in isolation.

in part FORMAL [C2] partly

Dictionary example:
He is in part to blame for the accident.

Learner example:
Technology is in part to blame.

in perspective
[C2] when things are in perspective, you think about them in a sensible and realistic way, and understand how important or unimportant they really are

Dictionary examples:
You must keep things in perspective – the overall situation isn’t really that bad.
When you see pictures of their suffering, it puts your own problems in perspective.

Learner example:
I think it will enable me to see things more in perspective.

in place
[C2] in the correct position

Dictionary example:
The chairs are all in place.

Learner example:
I looked neat and clean even after the wildest games in the school yard, with all the ribbons that tied my long hair in place.
in place
[C2] If a rule, system, etc. is in place, it has started to exist.

Dictionary example:
There are now laws in place to prevent this from happening.

Learner example:
Let's take [the] example of Mexico City, where such restrictions have been in place since early 2000.

in principle
[C2] If you agree with something in principle, you agree with the idea or plan although you do not know the details or you do not know if it will be possible.

Dictionary example:
They have approved the changes in principle.

Learner example:
In principle, one can agree with both positions pointed out in this statement.

in all probability [C2] used to mean that something is very likely

Dictionary example:
She will, in all probability, have left before we arrive.

Learner example:
Anybody who can fulfill the above conditions will in all probability be successful.

in the process
[C2] If something is being done, and something else happens in the process, the second thing happens as a result of doing the first thing.

Dictionary examples:
She stood up to say hello and spilled her drink in the process.
The tunnel was built, but many lives were lost in the process.

Learner example:
If an attempt is made to move them to another location they will probably die in the process.

be in the process of doing sth
[C2] to have started doing something

Dictionary example:
We're in the process of painting our apartment.

Learner example:
This feeling of affinity is especially important for young people and teenagers who are in the process of creating their own identity and I also believe that sportsmen and sportswomen make great role models.
in proportion to [C2] If something changes in proportion to another thing, it changes to the same degree as that thing.

Dictionary example:
Your tax payment increases in proportion to your salary.

Learner example:
One aspect of the question is the fact that a sportsman's salary is supposedly not in proportion to the number of hours he work[s].

sb/sth in question
[C2] the person or thing that is being discussed

Dictionary example:
He claims that he was in the pub with his girlfriend on the night in question.

Learner example:
While this is not necessarily false, it should be borne in mind that the events in question are by no means boring or uninteresting.

in the red
[C2] If your bank account is in the red, you have spent more money than there was in it.

Dictionary example:
I expect I'm in the red again.

Learner example:
Her bank account was in the red.

in retrospect
[C2] thinking now about something in the past

Dictionary example:
In retrospect, I should probably have told her.

Learner example:
But now I could in retrospect conclude that it was too much: that tat[t]oo displaying a cannabis leaf should have been enough for me to at least wonder [whether] something was really wrong with my son.

in a rut
[C2] in a bad situation where you do the same things all the time, or where it is impossible to make progress

Dictionary example:
He seems to be stuck in a rut at the moment.
Learner example:
Financial security, all the, let me call them, background benefits are important, but if you do not love what you do, soon you will become bitter, stuck in a rut or worse – you will suffer from depression.

be in good taste
[C2] to be acceptable in a way that will not upset or anger people

Dictionary example:
His speech was in good taste.

Learner example:
I therefore thought that it would be in good taste to write about two of them.

be in bad/poor taste
[C2] to be unacceptable in a way that will upset or anger people

Dictionary example:
He told a joke about a plane crash which I thought was in rather poor taste.

in no uncertain terms
[C2] in a direct and often angry way

Dictionary example:
I told him to go away in no uncertain terms.

Learner example:
Intellectuals are used to saying in no uncertain terms that money represents the bad side of the sport.

be in tune with sb/sth
[C2] to understand what someone wants or needs or to understand a situation and act in a way that is suitable for it

Dictionary example:
The government is not in tune with the voters.

Learner example:
I am not exactly in tune with all the latest trends but I know which styles give me the most satisfaction.

in that [C2] because of or for this reason

Dictionary example:
The course is good in that it provides a very practical training.

Learner example:
Nowadays it is widely argued that professional sports are damaging to people’s health in that they involve gruelling training sessions as an integral part of the occupation.
ADVERB

AT A PLACE

[B1] at the place where a person usually lives or works

Dictionary examples:
Mr Ellis isn’t in this week.
Could you ask him to ring me when he gets in?

Learner example:
My neighbour wasn’t in.

TRANSPORT

[B2] having arrived at the place where people can get on or off

Dictionary example:
What time is Roz’s flight due in?

SENT

[B2] given or sent to someone official in order to be read

Dictionary examples:
When does your essay have to be in?
Remember to get your application in by the end of the week.

be in for sth INFORMAL

[C2] If someone is in for a surprise, treat, shock, etc., it will happen to them soon.

Dictionary example:
If he thinks looking after a baby is easy, he’s in for a shock.

Learner example:
Holidays do revive the spirit and renew the soul, provided you have a positive attitude towards life and bear in mind that they are just a fragment of reality. Otherwise, you are in for a disappointment.

NOUN

the ins and outs of sth

[C2] the details of a particular subject

Dictionary example:
the ins and outs of the legal system

Learner example:
I knew all the ins and outs of every story but I couldn’t stay one single day in bed without reading it.
inability /ˌɪnəˈbɪlə.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: ability, disability, inability
- Verbs: enable
- Adjectives: able, disabled, unable

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

[C1] when you are unable to do something

Dictionary example:
I'm depressed by the police's inability to reduce street crime.

Learner example:
They were sick and tired of the government's inability to break the vicious circle of the crisis.

inaccuracy /ɪnˈæk.jə.rə.si/

Word family:
- Nouns: accuracy, inaccuracy
- Adjectives: accurate, inaccurate
- Adverbs: accurately

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] something such as a statement or number that is not correct

Dictionary example:
The report contained many inaccuracies.

Learner example:
Apart from these inaccuracies, the group members have a lot of complaints.

inaccurate /ɪnˈæk.jʊ.rət/

Word family:
- Nouns: accuracy, inaccuracy
- Adjectives: accurate, inaccurate
- Adverbs: accurately

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not correct or exact

Dictionary example:
inaccurate information/figures

Learner example:
Due to your inaccurate information, I was late and missed part of the show.
inadequate /ɪnˈæd.i.kwət/

Word family:
Adjectives: adequate, inadequate
Adverbs: adequately

ADJECTIVE

NOT GOOD
[C1] not good enough or too low in quality

Dictionary example:
Our equipment is totally inadequate for a job like this.

Learner example:
First of all, I found the seats inadequate and my seat belt was broken.

NOT ENOUGH
[C1] not enough

Dictionary example:
inadequate funds

Learner example:
So, the inadequate number of computers could not cover students' needs.

inappropriate /ˌɪn.əˈprəʊ.pri.ət/

Word family:
Adjectives: appropriate, inappropriate
Adverbs: appropriately, inappropriately

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not suitable

Dictionary examples:
inappropriate behaviour
It would be inappropriate for me to comment, without knowing the facts.

Learner example:
Secondly, [the] music was completely inappropriate to young people, because the band was chosen by the previous principal of our college.

inappropriately /ˌɪn.əˈprəʊ.pri.ət.li/
ADVERB

[C1] in a way that is not suitable

Dictionary example:
The meeting was inappropriately handled and an argument broke out.

Learner example:
For instance, the refreshment tent was inappropriately located, making it difficult for the participants to reach it.

incapable /ɪnˈkeɪ.pə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: capability
Adjectives: capable, incapable

ADJECTIVE

incapable of sth/doing sth

[C1] not able to do something or to feel a particular emotion

Dictionary examples:
I think she’s incapable of love.
He’s incapable of controlling his temper.

Learner example:
Earl has lost most of his eyesight and he is incapable of assembling the planes without my help.

incentive /ɪnˈsen.trɪv/

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] something that encourages you to act in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
People had little incentive to save.
The government should provide incentives for young people to stay in school.

Learner example:
Not surprisingly, they value financial rewards over other kinds of incentives.
inch  /ɪntʃ/

NOUN [C]

MEASUREMENT

[B1] a unit used for measuring length, which is approximately equal to 2.54 centimetres, sometimes shown by the symbol ″

Dictionary examples:
Twelve inches are equal to one foot.
He had a cut an inch long above his left eye.
The snow was six inches deep in some places.
a piece of wood 2″ by 2″

Learner example:
He was one inch tall with strange clothes.

---

incident  /ˈɪn.tɹs.ɪ.dənt/

NOUN [C]

[B2] an event which is either unpleasant or unusual

Dictionary examples:
an unfortunate incident
A youth was seriously injured in a shooting incident on Saturday night.

Learner example:
After that incident I never cheated again and I never talked to that teacher again.

---

incidentally  /ɪn.sɪˈden.təli/

ADVERB

[C1] used when you add related but less important information to what has just been said or when you suddenly introduce a new subject

Dictionary example:
Incidentally, talking of Stephen, have you met Stephen's girlfriend?

Learner example:
Incidentally, there is another big Turkish Bath in Ginarah.
inclination /ˌɪn.klɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: inclination
Adjectives: inclined

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a feeling that you want to do something

Dictionary example:
She showed little inclination to leave.

Learner example:
By inclination, she tended to take [an] interest in the li[ves] of other people.

inclined /ɪnˈklæɪnd/

Word family:
Nouns: inclination
Adjectives: inclined

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]
be inclined to think/believe/agree, etc.
[C1] to have an opinion, but not a strong opinion

Dictionary example:
I'm inclined to agree with you.

Learner example:
I am inclined to believe that the Open Day will reassure all the local residents that our college is one of major importance and our students creative and intelligent people.

inclined to do sth
[C2] often behaving in a particular way

Dictionary example:
Tom is inclined to be forgetful.

Learner example:
People are naturally inclined to try to earn more at every stage of their career.

[C2] wanting to do something

Dictionary example:
No one seemed inclined to help.

Learner example:
Moreover, it is imperative that public transport be improved, so that people will be less inclined to use their cars.
artistically/technically, etc. inclined [C2] having natural artistic/technical, etc. ability

Dictionary example:
She's very curious, but not academically inclined.

Learner example:
My first suggestion is a pottery class that I think would be greatly appreciated by the more creatively inclined among the students.

inclusion  /ɪnˈkluː.ʒn/

Word family:
Nouns: inclusion
Verbs: include
Adjectives: inclusive

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when you include someone or something, especially in a group, amount, or event

Dictionary example:
Her self-portrait was chosen for inclusion in the exhibition.

Learner example:
In basketball, for instance, changes in the most important competitions, such as the inclusion of foreign players, have given players the opportunity to be successful not only in their country but also worldwide.

inclusive  /ɪnˈkluː.sɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: inclusion
Verbs: include
Adjectives: inclusive

ADJECTIVE
[C1] An inclusive price or amount includes everything.

Dictionary example:
Prices are inclusive of flights and accommodation.

Learner example:
When considering the rent, inclusive or exclusive [of] bill[s] will make a big difference.
income  /ˈɪn.kʌm/

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] money that you earn by working, investing or producing goods

Dictionary examples:
- Average incomes have risen by 4.5% over the past year.
- More help is needed for people on low incomes.
- I haven’t had much income from my stocks and shares this year.

Learner example:
- When you are a student, you don’t have [any] income.

inconceivable /ˌɪn.kənˈsiːvə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: concept, conception
- Verbs: conceive
- Adjectives: inconceivable

ADJECTIVE

[C2] impossible to imagine

Dictionary example:
- I find it inconceivable that she could be a killer.

Learner example:
- First of all, it is inconceivable that a young child should be raised almost without his/her parents, surrounded by myriad toys, gadgets and games instead.

inconsiderate /ˌɪn.kənˈsɪd.rət/

Word family:
- Nouns: consideration
- Verbs: consider, reconsider
- Adjectives: considerate, inconsiderate

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not caring about other people's situations or the way they feel

Dictionary example:
- It was very inconsiderate of you to keep us all waiting.

Learner example:
- Although their deed is impolite and inconsiderate, they should be forgiven.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>IPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>inconvenient</td>
<td>/ɪn.kəˈviː.ni.ənt/</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] when something is inconvenient, or something that is inconvenient

Dictionary examples:
- The Director apologized for any inconvenience caused.
- Having to wait for ten minutes was a minor inconvenience.

Learner example:
- I am sorry for any inconvenience these requirements may cause to you.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>IPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>incorporate</td>
<td>/ɪnˈkɔː.pə.r.eɪt/</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VERB [T]

[C2] to include something as part of another thing

Dictionary example:
- He began to incorporate dance and mime into his plays.

Learner example:
- These are just some of the ideas that I feel can be incorporated into your project.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>IPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>incorrect</td>
<td>/ˌɪn.kəˈrekt/</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Word family:

- Nouns: correction
- Adjectives: correct, incorrect
- Adverbs: correctly
ADJECTIVE
[B1] not correct

Dictionary examples:
an incorrect answer
Your figures are incorrect.

Learner example:
Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to you concerning some incorrect information about Lampton that I have found in the Student Tourist Guidebook.

increase

Word family:
Nouns: increase
Verbs: increase
Adverbs: increasingly

VERB [I or T] /ɪnˈkriːs/
[B1] to get bigger or to make something bigger in amount or size

Dictionary examples:
Sales of laptops have increased over the last few years.
The cost of the project has increased dramatically/significantly since it began.
Gradually increase the temperature to boiling point.

Learner example:
It is amazing how the violence in Rio increased in these last few years.

NOUN [C or U] /ˈɪn.kriːs/

RISE
[B2] a rise in the amount or size of something

Dictionary examples:
price/tax increases
There were 39,000 new cases last year – an increase of 7 per cent.
Any increase in production would be helpful.

Learner example:
Since bicycles became so popular, there has been an increase in the number of accidents.

on the increase
[C1] If something is on the increase, it is happening more often.

Dictionary example:
Violent crime is on the increase.

Learner example:
[The] number of motorists is on the increase everywhere in the world.
increasingly /ɪnˈkriː.sɪŋ.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: increase
- Verbs: increase
- Adverbs: increasingly

ADVERB

[B2] more and more

Dictionary examples:
- to be increasingly important/common
  Increasingly, there is pressure on the council to reverse its decision.

Learner example:
- Among them are the increasingly popular reality shows and all the daily news about gossip and scandal.

incredible /ɪnˈkred.ə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: credibility
- Adjectives: incredible
- Adverbs: incredibly

ADJECTIVE

[B1] very good
 Informal: very good, exciting or large

Dictionary examples:
- We had an incredible time that summer.
  They gave us an incredible amount of food.

Learner example:
- The weather here is incredible and we have the most beautiful beaches in the world, in my opinion.

[B2] impossible, or very difficult, to believe

Dictionary example:
- It seems incredible that no one complained.

Learner example:
- It was incredible but it was true.
incredibly /ɪnˈkred.a.blɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: credibility
Adjectives: incredible
Adverbs: incredibly

ADVERB

EXTREMELY
[B2] extremely

Dictionary example:
I think the team played incredibly well.

Learner example:
It was incredibly crowded.

DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE
[C1] in a way that is difficult to believe

Dictionary example:
Incredibly, no one was hurt.

Learner example:
Incredibly, and against all my expectations, everything started going wrong from the very beginning.

incur /ɪnˈkɜːr/

VERB [ɪ] (-rr-)

[C2] to lose money, owe money, or have to pay money because of something that has happened

Dictionary example:
The company incurred huge losses as a result of its investments.

Learner example:
One of the principal problems is that governments all around the world are incurring great costs in order to maintain a national health system.

incurable /ɪnˈkjʊərə.bl/
ADJECTIVE
[C2] impossible to cure

Dictionary example:
an incurable disease

Learner example:
Most of the incurable illnesses of the past are no longer a threat, which means that the people live longer and longer than they used to.

indeed /ɪnˈdiːd/

ADVERB

REALLY
[B1] really or certainly, often used to emphasize something

Dictionary examples:
Indeed, it could be the worst environmental disaster in Western Europe this century.
Evidence suggests that errors may indeed be occurring.
We live in strange times indeed.
Many people are very poor indeed.

Learner example:
Thank you very much indeed.

MORE
[C2] formal used when you say more to support or develop what has already been said

Dictionary example:
For such creatures speed is not important, indeed it is counterproductive.

Learner example:
It would be very difficult to define a country's culture by choosing only one characteristic of that country; indeed, it is a great variety of things such as language, politics, religion, customs, etc. that shape the culture of every country.

indefinite article /ɪnˌdef.ɪ.nətˈɑː.tɪ.kl/

NOUN [C] specialized [B1] the grammatical name for the words "a" and "an" in English or words in other languages which have a similar use indefinitely /ɪnˈdef.ɪ.nət.li/

Word family:
Nouns: definition
Verbs: define
Adjectives: definite, definitive
Adverbs: definitely, indefinitely

ADVERB
[C2] for a period of time for which no end has been fixed

Dictionary example:
His visit has been postponed indefinitely.

Learner example:
Each one of them tries so painfully to hide away the natural feelings emanating from within. But it is simply impossible to do so indefinitely.

independence /ˌɪn.dɪˈpen.dənt.ɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: independence, dependence
Verbs: depend
Adjectives: dependent, independent
Adverbs: independently

NOUN [u]

WITHOUT HELP
[B2] when someone looks after themselves and does not need money, help or permission from other people

Dictionary example:
It's important that parents should allow their children some independence.

Learner example:
If you follow my instructions, you'll achieve financial independence sooner than you [would] have thought.

FREE STATE
[B2] when a country has its own government and is not ruled by another country

Dictionary example:
Mexico gained its independence from Spain in 1821.

Learner example:
Another film, Brave Heart, is about independence.
independent /ˌɪn.dɪˈpen.dənt/

Word family:
Nouns: independence, dependence
Verbs: depend
Adjectives: dependent, independent
Adverbs: independently

NOT HELPED
[B1] not taking help or money from other people

Dictionary examples:
Grandma's very independent and does all her own shopping and cooking.
I've always been financially independent.

Learner example:
I'm an independent person, and I like to be.

NOT INFLUENCED
[B2] not influenced or controlled in any way by other people, events or things

Dictionary examples:
an independent enquiry/organization
The group is independent of any political party.

Learner example:
The film programme is excellent, as you show a large variety of independent films that are not the usual mainstream films and block busters.

NOT RULED
[B2] An independent country is not governed or ruled by another country.

Dictionary examples:
Belize became fully independent from Britain in 1981.
Tibet, once an independent country, is now part of China.

Learner example:
After 1918, our city again became [the] capital of [an] independent state.

independently /ˌɪn.dɪˈpen.dənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: independence, dependence
Verbs: depend
Adjectives: dependent, independent
Adverbs: independently
ADVERB

[B2] in a way that is independent

Dictionary examples:
The two scientists both made the same discovery independently, at roughly the same time. Each part of the organization operates independently of the others.

Learner example:
What students should understand is the existence of links among apparently different subjects and the impossibility of studying them independently or, [worse], studying one and neglecting the others.

---

index  /ˈɪn.deks/

NOUN [c]

[C1] an alphabetical list, such as one printed at the back of a book showing which page a subject, name, etc. is found on

Dictionary example:
Try looking up 'heart disease' in the index.

Learner example:
The negative point of the book was its lack of an index.

---

indicate  /ˈɪn.dɪ.keɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: indication, indicator
Verbs: indicate

VERB [T]

[SAY]

[B2] to say something or give a signal to show what you mean or what you intend to do

Dictionary examples:
Please indicate which free gift you would like to receive.
She indicated to me (that) she didn't want me to say anything.

Learner example:
I have just received your letter informing me that I won a two week holiday at Camp California, so I am writing to you to indicate my preferences [regarding] travel and accommodation.

SHOW

[C1] to show that something exists or is likely to be true
Dictionary examples:
Recent evidence indicates that the skeleton is about 3 million years old. Exploratory investigations have indicated large amounts of oil below the sea bed.

Learner example:
In fact, the study also indicates that time spent on watching TV has surged, especially during the last decade.

indication /ˌɪn.dɪˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: indication, indicator
Verbs: indicate

NOUN [C or U]

EXIST
[C1] a sign showing that something exists or is likely to be true

Dictionary example:
There are strong indications that the case will be referred to the Court of Appeal.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, after the equipment was installed and plug[g]ed into [the] mains, black smoke came out of the back, which in my opinion is an indication of a failure of some sort.

INTENTION
[C2] a sign showing what someone means or what they intend to do

Dictionary example:
Helen's face gave no indication of what she was thinking.

Learner example:
Rumour had it that Peter secretly brought roses early every morning to her doorstep, as an indication of his love for her.

indicator /ˈɪn.dr.ɪ.kər.tə/

Word family:
Nouns: indication, indicator
Verbs: indicate

NOUN [C]

[C2] something that shows what a situation is like

Dictionary example:
Commodity prices can be a useful indicator of inflation.
Learner example:
The right-wing thinkers claim that unemployment is one of the indicators in [the] economy, displaying lack of balance between industrial output and citizens' demands.

indifference  /ɪnˈdɪf.ərnst/

Word family:
Nouns: difference, indifference
Verbs: differ, differentiate
Adjectives: different, indifferent
Adverbs: differently

NOUN [u]
[C2] when you do not care about something or have any particular opinions about it

Dictionary example:
an air of indifference

Learner example:
On the other hand, there were some voices expressing their indifference towards money.

Indifferent  /ɪnˈdɪf.ərnt/

Word family:
Nouns: difference, indifference
Verbs: differ, differentiate
Adjectives: different, indifferent
Adverbs: differently

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not caring about or interested in someone or something

Dictionary example:
They are indifferent to the plight of the unemployed.

Learner example:
Being a resident of our area yourself, you may not be entirely indifferent to the plans of the local authorities concerning the construction of a new supermarket.
indirect /ˌɪn.dərˈrekt/

Word family:
Nouns: direction, directions, director
Verbs: direct
Adjectives: direct, indirect
Adverbs: directly, indirectly

ADJECTIVE

NOT CONNECTED
[C1] not directly caused by or connected with something

Dictionary example:
Indirect effects of the fighting include disease and food shortages.

Learner example:
At school, children should follow many rules. For example, they should finish their homework [and] respect other students' opinion[s]. From these experience[s], children can experience social life in indirect ways, and can learn how to be good members of society.

NOT OBVIOUS
[C2] done or caused in a way that is not obvious

Dictionary examples:
indirect taxes/costs
an indirect criticism

Learner example:
According to some experts there are just two solutions: delaying the age of retirement or increasing indirect taxes such as VAT.

indirectly /ˌɪn.ˈdərˌrekt.əli/

Word family:
Nouns: direction, directions, director
Verbs: direct
Adjectives: direct, indirect
Adverbs: directly, indirectly

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is not direct

Dictionary example:
She still controls the company indirectly, through her son.

Learner example:
This indirectly improves the quality of life and people will feel re-energised.
indispensable /ˌɪndɪˈspen.sə.bl/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] completely necessary

Dictionary examples:
- an indispensable tool/guide
- She quickly became indispensable to him.

Learner example:
We should not be led to believe that [computers] are the indispensable ingredient to our well-being, [though] neither should we deny their wide-ranging potential.

indisputable /ˌɪndɪˈspjuː.tə.bl/

Word family:

- Nouns: dispute
- Verbs: dispute
- Adjectives: indisputable

ADJECTIVE

[C2] obviously and certainly true

Dictionary example:
- an indisputable fact

Learner example:
- It is an indisputable fact that young people do not have any anxieties as far as housework is concerned because every house is equipped with labour-saving devices.

individual /ˌɪn.dəˈvɪd.ju.əl/

Word family:

- Nouns: individual, individuality
- Adjectives: individual
- Adverbs: individually

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

SINGLE

[B1] considered separately from the other things in a group

Dictionary example:
- Read out the individual letters of each word.
Learner example:
Well, this place is [a group of] small individual islands and there aren't many things that you can do [in] the capital city as it's so small and crowded.

RELATING TO ONE
[B1] given to or relating to one particular person or thing

Dictionary examples:
We deal with each case on an individual basis.
We all have an individual password.

Learner example:
The first lesson started with an individual presentation.

NOUN [C]

PERSON
[B2] a person, especially when considered separately and not as part of a group

Dictionary examples:
We try to treat our students as individuals.
Every individual has rights which must never be taken away.

Learner example:
I can work as part of a team but also as an individual.

SPECIAL
[C2] a person with a particular characteristic

Dictionary examples:
a ruthless individual
These are all hard-working individuals.

Learner example:
I realise that his character has changed a little with the passing of time; I can understand that he is nervous and that has turned into a selfish individual who only cares about himself.

individuality /ˌɪn.dr.iˈvɪduəlɪ.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: individual, individuality
Adjectives: individual
Adverbs: individually

NOUN [U]
[C2] the quality of being different from others

Dictionary example:
The houses had no character and no individuality.
Learner example:
As an intellectual, he refuses to annihilate his individuality and degenerate into savagery.

individually ˌɪn.dɪˈvɪd.ju.ə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: individual, individuality
Adjectives: individual
Adverbs: individually

ADVERB
[C1] separately rather than with others

Dictionary examples:
I spoke to them all individually.
The sweets are individually wrapped.

Learner example:
This has the additional advantage that students can work individually on what seems to be most necessary for them.

indoors ˌɪnˈdɔːz/

Word family:
Adjectives: indoor Adverbs: indoors

ADVERB
[B1] into or inside a building

Dictionary examples:
Come indoors, it's cold outside.
Spring bulbs can be grown indoors.

Learner example:
I love being indoors, eating or watching TV.

Indulge /ɪnˈdʌldʒ/

VERB

YOURSELF
[C2] [I or T] to let yourself do or have something that you enjoy but which may be bad for you
Dictionary examples:
They indulged in a bit of gossip.
Go on, indulge yourself! Have another chocolate.

Learner example:
Eating disorders of various kinds are certainly not unknown to our culture, yet we seem to be less concerned about what we shouldn’t do than what we tend to indulge ourselves in.

SOMEONE ELSE
[C2] [ɪ] to let someone do or have anything they want

Dictionary example:
Their children are dreadfully indulged.

Learner example:
In an attempt to give them instant gratification, their parents do their utmost to fulfill their wishes and as a consequence of this, children become utterly indulged.

industrial /ɪnˈdʌst.rɪ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: industry, industrialization
Adjectives: industrial, industrialized, industrious

ADJECTIVE [B2] connected with industry, or having a lot of industry and factories, etc.

Dictionary examples:
industrial expansion
an industrial landscape
He has an industrial background.

Learner example:
I am sure that both ideas will improve the look of our industrial town.

industrialization /ɪnˌdʌst.rɪ.ə.laɪˈzer.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: industry, industrialization
Adjectives: industrial, industrialized, industrious

NOUN [U] (ALSO UK industrialisation)
[C1] the process of developing industries in a country

Dictionary example:
Japan’s rapid industrialization
Learner example:
With industrialization and economic development, Hong Kong people’s standards of living have also improve[d] dramatically.

industrialized /ɪnˈdʌstr.ɪ.laɪzd/

Word family:
Nouns: industry, industrialization
Adjectives: industrial, industrialized, industrious

ADJECTIVE (also UK industrialised)
[C1] Industrialized countries have a lot of industry.

Dictionary example:
the industrialized nations

Learner example:
The role of women has changed during the past 100 years but there are still a lot of changes needed not only in developing countries but also in industrialized countries like Germany.

Industrious /ɪnˈdʌstr.ɪəs/

Word family:
Nouns: industry, industrialization
Adjectives: industrial, industrialized, industrious

ADJECTIVE FORMAL
[C2] Industrious people work hard.

Dictionary example:
He is good at his work and very industrious.

Learner example:
The society wouldn't be as advanced as it is unless we had well educated, efficient and industrious workers.

industry /ˈɪn.də.stri/

Word family:
Nouns: industry, industrialization
Adjectives: industrial, industrialized, industrious

NOUN

TYPE OF BUSINESS
[B1] [c] the people and activities involved in one type of business
Dictionary examples:
the gas/electricity industry the tourist industry manufacturing industries
The computer industry has been booming.

Learner example:
As you know, I would like to work in [the] tourism industry, so I thought this course could be good to improve my English.

PRODUCTION

[B2] [u] the production of goods in factories

Dictionary examples: trade and industry
industry and commerce
The city needs to attract more industry.

Learner example:
If you are interested in local industry, there is the Prefectural Local Industry museum.

inedible /ɪˈned.ə.bl/ |

Word family:
Adjectives: edible, inedible

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not suitable for eating

Dictionary example:
The meat was inedible.

Learner example:
The fruit was rotten, the sandwich inedible.

inefficient /ˌɪn.ɪˈfɪʃ.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: efficiency
Adjectives: efficient, inefficient
Adverbs: efficiently

ADJECTIVE

[C1] Inefficient people or things waste time, money or effort, and do not achieve as much as they should.

Dictionary example:
an inefficient heating system
Learner example:
The conditions in the coaches are poor with the leg room only for small children, the safety belts broken, and an inefficient air-conditioner.

inequality  /ˌɪn.ɪˈkwɒl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: equality, inequality
Adjectives: equal
Adverbs: equally

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when some groups in a society have more advantages than others

Dictionary example:
inequality between the sexes

Learner example:
She was surrounded by poverty and inequality and grew more and more dissatisfied with the Government’s policies, whether internal or foreign.

inevitable  /ɪˈnev.ɪ.tə.bl/

Word family:
Adjectives: inevitable
Adverbs: inevitably

ADJECTIVE
[C1] certain to happen and unable to be avoided or prevented

Dictionary example:
The accident was the inevitable consequence/result/outcome of carelessness.

Learner example:
 Strikes always cause some problems but sometimes they are inevitable.

inevitably  /ɪˈnev.ɪ.tə.bli/

Word family:
Adjectives: inevitable
Adverbs: inevitably

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that cannot be avoided
Their arguments inevitably end in tears.

Should you, my humble reader, happen to reach fame and fortune, try never to forget that appearing always as an ordinary human being would inevitably grant you more empathy from the people surrounding you.

inexpensive /ˌɪn.ɪkˈspent.sɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: expense, expenditure, expenses
Adjectives: expensive, inexpensive

ADJECTIVE

[B1] cheap but of good quality

Dictionary example:
inexpensive children's clothes

Learner example:
It has far more advantages than the countryside, starting with the excellent accommodation, which is inexpensive and easy to find.

inexperienced /ˌɪn.ɪkˈspɪə.riː.əntst/}

Word family:
Nouns: experience
Verbs: experience
Adjectives: experienced, inexperienced

ADJECTIVE

[B2] without much experience or knowledge of something

Dictionary example:
Abigail Kennedy was young and inexperienced.

Learner example:
The advertisement said that Danny Brook was one of the starring actors but he was replaced by another extremely disappointing and inexperienced actor.
inexplicable  /ˌɪn.ɪkˈsplɪk.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: explanation
Verbs: explain
Adjectives: inexplicable

ADJECTIVE
[C2] so strange or unusual that you cannot understand or explain it

Dictionary example:
To me his behaviour was quite inexplicable.

Learner example:
Although for inexplicable reasons she can be really stubborn sometimes, I admire her courage to admit her mistakes and apologize.

infancy  /ˈɪn.fən.si/

Word family:
Nouns: infancy, infant

NOUN
[C2] [u] when you are a baby or a very young child

Dictionary example:
Their fourth child died in infancy.

Learner example:
The young musician filled my days of infancy with 'London Bridge is Falling Down.'

in its infancy
[C2] Something that is in its infancy has only just begun to develop.

Dictionary example:
In the 1950s, space travel was in its infancy.

infant  /ˈɪn.fənt/

Word family:
Nouns: infancy, infant

NOUN [C] FORMAL
[C2] a baby or very young child

Dictionary example:
Mothers and infants were allowed to board the plane first.
Learner example:
The cells are extremely active while we are infants, but as we grow older, their efficiency weakens.

infect /ɪnˈfekt/

Word family:
Nouns: infection
Verbs: infect
Adjectives: infectious

VERB [T]

DISEASE
[C1] to give someone a disease

Dictionary example:
Thousands of people were infected with the virus.

Learner example:
It was only a small clinic, that refused to give attention to a group of young people all infected with AIDS.

COMPUTER
[C1] If a computer virus infects a computer, it harms it

Dictionary example:
My computer was infected by a virus.

Learner example:
With CLEAN–MAIL, you can protect your computers from getting infected with viruses effectively: virus-mails are deleted before they even arrive at your mailbox.

PLACE/SUBSTANCE
[C2] If a place, wound, or substance is infected, it contains bacteria or other things that can cause disease.

Dictionary examples:
The wound became infected.
infected water/meat

Learner example:
When the water got too badly infected, your mind could not ignore it any more and got sick.
infection /ɪnˈfek.ʃən/

Word family:

- Nouns: infection
- Verbs: infect
- Adjectives: infectious

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] a disease in a part of your body that is caused by bacteria or a virus

Dictionary examples:
- a serious infection
- a throat infection
- Bandage the wound to reduce the risk of infection.

Learner example:
- He told me that she was suffering from a kidney infection.

infectious /ɪnˈfek.ʃəs/

Word family:

- Nouns: infection
- Verbs: infect
- Adjectives: infectious

ADJECTIVE

DISEASE

[C2] An infectious disease can be passed from one person to another.

Dictionary example:
- Hepatitis is an infectious disease.

Learner example:
- For example, epidemic[s] of major infectious diseases like cholera or meningitis carry the risk of transferring the focus of infection to any part of the world.

LAUGH

[C2] Infectious laughter or feelings quickly spread from one person to another.

Dictionary example:
- infectious enthusiasm

Learner example:
- I have found that feelings and emotions are infectious and people tend to be happier with people who are fun–loving and take life less seriously.
infer /ɪnˈfɜːr/

VERB [r] FORMAL (-rr-)

[C2] to guess that something is true because of the information that you have

Dictionary example:
I inferred from the number of cups that he was expecting visitors.

Learner example:
From the above, it can be inferred that the major causes of land degradation vary according to regions.

inferior /ɪnˈfɪəri.ər/

Word family:

Nouns: inferior, inferiority

Adjectives: inferior

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not good, or not so good as someone or something else

Dictionary examples:
I've never felt inferior to anyone.
They're selling inferior products at inflated prices.

Learner example:
Young girls often feel inferior to boys in the same class.

NOUN [c]

[C2] someone who is considered to be less important than other people

Dictionary example:
She considered me her inferior.

Learner example:
Broadly speaking, he appears to be an inferior, a non–human, in the opinion of the other boys.

inferiority /ɪnˌfɪəriˈər.i.ti/

Word family:

Nouns: inferior, inferiority

Adjectives: inferior

NOUN [u]

[C2] when someone feels they are not as good as other people or when something is not as good as another thing
Dictionary example:
With these talented sisters, I always had a feeling of inferiority.

Learner example:
Critics suggest that these policies have not benefited poor black Americans, that they have impeded the development of social problems and that they have inhibited black Americans and other discriminated groups through a deep sense of inferiority.

infinite /ˈɪn.fɪn.ət/

Word family:
- Adjectives: finite, infinite
- Adverbs: infinitely

ADJECTIVE

[C2] extremely large or great

Dictionary examples:
- an infinite variety/number of options
- She took infinite care with the painting.

Learner example:
- An overwhelming selection of goods, shops [and] even types of shopping has provided us with an infinite number of products to choose from.

infinitely /ˈɪn.fɪn.ət.li/

Word family:
- Adjectives: finite, infinite
- Adverbs: infinitely

ADVERB

[C2] very or very much

Dictionary example:
- Travel is infinitely more comfortable now than it used to be.

Learner example:
- It would be infinitely preferable for the people to park their cars in the multi-storey car park.

infinitive /ɪnˈfɪn.ɪ.tɪv/

NOUN [C] SPECIALIZED

[B1] the basic form of a verb that usually follows 'to'
Dictionary examples:
In the sentences 'I had to go' and 'I must go', 'go' is an infinitive.
'Go' is the infinitive form.

inflation /ɪnˈfleɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [u]
[B2] the rate at which prices increase, or a continuing increase in prices

Dictionary examples:
high/low inflation
the rate of inflation
3% inflation

Learner example:
In this country of high inflation we could save some money.

influence /ˈɪn.flu.əns/

Word family:
Nouns: influence
Verbs: influence
Adjectives: influential

NOUN [C or U]

POWER
[B2] the power to affect how someone thinks or behaves, or how something develops

Dictionary examples:
The drug companies can have a lot of influence on doctors.
At the time she was under the influence of her father.
Picasso had a big influence on art in the twentieth century.

Learner example:
Today's computers have a massive influence on the whole [of] society.

be a bad/good influence (on sb)
[B2] If someone or something is a bad/good influence on someone, they have a bad/good effect on them.

Dictionary example:
Television can be a bad influence on children.

Learner example:
Some people say that cell phones are a bad influence on the younger generation.
VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[B2] to affect or change how someone or something develops, behaves or thinks

Dictionary examples:
Were you influenced by anybody at the beginning of your career?
What influenced you to choose a career in nursing?

Learner example:
Our life has been influenced by modern technology.

influential /ˌɪn.fluˈen.ʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: influence
Verbs: influence
Adjectives: influential

ADJECTIVE
[C1] having a lot of influence

Dictionary example:
an influential figure in modern jazz

Learner example:
Although not being directly involved in global politics anymore, he is still a very powerful and influential person.

influx /ˈɪn.flʌks/

NOUN [C]
[C2] the arrival of a lot of people or things at the same time

Dictionary example:
The 1990s saw an influx of foreign players into British football.

Learner example:
Countries are known mainly for their history, that is why there is an influx of tourists in places with historical interest.

inform /ɪnˈfɔːm/

Word family:
Nouns: information
Verbs: inform, misinform
Adjectives: informative
VERB [T]

TELL

[B1] to tell someone about something

Dictionary examples:
If he calls me again, I shall inform the police.
I informed my boss that I was going to be away next week.

Learner example:
This letter is to inform you that I will not be able to attend tomorrow's class due to medical issues.

GIVE INFORMATION

[B1] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to give someone information about something

Dictionary example:
Patients should be informed about the risks.

Learner example:
Anyway, once a month I read gossip magazines and every day I read newspapers to be informed.

informal /ɪnˈfɔː.rəlm/

Word family:
Adjectives: formal, informal
Adverbs: formally, informally

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not formal or official

Dictionary examples:
The two groups agreed to hold an informal meeting.
He's the ideal sort of teacher – direct, friendly and informal.
'Hi' is an informal way of greeting people.

Learner example:
The dress-code is informal but neat and there'll be plenty of drinks and snacks.

informally /ɪnˈfɔː.rəlm.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: formal, informal
Adverbs: formally, informally

 ADVERB

[C1] in an informal way
Dictionary example:
It's an outdoor party, so dress informally.

Learner example:
We dress casually and very informally and you often see body piercings and tat[t]ooos being displayed around the place.

informative /ɪnˈfɔː.mə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: information
Verbs: inform, misinform
Adjectives: informative

ADJECTIVE
[C1] containing a lot of useful facts

Dictionary example:
a very informative lecture

Learner example:
There were presentations from many different industries, some of them very informative and entertaining.

infrastructure /ˈɪnˌfrəˌstrʌk.tʃə/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[C1] the basic systems and services, such as transport and power supplies, that a country or organization uses in order to work effectively

Dictionary example:
The war has badly damaged the country's infrastructure.

Learner example:
It is very easy to build homes but at the same time forgetting to upgrade the infrastructure and facilities.

ingredient /ɪnˈɡriː.di.ənt/

NOUN [C OFTEN PLURAL]

FOOD
[B1] a food that is used with other foods in the preparation of a particular dish
Dictionary example:
The list of ingredients included 250g of almonds.

Learner example:
The chef had used good, fresh ingredients.

SUCCESS
[B2] one of the parts of something successful

Dictionary example:
Trust is an essential ingredient in a successful marriage.

Learner example:
In my opinion it is clear that with these "ingredients" you can make an interesting video about daily life at our school.

inhabit /ɪnˈhæb.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: inhabitant
Verbs: inhabit
Adjectives: uninhabited

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C2] to live in a place

Dictionary example:
an area inhabited by artists and writers

Learner example:
The Cranleigh housing estate has only been built recently and is mainly inhabited by young families with teenage children who wanted to escape from the rush and the traffic of the city to the pleasant suburb[an] refuge that Cranleigh offers.

inhabitant /ɪnˈhæb.ɪ.tənt/

Word family:
Nouns: inhabitant
Verbs: inhabit
Adjectives: uninhabited

NOUN [C OFTEN PLURAL]
[B2] a person or animal that lives in a particular place

Dictionary example:
a city of 5 million inhabitants

Learner example:
I think that the town has about 2000 inhabitants in winter.
inherent /ɪnˈher.i.nt/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] existing as a natural and basic part of something

Dictionary example:
The desire for freedom is inherent in all people.

Learner example:
However, it is important to bear in mind the inherent pressures that come with fortune and fame.

Inherit /ɪnˈher.i.t/

Word family:

Nouns: inheritance

Verbs: inherit

VERB

FROM DEAD PERSON

[C2] [I or T] to receive money or possessions from someone after they have died

Dictionary examples:
Who will inherit the house when he dies?
All her children will inherit equally.

Learner example:
I wouldn't mind if it was just a scratch to any other piece of furniture but I couldn't contain myself when my mother burst into tears looking at a broken leg of an antique chair inherited from my grandfather.

QUALITY

[C2] [T] to have the same physical or mental characteristics as one of your parents or grandparents

Dictionary example:
Miranda has inherited her father's red hair.

Learner example:
Her grandparents were from Sweden, and she had inherited blond hair and blue eyes from them.

Inheritance /ɪnˈher.i.tənts/

Word family:

Nouns: inheritance

Verbs: inherit
NOUN [C or U]

[C2] money or possessions that someone gives you when they die

Dictionary example:
Nick has sold off much of his inheritance.

Learner example:
When they first moved in they seemed to all of us like a "typical" family, not very wealthy but managing to live in the neighbourhood due to the inheritance they had received from Gina’s mother.

inhibition /ˌɪn.hɪˈbɪʃ.ən/

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] a feeling of embarrassment or worry that prevents you from saying or doing what you want

Dictionary example:
The whole point about dancing is to lose all your inhibitions.

Learner example:
Secondly, parents are the closest and most easily accessible wealth of knowledge. Children lose their inhibitions and freely ask their curious questions.

inhuman /ɪnˈhjuː.mən/

Word family:
Adjectives: human, inhuman

ADJECTIVE

[C2] extremely cruel

Dictionary example:
the inhuman treatment of prisoners

Learner example:
Not very long ago, when some of us thought it wasn’t possible anymore, the same terrible inhuman mistakes as in the past [were happening].
initial /ɪˈnɪʃ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: initial, initiative
Verbs: initiate Adjectives: initial
Adverbs: initially

NOUN [C USUALLY PLURAL]
[B1] the first letter of a name, especially when used to represent a name

Dictionary examples:
He wrote his initials, P.M.R., at the bottom of the page.
Paul M. Reynolds refused to say what the initial "M" stood for.
They carved their initials into a tree.

Learner example:
It was black and my initials [were] inside it.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] first, or happening at the beginning

Dictionary examples:
My initial reaction was one of anger.
Initial reports say that seven people have died, though this has not yet been confirmed.

Learner example:
All this may seem trivial [and] unimportant to an ordinary man addicted to his TV-set, forgetting the initial impulse that made him choose this way [of life].

initially /ɪˈnɪʃ.əli/

Word family:
Nouns: initial, initiative
Verbs: initiate Adjectives: initial Adverbs: initially

ADVERB
[B2] at the beginning

Dictionary examples:
Initially, most people approved of the new scheme.
The damage was far more serious than initially believed.

Learner example:
He initially disagreed with his wife but after much persuasion, he finally gave in.
initiate /iˈnɪʃ.i.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: initial, initiative
Verbs: initiate Adjectives: initial
Adverbs: initially

VERB [t]
[C2] to make something begin

Dictionary example:
The reforms were initiated by Gorbachev.

Learner example:
He initiated a restoration of the sports centre in the town where he lives and he donates money [to] charity regularly.

---

initiative
/iˈnɪʃ.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: initial, initiative
Verbs: initiate Adjectives: initial Adverbs: initially

NOUN
NEW ACTION
[C1] [c] a plan or activity that is done to solve a problem or improve a situation

Dictionary examples:
a new government initiative to reduce crime
The peace initiative was welcomed by both sides.

Learner example:
Any government as well as grass root initiative will have an effect on pollution problems, but firstly, we need to change our society’s overall mentality.

ABILITY
[C1] [u] the ability to make decisions and do things without needing to be told what to do

Dictionary examples:
We need someone who can work on their own initiative.
I shouldn’t always have to tell you what to do – use your initiative.
She showed a lot of initiative.
Learner example:
It is difficult to judge whether you [show] more initiative than the others or not.

take the initiative
[C1] to be the first person to do something that solves a problem or improves a situation

Dictionary example:
Jackson had taken the initiative and prepared a report.

Learner example:
I took the initiative to contact Sue Wilton, who is the manager of the restaurant "El Plato".

injection /ɪnˈdʒek.ʃən/

NOUN

DRUG
[C2] when someone puts a drug into your body using a needle

Dictionary example:
an injection of insulin

Learner example:
This visit was only to be the beginning of it all, as numerous trips to the hospital, fertility clinics, pills and injections soon became a part of their lives together.

MONEY
[C2] when a large amount of money is provided for a plan, service, organization, etc.

Dictionary example:
The university has welcomed the $5 million cash injection.

Learner example:
There are few areas such as the information technology, library resources and overseas visits, that need this financial injection.

injure /ˈɪn.ʒər/

Word family:
Nouns: injury
Verbs: injure
Adjectives: injured

VERB [T]
[B1] to hurt a person, animal or part of your body
Dictionary examples:
A bomb exploded at the embassy, injuring several people.
She fell and injured her shoulder.
He was badly/seriously injured in the crash.

Learner example:
Nobody from my family was injured, so that was one good [piece] of news.

injured /ˈɪn.dʒəd/

Word family:
Nouns: injury
Verbs: injure
Adjectives: injured

ADJECTIVE
[B2] hurt or physically harmed

Dictionary example:
She was told to stay in bed to rest her injured back.

Learner example:
Zoos can take care of injured animals and help them.

injury /ˈɪn.ʤəri/

Word family:
Nouns: injury
Verbs: injure
Adjectives: injured

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] damage to someone's body in an accident or an attack

Dictionary examples:
a head/back/knee injury
a serious/slight injury
Injuries to the spine are common amongst these workers.
They were lucky to escape (without) injury.

Learner example:
Professional footballers can also have serious injuries during their life as [a] footballer.

add insult to injury
[C2] to make someone's bad situation worse by doing something else to upset them
Dictionary example:
To add insult to injury, we had to pay for the damage!

Learner example:
To add insult to injury, such an approach often turns out to be counterproductive.

---

injustice /ɪnˈdʒʌstɪs/

Word family:
- Nouns: justice, injustice
- Adjectives: just

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] a situation or action in which people are treated unfairly

Dictionary examples:
- the fight against racial injustice
- the injustices of the legal system

Learner example:
Adults enjoy the stories too, because it somehow reflects the society that we live in, and how justice is always [on] the stronger side than injustice.

---

ink /ɪŋk/

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a coloured liquid that you use for writing, printing, or drawing

Dictionary examples:
- a bottle of ink
- blue/black/red ink
- Please write in ink, not in pencil.
- The book is printed in three different coloured inks.

Learner example:
Her father had shown her once how to write with an invisible ink.

---

innate /ɪˈneɪt/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] An innate quality or ability is one that you were born with, not one you have learned.

Dictionary example:
He has an innate desire to win.
Learner example:
His innate ability to act as a motivator for other people has helped him obtain excellent leadership skills.

inner /ˈɪn.ər/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

LOCATION
[B2] on the inside or near the middle of something

Dictionary example:
Leading off the main hall is a series of small inner rooms.

Learner example:
Even in the inner city, streets are dark and don't give the feeling of safety after sunset.

FEELINGS
[B2] Inner feelings or thoughts are ones that you do not show or tell other people.

Dictionary example:
Sarah always seemed to have a deep sense of inner peace.

Learner example:
Every now and then everybody feels an inner call for changes, and one of [those] changes might be a journey somewhere in the world.

innocence /ˈɪn.a.sants/

Word family:
Nouns: innocence
Adjectives: innocent
Adverbs: innocently

NOUN [U]

NOT GUILTY
[C1] when someone is not guilty of a crime

Dictionary examples:
She pleaded her innocence, but no one believed her.
She fought to prove her son's innocence.

Learner example:
They were released after seven years in jail and were determined to prove their innocence and find the real murderer.
NOT EXPERIENCED

[C2] when someone does not have much experience of life and does not know about the bad things that happen

Dictionary examples:
the innocence of childhood
She has a childlike innocence which I find very appealing.

Learner example:
From the day we're born, our awareness of the world and its people increases. With it comes knowledge and capability but also the loss of innocence.

innocent /ˈɪn.ə.sənt/

Word family:
Nouns: innocence
Adjectives: innocent
Adverbs: innocently

ADJECTIVE

NOT GUILTY

[B2] not guilty of committing a crime

Dictionary example:
He firmly believes that she is innocent of the crime.

Learner example:
The plan works: the jury thinks that the wife is a notorious liar and her husband is found innocent.

NO EXPERIENCE

[B2] not having much experience of life and not knowing about the bad things that can happen

Dictionary example:
an innocent young woman

Learner example:
She is so innocent and doesn't understand anything which is happening around [her].

NOT DESERVED

[B2] used to emphasize that someone who was hurt had done nothing wrong

Dictionary example:
Several innocent civilians were killed in the bombing.

Learner example:
While Jem was stealing horses, his brother was a murderer of innocent people.
NOT INTENDED TO HARM

[C2] not intended to harm or upset anyone

Dictionary examples:
It was an innocent mistake.
It was an innocent comment/remark, I didn't mean to hurt his feelings.

Learner example:
On the spur of the moment, I advised him to try it and that's what turned a[n] innocent episode into a nigh[t]mare.

innocently /ˈɪn.ə.sˈnt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: innocence
Adjectives: innocent
Adverbs: innocently

ADVERB
[B2] in an innocent way

Dictionary examples:
"Have I done something wrong?" she asked innocently.
He said he had obtained the television innocently, not knowing it had been stolen.

Learner example:
Denny had innocently [turned on] the light to see if there was anything of interest in the other room.

innovation /ˌɪn.əˈveɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: innovation
Adjectives: innovative

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a new idea or method that is being tried for the first time, or the use of such ideas or methods

Dictionary example:
the latest innovations in education

Learner example:
There was a barrage of creativity and innovation rarely seen in human history.
innovative /ˈɪn.ə.və.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: innovation
Adjectives: innovative

ADJECTIVE
[C1] using new methods or ideas

Dictionary example:
an innovative approach to programme making

Learner example:
Problems like this will probably appear again and again but we have to believe that they can be solved in an innovative way.

innumerable /ɪˈnjuː.mərə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: number
Verbs: number, outnumber
Adjectives: innumerable, numerous

ADJECTIVE
[C2] very many, or too many to count

Dictionary example:
innumerable problems

Learner example:
Due to the fact that sport is given a lot of importance in Switzerland, there are innumerable facilities available.

input /ˈɪn.pʊt/

NOUN

IDEAS
[B2] [c or u] ideas, money, effort, etc. that you put into a process or activity in order to help it succeed

Dictionary example:
Input from students is used to develop new and exciting courses.

Learner example:
I could go on but my intention was to give you some input to stimulate your brain!
inquire (UK also enquire) /inˈkwaɪə/

Word family:
Nouns: inquiry
Verbs: inquire

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to ask for information

Dictionary examples:
Shall I inquire about the price of tickets?
She rang up to inquire when her car would be ready.
"Where are we going?" he inquired politely.

Learner example:
"Say Mary, when did the war beg[i]n?", inquired the old lady.

inquiry (UK also enquiry) /inˈkwaɪə.ri/

Word family:
Nouns: inquiry
Verbs: inquire

NOUN
QUESTION
[B1] [c] a question that you ask when you want more information

Dictionary example:
I've been making inquiries about/into the cost of a round-the-world ticket.

Learner example:
Dear Sue, I apologize for not responding to your letter for so long, but I didn't forget to make some inquiries relating to the job in the Water Sports Centre.

PROCESS
[C2] [c] an official process to discover the facts about something bad that has happened
Dictionary examples:
a judicial inquiry
Citizens have demanded a full inquiry into the government's handling of the epidemic.

Learner example:
I am very much surprised that such [problems] had not been foreseen by the public inquiry.

ASKING QUESTIONS
[C2] [u] FORMAL the process of asking questions in order to get information

Dictionary example:
Inquiry into the matter is pointless – no one will tell you anything.

Learner example:
Upon inquiry, it became clear it was in Tim's possession, more precisely in his diary.

insane /ɪnˈseɪn/

Word family:
Adjectives: insane, sane

ADJECTIVE

STUPID
[C1] INFORMAL very silly or stupid

Dictionary example:
an insane decision

Learner example:
It was an insane idea to accommodate me so far away from the school (approximately four miles).

ILL
[C2] seriously mentally ill

Dictionary example:
a hospital for the criminally insane

Learner example:
It seemed as if she had become insane but it was only a way of surviving an impossible situation.

insecure /ˌɪn.sɪˈkjʊər/

Word family:
Nouns: security, insecurity
Adjectives: secure, insecure
ADJECTIVE

WORRIED
[C1] having no confidence in yourself and what you can do

Dictionary example:
a shy, insecure teenager

Learner example:
People felt insecure and nervous, their morale went down.

NOT SAFE
[C2] not safe or protected

Dictionary example:
Many of our staff are worried because their jobs are insecure.

insecurity /ˌɪn.sɪˈkjʊə.rə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: security, insecurity
Adjectives: secure, insecure

NOUN [U]
[C2] the state of not being confident or not feeling safe

Dictionary example:
We have to live with the insecurity of not knowing if we'll still have a job next week.

Learner example:
Many of us have experienced moments of insecurity when everything seems so big and new that you wonder if you can deal with all the pressure or whether you will eventually manage to adapt to the situation at hand.

insensitive /ɪnˈsen.sə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: sensitivity
Adjectives: sensitive, insensitive

ADJECTIVE

PEOPLE
[C1] not noticing or not caring about other people's feelings

Dictionary examples:
an insensitive remark
He was completely insensitive to Maria's feelings.
Learner example:
This way of thinking is very important because a person who spends a lot of time alone can become self-centred and insensitive to others.

inseparable  /ɪnˈsep.ə.rə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: separation
- Verbs: separate
- Adjectives: separate, inseparable
- Adverbs: separately

ADJECTIVE

THINGS
[C2] FORMAL Two things that are inseparable are so closely connected that you cannot consider them separately.

Dictionary example:
Rossetti's work was inseparable from his life.

Learner example:
The memory and the experience you have [of] the object create a special bond between you and the object, and the bond makes you inseparable from the object because you are inseparable from the memory.

FRIENDS
[C2] People who are inseparable are always together because they are such good friends.

Dictionary example:
The two girls got on very well and soon became inseparable.

Learner example:
We were inseparable pals playing th[at] favo[u]rite game of ours day and night.

insert  /ɪnˈsɜː.t/

VERB [ɪ] FORMAL

PUT INTO
[C1] to put something into something else

Dictionary example:
Insert the coin in the slot.
Learner example:
You just insert the CD-ROM; [the] rest will [happen] automatically.

ADD TO WRITING
[C1] to add something to the middle of a document or piece of writing

Dictionary example:
He inserted a new paragraph.

Learner example:
In the future it will be possible to buy paintings via the internet. The prices will be inserted under each painting.

---

Inside

PREPOSITION /ɪnˈsайд/

TIME
[C2] in less than a particular length of time

Dictionary example:
The doctor's promised to be here inside an hour.

Learner example:
You can reach two stations on the tube-line seven inside 10 minutes; in addition there are two bus-stops even closer.

ADVERB /ɪnˈsайд/

FEELING
[B2] If you have a feeling inside, you have a feeling although you might not show it to other people.

Dictionary example:
She couldn't cope with the grief she felt inside.

Learner example:
They had to go to the vet more often but it wasn't hard for them because of the love that they felt inside.

ADJECTIVE [ ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] /ˈɪn.said/

UNDER SURFACE
[B2] in or on the part of something under its surface

Dictionary example:
He put the documents carefully in his inside pocket.
Learner example:
At first Chris didn’t seem to recognize him, but as soon as he did, his hand reached [into] his inside pocket.

inside information/knowledge, etc.
[C2] information that is only known by people who are part of an organization, group, etc.

Dictionary example:
I needed someone with inside knowledge to back up my story.

Learner example:
I'm pretty sure that getting in touch with the customs and lifestyle of another country will open a completely new horizon to the students and they'll be enchanted by the 'inside knowledge' they will be able to gain.

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] ˈɪn.saɪd/INNER PART
[B2] the inner part, space or side of something

Dictionary examples:
Did you clean the inside of the car?
The hotel looked shabby from the street, but it was fine on the inside.

Learner example:
Anyway, after the show I felt hungry so I went to the restaurant but it was closed because they were having the inside altered.

inside out
[B2] If a piece of clothing is inside out, the part that is usually outside is on the inside.

Dictionary example:
She had her jumper on inside out.

know sth inside out
[C1] to know everything about something

Dictionary example:
He knows the system inside out.

Learner example:
The participants got to know Britain inside out and they are happy with the knowledge they gained.
insight /ˈɪn.sərt/

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] the ability to understand what something is really like, or an example of this

Dictionary examples:
The book gives a fascinating insight into the world of art.
This new research provides many insights into customer behaviour.
Children sometimes show remarkable insight when it comes to adult problems.

Learner example:
Special courses were offered, which provided deep insights into fascinating topics – they were great fun.

insignificant /ˌɪn.sɪgˈnɪf.ɪ.kənt/

Word family:
Nouns: significance
Adjectives: significant, insignificant
Adverbs: significantly

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not important or large enough to consider or worry about

Dictionary example: insignificant differences

Learner example:
Second, the "sudden downpour of rain" you reported and which "ruined" the show was actually a short and insignificant one that only lasted a few minutes.

insist /ɪnˈsɪst/

VERB [I]

DEMAND
[B1] to demand that something must be done or that you must have a particular thing

Dictionary examples:
The school insists on good behaviour from its students.
She insisted on seeing her lawyer.
Please go first – I insist!
Learner example:
But if they insist, you should listen to them because our parents love us and they want the best for us.

SAY FIRMLY

[B2] to say firmly that something is true

Dictionary example:
Greg still insists (that) he did nothing wrong.

Learner example:
Mrs McGillicuddy saw a woman being strangled on a train and, in spite of everybody seeming not to believe her, she insisted that she was right and, with her friend's help, proved it.

insofar as /ɪnˌsəʊˈfɑːrˌəz/

CONJUNCTION (in so far as) FORMAL [C2] to the degree that

Dictionary example:
The story is based insofar as possible on notes made by Scott himself.

Learner example:
Consequently the cited statement is definitely true but understates its point insofar as it neglects any time horizon.

insomnia /ɪnˈsɒm.ni.ə/

NOUN [u]
[C2] when you find it difficult to sleep

Dictionary example:
Many people suffer from insomnia.

Learner example:
If we take the example of the politicians, we will find that those who are honest are the ones who suffer from insomnia (caused by threats and worries) while the most corrupt ones are safe asleep.

inspect /ɪnˈspekt/

Word family:
Nouns: inspector, inspection
Verbs: inspect
VERB [t]

[C1] to look at something or someone carefully in order to discover information, especially about their quality or condition

Dictionary examples:
After the crash, both drivers got out and inspected their cars for damage.
She held the bank note up to the light and inspected it carefully.

Learner example:
I invite you to inspect our facilities so that you can persuade yourself about the lack of equipment.

---

inspection /ɪnˈspek.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: inspector, inspection
Verbs: inspect

NOUN [C or U]

OFFICIAL

[C1] an official visit to a building or organization to check that everything is correct and legal

Dictionary example:
Fire officers carried out an inspection of the building.

Learner example:
The location was just fine but I suggest that you make an inspection. You would then see what I mean... The rooms were very dirty, there was no lift in the hotel and service was poor.

EXAMINATION

[C2] when you look at something carefully

Dictionary example:
On closer inspection, the painting was discovered to be a fake.

---

inspector /ɪnˈspekt.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: inspector, inspection
Verbs: inspect

NOUN [C]

PERSON WHO INSPECTS

[B2] someone whose job is to check that things are being done correctly
Dictionary examples:
a tax inspector
a school inspector/an inspector of schools

Learner example:
In the middle of the exam the inspector came in and asked me some questions for fun.

POLICE

[B2] a police officer of middle rank

Learner example:
As you know I am a police inspector.

inspiration /ˌɪn.spɪˈreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: inspiration
Verbs: inspire

NOUN

IDEAS

[B2] [c or u] someone or something that gives you ideas for doing something

Dictionary examples:
The golden autumn light provided the inspiration for the painting.
He went to church, perhaps seeking divine inspiration.

Learner example:
Working with children makes me happy and gives me inspiration.

be an inspiration to sb

[C2] to be so good that someone else admires you and is encouraged by your behaviour

Dictionary example:
The way she has dealt with her illness is an inspiration to us all.

Learner example:
She will always be an inspiration to me for her great strength, knowledge and courage.

GOOD IDEA

[C2] [c] a sudden good idea about what you should do

Dictionary example:
I've had an inspiration about Andy's birthday present.
inspire /ɪnˈspaɪə/

Word family:
Nouns: inspiration
Verbs: inspire

VERB [T]

ENCOURAGE

[B2] to make someone feel that they want to do something and can do it

Dictionary example:
A drama teacher at school had inspired Sam to become an actor.

Learner example:
This has inspired me to finally write to you and ask if there is a possibility for me to join the painting course this spring.

FEELING

[B2] to make someone have a particular feeling or reaction

Dictionary example:
He inspires great loyalty in his staff.

Learner example:
In today’s world where everybody is selfish, it is hard to find a person to admire, a [role] model to be inspired by.

PROVIDE IDEA

[B2] to give someone an idea for a book, play, painting, etc.

Dictionary example:
This television drama was inspired by a true story.

Learner example:
Most of her books are inspired by her life in Bulgaria and the adventures she [had] herself.

install (UK also instal) /ɪnˈstoːl/

Word family:
Nouns: installation
Verbs: install

VERB [T]

COMPUTER

[B1] to put a computer program onto a computer so that the computer can use it

Dictionary example:
Andrew, can you help me install this software?
Learner example:
We have learned how to install components like a Soundboard or a CD-Rom drive.

EQUIPMENT

[B1] to put a piece of equipment somewhere and make it ready for use

Dictionary example:
The plumber is coming tomorrow to install the new washing machine.

Learner example:
On my third day I helped them to install the sound system.

Installation /ˌɪn.ʃtəˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: installation
Verbs: install

NOUN

EQUIPMENT

[C1] [u] the process of putting new equipment into position

Dictionary example:
Do you have to pay extra for installation?

Learner example:
Last but not least, students asked for the installation of a beverage machine – that would be really convenient for them.

SOFTWARE

[C1] [u] the process of putting a computer program onto a computer

Dictionary example:
the installation of new software

Learner example:
Personally, I believe that the installation of the Japanese Word version could considerably improve the efficiency of my work.

instance /ˈɪn.stənts/

NOUN

for instance

[B1] for example
Dictionary example:
In the electronics industry, for instance, 5000 jobs are being lost.

Learner example:
For instance, you can do mountain walks.

EXAMPLE
[C1] [c] an example of a particular type of event, situation, or behaviour

Dictionary example:
There have been several instances of violence in the school.

Learner example:
There may be instances when the situation is exactly the opposite, but in this case, it was the way that my friend's sister was brought up that triumphed.

instant /ˈɪn.stənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: instant
Adverbs: instantly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] happening immediately, without any delay

Dictionary examples:
This type of account offers you instant access to your money.
Contrary to expectations, the film was an instant success.

Learner example:
Therefore, the reception should be functional for students, that is, the students should get [an] instant answer when they have a question.

instantly /ˈɪn.stənt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: instant
Adverbs: instantly

ADVERB
[B2] immediately

Dictionary example:
Both drivers were killed instantly.

Learner example:
To talk to a friend from another city or country instantly online is really nice and exciting.
instead of

PREPOSITION

[B1] in place of

Dictionary examples:
You can go instead of me, if you want.
We should book the flights now instead of waiting until next week.

Learner example:
I had to admit that I would prefer to go with my friends and I decided to go with them instead of being with my parents.

Instinct /ˈɪn.stɪŋkt/

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] the way someone naturally reacts or behaves, without having to think or learn about it

Dictionary example:
a mother's instinct to protect her children

Learner example:
It is at that point you realise that your desire of socialising and being accepted and respected by society is in fact stronger than that of following your own instincts.

Institute /ˈɪn.stɪ.tjuːt/

NOUN [C]

[B2] an organization where people do a particular kind of scientific, educational or social work, or the buildings which it uses

Dictionary example:
the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Learner example:
With this jump she would raise money for a cancer institute in London.
institution /ˌɪn.stɪˈtjuː.ʃən/

NOUN [C]

ORGANIZATION
[B2] a large and important organization, such as a university or bank

Dictionary examples:
a medical/educational/financial institution
Oxford and Cambridge universities are internationally respected institutions.

Learner example:
Firstly, it's important to gain information about the institution where we want to work.

PLACE
[B2] a building where people are sent so they can be looked after, for example a prison or a hospital

Dictionary example:
a young offenders' institution

Learner example:
I was working for a social institution that looks after poor children.

TRADITION
[C2] a custom that has existed for a long time

Dictionary example:
the institution of marriage

Learner example:
Nowadays, the institution of marriage seems to be coming back into fashion, and many youngsters who regard themselves as mature experience wedlock at an increasingly early age.

instruct /ɪnˈstrʌkt/

Word family:
Nouns: instruction, instructor
Verbs: instruct

VERB [T]

ORDER
[C1] to officially tell someone to do something

Dictionary example:
Staff are instructed not to use the telephones for personal calls.
Learner example:
When workers began to threaten [to] strike, about twenty days ago, people were instructed on how to tackle such an occurrence – you know, we are well organised and like to have emergency plans for any danger.

TEACH

[C2] to teach someone about something

Dictionary example:
She is there to instruct people in the safe use of the gym equipment.

Learner example:
He instructed her in Chinese boxing, pretending that she was a male, and she spent five years of her childhood performing hard exercises, while Mui was playing with other girls.

Instruction /ɪnˈstrʌkʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: instruction, instructor
Verbs: instruct

TEACHING/TRAINING

[C2] [u] the activity of teaching or training someone, or the information you are being taught

Dictionary example:
religious instruction

Learner example:
Notwithstanding, he shared not only his happiness, but also his money, contributing to the formation of an institution that has helped many children and adolescents from lower classes, by providing a wide range of sports activities coupled with educational instruction.

TELL

[C2] [c] something that someone tells you to do

Dictionary examples:
The police who broke into the house were only acting on/under instructions.
He gave me strict instructions to get there by eight.

Learner example:
I have given strict instructions to Mr. Jones that expenditures are to be at a minimum, and that the parameters defined in our budget must be stric[t]ly adhered to.
instructor /ɪnˈstrʌk.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: instruction, instructor
Verbs: instruct

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who teaches a particular sport or activity

Dictionary example:
a driving instructor

Learner example:
There are professional instructors working in this club.

instrument /ˈɪn.strə.mənt/

NOUN [c]

TOOL
[C1] a tool that is used for doing something

Dictionary example:
scientific instruments

Learner example:
You can also see Roman medical instruments and tools, for example a pioneer axe and different knives.

FOR ACHIEVING SOMETHING
[C2] someone or something that is used for achieving something

Dictionary example:
The Internet is a very powerful instrument of communication.

Learner example:
This mechanical dog, harmless when not powered, is an instrument of repression and terror.

insufficient /ˌɪn.səˈfɪʃ.ənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: sufficient, insufficient, self-sufficient Adverbs: sufficiently

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not enough
Dictionary examples:
insufficient information
Her income is insufficient to support a family.

Learner example:
In contrast to your brochure, we did not have any special [entertainment] at the hotel and the dinner was insufficient in terms of not only its quality but also the quantity.

insult

NOUN [c] /ˈɪn.sʌlt/

RUDE REMARK
[B2] a rude and offensive remark or action

Dictionary example:
They were shouting insults at each other.

Learner example:
Joko’s mother would hurl insults at the poor old man, calling him sick and [hoping] that he’d die soon.

add insult to injury
[C2] to make someone’s bad situation worse by doing something else to upset them

Dictionary example:
To add insult to injury, we had to pay for the damage!

Learner example:
To add insult to injury, such an approach often turns out to be counterproductive.

VERB [t] /ɪnˈsʌlt/
[B2] to say or do something to someone that is rude and offensive

Dictionary example:
How dare you insult me in front of my friends!

Learner example:
After all, [in] insulting the performers you insult their fans...

insurance /ɪnˈʃɔː.rənts/

NOUN [u]
[B2] an agreement in which you pay a company money and they pay your costs if you have an accident, injury, etc.
Dictionary examples:
life/health/car/travel insurance
I'll need to take out extra car insurance for another driver.
The insurance doesn't cover you for household items.

Learner example:
Lastly, could you please tell me what kind of clothes I should prepare and [whether] I have to buy insurance myself?

Intact /ɪnˈtækt/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not damaged or destroyed

Dictionary example:
Many of the old buildings are still intact.

Learner example:
I am fortunate that my grandmother kept it intact in her attic until I discovered it two years ago.

Integral /ˈɪn.tɪ.grəl/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] necessary and important as part of something

Dictionary example:
The Internet has become an integral part of modern life.

Learner example:
Over the last few years, computers have become an integral part of our lives.

Integrate /ˈɪn.tɪ.greɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: integration
Verbs: integrate

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to become part of a group or society, or to help someone do this

Dictionary example:
After a few weeks of training he was fully integrated into the team.

Learner example:
I am [a] determined, spont[ane]ous person and I have the ability to integrate well.
integration /ˌɪn.tɪˈgreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: integration

Verbs: integrate

NOUN [u]

[C1] when things or people are mixed, joined or combined

Dictionary example:
cultural integration

Learner example:
This may be explained by the increasing number of exchanges in the European Union, and the stronger economic integration of European Countries.

---

integrity /ɪnˈteg.rə.ti/

NOUN [u]

[C2] honesty and the ability to do or know what is morally right

Dictionary example:
a woman of great integrity

Learner example:
This growing shopping mania is also said to create an increasingly materialistic society, hence, our children grow up forgetting the basic values of life – simplicity, integrity, humility and plain hard work.

---

Intelect /ˈɪn.tɛl.ekt/

Word family:

Nouns: intellect, intellectual

Adjectives: intellectual

Adverbs: intellectually

NOUN [c or u]

[C2] the ability to learn and understand something, and to form ideas, judgments, and opinions about what you have learned

Dictionary example:
His energy and intellect are respected by many people.

Learner example:
When I am alone, or in "qualified" company, I may listen to music of a sort that appeals to my intellect as much as to my emotions.
intellectual /ˌɪn.təˈlɛk.tju.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: intellect, intellectual Adjectives: intellectual Adverbs: intellectually

ADJECTIVE

THOUGHT
[B2] relating to your ability to think and to understand things, especially complicated ideas

Dictionary examples:
intellectual and physical development
I like detective stories and romances – nothing too intellectual.

Learner example:
First of all, I don't think your programme needs any improvement: in my opinion, your selection of films is already very satisfying because it includes both spectacular Hollywood movies and intellectual films.

INTERESTED IN IDEAS
[C2] interested in learning and in thinking about complicated ideas

Dictionary example:
She's very intellectual.

Learner example:
He made a good impression on her from the beginning, dressed in a dark blue evening suit, with a patterned bow tie, glimmering leather shoes and flashing spectacles that made him look very intellectual.

NOUN
[C2] someone who enjoys studying and thinking about complicated ideas

Dictionary example:
She was a real intellectual.

Learner example:
As an intellectual and thinker (the glasses Piggy wears stand for these attributes), he is admired by Ralph, the chief.

intellectually /ˌɪn.təˈlɛk.tjə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: intellect, intellectual Adjectives: intellectual Adverbs: intellectually

1540
ADVERB
[C2] in a way that relates to your ability to think and to understand things

Dictionary example:
She's hoping to find a job which is more demanding intellectually.

Learner example:
Some people complain that they do not have enough time to develop intellectually when they are in their 20s or 30s because they have to take care of their small children.

intelligence /ɪnˈtel.ɪ.dʒəntʃəs/

Word family:
Nouns: intelligence
Adjectives: intelligent

NOUN [U]
[B2] the ability to learn, understand and think about things

Dictionary examples:
an intelligence test
a child of high/average/low intelligence
It's the intelligence of her writing that impresses me.

Learner example:
The dominant [species] among animals are pigs with their superior intelligence.

intelligent /ɪnˈtel.ɪ.dʒənt/

Word family:
Nouns: intelligence
Adjectives: intelligent

ADJECTIVE
[B1] showing intelligence, or able to learn and understand things easily

Dictionary examples:
a highly intelligent young man an intelligent remark
Helen had a few intelligent things to say on the subject.

Learner example:
I've met my English teacher – she's very friendly and, I think, very intelligent.
intend /ɪnˈtend/

Word family:
Nouns: intention, intent
Verbs: intend
Adjectives: intent

VERB [T]

HAVE PLAN
[B1] to have as a plan or purpose

Dictionary examples:
We intend to go to Australia next year.
Somehow I offended him, which wasn't what I'd intended.
I don't think she intended me to hear the remark.
It was intended as a compliment, honestly!

Learner example:
I intend to invite many friends who were in [the] same university, but nobody knows this news, so I want to surprise them.

be intended for
[C1] to be made, designed, or provided for a particular person or purpose

Dictionary examples:
The book is intended for anyone who wants to learn more about the Internet.
The course is intended for intermediate-level students.

Learner example:
The course is intended for business people who don't have English as their mother tongue.

intense /ɪnˈtens/
Learner example:
Most of the rooms we stayed in did not have air-conditioning, which caused many sleepless nights for the majority of us due to the intense heat.

SERIOUS
[C2] Intense people are very serious, and usually have strong emotions or opinions.

Dictionary example:
He's always been very intense.

Learner example:
I admire people with heart and soul, with that real charisma which can only blossom in highly intelligent and spiritual people – this is what we call 'intense personality'.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Intensely /ɪnˈten.sli/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
- Nouns: intensity
- Verbs: intensify
- Adjectives: intense
- Adverbs: intensely

ADVERB

VERY
[C2] extremely

Dictionary example:
Her book is intensely personal.

Learner example:
Finally it was settled: they were both fertile; still able to have the child they had longed for so intensely.

SERIOUSLY
[C2] with strong, serious emotions

Dictionary example:
She stared at me intensely.

Learner example:
She caressed the frame with great tenderness and, after looking intensely at the picture, embraced it passionately.
intensify /ɪnˈten.sɪ.fAI/

Word family:

Nouns: intensity

Verbs: intensify

Adjectives: intense

Adverbs: intensely

VERB [I or T]

[C2] to become greater, more serious, or more extreme, or to make something do this

Dictionary example:
The fighting has intensified in the last two weeks.

Learner example:
This feeling is intensified when the relationship between Jack and Ralph develops to antagonism.

---

intensity /ɪnˈten.sə.ti/

Word family:

Nouns: intensity

Verbs: intensify

Adjectives: intense

Adverbs: intensely

NOUN [U]

[C2] the quality of being felt strongly or having a very strong effect

Dictionary example:
the intensity of the blaze

Learner example:
As soon as a ray of light reaches the inside of the seashell, it sparkles with an intensity that nearly hurts your eye.

---

intensive /ɪnˈten.tɪv/

Word family:

Adjectives: intensive

Adverbs: intensively

ADJECTIVE

[B2] involving a lot of effort or activity in a short period of time
Dictionary examples:
two weeks of intensive training an intensive course in English
Intensive bombing had reduced the city to rubble.

Learner example:
I am 23 years old and speak English fluently due to my intensive study of the language.

intensively /ɪnˈten.sɪv.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: intensive Adverbs: intensively

ADVERB
[C1] in way that involves a lot of work in a short period of time

Dictionary example:
I spent three weeks working intensively on my thesis.

Learner example:
The canteen gets very busy and noisy at lunchtimes, but we all enjoy chatting to our friend after intensively studying in the classes.

intent /ɪnˈtent/

Word family:
Nouns: intention, intent
Verbs: intend
Adjectives: intent

NOUN FORMAL

PLAN
[C2] [U NO PLURAL] when you want and plan to do something

Dictionary example:
It had not been his intent to hurt anyone.

Learner example:
Perhaps I sound a bit critical but that [is] not my intent.

to all intents and purposes
[C2] in all the most important ways

Dictionary example:
To all intents and purposes, the project was a disaster.
Learner example:
To all intents and purposes, the qualities needed to achieve success are based on the same ideas.

ADJECTIVE

be intent on sth/doing sth
[C2] to be determined to do or achieve something

Dictionary example:
She seems intent on winning this year's tennis tournament.

Learner example:
Why are [the] government so intent on solving this problem, why is it so important?

intention /ɪnˈten.tʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: intention, intent
Verbs: intend
Adjectives: intent

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] something that you want and plan to do

Dictionary examples:
It wasn't my intention to exclude her from the list – I just forgot her.
I've no intention of changing my plans just to fit in with his.
He's full of good intentions, but he never does anything about them!

Learner example:
I was very pleased to hear from your club, because it was always my intention to join such a group and make music with other people.

interact /ˌɪnt.əˈrækt/

Word family:
Nouns: interaction
Verbs: interact
Adjectives: interactive

VERB [I]
[B2] to talk and do things with other people

Dictionary example:
At school, teachers said he interacted well with other students.

Learner example:
People say that when you use a computer you get addicted and don't interact with people.
interaction /ˌɪnt.əˈræk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: interaction
Verbs: interact
Adjectives: interactive

NOUN [c]
[C1] the activity of talking and doing things with other people, or the way you do this

Dictionary example:
Our work involves a lot of interaction with the customers.

Learner example:
The interaction between the different groups in the Big Brother house is also very entertaining.

interactive /ˌɪn.təˈræk.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: interaction
Verbs: interact
Adjectives: interactive

ADJECTIVE

COMPUTER GAMES
[B2] Interactive computer games, programs, etc. involve the user by reacting to the way they use them.

Dictionary examples:
an interactive game
This is an interactive museum where children can actively manipulate the exhibits.

Learner example:
In addition, you can play with several interactive game[s] and learn about the rules of the Olympic Games.

COMMUNICATION
[C1] involving communication between people

Dictionary example:
interactive teaching methods

Learner example:
Our special special temporary membership offer is just right for people who want to enjoy their holidays in a more social and interactive way.
interest  /ˈɪn.trəst/

Word family:
Nouns: interest
Adjectives: interested, interesting, uninterested, uninteresting
Adverbs: interestingly

NOUN

FEELING

[B1] [U NO PLURAL] the feeling of wanting to give your attention to something or of wanting to discover more about it

Dictionary examples:
I've always had an interest in astronomy.
He never seems to show any interest in his children.
Unfortunately, I lost interest half way through the film.
She takes more of an interest in politics these days.
Just out of interest, how old is your wife?

Learner example:
Well, really I don't have much interest in clothes.

ACTIVITY/SUBJECT

[B1] [C OFTEN PLURAL] something that you enjoy doing, studying or experiencing

Dictionary example:
On his form he lists his interests as cycling, the cinema and cooking.

Learner example:
In your next letter tell me about your hobbies and interests.

QUALITY

[B1] [U] the quality that makes you think that something is interesting

Dictionary example:
Would this book be of any interest to you?

Learner example:
We visited the Eiffel Tower and lots of other places of interest.

MONEY CHARGED

[C1] [U] money which is charged by a bank or other financial organization for borrowing money

Dictionary example:
Interest charges on an overdraft are usually quite high.

Learner example:
Extremely high interest rates and high unemployment were a fatal combination for many families.
MONEY EARNED
[C1] [u] money that you earn from keeping your money in an account in a bank or other financial organization

Dictionary example:
You should put the money in a savings account where it will earn interest.

be in sb's interest(s)
[C1] to help someone and give them an advantage

Dictionary example:
It may not be in your interests to change jobs so soon.

Learner example:
It is in my interests to meet new people and I find it easy to go and talk to people I do not know.

in the interest(s) of sth
[C2] in order to achieve a particular situation or quality

Dictionary example:
In the interest of safety, passengers are advised to wear their seat belts at all times.

Learner example:
First of all, do make sure that the front door is always locked. In the interests of everybody's security, it is essential to remember [this].

ADVANTAGE
[C2] [c or u] something that gives someone or something an advantage

Dictionary example:
A union looks after the interests of its members.

Learner example:
I realize that you are trying to serve your customers the best way you can, but you might want to consider the interests of the people who live in this area.

a conflict of interest
[C2] a situation where someone cannot make fair decisions because they are influenced by something

Dictionary example:
She resigned from the committee because of a conflict of interest.

Learner example:
It could become a conflict of interest, but he never lets it.

VERB [v]
[B1] If someone or something interests you, you want to give them your attention and discover more about them.

Dictionary example:
Sport has never really interested me.
Learner example:
Fortunately I saw an advertisement for a job in the local newspaper that might interest you.

Interestingly /ˈɪn.trə.strɪŋ.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: interest
- Adjectives: interested, interesting, uninterested, uninteresting
- Adverbs: interestingly

ADVERB

[C1] used to introduce information that you think is surprising and interesting

Dictionary example:
Interestingly, he never actually said that he was innocent.

Learner example:
Russians today prefer fast food due to a rapid lifestyle. Interestingly, this refers only to lunch time; about 80% of Russians will prefer eating a traditional Russian meal for dinner.

Interfere /ˌɪnt.əˈfɪər/

Word family:
- Nouns: interference
- Verbs: interfere

VERB [i]

TRY TO CONTROL

[B2] to try to control or become involved in a situation, in a way that is annoying

Dictionary examples:
I know he's worried about us, but I wish he wouldn't interfere.
You shouldn't interfere in other people's business.

Learner example:
I would like to stress that very often famous people become reserved, bad-tempered and angry with the world for interfering in their lives.

CAUSE PROBLEMS

[C1] to prevent something from working effectively or from developing successfully

Dictionary example:
I try not to let my dancing classes interfere with my schoolwork.

Learner example:
We realise this activity would interfere with our visit to the Science Museum, but we, in exchange, would gladly give up our free time on Wednesday to perform the programme completely.
interference /ˌɪn.təˈfɪə.rənts/

Word family:
Nouns: interference
Verbs: interfere

NOUN [u]

SITUATION
[C1] when someone tries to interfere in a situation

Dictionary example:
There have been claims of too much political interference in education.

Learner example:
The famous have all their gestures watched and judged. How can anyone live with so much interference?

ELECTRONIC SIGNAL
[C2] noise or other electronic signals that stop you from getting good pictures or sound on a television or radio

Dictionary example:
The storm caused a lot of interference.

Learner example:
Furthermore, my husband is quite angry because as the aircrafts fly so low, they touch the antenna causing an interference either on the television or on the radio.

interim /ˈɪn.tər.ɪm/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] temporary and intended to be used or accepted until something permanent exists

Dictionary examples:
an interim solution an interim government interior /ɪnˈtɪə.ri.ər/

Dictionary examples:
The estate agent had pictures of the house from the outside but none of its interior.
The car's interior is very impressive – wonderful leather seats and a wooden dashboard.

Learner example:
The interior is quite modern and clean.

intermediate /ˌɪn.təˈmiː.di.ət/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] between the highest and lowest levels of knowledge or skill

Dictionary examples:
There are three levels of difficulty in this game: low, intermediate and high.
This novel is too difficult for intermediate students of English.

Learner example:
My level is intermediate.

internal /ɪnˈtɜː.nəl/

Word family:
Adjectives: internal
Adverbs: internally

ADJECTIVE
[B2] existing or happening inside a person, object, organization, place or country

Dictionary examples:
He sustained injuries to his arms, legs and several internal organs.
The bank conducted its own internal investigation into the robbery.
The government warned its neighbours not to interfere in its internal affairs.

Learner example:
The letter box for internal post should be hung on the wall, so that pupils could make any suggestions about [the] school, or even complaints, directly to reception.

internally /ɪnˈtɜː.nə.l.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: internal
Adverbs: internally

ADVERB
[C1] inside a person, object, organization, place or country
Dictionary example:
This medicine is for external use only and should not be taken internally.

Learner example:
I am actually very interested in taking the course, because recently I have change[d] my job and one of my functions is to create a page on the intranet to share information about the company internally.

internationally /ˌɪn.təˈnæʃ.əˈn.əli/

Word family:
Adjectives: international Adverbs: internationally

ADVERB
[B1] in many countries

Dictionary example:
Her internationally acclaimed novel has won several literary prizes.

Learner example:
This film was directed by Yasujino-Ozo, who is internationally famous, although his film is very Japanese.

interpret /ɪnˈtɜː.prət/

Word family:
Nouns: interpretation, misinterpretation
Verbs: interpret, misinterpret

VERB
LANGUAGE
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to change what someone has said into a different language

Dictionary example:
We had to ask the guide to interpret for us.

Learner example:
My boss decided it [wa]s high time I tried to interpret for him outside our office.

DECIDE MEANING
[C1] [ɪ] to decide what the intended meaning of something is

Dictionary examples:
It’s difficult to interpret these statistics without knowing how they were obtained.
A jury should not interpret the silence of a defendant as a sign of guilt.
Learner example:
Musicians try to interpret it, but admittedly they will never find the whole meaning of it.

interpretation /ɪnˌtɜː.prɪˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: interpretation, misinterpretation
Verbs: interpret, misinterpret

NOUN

EXPLANATION

[C2] an explanation or opinion of what something means

Dictionary example:
traditional interpretations of the Latin text

Learner example:
Yet this raises the question of the actual effect travel has on our understanding and interpretation of the world outside our country, as well as on the idea we have of our country itself.

STORY/MUSIC

[C2] the way someone performs a particular play, piece of music, etc.

Dictionary example:
a beautiful interpretation of Swan Lake

Learner example:
Every time I think of this memorable day, I wish I could thank my host-family over and over again since then – little did I know that I would be accepted at Paris’ Conservatory a few months later, thanks to my interpretation of Mozart’s concerto!

interrupt /ˌɪn.təˈrʌpt/

Word family:
Nouns: interruption
Verbs: interrupt

VERB

STOP SPEAKING

[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to stop someone while they are talking or doing something, by saying or doing something yourself

Dictionary examples:
She tried to explain what had happened but he kept interrupting her.
I wish you’d stop interrupting.
Learner example:
Her thoughts were interrupted by Ben, who asked if she wanted to go for a walk with him.

STOP HAPPENING
[B2] [ɪ] to stop something from happening for a short period

Dictionary example:
We had to interrupt our trip when we heard John's mother was ill.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, I am studying at university and I can't afford to interrupt my studies.

interruption /ˌɪntəˈrʌpʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: interruption

Verbs: interrupt

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when an action or activity is interrupted, or something that interrupts someone or something

Dictionary example:
There were so many interruptions, I couldn't get on with my work.

Learner example:
I stayed two or three minutes in the darkness thinking that it was only a [brief] interruption, but it was not the case.

interval /ˈɪntə.vəl/

NOUN [C]

THEATRE
[B1] a short period of time between the parts of a play, performance, etc.

Dictionary example:
The show “Zorro” had only one interval of 20 minutes.

Learner example:
During the interval I [wanted to] drink coffee in [the] theatre restaurant, [but] it was closed.

TIME
[C2] a period of time between two actions, activities, or events

Dictionary example:
After an interval of three days, the peace talks resumed.
Learner example:
When we adopt this perspective, we witness history becoming en[mesh]ed with our present and future, as all cyclical events repeat themselves at regular intervals.

intervene /ˌɪn.təˈviːn/

Word family:
Nouns: intervention
Verbs: intervene

VERB [i]
[C2] to become involved in a situation in order to try to stop a fight, argument, problem, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Government officials refused to intervene in the recent disputes.
Harris intervened to stop the attack.

Learner example:
While an old cynic like Bismarck might not have approved of intervening in the Balkans, even he should see the point of this.

intervention /ˌɪn.təˈven.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: intervention
Verbs: intervene

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when someone intervenes, especially to influence what happens

Dictionary example:
Without medical intervention, the child would have died.

Learner example:
I write to seek your intervention in a matter that has seriously impacted on the reputation of your retail business.

interview /ˈɪn.tə.vjuː/

NOUN [C]

FOR JOB
[B1] a meeting in which someone asks you questions to see if you are suitable for a job or course
Dictionary examples:
a job interview
I had an interview for a job with a publishing firm.

Learner example:
I have to go [to] a job interview which I'm looking forward [to].

FOR ARTICLE/TV, ETC.
[B1] a meeting in which someone is asked questions about themselves for a newspaper article, television show, etc

Dictionary examples:
an exclusive interview with Paul Simon
In a television interview last night she denied she had any intention of resigning.

Learner example:
I especially enjoyed [the] Roberto Carlos interview, did you know he use[d] to be a striker?

VERB [T]
[B1] to ask someone questions in an interview

Dictionary examples:
We've had 200 applicants for the job, but we only plan to interview about 20 of them.
Who's the most famous person you've ever interviewed on TV?

Learner example:
We had to interview our partner and to present him to the class.

Intimate /ˈɪn.tɪm.ət/

ADJECTIVE

PRIVATE
[C2] private and personal

Dictionary examples:
intimate details of her family life intimate conversations

Learner example:
Finally, we have to take into consideration that cultural and educational development opens the path for learning and becoming conscious of our intimate feelings and personality and helps us to become better people.

RELATIONSHIP
[C2] having a special relationship with someone who you like or love very much

Dictionary example:
an intimate friend
Learner example:
Finally, before 5 am the couple leaves the party (in desperate need of [rest]) and so do their intimate friends and family.

SMALL
[C2] If a place or event is intimate, it is small in a way that feels comfortable or private.

Dictionary example:
an intimate hotel

Learner example:
The dining room is small and intimate, allowing a relaxed and personal atmosphere, which is highlighted by the soft, Indian background music and the dimmed lights.

an intimate knowledge/understanding of sth
[C2] when you know all of the facts about something or about how it works

Dictionary example:
He has an intimate knowledge of the area.

Learner example:
The fact that Sinclair spend[s] most of his weekends hiking is easily understood through his intimate knowledge of wilderness lore, of which tidbits pop up now and then in the text.

into /ˈɪn.tuː/
PREPOSITION
HIT
[B1] moving towards something or someone and hitting them

Dictionary example:
He's always walking into things when he hasn't got his glasses on.

Learner example:
Then I bumped into a man... What a surprise! [It] was Thom Yorke.

TOWARDS
[B1] in the direction of something or someone

Dictionary example:
She was looking straight into his eyes.

Learner example:
I turned around and looked into the eyes of my favourite football player Timo Hildebrand.

be into sth
[B1] INFORMAL to be very interested in something
Dictionary example:
Will’s really into jazz.

Learner example:
I think I’m going to buy the ‘Grind’ movie because it’s about skateboarding and you know I’m really into skateboarding.

into the bargain
[C2] as well as everything else

Dictionary example:
Caffeine has no good effects on health and is mildly addictive into the bargain.

Learner example:
The Open Air Museum is unique, with vast numbers of old houses; you can roam there for days and receive history lessons into the bargain.

intolerable /ɪnˈtɒlərəbl/

Word family:
Nouns: intolerance, tolerance
Verbs: tolerate
Adjectives: intolerable, intolerant, tolerant

ADJECTIVE
[C2] too bad or unpleasant to deal with or accept

Dictionary examples:
an intolerable situation
The constant fighting made life at home intolerable.

Learner example:
The situation has become absolutely intolerable.

intolerance /ɪnˈtɒl.əns/

Word family:
Nouns: intolerance, tolerance
Verbs: tolerate
Adjectives: intolerable, intolerant, tolerant

NOUN [U]
[C2] when someone is intolerant

Dictionary example:
religious intolerance
Learner example:
The process of mutual understanding that emerges from this contact can help solve one of the greatest problems facing mankind, the ethnic, racial or religious intolerance that plagues different parts of the world.

intolerant /ɪnˈtəl.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: intolerance, tolerance
Verbs: tolerate
Adjectives: intolerable, intolerant, tolerant

ADJECTIVE
[C2] refusing to accept any opinions, beliefs, customs, etc., that are different from your own

Dictionary example:
She can be very intolerant of other people's opinions.

Learner example:
Right now, tolerance and understanding come very naturally to me, in contrast with the narrow-minded, intolerant attitude I had to share when I had hardly ever gone beyond the limits of my home town.

intransitive /ɪnˈtræn.zə.tɪv/  SPECIALIZED

ADJECTIVE
[B2] An intransitive verb does not have an object.

Dictionary examples:
In the sentence 'I tried to persuade him, but he wouldn't come,' 'come' is an intransitive verb.
In the Wordlist, verbs which are intransitive are marked [I].

intriguing /ɪnˈtrɪɡ.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] very interesting

Dictionary example:
an intriguing story
Learner example:
Only a minority of our citizens make regular use of the library, either by enjoying a quiet few minutes to scour the bookshelf[ve]s for an intriguing story to keep them going through the next rainy weekend or by reading one of the numerous newspapers on display.

intrinsic /ɪnˈtrɪn.zɪk/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C2] An intrinsic quality or thing forms part of the basic character of something or someone.

Dictionary example:
Drama is an intrinsic part of the school's curriculum.

Learner example:
Working is an intrinsic part of human nature, without which life may be unthinkable for some of us.

introduce /ˌɪn.trəˈdjuːs/

Word family:

Nouns: introduction

Verbs: introduce

VERB [T]

MEETING PEOPLE

[B1] to tell someone another person's name the first time that they meet

Dictionary examples:
I'd like to introduce my younger son, Mark.
Have you two been introduced (to each other)?

Learner example:
We were introduced to each other and we talked about our home countries.

SOMETHING NEW

[B2] to make something exist, happen or be used for the first time

Dictionary examples:
The smaller 10 pence coin was introduced in 1992.
We have introduced a new training schedule for employees.

Learner example:
Mr. Dixon, you and your staff have already introduced a number of alterations that have improved the interior of the building.
TO AN AUDIENCE
[C2] to tell an audience who is going to speak to them or perform for them

Dictionary example:
I'd like to introduce Rachel Elliott who is our speaker this evening.

Introduction /ˌɪn.trəˈdʌk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: introduction
Verbs: introduce

NOUN

FIRST MEETING
[B2] [c or u] the action of telling someone another person's name the first time that they meet

Dictionary example:
You'll have to do/make the introductions – I don't know everyone's name.

Learner example:
As we didn't know each other, the meeting started with the introduction of everybody.

TEXT
[B2] [c] the opening text of a book, speech, article, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Read the introduction to the article and decide what it will be about.
The book has an introduction by Antonia Byatt.

Learner example:
Report introduction: The purpose to this report is to give suggestion[s] [of] how to make the reception [area] more welcoming for everyone.

SOMETHING NEW
[B2] [u] when you make something exist, happen or be used for the first time

Dictionary examples:
The introduction of new working practices has dramatically improved productivity.
Within a few years of their introduction, CDs were outselling vinyl records.

Learner example:
With the introduction of the computer, we can [now] access [the] Internet to communicate with our relatives and friends living abroad.

BASIC KNOWLEDGE
[B2] [c] a book or course which provides basic knowledge about a subject
Dictionary example:
an introduction to psychology

Learner example:
Please send me some information about your club and tell me about courses like "[an] introduction to flying".

FIRST EXPERIENCE

[C1] [NO PLURAL] the first time someone experiences something

Dictionary example:
It was our first introduction to great poetry.

Learner example:
In 1998 it was the first introduction to home internet access and as we can see from the chart, less than 10% of people had one at home.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>introvert</th>
<th>/ˈɪn.troʊ.vɜːt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] someone who is quiet and shy and prefers to be alone</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
He's quite an introvert.

Learner example:
As an introvert, he had some problems with airing his opinions but when it came to competing with others he was the best.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>intrude</th>
<th>/ɪnˈtruːd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>VERB [I]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] to become involved in a situation which people want to be private</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
I don't mean to intrude, but are you okay?
They should not have intruded on the family's grief.
He was fed up with the media intruding into his life.

Learner example:
The fact is that raising a child is a strictly personal matter and also a demanding task nowadays and no one can intrude on a family's privacy, to influence its decision.
intruder /ɪnˈtruː.dər/

Word family:
Nouns: intruder, intrusion
Verbs: intrude

NOUN [c]

CRIME
[C2] someone who enters a place where they are not allowed to be, often to commit a crime

Dictionary example:
I heard intruders at the back of the house.

Learner example:
The Police Department did accept that the Jouzalez house was not robbed, but only showed signs of mess and disorder, as if the intruders were looking for something specific, for [a] certain document.

NOT WANTED
[C2] someone who goes to a place or becomes involved in a situation where others do not want them

Dictionary example:
I felt like an intruder at their family meal.

Learner example:
Hooper considered the newcomer to be an intruder, to be subtly persecuted.

intrusion /ɪnˈtruː.zən/

Word family:
Nouns: intruder, intrusion
Verbs: intrude

NOUN [c or u]
[C2] when someone becomes involved in a situation which people want to be private

Dictionary example:
She could not bear the intrusion into her private life.

Learner example:
Agatha lay underneath her covers dreading the moment when some intrusion might force her to leave the sanctuary of her four-poster bed.
intuition /ˌɪn.tjuˈɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] the feeling that you know something without being able to explain why

Dictionary example:
Her approach to childcare is based on intuition.

Learner example:
But Roger had repeatedly told Lindsay that he was innocent, and her intuition told her that he wasn’t lying.

invade /ɪnˈveɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: invasion
Verbs: invade

VERB

WAR
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to enter a country by force in order to take control of it

Dictionary example:
Concentrations of troops near the border look set to invade within the next few days.

Learner example:
Hitler invaded France.

PLACE
[C1] [ɪ] to enter a place in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Every summer the town is invaded by tourists.

Learner example:
As tourists invade us in large hoards, the menace of destroying the green values of our land appears.

invade sb’s privacy
[C2] to become involved in someone’s private life when they do not want you to

Dictionary example:
They were fed up with journalists invading their privacy.

Learner example:
He would never invade our privacy or force us to talk about our problems.
BECOME INVOLVED
[C2] [ɪnˈvɒlvd] to become a part of someone’s life without them asking for or wanting the involvement

Dictionary example:
Computers are invading our lives.

Learner example:
The biggest one, the computer, has invaded our life and changed the whole rhythm.

Invaluable /ɪnˈvæl.juə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: value
Verbs: value
Adjectives: valuable, invaluable

ADJECTIVE
[C1] extremely useful

Dictionary example:
Her contacts in government proved invaluable to the company.

Learner example:
16 June, 2004 Dear Mr. Alcott, I would like to thank you for [the] organisation of the event which allowed me to obtain invaluable information on up-to-date labour market trends and career opportunities.

Invariably /ɪnˈveəri.ə.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: variation, variety, variable
Verbs: vary
Adjectives: varied, various, variable
Adverbs: invariably

ADVERB
[C2] always

Dictionary example:
The train is invariably packed.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, there is invariably an exception to the rule.
invasion /ˈɪnˌveɪ.ʒən/

Word family:
Nouns: invasion
Verbs: invade

NOUN [C or U]

WAR
[B2] when an army enters a country by force in order to take control of it

Dictionary example:
They were planning to mount an invasion of the north of the country.

Learner example:
Then, we went to the North of D[e]nmark to see what remains of [the] Viking invasions.

an invasion of privacy
[C2] becoming involved in someone's private life when they do not want you to

Dictionary example:
These phone calls to my home are an invasion of my privacy.

LARGE NUMBERS
[C2] when people enter a place in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Every year, there is an invasion of tourists.

Learner example:
The invasion of tourists seems to take away some of the place's privacy and it can even destroy its usually peaceful environment.

invent /ɪnˈvent/

Word family:
Nouns: invention, inventor
Verbs: invent

VERB [T]

NEW DESIGN
[B1] to design or create something which has never existed before

Dictionary example:
The first safety razor was invented by company founder King C. Gillette in 1903.

Learner example:
Lots of different and important things were invented during the 20th century, [but] I believe that the most important one is the computer.
NOT TRUE

[B2] to think of a story or explanation in order to deceive someone

Dictionary example:
But I didn't invent the story – everything I told you is true.

Learner example:
We knew that our parents wouldn't let us travel alone so we had to invent a story to avoid [them realizing] what happened.

invention  /ɪnˈvent.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: invention, inventor
Verbs: invent

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] something which has been designed or created for the first time, or the act of creating or designing something

Dictionary examples:
The world changed rapidly after the invention of the telephone.
a most amazing invention

Learner example:
I think that the television is one of the most amazing inventions ever.

inventor  /ɪnˈvent.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: invention, inventor
Verbs: invent

NOUN [C]

[B2] someone who designs and makes new things

Dictionary example:
He was the inventor of the vacuum cleaner.

Learner example:
[The] mobile phone is also very important these days, thanks to Lars Magnus Ericsson, who was the inventor of mobile phones.
inverted commas /ɪnˌvɜː.tɪdˈkɒm.əz/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B2] the " " punctuation marks that are put around a word or phrase to show that someone else has written or said it

Dictionary example:
Direct speech should be shown in inverted commas.

invest /ɪnˈvest/

Word family:
Nouns: investment, investor
Verbs: invest

VERB [I or T]

MONEY
[B2] to give money to a bank, business, etc., or buy something, because you hope to get a profit

Dictionary examples:
The institute will invest 5 million in the project. He's not certain whether to invest in the real estate market.

Learner example:
However, you could invest the extra money in the infrastructure.

TIME/ENERGY, ETC.
[B2] to use a lot of time, effort, or emotions because you want to succeed

Dictionary example:
You have all invested significant amounts of time and energy in making this project the success that it is.

Learner example:
So, investing a bit of time and care on you[rself] might be the reason for your 90th birthday party!

investigate /ɪnˈves.tɪ.geɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: investigation, investigator
Verbs: investigate

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to try to discover all the facts about something, especially a crime or accident
Dictionary examples:
Police are investigating allegations of corruption involving senior executives.
We are of course investigating how an error like this could have occurred.

Learner example:
John, who was the husband of Julia, went to his office and started investigating the kidnapping.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>investigation</th>
<th>/ɪnˌves.tɪˈgeɪ.ʃən/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Noun [C or U]</td>
<td>[B2] when officials try to discover all the facts about something, especially a crime or an accident</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples: to carry out/hold an investigation</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
An investigation has been under way for several days into the disappearance of a thirteen-year-old boy.
| a full/thorough investigation of the incident |
Currently, the individuals who might have caused the accident are subject to/under investigation.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>investigator</th>
<th>/ɪnˈves.trɪˌgeɪ.tər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Noun [C]</td>
<td>[B2] a person whose job is to examine a crime, accident, etc. in order to discover the truth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Investigators have studied the possible effects of contamination.
a private investigator

| Learner example: |
My name is Jacques Martinov, and I am a private investigator.
investment /ɪnˈvest.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: investment, investor
Verbs: invest

NOUN

MONEY
[B2] [c or u] the money that you put in a bank, business, etc. in order to make a profit, or the act of doing this

Dictionary examples:
Stocks are regarded as good long-term investments.
The account requires a minimum investment of $1000.

Learner example:
I would like to join one of your team[s] to learn much more about my hobby: investments in shares.

TIME/EFFORT, ETC.
[B2] [c] something that you do or have, in order to have more in the future

Dictionary examples:
Going to college is an investment in the future.
There's been a significant investment of time and energy in order to make the project a success.

Learner example:
Of course I was able to purchase a second-hand one but I thought that it was a good investment to have a new computer provided with up-to-date software.

investor /ɪnˈves.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: investment, investor
Verbs: invest

NOUN [c]
[B2] a person who puts money into a bank, business, etc. in order to make a profit

Dictionary examples:
A New York investor offered to acquire the company's shares for $13 each.
Small investors are hoping that the markets will improve.

Learner example:
This should be done by lowering taxes and preparing other incentives for potential investors.
invisible /ɪnˈvɪzə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: vision
- Adjectives: invisible, visible, visual
- Adverbs: visibly

ADJECTIVE

[B2] impossible to see

Dictionary examples:
The aircraft is designed to be invisible to radar.
The house was invisible from the road.

Learner example:
[At] that moment I really wished I could disappear or become invisible!

invitation /ˌɪn.vɪˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: invitation
- Verbs: invite

NOUN

CAUSE RESULT

[C2] [NO PLURAL] something that is likely to cause a particular result, especially a bad one

Dictionary example:
It is an invitation to violence.

Learner example:
This was hard to resist for computer programmers who understood it as an invitation to try and fool the examiner with a cunning computer programme.

invite /ɪnˈvɑːt/

Word family:
- Nouns: invitation
- Verbs: invite

VERB [T]

ASK OFFICIALLY

[C1] to formally ask someone to do something
Dictionary example:
I was invited to appear on television.

Learner example:
We invite your newspaper to reconsider its position, hoping that the council will think about our proposals.

REACTION
[C2] to do something that is likely to cause a particular reaction or result, especially a bad one

Dictionary example:
Unconventional ideas often invite attack/criticism.

---

involve /ɪnˈvɒlv/

Word family:
Nouns: involvement
Verbs: involve
Adjectives: involved

VERB [T]

NECESSARY PART
[B1] If a situation or activity involves something, that thing is a necessary part of it.

Dictionary examples:
The trips often involve a lot of walking.
The course involves a huge amount of reading.
There are a lot of risks involved.

Learner example:
It is a competition for school[s] and it involves many kinds of sport.

AFFECT/INCLUDE
[B1] to affect or include someone or something in an activity

Dictionary examples:
The second accident involved two cars and a lorry.
It would be difficult not to involve the child's father in the arrangements.

Learner example:
She had writ[t]en me to tell me that our friends Todd and Alice had died in an strange accident that involved a vacu[u]m cleaner.

TAKE PART
[B2] to make someone be part of an activity or process

Dictionary example:
I prefer teaching methods that actively involve students in learning.
Learner example:
Trying to involve children and young people in general, interactive activities could be really successful.

involved  /ɪnˈvɒlvd/

Word family:
Nouns: involvement
Verbs: involve
Adjectives: involved

ADJECTIVE

be/get involved (in/with sth)
[B2] to do things and be part of an activity or event

Dictionary examples:
How did you get involved in acting?
She’s been involved with animal rights for many years.

Learner example:
According to your letter, you want to encourage more people to get involved in the swimming club and the chess club.

involvement /ɪnˈvɒlv.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: involvement
Verbs: involve
Adjectives: involved

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when someone or something is involved in an activity or event

Dictionary examples:
The team's continued involvement in the competition is uncertain.
He denies any involvement in the attack.

Learner example:
By reading we get a sort of personal involvement with the characters, it's [as] if it was our own story.
iron /ˈaɪən/

Word family:
Nouns: iron, ironing
Verbs: iron

NOUN
METAL
[B1] [u] a dark grey metal used to make steel and found in very small amounts in blood and food

Dictionary examples:
an iron bar
Iron rusts easily.
Liver is a particularly rich source of iron.

Learner example:
It wasn’t very expensive because it was made of iron without any decoration, but it was important because she gave it to me before she died.

FOR CLOTHES
[B1] [c] a piece of electrical equipment that you use for making clothes flat and smooth

Dictionary examples:
a steam iron a travel iron

Learner example:
For example, are there any people who want to buy an iron at midnight?

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to make clothes flat and smooth using an iron

Dictionary example:
I need to iron a shirt to wear tomorrow.

Learner example:
I like wearing jeans because they are very comfortable, and are also easy to wash and to iron.

ironic /ɪˈrɒn.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: irony
Adjectives: ironic
Adverbs: ironically

ADJECTIVE
[C2] An ironic situation is strange because it is the opposite of what you would expect.

Dictionary example:
It's ironic that she was hurt by the very person she's trying to help.

Learner example:
As I used my stealth to move through the shadows, I thought it ironic that the rich man's expensive and probably imported carpets should assist me in keeping quiet.

Ironically /aɪˈrɒn.i.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: irony
Adjectives: ironic
Adverbs: ironically

ADVERB
[C2] used to emphasize that a situation is strange because it is the opposite of what you expected

Dictionary example:
Ironically, the only good book on this subject has gone out of print.

Learner example:
Either way, food is a big industry and a vital contributor to our culture, but ironically, food is also the biggest problem in the world.

Ironing /ˈaɪə.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: iron, ironing
Verbs: iron

NOUN [u]
[B1] the activity of making clothes flat and smooth, using an iron

Dictionary example:
I must do some ironing tonight.

Learner example:
In the [near] future, everything will be done by computers and machines (washing-up, hoovering, ironing, gardening, cooking, etc.)
irony /ˈaɪərn.i/

Word family:
Nouns: irony
Adjectives: ironic
Adverbs: ironically

NOUN

SITUATION
[C2] a situation that is strange because it is the opposite of what you expected

Dictionary example:
The irony is that now he’s retired, he’s busier than ever.

Learner example:
The irony of all [this] is the fact that she lives in the same house with Kingshaw and Hooper and she keeps being unable to notice what is really going on till the very end.

HUMOUR
[C2] a type of humour in which people say the opposite of what they really mean

Dictionary example:
There is a lot of irony in his writing.

Learner example:
His strength lies in drawing exact pictures of the human mind by using extraordinary metaphors and idioms and describing our society with his never-ending tone of sarcasm and irony.

irrational /ɪˈræʃ.ən.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: irrational, rational

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Irrational feelings and actions are based on your emotions and not on good reasons.

Dictionary examples:
irrational behaviour an irrational fear of flying

Learner example:
It was an irrational fear, but try to explain this to a five-year-old girl who constantly dreamt about vampire dolls killing her while she was unable to move!

1577 irregular /ɪˈreg.jə.lə/

Word family:
Adjectives: irregular, regular Adverbs: regularly

ADJECTIVE

GRAMMAR
[B1] FORMAL In grammar, an irregular verb, noun, adjective, etc. does not obey the usual rules for words in the language.

Dictionary example:
a table of irregular verbs

TIME
[B2] Irregular actions or events happen with a different amount of time between each one.

Dictionary example:
They met at irregular intervals.

Learner example:
To make matters worse, the meal times are irregular, so as a result I am skinny.

SHAPE
[B2] not smooth or straight, or having parts that are different sizes

Dictionary example:
an irregular coastline

Learner example:
In my hurry, I never saw the irregular floor and I fell [over]!

irresistible /ˌɪr.ɪˈzɪs.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: resistance
Verbs: resist
Adjectives: irresistible

ADJECTIVE

ATTRACTIVE
[C2] extremely attractive and impossible not to like or want

Dictionary example:
an irresistible smile
Learner example:
For instance, a perfume might make men irresistible to women, or vice versa.

STRONG
[C2] too powerful to control or ignore

Dictionary examples:
irresistible pressure an irresistible desire to run away

Learner example:
From time to time we do feel an irresistible desire to get possession of something that is not a must. We are so tempted that we buy it.

irrespective /ˌɪr.ɪˈspek.tɪv/

Word family:
Adjectives: respective Adverbs: irrespective, respectively

ADVERB
irrespective of sth
[C2] used to say that something does not affect a situation

Dictionary example:
Everyone should be treated equally, irrespective of skin colour.

Learner example:
He demonstrated that irrespective of the political circumstances, art will always go on, it cannot be subdued.

irresponsible /ˌɪr.ɪˈspɒnt.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: responsibility
Adjectives: irresponsible, responsible

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not thinking about the possible bad results of what you are doing

Dictionary examples:
an irresponsible attitude irresponsible behaviour
Learner example:
Of course cinemas and schools do not allow people [to] use mobile phones inside the buildings, but the existence of irresponsible people who do not respect the prohibitions [make]s everything worse.

irreversible /ˌɪr.ɪˈvɜːs.ə.bl/
Word family:
Nouns: reversal, reverse
Verbs: reverse
Adjectives: irreversible, reversible

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Something that is irreversible cannot be changed back to how it was before.
Dictionary example:
Smoking has caused irreversible damage to his lungs.
Learner example:
It is important to remember that everything done excessively can have irreversible consequences!

irritable /ˈɪr.i.tə.bl/
Word family:
Nouns: irritation
Verbs: irritate
Adjectives: irritated, irritating, irritable

ADJECTIVE
[C2] becoming annoyed very easily
Dictionary example:
Jack's been irritable all day.
Learner example:
Lord Trimingham remains calm throughout the story whereas Ted Burgess seems quite irritable and impulsive.

irritate /ˈɪr.i.teɪt/
Word family:
Nouns: irritation
Verbs: irritate
Adjectives: irritated, irritating, irritable
VERB [T]
[C1] to annoy someone

Dictionary example:
His comments really irritated me.

Learner example:
Children get hyperactive and irritate other passengers.

---

irritated /ˈɪr.ɪˌter.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: irritation
Verbs: irritate
Adjectives: irritated, irritating, irritable

---

ADJECTIVE [B2] annoyed

Dictionary example:
Ben began to get increasingly irritated by/with her questions.

Learner example:
Tom noticed that she was irritated about something.

---

irritating /ˈɪr.ɪˌter.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: irritation
Verbs: irritate
Adjectives: irritated, irritating, irritable

---

ADJECTIVE [B2] making you feel annoyed

Dictionary example:
an irritating habit

Learner example:
John was absolutely fed up with Bill’s irritating behaviour.
irritation /ˌɪr.iˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: irritation
Verbs: irritate
Adjectives: irritated, irritating, irritable

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] the feeling of being annoyed, or something that makes you annoyed

Dictionary examples:
That kind of behaviour is sure to cause irritation.
Traffic noise is one of the irritations of living here.

Learner example:
Most of the time, he found himself restless and to overcome the boredom and his irritation, he would go to the village pub and listen to the musicians and drink with them.

isolated /ˈais.o.lə.tid/

Word family:
Nouns: isolation
Adjectives: isolated

ADJECTIVE

FAR AWAY
[C1] a long way from other places

Dictionary example:
an isolated village in the mountains

Learner example:
You might get lost in an isolated region without anyone to help you.

ALONE
[C1] alone and not having help or support from other people

Dictionary example:
Kazuo felt very isolated at his new school.

Learner example:
Before you even know it, you’ll feel isolated and alone because other people will have forgotten about you.

an isolated case/event/example, etc.
[C2] a case/event/example, etc. that happens only once

Dictionary example:
This robbery was not an isolated incident.
Learner example:
This is just an isolated example among an endless list.

isolation /ˌaɪ.soʊˈleɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: isolation
Adjectives: isolated

SEPARATE

[C1] [u] the state of being separate from other people, places, or things

Dictionary example:
the country's economic isolation from the rest of the world

Learner example:
Due to the isolation, the country had to feed itself with everything which was needed.

in isolation

[C2] alone, or separately from other people, places, or things

Dictionary example:
These poems cannot be considered in isolation.

Learner example:
In conclusion, it is my opinion that the problem of parking space cannot be solved in isolation.

LONELY

[C2] [u] a feeling of being lonely

Dictionary example:
I had this awful sense of isolation.

Learner example:
Unemployment can lead to isolation.

issue /ˈɪʃjuː/

NOUN [C]

SUBJECT

[B1] a subject or problem which people are thinking and talking about

Dictionary examples:
environmental/moral/personal issues
As employers we need to be seen to be addressing these issues sympathetically.
Learner example:
You're a student so this should be a very important issue for you.

MAGAZINE
[B2] the newspaper, magazine, etc. that is produced on a particular day/week/month

Dictionary example:
Have you seen the latest issue of Computer World?

Learner example:
Having seen your advertisement in the 4th issue of Asahi News, I hasten to write this letter.

take issue (with sb/sth)
[C1] to disagree with what someone says or writes

Dictionary example:
I would take issue with you on that.

Learner example:
On behalf of the staff who worked for this event, I would like to take issue with the report's inaccuracies and unfair remarks.

at issue
[C2] most important in what is being discussed

Dictionary example:
The point at issue is what is best for the child.

Learner example:
I wouldn't like to fall into the trap of generalizing the matter at issue, but I believe there are two ways of travelling.

VERB
[C2] to officially say something or give someone something

Dictionary examples:
The office will be issuing permits on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.
The school issued a statement about its plans to the press./The school issued the press with a statement about its plans.

Learner example:
Finally, the doctors issued an ultimatum.

It /ɪt/

PRONOUN

SEEM
[B2] used as the subject of verbs such as 'seem', 'appear' and 'look'
Dictionary example:
It seemed unfair to leave her at home.

Learner example:
It seemed fantastic but we knew our parents would never agree.

it's sb/sth
[B2] used to say the name of a person or thing when the person you are speaking to does not know

Dictionary example:
It's your Dad on the phone.

EMPHASIZE
[C2] used to emphasize one part of a sentence

Dictionary example:
It's the children I'm concerned about, not me.

itch /ɪtʃ/

VERB

SKIN
[B2] If a part of your body itches, it feels uncomfortable and you want to rub it with your nails.

Dictionary example:
Woollen sweaters make my arms itch.

Learner example:
On the other hand I loathe jumpers since they make me itch, so I buy them once in a blue moon!

be itching to do sth INFORMAL [C2] to want to do something very much

Dictionary example:
You could tell that they were itching to leave.

Learner example:
The difference between these two kinds of people lies exactly there: the package-tourist is itching to go back home [as soon as] he sets off whereas the traveller may never go back home.
item /ˈaɪ.təm/

NOUN [c]

PART OF SET

[B1] a single thing in a set or on a list

Dictionary examples:
the last item on the list
The restaurant has a long menu of about 50 items.
Several items of clothing lay on the floor.

Learner example:
I have tasted all the items in that restaurant.

NEWS

[B2] a piece of news on television or radio, or in a newspaper

Dictionary example:
a small item on the back page of the local newspaper

Learner example:
Last week, in the "East London Journal", I read an item about your opening an Investor Club.

itinerary /əˈtɪn.r.ə.r.i/

NOUN [c]

[C1] a list of places that you plan to visit on a journey

Dictionary example:
The President's itinerary includes visits to Boston and New York.

Learner example:
Finally, although the itinerary involved a visit to St. Andrews, for some unknown reasons we never went there and I was really disappointed.

itself /ɪtˈself/

PRONOUN

(by) itself

[B1] alone or without help
Dictionary examples:
The dog was in the house by itself for several days.
The dog managed to drag the box into the room by itself.
I didn't take any medicine for the cough – it just got better itself.

Learner example:
If an animal is kept by itself, with no-one to keep it company, it [gets] lonely and very sad.

EMPHASIS
[B1] used to put emphasis on a word

Dictionary example:
The shop itself started 15 years ago but the mail order side of the business is new.

Learner example:
There are lots of trees and bushes, but the city itself is quite ugly.

in itself
[B2] used emphasize that something is true of one particular thing but that other things may have to be considered

Dictionary example:
The plan wasn't illegal in itself but it would lead to some doubtful practices.

Learner example:
To begin with, a car, in my opinion, can't be harmful in itself.
jail /dʒeɪl/

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a place where criminals are kept as a punishment

Dictionary examples:
the country’s overcrowded jails
a 13-year jail sentence/term
He was sent to jail for five years.
The financier was released from jail last week.
They spent ten years in jail for fraud.

Learner example:
Otherwise, they will throw him in jail for his bad past.

jam /dʒæm/

NOUN

TRAFFIC

[B2] [C] (also traffic jam) a line of cars, trucks, etc. that are moving slowly or not moving

Dictionary example:
We were stuck in a jam for hours.

Learner example:
On a bike, you don't have to wait if there is a jam or something like that.

BLOCK

[C1] [C] something that is stuck in a machine or that prevents the parts of a machine from moving

Dictionary example:
The photocopier has a paper jam.

VERB

STUCK

[C1] [i or t] to get stuck or make something get stuck
Dictionary examples:
The machine keeps jamming.
Dirt has jammed the engine.

Learner example:
I understand the request for a new printer could be considered expensive, but it would benefit the office in the long run by diminishing the waste of paper and toner due to the paper jamming the printer.

FILL
[C2] [T OFTEN PASSIVE] to fill a place completely

Dictionary examples:
The streets were jammed with cars.
The whole area was jammed with fans waiting for the band to come on stage.

Learner example:
Our quiet roads will be jammed with cars coming from other towns, especially the Saturday morning.

jar /dʒɑːr/  NOUN [C]
[B1] a glass container used for storing food

Dictionary examples:
a jar of coffee/honey
a jam jar

Learner example:
I've already bought them a jar of "Dulce de leche", that I'm sure they will love.

jargon /ˈdʒɑːɡən/  NOUN [U]
[C1] words and phrases used by particular groups of people that are difficult for other people to understand

Dictionary example:
legal jargon

Learner example:
Although you communicate with your colleagues in the afternoon, if you only get 'jargon' there and see your friends from your own country every day without speaking in English, it certainly doesn't help you improve your ability.
jaw /dʒɔː/

NOUN [c]
[B2] the lower part of your face which moves when you open your mouth

Dictionary examples:
a broken jaw
He has a strong/square jaw.

Learner example:
Some of Jem’s features such as his curved nose, his cruel jaw or even his hands, made Mary think [of] Joss Merlyn.

---

jealous /ˈdʒel.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: jealousy
Adjectives: jealous
Adverbs: jealously

ADJECTIVE

UNHAPPY IN LOVE
[B1] upset and angry because someone you love seems interested in another person

Dictionary examples:
a jealous husband/wife
Anna says she feels jealous every time another woman looks at her boyfriend.

Learner example:
The problem is that, a few months ago, when he had broken up with me, I wanted him to feel jealous, so I started meeting Fredo, a friend.

WANTING SOMETHING
[B2] unhappy and angry because you want something that someone else has

Dictionary example:
He had always been very jealous of his brother’s good looks.

Learner example:
Why had this man in his nightmare told him that one could be jealous of his success?
jealously /ˈdʒel.əs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: jealousy
Adjectives: jealous
Adverbs: jealously

ADVERB
[B2] in a jealous way

Dictionary example:
She eyed Gwen's engagement ring jealously.

jealousy /ˈdʒel.ə.si/

Word family:
Nouns: jealousy
Adjectives: jealous
Adverbs: jealously

NOUN [u]
[C1] a feeling of unhappiness or anger because you want what someone else has or fear that someone will take what you have

Dictionary examples:
He broke his brother's new bike in a fit of jealousy.
Jealousy can ruin relationships.

Learner example:
What is more, the most successful colleagues generated some jealousy and incomprehension [in] the others.

jet /dʒet/

NOUN [c]
[B1] an aircraft with a jet engine, which is able to fly very fast

Dictionary examples:
a jet plane
a private jet
We flew to New York by jet.

Learner example:
After we went [in] his private jet to his mansion.
jewel /ˈdʒuː.əl/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a valuable stone that is used to make jewellery or to decorate objects

Dictionary example:
She was wearing a large gold necklace set with jewels.

Learner example:
We opened it and we were left speechless as in the chest there were the most shiny jewels and coins we had ever seen.

job /dʒəb/

NOUN

RESPONSIBILITY
[B2] [NO PLURAL] something that is your responsibility

Dictionary examples:
She believed her job as a politician was to represent the views of her party and the people who voted for her.
I know it's not my job to tell you how to run your life, but I do think you've made a mistake.

Learner example:
One day, my boss said to me: "Serve tea every morning". I'm a computer operat[o]r. I'm not his wife. It is not my job.

do a good/excellent, etc. job
[B2] to do something well/very well, etc.

Dictionary example:
She did a great job of organizing the event.

Learner example:
Dear Bill, I think you did a very good job writing this chapter.

out of a job
[C2] without a job

Dictionary example:
How long have you been out of a job?

Learner example:
So, what is so terrible about being out of a job, you might ask yourself.

it's a good job
[C2] If it is a good job that something happened, it is lucky that it happened.
Dictionary example:
It's a good job that Jo was there to help you.

Learner example:
It's a good job that I didn’t cry.

do the job
[C2] If something does the job, it is suitable for a particular purpose.

Dictionary example:
Here, this knife should do the job.

Learner example:
Allow them to bring home friends and therefore develop social skills. In my opinion, that should do the job.

make a bad/good, etc. job of sth
[C2] to do sth badly/well, etc.

Dictionary example:
Paul's made a good job of painting the hall.

Learner example:
It’s time my mother stop[ped] worrying about me, after all, she's been preparing me all my life for this moment; it's finally time to see if she has made a good job of it.

jog /dʒɒg/

Word family:
Nouns: jogging
Verbs: jog

VERB [i]
[B1] to run slowly for exercise

Dictionary example:
I jog through the park every morning.

Learner example:
When you jog, you can feel your [whole] body moving.

jogging /ˈdʒɒg.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: jogging
Verbs: jog

NOUN [u]
[B1] when you jog
Dictionary example:
Let’s go jogging.

Learner example:
You can stay in a hotel in Copacabana [and] go jogging in the morning.

join /dʒɔɪn/

Word family:
Verbs: join
Adjectives: joint Adverbs: jointly

VERB

CONNECT
[B1] [ɪ] to fasten or connect things together

Dictionary examples:
A bridge joins the two islands.
Join the two pieces together using strong glue.
The island is joined to the mainland by a road bridge.

MEET
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] If roads or rivers join, they meet at a particular point.

Dictionary examples:
The A11 joins the M11 south of Cambridge.
The River Murray and the River Darling join east of Adelaide.

join forces
[C2] When two people or groups join forces, they act or work together.

Dictionary example:
She joined forces with her sister-in-law to set up a restaurant.

Learner example:
The second proposal is that we join forces with Green Peace in picketing the refinery, this of course is up to the individual members.

joint /dʒɔɪnt/

Word family:
Verbs: join
Adjectives: joint Adverbs: jointly
ADJECTIVE
[B2] belonging to or shared between two or more people

Dictionary examples:
a joint bank account
The project was a joint effort between the two schools.
The two Russian ice-skaters came joint second in the world championship.
Adrian has a joint honours degree in English and philosophy.

NOUN [C]

PLACE
[C1] informal a place where something is sold, especially a restaurant or bar

Dictionary example:
a pizza joint

Learner example:
The following day a visit was scheduled to "a typical English restaurant" which turned out to be a hamburger joint.

BODY PART
[C2] a place in your body where two bones meet

Dictionary example:
the knee joint

Learner example:
Would you really like to have a job in which you would risk not being able to walk because of the damage to your joints?

jointly /ˈdʒɔɪnt.li/

Word family:
Verbs: join
Adjectives: joint Adverbs: jointly

ADVERB
[C1] in a shared way

Dictionary example:
The Channel Tunnel was jointly funded by the French and British.

Learner example:
Avesta is now jointly owned by Swedes and Englishmen after merging with British Steel.
joke /dʒəʊk/  NOUN [C]

FUNNY
[B1] something which someone says to make people laugh, usually a short story with a funny ending

Dictionary examples:
Did I tell you the joke about the chicken crossing the road?
I hope Rob doesn’t tell any of his dirty jokes when my mother’s here.
Don’t you get the joke?

Learner example:
In the first lesson, the teacher came in and told us a joke, and the most important thing [was]... the joke was funny!

be a joke INFORMAL
[C1] to not be serious or not deserve respect

Dictionary example:
The investigation was a joke.

Learner example:
Talking about restaurants, your "typical English restaurant" was a joke.

crack a joke
[C1] to tell a joke

Dictionary example:
He seemed very relaxed, laughing and cracking jokes.

Learner example:
Many members will get the chance to show their talent and we will get to crack some jokes too!

VERB [I]

NOT SERIOUS
[B1] to say funny things, or not be serious

Dictionary examples:
They joked and laughed as they looked at the photos.
It’s more serious than you think, so please don’t joke about it.

Learner example:
I thought he was joking!

You must be joking!/ You’re joking!
[B1] INFORMAL something you say to show that you are surprised by what someone has said, or do not believe it is true
Dictionary example:
"He spoke to me in French." "You’re joking! Really?"

Learner example:
One television set in my house? You must be joking! We need four televisions!

journal  /ˈdʒɜː.nəl/

noun [c]

magazine

[C1] a magazine containing articles about a particular subject

Dictionary example:
a medical journal

Learner example:
What I miss, however, in our library are the books and journals devoted to science.

book

[C2] a book in which you regularly write about what has happened to you

Dictionary example:
I kept a journal during that time.

Learner example:
He looked everywhere but he couldn’t find his uncle's personal journal.

journalism  /ˈdʒɜː.nə.lɪ.zəm/

word family:

nouns: journalism, journalist

noun [u]

[B2] the work of collecting, writing and publishing news stories and articles in newspapers and magazines or broadcasting them on the radio and television

Dictionary example:
I did a postgraduate degree in journalism.

Learner example:
She told the leader of the band that she was studying journalism and that her dream was to write for Rolling Stone Magazine.
journalist /ˈdʒɜː.nə.lɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: journalism, journalist

NOUN [C]
[B1] a person who writes news stories or articles for a newspaper or magazine or broadcasts them on radio or television

Dictionary example:
a freelance political journalist

Learner example:
She is a journalist [on] the local newspaper and we get along very well.

joy /dʒɔɪ/

NOUN

HAPPINESS
[B2] [u] great happiness

Dictionary examples:
They were filled with joy when their first child was born.
She wept for joy when she was told that her husband was still alive.

Learner example:
Well, you should be bouncing up and down with joy (just kidding)!

CAUSE OF HAPPINESS
[B2] [c] something or someone that makes you feel very happy

Dictionary examples:
Listening to music is one of his greatest joys.
the joys of parenthood
She's a joy to work with.

Learner example:
Take the train and experience the joy of travelling.

judge /dʒʌdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: judge, judgment
Verbs: judge
NOUN [C]

COMPETITION
[B1] someone who decides which person or thing wins a competition

Dictionary example:
the Olympic judges

Learner example:
However, the Astro singing competition is different. The winner will be [decided] according [to] the marks given by the judge.

COURT
[B2] someone who controls a trial in court, decides how criminals should be punished, and makes decisions about legal matters

Dictionary example:
The judge ruled that they had acted correctly.

Learner example:
To the surprise of everyone in the village, the judge found her guilty but didn't send her to jail because he thought she should take care of Linda, who had no other relatives.

a bad/good, etc. judge of sth
[C2] someone who is usually wrong/usually right, etc. when they judge something

Dictionary example:
a good judge of character

Learner example:
She is a very good judge of character and the institute has reared some very promising scientists.

VERB

DEVELOP OPINION
[B1] [i or t] to have or develop an opinion about something or someone, especially after thinking carefully

Dictionary examples:
So far, he seems to be handling the job well, but it's really too soon to judge.
It's difficult to judge whether the new system really is an improvement.
The meeting was judged to have been a success.
I'm hopeless at judging distance(s).

Learner example:
It's very difficult to judge, because so many young people leave Poland and go to [an]other country.

judging by/from (also to judge by/from) [B2] used to express the reasons why you have a particular opinion
Dictionary example:
Judging by what he said, I think it's very unlikely that he'll be able to support your application.

Learner example:
I didn't like San Diego so much – just judging by my first impression.

COMPETITION
[C1] [I or T] to officially decide who will be the winner of a competition

Dictionary example:
I've been asked to judge the art competition.

Learner example:
If you don't object, we would like to see you judging the competition and giving pr[ize]s to the winners.

BAD OPINION
[C2] [I or T] to have a bad opinion of someone's behaviour, often because you think you are better than them

Dictionary example:
What gives you the right to judge people?

Learner example:
"I'm not judging you, dear", I whispered softly.

judgment (also judgement) /ˈdʒʌdʒ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: judge, judgment
Verbs: judge

NOUN

OPINION
[B2] [c] an opinion about someone or something that you decide on after thinking carefully

Dictionary example:
It proved difficult to come to/form/make a judgment about how well the school was performing.

Learner example:
Your judgment about the other performers is completely unfair: they were also very good.

ABILITY
[C2] [u] the ability to make good decisions or to be right in your opinions

Dictionary example:
to have good/bad judgment
Learner example:
They should also develop analytical ability as well as good judgement.

jug /dʒʌg/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a container with a handle used for pouring out liquids

Dictionary examples:
a glass/plastic jug
a milk/water jug

juggle /ˈdʒʌ.ɡəl/

VERB [T]
[C2] to try to do several things at once, when it is difficult to have enough time

Dictionary example:
Many women have to juggle work and family.

Learner example:
Juggling with time and living the rat-race, I focused my life on my profession.

juicy /ˈdʒuː.si/

Word family:
Nouns: juice
Adjectives: juicy

ADJECTIVE

WITH JUICE
[B1] full of juice

Dictionary example:
juicy mangoes

Learner example:
You must taste [the] oranges because they are so juicy, so sweet.

EXCITING
[C2] interesting because of shocking or personal information

Dictionary example:
juicy gossip
Learner example:
"That's it," she thought, "somebody must have taken it to their room last night, hoping for some juicy gossip!"

jump /dʒʌmp/

VERB

jump in/into/up, etc.
[B1] to move or act suddenly or quickly

Dictionary examples:
She jumped in/into a taxi and rushed to the station.
He suddenly jumped to his feet/jumped up and left.

Learner example:
So I jumped into my car and when I got to the stadium I started to run.

FEAR
[B2] [I] to make a sudden movement because you are frightened or surprised

Dictionary example:
Her scream made me jump.

Learner example:
The noise of a doorbell made me jump.

jump to conclusions
[C2] to guess the facts about a situation without having enough information

Dictionary example:
He saw them talking together and jumped to conclusions.

Learner example:
I think, before jumping to conclusions, we should first try to analyse the situation.

NOUN [C]
[B1] a sudden movement off the ground or off a high place

Dictionary examples:
He won with a jump of 8.5 metres.
a bungee/parachute jump

Learner example:
She could not believe that she, the shy and unimportant Laura Wilcox, was standing on the top of a bridge ready for her bungee jump.
jungle /ˈdʒʌŋ.gl/

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a tropical forest in which trees and plants grow very closely together

Dictionary examples:
The Yanomami people live in the South American jungle.
Either side of the river is dense, impenetrable jungle.

Learner example:
It is a little bit far and out of the city, near the jungle and [the] mountains.

junior /ˈdʒuː.ni.ər/

ADJECTIVE

LOW RANK

[B2] low or lower in rank or position

Dictionary examples:
a junior minister junior office staff

Learner example:
There were six junior clerks and a teacher from the bank in a teaching room when suddenly the chairman of the bank came in.

YOUNG PEOPLE

[B2] for or relating to young people

Dictionary example:
a junior tennis tournament

Learner example:
I am used to work[ing] with children, as an instructor for a junior football team in my city.

NOUN

10/20, etc. years sb's junior

[C2] 10/20, etc. years younger than someone

Dictionary example:
My wife is 8 years my junior.

Learner example:
I have a sister four years my junior and in my opinion we have no reason to complain.
junk /dʒʌŋk/

NOUN [u] INFORMAL
[C1] old things which have little value

Dictionary example:
His car is just a heap of junk.

Learner example:
I would also like to get rid of the junk in the other bedroom.

junk food /ˈdʒʌŋkˌfuːd/

NOUN [u]
[B2] food which is unhealthy but which is quick and easy to eat

Dictionary example:
He eats far too much junk food.

Learner example:
Nowadays young people often have junk food such as chips, beef burgers and so on.

junk mail /ˈdʒʌŋkˌmeɪl/

NOUN [u]
[C1] letters or emails sent by companies to advertise their goods and services

Dictionary example:
Most of these letters are junk mail.

Learner example:
I collect the post which is usually junk mail.

jury /ˈdʒʊə.ri/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
COURT
[B2] a group of people who have been chosen to listen to all the facts in a trial in a law court and to decide whether a person is guilty or not guilty, or whether a claim has been proved Dictionary examples:
members of the jury
The jury was/were unable to agree.
Police officers aren't usually allowed to be/sit/serve on a jury.

Learner example:
The accused is defended by a famous lawyer who tells his wife that a loving wife's confirmation of her husband's alibi will not convince the jury.

COMPETITION
[C1] a group of people who decide the winner of a competition

Dictionary example:
The jury must now decide.

Learner example:
People who think they are talented enough to sing and appear on TV apply for the show and go to auditions to sing their heart out in front of a jury.

the jury is (still) out
[C2] If the jury is (still) out on a subject, people do not yet know the answer or have a definite opinion about it.

Dictionary example:
The jury's still out on the safety of GM food.

Learner example:
I think that the jury is still out on the effects of television and other media.

Just /dʒʌst/

Word family:
Nouns: justice, injustice
Adjectives: just

ADVERB

ONLY [B1] only; simply

Dictionary examples:
"Would you like another drink?" "OK, just one more."
It was just a joke.
The film is not just about love.
Just because you're older than me doesn't mean you can tell me what to do.

Learner example:
It was just a dream...
ALMOST NOT

[B1] almost not

Dictionary examples:
This dress only just fits!
We arrived at the airport just in time to catch the plane.

Learner example:
The airplane will arrive at midday, just in time for lunch.

EXACTLY

[B1] exactly or equally

Dictionary examples:
This carpet would be just right for the dining room.
The twins look just like each other.
Things turned out just as I expected.
You've got just as many toys as your brother.
I can't help you just now.
Just then, the lights went out.

Learner example:
After the play, which turned out to be just as bad as I thought, I wanted to relax in the Theatre Restaurant, but it was closed, and for no reason!

EMPHASIS

[B1] used to emphasize something you say

Dictionary examples:
It's just dreadful what happened to her.
I just can't bear it!

Learner example:
That is my best place – it is just wonderful.

just about

[B1] more or less; almost

Dictionary examples:
"Can you see the stage?" "Yes, just about."
I've just about finished painting the living room.

Learner example:
I was just about 2 months [older].

be just about to do sth

[B1] to be going to do something very soon

Dictionary example:
I was just about to phone you.
Learner example:
I was so amazed that I didn't realize I was just about to fall into the lake.

just as bad/good/tall/clever, etc. (as sb/sth)
[B1] equally bad/good/tall/clever, etc.

Dictionary example:
He's just as talented as his brother.

Learner example:
Everywhere he went was just as good as he expected.

just before/over/under, etc.
[B1] a little before/over/under, etc. something else

Dictionary examples:
She left just before Michael.
It costs just under £10.

Learner example:
Last autumn I bought a new flat in Siedke which I moved into just before New Year's Eve.

just as [B2] at the same time as

Dictionary example:
She woke up just as we got there.

Learner example:
Just as I was turning on the radio somebody knocked at the door.

it's just as well
[C1] used to say that it is lucky that something happened

Dictionary example:
It's just as well we brought an umbrella.

Learner example:
It is just as well that my friends had cars to give me a lift to the school.

I/you/we, etc. will just have to do sth
[C1] used to say that there is nothing else someone can do

Dictionary example:
You'll just have to wait.

Learner example:
We will just have to wait and see....

ADJECTIVE
[C1] fair or morally right
Dictionary example:
a just society

Learner example:
He is really involved in what he is doing and does not fear [facing] the difficulties if it is to defend a just cause.

justice /ˈdʒʌstɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: justice, injustice
Adjectives: just

NOUN [U]

FAIRNESS
[B2] behaviour or treatment that is fair and morally correct

Dictionary examples:
There's no justice in the world when people can be made to suffer like that.
The winner has been disqualified for cheating, so justice has been done.

Learner example:
Both of them symbolize courage, [a] love of justice, [and a] fight for freedom, which makes them look like heroes.

LAW
[B2] the system of laws which judges and punishes people

Dictionary examples:
The justice system in this country consists of a series of law courts at different levels.
The police are doing all they can to bring those responsible for the bombing to justice.
They are victims of a miscarriage of justice.

Learner example:
I hope by the time I [am] out of prison, [the] justice [system] will have changed.

do sb/sth justice; do justice to sb/sth
[C2] to show the best or real qualities of something or someone

Dictionary example:
This postcard doesn’t do justice to the wonderful scenery.

Learner example:
No words can do justice to the indignation that I feel.
justifiable  /ˈdʒʌs.tɪ.fə.bl/
Word family:
Nouns: justification
Verbs: justify
Adjectives: justifiable, justified, unjustified

ADJECTIVE
[C2] having a good reason

Dictionary example:
justifiable anger

Learner example:
Thus, we can understand that this attitude to reading is, to some extent, justifiable.

justification  /ˌdʒʌs.tɪ.fɪˈkeɪ.ʃən/
Word family:
Nouns: justification
Verbs: justify
Adjectives: justifiable, justified, unjustified

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a reason for something

Dictionary example:
There's no justification for treating her so unfairly.

Learner example:
Unfortunately that day, I took the diary with me, although there was no justification for taking it because I was just going to visit my grandparents and I had no intention of staying there more than one day.

justified  /ˈdʒʌs.tɪ.fɪd/
Word family:
Nouns: justification
Verbs: justify
Adjectives: justifiable, justified, unjustified

ADJECTIVE
[C1] fair or having a good reason

Dictionary examples:
justified criticism
He's perfectly justified in asking for a salary increase.
Finally, I would strongly recommend that steps are taken to remedy matters and feel we are justified in requesting partial compensation.

justify /ˈdʒʌstɪ.fai/

Word family:
- Nouns: justification
- Verbs: justify
- Adjectives: justifiable, justified, unjustified

VERB [T]

GIVE/BE REASON

[B2] to give or to be a good reason for

Dictionary examples:
I can't really justify taking another day off work.
Are you sure that these measures are justified?

Learner example:
The fact that you want to be the best in your job does not justify your attitude.

justify yourself

[B2] If you justify yourself, you give a good reason for what you have done.

Dictionary example:
It was the only thing that I could do – I don't have to justify myself to anyone.

Learner example:
How we can justify ourselves, when we are completely against captivity?

juvenile /ˈdʒuː.və.nail/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] by, for, or relating to young people

Dictionary example:
juvenile crime

Learner example:
Among many aspects of crime, researchers have been keenly studying juvenile crime.
kangaroo /ˌkæŋɡəˈruː/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a large Australian animal that moves by jumping on its back legs

Dictionary example:
Kangaroos are a danger on the roads.

Learner example:
Furthermore it has been my dream since I was five years old to see a kangaroo and play with it.

keen /kiːn/

ADJECTIVE

INTERESTED
[B1] very interested or enthusiastic

Dictionary examples:
She's a keen tennis player.
She's keen on (playing) tennis.

Learner example:
We are both quite keen on sailing and skiing.

WANTING TO DO
[B1] wanting to do something very much

Dictionary example:
The shop is keen to attract new customers.

Learner example:
He is very keen to write a report about crime.

VERY GOOD
[C1] very good or well developed

Dictionary example:
a keen sense of smell
Learner example:
Furthermore, she has a keen sense of humour and does not mind a practical joke, which is an advantage with children.

---

keep /kiːp/

Word family:
- Nouns: keeper
- Verbs: keep

VERB (kept, kept)

keep doing sth

[B1] to continue doing something without stopping, or to do it repeatedly

Dictionary examples:
He keeps trying to distract me.
I kept hoping that he'd phone me.

Learner example:
I don't know why I wanted to meet her so much but my heart just kept telling me to go after her.

keep in touch

[B1] to communicate or continue to communicate with someone, for example by email or telephone

Dictionary example:
We've kept in touch by email for the last five years.

Learner example:
Please keep in touch with me.

DELAY

[B1] [ɪ] to delay someone or prevent them from doing something

Dictionary examples:
He's very late, what's keeping him?
She kept me talking on the phone for half an hour.
Don't let me keep you from your work.

keep a/sth secret

[B1] to not tell anyone a secret/ about something secret

Dictionary example:
Mr Brown apparently delayed the announcement, and managed to keep it secret from the entire cabinet.

Learner example:
I [had] loved Sean since sixth grade but I was keeping it a secret.
keep sb waiting
[B2] to be late so that someone has to wait for you

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry to have kept you waiting.
The dentist kept me waiting for ages.

Learner example:
A week later, when we were going to have our second lesson, she kept us waiting for almost an hour.

keep a/your promise
[B2] to do what you have promised to do

Dictionary example:
James kept his promise and repaid all of the money he had borrowed.

Learner example:
She didn't keep her promise and she ruined my life.

keep notes/records, etc.
[B2] to write something down in order to remember it

Dictionary example:
Remember to keep a record of how much you spend.

Learner example:
Furthermore, a computer helps us to keep records by saving file[s].

keep your/an eye on sb/sth
[B2] to watch or look after someone or something

Dictionary example:
Could you keep an eye on this pan of soup for a moment?

Learner example:
You have to supply [e]verything they need and keep an eye on them all the time.

FOOD
[B2] [i] If food or drink keeps, it remains fresh.

Dictionary example:
Once opened, this product will keep for three days if refrigerated.

ANIMALS
[B2] [r] to have and look after animals

Dictionary example:
Our neighbours keep chickens.

Learner example:
It is cruel to keep dogs, cats, [and] birds in flats.
keep sb company
[B2] to stay with someone so that they are not alone

Dictionary example:
Come and keep me company, Isabel.

Learner example:
I wish you came and kept me company.

keep sb/sth in mind
[B2] to remember to consider someone or something that may be useful in the future

Dictionary example:
I'll keep you in mind if another job comes up.

Learner example:
But we should keep in mind that books improve our vocabulary and, what's more, our imagination.

keep track
[C1] to continue to know about someone or something

Dictionary examples:
He changes jobs so often I can't keep track any more.
Be sure to keep track of the time so you won't be late.

Learner example:
Trying to keep track of these changes by translating them would be an inappropriate task.

keep your word
[C1] to do what you said you would do

Dictionary example:
He agreed to come and I'm sure he'll keep his word.

Learner example:
It turned out that the company that had been hired to organize it did not keep their word.

keep sb going
[C1] to provide what someone needs for a short period of time

Dictionary example:
Dinner is at eight, but I had an apple to keep me going.

Learner example:
Because of health concerns, advertisements lately show the people in Holland how important it is to have a good breakfast and that it will keep you going the whole day.

Provide Money
[C1] [T] to provide enough money for someone to live
Dictionary example:
I can’t keep a family on that salary.

Learner example:
The economy ha[d] been developed and people could earn money in order to keep the family.

keep your cool
[C1] to remain calm

Dictionary example:
You did well to keep your cool in all that panic.

Learner example:
Whatever the problem is, keep your cool, don’t panic.

keep an eye out for sb/sth
[C1] to watch carefully for someone or something to appear

Dictionary example:
Keep an eye out for the delivery van.

Learner example:
Although individually we try to deliver the best care possible for our individual patients, we do keep an ear or an eye out for the other members of the team that day.

keep pace with sb/sth
[C1] to move or develop at the same speed as someone or something else

Dictionary example:
We have to keep pace with the changing times.

Learner example:
It was first published a century ago and what amazes people most is that [it] keeps pace with the development of the country without leaving out references to our history and tradition.

keep sb posted
[C1] to make certain that someone always knows what is happening

Dictionary example:
Keep me posted on anything that happens while I’m away.

Learner example:
We will keep our members posted on the best eating places in town.

keep a low profile
[C1] to try not to be noticed

Dictionary example:
She has kept a low profile since the divorce.

Learner example:
Finally, I believe that the best way to handle these issues is to try to keep a low profile at all times and to remain indifferent to gossip.
keep your eyes open (for sb/sth)
[C2] to watch carefully for someone or something

Dictionary example:
Keep your eyes open for anything unusual.

Learner example:
It has helped us identify and successfully combat many a nutritional hazard, keeping our eyes open to immoderate consumption of some substances and its effects.

keep body and soul together
[C2] to be able to pay for your food, clothing and somewhere to live

Dictionary example:
His wages are barely enough to keep body and soul together.

Learner example:
Not only does he keep body and soul together, but he is on good terms with his wife.

keep your eyes peeled (for sb/sth)
[C2] to watch carefully for someone or something

Dictionary example:
Keep your eyes peeled, he should be here any minute.

Learner example:
Ever since, I try to keep my eyes peeled for anything similar.

keep a straight face
[C2] to manage to stop yourself from smiling or laughing

Dictionary example:
I can never play jokes on people because I can't keep a straight face.

keep your fingers crossed/ cross your fingers INFORMAL
[C2] to hope that things will happen in the way that you want them to

Dictionary examples:
Let's keep our fingers crossed that she gets the job.
We're crossing our fingers and hoping that the weather stays fine.

Learner example:
Wish me luck, Winnie," she sighed "keep your fingers crossed, please".

keep a cool head
[C2] to remain calm in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
To be successful in business, you need to keep a cool head in negotiations.

Learner example:
Kevin managed to keep a cool head and took over the navigation.
keep your head above water
[C2] to have just enough money to live or to continue a business

Dictionary example:
With extra income from private sponsorship, the club is just about managing to keep its head above water.

Learner example:
I also started to realise how much she had on her plate, how very little help she had and how, at times, she had to struggle just like me to keep her head above water.

keep (sth) quiet
[C2] to not talk about something that is secret

Dictionary example:
It might be wise to keep this quiet for a while.

Learner example:
They tried to keep it quiet but, somehow, half the village knew about the news in a few days.

keep your temper
[C2] to succeed in staying calm and not becoming angry

Dictionary example:
I can't discuss this with you unless you promise to keep your temper.

Learner example:
He never offends people and he keeps his temper even if someone insults him.

keep sb on their toes
[C2] to make sure that someone gives all their attention to what they are doing and is ready for anything that might happen

Dictionary example:
We have random inspections to keep everyone on their toes.

---

keeper /ˈkiː.pər/

Word family:

Nouns: keeper

Verbs: keep

NOUN [c]

LOOKING AFTER

[B1] a person who takes care of animals or is in charge of valuable objects, a building, etc.
Dictionary examples:
a zoo keeper
a lighthouse-keeper

Learner example:
Tina was confused because she wasn't a dragon keeper, so normally dragons didn't speak with her.

FOOTBALL
[B1] short for goalkeeper

Dictionary example:
The keeper intends to stay with the club until the end of next season.

Learner example:
He is a very good keeper – before he play[ed] football, he was in a karate club.

---

kettle /ˈket.l/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a covered metal or plastic container with a handle and a shaped opening for pouring, used for boiling water

Learner example:
If I have an electric kettle in my bedroom, I won’t need to go to the kitchen.

---

key /kiː/

NOUN [C]

METHOD
[B1] a way of explaining or achieving something

Dictionary example:
Hard work is the key to success.

Learner example:
To those who say that money can’t buy happiness I answer that money is a key to happiness.

KEYBOARD
[B2] one of the parts that you press with your fingers on a computer or musical instrument to produce letters, numbers, symbols or musical notes

Dictionary examples:
Press the shift key to write in capital letters.
piano keys
Learner example:
What is more, you can get the information you need in just one second by pressing the "enter" key on a computer.

ADJECTIVE

IMPORTANT

[B2] very important in influencing or achieving something

Dictionary examples:
She was a key figure in the international art world.
a key factor in tackling the problem

Learner example:
Unfortunately one day I decided that it was time to become more independent and I didn’t ask a key question.

be key to sth

[C1] to be very important in influencing or achieving something

Dictionary example:
Early diagnosis is key to your chances of surviving.

Learner example:
Distribution is key to achieving economic growth and the positioning of domestic and imported goods.

VERB

key in sth or key sth in PHRASAL VERB

[B2] to put information into a computer using a keyboard

Dictionary example:
I’ve got all the data now but it still needs to be keyed in.

Learner example:
Just key in the appropriate information and in a few seconds you will receive prices and conditions.

kick /kɪk/

VERB [I or T]

kick yourself INFORMAL

[C2] to be very annoyed with yourself for doing something stupid or wrong

Dictionary example:
I could have kicked myself for saying that.
Learner example:
Nevertheless what kept me kicking myself was that this time my partner was in danger as well.

NOUN [c]

FEELING
[C2] INFORMAL a special feeling of excitement and energy

Dictionary example:
She gets a kick out of performing live.

Learner example:
I really get a kick out of anything which concerns magic.

kidney /ˈkɪd.ni/

NOUN [c]

[C2] one of the two organs in your body which remove waste from the blood and produce urine

Dictionary example:
kidney failure/disease

Learner example:
Her kidneys didn't work well enough to keep her healthy and someone had to be found who could give one of his kidneys to her.

kill /kɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: killer, killing
Verbs: kill

VERB [t]

kill time
[B2] to do something while you are waiting for something else to happen or have nothing else to do

Dictionary example:
We killed time playing video games.

Learner example:
When you are at home alone and have nothing to do, you can kill time watching television.

CAUSE PAIN
[C1] INFORMAL to cause you a lot of pain or effort
Dictionary examples:
My feet are killing me.
It wouldn't kill you to tidy up occasionally.

Learner example:
I didn't have enough room to move and the seat belt was broken so when we finally arrived [in] Edinburgh my back was killing me.

[C2] to stop an activity or experience completely

Dictionary example:
His remark killed the conversation.

killer /ˈkɪlər/

Word family:
Nouns: killer, killing
Verbs: kill

NOUN [c]
[B1] ! someone who kills another person

Dictionary example:
Police are still hoping to find the dead woman's killer.

Learner example:
I opened the window to take a breath of fresh air and I saw the man again, the killer, smoking a cigarette and looking at me.

killing /ˈkɪl.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: killer, killing
Verbs: kill

NOUN [c]
[B1] ! when a person is murdered

Dictionary example:
a series of brutal killings

Learner example:
During the film there were a lot of explosions, killings and action scenes.
kind /kaind/

Word family:
Nouns: kindness
Adjectives: kind, unkind
Adverbs: kindly

NOUN [C]

that kind of thing
[B1] used to show that what you have just said is only an example from a larger group of things

Dictionary example:
I like pasta, pizza – that kind of thing.

Learner example:
I enjoy that kind of thing, going to buy presents.

some kind of
[B1] used to talk about something when you are not sure of its exact type

Dictionary example:
She has some kind of disability.

Learner example:
You should try joining some kind of club.

kind of INFORMAL
[B2] used to describe something approximately

Dictionary examples:
It’s a kind of shed.
He was kind of half laughing and half crying.

Learner example:
I know that the Frene Hotel is kind of expensive, but it’s just for one night so I think we can make it.

one of a kind
[C2] used to describe someone or something that is completely different from other people or things

Dictionary example:
My Dad was one of a kind – funny, kind and generous.

Learner example:
Pele is indeed one of a kind and can be considered a model for youngsters.
kindly /ˈkaɪnd.li/

Word family:
Nouns: kindness
Adjectives: kind, unkind
Adverbs: kindly

ADVERB
[B1] in a kind way

Dictionary example:
Stella has very kindly offered to help out with the food for the party.

Learner example:
He answers my simple questions kindly.

not take kindly to sth
[C2] to not like something that someone says or does

Dictionary example:
He doesn't take kindly to criticism.

Learner example:
His wife didn't take kindly to his lateness and immediately snarled at him as though [she was] a tigress snapping her claws in a cat-fight.

kindness /ˈkaɪnd.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: kindness
Adjectives: kind, unkind
Adverbs: kindly

NOUN [u]
[B2] the quality of being kind

Dictionary example:
love and kindness

Learner example:
Thank you again for your kindness and hospitality.
king /kɪŋ/

NOUN [c]

BEST PERSON

[C1] the best or most important person in a particular activity

Dictionary example:
He's the new king of pop music.

Learner example:
He is the king of football, which is not at all an exag[g]eration, even though he is retired now.

kingdom /ˈkɪŋ.dəm/

NOUN [c]

COUNTRY

[B2] a country ruled by a king or queen

Dictionary example:
the kingdom of Sweden

Learner example:
The kingdom Chosun lasted until the beginning of [the] 20th century.

the animal/plant kingdom

[C2] all animals or plants considered together

Dictionary example:
The monarch butterfly is one of the most beautiful creatures in the animal kingdom.

Learner example:
As well as being of paramount importance for the animal kingdom, Hawley Woods is the only green open space left in our area where we humans can walk, jog or simply lie on the grass.

kit /kɪt/

NOUN

COLLECTION

[B1] [c] a collection of things kept in a container for a particular use

Dictionary example:
a first-aid/tool kit
Learner example:
I would rather buy a big travel kit, including a first-aid kit.

kitten  /ˈkɪt.ən/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a young cat

Dictionary example:
Our cat’s had two kittens.

knee  /niː/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the middle part of your leg where it bends

Dictionary examples:
a knee injury
The baby was crawling around on its hands and knees.
He got/went down on his knees in front of the altar.

Learner example:
He entered the living room drunk and with blood over his knee.

kneel  /niːl/

VERB [I] (knelt or kneeled, knelt or kneeled)
[B2] to go down into, or stay in, a position where one or both knees are on the ground

Dictionary examples:
She knelt (down) beside the child.
He knelt in front of the altar and prayed.

Learner example:
Robert knelt down by her, prono[u]ncing the simple words "Will you marry me?"

knickers  /ˈnɪk.əz/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B1] women's underwear that covers the bottom

1625
Dictionary example:

Learner example:
There was one time when Pat and I had a fight. It all started when I accident[al]ly took the wrong bag back to my house, and there were lad[ies'] knickers inside.

knit /nɪt/

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to make clothes, etc. by using two long needles to connect wool or another type of thread into joined rows

Dictionary examples:
She's forever knitting.
She's busy knitting baby clothes.
My granny knitted me some gloves/knitted some gloves for me.

Learner example:
I would really like to learn how to knit sweaters and hats.

knob /nɒb/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a round handle, or a round button on a machine

Dictionary examples:
a door knob
Turn the black knob to switch on the radio.

Learner example:
It's so obvious that when we turn a knob on or when we switch on something [and] there is no electricity, we are at a loss!

knock /nɒk/

VERB

MAKE NOISE
[B1] [i] to repeatedly hit something, making a noise
Dictionary examples:
She knocked on the window to attract his attention.
There's someone knocking on/at the door.
Please knock before entering.

Learner example:
On Monday, a person knocked on my door.

HIT

[B1] [ɪt] to hit, especially forcefully, and cause to move or fall

Dictionary examples:
He accidentally knocked the vase off the table.
She knocked her head against the wall as she fell.
She took a hammer and knocked a hole in the wall.

Learner example:
Falling down, I knocked my head on the pavement.

knot /nɒt/

NOUN [c]

FASTENING
[C2] a place where one or more pieces of string, rope, etc. have been tied

Dictionary example:
Tie a knot in the rope.

Learner example:
The man was always wearing a shabby coat and a big red scarf which was tied in a very complicated knot.

tie the knot
[C2] INFORMAL to get married

Dictionary example:
We're planning to tie the knot in April.

Learner example:
She was going to tie the knot in July.
Word family:

Nouns: knowledge, unknown

Verbs: know

Adjectives: known, unknown, knowledgeable

Adverbs: knowingly

VERB (knew, known)

you know

[B1] used to emphasize what you are saying, or used before you start to talk about someone or something, or used as something to say while you are thinking what to say next

Dictionary examples:
I'm not stupid, you know!
You know the bookshop next to the bank? Well, it's closing down.
It's, you know, supposed to be a surprise on her birthday.

BE FAMILIAR WITH

[B1] [ɪ] to be familiar with or have experience and understanding of

Dictionary examples:
I've known Daniel since we were at school together.
She grew up in Paris so she knows it well.
I've seen the film 'Casablanca' so many times that I know a lot of it by heart.
Knowing Sarah, she'll have done a good job.

Learner example:
I knew him in London, and when I knew him I was very happy.

UNDERSTAND A SUBJECT

[B1] [ɪ] or [t] (also know about) If you know a subject, you are familiar with it and understand it.

Dictionary example:
Do you know about computers?

Learner example:
If you want to know more about Peruvian history, I recommend you [visit] the city because you can see the old houses and museum[s].

get to know sb/sth

[B1] to spend time with someone or something so that you gradually learn more about them

Dictionary examples:
The first couple of meetings are for the doctor and patient to get to know each other.
I'll need a few weeks to get to know the system.
Learner example:
I hope you can come here and get to know him.

I know
[B1] used when you have an idea

Dictionary example:
I know – let’s go to Helen’s house.

as you know
[B1] used when you are saying something that someone already knows

Dictionary example:
As you know, we have been trying to contact him.

Learner example:
As you know, I am in New York.

as far as I know
[B2] used to say that you think something is true, but cannot be sure

Dictionary example:
As far as I know, he’s never been in trouble with the police.

Learner example:
As far as I know, accommodation at Camp California is in tents or log cabins.

know better (than to do sth)
[B2] to have the intelligence or judgment not to do something

Dictionary example:
She should have known better than to eat so much. No wonder she feels sick now.

Learner example:
I should have known better but I had to tell it to someone.

I know
[B2] used when you agree with something someone has just said

Dictionary example:
"It’s a lovely day, isn’t it?" "I know – let’s hope it lasts."

you never know
[B2] used to say that something could be possible although it does not seem likely

Dictionary example:
You never know – you might win the lottery.

Learner example:
You never know, maybe I’ll find something interesting and I’ll change my point of view.

before you know it
[C1] very soon

1629
Dictionary example: We'll be there before you know it.

Learner example: It is a bit dark inside and especially in winter, it is dark before you know it.

know sth inside out

[C1] to know everything about something

Dictionary example: He knows the system inside out.

Learner example: The participants got to know Britain inside out and they are happy with the knowledge they gained.

know what you are talking about

[C1] to understand a subject because of your experience

Dictionary example: He doesn't know what he's talking about – he's never even been to Africa.

Learner example: I believe that you don't really know what you're talking about.

GUESS CORRECTLY

[C2] [ɪ] to guess something correctly

Dictionary example: I should have known he wouldn't come.

Learner example: I should have known that he wouldn't understand.

know best

[C2] to be the most suitable person to have responsibility and make important decisions

Dictionary example: When it comes to dealing with my own son, I think I know best.

Learner example: How true is that expression "Father knows best". If my father [was alive] today he would probably be laughing his head off.

know better

[C2] to have enough experience not to do something stupid or something that will not achieve anything

Dictionary example: I thought she'd listen to me – I should have known better.
Learner example:
Surely two grown-ups should have known better than to shout at each other at the top of their lungs.

The next thing I knew
[C2] used to talk about part of a story that happens in a sudden and surprising way

Dictionary example:
A car came speeding round the corner, and the next thing I knew I was lying on the ground.

Learner example:
And the next thing I knew was that I was playing cards with 3 men.

Know your stuff INFORMAL
[C2] to know a lot about a subject, or to be very good at doing something

Dictionary example:
She’s an excellent teacher – she really knows her stuff.

Learner example:
The thing was that she should have been be able to tell them what to do; she never doubted her own abilities. She knew ‘her stuff’ all right.

knowingly /ˈnəʊ.ɪŋ.li/

Word family:
Nouns: knowledge, unknown
Verbs: know
Adjectives: known, unknown, knowledgeable Adverbs: knowingly

Adverb

INTENTIONALLY
[C2] If you knowingly do something, you mean to do it although it is wrong.

Dictionary example:
I would never knowingly hurt her.

Learner example:
Separate sex schools unavoidably tend to instill values knowingly or unknowingly.

SHOWING KNOWLEDGE
[C2] showing that you know what another person is really thinking

Dictionary example:
He smiled knowingly.

Learner example:
On staring at the picture, he saw two women smiling enigmatically, rather knowingly.
knowledge /ˈnɒl.idʒ/

Word family:

Nouns: knowledge, unknown
Verbs: know
Adjectives: known, unknown, knowledgeable Adverbs: knowingly

NOUN

UNDERSTANDING

[B1] [U NO PLURAL] information and understanding that you have in your mind

Dictionary examples:

- Her knowledge of English grammar is very extensive.
- He has a limited knowledge of French.
- The details of the scandal are now common knowledge.

Learner example:

Actually, I wanted to improve my English knowledge, because I need a good job.

to (the best of) my knowledge

[B2] used to say that you think that something is true, but cannot be sure

Dictionary example:

- To the best of my knowledge, she's never worked abroad.

Learner example:

Besides, to the best of my knowledge, nowhere in the city can [you] try such lovely mushrooms.

common knowledge

[B2] something that a lot of people know

Dictionary example:

- It's common knowledge that he spent time in jail.

Learner example:

It is common knowledge that such attention [in the mass-media] inevitably tells on relationships in the family.

a working knowledge of sth

[B2] knowledge about something which is good enough to be useful

Dictionary example:

- She has a working knowledge of German and Russian.

Learner example:

Furthermore, I have a working knowledge of English, Spanish, Catalan and Italian. knowledgeable  /ˈnɒl.ɪdʒ.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: knowledge, unknown
Verbs: know
Adjectives: known, unknown, knowledgeable
Adverbs: knowingly

ADJECTIVE
[C1] knowing a lot

Dictionary example:
He's very knowledgeable about art.

Learner example:
The teaching staff are largely responsible for the quality of the classes, as they're very knowledgeable and patient; being able to find them after classes, though, was impossible.

known  /nɒn/

Word family:
Nouns: knowledge, unknown
Verbs: know
Adjectives: known, unknown, knowledgeable
Adverbs: knowingly

ADJECTIVE
be known as sth
[B1] to be called

Dictionary example:
California is also known as the Sunshine State.

Learner example:
He studied in Central College, which is now known as Queen's College.

FAMILIAR
[B2] recognised or known about by most people

Dictionary examples:
These people are known criminals.
He is known to the police because of his previous criminal record.

be known to do sth
[C1] if something or someone is known to do something, people know that it is true or happens
Dictionary examples:
He is known to dislike opera.
Her car was known to break down frequently.

Learner example:
Firstly, the development of technology is known to cause ob[e]sity.

knuckle  /ˈnʌk.l/

NOUN [C]
[C2] one of the parts of your finger where it bends

Dictionary example:
I grazed my knuckles on the concrete.

Learner example:
What he could see was those two skinny figures, holding hands so tight[ly] that their knuckles were white.
lab  /læb/

NOUN [C] INFORMAL

[B1] a laboratory

Dictionary examples:
a science/computer lab
a lab technician

Learner example:
There are computer labs too.

label  /ˈleɪ.bəl/

NOUN [C]

INFORMATION

[B1] a small piece of paper or other material which gives information about the thing it is fixed to

Dictionary examples:
Remember to put some address labels on the suitcases.
Washing instructions should be on the label.

Learner example:
It was the price label hanging from the skirt belt.

COMPANY

[B1] a company which produces goods for sale, the goods themselves, or the company's name or symbol

Dictionary examples:
Her favourite designer label is Armani.
Their own-label vegetarian products have been a huge success.
The group have just signed with a new record label.

Learner example:
Another style which I like is the clothes from big labels like Armani, Dolce and Gabanna and Hugo Boss, but they are very expensive.
WORD
[C2] a word or phrase that is used to describe the qualities of someone or something, usually in a way that is not fair

Dictionary example:
He seems to be stuck with the label of 'troubblemaker'.

Learner example:
He pointed out that the label of "traveller" could only be given to those people who would be willing to spend a long period living in another country, enough time to understand the functioning of society and its rules and to be accepted as an "informed" citizen, or at least not to be regarded as a foreigner.

VERB [t] (–ll– or US usually –l–)

INFORMATION
[C1] to fix a small piece of paper or other material to something which gives information about it

Dictionary examples:
All food has to be labelled with 'best before' or 'use by' dates.
The parcel was clearly labelled 'Fragile'.

Learner example:
Moreover, the book shelves are clearly labelled and the books are in alphabetical order.

DESCRIBE
[C2] to describe the qualities of someone or something using a word or phrase, usually in a way that is not fair

Dictionary example:
They've been unfairly labelled as criminals.

Learner example:
As a matter of fact, Mediterranean [people] (contrary to North European countries), are labelled as hot-blooded people.

laboratory /ləˈbɑːtri/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a room used for scientific work

Dictionary examples:
research laboratories
a computer laboratory
Laboratory tests suggest that the new drug may be used to treat cancer.
Learner example:
I was in my school, in a laboratory, when I lost it.

labour /ˈleɪ.bə/

NOUN

WORK

[C1] [U] work, especially the type of work that needs a lot of physical effort

Dictionary examples:
The car parts themselves are not expensive, it's the labour that costs the money.

manual labour

Learner example:
My contribution towards this project is that I will provide two of my trucks and labour for the transportation of garbage within the community to the dumping sites.

WORKERS

[C1] [U] workers, especially people who do practical work with their hands

Dictionary examples:
skilled/unskilled labour casual labour

Learner example:
This is seen in some AIDS programme[s] by developed countries to developing countries where many poor people including women and children benefit from skilled labour from abroad.

the labour market

[C1] the number of people who are available and willing to work

Dictionary example:
More women have entered the labour market in recent years.

Learner example:
WELCOME TO THE JUNGLE best suits [the] situation of a young Pole entering the labour market.

a labour of love

[C2] an activity that is hard work but which you do because you enjoy it

Dictionary example:
He prefers to paint the house himself – it's a real labour of love.

Learner example:
[Being a] musician is a labour of love.
BIRTH

[C2] [c or u] the stage of pregnancy when the woman has pain because the baby is coming out

Dictionary examples:
to be in labour labour pains

Learner example:
22 years ago, Alison Smith gave birth to twins, a boy and a girl, in a very painful labour.

lack /læk/

NOUN

lack of sth
[B1] not having something, or not having enough of something

Dictionary examples:
Her only problem is lack of confidence.
Lack of sleep had made him irritable.
If he fails it won't be for/through lack of effort.
We won't be going on holiday this year – lack of money, I'm afraid.

Learner example:
If you like nature, wish to see tropical birds, which are rare in your country, or just wish to have a pleasant time, the countryside is the best option, [despite] the lack of nightlife.

VERB [v]

NOT HAVE
[B2] to not have or not have enough of something that is needed or wanted

Dictionary examples:
He just lacks a little confidence.
What we lack in this house is space to store things.
We are lacking three members of staff due to illness.

Learner example:
He lacks confidence due to such a terrible appearance.

be lacking in sth
[C1] to not have a quality

Dictionary example:
He’s totally lacking in charm of any sort.

Learner example:
On the other hand, Japanese children are lacking in creativity and originality.
be lacking
[C2] If something that you need is lacking, you do not have enough of it.

Dictionary example:
Enthusiasm has been sadly lacking these past few months at work.

Learner example:
And, last not least, I would really like to show them the importance and beauty of our cultural heritage which was lacking in my upbringing.

lad /læd/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a boy or young man

Dictionary examples:
A group of young lads were standing outside the shop.
He's a nice lad.
The Prime Minister's a local lad.
Come on, lads, let's get this job finished!

Learner example:
A young lad from Bristol said that he does not really care what he does as long as it brings him "[an] awful lot of money".

ladder /ˈlæd.ər/

NOUN [C]

EQUIPMENT
[B1] a piece of equipment which is used to reach high places, consisting of short steps fixed between two long sides

Dictionary example:
She was up a ladder, cleaning the window.

Learner example:
My grandfather fell down from the ladder yesterday while he [was] fixing the broken light bulbs.

STAGES
[C1] a series of increasingly important jobs or stages in a particular type of work or process

Dictionary examples:
a first step on the employment ladder
He moved rapidly up the corporate ladder.
Learner example:
Far too often it is not "the key" but "the missing link", preventing us from taking the next step on the career ladder.

lady /ˈleɪ.di/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a polite or old fashioned way of referring to or talking to a woman

Dictionary examples:
There's a young lady here to see you.
Say "thank you" to the lady, children.

Learner example:
A very nice lady offer[ed] me a ride home but I refuse[d].

laid-back /ˌleɪdˈbæk/

ADJECTIVE INFORMAL
[C2] very relaxed and not seeming worried about anything, or causing people to feel this way

Dictionary examples:
a laid-back style of teaching
He's very laid-back.
The place had a laid-back atmosphere.

Learner example:
It was very nice to be with laid-back people, not only because it led me to forget about unnecessary worries, but also it made me think about myself more thoroughly than before.

lamb /læm/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a young sheep, or the flesh of a young sheep eaten as meat

Dictionary examples:
We were staying on a farm where there were newborn lambs.
roast lamb

Learner example:
I special[l]y like the eggs and rice, and the spicy lamb that they are quite good at.
land /lænd/

Word family:

Nouns: land, landing

Verbs: land

NOUN

AREA OF GROUND

[B1] [u] an area of ground, especially when used for a particular purpose such as farming or building

Dictionary examples:
This sort of land is no good for growing potatoes.
We want to buy a plot of land to build a house.

Learner example:
One man talked about how people can use their land properly, how they [should] take care of their poultry farm or dairy farm, [and] how they can take care of their trees and crops.

NOT SEA

[B2] [u] the surface of the Earth that is not sea

Dictionary examples:
It is cheaper to drill for oil on land than at sea.
The treaty has led to a dramatic reduction in the number of land-based missiles in Europe.

Learner example:
Firstly, the car is the fastest way of transportation by land [that] we have.

COUNTRY

[C2] [c] LITERARY a country

Dictionary examples:
a land of ice and snow
The group want to promote their ideas in schools throughout the land.

Learner example:
Australia is said to be "the land of contrasts" and so indeed it is.

VERB

ARRIVE

[B1] [i or ɨ] to arrive at a place in a plane or a boat, or to make a plane or a boat reach the land

Dictionary examples:
We should land in Madrid at 7am.
You can land a plane on water in an emergency.
We landed at Port Said in the early evening.
Learner example:
When we landed, my suitcase was not there.

land in/on, etc.

[C1] If an object or person lands somewhere, they fall to the ground there.

Dictionary examples:
The ball landed in the neighbour’s garden.
She landed flat on her back.

Learner example:
Then, when your booking form landed on my door mat, I decided to take matters into my own hands and to pay a visit to this conference.

ACHIEVE

[C2] [ɪ] to get something, usually something good

Dictionary example:
He’s just landed a new job at an agency in London.

Learner example:
To return to our first point, people do not usually land a job in their field of study or childhood dream.

---

landing /ˈlændɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: land, landing
Verbs: land

NOUN [C]

[B2] an arrival on the ground of an aircraft or boat

Dictionary example:
One person has died after the pilot of a light aircraft was forced to make a crash/emergency landing in a field.

Learner example:
The company said our landing would depend on the weather forecast.

---

landlady /ˈlændˌleɪd.i/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a woman who you rent a room or a house from

Dictionary example:
My landlady doesn’t let us have guests.
Learner example:
The thing is our landlady loves money and we have to pay plenty of money excluding [the] accommodation fee.

landlord /ˈlænd.loʊd/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a man who you rent a room or house from

Dictionary example:
I’ve asked our landlord to fix the window.

Learner example:
I came downstairs [and] saw my landlord, [who] seemed very angry.

landmark /ˈlænd.mɑːk/

NOUN [C]

[BUILDING] [C1] a building that you can easily recognize, especially one that helps you to know where you are

Dictionary example:
a historic landmark

Learner example:
What they enjoyed most was the bus tour of London, on Tuesday, as it was a chance for them to see all the famous landmarks without walking.

[EVENT] [C2] an event which is famous or important in the history of something

Dictionary example:
His speech was a landmark in the history of civil rights.

Learner example:
This film will never be "Titanic" successful, or "Casablanca" successful, or "Matrix" successful, but it [will] always be a [...] landmark in the history of action and martial arts films, forever redefining its genre.
landscape /ˈlænd.skeɪp/

NOUN [c]

[B1] the appearance of an area of land, especially in the countryside

Dictionary examples:
- a rural landscape
- The castle dominates the landscape for miles around.

Learner example:
The landscape was beautiful with a lake, a lot of animals, birds, [and] many flowers.

lane /leɪn/

NOUN [c]

ROAD

[B2] a narrow road in the countryside or in a town

Dictionary example:
- He drives so fast along those narrow country lanes.

Learner example:
- I think the best place to buy all this junk food is from my aunty's sweet shop, just 2 miles down your lane.

PART

[B2] part of a road or track that is separated from the other parts, usually by a painted line

Dictionary examples:
- the inside/middle/outside lane
- the fast/slow lane
- They're widening the road from two to three lanes.

Learner example:
- For example, most buses drive [i]n an extra lane.

the fast lane

[C2] the busy and exciting way of life that a successful person has

Dictionary example:
- Fed up with life in the fast lane, Jack gave up his job and moved to the countryside.

Learner example:
- Finally, should you ask why people are not happier than before, the answer is that nowadays they spend more hours on work than before, because modern life is mostly a life in the fast lane.
a stroll/trip/walk down memory lane
[C2] an occasion when you remember some of the good things you did in the past

Dictionary example:
We were just taking a walk down memory lane and recalling our youth.

Learner example:
I want to return there, without the kids, even without my husband, to have a long stroll down memory lane.

language /ˈlæŋ.wɪdʒ/

NOUN

COMMUNICATION
[B1] [u] communication between people, usually using words

Dictionary example:
She has done research into how children acquire language.

Learner example:
Language is very important [for] communication between people.

TYPE OF WORDS
[C1] [u] words of a particular type, especially the words used by people in a particular job or academic field

Dictionary examples:
legal language
the language of business

Learner example:
English has become the language of science, so it seems, even though some of the papers, studies and publications are hard to read and understand.

COMPUTERS
[C1] [c or u] a system of instructions that is used to write computer programs

Dictionary example:
I'm not familiar with that language.

Learner example:
Students must have knowledge of at least one programming language, preferably Visual C++.

foul language
[C1] very rude and offensive words

Dictionary example:
There was a lot of foul language in the movie.
Learner example:
It is the responsibility of the parents not to fight or use any foul language in front of the kids, as they may learn and use it in front of others.

strong language
[C1] words that some people might consider to be offensive

Dictionary example:
The movie contains strong language.

Learner example:
But what I do see is local kids standing by the corner, chat[t]ing, smoking fags and using strong language.

---

lap /læp/

NOUN [C]

BODY
[B2] Your lap is the top part of your legs when you are sitting down.

Dictionary example:
Come on kids – sit on my lap and I'll read you a story.

Learner example:
Clara opened her eyes and she was sit[t]ing [o]n [a] comfortable sofa in her warm room, and in her lap was [a] history book.

SPORTS
[B2] one complete turn around a race track or from one end of a swimming pool to the other

Dictionary example:
He's two laps behind the leaders.

Learner example:
The race began and David was 2nd after 25 laps, behind Nilson's rear bumper.

---

large /lɑːdʒ/

Word family:
Adjectives: large
Adverbs: largely

ADJECTIVE

by and large
[C1] in general

1646
Dictionary example:
By and large, people have welcomed the changes.

Learner example:
By and large, it is clear that we all enjoy some kind of sport.

sb/sth at large
[C2] people or things in general

Dictionary example:
This group is not representative of the population at large.

Learner example:
Television – sometimes also described as the 'idiot box' – has been accused of turning a whole generation into 'couch potatoes' and blamed for every malady affecting the society at large.

loom large
[C2] If something looms large, it becomes very important and often causes worry.

Dictionary example:
The issue of pay will loom large at this year's conference.

Learner example:
It was, she dreaded to admit, a sense of regret. She shook her head as if doing so shooed the feeling away. On the contrary, however, it was looming large while she was stamping along the busy street.

largely /ˈlaːdʒ.li/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADVERB

[B2] almost completely

Dictionary examples:
a largely male company
Their complaints have been largely ignored.
Until recently, the civil war had been largely unreported in the press.

Learner example:
What I'm trying to say is that images, film-frames, videos and sound clips would be largely accepted by the young people because we're moving into a new high-technology age.
laser /ˈleɪ.zər/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a machine that produces a strong beam of light that has medical and technical uses or a beam of light produced by a machine like this

Dictionary examples:
laser beam laser surgery

Learner example:
These appliances have been the key to medical achievements, such as laser-based surgery or different kinds of diagnosis and treatment.

last /lɑːst/

Word family:
Nouns: last
Adjectives: last
Adverbs: last, lastly

ADJECTIVE, DETERMINER

REMAINING
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] only remaining

Dictionary example:
Who wants the last piece of cake?

Learner example:
The cam[eras] watch everybody in the house 24 hours [a day]. Every Friday, the public decide[s] who [should leave]. The last person wins this show.

the last person/thing, etc.
[B2] the least expected or wanted person or thing

Dictionary examples:
Three extra people to feed – that's the last thing I need!
The last thing I wanted was to make you unhappy.
Matthew is the last person I'd expect to be interested in dance.
He's the last person I'd trust with my keys.

Learner example:
I thought it would be the last thing I wanted, but it wasn't. I've really enjoyed this opportunity.

a last resort
[C2] something that you do because everything else has failed
Dictionary example:
Soldiers were given the authority to shoot, but only as a last resort.

Learner example:
But forcing the child to believe in the way we would like it to believe should be used only as a last resort, after discussion and persuading, not before.

ADVERB

MOST RECENT

[B1] used to talk about the most recent time you did something

Dictionary examples:
When did you last see her?
I think it was July when I last spoke to him.

Learner example:
Write back soon and let me know what you [have been] up to since I heard from you last.

AFTER ALL OTHERS

[B2] after everything or everyone else

Dictionary examples:
I wasn't expecting to win the race but I didn't think I'd come last!
We've still got to check the figures but we'll do that last.

Learner example:
When I reached the other end of the pool, my heart suddenly stopped and I just couldn't move my legs to continue swimming. So, I arrived last.

last but not least

[B2] something that you say to introduce the last person or thing on a list

Dictionary example:
This is Jeremy, this is Cath and, last but not least, this is Eva.

Learner example:
And, last but not least, some complaints were made [about] the entertainment the café provides.

NOUN; PRONOUN

at (long) last

[B1] finally

Dictionary example:
At last, I've found a pair of jeans that actually fit.

Learner example:
At last, all of us agreed on "Cinema Farhang".

the last

[B2] a person or thing that does something after all the others
Dictionary example:
We were the last to get there.

Learner example:
After a short time, the last of Mrs. O'Connell's guests arrived.

the day/week/year, etc. before last [B2] the day, week, year, etc. before the one that has just finished

Dictionary example:
I only had my hair cut the week before last.

Learner example:
But the year before last I went with my parents on holiday and we had a lot of fun.

the last of sth

[C2] the only part of something that remains

Dictionary examples:
We've just finished the last of the apples.
She was among the last of the truly great entertainers.

Learner example:
They felt the joy their predecessors must have felt after years of struggle, after risking their lives, after accepting in resignation to be the last of a lineage that had lasted for centuries.

the last sb heard/saw of sb

[C2] the last time someone heard anything about a person or the last time they saw them

Dictionary examples:
I had a letter from Bristol, and that was the last I heard of her.
I told them exactly what I thought, and that was the last I saw of them.

Learner example:
That was the last I heard of her for a long time.

VERB [i]

CONTINUE

[B1] to continue to happen, exist, or be useful

Dictionary examples:
How long will the meeting last?
We don’t get much sun – enjoy it while it lasts!
Most sessions last about an hour.
The batteries only last about five hours.

Learner example:
We saw a new film, "Signs", that I liked very much, even though I found it very long: it lasted about 3 hours!
BE ENOUGH
[C1] to be enough for a period of time

Dictionary examples:
I've only got £30 to last me till the end of the month.
We've got enough food to last another week.

Learner example:
Until now half of the Filipinos in the Philippines who [devote] themselves to farming are still on [a] hand to mouth existence, having just enough food to last until the next harvest.

---

last /ˈlɑːst/ /ˈlɑːst.li/

Word family:
Nouns: last
Adjectives: last
Adverbs: last, last

ADVERB
[B2] finally

Dictionary example:
And lastly, I'd like to thank everyone who took part in the event.

Learner example:
Lastly, I'd like to say that it's very kind of you to suggest bringing something back for me.

---

last-minute /ˈlɑːstˌmɪnɪt/ /ˈlɑːstˌmɪnɪt/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] done at the latest possible opportunity

Dictionary example:
a last-minute cancellation

Learner example:
I could come the following day to help you [with] the last-minute preparations if you want [me] to.

---

late /ˈleɪt/ /ˈleɪt/

Word family:
Adjectives: late, latest
Adverbs: lately, later
ADJECTIVE

DEAD

[C2] ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN describes someone who has died, especially recently

Dictionary example:
She gave her late husband’s clothes to charity.

Learner example:
It took me a while to find a person whom I regard as successful, the outcome is a friend of my late father.

at the latest

[C2] If you tell someone to do something by a particular time at the latest, you mean they must do it before that time.

Dictionary example:
She said to be there by 8 o’clock at the latest.

ADVERB

NEAR THE END

[B2] near the end of a period of time

Dictionary examples:
We talked late into the night.
As late as the 1980s they were still using horses on this farm.

Learner example:
Firstly, he usually starts working at eight in the morning and he keeps on writing and phoning till late in the evening.

lately /ˈleɪt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: late, latest
Adverbs: lately, later

ADVERB

[B1] recently

Dictionary examples:
Lately, I've been walking to work.
I haven't been feeling so well lately.

Learner example:
I'm sorry I couldn't write back to you before but I've been very busy lately.
later /ˈleɪ.tə/

Word family:
Adjectives: late, latest
Adverbs: lately, later

ADVERB

later on
[B1] at a time in the future, or after the time you have mentioned

Dictionary examples:
What are you doing later on this evening?
Shall I go and fetch her later on?
Later on, we could go and have a meal if you like.

Learner example:
But later on, I could not believe what actually happened.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

IN THE FUTURE
[B2] happening at a time in the future, or after the time you have mentioned

Dictionary examples:
We could catch a later train.
You can always change your password at a later date.

Learner example:
He said he'll come at a later date.

TOWARDS THE END
[C2] happening towards the end of a period of time or the end of someone's life

Dictionary examples:
He needed round-the-clock care in the later stages of his illness.
During his later years, he lived in London.

Learner example:
Another solution could be for people to take out private pension schemes which would help them financially in the later stages of their lives.

RECENT
[C2] more modern or recent

Dictionary examples:
Later versions of the software are much better.
Later models included a 2.5 litre engine.
I prefer her earlier paintings to her later work.
Learner example:
I consider his childhood as especially worth mentioning due to the fact that it had a great impact on his later work.

latter /ˈlæt.ər/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] near or towards the end of something

Dictionary examples:
Building of the new library should begin in the latter part of next year.
In the latter stages of the fight he began to tire.

Learner example:
I agree with the latter opinion.

Pronoun

the latter
[B2] the second of two people, things or groups previously mentioned

Dictionary example:
My boss offered me more money or a car, and I chose the latter.

Learner example:
The former is a Chinese restaurant and the latter an Indian.

laugh /lɑːf/

Word family:
Nouns: laugh, laughter
Verbs: laugh

Verb [i]

be no laughing matter
[C2] If a subject is no laughing matter, it is serious and not something that people should joke about.

Dictionary example:
This weather is no laughing matter.

Learner example:
Anna and Tom knew this was no laughing matter.

Noun [C]
[B1] the act or sound of laughing
Dictionary examples:
a loud/nervous laugh
I was embarrassed at the time, but I had a good laugh about it later.

Learner example:
There is a beautiful beach there where you can swim, play football and enjoy a good laugh with your friends.

laughter /ˈlaːftər/

Word family:
Nouns: laugh, laughter
Verbs: laugh

NOUN [u]
[B2] the act or sound of laughing

Dictionary examples:
She roared with laughter.
As we approached the hall we could hear the sound of laughter.

Learner example:
There was a roar of laughter.

launch /lɔːntʃ/
SEND
[C1] to send a spacecraft or bomb into the sky, or a ship into the water

Dictionary examples:
A spokesman for the dockyard said they hoped to launch the first submarine within two years. to launch a missile

Learner example:
Could our grandparents or grandparents' parents imagine that one day, we would be able to launch rockets, to have satellites in the sky?

NOUN [C]

START OF ACTIVITY
[C1] the start of an important plan or activity or the process of making a new product or service available

Dictionary examples:
The launch of their new campaign began today with a press conference. How much champagne will we need for the launch? Illness prevented her attending the launch party for her latest novel.

Learner example:
As for the natural resources, it is not very effective as nothing has changed since the launch of the campaign.

LEAVE LAND
[C1] the launching of a spacecraft, ship, or weapon

Dictionary example:
The launch of the space shuttle was delayed for 24 hours because of bad weather.

Learner example:
Since I was [a] young boy I was constantly imagining that I was able to travel through time and be an eye-witness to some of mankind's most significant moments – the birth of Christ, the discovery of America, [and] even up to recent events such as the launch of the first space shuttle.

laundry /ˈlɔːn.dri/

NOUN [U]
[B2] clothes, sheets, etc. that need to be washed

Dictionary example:
to do the laundry

Learner example:
Does the camp have laundry facilities?
lavish /ˈlæv.iʃ/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] showing that a lot of money has been spent

Dictionary example:
a lavish meal/party

Learner example:
Wilbur arrived later, too late for the compulsory martini but still on time for the lavish meal of 7 courses.

law /lɔː/

Word family:
Nouns: law, lawyer

NOUN

SUBJECT

[B1] [u] the subject or job of understanding and dealing with the official laws of a country

Dictionary examples: to study/practise law
a law school/firm
a specialist in commercial/criminal/international law

Learner example:
Her name is Martina, she is twenty-one years old and she studies law in Bologna.

RULE

[B2] [c or u] an official rule in a country

Dictionary examples:
There are laws against drinking in the street.
The laws governing the possession of firearms are being reviewed.
They led the fight to impose laws on smoking.
They have passed a new law to ban fox hunting.

Learner example:
I think it would be a good idea to let shop owner[s] decide themselves about opening time and not to constrict this by law.

the law

[B2] the system of official rules in a country
Dictionary examples:
What does the law say about having alcohol in the blood while driving?
Of course robbery is against the law!
The judge ruled that the directors had knowingly broken the law.
You can't take that course of action and remain within the law.

Learner example:
As a result, the law is being constantly broken.

by law
[C1] If you have to do something by law, it is illegal not to do it.

Dictionary example:
They have to provide a contract by law.

Learner example:
Swedish organisations and [companies] are forced by law to put forward programmes for employing more women and improving their conditions.

ALWAYS TRUE
[C2] something that is always true in science, mathematics, etc.

Dictionary examples:
the laws of nature/physics
the law of averages/gravity

Learner example:
Unfortunately, several problems have been caused by this "artificial attempt" against the laws of Nature.

take the law into your own hands
[C2] to do something illegal in order to punish someone because you know that the law will not punish that person

Dictionary example:
The police did nothing about the thefts, so they took the law into their own hands.

Learner example:
Therefore, locals are scared to death, leading to their taking the law into their own hands.

law and order
[C2] the obeying of laws in society

Dictionary example:
a breakdown in law and order

Learner example:
The breakdown in law and order, lack of basic amenities to support life, absence of a fair and enabling environment for citizens to thrive, to mention but a few, are some among many factors [that] constitute the cogent reason why most Nigerians choose to travel out of their own country.
lawn /lɔːn/

NOUN [c]
[C1] an area of grass that is cut

Dictionary example:
Will you mow the lawn at the weekend?

Learner example:
Please find enclosed a map of Brighton. Concerning the house, I ask you to mow the lawn regularly and to water the flowers and the green plants every day.

lawyer /ˈlɔɪ.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: law, lawyer

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone whose job is to give advice to people about the law and speak for them in court

Dictionary example:
I want to see my lawyer before I say anything.

Learner example:
After that she thank[ed] me and she told me that she is a lawyer.

lay /leɪ/

VERB [v] (laid, laid)

lay the table
[B1] to put plates, knives, forks, etc. on the table to prepare for a meal

Dictionary example:
Could you lay the table for me, please?

Learner example:
Before she came to my home, I prepared everything perfectly, laying the table with silver spoons, flowers and candles.

lay eggs
[B2] If an animal lays eggs, it produces them out of its body.

Dictionary example:
The hens have laid a lot of eggs this week.
Learner example:
The only thing they can do is to lay eggs.

lay sth down/in/on, etc.
[C1] to put something down somewhere carefully

Dictionary examples:
She laid the baby on the bed.
He laid the tray down on the table.
She laid aside her book and went to answer the phone.

Learner example:
Veterans lay flowers on the graves of those who'd died during the War.

---

layer /ˈleɪ.ə/

NOUN [c]
[B2] an amount of a substance covering a surface, or one of several amounts of substance, each on top of the other

Dictionary examples:
the ozone layer
A thick layer of dust lay over everything.
There was a thin layer of oil on the surface of the water.
We stripped several layers of paint off the door.

Learner example:
I think clothes will have many gadgets on them like a small oxygen mask [or] a hat designed to protect people from the strong rays of the sun at midday because the ozone layer will be destroyed in a hundred years' [time].

---

layout /ˈleɪ.oʊt/

NOUN [c]
[C1] the way that something is arranged

Dictionary examples:
Pay attention to the layout of your report.
Do you like the layout of the kitchen?

Learner example:
Concerning the layout of the new centre, I think that the changes you proposed to the size and location of the coffee bar will be of invaluable help.
laziness  /ˈleɪ.zi.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: laziness
Adjectives: lazy

NOUN [u]
[B2] being lazy

Dictionary example:
I could go to the gym – it's just laziness that stops me.

Learner example:
Sorry I haven't dropped you a line before now – no excuses really, just laziness.

lazy  /ˈleɪ.zi/

Word family:
Nouns: laziness
Adjectives: lazy

ADJECTIVE

RELAXED
[B2] slow and relaxed

Dictionary example:
a lazy morning/weekend

Learner example:
All in all we spent a lazy holiday there with fine weather and a warm blue sea.

lead  /liːd/

Word family:
Nouns: lead, leader, leadership
Verbs: lead, mislead
Adjectives: lead, leading, misleading

VERB (led, led)

SHOW WAY
[B1] [i or ɪ] to show someone where to go, usually by taking them to a place or by going in front of them
Dictionary examples:
I don't know the way, so you'd better lead.
She led them down the hall.
The waiter led us to our table.
Our guide led us through the mountains.
She took the child by the hand and led him upstairs to bed.
He led the horse out of the stable.

Learner example:
And you can go to the nearest village, where you can [take a] mountain walk led by experienced guides.

lead into/to/towards, etc.
[B2] If something, for example a path or road, leads somewhere, it goes in that direction.

Dictionary examples:
That path leads to the beach.
There's a track that leads directly to the reservoir.
A narrow trail of blood led directly into the cave.

Learner example:
I discovered a small path which led to an old castle we had never seen before.

BE WINNING
[B2] [I or T] to be winning a game or a competition

Dictionary examples:
After thirty minutes the challengers were leading by two goals.
With two laps to go Ngomo led by less than two seconds.
The Lions lead the Hawks 28 - 9.

Learner example:
Marseille led 1-0 versus Milan AC in the match which qualified the winner for the semi-finals.

CONTROL
[B2] [I or T] to be in control of a group, country, or situation

Dictionary examples:
I think we've chosen the right person to lead the expedition.
I've asked Gemma to lead the discussion.
Who will be leading the enquiry into the accident?

Learner example:
I also led a group of people cleaning the wood just outside the city.

lead a busy/normal/quiet, etc. life
[B2] to live in a particular way

Dictionary example:
He was able to lead a normal life despite his illness.
Learner example:
Owing to the great speed of technological development, people need to lead a faster life [than before].

BE THE BEST
[C2] [I or T] to be better than anyone else

Dictionary example:
I still believe that we lead the world in acting talent.

lead sb to do sth
[C2] to cause someone to do or think something

Dictionary examples:
What led you to think that?
The brochure led me to believe that the price included home delivery.

Learner example:
The girl's disappearance leads him to think she was taken away.

be led by sth
[C2] to be caused or influenced by something

Dictionary example:
Her actions were led by greed.

Learner example:
The main reason that I believe so is that they do not seem to possess any tendency to fall in love blindly and let themselves be led by instinct.

lead sb to a conclusion
[C2] to cause you to think that something is probably true

Dictionary example:
So you thought I was leaving, did you? What led you to that conclusion?

Learner example:
These results lead us to the conclusion that only people with "minds tough enough" will survive.

NOUN

WINNING
[B2] [NO PLURAL] a winning position during a race or other situation where people are competing, or a position ahead of other people

Dictionary examples:
For the first time in the race Harrison is in the lead.
With a final burst of speed she went/moved into the lead.
After last night's win Johnson has taken the lead in the championship table.
By the end of the day's play Davies had a lead of three points.
The whole family walked down to the beach, with Mum in the lead.

1663
Learner example:
David was [in] the lead with a revolver tightly held in his hand.

FILM/PLAY

[C2] the main person in a film or play

Dictionary example:
She plays the lead in both films.

Learner example:
A child who leaves school feeling that he has succeeded in leaving his mark by holding the school record for high jump or getting the lead in the school production is a happy, confident child who is able to face the next chapter in his life knowing he can and will do well.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B1] The lead performer or lead part in a performance is the main performer or part.

Dictionary example:
Who played the lead role?

Learner example:
It was Dave Grohl, the lead singer of Foo Fighters!

leader /ˈliː.dər/

Word family:

Nouns: lead, leader, leadership

Verbs: lead, mislead

Adjectives: lead, leading, misleading

NOUN [C]

PERSON IN CONTROL

[B1] a person in control of a group, country, or situation

Dictionary examples:
a tour leader
The Russian leader wants to introduce further changes.
He's a natural leader.
She was elected as leader of the campaign group.

Learner example:
When I arrived there, the group leader introduced me to all the others, and they all were very friendly.

WINNER

[C1] someone or something that is winning during a race or other situation where people are competing
Dictionary examples:
He’s fallen two laps behind the leaders.
Microsoft is a world leader in software design.

Learner example:
The work experience with SuNatCo must, [without] doubt, positively affect your future career, as our firm is a world leader in the sphere of communications.

leadership /ˈliː.də.ʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: lead, leader, leadership
Verbs: lead, mislead
Adjectives: lead, leading, misleading

NOUN [u]

JOB
[C1] the job of being in control of a group, country, or situation

Dictionary examples:
The group flourished under her firm leadership.
R&M gained market leadership by selling products that were of superior quality.

Learner example:
Apart from his charismatic leadership and his pioneering spirit, Eleftherios Venizelos was very close to people who were impoverished and deeply disappointed at that time.

the leadership
[C1] the people in control of a group, country, or situation

Dictionary examples:
There is growing discontent with the leadership.
The election for the leadership of the council will take place on Tuesday.

Learner example:
His reappearance is when he wins the leadership of the Social Democratic Party and when a few months later he becomes Prime-Minster.

QUALITY
[C1] the set of characteristics that make a good leader

Dictionary examples:
What the company lacks is leadership.
He lacks leadership qualities/skills.

Learner example:
I also have strong leadership skills and I can lead a team, if necessary.
leading  /ˈliː.dɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: lead, leader, leadership
Verbs: lead, mislead
Adjectives: lead, leading, misleading

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] very important or most important

Dictionary examples:
a leading expert on the country's ecology the world's leading manufacturer of audio equipment

Learner example:
Indeed hard work plays the leading role concerning both family welfare and [the] national economy.

leaf  /liːf/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL leaves)

PLANT
[B1] a flat, green part of a plant that grows from a stem or branch

Dictionary examples:
a lettuce leaf
autumn leaves
He was sweeping up leaves in his garden.

Learner example:
One of the things that I like [about] gorillas as is that they are strong and they eat leaves, and another thing is that they can move very fast through the trees.

turn over a new leaf
[C2] to start to behave in a better way

Dictionary example:
I'm not drinking any more – I've turned over a new leaf.

Learner example:
She promised to turn over a new leaf.
leaflet /ˈliːf.lət/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a piece of folded paper or a small book which contains information

Dictionary example:
I picked up a useful leaflet on how to fill in tax forms.

Learner example:
Another idea is to place a table where students, staff and visitors can find some information about the school and their activities, some leaflets and brochures.

league /liːg/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a group of teams which compete against each other in a sport

Dictionary examples:
Who do you think will win the league championship this year?
Liverpool were top of the Football League that year.
They are currently bottom of the league.

Learner example:
For example, I like live football match[es] from [the] Premier league.

leak /liːk/

VERB

LIQUID
[B2] [I or T] If a liquid or gas leaks, it comes out of a hole by accident, and if a container leaks, it allows liquid or gas to come out when it should not.

Dictionary examples:
Water was leaking from the pipe.
Oil leaked out of the car.
The tin was leaking.
The car leaked oil all over the drive.

Learner example:
There is always a possibil[ity] that this tent is leaking.

SECRETS
[C2] [T] If someone leaks secret information, they intentionally tell people about it.
Dictionary example:
Details of the report had been leaked to the press.

Learner example:
"If these facts [were] leaked to the press, my career would be done for," he said.

NOUN [C]

HOLE
[B2] a hole in something that a liquid or gas comes out of, or the liquid or gas that comes out

Dictionary examples:
There's water on the floor – we must have a leak.
If you suspect a gas leak, phone the emergency number.

Learner example:
The theatre restaurant was closed because there was a serious leak in a pipe and the kitchen was flooded.

SECRET
[C2] secret information that has intentionally been told to someone

Dictionary example:
There have been several leaks to the press.

lean /liːn/

VERB [I or T] (leaned or leant, leaned or leant) lean (sth) back/forward/out, etc.

[B2] to move the top part of your body in a particular direction

Dictionary examples:
She leaned forward and whispered in my ear.
He was leaning out of the window.
Lean your head back a bit.

Learner example:
John loved figures, combining them into long lines, counting them and solving difficult problems. And he had a secret. He saw numbers in different colours. [...] John tried to hide his papers with a book but Mr. Robinson leaned forward and whispered: "My number one is always red".

lean (sth) against/on sth
[B2] to rest against something for support, or to move something into this position

Dictionary examples:
She leaned her head on his shoulder.
His spade was leaning against the fence.
Learner example:
She turned around and saw this boy leaning against the wall.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>leap /liːp/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

VERB (leapt, leaped) leap into/out of/up, etc.

[C2] to suddenly move somewhere

Dictionary examples:
He leapt out of his car and ran towards the house.
I leapt up to answer the phone.

Learner example:
At the split second the man rings the bell, there are over a 100 people suddenly leaping up from behind the desk.

NOUN [C]

CHANGE

[C2] a sudden improvement or increase

Dictionary examples:
There was a big leap in profits last year.
This represents a great leap forward in technology.

Learner example:
Ultimately, we could be taking a "giant leap" towards technological excellence.

by/in leaps and bounds

[C2] If progress or growth happens in leaps and bounds, it happens very quickly.

Dictionary example:
Her Spanish has come on in leaps and bounds this year.

Learner example:
To begin with, it is undeniable that technology, which is developing in leaps and bounds, has contributed to the wide range of goods that we enjoy nowadays.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>learn /lɜːn/ (learned or learnt, learned or learnt)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: learner, learning
Verbs: learn
VERB

REMEMBER
[B1] [ɪ] to make yourself remember a piece of writing by reading it or repeating it many times

Dictionary examples:
I don’t know how actors manage to learn all those lines.
We were told to learn Portia’s speech by heart for homework.

Learner example:
He was a very famous and popular actor. He’s very funny and he shows us very useful tricks to [help us] learn our roles.

BE TOLD INFORMATION
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to be told facts or information that you did not know

Dictionary examples:
We were all shocked to learn of his death.
I later learnt (that) the message had never arrived.
I only learnt about the accident later.

Learner example:
I was pleased to learn that you are coming to Switzerland.

CHANGE BEHAVIOUR
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to start to understand that you must change the way you behave

Dictionary examples:
She’ll have to learn that she can’t have everything she wants.
She soon learnt not to contradict him.
He’s not afraid to learn from his mistakes.

Learner example:
I am sure that the organis[e]rs will learn from their mistakes and that next year you will enjoy it.

learner /ˈlɜːnər/

Word family:
Nouns: learner, learning
Verbs: learn

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who is getting knowledge or a new skill

Dictionary example:
learners of English
Learner example:
She is very shy, so her Japanese didn't improve very rapidly, but she was a very industrious learner.

learning /ˈlɜː.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: learner, learning
Verbs: learn

NOUN [u]
[B2] the process of getting knowledge or a new skill

Dictionary examples:
language learning
This technique makes learning fun.
For the first month in her new job she was on a steep learning curve.

Learner example:
These events are not only to entertain students, they are also a part of the learning process, as by communicating with each other, students learn the language.

least /liːst/

ADVERB

at least
[B1] even if nothing else happens or is true

Dictionary example:
If you can't manage to clean the whole house, at least make sure the kitchen is clean.

Learner example:
We could go shopping or at least go and have an ice-cream somewhere.

at least
[B1] something that you say when you are telling someone about an advantage in a bad situation

Dictionary example:
It's a small house but at least there's a garden.

Learner example:
It is not impressive but at least it has some things that I like.

LESS
[B1] less than anything or anyone else
Dictionary examples:
I chose the least expensive dish on the menu.
This group is the least likely of the four to win.
Disaster struck when we least expected it.
It was the answer she least wanted to hear.

Learner example:
Every day was the same and I thought that nothing would change but I was wrong – something changed and that something happened on the day I least expected it to.

at least
[B2] used to reduce the effect of a statement

Dictionary example:
I've met the President – at least, he shook my hand once.

Learner example:
But after years of developing my slalom, I wanted to learn something new, so, I started Hot-Dogging. Hot-Dog is great fun. At least, people say so.

last but not least
[B2] something that you say to introduce the last person or thing on a list

Dictionary example:
This is Jeremy, this is Cath and, last but not least, this is Eva.

Learner example:
And, last but not least, some complaints were made about the entertainment the café provides.

not least FORMAL [C2] especially

Dictionary example:
The whole trip was fascinating, not least because of the people I met.

Learner example:
We are all human beings but we are all different, not least because of a different cultural background.

not in the least [C2] not at all

Dictionary example:
I don't mind staying at home, not in the least.

Learner example:
Educating two children was not so easy a task, not in the least!

PRONOUN

LESS
[B2] less than anyone or anything else
Dictionary examples:
He contributed least to the workshop.
I like the green one least of all.
He's the relative I like (the) least.
Giving her a bed for the night was the least I could do.

Learner example:
Taking you to the airport was the least I could do for such a good friend.

at the very least
[C1] not less than, and probably much more than

Dictionary examples:
At the very least, you should apologize.
We should earn £500 at the very least.

Learner example:
Thus, I trust you will agree that at the very least I deserve a letter of explanation from you and a substantial refund of my money.

to say the least
[C1] used to emphasize that you could have said something in a much stronger way

Dictionary example:
We were surprised, to say the least.

Learner example:
You get slightly bored, to say the least.

DETERMINER
[B2] the smallest amount

Dictionary examples:
She earns the least money of all of us.
I spent the least time on the third question.

Learner example:
My favourite way to travel is by plane, because I think that the most important point when you are travelling is to arrive [at] your destination in the least time.

leave  /liːv/

verb (left, left)

END RELATIONSHIP
[B1] [i or t] to end a relationship with a husband, wife, or partner and stop living with them
Dictionary examples:
I'll never leave you.
She left him for a younger man.

Learner example:
Jose, who is a bus driver, was very unhappy, because his girlfriend [had] left him.

STAY IN SAME CONDITION

[B2] [r] to cause something to stay in a particular condition

Dictionary examples:
Leave that chair where it is.
Don't leave any lights on, will you?
I'll have to go back – I think I've left the iron on.
You can leave the window open.

Learner example:
And I heard my husband shouting: "Mag, do you always have to leave all the lights on?"

leave sb alone

[B2] to stop speaking to or annoying someone

Dictionary example:
Leave me alone! I'm trying to work.

Learner example:
I asked [him] to leave me alone and [un]plugged the phone.

leave sb doing sth

[C1] If you leave something or someone doing something, you allow them to continue doing it, or they continue doing it when you go away.

Dictionary example:
I left the children watching television.

Learner example:
She also has the tendency to leave the children doing what they want, sometimes without realising the consequen[c]es.

PRODUCE SITUATION

[C2] to produce a particular, often bad, situation

Dictionary examples:
Far from improving things, the new law has left many people worse off than before.
Storms have left areas of Britain without electricity.
The family were left homeless.

Learner example:
He was born on a ranch in Jalisco, the fourth of eight children, and when the youngest was only six months old, my grandfather died, leaving the family penniless.
DO LATER
[C2] [ɪ] to do something later that you could do immediately

Dictionary examples:
Don't leave your packing till the night before you go.
I'll leave these letters till Monday.
Don't leave it too late.
They left booking their holiday till/to the last minute.

Learner example:
I left it until the following day since I was too worn out to go on.

AFTER DEATH
[C2] to arrange for someone to receive something after you die

Dictionary example:
He left his nieces all his money./He left all his money to his nieces.

Learner example:
"I hate him", Jane thought, "and I wonder] why on earth Uncle John left him all his money and the most beautiful estate in our country with this old manor house, in which all my ancestors were born."

leave someone to their own devices
[C2] to leave someone to do what they want to do

Dictionary example:
With both parents out at work, the kids were often left to their own devices.

Learner example:
The moment teenagers leave school, they are left to their own devices.

leave no stone unturned
[C2] to do everything that you can in order to achieve something or to find someone or something

Dictionary example:
Both sides have vowed to leave no stone unturned in the search for peace.

Learner example:
She has left no stone unturned so as to reach her [goal], always asserting her assets and views with conviction.

NOUN
[C2] [ʊ] time allowed away from work for holiday or illness

Dictionary examples:
How much annual/paid leave do you get?
She's (gone) on leave.
I've asked if I can take a week's unpaid leave.
Learner example:
It was from him, her lover, and told her that he was on leave and would come to visit her.

Lecture /
ˈlek.tʃə/ [ˈlek.taːr/]

Word family:
Nouns: lecture, lecturer
Verbs: lecture

Noun [C]
[B1] a formal talk on a serious or specialist subject given to a group of people, especially students

Dictionary examples:
We went to a lecture on Italian art.
Who's giving the lecture this afternoon?

Learner example:
