The film will start at 9.30pm, so you could reach us after your lectures at the university in the pub near the cinema.

Verb [C2] [I] to give a formal talk to a group of people, often at a university

Dictionary examples:
She travelled widely throughout North America lecturing on women's rights.
For ten years, she lectured in law.

Learner example:
He was also lecturing at the local university and really knew what he was talking about in respect to the underwater world.

Lecturer /
ˈlek.tʃər.ə/ [ˈlek.taːr.ə]/

Word family:
Nouns: lecture, lecturer
Verbs: lecture

Noun [C]
[B2] someone who teaches at a university or college

Dictionary example:
a lecturer in psychology

Learner example:
In addition, my lecturers can't give me particular explanations for my questions.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>leek /ˈliːk/</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C or U]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] a long white and green vegetable that smells and tastes similar to an onion</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>leek soup</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>I had some roasted chicken pieces with some leek and broccoli and roasted potatoes and Jan had his favourite spaghetti with cream sauce.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>left-wing /ˌleftˈwɪŋ/</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] relating to the belief that wealth and power should be shared equally</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>He is interested in left-wing politics.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>Women’s politics are usually followed by the left-wing parties in Austria.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>legacy /ˈleg.ə.si/</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MONEY/PROPERTY</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] money or property that you receive from someone after they die</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>An elderly cousin had left her a small legacy.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>So, soon after I agreed to receive the great legacy from my great aunt with joy, I realised that a problem would occur accordingly.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SITUATION</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] a situation that was caused by something from an earlier time</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>The war has left a legacy of hatred.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>Many of his novels deal with the social and political problems facing his country, including the difficulty of the post-colonial legacy.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table> legal /ˈliːɡəl/

Word family:
- Adjectives: illegal, legal
- Adverbs: illegally, legally

ADJECTIVE

TO DO WITH LAW

[B2] relating to the law

Dictionary examples:
- legal advice
- a legal obligation/requirement
- your legal rights

Learner example:
Unless I hear from you within ten days, I shall have to take legal advice on the matter.

ALLOWED

[B2] allowed by the law

Dictionary example:
Is abortion legal in your country?

Learner example:
Can anybody say how any enterprise should or must work? Is it legal?

legal action

[C1] a legal process in a court

Dictionary example:
They are planning to take legal action against the company.

Learner example:
If we do not get a satisfactory answer to this letter, apologising and offering the compensation that the students deserve, we will have no other option but to take legal action.

legally /ˈliː.ɡəli/

Word family:
- Adjectives: illegal, legal
- Adverbs: illegally, legally

ADVERB

[B2] as stated or allowed by the law

Dictionary example:
Children under sixteen are not legally allowed to buy cigarettes.
Learner example:
He already had a driving licence, so by that time he could legally drive his own Ferrari.

legend /ˈledʒ.ənd/
Word family:
Nouns: legend
Adjectives: legendary

NOUN

STORY
[B2] [c or u] an old story or set of stories from ancient times

Dictionary examples:
The dance was based on several Hindu legends.
She is writing a thesis on Irish legend and mythology.
Legend has it that he always wore his boots in bed.

Learner example:
You know I'm fond of medieval tales and legends, so while we're in Scotland, let's visit a haunted castle!

FAME
[C1] [c] a famous person

Dictionary examples:
a living legend
Jazz legend, Ella Fitzgerald, once sang in this bar.

Learner example:
The audience at the London Palladium was much more quiet, partly because we were in a theatre, partly because everyone was speechless in front of such a living legend.

legendary /ˈledʒ.ən.dri/
Word family:
Nouns: legend
Adjectives: legendary

ADJECTIVE

FAMOUS
[C1] famous for being excellent

Dictionary examples:
the legendary guitarist Jimi Hendrix
He became editor of the legendary Irish journal, 'The Bell'.

1679
Learner example:
If I went back to the beginning of [the] 70s, then I would probably have [had] a chance to work with Bill Gates and his 'legendary crew'.

OLD
[C1] from a legend

Dictionary example:
a legendary Greek hero

Learner example:
The last article concerned Hercules, the legendary hero.

legislation /ˌledʒ.iˈsleɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [u]
[C2] a law or a set of laws

Dictionary example:
The government has promised to introduce legislation to limit fuel emissions from cars.

Learner example:
And while governments have taken measures to reduce emission of fuels into the atmosphere and prevent toxic waste from being discharged into the oceans, the existing legislation is not rigorously enforced.

legitimate /ˈlɛdʒ.ɪt.ɪ.mət/

ADJECTIVE

REASONABLE
[C2] reasonable and acceptable

Dictionary example:
He claimed that the restaurant bill was a legitimate business expense.

Learner example:
Not even when he mentioned acts of violence as a legitimate way of achieving one's goals did she react.

LEGAL [C2] allowed by law

Dictionary example:
The army must give power back to the legitimate government.
Learner example:
After all, Ralph has the conch, which symbolizes legitimate power, and has been democratically elected.

leisure /ˈleʒər/

noun [u]

[B1] the time when you are not working

Dictionary examples:
leisure activities
Most people only have a limited amount of leisure time.
The town lacks leisure facilities such as a swimming pool or squash courts.

Learner example:
Reading is my favourite leisure activity. I've already read fifteen books this year.

lend /lend/ (lent, lent)

verb

Bank

[B2] [ɪ or ʊ] If a bank lends money, it gives money to someone who then pays the money back in small amounts over a period.

Dictionary examples:
The bank refuses to lend to students.
The bank agreed to lend him $5000.

lend itself to sth formal

[C2] to be suitable for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
The novel's complex, imaginative style does not lend itself to translation.

Learner example:
Last but not least, the fact that he managed to reconquer the realm of rock music for the German tongue lends itself to be[ing] displayed, together with similar efforts by bands like Aurhefu, who achieved a similar "resurrection" for the Welsh language.
length /lenkθ/

Word family:
Nouns: length
Verbs: lengthen
Adjectives: lengthy

NOUN [C or U]

DISTANCE
[B1] the measurement or distance of something from one end to the other

Dictionary examples:
The boat is ten metres in length.
The length of the bay is approximately 200 miles.

Learner example:
The new one has a length of 2.10 metres.

TIME
[B2] the amount of time something takes

Dictionary examples:
the length of a film/speech/play
He is unable to concentrate on his work for any length of time.

Learner example:
We will need you to start the talk at 7:00 p.m. with a length of one hour.

BOOK, ETC.
[C1] the amount of writing in a book or document

Dictionary examples:
He's written books of various lengths on the subject.
All of your essays will be about the same length.

the length and breadth of sth
[C2] in every part of a place

Dictionary example:
They travelled the length and breadth of Scotland together.

Learner example:
It is the reason that we can easily see the foreigners wandering [the] length and breadth [of] the museum being unaware of the origin of items they look at.

at length
[C2] If you talk about something at length, you talk for a long time.

Dictionary example:
We discussed both topics at length.
Learner example:
Since we have already arranged for your family to come to stay in my home and discussed the arrangements at length and in detail, I will no longer bother you with terms of payment and other information that, judging by your letter, seems to be quite irrelevant.

(keep sb) at arm's length
[C2] to not allow someone to become too friendly with you

Dictionary example:
I always had the feeling she was keeping me at arm's length.

Learner example:
At first she keeps them at arm's length, but Mr Emerson is direct and advises Lucy to behave in a more natural way instead of doing what some old ladies say.

lengthen /ˈlɛŋ.θən/

Word family:
Nouns: length
Verbs: lengthen
Adjectives: lengthy

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to become longer or to make something longer

Dictionary example:
There are plans to lengthen the school day.

Learner example:
Furthermore, I suggest [...] that you lengthen the stay in Cambridge which was definitely too short.

lengthy /ˈlɛŋk.θi/

Word family:
Nouns: length
Verbs: lengthen
Adjectives: lengthy

ADJECTIVE
[C1] continuing for a long time

Dictionary examples:
a lengthy discussion/process
Many airline passengers face lengthy delays because of the strike.
Learner example:
It is worth watch[ing] because it is a really lovely story and you can gain a lot of optimism from it by realising that problems are not always as big as they seem to be, but as it is a soap opera it is extremely lengthy.

lenient /ˈliː.ni.ənt/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] A lenient punishment is not severe.

Dictionary example:
He asked the judge to pass a lenient sentence.

Learner example:
The Court had been too lenient towards his detested father.

leopard /ˈlep.əd/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a large wild cat that has yellow fur with black spots on it and lives in Africa and southern Asia

Dictionary example:
We saw leopards in their natural habitat.

Learner example:
We saw different kinds of animals like a leopard, a buffalo and so on.

less /les/

Word family:
Verbs: lessen
Adverbs: less

ADVERB

more or less

[B2] almost or approximately

Dictionary examples:
We've more or less finished work on the house.
He more or less admitted he'd done it.
The new window will cost £500 more or less.
Learner example:
I will [now] give you some information, so that you know more or less what you can expect.

I/he, etc. couldn't care less INFORMAL

[C1] used to emphasize that someone is not interested in or worried about something or someone

Dictionary example:
I couldn't care less what people think.

Learner example:
There was hunger, there was poverty and the king couldn't care less about his people['s] well-being.

---

lessen /ˈles.ən/

Word family:
Verbs: lessen
Adverbs: less

VERB [I or T]

[C1] to become less or to make something less

Dictionary examples:
Exercise and a healthy diet lessen the chance of heart disease.
Strengthen the legs and it lessens the strain on the knees.

Learner example:
Should you give back the students’ money and take into consideration our complaints, I am sure that you will lessen our disappointment.

---

lesson /ˈles.ən/

NOUN [C]

EXPERIENCE

[B2] an experience which teaches you how to behave better in a similar situation in the future

Dictionary examples:
There is a lesson for all parents in this tragic accident.
My parents made me pay back all the money and it was a lesson I never forgot.
We can learn important lessons from this disaster.

Learner example:
I think he learned a valuable lesson.
learn your lesson

[B2] to decide not to do something again because it has caused you problems in the past

Dictionary example:
I’m not going out without my umbrella again – I’ve learnt my lesson!

Learner example:
She learnt her lesson and she won’t go out before [an] exam any more.

teach sb a lesson

[C2] to punish someone so that they will not behave badly again

Dictionary example:
The next time she’s late, go without her. That should teach her a lesson.

Learner example:
He didn’t want to hurt Diane just teach her a lesson.

---

let /let/

VERB (letting, let, let)

ALLOW

[B1] [ɪ] to allow someone to do something, or to allow something to happen

Dictionary examples:
She wanted to go but her parents wouldn’t let her.
He decided to let his hair grow long.
Let your shoes dry completely before putting them on.
I’m letting you stay up late, just this once.
Don’t let it worry you.

Learner example:
I hope my parents let me go with you [to] New York.

let sb/sth in/past/through, etc.

[B2] to allow someone or something to move to a particular place

Dictionary examples:
They won’t let us past the gate.
The roof lets in a lot of rain.

Learner example:
I had got so drunk that I could not control myself, so the doorman would not let me in.

let me/us

[B2] something that you say when you are offering to help someone
Dictionary example:
Let me carry your cases.

let alone
[C1] used to emphasize that something is more impossible than another thing

Dictionary example:
You couldn't trust her to look after your dog, let alone your child.

Learner example:
We are surrounded by amazing pieces of technology which we do not fully understand, let alone use to their full capacity.

let go (of sb/sth)
[C2] to stop holding someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Hold onto the rope and don't let go!
I let go of the feather and it floated to the ground.

Learner example:
I kicked that man as hard as I could and it worked – he let go of my mouth to hold between his legs and then I screamed with a voice which could only be compared [to] Tarzan's.

let go (of sth)
[C2] to stop thinking about or being angry about the past or something that happened in the past

Dictionary examples:
I have tried to let go of the past.
You've been storing up these feelings for years, and it's time to let go now.

Learner example:
It was obvious to me that he had had a hard time letting go of the past.

let's face it
[C2] something that you say when the truth is unpleasant but must be accepted

Dictionary example:
Let's face it, we're not getting any younger.

Learner example:
Let's face it, we live in an era dominated by machines.

let your guard down
[C2] to relax when you should be careful or ready to deal with something

Dictionary example:
He's worried that if he lets his guard down that his staff will start to become lazy.

Learner example:
That of course will go against anything Stevens has ever done and he never lets his guard down.
let your hair down  INFORMAL
[C2] to relax and enjoy yourself

Dictionary example:
I'd love to see Clare let her hair down for once.

Learner example:
Holidays indeed, represent the perfect and fundamental escapism from everyday life: we are free to let our hair down and savour the pure taste of idleness.

let off steam
[C2] to get rid of your anger, excitement, etc. by being noisy or using a lot of energy

Dictionary example:
The children need to run around and let off steam.

Learner example:
I believe that listening to it on a daily basis will be an ideal way for us to relieve the day's pressure and let off steam.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>lethal /ˈliː.θəl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] able to cause death</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a lethal injection/weapon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If we learn from the mistakes and there are no more wars, governments will donate money [to] social needs rather than assigning enormous sums on maintaining huge armies and inventing new types of lethal weapon[s].</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>lettuce /ˈlet.ɪs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C or U]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] a plant with large green leaves, eaten raw in salads</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mix the lettuce and tomatoes together.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It contains two burgers, cheese, lettuce, tomato and [any]thing else that you want to put [i]n it.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table> level /ˈlev.əl/

NOUN [C]

AMOUNT

[B2] the amount or number of something

Dictionary examples:
Inflation is going to rise 2% from its present level.
Chess requires a very high level of concentration.
There is some danger of low level radiation.

Learner example:
Your body requires a high level of nutrients to keep body functions working smoothly.

HEIGHT

[B2] the height of something

Dictionary example:
The water level in the lake is much higher after heavy rain.

Learner example:
Also, due to global warming, sea levels might rise and [the] risk of flooding will also rise.

RANK

[C1] a position within a system in which people are arranged according to their importance

Dictionary example:
These are subjects for discussion at management level.

Learner example:
But there is one big problem if the women can reach the upper management level: those women won't have any children.

ADJECTIVE

[B2] flat or horizontal

Dictionary examples:
Make sure the camera is level before you take the picture.
Before I fix it to the wall, would you say this shelf was level?

---

liability /ˌlaɪ.əˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:

Nouns: liability

Adjectives: liable
NOUN

RESPONSIBILITY
[C1] [u] when you are legally responsible for something

Dictionary example:
They have admitted liability for the damage caused.

Learner example:
As soon as I had noticed it, I went to complain to the coach driver and he just disclaimed liability.

TROUBLE
[C1] [NO PLURAL] someone or something that is likely to cause you a lot of trouble

Dictionary example:
Wherever we go she upsets someone – she’s a real liability.

Learner example:
It destroys the individual, brings shame to his family, and [he becomes] a liability instead of an asset to his society.

liable /ˈlər.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: liability
Adjectives: liable

ADJECTIVE

RESPONSIBLE
[C1] legally responsible

Dictionary example:
Corporate officials are liable for the safety of their employees.

Learner example:
As per our terms and conditions you are liable to pay for any damages occurred during the move and that is why we paid more money or premium to your Company than the others.

be liable to do sth
[C2] to be likely to do something

Dictionary example:
He’s liable to make a fuss if you wake him.

Learner example:
I have taught them what is right and what is wrong, but also that a person is liable to make mistakes.
liar /ˈlaɪ.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: liar, lie
Verbs: lie

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who tells lies

Dictionary examples:
He's such a liar – you can't trust a word he says.
You liar – I never touched it!

Learner example:
The plan works: the jury thinks that the wife is a notorious liar and her husband is found innocent.

liberal /ˈlɪb.ər.əl/

ADJECTIVE

SOCIETY
[C1] accepting beliefs and behaviour that are new or different from your own

Dictionary examples:
a liberal society/attitude
Her parents were far more liberal than mine.

Learner example:
In a liberal society everything depends on a mixture of wise legislation and responsible individual behaviour.

POLITICS
[C1] Liberal political ideas emphasize the need to make new laws as society changes and the need for government to provide social services.

Dictionary example:
They are one of a group of liberal parties in the European Union.

Learner example:
He studied law in Paris and got involved in politics as a member of the liberal party during the first years of the last Century.

liberation /ˌlɪb.əˈreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: liberty, liberation
NOUN [C or U]

[C1] when something or someone is released or made free

Dictionary examples:
the liberation of France from Nazi occupation
Leaving school was such a liberation for me.

Learner example:
Moreover, with the liberation of Greece, he was appointed as the First Governor of the new state.

liberty /ˈlɪb.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: liberty, liberation

NOUN [U]

FREEDOM

[B2] the freedom to live as you wish or go where you want

Dictionary examples:
For most citizens, liberty means the freedom to practise their religious or political beliefs.
Hundreds of political prisoners are to be given their liberty.
Of the ten men who escaped this morning from Dartmoor Prison, only two are still at liberty.

Learner example:
Personally, I think [a zoo] is a cruel way to [im]prison them after such a long period of time [when] they have been useful to Man, who is now depriving them of their liberty, preventing them from hunting and forcing them to eat what they are given.

take the liberty of doing sth
[C1] to do something that will have an effect on someone else, without asking their permission

Dictionary example:
I took the liberty of booking theatre seats for us.

Learner example:
I have taken the liberty of listing some of my ideas and suggestions and hope they will be of interest to you.

be at liberty to do sth FORMAL [C2] to be allowed to do something

Dictionary example:
I'm not at liberty to discuss the matter at present.

Learner example:
On [the] one hand the child is at liberty to do whatever it pleases to do but on the other hand it was never taught the responsibilities implicit[ly] tied to such actions.
lick /lɪk/

VERB [r]
[B2] to move your tongue across the surface of something

Dictionary examples:
He licked the chocolate off his fingers.
She licked the stamps and stuck them on the parcel.

Learner example:
As soon as I come home, she jumps on me and licks my face. [...] Princess is my ideal dog.

lid /lɪd/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a cover on a container, which can be lifted up or removed

Dictionary examples:
Can you get the lid off this jar?
Put a lid on the saucepan.

lie¹ /laɪ/

VERB [i] (lying, lay, lain)

OBJECT
[B1] to be on a particular surface

Dictionary examples:
A pen lay on the desk.
There were papers lying all over the floor.

Learner example:
I hurried into the airport to find my suitcase lying in one corner.

PLACE
[B1] to be in a particular place or position

Dictionary examples:
The river lies 30km to the south.
Cambridge United are lying third in the league.

Learner example:
It lies in the south of the Czech Republic and it's a lovely place where you can spend your holiday.
RESPONSIBILITY / BLAME

[C2] If responsibility, blame, a decision, a choice, etc. lies with someone, they have responsibility, must make the decision, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Responsibility for the disaster must ultimately lie with the government.
Where does the blame lie?

Learner example:
The greater responsibility lies with us to keep our villages and cities clean and, therefore, healthy.

lie² /laɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: liar, lie
Verbs: lie

VERB [i] (lying, lied, lied)
[B1] to say or write something which is not true in order to deceive someone

Dictionary examples:
Are you lying to me?
Don't trust her - she's lying.
I suspect he lies about his age.

Learner example:
She lied [to] me and said she could not come with me because she had work.

NOUN [c]
[B1] something that you say which you know is not true

Dictionary example:
I told a lie when I said I liked her haircut.

Learner example:
The [e-]mail was full of lies about things that I had never done.

life /laɪf/ (plural lives)

NOUN

PLANTS / ANIMALS
[B1] [u] everything which is alive

Dictionary example:
human/marine/plant life
Learner example:
Recently, I've enjoyed watching programmes about sea life.

WAY OF LIVING
[B1] [c or u] a way of living

Dictionary examples:
You lead an exciting life.
I left home at 16 to see life.
Teaching has been her whole life.

family/private/sex, etc. life
[B1] one part of someone's existence

Dictionary examples:
I never talk about my private life.
my working life
We interviewed senior politicians, famous writers and others in public life.

Learner example:
The film is about family life.

a/ sb's way of life
[B1] the manner in which a person lives

Dictionary example:
She told us all about her way of life in Japan.

Learner example:
He told me about his hobbies, his way of life and especially about his love of learning languages.

PERSON'S EXISTENCE
[B2] [c] the existence of a person

Dictionary examples:
How many lives will be lost to AIDS?
A simple mixture of glucose and water can save lives in many parts of the world.

Learner example:
Finally if you witness an accident you should inform the police quickly, which can save lives.

ENERGY
[B2] [u] energy or enthusiasm

Dictionary example:
She's so full of life.

Learner example:
Above all, I like children very much because they're full of life and [and] always make a great impression on me when I have a chat with them.
for life
[C1] for the whole of someone's life

Dictionary example:
I will have to take this medicine for life.

Learner example:
A wedding opens a new life when the two parties commit to each other for life.

ACTIVE PERIOD
[C2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] the amount of time that a machine, system, etc. exists or can be used

Dictionary examples:
The newer batteries have a much longer life.
Careful use will prolong the life of your machine.
The legislation won't be passed during the life of the present parliament.

a matter of life and/or death
[C2] a serious situation where people could die

Dictionary example:
Getting water to these people is a matter of life and death.

Learner example:
I told him it was a matter of life and death.

lifelong /ˌlaɪfˈlɒŋ/
ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] for all of your life

Dictionary example:
a lifelong friend/ambition/interest

Learner example:
Education is a lifelong process and you never stop learning.

lifespan /ˈlaɪf.spæn/
NOUN [c]
[C2] the amount of time that a person lives or a thing exists

Dictionary examples:
The average human lifespan has increased steadily in the last century.
Some electrical goods have a short lifespan.
Learner example:
The average lifespan for women is about 75 years and for men 69.

lifestyle /ˈlaɪf.staɪl/

NOUN [C]

[B2] the way that you live

Dictionary examples:
He doesn’t have a very healthy lifestyle.
She needs a pretty high income to support her lifestyle.
an alternative lifestyle

Learner example:
I would like to go on a[n] advent[u]re like this, with a group of people with different backgrounds, cultures and lifestyles.

lifetime /ˈlaɪf.taim/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]

[B2] the period of time that someone is alive

Dictionary examples:
We’ll see a tremendous lot of technological changes during/in our lifetime.
Winners of the competition will receive the holiday of a lifetime.
I’ve only been working here two days, but it seems like a lifetime.
A watch of this quality should last a lifetime.
Marriage is no longer always seen as a lifetime commitment.

Learner example:
I’m sure you would love it, meeting so many famous musicians, who you might meet only once in a lifetime.

lift /lɪft/

VERB [T]

[B1] to move something from a lower to a higher position

Dictionary examples:
Could you help me lift this table, please?
Could you lift your chair a bit – I’ve got my bag caught under it.
She lifted the cup to her lips.
Learner example:
Then, we lift[ed] weight[s] to get stronger legs, arms, etc. I met different people [and] I made lots of friends.

light /laɪt/

Word family:
- Nouns: light, lighter, lighting
- Verbs: light
- Adjectives: light
- Adverbs: lightly

NOUN

BRIGHTNESS

B1 [u] the brightness that comes from the sun, fire, etc. and from electrical devices, and that allows things to be seen

Dictionary examples:
- bright light
  Light was streaming in through the open door.
  It's a north-facing room so it doesn't get much light.

Learner example:
We spent some wonderful days admiring the famous bright Nordic light which has made Shagen so popular amongst painters.

in the light of sth

C1 If something is done or happens in the light of facts, it is done or happens because of those facts.

Dictionary example:
The drug has been withdrawn in the light of new research.

Learner example:
In the light of this news, we took this issue as a class project and investigated it by interviewing residents.

come to light

C2 If information about something bad comes to light, it is discovered.

Dictionary example:
She knew that the fraud would eventually come to light.

Learner example:
Eventually, their "lia[is]on" comes to light and Leo blames himself for the disastrous outcome of the events throughout his life.
bring *sth to light
[C2] If information about something bad is brought to light, it is discovered.

Dictionary example:
The trial brought to light numerous contradictions in his story.

Learner example:
The evening investigation which was carried out by [the] mysterious Inspector brought all these facts to light.

shed light on [C2] to provide new information about something that makes it easier to understand

Dictionary example:
As an economist, he was able to shed some light on the situation.

Learner example:
In my opinion, a more complex evaluation of our attitude towards work will shed light on the process of work choice and it will give a greater amount of awareness to everyone.

ADJECTIVE

BRIGHT

[B1] lit by the natural light of the day

Dictionary examples:
It gets light very early these summer mornings.
Summer is coming and the evenings are getting lighter.
Let's finish the work while it's still light enough to see.

Learner example:
In the centre of the town, streets are narrow and in many cases, they aren't light enough.

NOT MUCH

[B1] small in amount

Dictionary examples:
A light wind was blowing.
The traffic was quite light so we got through London quickly.
It's only light rain – you don't need an umbrella.
I don't eat much for lunch – just a light snack.

Learner example:
The weather here is very warm and sunny with [a] light breeze.

make light of *sth

[C2] to talk or behave as if you do not think a problem is serious

Dictionary example:
I just laughed and tried to make light of it.
Learner example:
They project an optimistic image and make light of the troubles in life.

VERB (lit or lighted, lit or lighted)

START FLAMES
[B1] [I or T] to start to burn or to make something start to burn

Dictionary examples:
to light a fire
I can’t get the cooker to light.
He lit his fifth cigarette in half an hour.

Learner example:
We [put up] the tents and lit the fire.

MAKE BRIGHT
[B2] [I] to produce light somewhere so that you can see things

Dictionary examples:
The stage had been lit with candles.
Fireworks lit up the sky

Learner example:
Lightning lit up my bedroom and I saw a shadow moving outside the house.

lighter /ˈlaɪ.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: light, lighter, lighting
Verbs: light
Adjectives: light
Adverbs: lightly

NOUN [C]
[B1] a small object that produces a flame and is used to make cigarettes start burning

Dictionary example:
Can I borrow your lighter?

Learner example:
It’s a [silver] lighter, with a little spider on, that my best friend bought me for my birthday.
lighting /ˈlaɪt.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: light, lighter, lighting
Verbs: light
Adjectives: light
Adverbs: lightly

NOUN [u]

[B2] the light created by electrical equipment, candles, etc.

Dictionary example:
We have put some lighting in the garden.

Learner example:
I fixed the lighting on the ceiling and attached several spotlights to the walls.

lightly /ˈlaɪt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: light, lighter, lighting
Verbs: light
Adjectives: light
Adverbs: lightly

ADVERB

GENTLY

[B1] gently

Dictionary example:
She patted him lightly on the shoulder.

Learner example:
The weather here is wonderful, the sun is shining, the wind is blowing lightly, and the sky is also clear, clear, blue!

NOT MUCH

[C1] not much

Dictionary example:
lightly cooked vegetables

not do sth lightly

[C2] to think carefully about something before you do it, knowing that it is serious

Dictionary example:
It's not a decision that I take lightly.
Learner example:
I hope you give my suggestion further consideration and not treat it lightly.

lightning /ˈlaɪt.nɪŋ/

NOUN [u]
[B1] a sudden flash of light in the sky during a storm

Dictionary examples:
thunder and lightning
a flash of lightning

That tree was struck by lightning.
She changed her clothes with lightning speed.

Learner example:
We were sitting in the car when the lightning hit the roof.

like /laɪk/

Word family:
Verbs: dislike, like

PREPOSITION

SUCH AS
[B1] such as

Dictionary example:
She looks best in bright colours, like red and pink.

Learner example:
We have visit[ed] beautiful places like Chile, Patagonia, Iguazu.

TYPICAL OF
[B2] typical or characteristic of

Dictionary examples:
That's just like Maisie to turn up half an hour late to her own party!
It's not like you to be so quiet – are you all right?

like mad
[B2] a lot

Dictionary example:
The band practised like mad before their first concert.

Learner example:
It was raining like mad, so we were wet to the skin.
like crazy INFORMAL

[C1] doing something a lot or in a fast way

Dictionary example:
We worked like crazy to get everything finished.

Learner example:
My heart was beating like crazy and when the ski-boat started its journey along the blue waves of the sea...

like hell INFORMAL

[C2] very much

Dictionary example:
It’s raining like hell out there.

Learner example:
Soon it will be dark, and still pouring down like hell.

something like

[C2] similar to or approximately

Dictionary example:
He paid something like $2000 for his car.

Learner example:
He earns something like £100,000 a week or even more.

CONJUNCTION INFORMAL

[B1] as if

Dictionary examples:
It looks like I’m going to be in the office until late tonight.
It sounds to me like you ought to change jobs.
You look like you’ve just got out of bed!
She acts like she’s stupid!

Learner example:
It *[sound]*s like your trousers are really pretty, I would like to see them soon.

NOUN

likes and dislikes

[B1] things that you do and do not like

Dictionary example:
What are your top five likes and dislikes?

Learner example:
The teacher asked about our families, friends, [and] likes and dislikes and [then] the lesson finished.
likelihood /ˈlaɪ.k.ɪ.həd/

Word family:
Nouns: likelihood Adjectives: likely, unlikely

NOUN [u]
[C2] the chance that something will happen

Dictionary examples:
There’s little likelihood of a compromise.
There's not much likelihood of that happening.

Learner example:
There is little likelihood of having a good place to live in without the scientists’ support.

in all likelihood [C2] almost certainly

Dictionary example:
The facilities are wasted on people who in all likelihood will not use them.

Learner example:
In all likelihood, you will have to work during the weekends, even in summer, so I firmly believe that loving your job is very important.

likely /ˈlər.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: likelihood Adjectives: likely, unlikely

ADJECTIVE
[B1] describes something that will probably happen or is expected

Dictionary examples:
Do remind me because I’m likely to forget.
I suppose that might happen but it’s not very likely.
It’s quite/very likely that we'll be in Spain this time next year.

Learner example:
They start thinking that the suitcase is likely to contain a bomb.

ADVERB
[C1] probably

Dictionary example:
She'll most likely come without him.
Learner example:
You will most likely not get there before 2.30. Welcome!

likewise /ˈlaɪkwɪz/

ADVERB FORMAL
[C2] in the same way

Dictionary examples:
Water these plants twice a week and likewise the ones in the bedroom.
Watch what she does and then do likewise.

Learner example:
And likewise, common sense tells us it doesn't matter that oranges from Spain contain 0.01% more vitamin C than those from Florida, as long as we eat them every once in a while.

limit /ˈlɪm.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: limit, limitation
Verbs: limit
Adjectives: limited, unlimited

NOUN [C]

LARGEST POSSIBLE AMOUNT
[B1] the largest amount of something that is possible or allowed

Dictionary examples:
Is there a limit on the amount of money you can claim?
I think we ought to put a limit on the amount of time we can spend on the project.
There's a limit to the number of times I can stop what I'm doing just so I can help him!
We set a time limit of thirty minutes for the test.

Learner example:
I always watch this programm[e], it's really interesting for anyone who enjoy[s] cooking. [...] Usually two chef[s] come in and prepare the food, and they hav[e] a time limit.

within limits
[C2] avoiding behaviour that is extreme or silly

Dictionary example:
You can wear what you want, within limits.

Learner example:
They should be given a choice of food, within limits.
off limits
[C2] If an area is off limits, you are not allowed to enter it.

Dictionary example:
Most of the palace is off limits to the public.

Learner example:
The only place that was off limits for us was on the other side of the mountain, because it was too dangerous.

the upper limit
[C2] the highest amount or level, or the longest time that something is allowed

Dictionary example:
£45,000 is the upper limit for salaries in this job.

Learner example:
I understand that it will be more expensive than the accommodation I currently have, and I am willing to stretch the upper limit of the rent I can afford to pay.

VERB [T]
[B2] to control something so that it is less than a particular amount or number

Dictionary examples:
I've been asked to limit my speech to ten minutes maximum.
Having so little money to spend on an apartment does limit you in your choice.

Learner example:
In general, kids and teenagers are, at home, allowed to do almost anything they want, which sometimes puts parents in a very difficult position when trying to establish rules in order to limit the freedom of the young.

limitation /ˌlɪm.ɪˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: limit, limitation
Verbs: limit
Adjectives: limited, unlimited

NOUN

RULE
[C1] [C or U] a rule or situation that limits something

Dictionary example:
You can't write everything you want because of space limitations.
Learner example:
The only thing that is crucial now is that ministries of culture and tourism should set strict limitations about building and constructing in order not to [destroy] the stunning views of our beautiful country.

limitations
[C1] things that someone or something is not good at doing

Dictionary example:
Both films show her limitations as an actress.

Learner example:
I would like to be a super-woman but I will have to live with my limitations.

limited /ˈlɪm.ɪ.tid/

Word family:
Nouns: limit, limitation
Verbs: limit
Adjectives: limited, unlimited

ADJECTIVE

SMALL
[B1] small in amount or number

Dictionary examples:
a limited choice limited resources

Learner example:
I like warm colo[u]rs, orange and yellow, but my choices are limited for outdoor clothes.

WITHIN RANGE
[B2] kept within a particular size, range, time, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Places on the bus are limited to fifty – so book early!
Free places on the course will be available for a limited period (of time).

Learner example:
Above all, [w]ould it possible to enjoy the offer in September or is it limited to July?
line /lain/

NOUN [c]

WORDS
[B1] a row of words on a page

Dictionary examples:
The same line is repeated throughout the poem.
Can you read the next line, please, Sonia?

Learner example:
In no more than ten lines, my mother explained that she was moving to Brazilia, the capital of our country, and that she would take me and my brother with her.

RAILWAY
[B1] a railway track

Dictionary examples:
The train was delayed, apparently due to leaves on the line.
The Northern Line is the worst on the London Underground.

Learner example:
The train line is closed between London and Lampton so now you have to use "ABC Coaches", which is also che[a]per.

TELEPHONE
[B2] the connection between two telephones

Dictionary examples:
I'm afraid your line's been disconnected because your last bill hasn't been paid.
If you want to air your opinions live on the radio, the lines will be open from eight o'clock.
I've got Chris Foster on the line for you. Do you want to take it now or call her back later?
Please hold the line. I'll see if she's available.

Learner example:
I have been told that if I also get a modem and connect to my telephone line and the PC, I could get in contact with different kinds of bulletin boards that your members use.

PRODUCT
[C1] a type of product that a company sells

Dictionary example:
They're advertising a new line in garden furniture.

Learner example:
If, on [the] one hand, the changing market is forcing us to [remove] some product lines, on the other [it] is giving us new opportunities, as is the case for handhelds.
a fine/thin line

[C1] If there is a fine line between one thing and another, they are very similar. You often say this when one thing is acceptable and the other is not.

Dictionary example:
There's a thin line between courage and foolishness.

Learner example:
It took me 6 months to realise that there is a fine line between telling off and psychological abuse.

---

ROW

[C2] a row of people or things

Dictionary examples:
- a line of trees
- The prisoners formed a line against the wall.

Learner example:
Its facade was cut by a line of French windows and there was a large number of people in front of the front door.

---

BORDER

[C2] a long thin and sometimes imaginary mark that forms the edge, border or limit of something

Dictionary examples:
- That ball was definitely in! It was nowhere near the line!
- The police couldn't arrest him because he'd fled across the state line.

---

APPROACH TO SUBJECT

[C2] a way of dealing with or thinking about something or someone

Dictionary examples:
- The government’s official line has always been to refuse to negotiate with terrorists.
- The courts should take a tougher line with sex offenders.
- Several Labour MPs disagree with their party’s line on taxation.
- What sort of line do you think we should take in the pay negotiations?
- The police are confident that this new line of inquiry will lead them to the murderer.

---

MILITARY

[C2] a row of positions used to defend against enemy attack, especially the ones closest to enemy positions

Dictionary example:
They were taken prisoner while on a reconnaissance mission behind enemy lines.

Learner example:
She was never afraid of going to the front line [in] battle.

---

be on the line

[C2] If someone's job, reputation, life, etc. is on the line, they may lose it.
Dictionary example:
If we don't win the contract, all our jobs are on the line.

Learner example:
The person who hopes to achieve success shouldn't be afraid of taking risks and sometimes putting his or her career on the line for the sake of gaining much bigger benefits.

the bottom line
[C2] the most important fact in a situation

Dictionary example:
The bottom line is that people's health is at risk if they smoke.

Learner example:
The bottom line is that the adults of today have to stop for a second and think about what they are doing.

along the lines of sth
[C2] based on and similar to something

Dictionary example:
He gave a talk along the lines of the one he gave in Oxford.

Learner example:
Imagine one is encouraged by friends and institutions for their 'different' artistic or other activities, even if their works are not along the lines of 'acceptable' norms and tradition.

be in line with sth
[C2] to be similar to and suitable for something

Dictionary example:
They were offered a pay increase in line with inflation.

Learner example:
The other two courses, at 5%, are still in line with the national average.

draw the line (at sth)
[C2] If someone says they know where to draw the line, they are talking about knowing at what point an activity or situation becomes unacceptable because it is wrong or too extreme

Dictionary example:
I swear a lot but even I draw the line at certain words.

Learner example:
A mistake is a mistake, people say. But in my opinion rape is not the same as shoplifting. So where do you draw the line?

sb's line of reasoning/thinking, etc.
[C2] your reasons for believing that something is true or right
Dictionary example:
I couldn't really follow his line of reasoning.

Learner example:
Similarly, the ones that follow this line of thought argue for long-living because by this, many talented and creative people will have the opportunity to develop a further concept of their thoughts and ideas; artists will have time to finish their masterpieces and all the world will appreciate their production.

(be) out of line

[C2] If someone’s actions or words are out of line, they are not suitable or acceptable.

Dictionary example:
Her remarks to the press were way out of line.

Learner example:
Today I see that my mother was right in this aspect since I acted extremely out of line sometimes and a soft hand certainly wouldn't help me in the future.

read between the lines

[C2] If you read between the lines, you understand what someone really means, or what is really happening in a situation.

Dictionary example:
Reading between the lines, it was obvious that something was wrong.

Learner example:
Having powerful [in]sight, [being] able to read between the lines of even an unwritten story and exhibiting an interdisciplinary background are, again, qualities that perfectly describe the friends that [there have been] in my life.

toe the line

[C2] to do what you are ordered or expected to do

Dictionary example:
Ministers who refused to toe the Party line were swiftly got rid of.

Learner example:
Her mother and her elder brother had always toed the line and so had she until she had reached adolescence.

VERB [r]

[C2] to form a row along the side of something

Dictionary example:
Trees and cafes lined the street.

Learner example:
Under the arch formed by the top branches of the trees which lined both sides of the street, she was so much absorbed in her thought that she did not hear the sound of approaching steps.
linen /ˈlɪn.ɪn/

NOUN [u]

CLOTH
[C2] an expensive cloth that is like rough cotton

Dictionary example:
a linen jacket

Learner example:
It has all the basic seams, and so far I have tried it with denim, cotton, linen, silk and even with leather, and it does the job perfectly.

SHEETS ETC.
[C2] pieces of cloth that you use to cover tables and beds

Dictionary example:
bed linen

Learner example:
You will find spare sets of linen in the children's bedroom as well as two spare quilts.

linger /ˈlɪŋ.gər/

VERB [i]
[C2] to stay somewhere for a long time

Dictionary example:
The smell from the fire still lingered hours later.

Learner example:
Many recollections of that evening have perished, like how I worked up the nerve to ask her, but one thing that lingers in my mind is that song we danced to.

linguistic /lɪŋˈgwɪs.tɪk/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] relating to language or linguistics

Dictionary example:
I'm particularly interested in the linguistic development of young children.

Learner example:
Firstly, the claim that only one hour per day was required in order to obtain linguistic fluency is an unrealistic assumption.
link /lɪŋk/

NOUN [c]

COMPUTER
[B1] a connection between documents or areas on the Internet

Dictionary example:
Click on this link to visit our online bookstore.

Learner example:
An au-pair friend of mine has given me a link to an au-pair homepage.

CONNECTION
[B2] a connection between two people, things or ideas

Dictionary examples:
There's a direct link between diet and heart disease.
Their links with Britain are still strong.

Learner example:
There is a direct bus link between the two locations: this is bus line number six.

VERB [v]
[B2] to make a connection between two or more people, things or ideas

Dictionary examples:
The explosions are not thought to be linked in any way.
The use of CFCs has been linked to the hole in the ozone layer.

Learner example:
The technological revolution taking place today can be directly linked to the amazing evolution of communication.

lip /lɪp/

NOUN [c]
[B1] one of the two soft edges of the mouth

Dictionary examples:
She kissed me on the lips.
He licked his lips.

Learner example:
We went to a restaurant and when I had to leave, he kissed me on my lips.
liquid /ˈlɪk.wɪd/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a substance, such as water, that is not solid or a gas and that can be poured easily

Dictionary examples:
liquid fuel/nitrogen
Mercury is a liquid at room temperature.

Learner example:
Inside there were three samples of a nasty purple liquid.

list /list/

VERB [T]
[B2] to make a list, or to include something in a list

Dictionary example:
I've listed some useful reading material on the handout.

Learner example:
I listed some reasons why we should apply for this job.

listen /ˈlis.ən/

VERB [I]

PAY ATTENTION
[B1] to pay attention to what someone tells you and accept what they say

Dictionary example:
I told you she wouldn't like it but you wouldn't listen to me!

Learner example:
I did complain many time[s] but he wouldn't listen to me.

listener /ˈlis.ən.ər/

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who listens
Dictionary examples:
The new radio station already has twelve million listeners.
She’s a good listener.

Learner example:
She is a good listener, as well as quite talkative.

literacy  /ˈlɪtrəsɪ/

NOUN [u]
[C1] the ability to read and write

Dictionary example:
Adult literacy is low in this area.

Learner example:
School on the one hand has been a place to learn the important basic[s], like literacy and numeracy.

literal  /ˈlɪtrəl/

Word family:
Adjectives: literal
Adverbs: literally

ADJECTIVE
[C2] The literal meaning of a word or phrase is its real or original meaning.

Dictionary example:
the literal meaning/sense

Learner example:
This unconditional love does not include any rod in both [the] literal and figurative sense[s] of the word.

literally  /ˈlɪtrəli/

Word family:
Adjectives: literal
Adverbs: literally

ADVERB
[B2] having the real or original meaning of a word or phrase

Dictionary example:
They were responsible for literally millions of deaths.
Learner example:
Sometimes they literally go mad; they bite their mates or even kill their own children.

---

literary /ˈlɪtərəri/

Word family:
Nouns: literature
Adjectives: literary, illiterate, literate

ADJECTIVE
[B2] connected with literature

Dictionary examples:
a literary critic literary prizes a literary style

Learner example:
Since I am aware of your interest in literature, I have chosen a literary figure.

---

literate /ˈlɪtərət/

Word family:
Nouns: literature
Adjectives: literary, illiterate, literate

ADJECTIVE
[C2] able to read and write

Dictionary example:
He was barely literate.

Learner example:
To sum up, in no way is education a waste of time. What we do need is [to] improve it and make people believe that being educated and literate is a great asset.

---

literature /ˈlɪtərətʃər/

Word family:
Nouns: literature
Adjectives: literary, illiterate, literate

NOUN [u]

BOOKS
[B1] books, poems, etc. that are considered to be art
Dictionary examples:
classical/modern literature great works of literature
'Wuthering Heights' is a classic of English literature.

Learner example:
He has studied English literature at Cambridge University.

litter /ˈlɪtə/

NOUN [u]
[B2] pieces of paper and other waste that are left in public places

Dictionary example:
The streets were full of litter.

Learner example:
There is a lot of litter on the streets.

little /ˈlɪt.əl/

ADJECTIVE

NOT IMPORTANT
[B1] not important

Dictionary examples:
They argue over every little thing.
She gets really stressed by little problems.

Learner example:
There is only one little problem. Unfortunately, [the] rooms are single.

SHORT
[B2] short in time or distance

Dictionary examples:
It'll only take a little while to finish this.
Let's have a little break.
It's only a little way to the school.

Learner example:
I was on a phone for a little while and the lights went out... who knows why!!

EMPHASIZE
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to show affection or dislike for someone or something
Dictionary examples:
Oh, what a sweet little house!
It's not a bad little restaurant, this, is it?
He's a nasty little man.

Learner example:
"Oh no Mr. Dracula...don't hurt me! Please don't hurt me!" I said desperately. "With such a pretty little neck? Oh no! I have to give you just a tiny little bite...."

DETERMINER

NOT ENOUGH
[B1] not much or enough

Dictionary examples:
There seems little hope of a ceasefire.
They have very little money.
There's so little choice.

Learner example:
In his opinion, [being a] teacher is a very bad way to earn money because you have a lot of work to do and earn very little money.

a little sth
[B1] a small amount of something

Dictionary example:
It just needs a little effort.

Learner example:
Hi Sam, I need a little help from you. I need [to borrow] your bicycle, because someone stole mine.

PRONOUN

SMALL AMOUNT
[B1] a small amount

Dictionary examples:
I could only hear a little of what they were saying.
He does as little as possible at work.
There's not much flour left but you're welcome to the/what little there is.
She slept very little that night.
We did very little on Sunday.

Learner example:
He told them how animals were treated by human beings – they had to work a lot and were fed very little.

little by little [B2] a small amount at a time
Dictionary example:
Little by little, the boy learned to trust us.

Learner example:
However, as the time went by, I couldn't but feel my dream disappearing little by little.

ADVERB

a little
[B2] FORMAL slightly

Dictionary example:
There's only a little further to go.

Learner example:
I'm a little surprised by my "popularity".

NOT ENOUGH

[C1] not much or not enough

Dictionary examples:
a little-known fact
Little did he know what lay in store for him.

Learner example:
Little did I know that I would be even more confused afterwards.

little more/better [C2] not much more or better

Dictionary examples:
We earned little more than pocket money.
She's little better than a thief.

Learner example:
It was little better than a slum, completely unfurnished, except for a desk with a diary on it.

live

Word family:
Nouns: living
Verbs: live
Adjectives: lively, living

VERB /ˈlɪv/

SPEND LIFE

[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to spend your life in a particular way 1719

Dictionary examples:
After a while you get used to living alone.
When you retire, you want to live a comfortable life.
So the prince and princess got married, and lived happily ever after.
He simply wants to live (out) the rest of his days in peace.
She certainly lived her life to the full.

Learner example:
I'm so sorry but I have to go to the hospital with my grandma, she lives alone and she needs someone to go with her.

BE ALIVE
[B1] [i] to be alive

Dictionary examples:
He only lived a few days after the accident.
I hope I live to see my grandchildren.
Her granny lived to the ripe old age of 94.
Boccaccio lived in the 14th century.

Learner example:
I entered and saw the chat [chair?] of my ancestor, who lived 500 years ago.

STAY ALIVE
[C2] [i] to keep yourself alive

Dictionary examples:
For several years she lived by begging.
He only agreed to marry her so he could live off her (money).

Learner example:
Later on, though, as she gets to know Douglas and his friends a little bit better, she discovers that she simply cannot identify with this group of individuals, who look down upon India's native population while parasitically living off of it.

ADJECTIVE /laɪv/
[B1] A live radio or television programme is seen or heard as it happens.

Dictionary examples:
This evening there will be a live broadcast of the debate.
a live concert/recording

Learner example:
In January, there is a special live concert which includes the most popular music in my country.
lively /ˈlaɪv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: living
Verbs: live
Adjectives: lively, living

ADJECTIVE
[B1] full of energy and interest

Dictionary examples:
It's hard work teaching a class of lively children.
a lively city
They take a lively interest in their grandchildren.
There was some lively discussion at the meeting.

Learner example:
Paris is very lively all day long and at night.

liver /ˈlɪv.ər/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a large organ in your body that cleans your blood

Dictionary example:
He has something wrong with his liver.

Learner example:
The odd glass of wine is fine but every day is damaging and can ruin your liver.

living /ˈlɪv.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: living
Verbs: live
Adjectives: lively, living

ADJECTIVE
[B2] alive now

Dictionary examples:
living things/creatures/organisms
He is probably the best known living architect.
Learner example:
Environmental protection activists point out that living creatures shouldn't be deprived of their natural background and most endangered species could be saved from extinction by creating more national parks.

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] the money that you earn from your job

Dictionary examples:
What do you do for a living?
You can earn/make a good living in sales if you have the right attitude.

Learner example:
You should try to earn a living [from] painting.

load /ləʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: load, overload
Verbs: load, unload

NOUN [C] a load/loads INFORMAL
[B1] a lot

Dictionary examples:
I've got a load of work to get through before tomorrow.
There were loads of people there.
Have some more food – there's loads.
She looks loads better with her new haircut.

Learner example:
We went to loads of beautiful places.

AMOUNT CARRIED
[B2] something that is carried, often by a vehicle

Dictionary examples:
The maximum load for this elevator is eight persons.
One truck involved in the accident was carrying a heavy load of coal.

Learner example:
Quite honestly I think that you are pulling too big a load.

VERB [I or T]

VEHICLE
[B2] to put a lot of things into a vehicle or machine
Dictionary examples:
How long will it take to load this sand onto the lorry?
Let’s load up the car and then we can go.
to load the dishwasher/washing machine

Learner example:
Thus the situation was rather dramatic, the lorry had to be loaded before the sun rose.

MACHINE
[B2] to put information or a program onto a computer

Dictionary example:
You need to load this program onto your computer.

Learner example:
The shop keeper loaded 12 games onto it which I chose.

loaf /ləʊf/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL loaves)
[B2] bread that has been baked in one large piece so that it can be cut into smaller pieces

Dictionary example:
a loaf of bread

Learner example:
I was often sent by my mother to the next shop to buy a loaf of bread, some milk and sometimes fruit and vegetables.

loan /ləʊn/

NOUN [C]

MONEY
[B1] money that someone has borrowed

Dictionary examples:
She’s trying to get a £30 000 loan to start her own business.
We could apply for/take out a loan to buy a car.

Learner example:
From [the programme] they learn a lot about funding or [getting a] loan from [a] bank.

on loan
[C1] If something is on loan, someone is borrowing it.
Dictionary example:
Both paintings are on loan from the city museum.

Learner example:
For example, you can always take out on loan any video you like from our cent[re].

loathe /ləʊð/

Word family:
Nouns: loathing
Verbs: loathe

VERB [T]
[C2] to hate someone or something

Dictionary example:
I absolutely loathe swimming.

Learner example:
Even those obscure and never-pay-attention subjects that we totally loathe might give us food for thought regardless of what we will end up studying.

loathing /ˈləʊ.ðɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: loathing
Verbs: loathe

NOUN [U]
[C2] a feeling of hating someone or something

Dictionary example:
All I feel for him is loathing.

Learner example:
Both characters are torn between their feelings of awe and loathing for India, although Olivia's relationship with this country is one of submission and devotion.

lobby /ˈlɒb.i/

NOUN [C]
[B2] an area inside the main entrance of a building

Dictionary examples:
the hotel lobby
I'll meet you in the lobby at 5.30.
Learner example:
He unpacked his things, took a shower and went to the lobby [to] wait for Hanna.

VERB  [I or T]

[C2] to try to persuade the government or an official group to do something

Dictionary examples:
Small businesses have lobbied hard for/against changes in the tax laws.
Local residents lobbied to have the factory shut down.
They have been lobbying Congress to change the legislation concerning guns.

Learner example:
They have become so powerful through their vast sales and profits that they can effectively lobby for their points of view.

local  /ˈloʊ.kəl/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] relating to an area near you

Dictionary examples:
a local accent local issues
a local newspaper/radio station
Most of the local population depend on fishing for their income.
Our children all go to the local school.
Many local shops will be forced to close if the new supermarket is built.

Learner example:
You could go walking in the countryside, try water sports, enjoy the local food (especially the "galettes") and visit the city of Rennes.

NOUN

[C2] someone who lives in the area you are talking about

Dictionary example:
The locals are very upset about the new law.

Learner example:
However, it is inadvisable to confront the locals with prejudices or exaggerated expectations they cannot live up to.

locate  /ˈloʊ.ˈkeɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: location
Verbs: locate, relocate
VERB [T]

be located in/near/on/etc.
[B1] to be in a particular place

Dictionary example:
Our office is located in the city centre.

Learner example:
It's located in the heart of Puebla and it's really wonderful.

FIND
[B2] to find or discover the exact position of something

Dictionary example:
Police are still trying to locate the suspect.

Learner example:
He tried to locate the wall and took a calm step forward.

location /ləˈækər.iً/n/

Word family:
Nouns: location
Verbs: locate, relocate

NOUN [C]

PLACE
[B1] a place or position

Dictionary examples:
The hotel is in a lovely location overlooking the lake.
A map showing the location of the property will be sent to you.

Learner example:
The village is in a peaceful location, within minutes of a safe lake, and an hour from a pretty town.

on location
[C1] If a film or television programme is made on location, it is made at a place suitable to the story.

Dictionary example:
The movie was shot on location in Kenya.

Learner example:
We can't help mentioning the nice shots on location.
lock /lɔk/

Word family:
Nouns: lock
Verbs: lock, unlock

NOUN [c]

[B1] the thing that is used to close a door, window, etc., and that needs a key to open it

Dictionary examples:
I heard someone turn a key in the lock.
safety locks
Thieves got in by smashing the lock off the door.

Learner example:
I put my £10 in the drawer with a lock the day before.

VERB

WITH KEY

[B1] [I or T] to fasten something with a key, or to be fastened with a key

Dictionary examples:
Don't forget to lock the door when you go out.
If you shut the door, it will lock automatically.

Learner example:
Yesterday at about 11.10 p.m. I went to lock my garage.

lock sth/sb away/in, etc.

[B2] to put something or someone in a place or container that is fastened with a key

Dictionary examples:
She locked herself in her bedroom.
Most of my jewellery is locked away in a safe.

Learner example:
When Mary asked her not to reveal the secret, Pat ran away, w[ent] home, [and] locked herself in her bedroom.

loft /lɔft/

NOUN [c]

[C2] the space under the roof of a house or other building

1727
Dictionary example:
Our loft is full of junk.

Learner example:
Everything was thoroughly searched, from the cellar to the loft.

log /lɒg/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a thick piece of tree trunk or branch, especially one cut for burning on a fire

Dictionary example:
Let's put another log on the fire.

Learner example:
People used to cook with fire logs [but] they don't do it any more.

VERB

log in/on PHRASAL VERB
[B2] to connect a computer to a system of computers by typing your name and often a password, usually so that you can start working

Dictionary example:
I tried to log in as normal but nothing happened.

Learner example:
Well you need a computer and you have to log on [to] the Internet.

log off/out PHRASAL VERB
[B2] to stop a computer being connected to a computer system, usually when you want to stop working

Dictionary example:
We were all asked to log off while some changes were made to the system.

Learner example:
I know that most students just log off the computers, but they [are] still switch[ed] on and [use] energy.

logic /ˈlɒdʒ.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: logic
Adjectives: logical
Adverbs: logically
NOUN [u]
[C1] the use of reason, or the science of using reason

Dictionary examples:
I fail to see the logic behind his argument.
If prices go up, wages will go up too – that's just logic.
There's no logic in the decision to reduce staff when orders are the highest for years.

Learner example:
It lacked any logic or interest for me.

logical /ˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: logic
Adjectives: logical
Adverbs: logically

ADJECTIVE
[B2] using reason

Dictionary example:
a logical choice/conclusion

Learner example:
When someone is logical and smart and loves life, he is not in danger when he drives a car.

logically /ˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: logic
Adjectives: logical
Adverbs: logically

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that is logical

Dictionary example:
Her ideas were clear and logically presented.

Learner example:
Her intuition failed her, [and] neither could she find the answer logically.
logo /ˈləʊ.gə/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a design or symbol used by a company to advertise its products

Dictionary example:

a corporate logo

Learner example:

That strange-looking man was wearing [a] black jumper, blue jeans, black trainers and [a] black baseball cap with [the] white Nike logo.

loneliness /ˈləʊn.li.nəs/

Word family:

Nouns: loneliness

Adjectives: lonely

NOUN [u]

[C1] the state of being lonely

Dictionary example:

I wasn't prepared for the loneliness of living in a small village.

Learner example:

Frankenstein is a book that explores the feelings of loneliness and solitude, and the consequences that this has on human relationships.

lonely /ˈləʊn.li/

Word family:

Nouns: loneliness

Adjectives: lonely

ADJECTIVE

[B1] unhappy because you are not with other people

Dictionary examples:

She gets lonely now that all the kids have left home.

the lonely life of a farmer

Learner example:

If they had not been there, I would have been very lonely.
A lonely place is a long way from where people live.

Dictionary example:
A lonely stretch of Arizona highway

Learner example:
In this lonely place strange things happened.

long /lɒŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: longing
Verbs: long

ADVERB

all day long
[B1] for the whole day

Dictionary example:
We've been walking all day long.

Learner example:
Oh, I almost forgot to tell you about my Japanese stones where I listen to music all day long.

as/so long as [B1] used to say that something must happen before something else can happen

Dictionary examples:
I can come as long as I can leave by 4.00.
Bring your friends by all means – just so long as I know how many are coming.

Learner example:
The colo[ur]s I wear are not important, as long as I don't wear any pink clothes. I really dislike that colo[ur].

no longer
[B1] in the past but not now

Dictionary examples:
The cinema is no longer used.
She doesn't work here any longer.

Learner example:
The main reason is that my wife got pregnant [and] therefore [a] one-bedroom house is no longer suitable for us.

before (very/too) long [B2] soon
Dictionary example:
They'll be home before very long.

Learner example:
Before long they realized that most of the animals which lived there could be big bu[si]ness in Europe.

for long
[C1] for a long time

Dictionary example:
Have you been waiting for long?

Learner example:
There're departures every half an hour to the city centre, so you won't have to wait for long.

long ago
[C1] If something happened long ago, it happened a great amount of time ago.

Dictionary examples:
I think we met once, long ago.
It was not long ago that I last saw him.

Learner example:
Not so long ago, you could ring each Dutch doorbell of your choice at 6 pm and you'd f[i]nd the whole family gathered around the kitchen table, having their supper.

long before
[C2] a long period of time before something

Dictionary example:
I was a vegetarian long before I met Sally.

Learner example:
The cups belonged to my family long before I was born and the fact they are [a] part of my family tradition makes them valuable in my eyes.

VERB [l]

long for sth; long to do sth
[C2] to want something very much

Dictionary example:
She longed to see him again.

Learner example:
Of course I longed for my home and missed my relatives and friends, but I was so excited [by] everything the exchange could offer that I cannot recall any really sad day during my stay in Germany.
long-distance /ˌlɒŋˈdɪs.tənts/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] travelling or communicating between two places that are a long way apart

Dictionary examples:
- a long-distance runner
- long-distance lorry drivers
- a long-distance phone call

Learner example:
I've also made some long-distance call[s] which I'd like to pay for.

longevity /lɒŋˈdʒev.ə.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: longevity
- Adjectives: long
- Adverbs: long

[C2] having a long life

Dictionary example:
To what do you attribute your longevity?

Learner example:
The problem does not end there, as the unemployed present a strain [on] the social welfare systems, which are already overtaxed due to sinking birth numbers and rising longevity.

longing /ˈlɒŋ.ɪŋ/

Word family:
- Nouns: longing
- Verbs: long

[C2] a feeling of wanting something or someone very much

Dictionary examples:
- a longing for his homeland
- He gazed at her, his eyes full of longing.

Learner example:
These elements, together with the longing for independence, can help you reach your goal.
long-lasting /ˌlɒŋˈlɑː.stɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] continuing for a long period of time

Dictionary example:
Theirs was a long-lasting friendship.

Learner example:
People with these qualities are most able to provide me with what I like: fun, attention, good conversations and long-lasting relationships.

---

long-running /ˌlɒŋˈrʌn.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] having continued for a long time

Dictionary examples:
a long-running musical their long-running dispute

---

long-term /ˌlɒŋˈtɜːm/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] continuing a long time into the future

Dictionary examples:
long-term unemployment long-term care for the seriously ill the long-term effects of the drug

Learner example:
I was deeply impressed by the long-term cooperation between the zoo and the school.

---

long term /ˈlɒŋˌtɜːm/

NOUN

in the long term

[B2] over a period of time that continues a long way into the future
Dictionary example:
This decision may make financial sense now, but it will have serious consequences in the long term.

Learner example:
I understand this is a big investment but I can see the advantage [of] easier communication and a better environment. In the long term this [will be] more economical for us.

long–time  /ˈlɒŋ.taim/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] describes someone who has been in a particular position for a long period

Dictionary example:
A long–time friend of the chairman said she had expected the resignation.

Learner example:
I have now known her for 13 years both as a student and on a familiar level, since I am a long–time friend [of] her husband’s.

look  /lʊk/

Word family:
Nouns: look
Verbs: look, overlook

VERB

look like
[B1] used to describe the appearance of a person or thing

Dictionary examples:
He looked like a drug addict.
That building looks just like a giant gherkin.

Learner example:
It was dark on [the] street but I remember [what] the thief looked like.

it looks like/as if [B1] used to say that something is likely to happen

Dictionary examples:
It looks like there’ll only be three of us going on Sunday.
It looks as if it’s going to rain.

Learner example:
It’s cold and I think I will have to buy an umbrella because it looks as if it’ll rain.
look as if/as though
[B2] used to describe the appearance of a person or thing

Dictionary examples:
Bradley looked as if he had seen a ghost.
She looked as though she was going to cry.

Learner example:
The dress is made of bright blue silk, it's long and looks as if it was [made] for [a] queen.

DIRECTION
[B2] [I] to face a particular direction

Dictionary examples:
The garden looks south.
This window looks out onto the lake.

Learner example:
I [would] like a room which looks out onto the garden.

look on the bright side
[C1] to find good things in a bad situation

Dictionary example:
Look on the bright side – no one was badly hurt.

Learner example:
I am quite self-confident and I usually look on the bright side, as I am not keen on pessimistic thoughts.

be looking to do sth
[C2] to plan to do something

Dictionary example:
I'm looking to start my own business.

NOUN

SEE
[B1] [c] when you look at someone or something

Dictionary examples:
She gave him a look of real dislike.
Take a (good) look at this picture and see if you recognize anyone.
Can I have a look at your dictionary?

Learner example:
I went to have a look and I was very surprised!

SEARCH
[B1] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] when you look for someone or something 1736

Dictionary example:
I had another look for the watch, but couldn't find it.

Learner example:
Should I have a look for cheap hotels?

APPEARANCE

[B2] [c] an expression on someone's face

Dictionary examples:
She had a worried look about her.
She gave me a questioning look.

Learner example:
China was attacking France, everyone started screaming, and the look of panic on my history teacher's face was almost funny.

the look of sb/sth

[B2] the appearance of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
They liked the look of the hotel, but it was too expensive.
I don't like the look of that fence.

Learner example:
We have to make it more attractive to them by improving the look of our town.

FASHION

[C1] [NO PLURAL] a style or fashion

Dictionary example:
the new look for the summer

Learner example:
Shopping [...] gives you a feeling of being in another world, a world where dreams can come true – dreams of becoming more beautiful by buying new clothes and accessories for the new look you have always wanted.

sb's looks

[C2] a person's appearance, especially how attractive they are

Dictionary example:
I was attracted to him because of his looks.

Learner example:
At last, she arrived in time for the ball held that night, and everybody was charmed by her looks and manners.
loom /luːm/

VERB [v]

APPEAR
[C2] to appear as a large, sometimes frightening shape

Dictionary example:
Dark storm clouds loomed on the horizon.

Learner example:
Situated in the heart of Salford's concrete slum, the old soap factory loomed before him.

WORRY
[C2] If an unpleasant event looms, it is likely to happen soon.

Dictionary example:
The threat of closure looms over the workforce.

Learner example:
Unless steps are taken soon, the future will continue to loom less assured.

loom large
[C2] If something looms large, it becomes very important and often causes worry.

Dictionary example:
The issue of pay will loom large at this year’s conference.

Learner example:
It was, she dreaded to admit, a sense of regret. She shock her head as if doing so shooed the feeling away. On the contrary, however, it was looming large while she was stamping along the busy street.

---

loose /luːs/

Word family:

Verbs: loosen

Adjectives: loose

ADJECTIVE

CLOTHES
[B1] large and not fitting tightly

Dictionary example:
Wear comfortable, loose clothing to your exercise class.

Learner example:
I even like wearing loose T-shirts.
NOT FIXED
[B2] not firmly fixed in position

Dictionary examples:
Her hair was hanging loose about her shoulders.
The nails in the bridge had worked themselves loose.
There were some loose wires hanging out of the wall.

Learner example:
I now wear my long hair loose and I [have] dyed it black.

NOT EXACT
[C2] not tightly controlled or not exact

Dictionary examples:
It's a fairly loose adaptation of the novel.
It's only a loose translation of the poem.

loosen /ˈluːsn/

Word family:
Verbs: loosen
Adjectives: loose

VERB [I or T]
[C2] to become loose or make something loose

Dictionary example:
He loosened his tie.

Learner example:
Do we not want our children to be as happy as possible? By loosening their ropes, we enable them to choose the way most suitable for themselves.

lorry /ˈlɔr.i/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a large vehicle used for transporting goods

Dictionary example:
a long-distance lorry driver

Learner example:
When the lorries of the Recycling Service don’t come on time, there are piles of papers and plastic bottles [outside] our block of flats.
lose /luːz/ (lost, lost)

Word family:
Nouns: loss
Verbs: lose
Adjectives: lost

VERB

NOT HAVE
[B1] [ɪ] to stop having something that you had before

Dictionary examples:
At least 600 staff will lose their jobs if the firm closes.
He lost his leg in a car accident.
She lost her mother last year.

Learner example:
Actually, I lost my job last week.

NOT WIN
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to fail to succeed in a game, competition, etc.

Dictionary examples:
If we lose this game, we're out of the championship.
They're losing 3–1.
They lost to Arsenal.
Everyone hates losing an argument.
They hadn't lost an election in fifteen years.

Learner example:
We were in the final, but we lost it.

HAVE LESS
[B1] [ɪ] to have less of something than you had before

Dictionary examples:
I'm trying to lose weight.
He's losing his hair.
She lost a lot of blood in the accident.
to lose your memory/sight

Learner example:
I want to borrow your bicycle because I am getting fat and I need it to do some training to lose weight.

lose your life
[B2] to die

Dictionary example:
Millions of young men lost their lives in the war.
Learner example:
A man who has experience after a lot of years driving is less likely to lose his life in an accident than another new driver.

Lose interest/patience, etc.
[B2] to stop feeling something good

Dictionary examples:
I’m rapidly losing interest in the whole subject.
He kept on crying and I lost my patience.

Learner example:
Moreover the microphone suddenly wouldn’t work anymore, and even though I desperately tried to speak up, people began to lose interest in both my speech and me and simply started to talk to each other instead.

Lose your temper
[B2] to suddenly become angry

Dictionary example:
The children behaved so badly that I lost my temper.

Learner example:
Yesterday, I must confess, I lost my temper with my son.

Time/opportunity
[B2] [T] to waste something such as time or an opportunity

Dictionary examples:
Four million hours were lost last year through stress-related illnesses.
We lost valuable time stuck in traffic.
Because of illness, she lost the chance of a place in the team.

Learner example:
You lose a lot of time when you have to find a place to park.

Lose touch
[B2] to stop communicating with someone, usually because they do not live near you now

Dictionary example:
We lost touch over the years.

Learner example:
When he went into the information centre, he saw Mary, who he used to go out with – [for] some reason, they had lost touch with each other.

Lose track
[B2] to not know what is happening to someone or something any more

Dictionary example:
I’ve lost track of how much we’ve spent.
Learner example:
Time passed like an arrow and they lost track of time until they realised it started to getting dark.

lose your voice
[B2] to become unable to speak, often because of an illness

Dictionary example:
She had a bad cold and was losing her voice.

Learner example:
I immediately became agitated and at the precise moment of my speech I lost my voice completely.

MONEY
[C1] to make less money than you spend

Dictionary examples:
He lost a lot of money on the house sale.
Her company lost over £2 million last year.

Learner example:
The reported information about the income was completely wrong; in fact, the target figure we had set has been fully reached and this obviously means that the hospital didn’t lose any money.

lose your head
[C1] to stop being calm in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I saw the fire and I lost my head.

Learner example:
She has never lost her head in dangerous situations and she always knows what to do.

lose your cool
[C2] to suddenly become very angry

Dictionary example:
She lost her cool and started shouting.

lose count
[C2] to forget how many of something there is

Dictionary example:
I’ve lost count of the number of times she’s arrived late.

Learner example:
I lost count of how often I heard this sentence when I used to work for a drug company.

lose face
[C2] to do something so that people stop respecting you

Dictionary example:
The party has lost face with the public by abandoning their original policy on education.
Learner example:
However, many popular people like Pierce Brosnan managed to keep their lives out of the press and yet be present to meet public demand without losing face.

lose heart
[C2] to stop believing that you can succeed

Dictionary example:
Don't lose heart, there'll be plenty more chances for promotion.

Learner example:
In that way, we learn to deal with our problems and not to lose heart.

lose sight of sth
[C2] to forget about an important idea or fact because you are thinking too much about other, less important things

Dictionary example:
We mustn't lose sight of the original aims of this project.

Learner example:
Little do we realize that in the process we lose sight of the fundamentals, which in this case is the protection of our environment.

lose sleep over something
[C2] to worry about something

Dictionary example:
I know she's angry with me, but I'm not losing any sleep over it.

Learner example:
[There] was just one house, a magnificent mansion behind a high fence, that bothered me a bit. No-one from there came to meet me. But in the hassle of the first few weeks I was simply too busy to lose any sleep over it.

loss /lɒs/

Word family:
Nouns: loss
Verbs: lose
Adjectives: lost

NOUN

NOT HAVING
[B2] [c or u] when you no longer have something or have less of something
Dictionary examples:
Many parents feel a sense of loss when their children leave home.
He suffered a gradual loss of memory.
There will be substantial job losses if the factory closes down.
blood/hair/weight loss

Learner example:
I had been working on this manuscript for an article in a computer magazine on the topic "How to prevent loss of data if the electric power is cut off[.]."

DEATH
[B2] [c or u] the death of a person

Dictionary example:
They never got over the loss of their son.

Learner example:
And so John remained alone, haunted by the terrible loss.

MONEY
[C1] [c] when a business spends more money than it earns

Dictionary example:
The company announced a pre-tax loss of three million pounds.

Learner example:
It suffered a major loss over a period of 15 years, roughly from 1978 to 1994.

DISADVANTAGE
[C2] [NO PLURAL] a disadvantage caused by someone leaving an organization

Dictionary example:
It would be a great loss to the department if you left.

Learner example:
It will be a great loss for Germany when he retires.

at a loss
[C2] not knowing what to do

Dictionary example:
I'm at a loss to explain his disappearance.

Learner example:
And now I am completely at a loss what to write next.

at a loss for words
[C2] not knowing what to say

Dictionary example:
The question was unexpected and she was temporarily at a loss for words.
Learner example:
If it was James I would be at a loss for words, I didn’t know what to tell him.

lost /lɒst/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Nouns:</th>
<th>loss</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>lose</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>lost</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

OBJECT

[B1] If something is lost, no one knows where it is.

Dictionary examples:
Things tend to get lost when you move house.
Lost: a black cat with white paws
Mikey turned up with the lost book.

Learner example:
He went to that tree and the[re] it was, the lost suitcase.

be lost without sb/sth

[C1] INFORMAL to be unable to live or work without someone or something

Dictionary example:
She’s lost without her computer.

Learner example:
It showed us how we would be lost without this transportation system.

NEW SITUATION

[C1] not knowing what to do in a new situation

Dictionary example:
It was his first day in the office and he seemed a bit lost.

Learner example:
I would recommend a visit [to] a restaurant or the theatre the first evening. I can imagine that some of the guests felt a bit lost.

be lost for words

[C2] to be so surprised, angry or moved by something that you do not know what to say

Dictionary example:
This prize is such an honour and so unexpected – I am lost for words.
Learner example:
I was so enraged that I was lost for words for quite a long time.

lottery /ˈlɔt.ə.r.i/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a way of making money by selling numbered tickets to people who then have a chance of winning a prize if their number is chosen

Dictionary example:
We always do the lottery on Saturdays.

Learner example:
I got a phone [call] from a lottery company and they said I [had] won [the] lottery with [a] 100 million dollar [prize].

loud /laʊd/

Word family:
Adjectives: loud
Adverbs: aloud, loud, loudly

ADVERB
[B1] loudly

Dictionary example:
Could you speak a little louder, please?

Learner example:
I cried louder.

out loud
[B1] If you say or read something out loud, you say or read it so that other people can hear you.

Dictionary example:
I had to read the essay out loud in front of the whole school.

Learner example:
She wouldn't accept it so I read [it] out loud for her to hear: "Director, Jason Meyer, and producer, Sami Woods, are receiving...".
loudly /ˈlaʊd.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: loud
Adverbs: aloud, loud, loudly

ADVERB
[B1] in a way that makes a lot of noise

Dictionary example:
They were all talking loudly.

Learner example:
The only thing is that he fell asleep at the end of the day and he was snoring loudly!

---

lounge /ˈlaʊndʒ/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a room in a hotel, theatre, airport, etc. where people can relax or wait

Dictionary example:
Drinks were served in the lounge.

Learner example:
In the central lounge you'll find an automatic bus ticket machine.

---

love /lʌv/

Word family:
Nouns: love, lover
Verbs: love
Adjectives: lovely

NOUN

FRIENDS/FAMILY
[B1] [u] when you like a friend or person in your family very much

Dictionary examples:
Nothing is as strong as the love you have for your kids.
"I'm seeing Laura next week." "Oh, please give her my love".

Learner example:
Give my love to your family. All the best,
ROMANCE/SEX

[B1] [u] when you like someone very much and have romantic or sexual feelings for them

Dictionary examples:
He's madly in love with her.
She fell in love with her friend's brother.
"I've been seeing him over a year now." "Is it love?"
How's your love life these days?

Learner example:
I fell in love with him.

PERSON

[B1] [c] a person that you love and feel attracted to

Dictionary examples:
He was the love of my life.
She was my first love.

Learner example:
It was from the love of my life.

INTEREST

[B2] [c or u] something that interests you a lot

Dictionary examples:
I don't share my boyfriend's love of sport.
Music is one of her greatest loves.

Learner example:
Both of them symbolize courage, love of justice, fight for freedom, which makes them look like heroes.

a labour of love

[C2] an activity that is hard work but which you do because you enjoy it

Dictionary example:
He prefers to paint the house himself – it's a real labour of love.

Learner example:
[Being a] musician is a labour of love.

lover /ˈʌvər/
SEX
[B1] If two people are lovers, they have a sexual relationship but they are not married.

Dictionary examples:
They were friends before they became lovers.
She had a string of lovers before her marriage finally broke up.

Learner example:
I was reading "Romeo and Juliet" by W. Shakespeare when I suddenly decided to leave and visit Verona, the lovers' city.

a book/cat/dog, etc. lover
[B1] someone who is very interested in books, cats, dogs, etc.

Dictionary example:
an opera lover

Learner example:
Brazil is a very big country and perfect for nature lovers.

---

low /ləʊ/

Word family:
Verbs: lower
Adjectives: low

ADJECTIVE

NOT HIGH
[B1] not high

Dictionary examples:
a low fence
low ceilings

Learner example:
When I stay [at] home, I wear jeans, t-shirts, [and] trainers or low shoes.

BAD QUALITY
[B2] of bad quality, especially when referring to something that is not as good as it should be

Dictionary examples:
low standards/quality
I have rather a low opinion of him.
Learner example:
However, it is necessary to add that few people could afford much food because of poverty and the low quality of life which they had.

SOUND
[B2] deep or quiet

Dictionary examples:
a low voice
a low note

Learner example:
Right after I had said that, I noticed that someone was pointing at me with a gun, [and] a low voice said: 'If I were you I wouldn't move, follow me'.

NOT IMPORTANT
[C1] not important or powerful

Dictionary examples:
He held a low rank in the army.
New furniture is a very low priority at the moment.

Learner example:
Luminaries claim that the team spirit and the sense of competition have vanished, and it has been proven that exercise has a low priority compared to other recreational activities.

UNHAPPY
[C1] unhappy and without energy

Dictionary example:
Illness of any sort can leave you feeling low.

Learner example:
She never feels low and I am in high spirits being with her because she has got a sense of humour.

keep a low profile
[C1] to try not to be noticed

Dictionary example:
She has kept a low profile since the divorce.

Learner example:
Finally, I believe that the best way to handle these issues is to try to keep a low profile at all times and to remain indifferent to gossip.

ADVERB
[B1] at or to a small amount or level

Dictionary examples:
Temperatures can fall as low as -20 degrees.
Can you turn the heating a bit lower?
Learner example:
The lights are down low.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>lower</th>
<th>/ˈləʊ.ər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Verbs: lower
Adjectives: low

VERB [ɪ]
MOVE
[B2] to move something into a low position

Dictionary examples:
They lowered the coffin into the grave.
Heavily pregnant by now, she lowered herself carefully into the chair.
He lowered his eyes in embarrassment when he saw me.

Learner example:
But when she asked who wanted to be a cleaner, nobody raised his hand and I felt so ashamed that I lowered my head.

REDUCE
[B2] to reduce the amount or level of something

Dictionary examples:
Interest rates have been lowered again.
Boil for 5 minutes, then lower the heat and simmer for half an hour.
Please lower your voice.
We will never lower our standards.

Learner example:
This should be done by lowering taxes and preparing other incentives for potential investors.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>loyal</th>
<th>/ˈlɔɪ.əl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: loyalty
Adjectives: loyal, disloyal

ADJECTIVE
[B2] always liking and supporting someone or something, sometimes when other people do not
Dictionary examples:
Jack has been a loyal worker in this company for almost 50 years.
When all her other friends deserted her, Steve remained loyal.
She’s very loyal to her friends.

Learner example:
One of the most beautiful things in the world is true and loyal friendship.

loyalty /ˈloɪ.əl.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: loyalty
Adjectives: loyal, disloyal

NOUN [u]
[B2] the quality of being loyal

Dictionary examples:
His loyalty was never in question.
Her loyalty to the cause is impressive.

Learner example:
What I can say is that [pets] are ideal when they obey and show loyalty to you.

luck /lʌk/

Word family:
Nouns: luck
Adjectives: lucky, unlucky
Adverbs: luckily

NOUN [u]
SUCCESS
[B2] success

Dictionary examples:
Have you had any luck with booking your flight?
He tried to get into Harvard but with no luck.
Then I met this gorgeous woman and I couldn’t believe my luck.

Learner example:
As you might suppose, I couldn’t believe my luck when I found out that I’d won first prize in the competition.

be in luck INFORMAL
[C1] to be lucky or to be able to have or do what you want
Dictionary example:
"Do you have any tuna sandwiches?" "You're in luck – there's one left."

Learner example:
I was in luck, because my friend, who lived in the same area, had his private car and gave me a lift every day.

a stroke of luck
[C2] something good that happens to you by chance

Dictionary example:
He had exactly the part that I needed so that was a stroke of luck.

Learner example:
After a one-hour interview she was asked whether she could be starting work the very next day. A real stroke of luck.

luckily /ˈlʌk.ə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: luck
Adjectives: lucky, unlucky
Adverbs: luckily

ADVERB
[B1] in a lucky way

Dictionary example:
Luckily, I had some money with me.

Learner example:
Luckily, the weather was nice.

lucky /ˈlʌk.i/

Word family:
Nouns: luck
Adjectives: lucky, unlucky
Adverbs: luckily

ADJECTIVE
GIVING LUCK
[B1] If an object is lucky, some people believe that it gives you luck.

Dictionary example:
I chose six – it's my lucky number.
Learner example:
I lost my lucky pencil.

lucrative /ˈluː.krə.tɪv/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] If something is lucrative, it makes a lot of money.

Dictionary example:
a lucrative contract/job/offer

Learner example:
It is no secret that many youngsters want a lucrative job, which would allow them [to] mak[e] money hand over fist.

lump /lʌmp/

NOUN [c]

PIECE
[C2] a piece of a solid substance with no particular shape

Dictionary examples:
a lump of coal
You don't want lumps in the sauce.

Learner example:
He bent down to pick it up and saw it was a lump of concrete.

bring a lump to your throat
[C2] to make you feel such strong emotion that you want to cry

Dictionary example:
It was a very moving speech, and it brought a lump to my throat.

Learner example:
This devastating image brought a lump to John's throat.

lung /lʌŋ/

NOUN [c]

[B2] one of the two organs inside your chest that are used for breathing

Dictionary example:
lung cancer
Learner example:
People suffering from lung diseases go there to be cured.

lure /lʊər/

VERB [ɪ]
[C2] to persuade someone to go somewhere or do something by offering them something exciting

Dictionary examples:
It seems that he was lured into a trap.
They had been lured to the big city by the promise of high wages.

Learner example:
Some of the children are lured to the big cities, in expectation of work.

NOUN [u]
[C2] the power to attract people

Dictionary example:
the lure of fame/power/money

Learner example:
Some have offered the lure of losing weight within a very few days, by the means of miraculously easy techniques.

luxurious /lʌkˈʃʊəri.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: luxury
Adjectives: luxurious

ADJECTIVE
[C1] very comfortable and expensive

Dictionary examples:
They have a very luxurious house.
luxurious fabrics

Learner example:
As far as the hotel is concerned, I feel that it wasn’t a luxurious one.
luxury /ˈlʌk.ʃəri/

Word family:

Nouns: luxury

Adjectives: luxurious

NOUN

COMFORT

[B1] [u] great comfort or pleasure from expensive or beautiful things

Dictionary examples:
- a luxury cruise
- a luxury hotel
- to live in luxury

Learner example:
I'm staying in a luxury hotel overlooking [the] sea.

THING THAT GIVES PLEASURE

[B2] [u no plural] something which gives you a lot of pleasure but which you cannot often do or have

Dictionary example:
A day off work is such a luxury.

Learner example:
I think that to have this museum is a luxury for our city and we must visit [it].

EXPENSIVE THING

[C1] [c] something expensive which is pleasant to have but is not necessary

Dictionary examples:
- luxuries, such as champagne and chocolate
- I like to buy myself little luxuries from time to time.

Learner example:
At the time, [the] majority [of] consumers had no money to spend on luxuries.

lyrics /ˈlɪr.ɪks/

NOUN [plural]

[B2] the words of a song

Dictionary example:
I've downloaded the lyrics of that song you like.
One of the greatest [of] these musicians is Caetano Veloso, whose lyrics and melodies [touch] the hearts and souls of music lovers in Brazil and all around the world.
machinery /məˈʃiː.nə.ri/

Word family:
Nouns: machine, machinery

NOUN [u]
[C1] machines, often large machines

Dictionary example:
industrial/farm machinery

Learner example:
The use of heavy machinery is more and more frequent and consequently the amount of petrol used is higher.

mad /mæd/ (madder, maddest)

ADJECTIVE

CRAZY
[B1] INFORMAL stupid or crazy

Dictionary examples:
You're mad to walk home alone at this time of night.
He must be mad spending so much money on a T-shirt.
Some of the things she does are completely mad.

Learner example:
But then my other friends came to where we were and said the same thing. I think they were all mad.

be mad about sb/sth
[B1] INFORMAL to love someone or something

Dictionary examples:
They only met a month ago but he's mad about her.
Jo's mad about skiing.

Learner example:
You know, I hate pink, but my mother is really mad about pink.
ILL
[B1] mentally ill

Dictionary examples:
I think I must be going mad.
He went mad with grief.
Do I look like some mad old woman in this hat?

Learner example:
The movie was about [a] guy that was mad.

like mad
[B2] a lot

Dictionary example:
The band practised like mad before their first concert.

Learner example:
It was raining like mad, so we were wet to the skin.

madam /ˈmæd.əm/

NOUN

WOMAN
[B1] a formal and polite way of speaking to a woman

Dictionary example:
Can I help you, Madam?

Learner example:
[An] old woman came in the shop and quietly put my suitcase near to me and she said "Excuse me, Madam, it's your suitcase. I saw somebody take it.

Dear Madam
[B2] a way of beginning a formal letter to a woman whose name you do not know

Dictionary example:
Dear Madam, I am writing to inform you...

Learner example:
Dear Sir or Madam, With reference to your newspaper report of 17th July, I am writing to correct some points in this report.
magic /ˈmædʒ.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: magic Adjectives: magic, magical

NOUN [u]

SPECIAL QUALITY
[B2] a quality that makes something or someone seem special or exciting

Dictionary example:
No one could fail to enjoy the magic of this wonderful city.

Learner example:
But everyone [was] thinking of the elections and couldn't feel the "magic" of Christmas Day...

ADJECTIVE

SPECIAL POWERS
[B1] with special powers that make impossible things happen

Dictionary examples:
The witch put a magic spell on the prince and turned him into a frog.
There's no magic solution to the problem.

magical /ˈmædʒ.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: magic Adjectives: magic, magical

ADJECTIVE

WONDERFUL
[B2] special, beautiful or exciting

Dictionary examples:
It was a magical night.
The setting for the concert was quite magical.

Learner example:
I think you should go to Cracow – [a] beautiful, old city with original, historical monuments, works of art and many cafes and jazz clubs with [a] magical atmosphere.

MAGIC
[B2] with special powers

Dictionary example:
magical powers
Learner example:

We cherish the belief in a magical force outside ourselves which sooner or later will deliver us these dreams.

---

magistrate /ˈmædʒ.ɪ.strɛt/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a type of judge who deals with less serious crimes

Dictionary example:
The case will be heard by a magistrate.

Learner example:
In public life women have reached positions as magistrates, coun[cillo]rs and ministers.

---

magnetic /mæɡˈnet.i.k/

ADJECTIVE

METAL

[C1] with the power of a magnet

Dictionary example:
a magnetic field

Learner example:
The worst of all is that even little children of the age of nine or ten years old now have their own mobile phone which makes them totally irresponsible and especially affected [by] the magnetic energy the phone has, which is very harmful to children.

PERSONALITY

[C1] having a character that attracts people to you

Dictionary example:
He has a magnetic personality.

Learner example:
Ivan has a magnetic personality, which draws people to him.

---

magnificent /mæɡˈnɪf.ɪ.snt/

Word family:

Adjectives: magnificent

Adverbs: magnificently
ADJECTIVE
[B1] very good or very beautiful

Dictionary examples:
- a magnificent view
- They live in a magnificent old house.
- He gave a magnificent performance.

Learner example:
Next, we went to [a] for[e]st. [I]n the middle was a lake and the sight was magnificent.

magnificently /mægˈnɪf.ɪ.sənt.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: magnificent Adverbs: magnificently

ADVERB
[C1] extremely well

Dictionary example:
I thought she coped magnificently.

Learner example:
This small drawback did not affect either the dance display or the horse show, which were both performed magnificently.

main /meɪn/

Word family:
Adjectives: main
Adverbs: mainly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

MOST IMPORTANT
[B1] most important or largest

Dictionary examples:
The main airport is 15 miles from the capital.
One of the main reasons I came to England was to study the language.
You'll find the main points of my proposal in the report.
Our main aim/objective is to improve the company's productivity.
The main problem in the health service is lack of resources.

Learner example:
However, the main reason, I must admit, was that I wanted to meet new people, make new friends and the college is the best place for meeting interesting people.
the main thing
[B2] the most important fact in a situation

Dictionary example:
You’re happy and that’s the main thing.

Learner example:
The main thing is to be happy and to love yourself.

mainly /ˈmeɪn.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: main
Adverbs: mainly

ADVERB
[B1] mostly or to a large degree

Dictionary examples:
The waitresses are mainly French.
They argued that the tax will mainly benefit the rich.

Learner example:
I often wear jeans, mainly blue jeans.

mainstream /ˈmeɪn.striːm/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] considered normal, and having or using ideas, beliefs, etc. which are accepted by most people

Dictionary example:
This is the director’s first mainstream Hollywood film.

Learner example:
The media source and its credibility play a major role in determining the objectivity and realistic portrayal although there have been cases where even mainstream publications have participated in manipulative alterations.

maintain /ˈmeɪnˈteɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: maintenance
Verbs: maintain
VERB [T]

CONTINUE TO HAVE
[B2] to make a situation or activity continue in the same way

Dictionary examples:
The army has been brought in to maintain order in the region.
We have standards to maintain.
The two countries have maintained close links over the years.

Learner example:
To sum up, I consider that although the role of footballers is less important than the need [for] doctors, they should not be paid less than doctors, in order to maintain the high quality of this game.

KEEP IN GOOD CONDITION
[B2] to keep a road, machine, building, etc. in good condition

Dictionary examples:
A large house costs a lot to maintain.
The roads generally are very poorly maintained.

Learner example:
Due to my education and my experience in maintaining machines, I am sure that I can do a good job in your club.

SAY SOMETHING IS TRUE
[C2] to say that you are certain something is true

Dictionary examples:
Throughout his prison sentence Dunn has always maintained his innocence.
He maintains that he has never seen the woman before.

Learner example:
Moreover, sceptics maintain that the lack of facilities and jobs leads to the countryside being "abandoned".

maintenance /ˈmeɪn.tə.nəns/

Word family:
Nouns: maintenance
Verbs: maintain

NOUN [U]
[B2] the work needed to keep a road, building, machine, etc. in good condition
Dictionary examples:
car maintenance classes
Old houses require too much maintenance.
I need a garden that's very low maintenance.

Learner example:
Many people can't afford to have a car as maintenance is very expensive.

major /ˈmeɪ.dʒə/

Word family:
Nouns: majority
Adjectives: major

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] more important, bigger or more serious than others of the same type

Dictionary examples:
This is a major problem for people in this region.
Sugar is a major cause of tooth decay.
America has played a major role in the peace process.
Citrus fruits are a major source of vitamin C.
There has been a major change in attitudes recently.

Learner example:
Some major changes are really necessary.

majority /ˌmeɪ.dʒə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: majority
Adjectives: major

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] more than half of a group of people or things

Dictionary examples:
The majority of our employees have university degrees.
A large majority of people approve of the death sentence.
The vast majority of smokers claim they would like to give up.
In Britain women are in the majority.
the majority decision

Learner example:
However the majority of the teachers found that buying movies was not a good idea.
make /meɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: maker
Verbs: make

VERB [T] (made, made)

CAUSE
[B1] to cause something to happen or cause a particular state

Dictionary examples:
What made you change your mind?
He really makes me laugh.
This photograph makes me look about 80!
It makes me so angry when he says that.
This heat makes me very tired.

Learner example:
It's so funny and it makes me laugh.

make sb do sth
[B1] to force someone or something to do something

Dictionary examples:
I made him tidy his room.
You can't make him go if he doesn't want to.

Learner example:
I could make him wait a little.

make up your mind or make your mind up
[B1] to make a decision

Dictionary examples:
I haven't made up my mind whether to apply for the job yet.
They couldn't make their minds up about where to go on holiday.

Learner example:
The place was so dirty that I made up my mind to change it by buy[ing] something useful.

ARRIVE
[B1] INFORMAL to manage to arrive at a place

Dictionary examples:
I'm afraid I can't make the meeting this afternoon.
She made it to the airport just in time to catch her plane.

Learner example:
My car is broken so I can't make it.
make a face
[B1] to show with your face that you do not like someone or something

Dictionary example:
Joe made a face when he saw what was for lunch.

Learner example:
Making a face, I slapped my forehead.

make friends (with sb)
[B1] to begin to know and like someone

Dictionary examples:
He finds it difficult to make friends.
He's made friends with a boy in his class called Alex.

Learner example:
Although I didn't know anyone in this club, I immediately made friends with Maria and Rosaria.

EARN
[B2] to earn

Dictionary examples:
She makes around £50,000 a year as a doctor.
How do you make a living as a painter?
Both companies have made huge profits/losses.

Learner example:
The truth is that our grandparents worked very hard to make a living.

make the/ sb's bed
[B2] to put sheets and covers on a bed or to make the sheets and covers on a bed neat

Dictionary examples:
Have you made the bed?
The kids don't always have time to make their beds before school.

Learner example:
Driving through the mountains we didn't reach the cabin until late at night. So we just made the beds and went off to sleep.

make the most of sth
[B2] to take full advantage of something because it may not last long

Dictionary example:
We should make the most of this good weather.

Learner example:
Remember, always try to make the most of your life.
make the best of sth
[B2] to try to be positive about a situation you do not like but cannot change

Dictionary example:
Our hotel room is pretty small, but we'll just have to make the best of it.

Learner example:
Unfortunately I don't have very much spare time so we will have to arrange it carefully in order to make the best of your time in London.

make a (big) difference
[B2] to improve a situation (a lot)

Dictionary example:
Exercise can make a big difference to your health.

Learner example:
It wouldn't make a big difference in my life, but it would be good.

to make matters worse
[B2] to make a situation more difficult, unpleasant, etc.

Dictionary example:
To make matters worse, our car broke down!

Learner example:
To make matters worse, the newspaper said they only played for thirty-five minutes.

make a fool (out) of sb
[B2] to make someone look stupid intentionally

Dictionary example:
She was always trying to make a fool out of me in front of my friends.

Learner example:
He thought I had tried to make a fool of him but no, I was really desperate to get him as my boyfriend.

make a fool of yourself
[B2] to behave in a silly or embarrassing way

Dictionary example:
I got very excited and made a fool of myself.

Learner example:
I had to leave that shop in full embarrassment and I also made a fool of myself.

make fun of sb/sth
[B2] to make a joke about someone or something in an unkind way

Dictionary example:
The other children at school used to make fun of his hair.
Learner example:
I didn't want to tell other people because I didn't want them to make fun of me.

make sense
[B2] to have a meaning or reason that you can understand

Dictionary example:
He's written me this note but it doesn't make any sense.

Learner example:
Eighty kilometres in the mountains just to [look at] views doesn't make any sense to me.

make sense
[B2] to be a good thing to do

Dictionary example:
It makes sense to buy now while prices are low.

Learner example:
Therefore it make[s] sense to use the innovation[s].

make time
[C1] to leave enough time to do something although you are busy

Dictionary examples:
You have to make time to do your homework.
He never made enough time for family life.

Learner example:
I'm terribly sorry for not being able to make time to pick you up when you arrive.

suitable
[C1] to have the necessary qualities to become something

Dictionary examples:
He would make a really nice dad.
I wouldn't make a very good lawyer.
It's a very exciting story – it would make a great film.

Learner example:
That is why I think I would make a good judge.

make it
[C1] to be successful

Dictionary example:
Very few actors actually make it.

Learner example:
People who belong to this social [group] are much more determined to "make it" in life.

make ends meet
[C1] to have just enough money to pay for the things that you need
Dictionary example:
I've taken a second job in the evenings just to make ends meet.

Learner example:
Most students support themselves and barely make ends meet every month.

make an exception
[C1] to not treat someone or something according to the usual rules

Dictionary example:
They don't usually take cheques, but they said they'd make an exception in my case.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, they were not flexible enough to make an exception, but on the other hand we know about the problem now and can avoid it in the future.

make yourself at home
[C1] to behave in a relaxed way in a place, as if it was your own home

Dictionary example:
Take off your coat and make yourself at home.

Learner example:
Please relax and make yourself at home and help yourself.

make a note of sth
[C1] to write down information about something

Dictionary example:
Let me make a note of your phone number.

Learner example:
After talking to other members, I have made a note of the main problems they considered the most urgent to be solved.

make a point of doing sth
[C1] to be certain that you always do a particular thing

Dictionary example:
He made a point of learning all the names of his staff.

Learner example:
I was not expecting to meet him that night, because I thought he would be busy and not have time to talk to anyone, but being so special as he is, he made a point of talking to everybody.

make yourself understood
[C1] to say something to someone in a way that they understand

Dictionary example:
I had a little difficulty making myself understood.
Learner example:
(Find enclosed a paper slip on which I have written a destination, number of tickets, etc., in the German language – use it just in case you can’t make yourselves understood.)

make do (with)
[C2] to accept something that is less good than you would like

Dictionary example:
If we can’t get a bigger room we’ll have to make do with this.

Learner example:
Very calmly, he said “I am not going to put up with this. You might say that I am being too emotional, overreacting, whatever. But I will not come back until my piano has been returned. And let me make very clear that I will not make do with another instrument.”

make light of [C2] to talk or behave as if you do not think a problem is serious

Dictionary example:
I just laughed and tried to make light of it.

Learner example:
They project an optimistic image and make light of the troubles in life.

make allowances for [C2] to remember that someone has a disadvantage which is not their fault when you are judging their behaviour or work

Dictionary example:
They made allowances for the fact that he was ill.

Learner example:
I would say Mr Stevens is a victim of his sense of duty, which makes him think of marriage as a traitor’s act, but I don’t know to what extent we should make allowances for his strong convictions.

make your blood run cold
[C2] If something makes your blood run cold, it frightens you very much.

Dictionary example:
I heard a tapping on the window which made my blood run cold.

Learner example:
This thought scared me and made my blood run cold.

make your blood boil
[C2] to make you extremely angry

Dictionary example:
The way they have treated those people makes my blood boil.

Learner example:
Paul said something repulsive, with a cold light in his eyes, and it made her blood boil.
make sb's day
[C2] to make someone very happy

Dictionary example:
Go on, ask him to dance – it'll make his day!

Learner example:
Thank you for returning a lost diary; you have made my day!

make a bad/good, etc. job of sth
[C2] to do sth badly/well, etc.

Dictionary example:
Paul's made a good job of painting the hall.

Learner example:
It's time my mother stop[ped] worrying about me, after all, she's been preparing me all my life for this moment; it's finally time to see if she has made a good job of it.

make a name for yourself
[C2] to become famous or respected by a lot of people

Dictionary example:
He's been trying to make a name for himself in the music business.

Learner example:
Secondly, only [a] few sportsmen and sportswomen manage to make a name for themselves and get to the top.

make a nonsense of sth
[C2] to spoil something or make it seem stupid

Dictionary example:
Cuts to the text made a nonsense of the play.

Learner example:
It really makes a nonsense of our claim to be civilized when one thinks of all the poor, helpless people that live under deplorable condition[s].

make waves
[C2] to cause problems by asking difficult questions or criticizing

Dictionary example:
He has earned a reputation for making waves during political campaigns.

Learner example:
If we don't want to regret anything, it is time we started to make waves by s[c]rutinizing our history.

make your way
[C2] to be successful and make progress in your work
Dictionary example:
He managed to make his way in the film industry.

Learner example:
For each one of the famous sportsmen we re[cog]nise on television or in the newspapers, there are thousands of hopeful youngsters trying to make their way to the top.

make way for sth
[C2] to be replaced by someone or something

Dictionary example:
They knocked down the old houses to make way for a new hotel.

Learner example:
In the UK most high-streets already look very much the same and the local shops had to make way for big conglomerates.

make a go of sth
[C2] to try to make something succeed, usually by working hard

Dictionary example:
They're determined to make a go of their business.

make your presence felt
[C2] to have a strong effect on other people

Dictionary example:
The new police chief has really made his presence felt.

Learner example:
Before long a local bicycle gang was formed which would ride all over the village, through fields and gardens, making our presence felt.

make sth public
[C2] to allow everyone to know about something

Dictionary example:
The government does not plan to make its findings public.

Learner example:
According to the scientific method of research, one should only make a discovery or conclusion public after deep testing and, even after th[at], this fact sh[ould] never be taken as the most complete and definitive truth about any given subject.

make a run for it INFORMAL
[C2] to suddenly run fast in order to escape from somewhere

Dictionary example:
When he saw the open door, he made a run for it.

Learner example:
Anna and Tom decided to make a run for it.
make sense of sth
[C2] to understand something that is difficult to understand

Dictionary example:
I'm trying to make sense of this document.

Learner example:
In fact, it's during his journey that Stevens begins to make sense of his life, of all the years he spent as a butler, as the 'perfect butler' who had to be loyal, silent and discreet.

make a splash INFORMAL
[C2] to get a lot of public attention

Dictionary example:
The film made quite a splash in the US.

Learner example:
Moreover, it is no use splashing your money about [on] expensive gifts because this behaviour shows that you are not happy but your purpose is to make a splash.

make a start
[C2] to begin doing something

Dictionary example:
We need to make a start on (preparing) the brochure next week.

maker /ˈmeɪ.kə/

Word family:
Nouns: maker
Verbs: make

NOUN [C]
[B2] the person or company that makes a product

Dictionary examples:
They're the biggest maker of fast-food products in the UK.
The makers of the film will want to see a decent return on their investment.

Learner example:
NISSAN is a famous Japanese car maker as you know.

male /meɪl/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] belonging to or relating to the sex that cannot have babies
Dictionary examples:
a male colleague
a male giraffe
What percentage of the adult male population is unemployed?

Learner example:
I was there when I heard a male voice calling me.

NOUN [C]
[B2] a male person or animal

Dictionary example:
In 1987, 27 percent of adult males smoked.

Learner example:
I am a 30-year old Swedish male with a diploma in gardening.

malicious /məˈlɪʃ.əs/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] intended to harm or upset someone

Dictionary example:
malicious gossip

Learner example:
If malicious teasing is tolerated, the whole school will be affected in a negative way and nobody will feel safe and self-confident.

mall /mɔːl/

NOUN [C] (also shopping mall)
[B1] a large, usually covered, shopping area where cars are not allowed

Dictionary example:
There are plans to build a new mall in the middle of town.

Learner example:
You can go shopping too because there is a nice shopping mall in Punta del Este.

mammal /ˈmæm.əl/

NOUN [C]
[C1] an animal that feeds its babies on milk from its body
Dictionary example:
Dolphins and other sea mammals are being harmed by waste in the oceans.

Learner example:
To admire some of the sea mammals, like the dol[ph]ins and the whales, the best possible spot would be a small, isolated Aegean isle.

man /mæn/

NOUN

PEOPLE

[B2] [u] used to refer to both men and women

Dictionary example:
Man is still more intelligent than the cleverest robot.

Learner example:
Man must create the conditions so that [animals] can live, eat and procreate without strain.

manage /ˈmæn.ɪdʒ/

Word family:

Nouns: management, manager

Verbs: manage

VERB

SUCCEED

[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to do something or deal with something successfully

Dictionary examples:
Did you manage to get any bread?
Anyway, we managed to get there on time.
I only just managed to finish on time.
Will you be able to manage without me?
I can't manage all this work on my own.
Don't worry about us - we'll manage!

Learner example:
I even phoned the bus company but I didn't manage to get the CDs back.

CONTROL

[B1] [t] to be in control of an office, shop, team, etc.
Dictionary examples:
She used to manage the bookshop on King Street.
Has Tom had any experience of managing large projects?
He has managed the football team for the last five years.

Learner example:
It is [a] basketball club managed by the Director of my College.

USE TIME/MONEY
[C1] [T] to use or organize your time or money

Dictionary example:
He's no good at managing his money.

Learner example:
London is the third most expensive city in the world after Tok[yo] and N.Y, so you will have to manage your money quite carefully.

management /ˈmæn.ɪdʒ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: management, manager
Verbs: manage

NOUN [U]
[B2] the control and organization of something

Dictionary examples:
The company has suffered from several years of bad management.
a management training scheme

Learner example:
I also know the basic rules of good management.

mankind /mænˈkaɪnd/

NOUN [U]
[B2] all people, considered as a group

Dictionary example:
the history of mankind

Learner example:
Since the beginning of human civilization, mankind has never ceased to be mesmerized by folklore and stories of princes and princesses.
manner /ˈmæn.ər/

noun

way

[B2] [no plural] the way something happens or something is done

Dictionary examples:
She stared at me in an accusing manner.
They dealt with the problem in a very efficient manner.

Learner example:
I don’t know if you will follow my advice, but in whichever manner you spend the money, I hope you are glad.

manners

[B2] polite ways of behaving with other people

Dictionary examples:
It’s bad manners to eat with your mouth open.
It’s considered good manners in some societies to leave a little food on your plate.

Learner example:
Professional waiters are polite, tolerant and show good manners.

behaviour

[B2] [no plural] the way in which a person talks and behaves with other people

Dictionary examples:
an aggressive/friendly/rude manner
As soon as he realized that we weren’t going to buy anything, his whole manner changed.

Learner example:
I stared at him in anger, and the poor man, afraid of my rude manner, went out of the cafe.

mansion /ˈmæn.ʃən/

noun [c]

[C1] a very large expensive house

Dictionary example:
The street is lined with enormous mansions where the rich and famous live.

Learner example:
Do you want to live in a grand mansion, an expensive flat or even a castle?
manual /ˈmæn.ju.əl/

ADJECTIVE

PHYSICAL WORK

[B2] involving physical work rather than mental work

Dictionary examples:
unskilled manual labour
750 manual workers will lose their jobs as a result of company cutbacks.
Computer-controlled robots are taking over manual jobs in many industries.

Learner example:
But, on the other hand, I sometimes think that technology is the cause of the end of certain activities such as farming, or manual work.

WITH HANDS

[B2] done or operated with the hands

Dictionary examples:
the manual sorting of letters
She tried to cure the pain in my knee by putting manual pressure on the joint.

Learner example:
It has both manual and automatic functions so it has a lot of possibilities.

NOUN [c]

[B2] a book that tells you how to use something or do something

Dictionary example:
You can download the manual for the computer if you need to.

Learner example:
Now I need to read some manuals at work.

manufacture /ˌmæn.juˈfæk.tʃər/

Word family:

Nouns: manufacturer, manufacturing

Verbs: manufacture

VERB [T]

[B2] to produce goods in large numbers, usually in a factory using machines

Dictionary examples:
He works for a company that manufactures car parts.
The report notes a rapid decline in manufactured goods.
Learner example:
In the past I have worked in a company which manufactures computer games.

manufacturer /ˌmæn.jʊˈfæk.tʃər/

Word family:
Nouns: manufacturer, manufacturing
Verbs: manufacture

NOUN [c]
[B2] a company that produces goods in large numbers

Dictionary example:
a shoe manufacturer

Learner example:
[A]ir pollution could be reduced if car manufacturers and companies made effective filters [for] car exhausts and factory chimneys.

manufacturing /ˌmæn.jʊˈfæk.tʃə.rɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: manufacturer, manufacturing
Verbs: manufacture

NOUN [u]
[B2] the business of producing goods in large numbers

Dictionary examples:
car/food manufacturing the manufacturing of military equipment the manufacturing industry

Learner example:
I am a translat[0]r for a manufacturing company.

many /ˈmen.i/

DETERMINER; PRONOUN

as many as
[C1] used before a number or amount to show that the number or amount is large

Dictionary example:
As many as 6,000 people may have been infected with the disease.
Learner example:
As many as 90% of them went to [the] cinema on a regular basis in 1990, with the peak of [a] 95% attendance rate taking place in 1996.

marathon /ˈmær.əθn/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a running race of slightly over 26 miles (42.195 kilometres)

Dictionary examples:
the London/New York marathon
She did/ran her first marathon in just under three hours.

Learner example:
How many hours of training per week are necessary if I want to run the marathon next year?

march /maːtʃ/

NOUN [C]
[C1] an organized walk by a group to show that they disagree with something

Dictionary example:
She’s going on a march on Saturday in protest over the closure of the hospital.

Learner example:
There were protest marches and doctors, nurses, and the population forced the government to find a solution to the problem.

VERB [I]

SHOW DISAGREEMENT
[C1] to walk through a public place as a group to show that you disagree with something

Dictionary example:
Around twenty thousand people marched through the city today to protest against the proposed new law.

Learner example:
This was a time of rupture, a scream for freedom, for love, and for peace. Young boys and girls marched against war and at the same time killed themselves with drugs.

SOLDIERS’ WALK
[C1] When soldiers march, they walk together with regular steps.

Dictionary example:
The soldiers marched 90 miles in three days.
Learner example:
Even when the Romans marched against Greece, the Greek people couldn't unite against their new and powerful enemy and that's why they were conquered.

march off/up/down, etc.
[C2] to walk somewhere fast, often because you are angry

Dictionary example:
She marched into my office demanding to know why I hadn't written my report.

Learner example:
She marched into the shop, got rid of the old lady and pestered the poor man until he agreed to give her the painting for £2982.

---

margin  /ˈmaː.dʒɪn/

Word family:
- Nouns: margin
- Adjectives: marginal

NOUN [c]

DIFFERENCE
[C2] the difference between two amounts of time, money, etc., usually between people in a competition

Dictionary examples:
The Senate approved the use of military force by a margin of 52 votes to 47.
They won by a narrow/wide margin.

Learner example:
We chose the second one, and, incredible as it may seem, we managed to win by a rather comfortable margin.

OUTER PART
[C2] an empty space down the side of a page of writing

Dictionary example:
If I have any comments to make, I'll write them in the margin.

Learner example:
How could I describe the way she gently unfolded me, her care when drawing a margin on my left page, and how sorry she felt when her pen would ever scratch me?

margin of error
[C2] the amount by which a calculation can be wrong but still produce a good result

Dictionary example:
a margin of error of 5 percent
Learner example:
It might be true that what is considered to be healthy or unhealthy changes over time, however, [as] science progresses the margin of error becomes smaller, and experts are then able to have a more accurate and precise say on all matters, including health.

PROFIT
[C2] the amount of profit that is made by a business after costs have been taken off

Dictionary example:
Higher fuel prices have reduced our margins.

Learner example:
The first toys, he sold with a small profit margin.

marginal /ˈmɑː.dʒɪn.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: margin
Adjectives: marginal

ADJECTIVE
[C2] small and not important

Dictionary example:
a marginal effect/improvement

Learner example:
[Over-grazing had] the biggest impact in America, while deforestation caused only [a] marginal effect.

mark /mɑː.k/

NOUN [c]

DIFFERENT AREA
[B2] a small area on the surface of something which is damaged, dirty or different in some way

Dictionary examples:
There were dirty marks on her trousers where she had wiped her hands.
His fingers had left marks on the table's polished surface.
She had a red mark on her arm where she'd burnt herself.

Learner example:
But one day, [when] I was about ten years old, my father had hurt me on the face and I had a blue mark on [my] cheek.
SYMBOL

[C1] a symbol which is used for giving information

Dictionary examples:
I've put a mark on the map where I think we should go for a picnic.
What do those marks in the middle of the road mean?

Learner example:
As you walk through the valley, always following the red marks on the path, you will run into many interesting views: from climbers climbing the walls of the valley to waterfalls coming from the top of it.

a mark of sth

[C2] a sign or proof that something exists

Dictionary examples:
a mark of genius
There was a minute's silence everywhere as a mark of respect.

Learner example:
To succeed in a task that one has envisioned is a mark of success.

leave/make your mark

[C2] to do something that makes you successful or makes people notice you

Dictionary example:
He really made his mark on the company.

Learner example:
It teaches [you] that you don't have to be an Arnold Schwarzenegger to fight for your friends and really make your mark.

VERB

PIECE OF WORK

[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to check a piece of work or an exam, showing mistakes and giving a letter or number to say how good it is

Dictionary examples:
I was up half the night marking exam papers.
You'll be marked down for poor spelling and punctuation.

Learner example:
Computers even sell tickets on stations, mark exam papers and help us to talk with people all over the world via [the] internet.

SHOW PLACE

[B2] [ɪ] to show where something is by drawing or putting something somewhere

Dictionary examples:
I've marked my street on the map for you.
X marks the spot where the treasure is buried.
Learner example:
On the map we have marked a black dot on the place where you will find the hotel.

DAMAGE / MAKE DIRTY

[C1] [ɪ] to leave an area of dirt or damage on something

Dictionary example:
Make sure you don't mark the paintwork while you're moving the furniture around.

REPRESENT

[C2] [ɪ] to represent or show a characteristic of a person or thing or feeling

Dictionary examples:
The band's songs have always been marked by controversial lyrics.
The signing of the treaty marked a major milestone on the road to European union.

Learner example:
These books, most of which are very scientific, marked the beginning of a new era of enlightenment and technology.

---

market /ˈmɑːkɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: market, marketing

NOUN [c]

BUYING GROUP

[C1] all the people who want to buy a particular product, or the area where they live

Dictionary examples:
Is there a market for second-hand jewellery?
Spain is our largest market.
They've increased their share of the market by 10% over the past year.

Learner example:
We had been researching the market for a year.

the labour market

[C1] the number of people who are available and willing to work

Dictionary example:
More women have entered the labour market in recent years.

Learner example:
WELCOME TO THE JUNGLE best suits [the] situation of a young Pole entering the labour market.

BUSINESS

[C2] the buying and selling of something
Dictionary example:
the insurance/personal computer market

Learner example:
Usually the enumeration of problems includes facts such as the difficulties that are caused in countries which run state-administered pension schemes, distortions in the age structure of developed countries, problems [with] the housing market, and so on.

a gap in the market
[C2] an opportunity for a product or service that does not already exist

Dictionary example:
There's a gap in the market for a good fish shop.

Learner example:
I had nearly finished my study and had an idea to start a small software company, filling a gap in the market that was overlooked by the larger I.T. companies.

marketing /ˈmɑː.kɪ.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: market, marketing

NOUN [U]
[B2] work that involves encouraging people to buy a product or service

Dictionary example:
a career in marketing/sales and marketing

Learner example:
I am studying marketing now so I will be available at the end of April.

marriage /ˈmær.i.dʒ/
Learner example:
After the marriage they go to a restaurant and eat something.

marry /ˈmær.i/

Word family:
Nouns: marriage
Verbs: marry
Adjectives: married, unmarried

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to begin a legal relationship with someone as their husband or wife

Dictionary examples:
Will you marry me?
They don't have any plans to marry at present.
He never married.

Learner example:
Before we left the airport, John whispered in my ear "I'm going to marry her".

martial art /ˌmɑːʃəlˈɑːt/

NOUN [C]
[B2] one of the traditional Japanese or Chinese skills of fighting, done as sports in many countries, for example karate or kung fu

Dictionary example:
Kuk Sool Won is a martial art from Korea.

Learner example:
I often practise martial arts on one of its grass[y] areas.

marvellous /ˈmɑː.vəl.əs/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] extremely good

Dictionary examples:
I thought it was a marvellous film.
It took me ages to get it right, but it was a marvellous feeling when I did.
It's marvellous how everyone's tried to help.
We've achieved some marvellous results with this new drug.

1787
Learner example:
The weather is marvellous, it’s sunny and hot.

masculine /ˈmæs.kə.lɪn/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] having qualities that are typical of men

Dictionary example:
a masculine appearance/voice

Learner example:
Life, nowadays is so hard for women: they have to cope with so many things every day, from their children to their job, not to mention housework, and the result [of] that is that women are more and more stressed, “masculine” I dare to say, and less and less “feminine”.

mask /mɑːsk/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a covering for the face which protects, hides or decorates the person wearing it

Dictionary examples:
a gas mask
a surgical mask
The bank robbers wore masks throughout the raid.

Learner example:
Suddenly five men with masks jump[ed] from nowhere into the bank and started to threat[en] us with their guns.

mass /mæs/

Word family:
Nouns: mass
Adjectives: massive, mass

NOUN
a mass of sth
[B2] a large number or amount of something
Dictionary examples:
He always has a mass of books and papers on his desk.
The forest is a mass of colour in autumn.
She had a mass of blond curls.

Learner example:
But people are bewildered because of [a] mass of information.

masses

[B2] informal a lot

Dictionary example:
I've got masses of work to do.

Learner example:
Modern society [is] replacing the eliminated problems by masses of new ones.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C1] having an effect on or involving a large number of people

Dictionary examples:
They hope the new movie will appeal to a mass audience.
weapons of mass destruction Opposition groups plan to stage mass demonstrations all over the country.

Learner example:
Television was a major step forward in the media world which combined the best of all the major mechanisms of mass communication.

massacre /ˈmæs.ə.kər/

NOUN [C]

[C2] the killing of a lot of people

Dictionary example:
He ordered the massacre of over 2,000 women and children.

Learner example:
It was mostly used for military purposes, thus provoking huge disasters and massacres.

massive /ˈmæs.ɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: mass
Adjectives: massive, mass

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very large in size, amount or number
Dictionary examples:
They've got a massive house.
She died after taking a massive overdose of drugs.
If the drought continues, deaths will occur on a massive scale.

Learner example:
Sea pollution can be reduced if [people] take more care [with] oil tankers, to reduce massive oil spills.

master /ˈmɑː.stər/

NOUN [C]

IN CHARGE
[B2] a man who is in charge of a servant or a dog

Dictionary example:
With careful training, a dog will obey its master completely.

Learner example:
We must [remember] that we are masters of the car not the servants of the car.

Master's (degree)
[C1] a higher university qualification

Dictionary example: to study for a Master's degree

Learner example:
I have recently done [a] Master's Degree in International Business and of course used my laptop.

SKILLED PERSON
[C2] someone who does something very well

Dictionary example:
He was a master of disguise.

Learner example:
Haydede had always been a master of the art of disguise and had a black belt in Tae Kwon Do; so the mission seemed quite easy.

masterpiece /ˈmɑː.stə.piːs/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a painting, book, or film that is generally considered to be of excellent quality
Dictionary example:
'Mona Lisa' is widely regarded as Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece.

Learner example:
My choice was Chinua Achebe's masterpiece "Things fall apart".

---

mat /mæt/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a piece of thick material that you put on the floor, often in order to protect it

Dictionary example:
There's a mat by the door for you to wipe your feet on.

Learner example:
Last but not least, many Japanese style hotels and restaurants now have square holes in tatami (straw mat) rooms so that foreign visitors can comfortably stretch their legs under the low table without having to be seated on folded legs like Zen monks!

---

match /mætʃ/

NOUN

STICK

[B2] [c] a thin, wooden stick which produces a flame when you rub one end of it against a rough surface

Dictionary example: a box of matches

Learner example:
Finally I took all my courage and lit a match.

SUITABLE

[C2] [No plural] something which is similar to or combines well with something else

Dictionary example:
The curtains look great – they're a perfect match for the sofa.

Learner example:
Marine science would be a perfect match for people keen on natural sciences.

be no match for sb/sth

[C2] to not be as good as someone or something else

Dictionary example:
Gibson ran well but was no match for the young Italian.
Learner example:
This exhibition was specially striking because almost all the prints were from the very first series [of] vintage prints, in addition [to] being rare [and] also highly valued by collectors, even though their prices are no match for the Picasso.

strike a match
[C2] to light a match in order to produce fire

Dictionary example:
I struck a match and lit the candle.

Learner example:
Their instant reaction was to park the car, put their raincoats on, get out and strike a few useless matches: they were their last light resource apart from the lightning in the sky and the weak headlamps.

VERB BE THE SAME
[B1] [ɪr] If two things match, they are the same colour or type.

Dictionary examples:
I can't find anything to match my green shirt.
Your socks don't match.

Learner example:
They match a T-shirt that I bought last week.

CHOOSE
[B1] [ɪ] to choose someone or something that is suitable for a particular person, activity or purpose

Dictionary example:
In the first exercise you have to match each capital city to its country.

BE AS GOOD AS
[C1] [ɪ] to be as good as someone or something else

Dictionary example:
It would be difficult to match the service this airline gives to its customers.

Learner example:
In all these ways that your establishment failed to match the claims made for it in your publicity, we feel entitled to a full refund and I therefore urge you to improve the facilities of your museum or withdraw the advertisement to avoid further complaints.
mate  /meɪt/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a friend

Dictionary examples:
We've been mates since our school days.
Pete was there with a couple of mates.
She's my best mate.

Learner example:
This man was going to his mate's funeral.

---

material  /məˈtrɪə.ri.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: material, materialism, materialist
Adjectives: materialist, materialistic

NOUN

CLOTH

[B1] [c or u] cloth for making clothes, curtains, etc.

Dictionary example:
Her dress was made of a soft, silky material.

Learner example:
I like buying designer clothes because they're made of good material.

DOCUMENTS

[B1] [c or u] documents, recorded information, etc. that are used for a particular activity

Dictionary examples:
publicity material
She writes all her own teaching materials.

Learner example:
During the lesson we use a lot of useful and helpful material: tapes, video, and lots of different books.

PHYSICAL SUBSTANCE

[B2] [c or u] a physical substance that has a particular quality or is used for a particular purpose
Dictionary examples:
building materials, such as stone
Crude oil is used as the raw material for making plastics.

Learner example:
In addition, some waste materials are carried to the incinerator where they are burnt completely at very high temperatures.

INFORMATION
[C1] [u] the facts or ideas in a piece of writing

Dictionary example:
I'm collecting material for an article that I'm writing.

Learner example:
They are mainly interested in gathering material and data.

materialism /məˈtrɪ.ə.lɪ.zm/
Word family:
Nouns: material, materialism, materialist
Adjectives: materialist, materialistic

NOUN [u]
[C2] the belief that having money and possessions is the most important thing in life

Dictionary example:
She was saddened by the materialism of our society.

Learner example:
This phenomenon, called materialism, characterizes our society.

materialist /məˈtrɪ.ə.lɪst/
Word family:
Nouns: material, materialism, materialist
Adjectives: materialist, materialistic

NOUN [c]
[C2] a person who thinks that having money and possessions is the most important thing in life

Dictionary example:
We are bringing up our children to be materialists.
Learner example:
Firstly, I would say that I am not a materialist but some things have a great value in my eyes and pictures are one of those things.

ADJECTIVE
[C2] believing that having money and possessions is the most important thing in life

Dictionary example:
We live in a materialist society.

Learner example:
To be able to understand their labour we must separate ourselves from the materialist world we are living in.

materialistic /ˌmæ.trə.ri.əˈlɪst.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: material, materialism, materialist
Adjectives: materialist, materialistic

ADJECTIVE
[C2] believing that having money and possessions is the most important thing in life

Dictionary example:
a materialistic society

Learner example:
When parents put instead of their presence, presents, aren’t we replacing love with materialism, where the children in turn become materialistic rather than loving?

mathematical /ˌmæθ.əˈmæt.ɪkəl/

Word family:
Nouns: maths
Adjectives: mathematical

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to mathematics

Dictionary example:
a mathematical formula

Learner example:
Furthermore, he studied the human body and invented mathematical formulas to describe his findings.
matter /ˈmæt.ər/

NOUN

SITUATION
[B2] [c] a subject or situation that you need to think about, discuss, or deal with

Dictionary examples:
Could I talk to you about a personal matter?
Alois denied any knowledge of the matter.
Will you phone me back – it’s a matter of some importance.
Talking about the world’s problems is one thing, but solving them is another matter altogether.

Learner example:
On another matter, I’d like to tell your parents that they don’t need to get me any present, but if they insist I’d like you to pick me a novel.

to make matters worse
[B2] to make a situation more difficult, unpleasant, etc.

Dictionary example:
To make matters worse, our car broke down!

Learner example:
To make matters worse, the newspaper said they only played for thirty-five minutes.

as a matter of fact [B2] used to emphasize that something is true, especially when it is surprising

Dictionary example:
As a matter of fact, I used to live next door to him.

Learner example:
As a matter of fact I didn’t enjoy Nice much.

no matter how/what/when, etc.
[B2] used to emphasize that something cannot be changed

Dictionary example:
I never manage to lose any weight, no matter how hard I try.

Learner example:
No matter where you are [or] what you do, apparently you need electricity.

a matter of course
[C1] If something happens as a matter of course, it always happens as part of the normal process or system.

Dictionary example:
Babies were tested for the disease as a matter of course.
Learner example:
The transform[ation] has succeeded so far and caused enormous changes in ordinary life as a matter of course, including eating habits.

it's only a matter of time
[C1] If you say that it is only a matter of time before something happens, you are sure it will happen but you do not know when.

Dictionary example:
It's only a matter of time before someone gets killed on this road.

Learner example:
In my opinion it is only a matter of time before it is decided to [put] an end to this country being a kingdom.

be no laughing matter
[C2] If a subject is no laughing matter, it is serious and not something that people should joke about.

Dictionary example:
This weather is no laughing matter.

Learner example:
Anna and Tom knew this was no laughing matter.

a matter of confidence/luck/waiting, etc.
[C2] If something is a matter of confidence/luck/waiting, etc., that is what you need for it to happen.

Dictionary example:
Learning languages is just a matter of hard work.

Learner example:
His success wasn't a matter of luck, it was a matter of knowing [his] aims in life and being very persist[e]nt, too.

TYPE OF THING
[C2] [u] a particular type of substance or thing

Dictionary examples: vegetable matter printed matter

Learner example:
As compared to audio–visual aids, books have the advantage of causing less strain to the eyes and mind as printed matter is easier to read than reading from a screen.

a matter of life and/or death
[C2] a serious situation where people could die

Dictionary example:
Getting water to these people is a matter of life and death.
Learner example:
I told him it was a matter of life and death.

a matter of days/weeks/feet etc.

[C2] used in expressions describing how small an amount or period of time is

Dictionary example:
The aircraft missed each other by a matter of feet.

Learner example:
I decided to relax – knowing a little bit about boats myself I was sure there was a radio [on board] so it would be only a matter of hours before someone would come to rescue us, wouldn’t it?

---

mature /ˈməˈtʃʊər/

Word family:
Adjectives: mature, immature

ADJECTIVE

[B2] Mature people behave like adults in a way that shows they are well developed emotionally.

Dictionary example:
She seems very mature for thirteen.

Learner example:
Every time I thought of it before entering college, I expected to find intelligent, kind, [and] mature people, [though] of course, some rude, mean and stupid people as well.

---

maximize /ˈmæk.ɪˌmʌɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: maximum
Verbs: maximize
Adjectives: maximum

VERB [T] (ALSO UK maximise)

[C2] to increase something as much as you can

Dictionary example:
to maximize profits

Learner example:
I can assure you that I would make every possible effort to maximize the outcome of this project.
maximum /ˈmæk.si.məm/

Word family:
Nouns: maximum
Verbs: maximize
Adjectives: maximum

ADJECTIVE
[B1] The maximum amount of something is the largest amount that is allowed or possible.

Dictionary examples:
- maximum speed/effort/temperature
  The bomb was designed to cause the maximum amount of damage.

Learner example:
[F]rom now on, my house will have maximum security (tanks, soldiers, bombs) so no one can kidnap my family again.

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B1] the largest amount allowed or possible

Dictionary examples:
- The temperature will reach a maximum of 27°C today.
- The school has a maximum of 30 students per class.

Learner example:
You said in your letter that you [want] to do 80 kilometres on Saturday but that is far too much. 50 kilometres is the maximum, it is enough!

may /meɪ/

MODAL VERB

POSSIBLY TRUE
[B1] used to talk about what is possibly true

Dictionary examples:
- There may be other problems that we don't know about.
- I think I may be getting a cold.

Learner example:
I know it may be difficult, because [it] is not that easy to find [a] house, but please can you do your best and find something for us very soon.

PERMISSION
[B1] formal used to ask or give permission
Dictionary examples:
May I be excused, please?
"May I help myself to some more food?" "Yes, of course."
You may begin.
Hi, my name's Tiffany. How may I help you?

Learner example:
May I suggest that you book me in for the new accommodation.

may have [B2] used to talk about things that possibly happened in the past or might possibly have happened by a certain time in the future

Dictionary examples:
The explosion may have been caused by a faulty electrical connection.
That may not have been Mike's brother you met - I think his cousin is staying with him at the moment.
Helen may have already left by the time you arrive.

Learner example:
Besides, your report is full of mistakes, so it seem[s] to me that you may not have been well informed.

may as well
[B2] used to suggest doing something, often when there is nothing better to do

Dictionary examples:
We may as well start the meeting - the others will be here soon.
If the shops are closed, we may as well go home.

may as well do sth
[C1] If you may as well do something, it will not spoil the situation if you do that thing.

Dictionary example:
If we're not waiting for Karen, we might as well go now.

Learner example:
She turned round quickly, and then paused, seemingly unable to find her words. A few minutes later, she began hesitantly: "After all, you may as well know.

mayor /ˈmeər/

NOUN [c]
[B2] the person who is elected to be the leader of the group that governs a town or city
Dictionary example:
the mayor of Coventry

Learner example:
As I am sure you know, my name is Jane Brown, and I am the mayor's secretary.

me /miː/

PRONOUN

take it from me
[C1] accept that what I say is true, because I know or have experienced it

Dictionary example:
You could be doing a much less interesting job, take it from me.

Learner example:
As you pro[b]ably already know, Greeks love sport so, take it from me, you won't have difficulty in finding sports facilities of any kind, wherever you decide to go.

mean /miːn/

Word family:
Nouns: meaning
Verbs: mean
Adjectives: meaningful

VERB [T] (meant, meant)

EXPRESS
[B1] to intend to express a fact or opinion

Dictionary examples:
I didn't mean that as a criticism.
That's what I meant when I said he's been acting oddly.
What exactly do you mean by 'old-fashioned'?

Learner example:
Now I know what you mean when you say this island is wonderful.

HAVE IMPORTANCE
[B1] to have an important emotional effect on someone

Dictionary examples:
It wasn't a valuable picture but it meant a lot to me.
Possessions mean nothing to him.
Learner example:
It's my grandfather's birthday and he means a lot to me.

INTEND

[B1] to intend

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry if I offended you – I didn't mean any harm.
Sorry, I didn't mean to interrupt!

Learner example:
But I didn't mean to scare you.

have been meaning to do sth

[B1] to have been wanting and planning to do something

Dictionary example:
I've been meaning to call you for weeks.

Learner example:
Dear Claude, I have been meaning to write for ages!

HAVE RESULT

[B1] to have or need a particular result

Dictionary examples:
Lower costs mean lower prices.
These changes will mean better health care for everyone.
Advances in electronics mean that the technology is already available.
If we want to catch the 7.30 train, that will mean leaving the house at 6.00.

Learner example:
This doesn't mean that you won't be able to enjoy the countryside, in fact most of these cities are surrounded by nature, so you'll have wonderful views.

be meant for sb/sth

[C1] to be made or created for someone or something

Dictionary example:
These toys are really meant for babies.

Learner example:
Cities are meant for human activities and not for heavy traffic.

be meant to do sth

[C2] If you are meant to do something, that is what you should do in order to behave correctly.

Dictionary examples:
You're meant to shake the bottle first.
He's not meant to drive any more.
Learner example:
She knew he was meant to be home playing his guitar.

be meant to do sth

[C2] If something is meant to do something, that is its purpose.

Dictionary example:
The belt is meant to hold you in.

Learner example:
Although labels are meant to help the customer identify what the particular product contains, more often than not too many Latin expressions can be found on the label.

mean well

[C2] to intend to behave in a kind way

Dictionary example:
I know my parents mean well, but I wish they wouldn't interfere.

Learner example:
Although these fans might mean well, in many cases they do not appear to realise that their 'heroes' perhaps would like to be left alone.

ADJECTIVE

NOT GENEROUS

[B2] A mean person does not like spending money, especially on other people.

Dictionary examples:
He's too mean to buy her a ring.
My landlord's very mean with the heating – it's only on for two hours each day.

Learner example:
She was so mean that she got divorced because she didn't want to share her money with anybody else, although she loved her husband very much.

NOT KIND

[B2] unkind or unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
Stop being so mean to me!
She just said it to be mean.

Learner example:
On the other hand people, when driving a car, can be very mean and wicked, and they sure don't have a bit of respect for the next man.

AVERAGE

[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] In maths, a mean number is an average number.

Dictionary example:
Their mean age at death was 84.6.
Learner example:
Better living conditions and significant advances in medicine have greatly contributed to an increase in the mean age of death and a decrease in deaths at birth.

be no mean feat
[C2] used when you want to emphasize that an act or achievement is very difficult

Dictionary example:
Learning to ski at 60 is no mean feat!

Learner example:
There was an interesting discussion about whether it was harder or easier for them to enter the world of cinema, given their famous names. Both said that it was no mean feat because people were more demanding as [to] their abilities.

meaning /ˈmiː.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: meaning
Verbs: mean
Adjectives: meaningful

NOUN

EXPRESS
[B1] [c or u] The meaning of words, signs, or actions is what they express or represent.

Dictionary examples:
The word ‘squash’ has several meanings.
The meaning of his gesture was clear.
His novels often have a hidden meaning.

Learner example:
If I didn't understand the meaning of a word, she told me and gave me a dictionary to look up the words.

PURPOSE
[B2] [u no plural] purpose or emotional importance

Dictionary examples:
She felt that her life had no meaning.
The birth of her first grandchild gave new meaning to her life.
the meaning of life

Learner example:
We can give meaning [to] our lives, with everyday little things.
meaningful /ˈmiː.nɪŋ.fʊl/

Word family:
- Nouns: meaning
- Verbs: mean
- Adjectives: meaningful

ADJECTIVE

USEFUL

[B2] useful, serious, or important

Dictionary example:
a meaningful discussion

Learner example:
First of all, I think this camp could be very meaningful for children, to be close to nature and to understand Japan.

WITH MEANING

[B2] having a clear meaning which people can understand

Dictionary example:
The information needs to be presented in a meaningful way.

Learner example:
The music is really amazing and the lyrics are so meaningful.

---

means /miːnz/

NOUN [PLURAL]

METHOD

[B2] a method or way of doing something

Dictionary examples:
They had no means of communication.
We need to find some other means of transport.
The family had no means of support.

Learner example:
Main transport services 1. The buses This is the cheapest means of transport but I would not recommend it.

by no means; not by any means

[C1] used as a way of emphasizing something negative or difficult
Dictionary examples:
I'm not an expert by any means.
This is by no means the end of the matter.

Learner example:
For one thing, the fight against air pollution is by no means an easy mission.

by means of [C1] using

Dictionary example:
She tried to explain by means of sign language.

Learner example:
Another plus of the Voiceover CD is [the] availability of teachers, who can be easily reached by means of a telephone, but this kind of service is expensive.

by all means
[C2] something that you say when you are agreeing to let someone do something

Dictionary example:
I have a copy of the report on my desk. By all means have a look at it.

Learner example:
The kitchen utensils stay next to the sink. You can make use of them by all means.

a means to an end
[C2] something that you do because it will help you to achieve something else

Dictionary example:
I didn't particularly like the job – it was just a means to an end.

Learner example:
Major international sports competitions can either be understood as a means to an end or an end in their own right.

MONEY
[C2] money

Dictionary example:
We don't have the means to buy the house.

Learner example:
She lived alone in a flat with a rent that she couldn't have afforded if she had not had private means.
meantime ˈmiːntaɪm/

NOUN

In the meantime
[B2] in the time between two things happening, or while something else is happening

Dictionary example:
Your computer won't be arriving till Thursday. In the meantime, you can use Jude's.

Learner example:
In the meantime, I decided to buy a new bicycle.

meanwhile ˈmiːn.waɪl/

ADVERB

[B1] in the time between two things happening, or while something else is happening

Dictionary examples:
Carl's starting college in September. Meanwhile, he's travelling around Europe.
The mother is ill. The child, meanwhile, is living with his grandparents.

Learner example:
Meanwhile, if you agree, I can do some English exercises to cover the class that I'm going to miss.

measure ˈmeʒər/

Word family:
Nouns: measurement
Verbs: measure

VERB

Find size
[B2] [ɪ] to discover the exact size or amount of something, or to be of a particular size

Dictionary examples:
"Will the table fit in here?" "I don't know – let's measure it."
He measured the flour into the bowl.
This machine measures your heart rate.
The area, measuring 5 miles by 3 miles, has been purchased by the army.
Learner example:
I measured how long they played [for], because I was one of the group's fans.

BE SIZE
[C1] to be a certain size

Dictionary example:
a whale measuring around 60 feet in length.

Learner example:
Both [are] of navy-blue colour measuring about 32 cm high and 14 cm wide and both have a white ribbon attached to the handle.

JUDGE
[C2] [ɪ] to judge the quality, effect, importance, or value of something

Dictionary examples:
We will soon be able to measure the results of these policy changes.
They measured the performance of three different engines.

Learner example:
The parameters for measuring success would be vastly different depending on which walk of life is being described, so in the following, the definition of success has been narrowed down to a specific domain: the international computer industry.

NOUN

METHOD
[B2] [k] a way of achieving something or dealing with a situation

Dictionary examples:
These measures were designed to improve car safety.
We must take preventative measures to stop the spread of the disease.
This arrangement is only a temporary measure.
security measures

Learner example:
There are a lot of measures that we have taken in [the] last three years.

a measure of sth
[C2] a way of judging something

Dictionary example:
Ticket sales are not necessarily a measure of the show's popularity.

Learner example:
So, these two experiences from my childhood taught me a lot of real truth about life and since that time they have been serving me as a measure of my affection or attachment, sorrow or disappointment.

AMOUNT
[C2] [k or u] FORMAL amount
Dictionary examples:
Bulletproof vests give some measure of protection.
His success was in some measure due to his being in the right place at the right time.

measurement /ˈmeʒ.ə.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: measurement

Verbs: measure

NOUN

SIZE

[B2] [C OFTEN PLURAL] the exact size, shape, degree or strength of something which you discover by measuring it

Dictionary examples:
The measurements of both rooms were identical.
They've taken measurements of air quality around the bus station.

Learner example:
We sat day and night to document the results of our measurements of polluted ground all over Sweden.

PROCESS

[C2] [U] the process of measuring something, or a way of measuring something

Dictionary examples:
SI units are the standard units of measurement used all over the world.
The test is based on the measurement of blood levels.

Learner example:
The measurement of a child by academic achievement at school is in my opinion very important as the future of a society or even more of a country depends on the high [shared] knowledge of the people.

mechanical /məˈkæn.ɪk/
Dictionary examples:
a mechanical device
a mechanical engineer
The plane appears to have crashed because of a mechanical problem.

Learner example:
First of all, the car had a mechanical defect and I needed to stay almost five hours in an old and dirty garage, waiting [for] the car to be fixed.

BEHAVIOUR

[C2] If you do something in a mechanical way, you do it without emotion or without thinking about it.

Dictionary example:
a mechanical performance

Learner example:
We end up doing our things in such a mechanical way that the actual spirit of doing dies in us.

---

mechanism /ˈmek.ə.nɪz.əm/

Word family:

- Nouns: mechanic, mechanism
- Adjectives: mechanical

NOUN [c]

PART OF EQUIPMENT

[C1] a part of a piece of equipment that does a particular job

Dictionary example:
The clock's winding mechanism had broken.

Learner example:
Most chairs' adjusting mechanism failed to work properly and they are not comfortable to sit on.

SYSTEM

[C1] a system for achieving something, or the way that a system works

Dictionary example:
We need a mechanism for resolving this sort of dispute.

Learner example:
The definition of market here not only means a traditional marketplace for goods exchange and barter, but it extends further to a supply–sell mechanism which domina[te]s the normal liv[es] of all [in]habitants.
medal /ˈmed.əl/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a metal disc given as a prize in a competition or given to someone who has been very brave

Dictionary examples:
- an Olympic medal
- She won three gold medals.
- He was awarded a medal for bravery.

Learner example:
[T]hey can also take part in sport[s] competitions and win a medal.

media /ˈmiː.di.ə/

NOUN [+ SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]

the media

[B2] newspapers, magazines, radio and television considered as a group

Dictionary examples:
- the local/national media
- media attention/coverage/hype/reports
- The issue has been much discussed in the media.

Learner example:
All things considere[d], I don't want the media to reveal their private life.

medical /ˈmed.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
- Nouns: medicine, medication
- Adjectives: medical
- Adverbs: medically

ADJECTIVE

[B2] relating to medicine and different ways of curing illness

Dictionary examples:
- medical advice
- medical treatment
- a medical student
- a medical team
- She has a medical condition that makes it hard for her to work.
Learner example:
With the help of medical technology doctors can cure more and more patients [and] do many kinds of operations.

medically /ˈmed.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
- Nouns: medicine, medication
- Adjectives: medical
- Adverbs: medically

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that is connected to medicine or to someone's health

Dictionary example:
The doctor declared her medically fit.

Learner example:
This does seem wise, as there is no 'medically proven' diet or nutrition program[me] that might help everyone to achieve [a] state of health that they would be completely happy about.

medication /ˌmed.iˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: medicine, medication
- Adjectives: medical
- Adverbs: medically

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] medicine that is used to treat an illness

Dictionary example:
He's on medication to control his depression.

Learner example:
He had to put up with unbelievably painful treatments and was forced to take medication which prevented him from continuing his research.

medicine /ˈmed.i.sn/

Word family:
- Nouns: medicine, medication
- Adjectives: medical
- Adverbs: medically
NOUN

TREATMENT

[B1] [u] treatment for illness or injury, or the study of this

Dictionary examples:
Western/Chinese medicine
a career in medicine
She is a doctor, but is unable to practise medicine in her own country.

Learner example:
She is twenty three years old and she’s studying medicine, here in Colombia.

medieval (also mediaeval) /ˌmedˈiː.vəl/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] relating to the period in Europe between about AD 500 and AD 1500

Dictionary examples:
a medieval building/painting/town a medieval manuscript

Learner example:
On our way around the lake we would have [the opportunity] of visiting a huge medieval castle which is said to be haunted.

mediocre /ˌmiː.diˈəʊ.kər/

Word family:
Nouns: mediocrity
Adjectives: mediocre

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not good in quality

Dictionary example:
The acting was mediocre.

Learner example:
In Hungary, the sports facilities provided are quite mediocre.
mediocrity /ˌmiː.diˈɒk.rə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: mediocrity
Adjectives: mediocre

NOUN [u]
[C2] the state of being mediocre

Dictionary example:
I was shocked by the mediocrity of these students.

Learner example:
She is a model of mediocrity and shallowness, and in this sense, she epitomise[s] what authorities expect people to be: just ghosts.

medium /ˈmiː.di.əm/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] in the middle of a group of different amounts or sizes

Dictionary examples:
a girl of medium height
She bought a medium-sized car.
All shirts come in small, medium, and large.

Learner example:
What size are you? Are you small or medium?

NOUN
[C2] a way of communicating or expressing something

Dictionary examples:
the medium of television/radio
the print medium
The Internet has become yet another medium for marketing.

Learner example:
As with any other medium of communication or entertainment, nothing is totally good or bad provided it is done in moderation.

meet /miːt/

Word family:
Nouns: meeting
Verbs: meet
VERB (met, met)

PLACE
[B1] [r] to wait at a place for someone or something to arrive

Dictionary example:
Will you meet me at the airport?

Learner example:
Please meet me [at] London Heathrow at 12:00 am.

GROUP
[B1] [i] If a group of people meet, they come to a place in order to do something.

Dictionary examples:
The children’s club meets every Thursday afternoon.
The shareholders meet once a year to discuss profits.

Learner example:
The members meet at the club every weekend.

ENOUGH
[C1] [r] to be a big enough amount or of a good enough quality for something

Dictionary examples:
We couldn't find a house that met our needs/requirements.
This old building will never meet the new fire regulations.

Learner example:
Finally, as regards the Internet centre only two computers were available, which did not meet the needs of a Museum like this.

make ends meet
[C1] to have just enough money to pay for the things that you need

Dictionary example:
I've taken a second job in the evenings just to make ends meet.

Learner example:
Most students support themselves and barely make ends meet every month.

ACHIEVE
[C2] [r] to be able to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
He met every goal he set for himself.
I've got a deadline to meet.
Do you think we will be able to meet our target?
Learner example:
All the while under-resourcing of the school system has progressed in a way that social education has largely fallen by the wayside and schools are struggling to meet government targets that are aimed at instilling more "important" knowledge into our children like maths and chemistry.

melody /ˈmel.ə.di/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a song or tune

Dictionary example:
He played a beautiful melody.

Learner example:
From his harp, violin, flute, trumpet and many more instruments sprang such a wonderful, enchanting melody that the whole city flourished, thrilled and cheered under its influence.

melt /melt/

VERB [I or T]

[B2] If something melts, it changes from a solid into a liquid because of heat and if you melt something, you heat it until it becomes liquid.

Dictionary examples:
The snow usually melts by mid March.
Melt the chocolate slowly so that it doesn't burn.
melted cheese

Learner example:
Walking out of the station he saw her! Tall, blond and with eyes that could melt ice.

membership /ˈmembəˌʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: member, membership

NOUN

BELONGING

[B1] [u] the state of belonging to an organization
Dictionary examples:
- membership of the EU
- I’ve applied for membership of the union.
- a membership card/fee

Learner example:
First, the president welcomed me and gave me my membership card.

PEOPLE

[C1] [c + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB OR U] the people who belong to a group or an organization

Dictionary example:
Union membership is now over three million and rising.

Learner example:
First of all, we found that our club’s membership is actually falling.

memo /ˈmem.əʊ/

NOUN [c] (PLURAL memos)

[C1] a written message sent from one member of an organization to another

Dictionary example:
Did you see the memo about expenses?

Learner example:
Dear College Principal, The student committee has received your memo about the proposed changes to the Sports Centre.

memorable /ˈmem.rə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: memory, memorial
Adjectives: memorable

ADJECTIVE

[B2] If an occasion is memorable, you will remember it for a long time because it is so good.

Dictionary examples:
a memorable performance
a memorable evening

Learner example:
It was a memorable birthday party because they bought me a bass guitar that I couldn’t buy because of its high price.
memorial /məˈmɔː.ri.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: memory, memorial
Adjectives: memorable

NOUN [c]
[C2] an object, often made of stone, that is built to help people remember an important person or event

Dictionary examples:
- a war memorial
  The statue was erected as a memorial to those who died in the war.

Learner example:
- Every year almost all [the] inhabitants of our suburb gather at the memorial and celebrate this anniversary.

memory /ˈmem.ər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: memory, memorial
Adjectives: memorable

NOUN

ABILITY TO REMEMBER
[B1] [c or u] your ability to remember

Dictionary examples:
- You have a good memory.
- She has an excellent memory for names.
- He had a photographic memory.

memory loss

Learner example:
- It's about a girl that lives in London and she lost her memory so everybody has to tell her everything about the past.

EVENT REMEMBERED
[B1] [C OFTEN PLURAL] something that you remember from the past

Dictionary examples:
- I have very fond memories of that period of my life.
- I have vivid memories of that evening.
- That tune really brings back memories.

Learner example:
- I have so many good memories.
MIND
[C2] [c or u] the part of your mind that stores what you remember

Dictionary example:
He recited the poem from memory.

in memory of sb
[C2] If you do something in memory of a dead person, you do it to show your respect or love for them.

Dictionary example:
They built a statue in memory of those who died in the fire.

Learner example:
You see, every year our family performs a certain gathering in memory of my brother who was killed in a plane crash in 1991 known as the C130 disaster.

a stroll/trip/walk down memory lane
[C2] an occasion when you remember some of the good things you did in the past

Dictionary example:
We were just taking a walk down memory lane and recalling our youth.

Learner example:
I want to return there, without the kids, even without my husband, to have a long stroll down memory lane.

mend /mend/

VERB [r]
[B] to repair something that is broken, torn, or not working correctly

Dictionary examples:
Could you mend this hole in my shirt?
I've left my watch at the jeweller's to be mended.
The plumber came to mend the burst pipe.

Learner example:
I've just returned from a short cycling holiday with two friends. You know one of them, Peter, the guy whose bicycle was broken and you mended it.

mental /ˈmen.təl/

Word family:
Nouns: mentality
Adjectives: mental
Adverbs: mentally
ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] relating to the mind, or involving the process of thinking

Dictionary examples:
mental health/illness
She had a mental picture of how the house would look when they finished decorating it.

Learner example:
His theories have changed our attitude towards mental illness (and mental health) completely.

mentality /ˈmentəl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: mentality
Adjectives: mental Adverbs: mentally

NOUN [C]
[C1] a person’s opinions or way of thinking

Dictionary example:
I can’t understand the mentality of people who hunt animals for fun.

Learner example:
This is why the changing mentality of men plays an important role.

mentally /ˈmen.təli/

Word family:
Nouns: mentality
Adjectives: mental Adverbs: mentally

ADVERB
[B2] connected with or related to the mind

Dictionary examples:
mentally ill
It’s going to be a tough competition but I’m mentally prepared for it.

Learner example:
Most people believe that team sport[s] help children to become healthier, both mentally and physically, but there are those who have objections to this statement.
mention /ˈmen.tʃən/

VERB [V]
[B1] to briefly speak or write about something or someone

Dictionary examples:
She didn't mention her daughter.
I'll mention your ideas to Jacinta.
He casually mentioned that he was leaving his job.
Did she happen to mention whether she would be coming?

Learner example:
You mentioned you are coming to visit my country.

not to mention
[B2] used to emphasize the importance of something that you are adding to a list

Dictionary example:
The resort has great hotels and restaurants, not to mention some of the best skiing in the region.

Learner example:
It is crowded everywhere, the shop assistants are stressed, you get to wait for hours to pay for your goods, not to mention the time you must wait to get them wrapped.

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a brief remark

Dictionary examples:
When I ordered the catalogue, there was no mention of any payment.
The report made no mention of the problem.
The story didn't even get a mention in the newspaper.

Learner example:
In the advertisement there's no mention about getting any money back but I think it was such a disappointing evening that you should give it back to me.

merciful /ˈmɜːs.ɪ.fl/

Word family:
Nouns: mercy
Adjectives: merciful, merciless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] describes someone who shows kindness and forgiveness to people who are in their power

Dictionary example:
a merciful ruler
Learner example:
He would have seven children, all of them would be merciful and good rulers of rich countries.

---

merciless /ˈmɜːsɪ.ə.s/

Word family:
Nouns: mercy
Adjectives: merciful, merciless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] cruel, or showing no kindness

Dictionary examples:
a merciless attack
She was merciless in her criticism of his work.

Learner example:
Sheila, being at least aware how deeply her merciless behaviour changed Eve’s life, was the only person in the family who [was] taught [a] lesson.

---

mercy /ˈmɜː.si/

Word family:
Nouns: mercy
Adjectives: merciful, merciless

NOUN
KINDNESS
[C2] [u] kindness that makes you forgive someone, usually someone that you have authority over

Dictionary examples:
The judge showed no mercy.
The prisoners begged/pleaded for mercy.

Learner example:
The doctor showed no mercy and neither would Douglas.

be at the mercy of sb/sth
[C2] to not be able to protect yourself from something or someone that you cannot control

Dictionary example:
Farmers are often at the mercy of the weather.
Learner example:
I couldn't believe I'd been careless enough to let them be at the mercy of Joanna's careless, boisterous friends, and I felt very lonely now, looking for them.

mere /ˈmɪər/

Word family:
Adjectives: mere
Adverbs: merely

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

SMALL
[B2] used to emphasize that something is not large or important

Dictionary examples:
It cost a mere twenty dollars.
The mere thought of eating octopus makes me feel sick.

Learner example:
The fight was just a mere coincidence.

the merest
[C2] used to emphasize that something is small, often when it has an important effect

Dictionary example:
She's upset by the merest hint of criticism.

merely /ˈmɪə.lɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: mere Adverbs: merely

ADVERB

ONLY
[B2] used to emphasize that you mean exactly what you are saying and nothing more

Dictionary examples:
I wasn't complaining, I merely said that I was tired.
I didn't say that you had to go – I merely suggested that you might like to go.

Learner example:
Of course this is merely a suggestion, and if you have got anything else in mind please don't hesitate to let me know.
NOT LARGE

[C2] used to emphasize that something is not large, important, or effective when compared to something else

Dictionary example:
The medicine doesn't make you better, it merely stops the pain.

Learner example:
The modern way of travelling conducted by agencies [...] does not broaden the mind generally. It merely relieves the mind from the oppressions of a regular schedule at work and at home by producing a different environment.

merge /ˈmɜːdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: merger
Verbs: merge

VERB [I or T]

[C2] If two or more things merge, they combine or join, and if you merge two or more things, you combine or join them.

Dictionary examples:
The two companies merged.
They're planning to merge the banks.
The city's smaller libraries will be merged into a large, central one.

Learner example:
What will happen if the biggest companies go on merging and reducing the number of their employees?

merger /ˈmɜːdʒər/

Word family:
Nouns: merger
Verbs: merge

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] when two or more companies or organizations join together

Dictionary example:
The two companies announced their merger yesterday.

Learner example:
For example, in Korea where conglomerates as well as small companies [have] announce[d] their bankruptcy or are in the state of liquidation or merger, millions of people are on the verge of being laid off and unemployed.
merit /ˈmer.ɪt/

NOUN [C or U] FORMAL

[C1] good qualities which deserve praise

Dictionary examples:
His ideas have merit.
We debated the merits of using television in the classroom.
Every application has to be judged on its own merits (=judged by considering the qualities of each).

Learner example:
Nevertheless, everything has its own merits.

VERB [T] FORMAL

[C2] to be important enough to receive attention or punishment

Dictionary example:
Her crimes were serious enough to merit a prison sentence.

Learner example:
One thing which merits serious consideration is the consequences of this invasion in famous private li[ves].

mess /mes/

Word family:
Nouns: mess
Adjectives: messy

NOUN

DIRT/UNTIDINESS

[B1] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] Something or someone that is a mess or is in a mess, looks dirty or untidy.

Dictionary examples:
My hair’s such a mess!
The house is in a mess.
He makes a terrible mess when he’s cooking.
Go and clear up that mess in the kitchen.

Learner example:
Now my room is a mess because I have so much stuff.

PROBLEMS

[B2] [NO PLURAL] a situation that is full of problems
Dictionary examples:
She said that her life was a mess.
The company's finances are in a mess.
If he hadn't lied, he wouldn't be in this mess now.

Learner example:
How on earth did I get into this mess?

VERB

mess about/around PHRASAL VERB

PLAY

[C1] INFORMAL to spend time playing and doing things with no particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
I was just messing around on the computer.
She'd spent the day with friends, just messing about.

Learner example:
Well, you could do baby-sitting, but if you don't like kids messing around, don't worry, there are many other jobs.

WASTE TIME

[C1] to waste time, often by doing things that are not important

Dictionary example:
Stop messing around and do your homework!

Learner example:
Every day we are informed about young people "causing problems", "trouble" [or] "messing around".

mess up sth or mess sth up PHRASAL VERB

[B2] INFORMAL to spoil something, or to do something badly

Dictionary examples:
Don't try to cook lunch without me – you'll only mess it up.
I feel I've messed up my chances of getting the job.

Learner example:
I ignored the price and just paid because I didn't want to mess up the evening.

message /ˈmes.idʒ/

NOUN [C]

IDEA

[B2] the most important idea in a book, film or play
Dictionary examples:
The book conveys a complex message.
The film’s message is that ultimately, rich and poor are alike.

Learner example:
It has a clear message: if you desire something, you can [achieve] whatever you want, but [only] with enormous effort and the danger of losing everything you posses[s].

message board  /ˈmes.ɪdʒ.bɔːd/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a place on a website where you can leave messages for other people to read

Dictionary example:
There’s a lot of discussion on the message boards about this issue.

messy  /ˈmes.i/

Word family:
Nouns: mess
Adjectives: messy

ADJECTIVE
[B1] untidy or dirty

Dictionary examples:
a messy kitchen
messy hair
His bedroom's always messy.
My kids are both really messy.

Learner example:
It's completely messy now, looks like a war in my bedroom, because my bed has broken and I need to buy a new bed quickly.

metal  /ˈmet.əl/

NOUN [c or u]
[B1] a usually hard, shiny material such as iron, gold, or silver which heat and electricity can travel through
Dictionary examples:
Metal, paper and glass can be recycled.
Silver, gold and platinum are precious metals.
Metals are used for making machinery and tools.

Learner example:
It was made of metal and wood.

metaphor /ˈmet.ə.fr/
NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a way of describing something by comparing it with something else which has some of the same qualities
Dictionary example:
She used a computer metaphor to explain how the human brain works.
Learner example:
I shall use a metaphor to help me express my idea.

method /ˈmeθ.əd/
NOUN [C]
[B1] a way of doing something, often one that involves a system or plan
Dictionary examples:
What's the best method of/for solving this problem?
Travelling by train is still one of the safest methods of transport.
traditional teaching methods
Learner example:
I think her teaching method is modern, up to date, and I hope I'll finally improve my English.

meticulous /ˈmə.trɪk.jə.ləs/
ADJECTIVE
[C2] very careful, and giving great attention to detail
Dictionary example:
This book is the result of meticulous research.
Learner example:
The historian members of the commit[t]ee were very keen to preserve the facts as they were – and [were] therefore very meticulous – whereas the officers were rather reluctant to exhibit certain documents.

microphone  /ˈmaɪ.kroʊ.fən/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a piece of equipment that you speak into to make your voice louder, or to record your voice or other sounds

Dictionary examples:
The interviewer asked her to speak into/use the microphone. My laptop has a built-in microphone.

Learner example:
Then we had to plug [in] all [the] electric instruments, speakers, lights and microphones.

middle  /ˈmɪd.əl/

NOUN

the middle

[B1] the central point in a period of time

Dictionary examples:
The letter should arrive by the middle of next week. The noise woke us up in the middle of the night.

Learner example:
Once, she woke up in the middle of the night and there was the ghost of her husband's wife.

be in the middle of (doing) sth

[B1] to be busy or involved in something

Dictionary example:
I can’t talk now – I'm in the middle of cooking a meal.

Learner example:
But while I was in the middle of my tour, I rec[e]ived another e-mail.

in the middle of nowhere

[B2] a long way from places where people live

Dictionary example:
His car broke down in the middle of nowhere.
Learner example:
You know I really don't want to [get] lost in the middle of nowhere.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

CENTRAL
[B2] in a central position

Dictionary examples:
The knives and forks are in the middle drawer.
Our company rents the middle warehouse.

Learner example:
After some minute[s] and as I was going [along] in the middle [a]ne, the car stopped.

NOT HIGH OR LOW
[C1] neither high nor low in importance, amount or size

Dictionary examples: middle managers middle income families

Learner example:
However, women are mostly found in the low and middle income jobs and they are often working part-time.

middle-aged /ˌmɪd.lˈeɪdʒd/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] in the middle of your life before you are old

Dictionary example:
a middle-aged couple/man/woman

Learner example:
Our teacher is a middle-aged lady with a kind smile and British accent.

midnight /ˈmɪd.naɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: midnight, night

NOUN [u]

burn the midnight oil
[C2] to work late into the night
Dictionary example:
I had to burn the midnight oil to get the essay finished.

Learner example:
My examinations were nearing and I was always burning the midnight oil.

might /maɪt/

MODAL VERB

POSSIBLY TRUE
[B1] used to talk about what is possibly true

Dictionary examples:
I think Isabel might be pregnant.
Don't go any closer - it might be dangerous.

Learner example:
At first, I thought it might be a mistake.

might have [B2] used to talk about things that possibly happened in the past or could possibly have happened by some time in the future

Dictionary examples:
It might have been Alex who called.
The rain might have stopped by lunchtime.

Learner example:
First of all, you might have been thinking you have to go to a sports club or somewhere and exercise very hard to keep fit.

might as well
[B2] used to suggest doing something, often when there is nothing better to do

Dictionary examples:
We might as well walk there.
As you already know so much about the subject, you might as well skip this lecture.

Learner example:
In my opinion, you might as well ask your neighbours if they can look after your flat for one day.

you might like/want to...
[C1] used to politely suggest something

Dictionary example:
You might want to try a different approach next time.
Learner example:
You might want to consider requesting your staff to learn a second language such as German, French or Spanish.

might as well do sth
[C1] If you may/might as well do something, it will not spoil the situation if you do that thing.

Dictionary example:
If we're not waiting for Karen, we might as well go now.

Learner example:
I'm not happy to tell you this but I might as well be frank about it as we both want the visit to be a delightful as possible to our members.

mighty  /ˈmaɪ.ti/
ADJECTIVE
[C2] very powerful or successful

Dictionary example:
In their next game they’re playing the mighty Redskins.

Learner example:
Teotihuacan was the place that saw the rise and fall of the mighty "Nahvatlaca Tribe".

migration  /məˈgreɪʃən/
NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when people go to another place to live or find work, or when an animal or bird moves to another place, usually when the season changes

Dictionary examples:
There was a mass migration of poor farmers into the cities.
The butterflies come to Mexico during their annual migration.

Learner example:
There is also migration, people from little villages in the interior migrate to the coast.
mild  /maɪld/

ADJECTIVE

WEATHER

[B1] describes weather that is not very cold or not as cold as usual

Dictionary example:
We’ve had a mild winter this year.

Learner example:
As you know, my country has got mild weather.

FOOD

[B2] describes food or a food flavour that is not very strong

Dictionary example:
a mild chilli sauce

Learner example:
Korean food is quite hot and usually served with rice, but Thai food is mild and sometimes a little bit sour.

SLIGHT

[C1] not violent, severe or extreme

Dictionary examples:
She can’t accept even mild criticism of her work.
He has suffered a mild heart attack – nothing too serious.
a mild form of pneumonia

Learner example:
Music has either a strong or a mild impact (depending [on] the person) on our lives.

mile  /maɪl/

NOUN [C]

UNIT

[B1] a unit for measuring distance, equal to 1609 metres or 1760 yards

Dictionary examples:
a ten-mile drive
The nearest town is ten miles away.
The latest high-speed trains can travel at 140 miles an/per hour.

Learner example:
I don’t feel safe enough [any more], because the police station is 10 miles away and last week there was a burglary at my neighbour’s house.
miles
[C1] a very long distance

Dictionary examples:
We drove for miles along dusty roads.
Her cottage is miles from the nearest village.

Learner example:
And then, when it seems as if you have walked for miles, you enter the magnificent Forum Romanum.

military /ˈmɪl.ɪ.tri/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] [m] relating to the army, navy, or air force

Dictionary examples:
 military action/service military uniform military targets/forces

Learner example:
During my military experience I worked in the kitchen, so kitchen work is quite normal for me as well.

NOUN
the military
[C1] [m] a country's army, navy, and air force

Dictionary example:
The military has opposed any cuts in defense spending.

Learner example:
Until the 1970s, fencing was a sport restricted to the military.

millennium /mɪˈlen.i.əm/

NOUN [C] (millennia)
[C2] [m] a period of 1000 years, often calculated from the date when Christ is thought to have been born

Dictionary example:
We had a party to celebrate the new millennium.
Learner example:
On the cusp of a new millennium, the importance of holidays in this modernized, stressful world [is] undeniable.

millimetre /ˈmɪl.ɪˌmiː.tə/
NOUN [C]
- [B1] a unit of length which is equal to 0.001 metres

Dictionary example:
The ring has a width of three millimetres.

million /ˈmɪl.jən/millions INFORMAL
- [B2] a lot

Dictionary example:
I've seen that film millions of times.

Learner example:
There are millions of things you can do with a computer.

mind /maɪnd/
NOUN [C]
- THINKING
  - [B1] someone’s memory or their ability to think, feel emotions, and be aware of things

Dictionary examples:
My mind was full of what had happened the night before, and I wasn’t concentrating.
I just said the first thing that came into my mind.
For some reason her words stuck in my mind.
She has a very logical mind.

Learner example:
At my first class he asked me to sing a [song] in English, so I sang “Always on my mind!”

change your mind
- [B1] to change a decision or opinion
Dictionary examples:
I've changed my mind about selling the house.
If you change your mind, let me know.

Learner example:
At first I wasn't so excited as Clara, but after an afternoon there I changed my mind!

make up your mind or make your mind up

[B1] to make a decision

Dictionary examples:
I haven't made up my mind whether to apply for the job yet.
They couldn't make their minds up about where to go on holiday.

Learner example:
The place was so dirty that I made up my mind to change it by buy[ing] something useful.

bear/keep sb/sth in mind

[B2] to remember to consider someone or something that may be useful in the future

Dictionary examples:
I'll keep you in mind if another job comes up.
Bear in mind that there's a public holiday next week.

Learner example:
But we should keep in mind that books improve our vocabulary and, what's more, our imagination.

to my mind

[B2] used to emphasize that you are giving your own opinion

Dictionary example:
To my mind, the play was rather disappointing.

Learner example:
To my mind, The Picture of Dorian Gray is probably his best novel.

cross your mind

[B2] If an idea crosses your mind, you think about it for a short time.

Dictionary example:
It never crossed my mind that she might be married.

Learner example:
The first thought that crossed his mind was to call the police immediately and that was what he actually did.

have/keep an open mind

[B2] to wait until you know all the facts before you form an opinion about something or judge someone

1836
Dictionary example:
We're keeping an open mind about the causes of the fire.

Learner example:
To listen, to communicate, [and] to have an open mind are a way of life [nowadays].

put/set sb's mind at ease/at rest
[C1] to say something to someone to stop them worrying

Dictionary example:
I was really worried about the tests, but talking to the doctor put my mind at rest.

Learner example:
I hope my letter will put your mind at rest.

put your mind to sth
[C1] to give your full attention to something and try very hard to do it

Dictionary example:
You could win if you put your mind to it.

Learner example:
With all the technology available, the task is actually quite simple if you put your mind to it.

be in two minds
[C1] to have difficulty making a decision

Dictionary example:
I'm in two minds about accepting his offer.

Learner example:
If you are in two minds about having to share your room with someone else, there you can easily rent a studio apartment close to the college, which is situated in the centre of the city.

come to mind
[C1] If an idea comes to mind, you think of it.

Dictionary example:
I was thinking about who might be suitable for this job, and your name came to mind.

Learner example:
Positives did come from that crisis – more efficient engines, lighter vehicles and lead–free petrol are just some of the examples that come to mind.

blow your mind informal [C2] If something blows your mind, you are very excited or surprised by it.

Dictionary example:
There was one scene in the film that really blew my mind.

Learner example:
'MOMO', written by Michael Ende, is a book that blew my mind as a child and as an adult, I have read it many times, but the last time has been a while now.
have sth on your mind
[C2] to think or worry about something

Dictionary example:
Jim has a lot on his mind at the moment.

spring to mind
[C2] If an idea springs to mind, it is the first thing you think of.

Dictionary example:

Learner example:
A musical event that clearly springs to mind is a Rolling Stones concert in Parken, Copenhagen, which I attended in June 1998.

in your mind's eye
[C2] in your imagination or memory

Dictionary example:
In my mind's eye, she remains a little girl of six although she's actually a grown woman.

Learner example:
He sees her in his mind's eye, running around barefoot, laughing and squealing, wading in the water and running back out, screaming, trying to get away from the breaking waves.

speak your mind
[C2] to say exactly what you think without worrying if it will upset anyone

Dictionary example:
She has very strong opinions and she's not afraid to speak her mind.

Learner example:
His father is even more eccentric, speaks his mind and has no manners at all.

cast your mind back
[C2] to try to remember

Dictionary example:
If you cast your mind back, you might recall that I never promised to go.

Learner example:
Thus, when I pick one of these stones, I cast my mind back to the specific place where I found it, the person I was, the particular moment.

frame of mind
[C2] the way someone feels at a particular time

Dictionary example:
She was in a much more positive frame of mind today.
Learner example:
Naturally, these are more difficult factors to cope with for older people, but it just happens to anyone if you're not in the right frame of mind.

peace of mind
[C2] a feeling that you do not need to worry about anything

Dictionary example:
We lock our doors and windows at night for peace of mind.

Learner example:
After all, successfully earning your living guarantees peace of mind.

presence of mind
[C2] the ability to deal with a difficult situation quickly and effectively

Dictionary example:
She had the presence of mind to press the alarm.

Learner example:
Frank tried to hide a bag behind his back with great presence of mind.

slip your mind
[C2] If something slips your mind, you forget about it.

Dictionary example:
I meant to tell her Nigel had phoned, but it completely slipped my mind.

Learner example:
There was something but it slipped my mind before I reached it.

VERB

ANNOYED
[B1] [ɪ or ɪː] to be annoyed, unhappy or worried by something

Dictionary examples:
Would she mind if I came too?
Take Juan’s book – I’m sure he wouldn’t mind.
I don’t mind driving.
I don’t mind taking her if you’re too busy.
Do you mind me smoking?
I’d prefer to stay in tonight, if you don’t mind.

Learner example:
I want to borrow your bicycle if you don’t mind because m[ine] doesn’t work well.

BE CAREFUL
[B1] [tə] something you say when telling someone to be careful with something dangerous
Dictionary examples:
Mind the iron – it’s still very hot!
Mind out! There’s a car coming.
Mind (that) you don’t hit your head on the shelf when you stand up.

Would you mind...?
[B1] used to request something politely

Dictionary example:
Would you mind sharing a room?

Learner example:
Would you mind if I called you, to know what I’ve missed?

mind you
[C2] something you say before saying the opposite of what you have just said

Dictionary example:
We had a lovely holiday in France. Mind you, the weather was appalling.

Learner example:
Mind you, that can well be a reflection of someone's personality as it could be argued that it demonstrates insecurity!

mind your own business
[C2] used to tell someone in a rude way that you do not want them to ask about something private

Dictionary example:
I wish you’d just mind your own business.

Learner example:
Despite knowing that he was only doing what he thought was best for me, I couldn’t stand him, and I often told him to mind his own business.

mine /maɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: mine, miner, mining

NOUN [C]

UNDERGROUND
[B2] an underground system of holes and passages where people dig out coal or other minerals

Dictionary examples:
a coal/salt/gold mine
My grandfather used to work down the mines.
Learner example:
It is a more or less industrial region with many coal mines.

miner /ˈmɪnər/

Word family:
Nouns: mine, miner, mining

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who works in a mine

Dictionary example:
a coal miner

Learner example:
We are used to strikes in our country so when we heard that the miners had refused to work we did not despair.

mingle /ˈmɪŋ.gl/miniature /ˈmɪn.i.tʃə/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C2] extremely small

Dictionary example:
a miniature camera

Learner example:
Behind him [was] piled the most awkward assortment of stuff I had ever seen: a miniature Eiffel Tower, a monocycle, a letter-box, three netted cages, an accord[i]on, and a bunch of other things whose name I couldn't even guess.

NOUN

in miniature

[C2] If something is in miniature, it is a very small copy of something else.

Dictionary example:
a model of the ship in miniature

Learner example:
Thirdly a co-educational school is a society in miniature and it has many practical advantages.

minimal /ˈmɪn.i.məl/

Word family:

* Nouns: minimum
* Verbs: minimize
* Adjectives: minimum, minimal

ADJECTIVE

[C1] very small in amount

Dictionary example:
Damage to the building was minimal.

Learner example:
Bigger car parks would be built near the MRT station so that people may park their cars at the car park having to pay a minimal rate and use the train to bring them to their workplace.

minimize /ˈmɪn.i.meɪz/

Word family:

* Nouns: minimum
* Verbs: minimize
* Adjectives: minimum, minimal
VERB [ɪ] (ALSO UK minimise)
[C1] to make the amount of something that is unpleasant or not wanted as small as possible

Dictionary example:
Airport staff are trying to minimize the inconvenience caused to passengers.

Learner example:
Try to minimize your working time and spend more time with other people.

minimum /ˈmɪn.ɪ.məm/

Word family:
Nouns: minimum
Verbs: minimize Adjectives: minimum, minimal

ADJECTIVE
[B1] The minimum amount of something is the smallest amount that is allowed, needed, or possible.

Dictionary examples:
There is a minimum charge of £5 for postage.
Eighteen is the minimum age for entering most nightclubs.
That’s the minimum qualification required to teach English in most language schools.

Learner example:
I am going to phone them to ask how much the wage is, but anyway the minimum rate in England is £3.60.

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[B1] the smallest amount that is allowed, needed, or possible

Dictionary examples:
The judge sentenced him to a minimum of five years in prison.
We need a minimum of ten people to play this game.
Wage increases are being kept to a minimum because of the recession.

Learner example:
You should spend a minimum [of] 1–2 hours per day [on] this activity.

mining /ˈmaɪ.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: mine, miner, mining
NOUN [u]
[C1] the industry or activity of removing substances such as coal or metal from the ground by digging

Dictionary example:
coal/salt mining

Learner example:
My company deals mostly with the mining, processing and beneficia[1]tion of magnesite ore. Most of our final products are sold abroad.

minister /ˈmɪn.ɪ.stə/

Word family:
Nouns: minister, ministry

NOUN [c]
[B2] a member of the government in Britain and many other countries who is in charge of a particular department or has an important position in it

Dictionary examples:
the foreign/health minister the Minister of/for Education

Learner example:
He was elected minister of sports, creating some laws to help the players to be more independent.

ministry /ˈmɪn.ɪ.stri/

Word family:
Nouns: minister, ministry

NOUN [c]
[C1] a government department which is responsible for a particular subject

Dictionary examples:
the Ministry of Defence/Agriculture a Foreign Ministry spokesman

Learner example:
According to a majority of students, it's quite economical for them to go to state schools since the Turkish Ministry of Education gives them scholarships.
minor /ˈmɪ.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: minority
Adjectives: minor

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not important or serious

Dictionary examples:
a minor offence/operation
She suffered only minor injuries.
It requires a few minor adjustments.

Learner example:
Happily they were found by some hunters and escaped with minor injuries.

minority /ˈmɪ.nər.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: minority
Adjectives: minor

NOUN
LESS THAN HALF
[B2] [NO PLURAL] less than half of a group of people or things

Dictionary examples:
It's only a tiny minority of people who are causing the problem.
Children with single parents at my school were very much in the minority.
This section of the bookstore caters for minority interests.

Learner example:
On the other hand, the minority of people who believe the opposite maybe want to see the animals and to watch their movements.

RACE
[C1] [c] a group of people whose race is different from the race of most of the people where they live

Dictionary examples:
etnic/religious minorities
The plan was designed to help women and minorities overcome discrimination in the workplace.

Learner example:
The novel reveals very clearly to the reader how minorities are exploited and scorned by society.
mint /mɪnt/

NOUN [u]
[B2] a herb whose leaves have a strong fresh smell and taste and are used for giving flavour to food and drinks such as tea

Dictionary example:
a bunch of mint

Learner example:
I'd recommend his special lamb chop with mint sauce, it's just so delicious.

minute /ˈmɪn.ɪt/

NOUN [C]

wait a minute
[B1] said in order to interrupt someone, or to get their attention or when you have suddenly thought of something important

Dictionary example:
Wait a minute – I've just had an idea.

Learner example:
Oh! Wait a minute...

(at) any minute; any minute now
[B2] very soon

Dictionary example:
Her train should be arriving any minute.

Learner example:
The evil creatures who were bound to come out of the dark [w]ould see Carla any minute now.

the last minute
[B2] the latest time possible

Dictionary example:
The concert was cancelled at the last minute.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, the next evening, one hour before the beginning of the show, we learnt that [the main] actors ha[d] been changed at the last minute.

the minute (that)
[C2] as soon as
Dictionary example:
I'll tell you the minute we hear any news.

Learner example:
Even when we are small babies, from the minute that we are able to understand what is happening around us, the first thing that we do is try to learn and touch everything that is close to us and get familiar with it.

ADJECTIVE /ˈmɪnjuːt/

SMALL

[C2] extremely small

Dictionary example:
a minute amount/quantity

Learner example:
I see no sense in having a supermarket, an ugly and gigantic block, next to a village where the inhabitants only require a minute amount of food, since we are all self-sustaining because of our farms.

EXACT

[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] done in great detail

Dictionary example:
He explained everything in minute detail.

Learner example:
He is also a person who can pay meticulous attention to minute details.

miracle /ˈmɪrəkl/

NOUN [C]

[B2] something that is very surprising or difficult to believe

Dictionary examples:
an economic miracle
Looking at the state of his car, it's a miracle (that) he wasn't killed.
I can't promise a miracle cure, but I think we can improve things.

Learner example:
Every single day we hear about new products, new methods, new technological miracles which have turned our daily lives [upside down].
misbehave /ˌmɪs.bruˈherv/

Word family:

Nouns: behaviour

Verbs: behave, misbehave

VERB [i]

[C1] to behave badly

Dictionary example:
If you misbehave, you will be punished – it's as simple as that.

Learner example:
Firstly, an apology is due to all nearby residents whose lives were disturbed by a few somewhat misbehaving students.

miserable /ˈmɪz.ər.ə.bl/

Word family:

Nouns: misery

Adjectives: miserable

ADJECTIVE

UNHAPPY

[B1] sad

Dictionary example:
I just woke up feeling miserable.

Learner example:
I feel very miserable and my boyfriend is still angry with me because that ring was his gift for our first year together.

UNPLEASANT

[B2] very unpleasant or bad, and causing someone to feel unhappy

Dictionary examples:
miserable weather
Families here are living in miserable conditions.

Learner example:
Heathcliff [always swears revenge because of] the miserable situation the other character[s] have put him in.

NOT ENOUGH

[C2] informal A miserable amount is too small to be acceptable.

Dictionary example:
She offered me a miserable £50 for my old computer.
Learner example:
We find ourselves running up and down stairs, making hundreds [of] phone calls [...] and then having a miserable 15 minutes lunch break to grab some food and re[store] our energy levels.

misery /ˈmɪz.əri/

Word family:
Nouns: misery
Adjectives: miserable

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] great suffering or unhappiness

Dictionary examples:
The war brought misery to millions of people.
We have witnessed the most appalling scenes of human misery.
Ten years of marriage to him have made her life a misery.

Learner example:
[A] few hours of amusement for us might mean a whole life of misery for the animals.

misfortune /ˌmɪsfəˈtuːn/

Word family:
Nouns: fortune, misfortune
Adjectives: fortunate, unfortunate
Adverbs: fortunately, unfortunately

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] bad luck, or an unlucky event

Dictionary example:
He had the misfortune to fall in love with a married woman.

Learner example:
But try not to wear black because they believe it brings bad luck and misfortune.

mishap /ˈmɪshæp/

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] an accident or unlucky event which usually is not serious

Dictionary examples:
They suffered a series of mishaps during the trip.
The accident was just a tragic mishap.
Learner example:
Personally speaking, I have always received courteous attention from my parents and this has helped me overcome all mishaps that may occur.

misinform /ˌmɪs.ɪnˈfɔːm/

Word family:
Nouns: information
Verbs: inform, misinform
Adjectives: informative

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[C1] to give someone false information

Dictionary example:
I'm afraid you've been misinformed about your exam results.

Learner example:
From the article, I got the impression that your reporter was misinformed about certain facts which are crucial for a better [understanding] of the event.

misinterpret /ˌmɪs.ɪnˈtɜː.prɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: interpretation, misinterpretation
Verbs: interpret, misinterpret

VERB [T]
[C2] to understand something in the wrong way

Dictionary example:
He claims his speech was deliberately misinterpreted by journalists.

Learner example:
A direct consequence of this is that adults misinterpret their intentions and object to youth's lack of respect.

misinterpretation /ˌmɪs.inˌtɜː.prɪˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: interpretation, misinterpretation
Verbs: interpret, misinterpret

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C2] when something is understood in the wrong way
Dictionary example:
What he said was a complete misinterpretation of my views.

Learner example:
In conclusion, all the advantages that TV brings must not make us believe that it is only a positive object. Its power can lead us to bad mistakes, or misinterpretation.

mislead /mɪsˈliːd/

Word family:
Nouns: lead, leader, leadership
Verbs: lead, mislead
Adjectives: lead, leading, misleading

VERB [T] (misled)
[C1] to make someone believe something that is untrue by giving them information that is wrong or not complete

Dictionary example:
She claims the public was misled by the government.

Learner example:
As a member of the charity organisation, I was very much upset by the report, as it was totally against the fact[s], which would certainly mislead the readers.

misleading /mɪsˈliːd.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: lead, leader, leadership
Verbs: lead, mislead
Adjectives: lead, leading, misleading

ADJECTIVE
[B2] making someone believe something that is untrue

Dictionary example:
misleading information/statements

Learner example:
I found it rather misleading and I would like to provide true information about the festival.

misplace /mɪsˈpleɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: place, replacement, displacement
Verbs: place, replace, displace, misplace
VERB [T]
[C2] to lose something temporarily by forgetting where you have put it

Dictionary example:
I seem to have misplaced my keys.

Learner example:
It is only when these possessions are lost or stolen or simply misplaced that they are greatly missed.

miss /mɪs/

Word family:
Verbs: miss
Adjectives: missing

VERB

miss a chance/opportunity
[B1] to not use an opportunity to do something

Dictionary example:
You can't afford to miss a chance like this.

Learner example:
[It's] the most important tennis competition in my town, and I can't miss this opportunity.

AVOID
[B1] [t] to avoid doing or experiencing something

Dictionary example:
You should leave early if you want to miss the rush hour.

Learner example:
If you want to have [a] nice time, you [should] leave the hotel early in the morning because in this way you [will] miss the rush-hour traffic.

NOT SEE/HEAR
[B1] [t] to not see or hear something

Dictionary examples:
Sorry, I missed that, could you repeat it please?
We missed the first five minutes of the film.
My office is first on the right with a bright red door. You can't miss it.

Learner example:
First of all, the Festival began on time at midday with King Cup. Maybe you might have missed that part.
FAIL TO DO

[B2] [t] to fail to do something at the correct time or to be too late to do something or see something or someone

Dictionary examples:
I must finish this letter or I'll miss the post.
Helen? I'm sorry, you've just missed her.

Learner example:
I have to finish or I'll miss the last post.

NOT HIT

[B2] [t or τ] to not hit or catch something as you intended

Dictionary examples:
It should have been such an easy goal and he missed.
He threw a book at me, but it missed.
The bullet missed his heart by a couple of centimetres.

Learner example:
He aimed for the heart, and, when he was about to fire, an innocent pigeon landed on his rifle.
Paul wasn't expecting this, and his shot missed the judge.

miss the boat

[C2] to be too late to get what you want

Dictionary example:
I'm afraid you've missed the boat. All the concert tickets have been sold.

Learner example:
What if she never had another chance? What if she missed the boat? Overcome by the anxiety and the lack of sleep, the first thing she did in the morning was to pick up two of her best poems [and] put them in an envelope.

NOUN

give sth a miss

[C1] to not do an activity

Dictionary example:
I think I'll give aerobics a miss this evening.

Learner example:
For this reason, I don't encourage you to buy the Spanish version of these CDs. I think you should give it a miss. Kind regards missile /ˈmɪs.əl/
NOUN [c]
[C2] an explosive weapon which can travel long distances through the air

Dictionary examples:
nuclear missiles
a missile attack

Learner example:
In the meantime dissident elements of the terrorist organization had tried to make contact with the United States intelligence organizations to warn them of possible bomb or missile attacks on their Kenyan and Tanzanian missions.

missing /ˈmɪs.ɪŋ/
Word family:
Verbs: miss
Adjectives: missing

ADJECTIVE
NOT INCLUDED
[B1] not included in something

Dictionary examples:
There are a couple of names missing from the list.
When did you realise that the money was missing from your account?

Learner example:
But even with all this furniture, I feel like there is something missing, so I have decided to buy some posters of my favo[u]rite rock bands and put them on the walls.

mission /ˈmɪʃ.ən/
NOUN [c]
PURPOSE
[B2] someone's duty or purpose in life

Dictionary example:
Her mission in life was to help the poor.

Learner example:
You think that you are "great", since you can cope with both the job and lots of other "missions" in life, education, sports and so on.
job

[C2] an important job, usually travelling somewhere

Dictionary examples:
Our mission was to isolate the enemy by destroying all the bridges across the river.
I'll be going on a fact-finding mission to Paris next week.

Learner example:
Apparently somebody had tried to sabotage the mission and given them both different code words.

---

mist /mɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: mist
Adjectives: misty

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] small drops of water in the air which make it difficult to see objects which are not near

Dictionary examples:
The early-morning mist soon lifted/cleared.
The mountain villages seem to be permanently covered in mist.

Learner example:
The mist was getting thicker all the time and the rain was coming down harder.

---

mistake /ˈmɪstek/

Word family:
Nouns: mistake
Adjectives: mistaken

NOUN [C]

[B1] If you do something by mistake, you do it without intending to.

Dictionary examples:
I picked up someone else's book by mistake.
I've paid this bill twice by mistake.

Learner example:
After 30 minutes, a man appeared telling [us] that he had taken our suitcases by mistake.
mistaken /mɪˈster.kən/

Word family:
Nouns: mistake
Adjectives: mistaken

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If you are mistaken, or you have a mistaken belief, you are wrong about something.

Dictionary example:
If you think you can behave like that, you are mistaken.

Learner example:
First of all, you mentioned in the article that we promised 45 stalls for that day, but you are completely mistaken as we announced only 35.

misty /ˈmɪs.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: mist
Adjectives: misty

ADJECTIVE
[B2] If the weather is misty, there is a cloud of small drops of water in the air, which makes it difficult to see objects which are not near.

Dictionary example:
a cold and misty morning

Learner example:
But the evenings were a bit cold and misty.

misunderstand /mɪsˌʌn.əˈstænd/

Word family:
Nouns: misunderstanding, understanding
Verbs: misunderstand, understand
Adjectives: understandable, understanding
Adverbs: understandably

VERB [T]

NOT UNDERSTAND
[B2] to not understand someone or something correctly
Dictionary example:
He misunderstood the question completely.

Learner example:
He meant that he had misunderstood the situation.

be misunderstood
[C2] If someone is misunderstood, other people do not understand that they have good qualities.

Dictionary example:
He was a genius, but misunderstood by society at the time.

Learner example:
He was misunderstood by the adult world, he only wanted to be away from everybody, he wanted to be all by himself.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>misunderstanding</th>
<th>/mɪsˌʌn.dəˈstændɪŋ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: misunderstanding, understanding
Verbs: misunderstand, understand
Adjectives: understandable, understanding Adverbs: understandably

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when someone does not understand something correctly

Dictionary example:
There must have been a misunderstanding.

Learner example:
I think that there is a misunderstanding about the day that I [should] pick up the keys [from] your neighbours.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>misuse</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: use, user, misuse, usefulness
Verbs: use, misuse
Adjectives: useful, useless

VERB [I] /ˌmɪsˈjuːz/
[C1] to use something in the wrong way or for the wrong purpose

Dictionary example:
He misused his position to obtain money dishonestly.
Learner example:
By doing this the money won't be misused because we won't have to build a new indoor court that will not be used at all times.

NOUN [c or u] /ˌmɪsˈjuːs/
[C1] the use of something in the wrong way or for the wrong purpose

Dictionary example:
They accused him of the misuse of power.

Learner example:
Can we disregard the consequences there may be of the misuse of the above innovations of technology?

mix /mɪks/

Word family:
Nouns: mix, mixture
Verbs: mix

VERB

COMBINE QUALITIES/ACTIVITIES
[B1] [I or T] to have two or more qualities, or to do two or more activities, etc. at the same time

Dictionary example:
a feeling of anger mixed with sadness

Learner example:
That also could be a good way to mix learning and entertainment.

MEET
[B2] [I] to meet and talk to people

Dictionary example:
She enjoys going to parties and mixing with people.

Learner example:
I like mixing with people.

NOUN
[B1] [NO PLURAL] a combination of things or people, often in a group

Dictionary examples:
There's a good mix of nationalities in the class.
There was an odd mix of people at Patrick's party.
"She's studying physics and philosophy." "That's an interesting mix."
Learner example:
This film is a mix of fantasy and adventure.

---

mixture /ˈmɪks.tʃər/

Word family:
Nouns: mix, mixture
Verbs: mix

NOUN
SUBSTANCE
[B2] [c or u] a substance made of other substances that have been combined

Dictionary examples:
The mixture of flour, water and yeast is then left in a warm place for four hours.
Add milk to the mixture and stir until smooth.

STYLES/IDEAS
[B2] [NO PLURAL] when there is a combination of two or more ideas, qualities, styles, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Their house is decorated in a mixture of styles.
Their latest CD is a mixture of new and old songs.

Learner example:
The result is a very strange mixture of different styles.

---

moan /ˈmeən/

VERB [I]
COMPLAIN
[C2] to complain or speak in a way that shows you are unhappy

Dictionary example:
She's always moaning about something.

Learner example:
She had been moaning all week about her job and her difficulties with this and that, but she couldn't remember having asked even once how Simon was getting on.

SOUND
[C2] to make a low sound, especially because you are in pain
Dictionary example:
He lay on the floor moaning.

Learner example:
He moaned and groaned but he did not have any obvious signs of injuries.

modal (verb) /ˌməʊ.dəlˈvɜːb/

NOUN [C] SPECIALIZED

[B1] a verb, for example 'can', 'might' or 'must', that is used before another verb to show that something is possible, necessary, etc.

Dictionary example:
The first verb in the following sentence is a modal: We ought to pay the gas bill.

mode /məʊd/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a way of doing something

Dictionary example:
a mode of transport

Learner example:
In conclusion, I think that both modes of education play a great role in educating children to be good members of society.

model /ˈmɒdl/

NOUN [C]

PERSON

[B1] someone whose job is to wear fashionable clothes, be in photographs, etc. in order to advertise things

Dictionary example:
a fashion model

Learner example:
In the future I hope to be a cloth[es] designer or a top model.

EXAMPLE

[C2] someone or something that is an example for others to copy
Dictionary examples:
Their educational system was a model for other countries.
She was a model student.

Learner example:
She is a 'model' citizen of the Fahrenheit 451 society: she doesn't ask questions, she doesn't think by herself, either.

moderate

Word family:
Nouns: moderation
Verbs: moderate
Adjectives: moderate
Adverbs: moderately

ADJECTIVE  /ˈmɒd.ərət/
[C1] average in size or amount and not too much

Dictionary examples:
a moderate increase in salaries
moderate growth
Eating a moderate amount of fat is healthy.

Learner example:
A moderate increase in cinema attendance was noted until the year 1996.

VERB [T]  /ˈmɒd.ər.eɪt/

LESS EXTREME
[C2] to make something less extreme

Dictionary example:
He's trying to moderate his drinking.

moderately  /ˈmɒd.ət.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: moderation
Verbs: moderate
Adjectives: moderate
Adverbs: moderately

ADVERB
[C2] to a degree that is average but not very great
Dictionary examples:
There's very little moderately priced housing in this area.
The company remains moderately profitable, but it is not making as much money as it should.

Learner example:
Very often a moderately well-off person would take his chance and try to change his life, hopefully for [the] better.

Moderation /ˌmɒd.rˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: moderate
Verbs: moderate
Adjectives: moderate
Adverbs: moderately

NOUN

in moderation
[C1] If you do something in moderation, you do not do it too much.

Dictionary example:
I only drink alcohol in moderation.

Learner example:
While shopping can make one feel good and even has its positive impact on the retail economy, I think it should be done in moderation.

Modern /ˈmɒd.ən/

ADJECTIVE

NOW
[B1] relating to the present time and not to the past

Dictionary examples:
modern society
the stresses of modern life

Learner example:
You’ll see the modern Japan.
modest /ˈmɒd.ɪst/

Word family:

Adjectives: modest

Adverbs: modestly

ADJECTIVE

NOT LARGE

[B2] not large in size or amount, or not expensive or important

Dictionary examples:
- a modest amount of money
- They live in a fairly modest house, considering their wealth.
- There has been a modest improvement in housing conditions for the poor.
- The party made modest gains in the elections, but nothing like the huge gains that were predicted.

Learner example:
Finally, I hope that my modest report will help the management of our college to achieve their aim.

NOT PROUD

[C1] If you are modest, you do not talk in a proud way about your skills or successes.

Dictionary example:
- He's very modest about his achievements.

Learner example:
- Earning a lot she is still very modest and does not show any signs of vanity at all.

modestly /ˈmɒd.ɪst.li/

Word family:

Adjectives: modest

Adverbs: modestly

ADVERB

BY SMALL AMOUNT

[C1] by a modest amount

Dictionary example:
- At just £9, the DVD is very modestly priced.

NOT PROUDLY

[C2] in a modest way
Dictionary example:
She smiled modestly.

Learner example:
He had always been the star of their partnership, with her supporting him, reassuring him, serving him silently and modestly but in penetrating their shared curriculum he also felt his gratitude [re-emerging] towards this once loved person who had been his heart, his inspiration, the basis on which he built his life.

modification /ˌmɒd.ɪˈfɪkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: modification
Verbs: modify

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a small change to something

Dictionary example:
We’ve made a few modifications to the system.

Learner example:
Although I am very happy with the current design of my house I may make some modifications in the future.

modify /ˈmɒd.ɪ.fai/

Word family:
Nouns: modification
Verbs: modify

VERB [T]
[C1] to change something in order to improve it

Dictionary example:
The plans will have to be modified to reduce costs.

Learner example:
To sum up, the Work Experience in Britain Programme should be modified as it was a far cry from what we had been led to expect.
NOUN

POINT IN TIME

[B1] [c] a point in time

Dictionary examples:
Just at that moment, the phone rang.
Don't leave it to/till the last moment.

Learner example:
[At] that moment my phone started to ring.

wait a moment

[B1] said in order to interrupt someone, or to get their attention or when you have suddenly thought of something important

Dictionary example:
Now, wait a moment – I don’t agree with that.

for the moment

[B2] If you do something for the moment, you are doing it now, but might do something different in the future.

Dictionary example:
Let’s carry on with what we agreed for the moment.

Learner example:
For the moment I am unemployed so I have plenty of time to give [you] a hand.

the moment (that)

[C2] as soon as

Dictionary example:
I’ll call you the moment I hear anything.

Learner example:
I think th[ese] differences become relevant from the moment that they decide they are go[i]ng to make a fire.

on the spur of the moment

[C2] If you do something on the spur of the moment, you do it suddenly, without planning it.

Dictionary example:
On the spur of the moment we decided to go to London for the day.

Learner example:
In reality, many people buy things on the spur of the moment only to discover later that they, in fact, do not [meet] their expect[at]ions.

1865 momentum /ˈməˈmen.təm/

NOUN [u]

[C2] when something continues to move, increase, or develop

Dictionary examples:
The players seemed to lose momentum halfway through the game.
to gain/gather momentum

Learner example:
Mr Emerson strongly believes in social equality, and his views can be regarded as the reflection of the democratic movements gaining momentum at the beginning of our century.

monetary /ˈmʌn.ər.i tri/

Word family:

Nouns: money

Adjectives: monetary

ADJECTIVE

[C2] relating to money

Dictionary examples:
monetary policy
The monetary unit of the UK is the pound.
European monetary union

Learner example:
Indeed such a country, [by] accepting tourists, [can] exchange its probably weak currency with potentially hard currencies of strong monetary value, and help its economy.

monitor /ˈmɒn.ɪ.tər/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a screen that shows information or pictures, usually connected to a computer

Dictionary example:
I've bought a bigger monitor for my computer.

Learner example:
We know our world from TV screens and computer monitors.

VERB [t]

[C1] to watch something carefully and record your results
Dictionary examples:
to monitor progress
The new findings suggest that women ought to monitor their cholesterol levels.

Learner example:
Their life is being monitored and broadcast throughout the country, and every week the audience decide who has to leave.

---

monopoly /məˈnɒp.əli/

NOUN
[C2] [c or u] when a company or organization is the only one in an area of business or activity and has complete control of it

Dictionary example:
They have a monopoly on the postal service.

Learner example:
In fact, it is quite obvious that the reason why a second supermarket is planned in our area is related to the current monopoly of the first supermarket.

---

monotonous /maˈnɒt.ənəs/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If something is monotonous, it is boring because it stays the same.

Dictionary examples:
a monotonous voice monotonous work

Learner example:
The voice of the speaker is monotonous and lacks any rhythm or modulation, intrinsic parts of any language without which proper acquisition of it is impossible.

---

monster /ˈmɒnt.stə/

NOUN [c]

CREATURE
[B1] an imaginary creature that is large, ugly, and frightening

Dictionary examples:
a sea monster
the Loch Ness monster
Learner example:
Another programme is about a man who save[s] the country from a scary monster.

PERSON
[C2] a cruel and frightening person

Dictionary example:
You'd have to be a monster to hit a child like that.

Learner example:
In her opinion he was a monster without any human feelings.

monthly /ˈmʌnt.əli/

Word family:
Nouns: month
Adjectives: monthly
Adverbs: monthly

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB
[B1] happening or produced once a month

Dictionary examples:
monthly payments
a monthly magazine
We're paid monthly.

Learner example:
At the moment I pay £550 monthly plus bills.

monument /ˈmɒn.ju.mənt/

NOUN [C]

BUILDING/PLACE
[B1] an old building or place that is important in history

Dictionary example:
an ancient monument

Learner example:
In these cities you will be able to visit ancient monuments.

STRUCTURE
[B2] a structure that is built to make people remember an event in history or a famous person
Dictionary example:
In the square in front of the hotel stands a monument to all the people killed in the war.

Learner example:
First I went to see the Larienki Park and admired the beautiful monument to the greatest Polish composer – Chopin.

---

mood /muːd/

NOUN [C or U]

[WAY YOU FEEL]

[B1] the way you feel at a particular time

Dictionary examples:
She’s in a bad mood.
You’re in a good mood today.
What sort of mood is Ted in today?
Her mood seemed to change during the course of the conversation.
The public mood changed dramatically after the bombing.
The mood of the crowd suddenly turned aggressive.

Learner example:
I reckon I was in a bad mood, but nothing had happened to end our relationship.

be in a mood

[B2] to not be friendly to other people because you are feeling angry

Dictionary example:
Ignore him – he's in a mood.

Learner example:
I didn't mind the rain, actually I prefer rain when I am in a mood like that.

be in the mood for sth/to do sth

[C2] to want to do or have something

Dictionary example:
I'm not really in the mood for shopping at the moment.

Learner example:
Should you be in the mood for a walk around the lake then go for it.
moon /ˈmʌn/

NOUN

be over the moon INFORMAL

[B2] to be very pleased about something

Dictionary example:
She was over the moon about her results.

Learner example:
It's very kind of you to let me use things in your flat. I'm over the moon!

moonlight /ˈmuːn.laɪt/

NOUN [u]

[B2] light that comes from the moon

Dictionary example:
In the moonlight, she looked even more beautiful.

Learner example:
The floor was dark, [and] the moonlight which came through the window gave the only light.

moral /ˈmɒr.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: immoral, moral
Adverbs: morally

ADJECTIVE

BELIEFS

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] relating to beliefs about what is right or wrong

Dictionary examples:
moral standards/values
a moral issue
She condemned the proposed law on moral grounds.

Learner example:
Ad[d]itionally team sport gives children a strong chara[c]ter and it contributes to the [develop]ment of ethical values and moral principles that makes them fair athletes and pe[ople].

GOOD BEHAVIOUR

[C1] behaving in ways considered by most people to be correct and honest
Dictionary example:
She’s a very moral woman.

Learner example:
He couldn't tolerate anybody disturbing childrens' lives for the sake of money, because he was a very moral man.

NOUN

morals
[C2] standards for good behaviour

Dictionary example:
He has no morals.

Learner example:
Without limits, without morals, a child cannot build his own personality.

morale /məˈræl/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the amount of confidence or hope for the future that people feel

Dictionary example:
The pay increase should help to improve staff morale.

Learner example:
Recent events have caused the morale of the troops to disintegrate completely.

morally /ˈmɒr.əl.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: immoral, moral Adverbs: morally

ADVERB
[B2] in a moral way

Dictionary example:
morally wrong/unacceptable

Learner example:
Doesn't it seems morally wrong? Animals need their space and natural surroundings to survive.
more /mɔːr/

DETERMINER; PRONOUN

once more
[B1] one more time

Dictionary example:
I'd like to visit the colleges once more before we leave.

Learner example:
On Friday I will see him once more.

more and more
[B2] an increasing number

Dictionary example:
More and more people are choosing not to buy a car.

Learner example:
More and more youngsters have problems with reading and writing.

ADVERB

GREATER NUMBER OF TIMES
[B1] used to show that something happens a greater number of times than before

Dictionary examples:
We eat out a lot more than we used to.
We go to the cinema more often in the winter.

Learner example:
We really should do this more often.

more or less
[B2] almost or approximately

Dictionary examples:
We've more or less finished work on the house.
He more or less admitted he'd done it.
The new window will cost £500 more or less.

Learner example:
I will [now] give you some information, so that you know more or less what you can expect.

more and more
[B2] more as time passes

Dictionary example:
It's becoming more and more expensive to buy property in the city.
Learner example:
Cycling is getting more and more popular in Poland.

moreover /ˌmɔːˈrəʊ.vər/

ADVERB  FORMAL
[B2] also and more importantly

Dictionary examples:
The whole report is badly written. Moreover, it’s inaccurate.
It is a cheap and, moreover, effective way of dealing with the problem.

Learner example:
Because it is a well-known hotel it should be easy to find it. Moreover, it is really well-located, so it will allow you to move around the city without any problem.

morning /ˈmɔː.nɪŋ/

NOUN [C or U]
2/3/4, etc. o’clock in the morning
[B1] 2/3/4, etc. o’clock at night

Dictionary example:
My car alarm went off at 3 o’clock in the morning.

Learner example:
I came home at 4 o’clock in the morning.

in the morning
[B1] tomorrow morning

Dictionary example:
I’ll pack my bags in the morning.

mortality /mɔːˈtæl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: mortality
Adjectives: immortal

NOUN [u]
[C2] the number of deaths at a particular time or in a particular place
Dictionary examples:
infant mortality
the mortality rate

Learner example:
In addition, these countries often have a high birth–rate in combination with a high mortality rate.

mosquito /mɒˈskiː.oʊ/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL mosquitoes)
[B1] a small flying insect that sucks your blood, sometimes causing malaria

Dictionary example:
mosquito bites

Learner example:
You should stay in a city because of the things that only a city can offer and an important detail about countryside is the mosquitoes, there are a lot!

most /məʊst/

Word family:
Adverbs: most, mostly

ADVERB

for the most part
[C1] mostly or usually

Dictionary example:
I enjoyed it for the most part.

Learner example:
First of all, for the most part, people have to use computers in their jobs.

PRONOUN

MORE
[B2] more than anyone or anything else

Dictionary examples:
Everyone was generous but Lizzie gave the most.
This one costs the most.

make the most of sth
[B2] to take full advantage of something because it may not last long
Dictionary example:
We should make the most of this good weather.

Learner example:
Remember, always try to make the most of your life.

Determiner

More

[B1] the largest amount

Dictionary example:
Carlos earns the most money of all of us.

Learner example:
So, in this game, the people are there to win the most money they can.

mostly /ˈməʊst.lɪ/

Word family:
Adverbs: most, mostly

Adverb

[B1] mainly or most of the time

Dictionary examples:
Her friends are mostly Italian.
In the smaller villages, it's mostly very quiet at nights.

Learner example:
Normally I wear black or blue jeans and I mostly wear t-shirts and a light jacket.

mother /ˈmʌð.ər/

Noun [C]

Mother tongue

[B2] the first language that you learn when you are a child

Dictionary example:
Italian is my mother tongue but I started to learn English when I was six.

Learner example:
I can speak English and French fluently, added to my mother tongue, Japanese.
mother-in-law /ˈmʌθ.ər.ɪn.lɔː/

NOUN [c] (PLURAL mothers-in-law)
[B2] the mother of your husband or wife

Dictionary example:
I get on well with my mother-in-law.

Learner example:
I was a little afraid of getting into contact with my mother-in-law.

motion /ˈməʊ.ʃən/

NOUN

MOVEMENT
[C2] [u] when or how something moves

Dictionary example:
The motion of the boat made him feel sick.

Learner example:
The motion of the air caused by the jet engines makes all the windows tremble and some of them break.

SUGGESTION
[C2] [c] a suggestion that you make in a formal meeting or court of law

Dictionary examples:
Someone proposed a motion to increase the membership fee to £500 a year.
The motion was accepted/rejected.

Learner example:
Nevertheless Mark and Paul maintained their ground and submitted motion after motion to the parliament in order to be allowed to continue their work and use their technique commercially.

go through the motions
[C2] to do something because you are expected to do it and not because you want to

Dictionary example:
These days when we go out, I feel as though he's just going through the motions.

Learner example:
She went through the motions of everyday life without enthusiasm.
motivate /ˈməʊ.tɪ.vət/

Word family:
Nouns: motivation, motive
Verbs: motivate
Adjectives: motivated

VERB [T]

ENTHUSIASTIC
[C1] to make someone enthusiastic about doing something

Dictionary example:
Teaching is all about motivating people to learn.

Learner example:
There are a lot of tools that can be used to motivate people and it is the Human Resources department who should take care of using them properly.

CAUSE
[C1] to cause someone to behave in a particular way

Dictionary example:
Some people are motivated by greed.

Learner example:
Most of us are motivated by fear.

motivated /ˈməʊ.tɪˌveɪ.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: motivation, motive
Verbs: motivate
Adjectives: motivated

ADJECTIVE
[B2] enthusiastic and determined to succeed

Dictionary example:
a very motivated student

Learner example:
Furthermore, after a break people are often very motivated to go on with their education.
motivation /ˌməʊ.tɪˈveɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: motivation, motive
Verbs: motivate
Adjectives: motivated

NOUN
[B2] [u] enthusiasm for doing something

Dictionary example:
There is a lack of motivation among the staff.

Learner example:
I hope my motivation and my capacity [for hard work] [will] help me cope with the work successfully.

REASON
[C1] [c] the need or reason for doing something

Dictionary example:
What was the motivation for the attack?

Learner example:
Although money is the main motivation, for many people, to work I have come across many people who ha[ve] worked volunt[ari]ly or [for] less money to gain relev[a]nt experience.

motive /ˈməʊ.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: motivation, motive
Verbs: motivate
Adjectives: motivated

NOUN [c]
[B2] a reason for doing something

Dictionary examples:
The police don’t yet know the motive for the killing.
What was the motive behind the bombing?

Learner example:
It was not likely that he had done the murder – because there was no motive.

motor /ˈməʊ.tər/
NOUN [c]
[B2] the part of a machine or vehicle that changes electricity or fuel into movement and makes it work

Dictionary example:
The pump is powered by a small electric motor.

Learner example:
The boat is 26 feet long; it is a sailboat with an inboard motor.

motorist /ˈməʊ.tər.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: motor, motorist

NOUN [c]
[B2] a person who drives a car

Dictionary example:
Motorists will be hit hard by the rise in fuel prices.

Learner example:
According to motorists, cars are better than bikes, as you feel more comfortable and relaxed inside them.

mount /maʊnt/

VERB

mount a campaign/challenge/protest, etc.
[C2] to arrange a series of organized activities that will achieve a particular result

Dictionary example:
Students mounted a huge protest against fee increases.

Learner example:
In Orson Welles’ story, aliens mount an offensive to take over the world, whereas in Wyndham’s book, the world is quietly and slowly conquered by plants.

INCREASE
[C2] [I] to increase in amount or level

Dictionary example:
Tension in the room was mounting.
Learner example:
One day, I was sitting in a dentist’s waiting [room], and as tension mounted and the old “dentist fear” was eating away at me, I availed myself [of] the opportunity to browse through a couple of magazines lying on the table.

mount sth on/to, etc.
[C2] to fix an object onto something

Dictionary example:
They’ve mounted a camera on the wall by the door.

Learner example:
He or any other guest will be happy to explain any of the items mounted on the wall and to reminisce about old times.

RIDE
[C2] [r] to get on a horse or bicycle

Dictionary example:
I helped him mount the horse.

Learner example:
After only a short walk, he had to help two of them to mount the mules.

---

mountain /ˈmaʊn.tɪn/

NOUN [C]

PILE
[C2] informal a large pile of something

Dictionary example:
There’s a mountain of papers on my desk.

Learner example:
But I had to get up to deal with a mountain of documents on my desk.

---

moustache /moʊˈstɑːʃ/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a line of hair that some men grow above their mouths

Dictionary example:
Groucho Marx had a thick black moustache.

Learner example:
My new teacher is fun, nice and cool. He has [short] black hair and a big moustache.
mouth /maʊθ/

NOUN [C]

mouth of a river
[C1] where a river goes into the sea

Dictionary example:
It is a small village, by the mouth of a river.

Learner example:
The mouth of the river with a [narrow] exit to the sea, provided an extra ex[cl]itement because of the pressure of the water when joining the sea.

move /muːv/

Word family:
Nouns: movement
Verbs: move, remove
Adjectives: moving

VERB

CHANGE PLACE
[B1] [i] If a person or an organization moves, they go to a different place to live or work.

Dictionary examples:
We're thinking of moving – perhaps to the country.
We're moving to Paris.
A lot of businesses are moving out of London because it's too expensive.

Learner example:
As my office will move [to] the west of the town next month, it will be difficult for me to still live in this house.

move house
[B1] to leave your home in order to live in a new one

Dictionary example:
We're moving house in the spring.

Learner example:
I want to move house [as] soon as possible.

TIME
[B2] [t] to change the time or order of something
Dictionary example:
We need to move the meeting back a few days.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, we have to move the time of our departure [be]cause of technical problems.

FEELING
[B2] [T OFTEN PASSIVE] to make someone have strong feelings of sadness or sympathy

Dictionary examples:
I was deeply moved by his speech.
Many people were moved to tears.

Learner example:
I was very moved: it was so beautiful!

get moving INFORMAL
[C2] to hurry

Dictionary example:
We're leaving in five minutes, so get moving!

Learner example:
"Oh, look at the time, we must get moving!"

NOUN [C]

ACTION [C1] an action taken to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
Buying those shares was a good move.
It was a good career move.
The latest policies are clearly a move towards democracy.

Learner example:
I have also come to [the] conclusion that showing [the] canteen [in the film] would not be a good move because it is very noisy.

CHANGE OF PLACE [C1] when you go to live or work in a different place

Dictionary example:
We've had four moves in three years.

CHANGE OF POSITION [C2] the act of moving

Dictionary example:
She held the gun to his head and said, "One move and you're dead!"
Learner example:
Some minutes later the dj played a song I loved to dance to at the time, called "Satisfaction" by Benny Bennusi, so I indulged in some rather wild dance moves.

get a move on INFORMAL
[C2] to hurry

Dictionary example:
Come on, get a move on!

Learner example:
'All the lights will be switched off in 28 minutes, so I have to get a move on' I said to myself, as I started to write on a new piece of paper.

movement /ˈmuːv.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: movement
Verbs: move, remove Adjectives: moving

NOUN

CHANGE OF POSITION
[B2] [c or u] a change of position or place

Dictionary examples:
He made a sudden movement and frightened the bird away.
For a long time after the accident, he had no movement in his legs.
Her movements were rather clumsy.

Learner example:
She must sit for two hours without any movement.

GROUP
[C1] [c] a group of people with the same beliefs who work together to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
the women's movement
the labour movement

Learner example:
Obviously what started some time ago as a feminist movement has now grown to the level of independence, economically and most important, socially.
moving /ˈmuː.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: movement
Verbs: move, remove Adjectives: moving

ADJECTIVE
[B2] causing strong feelings of sadness or sympathy

Dictionary example:
She read a moving speech at the funeral.

Learner example:
It was [a] really moving story.

much /mʌtʃ/

DETERMINER; PRONOUN (more, most)

A LOT OF
[C1] formal a lot of

Dictionary examples:
Much of the evidence was unreliable.
Much work remains to be done.

Learner example:
Much of the influence that people [come under] to change [their] eating habits comes from TV, [e]specially advertisements.

not much of a sth
[C1] used when you want to say that a person or thing is not a very good example of something

Dictionary examples:
I'm not much of a cook.
It's not much of a job, but it pays the bills.

Learner example:
I'm not much of a royalist but I think she's the symbol of everything that's Danish.

not be up to much
[C2] to be of bad quality

Dictionary example:
Her latest novel isn't up to much.
Learner example:
But above all, she had this extraordinary dining table, which didn't look up to much when you first walked in the room, but as you lifted the three layers of tablecloths protecting a huge piece of glass, you discovered an amazing display of objects from Alabama.

ADVERB (more, most)

OFTEN/ A LOT

[B1] used mainly in questions or negative sentences to mean often or a lot

Dictionary examples:
Do you go to London much?
I don't like curry very much.

Learner example:
I wear skirts, too, but not very much.

WITH ADJECTIVES

[B1] used before comparative adjectives such as 'better' and 'more beautiful' to mean 'a lot'

Dictionary examples:
Their old house was much bigger.
That's a much better idea.
It's a much more beautiful city.

Learner example:
This class is so much better than the old one.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>mud</th>
<th>/mʌd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: mud
Adjectives: muddy

NOUN [u]

[B2] a thick liquid mixture of soil and water, or this mixture after it has dried

Dictionary examples:
You've got mud on your shoes.
He'd been playing football and was covered in mud.

Learner example:
It may sound funny, but mud, gravel and snow lying on the school’s floors is not a nice sight, so we change our shoes without questioning that rule.
muddle /ˈmʌd.l/

Word family:
Nouns: muddle
Adjectives: muddled

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a situation of confusion or bad organization

Dictionary examples:
There was a big muddle over who was buying the tickets.
I’m in such a muddle with these bills.
Dad got into a muddle over the plans for Christmas.

Learner example:
She couldn’t make out how to get out of the muddle she was in.

VERB

get sb/sth muddled up
[C2] to think that a person or thing is someone or something else

Dictionary example:
I often get Jonathan and his brother muddled up.

muddled /ˈmʌd.ld/

Word family:
Nouns: muddle
Adjectives: muddled

ADJECTIVE
[C2] confusing and disorganized

Dictionary examples:
muddled thinking
The book’s message is hopelessly muddled.

Learner example:
Lucy is all muddled and confused.

muddy /ˈmʌd.i/

Word family:
Nouns: mud
Adjectives: muddy
ADJECTIVE
[B2] covered by or containing mud

Dictionary examples:
a muddy stream
muddy boots
You’ve made the kitchen floor all muddy.

Learner example:
I went out into the kitchen. I looked around to see if I could see him, but he was gone, only the wet, muddy footprints were left.

multiple /ˈmʌlt.ɪpl/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] with several things or parts

Dictionary examples:
multiple injuries
We made multiple copies of the report.

Learner example:
The report contains multiple errors and gives the reader a totally incorrect view of the event.

mumble /ˈmʌm.bəl/

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to speak too quietly and not clearly enough for someone to understand you

Dictionary example:
He mumbled something about it being a waste of time.

Learner example:
I started mumbling something and I could feel I was red because my cheeks were hot.

mundane /mʌn′dərn/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] ordinary, or not interesting

Dictionary example:
a mundane task/life
Lastly, it would be a good idea to travel to an island and to escape just a while from your mundane routine.

municipal /ˌmjuːˈnɪs.ɪpəl/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] relating or belonging to the government of a town or city

Dictionary examples:
municipal tennis courts
a municipal council/election

Learner example:
Another problem is that the municipal authority in the location proposed has a very negative attitude towards companies of [our] kind, imposing very high taxes.

murder /ˈmɜː.dər/

Word family:
Nouns: murder, murderer
Verbs: murder

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] ! the crime of intentionally killing a person

Dictionary examples:
to commit murder
She was charged with attempted murder.
Two sisters have been charged with murder.
a murder weapon

Learner example:
It was about a murder which had taken place on the beach.

VERB [T]

[B1] ! to kill someone intentionally and illegally

Dictionary examples:
He was murdered by a former employee.
She was accused/found guilty of murdering her husband.

Learner example:
It's about the man who murdered a lot of people.
murderer /ˈmɜːd.ə.rə/

Word family:
Nouns: murderer, murder
d
Verbs: murder

NOUN [c]
[B1] 1 someone who has committed murder

Dictionary example:
a mass murderer

Learner example:
A few weeks later the police caught the murderer of my best friend.

---

murmur /ˈmɜː.mər/

VERB [I or T]
[C2] to speak quietly so that you can only be heard by someone near you

Dictionary examples:
"Go to sleep now," she murmured.
He murmured a few words of sympathy.

Learner example:
"They're so unprofessional," he murmured to himself.

NOUN [c]
[C2] the sound of something being said quietly

Dictionary example:
I could hear the low murmur of voices from behind the door.

Learner example:
All Sandra could do was to nod every now and again to his murmurs.

---

muscle /ˈmʌs.əl/

NOUN [C or U]

IN BODY
[B2] one of many pieces of tissue in the body that are connected to bones and which produce movement by becoming longer or shorter
Dictionary examples:
neck/back/leg/stomach muscles
facial muscles
These exercises build muscle and increase stamina.

Learner example:
It tones the muscles in this area and provides us with stamina and good health.

pull a muscle
[C2] to injure a muscle by stretching it too much

Dictionary example:
I've pulled a muscle in my leg.

music /ˈmjuː.zɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: music, musical, musician
Adjectives: musical
Adverbs: musically

NOUN [u]

face the music
[C1] to accept punishment or criticism for something bad that you have done

Dictionary example:
At the end of the day I had to go home and face the music.

Learner example:
Teenagers who live with their parents have to face the music about the long bills their parents receive monthly!

musical /ˈmjuː.zɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: music, musical, musician
Adjectives: musical
Adverbs: musically

ADJECTIVE

ABILITY
[C1] good at playing music

Dictionary example:
She comes from a very musical family.
Learner example:
[These] people are very musical and, therefore, you will find folk songs and even unique dances.

NOUN [c]
[B2] a play or film in which singing and dancing tell part of the story

Dictionary examples:
a Broadway musical
A Little Night Music is one of Sondheim’s greatest musicals.

Learner example:
It is always a great opportunity to enjoy a musical when you go on holiday to London.

musically /ˈmjuː.zɪ.kl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: music, musical, musician
Adjectives: musical
Adverbs: musically

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that relates to music

Dictionary examples:
It’s a school for musically gifted children.
Musically speaking, this band has a lot of talent.

Learner example:
Not that I was musically gifted or wanted to become a pianist, it was just the fact that I loved music that led my step there.

musician /mjuːˈzɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: music, musical, musician
Adjectives: musical
Adverbs: musically

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who plays a musical instrument, often as a job

Dictionary examples:
a talented jazz/classical musician
The concert features dancers, singers and musicians of all nationalities.

Learner example:
The movie is about two musicians that had to dress like women to escape from the gangsters of Chicago.
must /ˈmʌst/

MODAL VERB

SUGGEST

[B1] used to show that you think it is a good idea for someone to do something

Dictionary examples:
You must come and stay with us some time.
We must meet for lunch.

Learner example:
You must come with me when you are in Germany.

LIKELY

[B2] used to show that you think something is very likely or certain to be true

Dictionary examples:
Harry's been driving all day – he must be tired.
It must have been very upsetting for her.
There's no food left – they must have eaten it all.
She must be very wealthy.

Learner example:
I must have been seven years old at that time.

mustard /ˈmʌstəd/

NOUN [U]

[C1] a thick, spicy yellow or brown sauce often eaten in small amounts with meat

Dictionary example:
a teaspoon of mustard

Learner example:
You just ask for what you want put in it – ham, eggs, salad, chicken, mustard, etc.

mutter /ˈmʌtər/

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to speak quietly so that your voice is difficult to hear, often when complaining about something
Dictionary examples:
He was muttering (away) to himself.
He muttered something about the restaurant being too expensive.

Learner example:
"Emile Zola is the best writer", he muttered.

mutual  /ˈmjuː.tʃu.əl/

ADJECTIVE

OPINION
[C1] When two or more people have a mutual feeling, they have the same opinion about each other.

Dictionary examples:
mutual admiration/respect
He doesn't like her, and I suspect the feeling's mutual.

Learner example:
It will hugely contribute to better understanding between the parties as well as add to a mutual respect and trust.

FRIEND/INTEREST
[C1] When two or more people have a mutual friend or interest, they have the same one.

Dictionary example:
Andrew and Jean were introduced to each other by a mutual friend.

Learner example:
They need someone who would help their dead, but still living, bodies look good and they find a victim – their mutual lover (Bruce Willis).

myself  /ˈmɑːself/

PRONOUN

EMPHASIS
[B2] used to emphasize 'I' as the subject of a sentence

Dictionary examples:
I myself don't like a heavy meal at lunchtime.
I'll tell her myself.
Learner example:
Dear editor of 'The Student Tourist Guidebook' [I am writing] regard[ing] your latest student tourist guidebook, which I myself found very useful on my latest trip to Lampton.

(all) to myself
[C1] for my use only

Dictionary examples:
I'll have the flat all to myself this weekend.
I need a couple of hours to myself.

Learner example:
This is because if I live[d] in a triple-storey [house], I would get a room all to myself.

mysterious /mɪˈstre.ri.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: mystery
Adjectives: mysterious
Adverbs: mysteriously

ADJECTIVE
[B2] strange or unknown, and not explained or understood

Dictionary examples:
a mysterious stranger
the mysterious death of her son
He died in mysterious circumstances, and there is still a possibility that it was murder.

Learner example:
He went to the Hotel because he wanted to find out who was the person that had sent him a mysterious letter a few days ago.

mysteriously /mɪˈstre.ri.əs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: mystery
Adjectives: mysterious
Adverbs: mysteriously

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is mysterious

Dictionary examples:
"Perhaps, and perhaps not," she said mysteriously.
Mysteriously, the light came on, although no one was near the switch.
Learner example:
Mysteriously, their character always dies tragically or goes abroad and [is] never seen again.

mystery /ˈmɪs.təri/

Word family:
Nouns: mystery
Adjectives: mysterious
Adverbs: mysteriously

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] something strange or unknown which has not yet been explained or understood

Dictionary examples:
an unsolved mystery
How the massive stones were brought here from hundreds of miles away remains a mystery.
He never gave up hope that he would solve the mystery of his son's disappearance.
He's out of work, so how he pays his rent is a mystery to me.

Learner example:
I have chosen this film because it has mystery in it and a lot of fun!!

myth /miθ/

NOUN

STORY
[B2] [C or U] an ancient story about gods and brave people, often one that explains an event in history or the natural world

Dictionary examples:
an ancient myths
the gods and goddesses of Greek and Roman myth

Learner example:
I spent three days there thinking about myths and legends and having a lot of fun.

FALSE IDEA
[C1] [C] an idea that is not true but is believed by many people

Dictionary example:
It's a myth that men are better drivers than women.

Learner example:
There is this myth that when you are on [holiday] you should spend your whole time at the beach, practically doing nothing.
nail /neɪl/

NOUN [C]

METAL
[B2] a thin piece of metal with a sharp end, used to join pieces of wood together

Dictionary examples:
a three-inch nail
I stepped on a nail sticking out of the floorboards.
Hammer a nail into the wall and we'll hang the mirror from it.

Learner example:
Sometimes in food given to animals by visitors you can find pieces of glass, nails or even poison.

BODY PART
[B2] the hard surface at the end of your fingers and toes

Dictionary examples:
Stop biting your nails!
nail clippers
a nail file

Learner example:
She went to the hairdresser to have her hair cut, to the nails shop to have her nails done and finally she made her face up.

naive /narˈiːv/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If someone is naive, they believe things too easily and do not have enough experience of the world.

Dictionary example:
I was much younger then, and very naive.

Learner example:
It might sound a bit idealistic and naive, but I think this concept of communication will make the world a better place.
naked ˈneɪ.kɪd/

ADJECTIVE

NO CLOTHES
[B2] not wearing clothes

Dictionary examples:
a naked man
naked bodies
He was naked to the waist.
The children were half naked.

Learner example:
I cried out in anger and that was a mistake, because the girls turned around and looked at me, standing there naked.

NOT HIDDEN
[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] A naked feeling or quality is not hidden, although it is bad.

Dictionary example:
naked aggression

Learner example:
This programme presents the naked truth about Brazil, this so called "Tropical Paradise".

the naked eye
[C2] If something can be seen by the naked eye, it is big enough to be seen without special equipment.

Dictionary example:
These bugs are so tiny you cannot see them with the naked eye.

name ˈneɪm/

Word family:
Nouns: name
Verbs: name
Adverbs: namely

NOUN

REPUTATION
[B2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] the reputation that someone or something has
Dictionary examples:
She went to court to clear her name.
Their actions gave British football a bad name in Europe at that time.
They’re trying to restore the good name of the manufacturer.

Learner example:
He’s the only one concerned about the good name of the family.

in the name of sth
[C2] If bad things are done in the name of something, they are done in order to help that thing succeed.

Dictionary example:
So much blood has been spilt in the name of religion.

Learner example:
Recently, a Swedish priest compared homosexuality to cancer, and he did it in the name of religion.

make a name for yourself
[C2] to become famous or respected by a lot of people

Dictionary example:
He’s been trying to make a name for himself in the music business.

Learner example:
Secondly, only [a] few sportsmen and sportswomen manage to make a name for themselves and get to the top.

call sb names
[C2] to use impolite or unpleasant words to describe someone

Dictionary example:
He said the other children were calling him names.

Learner example:
He had never called me names or told me off.

as the/its name implies
[C2] used to show that the name of something tells you something about it

Dictionary example:
The Long Room, as its name implies, runs the entire length of the house.

Learner example:
Sour Sweet, as the name implies, is originally a Chinese restaurant.

VERB [T]

GIVE NAME
[B1] to give someone or something a name
Dictionary examples:
We named our dogs 'Shandy' and 'Belle'.
A man named Dennis answered the door.

Learner example:
She is named Maryam.

SAY WHAT NAME IS
[B1] to say what something's or someone's name is

Dictionary examples:
In the first question you had to name three types of monkey.
He couldn't name his attacker.

Learner example:
Not only "Tandoori dishes" but all the [dishes] are tasty, to name some there [are] Chinese, North Indian, and many others.

CHOOSE
[B2] to choose someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Just name the time and the place and I'll be there.
Name your conditions/terms/price.
Ms Martinez has been named (as) the new Democratic candidate.

Learner example:
He has [been] named as the best Latin singer and he has [won] two Grammys.

you name it
[C2] something that you say which means anything you say or choose

Dictionary example:
I've never seen such a wide selection. You name it, they've got it.

Learner example:
Courses vary from languages, management, computer- related fields to fitness, yoga, karate classes [and] all [the] different hobbies you might be interested in such as painting on silk or on wood, pottery, carving and the like. You name it, they have it at ECM.

dictons dictionary dictionaries
dictionaries

\[namely\] /ˈneɪm.li/

Word family:
Nouns: name
Verbs: name
Adverbs: namely

ADVERB
[C1] used when you are going to give more detail about something you have just said
Dictionary example:
She learned an important lesson from failing that exam, namely that nothing is ever certain.

Learner example:
This network is used by the four most used means of transport in our city (namely, bus, car, bicycle and motorcycle) and has been plagued by problems such as potholes, poor drainage and poor use (or lack!) of traffic signs.

nap /næp/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a short sleep

Dictionary example:
He likes to have/take a nap after lunch.

Learner example:
He usually takes a nap after lunch and at night goes to bed about 10.00 p.m.

narrative /ˈnær.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: narrative, narrator

NOUN [C] FORMAL
[C2] a story or description of a series of events

Dictionary example:
It's a moving narrative of wartime adventure.

Learner example:
It is a happy ending, however, only because the narrative stops at this point.

narrator /nəˈrɛr.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: narrative, narrator

NOUN [C]
[C2] the person who tells the story in a book, film, play, etc.

Dictionary example:
The narrator is a fisherman.

Learner example:
Leo Colston is the narrator and chief character through whose eyes we dive into the story.
Word family:
Verbs: narrow
Adjectives: narrow
Adverbs: narrowly

ADJECTIVE

NOT WIDE

[B1] Narrow things measure a small distance from one side to the other.

Dictionary examples:
- narrow streets
- a narrow bridge/passage/gap
- a narrow face
- narrow feet

Learner example:
You will also see narrow streets with pubs and small cafes everywhere.

LIMITED

[C2] limited to a small area of interest, activity or thought

Dictionary examples:
- He has narrow interests.
- It was regarded as a very narrow interpretation of the law.

Learner example:
People leave home with a narrow outlook and it doesn't seem to broaden.

a narrow escape

[C2] If you have a narrow escape, you only just avoid danger.

Dictionary example:
- He had a narrow escape when a falling tree crushed his car.

Learner example:
- Ralph will have a narrow escape: he is saved by the arrival of a ship which has at last come to rescue them all.

VERB

MAKE SMALLER

[C1] to become less wide or to make something less wide

Dictionary examples:
- The road has been narrowed to one lane.
- His eyes narrowed angrily.
Learner example:
Driving as well as parking has become a difficult task in Copenhagen City as the City Council [has] over the last [few] years deliberately cut down the numbers of parking places, raised the fees and narrowed the roads and streets.

BECOME LESS

[C2] to become less or to make something become less

Dictionary example:
to narrow the gap between rich and poor

Learner example:
I tend to believe that every country should join together, as only by discussing and sorting out some measures will [we] be able to narrow the gap that nowadays exists among countries all over the world.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>narrowly</th>
<th>/ˈnær.əʊ.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Verbs: narrow
Adjectives: narrow
Adverbs: narrowly

ADVERB

[B2] only by a small amount

Dictionary examples:
He narrowly escaped death in the accident.
She narrowly missed winning an Oscar.

Learner example:
They narrowly escaped crash[ing] with the car in [the]opposite lane.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>narrowly minded</th>
<th>/ˌnær.əʊˈmaɪnd.dɪd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not willing to accept new ideas or opinions different from your own

Dictionary example:
My family are very narrow-minded.

Learner example:
He is a bit narrow-minded and at first he'll drive you crazy but once you get to know him, he'll be good company.
nasty /ˈnaː.sti/

ADJECTIVE

BAD

[B1] bad or unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
a nasty shock/surprise
There's a nasty smell in here.
He had a nasty cut above the eye.
She has a nasty habit of picking on people in meetings.

Learner example:
Inside there were three samples of a nasty purple liquid.

UNKIND

[B1] unkind

Dictionary example:
Don't be so nasty to your brother – he's four years younger than you!

Learner example:
I though that it was a nasty joke made by a friend, but the ad[d]ress of the sender did not match with any that I knew.

ANGRY

[B2] very angry or violent

Dictionary example:
When I asked for the money, he turned really nasty.

Learner example:
He can sometimes be very nasty and say and do horrible things on and [off] the pitch.

nation /ˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: nation, nationality
Adjectives: national

NOUN [C]

[B2] a country or the people living in a country

Dictionary examples:
the industrial nations
All the nations of the world will be represented at the conference.
Practically the whole nation watched the ceremony on television.
Learner example:
At that time, everyone should have devoted their life to the nation.

nationwide /ˌneɪ.ʃənˈwʌrd/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] existing or happening in all parts of a particular country

Dictionary examples:
a nationwide network/chain of shops
a nationwide survey

Learner example:
The nationwide blackout was the first in the past decade.

ADVERB
[B2] in all parts of a country

Dictionary example:
Schools nationwide are experiencing a shortage of teachers.

Learner example:
On Thursday, Friday or Saturday you could visit the annual festival, which is well-known nationwide for the music, costumes and dance of the local people.

native /ˈneɪ.tɪv/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

PLACE BORN
[B2] Your native town or country is the place where you were born.

Dictionary examples:
She returned to live and work in her native Japan.
She’s a native Californian.

Learner example:
I am good, because in my native country, Austria, I worked in a cinema.

your native language/tongue
[B2] the first language that you learn

Dictionary example:
French is his native tongue.
Learner example:
My native language is Russian but I speak English fluently and I have been learning Latin for two years.

FIRST PEOPLE
[B2] relating to the first people to live in an area

Dictionary examples:
The Aborigines are the native inhabitants of Australia.
the native population native customs and traditions

Learner example:
I am very happy to tell you about my trip to the Amazon forest native inhabitants museum.

ANIMALS AND PLANTS
[C2] Native animals or plants live or grow naturally in a place, and have not been brought from somewhere else.

Dictionary example:
a large bird native to Europe native speaker /ˌneɪ.tɪvˈspiː.kə/

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who has spoken a particular language since they were a baby, rather than having learnt it as a child or adult

Dictionary examples:
All our teachers are native speakers of English.
a native-speaker dictionary

Learner example:
My knowledge in foreign languages has to get better and the best way to do [that] is to get in contact with native speakers.

natural /ˈnætʃ.ər.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: nature
Adjectives: natural, unnatural
Adverbs: naturally
ADJECTIVE

NOT ARTIFICIAL

[B1] Something that is natural exists or happens because of nature, not because it was made or done by people.

Dictionary examples:
natural ingredients
a natural substance
He died from natural causes.
Floods and earthquakes are natural disasters.
People say that breast-feeding is better than bottle-feeding because it's more natural.

Learner example:
We have wonderful beaches full of natural beauty.

EXPECTED

[B2] normal or expected

Dictionary examples:
Of course you're upset – it's only natural.
It's natural that you should feel anxious when you first leave home.
It's quite natural to experience a few doubts just before you get married.

Learner example:
So, of course, it was quite a natural thing for me to learn [to driv[e] a car as early as possible, and that was at the age of 18 when one could apply for a driving licence.

FROM BIRTH

[C1] If you have a natural characteristic, it is something you have been born with.

Dictionary examples:
a natural talent
She's a natural athlete/blonde.

Learner example:
Also my natural talent for entertaining people together with my past experience should be very useful working at [the] new theme park.

naturally /ˈnætʃ.rəli/

Word family:
Nouns: nature
Adjectives: natural, unnatural
Adverbs: naturally
ADVERB

AS EXPECTED

[B2] as you would expect

Dictionary example:
Naturally, he was very disappointed.

Learner example:
Naturally we had to take his word for it.

NORMALLY

[B2] in a normal way

Dictionary example:
Relax and try to behave naturally.

Learner example:
As a result they can't behave naturally at all and become sick.

LIFE

[C1] happening or existing as part of nature and not made or done by people

Dictionary examples:
A healthy body will be able to fight off the illness naturally without the use of medicine.
He has naturally blonde hair.

Learner example:
Sometimes people say women are naturally stronger than men.

FROM BIRTH

[C2] having been born with a characteristic

Dictionary example:
naturally aggressive/funny/slim

Learner example:
Clarisse McClellan is a spontaneous and naturally curious teenager who even enjoys simple things.

nature /ˈneɪ.tʃə/
NOUN

CHARACTER
[B2] [c or u] someone's character

Dictionary examples:
As a child Juliana had a lovely nature – everyone liked her.
It's not really in her nature to be aggressive.
He is by nature inclined to be rather lazy.

Learner example:
Jane wasn't very suspicious by nature, but there was something weird in that.

TYPE
[C1] [NO PLURAL] FORMAL type

Dictionary examples:
What exactly is the nature of your business?
I don't like hunting and things of that nature.

Learner example:
He claims that he did not improve his English because of the nature of the job.

naughty /ˈnɔː.ti/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] When children are naughty, or their behaviour is naughty, they behave badly.

Dictionary examples:
You naughty boy!
Now that's naughty – you mustn't throw food on the floor!
Our boss treats us all like naughty schoolchildren.

Learner example:
But some naughty students in my class were throwing paper aeroplanes when the teacher was writing something on the board.

naval /ˈner.vəl/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] relating to the navy

Dictionary example:
a naval base/officer

Learner example:
It is irrefutable that naval areas are in most cases abandoned by their governments.
navy  /ˈneɪ.ví/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
[B2] The part of a country's armed forces which is trained to operate at sea

Dictionary examples:
My brother is an officer in the Navy.
Gabriel joined the navy in 1997.
a navy ship/vessel

Learner example:
Best of all, not only am I familiar [with the] life-style on a ship but I also know a lot of things about ship[s] because I was in the navy.

navy blue  /ˌneɪ.víˈbluː/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] Very dark blue

Dictionary example:
He was wearing a navy blue sweater.

Learner example:
I think I will buy [a] navy blue carpet and black and blue furniture.

near  /nɪər/

PREPOSITION

TIME
[B2] Close in time

Dictionary examples:
He arrived near the end of the lesson.
It was nearer four when we finally arrived.
We can decide which route to take nearer the time.

nowhere near
[C1] Not close in distance, time, amount or quality

Dictionary examples:
The house was nowhere near the sea.
It's nowhere near time for us to leave yet.
I'm nowhere near finishing the book – I'm only half-way through it.
He's nowhere near as tall as his sister.

1910
Learner example:
Although people are well aware of the current situation in Switzerland, they prefer looking at other countries and comparing us to them (we are nowhere near as fat as them).

anywhere near sth
[C1] used in questions and negatives to mean 'close to being or doing something'

Dictionary example:
The house isn't anywhere near ready.

Learner example:
We could not have gone anywhere near 5000 miles because all our minibuses were broken down – we even stayed in one place for 8 days.

CONDITION
[C2] almost in a particular state or condition

Dictionary examples:
The runners looked near exhaustion.
I was near (to) tears at one point during the film.
This is the nearest I've ever got to winning anything.
He came near to punching him.

Learner example:
It is strictly related to the fact that the old possess a vast amount of experience and are nearer to death.

ADVERB

DISTANCE
[B1] close in distance

Dictionary examples:
I was standing just near enough to hear what they were saying.
Don't come any nearer.

Learner example:
And they are getting nearer, I must run for my life.

TIME
[B2] close in time

Dictionary examples:
Her birthday was getting nearer and I still hadn't bought her a present.
As the date of his operation drew near, he became more and more anxious.

Learner example:
I would appreciate very much if you could reply as soon as possible, as the school holiday is drawing near.
ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

DISTANCE

[B1] close in distance

Dictionary example:
Where's the nearest post office?

Learner example:
Dear Dan, My friends and I have decided to go to the nearest cinema, the one which is in The Mall, three blocks from here.

in the near future

[B2] at a time that is not far away

Dictionary example:
Space travel may become very common in the near future.

Learner example:
I look forward to receiving your reply in the near future.

CHARACTERISTIC

[C2] similar in characteristics or quality

Dictionary examples:
My pocket knife is the nearest to a weapon that I have.
I couldn't get any cream cheese so I bought the nearest equivalent that I could find.

nearby /ˌnɪəˈbaɪ/

ADVERB

[B1] not far away

Dictionary examples:
If there's a cafe nearby, we could stop for a snack.
I noticed a policeman standing nearby.

Learner example:
We can go swimming, [and] visit some of the beautiful castles nearby.

ADJECTIVE

[B1] not far away

Dictionary example:
We stopped at some nearby shops to buy some food.

Learner example:
The nearby towns are lovely, very calm.
nearly /ˈnɪə.li/

ADVERB

not nearly (as/so)
[C1] a lot less

Dictionary examples:
It's not nearly as expensive as I thought.
There are not nearly enough jobs to go round.

Learner example:
However this is not nearly enough, since we are restricted when it comes to us[ing] nuclear power [and] there is always a constant search for other energy sources.

---

neat /niːt/

Word family:
Adjectives: neat
Adverbs: neatly

ADJECTIVE

TIDY
[B1] tidy and clean

Dictionary examples:
Your house is always so neat – how do you manage it with three children?
She likes everything neat and tidy.
You’ve got such neat handwriting.

Learner example:
I always go to this restaurant because it’s neat and clean.

---

neatly /ˈniːt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: neat
Adverbs: neatly

ADVERB

[C1] in a tidy way

Dictionary examples:
neatly dressed
a neatly folded pile of clothes
Learner example:
The performers are all neatly dressed.

necessarily /ˈnes.əˈser.ɪl.i/

Word family:

Nouns: necessity

Adjectives: necessary, unnecessary

Adverbs: necessarily, unnecessarily

ADJECTIVE

[B1] needed in order to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
If necessary, we can change the dates of our trip.
We don't want to take any more luggage with us than is necessary.
I won't stay any longer than necessary.
He lacks the necessary skills for the job.
Is it necessary to give so much detail?

Learner example:
If necessary, please contact me on my business e-mail address.

ADVERB

[B2] used in negatives to mean 'in every case' or 'therefore'

Dictionary examples:
That's not necessarily true.
The fact that something is cheap doesn't necessarily mean it's of low quality.
You may love someone without necessarily wanting to marry them.

Learner example:
The most important point in a job interview is to give a good impression, which does not necessarily mean how you look.
necessity /nəˈses.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: necessity
Adjectives: necessary, unnecessary
Adverbs: necessarily, unnecessarily

NOUN

NEED

[C1] [u] the need for something

Dictionary examples:
There's no financial necessity for her to work.
Sewing is something I do out of necessity, not for pleasure.

Learner example:
Therefore, the most important lesson to learn is to acknowledge the necessity of education and the struggle to make it happen.

SOMETHING NEEDED

[C1] [c] something you need

Dictionary example:
Most people seem to consider a car a necessity, not a luxury.

Learner example:
Mobile phones first appeared as a necessity in worldwide communications because, as the different business domains began to expand, the need for information and detailed facts about numerous aspects have emerged.

neck /nek/

NOUN [c]

be a pain in the neck INFORMAL

[C1] to be annoying

Dictionary example:
My brother can be a real pain in the neck sometimes.

Learner example:
He's adorable although sometimes he can really be a pain in the neck (don't tell him I wrote this.)

PART OF CLOTHING

[C2] the part of a piece of clothing that goes around your neck

Dictionary example:
a polo-neck/V-neck jumper
Learner example:
When she was walking down the street feeling elated by the success of the business meeting, a gorgeous thirtyish man wearing a beige polo neck swiftly approached and turned towards her and smiled, revealing strong white teeth.

neck and neck
[C2] If two people who are competing are neck and neck, they are very close and either of them could win.

Dictionary example:
The two runners were neck and neck coming into the last lap.

Learner example:
It was a really neck and neck match that took my breath away every second.

need /niːd/

Word family:
Nouns: need
Verbs: need
Adjectives: needless

VERB [T]

MUST BE DONE
[B1] If something needs something to be done to it, that thing should be done in order to improve it.

Dictionary examples:
The car needs to be serviced.
This room needs brightening up a bit.
She needs her hair washing.

Learner example:
It is so beautiful but it needs washing all the time.

There needs to be sth
[C2] used to say that something is necessary

Dictionary example:
There needs to be more funding for education in this country.

Learner example:
Secondly, there needs to be a proper choice of subjects taught, because what we should get in the end is a versatile person, not just some maths or literature freak who is not interested in anything else.
NECESSARY THING

[B2] [NO PLURAL] something that is necessary to have or do

Dictionary examples:
There's a growing need for cheap housing in the larger cities.
Is there any need to change the current system?

Learner example:
In conclusion, I believe that human beings will always have the need for knowledge and entertainment at the same time.

no need

[B2] If there is no need to do something or no need for something, it is not necessary or it is wrong.

Dictionary examples:
There's no need to go to the shops – there's plenty of food in the fridge.
I understand why she was angry but there was no need for that kind of language.
There's no need to shout, for goodness' sake! Just calm down.

Learner example:
He told me that I could trust him with the ticket and that there was no need for me to take it home.

be in need of sth

[B2] to need something

Dictionary example:
My car's in desperate need of repair.

Learner example:
He is also constantly in need of money.

needs

[B2] the things you need in order to have a good life

Dictionary examples:
her emotional needs
The city is struggling to meet the needs of its homeless people.

Learner example:
I love swimming and cycling and that is why I want to ask if there are any facilities that could suit my needs?
needle /ˈniː.dəl/

NOUN [C]

SEWING
[B2] a thin, pointed metal object with a small hole at one end for thread, used in sewing

Dictionary example:
a needle and thread

Learner example:
It was impossible for me to open the door, it was like [thread]ing a needle with gloves [on].

MEDICAL
[C2] the thin, sharp, metal part of a piece of medical equipment used to take blood out of the body or to put a liquid or medicine in

Dictionary example:
He fainted at the sight of the needle.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, for all the side effects they may have, for all the unpleas[ant]ness of having a needle stuck in your arm or a spoonful of foul–tasting liquid stuck in your mouth, antibiotics and vaccines remain the greatest discovery in the history of the world.

thread a needle
[C2] to push thread through the hole in a needle

Dictionary example:
Could you thread this needle for me, please?

needless /ˈniː.d.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: need
Verbs: need
Adjectives: needless

ADJECTIVE

needless to say
[C1] as you would expect

Dictionary example:
Needless to say, it rained the whole time we were there.

Learner example:
Needless to say, bribes are a frequent occur[r]ence.
[C2] not necessary

Dictionary examples:
- a needless expense
- needless worrying

Learner example:
They not only go out and buy totally needless things but they even forget to save up for emergencies or the proverbial "rainy days".

negative /ˈneg.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Adjectives: negative
Adverbs: negatively

ADJECTIVE

NO ENTHUSIASM
[B1] not having enthusiasm or positive opinions about something

Dictionary examples:
- negative feelings
  Many people have a negative attitude towards ageing.
  You’re so negative about everything!

Learner example:
At the same time there were no negative opinions about the service from the visitors [to] "Fine food".

BAD
[B2] A negative effect is bad and causes damage to something.

Dictionary example:
Terrorist threats have had a very negative effect/impact on tourism.

Learner example:
Even if it provides a lot of advantages, this revolution in the world of communication [also] has a negative impact on our society.

NO
[B2] expressing the answer no

Dictionary example:
We received a negative answer to our request.

Learner example:
Museums are the best example to show how life was in the past but when you ask teenagers [whether] they have been in a museum you will get a negative answer.
negatively /ˈneg.ə.tɪv.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: negative
Adverbs: negatively

ADVERB

[B2] with a bad effect

Dictionary example:
They were very negatively affected by the changes.

Learner example:
Despite the huge facilities, technology has affected our lives negatively.

neglect /nɪˈglekt/

Word family:
Nouns: negligence
Verbs: neglect
Adjectives: negligent

VERB [T]

NOT GIVE ATTENTION

[C1] to not give enough care or attention to something or someone

Dictionary examples:
to neglect your appearance
Some of these kids have been badly neglected in the past.

Learner example:
Is sport neglected by young people nowadays?

neglect to do sth

[C2] to not do something, often intentionally

Dictionary example:
He neglected to mention the fact that we could lose money on the deal.

Learner example:
Our colleagues at the museum apparently neglected to notify us.

NOUN [U]

[C1] when you do not give enough care or attention to something or someone

Dictionary example: to suffer years of neglect
Learner example:
First of all, concerning the coaches, all I can say is that they were in a complete state of neglect.

negligence /ˈneg.ɪ̅.lɪ̅.dʒəns/
Word family:
Nouns: negligence
Verbs: neglect
Adjectives: negligent

NOUN [u]
[C2] when you are not careful enough in something you do, especially in a job where your actions affect other people

Dictionary example:
Her parents plan to sue the surgeon for medical negligence.

Learner example:
Despite this situation of state negligence, bad laws and scarce funding, sports have managed to survive the harsh years of transition and most importantly people have not lost their interest in sports.

negligent /ˈneg.ɪ̅.lɪ̅.dʒənt/
Word family:
Nouns: negligence
Verbs: neglect
Adjectives: negligent

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not giving enough care or attention to a job or activity, especially where your actions affect someone else

Dictionary example:
The report found him negligent in his duties.

Learner example:
According to the research, a lot of people find it more difficult to go back to work after [the] holidays and tend to be more lax and negligent at work for the first few days.

negligible /ˈneg.ɪ̅.lɪ̅.dʒə.bl/
ADJECTIVE
[C2] small and not important

1921
Dictionary example:
a negligible effect/result

Learner example:
The damage that the developing world is causing to the environment is almost negligible compared to the damage caused by the industrialised world.

---

negotiate /nɪˈɡəʊ.ʃi.ət/

Word family:
- Nouns: negotiation
- Verbs: negotiate

VERB
[C1][I or T] to try to make or change an agreement by discussion

Dictionary example:
to negotiate with employers about working conditions

Learner example:
You should also negotiate the best terms for our client.

---

negotiation /nɪˈɡəʊ.ʃiˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: negotiation
- Verbs: negotiate

NOUN [C]
[C1] when people try to make or change an agreement by discussion

Dictionary example:
Peace negotiations are due to start.

Learner example:
The classes on different subjects connected with the practice of our work equipped us with essential techniques in business negotiations.

---

neighbour /ˈner.bər/

Word family:
- Nouns: neighbour, neighbourhood
- Adjectives: neighbouring
NOUN [C]

BEING NEAR

[B2] someone or something that is near or next to someone or something else

Dictionary examples:
The French make more films than some of their European neighbours.
Take 5 minutes to discuss this with your neighbour.

Learner example:
As a neighbour of Lithuania and Ukraine we had to learn [the] Russian language.

neighbourhood /ˈneɪ.bə.hʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: neighbour, neighbourhood
Adjectives: neighbouring

NOUN [C]

[B1] an area of a town or city that people live in

Dictionary examples:
There were lots of kids in my neighbourhood when I was growing up.
They live in a very well-off neighbourhood.

Learner example:
The place I’m staying in is wonderful, [and] the whole neighbourhood is wonderful.

neighbouring /ˈneɪ.bər.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: neighbour, neighbourhood
Adjectives: neighbouring

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] near or next to somewhere

Dictionary examples:
neighbouring countries/states
She married a man from the neighbouring village.

Learner example:
We have to do concerts in the neighbouring towns.
neither  /ˈnɛə.ðə/

ADVERB
[B2] used to say that a negative fact is also true of someone or something else

Dictionary examples:
Jerry doesn't like it, and neither do I.
Her family wouldn't help her and neither would anyone else.
She's not very tall and neither is her husband.

Learner example:
Of course, she never thought those would be the lucky numbers and neither did her husband, so he forgot to ask her about the ticket later.

PRONOUN; DETERMINER
[B2] not either of two people or things

Dictionary examples:
Luckily, neither child was hurt in the accident.
Neither of us had ever been to London before.
They gave us two keys, but neither worked.
"Which one would you choose?" "Neither."

Learner example:
Three years ago, when I was in Japan, my parents were both working and neither of them were at home by the time I got back from school.

CONJUNCTION

neither ... nor
[B2] used when a negative fact is true of two people or things or when someone or something does not have either of two qualities

Dictionary examples:
Neither he nor his mother would talk to the police.
Their performance was neither entertaining nor educational.

Learner example:
I was just having a bath when the lights went out. [...] No lights at all, neither the cooker nor the fridge were working in my flat, so what had happened?

nephew  /ˈnef.juː/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a son of your sister or brother, or a son of the sister or brother of your husband or wife
Dictionary example:
My nephew is 21 today.

Learner example:
I went with my husband, my two sisters and some nieces and nephews.

nerve /ˈnɜːv/

Word family:
Nouns: nerves, nerve, nervousness
Adjectives: nervous
Adverbs: nervously

NOUN

nerves
[C1] worry or anxiety about something that is going to happen

Dictionary examples:
I sometimes suffer from nerves when I'm speaking in public.
I need something to calm my nerves.

Learner example:
You might feel you need it to calm your nerves, but for obvious reasons (the law) it is better not to.

get on sb's nerves
[C1] to annoy someone, especially by doing something again and again

Dictionary example:
Please stop making that noise! It really gets on my nerves.

Learner example:
My neighbour is always quarrelling with his wife. It's getting on my nerves!

PART OF THE BODY
[C2] [c] one of the threads in your body which carry messages between your brain and other parts of the body

Dictionary examples:
the optic nerve nerve cells/endings

Learner example:
At the end, give him 3 pills, one for the high blood pressure, another for the heart and the last one for nerve problems.

RUDENESS
[C2] [NO PLURAL] the rudeness necessary to do something you know will upset someone
Dictionary examples:
You’ve got a nerve, coming here!
I can’t believe she had the nerve to talk to me after what happened.

Learner example:
When I advi[s]ed him not to drive so fast because I didn’t wanted to get myself killed, he had the nerve to say "Don’t get your knickers in a twist, mam."

BEING BRAVE
[C2] [NO PLURAL] the quality of being brave

Dictionary examples:
I haven’t got the nerve to tell him I’m leaving.
He lost his nerve and couldn’t go through with it.

Learner example:
She just never had the nerve to leave everything behind.

hit/strike/touch a (raw) nerve [C2] to upset someone by talking about a particular subject

Dictionary example:
By the look on her face, he really hit a nerve with that last remark.

Learner example:
Some of your articles strike a very sensitive nerve in my opinion.

nerves /nɜːvz/

Word family:
Nouns: nerves, nerve, nervousness
Adjectives: nervous
Adverbs: nervously

NOUN [PLURAL]

NERVOUS
[B2] the state of being nervous

Dictionary examples:
I always suffer from nerves before a match.
I need something to calm my nerves.

Learner example:
I had to calm my nerves.

steady/strong nerves
[B2] the ability to be calm in difficult situations

Dictionary example:
You need a cool head and steady nerves for this job.
Learner example:
I know very well you have steady nerves but what is strong can become weak as well.

get on sb’s nerves
[B2] to annoy someone, especially by doing something again and again

Dictionary example:
If we spend too much time together, we end up getting on each other’s nerves.

Learner example:
Sometimes, receiving a phone call can disturb very important events in [a person's] life, but [it] also get[s] on people’s nerves when you use it in a public place like a train...

---

nervous /ˈnɜːvəs/

Word family:
Nouns: nerves, nerve, nervousness
Adjectives: nervous
Adverbs: nervously

ADJECTIVE
[B1] worried or anxious

Dictionary examples:
He gets very nervous before exams.
I was too nervous to speak.
I was very nervous about driving again after the accident.
She's always been nervous around dogs.
a nervous cough/laugh

Learner example:
I'm a little nervous because of that.

---

nervously /ˈnɜːvəs.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: nerves, nerve, nervousness
Adjectives: nervous
Adverbs: nervously

ADVERB
[B2] in a worried and anxious way

Dictionary example:
to giggle/laugh nervously

Learner example:
As always the girls sat down in the fifth row and waited nervously for the event to begin.
nervousness  /ˈnɜː.vəs.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: nerves, nerve, nervousness
Adjectives: nervous
Adverbs: nervously

NOUN [u]
[C1] the state of being nervous

Dictionary example:
Her nervousness was obvious when she spoke.

Learner example:
Remember, by and large, failures are sparked off by nervousness.

nest /nest/

NOUN [c]

BIRDS
[C2] a home built by birds for their eggs and by some other creatures to live in

Dictionary example:
a birds'/wasps' nest

Learner example:
The very rare 'Cove Owl' has chosen one of the empty tree trunks by the pond to build his nest.

a nest egg
[C2] a sum of money that has been saved or kept for a specific purpose

Dictionary example:
She used her nest egg to buy a really good piano.

Learner example:
She was the only heir of a rich family and her husband, who died ten years ago, left her a sizeable nest egg.

VERB [i]
[C2] to live in a nest or build a nest

Dictionary example:
There are birds nesting under the roof.

Learner example:
If you stroll along the path on a Sunday morning, you can see robins nesting in the old honeysuckle bush.
net /net/

NOUN

OBJECT

[B1] [c] an object that has many holes in it and that is used in many sports and for catching fish

Dictionary examples:
- a fishing net
- a tennis/basketball net

His penalty kick placed the ball firmly in the back of the net.

Learner example:
I have the advantage of being quite tall and therefore I prefer to play at the net.

network /ˈnet.wɜːk/

NOUN [C]

CONNECTED PARTS

[B2] a system or group of connected parts

Dictionary examples:
- a road/rail network

Massive investment is needed to modernise the country's telephone network.

We could reduce our costs by developing a more efficient distribution network.

- a network of spies/a spy network

Learner example:
Switzerland is a safe, small and beautiful country [that is] perfect to travel [in], because of the best public transport network in the world.

COMPUTERS

[B2] a set of computers that are connected to each other

Dictionary example:
All our offices are on the same network.

Learner example:
[In the future,] the fridge, the television, the stove and the Hi-Fi equipment will be attached to a computer network.

PEOPLE

[C1] a group of people who know each other or who work together

Dictionary example:
a large network of friends
Learner example:
It is quite easy to build a network of friends worldwide when travelling abroad.

COMPANY
[C1] a large television or radio company that broadcasts programs in many areas

Dictionary example:
She worked for the network for more than 10 years.

Learner example:
So the Swiss television network decided to produce a Swiss soap opera.

PEOPLE
[C1] a group of people who know each other or who work together

Dictionary example:
a large network of friends

Learner example:
It is quite easy to build a network of friends worldwide when traveling abroad.

networking /ˈnet.wɜː.kɪŋ/

NOUN [u]
[C1] the activity of meeting and contacting people who might be useful to know, especially for your job

Dictionary example:
I often go to networking events.

Learner example:
I am sure there are many other benefits working can bring to us, apart from the enjoyment, networking, etc. that I have mentioned above, and of course the money it makes.

neutral /ˈnjuː.trəl/

ADJECTIVE

INDEPENDENT
[C1] independent and not supporting any side in an argument, fight, or competition

Dictionary examples:
neutral ground/territory
He decided to remain/stay neutral on the issue.
Learner example:
Thus, its main advantage is that the information you get is not provided by a company or something like that but by a neutral person.

COLOUR
[C1] Neutral colours are not strong or bright.

Dictionary example:
Try neutral creams and greys.

Learner example:
Throughout the house the carpets are brand new and lovely neutral colours.

never /ˈnev.ər/

ADVERB

NOT
[B2] used to emphasize something negative

Dictionary example:
I never knew you lived around here.

Learner example:
I never knew what happened after I left.

never-ending /ˌnev.ərˈend.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If something is never-ending, it continues for ever.

Dictionary example:
The housework in this place is just never-ending.

Learner example:
We are often forced to study till about thirty years of age, and it really appears to be [a] never-ending story.

nevertheless /ˌnev.ə.ðəˈles/

ADVERB
[B2] despite that

Dictionary example:
I knew a lot about the subject already, but her talk was interesting nevertheless.
Learner example:
Both the options you gave seem very interesting. Nevertheless, I get the impression that working with animals is much more fun, don't you think?

new /njuː/

Word family:
Nouns: news
Adjectives: new
Adverbs: newly

ADJECTIVE

NOT FAMILIAR
[B1] not yet familiar or experienced

Dictionary examples:
I'm new to the area.
She's new to the job so you can't expect her to know everything yet.
New staff are given training.

Learner example:
I met a guy called Marc [who] is pretty cool. He is also new to the club.

new blood
[C1] new people in an organization who will provide new ideas and energy

Dictionary example:
We need some new blood in the organization.

Learner example:
It will give new opportunities to new generations and thus will [provide] new blood in the different organisations.

turn over a new leaf
[C2] to start to behave in a better way

Dictionary example:
I'm not drinking any more – I've turned over a new leaf.

Learner example:
She promised to turn over a new leaf.

break new ground
[C2] to do something that is different to anything that has been done before

Dictionary example:
Their research is really breaking new ground.

Learner example:
Paul decided to break new ground in music no matter how long it took.

1932 newly /ˈnjuː.li/

Word family:
Nouns: news
Adjectives: new Adverbs: newly

ADVERB
[B2] recently

Dictionary examples:
the newly formed residents’ association
Newly-discovered documents cast doubt on the guilt of the two men.

Learner example:
The book is about a newly qualified doctor, Andrew Manson, who starts his career [in] a small town.

news /njuːz/

Word family:
Nouns: news
Adjectives: new Adverbs: newly

NOUN [U]

the news
[B1] the announcement of important events on television, radio, and in newspapers

Dictionary examples:
It was on the 6 o’clock news.
I usually listen to/watch the 9 o’clock news.

Learner example:
It’ll be shown next Thursday, just after the news.

be bad/good news for sb
[C1] to affect someone badly/well

Dictionary example:
This weather is bad news for farmers.

Learner example:
Focusing now on Kavanagh Catering Services, it could be said that for them price is [the] main variable – obviously this [is] good news for students.

be news to sb INFORMAL [C2] to be a surprise to someone
Dictionary example:
He's leaving? Well that's certainly news to me.

break the news to sb
[C2] to tell someone about something unpleasant that has happened

Dictionary example:
Who's going to break the news to his wife?

Learner example:
She broke the news to his wife Helen.

newsletter /ˈnjuːzˌletər/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a regular report with information for people who belong to an organization or who are interested in a particular subject

Dictionary example:
a monthly newsletter about business and the environment

Learner example:
And if you decide to use our newsletter service, you'll always be up-to-date.

next /nekst/

ADJECTIVE

the next best thing
[C1] the thing that is best, if you cannot have or do the thing you really want

Dictionary example:
Coaching football is the next best thing to playing.

Learner example:
For many working people, there is hardly time to cook and prepare your dinner, so the next best thing is to rush into a Macdonalds' or Burger King.

the next thing I knew
[C2] used to talk about part of a story that happens in a sudden and surprising way

Dictionary example:
A car came speeding round the corner, and the next thing I knew I was lying on the ground.

Learner example:
And the next thing I knew was that I was playing cards with 3 men.
ADVERB

AGAIN
[B1] The time when you next do something is the first time you do it again.

Dictionary example:
Could you get some coffee when you next go to the supermarket?

Learner example:
I will talk to you about it much more when I next see you.

PRONOUN

THING FOLLOWING
[B2] the person or thing that follows the present person or thing

Dictionary examples:
Who's next to see the nurse?
Blue roses? Whatever next?

the weekend/week/Thursday, etc. after next [B2] the weekend/week/Thursday, etc. that follows the next one

Dictionary example:
We’re seeing Paul the Saturday after next.

next door /ˌnekstˈdɔːr/

ADVERB

[B1] in the next room, house, or building

Dictionary example:
That’s the old man who lives next door to Paul.

Learner example:
Maria didn’t understand, but then she realized that the man she was looking for lived next door.

next-door /ˈnekst,door/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] in the next room, house, or building

Dictionary example:
What are your next-door neighbours like?

Learner example:
He has just moved from a large city and now he is my new next-door neighbour.
nice /naɪs/

Word family:
Adjectives: nice
Adverbs: nicely

ADJECTIVE
	nice and sth INFORMAL [B1] used to emphasize a positive quality

Dictionary examples:
nice and clean
This chair's nice and comfy.

Learner example:
I've just bought a new lamp for my bedroom. [...] I put it by the bed and in front of the door because it's nice and colourful.

nicely /ˈnar.sli/

Word family:
Adjectives: nice
Adverbs: nicely

ADVERB

WELL

[B2] well

Dictionary examples:
That table would fit nicely in the bedroom.
His business is doing very nicely.

Learner example:
It is a pleasant, easy book with useful, active vocabulary and short, nicely constructed sentences.

PLEASANTLY

[B2] in a pleasant way

Dictionary examples:
She's always very nicely dressed.
If you ask your dad nicely, he might drive you there.

Learner example:
All the rooms are big, clean and nicely decorated.
nickname /ˈnɪk.neɪm/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a name used informally instead of your real name

Dictionary example:
His behaviour has earned him the nickname 'Mad Dog'.

Learner example:
In school I had the nickname the Joker, because I had the ability to make other people laugh.

niece /niːs/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a daughter of your brother or sister, or a daughter of your husband's or wife's brother or sister

Dictionary example:
We're taking my niece on holiday with us.

Learner example:
I bought a purple sweater and I want to knit one like mine for my niece.

night /naɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: midnight, night

NOUN [c or u]

a sleepless night
[C1] a night when you are not able to sleep

Dictionary example:
He'd spent a sleepless night worrying about his exam.

Learner example:
Most of the rooms we stayed in did not have air-conditioning, which caused many sleepless nights to the majority of us due to the intense heat.

nightclub /ˈnaɪt.klʌb/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a place where you can dance and drink at night

1937
Dictionary example:
We had a meal and then went to a nightclub.

Learner example:
We can visit local pubs or nightclubs which I think you will like.

nightlife /ˈnɑːlt.laɪf/

NOUN [U]
[B1] entertainment for the night such as bars, clubs, restaurants, and theatres

Dictionary example:
What's the nightlife like around here?

Learner example:
The nightlife in my country is wonderful!

nightmare /ˈnɑːt.məə/.

NOUN [C]

BAD EXPERIENCE
[B1] a very unpleasant experience

Dictionary examples:
Being trapped underwater is my worst nightmare.
The whole journey was a nightmare – we lost our luggage and we arrived two days late.

Learner example:
In a word, [the] holiday became a nightmare: every day we had to buy everything lost by the company.

BAD DREAM
[B1] a frightening dream

Dictionary examples:
a terrifying nightmare
I shouldn't have watched that movie – it'll give me nightmares.

Learner example:
Every night I had a nightmare.
nine /nain/

NUMBER

be on cloud nine  INFORMAL
[C2] to be extremely happy and excited

Dictionary example:
After I heard I'd got the job, I was on cloud nine!

Learner example:
But now, after the promise in which both said "yes", she was on cloud nine.

ninety /ˈnain.ti/

NUMBER

(be) in your nineties
[B2] to be aged between 90 and 99

Dictionary example:
He is in his nineties now.

the nineties
[B2] the years from 1990–1999

Dictionary example:
I spent most of the nineties travelling around the world.

Learner example:
Another aspect which shows us the danger that the car represents to human life in the nineties [is] pollution.

no /nəʊ/

ADVERB

no ... than
[B1] not any

Dictionary examples:
The work should be done no later than Friday.
There were no more than fifteen people at the concert.
Learner example:
In no more than ten lines, my mother explained that she was moving to Brazilia, the capital of our country, and that she would take me and my brother with her.

DETERMINER

no way INFORMAL

[B1] used to tell someone that something is impossible

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry but there's no way we can help you.
No way will she agree to you leaving early.

Learner example:
Don't worry, there is no way I'm going to miss it!

no wonder

[B2] it is not surprising

Dictionary examples:
No wonder the children are excited – this is the first time they've been abroad.
"If brutal killers like these two are at work, it is no wonder that so many people have fled," he said.

Learner example:
No wonder that people are more tired and are not interested in reading books as much as in the past.

no need

[B2] If there is no need to do something or no need for something, it is not necessary or it is wrong.

Dictionary examples:
There's no need to go to the shops – there's plenty of food in the fridge.
I understand why she was angry but there was no need for that kind of language.
There's no need to shout, for goodness' sake! Just calm down.

Learner example:
He told me that I could trust him with the ticket and that there was no need for me to take it home.

be no good or be not any/much good

[B2] to not be useful, helpful or valuable

Dictionary examples:
Boots are no good if they aren't waterproof.
Food aid isn't much good until the fighting stops.

Learner example:
When [it] is raining, you get wet and that's no good to anyone.

no such thing

[B2] used to emphasize that something does not exist
Dictionary example:
There's no such thing as ghosts!

Learner example:
But when I asked for these, I was told that no such thing existed and so the advertisement was once again proved wrong.

no matter how/what/when, etc.
[B2] used to emphasize that something cannot be changed

Dictionary example:
I never manage to lose any weight, no matter how hard I try.

Learner example:
No matter where you are [or] what you do, apparently you need electricity.

no doubt
[C1] used to say that something is very likely

Dictionary example:
No doubt she'll spend the money on new clothes.

Learner example:
No doubt I will find the skills acquired [on] the course, especially speaking skills, most useful in my future contacts with clients from English-speaking countries.

no ... whatsoever
[C1] none at all

Dictionary example:
There's no evidence whatsoever that she was involved.

Learner example:
Moreover, the hotel we were finally dumped in was situated miles from Edinburgh city centre and there was no entertainment whatsoever arranged for the evening, even though all the travellers were more or less stuck there.

be no mean feat
[C2] used when you want to emphasize that an act or achievement is very difficult

Dictionary example:
Learning to ski at 60 is no mean feat!

Learner example:
There was an interesting discussion about whether it was harder or easier for them to enter the world of cinema, given their famous names. Both said that it was no mean feat because people were more demanding as [to] their abilities.
noble /ˈnəʊ.bl/

ADJECTIVE

GOOD

[C1] honest, brave, and kind

Dictionary examples:
- a noble gesture
- He was a generous, noble man.

Learner example:
Charity is a very noble way of spending your money and it is definitely a way in which you would want to be remembered.

SOCIAL GROUP

[C1] belonging to the highest social group of a society

Dictionary example:
She was born into an ancient, noble family.

Learner example:
Capodistrias, coming from a noble family of the Ionian islands played, as a diplomat and mainly as Russia's Foreign Minister, an important role to the new European structure after the destruction of Napoleon's Empire (1814).

nod /nɒd/ (-dd-)

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to move your head up and down as a way of agreeing, to give someone a sign, or to point to something

Dictionary examples:
- Many people in the audience nodded in agreement.
- When I suggested a walk, Elena nodded enthusiastically.
- She looked up and nodded for me to come in.

Learner example:
She approached him calmly, showing no signs of nervous[ness] or uncertainty. "Do you have it?"
He nodded and shoved his hand into the left pocket of his jacket.

nominate /ˈnɒm.ət/

Word family:
Nouns: nomination
Verbs: nominate
VERB [r]

[C1] to officially suggest a person for a job or a position in an organization, or to suggest a person or their work for a prize

Dictionary examples:
Judges are nominated by the governor.
The film was nominated for an Academy Award.
He was nominated as best actor.

Learner example:
Being an Ambassador for Youth bears [a] lot of responsibility, not only because the person must be [of] outstanding character and well-known, but also because they must behave accordingly and be able to convey a positive message. After deep consideration, I have decided to nominate Jovanotti, alias Lorenzo Cherubini.

nomination /ˌnɒm.ɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: nomination
Verbs: nominate

NOUN [c or u]

[C1] the act of officially suggesting a person for a job or their work for a prize

Dictionary examples:
to seek/win a nomination
He won the Democratic nomination for mayor of Chicago.
She has just received her fourth Oscar nomination.

Learner example:
Please allow me to support this nomination by pointing out some facts.

none /nʌn/

PRONOUN

[B1] not any

Dictionary examples:
None of us smoke(s).
None of my children has/have blonde hair.
"I'd like some more cheese." "I'm sorry there's none left".
"Have you any idea how much this cost?" "None at all/None whatsoever."

Learner example:
Since none of us had been there before we hired a guide who claimed that he knew English and then we began looking at the ruins.
be none of sb’s business

[B2] If something is none of someone’s business, they do not need to know about it, although they want to, because it does not affect them.

Dictionary example:
I’m certainly not going to tell Lara how much money I’ve spent – it’s none of her business!

Learner example:
You might think it’s none of my business, but I simply have to say this.

none too clean/clever/pleased, etc.

[C2] not at all clean/clever/pleased, etc.

Dictionary example:
His clothes were none too clean.

Learner example:
So, without further ado I accepted, although I was none too sure of what was going to happen there.

none the happier/poorer/wiser, etc.

[C2] not any happier/poorer/wiser, etc. than before

Dictionary example:
She must have explained the theory three times, but I’m still none the wiser.

none-the-less /ˌnʌn.ðəˈles/

ADVERB

[C1] despite what has just been said

Dictionary example:
He was extremely rude in meetings. Nonetheless, his arguments found some support.

Learner example:
Nonetheless, all the people from whom I have received letters are satisfied, as well as their children, who enjoyed the stories and the pony rides very much.

non-existent /ˌnɒn.ɪgˈzɪs.tɪnt/

Word family:
Nouns: existence
Verbs: exist
Adjectives: existing, non-existent

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not existing
Dictionary example:
We knew our chances of success were non-existent.

Learner example:
The rooms weren't very tidy and room service is non-existent.

nonsense /ˈnɒn.sənts/

Word family:
Nouns: nonsense, sense, sensibility
Verbs: sense
Adjectives: sensible, senseless
Adverbs: sensibly

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]

SILLY

[B2] If something someone has said or written is nonsense, it is silly and not true.

Dictionary examples:
She talks such nonsense sometimes.
He dismissed the accusations as complete/utter nonsense.
What a load of nonsense!
It's nonsense to suggest that they could have cheated.

Learner example:
I feel totally disappointed and I would like my money back, because everything in the advertisement was nonsense.

make a nonsense of sth

[C2] to spoil something or make it seem stupid

Dictionary example:
Cuts to the text made a nonsense of the play.

Learner example:
It really makes a nonsense of our claim to be civilized when one thinks of all the poor, helpless people that live under deplorable condition[s].

non-smoking /ˌnɒnˈsməʊ.kɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: smoke, smoker, smoking
Adjectives: non-smoking, smoky

ADJECTIVE

[B2] describes a place where people are not allowed to smoke
Dictionary example:
Let’s get a table in the non-smoking area.

Learner example:
You can also choose between a smoking and a non-smoking area.

nor /noːr/
CONJUNCTION
neither ... nor
[B2] used when a negative fact is true of two people or things or when someone or something does not have either of two qualities
Dictionary examples:
Neither he nor his mother would talk to the police.
Their performance was neither entertaining nor educational.
Learner example:
I was just having a bath when the lights went out. [...] No lights at all, neither the cooker nor the fridge were working in my flat, so what had happened?

ADVERB
[B2] used to say that a negative fact is also true of someone else
Dictionary examples:
"I don't like cats." "Nor do I."
I've never been to Iceland." "Nor have I."
I can't be at the meeting and nor can Andrew.
Learner example:
In fact when Mrs. McGillicuddy told the train assistant about that, he did not believe her. Nor did the Police, whom Mrs. McGillicuddy wrote about what she had seen.

norm /nɔːm/
Word family:
Nouns: norm, normality
Adjectives: normal, abnormal
Adverbs: normally

NOUN
the norm
[C1] the usual way that something happens
Dictionary example:
Short-term job contracts are the norm nowadays.

Learner example:
The graph indicates the norm for children per family in three different countries.

SOCIETY
[C1] [c] an accepted way of behaving in a particular society

Dictionary example:
cultural/social norms

Learner example:
Social norms and values, as well as the national regulations, differ from country to country, resulting in the different view upon such an issue as child labour.

normal /ˈnɔː.məl/
Word family:
Nouns: norm, normality
Adjectives: normal, abnormal
Adverbs: normally

ADJECTIVE
return to normal
[C1] to go back to a previous condition

Dictionary example:
Life has begun to return to normal now that the war is over.

Learner example:
After exactly ten minutes the electricity was switched on again and our life returned to normal – what a relief!

normality /nɔːˈmæl.ə.tɪ/
Word family:
Nouns: norm, normality
Adjectives: normal, abnormal
Adverbs: normally

NOUN [u]
[C2] a situation in which everything is happening normally

Dictionary example:
a return to normality
Learner example:
Looking forward to an escape from normality and the narrowness of Switzerland, I had travelled to Australia, where my expectations had been smashed as my travel group had not consisted of five other young backpackers, but a group of thirty tourists, all squeezed into a coach.
	normally /ˈnɔː.mə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: norm, normality
Adjectives: normal, abnormal
Adverbs: normally

ADVERB

USUALLY [B1] usually

Dictionary examples:
She doesn’t normally arrive until ten.
Normally, I plan one or two days ahead.

Learner example:
I normally order fried fish.

ORDINARY
[B2] in the ordinary way that you would expect

Dictionary examples:
Both lungs are now functioning normally.
She’s behaving perfectly normally for a two–year–old.

Learner example:
But the truth is that those animals are not beh[a]ving normally.

northeast (north–east) /ˌnɔːθˈiːst/

NOUN [u]

[B1] the direction which is between north and east or the northeast part of a country

Dictionary example:
They live in the northeast.

Learner example:
The owner is from the northeast of China.
ADJECTIVE

[B1] in the northeast, or facing towards the northeast

Dictionary example:
I don't really know the northeast part of the country.

Learner example:
You should visit the Northeast Region which is famous for its white sandy beaches which are fringed with coconut trees.

northern (also Northern) /ˈnɔː.ðən/

Word family:
Nouns: north
Adjectives: north, northern

ADJECTIVE

[B1] in or from the north part of an area

Dictionary examples:
northern Europe
the Northern Hemisphere

Learner example:
Last Summer I went to Chiang Mai, in northern Thailand with my family.

northwest (north–west) /ˌnɔːθˈwest/

NOUN [U]

[B1] the direction which is between north and west or the northwest part of a country

Dictionary example:
The wind is coming from the northwest.

ADJECTIVE

[B1] in the northwest, or facing towards the northwest

Dictionary example:
We climbed the northwest face of the mountain.

Learner example:
My cousin lives in [the] northwest part [of] London and so I took [the] underground to central London every day.
nose /nəʊz/

Word family:
Nouns: nose
Adjectives: nosy

NOUN [c]

poke/stick your nose into sth INFORMAL [C2] to show too much interest in a situation that does not involve you

Dictionary example:
You shouldn't go sticking your nose into other people's business!

Learner example:
John started poking his nose into her life.

turn your nose up at sth INFORMAL
[C2] to not accept something because you do not think it is good enough for you

Dictionary example:
He turned his nose up at my offer of soup, saying he wanted a proper meal.

Learner example:
Moreover, she will not turn her nose up at anybody who might be considered less worthy than her.

under your nose
[C2] If something bad happens under your nose, it happens close to you but you do not notice it.

Dictionary example:
They were stealing money from under my nose.

Learner example:
You will be surprised that there was something right under your nose that you could not live without.

nostalgia /nɒsˈtæl.dʒə/

Word family:
Nouns: nostalgia
Adjectives: nostalgic

NOUN [u]

[C2] a feeling of happiness mixed with sadness when you think about things that happened in the past

Dictionary example:
his nostalgia for his college days
Learner example:
Finally the feeling of nostalgia remains and a certain pride that Eastern Germany was not entirely imprisoned but had its own "Spreewald" pickles.

nostalgic /nɒsˈtæl.dʒɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: nostalgia
Adjectives: nostalgic

ADJECTIVE
[C2] feeling both happy and sad when you think about things that happened in the past

Dictionary example:
Talking about those holidays has made me feel quite nostalgic.

Learner example:
While listening to what people interviewed were saying, I couldn’t help feeling a bit sad in a nostalgic way.

nostril /ˈnɒstrɪl/

NOUN [C]
[C2] one of the two holes at the end of your nose

Dictionary example:
Breathe in through one nostril.

Learner example:
When he finally reached the house and managed to open the door, a musty stench assaulted his nostrils.

nosy /ˈnəʊ.zi/ (nosey)

Word family:
Nouns: nose
Adjectives: nosy

ADJECTIVE
[C2] always trying to find out private things about other people

Dictionary examples:
nosy neighbours
Don't be so nosy!
Learner example:
He is a wonderful neighbour who, without being nosy, has given us a sense of security, that somebody is there if we ever need anything without the feeling of being watched or spied upon.

not /nɒt/

ADVERB

QUESTIONS

[B1] used to form questions when you think the answer will be 'yes', using the short form 'n't'

Dictionary examples:
She's very pretty, isn't she?
You like cheese, don't you?

Learner example:
I know that you love horror movies, don't you?

not at all

[B1] used as a polite reply after someone has thanked you

Dictionary example:
"Thanks for helping." "Not at all."

Learner example:
"Hello Cédric, it's Christophe from Alcatel. I hope I'm not disturbing you?" "Not at all, I'm just on holiday."

believe it or not

[B1] used to say that something is true although it seems surprising

Dictionary example:
He even remembered my birthday, believe it or not.

Learner example:
First I visited the "Roman Bath" which is more than 2000 years old and, believe it or not, it still works!

not even

[B1] used to emphasize the fact that something does not happen or is not true

Dictionary examples:
"I never cry." "Not even when you hurt yourself really badly?"
Nobody spoke, not even the children.

Learner example:
We tried to fish, but didn't catch a thing, not even a shoe!
not at all
[B2] used to say 'no' or 'not' strongly

Dictionary examples:
"Was he a nuisance?" "No, not at all."
I'm not at all happy about it.

Learner example:
I sen[s]ed that invisible hand was touching my shoulder, but it didn't scare me, not at all.

not only
[B2] used to say that more than one thing is true

Dictionary examples:
Not only was the hotel expensive, it was dirty too.
You have let down not only yourself, but the entire team.

Learner example:
In this show, not only can we see [the] latest fashions, sportswear, make-up and hairstyles, but we can [also] enter for free.

not half as good/bad/exciting, etc.
[B2] informal to be much less good/bad/exciting, etc. than something else

Dictionary example:
Her new book's not half as good as the last one.

Learner example:
Probably they wouldn't be half as famous as they are without press photographers, journalist[s], etc.

not to mention
[B2] used to emphasize the importance of something that you are adding to a list

Dictionary example:
The resort has great hotels and restaurants, not to mention some of the best skiing in the region.

Learner example:
It is crowded everywhere, the shop assist[a]nts are stressed, you get to wait for hours to pay for your goods, not to mention the time you must wait to get them wrapped.

not quite
[B2] almost but not completely

Dictionary examples:
I'm not quite sure that I understand this.
The colours almost match but not quite.
He didn't get quite enough votes to win.
Learner example:
The student cafe has a welcoming atmosphere and most people said it was nice to sit and to drink coffee [there]. [T]he only problem is that there are not quite enough tables and chairs for everyone at busy times.

not a/one
[C1] used to emphasize that there is nothing of what you are talking about

Dictionary examples:
Not one person came to hear him talk.
"You haven't heard from Nick, have you?" "Not a word."

Learner example:
Nowadays, I can only see buildings and roads. Not one single tree to refresh yourself from the hot and tropical sun at midday.

certainly/definitely/hopefully not [C1] used after an adverb in short, negative replies

Dictionary examples:
"She's not exactly poor, is she?" "Certainly not."
"We won't need much money, will we?" "Hopefully not."

Learner example:
That's nice, but do you think that money is all that matters? Definitely not!

not least FORMAL [C2] especially

Dictionary example:
The whole trip was fascinating, not least because of the people I met.

Learner example:
We are all human beings but we are all different, not least because of a different cultural background.

not in the least [C2] not at all

Dictionary example:
I don't mind staying at home, not in the least.

Learner example:
Educating two children was not so easy a task, not in the least!
notable /ˈnəʊ.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: note
Verbs: note
Adjectives: notable Adverbs: notably

ADJECTIVE

[C1] important or interesting

Dictionary example:
With one notable exception, everyone replied to my letter.

Learner example:
A notable exception is the advertising of so-called "slow-food" restaurants, which promote [a] healthy lifestyle.

notably /ˈnəʊ.tə.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: note
Verbs: note
Adjectives: notable Adverbs: notably

ADVERB

[C1] especially or most importantly

Dictionary example:
They have begun attracting investors, most notably big Japanese financial houses.

Learner example:
As I have already indicated, the content (what they teach you) [is] very good, notably the training of speaking skills and a number of special courses, for example: How to Negotiate.

note /nəʊt/

Word family:
Nouns: note
Verbs: note
Adjectives: notable Adverbs: notably
NOUN

MONEY

[B1] [c] a piece of paper money

Dictionary example:
a ten-pound note

Learner example:
This was because the suitcase was full of stolen bank notes.

EXPLANATION

[B2] [c] a short explanation or an extra piece of information that is given at the bottom of a page or at the back of a book

Dictionary example:
See note 3, page 37.

make a note of sth

[C1] to write down information about something

Dictionary example:
Let me make a note of your phone number.

Learner example:
After talking to other members, I have made a note of the main problems they considered the most urgent to be solved.

compare notes

[C1] If two people compare notes, they tell each other what they think about something that they have both done.

Dictionary example:
We compared notes about our experiences in China.

Learner example:
In conclusion, regular meetings between parents and school teachers [...] help both parties to compare notes, acting in the best interest[s] of the children.

take note (of sth)

[C1] to pay careful attention to something

Dictionary examples:
Make sure you take note of what she says.
Safety standards are being tightened. Employers, take note.

Learner example:
I thank you for taking note of my view.

FEELING

[C1] [NO PLURAL] a particular feeling or mood
Dictionary examples:
a sad-serious-positive note
His speech had just the right note of sympathy.

Learner example:
On a more practical note: I found the information pack I received beforehand insufficient.

MUSIC
[C2] [c] a single musical sound or the symbol that represents it

Dictionary example:
I'll just play the notes on the piano.

Learner example:
It was as if an external force was stopping him from playing the notes.

sb/sth of note FORMAL
[C2] someone or something famous or important

Dictionary example:
A medieval church is the only monument of note in the town.

VERB [T] FORMAL SLIGHTLY
[B1] to notice something

Dictionary examples:
They noted the consumers' growing demand for quicker service.
Please note (that) we will be closed on Saturday.
Note how easy it is to release the catch quickly.

Learner example:
Please note that I am available for an interview.

nothing /ˈnʌθ.ɪŋ/

PRONOUN

NOT IMPORTANT
[B1] not something important or of value

Dictionary examples:
He's a dangerous person – human life means nothing to him.
She kept crying about nothing.
A thousand pounds is nothing to a woman of her wealth.

Learner example:
Don't worry, it's nothing serious.

nothing but [B2] no other thing than
Dictionary example:
She did nothing but criticize.

Learner example:
You can read books in the open air while nothing but sea surrounds you.

have nothing to do with sb/sth

[B2] to have no connection or influence with someone or something

Dictionary example:
He made his own decision – I had nothing to do with it.

Learner example:
Of course, I tried to explain [to] him that I had nothing to do with the vanishing of the cake but he didn't trust me.

be/have nothing to do with sb

[B2] If something is or has nothing to do with you, you have no good reason to know about it or be involved with it.

Dictionary example:
I wish he wouldn't offer advice on my marriage – it's nothing to do with him.

Learner example:
The party was horrible: the guests were all talking about things that had nothing to do with me.

for nothing

[B2] without a successful result

Dictionary example:
I've come all this way for nothing.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, I waited for nothing. The TV repair man didn't come!

stop at nothing

[C1] to be willing to do anything in order to achieve something

Dictionary example:
He will stop at nothing to get what he wants.

Learner example:
They stopped at nothing to get the higher scores, to make themselves noticed, even if that meant telling some lies to a teacher about a schoolmate.

nothing of the sort/kind

[C1] used to emphasize that something is not true

Dictionary examples:
He said that he was a legitimate businessman – in fact, he was nothing of the sort.
It was supposed to be a gourmet meal, but it was nothing of the kind.
Learner example:
Let me reassure you, nothing of the sort is happening at the moment.

be nothing if not _sth_
[C2] used to emphasize a quality

Dictionary example:
The senator was nothing if not honest.

Learner example:
Well, I might be a bit biased but really, he is nothing if not extraordinary.

to say nothing of _sth_
[C2] used to emphasize other problems you have not talked about

Dictionary example:
Most wild otters have disappeared from populated areas, to say nothing of wilderness areas.

Learner example:
Indeed would it not be an oversimplification to make one’s judgement of the country’s national character on the grounds of the amount and the quality of food people eat, to say nothing of the fact that this judgement is usually highly subjective?

nothing ventured, nothing gained
[C2] used to say that it is worth trying something, even if you may not succeed

Dictionary example:
It will be quite expensive ... still, nothing ventured nothing gained!

Learner example:
It was a demanding task to prepare it but nothing ventured nothing gained.

---

notice /ˈnəʊ.tɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: notice
Verbs: notice
Adjectives: noticeable, unnoticed

VERB [I or T]

[B1] to see something and be aware of it

Dictionary examples:
I noticed a crack in the ceiling.
Mary waved at the man but he didn’t seem to notice.
He noticed (that) the woman was staring at him.
Did you notice how she did that?
Learner example:
I was having a coffee with Luca, a friend of mine, when I noticed something was missing: it was my favourite ring, you know, the light pink one!

NOUN

WARNING
[B1] [u] a warning that something will happen

Dictionary examples:
The next time you visit, can you give me more notice?
The building is closed until further notice.
The emergency services are ready to spring into action at a moment's notice.
I'm sorry for the short notice.

Learner example:
I apologize for the short notice.

ATTENTION
[B1] [u] attention

Dictionary example:
I didn't take any notice of his advice.

Learner example:
I didn't take notice of it and deleted it again.

at short notice UK
[C1] only a short time before something happens

Dictionary example:
I had to give a speech at very short notice.

Learner example:
The fact that the speech by the famous actor was cancelled at short notice was disappointing.

hand/give in your notice
[C2] to tell your employer that you are going to stop working for them

Dictionary example:
I'm planning to hand in my notice tomorrow.

noticeable /ˈnəʊ.tɪs.a.bl/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] easy to see or be aware of

Dictionary example:
There was a noticeable difference in his behaviour after the injury.

Learner example:
What was noticeable all over Warsaw were the overfilled garbage cans and litter in the streets that nobody cleaned up.

noticeably ˈnəʊ.tɪ.sə.bli/

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is noticeable

Dictionary examples:
He was noticeably reluctant to meet her.
The new results were noticeably better than the last ones.

Learner example:
The teachers' salaries are noticeably the largest part in the charts.

noticeboard ˈnəʊ.tɪs.boːd/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a board on the wall where you put advertisements and announcements

Dictionary example:
I saw the ad on the noticeboard.

Learner example:
I put an advertisement on the noticeboard in the hall of the hotel and luckily, after a week, a very kind girl sent me the sweater.

notify ˈnəʊ.trɪ.fai/

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C1] to officially tell someone about something

Dictionary examples:
You should notify the police if you are involved in a road accident.
The court notified her that her trial date had been postponed.
Learner example:
You must notify the director if you are not going to sleep in your room.

notion /ˈnəʊ.ʃən/

NOUN [C]
[C1] an idea or belief

Dictionary example:
The notion of sharing is unknown to most two-year-olds.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, in ancient Greece, although the notion of the republic and democracy were invented and quite successfully developed there, not being a noble citizen could be cruelly disappointing and painful.

notorious /nəˈtɔːri.əs/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] famous for something bad

Dictionary examples:
a notorious criminal
She was notorious for her bad temper.

Learner example:
Apart from this, Bristol is notorious for its poor social policy for the people who are on the poverty line.

notwithstanding /ˌnɒt.wɪθˈstændɪŋ/

ADVERB; PREPOSITION FORMAL
[C1] despite

Dictionary example:
Injuries notwithstanding, he won the semi-final match.

Learner example:
Notwithstanding this zealous kind of complaint, it would appear to me that they had great fun during the third day when after the English lesson they went to the swimming pool.
novel /ˈnɒv.^əl/

Word family:
Nouns: novel, novelist

NOUN [C]

[B1] a book that tells a story about imaginary people and events

Dictionary examples:
- historical/romantic novels
- Have you read any of Jane Austen’s novels?
- His latest novel is selling really well.

Learner example:
Yesterday I was sat on the bench under a tree in that wonderful garden and I was reading an interesting novel by Jane Austen, when a charming [young] boy [came] near to me.

novelist /ˈnɒv.^əl.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: novel, novelist

NOUN [C]

[B2] a person who writes novels

Dictionary example:
- His father was a novelist.

Learner example:
- My teacher has told me that you are a British novelist who writes crime stories, and you have come to live in our area.

novelty /ˈnɒv.^əl.ti/

NOUN

QUALITY

[C2] [u] the quality of being new or unusual

Dictionary example:
- The fashion industry relies on novelty, and photographers are always looking for new faces.

Learner example:
- Olivia’s story takes place in a romantic atmosphere, which may allow the reader to look upon the colonial period as a dream; it sounds like a legend, a fairy tale, which fulfills an important purpose of novels: the appeal of novelty.
NEW THING

[C2] [c] an object, event, or experience that is new or unusual

Dictionary example:
Tourists are still a novelty on this remote island.

Learner example:
Our city needed a novelty like this and fortunately the dream came true!

---

now /nəʊ/

ADVERB

LENGTH OF TIME

[B2] used to show the length of time that something has been happening, from the time it began until the present

Dictionary examples:
I've lived in Cambridge for two years now.
She's been a vegetarian for ten years now.

now and then

[B2] If something happens now and then, it happens sometimes but not very often.

Dictionary example:
I love chocolate, but I only eat it now and then.

Learner example:
If you really love to have a snack now and then, try to eat fruit and vegetables, instead of sweets.

any day/minute/time, etc. now

[B2] used to say that something will happen very soon

Dictionary example:
We're expecting our second child any day now.

Learner example:
The evil creatures who were bound to come out of the dark [w]ould see Carla any minute now.

every now and then

[C1] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
We still meet up every now and then.

Learner example:
Each day choose 10 new words and learn them by heart. In a week you will have learned 70 new words, and in a year 3640, a lot of words. Please, do not forget to repeat them every now and then.
CONJUNCTION (also now that) [B2] as a result of a new situation

Dictionary examples:
Now that I've got a car I can visit her more often.
You should help in the house more, now you're older.
She's enjoying the job now that she's got more responsibility.

Learner example:
Now I am in England for further studies, I would be very grateful to you if you will give me the opportunity to join your club.

nowadays /ˈnɔː.ə.deɪz/

ADVERB

[B1] at the present time, especially when compared to the past

Dictionary examples:
Everything seems more expensive nowadays.
Who remembers those films nowadays?
Nowadays, I bake my own bread rather than buy it.

Learner example:
Well, nowadays I hardly ever watch television, as time is something that I really don't have enough of.

nowhere /ˈnəʊ.wɛə/

ADVERB

NOT ANYWHERE

[B1] not anywhere

Dictionary examples:
The room was very crowded – there was nowhere to sit.
These young people have nowhere else to go.
Nowhere does the article mention the names of the people involved.

Learner example:
Then she left the airport, but she had nowhere to go without money and identity, so she called her family asking for some help.

in the middle of nowhere

[B2] a long way from places where people live
Dictionary example:
His car broke down in the middle of nowhere.

Learner example:
You know I really don't want to [get] lost in the middle of nowhere.

from/out of nowhere
[B2] If someone or something appears out of nowhere, it appears suddenly or unexpectedly.

Dictionary example:
The car came out of nowhere and we had to swerve to miss it.

Learner example:
I was lying all alone on the beach, then suddenly, out of nowhere, right behind me those strange creatures appeared.

nowhere near
[C1] not close in distance, time, amount or quality

Dictionary examples:
The house was nowhere near the sea.
It's nowhere near time for us to leave yet.
I'm nowhere near finishing the book – I'm only half-way through it.
He's nowhere near as tall as his sister.

Learner example:
Although people are well aware of the current situation in Switzerland, they prefer looking at other countries and comparing us to them (we are nowhere near as fat as them).

get you nowhere
[C2] If something gets you nowhere, it does not help you to succeed.

Dictionary example:
Bad manners will get you nowhere.

Learner example:
As this is a loophole in [the] law system, it's creating a conflict between house-owners and squatters and getting them nowhere.

nuclear /ˈnjuː.klɪər/

ADJECTIVE

POWER
[B2] relating to the energy that is released when the nucleus of an atom is divided Dictionary examples:
nuclear energy/power
  a nuclear power plant the nuclear industry

Learner example:
Anyway, the manager of that centre called me in order to inform me that I would [be doing] research on nuclear power and atoms.

WEAPONS
[B2] relating to weapons that use nuclear power

Dictionary examples:
  a nuclear war/attack nuclear disarmament

Learner example:
I think that the car isn't the greatest danger to human life today, because I believe the greatest danger is the nuclear bomb.

nuisance  /ˈnjuːsənts/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[B2] a person, thing, or situation that annoys you or causes problems for you

Dictionary examples:
I've forgotten my umbrella – what a nuisance!
It's such a nuisance having to rewrite those letters.
I hate to be a nuisance, but could you help me?
Local residents claimed that the noise was causing a public nuisance.

Learner example:
It's co[m]fortable, fast and it [avoid]s the nuisance of having to take public transport in the rush hour.

number  /ˈnʌm.bər/

Word family:
Nouns: number
Verbs: number, outnumber
Adjectives: innumerable, numerous

NOUN

amount
[B1] [C or U] an amount
Dictionary examples:
The number of people killed in road accidents fell last month.
A small number of children are educated at home.
A large number of people were contacted.

Learner example:
We are a well-mixed class with equal numbers of boys and girls, all about 20 years old.

a number of sth
[B2] several

Dictionary examples:
There were a number of journalists present at the public meeting.
We've had quite a number of complaints about the programme.

Learner example:
There are a number of errors in your article.

VERB [T]

GIVE A NUMBER
[C1] to give something a number

Dictionary example:
Each volume was numbered and indexed.

Learner example:
The bus to Finspang is numbered 410 and there is at least one bus departing for Finspang every hour.

BE AN AMOUNT
[C2] If people or things number a particular amount, there are that many of them.

Dictionary example:
Our company's sales force numbered over 5,000.

Learner example:
They marched against Barovia with armies that numbered hundreds of thousands.

numerus /ˈnjuː.mə.rəs/

Word family:
Nouns: number
Verbs: number, outnumber
Adjectives: innumerable, numerous

ADJECTIVE
[C1] many
Dictionary examples:
We have discussed these plans on numerous occasions.
Shops of this type, once rare, are now numerous.

Learner example:
The fact that my country produces numerous talented skaters is also a factor that helps me enjoy skating.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>nurse</th>
<th>/nɜːs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

VERB [T]
[C2] to care for a person or animal that is ill

Dictionary example:
We nursed the injured sparrow back to health.

Learner example:
Second, there are more and more old people who need to be looked after or nursed.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>nursery</th>
<th>/ˈnɜː.sər.i/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [C]
[B2] a place where young children and babies are taken care of while their parents are at work

Dictionary example:
Does Jake go to a nursery or a childminder?

Learner example:
I enjoy working with children because I was working in a nursery.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>nut</th>
<th>/nʌt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [C]
[B2] the dry fruit of some trees which grows in a hard shell, and can often be eaten

Dictionary examples:
a Brazil/cashew nut
Sprinkle some roasted chopped nuts on top.

Learner example:
Finally I would like to inform you that one of our students has [an] allergy to all sorts of nuts.
nutrition /njuːˈtrɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: nutrition
Adjectives: nutritional, nutritious

NOUN [u]

[C1] the food that you eat and the way that it affects your health

Dictionary example:
Good nutrition is essential for growing children.

Learner example:
So, good exercise combined with the right nutrition (low fat, vegetables etc.) [will] alter our lives and help us feel and appear more relaxed.

nutritional /njuːˈtrɪʃ.ən.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: nutrition
Adjectives: nutritional, nutritious

ADJECTIVE

[C1] relating to the food that you eat and the way it affects your health

Dictionary example:
These snacks have very little nutritional value.

Learner example:
Today, individuals have less time to prepare homemade food with high nutritional value.

nutritious /njuːˈtrɪʃ.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: nutrition
Adjectives: nutritional, nutritious

ADJECTIVE

[C1] Nutritious food contains substances that your body needs to stay healthy.

Dictionary example:
a nutritious meal

Learner example:
They seem to have discovered that salads and pasta can be as tasty and nutritious as red meat.
nutshell /ˈnʌtʃel/

NOUN

in a nutshell
[C1] something that you say when you are describing something using as few words as possible

Dictionary example:
The answer, in a nutshell, is yes.

Learner example:
To put it in a nutshell, they all provide good food at reasonable prices.
oak /əʊk/

NOUN [C or u]
[B2] a large tree found in northern countries, or the wood of this tree

Dictionary example:
an oak table/cupboard

Learner example:
There is a very old oak [in the] middle of the garden.

obese /əʊˈbiːs/

Word family:
Nouns: obesity
Adjectives: obese

ADJECTIVE
[C1] extremely fat

Dictionary example:
Currently, 15% of the population are classified as obese.

Learner example:
Less physical activity and [a] poor diet can lead to being overweight or even obese.

obesity /əʊˈbiːs.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: obesity
Adjectives: obese

NOUN [u]
[C1] the state of being extremely fat

Dictionary example:
The government is concerned about childhood obesity.
Learner example:
Many researchers say that obesity and other adult diseases are getting common as we eat more western food.

obey /əˈbeɪ/

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to do what you are told to do by a person, rule, or instruction

Dictionary examples:
The soldiers refused to obey (orders).
They must obey the rules of international law.
People failing to obey the law will be fined.

Learner example:
I have strict parents who tell me what to do and what not to do every day. If I don’t obey them, I’ll be punished for sure.

object

Word family:
Nouns: objection
Verbs: object

NOUN [C] /ˈɒb.dʒɪkt/

THING
[B1] a thing that you can see or touch but that is usually not alive

Dictionary examples:
a bright, shiny object
There were various objects on show.

Learner example:
I saw [many] things like dinosaur bones, mummies, various objects, etc.

GRAMMAR
[B1] in grammar, the person or thing that is affected by the action of the verb or the person or thing that comes after a preposition

Dictionary example:
In the sentence 'I like ice cream', 'ice cream' is the object of the verb 'like'.

the object of sth
[C1] the purpose of something
Dictionary examples:
The object of the game is to score more points than the opposing team.
The object of the exercise is to complete the task within the time limit.

Learner example:
First of all, the object of the programme is to provide students [with] opportunities to develop useful skills through [a] 6-week work experience in Britain.

VERB [i] /əbˈdʒekt/

[B2] to feel or say that you do not like or do not approve of something or someone

Dictionary examples:
He objects to the label 'magician' which he is often given.
Would anyone object if we started the meeting now?
No-one objected when the boss said it was time to go home.

Learner example:
I would like to object to what the reporter said in his conclusion.

objection /əbˈdʒek.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: objection
Verbs: object

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when someone says that they do not like or approve of something or someone

Dictionary examples:
Our main objection to the factory is that it will be noisy.
I have no objections if you want to stay an extra day.

Learner example:
As far as the film programme [is concerned], I have no objections and feel fairly satisfied.

objective /əbˈdʒekt.ɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: object, objective
Adjectives: objective
Adverbs: objectively

NOUN [C]

[B2] something that you are trying to achieve

Dictionary examples:
Her main/prime objective now is simply to stay in power.
Can the sales force achieve/meet its financial objectives?
Learner example:
Do you think I [will] have [the right] conditions to do the [diving] course and achieve my objectives?

ADJECTIVE

[B2] only influenced by facts and not by feelings

Dictionary example:
I try to be objective when I criticize someone's work.

Learner example:
Friends can be more objective concerning your faults and can give you [a] different point of view.

---

objectively /əbˈdʒek.tɪv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: object, objective
Adjectives: objective
Adverbs: objectively

ADVERB

[C1] in a way that is only influenced by facts and not by feelings

Dictionary example:
This test assesses all candidates objectively.

Learner example:
The articles are objectively written and what is more they are comprehensible to the majority of people.

---

obligation /ˌɒb.lɪˈgeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: obligation
Verbs: oblige
Adjectives: obligatory

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] something that you do because it is your duty or because you feel you have to

Dictionary examples:
If you have not signed a contract, you are under no obligation to pay them any money.
You have a legal obligation to ensure your child receives a proper education.

Learner example:
I think it would be preferable to do [the trip] in July, which is a holiday period and so I won't have any special obligations.
obligatory /əˈblɪg.ə.tə.r.i/

Word family:
- Nouns: obligation
- Verbs: oblige
- Adjectives: obligatory

ADJECTIVE

COMPULSORY

[C1] If something is obligatory, you must do it because of a rule or duty.

Dictionary example:
obligatory military service

Learner example:
I think this is a very good way of encouraging people to learn to like exercise without them having to do it because it is obligatory.

EXPECTED

[C2] used to describe something that everyone does or has or something that is expected

Dictionary example:
a salesman with the obligatory mobile phone

Learner example:
Everybody should try a Danish lunch with the obligatory bread with her[r]ing and lots of beer.

---

oblige /əˈblaɪdʒ/

Word family:
- Nouns: obligation
- Verbs: oblige
- Adjectives: obligatory

VERB

be obliged to do sth

[B2] to be forced to do something

Dictionary example:
Sellers are not legally obliged to accept the highest offer.

Learner example:
Besides, I don't want to wear any protective head-gear, which all the riders are obliged to wear.

[C1] [I or T] FORMAL to be helpful

Dictionary example:
The manager was only too happy to oblige.

---

1976
Learner example:
I understand that you attach a great deal of value to the views of your visitors. I am happy to oblige.

---

obscene /əbˈsiːn/

ADJECTIVE

SEX

[C2] ! relating to sex in a way that is unpleasant or shocking

Dictionary examples:
- an obscene gesture
- obscene language

Learner example:
It was a woman with [a] deep, sexual voice, talking about my boyfriend with obscene innuendos about our relationship.

TOO LARGE

[C2] ! An obscene amount of something is shocking or morally wrong because it is too large.

Dictionary example:
- obscene profits

Learner example:
Needless to say, the price was 'obscene', but I did not care.

---

observant /əbˈzɜː.vənt/

Word family:
- Nouns: observation, observer
- Verbs: observe
- Adjectives: observant

ADJECTIVE

[C2] good or quick at noticing things

Dictionary example:
He's very observant.

Learner example:
What's more, Len is the most patient and observant listener I have ever come across.
observation /ˌɒb.ərˈveɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: observation, observer
Verbs: observe
Adjectives: observant

NOUN

WATCHING

[B2] [u] when someone watches someone or something carefully

Dictionary examples:
The doctor wants to keep him under observation for a week.
She has very good powers of observation.

Learner example:
But actually it is boring when you're almost always under observation.

REMARK

[C1] [c] a remark about something that you have noticed

Dictionary example:
He made an interesting observation.

Learner example:
I'd like to make some observations regarding your CDs.

observe /əbˈzɜːv/

Word family:
Nouns: observation, observer
Verbs: observe
Adjectives: observant

VERB [T]

WATCH

[B2] to watch someone or something carefully

Dictionary examples:
The role of scientists is to observe and describe the world, not to try to control it.
He spent a year in the jungle, observing how deforestation is affecting local peoples.
Children learn by observing adults.

Learner example:
To support [the] idea [of] mak[ing] a short video about daily life at our school I have spen[t] some time discussing it with other students, observing and anal[y]sing an av[era]ge day in our school.
NOTICE

[C1] FORMAL to notice something

Dictionary examples:
Jack observed a look of anxiety on his brother's face.
The guards failed to observe who delivered the package.
In all these films one observes that directors are taking a new interest in Native American culture.
Differences in speech styles may be observed between other social groups.

Learner example:
Two trends can be observed: one, "sociological", giving women a more and more important role in our country, and the other, "cultural", still keeping them to three "sacred things" – household, kids and [the] church.

OBEY

[C2] to obey a law, rule, or religious custom

Dictionary example:
to observe the law observer /əbˈzɜːvə/

Word family:
Nouns: observation, observer
Verbs: observe
Adjectives: observant

NOUN [C]
[C2] a person who watches what happens but has no active part in it

Dictionary examples:
Political observers are expecting the election result to be close.
UN observers are monitoring the ceasefire.

Learner example:
Not even UN observers from other African countries understood this.

obsessed /əbˈsest/

Word family:
Nouns: obsession
Adjectives: obsessed, obsessive

ADJECTIVE

be obsessed by/with sb/sth
[B2] to think about someone or something all the time

1979
Dictionary example:
to be obsessed with money/work

Learner example:
While she was walking her brain got more and more obsessed with the idea....... "I have to tell this story!"

obsession /əbˈseʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: obsession
Adjectives: obsessed, obsessive

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] something or someone that you think about all the time

Dictionary examples:
an unhealthy obsession with death her chocolate obsession
He's always wanted to find his natural mother but recently it's become an obsession.

Learner example:
Shopping is an obsession for all of us.

obsessive /əbˈses.ɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: obsession
Adjectives: obsessed, obsessive

ADJECTIVE

[C2] thinking too much about something, or doing something too much

Dictionary examples:
obsessive behaviour
He's obsessive about his health.

Learner example:
Nevertheless attention must be paid to the fact that being influenced by other people's personality can lead to obsessive behaviour.

obsolete /ˈɒb.səl.iːt/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not used now
Dictionary examples:
obsolete equipment
Will books become obsolete because of computers?

Learner example:
The museum’s advertisement promises an exciting experience, so students were surprised to find [so] many obsolete machines of no interest.

obstacle /ˈɒb.stə.kəl/

NOUN [c]

[C1] something that makes it hard for you to go somewhere or to succeed at something

Dictionary examples:
to overcome an obstacle
His refusal to talk is the main obstacle to peace.

Learner example:
Nowadays if you are a member of a football club, for example, you have to pay a great amount of money. This can be an obstacle for a lot of young people.

obtain /əbˈteɪn/ FORMAL

VERB [T]

[B2] FORMAL to get something

Dictionary examples:
to obtain permission
First editions of these books are now almost impossible to obtain.
In the second experiment they obtained a very clear result.
Sugar is obtained by crushing and processing sugar cane.

Learner example:
Now, he has obtained [a] permit from other countries to plant sugar in their countries.

obvious /ˈɒb.vi.əs/

Word family:
Adjectives: obvious
Adverbs: obviously

ADJECTIVE

[B1] easy to understand or see
Dictionary examples:
"How do you know she’s not happy?" "It’s obvious."
It’s obvious (that) she doesn’t like him.
There is no obvious solution.
They have a small child so for obvious reasons they need money.
I know you don’t like her, but do you have to make it so obvious?
Am I just stating the obvious?

Learner example:
The answers [to] your questions are obvious.

Obviously /ˈɒb.vi.ə.si/
Word family:
Adjectives: obvious
Adverbs: obviously

ADVERB
[B1] in a way that is easy to understand or see

Dictionary examples:
Obviously the school cannot function without teachers.
He was in tears and obviously very upset.

Learner example:
Obviously it’s a special day for all the family, so we spend a lot of time – and also lots of money – on dresses, food and flowers.

Occasion /əˈkeɪ.ʒn/
Word family:
Nouns: occasion
Adjectives: occasional Adverbs: occasionally

NOUN [C]
SPECIAL TIME
[B1] an important event or ceremony

Dictionary examples:
a special occasion
At the wedding he sang a song specially written for the occasion.
I have a suit but I only wear it on special occasions.
The coronation of a new king is, of course, a historic occasion.
Congratulations on the occasion of your wedding anniversary.
Learner example:
I enjoy wearing clothes for special occasions – for example [a] nice long dress.

PARTICULAR TIME
[B2] a time when something happens

Dictionary examples:
That was a previous/separate occasion.
We met on several occasions to discuss the issue.
I’ve heard him be rude to her on a number of occasions.

Learner example:
On one occasion our teacher left the class.

don occasion(s)
[C2] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
I only drink alcohol on occasion.

Learner example:
As I am writing this I am begin[n]ing to conclude that there are very few disadvantages of banning private cars, only that for individuals it is far easier and [more] conven[i]ent to use a private car and not rely on our public transport, which can be on occasions very unreliable.

occasional /əˈkeɪ.ʒən.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: occasion
Adjectives: occasional Adverbs: occasionally

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not happening or done often or regularly

Dictionary examples:
I play the occasional game of football.
He has the occasional cigar after dinner.

Learner example:
Of course, sometimes, there are theatre performances but I would prefer a permanent theatre to these occasional performances.
occasionally /əˈkeɪ.zən.l.i/

Word family:
Nouns: occasion
Adjectives: occasional Adverbs: occasionally

ADVERB
[B2] sometimes but not often

Dictionary examples:
I see him occasionally in town.
Occasionally I’ll have a piece of chocolate, but it's quite rare.

Learner example:
I will need to use the computer to contact my friend on E-Mail and occasionally listen to a couple of CDs.

occupation /ˌɒk.ʃəˈpeɪ.ʃən/

NOUN FORMAL

HOBBY
[C1] [c] FORMAL something that you do in your free time

Dictionary example:
He has a few occupations, such as gardening and woodwork.

Learner example:
She made literature classes an engaging activity and fun and turned reading into an absorbing and fascinating occupation.

CONTROL
[C2] [u] when an army moves into a place and takes control of it

Dictionary example:
a military occupation

Learner example:
During the German occupation in Greece she was alone in Athens with her two children, because her husband had died in Albania, fighting against the Italians.
occupy /ˈɒk.ju.pər/

VERB [T]

FILL
[B2] to fill or use a place or period of time

Dictionary examples:
His book collection occupies most of the room.
All the seats were occupied.
The babies seem to occupy all our time.

Learner example:
An intelligent solution to this is the bicycle, which can be parked almost everywhere and occupies little space.

KEEP BUSY
[B2] to keep someone busy or interested

Dictionary examples:
On long car journeys I occupy myself with solving maths puzzles.
The new toys kept the kids occupied for hours.

Learner example:
So in order to keep myself occupied for a while, I went to the restaurant, except it wasn’t open.

CONTROL
[C1] to move into a place and take control of it

Dictionary example:
The troops eventually occupied most of the island.

Learner example:
It’s a show called "Taxa" based on true stor[ies]. It takes you back to 1942, when Denmark was occupied by Germany.

occur /əˈkɜːr/ (−rr−)

Word family:
Nouns: occurrence
Verbs: occur

VERB [I]
[B2] to happen, often without being planned

Dictionary examples:
An accident involving over ten vehicles has occurred in the east-bound lane.
If any of these symptoms occur while you are taking the medicine, consult your doctor immediately.
Learner example:
Furthermore, I think that most accidents that occur with cars are due to the irresponsibility of some drivers and I think strong measures should be taken in order to punish them.

occurrence /əˈkʌr.əntz/

Word family:
Nouns: occurrence
Verbs: occur

NOUN [c]
[C1] something that happens or how often it happens

Dictionary examples:
Street fights are an everyday occurrence in this area of the city.
The study compares the occurrence of heart disease in various countries.

Learner example:
When workers began to threaten a strike, about twenty days ago, people were instructed on how to tackle such an occurrence – you know, we are well organised and like to have emergency plans for any danger.

ocean /ˈoʊ.ʃən/

NOUN [no plural]
[B1] the sea

Dictionary examples:
to swim in the ocean
It’s an island in the middle of the ocean.
These mysterious creatures live at the bottom of the ocean.

Learner example:
It has an ocean view and when I wake up in the morning the sunshine comes [in through the] window, it's the best moment in the day.

a drop in the ocean
[C2] a very small amount compared to the amount needed

Dictionary example:
My letter of protest was just a drop in the ocean.

Learner example:
Naturally it is a drop in the ocean, but we can hope that the others will imitate our behaviour.
odd  /ɒd/

Word family:
Adjectives: odd
Adverbs: oddly

ADJECTIVE

STRANGE
[B2] strange or unusual

Dictionary examples:
Her father was an odd man.
What an odd thing to say.
It struck me as odd that he hadn't called.
That's odd – I'm sure I put my keys in this drawer and yet they're not here.
It's a bit odd that no-one's seen him.

Learner example:
That struck me as odd, since it had never happened before.

the odd
[C2] used to talk about something that happens or exists sometimes but not often

Dictionary examples:
She does the odd teaching job but nothing permanent.
You get the odd person who’s rude to you but they're generally quite helpful.

Learner example:
Apart from the odd visit to other towns and villages, we used to spend the best part of our holiday on the beach.

oddly /ˈɒd.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: odd
Adverbs: oddly

ADVERB

[C2] in a strange or surprising way

Dictionary examples:
Didn't you think she was behaving rather oddly at the party yesterday?
Oddly enough, she didn't mention anything about the fact that she was getting married.

Learner example:
Oddly enough, she never seems to be really angry and perhaps it is the reason why I like confiding in her.
odds /ɒdz/

NOUN [PLURAL]

PROBABILITY
[C1] the probability that a particular thing will or will not happen

Dictionary examples:
If you drive a car all your life, the odds are that you'll have an accident at some point.
There are heavy odds against people succeeding in such a bad economic climate.
What are the odds on him being re-elected?
The odds are stacked against a woman succeeding in the business.

Learner example:
After all, on the battlefield for promotion, men still have a vital interest to set the odds against women in favour of their own opportunities.

against all (the) odds
[C2] If you do or achieve something against all the odds, you succeed although you were not likely to.

Dictionary example:
We won the game against all odds.

Learner example:
The stormy waters and heavy winds were a great challenge, and almost deemed it impossible for me to succeed, but against all odds I managed to defeat my fears.

odds and ends
[C2] INFORMAL a group of small objects of different types which are not valuable or important

Dictionary example:
I use this box to keep odds and ends in.

be at odds with sb/sth
[C2] to not agree with someone or something

Dictionary example:
His remark was at odds with our report.

Learner example:
Young people are inexperienced as far as the world is concerned and thus they are frequently at odds with their family.
odour /ˈəʊ.dər/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a smell, often one that is unpleasant

Dictionary example:
body odour

Learner example:
It was stale and had a decidedly offensive odour.

of /ɒv/

PREPOSITION

WHO/WHAT
[B1] used to show who or what does something

Dictionary examples:
the works of Shakespeare the arrival of the rainy season the music of the flute

Learner example:
They often cover the music of "The Beatles" or "The Rolling Stones".

CAUSE
[B1] showing a reason or cause

Dictionary example:
He died of cancer.

Learner example:
But, three months later, after walk[ing] in the rain he died of pneumonia.

of course
[B1] used to show that what you are saying is obvious or already known

Dictionary example:
Of course, the Olympics are not just about money.

Learner example:
Of course, I met many new people.

JUDGMENT
[B2] used after an adjective when judging someone's behaviour
Dictionary examples:
It was very nice of you to think of us.
It was a bit mean of him to mention her weight.
Thank you so much for my present. How thoughtful of you.

Learner example:
It was most thoughtful of you to invite us and I warmly appreciate your hospitality.

RELATING TO
[C1] about or relating to

Dictionary examples:
Speaking of Elizabeth, here she is.
Let us consider the events of the last five months.
We know very little of her childhood.

Learner example:
Speaking of sightseeing, many thought that visiting other sights – like the Folk Museum – should not be compulsory.

of your own accord
[C2] If you do something of your own accord, you choose to do it and no one else forces you.

Dictionary example:
She left of her own accord.

Learner example:
She would go alone, but it was something that was chosen of her own accord.

off  /ɒf/

ADVERB

AWAY FROM
[B1] away from a place or position

Dictionary examples:
I'm just off to the shops.
Keep the dog on the lead or he'll just run off.
If we can get off early tomorrow morning we'll avoid most of the traffic.
I'm off now – see you tomorrow.
She's off to Canada next week.

Learner example:
They g[o]t into the car and drove off.
LESS MONEY

[B1] If a price has a certain amount of money off, it costs that much less than the usual price.

Dictionary examples:
You can get some money off if you pay cash.
There's 40% off this week on all winter coats.
There was $40 or $50 off most jackets in the shop.

Learner example:
He promised me 30% off the price, so I'm going to buy the TV and the CD player from him.

DISTANCE/TIME

[C1] far in distance or time

Dictionary examples:
You can see the village off in the distance.
My holidays seem a long way off.
The exams are so far off that I'm not even thinking about them yet.

Learner example:
Allow me to start by saying that one day, which may lie not so far off in the future, people will visit the buildings which were formerly known as "Educational Institutions" like we visit museums to gape at the sheer size of the Dinosaurs...

PREPOSITION

AWAY FROM

[B1] down or away from a place or position

Dictionary examples:
All the leaves had dropped off the tree.
He fell off his bike.

Learner example:
I still remember the way your brother fell off the ladder that day.

REMOVED

[B1] used with actions in which something is removed or removes itself from another thing

Dictionary examples:
I can't get the lid off this jar.
Has anyone taken a book off my desk?
Could you cut me a small piece off that white cheese?
Take your feet off the seat.

Learner example:
Next month, I'm going to change my bedroom. I'll take the photographs off the wall.

1991 NEAR
[B2] near to a building or place

Dictionary example:
an island off the coast of Spain

Learner example:
He spent all night off the coast, (unfinished) off duty

[B2] If someone such as a doctor or a soldier is off duty, they are not working.

Dictionary example:
What time are you off duty tomorrow?

Learner example:
Sometimes I come off duty at ten p.m.

off the record
[C1] If you say something off the record, you do not want the public to know about it.

Dictionary example:
Off the record, ministers are saying the president must resign.

Learner example:
Off the record, how come that your reporter can print such lies when knowing they are perhaps hurting certain people in this important matter?

off limits
[C2] If an area is off limits, you are not allowed to enter it.

Dictionary example:
Most of the palace is off limits to the public.

Learner example:
The only place that was off limits for us was on the other side of the mountain, because it was too dangerous.

off the beaten track
[C2] in a place where few people go

Dictionary example:
I prefer to take my holiday somewhere off the beaten track.

Learner example:
Furthermore, in areas off the beaten track, there [are] not even police sometimes.

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

FOOD
[B2] If food or drink is off, it is not now fresh and good to eat or drink.
Dictionary example:
This milk smells off.

Learner example:
Who knows if the food isn't off?

STOPPED
[C2] stopped or given up

Dictionary examples:
The wedding’s off – she’s decided she’s too young to settle down.
It’s all off between Philippa and Mike.
The boat trip is off because of the weather.

Learner example:
On that day, she had written him a big long letter and told him that it was all off, for she didn’t love him any longer.

---

offence /əˈfɛnts/

Word family:
Nouns: offence, offender
Verbs: offend
Adjectives: offensive

NOUN

CRIME
[B2] [c] a crime

Dictionary examples:
Driving without a licence is an offence.
a serious/minor offence
a criminal offence
He committed several serious offences.
It’s the third time that he’s been convicted of a drug offence.

Learner example:
Finally, using a bike [keeps] you free of any parking problem [or] parking offence and your bike will wait [for] you all day long, [because] it won’t be to[w]ed-away!

UPSET FEELINGS
[B2] [u] when something rude makes someone upset or angry

Dictionary examples:
I really didn’t mean to cause/give any offence – I was just stating my opinion.
Do you think he took offence at what I said about his hair?
If you don’t mind, I’d rather go on my own – no offence, but I think it would be better.
Learner example:
Now, about that organisation of yours. What is it actually doing? No offence, I just wonder are you saving nature or just writing articles about it?

offend /əˈfend/

Word family:
Nouns: offence, offender
Verbs: offend
Adjectives: offensive

VERB [T]
[B2] to make someone upset or angry

Dictionary examples:
I think she was a bit offended that she hadn’t been invited to the party.
He looked a offended when you called him middle-aged.
If the sight of a few dirty dishes offends you, then I think you’ve got problems!

Learner example:
I know that she was not offended but I will never forget my stupid question.

offender /əˈfen.dər/

Word family:
Nouns: offence, offender
Verbs: offend
Adjectives: offensive

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who has committed a crime

Dictionary examples:
first-time offenders sex offenders young offenders

Learner example:
The ticket fare is very reasonable, [and] there [are] always police p[at]rol[ling] around, protecting the people from offenders.
offensive /əˈfent.sɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: offence, offender
Verbs: offend
Adjectives: offensive

ADJECTIVE
[B2] likely to make people angry or upset

Dictionary examples:
This programme contains language that some viewers might find offensive.
He told some really offensive sexist jokes.

Learner example:
Dear Sir/Madam, The review on the Westfield Music Festival was both offensive and incorrect.

offer /ˈɒf.ər/

VERB

ASK
[B1] [+ TWO OBJECTS] to ask someone if they would like something

Dictionary examples:
They've offered me a job.
Can I offer you a drink?
I feel bad that I didn't offer them any food.
Someone should offer that old lady a seat.

Learner example:
He offered me a contract and asked me to go to his music studio to record a CD.

PROVIDE
[B1] [t] to give or provide something

Dictionary examples:
to offer advice
We are now offering you the chance/opportunity to buy the complete set of DVDs at half price.
Did he offer any explanation for his strange behaviour?

Learner example:
Rome offers good nightlife so after visiting [the] museum, we'll be able to go to [the] disco.

AGREE TO PAY
[C1] [t] to say that you will pay a particular amount of money
Dictionary examples:
I offered him £500 for the car.
Police have offered a $1,000 reward for information.

Learner example:
My company will offer 20 percent more than the minimum wage that exists for the same type of work in Canada.

NOUN [C]

CHEAP
[B1] a cheap price or special arrangement for something you are buying

Dictionary examples:
This special offer ends on Friday.
Are these jeans still on offer?

Learner example:
We found a £12 offer to Leeds Castle including bus transfer and entrance ticket for the castle.

on offer
[B2] available

Dictionary examples:
We were amazed at the range of products on offer.
You should find out about the services on offer.

Learner example:
The swimming pool is also on offer [to] tourists. Another advantage of the hotel is that it is not far from the cent[re].

PAYMENT
[C2] an amount of money that you say you will pay for something

Dictionary example:
The highest offer anyone has made so far is £150.

office /ˈɒf.ɪs/

NOUN

JOB
[C1] [u] an important job in an organization

Dictionary examples:
Some people think he has been in office for too long.
She held the office of mayor for eight years.
Learner example:
The former Polish prime minister was a woman – Hanna Suchocka – and she was able to remain in office for 15 months, in the time when the life expectancy of governments in Poland is about half a year.

officer /ˈɒf.ɪ.sə/

Word family:
Nouns: officer, official
Adjectives: official
Adverbs: officially

NOUN [c]

POLICE
[B1] a police officer

Dictionary example:
a uniformed officer

Learner example:
They sent me an officer: Officer McDonald, from the anti-mafia department.

POSITION OF AUTHORITY
[B1] a person who has a position of authority in an organization

Dictionary example:
a customs/prison officer

Learner example:
I work as [a] customs officer and [in] this job I meet a lot of foreign people every day.

MILITARY
[B2] a someone with an important job in a military organization

Dictionary examples:
a naval officer
an army officer

Learner example:
He was an officer in [the] army.

official /əˈfɪʃ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: officer, official
Adjectives: official
Adverbs: officially
ADJECTIVE

APPROVED
[B2] approved by the government or someone in authority

Dictionary examples:
the official language of Singapore an official document
There is to be an official inquiry into the incident.
The queen will attend the official opening of the theatre in June.

Learner example:
I have worked as an official translator in [the] British Embass[y] in Seoul.

JOB/DUTIES
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] relating to the duties of someone in authority

Dictionary example:
an official visit

Learner example:
The two episodes in the book 'The colour of blood' that I've decided to write about are Cardinal Benn and Prime Minister meeting at the official residence, and the fatal mass in honour [of] the blessed martyrs.

KNOWN
[C2] known by the public

Dictionary examples:
Their engagement is now official.
Inflation has fallen below 2%, and that's official.

Learner example:
It was now official, she was the most beautiful girl of the school.

NOT TRUE
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] An official explanation or statement is one that is given, but which may not be true.

Dictionary example:
The official reason for the delay is bad weather.

Learner example:
Well, this was the official reason to explain his stay, [but] the truth – which I had learned later – was that Martin was a broken man.

NOUN [C]
[C2] a person who has a position of responsibility in an organization
Dictionary examples:
- a UN official
- a government/trade-union official

Learner example:
Neither Olivia nor her husband, Douglas, are Indian, but Douglas is a British official in India.

officially /əˈfɪʃ.əl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: officer, official
Adjectives: official
Adverbs: officially

ADVERB
[C1] formally and in a way agreed to or arranged by people in positions of authority

Dictionary examples:
The new hospital was officially opened yesterday.
The royal engagement was announced officially this morning.

Learner example:
If I could travel back to any place and time in history, I would choose the day when World War II was officially declared over.

off-putting /ˌɒfˈpʊt.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] slightly unpleasant or worrying so that you do not want to get involved in any way

Dictionary example:
He's slightly aggressive, which a lot of people find a bit off-putting when they first meet him.

Learner example:
Therefore, it's quite off-putting to stay in Hong Kong for higher education.

offset /ˌɒfˈset/

VERB
[C2] If one thing offsets another thing, it has the opposite effect and so creates a more balanced situation.
Dictionary example:
The costs have been offset by savings in other areas.

Learner example:
During the interview, she tried to offset the bad impression she was sure she had made.

offspring /ˈɒf.sprɪŋ/

NOUN [C] FORMAL (PLURAL offspring)
[C2] the child of a person or animal

Dictionary example:
to produce offspring

Learner example:
Now, seven years into a relationship with a woman that eventually became my wife and mother of my offspring, I sit back and recall with selfish and secret pleasure the sheer number of different women I have been out with between these two absolute landmarks in my love life.

often /ˈɒf.ən/

ADVERB

NORMAL/TRUE
[B2] If something often happens or is often true, it is normal for it to happen or it is usually true.

Dictionary examples:
Brothers and sisters often argue.
Headaches are often caused by stress.
Christmas is often mild in Britain.

Learner example:
Very often, people link classical music to Austrian or German [composers], [such] as Mozart or Handel, but rarely to England and genius[es] [such] as Haydn and Purcell.

every so often
[C2] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
He went into town every so often to buy supplies.

Learner example:
Elizabeth and others visited her every so often until [one] day she left them.
Oh /əʊ/

EXCLAMATION

Oh my God! INFORMAL
[B1] used to emphasize how surprised, angry, shocked, etc. you are

Dictionary example:
Oh my God! The car’s been stolen.

Learner example:
Oh my god, your sister is getting married!

oil /ɔɪl/

NOUN

FUEL
[B1] [u] a thick liquid that comes from under the Earth’s surface that is used as a fuel and for making parts of machines move easily

Dictionary examples:
an oil company engine oil

Learner example:
He is working in a big oil company called Agip.

burn the midnight oil
[C2] to work late into the night

Dictionary example:
I had to burn the midnight oil to get the essay finished.

Learner example:
My examinations were nearing and I was always burning the midnight oil.

old /əʊld/

ADJECTIVE

the old days
[C1] a period in the past

Dictionary example:
In the old days large families were much more common.
the same old arguments/face/story, etc.
[C1] INFORMAL something or someone you have seen or heard many times before

Dictionary examples:
Every day I see the same old faces.
Politicians repeat the same old arguments time and time again.

Learner example:
I think that it is the same old story with media all over the world that they tend to present the news in [an] exaggerated manner.

old-fashioned /ˌəʊldˈfæʃ.ənd/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not modern

Dictionary examples:
old-fashioned clothes/ideas/furniture
She’s a bit old-fashioned in her outlook.

Learner example:
But I don’t like clothes with stripes, because I think that’s a little old-fashioned.

olive /ˈɒl.ɪv/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a small green or black fruit with a bitter taste that is eaten or used to produce oil

Dictionary examples:
olive oil olive trees

Learner example:
In [the] countryside there are some hills, some sunflowers, olive trees and many medieval town[s] on the hills to visit!

omission /əʊˈmɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: omission
Verbs: omit
NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when something has not been included that should have been

Dictionary examples:
Measures to control child employment are a glaring omission from this legislation.
There are some serious errors and omissions in the book.

Learner example:
Finally, I think it would be an omission if I didn't mention the children that live in poverty and die from starvation and diseases every day.

omit /əˈmɪt/ (-tt-)

Word family:
Nouns: omission
Verbs: omit

VERB [T]
[C1] to not include something

Dictionary examples:
She was omitted from the list of contributors to the report.
The Prince's tour conveniently omitted the most deprived areas of the city.

Learner example:
The advertisement had omitted some important facts about the school, like the rare possibility of taking the exam, the problems with transport, the lack of advertised social activities.

omit to do sth
[C1] to not do something

Dictionary example:
She omitted to mention where she was going.

Learner example:
Thus, no–one else could fill the gap if they omit to teach their children basic principles of living [in] society.

on /ɒn/

PREPOSITION

on sale
[B1] available to buy in a shop, on the Internet, etc.

Dictionary example:
The video and book are now on sale.
Learner example:
I went window shopping with my friends yesterday and I saw this beautiful skirt on sale.

ABOUT

[B1] about

Dictionary examples:
a book on plants
Her thesis is on Italian women’s literature.

Learner example:
The other one is a book on dogs and cats.

NEXT TO

[B1] next to or along the side of a place or area

Dictionary examples:
Cambridge is on the River Cam.
Our house was on Sturton Street.
Strasbourg is on the border of France and Germany.

Learner example:
Dan, We are going to the cinema that is on Arocena street.

USING

[B1] using something

Dictionary examples:
I do all my household accounts on computer.
Chris is on drums and Mike's on bass guitar.
I'm on the phone.

Learner example:
I was in the pizza shop to order some food for my family and I was on the phone.

on board

[B1] on a boat, train, aircraft, etc.

Dictionary example:
There were 230 people on board the plane.

Learner example:
I also love travelling by plane because you can have a snack on board.

on fire

[B1] If something is on fire, it is burning when it should not be.

Dictionary example:
If your home was on fire and you could save only one thing, what would it be?

Learner example:
A lot of buildings were on fire.

2004 on purpose
[B1] intentionally

Dictionary example:
I didn't do it on purpose, it was an accident.

Learner example:
I didn't do it on purpose; it was dark and I just walked into it.

on time
[B1] not early or late

Dictionary example:
I got to school on time.

Learner example:
So, I will not be on time for my English class tomorrow.

on display
[B1] If something is on display, it is there for people to look at.

Dictionary example:
Many old aircraft are on display at the museum at the moment.

Learner example:
There were some new musical instruments on display.

on the whole
[B1] generally

Dictionary example:
We've had a few problems, but on the whole we're very happy.

Learner example:
On the whole I don't like watching television.

(all) on your own
[B1] alone

Dictionary example:
I like living on my own.

Learner example:
On Wedn[e]sday morning I went on my own to see [the]Vatican.

(all) on your own
[B1] without any help

Dictionary example:
I did my buttons up all on my own, Mummy.

Learner example:
Maybe I can do the missing work on my own.
TOUCH/HIT
[B2] used to show what happens as a result of touching or hitting against something

Dictionary examples:
You'll cut yourself on that knife if you're not careful.
I hit my head on the shelf as I was standing up.

Learner example:
Suddenly I hit my head on the bed as the man was talking.

FOOD/FUEL
[B2] used to show something which is used as food or fuel

Dictionary examples:
What do frogs live on?
Does this radio run on batteries?

Learner example:
All new cars run on unleaded fuel which is a benefit to the environment.

on account of sth
[B2] because of something

Dictionary example:
He doesn't eat any dairy products on account of the diet he is following.

Learner example:
On account of its location, it is always busy.

on behalf of sb or on sb's behalf [B2] If you do something on behalf of someone, you do it for them or instead of them.

Dictionary examples:
On behalf of the entire company, I would like to thank you for all your work.
Unfortunately, George cannot be with us today so I am pleased to accept this award on his behalf.

Learner example:
I am writing on behalf of our college English club members to welcome you to our city.

on balance
[B2] used to give your opinion after you have considered all the facts about something

Dictionary example:
On balance, I'd prefer to come straight home.

Learner example:
On balance, no matter how important or useful computers may be, they will never replace the pleasure of re-reading familiar pages of your favourite books.
on condition that [B2] only if

Dictionary example:
I'll come with you on condition that we're back before midnight.

Learner example:
I would like to do this on condition that you will not mention my name [on] the website.

on duty
[B2] If someone such as a doctor or a soldier is on duty, they are working.

Dictionary example:
What time are you on duty tomorrow?

Learner example:
I was on duty in front of the major’s house with another soldier.

on top of sth
[B2] in addition to something else that is bad

Dictionary examples:
On top of all this bad luck, he lost his mobile phone.
And then, on top of everything else, her car was stolen!

Learner example:
On top of everything, the weather was bad and the sea was so cold that I couldn't swim.

on the one hand ... on the other hand
[B2] used when you are comparing two different ideas or opinions

Dictionary example:
On the one hand, computer games develop many skills, but on the other, they mean kids don’t get enough exercise.

Learner example:
On the one hand, I know from my experience that it’s much easier in life if you know more about everything, but on the other hand, I'd say that if someone [had given] me a chance (when I was kid) to study what I enjoy[ed], probably I'd have more possibility to develop my skills.

on offer
[B2] available

Dictionary examples:
We were amazed at the range of products on offer.
You should find out about the services on offer.

Learner example:
The swimming pool is also on offer [to] tourists. Another advantage of the hotel is that it is not far from the cent[re].
be on a committee/panel, etc.
[C1] to be a member of a group or organization

Dictionary examples:
She's on the playgroup committee.
How many people are on your staff?
She's a researcher on a women's magazine.

Learner example:
As a student on the committee which organises this, I have to say that there have been some problems with the experience, and also that some changes should be made in order to make a better programme.

on the basis of sth
[C1] having something as a reason

Dictionary example:
Marks are awarded on the basis of progress and performance.

Learner example:
On the basis of the points mentioned above, it is a foregone conclusion that young people do not face any severe problems.

be on the ball INFORMAL
[C1] to be quick to understand and react to things

Dictionary example:
She's over ninety, but she's still on the ball.

Learner example:
When you're at Sants station, you'll need to be on the ball to find the tube.

on air
[C1] on television or radio

Dictionary example:
The radio station is on air from 6.00 a.m.

Learner example:
It is on air at 8.30 p.m. every Thursday and Saturday.

on the grounds of/that [C1] because of a particular reason

Dictionary examples:
You cannot discriminate on the grounds of religion.
I refused on the grounds that it was too risky.

Learner example:
I am convinced that it is better than Southside College on the grounds that a great mass of students are satisfied.
on hold
[C1] If a plan or activity is on hold, it will not be done until a later time.

Dictionary example:
The project is on hold until we get more money.

Learner example:
What's more, it might, intentionally or not, raise awareness on issues that might have been put on hold by authorities, such as the legalization of soft drugs.

on hold
[C1] waiting to speak to someone on the telephone

Dictionary example:
His secretary put me on hold.

Learner example:
The day after, I called your office and after being put on hold, the person answering the phone was unwilling to come up with a proper reply.

on the horizon
[C1] likely to happen soon

Dictionary example:
Economic recovery is on the horizon.

Learner example:
Often this is justified as a result of society being collectively afraid that a shortage of fuel is on the horizon.

on the increase
[C1] If something is on the increase, it is happening more often.

Dictionary example:
Violent crime is on the increase.

Learner example:
The number of motorists is on the increase everywhere in the world.

on loan
[C1] If something is on loan, someone is borrowing it.

Dictionary example:
Both paintings are on loan from the city museum.

Learner example:
For example, you can always take out on loan any video you like from our centre.

on location
[C1] If a film or television programme is made on location, it is made at a place suitable to the story.
Dictionary example:
The movie was shot on location in Kenya.

Learner example:
We can't help mentioning the nice shots on location.

on the road
[C1] driving or travelling, usually over a long distance

Dictionary example:
We’d been on the road for 48 hours.

Learner example:
I have experienced sitting behind a steering wheel on the road for many years.

on track
[C1] making progress and likely to succeed

Dictionary examples:
A fighter from Edinburgh is on track to become world heavyweight boxing champion.
We’ve got a lot of work to do but we’re on the right track.

Learner example:
The sales teams are well on track and bringing [in] new customers every day.

on show
[C1] being shown to the public

Dictionary example:
Her designs are currently on show at the Museum of Modern Art.

Learner example:
One of the facilit[ies] that really make[s] a difference is the Art Gallery, with its great exhibition on show, as well as the Art Library.

on site
[C1] inside a factory, office building, etc.

Dictionary examples:
There are two restaurants on site.
They provide on–site childcare facilities for employees.

Learner example:
A small period of training on site is required a few days before the beginning of the job itself and how many interesting people you will meet!

be on the verge of sth/doing sth
[C2] to be going to happen or do something very soon

Dictionary example:
The company is on the verge of financial disaster.
Learner example:
I was on the verge of depression, when I decided to take the control of my own life.

have/carry sth on you [C2] to have something with you

Dictionary example:
Do you have your driving licence on you?

on no account; not on any account
[C2] not for any reason or in any situation

Dictionary example:
On no account must these records be changed.

Learner example:
Mary did not want Martin to leave on any account, let alone move to a foreign country.

be on the brink of sth
[C2] to be in a situation where something bad is going to happen very soon

Dictionary example:
The two countries are on the brink of war.

Learner example:
By the end of the 21st century, Earth was on the brink of destruction. The atmosphere was polluted, the seas were poisoned, the animals were just a distant memory.

be on the cards
[C2] to be likely to happen

Dictionary example:
Do you think marriage is on the cards?

be on cloud nine \(^{\text{INFORMAL}}\)
[C2] to be extremely happy and excited

Dictionary example:
After I heard I'd got the job, I was on cloud nine!

Learner example:
But now, after the promise in which both said "yes", she was on cloud nine.

on the dot
[C2] at that exact time

Dictionary example:
We have to leave at 7.30 on the dot.

Learner example:
He gave him an address and told him to be there at six on the dot.
on occasion(s)
[C2] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
I only drink alcohol on occasion.

Learner example:
As I am writing this I am begin[n]ing to conclude that there are very few disadvantages of banning private cars, only that for individuals it is far easier and [more] conven[i]ent to use a private car and not rely on our public transport, which can be on occasions very unreliable.

be on the verge of sth/doing sth
[C2] to be going to happen or to do something very soon

Dictionary example:
a company on the verge of financial disaster

Learner example:
I was on the verge of depression, when I decided to take control of my own life.

be on the same wavelength
[C2] If two people are on the same wavelength, they have the same way of thinking and it is easy for them to understand each other.

Dictionary example:
We chatted occasionally, but I never really felt we were on the same wavelength.

Learner example:
We were on the same wavelength and we therefore started our own research.

(be) on the line
[C2] If someone's job, reputation, life, etc. is on the line, they may lose it.

Dictionary example:
If we don't win the contract, all our jobs are on the line.

Learner example:
The person who hopes to achieve success shouldn't be afraid of taking risks and sometimes putting his or her career on the line for the sake of gaining much bigger benefits.

be on edge
[C2] to be nervous or worried

Dictionary example:
Sorry for shouting – I'm a bit on edge today.

Learner example:
I was consequently on edge all the time and was not able to have fun as much as the others did.

on the face of it
[C2] used when you are describing how a situation seems on the surface
Dictionary example:
On the face of it, it seems like a bargain, but I bet there are hidden costs.

Learner example:
On the face of it, both sides have valid arguments, and it's a difficult balancing act to manage.

be on (good) form
[C2] If someone is in form or on form, they are feeling or performing well, and if they are off form they are not feeling or performing well.

Dictionary example:
Harry was on good form last night.

be on (your) guard
[C2] to be ready to deal with something difficult that might happen

Dictionary example:
Companies were warned to be on their guard for suspicious packages.

Learner example:
However, we should be on guard, so as not to let the things escape our control.

on hand or to hand
[C2] near to someone or something, and ready to help or be used when necessary

Dictionary example:
Extra supplies will be on hand, should they be needed.

Learner example:
From their point of view, they can always have you on hand whenever they need help, which is the most important part in their formative years.

on impulse
[C2] suddenly and without thinking first

Dictionary example:
I tend to act on impulse.

Learner example:
I'm seeing Milly as a capricious girl who, like most teenagers, enjoy[s] buying, although I think that she buys on impulse.

on the part of sb; on sb’s part
[C2] done or experienced by someone

Dictionary examples:
This is a major sacrifice on the part of the unions.
The accident was caused by carelessness on the instructor’s part.

Learner example:
It seems that international sports competitions have always tended to attract a great amount of interest on the part of the media and have consistently been popular with sports fans the world over.
on principle

[C2] If you refuse to do something on principle, you refuse to do it because you think it is morally wrong.

Dictionary example:
She doesn't wear fur on principle.

Learner example:
They granted themselves a little celebration: it was time to keep the promise made four years before; so they bought some bottles of wine and got drunk (the[y] who, on principle, never drank alcohol).

on the side

[C2] in addition to your main job

Dictionary example:
She does a bit of bar work on the side.

Learner example:
At work, they gave her the worst jobs to do. She knew she didn't have much choice but she still tried to find something else on the side.

on the spot

[C2] immediately

Dictionary example:
I accepted the job on the spot.

Learner example:
And when it was Meredith's turn to tell her about her impending wedding, she felt she was going to have a heart attack on the spot.

on the spur of the moment

[C2] If you do something on the spur of the moment, you do it suddenly, without planning it.

Dictionary example:
On the spur of the moment we decided to go to London for the day.

Learner example:
In reality, many people buy things on the spur of the moment only to discover later that they, in fact, do not [meet] their expect[at]ions.

on the threshold of sth

[C2] at the start of a new and important time or development

Dictionary example:
We're on the threshold of a new era in European relations.

Learner example:
On the threshold of the third millen[n]ium, there is no stopping progress.
ADVERB

MOVEMENT/POSITION
[B1] into a bus, train, plane, etc. or onto a horse

Dictionary examples:
The train suddenly started moving as I was stepping on.
Her horse began to move as soon as she was on.

HAPPENING
[B2] happening or planned

Dictionary examples:
I'm busy tomorrow, but I've got nothing on the day after.
I've got a lot on at the moment.
Do you know what's on at the cinema?
Is the party still on for tomorrow?

MOVING FORWARD
[B2] in a way which results in forward movement

Dictionary examples:
You cycle on and I'll meet you there.
Move on, please, and let the ambulance through.

Learner example:
I had just got [o]n the subway when it stopped and didn't move on.

WORKING
[B2] working or being used

Dictionary example:
The heating has been on all day.

Learner example:
For example, the staff shouldn't leave the lights [on] and the heating's on when they don't need to use it.

PERFORMING
[C2] performing

Dictionary examples:
Hurry up with the make-up – I'm on in ten minutes.
The audience cheered as the band came on.

Learner example:
My faith in youth started to fade but then a boy named Josh came on.
once /wʌnts/

ADVERB

PAST
[B1] in the past, but not now

Dictionary examples:
This house once belonged to my grandfather.
Computers are much cheaper nowadays than they once were.

Learner example:
I once went to England and I love the style of the clothes and how people dress there!

once again
[B1] again

Dictionary example:
Once again I'm left with all the washing-up!

Learner example:
Once again I'm sorry.

once more
[B1] one more time

Dictionary example:
I'd like to visit the colleges once more before we leave.

Learner example:
On Friday I will see him once more.

at once
[B1] immediately

Dictionary example:
I knew at once that I'd like it here.

Learner example:
She called for an ambulance which came at once.

once upon a time
[B1] used at the beginning of a story to mean a long time ago

Dictionary example:
Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess.

Learner example:
Once upon a time there was a very poor family.

for once
[B2] used to mean that something is happening that does not usually happen
Dictionary example:
For once, the bus came on time.

Learner example:
We would take lots of pictures, and play our own instruments, and if we get lucky enough, we would even touch the very stones and for once be embraced by magic itself.

(every) once in a while
[B2] sometimes but not often

Dictionary example:
We do go to the beach once in a while.

Learner example:
She did not say very much except for "oh" and "yes, yes" every once in a while.

at once
[C1] at the same time

Dictionary example:
They all started talking at once.

Learner example:
The study centre is really small and all the students talk at once.

all at once
[C1] suddenly

Dictionary example:
All at once he stood up and walked out of the room.

Learner example:
All at once, everything started to work again.

once and for all [C2] completely and finally

Dictionary example:
Let's get to the bottom of this matter once and for all!

Learner example:
Now I was sure that my wife had left me once and for all.

CONJUNCTION
[B2] as soon as

Dictionary examples:
Once I've found somewhere to live I'll send you my address.
Remember that you won't be able to cancel the contract once you've signed.

Learner example:
I'll write back soon once I know exactly when I can visit you.
PRONOUN

one another
[B1] each other

Dictionary example:
How can they reach an agreement if they won't talk to one another?

Learner example:
We know one another from Poland.

one by one
[B2] separately, one after the other

Dictionary examples:
One by one the old buildings in the city have been demolished and replaced with modern tower blocks.
They entered the room one by one.

Learner example:
So, he decides to investigate his death and he meets Harry's friends, one by one, to [find out] how he died, but they tell him different stories.

one at a time
[B2] separately

Dictionary example:
Eat them one at a time.

Learner example:
The story was a horrible one but it had a harmless ending. The mad man kills one at a time, but in the end, the producer of the film says: "Cut, we'll take everything once again."

one after another
[B2] (also one after the other) many, in a series, especially with very little time between them

Dictionary examples:
They had four children one after another.
She ate the chocolates one after the other until the box was finished.

Learner example:
Little parties organised one after another by [the] represent[ative]s of different countries gave me [an] opportunity to try the French, Spanish or Japanese special[tie]s.

ANY PERSON
[C1] FORMAL any person in general
Dictionary example:
One ought to respect one's parents.

Learner example:
One can learn the beauty of the Greek language by simply reading the headings and will [soon] find that "The Step" is the best newspaper of all.

(all) in one
[C2] combined into a single thing

Dictionary example:
It's a vacation and art course all in one.

Learner example:
The internet is like combining a television, a telephone and an airplane all in one.

DETERMINER

one day
[B1] at some time in the future

Dictionary example:
I'd like to go to Berlin again one day.

Learner example:
I hope one day I can become like that.

one or two
[B1] a few

Dictionary example:
I'd like to make one or two suggestions.

Learner example:
I need more T shirts, new skate shoes and perhaps one or two pullovers.

FUTURE
TIME
[B2] used to refer to a time in the future which is not yet decided

Dictionary examples:
Why don't we meet for lunch one day next week?
I'd like to go skiing one Christmas.

Learner example:
I would be very glad if Enrico could stay with you one summer.

PARTICULAR
TIME
[B2] used to refer to a particular occasion while avoiding stating the exact moment

Dictionary examples:
I met him one day in the park.
One night we stayed up talking till dawn.
He was attacked as he was walking home from work late one afternoon.
Learner example:
One afternoon, my mum called me asking what I was doing.

SINGLE

[B2] a single thing

Dictionary examples:
Do you think five of us will manage to squeeze into the one car?
There's too much data to fit onto just one disk.
I think we should paint the bedroom all one colour.

Learner example:
I would recommend just the one hotel: Riverside Hotel, which offers great value.

ONLY

[B2] used when saying there is no other person or thing

Dictionary examples:
He's the one person you can rely on in an emergency.
This may be your one and only opportunity to meet her.
My final guest on tonight's show needs no introduction. Please welcome the one and only Michael Jordan!

Learner example:
Often it's the one and only possibility for young children to see wild animals or unknown animals from the other side of the world in real life.

one way or another

[B2] in some way that is not stated

Dictionary examples:
One way or another these bills have to be paid.
Everyone at the party was related in one way or another.

Learner example:
All of them made a big difference [to] our personal life and have affected it one way or another.

one way or the other

[B2] in any way that is possible

Dictionary example:
We have to make a decision one way or the other about what needs to be done.

Learner example:
Our transportation system nowadays is also very well organised and there is a wide range of buses, subways, etc. with which you can reach your destination one way or the other.

one of a kind

[C2] used to describe someone or something that is completely different from other people or things
Dictionary example:
My Dad was one of a kind – funny, kind and generous.

Learner example:
Pele is indeed one of a kind and can be considered a model for youngsters.

oneself /wʌnˈself/

PRONOUN FORMAL
[C1] the reflexive form of the pronoun 'one' when it refers to the person speaking or people in general

Dictionary example:
How else should one protect oneself and one's family?

Learner example:
One must ask oneself: "Why is this happening?"

ongoing /ˈɒŋˌgəʊ.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] still happening

Dictionary examples:
an ongoing investigation/process/project
No agreement has yet been reached and the negotiations are still ongoing.

Learner example:
To sum up, we are extremely positive about the club's future and its ongoing success.

only /ˈəʊn.li/

ADVERB

NOWHERE ELSE
[B1] not in any other place

Dictionary examples:
At present these televisions are only available in Japan.
These birds are only found in New Zealand.

Learner example:
I think animals, just as human beings, can only live in their natural habitat.
RECENTLY

[B1] used to mean that something happened very recently

Dictionary examples:
I only arrived half an hour ago.
They only put the roof on last week.
People were leaving and I’d only just arrived.
We’d only just set off when the car broke down.

Learner example:
I am really sorry I didn’t write back earlier but I have only just got back from holiday.

NOT IMPORTANT

[B1] used to say that something is not important, or that you did not mean to upset someone

Dictionary examples:
Don’t worry – it’s only a scratch.
I was only joking.
I was only trying to help.

Learner example:
It was only a dream!

if only

[B1] used when you want to say how doing something simple would make it possible to avoid something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
If only she’d listen to what he’s saying, I’m sure they could work it out.

Learner example:
If only I had been more careful.

I only hope (that) ... /I only wish ... (that) [B2] used to emphasize what you are hoping or wishing for

Dictionary examples:
I only hope you know what you’re doing.
I only wish that they would keep in touch more regularly.

Learner example:
I only hope I can have the chance to see her too.

not only

[B2] used to say that more than one thing is true

Dictionary examples:
Not only did he turn up late, he also forgot his books.
If this project fails it will affect not only our department, but also the whole organization.
Learner example:
Not only did she introduce me to her friends but she also introduced me to her brother.

be only human [C2] to not be perfect

Dictionary example:
Of course Tom makes mistakes – he's only human.

Learner example:
In theory, it is easy to say "We should learn from the mistakes of the past" but is it easy to do so in practice? Many people would say "No" to this question, as we are only human.

only so much/many [C2] used to say that there are limits to something

Dictionary example:
There's only so much help you can give someone.

Learner example:
The effects of a longer life span have many side effects such as an increase in the world's population and, since there is only so much food, many more people are starving to death.

CONJUNCTION
[C2] used to introduce a statement which explains why something you have just said cannot happen or is not completely true

Dictionary examples:
I'd invite Frances to the party, only I don't want her husband to come.
I'd phone him myself, only I've got to go out.
This fabric is similar to wool, only cheaper.

Learner example:
He was always there for me when I needed him, only I needed him less and less.

---

onto (also on to) /ˈɒn.tu/

PREPOSITION

MOVEMENT
[B1] used to show movement into or on a particular place

Dictionary examples:
I slipped as I stepped onto the platform.
The crates were loaded onto trucks.

Learner example:
We couldn't talk so much, because the music was very loud till a group of singers came onto the dance floor and [did] a great show.
CHANGING SUBJECT

[B2] used to show that you are starting to talk about a different subject

Dictionary example:
How did we get onto this subject?

Learner example:
Let’s move onto another topic!

onwards /ˈɒn.wədz/

ADVERB (ALSO onward)

from the 1870s/March/6.30 pm, etc. onwards
[C2] beginning at a time and continuing after it

Dictionary example:
From June onwards, they began to meet regularly.

Learner example:
A growth to about 10% is expected around 2030 and an immense growth from 2030 onwards (from 10% to 27%).

open /ˈəʊ.pən/

Word family:
Nouns: opening, openness
Verbs: open
Adjectives: open, opening
Adverbs: openly

ADJECTIVE

WITHOUT BUILDINGS

[B1] An open area of land has no buildings on it or near it.

Dictionary examples:
large open spaces
From the garden there was a marvellous view over open countryside.

Learner example:
I need to be outside in open spaces.

have/keep an open mind

[B2] to wait until you know all the facts before you form an opinion about something or judge someone
Dictionary example:
We're keeping an open mind about the causes of the fire.

Learner example:
To listen, to communicate, [and] to have an open mind are a way of life [nowadays].

NOT COVERED

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] without a roof or cover

Dictionary example:
an open courtyard

Learner example:
You can hardly find anything more lovely than driving through the Scottish landscape in an open car.

open to discussion/suggestions, etc.

[C1] willing to consider a discussion/suggestions, etc.

Dictionary example:
This is only a proposal. I'm open to suggestions.

Learner example:
He seems open to ideas like this, and I am sure he will not cancel at the last minute!

HONEST

[C2] An open person is honest and does not hide their feelings.

Dictionary examples:
He's quite open about his weaknesses.
I wish you'd be more open with me, and tell me what you're feeling.
She has an honest, open face.

Learner example:
I was grateful to my flatmate who told me I should be open about myself.

NOT SECRET

[C2] not secret

Dictionary examples:
There has been open hostility between them ever since they had that argument last summer.
The prime minister has promised an open debate on the issue.

Learner example:
The council has refused to have an open discussion with the residents.

open to abuse/criticism, etc.

[C2] likely to be abused/criticized, etc.

Dictionary example:
The system is wide open to abuse.
Learner example:
The development is also open to abuse as counterfeit products could be produced in certain markets.

keep your eyes open (for sb/sth)
[C2] to watch carefully for someone or something

Dictionary example:
Keep your eyes open for anything unusual.

Learner example:
It has helped us identify and successfully combat many a nutritional hazard, keeping our eyes open to immoderate consumption of some substances and its effects.

VERB

COMPUTERS

[B1] [t] to make a computer document or program ready to be read or used

Dictionary example:
First, open the file called 'statistics'.

START OFFICIALLY

[B2] [t or T] If a business or activity opens, it starts officially for the first time, and if you open it, you make it start officially for the first time.

Dictionary examples:
That restaurant's new – it only opened last month.
The Olympic Games open tomorrow.
The new hospital will be officially opened by the mayor on Tuesday.

Learner example:
Well, I reckon that you can take photographs [of] the old castle and also the Classic Museum, which was opened by Queen Victoria 100 years ago.

open your heart

[C2] to tell someone your secret thoughts and feelings

Dictionary example:
That night, she opened her heart to me and I think that's when I fell in love with her.

Learner example:
It is during this excessively dramatic conversation that George opening up his heart, tells her about his interpretation of her unhappiness with Cecil.
opening /ˈəʊ.pən/

Word family:
Nouns: opening, openness
Verbs: open
Adjectives: open, opening
Adverbs: openly

NOUN

CEREMONY
[B2] [c usually no plural] a ceremony at the beginning of an event or activity

Dictionary example:
The official opening of the new school will take place next month.

Learner example:
The festival starts with a huge opening parade.

BEGINNING
[B2] [c usually no plural] the beginning of something

Dictionary example:
The opening of the novel is amazing.

HOLE
[C2] [c] a hole or space that something or someone can pass through

Dictionary example:
The children crawled through an opening in the fence.

Learner example:
The water in the reservoir is allowed to flow through an opening in the dam.

ADJECTIVE [always before noun]
[C1] happening at the beginning of an event or activity

Dictionary examples:
her opening remarks
the opening night

Learner example:
Also we could offer free drinks from our new products on the opening night, so we could get their first impressions.
openly /ˈəʊ.pəˌli/

Word family:
Nouns: opening, openness
Verbs: open
Adjectives: open, opening
Adverbs: openly

ADVERB
[C1] without hiding any of your thoughts or feelings

Dictionary examples:
They were openly dismissive of my suggestions.
He talks quite openly about his feelings.
We discussed our reservations about the contract quite openly.

Learner example:
I do hope that you are willing to cooperate, though I cannot say it openly.

open-minded /ˌəʊ.pənˈmaɪn.dɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] willing to consider ideas and opinions that are new or different to your own

Dictionary example:
Luckily, both my parents were very open-minded.

Learner example:
He is also open-minded and very reliable.

openness /ˈəʊ.pəˌnəs/

Word family:
Nouns: opening, openness
Verbs: open
Adjectives: open, opening
Adverbs: openly

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone is honest about their thoughts and feelings

Dictionary example:
I appreciated his openness.

Learner example:
Firstly, I have found honesty and openness significantly important.
operate /ˈɒp.ər.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: operation, operator
Verbs: operate

VERB

TREATMENT
[B1] [ɪ] to treat an illness or injury by cutting someone's body and removing or repairing part of it

Dictionary example:
Did they have to operate on him?

Learner example:
One day he decided to give part of his money to his son, whose wife was sick and had to be operated on immediately.

MACHINE
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] If a machine operates, it does what it is designed to do, and if you operate it, you make it do what it is designed to do.

Dictionary examples:
You have to be trained to operate the machinery.
These new sewing machines are easy to operate.
How do you operate the remote control unit?

Learner example:
Lots of things are operated by computers now like airplanes, elevators, ticket machines, and so on.

ORGANIZATION
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] If an organization or business operates, it is working, and if you operate it, you manage it and make it work.

Dictionary example:
Our company is operating under very difficult conditions at present.

Learner example:
Now we can get to Lampton by a coach service which is operated by ABC Coaches.

operation /ˌɒp.ərˈeɪʃn/

Word family:
Nouns: operation, operator
Verbs: operate
NOUN [c]

DOCTOR

[B1] [c] when a doctor cuts someone's body to remove or repair part of it

Dictionary examples:
a major/minor operation
He's got to have an operation on his shoulder.
We will know in a couple of days if the operation to restore her sight was successful.

Learner example:
I'm sorry that I can't attend the class tomorrow because my father is having an operation tomorrow.

PLANNED ACTIVITY

[C1] [c] an activity which is planned to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
a military/peacekeeping operation
Following the earthquake, a large-scale rescue operation was launched.
The operation to fly in supplies will begin as soon as possible.

ORGANIZATION

[C1] [c] an organization or business

Dictionary example:
a large commercial operation

Learner example:
If I cannot receive any satisfactory reply this month, I will write to the newspaper to expose your operation.

WORK

[C1] [u] the fact of operating or being active

Dictionary examples:
There are several reactors of the type in operation at the moment.
We expect the new scheme for assessing claims to come into operation early next year.

Learner example:
We see computers in operation at work as well as in almost every home.

operator /ˈɒp.ər.eɪ.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: operation, operator
Verbs: operate
NOUN [c]

PERSON CONTROLLING MACHINE
[B2] someone whose job is to use and control a machine or vehicle

Dictionary example:
a computer operator

Learner example:
Last year I was working in a printing company as a Macintosh operator.

COMPANY
[B2] a company that does a particular type of business

Dictionary example:
a tour operator

Learner example:
If once more we are not satisfied, tour operators organize several types of safari holidays wherever we like.

opinion /əˈpɪn.jən/

NOUN

OF PERSON
[B1] [c] a thought or belief about something or someone

Dictionary examples:
What's your opinion about/on the matter?
People tend to have strong opinions on capital punishment.
He didn't express/give an opinion on the matter.
Who, in your opinion, is the best football player in the world today?
Her opinion of Adam changed after he'd been so helpful at the wedding.
My doctor has referred me to a specialist for a second opinion on the results of my blood test.

Learner example:
I really enjoy shopping for clothes especially when I go shopping with my brother, because I sometimes ask him for his opinion.

OF GROUP
[B2] [u] the thoughts or beliefs that a group of people have

Dictionary examples:
Eventually, the government will have to take notice of public opinion.
There is a diverse range of opinion on the issue.
There was a difference of opinion as to the desirability of the project.
Opinion is divided as to whether the treatment actually works.
Both performances were excellent, it's simply a matter of opinion as to whose was better.
Learner example:
I would like to add that when it comes to public opinion there is a great variety of different points of view – that is why this article, which asserts that "performers were second-rate" seems to be unfair.

have a high/low opinion of sb/sth
[C1] to think that someone or something is good/bad

Dictionary example:
He has a low opinion of doctors.

Learner example:
He had a very high opinion of this particular course.

in my humble opinion
[C2] used to give your opinion about something, often when you are sure you are right

Dictionary example:
In my humble opinion, that's the wrong decision.

Learner example:
In my humble opinion, there's no such thing as a uniform celebrity, good, bad or otherwise.

opponent /ˈəʊ.pə.nənt/

NOUN [C]

SPORT
[B2] someone who you compete against in a game or competition

Dictionary example:
In the second game, her opponent hurt her leg and had to retire.

Learner example:
Carmelita was her opponent in the volleyball final.

PERSON WHO DISAGREES
[B2] someone who disagrees with an action or belief and tries to change it

Dictionary examples:
a political opponent
Leading opponents of the proposed cuts in defence spending will meet later today.

Learner example:
First of all let me look at the arguments used to support cycling and then at those of its opponents, who prefer travelling by car.
opportunity  /ˌɒp.əˈtjuː.nə.ti/

NOUN

CHANCE
[B1] [c or u] a situation in which it is possible for you to do something, or a possibility of doing something

Dictionary examples:
Everyone will have an opportunity to comment.
The exhibition is a unique opportunity to see her later work.
An ankle injury meant she missed the opportunity to take part in the race.
He goes fishing at every opportunity.
Please contact us at the earliest opportunity.

Learner example:
It's a good opportunity to spend time with your friends.

CHANCE OF JOB
[B2] [c usually plural] the chance to get a job

Dictionary examples:
employment/job opportunities opportunities for young graduates
There are far more opportunities now for school leavers than there were fifty years ago.

Learner example:
And many people don't have any other job opportunities so they would be stuck with [these] bad jobs.

take the/this opportunity to do sth
[B2] to use an occasion to do or say something

Dictionary example:
I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all of you.

Learner example:
Most of the comments [are] not right at all. I would like to take this opportunity to correct them.

oppose  /əˈpəʊz/

Word family:
Nouns: opposite, opposition
Verbs: oppose
Adjectives: opposite, opposed
Adverbs: opposite
VERB [T]
[B2] to disagree with a plan or activity and to try to change or stop it

Dictionary examples:
They both opposed the plan.
Most of the local residents opposed the closing of their hospital.
The proposed new examination system has been vigorously opposed by teachers.

Learner example:
Some of them were defending the idea that the car is the most lethal object that anybody can have, and others who opposed that idea said that the car is and [will] always be the best invention made by humanity.

opposed /əˈpəʊzd/

Word family:
Nouns: opposite, opposition
Verbs: oppose
Adjectives: opposite, opposed
Adverbs: opposite

ADJECTIVE

be opposed to sth
[C1] to disagree with a plan or activity

Dictionary example:
We’re not opposed to tax increases.

Learner example:
As you can see, Greendale Park is a very precious place for the majority of the residents, and they are opposed to the council’s plan.

as opposed to
[C2] used to say that two things are very different

Dictionary example:
I’m talking about English football, as opposed to European football.

Learner example:
Love is accepting people as they are, being tolerant and giving freedom, as opposed to possessive love, which is what is often – if not always – understood by love.
opposite /ˈɒp.ə.zɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: opposite, opposition
Verbs: oppose
Adjectives: opposite, opposed
Adverbs: opposite

ADJECTIVE

FACING
[B1] in a position facing something or someone but on the other side

Dictionary examples:
My brother and I live on opposite sides of London.
The map on the opposite page shows the main lakes in the area.
They sat at opposite ends of the table, refusing to talk.

Learner example:
[O]n the opposite side, there is a dark brown wardro[be] which is made of wood.

DIFFERENT
[B2] completely different

Dictionary examples:
All the traffic was going in the opposite direction.
Police attempts to calm the violence had the opposite effect.

Learner example:
The uncle had warned her so that she wouldn't interfer[e] with what happened at the inn, but it had the opposite effect on Mary.

the opposite sex
[C1] people who are the other sex from you

Dictionary example:
He would never dare to speak to a member of the opposite sex.

Learner example:
This is not only about trying to impress (preferably) a person of the opposite sex, but fashion also gives you a great chance to express yourself.

NOUN [C]
[B1] something or someone that is completely different from another person or thing

Dictionary examples:
The opposite of ‘fast’ is ‘slow’.
My father is a very calm person, but my mother is just the opposite.
She’s turned out to be the exact opposite of what everyone expected.
Learner example:
Physically, she's the opposite of me.

ADVERB

[B1] in a position facing someone or something but on the other side

Dictionary examples:
She asked the man sitting opposite whether he'd mind if she opened the window.
The people who live opposite are always making a lot of noise.

Learner example:
I was on the pavement next to my house and I was calling to my friend, when suddenly I saw a man who [was] just going around to my neighbour's car, which was parked opposite.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>opposition</th>
<th>/ˌɒp.əˈzɪʃ.n/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: opposite, opposition
Verbs: oppose
Adjectives: opposite, opposed
Adverbs: opposite

NOUN [U]

DISAGREEMENT

[C1] strong disagreement

Dictionary examples:
There is fierce/strong opposition to the proposed changes.
The unions are in opposition to the government over the issue of privatization.

Learner example:
The students, in an attempt to demonstrate the opposition of the Greek people to the military regime, occupied their schools for many days.

the opposition

[C1] the political parties in a country that are not part of the government

Dictionary example:
The opposition is arguing for a review of the policy.

Learner example:
He was elected MP for a record of 9 times [and] was the leader of EPE for many years, leading the opposition when Georgios Papandreou, Andreas' father was in power.
opt  /ɒpt/

Word family:
Nouns: option
Verbs: opt
Adjectives: optional

VERB [i]
[C1] to choose something or to decide to do something

Dictionary examples:
Mike opted for early retirement.
Most people opt to have the operation.

Learner example:
My recommendation today is to take in[to] consideration people's views and opt for the 'Park and Ride'.

optimism  /ˈɒp.tɪ.mɪ.zəm/

Word family:
Nouns: optimism, optimist
Adjectives: optimistic

NOUN [u]
[C2] when you believe good things will happen

Dictionary examples:
There was a note of optimism in his voice as he spoke about the company's future.
Judging from your examination results, I think you have cause for cautious optimism about getting a university place.

Learner example:
We had never been abroad on our own and our hearts were full with a mixture of optimism, curiosity and absurd fears.

optimist  /ˈɒp.tɪ.mɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: optimism, optimist
Adjectives: optimistic

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone who always believes that good things will happen

Dictionary example:
She's an optimist.
Learner example:
She is an incurable optimist with a great sense of humour.

optimistic /ˌɒp.tɪˈmɪstɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: optimism, optimist
Adjectives: optimistic

ADJECTIVE
[B2] always believing that good things will happen

Dictionary example:
She is optimistic about her chances of winning a gold medal.

Learner example:
I'm not very optimistic about them being sensitive enough to try to produce [fewer] cars, putting human life before their profits.

option /ˈɒp.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: option
Verbs: opt
Adjectives: optional

NOUN [C]

CHOICE
[B1] a choice

Dictionary examples:
We don't have many options.
I'm still considering my options.
The best option would be to cancel the trip altogether.
We always have the option of refusing to go.
There are various options open to someone who is willing to work hard.

Learner example:
It sounds like a difficult decision to make, but my advice is to go to a large school in the centre of the town, because I think you'll have way more options to choose from.

have no option (but to do sth)
[C1] to not have the possibility of doing something else

Dictionary example:
We didn't want to dismiss him, but we had no option.
Learner example:
For example, [on] the first day, Monday, students have the day free with their host parents but there are some of them who work all day and the students have no option but to stay alone in the house.

optional  /ˈɒp.ʃən.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: option
Verbs: opt
Adjectives: optional

ADJECTIVE
[B2] If something is optional, you can choose whether to do it, pay it, buy it, etc.

Dictionary example:
English is compulsory for all students, but art and music are optional.

Learner example:
Refer[ring] to optional lessons, it was recommended that Speaking and Listening, Computer [Studies] and Business English are suitable for filming.

or  /ɔːr/

CONJUNCTION

WARNING
[B1] used to give someone a warning or advice

Dictionary example:
You should eat more, or you’ll make yourself ill.

Learner example:
She called "Bill, come here or you'll be in trouble".

OR SO INFORMAL
[B1] approximately

Dictionary example:
They raised two hundred pounds or so for charity.

Learner example:
After an hour or so they changed the flight and new people came, then he realised that his suitcase was lost.

CHANGE
[B2] used to change or correct something you have said
Dictionary examples:
We told the truth, or most of it.
Rosalind, or Roz to her friends, took the initiative.
Things have been going quite well recently. Or they were, up until two days ago.

Learner example:
She is the one [who goes] around with all Rebecca's secrets. Or, almost all the secrets.

or else
[B2] used to say what will happen if another thing does not happen

Dictionary example:
We must be there by six, or else we'll miss the beginning.

Learner example:
[He] told me to hurry up, or else I would miss my bus.

REASON
[C1] used to give a reason for something you have said

Dictionary example:
She must love him or she wouldn't have stayed with him all these years.

or two
[C1] used to show a very small number, usually one or two

Dictionary example:
I'd like to say a word or two about loyalty.

Learner example:
Many fathers do not realize what they are missing by not demanding the privilege of staying at home with the child, at least for a month or two.

or else
[C2] used to compare two different things or situations

Dictionary example:
He talks to her all the time, or else he completely ignores her.

Learner example:
Naturally Olivia's leaving affects Douglas, though not as strongly as one could have expected or else he simply does not show it.

oral /ˈɔːrəl/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] spoken, not written

Dictionary example:
an oral agreement/exam
Learner example:
To sum it up, watching TV improves our oral skills and is a better way of taking notice of the world outside, whereas books improve our writing and reading skills.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Orchestra</th>
<th>/ˈɔː.kɪ.strə/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>orchestra</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>orchestral</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] a large group of musicians who play different instruments together</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a symphony orchestra</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She's a cellist in the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I have to go for orchestra practice as we are going to perform on television next week.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Orchestrall</th>
<th>/ˈɔːs.trəl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>orchestra</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>orchestral</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] played by, written for or to do with an orchestra</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>an orchestral arrangement</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The lyrics are about life, love, pain and death but the most important thing is how these lyrics match with the orchestral part of the song.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ordeal</th>
<th>/ˈɔː(d)əl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] a very unpleasant experience</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The hostages' ordeal came to an end when soldiers stormed the building.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They feared he would not survive the ordeal.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She went through the ordeal of being interviewed by a panel of ten people.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
The first ordeal is the transfer to the airport, in which tears from the children on the back seats along with the many question[s] about what probably might be missing are fixed points in the programme.

order /ˈɔːdər/

Word family:
Nouns: order, disorder

NOUN

ARRANGEMENT

[B1] [u] the way in which people or things are arranged, either in relation to one another or according to a particular characteristic

Dictionary examples:
The children lined up in order of age/height.
I can't find the file I need because they're all out of order.
I've put the files in alphabetical order.

Learner example:
This is the order of the wedding [ceremony]: first the man and the woman enter the church together.

in order (for sb/sth) to do sth

[B1] with the purpose of achieving something

Dictionary examples:
He came home early in order to see the children before they went to bed.
She worked all summer in order to save enough money.

Learner example:
She will go to the United States in order to improve her English.

out of order

[B1] If a machine or system is out of order, it is not working as it should.

Dictionary example:
The coffee machine's out of order.

Learner example:
Last week my TV was out of order.

INSTRUCTION

[B2] [c] an instruction that someone must obey

Dictionary examples:
The soldiers fired as soon as their commander gave the order.
Soldiers must obey orders.
Learner example:
Today I can still remember my last order: “Put that light out!”

TIDY
[B2] [u] a situation in which everything is in its correct place

Dictionary examples:
I like to put everything in order before I go away.
The house was so untidy that she spent the whole day trying to establish some sort of order.

Learner example:
Everything was clean and in order.

CORRECT BEHAVIOUR
[C2] [u] a situation in which people obey laws and there is no trouble

Dictionary examples:
The teacher found it hard to keep her class in order.
As the demonstration began to turn violent, the police were called in to restore order.
After some heated discussion, the chair called the meeting to order.

Learner example:
Some young people began to be aggressive, putting everything in a mess; some policemen trying to restore order even got wounded.

economic/political/social order
[C2] the way that the economy, politics, or society is organized

Dictionary example:
a threat to the established social order

Learner example:
The failure of the social order Ralph tries to establish and the success of beautifully painted hunters led by Jack, hunting pigs up in the mountains, slowly makes the number of Ralph’s supporters diminish.

law and order
[C2] the obeying of laws in society

Dictionary example:
a breakdown in law and order

Learner example:
The breakdown in law and order, lack of basic amenities to support life, absence of a fair and enabling environment for citizens to thrive, to mention but a few, are some among many factors that constitute the cogent reason why most Nigerians choose to travel out of their own country.

VERB

INSTRUCT
[B2] [t] to give someone an instruction that they must obey
Dictionary examples:
The management has ordered a cutback in spending.
"Wait over there," she ordered.
They ordered him to leave the room.

Learner example:
Then, the men ordered him to walk back to the museum as if nothing had happened.

ordinary /ˈɔː.dɪ.nə.ri/

ADJECTIVE

NOT SPECIAL
[B1] not special, different, or unusual in any way

Dictionary examples:
These are ordinary people living ordinary lives.
It was a fairly ordinary house.
I thought the food was very ordinary.

Learner example:
It is an ordinary bedroom with white–coloured walls, two drawers, a TV and a bed, of course.

out of the ordinary [C2] unusual or different

Dictionary examples:
Their relationship was a little out of the ordinary.
The investigation revealed nothing out of the ordinary.

Learner example:
This event is something out of the ordinary for local life and it gives our town prestige and originality.

organ /ˈɔː.gən/

NOUN [C]

BODY
[C1] a part of an animal or plant that has a special purpose

Dictionary examples:
an external/internal/reproductive organ an organ donor/transplant

Learner example:
Now you can replace or heal almost every bone or organ in a human body.
MUSIC
[C2] a large musical instrument that has keys like a piano and produces different notes when air is blown through pipes of different lengths

Dictionary example:
a church organ

Learner example:
I played the piano for three hours every day, took organ lessons and at the age of 10 started to write programs on my home computer.

organic /ˈɔːɡənɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not using artificial chemicals when keeping animals or growing plants for food

Dictionary example:
organic food/fruit/farms/farmers/vegetables

Learner example:
Also, people care more about what really is in the food they eat and so interest in organic food is increasing.

organization (also UK organisation) /ˈɔːɡənˌɪzaʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: organization, organizer
Verbs: organize
Adjectives: disorganized, organized

NOUN

GROUP
[B1] [c] an official group of people who work together for the same purpose

Dictionary examples:
the World Health Organization
The article was about the international aid organizations.

Learner example:
Everyone would pay for it and they would give the money to an organisation who help poor children in Africa.

PLANNING
[B1] [u] the planning of an activity or event
Dictionary example:
He didn't want to be involved in the organization of/for the conference, although he agreed to attend.

Learner example:
I hope you could come and help me with this party organisation?

ARRANGEMENT
[C1] [u] the way that parts of something are arranged

Dictionary example:
I'm trying to improve the organization of my computer files.

Learner example:
He also stressed the importance of timing and organisation of your speech and the procedure of business meetings.

organize (also UK organise) /ˈɔːɡəˌnайz/

Word family:
Nouns: organization, organizer
Verbs: organize
Adjectives: disorganized, organized

VERB [T]

PLAN
[B1] to plan or arrange something

Dictionary examples:
He had organized the whole event.
They organized a meeting between the teachers and students.
She had organized a car to meet me at the airport.

Learner example:
There are two soccer fields where the members organise matches and tournaments.

ARRANGING
[B2] to do or arrange something according to a particular system

Dictionary example:
The books were organized on the shelves according to their size.

Learner example:
Now Museums are big, have lots of light and you can find the latest technology in them. They are organized in such a different way.
organized (also UK organised) /ˈɔːɡən.aɪzd/

Word family:
Nouns: organization, organizer
Verbs: organize
Adjectives: disorganized, organized

ADJECTIVE

PLANNED
[B2] planned or arranged

Dictionary examples:
We didn't go on an organized tour.
The letters had been placed in organized piles, one for each letter of the alphabet.

Learner example:
Are there any organised trips?

GOOD AT PLANNING
[B2] describes someone who is able to plan things carefully and keep things tidy

Dictionary example:
She’s not a very organized person and she always arrives late at meetings.

Learner example:
I am also a very organised person and extremely healthy.

organizer (also UK organiser) /ˈɔːɡən.aɪ.zər/

Word family:
Nouns: organization, organizer
Verbs: organize
Adjectives: disorganized, organized

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who plans an event or activity

Dictionary examples:
conference/exhibition organizers
There aren't enough seats for all the guests - I must tell the organizers.

Learner example:
According to the organisers, they sold over 5,000 tickets.
orientation /ˌɔr.i.enˈteɪ.ʃən/

NOUN

BELIEFS
[C2] [c or u] the type of beliefs that a person has

Dictionary example:
He's very secretive about his political orientation.

Learner example:
Travelling can be enlightening for people who travel to [a] country which is poorer or [a] country with [a] different political orientation.

TRAINING
[C2] [u] training or preparation for a new job or activity

Dictionary example:
an orientation session

Learner example:
I may require some training or orientation should you be using specialized cleaning tools or equipment.

origin /ˈdr.i.dʒɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: origin, original
Verbs: originate
Adjectives: original
Adverbs: originally

NOUN [C or U]

CAUSE
[B2] (also origins) the cause of something, or where something begins or comes from

Dictionary examples:
What's the origin of that saying?
It's a book about the origins of the universe.
The furniture was French in origin.

Learner example:
The cooking is base[d] on traditional recipes of Westfalian origin and it is tasty but often very rich!
COUNTRY/RACE, ETC.

[C1] the country, race, or social class of a person's family

Dictionary examples:
He is of North African origin.
What is your of origin?
The president's family was of humble origins.

Learner example:
The rules are very simple, they can be understood by everyone, regardless of age, origin or social status.

---

original /əˈrɪdʒ.ə.nəl/

Word family:
Nouns: origin, original
Verbs: originate
Adjectives: original
Adverbs: originally

ADJECTIVE

FIRST MADE

[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] existing since the beginning, or being the earliest form of something

Dictionary examples:
That was my original plan.
Is this the original fireplace?
The gardens have recently been restored to their original glory.

Learner example:
The film was amazing, with excellent special effects and good actors, even if some of the story is a little different from the original novel (which I've read twice!)

INTERESTING

[B1] special and interesting because of not being the same as others

Dictionary examples:
Her essay was full of original ideas.
He's a highly original thinker.

Learner example:
I like to be original.

PAINTING, ETC.

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] describes a piece of work produced by an artist or writer and not a copy
Dictionary examples:
an original drawing/manuscript
Is this an original Rembrandt?

Learner example:
The War Theatre is visited daily [by] thou[s]ands of people from all [over] the world because of its fantastic Van Gogh original paintings.

NOUN [c]
[B2] something that is in the form in which it was first created and has not been copied or changed

Dictionary example:
If the painting is an original, it will be very valuable.

Learner example:
She was paying him, but not as much as she would need to [to] buy the original.

originally /əˈrɪdʒ.ɪ.nə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: origin, original
Verbs: originate
Adjectives: original
Adverbs: originally

ADVERB
[B2] at the beginning or before any changes

Dictionary example:
Originally it was a bedroom, but we turned it into a study.

Learner example:
I've been living in England for 6 months and I have studied English for 8 years in Sweden, where I was originally born.

originate /əˈrɪdʒ.ə.nət/
VERB [v]

originate from/in/with, etc.
[C2] to come from a particular place, person or cause, or to begin during a particular period

Dictionary example:
Citrus fruits originated in China and Southeast Asia.

Learner example:
They originated in Polynesia but had come to N[ew] Z[ealand] about one thousand years ago.

ornament /ˈɔː.nə.mənt/

NOUN [n]

[C2] an attractive object that is used as a decoration in a home or garden

Dictionary example:
There were glass ornaments on the shelf.

Learner example:
Expensive products such as necklaces and decorative ornaments are highly represented, much to the joy of the more wealthy people in the town.

orphan /ˈɔː.fən/

NOUN [n]

[C2] a child whose parents have died

Dictionary example:
They adopted an orphan.

Learner example:
"Vanyka" is [a] story about a nine–year–old orphan sent to Moscow to work as a servant in a rich [person's] house.

orthodox /ˈɔːθə.dɒks/

ADJECTIVE

RELIGION
[C2] keeping the traditional beliefs and customs of Judaism or some types of Christianity

2051
Dictionary examples:
an orthodox Jewish family
the Russian/Greek Orthodox Church

Learner example:
Her ancestors were orthodox Jews and Rabbis.

IDEA

[C2] If ideas or methods are orthodox, most people think they are correct, usually because they have existed for a long time.

Dictionary example:
orthodox medicine

Learner example:
Despite both being healthy people something appeared to be wrong after following all the orthodox methods to conceive a child.

other /ˈʌðə/

DETERMINER

DIFFERENT

[B1] different from the thing or person already mentioned

Dictionary examples:
I don't have any cash – is there no other way of paying?
Ask me some other time when I'm not so busy.
He likes travelling abroad and learning about other people's customs and traditions.

Learner example:
The two kids [had] waited [long] enough so they decided to walk. The girl asked: "Is there any other way the Man [can] hurt us?"

the other side/end (of sth)

[B1] the opposite side or end of something

Dictionary examples:
Put the chair at the other end of the desk.
The man was waiting on the other side of the street.

Learner example:
I'll move my bed to the other side of my room.

the other day/week, etc.

[B1] referring to a day, week, etc. in the recent past without saying exactly when it was
Dictionary example:
I saw him just the other day/night.

Learner example:
Dear John, Thanks for the letter you wrote me the other day.

in other words
[B2] used to introduce an explanation that is simpler than the one given earlier

Dictionary example:
He was economical with the truth – in other words, he was lying.

Learner example:
We are able to use zoos as a place where we can spend our free time with our children. In other words, it is a good place for the family.

the other way round/around
[B2] happening in the opposite way

Dictionary example:
I thought the older people would be more offended than the young people, but it was the other way round.

Learner example:
As you know, I did that the other way round for the States.

or other INFORMAL
[C1] used when you cannot or do not want to be exact about the information you are giving

Dictionary examples:
The event was held in some park or other.
We'll find someone or other to help us.

Learner example:
Maybe you hate the memory of boring literature classes at school, but I'm sure each of you is interested in some subject or other.

other than [C1] FORMAL different from or except

Dictionary examples:
Holidays other than those in this brochure do not have free places for children.
The form cannot be signed by anyone other than yourself.
There's nothing on TV tonight, other than rubbish.

Learner example:
There are no vegetarian alternatives other than cheese sandwiches, which our members find very depressing.

other than that
[C1] except for the thing you have just said
Dictionary example:
My arm was a bit sore – other than that I was fine.

Learner example:
Currently, I only have a small corner in the room whereas my sisters get a bigger portion. This means I have to keep all my things under the bed. Other than that, I would like a big beautiful garden because I love nature.

every other day/week, etc.
[C2] happening one day/week, etc. but not the next

Dictionary example:
Alice goes to the gym every other day.

Learner example:
The rubbish is collected every other day, which is quite often.

PRONOUN

others
[B1] people in general, not including yourself

Dictionary example:
You shouldn’t expect others to do your work for you.

Learner example:
I think that I would be very useful there, because I know that they need people who enjoy helping others and I am one of those [people].

others
[B2] more ones

Dictionary examples:
This one is broken – do you have any others?
I only know about this book, but there might be others.

Learner example:
In fact, we [might] manage to do some interesting activities such as mountain biking in Sintra, canoeing in Teja, etc. You would be glad to see how many interesting people we [might] meet while doing those activities and any others that you would like to [do].

otherwise /ˈʌð.ə.waɪz/}

ADVERB

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN
[B1] used after an order or suggestion to show what the result will be if you do not follow that order or suggestion
Dictionary examples:
I'd better write it down, otherwise I'll forget it.
You really must phone home. Otherwise, your parents will start to worry.

Learner example:
Oh! I'll have to buy a table for the computer. Otherwise, I'll have to use my computer on my bed.

NOT INCLUDING
[B2] except for what has just been referred to

Dictionary examples:
The bike needs a new saddle, but otherwise it's in good condition.
The poor sound quality ruined an otherwise splendid film.

Learner example:
This seemed the high point of an otherwise dull and disorganised event.

DIFFERENTLY
[C1] different to what has just been stated

Dictionary examples:
I'll meet you there at 6 o'clock, unless I hear otherwise.
The police believe he is the thief, but all the evidence suggests otherwise.
Under the law, a person is presumed innocent until proved otherwise.
Marion Morrison, otherwise known as the film star John Wayne, was born in 1907.
I can't meet you on Tuesday – I'm otherwise engaged.

Learner example:
An important event in the history of Greece was the Civil War between the cities of Athens and Sparti around 400 B.C., otherwise known as [the] Pelopon[nes]ian War.

ought to /ɔːt.tuː/

MODAL VERB

BEST THING
[B1] used to say or ask what is the correct or best thing to do

Dictionary examples:
We ought to tidy up before we go.
You ought to see a doctor.
He ought to have told her the truth.
Ought I to phone her?

Learner example:
I ought to go to the doctor tomorrow.
TRUE

[B2] used to say that you expect something to be true or that you expect something to happen

Dictionary examples:
She ought to be home by now.
He ought to pass the exam this time.

Learner example:
All the students ought to know how famous you are. You are a very well-known writer who was born in Rhodes.

out /aʊt/

ADVERB

AWAY FROM INSIDE

[B1] used to show movement away from the inside of a place or container

Dictionary examples:
Get out!
She opened the window and stuck her head out.
The bag burst and the apples fell out.
He opened the drawer and took out a pair of socks.
My secretary will see you out.

Learner example:
When I was on the plane, I decided to open my suitcase to take out my CD player because I was bored.

APPEAR

[B1] able to be seen

Dictionary examples:
The stars are out tonight.
The rain stopped and the sun came out.
The flowers are starting to come out.

Learner example:
In the beginning it was raining a little bit, but then the sun came out.

AVAILABLE

[B1] available to buy or see

Dictionary examples:
Is the new Harry Potter book out yet?
The new Tarantino movie comes out in August.
Learner example:
It came out just yesterday.

DISAPPEAR

[B1] to the point where something is removed or disappears

Dictionary examples:
The stain won't come out.
Cross out any words that are not on the list.

Learner example:
A friend of mine told me, when he was in Lampton, that you couldn't have special rates for students at Hotel Royal, so you should cross [that information] out of the guide.

out loud

[B1] If you say or read something out loud, you say or read it so that other people can hear you.

Dictionary example:
I had to read the essay out loud in front of the whole school.

Learner example:
She wouldn't accept it so I read [it] out loud for her to hear: "Director, Jason Meyer, and producer, Sami Woods, are receiving...".

LIGHT/FIRE

[B2] If a light or fire is out, it is no longer shining or burning.

Dictionary examples:
When we got home, all the lights were out.
Is that fire completely out?

Learner example:
I looked out through the window to check if the lights were out in the windows of the block of flats next to ours.

NOT ACCURATE

[C1] not accurate

Dictionary example:
Your figures are out by £300.

FAR AWAY

[C2] a long distance away from land, a town or your own country

Dictionary examples:
The fishing boats were out at sea for three days.
They live out in the countryside, miles from anywhere.
He lived out in Zambia for seven years.

Learner example:
Today I live out in the country.
down and out
[C2] having no money, no luck and no opportunities

Dictionary example:
Nobody loves you when you're down and out.

Learner example:
The neglect of social security as a vital point in state policies leaves homeless people down and out, with little chance for improving their bleak prospects.

the ins and outs of sth
[C2] the details of a particular subject

Dictionary example:
the ins and outs of the legal system

Learner example:
I knew all the ins and outs of every story but I couldn't stay one single day in bed without reading it.

outbreak /ˈaʊt.breɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: break, outbreak
Verbs: break
Adjectives: breakable, broken

NOUN [c]
[C2] when something unpleasant and difficult to control starts, such as a war or disease

Dictionary examples:
an outbreak of flu/food poisoning/rioting/war
Last weekend saw further thundery outbreaks.

Learner example:
Being a GP during the time of another outbreak of the flu, meant long hours of hard work.

outcome /ˈaʊt.kʌm/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[C1] the final result of an activity or process

Dictionary example:
It's too early to predict the outcome of the meeting.
Learner example:
In order to ensure a pleasant end-of-term activity and to avoid yet another negative outcome, it is necessary for us to dispose of a great sum of money.

outdoor /ˌaʊtˈdɔːr/

Word family:
Adjectives: outdoor
Adverbs: outdoors

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] happening, used, or in a place that is outside and not inside a building

Dictionary examples:
an outdoor swimming pool/concert outdoor clothes

Learner example:
The water temperature of the outdoor pool is relatively cold because it's filled with natural mountain-spring-water.

outdoors /ˌaʊtˈdɔːz/

Word family:
Adjectives: outdoor Adverbs: outdoors

ADVERB
[B1] outside

Dictionary example:
If the weather's good, we'll eat outdoors.

Learner example:
My parents always tell me that I should spend more time outdoors.

outer /ˈaʊ.tə/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] on the edge or surface of something

Dictionary examples:
Remove the outer layers of the onion.
the outer lane of the motorway outer London
Learner example:
Perhaps you could give some consideration to the outer building, like renovation work.

outgoing /ˌaʊtˈgəʊ.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

FRIENDLY
[C1] Someone who is outgoing is friendly, talks a lot, and enjoys meeting people.

Dictionary example:
Anne is very outgoing, but her sister’s quite shy.

Learner example:
He is very outgoing, friendly and communicative.

LEAVING A PLACE
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] going to another place, or leaving a job

Dictionary examples:
outgoing mail/calls/flights
the outgoing chairman

Learner example:
We therefore propose you scrap your plans for Terminal 5 and instead try to reduce the number of incoming and outgoing flights, by diverting some planes to Luton or Stansted or Gatwick Airport.

outgoings /ˈaʊtˌgəʊ.ɪŋz/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[C2] money that you have to spend on rent, food, etc.

Dictionary example:
After my regular outgoings, I have about £100 a week left.

Learner example:
When you have paid for all your outgoings, you could start to think about entertainment.
Outlet /ˈaʊt.let/

Noun [C]

Shop
[C2] In business, an outlet is a shop that sells one type of product or the products of one company.

Dictionary example:
He works in a sports outlet outside town.

Learner example:
In addition, the atmosphere is cheered up by the presence of the most well-known fast-food outlets of our country, where the client can find some rest and food at a good [price].

Express
[C2] a way for someone to express an emotion, idea, or ability

Dictionary example:
She needs a job that will provide an outlet for her creative talent.

Learner example:
I am a very busy person but I try to find time to go to concerts, which, I think, are an excellent outlet for our feelings.

Outline /ˈaʊt.laɪn/

Noun [C]

Description
[B2] a short description of the most important ideas or facts about something

Dictionary examples:
If you read the minutes of the meeting, they'll give you a brief/broad outline of what was discussed.
Some novelists start by writing an outline.

Learner example:
Perhaps a brief outline of the party will help you to make your decision.

Shape
[C2] the shape made by the outside edge of something

Dictionary example:
She drew the outline of the boat and then coloured it in.

Learner example:
The roof tiles were of a beautiful shade of pink, each of them carved in an outline of a heart.
VERB [T]

[B2] to describe only the most important ideas or facts about something

Dictionary example:
At the interview she outlined what I would be doing.

Learner example:
First of all, I will briefly outline some personal details.

outlook /ˈaʊt.lʊk/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

FUTURE

[C1] the likely future situation

Dictionary examples:
The outlook for the economy is bleak.
The outlook for today is cloudy and dry at first with showers later.

Learner example:
The outlook for all three companies is bright over the next 5 years.

THINKING

[C2] the way a person thinks about something

Dictionary example:
Despite her illness, she has a very positive outlook on life.

Learner example:
He was a kind and friendly man, with an optimistic outlook on life.

outnumber /ˌaʊtˈnʌm.bər/

Word family:
Nouns: number
Verbs: number, outnumber
Adjectives: innumerable, numerous

VERB [T]

[C1] to be larger in number than another group

Dictionary example:
Women now far outnumber men on language courses.

Learner example:
An annual average rate of 10% GDP growth for the past ten years has created more than 7 million new jobs, which outnumbered the number of new male entrants.
out-of-date /ˌaʊt.əvˈdeɪt/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] old and no longer useful, correct or fashionable

Dictionary example:
I had a very out-of-date map.

Learner example:
I don’t want to be an out-of-date person.

out of /ˈaʊt.əv/

PREPOSITION

NO LONGER INSIDE
[B1] used to show movement away from the inside of a place or container

Dictionary examples:
A peach rolled out of the bag.
I jumped out of bed and ran downstairs.

Learner example:
Once he told me that he and his other friend saw a cat falling out of a window.

MADE FROM
[B1] used to show what something is made from

Dictionary examples:
The dress is made out of silk.
The statue was carved out of a single block of stone.

Learner example:
I love clothes which are made out of cotton. These are perfect for this hot weather.

FROM AMONG
[B1] from among an amount or number

Dictionary examples:
Nine out of ten people said they liked the product.
No one got 20 out of 20 in the test.

Learner example:
He got 99.4 out of 100, "Oh my God".

out of date
[B1] old and no longer useful, correct or fashionable
Dictionary example:
These unemployment figures are out of date.

Learner example:
The library has got very poor staff and most of it is out of date.

out of order
[B1] If a machine or system is out of order, it is not working as it should.

Dictionary example:
The coffee machine's out of order.

Learner example:
Last week my TV was out of order.

out of work
[B1] not in a job

Dictionary examples:
I've been out of work for the last six months.
Both she and her husband are out of work.

Learner example:
Right now I am out of work and would like to try something different for a while.

NO LONGER IN CONDITION
[B2] no longer in a particular condition or situation

Dictionary example:
The patient is now out of danger.

Learner example:
She told me that D was out of danger and that she will have other information tomorrow.

BECAUSE OF
[B2] used to show the reason why someone does something

Dictionary examples:
I took the job out of necessity because we had no money left.
Just out of interest, how much did it cost you?
I only went there out of curiosity.

Learner example:
When the warrior had left, the explorer [explored the cave] out of curiosity and [to] his big surprise found the treasure.

be out of sth
[B2] to have no more of something left

Dictionary example:
We're nearly out of petrol.
Learner example:
By then I was out of money so I start[ed] walking.

be out of breath
[B2] to be breathing quickly because you have been running, walking fast, etc.

Dictionary example:
He burst into the room, red-faced and out of breath.

Learner example:
I find that shopping is very good exercise too! By the time you have completed the whole High Street, you will be out of breath.

out of control
[B2] If something or someone is out of control, you cannot influence, limit or direct them.

Dictionary example:
The car skidded and went out of control, crashing into an oncoming truck.

Learner example:
I had just driven through Piazza Duomo, when another car came round a corner much too fast, skidded, and went out of control.

out of nowhere
[B2] If someone or something appears out of nowhere, it appears suddenly or unexpectedly.

Dictionary example:
The car came out of nowhere and we had to swerve to miss it.

Learner example:
I was lying all alone on the beach, then suddenly, out of nowhere, right behind me those strange creatures appeared.

be out of practice
[B2] to not do something well because you have not done it recently

Dictionary example:
I didn't play very well today – I'm out of practice.

Learner example:
I think playing in the club will be a great opportunity for me so as not to be out of practice.

out of stock
[B2] not available in a shop

Dictionary example:
The book is out of stock at the moment.

Learner example:
And sometimes the item you are looking for is out of stock.
out of season
[C1] If vegetables or fruit are out of season, they are not usually available at that time.

Dictionary example:
Strawberries are out of season at the moment.

Learner example:
As our place was famous for fresh sea food, I bought crabs and salmon although they were out of season and expensive.

out of tune
[C1] singing or playing the wrong notes

Dictionary example:
The piano is out of tune.

Learner example:
Even if you sing out of tune please call us.

out of the blue
[C1] If something happens out of the blue, it is completely unexpected.

Dictionary example:
One day, out of the blue, she announced that she was leaving.

Learner example:
Dear Kim, I was extremely happy when I received your letter out of the blue.

out of action
[C1] damaged or hurt and not able to operate or play sports

Dictionary examples:
I'm afraid my car's out of action.
They've got three players out of action.

Learner example:
The air-condition[ing] in my room was out of action and the hotel manager didn't care.

out of your depth
[C2] not having the knowledge, experience, or skills to deal with a particular subject or situation

Dictionary example:
When they start talking about philosophy, I'm completely out of my depth.

Learner example:
It was my first day of school. What I can remember is that I really felt out of my depth: my parents were so happy that I couldn't succeed in telling them that I was terribly frightened and that [the only] thing that I wanted was my doll.
out of a job
[C2] without a job

Dictionary example:
How long have you been out of a job?

Learner example:
So, what is so terrible about being out of a job, you might ask yourself.

out of the ordinary [C2] unusual or different

Dictionary examples:
Their relationship was a little out of the ordinary.
The investigation revealed nothing out of the ordinary.

Learner example:
This event is something out of the ordinary for local life and it gives our town prestige and originality.

be out of this world INFORMAL
[C2] to be of extremely good quality

Dictionary example:
Their chocolate cake is just out of this world!

Learner example:
The dessert trays are out of this world.

(be) out of line
[C2] If someone's actions or words are out of line, they are not suitable or acceptable.

Dictionary example:
Her remarks to the press were way out of line.

Learner example:
Today I see that my mother was right in this aspect since I acted extremely out of line sometimes and a soft hand certainly wouldn't help me in the future.

get out of hand
[C2] to become difficult to control

Dictionary example:
It was the end of term and the children were getting a little out of hand.

Learner example:
A few solutions can prevent this problem from getting out of hand.

out of place
[C2] not in the correct position
Dictionary example:
Why are my files all out of place?

Learner example:
It was awful getting back from school and seeing all my things out of place.

out of place
[C2] not right or suitable for a particular situation

Dictionary example:
Everyone else was wearing jeans and I felt completely out of place in my office clothes.

Learner example:
This does not mean everybody is wearing tuxedos and dresses but you might be out of place just wearing shorts and a shirt.

out of proportion
[C2] If something is out of proportion, it is much bigger or smaller than it should be, when compared to other things.

Dictionary example:
The punishment is completely out of proportion to the crime.

Learner example:
If you were doing it to make a profit, I could understand, but for a library it is just out of proportion [and] I even believe more people could be attracted [if] the prices decrease.

be out of the question
[C2] If something is out of the question, it is not possible or not allowed.

Dictionary example:
Providing more money is out of the question.

Learner example:
Walking home was out of the question since that would have taken even longer.

out of season
[C2] If you go somewhere out of season, you go during a period of the year when few people are there.

Dictionary example:
I prefer to travel out of season.

Learner example:
Some towns [that] are completely dependent on tourism "die" out of season, while others are destroyed because of the excessive emigration of [their] people.

out of shape
[C2] not healthy or physically strong

Dictionary example:
Since I stopped cycling, I'm very out of shape.
Learner example:
I no longer run and it has been more than a year since the last time I raced, [so] I am out of shape.

be/get out of touch
[C2] to know little about what has recently happened

Dictionary example:
I've been abroad for the last two years, so I'm very out of touch.

Learner example:
In much worse cases, some individuals may even be trapped in the virtual world and get out of touch with the real one.

output /ˈaʊt.pʊt/

NOUN [u]
[C2] an amount of something produced by a person, machine, factory, country, etc.

Dictionary example:
Last year British manufacturing output fell by 14%.

Learner example:
The right-wing thinkers claim that unemployment is one of the indicators in [the] economy, displaying [a] lack of balance between industrial output and citizens' demands.

outrage /ˈaʊt.rɛdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: outrage
Verbs: outrage
Adjectives: outrageous

NOUN

FEELING
[C2] [u] a strong feeling of anger or shock

Dictionary example:
Many politicians and members of the public expressed outrage at the verdict.

THING CAUSING SHOCK
[C2] [c] something that causes great anger or shock

Dictionary examples:
The terrible living conditions of migrant workers, he said, were an outrage.
It's an outrage that so much public money should have been wasted in this way.
Learner example:
It shows one child's reaction to the outrage, to the fear and it as been held out as an example of the unthinkable and cruel effects that a racist mentality may have.

VERB [T]
[C1] to cause someone to feel very angry, shocked, or upset

Dictionary example:
The proposed pay cut outraged the staff.

Learner example:
I was outraged when I was given a copy of an article published in your magazine.

outrageous /aʊtˈreɪ.dʒəs/

Word family:
Nouns: outrage
Verbs: outrage
Adjectives: outrageous

ADJECTIVE
[B2] shocking or extreme

Dictionary examples:
outrageous behaviour/clothes
That's an outrageous thing to say!
The prices in that restaurant were outrageous.

Learner example:
The only negative thing to be said about [this restaurant] is that the prices are outrageous, but [it is] worth every penny.

outset /ˈaʊt.set/

NOUN
at/from the outset
[C2] at or from the beginning of something

Dictionary examples:
I made my views clear at the outset.
We knew from the outset that we were unlikely to win.

Learner example:
From the outset I hadn't liked that hotel.
outside

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] ˈaʊt.said/

NOT IN BUILDING

[B2] not in a building

Dictionary example:
an outside light

Learner example:
I was going to say to him to turn on the outside light, but seeing his face, I changed my mind.

DIFFERENT ORGANIZATION

[C1] coming from another place or organization

Dictionary example:
The company has called in outside experts.

NOUN ˈaʊt.said/

the outside

[B2] the outer part or side of something

Dictionary examples:
The outside of the house needs painting.
The house looks larger when looked at from the outside.

Learner example:
It had been dark in the room since the door was locked from the outside.

outskirts ˈaʊt.skəts/

NOUN [PLURAL]

[B2] the outer area of a city or town

Dictionary examples:
There are plans to build a new stadium on the outskirts of Liverpool.
They live in Melbourne's south-eastern outskirts.

Learner example:
In spite of travelling for hours a day, I prefer staying on the outskirts of London.
outstanding /ˌaʊtˈstændɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] excellent and much better than most

Dictionary examples:
- an outstanding achievement
- It's an area of outstanding natural beauty.
- This is an outstanding first novel.

Learner example:
Although it was an outstanding festival, I would like to point out some problems [which] happened there.

outweigh /ˌaʊtˈweɪ/

Word family:
- Nouns: weight
- Verbs: weigh, outweigh
- Adjectives: overweight

VERB [T]

[C1] to be greater or more important than something else

Dictionary example:
The benefits of this treatment far outweigh the risks.

Learner example:
However, in my opinion the advantages far outweigh the disadvantages and competition is a natural phenomenon that we should accept.

oval /ˈəʊ.vəl/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] in the shape of an egg or a slightly flat circle

Dictionary examples:
- an oval mirror
- an oval face

Learner example:
It was green, oval and opaque.
oven /ˈʌvn./

NOUN [c]
[B1] the part of a cooker with a door, which is used to cook food

Dictionary examples:
a microwave oven
a cool/medium/hot oven
Place the cake in the oven at 200°C.

Learner example:
They eat the traditional food souvlaki and potatoes (cooked) in the oven.

over /ˈəʊ.və/

PREPOSITION

HIGHER POSITION
[B1] above or higher than something

Dictionary examples:
The sign over the door said "Exit".
A flock of geese flew over the trees.
She held the umbrella over both of us.

Learner example:
Besides that, you have voted for the construction of a new bridge over the main street.

ACROSS
[B1] across from one side of something to the other, especially by going up and then down

Dictionary examples:
She jumped over the gate.
The road goes over the mountains.
She is always chatting with her neighbour over the garden fence.
From the top of the tower you could see for miles over the city.
Tanks travel over the most difficult ground.

Learner example:
I most enjoyed [it] when we [were] cycling over the hills, because there weren’t any people and it was peaceful and quiet.

all over somewhere
[B1] everywhere in a particular place

Dictionary example:
Soon the news was all over town.
Learner example:
The people in the class are from all over the world.

DURING
[B1] during a particular period of time

Dictionary examples:
I was in Seattle over the summer.
We discussed the matter over lunch.
It's fascinating to watch how a baby changes and develops over time.

Learner example:
He apologised for the trouble and when he heard that they just wanted to stay over the weekend, he said they should go and buy the most important things and enjoy the weekend as the suitcase won't arrive until Monday.

OTHER SIDE
[B1] on the other side of

Dictionary examples:
There's a pub over the road we could go to.
The story continues over the page.
The station is over the bridge.

over here/there
[B1] in this/that place

Dictionary example:
Put your bags down over there.

Learner example:
How is everything over there?

USING [B2] using

Dictionary examples:
They spoke over the phone.
We heard the news over the radio.

Learner example:
She laughed over the phone, and said "It's really like you".

CONTROL
[C2] in control of or teaching someone or something

Dictionary examples:
A good teacher has an easy authority over a class.
She's a sales manager but she has a regional sales director over her.
The victory over the French at Waterloo was Wellington's greatest triumph.
Learner example:
Fortunately, my parents do not wield authority over me and my siblings like dictators.

ABOUT
[C2] connected with or about

Dictionary example:
It's stupid arguing over something so trivial.

Learner example:
The teams themselves suffered from these money problems: recently strikes broke out in basketball teams in the U.S when players began to argue over money.

over the top
[C2] too extreme and not suitable

Dictionary example:
I thought her performance was way over the top.

Learner example:
In addition to that, many so-called "stars" have that certain over the top attitude, which would not be welcome in normal life.

ADVERB

ACROSS
[B1] from one side or place to another

Dictionary examples:
She leaned over and kissed me.
Why don't you come over for dinner on Thursday?
I've got a friend over from Canada this week.
Now we're going over to Wembley for commentary on the Cup Final.

Learner example:
He came over to me and we talked a while.

FINISHED
[B1] finished

Dictionary examples:
I'll be glad when the competition is over.
I used to have a thriving business and a happy marriage, but that's all over now.

Learner example:
David smiled triumphantly and said, "It is all over!"

DIFFERENT SURFACE
[B2] describes the way an object moves or is moved so that a different part of it is facing up
Dictionary example:
She turned another page over.

Learner example:
A big truck had turned over and blocked the road and there was no other way for us to go, so we had to wait.

over and over (again)
[B2] happening or done many times

Dictionary example:
I read the article over and over till it made sense.

Learner example:
I've been searching in newspapers over and over again and finally after a couple of days I found something.

all over again
[B2] repeated from the beginning

Dictionary example:
We had to start all over again.

Learner example:
After that I went back to my home in Ribeirao Preto to begin my routine all over again.

get sth over (and done) with [C2] to do something difficult or unpleasant as soon as you can so that you do not have to worry about it any more

Dictionary example:
I got all my apologies over and done with at the beginning of the meeting.

Learner example:
Not to mention that he knew that he had to get his degree over and done with before he started making serious decisions.

---

overall /ˈəʊ.vəˈrɔːl/

ADVERB; ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] in general rather than in particular, or including all the people or things in a particular group or situation

Dictionary examples:
The overall situation is good, despite a few minor problems.
Overall, it has been a good year.
The overall winner, after ten games, will receive $50,000.

Learner example:
Overall these two restaurants are worth [going] to for nice meals.
overboard /ˈəʊ.və.bɔːd/

ADVERB

[C2] over the side of a boat and into the water

Dictionary example:

to fall overboard

Learner example:

My diary is lost – it fell overboard on my way home.

go overboard INFORMAL

[C2] to do something too much, or to be too excited about something

Dictionary example:

I think people go overboard with presents at Christmas.

Learner example:

While no one should restrict their eating habits to the point eating is no longer a pleasure, but rather a chore, it is important not to go overboard, completely disregarding the advice of nutrition experts.

overcome /ˈəʊ.vəˈkʌm/ (overcame, overcome)

VERB [T]

DEAL WITH

[B2] to deal with and control a problem or feeling

Dictionary examples:

I admire the way she has overcome her difficulties/problems and made a success of her life. Eventually he managed to overcome his shyness in class.

Learner example:

Trying to overcome my fear, I was slowly going toward the dangerous stranger.

be overcome by excitement/fear/sadness, etc.

[C2] to suddenly have too much of a feeling

Dictionary example:

She was overcome by emotion.

Learner example:

When she got in her house she was overcome by a sense of wrath and started screaming and crying.
overcrowded /ˌəʊ.vəˈkraʊ.dɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: crowd
Adjectives: crowded, overcrowded

ADJECTIVE
[C1] containing too many people or things

Dictionary example:
an overcrowded classroom/prison

Learner example:
As you arrive about midday, the trams are likely to be overcrowded.

overdo /ˌəʊ.vəˈduː/

Word family:
Verbs: do, overdo

VERB [T] (overdid, overdone)
[C1] to do or use too much of something

Dictionary example:
I went to the gym yesterday, but I think I overdid it a bit.

Learner example:
On the other hand, people usually overdo it and prefer making use of the modern technology to meeting a friend.

overdraft /ˈəʊ.və.draːft/

Word family:
Nouns: overdraft
Adjectives: overdrawn

NOUN [C]
[C1] If you have an overdraft, you have taken more money out of your bank account than you had in it.

Dictionary example:
a £250 overdraft

Learner example:
In addition, some young people use credit card[s] to buy luxurious products, which lead[s] to bank overdrafts.
overdrawn /ˌəʊ.vəˈdrɔːn/

Word family:
Nouns: overdraft
Adjectives: overdrawn

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If you are overdrawn, you have taken more money out of your bank account than you had in it.

Dictionary example:
We’ve gone £200 overdrawn!

Learner example:
In other words their expenditure [is] much more than their income. They get into debt and [are] mostly overdrawn.

overestimate /ˌəʊ.və pyl rˈes.tr.ɪˌmer t/

Word family:
Nouns: estimate
Verbs: estimate, underestimate, overestimate
Adjectives: estimated

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to guess or think that something is or will be bigger or better than it really is

Dictionary example:
They overestimated her ability to do the job.

Learner example:
In spite of the progress achieved in promoting the social status of women, one should not overestimate the significance of these achievements to ordinary women's careers.

overflow /ˌəʊ.vəˈfləʊ/

Word family:
Nouns: flow
Verbs: flow, overflow

VERB

CONTENTS
[C2] [I or T] If a container overflows, the things inside it start to come out because it is too full, and if the contents of a container overflow, they come out because it is too full.
Dictionary examples:
The bath overflowed, and there's water all over the floor!
The bin was overflowing with rubbish.
The river overflowed its banks after the heavy rainfall.

Learner example:
As a result of relentless rain the river had broken its banks and overflowed violently.

TOO MANY PEOPLE
[C2] If a place is overflowing, there are too many people in it.

Dictionary example:
The square was overflowing with people trying to see the queen.

Learner example:
The prisons are overflowing, society is losing out in many ways.

overflow with confidence/happiness/love, etc.
[C2] to have a lot of a quality or emotion

Dictionary example:
Her father was overflowing with pride as he watched her collect her award.

Learner example:
She felt overflowing with indignation as if he had been rude to her.

overhear /ˌəʊ.vəˈhɪər/

VERB [T] (overheard)
[C2] to hear what someone is saying when they are not talking to you

Dictionary example:
I overheard him telling her he was leaving.

Learner example:
I once overheard a remark from a person who had just been in Italy.

overlap /ˌəʊ.vəˈlæp/

VERB [I or T] (overlapping, overlapped)
[C2] If two subjects or activities overlap, they are the same in some way.

Dictionary example:
Although our job titles are different, our responsibilities overlap quite a lot.

Learner example:
Of course, these two motivations can be overlapping and ideally they do overlap.
overload

Word family:
Nouns: load, overload
Verbs: load, unload

VERB [T] /ˌəʊ.vəˈləʊd/
[C2] to give someone too much to do

Dictionary examples:
All the staff are completely overloaded.
I feel that they overload their children with activities.

Learner example:
I was also overloaded with work and had many doubts about joining the group at all.

NOUN [C or U] /ˈəʊ.vəˌləʊd/
[C2] when someone has more of something than they can deal with

Dictionary example:
We are suffering from data overload here.

Learner example:
Will we get to the point of "information overload"?

overlook /ˌəʊ.vəˈlʊk/

Word family:
Nouns: look
Verbs: look, overlook

VERB [T]

SEE FROM ABOVE

[B2] to have a view of something from above

Dictionary examples:
Our hotel room overlooked the harbour.
The house is surrounded by trees, so it's not overlooked at all.

Learner example:
The apartment was very big and there was a balcony which overlooked the beach.

NOT NOTICE

[C2] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to not notice or consider something

Dictionary example:
Two important facts have been overlooked in this case.
Learner example:
Of course, man's basic needs cannot be overlooked and a certain amount of wealth can be put to very good use, wisely to provide for oneself and one's family and home.

overnight /ˌəʊ.vəˈnaɪt/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

FOR THE NIGHT
[B1] for or during the night

Dictionary examples:
an overnight stop in Paris
You can stay overnight if you want to.
Don't forget to pack an overnight bag.

Learner example:
We will stay in our tents overnight and get up early in the morning to reach the next camping site.

SUDDENLY
[C2] very quickly or suddenly

Dictionary example:
Change does not happen overnight.

Learner example:
I am aware of the fact that it is not at all an easy path nor is something that can happen overnight.

overseas /ˌəʊ.vəˈsiːz/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

[B2] in, from or to other countries

Dictionary examples:
We need to open up the overseas markets.
There are a lot of overseas students in Cambridge.
Many more people work overseas these days.

Learner example:
It is suggested that one of our English as a Foreign Language lessons should be filmed, as there are some 100 overseas students who are from over 30 countries in our school.
overtake /ˌəʊ.vəˈteɪk/ (overtook, overtaken)

VERB

VEHICLE

[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to go past a vehicle or person that is going in the same direction

Dictionary examples:
- We were overtaken by a red sports car.
- Always check your rear view mirror before you overtake (another car).

Learner example:
- Of course it is easier [for a bike] to overtake the cars in traffic jams.

BIGGER

[C1] [ɪ] to go past something by being a greater amount or degree

Dictionary examples:
- Our US sales have now overtaken our sales in Europe.
- We’d planned to hold a meeting tomorrow, but events have overtaken us.

Learner example:
- This however was projected to be overtaken by people coming from the 35–49 year old bracket by 2006.

overtime /ˈəʊ.və.tarm/

NOUN [U]

[B2] extra time that you work after your usual working hours

Dictionary example:
- unpaid overtime

Learner example:
- You can’t go on living like this, chasing around and always being press[ur]ed by your work and all this overtime.

overview /ˈəʊ.və.vjuː:/

NOUN [C]

DESCRIPTION

[C1] a short description giving the most important facts about something

Dictionary example:
- I’ll just give you an overview of the job.
Learner example:
This report will give a brief overview of my experiences from my recent attendance on their April course.

KNOWLEDGE

[C1] knowledge of the general features of something

Dictionary example:
Having spent some time there, she had a good overview of the market.

Learner example:
As my main interest was to get an overview of the current market situation, I was simply impressed by the variety of companies that you've presented.

overweight /ˌəʊ.vəˈweɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: weight
Verbs: weigh, outweight
Adjectives: overweight

ADJECTIVE

[B2] too heavy or too fat

Dictionary example:
He's still a few pounds overweight.

Learner example:
In England the majority of people are either overweight or underweight.

overwhelm /ˌəʊ.vəˈwelm/

Word family:
Verbs: overwhelm
Adjectives: overwhelming

VERB [T]

[C1] If a feeling or situation overwhelms someone, it has an effect that is too strong or extreme.

Dictionary example:
She was overwhelmed by the excitement of it all.

Learner example:
I am sure the students from the acting classes will be overwhelmed by the grandeur of the 200-seat theatre.
overwhelming /ˌəʊ.vəˈwel.mɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: overwhelm
Adjectives: overwhelming

ADJECTIVE
[C1] very strong in effect or large in amount

Dictionary examples:
She felt an overwhelming urge/desire/need to tell someone about what had happened.
She said how much she appreciated the overwhelming generosity of the public in responding to the appeal.
An overwhelming majority have voted in favour of the proposal.

Learner example:
Therefore, the overwhelming majority of school-leavers annually strive to enter a state institution of higher education.

overworked /ˌəʊ.vəˈwɜːkt/

Word family:
Nouns: work, worker
Verbs: work
Adjectives: working, overworked

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Someone who is overworked has to work too much.

Dictionary example:
We're overworked and underpaid.

Learner example:
People are overworked and often choose fast food for dinner.

owe /əʊ/

VERB [+ TWO OBJECTS]

MONEY
[B1] to have to pay money back to someone

Dictionary examples:
I owe Janet ten pounds.
We still owe £1000 to the bank.
Learner example:
Please tell me how much I owe you for that.

owe sb an apology/explanation/favour, etc.
[B2] to have to give something to someone because they deserve it

Dictionary example:
I think you owe me an explanation/apology.

Learner example:
I owe you a favour.

owe your existence/success, etc. to sb/sth
[C2] to have something or achieve something because of someone or something else

Dictionary example:
The museum owes much of its success to the present generation of young British artists.

Learner example:
Many restaurants, bars and gift shops owe their existence to the fact that visitors to our country enjoy the view of the river and its surroundings.

owing to /ˈəʊ.ɪŋˌtuː/

PREPOSITION

[B2] because of

Dictionary example:
The concert has been cancelled owing to low ticket sales.

Learner example:
To start with, [it] is a great idea to change rooms because the[y] are too crowded, owing to the fact that there a lot of people.

owl /aʊl/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a bird with a flat face, large eyes, and strong curved nails, which hunts small mammals at night

Dictionary example:
We heard an owl hooting in the night.

Learner example:
I could hear a[n] owl hooting in the tree nearby.
own /əʊn/

Word family:
Nouns: owner, ownership
Verbs: own

ADJECTIVE; PRONOUN

of your own
[B1] belonging to someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I'll have a home of my own someday.
He wanted an apartment of his own.

Learner example:
I also bought a cupboard of my own, so that I need not share with my sister.

(all) on your own
[B1] alone

Dictionary example:
I like living on my own.

Learner example:
On Wedn[e]sday morning I went on my own to see [the] Vatican.

(all) on your own
[B1] without any help

Dictionary example:
I did my buttons up all on my own, Mummy.

Learner example:
Maybe I can do the missing work on my own.

get your own back (on sb)
[C2] to do something unpleasant to someone because they have done something unpleasant to you

Dictionary example:
I got my own back by putting a frog in her bed.

Learner example:
There, Kingshaw has the opportunity to get his own back by pushing Hooper down the wall, but he doesn't dare because he is not as cruel as Hooper.

hold your own
[C2] to be as successful as other people or things

Dictionary example:
Alison could always hold her own in political debates.
Learner example:
An average IT company in the UK is only 30% female so it is vital to be comfortable in the company of so many men, and to be able to hold your own against them in meetings and discussions.

VERB [r]
[B1] to have something that legally belongs to you

Dictionary examples:
We own our house.
I've never owned a suit in my life.

Learner example:
It is owned by a Japanese owner.

owner /ˈəʊ.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: owner, ownership
Verbs: own

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who owns something

Dictionary examples:
Are you the owner of this car?
We still haven't found the dog’s owner.

Learner example:
The owner was an old woman who lives alone in a big house with her pet animals.

ownership /ˈəʊ.nəʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: owner, ownership
Verbs: own

NOUN [U]
[C1] when you own something

Dictionary example:
Do you have any proof of ownership for this car?

Learner example:
As people's disposable income rises, more and more people can now afford cars. Furthermore, cheap imports from the newly industrialised countries have also contributed to the increase in car ownership.
oxygen /ˈɒk.sɪ.dʒən/

NOUN [u]

[B2] a gas that is in the air and that animals need to live

Dictionary example:
an oxygen tank

Learner example:
Everybody needs oxygen and trees produce oxygen.

ozone /ˈoʊ.zən/

NOUN [u]

[C1] a form of oxygen that exists high in the atmosphere

Dictionary example:
the ozone layer

Learner example:
There is probably no child who hasn’t heard about the holes in the ozone layer or the greenhouse effect.
pace /pɛs/

NOUN

SPEED

[B2] [u] the speed at which someone or something moves or does something

Dictionary examples:
a slow/fast pace
I don't like the pace of modern life.
These changes seem to be happening at too fast a pace.

Learner example:
I am living at a much faster pace.

keep pace with sb/sth
[C1] to move or develop at the same speed as someone or something else

Dictionary example:
We have to keep pace with the changing times.

Learner example:
It was first published a century ago and what amazes people most is that [it] keeps pace with the development of the country without leaving out references to our history and tradition.

VERB pace yourself

[C2] to be careful not to do something too quickly so that you do not get too tired to finish it

Dictionary example:
You must learn to pace yourself if you want to win.

Learner example:
When people are so old, they begin to pace themselves with some difficulties.

pace about/up and down, etc
[C2] [u] to walk around because you are worried or excited about something

Dictionary example:
He kept pacing up and down, glancing at his watch.
Learner example:
He was pacing up and down the entrance hall when finally he caught a glimpse of a person disappearing round a corner.

Word family:

Nouns: pack, package
Verbs: pack, unpack
Adjectives: packed

VERB [I or T]

pack up (sth) or pack (sth) up PHRASAL VERB

[B2] to collect all your things together when you have finished doing something

Dictionary examples:
I just need a few minutes to pack up my equipment and then we can leave.
I'm about to pack my things up and go home.
I got to the market just as it was closing and everyone was packing up.

Learner example:
They packed up all the equipment [and got ready] to leave, because most of them had to attend school the next day.

NOUN [C]

SET OF PRODUCTS
[B2] a set of products or other things that are wrapped up together

Dictionary examples:
The information pack consists of a brochure and a map.
I bought a large pack of tissues.

ANIMALS
[C2] a group of animals that live together, especially those of the dog family

Dictionary example:
A pack of wolves

Learner example:
We were like a pack of wolves, only puppies at the time though.
package /ˈpæk.ɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: pack, package
Verbs: pack, unpack
Adjectives: packed

NOUN [C]

PARCEL
[B2] a parcel

Dictionary examples:
The postman has just delivered a package for you.
The package was wrapped in plain brown paper.

Learner example:
It was a call from the post office saying that the package he was waiting [for had arrived].

GROUP OF THINGS
[B2] a related group of things when they are offered together as a single unit

Dictionary examples:
The computer comes with a software package.
This ski package includes flights, hotel accommodation, and a six-day lift pass.

Learner example:
Lastly, I need to know if all meals are included in your package.

packed /pækt/

Word family:
Nouns: pack, package
Verbs: pack, unpack
Adjectives: packed

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very crowded

Dictionary examples:
The hall was packed.
The bus was packed with schoolchildren.

Learner example:
If you want to meet and photograph the local people, the place to go is the Wednesday market. It is always packed with farmers, children, older people and so on.
packet /ˈpæk.ɪt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a small paper or cardboard container that contains several of the same thing

Dictionary examples:
a packet of cereal/biscuits/crisps a packet of chewing gum/cigarettes
How many seeds are there in a packet?

Learner example:
He bought a packet of pop-corn.

pact /pækt/

NOUN [c]
[C2] an agreement between two people or groups

Dictionary example:
We have a pact never to talk about each other.

Learner example:
It became clear we had made a pact of silence.

pain /peɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: pain
Adjectives: painful

NOUN

EMOTIONAL
[B2] [u] sadness or mental suffering caused by an unpleasant event

Dictionary examples:
I can't describe the pain I suffered when he died.
The parents are still in great pain over the death of their child.

Learner example:
He had caused me so much pain that I was unable to forgive him anymore.

be a pain INFORMAL [B2] to be annoying
Dictionary examples:
Having to keep the bikes in the house is such a pain.
My sister was being a real pain.

Learner example:
It was really a pain to pay that much for only a box of metal and a screen, but I think it is really going to help me.

be a pain in the neck INFORMAL
[C1] to be annoying

Dictionary example:
My brother can be a real pain in the neck sometimes.

Learner example:
He’s adorable although sometimes he can really be a pain in the neck (don’t tell him I wrote this.)

a sharp pain
[C2] a sudden, short, strong pain

Dictionary example:
I felt a sharp pain in my leg.

Learner example:
All that Tom remembered afterwards was the loud noise of the braking tyres, a sharp pain in his legs and then darkness.

painful /ˈpeɪn.fʊl/

Word family:
Nouns: pain
Adjectives: painful

ADJECTIVE

PHYSICAL
[B1] causing physical pain

Dictionary example:
A painful injury forced her to withdraw from the game.

Learner example:
One of my [teeth] is very painful.

EMOTIONAL
[B2] making you feel sad or upset

Dictionary example:
The old photograph brought back painful memories.
Learner example:
You know, I went through this painful decision just a few months ago, when I started working for a new company that pays me more, but gives me less time for my hobbies.

palace /ˈpæl.ɪs/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a very large building where a king, queen or president lives

Dictionary examples:
a [royal/presidential] palace
Buckingham Palace

Learner example:
I know some places [in London] like Big Ben and Buckingham Palace.

pale /peɪl/

ADJECTIVE

FACE
[B2] If your face is pale, it has less colour than usual because you are ill or frightened.

Dictionary example:
You’re looking pale – do you feel ill?

Learner example:
Her face was pale and she was feeling that something w[ould] go wrong.

palm /pɑːm/

NOUN [C]

[TREE]

[C1] a palm tree

Dictionary example:
They sat beneath a palm tree.

Learner example:
Santorini was a picturesque island, with many rural areas, sensational deserted beaches with palm trees.
HAND
[C2] the inside surface of your hand

Dictionary example:
I cut the palm of my hand on the rock.

Learner example:
When the concert was over, everybody in the audience was on their feet clapping (until their palms were sweaty) and asking for [an] encore.

pan  /pæn/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a round, metal container with a handle and usually a lid, that is used for cooking food in

Dictionary examples:
Heat the milk in a small pan.
This dishwasher even washes pots and pans.

Learner example:
[At this restaurant,] you cook the food in the pan by yourself.

pancake  /ˈpæn.keɪk/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a thin, flat food made from flour, milk, and egg mixed together and cooked in a pan

Dictionary example:
We had pancakes with lemon.

Learner example:
You can’t come to Holland without trying the Dutch pancakes, which are much better than the English ones.

panel  /ˈpæn.əl/

NOUN [C]

PEOPLE
[C1] a group of people who are chosen to discuss something or make a decision about something Dictionary example:
a panel of experts

Learner example:
We can justify our opinion about the quality by referring to the extremely varied and constructive social programme, which is also organised by a panel of experts, sociologists and psychologists.

PIECE
[C2] a flat, rectangular piece of wood, metal, etc. that forms the surface of a door, wall, etc.

Dictionary example:
The walls were made from wooden panels.

Learner example:
The glass roof provides excellent lighting, and the wood panels on the walls certainly contribute to the cosy atmosphere.

panic /ˈpæn.ɪk/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a sudden, strong feeling of worry or fear that makes you unable to think or behave calmly

Dictionary examples:
a state of panic
Panic spread through the crowd as the wind and rain grew worse.
Carmel was in a panic about her exam.
He got in(to) a panic that he would forget his lines on stage.

Learner example:
All [the] people in the church thought it would be a perfect wedding ceremony, but there were two things missing: the bride and the bridegroom! After [this] was realised, there was panic!

VERB [I or T] (panicking, panicked, panicked)
[B2] to suddenly feel so worried or frightened that you cannot think or behave calmly, or to make someone feel this way

Dictionary examples:
Don’t panic! We’ve got plenty of time.
The sound of gunfire panicked the crowd.
The boss always panics over/about the budget every month.

Learner example:
David started thinking that a thief may have come [in]to their house. "Don’t panic", he told his wife.
pants /pænts/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B1] underwear that covers the bottom

Dictionary example:
Make sure you bring a clean pair of pants.

Learner example:
Every day I went to buy different pants, shoes, shirts and all the [clothes the] baby needs.

clothes /ˈkloʊθz/

NOUN [U]
[B2] clothing that you wear

Dictionary example:
I need to buy some new clothes.

Public transport /ˈpʌblɪk tɜrˈnɑːpənt/

NOUN [U]
[b] public transport that you can use to get to work

Dictionary example:
I take the bus to work.

paper /ˈpeɪ.pər/

NOUN

NEWSPAPER
[B1] [C] a newspaper

Dictionary examples:
a daily/weekly/local/national paper
The photo was on the front page of all the papers.

Learner example:
Hey Jo, Yesterday I [saw] an advertisement for a job in a local paper: it said that if you like pets, you can become a dog-sitter for three days a week.

WRITING
[C2] [C] a piece of writing about a particular subject

Dictionary example:
She’s just published a paper on bilingualism.

Learner example:
Being a psyc[h]ologist, I am currently writing a paper about work patterns, and I was therefore particularly interested in the comments made by the students.

paperwork /ˈpeɪ.pər.wɜːk/

NOUN [U]
[B2] the part of a job that involves producing reports, writing letters, organizing information, etc.

Dictionary example:
Many office jobs involve a lot of unnecessary paperwork.
Learner example:
As I am good at paperwork, I think it would be great if I could help you in the office.

parachute /ˈpær.əˌʃuːt/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a large piece of special cloth used to cause someone or something it is attached to drop slowly and safely from an aircraft to the ground

Dictionary example:
He used a parachute to jump to safety.

Learner example:
Those minutes, up in the air, feeling the wind in my face, were fantastic... and then I was terrified when I couldn't open the parachute!

parade /pəˈreɪd/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a line of people or vehicles that moves through a public place as a way of celebrating an occasion

Dictionary example:
a victory parade

Learner example:
The festival starts with a huge opening parade.

paradigm /ˈpær.əˌdaɪm/

NOUN [C] FORMAL
[C2] a typical example or model of something

Dictionary example:
Career women are establishing a new paradigm of work and family life.

Learner example:
Science is supposed to be a rational, factual matter, but especially in this field when you express a view or do research into topics which go against the ruling paradigm, it's difficult.
paradise /ˈpærə.dais/

NOUN

[C1] [c or u] a perfect place or situation

Dictionary examples:
- a tropical paradise
- a shoppers' paradise

Learner example:
Our online-catalogue is a true shopping paradise.

paradox /ˈpærə.dɒks/

Word family:
Nouns: paradox
Adjectives: paradoxical

NOUN [c]

[C2] a situation that seems very strange or impossible because of two opposite qualities or facts

Dictionary example:
It's a curious paradox that drinking a lot of water can make you feel thirsty.

Learner example:
They usually have less money and more time to spend their money in. This is a paradox.

paradoxical /ˌpærəˈdɒk.sɪ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: paradox
Adjectives: paradoxical

ADJECTIVE

[C2] seeming very strange or impossible because of two opposite qualities or facts

Dictionary example:
a paradoxical position/situation

Learner example:
Women are entering the labour market and, paradoxical though it may seem, they still are, in many cases, in charge of the house.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>paragraph</th>
<th>/ˈpær.ə.grɑːf/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [c]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] a part of a text that usually contains several sentences and begins on a new line</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>Organise your essay in clear paragraphs.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>I [made] many mistakes when I read [the] paragraph.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>parallel</th>
<th>/ˈpær.ə.lel/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] similar and happening at the same time</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>Parallel experiments are being conducted in both countries.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>The diary was a dimensional portal to a parallel world he called Wonderland.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NOUN [c]</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[C2] a similarity</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td>There are a number of parallels between our two situations. People are drawing parallels between the two cases.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>It magnificently establishes a parallel between the tragic demise of an outstanding Ibo man named Okonkwo and the cultural as well as religious downfall of his entire clan and generally the disintegration of African tribal life.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>paramount</th>
<th>/ˈpær.ə.mɑnt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
<td>FORMAL</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] more important than anything else</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td>Safety, of course, is paramount. Communication is of paramount importance.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
The attitude[s] towards creating their own styles differ – some perceive it simply as a matter of taste, for others this visual reflection of personality is of paramount importance.

parcel /ˈpɑː.səl/

noun [c]
[B1] something that is covered in paper so that it can be sent by post

Dictionary examples:
send/receive/deliver a parcel
The parcel was wrapped in plain brown paper.

Learner example:
A week later, she received a parcel.

part and parcel
[C2] If something is part and parcel of an experience, it is a necessary part of that experience and cannot be avoided.

Dictionary example:
Stress is part and parcel of the job.

Learner example:
This is true to a certain extent as food is often part and parcel of traditional rituals.

parking /ˈpɑː.kɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: parking
Verbs: park

noun [u]
[B1] leaving a vehicle in a particular place for a period of time

Dictionary examples:
a parking place/space
free/underground parking

Learner example:
You can't find a parking place when you need one and cars are a problem because of the pollution.
parliament /ˈpɑː.lɪ.mənt/

NOUN [C U + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
[B2] in some countries, a group of people who make the laws for the country

Dictionary examples:
On Tuesday the country’s parliament voted to establish its own army.
She was elected to Parliament in 1997.

parrot /ˈpær.ət/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a tropical bird with a curved beak and colourful feathers that can be taught to copy what people say

Dictionary example:
We saw parrots flying wild in the jungle.

Learner example:
Send my regards to your family and to your lovely parrot too.

part /pɑːt/

Word family:
Nouns: part
Adjectives: partial Adverbs: partly, partially

NOUN

FILM/PLAY
[B1] [c] a person in a film or play

Dictionary example:
He plays the part of the father in the film version.

Learner example:
I think the movie is really funny and one of my favourite actors plays the main part.

take part
[B1] to be involved in an activity with other people

Dictionary example:
She doesn’t usually take part in any of the class activities.
Learner example:
Last month when we took part in a dance competition, I couldn’t imagine that we were able to win, but we did.

have/play a part in sth
[B2] to be one of the people or things that are involved in an event or situation

Dictionary example:
People forget to wash their hands and that plays a part in spreading colds and flu.

Learner example:
Technology plays an important part in this situation, because I don’t think that adults are playing computer games for Batman or Spiderman, for example, but for the special effects and the graphics.

MACHINE
[B2] [c] a piece of a machine or vehicle

Dictionary examples:
aircraft parts
spare parts

Learner example:
We were lucky to have some spare parts with us and finally Tom managed to repair [his car].

for the most part
[C1] mostly or usually

Dictionary example:
I enjoyed it for the most part.

Learner example:
First of all, for the most part, people have to use computers in their jobs.

on the part of sb; on sb’s part
[C2] done or experienced by someone

Dictionary examples:
This is a major sacrifice on the part of the unions.
The accident was caused by carelessness on the instructor’s part.

Learner example:
It seems that international sports competitions have always tended to attract a great amount of interest on the part of the media and have consistently been popular with sports fans the world over.

in part FORMAL [C2] partly

Dictionary example:
He is in part to blame for the accident.
Learner example:
Technology is in part to blame.

the best/better part of sth
[C2] most of a period of time

Dictionary example:
It took the better part of the afternoon to put those shelves up.

Learner example:
Major sporting competitions have been around for the better part of 2500 years, ever since the original Olympic Games were held in ancient Greece.

part and parcel
[C2] If something is part and parcel of an experience, it is a necessary part of that experience and cannot be avoided.

Dictionary example:
Stress is part and parcel of the job.

Learner example:
This is true to a certain extent as food is often part and parcel of traditional rituals.

VERB

SEPARATE
[C2] If two sides of something part, they become separated, and if you part them, you make them separate.

Dictionary example:
Slowly her lips parted and she smiled.

Learner example:
There we were, three rather dishevelled young men with a stench that parted a path for us like Moses did the Red Sea.

LEAVE
[C2] FORMAL If two people part, or if one person parts from another, they leave each other.

Dictionary example:
That summer, after six years of marriage, we parted.

Learner example:
It was on my seventeenth birthday that he gave me a little blue and shimmering box, but said I couldn't open it until the day we parted.
partial /ˈpɑː.ʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: part
Adjectives: partial Adverbs: partly, partially

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not complete

Dictionary example:
The general has ordered a partial withdrawal of troops from the area.

Learner example:
In conclusion, I am [very] disappointed and therefore, I believe that I am entitled to a partial refund.

partially /ˈpɑː.ʃəli/

Word family:
Nouns: part
Adjectives: partial Adverbs: partly, partially

ADVERB
[C1] not completely

Dictionary example:
partially cooked

Learner example:
Building a parking area outside the city centre would partially solve this problem.

participant /paːˈtɪs.ɪ.pənt/

Word family:
Nouns: participant
Verbs: participate

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who is involved in an activity

Dictionary example:
All participants finishing the race will receive a medal.

Learner example:
I was one of the participants who helped a charity organization to raise money for the local hospital.

2106 participate  /paːˈtɪs.ɪ.peɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: participant
Verbs: participate

VERB [i]
[B2] to take part in or become involved in an activity

Dictionary example:
She never participates in any of our discussions, does she?

Learner example:
So, all the students can participate in different activities.

particle  /ˈpɑː.tɪk.l/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a very small piece of something

Dictionary example:
particles of dust

Learner example:
They got their hands on some anthrax bacteria, grew them in petri dishes and with all her knowledge in biology managed to make anthrax spores. Her friends ground the clumps of spores into fine particles.

particular  /pəˈtɪk.ju.əl/
SPECIAL

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] special, or this and not any other

Dictionary examples:
- She wanted a particular type of olive oil.
- Is there any particular restaurant you'd like to go to?
- He wouldn't take just any book – he had to have this particular one!
- "Why did you ask?" "Oh, no particular reason, just making conversation."

Learner example:
Are you a fan of a particular team?

NOT EASILY SATISFIED

[C1] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] choosing things carefully and not easily satisfied, or making sure that things are exactly as you want them to be

Dictionary example:
Teenagers are very particular about the clothes they'll wear.

Learner example:
When I chose you I was very particular about the quality of the service you offer and you guaranteed professional service.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>particularly</th>
<th>/pəˈtɪk.jʊ.λə.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
- Adjectives: particular
- Adverbs: particularly

ADVERB

[B1] especially, or more than usual

Dictionary examples:
- Your ideas are particularly helpful.
- She didn't seem particularly interested.
- "Was the food good?" "Not particularly."

Learner example:
I particularly enjoyed swimming in your new swimming pool.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>partly</th>
<th>/ˈpɑː.t.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
- Nouns: part
- Adjectives: partial
- Adverbs: partly, partially
ADVERB

[B1] to some extent, but not completely

Dictionary examples:
The house is partly owned by her father.
He was partly responsible for the error.

Learner example:
I suggest you spend your time partly in the countryside and partly in a city.

partner  /ˈpɑːt.nər/

NOUN [C]

RELATIONSHIP

[B1] someone who you live with and have a sexual relationship with

Dictionary example:
Partners are not invited to the office party.

Learner example:
Mike had been my partner for 3 years.

BUSINESS

[B2] one of two or more people who own a business

Dictionary examples:
junior/senior partner
My business partner handles international sales.

Learner example:
Don't spend the evenings with your business partners, but with your women, children and friends.

partnership  /ˈpɑːt.nəʃɪp/

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when two people or organizations work together to achieve something

Dictionary example:
She's gone into partnership with someone she used to work with.

Learner example:
I really need the money you're offering, mainly to set up that kindergar[t]en school I've told you about, where I would work in partnership with a friend.
part-time  /ˌpɑːtˈtaɪm/

ADVERB; ADJECTIVE
[B1] If you work part-time or do part-time work, you work for only some of the day or the week.

Dictionary examples:
a part-time job
He works part-time as a waiter.

Learner example:
I can't afford to buy it so I'll look for a part-time job.

party  /ˈpɑː.ti/

NOUN [C]
POLITICS
[B1] [+ SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] an organization of people who share the same political beliefs and try to win elections

Dictionary examples:
a political party
the Green Party
The Labour Party has/have just elected a new leader.
He was elected as party leader in 2001.
They contacted party members from across the nation to ask for their support.

Learner example:
He organised a political party called "Kuo Min Tang of China" and started his revolution to overthrow the Chinese monarchy.

pass  /pɑːs/

VERB
GO PAST
[B1] [i or t] to go past something or someone

Dictionary examples:
I passed him on the stairs this morning.
Cars kept passing us on the motorway.
If you pass a supermarket on the way back, could you get me some milk?
Learner example:
I started to cross the street and then a car passed.

pass over/through, etc.
[B1] to go in a particular direction

Dictionary examples:
A plane passed over our heads.
We pass through your village on our way home.

Learner example:
Then we passed through the quiet countryside.

GIVE
[B1] [n] to give something to someone

Dictionary examples:
Could you pass the salt, please?
Gerald passed me the note. Gerald passed the note to me.

Learner example:
For me to cover the work, can you pass it to my friend Jittanun.

TIME
[B1] [] If a period of time passes, it happens.

Dictionary examples:
Four years have passed since that day.
Time seems to pass by so slowly when you're bored.

Learner example:
Five minutes passed and he didn't come, so I decided to go back inside.

pass (the) time
[B2] to spend time doing something

Dictionary example:
We passed the time reading and swimming.

Learner example:
What's more, I would have to read to pass the time!

pass a law
[B2] to officially approve of something and make it into a law or rule

Dictionary example:
The government passed a law to restrict the sale of guns.

Learner example:
I hope the government will pass a law which could control all these sort of things.

GO AWAY
[C2] [] If a feeling passes, it goes away.
Dictionary example:
I know he’s angry now but it’ll pass.

Learner example:
My soul and my mind are frozen. I know that will pass.

BE MORE THAN

[C2] [ɪ] to be more than a particular level

Dictionary example:
Donations have passed the one million mark.

SPORTS

[C2] [ɔ or ʊ] in sports, to throw or kick a ball to someone else

Dictionary example:
Edwards passes to Brinkworth.

Learner example:
Worth passed the ball to Earvin "Magic" Johnson, and with two players disturbing him, he sh[o]t a three-pointer that went in nicely.

NOUN [c]

DOCUMENT

[B1] an official document or ticket that allows you to do something

Dictionary examples:
a bus/rail pass
a boarding pass

Learner example:
You can buy a one-day bus pass and you could visit many monuments and pictures[qu]e places.

TEST RESULT

[B2] a successful result in an exam

Dictionary example:
A pass in this exam is above 60%.

SPORTS

[C2] in sports, when you throw or kick a ball to someone else

Dictionary example:
That was a great pass!
passage /ˈpæ.s.idʒ/

NOUN

CONNECTING WAY
[B2] [c] a long, narrow space that connects one room or place to another

Dictionary examples:
The bathroom's on the right at the end of the passage.
There's a passage to the side of the house, leading to the garden.

Learner example:
We saw a big house but it was old and locked. We found a secret passage between the trees and we got inside.

PART
[B2] [c] a short part of a book, speech, or piece of music

Dictionary example:
Several passages from the book were printed in a national newspaper before it was published.

Learner example:
She would read a passage for us every night before [we fell] asleep.

PROGRESS
[C2] [U NO PLURAL] the movement or progress from one stage or place to another

Dictionary example:
It's a difficult passage from boyhood to manhood.

Learner example:
Work has always been a fundamental question in the life of man since the iron–age, it marks the passage from youth to adulthood and for most of us it can be a turning point.

passion /ˈpæʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: passion
Adjectives: passionate Adverbs: passionately

NOUN [c or U]

LOVE
[B2] a very powerful feeling, for example of sexual attraction, love, hate, anger or other emotion
Dictionary examples:
She saw the passion in his eyes.
Football arouses a lot of passion in fans.
Politics and philosophy were his lifelong passions.

Learner example:
Surfing is my passion.

a passion for sth
[C1] when you like something very much

Dictionary example:
a passion for football

Learner example:
I always had a passion for writing and for 3 years I wrote many articles in my school magazine.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>passionate</th>
<th>/ˈpæʃ.ən.t/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: passion</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: passionate</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: passionately</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE
[B2] having very strong feelings or emotions

Dictionary examples:
a passionate speech
a passionate kiss
The child's mother made a passionate appeal for help.
Joe is passionate about baseball.

Learner example:
I wrote a passionate article about how to protect our environment.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>passionately</th>
<th>/ˈpæʃ.ən.t.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: passion</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: passionate</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: passionately</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that shows strong feelings or emotions
Dictionary examples:
I walked into the room and found them arguing passionately.
Ann has always believed passionately in women's rights.

Learner example:
We met in our favourite pub, we kissed each other passionately like the first time, and then we sat down.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>passive</th>
<th>/ˈpæs.iv/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN

the passive

[B1] the passive form of a verb

Dictionary example:
When changed into the passive, 'The dog chased the cat' becomes 'The cat was chased by the dog'.

Learner example:
We were studying English grammar, the verbs, the conditionals, the passive and the active, etc.
That was the first part of the class.

ADJECTIVE

GRAMMAR

[B1] A passive verb or sentence is one in which the subject does not do or cause the action but is affected by it.

Dictionary example:
"He was released from prison." is a passive sentence.

NO ACTION

[B2] letting things happen to you and not taking action

Dictionary example:
Women at that time were expected to be passive.

Learner example:
Television provides a passive form of entertainment and so just watching it is much easier than reading books which needs concentration.
passport /ˈpɑːs.pɔːt/

NOUN [c]

a passport to sth
[C2] something that allows you to achieve something else

Dictionary example:
Education is a passport to a better life.

password /ˈpɑːs.wɜːd/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a secret word that allows you to do something, such as use your computer

Dictionary example:
Key in your password.

Learner example:
It wasn’t me, [it] was my brother who stole my password.

past /paːst/

PREPOSITION; ADVERB

AFTER LIMIT
[B2] above a particular age or further than a particular point

Dictionary examples:
This meat is past its sell-by date.
She’s past the age where she needs a babysitter.

ADJECTIVE

BEFORE NOW
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] having happened or existed before now

Dictionary examples:
past relationships
I know this from past experience.

Learner example:
I like the place because it has [nice] people, music and all sorts of things [about] past events.

UNTIL NOW
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to refer to a period of time before and until the present
Dictionary examples:
I’ve spent the past ten years in and out of jobs.
It’s been raining for the past three days.
He was the fifth climber to die on these mountains over the past two days.

Learner example:
Dear Anna, I’ve just arrived home and couldn’t wait to write you to thank you for being so nice, trust[ing] and kind lending me your flat for the past week.

NOUN

the past
[B1] the time before the present and all the things that happened then

Dictionary examples:
the distant/recent past
In the past, people would bathe once a month.

Learner example:
In the past, we were best friends.

sb’s past
[B1] all of the things that someone has done in their life

Dictionary example:
I knew nothing about his past.

Learner example:
After the film, we went to a restaurant called Adriano, and as the weather was cool, we had a glass of wine and started asking [about] each other’s past.

pastime /ˈpɑːs.taim/

NOUN [C]
[C2] an activity that you enjoy doing when you are not working

Dictionary example:
Shopping is one of her favourite pastimes.

Learner example:
Going to concerts and visiting record shops have always been my favourite pastime.
pastry /ˈpeɪ.stri/

NOUN

MIXTURE

[C1] [u] a mixture of flour, fat, and water that is cooked, usually used to cover or contain other food

Dictionary example:
I made some pastry for the pie.

Learner example:
The most popular sweet dish is called "Apfelstrudel", which is a bit of potato pastry filled with apples and nuts.

CAKE

[C1] [c] a small cake that is made with pastry

Dictionary example:
We had coffee and pastries.

Learner example:
They don't want to miss their sweet pastries and "Sacher tortes", [which] Austria is famous for.

pat /pat/

VERB [r] (patting, patted)

[C2] to touch a person or animal with a flat hand in a gentle, friendly way

Dictionary example:
She stopped to pat the dog.

Learner example:
All my mother's friends would come to our house, pat me on the head and say smiling: "Isn't she precious?!!!"

patch /pætʃ/

NOUN [c]

AREA

[C2] a small area that is different from the area around it

Dictionary examples:
a bald patch
There are icy patches on the road.
Learner example:
All my senses were sharpened, I could clearly see the tired smile of the bass-guitarist and wet patches on his T-shirt.

MATERIAL
[C2] a piece of material that you use to cover a hole in your clothes or in other material

Dictionary example:
He had leather patches sewn on the elbows of his jacket.

Learner example:
And my mother cherishes her family [heirloom] handed down for generations – it's a quilt with s[e]wn patches on it, representing what each of the women's strongest passion was. My mother s[e]wed on her patch presenting her childhood fascination of The Beatles.

LAND
[C2] a small area of land used for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
a cabbage/vegetable patch

Learner example:
My father had a big allotment with different vegetables like turnips, beet, etc., etc. [At] my house there was also a vegetable patch.

a bad/rough, etc. patch
[C2] a difficult time

Dictionary example:
I think their marriage is going through a bad patch.

Learner example:
We all went through a rough patch when my mother turned out to have cancer.

VERB [T]
[C2] to repair a hole in a piece of clothing or other material by sewing a piece of material over it

Dictionary example:
to patch your trousers

Learner example:
There were also clothes to be mend[ed] and patched, socks to be darned.
path /paːθ/

NOUN [c]

ACTIONS
[B2] a set of actions over a period of time, especially ones which lead to a goal or result

Dictionary examples:
a career path
The path to success has many difficulties.

Learner example:
Maybe you could talk about your latest book "Murder on Avenue B" or about your path to fame.

DIRECTION
[C2] the direction that a person or vehicle moves in

Dictionary example:
a flight path

Learner example:
As you obviously cannot change the flight path towards or away from the airfield then we have to take alternative action.

cross sb's path
[C2] to meet someone, especially by accident

Dictionary example:
Mike has moved away and I doubt he'll ever cross my path again.

Learner example:
We are all socialised by our peers, family and other people who cross our path at one time or another.

pathetic /paˈθet.i.k/

ADJECTIVE

BAD
[C2] INFORMAL showing no skill, effort, or bravery

Dictionary examples:
He made a rather pathetic attempt to apologize.
You’re too frightened to speak to her? Come on, that’s pathetic!
It was a pathetic performance and the team lost badly.
Learner example:
Sometimes it seems to me that the whole world has a book of platitudes, which everybody uses in order to communicate. I find it rather pathetic.

SAD
[C2] sad and weak

Dictionary examples:
Four times the pathetic little creature fell to the ground.
The refugees were a pathetic sight – starving, frightened and cold.

Learner example:
On Saturday morning, I see them sleeping rough under the bridges, a pathetic sight.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>patience</th>
<th>/ˈper.ʃənts/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: patience, impatience</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: impatient, patient</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: impatiently, patiently</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [U]
[B2] the quality of being able to stay calm and not get angry, especially when something takes a long time

Dictionary examples:
You have to have such a lot of patience when you're dealing with kids.
In the end, I lost my patience and shouted at her.
He's a good teacher, but he doesn't have much patience with the slower pupils.

Learner example:
I have patience with animals and care for them with love.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>patient</th>
<th>/ˈper.ʃənt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: patience, impatience</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: impatient, patient</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: impatiently, patiently</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who is being treated by a doctor, nurse, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a cancer patient
I'm a patient of Dr Stephens, please could I make an appointment to see her?
A learner example: Another good programme is a serial called "House", which is about an eccentric doctor who has the incredible flair of knowing which disease patients have without examining them.

ADJECTIVE

[B1] having patience

Dictionary examples:
- Dinner will be ready in half an hour – just be patient!
- Be patient with her – she's very young.

A learner example: She is very patient with us and she tries to explain everything in detail for better understanding.

Adverb

[B2] in a patient way

Dictionary example:
- There was a queue of people waiting patiently for the bus to arrive.

A learner example: She made her way slowly to the waiting room and patiently waited for the train to arrive.

Noun [c]

Arrangement

[B1] a design of lines, shapes, colours, etc.

Dictionary example:
- The carpet was very old and had an unusual pattern.

A learner example: In my country now legging[s are] the new fashion. Some wear [ones] with stripes, or the black [ones] also have a zebra pattern.

Way

[B2] a particular way that something is often done or repeated
Dictionary examples:
The pattern of family life has been changing over recent years. Many behaviour(al) patterns have been identified in this study of chimpanzees.

Learner example:
If the alarm-clock had worked, everything would have followed its usual pattern but this time I woke up too late.

GUIDE
[B2] a drawing, shape or set of instructions that helps you to make something

Dictionary example:
a dress/knitting pattern

Learner example:
Approximately three years ago I started to sew my own clothes. I always buy a pattern and follow every instruction given.

pause /pəʊz/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a short period in which something such as a sound or an activity is stopped before starting again

Dictionary examples:
There will be a brief pause in the concert while the piano is moved into place.
After a long, awkward pause someone asked a question.
She spoke for three quarters of an hour without a pause.

Learner example:
I would like to correct the journalist by saying to him that RADIANT played for 1 hour without any pause.

VERB
PERSON
[B1] [i] to stop doing something for a short time

Dictionary examples:
He paused for a moment.
She paused to get her breath back and then carried on jogging.

Learner example:
After a while, she pulled herself together and paused for a minute.

EQUIPMENT
[B2] [i or τ] to make a CD, DVD, etc. stop for a short time by pressing a button

2123
Dictionary example:
Can you pause the film there, please?

Learner example:
I paused the video I was watching, wondering what that [knocking sound] was.

pavement  /ˈpeɪv.mənt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a path by the side of a road that people walk on

Dictionary example:
The jar slipped from my hand and smashed on the pavement.

Learner example:
I called my friends and asked them if they had found my scarf. Fortunately they had seen my scarf on the pavement outside the disco.

paw  /pɔː/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the foot of an animal that has claws or nails, such as a cat, dog or bear

Dictionary example:
I found paw prints in the kitchen.

Learner example:
My cat is only 2 years old. She is very beautiful with her long bushy tail and soft paws.

pay  /peɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: pay, payment
Verbs: pay, repay
Adjectives: payable, underpaid, unpaid

VERB (paid, paid)

WORK
[B1] [I or T] to give someone money for the work that they do

Dictionary examples:
She gets paid twice a month.
Accountancy may be boring but at least it pays well.
Most of these women are very poorly paid and work in terrible conditions.
Learner example:
Those are the first thing[s] I am going to buy when I get paid.

pay attention (to sth)
[B1] to watch, listen to, or think about something carefully

Dictionary example:
You weren't paying attention to what I was saying.

Learner example:
Larry is a very distracted boy. Everybody says that he should pay attention to what he is doing.

pay sb/sth a visit or pay a visit to sb/sth [B2] to visit a person or place, usually for a short time

Dictionary example:
We thought we'd pay Sam a visit while we were in Oxford.

Learner example:
P.S: Wherever you decide to go, do not fail to pay me a visit!

pay sb a compliment
[C2] to tell someone that you admire something about them

Dictionary example:
He paid her several compliments about her painting.

Learner example:
His companions always pay him compliments on his [piano] playing.

SUFFER
[C2] [I] to suffer because of something bad you have done

Dictionary example:
He's certainly paying for his mistakes.

Learner example:
He hurried back to the castle and was so disgusted with her that he had her locked forever in a cell, to pay for what she had done.

pay the price
[C2] to accept the unpleasant results of what you have done

Dictionary example:
If you abuse your body now, you'll pay the price when you're older.

Learner example:
When all is said and done, do contemporary sports events pose an advantage to athletes pursuing their physical excellence? I would dare to say no, unless he, or increasingly she, is prepared to pay the price in becoming a ready-made product for public consumption.
pay tribute to sb/sth
[C2] to thank someone or say that you admire someone or something, especially in public

Dictionary example:
He paid tribute to his former teacher.

Learner example:
Although it may not seem [so], this is just a way of paying tribute to Mahatma Gand[h]i, since he always encouraged people to return to their traditions and c[ustom]s.

NOUN [u]
[B1] the money you receive for doing a job

Dictionary examples:
Have you had a pay rise recently?
It's a nice job but the pay is appalling.

Learner example:
The pay is good, but have you [got] a car to get everywhere?

payable ˈpeɪə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: pay, payment
Verbs: pay, repay
Adjectives: payable, underpaid, unpaid

ADJECTIVE
TO BE PAID
[C1] describes something to be paid

Dictionary example:
Rent is payable monthly.

Learner example:
We were informed by you that there would be nothing extra to be paid but in fact several admission fees were payable.

FOR PERSON
[C1] If a cheque is payable to a person, that person's name is written on the cheque and the money will be paid to them.

Dictionary example:
Cheques should be made payable to 'Express Enterprises'.

Learner example:
Please make your cheque payable to "Mr. C. ZHANG". I am looking forward to receiving your answer and the cheque I claimed before the end of this month.
payment  /ˈpeɪ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: pay, payment
Verbs: pay, repay
Adjectives: payable, underpaid, unpaid

NOUN

AMOUNT PAID

[B2] [C] an amount of money paid

Dictionary examples:
We need a deposit of £165 followed by twelve monthly payments of £60.
When is the first payment due?

Learner example:
Now people can buy or sell things from their home. [T]hey don't have to go to the bank, if they want [to] make a payment.

ACT

[B2] [U] the act of paying

Dictionary examples:
They will accept payment by credit card.
Usually we ask for payment on receipt of the goods.

Learner example:
Fina[l]ly, we employees have been facing delays on payment of our wages.

pea  /piː/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a round green seed, several of which grow in a pod, eaten as a vegetable

Dictionary examples:
* frozen/dried peas
* pea soup

Learner example:
I had a fish meal with some vegetables: peas, beans, carrots and lettuce.
peace /ˈpiːs/

Word family:
- Nouns: peace
- Adjectives: peaceful
- Adverbs: peacefully

NOUN [u]

CALM

[B1] calm and quiet

Dictionary examples:
- You'll need peace and quiet to study.
- He says he's at peace when he's walking in the mountains.
- Go away and leave us to finish our dinner in peace.
- There'll be no peace until she gets what she wants.

Learner example:
I saw a lot of primitive people who live in peace with the rainforest.

NO VIOLENCE

[B2] when there is no war, violence or arguing

Dictionary examples:
- peace talks
- a peace agreement
- Now that the war is over may there be lasting peace between our nations.
- She's very good at keeping (the) peace within the family.

Learner example:
World peace was being threat[e]ned by the Gulf War, major countries were taking sides and preparing to fight each other, millions of lives were in danger but no one seemed to care enough.

peace of mind

[C2] a feeling that you do not need to worry about anything

Dictionary example:
- We lock our doors and windows at night for peace of mind.

Learner example:
- After all, successfully earning your living guarantees peace of mind.

peaceful /ˈpiːs.fəl/

Word family:
- Nouns: peace
- Adjectives: peaceful
- Adverbs: peacefully
ADJECTIVE

CALM
[B1] quiet and calm

Dictionary example:
a peaceful afternoon/place

Learner example:
This village is in a peaceful location with a sandy beach.

NO VIOLENCE
[B2] without violence

Dictionary example:
a peaceful demonstration/protest

Learner example:
Leipzig is well-known in the world because of the beginning of the peaceful revolution in 1989 in Germany.

peacefully /ˈpiːs.fəli/

Word family:
Nouns: peace
Adjectives: peaceful
Adverbs: peacefully

ADVERB

[B2] in a peaceful way

Dictionary example:
He died peacefully at home.

Learner example:
There were a beautiful bride and a handsome bridegroom who were sleeping peacefully with smiles on their faces.

peach /piːtʃ/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a round fruit with sweet yellow flesh that has a lot of juice, a slightly furry red and yellow skin and a large seed in its centre

Dictionary example:
Would you like peaches and cream for dessert?
Learner example:
I enjoy eating cool summer fruit, such as melon, water-melon, peaches and apricots.

---

peak /piːk/

NOUN [C]

MOUNTAIN TOP

[B1] the top of a mountain, or the mountain itself

Dictionary examples:

snow-covered peaks
It is one of the most difficult peaks to climb.

Learner example:
You can walk or ride a horse to reach the peak.

HIGHEST POINT

[B2] the highest level or value of something

Dictionary examples:

peak travel times
Holiday flights reach a peak during August.
Here we see an athlete at the peak of her fitness and career.

Learner example:
The situation gets worse, especially [during] peak hours, when people go to work or school and when they return home.

---

peanut /ˈpiː.nʌt/

NOUN [C]

[B1] an oval-shaped nut with a thin brown shell

Dictionary examples:

peanut oil
salted/dry-roast(ed) peanuts

Learner example:
I went to the supermarket where I bought some peanuts, cheese dip and a bottle [of] soda.
peasant /ˈpez.ənt/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a poor person who works on the land, usually in a poor country

Dictionary example:
a peasant farmer

Learner example:
Monteiro made a lot of trips to see and speak with fishermen and peasants.

peculiar /pɪˈkjuː.lɪər/

ADJECTIVE

STRANGE
[B2] unusual and strange, sometimes in an unpleasant way

Dictionary examples:
She has the most peculiar ideas.
What a peculiar smell!
It's peculiar that they didn't tell us they were going away.
The video on road accidents made me feel rather peculiar.

Learner example:
Yesterday I had a birthday and my friend Pat suggested that I should visit a fortune-teller. We went along to visit the most peculiar woman I have ever met in my life.

peculiar to sb/sth
[C2] belonging to or relating to a particular person or thing

Dictionary example:
Her accent is peculiar to the region.

Learner example:
The warm atmosphere obliterated every trace of shyness peculiar to the somewhat inhibited Swedes.

pedal /ˈped.əl/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a part of a machine that you press with your foot to operate or move the machine
Dictionary examples:
the brake pedal
This sewing machine is operated by a foot pedal.
He stood up on the pedals of his bike to get extra power as he cycled up the hill.

Learner example:
It has a comfortable seat, big pedals and a [w]onderful inscription “RIDER”.

pedestrian /pəˈdes.triː.ən/
NOUN [c]
[B1] a person who is walking and not travelling in a vehicle

Dictionary examples:
a pedestrian crossing
Many streets are reserved for cyclists and pedestrians.

Learner example:
There aren’t cars in the city, because the roads are only for pedestrians.

peel /piːl/
VERB

FOOD
[B2] [t] to remove the skin of fruit and vegetables

Dictionary example:
Peel and chop the onions.

Learner example:
We are a family of four and everybody peels vegetables, does [the] washing-up and makes coffee.

COVERING
[C2] [I or T] If a layer or covering peels, it slowly comes off, and if you peel a layer or covering, you remove it slowly and carefully.

Dictionary examples:
The posters were peeling away from the damp walls.
Peel off the backing strip and press the label down firmly.

Learner example:
The building that housed the school was run down, with paint peeling off the walls and all the furniture like chairs and tables falling apart.

keep your eyes peeled (for sb/sth)
[C2] to watch carefully for someone or something
Dictionary example:
Keep your eyes peeled, he should be here any minute.

Learner example:
Ever since, I try to keep my eyes peeled for anything similar.

---

peep /piːp/

VERB [i]

peep at/through/out, etc.
[C2] to look at something for a short time, often when you do not want other people to see you

Dictionary example:
She peeped at them through the fence.

Learner example:
Once I peeped through the keyhole and I could see him crying in pain over my mother’s photograph.

---

peer /pɪə/

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone who is the same age, or who has the same social position or abilities as other members of a group

Dictionary example:
Most teenagers want to be accepted by their peers.

Learner example:
It could be a little boring, especially when you are young and all you want is to be with your peers, stay out [all night], get back early in the morning and sleep until afternoon.

VERB

peer at/into/through, etc.
[C2] to look carefully or with difficulty

Dictionary example:
She peered at me over her glasses.

Learner example:
Slightly opening the door, she peered inside: a small [shaft] of moonlight passing through the [curtain] lit the small room: there was nobody inside, and the phone on the old desk was silent.
peer pressure  /ˈpiəˌpreʃ.ə/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the influence of people who are of a similar age or in a similar situation to you

Dictionary example:
When it comes to fashion, peer pressure can be intense.

Learner example:
To sum up, although young people face many problems and restrictions, such as peer pressure, excessive homework and their parents' prohibitions, they overcome all the barriers and enjoy their life exploiting to the full all the advantages of their age and character.

penalty  /ˈpen.əl.ti/

NOUN [c]

PUNISHMENT
[B2] a punishment for doing something that is against a law or rule

Dictionary examples:
The violation carries a penalty of up to three years in prison.
Currently, ticket holders pay a penalty equal to 25% of the ticket price when they change their flight plans.

Learner example:
Although, the government can increase the penalties for neglectful driving. In this regard, police officers are already paying more attention to drunk drivers.

SPORT
[B2] an advantage given in some sports to a team or player when the opposing team or player breaks a rule

Dictionary example:
The referee awarded a penalty kick.

Learner example:
After twenty more minutes of playing or I should say fighting, none of us could score and finally the match had to be decided by penalties.

penguin  /ˈpeŋ.gwɪn/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large, black and white sea bird that swims and cannot fly
Dictionary example:
A row of penguins stood at the water's edge.

Learner example:
It's wonderful, you can see the whales swimming in the sea, the sea [lions] lying on the beach and the penguins.

penny /ˈpen.i/ (plural pence or p)

NOUN [c]
[B1] a coin or unit of money with a value of one hundredth of a pound

Dictionary examples:
Could you lend me 50 pence/50p?
I found a ten/twenty/fifty pence piece on the ground.

Learner example:
It was [a] two penny coin.

pension /ˈpent.ʃən/ (plural pensioner)

Word family:
Nouns: pension, pensioner

NOUN [c]
[B2] a sum of money paid regularly by the government or a private company to a person who has stopped working because they are old or ill

Dictionary examples:
a pension plan
a state/private pension
He won’t be able to draw his pension until he’s 65.

Learner example:
Moreover, you’ll have to pay attention to your health, if you don’t want to die before [you get] your pension.

pensioner /ˈpent.ʃən.ər/ (plural pensioners)

Word family:
Nouns: pension, pensioner

NOUN [c]
[C1] a person who is receiving a pension
Dictionary example:
Many pensioners are worried about rises in heating costs.

Learner example:
Probably the era of soap operas will end when there are no more housewives and pensioners to watch them.

people  /ˈpiː.pl/

NOUN

the people
[C1] all the ordinary people in a country

Dictionary example:
The rebels have gained the support of the people.

Learner example:
John Paul II is one of the few popes – if not the only one – to have actually been in contact with the people.

pepper  /ˈpep.ər/

NOUN

VEGETABLE
[B1] [c] a hollow green, red or yellow vegetable

Dictionary example:
red peppers

Learner example:
I eat every [kind] of vegetable – carrots, green peppers...

perceive  /paˈsi:v/

Word family:
Nouns: perception
Verbs: perceive
Adjectives: perceptive

VERB [T] FORMAL

THINK
[C1] to think of something or someone in a particular way
Dictionary example:
The British are often perceived as being very formal.

Learner example:
However, travel[ing] with parents or other family members is generally perceived as less exciting and interesting than travel[ing] with friends.

NOTICE
[C2] to notice something that is not easy to notice

Dictionary example:
We perceived a faint light in the distance.

Learner example:
I could perceive a dim light through the shutters but immediately afterwards it disappeared.

percent (also per cent) /pəˈsent/

ADVERB
[B1] for or out of every 100, shown by the symbol %

Dictionary examples:
You got 20 percent of the answers right – that means one in every five.
Only 40% of people bothered to vote in the election.

Learner example:
I love colourful clothes and this skirt was [in a] sale so I just had to pay 30 per cent of the old price.

percentage /pəˈsen.tɪdʒ/

NOUN
[B2] [c] an amount of something, often expressed as a number out of 100

Dictionary examples:
What percentage of women return to work after having a baby?
Interest rates have risen by two percentage points.

Learner example:
If "today's youngster[s]" [are] asked where [they] would like to have lunch, a high percentage of them will probably answer "McDonalds".
perception /pəˈsepʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: perception
- Verbs: perceive
- Adjectives: perceptive

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] what you think or believe about someone or something

Dictionary examples:
The public perception of him as a hero is surprising.
These photographs will affect people's perceptions of war.

Learner example:
Today's royalty is a lot less respected and the media influence of modern times has shaped and transformed much of our perception.

perceptive /pəˈsep.tɪv/

Word family:
- Nouns: perception
- Verbs: perceive
- Adjectives: perceptive

ADJECTIVE
[C2] quick to notice or understand things

Dictionary example:
a perceptive writer

Learner example:
Both incidents show how perceptive Lucy is.

perfect

Word family:
- Adjectives: perfect, imperfect
- Adverbs: perfectly

ADJECTIVE /ˈpɜː.fɪkt/

SUITABLE
[B1] exactly right for someone or something

Dictionary examples:
You'd be perfect for the job.
The weather's just perfect for a picnic.
Learner example:
The weather was perfect for the cycling holiday.

TO EMPHASIZE
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to emphasize a noun

Dictionary example:
His suggestion makes perfect sense.

Learner example:
When the visit is a grandmother with whom you have nothing to talk about I don't think there is much you can do about it. But if you wake up in the morning and the first thing you see in front of you is the face of a perfect stranger with wrinkles all over the place staring at you with motherly eyes... wh[at] would be your first reaction? Yell, of course!

NOUN [NO PLURAL] /ˈpɜː.fɪkt/ SPECIALIZED the perfect (tense)

[B2] the tense of a verb that shows action that has happened in the past or before another time or event

Dictionary examples:
the present/past perfect
In English, the perfect is formed with a form of the verb 'have' and the past participle of the verb – for example, "She has visited Mexico."

VERB /pəˈfekt/
[C2] to make something as good as it can be

Dictionary example:
I've spent hours perfecting my speech.

Learner example:
Instead, it matters how far they get with perfecting their skills.

perfection /pəˈfek.ʃən/

NOUN [u]
[C1] when someone or something is perfect

Dictionary examples:
She strives for perfection in everything she does.
chicken legs cooked to perfection

Learner example:
Moreover, he is hard-working and always strives for perfection.
perfectly /ˈpɜːfɪkt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: perfect, imperfect
Adverbs: perfectly

ADVERB

WITHOUT FAULT

[B1] in a perfect way

Dictionary examples:
The jacket fits perfectly, the skirt not so well.
They're perfectly suited.

Learner example:
I think black is your colour and they'll fit you perfectly!

EMPHASIS

[B2] used to emphasize the word that follows

Dictionary examples:
To be perfectly honest, I don't care any more.
You know perfectly well what the matter is.
I made it perfectly clear to him what I meant.
I was perfectly happy on my own.

Learner example:
I told them I hadn't brought a map because I knew the way perfectly well.

perform /pəˈfɔːrm/

Word family:
Nouns: performance, performer
Verbs: perform

VERB

ENTERTAIN

[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to entertain people by acting, dancing, singing, playing music, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She composes and performs her own music.
A major Hollywood star will be performing on stage tonight.

Learner example:
Later a band performs and everybody starts to dance and sing.
DO
[B2] [f] FORMAL to do a job or a piece of work

Dictionary examples:
Computers can perform a variety of tasks.
The operation will be performed next week.
Most of the students performed well in the exam.

Learner example:
The technology of computers can [produce] special effects [in] films and cartoons, it can also be used to perform some kind[s] of surgery.

performance /paˈfɔːrnıəns/

Word family:
Nouns: performance, performer
Verbs: perform

NOUN

ENTERTAINMENT
[B1] [c] acting, dancing, singing, or playing music to entertain people

Dictionary examples:
a performance of Arthur Miller’s play, 'The Crucible'
She gave a superb performance as Lady Macbeth.

Learner example:
I was sure that the legendary instrument that the great player used during his performances had to be very big, as the box is.

HOW SUCCESSFUL
[B2] [u] how successful someone or something is

Dictionary examples:
The new suits help swimmers to improve their performance.
High–performance cars are the most expensive.
This was a very impressive performance by the young player, who scored 12 points within the first 10 minutes.

Learner example:
I do some exercises in order to improve my performance in the water.

performer /paˈfɔːrəm/
NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who entertains people by acting, singing, dancing or playing music

Dictionary example:
He's a brilliant performer.

Learner example:
We are going to watch "Bodygu[a]rd", which has so many famous performers.

period /ˈpɜːri.əd/

NOUN [C]

TIME
[B1] a length of time

Dictionary examples:
Her work means that she spends long periods away from home.
Unemployment in the first half of the year was 2% lower than in the same period last year.
The study will be carried out over a six-month period.
The house was built during the Elizabethan period.

Learner example:
Hi Jo, I've seen a restaurant [is] looking for a waitress during the period from June to August.

SCHOOL
[B1] in school, a division of time in the day when a subject is taught

Dictionary example:
We have six periods of science a week.

Learner example:
After the period, when the bell rang, I stayed in the class [to] ask some questions and my new teacher gave me some explanations.

perk /pɜːk/

NOUN [C]
[C1] something special in addition to the money you are paid that you are given because of your job

Dictionary example:
Free child care for preschool children of employees was a popular perk.

Learner example:
The economy nowadays is so technologically driven it is common belief that having a job in the computer industry means high pay an[d] perks.
permanent /ˈpɜːrnənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: permanent
Adverbs: permanently

ADJECTIVE
[B1] lasting or continuing for a long time or forever

Dictionary examples:
She is looking for a permanent place to stay.
Are you looking for a temporary or a permanent job?
The disease can cause permanent damage to the brain.

Learner example:
I am a permanent member of [the] Fear factor club.

permanently /ˈpɜːrnənt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: permanent
Adverbs: permanently

ADVERB
[B2] always and forever

Dictionary examples:
I seem to be permanently broke.
Michael and his family have settled permanently in Brazil.

Learner example:
Although I am not permanently employed, I found it very interesting to help skilled instructors teach other people to swim and surf.

permission /pəˈmɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: permission
Verbs: permit

NOUN [u]
[B1] when you allow someone to do something
Dictionary examples:
She gave him permission immediately.
They even have to ask for permission before they go to the toilet.
Official permission has been granted for more building near the river.
The authorities have refused permission for the demonstration to take place.
Planning permission was refused for the hypermarket after a three-week inquiry.

Learner example:
My parents didn't give me permission to go but I really wanted to.

permit

Word family:
Nouns: permission
Verbs: permit

VERB /pəˈmɪt/ FORMAL SLIGHTLY (-tt-)
[B1] [tr] to allow something

Dictionary examples:
Photography is not permitted inside the museum.
The prison authorities permit visiting only once a month.
The security system will not permit you to enter without the correct password.

Learner example:
My parents permitted me to go!

MAKE POSSIBLE
[C1] [i] to make something possible

Dictionary example:
The match starts at 3 pm, weather permitting.

Learner example:
In my mind there is little to improve in this programme except increasing the [amount] of family accommodation and – budget permitting – the occasions for weekend trips.

NOUN [c] /ˈpɜː.mɪt/
[C1] an official document that allows you to do something

Dictionary examples:
a work permit
You need a permit to park your car here.

Learner example:
I am able to start as soon as possible and due to my grandfather [being] Italian also have dual nationality, which means that I don't even need a work permit.
perseverance /ˌpɜːsɪˈvɪərəntz/

NOUN [u]
[C2] continued effort and determination

Dictionary example:
Hard work and perseverance do pay off in the end.

Learner example:
Would we be still living as our ancestors used to live if people like Einstein, Volta, Newton and Galileo [had not] had the perseverance and intelligence that allowed them to discover things such as the theory of relativity?

persist /pəˈsɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: persistence
Verbs: persist
Adjectives: persistent

VERB [I]

CONTINUE TO EXIST
[C2] If an unpleasant feeling or situation persists, it continues to exist.

Dictionary example:
If symptoms persist, consult a doctor.

Learner example:
In my opinion her achievement is based on the fact that she did manage to alter the image of a handicapped person which persisted in many minds.

CONTINUE TO DO
[C2] to continue to do something although it is annoying other people

Dictionary example:
He persists in calling me Jane, even though I've corrected him twice.

Learner example:
Most surprising perhaps is the fact that although many people are aware of the shortage of drinkable water, [they] persist in either leaving the tap run[ning] or just consume water when it is unnecessary, something that in my opinion is inexcusable.
persistence /ˈpəˌsɪstənts/

Word family:
Nouns: persistence
Verbs: persist
Adjectives: persistent

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone or something persists

Dictionary example:
He has been campaigning on road safety for years – you have to admire his persistence.

Learner example:
A reward for months of effort and persistence had at last arrived.

---

persistent /ˈpəˌsɪstənt/

Word family:
Nouns: persistence
Verbs: persist
Adjectives: persistent

ADJECTIVE
[C2] continuing to do something in a determined way

Dictionary example:
He can be very persistent when he wants something.

Learner example:
I learned how to make the most out of failure, how to be persistent in my efforts and strive for excellence.

---

person /ˈpɜːsən/ (plural people)

Word family:
Nouns: person, personality
Adjectives: personal, impersonal
Adverbs: personally

NOUN [c]

In person
[B2] If you do something in person, you go somewhere to do it yourself.

Dictionary example:
You have to collect the document in person.
Learner example:
I am looking forward [to] meeting you in person.

personal /ˈpɜːrsnəl/

Word family:
Nouns: person, personality
Adjectives: personal, impersonal
Adverbs: personally

ADJECTIVE

RELATING TO A PERSON

[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] relating to or belonging to a particular person

Dictionary examples:
I can only speak from my personal experience.
This is a personal opinion/view and not that of the government.
Passengers are reminded to take all their personal belongings with them when they leave the plane.

Learner example:
The only personal belongings he took was a black leather suitcase.

FOR ONE PERSON

[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] designed for or used by one person

Dictionary examples:
a personal computer/stereo
a personal loan

Learner example:
The activity that I like best is to surf the Web with a powerful personal computer.

PRIVATE

[B1] relating to the private parts of someone's life, including their relationships or feelings

Dictionary examples:
He has a few personal problems at the moment.
Do you mind if I ask you a personal question?
His resignation was apparently for personal rather than professional reasons.
We know very little about his personal life.

Learner example:
I wanted to see him and talk to him about some personal problems.

personal hygiene

[C1] how clean a person's body, teeth, hair, etc. are
Dictionary example:
Her personal hygiene is not as good as it should be.

Learner example:
The ones that need medical services at home have hardly had anyone, and no one has helped them with personal hygiene.

personality /ˌpɜːsnələtɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: person, personality
Adjectives: personal, impersonal
Adverbs: personally

NOUN

CHARACTER
[B2] [c or u] the type of person you are, which is shown by the way you behave, feel and think

Dictionary examples:
She has a very warm personality.
He is well qualified for the job, but he does lack personality.

Learner example:
I mean, when she dances, she transmits strength and a big personality.

FAMOUS PERSON
[B2] [c] a famous person

Dictionary example:
The show is hosted by a popular TV personality.

Learner example:
What is more, you could take part in the festival without paying for it and meet some famous personalities from the world of music.

personally /ˈpɜːsn.əli/

Word family:
Nouns: person, personality
Adjectives: personal, impersonal
Adverbs: personally

ADVERB

OPINION
[B1] used when you give your opinion
Dictionary example:
Personally (speaking), I think the show is going to be a great success.

Learner example:
Personally, I really like green spag[h]etti.

NOT SOMEONE ELSE
[B2] done by or affecting one person and not by someone else

Dictionary examples:
These figures should be correct because I've checked them personally.
He believes that parents should be made personally responsible for their children's behaviour.

Learner example:
At the end of the concert, when it was after midnight and everyone had already left, the group came up to each of us (who helped out) and thanked us personally!

take sth personally
[C1] to think that someone is criticizing you or to feel that a failure or bad situation is your fault

Dictionary example:
You mustn't take everything so personally.

Learner example:
She tends to take things too personally, and sometimes she over[r]eacts.

personnel /ˌpɜː.səˈnɛl/

NOUN
[C1] [PLURAL] the people who work for an organization

Dictionary example:
military personnel

Learner example:
We also employ 10000 workers in 10 factories across the country and additional administrative personnel.

perspective /pəˈspek.trɪv/

NOUN
WAY OF THINKING
[C1] [c] the way you think about something
Dictionary example:
Being unemployed has made me see things from a different perspective.

Learner example:
We have performed a class survey and interviewed Fordham residents, who see this issue from a different perspective.

in perspective
[C2] when things are in perspective, you think about them in a sensible and realistic way, and understand how important or unimportant they really are

Dictionary examples:
You must keep things in perspective – the overall situation isn’t really that bad.
When you see pictures of their suffering, it puts your own problems in perspective.

Learner example:
I think it will enable me to see things more in perspective.

persuade /pəˈswəːrd/

Word family:
Nouns: persuasion
Verbs: persuade
Adjectives: persuasive

VERB [T]

MAKE SOMEONE AGREE
[B1] to make someone agree to do something by talking to them a lot about it

Dictionary examples:
If she doesn’t want to go, nothing you can say will persuade her.
I persuaded her (that) it was the right thing to do.
He is trying to persuade local and foreign businesses to invest in the project.
Using a bunch of bananas, the zoo-keeper persuaded the monkey back into its cage.

Learner example:
I had to persuade them to let me go and make enquiries.

MAKE SOMEONE BELIEVE
[B2] to make someone believe that something is true

Dictionary examples:
Their argument failed to persuade me.
It’s no use trying to persuade him (that) you’re innocent.

Learner example:
My friends persuaded me that everythin[g] was going well.
persuasion /pəˈswɛ.ʒən/

Word family:
Nouns: persuasion
Verbs: persuade
Adjectives: persuasive

NOUN
[C2] [u] when you persuade someone

Dictionary example:
I'm sure she'll agree, she just needs a little gentle persuasion.

Learner example:
After a lot of persuasion I decided to take part in the Public Speaking.

---

persuasive /pəˈswɛ.əsɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: persuasion
Verbs: persuade
Adjectives: persuasive

ADJECTIVE
[C1] able to make people agree to do something

Dictionary example:
It's a very persuasive argument.

Learner example:
The presentation and the enthusiasm of the representatives was very persuasive and appealing.

---

pessimistic /ˌpes.ɪˈmɪstɪk/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] always believing that bad things are likely to happen

Dictionary examples:
The tone of the meeting was very pessimistic.
The doctors are pessimistic about his chances of recovery.

Learner example:
In his book, [the] most important thing is his character. He has never been pessimistic, he has never hated his parents.
petrified /ˈpet.rɪ.faid/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] extremely frightened

Dictionary example:
I'm petrified of spiders.

Learner example:
I was petrified as well as confused.

petty /ˈpet.i/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] unimportant or not serious

Dictionary examples:
petty details
petty crime

Learner example:
Most unemployed people often turn to petty crimes and sometimes big crimes such as robbery, prostitution and drug-trafficking.

pharmacist /ˈfɑː.məː sist/

Word family:

Nouns: pharmacist, pharmacy

NOUN [C]

[B2] someone who is trained to prepare or sell medicines

Dictionary example:
The pharmacist gave me some medicine.

pharmacy /ˈfɑː.mə.si/

Word family:

Nouns: pharmacist, pharmacy

NOUN [C]

[B1] a shop or part of a shop that prepares and sells medicines

Dictionary example:
You could try a hayfever remedy from the pharmacy.
Learner example:
Sometimes such a situation could happen when you need some food or something [from the] pharmacy.

phase  /feɪz/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a stage or period which is part of a longer period

Dictionary examples:
The first phase of the project is likely to be completed by August.
We're entering a new phase in international relations.
When I was in my early teens I went through a phase of only wearing black.

Learner example:
Many people disagree about the best phase of a man's life but I defin[ite]ly believe that [the] teenage years are the most beautiful of your life and I have many reasons for believing that!

phenomenal  /fɪˈnɒm.ɪ.nəl/

Word family:
Nouns: phenomenon
Adjectives: phenomenal

ADJECTIVE
[C2] extremely successful or showing great qualities or abilities

Dictionary example:
The film has been a phenomenal success.

Learner example:
When they opened in 1990, they had a huge car park which held up to 9,000 cars but due to its phenomenal success they had to build more multi-storey car parks to cope with the tidal wave of vehicles.

phenomenon  /fɪˈnɒm.ɪ.nən/

Word family:
Nouns: phenomenon
Adjectives: phenomenal

NOUN [C] (phenomena)
[C1] something that exists or happens, usually something unusual
Dictionary examples:
storms, lightning, and other natural phenomena
Road rage seems to be a fairly recent phenomenon.

Learner example:
An unexpected phenomenon that someone called “drunkenness tourism” has appeared in the Mediteranean villages and towns.

philosopher /ˈfɪləs.əˌfə/
Word family:
Nouns: philosopher, philosophy
Adjectives: philosophical

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who studies or writes about the meaning of life

Dictionary example:
Plato was a Greek philosopher.

Learner example:
He wasn’t a teacher, he wasn’t a philosopher, but he was a great artist.

philosophical /ˌfɪləˈsɒf.ɪ.kəl/
Word family:
Nouns: philosopher, philosophy
Adjectives: philosophical

ADJECTIVE

PHILOSOPHY
[C2] relating to the study or writing of philosophy

Dictionary example:
a philosophical problem/question

Learner example:
Ralph started taking advice from Piggy and asking him philosophical questions.

CALM
[C2] accepting unpleasant situations in a calm and wise way

Dictionary example:
She seems fairly philosophical about failing her exam.

Learner example:
One of the traits that attract[s] me most in the Balinese is their philosophical attitude towards life and their strong belief in Hindu gods and spirits.
philosophy /fɪˈlɒs.ə.fɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: philosopher, philosophy
Adjectives: philosophical

NOUN

STUDY
[B2] [u] the study or writing of ideas about the meaning of life, or a particular set of ideas about the meaning of life

Dictionary example:
Descartes is considered by many to be the father of modern philosophy.

Learner example:
We have been enthusiastic students of history, literature and philosophy for three years now.

WAY OF THINKING
[C1] [c] a way of thinking about what should be done in life

Dictionary example:
My philosophy has always been to give those with ability the chance to progress.

Learner example:
Brighton college has changed its philosophy considerably over the past decades.

photocopy /ˈfəʊ.təˌkɒpi/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a copy of a document made with a machine which produces copies of documents using light and electricity

Dictionary example:
I made several photocopies of my CV and sent them to different companies.

Learner example:
As far as my level of English is concerned, I have obtained my Cambridge Examination and I enclose a photocopy of the certificate.

photograph /ˈfəʊ.təˌgrɑːf/

Word family:
Nouns: photo, photograph, photographer, photography
Verbs: photograph
VERB [T]
[B2] to take a picture using a camera

Dictionary examples:
I prefer photographing people rather than places.
MacKay was photographed leaving the building.

Learner example:
This city is not big as you know, so we don't have m[any] interesting buildings to be photographed.

phrasal verb /ˈfreɪ.zəlˈvɜːb/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a phrase which consists of a verb in combination with a preposition or adverb or both, which has a different meaning from the meaning of its separate parts

Dictionary example:
'Look after', 'work out' and 'make up for' are all phrasal verbs.

Learner example:
At my first lesson, we talked together about our past experiences and we learnt some phrasal verbs too (which we really hate!)

phrase /freɪz/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a group of words that are used together, and which often have a particular meaning

Dictionary example:
Here are some phrases that may be useful in your essays.

Learner example:
[A] man dressed in black would ask me: "How many apples are there in the bedroom?" [and] I should answer with a scratch [o]n the nose and the phrase: "Three and seven quarters sir."

physical /ˈfɪz.ɪkəl/

Word family:
Adjectives: physical Adverbs: physically
ADJECTIVE

BODY
[B2] related to the body

Dictionary examples:
physical exercise/fitness/strength/disabilities physical appearance

Learner example:
Eighty kilometres is a pretty long distance and there is a [danger] that our trip would turn out to be a gruelling experience because of physical exhaustion.

THINGS
[C2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] relating to real things that you can see and touch

Dictionary examples:
a physical object
There was no physical evidence linking Jones to Shaw's murder.

Learner example:
In other words, books as physical objects represent memories of specific times of my life and occasionally I enjoy recalling them by reading (again) some passages of already read books.

physically /ˈfɪz.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Adjectives: physical Adverbs: physically

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that relates to the body or someone's appearance

Dictionary examples:
physically active/fit
Physically I find him very attractive.
The work is physically demanding.
Special holidays are available for physically disabled people.

Learner example:
Most people believe that team sport[s] help children to become healthier, both mentally and physically, but there are those who have objections to this statement.
pick  /pɪk/

VERB [ɪ]

CHOOSE
[B1] to choose something or someone

Dictionary examples:
Pick a card from the pack.
She was picked for the Olympic team.
She was picked to play for the team.

Learner example:
In this restaurant, there are all types of pizza on a table and you can pick any pizza you want.

FLOWERS/FRUIT
[B1] If you pick flowers or fruit, you take them off a plant or tree.

Dictionary examples:
They were picking strawberries for twelve hours a day.
I picked some apples this morning.

Learner example:
Two weeks is quite a long time so I am planning to go cycling in the mountains, gather acorns, pick flowers, go hiking and watch the sun set.

pick up the pieces
[C2] to try to get back to an ordinary way of life after a difficult experience

Dictionary example:
After Ruth's death, Joe found it hard to pick up the pieces and carry on.

Learner example:
Now that I'm settled in my own country, picking up the pieces and trying to start a new life, I've decided that having a diary is not a bad idea after all.

picture  /ˈpɪk.tʃər/

Word family:
Nouns: picture
Adjectives: picturesque

NOUN

FILM
[B1] [c] a film

Dictionary example:
Could this be the first animated film to win a best picture award?
Learner example:
Now I can buy the DVD "Star Trek – The Motion Picture".

IDEA

[B2] [USUALLY NO PLURAL] an idea of what something is like

Dictionary example:
After watching the news, I had a clearer picture of what was happening.

Learner example:
The next day we will go round the area so you will have a general picture in your mind.

TV

[B2] [C] an image seen on a television or cinema screen

Dictionary example:
We can't get a clear picture.

Learner example:
Another important point for me is that things like listening [to] music or watching TV sounds better and the pictures on TV are being improved, because the machines [are becoming] better.

put/keep sb in the picture INFORMAL

[C1] to explain to someone what is happening

Dictionary example:
Jim had no idea what was going on till I put him in the picture.

Learner example:
Tell him you are friends of mine. (I will put him in the picture!)

get the picture INFORMAL

[C2] used to say that someone understands a situation

Dictionary example:
Oh right, I get the picture.

Learner example:
If you use a photograph though, you can be sure that everyone will get the picture (pun intended) and pro[b]ably remember the person you're talking about next time they see him.

VERB [T]

[C1] to imagine something in a particular way

Dictionary example:
The house isn't at all how I had pictured it.

Learner example:
Picture this: one house, one bathroom, one bedroom, approximately 100 cameras, 9 people from all possible walks of life and no contact with the world outside.
picturesque  /ˌpɪk.ˈtʃərˌesk/

Word family:
Nouns: picture
Adjectives: picturesque

ADJECTIVE

[B2] A picturesque place is attractive to look at.

Dictionary example:
the picturesque narrow streets of the old city

Learner example:
Poland is a really nice country, with many historical buildings and picturesque places.

pie  /paɪ/

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a type of food made with meat, vegetables, or fruit covered in pastry and baked

Dictionary examples:
Would you like some more apple pie?
a chicken and mushroom pie

Learner example:
I like apple pie and ice cream as [a] dessert.

piece  /piːs/

NOUN [C]

SINGLE AMOUNT

[B1] a single amount of a particular type of thing

Dictionary examples:
I have an interesting piece of information/news for you.
She gave me a very useful piece of advice.

Learner example:
You can visit the churches, the ancient buildings, and some other interesting places. That's my piece of advice.

ART/LITERATURE/MUSIC

[B2] an example of artistic, written or musical work
Dictionary examples:
a beautiful piece of music
an orchestral piece
There was an interesting piece on alternative medicine in the newspaper yesterday.

Learner example:
My favourite music is an instrumental piece of music by Vangelis.

be a piece of cake
[B2] informal to be very easy

Dictionary example:
The exam itself was a piece of cake.

Learner example:
The article was a piece of cake though I didn’t expect to win.

go/fall to pieces
[C2] If someone goes to pieces, they become so upset that they cannot control their feelings or think clearly.

Dictionary example:
He went to pieces when his mother died.

Learner example:
He was amazed [at] his ability to solve the problems as he came to them and not go to pieces, like Hooper did.

pick up the pieces
[C2] to try to get back to an ordinary way of life after a difficult experience

Dictionary example:
After Ruth’s death, Joe found it hard to pick up the pieces and carry on.

Learner example:
Now that I’m settled in my own country, picking up the pieces and trying to start a new life, I’ve decided that having a diary is not a bad idea after all.

bits and pieces
[C2] small things or jobs which are not connected or not very important

Dictionary example:
We’ve packed most of it up now, there are just a few bits and pieces left.

Learner example:
So, it’s memories that make us keep odd bits and pieces.
pile /pɪl/

NOUN [c]

HEAP

[B1] objects positioned one on top of another

Dictionary examples:
a large pile of sand
a pile of books
The clothes were arranged in piles on the floor.

Learner example:
It was like finding a needle in a pile of straw.

a pile of/ piles of sth

[B2] informal a lot of something

Dictionary examples:
I've got a pile of things to do today.
He's got piles of money.

Learner example:
He was very disappointed, he didn't want to leave but he had to because he had a pile of work waiting for him.

VERB

pile up phrasal verb

[B2] If something unpleasant piles up, you get more and more of it.

Dictionary example:
My work's really starting to pile up.

Learner example:
My work [has] piled up and I have to carry on.

pill /pɪl/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a small, hard piece of medicine that you swallow

Dictionary examples:
a sleeping pill
a vitamin pill
My mother takes three or four pills a day.
Jamie's always had trouble swallowing pills.
Learner example:
Don’t forget your pills for your allergy.

pin /pɪn/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a small, thin piece of metal with a sharp point used for temporarily holding pieces of cloth together

Dictionary example:
I’ll keep the trouser patch in place with pins while I sew it on.

VERB [r] (−nn−)
[B1] to fasten something with a pin

Dictionary example:
We’re not allowed to pin anything to/(up) on the walls.

Learner example:
Secondly, we need a big board. Everybody could pin information on it, [for example] the timetable, the menu for the canteen, or information about special events in and around the school.

pine /ˈpaɪn/ (also pine tree)

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a tall tree with long, thin leaves shaped like needles

Dictionary example:
a pine forest

Learner example:
After a few days, we came to a small lake surrounded by pine trees.

pineapple /ˈpaɪn.æp.əl/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a large fruit with thick skin and sharp leaves sticking out of the top which is sweet and yellow inside

Dictionary examples:
pineapple juice
We ate some slices of pineapple.
Learner example:
[There is] some special fruit [here], like durian, pineapple, banana and so on.

pinpoint /ˈpɪn.poʊnt/

VERB [ɪ]

[C2] to say exactly what or where something is

Dictionary example:
It is difficult to pinpoint the exact time of death.

Learner example:
It is difficult to pinpoint the exact factors that lead to success and even more difficult to arrange them in any order of priority.

pint /paɪnt/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a measure for liquid equal to about half a litre

Dictionary examples:
a pint of milk
a pint of beer

Learner example:
I thank everybody, hoping we'll see [each other] in the pub where I'll invite you for a pint of beer.

pioneer /ˈpaɪ.əˌnɪər/

NOUN [c]

[C2] someone who is one of the first people to do something

Dictionary example:
one of the pioneers of modern science

Learner example:
Not only was he a bold pioneer by writing lyrics for rock songs in German as early as the late 1960s when the German music scene was still dominated by Anglo–American influences, but he was also concerned with German domestic and foreign politics.
pipe /paɪp/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a long tube inside which liquid or gas can move through

Dictionary examples:
a water/gas pipe
a burst/broken/leaking pipe

Learner example:
A good surprise w[ould] be [if] you told Anna you need her to help to fix the pipe in our house.

pirate /ˈpaɪərət/

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who attacks ships and steals from them

Dictionary example:
The pirates held the ship’s captain prisoner and demanded money for his release.

Learner example:
I’m crazy about pirates since I watched "Pirates of the Caribbean".

pit /pɪt/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a large hole which has been dug in the ground

Dictionary example:
They dug a big pit to bury their rubbish.

Learner example:
I could demonstrate to people how to create compost pits and use kitchen waste to generate compost for their gardens.

pitch /pɪtʃ/

NOUN

SPORTS AREA
[B2] [c] an area painted with lines for playing particular sports, especially football
Dictionary examples:
a football/hockey/cricket pitch
Supporters invaded the pitch.

Learner example:
For example, you can have free access to the football pitch, the basketball court and even to the golf course.

pitch dark/black
[C2] extremely dark

Dictionary example:
a moonless pitch–black night

Learner example:
It was pitch dark when we started to walk and soon we lost all sen[s]e of direction because of all the small paths that criss–cross the island.

VERB

pitch a tent
[B2] to choose a place for a tent and put it there

Dictionary example:
We pitched our tent in a field.

Learner example:
After pitching my tent I could not wait to hike the moors.

---

pitiful /ˈpɪt.i.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: pity
Verbs: pity
Adjectives: pitiful

ADJECTIVE
[C2] DISAPPROVING describes something that you consider is bad or not satisfactory or not enough

Dictionary examples:
a pitiful excuse
pitiful wages
The amount of time and money being spent on researching this disease is pitiful.

Learner example:
Due to the social structure of late 20th century Western States, with the so–called nucle[ar] family being the usual family unit, more and more old people are driven to senior citizen’s homes where they lead a pitiful life in isolation neglected by their children and society in general.
pity /ˈpɪt.i/

Word family:
- Nouns: pity
- Verbs: pity
- Adjectives: pitiful

NOUN

SYMPATHY

[B2] [U] a feeling of sympathy and understanding for someone else's unhappiness or difficult situation

Dictionary examples:
The girl stood gazing in/with pity at the old lion in the cage.
We took pity on a couple of people waiting in the rain for a bus and gave them a lift.

Learner example:
But the young man insisted so much that I took pity on him and in the end I agreed to help him.

VERB [T]

[C2] to feel sorry for someone

Dictionary example:
She doesn't want people to pity her.

Learner example:
I pitied him for having such an empty life.

---

place /plərs/

Word family:
- Nouns: place, replacement, displacement
- Verbs: place, replace, displace, misplace

NOUN

SEAT

[B1] [c] the seat where you sit in a theatre, a class, a train, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The children collected their prizes and then went back to their places.
Could you save me a place near the stage?

Learner example:
We looked for a place to sit and found one.

OPPORTUNITY

[B1] [c] an opportunity to study at a college, to join a team, etc.
Dictionary examples:
She's got a place at university.
She's got a place on a fine-arts course.

Learner example:
I felt it was my chance so on Monday I ran to the club. [T]here were only 3 places [left], [and] I will begin next Saturday.

take place
[B1] to happen

Dictionary example:
The concert takes place next Thursday.

Learner example:
A dance night will take place in the club soon.

in first/second/third, etc. place
[B1] If you are in first/second/third, etc. place in a race or competition, that is your position.

Dictionary example:
He finished in fifth place.

Learner example:
To achieve first place, I have put a lot of effort [into] a project about the consequences of the use of plastic bags.

in place of sth
[B2] instead of something

Dictionary example:
Try adding fruit to your cereal in place of sugar.

Learner example:
Both television and books are very important for our education, for our lives, but never one in the place of the other!

take sb's place
[B2] to do something instead of someone else

Dictionary example:
If I can't make it to the theatre that night you can take my place.

Learner example:
First of all, it had been written that Danny Brook and Tina Truelove were starring, but Danny wasn't there and somebody else took his place.

in the first place
[B2] at the start of a situation

Dictionary example:
Why did you invite her in the first place?
Learner example:
In the first place, you were unknown people for me, but now you are my special foreign friends.

all over the place
[B2] in or to many different places

Dictionary example:
There were dirty dishes all over the place.

Learner example:
I am thinking of dog–dirt on the pavements, cans all over the place, [and] a lot of disgusting paintings on the walls in the public toilets, the underground and so on.

in place
[C2] in the correct position

Dictionary example:
The chairs are all in place.

Learner example:
I looked neat and clean even after the wildest games in the school yard, with all the ribbons that tied my long hair in place.

in place
[C2] If a rule, system, etc. is in place, it has started to exist.

Dictionary example:
There are now laws in place to prevent this from happening.

Learner example:
Let’s take [the] example of Mexico City, where such restrictions have been in place since early 2000.

put sb in their place
[C2] to let someone know that they are not as important as they think they are

Dictionary example:
He was rather arrogant, but the other kids soon put him in his place.

out of place
[C2] not in the correct position

Dictionary example:
Why are my files all out of place?

Learner example:
It was awful getting back from school and seeing all my things out of place.

out of place
[C2] not right or suitable for a particular situation

Dictionary example:
Everyone else was wearing jeans and I felt completely out of place in my office clothes.
Learner example:
This does not mean everybody is wearing tuxedos and dresses but you might be out of place just wearing shorts and a shirt.

fall into place
[C2] When events or details that you did not understand before fall into place, they become easy to understand.

Dictionary example:
When Jo told me she had a twin sister, everything fell into place.

VERB [T]

place sth in/on, etc.
[B2] to put something somewhere carefully

Dictionary example:
She placed the letter in front of me.

Learner example:
Suddenly little Sophie, who was chewing a sweet, lifted the lady’s hat, took the sweet out of her mouth and placed it on top of the lady’s head.

place an advertisement/order, etc.
[C1] to arrange to have an advertisement/order, etc.

Dictionary example:
She placed an advert for a housekeeper in the local paper.

Learner example:
Place an advertisement on the board near the students’ cant[een]. There are always people looking for flat–sharing.

SITUATION
[C1] to cause someone to be in a situation

Dictionary example:
One stupid action has placed us all at risk.

Learner example:
Lack of education placed them in the lowest range of salaries at that time.

place emphasis/importance, etc. on sth
[C2] to give something emphasis/importance, etc.

Dictionary example:
They place a lot of importance on qualifications.

Learner example:
They want to fit [in]to their peer group – having idols and placing importance upon clothes is not new for this age.
plague /ˈpleɪɡ/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a serious disease that spreads quickly and kills a lot of people

Dictionary example:
They died in the plague.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, due to the [basic] conditions of hygiene, health care and even the constant wars and the consequent slaughtering, no one expected to get too old, especially in the Middle Ages, when the plague was running wild and free and teenage miscarriages, resulting in the progenitor’s death, were common.

VERB [t] (plaguing, plagued)

[C2] to make someone suffer for a long time

Dictionary example:
He’s been plagued by bad luck ever since he bought that house.

Learner example:
On six days of the week, low-flying aircraft follow their course only metres above our heads, leaving behind a trail of citizens plagued by the constant incredibly loud noise.

---

plain /ˈpleɪn/

ADJECTIVE

SIMPLE

[B1] simple and not complicated

Dictionary examples:
a plain style of architecture
He prefers plain food – nothing too fancy.

Learner example:
I like wearing plain cloth[e]s.

NOT MIXED

[B1] not mixed with other colours, substances, etc.

Dictionary examples:
plain yoghurt
For the living room, we’ve chosen a plain carpet and patterned curtains.

Learner example:
The wall didn’t have any patterns, nothing but plain light blue. So I’ve decided to buy some pictures to put on it.

2171
OBVIOUS
[C2] obvious and clear

Dictionary example:
It's quite plain that she doesn't want to talk to me about it.

Learner example:
The former can be seen in her (somewhat violent, I daresay) reaction to the dismissal of the two Jewish girls on Lord Darlington's order: she made it plain that she would leave if they should leave.

PERSON
[C2] A plain person is not attractive to look at.

Dictionary example:
His wife is quite plain.

Learner example:
Lisa had a delicate frame and looked rather plain.

plan /plæn/

Word family:
Nouns: plan, planning
Verbs: plan

NOUN [C]

DRAWING
[B2] a drawing of a building, town, area, vehicle, machine, etc. which only shows its shape from above, its size, and the position of important details

Dictionary examples:
an architect's plans a street plan a seating plan

Learner example:
He uses a computer to help him draw 3D plans, ele[c]trical circuit plans and th[at] kind [of thing].

VERB (–nn–)

DECIDE
[B1] [I or T] to think about and decide what you are going to do or how you are going to do something
Dictionary examples:
She helped them to plan their route.
If we plan carefully, we should be able to stay within our budget.
She's already planning how to spend her prize money.

Learner example:
Dear Dan, I have planned a wonderful night for us.

planet /ˈplæn.ɪt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large, round object in space that moves around the sun or another star

Dictionary examples:
the planet Earth/Venus
Might there be intelligent life on other planets?

Learner example:
It's about the planet Mars, because I'm very interested in space.

planning /ˈplæn.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: plan, planning
Verbs: plan

NOUN [u]

DECIDING
[B2] the activity of thinking about and deciding what you are going to do or how you are going to do something

Dictionary example:
Events like these take months of careful planning.

Learner example:
It seems like you have been doing a lot of planning for our trip next week.

BUILDINGS
[C1] control over which buildings are built in an area

Dictionary example:
town planning

Learner example:
Town planning and some income-tax rules are two other prominent factors.
plant /plaːnt/

VERB [v]

TREES/FLOWERS, ETC.
[B1] to put a plant into the ground or into a container of earth so that it will grow

Dictionary examples:
We planted trees and bushes in our new garden.
Hyacinth bulbs planted in pots now will flower early in the spring.

Learner example:
The house is beside a small lake and surround[ed] by all sorts of different flowers my aunty had planted.

plant a bomb
[B2] to put a bomb somewhere so that it will explode there

Dictionary example:
Rebels had planted several bombs near the base.

Learner example:
As a result, [they] accused him of having planted a bomb in the Airport of Recife, in the city where he lived.

IDEA/DOUTS
[C2] to make someone start thinking something

Dictionary example:
I was confident till you planted doubts in my mind.

Learner example:
While a society is trying to plant the idea of 'living together', at the same time, the short–term resolution for this problem should be considered.

platform /ˈplæt.fɔːm/

NOUN [C]

RAISED SURFACE
[B2] a raised surface for people to stand on that is higher than the ground

Dictionary examples:
a viewing platform
This brilliant young violinist has appeared on concert platforms all round the world.

Learner example:
It was dangerous, but I knew I had do it, bung[ee] jumping! My instructor said 1, 2, 3, and then he said : "Go", so I jumped from the platform where I was standing.
FOR OPINIONS
[C2] a way of telling the public about your opinions

Dictionary example:
Basically, he uses the newspaper as a platform for airing his political views.

Learner example:
The artists in the music and entertainment industry especially have such a powerful platform for expression, but seldom do we see them use it to bring about unity, peace and brotherhood in the world; instead their music and message is about self-indulgence and gratifying their own personal needs.

plausible /ˈplɔː.zə.bl/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] If something that someone says or writes is plausible, it could be true.

Dictionary example:
a plausible excuse/explanation

Learner example:
All these points are strong and their theory is certainly plausible, but if we take a look at the subject from a different perspective, things may not be so clear anymore.

play /pleɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: play, player
Verbs: play

VERB

ACT
[B1] [ɪ] to be a particular character in a film or play

Dictionary example:
In the film version, Branagh played the part of the father.

Learner example:
The main actor played the part of John, a poor man that becomes rich.

COMPETE
[B1] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to compete against a person or team in a game

Dictionary examples:
Who are Aston Villa playing next week?
Arsenal are playing against Newcastle in the next round.
Learner example:
Arsenal played against Everton and Arsenal won the game 3[-]1.

play a joke/trick on sb [B2] to deceive someone in order to make them laugh

Dictionary examples:
I played a trick on her and pretended I'd forgotten her birthday.
She didn't realise they were just playing a joke on her.

Learner example:
His best friend John couldn't put up with Pat always revealing his secrets, so decided to play a trick on him.

play a part in sth
[B2] to be one of the people or things that are involved in an event or situation

Dictionary example:
Alcohol plays a part in around 60% of violent crime.

Learner example:
Technology plays an important part in this situation, because I don't think that adults are playing computer games for Batman or Spiderman, for example, but for the special effects and the graphics.

play sth by ear
[C2] to play a piece of music by remembering the notes

Dictionary example:
She plays all the songs by ear.

Learner example:
As the years went by, she found it hard to cope with her slow headway in classical piano and her endlessly unfinished songs played by ear.

play it by ear
[C2] to decide how to deal with a situation as it develops

Dictionary example:
I'm not sure what to tell Dad – I'll just have to play it by ear.

Learner example:
On the way to Cambridge, I had made up my mind to play it by ear.

play with fire
[C2] to be involved in an activity that could be dangerous

Dictionary example:
We're playing with fire if we continue with genetic modification of our food.

Learner example:
Stop playing with fire or World War 3 might come in [the] shape of a nuclear war.
play games

[C2] to not deal with a situation seriously or honestly

Dictionary example:
Someone's life is in danger here – we're not playing games.

Learner example:
I couldn't possibly get all that money together, and the kidnappers were not playing games.

NOUN

CHILDREN

[B2] [u] when children enjoy themselves with toys and games

Dictionary example:
a play area

Learner example:
And it has [a] play area for children to enjoy themselves.

fair play

[C2] behaviour that is fair, honest, and does not take advantage of people

Dictionary example:
The public needs to feel a sense of fair play from the government.

Learner example:
He still believes in justice or just the rule of fair play.

plea

/pliː/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a strong request

Dictionary example:
an emotional plea for forgiveness

Learner example:
"I promise, I'll never ever do it again" she nodded her head to emphasise the seriousness of her plea.
plead /pliːd/

VERB (pleaded, also US pled)

LEGAL
[C2] to say in a court of law if you are guilty or not guilty of the crime you have been accused of

Dictionary example:
He pleaded not guilty to five felony charges.

Learner example:
I have no idea if she was imprisoned, but certainly she pleaded not guilty and I'm sure she wasn't.

ASK
[C2] to ask for something in a strong and emotional way

Dictionary examples:
He pleaded with her to come back.
She pleaded for mercy.

Learner example:
He had pleaded with his superior that he wasn't familiar enough with that part of the country, all in vain.

EXCUSE
[C2] to say something as an excuse

Dictionary example:
You'll just have to plead ignorance.

Learner example:
It is no fun being left alone to tackle a hitch when everybody else pleads ignorance to the given subject.

pleasantly /ˈplez.ənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: pleasure
Verbs: please
Adjectives: pleasant, pleased, unpleasant, pleasurable
Adverbs: pleasantly

ADVERB
[B1] in a pleasant way

Dictionary examples:
They treated me pleasantly enough.
Jacqui was pleasantly surprised to get a B for history.
Learner example:
I was really pleasantly surprised that you're going to spend your summer holiday in Slovakia.

please /pliːz/

Word family:
Nouns: pleasure
Verbs: please
Adjectives: pleasant, pleased, unpleasant, pleasurable
Adverbs: pleasantly

VERB [I or T]

MAKE HAPPY

[B1] to make someone feel happy

Dictionary examples:
I only got married to please my parents.
He was always a good boy, very friendly and eager to please.

Learner example:
Considering her loneliness, we made every effort to please her and to encourage her, because she was loved by everybody for her gentle, kind and lovely character.

anything/as/what/whatever, etc. you please

[C2] used to say that someone can have or do anything they want

Dictionary examples:
Feel free to talk about anything you please.
He can come and go as he pleases.

Learner example:
Another is to [have] 20 years to do whatever you please!

pleasurable /ˈpleʒərə.bl/
Learner example:
Not that I would like to be locked up forever without a career or personal growth and just dozens of children of my own scampering around, but it certainly is pleasurable to drift off dreaming for a while in those huge castles.

pleasure /ˈpleʒə/

Word family:
Nouns: pleasure
Verbs: please
Adjectives: pleasant, pleased, unpleasant, pleasurable
Adverbs: pleasantly

FEELING
[B1] [u] a feeling of happiness or enjoyment

Dictionary examples:
His visits gave his grandparents such pleasure.
Why do so many boys take pleasure in killing insects?

Learner example:
It gave me a lot of pleasure.

EXPERIENCE
[B1] [c] an enjoyable activity or experience

Dictionary examples:
It was such a pleasure to meet you.
He wrote an article on the pleasures and pains of camping.
Reading is one of my few pleasures.

Learner example:
It would be a pleasure to have you here in Mexico during your holiday.

plenty /ˈplen.ti/

PRONOUN
[B1] (the state of having) enough or more than enough, or a large amount

Dictionary examples:
"Would you like some more coffee?" "No thanks, I've had plenty."
We've got plenty of time before we need to leave for the airport.
They've always had plenty of money.
There's plenty to do here.
There's plenty more beer in the fridge.
Learner example:
She’s going to stay 3 weeks so we’ll have plenty of time to talk about our life, dreams, etc.

plethora  /ˈpleθərə/

NOUN

a plethora of sth [FORMAL] [C2] a large number of something

Dictionary example:
There is a confusing plethora of pension plans.

Learner example:
There is a plethora of diets proposed by nutrionists and even if the ingredients happen to be widely diversified, every single one recom[m]ends fruit and vegetables as the most vital strengtheners of [the] human immune system.

plight  /plaɪt/

NOUN [NO PLURAL] [FORMAL]
[C2] an unpleasant or difficult situation

Dictionary example:
the plight of the sick and the poor

Learner example:
My brother's plight has always been a concern of mine.

plot  /plɔt/

NOUN [C]

STORY

Dictionary examples:
The film has a very simple plot.
The plots of his books are basically all the same.

Learner example:
A film with a good plot, special effects, sound quality and some computer animations can turn into a real exper[i]nce if watched with friends or relatives.
LAND

[C2] a piece of land, often for growing food or for building on

Dictionary example:
a building plot

Learner example:
Is there nothing we can do to prevent this little plot of nature we have left from being destroyed?

---

plug /plʌg/

NOUN [C]

ELECTRICAL OBJECT

[B1] a plastic or rubber object with metal pins, used to connect electrical equipment to an electricity supply

Dictionary examples:
a three-pin/two-pin plug to fit/change a plug
If a plug is wired incorrectly, it can be dangerous.

Learner example:
We had to check eve[r]y plug, switch, lights.

HOLE

[B1] something you put in a hole to block it

Dictionary example:
a bath plug

VERB

plug sth in PHRASAL VERB

[B2] to connect a piece of electrical equipment to an electricity supply or to another piece of equipment

Dictionary example:
Could you plug the iron in for me?

Learner example:
It allows anybody to call from anywhere without hav[ing] to plug it in a wall!
Plumber

NOUN [C]

[B2] someone whose job is to repair or connect water pipes, and things like toilets and baths

Dictionary example:
When is the plumber coming to mend the burst pipe?

Learner example:
In the past I worked as a plumber.

Plump

ADJECTIVE [C2] quite fat

Dictionary example:
a plump child

Learner example:
After two hours a plump nurse came in and took him to the doctor’s office.

Plunge

VERB

BECOME LOWER

[C1] [I] to become lower in temperature, value, etc. very suddenly and quickly

Dictionary example:
Temperatures plunged below zero.

Learner example:
Five years later the German trend plunged and the Spanish followed, both reaching marks of 1.3 and 1.2 average children per family respectively.

plunge down/into, etc.

[C2] to fall or move down very quickly and with force

Dictionary example:
The car came off the road and plunged down the hillside.
Learner example:
The moment you plunge into the pool you no longer belong to yourself, you cut the smooth surface of the water, moving faster and faster, until you reach the end, exhausted but content with yourself.

take the plunge
[C2] to do something important or difficult, especially after thinking about it for a long time

Dictionary example:
We're finally going to take the plunge and buy a house.

Learner example:
Being unable to stand this mystery, I decided to take the plunge and follow him.

plus /plʌs/

CONJUNCTION
[B1] and also

Dictionary example:
Let's not go on holiday in August – it'll be too hot – plus it'll be more expensive.

Learner example:
I would be more than pleased to receive you at home. We could have a lot of fun, plus, you won't have to pay a thing!

NOUN [c]
[B2] (plural pluses or plusses) informal an advantage or a good feature

Dictionary example:
Your teaching experience will be a plus in this job.

Learner example:
Free accommodation is a plus for me, but there are some points which I want to [find out about].

pocket /ˈpɒk.ɪt/

NOUN [c]

IN BAG
[B1] a container which is sewn into or onto a bag or fixed to a seat or door in a vehicle
Dictionary examples:
Sarah put her maps in the inside/outside pocket of her rucksack.
The safety instructions are in the pocket of the seat in front of you.

MONEY
[C2] the amount of money that you have for spending

Dictionary example:
I shouldn’t have to pay for travel out of my own pocket.

Learner example:
The prices are not too heavy on the pocket and the service is brisk, efficient and friendly.

pocket money  /ˈpɒk.ɪtˌmʌn.i/

NOUN [u]
[B1] an amount of money given regularly to children by their parents

Dictionary example:
How much pocket money do you get each week?

Learner example:
How much pocket money do you get?

poem  /ˈpəʊ.ɪm/

Word family:
Nouns: poem, poet, poetry
Adjectives: poetic

NOUN [c]
[B1] a piece of writing, especially one which has short lines and uses words that sound similar

Dictionary example:
a book of love poems

Learner example:
This m[y]sterious man used to write a lot of letters and poems to my grandmother.

poet  /ˈpəʊ.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: poem, poet, poetry
Adjectives: poetic

2185
NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who writes poems

Dictionary example:
Rimbaud was a nineteenth-century French poet.

Learner example:
Everyone [in] my group knows that I'm quite [a] good poet, so Peter asked me to read some of my poems.

poetic /pəˈet.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: poem, poet, poetry
Adjectives: poetic

ADJECTIVE
[C2] relating to poetry

Dictionary example:
poetic language

Learner example:
It was not vulgar or ordinary; far from that, it was literary, it was poetic: it was pure art.

poetry /ˈpəʊ.ɪ.tri/

Word family:
Nouns: poem, poet, poetry
Adjectives: poetic

NOUN [u]
[B1] poems in general as a form of literature

Dictionary examples:
modern poetry
I enjoy all kinds of poetry, especially love poetry.
She started writing poetry at a young age.

Learner example:
My town hall organi[z]ed a poetry compet[i]tion.
point /point/

Word family:
Nouns: point
Verbs: point
Adjectives: pointless

NOUN

IDEA
[B1] [c] an idea, opinion, or fact which someone says or writes

Dictionary examples:
I'd like to discuss the first point in your essay.
He explained his point by drawing a diagram.
Could I make a point about noise levels?
I take your point about cycling, but I still prefer to walk.

Learner example:
Tomorrow I have another class exactly at the time of your class. I can't miss that class because it's a physics class. I know I may miss many important points but I promise you [I will] get the best mark (result) in the next exam.

SPORT
[B1] [c] a unit used for showing who is winning in a game or competition

Dictionary example:
With 3 games still to play, Manchester United are 5 points ahead.

Learner example:
We were losing [by] 1 point, I caught the ball and tried to throw it to my partner but...

SHARP END
[B2] [c] the thin, sharp end of something

Dictionary example:
the point of a needle

IMPORTANT OPINION
[B2] [no plural] an opinion or fact that deserves to be considered seriously, or which other people agree is true

Dictionary examples:
"She's always complaining that the office is cold." – "Well, she's got a point."
"How are we going to get there if there are no trains?" – "Good point."

Learner example:
First of all, in your picture you can reveal the style of life of teenagers (I think it is a good point).

the point
[B2] the most important part of what someone says or writes
Dictionary examples:
The point is, if you don't claim the money now you might never get it.
I think she missed the point of what you were saying.
I thought he was never going to get to the point.

Learner example:
I'm in a hurry, so I will come directly to the point.

REASON
[B2] [NO PLURAL] the reason for or purpose of something

Dictionary examples:
I'd try to explain to her how I feel but there's no point because she won't listen.
There's no point in inviting her – she never comes to parties.
What's the point of studying if you can't get a job afterwards?

Learner example:
Obviously, there is no point in saying "famous people have a right to their own live[s]."

TIME
[B2] [c] a particular time or stage in an event or process

Dictionary examples:
At one point, he seemed to completely forget what he was saying.
At that point, a soldier opened fire on the car.
It has got to the point where I can't bear to speak to him.
If, at this point, you decide to leave, that is fine.

Learner example:
At one point, I realised that it was 3 a.m. and many people were leaving the disco.

MATHEMATICS
[B2] [c] the mark (.) that is used to separate the two parts of a decimal

Dictionary example:
One mile equals one point six (1.6) kilometres.

be at/on the point of doing sth
[B2] to be going to do something very soon

Dictionary example:
I was at the point of walking out when he suddenly spoke to me.

Learner example:
In fact he simulated his death to escape from the police, who were on the point of catching him for [his] penicillin racket.

up to a point
[B2] partly

Dictionary example:
What he says is true up to a point.
Learner example:
I agree up to a point with the statement given, but if the journalists didn't follow them, people wouldn't know so much about them.

sb's strong point
[C1] something that someone is very good at

Dictionary example:
Cooking is not my strong point.

Learner example:
She's got a lot of strong points, more than weaknesses.

make a point of doing sth
[C1] to be certain that you always do a particular thing

Dictionary example:
He made a point of learning all the names of his staff.

Learner example:
I was not expecting to meet him that night, because I thought he would be busy and not have time to talk to anyone, but being so special as he is, he made a point of talking to everybody.

QUALITY
[C2] [c] a quality or ability which someone has

Dictionary example:
I know she's bossy but she has lots of good points.

Learner example:
"I wonder why Mr Co put up with her?" Ku mumbled. "But I suppose she had her good points."

DIRECTION
[C2] [c] one of the marks on a compass

Dictionary example:
the points of the compass

Learner example:
In the summer time, people come from all the points of [the] compass to have a vacation here.

beside the point
[C2] not important or not connected with what you are talking about

Dictionary example:
The fact that he doesn't want to come is beside the point – he should have been invited.

to the point
[C2] If something someone says or writes is to the point, it expresses the most important things without extra details.

Dictionary example:
His report was short and to the point.
a sore point
[C2] a subject which causes disagreement or makes people angry when it is discussed

Dictionary example:
Money is a bit of a sore point with him at the moment.

Learner example:
The family gathering was a bit of a sore point.

AIM
[B1] [t] to hold something so that it faces towards someone or something

Dictionary example:
He said that the man had pointed a knife at him.

Learner example:
As he got closer, one of the group's members, Paul, pointed a rifle at him.

DIRECTION
[B1] [l] If something points in a particular direction, it is turned towards that direction.

Dictionary examples:
The road sign points left.
There was an arrow pointing to the door.

pointless /ˈpɔɪnt.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: point
Verbs: point
Adjectives: pointless

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Something that is pointless has no purpose.

Dictionary examples:
pointless arguments/conflict
a pointless exercise
It would be pointless to argue with him.

Learner example:
Moreover, people who meet through e-mails and chatrooms can confirm that talking or sending messages to someone you can't see is pointless and boring.
point of view /ˌpɔɪnt əvˈvjuː/

NOUN [C]

OPINION
[B2] an opinion

Dictionary examples:
I can certainly understand her point of view.
You have to be willing to see other people's points of view.

Learner example:
That is my point of view.

WAY OF THINKING
[B2] a way of thinking about a situation

Dictionary examples:
From the point of view of personal savings, the cut in interest rates is bad news.
From a medical/scientific point of view, it is an important achievement.

Learner example:
In addition, it is not useful to keep animals in cages even from a scientific point of view.

---

poison /ˈpɔɪ.zən/

Word family:

Nouns: poison
Adjectives: poisonous

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a substance that can make you ill or kill you if you eat or drink it

Dictionary example:
Someone had put poison in her drink.

Learner example:
The third day they were in the forest, Pablo was hurt by a piece of wood with poison on it.

VERB [T]

KILL
[B2] to try to kill someone by giving them a dangerous substance to drink or eat

Dictionary example:
He tried to poison his wife.

Learner example:
Therefore, Matthew decided to kill Pat. He poisoned Pat by putting poisonous ice-cubes into Pat’s wine glass.
MAKE DANGEROUS

[B2] to put poison or a dangerous substance in something

Dictionary example:
They poisoned the city's water supply.

Learner example:
Everyday millions of animals die, millions of acres of forest are burnt, millions of gallons of water are poisoned.

poisonous /ˈpɔɪ.zən.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: poison
Adjectives: poisonous

ADJECTIVE

SUBSTANCE
[B2] very harmful and able to cause illness or death

Dictionary examples:
poisonous chemicals
Can you tell the difference between poisonous mushrooms and edible varieties?

Learner example:
On the other hand, the people in the future will probably wear clothes to protect themselves from the polluted air and water, the harmful ultra-violet rays from the sun and all the dangerous and poisonous gases or chemicals which [are the] result of a developed country.

ANIMAL

Dictionary example:
a poisonous snake

Learner example:
Some of the animals, like poisonous snakes, crocodiles, [and] lions, are kept in special cages.

polar bear /ˌpəʊl.əˈber/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a large, white bear that lives in areas near the North Pole

Dictionary example:
Polar bears can be very dangerous.
Learner example:
So it’s very difficult to create real-life conditions for some animals, for instance for polar bears and eagles.

pole /pəʊl/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a long, thin stick made of wood or metal, often used to hold something up

Dictionary example:
tent poles

Learner example:
It showed two young women in t-shirts and shorts leaning against a big pole stating '90 miles to Cuba'.

be poles apart
[C2] to be complete opposites

Dictionary example:
They are poles apart in their attitudes to religion.

Learner example:
Soho at night seemed to be the nicest place on Earth, poles apart from my home town.

policy /ˈpɒl.ə.si/

NOUN [C]

PLAN
[B2] a set of ideas or a plan of what to do in particular situations that has been agreed officially by a group of people, a business organization, a government or a political party

Dictionary examples:
They believe that the European Community needs a common foreign and security policy. What is your party's policy on immigration?

Learner example:
In fact, more and more countries are [creating] new environmental policies.

AGREEMENT
[C1] an agreement that you have with an insurance company

Dictionary example:
Does your policy cover medical costs?
Learner example:
Working in an insurance company often means 'selling the air', but when you see that a person gets out of a difficult situation just because he or she has an insurance policy, you begin to love this job.

politely /pəˈlɑːt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: politeness
Adjectives: impolite, polite
Adverbs: politely

ADVERB

[B1] in a polite way

Dictionary example:
He thanked them politely.

Learner example:
I tried to control myself and started to speak politely and in a friendly way.

politeness /pəˈlɑːt.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: politeness
Adjectives: impolite, polite
Adverbs: politely

NOUN [U]

[B2] the state of being polite

Dictionary example:
We were impressed by their politeness.

Learner example:
Moreover, I have other qualities such as politeness, thus I am capable of looking after members of the public.

political /pəˈlɪt.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: politician, politics
Adjectives: political

ADJECTIVE

[B1] relating to politics
Dictionary examples:
political leaders/parties
Education is back at the top of the political agenda.

Learner example:
I’m very interested in Italian political life, and I want to get news [all the] time.

politically /pəˈlɪt.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: politician, politics
Adjectives: political

ADV
[C1] in a way that is connected with politics

Dictionary examples:
Politically, she is very experienced.
a politically active group

Learner example:
Nowadays most women have equal chances of education, are permitted to work, sign any bur[eu]cratic papers with no need of their husbands’ countersignature, are politically active and have an important professional career.

politician /ˌpɒl.ɪˈtɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: politician, politics
Adjectives: political

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who works in politics, especially a member of the government

Dictionary example:
Churchill was a distinguished politician.

Learner example:
It was now the third month [since] the gangster had kidnapped her, because of her being the daughter of an important politician.

politics /ˈpɒl.ə.tɪks/

Word family:
Nouns: politician, politics
Adjectives: political
NOUN [u]
[B1] ideas and activities relating to how a country or area is governed

Dictionary examples:
He has little interest in local politics.
She's planning to retire from politics next year.

Learner example:
But I'm very interested in politics, so I really enjoy political [programmes] and chat shows.

pollute /pəˈluːt/

Word family:
Nouns: pollution
Verbs: pollute

VERB [t]
[B2] to make water, air, soil, etc. dirty or harmful

Dictionary example:
We need a fuel that won't pollute the environment.

Learner example:
Most of them don't pollute the environment, and they don't create traffic jams on the roads.

pollution /pəˈluːʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: pollution
Verbs: pollute

NOUN [u]
[B1] damage caused to water, air, etc. by harmful substances or waste

Dictionary examples:
air/water pollution
The book shows simple things you can do to reduce pollution from your car.
The manifesto includes tough measures to tackle road congestion and environmental pollution.

Learner example:
There is less pollution than in the city and [it] is qui[e]ter too.
pond /ˈpɒnd/

NOUN [c]
[B2] an area of water smaller than a lake, often artificially made

Dictionary example:
a duck pond

Learner example:
After that, we'll visit "Suizenji-Park" which is a real Japanese Garden with a pond and many kinds of flowers and trees.

ponder /ˈpɒn.dər/

VERB [i or T] LITERARY [C2] to think carefully about something

Dictionary example:
He pondered what might have happened if he hadn't gone home.

Learner example:
However, I am still pondering and I am still not quite sure of what it means and so I asked myself, would climbing a mountain be a challenge for me?

pony /ˈpɔn.i/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a small horse

Dictionary example:
I have a pony.

Learner example:
The forest is inhabited by wild bears, wild ponies, golden eagles and non-poisonous snakes.

pool /ˈpuːl/

NOUN

GAME
[B1] [u] a game in which two people use long, thin sticks to hit coloured balls into holes around the edge of a table
Dictionary example:
We played pool all evening.

Learner example:
I had a pool table in my bedroom and I had a lot of videogames.

LIQUID
[B2] [c] a small area of water or a small amount of liquid on a surface

Dictionary examples:
We dipped our feet in a shallow pool by the rocks.
a pool of blood

Learner example:
When I came into the kitchen, I saw a pool of blood on the floor.

poor /pɔːr/

Word family:
Nouns: poor
Adjectives: poor, poorly
Adverbs: poorly

ADJECTIVE

BAD
[B2] of very low quality

Dictionary examples:
poor health
Last year’s exam results were poor.
a poor harvest

Learner example:
But the quality of the food was poor.

NO SKILL
[B2] not having much skill at a particular activity

Dictionary examples:
Her spelling has always been poor.
Sam’s a poor swimmer.

Learner example:
Since I was a teenager, I’ve often drawn and painted but without any kind of teaching, so my technique is poor.

be poor in sth
[B2] If something is poor in a particular substance, it has very little of the substance.
Dictionary example:
Avoid foods which are high in calories but poor in nutrients.

Learner example:
They couldn’t avoid a diet poor in vitamins, because of the shortage of food.

NOUN

the poor
[C1] people who are poor

Dictionary example:
She spent her life working with the poor.

Learner example:
It is widely believed that under his management, Greece advanced economically and socially, made steps forward concerning the relationships with other countries and people, (especially the poor) loved him, for he made them feel important.

poorly  /ˈpɔː.li/

Word family:
Nouns: poor
Adjectives: poor, poorly
Adverbs: poorly

ADVERB

[C1] badly

Dictionary example: poorly educated

Learner example:
On the contrary, to my mind both issues were handled rather poorly.

ADJECTIVE

[C1] ill

Dictionary example:
Rosie was feeling poorly so I put her to bed.

Learner example:
When a colleague is absent [due to] feeling poorly, I can automatically do the duties of that person because we work as a group.
pop /pɒp/

VERB (−pp−)

pop in/out/over, etc.

[B2] informal to go to a particular place

Dictionary examples:
Doug's just popped out for a few minutes.
I'll pop into the supermarket on my way home.
Why don't you pop in/over and see us this afternoon?

Learner example:
Who could imagine life without the telephone? Not being able to call your friend and ask if you can pop in for a moment?

SOUND

[C2] ˈI or ˈT to make a short sound like a small explosion, or to make something do this by breaking it

Dictionary examples:
The music played and champagne corks popped.
He popped the balloon.

Learner example:
Never had she experienced anything like it before, and all her intensity came back in one big bang, just as if she had been a bottle of champagne that someone had been shaking all these years, and now it had finally popped and the joy of living was pouring out of it.

popular /ˈpɒp.jʊ.lər/

Word family:
Nouns: popularity
Adjectives: popular, unpopular

ADJECTIVE

GENERAL

[B2] always before noun for or involving ordinary people rather than specialists or very educated people

Dictionary examples:
popular entertainment/culture
The issue was given full coverage in the popular press.

Learner example:
Due to his studies in Persian folklore and popular culture, he is the progenitor of anthropology in Iran.
A popular belief, opinion, etc. is one that many people have.

Dictionary example:
The allegations are false, contrary to popular belief.

Learner example:
Contrary to popular belief, Italian cuisine is not restricted to spaghetti and pizza.

popularity /ˌpɒp.jʊˈlær.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: popularity
Adjectives: popular, unpopular

NOUN [u]
[B2] the quality of being liked by many people

Dictionary example:
the increasing popularity of organic food

Learner example:
We agreed that something had to be done to promote the popularity of local films.

populate /ˈpɒp.jə.leɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: population
Verbs: populate

VERB
be populated
[C1] If an area is populated by people or animals, they live in that area.

Dictionary examples:
The countryside is densely/sparingly populated.
The forest was populated by rare and colourful birds.

Learner example:
Hong Kong is a densely populated city.

population /ˌpɒp.joʊˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: population
Verbs: populate
NOUN

NUMBER
[B1] [C or u] the number of people living in a particular area

Dictionary examples:
a growing/shrinking population
What's the population of Brazil?

Learner example:
With a population of about 800 people, that town really surprised me!

PEOPLE
[B2] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] all the people living in a particular area, or all the people or animals of a particular type

Dictionary examples:
a 9% rise in the prison population
The dolphin population has been seriously affected by tuna fishing.

Learner example:
Their yellow and black stripe has a mysterious beauty (which is the main reason for the huge decrease in the tiger population).

pork /pɔːk/

NOUN [u]
[B1] 1 meat from a pig

Dictionary examples:
a pork chop pork sausages

Learner example:
We ordered pork chops, boiled potatoes, and greens.

port /pɔːt/

NOUN [C or u]
[B1] a town by the sea or by a river which has a harbour, or the harbour itself

Dictionary examples:
a fishing/container port the Belgian port of Zeebrugge
We had a good view of all the ships coming into/leaving port.
Learner example:
The name is very interesting because the hotel is near the port.

---

portable /ˈpɔː.tə.bl/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] able to be carried

Dictionary example:
a portable computer

Learner example:
Laptops are indeed a portable office.

---

portion /ˈpɔːʃən/

NOUN [C]

FOOD
[B2] the amount of food served to one person, especially in a restaurant

Dictionary example:
The portions are very generous in this restaurant.

Learner example:
I think you should take [a] packed lunch with you, because the restaurant is far too expensive and the portions are too small.

PART
[C1] a part or share of something larger

Dictionary examples:
A large/major portion of the company's profit goes straight back into new projects.
I accept my portion of the blame.

Learner example:
Such an event will probably attract publicity (TV, radio, newspapers) and since we are a new company, we will have the opportunity to become known to a large portion of the population in a short amount of time.

---

portrait /ˈpɔː.trət/

Word family:
Nouns: portrait, portrayal
Verbs: portray
NOUN [C]

[B2] a painting, drawing, or photograph of someone

Dictionary examples:
- a portrait painter
- She’s commissioned an artist to paint her portrait/paint a portrait of her.

Learner example:
- Downstairs we can find pictures [by] old masters and a great portrait of the Spanish King Charles the Third.

portray /pɔːˈtreɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: portrait, portrayal
Verbs: portray

VERB [T]

[C2] If a book or film portrays someone or something, it describes or shows them.

Dictionary examples:
- Both novels portray the lives of professional athletes.
- In the film he's portrayed as a hero.

Learner example:
- As soon as Piggy appears in the novel he is portrayed as an outsider.

portrayal /pɔːˈtreɪ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: portrait, portrayal
Verbs: portray

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] the way that someone or something is portrayed

Dictionary example:
- He won several awards for his portrayal of the great artist.

Learner example:
- While this film may be criticised on grounds that it is a Swiss director looking at his own country, Minger’s view proves to give an overly critical portrayal of Switzerland, showing that hindsight is indeed possible, even in such a small country.
pose /pəʊz/

VERB

pose a danger/problem/threat, etc.

[C1] to cause a problem

Dictionary example:
A lot of these chemicals pose very real threats to our health.

Learner example:
I hope everyone agrees with me that the new types of communication do not pose a threat to face-to-face communication, but probably [reinforce] it.

BE STILL

[C1] [I] to stay in a particular position so that someone can paint or photograph you

Dictionary example:
The two leaders posed for photographs outside the White House.

Learner example:
The tourists are allowed to touch the seals, and the seals are willing to pose for the photographs.

pose a/the question FORMAL

[C2] to ask a question

Dictionary example:
It was left to Grazia to pose the question of how the project was to be funded.

Learner example:
For instance, you can pose a question concerning music to your listeners and the person who is going to call first to answer – correctly of course – will gain a small sum of money.

posh /pɒʃ/

ADJECTIVE

EXPENSIVE

[B2] INFORMAL (of places and things) expensive and of high quality

Dictionary examples:
a posh hotel
He takes her to some really posh restaurants.

Learner example:
First of all, the 'Kaya' is quite [a] big, posh restaurant [whose] interiors are like [a] traditional Korean house.
HIGH CLASS

[C2] (of people and their voices) from a high social class

Dictionary example:
A woman with a very posh accent telephoned for him earlier.

Learner example:
Despite the fact of being a posh old lady, she is the kind of person that can make you commit a crime, so bad is her temper.

---

position /ˈpə ziʃən/

NOUN

SITUATION

[B1] [C usually no plural] the situation that someone is in

Dictionary example:
In your position, I would probably resign.

Learner example:
She knows the person that owns the club, who decided to organize a private party for her 18th birthday. I wish [I was] in her position.

PLACE

[B1] [C] the place where something or someone is, often in relation to other things

Dictionary examples:
I've found our position on the map.
You've moved the furniture around – the sofa is in a different position.

Learner example:
I like [this restaurant] because of [its] position, the old town, and most of all because the owner is a friend of mine so that the bill is not too expensive for me!

SITTING/STANDING

[B1] [C or U] the way someone is sitting, standing, or lying, or if something is pointing up or down, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a kneeling position
I go to sleep on my back but I always wake up in a different position.
Keep the bottles in an upright position.

Learner example:
Four hundred kms in that [un]comfortable position was terrible for us.

SPORT

[B1] [C] the part that someone plays in a game such as football
Dictionary example:
I didn't know you played hockey – what position do you play?

Learner example:
It's a basketball club and all those guys in the club are much bigger than me. At first we talked to each other [about] which position we had to play.

RANK

[B2] [c] your level of importance in a company or society

Dictionary examples:
the position of women in society
Whether or not you're given a car depends on your position in the company.

Learner example:
Perhaps the style of their dress will indicate their position in society too.

JOB

[B2] [c] formal a job

Dictionary example:
She applied for a position in the firm that I work for.

Learner example:
Dear Mr. Greenfield I am writing in response to the advertisement which I saw published in my local newspaper, as I would like to apply for the position you offer.

be in a position to do sth

[C1] to be able to do something because of your situation

Dictionary example:
I'm not in a position to talk about this at the moment.

Learner example:
But no one is in a position to know about it yet, since now it is just an option.

be in position

[C1] If someone or something is in position, they are in the place that they should be in.

Dictionary example:
The police were all in position.

Learner example:
Remember to stay calm when you are in the car with the instructor, wear your seatbelt and check that all your mirrors are in position.

put sb in a difficult position

[C1] to cause someone to be in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
When two of your best friends argue it puts you in a very difficult position.
Learner example:
I know that I will put you in a difficult position with my absence but I must leave.

positive /ˈpɒz.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
- Adjectives: positive
- Adverbs: positively

ADJECTIVE

HAPPY

[B1] feeling enthusiastic and happy about your life and your future

Dictionary examples:
- a positive attitude
- I'm feeling much more positive about things now.
- We've shown people samples of the product and had a very positive reaction/response.

Learner example:
She is lovely and she [is] always positive.

GOOD

[B2] A positive effect is good and makes something better.

Dictionary example:
The improved diet has had a positive effect on his mood.

Learner example:
All the colours and the smell of fresh and dried flowers has such a positive effect on me that life feels great.

YES

[B2] expressing the answer yes

Dictionary example:
We received a positive answer/response from the minister.

Learner example:
I am looking forward to your positive response.

CERTAIN

[B2] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] certain that something is true

Dictionary examples:
"Are you sure you saw him?" “Absolutely positive.”
I'm positive that I switched it off.

Learner example:
I'm positive that my experience will be useful in another shop like yours.
MEDICAL TEST

[C2] If a medical test is positive, it shows that the person being tested has a disease or condition.

Dictionary example:
She did a pregnancy test and it was positive.

Learner example:
After some medical tests proved positive, she agreed with me.

positively  /ˈpɒz.ə.tɪv.lɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: positive
Adverbs: positively

ADVERB

[B2] in a good or hopeful way

Dictionary example:
I don't respond very positively to being bossed around – it just makes me angry.

Learner example:
Modern technology also affects [my life] positively in the lab I work for.

possess  /pəˈzes/

Word family:
Nouns: possession
Verbs: possess
Adjectives: possessive

VERB

[C1] [t] FORMAL to have or own something

Dictionary example:
He was found guilty of possessing an illegal weapon.

Learner example:
She was lucky to possess a single nice-looking long dress for special occasions, so there was no point in wasting time choosing the appropriate dress.
possession /pəˈzeʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: possession
Verbs: possess
Adjectives: possessive

NOUN

[B2] [C USUALLY PLURAL] something that you own or that you are carrying with you at any time

Dictionary example:
Please remember to take all your personal possessions with you when you leave the aircraft.

Learner example:
Talking about using your possessions, can I use your electronic appliances such as computers [and] CD players while you are away?

HAVE

[C2] [U] FORMAL when you have or own something

Dictionary examples:
I have in my possession a photograph which may be of interest to you.
He was caught in possession of explosives.

Learner example:
After many hours of deliberation, the decision was taken to search every hut and if anyone was found in possession of the diary then they would be killed for having committed an act of theft.

possessive /pəˈzes.ɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: possession
Verbs: possess
Adjectives: possessive

ADJECTIVE

GRAMMAR

[B1] in grammar, a possessive word or form of a word shows who or what something belongs to

Dictionary example:
'Mine' and 'yours' are possessive pronouns.

FEELINGS

[C2] wanting someone to love and spend time with you and no one else
Dictionary example:
She stopped seeing him because he was becoming too possessive.

Learner example:
It had never crossed her mind that Matt could ever be possessive, but after long discussions trying to persuade Matt, Alice won.

possibility /ˌpɒs.əˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: possibility, impossibility
Adjectives: impossible, possible
Adverbs: possibly

NOUN

MAY HAPPEN/BE TRUE
[B1] [c or u] a chance that something may happen or be true

Dictionary examples:
The forecast said that there’s a possibility of snow tonight.
Is there any possibility (that) you could pick me up from the station?
There is a strong possibility that she was lying.

Learner example:
Then I remembered I had tried [on] some rings one hour before in a shop in the centre of the city. Maybe I had taken it off while I was trying them. It was a possibility!

OPTION
[B2] [c] something that you can choose to do from a number of options

Dictionary examples:
We could take on extra staff – that’s one possibility.
"Have you decided what to do?" "No, I’m still considering the various possibilities."

Learner example:
Another possibility is to go to the London Transport Museum, which is very close and free for students.

possible /ˈpɒs.ə.bl/
ADJECTIVE

NOT CERTAIN
[B1] If something is possible, it might or might not exist or be true.

Dictionary examples:
It's possible (that) Mira might turn up tonight.
"Do you think he'll end up in prison?" "It's very possible."
That's one possible solution to the problem.

Learner example:
I investigate the most urgent environmental problems in our world, and then I [suggest] possible solutions to them.

whenever possible
[B2] every time it is possible

Dictionary example:
I try to use olive oil whenever possible.

Learner example:
My friends have always regarded me as a cheerful, active girl, who is glad to help out whenever possible.

wherever possible
[B2] every time it is possible

Dictionary examples:
Wherever possible I use honey instead of sugar.
We try to sell local fruit and vegetables wherever possible.

Learner example:
We can work together [in a] number of ways, for example, we can plant trees wherever possible and we can place bins [in] the necessary areas which will help the public to dispose [of] waste items.

the best/cheapest/worst, etc. possible
[C1] the best/cheapest/worst, etc. that can happen or exist

Dictionary example:
We need to complete the work in the shortest possible time.

Learner example:
But I strongly believe that with good will and enough effort from both sides – our clubs members and you – we will work everything out in the best possible way!
possibly /ˈpɒs.a.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: possibility, impossibility
Adjectives: impossible, possible
Adverbs: possibly

ADVERB

QUESTIONS
[B1] used in polite questions

Dictionary example:
Could I possibly borrow your computer?

Learner example:
Could you possibly lend me your bike for one day?

EMPHASIS
[B2] used with 'can' or 'could' for emphasis

Dictionary examples:
We'll do everything we possibly can to help.
I couldn't possibly ask you to do that.

Learner example:
My opinion is that everyone who possibly can go by bicycle should do that.

post /pəʊst/

Word family:
Nouns: post
Verbs: post
Adjectives: postal

NOUN

JOB
[B2] [c] a job in a company or organization

Dictionary examples:
Teaching posts are advertised in Tuesday's edition of the paper.
She's held the post for thirteen years.
They have several vacant posts.

Learner example:
In addition, I have worked [in] a similar job so I have already gained the experience needed for the post.
VERB [r]

WEBSITE
[B1] to leave a message on a website

Dictionary example:
I posted a query about a Chilean novelist.

keep sb posted
[C1] to make certain that someone always knows what is happening

Dictionary example:
Keep me posted on anything that happens while I'm away.

Learner example:
We will keep our members posted on the best eating places in town.

be posted to France/London/Singapore, etc.
[C2] to be sent to France/London/Singapore, etc. to work, usually for the government or army

Dictionary example:
He was posted to Germany for two years.

Learner example:
At the age of eleven, my father was posted to Montreal and, naturally, I had to go along.

postal /ˈpəʊst.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: post
Verbs: post
Adjectives: postal

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] relating to the system of sending letters and parcels

Dictionary example:
the postal service/system

Learner example:
It's just another strike that has affected our everyday life, and Polish postal services in particular.
postman  /ˈpəʊst.mən/

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone whose job is to deliver and collect letters and parcels that are sent by post

Dictionary example:
Our postman delivers everything in the morning.

Learner example:
I think a postman brought it.

postpone  /pəʊstˈpəʊn/

VERB [t]
[B1] to arrange for something to happen at a later time

Dictionary examples:
They decided to postpone their holiday until next year.
We've had to postpone going to France because the children are ill.

Learner example:
I'm doing an experiment tomorrow which I can't postpone.

posture  /ˈpɒs.tʃə/

NOUN [u]
[C1] the position of your back, shoulders, etc. when you are standing or sitting

Dictionary example:
She has very good posture.

Learner example:
As for the furniture, replacing old rickety chairs would result in better working conditions and prevent fatigue, stress, incapacity for work due to bad posture, therefore speeding up productivity and doing away with complaints about pain and poor health.

pot  /pɒt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a round container, usually used for storing things or for cooking
Dictionary examples:

a pot of face cream/jam/paint a flower pot

There's plenty of cupboard space in the kitchen for all your pots and pans. Fill a large pot with salted water and bring it to the boil.

Learner example:

By the right window there is [a] green plant in [a] pot.

---

potential /pəʊˈten.tʃəl/

Word family:

Nouns: potential

Adjectives: potential

Adverbs: potentially

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] possible when the necessary conditions exist

Dictionary examples:

A number of potential buyers have expressed interest in the company.

Many potential customers are waiting for a fall in prices before buying.

The accident is a reminder of the potential dangers involved in oil production.

Learner example:

As a potential customer, I need some further information.

NOUN [U]

[B2] someone's or something's ability to develop, achieve or succeed

Dictionary examples:

The region has enormous potential for economic development.

I don't feel I'm achieving my full potential in my present job.

You have the potential to reach the top of your profession.

I think this room has got a lot of potential.

Learner example:

The sheer potential for communication it offers is overwhelming.

---

potentially /pəʊˈten.tʃəli/

Word family:

Nouns: potential

Adjectives: potential

Adverbs: potentially possibly

Dictionary examples:
Hepatitis is a potentially fatal disease.
This crisis is potentially the most serious in the organization's history.

Learner example:
One must not ignore [the fact] that mobile phones are potentially harmful: scientific experiments tend to show that microwaves produced by phones may cause cancers and tumors.

---

pottery /ˈpɒt.ər.i/

NOUN [u]

OBJECTS
[B2] plates, bowls, etc. that are made from clay

Dictionary example:
They sell pottery and other handmade goods.

Learner example:
You can see very precious pottery and take pictures [of] old goods in antique shops.

ACTIVITY
[B2] the activity or skill of making plates, bowls, etc. from clay

Dictionary example:
I am doing pottery evening classes.

Learner example:
So I suggest we should print new ones with the latest information, for example about our new pottery courses.

---

pound /paʊnd/

NOUN [c]

WEIGHT
[B2] a unit for measuring weight

Dictionary examples:
One pound is approximately equal to 454 grams.
One kilogram is roughly the same as 2.2 lbs.
There are 16 ounces in one pound.
Ann's baby weighed eight and a half pounds at birth.
VERB [I or T]
  [B2] to hit or beat repeatedly with a lot of force, or to crush something by hitting it repeatedly

Dictionary examples:
I could feel my heart pounding as I went on stage to collect the prize.
The city was pounded to rubble during the war.
He pounded on the door demanding to be let in.

Learner example:
Tina’s heart began to pound when suddenly, she heard her name being called out loud!

pour /pɔːr/

VERB

LIQUID
  [B1] [t] to make a liquid flow from or into a container

Dictionary examples:
I poured the milk into a jug.
Can I pour you a drink?

Learner example:
The look on his face stopped me cold, as if someone had just poured a freezing bucket [of water] down my back.

RAIN
  [B1] [i] to rain a lot

Dictionary example:
We can’t go out in this weather – it’s pouring!

Learner example:
I real[ly] enjoy shopping, special[ly] in winter time when the rain is pouring down.

pour into/out/from, etc.
  [B2] to flow quickly and in large amounts

Dictionary example:
Blood was pouring from my leg.

Learner example:
He woke up and cleaned off the blood that poured from his injured eyebrow.

pour into/out/from, etc.
  [C2] to enter or leave a place in large numbers
Dictionary example:
The crowd poured out into the street.

Learner example:
Those are the tourists, who pour out of the jumbo jet, who get gathered by a charming guide and who are driven to the next airconditioned luxury hotel.

PHRASAL VERB

pour sth out or pour out sth PHRASAL VERB

[B2] If you pour out your feelings or thoughts, you talk very honestly about what is making you sad.

Dictionary example:
She listened quietly while he poured out his troubles.

Learner example:
She let me pour out my feelings, a thing I did not do to anyone.

poverty /ˈpɒv.ə.ti/ NOUN [U]

[B2] the condition of being extremely poor

Dictionary examples:
Two million people in the city live in poverty.
He emigrated to Australia to escape the poverty of his birthplace.

Learner example:
First of all, I think that our grandparents lived in poverty without amenities.

powder /ˈpaʊ.dər/ NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a dry substance made of many small, loose grains

Dictionary examples:
curry/chilli powder
A packet of white powder was found and police scientists are analysing it.
Why are there so many adverts for washing powders on TV?

Learner example:
At last I found a box. I put the wasted coffee powder into it and went back to the coffee machine.
power  /pauə/

Word family:
Nouns: power
Adjectives: powerful
Adverbs: powerfully

NOUN

ELECTRICITY
[B1] [u] energy, usually electricity, that is used to provide light, heat, etc.

Dictionary examples:
power cables/lines nuclear power
Turn off the power at the main switch.

Learner example:
From my parents, I found out that there was a power failure.

CONTROL
[B2] [u] control or influence over people and events

Dictionary example:
I've no power over him – he does what he wants to.

Learner example:
People can't be trusted with power. They will always reach for more.

POLITICS
[C1] [u] political control in a country

Dictionary examples:
They have been in power too long.
When did this government come to power?

Learner example:
It happened in the November of 1973 and it is the University students' rebellion against the outlaw military government which had come to power in 1967 after a violent coup.

do everything in your power to do sth
[C1] to do everything that you are able and allowed to do in order to achieve something

Dictionary example:
I've done everything in my power to help him.

Learner example:
I think of myself as an open-minded and cheerful person and if I get the job I will do everything in my power to make sure your visitors will have a great time at the theme park.
COUNTRY
[C1] [c] a country that has a lot of influence over others

Dictionary example:
a major world power

Learner example:
Unfortunately this trend continues into adulthood and has become so bad that in a world power like the United States, one in every three people are considered clinically obese.

STRENGTH
[C1] [u] strength or force

Dictionary example: economic/military power

Learner example:
We have enough population and economic power to set up a complete city.

powerful /ˈpaʊə.l/

Word family:
Nouns: power
Adjectives: powerful
Adverbs: powerfully

ADJECTIVE

CONTROL
[B1] A powerful person is able to control and influence people and events.

Dictionary example:
a powerful man/woman

Learner example:
The man worked for a really powerful man, doing the ‘dirty work’, but, deep inside [he] was a really good person with a sad childhood.

STRENGTH
[B1] having a lot of strength or force

Dictionary example:
a powerful computer/engine/weapon

Learner example:
The activity that I like best is surf[ing] the Web with a powerful personal computer.

EFFECT
[B2] having a strong effect on people
Dictionary example:
a powerful effect/influence

Learner example:
The importance of this invention is that the information transmitted on it reaches a lot of people at the same time, so it's a very powerful [method] of communication in our society.

powerfully /pəˈfəli/

Word family:
Nouns: power
Adjectives: powerful
Adverbs: powerfully

ADVERB
[B2] in a powerful way

Dictionary examples:
She kicked the ball so powerfully that it flew over the hedge.
Klaus is a very powerfully-built man.

Learner example:
Mary moved to her aunt's house, an inn, but she had got married to a strange, powerfully-built man.

practical /ˈpræk.tɪkl/

Word family:
Adjectives: practical
Adverbs: practically

ADJECTIVE
REAL
[B2] relating to experience, real situations or actions rather than ideas or imagination

Dictionary examples:
Qualifications are important but practical experience is always an advantage.
The service offers young people practical advice on finding a job.
What's the use of theoretical knowledge that has no practical application?

Learner example:
Before making up my mind, I would like to gain some experience through practical activities.

POSSIBLE
[C1] able to be done successfully
Dictionary examples:
a practical solution
The plan is simply not practical.

Learner example:
This is not a very practical solution for the employees.

SUITABLE
[C1] suitable or useful for a situation which may involve some difficulty

Dictionary examples:
practical clothes/shoes
Pale carpets just aren't practical if you have kids.

Learner example:
Instead of being practical, our clothes need to be extravagant.

GOOD AT PLANNING
[C2] Someone who is practical is good at planning things, making sensible decisions and dealing with problems.

Dictionary example:
She has a lot of interesting ideas but she's not very practical.

Learner example:
But Macon is a practical man, so he tries to find the advantages [of] living on his own.

practically /ˈpræk.tɪk.lɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: practical
Adverbs: practically

ADVERB
[B2] almost or very nearly

Dictionary examples:
She blamed me for practically every mistake in the report.
These changes would cost us practically nothing.
It's practically impossible for me to get home in less than an hour.
They used to argue all the time and now they've practically stopped talking to each other.

Learner example:
Today it is used [in] practically all spheres and its influence on people is not unnotic[e]able.
practice /ˈpræk.tɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: practice
Verbs: practise

NOUN

be out of practice
[B2] to not do something well because you have not done it recently

Dictionary example:
I didn't play very well today – I'm out of practice.

Learner example:
I think playing in the club will be a great opportunity for me so as not to be out of practice.

in practice
[B2] in a real situation

Dictionary example:
In practice, the new laws have had little effect.

Learner example:
When you leave school, you have knowledge but you do not know how to use it in practice.

put something into practice
[C1] to do something in reality that has been planned or talked about

Dictionary examples:
Next month we will have a chance to put these ideas into practice.
How do you intend to put these proposals into practice?

Learner example:
The doctors cannot really put all their skills into practice.

ACTIVITY
[C2] [c or u] what people do or how they do it

Dictionary examples:
The illegal practice of copying CDs
What can European companies learn from Japanese business practices?
It is common practice to bury waste in landfills.
What is standard practice in a situation like this?

Learner example:
Chancellors as well as men in the king's court were known to be corrupt and dishonest, who made bribery a common practice.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>practise /ˈpræk.tɪs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: practise</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VERB [I or T]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WORK</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] to work as a doctor or a lawyer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to practise medicine/law</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Many wom[e]n practise law and become judges.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>practitioner /prækˈtɪʃ.ənər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [C] FORMAL</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] someone who works in a profession such as medicine or law</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a medical practitioner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Another measure is to encourage people to do some forms of exercise and this is where health care practitioners come in.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>pragmatic /prægˈmæt.ɪk/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] doing things in a practical and realistic way and not using only ideas</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a pragmatic approach to a problem</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anal[y]sing such opinions, it is not hard to conclude that the younger generation, which is traditionally regarded as romantic and idealistic, has become rather pragmatic and down-to-earth and got used to associat[ing] success in life with affluenc[e].</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table> praise /prəz/

VERB [v]

[B2] to express admiration or approval about the achievements or characteristics of a person or thing

Dictionary examples:
- He should be praised for his honesty.
- My parents always praised me when I did well at school.
- He was highly praised for his research on heart disease.

Learner example:
In fact, my grade was the best in the class and my Math teacher praised me for being so careful and correct.

NOUN [n]

[C1] words you say to show that you admire someone or something

Dictionary examples:
- They deserve praise for their achievements.
- Her first novel won a lot of praise from the critics.

Learner example:
This may sound like glowing praise, but Michael really deserves it.

prawn /prɔːn/

NOUN [n]

[B2] a small sea animal which you can eat, and which has a shell and ten legs

Dictionary example:
- a prawn sandwich

Learner example:
- Li-Chuong's specialities are sweet and sour pork, prawns and rice!

pray /preɪ/

Word family:

Nouns: prayer

Verbs: pray

VERB [v]

[B2] to hope for something very much

2226
Dictionary example:
We're praying for good weather for tomorrow's cricket match.

Learner example:
I am very di[sa]ppointed with this event and praying that it will happen again next year.

---

prayer /prəˈraɪər/

Word family:
Nouns: prayer
Verbs: pray

NOUN [c]
[B1] the words you say to a god

Dictionary examples:
a prayer of thanks
She always says her prayers before she goes to sleep.
We thought he'd been killed, but our prayers were answered when he arrived home safely.

Learner example:
I am stopping this letter with lots of love and prayers.

---

precaution /prɪˈkɒ.ʃən/

NOUN [c]
[C1] something that you do to prevent bad things happening in the future

Dictionary examples:
Driving alone at night can be dangerous, so always take precautions.
They called the doctor as a precaution.
He took the precaution of locking the door.

Learner example:
The dancing and the horse shows were indeed cancelled, as a precaution out of fear of the weather becoming even worse.

---

precede /priˈsiːd/

Word family:
Nouns: precedent
Verbs: precede
Adjectives: unprecedented
VERB [T] FORMAL

[C2] to happen or exist before something else

Dictionary example:
The formal ceremony was preceded by a parade.

Learner example:
Second, guest appearances should be preceded by the reading and discussion of those writers’ works, otherwise students may profit and benefit little from meeting and talking to them at such events.

precedent /ˈpres.i.dənt/

Word family:
Nouns: precedent
Verbs: precede
Adjectives: unprecedented

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] an action or decision that is used as an example when someone wants to do a similar thing in the future

Dictionary example:
This decision has set an important legal precedent for other countries.

Learner example:
Although it definitely sounds rather optimistic, this precedent might be used to improve one aspect of life in the future: safety and peace.

precious /ˈpreʃ.əs/

ADJECTIVE

VALUABLE

[B2] rare and very valuable

Dictionary examples:
a precious vase
a precious gift a precious metal/stone

Learner example:
I am so sorry because I broke a precious vase you had in your bedroom.

IMPORTANT

[B2] very important to you
Dictionary examples:
a precious moment/memory
His books are his most precious possessions.
Time is precious – don’t waste it.

Learner example:
Love is something precious which we all want to have.

precise /prɪˈsaɪs/

Word family:
Adjectives: precise
Adverbs: precisely

ADJECTIVE

EXACT

[B2] exact and accurate

Dictionary examples:
The precise location of the house is a secret.
He caught me at the precise moment that I fainted.

Learner example:
I would appreciate [it] if you were more precise next time with your report.

to be precise

[B2] used to give exact details about something

Dictionary examples:
We met in 1994 – on October 1st to be precise.
There was a good turnout for the meeting – twelve of us to be precise.

Learner example:
It’s in Central London, to be precise.

precisely /prɪˈsar.sli/

Word family:
Adjectives: precise
Adverbs: precisely

ADVERB

EXACT

[B2] exactly

2229
Dictionary examples:
The fireworks begin at eight o'clock precisely.
What do you think the problem is, precisely?

Learner example:
He was born in the countryside, more precisely in Bourgogne, and he had always lived there.

FOR EMPHASIS

[B2] used to emphasize what you are saying

Dictionary examples:
"You look tired – you should go home and rest." – "I'm going to do precisely that."
But it's precisely because of the noise that they're thinking of moving.

Learner example:
Books may not be interactive, but that's precisely where their advantage is.

AGREEMENT

[C1] used to agree with what someone else says

Dictionary example:
"It's not the shape I dislike, it's the colour." – "Precisely!"

predator /ˈpred.ə.tə/

NOUN [C]

[C1] an animal that kills and eats other animals

Dictionary example:
These animals have remarkably few predators.

Learner example:
Ferocious animals, such as tigers, lions and snakes (anacondas) can be seen in these areas, but for those who are not used to forests, these predators may only become visible once they are attacked.

predecessor /ˈpriː.dɪˌses.ər/

NOUN [C]

[C2] the person who was in a job or position before

Dictionary example:
He seems a lot better than his predecessor.

Learner example:
In the light of the above-mentioned arguments it remains [all] the more [odd] why my predecessor has chosen decisions concerning friendship and leisure activities as examples of his thesis.
predict /prɪˈdɪkt/

Word family:
Nouns: prediction
Verbs: predict
Adjectives: predictable, unpredictable

VERB [T]
[B1] to say that an event or action will happen in the future, especially as a result of knowledge or experience

Dictionary examples:
It's still not possible to predict the occurrence of earthquakes accurately.
Who could have predicted that within ten years he'd be in charge of the whole company?
The hurricane is predicted to reach the coast tomorrow morning.
No one can predict when/where the disease will strike next.

Learner example:
Now, fully equipped and powerful computers can be so small and mobile that some specialists predict that new devices will replace book[s].

predictable /prɪˈdɪk.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: prediction
Verbs: predict
Adjectives: predictable, unpredictable

ADJECTIVE
[B2] happening or behaving in a way you expect and not unusual or interesting

Dictionary example:
Comets appear at predictable times.

Learner example:
When I was younger I read many books. I prefer[r]ed m[y]stery stories, but now [they] are very predictable for me.

prediction /prɪˈdɪk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: prediction
Verbs: predict
Adjectives: predictable, unpredictable

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when you say what will happen in the future
Dictionary examples:
Please don't ask me to make any predictions about tomorrow's meeting.
No one believed her prediction that the world would end on November 12.

Learner example:
But in case my predictions are right, maybe you should buy a new pair of shorts?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>predominant /prɪˈdɒm.ɪ.nənt/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Word family:
- Nouns: dominance, domination
- Verbs: dominate
- Adjectives: dominant, predominant
- Adverbs: predominantly

ADJECTIVE
[C2] more important or noticeable than others

Dictionary example:
He has played a predominant role in these talks.

Learner example:
As far as I know, the predominant wish of students leaving school is to enjoy life.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>predominantly /prɪˈdɒm.ɪ.nənt.li/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Word family:
- Nouns: dominance, domination
- Verbs: dominate
- Adjectives: dominant, predominant
- Adverbs: predominantly

ADVERB
[C2] mostly or mainly

Dictionary example:
a predominantly Asian community

Learner example:
Nevertheless the Japanese scientist refutes the latter argument on basis of his famous theory, according to which the predominantly masculine pleasure of driving is caused by a 'hidden dictator's syndrome'.
preferable /ˈpref.ərəbl/

Word family:
- Nouns: preference
- Verbs: prefer
- Adjectives: preferable
- Adverbs: preferably

ADJECTIVE

[B2] better or more suitable

Dictionary examples:
- Staying at home is preferable to going out with someone you don’t like.
- Surely a diplomatic solution is preferable to war.

Learner example:
- I think it would be preferable to do it in July, which is a holiday period.

preferably /ˈpref.ərəbli/

Word family:
- Nouns: preference
- Verbs: prefer
- Adjectives: preferable
- Adverbs: preferably

ADVERB

[B2] if possible

Dictionary example:
- Water the plants twice a week, preferably in the morning.

Learner example:
- I think you should spend more time with your friends, preferably in the fresh country air.

preference /ˈpref.ərənts/

Word family:
- Nouns: preference
- Verbs: prefer
- Adjectives: preferable
- Adverbs: preferably

NOUN

[B2] when you like something or someone more than another person or thing
Dictionary examples:
We have white and brown bread. Do you have a preference? Her preference is for comfortable rather than stylish clothes. I have a preference for sweet food over spicy. Choosing furniture is largely a matter of personal preference.

Learner example:
On the other hand, those who are in favour of keeping on with traditional education argue that no free choice of preferences can be made until one has received a basic education involving the study of different fields of knowledge.

prefix /ˈpriː.fɪks/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a letter or group of letters added to the beginning of a word to make a new word

Dictionary example:
In the word 'unimportant', 'un-' is a prefix.

pregnancy /ˈpreg.nən.si/

Word family:
Nouns: pregnancy
Adjectives: pregnant

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when a woman is pregnant

Dictionary example:
a teenage pregnancy

Learner example:
The reduced risk of further pregnancies in conjunction with less remuneration for their work makes these women seem more attractive to employers.

pregnant /ˈpreg.nənt/

Word family:
Nouns: pregnancy
Adjectives: pregnant

ADJECTIVE
[B1] A pregnant woman has a baby developing inside her uterus.
Dictionary examples:
to get pregnant
She's five and a half months pregnant.
My mother stopped smoking when she became pregnant.
My sister is pregnant with twins.

Learner example:
She wrote me [the] really nice news that she is pregnant.

prejudice /ˈpredʒ.ʊ.dɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: prejudice
Adjectives: prejudiced

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] an unfair and unreasonable opinion or feeling, especially when formed without enough thought or knowledge

Dictionary examples:
Laws against racial prejudice must be strictly enforced.
He claims that prejudice against homosexuals would cease overnight if all the gay stars in the country were honest about their sexuality.

Learner example:
What is really amazing is that Biko, who is banned but 'free' of any prejudice, who doesn't discriminate [against] anybody, 'frees' Mr Woods (who is not banned) from his narrow-minded and intolerant views and gives another aim to Woods' life.

prejudiced /ˈpredʒ.ə.dɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: prejudice
Adjectives: prejudiced

ADJECTIVE
[C1] feeling dislike for a group of people or treating them unfairly because they are a different race, sex, religion, etc.

Dictionary example:
Are the police prejudiced against black people?

Learner example:
Men have been very prejudiced against women in this sector, so it has been hard to prove the opposite.
preliminary /prɪˈlɪm.ɪ.nər.i/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] done or happening in order to prepare for the main event or activity

Dictionary example:
a preliminary discussion/meeting

Learner example:
Picasso would start with a lot of preliminary sketches and then go on to paint his final picture, where the main figures – a woman and a horse – are screaming in despair.

premises /ˈprem.ɪ.sɪz/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[C1] the land and buildings owned by someone, especially by a company or organization

Dictionary examples:
The company is moving to new premises.
The ice cream is made on the premises.
The security guards escorted the protesters off the premises.

Learner example:
The staff will have more space to work in as our local branch is moving to larger premises, and better work conditions will be provided to them.

premium /ˈprɪˌmi.əm/

NOUN

be at a premium
[C2] If something useful is at a premium, there is not enough of it.

Dictionary example:
Time is at a premium just before the start of exams.

Learner example:
Honesty and accuracy are very good virtues to strive for, but having friendship [and a] fair and caring relationship to your friend or partner have to be rated at a premium as well.

PAYMENT
[C2] an amount of money you pay for insurance

Dictionary example:
How much is the monthly premium?
Learner example:
They also had to pay a premium to the government and [on] turn[ing] sixty-five, their pension would be paid from this fund.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C2] A premium product is of a higher quality or value than others.

Dictionary example:
premium beer

Learner example:
You can get Fondue or Raclette made of premium Swiss cheese, going with fresh salads with whatever dressing you want.

---

preparation /ˌprep.əˈreɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: preparation
Verbs: prepare
Adjectives: prepared

NOUN

GETTING READY

[B1] [u] the things that you do or the time that you spend preparing for something

Dictionary examples:
The teacher didn't seem to have done much preparation for the class.
The team blamed injuries and lack of preparation for their failure to win.
Yasmin assisted in the preparation of this article.

Learner example:
I felt that I improved a lot just in this class, so I think that my preparation for the exam will be really good.

preparations

[B2] plans or arrangements that you make to prepare for something

Dictionary examples:

wedding preparations
We are making preparations to fly Mr Goodall to the nearest hospital.
Preparations for the opening ceremony are well under way.

Learner example:
I would really like to help you with the preparations the day before but it's impossible for me to come.
prepare /prəˈpeər/

Word family:
Nouns: preparation
Verbs: prepare
Adjectives: prepared

VERB [I or T]

prepare yourself
[B1] to make yourself ready to deal with a difficult situation

Dictionary examples:
Prepare yourself for a shock.
You should prepare yourself for a long wait.

Learner example:
So we bought tickets and prepared ourselves for a difficult [journey].

preparing /prəˈpeərɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: preparation
Verbs: prepare
Adjectives: prepared

ADJECTIVE

READY
[B1] ready to deal with a situation

Dictionary examples:
When she called on me, I wasn't prepared.
They were prepared for the worst.

Learner example:
I want to be well prepared for my first [trip] to England.

be prepared to do sth
[B2] to be willing, or happy to agree to do something

Dictionary examples:
Would you be prepared to help me get things ready for the party?
People are not really prepared to talk about these kinds of personal problems.

Learner example:
I'm prepared to offer quite a lot in order to give the animals a better life.

MADE EARLIER
[B2] done or made earlier made /meɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: /mɑːd/
Verbs: make Adjectives: made

ADJECTIVE

READY
[B1] ready to deal with a situation

Dictionary examples:
When she called on me, I wasn't prepared.
They were prepared for the worst.

Learner example:
I want to be well prepared for my first [trip] to England.

be prepared to do sth
[B2] to be willing, or happy to agree to do something

Dictionary examples:
Would you be prepared to help me get things ready for the party?
People are not really prepared to talk about these kinds of personal problems.

Learner example:
I'm prepared to offer quite a lot in order to give the animals a better life.

MADE EARLIER
[B2] done or made earlier
Dictionary example:
The spokesperson read a prepared statement.

Learner example:
More fast–food and prepared meals are available than a few years ago.

preposition /ˌprep.əˈzɪʃ.ən/

NOUN [C]
[B1] in grammar, a word which is used before a noun, a noun phrase or a pronoun, connecting it to another word

Dictionary example:
In the sentences 'We jumped in the lake', and 'She drove slowly down the track', 'in' and 'down' are prepositions.

Learner example:
In my 1st lesson I learned about prepositions, and I think I'm going to continue the class next week.

prescribe /prɪˈskraɪb/

Word family:
Nouns: prescription
Verbs: prescribe

VERB [T]
[C2] to say what medical treatment someone needs

Dictionary example:
Painkillers are the most common drugs prescribed by doctors in Britain.

Learner example:
I visited my doctor a few weeks ago in order to ask him if I could get tranquillizers as a remedy, but he refused to prescribe them as they wouldn't fight the real reason for my problems.

prescription /prɪˈskripʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: prescription
Verbs: prescribe

NOUN
[B1] [C] a piece of paper on which a doctor writes the details of the medicine or drugs that someone needs
Dictionary examples:
a doctor’s prescription
a prescription for sleeping pills
The doctor should give you a repeat prescription.
These drugs are only available on prescription.
Prescription charges are rising in June.

Learner example:
I won’t be able to attend the English class tomorrow. But please, do excuse my presence by taking a moment to read the medical prescription that I’ve attached [to] this note.

presence /ˈpres.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: presence, present
Verbs: present
Adjectives: present
Adverbs: presently

NOUN

IN A PLACE
[B2] [NO PLURAL] when someone or something is in a place

Dictionary examples:
She was anxious about the presence of so many people.
The presence of pollen in the atmosphere causes hay fever in some people.
He’s usually quite polite in my presence.
The document was signed in the presence of two witnesses.

Learner example:
Your presence here at the club would be really beneficial for the students.

QUALITY
[C2] [u] a quality that makes people notice and admire you

Dictionary example:
She’s only small, but she has real presence.

Learner example:
He derived great benefit from her soothing presence, but otherwise was too duty-bound to notice their relationship went haywire.

make your presence felt
[C2] to have a strong effect on other people

Dictionary example:
The new police chief has really made his presence felt.
Learner example:
Before long a local bicycle gang was formed which would ride all over the village, through fields and gardens, making our presence felt.

POLICE/SOLDIERS
[C2] [NO PLURAL] a group of police or soldiers who are watching or controlling a situation

Dictionary example:
a strong police presence

Learner example:
People residing in [the] countryside find themselves living in fear, claiming that the lack of police presence and protection has resulted in great insecurity.

FEELING
[C2] [USUALLY NO PLURAL] a feeling that someone is still in a place although they are not there or are dead

Dictionary example:
His daughter’s presence seemed to fill the empty bedroom.

Learner example:
There was something there that disturbed him, he felt a strange presence but couldn’t describe what it was.

presence of mind
[C2] the ability to deal with a difficult situation quickly and effectively

Dictionary example:
She had the presence of mind to press the alarm.

Learner example:
Frank tried to hide a bag behind his back with great presence of mind.

dictionary entry present

Word family:
Nouns: presence, present
Verbs: present
Adjectives: present
Adverbs: presently

NOUN /ˈprez.ənt/
the present
[B1] the period of time that is happening now
Dictionary examples:
That's all for the present.
The play is set in the present.

Learner example:
For me, an idea[l] programme would be one that could include all kind[s] of music (from rock, pop to soul, hip hop or dance), and a programme that could play music from all times, from the past to the present.

at present
[B1] now

Dictionary example:
At present she's working abroad.

Learner example:
Firstly, I have to tell you that at present, I am studying journalism and I have a good knowledge of computers.

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] /ˈprez.ənt/
[B1] in a particular place

Dictionary examples:
The whole family was present.
There were no children present.

Learner example:
I'm sorry, tomorrow I can't be present at [your] English class.

VERB [T] /prɪˈzent/
GIVE
[B2] to give, provide or make known

Dictionary examples:
The winners were presented with medals.
The documentary presented us with a balanced view of the issue.
He presented the report to his colleagues at the meeting.

Learner example:
It had to be realistic, so when we finished we presented it to the directors of my school.

TV/RADIO
[B2] to introduce a television or radio show

Dictionary example:
She presents the late-night news.

PLAY/FILM
[B2] to show a new play or film
Dictionary example:
The school is presenting 'West Side Story' this term.

Learner example:
I am writing to complain about the organization of the musical show that the Circle Theatre presented.

present a danger/difficulty/problem, etc.
[C1] to cause a danger/difficulty/problem, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The interview didn't present her with any difficulty.
The final exam may present some problems.

Learner example:
Medical services do not present any serious problem at the moment.

INFORMATION
[C2] to give people information in a formal way

Dictionary example:
He presented the report to his colleagues.

Learner example:
By presenting their findings to the public, they try to teach us how to behave in order to prevent this period of history from repeating itself.

OPPORTUNITY
[C2] If an opportunity presents itself, it becomes possible.

Dictionary example:
I'd be happy to go to New York, if the opportunity presented itself.

Learner example:
I would say that was a fairly good education since they knew how to reward us when the opportunity presented itself.

---

presentation /ˌprez.əˈnərәnˈteɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: present, presentation, presenter
Verbs: present

NOUN

EVENT
[B1] [c] a talk giving information about something

Dictionary example:
The speaker gave an interesting presentation on urban transport.
Learner example:
I'm going to prepare a presentation about London.

CEREMONY

[B2] [c or u] an occasion when prizes, qualifications, etc. are formally given to those who have won or achieved them or the act of giving them

Dictionary example:
The presentation of prizes and certificates will take place in the main hall.

APPEARANCE

[C2] [u] the way something is arranged or shown to people

Dictionary example:
Presentation is important if you want people to buy your products.

Learner example:
While the surroundings are very elegant, this is one restaurant where the food and its presentation is of paramount importance.

presenter /prɪˈzen.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: present, presentation, presenter
Verbs: present

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone who introduces a television or radio show

Dictionary examples:
a news/sports presenter children’s television presenters

Learner example:
Suddenly, a news presenter came on with an unusual message.

presently /ˈprez.ənt.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: presence, present
Verbs: present
Adjectives: present
Adverbs: presently

ADVERB

[C1] formal now
Dictionary example:
He's presently living with his parents.

Learner example:
I am presently working as a sales assistant in "La Suze," a lingerie shop in the city.

preservation /ˌprez.əˈver.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: preservation
Verbs: preserve

NOUN [u]
[C1] when you keep something the same or prevent it from being damaged or destroyed

Dictionary examples:
the preservation of peace
the preservation of wildlife

Learner example:
I was asked to investigate the current situation in my area, concerning the efforts to cut down on the use of energy and natural resources, in order to contribute to the preservation of the environment.

preserve /prɪˈzɜːv/

Word family:
Nouns: preservation
Verbs: preserve

VERB [T]
[B2] to keep something the same or prevent it from being damaged or destroyed

Dictionary examples:
to preserve the environment
We want to preserve the character of the town while improving the facilities.

Learner example:
It is a fundamental necessity for everybody to try to do something in order to preserve the health of our planet.
presidency /ˈprez.ɪ.dənsi/

Word family:
Nouns: presidency, president
Adjectives: presidential

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]

[B2] the job of being president, or the period when someone is a president

Dictionary examples:
He has announced that he is running for the presidency.
She won the presidency by a wide margin.

Learner example:
His presidency finished in 1384 (2005), but Iranians will never forget him.

president /ˈprez.ɪ.dənt/

Word family:
Nouns: presidency, president
Adjectives: presidential

NOUN [c]

[B1] the highest political position in some countries, usually the leader of the government

Dictionary examples:
President Obama
the President of France
Thank you, Mr/Madam President.

Learner example:
[An]other attraction is our museum that is very famous because many paintings have been bought by important people like the President of the United States.

presidential /ˌprez.ɪˈden.tʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: presidency, president
Adjectives: presidential

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] relating to the president of a country

Dictionary example:
a presidential candidate
Learner example:
Anyway, now Laura was counting to 10 as her brother was putting a bomb in the presidential car.

press /pres/

VERB

PUSH

[B1] [ɪ or ɪː] to push something firmly, often without causing it to move permanently further away from you

Dictionary examples:
Press the button to start the machine.
He pressed his face against the window.
Press down firmly on the lever.

Learner example:
When you press it, it will say: “Congratulations” to you.

PERSUADE

[C2] [ɪ] to try hard to persuade someone to do something

Dictionary examples:
The committee pressed him to reveal more information.
We pressed him for an answer but he refused.

Learner example:
A year later, the press, publishers and film-makers and directors pressed me to make a film on Stella.

press charges

[C2] to complain officially about someone in a court of law

Dictionary example:
The family decided not to press charges against him.

Learner example:
He decided on the spot that if Paul was to return all the money he wouldn’t press charges so he called his parents and asked them to find out where he was.

PHRASAL VERB

press on PHRASAL VERB

[C2] to continue to do something or go somewhere in a determined way

Dictionary example:
It was pouring with rain but we pressed on towards the village.
Learner example:
However, she had decided to press on and pursue her obligations to a more motivating goal: she wanted to report the untold, the unsaid.

NOUN

the press
[B2] newspapers and magazines, or the people who write them

Dictionary examples:
the local/national press press reports

Learner example:
I helped them with most of the practical arrangements, [such] as meetings with the press, dinners and so on.

good/bad press
[C1] praise or criticism from newspapers, magazines, television, etc.

Dictionary example:
She’s had a lot of bad press recently.

Learner example:
I also insist that you wr[j]ite a note of apology to the organisers, for bad press won’t help either the charity or the hospital.

pressure /ˈpreʃə/

NOUN

MAKE SOMEONE DO
[B2] [u] when someone tries to make someone else do something by arguing, persuading, etc.

Dictionary examples:
public/political pressure
Teachers are under pressure to work longer hours.
Pressure to abandon the new motorway is increasing.
The government is facing pressure from environmental campaigners.
He only asked her under pressure from his wife.

Learner example:
I understand that you must work a lot because of the pressure from your boss, but I will in spite of that warn you and ask you to think over the situation.

put pressure on sb
[B2] to try to force someone to do something
Dictionary example:
They're putting pressure on me to make a decision.

Learner example:
She puts a lot of pressure on me and beli[es]ves that I can do it in the same way as she did.

PROBLEMS
[B2] [c or u] a difficult situation that makes you feel worried or unhappy

Dictionary examples:
She's got a lot of pressure on her at work just now.
Be nice to him – he's been under a lot of pressure recently.
Can you work well under pressure?
the pressures of work

Learner example:
I have two younger sisters so I think I can cope with the pressure of helping out in the summer camps.

LIQUID/GAS
[C1] [c or U] the force that a liquid or gas produces when it presses against an area

Dictionary example:
water pressure

Learner example:
The process of hydro–electric power generation is using the water pressure from the reservoir to generate the power, which is then transported to [a] transformer station through high voltage cables.

FORCE
[C2] [u] the force you produce when you press something

Dictionary examples:
He put too much pressure on the door handle and it snapped.
You can stop bleeding by applying pressure close to the injured area.

prestige /presˈtiːʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: prestige
Adjectives: prestigious

NOUN [u]
[C1] when people feel respect and admiration for you, often because you are successful

Dictionary example:
His company has gained international prestige.
Learner example:
Many companies nowadays are organising some cultural or sports events in order to strengthen the company's prestige.

prestigious /presˈtɪdʒ.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: prestige
Adjectives: prestigious

ADJECTIVE
[C1] respected and admired, usually because of being important

Dictionary example:
a prestigious award

Learner example:
The jobs that were prestigious in the past seem to be the opposite now.

presumably /prɪˈzjuː.mə.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: presumption
Verbs: presume
Adverbs: presumably

ADVERB
[B2] used to say what you think is the likely situation

Dictionary examples:
They can presumably afford to buy a bigger apartment.
Presumably he just forgot to send the letter.

Learner example:
First of all, I would recommend depart[ing] at 8 o'clock because it will presumably be less crowded than at 10 o'clock.

presume /prɪˈzjuː.m/
VERB

[C1] [i] to believe something to be true because it is very likely, although you are not certain

Dictionary examples:
I presume (that) they're not coming, since they haven't replied to the invitation.
You are Dr Smith, I presume?
"Are we walking to the hotel?" "I presume not/so."
The universe is presumed to contain many other planets with some form of life.

Learner example:
I presume the students are keen on doing some exercise or even competitive sports.

presumption /prɪˈzʌmpʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: presumption
Verbs: presume
Adverbs: presumably

NOUN

[C2] [c] when you believe that something is true without any proof

Dictionary example:
I object to the presumption that young people are only interested in pop music.

Learner example:
All positive effects of the [higher] average age of people have the presumption that their health allows them to live like younger ones.

pretend /prɪˈtend/

VERB [i]

[B2] to behave as if something is true when it is not

Dictionary examples:
She's not really hurt – she's only pretending.
He pretended (that) he didn't mind, but I knew that he did.
Were you just pretending to be interested?
Of course I was angry – I can't pretend otherwise.

Learner example:
Be calm or at least pretend you are.

2251 pretty /ˈprɪt.i/

ADJECTIVE

PLACE/OBJECT
[B1] If a place or an object is pretty, it is pleasant to look at.

Dictionary examples:
That's a pretty hat you're wearing.
a pretty little village

Learner example:
Rabat is the capital of Morocco. There are a lot of attractions, like ancient historic sites, sandy beaches, and a pretty Moroccan market.

ADVERB INFORMAL

QUITE
[B1] quite, but not extremely or not completely

Dictionary examples:
The house has four bedrooms, so it's pretty big.
I'm pretty sure it was her.
I've got a pretty good idea of how to get there.

Learner example:
The best thing about our club is the table tennis, which I'm getting pretty good at.

pretty much/well
[B2] almost

Dictionary examples:
I've pretty much finished here.
She knows pretty well everything there is to know on the subject.

Learner example:
You can pretty much tell your mother any problem you have and she'll try her best to help you out.

prevail /prɪˈveɪl/

VERB [i] FORMAL
[C2] to get control or influence

Dictionary example:
We can only hope that common sense will prevail.
Learner example:
This saying reflects an attitude that prevailed in the European countries of the 19th century when the people were no longer confined to only a basic education and the authority of the church.

prevent /prɪˈvent/

Word family:
Nouns: prevention
Verbs: prevent
Adjectives: preventive

VERB [T]
[B1] to stop something from happening or someone from doing something

 Dictionary examples:
to prevent accidents/crime
Members of the public were prevented from entering the building.

 Learner example:
As I told you once, I'd like to buy a bookshelf where I can organize my books and prevent them from getting damaged.

prevention /prɪˈvent.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: prevention
Verbs: prevent
Adjectives: preventive

NOUN [U]
[B2] when you stop something from happening or stop someone from doing something

 Dictionary examples:
crime prevention
The organization is committed to disease prevention and education.

 Learner example:
I think prevention is the best medicine.

preventive /prɪˈven.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: prevention
Verbs: prevent
Adjectives: preventive
ADJECTIVE (ALSO preventative)
[C2] Preventive action is intended to stop something before it happens.

Dictionary examples:
preventive measures preventive medicine

Learner example:
There are many causes to these problems and certain preventive measures should be enforced to solve them.

previous /ˈpriː.vi.əs/

Word family:
Adjectives: previous
Adverbs: previously

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] existing or happening before something or someone else

Dictionary examples:
the previous day/week/month/year a previous attempt

Learner example:
I felt my previous class was not suitable for me any longer, [so] I decided to [ask] the administrator to help me to change [to] a higher class.

previously /ˈpriː.vi.ə.sli/

Word family:
Adjectives: previous Adverbs: previously

ADVERB
[B1] before the present time or the time referred to

Dictionary examples:
She was previously employed as a tour guide.
I had posted the card two months previously.

Learner example:
Well, first of all I must tell you that I didn't know it previously.
prey /ˈpreɪ/

NOUN [u]
[C2] an animal that is hunted and killed by another animal

Dictionary example:
The camera follows the owl swooping down on its prey.

Learner example:
Like a tiger who looks [at] the prey he has just hunted, Martha looked at the dead body of the boy.

fall prey to sth
[C2] to be hurt or deceived by something or someone bad

Dictionary example:
He fell prey to a gang of criminals pretending to be council officials.

Learner example:
As young people do not have experience in living independently in society and are not fully aware of social problems such as drugs and violence, they may easily fall prey to adults who would like to exploit them.

price /ˈpraɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: price
Verbs: price
Adjectives: priceless

NOUN
RESULT
[C1] [NO PLURAL] the unpleasant results that you must accept or experience for getting or doing something

Dictionary example:
Suspension from the club was a high/small price to pay for his mistake.

Learner example:
What really characterizes Michael is his love for life, his continuous joy, which sometimes can become rather annoying, but this is just a small price to pay for all his success.

at any price
[C2] If you want something at any price, you will do anything to get it.

Dictionary example:
She wanted the job at any price.
Learner example:
They wanted to be parents at any price.

pay the price
[C2] to accept the unpleasant results of what you have done

Dictionary example:
If you abuse your body now, you’ll pay the price when you’re older.

Learner example:
When all is said and done, do contemporary sports events pose an advantage to athletes pursuing their physical excellence? I would dare to say no, unless he, or increasingly she, is prepared to pay the price in becoming a ready-made product for public consumption.

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[C1] to say what the price of something is

Dictionary examples:
The car is priced at £28 000.
There is a lack of reasonably priced housing for rent.

Learner example:
Both games are priced at approximately £30.

priceless /ˈpraɪs.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: price
Verbs: price
Adjectives: priceless

ADJECTIVE

VALUABLE
[B2] very valuable

Dictionary example:
a priceless antique/painting

Learner example:
She had five unique paintings [by] Van Gogh which were priceless.

IMPORTANT
[C1] very important or useful

Dictionary example:
A trip round the world is a priceless opportunity.

Learner example:
It would [be] sad if not unfair for my friend to [miss] this unique and priceless opportunity.
pride /prɑːrd/

NOUN [u]

SATISFACTION
[B2] a feeling of satisfaction at your achievements or the achievements of your family or friends

Dictionary examples:
She felt a great sense of pride as she watched him accept the award.
The whole community takes pride in the school.

Learner example:
I take pride in you and your patience.

RESPECT FOR YOURSELF
[B2] the respect that you feel for yourself

Dictionary example:
She has too much pride to accept any help.

Learner example:
Not only did I lose £50, but also some pride and self-respect.

swallow your pride
[C2] to decide to do something although it will shame or embarrass you

Dictionary example:
He swallowed his pride and asked if he could have his old job back.

Learner example:
She has had to put up with all the psychological harm that her husband has put her through and at the same time, she has had to keep on struggling for her children, never giving in; holding back her tears, swallowing her pride just for the benefit of her daughters.

priest /priːst/

NOUN [c]

[B1] ! someone who performs religious duties and ceremonies

Dictionary examples:
a Roman Catholic priest
Many in the Anglican Church are still opposed to women priests.

Learner example:
I started to read one of the emails and I couldn’t believe what I was reading. One of my best friends had become a priest!
primarily /prɪˈmer.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: primary
Adverbs: primarily

ADVERB

[B2] mainly

Dictionary example:
She’s known primarily as a novelist but she also writes poetry.

Learner example:
"The Vagabond Dog" – one of his best short stories – is primarily naturalistic.

primary /ˈprəɪ.mə.rɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: primary
Adverbs: primarily

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] most important

Dictionary example:
Her primary responsibility is to train new employees.

Learner example:
You can listen to music and generally use it for fun but the primary reason that computer[s] were invented was for communication.

primary school /ˈprəɪ.mə.rɪˌskuːl/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a school for children aged 5–11

Dictionary example:
My daughter is still at primary school.

Learner example:
We sat at a cafe and talked about our primary school.
prime /prɑɪm/

ADJECTIVE [BEFORE NOUN]

MAIN
[C2] main or most important

Dictionary examples:
the prime suspect in a murder investigation a prime source of evidence
The president is a prime target for the assassin's bullet.

Learner example:
It is of prime importance to find out about culture and history.

a/the prime example
[C2] a very good example of something

Dictionary example:
This is a prime example of what happens when communication is poor.

Learner example:
In this context in the analyses of Piggy's character, it strikes me as a first spontaneous impression that he personifies the typical proper schoolboy who will later on undoubtedly grow up to be the prime example of a good and responsible citizen.

prime minister /ˌpraɪmˈmɪn.ɪ.stər/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[B2] the leader of the government in some countries

Learner example:
Yesterday I heard that animal rights activists have met the prime minister: maybe the situation will change.

primitive /ˈprɪm.ɪ.tɪv/

ADJECTIVE

NOT DEVELOPED
[C1] relating to human society at a very early stage of development, with people living in a simple way without machines or a writing system
Dictionary examples: primitive man primitive societies

Learner example:
Young people nowadays are more exposed to the world news, whereas primitive societies were rather isolated and ha[d] nothing to [do] with [the] outside world.

BASIC
[C1] DISAPPROVING very basic or old-fashioned

Dictionary example:
The conditions at the campsite were rather primitive.

Learner example:
Students will not appreciate their primitive meals at any cost, even a low one.

prince /prɪnts/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the son of a king or queen, or one of their close male relatives

Dictionary example:
Prince Edward

Learner example:
At last, the beast really changed back into a prince.

princess /prɪnˈses/

NOUN [C]
[B1] the daughter of a king or queen, or one of their close female relatives, or the wife of a prince

Dictionary example:
He was married to a Spanish princess.

Learner example:
My teacher told me that I have to wear a dress like a princess.

principal /ˈprint.ʃəpəl/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] main, or most important
Dictionary examples:
That was my principal reason for moving.
He was principal dancer at the Dance Theatre of Harlem.

Learner example:
This is its principal advantage.

NOUN [c]
[B2] the person in charge of a school or college

Dictionary example:
She is principal of a London school.

Learner example:
Another thing you need to be aware of is that the teachers, the Principal and the whole class will be invited and we want this party to be a success because we deeply respect Mr Brown.

principle  /ˈprɪnt.sɪ.pl/

NOUN

IDEA
[C1] [c] a basic idea or rule that explains or controls how something happens or works

Dictionary examples:
the principles of the criminal justice system
The country is run on socialist principles.
The organization works on the principle that all members have the same rights.

Learner example:
Many laws in our legislation have been created according to his principles and beliefs.

on principle
[C2] If you refuse to do something on principle, you refuse to do it because you think it is morally wrong.

Dictionary example:
She doesn't wear fur on principle.

Learner example:
They granted themselves a little celebration: it was time to keep the promise made four years before; so they bought some bottles of wine and got drunk (the[y] who, on principle, never drank alcohol).

in principle
[C2] If you agree with something in principle, you agree with the idea or plan although you do not know the details or you do not know if it will be possible.
Dictionary example:
They have approved the changes in principle.

Learner example:
In principle, one can agree with both positions pointed out in this statement.

MORAL RULE

[C2] [c or u] a rule or belief which influences your behaviour and which is based on what you think is right

Dictionary example:
He must be punished – it’s a matter of principle.

Learner example:
He cheated every time he had the slightest opportunity to, even when it wasn’t necessary at all. It was a matter of principle to him.

---

print  /prɪnt/

Word family:

Nouns: printer, print

Verbs: print

NOUN

PICTURE

[C1] [c] a copy of a picture made using photography or by pressing paper onto a design covered in ink

Dictionary example:
a print of Van Gogh’s 'Sunflowers'

Learner example:
MI5 operates two computers, one for word processing and another for scanning and reproducing prints, drawings and photos.

LETTERS

[C2] [u] words, letters, or numbers that are produced on paper by a machine

Dictionary example:
The print’s so small in this book that I can hardly read it.

in/out of print

[C2] If a book is in print, it is possible to buy a new copy of it, and if it is out of print, it is not now possible.

Dictionary example:
The novel was first published in 1880 and has been in print ever since.
Learner example:
There are books that you would never find again because they are out of print.

VERB [v]

BOOKS/NEWSPAPERS

[B2] to produce books, newspapers, magazines, etc., usually in large quantities, using machines

Dictionary example:
Fifty thousand booklets have been printed for the exhibition.

Learner example:
We should also have a more efficient tourist service – it is years since we last printed brochures of our town!

INCLUDE WRITING

[B2] to include a piece of writing in a newspaper or magazine

Dictionary example:
They printed his letter in Tuesday's paper.

Learner example:
Please take this into consideration and print a corrected version of the article.

prior /ˈprɪər/

ADJECTIVE

BEFORE

[C1] existing or happening before something else

Dictionary example:
The course requires no prior knowledge of Spanish.

Learner example:
Referring to our prior correspondence I would like to inform you that I accept your friendly offer for being once again your interpreter on your one-week-tour through our country.

prior to sth

[C1] before a particular time or event

Dictionary example:
the weeks prior to her death

Learner example:
I'd like to tell you about my expectations prior to the conference.
priority /praɪˈər.ə.ti/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] something that is very important and must be dealt with before other things

Dictionary examples:
The management did not seem to consider office safety to be a priority.
My first/top priority is to find somewhere to live.
You have to learn to get your priorities right/straight.
Banks normally give priority to large businesses when deciding on loans.
Official business requirements obviously take/have priority over personal requests.

Learner example:
We need to show films [that are] enjoyable for all kinds of people, always giving priority to the quality.

prison /ˈprɪz.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: prison, prisoner, imprisonment
Verbs: imprison

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a building where criminals must live as a punishment

Dictionary examples:
He's spent a lot of time in prison.
She went to/was sent to prison for six months.
They should put him in prison and throw away the key!
a prison cell/sentence

Learner example:
About 3 weeks later, I tried to escape from the prison, but they c[aught] me.

prisoner /ˈprɪz.ənər/

Word family:
Nouns: prison, prisoner, imprisonment
Verbs: imprison

NOUN [C]
PERSON IN PRISON
[B1] a person who is kept in prison as a punishment

Dictionary example:
Prisoners climbed onto the prison roof to protest at the conditions inside.
Learner example:
This film dealt with two prisoners that escape from their prison and start to take money from banks (of course not legally!)

hold/keep/take sb prisoner
[C2] to catch someone and guard them so that they cannot escape

Dictionary example:
He was taken prisoner by a group of armed soldiers.

Learner example:
The ant princess was held prisoner by the evil beetle and the fly prince was on his way to save her.

privacy  /ˈprɪvə.si/

Word family:
Nouns: privacy
Verbs: privatize
Adjectives: private Adverbs: privately

NOUN [U]
[B2] the right to be alone and do things without other people seeing or hearing you

Dictionary examples:
I hate sharing a bedroom – I never get any privacy.
The new law is designed to protect people's privacy.

Learner example:
Well, it seems that a young, modern and successful man can have no privacy at all.

invade sb's privacy
[C2] to become involved in someone's private life when they do not want you to

Dictionary example:
They were fed up with journalists invading their privacy.

Learner example:
He would never invade our privacy or force us to talk about our problems.

an invasion of privacy
[C2] becoming involved in someone's private life when they do not want you to

Dictionary example:
These phone calls to my home are an invasion of my privacy.
private /ˈpraɪ.vət/

Word family:
- Nouns: privacy
- Verbs: privatize
- Adjectives: private
- Adverbs: privately

ADJECTIVE

NOT EVERYONE

[B1] only for one person or group and not for everyone

Dictionary examples:
- She has a small office which is used for private discussions.
- I caught him looking through my private papers.
- The sign on the gate said 'Private Property - No Admittance.'

Learner example:
- I went there to see what’s going on, and the band invited us to their private party.

SECRET

[B1] describes activities which involve personal matters or relationships and are not connected with your work

Dictionary example:
- Apparently in interviews he refuses to talk about his private life.

Learner example:
- We talked about the film and also about our work and our private life.

NOT OFFICIAL

[B2] controlled or paid for by a person or company and not by the government

Dictionary examples:
- private education/healthcare
- a private doctor/dentist

Learner example:
- I have been working as an English teacher for small children at a private school for three years.

in private

[B2] in a place where nobody else can hear you or see what you are doing

Dictionary example:
- The meeting was held in private.

Learner example:
- I agree that th[is] should be in private.
privately /ˈpraɪ.və.tli/

Word family:
Nouns: privacy
Verbs: privatize
Adjectives: private Adverbs: privately

ADVERB

[B2] in secret, or with only one or two other people present

Dictionary examples:
She spoke privately with the manager.
Despite his public support, privately he was worried.

Learner example:
I'll pick you up from the station so we will have the opportunity to chat privately.

privatize /ˈpraɪ.və.taɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: privacy
Verbs: privatize
Adjectives: private
Adverbs: privately

VERB [T] (also UK privatise)

[C1] If an industry or organization owned by the government is privatized, it is sold to private companies.

Dictionary example:
The government plans to privatize many aspects of health care.

Learner example:
The companies were privatised or closed down.

privilege /ˈprɪv.aɪ. ldʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: privilege
Adjectives: privileged

NOUN

ADVANTAGE

[C1] [c or u] an advantage that only one person or group has, usually because of their position or because they are rich
Dictionary example:
She was born into a life of privilege.

Learner example:
There are only a few things that have been worrying me a bit: firstly I would like to enjoy the privilege of having my own parking [place].

OPPORTUNITY
[C1] [c] an opportunity to do something special or enjoyable

Dictionary example:
I had the privilege of meeting the Queen.

Learner example:
I have attended several events in benefit of The Foundation but this one was particularly special and memorable as I had the pleasure and the privilege of meeting Elton again – it is really a great privilege to be friendly with someone so special as he is.

privileged /ˈprɪv.ə.lɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: privilege
Adjectives: privileged

ADJECTIVE

ADVANTAGE
[C1] having an advantage that only one person or group has, usually because of their position or because they are rich

Dictionary examples:
a privileged upbringing
As an ambassador, she enjoys a very privileged status.

Learner example:
Today we [are] so privileged, life has become so easy in many ways.

OPPORTUNITY
[C2] having an opportunity to do something special or enjoyable

Dictionary example:
I was privileged to see her sing in Milan.
pro /prəʊ/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL pros)

the pros and cons
  [B2] the advantages and disadvantages of something

Dictionary example:
We discussed the pros and cons of buying a bigger house.

Learner example:
But balancing the pros and cons, music is good.

probability /ˌprɒb.əˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: probability
Adjectives: probable Adverbs: probably

NOUN
  [C1] [C or u] how likely it is that something will happen

Dictionary examples:
What's the probability of winning?
There's a high probability that he'll get the job.

Learner example:
The statistics say that if one woman gets married to one man, the probability that they will get divorced is 50 percent.

in all probability [C2] used to mean that something is very likely

Dictionary example:
She will, in all probability, have left before we arrive.

Learner example:
Anybody who can fulfill the above conditions will in all probability be successful.

probable /ˈprəʊ.bəl/

Word family:
Nouns: probability
Adjectives: probable Adverbs: probably
ADJECTIVE

[B2] likely to be true or likely to happen

Dictionary examples:
The probable cause of death was heart failure.
An election in June seems increasingly probable.
It is probable that share prices will fall still further.

Learner example:
Surely the older you are, the less probable it is that you'll choose a bike.

---

problematic  /ˌprɒb.əˈmæt.ɪk/

Word family:

Nouns: problem
Adjectives: problematic

ADJECTIVE

[C1] full of problems or difficulties

Dictionary example:
He has a very problematic relationship with his father.

Learner example:
On the other hand, there were some problematic issues.

---

procedure  /prəˈsiː.dʒə/

Word family:

Nouns: procedure, process
Verbs: process

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] the official or usual way of doing something

Dictionary examples:
The company has new procedures for dealing with complaints.
You must follow correct procedure at all times.

Learner example:
Despite being a disorganised procedure, it was successful and many people wanted to attend next year's festival.
proceed /prəˈsiːd/

Word family:
Nouns: proceedings
Verbs: proceed

VERB [I] FORMAL
CONTINUE
[C1] to continue to happen

Dictionary example:
His lawyers have decided not to proceed with the case.

Learner example:
I am not sure which is the best way to proceed with this problem.

proceed to do sth
[C2] to do something after you have done something else

Dictionary example:
She sat down and proceeded to tell me about her skiing trip.

Learner example:
Ku wagged her finger in approval and proceeded to explain her plan.

proceedings /prəˈsiːdɪŋz/

Word family:
Nouns: proceedings
Verbs: proceed

NOUN [PLURAL]
LEGAL
[C2] legal action against someone

Dictionary example:
The bank is threatening to start legal proceedings against him.

Learner example:
I happened to know that Diana Robinson, a 13-year-old girl, had started legal proceedings against Mr Thomson and Mr Ketzo, another teacher.

WRITTEN RECORD
[C2] a written record of what is said or done in a meeting

Dictionary example:
I read the proceedings of the previous meeting.
Learner example:
Moreover, I would like to [do] some research [on] Spain's transition to democracy from dictatorship by accessing primary materials such as parliamentary proceedings, newspapers and other main sources available.

process  /ˈprəʊ.ses/

Word family:
Nouns: procedure, process
Verbs: process

NOUN [c]

ACTIONS
[B2] a series of actions that you take in order to achieve a result

Dictionary examples:
the peace process
Increasing the number of women in top management jobs will be a slow process.
This decision may delay the process of European unification.
The party has begun the painful process of rethinking its policies and strategy.
Going to court to obtain compensation is a long process.

Learner example:
But the situation is getting worse because of the decisions of the European Union, which is trying to unify the education of Europe without respecting the wishes of the students who are trying to stop this process.

CHANGES
[B2] a series of changes that happen naturally

Dictionary examples:
the ageing process
It's all part of the learning process.

Learner example:
These events are not only to entertain students, but they are also a part of the learning process, as by communicating with each other students learn the language.

in the process
[C2] If something is being done, and something else happens in the process, the second thing happens as a result of doing the first thing.

Dictionary examples:
She stood up to say hello and spilled her drink in the process.
The tunnel was built, but many lives were lost in the process.

Learner example:
If an attempt is made to move them to another location they will probably die in the process.
be in the process of doing sth

[C2] to have started doing something

Dictionary example:
We're in the process of painting our apartment.

Learner example:
This feeling of affinity is especially important for young people and teenagers who are in the process of creating their own identity and I also believe that sportsmen and sportswomen make great role models.

VERB [T]

[B2] to deal with documents in an official way

Dictionary example:
Visa applications take 28 days to process.

---

procession /prəˈsɛfən/

NOUN [C]

[C2] a line of people or vehicles that moves forward slowly as part of a ceremony or public event

Dictionary example:
a funeral procession

Learner example:
As Tom was leading the procession, he saw at once the black, forbidding scene.

---

produce

Word family:

Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction

Verbs: produce, reproduce

Adjectives: productive, unproductive

VERB [T] /prəˈdʒuːs/

MAKE

[B1] to make or grow something

Dictionary examples:
The factory produces about 900 cars a year.
She works for a company that produces electrical goods.
This plant will produce small yellow flowers in the spring.
She's asked me to produce a report on the state of the project.
Learner example:
In this club we produce and design the school magazine "Freestyle."

CAUSE

[B2] to cause a reaction or result

Dictionary examples:
The prime minister’s speech produced an angry response from the opposition. Her remarks produced an awkward silence. If used on delicate skin, this cream may produce a stinging sensation.

Learner example:
I was fascinated by the perfection of the classic[al] sculptures: they were perfectly proportioned, every part was functional to the beauty of the whole sculpture. It’s really different [to] looking at them in a book! I suggest everybody [should go and] look at them: it produces a magic effect!

SHOW

[C1] to show or offer something to someone

Dictionary example:
One of the men suddenly produced a gun from his pocket.

Learner example:
Robert had produced a bottle of champagne, which they had em[p]tied to the last drop.

NOUN /ˈprɒ.djuːs/

[C2] food that is grown or made in large quantities to be sold

Dictionary example:
dairy produce

Learner example:
On Saturdays, I usually walk up to Mr Fall’s farm at the far end of the village in order to buy some fresh produce like butter, eggs and milk.

producer /prəˈdjuː.sə/

Word family:
Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction
Verbs: produce, reproduce
Adjectives: productive, unproductive

NOUN [C]

[FILM, ETC.] [B2] someone who controls how a film, play, programme, or musical recording is made

Dictionary example:
a film/Hollywood/movie/record producer
Learner example:
I'm sure they are going to be very interested in your first steps as an actor, but also in your later career as a film producer.

GOODS/FOOD
[C] a company, country, or person that makes goods or grows food

Dictionary example:
Australia is one of the world’s main producers of wool.

Learner example:
For example, in several countries people who live in the countryside actually are the main producers of wheat and also the meat that people need in their daily life.

product  /ˈprɒd.ʌkt/

Word family:
Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction
Verbs: produce, reproduce
Adjectives: productive, unproductive

NOUN [C]
[B] something that is made or grown to be sold

Dictionary examples:
They do a range of skin-care products.
The product is so good it sells itself.
I'm trying to cut down on dairy products.

Learner example:
You can buy leather products too.

production  /prəˈdækʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction
Verbs: produce, reproduce
Adjectives: productive, unproductive

NOUN

MAKING

[B] when you make or grow something

Dictionary examples:
Sand is used in the production of glass.
The company's new model will be going into production early next year.
Learner example:
More people can enjoy music than before, because of [the] mass production of recorded music.

AMOUNT

[B2] [u] the amount of something that is made or grown by a country or a company

Dictionary examples:
- We need to increase production by 20%.
- Swedish industrial production has fallen steadily this year.
- Wheat production has risen over the years.

Learner example:
He became famous because he did a lot of things in this country in a year, like give[ing] them a good education, [and] increase[ing] their production.

FILM/MUSIC

[B2] [c or u] when someone controls how a film, play, programme, or musical recording is made

Dictionary example:
She's hoping to get into television production.

Learner example:
Indeed, Northwood cinema enables people to discover films from all over the world – from a small Brazilian production to a 3 hour Bollywood movie.

---

productive /prəˈdʌk.tɪv/

Word family:
- Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction
- Verbs: produce, reproduce
- Adjectives: productive, unproductive

---

ADJECTIVE

USEFUL

[B2] producing a good or useful result

Dictionary example:
We had a very productive meeting and sorted out a lot of problems.

Learner example:
Some people think that by keeping animals in [a] zoo we can observe them, and try to understand the way they [live]; of course, you can learn things, but it would be more productive to observe them when they are free.

LARGE AMOUNT

[B2] producing a large amount of goods, food, work, etc.
Dictionary examples: productive land
a productive worker

Learner example:
When the weather is good, I am in the appropriate mood to be productive at work.

productivity /ˌprɒd.ʌkˈtɪv.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction
Verbs: produce, reproduce
Adjectives: productive, unproductive

NOUN [u]
[C1] the rate at which goods are produced or work is done

Dictionary example:
We need to increase productivity by 50%.

Learner example:
Though time-consuming, these staff would need to undergo re-training to be able to achieve the highest level of productivity, besides getting accustomed to the nick-nacks of the Production Department.

profession /prəˈfeʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: profession, professional
Adjectives: professional, unprofessional

NOUN WORK
[B1] [c] a type of work that needs special training or education

Dictionary examples:
What's your profession?
He's a doctor by profession.
The report notes that forty per cent of lawyers entering the profession are women.

Learner example:
As I look back at my past, [the] most embarrassing moments in my life seem to have something to do with my profession, which is an interpreter from Hungarian.
PEOPLE
[B2] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] the people who do a type of work considered as a group

Dictionary example:
The medical profession has expressed concern about the new drug.

Learner example:
One day, [when] I had an exam, the examiner asked me questions about the legal profession.

professional /prəˈfeʃ.n.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: profession, professional
Adjectives: professional, unprofessional

ADJECTIVE

EARNING MONEY
[B1] Someone is professional if they earn money for a sport or activity which most people do as a hobby.

Dictionary example:
a professional footballer/athlete/musician

Learner example:
For example, I met a boy last week and at the end he told me that his father is a professional football player.

SKILL
[B1] showing skill and careful attention

Dictionary examples:
a professional attitude
He looks very professional in that suit.

Learner example:
My teacher is English, her name is Bronye, she’s very professional, and nice.

JOB
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] relating to a job that needs special training or education

Dictionary examples:
Chris, you’re a nurse, so can I ask your professional opinion on bandaging ankles?
You should get some professional advice about your finances.

Learner example:
I want to play safe by saying that I am not an architect, therefore I am not able to give professional advice.
PAID

[B2] someone who earns money for doing a sport or activity which most other people do as a hobby

Dictionary example:
a rugby professional

Learner example:
Finally, I wondered whether it would be possible to explain how long it take[s] an amateur to become a professional. Despite know[ing] almost nothing about tennis I would like to win a championship in the future.

TRAINED

[C1] someone who does a job that needs special training or education

Dictionary example:
health professionals

Learner example:
Computer skills and knowledge are really important for researchers and media professionals.

---

professor /ˈprɛfər/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a teacher of the highest rank in a department of a British university, or a teacher of high rank in an American university or college

Dictionary examples:
Professor Stephen Hawking a professor of sociology a sociology professor

Learner example:
To put it in a nutshel[l] I was astonished [at] how they weren't able to get on using that assortment of high ranked university professors of social science, and were requiring my help.

---

profile /ˈprəʊ.fər/

NOUN [C]

DESCRIPTION

[B2] a short description of a person, organization, etc., giving the main details about them
Dictionary examples:
He’s updated his Facebook profile.
We include a photograph and short profile of all the candidates.

Learner example:
I hope [the] above information suits the profile of [the] person you are looking for [for] the job.

PUBLIC IMAGE
[C1] the amount of public attention that someone or something receives

Dictionary examples:
The firm has a high profile due to the recent media coverage.
The advertising campaign aims to raise the profile of the company.

Learner example:
I believe that this is a great idea, as it will help raise the profile of our club in our college, and therefore may help increase interest in the club and possibly its membership.

keep a low profile
[C1] to try not to be noticed

Dictionary example:
She has kept a low profile since the divorce.

Learner example:
Finally, I believe that the best way to handle these issues is to try to keep a low profile at all times and to remain indifferent to gossip.

profit /ˈprɒf.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: profit
Adjectives: profitable

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] money that you get from selling goods or services for more than they cost to produce or provide

Dictionary examples:
She makes a big profit from selling waste material to textile companies.
Company profits are down on last year’s figures.
He sold his house at a huge profit.

Learner example:
Also, supermarket owners have put in a vast amount of money to find out the best way to [display] goods in order to get the most profit.

2280 profitable /ˈprɒf.ɪ.tə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: profit
- Adjectives: profitable

ADJECTIVE

- MONEY
  - [B2] resulting in or likely to result in a profit or an advantage
    - Dictionary example:
      Over the years it has developed into a highly profitable business.
    - Learner example:
      It is [a] very profitable business.

- USEFUL
  - [C1] useful or likely to give you an advantage
    - Dictionary examples:
      a profitable discussion
      I made profitable use of my time, mixing with a lot of different people and practising my Spanish.
    - Learner example:
      The 'language-shower', as it is called, can sometimes be more productive, efficient and profitable in terms of assimilating knowledge than any course given by highly est[eem]ed professors.

profound /prəˈfaʊnd/

Word family:
- Adjectives: profound
- Adverbs: profoundly

ADJECTIVE

- a profound effect/impact/influence, etc.
  - [C2] If an effect, impact, influence, etc. is profound, it is extreme.
    - Dictionary example:
      The war had a profound impact on people's lives.
    - Learner example:
      This stimulation is essential in our quest for spiritual and emotional well-being and exerts a profound effect on our psyche.

- VERY GREAT
  - [C2] very great or serious
Dictionary example:
The internal market is bringing about profound changes in the health system.

Learner example:
Generally speaking, a history of economic and political dependency leads the country to a narrow wealth distribution and profound social differences.

FEELING
[C2] If a feeling is profound, you feel it very strongly.

Dictionary example:
a profound sense of sadness

Learner example:
Apparently the prologue to an adventure book, praising the pragmatism and profound sense of democracy of the British culture, the novel will reveal the most savage aspects of human nature through the analysis of the boys' behaviour.

UNDERSTANDING
[C2] If an idea or piece of work is profound, it shows intelligence or a great ability to understand.

Dictionary examples:
a profound question
His theories were simple, but profound.

Learner example:
His professional knowledge is profound and respected by students and other lecturers alike.

profoundly  /prəˈfaʊnd.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: profound
Adverbs: profoundly

ADVERB
[C2] in a profound way

Dictionary examples:
I think this approach is profoundly misguided.
Her recent songs have been profoundly influenced by current events.

Learner example:
In my opinion the reason why Olivia left Douglas was not so much that she didn't love him as the fact that she was profoundly bored by the life she conducted in India.
programme /ˈprəʊ.ɡræm/

NOUN [C]

PLAN
[B2] a plan of events or activities with a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
The college offers an excellent social programme.

Learner example:
First of all I have to say that the school social programme was the best and I really enjoyed it.

programmer /ˈprəʊ.ɡræ.mər/

Word family:
Nouns: program, programming, programmer

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who writes computer programs as a job

Dictionary example:
We employ six programmers on the project.

Learner example:
I’m a 35-year old programmer in a small company.

programming /ˈprəʊ.ɡræ.mɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: program, programming, programmer

NOUN [U]
[B2] when someone writes computer programs

Dictionary example:
We learned how to do programming.

Learner example:
I’m very keen on programming and I have made a lot of small utility programs for both Mac and PC.

progress

Word family:

Nouns: progress, progression
Verbs: progress
Adjectives: progressive

NOUN
[u] ˈprəʊ.gres/

IMPROVEMENT

[B1] development and improvement of skills, knowledge, etc.

Dictionary examples:

Technological progress has been so rapid over the last few years.
I'm not making much progress with my Spanish.

Learner example:

I will check new words, the[ir] meanings and pronunciations, to make progress for missed sessions.

in progress

[B2] happening or being done now

Dictionary example:

Repair work is in progress on the south-bound lane of the motorway and will continue until June.

Learner example:

[In] the lower part of your advertisement, it also said there was a theatre restaurant, [but] in fact, it was closed because internal decoration was in progress.

VERB
[I] /prəˈgres/

IMPROVE

[B2] to improve or develop in skills, knowledge, etc.

Dictionary example:

My Spanish never really progressed beyond the stage of being able to order drinks at the bar.

Learner example:

I have to warn you than I'm not an expert in terms of musical basics, but I'm eager to learn them because I know no-one can progress without learning them; so the main job will be to do that.

CONTINUE

[C2] to continue gradually

Dictionary example:

I began to feel more relaxed as the evening progressed.

Learner example:

As the evening progressed we got to see some of the local dances as well as [a] play performed by a band of gypsies.
Progression

Word family:
- Nouns: progress, progression
- Verbs: progress
- Adjectives: progressive

Noun [C or U]

[C1] when something or someone changes to the next stage of development

Dictionary examples:
- a logical/natural progression
- Drugs can stop the progression of the disease.

Learner example:
- Sharing information between people is a crucial point of peoples’ education and it can help in their career progression.

Progressive

Word family:
- Nouns: progress, progression
- Verbs: progress
- Adjectives: progressive

Adjective

Modern

[B2] thinking or behaving in a new or modern way

Dictionary examples:
- progressive ideas/attitudes
- a progressive school

Learner example:
- I hear [that] some progressive companies don’t really approve of company cars and are trying to keep them to [a] minimum.

Gradual

[C1] developing or happening gradually

Dictionary examples:
- There's been a progressive decline in the standard of living over the past few years.
- a progressive disease

Learner example:
- It was not a quick change, on the contrary it was a progressive change which was accelerated by some factors during the last two decades.
prohibit /prəˈhɪb.ɪt/

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

[B2] to officially forbid something

Dictionary examples:
- Motor vehicles are prohibited from driving in the town centre.
- The government introduced a law prohibiting tobacco advertisements on TV.
- Parking is strictly prohibited between these gates.

Learner example:
Perhaps we should prohibit the traffic and create a new cheap bus service for the inhabitants and the tourists.

---

project /ˈprədʒ.ekt/

NOUN [C]

WORK

[B2] a carefully planned piece of work that has a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
- a scientific research project
- My next project is decorating the kitchen.
- Her latest project is a film based on the life of a nineteenth-century artist.

Learner example:
It is also related to my research project.

---

projection /prəˈdʒek.ʃən/

NOUN

CALCULATION

[C1] [c] a calculation or guess about the future based on information that you have

Dictionary example:
- government projections of population growth

Learner example:
- The line graph shows the Cinema attendance between 1990 and the present, with projections to 2010.

IMAGE

[C1] [u] when a film or an image is projected onto a screen or wall
Dictionary example:
the projection of moving images

Learner example:
Talks and slide projection could be interesting for [o]lder people but not so exciting for younger people, who would prefer some more "active" entertainment like visits to discos, barbecues, quiz night, karaoke nights, fancy-dress parties and other similar happenings.

prolong /prəˈlɒŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: prolong
Adjectives: prolonged

VERB [T]
[C1] to make something last longer

Dictionary example:
Eating a good diet can prolong your life.

Learner example:
However, nobody expects the strike to be prolonged for more than a week.

prolonged /prəˈlɒŋd/

Word family:
Verbs: prolong
Adjectives: prolonged

ADJECTIVE
[C1] continuing for a long time

Dictionary examples:
a prolonged illness
Avoid prolonged exposure to the sun.

Learner example:
What surprised us was the prolonged delay we had to suffer during our departure from Heathrow.

prominent /ˈprɒm.ɪ.nənt/

ADJECTIVE
IMPORTANT
[C1] important or famous

2287
Dictionary example:
a prominent figure

Learner example:
It starts with two very important works of Albrecht Durer, one of the most prominent painters of his time, not only in Germany.

EASY TO SEE
[C2] very easy to see or notice

Dictionary example:
New books are displayed in a prominent position at the front of the shop.

Learner example:
A large map of Cyprus holds a prominent place in his store.

promise  /ˈprɒm.ɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: promise
Verbs: promise
Adjectives: promising

VERB

SAY
[B1] [I or T] to say that you will certainly do something or that something will certainly happen

Dictionary examples:
She promised to write to me every week.
He promised faithfully to call me every week.
Paul promised me that he'd cook dinner tonight.
"I'll come round and see you every day," she promised.

Learner example:
I promise that I will cover the work that you've done in class and I will send [it] to you the day after.

GIVE
[B1] [T] to say that you will certainly give something to someone

Dictionary examples:
They promised us a reward.
Grandma's ring was promised to me.
Her parents promised her a new car if she passed her exams.

Learner example:
And as a good friend, he has promised me a[n] invitation to [the] wedding.
promise to be sth

[B2] If something promises to be good, exciting, etc., people expect that it will be good, exciting, etc.

Dictionary example:
It promises to be a really exciting game.

Learner example:
I'm looking forward to start[ing] this trip with you and Chris. It promises to be very exciting!

---

NOUN [C]

SAY

[B1] when you say that you will certainly do something

Dictionary examples:
I'll tidy my things away tonight – and that's a promise!
I'm not sure I can do it so I won't make any promises.

Learner example:
Don't forget your promise to not just visit but stay at my place.

keep/break a promise

[B2] to do/not do what you said that you would do

Dictionary example:
If I make a promise, I like to keep it.

Learner example:
In addition, you didn't keep your promise.

---

promising /ˈprɒm.ɪ.sɪŋ/

Word family:

Nouns: promise

Verbs: promise

Adjectives: promising

ADJECTIVE

[C1] likely to be very good or successful in the future

Dictionary examples:
a promising student a promising start to the game

Learner example:
Once a promising football player starts his career he becomes an attractive "thing" to sponsors and football clubs.
promote /prəˈmaʊt/

Word family:
Nouns: promotion
Verbs: promote

VERB [1]

JOB

[B1] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to give someone a more important job in the same organization

Dictionary examples:
If I'm not promoted within the next two years, I'm going to change jobs.
She's just been promoted to senior sales rep.

Learner example:
She invited me to a party because her husband had been promoted in his job.

ADVERTISE

[B2] to advertise something

Dictionary example:
The band is promoting their new album.

Learner example:
At that moment I and a large number of people behind me discovered that I was talking to a person made out of wax. [It] was there to promote the museum.

ENCOURAGE

[C1] to encourage something to happen or develop

Dictionary examples:
to promote peace
It has long been known that regular exercise promotes all-round good health.
Greenpeace works to promote awareness of the dangers that threaten our planet today.

Learner example:
A notable exception is the advertising of so-called "slow-food" restaurants, which promote [a] healthy lifestyle.

promotion /prəˈmaʊʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: promotion
Verbs: promote
ADVERTISEMENTS
[B2] [c or u] activities to advertise something

Dictionary examples:
a sales promotion
They're giving away free T-shirts as a special promotion.
Obviously as sales manager he'll be very involved in the promotion and marketing of the product.

Learner example:
There are different kinds of jobs people do during the festival, e.g. some organisational work, doing promotion for the different events or sell[ing] tickets for the concerts.

JOB
[B2] [c or u] when someone is given a more important job in the same organization

Dictionary examples:
Did Steve get the promotion he wanted?
The job offers excellent promotion prospects.

Learner example:
I would like to congratulate you [o]n your promotion.

ENCOURAGE
[C1] [u no plural] when you encourage something to happen or develop

Dictionary example:
the promotion of a healthy lifestyle

Learner example:
I would like an education more based on the needs of the country, but not only on the economic ones but also on the spiritual ones, such as the development of a cultural identity, the promotion of the arts, and the encouragement of an ecologically friendly way of producing wealth for the country as a whole.

prompt /ˈprɒmt/

Word family:
Adjectives: prompt
Adverbs: promptly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] done or acting quickly and without waiting, or arriving at the correct time

Dictionary examples:
prompt payment
a prompt reply
His prompt action certainly saved my life.
Learner example:
I look forward to your prompt reply.

VERB [T]

prompt sb to do sth

[C2] to make someone decide to say or do something

Dictionary examples:
What prompted you to say that?
I don't know what prompted him to leave.

Learner example:
What really touched my heart and prompted me to write this letter was the recently published series of articles about favourite possessions.

promptly /ˈprɒmp.tli/

Word family:
Adjectives: prompt
Adverbs: promptly

ADVERB

[B2] quickly, without delay, or at the arranged time

Dictionary examples:
We'll have to leave fairly promptly if we want to catch that train.
We try to answer readers' letters as promptly as we can.
She promised she'd keep it secret and promptly went and told Ben!

Learner example:
It provides a business lunch which is not very expensive and is served promptly.

prone /praʊn/

ADJECTIVE

be prone to sth/doing sth

[C2] to often do something or suffer from something, especially something bad

Dictionary example:
I'm prone to headaches.

Learner example:
They are prone to making lots of mistakes which they later learn from.

accident–/injury–, etc. prone

[C2] often having accidents/injuries, etc.
Dictionary example:
My son is very accident-prone.

Learner example:
Why not take advantage of their mistakes if it will mean that our lives will become less accident-prone?

pronoun /ˈprəʊ.naʊn/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a word which is used instead of a noun or a noun phrase

Dictionary examples:
Pronouns are often used to refer to a noun that has already been mentioned.
'She', 'it' and 'who' are all examples of pronouns.

pronounce /prəˈnaʊnts/

Word family:
Nouns: pronunciation
Verbs: pronounce

VERB [T]
[B1] to make the sound of a letter or word

Dictionary examples:
How do you pronounce your surname?
She pronounced his name so badly he didn't even recognise it.
Sade, pronounced shah-day, is a singer.

Learner example:
During the lesson many foreign students discover how to pronounce words in English.

pronunciation /prəˌnʌn.siˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: pronunciation
Verbs: pronounce

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] how words are pronounced

Dictionary examples:
Mario’s English pronunciation is excellent.
There are two different pronunciations of this word.
Learner example:
My teacher is a friendly young man called Peter. He comes from Scotland and this means that his accent and pronunciation are quite different.

proof /pruːf/

Word family:
Nouns: proof
Verbs: prove

NOUN [u]
[B2] a fact or a piece of information that shows something exists or is true

Dictionary examples:
She showed us her passport as proof of her identity.
Do they have any proof that it was Hampson who stole the goods?
Keep your receipt as proof of purchase.

Learner example:
The smile of a child is the best proof of the utility of zoos.

propaganda /ˌprɒp.əˈɡæn.də/

NOUN [u]
[C2] information or ideas, which are often false, that an organization prints or broadcasts to make people agree with what it is saying

Dictionary example:
political propaganda

Learner example:
It is clear that photographs, just as TV, can show the truth while at the same time concealing it. [...] It is a sign of the degree of democracy in a society, whether they act as reliable witnesses or as tools of propaganda.

proper /ˈprɒp.ər/

Word family:
Adjectives: proper
Adverbs: properly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

CORRECT
[B1] correct or suitable
Dictionary examples:
the proper way to do something
Please put those books back in the proper place.
If you're going to walk those sort of distances you need proper walking boots.

Learner example:
He is unable to speak proper English.

REAL
[B1] real and satisfactory

Dictionary examples:
his first proper job
I've had sandwiches but I haven't eaten a proper meal.

Learner example:
I [had to] change my previous profession (civil engineer) as I couldn't find a proper job.

properly /ˈprɒp.əli/

Word family:
Adjectives: proper
Adverbs: properly

ADVERB
[B1] correctly, or in a satisfactory way

Dictionary examples:
It's still not working properly.
I'm not properly dressed for this sort of weather.
Come on, Evie, speak properly – you're not a baby any more!

Learner example:
Unfortunately my bicycle is not working properly, so I was just wondering if I could borrow yours[?]

proper noun /ˈprɒp.ə,noun/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a word or group of words that is the name of a person or place and always begins with a capital letter

Dictionary example:
'London' is a proper noun.
property /ˈprɒp.ə.ti/

NOUN

THINGS OWNED

[B1] [u] objects that belong to someone

Dictionary examples:

lost property

The club does not accept responsibility for loss of or damage to club members' personal property.

Children need to be taught to have respect for other people’s property.

Learner example:

When I re[aliz]ed that I had lost it, I went to the lost property point in the shopping centre to ask about it, but they couldn't do anything for m[e].

BUILDING

[B2] [c or u] a building or area of land

Dictionary examples:

He owns a number of properties in the centre of London.

The notice said 'Private Property, Keep Off.'

Learner example:

Every shopkeeper and houseowner should ma[i]ntain their property, looking after gardens and plants that s[u]round it, trying to keep rub[b]ish out of sight.

proportion /ˌprəˈpɔːʃən/

NOUN

PART OF TOTAL

[C1] [c] a part of a total number or amount

Dictionary examples:

Children make up a large proportion of the world's population.

The class consists of men and women in roughly equal proportions.

Learner example:

A significant proportion of the respondents (80%) said that they are not pleased with dangerous roads and the queues during the rush–hours and they also encounter difficulties in finding a safe house to rent.

out of proportion

[C2] If something is out of proportion, it is much bigger or smaller than it should be, when compared to other things.
Dictionary example:
The punishment is completely out of proportion to the crime.

Learner example:
If you were doing it to make a profit, I could understand, but for a library it is just out of proportion [and] I even believe more people could be attracted [if] the prices decrease.

in proportion to [C2] If something changes in proportion to another thing, it changes to the same degree as that thing.

Dictionary example:
Your tax payment increases in proportion to your salary.

Learner example:
One aspect of the question is the fact that a sportsman's salary is supposedly not in proportion to the number of hours he works.

proposal /prəˈpəʊ.zəl/

Word family:
Nouns: proposal, proposition
Verbs: propose
Adjectives: proposed

NOUN [C]

PLAN
[B2] a suggestion for a plan

Dictionary examples:
a proposal to raise taxes
The proposal for a new sports hall has been rejected.
There has been an angry reaction to the government's proposal to reduce unemployment benefit.
There was anger at the proposal that a UN peacekeeping force should be sent to the area.

Learner example:
I would like you to consider my proposal [and] give me [your] response as soon as possible.

MARRY
[B2] when someone asks someone to marry them

Dictionary example:
As a young woman, she received several proposals.

Learner example:
After this, things went perfectly well, and Mary accepted his proposal to marry him.
propose /prəˈpəʊz/

Word family:

Nouns: proposal, proposition
Verbs: propose
Adjectives: proposed

VERB

SUGGEST

[B2] [t] to suggest a plan or action

Dictionary examples:
I propose that we delay our decision until we have more information.
proposed changes

Learner example:
I think [the] most important [thing] is that you understand our language. So I propose that you [attend] a school for the first two month[s].

propose to do sth

[B2] to intend to do something

Dictionary example:
They propose to cycle across Europe.

Learner example:
I propose to build a new hotel following the traditional architecture of the village.

MARRY

[B2] [i] to ask someone to marry you

Dictionary example:
He proposed to me on my birthday.

Learner example:
First he caught everybod[y’s] attention and straightaway he proposed marriage to her.

proposed /prəˈpəʊzd/

Word family:

Nouns: proposal, proposition
Verbs: propose
Adjectives: proposed

ADJECTIVE

[B2] suggested as an idea or plan

Dictionary example:
The proposed road would cut right through the forest.
Learner example:
I will need information about the price of the proposed vacation.

proposition /ˌprɒp.əˈzɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: proposal, proposition
Verbs: propose
Adjectives: proposed

NOUN [c]
[C1] an offer or suggestion, usually in business

Dictionary example:
an attractive/interesting proposition

Learner example:
If you will consider this proposition positively, then we would like to produce a deal for you to become our only importer in Britain.

prosecute /ˈprɔs.tʃjuːt/

Word family:
Nouns: prosecution, prosecutor
Verbs: prosecute

VERB
[C2] [I or T] to officially accuse someone of committing a crime in a court of law, or (of a lawyer) to try to prove that a person accused of committing a crime is guilty of that crime

Dictionary examples:
Shoplifters will be prosecuted.
He was prosecuted for fraud.
The victim has said that she will not prosecute.

Learner example:
Moreover, if our only worry is making money, we could be tempted to get involved in black [market] business, [but] that way we would run the risk of being prosecuted and brought to justice.
prosecution /ˌprɒs.ɪˈkjuːʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: prosecution, prosecutor
Verbs: prosecute

NOUN

the prosecution
[C2] [GROUP] the lawyers who are prosecuting someone in a court of law

Dictionary example:
The prosecution will begin presenting evidence today.

Learner example:
As [the] counsel for the prosecution insisted on [a] severe punishment, John was sent to serve his sentence in one of the worst jails in the country.

[C2] [c or u] when someone is prosecuted

Dictionary example:
The incident resulted in a number of prosecutions.

Learner example:
Most experts in the field agree that travelling may help to overcome nationalistic tendencies, which are present in many countries, far better than such short-term measures as prosecution by law.

prosecutor /ˈprɒs.rɪ.kjuː.tə/

Word family:
Nouns: prosecution, prosecutor
Verbs: prosecute

NOUN [c]

[C2] a lawyer who prosecutes people

Dictionary example:
Prosecutors allege that she knew about the plan.

Learner example:
However, it was after her graduation that her life began to change: she sat for a Public Examination in order to become a prosecutor.

prospect /ˈprɒs.pekt/

Word family:
Nouns: prospect
Adjectives: prospective
NOUN

POSSIBILITY
[B2] [c or u] the possibility that something good might happen in the future

Dictionary examples:
Is there any prospect of the weather improving?
Job prospects for graduates in the sciences are good.
We've been warned that there is a prospect of flooding due to the heavy rains.

Learner example:
With our effort, I am sure things will be realize[d] and the prospect is [bright].

sb's prospects
[B2] the possibility of being successful

Dictionary example:
The course will improve his career prospects.

Learner example:
I could learn many things from picking fruit and vegetables and improve my job prospects.

IDEA
[C2] [no plural] the idea of something that will happen in the future

Dictionary examples:
We face the prospect of having to start all over again.
I'm very excited at the prospect of seeing her again.

Learner example:
They were bewildered at the prospect of beginning a new life there.

prospective /prəˈspek.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: prospect
Adjectives: prospective

ADJECTIVE

prospective buyers/employers/parents, etc.
[C1] Prospective buyers, employers, parents, etc., are not yet buyers, employers, parents, etc., but are expected to be in the future.

Dictionary example:
We hold an open day for prospective students.

Learner example:
The page is useful for prospective students as well as for people who are already studying and plan to go abroad.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: prosperity</td>
<td>Nouns: prosperity</td>
<td>Nouns: prosperity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: prosper</td>
<td>Verbs: prosper</td>
<td>Verbs: prosper</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: prosperous</td>
<td>Adjectives: prosperous</td>
<td>Adjectives: prosperous</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VERB [i]

[C2] If a person or business prospers, they do well, especially financially.

Dictionary example:
The government needs to create conditions where trade can prosper.

Learner example:
The standards have to be readjusted to give the old and experienced members of society a new role in which they can prosper and still contribute to the benefit of all.

---

NOUN [u]

[C1] when a person or group of people is successful, usually by earning a lot of money

Dictionary example:
Our nation's prosperity comes from oil.

Learner example:
It is a typical tradition and the rice means prosperity for the couple.

---

ADJECTIVE

[C1] successful, usually by earning a lot of money

Dictionary example:
He is a prosperous car dealer.
Learner example:
Of course our employees will also benefit from the company becoming more prosperous.

prostitute /ˈprɒstɪ.tjuːt/

NOUN [C]
[C1] someone whose job is having sex with people

Dictionary example:
There were a lot of prostitutes working in the area.

Learner example:
Some people say they are prostitutes while others deny it.

protagonist /prəˈtæg.ənˌɪst/

NOUN [C] FORMAL
[C2] the main character in a play, film, or story

Dictionary example:
The protagonist is a singer named 'Jed'.

Learner example:
The male protagonist, Anatolij Wonoseltsen, a divorcee with two children, abandoned by his wife, is hoping to get a promotion to be able to provide for the family.

protect /prəˈtekt/

Word family:
Nouns: protection
Verbs: protect
Adjectives: protective

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to keep someone or something safe from something dangerous or bad

Dictionary examples:
clothing that protects you against the cold
It's important to protect your skin from the harmful effects of the sun.
Public pressure to protect the environment is strong and growing.

Learner example:
Hats protect me from the sun (my skin is very sensitive to the sun) and they are also pretty cool.
protection /prəˈtek.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: protection
Verbs: protect Adjectives: protective

NOUN [u]
[B2] the act of protecting or state of being protected

Dictionary examples:
This coat doesn't provide any protection against the rain.
Their tent gave/offered little protection against the severe storm.
New legislation still does not offer adequate protection for many endangered species.

Learner example:
I prefer to be accommodated in a log cabin because it gives better protection against the weather and I can sleep much better in it.

protective /prəˈtek.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: protection
Verbs: protect Adjectives: protective

ADJECTIVE

GIVING PROTECTION
[B2] giving protection

Dictionary examples:
protective clothing
a protective mask

Learner example:
Besides, I don’t want to wear any protective head-gear, which all the riders are obliged to wear.

WANTING TO PROTECT
[C1] wanting to protect someone from criticism, hurt, danger, etc. because you like them

Dictionary examples:
It's easy to be too protective towards/of your children.
She's fiercely protective of the man she married 29 years ago.

Learner example:
She is very protective with children [in] her custody and can get very aggressive to protect them from strangers or dogs.
protein /ˈprəʊ.tiːn/

NOUN [u]
[C1] food such as meat, cheese, fish, or eggs that is necessary for the body to grow and be strong

Dictionary example:
Nuts and fish both contain protein.

Learner example:
In miso soup, a lot of ingredients which have protein are used, and protein is a useful element to keep our body healthy.

---

protest /ˈprəʊ.test/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when people show that they disagree with something by standing somewhere, shouting, carrying signs, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a public protest against the war
a peaceful/violent protest

Learner example:
I believe that we could force the authorities to do something for us by joining [together] in a very big protest.

VERB /prəˈtest/

protest (about/against/at sth)
[B2] to show that you disagree with something by standing somewhere, shouting, carrying signs, etc.

Dictionary examples:
They're on strike to protest against job losses.
Students were protesting about cuts to the education budget.

Learner example:
Undoubtedly, the human rights’ defenders would protest.

COMPLAIN
[B2] [I or T] to say something forcefully or complain about something

Dictionary examples:
A lot of people protested about the new working hours.
They protested bitterly to their employers, but they wouldn’t listen.
A young girl was crying, protesting that she didn’t want to leave her mother.
Learner example:
I'd also like to point out that although the service is pleasant, it's a bit slow, which often makes the customers impatient and leads them to protest.

proud /praʊd/

Word family:
Adjectives: proud
Adverbs: proudly

ADJECTIVE

PLEASD
[B1] feeling very pleased about something you have done, something you own, or someone you know

Dictionary examples:
She was so proud of her son.
I'm very proud to be involved in this project.

Learner example:
Anyway I am so happy to hear that. I'm really proud of you.

be too proud (to do sth)
[B2] to not be able to do something, especially ask for help, because you are too embarrassed

Dictionary example:
He's too proud to ask you for any money.

Learner example:
She didn't want people to see her like this. She was too proud, too proud...

proudly /ˈpraʊd.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: proud
Adverbs: proudly

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that shows you are pleased about something you have done, something you own, or someone you know

Dictionary examples:
He proudly held out his trophy for us to admire.
There were photographs of all her children proudly displayed on the mantelpiece.
Learner example:
"Congratulations Alison!" her mum said proudly.

prove /pruːv/

Word family:
Nouns: proof
Verbs: prove

VERB [r]

SHOW TRUTH
[B1] to show that something is true

Dictionary examples:
Can you prove that you weren't there?
They proved him innocent/guilty.
That theory was proved false.
He's so aggressive – it's as if he's always trying to prove something.

Learner example:
It was real[ly] stressful because I wanted to prove that the level of my English is high enough for this class but I was too nervous to speak cor[r]ectly.

RESULT
[B2] to show a particular result or quality after a period of time

Dictionary examples:
The operation proved a complete success.
The new treatment has proved to be very effective.

Learner example:
John proved to be a good friend and I really thank him for what he did for me.

prove yourself
[C2] to show that you are good at something

Dictionary example:
I wish he'd stop trying to prove himself all the time.

Learner example:
Two weeks ago his coach had told him: "Morisson, you're going to play No.9 on Saturday against United, and it's going to be your last chance to prove yourself."
proverb /ˈprɒv.ɜːb/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a famous phrase or sentence which gives you advice

Dictionary example:
an ancient Chinese proverb

Learner example:
A well-known proverb says: "You should eat to live and not live to eat".

provide /prəˈvaɪrd/

Word family:
Nouns: provider, provision
Verbs: provide

VERB [T]
[B1] to give someone something that they need

Dictionary examples:
This booklet provides useful information/advice about local services.
All meals are provided throughout the course.

Learner example:
The restaurant provides excellent service.

provided (that) /prəˈvaɪrd.ɪd.ðət/ (ALSO providing (that))

CONJUNCTION
[B2] if, or only if

Dictionary example:
He’s welcome to come along, provided that he behaves himself.

Learner example:
Finally, provided that you have some money to spend, you can always have a great time strolling through shopping halls.

provider /prəˈvaɪ.reɪ/
NOUN [C]
[C1] someone who provides something

Dictionary examples:
an Internet service provider
The bank is now a major provider of financial services to industry.
Until her illness she was the main provider in the family.

Learner example:
I would like to complain about my gas and electricity provider Energy Plus.

province /ˈprɒv.ɪns/

Word family:
Nouns: province
Adjectives: provincial

NOUN
[C2] one of the large areas which some countries are divided into because of the type of government they have

Dictionary example:
the Canadian province of Alberta

Learner example:
Actually, it was never my intention to cross North America from coast to coast, but to travel around some cities in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

provincial /prəˈvɪnl/provision  /prəˈvɪʒ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: provider, provision
Verbs: provide

NOUN
[C1] [c or u] when something is provided

Dictionary examples:
The provision of good public transport will be essential for developing the area.
Of course there's provision in the plan for population increase.
When designing buildings in this area, you have to make provision against earthquakes.

Learner example:
Following serious complaints from students, I have read through the three proposals given to me regarding provision of food in the institute.

provocation  /ˌprɒv.əˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: provocation
Verbs: provoke

NOUN [c or u]
[C2] when someone makes you angry

Dictionary example:
He'll start a fight at the slightest provocation.

Learner example:
He carried out his professional duties with dignity and under the most severe provocation.

provoke  /prəˈvəʊk/

Word family:
Nouns: provocation
Verbs: provoke

VERB [T]
[C2] to cause a strong and usually angry reaction

Dictionary examples:
to provoke an argument
Her statement has provoked a public outcry.
Learner example:
On their coming back, they show these pictures to their neighbours to provoke the feelings of jealousy mixed with admiration.

proximity /prɒkˈsɪm.ə.ti/

NOUN [u] FORMAL
[C2] when something is near to something else

Dictionary example:
What's good about this hotel is its proximity to the airport.

Learner example:
In conclusion it can be said that the Schelde is a very interesting river which gives its surrounding citizens quite a few positive and negative reasons for living in its proximity.

psychiatrist /sarˈkar.ə.trɪst/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a doctor who is trained in psychiatry

Dictionary example:
He was referred to a psychiatrist.

Learner example:
He is a psychiatrist, she is doing her degree in geology.

psychological /ˌsaɪ.kəˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: psychologist, psychology
Adjectives: psychological
Adverbs: psychologically

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to the human mind and feelings

Dictionary examples:
psychological problems
He claims that the constant aircraft noise has a bad psychological effect on the residents.
We are concerned with the physical and psychological well-being of our employees.

Learner example:
To sum up, taking up team sports is important for school children as they are provided with important psychological and social experiences vital for their lives.
psychologically /ˌsaɪ.kəˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: psychologist, psychology
Adjectives: psychological
Adverbs: psychologically

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is connected to a person's psychological state

Dictionary example:
psychologically disturbed

Learner example:
It makes us like robots and [we] feel bad psychologically, because we want to be different and free [to wear what we want].

psychologist /ˈsaɪ.kɒl.ə.dʒɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: psychologist, psychology
Adjectives: psychological
Adverbs: psychologically

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who studies the human mind and human emotions and behaviour, and how different situations have an effect on them

Dictionary examples:
a child psychologist
an educational psychologist

Learner example:
Some psychologists claim that forcing pupils to study subjects they don't like can be frustrating for them or even reduce their intellectual potential.

psychology /ˈsaɪ.kɒl.ə.dʒi/

Word family:
Nouns: psychologist, psychology
Adjectives: psychological
Adverbs: psychologically

NOUN [U]
[B2] the scientific study of the way the human mind works and how it influences behaviour, or the influence of a particular person's character on their behaviour
Dictionary examples:
She studied psychology at Harvard.
a lecturer in psychology child psychology the psychology of the soldier

Learner example:
I think it would be a nice experience for me because I am studying psychology.

public /ˈpʌb.lik/

Word family:
Nouns: publicity
Adjectives: public
Adverbs: publicly

ADJECTIVE

GOVERNMENT
[B1] provided by the government from taxes to be available to everyone

Dictionary examples:
public funds/services/spending a public library

Learner example:
I’ve found an advertisement on the noticeboard outside the public library that might interest you.

PEOPLE
[B2] relating to or involving people in general, rather than being limited to a particular group of people

Dictionary examples:
Public opinion has turned against him.
Is it really in the public interest to publish this information?
We need to increase public awareness of the disease.
The results will not be made public until tomorrow.
We will not go public with the results until tomorrow.

Learner example:
I would like to add that when it comes to public opinion there is a great variety of different points of view – that is why this article, which asserts that “performers were second-rate” seems to be unfair.

a public announcement/appearance/statement, etc.
[C2] an announcement/appearance/statement, etc. that can be seen or heard or known by everyone

2313
Dictionary example:
The Prime Minister is due to make a public statement later today.

Learner example:
Therefore, Gonzalo never attempted to make a public statement to defend himself and underestimated the harm it could cause to his public image.

make sth public
[C2] to allow everyone to know about something

Dictionary example:
The government does not plan to make its findings public.

Learner example:
According to the scientific method of research, one should only make a discovery or conclusion public after deep testing and, even after that, this fact should never be taken as the most complete and definitive truth about any given subject.

NOUN

the public [+ SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]
[B1] all ordinary people

Dictionary examples:
The public has a right to know about this.
The palace and its grounds are open to the public during the summer months.
When will the product be available to the general public?
Members of the public were asked about their shopping habits.

Learner example:
That is great, because during this season a lot of towns usually celebrate and have parties in which you can dance, drink, eat and do one of the several activities that they offer to the public.

in public
[B2] in a place where other people, especially people you do not know, can hear you and see what you are doing

Dictionary example:
He shouldn’t behave like that in public.

Learner example:
This shyness makes it hard for me to speak in public, or even to go out with my friends as often as I should.

be in the public eye
[C1] to be famous and often featured in the media

Dictionary example:
Her new role means that she will be in the public eye.

Learner example:
But being famous also means that you are always in the public eye, which is a major drawback.
publication /ˌpʌb.ˈlɪkən/

Word family:
Nouns: publication, publisher
Verbs: publish

NOUN

BOOK, ETC.
[B2] [c] a book, magazine, newspaper or document in which information or stories are published

Dictionary example:
Our latest publication is a magazine for surfers.

Learner example:
Dear Sir, I am taking the opportunity to write to you [as] I used your publication "The Student Tourist Guidebook" during my last trip to Lampton.

PRINTING
[B2] [u] the act of making information or stories available to people in a printed form

Dictionary examples:
The brochure will be ready for publication in September.
Will you arrange the publication of the names of the winners?
When is the publication date?

Learner example:
First, I would like to thank you for the publication of [this] article.

---

publicity /pʌbˈlɪs.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: publicity
Adjectives: public
Adverbs: publicly

NOUN [u]
[B2] advertising or information about someone or something in the newspaper, on television, etc.

Dictionary examples:
bad/good publicity
We've planned an exciting publicity campaign with our advertisers.
The pop group's arrival by hot-air balloon was just a publicity stunt.
Learner example:
We could also prepare a special publicity campaign because we want all the people in Britain [to] know how wonderful our town is.

publicly /ˈpʌb.lɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: publicity
Adjectives: public
Adverbs: publicly

ADVERB
[C1] If something is done publicly, it is done so that everyone can know about it

Dictionary example:
The company publicly apologized and agreed to contribute some money to charity.

Learner example:
It would be a sound opportunity for our singers to perform their new albums and make their work publicly known.

public transport /ˌpʌb.lɪkˈtræn.spɔːt/

NOUN [U]
[B1] a system of vehicles such as buses and trains which operate at regular times on fixed routes and are used by the public

Dictionary example:
Greater investment in public transport would keep more cars off the roads.

Learner example:
I travelled by public transport.

publish /ˈpʌb.lɪʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: publication, publisher
Verbs: publish

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[B1] to make information available to people, especially in a book, magazine or newspaper, or to produce and sell a book, magazine or newspaper
Dictionary examples:
She's just had an article published in their weekend supplement.
The Government publishes figures every six months showing how many people are unemployed.
The names of the winners of the competition will be published in June.
She was only 19 when her first novel was published.

Learner example:
My article was published and I received 500 pounds.

publisher /ˈpʌb.lɪ.ʃə/

Word family:
Nouns: publication, publisher
Verbs: publish

NOUN [C]
[B2] a company or person who prepares and prints books, newspapers, magazines, etc.

Dictionary example:
He works for a publisher in Edinburgh.

Learner example:
I suggest that the music publisher should organise more concerts for us and give us more chances to listen to "real music" not just tapes.

pudding /ˈpʊd.ɪŋ/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a sweet dish that is usually eaten as the last part of a meal

Dictionary examples:
We've got apple pie for pudding.
a sticky toffee pudding

Learner example:
The pudding was delicious.
pull /pʊl/

VERB

pull sth off/out/up

[B1] to take hold of something and use physical effort to remove it from somewhere

Dictionary examples:
- I pulled the plug out.
- He pulled off his sweater.
- I spent the morning pulling up the weeds in the flowerbeds.

Learner example:
- My TV is broken because of my little sister: she pulled out the cable.

pull yourself along/up, etc.

[B2] to take hold of something and use effort to move your body forwards or up

Dictionary example:
- She pulled herself up the stairs, holding onto the rail.

Learner example:
- Rollo and the police ran after him and then Rollo fired wounding Harry, who started to pull himself up the stairs to a manhole above his head and then he died.

pull a muscle

[C2] to injure a muscle by stretching it too much

Dictionary example:
- I've pulled a muscle in my leg.

pull your weight

[C2] to work as hard as other people in a group

Dictionary example:
- The rest of the team complained that Sarah wasn't pulling her weight.

Learner example:
- For instance, before your kin get all nice and comfortable, you could ask them to pull their weight around the house by doing a few jobs.

pull strings

[C2] to secretly use the influence that you have over important people to get something or to help someone

Dictionary example:
- I may be able to pull a few strings, if you need the money urgently.
Learner example:
This isn't secret: I thought some of these ideas might be of interest and perhaps an article about them in your newspaper would pull the necessary strings at the City Hall to produce some very much needed changes.

pullover /ˈpʊl.əuvə/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a warm piece of clothing which covers the top of your body and is pulled on over your head

Dictionary example:
a black woolly pullover

Learner example:
My favo[u]rite pullover is one with small hearts.

pulse /pʌls/

NOUN [c]
[C1] the regular movement of blood through your body when your heart is beating

Dictionary examples:
She put her fingers on my wrist to take my pulse (=count the number of beats per minute).
My pulse rate is 70.

Learner example:
Nowadays, stressful things are all around you. They have bad effects on your work, private life or education, as well as sometimes causing you health problems such as high blood pressure, an irregular pulse, etc.

have/keep your finger on the pulse [C2] to be/stay familiar with the most recent changes or improvements

Dictionary example:
The situation changes daily, so you've got to keep your finger on the pulse.

Learner example:
It wouldn't be clever to hire people who are completely ignora[nt] about music and they must constantly keep their finger on the pulse of [the] music industry.
pump /pʌmp/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a piece of equipment which is used to cause liquid, air or gas to move from one place to another

Dictionary examples:
- a water/bicycle pump
- a fuel/petrol pump

Learner example:
You need to connect a[n] oxygen pump supplying oxygen [which is] require[d] by goldfish.

---

punch /pʌntʃ/

NOUN [c]

[B2] when you hit someone or something with your fist

Dictionary example:
a punch on the nose

Learner example:
He gave me a punch and we started to fight.

VERB [T]

[B2] to hit someone or something with your fist

Dictionary example:
He punched him in the stomach.

Learner example:
She start[ed] crying and she punched me!

---

punctuation /ˌpʌŋk.tjuˈeɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [u]

[B1] the use of punctuation marks in writing so that people can see when a sentence begins and finishes, that something is a question, etc.

Dictionary example:
His letter was completely without punctuation.
punish /ˈpʌn.ɪʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: punishment
Verbs: punish

VERB [T]

[B1] to make someone suffer because they have done something bad

Dictionary examples:
Those responsible for these crimes must be brought to court and punished.
He punished the class by giving them extra work.

Learner example:
I'll be punished by my parents, because [I told them] a lie.

punishment /ˈpʌn.ɪʃ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: punishment
Verbs: punish

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] when someone is punished

Dictionary examples:
He had to stay in his bedroom as a punishment for fighting.
Many people think that the death penalty is too severe a punishment for any crime.

Learner example:
I was punished, nearly expelled, but Pat didn't receive any punishment.

puppy /ˈpʌp.i/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a young dog

Dictionary example:
a litter of puppies

Learner example:
I was on the beach when my mobile phone rang. I knew that my mother was going to [tell] me that my puppy [was] dead, [so] I didn't answer the call.
purchase /ˈpɜː.tʃəs/  FORMAL

VERB [T]

[B2] to buy

Dictionary examples:
- Tickets must be purchased two weeks in advance.
- She purchased her first house with the money.

Learner example:
Of course I was able to purchase a second-hand one but I thought that it was a good investment to have a new computer with up-to-date software.

NOUN

THING BOUGHT

[B2] [c] something that you buy

Dictionary examples:
- How do you wish to pay for your purchases?
- a major purchase

Learner example:
The other day I was standing in a large department store waiting to pay for a couple of films for my camera when the assistant announced that the computer which controlled the till had stopped working. So there we were: a shop full of customers, money at the ready, waiting to make our purchases.

ACT OF BUYING

[B2] [c or u] the act of buying something

Dictionary examples:
- New restrictions have been placed on the purchase of guns.
- A house is the most expensive purchase that most people ever make.
- No purchase is necessary for you to enter this competition.
- This product may be frozen. If required, freeze on day of purchase.

Learner example:
Report on the purchase of English videos

---

pure /ˈpjoʊər/

Word family:
Nouns: purity
Adjectives: pure
Adverbs: purely 2322

ADJECTIVE

NOT MIXED

[B1] A pure substance is not mixed with anything else.

Dictionary examples:
- pure gold
- a pure cotton shirt

Learner example:
Its domes are made of pure copper, inside there's a big bell called "Zygmunt".

CLEAN

[B1] clean and healthy

Dictionary examples:
The mountain air was wonderfully pure.
Tap water is never chemically pure.

Learner example:
The weather is sunny, the gentle breeze is pure and fresh.

EMPHASIS

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to emphasize that a feeling, quality, or state is completely and only that thing

Dictionary examples:
pure coincidence
Her face had a look of pure delight.

Learner example:
It switches your mind off and stretches all your muscles at the same time. It's pure refreshment!

purely /′pjʊə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: purity
Adjectives: pure
Adverbs: purely

ADVERB

[C1] only

Dictionary example:
She married him purely for his money.

Learner example:
And we had to arrange our social programme purely by ourselves.
purity /ˈpjʊə.rə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: purity
Adjectives: pure
Adverbs: purely

NOUN [u]
[C1] the quality of being pure

Dictionary example:
air purity

Learner example:
The beauty, purity and power of Chinese poems is hard to resist.

purpose /ˈpɜː.ˈpəs/

NOUN

REASON
[B1] [c] why you do something or why something exists

Dictionary examples:
The main purpose of the meeting is to discuss the future of the company.
The drug may be legalized for medical purposes.
a multi-purpose kitchen knife

Learner example:
I think the purpose of it was to make the atmosphere more relax[ed].

on purpose
[B1] intentionally

Dictionary example:
I didn't do it on purpose, it was an accident.

Learner example:
I didn't do it on purpose; it was dark and I just walked into it.

serve a/the purpose
[C2] to have a use

Dictionary example:
These small village shops serve a very useful purpose.

Learner example:
They introduced meetings at Miss Kenton's parlour which were held every evening and served [the] purpose of discussing house running.
INTENTION

[C2] [u] the feeling of knowing what you want to do

Dictionary example:
He seems to have lost all sense of purpose.

Learner example:
Emotional stability, a sense of purpose and direction in life, true and deep relationships with the people around us, all these issues are equally, if not more, important than economic security.

to all intents and purposes

[C2] in all the most important ways

Dictionary example:
To all intents and purposes, the project was a disaster.

Learner example:
To all intents and purposes, the qualities needed to achieve success are based on the same ideas.

pursue /pəˈsjuː/

Word family:
Nouns: pursuit
Verbs: pursue

VERB [T]

[C1] If you pursue a plan, activity, or situation, you try to do it or achieve it, usually over a long period of time.

Dictionary examples:
She decided to pursue a career in television.
We suspect that our boss is pursuing a hidden agenda.

Learner example:
I will be shortly pursuing a degree course in computing and I would like to obtain first the entry qualification that is required for the degree course.

pursuit /pəˈsjuːt/

Word family:
Nouns: pursuit
Verbs: pursue

NOUN [u]

[C2] when you try to achieve a plan, activity, or situation, usually over a long period of time
Dictionary examples:
the pursuit of pleasure
He left his native country in pursuit of freedom.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, despite these claims, the primary motivation for any self-respecting athlete is the pursuit of excellence, attaining cutting-edge skills in their sport.

push /pʊʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: push
Verbs: push
Adjectives: pushy

VERB

MOVE YOURSELF

[B1] [I or T] to move somewhere by moving someone or something away from you

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry – I didn't mean to push in front of you.
She pushed through the crowd.
He pushed past the waiting journalists, refusing to speak to them.
They pushed their way to the front of the queue.

PRESS

[B1] [T] to press something

Dictionary example:
If you push this button, the seat goes back.

Learner example:
I was feeling very angry when I pushed the answer button.

push (sb) for sth/to do sth

[B2] to try hard to achieve something or to make someone do something

Dictionary examples:
Local residents are pushing for the road to be made wider.
We had to push them to accept our terms, but they finally agreed to the deal.

Learner example:
Governments should push young artists to get involved in their work.

push yourself

[B2] to make yourself work very hard in order to achieve something

Dictionary example:
She really pushed herself when she was at school.
Learner example:
Don't push yourself too hard and remember to drink more water.

ENCOURAGE
[C1] [r] to try to make someone do something that they do not want to do

Dictionary example:
My mother pushed me into having ballet lessons.

Learner example:
The biggest help though was my parents who were really understand[ing] and didn't push me too hard into learning English and that's why I succeed.

NOUN

PRESS
[B1] [c usually no plural] when you move someone or something by pressing them with your hands or body

Dictionary examples:
Get on the swing and I'll give you a push.
I gave the door a hard push, but it still wouldn't open.

Learner example:
The door was open, so I gave it a push.

ENCOURAGEMENT
[C1] [c] encouragement to make someone do something

Dictionary example:
I'm sure he'll go, he just needs a little push that's all.

Learner example:
I knew before what I was capable of doing but I really needed a push.

if/when push comes to shove [INFORMAL] [C2] If you say that something can be done if push comes to shove, you mean that it can be done if the situation becomes so bad that you have to do it.

Dictionary example:
If push comes to shove, we'll just have to sell the car.

Learner example:
There are several option[s] you can choose from when push comes to shove.
 pushy /ˈpʊʃ.i/

Word family:

Nouns: push
Verbs: push
Adjectives: pushy

ADJECTIVE
[C2] behaving in an unpleasant way by trying too much to get something or to make someone do something

Dictionary example:
a pushy salesman

Learner example:
It’s bad enough that pushy parents try to turn their children into sports or music stars for the only reason to fulfil their own, never-achieved ambitions.

put /pʊt/

VERB [T] (putting, put, put)

CAUSE
[B2] to cause someone or something to be in a particular condition or situation

Dictionary examples:
What’s put you in such a bad mood?
I’m not prepared to put my children at risk.
I’m looking forward to putting my ideas into practice.
He’s putting me under pressure to change my mind.
The terrorists were put on trial six years after the bombing.

Learner example:
If we put my plan into practice, we can help to resolve the city’s financial problems and reduce local taxes.

put an end to sth
[B2] to cause something to stop

Dictionary example:
We must put an end to this violence.

Learner example:
That is all I can say about [what] I have seen [on] my last visit to the zoo, and in my opinion the authorities have to do something in order to put an end to it.

put pressure on sb
[B2] to try to force someone to do something 2328

Dictionary example:
They’re putting pressure on me to make a decision.

Learner example:
She puts a lot of pressure on me and believes that I can do it in the same way as she did.

put sb in a difficult position
[C1] to cause someone to be in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
When two of your best friends argue it puts you in a very difficult position.

Learner example:
I know that I will put you in a difficult position with my absence but I must leave.

put your mind to sth
[C1] to give your full attention to something and try very hard to do it

Dictionary example:
You could win if you put your mind to it.

Learner example:
With all the technology available, the task is actually quite simple if you put your mind to it.

put something into practice
[C1] to do something in reality that has been planned or talked about

Dictionary examples:
Next month we will have a chance to put these ideas into practice.
How do you intend to put these proposals into practice?

Learner example:
The doctors cannot really put all their skills into practice.

put a stop to sth
[C1] to end something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
We must put a stop to the violence.

Learner example:
Maybe these new activities (video – videogames), which are quite distracting, are at the same time so addictive that youngsters find it hard to put a stop to it.

SAY
[C2] to say something using particular words

Dictionary example:
I need to tell him I don’t like it but I don’t know how to put it.

Learner example:
Although I agree that there are awful programs on, I think a total ban would be, how shall I put it, exaggerated.
put sb to death
[C2] to kill someone as a punishment

Dictionary example:
She was put to death for her beliefs.

Learner example:
He has become dangerous for Jack and must thus be eliminated, put to death.

put your finger on sth
[C2] to understand exactly why a situation is the way it is

Dictionary example:
Something was wrong, but I couldn't put my finger on it.

Learner example:
Something sinister about the picture, he felt, but he couldn't put his finger on what made him [think this].

put sb/sth first [C2] to consider someone or something to be the most important thing

Dictionary example:
Most couples put their children first when sorting out their problems.

Learner example:
On the other hand, we forget about our personality and the worth that we have as individuals; we put our wishes first, [rather] than what we really need in life.

put your foot down
[C2] to tell someone in a strong way that they must do something or must stop doing something

Dictionary example:
I decided to put my foot down with my staff and insist that they do not send personal emails in work time.

Learner example:
Finally, I would like to appeal to other readers of the 'Cyprus Weekly', who might even be living near my area, to put your foot down and apply any pressure you can on people who can do something about the situation.

put your foot in it [C2] to say something silly or embarrassing, without intending to

Dictionary example:
I really put my foot in it with your mum – I didn't know she was a teacher herself.

Learner example:
I had really put my foot in it by telling Richard that it would better for him not to come to the party.
put your feet up
[C2] to relax, especially by sitting with your feet supported above the ground

Dictionary example:
Put your feet up for half an hour before the kids get home.

Learner example:
You have done your work and now you can put your feet up.

put sb in their place
[C2] to let someone know that they are not as important as they think they are

Dictionary example:
He was rather arrogant, but the other kids soon put him in his place.

put sth to one side
[C2] to not use or deal with something now, but keep it for a later time

Dictionary example:
She put the papers to one side, intending to read them later.

put sb on the spot
[C2] to ask someone a question which is difficult or embarrassing to answer at that time

Dictionary example:
Sorry to put you on the spot, but I really need an answer.

puzzle  /ˈpʌz.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: puzzle
Verbs: puzzle
Adjectives: puzzled

NOUN [C]

SITUATION
[C2] a situation which is very difficult to understand

Dictionary example:
Scientists have been trying to solve this puzzle for years.

Learner example:
As I watched the slow, emerging awareness of humanity, by a chthonic spirit (that of Death itself), coming to terms with the vast contradictions and the harsh, but also bliss-endowed human nature, the soft piano melody internalizing both a child’s curiosity before the unknown, as well as an adult’s awakening to what his life amounts to, I was thrilled, but also deeply saddened, for I felt that from worthy, meaning-filled fragments of the puzzle that life is, my own piecing together was incomplete: I could not prevent a small sob, which was, almost simultaneously, echoed.
VERB

[C1] to make someone confused because they do not understand something

Dictionary example:
I was puzzled by what he said.

Learner example:
Dear Fiona, I was really touched by your concern regarding our daily life at the moment but I was also quite puzzled.

puzzled /ˈpʌz.d/

Word family:
Nouns: puzzle
Verbs: puzzle
Adjectives: puzzled

ADJECTIVE

[B2] confused because you do not understand something

Dictionary examples:
He had a puzzled look on his face.
I’m a bit puzzled that I haven’t heard from Liz for so long.

Learner example:
To the editor, I am puzzled by the report which appeared on yesterday’s page 2, concerning the Westfield Music Festival.

pyjamas /ˈpədʒə.məz/

NOUN [PLURAL]

[B2] soft loose clothing which is worn in bed and consists of trousers and a type of shirt

Dictionary example:
I need a new pair of pyjamas.

Learner example:
The horrible embarrassing moment was about to happen. Smiling, the clerk said: “Sorry madams, you are in pyjamas” pyramid /ˈpɪr.aˌmɪd/

NOUN [c]

[C1] a shape with a square base and four triangular sides that meet to form a point at the top

Dictionary example:
The stones were shaped into a pyramid.

Learner example:
The King was living in his great palace with a view [of] the biggest pyramid in the village, smaller ones were [situated] around it.
quaint /ˈkwɛɪnt/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] attractive or unusual in an old-fashioned way

Dictionary example:
a quaint little village

Learner example:
The quaint cafes would be replaced by McDonald's and the charm of the place would be lost.

---

qualification /ˌkwɒl.ɪ.fəˈkeɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: qualification
Verbs: qualify, disqualify
Adjectives: qualified, unqualified

NOUN

STUDY
[B1] [C OFTEN PLURAL] something that you get when you are successful in an exam or course of study

Dictionary examples:
You'll never get a good job if you don't have any qualifications.
Does he have any legal/teaching qualifications?
Requirements for the job include a qualification in nursing.

Learner example:
To improve my qualification[s], I joined the Cambridge Business class.

COMPETITION
[C1] [u] success in getting into a competition

Dictionary example:
England's qualification for the World Cup.

Learner example:
The video tells how particular national teams got through their qualification for finals and then presents the most interesting games that took place in Italy '92.
SKILLS
[C2] [C OFTEN PLURAL] a skill, quality, etc. that you need in order to be able to do something, especially a job

Dictionary example:
The main qualification for this job is the ability to get on with people.

Learner example:
An international profile is one of the most emphasized qualifications.

qualified /ˈkwɒl.ɪ.faɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: qualification
Verbs: qualify, disqualify
Adjectives: qualified, unqualified

ADJECTIVE

PASSED EXAMS
[B1] having passed the exams needed for a particular job

Dictionary examples:
a newly qualified teacher
Tim is now a qualified architect.

Learner example:
I'd like to inform you that the courses are very interesting because of the qualified teachers in this college.

HAVING SKILLS
[B2] having the skills, qualities or experience that you need in order to do something

Dictionary examples:
John is really the best qualified to make that decision.
I'm not really qualified to give advice on the subject.

Learner example:
I don't think that anyone else in my country is qualified to take over his seat.

qualify /ˈkwɒl.ɪ.fai/
VERB

PASS EXAMS
[B2] [I or T] to pass the exams that allow you to do a particular job

Dictionary examples:
She hopes to qualify as a lawyer at the end of the year.
He qualified in medicine in 1992.
This course qualifies you to teach in any secondary school.

BE ALLOWED
[B2] [I or T] If you qualify for something, you are allowed to do it or have it.

Dictionary examples:
To qualify for the competition you need to be over 18.
She doesn't qualify for maternity leave because she hasn't been in her job long enough.

Learner example:
If you think I qualify for the job, you can contact me [at] the address written above.

SPORT
[B2] [I] to succeed in getting into a competition or in reaching a particular stage in a competition

Dictionary examples:
Nigeria were the first team to qualify for the World Cup.
Both sides failed to qualify.

Learner example:
I left the stadium disappointed, fearing that Portugal would not qualify for the World Championships once more.

quality /ˈkwɒl.ə.ti/

NOUN

GOOD OR BAD
[B1] [U NO PLURAL] how good or bad something is

Dictionary examples:
good/high quality
poor/low quality
The air quality in this area is terrible.
All we are asking for is a decent quality of life.

Learner example:
It's good quality and can play any types of DVD.
GOOD
[B1] [u] when something is very good or well made

Dictionary example:
I was impressed by the quality of their clothes.

Learner example:
They're more expensive than I expected but I prefer quality to quantity.

CHARACTER
[B2] [c] a part of someone's character

Dictionary examples:
leadership qualities
He has a lot of good qualities but being organized isn't one of them.
She's a woman of great personal qualities.
I don't think he has the right qualities to be a teacher.

Learner example:
Moreover, I have other qualities such as politeness, and I feel pleased when helping people, thus I am capable of looking after members of the public.

ADJECTIVE
[B1] very good

Dictionary example:
We only sell quality products in this store.

Learner example:
There are many good shops which sell quality products and they are not that expensive.

quantity /ˈkwɒn.tə.ti/

NOUN [C or U]

AMOUNT
[B1] the amount or number of something

Dictionary examples:
Police found a large/small quantity of drugs in his possession.
We consume vast quantities of sugar in this country.
They are now developing ways to produce the vaccine in large quantities.
This recipe is only for four, so I usually do double the quantity if I'm cooking for my family.

Learner example:
They're more expensive than I expected but I prefer quality to quantity.

LARGE AMOUNT
[B2] a lot of something
Dictionary example:
I’m just amazed at the quantity of food that gets eaten.

Learner example:
What surprised me was the quantity of incorrect figures reported in your article.

an unknown quantity
[C2] someone or something that you do not know and so you cannot be certain about

Dictionary example:
The road conditions in that area are a bit of an unknown quantity.

Learner example:
As mentioned above, [the] laser [beam] was an unknown quantity even to its inventor and those who contributed to its enhancement.

quarrel  /ˈkwɔr.əl/

NOUN [c]
[B2] an argument

Dictionary examples:
She had a quarrel with her neighbour.
They had a quarrel about/over money a few months back.

Learner example:
Sometimes, we can have quarrels with our parents who refuse to support our ideas.

VERB [i]
[B2] to argue

Dictionary example:
I was always quarrelling with my brother.

Learner example:
In spite of that, I found it difficult to forgive her as she had hurt my feelings; that's why the only thing I could tell her since we had quarrelled was: "It serves you right, I'll hate you for the rest of your life!"
quarter /ˈkwɔː.tər/

NOUN

PART OF TOWN

[C2] [c] a part of a town, often where people from a particular country or religion live

Dictionary example:
the Jewish quarter

Learner example:
It will surely add to the development of the Podgoize quarter but also will sustain the development of all the little shops in this area.

query /ˈkwɪər.i/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a question

Dictionary example:
If you have any queries about your treatment, the doctor will answer them.

Learner example:
If you have any further queries, please contact me [on] 01–234567.

quest /kwest/

NOUN [c] FORMAL LITERARY

[C2] an attempt to get something or do something difficult

Dictionary examples:
the quest for truth
He has begun his quest to become the Conservative Party's first Asian MP.

Learner example:
This stimulation is essential in our quest for spiritual and emotional well-being and exerts a profound effect on our psyche.
question /ˈkwes.tʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: question
Verbs: question
Adjectives: questionable

NOUN

PROBLEM
[B2] [c] a situation or problem that needs to be dealt with or considered

Dictionary examples:
This raises the question of teacher pay.
Two important questions arise from this debate.

Learner example:
Then it raises an important question: "[Do] museums provide enough to interest young people?"

DOUBT
[B2] [u] doubt or uncertainty

Dictionary examples:
There's no question that this was an accidental fire.
There's no question about whose fault it is.
Whether children are reading fewer books is open to question.
This latest report calls into question the safety of the drug.
His ability has never been in question.

Learner example:
There's no question that it was absolutely great!

be a question of
[C1] used for saying what the most important issue is in a situation

Dictionary example:
Someone needs to be here – it’s a question of who would be the best person.

Learner example:
The choice is a question of price.

sb/sth in question
[C2] the person or thing that is being discussed

Dictionary example:
He claims that he was in the pub with his girlfriend on the night in question.

Learner example:
While this is not necessarily false, it should be borne in mind that the events in question are by no means boring or uninteresting.
be out of the question
[C2] If something is out of the question, it is not possible or not allowed.

Dictionary example:
Providing more money is out of the question.

Learner example:
Walking home was out of the question since that would have taken even longer.

pose a/the question FORMAL
[C2] to ask a question

Dictionary example:
It was left to Grazia to pose the question of how the project was to be funded.

Learner example:
For instance, you can pose a question concerning music to your listeners and the person who is going to call first to answer – correctly of course – will gain a small sum of money.

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

ASK
[B2] to ask a person about something, especially officially

Dictionary examples:
Several men were questioned by police yesterday about the burglary. 68% of those questioned in the survey thought noise levels had increased.

Learner example:
A total of 60 per cent of those questioned suggested that we should find sponsorship for all activities. 30 per cent of those questioned said that there are not enough seats in the reception area.

EXPRESS DOUBT
[B2] to feel or express doubt about something

Dictionary examples:
I'm not for a moment questioning your decision. I'm just questioning whether we need the extra staff.

Learner example:
It may sound funny, but mud, gravel and snow lying on the school's floors is not a nice sight, so we change our shoes without questioning that rule.

questionable /ˈkwes.tʃən.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: question
Verbs: question
Adjectives: questionable
ADJECTIVE

NOT CERTAIN
[C2] possibly not true or correct

Dictionary example:
It is highly questionable whether this drug has any benefits at all.

Learner example:
However, it is questionable whether this is possible.

NOT HONEST
[C2] not honest or not legal

Dictionary example:
He's being investigated for questionable business practices.

Learner example:
I am a policeman, in fact, [or rather] I used to be one until I was ejected [from] the department because of questionable procedures to enforce the law.

question mark /ˈkwes.tʃəˌmɑːk/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the ? punctuation mark that is put at the end of a phrase or sentence to show that it is a question questionnaire /ˌkwes.tʃəˈneər/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a set of questions asked of a large number of people to discover information about a subject

Dictionary example:
Residents have been sent questionnaires about their homes and energy use.

Learner example:
I had to fill in a questionnaire about myself.

queue /ˈkjuː/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a line of people waiting for something, one behind the other
Dictionary examples:
Are you in the queue?
There's a long queue for tickets.
There's a queue to get in.
There was a long queue of traffic stretching down the road.
If you want tickets you'll have to join the queue.

Learner example:
So we can buy the tickets and the popcorn and relax, without having to wait in a big queue.

VERB [I] (also queue up)
[B2] to wait in a line of people, often to buy something

Dictionary examples:
We had to queue for three hours to get in.
Dozens of people were queueing up to get tickets.

Learner example:
I queued for at least an hour because the ticket machine broke down.

quiet /ˈkwɛət/ - quiet

Word family:
Nouns: quiet
Adjectives: quiet
Adverbs: quietly

ADJECTIVE
NOT TALKING MUCH
[B1] If someone is quiet, they talk very little.

Dictionary examples:
He was a shy, quiet man.
I was a bit worried about her – she seemed very quiet.

Learner example:
He's a quiet person but I'm [that] too.

keep (sth) quiet
[C2] to not talk about something that is secret

Dictionary example:
It might be wise to keep this quiet for a while.

Learner example:
They tried to keep it quiet but, somehow, half the village knew about the news in a few days.

NOUN [u]
[B2] when there is little or no noise
Dictionary example:
She needs a bit of peace and quiet.

Learner example:
At least if you were working in a museum, you would probably have some peace and quiet.

quietly /ˈkwaɪət.li/

Word family:
Nouns: quiet
Adjectives: quiet
Adverbs: quietly

ADVERB

WITHOUT NOISE
[B1] making little or no noise

Dictionary example:
"Don't worry," she said quietly.

Learner example:
They were talking quietly and just before [getting into] the car, they kissed.

WITHOUT ACTIVITY
[B1] doing something without much noise or activity

Dictionary example:
He sat quietly on the sofa, reading a book.

Learner example:
It was about eight o'clock in the evening, I was watching TV quietly in my living-room when the phone rang.

quit /kwɪt/ (quitting, quit, quit)

VERB

STOP WORK
[B1] [I or T] to leave a job

Dictionary examples:
I hated the work so much that I quit.
Would you quit your job if you inherited lots of money?

Learner example:
Winning let me quit my job and I could afford [to] study more English than I used to do.
STOP SOMETHING
[B1] [ɪ] to stop doing something

Dictionary examples:
I'm going to quit smoking.
Quit wasting my time!
Press Q to quit the program.

Learner example:
And, last but not least, quit smoking!

---

quite /ˈkwæt/

ADVERB

quite a bit
[B1] INFORMAL a lot

Dictionary examples:
He does quite a bit of travelling.
She's quite a bit older than him.

Learner example:
We spent quite a bit of time [going] along the beach.

COMPLETELY
[B1] completely

Dictionary examples:
Are you quite sure you want to go?
I'm quite happy to go myself if you'd prefer that.
The two situations are quite different.

Learner example:
I'm quite sure you will love my country, especially the Amazon basins and the biggest rain-forest [in] the world!

quite a while
[B1] a long time

Dictionary examples:
I hadn't seen Rebecca in quite a while.
It took quite a while to clean out the garage.

Learner example:
But although I have what you could call "simple" tastes, it takes me quite a while to decide what to buy.
not quite
[BZ] almost but not completely

Dictionary examples:
I'm not quite sure that I understand this.
The colours almost match but not quite.
He didn't get quite enough votes to win.

Learner example:
The student cafe has a welcoming atmosphere and most people said it was nice to sit and to drink coffee there. The only problem is that there are not quite enough tables and chairs for everyone at busy times.

quotation /ˈkwəʊteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: quotation, quote
Verbs: quote

NOUN [C]

PHRASE
[C2] a sentence or phrase that is taken out of a book, poem, or play

Dictionary example:
a quotation from Shakespeare

Learner example:
Women also played an important role in his life, so it might also be a good idea to show pictures of his "muses" framed by quotations from his novels.

COST
[C2] the amount that a piece of work will probably cost

Dictionary example:
Make sure you get a quotation for all the work before they start.

Learner example:
I have attached a current quotation from the retailer who supplies that dining table.

quote /kwəut/

Word family:
Nouns: quotation, quote
Verbs: quote
VERB [i or T]

REPEAT
[C1] to repeat the words that someone else has said or written

Dictionary examples:
I was quoting from Marx.
Can I quote you on that?
"If they're flexible, we're flexible", the official was quoted as saying.

Learner example:
Let me quote another sentence: "...carefully selected host families".

GIVE EXAMPLE
[C1] to give a fact or example to support what you are saying

Dictionary example:
The minister quoted recent unemployment figures.

Learner example:
We would like to quote some facts to support our points of view.

COST
[C2] to say how much a piece of work will cost before you do it

Dictionary example:
He quoted for replacing the whole roof.

Learner example:
I have spoken to the service department at IKEA and they have quoted me £400 to fix the whole thing back to its original shape.

NOUN [C]

REPEAT
[C2] the repeat of words that someone else has said or written

Dictionary example:
Use plenty of quotes from her poems in your essay.

Learner example:
My beloved diary [included] hundreds of quotes and drawings, illustrating my most intimate thoughts.

COST
[C2] a document or statement saying how much a piece of work will cost

Dictionary example:
I got three quotes for the work.

Learner example:
I have already obtained a quote to have [the] damage repaired.
race /rɛrs/

Word family:
Nouns: race, racism, racist
Adjectives: racial, racist
Adverbs: racially

NOUN

PEOPLE
[C1] [c or u] one of the groups that people are divided into according to physical characteristics such as colour of skin

Dictionary examples:
people of many different races
Discrimination on grounds of race will not be tolerated.
An increasing number of people in the country are of mixed race.

Learner example:
A student was taught how to lead negotiations with a business partner regardless of their age, nationality, race and culture.

FOR POWER
[C1] [c] a situation in which people compete against each other for power, control or success

Dictionary example:
the race for governor

Learner example:
The race for sponsors and TV-minutes has begun.

VERB

COMPETITION
[B1] [t or ɹ] to compete in a race

Dictionary examples:
He has been racing for over ten years.
I used to race against him when we were boys.

Learner example:
Cycling has also given me the opportunity to race as well as train in Europe and the U.S.
race along/down/over, etc.
[C1] to move somewhere very quickly

Dictionary example:
I raced over to see what was the matter.

Learner example:
Crying, she raced back to William and together they went home.

racial /ˈreɪʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: race, racism, racist
Adjectives: racial, racist
Adverbs: racially

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to people's race

Dictionary examples:
a racial minority racial discrimination/prejudice racial conflict/tension racial equality

Learner example:
It also prevent[s] us from pre-judging foreign people, which is very important in a community where racial discrimination is common.

racially /ˈreɪ.ʃəli/

Word family:
Nouns: race, racism, racist
Adjectives: racial, racist
Adverbs: racially

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is connected to someone's race

Dictionary example:
racially motivated attacks

Learner example:
He respects people's values and rights and can easily integrate and assert himself in a multi-cultural or racially diversified environment.
racism /ˈreɪ.si.zəm/

Word family:
Nouns: race, racism, racist
Adjectives: racial, racist
Adverbs: racially

NOUN [u]
[B2] the belief that other races of people are not as good as your own, or the unfair treatment of people because they belong to a particular race

Dictionary example:
The authorities are taking steps to fight/tackle racism in schools.

Learner example:
If we were all tolerant, racial segregation wouldn't exist. Hopefully racism is tending to disappear now.

racist /ˈreɪs.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: race, racism, racist
Adjectives: racial, racist
Adverbs: racially

NOUN [c]
[C2] I DISAPPROVING someone who believes that other races of people are not as good as their own

Dictionary example:
Their boss was a racist.

Learner example:
That's something we should keep in mind, the next time you meet a racist.

ADJECTIVE
[C2] I DISAPPROVING believing that other races are not as good as your own and therefore treating them unfairly

Dictionary example:
a racist attack

Learner example:
It's even getting worse because of immigration and serious incidents like racist attacks in Germany against Turks or Asian people.
racket /ˈræk.ɪt/

NOUN

NOISE

[C2] [NO PLURAL] INFORMAL a loud noise

Dictionary example:
The neighbours were making such a racket that we couldn't sleep.

Learner example:
However, my blissful thoughts were suddenly and rudely interrupted by the racket going on next door.

---

radiation /ˌreɪ.diˈeɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [u]

[C1] a form of energy that comes from a nuclear reaction and that in large amounts can be very dangerous

Dictionary examples:
dangerously high levels of radiation radiation sickness

Learner example:
It's true that in the last few years we have actually polluted much of our air with smoke or radiation from power plants, but we're working on that.

---

radical /ˈræd.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:

Nouns: radical

Adjectives: radical

Adverbs: radically

ADJECTIVE

CHANGE

[C1] A radical change is very big and important.

Dictionary example:
radical reform

Learner example:
Have you ever wondered if tourism can bring radical changes in an area?
believing that there should be big social and political changes

Dictionary examples:
- a radical group/movement
- a radical proposal

Learner example:
What [...] also seem[s] to prevent Lucy from admitting her true feelings towards George is the inhibit[ed] and pretentious society within [which] the characters live, [which] will not accept a marriage between a middle-class 'lady' and a man from the lower classes, who moreover seems to have what they consider to be radical political views.

someone who supports the idea that there should be big social and political changes

Dictionary example:
There are several radicals in the government.

Learner example:
While in College, Josephine got involved with a group of radicals who became in a way her second family.

radically /ˈræd.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: radical
Adjectives: radical
Adverbs: radically

in a way that shows radical change or beliefs

Dictionary examples:
The company has changed radically in recent years.
Barker introduced some radically new ideas.

Learner example:
During the last decades our eating habits have changed radically in Sweden.

radio /ˈreɪ.di.əʊ/

SYSTEM

a system of sending and receiving sound through the air Dictionary examples:
local radio
a radio station

Learner example:
I'm thinking [of] call[ing] the radio station to inform [them about] my situation.

rage /reɪdʒ/

NOUN [C or U]

ANGER
[B2] very strong anger that you cannot control

Dictionary examples:
My main feeling was one of rage.
I was frightened because I had never seen him in such a rage before.
He flew into a rage over the smallest mistake.

Learner example:
However, they flew into [a] rage when one of Paul's friends was poisoned by [the] food, after having dinner in the hotel restaurant.

VERB [i]

SPEAK
[C2] to speak or behave in a very angry way

Dictionary example:
He raged at us for forgetting to order a replacement.

Learner example:
Sobbing and raging she stomped into the bedroom, briskly opened the drawer and flung the framed picture showing them both at sunset [on] the coast of Fiji into it.

CONTINUE
[C2] to continue with great force or violence

Dictionary example:
The battle raged well into the night.

Learner example:
It narrates the story of a group of children evacuated on an island somewhere in the Pacific Ocean while a war is raging elsewhere in Europe.
raid /rɛɪd/

NOUN [c]

SOLDIERS

[C2] a sudden attack on a place by soldiers

 Dictionary examples:
- an air raid
- a dawn raid

 Learner example:
Back in England, he provided valuable information to the SAS to make the air raids more effective.

POLICE

[C2] a sudden visit to a place by police in order to find someone or something

 Dictionary example:
- a police raid to recover illegal weapons

VERB [t]

SOLDIERS

[C2] If soldiers raid a place, they suddenly attack it.

 Dictionary example:
Armed soldiers raided the village.

 Learner example:
She had started doing this 15 years ago, when mounted warriors, clad in black armour, had raided the farm she, along with her parents and three older brothers, had lived on.

POLICE

[C2] If the police raid a place, they suddenly visit it in order to find someone or something.

 Dictionary example:
Police raided nine properties in search of the documents.

rail /reɪl/

NOUN

TRAINS

[B1] [u] trains as a method of transport
Dictionary examples:
More goods should be transported by rail.
rail fares/passengers rail travel

Learner example:
By rail: get off at York station and you can walk from the station. Turn left and the hotel is on your left-hand side.

FOR SUPPORTING
[C2] [c] a bar around or along something which you can hold to stop you from falling

Dictionary example:
a hand rail

Learner example:
However it could be much more comfortable if there were hand rails in the bathroom and a lower bed.

---
rainbow /ˈreɪn.bəʊ/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a half circle of seven colours that you see in the sky when rain is falling and the sun is shining

Dictionary examples:
We could see a rainbow.
The butterfly’s wings were shimmering with all the colours of the rainbow.

Learner example:
[In the future,] clothes design will be comfortable, practical, nice to look at and in all the colours of the rainbow because people will move [around] a lot and be happy and therefore require practical and colourful clothing.

---
rainforest /ˈreɪn.fərst/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a forest in a tropical area which receives a lot of rain

Dictionary example:
a tropical rainforest

Learner example:
But the most beautiful place was a rainforest full of exotic trees.
rainy /ˈreɪni/
Word family:
Nouns: rain
Verbs: rain
Adjectives: rainy

ADJECTIVE
[B1] raining a lot
Dictionary example:
a rainy afternoon
Learner example:
On a rainy night, I was walking down the street with an umbrella.

raise /reɪz/
VERB [T]
LIFT
[B1] to lift something to a higher position
Dictionary examples:
Would all those in favour please raise their hands?
She raised the glass to her lips and took a sip.
Learner example:
Many students raised their hands.
INCREASE
[B1] to increase an amount or level
Dictionary examples:
The government plan to raise taxes.
They’ve certainly raised standards at the school.
One solution would be to raise prices.
Learner example:
Another disa[d]vantage could be to raise cost[s], w[h]ich includes high taxes, etc.
raise a question/subject, etc.
[B2] to start talking about a subject that you want other people to consider
Dictionary examples:
I’d like to raise the subject of staffing levels.
I thought I’d raise the issue with Sally at the meeting.
Learner example:
Then it raises an important question: "[Do] museums provide enough to interest young people?"

MONEY
[B2] to collect money from different people in order to do a particular thing

Dictionary example:
They were raising money for charity.

Learner example:
What I liked the most about it is not the fact that we raised a lot of money, but that we enjoyed an amazing show in which I took [an] active part.

CHILD
[B2] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to take care of a child until he or she is completely grown

Dictionary examples:
Her parents died when she was a baby so she was raised by her grandparents.
She raised the family on her own.

Learner example:
I was born and raised on a Greek island called Evia.

raise your voice
[C1] to speak loudly and angrily to someone

Dictionary example:
He never raised his voice at the children.

Learner example:
Not every au-pair family is pleasant. And believe me, mine was giving me hell on earth. [...] After I returned home I took some time to learn not to freak out when someone raised his voice and eventually I started to see my time in Germany as a great [lesson in] life.

raise hopes/fears/doubts, etc.
[C2] to cause emotions or thoughts

Dictionary example:
Her answers raised doubts in my mind.

Learner example:
I was particularly interested in a part of this article which raised doubts about how useful the knowledge people gain from school [is].

raise the alarm
[C2] to warn someone of a dangerous situation

Dictionary examples:
Her parents raised the alarm when she failed to return home.
A local doctor was the first to raise the alarm about this latest virus.
Learner example:
For them, raising the alarm because of five percent unemployment is an example of so-called 'loony-left thinking'.

rally  /ˈræl.i/

NOUN [C]
MEETING
[C2] a large public meeting in support of something

Dictionary example:
an election/campaign rally

Learner example:
I am prepared to take part in a rally against this decision and join other concerned readers of your newspaper on the steps of the Town Hall to show full support for retaining the local hospital to serve our community.

RACE
[C2] a car or motorcycle race

Dictionary example:
a rally driver

Learner example:
Indeed, it didn't look at all like the vehicles that we see on TV during the Paris–Dakkar rally.

random  /ˈræn.dəm/

Word family:
Adjectives: random
Adverbs: randomly

ADJECTIVE
CHANCE
[C1] happening, done or chosen by chance rather than according to a plan

Dictionary examples:
random checks/tests/attacks
We asked a random sample/selection of people what they thought.

Learner example:
I will put my remarks in random order.

at random
[C1] chosen by chance
Dictionary example:
Winners will be chosen at random.

Learner example:
The rooms suggested to be [filmed] have not been chosen at random.

randomly /ˈræn.dəm.lɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: random
Adverbs: randomly

ADVERB
[C1] in a random way

Dictionary example:
The books were randomly arranged on the shelves.

Learner example:
It is based on the survey of the Language Institute's students, who were randomly selected.

range /reɪndʒ/

NOUN

OF THINGS
[B1] [c] a group of different things of the same general type

Dictionary examples:
a range of colours/patterns
We discussed a wide range of subjects.
We stock the full range of model railway accessories.

Learner example:
It's a beautiful place with a wide range of activities.

AMOUNT
[B2] [c] the amount or number between a particular set of limits

Dictionary examples:
The price range is from $100 to $200.
The product is aimed at young people in the 18–25 age range.

Learner example:
The age range of the club is from eighteen to thirty years old and our club has different nationalities.
MOUNTAINS
[B2] [C] a line of hills or mountains

Dictionary example:
The country is divided by a huge mountain range.

Learner example:
I wish I knew more about the volcanoes, earthquakes, and mountain ranges all over the world.

DISTANCE
[C2] [u] the distance from which things can be seen, heard, or reached

Dictionary examples:
The soldiers came within firing range.
He was shot at close range.

Learner example:
The radio doesn't work, as you know, and even if it had worked we would be out of range of the nearest radio station.

VERB
range from sth to sth/between sth and sth [B2] to have an upper and a lower limit in amount, number, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Dress sizes range from petite to extra large.
Prices range between $50 and $250.

Learner example:
It offers lots of fabulous things ranging from drinks to modern music.

rank /ræŋk/

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a position in an organization, such as the army, showing someone's importance

Dictionary examples:

senior/high/Junior/low rank
He has just been promoted to the rank of captain.

Learner example:
Women were denied a higher rank and their job was limited to mundane tasks.

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to have a position in a list which shows things or people in order of importance, or to give someone or something a position on such a list
Dictionary examples:
He ranked number one in the world at the start of the competition.
The city's canals now rank among the world's dirtiest.

Learner example:
From being [in] an amat[e]u[r] league to ranked top 3 in the world is a considerable achiev[e]ment.

rape /rɛp/
VERB [r]
[B2] ! to force someone to have sex when they do not want to

Dictionary example:
She was pulled from the car and raped.

Learner example:
I thought that they wanted to rape me.

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] ! the crime of forcing someone to have sex when they do not want to

Dictionary examples:
He had committed several rapes.
He was convicted of rape.

Learner example:
Last month the police caught a man for rape and he confessed [to] several other crimes.

rapid /ˈræp.ɪd/
Word family:
Adjectives: rapid
Adverbs: rapidly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] fast or sudden

Dictionary example:
The 1990s were a period of rapid change/growth.

Learner example:
With the rapid development of technology, shopping [on] the Internet is becoming very popular.
rapidly /ˈræp.id.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: rapid Adverbs: rapidly

ADVERB
[B2] quickly or suddenly

Dictionary example:
Prices have increased rapidly in the last few months.

rare /reə/​

Word family:
Nouns: rarity
Adjectives: rare
Adverbs: rarely

ADJECTIVE UNUSUAL
[B1] very unusual

Dictionary examples:
a rare disease/species
a rare occasion/opportunity
It's very rare to see these birds in winter.

Learner example:
There are palms, rare birds, very good food and a wonderful beach.

MEAT
[C1] If meat is rare, it is still red because it has only been cooked for a short time.

Dictionary example:
a rare steak

rarely /ˈreə.li/​

Word family:
Nouns: rarity
Adjectives: rare
Adverbs: rarely

ADVERB
[B1] not often
Dictionary examples:
We rarely see each other now.
I rarely have time to read a newspaper.

Learner example:
I rarely go shopping for clothes.

rarity /ˈreə.rə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: rarity
Adjectives: rare
Adverbs: rarely

NOUN

be a rarity
[C1] to be unusual

Dictionary example:
Genuine enthusiasm is a rarity.

Learner example:
Hot meals were a rarity.

[C1] [u] the fact that something is not common

Dictionary example:
Precious stones are valued for their rarity.

Learner example:
Another group of objects would be those that are valuable – or even priceless – because of their rarity.

rash /ræʃ/

NOUN

[C2] [c] a group of small, red spots on the skin

Dictionary examples:
an itchy rash
Certain foods give him a rash.

Learner example:
Indeed, everything had worked out very well since I had woken up, not only for the little things such as having your breakfast without spilling your tea on your new suit but also for more serious matters [like] getting up with a dreadful face or a rash of spots!
ADJECTIVE
[C2] done suddenly and without thinking carefully

Dictionary example:
a rash decision/promise

Learner example:
They had reconciled only some days ago and had made a rash decision to go on holiday with us.

rate /reɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: rate, rating

NOUN [C]

HOW MANY
[B2] how often something happens, or how many people something happens to

Dictionary examples:
the rate of unemployment
The birth rate has fallen.
The drug has a high success/failure rate.

Learner example:
The topic[s] we have in mind are – why people commit a crime, why the crime rate has risen in Britain, [and] of course [some discussion] about your latest novel.

PAYMENT
[B2] a fixed amount of money given for something

Dictionary examples:
the interest rate
Rates of pay are very low.

Learner example:
I think it would be a good thing to help the [restaurant] by either giving them a subsidy or lending [them] money at a low rate.

SPEED
[C1] the speed at which something happens

Dictionary examples:
the patient's heart rate
Our rate of progress is too slow.
The disease was spreading at an alarming rate.

Learner example:
The actual rate of our company's growth demands increasing quality and productivity.
first-/second-/third-rate
[C1] very good, bad, or very bad

Dictionary example:
a first-rate hotel

Learner example:
For example, our town is famous for its first-rate tennis team, so he could continue his training in tennis here and also do other sports like volleyball and basketball.

at this rate
[C2] used before saying what will happen if a situation continues in the same way

Dictionary example:
At this rate we're not going to be there till midnight.

at any rate
[C2] used before saying one fact that is certain in a situation that you are generally not certain about

Dictionary example:
Well, at any rate we need her to be there.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, at any rate, we would like to see a society with [a] full and strong workforce working towards stronger economic power.

VERB [T]
[C1] to judge the quality or ability of someone or something

Dictionary example:
How do you rate her as a singer?

Learner example:
We [did] a survey among our members that rated value for money, cost, staff, and the like.

rather /ˈrɑː.ðə/

ADVERB

SMALL AMOUNT
[B1] slightly or to a small degree

Dictionary examples:
That's rather a difficult question to answer.
I thought he was rather nice.
It was rather strange to invite me and then not come himself.
She answered the telephone rather sleepily.
Learner example:
I can't come because I feel rather sick.

rather than [B1] instead of

Dictionary example:
I think I'd like coffee rather than tea, if that's okay?

Learner example:
When the weather is too hot to wear jeans, I usually wear a swimsuit rather than shorts.

would rather
[B1] used to show that you prefer to have or do one thing more than another

Dictionary examples:
I'd much rather go out for a meal than stay in and watch TV.
I would rather not tell him.

Learner example:
I'd rather watch something funny, like a sitcom.

MORE EXACTLY
[B2] used to change something you have just said and make it more correct

Dictionary example:
She'll go to London on Thursday, or rather, she will if she has to.

Learner example:
The food – or rather, leftovers – that she gave him was barely enough to feed a baby.

rating /ˈreɪ.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: rate, rating

NOUN
[C1] a measurement of how good or popular something or someone is

Dictionary example:
A high percentage of Americans gave the President a positive rating.

Learner example:
Overall your rating was excellent!

the ratings
[C2] a list of television and radio programmes showing how popular they are

Dictionary example:
His show did well in the ratings.
Learner example:
Sports would not appear on TV if it was not for a majority of the population wanting to watch it, in fact some sports programmes have the highest ratings of all TV shows.

ratio  /ˈreɪʃi.əʊ/ (PLURAL ratios)

NOUN [C]
[C1] the relationship between two groups or amounts, which expresses how much bigger one is than the other

Dictionary examples:
The ratio of men to women at the conference was ten to one/10:1. The school is trying to improve its pupil-teacher ratio.

Learner example:
First, the ratio between cost and the perceived value has become better since 2004, i.e., the guests are more satisfied now and believe that your service is worth the money.

rational  /ˈræʃ.ən.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: irrational, rational

ADJECTIVE
[C1] showing clear thought and reason

Dictionary examples:
He was too upset to be rational.
a rational argument/debate/explanation

Learner example:
Be as rational as you can and you will pass your driving test the first time.

raw  /rɔː/

ADJECTIVE

NOT COOKED
[B1] not cooked

Dictionary example:
raw fish/meat/vegetables
Learner example:
My grandparents often tell me that they've never eaten anything while walking and they love healthy food, especially raw fish and sushi.

NATURAL
[B2] in the natural state

Dictionary examples:
raw sugar raw materials

Learner example:
Finally, I think the designers will make use of the raw materials and create an innovative look for all of us.

ray /reɪ/

NOUN [c]

BEAM
[B2] a narrow beam of light, heat, etc. travelling in a straight line from its place of origin

Dictionary examples:
A ray of sunshine shone through a gap in the clouds.
Light rays bend as they pass from air to water.

Learner example:
She just couldn't see any way of finding her camping equipment in the basement, where there was not even a single ray of light to guide her.

a ray of comfort/hope, etc.
[C2] a small amount of a feeling that makes you feel happier or more hopeful

Dictionary example:
There's still a ray of hope that the missing child will be found alive.

Learner example:
For some readers my story may feel boring and meaningless but for [others] it [might] be a ray of hope that best friends can be found where we least expect them.

razor /ˈreɪ.zər/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a piece of equipment with a sharp blade used for removing hair from the face, legs, etc.
Dictionary example:
Did you pack a razor?

Learner example:
Oh yes, she could vividly remember the last time he hurt her, only then it was with a razor.

reach  /riːtʃ/

VERB

ARRIVE
[B1] ɪ t̴ˈ  to arrive at a place, especially after spending a long time travelling

Dictionary examples:
We won't reach home till five or six o'clock.
They finally reached the coast after five weeks sailing.

Learner example:
In the evening, it got colder than it [had been], so we reached home shivering.

reach a decision/agreement/conclusion, etc.
[B2] ɪ t̴ˈ[t]  to make a decision/agreement/conclusion, etc. about something

Dictionary examples:
She reached the conclusion that there was no more she could do.
We'll inform you when a decision has been reached.

Learner example:
After having thought about this video, I reached the following conclusions: we must film the lessons which are the most important and the activities which take a great part [of the] day at school.

LEVEL
[B2] ɪ t̴ˈ[t]  to get to a particular level, situation, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The temperature is expected to reach 30°C today.
He's just reached the grand age of 95.
They easily reached their target/goal of raising £100,000.
I've reached the point where I can't take any more.

Learner example:
My dad has already reached the age of 60.

STRETCH
[B2] ɪ t̴ˈ[t]  to stretch out your arm in order to get or touch something
Dictionary examples:
He reached for the phone and knocked over a glass.
The child reached down/out/over and picked up the kitten.
He reached out and grabbed her arm.
Can you reach me (down) that book?

Learner example:
So when I reached out my hand, I suddenly felt another hand.

can/can't/could, etc. reach (sth)
[B2] to be able to touch or take something with your hand

Dictionary examples:
Could you get that book down for me – I can't reach.
She's grown so tall that she can reach the door handle now.

Learner example:
Then I looked around my car and saw my handbag. I could hardly reach it but after some effort I got it.

TELEPHONE
[B2] [t] to speak to someone on the telephone

Dictionary example:
You can reach him at home.

Learner example:
I have been trying to reach him the whole day but I didn't get any answer.

NOUN [u]

DISTANCE
[B2] the distance that can be travelled, especially easily

Dictionary example:
We live (easy) reach of the station.

Learner example:
Our city, Sardab, is located just two kilometers from [the] Caspian Sea, [and] it is within easy reach [of] the capital of our province.

TOUCH
[B2] Someone's reach is the distance within which they can stretch out their arm and touch something.

Dictionary examples:
I like to keep a notebook and pencil within reach.
The top shelf is out of reach.
Make sure that you keep all medicines out of the reach of children.

beyond (sb's) reach [C2] not possible for someone to have Within (sb's) reach
[C2] possible for someone to achieve

Dictionary example:
Winning the championship suddenly seemed within their reach.

Learner example:
We have decided to take action to prevent further damage being inflicted, and are convinced the task is fully within our reach.

React /riˈækt/

Word family:
Nouns: reaction
Verbs: react

Verb [i]

Say or do
[B2] to say, do, or feel something because of something else that has been said or done

Dictionary examples:
He reacted angrily to her comments.
She called him all sorts of names, but he didn't react.

Learner example:
I reacted quickly and without panic.

Bad effect
[C1] to become ill because something that you have eaten or used on your body has had a bad effect on you

Dictionary examples:
My skin reacts to most perfumes.
Many people react to penicillin.

Learner example:
One of her weaknesses is that she reacts [badly to] bird feathers, so it would be nice to find a family without birds.
reaction /riˈæk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: reaction
Verbs: react

NOUN [c]

CAUSED BY SOMETHING
[B2] something you say, feel, or do because of something that has happened

Dictionary examples:
What was his reaction to the news?
Reactions to the proposal have been mixed.
I love to watch people's reactions when I say who I am.
There has been a widespread reaction against the government's proposed tax increases.

Learner example:
Her reaction made it all worthwhile. She burst into tears and thanked us. That was an experience that I'll never forget.

BAD EFFECT
[B2] an unpleasant effect resulting from eating particular things or taking particular drugs

Dictionary examples:
A number of people have had a bad reaction to this drug.
Some people have an allergic reaction to seafood.

Learner example:
There is one more thing that you have to note: two girls have [an] allergic reaction to nuts, so please make sure that our lunch is nut–free!

read /riːd/

Word family:
Nouns: reader, reading, read, readership
Verbs: read

VERB (read, read)

SIGNS
[C2] [ɪ] to look at signs and be able to understand them

Dictionary example:
Can you read music?

Learner example:
He learnt how to read music and how to read at the same time, when he was four.
read between the lines

[C2] If you read between the lines, you understand what someone really means, or what is really happening in a situation.

Dictionary example:
Reading between the lines, it was obvious that something was wrong.

Learner example:
Having powerful [in]sight, [being] able to read between the lines of even an unwritten story and exhibiting an interdisciplinary background are, again, qualities that perfectly describe the friends that [there have been] in my life.

NOUN

a good/easy, etc. read

[C2] something that is enjoyable, easy, etc. to read

Dictionary example:
His history of Stalingrad isn't exactly an easy read.

Learner example:
In spite of these few criti[c]isms, I found your article to be an interesting read, which reflects most accurat[e]ly on the way most young people see the world.

[C2] [NO PLURAL] the act of reading something

Dictionary example:
It's not brilliant but it's worth a read.

Learner example:
This can be achieved by providing areas with sofas, bean-bags or comfortable armchairs which invite you to sit down and have a good read.

---

reader /ˈriː.də/

Word family:
Nouns: reader, reading, read, readership
Verbs: read

NOUN [C]

PERSON

[B1] someone who reads

Dictionary examples:
He's a great reader.
Many readers of our magazine have contacted us about the last issue on climate change.
He's a very slow/fast reader.

Learner example:
It is a club of readers. Our motto is "READ AND YOU WILL FEEL FINE!"
BOOK

[B1] a book containing a simple story for people who are learning to read or learning a language

Dictionary example:
There are readers at five different levels, from beginner to upper intermediate.

readership /ˈriː.də.ʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: reader, reading, read, readership
Verbs: read

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

[C1] the number and type of people who read a particular newspaper, magazine, etc

Dictionary example:
These magazines have a very young readership.

Learner example:
The first one is an issue that has become one of the main subjects of the last ten years and affects the whole world, so it will interest your readership.

readily /ˈred.ə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: readiness
Adjectives: ready
Adverbs: readily

ADVERB

EASILY

[B2] quickly and easily

Dictionary example:
Information is readily available on the Internet.

WILLINGLY

[B2] willingly and without stopping to think

Dictionary examples:
He readily admits to having problems himself.
He readily agreed to help.
Learner example:
Drinking alcohol won't do you any good. There are a lot of friends who [would] readily help you if you decided to give it up.

---

readiness /ˈred.i.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: readiness
Adjectives: ready
Adverbs: readily

NOUN [u]

WILLING
[C1] when someone is willing to do something

Dictionary example:
They expressed a readiness to accept our demands.

Learner example:
Usually, the clients appreciate his readiness to use their language and this has often been a significant factor in closing a deal.

PREPARED
[C2] when someone is prepared for something

Dictionary example:
It was time to repair their shelters in readiness for the winter.

---

reading /ˈriː.dɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: reader, reading, read, readership
Verbs: read

NOUN

EVENT
[C2] [c] an event at which someone reads something to an audience

Dictionary example:
a poetry reading

Learner example:
There is also a need for human interaction such as reading clubs, poetry readings or children's activities.
readjust /ˌriː.əˈdʒʌst/

Word family:
Nouns: adjustment
Verbs: adjust, readjust

VERB

SMALL CHANGE

[C1] [ɪ] to move something slightly or make a small change to something

Dictionary example:
He readjusted his tie.

Learner example:
Because the air conditioning was not working properly or because your unfriendly coach driver refused to readjust it, I got a cold from that day.

CHANGE BEHAVIOUR

[C2] [ɪ] to change in order to deal with a new situation, such as a new job or home

Dictionary example:
The children will have to readjust to a new school.

Learner example:
For the last couple of days she had gradually readjusted to her normal mode of life, no longer suddenly finding herself attuned to Morgan's odd modality of perceptions and unable to interface properly with her surroundings.

real /riəl/

Word family:
Nouns: reality
Adjectives: real, realistic, unrealistic, unreal
Adverbs: really, realistically

ADJECTIVE

TRUE

[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] true and not pretended

Dictionary examples:
What was the real reason she didn’t come?
Is that your real name?

Learner example:
That is the real reason why I’m going to stay in England longer.
IMPORTANT
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] being the most important or the main thing

Dictionary examples:
The real problem, of course, is money.
The real difficulty was the language, because my children don’t speak English.

Learner example:
Nowadays people work most of the time with their computers, [and] the internet give[s] them the op[p]ortunity to download whatever they want, even books, but the real problem is that they do not have the time to read them.

FOR EMPHASIS
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to emphasize a noun

Dictionary examples:
She was a real help.
It's a real pain he's not available tomorrow.

Learner example:
In the advertisement it says "your perfect evening out", but it was a real disappointment.

for real [B2] taken seriously, not pretended

Dictionary example:
I thought it was just a practice, but apparently it was for real.

Learner example:
You know I am a Casanova, but this time I know [it] is for real.

realistic /ˌrɪəˈlɪstɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: reality
Adjectives: real, realistic, unrealistic, unreal
Adverbs: really, realistically

ADJECTIVE

SEEMING REAL
[B1] showing things and people as they really are, or making them seem to be real

Dictionary example:
The creatures were all computer–generated but so realistic.

Learner example:
I chose this film because I think it is very realistic.
ACCEPTING SITUATION

[B2] accepting the true facts of a situation and not basing decisions on things that will not happen

Dictionary examples:

Let’s be realistic – we’re not going to finish this by Friday.

We have to be realistic about how much we can afford to pay.

It isn’t realistic to expect people to work for so little money.

Learner example:

We must be realistic, my friend. Eighty kilometres is a pretty long distance.

---

realistically /ˌreəˈlɪstɪk.li/

Word family:

- Nouns: reality
- Adjectives: real, realistic, unrealistic, unreal
- Adverbs: really, realistically

---

SEEM REAL

[C1] in a way that shows things and people as they really are, or that makes them seem real

Dictionary example:

The characters are portrayed very realistically.

Learner example:

It was realistically captured in the TV reports you have seen.

---

ACCEPTING FACTS

[C2] in a way that shows that you accept the true facts of a situation

Dictionary example:

Realistically, we cannot expect to have finished by the weekend.

Learner example:

Realistically, separate schools will probably be with us for a long time to come, but it will remain the least used form of the two.

---

reality /riˈæl.ə.ti/

Word family:

- Nouns: reality
- Adjectives: real, realistic, unreal
- Adverbs: really, realistically
FACTS
[B2] [u] the way things or situations really are and not the way you would like them to be

Dictionary examples:
Listening to music is my escape from reality.
Sooner or later you have to face up to reality.
He may seem charming but in reality he's actually an unpleasant person.

Learner example:
Finally, your report talks about an audience of less than 2,000 although we were in reality more than 5,000.

the reality/realities of sth
[B2] the truth about an unpleasant situation

Dictionary example:
the harsh realities of life

Learner example:
Besides we all know the realities of the modern world.

become a reality
[B2] to start to happen or exist

Dictionary example:
New jobs could become a reality by next month.

Learner example:
You have made my dream become a reality.

realization /ˌrɪ.ə.ləˈriz.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: realization
Verbs: realize

NOTICING
[C1] [NO PLURAL] when you notice or understand something that you did not notice or understand before

Dictionary example:
There is a growing realization that education has benefits at many levels.
Learner example:
I suppose it is only when one starts to think about it that the realization comes about the fact that fashion is part of our everyday life.

ACHIEVING

[C2] [u] when you achieve something that you wanted

Dictionary example:
the realization of an ambition

Learner example:
I am certain that the realization of such a project would not only be of benefit to me, but also contribute to an enhanced cultural understanding of both the host country and Switzerland.

realize (also UK realise) /ˈrɪə.laɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: realization
Verbs: realize

VERB [I or T]

UNDERSTAND

[B1] to notice or understand something that you did not notice or understand before

Dictionary examples:
I didn't realize how unhappy she was.
I suddenly realized I'd met her before.
They didn't realise the danger they were in.
Do you realise that this is the third time you've forgotten?

Learner example:
I suddenly realised he was my cousin, Alex.

realize an ambition/dream/goal, etc.

[C1] to achieve something that you have wanted for a long time

Dictionary example:
He had realized all his ambitions by the age of 30.

Learner example:
It's rather difficult for people to be able to realize their ambition.
really /ˈrɪə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: reality
Adjectives: real, realistic, unrealistic, unreal
Adverbs: really, realistically

ADVERB

FACT
[B1] used when you are saying what is the truth of a situation

Dictionary examples:
He isn't really angry – he's just pretending.
You don't really expect them to refuse, do you?
She said she was twenty eight, but really she's over thirty.

Learner example:
The first lesson was about the present tense and wasn't really difficult for us.

not really
[B1] used for replying that something is not true in a way that is less strong than just 'no'

Dictionary examples:
"So was the food good?" – "Not really."
"Did you like him?" – "Not really."

realm /relm/

NOUN [C]
[C2] formal an area of knowledge, interest, experience or activity

Dictionary examples:
successes in the realm of foreign policy
Unfortunately, this area is not within my realm of experience.

Learner example:
Reading literature, in particular, as a pastime is the path which leads you to the magic realm of other worlds shaped by a magnificent combination of words, phrases and sentences composing anew and in a totally different way what you experience in your everyday life.
reap /riːp/

VERB

_reap the benefits/profits/rewards_
[C2] to get something good by working hard for it

Dictionary example:
Sometimes, this approach can reap tremendous rewards.

Learner example:
Again this is going to cost the library but it will be able to reap the benefits in the end.

rear /rɪər/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] at the back of something

Dictionary example:
There's a sticker on the rear door/window.

Learner example:
In his rear mirror he saw that all [the] lights on the airfield [were] on again.

NOUN

_the rear_
[C1] the back part of something

Dictionary examples:
First class accommodation is towards the rear of the train.
We walked round to the rear of the house.

Learner example:
The damage seems to be at the rear of the fridge where the motor is situated.

VERB
[C1] [r] If you rear children or young animals, you care for them until they are adults.

Dictionary example:
In these waters they breed and rear their young.

Learner example:
But still the main role of the wom[a]n is to rear her children and be a good assistant to her husband and take care of her home.
rearrange /ˌriː.əˈreɪndʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: arrangement
Verbs: arrange, rearrange

VERB [T]
[B2] to change the order or position of things

Dictionary example:
I've rearranged the furniture in my office.

Learner example:
Maybe you could rearrange the café to be more classical.

---

reason /ˈriː.zən/

Word family:
Nouns: reason, reasoning
Adjectives: reasonable, unreasonable
Adverbs: reasonably, unreasonably

NOUN
[B2] [U] something that makes it right for you to think or do something

Dictionary examples:
I think we have reason to be concerned.
There is every reason to believe the project will be finished on time.
She suddenly hit him for no reason.

Learner example:
Animals in zoos are in captivity and not in their natural habitat. They live captured there for no reason, as we could learn about them from books or documentaries [instead].

within reason
[C2] If something is within reason, it is acceptable and possible.

Dictionary example:
We can wear what we like to the office, within reason.

Learner example:
Although this view may seem too harsh and hard-hearted, I believe it is within reason.

it stands to reason
[C2] If it stands to reason that something happens or is true, it is what you would expect.
Dictionary example:
It stands to reason that a child who is constantly criticized will have little self-confidence.

Learner example:
So it stands to reason that there is no place for Piggy in Jack's world.

---

reasonable /ˈriː.zə.nə.bl/

Word family:

Nouns: reason, reasoning

Adjectives: reasonable, unreasonable

Adverbs: reasonably, unreasonably

---

ADJECTIVE

CHEAP

[B1] quite cheap

Dictionary examples:
reasonable prices
Tomatoes are very reasonable at this time of year.

Learner example:
If you are nature lovers, you should visit some small villages where you can find [a] peaceful atmosphere, delicious, fresh food and everything [at a] reasonable price.

BIG ENOUGH

[B1] big enough or large enough in number or amount, although not big or not many

Dictionary examples:
There were a reasonable number of people there.
It's a reasonable salary for that job.
We have a reasonable chance of winning the game.

Learner example:
Some of them have good places for sightseeing and a reasonable [amount of] nightlife.

GOOD ENOUGH

[B1] good enough but not the best

Dictionary examples:
The service at the hotel is reasonable but don't expect 5-star treatment.
I'd say her work is of a reasonable standard.

Learner example:
From my Certificates you can see that I speak English very well and that I have [a] reasonable knowledge [of] Italian and Spanish.
FAIR
[B2] fair and showing good judgment

Dictionary examples:
It's not reasonable to expect people to work such long hours.
If you tell him what happened, I'm sure he'll understand – he's a reasonable man.

Learner example:
In my opinion, reasonable rules are important for us but being too strict will bring stress, which causes kids to be afraid of many things.

BASED ON FACTS
[B2] based on facts that can be explained

Dictionary example:
There will be a reasonable explanation for all of this.

Learner example:
I hope you will be able to offer me a reasonable explanation for these mistakes and report correct information in your newspaper.

reasonably /ˈriː.zən.ə.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: reason, reasoning
Adjectives: reasonable, unreasonable
Adverbs: reasonably, unreasonably

ADVERB
reasonably priced
[B1] available at a good price

Dictionary example:
reasonably priced meals

Learner example:
Then in the evenings there are many reasonably priced restaurants, where you can get a nice tasty meal with friends.

reasonably good/successful/well, etc.
[B2] good/successful/well, etc. enough but not very good or very well

Dictionary example:
I did reasonably well at school but not as well as my sister.

Learner example:
I noticed the sound system wasn't perfect, but it was reasonably good.
GOOD JUDGMENT
[B2] in a fair way, showing good judgment

Dictionary example:
Stop shouting and let's discuss this reasonably.

reasoning /ˈriː.zən.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: reason, reasoning
Adjectives: reasonable, unreasonable
Adverbs: reasonably, unreasonably

NOUN [U]
[C2] the process of thinking about something in order to make a decision

Dictionary example:
I don't understand the reasoning behind this decision.

Learner example:
According to this line of reasoning, its supporters believe that although sports people sacrifice a lot of their time, the huge amounts of money that they earn are illogical in comparison with the job they are doing.

reassurance /ˌriː.əˈʃʊərəns/

Word family:
Nouns: assurance, reassurance, self-assurance
Verbs: assure, reassure
Adjectives: reassuring, self-assured

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] something that you say to make someone stop worrying

Dictionary example:
Despite my reassurances that she was welcome, she wouldn't come.

Learner example:
I very much like being around people and need the reassurance of being well liked.

reassure /ˌriː.əˈʃʊər/
VERB [r]
[C1] to say something to stop someone from worrying

Dictionary example:
He reassured me that I would be paid soon.

Learner example:
Making my own decisions gives me much stress because I am always so scared of the results and I need to be reassured that I am doing the right thing all the time.

reassuring /ˌriː.əˈʃʊə.rɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: assurance, reassurance, self-assurance
Verbs: assure, reassure
Adjectives: reassuring, self-assured

ADJECTIVE
[C1] making you feel less worried

Dictionary example:
a reassuring smile/voice

Learner example:
It was a reassuring feeling.

rebel

Word family:
Nouns: rebel, rebellion
Verbs: rebel
Adjectives: rebellious

NOUN [C] /ˈreb.əl/
[B2] someone who fights against the government in their country, especially a soldier

Dictionary examples:
The rebels took over the capital and set up a new government.
Rebels seized control of the airport.

Learner example:
Suddenly, the police came [onto [the train], and killed all [the] rebels.

VERB [r] /rɪˈbel/
[B2] to refuse to obey rules that you disagree with or do not like
Dictionary example:
Children often rebel against eating certain foods – Rory won’t eat vegetables.

Learner example:
His brother was never kind with her and she always wanted to rebel.

rebellion /rɪˈbel.i.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: rebel, rebellion
Verbs: rebel
Adjectives: rebellious

NOUN [C or U]
[C] when people fight against the government in their country

Dictionary example:
Government troops defeated an armed rebellion in the south.

Learner example:
The rebellion of the students not only led to the freedom of Greece but it also inspired the local people and the people worldwide to fight for their freedom.

rebellious /rɪˈbel.i.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: rebel, rebellion
Verbs: rebel
Adjectives: rebellious

ADJECTIVE
[C] refusing to obey rules because you do not like authority

Dictionary example:
a rebellious teenager

Learner example:
"It was impossible for me to become submissive – I must have been rebellious from my very birth", she recalls.

rebuild /ˌriːˈbɪld/

Word family:
Nouns: builder, building
Verbs: build, rebuild
VERB [r] (rebuilt, rebuilt)

BUILD AGAIN
[B1] to build something again that has been damaged or destroyed

Dictionary example:
The cathedral was completely rebuilt in 1425 after it had been destroyed by fire.

Learner example:
It's [a] XIX century construction, but they rebuilt it.

IMPROVE
[B2] to make a situation succeed again after something bad caused it to fail

Dictionary examples:
The country was still struggling to rebuild its economy after the war.
They had to rebuild their lives after the accident.

Learner example:
Since more and more people in our modern society have been living in a [highly] urbanized environment and they are isolated from the rest of nature, I think it is vital to make every effort to rebuild healthy relationships with nature.

recall /rɪˈkɔːl/

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to remember something

Dictionary examples:
I don't recall arranging a time to meet.
Can you recall what happened that night?
I recall that he promised to send the document.

Learner example:
Right now, I can't recall much of that phone call.

receipt /rɪˈsiːt/

Word family:
Nouns: receipt, reception, receptionist
Verbs: receive
Adjectives: receptive

NOUN RECEIVING
[B2] [u] FORMAL the act of receiving something
Dictionary example:
Items must be returned within fourteen days of receipt.

receive  /riˈsiːv/

Word family:
Nouns: receipt, reception, receptionist
Verbs: receive
Adjectives: receptive

VERB [T]

REACT
[C1] to react to a suggestion or piece of work in a particular way

Dictionary example:
His first book was not well received.

Learner example:
The English lessons in the mornings were well received but I wonder if it is possible to get more variety?

recent  /ˈriː.ʃənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: recent Adverbs: recently

ADJECTIVE
[B1] happening or starting from a short time ago

Dictionary examples:
Is that a recent photo?
Have you been following recent political events?
In recent years, sales have decreased quite markedly.

Learner example:
Dear John, Thank you for your recent letter.

recently  /ˈriː.ʃənt.li/
ADVERB

[B1] not long ago, or at a time that started not long ago

Dictionary examples:
Have you seen any good films recently?
Until very recently he worked as a teacher.
Recently, I've been feeling a bit depressed.

Learner example:
Recently I have been watching a lot of programmes [o]n television.

reception /rɪˈsep.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: receipt, reception, receptionist
Verbs: receive
Adjectives: receptive

NOUN

HOTEL/OFFICE

[B1] [NO PLURAL] the place in a hotel or office building where people go when they arrive

Dictionary examples:
Ask for me at reception.
a reception area/desk

Learner example:
When I arrived [at] the hotel I asked the reception to find m[e] a taxi to see the city.

PARTY

[B2] [c] a formal party that is given to celebrate a special event or to welcome someone

Dictionary example:
a wedding reception

Learner example:
Next month, I have to fly to London to attend a friend's wedding reception.

REACTION

[C1] [NO PLURAL] the way people react to something or someone

Dictionary example:
We were given a very warm reception.

Learner example:
Although we were given a very nice reception, problems began to appear already at the start.
receptive /rɪˈsep.tɪv/

Word family:
- Nouns: receipt, reception, receptionist
- Verbs: receive
- Adjectives: receptive

ADJECTIVE

[C2] willing to think about and accept new ideas

Dictionary example:
She's generally very receptive to ideas and suggestions.

Learner example:
As we are very receptive to new ideas, this interaction will help us improve our city and take a step forward in making it a nicer place to live or visit.

recession /rɪˈseʃ.ən/

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] a period when the economy of a country is not successful and conditions for business are bad

Dictionary examples:
The latest report confirms that the economy is in recession.
The country is now in the deepest recession for over 40 years.

Learner example:
Now in Japan the recession is getting worse and unemployment is increasing.

recharge /ˌriːˈtʃɑːdʒ/

VERB [T]

[C1] to fill a battery with electricity so that it can work again

Dictionary example:
You can recharge these batteries.

Learner example:
After buying your mobile phone, it is important to know that it can’t be used for an unlimited time. It will have to be recharged and, in the end, it will let you down when most needed.

recharge your batteries

[C2] to have a period of rest and relaxation so that you feel energetic again
Dictionary example:
She took a trip to the south of France to recharge her batteries.

Learner example:
It is [a] very effective way in which we could rejuvenate ourselves and recharge our batteries in order to face the difficulties [o]f the daily routine.

recipe /ˈres.ə.pi/

NOUN [C]

FOOD
[B1] a list of foods and a set of instructions telling you how to cook something

Dictionary examples:
Do you know a good recipe for wholemeal bread?
For real South Asian food, just follow these recipes.

Learner example:
Actually I am going to bring with me some delicious recipes that you are going to be surprised [by].

be a recipe for disaster/success/trouble, etc.
[C2] to be very likely to become a disaster, a success, etc.

Dictionary example:
Living with your in-laws is a recipe for disaster.

Learner example:
Lack of love, rais[ing] children in a hostile environment, being oblivious to their emotional and psychological needs... all are a recipe for disaster, which is the exact case in the book as far as the tragic end is concerned.

reckless /ˈrek.ələs/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] doing something dangerous and not caring about what might happen

Dictionary example:
reckless driving

Learner example:
And, not to mention all the litter they leave behind, they also damage valuable r[o]ck formations or cliff faces through reckless climbing attempts.
reckon /ˈrek.ən/

VERB [I or T]

THINK

[B2] to think that something is probably true

Dictionary examples:
I reckon he's going to leave.
How much do you reckon it's going to cost?
He reckons that he earns more in a week than I do in a month.

Learner example:
What do you reckon about the idea?

recognition /ˌrek.əgˈnɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: recognition
Verbs: recognize

NOUN

ACCEPT

[C2] [U NO PLURAL] when you accept that something is true or real

Dictionary example:
There is a growing recognition of the scale of the problem.

Learner example:
We easily become seduced by the false image of a perfect world of ads that makes us a part of it as long as we purchase more things with no sense of recognition between a real and a false need.

HONOUR

[C2] [U] when someone gets praise, respect or thanks for something good they have done

Dictionary example:
Ellen gained recognition for her outstanding work.

Learner example:
What they are after, is recognition in their work but not so much for the work itself, but [for] what comes after recognition, which is a rise in the salary!

KNOW

[C2] [U] when you know something or someone because you have seen or experienced them before
Dictionary example:
I waved at her, but she showed no sign of recognition.

Learner example:
Everything had changed out of all recognition and bore no resemblance to the house he had entered a few minutes ago.

recognize  (also UK recognise) /ˈrekəɡ.naɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: recognition
Verbs: recognize

VERB [T]

KNOW
[B1] to know someone or something because you have seen, heard or experienced them before

Dictionary examples:
I hadn't seen her for 20 years, but I recognized her immediately.
I recognized her from her picture.
I recognised his voice.
Doctors are trained to recognise the symptoms of different diseases.

Learner example:
I still didn't recognise him and he said that he wanted to tell me something.

ACCEPT
[B2] to accept that something is legal, true or important

Dictionary examples:
She recognized that she had been partly to blame.
The international community has refused to recognize the newly independent nation state.
Smoking is recognised as a leading cause of lung cancer.

Learner example:
Martins hero-worshipped Lime until the moment when he was forced to recognize that his best friend was the worst racketeer imaginable.

SHOW RESPECT
[C1] to officially show respect for someone for an achievement

Dictionary example:
He was recognized by the governor for his work with teenagers.

Learner example:
To sum up, Peter Smith deserves to be recognised for his efforts.
recollect /ˌrek.əlˈekt/

Word family:
Nouns: recollection
Verbs: recollect

VERB [T]
[C2] to remember something

Dictionary example:
I didn't recollect having seen him.

Learner example:
I am able to recollect only one single family gathering I did not especially take to.

recollec̣ion /ˌrek.əˈlɛk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: recollection
Verbs: recollect

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when you remember something

Dictionary example:
He had no recollection of the incident.

Learner example:
I have [a] very vague recollection of my childhood but, of course, there are some things that [have] stayed in my memory.

recommend /ˌrek.əˈmend/

Word family:
Nouns: recommendation
Verbs: recommend

VERB [T]
SUITABLE
[B1] to say that someone or something is good or suitable for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
Can you recommend a good wine to go with this dish?
Peter had recommended a restaurant to us.

Learner example:
I recommend the city of Porto Alegre.
ADVISE
[B2] to advise someone that something should be done

Dictionary examples:
The report recommended that tourists avoid the region.
I recommend writing your feelings down on paper.
She has been recommended for promotion.

Learner example:
I recommend that you apply to work [at the festival] and you will have a great time!

recommendation /ˌrek.ə.mənˈdɛɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: recommendation
Verbs: recommend

NOUN

ADVICE
[B2] [c] a piece of advice about what to do in a particular situation

Dictionary examples:
The report makes the recommendation that more prisons should be built.
It’s my recommendation that this factory be closed immediately.

Learner example:
I hope my recommendations are helpful, and I [hope] you have a great time!

SUITABLE
[B2] [c or u] a suggestion that someone or something is good or suitable for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
I bought this book on Andy’s recommendation.

Learner example:
The Chef's recommendation is Bulgogi made by beef.

reconcile /ˈrek.ən.saɪl/

VERB [T]

MAKE AGREE
[C2] to make two different ideas, beliefs, or situations agree or able to exist together
Dictionary examples:
It is sometimes difficult to reconcile science and religion.
How can you reconcile your love of animals with your habit of eating them?

Learner example:
When this is the case, the families caring for them are faced with an uphill struggle, as it is difficult to reconcile the need for earning a living with the care of their relatives.

reconsider /ˌriː.kənˈsidər/

Word family:
Nouns: consideration
Verbs: consider, reconsider
Adjectives: considerate, inconsiderate

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to think again about a decision or opinion and decide if you want to change it

Dictionary example:
We've been asked to reconsider the proposal.

Learner example:
We invite your newspaper to reconsider its position, hoping that the council will think about our proposals.

reconstruct /ˌriː.kənˈstrʌkt/

Word family:
Nouns: construction, reconstruction
Verbs: construct, reconstruct
Adjectives: constructive

VERB [T]
BUILD AGAIN
[C1] to build something again after it has been damaged or destroyed

Dictionary example:
They reconstructed the palace exactly as it had been.

Learner example:
Dear Sir, The student committee greatly appreciate your efforts to resolve our current problems, in particular improving and reconstructing our sports centre.

PAST EVENT
[C2] to create a description of a past event using all the information that you have
Dictionary example:
The police tried to reconstruct the crime using evidence found at the scene.

Learner example:
Through some letters written by Olivia to her sister Marcia, who lived in Paris in 1923, Anne reconstructs the different episodes, letting the reader imagine all the different scenes.

reconstruction /ˌriː.kənˈstrʌk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: construction, reconstruction
Verbs: construct, reconstruct
Adjectives: constructive

NOUN [C or U]

BUILD AGAIN
[C1] when you build something again after it has been damaged or destroyed

Dictionary example:
The reconstruction of the city took decades.

Learner example:
The classrooms are in need [of] immediate reconstruction.

PAST EVENT
[C2] when you create a description of a past event using all the information that you have

Dictionary example:
A reconstruction of the crime was shown on TV.

record /rɪˈkɔːd/

Word family:
Nouns: record, recording
Verbs: record

VERB /rɪˈkɔːd/

STORE INFORMATION
[B2] [ɪ] to write down information or store it on a computer so that it can be used in the future

Dictionary example:
He recorded details of their conversation in his diary.
Learner example:
Another way to [highlight] the importance of books is to consider them as the "depots" of wisdom and knowledge that exist and have been recorded since the beginning of History.

SHOW MEASUREMENT
[C1] [ɪ] If a device records a measurement, it shows that measurement.

Dictionary example:
The thermometer recorded a temperature of 30 degrees Celsius.

NOUN ˈrek.əd/

SONG/MUSIC
[B1] [c] a song or music which has been recorded and which is available for the public to buy, or the plastic disk that the music is recorded on

Dictionary example:
I like their new record.

Learner example:
My room is comfortable but a bit untidy around my stereo because in spite of [having] a lot of records and CDs, I don't have any shelf for them so this is why I'm going to buy a new shelf.

BEST
[B1] [c] the best, biggest, longest, tallest, etc.

Dictionary examples:
He ran the 100 metres in 9.79 seconds and broke the world record.
He holds the world record for 100 metres.
She set a new European record in the high jump.

Learner example:
[In track and field] he has broken the [current] world record of the 100 metre distance!

INFORMATION
[B2] [c or u] information that is written on paper or stored on computer so that it can be used in the future

Dictionary examples:
medical/dental records
My teacher keeps a record of my absences.
This summer has been the hottest on record.

Learner example:
First of all, using [a] computer is most important for me because I can store my personal records such as [my] diary or expenses and I [can] send e-mail[s] to my friends who live abroad.

put/set the record straight
[C1] to tell people the true facts about a situation
Dictionary example:
I know they thought Alex was lying, and I wanted to put the record straight.

Learner example:
I hope that my letter will set the record straight and that the public shall be informed about the true events of that day.

off the record
[C1] If you say something off the record, you do not want the public to know about it.

Dictionary example:
Off the record, ministers are saying the president must resign.

Learner example:
Off the record, how come that your reporter can print such lies when knowing they are perhaps hurting certain people in this important matter?

BEHAVIOUR
[C2] [c] A person's or company's record is their behaviour or achievements.

Dictionary examples:
She has an outstanding academic record.
Of all airlines they have the best safety record.
a good/bad record

Learner example:
Although my academic record is excellent, I feel that I lack practical experience and the opportunity to put my acquired knowledge to [the] test.

recording /rɪˈkɔː rdɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: record, recording
Verbs: record

NOUN

MUSIC/SPEECH
[B1] [c] a piece of music or a speech which has been recorded onto a disc, tape, etc.

Dictionary example:
I bought a recording of Maria Callas singing Verdi.

Learner example:
I've made some recordings for you to listen to.
PROCESS
[B2] [U] the process or business of putting sounds, especially music, onto a disc, magnetic tape, etc., using electronic equipment

Dictionary example:
a recording studio

Learner example:
I loved to sing and I decided to visit all the recording companies.

recover /ˈrɪˈkʌvər/

Word family:
Nouns: recovery
Verbs: recover

VERB

HEALTH
[B1] [I] to become healthy or happy again after an illness, injury, or period of sadness

Dictionary examples:
It takes a long time to recover from surgery.
She never recovered from the death of her husband.

Learner example:
Dear Teacher, I’m sorry but I can’t be at your next class because I’m recovering from [an illness] and my doctor said that I should stay home.

SITUATION
[B2] [I] If a system or situation recovers, it returns to the way it was before something bad happened.

Dictionary example:
The economy was quick to recover after the election.

Learner example:
Lots of effort has been put in and finally our economy is recovering.

GET BACK
[C1] [T] to get something back that has been lost or stolen

Dictionary example:
Police recovered the stolen money.

Learner example:
Moreover it might become virtually impossible to recover the money from that investment.
recovery /ˈreɪ.kərv.i/

Word family:
Nouns: recovery
Verbs: recover

NOUN
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] when you feel better or happier again after an illness, injury, or period of sadness
Dictionary example:
She only had the operation last month but she's made a full recovery.

Learner example:
I was sorry to hear that you were ill, and my family and I send you our best wishes for a speedy recovery.

SITUATION
[C1] [U NO PLURAL] when a system or situation returns to the way it was before something bad happened
Dictionary examples:
economic recovery
The housing industry has made a remarkable recovery.

Learner example:
We are still waiting for the recovery in our economy but the political transformation and economic reforms are very painful for our society.

GET BACK
[C2] [u] when you get back something that was lost or stolen
Dictionary example:
the recovery of stolen jewels

Learner example:
The diary had been lost for a long time but was now found in the attic of the house several years after the woman's death. It was dedicated to John. When John finished reading Lucy's secret diary he let willing tears flow. [...] The recovery of the lost diary had broken his heart.

recreate /ˌriː.kriˈeɪt/

VERB [T]
[C1] to make something exist or happen again
Dictionary example:
They plan to recreate a typical English village in Japan.
Learner example:
We want people whose skills with a laser high-accuracy enamel paint brush could only be surpassed by the skill of those men in our past who wielded the original weapons we are now recreating.

recreation /ˌrek.riˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: recreation
Adjectives: recreational

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] activities that you do for enjoyment when you are not working

Dictionary examples:
Emma's only form of recreation seems to be shopping.
a recreation area/centre

Learner example:
[Is] there any gym or other recreation facilities available in [the] Magnet Hotel?

recreational /ˌrek.riˈeɪ.ʃən.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: recreation
Adjectives: recreational

ADJECTIVE
[C2] used for recreation

Dictionary example:
recreational activities/facilities

Learner example:
There are few schools in the countryside and only basic recreational facilities, whereas the cities possess many schools, fully staffed, universities and many opportunities for recreation of every kind.

recruit /rɪˈkruːt/

Word family:
Nouns: recruit, recruitment
Verbs: recruit

VERB
[C1] to try to persuade someone to work for a company or to join an organization
Dictionary example:

Learner example:
Secondly, the coach driver was quite a rude person and, as far as I am concerned, it would be a good idea to pay more attention when recruiting your staff.

NOUN [c]
[C2] someone who has recently joined an organization

Dictionary example:
a new recruit

Learner example:
The CD–Rom will enable a self-training for new recruits with help of Compact Disks with usefull info.

recruitment /rɪˈkruː.t.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: recruit, recruitment
Verbs: recruit

NOUN [u]
[C1] the process of finding people to work for a company or become a new member of an organization

Dictionary example:
The recession has forced a lot of companies to cut down on staff recruitment.

Learner example:
This is mainly due to the recent recruitment of office personn[e]l in our department.

rectangle /ˈrek.tæŋ.gl/

Word family:
Nouns: rectangle
Adjectives: rectangular

NOUN [c]
[C1] a shape with four 90° angles and four sides, with opposite sides of equal length and two sides longer than the other two

Dictionary example:
The garden is in the shape of a rectangle.
rectangular  /rekˈtæŋ.gjʊ.lə/

Word family:
Nouns: rectangle
Adjectives: rectangular

ADJECTIVE
[B2] shaped like a rectangle

Dictionary example:
a rectangular patch of grass

Learner example:
Between Rossio and the river there [is] a commercial district laid out in a rectangular pattern, where you can go shopping.

rectify  /ˈrek.tri.fai/

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C1] to correct something or change it so that it is acceptable

Dictionary example:
The government has promised to rectify the situation.

Learner example:
I also hope as far as the article is concerned that you will kindly rectify the defamatory information revealed in the statement.

recur  /rɪˈkɜːr/

VERB [I] (recurring, recurred)
[C2] to happen again or many times

Dictionary example:
The same ideas recur throughout her books.

Learner example:
This feeling of feeling trapped recurs often throughout the novel as a way to emphasize the feeling of isolation.
Recycle /ˌriːˈsaɪ.kl/

Word family:
Nouns: recycling
Verbs: recycle
Adjectives: recycled

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to collect used paper, glass, plastic, etc., and put it through a process so that it can be used again

Dictionary examples:
We recycle all our newspapers and bottles.
The Japanese recycle more than half their waste paper.

Learner example:
I realised that it is very important to recycle.

Recycled /ˌriːˈsaɪ.kld/

Word family:
Nouns: recycling
Verbs: recycle
Adjectives: recycled

ADJECTIVE
[B1] Recycled paper, glass, plastic, etc. has been used before and put through a process so that it can be used again.

Dictionary example:
recycled paper/plastic

Learner example:
Using recycled glass and paper not only saves resources, but also a lot of energy.

Recycling /ˌriːˈsaɪ.klɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: recycling
Verbs: recycle
Adjectives: recycled

NOUN [u]
[B1] when paper, glass, plastic, etc. is put through a process so that it can be used again
Dictionary examples: ways to encourage recycling da recycling centre

Learner example:
In order to write this report, I interviewed 50 people in my town near the recycling centre and 50 people on the street.

red  /red/

ADJECTIVE (redder, reddest)

go red
[B2] If someone goes red, their face becomes red because they are embarrassed or angry.

Dictionary example:
He kissed her on the cheek and she went bright red.

Learner example:
When Paul saw the girl who had blond hair and bluish eyes, his face suddenly went red.

red tape
[C2] official rules that do not seem necessary and make things happen very slowly

Dictionary example:
We need to cut through all this red tape.

Learner example:
It is the student's responsibility to deal with the red tape and, as you might imagine, it is not an easy task.

NOUN [C or U]

see red
[C2] to become very angry

Dictionary example:
When he insulted my friends, I just saw red.

Learner example:
I see red each time I realize that my son is looking forward to arriving home so as to flop down in front of his telly instead of reading a good book.

in the red
[C2] If your bank account is in the red, you have spent more money than there was in it.

Dictionary example:
I expect I'm in the red again.
Learner example:
Her bank account was in the red.

redevelop /ˌriː.deˈvel.əp/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelopment
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

VERB [T]
[C1] to make a place more modern by improving old buildings or building new ones

Dictionary example:
There are plans to redevelop the city’s waterfront area.

Learner example:
Most of the coastal villages lose their traditional element – their value – and they become redeveloped in order to be in accord with the growing need to attract people.

redevelopment /ˌriː.deˈvel.əp.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelopment
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when a place is made more modern by improving old buildings or building new ones

Dictionary example:
There has been a lot of redevelopment in this area.

Learner example:
I would like to invite other people to support this proposal and to try to explain [to] the opposition how nice our city centre would be after the proposed redevelopment.

redistribute /ˌriː.dɪˈstrɪb.juːt/

Word family:
Nouns: distribution
Verbs: distribute, redistribute
VERB [T]
[C2] to share money, land, power, etc. between people in a different way from before

Dictionary example:
to redistribute wealth

Learner example:
The challenge our governments face now is how to redistribute wealth and how to provide the opportunity for all to exercise their right to work.

reduce /rɪˈdjuːs/

Word family:
Nouns: reduction
Verbs: reduce

VERB [T]
[B1] to make something less

Dictionary examples:
to reduce air pollution
Prices have been reduced by almost 50 percent.
The number of employees was reduced from 500 to 300.
Do nuclear weapons really reduce the risk of war?

Learner example:
It is a bit small, but the price was reduced.

reduction /rɪˈdʌk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: reduction
Verbs: reduce

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when something is reduced

Dictionary examples:
a reduction in traffic
huge price reductions

Learner example:
As for the prices, they are reasonable and you can have a reduction if your group is over 16 people.
redundancy /rɪˈdʌnd.ən.sɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: redundancy
Adjectives: redundant

NOUN
[C1] [c or u] when your employer makes you stop working because there is not enough work

Dictionary example:
There have been a lot of redundancies in the mining industry.

Learner example:
Some people seems to be afraid of that prospect and reluctant to use the Net, because they think it means the end of any relationship between people and it can lead to redundancies.

redundant /rɪˈdʌn.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: redundancy
Adjectives: redundant

ADJECTIVE

JOB
[B2] having lost your job because your employer no longer needs you

Dictionary example:
Half the workforce has been made redundant because of the decline in sales.

Learner example:
She had been made redundant and now, she has no job, no money, no friends and no home.

NOT NEEDED
[C2] not needed or used any more because there are other similar or more modern things

Dictionary example:
redundant weapons

Learner example:
Mass production, chasing profit wherever it is possible, makes oldish traditions redundant.
refer /rɪˈfɜː/

Word family:
Nouns: referee, reference
Verbs: refer

VERB (–rr–)

refer to sb/sth PHRASAL VERB

TALK OR WRITE
[B2] to talk or write about someone or something, especially briefly

Dictionary examples:
She didn't once refer to her son.
He always referred to his father as 'the old man'.

Learner example:
In your book you refer to the 'Hotel Astrid' but they decided to close it last year.

RELATE TO
[C1] If writing or information refers to someone or something, it relates to that person or thing.

Dictionary example:
The sales figures refer to UK sales only.

Learner example:
Ancient Greece was divided into two groups. The contrast between those two groups was getting bigger and bigger and it ended up [as] a destructive war – destructive doesn't refer only to deaths and city damage but also to the corruption of morals.

refer to sth PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to read something in order to get information

Dictionary example:
Please refer to your owner's manual for more information.

refer sb/sth to sb/sth PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to send someone or something to a different place or person for information or help

Dictionary examples:
My doctor referred me to a specialist.
All customer complaints are referred to the main office.

Learner example:
We would beg you to take immediate action about this, otherwise we will have to refer this to the "Noise Abatement Society".

2412 referee  /ˌref.əˈriː/

Word family:
Nouns: referee, reference
Verbs: refer

NOUN [c]
[B2] a person who is in charge of a sports game and who makes certain that the rules are followed

Dictionary example:
I think the referee made the wrong decision.

Learner example:
Due to my back injur[y], I could not train and play with my team, so it would be a good idea to be a referee.

reference  /ˈref.ər.ənts/

Word family:
Nouns: referee, reference
Verbs: refer

NOUN
with/in reference to sth
[B2] FORMAL relating to something

Dictionary example:
I am writing with reference to your letter of 15 March.

Learner example:
I'm writing with reference to the advertisement I saw on the college noticeboard concerning some jobs during [the period] 18–23 March, when there is the International Sports Competition.

NAME/BOOK TITLE
[B2] [c] a name or book title, etc. in a book or other piece of writing that tells you where information came from

Dictionary example:
There's the usual list of references at the back of the book.

Learner example:
I have information, and historical reference[s] [in] my collection, and I will be glad to share it with other members.

LETTER
[B2] [c] a letter that is written by someone who knows you, to say if you are suitable for a job or course
Dictionary example:
My old headteacher said he would write/give me a reference.

Learner example:
I am enclosing references from my ex-managers.

MENTIONING
[C1] [c or u] when you briefly talk or write about someone or something

Dictionary examples:
In his book, he makes several references to his time in France.
She made no reference to her marital problems.

Learner example:
Finally, your article makes reference to "a sudden downpour of rain" which was actually a small shower which lasted no more than five minutes.

READING
[C1] [u] when you read something in order to get information

Dictionary example:
Please keep this handout for future reference.

Learner example:
Can you also provide us [with] the list [of all] 300 hotels for our reference.

referendum /ˈref.ərəndəm/

NOUN [C]
[C2] an occasion when all the people in a country can vote in order to show their opinion about a political question

Dictionary example:
The government has promised a referendum on voting reform.

Learner example:
Everybody was speaking about the referendum.

refine /rɪˈfaɪn/

Word family:
Verbs: refine
Adjectives: refined

VERB [T]
[C2] to improve an idea, method, system, etc. by making small changes
Dictionary example:
The engineers spent months refining the software.

Learner example:
Zucchero Fornaciari was discovered ten years ago in a national show and during this period of time has sharpened and refined his music.

refined /rɪˈfaɪnd/

Word family:
Verbs: refine
Adjectives: refined

ADJECTIVE
POLITE
[C2] very polite and showing knowledge of social rules

Dictionary example:
She's very refined.

Learner example:
Not only is Lord Trimingham a noble and refined representative of Edwardian aristocracy, but also he is kind towards Leo.

IMPROVED
[C2] improved by many small changes

Dictionary examples:
a refined method
highly refined theories

Learner example:
Ever more refined technological devices like robots for example have led to the bizarre situation that you can walk through a production hall while work is in progress without seeing any human workers at all.

reflect /rɪˈflekt/

Word family:
Nouns: reflection
Verbs: reflect

VERB
IMAGE
[B2] [ɪ] If a surface such as a mirror or water reflects something, you can see the image of that thing in the mirror, water, etc.
Dictionary example:
He saw himself reflected in the shop window.

Learner example:
We could see a little from the light coming from the moon that [was] reflected in a mirror.

SHOW
[B2] [ɪ] to show or be a sign of something

Dictionary examples:
The statistics reflect a change in people's spending habits.
The town's economic success is reflected in its shiny new buildings.

Learner example:
Your description of the people, their everyday life, their characters and their friendliness reflects that you really had an excellent time here.

THINK
[C1] [ɪ] to think in a serious and careful way

Dictionary examples:
In prison, he had plenty of time to reflect on the crimes he had committed.
I need some time to reflect.

Learner example:
As I mentioned, there were several points which you can reflect on.

reflection /ˈrɪˈflekt/:

Word family:
Nouns: reflection
Verbs: reflect

NOUN

IMAGE
[B2] [c] the image of something in a mirror, on a shiny surface, etc.

Dictionary example:
I saw my reflection in the window.

Learner example:
Have you seen your reflection in a mirror?

a reflection of sth
[C1] something that is a sign or result of a particular situation

Dictionary example:
The fact that soldiers are on the streets is a reflection of how terrified the government is.
Learner example:
Is it really a reflection of the way we live?

THOUGHT
[C2] [u] FORMAL when you think in a serious and careful way

Dictionary examples:
He paused for reflection before answering my question.
On reflection, I think I was wrong.

Learner example:
Only now, on reflection, do I realize what care, love and thoughtfulness[s] my parents lavished on me.

reform /rɪˈfɔːm/

NOUN [C or u]
[C2] when changes are made to improve a system, organization, or law, or a change that is made

Dictionary examples:
economic/political reform
Students have called for reforms in the admission process.

Learner example:
To sum up, it is obvious that a reform in the educational system is necessary and that the beliefs of what is or is not useful to learn must be reconsidered.

VERB
[C2] [r] to change a system, organization, or law in order to improve it

Dictionary example:
efforts to reform the education system

Learner example:
Dag Hammarskjold made the work of the U N more efficient by reforming its structure.

refrain /rɪˈfreɪn/

VERB [I] FORMAL
[C2] to stop yourself from doing something

Dictionary example:
Please refrain from talking during the performance.
Learner example:
I believe that people who have civil and graceful manners and who refrain from being too assertive end up being more successful and powerful than those who try to exert authority at any given moment.

refresh /ˈrɪʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: refreshments
Verbs: refresh
Adjectives: refreshing

VERB
[C1] [ɪ] to make you feel less hot or tired
Dictionary example:
A cool drink should refresh you.

Learner example:
The bar is open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. When you are in my house, refresh yourself, help yourself from the fridge, feel at your ease, and then call me by phone.

[C1] [ɪ or ɪ] to make something more up–to–date or to make it look newer or more attractive
Dictionary examples:
Old furniture can be refreshed with a coat of paint.
Wait a minute – I need to refresh my memory on this.

Learner example:
The magazine is totally up–to–date with extreme question papers in which the reader has the opportunity to test or refresh his/her knowledge.

refreshing /ˈrɪʃ.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: refreshments
Verbs: refresh
Adjectives: refreshing

ADJECTIVE
DIFFERENT
[C1] different and interesting
Dictionary examples:
a refreshing change
It's refreshing to see a film that's so original.
Learner example:
Once you master the language quite well, listening to a news broadcast is a refreshing challenge that may require some serious concentration on your behalf.

FEEL BETTER
[C1] making you feel less hot or tired

Dictionary example:
a refreshing shower/swim

Learner example:
Last summer, I got a chance to visit there, and my breath was taken away by its soft sand, refreshing breeze, flocks of seagulls and poetic sunsets.

refreshments /rɪˈfreʃ.mənts/

Word family:
Nouns: refreshments
Verbs: refresh
Adjectives: refreshing

NOUN
[B1] food and drinks that are available at a meeting, event, on a journey, etc.

Dictionary example:
Refreshments are available in the lobby.

Learner example:
During the show, we had some refreshments and popcorn.

refuge /ˈref.juːdʒ/

NOUN
[C2] [u] protection from danger or unpleasant conditions

Dictionary example:
We took refuge from the storm in an old barn.

Learner example:
From the very moment when people from GDR started to take refuge in the BRD’s embassy in Prague, my friend and I grew more and more excited.
refugee /ˌref.jʊˈdʒiː/
NOUN [c]
[B2] I someone who has been forced to leave their country, especially because of a war
Dictionary examples:
a refugee camp
Thousands of refugees fled across the border.
Learner example:
This year I think I’d rather go to a refugee camp to organise a program for children.

refund
NOUN [c] /ˈriː.fʌnd/
[B1] an amount of money that is given back to you, especially because you are not happy with something you have bought
Dictionary example:
The holiday company apologized and gave us a full refund.
Learner example:
I am expecting a full refund and compensation for the discomfort I have suffered.
VERB /riːˈfʌnd/
[C1] to give back money that someone has paid to you
Dictionary example:
They refunded the cost of our tickets.
Learner example:
For all these reasons, I’m sure you realise that I deserve at the very minimum to be refunded all the money I spent on the Trip and unless this is forthcoming I shall take the matter a step further.

refusal /rɪˈfjuː.zəl/
Word family:
Nouns: refusal
Verbs: refuse
NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when someone refuses to do or accept something
Dictionary examples:
Her refusal to cooperate didn't help her case.
What shocked me was his complete refusal to admit his mistake.

Learner example:
The refusal of students [to use] the college canteen led to a demonstration that was held at the main entrance.

refuse /rɪˈfjuːz/

Word family:
Nouns: refusal
Verbs: refuse

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to say that you will not do or accept something

Dictionary examples:
I asked him to leave but he refused.
Cathy still refuses to admit that she was wrong.
She asked me to lend her some money but I refused.
He's in trouble but he's refused all my offers of help.

Learner example:
We have a competition for the cyclists next Friday and I need to practi[s]e. Unfortunately, I've lost my bike and my Mum refuses to buy a new one.

regain /rɪˈgeɪn/

VERB [T]
[B2] to get something back again

Dictionary examples:
The government has regained control of the capital.
It was several hours before he regained consciousness.

Learner example:
He regained his health in a month, and helped police to capture the loan gang.

regard /rɪˈgɑːd/

Word family:
Verbs: regard
Adverbs: regardless
VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

CONSIDER
[B2] to think of someone or something in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
She is generally regarded as one of the greatest singers this century.
The plans were regarded with deep suspicion.

Learner example:
Certainly, riding a bicycle is regarded as a healthy way of travel[ll]ing and I do agree with it.

as regards sth
[B2] used to introduce a subject

Dictionary example:
As regards payment, you will receive £300 per week plus accommodation.

Learner example:
As regards accommodation, we would like to stay in a hotel or a Bed and Breakfast, not at a campsite.

NOUN [u] FORMAL

regards
[B1] SLIGHTLY FORMAL greetings

Dictionary examples:
Kind/Best regards
Give my regards to your mother.

Learner example:
I hope this information help[s] you to make you[r] decision. Best regards, in/with regard to sth

[B2] FORMAL relating to something

Dictionary example:
I am writing with regard to your letter of 24 June.

Learner example:
I am writing to you with regard to the International Arts Festival that was held recently.

RESPECT
[C1] respect or admiration for someone

Dictionary example:
I have the greatest regard for her.

Learner example:
She is held in high regard by other employees.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th>Verbs: regard</th>
<th>Adverbs: regardless</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PREPOSITION</td>
<td>[B1] about</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>The company is being questioned regarding its employment policy.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>I apologise to you for missing tomorrow's class as I have to attend a meeting regarding the field trip for our school with the Principal.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
<th>Verbs: regard</th>
<th>Adverbs: regardless</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADVERB</td>
<td>regardless of</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] without being affected or influenced by anything else that happens or exists</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>This job is open to all, regardless of previous experience.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td>People listen to music regardless of their age group or their social status.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] without being stopped or influenced by something</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>Mr Redwood claimed he would carry on with his campaign regardless.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NOUN [C]</th>
<th>[C2] a system of government or other control, especially one that people do not approve of</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
<td>the former Communist regime</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
To my mind this film is highly recommendable to Germans who want to learn more about their history and to everybody who wants to learn about the consequences of a totalitarian political regime.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>region</th>
<th>/ˈriː.dʒən/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
- Nouns: region
- Adjectives: regional

NOUN [C]

AREA
[B1] a particular area in a country or the world

Dictionary examples:
- the semi-desert regions of Australia
- the South-west region

Learner example:
The Northeast region is famous for its white sandy beaches which are fringed with coconut trees.

in the region of sth
[C1] approximately

Dictionary example:
It probably cost somewhere in the region of £900.

Learner example:
I am willing [to] pay rent in the region of £1000 to £1200 monthly.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>regional</th>
<th>/ˈriː.dʒən.əl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
- Nouns: region
- Adjectives: regional

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to a particular area in a country or the world

Dictionary example:
a regional accent/dialect

Learner example:
Among these events, you'll be able to visit the annual regional food festival, in which you'll enjoy some delicious meals [and] stupendous cakes.

2424 register /ˈredʒ.ɪ.stər/

Word family:
Nouns: registration, register
Verbs: register

VERB

ON A LIST
[B1] [I or T] to put information about someone or something, especially a name, on an official list

Dictionary examples:
Students have to register for the new course by the end of April.
Is he registered with the authorities to sell alcohol?
I registered the car in my name.

Learner example:
I registered for [a] "green card" six months ago.

SHOW A FEELING
[C2] [T] to show an opinion or feeling

Dictionary example:
People gathered to register their opposition to the plans.

Learner example:
Dear Sir, I would like to register my dissatisfaction and displeasure over my recent holiday organized by you.

NOUN

LANGUAGE STYLE
[C1] [C or U] the style of language, grammar, and words used in particular situations

Dictionary example:
a formal/informal register registration /ˌredʒ.ɪˈstreɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: registration, register
Verbs: register

NOUN [U]
[B1] when a name or information is recorded on an official list

Dictionary example:
voter registration
Learner example:
We had to pay some money for the registration in the first lesson.

regret /rɪˈɡret/

VERB [T] (−tt−)

BAD DECISION
[B1] to feel sorry about a situation, especially something that you wish you had not done

Dictionary examples:
If you don't tell her the truth you'll regret it later.
I really regret leaving school so young.
He began to regret that he hadn't paid more attention in class.
Is there anything you've done in your life that you regret?

Learner example:
I'm glad to receive your letter and know about your intention to come to Brazil. I think you've made a nice choice and you won't regret it.

SORRY TO SAY
[B2] formal used to say that you are sorry that you have to tell someone about a situation

Dictionary examples:
We regret to inform you that the application has been refused.
The council regrets that the money is no longer available.

Learner example:
Dear editor, I regret to inform you about some untru[e] information which was given in the last issue of your magazine.

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a feeling of sadness about a situation, often something that you wish you had not done

Dictionary examples:
I left school at 16, but I've had a great life and I have no regrets.
My only regret is that we didn't invite James.
The manager expressed regret at the number of staff reductions.
It is with deep/great regret that I announce Steve Adam's resignation.

Learner example:
Anyway, it was too late for regrets.
regular /ˈreg.jʊ.lə/

Word family:
- Adjectives: irregular, regular
- Adverbs: regularly

ADJECTIVE

OFTEN

[B1] happening or doing something often, especially at the same time every week, year, etc.

Dictionary examples:
- a regular customer
- It's recommended that you take regular exercise.
- Violence is a regular occurrence in this part of the city.

Learner example:
His girlfriend is a regular member of that new club which I have joined.

GRAMMAR

[B1] following the usual rules or patterns in grammar

Dictionary example:
'Talk' is a regular verb but 'go' is not.

SIZE

[B1] being a standard size

Dictionary example:
- a burger and regular fries

SAME TIME/SPACE

[B2] repeated with the same amount of time or space between one thing and the next

Dictionary examples:
- I suggested that we meet on a regular basis.
- Plant the seedlings at regular intervals.

Learner example:
I'm willing to take care of your telescopes and to carry out [a] service on them at regular intervals so that they will work perfectly for many years.

regularly /ˈreg.jʊ.lə.li/

Word family:
- Adjectives: irregular, regular
- Adverbs: regularly
ADVERB

OFTEN [B1] often

Dictionary example:
Accidents regularly occur on this bend.

Learner example:
I know I promised to write to you regularly but I just hadn't [a] spare minu[te] until now.

SAME TIME
[B1] at the same time each day, week, month, etc.

Dictionary example:
They meet regularly – usually once a week.

Learner example:
I usually go out with my friends to buy a lot of clothes, regularly at weekends.

regulate /ˈreg.jə.leɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: regulation
Verbs: regulate

VERB [t]

ACTIVITY / PROCESS
[C1] to control an activity or process, especially by using rules

Dictionary example:
laws regulating advertising

Learner example:
I think in the near future we will find a way to regulate and control the internet and prevent criminals from using it.

SPEED / TEMPERATURE
[C1] to control the speed, temperature, etc. of something

Dictionary example:
Babies find it difficult to regulate their body temperature.

Learner example:
I expressed a wish to the driver to regulate the temperature, but he was extremely rude to me as well as to other pass[e]ngers.
regulation /ˌreg.jʊˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: regulation
Verbs: regulate

NOUN

RULE
[B2] [c] an official rule that controls how something is done

Dictionary examples:
building/safety/traffic regulations
There are various rules and regulations governing the procedure.

Learner example:
I would like the government to impose strict rules and regulations on capturing animals.

CONTROL
[C1] [u] when a process or activity is controlled

Dictionary example:
government regulation of interest rates

Learner example:
Proper regulation of program contents, monitoring children’s time watching television and using television as a media to promote other leisure activities are factors which could reduce but at the same time make [more] efficient the time spent in front of the television.

rehearsal /rɪˈhɜːs.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: rehearsal
Verbs: rehearse

NOUN [c or u]
[B2] a time when all the people involved in a play, dance, etc. practise in order to prepare for a performance

Dictionary example:
We only had one rehearsal before the show.

Learner example:
I helped to organise the rehearsals of the different group[s] who were going to play in the concert.
rehearse /riˈhaːs/

Word family:
Nouns: rehearsal
Verbs: rehearse

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to practise a play, dance, etc. in order to prepare for a performance

Dictionary example:
We usually rehearse on Wednesdays.

Learner example:
I can't count how many nights I spent studying and studying for difficult exams, rehearsing for presentation[s] and so on.

reign /reɪn/

NOUN
[C1] [C] a period of time when a king or queen rules a country

Dictionary example:
the reign of Henry VIII

Learner example:
If I had the incredible opportunity to travel back in time and place, I would probably choose to go to Egypt during the reign of the Pharaohs to gain an insight [into] how this magical place really was so long ago.

VERB [I]
KING/QUEEN
[C2] to be the king or queen of a country

Dictionary example:
Queen Victoria reigned for 64 years.

Learner example:
I would be most of my free time playing with them, making them feel I am their friend not the king who has to reign over his land and posses[s]ions.

MAIN FEELING/QUALITY
[C2] formal to be the main feeling or quality in a situation

Dictionary example:
Chaos reigned as angry protesters hammered on the doors.

Learner example:
Terror reigned during our singing courses.
reinforce /ˌriː.ɪnˈfɔːs/

VERB [T]

OPINION
[C1] to make an existing opinion, feeling or idea stronger

Dictionary example:
His behaviour merely reinforced my dislike of him.

Learner example:
The first unfavourable impression was reinforced the moment we arrived at the hotel.

OBJECT
[C2] to make something stronger

Dictionary examples:
a security door reinforced by/with steel bars reinforced concrete

Learner example:
If it is not possible, could not we get some money to be able to protect ourselves better against this unbearable noise, by reinforcing our windows.

reject /rɪˈdʒekt/

Word family:
Nouns: rejection
Verbs: reject

VERB [T]

NOT ACCEPT
[B2] to refuse to accept or agree with something

Dictionary examples:
The United States government rejected the proposal.
The appeal was rejected by the High Court.
The prime minister rejected the suggestion that it was time for him to resign.

Learner example:
[S]he rejected the proposal for a long, long time, [but] she finally married the Crown Prince 6 years ago.

JOB/COURSE
[B2] to refuse to accept someone for a job, course, etc.
Dictionary examples:
She applied to Cambridge University but was rejected.
He applied for a job as a chef, but he was rejected.

PERSON
[B2] to not give someone the love or attention they were expecting

Dictionary example:
She felt rejected by her husband.

Learner example:
"So you're Michael, the mis-understood artist, rejected by his family and friends," the man growled.

rejection /rɪˈdʒek.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: rejection
Verbs: reject

NOUN

NOT ACCEPT
[C2] [c or u] when you refuse to accept or agree with something

Dictionary example:
Their rejection of the peace plan is very disappointing for the government.

Learner example:
As a consequence, unemployment can lead to rejection of social and economic order and cause strikes, demonstrations and other forms of social dissatisfaction.

JOB/COLLEGE
[C2] [c] a letter that says you have not been successful in getting a job, a place at college, etc

Dictionary example:
I've sent off ten applications but I've only had rejections so far.

PERSON
[C2] [u] when someone does not get the love, attention or success they were expecting

Dictionary example:
a feeling of rejection

Learner example:
One would say she was a true Rapunzel, and oh, how he wanted to climb up to her; but fear of rejection made him completely motionless.
relate /rɪˈleɪt/

Nouns: relation, relationship, relative
Verbs: relate
Adjectives: related, relative, unrelated
Adverbs: relatively

CONNECT
[C2] [I or T] to be connected, or to find or show the connection between two or more things

Dictionary example:
How do the two proposals relate?

Learner example:
They relate in no way to what an actor contributes to a project.

TELL
[C2] [T] FORMAL to tell a story or describe a series of events

Dictionary example:
He related the story of their journey.

Learner example:
It relates the story of Clément Mathieu, who is a supply teacher.

related /rɪˈleɪ.tɪd/

Nouns: relation, relationship, relative
Verbs: relate
Adjectives: related, relative, unrelated
Adverbs: relatively

FAMILY
[B2] If people are related, they belong to the same family.

Dictionary examples:
Of course Elise and Linda are related to each other – they’re cousins.
We’re related by marriage only.

Learner example:
Although they’re related to each other, they have rather different characters.
connected

B2 connected

Dictionary examples:
We discussed unemployment and related issues.
There's been an increase in criminal activity related to drugs.

Learner example:
It is also related to my research project.

relation /rɪˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: relation, relationship, relative
Verbs: relate
Adjectives: related, relative, unrelated
Adverbs: relatively

NOUN

family member

B1 [c] someone who belongs to the same family as you

Dictionary examples:
The funeral was attended by friends and relations.
He's called Ken Russell, no relation to the film director.

Learner example:
I beg[a]n to play against my relations and friends but I soon found that I could [beat] them without any difficulty.

relations

B2 the way in which two people or groups of people feel and behave towards each other

Dictionary examples:
Relations between the couple are said to be strained.
Britain enjoys friendly relations with Canada.

Learner example:
The second [film] is 'Alice' directed by the world's most respected man within the movie bus[si]ness – of course Woody Allen. Again the good old fellow is totally fascinated by people in general, human relations and reactions.

connection

B2 [c or u] a connection between two or more things

Dictionary example:
The relation between smoking and lung cancer is well established.
Learner example:
Another drawback is the relation between space and time.

in relation to sth
[B2] when compared with something

Dictionary example:
Salaries are low in relation to the cost of living.

Learner example:
I think television has several advantages but also disadvantages in relation to books.

in relation to sth
[B2] about or relating to something

Dictionary example:
I'd like to ask you something in relation to what you said earlier.

Learner example:
In relation to last month's social program, the sightseeing tour of London was d[j]vīne, although we didn't get to see the entire city.

---

relationship /rɪˈlɛr.ʃənʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: relation, relationship, relative
Verbs: relate
Adjectives: related, relative, unrelated
Adverbs: relatively

NOUN [C]

[B1] the way two people or groups feel about and behave towards each other

Dictionary example:
He has a very good relationship with his father.

Learner example:
Then we studied some phrasal verbs and I was supposed to read a text about feelings and relationships.

ROMANTIC
[B1] a sexual or romantic friendship

Dictionary examples:
Have you h[a]d any serious relationships in the past year?
Are you in a relationship at the moment?
Learner example:
He told me that he hope[s] that someday we could have a boyfriend–girlfriend relationship for real.

CONNECTION
[B2] the way in which two things are connected

Dictionary example:
the relationship between sunburn and skin cancer

Learner example:
The relationship between mind and body has been proved by scientists.

---

relative /ˈrel.i.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: relation, relationship, relative
Verbs: relate
Adjectives: related, relative, unrelated
Adverbs: relatively

NOUN [C]
[B1] a member of your family

Dictionary examples:
There was a party for friends and relatives.
I haven't got many blood relatives.
All her close/distant relatives came to the wedding.

Learner example:
After that there'll be a big party with all your relatives and friends.

ADJECTIVE FORMAL

MEASURED
[C1] being judged or measured in comparison with something else

Dictionary examples:
the relative prosperity of the West
We weighed up the relative advantages of driving there or going by train.

Learner example:
In order to get myself clear let me tell you that as an individual, I consider myself a dreamer and in the transition from my late teens to my relative maturity I've considered the words of Hesse in his novel "Gertrude": "The difference between our youth and maturity is that in the first stage we are selfish in all our feelings and actions, while in maturity our top priority is everyone[e] else but [ourselves]..."

relative to sth
[C2] when compared to something else
Dictionary example:
The economy has been declining relative to other countries.

Learner example:
This seems true at first sight but when one takes into account the different sizes of population, it becomes clear that every country is more or less equally successful relative to its population.

relatively /ˈrelə.tv.li/

Word family:
Nouns: relation, relationship, relative
Verbs: relate
Adjectives: related, relative, unrelated Adverbs: relatively

ADVERB
relatively good/bad/cheap, etc.
[B2] quite good/bad/cheap, etc. when compared to other similar things

Dictionary examples:
Eating out is relatively cheap.
Students will find the course relatively easy.

Learner example:
First of all, the most favo[u]rable time for me to travel is July, because I am in the final year of University, so I have to attend classes for a thesis almost throughout the year apart from July, when I can take a relatively long summer holiday.

relax /rɪˈlæks/

Word family:
Nouns: relaxation
Verbs: relax
Adjectives: relaxed, relaxing

VERB [I or T]
BECOME HAPPY
[B1] to become happy and comfortable because nothing is worrying you, or to make someone do this

Dictionary examples:
I find it difficult to relax.
After work I relax with a cup of tea and the newspaper.
The wine had relaxed him and he began to talk.
Learner example:
If you want to relax, Buenos Aires is near a lot of beautiful beaches.

LESS STIFF
[C1] If a part of your body relaxes, it becomes less stiff, and if you relax it, you make it become less stiff.

Dictionary example:
Try these exercises to relax your neck muscles.

---

relaxation /ˌriː.lækˈseɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: relaxation
Verbs: relax
Adjectives: relaxed, relaxing

NOUN [u]
[B1] the feeling of being relaxed

Dictionary example:
He plays the piano for relaxation.

Learner example:
Last week I decided [to] paint it in baby blue, you know I love that colour, in fact somebody told me it was very good for relaxation.

---

relaxed /rɪˈlækst/

Word family:
Nouns: relaxation
Verbs: relax
Adjectives: relaxed, relaxing

ADJECTIVE

PERSON
[B1] feeling happy and calm because nothing is worrying you

Dictionary examples:
She looked relaxed and happy walking along with her two boys.
He seemed perfectly relaxed and in control of the situation.

Learner example:
It makes me more relaxed.

SITUATION
[B2] A relaxed situation or place is comfortable and informal.
Dictionary example:
There was a very relaxed atmosphere at the party.

Learner example:
I love this place because [it] has a relaxed atmosp[h]ere and all the staff [are] very friendly.

---

relaxing /rɪˈlæks.ɪŋ/

Word family:
- Nouns: relaxation
- Verbs: relax
- Adjectives: relaxed, relaxing

ADJECTIVE
[B1] making you feel relaxed

Dictionary example:
a relaxing bath

Learner example:
Yoga is a very relaxing activity but not boring at all!

---

release /rɪˈliːs/

VERB [T]

MAKE FREE
[B2] to allow a prisoner to be free

Dictionary examples:
Six hostages were released shortly before midday.
He was released from prison last week.

Learner example:
It all began when I was released from jail, after a two year conviction [for] jewel theft.

RECORD/FILM
[B2] to make a record or film available for people to buy or see

Dictionary example:
The band’s latest album will be released next week.

Learner example:
He has recently released a new CD on which he spent a lot of time and real[l]y made an effort.

INFORMATION
[C1] to let the public have news or information about something
Dictionary examples:
Police have not released the dead woman's name.
The minister has released a statement explaining the reasons for his resignation.

Learner example:
The article made some valid points, such as the contradictory studies being released on a regular basis being the foundation of much confusion and that we should eat what we want, with a little commonsense of course.

SUBSTANCE
[C1] to let a substance flow out from somewhere

Dictionary example:
Dangerous chemicals were accidentally released into the river.

Learner example:
The gases released encourage the greenhouse effect, and it is possible to see a heavy smog floating over the city on some winter days.

NOUN
[B2] [c] a musical recording which is made available for the public to buy

Dictionary example:
Her latest release, a song about doomed love, she wrote herself.

Learner example:
[This department store] provide[s] the latest cds and dvds, so you are always up to date and never miss new releases.

MAKING FREE
[C1] [U NO PLURAL] when someone is allowed to leave prison, etc.

Dictionary example:
Her early release from prison led to a demonstration.

AREA/ATMOSPHERE
[C1] [u] when a substance is allowed to spread into the area or atmosphere around it

Dictionary example:
the release of toxic waste

Learner example:
In such a way we can minimise the impact of [the] deadly release of radio-active materials.

relentless  /rɪˈlent.ləs/

Word family:
Adjectives: relentless
Adverbs: relentlessly
ADJECTIVE
[C2] never stopping or getting any less extreme

Dictionary example:
relentless criticism

Learner example:
We have come to the end of a millennium of accelerating and relentless destruction of the environment.

relentlessly /rɪˈlent.ləs.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: relentless
Adverbs: relentlessly

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that never stops or never gets less extreme

Dictionary example:
They pestered her relentlessly to take them to the seaside.

Learner example:
After the killing of the two sensible members of the group, namely Piggy and Simon, Ralph is relentlessly pursued by Jack.

relevance /ˈrel.a.vənts/

Word family:
Nouns: relevance
Adjectives: relevant

NOUN [u]
[C1] the degree to which something is related or useful to what is happening or being talked about

Dictionary example:
This point has no relevance to the discussion.

Learner example:
One may agree with what has been said or not, but nobody can deny the relevance of the issue, as our future society depends on our present educational system.
relevant  /ˈrel.ə.vənt/

Word family:
Nouns: relevance
Adjectives: relevant

ADJECTIVE
[B2] related or useful to what is happening or being talked about

Dictionary examples:
relevant information
Education should be relevant to children's needs.

Learner example:
I had studied psychology but I couldn't find a job relevant to my studies.

reliability  /rɪˈlaɪə.bɪlə.tɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: reliability, reliance, self-reliance
Verbs: rely
Adjectives: reliable, unreliable, reliant, self-reliant

NOUN [u]
[C1] how reliable something is

Dictionary example:
I can't vouch for the reliability of these figures.

Learner example:
Our customers appreciate in particular the reliability of our products and most of them are prepared to pay a premium price for a high-quality product.

reliable  /rɪˈlaɪə.bl/
Learner example:
I got a lot of prizes in school, so I consider myself a hardworking and reliable person.

reliance /rɪˈlɑːr.ənts/

Word family:
Nouns: reliability, reliance, self-reliance
Verbs: rely
Adjectives: reliable, unreliable, reliant, self-reliant

NOUN

reliance on sb/sth
[C2] when someone or something depends on someone or something else

Dictionary example:
our increasing reliance on computers

Learner example:
The fact that this heavy reliance on technology is often overlooked is a growing source of concern among experts.

reliant /rɪˈlɑːr.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: reliability, reliance, self-reliance
Verbs: rely
Adjectives: reliable, unreliable, reliant, self-reliant

ADJECTIVE

be reliant on sb/sth
[C2] to depend on someone or something

Dictionary example:
I don’t want to be reliant on anybody.

Learner example:
To conclude one can say that the person should be able to operate on his own and be reliant on himself.
relief /rɪˈliːf/

Word family:
Nouns: relief
Verbs: relieve Adjectives: relieved

NOUN

GOOD FEELING
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] the good feeling that you have when something unpleasant stops or does not happen

Dictionary examples:
It'll be such a relief when these exams are over.
"James can come tonight." "Well, that's a relief!"
I felt such a sense of relief when we finished the project.

Learner example:
She heard an ambulance siren in the distance and with a sigh of relief, she lost consciousness.

LESS PAIN
[C2] [u] when something stops hurting you

Dictionary example:
I'd been trying to sleep to find relief from the pain.

HELP
[C2] [u] money, food, or clothes that are given to people because they need help

Dictionary example:
an international relief operation

Learner example:
In our opinion it is not necessary to practise low-flying because you should take into account that we all live in peace time and the money would be better spent on health or relief agencies.

relieve /rɪˈliːv/

Word family:
Nouns: relief
Verbs: relieve Adjectives: relieved

VERB [T]

FROM PAIN
[C2] to make pain or a bad feeling less severe
Dictionary example:
Breathing exercises can help to relieve stress.

Learner example:
Now science gets the blame for being able to do so much, but not enough to relieve the psych[ologic]al pain.

relieved /rɪˈliːvd/
Word family:
Nouns: relief
Verbs: relieve Adjectives: relieved

ADJECTIVE
[B2] happy that something unpleasant has not happened or has ended

Dictionary examples:
I'm just relieved that she's safe and well.
I heard a noise and was relieved to find that it was only a cat.

Learner example:
She actually felt extremely relieved.

religion /rɪˈlɪdʒ.ən/
Word family:
Nouns: religion
Adjectives: religious

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] the belief in a god or gods, or a particular system of belief in a god or gods

Dictionary example:
the Christian/Muslim/Buddhist religion

Learner example:
I think it's quite interesting for me, because I like [the] history of religion.

religious /rɪˈlɪdʒ.əs/
ADJECTIVE

OF RELIGION
[B2] relating to religion

Dictionary examples:
religious education
religious paintings

Learner example:
Last but not least, I think people need religious and spiritual support and [the] family has to be protected and preserved.

PERSON
[B2] having a strong belief in a religion

Dictionary examples:
He's a very religious man.
They are both deeply religious.

Learner example:
The majority of us are Catholics or very religious.

relish  /ˈrel.ɪʃ/

VERB [T]
[C2] to enjoy something

Dictionary example:
I don't relish the thought of a twelve-hour flight.

Learner example:
But as we gradually grow up and turn into adults, the dependence lessens and we relish our freedom.

NOUN ENJOYMENT
[C2] [u] enjoyment

Dictionary example:
He had baked a cake which the children now ate with relish.

Learner example:
My expert knowledge of the latter subject was completely ignored, which left me with the former, the most dreaded of all subjects. This was discussed with relish and the operations were described in such vivid detail that I had to excuse myself and leave the room, because I started to feel faint.
SAUCE
[C2] [c] a sauce that you put on food to give it more taste

Dictionary example:
I ate the burger with some relish.

Learner example:
There are trays of cut lettuce, leaf lettuce, cut tomato, diced tomato, all kinds of relishes, cheese with bacon spread, barbecue, or whatever you like.

relocate /ˌriː.ləʊˈkeɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: location
Verbs: locate, relocate

VERB [i or T]
[C1] to move to another place

Dictionary example:
The company relocated to Tokyo.

Learner example:
Well, as you know I was looking for a new job and for that reason I had to relocate to London in November.

reluctant /rɪˈlʌktənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: reluctant Adverbs: reluctantly

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not wanting to do something

Dictionary example:
Many victims of crime are reluctant to go to the police.

Learner example:
However, Spanish husbands are very reluctant to share the housework.

reluctantly /rɪˈlʌktənt.lɪ/
ADVERB

[C1] in a reluctant way

Dictionary example:
She reluctantly agreed to step down as managing director.

Learner example:
Reluctantly I am forced to mention that my interpreter’s fee should be at least doubled.

rely /rɪˈlaɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: reliability, reliance, self-reliance
Verbs: rely
Adjectives: reliable, unreliable, reliant, self-reliant

VERB

rely on/upon sb/sth PHRASAL VERB

NEED
[B2] to need someone or something in order to be successful, work correctly, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Families rely more on women’s earnings than before.
The success of this project relies on everyone making an effort.

Learner example:
Another thing is that people rely on modern medicine more and more.

TRUST
[B2] to trust someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I know I can rely on you to help me.
British weather can never be relied on.

Learner example:
People rely on me as I always keep my promises.

remain /rɪˈmeɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: remains
Verbs: remain
Adjectives: remaining remain calm/open, etc.
[B1] to continue to be in the same state

Dictionary examples:
Despite the chaos around him, he remained calm.
He remained silent.
The bank will remain open while building work is carried out.

Learner example:
I tried to remain calm but it was very difficult.

remain a secret/mystery, etc.
[B2] to continue to be a secret/mystery, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The exact date of the wedding remains a secret.
The true location of the treasure remains a mystery.

Learner example:
The tragic death of Pat Johnson was a fact..... Her secret remained a secret.

remain at/in/with, etc.
[B2] formal to stay in the same place

Dictionary examples:
She will remain at her mother's until I return.
The doctor ordered him to remain in bed for a few days.

Learner example:
Max went with me while the others remained in the room.

CONTINUE TO EXIST
[B2] [I] to continue to exist, especially after other things or people have gone

Dictionary examples:
Only a few hundred of these animals remain today.
After the flood, nothing remained of the village.

Learner example:
Of course, India must have changed a lot since Jules Verne wrote his book, but I think that its charm remains.

remaining /rɪˈmeɪ.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: remains
Verbs: remain
Adjectives: remaining
ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B2] continuing to exist when other things or people have gone or been dealt with

Dictionary example:
Mix in half the butter and keep the remaining 50g for later.

Learner example:
So I decided to do nothing for the remaining week. I stayed at the beach and spent time swimming, reading and relaxing.

remains /rəˈmeɪnz/

Word family:
Nouns: remains
Verbs: remain
Adjectives: remaining

NOUN [PLURAL]

[B2] pieces or parts of something which continue to exist when most of it has been used, destroyed or taken away

Dictionary examples:
The remains of lunch were still on the table.
We visited the remains of a 12th-century monastery.

Learner example:
With old castles, historical remains, [and] wonderful views, it seems to be extremely interesting.

remark /rɪˈmɑːk/

Word family:
Nouns: remark
Verbs: remark
Adjectives: remarkable
Adverbs: remarkably

VERB [T]

[B2] to say something that shows your opinion or states a fact

Dictionary examples:
He remarked that she was looking thin.
She remarked on how attractive he was.

Learner example:
Besides, as Chris remarked, this route may be very difficult.
NOUN [C]
[B2] something that you say, showing your opinion about something or stating a fact

Dictionary examples:
He made a remark about her clothes.
Her remarks on the employment question led to a heated discussion.

Learner example:
The man was surprised at her remark and double-checked it reluctantly.

remarkable /ˈrɪˈmɑː.kə.bl/
Word family:
Nouns: remark
Verbs: remark
Adjectives: remarkable
Adverbs: remarkably

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very unusual or noticeable in a way that you admire

Dictionary examples:
He is a truly remarkable man.
He has a remarkable memory.

Learner example:
It is a remarkable piece of literature, which portrays deep feelings of love and hate, depicts strong and unique characters, [and] reveals eternal concerns with good and bad, life and death.

remarkably /ˈrɪˈmɑː.kə.bli/
Word family:
Nouns: remark
Verbs: remark
Adjectives: remarkable
Adverbs: remarkably

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that makes you feel surprised

Dictionary example:
She has remarkably good skin for her age.

Learner example:
As for your flight attendants, who are always friendly and remarkably helpful, it would be excellent if they were able to speak other languages apart from English.
remedy /ˈrem.ə.di/

NOUN [C]

FOR AN ILLNESS

[B2] something that makes you better when you are ill

Dictionary examples:
- a flu remedy
- an effective herbal remedy for headaches

Learner example:
But it is [debatable] [whether] animals are held to widen our human understanding and to create new remedies to cure people from illnesses or if they are [kept] just to amuse people.

FOR A PROBLEM

[B2] something that solves a problem

Dictionary example:
The remedy for the traffic problem is to encourage people to use public transport.

Learner example:
You should give your deputy more work, and have more free time, which I think is the best remedy in your case.

remind /rɪˈmaɪnd/

Word family:

Nouns: reminder
Verbs: remind

VERB [T]

[B1] to make someone remember something, or remember to do something

Dictionary examples:
Remind me to post this letter.
Could you remind Paul about dinner on Saturday?
I rang Jill and reminded her that the conference had been cancelled.

Learner example:
Dan I'm writing you this [email] to remind you that tonight we will be going to the cinema with some of my friends.
reminder /rɪˈmɑːn.də/

Word family:
- Nouns: reminder
- Verbs: remind

NOUN [c]
- [C1] something that makes you remember something else
  - Dictionary example:
    If he forgot to pay his rent, his landlady would send him a reminder.
  - Learner example:
    "Time is precious" is not interpreted as "carpe diem", but rather as a constant reminder of all our duties, that should be done in as little time as possible to prove ourselves effective.

remorse /rɪˈmoʊs/

NOUN [u]
- [C2] the feeling that you are sorry for something bad that you have done
  - Dictionary example:
    He has shown no remorse for his actions.
  - Learner example:
    At first she thought someone wanted her to feel remorse for not being with her husband when he needed her.

remote /rɪˈməʊt/

ADJECTIVE

- FAR AWAY [B2] far away
  - Dictionary examples:
    It was a remote mountain village with no electricity supply.
    His voice sounded remote.
  - Learner example:
    She grew up in a remote area in the North East of Thailand.

- TIME [C2] far in time
  - Dictionary example:
    in the remote past
Learner example:
Understanding leads to tolerance, which is absolutely necessary in order to save old customs, tradition[s] or even primitive tribes whose ideas might seem very remote to us.

SLIGHT
[C2] slight

Dictionary example:
There is a remote possibility that it could be cancer.

Learner example:
While it seemed only a remote possibility, she regarded it as a game she would like, and had the right to, play.

remote control /rɪˈməʊt.ˈkənˈtրəʊl/ (also remote)

NOUN [c]
[B1] a piece of equipment that is used to control something such as a television or toy from a distance

Dictionary example:
Have you seen the remote control anywhere?

Learner example:
TV – a powerful force that keeps us glued for endless hours every day, unable to press the "Off" button on the remote control.

remove /rɪˈmuːv/

Word family:
Nouns: movement
Verbs: move, remove Adjectives: moving

VERB [T]
TAKE AWAY
[B1] to take something away

Dictionary examples:
The men came to remove the rubbish from the backyard.
An operation was needed to remove the bullets from his chest.

Learner example:
I'm going to remove the wardrobe and [get] a new one!!
TAKE OFF
[B2] to take something off

Dictionary examples:
Liz removed her jacket and hung it on a chair.
Carefully remove the lid, then stir the paint.

Learner example:
After, I was drenched to the skin and I had to remove all my clothes before going in[to] the restaurant, I let you imagine how ashamed I was when I went in[to] the restaurant completely naked!

JOB
[C2] FORMAL to make someone stop doing their job

Dictionary example:
He had been removed from his job on medical grounds.

be far removed from sth
[C2] to be very different from something

Dictionary example:
The princess's world was far removed from reality.

Learner example:
It is the same problem with planned excursions to street markets in Asia, souks in Arabia or even tribes that are far removed from industrialized life in Papua New Guinea or the rainforest of Brazil.

render /ˈren.dər/

VERB [T] FORMAL

GIVE
[C1] to give someone a decision, opinion, help, etc

Dictionary example:
payment for services rendered

Learner example:
Finally, the students have only a 5% discount for the services rendered by the arts centre in contrast to the fact that we agreed initially that a 10% discount would be more adequate.

CAUSE TO BE
[C2] to cause something or someone to be in a particular state or condition

Dictionary examples:
The trees rendered the road as dark as a tunnel.
She was rendered speechless upon hearing the news.
Learner example:
Inadequate medical care coupled with inevitable worsening of constitution, which is a usual concomitant of an elderly age, renders the old exposed to illnesses and injuries which may wreak havoc with their lives.

renew  /rɪˈnju:/

Word family:
Nouns: renewal
Verbs: renew
Adjectives: renewable

VERB [T]
[B2] to arrange to continue an official agreement that was going to end soon

Dictionary examples:
I've decided not to renew my membership of the tennis club this year.
I forgot to renew my season ticket.

Learner example:
As I had never been abroad before, I hurriedly went to an office where we can apply for a passport or renew it.

renewable  /rɪˈnjuː.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: renewal
Verbs: renew
Adjectives: renewable

ADJECTIVE

ENERGY
[C1] A renewable form of energy can be produced as quickly as it is used.

Dictionary example:
a renewable energy source such as wind power

Learner example:
But the use of renewable energy sources is always a challenge.

OFFICIAL AGREEMENT
[C2] A renewable official agreement is one that you can arrange to continue when the time limit is reached.

Dictionary example:
a 6-month renewable contract
Learner example:
This seemed like a good enough alternative, but last week I was overwhelmed by the proposal from the company I worked for in London, of going back and working for another 6-month renewable contract, on a shift basis.

renewal  /ˈrɪˈnjuː.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: renewal
Verbs: renew
Adjectives: renewable

NOUN [C or U]

AGREEMENT
[C1] when you renew an agreement, contract, etc.

Dictionary example:
Their licence is up for renewal.

Learner example:
I suggest we negotiate a new agreement next year, when the current agreement will be due for renewal.

REPAIR/IMPROVE
[C2] the process of repairing and improving something

Dictionary example:
They have spent millions on the renewal of the rail system.

Learner example:
Like the farmer who carefully tends his plot of fertile land, we should make constructive use of our free time, so that we can reap the benefits of spiritual renewal and rejuvenation, and to fully enjoy the fruits of our labour.

renovate  /ˈren.ə.veɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: renovation
Verbs: renovate

VERB [T]
[C1] to repair and decorate a building that is old and in bad condition

Dictionary example:
He has a business renovating old buildings.
Learner example:
We should also renovate the library and extend the opening hours.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>renovation /ˌren.oʊ.ˈveɪ.ʃən/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: renovation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: renovate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [U]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] the act of repairing and decorating a building that is old and in bad condition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They spent all their savings on the renovation of an old cottage.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dear Principal, In response to your memo, I am writing to provide you with some suggestions concerning the renovation of [the]Sports Centre, on behalf of the member of the student committee.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>renowned /rɪˈnaʊnd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] famous</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Lake District is renowned for its beauty.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maria Sandoral is a talented young artist who, at the age of 23, has far more background than a lot of artists. [...] She is renowned for her restless attitude, and for her deep interest in the field.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>rent /rent/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>VERB</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RECEIVE MONEY</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] [r] (also rent out) to allow someone to pay you money to live in your building</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I rented out my house and went travelling for a year.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>My Dad has a cottage which he rents (out) to tourists.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>My uncle is trying to rent his house.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
reorganize /ˌriːˈɔː.gən.aɪz/

VERB [I or T] (ALSO UK reorganise)
[C1] to organize something again in order to improve it

Dictionary example:
He's completely reorganized his schedule for the week.

Learner example:
We must focus our programme more [on] cultural exchange and less [on] work; the students gained very little in this six weeks [so] we must reorganise this to improve the experience.

repair /rɪˈpeər/

VERB [T]

IMPROVE
[C2] to improve a bad situation

Dictionary example:
It will take a long time to repair relations between the two countries.

Learner example:
The German government was not able to repair the damage caused by the crisis.

NOUN [C or U]

THING FIXED
[B1] something that you do to fix something that is broken or damaged

Dictionary examples:
My car is in the garage for repairs.
The repairs to the roof will be expensive.

Learner example:
My father sent it to the workshop for repair.

be in good/bad repair
[C2] to be in good/bad condition

Dictionary example:
Most of the building is in very bad repair.

Learner example:
Cinemas and restaurants are necessary for all and we should also bear in mind that the existing sports facilities need renovation because they aren't in good repair.
repay  /ˈreɪ ˈpeɪ/  (repaid, repaid)

Word family:
Nouns: pay, payment
Verbs: pay, repay
Adjectives: payable, underpaid, unpaid

VERB [T]

MONEY
[B2] to pay back money that you have borrowed

Dictionary example:
He had to sell his car to repay the loan.

Learner example:
We could make a deal, so that I could repay my debts.

KINDNESS
[B2] to do something kind for someone who has done something to help you

Dictionary example:
What can I do to repay you for your kindness?

Learner example:
It's always a ple[al]sure to see you and I hope I'll be able to repay your hospitality if you ever come to visit us in Cambridge.

repeat  /rəˈpiːt/

Word family:
Nouns: repetition
Verbs: repeat
Adjectives: repeated, repetitive
Adverbs: repeatedly

VERB [T]

TELL
[B1] to tell someone something that someone else has told you

Dictionary example:
Please don't repeat what I've just told you to anyone else.

Learner example:
He had written he was sorry, he should not have done it, he wished he had not repeated what I told him, he would never do something like that again...
repeated /rɪˈpiː.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: repetition
Verbs: repeat
Adjectives: repeated, repetitive
Adverbs: repeatedly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] done or happening more than once

Dictionary example:
He has refused repeated requests to be interviewed.

Learner example:
There were so many people and so many repeated questions and so much noise at home.

repeatedly /rɪˈpiː.tɪd.li/

Word family:
Nouns: repetition
Verbs: repeat
Adjectives: repeated, repetitive
Adverbs: repeatedly

ADVERB
[C1] many times

Dictionary examples:
He telephoned repeatedly, begging her to return.
The European Union has repeatedly stressed the importance of language learning.

Learner example:
Once you pick up the new words and learn something, you need to say it repeatedly otherwise you will easily forget [it].

repetition /ˌrep.iˈtʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: repetition
Verbs: repeat
Adjectives: repeated, repetitive
Adverbs: repeatedly

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when something is repeated
Dictionary example:
We don’t want a repetition of last year’s disaster.

Learner example:
This could in fact lead to a repetition of the mistakes of the past, when the paralyzed United Nations were, due to the small number and influence of neutral countries, a mere bystander to the risky arms-race fought out between the two nuclear superpowers.

repetitive  /rɪˈpet.ə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: repetition
Verbs: repeat
Adjectives: repeated, repetitive
Adverbs: repeatedly

ADJECTIVE
[C1] doing or saying the same thing several times, especially in a way that is boring

Dictionary example:
a repetitive job

Learner example:
My grandparents used to say to my mum: "How can you wear it?! It hardly covers your b[ottom]om! When I was young..." (This is the beginning of a sentence when it starts to be little bit boring and extremely repetitive!)

replace  /rɪˈpleɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: place, replacement, displacement
Verbs: place, replace, displace, misplace

VERB [T]

USE INSTEAD
[B1] to start using another thing or person instead of the one that you are using now

Dictionary examples:
We’re thinking of replacing our old TV with a new one.
The factory replaced most of its workers with robots.

Learner example:
And I’m going to replace the desk, because I [don’t] have enough [sp]ace to put a computer onto it.
GET SOMETHING NEW
[B1] to get something new because the one you had before has been lost or damaged

Dictionary examples:
We’ll have to replace this carpet soon.
I promised to replace the plate that I'd dropped.

Learner example:
I’m very sorry about it [but] don’t worry because I bought another one to replace it.

BE USED INSTEAD
[B2] to start to be used instead of the thing or person that is being used now

Dictionary examples:
This system will replace the old one.
Tourism has replaced agriculture as the nation’s main industry.

Learner example:
We felt very disappointed when we discovered that Danny had been replaced by an unknown and really bad actor.

PUT BACK
[C2] formal to put something back in the place where it usually is

Dictionary example:
She picked up the books and carefully replaced them on the shelf.

Learner example:
Jane jumped up and carefully replaced the photo on the desk.

replacement /rɪˈpleɪs.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: place, replacement, displacement
Verbs: place, replace, displace, misplace

NOUN

THING OR PERSON
[B2] [c] the thing or person that replaces something or someone

Dictionary examples:
The agency sent a replacement for the secretary who resigned.
It’s not going to be easy to find a replacement for you.

Learner example:
But the people responsible for the concert did their best to find [a] replacement.
PROCESS
[C1] [u] the process of replacing something with something else

Dictionary examples:
the replacement of existing computer equipment replacement windows

Learner example:
But by using much larger desks, we will be able to use the equipment more efficiently and this will reduce the cost for the replacement of broken equipment.

reply /rɪˈplaɪ/

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to answer

Dictionary examples:
"Where are you going?" I asked. "Home," he replied.
"I don't understand," she replied.
I replied that it was 12 o'clock.
He didn't reply to my email.

Learner example:
Please reply as soon as possible.

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] an answer

Dictionary examples:
Her reply was short and unfriendly.
Have you had a reply to your email?
In reply to their questions, she just shrugged.
She sent me an email in reply.
I asked why, but he made/gave no reply.

Learner example:
I'm waiting for your reply to tell me when [you] will come.

report /rɪˈpɔːt/

Word family:
Nouns: reporter
Verbs: report
Adverbs: reportedly
VERB

DESCRIBE

[B1] to describe a recent event or situation, especially on television, radio, or in a newspaper

Dictionary examples:
Jo Smith reports on recent developments.
She reported that the situation had changed dramatically.
A woman outside the shop reported seeing the gun.
The assassination was reported in all the newspapers.

Learner example:
You reported that other performers were second-rate.

TELL

[B1] to tell someone in authority that something has happened, especially an accident or crime

Dictionary examples:
He should have reported the accident immediately.
Have you reported the fault to a technician?

Learner example:
Of course I reported it at the train station, but they couldn't find it when they searched the train.

NOUN [c]

[B1] a description of an event or situation

Dictionary examples:
a news/weather report a company’s financial report a report on climate change
I gave a report of the theft to the insurance company.

Learner example:
I’ll be handing you a report on Chapter 7 the next day.
ADVERB
[C2] If something has reportedly happened or is reportedly a fact, people say it has happened or is true.

Dictionary example:
Two students were reportedly killed and several wounded.

Learner example:
Some types of birds have reportedly become extinct in the area.

reporter /rɪˈpɔː.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: reporter
Verbs: report
Adverbs: reportedly

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone whose job is to discover information about news events and describe them on television, radio, the Internet, or in a newspaper

Dictionary example:
He’s a reporter for the local newspaper.

Learner example:
The reporters talked about her life, where she was born, [and] who her parents [are].

represent /ˌrep.rɪˈzent/

Word family:
Nouns: representative, representation
Verbs: represent

VERB [T]
BE
[B2] to be equal to something

Dictionary examples:
In practice the figure represents a 10% pay cut.
The cancellation of the new road project represents a victory for protesters.

Learner example:
It [means] recycling 90% of the office material that we usually use. This represents a profit to the company which [would be] given to the employees, so they are motivated.
COMPETITION
[B2] to be the person from a country, school, etc. that is in a competition

Dictionary example:
He was chosen to represent France at the Olympics.

Learner example:
I was very fond of swimming so I was glad that I was the one to be picked to represent my swimming team at that particular competition.

BE SYMBOL
[B2] to be a sign or symbol of something

Dictionary example:
The crosses on the map represent churches.

Learner example:
I think the sea represents life and the sacrifices we make.

SPEAK/ACT FOR
[C2] to officially speak or do something for someone else because they have asked you to

Dictionary examples:
The union represents over 200 employees.
They chose a famous lawyer to represent them.

Learner example:
We hereby inform you that we have subsequently commenced proceedings aimed at hiring a lawyer to represent our party in court, should such a step be necessary.

SHOW
[C2] to show someone or something in a particular way, especially when this is done to influence other people's opinions

Dictionary example:
In the article, they were represented as evil exploiters of children.

Learner example:
Piggy, one of the main characters of the book Lord of the Flies, by William Golding, is represented as the typical fat boy with glasses.

representation /ˌrep.rɪ.zenˈteɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: representative, representation
Verbs: represent
SHOWING

[C2] the way someone or something is shown

Dictionary example:
an accurate representation of country life

Learner example:
Mildred is an establishment pet, the representation of the current society they are living in.

SPEAKING FOR

[C2] speaking or doing something officially for another person

Dictionary example:
Can he afford legal representation?

Learner example:
An old politician whose name I do not recall once said "Taxation without representation is tyranny" – nowadays this concept might be extended to corruption itself.

representative /ˌrep.rɪˈzen.tə.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: representative, representation
Verbs: represent

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone who speaks or does something officially for another person or group of people

Dictionary example:
The firm has two representatives in every European city.

Learner example:
Dear Mr Robertson, My name is ... and I am a student representative.

reproach /riˈprəʊtʃ/

NOUN [c or u]

[C2] criticism of someone, especially for not being successful or not doing what is expected

Dictionary examples:
There was a hint of reproach in his voice.
The article gave the impression that the teachers were above/beyond reproach.
Learner example:
Before they turned off the light, he saw disappointment and reproach in their eyes.

VERB [1]
[C2] to criticize someone for not being successful or not doing what is expected

Dictionary example:
You've no reason to reproach yourself.

Learner example:
I know I shouldn't reproach myself for not giving her money.

reproduce /ˌriːprəˈdjuːs/

Word family:
Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction
Verbs: produce, reproduce
Adjectives: productive, unproductive

VERB

COPY
}[C1] to make a copy of something

Dictionary example:
The diagram is reproduced by permission of the original author.

Learner example:
MI5 operates two computers, one for word processing and another for scanning and reproducing prints, drawings and photos.

REPEAT
[C1] to repeat something so that it is the same as before

Dictionary examples:
The new design unfortunately reproduced some of the problems of the earlier model.
We were unable to reproduce the results of our earlier research.

Learner example:
I overcame this by listening to tapes and by trying to reproduce the native speaker's sounds and stresses.

PRODUCE YOUNG
[C2] If people, animals, or plants reproduce, they produce babies or young animals or plants.

Dictionary example:
These organisms reproduce by dividing.
Primitive man had a few aims in life like to be born, to reproduce and die, and among them there were two other important priorities, to hunt and to eat.

reproduction /ˌriː.prəˈdʌk.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction
- Verbs: produce, reproduce
- Adjectives: productive, unproductive

NOUN

COPY
- [C1] a copy of something, especially a painting

Dictionary example:
The picture is a reproduction of a Manet.

Learner example:
It would be great if the park provided some flight simulators and a reproduction of a space shuttle (so that people get a feeling of how it is to be an astronaut).

YOUNG
- [C2] the process of producing babies or young animals and plants

Dictionary example:
We are learning about reproduction in biology.

Learner example:
What will happen if we live longer but we don't slow down the reproduction of our species?

reptile /ˈrep.tarl/

NOUN [c]
- [C1] an animal which produces eggs and uses the heat of the sun to keep its blood warm

Dictionary example:
Tom liked the reptiles, especially the snakes and the lizards.

Learner example:
Even though the northern part of Italy has undergone rapid industrialisation, there remain large areas of wild uninhabited ground where a great number of wild animals (birds, reptiles, large mammals) can live.
republic  /ˈrɪpəb.lik/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a country with no king or queen but with an elected government

Dictionary example:
France is a republic.

Learner example:
Unfortunately in ancient Greece, although the notion of the republic and democracy were invented and quite successfully developed there, not being a noble citizen could be cruelly disappointing and painful.

reputable  /ˈrep.jə.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: reputation
Adjectives: reputable

ADJECTIVE
[C1] known to be good and honest

Dictionary example:
A reputable organization

Learner example:
I believe such a reputable company [as] you[rs] will not refuse to accept the responsibilities and prompt action will be taken in due course.

reputation  /ˌrep.jʊˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: reputation
Adjectives: reputable

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the opinion that people have about someone or something based on their behaviour or character in the past

Dictionary examples:
The company has a worldwide reputation for quality.
Both hotels have a good reputation.
He quickly earned a reputation as an entertaining speaker.

Learner example:
My country has a great reputation for food.
request /riˈkwest/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] when you politely or officially ask for something

Dictionary examples:
They received hundreds of requests for more information.
His doctor made an urgent request for a copy of the report.
An application form is available on request.
The clause was added to the contract at her request.
The manager refused their request to leave work early.

Learner example:
I decided to reply [to] your request as soon as possible.

VERB [T]
[B1] to politely or officially ask for something

Dictionary examples:
We've requested a further two computers.
They requested that no photographs be taken in the church.
Visitors are requested not to walk on the grass.

Learner example:
I have to rent a car [at the] Hertz agency and request information about where the hotel [is].

require /riˈkwaɪər/

Word family:
Nouns: requirement
Verbs: require

VERB [T]

NEED
[B1] to need or demand something

Dictionary examples:
Training to be a doctor requires a lot of hard work.
Please telephone this number if you require any further information.
Skiing down a steep slope requires total concentration.

Learner example:
Weddings are very different in our country and require a lot of [preparation].

require sb to do sth
[B2] formal to officially demand that someone does something
Dictionary example:
You are required by law to produce a valid passport.

Learner example:
It may occur in the future that they are required to possess[es] knowledge of something they didn’t study at school in order to get a job.

requirement  /rɪˈkaɪə.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: requirement
Verbs: require

NOUN [C]
[B2] something that you must do, or something you need

Dictionary examples:
A good degree is a minimum requirement for many jobs.
Valid insurance is a legal requirement.
Students who fail to meet the requirements of the course will fail.
college entrance requirements

Learner example:
If you have any more requirements, please don’t hesitate to contact me.

rescue  /ˈres.kjuː/

VERB [T]
[B1] to save someone from a dangerous or unpleasant situation

Dictionary examples:
Fifty passengers had to be rescued from a sinking ship.
The government has refused to rescue the company from bankruptcy.

Learner example:
A bomb had exploded and that boy rescued me from the accident.

NOUN [C or U]

SAVE
[B1] when someone is saved from a dangerous or unpleasant situation

Dictionary examples:
Lifeboats carry out many rescues every month.
an unsuccessful rescue attempt
Learner example:
Last Friday I saw one that was about two guys who were lost in the jungle for nine days, and the rescue team found them alive.

come to the/ sb's rescue
[C2] to help someone who is in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I forgot my purse but Anna came to the rescue and lent me some money.

---

research

Word family:

Nouns: research, researcher

Verbs: research

NOUN [u] /ˈriː.sɜːʃ/

[B1] when someone studies a subject in detail or tries to find information about a subject

Dictionary examples:
- scientific/medical research
- a research program/laboratory
- research into language development
- They are conducting research into plant genetics.
- I've done some research into the best beaches to visit.

Learner example:
I have been doing research about how well people dress, and I think I dress with care.

VERB [I or T] /rɪˈsɜːtʃ/

[B2] to study a subject in detail or to try to find information about a subject

Dictionary examples:
- He spent several years researching a rare African dialect.
- She's researching possible cures for malaria.
- He went online to research flights and hotels.

Learner example:
I had to write an article [called] Protect our Environment so I researched and studied a lot about it using [the] Internet and [the] library to find suitable details.

---

researcher /rɪˈsɜːtʃ.ə/

Word family:

Nouns: research, researcher

Verbs: research
NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who does research as a job

Dictionary example:
Researchers uncovered new facts about his family.

Learner example:
As researchers find out more about animals, we learn more about them and because of this we learn more about the world.

resemblance  /rɪˈzem.bləntz/

Word family:
Nouns: resemblance
Verbs: resemble

NOUN [c or u]
[C2] a similarity between two people or things, especially in their appearance

Dictionary example:
There's a striking resemblance between Diane and her mother.

Learner example:
I must admit that Dick has a strong resemblance to Neolithic Man, but everyone loves him because he is so cheerful and talkative.

bear a/little/no, etc. resemblance to sth/sb [C2] to be similar/not similar/somewhat similar, etc., to something or someone

Dictionary examples:
He bears a resemblance to someone I used to know.
The city bears little resemblance to how it was 100 years ago.

Learner example:
The concert bore no resemblance to any other I have been to, firstly due to the location, and secondly thanks to the spontaneity, yet impressive precision of the performance – the two factors which created the unique atmosphere of the event.

resemble  /rɪˈzem.bl/
Dictionary examples:
She resembles her father.
After the earthquake, the city resembled a battlefield.

Learner example:
However, the most representative Romanian resorts resemble the ones in the Alps and maybe even exceed them in the respect of popularity among all walks of life and affordability.

resent /ˈrɪˈzent/

Word family:
Nouns: resentment
Verbs: resent

VERB [T]
[C2] to feel angry and upset about a situation or about something that someone has done

Dictionary examples:
I resent having to work late.
He resents the fact that she gets more money than he does.

Learner example:
More specifically, my cousin's husband and his family, neither of whom I knew very well, deeply resented this decision.

resentment /ˈrɪˈzent.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: resentment
Verbs: resent

NOUN [U]
[C2] a feeling of anger about a situation that you think is unfair

Dictionary example:
If you treat your staff differently, it just causes resentment.

Learner example:
I was pleased by the variety of opinions presented; some of the writers expressed a blind faith that we can still learn from our previous mistakes, while others approached the subject with a surprising resentment of our past.
reservation /ˌrez.əˈver./n

Word family:
Nouns: reservation

Verbs: reserve

NOUN

BOOKING
[B1] [c] an arrangement that you make to have a seat on an aircraft, a room in a hotel, etc.

Dictionary examples:
I'd like to make a table reservation for two people for 9 o'clock.
Please confirm your reservation in writing by Friday.

Learner example:
I can make a reservation if you want.

DOUBT
[C2] [c or u] a doubt or a feeling that you do not agree with something completely

Dictionary example:
I still have reservations about her ability to do the job.

Learner example:
When all my friends wanted to do something "naughty", [like] ringing bells at people's home[s] and running away, I had reservations.

reserve /rɪˈzɜːv/

Word family:
Nouns: reservation

Verbs: reserve

VERB [r]

ARRANGE TO HAVE
[B1] to arrange to have a seat on an aircraft, a room in a hotel, etc.

Dictionary examples:
I'd like to reserve two seats on the 9:15 to Birmingham.
I reserved a double room at the Lamb Hotel.

Learner example:
I must go [to] the bus station to reserve seats for the bus [at] 17:30 pm.
KEEP
[B1] [OFTEN PASSIVE] to not allow people to use something because it is only for a particular person or for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
This space is reserved for ambulances only.
These seats are reserved for the elderly and women with babies.

Learner example:
We will have free tent accommodation in an area reserved for the staff.

NOUN

AREA
[B2] [c] an area of land where animals and plants are protected

Dictionary example:
We visited a huge reserve in Kenya.

Learner example:
As soon as we reached Nakuru two days later, we entered the game reserve to have a look around before it got dark.

SUPPLY
[C2] [c] a supply of something that you keep until it is needed

Dictionary example:
emergency cash reserves

Learner example:
The dependence on oil is a menace because oil reserves will disappear and because at this time we have no other invention to replace it.

reserved /rɪˈzɜːvd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] describes people who keep their feelings or thoughts private rather than showing them

Dictionary example:
Marcus is more reserved than his brother.

Learner example:
Mrs. James was a reserved and solitary person and she lived according to the way she wished to live.
residence /ˈrez.i.dənts/  FORMAL

Word family:
Nouns: resident, residence
Adjectives: residential, resident

NOUN [C]

BUILDING
[C2] a building where someone lives

Dictionary example:
the Governor’s official residence

Learner example:
The two episodes in the book 'The colour of blood' that I’ve decided to write about are Cardinal Benn and Prime Minister meeting at the official residence, and the fatal mass in honour to the blessed martyrs.

resident /ˈrez.i.dənt/

Word family:
Nouns: resident, residence
Adjectives: residential, resident

NOUN [C]

[B2] someone who lives in a particular place

Dictionary examples:
a resident of the UK/Australia
Local residents were angry at the lack of parking spaces.

Learner example:
We will have less anxious residents in cities, who will not hurry to go to work or will not be late home or at the office.

ADJECTIVE

[C1] living in a place

Dictionary example:
She has been resident in Britain for most of her life.

Learner example:
My name is ANA AMURRIO, born in Spain (Madrid) twenty four years ago, and resident in your country since July of [this] year.
residential
\[\text{ˌrez.ɪˈden.tʃəl/}\]

Word family:

Nouns: resident, residence
Adjectives: residential, resident

ADJECTIVE

WHERE PEOPLE LIVE

[B2] A residential area has only houses and not offices or factories.

Dictionary example:

It's a largely residential area with one or two shops.

Learner example:

'Varta' is situated in a quiet residential area and could be called 'a family restaurant'.

COURSE/JOB

[C2] A residential course or job is one where you live at the same place as you study or work.

Dictionary example:

It's a residential course so I'll be away for a week.

resign

\[\text{rɪˈzaɪn/}\]

Word family:

Nouns: resignation
Verbs: resign

VERB [I or T]

LEAVE JOB

[B2] to officially tell your employer that you are leaving your job

Dictionary examples:

She resigned as headteacher.
Two directors have resigned from the company.

Learner example:

So Laura stepped into her boss'[s] office, wished him a Merry Christmas and resigned.

resignation

\[\text{ˌrez.ɪɡˈneɪ.ʃən/}\]

Word family:

Nouns: resignation
Verbs: resign
LEAVE JOB

[C2] [c or u] when someone tells their employer that they are leaving their job

Dictionary examples:
a letter of resignation
I handed in my resignation yesterday.

Learner example:
She had been so proud of herself no more than five minutes ago walking out of the editor’s office after handing him her letter of resignation.

ACCEPT

[C2] [u] when you accept something that you do not like because you cannot easily change it

Dictionary example:
She accepted her illness with calm resignation.

Learner example:
He sighed with resignation and got up.

resilience  /rɪˈzɪl.i.ənts/

Word family:
Nouns: resilience
Adjectives: resilient

NOUN [u]

[C2] the quality of being resilient

Dictionary example:
She had the resilience to try again.

Learner example:
Their resilience had been pushed to the extreme and, but for their sheer longing for a child, they might have given up.

resilient  /rɪˈzɪl.i.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: resilience
Adjectives: resilient
ADJECTIVE

[C2] strong enough to get better quickly after damage, disappointment, illness, shock, etc.

Dictionary example:
Growth figures show that the economy is still fairly resilient.

Learner example:
He could not stand the thought of staying away from Bill, he was not that resilient.

resist /rɪˈzɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: resistance
Verbs: resist
Adjectives: irresistible

VERB

NOT DO

[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to stop yourself from doing something that you want to do

Dictionary examples:
I can't resist chocolate.
I just can't resist reading other people's mail.

Learner example:
How do we resist all these nice snacks, and stay slim?

FIGHT

[C1] [ɪ] to fight against something or someone that is attacking you

Dictionary example:
British troops resisted the attack for two days.

Learner example:
The Turkish ci[v]ilization was poorer than [the] Greek ci[v]ilisation and that is one more reason why [the] Greeks had to resist and fight their enemies.

resistance /rɪˈzɪs.təntʃɪs/
NOUN

DISAGREE
[C2] [u] when people disagree with a change, idea, etc. and refuse to accept it

Dictionary example:
resistance to political change

Learner example:
The only resistance comes from Jack, an aggressive and impetuous boy who places facts higher than speech[e]s.

FIGHT
[C2] [u] when someone fights against someone who is attacking them or competing against them

Dictionary example:
She didn't put up much resistance.

Learner example:
Their knowledge helped Hitler to prolong his resistance against the overwhelming superiority of the Allies.

ORGANIZATION
[C2] [no plural] an organization that secretly fights against an enemy that has taken control of its country

Dictionary example:
She was active in the resistance.

Learner example:
Despite the fact that [the] Germans were many and much more powerful, they faced many difficulties from the Greek resistance.

ILLNESS
[C2] [u] the ability of your body to not be affected by illnesses

Dictionary example:
Cold weather may lower the body's resistance to infection.

Learner example:
His physical resistance is exceptional, he is young, in perfect condition, healthy.

resolution /ˌrezəˈljuːʃən/
NOUN

DECISION
[C2] [c] an official decision that is made after a group or organization have voted

Dictionary examples:
Congress passed a resolution in support of the plan.
Our branch has submitted a resolution on housing to the conference.

Learner example:
India declared that the UN resolution about the ban on nuclear weapons was unfair.

PROMISE
[C2] [c] a promise to yourself to do something

Dictionary example:
My New Year's resolution is to do more exercise.

Learner example:
As a New Year's resolution I decided to save some money in a jar for my husband.

SOLUTION
[C2] [c or u] the solution to a problem

Dictionary example:
a successful resolution to the crisis

Learner example:
It might help us to find alternative conflict resolutions.

resolve /rɪˈzɒlv/

Word family:
Nouns: resolution, resolve
Verbs: resolve

VERB [T]
[C1] to solve or end a problem or difficulty

Dictionary example:
an attempt to resolve the dispute

Learner example:
The student committee greatly appreciate your efforts to resolve our current problems, in particular improving and reconstructing our sports centre.

NOUN [U] formal?
[C2] when you are very determined to do something
Dictionary example:
The training was tough, but his resolve never wavered.

Learner example:
Daniella's attention was focused on the scene and she was truly enjoying what was going on. This sight toughened Marco's resolve.

resort /ˈrezərt/

NOUN [C]

HOLIDAY
[B1] a place where many people go for a holiday

Dictionary examples:
a seaside resort
a ski resort

Learner example:
I am in Kajdussdoset which is a famous holiday resort in Hungary, my country.

a last resort
[C2] something that you do because everything else has failed

Dictionary example:
Soldiers were given the authority to shoot, but only as a last resort.

Learner example:
But forcing the child to believe in the way we would like it to believe should be used only as a last resort, after discussion and persuading, not before.

PHRASAL VERB

resort to sth/ doing sth PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to do something bad in order to achieve what you want, often because it is the only thing you can do to achieve it

Dictionary example:
I had to resort to threats to get my money back.

Learner example:
This is caused by a person's basic need for food: If someone can't get enough to eat he might have to resort to stealing.
resource /rɪˈzoʊs/
Word family:
Nouns: resource
Adjectives: resourceful

NOUN [c]
[B2] something useful that a country, person, or organization has which they can use

Dictionary examples:
natural resources
Britain's mineral resources include oil, coal and gas deposits.

Learner example:
With all the resources on the Net, I don't need to go to the library as often as I used to.

resourceful /rɪˈzoʊs.fəl/
Word family:
Nouns: resource
Adjectives: resourceful

ADJECTIVE
[C2] good at finding ways to solve problems

Dictionary example:
When we didn't have much money, we had to be more resourceful.

Learner example:
The tormentor was inventive, clever, resourceful and learned fast how to make the most ordinary objects (a moth, a crow) into a source of overwhelming fear for his victim.

respect /rɪˈspekt/
Word family:
Nouns: respect, disrespect
Verbs: respect
Adjectives: respectable, respected, disrespectful, respectful
Adverbs: respectfully

NOUN
ADMIRATION
[B1] [u] when you admire someone because of their knowledge, skill, or achievements
Dictionary examples:
She's an excellent teacher and I have the greatest respect for her.
New teachers have to earn the respect of their students.

Learner example:
I have met some fantastic players, especially George N, an experienced footballer who teaches me a lot about getting respect on and off the field, and he's been of great help to me.

POLITENESS

[B1] [u] when you are polite to someone, especially because they are older or more important than you

Dictionary examples:
You should show more respect for your parents.
Teachers should be treated with respect.
She has no respect for her boss.

Learner example:
As for people who attend weddings, it's important for them to wear formal clothes to show their respect for the new couple.

in this respect/in many respects

[B2] in a particular way, or in many ways

Dictionary example:
The school has changed in many respects.

Learner example:
How's your friend Mike? He is in many respects better than [a] computer, isn't he? (Teasing you again, sorry).

with respect to sth FORMAL

[B2] relating to a particular thing

Dictionary example:
I am writing with respect to your letter of 24 June.

Learner example:
With respect to the ages of the members, they are between fifteen and twenty years old.

in respect of sth FORMAL

[C1] relating to a particular thing

Dictionary example:
I include payment in respect of your invoice of May 13th.

Learner example:
Instead of that, we should have more English grammar lessons – some of our English students are very interested in them, especially in respect of their exam this year.
VERB [T]

ADMIRE
[B1] to admire someone because of their knowledge, achievements, etc

Dictionary examples:
I respect him for his honesty.
I deeply respect David for what he has achieved.

Learner example:
It's nice to have a friend who respects you and who you respect too.

ACCEPT IMPORTANCE
[B2] If you respect someone's rights, customs, wishes, etc. you accept their importance and are careful not to do anything they would not want.

Dictionary example:
If you decide to do otherwise we will, of course, respect your wishes.

Learner example:
But the situation is getting worse because of the decisions of the European Union, which is trying to unify Europe[an] education without respecting the wishes of the students, who are trying to stop this process.

respectable /rɪˈspek.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: respect, disrespect
Verbs: respect
Adjectives: respectable, respected, disrespectful, respectful
Adverbs: respectfully

ADJECTIVE

GOOD BEHAVIOUR
[B2] behaving in a socially acceptable way or looking socially acceptable

Dictionary examples:
a respectable family
a respectable hotel

Learner example:
But no one could think of a respectable doctor poisoning two of his patients, which is what he actually did.

ENOUGH
[C2] large enough or good enough
Dictionary examples:
She earns a respectable salary.
The final score was a respectable 2:1.

Learner example:
So we had to wait until he could confidently say to his parents, 'Look, I am an adult now, and I'm working for a large company with a respectable job, and I am going to get married if I want to.'

respected /rɪˈspekt.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: respect, disrespect
Verbs: respect
Adjectives: respectable, respected, disrespectful, respectful
Adverbs: respectfully

ADJECTIVE
[B2] admired by people because of your knowledge, achievements, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a highly respected doctor/politician
He is very well respected in the business world.

Learner example:
Looking at Pele's life, we discover that he was a respected man who did his [be]st to help others and his country.

respectful /rɪˈspekt.fʊl/

Word family:
Nouns: respect, disrespect
Verbs: respect
Adjectives: respectable, respected, disrespectful, respectful
Adverbs: respectfully

ADJECTIVE
[C1] showing respect for someone or something

Dictionary example:
They treated us in a very respectful manner.

Learner example:
Were I not respectful of your work, I would say that your reporter did not attend this event and just imagined it. respectfully /rɪˈspek.tə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: respect, disrespect
Verbs: respect
Adjectives: respectable, respected, disrespectful, respectful
Adverbs: respectfully

ADVERB
[C2] in a respectful way

Dictionary example:
He always spoke to them very respectfully.

Learner example:
I respectfully request you, as a store manager, to personally look into this situation, assist in investigating the problem with the faulty equipment as [a] matter of urgency by sending round a qualified engineer and, if found unfixable, arrange for a new unit to be supplied.

respective /rɪˈspek.tɪv/

Word family:
Adjectives: respective
Adverbs: irrespective, respectively

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] relating to each of the people or things that you have just talked about

Dictionary example:
members of staff and their respective partners

Learner example:
Relatives and friends of the respective families were very successful in being guides for some hours.

respectively /rɪˈspek.trɪ.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: respective Adverbs: irrespective, respectively

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that relates to each of the people or things that you have just talked about

Dictionary example:
They scored 10 and 17 points, respectively.
Learner example:
Not only [did] we reach our target figure but also, 85% of the revenue generated went to the hospital, and only 10% and 5% were for entertainment costs and administration costs, respectively.

respond /rɪˈspɒnd/

Word family:
Nouns: response
Verbs: respond

VERB [i]
[B2] to say or do something as a reaction to something that has been said or done

Dictionary examples:
To every question, he responded "I don't know."
I asked her what the time was, but she didn't respond.
The government has responded by sending food and medical supplies to the region.
How did she respond to the news?
The police respond to emergencies in just a few minutes.

Learner example:
The two men didn't respond so David closed the door.

response /rɪˈspɒnts/

Word family:
Nouns: response
Verbs: respond

NOUN [C or U]

ANSWER
[B2] an answer or reaction to something that has been said or done

Dictionary examples:
Responses to our advertisement have been disappointing.
The President's comments provoked an angry response from students.
Her proposals met with an enthusiastic response.

Learner example:
[The telephone] is an easy way to contact others, better than writing a letter and waiting for a response.

in response to [B2] as an answer to
Dictionary example:
I’m writing in response to your letter of 14 February.

Learner example:
I am writing in response to your advertisement, which appeared in the newspaper on November the 23rd, looking for a person to work at weekends in your cafe.

responsibility /ˈrɪspəns.əbɪ.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: responsibility
Adjectives: irresponsible, responsible

NOUN [C or U]

DUTY

[B2] something that it is your job or duty to deal with

Dictionary examples:
The head of the department has various additional responsibilities.
It is your responsibility to make sure that your homework is done on time.
She takes her responsibilities as a nurse very seriously.
Jenny, you have responsibility for clearing up the room after the class.

Learner example:
It is the country’s responsibility to supply the schools with everything needed.

take/accept/claim responsibility for sth

[B2] to say that you have done something or caused something to happen, especially something bad

Dictionary example:
No one has yet claimed responsibility for yesterday's bomb attack.

Learner example:
Sometimes he just take[s] all the responsibility for the projects, which he should not do, at least not alone.

responsible /ˈrɪspənt.əбл/.

Word family:
Nouns: responsibility
Adjectives: irresponsible, responsible

ADJECTIVE

be responsible for sb/sth/doing sth

[B1] to be the person whose duty is to deal with someone or something
Dictionary examples:
I'm responsible for looking after the children during the lunch break.
Paul is directly responsible for the efficient running of the office.

Learner example:
The woman who is responsible for this club is very beautiful.

be responsible for sth/doing sth
[B2] to be the person who caused something to happen, especially something bad

Dictionary example:
Who was responsible for the accident?

Learner example:
Sometimes walkers are also responsible for accidents, mainly when they are in a hurry.

GOOD JUDGMENT
[B2] showing good judgment and able to be trusted

Dictionary examples:
a hardworking and responsible employee
Let's stay calm and try to behave like responsible adults.
Many big companies are now becoming more responsible about the way they operate.

Learner example:
I know it is a great responsibility looking after them but I think I am reliable and responsible.

IMPORTANT
[B2] A responsible job is important because you have to make decisions that affect other people.

Dictionary example:
It's a very responsible job, being a teacher.

Learner example:
[The] people who I admire in today's world are journalists. In my opinion, they have a very responsible job.

rest /rest/

Word family:
Nouns: rest
Verbs: rest
Adjectives: restless

VERB

RELAX/SLEEP
[B1] [i] to relax or sleep because you are tired after an activity or because you are ill
Dictionary examples:
The doctor told him that he should rest for a few days.
Pete’s resting after his long drive.

Learner example:
The weather was particularly sunny there, so we decided to eat an ice-cream and to rest a little.

rest your eyes/feet/legs, etc.
[B2] to stop using your eyes/feet/legs, etc. for a while because they are tired

Dictionary example:
He looked away from the computer screen to rest his eyes.

rest (sth) on/against, etc.
[C2] If something rests somewhere, or if you rest it somewhere, it is supported by something else.

Dictionary example:
She rested her elbows on the table.

Learner example:
This masterpiece, painted in shocking colours on an enormous canvas, shows an Indian, completely out of proportion, sitting on the ground and resting his head on his arms.

---

restart
/ˌriːˈstaːt/

Word family:
Nouns: start
Verbs: start, restart

VERB [r]
[C1] to start something again that had stopped

Dictionary example:
They want to restart the talks.

Learner example:
On the other hand, acco[r]ding to our recent survey, the company is getting [into a] better situation than it was beginning of this year and wants to restart trading with us.

[C1] If you restart a computer, you turn it off and then on again.

Dictionary example:
Try restarting your computer.
restless /ˈrest.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: rest
Verbs: rest
Adjectives: restless

ADJECTIVE

NOT STILL
[C1] unable to be still or relax because you are bored or nervous

Dictionary example:
The audience was getting restless.

Learner example:
The children that travel become very restless when they cannot see any movies or are not offered any games or any other entertainment from the staff.

NOT SATISFIED
[C2] not satisfied with what you are doing now and wanting something new

Dictionary example:
After a while in the same relationship I start to get restless.

Learner example:
She yearned for something different from her day-to-day life and grew increasingly restless.

restore /rɪˈstoːr/

VERB [ɪ]

REPAIR
[B2] to repair and clean something old

Dictionary examples:
The badly neglected paintings have all been carefully restored.
He restores antique furniture.

Learner example:
For example, the old church could be restored, to be as beautiful as it used to be.

MAKE EXIST
[C1] to make something good exist again

Dictionary examples:
Three wins in a row helped restore the team’s confidence.
Peace has now been restored in the region.
Learner example:
It would also restore our confidence in our paper if the correct version of events were printed, together with your statement of apology.

restrain /rɪˈstreɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: restrain
Verbs: restrain

VERB [r]
[C1] to stop someone doing something, sometimes by using force

Dictionary examples:
He became violent and had to be physically restrained.
I had to restrain myself from shouting at him.

Learner example:
Were the people aware of the variety of our social programme, they would have undoubtedly restrained themselves from belittling our college.

restraint /rɪˈstreɪnt/

Word family:
Nouns: restraint
Verbs: restrain

NOUN [u]
[C2] calm and controlled behaviour

Dictionary example:
He showed admirable restraint and refused to be provoked.

Learner example:
In his [opinion], a really professional butler should pos[s]ess 'dignity', which means that he should not expose his feelings and should always be capable of emotional restraint even if he is being provoked by something very surprising, alarming or vexing.

restrict /rɪˈstrɪkt/

Word family:
Nouns: restriction
Verbs: restrict Adjectives: restricted, restrictive
VERB [v]

[C1] to limit something

Dictionary examples:
The government has restricted freedom of movement into and out of the country. I restrict myself to one cup of coffee a day.

Learner example:
We must try to restrict the use of water in agriculture.

restricted /rɪˈstrɪktɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: restriction
Verbs: restrict Adjectives: restricted, restrictive

ADJECTIVE

[C1] controlled or limited

Dictionary example:
They do good food but the choice is fairly restricted.

Learner example:
The main problem with buses and the underground is their restricted opening hours and also the fact they don’t [go] absolutely everywhere in the city.

restriction /rɪˈstrɪkʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: restriction
Verbs: restrict Adjectives: restricted, restrictive

NOUN [c or u]

LIMIT

[C1] a situation or event that limits what people can do

Dictionary example:
For the first time, I could do exactly what I wanted, without any restrictions.

Learner example:
When people travel on their own, they can do what they want, without restrictions or limitations from their family.
RULE
[C2] a rule or law that limits or controls what people can do

Dictionary examples:
speed/parking restrictions
There are restrictions on how many goods you can bring into the country.
The president urged other countries to lift the trade restrictions.

Learner example:
Our world is becoming smaller and smaller: boundaries are erased from the maps, countries cooperate more intensively, and trade restrictions are falling away.

restrictive / rɪˈstrɪk.tɪv /

Word family:
Nouns: restriction
Verbs: restrict Adjectives: restricted, restrictive

ADJECTIVE
[C2] limiting activities too much

Dictionary example:
restrictive practices

Learner example:
On the other hand, being too restrictive may result in making the children passive, [causing them to] take everything for granted and leaving them completely unprepared for the harsh reality of life.

restructure /ˌriːˈstrʌk.tʃər/

Word family:
Nouns: structure
Verbs: restructure
Adjectives: structural, structured

VERB [I or T]
[C2] to organize a system or organization in a new way

Dictionary example:
They are restructuring the business.

Learner example:
Nowadays, the globalisation and merging trends are creating industrial giants that regularly have to restructure in order to minimise their production costs.
result /ˈrɪzʌlt/

NOUN

HAPPEN
[B1] [c or u] something that happens or exists because something else has happened

Dictionary examples:
Most accidents are the result of human error.
Unemployment has risen as a direct result of new economic policies.

Learner example:
As a result, I am a bit cold now.

INFORMATION
[B1] [c] information that you get from something such as an exam, a scientific experiment, or a medical test

Dictionary examples:
She's waiting for the results of a blood test.
the results of a survey

Learner example:
I joined this English class because of my bad exam result.

COMPETITION
[B1] [c] the score or number of votes at the end of a competition or election

Dictionary examples:
The election results will be known by Sunday.
What was the result of this afternoon's match?

Learner example:
The[y] were all so surprised about the result of [the] game Germany against Saudi Arabia that they welcom[ed me] in a very friendly way.

VERB

result in sth PHRASAL VERB
[B2] to cause a particular situation to happen

Dictionary example:
The fire resulted in damage to their property.

Learner example:
It has resulted in a lack of repair services.
resume /rɪˈzjuːm/ FORMAL

VERB [I or T]

[C1] If an activity resumes, or if you resume it, it starts again after a pause.

Dictionary examples:
The talks are due to resume today.
Normal services will be resumed in the spring.
He stopped to take a sip of water and then resumed speaking.

Learner example:
I hope our two companies can resume their excellent cooperation in the future and I am looking forward to using one of your aircraft again.

retail /ˈriː.teɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: retail, retailer

NOUN [u]

[C1] when products are sold to customers from shops

Dictionary example:
jobs in retail

Learner example:
Multinational companies like Walmart, Tesco, GSK, etc. have their retail outlets and manufacturing capacity all over the globe.

retailer /ˈriː.ter.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: retail, retailer

NOUN [c]

[C2] someone who sells products to the public

Dictionary example:
Retailers say the tax rise will hurt business.

Learner example:
They claim that retailers and advertisers brainwash us into buying more than necessary.
retain /rɪˈteɪn/

Word family:
- Nouns: retention
- Verbs: retain

VERB [T]

[C2] to continue to keep something

Dictionary example:
The council will retain control of the school.

Learner example:
But, one might claim, this could also be good, as people retain their local customs, lifestyle, etc. and do not have the anxiety or stress of living in cities.

retention /rɪˈten.ʃən/

Word family:
- Nouns: retention
- Verbs: retain

NOUN [U]

[C2] when something continues to be kept

Dictionary example:
They argued against the retention of these laws.

Learner example:
Additional audio and video inputs allows easier assimilation and retention of this information.

rethink /ˌriːˈθɪŋk/

Word family:
- Nouns: thinker
- Verbs: think, rethink
- Adjectives: unthinkable

VERB [I or T] (rethought)

[C1] to change what you think about something or what you plan to do

Dictionary example:
We need to rethink our strategy.

Learner example:
The first time I failed due to my nervousness. After this first failure I started to rethink my strategy.
retire /rɪˈtaɪər/

Word family:
- Nouns: retirement
- Verbs: retire
- Adjectives: retired

VERB [i]

[B1] to leave your job and stop working, usually because you are old

Dictionary examples:
- She retired from the company in 1990.
- He is due to retire as chief executive next year.

Learner example:
- Nowadays I'm free because I retired recently.

retired /rɪˈtaɪəd/

Word family:
- Nouns: retirement
- Verbs: retire
- Adjectives: retired

ADJECTIVE

[B2] having stopped working, often because you are old

Dictionary examples:
- Both my parents are retired.
- He is a retired airline pilot.

Learner example:
- This person is a retired soldier who fought during World War II.

retirement /rɪˈtaɪə.mənt/

Word family:
- Nouns: retirement
- Verbs: retire
- Adjectives: retired

NOUN [c or u]

LEAVING JOB

[B2] when you leave your job and stop working, usually because you are old
Dictionary examples:
Many teachers over the age of 50 are taking early retirement.
What is the normal retirement age in this country?

Learner example:
Dear Pamela, I really like you and am happy [about] our sharing the same office but I'm afraid that, because of your way of life, you will never reach the age of retirement.

LIFE PERIOD
[B2] the period of your life after you have stopped working

Dictionary example:
We wish you a long and happy retirement.

Learner example:
Before my retirement, I spent some 11 years in the U.S., Germany and Switzerland where I learn[ed] a lot about the different culture[s] and people's customs and manners.

retrace /rɪˈtreɪs/

VERB

retrace your steps
[C2] to go back somewhere the same way that you came

Dictionary example:
I was lost so I retraced my steps.

Learner example:
Mentally retracing his steps of the morning, he remembered rushing out of his place at the last minute.

retreat /rɪˈtriːt/

VERB [i]

[C2] When soldiers retreat, they move away from the enemy, especially to avoid fighting.

Dictionary example:
The army was forced to retreat.

retreat to/into, etc.
[C2] to go away to a place or situation which is safer or quieter

Dictionary example:
She retreated into the bathroom for some peace and quiet.
Learner example:
Many unemployed retreat into family life and give up social contact.

NOUN [C]

MOVE
[C2] a move away, especially to a place or situation which is safer or quieter

Dictionary example:
He saw the dog coming towards him and beat a hasty retreat.

Learner example:
So the best he could do was to beat a quick retreat and make for the nearest airport.

PLACE
[C2] a quiet place where you can go to rest or be alone

Dictionary example:
a mountain retreat

Learner example:
The park is a retreat, a hiding place where asylum can be found, a place in which peace and harmony are interlinked.

retrieve /rɪˈtrɪːv/

VERB [T]
[C2] to get something after first finding it

Dictionary examples:
I've just retrieved the ball from the bottom of the pond.
computer tools for retrieving information

Learner example:
No university should let students loose on society and the labour market who do not know how to save, find and retrieve files on a computer, send an attachment via email, install an operating system, install a printer or perform any of those simple tasks that take up your day at work – if your place of work has a desk in it.

retrospect /ˈret.rospekt/

NOUN

in retrospect
[C2] thinking now about something in the past
Dictionary example:
In retrospect, I should probably have told her.

Learner example:
But now I could in retrospect conclude that it was too much: that tat[t]oo displaying a cannabis leaf should have been enough for me to at least wonder [whether] something was really wrong with my son.

return /rɪˈtsːn/

VERB

return to sth
[B2] to start doing an activity again or talking about something again

Dictionary examples:
I returned to work three months after Susie was born.
We keep returning to the same subject.

Learner example:
(In) August I must return to school, so I can only go to California in July.

HAPPEN AGAIN
[B2] [I] to happen again or start to exist again

Dictionary example:
You must go to the doctor if the pain returns.

Learner example:
This made her calm down all of a sudden, and her voice returned.

DO THE SAME
[C1] [ɪ] to react to something that someone does or says by doing or saying the same

Dictionary examples:
I returned his smile.
I must return Michael's call.

Learner example:
I still can't understand why she never returned my calls.

return to normal
[C1] to go back to a previous condition

Dictionary example:
Life has begun to return to normal now that the war is over.
Learner example:
After exactly ten minutes the electricity was switched on again and our life returned to normal – what a relief!

GOING BACK

[B1] [NO PLURAL] when someone goes or comes back to a place where they were before

Dictionary examples:
The whole town came out to celebrate his return from the war.
On his return to Sydney, he started up a business.

Learner example:
But on the return from Zurich we had a[n] accident and the car has been destroyed.

TICKET

[B1] [c] a ticket that lets you travel to a place and back again, for example on a train

Dictionary example:
Could I have two returns to Birmingham?

COMPUTER

[B1] [u] a key on a computer keyboard that is used to make the computer accept information or to start a new line in a document

Dictionary example:
Type in the password and press return.

in return

[B2] in exchange for something or as a reaction to something

Dictionary example:
I'd like to give them something in return for everything they've done for us.

Learner example:
I had a great time and in return I'd love to invite you to live at my house, while you are in Poland.

reunion /ˌriːˈjuːni.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: union, reunion

NOUN [c]

[C2] an occasion when people who have not met each other for a long time meet again
Dictionary example:
a family/school reunion

Learner example:
So important was this family event that holidays were postponed, to be there in time for the family reunion.

reveal /rɪˈviːl/

Word family:
Nouns: revelation
Verbs: reveal

VERB [T]
TELL
[B2] to give someone a piece of information that is surprising or that was previously secret

Dictionary examples:
He was jailed for revealing secrets to the Russians.
It was revealed in this morning’s papers that the couple intend to marry.

Learner example:
I immediately knew that something was wrong so I had a word with Pat. She denied having revealed my secret.

SEE
[C2] to allow something to be seen that, until then, had been hidden

Dictionary example:
His shirt came up at the back, revealing an expanse of white skin.

Learner example:
The ghost disappeared and, with suspicion, she got up and started to move towards the ring, which was still there on the wall, and eventually touched it: the stone block moved back and revealed an old diary.

revelation /ˌrev.əˈlɛɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: revelation
Verbs: reveal

NOUN
[C2] [c] a piece of information that is discovered although it was intended to be kept secret
Dictionary example:
He resigned following revelations about his private life.

Learner example:
No, the mayor didn't know, but said he was looking forward to any more revelations about their heroic community member.

be a revelation
[C2] to be an extremely pleasant surprise

Dictionary example:
Anna's musical talent was a revelation.

Learner example:
Every word you said was a revelation to me.

revenge /rɪˈvendʒ/

NOUN [u]
[B2] something that you do to punish someone who has done something bad to you

Dictionary examples:
He’s made life very difficult for me but I’ll get/take my revenge.
He was looking for revenge against those who had helped oust him from his leadership position.

Learner example:
Lew Kuan Yee had sworn revenge against Michael, the detective who had sent him behind bars.

revenue /ˈrev.ən.juː/

NOUN [u] (ALSO revenues)
[C1] large amounts of money received by a government as tax, or by a company

Dictionary example:
Revenue was up in the last quarter.

Learner example:
People like them need to compete for time as travelling via public transport may mean a loss of revenue.
reversal /rɪˈvɜːs/

Word family:
Nouns: reversal, reverse
Verbs: reverse
Adjectives: irreversible, reversible

NOUN [c]
[C2] when something changes to its opposite

Dictionary example:
In a reversal of traditional roles, Paul stayed at home to look after the baby and Clare went out to work.

Learner example:
However, unfortunately for Kingshaw, this reversal of the roles is just temporary for, once again in the house, Hooper is elected as King and Kingshaw has to submit to the role of victim once more.

reverse /rɪˈvɜːs/

Word family:
Nouns: reversal, reverse
Verbs: reverse
Adjectives: irreversible, reversible

VERB

DRIVE BACKWARDS
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to drive a vehicle backwards

Dictionary examples:
I hate reversing into parking spaces.
She reversed the car into the parking space.

Learner example:
Inch by inch, I reversed and went forward, reversed and went forward... too far!

CHANGE
[C1] [ɪ] to change a situation or change the order of things so that it becomes the opposite

Dictionary examples:
Now that you have a job and I don't, our situations are reversed.
It is unlikely that the judge will reverse his decision.
Let's reverse the order – I'll give the first talk and you go second.

Learner example:
This trend should be reversed in the near future.
in reverse
[C1] in the opposite order or way

Dictionary example:
Do the same steps but this time in reverse.

Learner example:
They want to see what they are not like, how they would not react and this, in reverse, helps them [to] find themselves.

VEHICLE
[C2] the method of controlling a vehicle that makes it go backwards

Dictionary example:
Put the car into reverse.

Learner example:
I had a last good look around and then I returned to the car and put it into reverse.

the reverse
[C2] the opposite of what has been suggested

Dictionary example:
"So, is he happier?" "Quite the reverse – I've never seen him look so miserable."

Learner example:
However, it is common fallacy among youngsters that being a freelancer leaves a lot of time for rest. Quite the reverse, they are inclined to put even more pressure on themselves, as there are no fixed hours.

reversible /rɪˈvɜːsə.bəl/

Word family:
Nouns: reversal, reverse
Verbs: reverse
Adjectives: irreversible, reversible

ADJECTIVE

CAN BE CHANGED
[C2] If something is reversible, it can be changed back to what it was before.

Dictionary example:
Most of the damage done to the cells is reversible.

Learner example:
The friendship that I thought was [for] life stopped somewhere and somehow in [an] unexpected way, which didn't allow us to make the situation reversible.
CLOTHES

[C2] Reversible clothes can be worn so that the inside is the outside.

Dictionary example:
a reversible jacket revert /rɪˈvɜːt/

VERB

revert to sth/doing sth PHRASAL VERB

[C2] to go back to how something was before

Dictionary example:
For a while I ate low-fat food but then I reverted to my old eating habits.

Learner example:
Piggy is one of the few boys who are conscious that they are reverting to savagery.

review /rɪˈvjuː/

VERB [T]

GIVE OPINION

[B2] to give your opinion in a report about a book, film, television programme, etc.

Dictionary example:
He reviews films for the Times.

CONSIDER

[C1] to consider something again in order to decide if changes should be made

Dictionary examples:
The courts will review her case.
The committee is reviewing the current arrangement.

Learner example:
On the other hand I would like to ask you kindly to review my conditions of employment and to take in consideration my expenses, which I think would be more than correct.

NOUN

[B1] [C] a report in a newspaper, magazine, or programme that gives an opinion about a new book, film, etc.
Dictionary examples:
He writes film/theatre/book reviews for the newspapers.
Her latest novel has had/received excellent reviews.
The film has had mixed reviews.

Learner example:
I was thinking we should see "Show Bar", the review is good!

PROCESS
[C2] [c or u] the process of considering something again in order to make changes to it

Dictionary examples:
a review of teachers’ pay
Salary levels are under review at the moment.

revise /rɪˈvaɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: revision
Verbs: revise

VERB

STUDY
[B1] [i or ɪ] to study a subject before you take a test

Dictionary example:
She’s revising for her English exam.

Learner example:
Well, I have to leave it here because I have a History exam tomorrow and I haven’t revised, yet.

CHANGE
[B2] [ɪ] to change something so that it is more accurate or better than before

Dictionary example:
His publishers made him revise his manuscript three times.

Learner example:
I advise you to revise your schedule.

revision /rɪˈvɪʒ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: revision
Verbs: revise
NOUN [u]
[B1] when you study a subject before taking a test

Dictionary example:
She did lots of revision for her French exam.

Learner example:
Dear Pete, Although I received your letter last week, I haven’t been able to answer until [now] as I am busy with revision for my English exams.

revival  /rɪˈvaɪ.vəl/

Word family:
Nouns: revival
Verbs: revive

NOUN
[C2] when something becomes more active or popular again

Dictionary examples:
a revival in folk music
Yoga is enjoying a revival.

Learner example:
In recent years the fear of society has led to a revival of conservative ideas that want to shift responsibility for this kind of education back to the family unit.

revive  /rɪˈvaɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: revival
Verbs: revive

VERB
[C2] to make something from the past exist again

Dictionary examples:
to revive memories
A lot of traditional skills are currently being revived.

Learner example:
Why not revive the "good old" reading sessions we had in many town libraries in the 70s and 80s?
revolt  /rrˈvaʊlt/

Word family:
Nouns: revolution
Verbs: revolt
Adjectives: revolutionary

VERB

AGAINST
[C2] [I] to try to change a government, often using violence, or to refuse to accept someone's authority

Dictionary example:
Many were killed when nationalists revolted against the new government.

Learner example:
What often happens, if money is the substitute for love, is that children revolt against their parents.

be revolted by sth
[C2] to think that something is extremely unpleasant

Dictionary example:
They were revolted by conditions on the farm.

Learner example:
They are revolted by Olivia’s decision which also shows the condescending opinion they have of the Nawab.

revolution  /ˌrev.eˈluː.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: revolution
Verbs: revolt
Adjectives: revolutionary

NOUN

POLITICS
[B2] [c or u] a change in the way a country is governed, usually to a different political system and often involving violence or war

Dictionary example:
The French Revolution changed France from a monarchy to a republic.

Learner example:
It's supposed to be read as a study [of] the Soviet dictatorship during the October revolution and beyond into the Cold War era.
CHANGE

[B2] [c] a very important change in the way that people do things

Dictionary examples:
- a technological revolution
- Penicillin produced a revolution in medicine.

Learner example:
The technological revolution taking place today can be directly linked to the amazing evolution of our communication abilities throughout these last years.

---

revolutionary /ˌrevəˈluː.shən/
Word family:
- Nouns: revolution
- Verbs: revolt
- Adjectives: revolutionary

ADJECTIVE

[B2] completely different from what was done before

Dictionary example:
The twentieth century brought about revolutionary changes in our lifestyles.

Learner example:
Maybe my ideas are too revolutionary but ... I think in this way Torino would be NICER!

---

POLITICS

[B2] involved in or relating to a revolution

Dictionary example:
a revolutionary leader/movement

---

reward /rɪˈwɔːd/
Word family:
- Nouns: reward
- Verbs: reward
- Adjectives: rewarding

NOUN [c]

SOMETHING GOOD

[B1] something good that you get or experience because you have worked hard, behaved well, etc.
Dictionary examples:
There'll be a reward for whoever finishes first.
I told her she could choose a toy as a reward for her good behaviour.

Learner example:
Things improved even more in the evening, when dad let me go to the cinema with my friends, as a reward for getting such good results at Maths.

MONEY
[B1] an amount of money given to someone for helping to find something or for helping the police to return stolen property

Dictionary example:
The police offered a reward for any information about the robbery.

Learner example:
And as a reward, my father took out RM500 and gave it to the bystander.

VERB [T]
[B2] to give someone a reward

Dictionary examples:
She was rewarded for her bravery.
The company rewarded him for his years of service with a gold watch.

Learner example:
She was so happy afterwards and was even rewarded with a medal.

rewarding /rɪˈwoʊd.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: reward
Verbs: reward
Adjectives: rewarding

ADJECTIVE
[C1] making you feel satisfied that you have done something well or done something helpful

Dictionary examples:
a rewarding experience
Teaching is hard work but it's very rewarding.

Learner example:
I led a workshop with children, which was a very rewarding experience, and performed for people of all ages and backgrounds.
rewrite /riːˈraɪt/

Word family:
- Nouns: writer, writing
- Verbs: rewrite, write
- Adjectives: written

VERB [T]

[B2] to write something again in order to improve it

Dictionary example:
I had to rewrite my essay.

Learner example:
I trust you will give this matter your immediate attention and rewrite your report using the information given.

---

rhyme /raɪm/

Word family:
- Nouns: rhythm, rhyme
- Verbs: rhyme

VERB [I]

[C2] If a word rhymes with another word, the end part of the words sound the same.

Dictionary example:
'Moon' rhymes with 'June'.

NOUN

POEM

[C2] [C] a short poem that has words that rhyme at the end of each line

Dictionary example:
The card contained a short rhyme.

Learner example:
It gives a child immense pleasure when her parent reads out a rhyme or a story to her.

STYLE

[C2] [U] a style of writing or speaking that uses words which rhyme

Dictionary example:
The story was written entirely in rhyme.

Learner example:
The poem had no rhyme and it had a free verse form.
rhythm /ˈrɪð.əm/

Word family:
Nouns: rhythm, rhyme
Verbs: rhyme

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a regular, repeating pattern of sound or movement

Dictionary examples:
He beat out a jazz rhythm on the drums.
I've got no sense of rhythm, so I'm a terrible dancer.
She lay back in the boat, feeling the gentle rhythm of the waves.

Learner example:
From then on I have been suffering from high blood pressure and disturbances of the rhythm of the heart–beat.

rib /rib/

NOUN [C]
[B2] one of the curved bones in the chest

Dictionary example:
He cracked a rib in the accident.

Learner example:
I stayed there for 2 weeks with a broken leg, sore ribs and a couple of scars.

ribbon /ˈrɪb.ən/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a long, narrow piece of cloth that is used for tying things or used for decoration

Dictionary example:
Her hair was tied with a velvet ribbon.

Learner example:
Just a week before, the wedding family and close friends come together to decorate the tent with special hand-folded ribbons.
rich /rɪtʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: riches, richness
Verbs: enrich Adjectives: rich

ADJECTIVE

FOOD
[B2] Rich food has a lot of fat, oil or eggs in it.

Dictionary example:
a rich sauce

Learner example:
The cooking [is] bas[ed] on traditional recipes of Westfalian origin and it is tasty but often very rich!

CONTAINING A LOT
[B2] containing a lot of something that is important or valuable

Dictionary examples:
The region is rich in in minerals and coal deposits.
Both foods are rich in Vitamin C.
The country has vast oil reserves and rich deposits of other minerals.

Learner example:
The rich in knowledge and fun[n]y.

NOUN

the rich
[C1] people who are rich

Dictionary example:
These ski resorts are for the rich.

Learner example:
What did the rich do all day?

riches /ˈrɪtʃ.ɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: riches, richness
Verbs: enrich
Adjectives: rich

NOUN [PLURAL] LITERARY
[C2] a lot of money or valuable objects
Dictionary example:
To her, £500 seemed like untold riches.

Learner example:
First, her career can be regarded as the typical rise from "rags to riches".

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NOUN [u]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[C1] the interesting or impressive quality of something that shows how strong or varied it is</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
I was amazed by the richness of their traditions.

Learner example:
Cultures of Mexico: You will be able to discover the richness and variety of Mexican ancient cultures: – Mexico – Maya – Olmeca – Tolteca – Zapoteca – Chichimeca.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>get rid of sth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] to throw something away or give something to someone because you no longer want it</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
We must get rid of some of those old books.

Learner example:
Do you think I'd better get rid of the sofa and place the bookshelf [there]?

get rid of sth
[B2] to end something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
I can't seem to get rid of this headache.

Learner example:
[The] first step is to get rid of smoking.
get rid of sb
[C1] to make someone leave

Dictionary example:
We finally got rid of my little sister by telling her scary stories.

Learner example:
Improving your English on your own (or a self-guide [on] how to get rid of your English teacher!)

ride /raɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: ride, rider
Verbs: ride

NOUN [c]

VEHICLE
[B1] a journey in a vehicle or train

Dictionary examples:
It's a short bus ride to the airport.
Can I give you a ride to the station?
He asked me for a ride into town.

Learner example:
On the next day, I went swimming in the lake early in the morning and took a bus ride home after that.

BICYCLE
[B1] a journey riding a bicycle, motorcycle, or horse

Dictionary examples:
He's gone out for a ride on his bike.
Do you want to come for a ride on my motorbike?

Learner example:
I swam in the sea, sunba[th]ed on the golden beach and had a ride on [a] scooter.

PLAYING
[B1] a machine at a fair which moves people up and down, round in circles, etc. as they sit in it

Dictionary example:
She wanted me to go on a ride with her.

Learner example:
I really enjoyed myself a lot. Although I was scared on the rides, in my op[i]nion that funfair we visited was fantastic!
a rough/bumpy ride

[C2] a time when you experience a lot of problems

Dictionary example:
They gave her a rough ride at the interview.

Learner example:
It seems like it is going to be a "bumpy" ride.

---

rider /ˈraɪ.də/

Word family:
- Nouns: ride, rider
- Verbs: ride

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone who rides a horse, bicycle, or motorcycle

Dictionary example:
One of the riders was thrown off his horse.

Learner example:
A lot of good riders will come with their horses to take part in a competition.

---

ridiculous /rɪˈdɪk.jʊ.ləs/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] very silly

Dictionary examples:
I've never heard anything so ridiculous.
I'd look ridiculous in a hat like that.
It's a ridiculous idea/suggestion.

Learner example:
So, it is just ridiculous to hear that there were fewer than 2000 people there.

---

right /raɪt/

Word family:
- Nouns: right
- Adjectives: right
- Adverbs: right, rightly
ADJECTIVE

SUITABLE

[B1] suitable or best in a particular situation

Dictionary examples:
I'm not sure she's the right person for the job.
Are we going in the right direction?

Learner example:
I know that you will make the right choice!

MORALLY ACCEPTABLE

[B2] fair or morally acceptable

Dictionary examples:
It's not right to criticize him behind his back.
Someone had to tell him – I think you did the right thing.

Learner example:
Was he doing the right thing or he was just making matters worse?

ADVERB

EXACTLY

[B1] exactly in a place or time

Dictionary examples:
He's right here with me.
I fell asleep right in the middle of her speech.
They live right in the centre of the city.

Learner example:
That's me, right here.

right away/now/after

[B1] immediately

Dictionary example:
Do you want to start right away?

Learner example:
I [would] love to see your new trousers but I'm busy right now.

CORRECTLY

[B2] correctly

Dictionary example:
He guessed right most of the time.

ALL

[C2] all the way
Dictionary example:
Did you read it right through to the end?

Learner example:
As time passes by, Ralph learns about Piggy's value as he is the only one that stays with him right to the end.

NOUN

BEHAVIOUR

[B2] [u] morally correct behaviour

Dictionary example:
I've tried to teach them the difference between right and wrong.

Learner example:
He was raised not knowing the difference between right and wrong.

LAW

[B2] [c] something that the law allows you to do

Dictionary examples:
the right to free speech
the right to vote

Learner example:
To sum up, famous people are the same as we are, and we all have the right to lead a private life and no right to break into their privacy.

have a/no right to do sth

[C1] to have, or not have, a good reason for something

Dictionary examples:
He has a right to be angry.
She had no right to speak to me like that.

Learner example:
Finally, you have no right to say that we “did not reach our target figure” since the whole event was considered to be a success by many people.

the Right/right

[C2] political groups which support capitalism

Dictionary example:
The right campaigned against the president.

in its/his/their, etc. own right

[C2] in a way that does not rely on anything or anyone else

Dictionary examples:
I think this is a dialect, rather than a language in its own right.
These experiments are very important in their own right.
Learner example:
Major international sports competitions can either be understood as a means to an end or an end in their own right.

rightly /ˈraɪt.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: right
- Adjectives: right
- Adverbs: right, rightly

ADVERB

[B2] in a correct way

Dictionary examples:
- He is rightly concerned about the situation.
- They quite rightly complained to the manager.

Learner example:
If I remember rightly, there were over 5,000.

right–wing /ˌraɪtˈwɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] supporting the ideas of parties on the political right

Dictionary examples:
- She's extremely right–wing.
- a right–wing newspaper

Learner example:
Some of them even turn to right–wing extremism.

rigid /ˈrɪdʒ.ɪd/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not able to change or be changed easily

Dictionary example:
I found the rules a little too rigid.

Learner example:
They were all trying to do their best in the rigid framework of the existing system (one of them even succeeded in making the difference).
ring /rɪŋ/

NOUN [c]

CIRCLE
[B2] something that is the shape of a circle

Dictionary example:
The children sat in a ring around the teacher.

Learner example:
It is forced to jump into a ring of fire, if it does not want to do it, it will be hit.

SOUND
[B2] the sound a bell makes

Dictionary example:
The ring of the doorbell woke him up.

Learner example:
Walking down the street, he heard a noise: just the ring of the clock tower.

VERB [i or t]

SOUND
[B1] If something rings, it makes the sound of a bell, and if you ring a bell, you cause it to make a sound.

Dictionary examples:
The phone's ringing.
I rang the doorbell.

Learner example:
Me and a few of my friends were having a day off school so we went to a lovely beach by the Danube river, when my phone rang.

ring a bell
[C2] If a word, especially a name, rings a bell, you think you have heard it before.

Dictionary example:
Shane Watson? That name rings a bell.

Learner example:
Its name is Laser – I suppose it rings a bell?

ring hollow
[C2] If something someone says rings hollow, it does not sound true or sincere.

Dictionary example:
He said he was pleased, but his words rang hollow.
Learner example:
Everything rang hollow to her, so she decided to follow him in order to understand what had happened and her fiancé became so friendly and understanding.

riot /raɪət/

NOUN [C]
[C1] angry, violent behaviour by a crowd of people

Dictionary examples:
a race riot
Riots started in several cities.

Learner example:
A riot started in the city but the police managed to stop it before anyone got seriously hurt.

a riot of sth LITERARY [C2] extremely colourful and bright

Dictionary example:
Jim’s rose garden is a riot of colour.

Learner example:
I like the narrow streets, the smell of overripe fruit in the middle of the summer, the gardens, which are a riot of colours in spring, small thatched cottages, which you can never [see] anywhere else in Russia.

run riot
[C2] to behave in a noisy, violent, or wild way without being controlled

Dictionary example:
They allow their kids to run riot.

VERB [I]
[C2] to take part in a riot

Dictionary example:
People were rioting in the streets.

Learner example:
If there [are] a lot of frustrated individuals in an area, they may band together and begin rioting.
rip /rip/ (−pp−)

VERB [I or T]

TEAR

[B2] to tear quickly and suddenly, or to tear something quickly and suddenly

Dictionary examples:
His new trousers ripped when he bent down.
She ripped her dress getting off her bike.
He excitedly ripped open the parcel.

Learner example:
While I was walking I stepped on my dress and ripped it.

rip sth out/off/from, etc.

[C1] to remove something by pulling it away quickly

Dictionary example:
Hedges had been ripped out to make larger fields.

Learner example:
One leg was completely ripped off, while the other is just managing to hold on.

ripe /raɪp/

ADJECTIVE

FRUIT, ETC.

[B2] developed enough and ready to be eaten

Dictionary examples:
ripe fruit
Those bananas aren't ripe yet – they're still green.

Learner example:
There were a lot of beautiful, ripe, red strawberries and I couldn't resist picking one of them.

ripe for sth

[C2] developed enough to be ready for something

Dictionary examples:
The country is ripe for change.
The time is ripe for investing in new technology.

Learner example:
We can say that the time was ripe for his success.
rip-off /ˈrip.ɒf/

NOUN [C] INFORMAL
[C1] when someone is cheated by being made to pay too much for something

Dictionary example:
The food there is a real rip-off.

Learner example:
What is more, I am sure students won't feel like it is a rip-off because prices are really reasonable.

rise /raɪz/

VERB [i] (rose, risen)

SUN/MOON
[B1] When the sun or moon rises, it appears in the sky.

Dictionary example:
The sun rises in the East.

Learner example:
It was very beautiful, especially in the morning when the sun was rising.

MOVE UP
[B1] to move up

Dictionary example:
The balloon rose gently up into the air.

INCREASE
[B2] to increase in level

Dictionary examples:
rising temperatures
Prices rose by 10 percent.
Inflation is rising by 2.1% a month.

Learner example:
Also, due to global warming, sea levels might rise and [the] risk of flooding will also rise.

rise to/through, etc.
[C2] to become important, successful, or rich

Dictionary example:
He quickly rose to stardom.
Learner example:
He then joined the company he is now the managing director of; during 15 years, he steadily rose through the ranks to the top.

NOUN [c]

INCREASE

[B2] an increase in the level of something

Dictionary examples:
a sudden temperature rise
a 5% rise in inflation
August has seen a large rise in the number of unemployed.

Learner example:
There is also a steady rise in underweight [girls] among young girls of today.

PAY

[C1] an increase in the amount of money you earn

Dictionary example:
a pay rise
Learner example:
The reason is not only that we cannot manage to afford a pay rise for each of you but also we would like to organise two language courses in the USA.

sb's rise to fame/power, etc.

[C2] when someone becomes very famous or powerful

Dictionary example:
The movie charts his rise to power.

Learner example:
He is one of these artists whom I respect immensely as his rise to celebrity was a long and painstaking journey, mainly because he was always faithful to the kind of music he wanted to play and to the ideals he wanted to convey through his lyrics, and also because he shows great modesty.

give rise to sth

[C2] to cause something

Dictionary examples:
International support has given rise to a new optimism within the company.
The bacteria live in the human body but do not give rise to any symptoms.

Learner example:
More often than not, however, such events will also give rise to all sorts of contradictions.
risk /rɪsk/

Word family:
Nouns: risk
Verbs: risk
Adjectives: risky

NOUN

BAD POSSIBILITY
[B2] [c or u] the possibility of something bad happening

Dictionary examples:
the risk of heart disease
There is a slight risk that the blood could have become infected.
We want clean rivers and lakes, where you can swim without risk to your health.
It's a low/high-risk strategy.

Learner example:
Nowadays, everything is a risk, even at home we are in danger.

at risk
[B2] being in a situation where something bad is likely to happen

Dictionary examples:
All houses within 100 metres of the seas are at risk of flooding.
Releasing these prisoners puts the public at risk.

Learner example:
Lives are at risk!

take a risk
[B2] to do something although something bad might happen because of it

Dictionary example:
This time I'm not taking any risks – I'm going to get insured.

Learner example:
He had to take a risk if he wanted to save his love, Anne.

SOMETHING BAD
[C1] [c] something bad that might happen

Dictionary example:
There are more health risks when older women get pregnant.

Learner example:
Personally, I will continue using my mobile phone, no matter what the health risks are, and I will probably encourage my children to have one with them when they go places [further] away than our home or garden, in case something happens.
run the risk of sth
[C2] to do something although something bad might happen because of it

Dictionary example:
I think I'll run the risk of hurting her feelings, and tell her the truth.

Learner example:
They constantly run the risk of losing their physical abilities.

at your own risk
[C2] If you do something at your own risk, you are completely responsible for anything bad that might happen because of it.

Dictionary example:
Customers may leave vehicles here at their own risk.

Learner example:
However, when a young man decides to go on a dangerous expedition, he should do so at his own risk and should not rely on help from anyone.

VERB [T]

DO SOMETHING
[B2] If you risk something bad, you do something although that bad thing might happen.

Dictionary example:
"It's dangerous to cross here." "I'll just have to risk it."

Learner example:
You shouldn't risk damaging your health.

POSSIBLY LOSE
[B2] If you risk something important, you cause it to be in a dangerous situation where you might lose it.

Dictionary examples:
He risked his life to save me.
She risked her job by giving me that information.

Learner example:
If she had gone home by taxi, she would have not risked her life.

risky /ˈrɪski/
ADJECTIVE

[B2] dangerous because something bad might happen

Dictionary examples:
It's risky to buy a car without some good advice.
Investing in shares is always a risky business.

Learner example:
[Cycling on] this road is a bit risky and demanding so I would agree with Chris on that point.

---

ritual /ˈrɪtʃ.u.əl/

NOUN [C]

[C2] an activity or a set of actions that are always done in the same way or at the same time, sometimes as part of a religion

Dictionary example:
Coffee and the paper are part of my morning ritual.

Learner example:
I want to be able to travel to another country (for example Jamaica), learn a new culture (like the Rastafarian culture) and their rites and rituals.

---

rival /ˈraɪ.vəl/

Word family:
Nouns: rival, rivalry

Verbs: rival

NOUN [C]

[C1] someone or something that is competing with another person or thing

Dictionary example: business/political rivals

Learner example:
Around 60% of our international rivals had their stands there, usually with 2–3 staff members always kept busy by [the] public.

VERB [T] (–ll–)

[C2] to be good enough to compete with someone or something else

Dictionary example:
Australian wine can now rival the best from France.

Learner example:
His intimidating presence was rival[led] only by that of his ferocious-looking dog.
rivalry /ˈraɪ.vəl.ri/

Word family:
Nouns: rival, rivalry
Verbs: rival

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when two people or things are rivals

Dictionary example:
There is intense rivalry between the two teams.

Learner example:
These major differences create a great rivalry between the two boys.

river /ˈriv.ər/

NOUN [C]

mouth of a river
[C1] where a river goes into the sea

Dictionary example:
It is a small village, by the mouth of a river.

Learner example:
The mouth of the river with a [narrow] exit to the sea, provided an extra ex[cl]ement because of the pressure of the water when joining the sea.

road /rəʊd/

NOUN [C or U]

on the road
[C1] driving or travelling, usually over a long distance

Dictionary example:
We’d been on the road for 48 hours.

Learner example:
I have experienced sitting behind a steering wheel on the road for many years.
roar /ˈroʊ/

VERB

MAKE NOISE
[C2] to make a loud, deep sound

Dictionary examples:
We could hear a lion roaring on the other side of the zoo.
She roared with laughter.

Learner example:
There are also unforgettable immediate responses that will make people roar with laughter.

SHOUT
[C2] to say something in a very loud voice

Dictionary example:
"Stop that!" he roared.

Learner example:
"Stop clicking that picture box and help me with the cows," her father would roar and if it was not the cows, it was the pigs, and if it was not the pigs, it was the hens.

NOUN [c]
[C2] a loud, deep sound

Dictionary examples:
a lion's roar
the roar of a jet engine

Learner example:
However, I will try to portray an accurate picture of what living under the constant roar of aircraft engines is about.

rob /rɒb/

Word family:
Nouns: robbery
Verbs: rob

VERB [r] (−bb−)

STEAL
[B1] to steal from someone or somewhere, often using violence
Dictionary examples:
to rob a bank
Two tourists were robbed at gunpoint in the city centre last night.
They robbed the company of £2 million.

Learner example:
About twenty tourists were robbed.

rob sb of sth
[C2] to take something important away from someone

Dictionary example:
The war had robbed them of their innocence.

Learner example:
The white man came and deprived the Africans of all their culture. They tried to make them worship a new, unfamiliar god [and] simply tried to rob them of their own identity.

---

robbery /ˈrɒb.əri/

Word family:
Nouns: robbery
Verbs: rob

NOUN [c or u]
[B2] the crime of stealing from somewhere or someone

Dictionary examples:
a bank robbery
The gang admitted they had committed four recent robberies.
He is in prison for armed robbery.

Learner example:
We were fed up with our lives and all the problems we had [so] one of us decided to organize a bank robbery. [At] first we laughed at him because it was such a silly idea but finally it was the only solution for us to become rich.

---

robot /ˈrəʊ.bɒt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a machine controlled by a computer, which can move and do other things that people can do

Dictionary example:
They use robots to spray the cars.
Learner example:
I think there will be tall buildings and [the] population will rise a lot. I think there will be robots too.

rock /rɒk/

Word family:
Nouns: rock
Adjectives: rocky

NOUN

HARD SUBSTANCE

[B1] [c or u] the hard, natural substance which forms part of the Earth's surface, or an area of this substance sticking out of the sea or ground

Dictionary examples:
a layer of rock
Mountains and cliffs are formed from rock.
The boat struck a rock outside the bay and sank.
We climbed over the rocks and reached the sea.

Learner example:
There are many wonderful hills, mountains, lakes, caves and rocks.

VERB

[C2] [i or ŋ] to move backwards and forwards or from side to side, or to make someone or something do this

Dictionary examples:
She rocked back and forth on her chair.
He gently rocked the baby to sleep.

Learner example:
The violent storm was rocking the ship back and forth.

rock the boat

[C2] to do or say something that changes a situation in a way that causes problems

Dictionary example:
They seemed very happy and I didn’t want to rock the boat.

Learner example:
But let's not rock the boat. Our preposterous cravings and wishes might become our [down]fall.
rocket /ˈrɒk.ɪt/

NOUN [C]

VEHICLE
[B2] a tube-shaped device containing fuel and an engine that pushes a vehicle into space

Dictionary example:
They launched a rocket yesterday.

Learner example:
[With] computers, you can control machines [or] a rocket [or] a satellite.

WEAPON
[C2] a tube-shaped weapon that carries a bomb

Dictionary example:
Rockets were fired across the border.

Learner example:
Furthermore, nuclear rockets and missiles should be prohibited.

rocky /ˈrɒk.i/

Word family:
Nouns: rock
Adjectives: rocky

ADJECTIVE

WITH ROCKS
[C1] with lots of rocks

Dictionary example:
a rocky beach

Learner example:
The walk around the lake is an extraordinary experience – seeing the majesty of the rocky mountains around the blue surface, which reflects the lights as a mirror, is unforget[t]able.

RELATIONSHIP
[C2] a rocky relationship has problems and may not last

Dictionary example:
I heard that their marriage is a bit rocky.

Learner example:
Their marriage started to get a bit rocky due to the mother's devotion to find[ing] Mary.
role /rəʊl/

NOUN [c]

ACTING
[B1] an actor's part in a film or play

Dictionary examples:
She's got a leading/supporting role in the school play.
He plays the role of a violent criminal.

Learner example:
Jack Nicholson, my favourite actor, plays the main role.

PURPOSE
[B2] the job someone or something has in a particular situation

Dictionary examples:
What is his role in this project?
This part of the brain plays an important role in learning.
Six people have been put on trial for their role in the demonstrations.

Learner example:
In fact, computers play an important role in the office.

role model /ˈrəʊlˌmɒd.əl/

NOUN [c]

[C1] someone you try to behave like because you admire them

Dictionary example:
Jane is such a good role model for her younger sister.

Learner example:
Pele was voted Athlete of the Century for his outstanding performance and for being such a positive role model for other athletes and youth in general.

roll /rəʊl/

VERB

roll (sth) across/around/over, etc.
[B2] to move somewhere by turning in a circular direction, or to make something move this way
Dictionary examples:
The ball rolled through the goalkeeper's legs.
She rolled over onto her side.
The vase rolled off the edge of the table and smashed.

TURN OVER
[B2] [T] to turn something around itself to make the shape of a ball or tube

Dictionary examples:
He was rolling a cigarette.
He rolled the clay into a ball in his hands.
As I got closer, the hedgehog rolled itself up into a ball.

roll down/in/off, etc.
[B2] to move somewhere smoothly

Dictionary examples:
Tears rolled down her face.
His car started rolling down the drive.

Learner example:
By this time, the rest of us were laughing so [hard that] tears were rolling down our cheeks.

roll your eyes
[C2] DISAPPROVING to move your eyes so that they are looking up, usually to show surprise or disapproval

Dictionary example:
When I asked her when she thought the building work would be finished, she just rolled her eyes.

Learner example:
This attitude is obvious when, for instance, shop assistant[s] show no patience for the slower reaction of elder[ly] [people]; when nobody offers a seat to an older person in [an] overcrowded tube; when we roll our eyes about older people's desire for quiet, etc.

set/start the ball rolling [C2] to begin an activity that involves a group of people

Dictionary example:
I've started the ball rolling by setting up a series of meetings.

NOUN [C]

BREAD
[B1] a small loaf of bread for one person

Dictionary example:
I had a roll with my soup.

Learner example:
We eat ham, cheese, butter and paprika, with [a] roll or bread.
TUBE
[B2] a piece of film, paper or cloth that is rolled into the shape of a tube

Dictionary examples:
a roll of carpet
a toilet roll

---

romance /rəʊˈmænts/

Word family:
Nouns: romance
Adjectives: romantic

NOUN [c or u]

[B1] an exciting relationship of love between two people, often a short one

Dictionary examples:
It was just a holiday romance.
Office romances are usually a bad idea.

Learner example:
I like it very much because it has romance and action, and cats of cours[e].

---

romantic /rəʊˈmæntɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: romance
Adjectives: romantic

ADJECTIVE

LOVE
[B1] relating to feelings of love and affection

Dictionary example:
a romantic dinner for two

Learner example:
And the atmosphere in the evening is so romantic!

STORY
[B1] relating to a story about love

Dictionary examples:
romantic fiction
a romantic comedy
Learner example:
It was interesting but romantic novels are my favourite books!

IDEAS
[C2] thinking that things are better than they really are, and that things are possible which are not

Dictionary example:
a romantic view of the world roof /ruːf/

NOUN [c] a roof over your head

[C2] somewhere to live

Dictionary example:
He took me in when I didn't have a roof over my head.

Learner example:
As for the new homes for local people it seems to be that it will be of particular importance to homeless people, who will feel that they have a roof over their head without having to pay anything.

go through the roof
[C2] If the level of something, especially a price, goes through the roof, it increases very quickly.

Dictionary example:
The price of corn has gone through the roof recently.

Learner example:
Try extreme sports and feel your adrenaline levels going through the roof!

hit the roof INFORMAL [C2] to become very angry and start shouting

Dictionary example:
If I'm late again he'll hit the roof.

Learner example:
Be careful, if you make too much noise he'll hit the roof.
room /ruːm/

NOUN

SPACE

[B1] [u] space for things to fit into

Dictionary examples:
Is there enough room for me in the car?
That sofa would take up too much room in the flat.
James took the books off the little table to make room for the television.

Learner example:
In the wardrobe there is no[t] enough room to put all my stuff away.

room for improvement

[C1] If there is room for improvement, something can be made better.

Dictionary example:
His work isn’t bad but there’s still some room for improvement.

Learner example:
She is Polish, aged 29 and can speak English pretty well, but there is still room for improvement, that’s why she wants to spend a year in England, looking after children in an English–speaking family.

roommate /ˈruːm.meɪt/

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone who you share a room, apartment, etc. with

Dictionary example:
He was my roommate while we were at college.

Learner example:
I was a student and lived together in a flat with my roommate Claudia.

root /ruːt/

NOUN [c]

PLANT PART

[B2] the part of a plant that grows under the ground and gets water and food from the soil
Dictionary example:
These plants have really deep roots.

Learner example:
I have gathered over three hundred species: flowers, roots, leaves and others.

roots
[B2] where someone or something originally comes from

Dictionary example:
the roots of modern jazz

Learner example:
I think people should know where our European pop and rock music has its roots.

the root of sth
[C1] the cause of something, usually something bad

Dictionary examples:
We must get to the root of this problem.
Money is said to be the root of all evil.

Learner example:
Unfortunately none of us has ever tried to find the root of this problem but the influences that it has on the environment are obvious.

---

rope

/NOUN C or U/

FOR TYING
[B2] very thick string made from twisted thread

Dictionary examples:
We tied the boat to a post with a length of rope.
a coil of rope

Learner example:
A few moments later she took out a rope from her backpack.

learn/know the ropes
[C2] to learn/know how to do a job or activity

Dictionary example:
I spent a month in the accounts department, learning the ropes.

Learner example:
Knowing the ropes, he did as usual, but one thing was left out.
rose /ˈrəʊz/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a flower with a pleasant smell and thorns, that grows on a bush

Dictionary examples:
- a rose bush
- She sent him a bunch of red roses.

Learner example:
- He brought me to a posh restaurant and he gave me a bunch of roses.

---

rosy /ˈrəʊ.zi/

ADJECTIVE

PINK

[C2] Rosy faces are a healthy pink colour.

Dictionary example:
- rosy cheeks

Learner example:
- Not a lot taller than a lot of us, with beautiful bl[ue] eyes and rosy cheeks, she used to called us "Muffins".

POSITIVE

[C2] very positive and happy

Dictionary example:
- The future looks rosy.

Learner example:
- In addition, I can see something in his eyes that says his life is not as rosy as it seems.

---

rot /rɒt/

VERB [I or T] (rotting, rotted)

[C2] If vegetable or animal substances rot, they decay, and if something rots them, it makes them decay.

Dictionary examples:
- Sugar rots your teeth.
- the smell of rotting fish
Learner example:
He told me of how he had come to see it every day, and seen how all the meat had rotted away and stuff.

rotten /ˈrɒt.n/
ADJECTIVE
[B2] Rotten vegetable or animal substances are decaying.

Dictionary example:
rotten eggs/fruit

Learner example:
I'll tell you something – my freezer still smells of rotten fish.

rough /rʌf/

Word family:
Adjectives: rough
Adverbs: roughly

ADJECTIVE

NOT SMOOTH
[B1] A rough surface is not smooth.

Dictionary examples:
rough ground
It was a rough mountain road, covered in stones and huge holes.

Learner example:
I went with some people I knew from bike competitions, and I was impressed with how well they can ride a bike on a rough terrain, whereas I had to go carefully in some tracks.

NOT EXACT
[B1] approximate and not exact

Dictionary examples:
Write a rough copy first and check the grammar.
Can you give me a rough idea of the numbers?

Learner example:
I lost my personal note-pad where I used to write all my job tasks, my arrangements and the records of my students. I have even written the rough copy of some personal letters there.
SEA/WEATHER

[B2] If the sea or weather is rough, there is a lot of strong wind and sometimes rain.

Dictionary example:
The boat sank in rough seas off the Swedish coast.

Learner example:
I went to the seaside but I was not allowed to bathe for they said that the sea was too rough.

DIFFICULT

[B2] difficult or unpleasant

Dictionary example:
She's having a rough time at work.

Learner example:
He did the mountain-route last year and he says that even he had a rough time.

DANGEROUS

[C1] dangerous or violent

Dictionary examples:
a rough part of town
Hockey can be quite a rough game.

Learner example:
I like him as a football player because he plays fair, not rough.

roughly /ˈrʌf.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: rough
Adverbs: roughly

ADVERB

NOT EXACTLY

[B2] approximately

Dictionary examples:
There has been an increase of roughly 2.25 million.
Roughly speaking, it's 2.25 million.
We have roughly the same tastes.

Learner example:
These are very special cases and roughly speaking, confined to one thing.

FORCEFULLY

[C2] forcefully or violently
Dictionary example:
He pushed us roughly out of the door.

Learner example:
My mother treated me roughly and unkindly by thrashing or smacking me a[t] any time possible.

WITHOUT CARE
[C2] without taking a lot of care to make something perfect

Dictionary example:
Roughly chop the tomatoes and add to the onions.

Learner example:
She glanced at the mirror, roughly [brushed] her hair with her fingers and went outside for her car.

round /raʊnd/

PREPOSITION

TO OR IN A PLACE
[B1] to or in different parts of a place

Dictionary examples:
The landlord showed me round the house.
I had to go all round town to find a hotel that was open.

Learner example:
Well, she showed me round her hometown and we did some sight-seeing.

ADVERB

CIRCULAR MOVEMENT
[B1] with a circular movement

Dictionary example:
This switch makes the wheels go round.

OPPOSITE DIRECTION
[B1] to the opposite direction

Dictionary examples:
She looked round.
Turn the car round and let’s go home.

Learner example:
I turned round and I saw that the one who was calling me was the singer!!

TO SEVERAL PLACES
[B1] from one place or person to another
Dictionary example:
Could you pass these forms round, please?

round and round
[B2] moving in a circle without stopping

Dictionary example:
We drove round and round trying to find the hotel.

Learner example:
It's not fun to look at an animal who is bored and only walks round and round.

NOUN [c]

first/second/third/final, etc., round
[B2] the first/second/third/final, etc. stage in a competition

Dictionary example:
He was beaten in the first round.

Learner example:
At five o'clock in the afternoon, the second round of the games [will begin].

round of applause
[C2] when people clap

Dictionary example:
The crowd gave him a huge round of applause.

Learner example:
It was unbelievable, there was a round of applause and some people couldn't help crying.

DRINKS
[C2] drinks that you buy for a group of people

Dictionary example:
It's your turn to buy the next round.

Learner example:
Rob (her husband) was so happy and in such a splendid mood that he decided to pay [for] a round of beer.

EVENTS
[C2] a group of events that is part of a series

Dictionary examples:
a round of interviews
a new round of talks between the two countries

Learner example:
My life was an endless round of parties, and social events.
route /ruːt/

NOUN [C]

ROADS
[B1] the roads or paths you follow to get from one place to another place

Dictionary examples:
an escape route
I'm just planning my route.
What's the best route to the station?
Crowds gathered all along the route to watch the race.

Learner example:
Each cycle route is shown in a different colour, so we didn't lose our way.

METHOD
[C2] a method of achieving something

Dictionary example:
A university education is seen by many as the best route to a good job.

Learner example:
This means that only by presenting them with a great variety of opportunities can we be certain that our children will be shaped correctly. Thus, [...] it seems to be the only legitimate and most advantagous route to follow.

routine /ruːˈtiːn/

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] the things you regularly do and how and when you do them

Dictionary examples:
a daily routine
He longed to escape the routine of an office job.
There's no set/fixed routine at work – every day is different.

Learner example:
Usually we speak about our daily routine, [and] our plan[s] for the future.

ADJECTIVE

BORING
[C2] done regularly and very boring

Dictionary examples:
a routine check/task
His job is very routine.
Learner example:
Nevertheless, when a job becomes routine (and it usually always does), people seem to reminisce [about] their student years with a sense of disappointment.

row¹ /rəʊ/

NOUN [C]

LINE
[B1] a straight line of people or things

Dictionary examples:
a row of chairs/houses
My students sit at desks in rows for most of the time.

Learner example:
Two rows of servants stood beside the path which was in front of him with [a] red carpet on it.

SEATS
[B1] a line of seats

Dictionary examples:
to sit on the back/front row
Isn't that Sophie sitting in the row behind us?

Learner example:
It is great in my class, there are so many people and they are all nice. I'm sitting in the first row next to Nicole.

in a row
[B2] one after another without a break

Dictionary example:
He's just won the tournament for the fifth year in a row.

Learner example:
Maradona was the captain of the team, and since he arrived, the team won three championships in a row.

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to move a boat or move someone in a boat through the water using oars

Dictionary example:
We rowed to the other side of the lake.

Learner example:
In the end, they had to row all the way back to the beach and it was very late when they got home.
row² /rəʊ/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a loud, angry argument

Dictionary examples:
My parents often have rows.
a blazing row

Learner example:
The sun was shining, the birds were singing and all the people were happy, but I was very angry because I had had a row with my husband.

royal /ˈrɒl.eɪl/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to a queen or king and their family

Dictionary examples:
the royal family
a royal visit

Learner example:
Chris, Anne and I wanted to visit the royal palace.

rub /rʌb/

VERB [T] (−bb−)

PRESS WITH HANDS
[B2] to press your hand or a cloth on a surface and move it backwards and forwards

Dictionary examples:
She rubbed her hands together to warm them.
He rubbed himself dry with a towel.
Rub the stain with a damp cloth.

Learner example:
Paul suddenly saw something. A kind of shadow. He rubbed his eyes but there was nothing.

rub sth into/on, etc.
[B2] to move a substance backwards and forwards over a surface so that it covers it and goes into it
Dictionary examples:
I rubbed some suntan oil on her back.
Rub the butter into the flour.

rub it in informal
[C2] to upset someone by talking to them about something which you know they want to forget

Dictionary example:
I know your exam results were better than mine – there's no need to rub it in.

Learner example:
Indeed, I wouldn't [want] to rub it in but you have reached seventy or eighty. I don't think you can fend for yourself.

rubber /ˈrʌb.ə/ NOUN

SUBSTANCE
[B2] [U] a strong material that bends easily, originally produced from the juice of a tropical tree, and used to make tyres, boots, etc.

Dictionary example:
shoes with rubber soles

Learner example:
Worst [of] all it seems to me is the way some zoos are regarded as places of entertainment like [a] circus, where the people are encouraged to laugh at animals whe[n] they 'perform their funny tricks' like eating bananas, swinging from rubber tyres and so on.

rubbish /ˈrʌb.ɪʃ/ NOUN [U]

WASTE
[B1] things that you throw away because you do not want them

Dictionary examples:
Our rubbish gets collected on Thursdays.
Put the empty box in the rubbish bin.
I took some old furniture to the rubbish dump.

Learner example:
While I [was] walking in the rain along the dark and quiet alleys, I heard a weak cry that sound[ed] like a baby [coming] from a corner with rubbish scattered everywhere.
BAD QUALITY

[B2] INFORMAL something that is of bad quality

Dictionary example:
There's so much rubbish on TV.

Learner example:
I was t[ought] to believe that recorded music was rubbish compar[ed] to live music.

NONSENSE

[C1] something that is nonsense or wrong

Dictionary example:
Ignore him, he's talking rubbish.

Learner example:
For example, the advertisement where the worker eats only "Mars" and can work hard after it. It's rubbish.

rude /ruːd/

Word family:
Nouns: rudeness
Adjectives: rude
Adverbs: rudely

ADJECTIVE

NOT POLITE

[B1] behaving in a way which is not polite and upsets other people

Dictionary examples:
a rude comment/remark
He complained that a member of staff had been rude to him.
It would be rude to leave without saying goodbye.

Learner example:
I thought he [wa]s such a rude man.

WORDS/JOKES

[B2] Rude words or jokes relate to sex or going to the toilet.

Dictionary example:
He taught his little sister a lot of rude words.

Learner example:
She just wanted to shout rude words when finally she recognised her father... standing in front of her.
rudely /ˈruːd.li/

Word family:
Nouns: rudeness
Adjectives: rude
Adverbs: rudely

ADVERB
[C1] in a rude way

Dictionary example:
He rudely pushed past us.

Learner example:
When I made an attempt to speak to the conductor, I was rudely told off and told to stay seated for the rest of the journey.

rudeness /ˈruːd.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: rudeness
Adjectives: rude
Adverbs: rudely

NOUN [u]
[C1] the quality of being rude

Dictionary example:
I was shocked by her rudeness.

Learner example:
Many complaints were made about the rudeness of the reception [staff].

rug /rʌg/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a soft piece of material used to cover the floor

Dictionary example:
My dog loves lying on the rug in front of the fire.

Learner example:
There is [a] green rug in the middle of the floor.
ruin /ˈruː.ɪn/

NOUN

OLD PARTS
[B1] [c] the broken parts that are left from an old building after it has been destroyed

Dictionary example:
Thousands of tourists wander around these ancient ruins every year.

Learner example:
After that I'm going to travel to Luxor and see [the] ruins.

be/lie in ruins
[C1] to be in a very bad state

Dictionary example:
The war left one million people dead and the country in ruins.

Learner example:
When my grandparents were young, Germany lay in ruins.

LOSING EVERYTHING
[C2] [u] when someone loses everything such as all their money or their job

Dictionary example:
The collapse of the bank has left many people in financial ruin.

Learner example:
He started his first business some time ago which led to financial ruin.

VERB [r]
[B2] to spoil or destroy something completely

Dictionary examples:
They were late and the dinner was ruined.
Her injury ruined her chances of winning the race.
Huge modern hotels have ruined this once unspoilt coastline.

Learner example:
But she didn't keep her promise and she ruined my life.

rule /ruːl/

Word family:
Nouns: rule, ruler, ruling
Verbs: rule
NOUN

INSTRUCTION
[B1] [c] an official instruction about what you must or must not do

Dictionary examples:
to break the rules
to obey/follow the rules
You can't smoke at school, it's against the rules.

Learner example:
There're plenty of rules in my high school.

PRINCIPLE
[B1] [c] a principle of a system, such as a language or science

Dictionary example:
the rules of grammar

Learner example:
We did a little exam about tenses and grammar rules.

USUAL WAY
[B2] [NO PLURAL] the usual way something is

Dictionary examples:
an exception to the rule
I visit my parents on Sunday, as a rule.

Learner example:
As a rule, children who ride bikes change their bike[s] for cars [when they are older] and are pre[pa]red a little [for] how to behave on the road.

a rule of thumb
[C1] a way of calculating something, which is not exact but which will help you to be correct enough

Dictionary example:
As a rule of thumb, you need one egg for every 125g flour.

Learner example:
As a rule of thumb, one third of the people working in central Copenhagen [go] by car, one third by public transport, and one third by bike.

bend/stretch the rules
[C2] to allow someone to do something which is not usually allowed

Dictionary example:
We don't usually let students take books home, but I'll bend the rules on this occasion.
LEADER
[C2] [u] when someone is in control of a country

Dictionary examples:
military rule
There have been reports of immense human suffering under his rule.

Learner example:
A XXth century modernist, not only should he be paid honour for his artistry but also for his never cea[s]ing battle against Franco’s rule.

VERB

CONTROL SOMEWHERE
[B2] [t or τ] to be in control of somewhere, usually a country

Dictionary example:
They were ruled for many years by a dictator.

Learner example:
In the late 60s when Greece was ruled by a military government, many young students fled abroad to escape its cruelty.

INFLUENCE SOMEONE
[B2] [t] to influence someone’s thoughts or actions

Dictionary example:
His life is ruled by the demands of his job.

Learner example:
Our Earth has grown overcrowded and every inch of our life is ruled by computers.

CONTROL
[C1] to be in control of somewhere, usually a country

Dictionary examples:
They were ruled for many years by a dictator.
the ruling party

Learner example:
Cleopatra was the seventh queen of Egypt and ruled until 63 B.C. whe[n] she died.

ruler  /ˈruː.lə/

Word family:
Nouns: rule, ruler, ruling
Verbs: rule

2558
NOUN [C]

LEADER
[C1] the leader of a country

Dictionary example:
He was the ruler of the country for over 20 years.

Learner example:
Versailles in France and the time of Louis XIV as the ruler would be my place and time I would choose to visit.

ruling /ˈruː.lɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: rule, ruler, ruling
Verbs: rule

NOUN [C]
[C2] an official legal decision, usually made by a judge

Dictionary example:
This ruling has delighted road safety campaigners.

Learner example:
As you certainly will remember, the ruling of the High Court obliges you to keep the level of noise below a certain level depending on the distance of the airport.

rumour /ˈruː.mər/run /rʌn/

Word family:

Nouns: run, runner, running

Verbs: run

VERB (running, ran, run)

ORGANIZE

[B1] [ɪ] to organize or control something

Dictionary examples:
She ran her own restaurant for five years.
The social group is run by the residents themselves.

Learner example:
My aunt is always working. She runs her own business.

TRAVEL

[B2] [ɪ] If trains or buses are running, they are available to travel on.

Dictionary examples:
Trains are still running, despite the snow.
A bus runs three times a day into town.
Buses are running an hour late, because of an earlier accident.

Learner example:
There is an easy way to get to the college: a service bus runs every 15 minutes, [and] the journey takes only 20 minutes.

LIQUID

[B2] [ɪ] If liquid runs somewhere, it flows.

Dictionary examples:
Tears ran down her face.
Have you got a tissue? My nose is running.

Learner example:
The warm urine ran through my underwear, [down] my legs and white socks, into my shoes and floated out on the floor.

USE COMPUTER

[B2] [ɪ] If you run a computer program, you use it on your computer.

Dictionary example:
Did you run a virus check this morning?

Learner example:
At this point the computer is unable to run any program.
[C1] [i or r] If a piece of equipment is running, it is switched on and working, and if you run it, you switch it on and make it work.

Dictionary example:
The engine is running more smoothly now.

Learner example:
We could start a campaign where people are reminded not to leave their car, lorry or bus engines running for more than one minute if stationary.

[C1] [r] to publish something in a newspaper or magazine

Dictionary example:
All the papers are running this story on the front page.

Learner example:
If we run a story on "HIV Symptoms" we could have a very successful first issue.

run sth along/over/through, etc. sth
[C2] to move something along, over, or through something else

Dictionary example:
She ran her fingers through her hair.

Learner example:
The manly figure that had tried to stop her now kneeled before her body running his finger through her soft blond hair.

be running at sth
[C2] to be at a particular level

Dictionary example:
Inflation is now running at 5.8%.

Learner example:
According to the official dat[a], unemployment is running at so high a level that it is even possible that the unemployed will rebel against the government.

make your blood run cold
[C2] If something makes your blood run cold, it frightens you very much.

Dictionary example:
I heard a tapping on the window which made my blood run cold.

Learner example:
This thought scared me and made my blood run cold.

run wild
[C2] If someone, especially a child, runs wild, they behave as they want to and no one controls them.
Dictionary example:
Their nine-year-old son is left to run wild.

Learner example:
My parents decided to move to a small village when I was just a kid. Shortly after we settled [in], my parents decided that I was running wild and that it was time for me to receive some sort of education.

run wild
[C2] If someone's imagination runs wild, they are not able to control their thoughts.

Dictionary example:
It was getting dark and my imagination was starting to run wild.

Learner example:
Her imagination started to run wild and she set about think[ing] about the dark corridors, the secret passages and the obscure dungeons that the castle might hide.

run riot
[C2] to behave in a noisy, violent, or wild way without being controlled

Dictionary example:
They allow their kids to run riot.

run the risk of sth
[C2] to do something although something bad might happen because of it

Dictionary example:
I think I'll run the risk of hurting her feelings, and tell her the truth.

Learner example:
They constantly run the risk of losing their physical abilities.

NOUN [C]

MOVE FAST
[B1] when you move on your feet at a speed faster than walking, especially for exercise

Dictionary examples:
We go for/do a three-mile run every evening after work.
If you set off at a run, you'll be exhausted later.

Learner example:
Walking is recognized [as] good exercise, or going for a run.

SPORT
[B2] in cricket or baseball, a single point

Dictionary example:
to score a run
Learner example:
I liked the competition because both the teams played well and they scored good runs in the long run

[B2] at a time that is far away in the future

Dictionary example:
It seems a lot of effort but I'm sure it's the best solution in the long run.

Learner example:
It costs a lot of money, but in the long run, it is worth it.

make a run for it INFORMAL
[C2] to suddenly run fast in order to escape from somewhere

Dictionary example:
When he saw the open door, he made a run for it.

Learner example:
Anna and Tom decided to make a run for it.

a run of sth
[C2] when something happens several times without something different happening during that period

Dictionary examples:
a run of 10 games without a win
a run of good/bad luck

Learner example:
Strange though it may seem, he achieved success in every possible field not owing to a run of good luck, but thanks to his outstanding qualities.

running /ˈrʌn.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: run, runner, running
Verbs: run

NOUN [U]

CONTROL
[C2] the activity of controlling or looking after something

Dictionary examples:
He has recently handed over the day-to-day running of the museum to his daughter.
running costs

Learner example:
Electricity is an essential requirement now in the day-to-day running of businesses and life in general compared to the early nineteenth century.
ADVERB

second/third, etc. day/week, etc. running

[C2] If something happens for the second/third, etc. day/week, etc. running, it happens on that number of regular occasions without changing.

Dictionary example:
He’s won the Championship for the fifth year running.

Learner example:
Fourteen days running of laziness and sleep without tight-scheduled meetings or rush-hour traffic jams lurking.

ADJECTIVE

running water

[C1] If a place has running water, it has a working water system.

Dictionary example:
They bought an old house with no electricity or running water.

Learner example:
It is hilarious to think that at the same time people in [the] north of Europe were still living a primitive and uncivilized life not even able to invent an axe, the Romans managed to install running water in their huge houses.

runway /ˈrʌn.wei/

NOUN [c]

[C1] a large road that aircraft use to land on or to start flying from

Dictionary example:
The runway was covered with snow.

Learner example:
The problem hit the headlines when a small Soviet aircraft missed the runway and touched down on a road exploding in two pieces and damaging many cars and the people sitting inside.

rural /ˈrʊə.rəl/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] relating to the countryside and not to towns

Dictionary example:
The area is still very rural and undeveloped.
Learner example:
I live in a rural area far from any village, town, or city.

rush /rʌʃ/

VERB

HURRY

[B2] [ɪ ortɔ] to hurry or move quickly somewhere, or to make someone or something hurry or move quickly somewhere

Dictionary examples:
We had to rush to catch the bus.
We rushed out into the street to see what all the noise was.
The UN has rushed medical supplies to the disaster area.

Learner example:
I rushed to Tom's house, and when I reached it, he received me with a weird smile on his face.

rush to do sth

[B2] to do something quickly and enthusiastically

Dictionary example:
His friends rushed to congratulate him after the ceremony.

Learner example:
I was very happy and rushed to talk to them.

FORCE ACTION

[C1] [t] to make someone do something more quickly than they want to do it

Dictionary examples:
I refuse to be rushed into making a decision.
Don't try to rush him – he needs time to think about it.

Learner example:
It has always been very busy but these days people seem to have a harder time facing the fact that not everything can be rushed.

NOUN [no plural]

HURRY

[B2] when you have to hurry or move somewhere quickly

Dictionary examples:
Slow down! What's the rush?
Why is it always such a rush to get ready in the mornings?
Everyone seemed to be in a rush.
He was in a rush to get home.
Learner example:
That's because we are always stressed and always in a rush.

ACTIVITY
[C2] a lot of things happening or a lot of people trying to do something

Dictionary example:
There was a mad rush to get tickets for the concert.

Learner example:
She is that sort of a person who prefers to have more time on her hands so as to avoid the last-minute rush.

MOVEMENT
[C2] when something suddenly moves somewhere quickly

Dictionary examples:
a rush of air
She felt a sudden rush of blood to her face.

Learner example:
To conclude, I believe that sports activities, apart from providing us with a sense of freedom and a rush of adrenaline, make us accomplished human beings.

rush hour /ˈrʌʃ.əʊə/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the time when a lot of people are travelling to or from work and so roads and trains are very busy

Dictionary examples:
the morning/evening rush hour
I always try to travel outside the rush hours.

Learner example:
During rush hours, you often see cars lined up with just one person inside, each car polluting the environment.

rusty /ˈrʌs.ti/

ADJECTIVE
METAL
[B2] Rusty metal has rust on its surface.

Dictionary example:
a rusty car/nail
Learner example:
It was very rusty but I repainted it and now it looks like a new bike.

SKILL

[B2] If a skill you had is now rusty, it is no longer good because you have forgotten it.

Dictionary example:
My French is a bit rusty.

Learner example:
However, I am rather "rusty" [at] using the morse code as well as using the codes of communication.

---

rut /rʌt/

NOUN

in a rut

[C2] in a bad situation where you do the same things all the time, or where it is impossible to make progress

Dictionary example:
He seems to be stuck in a rut at the moment.

Learner example:
Financial security, all the, let me call them, background benefits are important, but if you do not love what you do, soon you will become bitter, stuck in a rut or worse – you will suffer from depression.

---

ruthless /ˈruːθ ləs/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not caring if you hurt or upset other people when you try to get what you want

Dictionary examples:
ruthless ambition
a ruthless dictator

Learner example:
As a result, the competition has become ruthless and severe.
sack /sæk/

VERB [v]
[B2] to tell someone to leave their job, usually because they have done something wrong

Dictionary examples:
They sacked her for being late.
He got sacked from his last job.

Learner example:
What's more, I was sacked from my workplace.

NOUN

the sack
[B2] When someone gets the sack or is given the sack, they are told to leave their job.

Dictionary example:
He got the sack from his last job.

Learner example:
My sister was working in a very good company in Rio and she got the sack, so she decided to go to Spain.

BAG
[C1] [c] a large bag made of paper, plastic, or cloth and used to carry or store things

Dictionary example:
sacks of coal

Learner example:
The worst thing was with rubbish which wasn't collected. People in estates, special groups, used big bags and sacks to gather it.
sacred /ˈseɪ.krid/

ADJECTIVE

HOLY

[C1] relating to a religion or considered to be holy

Dictionary examples:
- sacred music
- a sacred object

Learner example:
It is a volcanic island which has been enshrined as a sacred place.

IMPORTANT

[C2] too important to be changed or destroyed

Dictionary example:
I don't work at weekends – my private time is sacred.

Learner example:
The old sweatshop has no appeal, and even many well-paid extra hours are rejected in order to preserve one's most sacred thing: free time.

---

sacrifice /ˈsæk.rɪ.fɑs/

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] something valuable that you give up in order to achieve something or help someone, or the act of giving it up

Dictionary examples:
We had to make sacrifices in order to pay for our children’s education.
They cared for their disabled son for 27 years, at great personal sacrifice.

Learner example:
It's a small sacrifice but I think that it will serve him [well] in the long run.

VERB

[C1] [T] to give up something that is valuable to you in order to achieve something or help someone

Dictionary example:
Many women sacrifice interesting careers for their family.

Learner example:
We are very proud of our low costs […], a pleasing fact primarily based upon a large number of volunteers who sacrifice their spare time in our organisation.
sadden /ˈsæd.n/

Word family:
Nouns: sadness
Verbs: sadden
Adjectives: sad
Adverbs: sadly

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C2] to make someone feel sad or disappointed

Dictionary example:
We were saddened by his death.

Learner example:
They have a right to be consulted about their future: nothing saddens me more than a father sending his son (who dreams about becoming a painter) to the School of Law because that is 'the best for him' or 'that's what I always wanted to do' or, the worst of all, 'you will study such-and-such because I say so!'

saddle /ˈsæd.l/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a leather seat that you put on a horse so that you can ride it

Dictionary example:
Can you help me fasten the saddle?

Learner example:
I didn't like to use a saddle, I just put a sheep skin on the back of my horse and jumped on it.

VERB (also saddle up)
[C2] [n] to put a saddle on a horse

Dictionary example:
We saddled our horses and rode off.

Learner example:
I had to climb to my father's shoulders to see the horses, and then realized that they hadn't been saddled.
sadly /ˈsæd.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: sadness
Verbs: sadden
Adjectives: sad
Adverbs: sadly

ADVERB

NOT HAPPY
[B2] in an unhappy way

Dictionary example:
"He's gone away for six months," she said sadly.

Learner example:
Alice quickly got in the car and waved sadly at her parents while Natalie drove off.

NOT SATISFACTORY
[B2] in a way that is not satisfactory

Dictionary examples:
Sadly, the treatment doesn't work for all patients.
If you think she'll let you do that, you're sadly mistaken.

Learner example:
Some forms of entertainment which were popular decades ago have, sadly, disappeared.

sadness /ˈsæd.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: sadness
Verbs: sadden
Adjectives: sad
Adverbs: sadly

NOUN [U]
[B2] being sad

Dictionary example:
Her sadness at her grandfather's death was obvious.

Learner example:
What can be more real that when your lover is gone or taken away, your own soul is also alone, bitter and dark and there is nothing else than feelings of rev[e]nge, anger, frustration and sadness?
safe /seɪf/

Word family:
Nouns: safety
Adjectives: safe, unsafe
Adverbs: safely

ADJECTIVE

NOT HARMED
[B1] not harmed or damaged

Dictionary example:
She said that all the hostages were safe.

Learner example:
Suddenly I felt something strange near me, I turn[ed] back quickly and two men were there. They showed me their weapons. Then, I woke up safe in my bed.

WITHOUT RISK
[C1] not involving much risk

Dictionary examples:
Salmon is a safe option – most people like it.
He told us that these shares were a safe investment.

Learner example:
On the other hand, I could have chosen to stay in my town and start [at] the University. It would be the recommended and most appropriate choice. I would get my degree and start a normal and safe career.

safe to say
[C1] If it is safe to say something, you are sure it is correct.

Dictionary example:
I think it's safe to say that he'll be the next president.

Learner example:
It is probably safe to say that there are no good books about engineering written in Portuguese so my teachers always use books written in English.

a safe place; somewhere safe
[C1] a place where something will not be lost or stolen

Dictionary example:
It's very valuable so put it somewhere safe.

Learner example:
Don't show off your money but keep it in a safe place.

in safe hands
[C1] being cared for or dealt with by someone skilled
Dictionary example:
The project is in safe hands – Jan has lots of experience.

Learner example:
He has also been trained as a lifeguard so the residents of your hotel would probably be in safe hands.

safe and sound
[C2] completely safe and without injury or damage

Dictionary example:
After three days lost in the mountains, all the climbers arrived home safe and sound.

Learner example:
So, by the time you read this letter I'll probably be safe and sound in Liverpool.

a safe bet
[C2] something that you are certain will happen

Dictionary example:
Wheeler is a safe bet for a place on the team.

Learner example:
Automatically, we think that black is a safe bet for any occasion.

safely /ˈseɪ.fli/

Word family:
Nouns: safety
Adjectives: safe, unsafe
Adverbs: safely

ADVERB
[B1] in a safe way

Dictionary examples:
We all arrived safely.
Drive safely!
Are the children safely fastened into their car seats?
I think we can safely say they won't find us now.

Learner example:
My friend has come back safely and now a new life [starts for him].
safety  /ˈseɪf.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: safety
Adjectives: safe, unsafe
Adverbs: safely

NOUN [u]

BEING SAFE
[B2] the state of being safe, or a place or situation where someone or something is safe

Dictionary examples:
food/road safety
The hostages were led to safety.
For your (comfort and) safety, we recommend you keep your seat belt loosely fastened during the flight.
Journalists may enter the danger zone but unfortunately we cannot guarantee their safety.
As the gunman opened fire, they all ran/dived for safety behind trees.
Police are concerned for the safety of the five–year–old.
He was led to a place of safety.

Learner example:
In my opinion, using a centre for shopping is a better idea because we [are safer there] and nowadays safety is important for many reasons.

HOW SAFE
[C1] how safe something is

Dictionary example:
Safety at the factory has been improved.

Learner example:
Safety regulations: Ten years ago, regulations on working did not exist.

sail  /seɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: sailing, sailor
Verbs: sail

VERB

CONTROL BOAT
[B1] [i or ɪ] to control a boat that has no engine and is pushed by the wind
Dictionary examples:
He sailed the dinghy up the river.
She sailed around the world single-handed in her yacht.

Learner example:
First of all, we are going to the beach where some sail[o]rs are going to teach us how to sail.

TRAVEL ON BOAT
[B1] [i] to travel somewhere on a boat or a ship

Dictionary example:
We sailed to New York.

Learner example:
You know, I've got a boat and if you want, we will be able to spend five days on it. We will sail to the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Sark...) .

MOVE ON WATER
[B2] [i] When a boat or a ship sails, it travels on the water.

Dictionary examples:
The ship was sailing to China.
The boat sailed along/down the coast.
As the battleship sailed by/past, everyone on deck waved.

Learner example:
I started the film and we could all see a ship sailing towards the camera.

NOUN

MATERIAL
[C2] [c] a large piece of material that is fixed to a pole on a boat to catch the wind and make the boat move

Dictionary example:
Our boat has a yellow sail.

Learner example:
Surrounded by swooping birds and the distant moos of the cows, the billowing sails would sen[d] us off with the wind.

set sail
[C2] to start a journey by boat or ship

Dictionary example:
We set sail for home the next day.

Learner example:
What made things turn from grey to black was that soon after my return I was invited to set sail to the Spanish islands.
sailor /ˈseɪ.lə/
Word family:
Nouns: sailing, sailor
Verbs: sail

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who sails ships or boats as their job or as a sport

Dictionary example:
Over 100 sailors took part in the race.

Learner example:
He is a sailor.

saint /seɪnt/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a dead person who has been officially respected by the Christian church for living their life in a holy way

Dictionary example:
Catherine of Siena was made a saint in 1461.

Learner example:
They were originally a mixture of a pagan and a religious feast related to [the] worshipping of two saints: St Antony in Lisbon and St. John in Porto.

sake /seɪk/

NOUN
for the sake of sb/sth; for sb’s/sth’s sake [B2] in order to help or bring advantage to someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Please do it, for David's sake.
Their parents only stayed together for the sake of the children.
I hope for both our sakes that you're right!
You should act on his advice, for your own sake.
For the sake of convenience, they combined the two departments.
For safety's sake, you shouldn't swim alone.

Learner example:
You should let your hair down once in a while, for your own sake, and for the sake of your family.
salary /ˈsæləri/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a fixed amount of money that you receive from your employer, usually every month

Dictionary examples:
an annual salary of £20 000
His net monthly salary is £1500.
She's on quite a good/decent salary in her present job.
He took a drop in salary when he changed jobs.
a 10% salary increase

Learner example:
I was on the beach when my mobile phone rang. It was my boss [who] said "I’m in Australia, and I can't read my e-mail, the server at work crashed. Please repair it today and I will double your salary."

sale /seɪl/

NOUN

on sale
[B1] available to buy in a shop, on the Internet, etc.

Dictionary example:
The video and book are now on sale.

Learner example:
I went window shopping with my friends yesterday and I saw this beautiful skirt on sale.

SELL
[B2] [C or U] the act of selling something, or the time when something is sold

Dictionary examples:
The sale of alcohol is now banned.
The building company gets 10% commission on each house sale.
I haven't made a sale all morning.

Learner example:
We had arranged to meet him at the Ritz restaurant in order to deal [with] the sale of some products.

sales
[B2] the number of items sold

Dictionary example:
Our sales have doubled this year.
Learner example:
You should know that they are getting a marked increase in sales.

salesman /ˈseɪlz.mən/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL salesmen)
[B1] someone whose job is selling things

Dictionary example:
I asked the salesman for advice.

Learner example:
Sad to say, I have not applied for it again but I did apply for another job as a salesman.

saleswoman /ˈseɪlzˌwʊm.ən/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL saleswomen)
[B1] someone whose job is selling things

Dictionary example:
The saleswoman showed me the car.

Learner example:
Many years ago, when I was seventeen, I was working as a saleswoman [for] a print[er].

salmon /ˈsæm.ən/ (PLURAL salmon)

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a large, silver fish, or the pink meat of this fish

Dictionary examples:
fresh/smoked/tinned salmon salmon fishing

Learner example:
My favo[u]rite restaurant is Pampa Grill. My favo[u]rite food [there] is the salmon, it's delicious.

salon /ˈsæ.lɒn/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a place where women have their hair cut and put in a style
Dictionary example:
My hairdresser opened her own salon.

Learner example:
I had an appointment at my hairdresser's and late as usual I parked outside the salon on a narrow dead-end-street where it was forbidden to park.

---

salty /ˈsɔːl.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: salt
Adjectives: salty

ADJECTIVE
[B2] tasting of or containing salt

Dictionary example:
Is the soup too salty?

Learner example:
On the other hand, [the] Western one gave [good] service but [the] food was oily and salty.

---

same /sɛm/

ADJECTIVE

at the same time
[B1] If two things happen or are true at the same time, they happen or are true together.

Dictionary example:
We arrived at the same time.

Learner example:
The kind of clothes I most like [are] casual but fashionable at the same time.

the same old arguments/face/story, etc.
[C1] INFORMAL something or someone you have seen or heard many times before

Dictionary examples:
Every day I see the same old faces.
Politicians repeat the same old arguments time and time again.

Learner example:
I think that it is the same old story with media all over the world that they tend to present the news in [an] exaggerated manner.
in the same way
[C1] similarly

Dictionary example:
In the same way, there are many citizens who feel unprotected by the police.

Learner example:
In the same way, grandmothers may be shocked when seeing their little children wearing extravagant clothes or really short skirts.

be in the same boat
[C2] to be in the same unpleasant situation as other people

Dictionary example:
She complains that she doesn’t have enough money, but we’re all in the same boat.

Learner example:
Unemployment and its consequences is still a major problem. Now we are in the same boat.

PRONOUN

the same
[B1] not another different thing or situation

Dictionary examples:
I’m hopeless at physics, and it’s the same with chemistry – I get it all wrong. I’d do the same if I was in your situation.

Learner example:
I will write [to] you again soon and I hope you will do the same.

the same
[B2] not changed

Dictionary examples:
After all these years you look exactly the same – you haven’t changed a bit. Charles is just the same as always.

Learner example:
Prices are the same as in the golden days, but the atmosphere is friendlier and the linen-draped white tables look inviting.

all/just the same
[C1] despite what has just been said

Dictionary example:
He doesn’t earn much. All the same, he ought to pay for some of his own drinks.

Learner example:
I’m afraid 300 parking spaces will not suffice. All the same, I would recommend parking in the city centre, for commercial reasons.
ADVERB

the same
[B2] in the same way

Dictionary examples:
We treat all our children the same.
I need some time to myself, the same as anybody else.

sample  /ˈsaːm.pl/

NOUN [C]

PART OF GROUP
[B2] a small number of people from a larger group that is being tested or considered

Dictionary examples:
a random sample of voters a nationally representative sample of 200 schools

Learner example:
This report is based on a sample of over 50 students.

SMALL AMOUNT
[B2] a small amount of something that shows you what it is like

Dictionary examples:
a free sample of chocolate
She brought in some samples of her work.
samples of carpet/curtain material

EXAMINE
[C2] a small amount of a substance that a doctor or scientist collects in order to examine it

Dictionary example:
a blood/urine sample

Learner example:
He had taken blood samples, listened to her lungs and heart but nothing seemed to be wrong with her apart from the fact that she couldn’t move her legs.

VERB [T]

EXPERIENCE
[C2] to experience a place or an activity, often for the first time
Dictionary example:
an opportunity to sample the local night life

Learner example:
Having said that, the recent recession in Japan ha[s] caused a drop in prices and I consider this is the best time to set up a new program to send students to Japan to allow them [to] sample the culture and brush up their language ability.

sanction /ˈsæŋk.ʃən/

NOUN
[C2] [c] a punishment for not obeying a rule or a law

Dictionary example:
economic/trade sanctions against a country

Learner example:
The war effort and the US sanctions have led the economy to distress too.

sand /sænd/

Word family:
Nouns: sand
Adjectives: sandy

NOUN [u]
[B1] a substance that is found on beaches and in deserts, which is made from very small grains of rock

Dictionary examples:
a grain of sand
The children played all day in/on the sand.
coarse/fine sand

Learner example:
We got to a beautiful beach. The sand looked like gold.

sandal /ˈsæn.dəl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a light shoe with straps that you wear in warm weather

Dictionary example:
a pair of sandals
Learner example:
In summer, I wear skirts and sandals.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>sandy</th>
<th>/ˈsænd.i/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: sand</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: sandy</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[B1] covered with or containing sand

Dictionary example:
- a sandy beach

Learner example:
We have no mountains in Lithuania, but we have sandy beaches at [the] seaside.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>sane</th>
<th>/sɛn/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: insane, sane</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[C2] not suffering from mental illness

Dictionary example:
- Psychiatrists pronounced her sane.

Learner example:
On these occasions I would yell at him for no reason at all and my family started wondering whether I was completely sane.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>sarcastic</th>
<th>/saˈkæstɪk/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ADJECTIVE</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C2] using sarcasm</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
- a sarcastic comment/remark
- Are you being sarcastic?

Learner example:
I want to learn how to be more assertive, find emotional independence, fulfil my dreams, be more tolerant, less sarcastic and, most importantly be given the precious gift of patience.
satellite /ˈsæt.əˌlaɪt/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a piece of equipment that is sent into space around the Earth to receive and send signals or to collect information

Dictionary examples:
The World Cup was transmitted around the world by satellite.
satellite television/TV a TV/weather satellite

Learner example:
To balance this, technology has developed a lot in the last decades and now people can have wild animal[s] inside their homes, [even though] they may be locked up on a CD-Rom or coming in a wave format through the satellite dish.

---

satisfaction /ˌsæt.ɪsˈfæk.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

NOUN [U]

FEELING
[B2] a pleasant feeling which you get when you receive something you wanted, or when you have done something you wanted to do

Dictionary examples:
She looked at the finished painting with satisfaction.
She got/obtained great satisfaction from/out of helping other people.
For me, job satisfaction is more important than the money.
She had the satisfaction of knowing that she'd done everything she could.

Learner example:
Whatever it is, it must give us satisfaction.

to sb's satisfaction
[C2] as well as someone wants

Dictionary example:
He won't get paid until he completes the job to my satisfaction.

Learner example:
Should this matter not be solved to my satisfaction, I will have no choice but to place it in the hands of my solicitor.
satisfactorily /ˌsæt.ɪsˈfæk.təˈl.i/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

ADVERB
[C1] in a satisfactory way

Dictionary example:
I'm sure these problems can be satisfactorily resolved.

Learner example:
The main problem is finding the most accurate meaning of some words, phrasal verbs, idioms etc. Dictionaries can do the job satisfactorily but the problem inside is left unsolved.

satisfactory /ˌsæt.ɪsˈfæk.təˈr.i/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

ADJECTIVE
[B2] good enough

Dictionary examples:
We hope very much to find a satisfactory solution to the problem.
The teachers seem to think his work is satisfactory.

Learner example:
The service is satisfactory.

satisfied /ˈsæt.ɪs.fəd/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

2585
Pleased

[B1] pleased because you have got what you wanted, or because something has happened in the way that you wanted

Dictionary examples:
Some people are never satisfied!
a satisfied smile
Are you satisfied with the new arrangement?

Learner example:
I must say that I'm very satisfied with [the club].

Be satisfied that

[C1] If you are satisfied that something is true, you believe it.

Dictionary example:
The judge was satisfied that she was telling the truth.

Learner example:
I suppose that is only because they are satisfied that other nations than the British can strike.

Satisfy /ˈsæt.ɪs.fai/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

Verb [T]

Please

[B2] to please someone by giving them what they want or need

Dictionary examples:
They have 31 flavours of ice-cream – enough to satisfy everyone!
Come on, satisfy my curiosity, what happened last night?

Learner example:
But how can anyone satisfy a wealthy woman like her without giving her an expensive present?

Satisfy conditions/needs/requirements, etc.

[C1] to have or provide something that is needed or wanted

Dictionary example:
She satisfies all the requirements for the job.
Learner example:
In general, the conference satisfied my needs.

saucepan /ˈsɔː.spən/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a deep, metal pan, usually with a long handle and a lid, that is used to cook food in

Dictionary example:
Put the potatoes in a saucepan of boiling water.

Learner example:
The waiters are very polite and the food is so good, specially the fish. You can see the [chef] with his saucepan, it's very funny!

saucer /ˌsɔː.ˈseər/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a small plate that you put under a cup

Dictionary examples:
a cup and saucer
She gave the cat a saucer of milk.

save /seɪv/

Word family:

Nouns: savings, saving
Verbs: save

VERB

NOT WASTE

[B1] [ɪ] to prevent time, money or effort being wasted or spent

Dictionary examples:
You'll save time if you take the car.
Thanks for your help - it saved me a lot of work.

Learner example:
More and more people choose to travel by car, because it saves a lot of time compared to travelling by public transport.
MAKE SAFE
[B1] [ɪ] to stop someone or something from being killed, injured or destroyed

Dictionary examples:
Wearing seat belts has saved many lives.
He fell in the river but his friend saved him from drowning.
He had to borrow money to save his business.
He was desperately trying to save their failing marriage.
We all need to do our bit to save the planet.

Learner example:
We watched a movie called "Men in Black II" and it was about two guys that save the world from alien attacks.

save a goal
[B2] to prevent a player from scoring a goal

Dictionary example:
He saved two goals in the last minute of the game.

save sb (from) doing sth
[C1] to help someone avoid having to do something

Dictionary example:
We'll eat in a restaurant – it'll save you having to cook.

Learner example:
Building a new supermarket along with a multi-storey car park will save city dwellers from having to travel to the suburbs to buy what they need.

saving /ˈseɪ.vɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: savings, saving
Verbs: save

NOUN [C]

LESS MONEY
[C1] when you use or spend less money than you would usually have to

Dictionary example:
a saving of £20.

Learner example:
I know that it sounds as if the company had to spend a lot of money on retraining, but in the long term this will be a saving.
savings /ˈseɪ.vɪŋz/

Word family:
Nouns: savings, saving
Verbs: save

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B2] the money which you keep in an account in a bank or similar financial organization

Dictionary example:
He spent all his savings on an expensive car.

Learner example:
I also spent all my savings [o]n executive-looking clothes.

say /sei/

VERB [r] (said, said)

TELL
[B1] to tell someone about a fact, thought, or opinion

Dictionary examples:
Did she say where she was going?
Officials refused to say what had happened.
What did they say about the house?
The doctors say (that) it will take him a few weeks to recover.
She didn't say whether she was coming or not.
"Who do you think will get the job?" "I'd rather not say."
What are you saying, exactly?

Learner example:
Dear Mary, You asked me in your last letter about my bedroom. There aren't a lot of things to say about it, it is quite small but nice.

GIVE INFORMATION
[B1] to give information in writing, numbers or signs

Dictionary examples:
My watch says 3 o'clock.
Can you read what that notice says?
It says in the paper (that) they've found the man who did it.
It says on the bottle to take three tablets a day.

Learner example:
Well yesterday I was reading a new fashion magazine. It says that this summer the best clothes to wear are skirts with different colours!
THINK

[B1] to think or believe

Dictionary examples:
People/They say (that) he's over 100.
"It's going to be a very hot summer." "So they say."
She is a firm leader, too firm, some might say.

Learner example:
People say that it never rains here.

be said to be

[B2] used to show that many people believe something about something

Dictionary example:
Drinking plenty of water is said to be good for your skin.

Learner example:
On our way around the lake we would have [the] possibility of visiting a huge medieval castle which is said to be haunted.

it goes without saying

[B2] If something goes without saying, it is obvious or generally accepted.

Dictionary example:
It goes without saying that smoking is harmful to your health.

Learner example:
It goes without saying that I will participate!

say sth to yourself

[C1] to think something but not speak

Dictionary example:
"I hope she likes me," he said to himself.

Learner example:
I remember saying to myself that "this little boy will survive" and after that I felt totally cool and calm and did what had to be done.

easier said than done

[C1] used to say that something seems like a good idea but it would be difficult to do

Dictionary example:
I want to ask her out, but it's easier said than done.

Learner example:
I know it's easier said than done but you have to try.

to say the least

[C1] used to emphasize that you could have said something in a much stronger way
Dictionary example:
We were surprised, to say the least.

Learner example:
You get slightly bored, to say the least.

needless to say
[C1] as you would expect

Dictionary example:
Needless to say, it rained the whole time we were there.

Learner example:
Needless to say, bribes are a frequent occurrence.

safe to say
[C1] If it is safe to say something, you are sure it is correct.

Dictionary example:
I think it's safe to say that he'll be the next president.

Learner example:
It is probably safe to say that there are no good books about engineering written in Portuguese so my teachers always use books written in English.

I dare say
[C2] (also I daresay) used when you think that something is probably true or will probably happen

Dictionary example:
I dare say she'll change her mind.

Learner example:
Invent machines that are beneficial, not harmful, and I dare say life will only get better.

to say nothing of sth
[C2] used to emphasize other problems you have not talked about

Dictionary example:
Most wild otters have disappeared from populated areas, to say nothing of wilderness areas.

Learner example:
Indeed would not it be an oversimplification to make one's judgement of the country's national character on the grounds of the amount and the quality of food people eat, to say nothing of the fact that this judgement is usually highly subjective?

saying /ˈseɪ.ɪŋ/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a famous phrase that people use to give advice about life
Dictionary example:
Have you heard the saying "Don't count your chickens before they're hatched"?

Learner example:
But as the saying goes "Time flies when you are having fun".

scale /skeɪl/

NOUN

SIZE

[B2] [NO PLURAL] the size or level of something

Dictionary examples:
We don't yet know the scale of the problem.
Nuclear weapons cause destruction on a massive scale.
My parents used to entertain friends on a large/small scale.

Learner example:
He leads an evil trade: they [carry out] smuggling on a grand scale and use the inn as a store.

MEASURE

[B2] [C] a set of numbers, amounts etc., used to measure or compare the level of something

Dictionary examples:
the Centigrade/Fahrenheit scale
How would you rate his work on a scale of 1 to 5?

Learner example:
In brief, I think it would be a very good idea to create a new scale of [salaries] based on our needs, in which doctors would be [higher] than professional footballers.

COMPARISON

[B2] [C or U] how the size of things on a map, model, etc. relates to the same things in real life

Dictionary examples:
a scale of 1:50 000
This map is large scale.
Is the bridge drawn to scale?
He was building a scale model of Concorde.

Learner example:
My friend gave me a 1/72 scale kit of "Supermarine Spitfire" for my birthday.

scales

[B2] a piece of equipment for measuring weight scan /sˈkæn/

VERB [T] (scanning, scanned)

COMPUTER
[C1] to use a piece of equipment that copies words or pictures from paper into a computer

Dictionary example:
to scan photos into a computer

Learner example:
Instead of drawing some of our customers document[s] we will just scan them.

READ
[C1] (also scan through) to quickly read a piece of writing to understand the main meaning or to find a particular piece of information

Dictionary example:
I scanned the travel brochures looking for a cheap holiday.

Learner example:
So, I suggest that you buy a newspaper called "The Loot", sit down with a strong cup of coffee and scan it.

LOOK
[C2] to look around an area quickly to try to find a person or thing

Dictionary example:
She scanned the crowd for a familiar face.

Learner example:
She looked at Lisa: her restless eyes were scanning the room while her thin fingers were tapping on the table.

NOUN [C]
[C2] a medical examination in which an image of the inside of the body is made using a special machine

Dictionary example:
a brain scan

Learner example:
John went with Sophie for a scan, John was hoping for a boy and Sophie for a girl.
scandal /ˈskæn.dəl/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] something that shocks people because they think it is morally wrong

Dictionary examples:
a financial/political scandal
Their affair caused/created a scandal in the office.
If there is the slightest suggestion/hint of scandal, the public will no longer trust us.
It's a scandal (that) children could be treated in this way.

Learner example:
Among them are the increasingly popular reality shows and all the daily news about gossip and scandal.

scar /skɑːr/

NOUN [C]

ON SKIN
[B2] a permanent mark left on the body from a cut or other injury

Dictionary examples:
an ugly scar
That burn will leave a nasty scar.

Learner example:
David is a tall man with black curly hair, black eyes, a big nose, [a] beard and a scar on his neck.

MIND
[C1] damage done to a person’s mind by a very unpleasant event or situation

Dictionary example:
a psychological scar

Learner example:
A person who [has been] affluent since childhood might be said to not have the emotional scars of experiencing poverty during childhood and might be able to look at the world, and to the life as an adult, in a positive and constructive way.

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[C2] to cause a scar

Dictionary example:
He was scarred for life by the accident.
scarce  /ˈskɛəs/

Word family:
Nouns: scarcity
Adjectives: scarce
Adverbs: scarcely

ADJECTIVE
[C1] rare or not available in large amounts

Dictionary example:
scarce resources

Learner example:
In the context of Singapore, where land is scarce and widening or building of more roads is just not feasible, we have no choice but to choose what is best for everyone.

scarcely  /ˈskeəs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: scarcity
Adjectives: scarce
Adverbs: scarcely

ADVERB
[C2] only just

Dictionary example:
They had scarcely finished eating when the doorbell rang.

Learner example:
Scarcely had the ferry reached the shore than the heavy storm abated.

scarcity  /ˈskeə.sə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: scarcity
Adjectives: scarce
Adverbs: scarcely

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when there is not enough of something

Dictionary example:
a scarcity of food/affordable housing

2595
Learner example:
With [a] scarcity of supplies and long training hours, wealthy children will then learn not to take things for granted.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>scare</th>
<th>/skeər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>scare</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>scared, scary</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VERB

FRIGHTEN

[C1] to frighten a person or animal

Dictionary example:
Sudden, loud noises scare me.

Learner example:
You may think that Universal Video has gone mad: re-editing those old-fashioned horror movies that couldn't even scare your 6-year-old sister!

scare the hell/life/living daylights, etc. out of sb

INFORMAL

[C2] to make someone feel very frightened

Dictionary example:
You scared the life out of me, creeping up on me like that!

Learner example:
Such gory details scared the living daylights out of each parent in town and, soon after the second dead girl was found, [one] Mary Joe Chavez, supposedly another high-school genius, a [state of] emergency was proclaimed and a thorough investigation followed, proving to be in vain, despite all the effort put into it.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>scared</th>
<th>/skeəd/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>scare</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:</td>
<td>scared, scary</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[B1] frightened or worried
Dictionary examples:
He's scared of spiders.
He's scared to tell her what really happened.
I was scared (that) you might not be there.
I was scared stiff.
She had a scared look on her face.

Learner example:
When I came for [the] first time to my new English class I was a little bit scared.

scary /ˈskeə.ri/

Word family:
Verbs: scare
Adjectives: scared, scary

ADJECTIVE

[B1] INFORMAL frightening

Dictionary example:
a scary movie/story

Learner example:
It was quite exciting but a little scary.

scattered /ˈskæt.əd/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] covering a wide area

Dictionary examples:
His toys were scattered all over the floor.
There will be scattered showers today.

Learner example:
Nowadays, families are scattered in all the parts of world, for example, my husband's family is in Australia; so our wedding provided me a chance to spend time with his family and learn about their family traditions, scenario /sɪˈnɑː.ri.əʊ/ (PLURAL scenarios)

NOUN [C]

[C2] a description of a situation, or of a situation that may develop in the future
Dictionary examples:
There are several possible scenarios.
a horrific/nightmare scenario such as a Third World War

Learner example:
This is a common scenario in developed countries, but third world countries have to deal with another type of homeless person.

scene /siːn/

Word family:
Nouns: scene, scenery
Adjectives: scenic

NOUN

FILM/BOOK, ETC.
[B1] [c] a short part of a film, play, or book in which the events happen in one place

Dictionary examples:
the funeral/wedding scene
Juliet dies in Act IV, Scene iii.

Learner example:
If you haven't seen any of these three "Star Wars" movies, I suggest you do see them tonight or tomorrow. They are great, with a lot of action scenes.

VIEW
[B2] [c] a view or picture of a place, event, or activity

Dictionary examples:
Lowry painted street scenes.
scenes of everyday life
There were scenes of great joy as the hostages were re-united with their families.

Learner example:
I like especially the scene of the garden with snow in winter.

PLACE
[B2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] a place where an unpleasant event has happened

Dictionary examples:
The police arrived to find a scene of horrifying destruction.
Evidence was found at the scene of the crime.

Learner example:
She managed to recreate the scene of the crime, saying that she had swallowed a fish bone.

the club/gay/music, etc. scene
[B2] all the things connected with a particular way of life or activity
Dictionary example:
She's well known on the jazz scene.

Learner example:
Both of them are about the gay and lesbian scene.

ARGUMENT

[C2] [c] when people have a loud argument or show strong emotions in a public place

Dictionary example:
She made a scene when I told her she couldn't come with us.

Learner example:
She didn't cry, she didn't scream, she didn't make a scene.

behind the scenes

[C2] If something happens behind the scenes, it happens secretly.

Dictionary example:
A lot of hard work has been going on behind the scenes.

Learner example:
Ms. Bolam knew a lot of things going on behind the scenes, [which were] not [known to] the patients.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>scenery</th>
<th>ˈsiː.nr.i/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: scene, scenery
Adjectives: scenic

NOUN [u]

[B1] the attractive, natural things that you see in the countryside

Dictionary examples:
beautiful/breathtaking/spectacular scenery
They stopped at the top of the hill to admire the scenery.

Learner example:
If I were you, I'd go [to] the countryside because it's peaceful, quiet, and the scenery is wonderful.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>scenic</th>
<th>ˈsiː.nɪk/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: scene, scenery
Adjectives: scenic
ADJECTIVE

[C1] having views of the attractive, natural things in the countryside

Dictionary examples:
a scenic route
an area of great scenic beauty

Learner example:
France is an area of great scenic beauty, famous for its excellent cooking and wine.

---

scent /sent/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a pleasant smell

Dictionary example:
the sweet scent of orange blossom

Learner example:
Flowers are in bloom and their scent triggers my romantic mood.

---

sceptical /ˈskeptɪk.əl/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] doubting that something is true or useful

Dictionary examples:
Scientists remain sceptical about astrology.
She was sceptical of the new arrangement.

Learner example:
Such cases make us rather sceptical about authors of various theories concerning nutrition.

---

schedule /ˈʃed.juːl/

Word family:

Nouns: schedule
Verbs: schedule
Adjectives: scheduled

NOUN [C]

[B2] a plan that gives events or activities and the times that they will happen or be done
Dictionary examples:
I have a very busy schedule today.
Will the work be completed on schedule?
Everything went according to schedule.

Learner example:
Firstly, the programme began exactly on schedule and the first group were KING CUP, not TORRENTS.

VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]
[B2] to arrange that an event or activity will happen at a particular time

Dictionary examples:
The meeting has been scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.
The train is scheduled to arrive at 8.45, but it's running twenty minutes late.

Learner example:
My flight is scheduled to arrive at the airport at 10 o'clock in the morning.

scheduled ˈʃed.juːld/

Word family:
Nouns: schedule
Verbs: schedule
Adjectives: scheduled

ADJECTIVE

PLANNED
[B2] planned to happen at a particular time or on a particular date

Dictionary example:
This programme will be broadcast half an hour later than the scheduled time.

Learner example:
The scheduled time for the arrival is 5.15 pm.

FLIGHT
[B2] travelling at a regular time each day or week

Dictionary example:
a scheduled flight

scheme /skiːm/

NOUN [C]
[B2] an official plan or system
Dictionary examples:
a training/housing/play scheme
a pension/savings scheme
There's a new scheme in our town for recycling plastic bottles. Class sizes will increase under the new scheme.

Learner example:
I reject any other possibilities like building a tunnel or a by-Pass, because compared to the Park and Ride scheme, they would be much too expensive.

scholar /ˈskɔːlər/

Word family:
Nouns: scholar, scholarship

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone who has studied a subject and knows a lot about it

Dictionary examples:
a classics/history scholar
Dr Miles was a distinguished scholar of Russian history.

Learner example:
In the old days a scholar could spend years of his life in search of specific information, which now can be easily and inexpensively found at the click of a button!

scholarship /ˈskɔːləʃɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: scholar, scholarship

NOUN
[C1] [c] an amount of money given to a person by an organization to pay for their education, usually at a college or university

Dictionary example:
She got a scholarship to the college.

Learner example:
In addition, is there any scholarship or financial support provided for students to apply [for]?

schooling /ˈskuː.lɪŋ/
NOUN [u]

[C2] education at school

Dictionary example:
Jack didn't receive much formal schooling.

Learner example:
Throughout my schooling I felt that school was a chore, a necessary evil, if you will.

---

science /ˈsaɪənts/

Word family:
Nouns: science, scientist
Adjectives: scientific
Adverbs: scientifically

---

NOUN

TYPE

[B1] [c or u] a particular type of science

Dictionary examples:
computer science
Chemistry, physics, and biology are all sciences.
advances in medical science

Learner example:
In my class, there were 15 girls and 15 boys, who were studying computer science with me, so I knew everybody.

---

science fiction /ˌsaɪəntzˈfɪk.ʃən/

NOUN [u]

[B1] stories about life in the future or in other parts of the universe

Dictionary example:
She is a well-known science fiction writer.

Learner example:
Also, I like to watch fantasy and science fiction films.
scientific /ˌsaɪənˈtɪf.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: science, scientist
Adjectives: scientific
Adverbs: scientifically

ADJECTIVE
[B1] relating to science, or using the organized methods of science

Dictionary examples:
a scientific discovery/experiment/theory scientific evidence/research
The project has attracted considerable criticism from the scientific community.

Learner example:
I like programmes about sport and scientific discover[ie]s.

scientifically /ˌsaɪənˈtɪf.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: science, scientist
Adjectives: scientific
Adverbs: scientifically

ADVERB
[B2] using scientific methods

Dictionary example:
scientifically proven

Learner example:
It is scientifically pro[v]en and well–known that the gas [releas]ed by cars is toxic and quite dangerous to the environment – specially to the ozone layer.

scientist /ˈsaɪən.tɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: science, scientist
Adjectives: scientific
Adverbs: scientifically

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who studies science or works in science

Dictionary example:
Scientists are working to create a vaccine for the disease.
Learner example:
NASA admitted yesterday they will send a group of highly trained scientists to Mars in the next two years.

scope /skəʊp/

NOUN [u]

AMOUNT
[C1] how much a subject or situation relates to

Dictionary example:
Do we know the full scope of the problem yet?

Learner example:
The scope of this article exceeds the problem of the abuse of females.

OPPORTUNITY
[C2] the opportunity to do something

Dictionary example:
There is plenty of scope for improvement.

Learner example:
Some people argue that living longer gives them plenty of scope to do things they have always wanted to do but could not find the time for.

score /skɔːr/

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to get points in a game or test

Dictionary examples:
He scored just before half-time to put Liverpool 2–1 ahead.
In American football, a touchdown scores six points.
She scored 18 out of 20 in the spelling test.

Learner example:
I almost scored an own goal.

NOUN [c]
[B1] the number of points someone gets in a game or test
Dictionary examples:

a high/low score
What’s the score?
At half time, the score stood at two all.
The final score was 3-0.

Learner example:
We took 4 or 5 exams that day and my friend, Erick and I studied all night to get the best scores.

scramble /ˈskræm.bl/

VERB

scramble down/out/up, etc.
[C2] to move or climb quickly but with difficulty, often using your hands

Dictionary example:
We scrambled up the hill.

Learner example:
Piggy and [an]other few boys scramble up to the Castle Rock because Piggy wants to have his glasses back.

scrap /skræp/

NOUN

SMALL PIECE

[C2] [c] a small piece or amount of something

Dictionary examples:
He wrote his phone number on a scrap of paper.
I’ve read every scrap of information I can find on the subject.
They couldn’t find a scrap of evidence against him so he was released without charge.

Learner example:
A group of well-educated boys becomes a savage tri[b]e, killing human beings without a scrap of remorse.

OLD

[C2] [u] old cars and machines that are not now needed but have parts which can be used to make other things

Dictionary examples:
scrap metal
The car was so badly damaged we could only sell it as scrap.
Learner example:
The last place I would visit was an isolated building, where some lean mongrel dogs were gnawing on rusty bones, while sniffing round the piles of scrap iron the left side of the building was thick with.

VERB [I] (scrapping, scrapped)
[C2] INFORMAL to not continue with a plan or idea

Dictionary example:
That project has now been scrapped.

Learner example:
We therefore propose you scrap your plans for Terminal 5 and instead try to reduce the number of incoming and outgoing flights, by diverting some planes to Luton or Stansted or Gatwick Airport.

scratch /ˈskrætʃ/

VERB

RUB SKIN

[B2] [I or T] to rub your skin with your nails, often to stop it itching

Dictionary examples:
My skin was so itchy, I was scratching all night.
He was scratching (at) his mosquito bites.
Hannah scratched her head thoughtfully.

HURT/DAMAGE

[B2] [T] to make a slight cut or long, thin mark with a sharp object on a surface or on your skin

Dictionary examples:
I scratched myself on the roses.
We scratched the paintwork trying to get the bed into Martha’s room.
People have been scratching their names on this rock for years.

Learner example:
How can this ridiculous man accuse me of scratching his new car, thought Laura.

RUB SURFACE

[B2] [I] to rub a hard surface with a sharp object, often making a noise

Dictionary example:
The dog’s scratching at the door – he wants to be let in.

Learner example:
Something scratched at the door.

2607
NOUN [c]
[B2] a slight cut or a long, thin mark made with a sharp object

Dictionary example:
I've got all these scratches on my arm from the cat.

Learner example:
I should like to join one of those courses to become more 'professional' in how to repair a scratch on the side [of the boat] or a hole in the sail.

from scratch
[C1] If you do something from scratch, you do it from the beginning.

Dictionary example:
We didn't have any furniture of our own so we had to start from scratch.

Learner example:
That means you don't have to start from scratch with your teacher.

not be/come up to scratch INFORMAL [C2] to not be good enough

Dictionary examples:
She told me my work wasn't up to scratch.
The department has put a procedure in place for staff who don't come up to scratch.

Learner example:
The size of the rooms and their state as well were not really up to scratch.

scream /skrɪːm/

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to make a loud, high noise with your voice, or to shout something in a loud, high voice because you are afraid, hurt, or angry

Dictionary examples:
A spider landed on her pillow and she screamed.
Through the smoke, the rescuers could hear people screaming for help.
He was screaming in/with pain and begging for anaesthetic.
They screamed with laughter at her jokes.
Ken screamed (out) a warning telling people to get out of the way.
I've never found screaming at my staff to be very effective.
"I wish you were dead!" she screamed.

Learner example:
I opened the door and screamed – in front of me was a man standing with [his] hands covered in blood.
NOUN [c]
[B1] when someone screams

Dictionary example:
We heard screams coming from their apartment.

Learner example:
Last night, I was cooking and dad was watching tv when, suddenly I heard a scream.

script /ˈskrɪpt/

NOUN

WORDS
[B2] [c] the words written for and spoken in a film, play, broadcast or speech

Dictionary example:
Bruce Robinson wrote the script for 'The Killing Fields'.

Learner example:
I didn't get involved that much in writing a script because it was very hard and the director wrote most of it but the main idea of the background of the stage was mine, and I am very proud of it.

LETTERS
[C2] [c or u] a set of letters used for writing a particular language

Dictionary example:
Arabic/Roman script

scroll /ˈskrɔːl/

VERB

scroll up/down/through, etc.
[C2] to move text or an image on a computer screen so that you can look at the part that you want

Dictionary example:
Scroll down to the bottom of the document.

scruffy /ˈskrʌf.i/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] dirty and untidy
Dictionary examples:
scruffy jeans
I don't like to look scruffy.

Learner example:
For example, if it is particularly trendy for kids to wear scruffy bomber jackets and faded jeans there is no point in compelling them to dress our conventional way.

scrutiny /ˈskruː.tɪn.i/

NOUN [u]
[C2] when you examine something carefully

Dictionary example:
Every aspect of her life came under public scrutiny.

Learner example:
Everything is placed under careful scrutiny.

sculpture /ˈskʌlp.tʃər/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a piece of art that is made from stone, wood, clay, etc., or the process of making objects like this

Dictionary examples:
a wooden sculpture
modern sculpture
Tom teaches sculpture at the local art school.
The museum has several life-sized sculptures of people and animals.

Learner example:
But if you have time, you must visit some cities, like Rome or Florence, because there are many historical buildings and museums, with the most important sculptures and pictures [by] famous artist[s] like Michelangelo or Raffaello.

seal /siːl/

NOUN [c]
[B2] an animal with smooth fur that eats fish and lives near the sea

Dictionary example:
We could see seals swimming near the coast.
Learner example:
After leaving the Orkney Islands, we went by boat to [the] Shetland Islands, because we wanted to observe the grey seals with their pups that were [o]n the northwest coast.

VERB

CLOSE ENTRANCE

[C2] (also seal up) to close an entrance or container so that air or liquid cannot enter or leave it

Dictionary example:
She quickly sealed up the bottle.

Learner example:
In Egypt, [the] Pyramids are being sealed, because the perspiration of the tourists was ruining the paintings on the walls.

CLOSE LETTER

[C2] to close a letter or parcel by sticking the edges together

Dictionary example:
to seal an envelope

Learner example:
Jenny, my girlfriend, told me that she sealed the envelope with trembling fingers and then posted it.

search /sɜːtʃ/

VERB

TRY TO FIND

[B1] [I or T] to try to find someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I've searched my bedroom but I can't find my watch.
He searched in his pockets for some change.
Police are still searching the woods for the missing girl.
He searched (in/through) his pockets for some change.
I've searched high and low, but I can't find my birth certificate.
The detectives searched the house from top to bottom, but they found no sign of the stolen goods.

Learner example:
He searched the whole bank but could not find it.

USE COMPUTER

[B1] [I or T] to use a computer to find information, especially on the Internet
Dictionary example:
I searched the Internet to find the best prices for flights to Barcelona.

Learner example:
Before you had to go to a library to finish [your] homework. Now, we just search on the internet.

POLICE
[B2] [ɪ] If the police search a place or a person, they look to see if they are hiding anything illegal, such as drugs.

Dictionary examples:
They were searched at the airport.
The men were searched for drugs and then released.

Learner example:
The undercover [patrol] searched our car rather roughly, looking for drugs.

FIND ANSWER
[C1] [ɪ] to try to find an answer to a problem

Dictionary example:
Doctors are still searching for a cure.

Learner example:
The governments are therefore searching for solutions to compensate for the lack of financial resources.

NOUN
TRY TO FIND
[B1] [c] when you try to find someone or something

Dictionary examples:
After a long search, they eventually found the missing papers.
The police carried out/conducted/made a thorough search of the house, but they failed to find any drugs.

Learner example:
Joshua instantly thought it could be a bomb, so he organized a search all over the airport.

USE COMPUTER
[B1] [c] when you use a computer to find information, especially on the Internet

Dictionary examples:
Why not do a search on Google for hotels in the area?
We're doing a computer search for all words beginning with 'high'.

Learner example:
But I think you shouldn't ask me, the best thing is [a] search on the internet, so you can see the photos and choose the option you like mo[st].
FIND ANSWER

[B2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] when you try to find an answer to a problem

Dictionary example:
the search for happiness

Learner example:
Hemingway fought in the Spanish Civil war and in World War II, always [i]n the search for answers to questions like "... what defines a man", or "... what happens to us in critical situations".

season /ˈsiːzn/

Word family:
Nouns: season
Adjectives: seasonal

NOUN [C]

PART OF YEAR
[B1] one of the four periods of the year: spring, summer, autumn or winter

Dictionary example:

Learner example:
But summer in Poland is as wonderful [a] season as winter!

FOR PARTICULAR EVENT
[B1] a period of the year when a particular thing happens

Dictionary examples:
How long does the dry/hurricane/wet season last?
The British football season begins in August and ends in May.

Learner example:
Once they had finished, Peter kissed his parents and started his journey [on] foot heading towards the stadium, to play the first game of the season.

in season
[B2] If vegetables or fruit are in season, they are available and ready to eat.

Dictionary example:
Asparagus is in season at the moment.

Learner example:
They celebrate Halloween in October when pumpkins are in season, that's why in the decorations they include them very often; most of the people carve the pumpkins and put some lights inside.
out of season
[C1] If vegetables or fruit are out of season, they are not usually available at that time.

Dictionary example:
Strawberries are out of season at the moment.

Learner example:
As our place was famous for fresh sea food, I bought crabs and salmon although they were out of season and expensive.

out of season
[C2] If you go somewhere out of season, you go during a period of the year when few people are there.

Dictionary example:
I prefer to travel out of season.

Learner example:
Some towns [that] are completely dependent on tourism "die" out of season, while others are destroyed because of the excessive emigration of [their] people.

seasonal /ˈsiː.zən.al/

Word family:
Nouns: season
Adjectives: seasonal

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to or happening during a particular period in the year

Dictionary examples: seasonal vegetables
seasonal farm work

Learner example:
I am a student and during my summer holiday I prefer to do some seasonal work.

seat /siːt/

NOUN [C]

POLITICS
[C2] a position in a parliament or other group that makes official decisions
Dictionary examples:
a seat in parliament
a congressional seat

Learner example:
This is the story of a man who spent his life paying kickbacks to achieve power and eventually a seat in the parliament.

VERB

be seated [B2] to be sitting down

Dictionary example:
The director was seated on his right.

Learner example:
A big pink elephant was seated near me.

seat 4/12/200, etc.
[C2] If a building, room, or vehicle seats a particular number of people, that many people can sit in it.

Dictionary example:
The new concert hall seats 1500 people.

Learner example:
According to the owners, the Swan seats 100 guests and it is always advisable to make reservations.

secluded /sɪˈkluː.dɪd/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] If a place is secluded, it is quiet and not near people.

Dictionary example:
a secluded beach/garden

Learner example:
It is a place of rare beauty: secluded beaches, transparent and shimmering water are only a little part of the fascinating mystery of this gorgeous sea resort.

second /ˈsek.ənd/

Word family:
Adjectives: secondary
Adverbs: secondly
ORDINAL NUMBER; DETERMINER

ANOTHER
[B1] another

Dictionary examples:
She is often described as the second Marilyn Monroe.
You really ought to make the most of the opportunity, because you won’t get a second chance.
Richard and Liz have a second home in France.
Pay attention to what she’s saying because she won’t explain it a second time.

Learner example:
I started my new English class last week. I had just finish[ed] my course and that was [a] second chance for me to pick up words so I gave it a go.

ONLY ONE BETTER/BIGGER, ETC.
[B1] Second is used to show that only one thing is better, bigger, etc. than the thing mentioned.

Dictionary examples:
St Petersburg is Russia's second (biggest/largest) city.
Iraq’s oil reserves are second only to Saudi Arabia's.
The conditions that these prisoners are kept in are second to none.

Learner example:
Joao Pessoa is the second green[est] city in the world.

ADVERB

IN ORDER
[B1] after one other person or thing in order or importance

Dictionary example:
She didn’t win the race, but she did come second.

Learner example:
[O]n the other hand, New Zealand came second [for] senior government.

IN LIST
[B2] used to talk about the second in a series of things

Dictionary example:
Second, they failed to send written warning.

Learner example:
Second, the pedestrian area in the commercial centre has to grow, wh[ich] would make this part of the town more pleasant for walking and would improve the opportunities [for] the shops.

NOUN [C]

VERY SHORT PERIOD
[B1] informal a very short period of time
Dictionary examples:
"Come on, hurry up!" "I'll just/only be a second – I've got to lock the back door."
Have you got a second, Paul? I'd like to have a word with you.
It won't take a second.
Wait a couple of/a few seconds before trying again.

Learner example:
A few seconds later, a huge tree beside my house fell down and destroyed most of my house.

PRODUCT
[C2] something that is sold cheaply because it is damaged or not in perfect condition

Dictionary example:
Some of those towels are seconds.

---

secondary /ˈsek.ən.dri/

Word family:
Adjectives: secondary
Adverbs: secondly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[B1] relating to the education of children approximately between the ages of 11 and 18 years old

Dictionary examples:
secondary education
Marcus has just started at secondary school.

Learner example:
He is studying at secondary school.

---

secondary school /ˈsek.ən.driˌskuːl/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a school for students aged between 11 and 18

Dictionary example:
My children are both at secondary school now.

Learner example:
They said they chose our school because we are one of the best secondary schools [in] Mexico City. Can you believe that!?
second-hand /ˌsek.əndˈhænd/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

[B1] If something is second-hand, someone else owned or used it before you.

Dictionary examples:
- second-hand books/clothes
- She buys a lot of clothes second-hand.

Learner example:
- Personally, I only buy second-hand clothes because in second-hand shops, I really like discover[ing] rare things and funny clothes from the 60s or 70s.

secondly /ˈsek.ənd.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: secondary
Adverbs: secondly

ADVERB

[B2] used for introducing the second reason, idea, etc.

Dictionary example:
- I want two things: firstly, more money, and secondly, better working hours.

Learner example:
- Secondly, I didn't know that you were working in [an] organization which [is] trying to save wildlife, but it sounds very ex[c]iting.

secret /ˈsiː.krɛt/

Word family:
Nouns: secret
Adjectives: secret
Adverbs: secretly

NOUN

NOT TELL

[B1] [c] something that you tell no one about or only a few people
Dictionary examples:
I’m having a party for him but it’s a secret.
Can you keep a secret?
A close couple should have no secrets from each other.
Aren’t you going to let me in on the secret?
She makes no secret of her dislike of her father.
That restaurant is one of the best-kept secrets in London.

Learner example:
I told her everything, she knew all my secrets but she never told me her secrets.

the secret
[B2] the best way of achieving something

Dictionary examples:
That’s the secret to making a good cocktail.
So what’s the secret of your success?

Learner example:
The secret of this diet is that you have to be very optimistic.

in secret
[B2] without telling other people

Dictionary example:
For years they met in secret.

Learner example:
We met in secret when Mary was busy.

ADJECTIVE
[B1] If something is secret, other people are not allowed to know about it.

Dictionary examples:
The President escaped through a secret passage underneath the parliament building.
This is top secret information.
Do you think we’ll manage to keep the surprise party secret from Mum until her birthday?

Learner example:
The secret admirer was the guy I liked!

secretary /"sek.rə.tri/

NOUN [C]

COMMITTEE
[C1] the member of a committee who keeps records of meetings and deals with correspondence
Dictionary example:
I'm secretary of the tennis club this year.

Learner example:
From: Secretary of the Social Club To: Mr. Ford, Museum Director secretly /ˈsiː.krət.li/

Word family:
Nouns: secret
Adjectives: secret
Adverbs: secretly

ADVERB
[B1] without allowing other people to know

Dictionary examples:
She said she didn't care about it, but I believe she was secretly delighted.
He was convicted on the evidence of secretly recorded telephone conversations.

Learner example:
Then in the evening we'll come to her house secretly. Of course, we should tell her mom everything about this plan.

section /ˈsek.ʃən/

NOUN [C]
[B1] one of the parts that something is divided into

Dictionary examples:
a non-smoking section in a restaurant the sports section of the newspaper the tail section of an aircraft
The poorest sections of the community have much worse health.

Learner example:
It has two floor[s] and is divided into sections, one that is a [general] restaurant and one for vegetarian people.

sector /ˈsek.taɪr/

NOUN [C]
[C1] one part of a country’s economy
Dictionary examples:
In the financial sector, banks and insurance companies have both lost a lot of money.
The new government’s policy is to transfer state industries from the public sector to the private sector.

Learner example:
Our software solutions are oriented towards the corporate sector where we are recognized as market leaders in this field.

```
secure /ˈsɪkjʊər/
```

Word family:
Nouns: security, insecurity
Adjectives: secure, insecure

ADJECTIVE

SAFE

[B2] safe from danger or harm or not likely to end

Dictionary examples:
I don’t feel that the house is secure.
Her promotion has made her position in the company more secure.
The museum has been promised £22 million by the government, so its future is relatively secure.

Learner example:
I think homes in the future will be more secure.

CONFIDENT

[B2] confident about yourself and the situation that you are in

Dictionary example:
I need to feel secure in a relationship.

Learner example:
First of all, you feel secure because you know that all the members of the family love you.

COMPUTER

[C1] designed to make sure that only the person who knows it can get onto a computer system, website, etc.

Dictionary example:
You will be issued with a secure password.

Learner example:
If you decided to work with our superb Direct Net, you would get a secure password which you have to change at your first log in and an electronic card which produces every minute a new combination.
NOT FAIL
[C2] not likely to fail

Dictionary example:
a secure investment

Learner example:
I consider tourism a secure investment and [one] that is beneficial.

security /ˈsɪkjʊərə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: security, insecurity
Adjectives: secure, insecure

NOUN [U]

PROTECTION
[B1] protection of a person, building, organization or country against threats such as crime or attacks by foreign countries

Dictionary examples:
The station was closed for two hours because of a security alert.
Thirty demonstrators were killed in clashes with the security forces over the weekend.
The tighter security measures/precautions include video cameras in the city centre.
The students were deported because they posed a threat to national security.
The proposed national identity card system would help to tighten security against fraud.
The most dangerous criminals are held in maximum-security prisons.

Learner example:
It's about a man that is cloned by a computer and he has to escape from a maximum security jail, it's an action [film].

SAFE SITUATION
[C1] when something is not likely to fail or be lost

Dictionary examples:
If it's a choice between higher pay and job security, I'd prefer to keep my job.
I'm on a temporary contract and have little financial security.

Learner example:
They are the people who are already regarded as high class, but the reason for this prediction is that they have job security which has become a big issue in Korea after IMF, as well as [a] high salary.

CONFIDENCE
[C2] confidence about yourself and the situation that you are in Dictionary example:
the security of a long-term relationship

Learner example:
One is the security of having your mom around all the time.

sedentary /ʼsed.ən.tər.i/
ADJECTIVE
[C2] spending a lot of time sitting down or not being active

Dictionary example:
a sedentary job/lifestyle

Learner example:
Improving the sports facilities means encouraging the residents to include physical exercise in their daily routine. Considering the sedentary lifestyle most people have adopted this would be of great importance.

seduce /sɪˈdjuːs/
VERB [T OFTEN PASSIVE]

SEX
[C2] to persuade someone to have sex with you, especially someone young

Dictionary example:
She was seduced by her boss.

Learner example:
One of the reasons why Olivia leaves her husband is that she has been seduced by an Indian prince.

PERSUADE
[C2] to persuade someone to do something they would not normally do

Dictionary example:
I wouldn't have bought it but I was seduced by the low prices.

Learner example:
Sometimes I was seduced into buying very "useful" things by some cunning and attractive commercials on the television.
see /siː/ (seeing, saw, seen)

VERB

UNDERSTAND
[B1] [I or T] to understand something

Dictionary examples:
I see (that) the social club is organising a theatre trip next month.
I see what you mean.
They didn't see the need/any need to notify their members of the changes in writing.
I was surprised that they couldn't see my point of view.

Learner example:
Do you see what I mean?

INFORMATION
[B2] [T] to find out information

Dictionary examples:
I'll just see what time the train gets in.
Let's see whether there is an early performance on Saturday.

Learner example:
I have looked in my calendar to see what time would be the best for you to come here.

CONSIDER
[B2] [T] to imagine or think about something or someone in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
She didn't see herself as brave.
It was easy to see the gift as a sort of bribe.
As I see it/things/the situation, we'll have to get extra help.

Learner example:
If I compare the members of my family with these qualities, then I have to say that I don't see them as my best friends.

I'll/we'll see
[C1] used to say that you will make a decision about something later

Dictionary example:
"Dad, can I have a guitar?" "We'll see."

Learner example:
I'm sure I'd love to have four of them, but there's always the financial aspect. I'm just nineteen, I'll see...

HAPPEN
[C1] [T] to be the time or place where something happens
Dictionary example:
This decade has seen huge technological advances.

Learner example:
But the reason which has driven the strike is [that] the whole country has seen a cut in the subsidies given to unemployed people.

you see
[C1] used when you are giving an explanation about something

Dictionary examples:
I didn’t know she was Welsh, you see.
You see, it was already late by that time.

Learner example:
Family matters had to stay in the family, you see.

wait and see
[C1] to wait to discover what will happen

Dictionary example:
We’ll wait and see what she says.

Learner example:
We will just have to wait and see.....

see that
[C2] If you ask someone to see that something happens, you want them to make sure it happens.

Dictionary example:
Could you see that everyone gets a copy of this letter?

BELIEVE
[C2] [ɪ] to believe that something will happen

Dictionary example:
I can’t see us finishing on time.

Learner example:
She could see herself doing everyday job[s], studying with the kids, cooking dinner, putting them to bed but she didn’t feel there; her thoughts were where they always were trying to find hope to endure the agony.

see sense
[C2] to realize you are wrong or have been behaving stupidly

Dictionary example:
We talked to her for an hour, but we couldn’t make her see sense.
Learner example:
Ralph tries to make Jack see sense by showing him the conch which had been the symbol of leadership and also, friendship.

see eye to eye (with sb)
[C2] If two people see eye to eye, they agree with each other.

Dictionary example:
Our teachers don’t always see eye to eye with the headmaster.

Learner example:
Although I agree with some of the statements given by the young people, I do not see eye to eye with all of their viewpoints.

see red
[C2] to become very angry

Dictionary example:
When he insulted my friends, I just saw red.

Learner example:
I see red each time I realize that my son is looking forward to arriving home so as to flop down in front of his telly instead of reading a good book.

seed /siːd/

NOUN

PLANT
[B2] [c] a small round or oval object produced by a plant that a new plant can grow from

Dictionary examples:
Sow the seeds about 3 cm deep.
This chemical will stop the seeds from sprouting.

Learner example:
[For] several years, I have been very interested in flowers, fresh, dried and artificial and also different kinds of seeds.

(the) seeds of sth
[C2] the beginning of something

Dictionary example:
the seeds of hope/change

Learner example:
Should we use them unwisely, then we may well be sowing the seeds of our own (cultural) destruction.
Learner example:
CLC replaced to avoid UK wrding and vocab (charity workers, keen) CJC seek /siːk/ FORMAL (sought, sought)

VERB [T]

TRY TO FIND
[B2] to try to find or get something

Dictionary examples:
"Are you actively seeking jobs?" she asked.
Hundreds of dissidents are seeking refuge/asylum in the US embassy.
Legal advice should be sought before you take any further action.

Learner example:
I am seeking employment and [am] interested in your offer.

TRY TO DO
[C2] to try to do something

Dictionary examples:
They are seeking to change the rules.
to seek re-election

Learner example:
Jack never accepted Ralph as a chief and throughout the book he seeks to assume power.

seem /siːm/

Word family:
Verbs: seem Adverbs: seemingly

VERB

seem happy/a nice person, etc.
[B1] to appear to be a particular thing or to have a particular quality

Dictionary examples:
She seemed happy enough.
My new boss seems like a really nice person.

Learner example:
She seemed very friendly.

seem like/as if/to, etc.
[B1] to appear to be a particular thing or to have a particular quality
Dictionary examples:
It seemed like a good idea at the time.
The graphics were so good that the people seemed as if they were real.
There doesn't seem to be any real solution.
I seem to know more about him than anyone else.

Learner example:
I spent four cold days in the mountain[s] and it seemed like winter despite being summer!

It seems...
[B2] used for saying that something appears to exist or be true

Dictionary examples:
It seems that the restaurants close early here.
It seems to me that she's in the wrong job.

Learner example:
It seems to me that you are wrong again.

seemingly /ˈsiː.mɪŋ.li/

Word family:
Verbs: seem Adverbs: seemingly

ADVERB
[C1] appearing to be something without really being that thing

Dictionary example:
a seemingly harmless comment

Learner example:
You also claim that we did not reach our target figure – a statement seemingly based on pure assumption – which is completely incorrect.

seize /siːz/

VERB [T]

HOLD
[B2] to take hold of something quickly and firmly

Dictionary example:
I seized his arm and made him turn to look at me.

Learner example:
Besides, I think that the wild beasts have the right to live free and seize their prey in order to feed themselves.
seize a chance/opportunity

[B2] to do something quickly in order to use an opportunity

Dictionary example:
You need to seize every opportunity.

Learner example:
So we seize the opportunity to go to the sea.

PLACE

[C2] to take control of a place suddenly by using military force

Dictionary example:
Troops seized control in the early hours of the morning.

---

seldom /ˈsel.dəm/

ADVERB

[B2] not often

Dictionary example:
We seldom go out in the evenings.

Learner example:
Alice was a quiet girl, she seldom talked, but he just couldn't stop talking.

---

select /səˈlekt/

Word family:

Nouns: selection

Verbs: select

Adjectives: selective

VERB [T]

[B1] to choose someone or something from a group

Dictionary examples:
There was a choice of four prizes, and the winner could select one of them. A mouse is a device which makes it easier to select different options from computer menus. How do you select people for promotion? He was selected to play for Australia at the age of only 18. The supermarket's policy is to select out the best fruit and discard the rest.

Learner example:
I've been selected to play on the school football team and we've got a match tomorrow.
selection /səˈlekʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: selection
Verbs: select
Adjectives: selective

NOUN

ACT OF CHOOSING

[B2] [u] when someone or something is chosen

Dictionary examples:
the selection process
We need to make a selection from these applicants.
Success is achieved by the careful selection of projects.

Learner example:
The selection of films and plays was well made, but I would have appreciate[d] it if there had been more.

THINGS CHOSEN

[B2] [c] a group of people or things that has been chosen

Dictionary examples:
Most schools would have a good selection of these books in their libraries.
The larger shops are able to stock a wide selection of goods.

Learner example:
There is a good selection of bar food.

selective /səˈlek.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: selection
Verbs: select
Adjectives: selective

ADJECTIVE

[C1] intentionally choosing some things or people and not others

Dictionary examples:
As a teacher she was very selective, accepting only a small number of highly talented pupils.
He seemed to have a very selective recall of past events.

Learner example:
At the same time, this makes us extremely selective when it comes to the people we want working with us.
self /self/

NOUN [C or U] (PLURAL selves)
[C1] your characteristics, including your personality, your abilities, etc.

Dictionary examples:
our sense of self his real/true self

Learner example:
True recognition and happiness can't be derived from television or front covers but only from one's true self.

self-assurance /ˌself.əˈʃʊə.rənˌts/

Word family:
Nouns: assurance, reassurance, self-assurance
Verbs: assure, reassure
Adjectives: reassuring, self-assured

NOUN [U]
[C2] the quality of being confident about yourself

Dictionary example:
He spoke with remarkable self-assurance for such a young man.

Learner example:
She would have to show self-assurance, determination to get the job, and give the feeling that she would be up to the task.

self-assured /ˌself.əˈʃʊəd/

Word family:
Nouns: assurance, reassurance, self-assurance
Verbs: assure, reassure
Adjectives: reassuring, self-assured

ADJECTIVE
[C2] confident about yourself

Dictionary example:
She's a very self-assured young woman.

Learner example:
I assume that in order to reach success you must be shrewd, self-reliant, self-assured and above all assertive.
self-awareness /ˌself.əˈweə.nəs/

Word family:

Nouns: awareness, self-awareness

Adjectives: aware

NOUN [u]

[C2] good knowledge and judgment about yourself

Dictionary example:
She has a high level of self-awareness.

Learner example:
Montag’s friendship with Clarisse, a young girl who is sensitive towards humans and nature, serves as a catalyst in the commencement of the antagonist's self-awareness.

self-catering /ˌselfˈkeɪ.tɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] describes a holiday or place in which you have a kitchen so that you can cook meals for yourself

Dictionary example:
We decided to stay in self-catering accommodation rather than in a hotel.

Learner example:
It is situated in London so it seems to me that it would give you the opportunity to learn more about everyday English life. Moreover, the accommodation is top quality, as there are single rooms, and self-catering facilities.

self-centred /ˌselfˈsen.təd/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] interested only in yourself

Dictionary example:
Stop being so self-centred!

Learner example:
This way of thinking is very important because a person who spends a lot of time alone can become self-centred and insensitive to others.
self-confidence /ˌself ˈkɒn.fɪ.dən.ts/

Word family:
- Nouns: confidence, self-confidence
- Adjectives: confident, self-confident
- Adverbs: confidently

NOUN [u]
- [B2] being self-confident

Dictionary example:
Since she left home, her self-confidence has grown.

Learner example:
In my opinion, the reason for it is that not many people know how to prepare for [an] interview and gain self-confidence.

self-confident /ˌself ˈkɒn.fɪ.dənt/

Word family:
- Nouns: confidence, self-confidence
- Adjectives: confident, self-confident
- Adverbs: confidently

ADJECTIVE
- [B2] feeling sure about yourself and your abilities

Dictionary example:
He's a very self-confident young man.

Learner example:
So when the day came, she felt much more self-confident and determined than before.

self-conscious /ˌselfˈkɒn.ʃəs/

Word family:
- Nouns: consciousness
- Adjectives: conscious, unconscious, self-conscious
- Adverbs: subconsciously, unconsciously

ADJECTIVE
- [C1] nervous or uncomfortably aware of yourself and what people think about you or your actions

Dictionary example:
He looked uncomfortable, like a self-conscious adolescent who's gone to the wrong party.
Learner example:
Video equipment however is something we have been wanting for a long time, for the following reasons: [...] – to enhance interpretation of body language as well as spoken language; this aspect is often neglected but of major importance; – to record and play back the students while speaking a monologue or discussing among a group: this enhances their fluency and makes them less self-conscious and thus more confident while expressing themselves in a foreign language; – last but not least: to make learning more fun and thus attract more students.

self-control /ˌself.kənˈtrəʊl/

NOUN [u]

[C2] the ability to control your emotions and actions although you are very angry, upset, etc.

Dictionary example:
He displayed a total lack of self-control.

Learner example:
Doing that kind of job requires a lot of self-control.

self-discipline /ˌselfˈdɪs.ɪ.plɪn/

NOUN [u]

[C2] the ability to make yourself do things that you do not want to do

Dictionary example:
I haven’t got the self-discipline to be an athlete.

Learner example:
Nowadays, some of her most noticeable characteristics are her courtesy, her self-discipline and the compassion that she shows for those who suffer.

self-esteem /ˌself.ɪˈstiːm/

NOUN [u]

[C1] confidence in yourself and a belief in your qualities and abilities

Dictionary example:
She suffers from low self-esteem.

Learner example:
I think that the lack of self-esteem among men underlies the whole situation.
selfish /ˈsel.fɪʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: selfishness
Adjectives: selfish

ADJECTIVE DISAPPROVING
[B1] caring only about yourself and not other people

Dictionary examples:
It’s very selfish of him to go away every weekend.
The judge told him: “Your attitude shows a selfish disregard for others.”

Learner example:
I found this sport very interesting, because you have to play in a team so you must not be selfish, you have to change your spirit.

selfishness /ˈsel.fɪʃ.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: selfishness
Adjectives: selfish

NOUN [u]
[C1] the quality of being selfish

Dictionary example:
I was appalled by his selfishness.

Learner example:
It seems to me that everywhere in the world, people are not necessarily aware of the fact that planet Earth is [the] most precious gift we have. Greed and selfishness are also very common in Switzerland, even if this country might be already a few steps further [forward] than others.

self-made /ˌselfˈmeɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] rich because you have earned a lot of money yourself

Dictionary example:
a self–made millionaire

Learner example:
One of the reasons I think my father is succes[s]ful in life is because he is a self–made man.
self-reliance /ˌself.rɪˈlaɪəns/

Word family:
Nouns: reliability, reliance, self-reliance
Verbs: rely
Adjectives: reliable, unreliable, reliant, self-reliant

NOUN [u]
[C2] the quality of not needing help and support from other people

Dictionary example:
These kids need to learn some self-reliance.

Learner example:
When she finally faced "Mr Right" for the second time this morning, she discovered she was a new woman, endowed with self-reliance and a high sense of her being, her self-esteem, magically empowered.

self-reliant /ˌself.rɪˈlaɪənt/

Word family:
Nouns: reliability, reliance, self-reliance
Verbs: rely
Adjectives: reliable, unreliable, reliant, self-reliant

ADJECTIVE
[C2] able to do things yourself without depending on other people

Dictionary example:
The children are beginning to be a bit more self-reliant.

Learner example:
You must have a firm, outgoing personality, but be self-reliant and strong-willed.

self-respect /ˌself.rɪˈspekt/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the feeling of pride in yourself and your character

Dictionary example:
Having a job gave them back their self-respect.

Learner example:
And this proves that professional activity is a source of self-respect and, eventually, leads to satisfaction.
self-service /ˌselfˈsɜː.vɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: servant, service
Verbs: serve
Adjectives: self-service

ADJECTIVE

[B1] A self-service restaurant or shop is one in which you serve yourself and are not served by the people who work there.

Dictionary example:
It was a cheap, self-service restaurant.

Learner example:
I went to have lunch in a self-service restaurant and in the afternoon I continued my visit.

self-sufficient /ˌself.səˈfɪʃ.ənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: sufficient, insufficient, self-sufficient
Adverbs: sufficiently

ADJECTIVE

[C2] having everything that you need yourself and not needing help from others

Dictionary example:
We are completely self-sufficient in vegetables.

Learner example:
Nowadays, though we consider the fact of having longer life expectancy an improvement, the society tends to marginalise an old person and tends to [view] him or her as a burden, especially if this person is not self-sufficient.

sell /sel/ (sold, sold)

Word family:
Nouns: seller
Verbs: sell

VERB

A LOT

[B2] [I or T] to be bought in large numbers

Dictionary example:
His last book sold eight million copies.
Learner example:
The single with her new song sold more than 15 million copies, now she was a powerfull star.

IDEA/PLAN

[C2] [ɪ] to persuade someone that an idea or plan is good

Dictionary example:
I'm currently trying to sell the idea to my boss.

sell like hot cakes

[C2] to be bought quickly and in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Their new game is selling like hot cakes.

Learner example:
Books about how to remain young are selling like hot cakes.

---

seller /ˈsel.ər/

Word family:

Nouns: seller

Verbs: sell

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone who sells something

Dictionary examples: flower/newspaper/souvenir sellers
Do you think the seller will accept £96 000 for the house?

Learner example:
It was then my mother remembered a toy seller had been selling toys in the place where we had been waiting in the station and that our suitcase[s] must have got mixed up.

---

semicolon /ˌsem.ɪˈkəʊ.lən/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a mark (;) used to separate parts of a sentence, or items in a list which already has commas

Dictionary example:
Use a semicolon to separate the groups of items in your list.
semi-detached /ˌsem.ɪ.dɪˈtætʃt/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] A semi-detached house has one wall that is joined to another house.

Dictionary example:
We live in a semi-detached house.

Learner example:
When I was in London I lived in a semi-detached house as well.

semi-final /ˌsem.iˈfaɪ.nəl/

NOUN [C USUALLY PLURAL]

[B2] one of the two games in a sports competition that are played to decide who will play in the final game

Dictionary examples:
Who’s in the semi-finals?
She’s the youngest player ever to get through to a semi-final.

Learner example:
One Sunday morning we had to play the cup semi-final against [our] great rival.

seminar /ˈsem.i.nɑːr/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a meeting of a group of people with a teacher or expert for training, discussion, or study of a subject

Dictionary examples:
I attended practically every lecture and seminar when I was a student.
I’m giving a seminar on the latest developments in genetic engineering next week.
a seminar room

Learner example:
I also need this job because I need money to attend some seminars.
send /sɛnd/ (sent, sent)

VERB [t]

MAKE GO

[B2] to make someone go somewhere

Dictionary examples:
We're sending the children to stay with my parents for a couple of weeks.
The commander has asked us to send reinforcements.
They've sent their son (away) to school in Scotland.
He was trying to explain but she became impatient and sent him away.

Learner example:
We should build more schools because we only have one, so we have to send our children away and none of us like that.

MAKE HAPPEN

[C2] to cause someone or something to do a particular thing, or to cause something to happen

Dictionary examples:
The explosion sent the crowd into a panic.
Watching the television always sends me to sleep.
His untidiness sends her crazy/mad/wild.
The draught from the fan sent papers flying all over the room.

Learner example:
While we were singing a duet by Mendelssohn with my sister, a sweeping movement of my hand sent two pages of music flying towards the first row of seats.

send shivers/a shiver down your spine

[C2] to make you feel afraid or excited

Dictionary example:
The sound of his voice sent shivers down my spine.

Learner example:
Simply looking at her sent shivers down his spine – there was the love of his life, the dearest woman on good old Earth, that he's never met before.

senior /ˈsiː.ni.ər/

ADJECTIVE

MORE IMPORTANT

[B2] having a more important job or position than someone else
Dictionary examples:
a senior executive
We work in the same team but she's senior to me.
a senior government minister

Learner example:
She is also extraordinary in that she graduated from Harvard University and Tokyo University and used to work for the Ministry of the Foreign Affairs as a senior civil servant.

OLDER
[B2] relating to people who are older

Dictionary example:
You can't use a senior ticket during the rush hour – you have to pay full fare.

Learner example:
When I got to the tickets desk before the show to buy my ticket I asked for a senior discount, and the woman told me there were no discounts available as I read on the advertising.

sensation /senˈseɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: sensation
Adjectives: sensational

NOUN

PHYSICAL
[B2] [c or u] a physical feeling, or the ability to physically feel things

Dictionary examples:
a burning sensation
I had no sensation of pain whatsoever.
The disease causes a loss of sensation in the fingers.

Learner example:
When I fell into the water, I was shocked. I couldn't move my right leg, the sensation was horrible.

FEELING/IDEA
[B2] [c usually no plural] a strange feeling or idea that you cannot explain

Dictionary example:
I had the odd sensation (that) someone was following me.

Learner example:
Suddenly I had the sensation that something was wrong.

EXCITEMENT
[B2] [no plural] a lot of excitement, surprise or interest
Dictionary example:
Their marriage caused a sensation.

Learner example:
In the poetry, she expressed her sad feeling, thinking of her brother who was in China as a soldier. It caused a sensation.

---

sensational /ˈsen·seɪ.ʃən/

Word family:

Nouns: sensation
Adjectives: sensational

ADJECTIVE

SHOCKING

[C1] done in a way that is intended to shock people

Dictionary example:
sensational journalism

Learner example:
I think that the journalists desired sensational news far too much and they exaggerated.

EXCITING

[C2] very exciting or extremely good

Dictionary example:
a sensational performance

Learner example:
If you are up for some sensational fun, "New York–New York" is your place, with a crazy roller coaster soaring through the lobby and out into open air.

---

sense
/ˈsens/

Word family:

Nouns: nonsense, sense, sensibility
Verbs: sense
Adjectives: sensible, senseless
Adverbs: sensibly

NOUN

FEELING

[B1] [NO PLURAL] a feeling or understanding about yourself or about a situation
Dictionary examples:
Did you get any sense of what they might do?
Living out in the country gave us a great sense of freedom.

Learner example:
I like to see how people fight for the prize. I like this sense of competition that only sport gives!

a sense of humour
[B1] the ability to understand funny things and to be funny yourself

Dictionary example:
Carol has a wicked sense of humour.

Learner example:
Most of them have an incredible sense of humour so we laugh a lot when we go there.

GOOD JUDGMENT
[B2] [u] good judgment, especially about practical things

Dictionary examples:
I hope they'll have the (good) sense/have enough sense to shut the windows before they leave.
There's no sense in waiting – the next train isn't for two hours.

Learner example:
People should have the sense to dispose of all the waste properly.

ABILITY
[B2] [NO PLURAL] the ability to do something

Dictionary examples:
He's got a good sense of direction and hardly ever uses a map.
good business sense

Learner example:
Animals are part of nature so they must be free to go where their sense of direction leads them.

NATURAL ABILITY
[B2] [c] one of the five natural abilities of sight, hearing, touch, smell, and taste

Dictionary examples:
With her keen sense of smell, she could tell if you were a smoker from the other side of the room.
My cold is so bad I've lost my sense of smell/taste.

Learner example:
You can enjoy a flight with all your five senses.

make sense
[B2] to have a meaning or reason that you can understand

Dictionary example:
He's written me this note but it doesn't make any sense.
Learner example:
Eighty kilometres in the mountains just to [look at] views doesn’t make any sense to me.

make sense

[B2] to be a good thing to do

Dictionary example:
It makes sense to buy now while prices are low.

Learner example:
Therefore it make[s] sense to use the innovation[s].

MEANING

[B2] [c] one of the possible meanings of a word or phrase

Dictionary examples:
They are not immigrants, at least not in any sense that I understand.
The packaging is green – in both senses of the word.
Security defined in the broad/broadest sense of the term means getting at the root causes of trouble and helping to reduce regional conflicts.

Learner example:
The Empress was an ideal lady in every sense of the word.

in a sense

[C1] thinking about something in a particular way

Dictionary example:
In a sense, he's right.

Learner example:
In a sense this is correct, since you have to leave your natural environment to visit a place where no human being is meant to survive.

make sense of sth

[C2] to understand something that is difficult to understand

Dictionary example:
I'm trying to make sense of this document.

Learner example:
In fact, it's during his journey that Stevens begins to make sense of his life, of all the years he spent as a butler, as the 'perfect butler' who had to be loyal, silent and discreet.

see sense

[C2] to realize you are wrong or have been behaving stupidly

Dictionary example:
We talked to her for an hour, but we couldn't make her see sense.

Learner example:
Ralph tries to make Jack see sense by showing him the conch which had been the symbol of leadership and also, friendship.
VERB [T]

[C2] to feel or experience something without being able to explain exactly how

Dictionary examples:
Although she said nothing, I could sense her anger
He sensed something was about to happen.
He sensed (that) his guests were bored, although they were listening politely.
Could you sense what was likely to happen?

Learner example:
So Monica's aunt somehow subconsciously sensed that something was going to happen.

senseless /ˈsen.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: nonsense, sense, sensibility
Verbs: sense
Adjectives: sensible, senseless
Adverbs: sensibly

ADJECTIVE
[C2] happening or done without a good reason

Dictionary example:
senseless violence

Learner example:
Maybe after a thousand years of wars between Poland and Germany both sides have finally decided that fighting and killing is senseless.

sensibility /ˌsen.sɪˈbɪl.i.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: nonsense, sense, sensibility
Verbs: sense
Adjectives: sensible, senseless
Adverbs: sensibly

NOUN [C or U] FORMAL
[C2] someone’s feelings, or the ability to understand what other people feel

Dictionary example:
his aesthetic sensibility

Learner example:
All the features mentioned above are extremely important but they mean nothing if your offspring lacks kindness, sensibility and ignores his family traditions.
sensible /ˈsent.sə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: nonsense, sense, sensibility
- Verbs: sense
- Adjectives: sensible, senseless
- Adverbs: sensibly

ADJECTIVE

[B1] showing good judgment

Dictionary examples:
- a sensible answer/approach/choice/option
- a sensible person
- I think the sensible thing to do is phone before you go and ask for directions.
- It would be sensible to take an umbrella.

Learner example:
- I know it sounds strange but there's a sensible reason: money talks.

sensibly /ˈsent.sə.bli/

Word family:
- Nouns: nonsense, sense, sensibility
- Verbs: sense
- Adjectives: sensible, senseless
- Adverbs: sensibly

ADVERB

[C1] in a sensible way

Dictionary examples:
- She behaved very sensibly about it.
- They very sensibly decided to stay at home.

Learner example:
- As time goes [by], these kids quite don't understand the importance of using money sensibly and saving money.

sensitive /ˈsent.sə.tɪv/

Word family:
- Nouns: sensitivity
- Adjectives: sensitive, insensitive
ADJECTIVE

UPSET
[B2] easily upset by the things people say or do

Dictionary examples:
Her reply showed that she was very sensitive to criticism.
He was very sensitive about his scar and thought everyone was staring at him.

Learner example:
Nowadays we are not so sensitive.

REACTING
[B2] able to react very quickly and easily

Dictionary examples:
These scales are very sensitive.
He has a very sensitive nose.

Learner example:
I am very sensitive to noise, especially at night, and tend to catch a cold even in summer.

EASILY DAMAGED
[B2] easy to damage and needing to be protected

Dictionary example:
I have very sensitive skin.

SUBJECT
[B2] A sensitive subject or situation needs to be dealt with carefully in order to avoid upsetting people.

Dictionary examples:
Sex education and birth control are sensitive issues.
The stolen car contained military documents described as very sensitive.

Learner example:
I knew that I could not cry and shout because it was too important and sensitive a problem for us.

KIND
[B2] able to understand what people are feeling and deal with them in a way that does not upset them

Dictionary examples:
I want a man who's kind and sensitive.
Representatives of the company claim their plan will be sensitive to local needs.
In the movie, he plays a concerned and sensitive father trying to bring up two teenage children on his own.
Learner example:
One thing Bobby is good at is that he is bright and sensitive enough to protect you.

sensitivity /ˌsen.təˈtri.və.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: sensitivity
Adjectives: sensitive, insensitive

NOUN [C]

KIND
[C1] the ability to understand how other people are feeling and to be helpful and kind to them

Dictionary example:
The police showed great sensitivity in their handling of the case.

Learner example:
It is written with sensitivity, honest[y], sincerity and objectiveness.

EASILY UPSET
[C1] the quality of being easily upset by things that people say or do

Dictionary example:
I should have warned you about her sensitivity to criticism.

Learner example:
One of her weaknesses would be her great sensitivity.

sentence /ˈsen.tənts/

NOUN [C]

PUNISHMENT
[B2] a punishment that a judge gives to someone who has committed a crime

Dictionary examples:
He got a heavy/light sentence.
The offence carries a jail/prison/life/5-year sentence.

Learner example:
This is even worse than a real life sentence.

VERB [T]
[B2] to give a punishment to someone who has committed a crime
Dictionary example:
He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Learner example:
Soon afterwards he gets imprisoned again and is sentenced to death. Sydney takes his place and is executed instead of him.

sentiment /ˈsen.tɪ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: sentiment
Adjectives: sentimental

NOUN
[C2] an opinion that you have because of the way you feel about something

Dictionary example:
nationalist/religious sentiments

Learner example:
We would discuss for hours on end, arguing most of the times, and never express our true inner sentiments.

sentimental /ˌsen.tɪˈmen.təl/

Word family:
Nouns: sentiment
Adjectives: sentimental

ADJECTIVE

FEELING
[C2] showing kind feelings such as sympathy, love, etc., especially in a silly way

Dictionary examples:
a sentimental song
The British are very sentimental about animals.

Learner example:
I do love Lighthouse Family's music – the sentimental lyrics and catchy tune[s] all flow with the black singer’s magic voice.

VALUE
[C2] related to feelings and memories and not related to how much money something costs

Dictionary example:
It wasn’t an expensive ring but it had great sentimental value.
Learner example:
It can be the value in money that make[s] people be attached to [a] possession or, rather, a sentimental or symbolic link.

separate

Word family:
Nouns: separation
Verbs: separate
Adjectives: separate, inseparable
Adverbs: separately

ADJECTIVE /ˈsep.ərət/

NOT JOINED
[B1] not joined or touching anything else

Dictionary examples:
a separate compartment
I try to keep meat separate from other food in the fridge.

Learner example:
But there was no choice, as all my friends that did go were already in separate rooms.

DIFFERENT
[B1] different or new

Dictionary examples:
Use a separate sheet of paper.
The art department and the main college are in two separate buildings.

Learner example:
Yesterday I bought a lot [of] presents, so I needed a separate suitcase.

NOT RELATED
[B2] not affecting or related to each other

Dictionary examples:
I've asked him to turn his music down on three separate occasions.
I have my professional life and my private life and I try to keep them separate.
Three youths have been shot and killed in separate incidents this month.

Learner example:
She went to Lisbon, and we [ended up] living separate li[v]es.

VERB /ˈsep.ər.eɪt/

DIVIDE
[B2] [I or T] to divide into parts, or to make something divide into parts
Dictionary examples:
I separated the class into three groups.
The north and south of the country are separated by a mountain range.
You can get a special device for separating egg whites from yolks.
The top and bottom sections are quite difficult to separate.

Learner example:
On the other hand, more bins ought to be put in the centre to encourage people to separate their rubbish more carefully.

MOVE APART
[B2] [I or T] to move apart, or to make people move apart

Dictionary examples:
I shall separate you two if you don't stop talking.
Somehow, in the rush to get out of the building, I got separated from my mother.
Perhaps we should separate now and meet up later.

Learner example:
I noticed that there were some people fighting, and we tried to separate them.

HUSBAND/WIFE
[B2] [I] to start to live in a different place from your husband or wife because the relationship has ended

Dictionary example:
My parents separated when I was four.

Learner example:
But his parents separated and John didn't see his mother again, as well as his sister, after that day.

separately  /ˈsepərətli/

Word family:
Nouns: separation
Verbs: separate
Adjectives: separate, inseparable
Adverbs: separately

ADVERB
[B2] not together

Dictionary examples:
Detectives interviewed the men separately.
I tend to wear the jacket and skirt separately rather than as a suit.
I think we'd better deal with these two points separately.
Learner example:
They were living separately and missing each other.

separation /ˌsep.əˈrɛʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: separation
Verbs: separate
Adjectives: separate, inseparable
Adverbs: separately

NOUN [C or U]

APART
[B2] when two or more people or things are separated

Dictionary examples:
During the war, many couples had to face long periods of separation.
After many years, the government finally abandoned its apartheid system of racial separation.

Learner example:
One of the most important project[s] is the separation of the rubbish and I think that it has worked, but it could work better.

NOT LIVE TOGETHER
[B2] the decision of two people who were married or living together to stop living together

Dictionary example:
They decided on a trial separation.

Learner example:
We lived for a time in peace but our happiness ceased because of his jealousy and fear [of losing] me, which was the cause of our daylong quarrels. There was no solution apart from separation.

sequence /ˈsiːkwəns/

NOUN

FILM
[C1] a part of a film or video game that shows one thing that happens

Dictionary example:
I particularly enjoyed the dream sequence.
Learner example:
However, the rest of the game is not as [polished] as the opening sequence: indeed, it seems that the developers simply re-used the graphical engine of the prequel, without even revamping it: the result is truly disappointing.

SERIES

[C2] a series of related events or things that have a particular order

Dictionary example:
the sequence of events that led to his death

Learner example:
They don't emerge from nowhere, as there was a certain sequence of events that has led to them, so having the full picture with past events influencing our present can help us to find efficient solutions.

ORDER

[C2] the order that events or things should happen or be arranged in

Dictionary example:
I got my slides mixed up and they appeared out of sequence.

Learner example:
It was the fourth summer in sequence that he had chosen this hotel to spend his holiday but this he had never experienced before.

serene /səˈriːn/

Word family:
Nouns: serenity
Adjectives: serene

ADJECTIVE

[C2] calm and quiet

Dictionary example:
a serene face/smile

Learner example:
I enjoy looking at this image, which bears [the] skill of a 16th century artist: the mother’s expression is solemn and tender as she looks at the boy, while Christ’s face is completely serene and is lit with a faint smile.

serenity /səˈren.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: serenity
Adjectives: serene
Noun [u]

[C2] a feeling of being calm and happy

Dictionary example:
She sat there with an air of serenity about her.

Learner example:
She strongly believes that art bring[s] peace, harmony, serenity and tranquillity in their life, which could balance their emotions and help [them] to overcome difficulties.

Serial /ˈsɪə.ri.əl/

Adjective [always before noun]

[C1] ! describes a person who repeatedly commits the same serious crime, often using the same method, or a serious crime that is committed repeatedly by one person

Dictionary examples:
She wrote a thriller about a brutal serial killer.
a serial rapist
serial murders/killings

Learner example:
These pictures have never been broadcast because too many important people are involved in these serial killings.

Noun [c]

[C1] a story in a magazine or on television or radio that is told in separate parts over a period of time

Dictionary example:
I'm watching a serial set in Yorkshire.

Learner example:
As I have already mentioned the quality of the English language used is exceptional and I would like to congratulate all the pe[ople] that take part in the serial.

Series /ˈsɪə.riz/ (plural series)

Noun [c]

Broadcasts

[B1] a group of television or radio programmes that have the same main characters or deal with the same subject
Dictionary examples:
The footballer Paul Gascoigne is to host a Channel 4 television series on soccer skills.

Learner example:
I like television series like Smallville.

THINGS

[B2] several things or events of the same type that come one after the other

Dictionary examples:
He’s had a series of tests at the hospital but they can’t find anything wrong.
She gave a series of lectures at Warwick University last year on contemporary British writers.

Learner example:
The aim of this report is [to] make a series of suggestions on which lessons and other activities should be filmed.

BOOKS

[B2] a set of books published by the same company which deal with the same subject

Dictionary example:
They do a series on architecture throughout the ages.

Learner example:
We read all of Poirot and [the] [Miss] Marple series.

serious  /ˈsɪəri.əs/

Word family:
Adjectives: serious
Adverbs: seriously

ADJECTIVE

BAD

[B1] A serious problem or situation is bad and makes people worry.

Dictionary examples:
a serious illness
There were no reports of serious injuries.
The new tax regulations have landed some of the smaller companies in serious trouble.
A shortage of space has become a serious problem in a lot of schools.
He’s been taken to hospital where his condition is described as serious but stable.

Learner example:
As you know I have got [a] serious problem [with] my eyes.
NOT JOKING

[B1] not joking or intended to be funny

Dictionary examples:
Please don't laugh – I'm being serious.
He was wearing a very serious expression and I knew something was wrong.
On the surface it's a very funny novel but it does have a more serious underlying theme.
Is she serious about going to live abroad?

Learner example:
We are taught how to act in both comic and serious parts.

PERSON

[B1] A serious person does not laugh often.

Dictionary example:
I remember her as a very serious child.

Learner example:
Well, the new teacher is very serious, but this is ok.

NEEDING ATTENTION

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] needing or deserving your complete attention

Dictionary examples:
That's an interesting job offer – I'd give it some serious consideration if I were you.
We've got some serious talking to do, you and me.

Learner example:
I think it would be worthwhile to give serious thought to these animals.

seriously /ˈsɪə.ri.ə.sli/

Word family:
Adjectives: serious
Adverbs: seriously

ADVERB

BADLY

[B1] badly or severely

Dictionary examples:
seriously ill/worried
He wasn't seriously injured – he just got a few cuts and bruises.

Learner example:
She is seriously ill with cancer.
NOT JOKING

[B2] in a way that shows that you are not joking

Dictionary examples:
Seriously now, did he really say that or are you just being silly?
You're not seriously thinking of leaving, are you?

Learner example:
Seriously, Tom, I have noticed that you get angry very easily since your examinations started.

take sb/sth seriously

[B2] to consider a person, subject or situation to be important or dangerous and worth your attention or respect

Dictionary examples:
The police have to take any terrorist threat seriously.
You don't take anything seriously, do you? It's all one big joke to you.
She wants to be taken seriously as an actress.
These young actors take themselves so seriously!

Learner example:
I hope you take my suggestions seriously.

---

servant /ˈsɜː.vənt/

Word family:
Nouns: servant, service
Verbs: serve
Adjectives: self-service

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone who works and lives in someone else's house doing their cooking and cleaning, especially in the past

Dictionary example:
They employed more than 50 servants.

Learner example:
In this book, the author includes a detailed description of the two main characters: the rich English master PHILEAS FOGG and his French servant PASSEPARTOUT.

---

serve /sɜː.v/
VERB

SHOP
[B1] [ɪ] to help customers and sell things to them in a shop

Dictionary example:
Are you being served?

Learner example:
I also learnt a lot about how to serve c[...]mers and how to use a till.

BE USEFUL
[C1] [ɪ] to be useful as something

Dictionary examples:
It's a very entertaining film but it also serves an educational purpose.
The spare bedroom also serves as a study.
He hopes his son's death will serve to warn others about the dangers of owning a gun.
Nothing serves to explain the violent fighting we have seen recently.

Learner example:
As for replanting, it will serve to rejuvenate our forests around Agrinio.

WORK
[C1] [ɪ] or [t] to do work that helps society, for example in an organization such as the army or the government

Dictionary examples:
to serve in the army to serve on a committee/jury
He served as mayor for 5 years.
He always wanted to serve his country.

Learner example:
Women in the former GDR [h]ad the same rights and had to fulfill nearly the same duties (except the duty to serve in the army) as men.

PRISON
[C2] [ɪ] to be in prison for a period of time

Dictionary example:
Williams, 42, is serving a four-year jail sentence.

Learner example:
It all came to me in prison where I was serving a two-year sentence.

serve a/the purpose
[C2] to have a use

Dictionary example:
These small village shops serve a very useful purpose.
Learner example:
They introduced meetings at Miss Kenton's parlour which were held every evening and served [the] purpose of discussing house running.

server /ˈsɜː.vər/

NOUN [C]
[B1] SPECIALIZED a central computer from which other computers get information

Dictionary example:
a network/file server

Learner example:
It was my boss, [who] said "I'm in Australia, and I can't read my e-mail, the server at work crashed.

service /ˈsɜː.vɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: servant, service
Verbs: serve
Adjectives: self-service

NOUN

PUBLIC NEED
[B1] [C or U] a system or organization that provides something that people need

Dictionary examples:
the ambulance/health/postal/prison service
They provide a free bus service from the station.
We hope to be operating a normal service as soon as possible.

Learner example:
I told him to phone the after-sales service.

DEALING WITH CUSTOMER
[B1] [U] when people help you and bring you things in a place such as a shop, restaurant, or hotel

Dictionary example:
The only trouble with this café is that the service is so slow.

Learner example:
I think the Cinemark is the best cinema because it has good service and it is cheap.
EXTRA MONEY
[B2] [u] an amount of money charged for serving a customer in a restaurant, which is often paid directly to the waiter

Dictionary examples:
There is a 10% service charge included in the bill.
Does the bill include service?

Learner example:
The thing which annoyed me the most was [that] they have a 20% service charge, but I refused to pay it because there w[as] no service.

GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT
[B2] [c] a government department that is responsible for a particular area of activity

Dictionary examples:
the diplomatic service
the security services

Learner example:
I was employed in the security service.

ARMED FORCES
[B2] [c or u] the armed forces, or work done in the armed forces

Dictionary examples:
He joined the air force in 1964 and spent ten years in the service.
Most of my family were in the services.
All men under thirty-five were told to report for military service within three days.
Service personnel are subject to the Official Secrets Act.

Learner example:
He finished his military service, and now he was on his way to his family, who had been waiting for him for a long time.

WORK
[C1] [u] the time you spend working for an organization

Dictionary example:
He retired last week after 25 years' service.

Learner example:
In my mind he is the perfect candidate, because due to his long service in the U.S. Army, where superiors are obliged to take care of their subordinates, he was in contact with young people from all kinds of ethnic [backgrounds] and social classes.
session /ˈseʃ.ən/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a period of time or a meeting arranged for a particular activity

Dictionary examples:
The 21-year-old runner twisted his ankle in a training session last Friday.
As the heads of state gathered, the press were allowed in for a photo session.

Learner example:
Last week we had the normal two training sessions and a game against another club.

set /set/

Word family:
Nouns: setting
Verbs: set

VERB (setting, set, set)

STORY/FILM

[B1] [T USUALLY PASSIVE] If a story, film, etc. is set in a particular time or place, the action in it happens in that time or place.

Dictionary example:
'West Side Story' is set in New York in the late 1950s.

Learner example:
It was an adventure story and I liked it a lot because it was set in Australia.

set a date/time (for sth)

[B1] [T] to fix a date or time for something

Dictionary examples:
Juan and Maria have set a date for their wedding – it's going to be on August 31.
Has a time been set for the meeting yet?

Learner example:
I'm going to miss your class tomorrow, but we can set a date to cover the work on.

SUN

[B1] [I] When the sun sets, it moves down in the sky until it cannot be seen.

Dictionary example:
The sun rises in the East and sets in the West.

Learner example:
I loved the thin fog before the sun set.
EQUIPMENT
[B2] [T] to make a piece of equipment ready to be used

Dictionary examples:
The heating is set to come on at 5.00 p.m.
Have you set the video recorder?
I usually set my watch by the time signal on the radio.
He set the alarm for 7.00 a.m.

Learner example:
I had forgotten to set the alarm clock the previous night and by the time I got up it was already 9 o’clock.

BE IN PLACE
[B2] [T] usually passive if something is set somewhere, it is in that place or position

Dictionary examples:
The campsite is set in the middle of a pine forest.
Our house is set back from the road.

Learner example:
The camp is set in a beautiful place in the heart of nature, with lots of opportunities to get out of the camp if you want to.

CONDITION
[B2] [T] to cause something or someone to be in the stated condition or situation

Dictionary examples:
It is believed that the building was set on fire deliberately.
She set fire to her neighbour’s house.
After years in prison, the men who had wrongfully been found guilty of the bombing were finally set free.

Learner example:
A modern zoo must be [like] a forest, without cages, and the animals must be set free.

ACHIEVE
[B2] to give someone something to do or achieve

Dictionary examples:
Our teacher has set us a lot of homework.
He’s set himself the goal/target of making his first million by the time he’s 30.

Learner example:
I suggest it [would] be a good idea to set more projections next year.

set an example
[B2] to do something in a good way so that other people might try to copy you

Dictionary example:
Try to set a good example to the children.
Learner example:
It sets a good example for other museums.

set a record
[B2] to establish the best achievement so far in a sport or competition

Dictionary example:
Bolt has set a new world record.

LEVEL
[C1] to decide the level of something

Dictionary example:
The interest rate has been set at 5%.

Learner example:
In addition to all this, I must point out that our agreement regarding the student discount on all tickets was set at 10%, not 5%, as you mentioned on your handout.

set foot in/on sth
[C1] to go into a place or onto a piece of land

Dictionary example:
He told me never to set foot in his house again.

Learner example:
I dream of being the first one to set foot on a white sandy beach, to admire a new kind of vegetation: cranberry bushes, sweet potatoes, wild turkeys, a different climate; how scary and exciting at the same time!

set guidelines/standards, etc.
[C2] to establish guidelines, standards, etc. that must be followed

Dictionary example:
Our school sets very high standards and most students achieve them.

Learner example:
But I do know that even though my parents were indulgent, affectionate and warm, they still quite clearly set standards on how I was supposed to behave.

set sth down/on, etc.
[C2] to put something somewhere

Dictionary example:
She set the vase down on the table.

set fire to sth; set sth on fire
[C2] to make something start burning, usually to cause damage

Dictionary example:
Enemy troops set fire to the village.
Learner example:
At this point nothing made sense anymore, so I just watched while Jake set the car on fire.

set sail
[C2] to start a journey by boat or ship

Dictionary example:
We set sail for home the next day.

Learner example:
What made things turn from grey to black was that soon after my return I was invited to set sail to the Spanish islands.

set your sights on sth
[C2] to decide to achieve something

Dictionary example:
She’s set her sights on becoming a doctor.

Learner example:
This resemblance was the final silent argument that convinced Wormold to promise Milly the expensive and beautiful horse she had set her sights on.

NOUN [C]

TENNIS
[B2] a part of a game of tennis

Dictionary example:
They won in straight sets.

Learner example:
Finally we managed to win the [second] set so we were equal.

FILM/PLAY
[B2] the place where a film or play is performed or recorded, and the pictures, furniture, etc. that are used

Dictionary examples:
a film set a stage set a set designer
They first met on the set of 'Star Wars'.

Learner example:
Her father, John, was a stuntperson and he died in an unfortunate accident while he was perform[ing] [o]n a film set.

ADJECTIVE

be all set
[C1] to be ready
Dictionary example:
We were all set to go when the phone rang.

Learner example:
So, there you go. I'm all set!

[C2] fixed and never changing

Dictionary examples:
Most people work for a set number of hours each week.
I have no set routine.

Learner example:
Even if there is a set number of standard models, there is always ample room for personal choice according to your taste.

setback /ˈset.bæk/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a problem that makes something happen later or more slowly than it should

Dictionary example:
The project has suffered a series of setbacks this year.

Learner example:
A strong bond between you and your friends, with whom you can have discussions about personal setbacks, is another very vital point.

setting /ˈset.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: setting
Verbs: set

NOUN [c usually no plural]

POSITION
[B2] the position of a house or other building

Dictionary example:
Their cottage is in a beautiful rural setting.

Learner example:
[It is] a beautiful setting with old architecture, trees and glittering water.

BOOK/FILM, ETC.
[B2] the time and the place in which the action of a book, movie, play, etc. happens
Dictionary example:
The play has its setting in a wartime prison camp.

Learner example:
The setting of "The Third Man" is Vienna after the Second World War.

settle /ˈset.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: settlement
Verbs: settle

VERB

LIVE

[B2] [I] to start living somewhere that you are going to live for a long time

Dictionary examples:
After they got married, they settled in Brighton.
He travelled around Europe before finally settling in Rome.

Learner example:
I can understand why you have decided to settle near the Loire Valley, which is one of the greatest part[s] of France.

DECIDE

[B2] [T] to decide or arrange something

Dictionary examples:
Right, that’s settled. We’re going to Spain.
They haven’t yet settled when the wedding is going to be.
"The tickets are £40 each." "Well, that settles that then – I can’t afford that much."
I’d like to get this matter settled once and for all.
The details of the contract have not yet been settled.

Learner example:
I really hope it will not take you long to settle the matter.

ARGUMENT

[C1] [T] If you settle an argument, you solve the problem and stop arguing.

Dictionary examples:
My father and I have agreed finally to settle our differences.
It took months to settle the dispute/strike.

Learner example:
Caroline and her husband had had an argument last week, but as he was going to be away for a few days, they had finally settled their differences.
SNOW/DUST, ETC.

[C1] [i] to move to a lower level and stay there

Dictionary examples:
The house had been empty for years, and dust had settled on all the surfaces.
Do you think the snow will settle?
The contents of this packet may settle.

Learner example:
Whenever I have cleaned my shelves you can just watch the dust settle on them.

PAY

[C2] [r] If you settle a bill or a debt, you pay the money that you owe.

Dictionary example:
I've got some bills to settle.

Learner example:
Many individuals are caught overspending when they check their credit card statements, later having to borrow from money lenders to settle their bills.

settlement /ˈset.l.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: settlement
Verbs: settle

NOUN [C]

AGREEMENT

[C1] an official agreement that finishes an argument

Dictionary example:
a peace settlement

Learner example:
All employees working for the public transport went on strike a week ago, and there is no settlement in sight.

ARRANGEMENT

[C2] an arrangement to end a disagreement without taking it to a court of law

Dictionary example:
They reached an out-of-court settlement.

Learner example:
Hoping for a settlement without having to involve the courts, I remain.
PLACE
[C2] a town or village which people built to live in after arriving from somewhere else

Dictionary example:
a Jewish settlement

Learner example:
The traditional style of small living communities in tribes cannot be sustained, since the farmlands around a settlement cannot provide the people with sufficient food and work.

seventy /ˈsev.ənti/

NUMBER

(be) in your seventies
[B2] to be aged between 70 and 79

Dictionary example:
Both my parents are in their seventies.

Learner example:
After some minutes, an old man in his late seventies opened the door and told us in his trembling voice that Daisy wasn't at home.

the seventies
[B2] the years from 1970–1979

Dictionary example:
I grew up in the seventies.

Learner example:
The nineties is, indeed, a reverse of the seventies.

severe /səˈvɪər/

Word family:
Nouns: severity
Adjectives: severe
Adverbs: severely

ADJECTIVE

BAD
[B2] extremely bad
Dictionary examples:
a severe chest infection/leg injury/toothache
This is a school for children with severe learning difficulties.
In parts of Africa there is a severe food/water shortage.
There is expected to be a severe frost tonight.

Learner example:
Their life was a severe financial struggle, and Tom’s dream was to run somewhere far away.

STRICT
[B2] a severe person is unfriendly or very strict

Dictionary examples:
She had her hair tied back in a severe style.
The teacher was a small, severe man.

Learner example:
Jane Eyre is sen[t] away to [a] school for orphans. [...] The atmosphere in school is no better, with little food and severe teachers.

severely /səˈvɪə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: severity
Adjectives: severe
Adverbs: severely

ADVERB
[B2] very seriously

Dictionary examples:
Their daughter was severely injured in a car accident.
severely disabled
Job opportunities are severely limited/restricted at the moment.

Learner example:
In spite of trying to repair it, it is still severely damaged.

severity /sɪˈver.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: severity
Adjectives: severe
Adverbs: severely

NOUN [U]
[C2] how severe something is
Dictionary example:
Flights were cancelled owing to the severity of the weather.

Learner example:
In conclusion, we have to accept the severity of the environmental damage, but we should not give up our hopes for a better future.

sew  /səʊ/ (sewed, sewn or sewed)

Word family:
Nouns: sewing
Verbs: sew

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to make or repair clothes by joining pieces of cloth using a needle and thread

Dictionary examples:
My grandmother taught me to sew.
I made this skirt just by sewing two pieces of material together.
She sews all her children's clothes.
He sewed the badge neatly onto his uniform.

Learner example:
Well, I used to sew my clothes on my own.

sewing  /ˈsəʊ.iŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: sewing
Verbs: sew

NOUN [u]
[C1] the activity of joining pieces of cloth together or repairing them with a needle and thread

Dictionary example:
I'm not very good at sewing.

Learner example:
I especially cherish the idea of finding myself in Camelot being a lady in waiting to Queen Guinevere – to spend my days reading, sewing, embroidering, learning about far off places and discoveries, adventures and the latest gossip from the court.
sex  /ˈseks/

Word family:
Nouns: sex
Adjectives: sexual, sexy

NOUN [u]

ACTIVITY
[B1] sexual activity between people

Dictionary examples:
Sex before/outside marriage is strongly disapproved of in some cultures.
She was complaining about all the sex and violence on television.
She’d been having sex with a colleague at work for years.
Most young people now receive sex education at school.
unprotected sex

Learner example:
I hate watching soap operas and thrillers, because they contain too much violence and sex.

MALE OR FEMALE
[B1] the state of being either male or female

Dictionary examples:
What sex is your cat?
Some tests enable you to find out the sex of your baby before it’s born.

Learner example:
The teacher gave me the application form about my name, age, sex, nationality and address.

the opposite sex
[C1] people who are the other sex from you

Dictionary example:
He would never dare to speak to a member of the opposite sex.

Learner example:
This is not only about trying to impress (preferably) a person of the opposite sex, but fashion also gives you a great chance to express yourself.

sexual  /ˈse.kʃ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: sex
Adjectives: sexual, sexy
ADJECTIVE

SEX

[B2] relating to the activity of sex

Dictionary examples:
- a sexual relationship
  Most people remember their first sexual experience.

Learner example:
Before continuing with the story I would like to remind [you] that having sexual relationships was common to everybody in Brave New World.

MALE OR FEMALE

[C1] relating to being male or female

Dictionary examples:
- Sexual equality will not be achieved until there is more provision for childcare.
- Some steps have been taken towards ending sexual discrimination.

Learner example:
But we must not forget that there is still sexual discrimination when women apply for jobs higher up in [a] hierarchy.

sexy /ˈsek.si/

Word family:
Nouns: sex
Adjectives: sexual, sexy

ADJECTIVE

[B2] attractive or exciting in a sexual way

Dictionary examples:
- sexy underwear
- He's very sexy.

Learner example:
Richard was only wearing Levis Jean[s] and a white T shirt but looked so sexy and handsome.

shabby /ˈʃæb.i/

ADJECTIVE

UNTIDY

[C1] looking untidy and in bad condition
Dictionary example:
shabby clothes/furniture

Learner example:
With neither lift nor room service provided our guests had to stay in dirty and shabby rooms on the 4th floor.

UNFAIR
[C2] not fair or not honest

Dictionary example:
She received very shabby treatment from her employers.

Learner example:
Due to such shabby arguments, my adversaries lost the favour of the population.

shade /ʃeɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: shade, shadow

NOUN

NO SUN
[B1] [u] an area where there is no light from the sun and so it is darker and not as hot

Dictionary examples:
I'd prefer to sit in the shade.
The sun was hot, and there were no trees to offer us shade.
The children played in/under the shade of a large beach umbrella.

Learner example:
The shade from huge trees kept me cool and fresh.

COLOUR
[B2] [c] a colour, especially when referring to how dark or light it is

Dictionary example:
a pale/dark shade of grey

Learner example:
Not only was it a beautiful day but the sky was a magnificent shade of blue as well.

a shade
[C1] a small amount

Dictionary example:
He's perhaps a shade taller.
Learner example:
Their salaries are, even when the same job is done, mostly a shade under a man's salary.

COVER
[C2] [c] a cover that stops too much light coming from the sun or from an electric light

Dictionary example:
a lamp shade

Learner example:
You will like sitting there at dark wooden tables, under the light coming from red and white checked lamp shades hanging from the ceiling.

shadow /ˈʃæd.əʊ/

Word family:
Nouns: shade, shadow

NOUN [C or U]

NO LIGHT
[B1] a dark area made by something that is stopping the light

Dictionary examples:
The tree had cast a long shadow.
The children were playing, jumping on each other's shadows.
Jamie followed his mother around all day like a shadow.
This corner of the room is always in shadow.

Learner example:
Suddenly I saw a shadow and as I turned over I noticed that something was moving in the trees.

beyond/without a/the shadow of a doubt [C2] If something is true beyond a shadow of a doubt, it is certainly true.

Dictionary example:
He stole the money, without a shadow of a doubt.

Learner example:
It is beyond the shadow of a doubt that Douglas does not offer her this kind of life.

shake /ʃeɪk/

Word family:
Verbs: shake
Adjectives: shaken
VERB (shook, shaken)

SMALL MOVEMENTS

[B1] [I or T] to move backwards and forwards or up and down in quick, short movements, or to make something or someone do this

Dictionary examples:
A young boy climbed into the apple tree and shook the branches so that the fruit fell down.
Babies like toys that make a noise when they're shaken.
The explosion shook buildings for miles around.
She shook her hair loose from its ribbon.
Every time one of these big trucks goes through the village, all the houses shake.

Learner example:
Every time I got closer to her, my body started to shake a lot.

shake hands

[B1] to hold someone's hand and move it up and down when you meet them for the first time, or when you make an agreement with them

Dictionary examples:
The two leaders smiled and shook hands for the photographers.
I shook hands with him.

Learner example:
I felt embarrassed when all my friends thought they were my friends, so [they] all shook hands with them except me.

FEAR

[B2] [I] If you are shaking, your body makes quick short movements, or you feel as if it is doing so, because you are frightened or nervous.

Dictionary examples:
She was shaking as she opened the letter.
Her voice shook as she spoke about the person who attacked her.
I was shaking in my shoes/boots about having to tell Dad what I'd done.
I was shaking like a leaf before my exam.

Learner example:
She understood that it was absolutely foolish of her to stand there shaking with fear.

shake your head

[B2] to move your head from side to side to mean 'no'

Dictionary example:
I asked him if he wanted to come and he just shook his head.

Learner example:
He just looked at me shaking his head and got into his car and drove off.
VOICE

[C2] [ɪ] If your voice shakes, you sound very nervous or frightened.

Dictionary example:
He looked pale, and his voice shook as he spoke.

Learner example:
"Excuse me, my name is Heathcliff Moore, I'm a musician", he approached the owner with shaking voice.

shaken /ˈʃeɪ.kən/

Word family:
Verbs: shake
Adjectives: shaken

ADJECTIVE

[C2] shocked and upset

Dictionary example:
They were not injured in the accident, but they were badly shaken.

Learner example:
After that encounter with her old classmate she felt shaken and upset.

shall /ʃæl/

MODAL VERB

I/we shall...
[B1] FORMAL used to say what you are going to do in the future

Dictionary examples:
I shall be talking to her tomorrow.
I shan't forget to tell them.
I shall look forward to meeting you next week.
So we'll see you at the weekend, shall we?

Learner example:
I shall make sure that the work I miss is completed by borrowing my friend's notes.
shallow /ˈʃæl.əʊ/

ADJECTIVE

NOT DEEP
[B2] not deep

Dictionary examples:
The stream was quite shallow so we were able to walk across it.
She told her children to stay in the shallow end (of the swimming pool).
Fry the onions in a shallow pan.
These beech trees have shallow roots.

Learner example:
A heavy body plunged into the shallow water of harbour No 14.

NOT SERIOUS
[C2] not showing any interest in serious ideas

Dictionary example:
He is a very shallow person.

Learner example:
She is shallow and superficial, and she finds it hard to relate to her husband.

shame /ʃeɪm/

Word family:
Nouns: shame
Adjectives: ashamed, shameful

NOUN

BAD FEELING
[C1] [u] when you feel embarrassed and guilty about something bad that you have done

Dictionary examples:
He said he felt no shame for what he had done.
The children hung their heads in shame.
You can't go dressed like that – have you no shame?
In some societies, if a woman leaves her husband, it brings shame on her and her family.

Learner example:
It destroys the individual, brings shame to his family, and [is] a liability instead of an asset to his society.
shameful  /ˈʃeɪm.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: shame
Adjectives: ashamed, shameful

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Something shameful is bad and should make you feel embarrassed and guilty.

Dictionary example:
shameful scenes

Learner example:
What a shameful way of wasting natural resources!

shape  /ʃeɪp/

NOUN [C or U]

PHYSICAL FORM
[B1] the physical form of something made by the line around its outer edge

Dictionary examples:
a circular/rectangular shape
You can recognize trees by the shape of their leaves.
Very few people are really happy with their body shape.
These bricks are all different shapes.
Kim’s birthday cake was in the shape of a train.
My bicycle wheel has got bent out of shape.
This T-shirt has been washed so many times that it's lost its shape.
A triangle is a shape with three sides.

Learner example:
Well, it looks like yours, you know, the same size and shape.

in good/bad, etc. shape
[B2] in good/bad, etc. health or condition

Dictionary example:
She runs every day so she’s in great shape.

Learner example:
I am of the opinion that if you are in good shape and the distance is not too much, you should leave the car at home and use the bike.

keep in shape
[B2] to stay healthy and physically strong
Dictionary example:
It's important to keep in shape.

Learner example:
We want to keep in shape, and we are interested in a gym – do you have one or is there one close to there?

all shapes and sizes
[C2] many different types of people or things

Dictionary example:
We saw people there of all shapes and sizes.

Learner example:
Personal Challenges come in all shapes and sizes.

out of shape
[C2] not healthy or physically strong

Dictionary example:
Since I stopped cycling, I'm very out of shape.

Learner example:
I no longer run and it has been more than a year since the last time I raced, [so] I am out of shape.

take shape
[C2] to start to develop and become more clear or certain

Dictionary example:
The project is slowly beginning to take shape.

Learner example:
It is high time that their dreams took shape!

VERB [T]
[C2] to influence the way that something develops

Dictionary examples:
Many people are not able to shape their own destinies.
My relationship with my father played a major part in shaping my attitude towards men.
He was very influential in shaping the government's economic policy/strategy.

Learner example:
Therefore, in my opinion, we are shaped greatly by the people in our surroundings.
share /ʃeə/

VERB [I or T]

FEELING/EXPERIENCE, ETC.

[B1] If two or more people or things share a feeling, quality or experience, they both or all have the same feeling, quality or experience.

Dictionary examples:
We share an interest in sailing.
All hospitals share some common characteristics.
I don’t share your views/beliefs.
Management and the union both share in the responsibility for the crisis.
She knew that he was the person she wanted to share her life with.

Learner example:
Her name is Gulia and I met her at the University. She is very nice, and we share many interests, so we gave each other our phone numbers.

DO TOGETHER

[B2] If two or more people share an activity, they each do some of it

Dictionary examples:
Shall we share the driving?
We shared the preparation for the party between us, so it wasn’t too much work.

Learner example:
Ask your employer and other colleagues to share the work.

share your problems/thoughts/ideas, etc.

[C1] to tell someone your problems/thoughts, etc.

Dictionary example:
Would you like to share your thoughts with the group, Donald?

Learner example:
I have received your letter asking for my opinion about the Conference and have decided to write and share some of my thoughts.

NOUN [C]

PART

[B2] a part of something that has been divided

Dictionary examples:
The total bill comes to £80, so our share is £20.
We must make sure that everyone gets equal shares of the food.
The party’s share of the vote fell from 39% to 24%.
She’s not doing her share of the work.
We must all accept some share of the responsibility.
your (fair) share of sth
[C2] a lot of something and enough of it, usually something bad

Dictionary example:
We've had our fair share of rain already this summer.

Learner example:
It wasn't as if Jean hadn't seen his fair share of dead bodies, but these ones were far more, well, disgusting, than anything before.

BUSINESS
[C2] one of the equal parts that the value of a company is divided into when it is owned by a group of people

Dictionary examples:
to buy/sell shares
We own shares in a number of companies.
Share prices have fallen for the third day running.

Learner example:
It is no longer the consumer but the shareholder who must be kept happy, in order to keep the share price high, and the simple worker pays the price.

shark  /ʃɑːk/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large fish with very sharp teeth

Dictionary examples:
a great white shark
The movie 'Jaws' is about a man–eating shark.

Learner example:
By the way, this ocean was full of sharks, our guide said.

sharp  /ʃɑːp/

Word family:
Verbs: sharpen
Adjectives: sharp
Adverbs: sharply, sharp

ADJECTIVE

ABLE TO CUT
[B1] having a very thin or pointed edge that can cut things
Dictionary examples:
a sharp knife
sharp teeth/claws/fingernails
The point of this pencil isn't sharp enough.

Learner example:
My heart was broken by a knife, a sharp, hot knife, but I don't feel pain, I don't feel anything, I just want to die and forget about everything.

a sharp rise/increase/drop, etc.
[B2] a sudden and very large increase or reduction in something

Dictionary examples:
a sharp drop in temperature
a sharp decline in the standard of living
There was a sharp rise/increase in the number of flu cases.

Learner example:
If you have in mind my recommendations you will see a sharp increase in the number of students.

MIND
[B2] quick to notice and understand things

Dictionary example:
a sharp mind

Learner example:
She is an elderly woman who seems to be very weak but with an extrem[e]ly sharp mind.

CLEAR
[C1] A sharp image is very clear.

Dictionary example:
a photograph in sharp focus

Learner example:
Quite the opposite, FFIX features beautiful pre–rendered 3D landscapes, along with real time characters: words are useless for describing such an achievement: the colo[u]rs are vivid, sharp, the animations are smooth...

a sharp contrast/difference, etc.
[C2] a very big and noticeable difference between two things

Dictionary example:
These luxurious surroundings were a sharp contrast to his home life.

Learner example:
Always willing to accomodate the need of the customers, the service of "Zithos" draws a sharp contrast with the often insolent and disco[u]teous conduct of employees in other restaurants.

a sharp pain
[C2] a sudden, short, strong pain
Dictionary example:
I felt a sharp pain in my leg.

Learner example:
All that Tom remembered afterwards was the loud noise of the braking tyres, a sharp pain in his legs and then darkness.

a sharp bend/turn, etc.
[C2] a sudden large change in the direction you are travelling

Dictionary example:
The vehicle came off the road at a sharp bend.

Learner example:
While my aunt was slowing down at a sharp bend, I distracted her [and] she lost control of the car.

ADVERB

SUDDENLY
[C1] suddenly or immediately

Dictionary example:
After the library, turn sharp left/right.

Learner example:
At the bus-stop you have to go straight on through the one-way street, then turn sharp left until you reach the staggered junction, [w]here you will see a taxi [rank].

EXACTLY
[C1] exactly at the stated time

Dictionary example:
The performance will begin at 7.30 sharp.

Learner example:
You have to wake him up at 8.00 AM sharp.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>sharpen /ˈʃɑː.pən/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Verbs: sharpen
Adjectives: sharp
Adverbs: sharply, sharp

VERB [T]

MAKE SHARP
[C2] to make something sharper

Dictionary example:
to sharpen a knife/pencil
Learner example:
For example, to write properly with a pencil, you need to sharpen it, but, for what purpose are you sharpening it?

MAKE BETTER
[C2] to make something better or stronger

Dictionary examples:
Recent changes have sharpened competition between the airlines.
I hope this course will help me sharpen my computer skills.

Learner example:
In fact, teachers and professors give us the opportunity to broaden our knowledge, sharpen our critical thought and in general to cultivate our mind and soul.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: sharpen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: sharp</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: sharply, sharp</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

shattered /ˈʃæ.t.əd/

ADVERB

[B2] quickly and suddenly

Dictionary examples:
Inflation has risen/fallen sharply.
His health improved/deteriorated sharply this week.

Learner example:
In the last few years, the trend of owning a mobile phone has increased sharply.

ADJECTIVE

UPSET

[C2] very upset

Dictionary example:
She was absolutely shattered when she failed the exam.

Learner example:
How many times have we confessed to ourselves that we feel emotionally shattered just because we cannot buy the all the rage luxurious bag on which we set our eyes the other day?
TIRED
[C2] very tired

Dictionary example:
By the time I got home I was absolutely shattered.

Learner example:
Now, sitting in the comfortable armchair, he did not feel shattered anymore.

shave /ʃeɪv/

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to cut hair off your face or body with a razor

Dictionary examples:
John has to shave twice a day.
I always shave my legs in the bath.
Do you shave under your arms?
When my dad shaved his beard (off), he looked ten years younger.

Learner example:
The other men shave the man who is getting married.

shed /ʃed/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a small building, usually made of wood, used for storing things

Dictionary examples:
a garden shed
a tool/bicycle shed

Learner example:
It was hidden in a shed that hardly anybody ever entered.

VERB (shedding, shed, shed)

shed tears
[C1] to cry

Dictionary example:
I shed a few tears when he left.

Learner example:
She was too preoc[c]upied to talk to anybody and she had shed so many tears that she could cry no more.
shed light on [C2] to provide new information about something that makes it easier to understand

Dictionary example:
As an economist, he was able to shed some light on the situation.

Learner example:
In my opinion, a more complex evaluation of our attitude towards work will shed light on the process of work choice and it will give a greater amount of awareness to everyone.

sheer /ʃɪə/

ADJECTIVE

EXTREME
[C1] used to emphasize how strong a feeling or quality is

Dictionary examples:
a look of sheer delight/joy sheer determination/hard work

Learner example:
My mind was filled with nothing else but the sheer joy about soon becoming acquainted with something entirely new and completely unfamiliar plus the eager anticipation about meeting my host-family.

LARGE
[C1] used to emphasize the large size or amount of something

Dictionary example:
The delays are due to the sheer volume of traffic.

Learner example:
Allow me to start by saying that one day, which may not lie so far off in the future, people will visit the buildings which were formerly known as “Educational Institutions” like we visit museums today to gape at the sheer size of the Dinosaurs...

STEEP
[C2] very steep

Dictionary example:
a sheer cliff face

Learner example:
Mountaineering takes you on a swaying journey through stark contrasts, from the serenity of a peaceful dense forest to sheer cliff edges and peaks.
sheet  /ʃiːt/

NOUN [C]

FOR BED

[B1] a large piece of cloth put on a bed to lie on or under

Dictionary example:
I've put clean sheets on the bed.

Learner example:
I have a big bed with silk sheets.

shell  /ʃeɪl/

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] the hard outer covering of some creatures and of eggs, nuts, or seeds

Dictionary examples:
Brazil nuts have very hard shells.
A piece of shell fell into the cake mixture.
the shell of a snail/crab/tortoise a shell necklace

Learner example:
Mainly I collect books, postcards, dolls, silver bracelets and sea shells.

shelter  /ˈʃel.tə/

NOUN

PLACE

[B2] [C] a place that protects you from bad weather or danger

Dictionary example:
an bomb shelter

Learner example:
We all ran to hide [in] the little shelter we had built.

PROTECTION

[B2] [U] protection from bad weather or danger

Dictionary example:
We took shelter from the rain in a doorway.
Learner example:
John told me it was a [place] where we could find shelter.

VERB

shelter from/in/under, etc.

[C2] to go under a cover or inside a building to be protected from bad weather or danger

Dictionary example:
They went under a tree to shelter from the rain.

shield /ʃiːld/

NOUN [c]

OBJECT

[C2] a large, flat object that police officers and soldiers hold in front of their bodies to protect themselves

Dictionary example:
The police protected themselves with shields.

Learner example:
The breed of white-skinned men that, every season, crammed in cars, campers, buses, boats or charter planes, leave their lands to ravage distant shores toting cameras and sun block as the barbarians of old held sword and shield.

VERB [t]

[C1] to protect someone or something from something dangerous or unpleasant

Dictionary example:
to shield your eyes from the sun

Learner example:
On the other hand, children raised by wealthy families are believed to be so "well-pampered" that they are shielded from the harshness of real problems – such as poverty or malnutrition.

shift /ʃɪft/

VERB

CHANGE

[C1] [i or t] to change an idea, attitude, etc.
Dictionary examples:
We are trying to shift the emphasis from curing illness to preventing it.
Media attention has shifted recently onto environmental issues.

Learner example:
Since the 1990s, though, the situation has shifted.

MOVE STH
[C1] [t] to move something to another place

Dictionary example:
We need to shift all these boxes into the other room.

Learner example:
We are very pleased with the idea of shifting the changing rooms and sauna [to] by the pool and having the coffee bar extended where the changing rooms and sauna are at present.

NOUN
WORK
[B2] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] a period of work in a place such as a factory or hospital, or the people who do that work

Dictionary examples:
As the night shift leave/leaves, the day shift arrive/arrives.
Are you on the night shift or the day shift?

Learner example:
I worked there in two shifts, in the mornings and in the evenings, for approximately 8–10 hours a day.

CHANGE
[C1] a change in something

Dictionary example:
There has been a dramatic shift in public opinion on this matter.

Learner example:
Proposal: Improving Zurich's transport and housing facilities Census results of the last three decades have shown a shift in families' preferences on where to live.

shine  /ʃaɪn/

Word family:
Verbs: shine
Adjectives: shiny
VERB (shone or shined, shone or shined)

PRODUCE LIGHT

[B1] [i] to produce bright light

Dictionary examples:
The sun was shining brightly through the window.
Is that light shining in your eyes?

Learner example:
The weather was good and the sun was shining.

REFLECT

[C1] [i or T] If a surface shines, it reflects light, and if you shine it, you make it reflect light.

Dictionary example:
She polished her shoes until they shone.

Learner example:
I was so glad to see that little key shining in that box.

DO WELL

[C2] [i] to do something very well, usually better than other people.

Dictionary example:
It was in art that he really shone.

Learner example:
Hard-working, intelligent, brave children can make the country shine in future.

EYES/FACE

[C2] [i] If your eyes or face shine, you look happy, healthy, or excited.

Dictionary example:
His eyes were shining with excitement.

Learner example:
For if we refer back to the poem, Mother Teresa certainly displays all of the qualities mentioned in that poem: on most of the photos showing her, she is smiling radiantly, her wrinkled face shining with bliss.

shiny /ˈʃaɪ.ni/

Word family:

Verbs: shine

Adjectives: shiny

ADJECTIVE

[B1] A shiny surface is bright because it reflects light.
Dictionary examples:
beautiful shiny hair shiny black shoes a shiny silver dollar

Learner example:
I prefer shiny tops and blue trousers.

shiver  /ˈʃɪvər/

VERB [i]
[B2] to shake because you are cold or frightened

Dictionary examples:
She shivered with cold.
The poor dog – it's shivering!

Learner example:
She was shivering not only because of the cold, but also because she had no idea what she was going to tell him.

send shivers/a shiver down your spine
[C2] to make you feel afraid or excited

Dictionary example:
The sound of his voice sent shivers down my spine.

Learner example:
Simply looking at her sent shivers down his spine – there was the love of his life, the dearest woman on good old Earth, that he's never met before.

shock  /ʃɒk/

Word family:
Nouns: shock
Verbs: shock
Adjectives: shocked, shocking

NOUN

SURPRISE
[B1] [c or u] a big, unpleasant surprise

Dictionary examples:
We got a nasty shock when he gave us the bill.
Her death came as a terrible shock to him.
They are still in shock from the accident.
Learner example:
I was in shock. I read the letter again and again, the last part of the text said 'Don't forget'.

ELECTRICITY
[C2] [c] (also electric shock) a sudden, painful feeling that you get when electricity flows through your body

Dictionary example:
I got a bad shock from the plug.

Learner example:
When their eyes [met] each others, both sensed some kind of electric shock, and they knew they were made for each other.

MOVEMENT
[C2] [c] a sudden movement caused by an explosion, accident, etc.

Dictionary example:
Further shocks have been felt in the area today.

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to surprise and upset someone

Dictionary examples:
The advertisements were designed to shock – that was the whole point of the campaign.
I think it shocks him to hear women talking about sex.
The news of the accident shocked the family deeply.

Learner example:
They hardly could believe it, although that American woman always wants to shock them...

shocked /ʃɒkt/

Word family:
Nouns: shock
Verbs: shock
Adjectives: shocked, shocking

ADJECTIVE
[B1] very surprised and upset

Dictionary examples:
After his announcement, there was shocked silence.
We were shocked to see smoke pouring out of the roof.

Learner example:
I was surprised and shocked.
shocking /ˈʃɒk.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: shock
Verbs: shock
Adjectives: shocked, shocking

ADJECTIVE
[B1] offensive, upsetting or immoral

Dictionary examples:
The sex scenes in the book were considered very shocking at the time when it was published.
There are few crimes more truly shocking than the murder or abuse of children.

Learner example:
The news was shocking but at the same time this fact will change our life.

shoot /ʃuːt/

Word family:
Nouns: shooting
Verbs: shoot

VERB (shot, shot)

WEAPON
[B1] I [i or t] to injure or kill a person or animal by firing a bullet from a gun at them

Dictionary examples:
If he's not armed, don't shoot.
The kids were shooting arrows at a target.
She was shot three times in the head.
A policeman was shot dead in the city centre last night.
The troops were told to shoot to kill.

Learner example:
We really had a good time, but when we were coming back home a man, whose a face I couldn't see, shot Ana and she fell down on the street.

SPORT
[B1] I to try to score points in sports such as football by hitting, kicking, or throwing the ball towards the goal

Dictionary example:
He shot from the middle of the field and still managed to score.

Learner example:
A[fter] I shot my first goal for this team they started to talk to me.
FILM
[C1] [fɪlm] to use a camera to record a film or take a photograph

Dictionary examples:
We shot four reels of film in Egypt.
The film was shot on location in Southern India.

Learner example:
Britney's was shot in a studio and she, hypothetically, was on Mars.

shoot across/out/up, etc.
[C2] to move somewhere very quickly

Dictionary examples:
She shot across the road without looking.
She shot past me several metres before the finishing line.

shooting /ˈʃuː.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: shooting
Verbs: shoot

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] | when a gun is fired, or when someone is injured or killed by a bullet from a gun

Dictionary examples:
We heard some shooting in the night.
There have been a number of shootings in the capital this week.

Learner example:
He liked shooting very much and once [he went] [in] to the forest he didn't come back.

shop /ʃɒp/

Word family:
Nouns: shop, shopping
Verbs: shop

VERB [ɪ] (−pp−)
[B1] to buy things in shops

Dictionary examples:
I like to shop at Harrods for clothes.
If I'm just shopping for food, I tend to go to the local supermarket.
Learner example:
I’d like to go out with you to shop [for] clothes.

shopkeeper /ˈʃɒpˌkiː.pə/

NOUN
[C]
[B2] someone who owns or manages a small shop

Dictionary example:
Local shopkeepers say business is good at the moment.

Learner example:
One of the major disadvantages is that the shopkeepers would have to work [until] midnight or perhaps on bank holidays.

shore /ʃɔː/

NOUN
[C or U]
[B1] the area of land along the edge of the sea or a lake

Dictionary examples:
You can walk for miles along the shore.
The boat was about a mile from/off (the) shore when the engine suddenly died.

Learner example:
We were on the fourth floor, where you can see the sea[shore] and also the mountains behind.

short /ʃɔːt/

Word family:
Nouns: shortage, short
Verbs: shorten
Adjectives: short
Adverbs: shortly, short

ADJECTIVE

be short of sth
[B1] to not have enough of something

Dictionary examples:
to be short of space/time
We’re a bit short of coffee – I must get some more.
Learner example:
Because I was short of money, I [said] yes.

NAME
[B2] describes a name that is used as a shorter form of a name

Dictionary examples:
Her name’s Jo – it’s short for Josephine.
Her name’s Josephine, or Jo for short.

Learner example:
There is even a strange disease called Chronic Fatigue Syndrome (CFS for short).

at short notice
[C1] only a short time before something happens

Dictionary example:
I had to give a speech at very short notice.

Learner example:
The fact that the speech by the famous actor was cancelled at short notice was disappointing.

NOUN in short
[C1] in a few words

Dictionary example:
In short, we need more staff.

Learner example:
In short, ancient Chinese poems, mainly from the Jang Dynasty, constitute the background for Chinese culture and set a touchstone for judgement in our life.

ADVERB
to cut a long story short
[C1] to mention only the final result or point of something without going into other details

Dictionary example:
To cut a long story short, he never played baseball again.

Learner example:
Well, to cut a long story short, let’s say tuition yes, facilities no.

cut sth short or cut short sth
[C2] to have to stop doing something before it is finished

Dictionary example:
They had to cut the holiday short when her mother was taken ill.
fall short of sth
[C2] to not reach a particular level, but only by a small amount

Dictionary example:
Sales for the first half of this year fell just short of the target.

Learner example:
Furthermore, it cannot be denied that public transport falls short of the target set during the planning process.

fall short of sth
[C2] to fail to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
His behaviour falls short of what we expect.
She just fell short of the grades she needed.

Learner example:
This routine was really wearing me out, but, I didn't want to fall short of my parents' expectations.

stop short of sth/doing sth
[C2] to almost do something but decide not to do it

Dictionary example:
She stopped short of accusing him of lying.

---

shortage /ˈʃɔː.tɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: shortage, short
Verbs: shorten
Adjectives: short
Adverbs: shortly, short

NOUN [C]
[B2] when there is not enough of something

Dictionary examples:
There's a shortage of food and shelter in the refugee camps.
The long hot summer has led to serious water shortages.

Learner example:
Due to a shortage of teachers in summer I can [only] take holiday in July.
shortcoming /ˈʃɔːtˌkʌm.ɪŋ/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a fault

Dictionary example:
I like him despite his shortcomings.

Learner example:
However, there were a few shortcomings I would like to mention.

shorten /ˈʃɔː.tən/

Word family:

Nouns: shortage, short

Verbs: shorten

Adjectives: short

Adverbs: shortly, short

VERB [I or T]

[C1] to become shorter or to make something shorter

Dictionary example:
Smoking shortens your life.

Learner example:
Maybe we could shorten the free day to half a day and make use of the other half to bring them out for some sightseeing and familiarisation.

shortly /ˈʃɔː.t.li/

Word family:

Nouns: shortage, short

Verbs: shorten

Adjectives: short

Adverbs: shortly, short

ADVERB

shortly afterwards; shortly after/before sth

[B1] a short time after or before something

Dictionary examples:
I got home at midnight and James arrived shortly afterwards.
Shortly after you left, a man came into the office looking for you.
Learner example:
Shortly afterwards, the door bell rang.

SOON
[B2] soon

Dictionary example:
We will shortly be arriving in King’s Cross Station.

Learner example:
I look forward to hearing from you shortly.

short-sighted /ˈʃɔːtˈsaɪ.tɪd/

ADJECTIVE

SIGHT
[C2] not able to see far without wearing glasses

Dictionary example:
I’m very short-sighted.

Learner example:
He’s awfully short-sighted, almost as blind as a bat, he's extremely fat and suffers from asthma.

THINKING
[C2] not thinking enough about how an action will affect the future

Dictionary example:
a short-sighted policy

Learner example:
In the long run, this short-sighted view of some of the media will result in a total lack of their credibility.

short-term /ˌʃɔːtˈtɜːm/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] lasting a short time, or relating to a short period of time

Dictionary examples:
short-term memory
a short-term weather forecast

Learner example:
Setting up restricted areas for animals is a nice idea, but due to the overall pollution, it is only a short-term solution.
short term /ˈʃɔːtˌtɜːm/

NOUN

in the short term
[B2] over a period of time that only continues for a short way into the future

Dictionary example:
We need to save money in the short term.

Learner example:
You should think in the long term and you shouldn't try to [achieve] all your goals in the short term.

shot /ʃɒt/

NOUN [C]

WEAPON
[B2] ! when a bullet is fired from a gun

Dictionary example:
He fired four shots at the car as it drove off.

Learner example:
Suddenly he heard a shot and the lights went out.

SPORT
[B2] when someone tries to score points in sports such as football by hitting or throwing the ball

Dictionary examples:
And that was a great shot by Lineker!
Nadal's forehand shot down the line won him the match.

Learner example:
I enjoy this sport because it forces me to improve my self control when playing: if I miss a shot, I have to stay very calm because it's the best way to achieve the next shot.

FILM
[B2] a photograph

Dictionary example:
I got/took some really good shots of the harbour at sunset.

Learner example:
[A] few months ago I had [the] chance to work abroad and see some of the Middle Eastern countries, where I took a lot of good shots. should /ʃʊd/

MODAL VERB

BEST

[B1] used to say or ask what is the correct or best thing to do

Dictionary examples:
“Should I apologize to him?”
Where should we meet tonight?
There should be an investigation into the cause of the disaster.
I should have written to her but I haven’t had any time.
It’s getting cold in here. Should I turn the heat up?

Learner example:
Should I call the police?

PROBABLE

[B1] used to say that you expect something to be true or that you expect something to happen

Dictionary examples:
My dry cleaning should be ready this afternoon.
If you follow these directions, you shouldn’t have any trouble finding our house.
I wonder what’s happened to Annie. She should be here by now.
That should be enough food for five people.

Learner example:
I have invite[d] all his friends, [so] we should be 28 people.

why should/shouldn't...?

[B2] used to ask or give the reason for something, especially when you are surprised or angry about it

Dictionary examples:
He wants me to give him my old car, but why should I?
Why shouldn’t she get a new car if she wants one?

Learner example:
And personally I say “why should I read something in a book which I can watch on TV?”

shoulder /ˈʃəʊldər/

NOUN [C]

Body

[B1] one of the two parts of your body where your arms join your neck
Dictionary examples:
I rested my head on her shoulder.
Then she put her arm round my shoulder and gave me a kiss.
She glanced nervously over her shoulder to make sure no one else was listening.

Learner example:
The name of the movie was Ghost ship. It was a horror movie but it was so boring [that] she slept on my shoulder.

a shoulder to cry on [C2] someone who gives you sympathy when you are upset

Dictionary example:
I always had a shoulder to cry on.

Learner example:
I am always there for her and I know I will always have a shoulder to cry on.

have a chip on your shoulder INFORMAL
[C2] to blame other people for something bad that has happened to you and continue to feel angry about it

Dictionary example:
She's always had a real chip on her shoulder because she didn't go to university.

Learner example:
I suppose that I have a chip on my shoulder!

---

shout /ʃaʊt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] when you say something very loudly or make a very loud sound with your voice

Dictionary examples:
He heard an angry shout.
shouts of anger

Learner example:
The only noise we could hear was the shouts of the hero[e]s fighting with terrible monsters coming from space...

show /ʃəʊ/

VERB (showed, shown)

GIVE INFORMATION
[B1] [tr] to give information in a book, on a website, on a piece of equipment, etc.
Dictionary examples:
The pictures show two types of holiday. Talk to your partner about which you would prefer and why.
The right-hand dial shows the temperature, and the left-hand one shows the air pressure. On this map, urban areas are shown in grey.
The latest crime figures show a sharp rise in burglaries.

Learner example:
Secondly, I’d like to tell you that the website is good, but it does not provide all the information we need, [as] it only shows the times of the films for that day and they usually change at the weekends.

show sb what to do/how to do sth
[B1] to teach someone how to do something by explaining it or by doing it yourself while they watch

Dictionary examples:
She showed me how to use the new computer system.
Have you shown him what to do?

Learner example:
Before the performance I introduced the spectators to their seats and then a[n] instructor showed me how to [operate] the spotlights.

PROVE
[B2] [ɪ] If numbers, results, facts, etc. show something, they prove that it is true.

Dictionary examples:
Research shows that 40% of the programme’s viewers are aged over 55.
Sales figures showed a significant increase last month.
She has shown herself (to be) a highly competent manager.
His diaries show him to have been an extremely insecure person.
The diaries show (that) he was very insecure.
Our research has shown (us) how little we know about this disease.

Learner example:
Experiments have even shown some astonishing results, that apes for example have the same abilities as humans.

EXPRESS
[B2] [ɪ] to express a feeling so that other people are able to notice it

Dictionary examples:
He finds it difficult to show affection.
She showed enormous courage when she rescued him from the fire.
You should show your parents more respect/show more respect to your parents.

Learner example:
I think a face can show so much and some day I [hope] I could be[come] a photographer.
EASY TO SEE
[C1] [ɪ ɔr ɪ] to be easy or possible to see, or to make something easy or possible to see

Dictionary examples:
The sadness really shows on her face.
Light-coloured carpets show the dirt.

Learner example:
Their hair was turning grey and their faces showed [the] first wrinkles.

NOUN [c]

PUBLIC EVENT
[B2] an event at which a group of similar things are brought together for the public to see

Dictionary examples:
a fashion/flower show
There were some amazing new cars at the motor show.
They put on a show of his work at the National Museum of American Art.

Learner example:
I do not know if it is possible to make any change[s], but we saw an ad in "Time Out" magazine last week about a fashion show which we would like to see.

on show
[C1] being shown to the public

Dictionary example:
Her designs are currently on show at the Museum of Modern Art.

Learner example:
One of the facilit[ies] that really make[s] a difference is the Art Gallery, with its great exhibition on show, as well as the Art Library.

shower  /ʃaʊər/

NOUN [c]

RAIN
[B1] a short period of rain

Dictionary examples:
You’re soaked! Did you get caught in the shower?
There will be thundery/wintry showers over many parts of the country.
Learner example:
Well the weather was really good during the morning [but] [there were] some showers during the afternoon.

VERB

WASH

[B2] to wash standing under a shower

Dictionary example:
We all showered before breakfast.

Learner example:
Singing is a hobby of mine but unfortunately I can only do it when I'm showering or cleaning up my flat.

shower sb with sth

[C2] to give someone a lot of presents, praise, etc.

Dictionary examples:
He showered her with expensive gifts.
She was showered with compliments after her performance.

Learner example:
As time passes the children start to see a pattern developing, every time that they request time or attention they are showered with expensive clothes or toys to compensate [for] the lack of it.

shrewd /ʃruːd/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] good at judging situations and making decisions which give you an advantage

Dictionary examples:
a shrewd politician
a shrewd business plan

Learner example:
It was only much later that I realised what a shrewd investment on my parent's part this had been.

shrink /ʃrɪŋk/

VERB [I or T] (shrank, shrunk)

[B2] to become smaller, or to make something smaller

Dictionary examples:
Your sweater will shrink if you wash it at too high a temperature.
The company's profits have shrunk from £5.5 million to £1.25 million.
Learner example:
After 5 seconds I started shrinking until I was as small as the smallest toe on my foot.

shrug /ʃrʌɡ/

VERB [I or T] (shrugging, shrugged)
[C2] to move your shoulders up and down to show that you do not care about something or that you do not know something

Dictionary example:
I told him we weren't happy with it but he just shrugged his shoulders.

Learner example:
Martina flushed to the root[s] of her hair and shrugged her shoulders.

shudder /ˈʃʌdər/

VERB [I]
[C2] to shake, usually because you are thinking of something unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
The sight of so much blood made him shudder.
She shuddered at the thought of kissing him.

Learner example:
She shuddered at the memory.

shut /ʃʌt/

VERB [I or T] (shutting, shut, shut)

shut (sth) down or shut down (sth) PHRASAL VERB [B1] If a computer or machine shuts down or someone shuts it down, it stops operating.

Dictionary examples:
Make sure you shut down your computer before you leave.
The crew shut down the right-hand engine of the aircraft.

Learner example:
I was as happy as a lark. I shut down the computer and I called my m[u]m to tell her about the good news.

[B2] If a business or organization shuts down or someone shuts it down, it closes.

2706
Dictionary example:
The company plans to shut down four factories and cut 10 000 jobs.

Learner example:
A great [number] of zoos ought to be shut down.

shut (sb) up PHRASAL VERB INFORMAL [B2] to stop talking or making a noise, or to make someone do this

Dictionary examples:
I wish you'd shut up for a moment and listen to what the rest of us have to say.
Just shut up and get on with your work!
My dad never stops talking. It's impossible to shut him up!

Learner example:
You must still remember that time we walked along the street, singing blues and rock, it's incredible the way that people shouted at us to shut up.

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

CLOSED
[B1] closed

Dictionary example:
I suspected something was wrong when I noticed her curtains were still shut at lunchtime.

NOT SERVING
[B1] (closed) When a shop, restaurant, etc. is shut, it has stopped serving customers and does not allow people to enter it.

Dictionary example:
The post office will be shut now.

Learner example:
On the advertisement it also said you could visit [the] restaurant after the show, and that is what I did, but when I got there it was shut for no reason.

keep your mouth shut
[B2] INFORMAL to not talk about something

Dictionary example:
If you don't keep your mouth shut, there'll be trouble.

Learner example:
She made every effort to keep her mouth shut but it disturbed her to be the only one to know the truth, apart from her brother.
shuttle /ˈʃʌt.l/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a bus, train, plane, etc. which travels regularly between two places, usually a short distance

Dictionary examples:
the London–Glasgow shuttle
There's a shuttle service between the airport and the city centre.

Learner example:
I am convinced that a centre with less traffic and more pedestrianised areas will attract more other people. Especially if there is a parking opportunity outside of the centre with well-organised shuttle buses to the centre.

shy /ʃaɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: shyness
Adjectives: shy

ADJECTIVE (shyer, shyest)
[B1] not confident, especially about meeting or talking to new people

Dictionary examples:
He was too shy to ask her to dance with him.
She gave a shy smile.
Children are often shy of/with people they don't know.
The deer were shy and hid behind some trees.

Learner example:
I was a little shy at first, but I ended up talking too much!

shyness /ˈʃaɪ.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: shyness
Adjectives: shy

NOUN [u]
[C1] the state of being shy

Dictionary example:
When I met the Queen, I was overcome with shyness.

Learner example:
Some of them were encouraged by their work-fellows to overcome their initial shyness.
sibling /ˈsɪb.lɪŋ/

NOUN [C] FORMAL
[C2] a sister or brother

Dictionary example:
I have three siblings.

Learner example:
I am also lucky to have a sibling, an older sister, who took great care of me when we were children.

sick /sɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: sickness
Adjectives: sick

ADJECTIVE

be sick
[B1] to vomit

Dictionary example:
She was sick after she ate too much chocolate.

Learner example:
I feel a little sick and I don’t want to be sick in your lesson.

be sick of sth
[B2] INFORMAL to be bored with or annoyed about something that has been happening for a long time

Dictionary example:
I’m sick of people telling me how to run my life.

Learner example:
Michael was sick of seeing the same story happen all over again.

CRUEL
[C2] cruel and unpleasant

Dictionary examples:
He’s got a sick mind.
a sick joke

Learner example:
It seems to us as if God had got a sick sense of humour.
sickness /ˈsɪk.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: sickness
Adjectives: sick

NOUN [u]

[B2] when you are ill

Dictionary examples:
There’s a lot of sickness around this winter.
She’s had three weeks off for sickness this year.

Learner example:
The simpl[e] joy and happiness will help you to feel in good shape and keep away any sickness.

side /saɪd/

NOUN

NEXT TO

[B1] [u] the area next to something

Dictionary examples:
I have a small table at/by the side of my bed.
He stood at/by her side as she welcomed the guests one by one.

Learner example:
Linda is by my side right now and she asks [me to] send you a warm hug.

PART OF SITUATION

[B2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] part of a situation that can be considered or dealt with separately

Dictionary example:
She looks after the financial side of things.

Learner example:
Finally, I think for me the most important [thing] is to enjoy life – don’t be worried [about] little things and always find the funny side of each situation.

CHARACTER

[B2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] a part of someone's character

Dictionary example:
She has a very practical side.
Learner example:
The film describes the actions of this politician, also saying something not very "Politically Correct", but true: he reveals that no one is always good, everyone has a dark hidden side.

side by side
[B2] If two things or people are side by side, they are next to each other.

Dictionary example:
We sat side by side on the sofa.

Learner example:
It is not rare to see two people walking side by side, both talking on the phone.

from side to side
[B2] If something moves from side to side, it moves from left to right and back again repeatedly.

Dictionary example:
swinging from side to side

Learner example:
I began to understand it when I went [to] Kenya in 1986, because I had the wonderful chance to look at the animals in their natural [surroundings], without being in a cage, walking nervously from side to side.

OPPOSING GROUP
[B2] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] one of the people or groups who are arguing, fighting, or competing

Dictionary examples:
Whose side is he on?
Whenever we argue he always takes Alice's side.
This is a war which neither side can win.
Don't be angry with me – I'm on your side.

Learner example:
I hope you'll be on my side.

OPINION
[B2] [C] a way of considering something, especially when there is disagreement about it

Dictionary examples:
There are at least two sides to every question.
I've listened to your side of the story, but I still think you were wrong to do what you did.

Learner example:
This shows the other side of technology.

look on the bright side
[C1] to find good things in a bad situation
Dictionary example:
Look on the bright side – no one was badly hurt.

Learner example:
I am quite self-confident and I usually look on the bright side, as I am not keen on pessimistic thoughts.

SPORT

[C2] [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] the players in a sports team

Dictionary examples:
He’s been selected for the national side.
Our side lost again on Saturday.

Learner example:
He also plays football for a local side regularly.

put sth to one side
[C2] to not use or deal with something now, but keep it for a later time

Dictionary example:
She put the papers to one side, intending to read them later.

on the side
[C2] in addition to your main job

Dictionary example:
She does a bit of bar work on the side.

Learner example:
At work, they gave her the worst jobs to do. She knew she didn’t have much choice but she still tried to find something else on the side.

RELATIVES
[C2] the part of your family who are either your mother’s relatives or your father’s relatives

Dictionary example:
They tend to be tall on my mother’s side of the family.

Learner example:
Both on my father’s side as well as on my mother’s side of the family we formed a close knit group.

BODY
[C2] the two areas of your body from under your arms to the tops of your legs

Dictionary examples:
Stand with your arms by your sides.
She lay on her side.
at/by your side
[C2] If you have someone at/by your side, they support you and help you.

Dictionary example:
With Dan at my side, I felt I could do anything.

Learner example:
She really needed someone by her side, someone to lean on and share her worries.

---

side effect /ˈsайд.ɪ.fekt/

NOUN [C]

MEDICINE
[C1] another effect that a drug has on your body in addition to the main effect for which the doctor has given you the drug

Dictionary example:
Headaches are one side effect of this drug.

Learner example:
Now, we have come up with something called Phyto essence that is designed to overcome skin problems effectively without causing any harmful side effects.

RESULT
[C2] an extra result of a situation, especially one that you did not plan or expect

Dictionary example:
One side effect of getting a new job is that I can cycle to work and I've lost a lot of weight.

Learner example:
They seem to neglect the growing rate of unemployment and its possible side effects.

---

sideways /ˈsайд.werz/

ADVERB, ADJECTIVE
[C2] in a direction to the left or right, not forwards or backwards

Dictionary examples:
The fence is leaning sideways.
If you would move sideways to the left, I can get everyone in the picture.
Take two sideways steps.

Learner example:
Unaware of all the sideways glances and chatter that paused as she passed, she headed back towards the river.
sigh /sɜː/

VERB [i]

[B2] to breathe out slowly and noisily, often because you are annoyed or unhappy

Dictionary examples:
She sighed deeply and sat down.
"I wish he was here," she sighed.

Learner example:
Having solid ground beneath her feet again she sighed with relief for having survived this adventure.

NOUN [c]

[B2] the sound that is made when someone sighs

Dictionary example:
He read the letter and gave a deep sigh.

Learner example:
I entered the house with a deep sigh!

sight /sɔɪt/

NOUN

ABILITY TO SEE

[B1] [u] the ability to see

Dictionary examples:
If your sight is poor, you should not drive a car.
The old woman has lost her sight.

Learner example:
She had lost her sight although doctors didn't know if it was forever.

the sights

[B1] places of interest, especially to visitors

Dictionary example:
We spent a fortnight in Rome looking at all the sights.

Learner example:
I have many plans, I want to show you all [the] remarkable sights in Georgia.

the sight of sb/sth

[B2] when you see someone or something
Dictionary examples:
The sight of so much blood had shocked him.
The child laughed at the sight of the clockwork toy.
She hated/loathed the sight of her former husband.

Learner example:
Just think; drinking our cold beers against the sight of the pounding waves and feeling the wind on our faces.

AREA SEEN
[B2] [u] the area that it is possible for you to see

Dictionary examples:
You should always keep sight of your bags while you’re at the airport.
I dare not let the children out of my sight in this park.
The police officer was hidden out of sight behind a tree.
The castle came into sight as we went round a bend in the road.
We’re looking for a house which is within sight of the mountains.

Learner example:
Dear Editor, This morning when I opened my newspaper, my eyes caught sight of an article called "Failure of festival", and I read it.

at first sight
[B2] when you first see or hear about something or someone

Dictionary examples:
It may, at first sight, seem a surprising choice.
It was love at first sight!

Learner example:
Nowadays shopping is considered one of the most enjoyable activities, especially if you are a woman and you are out to buy clothes. At first sight it is, but shopping is not always enjoyable.

lose sight of sth
[C2] to forget about an important idea or fact because you are thinking too much about other, less important things

Dictionary example:
We mustn’t lose sight of the original aims of this project.

Learner example:
Little do we realize that in the process we lose sight of the fundamentals, which in this case is the protection of our environment.

set your sights on sth
[C2] to decide to achieve something

Dictionary example:
She’s set her sights on becoming a doctor.
Learner example:
This resemblance was the final silent argument that convinced Wormold to promise Milly the expensive and beautiful horse she had set her sights on.

catch sight of sth
[C2] to see something suddenly, often only for a short time

Dictionary example:
He caught sight of himself in the mirror.

Learner example:
All we could see were people bursting into tears when they caught sight of his coffin.

sign /sain/

NOUN [C]

SHOWING
[B1] something which shows that something is happening or that it exists or is true

Dictionary examples:
Flowers are the first sign of Spring.
His inability to handle the situation is a sure sign of weakness.
The fact that he's eating more is a sign that he's feeling better.
There's no sign of progress with the building work.
Billy's work at school has shown signs of improvement this year.
There is every sign that the worst is over.

Learner example:
The bride and the groom meet at the church because it's a bad sign if the groom sees the bride before the ceremony.

BODY MOVEMENT
[B1] a movement you make to give someone information or tell them what to do

Dictionary examples:
She pointed to her watch as a sign that it was getting late and she wanted to leave.
She made/gave a sign to her husband to stop talking.
The priest made the sign of the cross when he entered the church.

Learner example:
She looked at Paul and made a strange sign with her fingers.

MARK
[B2] a written or printed mark which has a standard meaning

Dictionary examples:
+ and – are mathematical signs.
£ is the sign for the British pound.
no sign of sb/sth

[B2] If there is no sign of someone or something, you cannot see them.

Dictionary examples:
By eight o'clock, there was still no sign of Janne.
She said she'd left the book on the table, but there's no sign of it.

Learner example:
He was supposed to come on Wednesday just like you told me but there was no sign of him.

VERB [I or T]

[B1] to write your name on something to show that you wrote/painted, etc. it or to show that you agree to it

Dictionary examples:
- to sign a letter/form/cheque/contract/agreement
- Sign here, please.
- He signed his name at the end of the letter.
- He signed himself 'Mark Taylor'.
- She said the painting was by Picasso, but it wasn't signed.

Learner example:
It was signed "Fat Boy".

signal /ˈsɪɡ.nəl/

NOUN [C]

ACTION

[B2] a movement, light, or sound which gives information, or tells people what to do

Dictionary examples:
- At a signal from their teacher, the children all held up their flags.
- Don't move until I give the signal.
- The firework was a signal that the festival had started.
- The police officer gave us a signal to stop.
- The signal for a race to start is often the firing of a gun.

Learner example:
The signal was given. We started side by side but soon I overtook him.

WAVE

[B2] a series of light waves or sound waves which are sent to a radio, television, mobile phone, etc.

Dictionary example:
I can't get a phone signal here.
Learner example:
On the other hand you can face problems with signal transmission.

VERB [ɪ or ɪ] (–ll–)

[C2] to make a movement which gives information or tells people what to do

Dictionary examples:
He signalled left, and turned the lorry slowly.
He was signalling with a red flag.
She signalled for help.
She signalled to the cars behind that they were going the wrong way.
The children’s mother signalled them to be quiet.

Learner example:
He signalled his trust[ɪ] and mostly silent cameraman to follow him and decided to go underground.

---

signature /ˈsɪɡ.nə.tʃər/

NOUN [c]

[B1] your name written by yourself, always in the same way, usually to show that something has been written or agreed by you

Dictionary example:
Please put your signature in this box.

Learner example:
I thought it was a joke but when I saw the signature I knew it was for real.

---

significance /sɪɡˈnɪf.ɪ.kən.tʃɪs/

Word family:

Nouns: significance

Adjectives: significant, insignificant

Adverbs: significantly

NOUN [u]

[C1] the importance or meaning of something

Dictionary examples:
I still don’t understand the significance of his remark.
This is a development which has great economic significance for the region.

Learner example:
In spite of the progress achieved in promoting the social status of women, one should not overestimate the significance of these achievements to ordinary women’s careers.
significant /sɪgˈnɪf.ɪ.kənt/

Word family:

Nouns: significance

Adjectives: significant, insignificant

Adverbs: significantly

ADJECTIVE

[B2] important or noticeable

Dictionary examples:
- There has been a significant increase in the number of women students in recent years.
- These measures will save a significant amount of money.
- The talks between the USA and Russia were very significant for the relationship between the two countries.

Learner example:
- One of the most significant inventions is [the] computer.

significantly /sɪgˈnɪf.ɪ.kənt.əli/

Word family:

Nouns: significance

Adjectives: significant, insignificant

Adverbs: significantly

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that is easy to see or by a large amount

Dictionary example:
- My piano playing has improved significantly since I've had a new teacher.

Learner example:
- Also, with today's machines, factories have significantly increased their production.

signpost /ˈsaɪn.pəʊst/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a sign by the side of the road that gives information about routes and distances

Dictionary example:
- Look out for the signpost to the airport.

Learner example:
- There were no signposts and there was no one to ask where he could find a place to stay.
silence  /'sai.lənts/

Word family:
Nouns: silence
Adjectives: silent
Adverbs: silently

NOUN

NO SOUND
[B1] [u] when there is no sound

Dictionary examples:
The three men ate in silence.
A loud crash of thunder broke the silence of the night.

Learner example:
I suppose that you want to relax on your holiday and so I suggest you visit the Alps – some beautiful countryside where you can relax, walk and enjoy the silence and nature.

PERIOD OF TIME
[B2] [cu] a period of time in which there is complete quiet or no speaking

Dictionary example:
There were long silences during the discussion.

Learner example:
The progress of the story is very slow, but the author is describing hard conditions, hard characters [and] long silences, which is quite typical of his way [of writing].

NO TALKING
[C2] [u] a period of time when someone says nothing about a particular subject or when someone does not communicate with someone at all

Dictionary examples:
She ended her silence yesterday and spoke to a TV reporter about the affair.
I took his long silence to mean that I had offended him.

Learner example:
How dared he call her after such a long silence and order her what to do?

silent  /'sai.lənt/

Word family:
Nouns: silence
Adjectives: silent
Adverbs: silently
ADJECTIVE

QUIET

[B1] without any sound

Dictionary example:
The empty house was completely silent.

Learner example:
The countryside, like Chianti, is peaceful and silent.

NO SPEAKING

[B2] without talking

Dictionary examples:
She whispered a silent prayer that her wounded brother would not die.
The police officer told the criminal that he had the right to remain silent.
The minister was silent on/about his plans for the future.
Arthur has always been the strong, silent type.

Learner example:
When they were there, Aunt Patience was obliged by her husband to go to her room and remain silent.

silently /ˈsɪlənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: silence
Adjectives: silent
Adverbs: silently

ADVERB

[B2] without making any noise

Dictionary examples:
She wept silently as she read the letter.
He silently vowed to take revenge.

Learner example:
After waiting silently for two minutes, she dropped the phone.

silk /sɪlk/

NOUN [u]

[B1] a type of cloth which is light and smooth
Dictionary examples:
a silk dress
a silk shirt

Learner example:
Normally, I would prefer my blouses to be made of cotton or silk, as these materials make me [feel] comfortable.

silly /ˈsɪl.i/

ADJECTIVE

LITTLE THOUGHT
[B1] showing little thought or judgment

Dictionary examples:
Don't do that, you silly boy!
a silly mistake
It was silly of you to go out in the sun without a hat.
I feel silly in this dress.

Learner example:
They had some very silly games.

UNIMPORTANT
[B1] small and not important

Dictionary example:
She gets upset over such silly things.

Learner example:
People are so worried about silly things, about how to make money or how to be popular and they forget about what really matters.

similar /ˈsɪm.r.i.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: similarity
Adjectives: similar Adverbs: similarly

ADJECTIVE
[B1] If something or someone is similar to another thing or person, they have many things the same, although they are not exactly the same.
Dictionary examples:
My father and I have similar views on politics.
I bought some new shoes which are very similar to a pair I had before.
Paul is very similar in appearance to his brother.

Learner example:
I can understand how you are feeling because at our age, every teenager has similar problems.

similarity /ˌsɪm.ɪˈlær.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: similarity
Adjectives: similar
Adverbs: similarly

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] when two things or people are similar, or a way in which they are similar

Dictionary examples:
I can see the similarity between you and your mother.
The book bears several striking similarities to last year's bestseller.

Learner example:
Another similarity between the two was their appearance.

similarly /ˈsɪm.ɪ.lə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: similarity
Adjectives: similar Adverbs: similarly

ADVERB
[C1] in a similar way

Dictionary examples:
The children were similarly dressed.
cars must stop at red traffic lights; similarly, bicycles should stop too.

Learner example:
Business people would like to have a car park in the city center, whereas most residents are against it, mainly because of the horrible noise made by cars. Similarly, some students, who are concerned about pollution, prefer the car park to be on the outskirts of the city.

2723 simple  /ˈsɪm.pl/

Word family:
Nouns: simplicity, simplification
Verbs: simplify
Adjectives: simple
Adverbs: simply

ADJECTIVE

NOT COMPLICATED
[B1] plain or not complicated

Dictionary examples:
a simple life
a simple black dress
We had a simple meal of bread and cheese.

Learner example:
You can eat simple food and drink good local wine.

IMPORTANT
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] used to describe the one important fact, truth, etc.

Dictionary example:
We didn't go swimming for the simple reason that the water was too cold.

Learner example:
I'm very fond of working with animals, and the simple reason is that I'm plan[n]ing to become a vet.

simplicity  /sɪmˈplɪs.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: simplicity, simplification
Verbs: simplify
Adjectives: simple
Adverbs: simply

NOUN [u]
[C1] the quality of being simple

Dictionary examples:
The advantage of the plan is its simplicity.
The examination was simplicity itself.
I admire the simplicity of her designs.
Learner example:
Video facilities are rated as quite good [by] the students, and computer programmes have gained almost everybody's compliments for their simplicity and efficacy.

simplification /ˌsɪmplɪˈfɪ.kən/
Word family:
Nouns: simplicity, simplification
Verbs: simplify
Adjectives: simple
Adverbs: simply

NOUN [u]
[C2] the process of making something more simple

Dictionary example:
I think these rules need some simplification.

Learner example:
It might be a simplification and an exaggeration, but as the word says: "The road of excess leads to the tower of wisdom", and although the idea expresses itself in crude terms, I do think there is some truth to it.

simplify /ˈsɪmplɪ.fai/
Word family:
Nouns: simplicity, simplification
Verbs: simplify
Adjectives: simple
Adverbs: simply

VERB [t]
[C1] to make something less complicated and therefore easier to do or understand

Dictionary examples:
the new, simplified tax system
He tried to simplify the story for the younger audience.

Learner example:
The technology has probably simplified life [in] a way that no one could believe was possible about 20 years ago.
simply /ˈsɪmpli/

Word family:
Nouns: simplicity, simplification
Verbs: simplify
Adjectives: simple
Adverbs: simply

ADVERB

EMPHASIS

[B2] used to emphasize what you are saying

Dictionary examples:
We simply don't have the time.
You look simply beautiful in that dress.
The hunger in parts of Africa is terrible – there's (quite) simply no other word for it.

Learner example:
It's said that most of the centre's sports facilities are very expensive, [but] that is simply not true.

ONLY

[B2] only

Dictionary example:
A lot of people miss out on this opportunity simply because they don't know about it.

Learner example:
I am very interested in fashion, simply because it is a style, an attitude, a way of life.

NOT COMPLICATED

[B2] in a way which is not complicated or difficult to understand

Dictionary example:
He explained it as simply as he could, but the class still didn't understand.

Learner example:
Try to organize your work as simply as possible.

simulation /ˌsɪm.ɪˈleɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] a model of something that can be used to teach someone how to do something, or the process of making such a model

Dictionary example:
Students can study a computer simulation of these atomic processes.
Learner example:
Civilisation is one of the best-selling simulation games of all time.

simultaneous /ˌsɪm.əˈlɜːrn.i.əs/

Word family:
Adjectives: simultaneous
Adverbs: simultaneously

ADJECTIVE
[C1] If two or more things are simultaneous, they happen or exist at the same time.

Dictionary example:
simultaneous translation

Learner example:
The people I most admire are simultaneous interpreter[s].

simultaneously /ˌsɪm.əˈlɜːrn.i.əs.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: simultaneous
Adverbs: simultaneously

ADVERB
[B2] at the same time

Dictionary example:
Two children answered the teacher’s question simultaneously.

Learner example:
The floods of information pour towards you and go through your brain simultaneously.

sin /sɪn/

NOUN

RELIGION
[C2] something which is against the rules of a religion

Dictionary examples:
the sin of greed/pride to commit a sin
Learner example:
Nurses and doctors in white or green overalls, smells of drugs and sweating patients, moans of pain during the night, all that was like sending me to hell for a sin I knew nothing about.

MORALLY WRONG
[C2] something that you should not do because it is morally wrong

Dictionary example:
You've only got one life and it's a sin to waste it.

Learner example:
It would be a sin not to grasp the opportunities one is given.

since /sɪnts/

CONJUNCTION

TIME
[B1] from a time in the past until a later time or until now

Dictionary examples:
He's been much happier since he started his new job.
I've known Tim since he was seven.

Learner example:
I was really surprised when I read the e-mail because I haven't heard from you since I visited you last year.

BECAUSE
[B1] because

Dictionary example:
Since we've got a few minutes to wait for the train, let's have a cup of coffee.

Learner example:
Since my mother has surgery tomorrow, I will not [be able to] come to your class.

ADVERB
[B2] from a time in the past until a later time or until now

Dictionary examples:
Emma went to work in New York a year ago, and we haven't seen her since.
He started working for the company when he left school, and has been there ever since.
I've long since forgotten any Latin I ever learned.

Learner example:
It was my grandmother who introduced me to teddy bears and she wanted me to love them as she did. When she died, I got all her bears and have been taking care of them ever since.
sincere /sɪnˈsɪə/

Word family:
Nouns: sincerity
Adjectives: sincere
Adverbs: sincerely

ADJECTIVE

HONEST
[C1] honest and saying or showing what you really feel or believe

Dictionary example:
He seems to be sincere.

Learner example:
During these years I have also found her to be honest, sincere, hard-working and imagin[ative].

sincere apologies/thanks, etc. FORMAL
[C1] used to add emphasis when you are expressing a feeling

Dictionary example:
The family wishes to express their sincere thanks to all the staff at the hospital.

Learner example:
Again, sincere gratitude for your kind work.

sincerely /sɪnˈsɪə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: sincerity
Adjectives: sincere
Adverbs: sincerely

ADVERB

Yours sincerely
[B1] FORMAL used at the end of formal letters where you know the name of the person you are writing to

Dictionary example:
Yours sincerely, Emma Clarke.

Learner example:
I’m going to ask Tom for the [work] I will miss. Yours sincerely,

EMPHASIS
[C1] in a sincere way
Dictionary example:
I sincerely hope that this never happens again.

Learner example:
I sincerely hope that you improve your services.

sincerity  /ˈsɪnər.i.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: sincerity
Adjectives: sincere
Adverbs: sincerely

NOUN [U]
[C2] the quality of being sincere

Dictionary example:
There was no doubting his sincerity.

Learner example:
His sincerity shines through from his poems and it still moves us.

single  /ˈsɪŋ.gl/

ADJECTIVE

single ticket
[B1] a single ticket takes you to a place, but not back again

Dictionary example:
I've only got a single ticket.

Learner example:
Suddenly I was asked to show my single ticket.

single parent
[B1] someone who has a child or children, but no wife, husband or partner living with them

Dictionary examples:
Many single parents find it difficult to get a job.
The number of single-parent families dependent on the state has risen enormously in recent years.

Learner example:
She's a single parent, with 3 children from Australia but she's gorgeous.
every single
[B1] used to emphasize that you are talking about each one of a group or series

Dictionary examples:
I call him every single day.
The decision affected every single one of them.

Learner example:
But we used to play together every single day!

ONE

[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] only one

Dictionary examples:
There was a single light in the corner of the room.
Not a single person offered to help her.
You haven't been listening to a single word I've been saying.

Learner example:
The night was calm and not a single sound was disturbing her.

NOUN [C]
[B1] a ticket for a journey that is from one place to another but not back again

Dictionary example:
Could I have a single to Edinburgh, please?

sink /ˈsɪŋk/

VERB (sank, sunk)

GO DOWN BELOW
[B1] [I or T] to go down or make something go down below the surface of water or a soft substance and not come back up

Dictionary examples:
The Titanic was a passenger ship which sank to the bottom of the ocean in 1912.
The legs of the garden chair sank into the soft ground.
Enemy aircraft sank two battleships.
The dog sank its teeth into the ball and ran off with it.

Learner example:
They w[ere] travelling on the very big ship called "Titanic", [and] the ship sank.

FALL
[B2] [I] to move or make something move to a lower position or level
Dictionary examples:
The sun glowed red as it sank slowly below the horizon.
Student numbers have sunk considerably this year.

Learner example:
Dora's face grew pale and she sank [into] a chair.

sip /sɪp/

VERB [ɪ or ɻ] (sipping, sipped)
[C1] to drink, taking only a small amount at a time

Dictionary example:
She sipped her champagne.

Learner example:
The reasons for my choice are far from being profound: maybe it is only the desire of going back to a time when women [...] could spend all the time brushing their hair or sipping tea, without feeling guilty for wasting their time.

NOUN [c]
[C2] a small amount of drink taken into the mouth

Dictionary example:
He took a sip of his coffee and then continued.

Learner example:
It was a regular afternoon, like all the other summer afternoons in the city, when you gasp for breath and are willing to reveal the secrets of your best friends for a sip of water.

sir /sɜː(r)/ FORMAL

NOUN

FORM OF ADDRESS
[B1] used as a formal and polite way of speaking to a man, especially one who you are providing a service to or who is in a position of authority

Dictionary examples:
Would you like to see the menu, sir?
"Did you hear what I said?" "Yes, sir."

Learner example:
Suddenly, the man with the hat, sunglasses, and mask came to me and said "sir, what is your name?"
Dear Sir

[B2] a way of beginning a formal letter to a man whose name you do not know

Dictionary example:
Dear Sir, I am writing to...

Learner example:
Dear Sir or Madam, With reference to your advertisement in the Wall Street Journal [...]

siren /ˈsaiə.rən/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a piece of equipment that makes a loud sound as a warning

Dictionary example:
a police siren

Learner example:
Almost immediately he heard the police sirens wailing and saw two officers spring from the panda car.

sister-in-law /ˈsɪs.tər.ɪn.ˈlɔː/

NOUN [c] (plural sisters-in-law)
[B2] a woman married to your brother, or the sister of your husband or wife

Dictionary example:
My sister-in-law is a great cook.

Learner example:
So, I and a sister-in-law had to stay with our little sons without any entertainment at the hotel.

sit /sit/ (sitting, sat, sat)

VERB [i]

TEST/EXAM
[B2] to take a test or exam

Dictionary example:
I had to sit an exam the next day.

Learner example:
Visiting you in July is just perfect because schools will have closed and I will have already sat my exams at the English school.
sit sb down/at/in, etc.
[C2] to make someone sit somewhere

Dictionary examples:
She sat me down and told me the bad news.
I thought we'd sit the children at the end of the table.

Learner example:
I wasn't prepared at all when my parents sat me down to tell me that my mother had been diagnosed with cancer, more specifically, a brain tumo[u]r.

site /saɪt/

NOUN [C]

PLACE
[B1] a place where something is, was, or will be built, or where something happened, is happening, or will happen

Dictionary examples:
a building site
The council haven't yet chosen the site for the new hospital.
This is the site of the accident.

Learner example:
I work as a civil engineer on a site.

on site
[C1] inside a factory, office building, etc.

Dictionary examples:
There are two restaurants on site.
They provide on-site childcare facilities for employees.

Learner example:
A small period of training on site is required a few days before the beginning of the job itself and how many interesting people you will meet!

situated /ˈsɪt.ju.ə.tɪd/
ADJECTIVE

be situated in/on/by, etc.
[B1] to be in a particular place

Dictionary example:
The hotel is situated by Lake Garda.

Learner example:
The restaurant is situated beside a river to make it even more wonderful.

situation /ˌsɪt.juˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: situation
Adjectives: situated

NOUN [c]
[B1] the set of things that are happening and the conditions that exist at a particular time and place

Dictionary examples:
the economic/political situation
Her news put me in a difficult situation.
"Would you get involved in a fight?" "It would depend on the situation."
I'll worry about it if/when/as the situation arises.

Learner example:
It was a weird situation.

sixty /ˈsɪk.sti/

NUMBER

(be) in your sixties
[B2] to be aged between 60 and 69

Dictionary example:
I took up yoga in my sixties.

Learner example:
She is in her middle sixties, but still very active and lively.

the sixties
[B2] the years from 1960 through 1969

Dictionary example:
I still love all that music from the sixties.
Learner example:
Another problem is the demolition of old houses that took place during the sixties.

size /saɪz/

NOUN

all shapes and sizes
[C2] many different types of people or things

Dictionary example:
We saw people there of all shapes and sizes.

Learner example:
Personal Challenges come in all shapes and sizes.

skate /skeɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: skate, skating
Verbs: skate

VERB [i]
[B1] to move using skates

Dictionary example:
The ice on the river is thick enough to skate on/across/over.

Learner example:
We skated [for] two or three hours.

skeleton /ˈskelə.tn/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the structure made of all the bones in the body of a person or animal

Dictionary examples:
We found an old sheep skeleton up on the cliffs.
Her long illness reduced her to a skeleton.

Learner example:
In the USA, they enjoy dressing up in costumes, most of the time as skeletons, witches or ghosts.
a skeleton crew/staff/service
[C1] the smallest number of people that you need to keep an organization working

Dictionary example:
The Red Cross has withdrawn all but a skeleton staff from the country.

Learner example:
The life–rescuing services are on call and a skeleton staff remains in all hospitals.

sketch /ˈsketʃ/

NOUN [c]

PICTURE
[C1] a picture that you draw quickly and with few details

Dictionary example:
He did a quick sketch of the cat.

Learner example:
Picasso would start with a lot of preliminary sketches and then go on to paint his final picture where the main figures – a woman and a horse – are screaming in despair.

ACTING
[C1] a short piece of acting about a funny situation

Dictionary example:
They wrote most of their sketches themselves.

Learner example:
It's a partly live show, but it also contains earlier recorded "sketches", often with funny stunts.

DESCRIPTION
[C2] a short description of something without many details

Dictionary example:
He gave us a quick sketch of the situation.

Learner example:
Having seen the call for new subject proposals I'm sending you a preliminary sketch of two new courses.

VERB [T]

sketch sth out PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to give a short description with few details, especially of an idea or plan

Dictionary example:
I've sketched out some ideas for my new book.
Learner example:
The way I would bring up my own children, right now I'm not too sure if I'm ever going to have one or even more, wouldn't differ a great deal from the way I sketched out at the beginning.

ski /skiː/

Word family:
Nouns: ski, skiing
Verbs: ski

NOUN [C] (plural skis)
[B1] one of a pair of long, thin pieces of wood or plastic that you wear on the bottom of boots to move over snow

Dictionary examples:
a pair of skis
ski boots a ski club/resort

Learner example:
We stayed one week in a chalet near the ski resort.

VERB [I] (skiing, skied)
[B1] to move over snow on skis

Dictionary example:
He skied down the hill.

Learner example:
There're two very good places where we can ski, and they aren't crowded!

skilful /ˈskɪl.fʊl/

Word family:
Nouns: skill
Adjectives: skilful, skilled

ADJECTIVE

GOOD AT
[B2] good at doing something

Dictionary examples:
a skilful artist
Police officers have to be skilful drivers.

Learner example:
Indeed they were very popular, because five very skilful and talented teachers did the courses.
DONE WELL
[C1] done or made very well

Dictionary example:
skilful use of language

Learner example:
I do hope that my skilful and smart notes will help you to judge the situation properly.

---

skill /skɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: skill
Adjectives: skilful, skilled

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] an ability to do an activity or job well, especially because you have practised it

Dictionary examples:
Ruth had/possessed great writing skills.
I have no skill at/in sewing.

Learner example:
I want to improve my listening and speaking skills.

---

skilled /skɪld/

Word family:
Nouns: skill
Adjectives: skilful, skilled

ADJECTIVE
[B2] having the abilities needed to do an activity or job well

Dictionary examples:
a highly skilled photographer
My mother is very skilled at/in dressmaking.

Learner example:
I know you [need] some skilled people to build the boat and therefore I hope I can join your club to help you.
skin  /skɪn/

NOUN [C or U]

BODY

[B1] the outer layer of a person or animal's body

Dictionary examples:
dark/fair skin skin cancer
Babies have soft skins.

Learner example:
She's got blue eyes and fair skin.

FRUIT

[B2] the outer layer of a fruit or vegetable

Dictionary example:
a banana/potato skin

Learner example:
Unfortunately, I didn't notice the banana skin, which was lying on the pavement next to me.

skip  /skɪp/

VERB [T]

NOT DO

[B2] to not do something that you usually do or that you should do

Dictionary example:
I think I'll skip lunch today – I'm not very hungry.

Learner example:
He felt a bit sick and so he skipped the meal.

AVOID

[C1] to avoid reading or talking about something by starting to read or talk about the next thing instead

Dictionary example:
I usually skip the boring bits.

Learner example:
This sharpen[s] your translating skills and your vocabulary (since you can't just skip words you don't understand even if you get the general idea).
skull /skʌl/

NOUN [c]

[C2] the part of your head that is made of bone and which protects your brain

Dictionary example:
I fell and cracked my skull.

Learner example:
When she hit his head, like a batsman hitting a six, his skull crushed with an awfully crunchy noise.

slam /slæm/

VERB (−mm−)

CLOSE

[B2] [I or T] to close with great force, or to make something close with great force

Dictionary examples:
The wind made the door/window slam (shut).
Close the door carefully, don’t slam it.

Learner example:
Once the door slammed behind her, the tears came...

slam sth down/onto/into, etc.

[B2] to put something somewhere or to hit something with great force

Dictionary examples:
She slammed the phone down.
He slammed the on when a child ran in front of his car.
He stopped suddenly, and the car behind slammed into him.

Learner example:
Then he slammed down the receiver.

slang /slæŋ/

NOUN [u]

[C1] informal language, often language that is only used by people who belong to a particular group

Dictionary example:
prison slang
Learner example:
That's because communication with natives and not experienced English teachers will probably make you enrich your idiomatic and slang vocabulary [rather] than your academic vocabulary.

slap /slæp/

VERB [v] (−pp−)
[B2] to hit someone with the flat, inside part of your hand

Dictionary examples:
She slapped his face.
She slapped him across the face.
His friends slapped him on the back when he said he was getting married.

Learner example:
She shouted and slapped my face.

NOUN

a slap in the face
[C2] something someone does that insults or upsets you

Dictionary example:
After all that hard work, losing my job was a real slap in the face.

Learner example:
My father noticed that and decided it was high time to take me down a peg or two. He used to work as a volunteer in hospital for children dying for cancer. One day, he took me there. It was like a slap in the face – suddenly I saw a different world. It was a bleak world, without smiles and happy faces.

[C2] a hit with the flat, inside part of your hand

Dictionary example:
She gave the child a slap on the leg.

Learner example:
I do not think that punches and slaps mean love at all.

slash /slæʃ/

NOUN [n]
[B2] a mark (/) used in writing to separate words or numbers, often to show a choice of connection

Dictionary example:
Visit our website, bbc.co.uk/radio4.
slaughter /ˈslaː.tər/

NOUN [u]
[C2] when a lot of people or animals are killed in a cruel way

Dictionary example:
They were sickened by the slaughter they witnessed.

Learner example:
And I think this change must be appreciated both [because of] the fact that a vegetarian diet is healthier and [because] it prevents the slaughter of animals.

slave /ˈsleɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: slave, slavery

NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who is owned by someone else and has to work for them

Dictionary example:
I'm tired of being treated like a slave!

Learner example:
I know you’re lazy sometimes but don’t worry you don’t have to work [like] a slave.

slavery /ˈsleɪ.vər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: slave, slavery

NOUN [u]
[C1] the system of owning slaves, or the condition of being a slave

Dictionary example:
They campaigned for the abolition of slavery.

Learner example:
From the condition of slavery, the Greeks passed to life in a fully developed and democratic country.
sleep

Word family:
Nouns: sleep
Verbs: sleep
Adjectives: asleep, sleepy, sleepless

VERB [i] (slept, slept)

sleep on it
[C2] I to wait until the next day before making a decision about something important so that you can think about it carefully

Dictionary example:
I didn't know what to say to Laura, so I decided to sleep on it.

not sleep a wink
[C2] I to not have any sleep

Dictionary example:
I was so excited last night – I didn't sleep a wink.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, due to the fact that I hadn't slept a wink the previous night, I began to fall asleep.

NOUN

NOT AWAKE
[B1] [u] the resting state in which the body is not active and the mind is unconscious

Dictionary example:
I must get some sleep – I'm exhausted.

Learner example:
After that, I was very tired and went home to get some sleep.

get/go to sleep
[B1] to succeed in sleeping

Dictionary examples:
I couldn't get to sleep at all last night for worrying.
You'll find that your baby usually goes to sleep after a feed.

Learner example:
Since it's quite hot here I bought a fan, I have to use it at night otherwise I can't get to sleep.

PERIOD OF SLEEPING
[B1] [c] a period of sleeping
Dictionary examples:
You must be tired after all that driving – why don't you have a little sleep? He fell into a deep sleep.

Learner example:
I didn't know what to do, so I went for a sleep.

lose sleep over something
[C2] to worry about something

Dictionary example:
I know she's angry with me, but I'm not losing any sleep over it.

Learner example:
[There] was just one house, a magnificent mansion behind a high fence, that bothered me a bit. No-one from there came to meet me. But in the hassle of the first few weeks I was simply too busy to lose any sleep over it.

sleepless /ˈsliːp.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: sleep
Verbs: sleep
Adjectives: asleep, sleepy, sleepless

ADJECTIVE

a sleepless night
[C1] a night when you are not able to sleep

Dictionary example:
He'd spent a sleepless night worrying about his exam.

Learner example:
Most of the rooms we stayed in did not have air-condition[ing], which caused many sleepless nights to the majority of us due to the intense heat.

sleepy /ˈsliːp.i/

Word family:
Nouns: sleep
Verbs: sleep
Adjectives: asleep, sleepy, sleepless

ADJECTIVE

TIRED

[B1] feeling tired and wanting to go to sleep
Dictionary example:
The heat had made me sleepy.

Learner example:
I felt sleepy [during] the film, but Yoshie enjoyed [it].

PLACE
[C1] quiet and with little activity

Dictionary example:
a sleepy little town

Learner example:
I don’t know much about it because it never got into my remote, sleepy village.

sleeve /slıːv/

NOUN [C]

CLOTHING
[B1] the part of a jacket, shirt, etc. that covers your arm

Dictionary examples:
short/long sleeves
The sleeves are too long for me.
You’d better roll your sleeves up or you’ll get them dirty.

Learner example:
I like the rap trousers and T-shirts with long sleeves.

have sth up your sleeve INFORMAL [C2] to have a secret plan

Dictionary example:
They were worried he might have another nasty surprise up his sleeve.

Learner example:
In addition, I would never hit them – parents should always have something up their sleeve to find a humane solution.

slender /ˈslen.dər/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] thin in an attractive way

Dictionary example:
a slender woman with long, red hair
Learner example:
On stage then appeared what I had dreamed of being, when I was a little girl, a princess-looking creature with long black hair, slender body and slow movements.

---

slice /slaɪs/

NOUN

PART

[C2] [NO PLURAL] a part of something, such as an amount of money

Dictionary examples:
We agreed before we did the deal that we'd both take an equal slice of the profit.
The film presents us with a fascinating slice of history.

Learner example:
It difficult to know that nowdays we can kill each other only for an idea or for a slice of land.

VERB [T]

[B2] to cut something into thin, flat pieces

Dictionary examples:
Slice the mushrooms thinly and fry in butter.
Could you slice me a very thin piece of cake/slice a very thin piece of cake for me?

---

slide /slaɪd/

VERB (slid, slid)

slide (sth) across/down/along, etc.

[B2] to move smoothly over a surface, or to make something move smoothly over a surface

Dictionary examples:
He likes sliding on the ice.
He slid the letter into his pocket.
We've got one of those doors in the kitchen that slides open.

Learner example:
I slid down the slope and when trying to brake, the brakes locked.
slight /slært/

Word family:
Adjectives: slight
Adverbs: slightly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] small and not important

Dictionary examples:
We're having a slight problem with our computer system.
I haven't the slightest idea what he's talking about.

Learner example:
To conclude, today's way of eating is not really healthy, but we can notice a slight improvement.

slightly /ˈslaɪt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: slight
Adverbs: slightly

ADVERB
[B2] a little

Dictionary examples:
She's slightly taller than her sister.
I'm slightly upset she forgot my birthday.

Learner example:
Even at night, it will take you only slightly longer to get from A to B, provided you are near the city centre.

slim /slɪm/

ADJECTIVE (slimmer, slimmest)

SMALL
[C2] small and not as much as you would like

Dictionary example:
There's a slim chance he'll succeed.
slip /slɪp/

Word family:
Verbs: slip
Adjectives: slippery

VERB (−pp−)

SLIDE
[B1] [i] to slide by accident and fall or almost fall

Dictionary examples:
She slipped on the ice.
Careful you don't slip – there's water on the floor.
The razor slipped while he was shaving and he cut himself.

Learner example:
But then I slipped and fell down.

slip sth into/through, etc.
[C2] to put something somewhere quickly or secretly

Dictionary example:
She slipped the letter into an envelope and sealed it.

slip out/through, etc.
[C2] to go somewhere quietly or quickly

Dictionary example:
I'll slip out of the room if I get bored.

Learner example:
My mission was to slip out of the ballroom and take pictures of the papers about the plans of Britain regarding the war.

OUT OF POSITION
[C2] [i] to slide out of the correct position

Dictionary example:
The photo had slipped from the frame.

Learner example:
She said, "I got a letter from the hotel today. The diary was in it. It had slipped between the beds."

slip your mind
[C2] If something slips your mind, you forget about it.

Dictionary example:
I meant to tell her Nigel had phoned, but it completely slipped my mind.

Learner example:
There was something but it slipped my mind before I reached it.
slippery /ˈslɪp.ər.i/

Word family:
Verbs: slip
Adjectives: slippery

ADJECTIVE
[C1] smooth and wet and difficult to hold or walk on

Dictionary example:
Be careful – the floor's slippery.

Learner example:
We arrived at the mountain at seven o'clock [in] the morning and because the previous night it [had been] raining, the rocks were slippery.

slogan /ˈsləʊ.gən/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a short phrase that is easy to remember and is used to make people notice something

Dictionary example:
an advertising slogan

Learner example:
Our slogan is "BE CREATIVE".

slope /sləup/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a surface or piece of land that is high at one end and low at the other

Dictionary examples:
There's a steep slope to climb before we're at the top.
a mountain/ski slope

Learner example:
During [the] daytime, we all went up to the slopes for skiing.
slot /slɒt/

NOUN [C]

HOLE

[C1] a long, narrow hole that you put something into, especially money

Dictionary example:
Put the coin in the slot.

Learner example:
Instead of inserting a coin, you put your card in a slot and then dial the number.

TIME

[C1] a period of time that you allow for something in a plan

Dictionary example:
The programme is being moved to a later slot.

Learner example:
Customers will also be able to choose the date and even the time slot for the delivery.

slow /sləʊ/

Word family:
Verbs: slow
Adjectives: slow
Adverbs: slowly

ADJECTIVE

NOT EXCITING

[B2] not exciting

Dictionary example:
I find his films very slow.

Learner example:
The begin[n]ing of the movie is slow, but the last hour is incredible.

be slow to do sth; be slow in doing sth

[C2] to take a long time to do something

Dictionary examples:
The government has been slow to react to the problem.
The ambulance was very slow in coming.

Learner example:
But in the Third World, where birth rates are explosive, the governments, and even more the people, are slow to grasp the problem and act on it.
VERB [I or T]
[C2] to become slower or to make something become slower

Dictionary examples:
Traffic slows to a crawl during rush hour.
The pilot was asked to slow his approach to the runway.

Learner example:
Having said that, I do agree that it is unavoidable to have increasing prices on petrol, in an attempt to slow the rate of depletion of this resource that is not unlimited.

smart /smart/

ADJECTIVE

STYLISH
[B1] having a clean, tidy and stylish appearance

Dictionary examples:
Guy looks very smart in his new suit, doesn't he?
I need a smart jacket for my interview.
She works in a very smart new office overlooking the River Cam.

Learner example:
I don't like smart clothes, but for special days I have a very nice long black skirt.

CLEVER
[B1] intelligent

Dictionary examples:
Gemma's teacher says she's one of the smartest kids in the class.
Why don't you fix it if you're so smart?
I'm not smart enough to understand computers.
He's smart enough to know he can't run the business without her.
Quitting that job was the smartest move I ever made.

Learner example:
He is a very kind, smart, and good person, besides, he is a good son.

TECHNOLOGY
[C1] using computers or information stored in electronic form

Dictionary examples:
a smart phone smart bombs

Learner example:
Some telephones are only operated by "smart cards".
smash /smæʃ/

VERB

[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to break into a lot of pieces with a loud noise, or to make something break into a lot of pieces with a loud noise

Dictionary examples:
Rioters ran through the city centre smashing windows and looting shops.
She dropped her cup and watched it smash to pieces on the stone floor.

Learner example:
Then the two men tried to smash the door [down].

---

smell /smel/

VERB (smelled or smelt, smelled or smelt) smell of/like; smell delicious/horrible, etc.

[B1] to have a particular quality that people notice by using their nose

Dictionary examples:
I've been cooking, so my hands smell of garlic.
That soup smells delicious – what's in it?

Learner example:
When [the rain stops,] you can see the trees and flowers with water on their leaves. And they smell so good!

USE NOSE

[B1] [ɪ] to notice something by using your nose

Dictionary examples:
Come and smell these flowers!
Can you smell something burning?

Learner example:
You can smell the salt of the sea when you arrive.

UNPLEASANT

[B1] [ɪ] to have an unpleasant smell

Dictionary example:
Your running shoes really smell!

Learner example:
Just be car[e]ful, in some places in the countryside it smells really bad.
ABILITY

[B2] [i] to have the ability to notice or discover that a substance is present by using your nose

Dictionary examples:
Humans can’t smell as well as dogs.
What I hate most about having a cold is not being able to smell.

NOUN

CHARACTERISTIC

[B1] [c] the quality that something has which you notice by using your nose

Dictionary examples:
What’s your favourite smell?
I love the smell of orange blossom.
The marketplace was filled with delightful smells.
There’s a delicious smell in here.

Learner example:
The garlic bread is lovely with the smell of garlic.

ABILITY

[B2] [u] the ability to notice smells

Dictionary examples:
Smell is one of the five senses.
Dogs have a very good sense of smell.

UNPLEASANT

[B2] [c] an unpleasant smell

Dictionary example:
I wish I could get rid of that smell in the bathroom.

Learner example:
People who were on the bus wondered where that smell came from.

smile /ˈsmɑːl/

VERB

[B1] [i or τ] to make a happy or friendly expression in which the corners of your mouth curve up
Dictionary examples:
He smiled and shook my hand.
When he smiled at me I knew everything was all right.
I couldn't help smiling when I thought of how pleased she was going to be.
He smiled politely as Mary apologized for her drunken friends.
He smiled to himself as he thought about his new girlfriend.

Learner example:
But he began to smile and explained what [had] happen[e]d to him.

NOUN [c]
[B1] a happy or friendly expression in which the corners of your mouth curve up

Dictionary examples:
Amy had a big/broad smile on her face.
She has a nice smile.
He gave me a smile.
It's nice to be able to bring a smile to people's faces.

Learner example:
He has short dark brown hair, green eyes and [a] wonderful smile.

---

smog /smɒɡ/

NOUN [u]
[C1] air pollution in a city that is a mixture of smoke, gases, and chemicals

Dictionary example:
Smog hung over the city.

Learner example:
This will reduce smog and pollution, which has become an increasing problem for Castlecross.

---

smoke /sməʊk/

Word family:
Nouns: smoke, smoker, smoking
Adjectives: non-smoking, smoky

NOUN [u]
[B1] the grey or black gas that is produced when something burns

Dictionary examples:
cigarette smoke
a tiny smoke-filled pub
She leaned back thoughtfully and blew a puff of smoke into the air.
Learner example:
The boys I met were smoking a lot!! I hate smoke!

smoker /ˈsməʊ.kə/

Word family:
Nouns: smoke, smoker, smoking
Adjectives: non-smoking, smoky

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who smokes tobacco regularly

Dictionary example:
a cigarette/pipe smoker

Learner example:
You can go for a walk, (which is good for you), eat well-balanced food and try not to smoke (if you are a heavy smoker).

smoky /ˈsməʊ.ki/

Word family:
Nouns: smoke, smoker, smoking
Adjectives: non-smoking, smoky

ADJECTIVE
[C2] filled with smoke

Dictionary example:
a smoky bar/room

Learner example:
It was dark, smoky, scruffy and overcrowded!

smooth /smuːð/

Word family:
Adjectives: smooth
Adverbs: smoothly

ADJECTIVE
REGULAR SURFACE
[B1] having a regular surface that has no holes or lumps in it
Dictionary examples:
- soft, smooth skin
- a smooth wooden table
- Mix together the butter and sugar until smooth.
- The road ahead was flat and smooth.
- This cream will help to keep your skin smooth.

Learner example:
The sand is so smooth and the water is so clean!

PROCESS
[C1] happening without problems or difficulties

Dictionary example:
Her job is to help students make a smooth transition from high school to college.

Learner example:
As far as I am concerned, not only will this create a bad public reputation but it will also disturb the smooth running of both the hospital and our charity organisation.

MOVEMENT
[C2] happening without any sudden movements or changes

Dictionary example:
The plane made a smooth landing.

smoothly /ˈsmuːð.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: smooth
Adverbs: smoothly

ADVERB

WITHOUT PROBLEMS
[B2] without any problems or difficulties

Dictionary examples:
Everything was going smoothly before Darren arrived.
All the machinery was running smoothly.

Learner example:
I hope everything goes smoothly.

WITHOUT SUDDEN MOVEMENTS
[C2] without any sudden movements or changes

Dictionary example:
The car accelerated smoothly.
Learner example:
John felt strange unity with his car; the car reacted very smoothly and instantly to every movement he made.

smuggle /ˈsmʌg.l/

VERB [ˈT]
[C1] to take something into or out of a place in an illegal or secret way

Dictionary example:
He was arrested for smuggling cocaine into Britain.

Learner example:
Somehow they manage to get themselves trapped in a vicious circle of crime, under the influence of a magician who forces them to smuggle jewels for him.

snap /snæp/

VERB

BREAK
[C2] [I or T] if something long and thin snaps, it breaks making a short, loud sound, and if you snap it, you break it making a short, loud sound.

Dictionary example:
The twigs snapped as we walked on them.

Learner example:
In January of this year, her right Achilles tendon snapped during a competition and it was uncertain whether she would be able to ski, let alone compete again.

snap (sth) open/shut/together
[C2] to suddenly move to a particular position making a short, loud noise, or to make something do this

Dictionary example:
The suitcase snapped open and everything fell out.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, it was one of those automatic locks, that snap shut as soon as you close the doors, and, after a while he apparently found out that he was trapped inside the cupboard and couldn’t get out.

SPEAK ANGRILY
[C2] [I or T] to say something suddenly in an angry way
Dictionary example:
I was snapping at the children because I was tired.

Learner example:
Your job can be stressful enough without somebody snapping at you all the time.

LOSE CONTROL
[C2] [] to suddenly be unable to control a strong feeling, especially anger

Dictionary example:
She asked me to do the work again and I just snapped.

Learner example:
Something snapped in her, she told herself, "Let's quit my boring job, and make a fresh start!!"

snatch /snætʃ/

VERB [?]
[C2] to take something or someone quickly and suddenly

Dictionary examples:
Bill snatched the telephone from my hand.
The child was snatched from his bed.

Learner example:
He snatched the controls out of her hands and threw them on the floor.

sneak /sniːk/

VERB (sneaked)

sneak into/out/around, etc.
[C2] to go somewhere quietly because you do not want anyone to hear you

Dictionary example:
I sneaked into his bedroom while he was asleep.

Learner example:
He was going to make a photocopy first and then, maybe he could sneak out from the office.

sneak sth into/out of/through, etc.
[C2] to take something somewhere without anyone seeing you

Dictionary example:
We tried to sneak the dog into the hotel.
Learner example:
At these parties some of us sometimes [used to] sneak in some alcoholic drinks like vodka or whiskey.

sneak a look/glance at sb/sth
[C2] to look at someone or something quickly and secretly

Dictionary example:
I sneaked a look at the answers.

sneeze /sniz/

VERB [i]
[B2] When you sneeze, air and often small drops of liquid suddenly come out of your nose and mouth in a way you cannot control.

Dictionary example:
Cats make him sneeze – I think he's allergic to them.

Learner example:
We were sneezing all the time and had a fever.

sniff /snf/

VERB

MAKE A NOISE
[C2] [i] to breathe air in through your nose in a way that makes a noise

Dictionary example:
You were sniffing a lot – I presumed you had a cold.

Learner example:
Suddenly we heard something sniffing. Something was approaching us coming from the darkness. It was a bear.

SMELL
[C2] [i or ɪ] to breathe air in through your nose in order to smell something

Dictionary examples:
He sniffed his socks to see if they needed washing.
Dogs love sniffing each other.
She sniffed at her glass of wine before tasting it.
Dogs are sometimes used at airports to sniff out drugs in people's luggage.
Learner example:
That puppy was the cutest thing: tiny body, with floppy ears, a curious wet nose that wanted to sniff everything on its way, and huge cheerful eyes.

snob /snɒb/

Word family:
Nouns: snob
Adjectives: snobbish

NOUN [c]
[C2] someone who thinks they are better than other people because they are in a higher social position

Dictionary example:
My aunt is such a snob!

Learner example:
Being stylish, whether it concerns cornflakes or shoes, to [the] degree of not having your own opinion, seems to be a pattern of behaviour typical of a teenager or a total snob.

snobbish /ˈsnɒb.ɪʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: snob
Adjectives: snobbish

ADJECTIVE DISAPPROVING
[C2] like a snob

Dictionary example:
a snobbish attitude

Learner example:
Mary’s friends seemed to be snobbish and artificial in their manners to Michael.

snore /snɔː/^

VERB [i]
[B2] to breathe in a very noisy way while you are sleeping

Dictionary example:
He was snoring so much it kept me awake.

Learner example:
You know, we can live together as long as you don’t snore like you did last time.
snow /snəʊ/

VERB [v]

be snowed in
[C2] to be unable to leave a place because there is too much snow

Dictionary example:
We were snowed in for two days.

Learner example:
After being snowed in the following morning, we headed off to Las Vegas.

be snowed under [C2] to have too much work

Dictionary example:
I'm snowed under with college work.

Learner example:
During late winter evenings when you are snowed under at work, this positive change is what keeps you going.

snowboard /ˈsnəʊ.bɔːd/

Word family:
Nouns: snowboard, snowboarding

NOUN [n]
[B1] a large board that you stand on to move over snow

Dictionary example:
I hired a snowboard for the day.

Learner example:
Moreover, I missed my snowboard, so the surfboard, the waves, the sand and the sun were filling this empty place in me.

so /səʊ/

ADVERB

so did we/so have I/so is mine, etc.
[B1] used to say that someone else also does something or that the same thing is true about someone or something else
Dictionary example:
"We saw the new Star Trek movie last night." "Oh, so did we."

Learner example:
My eyes went watery and so did hers but then we laughed at each other.

so far [B1] until now

Dictionary example:
So far we've made thirty-two thousand pounds.

Learner example:
So far I like it here very much.

or so informal
[B1] approximately

Dictionary example:
"How many people were at the party?" "Fifty or so, I guess."

Learner example:
After an hour or so they changed the flight and new people came, the he realised that his suitcase was lost.

if so [B2] if this is the case

Dictionary example:
It might rain this afternoon. If so, we'll have to have the party indoors.

Learner example:
Will you be in time for dinner? If so, I'll cook your favourite dish.

so as to [B2] in order to

Dictionary example:
I always keep fruit in the fridge so as to keep insects off it.

Learner example:
I could come on 8th July so as to be there on Tim's birthday.

to do so
[C1] if you do this, or if this is done

Dictionary examples:
They want to build a completely new school, but to do so would cost far too much.
I would strongly advise you against taking out a loan of this size. To do so would be a great risk to your business.
Learner example:
It is generally believed that if a better education is provided, children are better prepared for adult life. To do so, money is essential.

even so
[C1] used to emphasize that something surprising is true despite what you have just said.

Dictionary example:
Car prices have gone down a lot, but even so, we couldn't afford to buy one.

Learner example:
I'm sure many of these things happened due to bad luck, but even so, there are some arrangements that, I believe, can easily be improved.

so as not to do sth
[C1] used for saying what the purpose of an action is.

Dictionary example:
He went in very quietly so as not to wake the baby.

Learner example:
Secondly, I think we should plan some other kind of activities in case of bad weather and we should have more than one bus with us so as not to waste time in case it breaks down.

so much for...
INFORMAL
[C2] used to say that something has not been useful or successful.

Dictionary example:
"The computer's crashed again." "So much for modern technology."

Learner example:
So much for turkey, crackling and mince pies – we ended up having a Christmas party of our own at Pizza Hut!

only so much/many
[C2] used to say that there are limits to something.

Dictionary example:
There's only so much help you can give someone.

Learner example:
The effects of a longer life span have many side effects such as an increase in the world’s population and, since there is only so much food, many more people are starving to death.

I told you so
[C2] used to say that you were right and that someone should have believed you.

Dictionary example:
He's lazy? I told you so, didn't I?

Learner example:
See, I told you so", Azman said with a grin.
every so often
[C2] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
He went into town every so often to buy supplies.

Learner example:
Elizabeth and others visited her every so often until [one] day she left them.

so far so good INFORMAL
[C2] used to say that something has gone well until now

Dictionary example:
It's the first time I've done any decorating, but so far so good.

Learner example:
So far so good, only no one told us they held this point of view before the actual christening took place.

so to speak
[C2] used to explain that the words you are using do not have their usual meaning

Dictionary example:
That was our accommodation, so to speak.

Learner example:
In those cases, travelling turns into a sort of alienation, so to speak.

CONJUNCTION

so (that)
[B1] in order to make something happen or be possible

Dictionary examples:
He put his glasses on so that he could see the television better.
I deliberately didn't have lunch so (that) I would be hungry tonight.
Leave the keys out so (that) I remember to take them with me.

Learner example:
Could you please give me some extra exercises so that I can cover the work I missed?

soak /səʊk/

Word family:
Verbs: soak
Adjectives: soaked, soaking

VERB [I or T]

PUT IN LIQUID
[B2] If you soak something, or let it soak, you put it in a liquid for a period of time.
Dictionary examples:
Soak the bread in the milk.
He left the pan in the sink to soak.

Learner example:
I was just enjoying [the] warm sand, soaking my feet in cold water, when his shadow obscured the sun.

MAKE WET
[C1] If liquid soaks somewhere or soaks something, it makes something very wet.

Dictionary examples:
The rain soaked my clothes.
The ink soaked through the paper onto the table.

Learner example:
The fish tank had been upended causing the fish to drop dead and the water [had] soaked the fitted carpet.

PHRASAL VERB
soak up sth or soak sth up PHRASAL VERB
[B2] to enjoy the effects of an experience

Dictionary examples:
We arrived early at the festival to soak up the atmosphere.
I spent two weeks in Greece soaking up the sun.

Learner example:
I like a lazy rest, so I took advantage of [the] sunny weather and sandy beach and soaked up the sun all day long.

soaked /səʊkt/

Word family:
Verbs: soak
Adjectives: soaked, soaking

ADJECTIVE
[B2] completely wet

Dictionary example:
My shirt was soaked.

Learner example:
Now it is a pleasure to drive in a warm and dry car, looking at the soaked bicycle riders as you quickly drive by them.
soaking /ˈsəʊk.ɪŋ/

Word family:
- Verbs: soak
- Adjectives: soaked, soaking

ADJECTIVE
- [B2] completely wet

Dictionary examples:
- You’re soaking – why didn’t you take an umbrella?
- The dog was soaking wet.

Learner example:
- Then we arrived at the camp, and we were soaking wet.

soap /səʊp/

NOUN

TELEVISION PROGRAMME
- [B1] [c] (also soap opera) a series of television or radio programmes that continues over a long period and is about the lives of a group of characters

Dictionary example:
- I watch all the soaps.

Learner example:
- But when I’m watching TV, I prefer soaps.

soap opera /ˈsəʊpˌɒp.ər.ə/ (INFORMAL soap)

NOUN
- [B1] a series of television or radio programmes that continues over a long period and is about the lives of a group of characters

Dictionary example:
- She enjoys watching soap operas.

Learner example:
- Do you like soap operas?
soar /sɔː/

Word family:
Verbs: soar
Adjectives: soaring

VERB [i]

INCREASE
[C2] to increase to a high level very quickly

Dictionary example:
House prices have soared.

Learner example:
Not only has the interest from the public soared, but the competitions have also become commercially exploited and are today an integral part of our modern "brand and lifestyle" society.

IN THE SKY
[C2] to move quickly and smoothly in the sky, or to move quickly up into the sky

Dictionary example:
The birds were soaring high above.

Learner example:
Through the windows, a colourful bird could be seen, soaring, swooping, hovering, before disappearing.

soaring /ˈsɔːr.iŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: soar
Adjectives: soaring

ADJECTIVE
[C1] increasing very quickly

Dictionary example:
soaring property prices

Learner example:
This is due to soaring house prices, especially in urban areas.

sob /sɒb/

VERB [i] (-bb-)
[B2] to cry in a noisy way
Dictionary example:
We found her sobbing in a corner.

Learner example:
Suddenly one of our group member[s] started to sob.

sober /ˈsəʊ.bə/

ADJECTIVE

NOT DRUNK
[C2] Someone who is sober is not drunk.

Dictionary example:
She remained sober all evening.

Learner example:
Emma's father was a very wealthy man who had millions in the bank but he was also a violent drunk who was rarely sober.

SERIOUS
[C2] Someone who is sober is serious and thinks a lot.

Dictionary example:
He was in a sober mood.

Learner example:
We rarely see each other and our carefree ness and "joie de vivre" gave way to a more sober at[t]itude towards life, we all have our jobs and our own destiny to take care of.

NOT BRIGHT
[C2] Clothes or colours that are sober are plain and not bright.

Dictionary example:
a sober, grey dress

Learner example:
Peter wore a blue suit and a sober tie.

so-called /ˌsəʊˈkɔːld/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

NOT AS NAMED
[B2] used to show that you think a word that is used to describe someone or something is wrong
Dictionary example:
It was one of his so-called friends who supplied him with the drugs that killed him.

Learner example:
This so-called "Perfect Evening" was so disappointing, as well as discouraging [us from] coming to your Circle Theatre again.

KNOWN AS
[B2] used to show that this is an informal, little known, or new name that something or someone is know as

Dictionary example:
Married taxpayers are hit hard by the so-called marriage penalty.

Learner example:
There are lots of so-called workaholics who suffer from heart-attacks, high-blood-pressure or general nervousness.

---

sociable /ˈsəʊ.ʃə.bl/ APPROVING

Word family:
Nouns: society, socialism, socialist
Verbs: socialize
Adjectives: sociable, social, anti-social

ADJECTIVE

[B1] Someone who is sociable enjoys being with people and meeting new people.

Dictionary examples:
Rob’s very sociable – he likes his parties.
I had a headache and I wasn’t feeling very sociable.

Learner example:
They are all friendly, cool, outgoing, [and] sociable.

---

social /ˈsəʊ.ʃəl/ GOING OUT

Word family:
Nouns: society, socialism, socialist
Verbs: socialize
Adjectives: sociable, social, anti-social

ADJECTIVE

[B1] relating to the things you do with other people for enjoyment when you are not working
Dictionary examples:
I had an active social life when I was at college.
Most British schools organize social events for the students.
I've just become a member of the company's sports and social club.

Learner example:
I recommend [this] because there [is] more social life, nightlife, more fun and face-to-face experiences.

SOCIETY
[B2] relating to society and the way people live

Dictionary examples:
social classes/groups social trends/change/equality/justice/differences

Learner example:
There are ecological, technical, and social problems.

socialism /ˌsəʊ.ʃəl.i.zəm/

Word family:
Nouns: society, socialism, socialist
Verbs: socialize
Adjectives: sociable, social, anti-social

NOUN [u]
[C2] a political system in which the government owns important businesses and industries, and which allows the people to share the money and opportunities equally

Dictionary example:
He is an opponent of socialism.

Learner example:
In his opinion, that would be a fatal mistake (his latest book is "The fatal arrogance: the error of socialism").

socialist /ˌsəʊ.ʃəl.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: society, socialism, socialist
Verbs: socialize
Adjectives: sociable, social, anti-social

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone who supports socialism
Dictionary example:
My parents are socialists.

Learner example:
It was the first time in history that socialists were a majority in the government.

socialize (also UK socialise) /ˈsəʊ.ʃəl.aɪz/*

Word family:
Nouns: society, socialism, socialist
Verbs: socialize
Adjectives: sociable, social, anti-social

VERB [i]

[B2] to spend time enjoying yourself with other people

Dictionary examples:
I tend not to socialize with my colleagues.
I hope Adrian's actually doing some work at college – he seems to spend all his time socializing!

Learner example:
With reference to the accommodation I would rather stay in a tent because I think it is the best way to socialize.

social networking /ˌsəʊ.ʃəlˈnet.wɜːk.ɪŋ/*

NOUN [u]

[B1] using websites to meet people and talk to them

Dictionary example:
He spends a lot of time on social networking sites.

Learner example:
They tend to subscribe to different social-networking websites to communicate with people from all around the world and discuss different issues.

society /ˈsəʊ.sar.i.a.ti/*

Word family:
Nouns: society, socialism, socialist
Verbs: socialize
Adjectives: sociable, social, anti-social
PEOPLE
[B1] [c or u] a large group of people who live in the same country or area and have the same laws, traditions, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a civilized/multicultural society
These changes strike at the heart of British/American/modern society.
There's a danger that we will end up blaming innocent children for society's problems.
We must also consider the needs of the younger/older members of society.

Learner example:
My favourite are Dr. House and CSI, but I also enjoy a good documentary about the rights and wrongs of our society.

ORGANIZATION
[B2] [c] an organization for people who have the same interest or aim

Dictionary examples:
an amateur dramatic society
the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds

Learner example:
I read an article about the "Riding Society of Warlingham" in the local newspaper and I was fascinated by its ideas.

soft /sɔft/

Word family:
Nouns: softness
Adjectives: soft
Adverbs: softly

ADJECTIVE
GENTLE
[B1] not forceful, loud or easily noticed

Dictionary examples:
a soft voice/sound
soft music/lighting

Learner example:
They keep playing soft music to entertain the customers.

have a soft spot for sb/sth
[C2] to like someone or something a lot
Dictionary example:
I've always had a soft spot for her.

Learner example:
I would definitely like to return there because I really enjoy museums and as I have always had a soft spot for art, I can say that that Foundation is my cup of tea.

softly /ˈsoft.li/

Word family:
Nouns: softness
Adjectives: soft
Adverbs: softly

ADVERB
[B1] in a quiet or gentle way

Dictionary example:
She speaks softly but usually gets her own way.

Learner example:
Before go[ing] to bed, they kissed me softly.

softness /ˈsoft.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: softness
Adjectives: soft
Adverbs: softly

NOUN [U]
[B2] the quality of being soft

Dictionary example:
Just feel the softness of the baby's skin!

Learner example:
The room has only a few lamps and the furniture is worn down and has lost its softness.

soil /ˈsoʊl/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] the top layer of earth that plants grow in

Dictionary example:
light/heavy/sandy soil
Learner example:
Many couples with young children and old people prefer fresh grass and natural soil to concrete and cement in a city.

solar /ˈsəʊlər/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] relating to, or involving the sun

Dictionary examples:
solar energy
a solar cell/panel solar heating

Learner example:
It will save a lot of electricity as solar energy is used.

soldier /ˈsəʊl.dʒər/

NOUN [C]
[B1] ! a member of an army

Dictionary examples:
French/Cuban/Turkish/Chinese/American soldiers
Soldiers were patrolling the streets.

Learner example:
My grandfather began to talk: it happened when I was young. I used to be a soldier, part of the quick response forces.

sole /səʊl/

Word family:
Adjectives: sole
Adverbs: solely

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] only or not shared with anyone else

Dictionary examples:
My sole objective is to make the information more widely available.
The sole survivor of the accident was found in the water after six hours.
She has sole responsibility for the project.
Learner example:
Creating a library for this sole purpose would be ideal for our school's language department.

solely /ˈsəʊli/

Word family:
Adjectives: sole Adverbs: solely

ADVERB
[C1] only and not involving anyone or anything else

Dictionary examples:
I bought it solely for that purpose.
It seems he's not solely to blame for the accident.
The product's success cannot be explained solely by the popularity of the ads.

Learner example:
In my opinion, everything depends solely on us and taking everyday decisions determines our future.

solicitor /səˈlɪs.ɪ.tə/

NOUN [C]
[C1] in Britain, a lawyer who gives legal advice and help, and who works in the lower courts of law

Dictionary example:
We got a solicitor to draw up the contract.

Learner example:
If we [do] not hear from you within 10 days we shall be obliged to put the matter in the hands of our solicitors, which is not what we desire.

solid /ˈsɒl.ɪd/

ADJECTIVE
HARD
[B2] hard and firm, without holes or spaces
Dictionary examples:
solid ground/rock
a solid object a solid structure

Learner example:
Having solid ground beneath her feet again she sighed with relief for having survived this adventure.

STRONG
[B2] strong and not easily broken or damaged

Dictionary example:
solid furniture

Learner example:
If you have an accident, you have less chance of getting hurt if you are sitting in a big, solid vehicle.

NOT LIQUID/GAS
[C1] not a liquid or a gas

Dictionary examples:
Liquid and solid waste is collected in the tank.
Freeze the mixture for about 3 hours or so until solid.

Learner example:
Of the total amount of electrical power produced in the world, solid fuel is by far the most important contributor (44%).

solid gold/silver/wood, etc.
[C1] gold/silver/wood, etc. with nothing added

Dictionary example:
a solid silver bracelet

Learner example:
The dark marble is easy to keep clean and the solid brass handles look luxurious.

CERTAIN
[C2] Solid information, proof, etc. is based on facts and you are certain that it is correct.

Dictionary examples:
This provided solid evidence that he committed the crime.
The drama course gives students a solid grounding in the basic techniques of acting.

Learner example:
It may help you, because you have a solid background and plenty of theoretical information which you could use in practice.
solidarity /ˌsɒl.ɪˈdær.ə.ti/

NOUN [u]

[C1] agreement and support between people in a group who have similar aims or beliefs

Dictionary example:
Several lecturers joined the march to show solidarity with their students.

Learner example:
All the people were dancing, singing, laughing and enjoying their time in the company of these beautiful children from poor African streets, with a great sense of solidarity.

solitary /ˈsɒl.ɪ.tri/

Word family:
Nouns: solitude
Adjectives: solitary

ADJECTIVE

ONLY

[C2] A solitary person or thing is the only person or thing in a place.

Dictionary example:
a solitary figure/walker

Learner example:
What is more, a star should remain with the people despite her or his celebrity, and bear in mind the old and perhaps worn–out, but none the less true comparison: a general without a faithful army is just a solitary soldier amid the field.

DONE ALONE

[C2] A solitary activity is done alone.

Dictionary example:
solitary walks

Learner example:
It was a month–long solitary journey through India.

solitude /ˈsɒl.ɪ.tjuːd/

Word family:
Nouns: solitude
Adjectives: solitary
Noun [u]
[C1] being alone

Dictionary example:
He went upstairs to read the letter in solitude.

Learner example:
You'll find true solitude and a place for serious contemplation of life's big questions.

---

solo /ˈsəʊ.ləʊ/

Adjective [always before noun]; Adverb
[B2] done alone by one person only

Dictionary examples:
a solo performance/flight to sail/fly solo
He used to play with a group but now he has gone solo/has a solo career.

Learner example:
They all started with a solo career.

---

Noun [c] (plural: solos)
[B2] a piece of music for one person or one instrument

Dictionary examples:
a trumpet solo
Parker’s solo on 'A Night in Tunisia' was so amazing that the pianist backing him simply stopped playing.

Learner example:
They were amazing, the drummer was so fast – when he was playing the drum solo, I couldn’t even see his hands and his drum sticks.

---

solution /ˈsə.ˈlu.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: solution
Verbs: solve
Adjectives: unsolved

---

Noun [c]
[B1] the answer to a problem
Dictionary examples:
There's no easy solution to this problem.
She just seems so unhappy and I don't know what the solution is.
When you finish doing the crossword, the solution is on the back page.
They help you talk through your problems but they don't give you any solutions.

Learner example:
I was pleased with the solution.

solve /səlv/

Word family:
Nouns: solution
Verbs: solve
Adjectives: unsolved

VERB [T]
[B1] to find the answer to something

Dictionary examples:
to solve a problem
to solve a mystery/puzzle
Just calm down – shouting won't solve anything!
This strategy could cause more problems than it solves.
Police are still no nearer to solving the crime.

Learner example:
You will help me to solve this problem, won't you?

some /sʌm/

DETERMINER

LARGE AMOUNT
[B2] a large amount or number of something

Dictionary examples:
It'll be some time before we meet again.
It was some years later when they next met.
We discussed the problem at some length.

Learner example:
It's some years ago now, sixteen years I think.

NOT USING NAME
[C1] used to refer to a particular person or thing without stating exactly which one
Dictionary examples:
Some lucky person will win more than $1 000 000 in the competition.
Some idiot's locked the door!
There must be some way you can relieve the pain.

Learner example:
Maybe you hate the memory of these boring literature classes at school, but I'm sure each of you is interested in some subject or other.

somehow /ˈsʌm.haʊ/

ADVERB

WAY NOT KNOWN

[B1] in a way or by some means which is not known or not stated

Dictionary examples:
It won't be easy, but we'll get across the river somehow.
Somehow or other, we'll get the money.

Learner example:
I don't know exactly what happened but somehow I managed not to fall in [the lake].

REASON NOT CLEAR

[B2] for a reason which is not clear

Dictionary example:
I know what we're doing is legal, but somehow it doesn't feel right.

Learner example:
I did not know who was talking to me but somehow I knew that it must be an urgent matter. Why else [w]ould a stranger wake me in the middle of the night?

something /ˈsʌm.θɪŋ/

PRONOUN

be/have something to do with sth/sb

[C1] to be related to something or a cause of something but not in a way which you know about or understand

Dictionary example:
It might have something to do with the way it's made.

Learner example:
Well, it has something to do with politics, but as you know, I don't understand a word of it because I don't care about it.
be something INFORMAL

[C2] to be a thing which is important, special, or useful

Dictionary examples:
The President visiting our hotel – that would really be something.
It's not much but it's something.

Learner example:
My God I thought this woman sure was something.

something like

[C2] similar to or approximately

Dictionary example:
He paid something like $2000 for his car.

Learner example:
He earns something like £100,000 a week or even more.

something of a sth

[C2] used to describe a person or thing in a way which is partly true but not completely or exactly

Dictionary examples:
It came as something of a surprise.
He has a reputation as something of a troublemaker.

Learner example:
I had always thought Peter Murphy was something of a mummy's boy.

somewhat /ˈsʌm.wɒt/ FORMAL SLIGHTLY

ADVERB

[C1] slightly

Dictionary examples:
The resort has changed somewhat over the last few years.
She's somewhat more confident than she used to be.
We were somewhat tired after our long walk.

Learner example:
We found the written article to be somewhat inaccurate, since several facts were mistaken and others were blown out of proportion.
somewhere /ˈsʌm.wee/)

ADVERB

somewhere around/between, etc.
[B2] approximately

Dictionary examples:
Somewhere between 900 and 1100 minor crimes are reported in this city every week.
It will take us somewhere between three and four hours to get to Madrid.
The company's annual turnover is somewhere around £70.7 million.

Learner example:
The gathering will take place somewhere between the first and second week of the month, so you can come somewhere around then.

son-in-law /ˈsʌn.ɪn.lɔ/)

NOUN [c] (PLURAL sons-in-law)
[B2] your daughter's husband

Dictionary example:
My son-in-law helped me mend the fence.

soon /su:n/

ADVERB

as soon as [B1] at the same time or a very short time after

Dictionary example:
As soon as I saw her, I knew there was something wrong.

Learner example:
As soon as the rain stopped, I called my friend and we all continued walking in the park, and we all enjoyed ourselves.

sooner or later
[B2] used to say that you do not know exactly when something will happen, but you are certain that it will happen

Dictionary example:
Sooner or later she's going to realize what a mistake she's made.
Learner example:
Anyway I think that sooner or later you will have problems with your heart or stomach.

no sooner ... than
[C1] used to show that something happens immediately after something else

Dictionary example:
No sooner had we got home than the phone rang.

Learner example:
No sooner had I entered a pub than the waitress smiled warmly at me.

would sooner
[C2] would prefer

Dictionary example:
I'd sooner spend a bit more money than take chances with safety.

Learner example:
However, with many living examples of unemploye[d] [people] getting by on benefits, some young people have been influenced to think that they would sooner live on benefits than work all week and receive moderate wages.

---

soothing /ˈsuː.ðɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] making you feel calm or in less pain

Dictionary example:
We listened to some soothing music.

Learner example:
The appropriate "lounge" music would only add to the soothing and relaxing effect that this scenery would have on us and would probably go unnoticed.

---

sophisticated /soʊˈfɪs.tɪ.kə.tɪd/

ADJECTIVE

WITH EXPERIENCE
[B2] well-educated and having experience of the world or knowledge of culture

Dictionary examples:
She was slim, svelte and sophisticated.
I don't suppose I have any books that would suit your sophisticated tastes.
He was older than me and from London and I thought him very sophisticated.
Learner example:
Her conversation was very sophisticated.

ADVANCED
[B2] A sophisticated machine or system is very advanced and works in a clever way.

Dictionary examples:
I think a more sophisticated approach is needed to solve this problem.
These are among the most sophisticated weapons in the world.

Learner example:
These days we can use [a] computer, television [or other] sophisticated equipment.

sore /sɔːr/

ADJECTIVE PAINFUL
[B1] painful, especially when touched

Dictionary examples:
I've got a sore throat.
My feet were sore with all the walking.
All the dust has made my eyes sore.

Learner example:
I'll miss the class, because I've got a sore throat.

a sore point
[C2] a subject which causes disagreement or makes people angry when it is discussed

Dictionary example:
Money is a bit of a sore point with him at the moment.

Learner example:
The family gathering was a bit of a sore point.

sorrow /ˈsɔːrəʊ/

NOUN [u] FORMAL
[C2] when someone feels very sad

Dictionary example:
He expressed his sorrow at the news.
Learner example:
Perhaps being smart and over-achieving may sound like an offer that is too tempting to turn down, but it is as much of a burden as it is a blessing. These qualities bring forth the worst in one's peers, leading to loneliness and sorrow.

sorry /ˈsɒr.i/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

feel sorry for [B1] to feel sympathy for someone because they are in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I feel so sorry for the children – it must be really hard for them.

Learner example:
Anyway, I feel sorry for her and I wonder: what would I do if I were her?

SAYING NO
[B2] used to show politeness when refusing something or disagreeing

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry but I think you've made a mistake.
I'm sorry, I can't agree.
I'm sorry, but I just don't think it's a good idea.
Sorry, you can't go in there.

Learner example:
I am sorry, but I completely disagree with the comments you have [made about] the festival.

sort /soːt/

NOUN

that sort of thing
[B1] used to show that what you have just said is only an example from a larger group of things

Dictionary example:
They sell souvenirs, postcards, that sort of thing.

Learner example:
I also enjoy using new clothes for the first time, but I prefer buying other stuff like electronic devices or that sort of thing.

sort of INFORMAL [B2] used to describe something approximately
Dictionary examples:
It's a sort of pale orange colour.
They were sort of waving.

Learner example:
I sort of felt like I had done my part to make the concert a suc[c]ess.

VERB [T]

ORDER
[B2] to arrange things into different groups or types or into an order

Dictionary examples:
Paper, plastic and cans are sorted for recycling.
I'm going to sort these old books into those to be kept and those to be thrown away.
You can use the computer to sort the newspaper articles alphabetically, by date, or by subject.

soul /səʊl/

NOUN

SPIRIT
[B2] [c] the part of a person which is not their body, which some people believe continues to exist after they die

Dictionary example:
She suffered greatly while she was alive, so let us hope her soul is now at peace.

Learner example:
Finally, two very old and serious aunts, a friend of the[irs], my Grandma and a [retired] couple from our neighbourhood were ready to call any soul from heaven to talk to us.

PERSON
[B2] [c] informal a person

Dictionary example:
I didn't see a soul when I went out.

Learner example:
Unlike a year ago, she did not tell a soul.

body and soul
[C2] used to emphasize that someone does something with all their effort and energy

Dictionary example:
They entered into the relationship body and soul.
Learner example:
If nowadays women are, for [the] vast majority, working, it occurs to me that some of them are not willing to devote themselves body and soul to their work.

keep body and soul together
[C2] to be able to pay for your food, clothing and somewhere to live

Dictionary example:
His wages are barely enough to keep body and soul together.

Learner example:
Not only does he keep body and soul together, but he is [o]n good terms with his wife.

---

sound /saʊnd/

NOUN [C or U]

the sound of sth INFORMAL [C2] how something seems to be, from what you have been told or heard

Dictionary examples:
I like the sound of the beef in red wine sauce.
He's really enjoying college, by the sound of it.

safe and sound
[C2] completely safe and without injury or damage

Dictionary example:
After three days lost in the mountains, all the climbers arrived home safe and sound.

Learner example:
So, by the time you read this letter I'll probably be safe and sound in Liverpool.

VERB

sound like/as if/as though
[B1] to seem like something, from what you have heard or read

Dictionary examples:
That sounds like a really good idea.
It sounds like you've got a sore throat.
It sounds as if they had a good holiday.

Learner example:
It sounds like your new trousers are very nice.

sound angry/happy/rude, etc.
[B2] to seem angry, happy, rude, etc. when you speak
Dictionary examples:
He sounded very depressed when we spoke on the telephone yesterday.
At the press conference, he sounded at his most relaxed.

Learner example:
He sounded so excited!

soundtrack /ˈsaʊnd.træk/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the music used in a film or a television programme

Dictionary example:
The film's soundtrack includes music by Bob Marley.

Learner example:
The first time I heard it was in a movie, named "8 Mile". This song was the soundtrack of that movie.

sour /səʊər/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] having a sharp, sometimes unpleasant, taste or smell, like a lemon, and not sweet

Dictionary examples:
sour cream
sweet and sour sauce
These plums are a bit sour.

Learner example:
The sauce often is made of sour cream and a lot of butter.

source /sɔːs/

NOUN [C]
COMES FROM
[B2] where something comes from Dictionary examples:
a source of heat/energy/light
Oranges are a good source of vitamin C.
Experts are trying to track down the source of the contamination in the water supply.
We walked up the river to its source in the hills.
Money is often a source of tension and disagreements in young married couples.

Learner example:
Fish is a great source of vitamins.

PERSON
[C1] someone who gives information to the police, newspapers, etc.

Dictionary example:
The story came from a source within government.

Learner example:
For the next report, I advise you to get the correct information from the source.

southeast (south–east) /ˌsaʊθˈiːst/

NOUN [u]
[B1] the direction which is between south and east, or the southeast part of a country

Dictionary example:
We live in the southeast.

Learner example:
The south and the southeast are the backbone of the Brazilian economy so there are lots of malls, department stores and very good nightlife.

ADJECTIVE
[B1] in the southeast, or facing towards the southeast

Dictionary example:
Kent is in the southeast corner of England.

southern (also Southern) /ˈsʌðən/

Word family:
Nouns: south
Adjectives: south, southern Adverbs: south

ADJECTIVE
[B1] in or from the south part of an area
Dictionary examples:
a southern route
the Southern Hemisphere

Learner example:
Later we went to the "Waldsee", in the southern part of Freiburg.

southwest (south–west)  /ˌsaʊθˈwest/

NOUN [u]
[B1] the direction which is between south and west, or the southwest part of a country

Dictionary example:
The wind was coming from the southwest.

Learner example:
I remember the day we went to Sarlat, a lovely town in the south–west of France.

ADJECTIVE
[B1] in the southwest, or facing towards the southwest

Dictionary example:

Learner example:
I live in [a] village in [the] south–west part of Poland.

souvenir  /,suːˈvənɪr/

NOUN [c]
[B1] something which you buy or keep to remember a special event or holiday

Dictionary example:
I kept the ticket as a souvenir of my trip.

Learner example:
There is a well–known place near the hotel were you can buy souvenirs and chocolates.

sow  /səʊ/

VERB [t] (sowed, sown, sowed)
[C1] to put seeds into the ground
Dictionary example:
to sow seeds/crops

Learner example:
Farmers had to plough, sow and harvest cotton on their own, using their labour and hands.

soya /ˈsoːə/

NOUN [u]
[C1] a substance made from beans and used to make many foods

Dictionary example:
This milk is made from soya.

Learner example:
[We offer] a huge range of soya products, energy bars, jam and spreads, suitable for diabetic[s], and a good choice of herbal teas.

space /ˈspeɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: space
Adjectives: spacious

NOUN

BEYOND EARTH
[B1] [u] the area outside the Earth's atmosphere, where the planets and the stars are

Dictionary examples:
space exploration/travel
a space rocket
Who was the first human being in space/the first to go into space?

Learner example:
Recently I watched a fantastic programme about space, all the planets, [and] the stars.

AREA AROUND
[B2] [u] that which is around everything that exists and which is continuous in all directions

Dictionary examples:
He was absent-mindedly staring/gazing into space.
Virtual Reality aims to give us artificial worlds to explore, outside normal space and time.
Learner example:
Just think of this one example when you go to visit a zoo and you see the elephant or the tiger or lion walking up and down and up and down in their "prison" and staring into space.

spacious /ˈspeɪ.ʃəs/

Word family:
Nouns: space
Adjectives: spacious

ADJECTIVE
[C1] large and with a lot of space

Dictionary example:
a spacious apartment/office

Learner example:
The rooms are spacious enough but they are very cold and that means that during the winter we have to wear many clothes in order to stay warm.

spade /ˈspɛd/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a tool with a long handle and a flat, metal part at one end used for digging

Dictionary example:
I need a spade to move all this earth.

Learner example:
He put his provisions and the most neccessary tools in his rucksack and took down his favourite spade, for this was not just any ordinary dig.

spam /spæm/

NOUN [U]
[C1] emails that you do not want, usually advertisements

Dictionary example:
Most of the emails I receive are spam.
spear /ˈspeər/

ADJECTIVE

EXTRA

[B1] If something is spare, it is available to use, because it is extra and not being used.

Dictionary examples:
a spare key/tyre
Have you got a spare pen?
We've got a spare room if you want to stay overnight with us.
Could I have a word with you when you've got a spare moment/minute?
"Do you want this cake?" "Yes, if it's going spare."

Learner example:
You know I'm not good at writing letter[s], [but] do write [to] me if you have a spare minute.

VERB

GIVE

[C1] [t] to give time or money to someone

Dictionary examples:
I have to go soon, but I can spare a few minutes.
Can you spare me some change?

Learner example:
Thank you for sparing your time to read my letter and I look forward to the next edition of your newspaper.

to spare

[C1] If you have time, money, etc. to spare, you have more than you need.

Dictionary example:
I arrived at the station with more than an hour to spare.

Learner example:
I even started to do the shopping on the Net, and I think this is the perfect solution for the business[es] woman with family and little time to spare.

spare no effort/expense, etc.

[C2] to use a lot of effort/expense, etc. to do something

Dictionary example:
We will spare no effort to find out who did this.

Learner example:
"However, there is a remote chance that you can be cured and we will spare no pains in order to help you," he was told.
spare a thought for sb
[C2] to think about someone who is in a bad situation

Dictionary example:
Spare a thought for all the people who have lost their homes.

Learner example:
At this point, we should spare a thought for those who are not involved in the sport world.

spark /spɑːk/

NOUN [C]

FIRE
[C2] a very small, bright piece of burning material

Dictionary example:
The fire was caused by a spark from a cigarette.

Learner example:
As the last spark ceased to glow, all the people stood up and sang the Canadian national anthem.

START
[C2] a small idea or event which causes something bigger to start

Dictionary example:
a spark of hope/inspiration

Learner example:
And with this spark of enthusiasm for faster food, some (to me unknown) genius came up with the Microwave oven, designed to cook most things in under 5 minutes.

VERB [T] (also spark off)
[C2] to cause an argument, fight, etc. to start happening

Dictionary examples:
to spark a debate/protest to spark criticism/fears

Learner example:
Please notice that I am not blaming alcohol as the origin of the problem, rather, I am blaming it because it sparks off a reaction that worsens the problem.
sparkling /ˈspɑr.klɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE

sparkling water/wine
[B1] water/wine with bubbles in it

Dictionary example:
Would you like still or sparkling water?

SHINING
[B2] shining brightly because of reflected light

Dictionary example:
sparkling diamonds

Learner example:
Finally, my college is not far from the coast, where you [will] find beautiful beaches and the sparkling, blue sea.

SPECIAL
[C1] special or exciting

Dictionary examples:
a sparkling performance
sparkling conversation

Learner example:
After, [it's] time for lunch with a lot of Champagne (for a more sparkling atmosphere!).

sparsely /ˈspaː.sli/

ADVERB
[C2] with small amounts and scattered over a large area

Dictionary example:
This whole area is very sparsely populated.

Learner example:
A lot of these young people usually come from sparsely populated areas and want to move to a major city in order to be where things are happening.
speak /spiːk/ (spoke, spoken)

Word family:
Nouns: speaker, speech
Verbs: speak
Adjectives: speechless

VERB

speak about/of sth
[B1] to talk about something

Dictionary examples:
He refused to speak about the matter in public.
In the interview she spoke of her sadness at her mother’s death.

Learner example:
They filmed the headmistress of our school. She spoke about the school's activities.

generally/personally, etc. speaking [B2] used to explain that you are talking about something in a general/personal, etc. way

Dictionary example:
Well, generally speaking, it’s quicker if you take the train.

Learner example:
Generally speaking, the best way to keep fit is to live a healthy life.

IN PUBLIC
[B2] [] to make a speech to a large group of people

Dictionary example:
She was invited to speak at a conference in Madrid.

Learner example:
[O]n behalf of all its members, I would like to invite you to speak at one of our meetings.

speak for/on behalf of sb
[C1] to express the feelings, opinions, etc. of another person or a group of people

Dictionary example:
I've been chosen to speak on behalf of the whole class.

Learner example:
I am sure that I speak on behalf of the rest of the members of this club.

so to speak
[C2] used to explain that the words you are using do not have their usual meaning

Dictionary example:
That was our accommodation, so to speak.
Learner example:
In those cases, travelling turns into a sort of alienation, so to speak.

speaks for itself
[C2] If something speaks for itself, it is clear and needs no further explanation.

Dictionary example:
The school's excellent record speaks for itself.

Learner example:
On the one hand the economic success of sports events speaks for itself.

speak volumes
[C2] If something speaks volumes, it makes an opinion, characteristic or situation very clear without the use of words.

Dictionary example:
She said very little, but her face spoke volumes.

Learner example:
It remains to be seen whether the effect of stem cells when applied to humans would be the same, but the achievements speak volumes about the fact that stem cells may one day turn a new [page] in many people's lives and let them get rid of that humiliating label of a "disabled person."

speak your mind
[C2] to say exactly what you think without worrying if it will upset anyone

Dictionary example:
She has very strong opinions and she's not afraid to speak her mind.

Learner example:
His father is even more eccentric, speaks his mind and has no manners at all.

not be on speaking terms
[C2] to not speak to someone because you have argued with them

Dictionary example:
My brother and I aren't on speaking terms.

Learner example:
Just imagine how many are those who hate their relatives or at least one of their relatives and aren't even on speaking terms with them or him.

speaker /ˈspiː.kər/

Word family:
Nouns: speaker, speech
Verbs: speak
Adjectives: speechless
NOUN [C]

PERSON
[B1] someone who can speak English/French, etc.

Dictionary example:
He's a fluent Russian speaker.

Learner example:
I think I'm going to be an English speaker sooner than I expected.

IN PUBLIC
[B1] someone who makes a speech to a group of people

Dictionary examples:
a good public speaker
Please join with me in thanking our guest speaker tonight.

Learner example:
The speaker told me many things about feeding birds.

---

special /ˈspeʃ.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: specialist, speciality
Verbs: specialize
Adjectives: special
Adverbs: specially

ADJECTIVE

special offer
[B1] a price which is lower than usual

Dictionary example:
There's a special offer on sunglasses this week.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, they have stopped their special offer "1 month [for Euro] 100" and I know that you want to stay fit. As soon as they make a new offer I will let you know and then you [can] join us!

DIFFERENT
[B1] different from normal things, or used for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
You need to use a special kind of paint.
Some of the children have special educational needs.
Full details of the election results will be published in a special edition of tomorrow's newspaper.
Firefighters use special breathing equipment in smoky buildings.
Learner example:
He stepped into a small, handmade, wooden canoe – it’s call[ed] Hakaro. It’s a special kind of canoe.

special attention/care/treatment
[B2] treatment that is better than usual

Dictionary example:
I don't expect special treatment – I just want to be treated fairly.

Learner example:
As you know, an Austin Healey needs special treatment.

specialist /ˈspeʃ.əl.ɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: specialist, speciality
Verbs: specialize
Adjectives: special
Adverbs: specially

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who has a lot of experience, knowledge, or skill in a particular subject

Dictionary examples:
a software specialist
She's a specialist in modern French literature.
She's a specialist in childhood illnesses.
a leading cancer/eye specialist

Learner example:
Now, fully equipped and powerful computers can be so small and mobile that some specialists predict that new devices will replace [the] book.

speciality /ˌspeʃ.ɪˈæl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: specialist, speciality
Verbs: specialize
Adjectives: special
Adverbs: specially

NOUN [C]
[C1] a product, skill, etc. that a person or place is especially known for
Dictionary example:
We tasted a local speciality made from goat's cheese.

Learner example:
But even McDonald's realised there is another trend on the rise – local food and specialities – and therefor[e] started putting them on the[ir] menu.

specialize (also UK specialise)  /ˈspej.əl.aɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: specialist, speciality
Verbs: specialize
Adjectives: special
Adverbs: specially

VERB [i]
[B2] to spend most of your time studying one particular subject or doing one type of business

Dictionary examples:
She's hired a lawyer who specializes in divorce cases.
a restaurant that specialises in seafood
I enjoy working in general medicine, but I hope to be able to specialize in the future.

Learner example:
Some specialise in acting and others [work] back stage like adjusting the sound or light and preparing the outfits.

specially  /ˈspej.ə.l.i/ (also especially)

Word family:
Nouns: specialist, speciality
Verbs: specialize
Adjectives: special
Adverbs: specially

ADVERB
[B1] for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
I came here specially to see you.
She has a wheelchair that was specially made for her.
The opera 'Aida' was specially written for the opening of the Cairo opera house in 1871.

Learner example:
species /ˈspiː.ʃiːz/ (PLURAL species)

NOUN [c]
[B2] a group of plants or animals which share similar characteristics

Dictionary examples:
Mountain gorillas are an endangered species.
Over a hundred species of insect are found in this area.

Learner example:
Then I wrote an article about saving endangered species.

specific /spəˈsɪf.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: specification
Verbs: specify
Adjectives: specific Adverbs: specifically

ADJECTIVE

PARTICULAR THING
[B2] used to refer to a particular thing and not something general

Dictionary examples:
English for specific purposes
The disease seems to be specific to certain types of plant.
Is there anything specific you want from the shops?

Learner example:
We need to see animals, study them, and in some cases find out why specific types of animals can’t live in the nature which we have spoiled.

EXACT
[C1] exact or containing details

Dictionary example:
Could you be more specific about the problem?

Learner example:
To be more specific, our students discovered that the majority of your exhibits did not function at all.
specifically  /spəˈsɪf.i.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: specification
Verbs: specify
Adjectives: specific Adverbs: specifically

ADVERB

PARTICULAR PURPOSE
[C1] for a particular reason, purpose, etc.

Dictionary examples:
They're designed specifically for children.
She bought it specifically to wear at the wedding.

Learner example:
I specifically chose to travel with you since your travel brochure promised a half-day trip to St. Andrews, where I was to meet my friend Ann.

EXACTLY
[C1] exactly or in detail

Dictionary examples:
I specifically told them that she doesn't eat meat.
The law specifically prohibits acts of this kind.

Learner example:
More specifically, students have to complete numerous questions with very long answers for four different subjects, and the time available for each subject is three hours.

specification  /ˌspes.ɪf.ɪˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: specification
Verbs: specify
Adjectives: specific Adverbs: specifically

NOUN [C] FORMAL
[C1] a detailed description of how something should be done, made, etc.

Dictionary example:
They are made exactly to the customer's specifications.

Learner example:
Translating technical specifications prepared by no[n]-native speakers can often cause serious problems.
specify /ˈspes.ɪ.fai/

Word family:
Nouns: specification
Verbs: specify
Adjectives: specific
Adverbs: specifically

VERB [T]
[B2] to state or describe something clearly and exactly

Dictionary examples:
He said we should meet but didn’t specify a time.
The peace treaty clearly specifies the terms for the withdrawal of troops.
The newspaper report did not specify how the men were killed.
My contract specifies (that) I must give a month’s notice if I leave my job.
The loan must be repaid within a specified period/by a specified date.

Learner example:
You did not specify what kind of work you are supposed to do either in a restaurant or in a museum.

---

specimen /ˈspes.ə.min/

NOUN [C]
[C2] an animal, plant, etc. used as an example of its type, especially for scientific study

Dictionary example:
This is one of the museum’s finest specimens.

Learner example:
Plant life to is being given a hard time, as the would-be mountain explorers walk off the designated [paths] and wreak havoc in the wilderness, destroying many priceless specimens.

---

spectacular /spekˈtæk.jʊ.lə/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] extremely good, exciting, or surprising

Dictionary examples:
a spectacular view
The show was a spectacular success.
He scored a spectacular goal in the second half.
There was a spectacular sunset last night.
Learner example:
It is located in a tall building and has a spectacular view.

spectator /ˈspektərə/

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone who watches an event, sport, etc.

Dictionary example:
They won 4–0 in front of over 40 000 cheering spectators.

Learner example:
At midnight sharp, fireworks covered the concert hall and I, as well as the rest of [the] spectators, felt the excitement and delight I've never felt before.

spectrum /ˈspekt(ə)rm/

NOUN [c] (spectra)

ALL POSSIBILITIES

[C1] all the different ideas, opinions, possibilities, etc. that exist

Dictionary example:
He has support from across the whole political spectrum.

Learner example:
At the other [end] of the spectrum of opinions you can find some people who need to park in the city for business matters, like a local shopkeeper I talked to, who is afraid of losing customers.

COLOURS

[C2] the set of colours into which light can be separated

Dictionary example:
The colours of the spectrum can be seen in a rainbow.

Learner example:
Then, at dawn, the sun slowly rises, producing a spectacular spectrum of colours, ranging from deep purple to blinding yellow.

speculate /ˈspek.jə.leɪt/

Word family:

Nouns: speculations
Verbs: speculate
VERB [ɪ or ð]

[C2] to guess possible answers to a question when you do not have enough information to be certain

Dictionary examples:
The police refused to speculate about the cause of the accident.
The newspapers have speculated that they will get married next year.

Learner example:
One can speculate endlessly without any inkling of what the subject involves and will never be able to be sure whether there is any truth behind their contemplations.

speculation /ˌspɛk.ʃəˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: speculation
Verbs: speculate

NOUN [u]

[C1] when people guess about something without having enough information to be certain

Dictionary example:
She has dismissed the claims as pure speculation.

Learner example:
I seriously urge your organisation to base your reports on hard facts instead of speculation.

speech /spiːtʃ/

Word family:
Nouns: speaker, speech
Verbs: speak
Adjectives: speechless

NOUN

ABILITY TO TALK

[B1] [u] someone's ability to talk, or an example of someone talking

Dictionary examples:
Children usually develop speech in the second year of life.
People who suffer a stroke may experience a loss of speech.
Some expressions are used more in speech than in writing.
Learner example:
The reason why I decide to join the English class is because of my English speech, I should talk more fluently but I'm trying my best.

FORMAL TALK

[B2] [c] a formal talk given usually to a large number of people on a special occasion

Dictionary examples:
I had to give/make a speech at my brother's wedding.
The Governor of New York delivered a rousing speech to the national convention.
He gave the after-dinner speech.
Did you hear her acceptance speech at the Oscars ceremony?

Learner example:
I suggest that if you want to invite someone to give a speech, you have to invite athletes.

free speech/freedom of speech

[C2] the right to say or write what you want

Dictionary example:
They fought for the right to free speech.

Learner example:
Music, especially punk–music, symbolizes freedom of speech.

speechless /ˈspiːtʃ.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: speaker, speech
Verbs: speak
Adjectives: speechless

ADJECTIVE

[C1] unable to speak because you are so angry, shocked, surprised, etc.

Dictionary example:
I couldn't believe what he was telling me – I was speechless.

Learner example:
Last year, I had the opportunity to visit Chania [again] with my family and I was speechless when I understood that everything has undergone rapid change, because of tourism.
speed /spiːd/

NOUN

RATE OF MOVEMENT

[B1] [c or u] how fast something moves or happens

Dictionary examples:
high/low speed
He was travelling at a speed of 90 mph.
The car has a top speed of 155 miles per hour.
You should lower/reduce your speed as you approach a junction.
On a clear, straight road you can gather/pick up speed.
It was the speed at which it all happened that shocked me.

Learner example:
So we left at full speed!!!

MOVEMENT

[B2] [u] very fast movement

Dictionary examples:
I get a real thrill from speed.
He put on a sudden burst of speed.
Both cars were travelling at speed when the accident happened.

Learner example:
Every summer I go to watersports because I like water. I'm very good at swimming and I like the speed of some watersports.

up to speed

[C1] having all the most recent information about a subject or activity

Dictionary example:
The course should bring you up to speed with the latest techniques.

Learner example:
Apart [from] this you can keep yourself up to speed with what's happening around the world on various fronts.

exceed the speed limit

[C1] to drive faster than you are allowed to according to the law

Dictionary example:
She was caught exceeding the speed limit.

Learner example:
There are three ground rules you have to follow: stop at stop-signs, don't exceed the speed limit and don't be in the way of other cars.
spending /ˈspen.dɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: spending
Verbs: spend

NOUN [u]
[C2] the money which is used for a particular purpose, especially by a government or organization

Dictionary examples:
government spending on health spending cuts

Learner example:
"If I become Prime Minister, the first issues on my political agenda will be to curb government spending on armaments, to reorganise the bureaucratic system, to reduce the rate of unemployment," he told me the last time I saw him.

sphere /sfɪə/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a subject or area of knowledge, work, etc.

Dictionary example:
the political sphere

Learner example:
There is a very big crew, all of them very good in their sphere of work.

spice /spaɪs/

Word family:
Nouns: spice
Adjectives: spicy

NOUN

FOOD
[B1] [C or U] a substance made from a plant, which is used to give a special taste to food

Dictionary examples:
Cinnamon, ginger and cloves are all spices.
Spices are widely used in South Asian cooking.
Learner example:
It's very delicious with some spices and many kinds of salad.

EXCITEMENT
[C2] [u] something that makes something else more exciting

Dictionary example:
A scandal or two adds a little spice to office life.

Learner example:
Yes, we just have to believe in ourselves, add a little spice to our days and face the world – no matter which world.

spicy  /ˈspaɪ.si/

Word family:
Nouns: spice
Adjectives: spicy

ADJECTIVE
[B1] containing spices which have a strong, hot flavour

Dictionary example:
Do you like spicy food?

Learner example:
I don't like spicy food, it's not good for my stomach.

spider  /ˈspaɪ.dər/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a small creature with eight long legs which catches insects in a web

Dictionary example:
a spider's web

Learner example:
She is afraid of spiders.

spill  /spɪl/

VERB [I or T] (spilled or spilt, spilled or spilt)
[B1] to pour liquid or another substance somewhere without intending to, or to fall or flow out of a container in a way that is not intended
Dictionary examples:
I spilt coffee on my silk shirt.
You've spilt something down your tie.
Let's see if I can pour the juice into the glass without spilling it.
He dropped a bag of sugar and it spilt all over the floor.

Learner example:
Then I'm going to buy a new rug, because a few days ago, I spilled some juice.

spin /spɪn/

VERB [I or T] (spinning, spun)

TURN
[C1] If something spins or you spin something, it turns around and around quickly.

Dictionary example:
The car spun across the road.

Learner example:
When the valve of the reservoir is opened, it passes through a pipe and it makes the turbine spin.

spinach /ˈspɪn.ɪtʃ/

NOUN [u]
[B1] a vegetable with large, dark green leaves and a strong taste

Dictionary example:
spinach lasagne/salad

Learner example:
The embarrassing moment came when I saw the first dish: carrots with spinach!

spine /spaɪn/

NOUN [c]
[C1] the long structure of bones down the centre of your back, which supports your body

Dictionary example:
She injured her spine in a riding accident.
Learner example:
I had to carry my luggage to my room on the 3rd floor, which was hard as I suffer from a spine injury.

send shivers/a shiver down your spine
[C2] to make you feel afraid or excited

Dictionary example:
The sound of his voice sent shivers down my spine.

Learner example:
Simply looking at her sent shivers down his spine – there was the love of his life, the dearest woman on good old Earth, that he's never met before.

spiral
/'spərərəl/

NOUN [C]

a downward spiral
[C2] a situation which is getting worse very quickly, and which is difficult to control

Dictionary example:
After his death, the family went into a downward spiral.

Learner example:
Unemployment is one of the major problems of our society. It is the first step of a downward spiral.

spirit
/'spɪr.ɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: spirit
Adjectives: spiritual
Adverbs: spiritually

NOUN

WAY OF FEELING

[B2] [NO PLURAL] the way people think and feel about something

Dictionary examples:
The players have a very strong team spirit.
As rock musicians in the 1960s, they were very much part of the spirit of the age/times.
We acted in a spirit of cooperation.

Learner example:
In addition to [that], you should invite athletes who have experience in sports to speak about team spirit and the role that sports [have] in our life.
in good/high/low, etc. spirits
[B2] feeling good/excited/unhappy, etc.

Dictionary example:
The whole class was in good spirits that day.

Learner example:
I was in high spirits until I got my paper back.

GHOST
[B2] I [c] a form of a dead person such as a ghost

Dictionary example:
an evil spirit

Learner example:
I thought the house could have ghosts or spirits and because of this, I tried to convince myself that it had been [my] imagination, but suddenly the lights went out.

NOT BODY
[C1] [c or u] the part of a person which is not their body, which some people believe continues to exist after they die

Dictionary example:
I believe my spirit will live on after I die.

Learner example:
I would like to tell [José San Martin] that even if he could not reach his goal, without him, we would still [be] a dependent country. Furthermore, that his spirit was, is and will be in our hearts and minds.

DRINK
[C1] I [c] a strong alcoholic drink, such as whisky or vodka

Dictionary example:
I don't often drink spirits.

Learner example:
There will be [starter]s, meat, fish, desserts... and a lot of Rioja's wine, of course! Champagne and spirits too.

spiritual /ˈspɪr.tju.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: spirit
Adjectives: spiritual
Adverbs: spiritually
ADJECTIVE

[B2] relating to deep feelings and beliefs, especially religious beliefs

Dictionary example:
Traditional ways of life fulfilled both economic and spiritual needs.

Learner example:
I'd like to get in contact with the amazing spiritual life in [India]. There is no other country in the world with so many different religions and sects.

spiritually /ˈspɪr.ɪ.tju.əli/

Word family:
- Nouns: spirit
- Adjectives: spiritual
- Adverbs: spiritually

ADVERB

[C2] in a way that relates to deep feelings and beliefs, especially religious beliefs

Dictionary example:
We returned from our holiday refreshed both physically and spiritually.

Learner example:
This view of life and work is not right, according to my beliefs, since being rich can lead to happiness, but may also lead you to poverty, spiritually speaking.

spit /spɪt/

VERB [I or T] (spitting, spat, also US spit)

[C2] to force out the liquid in your mouth

Dictionary examples:
I don't like to see people spitting in public.
He took a mouthful of coffee and then spat it out.

Learner example:
Eric could ride a horse like nobody else, he could spit the furthest and climb the highest trees, and one year Eric broke his leg and had to be taken to hospital in an ambulance.
spite /ˈspæt/

NOUN

in spite of sth
[B1] although something exists or happens

Dictionary examples:
He still smokes, in spite of all the health warnings.
In spite of his injury, Ricardo will play in Saturday’s match.

Learner example:
In spite of the bad weather, we went to the zoo and strolled around a lot.

FEELING

[C2] [ə] a feeling of anger towards someone which makes you want to hurt or upset them

Dictionary example:
He hid my new jacket out of spite.

Learner example:
She did not do that out of spite or vengeance.

splash /ˈsplæʃ/

VERB

LIQUID
[B2] [ɪ or ʌ] If a liquid splashes or you splash a liquid, drops of it hit or fall on something.

Dictionary examples:
Water was splashing from a hole in the roof.
Unfortunately some paint splashed onto the rug.
She splashed her face with cold water.

Learner example:
But in some towns we stayed [in], there were public swimming pools so we could even splash in the water.

splash about/around/through, etc.
[B2] to move in water so that drops of it go in all directions

Dictionary example:
The children splashed about in the puddles.
Learner example:
So we were splashing around and then went to dry ourselves.

NOUN [C]

SOUND
[B2] the sound of something falling into or moving in water

Dictionary example:
They sat listening to the sound of raindrops on the lake.

Learner example:
My friend, the mechanic Alex, heard a strange noise, a very powerful splash in the sea, [and] a lot of water came into the boat.

DROP OF LIQUID
[C2] a drop of liquid which has fallen on something, or the mark made by it

Dictionary examples:
There were several small splashes of paint on the carpet.
Add a splash of lemon juice.

Learner example:
And at precisely 6pm, the sky is painted with a splash of orange and there you can enjoy one of the best sunsets in the world.

make a splash INFORMAL
[C2] to get a lot of public attention

Dictionary example:
The film made quite a splash in the US.

Learner example:
Moreover, it is no use splashing your money about [on] expensive gifts because this behaviour shows that you are not happy but your purpose is to make a splash.

splendid /ˈspləndɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: splendour
Adjectives: splendid

ADJECTIVE
[C1] very good or very beautiful, special, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a splendid idea
a splendid view
Learner example:
As far as interviewing sports personalities is concerned, it would be a splendid idea to interview Gerry Armstrong because he would be able to inform students about football, as he is a very good player.

splendour /ˈsplen.dər/

Word family:
Nouns: splendour
Adjectives: splendid

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when something is extremely beautiful or luxurious

Dictionary example:
Tourists marvelled at the splendour of the medieval cathedral.

Learner example:
Opposite and above us towered huge mountains like rocky giants reaching their hands up into the cloudless sky. Our painful legs were forgotten, the scratches paled into insignificance in the face of such majestic splendour.

split /splɪt/

VERB (splitting, split, split)

DIVIDE
[B2] [I or T] (ALSO split up) to divide into smaller parts or groups, or to divide something into smaller parts or groups

Dictionary examples:
The prize was split between Susan and Kate.
Split the aubergines in half and cover with breadcrumbs.
The teacher split the children into three groups.

Learner example:
In my opinion we might just split a full-time salary.

SHARE
[C1] [T] to share something by dividing it into smaller parts

Dictionary example:
The cost of the wedding will be split between the two families.

Learner example:
Sharing is cheaper since you always split the bills two or more ways and in your own place you cook your own food.
COME APART
[C2] [i or ɪ] If something splits or if you split it, it comes apart so that there is a long, thin hole in it.

Dictionary examples:
He split his trousers when he bent over.
Her shoes were splitting apart at the sides.
The wooden floor had cracked and split in the heat.

Learner example:
It made a satisfying crashing noise as the frame and glass split.

DISAGREE
[C2] [i or ɪ] If a group of people splits, or something splits them, they disagree and form smaller groups.

Dictionary examples:
This issue could split the Conservative Party.
The government is split on the issue of hunting.

Learner example:
This debate has affected a lot of discussions and split public opinion.

spoil /spɔɪl/

Word family:
Verbs: spoil
Adjectives: unspoiled

VERB [ɪ] (spoiled or spoilt, spoiled or spoilt)

MAKE BAD
[B1] to stop something from being enjoyable or successful

Dictionary examples:
He tried not to let the bad news spoil his evening.
I haven’t seen the film, so don’t spoil it for me by telling me what happens.
You’ll spoil your appetite for dinner if you have a cake now.

Learner example:
And perhaps it will rain and spoil your holiday.

CHILD
[C1] If you spoil a child, you let them have anything they want or do anything they want, usually making them badly behaved.

Dictionary example:
Her children are completely spoiled.
Learner example:
Few children are more spoiled than Japanese children.

spokesman /ˈspəoks.mən/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL spokesmen)
[C1] a man who is chosen to speak officially for a group or organization

Dictionary example:
He was the spokesman for their organization.

Learner example:
Becoming spokesman or woman for a good cause will lead to more popularity of and more attention for the cause.

spokesperson /ˈspəʊksˌpɜːs.n/

NOUN [C] (PLURAL spokespeople)
[C1] someone who is chosen to speak officially for a group or organization

Dictionary example:
She was the spokesperson for the group.

Learner example:
As the local community spokesperson, my ability to plan, initiate and execute the cleaning of rivers, within our local community as a start, will be beneficial to the "Protect our river" requirements.

sponsor /ˈspɒn.sər/

Word family:
Nouns: sponsor, sponsorship
Verbs: sponsor

VERB [T]
[B2] to give money to someone to support an activity, event, or organization, sometimes as a way to advertise your company or product

Dictionary examples:
The team is sponsored by JVC, so the players wear the letters JVC on their shirts.
Eva said she was doing a ten-mile walk for charity and asked if I'd sponsor her for £1 a mile.

Learner example:
The whole [event] is organized by university students and is sponsored by local firms.
NOUN [c]
[B2] a person or organization that gives money to support an activity, event, etc

Dictionary example:
All the major theatres now have sponsors, especially for high-cost productions.

Learner example:
Last but not least I am also very keen on supporting the club in general, like finding a sponsor or becoming a member of the board.

sponsorship /ˈspɒn.tʃə.rɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: sponsor, sponsorship
Verbs: sponsor

NOUN [u]
[C1] when someone gives money to support something

Dictionary example:
We wanted to set up a youth club, and asked local businesses for sponsorship.

Learner example:
The aim of this proposal is to explain the reason why our company can sponsor our country’s tennis championship and outline the benefits we will gain from this sponsorship.

sports /spɔːts/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] relating to sports

Dictionary examples:
sports equipment
He only reads the sports section of the newspaper.

Learner example:
You should go there because in a big school there are more possibilities of making new friendships and you can choose from a wide range of sports activities.

sporty /ˈspɔː.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: sport
Adjectives: sporty
ADJECTIVE

[C1] Sporty people are good at sports.

Dictionary example:
I’m not very sporty.

Learner example:
Our events this summer ha[ve] proved that the sporty young people in the International students’ sports club are both ambitious and know how to have fun.

spot /spɒt/

Word family:
Nouns: spot
Verbs: spot
Adjectives: spotless

NOUN [C]

CIRCLE
[B1] a small, round mark which is a different colour to the surface it is on

Dictionary examples:
He had a spot of grease on his tie.
I wore that skirt with the green spots.

Learner example:
This lamp is green with yellow spots on it and in my opinion it’s perfect for my room.

PLACE
[B2] a place

Dictionary example:
This looks like a nice spot for a picnic.

Learner example:
Lake Frene is just a lake, there’s nothing to do and it’s a crowded spot.

SKIN
[B2] an unpleasant, small, red mark on your skin

Dictionary example:
He suffered badly with spots as a teenager.

have a soft spot for sb/sth
[C2] to like someone or something a lot

Dictionary example:
I’ve always had a soft spot for her.
Learner example:
I would definitely like to return there because I really enjoy museums and as I have always had a soft spot for art, I can say that that Foundation is my cup of tea.

put sb on the spot
[C2] to ask someone a question which is difficult or embarrassing to answer at that time

Dictionary example:
Sorry to put you on the spot, but I really need an answer.

on the spot
[C2] immediately

Dictionary example:
I accepted the job on the spot.

Learner example:
And when it was Meredith's turn to tell her about her impending wedding, she felt she was going to have a heart attack on the spot.

VERB [T] (−tt−)
[B2] to see or notice something or someone

Dictionary examples:
I've just spotted Malcolm – he's over there, near the entrance.
If you spot any mistakes in the article just mark them with a pencil.
The police spotted him driving a stolen car.
I soon spotted what was wrong with the printer.
The policewoman spotted that I hadn't got my seat belt on and signalled me to stop.

Learner example:
It is very easy to spot because there is a big sign [for] the hotel next to the building.

spotless  /ˈspɒt.əs/

Word family:
Nouns: spot
Verbs: spot
Adjectives: spotless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] completely clean

Dictionary example:
By the time I'd finished, the whole room was spotless.

Learner example:
Sitting in her armchair, Ann realised that she was by herself for the first time after many difficult weeks spent with her mother in a spotless bedroom of a Swiss hospital.
spotlight /ˈspɒt.laɪt/

NOUN

the spotlight
[C2] when someone gets public attention by being on television, in the newspapers, etc.

Dictionary examples:
to be in the spotlight
She’s rarely out of the media spotlight these days.

Learner example:
Besides the conference centre will [put] our town in the spotlight and many political leaders will come and be aware of our problems.

[C2] [c] a strong light which can be pointed in different directions

Dictionary example:
They turned the spotlight on the lead guitarist during his solo.

Learner example:
At last, when the first notes came out of the or[c]hestra, a spotlight showed the enormous figure of Ludwig van Mill strolling in the forest, blowing his horn and grinning at the trees.

spouse /spaʊs/

NOUN [c] formal

[C2] your husband or wife

Dictionary example:
Is his spouse still living?

Learner example:
It might be that the object in question reminds the owner of a beloved person, a deceased relative, a lost love, [or] a trip with his or her spouse.

spray /spreɪ/

NOUN [c]

[B2] liquid in a container which forces it out in small drops

Dictionary examples:
hair spray spray paint
Learner example:
Actually, there was an attempt to cut down on using and producing sprays which destroy the ozon[e] layer.

VERB [T]
[B2] to force liquid out of a container in many small drops

Dictionary examples:
The fields are sprayed with pesticides.
She sprayed a little perfume on her wrists.
Vandals had sprayed graffiti on the wall.

Learner example:
I quickly helped [the] others to decorate the hall – we blew up as many balloons as we could and sprayed them with gold and silver.

spread /spred/

VERB (spread, spread)

GRADUALLY AFFECT
[B2] to gradually affect a larger area

Dictionary examples:
The fire spread very rapidly because of the strong wind.
It started off as cancer of the liver but it spread to other areas of the body.

Learner example:
It seemed that the fire might spread more.

INFORMATION
[B2] If information spreads, or if someone spreads it, it is communicated to many people.

Dictionary examples:
News of his victory spread quickly.
Have you been spreading gossip about them again?

Learner example:
The news spread all over the village.

COVER AREA
[B2] (also spread out) to cover an area

Dictionary examples:
The suburbs spread for miles in every direction.
Our offices are spread (out) over a very wide area.
Learner example:
It has about 500 inhabitants, who live in 128 houses, which are spread over a big area.

ARRANGE

[C1] [r] (also spread out) to arrange something over a large area, especially something that was folded

Dictionary examples:
I spread a blanket over his legs.
We spread the map on the floor.
He spread the cards out on the table.
She spread out her towel on the sand and lay down.

Learner example:
She looked at all the diaries that were all spread out around her on the bed.

SURFACE

[C2] [r] to move a soft substance across a surface so that it covers it

Dictionary examples:
What I really like is hot, buttered toast spread with strawberry jam.
He spread a thin layer of glue on the paper.

Learner example:
[The] British are astonished when they see Catalans rubbing their bread with ripe tomatoes. Likewise Spaniards feel surprised when Europeans spread butter on it instead.

TIME

[C2] [r] (also spread out) to arrange for something to happen over a period of time and not at once

Dictionary example:
The payments will be spread over two years.

Learner example:
This would both spread the cost and make the whole plan more workable.

NOUN

MOVEMENT

[B2] [u no plural] when something moves to cover a larger area or affect a larger number of people

Dictionary examples:
Jazz records fostered the spread of American culture.
More should be done to stop the spread of this disease.

Learner example:
It is true that these days people have much more choice in entertain[ment], the spread of computers and video games is just one example.
spreadsheet /ˈspred.ʃiːt/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a chart produced on a computer which helps you to do business calculations and planning

Dictionary example:
She prepared a spreadsheet with the new sales information.

Learner example:
I would be very interested in joining your club, in order to learn how to use basic software like word processing, spreadsheet or database software.

spring /sprɪŋ/

NOUN

WATER
[C1] [c] a place where water comes out of the ground

Dictionary example:
hot springs

Learner example:
Also there is a hot spring beside a river.

VERB

spring back/forward/out, etc.
[C2] to jump or move somewhere suddenly

Dictionary examples:
The cat sprang onto the sofa.
I tried to shut the door, but it kept springing open.

Learner example:
Suddenly, we heard a clap of thunder and all of us sprang to our feet.

spring to mind
[C2] If a word or idea springs to mind, you suddenly think of it.

Dictionary example:
He asked if I knew any good places to go, but nothing sprang to mind.

Learner example:
Darwinism and the "survival of the fittest" springs to mind here – only the ones that fight hardest and compete against others make it to the top.
sprinkle /ˈsprɪŋ.kl/

VERB [ɪ]
[C2] to gently drop small pieces of something over a surface

Dictionary example:
Sprinkle the cake with sugar before serving.

Learner example:
Near the cathedral, in an imposing Baroque building, there is the collection of modern Tinguely’s fountains. Built with recycled materials, thousands of pieces move aimlessly, sprinkling water everywhere.

spur /spɜːr/

VERB [ɪ] (also spur on) (spurring, spurred)
[C2] to encourage someone to do something or something to happen

Dictionary example:
Spurred on by his fans, he won the next three games easily.

Learner example:
It may spur them on [to] achieving more in the future.

NOUN [c]

on the spur of the moment
[C2] If you do something on the spur of the moment, you do it suddenly, without planning it.

Dictionary example:
On the spur of the moment we decided to go to London for the day.

Learner example:
In reality, many people buy things on the spur of the moment only to discover later that they, in fact, do not [meet] their expectations.

spy /spaɪ/

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who secretly tries to discover information about a person, country, etc.

Dictionary example:
His father was a British spy.
Learner example:
It's a spy story.

VERB

INFORMATION
[C1] [I] to secretly try to discover information about a person, country, etc.

Dictionary example:
He was accused of spying.

Learner example:
Also, some countries have fears about foreigners coming from underdeveloped countries and may consider some of them as a source of troubles including crimes, spying and maybe terrorism.

squad /skwɒd/

NOUN [C]

bomb/drug/fraud, etc. squad
[C2] a group of police officers who have special skills to deal with particular problems

Dictionary example:
He was a member of the bomb squad.

Learner example:
This is why governments today have their own [I]nternet police squads.

dead/firing/hit, etc. squad
[C2] a group of people who are trained to kill, usually with guns

Dictionary example:
He faced the firing squad.

Learner example:
The police [are] also accused of organizing death squads, which enter slums and execute instead of incarcerating suspects, including many children.

[C2] a sports team

Dictionary example:
the England rugby squad

Learner example:
He was only seventeen years old when he [was] transfer[red] from the junior academy, to the senior squad of Parathinaikos.
squander /ˈskwɒndər/

VERB [T]

[C2] to waste time, money, etc.

Dictionary example:
He squandered all his money on alcohol and drugs.

Learner example:
By a quirk of fate, one day I realised that her parents were oblivious to the places that she visited or the products she squandered her money on.

squash /skwɒʃ/

VERB

CRUSH FLAT

[B2] [T] to crush something into a flat shape

Dictionary example:
He accidentally sat on her hat and squashed it.

PUSH INTO

[B2] [I T OFTEN PASSIVE] to push someone or something into a small space

Dictionary example:
The kids were all squashed into the back seat.

Learner example:
My idea of fun is not getting up at seven o’clock in the morning to take a bus where we are squashed by lots of rude people we don’t even know.

NOUN [U]

[B1] a sport in which two people hit a small rubber ball against the four walls of a room

Dictionary examples:
a game of squash
a squash court/racket

Learner example:
In the club you can play golf, tennis, squash and football.
squeak  /ˈskwiːk/

Word family:
Verbs: squeak
Adjectives: squeaky

VERB [i]
[C2] to make a short, high sound

Dictionary example:
His shoes squeaked loudly as he walked.

Learner example:
The wood of the drawer squeaked.

squeaky  /ˈskwiː.ki/

Word family:
Verbs: squeak
Adjectives: squeaky

ADJECTIVE
SOUND
[C2] making short, high sounds

Dictionary example:
a squeaky voice

Learner example:
He pushed open the squeaky wooden entrance doors, noticing the smell of fresh cyan coloured paint.

squeeze  /ˈskwiːz/

VERB [t]
PRESS
[B2] to press something firmly

Dictionary examples:
She squeezed his hand and said goodbye.
Cut the lemon in half and squeeze the juice into the bowl.
Once he had finished cleaning the floor, he squeezed the cloth out.
He reloaded the gun, took aim and then squeezed the trigger.
Learner example:
It must have been nine o’clock and I was there, sitting in my armchair, squeezing a cushion in my arms.

squeeze through/past, etc.
[C1] to move somewhere where there is very little space

Dictionary example:
She squeezed through a narrow gap in the wall.

Learner example:
There are a huge number of workers every morning trying to squeeze through the tiny door.

stab /stæb/

VERB [r] (–bb–)
[B2] to push a knife into someone

Dictionary examples:
She was stabbed in the arm.
The victim had been stabbed to death.

Learner example:
She raised the knife high in the air and stabbed it right into her stomach.

stability /stəˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: stability
Adjectives: stable

NOUN [u]
[C1] when something is not likely to change or move

Dictionary example:
political/financial stability

Learner example:
In Yugoslavia sport was an important factor contributing to the overall stability of the federation.

stable /ˈsteɪ.bl/
ADJECTIVE

SITUATION
[C1] not likely to change, become worse, or end suddenly

Dictionary examples:
Prices have remained fairly stable in recent years.
The doctor said his condition was stable.
a stable relationship

Learner example:
That is due to [the] low economic development of this country, which is nowadays relatively stable.

PERSON
[C1] mentally calm and not easily upset

Dictionary example:
He's not a very stable person.

Learner example:
Children with [a] good coping mechanism are emotionally stable in facing their problems.

NOUN [C]
[C2] a building where horses are kept

Dictionary example:
We put the horses in their stables.

Learner example:
Not only is the noise they make so unbearable that we cannot sleep or drop off in the afternoon, but your pilots seem to enjoy low-flying raids over our stables, thus disturbing our horses.

stage  /stɛːdʒ/

NOUN [C]

PART
[B2] a period of development, or a particular time in a process

Dictionary examples:
The project is in its final stages and should be completed by August.
They did the last stage of their journey on foot.
Our marriage is going through a difficult stage at the moment.
Their youngest child is at the stage where she can say individual words but not full sentences.
I'm not tired at the moment but I will need a rest at some stage during the walk.
At this stage, most children are able to read simple words.
Andrew spends all his spare time playing with his computer but it's probably just a stage he's going through.

2832
Learner example:
At that stage of our holiday, we stayed quiet [for] some days in order to rest a bit after all those hours of driving.

VERB [ɪ]

stake a concert/show, etc.
[C2] to organize and produce a performance of music or a play, etc.

Dictionary examples:
They staged a free concert in Central Park.
The local drama group is staging a production of the musical 'Grease'.

Learner example:
My daughter's nursery school staged 'Buratino'.

stagger /ˈstæg.ər/

Word family:
Verbs: stagger
Adjectives: staggering

VERB

[C2] [ɪ] to walk as if you might fall

Dictionary example:
He staggered drunkenly towards the door.

Learner example:
Drearily and wearily they carried on, sometimes squelching through the mud, sometimes staggering on loose rocks.

staggering /ˈstæg.ə.rɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: stagger
Adjectives: staggering

ADJECTIVE

[C1] very shocking and surprising

Dictionary example:
He earns a staggering amount of money.

Learner example:
However, it is expected to rise to a staggering 98% in 2010.
stain /ˈsteɪn/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a dirty mark on something that is difficult to remove

Dictionary examples:
- a blood/grass stain
- You can remove a red wine stain from a carpet by sprinkling salt over it.

Learner example:
- I realised that I had a stain on my trousers.

VERB

MARK

[C2] [ɪ] or [ʊ] to leave a dirty mark on something which is difficult to remove, or to become dirty in this way

Dictionary examples:
- That paint stained my shirt.
- While she was changing the wheel on her car, her coat had become stained with oil.
- Tomato sauce stains terribly – it's really difficult to get it out of clothes.

Learner example:
- There was only one bed, in which they were both supposed to sleep, and the pillow was stained with something that looked like blood.

DAMAGE

[C2] [ɪ] to permanently spoil something such as someone's reputation

Dictionary examples:
- Several politicians have had their reputations stained by the expenses scandal.
- The country's history is stained with the blood of countless innocent men and women.

Learner example:
- All those "mistakes", to put it kindly, stain the public image of our association AND the hospital.

staircase /ˈsteə.ks/

NOUN [c]

[C1] a set of stairs and the structure around them

Dictionary example:
- a spiral staircase

Learner example:
- The second floor can only be accessed by an outside staircase or a pole that runs through the second floor, like those at fire fighters' stations.
stake /steɪk/

NOUN

be at stake
[C2] If something is at stake, it is in a situation where it might be lost or damaged.

Dictionary example:
We have to act quickly – people's lives are at stake.

Learner example:
The whole human race's future is at stake.

---

stale /steɪl/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] old and not fresh

Dictionary examples:
stale bread
Cake goes stale quickly if it's not covered.

Learner example:
Furthermore, the food was nothing special – the bread for breakfast was stale and the rice for dinner was cold.

---

stall /stɔːl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large table or a small shop with an open front from which goods are sold in a public place

Dictionary example:
In the village market, the stalls are piled high with local vegetables.

Learner example:
You know, there's a big commercial square near my house where traders, along with shops, set up stalls every day and sell an enormous variety of lifestyle products ranging from CDs and instruments to furniture and clothes.
stamina /ˈstæm.ɪ.nə/

NOUN [u]

[C1] the physical or mental energy that allows you to do something for a long time

Dictionary example:
Marathon runners need a lot of stamina.

Learner example:
She is a healthy strong girl with stamina.

stamp /stæmp/

VERB

MARK
[B2] [t] to put a mark on an object either by printing on it or pushing into it with a small tool

Dictionary examples:
It is necessary to stamp your passport.
Every carton of yoghurt is stamped with a sell-by date.

Learner example:
There was only a small sign stamped on the door, saying that it was “closed for repairs”.

FOOT
[C2] [t or r] to put your foot down on the ground hard and quickly, often to show anger

Dictionary examples:
"No!" she shouted, stamping her foot.
The audience started jeering and stamping their feet.
He stamped on my foot.

Learner example:
I missed him so, that even if he w[0]uld pout and stamp his feet I would beam at him tenderly and kiss him gently on his cheek.

stance /staːnts/

NOUN [c]

[C2] an opinion or belief about something, especially if you say it in public
Dictionary examples:
What’s their stance on nuclear energy?
They are adopting/taking a very tough stance on drugs.

Learner example:
For all the above–mentioned reasons, and as president of the local youth club, I would like to express my stance on this subject and offer viable solutions to the local council.

stand /stand/

VERB (stood, stood)

can’t stand sb/sth
[B1] INFORMAL to hate someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I can’t stand him.
She can’t stand doing housework.

Learner example:
I can’t stand crowded shops.

stand (sth) in/against/by, etc. sth
[B2] to be in or to put something in a particular place or position

Dictionary examples:
His walking stick stood by the door.
You’ll have to stand the sofa on its end to get it through the door.
The room was empty except for a wardrobe standing in one corner.

Learner example:
As he stepped forward I knelt down and pulled his leg, so that he fell over and hit a small table standing beside the sofa.

NOT BE DESTROYED
[C1] [i] if a building stands, it has not been destroyed.

Dictionary example:
After the earthquake not a single building was left standing in the village.

Learner example:
The city was filled of magnificent monuments, some of them still standing today.

stand at sth
[C1] to be at a particular level, amount, height, etc.

Dictionary example:
Inflation currently stands at 3 per cent.
Learner example:
It was overtaken by furniture and equipment, which stood at 23 per cent in 2001, but only at 15% in 1981.

ACCEPT

[C1] [ɪ] to be able to accept or deal with a difficult situation

Dictionary examples:
She couldn’t stand the pressures of the job.
The pain was more than he could stand.

Learner example:
Finally, last week we had a meeting and we decided to complain about that because nobody could stand the situation any more.

It stands to reason

[C2] If it stands to reason that something happens or is true, it is what you would expect.

Dictionary example:
It stands to reason that a child who is constantly criticized will have little self-confidence.

Learner example:
So it stands to reason that there is no place for Piggy in Jack's world.

STATE

[C2] [ɪ] to be in a particular state or situation

Dictionary examples:
The house stood empty for years.
The player is currently standing second in the world rankings.

Learner example:
The cottage next to ours stood empty.

stand trial

[C2] If someone stands trial, they appear in a law court where people decide if they are guilty of a crime.

Dictionary example:
to stand trial for murder

Learner example:
He was going there in order to arrest Christians and bring them to Jerusalem to stand trial for their treason.

stand to gain/lose sth

[C2] to be in a situation where you can get/lose money or an advantage

Dictionary example:
He stands to gain a fortune if the company is sold.
Learner example:
International tourism should be encouraged, rather than reduced, because countries that are still developing stand to gain a lot from visitors from other parts of the world.

where you stand (with sb)
[C2] what someone thinks about you, how they expect you to behave, and how they are likely to behave

Dictionary example:
She said she will never leave her husband, so now at least I know where I stand.

where sb stands (on sth)
[C2] what your opinion is about something

Dictionary example:
We asked the head teacher where he stood on the wearing of jewellery in school.

Learner example:
From where I stand, some action must be taken urgently because the problems are constantly exacerbating.

stand a chance
[C2] to have a chance of success or of achieving something

Dictionary examples:
He stands a good chance of winning the election. These kids don’t stand a chance of getting an education.

Learner example:
If this measure were taken, the outcome would be of fundamental importance for the currently unemployed because they will stand a chance of finding a job and making a living.

as it stands
[C2] as something is now, without changes in it

Dictionary example:
The law as it stands is very unclear.

Learner example:
In my opinion, this debate is rooted in a deeper questioning of society's foundations: some people see society as it stands today as inherently flawed, an amorphous group of people who follow and worship anyone that gives them pleasure.

ELECTION
[C2] [I] to compete in an election for an official position

Dictionary example:
to stand for office/parliament

Learner example:
As a member of a party called Democratic Union she stood for election in Poland and is now in parliament.
stand your ground
[C2] to refuse to change your opinion or move your position despite attempts to make you

Dictionary example:
They tried to make me accept a lower wage, but I stood my ground.

Learner example:
She said she would stand her ground. In fact, she hoped that after the first flush of infatuation was over, Francis would come [to] long for his former love.

NOUN

FOR SELLING/SHOWING
[C1] [c] a table or small structure from which goods are sold or shown

Dictionary examples:
a hot dog stand
Visit our stand at the trade fair.

Learner example:
It would be extremely beneficial to our company to have a stand there next year.

make/take a stand
[C2] to publicly defend something or stop something from happening

Dictionary examples:
It's about time someone made a stand.
He refuses to take a stand on this issue.

Learner example:
We cannot simply stand by while our greenery is being [destroy]ed, so I am making a stand.

FURNITURE
[C2] [c] a piece of furniture for holding things

Dictionary example:
a music/hat stand

Learner example:
We go backstage, the audience is still clapping and the people in the orchestra are beating with their bow on the music stand.

standard  /ˈstændəd/

NOUN

QUALITY
[B2] [c or u] a level of quality, especially a level that is acceptable
Dictionary examples:
a high standard of service
low safety standards
His work was below standard.
She sets very high standards for herself.
This essay is not of an acceptable standard – do it again.

Learner example:
In conclusion, I hope that my ideas will help to improve [the] standards of this café and will bring more customers [in] the future.

standard of living

[B2] how much money and comfort someone has

Dictionary example:
a low/high standard of living

Learner example:
I think we would have a better standard of living if we had this situation.

BEHAVIOUR

[C2] [USUALLY PLURAL] a level of behaviour, especially a level that is acceptable

Dictionary example:
high moral standards

Learner example:
According to my moral standards, adults should not take advantage of children's lack of experience and they should certainly not incite them to tell lies and betray others.

ADJECTIVE

[B2] usual rather than special, especially when thought of as being correct or acceptable

Dictionary examples:
White is the standard colour for this model of refrigerator.
These are standard procedures for handling radioactive waste.
The metre is the standard unit for measuring length in the SI system.

Learner example:
It should be a standard price.

standpoint /ˈstænd.pɔɪnt/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a particular way of thinking about a situation or problem

Dictionary example:
to look at something from a political/religious standpoint
Learner example:
From a moral standpoint it can be argued that the income distribution that comes from such incredible payments is unacceptable.

---

star /staː:/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NOUN [C]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>BEST</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[C1] someone or something that is better than all the others in a group</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
He is one of our star players.
She was the star of the English class.

Learner example:
He led Brazil to win two more World Cups, and in both of them he was the star player, the black prince.

two-star/three-star, etc.
[C1] used to show how good a restaurant or hotel is

Dictionary example:
a five-star hotel

Learner example:
Also the facilities were great and people started building houses, and the small village became an attractive town with museums, universities, wonderful beaches, five-star hotels and other beautiful facilities.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VERB [I or T] (ˈr–)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[B1] If a film, play, etc. stars someone, or if someone stars in a film, play, etc., they are the main actor in it.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
Ben Kingsley starred in the film 'Gandhi'.
Fowles's novel 'The French Lieutenant's Woman' was turned into a film starring Meryl Streep.

Learner example:
As we both love romantic comedy, we decided to see Notting Hill [together], which starred Julia Roberts and Hugh Grant.

---

stardom /ˈstær.dəm/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NOUN [U]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[C2] when someone is very famous for acting, singing, etc.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Dictionary example:
She is heading for stardom.

Learner example:
The phenomenon of stardom is a complex one.

stare /steə/

VERB [i]
[B2] to look at someone or something for a long time and not move your eyes

Dictionary examples:
Don't stare at people like that, it's rude.
Chuck sat quietly for hours staring into the distance, thinking of what might have been.

Learner example:
David had seen her once before in a park, staring at him.

start /stɑːt/

Word family:
Nouns: start
Verbs: start, restart

VERB [I or T]
MAKE HAPPEN
[B1] to begin to happen or to make something begin to happen

Dictionary examples:
A new series of wildlife programmes has started on Monday evenings.
Police believe the fire was started by arsonists.

Learner example:
The Council has started another programme as well which calls people to collect the rubbish in their own street one weekend in every month.

BUSINESS
[B2] (also start up) If a business or other organization starts, or if someone starts one, it is created and starts to operate.

Dictionary examples:
She started her own software company.
A lot of new restaurants have started up in the region.

Learner example:
It was the first time in many years he had the opportunity or time to think over his situation and life. He had started his company fifteen years ago and had been successful.
SWITCH ON

[B2] If you start a machine or an engine, you switch it on, and if a machine or engine starts, it begins to work.

Dictionary examples:
The car wouldn't start.
Do you know how to start the lawn mower?

Learner example:
The car would not start and it was impossible to get a taxi because it was Saturday evening, so the only thing we could do was to run all the way to the school.

to start with

[B2] used before saying the first thing in a list of things

Dictionary example:
To start with, we need better computers. Then we need more training.

Learner example:
There is some information I should tell you about. To start with, the T.V repairman didn’t come on Wednesday morning as expected.

NOUN

BEGINNING

[B1] [C usually no plural] the beginning of something

Dictionary examples:
We were doubtful about the product’s usefulness from the start.
They announced the start of a new commercial venture.
The weather was good at the start of the week.
The event got off to a shaky/poor start with the stage lights failing in the first few minutes.

Learner example:
That was a bad start [to] my holidays!

from start to finish

[C1] from the beginning of something to its end

Dictionary example:
I enjoyed the film from start to finish.

Learner example:
I found out that the service itself should last at least one and half hour[s] from start to finish.

for a start

[C1] used when you are giving the first in a list of reasons or things

Dictionary example:
I won’t be going – I’ve got too much homework for a start.
Learner example:
So this creates an awareness of the obligation to look after oneself for a start.

make a start
[C2] to begin doing something

Dictionary example:
We need to make a start on (preparing) the brochure next week.

ADVANTAGE
[C2] [c] an advantage that you have over someone else when you begin something

Dictionary example:
I'm grateful for the start I had in life.

Learner example:
With a better start in life these children will be less likely to end up on the street again.

---

starvation /staːˈveɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: starvation
Verbs: starve
Adjectives: starving

NOUN [U]
[C2] the state of having no food for a long period

Dictionary example:
These people are dying of starvation.

Learner example:
While a few decades ago people used to die from starvation even in industrialised countries like France, nowadays the situation has changed and food can be found so easily that it has become an increasing source of health-related problems when exceeded.

---

starve /staːv/

Word family:
Nouns: starvation
Verbs: starve
Adjectives: starving

VERB [I or T]
[C1] to become ill or die because you do not have enough food, or to make someone ill or die because they do not have enough food
Dictionary example:
Many people have starved to death in parts of Africa.

Learner example:
People were starving to death and various crimes took place.

starving  /ˈstɑːv.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: starvation
Verbs: starve
Adjectives: starving

ADJECTIVE

ILL/DYING
[B2] ill or dying because there is not enough food

Dictionary example:
starving people

Learner example:
What shocked me most was the misery and poverty: thousands of homeless people roaming the streets starving and cold.

HUNGRY
[B2] INFORMAL very hungry

Dictionary example:
I'm absolutely starving.

Learner example:
I've always been greedy, but [at] that moment, while my Chemistry teacher was explaining a difficult lesson, I was really starving.

state  /steɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: statement
Verbs: state

NOUN [C]

CONDITION
[B2] the condition that something or someone is in
Dictionary examples:
The building is in a terrible state.
She was found wandering in a confused state (of mind).
Give me the keys – you’re in no fit state to drive.
After the accident I was in a state of shock.
I came home to an unhappy state of affairs.
The kitchen was in its original state, with a 1920s sink and stove.

Learner example:
Some people say TV can be harmful because it keeps our mind in a passive state.

COUNTRY
[C1] a country or its government

Dictionary examples:
The drought is worst in the central African states.
Britain is one of the member states of the European Union.
The government was determined to reduce the number of state-owned industries.
Some theatres receive a small amount of funding from the state.

Learner example:
I opted, since I must talk about my country's history, to choose an event not from the whole history of the Greek nation, but from that of the independent Greek state (kingdom or republic, it depends on the period), which had a life of about 270–280 years.

VERB [T] FORMAL SLIGHTLY
[B2] to officially say or write something

Dictionary examples:
Our warranty clearly states the limits of our liability.
Union members stated (that) they were unhappy with the proposal.
Please state why you wish to apply for this grant.
Children in the stated areas were at risk from a lack of food, the report said.

Learner example:
Dear Mr Thomas, I've read your advertisement in the last issue of "The Traveller", where you state that you are looking for people to work on your campsites with English-speaking tourists.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] provided, created or done by the state

Dictionary examples:
state education/industries state control
state funding/pensions

Learner example:
In general, the rules at private schools are much [strict]er than the ones at state schools.
statement /ˈsteɪt.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: statement
Verbs: state

NOUN [c]

THING SAID
[B2] something that someone says or writes officially

Dictionary examples:
The government is expected to issue a statement about the investigation to the press. He produced a signed statement from the prisoner. We were not surprised by their statement that the train services would be reduced.

Learner example:
Dear Editor Referring to your article of today, I want to correct some statements [made].

MONEY
[C2] (also bank statement) a piece of paper that shows how much money you have put into your bank account and how much you have taken out

Dictionary example:
I always check my statement.

Learner example:
My collection consists of original, pre–WW2 hand–written documents – anything from love letters to bank statements, chores lists handed out to servants to pre–nuptial agree[ements], as long as it is hand–written, finds its way to my archives.

state–of–the–art /ˌsteɪt.əv.ˈɑːt/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] using the newest ideas, designs, and materials

Dictionary example:
It is a computer system that uses state–of–the–art technology.

Learner example:
It is the impressive and simply state–of–the–art graphics that entice the player to spend hours in front of the screen.
station /ˈsteɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [c]

BROADCASTING
[B1] a company that broadcasts television or radio programmes

Dictionary examples:
a radio/television station
The reception is not very good – try to tune in to another station.

Learner example:
Last week I was [listen]ing to my favorite radio station and they announced a new sports club.

statistic /stəˈtrɪst.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: statistics, statistic
Adjectives: statistical

NOUN [c]
[C1] a fact in the form of a number that shows information about something

Dictionary example:
Statistics show that skin cancer is becoming more common.

Learner example:
Wom[e]n have always been as bright and educated as men – statistics show that in Germany there are more women entering for exams at the universities than there are men.

statistical /stəˈtrɪst.ɪk.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: statistics, statistic
Adjectives: statistical

ADJECTIVE
[C1] relating to statistics

Dictionary example:
There is no statistical evidence to support his claims.

Learner example:
I just wondered why your newspaper didn’t stick to the statistical figures and the pie chart we announced on the next day [after] the fund-raising activity.
statistics /stəˈtɪs.tɪks/

Word family:
- Nouns: statistics, statistic
- Adjectives: statistical

NOUN [PLURAL]

[B2] a collection of facts in the form of numbers that shows information about something

Dictionary examples:
Statistics show/suggest that women live longer than men. According to official statistics, the Japanese work longer hours than workers in most other industrialized countries.

Learner example:
According to statistics based on the questionnaires, the majority of students feel the most enthusiasm for [their] English class.

statue /ˈstætʃ.uː/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a model that looks like a person or animal, usually made from stone or metal

Dictionary examples:
a statue of a boy
They planned to put up/erect a statue to the President.

Learner example:
After, we passed in front of the statue of the president.

status /ˈster.təs/

NOUN [u]

[C1] an accepted or official position, especially in a social group

Dictionary examples:
The association works to promote the status of retired people as useful members of the community.
There has been an increase in applications for refugee status.
The success of her book has given her unexpected celebrity status.
Applicants should have a degree or a qualification of equal status.

Learner example:
Their status and income were shadowed by the state.
status symbol /ˈsteɪ.təsˌsɪm.bəl/

NOUN [c]

[C1] something that people want to have because they think it will make people admire them

Dictionary example:
For him, a big car is an important status symbol.

Learner example:
Jobs now play a very important role as status symbols.

---

stay /steɪ/

VERB [i]

CONTINUE

[B1] to continue to be in a particular state

Dictionary examples:
The supermarket stays open late.
I was tired and couldn't stay awake.
Put a lid on the pan so the food will stay hot.
They stayed friends after their divorce.

Learner example:
Some people prefer to stay dry [rather] than be caught by the rain.

stay put INFORMAL

[C2] to continue to be in the same place

Dictionary example:
He told me to stay put while he fetched the car.

Learner example:
It was extremely stressful and she didn't like the working conditions and atmosphere at work, but as it was [difficult] to find another job, she stayed put.

---

NOUN [c]

[B1] a period of time that you spend in a place

Dictionary example:
Did you enjoy your stay in Tokyo?

Learner example:
Dear Candie, I have just arrived here on my holiday. I'm in Cannes, in the south of France. It's a lovely place, [and] I'm enjoying my stay so much.
steadily /ˈsted.əli/

Word family:
Adjectives: steady
Adverbs: steadily

ADVERB
[B2] at a gradual, regular rate

Dictionary example:
Prices have increased steadily since the war.

Learner example:
In the past people didn’t read books all the time. Neither did their kids at school. Today they read even less books but the number of copied and read articles or book extracts ha[s] increased steadily.

steady /ˈsted.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: steady
Adverbs: steadily

ADJECTIVE

GRADUAL
[B2] happening at a gradual, regular rate

Dictionary examples:
The procession moved through the streets at a steady pace.
Orders for new ships are rising, after several years of steady decline.
Over the last 10 years, he has produced a steady flow/stream of articles and papers.
Progress has been slow but steady.

Learner example:
There is also a steady rise in underweight [young girls] today.

STILL
[B2] still and not shaking

Dictionary examples:
You need steady hands to be a dentist.
Make sure you hold the ladder steady.

Learner example:
I know very well you have steady nerves but what is strong can turn weak as well.

NOT CHANGING
[C1] not changing
Dictionary example:
She drove at a steady speed.

Learner example:
Once on the road, keep a steady speed (not too slow, not too fast) and try to look confident.

steady job/work
[C2] a job that is likely to continue for a long time and pay you regular money

Dictionary example:
I wish he'd get a steady job.

Learner example:
They now had steady jobs, she reasoned; their time at college had been turbulent and not quite happy and they had badly needed a mother figure to see [it] through, but that time was over now.

steam /stiːm/

NOUN [u]

GAS
[B2] the hot gas that is produced when water boils

Dictionary examples:
Steam rose from the simmering stew.
a steam engine
the age of steam
The pump is driven by steam.

Learner example:
I've been interested in trains, in particular steam trains, since my childhood.

let off steam
[C2] to get rid of your anger, excitement, etc. by being noisy or using a lot of energy

Dictionary example:
The children need to run around and let off steam.

Learner example:
I believe that listening to it on a daily basis will be an ideal way for us to relieve the day's pressure and let off steam.

steel /stiːl/

NOUN [u]

[B2] a very strong metal made from iron, used for making knives, machines, etc.
Dictionary examples:
steel pipes
a stainless steel sink

Learner example:
The object that I would choose is without any doubt my Katana, my Japanese Sword. It is a weapon that reminds me of my childhood games. I also like the form, and the cool steel of the blade.

steep /stiːp/

ADJECTIVE SLOPE
[B1] A steep slope, hill, etc. rises quickly.

Dictionary examples:
a steep slope
It's a steep climb to the top of the mountain, but the view is worth it.
The castle is set on a steep hill/hillside.

Learner example:
But the slope was terribly steep and I didn't dare to ski down.

LARGE
[C1] A steep increase or fall in something is very big and quick.

Dictionary example:
There has been a steep increase/rise in prices.

Learner example:
However, there was a steep increase in 1978 to 1982 when the figure reached about 60 million tonnes.

steer /stɪər/

VERB
CONTROL DIRECTION
[B2] [I or T] to control the direction of a vehicle

Dictionary examples:
She carefully steered the car around the potholes.
This car is very easy to steer.

Learner example:
After an hour she could keep [her] balance but she still had problems steering, but that didn't matter.
steer clear of sb/sth
[C2] to avoid someone or something because they are unpleasant or dangerous

Dictionary examples:
Steer clear of Tony this morning – he's in a bad mood.
Her speech steered clear of controversial issues.

Learner example:
Eating healthily doesn’t mean starving, eating plants or steering clear of meat.

steering wheel /ˈstrɪr.ɪŋˌwiːl/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a wheel that you turn to control the direction of a vehicle

Dictionary example:
He took both hands off the steering wheel.

Learner example:
After leaving your house on Monday morning, I gripped the steering wheel, fixed my eyes firmly on the road, and bravely drove my way up to Scotland.

stem /stem/

VERB [T] (stemming, stemmed)

stem from sth PHRASAL VERB
[C1] to develop as the result of something

Dictionary example:
Her problems stem from childhood.

Learner example:
This educational approach stems from strong family values and religious beliefs.

step /step/

NOUN [C]

FOOT MOVEMENT
[B1] one of the movements you make with your feet when you walk
Dictionary examples:
Sophie took her first steps when she was eleven months old.
He rose to his feet and took a couple of steps towards her.
With every step, her feet hurt her more and more.

Learner example:
I tried to run but with my first step, I kicked something that fell to the floor.

STAIR
[B1] one of the surfaces that you walk on when you go up or down stairs

Dictionary examples:
a flight of steps
We had to climb some steps to reach the front door.
I asked them to leave the parcel on the (front) step.

Learner example:
I go down four steps and I am [o]n the beach!

STAGE
[B2] one of the things that you do to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
What's the next step in the programme?
We must stay one step ahead of our competitors.
Most people believe that the decision to cut interest rates was a step in the right direction.
The President took the unusual step of altering his prepared speech in order to condemn the terrorist attack.

Learner example:
We'd like to know how it feels to be in the film business, how you started and the steps you've taken to be where you are now.

step by step
[C1] moving slowly from one stage of something to the next

Dictionary example:
I know there's a lot to prepare, but just take things step by step and don't worry.

Learner example:
The book actually guides you step by step on how you can cope with this fear and defeat it.

retrace your steps
[C2] to go back somewhere the same way that you came

Dictionary example:
I was lost so I retraced my steps.

Learner example:
Mentally retracing his steps of the morning, he remembered rushing out of his place at the last minute.
VERB (−pp−)

step back/forward/over, etc.
[B1] to move somewhere by lifting your foot and putting it down in a different place

Dictionary examples:
She stepped carefully over the dog.
She stepped backwards and fell over a chair.
They stepped out onto the balcony.

Learner example:
The moment he stepped out of the train he realized he had left his suitcase inside.

step on/in sth
[B1] to put your foot on or in something

Dictionary examples:
I accidentally stepped on her foot.
Be careful not to step in the mud.

Learner example:
I had to dance with a boy [whose] name is Alex and every time he stepped on my feet.

---

stepfather /ˈstepˌfɑːð.ər/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the man who is married to your mother but is not your father

Dictionary example:
His stepfather gave him a job.

Learner example:
Once, Matthew told Pat that he was mistreated by his stepfather in his childhood.

---

stepmother /ˈstepˌmʌð.ər/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the woman who has married your father but is not your mother

Dictionary example:
My stepmother is only a few years older than me.

Learner example:
He made up his mind to defeat them, and asked his stepmother for some kibidango, one of [the] traditional snacks in Japan.
stereotype /ˈster.i.əʊ.tæp/

Word family:
Nouns: stereotype
Adjectives: stereotypical

NOUN [c]
[C1] a fixed idea that people have about what a particular type of person is like, especially an idea that is wrong

Dictionary example:
racial stereotypes

Learner example:
It seems commonly accepted that the new "high-tech" society has turned us into lazy people, without aims, targets, even hobbies in our spare time, unless watching videos or playing computer games. I am a student, I am young and I know a lot of people like me who do not fit in this stereotype.

stereotypical /ˌster.i.əˈtɪp.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: stereotype
Adjectives: stereotypical

ADJECTIVE
[C2] having the qualities that you would expect a particular kind of person to have

Dictionary example:
a stereotypical student

Learner example:
Another person would rather perceive a stereotypical celebrity, a singer or a sports star as a greedy, self-absorbed and shallow pleasure seeker, concerned only with his or her own appearance and flaunting undeserved wealth.

stern /stɜːn/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] very serious and without any humour

Dictionary examples:
a stern expression/face stern criticism

Learner example:
He shot his sister Sarah a stern look which did not deter her from grinning maliciously.
stick /stɪk/

Word family:

Verbs: stick

Adjectives: sticky, stuck

VERB (stuck, stuck)

_FIX_

[B1] [I or T] to become joined to something else or to make something become joined to something else, usually with a substance like glue

Dictionary examples:
I tried to stick the pieces together with some glue/tape.
He stuck up a notice on the board with pins.
This glue won't stick.
My car's stuck in the mud.
Stir the sauce so that it doesn't stick to the pan.
My book got wet and all the pages have stuck together.

Learner example:
I stick posters of my favourite football team, Manchester United, on the wall.

stick (sth) in/into/through, etc.

[B2] If something sharp sticks into something, it goes into it, and if you stick something sharp somewhere, you push it into something.

Dictionary example:
The nurse stuck the needle into his arm.

Learner example:
The body of his boss's wife lay on the ground, a knife stuck in her heart.

NOUN [C]

THIN PIECE

[B1] a long, thin piece of wood, usually broken or fallen from a tree

Dictionary examples:
The old man was carrying a load of sticks.
Police said that the child had been beaten with a stick.
Find some dry sticks and we'll make a campfire.

Learner example:
But when we ran into a quiet street, he stopped and hit me with a stick.

walking/hockey, etc. stick

[B1] a long, thin piece of wood that you use when you are walking/playing hockey, etc.
Dictionary example:
She uses a walking stick.

Learner example:
I am very sad, because I have lost my hockey stick and it was very special to me; a very famous player [gave] it to me as a present.

sticky /ˈstɪk.i/

Word family:
Verbs: stick
Adjectives: sticky, stuck

ADJECTIVE

THAT CAN STICK
[B1] made of or covered with a substance that can stick to other things

Dictionary examples:
sticky tape sticky fingers
The floor's still sticky where I spilled the juice.
The children's faces were sticky with chocolate.

Learner example:
[On] the wedding day, everyone has a chance to eat special food: sticky rice cakes, spring rolls and a lot [of other dishes].

stiff /stɪf/

ADJECTIVE

HARD
[B2] hard and difficult to bend

Dictionary examples:
stiff cardboard
a stiff collar
His clothes were stiff with dried mud.

DIFFICULT TO MOVE
[B2] not easy to move

Dictionary examples:
The handle on this door is rather stiff.
My knee is rather stiff this morning.
Learner example:
She tried to sit up straight and quickly realised all her muscles were stiff from non activity.

FORMAL
[C2] behaving in a way that is formal and not relaxed

Dictionary example:
He was always very stiff with us.

Learner example:
In spite of his often stiff attitude, Mr Stevens' very detailed description of their contact in the past and his eagerness to visit Miss Kenton in 1956 show that he does have strong feelings for her, even though he still hides this behind the eternal argument of "a need for contact of a purely professional character".

stiff drink/whisky/vodka, etc.
[C2] a strong alcoholic drink

Dictionary example:
I need a stiff brandy.

Learner example:
Then, she prepared herself a stiff drink: gin and tonic with some ice, the very same one she used to have when Jack was there.

SEVERE
[C2] very severe or difficult

Dictionary examples:
stiff competition/opposition
We need stiffer penalties for drink driving.

Learner example:
The area is already full with a number of big supermarket premises and even these big businesses face stiff competition from the local shops which are open 24 hours a day.

ADVERB
bored/scared/worried, etc. stiff [B2] extremely bored/scared/worried, etc.

Dictionary example:
The lecture was awful – I was bored stiff!

Learner example:
Squeaky noises coming out from the deep corners of my house frightened me. I was scared stiff.
still /stɪl/

ADVERB

DESPITE

[B1] despite that

Dictionary examples:
You may not approve of what he did, but he's still your brother.
I know you don't like her, but you still don't have to be so rude to her.
Even though she hasn't really got the time, she still offered to help.

Learner example:
I was sure that it was not in my house but I still wanted to check.

better/worse still

[B2] even better/worse

Dictionary examples:
I'll meet you at the theatre. No, better still, let's meet in a pub and have a drink first.
I'm worried that his car has broken down, or worse still, that he's had an accident.

Learner example:
To my mind, the best place to do the painting is my bedroom, because you'll have plenty of space to work, and, better still, we won't bother anybody.

ADJECTIVE

DRINK

[B1] A still drink does not have any bubbles in it.

Dictionary example:
Would you like still or sparkling water?

Learner example:
The still water is the best but don't drink it too cold because you[r] stomach [will] not like it.

NOT MOVING

[B2] not moving

Dictionary examples:
Children find it difficult to sit/stand/stay still for very long.
I can't brush your hair if you don't keep/hold still.

Learner example:
I'd like to have my dog painted, too, but I'm afraid that'll be impossible because it won't stay still!

WATER/AIR

[C2] Still water or air does not have waves or wind.
Dictionary examples:
She dived into the still water of the lake.
The air was so still that not even the leaves on the trees were moving.

Learner example:
At the foot of the monastery's ruins was a pool, wide and still, and smooth in the sunlight, surrounded by flowers and tall trees, wonderfully bloomed.

stimulate /ˈstɪm.ju.lət/

VERB

ENCOURAGE
[B2] [ɪ] to encourage something to grow, develop or become active

Dictionary example:
The government plans to cut taxes in order to stimulate the economy.

Learner example:
This would hopefully stimulate the opening of several outdoor cafés downtown that we need as alternative meeting points for adults and youngsters.

MAKE EXCITED
[B2] [ɪ] or [ɪ] to make someone excited and interested about something

Dictionary examples:
The film was intended to stimulate and amuse.
Good teachers should ask questions that stimulate students to think.

Learner example:
I really enjoy watching [the] movies which are provided in your theatre because all [the] movies that I have seen are thought-provoking enough to stimulate our interest.

stimulus /ˈstɪm.jə.ləs/

NOUN [C or U] (plural stimuli)
[C2] something that makes something else happen, grow, or develop more

Dictionary example:
The report provided the stimulus for more studies.

Learner example:
Nicole saw these events as the pursuit of excellence, I tend to agree with her and find them advantageous because they can serve as a goal and as a motivational stimulus for many athletes.
stir /stɜːr/

VERB (–rr–)

MIX
[B1] [ɪ or ə] to mix food or liquid by moving a spoon round and round in it

Dictionary examples:
Stir the sauce gently until it begins to boil.
Stir the egg yolks into the mixture.
She paused to stir some sugar into her coffee.
Slowly add the flour, stirring until completely blended.

Learner example:
Then you add the instant sauce and stir.

MOVE
[C2] [ɪ or ə] to move slightly or make someone move slightly

Dictionary example:
The baby stirred in its sleep.

Learner example:
There is no wind, not a leaf is stirring.

FEEL
[C2] [ɪ] (also stir up) to make someone feel a strong emotion

Dictionary example:
The case has stirred great anger among the public.

Learner example:
Clearly, that was what I found so intriguing about the event: that mesmerizing state of being united in awe – not being able to grasp fully the rationale behind the unpredictable turns history takes but feeling one's emotions stirred and expressing this frankly.

stitch /stɪʃ/

NOUN

THREAD
[C2] a short line of thread that is sewn through a piece of material

Dictionary example:
The stitches around the neck are coming undone.

WOUND
[C2] one of the small pieces of thread that is used to sew together a cut
Dictionary example:
She needed 50 stitches in her head.

stock  /stɒk/

NOUN [u]

SHOP
[B2] all the goods that are available in a shop

Dictionary examples:
We're expecting some new stock in this afternoon. This shop sells its old stock at a very low prices. We'll be getting our new stock in on Friday.

Learner example:
In [the] fashion industry, [a] sale begins at the end of each season and just lasts a short time, because those [shop] owners want to make room for new stock.

in stock/out of stock
[B2] available/not available in a shop

Dictionary example:
The book is out of stock at the moment.

Learner example:
And sometimes the item you are looking for is out of stock.

take stock (of sth)
[C2] to think carefully about a situation before making a decision

Dictionary example:
We need to pause and take stock of what still needs doing.

VERB [T]
[C1] to have something available for people to buy

Dictionary example:
We stock a good range of spices.

Learner example:
Besides, unless you are quite wealthy, you can [only] buy what is in the shops and these tend to stock only what is in fashion, so it is hard not to be 'in'.
stocking /ˈstɒk.ɪŋ/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a very thin piece of clothing that covers a woman’s foot and leg

Dictionary example:
a pair of stockings

Learner example:
Try to avoid miniskirts, fishnet stockings and sexy outfits in general, we are "mountain people" and are not very keen on this kind of fashion!

stock market /ˈstɒkˌmɑː.kɪt/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[C1] the place where stocks and shares in companies are bought and sold

Dictionary example:
Stock markets around the world are reacting to news of the US president’s announcement.

Learner example:
The second unlucky job was office workers whose business was related [to] the stock market in Korea.

stone /stəʊn/

NOUN

ROCK
[B1] [c or u] a hard, natural substance that is found in the ground

Dictionary examples:
a stone wall/floor
a flight of stone steps
They cut enormous blocks of stone out of the hillside.
Some demonstrators were arrested for throwing stones at the police.

Learner example:
There are houses made of stone and wood.

JEWEL
[B1] a hard, valuable substance that is often used in jewellery

Dictionary example:
precious stones
Learner example:
You know, that gold ring, with a little precious stone in the centre, meant a lot to me, because it belonged to my older sister, Giulia.

SEED
[C2] [c] the hard seed that is at the centre of some fruits

Dictionary example:
a cherry stone

a stone's throw
[C2] a very short distance

Dictionary example:
The cottage is just a stone's throw from the sea.

Learner example:
I'm now living in Clapham, just a stone's throw away from the common, in an awesome bachelor's pad.

leave no stone unturned
[C2] to do everything that you can in order to achieve something or to find someone or something

Dictionary example:
Both sides have vowed to leave no stone unturned in the search for peace.

Learner example:
She has left no stone unturned so as to reach her goal, always asserting her assets and views with conviction.

stool /stuːl/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a seat that does not have a back or arms

Dictionary examples:
a bar/kitchen/piano stool
a three-legged stool

Learner example:
Despite being provided with a machine which gives out hot and cold drinks, the cafeteria does not contain any table, stool or chair.
stop /stɒp/

VERB (-pp-)

PREVENT

[B1] [ɪ] to prevent someone from doing something or something from happening

Dictionary examples:
Something must be done to stop the fighting.
If she really wants to leave, I don't understand what's stopping her.

Learner example:
I went and beat one of the guys to stop the fighting, however, the fighting didn't stop.

NOT MOVE

[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to not move any more or to make someone or something not move any more

Dictionary examples:
Stop the car, I want to get out!
I heard him shout "Stop, or I'll shoot!"

Learner example:
We were disappointed because we wanted to walk more and were ready to go home, but Sasha said: "Stop!"

NOT OPERATE

[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to not continue to operate, or to make something not continue to operate

Dictionary examples:
My watch has stopped.
Can you stop the video for a minute?
The air conditioner has stopped working.

Learner example:
The other day I was standing in a large department store waiting to pay for a couple of films for my camera when the assistant announced that the computer which controlled the till had stopped working.

stop at nothing

[C1] to be willing to do anything in order to achieve something

Dictionary example:
He will stop at nothing to get what he wants.

Learner example:
They stopped at nothing to get the higher scores, to make themselves noticed, even if that meant telling some lies to a teacher about a schoolmate.
stop short of sth/doing sth

[C2] to almost do something but decide not to do it

Dictionary example:
She stopped short of accusing him of lying.

NOUN [C]

JOURNEY/ACTIVITY

[B1] when you stop an activity or journey, or a period of time when you stop

Dictionary examples:
Please remain in your seat until the plane comes to a complete stop.
We'd have been here sooner, but we made several stops along the way.
At the beginning of the project there were a lot of stops and starts.

Learner example:
The best part was (without a doubt) when I made a little stop in a small town... I fell in love with that town!

put a stop to sth

[C1] to end something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
We must put a stop to the violence.

Learner example:
Maybe these new activities (video – videogames), which are quite distracti[ng], are at the same time so addictive that youngsters find it hard to put a stop to it.

---

stopover /ˈstɒp.əʊ.və/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a short stop between parts of a journey, especially a plane journey

Dictionary example:
The plane tickets include a two-night stopover in Singapore.

Learner example:
We both thought that it was a good idea to have that stop-over at your place as it was on our route to Norway anyhow.

---

storage /ˈstɔː.rɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: storage
Verbs: store
NOUN [u]
[B2] when you put things in a safe place until they are needed

Dictionary example:
We've had to build some cupboards to give us more storage space.

Learner example:
I think that is what our future home will be like, with lots of clever storage, and probably a few robots to do all the chores like washing up, hoovering and cleaning the windows.

store /stoːr/

Word family:
Nouns: storage
Verbs: store

NOUN [c]
[B1] a large shop where you can buy many different types of goods

Dictionary example:
a DIY/furniture store in store

[C1] going to happen soon

Dictionary examples:
You never know what's in store for you.
There's a bit of a shock in store for him when he gets home tonight!

Learner example:
Nobody knows what the future will have in store!

VERB [T]

KEEP
[B2] to put or keep things in a special place for use in the future

Dictionary examples:
I stored my possessions in my mother's house while I was living in Spain.
I've stored my thick sweaters and jackets (away) until next winter.

Learner example:
Then we can just go to the fridge where all the fresh food is stored ready to eat.

COMPUTER
[B2] to keep information on a computer

Dictionary example:
The data is stored on a hard disk and backed up on a CD.
Learner example:
First of all, using a computer is important for me because I can store my personal records such as my diary or expenses.

storey /ˈstoː.ri/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a level of a building

Dictionary examples:
a three-storey house
Their new house has four storeys including the basement.

Learner example:
It is a one-storey building in [the] Russian style with one, rather small, room with a bar and 10 tables.

stormy /ˈstoː.mi/

Word family:
Nouns: storm
Adjectives: stormy

ADJECTIVE

WEATHER
[B2] If it is stormy, the weather is bad with a lot of wind and rain.

Dictionary examples:
a stormy night
stormy seas

Learner example:
It was a cold and stormy night.

ARGUING
[C1] A stormy relationship or situation involves a lot of anger and arguments.

Dictionary examples:
a stormy relationship
a stormy meeting/debate

Learner example:
I had not expected that you would contact me again (especially after our stormy discussion a month ago).
story ˈstoː.ri/

NOUN [C]

REPORT
[B2] a report in a newspaper or on a news broadcast of something that has happened

Dictionary example:
The main story in the papers today is the president's speech.

Learner example:
If someone famous goes to a pub, he should be careful what he drinks, because he could find an interesting story about his alcoholism in [the] newspapers tomorrow.

to cut a long story short
[C1] to mention only the final result or point of something without going into other details

Dictionary example:
To cut a long story short, he never played baseball again.

Learner example:
Well, to cut a long story short, let's say tuition yes, facilities no.

EXPLANATION
[C2] an explanation of why something happened, which may not be true

Dictionary example:
Did he tell you the same story about why he was late?

Learner example:
Susan repeated the same story three or four times: Jason had come from work at 5 o’clock and she had gone to the grocer’s to get some potatoes for dinner.

straight /ˈstreɪt/

ADJECTIVE

HONEST
[B2] honest

Dictionary example:
a straight answer

Learner example:
I'm asking you to give us a reasonable and straight reply.
LEVEL
[B2] in a position that is level or vertical

Dictionary example:
That shelf's not straight.

get sth straight
[C1] to make sure that you completely understand a situation

Dictionary example:
Let me get this straight – am I paying for this?

Learner example:
Next time you should try to get your facts straight.

put/set the record straight
[C1] to tell people the true facts about a situation

Dictionary example:
I know they thought Alex was lying, and I wanted to put the record straight.

Learner example:
I hope that my letter will set the record straight and that the public shall be informed about the true events of that day.

keep a straight face
[C2] to manage to stop yourself from smiling or laughing

Dictionary example:
I can never play jokes on people because I can't keep a straight face.

ADVERB

IMMEDIATELY
[B1] without pausing or delaying

Dictionary examples:
I got home and went straight to bed.
Shall we go straight to the party or stop off at a pub first?

Learner example:
When I came back home at 11.30, I went straight to bed.

straight away
[B1] immediately

Dictionary examples:
I knew straight away what you were thinking.
We don’t need to go straight away – we can stay for a little while.

Learner example:
We met on Tuesday for the first time and went skating straight away, without even discussing where we were going.
sit up/stand up straight [B2] to sit or stand with your body vertical

Dictionary example:
Stand up straight and put your shoulders back!

Learner example:
She tried to sit up straight and quickly realised all her mus[c]les were stiff from non activity.

come/get straight to the point
[B2] to say what you want to immediately and directly

Dictionary examples:
I’ll come straight to the point, we’ve run out of money.
Can you get straight to the point? We need to go home!

Learner example:
I will come straight to the point, Mark. I think you’re just killing yourself with your work.

not think straight
[C1] If you cannot think straight, you are not thinking clearly about something.

Dictionary example:
I was so tired, I couldn’t think straight.

Learner example:
My stress wouldn’t let me think straight.

straightforward /ˌstreɪtˈfɔː.wəd/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] easy to do or understand

Dictionary example:
Just follow the signs to Bradford – it’s very straightforward.

Learner example:
The question of w[h]ether we should keep animals in zoos is not as straightforward as it may seem at first.

strain /streɪn/

NOUN PRESSURE
[B2] [C usually no plural or U] pressure put on something by a bad situation or by too much weight or force
Dictionary examples:
All those books put a strain on the shelf and it broke!
Excess weight puts a lot of strain on the heart.

Learner example:
I think I certainly could live without watching television for a week, but it would put a tremendous strain on my everyday life because I find watching TV relaxing and I like being swept by the flood of information that you watch and listen to without really paying attention to it.

Worry
[B2] [c or u] when you feel nervous and worried about something

Dictionary examples:
She’s a lot better than she was but she’s still not ready to face the stresses and strains of a job.
He’s been under a lot of strain recently.

Learner example:
[Our dog] helps us in our everyday life and [relieves the] stresses and strains.

Injury
[C2] [c or u] an injury to part of your body that is caused by using it too much

Dictionary example:
back strain

Verb
Injure
[B2] [t] to injure part of your body by using it too much

Dictionary examples:
I think I've strained a muscle.
Don't read in the dark or you'll strain your eyes.

Learner example:
I went to the optician's to have my eyes checked and he said I had some trouble with my eyesight, so he advised me to wear glasses and not to strain my eyes.

Money
[C2] [t] to cause too much of something to be used, especially money

Dictionary example:
The war is straining the defence budget.

Learner example:
It sounded very good, but I soon discovered that the service was quite inadequate and all the staff there had to say was that they couldn't do any more and that the budget was too strained.
strand /strænd/

NOUN [c]

THREAD

[C2] a thin piece of hair, thread, rope, etc.

Dictionary example:
She tucked a strand of hair behind her ear.

Learner example:
She noticed a loose strand of white hair, and immediately pinned it back.

PART OF STORY

[C2] one part of a story, situation, idea, etc.

Dictionary example:
There are a number of different strands to the plot.

stranded /ˈstræn.dɪd/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] unable to leave a place

Dictionary example:
We were stranded at the airport for ten hours.

Learner example:
Not a single member of the group would have imagined that the "Luxury coach" would break down and leave them stranded in the middle of nowhere, and what was worse without mobile network coverage.

strange /streɪndʒ/

Word family:

Nouns: stranger
Adjectives: strange
Adverbs: strangely

ADJECTIVE

NOT FAMILIAR

[B1] A strange person or place is one that you are not familiar with.
Dictionary examples:
With so many strange faces around her, the baby started to cry.
I've never been here before either, so it's all strange to me too.

Learner example:
She doesn't like a big city and strange people.

strangely /ˈstreɪndʒli/

Word family:
Nouns: stranger
Adjectives: strange
Adverbs: strangely

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is unusual, unexpected or difficult to understand

Dictionary examples:
She was strangely calm.
Strangely enough, I'm not feeling very hungry.

Learner example:
Strangely enough this has not happened yet to zoos.

stranger /ˈstreɪn.dʒər/

Word family:
Nouns: stranger
Adjectives: strange
Adverbs: strangely

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone you have never met before

Dictionary examples:
My mother always warned me not to talk to strangers.
I can't just walk up to a complete stranger and start talking to them.

Learner example:
The stranger came in front of me and asked if I [was able to] recognise him.
strap  /stræp/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a narrow piece of material used to fasten two things together or to carry something

Dictionary examples:
a watch strap
a bra strap
I want a bag with a shoulder strap.

Learner example:
When Cathy un[w]rapped the small parcel she found a little red book which had a slim strap with a tiny golden lock.

---

strategic  /strəˈtiː.dʒɪk/

Word family:

Nouns: strategy
Adjectives: strategic Adverbs: strategically

ADJECTIVE

[C1] helping to achieve a plan, usually in business, politics, or war

Dictionary examples: strategic planning
strategic weapons
The new offices are in a strategic location, with easy access to the motorway.

Learner example:
This would prove to be a strategic advantage, given the relatively reduced financial power our company has currently.

---

strategically  /strəˈtiː.dʒɪk.li/

Word family:

Nouns: strategy
Adjectives: strategic Adverbs: strategically

ADVERB

[C2] in a strategic way

Dictionary example:
A few strategically placed police officers monitored the situation.
Learner example:
Large containers strategically situated along the village seem an appropriate solution.

strategy /ˈstræt.ə.dʒi/

Word family:
Nouns: strategy
Adjectives: strategic Adverbs: strategically

NOUN [c]

[B2] a plan that you use to achieve something

Dictionary examples:
the government's economic strategy a military strategy
a long-term strategy
We're working on new strategies to improve our share of the market.

Learner example:
My strategy was simple: all the players had got [a] lot [of] experience, [so] I thought that the only chance to win [wa]s to bluff it out.

straw /strɔː/

NOUN

[C1] [u] the long, dried stems of plants such as wheat, often given to animals for sleeping on and eating

Dictionary examples:
a straw basket/hat
straw–coloured hair

Learner example:
Last but not least, many Japanese style hotels and restaurants now have square holes in tatami (straw mat) rooms so that foreign visitors can comfortably stretch their legs under the low table without having to be seated on folded legs like Zen monks!

the final/last straw

[C1] the last in a series of unpleasant events which finally makes you stop accepting a bad situation

Dictionary example:
Last week he came home drunk at five in the morning, and that was the final straw.

Learner example:
The last straw was that as a result of the unrealised itinerary, I couldn't do what I had planned.
TUBE
[C2] [c] a thin plastic or paper tube that you use for drinking through

Dictionary example:
Could I have a straw, please?

strawberry /ˈstrɔː.bәri/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a small, red fruit with a green leaf at the top and small, brown seeds on its surface

Dictionary examples:
I thought we'd have strawberries and cream for dessert.
strawberry jam

Learner example:
At first we drank something – it was a special drink with strawberries.

stream /striːm/

NOUN [c]

SMALL RIVER
[B1] a small river

Dictionary examples:
a mountain stream underground streams
A little stream flows through their garden.

Learner example:
On our way I saw small streams, small [areas of] jungle and beautiful animals also.

a stream of sth
[B2] a continuous flow of things or people

Dictionary examples:
There has been a steady stream of phone calls from worried customers.
I had a constant stream of visitors while I was ill.

Learner example:
This teahouse is packed throughout [the] day with workers and retired people, who come to sip tea, talk, and watch the endless stream of passers-by in the old city of China.

2880 street /strɪːt/

NOUN [c]

be streets ahead (of sb/sth)
[C2] to be much better or more advanced than someone or something else

Dictionary example:
American film companies are streets ahead of their European rivals.

strength /streŋθ/

Word family:
Nouns: strength
Verbs: strengthen
Adjectives: strong
Adverbs: strongly

NOUN

STRONG
[B2] [u] the ability to do things that need a lot of physical effort or power

Dictionary examples:
upper body strength
It’s a sport that requires great physical strength.

Learner example:
First of all, we must start [by] running [for] thirty minutes per day to improve our physical strength.

GOOD QUALITIES
[C1] [c] a good quality or ability that makes someone or something effective

Dictionary examples:
We all have our strengths and weaknesses.
The great strength of this arrangement is its simplicity.

Learner example:
As everything, education in Spain has its strengths and weaknesses.

BEING BRAVE
[C1] [u] when you are brave or determined in difficult situations

Dictionary examples:
I think she showed great strength of character.
He has a great deal of inner strength.
Learner example:
All in all, being famous takes a lot of courage and strength of personality to be able to face fame and all the risks that come along [with it].

go from strength to strength
[C1] to continue to become more successful

Dictionary example:
The business is going from strength to strength.

Learner example:
To sum up, I believe that if the suggestions outlined above are put into action our magazine will go from strength to strength.

INFLUENCE
[C2] [u] the power or influence that an organization, country, etc. has

Dictionary example:
economic strength

Learner example:
Due to the very function of sport, a country’s success in international competition has been associated with its general strength and viability and [has] consequently been a matter of national pride.

strengthen /ˈstreŋ.θən/

Word family:
Nouns: strength
Verbs: strengthen
Adjectives: strong
Adverbs: strongly

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to become stronger or make something become stronger

Dictionary examples:
exercises to strengthen the leg muscles
The experience only strengthened his belief in God.

Learner example:
Using the bike keeps your body in good shape – the daily exercise is good for your heart [and] your lungs, and strengthen[s] your muscles.
strenuous  /ˈstren.ju.əs/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] using or needing a lot of effort

Dictionary example:
strenuous exercise

Learner example:
With the ever-growing influence of modern techni[ques], it has become increasingly important to strive for near perfection in every move they make; the pursuit of excellence therefore carrying more weight than ever and leading to strenuous training programs.

stress  /stres/

Word family:

- Nouns: stress
- Verbs: stress
- Adjectives: stressed, stressful

NOUN

WORRY

[B1] [C or u] feelings of worry caused by difficult situations such as problems at work

Dictionary examples:
People under a lot of stress may experience headaches, minor pains and sleeping difficulties. Yoga is a very effective technique for dealing with stress. the stresses and strains of work stress–related illness

Learner example:
I think you are all ac[cu]st[o]med to city things, and all of them bring us stress, so I think you should go to the countryside, where you will find peace and so you'll relax.

PRONUNCIATION

[B2] [C or u] when you say one part of a word more strongly than the rest

Dictionary examples:
The meaning of a sentence often depends on stress and intonation. When 'insert' is a verb, the stress is on the second syllable, but when it is a noun, the stress is on the first syllable.

IMPORTANCE

[C1] [u] special importance that you give to something

Dictionary example:
At school, they laid/put/placed great stress on academic achievement.
Learner example:
On the other hand, I think they should put some more stress on improving their student’s writing skills, even down to basics like grammar, because our sales people have to hand out a lot of written information as well, which will make us look much better – especially as far as the English-speaking market is concerned – if the English is flawless.

VERB

EMPHASIZE

[B2] [ɪ] to emphasize something in order to show that it is important

Dictionary examples:
I stressed that this was our policy.
She stressed the importance of timing.

Learner example:
I would like to stress that very often famous people become reserved, bad-tempered and angry with the world for interfering [with] their lives.

PRONOUNCE

[B2] [ɪ] to say one part of a word more strongly than the rest

Dictionary example:
In the word ‘engine’, you should stress the first syllable.

---

stressed /ˈstres/
Word family:
Nouns: stress
Verbs: stress
Adjectives: stressed, stressful

ADJECTIVE

[B1] worried and not able to relax

Dictionary examples:
She’s been feeling very stressed since she started her new job.
I was really stressed out before the exam.

Learner example:
I was a little bit stressed when I woke up in the morning.

---

stressful /ˈstres.fəl/
Word family:
Nouns: stress
Verbs: stress
Adjectives: stressed, stressful
ADJECTIVE

[B1] making you feel worried and not able to relax

Dictionary examples:
- a stressful day/job
  Police work is physically demanding and stressful.
  She's very good at coping with stressful situations.

Learner example:
It is good to go there after [a] stressful day.

stretch /stretʃ/

VERB

MAKE BIGGER

[B2] [I or T] to become longer or wider, or to pull something so that it becomes longer or wider

Dictionary examples:
- Don't pull my sweater – you'll stretch it.
- The top had stretched in the wash.

BODY

[B2] [I or T] to make your body or part of your body straighter and longer

Dictionary examples:
- "I'm so tired, " she said, yawning and stretching.
- It's a good idea to stretch before you take any serious exercise.
- Stretch your arms above your head.

Learner example:
First of all cycling is a sport so you have the possibility to move your body, to stretch your joints and to strengthen your muscles.

stretch away/into, etc.

[C2] to cover a large area

Dictionary examples:
- The fields stretched away into the distance.
- A huge cloud of dense smoke stretched across the horizon.
- The Andes stretch for 7250 km along the west coast of South America.

Learner example:
I remember playing in the fields that stretched out to the horizon and sailing and swimming in the streams and lakes surrounding the small village where my parents live.
NOUN [c]
[C1] a continuous area of land or water

Dictionary examples:
This particular stretch of coast is especially popular with walkers.
Traffic is at a standstill along a five-mile stretch of the M11 just south of Cambridge.
Some very rare birds inhabit this stretch of the river.

Learner example:
There's a stretch of coastline in the south-east of Spain that one could still call "real Spain" not many years ago.

strict /strɪkt/

Word family:
Adjectives: strict
Adverbs: strictly

ADJECTIVE

PERSON
[B1] A strict person makes sure that children or people working for them behave well and does not allow them to break any rules.

Dictionary examples:
a strict teacher
My parents were very strict with us.

Learner example:
The teacher was strict but nice.

RULE
[B2] If a rule, law, etc. is strict, it must be obeyed.

Dictionary examples:
She gave me strict instructions to be there by ten.
We need stricter controls on air pollution.
We follow very strict guidelines on the use and storage of personal details on computers.
Do you think stricter laws would help reduce automobile accidents?

Learner example:
I would like the government to impose strict rules and regulations on capturing animals.

BEHAVIOUR
[B2] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] always behaving in a particular way because of your beliefs

Dictionary examples:
a strict Hindu/Muslim/Christian/
She's a strict vegetarian and doesn't eat poultry or fish.
Learner example:
When organising our lunch, please note that seven of us are strict vegetarians.

EXACT
[C2] exactly correct

Dictionary example:
a strict translation of a text

Learner example:
You mustn't take this in its strict sense; when I say "severe", I mean aware and mindful of today's problems.

strictly /ˈstrɪkt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: strict
Adverbs: strictly

ADVERB

EXACTLY
[B2] exactly or correctly

Dictionary examples:
That's not strictly true.
Strictly speaking, we're not allowed to give you any advice.

Learner example:
Strictly speaking, we don't think about the future when the subject is nature because we think that it's eternal.

strictly forbidden/prohibited
[B2] used to emphasize that something is not allowed

Dictionary example:
The use of cameras is strictly forbidden.

Learner example:
Eric was going to [have] serious problems, because smoking was strictly forbidden in this school.

strike /straɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: striker
Verbs: strike
Adjectives: striking
VERB

HIT
[B1] [ɪ] to hit someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Two climbers were struck by falling rocks.
His car went out of control and struck a tree.
I've never heard of anyone being struck by lightning.

Learner example:
Only seconds later, the tree was struck by lightning.

THINK
[B2] [ɪ] If a thought or idea strikes you, you suddenly think of it.

Dictionary example:
It struck me that I had forgotten to order the champagne.

Learner example:
Sitting there, waiting, I began to think and an idea struck me.

what struck me/the first thing that struck me...
[B2] used when talking about a very obvious quality that you noticed when you first saw or met someone or something

Dictionary examples:
What struck me about Cole was how grown-up he seemed for a seven-year-old.
The first thing that struck me about Emma was her extraordinary beauty.

Learner example:
What strikes me most is the way she is dealing with other people.

STOP WORK
[B2] [ɪ] to stop working for a period of time because you want more money, better working conditions, etc.

Dictionary example:
Train drivers are threatening to strike over pay.

Learner example:
The town's transport workers have started to strike.

strike a balance
[C1] to give two things the same amount of attention

Dictionary example:
It's important to strike a balance between spending and saving.

Learner example:
Everything has good and bad sides, the most important thing is to strike a balance.
strike sb as sth

[C2] If someone or something strikes you as having a particular quality, they seem to have that quality.

Dictionary examples:
He didn't strike me as a passionate man.
They strike me as creative and original people.
His comments struck me as aggressive.

Learner example:
Mrs Kingshaw strikes me as a rather frivolous woman.

strike gold, oil, etc.

[C2] to find a supply of gold, oil, etc. in the ground

Dictionary example:
They hope to strike oil in the desert.

Learner example:
Their very own father had struck oil, made tons of money with it and did not even want to give some to his children.

strike a match

[C2] to light a match in order to produce fire

Dictionary example:
I struck a match and lit the candle.

Learner example:
Their instant reaction was to park the car, put their raincoats on, get out and strike a few useless matches: they were their last light resour[c]e apart from the lightning in the sky and the weak [head]lights.

EFFECT

[C2] [ɪ] If something bad strikes something or someone, it affects them strongly and quickly.

Dictionary example:
The hurricane struck the coast at about eight in the morning.

Learner example:
And there had been the blight w[hic]h struck half of the plantation.

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a period of time when people are not working because they want more money, better working conditions, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The city's bus drivers have been on strike for three weeks.
a teachers' strike
Learner example:
Indeed, the bus company has plan[n]ed a strike.

striker /ˈstrair.kaɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: striker
Verbs: strike
Adjectives: striking

NOUN [C]

WORKER
[C1] someone who is on strike

Dictionary example:
Managers have threatened to sack the strikers.

Learner example:
There were also people who agreed with the strikers.

FOOTBALL PLAYER
[C2] a football player whose job is to try to score goals

Dictionary example:
He is a skilled striker.

Learner example:
Then their striker scored.

striking /ˈstrair.kɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: striker
Verbs: strike
Adjectives: striking

ADJECTIVE
[B2] easily noticed

Dictionary examples:
There are striking similarities between the two cases.
There's a striking resemblance between them.

Learner example:
The most striking thing was the fact that I filed it.
string /strɪŋ/

NOUN

ROPE

[B2] [c or u] very thin rope used for tying things

Dictionary examples:
a parcel tied with string a ball/piece of string

Learner example:
In only two days, our relationship was like a strong string that [can] never be cut.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

[B2] [c] a piece of wire that is part of a musical instrument

Dictionary example:
guitar/violin strings

Learner example:
[T]he guitarist, who ha[d] just broken one string of his guitar, began to dr[i]nk some alcohol.

a string of sth

[C2] a number of similar things

Dictionary examples:
a string of questions
As a writer, she's enjoyed a string of successes.

Learner example:
Cities have grown, bringing with this growth a string of problems which were not thought of years ago.

pull strings

[C2] to secretly use the influence that you have over important people to get something or to help someone

Dictionary example:
I may be able to pull a few strings, if you need the money urgently.

Learner example:
This isn't secret: I thought some of these ideas might be of interest and perhaps an article about them [i]n your newspaper would pull the necessary strings at the City Hall to produce some very much needed changes.

no strings (attached)

[C2] If there are no strings attached to an offer or arrangement, there is nothing that is unpleasant that you have to accept.
Dictionary example:
I'll drive you home – no strings attached.

Learner example:
It is not that often that one comes across true 'no strings attached' generosity.

strip /strɪp/

NOUN [C]
[C1] a long, narrow piece of something

Dictionary example:
a strip of paper

Learner example:
After that workers had to use the most basic tools and [their] hands to produce socks from the strips of silk.

stripe /straɪp/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a long, straight area of colour

Dictionary example:
The zebra is a wild African horse with black and white stripes.

Learner example:
I don't like clothes with stripes, because I think that's a little old-fashioned.

strive /straɪv/

VERB [I] FORMAL (strove, strived, striven, strived) [C2] to try very hard to do or achieve something

Dictionary examples:
to strive for happiness/peace
We are constantly striving to improve our service.

Learner example:
The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, who strives valiantly, [...] who, at best, knows the joys of high achievement, and who, at worst, if [he] fails, at least fails while daring greatly.
stroke /strəʊk/

NOUN [C]

ILLNESS
[B2] a sudden problem in your brain that changes the flow of blood and makes you unable to move part of your body

Dictionary example:
She suffered/had a stroke which left her unable to speak.

Learner example:
I’m sure there’s a high risk [of] a heart attack or a stroke if you go on the way you [are going] now.

SWIMMING
[C1] a style of swimming

Dictionary example:
What stroke do you prefer?

Learner example:
Although both may know how to swim, the professional, who was trained in proper strokes and hydrodynamic[s], will definitely turn out the better swimmer.

a stroke of luck
[C2] something good that happens to you by chance

Dictionary example:
He had exactly the part that I needed so that was a stroke of luck.

Learner example:
After a one-hour interview she was asked whether she could be starting work the very next day. A real stroke of luck.

MOVEMENT
[C2] a movement that you make against something with your hand, a pen, brush, etc.

Dictionary example:
a brush stroke

Learner example:
The power of the brush strokes and the intense energy in the image made me sigh with adoration.

VERB [T]
[B2] to gently move your hand over a surface
Dictionary examples:
Stroke the dog if you like, it won't bite.
He stroked her hair.
She lovingly stroked Chris's face with the tips of her fingers.

Learner example:
And do not forget to stroke your cat!

stroll /strəʊl/

VERB

stroll along/down/through, etc.
[C1] to walk somewhere in a slow and relaxed way

Dictionary example:
They strolled along the beach.

Learner example:
Some of us were a bit upset because they wanted some free time to stroll around the shops or have a chat over a drink.

NOUN [C]
[C1] a slow, relaxed walk somewhere

Dictionary example:
We went for a stroll around the city centre.

Learner example:
In the evening you can take a stroll to a vineyard nearby and authentic country food is available there.

strong /strɒŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: strength
Verbs: strengthen
Adjectives: strong
Adverbs: strongly

ADJECTIVE

DIFFICULT TO BREAK
[B1] A strong object does not break or get damaged easily.

Dictionary examples:
a strong box/chair
The window is made from very strong glass so it won't shatter.
Learner example:
In winter I wear big jackets, gloves, warm trousers and strong boots.

NOTICEABLE
[B1] very noticeable or powerful

Dictionary examples:
strong coffee
There's a strong smell of burning.
I like quite strong colours.
I can give you stronger pain-killing drugs if these aren't strong enough.
It's surprising what strong memories a photograph can produce.
My grandmother had a strong influence/effect on my early childhood.

Learner example:
Moreover I like clothes with strong colours e.g. red and green.

PRODUCED WITH POWER
[B1] produced using a lot of power

Dictionary examples:
a strong kick/blow
Her voice was clear and strong.
Strong winds are forecast in the area for the next few days.

Learner example:
Unluckily, the rest of the days were cloudy and with strong winds.

RELATIONSHIP
[B1] Strong relationships last for a long time, and are not easily spoiled.

Dictionary example:
Throughout the crisis, their marriage remained strong.

Learner example:
Actually, now our relationship is very strong.

GOOD QUALITY
[B2] of a good quality or level and likely to be successful or effective

Dictionary examples:
a strong economy
They're a very strong team.
She's the strongest candidate we've interviewed for the post.

Learner example:
My reason for applying for this trip is that I am very interested in meeting people from different countries and as I have a strong background in languages I would be very helpful in the communication field.
DETERMINED

[B2] A strong feeling, belief, or opinion is felt in a very deep and serious way.

Dictionary example:
She has strong opinions/views about religion.

Learner example:
Nowadays the importance of family life is a matter which arouses fierce[ly] strong passions.

PERSONALITY

[B2] If a person or their personality is strong, they are confident and able to deal with problems well.

Dictionary examples:
All my aunts were strong women.
He has a strong personality, but don’t let him bully you.

Learner example:
Mary was a strong and intelligent woman. She was stronger and her personality was more developed than her aunt[s].

strong language

[C1] words that some people might consider to be offensive

Dictionary example:
The movie contains strong language.

Learner example:
But what I do see is local kids standing by the corner, chat[ting], smoking fags and using strong language.

sb’s strong point

[C1] something that someone is very good at

Dictionary example:
Cooking is not my strong point.

Learner example:
She’s got a lot of strong points, more than weaknesses.

a strong chance/possibility, etc.

[C2] something that is very likely to happen

Dictionary example:
There’s a strong possibility of rain this afternoon.

strong opposition/support, etc.

[C2] a lot of opposition/support, etc.

Dictionary example:
There has been strong opposition to the cuts.
Learner example:
Therefore, in spite of strong opposition [by] the car companies and people's egoistic interests, car traffic should be gradually reduced and eventually prohibited.

be still going strong [C2] continuing to be successful or healthy after a long time

Dictionary examples:
The club was set up in 1987, and it's still going strong.
He's 93 and still going strong!

Learner example:
I am proud of him and happy that he is still going strong.

strongly /ˈstrɒŋ.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: strength
Verbs: strengthen
Adjectives: strong
Adverbs: strongly

ADVERB
[B2] very much or in a very serious way

Dictionary examples:
They strongly believe their children should make choices for themselves.
Many locals are strongly opposed to the development.

Learner example:
I strongly disagree with the statement saying that "At school, students should only study what they enjoy".

structural /ˈstrʌk.tʃərəl/

Word family:
Nouns: structure
Verbs: restructure
Adjectives: structural, structured

ADJECTIVE
[C2] relating to the structure of something

Dictionary examples:
structural damage
The last five years have seen big structural changes in the company.
Moreover, Hong Kong has been undergoing various structural changes and economic issues since the financial turmoil in 1998.

Learner example:

structure /ˈstrʌk.tʃə/

Word family:
Nouns: structure
Verbs: restructure
Adjectives: structural, structured

NOUN

WAY PARTS ARE ARRANGED

[B2] [c or u] the way that parts of something are arranged or put together

Dictionary examples:
the grammatical structure of a sentence
They have a very old-fashioned management structure.

Learner example:

On the other hand, as far as the Greek language is concerned, I think it would be very hard for you and for everybody to learn it because of its difficult and very complicated grammar, vocabulary and structure.

BUILDING

[C2] [c] a building or something that has been built

Dictionary example:

The house was a wooden structure.

Learner example:

For example, for most foreign visitors to Japan I think it is a wonderful experience to go to Nara city and see the world’s oldest and biggest wooden structure, or to see traditional Noh dance and Kabuki play.

VERB

[C2] [t] to arrange something in an organized way

Dictionary example:

How is the course structured?

Learner example:

Since women in the Western countries started working in the 70s, there has been a big change in the way our family life is structured.
structured /ˈstrʌk.tʃəd/

Word family:
Nouns: structure
Verbs: restructure
Adjectives: structural, structured

ADJECTIVE
[C2] organized so that the parts relate well to each other

Dictionary example:
a structured series of lectures

Learner example:
The exchange of political or economic ideas, as well as new tec[h]nology, can provide the basis for a structured development of which could emerge a just and truly happy society.

struggle /ˈstrægl/

VERB [I]

TRY HARD
[B2] to try very hard to do something difficult

Dictionary examples:
He's been struggling to pay off his debts.
Fish struggle for survival when the water level drops in the lake.

Learner example:
Think about the people in the poor countries! They struggle to survive.

FIGHT
[B2] to fight someone when they are holding you

Dictionary example:
He struggled with his attacker who then ran off.

Learner example:
I bit his hand and ran to the phone. He reached me and we struggled for 10 minutes.

TRY TO DEFEAT/PREVENT
[C2] to use a lot of effort to defeat someone or prevent something

Dictionary examples:
For years she struggled with/against the establishment to get her theories accepted.
He is struggling with an ankle injury.
Learner example:
Just like Mahatma Gandhi, who advocated non-violent methods of struggle, Picasso struggled against Fascism [by] peaceful means, namely with his art.

NOUN [c]

EFFORT
[B2] [USUALLY NO PLURAL] when you try very hard to do something difficult

Dictionary examples:
It was a real struggle to stay awake during the film.
The people of this country will continue in their struggle for independence.
She never gave up the struggle to have her son freed from prison.

Learner example:
Their life was a severe financial struggle, and Tom's dream was to run somewhere far away.

FIGHT
[B2] a physical or mental fight

Dictionary examples:
a struggle with an armed robber
the struggle between good and evil
Clearly there will be a power struggle within the party.

Learner example:
My friend started to walk into the water when suddenly a crocodile grabbed her leg. After a long struggle, she managed to get herself up on land.

---

stubborn /ˈstʌb.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: stubbornness
Adjectives: stubborn

ADJECTIVE
[B2] determined not to change your ideas, plans, etc., although other people want you to

Dictionary examples:
He can be very stubborn sometimes.
They have massive rows because they're both so stubborn.

Learner example:
Anyway, Alex was too stubborn to give up and it was like talking to a brick wall.
stubbornness /ˈstʌb.ən.nəs/

Word family:
- Nouns: stubbornness
- Adjectives: stubborn

NOUN [u]

[C2] the quality of being stubborn

Dictionary example:
We were infuriated by his stubbornness.

Learner example:
Henry's words do not fail to show his royal stubbornness, only comparable to that of a mule.

stuck /stʌk/

Word family:
- Verbs: stick
- Adjectives: sticky, stuck

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

NOT MOVE

[B2] not able to move anywhere

Dictionary examples:
This door seems to be stuck – can you help me push it open?
My key got stuck in the lock.
Seven of us were stuck in the lift for over an hour.
I hate being stuck behind a desk – I'd rather work outside.

Learner example:
You want to go to your job, to an important appointment or to the hospital because you have a health problem and you are always stuck in traffic.

NOT CONTINUE

[C1] not able to continue reading, answering questions, etc. because something is too difficult

Dictionary example:
I keep getting stuck on difficult words.

Learner example:
I have got stuck so many times. However, whenever I got stuck, I [said] to myself that nobody could speak a foreign language fluently from the beginning.
be/get stuck with sb/sth

[C2] to have to deal with someone or something unpleasant because no one else wants to

Dictionary example:
Whenever we eat out, I always get stuck with the bill.

Learner example:
Therefore you are stuck with "aunt Mabel" having fun while pulling your leg. What you mus[t]n't do in this sort of situation is lose your temper.

---

studio /ˈstjuːdi.əʊ/ (PLURAL studios)

NOUN [C]

TV/RADIO/MUSIC

[B1] a room where television/radio programmes or music recordings are made

Dictionary examples:
She spent three months in the studio working on her latest album.
a studio audience

Learner example:
He offered me a contract and asked me to go to his music studio to record a CD.

FILM

[B1] a fim company or a place where films are made

Dictionary example:
a film studio

Learner example:
We will visit a local film studio.

ART

[B2] a room where an artist, designer or photographer works

Dictionary example:
She has a studio at the back of the house where she does her painting.

Learner example:
I'll be very happy [if] you can give me a chance to use the camp's art studio and [hope] you'll be able to prepare some materials like oil paints, canvas and brus[hes] for me.

2902 study /ˈstʌdi/

Word family:
Nouns: student, study
Verbs: study

NOUN

ROOM
[B1] [c] a room in a house where you can read or work

Dictionary example:
Alec was in the study, reading.

Learner example:
As I don’t have a study [to] myself, I have decided to buy a desk with two or three drawers.

LEARNING
[B2] [u] when you learn about a subject, usually at school or university

Dictionary example:
the study of English literature

Learner example:
Everyone had to [include] the study of many disciplines.

EXAMINING
[B2] [c] when someone examines a subject in detail in order to discover new information

Dictionary examples:
a five-year study of the relationship between wildlife and farming
Some studies have suggested a link between certain types of artificial sweetener and cancer.

Learner example:
But, as a recent study [by] scientists has shown, the [grow]ing lack of ozon[e] is also due to the [emissions] produced by all the private cars.

VERB

EXAMINE
[B2] [I or T] to examine a subject in detail in order to discover new information

Dictionary example:
Researchers have been studying how people under stress make decisions.

Learner example:
In zoos, they are not just shown to the public: scientist[s] study their behaviour [so] as to understand what the particular animal real[l]y needs to survive.
LOOK AT
[B2] [ɪ] to look at or read through something very carefully

Dictionary examples:
I want time to study this contract thoroughly before signing it.
He studied her face for signs of guilt.

Learner example:
The first thing I did when I arrived there was to study the city map, and then I went out for a walk.

stuff /stʌf/

NOUN [u]

SUBSTANCE
[B1] used to refer to a substance or a group of things or ideas, etc. without saying exactly what they are

Dictionary examples:
There's sticky stuff all over the chair.
We'll have to carry all our camping stuff.
This week in class, we're discussing articles about industrial pollution, global warming, and stuff like that.
Do you want help bringing your stuff in from the van?
All that stuff she has been saying about Lee is rubbish.

Learner example:
I enjoyed the harbour [most], you know. I like [watch]ing boats and stuff like that.

know your stuff INFORMAL [C2] to know a lot about a subject, or to be very good at doing something

Dictionary example:
She's an excellent teacher – she really knows her stuff.

Learner example:
The thing was that she should have been be able to tell them what to do; she never doubted her own abilities. She knew 'her stuff' all right.

VERB [t]

stuff sth in/into/behind, etc.
[C2] to push something into a small space, or to fill a container with something, often in a forceful or careless way

Dictionary examples:
He stuffed the papers into his briefcase and left.
This case is absolutely full – I can't stuff another thing into it.
A casserole stood on the stove waiting for his arrival and the freeze[r] and fridge were stuffed full with food for the week he would be here.

stumble /ˈstʌm.bl/

VERB [I]

FALL
[C2] to step badly and almost fall over

Dictionary example:
Mary stumbled on the loose rocks.

Learner example:
My attic was so dark that I stumbled and fell.

PAUSE
[C2] to make a mistake, such as pausing or repeating a word, while speaking or performing

Dictionary example:
He kept stumbling over the same word.

Learner example:
One of the new–stars worried so much that she began stumbling over the words in the middle of her hit.

stunned /ˈstʌnd/
Dictionary examples:
a stunning dress
a stunning view over the bay of Saint Tropez
She's absolutely stunning.

Learner example:
I think that it would be ideal for you to go there and take some pictures of it since the architecture is absolutely stunning!

stupid /ˈstjuː.pɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: stupidity
Adjectives: stupid

ADJECTIVE
[B1] silly or not intelligent

Dictionary examples:
How could you be so stupid?
Whose stupid idea was it to travel at night?
She was really stupid to quit her job like that.
It was a stupid thing to do.

Learner example:
[The coach] said that we must learn to be like Rambo! But I think that's stupid, because in football you can't be like Rambo.

stupidity /stjuːˈpɪd.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: stupidity
Adjectives: stupid

NOUN [u]
[C2] the state of being silly or unwise

Dictionary example:
The accident was caused by my own stupidity.

Learner example:
The most important point however was that I found out that our two countries have similar problems and that prejudices against any country or people are based on stupidity and intolerance.
style /staɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: style
Adjectives: stylish

NOUN

WAY
[B1] [c or u] a way of doing something that is typical of a particular person, group, place, or period

Dictionary examples:
a style of painting/writing
Jon has an interesting hands-on style of management.

Learner example:
I love Hip Hop music. This style of music is my life.

FASHION
[B1] [c or u] a way of designing hair, clothes, furniture, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She's had her hair cut in a really nice style.
the latest styles
The classic black dress is always in style.

Learner example:
And they like the same style of clothes as I do.

QUALITY
[B2] [u] the quality of being attractive and fashionable or behaving in a way which makes people admire you

Dictionary example:
She's got style.

Learner example:
But when he came back, his popularity was increased. That's reasonable, because he's got style, he is authentic and brill[i]ant.

cramp sb’s style
[C2] to prevent someone from enjoying themselves, especially by going somewhere with them

Dictionary example:
Are you sure you don't mind me coming with you? I'd hate to cramp your style.

Learner example:
I would never want neither to cramp their style nor to make them feel unimportant, lonely or lost.
stylish

Word family:
Nouns: style
Adjectives: stylish

ADJECTIVE

[B1] fashionable and attractive

Dictionary examples:
a stylish black suit
The film's direction is subtle and stylish.

Learner example:
I pay attention to fashionable and stylish clothes, of course, if they don't seem strange [or] unusual.

subconsciously

Word family:
Nouns: consciousness
Adjectives: conscious, unconscious, self-conscious
Adverbs: subconsciously, unconsciously

ADVERB

[C2] without being consciously aware of something

Dictionary example:
I think that subconsciously I knew I was in danger.

Learner example:
It is probably only wishful thinking that most people would wake up every morning wondering how to make the world a better place. In fact, most of us do it subconsciously.

subject

Word family:
Nouns: subject
Verbs: subject
Adjectives: subjective

NOUN [C]

GRAMMAR

[B1] SPECIALIZED the person or thing which performs the action described by the verb

Dictionary example:
'Bob' is the subject of the sentence 'Bob threw the ball'.
THING TALKED ABOUT

[B1] what someone is writing or talking about

Dictionary examples:
Our subject for discussion is homelessness.
She has made a series of documentaries on the subject of family relationships.

Learner example:
She likes swimming and practising yoga. In fact, this was the subject of our first lesson.

change the subject

[B2] to start talking about a different subject

Dictionary example:
I'd tried to explain the situation, but he just changed the subject.

Learner example:
Well, changing the subject, I accidentally broke your beautiful vase. I'm really sorry, I'll try to find [another] vase that looks similar.

drop it/the subject

[C2] to stop talking about something, especially because it is annoying or upsetting someone

Dictionary example:
I don't want to talk about it any more – let's drop the subject.

ADJECTIVE /ˈsʌb.dʒɪkt/

subject to sth

[C1] often affected by something, especially something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
Departure times are subject to alteration.

Learner example:
With regard to programme [items] subject to weather conditions – such as the boat trip on River Thames – please make sure that an alternative programme is foreseen in case of cancellation.

subject to sth

[C2] only able to happen if something else happens

Dictionary example:
The pay rise is subject to approval by management.

STORY/PAINTING

[C2] a person who is written about in a book or who is shown in a picture

Dictionary example:
Rembrandt is the subject of her latest novel.
Learner example:
No matter wherever we go, enjoy[ing] the beauty of [the] city, walking through the J[ew]ish district, discuss[ing] the subject of [a] painting or just sit[ting] in silence, [the] world is real only with him.

subject sb/sth to sth  PHRASAL VERB
[C2] to make someone or something experience something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
In prison, he was subjected to beatings and interrogations.

Learner example:
Homeless [people] are subjected to a very harsh and unhealth[y] style of life.

subjective /səbˈdʒektɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: subject
Verbs: subject
Adjectives: subjective

ADJECTIVE
[C1] influenced by someone's beliefs or feelings, instead of facts

Dictionary example:
a subjective judgment

Learner example:
I really love my city and country, but I am afraid I'm a little bit subjective.

submit /səbˈmɪt/ (−tt−)

VERB

GIVE
[B2] [ɪ] to send a document, plan, etc. to someone so that they can consider it

Dictionary examples:
Applications must be submitted before January 1st.
The developers submitted building plans to the council for approval.

Learner example:
According to my friends and professors, I am hardworking and never fail to submit my essays on [time].
OBEY

[C2] [i] to accept that someone has control over you and do what they tell you to do

Dictionary example:
He was forced to submit to a full body search.

Learner example:
Kingshaw has to submit to the role of victim once more.

subsequent /ˈsʌb.sɪ.kwənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: subsequent Adverbs: subsequently

ADJECTIVE

[C1] happening after something else

Dictionary example:
The mistakes were corrected in a subsequent edition of the book.

Learner example:
With a rapid economic growth and a subsequent increase in income level, working life in Korea has changed dramatically.

subsequently /ˈsʌb.sɪ.kwənt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: subsequent Adverbs: subsequently

ADVERB

[C1] after that

Dictionary example:
In 1982 he was arrested and subsequently convicted on drug trafficking charges.

Learner example:
Like nightmarish creatures, the McDonald's have sprung up from the ground in a little over two decades, and subsequently inundated the Media with adverts for their "food" products.
subsidy  /ˈsʌb.stədi/

NOUN [c]
[C1] money given by a government or other organization to pay part of the cost of something

Dictionary example:
housing subsidies for the poor

Learner example:
The rest of the money could be spent on subsidies for home owners and tenants and offering loans with a lower interest rate.

substance  /ˈsʌb.stənts/

Word family:
Nouns: substance
Adjectives: substantial
Adverbs: substantially

NOUN
MATERIAL
[B2] [c or u] a solid, liquid, or gas

Dictionary examples:
an organic/chemical substance
a dangerous substance
What sort of substance could withstand those temperatures?

Learner example:
Chemical substances are added to our food.

the substance of sth
[C2] the most important part of what someone has said or written

Dictionary example:
The substance of his argument is that men are more logical than women.

substantial  /ˈsəb.stənʃəl/

Word family:
Nouns: substance
Adjectives: substantial
Adverbs: substantially
ADJECTIVE

[B2] large in amount

Dictionary examples:
a substantial sum of money
The first draft of his novel needed a substantial amount of rewriting.
The findings show a substantial difference between the opinions of men and women.

Learner example:
The taxis: Considering that you are willing to spend quite a substantial amount of money, this is the best transport one can get.

---

substantially /səbˈstæn.ʃəli/

Word family:
Nouns: substance
Adjectives: substantial
Adverbs: substantially

---

ADVERB

[C1] to a large degree

Dictionary example:
The new rules will substantially change how we do things.

Learner example:
The quality of the individual classes differed substantially.

---

substitute /ˈsʌb.stɪ.tjuːt/

Word family:
Nouns: substitute, substitution
Verbs: substitute

---

VERB [T]

[B2] to use someone or something instead of another person or thing

Dictionary examples:
You can substitute oil for butter in this recipe.
Dayton was substituted for Williams in the second half of the match.

Learner example:
My opinion is that we shouldn't substitute one for the other, but read one and watch [the] other.

---

NOUN [C]

[B2] a thing or person that is used instead of another thing or person
Dictionary examples:
Tofu can be used as a meat substitute in vegetarian recipes.
Vitamins should not be used as a substitute for a healthy diet.

Learner example:
I had been looking forward to seeing his performance for ages, so as soon as I realized there was a substitute on the stage, I was really disappointed.

substitution /ˌsʌb.stɪˈtjuː.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: substitute, substitution
Verbs: substitute

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when you use someone or something instead of another person or thing

Dictionary example:
The coach has made two substitutions in the team.

Learner example:
The gradual substitution of the old bus fleet with a modern one would be a serious effort, [and] it would demand buckets of money.

subtitles /ˈsʌb.tɪ.tlz/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[C1] words shown at the bottom of a cinema or television screen to explain what is being said

Dictionary example:
It's a French film with English subtitles.

Learner example:
Another way of improving language is to project each film with subtitles.

subtle /ˈsʌt.l/

ADJECTIVE

NOT OBVIOUS
[C2] not obvious or easy to notice
Dictionary examples:
a subtle change/difference a subtle hint

Learner example:
You will have to find your own subtle balance between the number of radiators you use and the opening of windows to create a suitable atmosphere.

NOT STRONG
[C2] A subtle flavour, colour, etc. is delicate and not strong or bright.

Dictionary example:
The garlic has a more subtle flavour than you might imagine.

Learner example:
What attracts your attention most are the colours: warm, pleasant to the eye, subtle and somewhat unrealistic.

CLEVER
[C2] clever in a way that does not attract attention

Dictionary example:
a subtle way of solving the problem

Learner example:
That is indeed a subtle talent, being able to balance between deciding and listening.

---

suburb /ˈsʌb.ɜːb/

NOUN [c]
[B2] an area on the edge of a large town or city where people who work in the town or city often live

Dictionary examples:
Box Hill is a suburb of Melbourne.
We drove from middle-class suburbs to a very poor inner-city area.

Learner example:
Peterhof is only a small suburb of St. Petersburg and it is not famous [for] its nightlife.

---

subway /ˈsʌb.wei/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a passage under a road or railway for people to walk through

Dictionary example:
We could take the subway.
Learner example:
I began to walk along that narrow and dark subway.

---

succeed /səkˈsiːd/

Word family:
- Nouns: success
- Verbs: succeed
- Adjectives: successful, unsuccessful
- Adverbs: successfully, unsuccessfully

VERB [i]

[B1] to achieve what you are trying to achieve

Dictionary examples:
Lucy has the skill and determination to succeed.
She finally succeeded in passing the exam.
You need to be pretty tough to succeed in today's business world.

Learner example:
I hope I will succeed [in] the P.E.T.

---

success /səkˈses/

Word family:
- Nouns: success
- Verbs: succeed
- Adjectives: successful, unsuccessful
- Adverbs: successfully, unsuccessfully

NOUN

[Achievement] [B1] [u] when you achieve what you want to achieve

Dictionary examples:
The success of almost any project depends largely on its manager.
I've been trying to persuade her to take on more staff, but so far without success.
I'm not having much success in communicating with him at the moment.
The success rate for this operation is very low.

Learner example:
I searched in the taxi-cab and in the company with no success.

GOOD THING

[B1] [c] something that has a good result or that is very popular
Dictionary examples:
Both films have been a big/huge box-office success in this country.
She's keen to make a success of this project.
That salmon dish was a success, wasn't it?

Learner example:
And lastly the rest of the space we can use for further information and details about the history of our school and our successes in the past.

successful /səkˈses.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: success
Verbs: succeed
Adjectives: successful, unsuccessful
Adverbs: successfully, unsuccessfully

ACHIEVEMENT
[B1] achieving what you want to achieve

Dictionary examples:
a successful operation
My second attempt at making pizza was more successful.
This year's harvest was one of the most successful since the record crop of 1985.

Learner example:
I am very happy every time I return from a successful shopping-tour.

WORK
[B2] having achieved a lot or made a lot of money through your work

Dictionary examples:
a successful businesswoman
a successful career
He runs a very successful computer business.

Learner example:
I would like to finish by asking Mr. Smith to talk a bit about his life and his successful career.

POPULAR
[B2] very popular

Dictionary examples:
a successful film
He's the author of several hugely successful children's books.
Learner example:
I suppose the facts about your film career, especially about your first film and [your] most successful film would be pretty interesting [as well].

successfully /səkˈses.əli/

Word family:
Nouns: success
Verbs: succeed
Adjectives: successful, unsuccessful
Adverbs: successfully, un成功fully

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that is successful

Dictionary example:
A number of patients have been successfully treated with the new drug.

Learner example:
As you can see, I managed to do the project successfully.

successive /səkˈses.iv/

Word family:
Nouns: successor
Adjectives: successive

ADJECTIVE

[C2] happening after each other

Dictionary example:
He has just won the World Championship for the third successive year.

Learner example:
Their bodies no longer get worn out by successive pregnancies thanks to birth control medicines and techniques.

successor /səkˈses.aˈr/
NOUN [C]

PERSON
[C1] someone who has a position or job after someone else

Dictionary example:
He is her most likely successor.

Learner example:
Cleopatra fell in love with him but he was murdered by his nephew and successor Octavio.

THING
[C2] an organization, product, etc. that follows and takes the place of an earlier one

Dictionary example:
This range of computers is very fast, but their successors will be even faster.

Learner example:
The natural successor of the car was first thought of in the late seventies, but due to lack of computing power for the control systems, the dual mode vehicle was never made.

---

succumb /səˈkʌm/

VERB [i] FORMAL

NOT STOP
[C2] to not be able to stop yourself doing something

Dictionary example:
I succumbed to temptation and had some cheesecake.

Learner example:
As days went by, I became more anxious and finally had to succumb to the urge to go to the game.

SUFFER
[C2] to die or suffer badly from an illness

Dictionary example:
Many of them succumbed to cholera.

Learner example:
Could he have succumbed to the cold? or maybe hunger?
such /sʌtʃ/

DETERMINER

REFER TO PERSON/THING

[B2] used to refer to something or someone that you were just talking about, or something or someone of that type

Dictionary examples:
It's difficult to know how to treat such cases.
I tried to tell her in such a way that she wouldn't be upset.

Learner example:
Moreover we can plan different events where we invite people who aren't members [and] we can use such events [to bring in] new members.

no such thing

[B2] used to emphasize that something does not exist

Dictionary example:
There's no such thing as ghosts!

Learner example:
But when I asked for these, I was told that no such thing existed and so the advertisement was once again proved wrong.

ever such a

[C2] a very

Dictionary example:
She's ever such a good dancer.

Learner example:
The psychiatrist was a very nice young girl that helped me ever such a lot.

PRONOUN

[C2] used to refer to something or someone that you were just talking about, or something or someone of that type

Dictionary examples:
Our lunch was such that we don't really need an evening meal.
He is an employee of this company, and should be treated as such.
His circumstances are such that he has no need to work.

Learner example:
In my opinion the Microwave oven is the eighth wonder of the world and should be celebrated as such.
suck /sʌk/

VERB
[C2] [ɪ or ɪ] to have something in your mouth and use your tongue, lips, etc. to pull on it or to get liquid, air, etc. out of it

Dictionary examples:
to suck a sweet/lollipop to suck your thumb

Learner example:
He laughed at me and told me that he poisoned the pages of the diary so he would suck his fingers to turn the pages and die.

sudden /ˈsʌd.ən/

Word family:
Adjectives: sudden
Adverbs: suddenly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] done or happening quickly and unexpectedly

Dictionary examples:
His sudden death at the age of 53 came as a terrible shock to her.
There was a sudden change in their plans.
And Angie's leaving work in two weeks? It's a bit sudden, isn't it.

Learner example:
After arriving in Vienna, Martins was really shocked when he got to know about his friend's sudden death.

NOUN

all of a sudden [B2] suddenly and unexpectedly

Dictionary example:
All of a sudden, he came bursting in through the door.

Learner example:
All of a sudden, a weird creature popped into his dream.
suddenly /ˈsʌd.ən.li/

Word family:

Adjectives: sudden
Adverbs: suddenly

ADVERB

[B1] quickly and unexpectedly

Dictionary examples:

I don't remember much about the accident – it all happened so suddenly.
I suddenly realized how late it was.
I was just drifting off to sleep when suddenly I heard a crash outside.
Suddenly a dog appeared in front of us.

Learner example:

Suddenly a car appeared at the end of the street.

sue /suː/

VERB [I or T] (suing, sued)

[C1] to take legal action against someone and try to get money from them because they have harmed you

Dictionary example:

He's threatening to sue the newspaper for slander.

Learner example:

If you do not pay attention to any of my complaints and if I do not hear from you within 15 working days, I will not hesitate to sue you.

suffer /ˈsʌf.ər/

Word family:

Nouns: suffering, sufferer
Verbs: suffer

VERB

suffer from sth

[B1] to have an illness or other health problem

Dictionary examples:

She suffers from severe depression.
She's been suffering from cancer for two years.
Learner example:
The doctors told my parents that my aunt was suffering from cancer so they had to stay with her.

FEEL PAIN

[B2] [ŋ] to experience pain or unpleasant emotions

Dictionary examples:
She really suffers in the winter when it's cold and her joints get stiff.
I think he suffered quite a lot when his wife left him.
If you're not happy with it, you should complain. Don't just suffer in silence.

Learner example:
I am sure it w[ould] suffer living in a small flat in a big city, with no park nearby to go [to] every day for a walk.

EXPERIENCE

[B2] [I or ɪ] to experience something bad

Dictionary examples:
The party suffered a crushing defeat in the last election.
Twenty-five policemen suffered minor injuries during the protest.
The city suffered another blow last month with the closure of the local car factory.
If you will insist on eating three helpings of dessert, I'm afraid you'll have to suffer the consequences!

Learner example:
When you're working such long hours, it's almost inevitable that your marriage will start to suffer.

Learner example:
I think that if we don't do more than we are doing now, we will suffer the consequences and it'll be too late to do something about it.

sufferer /ˈsʌfərə/

Word family:

Nouns: suffering, sufferer

Verbs: suffer

NOUN [c]

[C2] someone who suffers from an illness or other health problem

Dictionary example:
AIDS/cancer sufferers

Learner example:
The body becomes more and more frail and prone to illnesses so that the last ten years of the unnaturally prolonged life [are] spent in pain and agony, with the sufferer quite often acutely aware of his decaying and incapable body.
suffering /ˈsʌf.ər.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: suffering, sufferer
Verbs: suffer

NOUN [u]
[B2] when someone experiences pain or unpleasant emotions

Dictionary example:
The war will cause widespread human suffering.

Learner example:
There had been too much suffering for days, months, years.

sufficient /səˈfɪʃ.ənt/

Word family:
Adjectives: sufficient, insufficient, self-sufficient
Adverbs: sufficiently

ADJECTIVE
[B2] as much as is necessary

Dictionary examples:
This recipe should be sufficient for five people.
It was thought that he'd committed the crime but there wasn't sufficient evidence to convict him.

Learner example:
To resolve that, try to have a sufficient amount of sleep so that both your body and mind will keep fit.

sufficiently /səˈfɪʃ.ənt.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: sufficient, insufficient, self-sufficient
Adverbs: sufficiently

ADVERB
[C1] as much as is necessary

Dictionary examples:
McGeechan has not recovered sufficiently to play in the semifinal tomorrow.
The case was sufficiently serious to warrant investigation by the police.

Learner example:
As for me, I like to think that my situation will be better than those who are not educated sufficiently.
suffix /ˈsʌf.ɪks/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a group of letters that you add to the end of a word to make another word

Dictionary example:
The suffix ‘-ness’ added to the end of the word 'sweet' forms the word 'sweetness', changing an adjective into a noun.

suggest /səˈdʒest/

Word family:
Nouns: suggestion
Verbs: suggest

VERB [v]

IDEA
[B1] to express an idea or plan for someone to consider

Dictionary examples:
I suggest (that) we wait a while before we make any firm decisions.
Liz suggested (that) I try the shop on Mill Road.
He suggested having the meeting at his house.

Learner example:
I also suggest you should go to the Alps because there [is] a lot of beautiful scenery and if it's winter there are many place[s] to ski.

ADVICE
[B1] to say that someone or something is suitable for something

Dictionary examples:
to suggest someone for a job
Can you suggest a good hotel?
Might I suggest a white wine with your salmon, sir?

Learner example:
I suggest the "Renoir".

SEEM TRUE
[B2] to make something seem likely to be true

Dictionary examples:
There's no absolute proof, but all the evidence suggests (that) he's guilty.
Something about what he said suggested that he wasn't happy.

Learner example:
So animals cannot be [as] unhappy as the topic suggests.
suggestion /ˌsɛdʒəˈʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: suggestion
Verbs: suggest

NOUN [c]
IDEA
[B1] an idea or plan that someone suggests

Dictionary examples:
We don’t know where to eat out tonight – have you got any suggestions?
Clara made some very helpful suggestions.
They didn’t like my suggestion that we should all share the cost.
I have a few favourite restaurants that I tend to go back to, but I’m always open to new suggestions.

Learner example:
Now I want to give you some suggestions that will be useful for you.

a suggestion of/that sth
[C2] something that makes something seem likely to be true

Dictionary example:
There’s no suggestion of any connection between the two men.

suicide /ˈsuː.ɪ.saɪd/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] 1 when you intentionally kill yourself

Dictionary examples:
to attempt/commit suicide
The suicide rate among men between the ages of 16 and 25 has risen alarmingly.
Many suicides occur in prisons.

Learner example:
The savage thinks he can change it but fails and commits suicide by hanging himself.

suit /suːt/

Word family:
Nouns: suitability
Verbs: suit
Adjectives: suitable, unsuitable
Adverbs: suitably
NOUN [C]

follow suit
[C2] to do the same as someone else has just done

Dictionary example:
If other shops lower their prices, we will have to follow suit.

Learner example:
Bitten by an insurmountable curiosity she goes to India to [find out] about her and she even follows suit: she ends up [in] the Himalayas driven by a strong desire to know more.

VERB [T]

BE RIGHT
[B2] to be convenient or suitable for a particular person, situation or occasion

Dictionary examples:
We could go now or this afternoon – whatever time suits you best.
The city lifestyle seems to suit her – she's certainly looking very well.
"How about eight o'clock outside the cinema?" "That suits me fine."

Learner example:
If you find it difficult to arrange your visit for these two dates, please let us know which other Sunday would suit you most.

LOOK ATTRACTIVE
[B2] to make someone look more attractive

Dictionary examples:
You should wear more red – it suits you.
Short skirts don't really suit me – I haven't got the legs for them.

Learner example:
They usually wear casual clothes such as jeans, T-shirts and trainers, because they believe that these kind(s) of clothes suit them best.

be suited to/for sth
[C1] to be right for someone or something

Dictionary example:
These plants are better suited to a warm climate.

Learner example:
In my opinion mixed schools are best suited to [the] current environment.
suitability /ˌsuː.təˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: suitability
Verbs: suit
Adjectives: suitable, unsuitable
Adverbs: suitably

NOUN [u]
[C1] the state of being suitable

Dictionary example:
Nobody could doubt her suitability for the job.

Learner example:
His suitability for the post mentioned in your advertisement is so obvious that it strikes me [as] weird why you hesitate.

suitable /ˈsuː.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: suitability
Verbs: suit
Adjectives: suitable, unsuitable
Adverbs: suitably

ADJECTIVE
[B1] acceptable or right for someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Is the film suitable for children?
It's a nice enough dress but it's not really suitable for a wedding.

Learner example:
I think they are more suitable for boys than for girls.

suitably /ˈsuː.tə.blɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: suitability
Verbs: suit
Adjectives: suitable, unsuitable
Adverbs: suitably

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that is acceptable or right
Dictionary examples:
a suitably qualified person
Was he dressed suitably?

Learner example:
Nevertheless, a lot of people think animals are not suitably looked after – they have to live in small spaces and, moreover, the weather is often rather different from what animals are used to.

sum /sʌm/

NOUN [c]
[B1] an amount of money

Dictionary examples:
Huge sums of money are spent on national defence.
On retirement, he will receive the sum of £50 000 from the company.

Learner example:
My poor aunt Yutta has died and she’s left me a big sum of money.

VERB

sum up (sth/sb) or sum (sth/sb) up PHRASAL VERB [B2] to describe briefly the most important facts or characteristics of something

Dictionary example:
The purpose of the conclusion is to sum up the main points of your essay.

Learner example:
To sum up, young people are interested in many things but in my opinion, music, TV and clothes are issues about which they care more than others.

summarize /ˈsʌm.ər.aɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: summary
Verbs: summarize

VERB [t or t] (also UK summarise)
[C1] to describe briefly the main facts or ideas of something

Dictionary example:
I’d like to briefly summarize the arguments for and against.

Learner example:
This report will attempt to summarise the findings, the trends and changes as well as analyse and explain the reasons for the changes between the periods and evaluate their impact on our lives.
summary /ˈsʌm.əri/

Word family:
Nouns: summary
Verbs: summarize

NOUN [c]
[B2] a short, clear description that gives the main facts or ideas about something

Dictionary example:
He gave a brief summary of events.

Learner example:
Below is a summary of the most relevant points and recommendations.

summit /ˈsʌm.ɪt/

NOUN [c]

MOUNTAIN
[C1] the top of a mountain

Dictionary example:
The climbers hope to reach the summit before nightfall.

Learner example:
For instance, heliboarding – that is, when a helicopter carries you to the summit of a mountain and you slide down on your own – is gaining popularity.

MEETING
[C2] an important meeting between the leaders of two or more governments

Dictionary examples:
a two-day summit
a summit meeting

Learner example:
In 1994 the UN held a summit on social development in Copenhagen.

summon /ˈsʌm.ən/

VERB [T]

ORDER
[C2] formal to officially order someone to come to a place
Dictionary example:
He was summoned to a meeting.

Learner example:
As a result, my parents were summoned to see the headmaster for their daughter's misconduct and bad influence on other students.

HELP

[C2] to ask for someone or something that you need to help you in an emergency

Dictionary examples:
They summoned an ambulance.
She immediately summoned a doctor.

Learner example:
The villagers were also relieved that a 'bomoh' or witch-doctor had been summoned to exorcise the pontianak.

[C2] (ALSO summon up) to make a great effort to produce a quality to help you deal with a situation

Dictionary examples:
He tried to summon up the courage to speak to her.
She summoned up all her strength and pushed against the door.

Learner example:
I summoned up my courage and asked her.

sunbathe /ˈsʌn.berθ/
VERB [i]
[B1] to sit or lie in the sun so that your skin becomes brown

Dictionary example:
We spent the day sunbathing on the beach.

Learner example:
The weather is very good here, so I hope [to] go to the beach with my mother in the mornings to sunbathe.

sunlight /ˈsʌn.laɪt/
NOUN [u]
[B2] the light from the sun

Dictionary example:
The garden was bathed in sunlight.
Learner example:
There are many sources of light in this world such as sunlight, moonlight, [and] candle light. [...] Nowadays, the electric light has become part of our lives, especially [at] night.

sunrise /ˈsʌn.raiəlz/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] when the sun appears in the morning and the sky becomes light

Dictionary example:
I always get up before sunrise.

Learner example:
I have also decided to buy something new. I would like to have a poster, maybe a big black and white photo or a picture of a sunrise, what do you think about that?

sunset /ˈsʌn.set/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] when the sun disappears in the evening and the sky becomes dark

Dictionary example:
They close the park at sunset.

Learner example:
We can go to Focone Beach, where the sunset is so beautiful.

sunshine /ˈsʌn.ʃaɪn/

NOUN [U]
[B1] the light and heat that come from the sun

Dictionary example:
The children were out playing in the sunshine.

Learner example:
You know I love sunshine. It’s my [energy source].

superb /suːˈpɜːb/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] excellent
Dictionary examples:
He is a superb dancer.
Taylor scored a superb goal at the end of the first half.

Learner example:
My homemade pizzas are superb, although I say it myself, and I would like to make one for the two of us.

superficial  /ˌsuː.pəˈfɪʃəl/

Word family:
Adjectives: superficial
Adverbs: superficially

ADJECTIVE

NOT SERIOUS
[C2] If someone is superficial, they never think about things that are serious or important.

Dictionary example:
He’s a very superficial person.

Learner example:
Are they the role models of an open-minded public or do they set wrong examples by encouraging superficial values based on appearance rather than personality, possessions rather than deeds, and wealth rather than virtues?

NOT COMPLETE
[C2] not complete and involving only the most obvious things

Dictionary examples: superficial knowledge
a superficial resemblance

Learner example:
Many people believe that our school obliges us to gain "superficial” knowledge, since the latter is based on our immature age and on our inadequate experience.

superficially  /ˌsuː.pəˈfɪʃəl.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: superficial
Adverbs: superficially

ADVERB

[C2] in a way that is not deep or basic
Dictionary example:
Superficially, he is impressive, but his knowledge is really very slight.

Learner example:
Indeed too many people today travel too quickly and too superficially to learn anything from their experience.

superfluous /suːˈpɜː.flu.əs/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not needed, or more than is needed

Dictionary example:
superfluous details/information

Learner example:
It was a very good party and it might be superfluous to add that I got terribly drunk and didn't stagger home until seven in the morning.

superior /suːˈprɪ.ər/

Word family:
Nouns: superior, superiority
Adjectives: superior

ADJECTIVE
[BETTER]
[C1] better than other things

Dictionary examples:
This is clearly the work of a superior artist.
She was chosen for the job because she was the superior candidate.
For all babies, breastfeeding is far superior to bottlefeeding.
The government troops were superior in numbers.

Learner example:
Our service is superior in terms of price, but unfortunately doesn't have some features other competitors' services have.

OPINION
[C2] thinking that you are better than other people

Dictionary example:
She has a very superior manner.
NOUN [C]

[C1] someone in a higher position than you at work

Dictionary example:
I will have to report this to my superiors.

Learner example:
If you need [a] reference, please call my superior on the following number: 0181/340'72'59.

---

superiority /suːˌpɪə.riˈər.i.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: superior, superiority
Adjectives: superior

---

NOUN [U]

Better

[C2] when something is better than other things

Dictionary example:
the superiority of modern design

Learner example:
I believe a state which felt certain about the superiority of democratic values would not need to forbid any text, or any creative work for that matter.

---

Opinion

[C2] when you think that you are better than other people

Dictionary example:
She has an air of superiority.

Learner example:
She had an air of superiority and I found her conceited as she was not talking to anybody else except for the teacher.

---

supernatural /ˌsuː.pəˈnætʃ.ər.əl/

Adjective

[B2] used to describe things that cannot be explained by our knowledge of science or nature

Dictionary example:
supernatural powers/forces
Learner example:
The book consists of six completely different 'ghost stories' which involve ghosts and supernatural phenomena, something that attracts young readers.

NOUN

the supernatural

[B2] things that cannot be explained by our knowledge of science or nature

Dictionary example:
She's very interested in the supernatural.

supervise /ˈsuː.pə.vəriz/

Word family:
Nouns: supervision, supervisor
Verbs: supervise

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to watch a person or activity to make certain that everything is done correctly, safely, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The UN is supervising the distribution of aid by local agencies in the disaster area.
The children play while two teachers supervise.

Learner example:
Our main activity will be to supervise the 8 to 12 year [old]s during those activities.

supervision /ˌsuː.pəˈvɪʒən/

Word family:
Nouns: supervision, supervisor
Verbs: supervise

NOUN [u]

[C1] when you supervise someone or something

Dictionary examples:
He needs constant supervision.
Students are not allowed to handle these chemicals unless they are under the supervision of a teacher.

Learner example:
The little one was built especially for you, so that you can leave your children under the supervision of two well-trained lifeguards.
supervisor /ˈsuː.pə.vər.zə/

Word family:
Nouns: supervision, supervisor
Verbs: supervise

NOUN [c]
[C1] a person whose job is to supervise someone or something

Dictionary example:
His supervisor told him to work faster.

Learner example:
I held the post of general supervisor in a campus in Oxford two years ago, and now I am working as a receptionist in a luxurious hotel.

---

supplement

Word family:
Nouns: supplement
Verbs: supplement
Adjectives: supplementary

NOUN [c] /ˈsʌp.lɪ.mənt/
[C2] an extra amount or part added to something

Dictionary examples:
to take a vitamin supplement a newspaper with a colour supplement

Learner example:
No miracle promises for overnight improvements, no food supplement and pills will bring the desired results.

VERB [T] /ˈsʌp.lɪ.ment/
[C2] to add to something to make it larger or better

Dictionary example:
He supplements his income by working in a bar in the evenings.

Learner example:
He was moonlighting to supplement his income.
supplementary  /ˌsʌp.lɪˈmen.tər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: supplement
Verbs: supplement
Adjectives: supplementary

ADJECTIVE
[C2] added to something

Dictionary example:
supplementary materials

Learner example:
This has also been noted by the local authorities, which has resulted in a supplementary grant to the Language Department of our college.

supplier  /səˈplər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: supplier, supply
Verbs: supply

NOUN [C]
[B2] a person or company that provides something that people want or need

Dictionary example:
They used to be a leading supplier of military equipment.

Learner example:
I have been employed by the Swedish fruit supplier "Northern Fruit Corp." for the last 6 years.

supply  /səˈplər/

Word family:
Nouns: supplier, supply
Verbs: supply

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] an amount of something that is available for use

Dictionary examples:
a supply of water
Our food supplies were running out.
In London, demand for cheap housing far outstrips supply.

Learner example:
Please send me a list of [the] clothes [needed] and/or supplies.
VERB [T]
[B2] to provide things that people want or need, often over a long period of time

Dictionary examples:
to supply food/drugs to people
Electrical power is supplied by underground cables.
Three people have been arrested for supplying arms to the terrorists.
At the beginning of term, students are supplied with a list of books that they are expected to read.

Learner example:
I would be able to supply you with a reference from my employer.

support /saˈpɔːt/

Word family:
Nouns: support, supporter
Verbs: support
Adjectives: supportive

VERB [T]

SPORT
[B1] to like a particular sports team, often going to see their matches

Dictionary example:
Which team do you support?

Learner example:
Also I saw another programme, it was talking about the history of Barcelona football club. I liked it very much because this is the team that I support.

PROVIDE
[B1] to look after someone by paying for their food, clothes, etc.

Dictionary example:
He has a wife and four children to support.

Learner example:
Sara has to work hard to support her family.

HELP
[B1] to help someone, often when they are having problems

Dictionary examples:
Alcoholics Anonymous is a group which supports people who are trying to stop drinking too much alcohol.
My family has always supported me in whatever I've wanted to do.
Learner example:
All [Mum and Dad] can do is support him in this next step of his life.

AGREE

[B2] to agree with an idea, group, or person

Dictionary examples:
Do you support their views on nuclear weapons?
The majority of people in the town strongly support the plans for a new sports centre.

Learner example:
I support this idea because I believe that [it] is the [only] way to stop the traffic in cities.

ENCOURAGE

[B2] to give encouragement or financial help to someone or something because you want them to succeed

Dictionary examples:
I think it's important to support local businesses by buying locally.
The drug company is supporting cancer research.

Learner example:
These films are more attractive for older viewers and support the local film business.

PROVE

[C1] to help to show that something is true

Dictionary example:
There's no evidence to support his story.

Learner example:
All the claims made on your leaflet weren't at all supported by evidence.

HOLD

[C2] to hold the weight of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Is this ladder strong enough to support me?
The church dome is supported by marble pillars.
When babies first learn to stand, they hold on to something to support themselves.
I put a bandage on my knee to support it when I play tennis.

Learner example:
Next, electricity is transported by high voltage cables supported by towers up to a transformer station.

NOUN [U]

HELP

[B1] help or encouragement given to someone when they are having problems
Dictionary examples:
Carol gave me a lot of support when I lost my job.
She's been a great support to my mum since my dad died.

Learner example:
Mother needs our support now and I'll go as soon as I can

AGREEMENT

[B2] agreement with an idea, group or person

Dictionary examples:
Environmental groups are fast gaining support among young people.
Is there much public support for the proposal?
Support for the party leader has declined in recent weeks.
I signed a petition in support of the human rights campaign.

Learner example:
Dear Julian, I wanted to tell you that you have my moral support.

MONEY

[B2] the money someone needs in order to buy food and clothes and pay for somewhere to live

Dictionary example:
He is dependent on his father for support.

Learner example:
Receipt of my pocket money last week, I was thinking what would happen if I lost my father's support.

supporter /ˈsəːpərə/

Word family:
Nouns: support, supporter
Verbs: support
Adjectives: supportive

NOUN [C]

SPORT

[B1] someone who likes a particular sports team and wants them to win

Dictionary examples:
Manchester United supporters
Thousands of supporters have travelled to London for the cup final.

Learner example:
I'm a great supporter of Milan as you know, so you can imagine how I feel now.
OF IDEA/PERSON, ETC.

[B2] someone who supports a particular idea, group or person

Dictionary example: He is one of the Prime Minister's strongest supporters within industry.

Learner example: According to supporters of Animal Rights, people wouldn't like being kept in zoos.

supportive /ˈsəːpərtɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: support, supporter
Verbs: support
Adjectives: supportive

ADJECTIVE
[C1] giving help or encouragement

Dictionary example: a very supportive friend

Learner example: The sports facilities were perfect, and the people working in the sport centre were very friendly and supportive.

suppose /səˈpəʊz/

Word family:
Verbs: suppose
Adverbs: supposedly

VERB

I suppose (so) [B1] used to show agreement to something when you do not really want to Dictionary examples: I suppose you're right. "Can I come with you?" "I suppose so."

be supposed to do sth [B1] to be expected or intended to do something, especially when this does not happen
Dictionary examples:
The drugs are supposed to reduce the pain.
She is supposed to finish the work by the 24th.
These batteries are supposed to last for a year.
How am I supposed to find that much money by the end of the week?

Learner example:
I'm supposed to go cycling with some friends of mine to Bondi.

be supposed to be sth
[B2] to be expected to be something, especially because of a rule, agreement, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The children are supposed to be at school by 8.45 a.m.
What are you doing out of bed? You're supposed to be asleep!

Learner example:
It was supposed to be a surprise... I had been in London for a long time.

be supposed to be sth
[B2] to be considered by many people to be something

Dictionary example:
The scenery is supposed to be fantastic.

Learner example:
I knew that he had booked a table for two in one of the most expensive restaurants in town, where the food was supposed to be excellent.

be supposed to do sth
[B2] If you are supposed to do something, the rules say that you should do it.

Dictionary examples:
You're supposed to pay by the end of the month.
You're not supposed to smoke in here.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, the organizer came to me and let me know that I was not supposed to sell anything in that area.

LIKELY
[C1] [r] to think that something is likely to be true

Dictionary examples:
He found it a lot more difficult to get a job than he supposed it would be.
It is widely supposed (that) the minister will be forced to resign.

Learner example:
It is supposed that this man could have also been a chemist, [as] writings have been found and recovered with clues to what Da Vinci might have been doing in that field.
suppose/supposing (that)
[C1] used to introduce an idea for someone to consider

Dictionary example:
Suppose he phones tonight. What should I say?

Learner example:
Supposing you get the train. If you ring me up straight away when you arrive, I will pick you up at the station.

supposedly /səˈpəʊ.zɪd.li/

Word family:
Verbs: suppose Adverbs: supposedly

ADVERB
[C1] used to show that you do not believe that something you have been told is true

Dictionary example:
Well, the tickets are supposedly in the mail.

Learner example:
"The Bride" sets out to kill the first of Bill’s assassins, supposedly the most dangerous person in the world in terms of knives.

suppress /səˈpres/

VERB [T]

FEELINGS
[C2] to control feelings so that they do not show

Dictionary example:
I could barely suppress my anger.

Learner example:
He tried to suppress his fear.

INFORMATION
[C2] to prevent information from being known

Dictionary example:
to suppress evidence/news
Learner example:
I personally, would bring my child up as a person who is able to discuss and who does not suppress any criticism at all.

FIGHT
[C2] to stop someone or something by using force

Dictionary example:
The rebellion was suppressed by government forces.

Learner example:
With the fresh sound of Clarisse's words of freedom and thought, happiness and nature, [there] arises in Montag the need of making a move, of rebelling against a flat and empty system that suppresses the individuality of men.

---

sure /ʃʊər/

Word family:
Verbs: ensure
Adjectives: sure, unsure
Adverbs: surely

ADJECTIVE

be sure of sth
[B2] to be confident that something is true

Dictionary example:
He'll win this year, I'm sure of it.

Learner example:
I think that I [would be a] really useful person for your company. I'm sure of it.

be sure of yourself
[B2] to be confident of your own abilities, qualities, etc.

Dictionary example:
She seems a bit more sure of herself since she got a job.

Learner example:
He is a tall, dark man who walks with confidence and is sure of himself because of his success [i]n the world of business.

a sure thing
[C1] something that is certain to happen

Dictionary example:
Death is the one sure thing about life.
Learner example:
There is only one sure thing, we are not able to even imagine what we will be able to do in the future to get communicated.

be sure to do sth
[C1] If you are sure to do something, it is certain that you will do it.

Dictionary example:
He's sure to go back there again.

Learner example:
What she does not know is that her ex-husband has a very serious type of cancer and is sure to pass away in a few months (that is why he agrees to spend his summer with his son, knowing it would be the last).

sure enough
[C2] as expected

Dictionary example:
He said the book was on his desk, and sure enough, there it was.

Learner example:
And sure enough, these challenging problems come unsolicited most of the time.

for sure
[B1] without any doubts

Dictionary examples:
I think he's Canadian but I don't know for sure.
One thing's for sure – once the baby's born, your lives will never be the same again.

Learner example:
For sure, you'll love Brazil.

surely /ˈʃɔː.li/

Word family:
Verbs: ensure
Adjectives: sure, unsure Adverbs: surely

ADVERB

LIKELY
[B2] used to show that you believe something is very likely

Dictionary example:
Surely they'd have called us by now to say they're not coming.
Learner example:
Surely you are interested in how we spent the rest of our holiday?

EXPRESS SURPRISE
[B2] used to express surprise that something has happened or is going to happen

Dictionary examples:
Surely you don't expect me to believe that?
Surely he wasn't expecting us to pay the whole amount?

Learner example:
Surely it doesn't mean that they have learnt the exciting news?

---

surf /sɜːf/

Word family:
Nouns: surfing
Verbs: surf

VERB

WAVES
[B1] [i] to ride on a wave as it comes towards land, while standing or lying on a special board

Dictionary example:
I spent the summer learning how to surf.

Learner example:
I really enjoy[ed] learning how to surf, it was terrific.

---

surface  /ˈsɜː.fɪs/

NOUN

TOP
[B2] [c] the top or outside part of something

Dictionary examples:
The sun was reflected on the surface of the water.
Tropical rainforests used to cover 10% of the Earth's surface.
The marble has a smooth, shiny surface.
Neil Armstrong was the first person to set foot on the surface of the moon.

Learner example:
When we came back to the surface we just looked like real miners.
PERSON

[B2] [NO PLURAL] what someone or something seems to be like when you do not know much about them

Dictionary example:
On the surface, he seemed very pleasant.

Learner example:
Miss Marple on the other hand is an old, nervous but gentle lady on the surface but inside that head of hers there is a brain [as] sharp as a knife, cutting through the mysteries she [is] involved in.

surge /sɜː:dʒ/

VERB

[C1] to increase very quickly

Dictionary example:
Prices surged on the stock exchange.

Learner example:
Followed by a dip briefly afterwards, the value surged to close to 100 million tonnes in 2002.

NOUN [C]

[C1] a large increase in something

Dictionary example:
a surge in spending

Learner example:
Also in technology, we have noticed a surge of the newest trends in even the smallest countries.

surgeon /ˈsɜː.dʒən/

NOUN [C]

[C1] a doctor who is specially trained to perform medical operations

Dictionary example:
He is a leading surgeon at a London hospital.

Learner example:
I have been a surgeon for almost 20 years now, and I have worked in many different situations.
surgery /ˈsɜː.dʒəˌri/
NOUN
PLACE
[B2] [c] a place where doctors or other medical workers treat people
  Dictionary example:
  What time does the surgery open?
  Learner example:
  As she walked into the doctor’s surgery, she began to explain her problem to the doctor and that she couldn’t stand the idea of lice inhabiting her head.
OPERATION
[B2] [u] when a doctor cuts your body open and repairs or removes something
  Dictionary examples:
  heart surgery
  The patient had/underwent surgery on his heart.
  He made a good recovery after surgery to remove a brain tumour.
  Learner example:
  My mother had to go through gall-stone surgery in Finland, where she was spending her holiday.

surpass /səˈpɑːs/
VERB [T] FORMAL
[C2] to be or do better than someone or something else
  Dictionary example:
  The book’s success surpassed everyone’s expectations.
  Learner example:
  I visited ”The Acropol” restaurant two weeks ago and to my astonishme[nt] it surpassed all my expectations.

surplus /ˈsəːp.əs/
NOUN [C or U]
[C2] an amount of something that is more than you need
  Dictionary example:
  Every year we produce a huge surplus of meat.
Learner example:
The most developed countries are the ones who didn't have a surplus of food and they had to find a way of producing it.

surprise /saˈprɑːr/

Word family:
Nouns: surprise
Verbs: surprise
Adjectives: surprised, surprising
Adverbs: surprisingly

NOUN

FEELING

[B2] [u] the feeling that you get when something happens that you did not expect

Dictionary examples:
He looked at her in/with surprise.
He agreed to everything, (much) to my surprise.

Learner example:
He stared at me in surprise and didn't say anything.

VERB [T]

[B1] to make someone feel surprise

Dictionary examples:
The news surprised everyone.
It doesn't surprise me that she wants to leave.
It won't surprise anyone to learn that the offer has been rejected.

Learner example:
Then I saw a blue light that surprised me, I was scared. [A] strange creature was standing in front of me. [I]t was fat and ugly and then it tried to grab me...

surprising /saˈprær.zɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: surprise
Verbs: surprise
Adjectives: surprised, surprising
Adverbs: surprisingly

ADJECTIVE

[B1] not expected and making someone feel surprised
Dictionary examples:
He gave a rather surprising answer.
It's hardly/not surprising (that) you're putting on weight, considering how much you're eating!
I must say that it's surprising to find you agreeing with me for once.

Learner example:
That was a little bit surprising because I'm pretty small and it's hard for me to find clothes that really fit me!

surprisingly /səˈpraɪ.zɪŋ.li/

Word family:
- Nouns: surprise
- Verbs: surprise
- Adjectives: surprised, surprising
- Adverbs: surprisingly

ADVERB
[B1] unexpectedly or in a way that is unusual

Dictionary examples:
The restaurant turned out to be surprisingly cheap.
Not surprisingly, the jury found them guilty.

Learner example:
Surprisingly, I met a friend of mine from primary school.

surrender /sərˈen.ðər/

VERB
[C2] to stop fighting and admit that you have been beaten

Dictionary example:
Rebel troops are refusing to surrender.

Learner example:
Without the fire Ralph and Piggy have to surrender and as Piggy now has lost his vision he becomes weak and vulnerable [and] he must die – "The weak must go to the wall".

surround /səˈraʊnd/

Word family:
- Nouns: surroundings
- Verbs: surround
- Adjectives: surrounding
GO AROUND
[B1] to be or go everywhere around something or someone

Dictionary examples:
Snow-capped mountains surround the city.
Early this morning, armed police surrounded the house in north London.
Gwen sat at her desk, surrounded by books and papers.
She said that she wanted to die surrounded by the people she loved.

Learner example:
The place I've enjoyed most is a small lake surrounded by very tall trees and a lot of bushes.

CONNECTED WITH
[C2] If a feeling or situation surrounds an event, it is closely connected with it.

Dictionary example:
Mystery still surrounds the exact circumstances of his death.

Learner example:
However, there was at this point nothing pleasant about the atmosphere surrounding the house.

surrounding /əˈraʊnd.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: surroundings
Verbs: surround
Adjectives: surrounding

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B2] in a position around something

Dictionary example:
A lot of the children at the school do not live in the town, but come in from the surrounding countryside.

Learner example:
If all of you would help by using these facilities, our village could be very attractive to people from surrounding villages, which could be very good for the economy of our village.

surroundings /əˈraʊn.dɪŋz/

Word family:
Nouns: surroundings
Verbs: surround
Adjectives: surrounding
NOUN [PLURAL]

[B2] the place where someone or something is and the things that are in it

Dictionary examples:
- beautiful/pleasant surroundings
- Have you got used to your new surroundings?
- Some butterflies blend in with their surroundings so that it's difficult to see them.

Learner example:
The larger animals who [are]n't threaten[e]d should li[v]e in their natural surroundings.

---

survey /ˈsɜːr.vi/

NOUN [C]

[B2] an examination of opinions, behaviour, etc., made by asking people questions

Dictionary examples:
- A recent survey found/showed that 58% of people did not know where their heart is.
- They are conducting/carrying out/doing a survey.

Learner example:
I have made a little survey on the subject of my report and I have [found] that most of the pupils of our school consider that the region and the area around [the] school should be filmed first.

---

VERB

QUESTION

[C1] to ask people questions in order to find out about their opinions or behaviour

Dictionary example:
75% of midwives surveyed were in favour of home births.

Learner example:
However, a small amount of those surveyed (20%) expressed the opinion that they do not have any problems concerning transport or housing.

---

EXAMINE

[C1] to look at or examine something carefully

Dictionary example:
I got out of the car to survey the damage.

Learner example:
This means that we need a small team to survey the area first, and I am very happy to lead this team.
survival /səˈvɑːr.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: survival, survivor
Verbs: survive

NOUN [u]

[B2] when someone or something continues to live or exist, especially after a difficult or dangerous situation

Dictionary examples:
The doctors told my wife I had a 50/50 chance of survival. His main concern is to ensure his own political survival.

Learner example:
For many animals zoos are [their] only hope for survival: for example, [the] Chinese panda or white eagle.

---

survive /səˈvaɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: survival, survivor
Verbs: survive

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to continue to live or exist, especially after almost dying or being destroyed

Dictionary examples:
The baby was born with a heart problem and only survived for a few hours. These plants cannot survive in very cold conditions. The front passengers were lucky to survive the accident. The family are struggling to survive on very little money.

Learner example:
They struggle to survive.

---

survivor /səˈvaɪvər/

Word family:
Nouns: survival, survivor
Verbs: survive

NOUN [c]

[B2] someone who continues to live after almost dying because of an accident, illness, etc.
Dictionary examples:
Rescuers have given up hope of finding any more survivors.
He was the sole survivor of the plane crash.
She’s a cancer survivor/a survivor of cancer.

Learner example:
We were the only survivors.

suspect /səˈspekt/

Word family:
Nouns: suspect, suspicion
Verbs: suspect
Adjectives: suspicious
Adverbs: suspiciously

VERB [T]

THINK LIKELY
[B2] to think that something is probably true, or is likely to happen

Dictionary examples:
They suspected (that) he was lying.
I suspect she won’t come – she’s very busy.
"Do you think she’ll have told them?" "I suspect not/so."

Learner example:
He apologised, but he had some family problems and in fact he couldn’t come. I suspect that’s his mother – he didn’t [say] clearly.

THINK GUILTY
[B2] to think that someone may have committed a crime or done something bad

Dictionary examples:
No one knows who killed her, but the police suspect her husband.
The police suspect him of carrying out two bomb attacks.

Learner example:
But other people were suspected of having killed them.

NOT TRUST
[C2] to not trust someone or something

Dictionary example:
She suspected his motives for offering to help.

NOUN [C] /ˈsʌs.pekt/
[B2] someone who may have committed a crime
Dictionary example:
He’s the prime suspect in the murder case.

Learner example:
He had never thought that Doctor Quimper might [have] been a suspect, as well.

suspend /səˈspend/

VERB [T]

NOT ALLOW

[B2] to not allow someone to go to work or school for a period of time because they have done something wrong

Dictionary examples:
She was suspended from school for fighting.
He was suspended for four matches after arguing with the referee.

Learner example:
The director decided to suspend the girl because she had been rude.

STOP

[C1] to stop something happening or existing for a short time

Dictionary examples:
The semi-final was suspended because of bad weather.
The ferry service has been suspended for the day because of bad weather.
The President has suspended the constitution and assumed total power.
I’m suspending judgment on the book I’m reading until I’ve finished it.

Learner example:
At first the electrical and gas power were cut off and the transport was suspended but now everything is working.

suspense /səˈspens/

NOUN [U]

[C2] the feeling of excitement or nervousness that you have when you are waiting for something to happen

Dictionary examples:
There is a gradual build-up of suspense throughout the film.
What’s your answer then? Don’t keep me in suspense.
Learner example:

Exciting, fun and full of suspense, I'm sure I'm going to enjoy it, and remember it as a very good time.

susicion /səˈspɪʃ.ən/

Word family:

Nouns: suspect, suspicion

Verbs: suspect

Adjectives: suspicious

Adverbs: suspiciously

NOUN

BELIEF

[B2] [c] a belief or idea that something may be true

Dictionary example:

I have a suspicion that he only asked me out because my brother persuaded him to.

Learner example:

I asked my mother what had happened and she confirmed my suspicions.

THINK GUILTY

[C1] [c or u] a feeling or belief that someone has committed a crime or done something wrong

Dictionary examples:

"I'm arresting you on suspicion of illegally possessing drugs," said the police officer.

She is under suspicion of murder.

In this particular case, they are above/beyond suspicion.

Learner example:

Some of us were told to go there and to kill those who [were] under suspicion.

suspicious /səˈspɪʃ.əs/

Word family:

Nouns: suspect, suspicion

Verbs: suspect

Adjectives: suspicious

Adverbs: suspiciously
SEEMING WRONG

[B2] making you feel that something illegal is happening or that something is wrong

Dictionary examples:
suspicious behaviour/circumstances
His wife became suspicious after finding blood in their car.
The fire at the bank is being treated as suspicious.
It's a bit suspicious that no one knows where he was at the time of the murder.
There's a suspicious-looking van parked at the end of the road.

Learner example:
Talking to Calloway made Martins very suspicious, because he [had] always thought of him as a nice and decent person.

NOT TRUSTING

[B2] not trusting someone or something

Dictionary examples:
Many of them remain suspicious of journalists.
My mother has a very suspicious nature.
He gave me a suspicious look.

Learner example:
Paul was suspicious and asked her if she was alright. [Jane] replied with a yes, but she looked nervous. She went quickly upstairs and came back holding a baby in her arms. She told him that this baby was theirs.

suspiciously /səˈspɪʃə.sli/

Word family:
Nouns: suspect, suspicion
Verbs: suspect
Adjectives: suspicious
Adverbs: suspiciously

ADVERB

[B2] in a way that shows that you do not trust someone or something

Dictionary examples:
He looked at her suspiciously.
He sniffed the soup suspiciously.

Learner example:
The old man, who was going upstairs, stopped and looked at us very suspiciously.
sustain /səˈsteɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: sustainability
Verbs: sustain
Adjectives: sustainable, unsustainable

VERB [T]

CONTINUE
[C2] to cause or allow something to continue for a period of time

Dictionary example:
The team may not be able to sustain this level of performance.

Learner example:
And they have to work hard to reach and sustain this high level.

SUPPORT
[C2] to support someone or something so that they can live or exist

Dictionary example:
The money he received was hardly enough to sustain a wife and five children.

Learner example:
The one concern I have is the ability of such a job to financially sustain an entire family.

sustainability /səˌsteɪ.nəˈbɪl.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: sustainability
Verbs: sustain
Adjectives: sustainable, unsustainable

NOUN [U]
[C2] the degree to which something is sustainable

Dictionary example:
We have to think about the sustainability of these energy sources.

Learner example:
State and Society should be held responsible for ensuring the environment’s sustainability and for preventing further damage.
sustainable /səˈster.nə.bl/

Word family:
- Nouns: sustainability
- Verbs: sustain
- Adjectives: sustainable, unsustainable

ADJECTIVE

CONTINUE

[C1] able to continue over a period of time

Dictionary example:
sustainable development/growth

Learner example:
This is as you might know the aim of the concept of sustainable development.

ENVIRONMENT

[C1] causing little or no damage to the environment and therefore able to continue for a long time

Dictionary example: sustainable energy

Learner example:
Being an engineer in the field of renewable and sustainable energy which includes solar energy, hydropower and wind energy, I can say I am quite [knowledgeable about] the specific problem of environmental issues and about how to mitigate the serious impacts.

swallow /ˈswɒl.əʊ/

VERB

EAT

[B2] [I or T] to move your throat in order to make food or drink go down

Dictionary examples:
My throat is so sore that it really hurts when I swallow.
The snake swallowed the bird whole.

Learner example:
When Mrs McGillicuddy was upstairs, she swallowed a fish bone.

ACCEPT

[C2] [T] to accept something unpleasant

Dictionary example:
They found the final decision hard to swallow.
Learner example:
Occasionally he would beat her, but she just swallowed it with a sense of helplessness.

swallow your anger/disappointment/pride, etc.
[C2] to not show your feelings and to not allow them to affect the way that you behave

Dictionary example:
I swallowed my pride and asked them for help.

Learner example:
She has had to put up with all the psychological harm that her husband has put her through and at the same time, she has had to keep on struggling for her children, never giving in; holding back her tears, swallowing her pride just for the benefit of her daughters.

swan /swɔn/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a large, white bird with a long neck which lives on lakes and rivers

Dictionary example:
We saw two swans gliding down the river with their signets.

Learner example:
The ugly duckling became a beautiful swan.

swap /swɔp/

VERB [I or T] (swapping, swapped)
[C1] to give something to someone and get something from them in return

Dictionary example:
Would you mind if Dave swapped places with you for a bit?

Learner example:
People come here to swap opinions and news.

swear /sweər/ (swore, sworn)

VERB

RUDE WORDS
[B2] [I] to use language which people think is rude or offensive
Dictionary examples:
It was a real shock, the first time I heard my mother swear.
When the taxi driver started to swear at him, he walked off.

Learner example:
When I heard the ringing of the phone I became so furious that as soon as I answered the phone, I started swearing at it.

PROMISE
[B2] [I or T] to make a serious promise

Dictionary examples:
I don't know anything about what happened, I swear (it).
She swore (that) she didn't know what had happened to the money.
New gang members must swear to obey the gang leaders at all times.
In some countries, witnesses in court have to swear on the Bible.

Learner example:
That day I swore to myself that I would never trust anybody again.

TRUE
[C2] [T] used to say that you are sure something is true

Dictionary example:
I could have sworn that she said she lived in Canterbury.

Learner example:
I could have sworn there was at least £10 in it the day before.

---

sweat /swet/

NOUN [U]
[B2] the salty colourless liquid that comes through your skin when you are hot, nervous or ill

Dictionary examples:
The sweat was pouring off me ten minutes into the game.
By the time we'd climbed to the top of the hill, we were covered in sweat.
She wiped the beads of sweat from her forehead.

Learner example:
Pearls of sweat appeared on her forehead.

VERB [I]
[B2] to produce liquid through your skin because you are hot, nervous or ill

Dictionary examples:
The room was hot and I was starting to sweat.
The prisoners were sweating with fear.
Learner example:
I began to sweat and my fear changed to panic when we opened a door.

sweatshirt ˈswet.ʃɜːt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a piece of clothing made of soft cotton which covers the top of your body and is pulled on over your head

Dictionary example:
She was dressed casually in jeans and a sweatshirt.

Learner example:
Well, I'm always wearing tight-fitting, blue jeans, I really love them as they're always in fashion, and if it's cold, a v-neck, long sleeved sweatshirt.

sweep /swiːp/

VERB (swept, swept)

CLEAN
[B2] [ɪ] to clean the floor using a brush

Dictionary examples:
I've swept the floor.
He swept up the pieces of broken glass.

Learner example:
I found your watch yesterday, while I was sweeping the floor.

be/get swept along/away, etc.
[B2] to be pushed or carried along in a forceful way

Dictionary examples:
Many trees were swept away in the flood.
They got swept along by the crowd.

Learner example:
Suddenly, we were swept away by an avalanche.

sweep along/into/past, etc.
[C2] to move quickly, especially in a way that shows you think you are important

Dictionary example:
She swept past me in the corridor.
Learner example:
"We are Danish dynamite!" and let ourselves be swept along with the stream of people from all over the suburbs heading towards the city hall square of our Capital.

sweet /swiːt/

ADJECTIVE
KIND
[B1] kind and friendly

Dictionary example:
It was really sweet of you to help.

Learner example:
Thank you ever so much for the present you've sent me! It was really sweet of you.

swift /swɪft/

Word family:
Adjectives: swift
Adverbs: swiftly

ADJECTIVE
[C2] happening or moving quickly

Dictionary example:
a swift response

Learner example:
Individual performances were amazing. Jimmy Page's heavy blues riffs, his swift solos and his talent [for] composing songs of an incredible richness clearly showed he was still one of the greatest figures of rock 'n' roll.

swiftly /ˈswɪft.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: swift
Adverbs: swiftly

ADVERB
[C2] quickly

Dictionary example:
The authorities have moved swiftly to quell the violence.
Learner example:
Time seems to flow more swiftly when we need it most, and those two days went by without us having finished the paper.

---

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>swimmer</th>
<th>/ˈswɪm.ər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:</td>
<td>swim, swimmer, swimming</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:</td>
<td>swim</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone who is swimming or who can swim

Dictionary example:
Oliver is a very strong swimmer.

Learner example:
He is the best swimmer in the club, much faster than I could [ever] be.

---

| swing | /swɪŋ/ |

VERB [i or T] (swung, swung)

[B2] to move smoothly backwards and forwards, or to make something do this

Dictionary example:
He walked briskly along the path swinging his rolled-up umbrella.

Learner example:
When Mary ent[e]red the bar, the room was empty and there was a rope swinging from a beam.

NOUN [c]

[B2] a chair hanging on two ropes that children sit on and swing backwards and forwards

Dictionary example:
Jake wanted me to push him on the swing.

Learner example:
Do you remember the swing by the big tree in my garden?

---

| switch | /swɪtʃ/ |

VERB [i]

[B2] to change from one thing to another
Dictionary examples:
She started studying English at college, but switched to Business Studies in her second year. He's just switched jobs.

Learner example:
For many years I had created my system under MS-DOS (Disk Operating System), but two years ago I switched and since then I've worked with Unix.

NOUN [c]
[B1] a small object that you push up or down with your finger to turn something electrical on or off

Dictionary examples:
a light switch
Can you flip the switch?

Learner example:
Then I turned off the switch until the end of the day.

swollen /ˈswəʊ.lən/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] larger than usual

Dictionary example:
a bruised, swollen face

Learner example:
I cried almost all day and wanted to go home as quickly as possible but suddenly, someone took a photograph of me with swollen eyes.

sword /sɔːd/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a weapon with a long sharp metal blade and a handle, used especially in the past

Dictionary example:
He rode towards me, waving his sword in the air.

Learner example:
I took the ancient sword in my hands and felt the power flow through my veins.

a double-edged sword
[C2] something that has both a positive and a negative effect
Dictionary example:
Being that intelligent is a double-edged sword – he finds it difficult to talk to ordinary people.

Learner example:
As you might see, technological advancements are a double-edged sword.

syllable /ˈsɪlə.bl/
NOUN [C]
[B2] a word or part of a word that has one vowel sound

Dictionary example:
The word "tiger" has two syllables.

Learner example:
I stressed the wrong syllable in the world "gamos" = marriage in Greek.

syllabus /ˈsɪlə.bəs/
NOUN [C]
[C2] a list of the subjects that are included in a course of study

Dictionary example:
Freud isn’t on the syllabus.

Learner example:
Physical Education is now generally considered an important part of a person's progress towards a mature, well-rounded adult human being, a fact that is reflected by the inclusion of Physical Education as [an] obligatory subject in national school syllabi.

symbol /ˈsɪm.bəl/
Word family:
Nouns: symbol
Adjectives: symbolic

NOUN [C]
[B2] a sign, shape or object which is used to represent something else

Dictionary examples:
A heart shape is the symbol of love.
The wheel in the Indian flag is a symbol of peace.
Learner example:
This was the first time it arrived and it was a point of hope for all the friends of nature and particularly for the World Wildlife Fund, who have chosen the panda [as their] symbol.

symbolic /ˈsɪmˈbɒl.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: symbol
Adjectives: symbolic

ADJECTIVE
[C2] representing something else

Dictionary example:
The blue, white, and red of the French flag are symbolic of liberty, equality and fraternity.

Learner example:
The reason why people value certain items so greatly is that these items have a great symbolic value to their owners.

sympathetic /ˌsɪm.əˈθet.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: sympathy
Verbs: sympathize
Adjectives: sympathetic

ADJECTIVE

PROBLEMS
[B2] showing that you understand and care about someone's problems

Dictionary examples:
He suffers from back trouble too, so he was very sympathetic about my problem.
She was very sympathetic when I told her about my situation.

Learner example:
Nobody wants to talk to him apart from Alice, she feels sympathetic and understands him.

IDEAS
[C2] agreeing with or supporting someone's ideas or actions

Dictionary example:
He was sympathetic to their views.

Learner example:
I hope you'll be sympathetic to our demands and take some action.
sympathize /ˈsɪm.pəθaɪz/

Word family:
- Nouns: sympathy
- Verbs: sympathize
- Adjectives: sympathetic

VERB [i] (also UK sympathise)

PROBLEMS

[C2] to understand and care about someone's problems

Dictionary example:
It's a really bad situation – I do sympathize with her.

Learner example:
In our lives, it is crucial that we develop relationships between other individuals, in order to have somebody to sympathize with us in bad times and stand on our side to help us.

IDEAS

[C2] to agree with or support someone's ideas or actions

Dictionary example:
I sympathize with the general aims of the party.

Learner example:
As a result, they tend to sympathize with more radical groups and parties in order to support a change in the current system.

sympathy /ˈsɪm.pəθi/

Word family:
- Nouns: sympathy
- Verbs: sympathize
- Adjectives: sympathetic

NOUN [u]

CARING

[B2] when you show that you understand and care about someone's problems

Dictionary examples:
The president has sent a message of sympathy to the relatives of the dead soldiers.
I don't have much sympathy for her – I think she's brought her troubles on herself.

Learner example:
No matter how sensitive or impassive one's attitude towards animals is, after having thought it over thoroughly most of us feel deep sorrow and sympathy for the poor creatures kept in cages.
IDEAS
[C2] agreement with or support for someone's ideas or actions

Dictionary example:
Scott was in sympathy with this view.

symptom /ˈsɪmp.təm/

NOUN [c]

ILLNESS
[B2] a physical feeling or problem which shows that you have a particular illness

Dictionary examples:
He’s complaining of all the usual flu symptoms – a high temperature, headache and so on.
He’s been HIV-positive for six years, but just recently he’s started to develop the symptoms of AIDS.

Learner example:
We asked her what had happened and she told us she had some weird symptoms so she went for an examination to see what was wrong. She finally discovered that... she was pregnant!

PROBLEM
[C2] a problem that is caused by and shows a more serious problem

Dictionary example:
The drinking was just a symptom of his general unhappiness.

Learner example:
The problem with tackling homelessness is that it is just a symptom.

synonym /ˈsɪn.ə.nɪm/

Word family:
Nouns: synonym
Adjectives: synonymous

NOUN [c]
[C2] a word or phrase that means the same as another word or phrase

Dictionary example:
'Quick' and 'fast' are synonyms.

Learner example:
Dynamic, Go-Getters, Ambitious, Stalwarts – These are just some of the synonyms that the young people of today's generation are known by.
synonymous /sɪˈnɒn.ɪ.məs/

Word family:
- Nouns: synonym
- Adjectives: synonymous

ADJECTIVE

CONNECTED
[C2] If one thing is synonymous with another, they are very closely connected with each other in people's minds.

Dictionary example:
It is a country where wealth is synonymous with corruption.

Learner example:
Working is synonymous with integration in the society.

WORD
[C2] If one word is synonymous with another, they have the same meaning.

Dictionary example:
Would you say that 'idle' is completely synonymous with 'lazy'?

system /ˈsɪs.təm/

Word family:
- Nouns: system
- Adjectives: systematic
- Adverbs: systematically

NOUN [C]

EQUIPMENT
[B1] a set of connected pieces of equipment that operate together

Dictionary examples:
They've had an alarm system installed at their home.
a central-heating system
The computer system keeps crashing and no one is able to figure out why.

Learner example:
They had a new sound system which is very loud.

METHOD
[B2] a way or method of doing things
Dictionary examples:
the American legal system
the public transport system
We'll have to work out a proper filing system.
Under our education system, you're supposed to be able to choose the type of schooling that your child receives.
the metric system of measuring and weighing

Learner example:
You will have the possibility to get to know our political system.

Body
[C2] parts of the body that work together in order to make something happen

Dictionary example:
the body's digestive/immune system

Learner example:
Now stem cells are widely used in cosmetic surgery – this extremely expensive treatment is offered to well-off people who want to look younger and strengthen their immune system.

systematic /ˌsɪs.təˈmæt.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: system
Adjectives: systematic Adverbs: systematically

ADJECTIVE
[C2] done using a fixed and organized plan

Dictionary example:
the systematic collection and analysis of information

Learner example:
On account of systematic and thorough rationalization in almost every sector of Western economics, workers are not needed as they were in the fifties or sixties.

systematically /ˌsɪs.təˈmæt.ɪk.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: system
Adjectives: systematic Adverbs: systematically

ADVERB
[C2] in a systematic way

2972
Dictionary example:
We went through all the documents systematically.

Learner example:
Unemployment is a major problem today but it can be dealt with systematically and it is worth investing in a solution to this problem because of the social implications.
table /ˈteɪ.bl/

NOUN [c]

INFORMATION
[B1] an arrangement of facts and numbers in rows or blocks, especially in printed material

Dictionary example:
The table below shows the results of the experiment.

lay the table
[B1] to put plates, knives, forks, etc. on the table to prepare for a meal

Dictionary example:
Could you lay the table for me, please?

Learner example:
Before she came to my home, I prepared everything perfectly, laying the table with silver spoons, flowers and candles.

tablet /ˈtæb.lɪt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a small, round object containing medicine that you swallow

Dictionary example:
sleeping tablets

Learner example:
I talked to her many times about the danger [of] taking tablets for pain.

tabloid /ˈtæb.lɔɪd/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a type of popular newspaper with small pages which has many pictures and short simple reports
Dictionary example:
She writes for one of the tabloids.

Learner example:
A famous person has no private life. [T]here [is] always gossip [i]n magazines and tabloids about the la[te]st hot love stories among the stars.

ADJECTIVE
[B2] relating to tabloids

Dictionary examples:
the tabloid press
a tabloid newspaper tackle /ˈtæk.ɪl/

VERB

DEAL WITH
[B2] [ɪ] to try to deal with a problem or to speak to someone about something bad that they have done

Dictionary examples:
new ways to tackle crime
There are many ways of tackling this problem.
Have you tackled him about his attitude?

Learner example:
I've [found] some information because all these problems must be tackled now.

SPORT
[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] to try to get the ball from someone in a game such as football

Dictionary example:
He successfully tackled his opponent.

Learner example:
Always keep on learning different ways of passing, shooting and tackling, as there is no [end] [to] learning a new way.

tact /ˈtækt/

Word family:
Nouns: tact
Adjectives: tactful
NOUN [u]
[C2] the ability to talk to people about difficult subjects without upsetting them

Dictionary example:
This situation needs to be handled with great tact.

Learner example:
One can't help admiring Lucy's tact, when during their ramble with the Emersons, Miss Lavish and the clergymen, she leaves Charlotte and Miss Lavish on their own, so that they could gossip.

tactful /ˈtækt.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: tact
Adjectives: tactful

ADJECTIVE
[C2] careful not to say or do anything that could upset someone

Dictionary example:
She asked a few tactful questions.

Learner example:
My classmate Martin is very tactful but he has a great sense of humour.

tactic /ˈtæk.tɪk/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a way of doing something that you plan in order to achieve what you want

Dictionary example:
These bomb attacks represent a change of tactics by the terrorists.

Learner example:
One can learn about the way of life of the wise ancient Greeks and study the political system, their society or even tactics used in battle.

tactless /ˈtækt.ləs/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not careful about saying or doing something that could upset someone

Dictionary example:
That was a really tactless thing to say.
Learner example:
You... you.. you horrible and tactless person, you BASTARD', she shrieked and dashed out of the room into the kitchen slamming the door behind her.

tail /teɪl/

NOUN [C]

ANIMAL
[B2] the long, narrow part that sticks out at the back of an animal's body

Dictionary example:
The dog wagged its tail excitedly.

Learner example:
She is very beautiful with her long bushy tail and soft paws.

the tail end of sth
[C2] the last part of something

Dictionary example:
the tail end of the eighties

Learner example:
Both Olivia’s and the narrator’s stories show India at crucial times of its history: at the tail end of the "Raj" and at the [initial] stage of a modern and independent country.

take /teɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: undertaking
Verbs: take, undertake

VERB [r] (took, taken)

GET HOLD
[B1] to get hold of something and move it

Dictionary examples:
He reached across and took the glass from her.
He took my arm and led me outside.

Learner example:
So, she took me by the arm and brought me to the dance floor where everybody was waiting for that last man.

WITHOUT PERMISSION
[B1] to remove something without permission
Dictionary examples:
Someone’s taken my coat!
Has anything been taken?

Learner example:
He had taken our suitcases by mistake.

ACCEPT
[B1] to accept or have something

Dictionary examples:
Are you going to take the job?
Do they take credit cards here?

Learner example:
If you take this job, you have to be prepared not to have enough spare time for thin[g]s that you like to do, since you would be at work [all] day.

PERFORM ACTION
[B1] used with some nouns to say that someone performs an action

Dictionary examples:
I need to take a shower.
Do you take any exercise?
Take a look at this.
I thought we could take a walk after lunch.
Take a deep breath.

Learner example:
I took a shower and ate my breakfast.

take care of sb/sth
[B1] to look after someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I’ll take good care of her.
Don’t worry about me, I can take care of myself.

Learner example:
My dad had to go to Canada for a meeting, so he asked me to take care of her.

WRITE
[B1] to write something

Dictionary examples:
Did you take their number/details?
I took notes during the talk.
Alice isn’t here at the moment. Can I take a message?

Learner example:
He took my phone number and we went to the cinema the day after.
STUDY
[B1] to study a subject in order to do an exam

Dictionary examples:
He's taking maths, chemistry and physics.
I took a course in accountancy.

Learner example:
My old English class wasn't good enough because the lessons were just in the evening and also we didn't have enough conversation. So I decided to take a full-time course.

take part
[B1] to be involved in an activity with other people

Dictionary example:
She doesn't usually take part in any of the class activities.

Learner example:
The practice was for a big competition at our club, in which teams from Munich and Cologne will take part.

take place
[B1] to happen

Dictionary example:
The concert takes place next Thursday.

Learner example:
A dance night will take place in the club soon.

take a break/rest, etc.
[B1] to stop working for a short period

Dictionary examples:
I think we'll take a break there.
If you're tired, you should take a rest.

Learner example:
When I took a little break to drink something, I met one of my best friends.

take advantage of sth
[B1] to use something good in a situation to help you

Dictionary example:
I thought I'd take advantage of the sports facilities while I'm here.

Learner example:
If you take advantage of this opportunity, in the future you'll thank me.

take it/things easy
[B1] to relax and not use too much energy
Dictionary example:
After his heart attack, he had to take things easy for a while.

Learner example:
Take it easy and see you soon.

CLOTHES

[B1] to wear a particular size of clothes

Dictionary examples:
What size shoe do you take?
I take a size 12 in trousers.

take milk/sugar, etc.

[B2] to usually have milk/sugar, etc. in your tea or coffee

Dictionary example:
I've forgotten – do you take milk in your tea?

REMOVE NUMBER

[B2] to remove one number from another number

Dictionary example:
If you take 4 from 12 you get 8.

GRAMMAR

[B2] to need or be followed by another word or structure in order to be grammatically correct

Dictionary example:
This sense of the verb 'give' takes two objects.

can't take sth

[B2] to not be able to deal with an unpleasant situation

Dictionary example:
We argue all the time and I can't take it any more.

Learner example:
In the end, when Laura couldn't take it anymore, she decided to end her suffering by taking her life.

take sth/sb seriously

[B2] to consider a person, subject or situation to be important or dangerous and worth your attention or respect

Dictionary example:
We take any threats to national security very seriously.

Learner example:
Don't take everything so seriously otherwise you'll probably end up as an old maid and I don't think you want that.
take pleasure/pride/an interest, etc.
[B2] to have a particular, good feeling about something or someone

Dictionary examples:
He takes great pleasure in cooking.
I have always taken an interest in local history.

Learner example:
The amazing thing about him is that he takes pride in his appearance and the image others have of him.

take account of sth
[B2] to consider something when judging a situation

Dictionary example:
A good architect takes account of the building's surroundings.

Learner example:
I hope you will take account of our request.

take into account sth
[B2] to consider something when judging a situation

Dictionary example:
I think you have to take into account the fact that he's a good deal younger than the rest of us.

Learner example:
Taking into account all these arguments, I also think, like many people, that keeping animals in zoos is cruel and unnecessary.

take advantage of sb/sth
[B2] to treat someone or something badly in order to get what you want

Dictionary example:
I think she takes advantage of his good nature.

Learner example:
There will always be the threat of those men who take advantage of animals' inferior status.

take your breath away
[B2] If something takes your breath away, you feel surprise and admiration because it is so beautiful or exciting.

Dictionary example:
The view from the window took my breath away.

Learner example:
The landscape just takes your breath away sometimes.

take charge
[B2] to take control of or make yourself responsible for something
Dictionary example:
I was happy to let her take charge of the holiday arrangements.

Learner example:
I am 21 years old which means that I can take charge of school children.

take control
[B2] to start to rule or govern an area

Dictionary example:
The dictator took control of the country in 1933.

Learner example:
In the first part of the story animals take control of a farm in England.

take a deep breath
[B2] to fill your lungs with air

Dictionary example:
Take a deep breath and relax.

Learner example:
But if you took a deep breath after reading the question, don't worry.

take sb's word for it
[B2] to believe what someone says without any proof

Dictionary example:
Take my word for it – this curry is very hot!

Learner example:
Naturally we had to take his word for it.

take sb/sth for granted
[B2] to not show that you are grateful for someone or something, and forget that you are lucky to have them

Dictionary example:
Most of us take our freedom for granted.

Learner example:
So don't take the telephone for granted, but keep in mind that our modern way of life is mainly due to its invention.

take it for granted
[B2] to believe that something is true without checking or thinking about it

Dictionary example:
I took it for granted that we'd be invited to the wedding.

Learner example:
I have taken it for granted that you will arrive for dinner.
take the/this opportunity to do sth
[B2] to use an occasion to do or say something

Dictionary example:
I’d like to take this opportunity to thank all of you.

Learner example:
Most of the comments [are] not right at all. I would like to take this opportunity to correct them.

take sb’s place
[B2] to do something instead of someone else

Dictionary example:
If I can’t make it to the theatre that night you can take my place.

Learner example:
First of all, it had been written that Danny Brook and Tina Truelove were starring, but Danny wasn’t there and somebody else took his place.

take effect
[C1] to start to produce results or changes

Dictionary example:
They had to wait ten minutes for the anaesthetic to take effect.

Learner example:
Some factories tried to organize the transport for the employees, but it took effect in small towns only, where people live with [in] shorter distances.

take your time
[C1] to do something without hurrying

Dictionary example:
Take your time choosing – there’s no hurry.

Learner example:
If you’re going to land at the 'Lugano–Agno' airport, as you told me in your last letter, the first thing I recommend to you is to be patient and take your time.

take it from me
[C1] accept that what I say is true, because I know or have experienced it

Dictionary example:
You could be doing a much less interesting job, take it from me.

Learner example:
As you pro[bl]ably already know, Greeks love sport so, take it from me, you won’t have difficulty in finding sports facilities of any kind, wherever you decide to go.

take care of sth/doing sth
[C1] to be responsible for dealing with something
Dictionary example:
I did the cooking while Guy took care of the washing up.

Learner example:
As for special requirements, one man and one woman are vegetarians and the woman is allergic to cats. I hope you are able to take care of that.

take sth on board
[C1] to understand or accept an idea or a piece of information

Dictionary example:
Banks need to take on board the views of their customers.

Learner example:
The students feel that if the above suggestions were taken on board, the study centre could be an excellent support for them in their studies.

take the initiative
[C1] to be the first person to do something that solves a problem or improves a situation

Dictionary example:
Jackson had taken the initiative and prepared a report.

Learner example:
I took the initiative to contact Sue Wilton, who is the manager of the restaurant "El Plato".

take issue (with sb/sth)
[C1] to disagree with what someone says or writes

Dictionary example:
I would take issue with you on that.

Learner example:
On behalf of the staff who worked for this event, I would like to take issue with the report's inaccuracies and unfair remarks.

take the liberty of doing sth
[C1] to do something that will have an effect on someone else, without asking their permission

Dictionary example:
I took the liberty of booking theatre seats for us.

Learner example:
I have taken the liberty of listing some of my ideas and suggestions and hope they will be of interest to you.

take note (of sth)
[C1] to pay careful attention to something
Dictionary examples:
Make sure you take note of what she says.
Safety standards are being tightened. Employers, take note.

Learner example:
I thank you for taking note of my view.

take *sth personally
[C1] to think that someone is criticizing you or to feel that a failure or bad situation is your fault

Dictionary example:
You mustn't take everything so personally.

Learner example:
She tends to take things too personally, and sometimes she overreacts.

take *sb’s word for it
[C1] to believe what someone says without any proof

Dictionary example:
Take my word for it – this curry is very hot!

Learner example:
You can take my word for it that she is absolutely capable of carrying out this job – fond of children, patient, good-natured and competent.

UNDERSTAND
[C2] to understand something in a particular way

Dictionary example:
Whatever I say she'll take it the wrong way.

take *sth as it comes [C2] to deal with something as it happens, without planning for it

Dictionary example:
With an illness like this you just have to take every day as it comes.

Learner example:
We should, for once, put our jealousy aside, start to appreciate what we have and take life as it comes.

MEASURE
[C2] to measure something

Dictionary example:
Have you taken her temperature?

Learner example:
The importance of absolute truth in keeping the laboratory records, in taking the temperature of the test animals, was "engraved" in our young minds.
I take it (that)
[C2] used when you think that what you say is probably true

Dictionary example:
I take it you’re not coming with us.

NEED A QUALITY
[C2] If something takes a particular quality, you need that quality in order to be able to do it.

Dictionary example:
It takes courage to challenge your manager.

Learner example:
It takes courage to give up a certain sense of security and face the unknown.

not take kindly to sth
[C2] to not like something that someone says or does

Dictionary example:
He doesn’t take kindly to criticism.

Learner example:
His wife didn’t take kindly to his lateness and immediately snarled at him as though [she was] a tigress snapping her claws in a cat-fight.

take the law into your own hands
[C2] to do something illegal in order to punish someone because you know that the law will not punish that person

Dictionary example:
The police did nothing about the thefts, so they took the law into their own hands.

Learner example:
Therefore, locals are scared to death, leading to their taking the law into their own hands.

take exception to sth FORMAL [C2] to be annoyed or insulted by something

Dictionary example:
He took exception to being asked to sweep the floor.

Learner example:
I hope you will not take exception to my words, but I think that this course of action is rather foolish and illogical.

take sth to heart
[C2] If you take criticism or advice to heart, you think about it seriously, often because it upsets you

Dictionary example:
Don’t take it to heart – he was only joking about your hair.
Learner example:
I hope you will take my advice to heart.

take the plunge
[C2] to do something important or difficult, especially after thinking about it for a long time

Dictionary example:
We're finally going to take the plunge and buy a house.

Learner example:
Being unable to stand this mystery, I decided to take the plunge and follow him.

take shape
[C2] to start to develop and become more clear or certain

Dictionary example:
The project is slowly beginning to take shape.

Learner example:
It is high time that their dreams took shape!

take stock (of sth)
[C2] to think carefully about a situation before making a decision

Dictionary example:
We need to pause and take stock of what still needs doing.

take its toll
[C2] to have a bad effect on someone or something, especially over a long period of time

Dictionary example:
The stress was starting to take its toll on him.

Learner example:
The famine has obviously taken its toll on him.

take a turn for the better/worse
[C2] to become better or worse suddenly

Dictionary example:
The weather took a turn for the better.

Learner example:
Despite all the environmental problems it is up to us to prevent things from taking a turn for the worse.

NOUN

your take on sth
[C2] your opinion about a situation
Dictionary example:
What’s your take on the plan to close the library?

give and take
[C2] when people reach agreement by letting each person have part of what they want

Dictionary example:
In every friendship there has to be some give and take.

Learner example:
This relationship must be a balance of give and take, and considered as the basis for that process of growth which should help a young person to reach a point of life in which he or she will be able to make his or her own choices, being aware of the consequences.

takeaway  /ˈteɪk.ə.weɪ/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a meal that you buy in a restaurant or shop but eat at home, or a shop that sells this type of meal

Dictionary example:
a Chinese takeaway

Learner example:
After pubs or [a] night club, they go to the takeaway.

takeover  /ˈteɪkˌəʊ.vər/

NOUN [C]
[C1] when a company gets control of another company

Dictionary example:
The company was involved in a takeover last year.

Learner example:
Everything has to be cheap and fast and there are mergers and takeovers all the time.

tale  /teɪl/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a story, especially one which is not true or is difficult to believe
Dictionary examples:
He told the most amazing tales about his life in India.
She told me some tale about missing the bus to explain her lateness.

Learner example:
She knows everything about Prague's history and many local stories and tales.

talent  /ˈtæl.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: talent
Adjectives: talented

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a natural ability to do something

Dictionary examples:
Her talent for music showed at an early age.
his artistic talents

Learner example:
Some people have skills and talent and some do not.

talented  /ˈtæl.ən.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: talent
Adjectives: talented

ADJECTIVE
[B1] with talent

Dictionary example:
a talented footballer/pianist

Learner example:
He is so talented, so smart and very polite to all.

talk  /tɔːk/

Word family:
Nouns: talk, talks
Verbs: talk
Adjectives: talkative
VERB [i]

DISCUSS
[B2] to discuss something with someone, often to try to find a solution to a disagreement

Dictionary example:
The two sides have agreed to talk.

Learner example:
I decided to talk to him and try to solve the problem.

LECTURE
[B2] to give a lecture on a subject

Dictionary example:
The next speaker will be talking about endangered insects.

Learner example:
We think that the best topic you could talk about is your latest book, you could try to develop the subject, explain to the members how to become a writer, from where and how do you get your ideas, and the subjects of your book.

talk business/politics, etc.
[C1] to discuss a particular subject

Dictionary example:
I don't like to talk business over lunch.

Learner example:
[Do] not talk politics or sports with him (!)

know what you are talking about [C1] to understand a subject because of your experience

Dictionary example:
He doesn't know what he's talking about – he's never even been to Africa.

Learner example:
I believe that you don't really know what you're talking about.

talk about sth/doing sth
[C2] to think about or make plans to do something in the future

Dictionary example:
They're talking about building a new fire station just up the road.

Learner example:
7 years ago they were talking about building another block of flats in the park.
NOUN

CONVERSATION

[B1] [c] a conversation between two people, often about a particular subject

Dictionary example:
He’s going to have a talk with his parents and see what they think.

Learner example:
We had a talk and he told me about Bradley and what the band was like.

TO GROUP

[B2] [c] when someone speaks to a group of people about a particular subject

Dictionary examples:
He gave a talk about/on his visit to Bolivia.
I went to a few interesting talks.

Learner example:
Dear Tom, It was very nice to hear from you again and it's really kind of you to give a talk to our Cinema Club.

PEOPLE

[C2] [u] when people talk about what might happen or be true

Dictionary examples:
There's been some talk of possible job losses.
There's been a lot of talk about green issues lately.

Learner example:
It is also true that there has been a lot of talk about euthanasia.

talkative /ˈtɔːk.ə.tɪv/

Word family:

Nouns: talk, talks

Verbs: talk

Adjectives: talkative

ADJECTIVE

[C1] A talkative person talks a lot.

Dictionary example:
My son is very talkative.

Learner example:
I would advise you to film the classrooms, maybe a conversation class, during which students will be more talkative and less shy.
talks /tɔːks/

Word family:
Nouns: talk, talks
Verbs: talk
Adjectives: talkative

NOUN [PLURAL]
[C2] formal meetings, especially between political leaders, to discuss a problem and to try to reach an agreement

Dictionary examples:
peace talks
US officials are holding talks with EU leaders over trade.

Learner example:
It should be dealt with [through] peace talks and more active communications between the countries.

tan /tæn/

NOUN [C]
[B2] when your skin is brown from being in the sun

Dictionary example:
She had a lovely tan.

Learner example:
If you want to get a tan, this is the place to be.

tangible /ˈtæn.dʒə.bl/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Something which is tangible is real and can be seen, touched, or measured.

Dictionary example:
tangible benefits/evidence

Learner example:
This was a tangible physical pleasure that I have felt ever since, whether I sing along with accompaniment, or in a chorus.
tank /ˈtæŋk/

NOUN [C]

VEHICLE
[C1] a large, strong military vehicle with a gun on it which moves on wheels inside large metal belts

Dictionary example:
Tanks rolled into the city at dawn.

Learner example:
They were inside the university and they were transmitting on a radio frequency when the tanks invaded from the main entrance.

CONTAINER
[C2] a large container for storing liquid or gas

Dictionary examples:
a water tank
a fuel/petrol tank

Learner example:
The heater is automatic and there is plenty of fuel oil in the tank.

tap /ˈtæp/

NOUN [C]

FOR WATER
[B1] the part at the end of a pipe which controls the flow of water

Dictionary examples:
the hot/cold tap
Turn the tap on/off.

Learner example:
As soon as I got in, I turned the tap on and waited for hot water.

KNOCK
[B2] a gentle knock or touch, or the noise made by knocking something gently

Dictionary examples:
I felt a tap on my shoulder.
There was a tap at the door.

Learner example:
While she was teaching, I fell asleep and two minutes later I felt a tap on my back.
VERB [ɪ or ɪ]

[B2] to knock or touch something gently

Dictionary example:
I tapped on the window to try to get her attention.

Learner example:
She lit up the whole stage when she danced, as she tapped her feet in rhythm with the music.

target /ˈtɑːɡt/

NOUN [C]

OBJECT/PERSO SHOT AT

[B2] something or someone that you attack, shoot at, try to hit, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a military target
I had four shots but I didn't even hit the target.
Any major airport or station is potentially a terrorist target.
Foreign businesses in the region have become a target for attacks.

Learner example:
Paul Rebere, a famous professional assassin, had been in that room for two hours now, waiting for his target to show up.

AIM

[B2] something that you intend to achieve

Dictionary example:
If you want to lose weight, you have to set yourself a target.

Learner example:
My target is to be a professional tennis player but I need to work hard for it.

CRITICISM

[C1] [USUALLY NO PLURAL] the person or thing that people are criticizing or blaming for something

Dictionary example:
Recently she has been the target of a series of obscene phone calls.

Learner example:
People get nervous, the bus driver gets nervous and finally the interpreter becomes the target of passengers' complaints.

target audience/market, etc.

[C2] the group of people that a programme, product, etc. is aimed at Dictionary example:
Children aren't really our target market.

Learner example:
The target audience will be students with intermediate- to upper-intermediate command of the language.

VERB [T]
[C2] to aim advertising, criticism, or a product at someone

Dictionary example:
The products are targeted at people in their late twenties.

Learner example:
When considering that the programme is targeted at young people, we conclude that it should be funny and amusing.

task /taːsk/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a piece of work, especially something unpleasant or difficult

Dictionary examples:
We usually ask interviewees to perform a few simple tasks on the computer just to test their aptitude.
The government now faces the difficult task of restructuring the entire health service.

Learner example:
To be honest, the task we were given was incredibly easy.

taste /teɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: taste
Verbs: taste
Adjectives: tasty, tasteful, tasteless

NOUN

FLAVOUR
[B1] [C or U] the flavour of a particular food in your mouth

Dictionary examples:
I love the taste of garlic.
The soup had a slightly sour taste.
Learner example:
I don't know how old it is but I've gone there since I was a child and the taste of the food has never changed.

WHAT YOU LIKE

[B2] [c or u] the particular things you like, such as styles of music, clothes, decoration, etc.

Dictionary examples:
You have very good taste!
I don't like his taste in music.
She has very expensive tastes.

Learner example:
In my opinion, the variety of films you show cover all kinds of tastes.

SHORT EXPERIENCE

[B2] [NO PLURAL] a short experience of something different

Dictionary example:
This was my first taste of freedom.

Learner example:
Before you catch your plane, your group could visit our nice city and have a taste of our culture.

ABILITY

[B2] [u] the ability to experience different flavours in your mouth

Dictionary example:
When you've got a cold you often lose your sense of taste.

be in good taste

[C2] to be acceptable in a way that will not upset or anger people

Dictionary example:
His speech was in good taste.

Learner example:
I therefore thought that it would be in good taste to write about two of them.

be in bad/poor taste

[C2] to be unacceptable in a way that will upset or anger people

Dictionary example:
He told a joke about a plane crash which I thought was in rather poor taste.

a taste for sth

[C2] when you like or enjoy something

Dictionary examples:
I've developed a bit of a taste for opera.
Over the years I've lost my taste for travel.
Learner example:
This diary was supposedly in the hands of Madame Isabella Costa, the widow of the late Christian Rudolph, a German actor with a taste for antiques.

VERB [T]

taste good/bad/sweet, etc.
[B1] to have a particular flavour

Dictionary examples:
This sauce tastes strange.
The bread tastes of onions.
This coffee tastes like dishwater!

Learner example:
The food is very typical and tastes good.

FOOD/DRINK
[B1] to put food or drink in your mouth to find out what flavour it has

Dictionary examples:
Taste this sauce and tell me if it needs any salt.
Whatever’s this? I've never tasted anything like it.

Learner example:
Of course I tasted tequila, and I liked it very much.

tasteful /ˈteɪst.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: taste
Verbs: taste
Adjectives: tasty, tasteful, tasteless

ADJECTIVE
[C2] attractive and chosen for style and quality

Dictionary example:
a tasteful beige suit

Learner example:
They have refurbished the house in a very tasteful way, so you can still find some evidence of my grandmother once living there.
tasteless  /ˈteɪst.ləs/

Word family:
- Nouns: taste
- Verbs: taste
- Adjectives: tasty, tasteful, tasteless

ADJECTIVE

FOOD

[C1] having no flavour

Dictionary example:
The meat was dry and tasteless.

Learner example:
The canteen's food is tasteless and with almost the same menu every day.

UGLY

[C2] ugly or without style

Dictionary example:
tasteless decorations

Learner example:
A quick look at a major contemporary sports competition: Athletes bulging with muscles that were clearly not earned naturally, massive on-site medical invasion, and a tasteless supply of cheap gadgets.

OFFENSIVE

[C2] likely to upset or anger people

Dictionary example: a tasteless joke

---

tasty  /ˈteɪst.i/

Word family:
- Nouns: taste
- Verbs: taste
- Adjectives: tasty, tasteful, tasteless

ADJECTIVE

[B1] Food which is tasty has a good flavour and is nice to eat.

Dictionary example:
They do a very tasty breakfast.

Learner example:
The meal was really tasty.

2998 tax /tæks/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] money that you have to pay to the government from what you earn or when you buy things

Dictionary examples:
They're putting up the tax on cigarettes.
Tax cuts are always popular.
What do you earn before/after tax?
I pay my taxes.

Learner example:
In Kish or Aeshm you can buy electric[al] device[s] cheaper than [in] your country, because you can buy all goods without tax.

VERB [T]
[C1] to make someone pay a tax

Dictionary example:
Husbands and wives may be taxed independently/together.

Learner example:
For example, pol[l]uters should be taxed more heavily, [and] they should be fined.

taxpayer /ˈtæks.per.ə/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a person who pays tax

Dictionary example:
Taxpayers deserve better services than this.

Learner example:
Unemployment is not only a problem [for] those without jobs but also one [for] those employed, at present, since taxpayers have to suffer the burden of providing [an] increasing number of people with unemployment with welfare [payments].

tea /tiː/

NOUN

MEAL
[B1] [u] a small afternoon meal of sandwiches, cakes, biscuits, etc. and tea to drink

2999
Dictionary example:
They invited us for afternoon tea.

Learner example:
Every afternoon they organized a tea for all the members.

teach /tiːʃ/ (taught, taught)

Word family:
Nouns: teacher, teaching
Verbs: teach

GET EXPERIENCE

[B1] [ɪ] If a situation teaches you something, it gives you new knowledge or helps you to understand something.

Dictionary example:
The whole experience taught him to be more careful with money.

Learner example:
This situation taught me that I should keep my important things with m[e] all the time.

teach sb a lesson

[C2] to punish someone so that they will not behave badly again

Dictionary example:
The next time she's late, go without her. That should teach her a lesson.

Learner example:
He didn't want to hurt Diane just teach her a lesson.

teaching /ˈtiː.tʃɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: teacher, teaching
Verbs: teach

NOUN [u]

[B1] the job of being a teacher

Dictionary examples:
He’s always wanted to go into teaching.
modern teaching methods

Learner example:
The teacher has a lot of experience behind him, I think nearly 20 years of teaching.
team /tiːm/

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]

WORK GROUP
[B1] a group of people who work together to do something

Dictionary examples:
a management team
a team of advisers

Learner example:
He told me he was part of the sound team of the band I went to see.

teamwork /ˈtiːm.wɜːk/

NOUN [U]
[C1] when a group of people work well together

Dictionary example:
We won't achieve anything without good teamwork.

Learner example:
Nowadays teamwork is a skill that is highly demanded by employers.

tear¹ /teə/

VERB [I or T] (tore, torn)

BREAK
[B1] to pull something so that it comes apart or breaks, or to become damaged like this

Dictionary examples:
I tore my skirt on the chair as I stood up.
You have to be very careful with books this old because the paper tends to tear very easily.
A couple of pages had been torn out of the book.

Learner example:
Although it's quite expensive, the clothes that I buy from there will not tear easily.

tear sth out of/off/down, etc.
[C1] to remove something by pulling it quickly and violently

Dictionary example:
She tore his picture down from the wall.
Learner example:
If you can't bear seeing an ear being torn off from somebody's head, don't watch this video.

be torn between sth and sth
[C2] to be unable to decide between two choices

Dictionary example:
I'm torn between the apple pie and the chocolate mousse.

Learner example:
As a consequence, we find ourselves torn between what we want to eat and what we feel we should be eating.

---

tear² /tɪə/

NOUN [C usually plural]

Crying
[B1] a drop of water that comes from your eye when you cry

Dictionary examples:
These are tears of joy.
Did you notice the tears in his eyes when he talked about Diane?
Her eyes filled with tears.

Learner example:
I had to fight the tears of rage, and my heart beat as fast as a drum.

in tears
[B1] crying

Dictionary example:
I found him in tears in his bedroom.

Learner example:
By the end of it, Mary Anne was nearly in tears.

burst into tears
[B1] to suddenly start to cry

Dictionary example:
She burst into tears and ran out of the room.

Learner example:
She burst into tears.

shed tears
[C1] to cry
Dictionary example:
I shed a few tears when he left.

Learner example:
She was too preoccupied to talk to anybody and she had shed so many tears that she could cry no more.

tease /ˈtiːz/

VERB [ɪ or ɪː]
[B2] to laugh at someone or say unkind things about them, either because you are joking or because you want to upset them

Dictionary examples:
I used to hate being teased about my red hair when I was at school.
I was only teasing, I didn't mean to upset you.

Learner example:
Ginny's classmates were always teasing her about her clothing.

tea spoon /ˈtiː.spuːn/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a small spoon that is used for mixing drinks and measuring small amounts of food, or the amount this spoon can hold

Dictionary example:
Add two teaspoons of salt.

Learner example:
Lastly, thank you for asking me what I'd like from the USA, because I am a very serious collector of teaspoons with different countries' flags on them.

technical /ˈtek.nɪ.kəl/
Dictionary example:
a few technical problems

Learner example:
Instead, due to some technical problems, it began at 20:15.

PRACTICAL SKILL
[B2] relating to practical skills and methods that are used in a particular activity

Dictionary example:
As a dancer she had great technical skill.

Learner example:
Federer glides over the court as if it’s the easiest thing, [and] apart from his technical and physical skills he is a great personality.

technically ˈtek.nɪk.li/

Word family:
Nouns: technique, technician
Adjectives: technical Adverbs: technically

ADVERB

SCIENCE/INDUSTRY
[C1] relating to the knowledge, machines, or methods used in science and industry

Dictionary example:
technically advanced weapons

Learner example:
Everybody has one of these technically engineered marvels and they come in different shapes, colours, prices and with a lot of configurable options.

DETAIL
[C2] according to the exact details of a rule, law, or fact

Dictionary example:
Irvine is technically British but lives in Dublin and races for the Irish team.

Learner example:
Working nine to five every weekday may not sound like too much of a bother, considering that it is technically only one third of the whole day, but we all know how depressing it can get when you’re doing the same thing over and over again.
technician /teknɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: technique, technician
Adjectives: technical Adverbs: technically

NOUN [c]

[C1] someone whose job involves practical work with scientific or electrical equipment

Dictionary example:
a lab technician

Learner example:
It could be the fault of the sound technician, although I believe that for the next Activity day we [should] be provided with better equipment and loudspeakers.

---

technique /tekˈnɪːk/

Word family:
Nouns: technique, technician
Adjectives: technical Adverbs: technically

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] a particular or special way of doing something

Dictionary examples:
We have developed a new technique for detecting errors in the manufacturing process.
She’s a wonderfully creative dancer but she doesn’t have the technique of a truly great performer.

Learner example:
I go on Mondays, Wednesdays and Friday[s] from 4:00 P.M to 7:00 P.M. I’ve learned a whole new bunch of tips, techniques and st[u]ff I want to show you.

---

techno /ˈtek.nəʊ/

NOUN [u]

[C1] a type of electronic dance music

Dictionary example:
He’s really into techno.

Learner example:
As for the music, Red Hot Chilli [P]eppers did a really fine job with "Otherside", while the other video has the classic techno beat.
technological /ˌtek.nəˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: technology
Adjectives: technological Adverbs: technologically

ADJECTIVE

[B2] relating to, or involving, technology

Dictionary example:
Technological advances/developments in computing and telecommunications will reduce the need for many people to travel to work.

Learner example:
I think that the more technological developments we have, the more comfortable lives we enjoy.

technologically /ˌtek.nəˈlɒdʒ.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: technology
Adjectives: technological Adverbs: technologically

ADVERB

[C1] in a way that relates to or involves technology

Dictionary example:
Their society was technologically advanced.

Learner example:
The economy nowadays is so technologically driven it is [a] common belief that having a job in the computer industry means high pay and perks.

technology /tekˈnɒl.ə.dʒi/

Word family:
Nouns: technology
Adjectives: technological Adverbs: technologically

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] knowledge, equipment, and methods that are used in science and industry
Dictionary examples:
computer technology
modern technology
What this country needs is a long-term policy for investment in science and technology.

Learner example:
I also like to read some magazines about computers and technology, my favourite is "PC Magazine".

tedious /ˈtiː.di.əs/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] boring

Dictionary example:
a tedious job

Learner example:
The idea of going to work out to keep fit might be tedious sometimes but the majority of young people are interested in taking up an activity these days.

teenage /ˈtiː.n.eɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: teenager
Adjectives: teenage

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[B1] aged between 13 and 19 years old

Dictionary example:
a teenage daughter

Learner example:
However, teenage films are better for me.

telecommunications /ˌtel.iˌkəˌmjuːˈnɪkə.ʃənz/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B2] the sending and receiving of messages over distance, especially by telephone, radio and television

Dictionary example:
the telecommunications industry
Learner example:
Accompanied by the success of these telecommunications companies, a lot of jobs have been created.

telescope /ˈtel.ɪ.skəʊp/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a piece of equipment, in the shape of a tube, that makes things which are far away look bigger or nearer

Dictionary example:
a very powerful telescope

Learner example:
I just laugh when he tries to convince me of their existence, once he even told me that he saw a spaceship in the sky while he was observing the stars with his telescope.

television /ˈtel.ɪ.vɪʒ.ən/ (also TV) (UK informal telly)

NOUN

SYSTEM

[B1] [u] the system or business of making and broadcasting programmes for television

Dictionary examples:
She works in television.
a television company/network

Learner example:
If possible, I would go to the television company for help, then they will show [it] [o]n TV.

tell /tel/ (told, told)

VERB

tell sb how/what/when to do sth

[B1] to advise someone how/what/when to do something

Dictionary examples:
Kit will tell you how to get there.
She didn't tell us what to do.
Learner example:
He tells us how to do the different kind[s] of exercises.

I can't tell you how ...

[B1] used to emphasize your feelings about something

Dictionary example:
I can’t tell you how grateful I am for your help.

Learner example:
I can’t tell you how nervous I am.

can tell

[B2] to know or recognize something from what you hear, see, etc.

Dictionary examples:
You could tell that he was tired.
You can never tell whether Hajime’s being serious or not.

Learner example:
I could tell it was the voice of a man, but I failed to identify it.

UNDERSTAND FROM

[B2] [T] If something tells you something, it gives you information.

Dictionary example:
What does the survey tell us about the lives of teenagers?

Learner example:
We have all seen the reports which tell us about the problems of pollution from cars.

tell the difference

[C1] to notice a difference between two things

Dictionary examples:
I can’t tell the difference between an American and a Canadian accent.
This coffee is about half the price of that one and yet you really can’t tell the difference.

Learner example:
Not only will their critical sen[s]e atrophy but also they will not be able to tell the difference between what is right and wrong.

(I’ll) tell you what [INFORMAL]

[C2] used to suggest a plan

Dictionary example:
Tell you what, let’s go swimming and then get a pizza.

Learner example:
I’ll tell you what, why don’t you let me pay [for] a hotel room for a week, just the time you need to [make] some arrangements?
I told you so
[C2] used to say that you were right and that someone should have believed you

Dictionary examples:
He's lazy? I told you so, didn't I?
'I think I've taken on too much work.' 'I told you so, didn't I?'

Learner example:
See, I told you so”, Azman said with a grin.

telly  /ˈtel.i/

NOUN [C or U]

[C1] television

Dictionary example:
I saw her on the telly.

Learner example:
In the end I think it is only a good laugh when there is nothing else on telly.

temper  /ˈtem.pər/

NOUN

ANGER

[B2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] when someone becomes angry very quickly

Dictionary examples:
She has a real temper.
He's got a really bad temper.

Learner example:
In my opinion, the behaviour of the old lady is somewhat [rude] and sometimes, through her bad temper, she offends the customers.

lose your temper

[B2] to suddenly become angry

Dictionary example:
The children behaved so badly that I lost my temper.

Learner example:
Yesterday, I must confess, I lost my temper with my son.
keep your temper
[C2] to succeed in staying calm and not becoming angry

Dictionary example:
I can’t discuss this with you unless you promise to keep your temper.

Learner example:
He never offends people and he keeps his temper even if someone insults him.

temple /ˈtem.pəl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a building where people in some religions go to pray or worship

Dictionary example:
a Buddhist temple

Learner example:
You can see many temples and Maiko, who are traditional people wearing Kimono.

temporarily /ˌtem.pəˈrer.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: temporary Adverbs: temporarily

ADVERB
[B2] for a short time

Dictionary example:
This office is closed temporarily for redecoration.

Learner example:
We can work temporarily [for] up to 6 months.

temporary /ˈtem.pər.ər.i/

Word family:
Adjectives: temporary Adverbs: temporarily

ADJECTIVE
[B1] existing or happening for only a short or limited time
Dictionary examples:
temporary staff
a temporary job
temporary accommodation/housing

Learner example:
It was a reality show that involved a lot of young people [who] were applying for a temporary job – I think a marketing job – and finally only one of the[m] [got] it.

tempt /tempt/

Word family:
Nouns: temptation
Verbs: tempt

VERB [T]

be tempted
[B2] to want something or to want to do something

Dictionary examples:
"Did you apply for that job?" "Well, I was very tempted but in the end I decided not to."
I was tempted to resign after my boss was so rude to me.

Learner example:
I am tempted to start taking tennis lessons at your sport[s] club if it's possible.

temptation /tempˈteɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: temptation
Verbs: tempt

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] a feeling that you want to do or have something, although you know you should not

Dictionary examples:
In these situations, there is a huge temptation to lie.
As a young actress, she managed to resist the temptation to move to Hollywood.

Learner example:
I felt the irresistible temptation to meet new people and feel some freedom.
tenant /ˈten.ənt/

NOUN [c]
[C2] someone who pays rent to live in a room, house, etc.

Dictionary example:
I have tenants in my flat at the moment.

Learner example:
In an apartment building if all tenants have the will to see the whole structure as their home we can create beautiful surroundings.

tend /tend/

Word family:
Nouns: tendency
Verbs: tend

VERB tend to do sth
[B2] to often do a particular thing or be likely to do a particular thing

Dictionary examples:
I tend to wear dark colours.
July and August tend to be our busiest months.

Learner example:
When something is not enjoyable, we tend not to do it.

tendency /ˈten.dən.si/

Word family:
Nouns: tendency
Verbs: tend

NOUN [c]
[C1] something that someone often does, or something that often happens

Dictionary examples:
She has a tendency to talk for too long.
There is a growing tendency for companies to employ people on short contracts.

Learner example:
There is a tendency to choose canned and preserved foods instead of fresh ones.

3013 tender /ˈten.də/

Word family:

Nouns: tenderness

Adjectives: tender

ADJECTIVE

GENTLE

[C2] kind and gentle

Dictionary example:

a tender kiss/look

Learner example:

I like to observe the careful and gentle way in which a mother communicates to [her] four-year-old child, selecting the words with great care with a tender look in her eyes.

FOOD

[C2] Tender meat or vegetables are soft and easy to cut.

Dictionary example:

This meat is lovely and tender.

Learner example:

Their steaks are so tender you hardly need your knife and sometimes the plates are too small for the steaks.

at the tender age of 8/17/25, etc. LITERARY [C2] at the young age of 8/17/25, etc

Dictionary example:

She first appeared on stage at the tender age of 14.

Learner example:

She met my father at the tender age of 14, and she soon knew that this was the man she wanted to stay with for the rest of her life.

---

tenderness /ˈten.də.nəs/

Word family:

Nouns: tenderness

Adjectives: tender

NOUN [u]

[C2] the quality of being kind and gentle

Dictionary example:

We were struck by his tenderness towards the old people.
Learner example:
But I will cherish the fact that I have done my best to provide my children with love and tenderness, while watching them turning into adults in a brave new world such as ours.

tense /tents/

Word family:
Nouns: tension
Adjectives: tense

NOUN [c]
[B1] any of the forms of a verb which show the time at which an action happened

Dictionary example:
'I sing' is in the present tense, 'I will sing' is in the future tense and 'I sang' is in the past tense.

Learner example:
The first lesson was about the present tense and wasn't really difficult for us.

ADJECTIVE

NERVOUS
[B2] nervous, worried, and not able to relax

Dictionary example:
She was very tense as she waited for the interview.

Learner example:
Beyond the fact you feel tired and tense, I'm afraid that if you keep on working this way, you'll get [serious] health problems in the future.

SITUATION

Dictionary example:
There were some tense moments in the second half of the game.

Learner example:
There was a tense atmosphere.

tension /ˈtenʃn/

Word family:
Nouns: tension
Adjectives: tense
FEELING
[B2] [u] a feeling that you are nervous, worried, and not relaxed

Dictionary example:
You could feel the tension in the room as we waited for our exam results.

Learner example:
Today’s world is also known for stress and tension.

BETWEEN PEOPLE/GROUPS
[B2] [c or u] a feeling of fear or anger between people, groups or countries who do not trust each other

Dictionary examples:
ethnic/racial tension
There are growing tensions between the two countries.

Learner example:
I was only eight years old but yet I could feel the tension between my parents.

tent /tent/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a structure made of metal poles and cloth which is fixed to the ground with ropes and used as a cover or to sleep under

Dictionary example:
It only took twenty minutes to put the tent up.

Learner example:
We slept in a tent for two nights there.

term /tɜːm/

NOUN

WORD
[B2] [c] a word or phrase that is used to refer to a particular thing, especially in a technical or scientific subject

Dictionary examples:
a legal/medical/scientific/technical term
'Without let or hindrance' is a legal term which means 'freely'.
Learner example:
Extreme overworking can [even] lead to death and that was discovered and confirmed by Japanese doctors who created a special medical term for the [illness] caused by overworking.

terminal /ˈtɜːrnəl/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a building where you can get onto an aircraft, bus, or ship

Dictionary example:
Your flight to Perth will leave from Terminal 4.

Learner example:
The Hotel that I booked for your group is the Moat House Hotel in Feltham, from Heathrow Terminal 3 [where] you will arrive on 29th of June, the best way to go there is to catch the minibus No 32.

terms /tɜːms/

NOUN [PLURAL]

RULES
[B2] the rules of an agreement

Dictionary examples:
your terms of employment
Under the terms of their contract, employees must give 3 months’ notice if they leave.

Learner example:
So we would be very grateful to get some information about the club and the terms of membership.

in ... terms/in terms of sth
[B2] used to explain which part of a problem or situation you are referring to

Dictionary examples:
In financial terms, the project was not a success.
In terms of quality control, the company has made great improvements.

Learner example:
In terms of accommodation, they [provide] it all which is good, but unfortunately you have to share your room with another person, which is not so good if you're shy or something like that.

be on good/bad/friendly, etc. terms
[C2] to have a good/bad, etc. relationship with someone
Dictionary example:
I’m still on friendly terms with my old colleagues.

Learner example:
The fact that they both live alone requires them to be on good terms with the rest of us.

not be on speaking terms
[C2] to not speak to someone because you have argued with them

Dictionary example:
My brother and I aren’t on speaking terms.

Learner example:
Just imagine how many are those who hate their relatives or at least one of their relatives and aren’t even on speaking terms with them or him.

in no uncertain terms
[C2] in a direct and often angry way

Dictionary example:
I told him to go away in no uncertain terms.

Learner example:
Intellectuals are used to saying in no uncertain terms that money represents the bad side of the sport.

come to terms with sth
[C2] to accept a sad situation

Dictionary example:
He still hasn’t come to terms with his brother’s death.

Learner example:
She had, at last, come to terms with her loss and although she still, deep in her heart, grieved for Michael she now knew that she could move on.

terrace  /ˈter.əs/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a flat area outside a house, restaurant, etc. where you can sit

Dictionary example:
We had our drinks on the terrace.

Learner example:
I enjoyed the evenings sitting on your terrace listening to your interesting stories about your childhood.
terribly /ˈter.a.bli/

Word family:

Adjectives: terrible

Adverbs: terribly

ADVERB

VERY MUCH

[B1] very

Dictionary examples:

She was terribly upset.
We were terribly lucky that nothing was damaged.

Learner example:

I'm terribly sorry but I've got a job interview.

VERY BADLY

[B2] very badly

Dictionary example:

I slept terribly last night.

Learner example:

Although he's singing quite well, he danced terribly and that spoiled part of the show.

terrific /təˈrɪf.ɪk/

ADJECTIVE

VERY GOOD

[B1] very good

Dictionary example:

It's a terrific opportunity.

Learner example:

My teacher is terrific and she's always happy.

LARGE/SERIOUS

[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] very large, great, or serious

Dictionary examples:

a terrific increase in prices
a terrific storm

Learner example:

Furthermore, the rubbish collection was a terrific problem, the smell was awful.
terrified  /ˈter.əˌfaɪd/

Word family:
- Nouns: terror, terrorism, terrorist
- Verbs: terrify
- Adjectives: terrified, terrifying

ADJECTIVE

[B1] very frightened

Dictionary examples:
He sat in the corner like a terrified child.
She's terrified of the dark.
She's terrified (that) her mother might find out.

Learner example:
I was really terrified. Then I turned on the light and...

---

terrify  /ˈter.əˌfər/

Word family:
- Nouns: terror, terrorism, terrorist
- Verbs: terrify
- Adjectives: terrified, terrifying

VERB [T]

[B2] to frighten someone very much

Dictionary example:
The idea of parachuting out of a plane terrifies me.

Learner example:
Instead my thoughts drifted away and started to terrify me once more.

---

terrifying  /ˈter.əˌfər.ɪŋ/

Word family:
- Nouns: terror, terrorism, terrorist
- Verbs: terrify
- Adjectives: terrified, terrifying

ADJECTIVE

[B2] extremely frightening

Dictionary example:
It was a terrifying experience.
Learner example:
That was the most terrifying thing I have ever seen.

terриториал /ˌter.ɪˈtɔːri.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: territory
Adjectives: territorial

ADJECTIVE
[C2] relating to the land that is owned or controlled by a particular country

Dictionary example:
a territorial dispute

Learner example:
In former times these territorial and religious disputes resulted in a decrease of population.

территория /ˈter.i.tɔri.i/

Word family:
Nouns: territory
Adjectives: territorial

NOUN
COUNTRY’S LAND
[B2] [C or U] land that is owned or controlled by a particular country

Dictionary examples:
He was shot down in enemy territory.
The UN is sending aid to the occupied territories.

Learner example:
In a way, Sweden is a unique country because it has never had any wars on its territory and avoided the harmful effects of any conquer[or]s.

PERSON’S/ANIMAL’S LAND
[B2] [C or U] an area that an animal or person thinks belongs to them

Dictionary example:
Cats like to protect their territory.

Learner example:
I think that man [shouldn’t] take animals out of their own territory.

AREA OF KNOWLEDGE
[C2] [U] an area of knowledge or experience
Dictionary example:
With this project we'll be moving into unknown territory.

Learner example:
Sure, breaking the habit and 'exploring new, unknown territory' will certainly seem somewhat frightening at first, but we all have to deal with it.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>terror</th>
<th>/ˈter.oʊ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: terror, terrorism, terrorist

Verbs: terrify

Adjectives: terrified, terrifying

NOUN [U or L]

[B2] a feeling of being very frightened

Dictionary examples:
They fled from the city in terror.
I will never forget the look of terror in her face.

Learner example:
I froze with terror.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>terrorism</th>
<th>/ˈter.a.rɪ.zm/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: terror, terrorism, terrorist

Verbs: terrify

Adjectives: terrified, terrifying

NOUN [U]

[B2] the use of violence for political purposes, for example putting bombs in public places

Dictionary examples:
Governments must cooperate if they are to fight international terrorism.
The bomb explosion was one of the worst acts of terrorism that Italy has experienced in recent years.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>terrorist</th>
<th>/ˈter.a.rɪst/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:

Nouns: terror, terrorism, terrorist

Verbs: terrify

Adjectives: terrified, terrifying
NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who is involved in terrorism

Dictionary examples:
There has been an increase in terrorist attacks.
The government has said that it will not be intimidated by terrorist threats.

Learner example:
Some people believed that their town was occupied by terrorists or even aliens.

tertiary /ˈter.ʃə.ri/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Tertiary education is education at university or college level.

Dictionary example:
a tertiary institution

Learner example:
Most poor families can only afford [to send] their children up to the secondary education and their eldest child up to the tertiary level.

test /test/

NOUN [c]

MEDICAL
[B1] a short medical examination of part of your body or of something such as blood that is taken from your body

Dictionary examples:
an eye test
a blood/urine test a pregnancy test
The doctors have done some tests to try to find out what's wrong with her.

Learner example:
So I decided to call and ask for information, then as soon as I [had done] some medical tests I was accepted.

SITUATION
[B2] a situation that shows how good something is

Dictionary example:
This project will be a real test of his ability.
Learner example:
It's true that asserting oneself in society is a real test of self-reliance and that a lot of people encounter hardships.

VERB [ɪ]

EXAM
[B1] to give someone a set of questions, in order to measure their knowledge or ability

Dictionary example:
You'll be tested on all the areas you've studied this term.

CHECK
[B2] to do something in order to discover if something is safe, works correctly, etc.

Dictionary example:
None of our products are tested on animals.

Learner example:
Before we can use a certain medicine, hairspray, make-up, [etc.] it might have been tested on animals to see what their reaction is.

PROVE QUALITY/STRENGTH, ETC.
[B2] If a situation tests someone, it proves how good, strong, etc. they are.

Dictionary example:
This next match will really test them.

Learner example:
This trip was organised by our form tutor, he wanted to test us [to see] if we trusted each other and worked in a team.

testify /ˈtest.ɪ.fai/

VERB [ɪ]

[C2] to say what you know or believe is true in a law court

Dictionary example:
Elliott testified that he had met the men in a bar.

Learner example:
They took her to the station and promised her immunity if she would testify against James.
text /tekst/

NOUN

WORDS, NOT PICTURES
[B1] [u] the written words in a book, magazine, etc., not the pictures

Dictionary example:
a page of text

PIECE OF WRITING
[B1] [c] a short piece of writing that you discuss in class

Dictionary example:
Could you all read the text, please?

Learner example:
Next lesson I will have to read a small text.

BOOK/PLAY
[B2] [c] a book or play that is studied for an examination

Dictionary example:
'Jane Eyre' is our set text this year.

texture /ˈteks.tʃər/

NOUN [c or u]
[C1] the way that something feels when you touch it

Dictionary example:
wood with a rough texture

Learner example:
At the college they teach you how to make the arrangements, the use of colour, space, movement and texture.

thank /θæŋk/

Word family:
Nouns: thanks
Verbs: thank
Adjectives: thankful
Adverbs: thankfully
thank God INFORMAL

[B1] something you say when you are happy because something bad did not happen

Dictionary example:
Thank God nobody was hurt in the accident.

Learner example:
"Thank God my car is OK", he said.

---

thankful /ˈθæŋk.fəl/

Word family:

Nouns: thanks

Verbs: thank

Adjectives: thankful

Adverbs: thankfully

ADJECTIVE

[C1] pleased or grateful about something

Dictionary example:
We were thankful that none of the children saw the accident.

Learner example:
This revolution led to our freedom and we are thankful to the heroic people of 1821, because if they didn't start the revolution, we wouldn't be here today.

---

thankfully /ˈθæŋk.fəli/

Word family:

Nouns: thanks

Verbs: thank

Adjectives: thankful

Adverbs: thankfully

ADVERB

[C1] used at the beginning of a sentence to show that you are pleased or grateful about something

Dictionary example:
Thankfully, nobody was hurt.
Learner example:
Thankfully, with the help of the government, a recycling centre was built nearby and so the rubbish littering the streets, as well as that being taken to the dump, was cut down by 60%.

thanks /θæŋks/

Word family:
Nouns: thanks
Verbs: thank
Adjectives: thankful
Adverbs: thankfully

EXCLAMATION
	hanks to sb/sth
[B2] because of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I passed my driving test, thanks to the extra help my dad gave me.
It's thanks to Sandy that I heard about the job.

NOUN [PLURAL]
[B2] words or actions that show you are grateful or pleased about something

Dictionary examples:
They expressed their thanks to the organisers.
He wrote a letter of thanks to the hospital.

Learner example:
Give thanks also to your wife, we really appreciate her marvellous cooking.

thank you /ˈθæŋk.ju/

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]
[B1] something that you say or do in order to show that you are grateful for something

Dictionary examples:
I'd like to say a big thank you to everyone for all their help.
The chocolates were a thank you for looking after the children.

Learner example:
I'm writing to say [a] very big thank you for our fantastic weekend.
that /ðæt/

DETERMINER (PLURAL those)

that sort of thing
[B1] used to show that what you have just said is only an example from a larger group of things

Dictionary example:
They sell souvenirs, postcards, that sort of thing.

Learner example:
I also enjoy using new clothes for the first time, but I prefer buying other stuff like electronic devices or that sort of thing.

CONJUNCTION

in that [C2] because of or for this reason

Dictionary example:
The course is good in that it provides a very practical training.

Learner example:
Nowadays it is widely argued that professional sports are damaging to people's health in that they involve gruelling training sessions as an integral part of the occupation.

PRONOUN (PLURAL those)

RELATIVE CLAUSE
[B1] used instead of 'who' or 'which' at the beginning of a relative clause

Dictionary example:
Have you eaten all the cake that I made yesterday?

Learner example:
I like my old-fashioned blue jeans, [and] the old shoes that I always use.

and all that
[B1] used for saying that other similar things are included or that the whole of a situation is considered

Dictionary examples:
He told us about his school and all that.
We decided to stay in bed, with it being a holiday and all that.

Learner example:
I really enjoy shopping for clothes, but not only for clothes, also for things like earrings and all that!
that's it
[B1] used to say that something has ended

Dictionary examples:
Well that's it then, we've finished.
I think that's it for now – I'll email you about the other project next week.

Learner example:
Well, that's it. Good luck and have a good time.

that's it
[B2] used to say that something is correct

Dictionary example:
You need to push the two pieces together. That's it.

REACTION
[B2] used to express a reaction to something

Dictionary examples:
I didn't know she'd been so ill. That's terrible.
Turn the engine on, then put the car in gear. That's right.
Smile for the camera. That's more like it.

PAST
[B2] used to refer to events or experiences in the past

Dictionary example:
That was before we had a car.

Learner example:
That was when I went to live in Barcelona by myself in a student residence.

that's that
[C1] used to say that something has happened or a decision has been made and there is nothing more to say or do

Dictionary example:
I won't agree to it and that's that.

Learner example:
That's it and that's that!" as they say in the "Sorbits-advertis[e]ment" Bye!

that is (to say)
[C1] used to correct something you have said or give more information about something

Dictionary example:
Everybody was at the meeting, well everyone except Jeanne, that is.
Learner example:
All in all, the students who participated in this programme were quite happy and had an enjoyable time there, except for some, that is.

this and that
[C2] different things which are not very important

Dictionary example:
“What are you doing today?” “Oh, just this and that.”

Learner example:
He used to call his friends daily, chat about this and that, release the tension through silly jokes, even go out with them once in a while.

ADVERB
[B2] used when describing the size, amount, or state of something or someone

Dictionary examples:
She's too young to walk that far.
It wasn’t (all) that good.

Learner example:
My English isn’t that bad, actually I have been taught English in school for six years.

the /ðiː/

DETERMINER

YOUR
[B1] used instead of a possessive adjective such as 'your', 'her' or 'my'

Dictionary examples:
He held her by the arm.
Where did I park the car?

Learner example:
There [are] a lot of people, and there are a lot of cars, so you would have problems find[ing] a place to park the car.

TIME
[B2] used before numbers that refer to periods of ten years

Dictionary example:
the sixties

Learner example:
For example, people in the 1950s who didn't have computers are likely to have had difficulty in checking information, booking tickets, and communicating with each other.
COMPARE
[B2] used before each of two adjectives or adverbs to show how one thing changes depending on another

Dictionary example:
The longer we live here, the more we like it.

Learner example:
In many cases, the more things you learn, the less things you know.

the first floor /ˈfɜːstflɔː/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B1] the floor of a building that is directly above ground level

Dictionary example:
She works on the first floor.

Learner example:
My bedroom is on the first floor.

the first person /ˈfɜːstˈpɜː.sən/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] the form of a verb or pronoun that is used when people are speaking or writing about themselves. For example, 'I' and 'we' are first person pronouns.

Dictionary example:
Autobiographies are written in the first person.

theft /θeft/

NOUN [C or U]
[B2] ! the action or crime of stealing something

Dictionary examples:
car theft
Unfortunately, we have had several thefts in the building recently.

Learner example:
So, who was [it] that made this [such a] perfectly-organised theft?
the ground floor /ˌgraʊndˈfloː/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

[B1] the floor of a building that is at the same level as the ground outside

Dictionary example:
My office is on the ground floor.

Learner example:
We followed them to a new club in Siena. It is on the ground floor of an old building.

their /ðeər/

DETERMINER

TO AVOID HIS/HERS

[B1] used to refer to what belongs to or relates to a person when you want to avoid saying 'his' or 'her' or when you do not know if the person is male or female

Dictionary examples:
One of the students has left their book behind.
So did this person give their name?

the last minute /ˌlɑːstˈmɪnɪt/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

[B2] the latest possible opportunity for doing something

Dictionary examples:
They only told me at the last minute that they couldn't come.
Why do you always leave everything till the last minute?

Learner example:
We were very disappointed to hear that the actor was replaced by [an]other at the last minute.

them /ðem/

PRONOUN

TO AVOID HIM/HER

[B1] used after a verb or preposition to refer to a person when you want to avoid saying 'him' or 'her' or when you do not know if the person is male or female
Dictionary example:
When each passenger arrives, we ask them to fill in a form.

theme /θiːm/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the subject of a talk, book, film, etc.

Dictionary example:
The theme of loss runs through most of his novels.

Learner example:
I think that the basic theme of the book is very original and the author has written lots of great novels.

the middle class /ˌmɪd.l̩ˈklɑːs/

NOUN (also the middle classes)
[C1] the social group consisting of well-educated people who have good jobs and are neither very rich nor very poor

Dictionary example:
These tax increases will affect the middle class badly.

Learner example:
They also show the efforts parents make to keep the family happy, especially when the middle class in Argentina started to struggle after the economic crisis in 2001.

themselves /ðəmˈselvz/

PRONOUN

EMPHASIS
[B2] used to emphasize the pronoun 'they' or the particular group of people you are referring to

Dictionary examples:
The staff themselves were unhappy with the decision.
They themselves had no knowledge of what was happening.

Learner example:
Many times they think they themselves [have taken] part in a car race.
then /ðɛn/

ADVERB

IN ADDITION

[B2] used in order to add something to what you have just said

Dictionary examples:
I've got two essays to write and then my science project to finish.
This is the standard model, then there's the luxury version which costs more.

now and then

[B2] If something happens now and then, it happens sometimes but not very often.

Dictionary example:
I love chocolate, but I only eat it now and then.

Learner example:
If you really love to have a snack now and then, try to eat fruit and vegetables, instead of sweets.

every now and then

[C1] sometimes, but not often

Dictionary example:
We still meet up every now and then.

Learner example:
Each day choose 10 new words and learn them by heart. In a week you will have learned 70 new words, and in a year 3640, a lot of words. Please, do not forget to repeat them every now and then.

theoretical /θɪəˈret.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: theory
Adjectives: theoretical
Adverbs: theoretically

ADJECTIVE

NOT PROVED

[C2] based on ideas rather than practical experience

Dictionary example:
This explanation is entirely theoretical.

Learner example:
And while we are lucky enough to be discussing this on a theoretical level, it is good to remember that for some people in the world, the lack of money leads to death on a daily basis.
IDEAS

[C2] based on the ideas that relate to a subject, not the practical uses of that subject

Dictionary example: theoretical physics

Learner example:
Prof. Haken is the renowned head of one of the institutes of theoretical physics at the University of Stuttgart.

theoretically /θɪəˈret.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: theory
Adjectives: theoretical Adverbs: theoretically

ADVERB

[C2] in a way that obeys some rules but is not likely

Dictionary example:
It is theoretically possible.

Learner example:
Already now the problem of hunger and starvation seems immense, though – theoretically – the earthly supplies of food are sufficient to feed the approximately 8,000,000,000 people who live on this planet.

theory /ˈθɪə.ri/

Word family:
Nouns: theory
Adjectives: theoretical Adverbs: theoretically

NOUN

IDEA

[B2] [c] an idea or set of ideas that is intended to explain something

Dictionary examples:
Darwin’s theory of evolution
He has a theory that the hole was caused by a meteorite.

Learner example:
During his full time schedule, he worked [o]n his project about "relative theory".
in theory

[B2] If something is possible in theory, it should be possible, but often it does not happen in that way.

Dictionary example:
In theory, the journey ought to take three hours, but in practice it usually takes four because of roadworks.

Learner example:
To sum up, in theory you can find a lot of solutions [to] this problem, but in practice, actually some people who hunt without permission [aren't] punished.

PRINCIPLES

[C2] [u] the set of principles on which a subject is based

Dictionary example:
economic theory

Learner example:
Only after a few decades of further research did it become clear how many possible applications game theory actually has.

---

therapeutic /θəˈrəpjʊtɪk/

Word family:
-Nouns: therapy, therapist
-Adjectives: therapeutic

ADJECTIVE

HEALTH

[C1] helping to cure a disease or improve your health

Dictionary example:
the therapeutic benefits of massage

Learner example:
The drink produced, tsikondia, is one of the necessary drinks for the cold nights of winter. It is also believed to have therapeutic effects on people’s health.

RELAXED

[C1] helping you to feel happier and more relaxed

Dictionary example:
I find gardening very therapeutic.

Learner example:
Some people consider shopping therapeutic, much like a hobby.
therapist /ˈθer.a.pɪst/

Word family:
Nouns: therapy, therapist
Adjectives: therapeutic

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone whose job is to treat a particular type of mental or physical illness

Dictionary example:
a speech therapist

Learner example:
Teams [for athletes or swimmers] are built of: coach, physiologist, diet therapist, physiotherapist, doctor and massage therapist.

therapy /ˈθer.a.pi/

Word family:
Nouns: therapy, therapist
Adjectives: therapeutic

NOUN [c or u]
[B2] the work of treating mental or physical illness without using an operation

Dictionary examples:
speech therapy group therapy

Learner example:
In another way, I can say that books [are] the best stress management therapy; they are easy to carry wherever you go.

there /ðeər/

ADVERB

POINT
[B2] at a particular point in a process or activity

Dictionary examples:
Do you want to play another game or do you want to stop there?
I'll have to stop you there, we've run out of time.
Keep on trying – you'll get there in the end.

Learner example:
My misfortunes don't stop there.
here and there
[B2] in several different places but without any pattern

Dictionary example:
Tall trees were growing here and there.

Learner example:
In the cinemas there were a few broken seats here and there.

thereafter /ˌðeəˈraːf.tə/

ADVERB FORMAL
[C2] after a particular amount, time, or event

Dictionary example:
Faxes cost £1.10p for the first page, and 70p for each page thereafter.

Learner example:
The unemployment rate thereafter started to rise yearly and reached its highest rate in March 1998 (approximately 5.5%).

thereby /ˌðeəˈbaɪ/

ADVERB FORMAL
[C1] as a result of a particular action or event

Dictionary example:
The new dam will improve the water supply and thereby reduce hunger and disease.

Learner example:
By interacting live with people from all over the world, you can use non-native languages on a daily basis and thereby help developing your foreign language skills.

therefore /ˈðeə.fɔː/thermometer /ˈθɜːrˌmɒm.ɪ.tə/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a piece of equipment that measures the temperature of air or of your body

Dictionary example:
Keep the thermometer under your tongue.

the seaside /ˈsiː.ʊsəd/

NOUN
[B1] an area or town next to the sea

Dictionary example:
We had a picnic at the seaside.

Learner example:
Near the seaside there are so many bars, where you can spend such a nice time.

the second person /ˌsek.əndˈpɜːrson/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] the form of a verb or pronoun that is used when referring to the person being spoken or written to

Dictionary example:
'You' is a second person pronoun.

thesis /ˈθiː.sɪs/ (PLURAL theses)

NOUN [c]

WRITING
[B2] a long piece of writing that you do as part of an advanced university course

Dictionary example:
a doctoral thesis

Learner example:
For me, this is an advantage because I need to have a lot of information for my doctoral thesis.

IDEA
[C2] FORMAL a theory that is suggested and can then be argued with or agreed with
Dictionary example:
That is the central thesis of the book.

Learner example:
This thesis applies not only to music but, in my opinion, also to many other walks of life.

the third person /ˌθɜːdˈpɜː.sən/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] the form of a verb or pronoun that is used when referring to the person or thing being spoken about or described

Dictionary example:
'She' is a third person pronoun.

the upper class /ˌʌp.əˈklɑːs/

NOUN (ALSO the upper classes)
[C1] the social group consisting of the people of the highest social class, who are usually rich

Dictionary example:
The upper class usually send their children to expensive private schools.

Learner example:
I've just chosen to travel south and back in time to be a Roman lady, belonging to the upper class of course, living an easy life full of pleasure.

the working class /ˌwɜː.kɪŋˈklɑːs/

NOUN (ALSO the working classes)
[C1] the social group consisting of people who do not get paid much money and who often do physical work

Dictionary example:
He sees the prime minister's comments as an attack on the working class.

Learner example:
A member of the working class, for example, was not expected to wear something smart, as he didn't represent the company.
they /ðeɪ/

PRONOUN

PERSON

[B1] used to refer to a person when you want to avoid saying 'he' or 'she' or when you do not know if the person is male or female

Dictionary example:
"There's someone on the phone for you." "What do they want?"

PEOPLE

[B2] people in general

Dictionary example:
They say that breaking a mirror brings you seven years' bad luck.

Learner example:
They say it is getting harder and harder to live without computers. But is it really true?

thick /θɪk/

ADJECTIVE

NOT THIN

[B1] Something that is thick is larger than usual between its opposite sides.

Dictionary examples:
a thick rope
a thick layer of dust
She picked up a thick volume and began to read out loud.
a thick sweater/coat
The walls are two metres thick.

Learner example:
I have to wear thick clothes.

CLOSE TOGETHER

[B1] growing close together and in large amounts

Dictionary examples: thick forest thick dark hair

Learner example:
I was looking [at] a land of moor, marsh, and thick forest.
SMOKE, ETC.
[B2] difficult to see through

Dictionary example:
Thick, black smoke was pouring out of the chimney.

Learner example:
We tried to walk [down] the stairs but the smoke was just getting thicker and thicker so we had to climb up on the roof.

NOUN

through thick and thin
[C2] If you support or stay with someone through thick and thin, you always support or stay with them in easy and difficult situations.

Dictionary example:
She'd stuck by Neil through thick and thin.

Learner example:
Fortunately Carol was strong enough to stand by him through thick and thin and made her dearest husband give up drinking.

ADVERB

thick and fast
[C2] quickly and in large numbers

Dictionary example:
Calls were coming in thick and fast by the end of the programme.

thief /θiːf/ (PLURAL thieves)

NOUN [c]
[B1] I someone who steals things

Dictionary examples:
a car thief
Thieves stole £120, 000 worth of computer equipment.

Learner example:
I watched three police officers trying to arrest the thieves but they fail[ed].

thigh /θaɪ/
Dictionary example:
My thighs were aching after the climb.

Learner example:
Cycling is – among other things – very healthy, the heart starts pumping blood, your lungs get exercised and of course, you get smashing, sexy thighs.

thin /θɪn/

ADJECTIVE (thinner, thinnest)

wear thin
[C2] If a feeling or explanation starts to wear thin, it becomes weaker or harder to accept.

Dictionary example:
I've warned you several times about being late and my patience is wearing thin.

Learner example:
Hardly could they fight against others, when their own convictions had started to wear thin.

vanish into thin air
[C2] to suddenly disappear in a mysterious way

Dictionary example:
He was walking ahead of me on the path and then he just vanished into thin air.

Learner example:
The fact is that vacations are not problem-solving, and whatever one wants to leave behind does not vanish into thin air, it just lurks in the corner of your mind until the returning date.

NOUN

through thick and thin
[C2] If you support or stay with someone through thick and thin, you always support or stay with them in easy and difficult situations.

Dictionary example:
She'd stuck by Neil through thick and thin.

Learner example:
Fortunately Carol was strong enough to stand by him through thick and thin and made her dearest husband give up drinking.
thing  /ˈθɪŋ/

NOUN

a thing
[B1] used instead of 'anything' in order to emphasize what you are saying

Dictionary examples:
I haven't got a thing to wear.
Don't worry about a thing. I'll take care of it.

Learner example:
We tried to fish, but didn't catch a thing, not even a shoe!

the same thing
[B1] the same

Dictionary example:
Training isn't the same thing as education.

Learner example:
I had lost my favourite watch. Now I have another watch but it isn't the same thing.

things
[B1] what is happening, especially in your life

Dictionary examples:
How are things with you?
Things have been going very well recently.

Learner example:
How are things in your part of the world? Things are fine with me.

things like that
[B1] similar objects, activities or events

Dictionary examples:
We eat a lot of Italian food – pizza, pasta, things like that.
I do a lot of football and running and things like that.

IDEA
[B2] [c] used to refer to an idea or comment

Dictionary example:
I can't believe he would say such a thing!

Learner example:
I got mad and said "How dare you say such a thing."

the whole thing
[B2] everything about a situation
Dictionary examples:
I just want to forget the whole thing.
The whole thing is ridiculous!

Learner example:
And, less than five minutes later, our mother knew the whole thing.

among other things
[B2] used to say that there are other details or examples in addition to the ones you are mentioning

Dictionary example:
It's worth visiting the museum while you're here. There's an exhibition about Darwin and a good collection of paintings, among other things.

Learner example:
To go by tram or bus is a waste of time and travelling by car is – among other things – a waste of money.

no such thing
[B2] used to emphasize that something does not exist

Dictionary example:
There's no such thing as ghosts!

Learner example:
But when I asked for these, I was told that no such thing existed and so the advertisement was once again proved wrong.

the thing is...
[B2] INFORMAL used to introduce an answer, comment or explanation

Dictionary examples:
I'd love to go out tonight, but the thing is, I've got to finish my report.
The funny/strange thing is that we'd actually met before.

Learner example:
The thing is that on July 23rd I had not found any outfit that suited me yet, which made me feel desperate.

it's a good thing
[B2] If it's a good thing that something happened, it is lucky or fortunate that it happened.

Dictionary example:
It's a good thing (that) we booked our tickets early.

Learner example:
I think it's a good thing that your parents [are going to] come, because [...] maybe it would make it easier for you to convince them to let you spend a week here during Xmas.
not a single thing
[B2] not anything

Dictionary example:
After the guests had gone, there wasn't a single thing left to eat.

Learner example:
I'm terribly sorry, but I hit it with my hand while trying to turn on the light: I wasn't able to see a single thing because it was pitch-dark all around.

the main thing
[B2] the most important fact in a situation

Dictionary example:
You're happy and that's the main thing.

Learner example:
The main thing is to be happy and to love yourself.

PERSON/ANIMAL
[B2] [c] used to refer to a person or animal when you are expressing your feelings towards them

Dictionary examples:
You look tired, you poor thing.
He's spending three months in Barbados, lucky thing!

Learner example:
When I go to the zoo I like to see them close by me, [and] look at them carefully; but at the same time I say: "Poor thing, I wouldn't like to be one of them."

all things considered
[C1] used for saying that something is true in general if you think about all its aspects

Dictionary example:
The show was a great success, all things considered.

Learner example:
All things considered, it seems like "Kavanagh Catering Services" would be most suitable for the students.

the next best thing
[C1] the thing that is best, if you cannot have or do the thing you really want

Dictionary example:
Coaching football is the next best thing to playing.

Learner example:
For many working people, there is hardly time to cook and prepare your dinner, so the next best thing is to rush into a Macdonalds' or Burger King.
a sure thing
[C1] something that is certain to happen

Dictionary example:
Death is the one sure thing about life.

Learner example:
There is only one sure thing, we are not able to even imagine what we will be able to do in the future to get communicated.

do your own thing
[C2] to live, act or behave in the way you want to, without depending on other people

Dictionary example:
While he was away travelling, he pretty much did his own thing.

Learner example:
Their attitude only stimulated me to do "my own thing".

for one thing
[C2] used to give a reason for something

Dictionary example:
You can’t give Amy that shirt – for one thing it’s too small for her.

Learner example:
Well, for one thing, you cannot spy on your subjects 24 hours a day – they would not allow it, and it would be prohibitively expensive.

the next thing I knew
[C2] used to talk about part of a story that happens in a sudden and surprising way

Dictionary example:
A car came speeding round the corner, and the next thing I knew I was lying on the ground.

Learner example:
And the next thing I knew was that I was playing cards with 3 men.

think  /θɪŋk/

Word family:
Nouns: thinker
Verbs: think, rethink
Adjectives: unthinkable

VERB (thought, thought)

USE BRAIN
[B1] [i] to use the brain to plan something, understand a situation, etc.
Dictionary examples:
He thought for a few seconds before answering.
You should think about where you want to live.
I'm so sorry I upset you – I just wasn't thinking.

Learner example:
I thought for a few days and finally decided to buy "Titanic".

think of sth

[B1] to use your imagination and intelligence to produce an idea, a solution to a problem, or an answer to a question

Dictionary examples:
When did you first think of the idea?
I need to think of a suitable way to fix the door.

Learner example:
Suddenly I thought of a simple way to get money from him.

REMEMBER

[B1] [i] to remember someone or something

Dictionary examples:
I was just thinking about you when you phoned.
I often think of our time in Egypt.

Learner example:
I often think of them. I miss them so much.

CONSIDER PEOPLE

[B2] [i] to consider a person’s needs or wishes

Dictionary example:
She's always thinking of others.

Learner example:
If you don't think of your family and private life, at least think of your health.

not think straight

[C1] If you cannot think straight, you are not thinking clearly about something.

Dictionary example:
I was so tired, I couldn't think straight.

Learner example:
My stress wouldn't let me think straight.

think of sb/th as sth

[C1] to have a particular opinion about someone or something

Dictionary example:
They were thought of as slightly eccentric.
Learner example:
Today's youth is thought of as lazy "couch potatoes" and unhealthy "computer-freaks", but this is only true for the minority of young people.

think twice
[C1] to carefully consider whether what you are planning is a good idea

Dictionary example:
I'd think twice about spending so much money on one thing, if I were you.

Learner example:
Now I will think twice before I buy your paper again.

not think twice
[C1] to do something immediately, without considering whether it is a good idea

Dictionary example:
When he asked me out, I didn't think twice!

Learner example:
Your advertisement seemed very convincing and as I intended to travel to exotic locations I did not think twice.

not think much of sb/sth
[C2] to not like someone, or to believe that something is not good quality

Dictionary example:
I don't think much of the food here.

Learner example:
When they met for the first time, they did not think much of each other.

Who would have thought...?
[C2] used to express how surprising something is

Dictionary example:
Who would have thought that buying a house could take so long!

Learner example:
Who would have thought that instead of getting square-eyed from watching too much TV, Malcolm was getting sore-eyed from spending too much time scribbling in his leat[h]er-bound diary late at night?

think highly/a lot of sb/sth
[C2] to admire someone, or to believe that something is good quality

Dictionary example:
Simon thinks a lot of you, you know.

Learner example:
He was well known all over the world and even critics thought highly of him.
come to think of it
[C2] used to say that you have just thought of something

Dictionary example:
Come to think of it, I've got two batteries that you can have upstairs.

Learner example:
Come to think of it, it really is quite difficult to say.

I dread to think
[C2] used to say that you do not want to think about something because it is too worrying

Dictionary example:
I dread to think what could have happened if we hadn't been wearing seat belts.

Learner example:
I dread to think what has happened to it since the day my younger brother left it in a park.

thinker /ˈθɪŋ.kə/

Word family:
Nouns: thinker
Verbs: think, rethink Adjectives: unthinkable

noun [c]

[C2] someone who considers important subjects or produces new ideas

Dictionary example:
a political/religious thinker

Learner example:
Isaiah Berlin is one of the most important political thinker[s] of the last century, whose influence on students, politicians and even the greater public is often underestimated.

third /θɜːd/

noun [c]

[B2] one of three equal parts of something

Dictionary example:
He cut the cake into thirds.

Learner example:
Two thirds said we should film [the students] playing football.
thirst /θɜːst/

Word family:
Nouns: thirst
Adjectives: thirsty

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]

WANTING DRINK
[B2] the feeling that you want or need to drink something

Dictionary example:
We were all suffering from thirst.

Learner example:
Many animals died of hunger and thirst.

a thirst for *sth
[C2] a strong wish for something

Dictionary example:
a thirst for adventure

Learner example:
At that time we were not old enough yet to appreciate this, but today I am very thankful because due to my parents, I've developed a thirst for knowledge that will never be satisfied.

thirty /ˈθɜː.ti/

NUMBER

(be) in your thirties
[B2] to be aged between 30 and 39

Dictionary example:
More women are having their first child in their thirties.

Learner example:
He was in his thirties and really handsome.

the thirties
[B2] the years from 1930–1939

Dictionary example:
They moved to Paris in the thirties.

Learner example:
In the beginning of the thirties in [the] USA the film industry [grew].
this /dɪs/

PRONOUN

this and that

[C2] different things which are not very important

Dictionary example:
"What are you doing today?" "Oh, just this and that."

Learner example:
He used to call his friends daily, chat about this and that, release the tension through silly jokes, even go out with them once in a while.

ADVERB

[C1] used when describing the size, amount, or state of something or someone

Dictionary examples:
It was only about this high off the ground.
She has never been this late for school before.

thorough /ˈθɜːr.ə/

Word family:
Adjectives: thorough
Adverbs: thoroughly

ADJECTIVE

[B2] careful and including every detail

Dictionary examples:
a thorough revision of the manuscript
They did a thorough search of the area but found nothing.

Learner example:
People believe that school aims to give pupils a thorough education in each subject, in order to enable them to deal with various kinds of situations.

thoroughly /ˈθɜːr.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: thorough
Adverbs: thoroughly
ADVERB

VERY MUCH
[B2] completely, very much

Dictionary example:
I thoroughly enjoyed the performance.

Learner example:
I thoroughly enjoyed reading "Animal Farm" because it is a satire based on the Russian Revolution.

CAREFULLY
[B2] very carefully

Dictionary example:
Wash the spinach thoroughly before cooking.

Learner example:
The murder had been thoroughly planned.

those /ðəʊz/

DETERMINER; PRONOUN

those who/which/that [B2] the people or things that

Dictionary examples:
Those who wish to leave may do so now.
Most of the plates are clean. Those that aren't should be put in the dishwasher.

Learner example:
Lately, it has been discussed whether students must study all the subjects or only those which they prefer.

though /ðəʊ/

CONJUNCTION

DESPITE
[B1] despite the fact that

Dictionary examples:
She hasn't phoned, though she said she would.
Though she's 38, she's still playing tennis at the highest level.
Learner example:
Today the sun is shining and it's quite hot, though it's [only] 9 o'clock in the morning.

even though [B2] although

Dictionary examples:
Even though it was getting dark, we decided to walk on to the next village.
He still smokes even though he's got asthma.

Learner example:
They didn't give up hope even though they were tired and wet to the bone.

as though [B2] used to describe how a situation seems to be

Dictionary example:
It looks as though they're not going.

Learner example:
Sometimes it almost looks as though they are crying.

BUT [B2] but

Dictionary example:
They're coming next week, though I don't know which day.

Learner example:
I can read and understand French, though I don't speak [it] very well.

ADVERB
[B2] used especially at the end of a sentence, to add a fact or opinion to what you have just said

Dictionary example:
Okay, I'll come to the party. I'm not staying late though.

Learner example:
It would be fun to work with you. There are a few things we should think about though.

thought /θɔːt/

Word family:
Nouns: thought
Adjectives: thoughtful, thoughtless Adverbs: thoughtfully
NOUN

IDEA
[B1] [c] an idea or opinion or an image that comes into your mind

Dictionary examples:
Do you have any thoughts about/on where you want to spend Christmas?
The thought of seeing her again filled him with happiness.
If you could let me have your thoughts on that report by Friday, I'd be grateful.

Learner example:
Her thoughts were interrupted by Ben, who asked if she wanted to go for a walk with him.

THINKING
[B2] [u] the activity of thinking, or when you think about something carefully

Dictionary examples:
She sat staring at the picture, deep in thought.
You'll need to give the matter some thought.

Learner example:
I am concerned so please give it some thought.

CARE
[C2] [NO PLURAL] when you do something that shows you care about someone

Dictionary example:
Thanks for the card – it was a really kind thought.

Learner example:
She could go to the theatre and to the cinema every weekend, she went for marvellous holidays in the most exotic places, and the greeting cards she sent made our woman more and more angry, rather than thankful for the kind thought.

spare a thought for sb
[C2] to think about someone who is in a bad situation

Dictionary example:
Spare a thought for all the people who have lost their homes.

Learner example:
At this point, we should spare a thought for those who are not involved in the sport world.

train of thought
[C2] a series of connected thoughts or ideas which come or happen one after the other

Dictionary example:
I was interrupted and lost my train of thought.
Learner example:
Stevens's ideas on dignity become very clear if we follow his train of thought through the book and if we examine closely the events which encourage him into further discussion of this issue.

thoughtful /ˈθɔːt.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: thought
Adjectives: thoughtful, thoughtless Adverbs: thoughtfully

ADJECTIVE

KIND
[B2] kind and always thinking about how you can help other people

Dictionary examples:
Thank you for phoning when I was ill – it was very thoughtful of you.
She's a very thoughtful person.

Learner example:
It was so thoughtful to think of me and send this letter.

CAREFULLY CONSIDERING
[C1] carefully considering things

Dictionary example:
He has a thoughtful approach to his work.

Learner example:
So we have less time to prepare breakfast, lunch or dinner in a more "thoughtful" manner.

QUIET
[C2] quiet because you are thinking about something

Dictionary example:
You look thoughtful.

thoughtfully /ˈθɔː.t.ə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: thought
Adjectives: thoughtful, thoughtless Adverbs: thoughtfully

ADVERB
[C2] in a thoughtful way
Dictionary examples:
He gazed thoughtfully into the distance.
There were sandwiches, thoughtfully provided by his wife.

Learner example:
She set it beside her husband's picture and looked at it thoughtfully.

thoughtless /ˈθɔːt.ləs/

Word family:
Nouns: thought
Adjectives: thoughtful, thoughtless Adverbs: thoughtfully

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not considering how your actions and words might upset someone else

Dictionary example:
I should have called her to say we'd be late – it was a bit thoughtless of me.

Learner example:
My impulsive nature causes me to act hastily quite often, so I frequently repeat myself because of some bitchy, thoughtless remark I have made.

thousand /ˈθaʊ.zənd/(PLURAL thousand or thousands) thousands

NUMBER

[B2] INFORMAL a lot

Dictionary example:
She tried on thousands of dresses but didn't like any of them thread /θred/

NOUN

MATERIAL
[C2] [c or u] a long, thin piece of cotton, wool, etc. that is used for sewing

Dictionary example:
a needle and thread
CONNECTION
[C2] [c] the connection between different events or different parts of a story or discussion

Dictionary example:
By that point I'd lost the thread of the conversation.

Learner example:
The antagonism between Jack and Ralph, who can be regarded as the novel's main characters, forms – in my view – the real thread of the narrative.

INTERNET
[C2] a group of pieces of writing on the Internet in which people discuss one subject

Dictionary example:
I read the thread about older mothers.

VERB [T]

thread a needle
[C2] to push thread through the hole in a needle

Dictionary example:
Could you thread this needle for me, please?

thread your way through/between, etc.
[C2] to move carefully through a crowded place, changing direction in order to avoid people or things

Dictionary example:
She threaded her way through the crowd.

Learner example:
And if I thread my way through the crowd along the street, I can find almost all things I want to buy, from inexpensive souvenirs to internationally known brands of suits.

threat /θret/

Word family:
Nouns: threat
Verbs: threaten

NOUN

DAMAGE
[B2] [c] someone or something that could cause harm or damage
Dictionary examples:
a threat to the environment
Smoking poses a serious threat to your health.

Learner example:
That is the only way to protect human life from this serious threat.

THING SAID

[B2] [c] when someone says they will kill or hurt you, or cause problems for you if you do not do what they want

Dictionary examples:
a death threat
I was scared he would carry out his threat.

Learner example:
Since then we have been receiving threats.

POSSIBILITY

[C2] [no plural] the possibility that something bad will happen

Dictionary example:
the threat of invasion

Learner example:
The threat of nuclear weapons has since grown into a constant condition.

threaten /ˈθret.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: threat
Verbs: threaten

VERB

HARM

[B2] [v] to tell someone that you will kill or hurt them, or cause problems for them if they do not do what you want

Dictionary examples:
He threatened the staff with a gun and demanded money.
He threatened to report her to the police.

Learner example:
The others joined us, and they began to threaten us with their knives.

DAMAGE

[C1] [v] to be likely to cause harm or damage to something or someone
Dictionary example:
His knee problem is threatening his cycling career.

Learner example:
In addition to air pollution, more noise will take place and as a result, our city residents’ health will be threatened.

HAPPEN
[C2] [I] If something bad threatens to happen, it is likely to happen.

Dictionary example:
The conflict threatened to spread to neighbouring countries.

Learner example:
However, this ongoing technological progress became questionable when the atomic bomb threatened to wipe humanity off the face of the earth.

threshold /ˈθreʃ.həʊld/

NOUN

LEVEL
[C2] [C] the level at which something starts to happen

Dictionary example:
He had a low boredom threshold.

Learner example:
That night...that night – yet another one spent together online turned [out] to be the final threshold.

on the threshold of sth
[C2] at the start of a new and important time or development

Dictionary example:
We’re on the threshold of a new era in European relations.

Learner example:
On the threshold of the third millen[n]ium, there is no stopping progress.

thrill /θrɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: thriller, thrill
Verbs: thrill
Adjectives: thrilled, thrilling
NOUN [C]

[C1] a strong feeling of excitement and pleasure

Dictionary examples:
- It was a big thrill meeting the stars of the show.
- the thrill of winning a competition

Learner example:
SURFING Riding the waves can be the thrill of a lifetime.

VERB [T]

[C2] to make someone feel excited and happy

Dictionary example:
Ballesteros thrilled the golf world with his exceptional skill.

Learner example:
The creative process is what thrills me.

thrilled  /θrɪld/

Word family:
- Nouns: thriller, thrill
- Verbs: thrill
- Adjectives: thrilled, thrilling

ADJECTIVE

[B2] very excited and pleased

Dictionary example:
She was thrilled with your present.

Learner example:
I’m thrilled with the idea of working with you.

thriller  /ˈθrɪlə/
Learner example:
I'm reading the thriller [by] Dan Brown: "Angeli e Demoni", it's wonderful.

thrilling /ˈθrɪl.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: thriller, thrill
Verbs: thrill
Adjectives: thrilled, thrilling

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very exciting

Dictionary example:
a thrilling game

Learner example:
What has made me hesitate to join a diving club is that deep water really scares me, [but] at the same time I feel excited by the thrilling feeling.

thrive /θraɪv/

Word family:
Verbs: thrive
Adjectives: thriving

VERB [i]
[C1] to grow very well, or to become very healthy or successful

Dictionary examples:
The business is thriving.
He seems to thrive on hard work.

Learner example:
She seems to thrive on criticism and wants to get better at everything she does.

thriving /ˈθraɪ.vɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: thrive
Adjectives: thriving

ADJECTIVE
[C2] growing very well or becoming very healthy or successful
Dictionary example:
They have a thriving economy.

Learner example:
In a thriving city such as London, there were loads of things she could do.

throat /θrəʊt/
NOUN [C]
[B1] the front of the neck, or the space inside the neck down which food and air can go Dictionary examples:
a sore throat
A fish bone got stuck in my throat.
He cleared his throat and started speaking.
Learner example:
I ca[ught] a cold and I have a sore throat too, so I can't talk properly.

bring a lump to your throat
[C2] to make you feel such strong emotion that you want to cry
Dictionary example:
It was a very moving speech, and it brought a lump to my throat.
Learner example:
This devastating image brought a lump to John’s throat.

throne /θraʊn/
NOUN [C]
FOR KING/QUEEN
[C2] the special chair used by a ruler, especially a king or queen
Dictionary example:
He sat on a throne made of gold.
Learner example:
Some of them were mummified and other[s] were sitting on their thrones in some ancient wall-drawings.

the throne
[C2] the position of being king or queen

3063
Dictionary examples:
Elizabeth II ascended/came to the throne when her father died.
Queen Victoria was on the throne at that time.
Charles is next in line to the throne.

Learner example:
King Henry at the time of the play is a young vigorous man who needs to have a male heir to the throne of England.

through /θruː/

PREPOSITION

START TO END

[B1] from the start to the end of something

Dictionary examples:
He worked through the night.
The phone rang halfway through the programme.

Learner example:
It begins in the evening and goes through the night, because it's a very long play.

BECAUSE OF

[B1] because of someone or something, or with someone's help

Dictionary examples:
I got the job through a friend of my mum's.
He became ill through eating undercooked meat.

Learner example:
I knew her through my husband, she is my husband's friend's wife.

ADVERB

[B1] from one end or side to another

Dictionary examples:
He opened the door and walked through.
The needle just wouldn't go through.

Learner example:
A few bombs crashed close to the car but we managed to get through.

ADJECTIVE

[C1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] A through train goes all the way from one place to another place without the passenger having to change trains.

Dictionary example:
We caught the through train to Manchester.
Learner example:
Then go to the information desk and ask about the time of departure of through trains to Lodz.

throughout  /θruːˈaʊt/

PREPOSITION

WHOLE TIME

[B2] during the whole of a period of time

Dictionary example:
He yawned throughout the performance.

Learner example:
This teahouse is packed throughout [the] day with workers and retired people, who come to sip tea, talk, and watch the endless stream of passers-by in the old city of China.

EVERYWHERE

[C1] in every part of a place

Dictionary example:
The same laws apply throughout much of Europe.

Learner example:
Being the owner of [a] driving licence has become a dream [for the] majority of young, middle-aged or even elderly people throughout the world.

ADVERB

[C1] in every part of a place or during the whole of a period of time

Dictionary example:
The house was painted pink throughout.

Learner example:
Children's stories, however, were one of the most successful parts of the Activity Day and all of the spectators were on the edge of their seats throughout.

throw  /θrəʊ/

VERB [I or T] (threw, thrown) throw sth in/on, etc.

[C1] to put something somewhere quickly and without thinking about it

Dictionary example:
He threw his clothes on the floor and got into bed.
Learner example:
Also we apologise [profuse]ly about the rubbish they throw on the streets.

throw sth around/down/on, etc.
[C2] to suddenly and quickly move your body or a part of your body

Dictionary examples:
She threw her arms around the child.
Gabriela threw herself onto the bed and started to cry.

Learner example:
Emily threw herself into the arms of Jack.

throw caution to the wind
[C2] to take a risk

Dictionary example:
I decided to throw caution to the wind and book a ticket to India.

Learner example:
They just threw caution to the wind, and did what they wanted.

throw sb in at the deep end
[C2] to make someone start a new and difficult job or activity without helping them or preparing them for it

Dictionary example:
My first job was to organise a huge conference – they really threw me in at the deep end!

Learner example:
Sometimes we can be thrown in at the deep end and have qualms about making a decision.

a stone's throw
[C2] a very short distance

Dictionary example:
The cottage is just a stone’s throw from the sea.

Learner example:
I’m now living in Clapham, just a stone's throw away from the common, in an awesome bachelor’s pad.

throw in the towel
[C2] to stop trying to do something because you do not think you can succeed

Dictionary example:
Their candidate should just throw in the towel and admit defeat.

Learner example:
You have to possess tenacity: never throw in the towel.
thumb /θʌm/

NOUN [c]
[B1] the short thick finger on the side of your hand which makes it possible to hold and pick things up easily

Dictionary example:
She still sucks her thumb.

Learner example:
After, we lit the candles, took our seats round the table, put all [our] hands in front of us above the table and joined thumbs and little fingers to make a circle.

a rule of thumb
[C1] a way of calculating something, which is not exact but which will help you to be correct enough

Dictionary example:
As a rule of thumb, you need one egg for every 125g flour.

Learner example:
As a rule of thumb, one third of the people working in central Copenhagen [go] by car, one third by public transport, and one third by bike.

thunder /ˈθʌn.dər/

NOUN [u]
[B1] the loud noise in the sky that you hear during a storm

Dictionary example:
thunder and lightning

Learner example:
They said something about thunder and rain.

a clap of thunder
[C2] a sudden, loud sound that is made by thunder

Dictionary example:
We heard a clap of thunder.

Learner example:
Suddenly, I heard a loud clap of thunder.
thus /ðʌs/ FORMAL

ADVERB

[B2] used after saying a fact to introduce what then happened as a result

Dictionary example:
They planned to reduce staff and thus to cut costs.

Learner example:
As a result of the density, the atmosphere in the halls also became hot and humid, thus making the whole experience rather unpleasant.

tick /tɪk/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a mark that shows that something is correct or has been done

Dictionary example:
Put a tick by/against the names of the people who have accepted the invitation.

VERB

[B1] [ɪ] to make a mark that shows something is correct or has been done

Dictionary example:
Tick the words you hear in the recording.

CLOCK

[C2] [ɪ] If a clock or watch ticks, it makes a sound every second.

Dictionary example:
The clock ticked loudly.

Learner example:
In the silence he could hear that the heating system was on and the grandfather clock was ticking, punctuating the minutes that passed.

tide /taɪd/

NOUN [C]

[B2] the regular rise and fall in the level of the sea

Dictionary examples:
high/low tide
The tide is out/in.
Learner example:
We visited a marvellous old fishermen's village, that is isolated from the rest of the island during high tide.

tidy /ˈtaɪ.di/

Word family:
Verbs: tidy
Adjectives: tidy, untidy

VERB [T]

tidy up (sth) or tidy (sth) up PHRASAL VERB
[B1] to make a place or a collection of things tidy

Dictionary examples:
Could you tidy up your toys, please?
I was just tidying up in the sitting room.

Learner example:
I can't believe they broke up – just yesterday I was tidying up my room when I cam[e] across the photos of our last holiday in Spain, where we were together with Peter and Veronika.

tie /taɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: tie
Verbs: tie, untie

VERB (tying, tied, tied)

FASTEN
[B1] [I or T] to fasten something with string, rope, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The dog was tied to a tree.
This skirt ties at the waist.
She tied the ribbon tightly in a bow/knot.
I tie my hair back when it’s hot.

Learner example:
But I knew and felt that my knif[e] was still tied to my leg.

MAKE A KNOT
[B1] [T] to make a knot in a piece of string, rope, etc.
Dictionary examples:
She tied the scarf.
Could you tie this piece of string for me?
Tie (up) your shoelaces, or you'll trip over.

Learner example:
While Jane was tying the lace, she convinced herself that it was just her imagination.

COMPETITION/GAME
[C2] [I] to have the same score as someone else at the end of a competition or game

Dictionary example:
Sweden tied with France in the winter sports competition.

tie the knot
[C2] [INFORMAL] to get married

Dictionary example:
We're planning to tie the knot in April.

Learner example:
She was going to tie the knot in July.

NOUN [C]

ties
[C2] relationships that connect you with a place, person, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Family ties are weaker if you move a long way away.
I no longer feel any ties with my home town.
He urged governments worldwide to break diplomatic ties with the new regime.

Learner example:
I come from a Greek background, where bonds and ties with one's family are highly valued and respected.

tiger /ˈtaɪ.gə/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a large wild cat that has yellow fur with black lines on it

Dictionary example:
The zoo has several tigers.

Learner example:
We saw elephants, tigers, snakes, [and] monkeys.
tight  /tart/

Word family:
Verbs: tighten
Adjectives: tight
Adverbs: tight, tightly

ADJECTIVE

CLOTHES
[B1] fitting your body very closely

Dictionary example:
a tight skirt

Learner example:
I hate tight trousers.

FIRM
[B2] firm and difficult to move

Dictionary examples:
Make sure the knot is tight.
I kept a tight grip on his arm.

Learner example:
You should always wear a tight seatbelt because it could save your life.

CONTROLLED
[B2] controlled and obeying all rules completely

Dictionary examples:
tight security
The school kept tight control of its policy on school uniform.

Learner example:
The building is huge with high technology and construction and has tight security.

NOT MUCH
[B2] If money, time, or space is tight, there is only just enough of it.

Dictionary examples:
This holiday destination is good for people on a tight budget.
We should get six people into the car but it will be tight.

Learner example:
Finally, as I am a student on a very tight budget, I would prefer a cheap B&B, or a family.

STRAIGHT
[C2] If cloth, wire, skin, etc. is tight, it has been pulled so that it is straight or smooth.
Dictionary example:
Make sure the wire is tight.

a tight corner
[C2] a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
She had been in a tight corner before and had always managed to cope.

Learner example:
It is a great pressure, requiring a lot of effort and sense of humour but does work in most cases, helping to find the best way out of a tight corner.

ADVERB
[B2] very firmly or closely

Dictionary examples:
Hold on tight!
His eyes were shut tight.

Learner example:
He held her tight and kissed her.

STRAIGHT
[C2] so that something is pulled to be straight or smooth

Dictionary example:
The plastic cover was stretched tight across the tank.

tighten /ˈtaɪ.tən/

Word family:
Verbs: tighten
Adjectives: tight
Adverbs: tight, tightly

VERB [I or T]
[B2] to become tighter or to make something become tighter

Dictionary examples:
His hand tightened around her arm.
Tighten the straps so they don't rub.
As he struggled, the ropes tightened even more.
We tightened up all the screws.

Learner example:
They simply filled the bathtub with ice cold water and tightened the belts.

tighten your belt
[C2] to try to spend less money
Dictionary example:
Since I lost my job we've all had to tighten our belts.

Learner example:
All this costs money and where do we get this extra money from but from the tax payers, who once again have to tighten their belts.

tightly /ˈtaɪt.li/

Word family:
Verbs: tighten
Adjectives: tight
Adverbs: tight, tightly

ADVERB
[B2] firmly or closely

Dictionary examples:
I gripped the telephone tightly.
She hugged me tightly.

Learner example:
She did not want to be eaten, and held her son tightly to her breast.

till /tɪl/

CONJUNCTION [B1] until

Dictionary example:
How long is it till your baby is due?

Learner example:
Everything seemed normal till I arrived in Berlin.

timber /ˈtɪmbər/

NOUN

WOOD FOR BUILDING
[C2] [u] wood used for building or trees that are grown to provide this wood

Dictionary examples:
a timber merchant
These trees are being grown for timber.
Learner example:
At this point many reasons can be raised. [...] The unscrupulous timber exploitation which destroys animals' natural shelters; and last but not least the illegal hunting which has led to the extinction of many animals.

PIECE OF WOOD
[C2] [c] a long piece of wood used for building, especially houses and ships

Dictionary examples: roof timbers
a timber-framed building

Learner example:
The old timber house looks almost like it is about to fall apart from the outside but that impression changes quickly once you get inside.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>time</th>
<th>/tərm/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: time, timing
Verbs: time

NOUN

WHEN SOMETHING HAPPENS
[B1] [U NO PLURAL] a particular point of the day, week, month, year, etc. that is suitable for a particular activity, or at which something is expected to happen

Dictionary examples:
holiday time party time
When would be a good time for me to call you?

it's time
[B1] used to say that something should happen or be done now

Dictionary examples:
It's time I was leaving.
Is it time to go home yet?

Learner example:
My father called me on the phone and told me it was time to go home!

AVAILABLE OR NEEDED
[B1] [u] a number of minutes, hours, days, etc. that is available for something or that is needed for something

3074
Dictionary examples:
If I have time, I'll call Sam.
Have you got time for a quick drink after work?
I'd like to learn to sail, but I haven't the time.
I haven't got time to go to the shops today.
She ran out of time and didn't finish the last question.

Learner example:
If you'll have time you can visit the other towns like Cosly' Krumlov or Pisek.

in time
[B1] early or at the right time

Dictionary example:
We arrived in time to catch the train.

Learner example:
If I [don't] come back in time, you can put [a] note on my desk.

on time
[B1] not early or late

Dictionary example:
I got to school on time.

Learner example:
So, I will not be on time for my English class tomorrow.

at the same time
[B1] If two things happen at the same time, they happen together.

Dictionary example:
We arrived at the same time.

Learner example:
The kind of clothes I most like [are] casual but fashionable at the same time.

three/eight/nine, etc. times
[B1] used to say how much bigger, better, worse, etc. one thing is than another thing

Dictionary examples:
Ben earns three times more than me.
He gets paid nearly three times as much as me.

Learner example:
[In my opinion, you must visit the cities, [which are] three times better than the countryside.

in a day's/two months', etc. time
[B1] a week, two months, etc. from now

Dictionary example:
I have to go to the doctor again in a month's time.
Learner example:
We are back in 2 weeks' time.

once upon a time
[B1] used at the beginning of a story to mean a long time ago

Dictionary example:
Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess.

Learner example:
Once upon a time there was a very poor family.

HISTORICAL PERIOD
[B2] [c] a period in history

Dictionary examples:
Charles Dickens' novel "A Tale of Two Cities" is set at the time of the French Revolution.
In/During medieval times, women thought to be witches were burnt at the stake.
In times gone by, all crops were harvested by hand.
He is widely regarded as one of the best writers of modern/our times.
We sat and talked about old times.

Learner example:
It was so nice to see all members of the family and have [the] opportunity to talk about old times, as well [as] old friends.

from time to time
[B2] sometimes but not often

Dictionary example:
From time to time I still think of her.

Learner example:
I wash the dishes from time to time (I sometimes try to avoid this unpleasant duty) and clean our house.

for some time
[B2] for a long period of time

Dictionary example:
I've been doing yoga for some time.

Learner example:
I have been observing you for some time and it's now quite clear to me that you have been working too hard since you changed your job.

for the time being [C1] for now but not permanently

Dictionary examples:
I'm living with my parents for the time being.
Leave the ironing for the time being – I'll do it later.
Learner example:
I think that is all for the time being.

about/high time INFORMAL
[C1] If it is about time that someone did something, it should have been done sooner or a long time ago.

Dictionary examples:
It's about time (that) the school improved its meals service.
It is high time for Europe to take responsibility for its own defence.

Learner example:
It's high time [we tried] to stop all the troubles which are around us.

IN A PLACE
[C1] [u] the time in a particular place

Dictionary example:
The plane arrives at 20.50, New York time.

Learner example:
My phon[e] number at work is 66291 and at home (after 16.30 local time), 84796.

at times
[C1] sometimes

Dictionary example:
At times, I wish I didn't have to go to school.

Learner example:
STUDYING METHODS All teachers at the college are high[ly]-skilled professionals and can be very demanding at times, but this is [in] your best interest[s].

make time
[C1] to leave enough time to do something although you are busy

Dictionary examples:
You have to make time to do your homework.
He never made enough time for family life.

Learner example:
I'm terribly sorry for not being able to make time to pick you up when you arrive.

take your time
[C1] to do something without hurrying

Dictionary example:
Take your time choosing – there's no hurry.

Learner example:
If you're going to land at the 'Lugano–Agno' airport, as you told me in your last letter, the first thing I recommend to you is to be patient and take your time.
behind the times
[C1] not fashionable or modern

Dictionary example:
Dad's a bit behind the times.

Learner example:
We [should] improve our equipment. Otherwise we will be behind the times.

in no time
[C1] very soon

Dictionary example:
We'll be home in no time.

Learner example:
Team work is very important for us and you will make many friends in no time.

it's only a matter of time
[C1] If you say that it is only a matter of time before something happens, you are sure it will happen but you do not know when.

Dictionary example:
It's only a matter of time before someone gets killed on this road.

Learner example:
In my opinion it is only a matter of time before it is decided to [put] an end to this country being a kingdom.

time after time
[C2] again and again on repeated occasions

Dictionary example:
She goes back to him time after time.

Learner example:
Time after time he stopped and looked around, not sure if [he] was alone.

have no time for sb/sth
[C2] to have no respect for someone or something

Dictionary example:
I have no time for people who are racist.

Learner example:
First of all it's hard work, I have no time for la[z]y people.

give sb a hard time
[C2] to criticize someone and make them feel guilty about something they have done

Dictionary example:
Ever since I missed the goal, the other players have been giving me a hard time.
Learner example:
I'm not saying that I wasn't normal or anything, I just gave my family a hard time sometimes.

at one time or another [C2] used to talk about an occasion in the past without saying exactly which occasion it was

Dictionary example:
Most of us have made a similar mistake at one time or another.

Learner example:
Haven't we all at one time or another come home from a holiday feeling healthy and strong with a smile on our face thinking, this is what life is about.

at the best of times
[C2] used to show that something is not good when it is the best it can be

Dictionary example:
He's not exactly patient at the best of times.

Learner example:
They knew that even at the best of times he looked unpleasant but now he was of [a] completely different [appearance].

verb [t]

measure how long [B2] to measure how long it takes for something to happen or for someone to do something

Dictionary example:
It's a good idea to time yourself while you do the exercises.

decide when [C2] to decide that something will happen at a particular time

Dictionary example:
We timed our trip to coincide with my cousin's wedding.

time-consuming /ˈtaɪm.ˌkənˌsjuː.mɪŋ/

adjective
[C1] needing a lot of time

Dictionary example:
The legal process was time-consuming and expensive.
Learner example:
SMSs are too short and inconvenient to threat[en] face-to-face communication. They can only transfer a small amount of information and typing them is time-consuming.

times /ˈtaɪmz/

PREPOSITION
[B2] multiplied by

Dictionary example:
What is eight times fourteen?

timetable /ˈtaɪ.məl.bɛl/

NOUN [C]

BUS/TRAIN
[B1] a list of times when buses, trains, etc. arrive and leave

Dictionary example:
Do you have a Birmingham to London train timetable that I could borrow?

PLAN
[B2] a list of dates and times that shows when things will happen

Dictionary examples:
The timetable for our trip to Paris includes visits to Notre Dame, the Eiffel Tower and the Louvre. Here is the timetable of events for the day.

Learner example:
Could you kindly send me some information about the activities and timetable of the club?

timid /ˈtim.ɪd/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] shy and easily frightened

Dictionary example:
a timid little boy

Learner example:
Mr Garland asked Tom again in his quiet, timid voice.
timing /ˈtaɪ.mɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: time, timing
Verbs: time

NOUN [u]

[B2] the time when something happens

Dictionary example:
“Are we early?” “No, your timing is perfect – dinner is almost ready.”

Learner example:
[The] timing was perfect, the car was waiting for us [and] it was really easy.

tin /tɪn/

NOUN

FOOD CONTAINER

[B1] [c] a metal container in which food is sold

Dictionary examples:
a tin of beans
piles of soup tins

Learner example:
The only thing I have is a tin of beans and a laser gun stolen from one of the cyborguards.

FOR STORING

[B2] [c] a metal container with a lid that you keep food or other substances in

Dictionary examples:
a biscuit tin
a tin of paint

Learner example:
Meanwhile it was 11.15 p.m. and I [had] just asked my husband to take away the tins [of] paint from the stairs when suddenly the lights went out.

METAL

[C2] [u] a silvery-coloured metal, often combined with other metals or used to cover and protect other metals

Dictionary example:
At one time, the country produced a third of the world’s tin.

Learner example:
He kept it in an old tin box, hiding it under his bed in case his parents would discover it.
tiny /ˈtaɪ.ni/

ADJECTIVE
[B1] extremely small

Dictionary examples:
the baby’s tiny hands
a tiny little cottage
I was a tiny bit late.

Learner example:
I got a small cottage in a tiny village, called San Bernardino.

tip /tɪp/

NOUN [C]

ADVICE
[B1] a piece of useful advice

Dictionary examples:
He includes a few tips on growing vegetables.
She’s given me a number of useful gardening tips.

Learner example:
Dear Julie, Sam, and Max I’m just writing to give you guys some tips about your trip to Brazil.

PAYMENT
[B1] an extra amount of money that you give to a driver, someone working in a restaurant, etc. to thank them

Dictionary examples:
a 15% tip
He gave the porter a tip.
Have you left a tip for the waiter?

Learner example:
You could also work in a pub or in a restaurant, the advantage there is get[ting] extra money besides the agreed salary, because customers give tips.

END
[C1] the end of something long and narrow

Dictionary examples:
the tips of your fingers
the tip of a pencil
Learner example:
These days there are so many [functions] available on your mobile phone that you won't have to do much, it's all there at the tip of your finger.

be the tip of the iceberg
[C2] to be a small part of a very big problem

Dictionary example:
We've corrected a few errors, but they're just the tip of the iceberg.

Learner example:
I'm not used to such behaviour but that was the tip of the iceberg.

UNTIDY PLACE
[C2] (also dump) a place that is dirty and untidy

Dictionary example:
His bedroom is an absolute tip.

VERB (−pp−)

FALL
[C2] (tip over) to fall or to make something fall

Dictionary examples:
Her chair tipped over and she fell onto the floor.
A rock under the wheel tipped the van onto its side.

Learner example:
Loud music, the drum playing all day long, the kids playing around the street tipping over trash cans and destroying the grass and gardens and a lot more.

ONE SIDE HIGHER
[C2] [i or I] to move so that one side is higher than the other side, or to make something move in this way

Dictionary example:
The table tipped and all the drinks fell on the floor.

tip sth into/onto/out of, etc. sth
[C2] to make the contents of a container fall out by holding the container in a position where this happens

Dictionary example:
She tipped the contents of her purse onto the table.
tire  /ˈtaɪər/

Word family:
Nouns: tiredness
Verbs: tire
Adjectives: tired, tiring

VERB [I or T]

BECOME TIRED
[C2] to become tired or to make someone become tired

Dictionary examples:
She's been leading throughout the race, but it now looks as if she's tiring.
Even doing the garden tires me these days.
Learner example:
I suggest you have a different subject every day in order not to tire your listeners.

tired  /ˈtaɪəd/

Word family:
Nouns: tiredness
Verbs: tire
Adjectives: tired, tiring

ADJECTIVE

tired of doing sth
[B1] bored or annoyed by something that has happened too often

Dictionary example:
I'm tired of listening to her problems.
Learner example:
I never get tired of watching this film, I really love it!

tiredness  /ˈtaɪəd.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: tiredness
Verbs: tire
Adjectives: tired, tiring

NOUN [U]
[B2] the state of being tired
Dictionary examples:
He said that it was tiredness that led him to make the mistake.
I was overtaken by a sudden wave of tiredness.

Learner example:
I felt so relaxed and my tiredness disappeared almost entirely.

tiresome /ˈtaɪə.səm/

ADJECTIVE FORMAL
[C2] making you feel annoyed or bored

Dictionary example:
a tiresome little boy

Learner example:
For me it is the best way to relax after a tiresome day full of anxiety and responsibilities.

tiring /ˈtaɪə.rɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: tiredness
Verbs: tire
Adjectives: tired, tiring

ADJECTIVE
[B1] making you feel tired

Dictionary examples:
I've had a very tiring day.
Looking after three kids is extremely tiring.

Learner example:
The only bad thing is that the trip was a bit tiring.

tissue /ˈtɪʃ.uː/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a soft piece of paper that you use for cleaning your nose

Dictionary example:
I have some tissues in my bag.

Learner example:
P.S. Bring tissues because you won’t stop crying when you watch the film.
title /ˈtaɪ.tl/

NOUN [C]

BOOK/FILM, ETC.

[B1] the name of a book, film, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The title of Evelyn Waugh's first novel was 'Decline and Fall'.
And this next record is the title track on the album 'The Red Shoes'.

Learner example:
I can't remember the title of the movie.

SPORTS

[C2] what you get if you win an important sports competition

Dictionary example:
He won the 1999 world motor racing title.

Learner example:
He won the national championship and, later, was sold to Barcelona, where he also won many titles.

to /tuː/

INFINITIVE MARKER

to say the least

[C1] used to emphasize that you could have said something in a much stronger way

Dictionary example:
We were surprised, to say the least.

Learner example:
You get slightly bored, to say the least.

to do so

[C1] if you do this, or if this is done

Dictionary examples:
They want to build a completely new school, but to do so would cost far too much.
I would strongly advise you against taking out a loan of this size. To do so would be a great risk to your business.

Learner example:
It is generally believed that if [a] better education is provided, children are better prepared for adult life. To do so, money is essential.
to spare
[C1] If you have time, money, etc. to spare, you have more than you need.

Dictionary example:
I arrived at the station with more than an hour to spare.

Learner example:
I even started to do the shopping on the Net, and I think this is the perfect solution for the businesswoman with family and little time to spare.

to go
[C2] If there is a particular amount of time to go, that time remains.

Dictionary example:
There are only two weeks of term to go.

Learner example:
Right now this example is very realistic, and as I have just been told there is only 15 min to go, my stress level, I have to admit, is too high.

PREPOSITION

POSITION
[B1] used to show the position of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
She stood with her back to the window.
I had my back to them, so I couldn't see what they were doing.
John's standing to the left of Adrian in the photo.
The Yorkshire Dales are twenty miles to the north of the city.

Learner example:
My town is situated to the south of Paris.

AFFECTED
[B1] used to say who is treated in a particular way or who or what is affected by something

Dictionary examples:
What have you done to your hair?
Her evidence was very helpful to the police.
She was very kind to us.

Learner example:
The waiter was really kind to us. We gave him the key of the car and he drove us home.

RELATIONSHIP
[B1] used to show a relationship with someone

Dictionary examples:
I've been married to Peter for nine years.
She was an assistant to the chief executive.
Learner example:
She's 38 years old and she's married to a Spanish engineer.

COMPARE
[B1] used to compare two things

Dictionary examples:
I prefer football to cricket.
She's earning a reasonable wage, but nothing to what she could make in a big company.

Learner example:
I prefer homemade food to re[s]taurant meals.

UNTIL
[B1] until a particular time, state or level is reached

Dictionary examples:
It's only two weeks to Christmas.
Unemployment has risen to almost eight million.
She nursed me back to health.

CONNECTED
[B1] used to say where something is fastened or connected

Dictionary examples:
The paper was fastened to the wall with tape.
A fast rail service connects us to the city.

Learner example:
My mouth became so dry that my tongue stuck to my palate.

RANGE
[B2] used in phrases which show a range

Dictionary example:
There must have been thirty to thirty-five people there.

to date
[B2] FORMAL up to the present time

Dictionary example:
This is her best work to date.

Learner example:
I enclose a copy of my curriculum vitae, which will give you further details about my career to date.

to my mind
[B2] used to emphasize that you are giving your own opinion

Dictionary example:
To my mind, the play was rather disappointing.
Learner example:
To my mind, The Picture of Dorian Gray is probably his best novel.

to the contrary
[C1] saying or showing the opposite

Dictionary example:
She claimed she hadn't been involved, despite evidence to the contrary.

Learner example:
Despite claims to the contrary, young people are getting more involved in sport[s] activities.

to sb's disappointment/relief/surprise, etc.
[C2] used to say that someone feels disappointed/relieved/surprised, etc. by something

Dictionary example:
To Pierre's disappointment, Monique wasn't at the party.

Learner example:
However, much to my relief, in the end they reached the main square again and all went to the surrounding bars to celebrate the feast in a more relaxed way.

to death
[C2] until you die

Dictionary example:
He was beaten to death by a gang of youths.

Learner example:
She would have been trampled to death as the stampede of furious fans came over her.

to all intents and purposes
[C2] in all the most important ways

Dictionary example:
To all intents and purposes, the project was a disaster.

Learner example:
To all intents and purposes, the qualities needed to achieve success are based on the same ideas.

to the point
[C2] If something someone says or writes is to the point, it expresses the most important things without extra details.

Dictionary example:
His report was short and to the point.

to sb's satisfaction
[C2] as well as someone wants

Dictionary example:
He won't get paid until he completes the job to my satisfaction.
Learner example:
Should this matter not be solved to my satisfaction, I will have no choice but to place it in the hands of my solicitor.

toast /ˈtoʊst/

NOUN

DRINK
[C1] [c] a time when people lift their glasses and drink because they want someone to be successful, happy, etc.

Dictionary example:
At the wedding, there was a toast to the happy couple.

Learner example:
During the wedding meal, it is good manner[s] to propose a toast to the bride and the bridegroom when they come to your table.

tobacco /ˈtəˈbæk.oʊ/

NOUN [u]
[C1] dried leaves that are inside cigarettes

Dictionary example:
Twenty-eight per cent of people asked thought that the advertising of tobacco and alcohol should be banned.

Learner example:
People are becoming more aware also due to the Ministry of Health's propaganda, marketing [a] healthy diet and exercise plus limiting adverts on alcoholic drinks and tobacco.

today /ˈteɪdi/
NOUN [u]

PRESENT TIME
[B2] the period of time that is happening now

Dictionary example:
With today’s technology almost anything seems possible.

Learner example:
However, technology has made immense steps forward and the cars of today come close to perfection.

toddler /ˈtɒd.lə/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a child who has just learned to walk

Dictionary example:
I was looking after three toddlers.

Learner example:
These meetings for mothers with toddlers should take place more often than once a month.

toe /təʊ/

NOUN [c]

keep sb on their toes
[C2] to make sure that someone gives all their attention to what they are doing and is ready for anything that might happen

Dictionary example:
We have random inspections to keep everyone on their toes.

toenail /ˈtəʊ.nɛl/

NOUN [c]

[B2] one of the hard, flat parts on top of the end of your toes

Dictionary example:
I need to cut my toenails.
together /təˈgeðər/

ADVERB

SAME TIME

[B1] at the same time

Dictionary examples:
Everyone seemed to arrive together.
We can deal with the next two items on the list together.

Learner example:
He came to my house early in the morning and then we left together.

CONNECTED

[B2] used to say that two or more things are joined to each other, mixed with each other, etc.

Dictionary examples:
She tied the two pieces of rope together.
Could you add these figures together for me?
You mix all the dry ingredients together before you add the milk.
You could stick that back together with a bit of glue.
I like both flavours separately but I don't like them together.

COMBINED

[B2] combined

Dictionary examples:
Together they must earn over ninety thousand dollars a year.
The money that I owe you for the telephone together with the rent equals £300.

Learner example:
When you ride a bike on the main road, it's very dangerous to breath[e] the dirty air – together with the gases from the cars.

IN ONE PLACE

[C2] in one place

Dictionary example:
I'll just gather my things together and then we can go.
token /ˈtəʊ.kən/

NOUN [c]

LOVE/THANKS

[C1] something that you give to someone in order to show them love, to thank them, etc.

Dictionary example:
I gave Helen some chocolates as a token of thanks for all her help.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, you can also prepare a small present as a token of your friendship or affection.

by the same token

[C2] in a similar way

Dictionary example:
You have to let people know your plans in good time and, by the same token, they should give you some advance warning.

Learner example:
Our college will only benefit from this event as long as it give[s] a nice and memorable impression. By the same token, we should all be well prepared and visualise beforehand possible manoeuvres that could appear, so that we can control the situation.

tolerance /ˈtɒl.rənts/

Word family:

Nouns: intolerance, tolerance

Verbs: tolerate

Adjectives: intolerable, intolerant, tolerant

NOUN [u]

[C2] willingness to accept behaviour and beliefs which are different from your own, although you might not agree with or approve of them

Dictionary examples:
This period in history is not noted for its religious tolerance.
Some members of the party would like to see it develop a greater tolerance of/towards contrary points of view.

Learner example:
One needs to develop a spirit of tolerance, respect and even appreciation towards world views and practices that might differ from one's own.
tolerant /ˈtɒl.rənt/

Word family:
Nouns: intolerance, tolerance
Verbs: tolerate
Adjectives: intolerable, intolerant, tolerant

ADJECTIVE
[C1] allowing people to do what they want especially when you do not agree with it

Dictionary examples:
- a tolerant attitude
- I think we're becoming more tolerant of children in public places.

Learner example:
- During my stay, I was living with a family that was very generous and tolerant.

tolerate /ˈtɒl.r.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: intolerance, tolerance
Verbs: tolerate
Adjectives: intolerable, intolerant, tolerant

VERB [T]

ACCEPT
[B2] to accept or allow something although you do not like it

Dictionary examples:
- I will not tolerate that sort of behaviour in my class.
- We will not tolerate racism of any sort.

Learner example:
- He couldn't tolerate anybody disturbing childrens' lives for the sake of money, because he was a very moral man.

DEAL WITH
[C2] to be able to deal with something unpleasant and not be harmed by it

Dictionary example:
- It seems these ants can tolerate temperatures which would kill other species.

Learner example:
- In comparison with wealthy children, they can tolerate the enormous weather changes like both extremes of hot and cold weather as they are not much exposed to air conditioners and heaters.
toll /ˈtəʊl/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

MONEY
[C1] money that you pay to use a bridge, road, etc.

Dictionary example:
You have to cross a toll bridge.

Learner example:
The government can introduce road toll fees on some highly used roads, so that some traffic will be encouraged to use a different route.

NUMBER
[C2] the number of people who are killed or injured

Dictionary example:
Independent sources say that the death toll from the earthquake runs into thousands.

Learner example:
There would be no surprise at all if the death toll rises.

take its toll
[C2] to have a bad effect on someone or something, especially over a long period of time

Dictionary example:
The stress was starting to take its toll on him.

Learner example:
The famine has obviously taken its toll on him.

tomb /ˈtuːm/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a place where a dead person is buried, usually with a stone structure

Dictionary example:
He is buried in a marble tomb.

Learner example:
My father opened it slowly and we saw a huge marble tomb behind it.
tomorrow  /teˈmɔrəʊ/

NOUN [u]

FUTURE
[C2] the future

Dictionary example:
the children of tomorrow

Learner example:
In fact, young children are our future and what tomorrow's world will be depends a lot on what kind of adults our children will be.

ton  /tʌn/

NOUN [c] (plural tons or ton)

WEIGHT
[B2] a unit for measuring weight, equal to 1016 kilograms in the UK and 907 kilograms in the US

Dictionary example:
They generated nearly 6 tons of rubbish.

Learner example:
It was at this point I saw a twenty ton lorry speeding towards them.

tons of sth
[B2] informal a lot of something

Dictionary example:
We've got tons of things to do before they arrive.

Learner example:
There were tons of handmade items!

tone  /təʊn/

NOUN

VOICE
[B2] [c or u] the quality of a sound, especially of someone's voice
Dictionary examples:
I tried to use a sympathetic tone of voice.
It wasn’t so much what she said that annoyed me – it was her tone.

Learner example:
Paul, the leader of the group, shouted: "Keep quiet" and he went on [in] a quiet tone: "They want this kind of reaction, they want to frighten us..."

TELEPHONE
[B2] [c] an electronic sound made by a telephone

Dictionary example:
a dialling tone

Learner example:
Quickly, a man got the phone [and was] trying [to] call the police but there was no tone.

MOOD
[C2] [NO PLURAL] the general mood or style of something

Dictionary examples:
I didn't like the jokey tone of the article – I thought it inappropriate.
He was in a very bad mood when he arrived, and that set the tone for the whole meeting.

Learner example:
This would be in order for them to act more like a group of friends rather than simple presenters, and, therefore, set the tone of the programme.

tongue /tʌŋ/

NOUN

IN MOUTH
[B1] [c] the large soft piece of flesh in the mouth which you can move and which you use for tasting, speaking, etc.

Dictionary example:
I burnt my tongue on some soup last night.

Learner example:
My mouth became so dry that my tongue stuck to my palate.

mother tongue
[B2] the first language that you learn when you are a child

Dictionary example:
Italian is my mother tongue but I started to learn English when I was six.

Learner example:
I can speak English and French fluently, added to my mother tongue, Japanese.
too /tuː/

ADVERB

too bad
[B1] used to say that you are sorry about a situation

Dictionary example:
"He didn't get the job." "Oh, that's too bad."

Learner example:
Too bad you couldn't come to my party.

tool /tuːl/

NOUN [C]

MAKE/REPAIR
[B2] a piece of equipment that you use with your hands in order to make or repair something

Dictionary examples:
power tools
The only tools you need for this job are a hammer and a screwdriver.

Learner example:
And, of course, she got a set of excellent tools and I won only one thing: a tube of model[ll]ing glue.

EQUIPMENT
[B2] a thing that helps you to do a particular activity

Dictionary example:
Computers are an essential tool for modern scientists.

Learner example:
From my personal experience, I can also say that a personal computer is also an amazing tool.

SOMETHING HELPFUL
[C1] something that helps you to do what needs to be done or you want to do

Dictionary example:
We believe the new law will be an effective tool in fighting poverty.

Learner example:
If you look at fame as a tool for helping others you will soon understand it is worth it.
tooth /tuːθ/ (PLURAL teeth)

NOUN [c]

grit your teeth

[C2] to accept a difficult situation and deal with it in a determined way

Dictionary example:
I don't particularly enjoy running, but I grit my teeth and do it in order to keep fit.

toothpaste /ˈtuːθ.peɪst/

NOUN [u]

[B1] a substance that you use to clean your teeth

Dictionary example:
Put a small amount of toothpaste on the brush.

Learner example:
Modern technology [has] changed our li[v]es in many ways. When I have to wake up earlier, I use my alarm clock, [and] if I have to [brush] my teeth, I use my toothbrush with a little toothpaste.

top /top/

NOUN

CLOTHES

[B1] [c] a piece of clothing worn on the upper part of the body

Dictionary examples:
a black/striped top
I need a top to go with these trousers.

Learner example:
I like wearing formal clothes but at a party I usually wear jeans and a nice top.

on top of sth

[B2] in addition to something else that is bad

Dictionary examples:
On top of all this bad luck, he lost his mobile phone.
And then, on top of everything else, her car was stolen!

Learner example:
On top of everything, the weather was bad and the se[a] was so cold that I couldn't swim.
the top
[C2] the most important position in a company, team, etc.

Dictionary example:
At forty he was already at the top of his profession.

Learner example:
Besides she climbed [to] the top of her profession, when no one expected her to.

over the top INFORMAL
[C2] too extreme and not suitable

Dictionary example:
I thought her performance was way over the top.

Learner example:
In addition to that, many so-called "stars" have that certain over the top attitude, which would not be welcome in normal life.

be/feel on top of the world INFORMAL
[C2] to be very happy

Dictionary example:
I had just won a major tournament and I was feeling on top of the world.

Learner example:
I felt like I was on top of the world and nothing could take that happiness from me.

from top to bottom
[C2] completely

Dictionary example:
I've searched the house from top to bottom and still can't find it.

Learner example:
Very often we can see someone in black, from top to bottom, or in white.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

HIGHEST PART
[B1] at the highest part of something

Dictionary examples:
There's a dirty mark on the top left-hand corner of the photo.
The offices are on the top floor of the building.
He was standing on the top rung of a ladder.

Learner example:
My bedroom is quite big and on the top floor.

BEST
[B1] the best, most important, or most successful
Dictionary examples:
He’s one of the country’s top athletes.
So what would be your top choice for a holiday?
As a chess player, he’s among the top 10% in the country.
top jobs top universities

Learner example:
In the future I hope to be a cloth[es] designer or a top model.

ADVERB
[B2] in the position of being most important or successful

Dictionary example:
She came top in the maths test.

VERB [T] (–pp–)
MOST IMPORTANT
[C2] to be the most important, most successful, etc

Dictionary examples:
The record topped the charts for five weeks.
She topped the bill at the festival.

Learner example:
It was in summer 1993 when Paul McCartney proved once again that he still is topping the bill.

be topped with sth
[C2] to be covered with something

Dictionary example:
lemon tart topped with cream

Learner example:
Again leave some room for the sweets, displayed on a tray: cream caramel topped with hazelnut ice cream or a slice of chocolate tart.

topic  /ˈtɒp.ɪk/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a subject that you talk or write about

Dictionary example:
Our discussion ranged over various topics, such as climate change and nuclear weapons.

Learner example:
Do you know that food is one of my favourite topics of conversation?
torch /tɔːtʃ/
NOUN [c]
[B2] a small electric light that you hold in your hand

Dictionary example:
She shone the torch into the dark room.

Learner example:
After fifteen minutes of walking, we got into a cave. It was dark, so we [turned on] our torches.

tornado /tɔːˈneɪd.əʊ/ (PLURAL tornados, tornadoes)
NOUN [c]
[B2] an extremely strong and dangerous wind that blows in a circle and destroys buildings as it moves along

Dictionary example:
A tornado had swept through the north of the state, causing terrible destruction.

Learner example:
The storm was getting very wild outside, she wasn't sure if it [was] a real tornado, she had never seen one, but somehow she could sense the danger.

torrential /təˈren.ʃəl/
ADJECTIVE
[C2] Torrential rain is very heavy rain.

Dictionary example:
The rain was absolutely torrential.

Learner example:
All he could hear was the sound of torrential rain hitting the windows and the roof of the hotel.

torture /ˈtɔː.tʃər/
NOUN [u]
BORING/UNPLEASANT
[C1] a very unpleasant experience
Dictionary example:
I had to sit there listening to her for two whole hours – it was torture!

Learner example:
I would be grateful if I could get some of my money back, because the days in Scotland were a torture to me.

CAUSING PAIN

[C2] I the act of causing someone great physical or mental pain, often in order to make them tell you something

Dictionary example:
He revealed the secret under torture.

Learner example:
Tyranny and torture are installed with Roger as the executioner.

VERB [T]

[C2] I to cause someone severe pain, often in order to make them tell you something

Dictionary example:
It is claimed that the officers tortured a man to death in 1983 in a city police station.

Learner example:
And they would torture him and kill him like an animal, as soon as they were convinced that he had no chance of finding the money.

toss /tɔs/

VERB

toss (a coin)

[C1] to throw a coin in the air and guess which side will land facing upwards as a way of deciding something

Dictionary example:
She tossed a coin to decide who would get the prize.

Learner example:
The question was who would be the person [to] do this action so we tossed a coin, and the result was me.

toss sth away/into/on, etc.

[C2] to throw something somewhere carelessly

Dictionary example:
He read the letter quickly, then tossed it into the bin.
Learner example:
When she woke up, she saw his stupid face smiling at her and she quickly tossed it in the drawer, noticing her tears trickle and fall.

toss and turn
[C2] be unable to sleep properly

Dictionary example:
I was tossing and turning for most of the night.

Learner example:
As she tossed and turned, unable to sleep, she started [going over] the events that had taken place before that evening.

total /ˈtəʊ.təl/

Word family:
Nouns: total
Adjectives: total
Adverbs: totally

NOUN [C]
[B1] the amount you get when you add several smaller amounts together

Dictionary examples:
That figure at the bottom of the column is the total.
A total of 21 horses were entered for the race.
We made £700 in total, over three days of trading.

Learner example:
My holiday started from last Sunday morning for a total of ten days.

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
AMOUNT
[B1] including everything

Dictionary examples:
the total cost
Total losses were $800.

Learner example:
The total cost was only £60, including lunch, and I think it was worth every penny of it.

VERY GREAT
[B2] extreme or complete
Dictionary examples:
- total silence
  The whole evening was a total disaster.
  That's total rubbish.

Learner example:
- The room was in total darkness and I couldn't hear anything.

VERB [ɪ] (-ll-)
[C1] to add up to a particular amount

Dictionary example:
This is the eighth volume in the series, which totals 21 volumes in all.

Learner example:
And there has been a significant increase in insurance, up by 5%, totalling 8% of the total expenses.

---

totalitarian /təʊˌtæl.ɪˈteə.ri.ən/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] belonging to a political system in which the people in power have complete control and do not allow anyone to oppose them

Dictionary example:
The people overthrew the totalitarian regime.

Learner example:
Its descriptions are sometimes shocking since his work is about totalitarian regimes and people living on the fringes of society.

---

totally /ˈtəʊ.təli/​

Word family:
Nouns: total
Adjectives: total
Adverbs: totally

ADVERB
[B1] completely

Dictionary examples:
- They're totally different.
- I'd totally forgotten I'd arranged to meet her.
- I totally agree with you.
Learner example:
But in the new class, it is totally different.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>touch /tʌtʃ/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: touch
Verbs: touch
Adjectives: untouched

VERB

PUT HAND ON

[B1] [ɪ] to put your hand on something

Dictionary examples:
That paint is wet – don‘t touch it.
He touched the girl on the arm to get her attention.

Learner example:
Suddenly, someone touched my arm and I screamed.

GET CLOSE

[B2] [ɪ or ɪ] If two things touch, they are so close to each other that there is no space between them.

Dictionary example:
These two wires must not touch.

Learner example:
Out of the blue, I felt the wheels touching the ground.

EMOTION

[B2] [ɪ T OFTEN PASSIVE] to affect your emotions, especially so that you feel pleased or a little sad

Dictionary example:
I was deeply touched by her letter.

Learner example:
Her stories are based on real life, so they’re not only easy to read but also touch our hearts.

not touch sb/sth

[C2] to not harm someone or not damage something

Dictionary example:
Don’t worry about them – they can’t touch you.

Learner example:
She goes to a place that is clean, where the heat and dust can’t touch her any more.
be/get/keep, etc. in touch
[B1] to communicate or continue to communicate with someone by telephoning, or writing to them

Dictionary examples:
Are you still in touch with any of your old school friends?
Jane and I never kept in touch after college.

Learner example:
I'll be in touch again soon.

lose touch
[B2] to stop communicating with someone, usually because they do not live near you now

Dictionary example:
We lost touch over the years.

Learner example:
When he went into the information centre, he saw Mary, whom he used to go out with – for some reason, they had lost touch with each other.

HAND
[B2] [C USUALLY NO PLURAL] when you put your hand or finger on something

Dictionary examples:
I felt the touch of his hand on my face.
At the touch of a button, the door opened.

Learner example:
In a shopping centre you may search for something for hours, but on the internet you can find everything with the touch of a button.

ABILITY
[B2] [U] the ability to feel things by putting your hand on them

Dictionary examples:
the sense of touch
The material was soft to the touch.

a touch
[C2] a small amount

Dictionary examples:
Add a little olive oil and a touch of vinegar.
There was a touch of irony/humour in her voice.

Learner example:
It gives a touch of colour in our dull, black and white area.
SMALL DETAIL

[C2] [c] a small detail that makes something better

Dictionary examples:
The speech had several comic touches.
Using a sailing ship as the company badge was a touch of genius.
The flowers on the table provided the finishing touch.

Learner example:
For most of us, music is the essential spice that make[s] our feelings stronger, the perfect finishing touch to a scene that we have created ourselves.

touch and go
[C2] used to describe a situation that is uncertain

Dictionary example:
The doctor says it is touch and go whether Mary will recover.

Learner example:
The idea of earning a lot certainly appeals to me but it's touch and go whether the job may bring a lot of money right from the start.

be/get out of touch
[C2] to know little about what has recently happened

Dictionary example:
I've been abroad for the last two years, so I'm very out of touch.

Learner example:
In much worse cases, some individuals may even be trapped in the virtual world and get out of touch with the real one.

---

tough /ˈtaʊf/

Word family:
Nouns: toughness
Adjectives: tough

ADJECTIVE

DIFFICULT
[B2] difficult

Dictionary examples:
He's had a tough time at work recently.
We've had to make some tough decisions.
Homeless people are facing a tough winter.

Learner example:
You know it was really a very tough decision for me.
STRONG PERSON

[B2] Tough people are mentally strong and not afraid of difficult situations.

Dictionary example:
You have to be tough to be successful in politics.

Learner example:
It is about a tough old fisherman from Cuba who sails out alone in a small boat to fish.

FOOD

[B2] describes food that is difficult to cut or eat

Dictionary example:
This steak is very tough.

Learner example:
Your pork chop was as tough as old boots and the salad dressing was sour!

SEVERE

[C2] Tough rules are severe.

Dictionary examples:
Tough new safety standards have been introduced for cars.
There have been calls for tougher controls/restrictions on what newspapers are allowed to print.
After some tough bargaining, we finally agreed on a deal.
I think it's time the police got tougher on/with people who drink and drive.
The government is continuing to take a tough line on terrorism.

STRONG

[C2] not easy to break or damage

Dictionary examples:
The play equipment needs to be very tough.
I need a tough pair of boots.

UNFAIR

[C2] unfair or unlucky

Dictionary example:
It can be tough on kids when parents get divorced.

Learner example:
It was tough on the worn out employees.

---

toughness /ˈtʌf.nəs/

Word family:

Nouns: toughness

Adjectives: tough
NOUN [u]

[C2] the quality or state of being tough

Dictionary examples:
She has a reputation for toughness.
They can't face the toughness of the competition.

Learner example:
I would be [less] lax than my daddy was [so] as to accustom them to the toughness and brutality of life, so that they could face many difficulties in their lives.

tour /ˈtʊər/

Word family:
Nouns: tour, tourism, tourist

VERB [I or T]

[B1] to go on a tour somewhere

Dictionary examples:
We spent a month touring (around/round) Kenya.
The New Zealand team will be touring in Europe this winter.
The band are currently touring to promote their new album.

Learner example:
She and her husband came over [to] England for [a] short stay and are touring Europe [on] a second honeymoon as [it's the] 10th anniversary of their marriage.

tourism /ˈtʊə.rɪ.zəm/

Word family:
Nouns: tour, tourism, tourist

NOUN [u]

[B1] the business of providing services for tourists, including organizing their travel, hotels, entertainment, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Tourism is Venice's main industry.
These beautiful old towns have remained relatively untouched by tourism.

Learner example:
As you know, Peru is one of the countries with [the] most tourism around the world.
tournament /ˈtʊə.nə.mənt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a competition with a series of games between many teams or players, with one winner at the end

Dictionary examples:
a tennis/chess/golf tournament
They were defeated in the first round of the tournament.

Learner example:
I met him at a basketball tournament and his name is Mark.

towards /təˈwɔːdz/

PREPOSITION

DIRECTION
[B1] in the direction of someone or something

Dictionary examples:
She stood up and walked towards him.
He leaned towards his wife and whispered, "Can we go home soon?"
She kept glancing towards the telephone.

Learner example:
We took the train from Paris to Bordeaux, and from there we started to cycle towards the sea.

IN RELATION TO
[B2] in relation to something or someone

Dictionary examples:
They've always been very friendly towards me.
He feels a lot of anger towards his father.
She always has a positive attitude towards life.

Learner example:
His parents were very cold towards me.

POSITION
[C1] near to a time or place

Dictionary examples:
Our seats were towards the back of the theatre.
I often get hungry towards the middle of the morning.
We're getting towards winter and it's getting dark earlier.
Learner example:
If I [had] told somebody fifty years ago that women w[ould] have leading political positions towards the end of the century, he or she would have most probably considered [me] as being mad.

PURPOSE
[C1] for the purpose of buying or achieving something

Dictionary examples:
I'm saving up to buy a car, and Dad has given me some money towards it.
Would you like to make a contribution towards a present for Linda?
The work that students do during the term counts towards their final grade.

Learner example:
I hope that these recommendations will go a long way towards improving your museum and having satisfied visitors.

towel /ˈtaʊəl/

NOUN [C]

throw in the towel
[C2] to stop trying to do something because you do not think you can succeed

Dictionary example:
Their candidate should just throw in the towel and admit defeat.

Learner example:
You have to possess tenacity: never throw in the towel.

tower /ˈtaʊər/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a very tall, narrow building, or part of a building

Dictionary examples:
the Eiffel Tower
There's a clock on the church tower.
He works in an office tower in downtown San Francisco.

Learner example:
I think that, first of all, we should visit our capital because it has many old towers, castles and churches, which you have to see.
toxic /ˈtɒk.sɪk/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] poisonous

Dictionary example:

Learner example:
Paris throws out billions of tons of toxic gases into the atmosphere, and in the summer months, [it]'s wrapped in a veil of toxic haze, from power station[s], factory chimneys, and from the exhausts of cars and lorries on the streets.

trace /treɪs/

VERB [T]

FIND

[C1] to find someone or something that was lost

Dictionary examples:

Learner example:
So you can hire the best people you can find to trace the bad guy and get rid of him.

ORIGIN

[C1] to discover the cause or origin of something

Dictionary examples:

Learner example:
It is my firm belief that what is usually refer[r]ed to as "lacking motivation" can always be traced back to this question of meaning and comradeship.

NOUN [c or u]

[B2] proof that someone or something was in a place
Dictionary examples:
There was no trace of her anywhere.
When she moved out, she left no trace of having been there.
He seems to have disappeared without trace.

Learner example:
There were no traces of anything alive nearby.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>track</th>
<th>/trak/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN</td>
<td>PATH</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] [c] a narrow path or road</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
We followed a dirt track off the main road.

Learner example:
However, on the second day, the sun appeared, and we went on a mountain track.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>track</th>
<th>RACE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[B1] [c] a path, often circular, used for races</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary examples:
a race track
The runners are now on their final lap of the track.

Learner example:
There are 3 football fields, 4 basketball fields, an athletic[s] track, 4 tennis fields, and a bar [and] changing rooms.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>track</th>
<th>MUSIC</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[B2] [c] one song or piece of music on a CD, record, etc.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
The album includes four previously unreleased tracks.

Learner example:
It is a really good idea to give every CD a book containing information about every track on [the] disc and about [the] performance.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>track</th>
<th>TYPE OF SPORT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[B2] [u] a sport in which people compete with each other by running a race on a specially prepared circular path</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dictionary example:
a track event
Learner example:
Since that time I have been reading every article about track and field.

MARKS
[B2] [C usually plural] a mark or line of marks left on the ground or on another surface by an animal, person or vehicle which has moved over it

Dictionary examples:
Police found tyre tracks in the mud.
The hunters followed the tracks of the deer for hours.
The burglars were careful not to leave any tracks behind them.

Learner example:
I [saw] some tracks on the floor. I went to the bedroom and near the bed I [saw] a big cat with its kittens.

lose track
[B2] to not know what is happening to someone or something any more

Dictionary example:
I've lost track of how much we've spent.

Learner example:
Time passed like an arrow and they lost track of time until they realised it [was] getting dark.

TRAINS
[C1] [c or u] the long metal lines which a train travels along

Dictionary examples:
a 10-mile stretch of track
Passengers are requested not to walk across the tracks.

Learner example:
When the train enters a small town in Northern Switzerland, the visitor will be surprised by hundreds of fan posters and flags along the rail track.

on track
[C1] making progress and likely to succeed

Dictionary examples:
A fighter from Edinburgh is on track to become world heavyweight boxing champion.
We've got a lot of work to do but we're on the right track.

Learner example:
The sales teams are well on track and bringing [in] new customers every day.

keep track
[C1] to continue to know about someone or something

Dictionary examples:
He changes jobs so often I can’t keep track any more.
Be sure to keep track of the time so you won't be late.
Learner example:
Trying to keep track of these changes by translating them would be an inappropriate task.

off the beaten track
[C2] in a place where few people go

Dictionary example:
I prefer to take my holiday somewhere off the beaten track.

Learner example:
Furthermore, in areas off the beaten track, there [are] not even police sometimes.

a fast track (to sth)
[C2] a very quick way of achieving or dealing with something

Dictionary example:
These intensive courses claim to offer a fast track to wealth and success.

Learner example:
If I ever found a job which lives up to these expectations, I would consider myself on [a] fast track already.

DEVELOPMENT
[C2] [c or u] the direction in which someone's job or education develops

Dictionary example:
She was a lawyer, but then she changed track completely and became a doctor.

VERB [r]

FOLLOW
[C2] to follow a person or animal by looking for proof that they have been somewhere, or by using electronic equipment

Dictionary examples:
It's difficult to track an animal over stony ground.
The military use radar satellites to track targets through clouds and at night.
The terrorists were tracked to Amsterdam.

Learner example:
It is her eventually who may be considered as the [i]nvolutary cause of Chen's death, by keeping on sending money [to] China and then allowing the Mafia to track him.

RECORD
[C2] to record the progress or development of something over a period

Dictionary example:
The project tracks the effects of population growth on the area.

Learner example:
However, it would be useless to track the [outbreak] of wars and to judge humanity for not learning.
tracksuit /ˈtræk.suːt/

NOUN [c]
[B1] loose, comfortable trousers and a top, especially worn for exercising

Dictionary example:
He was wearing a tracksuit and trainers.

Learner example:
I also like wearing tracksuits, because they are very soft and warm.

tractor /ˈtræk.tər/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a strong vehicle with large back wheels used on farms for pulling things

Dictionary example:
He started up the tractor.

Learner example:
Farmers who used to practi[s]e traditional farming are now introduc[ing] machinery such as tractors.

trade /treɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: trade, trader
Verbs: trade

NOUN

BUYING AND SELLING
[B1] [u] the buying and selling of large numbers of goods or services, especially between countries

Dictionary examples:
The country's trade in manufactured goods has expanded in the last ten years.
They rely heavily on trade with Europe.
The two countries have signed a trade agreement for one year only.

Learner example:
You know, I work in a foreign trade company so I have to be well dressed.

JOB
[B2] [c or u] someone's job, especially one which needs skill in using their hands
Dictionary examples:
He’s a builder by trade.
He left school at 15 to learn a trade.

Learner example:
At the age of 15 he [left] school and started to learn a trade.

AREA OF BUSINESS
[C1] [c] a particular area of business or industry

Dictionary example:
the building/catering/tourist trade

Learner example:
Having considered the previous factors, I am further convinced that the host country can develop itself rapidly by enhancing the tourism trade.

VERB [i or ñ]
[B2] to buy and sell goods or services, especially between countries

Dictionary examples:
For centuries, Native Americans traded with European settlers.
The company has been trading in oil for many years.
The two countries have become close trading partners.
Our books are traded right across Asia.

Learner example:
His story is interesting: he first worked in a little shop in Bourges and started trading in France, then in Europe, [and] in Asia.

trader /ˈtreɪdər/

Word family:
Nouns: trade, trader
Verbs: trade

NOUN [c]
[C2] a person who buys and sells things

Dictionary examples:
His ancestors were fur traders.
She’s a trader on Wall Street, working for a big financial company.

Learner example:
After spending a few months over there he got back [to] Switzerland, where he worked in a private bank as [a] trader in the bond market.
tradition /trəˈdɪʃ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: tradition
Adjectives: traditional Adverbs: traditionally

NOUN [c or u]

[B2] a custom or way of behaving that has continued for a long time in a group of people or a society

Dictionary examples:
Fireworks have long been an American tradition on the Fourth of July.
There's a long/strong tradition of dance in St Petersburg.
We decided to break with tradition this year and go away for Christmas.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, Leipzig has always been an attractive town for tourists, because of its well-known fair and its cultural traditions.

traditional /trəˈdɪʃ.ən.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: tradition
Adjectives: traditional Adverbs: traditionally

ADJECTIVE

[B1] following the customs or ways of behaving that have continued in a group of people or society for a long time

Dictionary examples:
traditional farming methods
The dancers were wearing traditional Hungarian dress/costume.
She's very traditional in her ideas.

Learner example:
If you come to visit me, I'll invite you to "La Provincana" to have traditional Argentinian food.

traditionally /trəˈdɪʃ.ən.əl.i/
ADVERB

[B2] according to tradition or in a traditional way

Dictionary examples:
Chestnuts are traditionally eaten at Christmas.
Traditionally, the company’s main markets have been Britain and the US.

Learner example:
You will be able to try our special sau[sages], produced traditionally in our city!

traffic  /ˈtræf.ɪk/

NOUN [U]

PLANES AND SHIPS

[C2] the planes or ships moving around an area

Dictionary example:
air traffic control

Learner example:
We are not asking you to close down the airport but we suggest that you check w[h]ether all the charter and freight traffic has to be directed to this airport – there might be an airport in a less densely populated area to use for these purposes.

traffic jam  /ˈtræf.ɪkˌdʒæm/

NOUN [C]

[B1] a line of cars, trucks, etc. that are moving slowly or not moving at all

Dictionary example:
They got stuck in a traffic jam.

Learner example:
Cities are always crowded; there are lots of traffic jams, so they are very polluted.

tragedy  /ˈtrædʒ.ə.di/

Word family:
Nouns: tragedy
Adjectives: tragic
Adverbs: tragically

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] an event or situation which is very sad, often involving death
Dictionary examples:
His life was touched by hardship and personal tragedy.
They had only recently arrived in London when tragedy struck – their son was killed in a traffic accident.

Learner example:
The people who cause those tragedies are irresponsible drivers.

tragic /ˈtrædʒ.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: tragedy
Adjectives: tragic
Adverbs: tragically

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very sad, often involving death and suffering

Dictionary examples:
Her tragic death at the age of 36 shocked the world.
He was killed in a tragic accident.
Hospital authorities admitted that a tragic error had taken place.

Learner example:
For instance, the tragic death of Princess Diana is an example of what a journalist must not do.

tragically /ˈtrædʒ.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: tragedy
Adjectives: tragic
Adverbs: tragically

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that is very sad

Dictionary examples:
She died tragically young.
Tragically, the side-effects of the drug were not discovered until many people had been seriously damaged by it.

Learner example:
She improved his eyesight and tragically disappeared.
trail /trɛɪl/

NOUN [C]

PATH
[B2] a path through the countryside, often made or used for a particular purpose

Dictionary example:
a forest/mountain trail

Learner example:
After 6 miles of the trail we decided to stop and put our blanket on the ground.

MARKS
[C2] the smell or series of marks left by a person, animal or thing as it moves along

Dictionary examples:
The dogs are specially trained to follow the trail left by the fox.
He left a trail of muddy footprints behind him.

Learner example:
Azman and I were looking at a trail of fresh blood leading into the woods.

VERB
trail after/behind/along, etc.
[C2] [i] to walk slowly and without enthusiasm or energy

Dictionary example:
Her small daughter was trailing along behind her.

LOWER SCORE
[C2] [i or ι] to have a lower score than someone else, especially in a sports event

Dictionary example:
City were trailing United 1–2 at half time.

Learner example:
They were trailing by four points, but still, they had possession of the ball.

train /treɪn/

Word family:
Nouns: trainer, training, trainee
Verbs: train
NOUN [C]

train of thought
[C2] a series of connected thoughts or ideas which come or happen one after the other

Dictionary example:
I was interrupted and lost my train of thought.

Learner example:
Stevens's ideas on dignity become very clear if we follow his train of thought through the book and if we examine closely the events which encourage him into further discussion of this issue.

VERB

SPORT

[B1] [I or T] to practise a sport or exercise, often in order to prepare for a sporting event, or to help someone to do this

Dictionary example:
He's been training hard for the race for several weeks now.

Learner example:
She told me that they are training for a tournament which is in about four weeks.

TEACH

[B2] [ɪ] to teach someone how to do something, usually a skill that is needed for a job

Dictionary examples:
We are training all our staff in how to use the new computer system.
The aid workers trained local people to give the injections.

Learner example:
I think I could be suitable for the job because I have some experience [of] training people.

LEARN

[B2] [ɪ] to learn the skills you need to do a job

Dictionary example:
He trained as a lawyer in Vienna.

Learner example:
For example, one of my father's friends who was trained as a computer engineer received the only job vacancy for economy-related work in a very good company just because he graduated from the best university in Taiwan.
trainee /ˈtreɪˈniː/

Word family:
Nouns: trainer, training, trainee
Verbs: train

NOUN [c]
[C1] someone who is learning how to do something, especially a job

Dictionary example:
a trainee accountant/teacher

Learner example:
I work as a trainee at a big international trader company at Brazil, and there we had some problems of motivation in [the] workplace, and to resolve the problem we made a lot of changes and arr[an]g[ements] in our company.

trainer /ˈtreɪ.nər/

Word family:
Nouns: trainer, training, trainee
Verbs: train

NOUN [c]

PERSON
[B1] a person who teaches skills to people or animals and prepares them for a job, activity or sport

Dictionary examples:
a teacher trainer
a fitness trainer
They showed pictures of the horse and its trainer.

Learner example:
The trainer is O.K., too, and he told me that I can play in the team in four to five weeks.

training /ˈtreɪ.nɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: trainer, training, trainee
Verbs: train

NOUN [u]

LEARNING SKILLS
[B1] the process of learning the skills you need to do a particular job or activity
Dictionary examples:
a training course
a teacher-training college
New staff have/receive a week’s training in how to use the computers.

Learner example:
I decided to join the new class because I [am] taking training in broadcasting now, so I need to improve my English.

SPORT
[B1] preparation for a sport or competition

Dictionary example:
football training

Learner example:
After the training, the team invited me to the club party next weekend.

trait /ˈtreɪt/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a quality, good or bad, in someone's character

Dictionary example:
a family trait

Learner example:
The latter makes her more sympathetic if anything to a modern reader, but her naivet[y] and weakness for the attention and luxury given by the Nawab are not very likeable traits.

tranquil /ˈtræŋkwɪl/

Word family:
Nouns: tranquility
Adjectives: tranquil

ADJECTIVE
[C1] calm and quiet

Dictionary example:
a tranquil garden

Learner example:
Unfortunately, though, this tranquil paradise has been destroyed year by year, by the uncontrol[l]ed tourism.
tranquility /ˈtræŋkwɪləti/

Word family:
Nouns: tranquility
Adjectives: tranquil

NOUN [u]
[C2] the quality of being tranquil

Dictionary example:
I love the tranquility of the lake.

Learner example:
Suddenly shattering the tranquility was a high pitched alarm bell being rung energetically.

transaction /ˈtræn.zækʃən/

NOUN [C or U]
[C1] when someone buys or sells something, or when money is exchanged

Dictionary examples:
a business transaction
Each transaction at the foreign exchange counter seems to take forever.
We need to monitor the transaction of smaller deals.

Learner example:
This new service guarantees you a quick transaction direct from your home.

transfer

VERB /trænsˈfɜːr/ (-rr-)

MOVE
[B1] [T] to move someone or something from one place to another

Dictionary examples:
He has been transferred to a psychiatric hospital.
Police are investigating how £20 million was illegally transferred from the Trust’s bank account.
The aim is to transfer power/control/responsibility to self-governing regional councils.

Learner example:
The person described himself as a financial officer of a South African government and needs a contact person in Switzerland to transfer [the] sum of 200 million dollar[s].
CHANGE JOB/TEAM
[B2] [i or ɪ] to change to a different job, team, place of work, etc., or to make someone do this

Dictionary examples:
After a year he transferred to University College, Dublin.
Some very high-profile British players have transferred to clubs abroad.
He threatened to give up football if his club didn't transfer him.

Learner example:
I'm talking about Michael Ballack, who was transferred to the Chelsea soccer team at the beginning of this season.

NOUN [c or ʊ] /ˈtræns.fɜː/
[B2] when something or someone moves or is moved from one place, position, etc. to another

Dictionary examples:
the transfer of information
Black’s transfer to an Italian football club came as a shock to Coventry supporters.

Learner example:
Most of the transfers are controlled by computers.

transform /trænsˈfoːm/

Word family:
Nouns: form, formation, transformation
Verbs: form, transform

VERB [t]
[B2] to change something completely, usually to improve it

Dictionary examples:
Within weeks they had transformed the area into a beautiful garden.
The reorganization will transform the British entertainment industry.

Learner example:
Well these are some ideas that could help transform the cinema with the extra money that is available.

transformation /ˌtræns.ʃəˈmeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: form, formation, transformation
Verbs: form, transform
NOUN [C or U]
[C1] a complete change in the appearance or character of something or someone, especially so that they are improved

Dictionary examples:
Local people have mixed feelings about the planned transformation of their town into a regional capital.
I'd never seen Carlo in smart evening clothes before – it was quite a transformation.

Learner example:
Big shops are also open[ing] and this transformation of the economy is forcing small family businesses and shops to close.

transition /trænˈzɪʃ.ən/

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] when something changes from one system or method to another, often gradually

Dictionary examples:
The health-care system is in transition at the moment.
There will be an interim government to oversee the transition to democracy.

Learner example:
The transition from this period into a more independent one is challenging and exciting, both for us and our parents.

transitive /ˈtræn.zə.tɪv/ SPECIALIZED

ADJECTIVE
[B2] A transitive verb always has an object.

Dictionary example:
Transitive verbs, such as 'put', are marked [T].

translate /trænzˈleɪt/
VERB [i or T]

LANGUAGE

[B1] to change written or spoken words from one language to another

Dictionary examples:
We were asked to translate a list of sentences.
She works for the EU, translating from English into French.

Learner example:
I was ashamed because I needed someone to translate [everything] that the people said to me.

CAUSE

[C2] FORMAL If an idea or plan translates into an action, it makes it happen.

Dictionary example:
So how does this theory translate into practical policy?

Learner example:
This translates into more disposable income.

---

translation /trænˈleɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: translation
Verbs: translate

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] something which has been translated from one language to another, or the process of translating

Dictionary examples:
It's a translation from the original Spanish.
In the second paper they are asked to do a translation.
Much of the beauty of the rhymes is lost in translation.

Learner example:
We [did] some translations and wrote [a] few letters.

---

transmission /trænzˈmɪʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: transmission
Verbs: transmit
NOUN

BROADCAST
[C2] the process of broadcasting something by radio, television, etc., or something which is broadcast

Dictionary example:
radio/satellite transmission

Learner example:
Television channels, for example, can make [a] profit broadcasting the games and this is usually appreciated by the public, provided that the transmission doesn't last the whole day.

SPREADING
[C2] the process of passing something from one person or place to another

Dictionary example:
There is still a risk of transmission of the virus through infected water.

Learner example:
Moreover she teaches philosophy, [...] and at the same time she works for the society as a whole and contributes to the transmission of knowledge.

transmit /trænzˈmit/ (–tt–)

Word family:
Nouns: transmission
Verbs: transmit

VERB

RADIO/TELEVISION
[C1] [I or T] to broadcast something, or to send out or carry signals using radio, television, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Radio 6 transmits on DAB digital.
The information is transmitted electronically to the central computer.

Learner example:
I hope that my explanation is thorough enough for you to be reassured, but if you want to know more about this strike and the problems it has caused, I'd suggest that you see the special programme about it, which will be transmitted on T.V. next Saturday night.

SPREAD
[C2] [T] to pass something from one person or place to another
Dictionary examples:
Cholera is transmitted through contaminated water.
Some diseases are transmitted from one generation to the next.
Somehow your panic and fear transmits itself to the horse that you’re riding.

Learner example:
I think that all parents are bound to transmit values to their children; they do so by their own life, their behaviour – what they really are – more than by what they say.

---
transparent
/ˈtrænˈspær.ənt/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] If a substance or object is transparent, you can see through it very clearly.

Dictionary example:
Grow the bulbs in a transparent plastic box, so the children can see the roots developing.

Learner example:
We loved [it] there, because the sky was [a] clear blue and the sea was transparent.

---
transplant
/ˈtræns.plɑːnt/

NOUN [c]
[C2] an operation in which a new organ is put into someone's body

Dictionary example:
a heart/kidney transplant

Learner example:
I was to do a bone-marrow transplant.

---
transport

Word family:
Nouns: transport, transportation
Verbs: transport

NOUN [u]
/ˈtræn.spɔːt/

VEHICLES
[B1] a vehicle or system of vehicles, such as buses, trains, aircraft, etc. for getting from one place to another
Dictionary examples:
investment in public transport
Do you have your own transport?
Bicycles are a cheap and efficient form of transport.

Learner example:
We'll stay in a hostel [b]ecause it's cheap and we'll use public transport.

GOODS/PEOPLE
[B2] when people or goods are moved from one place to another

Dictionary examples:
the transport of live animals
The company will arrange transport from the airport.

Learner example:
In addition to that, a car is more suitable for the transport of goods.

VERB [T] /ˈtrænˈspɔːt/
[B2] to move people or goods from one place to another

Dictionary examples:
The goods are packed in boxes and transported overseas.
The pipeline was constructed to transport oil to ports on the coast.
Such heavy items are expensive to transport by plane.

Learner example:
At first we chase them in the forests and then put them in small and narrow boxes to be transported to a zoo.

transportation /ˌtræn.ˈspɔːtən/

Word family:
Nouns: transport, transportation
Verbs: transport

NOUN [U]
[C1] when people or goods are moved from one place to another

Dictionary example:
transportation costs

Learner example:
There are also a lot of improvements in transportation.
trap /træp/

NOUN [c]

CATCHING ANIMALS
[B2] a piece of equipment for catching animals

Dictionary examples:
a mouse trap
The fox got its foot caught in a trap.

Learner example:
Angel's horse hurt its leg in a trap for foxes.

DANGEROUS SITUATION
[B2] [USUALLY NO PLURAL] a dangerous or unpleasant situation which is difficult to escape from

Dictionary examples:
The undercover agents went to the house knowing that it might be a trap.
She's too clever to fall into the trap of doing any unpaid work.

Learner example:
With this trap Miss Marple reveals Dr. Quimper's real motive and has him arrested by the police.

VERB [t] (pp-)

be trapped
[B2] If someone or something is trapped, they are unable to move or escape from a place or situation.

Dictionary examples:
The two men died when they were trapped in a burning building.
Fire officers used cutting equipment to free his legs, which were trapped under a steel beam.

Learner example:
We had been trapped in the snowy, almost vertical slopes of the "Mont–Blanc de Cheilou" for more than ten hours by then.

trash /træʃ/

NOUN [u]

[C2] INFORMAL something that is of low quality

Dictionary examples:
I can't believe that someone of his intelligence can read such trash!
There's only trash on the television tonight.
Learner example:
But this trend is changing due to the high competition between the various channels, with the bad consequence that more and more program(me)s are real trash.

trauma /ˈtraː.mə/

Word family:
Nouns: trauma
Adjectives: traumatic

NOUN [c or u]
[C2] Severe shock caused by an unpleasant experience, or the experience which causes this feeling

Dictionary example:
The trauma of marriage breakdown

Learner example:
A child who has never experienced security in his family will certainly become an insecure adult, and from a psychological point of view, many of the adults' problems and inhibitions go back to some negative experience or even trauma in infancy and childhood.

traumatic /trəˈmæt.ɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: trauma
Adjectives: traumatic

ADJECTIVE
[C2] If an experience is traumatic, it makes you feel very shocked and upset.

Dictionary example:
His parents split up when he was eight, which he found very traumatic.

Learner example:
Secondly, I have an innate fear of things moving simultaneously at a fast pace, probably enhanced by the traumatic childhood experience.

travel /ˈtræv.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: traveller
Verbs: travel
VERB (-ll-)

MOVE

[B1] [i] to move or go from one place to another

Dictionary examples:
Supersonic planes can travel faster than the speed of sound.
News of the accident travelled fast.

Learner example:
In the film, there were a lot of space-shuttles that travelled around stars and planets.

NOUN [u]

ACTIVITY

[B1] the activity of travelling

Dictionary examples:
air/space travel
business travel
We share a love of literature, food and travel.
I heard on the travel news that there’d been an accident.

Learner example:
In the travel industry they are looking for Advanced English.

sb’s travels

[C1] someone’s journey

Dictionary example:
I meet all kinds of interesting people on my travels.

Learner example:
In these travels I learnt a lot because we had to deal with very different people.

travel agent /ˈtræv.əlˌeɪ.dʒənt/

NOUN [c]

[B1] someone whose job is making travel arrangements for people

Dictionary example:
She worked for many years as a travel agent.

Learner example:
I am living with a family in London which the travel agent recommended [to] me.
traveller /ˈtræv.ələr/

Word family:
Nouns: traveller
Verbs: travel

NOUN [c]
[B1] someone who travels

Dictionary example:
This hotel is for serious travellers, rather than tourists on two–week package holidays.

Learner example:
Singapore – ‘The Island of Paradise’ – is a place travellers from all around the world would not want to miss.

tray /treɪ/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a flat object, usually with raised edges, used for carrying food and drinks

Dictionary example:
She was carrying a tray of drinks.

Learner example:
Our table had to be cleaned up, so I took a couple of trays, crossed the room and put the trays onto a shelf.

tread /tred/

VERB [I or T] (trod or US ALSO treaded, trod or trodden)
[C2] to put your foot on something or to press something down with your foot

Dictionary examples:
I kept treading on his toes when we were dancing.
Yuck! Look what I’ve just trodden in!
A load of food had been trodden into the carpet.

Learner example:
When my neighbour Victor popped into my flat he saw the toy, a Crimson "Jaguar" produced by Corgitoys, and was impressed as well as I was, so we started playing and then I can vaguely remember what happened but [the] next thing was that "Jaguar" smashed to smithereens as if someone had trodden on it.
treasure /ˈtreʒ.ə/

NOUN

GOLD/JEWELS, ETC.
[B2] [u] very valuable things, usually in the form of a store of precious metals, precious stones or money

Dictionary examples:
Stories about pirates often include a search for buried treasure.
When they opened up the tomb they found treasure beyond their wildest dreams.

Learner example:
It was said that King Arthur had hid[d]en his treasure in a cave near his castle and he was the only [one] who knew where [it] was located.

VALUABLE OBJECT
[C2] [c] a very valuable object

Dictionary example:
art treasures

Learner example:
For all these reasons I believe that certain objects become valuable treasures to us.

VERB
[C2] If you treasure something, it is very important to you and gives you a lot of pleasure.

Dictionary example:
I shall treasure those memories of her.

Learner example:
Restlessness and creativity, physical and spiritual health, falling in love and receiving love can offer such moments, [which] a person could treasure for the rest of his or her life.

treat /triːt/

Word family:
Nouns: treatment
Verbs: treat

VERB [T]

DEAL WITH
[B2] to behave towards or deal with someone in a particular way
Dictionary examples:
My parents treated us all the same when we were kids.
He treated his wife very badly.
They treat her like one of their own children.
She felt she'd been unfairly treated by her employer.

Learner example:
I'll treat them like my own son and daughter.

MEDICAL
[B2] to give medical care to someone for an illness or injury

Dictionary examples:
He is being treated for a rare skin disease.
Western medicine tends to treat the symptoms and not the cause.

Learner example:
I have also worked for the "Red Cross" so I know how to treat injuries, if someone gets hurt.

CONSIDER
[B2] to consider something in a particular way

Dictionary example:
He treated my suggestion as a joke.

Learner example:
It was [a] horrible experience, beli[e]ve me, but now we treat it as an adventure.

SPECIAL
[B2] to do or buy something special for someone

Dictionary example:
I'm going to treat them to dinner at that new restaurant.

Learner example:
There is one nice pub, of course I'll treat you!

NOUN
[C2] something special which you buy or do for someone else or for yourself

Dictionary examples:
a birthday treat
As a special treat I'm taking him out for dinner.
Annie, put your money away, this is my treat.

Learner example:
An orange or a banana was a wonderful treat.
treatment /ˈtriːt.mənt/

Word family:
- Nouns: treatment
- Verbs: treat

NOUN [c or u]

MEDICAL

[B2] the use of drugs, exercises, etc. to cure a person of an illness or injury

Dictionary examples:
- free dental treatment
- Perhaps it’s time to try a new course of treatment.
- This disease doesn’t generally respond to treatment.
- There are various treatments for this complaint.

Learner example:
For instance, if I had a child who needed special medical treatment and I was rich then it would make me very happy to be able to pay for an expensive operation and to see my child growing up.

DEALING WITH

[B2] the way you deal with or behave towards someone or something

Dictionary examples:
- There have been complaints about the treatment of prisoners.
- Peter gets special treatment because he knows the boss.

Learner example:
My pet doesn’t need special treatment. All it needs is care and love.

---

treaty /ˈtriː.ti/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a written agreement between two or more countries

Dictionary examples:
- a peace treaty
- the treaty on European union
- We’ve signed a treaty with neighbouring states to limit emissions of harmful gases.

Learner example:
When it is defeated, an extremely hard, humiliating treaty (the treaty of Versailles) leads to begetting the Nazi Monster, who humiliates a "new" scapegoat: the Jews.
trek /ˈtrek/

Word family:
Nouns: trekking, trek

NOUN [C]

[C1] a long, difficult journey that you make by walking

Dictionary example:
They started out on the long trek across the mountains.

Learner example:
SPECIAL ACTIVITIES include a trek through a dense forest and then climbing a hill which is a unique experience for everyone. For the bolder there is something more extreme.

trekking /ˈtrekɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: trekking, trek

NOUN [U]

[B2] when you go on a long, difficult journey on foot

Dictionary example:
We want to go trekking in the Himalayas.

Learner example:
I hear she's going to Africa for some trekking.

tremble /ˈtrem.bl/

VERB [I]

[B2] to shake slightly, usually because you are cold, frightened, or very emotional

Dictionary examples:
When he came out of the water, he was trembling with cold.
Her bottom lip trembled and tears welled up in her eyes.
His voice started to tremble and I thought he was going to cry.

Learner example:
It was Tuesday the 13th and the fact that I was very superstitious made me tremble with fear.
tremendous  /trɪˈmen.dəs/

Word family:

Adjectives: tremendous

Adverbs: tremendously

ADJECTIVE

GOOD

[B2] extremely good

Dictionary examples:
I think she's doing a tremendous job.
He's been a tremendous help.

Learner example:
I think it would be a tremendous idea to work with you.

LARGE

[B2] very large, great, strong, etc.

Dictionary example:
a tremendous amount of money

Learner example:
I think I certainly could live without watching television for a week, but it would put a tremendous strain on my everyday life.

tremendously  /trɪˈmen.də.sli/

Word family:

Adjectives: tremendous

Adverbs: tremendously

ADVERB

[B2] very or very much

Dictionary examples:
They’ve worked tremendously hard.
We all enjoyed ourselves tremendously.

Learner example:
I enjoyed it tremendously.
trend  /trend/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a general development or change in a situation or in the way that people are behaving

Dictionary examples:
I'm not familiar with the latest trends in teaching methodology.
The trend at the moment is towards a more natural and less made-up look.
Surveys show a trend away from home-ownership and towards rented accommodation.
There's been a downward/upward trend in sales in the last few years.

Learner example:
So the most important thing [about] shopping is that you can talk about the [lat]est news with your friend and look for the newest trends.

trial  /traɪəl/

NOUN [c or u]

IN COURT

[B2] a legal process to decide if someone is guilty of a crime

Dictionary examples:
The two men are now on trial for attempted murder.
He will be taken to the US to stand trial.
Trial by jury is a fundamental right.
It was a very complicated trial that went on for months.
the trial proceedings

Learner example:
The trial was long and had wide coverage [in the] media.

TEST

[C1] a test of something new to find out if it is safe, works correctly, etc.

Dictionary examples:
They're doing clinical trials on a new drug.
They've employed her for a six-month trial period.

Learner example:
At the moment we have [a] special offer which is a free three-month trial period, so you can have an idea of how the Club works.

trial and error

[C2] a way of learning the best way to do something by trying different methods
Dictionary example:
There aren't any instructions with it – it's just a matter of trial and error.

Learner example:
If you don't know the past, you're liable to live through it again as instead of deriving the lessons from someone else's experiences, you'll have to learn them the hard way, by trial and error.

stand trial
[C2] If someone stands trial, they appear in a law court where people decide if they are guilty of a crime.

Dictionary example:
to stand trial for murder

Learner example:
He was going there in order to arrest Christians and bring them to Jerusalem to stand trial for their treason.

triangle /ˈtraɪ.æŋ.gl/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a flat shape with three straight sides

Dictionary examples:
an equilateral triangle
There's a small triangle of land to one side of the house.

Learner example:
On the right, two cherry trees and an apple tree are placed [in the] shape [of] a triangle.

tribal /ˈtraɪ.bəl/

Word family:
Nouns: tribe
Adjectives: tribal

ADJECTIVE
[C2] relating to a tribe

Dictionary examples:
tribal dress/leaders
The fierce tribal loyalty among soccer supporters leads to violence between opposing fans.

Learner example:
It magnificently establishes a parallel between the tragic demise of an outstanding Ibo man named Okonkwo and the cultural as well as religious downfall of his entire clan and generally the disintegration of African tribal life.
tribb /traɪb/

Word family:

Nouns: tribe

Adjectives: tribal

NOUN [C + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB]

[B2] a group of people who live together, usually in areas far away from cities, and who share the same culture and language and still have a traditional way of life.

Dictionary examples:

- a tribe of Amazonian Indians
- the Masai tribe

Learner example:

Then I went South to Mali and visited the Dagan tribe whose mythology and rituals interest me a great deal.

tribute /ˈtrɪb.juːt/

noun

[C2] [C or u] something which you do or say to show that you respect and admire someone, especially in a formal situation.

Dictionary examples:

- Tributes have been pouring in from all over the world for Michael Jackson, who died yesterday.
- For wedding bouquets, floral tributes and all your flower needs, call Mandy's Florists.

Learner example:

The only thing she insisted on, over the telephone, was that Newton's "Amazing Gra[c]e" should be sung as her last personal tribute to her mother.

pay tribute to sb/sth

[C2] to thank someone or say that you admire someone or something, especially in public.

Dictionary example:

- He paid tribute to his former teacher.

Learner example:

Although it may not seem so, this is just a way of paying tribute to Mahatma Gand[h]i, since he always encouraged people to return to their traditions and c[ustom]s.
trick  /trɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: trick
Verbs: trick
Adjectives: tricky

NOUN [C]

DECEIVE
[B1] something you do to deceive or cheat someone, or to make someone look stupid as a joke

Dictionary examples:
She played a really nasty trick on me – she put syrup in my shampoo bottle!
It's a bit of trick photography – she's meant to look like she's walking on water.

Learner example:
At my first lesson, Jim decided to play a trick on us!

MAGIC
[B1] something that is done to entertain people and that seems to be magic

Dictionary examples:
a card trick
My niece likes to do magic tricks for us.

Learner example:
She did some magic tricks.

METHOD
[B2] an effective or quick way of doing something

Dictionary examples:
What's the trick to getting this chair to fold up?
On page 21, twenty tricks to speed up your beauty routine.

Learner example:
I like all kinds of sports: swimming, volleyball, football, bowling, golf, and so on. I hope that [by] joining your club I will learn all the rules and tricks of these sports.

do the trick
[C2] If something does the trick, it solves a problem or has the result you want.

Dictionary example:
If I've got a headache, a couple of aspirins usually do the trick.

Learner example:
Using aromatherapy oil and scented candles always did the trick when she wanted to relax.
VERB [T]
[B2] to deceive someone

Dictionary example:
They tricked him into signing the papers.

Learner example:
After they explained everything to him, he then knew he was being tricked by them.

tricky /ˈtrɪk.i/

Word family:
Nouns: trick
Verbs: trick
Adjectives: tricky

ADJECTIVE
[B2] difficult to deal with or do

Dictionary examples:
Those bird models are quite tricky to make, aren't they?
I'm in a tricky situation really – whatever I do I'll offend someone.

Learner example:
I think Chris is more sensitive than you and she has taken into account how tricky that route could turn out to be.

trigger /ˈtrɪɡ.ər/

VERB [T]
[C1] to make something begin to happen

Dictionary examples:
Some people find that certain foods trigger their headaches.
The racial killings at the weekend have triggered off a wave of protests.

Learner example:
Motivation is triggered and influenced by many factors.

trilogy /ˈtrɪl.ə.dʒi/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a series of three books, plays, films, etc. with the same characters or subject
Dictionary example:
This is the first in his trilogy about India.

Learner example:
The Terminator trilogy might be one of the most obvious examples, where machines evolve beyond our control and nearly exterminate all human beings.

trio  /ˈtriː.əʊ/

NOUN (PLURAL trios)
[C2] [c + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] a group of three things or people, especially three musicians who play together

Dictionary examples:
Many jazz trios consist of a piano, guitar and double bass.
There was disappointment for our trio of 200 metre runners, all of whom failed to reach the final.

Learner example:
The rest of the evening saw a few other music students showing off their potential and it ended with an unplugged title sung by a trio composed of female singers.

trip  /trip/

VERB [i] (−pp−)
[B2] to fall or almost fall because you hit your foot on something when you are walking or running

Dictionary examples:
Careful you don't trip over the cat!
He tripped on a stone and hurt his ankle.

Learner example:
We got in the house and it was so dark in there that I couldn't see anything. Then I tripped over a box, I believe.

triumph  /ˈtraɪ.ʌmpf/

NOUN
SUCCESS
[C1] [c] an important success, achievement, or victory
Dictionary examples:
Barcelona’s 3–1 triumph over Manchester United
The book celebrates the hostages’ remarkable triumph over appalling adversity.
The signing of the agreement was a personal triumph for the Prime Minister.
It was the Republican Party’s third election triumph in a row.
The eradication of smallpox by vaccination was one of medicine’s greatest triumphs.

Learner example:
In addition to this the dinner we had on Monday afternoon was a triumph.

FEELING
[C2] [u] the feeling of happiness that you have when you win something or succeed

Dictionary example:
They couldn't conceal their triumph at the result.

Learner example:
He said to himself "Yes, it was me, it was because of me' and a spurt of triumph went through him".

trivial /ˈtrɪv.i.əl/
ADJECTIVE
[B2] small and not important

Dictionary examples:
It's a fairly trivial offence.
It may seem trivial to you but it matters to me.
Sexual harassment in the workplace is not a trivial matter.

Learner example:
All this may seem trivial [and] unimportant to an ordinary man addicted to [his] TV set.

trolley /ˈtrɒl.i/
NOUN [C]
[B2] a metal object with two or four wheels that you push or pull to transport large or heavy objects on

Dictionary examples:
a shopping/supermarket trolley
The hospital is so overcrowded that some patients are being treated on trolleys in the corridors.

Learner example:
Sometimes customers' trolleys run into each other and they have to wait ages to go through check-[out].
troops /truːps/

NOUN [PLURAL]
[C2] soldiers on duty in a large group

Dictionary examples:
The major powers have said they will not send in ground troops. All troops will be withdrawn by the end of the year.

Learner example:
They died almost [at] the end of the war, when the Russian troops were already in Berlin.

trophy /ˈtrəʊ.fɪ/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a prize, such as a silver cup, that you get for winning a race or competition

Dictionary examples:
He’s an excellent snooker player, but he’s never won a major trophy. The Duchess of Kent will be presenting the trophies.

Learner example:
How about organising some competitions with pri[z]es, like a trophy??

tropical /ˈtrɒp.ɪ.kəl/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] from or in the hottest parts of the world

Dictionary examples:
a tropical island/region/climate a tropical storm
She specialises in tropical medicine. The Amazon river basin contains the world's largest tropical rainforest.

Learner example:
There were special tropical flowers from Brazil and East Asia.

trouble /ˈtrʌb.l̩/

Word family:
Nouns: trouble
Adjectives: troubled DIFFICULTIES
[B1] [c or u] problems, difficulties, or worries

Dictionary examples:
Parents often have trouble finding restaurants that welcome young children.
The form was terribly complicated and I had a lot of trouble with it.
The trouble started when my father came to live with us.
I should get it finished over the weekend without too much trouble.
I'd like to go to the party, but the trouble is my parents won't let me.

Learner example:
I've decided to take this class because I felt I had some trouble spelling words.

PUNISHMENT
[B1] [u] when you have done something wrong and are likely to be punished

Dictionary examples:
Her children are always in trouble.
They got into trouble with the police.
He's never been in trouble with his teachers before.
She'll be in big trouble if she's late again.
It's a great way of getting kids off the street and keeping them out of trouble.

Learner example:
Telling the truth keeps me out of trouble.

EXTRA WORK
[B2] [u] when you use extra time or energy to do something

Dictionary examples:
He took the trouble to write to each of them personally.
"Would you like to have a meal with us?" "Only if it's not too much trouble."
I could give you a lift – it's no trouble.

Learner example:
I hope it's not too much trouble and I swear I will not break anything again.

DIFFICULT SITUATION
[B2] [u] a difficult, unpleasant or dangerous situation

Dictionary examples:
The company was in serious trouble with massive debts.
He got into financial trouble after his divorce.
The marriage ran into trouble because of her husband's heavy drinking.

Learner example:
She opened her eyes and saw that she was in serious trouble because it was much too[o] late.
the trouble with sb/sth

[B2] used to say what is wrong with someone or something

Dictionary examples:
The trouble with a white floor is that it gets dirty so quickly.
The trouble with John is that he doesn't think before he speaks.

Learner example:
In fact he thought that the trouble with going by bicycle is that you are always late if you live far from school.

FIGHTING

[B2] [u] a situation in which people are fighting or arguing

Dictionary examples:
The trouble started after a group of drunken football fans started to throw bottles.
Listen, I don't want any trouble in here, so please just finish your drink and leave.

Learner example:
When we arrived, there had been two men eating on the table just next to us, but they had disapp[eared when the trouble started.

NOT WORKING

[C2] [u] a problem that you have with a machine or part of your body

Dictionary examples:
The plane developed engine trouble shortly after takeoff.
They have a good reputation for building reliable trouble-free cars.
Her knee trouble is expected to keep her out of the game for the rest of the season.

Learner example:
This was clearly demonstrated by the incident a few weeks ago when one aircraft had engine trouble just over our area and barely managed to get to the airport in time for landing.

---

troubled /ˈtrʌb.lɪd/

Word family:

Nouns: trouble

Adjectives: troubled

ADJECTIVE

[C1] having problems or difficulties

Dictionary examples:
a troubled expression
The survival package involves selling off the unprofitable parts of the troubled company.
This troubled region has had more than its fair share of wars over the centuries.
In these troubled times, it makes a change to hear some good news.
Learner example:
But you realize how much you can cope with if only you help each other and stick together in troubled times.

troublesome /ˈtrʌbl.əm/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] causing a lot of problems, especially over a long period of time

Dictionary example:
a troublesome knee injury

Learner example:
This is normal for people who tend to work abroad – they are aware of the dangers and they can protect themselves from troublesome situations.

truck /trʌk/

NOUN [C]

[B1] (UK also lorry) a large road vehicle for carrying goods from place to place

Dictionary examples:
The road was completely blocked by an overturned truck.
a truck driver

Learner example:
My bed[room] ha[s] drawings of trucks and motorbike[s].

trudge /trʌdʒ/

VERB

trudge along/through/up, etc.

[C2] to walk slowly with heavy steps, especially because you are tired

Dictionary example:
We trudged back up the hill.

Learner example:
We've been trudging through that snow for ages and I can't see an end coming!
true /truː:/

Word family:
Nouns: truth
Adjectives: true
Adverbs: truly

ADJECTIVE

REAL
[B1] [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] real

Dictionary examples:
true love
a true friend
The true horror of the accident did not become clear until the morning.

Learner example:
The film we saw was so nice. It [was] about true friends.

come true
[B1] If a dream or hope comes true, it really happens.

Dictionary examples:
I'd always dreamt of owning my own house, but I never thought it would come true.
After all the problems I'd had, Oliver's birth was a dream come true.

Learner example:
I had been dreaming of going to London since I started learning English, and now that my dream had come true, I was over[whelmed] by joy and feeling very lucky.

SINCERE
[C2] sincere or loyal, and likely to continue to be so even in a difficult situation

Dictionary examples:
There are few true believers in communism left in the party.
She has vowed to remain true to the president whatever happens.

Learner example:
There are those who remain true to every sport's true goals, the pursuit of excellence in whatever sports one competes in.

truly /ˈtruː.li/
ADVERB

Yours truly,  FORMAL US
[B1] used to end a letter

Dictionary example:
I look forward to hearing from you. Yours truly, Taylor Champinski.

Learner example:
Dear Clyde, . . . I hope my advice helps you [with] your decision. Yours truly,

VERY
[B2] used to emphasize a description of something

Dictionary examples:
This is a truly remarkable achievement.
It was a truly terrifying experience.

Learner example:
Those concerts are truly eye-opening.

SINCERELY
[C1] used to emphasize that something is sincere or honest

Dictionary examples:
Truly I could not have done this without you.
He truly believes he can cure himself by willpower alone.

Learner example:
It would probably take years to achieve it but in the long run I truly believe it would work, as long as everyone is willing to [make] an effort.

trumpet  /ˈtrʌmpɪt/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a metal musical instrument that you play by blowing into it and pressing buttons to make different notes

Dictionary example:
Liz used to play the trumpet.

Learner example:
I play the guitar and John plays the trumpet.
trunk /trʌŋk/

NOUN [c]

[B2] the thick stem of a tree that the branches grow from

Dictionary example:
The trunks of these trees can be more than two metres wide.

Learner example:
Paula found a small hole in the trunk, just near Laura's feet.

---

trust /trʌst/

VERB [\t]

BELIEVE

[B1] to believe that someone is good and honest and will not harm you, or that something is safe and reliable

Dictionary examples:
My sister warned me not to trust him.
Trust me – I know about these things.
I trust her to make the right decision.
That man is not to be trusted.
I wouldn't trust him with my car.

Learner example:
Do not trust him and be careful.

I trust (that) FORMAL

[C1] used to say that you hope something is true

Dictionary example:
I trust that you had an enjoyable stay.

Learner example:
I trust that the suggestions outlined in this report will receive your serious consideration and meet with your approval.

---

NOUN [u]

[B2] the belief that you can trust someone or something

Dictionary examples:
a relationship based on trust and understanding
We were obviously wrong to put our trust in her.
He's in a position of trust.
Learner example:
Now the trial is starting and, as a result, I have lost trust in my friends.

trustworthy  /ˈtrʌstˌwɜː.ði/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] Someone who is trustworthy can be trusted.

Dictionary example:
Bob assured me she was completely trustworthy.

Learner example:
In addition to aforementioned character traits, John could be best described as [a] conscientious, imaginative, creative, sensible and trustworthy man.

truth  /truːθ/

Word family:
Nouns: truth
Adjectives: true
Adverbs: truly

NOUN

the truth
[B1] the real facts about a situation, event or person

Dictionary examples:
But was he telling the truth?
I don't suppose we'll ever know the truth about what happened that day.
To tell (you) the truth I'm quite pleased he's not coming.

Learner example:
To tell the truth, I don't enjoy shopping for clothes.

BEING TRUE
[B2] [u] the quality of being true

Dictionary examples:
There may be some truth in what she says.
There is no truth in the reports of his resignation.
And yet what he says contains at least a grain of truth.

Learner example:
My humble opinion is that this statement is absolute, even though there is a great deal of truth behind it.
TRUE FACT

[C2] [c] a fact or idea that people accept is true

Dictionary example:
moral/religious truths

Learner example:
It was about those universal truths that one seeks all [one's] life and perhaps dies without truly understanding how happy one was.

try /ˈtraɪ/

VERB

TEST

[B1] [t] to do, test, taste, etc. something to discover if it works or if you like it

Dictionary examples:
I tried that recipe you gave me last night.
He tried the door, but the handle was broken.
Why don't you try using a different shampoo?

Learner example:
You should try Hungarian food.

LAW

[C2] [t] to examine facts in a court of law to decide if someone is guilty of a crime

Dictionary example:
He was tried for attempted murder.

Learner example:
I switched on the TV: unemployment had risen again [and] a politician was being tried for corruption. I switched it off.

NOUN [C USUALLY NO PLURAL]

[B2] an attempt to do something

Dictionary examples:
They might just have a place left on the course – why don't you give it a try?
Give it here – I'll have a try.
You could ask him if he's willing – it's worth a try.
This will be her third try at jumping the bar.

Learner example:
I can assure that you will like it, so give it a try.
tube  /tjuːb/

NOUN

CONTAINER
[B1] [c] a long, thin container for a soft substance, that you press to get the substance out Dictionary example:
a tube of toothpaste
Learner example:
And, of course, she got a set of excellent tools and I won only one thing: a tube of modelling glue.

the tube/the Tube
[B1] the system of underground trains in London
Dictionary example:
I got the tube to Russell Square.
Learner example:
The cinema we are going to is near Marble Arch Tube Station.

PIPE
[B2] [c] a pipe made of glass, plastic, metal, etc., especially for liquids or gases to flow through
Dictionary example:
Gases produced in the reaction pass through this tube and can then be collected.
Learner example:
I threw the tube into the river.

tuition  /tjuˈɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [u]
[C1] the teaching of one person or of a small group of people
Dictionary example:
French tuition
Learner example:
The high level of the tuition received from a professional trainer definitely pays off.
tuna /ˈtjuː.nə/

NOUN [C or U] (PLURAL tuna)
[B1] a large sea fish, or the meat from this fish

Dictionary example:
I had a tuna sandwich for lunch.

Learner example:
I'll make tuna with tomatoes, it's delici[ou]s.

tune /tjuːn/

NOUN [C]

MUSICAL NOTES
[C1] a series of musical notes that are pleasant to listen to

Dictionary examples:
That's a very catchy tune.
He was humming a tune as he dried the dishes.

Learner example:
The music to the 2nd video is more light-hearted, and it has a catchy tune that makes you want to tap your foot to its r[h]ythm.

out of tune
[C1] singing or playing the wrong notes

Dictionary example:
The piano is out of tune.

Learner example:
Even if you sing out of tune please call us.

in tune
[C1] singing or playing the right notes

Dictionary example:
Try to stay in tune.

Learner example:
The public was singing in tune with Jag, hands were raised and bodies were slowly [sway]ing.

be in tune with sb/sth
[C2] to understand what someone wants or needs or to understand a situation and act in a way that is suitable for it
Dictionary example:
The government is not in tune with the voters.

Learner example:
I am not exactly in tune with all the latest trends but I know which styles give me the most satisfaction.

tunnel /ˈtʌn.əl/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a long passage under the ground or through a mountain

Dictionary example:
The train went into the tunnel.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, the tunnel was closed so I just had to continue walking on the pathway.

turbulent /ˈtsə.bjə.lənt/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] A turbulent situation, time, etc. is one in which there are a lot of sudden changes, arguments, or violence.

Dictionary example:
a turbulent relationship

Learner example:
We live in a turbulent time and people do not always have enough peace in their minds to question things.

turkey /ˈtɜː.ki/

NOUN [C or U]
[B1] a bird that looks like a large chicken, or the meat of this bird

Dictionary example:
We had turkey for dinner.

Learner example:
I asked for a turkey pie [but] they gave me a beef pie, so they change[d] it for me.
turmoil /ˈtɜː.mɔɪl/

NOUN [U NO PLURAL]
[C2] a situation in which there is a lot of trouble, confusion, or noise

Dictionary example:
The whole region is in turmoil.

Learner example:
Therefore, she finds herself in a state [of confusion], as her feelings are in turmoil.

turn /tɜːn/

Word family:
Nouns: turn, turning
Verbs: turn

VERB

MOVE YOUR BODY
[B1] ['t] to move your body so that you are facing a different direction

Dictionary examples:
Ricky turned and saw Sue standing in the doorway.
She put out the light, turned over and went to sleep.

Learner example:
I turned around and looked into the eyes of my favourite football player Timo Hildebrand.

CHANGE POSITION
[B1] [t] to move something round so that it faces a different direction

Dictionary example:
Ella turned the cup to hide the crack in it.

Learner example:
I turned it over in my hands and looked at it quite carefully.

PAGE
[B1] ['t] or [t] to move a page in a book or magazine in order to see the next one

Dictionary examples:
Now turn the page, please, and start Exercise 2.
He turned over two or three pages.
Now turn to page 23 and look at the first paragraph.
Learner example:
Television helps a lot to make our life easier. But, where is the poetry of handling a book? Yes, there is a lot of poetry, first you handle it, you turn the pages, second you can read any passage, where and when you want.

GO ROUND

[B2] [ or ] to move around a central point in a circle, or to make something do this

Dictionary examples:
Turn the steering wheel as quickly as you can.
The Earth turns on its axis once every 24 hours.
The wheels started to turn (round).
She turned the door knob and quietly opened the door.

Learner example:
It's not like sitting on a bike and just turning the pedals, in this case you work only your legs.

turn blue/cold/nasty, etc.

[B2] to become blue, cold, nasty, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The sky turned black and it started to rain.
The weather has suddenly turned cold.
When I refused to pay, he turned nasty.
She turned pale and started to shiver.

Learner example:
His friends began to laugh and my face turned red.

turn 16/21, etc.

[C1] to become a particular age

Dictionary example:
He turned 18 last May.

Learner example:
One of the best things when you turn 17 in Britain is that you can start to take driving lessons.

turn a blind eye (to sth)

[C1] to choose to ignore something that you know is wrong or illegal

Dictionary example:
Restaurant staff often took food home, and their boss turned a blind eye.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, we can't turn a blind eye to this reality.

in turn

[C1] as a result of something that is part of a series of events
Dictionary example:
This could result in the loss of certain species of fish and this in turn poses a serious threat to the fishing communities along the river banks.

Learner example:
This, in turn, enabled them to find jobs and become financially independent from their husbands.

turn your back on sb/sth
[C2] to decide to stop having contact with someone or something, or to refuse to help someone

Dictionary example:
She turned her back on Hollywood and went to live in Florida.

Learner example:
She gets to learn that Olivia turned her back on her past and merged totally with India through her attraction to and sympathy for the Nawab.

turn your nose up at sth INFORMAL
[C2] to not accept something because you do not think it is good enough for you

Dictionary example:
He turned his nose up at my offer of soup, saying he wanted a proper meal.

Learner example:
Moreover, she will not turn her nose up at anybody who might be considered less worthy than her.

turn over a new leaf
[C2] to start to behave in a better way

Dictionary example:
I'm not drinking any more – I've turned over a new leaf.

Learner example:
She promised to turn over a new leaf.

toss and turn
[C2] be unable to sleep properly

Dictionary example:
I was tossing and turning for most of the night.

Learner example:
As she tossed and turned, unable to sleep, she started [going over] the events that had taken place before that evening.

NOUN

TIME
[B1] [c] the time when you can or must do something, usually before or after someone else
Dictionary examples:
Is it my turn yet?
It’s your turn to do the washing up!
In this game if you give the wrong answer you have to miss a turn.

Learner example:
I really enjoy[ed] the holidays in England with you, so now it’s my turn to invite you to come to my country, Peru.

take turns or take it in turns [B2] When a number of people take turns, they do the same thing one after the other.

Dictionary examples:
We take turns to answer the phone.
They all took turns carrying the suitcase.

Learner example:
I suggest that each family takes turns to cut the grass once a week.

CHANGE IN DIRECTION
[B2] [C] a change in the direction in which you are moving or facing

Dictionary examples:
a left/right turn
We got as far as the school, and there we had to make a right turn.

in turn
[C1] one after the other

Dictionary examples:
Each of us collects the mail in turn.
He spoke to the three boys in turn.

Learner example:
We had two different teachers in the mornings and in the afternoons in turn.

in turn
[C1] as a result of something

Dictionary example:
He took out more loans, which, in turn, led to more debt.

Learner example:
People will study for a range of degrees, which may imply that a lot of new jobs, mainly related to computers, will gain importance, which, in turn, could result in a better organization of the jobs and, as a consequence, a reduction in the unemployment rate.

take a turn for the better/worse
[C2] to become better or worse suddenly
Dictionary example:
The weather took a turn for the better.

Learner example:
Despite all the environmental problems it is up to us to prevent things from taking a turn for the worse.

the turn of the century
[C2] the start of a new century

Dictionary example:
He was born at the turn of the century.

turn of events
[C2] the way in which a situation develops, especially a sudden or unexpected change

Dictionary example:
We were all shocked by this tragic turn of events.

Learner example:
She was not prepared for such an unexpected turn of events!

turning /ˈtɜːn.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: turn, turning
Verbs: turn

NOUN [C]
[B1] a corner where one road meets another

Dictionary example:
Take the first turning on the left.

Learner example:
Then, take the second turning on the left and go along that road until you get to the roundabout.

turnover /ˈtɜːnˌəʊ.və/
Learner example:
For instance, clothes shops in Barcelona expect a big turnover in August because of the amount of tourists that will visit the city.

EMPLOYEES
[C2] [u NO PLURAL] the rate at which workers leave an organization and new workers join it

Dictionary example:
The high turnover among daycare workers is an ongoing problem.

Learner example:
What used to amaze me was the very low staff turnover and I wondered what the secret was.

tutor /ˈtjuː.tə/
NOUN [c]
[B2] someone who teaches one person or a very small group of people

Dictionary example:
a private tutor

Learner example:
We could afford t[rips] abroad, modern labour-saving devices and private tutors.

twenty /ˈtwen.ti/
NUMBER

(be) in your twenties
[B2] to be aged between 20 and 29

Dictionary example:
Most of the staff are in their twenties.

Learner example:
Teenagers and people in their twenties will enjoy themselves in the atmosphere of the rock-café.

the twenties
[B2] the years from 1920–1929

Dictionary example:
I love the fashions of the twenties.

Learner example:
You can find the car [that] won the first car race in the world, [and] lost movies from the twenties.
twice /ˈtwʌɪs/

ADVERB

think twice
[C1] to carefully consider whether what you are planning is a good idea

dictionary example:
I'd think twice about spending so much money on one thing, if I were you.

Learner example:
Now I will think twice before I buy your paper again.

not think twice
[C1] to do something immediately, without considering whether it is a good idea

dictionary example:
When he asked me out, I didn't think twice!

Learner example:
Your advertisement seemed very convincing and as I intended to travel to exotic locations I did not think twice.

twin /ˈtɪn/

noun [C]
[B1] one of two children who are born to the same mother at the same time

dictionary examples:
My sister has twin sons.
a twin sister

Learner example:
I have twin cousins there and I love them [very] much.

twist /twɪst/

word family:
verbs: twist adjectives: twisted

verb

injure
[C1] [ɪ] If you twist a part of your body, such as your knee, you injure it by turning it suddenly.
Dictionary example:
I tripped and twisted my ankle.

Learner example:
The worst part is, that we had an older lady within our group who had twisted her an[k]le so she was somewhat disabled at the time.

TURN
[C2] [ɪ] to turn something in a circle using your hand

Dictionary example:
She sat there nervously twisting the ring around on her finger.

TURN YOUR BODY
[C2] [ɪ] or [r] to turn part of your body to face a different direction

Dictionary example:
She twisted her head so she could see what was happening.

Learner example:
Through the right wing of the car I could [see] his eyes glitter like two flawless diamonds as he twisted his neck slightly from time to time to beam at me.

CHANGE MEANING
[C2] [r] to change the meaning of something so that it fits what you want it to mean

Dictionary example:
You keep twisting my words – that's not what I meant at all!

Learner example:
Some members of the board twisted her words.

NOUN [c]
[C1] an unexpected change in a situation or in a story

Dictionary example:
His arrest was just the latest twist in the story of his life.

Learner example:
The plot takes several twists and turns till the conclusion which sums up the contents of the film.

twisted /ˈtwɪstɪd/

Word family:
Verbs: twist
Adjectives: twisted
ADJECTIVE

BENT

[B2] bent so that the original shape is changed or destroyed

Dictionary examples:
a twisted tree trunk a twisted ankle twisted metal

Learner example:
When I got there, a very nice nurse told me that I've got a twisted ankle and I cannot walk for one week!

STRANGE

[C2] strange and slightly unpleasant or cruel

Dictionary example:
He'd become bitter and twisted.

Learner example:
Sometimes her morality seems a little twisted.

two /tuː/

NUMBER

or two

[C1] used to talk about a small number of something

Dictionary example:
I may bring a friend or two.

Learner example:
I also refused to eat any meal a day or two before the test but my mother made me, she said I needed the energy to be happy and celebrate afterwards.

be in two minds

[C1] to have difficulty making a decision

Dictionary example:
I'm in two minds about accepting his offer.

Learner example:
If you are in two minds about having to share your room with someone else, there you can easily rent a studio apartment close to the college, which is situated in the centre of the city.
type /taɪp/

Word family:
Nouns: type
Adjectives: typical Adverbs: typically

NOUN [c]

PERSON
[C1] someone who has particular qualities or interests

Dictionary example:
He's the outdoor type.

Learner example:
Usually these adults are the hardworking type and save money for the future.

not be sb's type INFORMAL [C2] to not be the type of person that someone thinks is attractive

Dictionary example:
I like Bertrand but he's not really my type.

Learner example:
It's true that he wasn't handsome, not at all the type she had used to prefer, but when he smiled, that wonderful smile that made his eyes sparkle, she realised, quite dazzled, that he was beautiful.

VERB [i or T]
[B1] to write something using a keyboard

Dictionary examples:
She asked me to type a couple of letters.
He can type very quickly.
I was typing away into the early hours of the morning just to get the thing finished.

Learner example:
I'm typing this email to ask your permission to borrow your bicycle.

typical /ˈtɪp.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: type
Adjectives: typical Adverbs: typically
ADJECTIVE

[B1] having all the qualities you expect a particular person, object, place, etc. to have

Dictionary examples:
I must look like the typical tourist with my shorts and my camera.
This sort of hot and spicy food is very typical of the food in the south of the country.
Typical symptoms would include severe headaches, vomiting and dizziness.

Learner example:
This film is a typical horror film.

typically /ˈtɪp.ɪ.kli/

Word family:
Nouns: type
Adjectives: typical Adverbs: typically

ADVERB

USUALLY

[B1] used for saying what usually happens

Dictionary examples:
Typically, a doctor will see about thirty patients a day.
Tickets for such events will typically cost around thirty dollars.

Learner example:
The climate of Brazil is typically tropical so the weather is gorgeous.

EXPECTED CHARACTERISTICS

[B2] in a way that shows all the characteristics that you would expect from the stated person, thing or group

Dictionary examples:
She has that reserve and slight coldness of manner which is typically English.
Paul, in typically rude fashion, told him he was talking rubbish.

Learner example:
Your wife really made an effort to cook me typically English dishes.
ugly /ˈʌg.li/

ADJECTIVE

NOT BEAUTIFUL

[B1] unpleasant to look at

Dictionary example:
an ugly building/city

Learner example:
There are lots of trees and bushes, [and] lots of fresh air, but the city itself is quite ugly.

SITUATION

[C2] An ugly situation is very unpleasant, usually because it involves violence.

Dictionary example:
There were ugly scenes outside the stadium.

Learner example:
Just think about the ugly situation of being in a fully-booked hotel and then the staff goes on strike.

ultimate /ˈʌl.tɪ.mət/

Word family:
Adjectives: ultimate
Adverbs: ultimately

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

MOST

[B2] better, greater or worse than all similar things

Dictionary examples:
Climbing Mount Everest is the ultimate challenge.
the ultimate luxury cruise
For me, rats are the ultimate horror.

Learner example:
Being on the road is always better than the arrival, so this journey would be the ultimate journey for me as well.
FINAL
[C1] final or most important

Dictionary example:
the ultimate aim/solution

Learner example:
The ultimate aim [when] I joined your tour was to meet one of my friends in St Andrews.

ultimately /ˈʌlt.ɪ.mə.tli/

Word family:
Adjectives: ultimate
Adverbs: ultimately

ADVERB
FINALLY
[C1] finally, after a series of things have happened

Dictionary examples:
Everything will ultimately depend on what is said at the meeting with the directors next week. Ultimately, of course, he'd like to have his own business but that won't be for some time.

Learner example:
Ultimately, it leads to a lot of diseases and early death.

EMPHASIS
[C2] used to emphasize the most important fact in a situation

Dictionary example:
Ultimately, he'll have to decide.

Learner example:
Ultimately, that is why we are influenced by other people's personalities.

unable /ˈæn.ə.bl/
Dictionary example:
We were unable to contact him at the time.

Learner example:
I was just shocked, and unable to speak at all, or to breathe.

unacceptable /ˌʌn.əkˈsep.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: acceptance
Verbs: accept
Adjectives: acceptable, unacceptable, accepted

ADJECTIVE
[B2] too bad to be allowed to continue

Dictionary examples:
The water contains unacceptable levels of pollution.
I find that sort of behaviour completely unacceptable.
The unions have described the latest pay offer as unacceptable.

Learner example:
So I waited for 45 minutes until the show started. [T]hat is an unacceptable delay.

unaffected /ˌʌn.əˈfek.təd/

Word family:
Verbs: affect Adjectives: unaffected

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not changed by something

Dictionary example:
Smaller colleges will be unaffected by the new regulations.

Learner example:
Only a genius could stay unaffected by such idolatry.

unaffordable /ʌn.əˈfɔːdə.bl/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] too expensive for people to be able to buy

Dictionary example:
Such clothes are unaffordable for most people.

Learner example:
£5 per session is obviously unaffordable for students.

unanimous /juːˈnæn.ɪ.məs/

Word family:
Adjectives: unanimous
Adverbs: unanimously

ADJECTIVE
[C2] agreed by everyone

Dictionary example:
The jury was unanimous in finding him guilty.

Learner example:
Having spoken to neighbours, we reached a unanimous decision that the route of the aircraft should be changed immediately so that they no longer disrupt our lives.

unanimously /juːˈnæn.ɪ.məs.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: unanimous
Adverbs: unanimously

ADVERB
[C2] with agreement from everyone

Dictionary example:
We agreed unanimously that he was the best candidate.

Learner example:
While it is true that there are quite a few opposing theories about losing weight, doctors unanimously agree that a hedonistic approach to eating can lead to unpleasant health issues like obesity.
unattainable /ˌʌn.əˈteɪ.nə.bl/

Word family:
Verbs: attain
Adjectives: attainable, unattainable

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not able to be achieved

Dictionary examples:
an unattainable ideal
Some economists think that full employment in Europe is an unattainable goal.

Learner example:
The ability to permanently record thought opened new dimensions to fields like philosophy, poetry and literature, enabling them to reach a degree of complexity, creativity and longevity unattainable by previous technologies.

---

unattractive /ˌʌn.əˈtræk.tɪv/

Word family:
Nouns: attraction
Verbs: attract
Adjectives: attractive, unattractive

ADJECTIVE
NOT BEAUTIFUL
[B2] not beautiful or nice to look at

Dictionary examples:
I felt old and unattractive.
Their new building is very unattractive.

Learner example:
This information is useful for [a person] who thinks his/her body is unattractive.

NOT INTERESTING
[C1] not interesting or useful

Dictionary example:
an unattractive proposition

Learner example:
In our opinion, despite the friendly atmosphere of our club’s meetings we find them very unattractive and rather "dull".

3176 unavailable /ˌʌn.əˈveɪ.lə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: availability
Adjectives: available, unavailable

ADJECTIVE

IMPOSSIBLE TO GET

[B2] impossible to buy or get

Dictionary example:
The book is unavailable in Britain.

Learner example:
The third point was that the discount[ed] tickets were unavailable.

CANNOT DO SOMETHING

[C1] not able to talk to someone or meet them, especially because you are doing other things

Dictionary example:
The manager was unavailable for comment.

Learner example:
Furthermore, a role-model for the younger generation could be the famous tennis player Joe Hill, who unfortunately is unavailable to give an interview.

---

unavoidable /ˌʌn.əˈvɔɪ.də.bl/

Word family:
Verbs: avoid
Adjectives: avoidable
Adverbs: unavoidably

ADJECTIVE

[C1] impossible to avoid or prevent

Dictionary example:
an unavoidable delay

Learner example:
Being aware of the two proposals our local government is considering in order to solve the apparently unavoidable matter of traffic in our beloved city, I feel compelled to offer my views on such a delicate subject.
unavoidably /ˌʌnəˈvɔɪ.də.bli/

Word family:
Verbs: avoid
Adjectives: unavoidable
Adverbs: unavoidably

Adverb

[C2] in a way that could not be avoided or prevented

Dictionary example:
She was unavoidably delayed.

Learner example:
Even if you go abroad on your own, you unavoidably meet people [from] your country or speaking your native language.

unaware /ˌʌn.əˈweər/

Adjective [never before noun]

[B2] not knowing about something

Dictionary examples:
He was unaware that the police were watching him.
I was quite unaware of the problem.

Learner example:
Although you may be an expert in one subject you can be unaware [of] some basics in others.

unbalanced /ʌnˈbæl.ənst/

Word family:
Nouns: balance
Verbs: balance
Adjectives: balanced, unbalanced

Adjective

Mentally ill

[C2] slightly mentally ill

Dictionary example:
After his death, she became slightly unbalanced.

Learner example:
Many homeless people are mentally unbalanced, some are addicted to chemical substances.
NOT FAIR
[C2] false and not fair

Dictionary example:
He gave an unbalanced view of the situation.

Learner example:
I think that if a school measures a child solely by his or her academic success, it will be an unbalanced and narrow-minded method to measure a child and his or her ability as a whole person.

unbearable /ˈʌnˈbeərə.bl/

Word family:
Verbs: bear
Adjectives: unbearable

ADJECTIVE
[B2] too painful or unpleasant for you to continue to experience

Dictionary example:
The heat was almost unbearable.

Learner example:
Life can be very difficult, almost unbearable sometimes.

unbelievable /ˌʌn.bəˈliː.və.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: belief
Verbs: believe Adjectives: unbelievable

ADJECTIVE

SURPRISING
[B1] extremely bad or good and making you feel surprised

Dictionary examples:
It's unbelievable how lucky she's been.
You've had such bad luck – it's unbelievable.

Learner example:
The food is unbelievable and I'm sure you'll love it.

UNLIKELY
[B2] not probable and difficult to believe
Dictionary example:
I found most of the characters in the play totally unbelievable.

Learner example:
They made up unbelievable stories which almost made them cry in the end.

unbiased /ʌnˈbaɪəst/

Word family:
Nouns: bias
Adjectives: biased, unbiased

ADJECTIVE
[C2] able to judge fairly because you are not influenced by your own opinions

Dictionary example:
He was able to give me some unbiased advice.

Learner example:
If you take into consideration only certain subjects, you are likely to end up despising other fields of knowledge, whereas the main point of education is to give an unbiased view of our own and foreign cultures.

uncertain /ʌnˈsɜː.tn/

Word family:
Nouns: certainty, uncertainty
Adjectives: certain, uncertain Adverbs: certainly

ADJECTIVE

NOT SURE
[B2] not sure or not able to decide about something

Dictionary examples:
She's uncertain whether to go to New Zealand or not.
Bridie was uncertain about meeting him.

Learner example:
[There are] things that I am uncertain about, and [that I would] be grateful if you c[ould] explain.

NOT KNOWN
[B2] not known or fixed, or not completely certain

Dictionary examples:
New arrivals face an uncertain future.
The political outlook is still uncertain.
Learner example:
Please do not bother posting them since we do not have a zip code where I live, and they might get lost with our uncertain Post Service.

\textbf{in no uncertain terms} \\
\textit{[C2] in a direct and often angry way}

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
I told him to go away in no uncertain terms.

\textbf{Learner example:}
Intellectuals are used to saying in no uncertain terms that money represents the bad side of the sport.

\textbf{uncertainty} /\textipa{ʌnˈsɜː.tn.ti}/

\textbf{Word family:}
\textbf{Nouns:} certainty, uncertainty
\textbf{Adjectives:} certain, uncertain \textbf{Adverbs:} certainly

\textbf{NOUN} [u]
\textbf{[C1]} the state of being uncertain

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
There was a lot of uncertainty about whether or not he would attend the event.

\textbf{Learner example:}
The shortages of almost everything we have to face and cope with have made our lives full of uncertainty and helplessness, but on the other hand they released in some Poles enormous energy, in the effort to support their families and provide them with food, clothing and fuel.

\textbf{unchanged} /\textipa{ʌnˈtʃeɪnd3d}/

\textbf{Word family:}
\textbf{Nouns:} change
\textbf{Verbs:} change
\textbf{Adjectives:} unchanged, changeable

\textbf{ADJECTIVE}
\textbf{[B2] staying the same}

\textbf{Dictionary example:}
The area has \textit{remained} virtually unchanged in fifty years.
Learner example:
All the big and small things which defin[e] people’s personal environment will be left nearly unchanged – the furniture, the pictures on the wall.... I suppose our future homes will be a mix of new technologies and good old tradition.

unclear /ʌnˈklɪər/

Word family:
Verbs: clear
Adjectives: clear, unclear
Adverbs: clearly

ADJECTIVE

DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND
[B2] not easy to understand

Dictionary examples:
The situation at the moment is unclear.
It’s unclear what actually happened that night.
It’s unclear whether he arrived before or after the shot was fired.

Learner example:
If something is unclear please give me a call.

be unclear about sth
[B2] If you are unclear about something, you are not certain about it.

Dictionary example:
I’m unclear about a couple of points in your proposal – could you go over them again?

uncomfortable /ʌnˈkʌmfər.təb(ə)l/

Word family:
Nouns: comfort, discomfort
Verbs: comfort
Adjectives: comfortable, uncomfortable, comforting
Adverbs: comfortably, uncomfortably

ADJECTIVE

NOT COMFORTABLE
[B1] not feeling comfortable and pleasant, or not making you feel comfortable and pleasant
Dictionary examples:
I've eaten so much, I'm really quite uncomfortable.
These shoes are really uncomfortable.

Learner example:
The thing[s] I most hate wearing are shirts, I think they're very uncomfortable.

EMBARRASSED
[C1] slightly embarrassed, or making you feel slightly embarrassed

Dictionary example:
an uncomfortable silence

Learner example:
It is interesting how people get embar[r]assed and uncomfortable when they have to face an English speech.

uncomfortably /ʌnˈkʌmpf.teɪ.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: comfort, discomfort
Verbs: comfort
Adjectives: comfortable, uncomfortable, comforting
Adverbs: comfortably, uncomfortably

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is not comfortable or pleasant

Dictionary example:
I was warm but not uncomfortably so.

Learner example:
I saw faces I see every day, but in uncomfortably long dresses and with starched white collars, I saw their effort to look nice, attractive and not to disturb the rules set by the society of their time.

uncommon /ʌnˈkɒm.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: common
Adjectives: common, uncommon
Adverbs: commonly

ADJECTIVE
[C1] unusual

Dictionary example:
It's not uncommon for people to become ill when they travel.
unconditional

/ˌʌn.kənˈdɪʃ.ən.l/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: condition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: condition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: unconditional</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[C2] done or given without any limits and without asking for anything for yourself</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Dictionary example:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>unconditional love</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Learner example:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>But I am of [the] firm conviction that you cannot love [a child] too much, and this unconditional love does not include any rod, in both [the] literal and figurative sense of the word.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

unconscious

/ənˈkɒn.tʃəs/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: consciousness</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: conscious, unconscious, self-conscious</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: subconsciously, unconsciously</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>AS THOUGH SLEEPING</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] in a state as though you are sleeping, for example because you have been hit on the head</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Dictionary example:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>She was hit on the head by a stone and knocked unconscious.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Learner example:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>In the morning, Mrs Crozier went to visit Miss Appleford in number 42 only to find her lying on the floor unconscious.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NOT AWARE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[C2] An unconscious thought or feeling is one that you do not know you have.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Dictionary example:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>an unconscious fear</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Learner example:
Maybe it was her strict upbringing that had left her with an unconscious need to rebel, and that in turn caused her to be drawn to this rowdy young man.

unconsciously /ʌnˈkɒn.ʃəs.li/

Word family:
Nouns: consciousness
Adjectives: conscious, unconscious, self-conscious
Adverbs: subconsciously, unconsciously

ADVERB
[C2] If you do something unconsciously, you do it without knowing that you are doing it.

Dictionary example:
She was nodding her head, unconsciously urging him on.

Learner example:
We do this, for instance, when we buy a larger – and more expensive – car than we need for commuting to work, because we unconsciously want to be like the actors that drive them in films.

unconventional /ˌʌn.kənˈven.ʃən.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: convention
Adjectives: conventional, unconventional

ADJECTIVE
[C1] doing things in a way that is different from most people

Dictionary example:
an unconventional lifestyle

Learner example:
CHILDREN'S STORIES This event was successful and satisfied the kids since the heroes were exhilarating, with amazingly unconventional behaviour.

uncountable noun /ʌnˌkaʊnt.ə.blˈnaʊn/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a noun which does not have a plural form and cannot be used with 'a' or 'one'

Dictionary example:
'Information' and 'furniture' are uncountable nouns.

3185 uncover /ʌnˈkʌvər/

Word family:
Nouns: cover, coverage
Verbs: cover, uncover

VERB [T]
[C1] to discover something that had been secret or hidden

Dictionary example:
The inspectors uncovered evidence of corruption.

Learner example:
Sitting in a restaurant and discussing provisions of the contract you will find much easier and feel happier than [just sitting] and look[ing] at [an] enormous number of clauses, trying unsuccessfully to uncover what your client really thought when he wrote this or that.

undeniable /ˌʌn.dɪˈnær.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: denial
Verbs: deny
Adjectives: undeniable
Adverbs: undeniably

ADJECTIVE
[C1] certainly true

Dictionary example:
an undeniable fact

Learner example:
It is undeniable that he has made a positive contribution to [the] history of my country.

undeniably /ˌʌn.dɪˈnær.ə.blɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: denial
Verbs: deny
Adjectives: undeniable
Adverbs: undeniably

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that is almost certainly true

Dictionary example:
He is undeniably the best student we have ever had.
Learner example:
Sport has undeniably become part of contemporary popular culture.

under /ˈʌn.dər/

PREPOSITION

IN A PARTICULAR STATE

[B2] in a particular state or condition

Dictionary examples:
The President is under pressure to resign.
Under no circumstances should the festival become too specialized.

Learner example:
I am used to working under pressure.

under attack/control/investigation, etc.

[B2] being affected by something at the present time

Dictionary examples:
The town is once again under attack.
The cause of the fire is still under investigation.
A new 16-screen cinema is under construction.
Several different plans are under discussion.
We are working hard to get the situation under control.

Learner example:
Everything was under control, the remote detonator had worked perfectly well.

be under the impression

[B2] to think or understand a particular stated thing

Dictionary examples:
I was under the impression (that) you didn't get on too well.
He was under the mistaken impression (that) you were married.

Learner example:
I am under the impression that people generally exercise a little, but if they eat the wrong food every day, it won't help.

under your breath

[C2] If you say something under your breath, you say it very quietly so that other people cannot hear it.

Dictionary example:
He was muttering curses under his breath.

Learner example:
"We must have taken a wrong turn somewhere..." he kept muttering under his breath.
down under [C2] Australia, or in Australia

Dictionary example:
She was born in Scotland, but she's been living down under for 22 years.

Learner example:
Last year a good friend of mine and I went to Australia. After a couple of days of doing some sightseeing and sunbathing on beautiful sandy beaches, we decided that we need[ed] to get something more out of our stay down under.

under your nose
[C2] If something bad happens under your nose, it happens close to you but you do not notice it.

Dictionary example:
They were stealing money from under my nose.

Learner example:
You will be surprised that there was something right under your nose that you could not live without.

be under way
[C2] to be already happening

Dictionary example:
Building work is already under way.

Learner example:
Sociologists are well–aware of the fact and experiments are under way to counterbalance these disadvantages.

be/feel under the weather
[C2] to feel ill

Dictionary example:
I'm feeling a bit under the weather this morning.

Learner example:
Ann was a bit under the weather, [and] she felt quite lonely in her big flat.

underdeveloped /ˌʌn.də.dɪˈvel.əpt/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelop
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not developed enough
Dictionary example:
They are working in underdeveloped parts of the city.

Learner example:
A shift of focus in underdeveloped and developing states’ economic and social policies is vital to overcoming the problems which cause homelessness.

underestimate /ˌʌn.dəˈres.tɪ.meɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: estimate
Verbs: estimate, underestimate, overestimate
Adjectives: estimated

VERB [T]

NOT KNOW SIZE

[B2] to fail to understand how large, strong, or important something is

Dictionary examples:
Many people underestimate the cost of owning a car.
We shouldn't underestimate the part that exercise plays in good health.

Learner example:
The report also seemed to underestimate the number of people that had attended.

PERSON

[C1] to not understand how powerful or clever someone is

Dictionary example:
I thought it would be an easy game but I had underestimated my opponent.

Learner example:
At the beginning she will ask you many questions about yourself. But don't underestimate Ms Bates (that's her name).

undergo /ˌʌn.dəˈgəʊ/

VERB [T] (undergoing, underwent, undergone)

[C1] to experience something, especially a change or medical treatment

Dictionary examples:
The country is currently undergoing major political change.
He is undergoing surgery for a heart problem.

Learner example:
Nowadays, my country is undergoing a very difficult financial and social situation.
underground¹

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB /ˌʌn.deˈgraʊnd/
[B2] below the surface of the ground

Dictionary examples:
an underground cave/passage
Some animals, such as moles, live underground.

Learner example:
As it was expected, Harry was seen, and then he went underground through a tunnel which crossed from the inner city to the Russian zone.

underground² /ˌʌn.deˈgraʊnd/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

[B2] below the surface of the ground

Dictionary examples:
an underground cave/passage
Some animals, such as moles, live underground.

Learner example:
As it was expected, Harry was seen, and then he went underground through a tunnel which crossed from the inner city to the Russian zone.

underline /ˌʌn.deˈlaɪn/ (also underscore)

VERB [T]

DRAW LINE
[B1] to draw a line under a word or sentence, especially in order to show its importance

Dictionary example:
All the technical words have been underlined in red.

Learner example:
And, another disadvantage in my opinion is that is more difficult to underline or to write some notes if you study from the computer.

EMPHASIZE
[B2] to emphasize the truth or importance of something
Dictionary example:
The report underlines the need for more teachers in schools.

Learner example:
It is true that museums do not show the past as well as they could, but we must underline that they are always good enough if we are really interested in knowing about our past.

underlying /ˌʌn.dəˈlaɪ.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C2] An underlying reason or problem is the real reason or problem, although it is not obvious.

Dictionary example:
We need to look at the underlying reasons for ill health.

Learner example:
The underlying reason is of course a lurking threat of death and decay, which keeps sc[ie]ntists investigating new methods to postpone the age of death.

undermine /ˌʌn.dəˈmaɪn/

VERB [T]

[C2] to make someone less confident or make something weaker

Dictionary example:
A series of scandals have undermined people's confidence in the government.

Learner example:
All this doesn't undermine the importance of charity workers and entertainers in our work for the greater good.

underneath /ˌʌn.dəˈniːθ/

PREPOSITION

[B1] under or below something

Dictionary examples:
The tunnel goes right underneath the city.
They found a bomb underneath the car.

Learner example:
She was dressed like a princess, after spending the whole day looking for an appropriate dress, which she finally managed to find underneath her bed.
ADVERB

[B2] under or below

Dictionary example:
Florian was wearing a dark jacket with a red shirt underneath.

Learner example:
The rock was about 70m high and there was water underneath.

underpaid /ˌʌn.dəˈpeɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: pay, payment
Verbs: pay, repay
Adjectives: payable, underpaid, unpaid

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not earning enough for your work

Dictionary example:
Her staff felt they were underpaid.

Learner example:
They claim that they are overworked and underpaid (it's [the] usual reason for striking, isn't it?)

underpants /ˈʌn.dəˌpænts/

NOUN [PLURAL]

[B1] a piece of underwear that covers the area between your waist and the top of your legs

Dictionary example:
I need some new underpants.

Learner example:
Was that woman me, standing there in those ugly-looking underpants, but with a smart sports bra, with everybody laughing around her?

understand /ˌʌn.dəˈstænd/ (understood, understood)

Word family:
Nouns: misunderstanding, understanding
Verbs: misunderstand, understand
Adjectives: understandable, understanding
Adverbs: understandably
VERB [I or T]

KNOW FEELINGS

[B1] to know how someone feels or why they behave in a particular way

Dictionary examples:
I don't understand James sometimes.
I understand why she's so angry.

Learner example:
Maybe now you can understand why I hate shopping. kisses,

[I/we understand (that)... FORMAL]

[C1] used to say that you believe something is true because someone has told you it is

Dictionary example:
I understand that the school is due to close next year.

Learner example:
I understand that the job entails entertaining people.

make yourself understood

[C1] to say something to someone in a way that they understand

Dictionary example:
I had a little difficulty making myself understood.

Learner example:
(Find enclosed a paper slip on which I have written a destination, number of tickets, etc., in the German language – use it just in case you can't make yourselves understood.)

understandable /ˌʌn.dəˈstæn.də.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: misunderstanding, understanding
Verbs: misunderstand, understand
Adjectives: understandable, understanding Adverbs: understandably

ADJECTIVE

[B2] An understandable feeling or action is one that you would expect in that particular situation.

Dictionary examples:
"I still feel really angry about it." "That's understandable."
Their refusal to help is perfectly/completely understandable, considering the circumstances.
Learner example:
I guess they wouldn't give me permission [to stay] at a female friend's home, but that's understandable.

understandably /ˌʌn.dəˈstæn.də.blı/

Word family:
Nouns: misunderstanding, understanding
Verbs: misunderstand, understand
Adjectives: understandable, understanding
Adverbs: understandably

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is expected in a particular situation

Dictionary example:
She's understandably upset.

Learner example:
Furthermore, the use of the computer system caused long waiting times because everyone wanted – understandably – to find out more about suitable working opportunities.

understanding /ˌʌn.dəˈstæn.dıŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: misunderstanding, understanding
Verbs: misunderstand, understand
Adjectives: understandable, understanding
Adverbs: understandably

NOUN
KNOWLEDGE
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] knowledge about a subject, situation, etc. or about how something works

Dictionary examples:
She doesn't have any understanding of politics.
My understanding of the agreement is that they will pay £50,000 over two years.
It was my understanding that she would come alone.

Learner example:
It was my understanding that discounts were available on the tickets, as the advertisement showed, but there were no discounts.

SYMPATHY
[B2] [U] sympathy
Dictionary example:
Thank you for your understanding – I do appreciate it.

Learner example:
Thank you for your understanding.

AGREEMENT
[C2] [c] an informal agreement between two people

Dictionary example:
We have an understanding that we don’t discuss the subject in front of his mother.

ADJECTIVE
[B2] showing sympathy for someone's problems

Dictionary example:
Fortunately, my boss is very understanding.

Learner example:
They are famous, but they need to be alone sometimes. I think [the] media must be more understanding.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>undertake /ˌʌn.dəˈteɪk/ (undertook, undertaken)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: undertaking
Verbs: take, undertake

VERB [T]

DO
[C1] FORMAL to do or begin to do something, especially something that will take a long time or be difficult

Dictionary example:
Students are required to undertake simple experiments.

Learner example:
To achieve it the above mentioned steps should be undertaken.

undertake to do sth
[C2] to promise to do something

Dictionary example:
She undertook to organize the meeting.
undertaking /ˌʌndəˈteɪ.kɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: undertaking
Verbs: take, undertake

NOUN [c]
[C2] a difficult or important piece of work, especially one that takes a long time

Dictionary example:
Building your own house is a major undertaking.

Learner example:
While such an undertaking is most advisable, I should like to point out that there may be drawbacks.

underwater /ˌʌn.dəˈwɔː.tər/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB
[B2] under the surface of water

Dictionary examples:
an underwater camera
Seals can hear very well underwater.

Learner example:
If you have diving equipment, you will spend a very good time underwater.

underway /ˌʌn.dəˈweɪ/

ADJECTIVE

HAPPENING
[C2] If something is underway, it is happening.

Dictionary example:
Economic recovery is already underway.

Learner example:
The weather was beautiful and the sun shone but as soon as I was underway, the weather turned on us and grew worse with every step.

get underway
[C2] to begin

Dictionary example:
The film festival gets underway on 11th July.
underwear /ˈʌn.ðəˌweə/

NOUN [u]
[B1] the clothes that you wear next to your skin, under your other clothes

Dictionary example:
They sell a wide range of underwear.

Learner example:
If I see some nice underwear, I will buy it too.

undesirable /ˌʌn.dɪˈzaɪə.rə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: desire
Verbs: desire
Adjectives: desirable, desired, undesirable

ADJECTIVE FORMAL
[C2] Something that is undesirable is not wanted because it is bad or unpleasant.

Dictionary example:
an undesirable influence

Learner example:
In this day and age, man is inextricably interwoven with the undesirable environmental damage, and the problems as far as the environment is concerned have generated a great deal of heated debate.

undeveloped /ˌʌn.dɪˈvel.əpt/

Word family:
Nouns: development, developer, redevelopment
Verbs: develop, redevelop
Adjectives: developed, developing, underdeveloped, undeveloped

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Undeveloped land has no buildings on it and is not used for anything.

Dictionary example:
The site is still undeveloped.

Learner example:
The Town Council decided to take measures in order to benefit our area, which has remained undeveloped for the last five years.
undo  /ʌnˈduː/ (undoing, undid, undone)

VERB [T]

OPEN

[B2] to open something that is tied or fastened

Dictionary examples:
I took off my hat and undid my coat.
Can you undo this knot for me?
Can someone help me to undo my seat belt?

CHANGE BACK

[B2] to make a computer get rid of the last change you made to a document and make it the way it was before

Dictionary example:
You need to undo that change.

undoubted  /ʌnˈdaʊt.id/

Word family:
Nouns: doubt
Verbs: doubt
Adjectives: doubtful, undoubted
Adverbs: undoubtedly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C2] used to emphasize that something is true

Dictionary examples:
The project was an undoubted success.
her undoubted ability/talent

Learner example:
Yet, in spite of the undoubted improvements to life progress has brought about, there are still those who condemn it.

undoubtedly  /ʌnˈdaʊ.trɪd.ɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: doubt
Verbs: doubt
Adjectives: doubtful, undoubted
Adverbs: undoubtedly
ADVERB

[B2] used to emphasize that something is true

Dictionary example:
Stress has undoubtedly contributed to her illness.

Learner example:
This trip will undoubtedly be a wonderful experience.

undress /ʌnˈdres/

Word family:
Nouns: dress
Verbs: dress, undress
Adjectives: dressed, undressed

VERB [I or T]

[B1] to remove your clothes or someone else’s clothes

Dictionary example:
She undressed the children and put them to bed.

Learner example:
The chair is for my clothes when I undress.

undressed /ʌnˈdrest/

Word family:
Nouns: dress
Verbs: dress, undress
Adjectives: dressed, undressed

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not wearing any clothes

Dictionary example:
I got undressed and went to bed.

Learner example:
We got undressed quicker than ever and ran into the waterfall.

undue /ʌnˈdjuː/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] FORMAL

[C2] more than is necessary
Dictionary example:
I don't want to cause undue alarm.

Learner example:
On the other hand a badly [organised] holiday can put undue stress on the traveller.

uneasy /ʌnˈiː.zi/

Word family:
Nouns: ease
Adjectives: easy, uneasy
Adverbs: easily, easy

ADJECTIVE
[B2] worried because you think something bad might happen

Dictionary example:
I feel a bit uneasy about her travelling alone.

Learner example:
Anyway I was getting uneasy because of all that silence, so I began to sing.

unemployed /ˌʌn.ɪmˈplɔɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: employee, employer, employment, unemployment, unemployed
Verbs: employ
Adjectives: unemployed

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not having a job that provides money

Dictionary example:
He's been unemployed for over a year.

Learner example:
I have been unemployed for four months.

NOUN
the unemployed
[C1] people who are unemployed

Dictionary example:
We want to get the unemployed back into work.

Learner example:
I am a lawyer and not so long ago I worked in Poznan Unemployment Office where I happened to use English – not talking to the unemployed of course.
unemployment  /ˌʌn.ɪmˈplɔɪ.mənt/

Word family:
Nouns: employee, employer, employment, unemployment, unemployed
Verbs: employ
Adjectives: unemployed

NOUN [u]
[B1] the number of people who are unemployed

Dictionary examples:
a rise/fall in unemployment
Unemployment has fallen/risen again for the third month in a row.

Learner example:
Later, after a discussion about unemployment, we did reading, writing and listening.

unethical  /ˈeθ.ɪ.kəl/

Word family:
Nouns: ethic
Adjectives: ethical, unethical

ADJECTIVE
[C2] morally bad

Dictionary example:
unethical business methods

Learner example:
Then, if you would like to perform an experiment, you cannot, because that would be unethical.

uneven  /ˈiː.vən/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] not level, smooth, or in equal amounts

Dictionary example:
an uneven floor

Learner example:
At the same time we must solve the financial problems incurred by the uneven age distribution.
uneventful /ˌʌn.ɪˈvent.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: event
Adjectives: eventful, uneventful

ADJECTIVE
[C2] without problems and without anything exciting happening

Dictionary example:
The journey itself was fairly uneventful.

Learner example:
This rather quiet and uneventful life changed when we moved to the city.

unexpected /ˌʌn.ɪkˈspek.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: expectation
Verbs: expect
Adjectives: expected, unexpected
Adverbs: unexpectedly

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not expected

Dictionary example:
His death was completely unexpected.

Learner example:
Last week I had an unexpected visit from my best friend – Mark.

unexpectedly /ˌʌn.ɪkˈspe.k.tɪd.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: expectation
Verbs: expect
Adjectives: expected, unexpected
Adverbs: unexpectedly

ADVERB
[B2] in a way or at a time that is not expected

Dictionary examples:
Retail sales unexpectedly fell last month.
He called in quite unexpectedly last week.
Learner example:
He called me really unexpectedly at work, and told me to go [to] his office at once.

unfair /ʌnˈfeər/

Word family:
Nouns: fairness
Adjectives: fair, unfair
Adverbs: fairly, unfairly

ADJECTIVE

NOT EQUAL
[B1] not treating people in a equal way

Dictionary examples:
an unfair system
The test was unfair because some people had seen it before.

Learner example:
He [always] gave me horrible marks and was very unfair.

NOT TRUE
[B2] not true and morally wrong

Dictionary example:
It's unfair to blame Roger for everything.

Learner example:
Furthermore, it's unfair [to] say that there is nothing to do in the evenings, because there is lots to do.

unfairly /ʌnˈfeə.li/

Word family:
Nouns: fairness
Adjectives: fair, unfair
Adverbs: fairly, unfairly

ADVERB

[B2] in an unfair way

Dictionary example:
His employers treated him very unfairly.

Learner example:
Your report not only gave wrong information to your readers but also criti[c]ized a music festival unfairly.
unfamiliar /ʌn.fəˈmɪli.ə/

Word family:
Verbs: familiarize
Adjectives: familiar, unfamiliar

ADJECTIVE

NOT KNOWN
[B2] not known to you

Dictionary examples:
I noticed several unfamiliar faces in the meeting room.
His name was unfamiliar to me.

Learner example:
On the other hand, you may not like some dishes, because they may be unfamiliar to you.

be unfamiliar with sth
[B2] to not have any knowledge or experience of something

Dictionary example:
A lot of people are unfamiliar with the system.

unfashionable /ʌnˈfæʃ.ən.ə.bl/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not fashionable or popular at a particular time

Dictionary example:
This kind of cooking is very unfashionable now.

Learner example:
I think that museums became a little bit unfashionable [as a] way of knowing or showing something.

unfavourable /ʌnˈfeɪ.vər.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: favour, favourite
Verbs: favour
Adjectives: favourable, favourite, unfavourable

ADJECTIVE

CRITICIZING
[C2] negative and showing that you do not like something Dictionary example:
unfavourable publicity

Learner example:
[The] majority of people react positively and are able to change their previous opinions, if these were very unfavourable.

NOT GOOD

[C2] not good and likely to cause problems

Dictionary example:
unfavourable weather conditions

Learner example:
Despite these unfavourable conditions I managed to get through the concert without any major problems.

unfit /ʌnˈfɪt/

ADJECTIVE

NOT HEALTHY

[B1] not healthy because you do too little exercise

Dictionary example:
I really must do some exercise – I'm so unfit.

Learner example:
I was interested in practicing some sport, because I was feeling quite unfit.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH

[B2] not suitable or good enough

Dictionary example:
The building was declared unfit for human habitation.

Learner example:
Cars also emit carbon monoxide and make the air unfit to breath[e].

unfold /ʌnˈfəʊld/

VERB

OPEN

[C1] [i or t] to become open and flat, or to make something become open and flat

Dictionary example:
I unfolded the map.
Learner example:
Well, you will be if you saw our slide show and talk – members can hardly forget that relaxing afternoon when we unfolded the sails on the lake and enjoyed the tranquility of the area.

DEVELOP

[C2] [i] If a situation or story unfolds, it develops or becomes known.

Dictionary example:
The nation watched on TV as the tragic events unfolded.

Learner example:
The plot unfolds in an exciting way and the film is fraught with lies, surprises and insinuations.

---

unforeseen /ˌʌnfɔːˈsiːn/

Word family:

Verbs: foresee

Adjectives: foreseeable, unforeseen

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not expected

Dictionary example:
The concert was cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.

Learner example:
Finally, owing to unforeseen circumstances, the half-day visit to St Andrews was cancelled and I was told about it only in the late morning, which prevented me from doing what I had planned.

---

unforgettable /ˌʌn.fəˈget.ə.bl/

Word family:

Verbs: forget

Adjectives: unforgettable

ADJECTIVE

[B1] Something that is unforgettable is so good, interesting, etc. that you remember it for a long time.

Dictionary example:
Seeing Niagara Falls was an unforgettable experience.

Learner example:
I've just arrived home and I'd like to thank you for the unforgettable weekend.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word</th>
<th>Definition</th>
<th>Example</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| unfortunate /ʌnˈfɔː.tʃən.ət/ | Nouns: fortune, misfortune
Adjectives: fortunate, unfortunate
Adverbs: fortunately, unfortunately | BAD SITUATION
[B2] used to show that you wish something was not true or had not happened
Dictionary examples:
an unfortunate mistake
It was so unfortunate that she lost her job just as her husband became ill.
Learner example:
It is unfortunate that he couldn’t inform you about the conference. |
| unfriendly /ʌnˈfrend.li/ | Nouns: friend, friendliness, friendship
Adjectives: friendly, unfriendly | ADJECTIVE
[B1] not friendly
Dictionary example:
I found her rather unfriendly.
Learner example:
My last teacher was very unfriendly. | unhappiness  /ʌnˈhæp.ɪ.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: happiness, unhappiness
Adjectives: happy, unhappy
Adverbs: happily

NOUN [u]
[B2] the state of being unhappy

Dictionary example:
Her unhappiness was obvious to everyone.

Learner example:
They feel very unhappy living in a zoo, since for them it is like a prison, and their unhappiness can bring about their death.

unhappy  /ʌnˈhæp.i/

Word family:
Nouns: happiness, unhappiness
Adjectives: happy, unhappy
Adverbs: happily

ADJECTIVE

NOT SATISFIED
[B1] not satisfied

Dictionary examples:
I’m unhappy about the situation.
We were very unhappy with the service at the hotel.

Learner example:
I’m still unhappy about my present accommodation [for] the following reasons.

unhealthy  /ʌnˈhel.θi/

Word family:
Nouns: health
Adjectives: healthy, unhealthy

ADJECTIVE

[B1] likely to become ill or likely to damage your health

Dictionary example:
He has a very unhealthy lifestyle.
Learner example:
The city is unsafe and unhealthy because [of] the pollution and the violence.

unhelpful /ənˈhelp.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: helper
Verbs: help
Adjectives: helpful, unhelpful, helpless

ADJECTIVE

NO HELP
[B2] not wanting to help someone, in a way that seems unfriendly

Dictionary example:
The taxi driver was rude and unhelpful.

Learner example:
However, The Taverna has no uniform and the waiters there are sometimes pushy and unhelpful.

NOT IMPROVE
[C1] not improving a situation

Dictionary example:
an unhelpful remark

Learner example:
Because of the unhelpful and useless solution from [this] company, called Energy Plus, I am looking for advice.

unimaginable /ˌʌn.iˈmædʒ.i.nə.bl/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Something that is unimaginable is difficult to imagine because it is so bad, good, big, etc.

Dictionary example:
unimaginable pain/wealth

Learner example:
Later, at the age of 60, after he had suffered from a stroke that was a side effect of the open heart surgery he underwent, he was left speech-impaired, which can be considered an unimaginable handicap for an actor.
unimportant  /ˌʌn.ɪmˈpɔː.tənt/

Word family:

Nouns: importance

Adjectives: important, unimportant

Adverbs: importantly

ADJECTIVE

[B1] not important

Dictionary example:

Staffing is still a relatively unimportant issue compared to the other problems that we're facing.

Learner example:

Pat told him some unimportant things such as she learnt to swim at the age of five or that she loved ants.

---

uninhabited  /ˌʌn.inˈhæb.ɪ.tɪd/

Word family:

Nouns: inhabitant

Verbs: inhabit

Adjectives: uninhabited

ADJECTIVE

[C2] If a place is uninhabited, no one lives there.

Dictionary example:

an uninhabited island

Learner example:

Me and my best mate, Kelly, had read in an ancient history book we found in our school library about the legendary Golden Caves which are made of gold, found on the tropical uninhabited island of Tropai.

---

uninterested  /ənˈɪn.trə.stɪd/

Word family:

Nouns: interest

Adjectives: interested, interesting, uninterested, uninteresting

Adverbs: interestingly

ADJECTIVE

[B1] not interested

Dictionary example:

He's completely uninterested in politics.
Learner example:
He is uninterested in his father['s] money.

---

uninteresting  /ˌʌnˈɪn.tra.stɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: interest
Adjectives: interested, interesting, uninterested, uninteresting
Adverbs: interestingly

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not interesting

Dictionary example:
His later work is uninteresting in comparison with his first novel.

Learner example:
My neighbours are particularly uninteresting, they bore me stiff!

---

union  /ˈjuː.ni.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: union, reunion

NOUN

WORKERS
[B1] [c] (also trade union) an organization that represents people who do a particular job

Dictionary example:
a teachers'/firefighters' union

Learner example:
Otherwise there will be some problems with trade unions.

JOINING
[B2] [U NO PLURAL] when two or more countries, groups, etc. join together to make one country, group, etc.

Dictionary examples:
the European Union
Meanwhile, the debate on European political and monetary union continues.
unique /juˈniːk/

ADJECTIVE

DIFFERENT

[B2] different from everyone and everything else

Dictionary example:
Everyone's fingerprints are unique.

Learner example:
Every book is unique because every writer is unique, with his own style and his own character.

SPECIAL

[B2] unusual and special

Dictionary example:
Do not miss this unique opportunity to buy all six pans at half the recommended price.

Learner example:
First of all, I would like to tell you that I really enjoyed my stay and it was a unique experience for me.

be unique to sb/sth

[C1] to exist in only one place, or be connected with only one person or thing

Dictionary example:
It's a method of education that is unique to this school.

Learner example:
I strongly believe that every country needs its local shops with products that are unique to the particular country, not only because it is very good for local development but also because this way the world will stay colorful and interesting.

---

unit /ˈjuː.nɪt/

NOUN [C]

SINGLE THING

[B1] a single thing or a separate part of something larger

Dictionary examples:
The first year of the course is divided into four units.
Each unit of the course book focuses on a different grammar point.

Learner example:
I'm sorry but I can't come to tomorrow's class because my father had a car crash and I have to take care of him but don't worry I can do the unit of my workbook and do the exercise.
PEOPLE

[C1] a group of people living or working together, especially for a particular purpose

Dictionary examples:
the traditional family unit
an anti–terrorist unit

Dr Nussbaum is director of the Civil Liberties Research Unit at King’s College, London.
Both soldiers spent two weeks in training before being allowed to rejoin their unit.

Learner example:
This is very important because once they [have] grown up, they have to be together in the family unit with their [own] kids.

unite /juːˈnaɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: unity
Verbs: unite
Adjectives: united

VERB [I or T]

[C1] to join together as a group, or to make people join together as a group

Dictionary example:
We need a leader who can unite the party.

Learner example:
A barbecue would unite all members in a rarely seen way, because we would all be together for a day or an afternoon which would be enough to make some new friends and get to know the other members better.

united /ˈnaɪ.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: unity
Verbs: unite
Adjectives: united

ADJECTIVE

JOINED

[B2] joined together as a group, organization, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The whole village was united in their grief.
It was the first film festival to take place in a united Germany.
Learner example:
Despite all these advantages, I deeply miss the times [when] I had almost no technological facilities, but a very happy and united family.

IN AGREEMENT

[B2] If people are united, they all agree about something.

Dictionary example:
On the issue of education the party is united.

Learner example:
We have the authority to make changes, that is if we stand united.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>unity /ˈjuː.nə.ti/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: unity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs: unite</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: united</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [u]

[C1] when everyone agrees with each other or wants to stay together

Dictionary examples:
national/party unity family unity

Learner example:
I would conclude by saying that [some] healthy competition is good, but your main goal has to be to work together as a group and work towards the achievement of goal[s] – as the saying goes, “united we stand, divided we fall” and unity is strength.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>universal /ˈjuː.nɪˈvɜːsəl/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Word family:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nouns: universe</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives: universal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs: universally</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ADJECTIVE

[B2] relating to everyone in the world, or to everyone in a particular group

Dictionary examples:
a universal truth
Food is a subject of almost universal interest.
The new reforms have not met with universal approval within the government.
Kittens and puppies have an almost universal appeal.
Learner example:
I think [the film] Yasujino Ozo has something universal in [relation to] our daily life, a kind of feeling or emotion.

universally /ˌjuː.nɪˈvɜːs.ə.l.i/

Word family:
Nouns: universe
Adjectives: universal
Adverbs: universally

ADVERB

[C1] in a way that involves everyone in the world, or everyone in a particular group

Dictionary examples:
She is universally adored.
Water is one of the most common and universally known substances.

Learner example:
Furthermore fame can [give] people the feeling that they are universally loved.

universe /ˈjuː.nɪ.vɜːs/

Word family:
Nouns: universe
Adjectives: universal
Adverbs: universally

NOUN

the universe

[B1] everything that exists, including all the stars, space, etc.

Dictionary example:
Is there intelligent life elsewhere in the universe?

Learner example:
I'm the last survivor of a great civilization that is now extinguished. I've been looking for a planet like yours for ages, to transmit the secret of my people. Take this box: this source of energy means strength, it is the most powerful item in the universe!
unjustified /ʌnˈdʒʌs.tɪ.fai.d/

Word family:
Nouns: justification
Verbs: justify Adjectives: justifiable, justified, unjustified

ADJECTIVE
[C1] done without a reason and not deserved

Dictionary example:
unjustified criticism

Learner example:
The location turned out to be far too small and the costs unjustified.

unkind /ʌnˈkænd/

Word family:
Nouns: kindness
Adjectives: kind, unkind
Adverbs: kindly

ADJECTIVE
[B1] slightly cruel

Dictionary examples:
an unkind remark
I didn't tell her the truth because I thought it would be unkind.

Learner example:
His daughter-in-law was most unkind towards him.

unknown /ʌnˈnəʊn/

Word family:
Nouns: knowledge, unknown
Verbs: know
Adjectives: known, unknown, knowledgeable Adverbs: knowingly

ADJECTIVE
[NOT KNOWN]
[B1] not known
Dictionary examples:
The exact number of people carrying the virus is unknown.
Unknown to me, she’d organized a party for my birthday.

Learner example:
There were few words and the address was unknown.

NOT FAMOUS
[B1] not famous

Dictionary example:
an unknown actor

Learner example:
Two unknown actors were being filmed while they were acting.

an unknown quantity
[C2] someone or something that you do not know and so you cannot be certain about

Dictionary example:
The road conditions in that area are a bit of an unknown quantity.

Learner example:
As mentioned above, [the] laser [beam] was an unknown quantity even to its inventor and those who contributed to its enhancement.

NOUN

the unknown
[C1] things that you have not experienced and know nothing about

Dictionary example:
It’s normal to fear the unknown.

Learner example:
The most important factor when learning English is the hunger for knowledge, the hunger for the unknown.

unless /ʌnˈles/

CONJUNCTION
[B1] except if

Dictionary examples:
I won’t call you unless there are any problems.
You can’t get a job unless you’ve got experience.
Unless you call me to say you’re not coming, I’ll see you at the theatre.
Learner example:
I never go shopping unless it's necessary.

unlike /ʌnˈlaɪk/

PREPOSITION

DIFFERENT

[B2] different from someone or something

Dictionary examples:
The furniture was unlike anything she had ever seen.
Dan's actually quite nice, unlike his father.
Unlike you, I'm not a great dancer.

Learner example:
In fact the Hotel Astrid is now closed so I had to stay at the Riverside Hotel, which offers great savings for students, unlike the Hotel Royal which is quite expensive.

NOT TYPICAL

[C2] not typical of someone or something

Dictionary example:
It's unlike her to be quiet – was there something wrong?

Learner example:
Over the weeks he was getting more and more exhausted and started reducing [his] hours of work. That was so unlike him.

unlikely /ʌnˈlaɪ.kli/

Word family:

Nouns: likelihood

Adjectives: likely, unlikely

ADJECTIVE

NOT LIKELY

[B1] not likely

Dictionary examples:
It's unlikely that we'll see them again.
We might see them there but it's fairly unlikely.
He's unlikely to arrive before midday.

Learner example:
Unfortunately, it is very unlikely that I would be able to go and collect the keys at that time, because I have arranged an appointment with my doctor to see him about my leg.
NOT TRUE
[C2] difficult to believe and probably not true

Dictionary example:
an unlikely explanation/story

Learner example:
Reflections on an unlikely tale – "It started with a kiss and ended with a twist", one would remark on Ann Patchett’s 'Bel Canto'.

unlimited /ʌnˈlɪm.ɪ.tɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: limit, limitation
Verbs: limit
Adjectives: limited, unlimited

ADJECTIVE
[B2] without any limits

Dictionary example:
a service that offers unlimited Internet access

Learner example:
Moreover, who has the freedom to buy [whatever they need] with an unlimited budget?

unload /ʌnˈləʊd/

Word family:
Nouns: load, overload
Verbs: load, unload

VERB

SHIP/AIRCRAFT
[C1] [] If a ship, aircraft, etc. unloads, goods are taken off it.

Dictionary example:
The ship unloaded in Marseilles.

Learner example:
Old fishing boats from everywhere unload their merchandise there.

REMOVE
[C2] [] to remove things from a vehicle

Dictionary example:
Can you help me unload the car?
Learner example:
We began to unload the car and showed the children around the house.

unlock /ʌnˈlɒk/

Word family:
Nouns: lock
Verbs: lock, unlock

VERB [T]
[B2] to open something which is locked using a key or an electronic device

Dictionary example:
They haven’t unlocked the computer room yet.

Learner example:
She unlocked the door and went in.

unlucky /ʌnˈlʌk.i/

Word family:
Nouns: luck
Adjectives: lucky, unlucky
Adverbs: luckily

ADJECTIVE
[B1] having or causing bad luck

Dictionary examples:
They played well and were unlucky to lose.
Some people think it’s unlucky to walk under ladders.

Learner example:
I’m going to tell you a story of an unlucky man.

unmarried /ʌnˈmær.id/

Word family:
Nouns: marriage
Verbs: marry
Adjectives: married, unmarried

ADJECTIVE
[C1] not married
Dictionary example:
She lives with her unmarried son.

Learner example:
It has even been proved by research carried out by [a] sociologist that the woman of today prefers to stay unmarried to keep her own identity.

unnatural /ʌnˈnætʃ.ər.əl/

Word family:
Nouns: nature
Adjectives: natural, unnatural
Adverbs: naturally

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not normal or right

Dictionary examples:
an unnatural silence unnatural conditions

Learner example:
Animals live in unnatural conditions, and die early.

unnecessarily /ʌnˌnes.əˈser.əli/

Word family:
Nouns: necessity
Adjectives: necessary, unnecessary
Adverbs: necessarily, unnecessarily

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is not necessary

Dictionary example:
Of course we don't want to alarm people unnecessarily, but they should be alerted to potential dangers.

Learner example:
[The] community should understand the reality of the effects [of] using private cars unnecessarily. unnecessary /ʌnˈnes.ə.ser.i/

Word family:
- Nouns: necessity
- Adjectives: necessary, unnecessary
- Adverbs: necessarily, unnecessarily

ADJECTIVE

[B1] describes something that could be avoided or that is not needed

Dictionary examples:
You don't want to make any unnecessary car journeys in this weather.
The aim is to kill the animal as quickly as possible without causing unnecessary suffering.

Learner example:
Don't waste too much time with unnecessary TV shows or computer games.

unnoticed /ʌnˈnəʊ.tɪst/

Word family:
- Nouns: notice
- Verbs: notice
- Adjectives: noticeable, unnoticed

ADJECTIVE

[C1] without being seen or noticed

Dictionary example:
We managed to slip away unnoticed.

Learner example:
But by the time we stop and look around us, it is usually too late to say goodbye to things that were with us, watched us grow and then disappeared, alone and unnoticed.

unpack /ʌnˈpæk/

Word family:
- Nouns: pack, package
- Verbs: pack, unpack
- Adjectives: packed

VERB [I or T]

[B1] to remove things from a suitcase, bag or box

Dictionary example:
I haven't even had time to unpack my bag/case/clothes/suitcase.
Learner example:
After I unpacked, I asked if I could have a guide to show me around the town.

unpaid /ʌnˈpeɪd/

Word family:
Nouns: pay, payment
Verbs: pay, repay
Adjectives: payable, underpaid, unpaid

ADJECTIVE

NOT PAID
[C1] An unpaid debt, tax, etc. has not been paid.

Dictionary example:
They had nearly £20,000 in unpaid debts.

Learner example:
This amount was unpaid by the previous owner.

WORK FOR FREE
[C1] working without getting any money

Dictionary example:
unpaid work

Learner example:
At the time he was mostly doing unpaid work, living on a low budget and going to painting night-classes.

unpleasant /ʌnˈplez.ənt/

Word family:
Nouns: pleasure
Verbs: please
Adjectives: pleasant, pleased, unpleasant, pleasurable
Adverbs: pleasantly

ADJECTIVE

NOT PLEASANT
[B1] not enjoyable or pleasant

Dictionary example:
an unpleasant experience/smell
Learner example:
On top of that, if you stay in the countryside, you will avoid the smog and the noise of the city, which are very unpleasant!

RUDE
[C1] rude and angry

Dictionary example:
The waiter got quite unpleasant with us.

Learner example:
The driver showed rather unpleasant behaviour and his uniform was untidy, while the stewardess on board was not helpful at all and did not care much about the appalling conditions we had to suffer [o]n the coach.

unpopular /ənˈpɒp.jʊ.lər/

Word family:
Nouns: popularity
Adjectives: popular, unpopular

ADJECTIVE
[B2] disliked by most people

Dictionary examples:
Night flights from the airport are deeply unpopular.
The government is becoming increasingly unpopular.

Learner example:
In addition, the outdoor swimming pool, sup[p]osedly unpopular, happens to be constantly full of people, since waterpolo classes are given for free and there is a bar just next to it.

unprecedented /ənˈpres.r.dən.tərd/

Word family:
Nouns: precedent
Verbs: precede
Adjectives: unprecedented

ADJECTIVE
[C2] never having happened before

Dictionary example:
The Internet has given people unprecedented access to information.

Learner example:
Last but not least, accidents in nuclear factories and nuclear waste are likely to cause unprecedented environmental damage.
unpredictable /ˌʌn.prɪˈdɪk.tə.bl/

Word family:

Nouns: prediction

Verbs: predict

Adjectives: predictable, unpredictable

ADJECTIVE

[B2] changing so much that you do not know what will happen next

Dictionary examples:

The weather there can be a bit unpredictable – one minute it’s blue skies and the next minute it’s raining hard.

The hours in this job are very unpredictable – you sometimes have to work late at very short notice.

Learner example:

By that time I was nervous because there were too many unpredictable things happening.

unproductive /ˌʌn.prəˈdʌk.tɪv/

Word family:

Nouns: producer, product, production, productivity, reproduction

Verbs: produce, reproduce

Adjectives: productive, unproductive

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not producing anything of value

Dictionary examples:

There were months of unproductive bureaucracy.

The meeting was totally unproductive.

Learner example:

Especially if these graduates are unemployed and they can’t find a job easily, they would feel unproductive by staying home.

unprofessional /ˌʌn.prəˈfeʃ.ən.əl/

Word family:

Nouns: profession, professional

Adjectives: professional, unprofessional

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not showing the standard of behaviour or skills that are expected of a person in a skilled job
Dictionary examples:
an unprofessional attitude
Doctor Rivers was charged with unprofessional conduct and improper use of dangerous drugs.

Learner example:
Your reporter was so inattentive and unprofessional that he did not [bother] to check the figures and mixed up 35 and 45.

unqualified /ənˈkwɒl.i.faid/

Word family:
Nouns: qualification
Verbs: qualify, disqualify
Adjectives: qualified, unqualified

ADJECTIVE
[C1] without the qualifications or knowledge to do something

Dictionary example:
She was totally unqualified to look after children.

Learner example:
Polish schools lag behind the European ones. Moreover, the teachers are sometimes unqualified or unprepared.

unquestionably /ənˈkwes.tʃən.ə.bli/

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that is obvious and causes no doubt

Dictionary example:
She is unquestionably the best person for the job.

Learner example:
Although the content of the Conference was unquestionably well prepared, some organisational problems appeared.

unreal /ənˈrɪəl/

Word family:
Nouns: reality
Adjectives: real, realistic, unrealistic, unreal
Adverbs: really, realistically
ADJECTIVE

[C1] Something that is unreal seems so strange that it is difficult to believe.

Dictionary example:
For a while I couldn't believe she was dead – it all seemed unreal.

Learner example:
To sum up, the reality of reality shows is that they want to simulate reality and therefore appear to be credible, a plausible opportun[ity] for the audience to become participant and master at the same time: the most unreal situation of all.

unrealistic  /ˌʌn.rɪəˈlɪs.tɪk/

Word family:
Nouns: reality
Adjectives: real, realistic, unrealistic, unreal
Adverbs: really, realistically

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not thinking about what is likely to happen or what you can really do

Dictionary examples:
I think these sales forecasts are unrealistic, considering how slow sales are at present. It's unrealistic to expect an answer before next week.

Learner example:
There must be an alternative to today's zoo, some may suggest a release of all confined animals, but I realise that is unrealistic.

unreasonable  /ˈʌnˌriː.zən.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: reason, reasoning
Adjectives: reasonable, unreasonable
Adverbs: reasonably, unreasonably

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not fair or acceptable

Dictionary examples:
unreasonable behaviour/demands
It seems unreasonable to expect one person to do both jobs.

Learner example:
So it's unreasonable to think that a country can base its scholastic system only on the few things that students like.
unreasonably /ʌnˈriː.zən.ə.bli/

Word family:

Nouns: reason, reasoning
Adjectives: reasonable, unreasonable
Adverbs: reasonably, unreasonably

ADVERB

[C1] in a way that is not fair

Dictionary examples:
I thought the prices were unreasonably high.
He acted unreasonably.

Learner example:
Informing students and residents about the means of transport and reducing the unreasonably high ticket price are the keys to incite more people use such means.

unrelated /ˌʌn.rɪˈleɪ.tɪd/

Word family:

Nouns: relation, relationship, relative
Verbs: relate
Adjectives: related, relative, unrelated
Adverbs: relatively

ADJECTIVE

[C1] having no connection

Dictionary example:
Police said his death was unrelated to the attack.

Learner example:
On top of that, and completely unrelated to these strikes, the medical services in the community broke down when the doctors and nurses went on a strike on their own.

unreliable /ˌʌn.rɪˈlaɪə.bl/
Dictionary example:
The trains were noisy, dirty, and unreliable.

Learner example:
This article has 4 main errors which makes it unreliable and I am disappointed [in] it.

---

unrest /ʌnˈrest/

NOUN [U]

[C2] when a lot of people are angry about something and are likely to become violent

Dictionary example:
[political/social] unrest

Learner example:
Unemployment is inherently a source of social unrest since it concerns the citizens of a given nation very directly.

---

unsafe /ʌnˈseɪf/

Word family:

Nouns: safety

Adjectives: safe, unsafe

Adverbs: safely

ADJECTIVE

DANGEROUS

[C1] dangerous

Dictionary examples:
The building is unsafe.
The water was dirty and unsafe to drink.

Learner example:
It was extremely unsafe as the safety belts were broken.

IN DANGER

[C1] If you feel unsafe, you feel that you are in danger.

Dictionary example:
Many women feel unsafe on the streets at night.

Learner example:
It was then that I began to feel unsafe; I thought, if something happens, this mob will become something truly hard to control, and this idea frightened me for some time.
unsatisfactory  /ˌʌn.sæt.ɪsˈfæk.tər.i/

Word family:
Nouns: dissatisfaction, satisfaction
Verbs: satisfy
Adjectives: dissatisfied, satisfactory, satisfied, unsatisfactory
Adverbs: satisfactorily

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not good enough

Dictionary example:
We had a rather unsatisfactory meal.

Learner example:
It was a great idea, but I think I need to make some points about the things that I found unsatisfactory.

unscrupulous  /ʌnˈskruː.pjə.ləs/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] behaving in a way that is dishonest or unfair in order to get what you want

Dictionary example:
an unscrupulous financial adviser

Learner example:
We are loyal readers of your newspaper and we ask you to raise your voice in defence of our community against the unscrupulous sharks of big business.

unsolved  /ʌnˈsɒlvd/

Word family:
Nouns: solution
Verbs: solve
Adjectives: unsolved

ADJECTIVE
[C1] having no answer or solution

Dictionary example:
an unsolved mystery/murder/crime

Learner example:
Consequently, a lot of problems remained unsolved.
unspoiled  /ʌnˈspɔɪlt/

Word family:
Verbs: spoil
Adjectives: unspoiled

ADJECTIVE (also UK unspoilt)

[C1] An unspoiled place is beautiful because it has not been changed or damaged by people.

Dictionary example:
an island with clean, unspoiled beaches

Learner example:
I [hope] that one day this unfriendly place will become once more the peaceful, unspoiled and beautiful village that enchanted every passenger with its beauty.

unsuccessful  /ˌʌn.səkˈses.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: success
Verbs: succeed
Adjectives: successful, unsuccessful
Adverbs: successfully, unsuccessfully

ADJECTIVE

[B2] not achieving what was wanted or intended

Dictionary examples:
They made several unsuccessful attempts to reach the men.
His application was unsuccessful.

Learner example:
We tried very hard to score a second goal but all our effo[rt]s were unsuccessful.

unsuccessfully  /ˌʌn.səkˈses.fəli/
Dictionary example:
We tried unsuccessfully to climb the wall.

Learner example:
I tried to reach the company several times in the last two months, unsuccessfully.

unsuitable /ʌnˈsjuː.tə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: suitability
Verbs: suit
Adjectives: suitable, unsuitable
Adverbs: suitably

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not acceptable or right for someone or something

Dictionary example:
The software blocks material that is unsuitable for children.

Learner example:
If the date of the meeting is unsuitable for you, just inform me.

unsure /ʌnˈʃɔːr/

Word family:
Verbs: ensure
Adjectives: sure, unsure Adverbs: surely

ADJECTIVE

NOT CERTAIN
[B2] not certain or having doubts

Dictionary examples:
I'm a bit unsure about what to do.
I was unsure of the directions.
I was unsure what/how to tell them.

Learner example:
As I have not been there before, I am rather unsure of what to wear.

unsure of yourself
[C2] without confidence

Dictionary example:
She had only been in the job for a week and was still a bit unsure of herself.
Learner example:
On the other hand, Kingshaw, normally weaker than Cooper, very sensitive, unsure of himself, has his ups, too, and comes, though very seldom, to feel determined and superior; when he climbs the rocks he is definitely head and shoulders above Cooper who hasn't a head for heights.

unsustainable  /ˌʌn.səˈsteɪ.nə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: sustainability
Verbs: sustain
Adjectives: sustainable, unsustainable

ADJECTIVE

HARMFUL TO THE ENVIRONMENT
[C2] causing damage to the environment by using more of something than can be replaced naturally

Dictionary example:
unsustainable fishing methods

Learner example:
Moreover, the unsustainable use of the earth’s resources will deprive future generations of the means of their survival.

NOT ABLE TO CONTINUE
[C2] Something that is unsustainable cannot continue at the same rate.

Dictionary example:
The level of spending on pensions is unsustainable.

unthinkable  /ənˈθɪŋk.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: thinker
Verbs: think, rethink
Adjectives: unthinkable

ADJECTIVE

[C1] If something is unthinkable, it is so strange that you cannot imagine it will ever happen.

Dictionary example:
Thirty years ago a no–smoking restaurant would have been unthinkable.

Learner example:
Nowadays it is simply unthinkable to live without [a] computer.
untidy /ˈʌnˈtaɪ.di/

Word family:
Verbs: tidy
Adjectives: tidy, untidy

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not tidy

Dictionary examples:
an untidy room
She's really untidy at home.

Learner example:
Now we need to buy some drawers to put our clothes away, which are for the moment kept in our suitcase and look very untidy!

untie /ʌnˈtaɪ/ (untying, untied, untied)

Word family:
Nouns: tie
Verbs: tie, untie

VERB [T]
[B2] to open a knot or something that has been tied with a knot

Dictionary example:
I untied my shoelaces and kicked off my shoes.

Learner example:
She tried to untie the ropes but they were too strong.

until /ˈʌnˈtɪl/ (also till)

PREPOSITION

not until
[B1] not before a particular time or event

Dictionary examples:
We didn't eat until past midnight.
It doesn't open until 7:00.

Learner example:
Two weeks ago I rec[ei]ved your letter but I couldn't answer you until now.
CONJUNCTION

TIME

[B1] continuing to happen before a particular time or event and then stopping

Dictionary examples:
Hadn’t we better wait until Antony arrives?
I waited until they’d gone before I started clearing up.
Whisk the egg whites until they look white and fluffy.

Learner example:
I had always wanted to travel by plane to another country but I [di]dn’t have the op[p]ortunity until I was eleven years old.

DIRECTIONS

[B1] as far as

Dictionary example:
Go straight on until you reach the roundabout and then take the second exit.

Learner example:
On the second day, we cycled [for] approximately 4 hours until we reached a beautiful castle.

not until

[B1] not before a particular time or event

Dictionary example:
We won’t start the meeting until Jeanne is here.

Learner example:
We didn’t stop laughing until the movie finished.

untouched /ʌnˈtʌtʃt/

Word family:
Nouns: touch
Verbs: touch
Adjectives: untouched

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not changed or damaged in any way

Dictionary example:
Most of the island remains untouched by tourism.

Learner example:
The starting point is in Lokken, an idyl[l]ic fishing village b[eside] the North Sea, still untouched by tourism.

3235 ### untrue /ʌnˈtruː/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] false

Dictionary example:
We knew the rumours were untrue.

Learner example:
They realized that almost everything mentioned in your advertisement appeared to be untrue.

unusually /ʌnˈjuː.ʒu.əl.i/

Word family:

- Adjectives: unusual, usual
- Adverbs: unusually, usually

ADVERB

unusually big/strong/good, etc.

[B2] bigger, stronger, better, etc. than is normal

Dictionary example:
unusually warm weather

Learner example:
On your free afternoon I suggest you visit our local museum, which is unusually large for such a small town.

unusually for sb

[C2] in a way that is not usual for someone

Dictionary examples:
Unusually for me, I actually couldn’t finish my meal.
Gareth seemed unusually quiet.

unwanted /ʌnˈwɒntɪd/

Word family:

- Verbs: want
- Adjectives: unwanted

ADJECTIVE

[C1] not wanted

Dictionary example:
an unwanted gift
Learner example:
Children feel alone, unwanted and become very often latch-key children who come back to a sad home where nobody is waiting for them.

unwell /ʌnˈwel/

Word family:
Adjectives: unwell, well

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] FORMAL
[B1] ill

Dictionary example: to feel/look unwell

Learner example:
I won’t be able to go to your English class tomorrow morning because my sister is unwell and I will have to stay with her.

unwilling /ʌnˈwɪl.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: willingness, unwillingness
Adjectives: unwilling, willing Adverbs: willingly, unwillingly

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not wanting to do something

Dictionary example:
A lot of people are unwilling to accept change.

Learner example:
I was unwilling to face the truth and the reality that my best friend had already left me.

unwillingly /ʌnˈwɪl.ɪŋ.li/

Word family:
Nouns: willingness, unwillingness
Adjectives: unwilling, willing Adverbs: willingly, unwillingly

ADVERB
[C1] in a way that shows that you do not want to do something
Dictionary example:
He unwillingly agreed to take her home.

Learner example:
What was worse, ours broke down on our way to the safari park, so we had to give it a miss unwillingly.

unwillingness /ˌʌnˈwɪl.ɪŋ.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: willingness, unwillingness
Adjectives: unwilling, willing
Adverbs: willingly, unwillingly

NOUN [u]
[C1] a state of not being willing to do something

Dictionary example:
Both sides have shown unwillingness to negotiate.

Learner example:
In the 70s some women also beg[a]n to wear short skirts, which might be seen as a way to express their unwillingness to obey certain dress codes or as a symbol of their independence.

unwind /ʌnˈwaɪnd/

Word family:
Verbs: wind, unwind
Adjectives: winding

VERB (unwound)

RELAX
[C1] [i] informal to relax, especially after working

Dictionary example:
Music helps me to unwind.

Learner example:
The houses will be semi-detached to [allow] neighbours to chat and unwind.

MAKE STRAIGHT
[C2] [i or t] If you unwind something, or if something unwinds, it stops being curled round or twisted round something else and is made straight.

Dictionary example:
He unwound the bandage.
Learner example:
Slowly, the doctor unwound the bandages revealing the two cotton patches covering her eyes.

unwise /ənˈwaɪz/

Word family:

Nouns: wisdom
Adjectives: wise, unwise
Adverbs: wisely

ADJECTIVE

[C2] stupid and likely to cause problems

Dictionary example:
an unwise decision

Learner example:
But we don’t want to put too much pressure on them because this is unwise and the worst thing parents could do to their children.

up /ʌp/

ADVERB

go/walk, etc. up to sb/sth
[B1] to walk directly towards someone or something until you are next to them

Dictionary example:
He came straight up to me and introduced himself.

Learner example:
She came up to him to help him with the luggage.

NOT IN BED
[B1] not in bed

Dictionary example:
I stayed up all night finishing this report.

Learner example:
That night we were up until late talking and after a couple of days she left.

be up to sb
[B1] If an action or decision is up to someone, they are responsible for doing or making it.
Dictionary examples:
I can’t decide for you, Jack, it’s up to you.
It’s up to Sophie to decide whether she wants to enter the competition.

Learner example:
This is my opinion but it's up to you.

be up to sth
[B1] informal to be doing or planning something

Dictionary examples:
What are you up to at the moment?
They're up to something – I can tell.

Learner example:
What have you been up to?

INCREASE
[B2] to a greater degree, amount, volume, etc.

Dictionary examples:
Please speak up, I can't hear you.
The fire heats the room up within minutes.
The cost of car insurance is up, but not very much.

Learner example:
Moreover the microphone suddenly wouldn't work anymore, and even though I desperately tried to speak up, people began to lose interest in both my speech and me and simply started to talk to each other instead.

COMPLETE
[B2] used to emphasize that an action or process is complete

Dictionary examples:
Come on, Maria, drink up your lemonade.
By the time we left, she had bought up half of the shop.

Learner example:
Anna, I broke one of your beautiful vase[s] accidentally when I was trying to clean up the house one evening.

up and down
[B2] rising and falling

Dictionary example:
They were jumping up and down with impatience.

Learner example:
Well, you should be bouncing up and down with joy (just kidding)!

not be up to much
[C2] to be of bad quality
Dictionary example:
Her latest novel isn’t up to much.

Learner example:
But above all, she had this extraordinary dining table, which didn’t look up to much when you first walked in the room, but as you lifted the three layers of tablecloths protecting a huge piece of glass, you discovered an amazing display of objects from Alabama.

PREPOSITION

up to 10, 20, etc.

[B1] any amount or number under 10, 20, etc.

Dictionary example:
We can invite up to 65 people.

Learner example:
A wedding can cost up to 10,000 SFr.

up to/until/till, etc.

[B1] until a particular time

Dictionary example:
You can call me up until midnight.

Learner example:
The party will be in my house up to 1:00 a.m., then we will go to Jean’s house.

up and down

[B2] from one end to the other and back again

Dictionary example:
They were running up and down the corridors.

Learner example:
Almost a thousand people were running up and down the ballroom shouting in panic: "Who’s got matches?" "Turn the lights on!"

up to speed

[C1] having all the most recent information about a subject or activity

Dictionary example:
The course should bring you up to speed with the latest techniques.

Learner example:
Apart from this you can keep yourself up to speed with what’s happening around the world on various fronts.
upbringing  /ˈʌpˌbrɪŋ.ɪŋ/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] the way that your parents look after you and the things that they teach you when you are growing up

Dictionary examples:
a middle-class/religious upbringing
She had a very strict upbringing.

Learner example:
Now, as a grown–up person, I am trying to evaluate [my] upbringing objectively.

upcoming  /ˈʌpˌkʌm.ɪŋ/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C1] An upcoming event will happen soon.

Dictionary example:
the upcoming elections

Learner example:
This is a good way to keep our members informed about upcoming events.

update

VERB [T] /ʌpˈdeɪt/

ADD INFORMATION
[B1] to add new information

Dictionary examples:
The website has just been updated.
We'll update you on this news story throughout the day.

Learner example:
Besides, I can also always update my knowledge by visiting the information and new technology websites on the Internet from time to time.

MAKE MORE MODERN
[B2] to make something more modern

Dictionary example:
They need to update their image.
Learner example:
On the other hand, the movies shown are updated regularly, I guess that part is under control.

NOUN [C] /ˈʌp.dərt/

NEW INFORMATION

[B2] new information

Dictionary example:
I'll need regular updates on your progress.

Learner example:
Television offers different program[me]s, such as documentaries, program[mes] on culture and updates on [the] news.

NEW FORM

[B2] a new form of something which existed at an earlier time

Dictionary examples:
- a software update
- It's an update of an old 60's movie.

---

upgrade

VERB [T] /ˈʌp.ɡreid/

[B2] to improve something so that it is of a higher quality or is a newer model

Dictionary examples:
- to upgrade a computer
- The system has been upgraded.

Learner example:
The computer [has] upgraded most existing inventions, and made them more efficient, faster and [more] user friendly.

NOUN [C] /ˈʌp.ɡreid/

[B2] a piece of software or equipment that improves the quality, power or usefulness of a computer or machine

Dictionary examples:
- a hardware upgrade
- The upgrade to version 5.0 costs £395.
uphill /əpˈhɪl/

ADJECTIVE

an uphill battle/struggle/task
[C2] something that is difficult to do and needs a lot of effort

Dictionary example:
I can lose weight but it’s a real uphill struggle.

Learner example:
When this is the case, the families caring for them are faced with an uphill struggle, as it is difficult to reconcile the need for earning a living with the care of their relatives.

ADVERB

TOP OF HILL
[C2] towards the top of a hill

Dictionary example:
We'd walked half a mile uphill.

Learner example:
She had not seen the lorry that made [its] way uphill and when she realized that she would crash right into it, it had been too late to do something.

uphold /əpˈhəʊld/

VERB [t] (upheld)

AGREE
[C2] to agree with a decision, especially a legal one, and say it was correct

Dictionary example:
The court upheld the ruling.

Learner example:
Last but not least, governments around the world should pass and uphold stricter laws concerning environmental issues.

SUPPORT
[C2] to support a decision, principle, or law

Dictionary example:
Police officers are expected to uphold the law.

Learner example:
Additionally, some uphold the view that people living in [the] countryside face greater problems than those in towns.
upkeep /ˈʌp.kiːp/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the process of keeping something in good condition, or of keeping a person or animal healthy

Dictionary example:
The upkeep of a building like that must be so expensive.

Learner example:
This causes a big problem for pensioners, as they can not afford the daily upkeep of the houses.

upload /ʌpˈləʊd/

VERB [T]
[B1] to send a computer program or a document electronically from your computer, using the Internet

Dictionary example:
All the files have been uploaded to the server.

Learner example:
You should upload it [to] the website.

upon /əˈpɒn/

PREPOSITION

once upon a time
[B1] used at the beginning of a story to mean a long time ago

Dictionary example:
Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess.

Learner example:
Once upon a time there was a very poor family.

ON
[B2] FORMAL on

Dictionary examples:
Upon her head she wore a black velvet hat.
Please report to the reception desk upon arrival.
Learner example:
He answered with a smile upon his face, 'As I just told everybody else, you will have the results by the end of June.'

upper /ˈʌpər/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

HIGH POSITION

[B1] at a higher position or level than something else

Dictionary examples:
the upper lip/body
The office block's upper floors were being repainted.

Learner example:
I am doing the upper intermediate level and last summer I was in London [for] three months.

the upper limit

[C2] the highest amount or level, or the longest time that something is allowed

Dictionary example:
£45,000 is the upper limit for salaries in this job.

Learner example:
I understand that it will be more expensive than the accommodation I currently have, and I am willing to stretch the upper limit of the rent I can afford to pay.

get/gain the upper hand

[C2] to get into a stronger position than someone else so that you are controlling a situation

Dictionary example:
Government troops are gradually gaining the upper hand over the rebels.

Learner example:
He knew that Hooper had got the upper hand and that there was no escape.

upper-class /ˌʌp.əˈklɑːs/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] belonging to or relating to the upper class

Dictionary example:
He spoke with a distinctly upper-class accent.
Learner example:
Talking about fashion, one always tends to think of glamorous designer dresses, catwalks in Paris, Rome or New York, and upper-class societies, able to spend huge amounts of money on luxurious clothing.

upright
/ˈʌp.rait/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

[B2] straight up or vertical

Dictionary example:
Please return your seats to an upright position and fasten your seat belts.

Learner example:
Immediately the pilot informed the passengers that the weather conditions were not good and [told us] to fasten our seatbelt, put the seat upright and [ado]pt the emergency position.

upset
/ʌpˈset/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]

upset stomach
[B2] an illness in the stomach

Dictionary example:
I had an upset stomach after I ate that fish.

Learner example:
I wasn’t feeling well at all with an upset stomach and headache.

VERB [T] (upsetting, upset, upset)
[B2] to make someone feel unhappy or worried

Dictionary examples:
The phone call had clearly upset her.
It still upsets him when he thinks about the accident.
Don’t upset yourself by thinking about what might have happened.

Learner example:
This really upset me as no notice w[as] given before the show.
upside down /ˌʌp.sɑɪdˈdaʊn/

ADVERB, ADJECTIVE

[B2] having the part which is usually at the top turned to be at the bottom

Dictionary examples:
Turn the jar upside down and shake it.
The plane was flying upside down at high speed.
One car landed on its side and the other was upside down.

Learner example:
The furniture was upside down and neither money nor cash were left.

upstairs

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] /ˈʌp.steəz/

[B1] on or at a higher level of a building

Dictionary example:
an upstairs window

Learner example:
Suddenly, Robert [and I] heard a strange noise coming from an upstairs room but we kept on reading quietly.

up-to-date /ˌʌp.təˈdeɪt/ also (up to date)

ADJECTIVE

[B1] modern, recent, or containing the latest information

Dictionary examples:
The website contains up-to-date information on live football matches.
The Internet keeps us up to date.
It is essential to have an up-to-date dictionary.

Learner example:
I will write more later – I do need to give you up-to-date information on my love life!

upward /ˈʌp.wəd/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C1] moving towards a higher place or level
Dictionary examples:
an upward glance
an upward trend in sales

Learner example:
The third age group, 35–49 year olds, has also been experiencing an upward trend regarding [the] percentage of the group attending [the] cinema at least once a year.

upwards /ˈʌp.wədz/

ADVERB

HIGHER LEVEL

[C1] towards a higher position, level or value

Dictionary example:
The cost of completion has been revised upwards again due to inflation.

Learner example:
In evaporation the water drops from seas are carried upwards and form clouds.

upwards of sth

[C2] more than a particular amount

Dictionary example:
Double rooms cost upwards of £70 a night.

Learner example:
Once home to upwards of 50,000 people, Gaza was occupied by anti-government forces for over two years.

urban /ˈɜː.bən/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] belonging or relating to a town or city

Dictionary examples:
urban areas
urban development

Learner example:
We are generally more interested in [an] urban lifestyle than [living in] the countryside.
urge /ɜːdʒ/

VERB [v]

urge sb to do sth

[C1] to try to persuade someone to do something

Dictionary example:
His parents urged him to go to university.

Learner example:
Finally, on behalf of the charity organisation, I urge you to print a new article, apologising and correcting the inaccuracies already published.

ADVISE [v]

[C2] to strongly advise an action

Dictionary example:
Financial experts are urging caution.

NOUN [n]

[C2] a strong wish or need

Dictionary example:
I resisted the urge to slap him.

Learner example:
He suddenly felt the urge to go home.

---

urgent /ˈɜː.ʤənt/

Word family:

Adjectives: urgent

Adverbs: urgently

ADJECTIVE [a]

[B1] very important and needing you to take action immediately

Dictionary examples:
- an urgent message
- He’s got to sign that paper – will you tell him it’s urgent?
- Many people are in urgent need of food and water.

Learner example:
I want to apologise for missing tomorrow’s class, because I have to attend an urgent family meeting at my grandparents’ house.
Word family:

Adjectives: urgent

Adverbs: urgently

Example:

[B1] in a way that is urgent

Dictionary example:
Help is urgently needed.

Learner example:
I have e-mailed you to tell you that I need your bicycle urgently.

---

Word family:

Nouns: use, user, misuse, usefulness

Verbs: use, misuse

Adjectives: useful, useless

Example:

[C1] [C or U] the way that words are used

Dictionary example:
a guide to English grammar and usage

Learner example:
That is why I couldn't solve all my problems with English usage.

---

Example:

[C1] [C or U] the amount of something that is used, or the way that something is used

Dictionary example:
restrictions on water usage

Learner example:
We have therefore decided that, at our company, we will try to keep our energy usage as low as possible.
VERB /ˈjuːz/

REDUCE
[B1] to take an amount from a supply of something

Dictionary examples:
Taking a shower uses less water than having a bath.
These bulbs use a lot of electricity.

Learner example:
The equipment in the kitchen is very old and use[s] a lot of electricity and gas.

WORD
[B2] to say or write a particular word or phrase

Dictionary example:
'Autumn' is used in British English and 'fall' in American English.

PERSON
[C2] to treat someone badly in order to get what you want

Dictionary example:
He was just using me to make his girlfriend jealous.

Learner example:
What a horrible thing to do, just using people – especially him!

NOUN /ˈjuːs/

PURPOSE
[B1] [c or u] a purpose for which something is used

Dictionary examples:
A food processor has a variety of uses in the kitchen.
I'd have no use for a boat.
Don't throw that cloth away, you'll find a use for it one day.

Learner example:
We need computers in many places, and [for] many uses today.

WORD
[B2] [c] one of the meanings of a word, or the way that a particular word is used

Dictionary example:
Can you list all the uses of the word 'point'?

be (of) any/some use [B2] to be useful

Dictionary example:
Is this bag of any use to you?
Learner example:
I hope my remarks [will] be of some use.

be (of) no use
[B2] to not be useful

Dictionary example:
His advice turned out to be no use at all.

Learner example:
My mother came immediately, but it was no use because my brother isn’t afraid of her, so she called my father.

be no use doing sth
[B2] used to say that trying to do something has no effect

Dictionary example:
It was no use talking to him – he just wouldn’t listen.

Learner example:
It was no use [trying to] smoke cigarettes in this pub.

make use of sth
[B2] to use something that is available

Dictionary example:
We were encouraged to make use of all the facilities.

Learner example:
Finally, I think the designers will make use of the raw materials and create an innovative look for all of us.

the use of sth
[C2] permission to use something, or the ability to use something

Dictionary examples:
Martin has offered me the use of his car.
She lost the use of both legs in the accident.

Learner example:
One of my closest friend[s] who lost the use of her legs five years ago in a tragic car accident took part [in] this trip.

used /juːst/

ADJECTIVE

be used to sb/sth/doing sth [B1] to be familiar with something or someone
Dictionary examples:
We’re used to tourists here – we get thousands every year.
He’s used to working long hours.
She was not used to speaking Cantonese.

Learner example:
When I’m working, I’m used to wearing something more conservative.

get/become used to sb/sth/doing sth
[B1] to become familiar with something or someone

Dictionary examples:
You’ll get used to Ted eventually.
Climbers soon become used to the thinner air at 5000 metres.

Learner example:
In addition, I’ve got used to look[ing] after them.

used to /ˈjuːst.tuː/

MODAL VERB

used to do/be sth
[B1] If something used to happen or a situation used to exist, it happened regularly or in the past but it does not happen or exist now.

Dictionary examples:
She used to live in Detroit.
He used to be a pilot.
You don’t come and see me like you used to.
When we were younger, we didn’t used to drink coffee.

Learner example:
It’s an American film about a girl that used to live in Africa.

useful /ˈjuːs.fəl/

Word family:
Nouns: use, user, misuse, usefulness
Verbs: use, misuse
Adjectives: useful, useless

ADJECTIVE

come in useful
[C2] to be useful and help someone do or achieve something, especially when there is nothing else to help them
Dictionary example:
You should keep that paint – it might come in useful.

Learner example:
However, I take great exception to the view that much of our school education is a waste of time because everything we learn at school might come in useful later during our adulthood.

usefulness /ˈjuːs.fəl.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: use, user, misuse, usefulness
Verbs: use, misuse
Adjectives: useful, useless

NOUN [u]
[C1] the quality of being useful

Dictionary example:
He explained the usefulness of having a wi-fi connection.

Learner example:
They came back yesterday and I have interviewed them to find out what they think about the usefulness of the programme.

useless /ˈjuːzləs/

Word family:
Nouns: use, user, misuse, usefulness
Verbs: use, misuse
Adjectives: useful, useless

ADJECTIVE

NO HELP
[B1] If something is useless, it does not work well or it has no effect.

Dictionary examples:
This umbrella's useless – there's a big hole in it.
It's useless arguing with her.

Learner example:
I started digging, but it was useless.

PERSON
[C2] informal having no skill in an activity

Dictionary example:
Dave's useless at football.
Learner example:
Every time I see her, she seems to be busy sewing, knitting etc. In this I really envy her, I'm quite useless at making clothes, although I can certainly do adjustments on my clothes, make curtains and such things.

user /ˈjuː.zər/

Word family:
Nouns: use, user, misuse, usefulness
Verbs: use, misuse
Adjectives: useful, useless

noun [c]
[B1] someone who uses a product, machine or service

Dictionary examples:
drug users
Unemployed people are the main users of this advice centre.
When you log in, you will be asked for your user name and password.

Learner example:
I would like to meet other experienced computer users in order to share programs as well as tips and tricks about programming.

usual /ˈjuː.zju.əl/

Word family:
Adjectives: unusual, usual
Adverbs: unusually, usually

adjective

[B1] normal and happening most often

Dictionary examples:
I went to bed at my usual time.
You'll find the box in its usual place.
There was more rain than usual this summer in the mountain areas.

Learner example:
We are going to meet at 5 pm at the station and then go for a pizza – you know where, the usual place "Pizza Express".
utmost /ˈʌt.məʊst/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN] FORMAL

EMPHASIS
[C1] used to emphasize how important or serious something is

Dictionary examples:
a matter of the utmost importance
The situation needs to be handled with the utmost care.

Learner example:
In my opinion, there are features of utmost importance that should be [careful]ly checked.

NOUN

do your utmost
[C1] to try as hard as you can to do something

Dictionary example:
We did our utmost to finish the project on time.

Learner example:
In addition, we live in a materialistic society where we all do our utmost in order to make ends meet, but we are never satisfied.

utter /ˈʌt.ər/

Word family:
Adjectives: utter Adverbs: utterly

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] used to emphasize something

Dictionary example:
She dismissed the article as utter nonsense.

Learner example:
To act otherwise would be, in my opinion, utter nonsense.

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C2] to say something

Dictionary example:
She left without uttering a word.

Learner example:
After I had told him about it, he was in such despair that he was not able to utter a single word.
utterly /ˈʌt.ə.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: utter Adverbs: utterly

ADVERB

[C1] completely

Dictionary example:
It's utterly ridiculous.

Learner example:
The information provided in your report about the final goal was utterly wrong.
vacancy /ˈver.ˌkən.si/

Word family:

Nouns: vacancy
Adjectives: vacant

NOUN [C]

JOB

[C1] a job that is available for someone to do

Dictionary example:
Tell me if you hear of any vacancies for secretaries.

Learner example:
We look forward to meeting you at your earliest convenience to discuss details, go over our salary and health package as well as any other questions you might have, before starting the procedure of finding suitable candidates for the job vacancies.

ROOM

[C1] a room that is available in a hotel

Dictionary example:
Do you have any vacancies?

Learner example:
The hotels have no vacancies, the tourists are everywhere.

---

vacant /ˈver.ˌkənt/

Word family:

Nouns: vacancy
Adjectives: vacant

ADJECTIVE

EMPTY

[B2] Somewhere that is vacant is available because it is not being used.

Dictionary examples:
a vacant building
The room next to ours is vacant at the moment.
Learner example:
You see, we have plenty of vacant rooms so you would not cause any trouble.

JOB
[B2] A vacant job is available for someone to do.

Dictionary example:
The assistant marketing post is vacant – why don’t you apply?

Learner example:
Therefore, I believe I am suitable for your vacant position.

vaccinate /ˈvæk.sɪn.eɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: vaccination, vaccine
Verbs: vaccinate

VERB [T]
[C2] to give someone a vaccine to stop them from getting a disease

Dictionary example:
Have you been vaccinated against polio?

Learner example:
Today, in most civilized countries, small kids are vaccinated against most lethal viruses, like hepatitis, and old people are even vaccinated against the flu.

vaccination /ˌvæk.sɪˈneɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: vaccination, vaccine
Verbs: vaccinate

NOUN [C]
[C2] an injection that protects you against a disease

Dictionary example:
All the children are given a meningitis vaccination.

Learner example:
Local health-care cent[re]s are assisting with birth-control advice, vaccinations and general check-ups.
vaccine /ˈvæk.siːn/

Word family:
Nouns: vaccination, vaccine
Verbs: vaccinate

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a substance that is given to people to stop them from getting a particular disease

Dictionary example:
Doctors have run out of the flu vaccine.

Learner example:
An experiment was recently conducted by the same scientist group to verify if the vaccine works.

---

vague /ˈveɪɡ/

Word family:
Adjectives: vague
Adverbs: vaguely

ADJECTIVE

NOT CLEAR
[C1] not clear or certain

Dictionary examples:
I have a vague idea of where the hotel is.
He was a bit vague about directions.

Learner example:
Do not misunderstand me: I greatly enjoyed the conference but it did not give me the satisfaction of having even a vague idea of what I would like to do...

NOT THINKING
[C2] showing that someone is not thinking clearly or does not understand

Dictionary example:
a vague expression

Learner example:
If someone had asked him why, this person would have [given] a vague look, a dismissive shrug of two shoulders and a "oh, just because".
vaguely  /ˈvæɡ.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: vague
Adverbs: vaguely

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that is not clear or certain

Dictionary example:
I vaguely remember meeting him at Lionel's house.

Learner example:
I can vaguely remember the decor, and if I tried harder maybe I could remember the taste of the ice-cream.

vain  /vɛrn/

Word family:
Nouns: vanity
Adjectives: vain

ADJECTIVE

in vain
[C1] without any success

Dictionary example:
I tried in vain to start a conversation.

Learner example:
We looked in vain for the guide through three London parks.

a vain attempt/effort/hope [C2] A vain attempt/effort, etc. does not have the result you want.

Dictionary example:
I made a vain attempt to engage him in conversation.

Learner example:
Many flew to cities in the vain hope of earning money, thus increasing the number of the homeless.

APPEARANCE
[C2] too interested in your own appearance and thinking you are very attractive

Dictionary example:
He's terribly vain.
Learner example:
Men are vain creatures who worry, maybe excessively, about beauty and keeping up with standards of beauty set by society.

valid /ˈvæl.id/

Word family:
Nouns: validity
Adjectives: valid

GOOD REASON
[B2] based on good reasons or facts that are true

Dictionary examples:
a valid excuse/reason
a valid argument/criticism
My ideas might be different from yours, but they're equally valid.

Learner example:
You could hardly think of Dr Quimper as guilty, because every one of the Crackenthorpe family had a valid reason to kill.

OFFICIALLY ACCEPTABLE
[B2] officially or legally acceptable

Dictionary examples:
The ticket is valid for three months.
My passport is valid for another two years.
You need to enter a valid password.

Learner example:
Is this offer valid for the weekends, as well?

validity /vəˈlɪd.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: validity
Adjectives: valid

NOUN [u]
[C2] how true or reasonable something is

Dictionary example:
We should question the validity of these statements.
Learner example:
This statement is so obvious we almost never question its validity.

valley /ˈvæl.i/

NOUN [C]
[B1] an area of low land between hills or mountains, often with a river running through it

Dictionary examples:
the Nile Valley
the Thames valley
There was snow on the hill tops but not in the valley.

Learner example:
My home town is situated in a valley.

valuable /ˈvæl.jʊ.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: value
Verbs: value
Adjectives: valuable, invaluable

ADJECTIVE

OBJECTS
[B1] Valuable objects are worth a lot of money.

Dictionary examples:
valuable paintings
These antiques are extremely valuable.

Learner example:
So as you can imagine, not only is the ring valuable but it also means a lot to me since it makes me remember Brazil!

INFORMATION
[B2] Valuable information, advice, etc. is very helpful or important.

Dictionary example:
He was able to provide the police with some valuable information.

Learner example:
This trip will allow me to gain valuable knowledge and experience.
value /ˈvæl.juː/

Word family:
Nouns: value
Verbs: value
Adjectives: valuable, invaluable

NOUN

MONEY
[B1] [c or u] how much money something could be sold for

Dictionary examples:
The new road has affected the value of these houses.
She had already sold everything of value that she possessed.
Cars quickly go down in value.
The value of the pound fell against other European currencies yesterday.

Learner example:
"Well, there was nothing of value in [the suitcase]," my mother remarked, but I was close to tears.

good value (for money)
[B1] If something is good value, it is of good quality or you think the amount of money you spent on it was right.

Dictionary example:
The meal was very good value.

Learner example:
It's real[ly] good value for money, including all equipment, accom[m]odation and food.

IMPORTANCE
[B1] [u] how useful or important something is

Dictionary examples:
The documents are of great historical value.
The necklace had great sentimental value.

Learner example:
I was really sad because th[ese] shoes had a lot of sentimental value for me, and they were made of genuine le[a]ther!

VALUES
[B2] the beliefs people have about what is right and wrong and what is most important in life, which control their behaviour

Dictionary example:
family/moral/traditional values

Learner example:
A tragedy occurs which causes Andrew to rediscover his moral values.
at face value
[C1] If you accept something at face value because of the way it first looks or seems, you do so without thinking carefully about it.

Dictionary examples:
You can't just accept everything you read in the newspapers at face value. These results should not be taken at face value – careful analysis is required to assess their full implications.

Learner example:
People are assessed at face value [by] the type of cars they drive.

VERB [T]

IMPORTANCE
[B2] to consider something important

Dictionary example:
I've always valued her advice.

Learner example:
I will learn how other people live and I will also learn to value the things I have.

MONEY
[C2] to judge how much money something could be sold for

Dictionary example:
The ring was valued at $1000.

Learner example:
My house was valued at £200,000.

van /væn/

NOUN [C]
[B1] a vehicle that is used for carrying things but which is smaller than a truck

Dictionary examples:
a delivery van a van driver

Learner example:
I looked in my mirror and saw [a] white van.
vandalism /ˈvæn.də.lɪ.zəm/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the crime of intentionally damaging things in public places

Dictionary example:
There has been more vandalism in the town centre recently.

Learner example:
As the members of the local council will know, our area is facing many problems with youths hanging around on the weekends causing grievances such as vandalism, noise and stealing in the local shops.

vanish /ˈvæn.ɪʃ/

VERB [i]
[B2] to disappear suddenly

Dictionary examples:
The sun vanished behind the clouds.
The child vanished while on her way home from school.

Learner example:
I [went after] the thief but he vanished into the crowd.

vanity /ˈvæn.ə.ti/

Word family:
Nouns: vanity
Adjectives: vain

NOUN [u]
[C2] when someone thinks they are very attractive and is too interested in their own appearance

Dictionary example:
Her vanity is staggering.

Learner example:
The vanity of wearing the most fashionable clothes bores my other friend, Kate, to death.
variable /ˈveə.ri.ə.bl/

Word family:
Nouns: variation, variety, variable
Verbs: vary
Adjectives: varied, various, variable
Adverbs: invariably

ADJECTIVE
[C1] changing often

Dictionary example:
The sound quality on the recording is variable.

Learner example:
By contrast the figure is more variable regarding the other topics.

NOUN [c]
[C1] a number, amount, or situation which can change

Dictionary example:
A patient's recovery time depends on so many variables, such as age, weight, and general health.

Learner example:
There are too many variables and happiness may also depend on the soci[al] background of a person.

variation /ˌveə.riˈeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: variation, variety, variable
Verbs: vary
Adjectives: varied, various, variable
Adverbs: invariably

NOUN
DIFFERENCE
[B2] [c or u] a difference in amount or quality

Dictionary examples:
variations in price/temperature
There was some variation in the quality of the prints.

Learner example:
Apart from this, there is very little variation in temperature between day and night.

DIFFERENT THING
[C2] [c] something that is slightly different from the usual form
Dictionary example:
It's a variation on the standard apple pie.

Learner example:
Big Brother's counterpart, "Lost Story", did really well the first time and a bit less the second time. Still, it is very popular and a variation on this theme, called "Nine people", still does very well today.

---

varied /ˈveə.rɪd/

Word family:
- Nouns: variation, variety, variable
- Verbs: vary
- Adjectives: varied, various, variable
- Adverbs: invariably

ADJECTIVE

[B2] consisting of many different things or types

Dictionary examples:
- a varied diet
- a long and varied career

Learner example:
Remember you should always eat a varied diet.

---

variety /vəˈraɪ.ə.ti/

Word family:
- Nouns: variation, variety, variable
- Verbs: vary
- Adjectives: varied, various, variable
- Adverbs: invariably

NOUN

[BEING DIFFERENT]

[B1] [U] the quality of often changing or of being made of many different things

Dictionary examples:
Factory work often lacks variety.
I think you need a bit more variety in your diet.

Learner example:
You know, I like variety a lot and don't like my friends to see me with [the same] clothes.
vary /ˈveə.rɪ/

Word family:

Nouns: variation, variety, variable

Verbs: vary

Adjectives: varied, various, variable

Adverbs: invariably

VERB

BE DIFFERENT

[B2] [i] If things of the same type vary, they are different from each other.

Dictionary examples:
Car prices vary greatly/widely across Europe.
The samples varied in quality but were generally acceptable.

Learner example:
The price of the dishes varies.

CHANGE

[B2] [i or r] to change or to cause something to change

Dictionary examples:
Temperatures vary depending on/according to the time of year.
I try to vary what I eat.

Learner example:
To vary the pictures of cultural events, I would recommend [visiting] the Wednesday market, which starts at 8 am.

---

vase /ˈvɑː.z/

Noun [c]

[B1] a container that you put flowers in

Dictionary examples:
a glass vase
a vase of flowers

Learner example:
Yesterday I went to a shopping centre with my mother, and bought a small desk, a radio, a vase, and a small sofa.
vast /vaːst/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] extremely big

Dictionary examples:
a vast amount/sum of money vast areas of forest
The vast majority of pupils attend state schools.

Learner example:
Among the vast choice of interesting buildings to photograph I can name the "National Portrait Museum", a huge building in renaissance style, [and] the old "Castle of Sforza", built in the eleventh century.

---

vegetarian /ˌvedʒ.ɪˈteə.ri.ən/

NOUN [C]
[B1] someone who does not eat meat or fish

Dictionary example:
Of the four million people who have become vegetarians in Britain, nearly two-thirds are women.

Learner example:
I've heard that even the non-vegetarian food is good there, but I'm a vegetarian.

ADJECTIVE
[B1] not eating, containing or using meat or fish

Dictionary examples:
All her children are vegetarian.
vegetarian cooking/food
a vegetarian dish/meal
She's recently gone/become vegetarian.

Learner example:
Do you like vegetarian food?

---

vegetation /ˌvedʒ.ɪˈteɪ.ʃən/

NOUN [U]
[C1] the plants and trees that grow in a particular area

Dictionary example:
They hacked a path through the dense vegetation.
Learner example:
I dream of being the first one to set foot on a white sandy beach, to admire a new kind of vegetation: cranberry bushes, sweet potatoes, wild turkeys, a different climate; how scary and exciting at the same time!

vehicle /ˈviː.ɪ.kl/

NOUN [c]

TRANSPORT
[B1] something such as a car or bus that takes people from one place to another, especially using roads

Dictionary example:
The driver of the vehicle was unhurt.

Learner example:
Sometimes I watch programmes about cars and other vehicles, because I'm keen on them.

a vehicle for sth/doing sth
[C2] something that you use as a way of telling people your ideas or opinions

Dictionary example:
The paper was merely a vehicle for his political beliefs.

Learner example:
And you, as our local newspaper, will become a vehicle for our objections.

veil /vɛɪl/

NOUN [c]

[C1] a thin piece of material that covers a woman's face

Dictionary example:
She wore a thin veil.

Learner example:
And most brides wear a long veil so grooms can't see their wife's face.

vein /vɛın/

NOUN
[C1] [c] one of the tubes in your body that carries blood to the heart
Dictionary example:
the veins in the leg/neck

Learner example:
Do you love the sensation of your blood rushing in your veins, your knees trembling slightly and your hair standing [to] attention? Well, I do, and dangerous sports are the thing for me.

---

velvet /ˈvel.vɪt/

NOUN [u]

[C2] cloth that has a thick, soft surface on one side

Dictionary example:
a black velvet jacket

Learner example:
Then came the day of his funeral and we attended the ceremony (as good neighbours do when someone from next door dies), only to find that it was held by a group of 12 sombre men, clad in dark velvet robes, each one of them holding a black candle, chanting some kind of mourning song that haunted our memories for the rest of the day and, perhaps even the following night.

---

vent /vet/

NOUN [c]

give vent to

[C2] to express strong anger or another strong feeling

Dictionary example:
He gave vent to the frustration that had been building up inside him.

Learner example:
It's a great fallacy that giving vent to our emotion will be a solution to the problem itself and will lead to anything at all.

VERB

vent your anger/frustration, etc.

[C2] to do or say something to show your anger or another strong, bad feeling

Dictionary example:
He vented his anger by kicking the door.

Learner example:
The room at the attic was my only haven, the sole asylum where I could forget the wrinkled face ranting and raving at me, fuming with animosity towards me, venting her anger and frustration and all the other feelings bottled up in her.
venture /ˈven.tʃər/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a new activity or business

Dictionary example:
a business venture

Learner example:
They even give vast amounts of people a means of living, and can become very lucrative business ventures.

VERB FORMAL

venture into/out/outside, etc.

[C2] to leave a safe place and go somewhere that may involve risks

Dictionary example:
If the snow stops, I might venture out.

Learner example:
After having visited some of the more frequented island[s], we decided to venture out to the island of Fourni.

nothing ventured, nothing gained

[C2] used to say that it is worth trying something, even if you may not succeed

Dictionary example:
It will be quite expensive ... still, nothing ventured nothing gained!

Learner example:
It was a demanding task to prepare it but nothing ventured nothing gained.

venue /ˈven.juː/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a place where a sports game, musical performance, or special event happens

Dictionary examples:
The hotel is an ideal venue for conferences and business meetings.
The stadium has been specifically designed as a venue for European Cup matches.

Learner example:
This festival has already got a good reputation as an alternative venue for both artists and audience.
verbal /ˈvɜː.bəl/

ADJECTIVE
WORDS
[C2] relating to words or the use of words

Dictionary example:
verbal ability/skills

Learner example:
Not only would this system help the keen students to improve their verbal fluency, it would also help them to prepare their lessons in time for the next class.

SPOKEN
[C2] spoken and not written

Dictionary example: a verbal promise/agreement

---

verdict /ˈvɜː.dɪkt/

NOUN [c]
[C2] a decision made in a court of law or by a person in authority

Dictionary examples:
a guilty verdict
The jury took nine hours to reach a verdict.

Learner example:
As far as I can see it the redundancy verdict is based on the judgement about an employee’s value.

---

verge /vɜːdʒ/

NOUN [c]
be on the verge of sth/doing sth
[C2] to be going to happen or to do something very soon

Dictionary examples:
a company on the verge of financial disaster
I was on the verge of leaving my job.

Learner example:
I was on the verge of depression, when I decided to take control of my own life.
verify  /ˈver.i.fər/

VERB  [r]

[C1] to prove that something is true, or do something to discover if it is true

Dictionary example:
It was impossible to verify her statement.

Learner example:
The Canadian Patent Office Branch will be responsible for verifying if new inventions are truly new or have already been invented somewhere in the world.

versatile  /ˈvɜːsə.təl/

ADJECTIVE

PERSON
[C2] having many different skills

Dictionary example:
a versatile player/performer

Learner example:
She is a very gregarious and versatile person whose scintillating and jocular personality makes everybody melt.

THING
[C2] useful for doing a lot of different things

Dictionary example:
a versatile tool

Learner example:
The Internet today is the most versatile tool in so many ways.

verse  /vɜːs/

NOUN  [c]

[B2] one of the parts that a song or poem is divided into

Dictionary examples:
I only know the first verse of the poem.
Each verse was sung as a solo and then everyone joined in on the chorus.
Learner example:
But I was so puzzled that when I tried to sing, I couldn't remember a word of the verse I had written.

version /ˈvɜː.ʒən/

NOUN [C]

FORM
[B2] one form of something that is slightly different to other forms of the same thing

Dictionary examples:
An English-language version of the book is planned for the autumn.
The original version of the film is much better.
a new/updated version

Learner example:
Who has never said that the original book was better than the film version?

DESCRIPTION
[C1] someone's description of what has happened

Dictionary example:
Bates gave his version of events to the police.

Learner example:
For that reason, I have to ask you for a formal apology in print, where you could give the correct version of events and also change the bad image you gave to the readers of the people of my organisation.

versus /ˈvɜː.səs/

PREPOSITION

AGAINST
[C1] used to say that one team or person is competing against another

Dictionary example:
Tomorrow's game is Newcastle versus Arsenal.

Learner example:
Starting in chronological order you can see the first game – Argentina versus Germany – which was a revenge for the final competition in the previous World Cup, '88.
COMPARSED WITH

[C1] used to compare two things or ideas, especially when you have to choose between them

Dictionary example:
private education versus state education

Learner example:
Mobile phones – fashion versus utility Nowadays, [everywhere] you look, there is someone speaking [on] a mobile phone.

---

vertical /ˈvɜː.tɪk.əl/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] pointing straight up from a surface

Dictionary example:
a vertical line

Learner example:
The vertical axis shows the percentage of age groups attending the cinema at least once in a year, while the horizontal axis represents the years from 1990 to 2010.

---

very /ˈver.i/

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

[C2] used to emphasize a noun

Dictionary examples:
This is the very book I've been looking for all month.
You're the very person we need for the job.
The letter was sent on Monday from Manchester and arrived in London the very same/next day.

Learner example:
You cannot infringe individual liberties and ban the purchase of cars – it would go against the very fabric of modern society.

---

vest /vest/

NOUN [C]

UNDERWEAR

[C1] a piece of underwear that you wear under a shirt
Dictionary example:
You'll need a vest in this weather.

Learner example:
The contents include two [items of male] underwear, size medium, white colour. Also a pair of white sock[s] and one vest medium size.

---

vet  /vet/

NOUN [C]

[B1] someone whose job is to give medical care to animals that are ill or hurt

Dictionary example:
Helen is training to become a vet.

Learner example:
Sorry Mr Smith but I'll miss tomorrow's class as I have to go to the vet with my dog.

---

veteran  /ˈvet.ər.n/

NOUN [C]

MILITARY PERSON

[C2] someone who has been in an army or navy during a war

Dictionary example:
a veteran of World War Two

Learner example:
But even now I can recollect my unwillingness to get involved in parades, to join the veterans, military men, soldiers who were really proud of having a rare opportunity to feel a cog in a big wheel.

A LONG TIME

[C2] someone who has done a job or activity for a long time

Dictionary example:
a 20–year veteran of BBC news

Learner example:
Since I'm a passionate and veteran traveller, I do agree with some points.
via /vaɪə/

PREPOSITION

JOURNEY
[B1] going through or stopping at a place on the way to another place

Dictionary example:
The train to Utrecht goes via Amsterdam.

Learner example:
Two years ago I travel[led] to Canada via Italy.

USING
[B1] using a particular machine, system or person to send or receive something

Dictionary examples:
Reports are coming in via satellite.
I only found out about it via my sister.

Learner example:
I hate shopping via [the] internet.

viable /ˈvaɪə.bl/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] effective and able to be successful

Dictionary examples:
a viable alternative to nuclear power an economically viable plan

Learner example:
This is a question that demands reasonable answers and viable solutions.

vice /vaɪs/

NOUN
[C2] [c] something bad that someone often does

Dictionary example:
Smoking is his only vice.

Learner example:
At present I'm a heavy smoker and I think I will do my best to keep them away from this unhealthy vice.
vice versa /ˌvaɪsˈvɜː.sə/

ADVERB

[C1] used for referring to the opposite of what you have just said

Dictionary example:
Never use indoor lights outside and vice versa.

Learner example:
The piles of cash are not far away from any celebrity and we all know that time equals money and vice versa.

vicinity /ˈvɪsɪn.ə.ti/

NOUN

in the vicinity (of sth) FORMAL

[C2] in the area near a place

Dictionary example:
A number of buildings in the vicinity of the fire were damaged.

Learner example:
This centre would provide new sports and leisure premises for our town and would certainly attract young people from other towns in the vicinity as well.

vicious /ˈvɪʃ.əs/

ADJECTIVE

VIOLENT

[C2] violent and dangerous

Dictionary examples:
a vicious attack on a child a vicious dog

Learner example:
She was a real, vicious murderer.

UPSETTING

[C2] intended to upset someone

Dictionary example:
a vicious rumour
Learner example:
One advantage with this school that rose above the others, was the fact that there was virtually no cruel bullying or vicious teasing.

a vicious circle/cycle
[C2] a continuing unpleasant situation, created when one problem causes another problem which then makes the first problem worse

Dictionary example:
Many people get trapped in a vicious circle of dieting and weight gain.

Learner example:
So we could say that it becomes a vicious circle.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>victim</th>
<th>/ˈvɪkm.ɪm/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [c]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] someone who has suffered the effects of violence, illness or bad luck</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>victims of crime</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The children are the innocent victims of the fighting.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The new drug might help save the lives of cancer victims.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>His wife was his last victim.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>victory</th>
<th>/ˈvɪk.tər.i/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [c or u]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B2] when you win a game, competition, election, fight, war, etc.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionary examples:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Phoenix managed a 135–114 victory over Denver.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grant won/achieved/gained a comfortable/easy victory over Cooper in yesterday's match.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>This result is a victory for democracy.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learner example:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They were all celebrating their victory with a gorgeous dinner.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>video clip</th>
<th>/ˈvɪd.i.oʊˌklɪp/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NOUN [c]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[B1] a short video recording that you can see on a website</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3282
Dictionary example:
The website has several video clips of Murray's recent matches.

Learner example:
It shows how a band or a singer do their video clips.

view /vjuː/

Word family:
Nouns: view, viewer
Verbs: view

NOUN

OPINION

[B1] [c] your opinion

Dictionary examples:
We have different views about/on education.
In my view, her criticisms were justified.
I take the view that everyone should be free to decide for themselves.
It's my view that everyone should have the right to choose.
We had a friendly exchange of views.

Learner example:
Well, in my view, spending time in a city is more sensible.

ABILITY TO SEE

[B2] [NO PLURAL] how well you can see something from a particular place

Dictionary examples:
We had a great view of the procession.
Don't stand in front of me – you're blocking my view of the stage.
She turned a corner, and disappeared from view.

Learner example:
In a few seconds, he disappear[ed] out of my view.

in view of sth

[B2] [FORMAL] because of

Dictionary example:
In view of recent events, we have decided to cancel the meeting.

Learner example:
In view of what happened, I would advise you not to try to mislead people like this [again].

with a view to doing sth [FORMAL]

[C1] so that you can do something
Dictionary example:
He's doing some improvements on the house with a view to selling it.

Learner example:
The purpose of this report is to assess the success of the latest tour our sports club organised and make relevant suggestions with a view to enhancing future trips.

POSITION
[C2] [u] a position from which something can be seen

Dictionary examples:
The house was hidden from view behind a wall.
He turned the corner and the harbour came into view.

Learner example:
The animal disappeared as unexpectedly as it came into view.

VERB
WATCH
[C2] to watch something

Dictionary example:
They were able to view the city from a helicopter.

Learner example:
People sit in p[al]atial cafes and restaurants to view the beauty of that "lazy river".

OPINION
[C2] to have a particular opinion about someone or something

Dictionary example:
In all three countries he is viewed as a terrorist.

Learner example:
There is of course the argument of many young people: that they live in a society that oppress them, where they cannot express themselves freely and where, whatever they do or say, they are viewed as 'punks' or 'idiots' by adults.

viewer /ˈvjuːə/

Word family:
Nouns: view, viewer
Verbs: view

NOUN [C]
[B2] someone who watches a television programme

Dictionary example:
Millions of viewers will be watching this match.
Learner example:
He’s an extraordinary person and TV viewers will love him because of his good sense of humor and his honesty.

viewpoint  /ˈvjuː.pɔɪnt/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a way of thinking about a situation

Dictionary example:
From his viewpoint the action seemed entirely justified.

Learner example:
As a student, I feel concerned [about] the traffic issue and I asked some people about their viewpoints on the two proposals.

villager  /ˈvɪl.ɪ.dʒər/

Word family:
Nouns: village, villager

NOUN [c]
[C2] someone who lives in a village

Dictionary example:
Most of the villagers are opposed to the new road.

Learner example:
We, the villagers, are very worried about the effect the noise will have on our children and their sense of hearing.

vine  /vaɪn/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a plant that grapes grow on

Dictionary example:
The wall was covered in a vine.

Learner example:
After following the walking path through the vines at Canon-Fronsac you could climb the Canon Mountain to have a view all over the region.
vinegar /ˈvɪn.ɪ.gər/

NOUN [u]
[B2] a sour liquid that is used in cooking, often made from wine

Dictionary example:
red wine vinegar violate /ˈvaɪ.ə.leɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: violence
Verbs: violate
Adjectives: violent
Adverbs: violently

VERB [T] FORMAL
[C2] to not obey a law, rule, or agreement

Dictionary example:
Countries that violate international law will be dealt with in court.

Learner example:
All three points strongly violate the regulations and immediate action is required.

violence /ˈvaɪə.lə.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: violence
Verbs: violate
Adjectives: violent
Adverbs: violently

NOUN [u]

HURT
[B2] I when someone tries to hurt or kill someone else

Dictionary examples:
an act of violence
A number of people were killed in the violence.
Violence against women has increased in recent years.
The recent outbreak of violence in the region is very disturbing.

Learner example:
Today, it is important that children and teenagers do something with their free time and do not get in contact with criminality and violence.
EXTREME FORCE

[C2] extreme force and energy, especially of something causing damage

Dictionary example:
Such was the violence of the explosion that three buildings collapsed.

violent /ˈvaɪə.lənt/

Word family:
Nouns: violence
Verbs: violate
Adjectives: violent
Adverbs: violently

ADJECTIVE

ACTION
[B2] involving violence

Dictionary examples:
a violent crime
a violent protest
His films tend to be very violent.

Learner example:
Some say that television can affect people in bad ways and sometimes causes violent incidents.

PERSON
[B2] using force to hurt or attack someone else

Dictionary examples:
a violent criminal
He shouts a lot but I don't think he's ever been physically violent towards her.

Learner example:
Now Mary knew what happened at Jamaica Inn and it was very dangerous for her because her uncle was a violent man.

DAMAGE
[C2] sudden and causing damage

Dictionary example:
a violent explosion/storm

Learner example:
The violent storm was rocking the ship back and forth.
violently /ˈvaɪə.lənt.li/

Word family:
Nouns: violence
Verbs: violate
Adjectives: violent
Adverbs: violently

ADVERB
[B2] in a way that involves violence

Dictionary examples:
He often behaved violently and they were terrified of him.
He claimed to have been violently assaulted while in prison.

Learner example:
Sometimes they behave violently because of their [imprison]ment.

virgin /ˈvɜː.dʒɪn/

NOUN [C]
[C2] someone who has never had sex

Dictionary example:
She was a virgin at the time of her marriage.

Learner example:
Why was it that everybody assumed that after your 18th birthday you could not possibly be a virgin any more?

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Virgin land, forest, etc. has not been used or damaged by people.

Dictionary example:
50 acres of virgin woodland

Learner example:
The balance of nature is threatened by the construction of luxurious hotels in the middle of virgin forests.

virtual /ˈvɜː.tju.al/

Word family:
Adjectives: virtual
Adverbs: virtually
ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

USING COMPUTER
[B2] using computer images and sounds that make you think an imagined situation is real

Dictionary example:
a virtual art gallery online

Learner example:
However, I go far away from my family and other people and have virtual relationships.

ALMOST
[C1] almost a particular thing or quality

Dictionary examples:
Ten years of bad government had brought about the virtual collapse of the country's economy. War in the region now looks like a virtual certainty.

Learner example:
However the growth of our cities and townships co[up]led with an exponential increase in traffic and facilities have transformed these areas into virtual no-go zones virtually /ˈvɜː.tju.ə.lɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: virtual
Adverbs: virtually

ADVERB

ALMOST [B2] almost

Dictionary examples:
I've virtually finished.
Their twins are virtually identical.
That wine stain on my shirt has virtually disappeared.

Learner example:
Virtually everyone today can go out and buy their own personal computer.

COMPUTER
[B2] in a way that uses computer images and sounds that make you think an imagined situation is real

Dictionary example:
Nowadays all these things can be experienced virtually.
Learner example:
I also have the possibility of making new friends: I can connect to a special site which will enable me to [meet people] virtually.

virtual reality /ˌvɜː.tju.ə.ˈrɪ.əl.ə.ti/

NOUN [u]

[B2] when a computer produces images and sounds that make you think an imagined situation is real

Dictionary examples:
virtual reality games
virtual reality software

Learner example:
Magnificent scientific pro[j]ects are done by computers, [as well as] daily shopping, com[m]unication with people in other parts of the world, games, getting any kind of information and, soon, virtual reality!

virtue /ˈvɜː.tjuː/

NOUN

by virtue of sth FORMAL

[C2] because of something

Dictionary example:
She succeeded by virtue of hard work rather than talent.

Learner example:
However, you should take into consideration the expenses, which might be exorbitant by virtue of the fact that you inten[d] to create places with a beautiful ambience and a wide range of comforts offered that will facilitate residents' lives.

GOOD QUALITY

[C2] [c] a good quality that someone has

Dictionary example:
Patience is not among his virtues.

Learner example:
The saying 'patience is a virtue' has been very over-used but that does not make it any less true.

ADVANTAGE

[C2] [c or u] an advantage or useful quality
Dictionary example:
The great virtue of having a small car is that you can park it easily.

Learner example:
Finally it should be said that despite the negative attitudes towards the overcrowding of our good old Earth, longer life seems to have more virtues than drawbacks.

MORAL BEHAVIOUR
[C2] [u] behaviour that is morally good

Dictionary example:
She was a woman of great virtue.

Learner example:
Mother Theresa, she was a model of virtue.

virus /ˈvaɪərəs/

NOUN [c]

COMPUTER PROBLEM
[B1] a program that is secretly put onto a computer in order to destroy the information that is stored on it

Dictionary example:
My computer has been behaving oddly and I suspect it’s a virus.

Learner example:
That document was a "virus" and erased all my documents on my computer.

SMALL ORGANISM
[B2] an infectious organism too small to be seen that causes disease, or an illness that it causes

Dictionary examples:
a flu virus
I don’t know exactly what’s wrong with her – I think it’s some sort of virus.

Learner example:
My "friend" Pat told everybody that my brother died and that he died because he got a virus – that’s why I didn’t have friends because all the people thought that I had the virus too.
visa /ˈviː.zə/

NOUN [c]
[B1] an official mark in your passport which allows you to enter or leave a particular country

Dictionary example:
We travelled to Argentina on a tourist visa.

Learner example:
Tomorrow I am not going to attend [the] class because I have to apply for my visa at 9.00.

visible /ˈviz.ə.bəl/

Word family:
Nouns: vision
Adjectives: invisible, visible, visual Adverbs: visibly

ADJECTIVE

[B2] able to be seen

Dictionary examples:
You should wear something light-coloured when you're cycling at night so that you're more visible.
The fire was visible from five kilometres away.
There are few visible signs of the illness that kept her in hospital for so long.
The comet should be visible to the naked eye.

Learner example:
He waited curiously for her to become visible through the fog, which seemed to have [become] denser in the last few seconds.

OBVIOUS

[C1] obvious or noticeable

Dictionary examples:
She is a highly visible environmental spokesperson.
There is a visible improvement in your essay writing.

Learner example:
After about three months I noticed a visible improvement.
visibly /ˈvɪz.ə.bli/

Word family:
Nouns: vision
Adjectives: invisible, visible, visual Adverbs: visibly

ADVERB
[C2] in a way that can be seen

Dictionary example:
He was visibly upset.

Learner example:
However, it is my firm conviction that if the authority reconsiders some of its regulations and take urgent steps, [the number of] unemployed people will be visibly reduced.

vision /ˈvɪʒ.ən/

Word family:
Nouns: vision
Adjectives: invisible, visible, visual Adverbs: visibly

NOUN

IDEA
[B2] [c] an idea or image in your mind of what something could be like in the future

Dictionary examples:
a vision of a better society
We see in his novels his grim vision of the future.

Learner example:
All in all, I think you must write a new report to apologize for having been so pessimistic and having given such a bleak vision of this Festival.

SIGHT
[B2] [u] the ability to see

Dictionary example:
He has poor vision in his left eye.

Learner example:
Her hands were sweating and her vision had become a blur because of the tension in the air.

ABILITY TO PLAN
[C1] [u] the ability to make plans for the future that are imaginative and wise
Dictionary example:
As a leader, he lacked vision.

Learner example:
A man of vision, Eleftherios Venizelos played a significant role in the history of my country, as in his time it became, with [few] changes, what it is today.

visit /ˈvɪz.ɪt/

Word family:
- Nouns: visit, visitor
- Verbs: visit

NOUN [C]
- [B1] when you visit a place or a person
  - Dictionary examples:
    - the President's visit to Argentina
    - I think I'll pay a visit to the hairdresser's while I'm in town.
    - We had a visit from the school inspector last week.
  - Learner example:
    - The problem is that my mother arranged a visit [to] the doctor, and after that [to] the dentist.

visual /ˈvɪʒ.u.əl/

Word family:
- Nouns: vision
- Adjectives: invisible, visible, visual
- Adverbs: visibly

ADJECTIVE
- [B2] relating to seeing
  - Dictionary example:
    - The film has some powerful visual effects.
  - Learner example:
    - It also provides a clear idea of how people's lives were in a particular period by showing us the visual images of that time.

vital /ˈvaɪ.təl/

Word family:
- Adjectives: vital
- Adverbs: vitally
ADJECTIVE

[B2] necessary or extremely important

Dictionary examples:
- Tourism is vital to the country's economy.
- The kidney plays a vital role/part in the removal of waste products from the blood.
- It's absolutely vital that you follow the instructions exactly.

Learner example:
- If you don't mind I would like to ask you some vital questions.

vitality /ˈvɪtəl.ə.ti/

NOUN [u]

[C2] energy and strength

Dictionary example:
- At 48, he still projects an image of youth and vitality.

Learner example:
- His bad behaviour was often excused, being blamed on his "boyish vitality", [while] I was expected to be a good girl most of the time.

vitally /ˈvɪ.tə.li/

Word family:
- Adjectives: vital
- Adverbs: vitally

ADVERB

[C2] in a very important way

Dictionary example:
- Safety at work is vitally important.

Learner example:
- Being able to use the computer and the Internet successfully is vitally important in today's society but it will be even more important in the future.

vitamin /ˈvɪt.ə.mɪn/

NOUN [c]

[B2] one of a group of natural substances that you need to be healthy Dictionary examples:
a vitamin pill
Oranges are full of vitamin C.

Learner example:
On the one hand, we eat a lot of sweet [or] fat food, which lack[s] vitamins.

vivacious /vɪˈveɪ.ʃəs/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] A vivacious person, especially a woman, is full of energy and enthusiasm.

Dictionary example:
She is extremely vivacious.

Learner example:
She was a vivacious and audacious girl keen on getting to know the world outside Israel.

vivid /ˈvɪv.ɪd/

Word family:
Adjectives: vivid
Adverbs: vividly

ADJECTIVE

DESCRIPTIONS

[B2] Vivid descriptions or memories produce strong, clear images in your mind.

Dictionary examples:
He gave a very vivid account/description of life in Havana.
I still have a very vivid memory of the evening.
She has a very vivid imagination.

Learner example:
Each memory is still so vivid.

COLOURS

[B2] A vivid colour is very bright.

Dictionary example:
She was wearing a vivid pink shirt.

Learner example:
Students would like to have some vivid colours or pictures on the walls but the best solution would be to repaint the walls.
vividly /ˈvɪv.ɪd.lɪ/

Word family:
Adjectives: vivid
Adverbs: vividly

ADVERB
[B2] in a vivid way

Dictionary example:
I vividly remember my first day at school.

Learner example:
She could vividly remember the last time he hurt her, only then it was with a razor.

vocabulary /vəˈkæb.ʒʊə.r.i/

NOUN

LANGUAGE
[C1] [NO PLURAL] all the words that exist in a language, or that are used when discussing a particular subject

Dictionary example:
Computing has its own specialist vocabulary.

Learner example:
The tuition is well adapted to our needs, I mean a specialized vocabulary and the ability to speak with our clients from the English-speaking areas in a fluent way even for technical matters.

vocation /vəˈkər.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: vocation
Adjectives: vocational

NOUN [C or U]
[C2] a strong feeling that you are right for a particular type of work, or a job that gives you this feeling

Dictionary example:
He knew that teaching was his true vocation.

Learner example:
He was a teacher, seeing teaching as his vocation, [and] nothing could boost his confidence as much as excellent students and successful [results].
vocational  /vəʊˈkeɪ.ʃən/

Word family:
Nouns: vocation
Adjectives: vocational

ADJECTIVE
[C2] Vocational education and skills prepare you for a particular type of work.

Dictionary example:
The college offers both vocational and academic courses.

Learner example:
Homeless people need coun[s]elling and education in order to ad[a]pt themselves [to] modern society, appropriate guidance on how to get a job, what vocational qualification is required, and to equip them with confidence to resist the temptation of being in [a] rut again.

voice  /voɪs/

NOUN

SOUNDS
[B1] [c] the sounds that are made when people speak or sing

Dictionary examples:
She has a very loud/quiet/soft voice.
a clear/deep voice
You could tell from her voice that she wasn't pleased.
She lowered her voice to a whisper.
Could you please keep your voices down?

Learner example:
Her voice is so clear and she has the nicest eyes which I've ever seen.

lose your voice
[B2] to become unable to speak, often because of an illness

Dictionary example:
She had a bad cold and was losing her voice.

Learner example:
I immediately became agitated and at the precise moment of my speech I lost my voice completely.

raise your voice
[C1] to speak loudly and angrily to someone

Dictionary example:
He never raised his voice at the children.
Learner example:
Not every au-pair family is pleasant. And believe me, mine was giving me hell on earth. [...] After I returned home I took some time to learn not to freak out when someone raised his voice and eventually I started to see my time in Germany as a great [lesson in] life.

VERB
[C2] to say what you think about a particular subject

Dictionary example:
He has voiced concern about the new proposals.

Learner example:
And in the end they voiced their wishes to re-unify Germany.

volcano /vɒlˈkeɪ.nəʊ/ (plural volcanoes or volcanos)

NOUN [c]
[B2] a mountain with a large hole at the top which sometimes explodes and produces hot, melted rock and smoke

Dictionary examples:
an extinct/active volcano
Erupting volcanoes discharge massive quantities of dust into the atmosphere.

Learner example:
Finally, I think that a good place to go is Santorini, a beautiful island which has a volcano.

volume /ˈvɒl.juːm/

NOUN

SOUND
[B1] [u] the level of sound produced by a television, radio, etc.

Dictionary example:
Could you turn the volume up/down, please.

Learner example:
After we went to the disco and we danced together, but the volume of the music was too high to talk!

AMOUNT
[B2] [u] the number or amount of something, especially when it is large 3299

Dictionary examples:
I was put off by the volume of work involved.
The volume of traffic in the city is causing problems.

Learner example:
Nowadays, marketing volume is rapidly increased in Internet business, according to one of [the] major newspaper[s].

BOOK
[C2] [c] a book, especially one of a set

Dictionary example:
a new dictionary in two volumes

Learner example:
This book which I adored as a child, and as a matter of fact, one which I often come back to, comprises seven volumes, each giving a vivid account of the adventures that the Pevensie siblings, Lucy, Edmund, Susan and Peter, encounter in the magical land of Narnia.

speak volumes
[C2] If something speaks volumes, it makes an opinion, characteristic or situation very clear without the use of words.

Dictionary example:
She said very little, but her face spoke volumes.

Learner example:
It remains to be seen whether the effect of stem cells when applied to humans would be the same, but the achievements speak volumes about the fact that stem cells may one day turn a new [page] in many people's lives and let them get rid of that humiliating label of a "disabled person."

voluntarily /ˈvɒl.ənt.r.oʊ.l.i/

Word family:
Nouns: volunteer
Verbs: volunteer
Adjectives: voluntary
Adverbs: voluntarily

ADVERB
[C2] If you do something voluntarily, nobody has forced you to do it.

Dictionary example:
She left voluntarily.

Learner example:
After he had himself discharged voluntarily from the hospital, he drove up to the cliff, [and] left his car there.
voluntary /ˈvɒl.ən.tə.r.i/

Word family:
- Nouns: volunteer
- Verbs: volunteer
- Adjectives: voluntary
- Adverbs: voluntarily

ADJECTIVE

[C1] Voluntary work is done without being paid and usually involves helping people.

Dictionary examples:
- She does voluntary work for Doctors Without Borders.
- voluntary organizations

Learner example:
- I did voluntary work for a whole year in 1998 in Britain.

volunteer /ˌvɒl.ənˈtɪər/

Word family:
- Nouns: volunteer
- Verbs: volunteer
- Adjectives: voluntary
- Adverbs: voluntarily

NOUN [C]

[B2] a person who does something, especially helping other people, willingly and without being forced or paid to do it

Dictionary examples:
- a Red Cross volunteer
- The charity relies on volunteers to run the office and answer the telephones.

Learner example:
- Well the concert was Friday night and I went there with the Red Cross volunteers, did you know I’m one of them?

VERB

[C1] [i or T] to offer to do something without being asked or told to do it

Dictionary example:
- Rob volunteered to look after the kids.

Learner example:
- One of my classmates, Maria, has volunteered to talk about the different courses and summer activities that the school offers.
vomit /ˈvɒm.ɪt/

VERB [I or T]
[C2] If someone vomits, the food or liquid that was in their stomach comes up and out of their mouth.

Dictionary example:
She was vomiting blood.

Learner example:
They assured me that they felt very sorry for me, but then they always changed the subject quickly and began joking and laughing, whereas I went into the toilet and vomited, because I could not live with all the disgust.

vote /vəʊt/

Word family:
Nouns: vote, voter
Verbs: vote

VERB [I or T]
[B1] to show your choice or opinion in an election or meeting by writing a mark on an official piece of paper or by putting your hand up

Dictionary examples:
Who did you vote for?
The unions voted against strike action.
Staff have voted to accept the pay offer.
She was too young to vote in the national election.
The committee voted on the proposal, and accepted it.

Learner example:
Then the audience and the judges voted which country was the best.

NOUN

SHOW CHOICE
[B1] [c] when someone shows their choice or opinion in an election or meeting by writing a cross on an official piece of paper or putting their hand up

Dictionary examples:
He lost the election by twenty votes.
The suggestion was approved, with 25 votes in favour, and 7 against.
She cast her vote for the Green Party.

Learner example:
The one who gets the most votes will get 1000 Baht as first prize.
DECIDE
[B2] [C usually NO PLURAL] a way of making a decision by asking a group of people to vote

Dictionary example:
We called a meeting in order to take a vote on the issue.

the vote
[C1] when someone is officially allowed to vote

Dictionary example:
In some countries women still don’t have the vote.

Learner example:
Women acquired the vote only 70 years ago.

cast a/your vote
[C2] to vote

Dictionary example:
Many people cast their votes for the opposition.

Learner example:
When the day of the General Elections came, no woman cast her vote [for] James and he lost his seat to a man from a minority party, not even the man representing the Labour Party.

voter /ˈvəʊ.tər/

Word family:
Nouns: vote, voter
Verbs: vote

NOUN [c]
[C2] a person who votes or who has a legal right to vote, especially in an election

Dictionary examples:
Of course, tax cuts are usually popular with (the) voters.
Are you a Labour voter?

Learner example:
Raising taxes to support low-cost housing or provide support for children and women who have been exposed to domestic violence may be unpopular with voters, but it should be emphasised that spending money to reduce homelessness certainly will pay off in the long run.
vow /vɔː/

VERB [v]
[C2] to make a serious promise or decision

Dictionary examples:
She vowed that she would never leave the children again.
I've vowed never to go there again.

Learner example:
Most definitely Yiannakis’ plan had not worked out and after that episode he vowed that he would never set foot in a stadium again.

NOUN [c]
[C2] a serious promise or decision

Dictionary examples:
marriage vows
I made a vow that I would write to him once a week.

Learner example:
The vows (and the rings) are exchanged after a short speech given by the priest.

---

vowel /ˈvaʊəl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a speech sound that you make with your lips and teeth open, shown in English by the letters a, e, i, o, or u

Dictionary examples:
A short vowel is a short sound as in the word 'cup'.
A long vowel is a long sound as in the word 'shoe'.

Learner example:
[In the game,] he let the student[s] cho[o]se [a] vowel or consonant.

---

voyage /ˈvɔɪ.ɪdʒ/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a long journey, especially by ship, or in space

Dictionary example:
Cook’s voyage to Australia
Learner example:
Besides, I have a good command of French and I speak English fluently, which might be also useful during the voyage around the world.

vulnerable /ˈvʌl.nər.ə.bl/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] easy to hurt or attack physically or emotionally

Dictionary examples:
She was a vulnerable sixteen-year-old.
The troops are in a vulnerable position.
He's more vulnerable to infection because of his injuries.

Learner example:
Therefore they are vulnerable to being twisted by their environment, by events, or by more manipulat[ive] minds.
wage /ˈweɪdʒ/

NOUN [NO PLURAL] (also wages)
[B1] the amount of money a person regularly receives for their job

Dictionary examples:
- [weekly wages]
- He earns/gets good wages at the factory.
- a very low/high wage
- the minimum wage
- an hourly/daily/weekly wage

Learner example:
I know it is not nice for my family but I [earn] a good wage for that.

waist /ˈweɪst/

NOUN [C]
[B2] the part of the body above and slightly narrower than the hips

Dictionary examples:
- a small/narrow/tiny/large waist
- These trousers are a bit tight around my waist.
- She has a 26-inch waist.

Learner example:
Chris was holding his arm tight[ly] around Claire's waist.

wait /weɪt/

VERB [I]
keep sb waiting
[B1] to be late so that someone has to wait for you

Dictionary examples:
- I'm sorry to have kept you waiting.
- The dentist kept me waiting for ages.
Learner example:
I'm sorry for keep[ing] you waiting.

wait a minute/moment
[B1] said in order to interrupt someone, or to get their attention or when you have suddenly thought of something important

Dictionary examples:
Now, wait a moment – I don't agree with that.
Wait a minute – I've just had an idea.

Learner example:
Oh! Wait a minute...

wait and see
[C1] to wait to discover what will happen

Dictionary example:
We'll wait and see what she says.

Learner example:
We will just have to wait and see.....

NOT DO SOMETHING
[C1] to not do something until something else happens

Dictionary example:
We'll wait till Jane gets here before we start eating.

Learner example:
The wedding will be at midday, but beca[use] Spanish [people] are the most unpunctual people in the world, maybe we'll have to wait until half past twelve to start the ceremony.

NOUN [NO PLURAL]
[B2] when you stay in one place until someone or something arrives, or someone or something is ready for you

Dictionary examples:
a long wait
well worth the wait
We had a three-hour wait before we could see the doctor.
The long wait for the doctor/to see the doctor really made me anxious.

wake /weɪk/

VERB [I or T] (woke, woken)
[B1] to stop sleeping or to make someone else stop sleeping
Dictionary example:
Please wake me early tomorrow.

Learner example:
Hey Dan, I didn't want to wake you, that's why I left this note.

walk /wɔːk/

Word family:
Nouns: walk, walking, walker
Verbs: walk

VERB [I or T]

walk sb home/to sth
[B1] to walk with someone in order to guide them or keep them safe

Dictionary example:
He walked me to my house.

Learner example:
Then we went to the bar beside the restaurant to have a last drink and he walked me home.

walk the dog
[B1] to walk with a dog to give the dog exercise

Dictionary example:
I walk the dog twice a day.

Learner example:
Well, I suppose in my opinion you should walk the dog three times a day.

NOUN [C]

a short/ten–minute, etc. walk
[B2] a journey that takes a short time/ten minutes, etc. when you walk

Dictionary example:
The station is just a five-minute walk from the house.

Learner example:
A fi[f]teen–minute walk was necessary to reach it and there were no neighbours around.

PATH
[C1] a path or route where people can walk for enjoyment

Dictionary example:
There are some lovely walks in the forest.
Learner example:
The walk ends in Valli del Natisone, but from here there are 2 other different routes that can be chosen.

walker /ˈwɔː.kər/

Word family:
Nouns: walk, walking, walker
Verbs: walk

NOUN [c]

[C1] someone who walks for exercise or enjoyment

Dictionary example:
This pub is popular with walkers.

Learner example:
If you are a keen walker and you like unspoilt nature, the walk between Granna and Tranas in the South [of] Sweden will be the one.

wander /ˈwɒn.ʌndər/

VERB [i]

WALK SLOWLY

[B2] to walk around slowly in a relaxed way or without any clear purpose or direction

Dictionary examples:
We spent the morning wandering around the old part of the city.
He was here a moment ago but he's wandered off somewhere.

Learner example:
If you can't afford it you can just wander around the city and enjoy meeting people.

sb's attention/mind/thoughts, etc. wander

[C2] If someone's attention/mind, etc. wanders, they start thinking about one subject when they should be thinking about a different subject.

Dictionary example:
I was bored and my thoughts started to wander.

Learner example:
His mind kept wandering off and he always found himself dreaming of her beautiful blue eyes, her long, dark eye-lashes and her soft, curled hair.
war /ˈwɔːr/

NOUN

TO STOP

[C2] [NO PLURAL] an attempt to stop something bad or illegal

Dictionary example:
the war against crime/drugs

Learner example:
Some years ago, she had given an interview on a local channel, explaining why she chose to devote herself to the war against the destruction of the environment.

ward /ˈwɔːd/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a room or area in a hospital, where people receiving treatment stay

Dictionary example:
She’s in a ward on the fourth floor.

Learner example:
I spent two days alone in a ward in Biarritz’s hospital.

wardrobe /ˈwɔː.droʊb/

NOUN

FURNITURE

[B1] [c] a large cupboard for keeping clothes in

Dictionary example:
She was showing me her new built-in/fitted wardrobes.

Learner example:
I want to sell a wooden wardrobe, because I’ve bought a new one.

CLOTHES

[C1] [NO PLURAL] all the clothes that you own

Dictionary example:
She has an extensive wardrobe.
Learner example:
Our wardrobe seemed to have changed from neutral colours which symbolised no freedom of expression to purple-green outfits that tell you: ".. that’s me, if you don’t like it, get...".

warehouse /ˈweə.haʊs/

NOUN [C] (warehouses)

[C2] a large building for storing goods that are going to be sold

Dictionary example:
We have several thousand of the books in our warehouse.

Learner example:
Whether we sit hunched over our computers, telework in the dim light of a reading lamp at home or perform physical jobs in a warehouse, we are surrounded [by] numbers of colleagues.

warm /wɔːm/

Word family:

Nouns: warmth

Verbs: warm

Adjectives: warm

Adverbs: warmly

ADJECTIVE

FRIENDLY

[B1] friendly and loving

Dictionary examples:
They’re a very warm family.
He has a lovely warm smile.
I’d like to give a warm welcome to our guests this evening.

Learner example:
He is warm and friendly.

VERB [I or T]

[B2] to become warm or make something become warm

Dictionary examples:
You’re so cold – come and warm your hands by the fire.
Your supper’s just warming through in the oven.
We can warm (up) the room quite quickly with this electric fire.

Learner example:
After they save[d] me, I put those gloves on to warm my hands.
warmly /ˈwɔːm.lɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: warmth
Verbs: warm
Adjectives: warm
Adverbs: warmly

ADVERB

KEEP WARM
[B2] in a way that keeps you warm

Dictionary example:
You're not dressed warmly enough – put a sweater on.

FRIENDLY
[B2] in a friendly or loving way

Dictionary example:
He shook my hand warmly.

Learner example:
He embraced me warmly and whispered 'You wouldn't have believed me.'

warmth /ˈwɔːmθ/

Word family:
Nouns: warmth
Verbs: warm
Adjectives: warm
Adverbs: warmly

NOUN [u]

HEAT
[B2] the heat that is produced by something

Dictionary example:
I've put a T-shirt on under my sweater for extra warmth.

Learner example:
We lay down on the sand enjoying the warmth of the sun and listening to the birds.

FEELING
[B2] a friendly and loving quality in someone or something

Dictionary example:
I still remember the warmth of their welcome.
Learner example:
They gave us so much when we were children, their love and their warmth, and now it is up to us to stay with them and give back the love we [received].

warn /wɔːn/

Word family:
* Nouns: warning
* Verbs: warn

VERB [v]

[B1] to make someone realise a possible danger or problem, especially one in the future

Dictionary examples:
We were warned not to eat the fish.
Have you warned them (that) there will be an extra person for dinner?
I was warned against/off going to the east coast because it was so full of tourists.
This particular curry is extremely hot – be warned!
Put that ball down and come over here, Laura – I’m warning you!

Learner example:
I tried to warn him that there would be a lot of people looking at him.

warning /ˈwɔːnɪŋ/

Word family:
* Nouns: warning
* Verbs: warn

NOUN [C or U]

[B1] something that tells or shows you that something bad may happen

Dictionary examples:
There’s a warning on the cigarette packet that says ‘Tobacco seriously damages health’.
The bombs fell completely without warning.
Just a word of warning – restaurants in this area can be very expensive.
The government have today issued a warning about the dangers of sunbathing.

Learner example:
Without any warning he pushed [me].
warrior /ˈwɔːr.i.ər/

NOUN [c]
[C1] a person who has experience and skill in fighting in a war, especially in the past

Dictionary example:
These warriors used spears made from iron.

Learner example:
It is true that the Vikings were warriors, some would say bloodthirsty as well, but that is something I will leave to you to judge.

wary /ˈweə.ri/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] If you are wary of someone or something, you do not trust them completely.

Dictionary example:
She’s still wary of strangers.

Learner example:
Therefore, I strongly believe that consumers should be wary of "pots of gold" and promises [made] in vain. They should trust solely in what their doctors recommend for each specific case.

wasp /wɒsp/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a black and yellow flying insect that can sting you

Dictionary examples:
There's a wasps' nest in that old tree.
a wasp sting

Learner example:
We were sitting in the garden and suddenly a wasp entered my T-shirt.
waste /weɪst/

NOUN

BAD USE

[B1] [U NO PLURAL] an unnecessary or wrong use of money, substances, time, energy, abilities, etc.

Dictionary examples:
That meeting achieved absolutely nothing – it was a complete waste of time.
She’s been unemployed for two years and it’s such a waste of her talents.
This food mixer’s been a total waste of money – we never use it.

Learner example:
I don’t [watch] m[uch] television because I think it’s a waste of time.

UNWANTED MATTER

[B2] [U] unwanted matter or material of any type, often that which is left after useful substances or parts have been removed

Dictionary examples:
Britain produces 20 million tonnes of household waste each year.
He opposes any kind of nuclear waste being dumped at sea.
Oil spills are common, as is the dumping of toxic waste.

Learner example:
What I did to get it was send them an article based on some possible solutions to the problem of nuclear waste in my local area.

ADJECTIVE

[B1] Waste material is no longer needed and can be got rid of.

Dictionary example:
The Japanese recycle more than half of their waste paper.

Learner example:
In addition, some waste materials are carried to the incinerator where they are burnt completely at very high temperatures.

VERB [T]

USE TOO MUCH

[B1] to use too much of something or use something badly when there is a limited amount of it

Dictionary examples:
You waste a lot of water by having a bath instead of a shower.
Come on, let’s get started – we’ve wasted enough time already.
Don’t waste your money on me, love, keep it for yourself.
Learner example:
It's nice to hear that you want to go to Colombia and I'm really happy because I can tell you all the details so you won't waste time and money.

be wasted on sb
[C2] to be clever or of high quality in a way that someone will not understand or enjoy

Dictionary example:
Good coffee is wasted on Joe – he prefers instant.

Learner example:
Many older people can be heard grumbling that youth is wasted on the young, and I can see their point, though obviously I don't agree.

watch /ˈwɒtʃ/

VERB

BE CAREFUL
[B2] [ɪ] to be careful about something

Dictionary examples:
I have to watch my weight now I'm not doing so much sport.
Watch how you cross the road!
Watch (that) you don't get glue on your fingers, won't you?
Watch what you're doing with that knife, Jim, it's sharp.

Learner example:
The odd glass of wine is fine but watch what you [eat].

water /ˈwɔː.tər/

NOUN [u]

running water
[C1] If a place has running water, it has a working water system.

Dictionary example:
They bought an old house with no electricity or running water.

Learner example:
It is hilarious to think that at the same time people in [the] north of Europe were still living a primitive and uncivilized life not even able to invent an axe, the Romans managed to install running water in their huge houses.
be (like) water off a duck's back [C2] If criticisms, insults, etc. are like water off a duck's back to you, they do not affect you at all.

Dictionary example:
She calls him lazy and useless, but it's like water off a duck's back.

Learner example:
The main lesson I have learned is by looking at some people who have lived alone for most of their life and faced with neither contradiction nor argument, they stay in their ivory tower, so sure of their opinions that whatever you say is like water off a duck's back.

not hold water
[C2] If you say that an argument doesn't hold water, you mean that it can't possibly be true.

Dictionary example:
I'm sorry, but what you are suggesting just doesn't hold water!

Learner example:
It remains to us to prove that the opinions of some scientists are far–fetched and don't hold water.

fresh water
[C2] water from lakes, rivers, etc. that has no salt in it

Dictionary example:
These fish live in fresh water.

Learner example:
You find stunning white beaches, clear, fresh water lakes, isolated tropic islands, reef, rainforests, buzzing cities, challenging mountain range, bush, outback – and the desert.

keep your head above water
[C2] to have just enough money to live or to continue a business

Dictionary example:
With extra income from private sponsorship, the club is just about managing to keep its head above water.

Learner example:
I also started to realise how much she had on her plate, how very little help she had and how, at times, she had to struggle just like me to keep her head above water.

VERB

PLANTS
[B2] [t] to pour water on to plants or the soil that they are growing in

Dictionary example:
I've asked my neighbour to water the plants while I'm away.
Learner example:
I cleaned [the flat] every day and watered your flowers.

MOUTH
[C2] [I] If food makes your mouth water, it makes you want to eat it, sometimes making your mouth produce liquid.

Dictionary example:
The smells from the kitchen are making my mouth water.

waterfall /ˈwɔː.tə.fɔːl/

NOUN [c]
[B1] water, especially from a river or stream, dropping from a higher to a lower point, sometimes from a great height

Learner example:
We walked for an hour and arrived at the waterfall.

waterproof /ˈwɔː.tə.pruːf/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] not allowing water to go through

Dictionary example:
Canvas boots are all right but they're not as waterproof as leather.

Learner example:
Probably warm jumpers and a waterproof coat would do, don't you think so?

wave /weɪv/

VERB [I or T]
HAND
[B1] to raise your hand and move it from side to side in order to attract someone's attention or to say goodbye

Dictionary examples:
I waved to/at him from the window but he didn't see me.
She was so annoyed she wouldn't even wave us goodbye/wave goodbye to us.
She waves her hands about/around a lot when she's talking.
Learner example:
She waved at me and I smiled.

MOVE SIDE TO SIDE
[C1] (also wave about/around) to move from side to side in the air or make something move this way

Dictionary examples:
The long grass waved in the breeze.
He started waving his arms about wildly.

Learner example:
I can picture myself standing in front of the "Casa Prosada", waving my arms and cheering with all the other patriots.

NOUN [C]

WATER
[B1] a line of higher water which moves across the surface of an area of water, especially the sea

Dictionary example:
At night, I listened to the sound of the waves breaking/crashing against the shore.

Learner example:
I already know you surf and the waves at Reserva will be huge this weekend [so] we will surely surf together.

ENERGY
[B2] the pattern in which some types of energy, such as sound, light and heat, are spread or carried

Dictionary example:
radio waves

Learner example:
Indeed, it is thought that using a mobile phone may cause brain damage owing to magnetic waves.

GROUP
[C2] a group of people or things that arrive or happen together or in a short period of time

Dictionary examples:
There has been a wave of kidnappings in the region.
Another wave of refugees is arriving at the border.

Learner example:
These people, who belong mostly to the middle class, and some other[s] like explorers [...] or youngsters seeking some adventure, produce the big wave of tourists to different countries.
a wave of hatred/enthusiasm/sadness, etc.
[C2] when you suddenly feel an emotion

Dictionary example:
She felt a sudden wave of sadness.

Learner example:
As he counted the money, a wave of shame and horror hit Berthold.

make waves
[C2] to cause problems by asking difficult questions or criticizing

Dictionary example:
He has earned a reputation for making waves during political campaigns.

Learner example:
If we don't want to regret anything, it is time we started to make waves by scrutinizing our history.

HAND
[C2] when you raise your hand and move it from side to side in order to attract someone's attention or say goodbye

Dictionary example:
She gave a little wave as the train left.

Learner example:
And as with a wave of a magic hand, everything changed.

wavelength  /ˈweɪv.lɛŋθ/

NOUN [C]

be on the same wavelength
[C2] If two people are on the same wavelength, they have the same way of thinking and it is easy for them to understand each other.

Dictionary example:
We chatted occasionally, but I never really felt we were on the same wavelength.

Learner example:
We were on the same wavelength and we therefore started our own research.
way /weɪ/

NOUN

DIRECTION

[B1] [c] the direction in which something is facing or travels

Dictionary examples:
"Which way does the room face?" "North."
This bus is going the wrong way.
Which way up should this box be?
The numbers are the wrong way round – it should be 71, not 17.

Learner example:
Although he had told us he knew this address, he went [the] wrong way.

DISTANCE

[B1] [NO PLURAL] a distance or a period of time

Dictionary examples:
We walked a long way yesterday.
The holidays seem like they're a long way away/off.

Learner example:
I like this best because [it] is not a long way from home.

no way INFORMAL

[B1] used to tell someone that something is impossible

Dictionary examples:
I'm sorry but there's no way we can help you.
No way will she agree to you leaving early.

Learner example:
Don't worry, there is no way I'm going to miss it!

a/sb's way of life

[B1] the manner in which a person lives

Dictionary example:
She told us all about her way of life in Japan.

Learner example:
He told me about his hobbies, his way of life and especially about his love [of] learning languages.

either way

[B1] used to talk about two possibilities where the result will be the same
Dictionary examples:
You can get there by train or bus – either way it'll take an hour.
He might have to resign or he might be given a desk job, but either way, his career is effectively over.

Learner example:
If that doesn't work, you can ask them to talk to your friends’ parents so you could all go together. Either way, I know you will have lots of fun this summer.

one way or another
[B2] in some way that is not stated

Dictionary examples:
One way or another these bills have to be paid.
Everyone at the party was related in one way or another.

Learner example:
All of them made a big difference [to] our personal life and have affected it one way or another.

one way or the other
[B2] in any way that is possible

Dictionary example:
We have to make a decision one way or the other about what needs to be done.

Learner example:
Our transportation system nowadays is also very well organised and there is a wide range of buses, subways, etc. with which you can reach your destination one way or the other.

the other way round/around
[B2] happening in the opposite way

Dictionary example:
I thought the older people would be more offended than the young people, but it was the other way round.

Learner example:
As you know, I did that the other way round for the States.

make your way
[B2] to get to a place

Dictionary examples:
We slowly made our way down the river.
It's getting late – we should make our way home soon.

Learner example:
She made her way slowly to the waiting room and patiently waited for the train to arrive.

all the way
[B2] the complete distance
Dictionary example:
They cycled all the way to London.

Learner example:
I drove all the way to Bergen in only one day.

_in a way; in some/many ways_
[B2] used to say that you think something is partly true

Dictionary examples:
In a way, I would prefer it if they didn't come because it would mean extra work.
In some ways it would be better if we met on Monday rather than Wednesday.
He was a remarkable politician in many ways.

Learner example:
I think that many people would like shops to be open all the time, and it might be good in some ways.

MANNER

[C1] [NO PLURAL] the manner in which someone behaves or thinks, or in which something happens

Dictionary examples:
Don't be alarmed – it's just his way.
He looked at me in a sinister way.
It's amazing the way she manages to stay so calm.
The way he was shouting, you'd have thought he was badly hurt.
To my way of thinking, they shouldn't be building so many roads.
It's always the way at work – either I've got nothing to do or I'm rushed off my feet!

Learner example:
To my way of thinking, despite all the problems I have mentioned, this company will succeed.

_in no way/not in any way_
[C1] not at all

Dictionary example:
This is in no way your fault.

Learner example:
This magazine will be loved by students as it will help them learn English in the best way and in no way will students find it boring.

by way of sth
[C1] as a type of something

Dictionary example:
He sent me some flowers by way of apology.

Learner example:
The Academy however provided nothing whatsoever by way of entertainment, though with a group of interesting young people and a little imagination this should not be a problem.
get/have your (own) way
[C1] to get what you want, although it might upset other people

Dictionary example:
She always gets her own way in the end.

Learner example:
They are provided with what they desire, and [the] majority of them are used to getting their own way.

(take) the easy way out
[C1] to do what is easiest in a difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I know you don't approve of his working methods, but why not take the easy way out this time and agree to his request?

Learner example:
On the other hand you cannot survive without your pay-check and to be able to both make a car[ee]r and have the time to be green, sometimes you just have to take the easy way out.

FREE SPACE

[C2] [NO PLURAL] the space needed for a particular movement or action

Dictionary examples:
"Sorry, am I in your way? I'll move."
If you don't move that vase out of the way, it might get broken.
Don't let your new friends get in the way of your studies.
I couldn't see the stage because there was a pillar in the way.
Please make way so the ambulance can get by.

Learner example:
As Mark Twain once said "Don't let school get in the way of your education".

make your way
[C2] to be successful and make progress in your work

Dictionary example:
He managed to make his way in the film industry.

Learner example:
For each one of the famous sportsmen we re[cogn]ise on television or in the newspapers, there are thousands of hopeful youngsters trying to make their way to the top.

go out of your way to do sth
[C2] to try very hard to do something pleasant for someone

Dictionary example:
He went out of his way to make us feel welcome.

get/have sth out of the way
[C2] to finish a task or to get rid of something unpleasant
Dictionary example:
I'll go shopping when I've got this essay out of the way.

Learner example:
It was a joyful reunion and everybody was grateful to have all misunderstandings out of the way and to be one big family once more.

in a big way informal

[C2] used to say that someone or something does something to a large degree

Dictionary example:
They celebrate birthdays in a big way.

Learner example:
Tourism helps Greece's national economy – which is not at its best – in a big way.

be under way

[C2] to be already happening

Dictionary example:
Building work is already under way.

Learner example:
Sociologists are well-aware of the fact and experiments are under way to counterbalance these disadvantages.

give way to sth

[C2] to change into something else

Dictionary example:
Her excitement quickly gave way to horror.

Learner example:
This friendship gave way to love, but it was a really difficult situation, after all she was the Managing Director's daughter.

give way

[C2] If something gives way, it falls because it is not strong enough to support the weight on top of it.

Dictionary example:
Suddenly the ground gave way under me.

Learner example:
Fred's voice trailed off as he felt his legs give way beneath him.

make way for sth

[C2] to be replaced by someone or something

Dictionary example:
They knocked down the old houses to make way for a new hotel.
Learner example:
In the UK most high-streets already look very much the same and the local shops had to make way for big conglomerates.

pave the way
[C2] If something paves the way for something else, it makes the other thing possible.

Dictionary example:
Scientists hope that data from the probe will pave the way for a more detailed exploration of Mars.

Learner example:
Many celebrities engage actively in UN projects and pave the way for others to contribute.

do/learn sth the hard way
[C2] to do or learn something by experiencing a lot of problems or difficulty

Dictionary example:
I learned the hard way that training every single day is not the best way to get fit.

Learner example:
If you don't know the past, you're liable to live through it again as instead of deriving the lessons from someone else's experiences, you'll have to learn them the hard way, by trial and error.

thread your way through/between, etc.
[C2] to move carefully through a crowded place, changing direction in order to avoid people or things

Dictionary example:
She threaded her way through the crowd.

Learner example:
And if I thread my way through the crowd along the street, I can find almost all things I want to buy, from inexpensive souvenirs to internationally known brands of suits.

we /wi:/

PRONOUN

ALL PEOPLE
[B1] used to refer to people generally

Dictionary example:
The world in which we live today is very different.

Learner example:
Why can't we live without computers?
weak /wiːk/

Word family:
Nouns: weakness
Verbs: weaken
Adjectives: weak

ADJECTIVE

BODY
[B1] not physically strong

Dictionary example:
It's not surprising you feel weak if you haven't eaten properly for days.

Learner example:
I felt so weak that I wasn't able to tidy and wash up.

NOT GOOD
[B1] not good at something

Dictionary example:
She reads well but her spelling is weak.

Learner example:
Listening is my weak point so I have to improve.

CHARACTER
[B2] not powerful, or not having a strong character

Dictionary example:
a weak leader/government/king

Learner example:
At the beginning of the story, [Mary] seemed to be a weak person, but in the end she demonstrated that she could overcome her fears in order to protect someone.

TASTE
[B2] containing little taste or alcohol

Dictionary example:
weak coffee/beer

SLIGHT
[B2] difficult to see or hear

Dictionary example:
He spoke in a weak voice.

Learner example:
I could hardly see with the weak light of the candle and I couldn't remember the last time I had used it.
A weak reason, argument or excuse is one that can easily be proved to be false.

Dictionary example:
He gave the weakest of excuses when asked why he was late.

likely to fail
likely to fail

Dictionary examples:
a weak economy
a weak team

Learner example:
A very difficult aspect currently is our weak economy, we could nearly speak of a recession.

weaken /ˈwiː.kən/

Word family:
Nouns: weakness
Verbs: weaken
Adjectives: weak

LOSE POWER

to become less strong or powerful, or to make someone or something less strong or powerful

Dictionary example:
A number of factors have weakened the economy.

Learner example:
If we get rid of the factories to save the river, it is obvious that our economy will be weakened.

LOSE CONFIDENCE to become less certain or determined about a decision, or to make someone less determined

Dictionary example:
I told him he wasn't having any more money but then I weakened.

Learner example:
I felt my resistance weaken and at the end of our conversation I said that she could come over for a night but just this night, as I tried to make it very clear to her.
weakness  /ˈwiːk.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: weakness
Verbs: weaken
Adjectives: weak

NOUN

NOT STRONG
[B2] [u] when someone or something is not strong or powerful

Dictionary example:
Asking for help is not a sign of weakness.

Learner example:
I believe that I'll be able to cover my physical weakness with my experience and knowledge.

NOT EFFECTIVE
[B2] [c] a particular part or quality of someone or something that is not good or effective

Dictionary examples:
There are definite weaknesses in their security arrangements.
His main weakness as a manager is his inability to delegate.
The later novels show none of the weaknesses of his earlier work.

Learner example:
However, I have to complain about a few weaknesses in this festival.

have a weakness for sth/sb
[C2] to like a particular thing or person very much

Dictionary example:
She has a real weakness for ice cream.

wealth  /welθ/

Word family:
Nouns: wealth
Adjectives: wealthy

NOUN [U]

MONEY
[B2] a large amount of money or valuable possessions that someone has

Dictionary example:
During a successful business career, she accumulated a great amount of wealth.
Learner example:
On the other hand, having a mobile phone can also create social distinctions between people as it can [be] a sign of wealth.

a wealth of sth
[C2] a large amount of something good

Dictionary example:
a wealth of experience/information

Learner example:
One of the advantages often mentioned is that old people have a wealth of experience, gained throughout life.

wealthy  /ˈwel.θi/

Word family:
Nouns: wealth
Adjectives: wealthy

ADJECTIVE
[B2] rich

Dictionary examples:
He’s a very wealthy man.
With its natural resources it is potentially a very wealthy country.

Learner example:
But how can anyone satisfy a wealthy woman like her without giving her an expensive present?

weapon  /ˈwep.ən/

NOUN [C]
[B2] ! any object used in fighting or war, such as a gun, bomb, sword, etc.

Dictionary examples:
chemical/nuclear/biological weapons
The youths were dragged from their car and searched for weapons.

Learner example:
Technology is used [to] create new types of weapons.
wear  /ˈweə/

VERB [T] (wore, worn)

HAIR

[B2] to arrange or grow your hair in a particular way

Dictionary example:
She usually wears her hair in a ponytail.

Learner example:
I now wear my long hair loose and I dyed it black.

FACE

[C2] to show a particular emotion on your face.

Dictionary example:
He was wearing a smile/frown.

Learner example:
She was wearing a big smile on her face that reflected happiness.

wear thin

[C2] If a feeling or explanation starts to wear thin, it becomes weaker or harder to accept.

Dictionary example:
I've warned you several times about being late and my patience is wearing thin.

Learner example:
Hardly could they fight against others, when their own convictions had started to wear thin.

---

weary  /ˈwɛəri/

ADJECTIVE

TIRED

[C2] very tired

Dictionary example:
You look weary, my love.

Learner example:
On the other hand, if we choose to sleep, it means that we are willing to inject some power in our weary bodies and minds.

weary of sth/sb

[C2] bored with something or someone
Dictionary example:
She grew weary of the children and their games.

Learner example:
The young man was getting weary of being rejected like this, but he was still hoping that she would open her heart to him some day.

weather /ˈweð.ə/

NOUN [u]

be/feel under the weather
[C2] to feel ill

Dictionary example:
I'm feeling a bit under the weather this morning.

Learner example:
Ann was a bit under the weather, [and] she felt quite lonely in her big flat.

weather forecast /ˈweð.əˌfɔːr.kɑːst/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a description of what the weather will be like

Dictionary example:
Have you heard the weather forecast for tomorrow?

Learner example:
The weather forecast is not so good for the next two days: rain and wind.

web /web/

NOUN [c]

SPIDER
[B1] a type of net made by a spider to catch insects

Dictionary example:
a spider's web

Learner example:
On the way coming back to [the] hotel I almost got lost because the underground was like a spider['s] web.
webcam /ˈweb.kæm/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a camera that records moving pictures and sounds and allows these to be shown on the Internet as they happen

Dictionary example:
I see my grandchildren via the webcam.

wedding /ˈwed.ɪŋ/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a marriage ceremony and any celebrations such as a meal or a party that follow it

Dictionary examples:
- a wedding cake/dress/invitation/present/reception
- Do you know the date of Cathy and Matthew's wedding?
- It was their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last week.

Learner example:
Some couples prefer to [have] a traditional wedding in an old village.

weed /wiːd/

NOUN [c]

[C2] a wild plant that you do not want to grow in your garden

Dictionary example:
Dandelions are common weeds.

Learner example:
A loose shutter was tapping against the wall, he walked over to close it and from the window he saw the garden overgrown with weeds.

weep /wiːp/

VERB [I or T] LITERARY (wept)

[C2] to cry, usually because you are sad

Dictionary example:
She covered her face with her hands and wept.
Learner example:
Still weeping, Mary felt a tiny little hand on her arm and stared at it in astonishment.

weigh /weɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: weight
Verbs: weigh, outweigh
Adjectives: overweight

VERB [T]

HEAVINESS
[B1] to have a heaviness of a stated amount, or to measure the heaviness of an object

Dictionary examples:
How much do you weigh?
She weighs herself every week on the scales in the bathroom.
Your luggage must be weighed before it is put on the aircraft.

Learner example:
You can [see] monkeys that weigh only 100g.

CONSIDER CAREFULLY
[B2] (also weigh up) to consider something carefully, especially in order to make a decision

Dictionary example:
He needs to weigh up the pros and cons of going to college.

Learner example:
Having weighed the pros and cons, I thought you [ought] to be conscious of the fact that... you're working too hard.

weight /weɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: weight
Verbs: weigh, outweigh
Adjectives: overweight

NOUN

AMOUNT
[B1] [u] the amount that something or someone weighs
Dictionary examples:
He's about average height and weight.
I need to lose a bit of weight.
Graham's put on a lot of weight recently.
These drugs can cause patients to gain weight.

Learner example:
So let me describe Fabian: he has brown hair and his weight is about 75 kg.

HEAVINESS
[B2] [u] the quality of being heavy

Dictionary example:
The shelf collapsed under the weight of the books.

Learner example:
The weight of the snow broke the branches of the trees.

OBJECT
[B2] [c] something that is heavy

Dictionary examples:
Try not to lift heavy weights.
I lift weights twice a week at the gym.

Learner example:
[...] my long training periods in lifting weights.

pull your weight
[C2] to work as hard as other people in a group

Dictionary example:
The rest of the team complained that Sarah wasn't pulling her weight.

Learner example:
For instance, before your kin get all nice and comfortable, you could ask them to pull their weight around the house by doing a few jobs.

carry weight
[C2] to be considered important and effective in influencing someone

Dictionary example:
His opinions carry a lot of weight with the scientific community.

Learner example:
It has become increasingly important to strive for near perfection in every move they make, the pursuit of excellence therefore carrying more weight than ever and leading to strenuous tr[ai]ning program[me]s.
weird /wɪəd/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] very strange and unusual, unexpected or not natural

Dictionary examples:
Her boyfriend's a bit weird but she's all right.
That's weird – I thought I'd left my keys on the table but they're not there.
There is nothing to rival the weird and wonderful things that come out on the streets at carnival time.

Learner example:
She was hearing all sorts of weird noises.

welcome /ˈwel.kəm/

VERB [T]

MEET
[B1] to greet someone who has arrived in a place

Dictionary examples:
Both families were there to welcome us.
The visitors to the college were warmly welcomed by the principal.

Learner example:
Everyone welcomed us to their village.

ENCOURAGE
[B2] to be pleased about something and encourage or support it

Dictionary examples:
The decision has been widely welcomed.
I would welcome your advice.

Learner example:
The time will arrive [when] all of us will accept and welcome this "beautiful machine"! [the computer]

ADJECTIVE

PLEASED
[B1] If you are welcome, people are pleased that you are there.

Dictionary examples:
You will always be welcome here.
She makes us (feel) welcome whenever we visit her.
Learner example:
You know that you are very welcome in my country.

be welcome to do sth
[B1] used to tell someone that they can certainly do something, if they want to

Dictionary example:
Anyone who is interested is welcome to come along.

Learner example:
You’re very welcome to join too if you want.

PLEASING
[B2] If something is welcome, people are pleased about it and want it to happen.

Dictionary examples:
a welcome change
Your comments are always welcome.

Learner example:
And, since all these new things only make our life easier, technology is welcome.

NOUN [C or u]

FRIENDLY TREATMENT
[B1] when someone is met and spoken to in a friendly way when they arrive in a place

Dictionary examples:
They were given a warm welcome.
She referred to his previous visit in her welcome speech.

Learner example:
Dear Bertha, Once again I want to thank you very much for your hospitality and the warm welcome you gave me.

outstay/overstay your welcome
[C2] to stay somewhere too long so that people want you to leave

Dictionary example:
I don’t want to outstay my welcome.

Learner example:
The worst thing one can do is to let them know they have outstayed their welcome, that will only make things wors[e].
welfare  /ˈwel.fɛər/

NOUN [u]

HEALTH
[B2] Someone's welfare is their health and happiness.

Dictionary example:
He is concerned about the welfare of young men in prison.

Learner example:
To take care of the visitor's wishes must be a priority: his welfare has to be enforced by structural measures (facilities, services, activities) and cultural ones.

CARE
[C2] care or money provided by the government for people who are poor, ill, or who do not have jobs

Dictionary examples:
She works in child welfare.
The country's welfare bill is massive.

Learner example:
Living in a welfare state is a great thing, but not all of us are so lucky.

well  /wel/

Word family:
Adjectives: unwell, well

ADVERB (better, best) may/might as well

[B2] used to suggest doing something, often when there is nothing better to do

Dictionary examples:
We might as well walk there.
As you already know so much about the subject, you might as well skip this lecture.

Learner example:
In my opinion, you might as well ask your neighbours if they can look after your flat for one day.

may/might/could well
[B2] used to say that something is likely to be true

Dictionary examples:
She might well be the best person to ask.
He could well be at Michelle's house.
Learner example:
Laura could well imagine [that] she would stand opposite the examiners and not answer any question in the right way.

EMPHASIS

[B2] used to emphasize some adjectives

Dictionary examples:
The police are well aware of the situation.
The museum is well worth a visit.

Learner example:
Finally I would like to recommend a visit to Lampton Castle; in addition to the paintings and furniture there is now a new collection of musical instruments, which is well worth seeing.

CONSIDERABLY

[C1] used to emphasize some prepositions

Dictionary examples:
The results are well above/below what we expected.
Keep well away from the edge of the cliff.
It cost well over £100.

Learner example:
The hospital received well over 80% of the profits, and that as you can see is much more than just 60%.

may/might as well do sth

[C1] If you may/might as well do something, it will not spoil the situation if you do that thing.

Dictionary example:
If we're not waiting for Karen, we might as well go now.

Learner example:
I might as well go with her and if you like, you can join us too.

it's just as well

[C1] used to say that it is lucky that something happened

Dictionary example:
It's just as well we brought an umbrella.

Learner example:
It is just as well that my friends had cars to give me a lift to the school.

can't/couldn't very well do sth

[C2] used to say that something is not a suitable or practical thing to do

Dictionary example:
I couldn't very well tell her while he was there.
Learner example:
I couldn't very well tell her that without my diaries, I'd be lost and not know who I was.

mean well
[C2] to intend to behave in a kind way

Dictionary example:
I know my parents mean well, but I wish they wouldn't interfere.

Learner example:
Although these fans might mean well, in many cases they do not appear to realise that their 'heroes' perhaps would like to be left alone.

ADJECTIVE (better, best)

all is well
[B1] everything is in a good or acceptable state

Dictionary example:
I hope all is well with Jack.

Learner example:
I hope all's well.

it's just as well
[B2] used to say that it is lucky that something happened

Dictionary example:
It's just as well we brought an umbrella.

Learner example:
It is just as well that my friends had cars to give me a lift to the school.

be all very well
[C1] used to show that you do not agree with something or that you are annoyed about something

Dictionary example:
It's all very well for her to say everything's fine, she doesn't have to live here.

Learner example:
That's all very well for most of the people but according to my desires [i]t's not enough. I envisage a more sophisticated flat.

EXCLAMATION

Oh well
[B1] used to say that a situation cannot be changed although it might be disappointing

Dictionary example:
Oh well, it doesn't matter, I can always buy another one.
Learner example:
I always dreamed [of going] sailing, but not even a little boat [is] left, some other people [have] already booked them! Oh well.

well-balanced /ˌwelˈbæl.ənst/

ADJECTIVE

FOOD
[B2] A well-balanced diet or meal includes all the different types of food that the body needs to be healthy.

Dictionary example:
I try to have a well-balanced diet.

Learner example:
So my advice for you would be to try and have some break times during the day, [do] some sports and follow a well-balanced diet.

PERSON
[C1] Well-balanced people are calm and have good judgment.

Dictionary example:
She’s very well-balanced considering her past.

Learner example:
Linda has a good temper, is well-balanced and is able to cope with unforeseen or complicated situations.

well-being /ˌwelˈbiː.ɪŋ/

NOUN [U]
[C1] when someone is healthy, happy, and comfortable

Dictionary example:
I found that yoga increased my sense of well-being.

Learner example:
The beautiful countryside which surrounds the fields can generate a feeling of well-being and make exercise more pleasant.
well-built /ˌwelˈbɪlt/

ADJECTIVE

[B2] having a large, strong body

Dictionary example:
He was a well-built man, in his forties.

Learner example:
When I was twenty three years old, I was married to a handsome, well-built business man.

well-dressed /ˌwelˈdrest/

ADJECTIVE

[B1] wearing attractive, good-quality clothes

Dictionary example:
She is a very well-dressed woman.

Learner example:
It is a party for the students who take part in the conference, so you do not need to be well-dressed.

well-educated /ˌwelˈedʒ.ʊ.keɪ.tɪd/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] having had a good education

Dictionary examples:
We have some very well-educated employees in the department.
Most of our employees are pretty well educated.

Learner example:
Increasing numbers of well-educated young people are compelled to stay at home.

well-equipped /ˌwel.ɪˈkwɪpt/

ADJECTIVE

[C1] having plenty of good quality equipment

Dictionary example:
He has a very well-equipped kitchen.
Learner example:
There is a well-equipped gym which is supervised by experienced staff.

well-informed /ˌwel.ɪnˈfɔːmd/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] knowing a lot of useful information

Dictionary example:
Some visitors to our museum are very well-informed.

Learner example:
In fact, well-informed teenagers are now aware of the necessity to [do] a sport to stay fit.

well-off /ˌwelˈɒf/
ADJECTIVE
[C1] having a lot of money

Dictionary example:
His parents are very well-off.

Learner example:
If you belong to a well-off family then you are considered lucky, but if you are not this, good luck to you.

well-organized (also UK well-organised) /ˌwelˈɔː.gəˌnɜːzd/
ADJECTIVE
[B2] working in an effective and successful way because of good organization

Dictionary example:
She's always extremely well-organized at work.

Learner example:
In my opinion it was a very well-organised festival with good performers.

well-paid /ˌwelˈpeɪd/
ADJECTIVE
[B2] earning a lot of money
Dictionary example:
a well-paid job

Learner example:
[She had] an interesting and well-paid job in Paris as a fashion model.

well-qualified /ˌwelˈkwɔl.ɪ.faid/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] having suitable experience or formal qualifications

Dictionary example:
He seems well-qualified for the job.

Learner example:
That is why foreign employers look for well-qualified Polish specialists.

west (also West) /west/

Word family:
Nouns: west
Adjectives: western

NOUN [U]
(the) West
[B2] the countries of North America and western Europe

Dictionary examples:
There has been concern in throughout the West about the effects of this measure.
East-West relations

western (also Western) /ˈwes.tən/

Word family:
Nouns: west
Adjectives: western

ADJECTIVE

DIRECTION
[B1] in or from the west part of an area

Dictionary examples:
western Europe
California and other western states
Learner example:
It is in the western part of Kyoto.

COUNTRIES

[B1] relating to countries in the west part of the world, especially North America and countries in the west of Europe

Dictionary examples:
western opinion/culture
a Western-educated engineer western medicine

Learner example:
Nowadays, most young people would like to wear suits and dresses like Westerners because, they're more interested in western culture.

---

wet /wet/

ADJECTIVE (wetter, wettest)

NOT DRY YET

[B1] describes paint, ink, or a similar substance when it has not had time to dry and become hard

Dictionary examples:
The paint's still wet.
a sign saying 'Wet paint!'

---

whale /weɪl/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a very large sea mammal that breathes air through a hole at the top of its head

Learner example:
One month ago I saw a programme about whales [that] are fished near Japan.

---

what /wɒt/

PRONOUN

THE THING

[B1] used to refer to something without naming it
Dictionary examples:
Do you know what I mean?
She wouldn't tell me what he said.
What I like most about her is her honesty.
The letter showed clearly what they were planning.
I can't decide what to do next.
Have you thought about what to send as a present?

Learner example:
I don't know what to do now.

What about ...?
[B1] used to ask for someone's opinion on a particular subject

Dictionary example:
What about Ava – is she nice?

Learner example:
I also enjoy shopping for shoes, what about you?

What if ...?
[B1] used to ask about something that could happen in the future, especially something bad

Dictionary examples:
What if the train's late?
What if you don't pass your exams?

Learner example:
What if the children were in trouble?

What's up? [INFORMAL]
[B1] used to ask how things are with someone

Dictionary example:
What's up? Nice to see you again.

Learner example:
Hi Teresa What’s up? I am good.

What ...for?
[B2] used to ask about the reason for something

Dictionary examples:
What are these tools for?
What are you doing that for?
"We need a bigger car." "What for?"

Learner example:
People love spending hours in their stuffy cars, [gett]ing stuck in traffic jams and breathing polluted air. What for?
what's/what is more [B2] used to add something surprising or interesting to what you have just said

Dictionary example:
They turned up nearly an hour late, and what's more, they didn't bring anything!

Learner example:
What is more, I will have an opportunity to visit the most exotic countries.

what with INFORMAL [C2] used to talk about the reasons for a particular situation, especially a bad or difficult situation

Dictionary example:
I'm tired, what with travelling all day yesterday and sleeping badly.

Learner example:
The energy of a crowd like that is amazing, what with people jumping up and down, singing their lungs out and pushing each other around.

DETERMINER

STRONG OPINION
[B1] used to give your opinion, especially when you have strong feelings about something

Dictionary examples:
What rubbish!
What a mess!
What an awful day!

Learner example:
Last Saturday we decided to watch the film "Pinocchio" by Roberto Benigni. What a beautiful soundtrack! What an interesting fable!

whatever /ˈwɒt əˈvoʊ/ PRONOUN

ANYTHING
[B1] anything or everything

Dictionary examples:
The children are allowed to do whatever they want.
I eat whatever I want and I still don't seem to gain weight.
Whatever I say I always seem to get it wrong.

Learner example:
I think people should wear whatever they want to.
NO DIFFERENCE
[B2] used to say that what happens is not important because it does not change a situation

Dictionary examples:
Whatever happens, you know that I'll stand by you.

Learner example:
Whatever you decide, I hope you enjoy a wonderful summer.

or whatever [B2] or other things of the same kind

Dictionary example:
If you need to wash, or whatever, we can meet you later.

DETERMINER

NO DIFFERENCE
[B2] used to say that what happens is not important because it does not change a situation

Dictionary examples:
We'll go whatever the weather.
Whatever else may be said of him, Mr. Meese is not scared of a fight.
But whatever the reason, most people who move from one region to another are under 35 years old.

Learner example:
Whatever you decide, I hope you enjoy a wonderful summer.

whatsoever /ˌwɒt.səˈev.ə/ ADVERB (also whatever)

no ... whatsoever
[C1] none at all

Dictionary example:
There's no evidence whatsoever that she was involved.

Learner example:
Moreover, the hotel we were finally dumped in was situated miles from Edinburgh city centre and there was no entertainment whatsoever arranged for the evening, even though all the travellers were more or less stuck there.
wheat /wiːt/

NOUN [u]

[B2] a plant whose yellowish brown grain is used for making flour, or the grain itself

Dictionary examples:
- wheat fields
  Wheat is an important crop for millions of people across the world.

Learner example:
- [In the painting, a man and woman] are sleeping in a wheat field.

wheel /wiːl/

NOUN [c]

the wheel

[B2] a steering wheel

Dictionary example:
- You should keep both hands on the wheel when driving.

Learner example:
- On the continent Barbara and I took turns at the wheel and early next morning we reached the Spanish border.

wheelchair /ˈwiːl.tʃeər/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a chair with wheels used by someone who cannot walk

Dictionary example:
- My brother uses a wheelchair.

Learner example:
- In the hospital, I was sentenced to be confined to [a] wheelchair for the rest of my life.
when /wen/

CONJUNCTION

ALTHOUGH

[B2] used to say something that is surprising after what has already been said

Dictionary examples:
He says he hasn't got any money when in fact he's got thousands of dollars in his account.
I don't understand how he can say that everything's fine when it's so obvious that it's not.
Why is she training to be a teacher when she doesn't even like children?
How can you say you don't like something when you've never even tried it!

Learner example:
In your advertisement it was said that I would find stars and artists from around the world, when,
in fact, they were from only six countries.

when it comes to sth/doing sth

[C1] used to introduce a new idea that you want to say something about

Dictionary example:
When it comes to baking cakes, she's an expert.

Learner example:
But when it comes to computers, they just impose some knowledge on students, without any interaction.

whenever /wenˈev.aɪ/

CONJUNCTION

EVERY TIME

[B1] every time or any time

Dictionary example:
Whenever I go there they seem to be out.

Learner example:
I read whenever I can, specially at night.

whenever possible

[B2] every time it is possible

Dictionary example:
I try to use olive oil whenever possible.

Learner example:
My friends have always regarded me as a cheerful, active girl, who is glad to help out whenever possible.
ADVERB

[C2] every time or any time

Dictionary examples:
"Will it be okay if I do it tomorrow?" "Sure, whenever."
Do it in a spare moment at the weekend or whenever – it really doesn’t matter.

where /ˈweə/

ADVERB

where you stand (with sb)
[C2] what someone thinks about you, how they expect you to behave, and how they are likely to behave

Dictionary example:
She said she will never leave her husband, so now at least I know where I stand.

where sb stands (on sth)
[C2] what your opinion is about something

Dictionary example:
We asked the head teacher where he stood on the wearing of jewellery in school.

Learner example:
From where I stand, some action must be taken urgently because the problems are constantly exacerbating.

CONJUNCTION

PROCESS/ACTIVITY

[B2] used when referring to a particular stage in a process or activity

Dictionary examples:
You reach a point in any project where you just want to get the thing finished.
I've reached the stage where I just don't care anymore.

Learner example:
We've come to a point where we have forgotten how to read or talk to each other.

whereabouts

ADVERB /ˌweəˌəˈbaʊts/

[C2] used to ask in what place or area someone or something is

Dictionary example:
Whereabouts does he live?
NOUN /ˈweə.rə.baʊts/

sb's whereabouts

[C2] the place where someone or something is

Dictionary example:
His whereabouts are unknown.

Learner example:
However, his whereabouts have been unknown for 6 years.

whereas /weərˈæz/

CONJUNCTION

[B2] compared with the fact that

Dictionary example:
He must be about sixty, whereas his wife looks about thirty.

Learner example:
For example, it takes two hours by plane from Switzerland to Spain, whereas it takes approximately one day by train.

whereby /weəˈbar/

ADVERB FORMAL

[C2] by which

Dictionary example:
They've introduced a system whereby people share cars.

Learner example:
Those in favour of separating the genders quote studies whereby boys demonstrate better results in school without the distraction of having the fairer sex around.

wherever /werˈev.ər/

CONJUNCTION

EVERY PLACE

[B1] in or to any or every place

Dictionary examples:
You can sit wherever you like.
Wherever you choose to live there are always going to be disadvantages.
Learner example:
I will be able to take you wherever you want in [a] matter of minutes.

wherever possible
[B2] every time it is possible

Dictionary examples:
Wherever possible I use honey instead of sugar.
We try to sell local fruit and vegetables wherever possible.

Learner example:
We can work together [in a] number of ways, for example, we can plant trees wherever possible and we can place bins [i]n the necessary areas which will help the public to dispose [of] waste items.

whether /ˈweð.oʊ/
CONJUNCTION

IF
[B1] used especially in reporting questions and when expressing doubt to mean if

Dictionary examples:
I wasn't sure whether you'd like it.
She asked me whether I was interested in working for her.
I doubt whether it'll work.
It all depends on whether or not she's got the time.

Learner example:
It's very expensive and I'm so broke that I don't know whether I can afford to buy one.

whether... or
[B1] used to talk about a choice between two or more possibilities

Dictionary examples:
I'm going, whether she likes it or not.
Someone's got to tell her, whether it's you or me.
Let's face it – you're going to be late whether you go by bus or train.

Learner example:
I don't know whether to stay or to go.
which /wɪtʃ/

PRONOUN

ADDITION INFORMATION

[B1] used to give extra information about something

Dictionary example:
The book, which includes a map, gives you all the information you need about Budapest.

Learner example:
Turning to the end-of-conference party, it is going to be held in a nearby buffet restaurant, Valentine's, which has good quality food and reasonable prices.

AFTER PREPOSITION

[B2] used after a preposition to show what thing is being referred to

Dictionary examples:
Is that the film in which she sings?
The death of his son was an experience from which he never fully recovered.
It isn't a subject to which I devote a great deal of thought.

Learner example:
According to your advertisement in a language magazine you have a vacancy in your campsites, in which I am very interested.

GIVING OPINION

[B2] used when you give an opinion or comment about what you have just said

Dictionary example:
He showed me round the town, which I thought was very kind of him.

Learner example:
I am very interested in being able to help on such a project, which I think is a very good one.

whichever /wɪˈtʃevɚ/

DETERMINER

ANY

[B2] any of a group of similar things

Dictionary examples:
Let's go out on Thursday or Friday – you choose whichever day is best for you.
You can have whichever bedroom you want in the apartment.

Learner example:
The meeting will take place [on] either the 15th or 22nd February, whichever one suits you best.
NOT IMPORTANT

[B2] used to say that what happens is not important because it does not change a situation

Dictionary examples:
It's going to be expensive whichever way you do it.
Whichever option we choose there'll be disadvantages.

Learner example:
In Japan, there are two major style[s] of tea. One is Omote and the other is Ura. Both style[s] have only one top family. Whichever they are, the top family uses [a] special bowl made by [the] Raku family.

PRONOUN

[B2] any of a group of similar things

Dictionary examples:
We can go to the seven o'clock performance or the eight – whichever suits you best.
You can choose whichever of those dates is best for you.

Learner example:
This job in a bookshop is in Central London, and you can choo[se] part–time or full time, whichever you want.

while /waɪl/

CONJUNCTION

COMPARING

[B1] used to compare two different facts or situations

Dictionary examples:
He gets fifty thousand pounds a year while I get only twenty!
Tom is very confident while Katy is shy and quiet.

Learner example:
In Italy, weddings [are] very traditional! The girls [wear] a long, white dress, while the boys, normally, [wear] dark [clothes].

ALTHOUGH

[B2] (UK FORMAL ALSO MAINLY whilst) despite the fact that; although

Dictionary examples:
While I accept that he's not perfect in many respects, I do actually quite like the man.
While I fully understand your point of view, I do also have some sympathy with Michael’s.

Learner example:
While it is true that everyone should have a computer at home because it is useful, on the other hand hardly anybody [can] afford [one].

3355
NOUN

a while

[B1] a length of time

Dictionary examples:
I only stayed for a short while.
You were there a while, weren't you?
"When did that happen?" "Oh, it was a while ago".
After a while, Roberto came back inside.
I haven't seen him for a while.
I'll be fine in a while.

Learner example:
After a while, a girl invited me to play darts with her and her friends.

quite a while

[B1] a long time

Dictionary examples:
I hadn't seen Rebecca in quite a while.
It took quite a while to clean out the garage.

Learner example:
But although I have what you could call "simple" tastes, it takes me quite a while to decide what to buy.

(every) once in a while

[B2] sometimes but not often

Dictionary example:
We do go to the beach once in a while.

Learner example:
She did not say very much except for "oh" and "yes, yes" every once in a while.

be worth your while

[C2] If it is worth your while doing something, it is useful or enjoyable to do it.

Dictionary examples:
It's worth your while taking out travel insurance before you travel.
It isn't worth my while going all that way just for one day.

Learner example:
It would be worth your while to visit the country's capital Havana, and don't forget to go into the Folklore Museum and Library, the War Museum and the Archeological [Museum].
whim /wɪm/

NOUN [c]
[C][2] when you suddenly want to do something without having a reason

Dictionary example:
We booked the holiday on a whim.

Learner example:
He brought her presents and indulged her every whim.

whisky /ˈwɪski/

NOUN [c or u]
[B][2] a strong, pale brown alcoholic drink, originally produced in Scotland, that is made from barley

Dictionary example:
The whisky from the island of Islay is excellent.

Learner example:
We stayed in various small inns, where we met a lot of interesting people, for example an old man from a small village outside Aberdeen who accompanied us to a neighbouring whisky distillery, where a most exquisite malt whisky is produced.

whisper /ˈwɪspə/

VERB [t or T]
[B][2] to speak extremely quietly so that other people cannot hear

Dictionary examples:
She leaned over and whispered something in his ear.
What are you two girls whispering about?
"Where are the toilets?" she whispered.

Learner example:
When I went to the school canteen everybody was staring at me and whispering to each other.
whistle  /ˈwɪsl/

VERB  [I or T]

[B2] to make a sound by breathing air out through a small hole made with your lips, or through a whistle

Dictionary examples:
On the days when she wore a skirt the men on the building site would whistle at her. Someone was whistling Beatles tunes outside my window.

Learner example:
I stood up and many of my companions clap[ped] their hands, although some of them whistled in a very rude way.

NOUN  [C]

[B2] a small, simple instrument that makes a sound when you blow through it

Dictionary example:
The referee blew his whistle to end the game.

Learner example:
I was so nervous and I was thinking about that scream and those whistles, so I decided to go outside to have a look.

---

white  /waɪt/

ADJECTIVE

PERSON

[B1] Someone who is white has skin that is pale in colour.

Dictionary examples:
He had a black mother and a white father.
He’s described as a white man in his early thirties.

Learner example:
He had just been beaten by a group of white men.

FACE

[C2] having a pale face because you are ill or you are feeling shocked

Dictionary example:
He was white with shock.

Learner example:
However, when she opened the door, her face went white.
OF WHITE PEOPLE
[C2] relating to white people

Dictionary example:
the white community

Learner example:
As most British in those days, his private life lay in a small circle of the white community.

who /huː/

PRONOUN

ADDING INFORMATION
[B1] used to give more information about someone

Dictionary example:
My brother, who's only 17, has already passed his driving test.

Learner example:
The bad guys try to take over the world and the good guys, who are the heroes, try to stop them from doing so.

Who cares?
[B2] INFORMAL used to emphasize that you do not think something is important

Dictionary example:
"Chelsea should have reached the final!" "Who cares?"

Learner example:
"Who cares?" he answered.

whoever /huːˈev.ə/

PRONOUN

PERSON
[B2] the person who

Dictionary examples:
Whoever broke the window will have to pay for it.
Could I speak to whoever is in charge of international sales, please?

Learner example:
I have to admit that whoever invented cars produced the best invention in the world.
NOT IMPORTANT

[B2] used to say that it is not important which person or group does something

Dictionary examples:
Can whoever leaves last please lock up?
You’re likely to get the same answer, whoever you ask.

Learner example:
The main advantage is obvious – you can communicate whenever you want with whoever you want and wherever you are.

whole  /həʊl/

NOUN

the whole of sth
[B1] all of something

Dictionary examples:
I'll be on holiday the whole of next week.
His behaviour affects the whole of the class.
The whole of the village had come out for the party.

Learner example:
Moreover, you can see the whole of Hong Kong from the Peak.

on the whole
[B1] generally

Dictionary example:
We've had a few problems, but on the whole we're very happy.

Learner example:
On the whole I don't like watching television.

as a whole
[B2] when considered as a group and not in parts

Dictionary example:
The population as a whole is getting healthier.

Learner example:
To sum up, I can say that the greatest ever invention is the invention of computers, that has affected both indivi[d]uals and society as a whole.

ADVERB

[C2] as a single object and not in pieces

Dictionary example:
The baby bird swallowed the worm whole. wholeheartedly /ˌhəʊlˈhaː.tɪd.li/

ADVERB

[C2] in a completely enthusiastic way

Dictionary example:
I agreed wholeheartedly with what she said.

Learner example:
First of all, I have to say that I agree with you wholeheartedly.

wholly /ˈhəʊl.li/

ADVERB

[C2] completely

Dictionary example:
His behaviour is wholly unacceptable.

Learner example:
As far as money is concerned, I think that people who only care about earning lots of money do not wholly understand the question.

whom /huːm/

PRONOUN formal

[B2] used instead of 'who' as the object of a verb or preposition

Dictionary examples:
I met a man with whom I used to work.
There were 500 passengers, of whom 121 drowned.
To whom do you wish to speak?

Learner example:
This is just to let you know with whom I worked.

whose /huːz/

DETERMINER

ASKING WHO

[B1] used to ask who something belongs to or who someone or something is connected to
Dictionary examples:
Whose bag is this?
Whose car shall we use?

Learner example:
Whose fault is [it]?

MORE INFORMATION

[B1] used for adding information about a person or thing just mentioned

Dictionary examples:
Cohen, whose contract ends next week, is likely to move to play for a European club.
It was an old house, whose basement had been flooded.

Learner example:
My new friend, whose name is Mark, is my co-worker.

PRONOUN

[B1] used to ask who something belongs to or who someone or something is connected to

Dictionary examples:
Whose is this bag?
Whose is that book?

why /waɪ/

ADVERB

TALK ABOUT REASON

[B1] used to talk about the reason for something

Dictionary examples:
I don't know why she isn't here.
Quite why he isn't here today is a mystery.
There is no reason why we shouldn't succeed.

Learner example:
Also, you didn't say why the photography and painting courses were so popular.

why not?

[B1] used to agree with something that someone has suggested

Dictionary example:
"Let's have an ice cream." "Yes, why not?"

Learner example:
She said, I have two tickets for a new film [with] Tom Cruise – would you like to come with me? Well I said why not, so I went with her to see this film.
wicked /ˈwɪk.ɪd/

ADJECTIVE

[C2] extremely bad and morally wrong

Dictionary example:

a wicked man

Learner example:

[They went to] great pains to do so, as he was indeed a wicked and cunning man, but he had not counted [on] Caroline's and James' superior intelligence, and the documents were eventually found in an empty jar in the kitchen.

wide /waɪd/

Word family:

Nouns: width
Verbs: widen
Adjectives: wide
Adverbs: widely

ADJECTIVE

5 miles/10 metres, etc. wide

[B1] having a distance of 5 miles/10 metres, etc. from one side to the other

Dictionary example:

The swimming pool is five metres wide.

Learner example:

From the two metres wide window I can overlook the city and the lake.

a wide range/selection/variety, etc.

[B1] a lot of different types of thing

Dictionary examples:

The library has a wide range of information.
They sell a wide selection of chocolates.

Learner example:

There is a very wide choice of activities!

ADVERB

APART

[B2] farther than usual or as far as possible

Dictionary example:

She ran towards me, her arms open wide.
Learner example:
She came into the living room and saw me standing on the stairs with my eyes opened wide.

be wide awake
[C2] to be completely awake

Dictionary example:
"Is Oliver awake yet?" “Yes, he's wide awake and running around his bedroom.”

Learner example:
Sometimes, when I have put my children to bed, half an hour later an aircraft flies over and my two-year old daughter is wide awake again.

---

widely /ˈwɜːdlɪ/

Word family:
Nouns: width
Verbs: widen
Adjectives: wide
Adverbs: widely

ADVERB

INCLUDING A LOT
[B2] including a lot of different places, people, subjects, etc.

Dictionary examples:
They have both travelled widely.
English is widely spoken around the world.
His work is widely known/accepted.

Learner example:
It is widely known that the Japanes[e] and Chines[e] people are often very healthy.

differ/vary widely
[B2] to be very different

Dictionary example:
Prices vary widely from shop to shop.

Learner example:
People's opinions on the protection of the environment differ widely.
widen /ˈwaɪ.dən/

Word family:
Nouns: width
Verbs: widen
Adjectives: wide
Adverbs: widely

VERB [I or T]

MAKE WIDER
[B2] to become wider, or to make something wider

Dictionary examples:
They are widening the road.
As it approaches the sea, the river begins to widen (out).

Learner example:
So I suggest widening the [main road].

INCREASE
[B2] to increase or make something increase in number or degree

Dictionary example:
Why not widen the discussion to include other points of view?

Learner example:
It could help me to widen my knowledge about stamps.

widespread /ˈwaɪd.spred/

ADJECTIVE
[C1] affecting or including a lot of places, people, etc.

Dictionary examples:
a widespread problem widespread support

Learner example:
It is because of widespread use of deep-freezing and preservatives.

widow /ˈwɪd.əʊ/

NOUN [C]
[B2] a woman whose husband has died and who has not married again
Dictionary example:
Many of her friends are also widows.

Learner example:
Roland was a rich man and now you are a rich widow.

---

width /wɪtθ/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word family:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nouns:  width</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Verbs:  widen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adjectives:  wide</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adverbs:  widely</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOUN [C or U]

[B2] the distance across something from one side to the other

Dictionary examples:
It is 5 metres in width.
The needle is seven times smaller than the width of a human hair.

Learner example:
The width of a car hinders driving on the pavement, for instance.

---

wield /wiːld/

VERB [T]

[C2] to hold a weapon or tool and look as if you are going to use it

Dictionary example:
They were confronted by a man wielding a knife.

Learner example:
To start with, its special effects are superb, transporting the spectator into a new world of fascinating creatures, who wield mighty weapons to get citizens free from slavery and injustice.

wield influence/power, etc.

[C2] to have a lot of influence or power over other people

Dictionary example:
People in his position wield a lot of power over our lives.

Learner example:
Fortunately, my parents do not wield authority over me and my siblings like dictators.
wild /waɪld/

Word family:

Adjectives: wild

Adverbs: wildly

ADJECTIVE

LAND

[B2] describes land that is not used to grow crops and has few people living in it

Dictionary example:
a wild mountainous region

Learner example:
This area is still wild.

ENERGETIC

[B2] very energetic and not controlled

Dictionary examples:
a wild party
wild dancing
The audience burst into wild applause.
When I told him what I'd done, he went wild.
The children were wild with excitement.

Learner example:
When Jorge went up [on] the stage to get his award, he sang the song and the crowd went wild!

run wild

[C2] If someone, especially a child, runs wild, they behave as they want to and no one controls them.

Dictionary example:
Their nine-year-old son is left to run wild.

Learner example:
My parents decided to move to a small village when I was just a kid. Shortly after we settled [in], my parents decided that I was running wild and that it was time for me to receive some sort of education.

run wild

[C2] If someone's imagination runs wild, they are not able to control their thoughts.

Dictionary example:
It was getting dark and my imagination was starting to run wild.

Learner example:
Her imagination started to run wild and she set about think[ing] about the dark corridors, the secret passages and the obscure dungeons that the castle might hide.
a wild accusation/guess/rumour, etc.
[C2] something that you say which is not based on facts and is probably wrong

Dictionary example:
You can't go round making wild accusations like that.

WEATHER
[C2] with a lot of wind, rain, etc.

Dictionary example:
a wild and stormy night

Learner example:
They played with the shadows of the night and danced with the sound of a wild wind.

beyond your wildest dreams
[C2] bigger or better than anything you could imagine or hope for

Dictionary example:
The house was beyond my wildest dreams.

Learner example:
[It] was beyond my wildest dreams.

not/never in your wildest dreams
[C2] used to say that something is better than anything you could imagine or hope for

Dictionary example:
Never in my wildest dreams had I thought I would be offered a starring role in Hollywood.

Learner example:
Not even in my wildest dreams could I have imagined that finding a diary was to have such fortunate consequences for me.

wilderness /ˈwɪldə.nəs/

NOUN [C]
[C2] a place that is in a completely natural state without houses, industry, roads, etc.

Dictionary example:
a beautiful mountain wilderness

Learner example:
At 7 o'clock we left our tiny hotel to head for the wilderness.
wildlife  /ˈwaɪld.laɪf/

NOUN [u]
[B1] animals and plants that grow independently of people in their natural environment

Dictionary examples:
a documentary on Peruvian wildlife wildlife groups/conservation

Learner example:
The countryside will be the best place because we [will be] able to see the old castles, mountains and natural areas with forests and wildlife.

wildly  /ˈwaɪld.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: wild
Adverbs: wildly

ADVERB

WITHOUT CONTROL
[B2] in a very energetic way and without control

Dictionary examples:
He was dancing wildly.
They cheered wildly.

Learner example:
When I arrived at the party, I knew immediately that something was wrong ... people were sleeping on the floor, the house furniture was all torn apart, [and] people with beverages were dancing wildly.

EXTREMELY [C2] extremely

Dictionary examples:
I must say I'm not wildly keen on the idea.
The product has been wildly successful.

Learner example:
Funding field trips would mean increased resources for our wildly successful guest appearances, as well as the budget needed to foster our skilled debaters.
will  /wɪl/

MODAL VERB

will have [B2] used to form the future perfect tense

Dictionary examples:
Next month, Gary will have been working here for 10 years.
He'll have reached Berlin by tonight.

Learner example:
First of all, if you go to work by bicycle every day, at the end of the month you will have saved more money because you won't have spent it buying petrol.

NOUN

MENTAL POWER
[B2] [c or u] the mental power used to control and direct your thoughts and actions, or a determination to do something, despite any difficulties or opposition

Dictionary examples:
From an early age she had a very strong will.
After six months in hospital she began to lose the will to live.

Learner example:
How would you find the will to look for another job?

WHAT SOMEONE WANTS
[C1] [u] what someone wants to happen

Dictionary examples:
Against their will, they were forced to hold a meeting.
The government has failed to impose its will upon regional communities.

Learner example:
But if you go [and] learn a language against your will, then it's better not to go at all.

DOCUMENT
[C2] [c] an official statement of what a person has decided should be done with their money and property after their death

Dictionary examples:
Have you made a will yet?
She left me some money in her will.

Learner example:
This uncle of mine, rich as he was, decided to make a will some years before his death.
willing /ˈwɪl.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: willingness, unwillingness
Adjectives: unwilling, willing Adverbs: willingly, unwillingly

ADJECTIVE

be willing (to do sth)
[B1] to be happy to do something if it is needed

Dictionary examples:
If you're willing to fly at night, you can get a much cheaper ticket.
You said you needed a volunteer – well, I'm willing.
Apparently John and Gabriel are willing for us to use their garden.

Learner example:
Would you be willing to go to the restaurant (where we were) and find my watch?

WANTING
[C2] wanting to do something

Dictionary example:
He is a very willing assistant.

Learner example:
It has also given them a willing slave, the machine, which will work as many hours as required without demanding overtime or rest time and without going on strike.

willingly /ˈwɪl.ɪŋ.li/

Word family:
Nouns: willingness, unwillingness
Adjectives: unwilling, willing Adverbs: willingly, unwillingly

ADVERB
[B2] in a willing way

Dictionary examples:
He would willingly risk his life for her.
I would willingly help you if I weren't going away tomorrow.

Learner example:
Of course, I'll willingly help you, even though I'm going to stay there only for a couple of weeks.
willingness  /ˈwɪl.ɪŋ.nəs/

Word family:
Nouns: willingness, unwillingness
Adjectives: unwilling, willing Adverbs: willingly, unwillingly

NOUN [u]
[B2] the state of being willing

Dictionary example:
I was impressed by her willingness to listen.

Learner example:
Thank you for your willingness [to organise] the trip.

willpower  /ˈwɪl.paʊər/

NOUN [u]
[C2] the ability to make yourself do difficult things or to stop yourself from doing enjoyable things that are bad for you

Dictionary example:
It takes great willpower to lose weight.

Learner example:
In the end, I think, it all comes down to willpower and intelligence.

win  /win/

Word family:
Nouns: winner, win
Verbs: win

VERB (winning, won, won)

ELECTION
[B1] [ɪ or ɪ] to get the most votes in an election

Dictionary example:
Who do you think will win the election?

ARGUMENT
[B2] to be successful in a war, fight, or argument
Dictionary examples:
They won the war, but with heavy losses.
Everyone likes winning an argument.

Learner example:
After a short battle on the floor I won the fight.

win approval/respect/support, etc.
[C2] to get approval/respect/support, etc. because of your skill and hard work

Dictionary example:
Her plans have won the support of many local people.

Learner example:
In my book, they should be prepared to work hard to win their colleagues' respect before they start to earn real money.

NOUN [c]
[C1] when someone wins a game, competition or election

Dictionary examples:
It was United's sixth consecutive win this season.
Everyone was predicting a Republican win at the last election and look what happened.

Learner example:
It was a really interesting, ex[cl]iting game which ended with a deserving 'One–Nil' win to Scotland.

---

wind /wɪnd/

Word family:

Nouns: wind

Adjectives: windy

NOUN [c or u]

throw caution to the wind
[C2] to take a risk

Dictionary example:
I decided to throw caution to the wind and book a ticket to India.

Learner example:
They just threw caution to the wind, and did what they wanted.

---

wind² /waɪnd/

Word family:

Verbs: wind, unwind

Adjectives: winding
Verbs (wound, wound)

Wind (sth) around/round, etc. sth
[B2] To turn or twist something long and thin around something else several times, or to turn or twist in this way

Dictionary example:
She wound the rope around the tree.

Learner example:
The door opened and an enormous worm in the shape of a finger rushed toward them. It wound around them and pulled them out of the house.

Wind along/through, etc.
[B2] If a river, road, etc. winds somewhere, it bends a lot and is not straight.

Dictionary example:
The path winds along the edge of the bay.

Learner example:
The camp is situated among colourful meadows, there is a deep forest and, of course, the river winds through this lovely countryside.

Winding /ˈwaind.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: wind, unwind
Adjectives: winding

Adjective
[B2] Describes a path, road, river, etc. which repeatedly turns in different directions

Dictionary example:
There's a very long, winding path leading up to the house.

Learner example:
Moreover, I agree with Chris when he thinks the route through the mountain may be very difficult: it is a winding and quite hazardous road.

Window /ˈwin.dəʊ/

Noun [c]

Computer
[B1] A separate area on a computer screen showing information and which you can move around Dictionary example:

to minimize/maximize a window

windscreen  /ˈwɪndˌskriːn/

NOUN [c]

[B1] the window at the front end of a car, bus, etc.

Dictionary example:
A small stone shattered the windscreen as I was driving home.

Learner example:
Mending your bicycle by yourself is easy. That's not the case with cars: try repairing the engine, or changing the windscreen if it's broken.

windsurfing  /ˈwɪndˌsɜː.fɪŋ/

NOUN [u]

[B1] a sport in which you sail across water by standing on a board and holding onto a large sail

Dictionary example:
We had a great holiday by the beach with lots of windsurfing.

Learner example:
On Thursday if the weather is better we'll go windsurfing.

wing  /wɪŋ/

NOUN [c]

CREATURE

[B1] one of the body parts that a bird or insect uses to fly

Dictionary example:
The eagle took off, flapping its wings to gain height.

Learner example:
I enjoyed this place because there were a lot of trees and a lot of birds with colourful wings.

AIRCRAFT

[B2] one of the two long, flat parts at the sides of an aircraft that allow it to fly

Dictionary example:
I could see the plane's wing out of the window.
Learner example:
Everything looked good but then, he made a wrong move and crashed into another plane with the wing.

POLITICS
[C2] a group of people in an organization or political party who have the same beliefs

Dictionary example:
the nationalist wing of the party

wink /wɪŋk/

VERB [I]
[C2] to quickly close and then open one eye, in order to be friendly or to show that something is a joke

Dictionary example:
She smiled and winked at me.

Learner example:
On the way to town they saw the postman, carrying a pair of shoes and half a dozen letters. He winked at them.

NOUN [C]

not sleep a wink
[C2] to not have any sleep

Dictionary example:
I was so excited last night – I didn’t sleep a wink.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, due to the fact that I hadn’t slept a wink the previous night, I began to fall asleep.

wipe /wʌp/

VERB [T]

CLEAN
[B2] to clean or dry something by moving a cloth across it

Dictionary examples:
Have you got a cloth that I can wipe the floor with?
I’ll just wipe the table.
Learner example:
If you accept my application, I can join any group you've made to help clean the street, [and] wipe the walls or doors of [a] public place.

wipe sth away/from/off, etc.
[B2] to remove dirt, water, a mark, etc. from something with a cloth or your hand

Dictionary example:
He wiped a tear from his eye.

Learner example:
My father gave her a tissue and she wiped her tears away.

---

wire /waɪə/

NOUN

METAL THREAD
[B2] [c or u] thin, metal thread used to fasten things or to make fences, cages, etc.

Dictionary example:
a wire fence

ELECTRICITY
[B2] [c] a long, thin piece of metal thread, usually covered in plastic, that carries electricity, telephone signals, etc.

Dictionary example:
Don't touch those wires whatever you do – they're live.

Learner example:
After carrying stuff like lights, microphones, wires and some other equipment for about three hours, I was exhausted.

---

wisdom /ˈwɪz.dəm/

Word family:
Nouns: wisdom
Adjectives: wise, unwise
Adverbs: wisely

NOUN [U]

KNOWLEDGE
[B2] the ability to use your knowledge and experience to make good decisions and judgments
Dictionary examples:
One certainly hopes to gain a little wisdom as one grows older.
I tend to doubt the wisdom of separating a child from its family whatever the circumstances.
Did we ever stop to question the wisdom of going to war?
Before I went off to university my father gave me a few words of wisdom.

Learner example:
However, these two [subjects] are vital for us to obtain the wisdom needed in [later] life.

conventional wisdom
[C1] what most people believe

Dictionary example:
These ideas about childcare go against the conventional wisdom on the subject.

Learner example:
Thus, against conventional wisdom, I think that while a lot of adult problems are caused by money or the lack of it, it is really the ability to deal with money and to see money as a means rather than an end.

---

wise /waɪz/

Word family:
Nouns: wisdom
Adjectives: wise, unwise
Adverbs: wisely

ADJECTIVE

[B2] having or showing the ability to make good judgments, based on a deep understanding and experience of life

Dictionary examples:
I think you made a wise choice.
Looking at the weather, I think we made a wise decision not to go to the coast this weekend.
I think it would be wiser to wait and see how much money you’ve got left before you make any decisions.
I never used to save money, but now I’m a little older and wiser I can see the sense in it.

Learner example:
So, you are coming to my country, that’s a wise decision.

---

wisely /ˈwaɪz.li/

Word family:
Nouns: wisdom
Adjectives: wise, unwise
Adverbs: wisely
ADVERB

[C1] in a wise way

Dictionary example:
She wisely advised me to wait.

Learner example:
In my opinion, computer learning offers very interesting opportunities, especially to learn new languages, but such a powerful medium as the computer should be used wisely.

wish /wɪʃ/

VERB

wish (that)

[B1] to want a situation that is different from the one that exists

Dictionary examples:
I wish that I was/were a bit taller.
I wish I didn’t have to go to work today.
I wish he would leave.
I wish I had been there.

Learner example:
I wish you were here, then you could see how nice it is.

wish sb luck/success, etc.

[B1] to say that you hope someone will be lucky, successful, etc.

Dictionary examples:
I wished him luck for his test.
I’m running in the 5000 metres – wish me luck!

Learner example:
I wish you luck for your exams.

wish to do sth

[B2] FORMAL to want to do something

Dictionary examples:
I wish to make a complaint.
Passengers wishing to take the Kings Cross train should go to platform 9.

Learner example:
Dear Sir/Madam, I wish to apply for the post of helper which was advertised on the college noticeboard last Monday.
NOUN [C]

WANT
[B2] what you want to do or what you want to happen

Dictionary examples:
Did he express any wish to see me?
The hospital always tries to respect the wishes of its patients.
It was his greatest wish that one of his grandchildren would become a doctor.

Learner example:
It was always his dream to become a singer and he [did] everything to make his wish come true.

SECRET
[C2] something that you say secretly to yourself about what you want to have or happen

Dictionary example:
She closed her eyes and made a wish.

Learner example:
I saw a star falling. I made a wish.

wit /wɪt/

Word family:
Nouns: wit
Adjectives: witty

NOUN [U]
[C1] the ability to say things that are funny and clever

Dictionary examples:
a woman of great intelligence and wit
He was known for his dry/sharp wit.

Learner example:
His wit and charm drew many people’s attention to the topic and we gained [a] deeper insight into the tourist industry.

witch /wɪtʃ/

NOUN [C]
[C1] in stories, a woman who has magical powers that she uses to do bad or strange things
Dictionary example:
It was a story about an old witch.

Learner example:
A famous actress and her friend, a librarian, get the 'elixir of eternal youth' from the mysterious witch (Isabella Rossellini) and then their troubles begin...

with /wɪð/

PREPOSITION

WHAT
[B1] used to say what fills, covers, etc. something

Dictionary examples:
a bucket filled with water
She filled the jug with cream.

Learner example:
It was like throwing her into a pool filled with ice.

HOW
[B1] used to describe the way someone does something

Dictionary example:
He plays with great skill.

Learner example:
People can do more things and with more energy when [they are] listening to music.

CAUSE
[B2] because of something

Dictionary examples:
I was shaking with fear.
I can't work with all that noise going on.

Learner example:
It was Tuesday the 13th and the fact that I was very superstitious made me tremble with fear.

RELATING TO
[B2] relating to something or someone

Dictionary example:
There's something wrong with the car.

Learner example:
[It]'s such a shame when people use [computers] badly, just for damaging and making things worse, because if there's something wrong with them, almost everything is wrong [with] us too.
with respect to sth [FORMAL] [B2] relating to a particular thing

Dictionary example:
I am writing with respect to your letter of 24 June.

Learner example:
With respect to the ages of the members, they are between fifteen and twenty years old.

with the aid of sth
[C1] using something to help you

Dictionary example:
She can walk with the aid of a stick.

Learner example:
The newest computer can handle data that human brains cannot and therefore all scientific research is carried out with the aid of computers.

with flying colours
[C1] with a very high score or with great success

Dictionary example:
He passed the entrance exam with flying colours.

Learner example:
I worked intensively on the course and I passed with flying colours.

with a view to doing sth [FORMAL]
[C1] so that you can do something

Dictionary example:
He's doing some improvements on the house with a view to selling it.

Learner example:
The purpose of this report is to assess the success of the latest tour our sports club organised and make relevant suggestions with a view to enhancing future trips.

with your bare hands
[C2] without using any type of tool or weapon when doing something that requires a lot of strength

Dictionary example:
He wrestled the lion to the ground with his bare hands.

Learner example:
You could tell your grand-children about the good old days when you hunted for mammoths and skinned them with your bare hands, just a few million years back (sigh: "seems like yesterday").

with bated breath
[C2] in an excited or anxious way
Dictionary example:
I waited with bated breath as the results were read out.

Learner example:
Nevertheless, a huge number of scientists carrying out very useful research, [and] composers, actors, [and] artists making us watch their creations with bated breath, do not earn [as much] money as a lot of outstanding sportsmen do.

with the compliments of sb FORMAL [C2] used by someone to express good wishes when they give you something free, for example in a restaurant

Dictionary example:
Please accept this champagne with the compliments of the manager.

Learner example:
The guest can also choose from a selection of wonderful desserts such as mousse au chocolat with fresh raspberries before finishing his/her meal with a rose liqueur – with the compliments of the house (and the bill).

withdraw /wɪðˈdrɔː/

Word family:
Nouns: withdrawal
Verbs: withdraw

VERB ( withdrew, withdrawn)

MONEY
[C1] [ɪ] to take money out of a bank account

Dictionary example:
She withdrew $50.

Learner example:
Apart from this, without credit cards I would have to look for a bank to withdraw money, and this is not very easy for a student.

REMOVE
[C1] [ɪ] to remove something, especially because of an official decision

Dictionary examples:
This product has been withdrawn from sale.
He has threatened to withdraw his support.

Learner example:
But the government stepped back, withdrew the proposal and fired three ministers.

COMPETITION
[C2] [ɪ] to decide that you will not now be in a race, competition, etc.
Dictionary example:
Christie was forced to withdraw from the race because of injury.

withdrawal /wɪðˈdrɔːl/

Word family:
Nouns: withdrawal
Verbs: withdraw

NOUN

MONEY
[C2] [c or u] when you take money out of a bank account

Dictionary example:
The bank became suspicious after several large withdrawals were made from his account in a single week.

NOT AVAILABLE
[C2] [u] when something is taken away so that it is no longer available, or when someone stops being involved in an activity

Dictionary examples:
Doctors demanded the withdrawal of the drug (from the market) after several cases involving dangerous side-effects were reported.
Her sudden withdrawal from the championship caused a lot of press speculation about her health.
the withdrawal of financial support withdrawn /wɪðˈdrɔːn/

ADJECTIVE [NEVER BEFORE NOUN]
[C2] quiet and not talking to other people

Dictionary example:
He seemed quiet and withdrawn.

Learner example:
I should have been friendlier and more interested, rather than quiet and withdrawn.
within /wɪˈðɪn/

PREPOSITION

TIME

[B1] before a particular period of time has finished

Dictionary examples:
The ambulance arrived within 10 minutes.
This product should be eaten within three days.

Learner example:
I will return it to you within four days.

DISTANCE

[B1] less than a particular distance from something

Dictionary examples:
Two-thirds of Californians live within 15 miles of the coast.
The hotel is within easy reach of the airport.

Learner example:
By the way, [the] receptionist told me that the scenery round the lake is very beautiful and that the Butterfly Farm and the monument shown on your map are within easy reach.

LIMIT

[B2] not outside the limits of something

Dictionary examples:
We came within five points of beating them.
The project was completed well within budget.

Learner example:
Similarly [the] visitor has also shown responsibility to remain within [the] limits of the society he is moving [in], so that he cannot cause any hurt or harm to local culture.

INSIDE

[C1] inside an area, group, or system

Dictionary examples:
a dispute within the department
There's a pharmacy within the hospital building.

Learner example:
Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to you, as requested, in order to ensure that the training – whose purpose is to help the staff improve its communications with the other departments within the company – is effective and not just a waste of time.

within limits

[C2] avoiding behaviour that is extreme or silly
Dictionary example:
You can wear what you want, within limits.

Learner example:
They should be given a choice of food, within limits.

within (sb's) reach
[C2] possible for someone to achieve

Dictionary example:
Winning the championship suddenly seemed within their reach.

Learner example:
We have decided to take action to prevent further damage being inflicted, and are convinced the task is fully within our reach.

within reason
[C2] If something is within reason, it is acceptable and possible.

Dictionary example:
We can wear what we like to the office, within reason.

Learner example:
Although this view may seem too harsh and hard-hearted, I believe it is within reason.

without /wɪˈðaʊt/
PREPOSITION

without delay
[B1] immediately

Dictionary example:
This problem needs to be dealt with without delay.

Learner example:
Firstly, the programme began on time at midday without delay.

withstand /wɪðˈstænd/
VERB [T] (withstood)
[C2] to not be harmed or broken by something

Dictionary example:
a bridge designed to withstand earthquakes

Learner example:
In the past older or weaker organisms unable to withstand certain diseases had to die.
witness /ˈwɪt.nəs/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a person who sees an event happening, especially a crime or an accident

Dictionary examples:
Police are appealing for witnesses to the accident to come forward.
According to (eye) witnesses, the robbery was carried out by two teenage boys.

Learner example:
Furthermore, the witness was assassinated.

VERB [t]
[B2] to see something happen, especially an accident or crime

Dictionary example:
Did anyone witness the attack?

Learner example:
Finally, if you witness an accident you can inform the police quickly, which can save lives.

witty /ˈwɪt.i/

Word family:
Nouns: wit
Adjectives: witty

ADJECTIVE
[B2] using words in a clever and funny way

Dictionary examples:
a witty comment/remark
He was witty and very charming.

Learner example:
I have read it many times and [the] author’s witty remarks and elegant style have always been a source of entertainment to me.

wolf /wʊlf/

NOUN [c] (PLURAL wolves)
[B2] a wild animal of the dog family

Dictionary examples:
Wolves hunt in groups known as packs.
We could hear wolves howling in the distance.
Learner example:
Before we knew it, Nick leapt onto the wolf and they started to fight.

wonder  /ˈwʌn.dər/

Word family:
Verbs: wonder
Adjectives: wonderful

VERB [I or T]

QUESTION

[B1] to ask yourself questions or express a wish to know about something

Dictionary examples:
Hadn't you better phone home? Your parents will be wondering where you are.
He's starting to wonder whether he did the right thing in accepting this job.
Will this turkey be big enough for eight, I wonder?
"Have you decided where you're going next summer?" "I've been wondering about going to Florida."

Learner example:
You might wonder why I decided to do so.

POLITE REQUEST

[B1] used in phrases, at the beginning of a request, to make it more formal and polite

Dictionary examples:
I wonder – could you help me carry these books?
I wonder whether you could pass me the butter?
I was wondering if you could give me some information about places to visit in the area?

Learner example:
I wonder if there is a way that I would be able to cover the work I have missed?

NOUN

no wonder

[B2] it is not surprising

Dictionary examples:
No wonder the children are excited – this is the first time they've been abroad.
"If brutal killers like these two are at work, it is no wonder that so many people have fled," he said.

Learner example:
No wonder that people are more tired and are not interested in reading books as much as in the past.
woodland /ˈwʊd.lənd/

NOUN [C or U]

[C2] an area of land with a lot of trees

Dictionary example:
A lot of the area is woodland.

Learner example:
Our house, which was quite spacious, was near a river and surrounded by beautiful rolling hills and extensive woodland.

---

word /wɜːd/

NOUN

not believe/understand/hear/say, etc. a word
[B1] to not believe/understand/hear/say, etc. anything

Dictionary example:
I don't believe a word he says.

Learner example:
Peter took my hand and asked me to leave, so I said goodbye to Roger and his girlfriend – who never said a word.

have a word (with sb)
[B2] to talk to someone for a short time

Dictionary examples:
Could I have a word about the sales figures today? Perhaps you would have a quiet word with Simon about the problem.

Learner example:
The nurse sitting beside me said to me, 'Your mother would like to have a word with you,' then she went out.

in other words
[B2] used to explain what something means in a different way

Dictionary example:
He said he's too busy – in other words he isn't interested.

Learner example:
They had had a great time before and had drunk too much alcohol. In other words, they were totally drunk.

give sb your word
[C1] to promise someone something
Dictionary example:
Paolo gave me his word that he wouldn't tell anyone.

Learner example:
I give you my word that it will never happen again.

take sb's word for it
[C1] to believe what someone says without any proof

Dictionary example:
Take my word for it – this curry is very hot!

Learner example:
You can take my word for it that she is absolutely capable of carrying out this job – fond of children, patient, good-natured and competent.

keep your word
[C1] to do what you said you would do

Dictionary example:
He agreed to come and I'm sure he'll keep his word.

Learner example:
It turned out that the company that had been hired to organize it did not keep their word.

word for word
[C2] using the exact words that were originally used

Dictionary example:
She repeated word for word what he had told her.

Learner example:
This is word for word the beginning of the story that Katrina handed to her French teacher.

in sb's words
[C2] used when you repeat what someone said

Dictionary example:
In the manager's words, the game was 'a total disaster'.

Learner example:
In the immortal words of the bard "... if music be the food of love....... play on!"

be lost for words
[C2] to be so surprised, angry or moved by something that you do not know what to say

Dictionary example:
This prize is such an honour and so unexpected – I am lost for words.

Learner example:
I was so enraged that I was lost for words for quite a long time.
at a loss for words
[C2] not knowing what to say

Dictionary example:
The question was unexpected and she was temporarily at a loss for words.

Learner example:
If it was James I would be at a loss for words, I didn’t know what to tell him.

work  /wɜːk/

Word family:
Nouns: work, worker
Verbs: work
Adjectives: working, overworked

NOUN

EFFORT
[B1] [U] when you use physical or mental effort to do something

Dictionary examples:
Carrying heavy loads around all day is hard work.
I can certainly do a report for you but it will be a lot of work.

Learner example:
The lessons are very good but the teacher is going very quickly. It will be hard work.

CREATION
[B2] [c] a painting, book, piece of music, etc.

Dictionary examples:
The museum has many works by Picasso as well as other modern painters.
the complete works of Shakespeare

Learner example:
We agreed that something had to be done to promote the popularity of local films, some of them being great works of art.

VERB

SUCCEED
[B1] [I] If something works, it is effective or successful.

Dictionary examples:
Her plan to increase sales worked.
The tablets will start to work in a few minutes.

Learner example:
I changed cars several times to fool the police. It worked very well.
can work sth; know how to work sth
[C1] to know how to use a machine or piece of equipment

Dictionary example:
Do you know how to work the video camera?

Learner example:
At that time, I also learned how to work the lighting during the play.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>workaholic /ˌwɜː.kəˈhol.i k/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [C] INFORMAL
[C2] someone who works too much and does not have time to do anything else

Dictionary example:
My husband's a workaholic.

Learner example:
Unless you are a real "workaholic", and there are some of them out there, working like a slave to get more money doesn't pay off.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>worker /ˈwɜː.kər/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Word family:
Nouns: work, worker
Verbs: work
Adjectives: working, overworked

NOUN [C] a quick/slow/good, etc. worker
[B1] someone who works quickly/slowly/well, etc.

Dictionary example:
He's rather a slow worker, but he is very thorough.

Learner example:
I'll recom[men]d you [as] a hard worker and a very nice person.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>workforce /ˈwɜː.kɔːr.fɔːs/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

NOUN [GROUP]
COMPANY
[C1] all the people who work for a company or organization
Dictionary example:
We have a highly skilled workforce.

Learner example:
Before giving them rewards, companies need to train their workforce and identify their potential.

COUNTRY
[C2] all the people in a country who are able to do a job

Dictionary example:
10% of the workforce are unemployed.

Learner example:
There is hardly a nation without representatives in Germany’s workforce.

working /ˈwɜːkin/

Word family:
Nouns: work, worker
Verbs: work
Adjectives: working, overworked

ADJECTIVE [ALWAYS BEFORE NOUN]

JOB
[B1] relating to your job

Dictionary examples:
a 37-hour working week
working hours
Working conditions in the mill have hardly changed over the last twenty years.
She has a difficult working relationship with many of her staff.

Learner example:
As you know, I work in [a] bank, so I have to [dress] smartly during working hours.

a working knowledge of sth
[B2] knowledge about something which is good enough to be useful

Dictionary example:
She has a working knowledge of German and Russian.

Learner example:
Furthermore, I have a working knowledge of English, Spanish, Catalan and Italian.
workout /ˈwɜː.kaʊt/

NOUN [c]

[B1] a period of physical exercise

Dictionary example:
a light workout

Learner example:
Are there many fitness-cent[res] where we can practise our daily workout?

workplace /ˈwɜː.kpleɪs/

NOUN [c]

[C1] the place where you work

Dictionary example:
We are trying to get rid of bullying in the workplace.

Learner example:
Nowadays, our jobs consume more and more of our time so a good atmosphere at the workplace is important.

workshop /ˈwɜː.kʃɒp/

NOUN [c]

[C1] when a group of people meet to learn more about something by discussing it and doing practical exercises

Dictionary example:
a workshop on crime prevention

Learner example:
All in all, I thoroughly enjoyed this event, but I think there ought to be more computers provided and the numbers of participants to a single workshop should be limited.

world /wɜː.ld/

NOUN

GROUP

[B1] [C usually no plural] the people and things that are involved in a particular activity or subject
Dictionary examples:
the entertainment world
the world of politics

Learner example:
Well, as you know, I'm not very interested in the fashion world, so I rarely spend much time shopping for clothes.

(have) the best of both worlds
[C1] to have the advantages of two different situations

Dictionary example:
Living in the country and working in the city you have the best of both worlds.

Learner example:
Only those that can afford to live in the suburban areas can combine the best of both worlds and they tend to be rather affluent.

be out of this world INFORMAL
[C2] to be of extremely good quality

Dictionary example:
Their chocolate cake is just out of this world!

Learner example:
The dessert trays are out of this world.

do sb a/the world of good INFORMAL [C2] to make someone feel much happier or healthier

Dictionary example:
That swim has done me a world of good.

Learner example:
I feel a year abroad would do her a world of good in letting her care for children, learn to speak English properly, and see life from different aspects.

not be the end of the world [C2] If something is not the end of the world, it will not cause very serious problems.

Dictionary example:
It won't be the end of the world if I don't get the job.

be/feel on top of the world INFORMAL
[C2] to be very happy

Dictionary example:
I had just won a major tournament and I was feeling on top of the world.

Learner example:
I felt like I was on top of the world and nothing could take that happiness from me.
worldwide /ˈwɜːld.waɪd/

ADJECTIVE; ADVERB

[B2] existing or happening in all parts of the world

Dictionary examples:
- a worldwide success
- An increase in average temperature by only a few degrees could cause environmental problems worldwide.

Learner example:
You can visit the main monuments of Paris, known worldwide, like Notre-Dame Cathedral or the Eiffel Tower, built in 1903.

---

worm /wɜːm/

NOUN [C]

[B2] a small creature with a long, thin, soft body and no legs

Dictionary example:
Blackbirds eat worms, insects, and berries.

Learner example:
Fishing is my hobby and that's why I bought these plastic worms, that are not [very] good – it's better to use live worms!

---

worry /ˈwʌr.i/

Word family:

Verbs: worry

Adjectives: worried, worrying

VERB

MAKE SOMEONE ANXIOUS

[B2] [ɪ] to make someone feel anxious because of problems or unpleasant things that might happen

Dictionary examples:
- It worries me that he hasn't phoned yet.
- The lack of rain is starting to worry people.

Learner example:
Unemployment is increasing too, and today, it worries every single citizen of the world, specially the ones who live in [a] third world country.
PROBLEM

[B1] [c] a problem that makes you feel anxious

Dictionary examples:
health/financial worries
Keeping warm in the winter is a major worry for many old people.

Learner example:
My worries proved to be wrong.

BEING ANXIOUS

[B2] [u] when you are anxious about something

Dictionary examples:
She's been sick with worry.
Unemployment, bad health – all sorts of things can be a cause of worry.

Learner example:
You really need to spend a whole month without any kind of worry.

worrying /ˈwʌr.i.ɪŋ/

Word family:
Verbs: worry
Adjectives: worried, worrying

ADJECTIVE

[B2] making you feel unhappy and afraid

Dictionary example:
It's a very worrying situation.

Learner example:
But the most worrying thing about this matter is you.

worse /wɜːs/

Word family:
Nouns: worse
Verbs: worsen
Adjectives: worse
Adverbs: worse
ADJECTIVE

get worse

[B1] to become more ill, unpleasant, difficult, severe, etc. than before

Dictionary examples:
My cold seems to be getting worse.
If the rain gets any worse, we'll have to stop walking.

Learner example:
I thought, it couldn't get worse.

worse and worse

[B2] used to emphasize how unpleasant, difficult, severe, etc. something is becoming

Dictionary example:
The economic climate is getting worse and worse.

Learner example:
The traffic situation in all big towns is getting worse and worse, so that bicycles or public transport must become more attractive.

NOUN [U]

[C1] something that is more unpleasant or difficult

Dictionary examples:
By the third month of the expedition they had endured many hardships, but worse was to follow. "What about the bride's dress – wasn't it appalling?" "I don't know, I've seen worse."

Learner example:
But worse was to come at 19:30 when we went to see one of London's musicals.

ADVERB

COMPARATIVE

[B1] comparative of badly

Dictionary examples:
He did worse than he was expecting in the exams.
He was treated much worse than I was.

to make matters worse

[B2] to make a situation more difficult, unpleasant, etc.

Dictionary example:
To make matters worse, our car broke down!

Learner example:
To make matters worse, the newspaper said they only played for thirty-five minutes.
worsen /ˈwɜːsn/

Word family:
Nouns:  worse
Verbs:  worsen
Adjectives:  worse
Adverbs:  worse

VERB [i or T]
[C1] to become worse or to make something become worse

Dictionary example:
His condition suddenly worsened last week.

Learner example:
I believe erecting a car park in the cent[re] could worsen the situation drastically.

worship /ˈwɜːʃɪp/

VERB (−pp− OR US ALSO −p−)
RELIGION
[C1] [r] to have or show a strong feeling of respect and admiration for God or a god

Dictionary example:
In the various regions of India, Hindus worship different gods and observe different religious festivals.

Learner example:
The Revolution was of such importance because Greece became a free country again and the people were free to talk, worship their God and have Greek schools.

ADMIRE
[C1] to love and admire someone or something very much

Dictionary example:
She worshipped her mother.

Learner example:
Firstly, many famous people are considered as idols who are worshipped and imitated, which might make them believe they are important, especially when they have a certain media presence.

NOUN
[C2] [u] when you worship God or a god, often through praying or singing Dictionary examples:
daily acts of worship
Christian/Sikh/Muslim worship
For Jews, the synagogue is the centre for community worship and study.
Local people have complained about improperly dressed tourists entering places of worship.

Learner example:
There were Holy Masses celebrated by him in several cities and places of worship.

worst /ˈwɜːst/

NOUN [NO PLURAL]

MOST UNPLEASANT / DIFFICULT
[B1] the most unpleasant or difficult thing, person, or situation

Dictionary example:
That was the worst I've seen him play in several years.

Learner example:
This situation was the worst I have lived [through].

worst of all
[B2] used to emphasize the worst thing, situation, etc.

Dictionary example:
We had no food or light, but worst of all, we had no water.

Learner example:
And worst of all, her mother had been always against that relationship and had given her advice many times.

ADVERB
[B2] (superlative of badly) the most badly

Dictionary examples:
Small businesses have been worst hit by the recession.
Roads in the Tayside region were worst affected by the snow.

fear the worst
[C2] to worry that something very bad will happen or that something very bad has happened

Dictionary example:
When there was no sign of the children, the rescuers feared the worst.

Learner example:
Her parents had been quarreling constantly now for almost half [a] year, and she feared the worst.
worth  /wɜːθ/

Word family:

Adjectives: worth, worthless, worthy

ADJECTIVE

be worth

[B1] to have a particular value in money

Dictionary example:
Our house is worth about £400 000.

be worth sth/doing sth

[B1] to be important or interesting enough to receive a particular action or to cause you to do something

Dictionary examples:
When you're in Reykjavik, the National Museum is worth a visit.
His latest book is definitely worth reading.

Learner example:
It's really worth visiting.

be worth it

[B1] to be useful or enjoyable despite needing a lot of effort

Dictionary examples:
It was a long climb to the top of the hill, but it was worth it for the view.
Don't tire yourself out, Geri, it's really not worth it.
Forget him, love – he's just not worth it.

Learner example:
There were a lot of hills in the park, [and] it was very tiring to go up riding a bike, but when you got to the top, and stared at the amazing view, it was worth it.

be worth your while

[C2] If it is worth your while doing something, it is useful or enjoyable to do it.

Dictionary examples:
It's worth your while taking out travel insurance before you travel.
It isn't worth my while going all that way just for one day.

Learner example:
It would be worth your while to visit the country's capital Havana, and don't forget to go into the Folklore Museum and Library, the War Museum and the Archeological [Museum].
worthless /ˈwɜːθ.ləs/

Word family:
Adjectives: worth, worthless, worthy

ADJECTIVE

NOT IMPORTANT
[C1] not important or useful

Dictionary example:
He made me feel stupid and worthless.

Learner example:
One important aspect is, of course, that they will feel worthless.

MONEY
[C2] having no value in money

Dictionary example:
The painting’s a fake – it’s completely worthless.

Learner example:
I think that many people have these kinds of “worthless” objects, which they actually hold more dear to them than the gramophone they bought in an auction, or the car they won in a quiz-show, or even the wedding dress they inherited from their great-grandmother.

worthwhile /ˌwɜːθˈwaɪl/

ADJECTIVE
[B2] useful and enjoyable, despite needing a lot of effort

Dictionary examples:
She considers teaching a worthwhile career.
The time and expense involved in keeping up to date with all the changes has been worthwhile.
If you need him on this project, you've got to make it financially worthwhile for him.

Learner example:
It's a worthwhile trip. You'll have the opportunity to visit beautiful places and learn lots of history.

worthy /ˈwɜː.ði/

Word family:
Adjectives: worth, worthless, worthy
ADJECTIVE

DESERVING RESPECT

[C1] FORMAL deserving respect, admiration or support

Dictionary examples:
He is unlikely to succeed in getting his bill through Congress, however worthy it is. Every year she makes a large donation to a worthy cause.

Learner example:
The performers are all neatly dressed and on the whole, they have all made a worthy effort.

worthy of attention/notice, etc. FORMAL

[C2] deserving to be given attention, noticed, etc.

Dictionary example:
Two points in this report are especially worthy of notice.

Learner example:
Try as I might, getting good grades was always met more with a sense of mission accomplished – duly noted – than a feat worthy of congratulations.

---

MODAL VERB

IF

[B1] used to say what might happen if something else happens

Dictionary examples:
What would you do if you lost your job? They knew there would be trouble unless the report was finished by the next day.

Learner example:
I was just wondering if you would ask me that, because if you didn't, I would – I just love shopping!

SAID/THOUGHT

[B1] used as the past form of 'will' to talk about what someone said or thought

Dictionary examples:
Archie said he would see his brother tomorrow. They thought that she would never recover.

Learner example:
He said to me he would like to come back soon.
WILLING/ABLE

[B1] (ALSO 'd) used as the past form of 'will' to talk about what someone was willing to do or what something was able to do

Dictionary examples:
The car wouldn't start this morning.
I asked her to talk to him, but she wouldn't.

Learner example:
My parents wouldn't let me stay in a hotel alone.

IMAGINE

[B1] (ALSO 'd) used to talk about a situation that you can imagine happening

Dictionary example:
It would be lovely to go to New York.

Learner example:
It would be great to join you and your friends in the mountains.

Would you mind...?

[B1] used to request something politely

Dictionary example:
Would you mind sharing a room?

Learner example:
Would you mind if I called you, to know what I've missed?

would rather

[B1] used to show that you prefer to have or do one thing more than another

Dictionary examples:
I'd rather have a beer.
Which would you rather do – go swimming or play tennis?
Wouldn't you rather finish it tomorrow?

OFTEN

[B2] (ALSO 'd) used to talk about things that happened often in the past

Dictionary example:
He would always turn and wave at the end of the street.

Learner example:
Since my childhood I have always been fond of swimming. I would usually spend my summer holidays on a campsite near a river with my family.

would sooner

[C2] would prefer

Dictionary example:
I'd sooner spend a bit more money than take chances with safety.
Learner example:
However, with many living examples of unemployed people getting by on benefits, some young people have been influenced to think that they would sooner live on benefits than work all week and receive moderate wages.

would-be /ˈwʊd.bi/

ADJECTIVE
[C2] wanting or trying to be

Dictionary example:
a would-be artist/politician

Learner example:
Her schoolmates were greatly surprised that a would-be lawyer with a promising career like her had made such a decision.

wound /wuːnd/

NOUN [C]
[B2] an injury, especially one that is made with a knife or bullet

Dictionary examples:
a gunshot wound
a chest/leg wound a flesh wound

Learner example:
Rollo discovered that his best friend was implicated in the penicillin racket: the racketeer would put sand into penicillin without worrying about the great suffering that they caused to people who needed penicillin for their wounds.

VERB [T USUALLY PASSIVE]
[B2] to injure someone, especially with a knife or gun

Dictionary example:
The police chief was badly wounded in the explosion.

Learner example:
Harry was wounded on his leg.
wrap /ræp/

VERB [r] (-pp-)

COVER
[B1] to cover or surround something with paper, cloth or other material

Dictionary examples:
She wrapped the present and tied it with ribbon.
Wrap the chicken in foil and cook it for two hours.

PROTECT
[B2] to cover someone with material in order to protect them

Dictionary examples:
She wrapped the baby in a blanket.
He wrapped a towel around his shoulders.

Learner example:
After a few seconds I gathered my wits and wrapped the towel around myself again.

wreck /rek/

Word family:
Nouns: wreck, wreckage
Verbs: wreck

VERB [r]
[C2] to destroy or badly damage something

Dictionary example:
The explosion wrecked several cars and damaged nearby buildings.

Learner example:
In addition, they [agree] that the solution to the traffic is of utmost importance in a big city, because noise and pollution from car exhaust pipes wreck the nerves of city dwellers.

NOUN [c]

VEHICLE
[C2] a vehicle or ship that has been destroyed or badly damaged

Dictionary examples:
Divers exploring the wreck managed to salvage some coins and jewellery.
The burnt-out wrecks of two police cars littered the road.

Learner example:
We turned around and saw fumes rising in the air from the wreck of the plane.
PERSON

[C2] someone who is in a bad physical or mental condition

Dictionary example:
I was a complete wreck by the end of my exams.

Learner example:
So much of what I really appreciate in this life is connected to music and the events that surround it, so a loss of that would totally devastate me and turn me into a wreck!

wreckage /ˈrek.ɪdʒ/

Word family:
Nouns: wreck, wreckage
Verbs: wreck

NOUN [u]

[C2] the parts that remain of a car, ship, or aircraft that has been destroyed

Dictionary example:
Two survivors were pulled from the wreckage.

Learner example:
When resting next to the wreckage he had got bitten by a snake and had crept into the cockpit to die there.

wretched /ˈretʃ.ɪd/

ADJECTIVE

UNHAPPY

[C2] LITERARY very unhappy or ill

Dictionary example:
I’d been feeling wretched all day so I went to bed early.

Learner example:
As a result, some people will realise they were unable to achieve their ends when they were younger and will feel wretched.

BAD

[C2] very bad or of poor quality

Dictionary example:
The refugees were living in wretched conditions.
Learner example:
Because working leads to self-esteem, that is most vital for people, especially when they are in wretched conditions.

wrinkle /ˈrɪŋ.kl/

Word family:
Nouns: wrinkle
Adjectives: wrinkled

NOUN [c]

[C2] a small line on your face that you get when you grow old

Dictionary example:
This cream reduces the appearance of wrinkles.

Learner example:
And so time goes by and old age is closing [in]. One morning you notice the wrinkles around your eyes and the grey hair that doesn't keep any of the old colour.

wrinkled /ˈrɪŋ.kaɪld/

Word family:
Nouns: wrinkle
Adjectives: wrinkled

ADJECTIVE

[C2] with a lot of wrinkles

Dictionary example:
a wrinkled face

Learner example:
To this day, and for many years to come, this piece of music brings back the dirty wrinkled face of the loneliest person I've ever known.

wrist /rɪst/

NOUN [c]

[B2] the part of the body between the hand and the arm

Dictionary example:
I sprained my wrist playing squash.

Learner example:
I fell [o]n [some] stair[s] and hurt my wrist.
write  /raɪt/ (wrote, written)

Word family:
Nouns: writer, writing
Verbs: rewrite, write
Adjectives: written

VERB [I or T]

CREATE
[B1] to create a book, story, article, etc. or a piece of music

Dictionary examples:
He's writing a book on Colombia.
She writes for Time magazine.
Walton wrote the Cello Concerto in 1956.

Learner example:
Stephen King wrote this book.

PHRASAL VERB

write sb/sth down or write down sth PHRASAL VERB
[B1] to write something on a piece of paper so that you do not forget it

Dictionary example:
Did you write Jo's phone number down?

Learner example:
I wrote the address down and left the restaurant.

write sb/sth off or write off sb/sth PHRASAL VERB [C2] to decide that someone or something is not useful or important

Dictionary example:
They had written him off before they even met him.

Learner example:
She had written that man off.

write sb/sth up or write up sth PHRASAL VERB
[C1] to write something on paper or on a computer in a complete or final form, often using notes you have made

Dictionary example:
Have you written up that report yet?
writer /ˈraɪ.tə/

Word family:
Nouns: writer, writing
Verbs: rewrite, write
Adjectives: written

NOUN [c]
[B1] a person who writes books or articles to be published

Dictionary examples:
a travel/sports/fiction/crime writer
She is a well-known writer of children's books.

Learner example:
The last book I read was a true story written by a young South–American writer.

writing /ˈraɪ.tɪŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: writer, writing
Verbs: rewrite, write
Adjectives: written

NOUN [u]

STYLE
[B1] the way that someone writes

Dictionary example:
Do you recognise the writing on the envelope?

WORK
[B2] the activity of creating pieces of written work, such as books, stories, poems, etc., or the written work of one person or a group of people

Dictionary examples:
I did a course in creative writing.
She is studying women's writing of the 1930s.

Learner example:
Black humour is a distinguishable feature of his writing.

in writing
[B2] An agreement that is in writing is official and is proof of that agreement.

Dictionary example:
Please confirm your reservation in writing.
Learner example:
I [am] tell[ing] you in writing that I would like to help you.

---

written  /ˈrɪt.ən/

Word family:
- Nouns: writer, writing
- Verbs: rewrite, write
- Adjectives: written

ADJECTIVE

[B1] expressed in writing, or involving writing

Dictionary examples:
- written instructions
- a written exam

Learner example:
I would like you to tell me what subject you're teaching tomorrow and the pages of the homework, so I can do the written test [in the] next class.

---

wrong  /rɒŋ/

Word family:
- Adjectives: wrong
- Adverbs: wrong, wrongly

ADJECTIVE

get sth wrong

[B1] to produce an answer or result that is not correct, or to say or write something that is not correct

Dictionary examples:
- I got most of the answers wrong.
- The newspapers got the story completely wrong.

PROBLEM

[B1] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] If something is wrong, there is a problem.

Dictionary examples:
- You've been quiet all evening. Is there anything wrong?
- What's wrong?
- There's something wrong with my computer.

Learner example:
I didn't kn[o]w him, so I thought that there was something wrong.
NOT MORAL
[B2] [NEVER BEFORE NOUN] not considered morally acceptable by most people

Dictionary examples:
Children should be taught that violence is wrong.
It is wrong to tell lies.
What's wrong with having a bit of fun?

Learner example:
To sum up, I think it is wrong to keep animals in zoos.

NOT SUITABLE
[C1] not suitable or correct, or not as it should be

Dictionary examples:
She's the wrong person for the job.
She got in with the wrong crowd at university.

Learner example:
Personally I prefer to think that you gave the job to the wrong person.

get off/start on the wrong foot
[C2] to start a relationship or activity badly

Dictionary example:
He got off on the wrong foot with my parents by arriving late.

Learner example:
One of the greatest pleasures of reading "The Remains of the Day" would be to see the gradual development of the relationship between Stevens and Miss Kenton. From the beginning, they get off on the wrong foot.

ADVERB

go wrong
[B1] to develop problems

Dictionary example:
Something's gone wrong with my computer.

Learner example:
Despite all that went wrong, there was something I really enjoyed. It was visiting the Diamond Cave.

Don't get me wrong INFORMAL
[C2] used when you do not want someone to think that you do not like someone or something

Dictionary example:
Don't get me wrong, I like her, but she can be very annoying.
Learner example:
Don’t get me wrong, I love my aunts, I really do, but not as houseguests.

wrongly /ˈrɒŋ.li/

Word family:
Adjectives: wrong
Adverbs: wrong, wrongly

ADVERB

INCORRECTLY

[B2] not correctly

Dictionary example:
It has been said – wrongly – that Americans hate government.

Learner example:
Equally, the point about 'staying' is erroneous: we stayed at Riverside Hotel instead of Hotel Astrid, [which] closed last year, [and] Hotel Royal [was] wrongly [described as having] 'special rates' for students.

wrongly accused/convicted/imprisoned, etc.

[C1] accused or punished unfairly or illegally

Dictionary example:
She was wrongly convicted of drug smuggling.

Learner example:
You have also wrongly accused the organisers of spending too much money on organising the event.
xenophobia /ˌzen.əʊˈfəʊ.bi.ə/

NOUN [u]

[C2] extreme dislike or fear of people from other countries

Dictionary example:
They accused her of xenophobia.

Learner example:
This creates a climate of social tension. The number of poor people increase while the rich become richer and the middle-class tends to disappear; xenophobia and other cultural 'harassment' become popular, accompanied by more violence and increasing crime rates.

X-ray /ˈeks.reɪ/

NOUN [c]

[B2] a photograph that shows the inside of your body

Dictionary example:
They took an X-ray of his leg.

Learner example:
I was with my last patient trying to operate [on] his damage[d] tooth when I realized the X-Ray was on the wrong side and that I wasn't working on the damage[d] tooth.
yacht /jɒt/

NOUN [c]
[B2] a boat with sails and sometimes an engine, used for either racing or travelling on for pleasure

Dictionary examples:
a luxury yacht
a yacht club

Learner example:
The class of boat that best fits my physical condition is the one called [5]nipe, that seems to be available at your yacht club.

yard /jɑːd/

NOUN [c]
[B1] a unit of measurement equal to three feet or approximately 91.4 centimetres

Dictionary example:
The garden is about 100 yards long.

Learner example:
I'm not a fitness maniac and I don't go to a shop which is 50 yards away from my house just to buy a newspaper, but if you go to school, why not go by bike[?]

yawn /jɔːn/

VERB [i]
[B2] to take a deep breath with your mouth wide open, because you are tired or bored

Dictionary example:
I can't stop yawning – I must be tired.

Learner example:
I think that the maths lesson is the most suitable one to be recorded. Watching ourselves yawning and nearly asleep would really reflect how boring maths [is].
year /jɪə/

NOUN

_for years_
_[B1] for a long time_

Dictionary example:
Roz and I have been going there for years.

Learner example:
I had not seen him for years.

_10/20, etc. years sb's junior_ _[C2] 10/20, etc. years younger than someone_

Dictionary example:
My wife is 8 years my junior.

Learner example:
I have a sister four years my junior and in my opinion we have no reason to complain.

yearn /jɜːn/

VERB

_yearn for sth; yearn to do sth_
_[C2] to want something very much with a feeling of sadness_

Dictionary examples:
They yearned for peace.
She yearned to get away.

Learner example:
I yearn to go there because I have never been to Africa before.

yell /jel/

VERB [I or T]

_[B2] to shout something very loudly_

Dictionary examples:
Our neighbours were yelling at each other this morning.
The child yelled out in pain.
"Just get out of here!" she yelled.
Learner example:
"Cut," yelled the director.

NOUN [C]

[B2] a loud shout

Dictionary example:
Suddenly there was a loud/great yell from the bathroom.

Learner example:
Suddenly a big yell came out of my throat.

yet /jet/

ADVERB

the best/worst, etc. yet

[B2] the best or worst, etc. until now

Dictionary examples:
Of all the songs I've heard tonight, that's the best yet.
That was my worst exam yet.

Learner example:
And that was my worst experience yet.

yet again

[B2] again after something has happened or been done many times before

Dictionary example:
The bus was late yet again.

Learner example:
Tom, thank you so much yet again for your interest. This talk is very important to me and to count on you is an honour for our college.

IN THE FUTURE

[C1] from now and for a particular period of time in the future

Dictionary examples:
She won't be back for a long time yet.
Our holiday isn't for weeks yet.

Learner example:
It's a fact that everybody knows that living in Poland is not easy now and it won't be for a long time yet.

as yet

[C1] formal until and including this time
Dictionary examples:
We haven’t needed extra staff as yet, but may do in the future.
No ambulances had as yet managed to get across the river.

Learner example:
I would like to do something about it, but as I can’t imagine building anything near my beautiful house (because I’m afraid it would destroy its wonderful harmony), I have no idea as yet how to solve this problem.

yet another/more, etc.
[C2] used to show that you are surprised or annoyed that something is being repeated or increased

Dictionary example:
He’s given us yet more work to do.

Learner example:
The awe-inspiring view of the park must not be destroyed for yet another building.

could/may/might, etc. yet
[C2] used to say there is still a possibility that something will happen

Dictionary example:
He may win yet.

Learner example:
Weakened, the tunnel could yet crumble and fall at any time.

be/have yet to do sth
[C2] to not have done something that was expected before this time

Dictionary example:
They have yet to make a decision.

Learner example:
But she had yet to inform her fiancé.

CONJUNCTION
[B1] used to connect two words, phrases, or clauses when the second part adds something surprising to the first part

Dictionary examples:
simple yet effective
I agree it’s unlikely, yet she knows what she’s talking about.

Learner example:
It was huge and yet gracious.
yield  /jiːld/

VERB

[C2] to produce or provide something

Dictionary examples:
to yield a profit
The investigation yielded results.

Learner example:
It is to be hoped that my suggestion will be implemented and will yield immediate results.

yoga  /ˈjəʊ.gə/

NOUN [u]

[B1] a set of exercises for the mind and body, based on the Hindu religion

Dictionary example:
She does yoga three times a week.

Learner example:
We do yoga in a heated room so we sweat a lot.

you  /juː/

PRONOUN

you see

[C1] used when you are giving an explanation about something

Dictionary examples:
I didn't know she was Welsh, you see.
You see, it was already late by that time.

Learner example:
Family matters had to stay in the family, you see.

young  /jʌŋ/

Word family:
Nouns: younger
Adjectives: young the young [B2] young people generally

Dictionary examples:
it's the sort of music that appeals mainly to the young.
I have nothing against mini-skirts, but I think they're strictly for the young.

Learner example:
In my opinion the young should work rather than wait for their pocket money.

youngster /ˈjʌŋ.stər/

Word family:
Nouns: younger
Adjectives: young

NOUN [C]
[C1] a young person, especially an older child

Dictionary example:
He talked to the youngsters about the dangers of drugs.

Learner example:
Like many other nations worldwide, with mastering much more knowledge and skills of information technology than [the] elder group of people, it is not surprising that Chinese youngsters learn more than their previous generations did about what is happening around the world.

your /jɔːr/

DETERMINER

PEOPLE GENERALLY
[B1] belonging or relating to people generally

Dictionary examples:
Of course you want the best for your children.
Garlic is good for your blood.

Learner example:
Riding [a] bicycle is a good [way of maintaining] personal fitness and doesn't harm your health either.
yours /jɔːz/

Word family:
Nouns: faith
Adjectives: faithful
Adverbs: faithfully

PRONOUN

Yours sincerely
[B1] FORMAL used at the end of formal letters when you know the name of the person you are writing to

Dictionary example:
Yours sincerely, Emma Clarke.

Learner example:
I’m going to ask Tom for the [work] I will miss. Yours sincerely,

Yours faithfully
[B2] used to end a formal letter to someone whose name you do not know

Dictionary example:
Yours faithfully, Katherine Smith

Learner example:
Yours faithfully, SAMSON LAM (READER) yourself /jɔːˈself/ (plural yourselves)

PRONOUN

EMPHASIS
[B2] used to give special emphasis to the subject of the sentence

Dictionary example:
If you yourself ever need help, would you know where to get it?

Learner example:
If you are thinking of taking it up yourself always do [a] warm-up exercise before you run, don't go too fast at the beginning, and don't overdo it.

PEOPLE GENERALLY
[B2] used when both the subject and object of the verb are 'you', and 'you' is also being used to refer to people generally

Dictionary example:
You tell yourself everything's all right but you know it's not really.
Learner example:
You help yourself by doing some exercise.

Youth /juːθ/

Noun

Young people

[B1] [u + SINGULAR OR PLURAL VERB] young people generally

Dictionary examples:
the youth of today
a youth club

Learner example:
Finally I decided to join a new youth club in my town.

Sb’s youth

[B2] the period of time when someone is young

Dictionary example:
I was a fairly good football player in my youth.

Learner example:
I played several kinds of sports during my youth, but now I am not a member of any club.
Zebra /ˈzeb.rə/

Noun [c]

[B2] an African animal like a horse with black and white lines

Dictionary example:
We saw a zebra in the distance.

Learner example:
Otherwise there would be many children and grown-ups who [would have] never seen an elephant, a tiger, a zebra etc.

Zero /ˈzɪə.roʊ/

Number (plural zeros or zeroes)

Temperature

[B1] the temperature at which water freezes in degrees centigrade

Dictionary example:
The temperature is expected to drop to ten degrees below zero tonight.

Learner example:
We have to learn that [it] is not natural for a lion [to live] in a country where, in winter, [the] temperature can fall below zero.

Zip /zip/

Noun

[B2] [c] a thing for fastening clothes, bags, etc. consisting of two rows of very small parts that connect together

Dictionary examples:
to do up/undo a zip
I can’t open my bag – the zip has stuck.

Learner example:
Suddenly the zip of my new dress broke.
NOUN [c]
[B1] an area where a particular thing happens, that is used for a particular purpose, or where there are particular rules

Dictionary examples:
an earthquake zone
a nuclear-free zone
He was charged with driving 75 mph in a 55 mph zone.
The UN Security Council has established a no-fly zone.

Learner example:
It is a very clean city with a lot of car-free zones.